United Fund Drive Extended Here

$100,000 Short of Local Quota but Goal in Sight

$45,650 Turned In at Last Meeting; Workers Urged to Report

Pontiac Area United Fund's 1953 campaign was extended today as closing day found workers still almost $100,000 short of their $487,200 goal.

The drive to raise funds for 53 local, state and national agencies had been scheduled to end at midnight tonight.

But the $45,650 in returns reported at campaign headquarters in Hotel Pontiac yesterday brought the drive to within shooting distance of its goal. Tally sheets showed $387,892, or 79 per cent of the quota.

"We'll keep the campaign open until we reach our goal," Mayor Arthur J. Law, campaign chairman, said today.

"We're sure the money is there—but we can't count it until it's turned in at headquarters," he stated.

United Fund leaders commented that drive volunteers, especially in the commercial division, seemed to need more time to get in their returns.

The commercial team had reported just $75,731 this morning against its $129,000 quota, including Waterford.

Drive executives added that some would-be givers have not yet been called on by volunteers and returns from others are still on workers' desks.

Industries and their employes led the drive with $287,900 this morning—89 per cent of their goal.

Geographical returns Thursday, many of them from Waterford, brought the door-to-door canvassing team's reports to $9,261—about 66 per cent of the division quota.

Local drive leaders report $15,000 has been earmarked for this area from the Detroit United Foundation's campaign in the Birmingham-Bloomfield-Franklin section.

Local drive leaders hope Pontiac's share will total $22,-

Trieste Rioting by Pro-Italians Kills Six More

U. S. and British Troops Quell Disorders; Death Toll Mounts to 8

By WEBB McKINLEY

TRIESTE (AP) — Savage rioting flared again today in this disputed Adriatic port city. Police fired into the ranks of thousands of pro-Italian demonstrators and the death toll in two days of bloody clashes mounted to eight, with six slain today.

Late today British and American troops with fixed bayonets marched into the trouble area and restored order.

At least 60 persons, mostly students, were in hospitals with police-inflicted bullet wounds. The British-trained territorial police suffered injuries when a hand grenade was tossed in their midst from today's milling mob of at least 10,000. Three or more police were wounded. Unconfirmed reports said one or more had died.

It was the first time American troops had been called in to help quell the bitter demonstrations. British and American forces, which occupy this city, have previously been posted merely as guards around buildings where their personnel were working.

In addition to the violence here, demonstrations flared in Rome and other Italian cities. Resentment was expressed against the British and Americans.

A crowd in Rome surrounded the U. S. Embassy and shouted "Assassins, Assassins." Police broke up the crowd with tear gas and clubs and arrested scores.

U. S. Ambassador Clare Boothe Luce conferred with Italian Premier Giuseppe Pella. She returned to the embassy in time to see the demonstrators seize a fire

Finds FBI Data Wasn't Heeded by Ex-President

Cites Advancement of Harry Dexter White in Spite of Bad Reports

CHICAGO (AP) — Atty. Gen. Brownell said today that Harry Dexter White, assistant secretary of the treasury in the Truman administration, was a Russian spy, but was kept in the government even after the FBI reported this to the White House.

The attorney general charged that "in the face of this information" President Truman advanced White to the important position of executive director for the United States in the International Monetary Fund.

Brownell described Truman's actions in the matter as "incredible."

Brownell presented an extensive outline of White's associations with the last Democratic administration in a speech prepared for the Executives Club of Chicago.

He asserted that "it is a source of humiliation to every American that during the period of the Truman administration the Communists were so strikingly successful in infiltrating the government of the United States."

This, he said, had left to the Eisenhower regime a "very difficult task" of weeding out subversive elements from the federal payroll.

White came into the government during the Roosevelt administration. He died Aug. 15, 1948.

In recent years, White name has come repeatedly into congressional investigations of subversive influences.

Elizabeth Bentley, who has asserted that she once worked as courier for a Communist spy ring in Washington, named White at one time as an alleged participant in the ring.

Brownell recounted that White, holding numerous degrees from leading universities of the country, entered government service in 1934 and steadily progressed upward "until by 1945 he was one of the most important men in the United States government."

His service included duties with the Tariff Commission, the Treas-

Pro-Red PWs Seize Two Indians to Force Hearing

PANMUNJOM (AP) — Twenty-two Americans and one British prisoner who allegedly chose communism today held two Indian officers for more than four hours to force the Repatriation Commission to hear complaints, the commission chairman announced tonight.

Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, Indian chairman of the commission, said the officers were not harmed.

The full commission visited the north camp where the prisoners are held.

Thimayya said the prisoners handed them a long, typewritten protest against "violation by the United Nations Command and the custodian force, India."

The general said the prisoners particularly wanted the commission to censor their mail to eliminate allied propaganda resigned to "intimidate, slander, coerce and bribe" them.

"I asked them what we should do in the case of a letter from a man's wife who writes 'oh, darling please come home to me' and they seemed a little unclear on that point," said Thimayya.

He said the commission may work out an arrangement so officers read off names and addresses and let the prisoners pick out the letters they want.

A U.N. Command spokesman said it "has no knowledge of what has been sent to the prisoners in the north camp through the U. S. mails.

"Nor have we any knowledge of who has sent mail to the prisoners."

The prisoners complained that they have received many "stereotyped letters" from people they do not know.

In Munsan, an Indian officer who accompanied the NNRC to the compound said the spokesman group was made up of the Briton, the American and nine Koreans. This group of 11 came out of the compound and dealt with the NNRC after immediately releasing the two officers. The other inmates either played volleyball, joined in community singing, or watched from a hilltop during the conference.

Williams Orders Slashes in State Budget Requests

LANSING (UP)—Gov. G. Mennen Williams today ordered "drastic cuts" in preparation of next year's State budget to be presented to the Michigan Legislature in January.

The governor directed the Department of Administration to wield its pruning knife to achieve a balanced budget after learning that agency requests for 1954-55 funds total $96,000,000 more than current appropriations.

Controller John Lederle said State departments, boards, and commissions have filed requests for appropriations totaling $583,000,000 for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1954.

Legislative budget appropriations for the current year amount to $487,000,000.

"It should be re-emphasized to all agencies that there is absolutely no possibility of a State budget in the amount of their total requests," Williams said.

"The astronomical total of $583,000,000 is far in excess of any anticipated revenues, and beyond the ability of the taxpayers to pay.

It is recognized that the agency requests for funds include many meritorious projects. It would be wonderful if we had the money to do all these things and I am sure the agencies are motivated by a desire to give better service to the public.

"But the amount we can spend in the next fiscal year has to be circumscribed by the available revenues.

"The legislature has levied a new tax upon Michigan business. Many thousands of business men are beginning to pay that tax for the first time this fall. I am determine that the budget recommended for 1954-55 shall be within the State's income as augmented by the business receipts tax."

Frederika Ailing on Detroit Visit

Greek King Paul Tours Motor City as Queen Rests at Hotel

DETROIT (UP) — Pert little Queen Frederika of Greece was confined to her hotel room by illness today while King Paul toured the Motor City and an automobile plant.

Exhausted by the feverish pace she has followed since the royal couple landed in the United States last week, the Queen was ordered to rest.

Her personal physician, Dr. Thomas Doxiadis, said the gracious little Queen, who has captured the hearts of everyone she has met, is suffering with "a feverish cold."

"However, she is in no danger," the doctor added.

Her lady-in-waiting said the Queen "feels bad about missing today's program because she has looked forward to it for a long time."

The program to be followed by King Paul included a short tour of downtown Detroit, a reception at Veterans Memorial, lunch and a tour of Ford Motor Company's giant River Rouge plant.

The royal couple, who arrived in Detroit last night, board a train for Chicago at 4:45 p.m.

2nd Quadruplet Dies in Lansing

Remaining Van Alstine Babies Reported to Be in Good Condition

LANSING (AP) — The second of Lansing's Van Alstine quadruplets died today.

Donald Ray, first of the quadruplets born Oct. 26 to Mrs. June Van Alstine died at Edward W. Sparrow hospital where it has lived in an incubator since its birth.

The death was attributed to cardio-respiratory failure. The fourth of the quads previously had expired.

The mother of Lansing's second set of quadruplets born within a quarter of a century here has been home for two days and has been reported in good conditoon. The hospital said the two remaining babies were in good condition.

The babies' mother, the former Mrs. June Trollman, 32, and the father, Glenn W. Van Alstine, 34, were married Oct. 29 in a speeded-up marriage that attracted the attention of the nation.

Mrs. Van Alstine had been divorced from her first husband in 1944. Her new husband was divorced from his first wife six months ago.

Gilleos Receive Prison Terms

Judge Gives Husband Life Sentence; Wife Gets 15 to 30 Years

Eugene Gilleo, 27, was sentenced to life imprisonment today by Oakland County Circuit Judge L. Doty for the Aug. 2 slaying of 58-year-old John Caruso, Detroit restaurateur, in Oak Park.

Roberta Gilleo, 22, received a 15 to 30 year sentence in the Detroit House of Correction. Eugene had pleaded guilty to first degree murder Oct. 21 and his wife pleaded guilty to second degree murder.

He accepted his sentence calmly.

His wife stood erect as sentence was pronounced and then walked back to the first row of spectators with Oakland County policewoman Gertrude Barrett.

The pair admitted the bludgeon-slaying of Caruso who was lured from his restaurant at 10339 Woodward Ave. by Roberta. They told authorities after their capture in Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 18 that robbery motivated their crime but they didn't intend to kill Caruso.

A total of $35 was taken from Caruso's pockets before his body was dumped in a roadside ditch 25 miles south of Toledo, Aug. 3.

8 Missing Miners Are Feared Dead

BONANZA, Utah (AP) — Two rescue workers, in a giant metal bucket, dropped deep into the smoke-filled maw of a blast-wrecked gilsonite mine early today but found no trace of eight missing miners.

Little hope was held that the men, trapped 500 feet below the surface by an explosion and fire yesterday, were still alive.

Fellow miners thought they heard faint cries coming out of the debris last night. However, George Collins, day shift boss, and Joe Postma, a miner, said only falling rocks and sagging timbers broke the eerie silence when they were lowered to the 300-foot level.

Hit-Run Driver Crashes Into Pontiac Home

A hit-run driver who failed to stop at the dead end of East Huron at Douglas St. this morning plowed his auto into a coal shed and then crashed into the home of George L. Saffron of 84 Douglas St.

The impact tore several blocks loose from the house and wrecked the shed beyond repair, according to Mrs. Saffron.

Mrs. Saffron said she was awakened by the noise but didn't realize what had happened until she was informed by neighbors, who reported the accident to Pontiac Police.

Neighbors said they saw a late model, two-tone car speed away after the crash. Occupants of the house were unhurt.

3 Interpreters Help DP to Flunk Test

SHAWNEE, Okla. (AP)—Highway Patrol Examiners Fred Green and George Helms bumped head on into a linguistic road block when they attempted to test Michael Szaizko, a 49-year-old displaced Russian.

Szaizko doesn't speak English. His wife, a displaced German, speaks German and Russian but no English. Their daughter—Wanda, 6, could speak German and English but not Russian.

So Green and Helms first tried to give the test by talking to the girl, who told Mama, who told Papa. The answers came back the same route, except it all got too confusing.

So another displaced German, Jelsi Joelo, a mechanic here, was called in. He speaks German and English and passed on the questions to the wife who relayed them to Szaizko.

He promptly flunked the driving test.

Ike's Order Permits Flow of More U.S. Information

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today issued an order designed to give citizens a freer flow of information about their government without jeopardizing national security.

Effective Dec. 15, the order replaces a controversial measure former President Truman put on the books Sept. 24, 1951.

In announcing the forthcoming repeal of the Truman order, Atty. Gen. Brownell denounced it as smacking of "dictatorship."

The Cabinet officer also said that under the old order government officials could "cover up dereliction" of duty and mistakes.

Truman, responding to similar criticism from editors when his order was issued, denied there was any cover-up involved. He said the measure actually would promote the flow of news and sought only to keep security secrets from potential enemies.

Brownell outlined the new Eisenhower order at a news conference before leaving for Chicago to address a meeting of the Associated Press Managing Editors Assn. today.

He said the measure includes suggestions made by that organization, the American Society of Newspaper Editors and representatives of other news media.

In brief, the Eisenhower order:

1. Eliminates the "restricted" category for classifying government data as harmful to national security if made public—leaving only "top secret," "secret" and "confidential."

2. Sets up a system for receiving complaints, from newsmen and others outside the government, and for checking up on the program.

3. Takes away document-classi-

Probe of Racket in Home Modernization Continues

DETROIT (AP) — The Michigan Corporation and Securities Commission continued investigations today into reports of widespread racketeering in home modernization.

Acting on complaints of 300 Wayne, Oakland and Macomb County contractors, Ward McCreedy, deputy commissioner in charge of building, urged that the license of a Detroit builder not be renewed.

McCreedy said that licenses under a new state law will not be issued before applicants are thoroughly investigated.

Yesterday's six-hour hearing saw Bernard Nathan, owner of the Construction and Building Co. of Detroit, accused by eight former customers of misconduct.

Following the hearing McCreedy said that he woud recommend that the commission deny Nathan a license.

The witnesses said that Nathan failed to complete contracts, contracted for work prohibited by zoning ordinances, upgraded materials, and made certain questionable credit arrangements.

McCreedy said Nathan had been previously notified that his license would be denied "because of complaints of customers." The hearing was an opportunity for him to face the accusations, McCreedy said.

Some 300 contractors have received similar notice, McCreedy said.

Wabeek-Jacobson Group Recommends Birmingham Build Paved Parking Lot

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM—A two or three year "trial period" of city-paved and operated surface level parking in the northwest quadrant of the city was suggested to local lawmakers by members of the Wabeek-Jacobson group last night.

Future parking development in the area would be based on the success in this original step toward ending the parking problem.

As suggested, the city would lease from the Wabeek-Jacobson group a portion of land suitable for 445 parking spaces, surface it, and manage it for two or three years at a probable expense of between $60,000 and $100,000.

Part of this cost would be returned in revenue, and following the trial period, the city commission could decide whether to buy the land and make certain commitments on future expansion.

The commission released the progress report compiled by the sponsoring group to the Residential Protective Association, which has voiced opposition to proposed parking plans for the area.

An additional hearing was tentatively scheduled for five weeks hence to enable the opposition group to study the reports and make recommendations.

City Manager Donald C. Egbert was instructed by the commission to recommend an expert to study methods of financing the project.

A night view of the Motor City, some 1,000 feet up in the air, was witnessed by 39 public health nurses of Oakland County and Birmingham teachers, as guests of Eastern and Capital airlines. The trip was arranged by Mrs. Anyce Gillette, city health nurse, and Clyde Reed, of the Institute for Economic Education.

The group also was briefed on some of the inside details of airline operation and made a tour of inspection through the air freight, express and postal terminals.

Following the trip, small groups were taken to the weather station and control tower.

Commenting on the plane ride, Mrs. Gillette said, "I couldn't help but think how vulnerable we are to air attack. The task of blacking out a city like Detroit seems almost impossible. A view like this makes one hope we can go on living in peace with other people."

The City Commission is reconsidering the tree spraying program against Dutch Elm disease which it scrapped last year.

Lawmakers received a letter from Oak Park Planning Commission this week, inviting the city forester to a meeting designed to coordinate local efforts against the disease.

Commissioner Dean Beier stated he understood it was possible to prevent spread of the blight to a great extent by spraying, regardless of inaction of neighboring areas. This was the reason the spraying plan was dropped by the commission previously.

Claims Soviet Spy Got Truman Nod

ury Department and the Export-Import Bank. At one time the treasury sent him to England to make special economic studies. On another occasion, Brownell said, former Treasury Secretary Morgenthau took him on a trip to Italy and North Africa.

White was described as having drafted the Morgenthau Plan for the treatment of Germany following World War II. This was a proposal in effect that Germany be reduced to a pastoral state, deprived of heavy industry. It was never adopted.

"Notwithstanding all this," Brownell said, "Harry Dexter White was a Russian Spy.

"He smuggled secret documents to Russian agents for transmission to Moscow," Harry Dexter White was known to be a Communist spy by the very people who appointed him to the most sensitive and important position he ever held in government service."

The attorney general went on then to declare that the FBI became aware of White's espionage activities early in his government career, "and from the beginning made reports on these activities to the appropriate officials in authority."

He continued:

"But these reports did not impede White's advancement in the administration.

"I can now announce officially, for the first time in public, that the records in my department show that White's spying activities for the Soviet government were reported in detail by the FBI to the White House by means of a report delivered to President Truman through his military aide, Brig. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, in December of 1945."

Brownell said that one month later Truman advanced White to the post with the International Monetary Fund. Thereupon, he said the FBI compiled a special and detailed report on White "and his espionage activities."

Winter Halts Rifle Shots; Instructor Looks to Spring

BIRMINGHAM — Old Man Winter is about to put his annual stop to the Girls' Rifle Club now concluding its third year at Birmingham High School, but George Ely, instructor of the program sponsored by the recreation board, is already predicting an overflow turnout for next year.

The program has been designed to teach the safety of firearms and safe range procedure to as many as possible. Because of limited personnel and lack of facilities, however, no more than 25 girls can be on the team each year.

That number has been meeting every Tuesday afternoon after school at the police range.

Using .22 caliber junior match rifles, they are given a novice's course on the mechanism of the gun and its operation. And more important, they learn and practice safety rules.

Miss Sally Reid and Miss Jeanetter Scovile, gym teachers at the high school, help supervise instruction.

Frank Whitney, athletic director, said a rifle team for girls is an innovation in the area and that the program will probably not be expanded until the school can acquire its own facilities.

A boy's rifle team is conducted during the summer recreation program, he said, also under Recreation board supervision.

fying authority from 28 agencies, such as the American Battle Monuments Commission and the Veterans Administration.

4. Gives classifying authority to the heads only, with no power to delegate it to someone else, of 17 agencies, like the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Tennessee Valley Authority.

5. Permits the heads of other agencies, such as the Defense Department, to name an employe as classifying officer.

6. Defines what information is to be classified, how it is to be transmitted and stored, marked and, when indicated, destroyed.

A White House statement said the purpose of the order is to attain "a proper balance between the need to protect information important to the defense of the United States, and the need for citizens of this democracy to know what their government is doing."

The statement added:

"The issuance of this order will revise, in a manner more in keeping with the American tradition of freedom of information, existing requirements for the safeguarding of defense information."

Eisenhower made public a proposed draft of the order last June 17. He said then it would "open the door for citizens to obtain more information about their government" without endangering national security, and he invited suggestions regarding possible changes.

Brownell said the order in final form incorporates one major change—a system of review to insure that (1) information is not improperly withheld, and that (2) security data is properly safeguarded.

Detroit to Get Direct Dialing

Begin Automatic Phone Service to 60 Cities in December

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit telephone customers, beginning Dec. 13, will be able to dial direct any number in 60 southeastern Michigan and four Canadian communities.

The direct dialing region will reach from Port Huron on the north to Flat Rock on the south and Ann Arbor on the west. Flint and Monroe are scheduled to be added next spring.

After dialing is completed under the regional plan an operator will come in and ask your number, then an intricate switching apparatus will take over and ring the distant phone automatically.

When your party answers an automatic billing machine takes over, also, noting length of the call for addition to your monthly bill.

Michigan communities which Detroiters may dial direct after Dec. 13 include:

Algonac, Ann Arbor, Armada, Auburn Heights, Belleville, Berkley, Big Beaver, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Center Line, Chelsea, Clarkston, Clawson, Commerce, Dexter, Drayton Plains, East Detroit, Ferndale, Flat Rock, Franklin, Fraser, Grand Blanc, Harsens Island, Hazel Park, Huntington Woods.

Keego Harbor, Lake Orion, Lapeer, Leonard, Manchester, Marine City, Marysville, Mayfair, Mt. Clemens, New Baltimore, New Boston, New Haven, New Hudson, Oak Park, Orchard Lake, Oxford, Pleasant Ridge, Pontiac, Port Huron.

Rioting in Trieste Kills Four More

truck and turn hoses on police and toss tear gas bombs back.

Ten thousand demonstrated in Milan and marched on the British Consulate, but were turned back by police.

Rome demonstrators smashed windows in the British Embassy.

The British and Americans announced Oct. 8 that they intended to turn over administration of Zone A of the Trieste territory, including the city, to the Italians.

Yugoslavia declared its troops would march into Zone A the moment Italian military forces were sent in. Tension over Trieste, always a hot issue between Yugoslavia and Italy, heightened.

Today's Trieste rioting, involving an estimated 10,000 persons, was the worst of the three days in this city of predominantly Italian population.

Pro-Italian feeling for return of the city to Italy had been stirred by Wednesday's celebrations of the anniversary of the World War I armistice on the southern front. Italian troops had marched into the city on that day in 1918.

An uneasy calm was restored to the city around noon but British and American troops and police were on the alert for any new outbreaks.

The battling centered in Trieste's big waterfront Piazza Dell'Unita — Unity Square. After a hail of police bullets cleared the square, one company of American troops moved in to maintain order. Some Triestinis applauded enthusiastically as the troop assumed their positions.

The territorial police were cowering in the doorways. The demonstrators shouted at them "You can come out now, you assassins. The Americans are here."

The police had fired scores of rounds while the thousands of demonstrators milled in the square. Many persons were clubbed. Twelve ambulances carried away the wounded.

Pontiac Man in Hospital After Night Auto Crash

A Pontiac man, hospitalized with auto accident injuries, was unable to give any details of the accident which occurred just after midnight on Dixie Highway in Waterford Township, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Roy E. Mawhorter, 27, of 545 Hanley St., suffered eye and knee bruises and a concussion in the smashup which destroyed his car. His condition today is fair, according to Pontiac General Hospital.

Petition Pathetic Hubbard Claims

Dearborn Mayor Gets Copy of Recall Paper Given Williams

DETROIT (UP) — Mayor Orville Hubbard of Dearborn said today a grand jury petition demanding his removal from office was "ridiculous and pathetic."

Hubbard, who was elected to his seventh straight term earlier this week, was silent Thursday when he was presented a copy of the petition prepared by the one-man grand jury of Circuit Judge Miles N. Culehan. He answereed back later.

"This whole thing is ridiculous and pathetic," the controversial mayor said. "This petition is a confession by Culehan that he has not been able to find cause for indictment."

The 35-page petition, directed to Gov. G. Mennen Williams, was rushed to Lansing by State police. The governor may hear the charge himself or direct a probate judge to review the case. There was no immediate word on what action Williams planned to take.

Hubbard was charged with malfeasance and nonfeasance in office and wilful neglect of duty. The petition cited 20 specific charges against him.

The petition accused Hubbard of such things as allowing overspending of budget appropriations, allowing public money to be used for surfacing parking lots of churches and private businesses, permitting unnecessary trips by city officials at the expense of taxpayers, appointing a controller he knew was not a qualified accountant, deleting from the city budget money for an audit which is required each year by the city charter and refusing to answer grand jury questions relative to receiving a gift from an official of Peoples Outfitting Co. on ground that his answer might tend to incriminate him.

Peacock Successful in Defending Crown

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Billy Peacock successfully defended his American bantamweight boxing championship last night when Johnny Ortega of Alameda failed to come out for the ninth round in their battle at Oakland Auditorium.

The victory went to the 117-pound Los Angeles fighter after the commission doctor stopped the scheduled 12-rounder because Ortega had a broken nose.

Ortega at 113 pounds was a willing fighter, but couldn't get far with his opponent, who also had a two-inch height advantage. Peacock scored consistently with left and rights to Ortega's head and body.

The Associated Press score sheet gave Ortega only two rounds.

COUNTERACTS HUNGER

Just recently a well known scientist perfected a new tiny capsule that combines not one but ALL THE RECOGNIZED proven aids to reducing he found in all the advertised products offered today. It contains the concentrated proteins you've read and heard about. It combines the vitamins and minerals often lost when cutting off fattening foods containing these needed vitamins and minerals. It combines the vegetable cellulose that has no calories yet expands when it absorbs water thereby helping to give the feeling of a full contented stomach. Yet these tiny new capsules contain not just one but ALL the drugless reducing aids he found to be needed to actually automatically make you eat less without conscious effort and like it! In fact these tiny capsules are so packed with vitamins and minerals, protein and non-caloric filling food, they actually equal and exceed many a meal.

FAT GOES FAST

You'll be surprised at the fat you lose the first week, the inches that disappear, the first month. No hunger, no strict dieting, no drugs, no exercise. And the cost is absolutely nothing unless you grow slim, more youthful-looking, more active and enjoy better health.

Adenauer in Full Control

As a result of the provincial election in Hamburg, Chancellor Adenauer's coalition government now has two-thirds control in both houses of the West German Parliament.

In last Sunday's voting the Adenauer bloc won 62 of the 120 legislative seats. This entitles it to name all three Hamburg representatives in the Bundesrat. The Chancellor's majority in the more important Bundestag, or lower house, was assured when the Refugee Party joined his coalition.

Thus the young Republic's dominant party has achieved a measure of legislative control unapproached in either the United States, Britain, France or Italy.

For the United States this means that Adenauer now is in a position to ratify the European defense treaties. If the West German supreme court should object to the pacts the Chancellor has enough support to amend the constitution.

Adenauer's political victories have not been without their price, however. Bonn's greater political solidarity has increased French worry over a rearmed Germany. Also, in return for the support given his coalition, Adenauer is under new nationalistic pressure from some of his own followers.

Thus, while his task in the field of foreign affairs has been made easier, his problems at home have become more numerous. Fortunately, the Chancellor's record shows him well able to meet the tests ahead.

Peasants Get Shah's Land

One of the most cheering bits of news out of Iran since the fall of the fanatical Mossadegh is the report that the youthful Shah has resumed his program of land reform.

Evidence of this came in words and pictures of a recent ceremony in the capital city of Tehran. There Mohammed Reza Pahlevi publicly handed over ownership documents covering 32,000 acres of crown lands to 1,600 share-cropping peasants.

Thus the Shah resumed the long range program of land reform he launched in 1951 only to have it violently opposed by wealthy land owners and finally suspended by Premier Mossadegh.

The Shah understood then that much of Iran's internal discontent stemmed from the peasants' land hunger and their merciless exploitation by greedy and shortsighted land owners, including Mossadegh.

★ ★ ★

It may be a generation before the harm done in Iran by the deposed premier can be erased. But it is good to know that the political situation has stabilized sufficiently to permit resumption of this long and urgently needed reform.

No Job for a Layman

Washington dispatches indicate Pentagon opinion is sharply divided as to what treatment should be accorded 36 American airmen who signed germ warfare confessions.

★ ★ ★

Privately, however, military colleagues of the "confessors" are unanimous in their resentment over the attitude of Senator Russell of Georgia. The ranking Democrat of the Senate Armed Services Committee thinks the fliers should be dismissed "without honor." Such a stand they consider presumptuous on the part of a politician who never has risked his own life in combat.

★ ★ ★

Aside from this agreement there seem to be two conflicting views on what should be done with the men who cracked only after months of torture at the hands of their captors in Korea. One Marine, a veteran of Korea, World War II and the Nicaragua jungle fighting of 1927, summed up the case in favor of the accused men.

"How," he asked, "could anyone pass judgment on these men who has not himself lived through the horrors they went through."

This attitude was supported in the main by Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, who revealed his own attempt at suicide in fear that Red torture might force him to bare military secrets.

The opposite view was voiced by a West Point colonel with a top combat record. While sympathizing with the "confessors" he cited the conduct of those who died rather than talk, as in accord with our military code and added:

"Once you start amending it, or tampering it, or finding mitigating circumstances to excuse its violation, then — God help us the next time we have to fight."

★ ★ ★

We do not believe any layman, not even Senator Russell, is qualified to sit in judgment on so perplexing and emotionally disturbing a question. For that reason we do believe that Defense Secretary Wilson is right in leaving disposition of the individual cases to military boards of inquiry.

The Administration is going in heavily for fact-finding, which is probably a mistake, as it may find many more facts than it can dodge.

Daughter Asks Help From County Welfare

My mother is on old age assistance, drawing all she can and under heavy medical needs. I have asked the Welfare to help with her medical needs.

My husband is retired and receives a small pension to pay for our home and living.

The Welfare asked me to have the rest of the family help with our mother's medical needs, and to have the prosecutor aid in getting them to help, only to have them say they would not help.

I have written to the Governor and he has said he would see what he could do, and the pension visitors have been grand, but the Welfare never offers to do anything.

Mother has been a taxpayer and has lived here 58 years. We see that she has a clean home and her meals, but we can provide the medical needs only by using money needed for our house payments.

Indian Summer Editorial Praised by Press Reader

Three cheers for the editorial on Indian Summer. I have had considerable discussion on the subject during this past month when our regular summer season was spilling over into October.

Some persons seem to take a defeatist attitude when Labor Day arrives; to them, it's the end of summer and the fine autumn weather that follows is termed Indian Summer.

It's my conviction that Indian Summer is a November phenomenon and through this conviction I was driven some days ago to carve a rhyme. Any similarity to a Spencerian Stanza is purely coincidental.

Ike May Have Lost Political Skirmishes but Hopes to Win His Forward Plans

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — They have a White House rule that doesn't permit first-person quotation of everything a President says in a press conference.

But it's most unfortunate because by all odds the most interesting piece of news about the elections was what Eisenhower said about it to the press.

• • •

There were at least three opportunities for him to be devious — to avail himself of the tricks of the political game or to boom forth with a sweeping statement of confidence in the future of his party, as if nothing adverse had happened Tuesday.

• • •

But he turned them all aside and talked frankly, earnestly and without guile.

For one thing the President declined to be drawn into an analysis or interpretation of the election results. He frankly said he didn't know any more about it than — if as much as — some of the newspapermen interrogating him.

But he did recognize that in some places Republicans had lost and in some places they had won, and he didn't feel that he should say whether or not the election was a test of his policies because he frankly didn't know.

At one point in the conversation Eisenhower told the press that as most people know, he is a novice in politics and has never claimed to be a politician.

But he does pin his faith to a belief in the common sense of the American people when they are informed.

He thinks they have to be informed as to the basic facts—and some of these facts are rather stark and disagreeable — and the administration has the duty of putting forth and enacting a program that the mass of the American people will say is a good one. The job of the administration, he says, is to provide a dynamic and forward-looking program.

When the reporters asked him if perhaps some voters thought they hadn't yet gotten the change they voted for last autumn, the President said he thought the kind of change the people wanted was an orderly and progressive change and not just any other kind. He added they were going to get it and are getting it.

Throughout the press conference, the President handled himself with calmness and poise and didn't become entangled in the traps into which some of the questions might have led him.

An effort was made to get him to weaken his recent statement that he would favor the election of Republicans everywhere.

The inquiry was whether he would support a Republican with a record that was not in support of his administration.

Previously the President had remarked that his idea of endorsing Republicanism generally the other day was not intended to say he supported every candidate, irrespective of individual character or integrity.

But, even if this wasn't involved, he was then asked, would he support anti-administration Republicans for re-election in Congress next year?

The President declined to commit himself to what he would do about this, but he gave the impression he was not going to become involved in local contests with specific individuals in his party.

Thus the President tried also to convey the idea that, in saying he had "lost skirmishes before" — and he permitted direct quotation on that phrase — he wasn't commenting on individual races but, as titular leader of the party, on the fact that some Republican contests were lost.

The President didn't hesitate to answer another question as to whether, having lost skirmishes, he intended "to win the war."

This obvious reference to future congressional elections drew from the President the earnest statement that he never went into a war to lose one.

The use of such words as progressive and forward-looking indicate that the President has definite ideas as to the kind of a legislative and executive program the country expects from him.

But it is clear he isn't going to fall for the strategy of the New Dealers and Fair Dealers who are constantly trying to get him to enter into a knockdown, dragout fight with the members of his own party.

This is usually cloaked with the pious advice that Eisenhower should assert "leadership."

But a President with both the House and the Senate almost evenly divided in party strength doesn't pick fights with his own party and split it still further.

If he is tactful — and Eisenhower certainly is inherently a conciliator rather than a challenger — he will try to persuade his party following to adopt measures that are the result of common counsel and mutual concession.

Case Records of a Psychologist

He Says It Is Possible to Turn Mate's Hate to Love

Joan's marriage was just about washed up. And that would have blighted not only her own happiness, but also have hurt the career of her talented dentist husband. She salvaged their happiness, even at the last moment, by resolutely following the psychological prescription below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case J-335: Joan J., aged 30, is the wife of the dentist whom I quoted yesterday.

"Dr. Crane, what can I do to save my marriage?" she spoke tearfully.

"For Peter says he can't stand me any longer. He wants a divorce. But that would be intolerable to my family, for they don't believe in divorce.

"Can't I win him back? Or is it too late?"

Love can be re-built, even if one party to the romance hates the other one. And that is not an exaggeration.

Several times I have described patients in this column who detested their mates, but who were madly in love again within a year.

But one of the two people involved, must use the proper psychological strategy. If the other one is willing to cooperate, that makes the task doubly easy.

But you can win your mate's affection again, even against the latter's wishes.

In Joan's case, I employed the "sandwich method" for giving her reproof regarding her slovenly habits in the home.

This "sandwich" plan means that you start off with an honest compliment. Then deftly insert the "meaty" or critical layer.

It is well to smile tolerantly and use the casual, "I wonder if it wouldn't be better if you tried very hard to be neat around the house. That's especially true since Peter is so meticulous."

I added another honest compliment to complete the sandwich. In this way, you can put across the needed reproof without offending the other person's ego.

So he gets the point, yet still likes you as a friend! And that is the ideal method for teachers and parents to use, too, with children.

Otherwise, the reproved person grows irritable and bitter and dislikes the one who corrected him.

Then I urged Joan to be very liberal with compliments for her mate, making it a solemn rule to give him a minimum of three spoken compliments every day.

In addition, she was to smile delightedly when he came home, for a smile is a dandy non-verbal compliment.

And she was to kiss him, Hollywood style, and put all the "oomph" into the act that she could muster.

"If you can get him to go through the motions of love," I warned her, "then he will soon begin to feel the corresponding emotions."

For emotions automatically follow the proper motions. You can't control emotions directly. But you can direct your motions, such as words, smiles, kisses, considerate acts, etc.

Well, Joan reported back to me that on the first night, Peter barely kissed her. It was an effort on his part.

But she kept up her role, and never let on that she was hurt by his impersonal attitude and studied aloofness.

"Before the end of the week, he wasn't so impersonal," she exulted, "for I could feel him weakening. And then he finally kissed me back again as he used to do during our courtship."

To further her strategy, I also gave her the bulletin "Sex Problems in Marriage." If you don't have a copy, send a stamped return envelope, plus a dime.

For a sexually adjusted married couple rarely will seek a divorce, even when many other glaring faults are present. But, even so, always correct your faults.

Switzerland once flattened a war in Europe by calling both sides home. Both armies were mercenary yodelers.

We could do same-wise by Italy and Yugo-Slappia by canceling the lend-loots flow of retalitory impedimenta.

We are mixed thoroughly into the alphabetical hassel in Trieste. Both sides are power-housed with American utensils.

So much so we may have to send a battalion of maintenance experts over to tool the repairs. Did you hep that Tito and Pella are running an excursion line of Patton tanks

The old boy would have loved that. Every day seven hundred Patton go-carts leave on schedule in the only direction possible in the Alps. Uphill.

This war wasn't started to get rid of army surplus. That's mostly canned goods, Paris guide books and an old colonel or two.

Troops are being ferried over Hannibal's shopping route in American trucks. They're armed with bazookas, powerful boing-boings and smokeless cookers.

INDIAN SUMMER

The lull that lies beneath November skies
Is like the quietude before the gale.
'Tis naught but shades of winter in disguise,
A farce of nature ringing through the dale.
Sweet reverie of August 'neath a veil.
Reflect ye well of springtime, toast the mood
Of fading autumn glimpses and inhale
Fall's final fleeting fragrance, Ah! you're wooed.
Enamored by Indian Summer's taunting interlude.

Brady Calls Alcohol Greater Menace to America Today Than Ever Before

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Way back, the American Medical Association passed the following resolution:

Whereas, We believe that the use of alcohol is detrimental to the human economy; and

Whereas, Its use in therapeutics as a tonic or stimulant and for food has no scientific value; therefore

Be it resolved, That the American Medical Association is opposed to the use of alcohol as a beverage; and

Be it further resolved, That the use of alcohol as a therapeutic agent should be discouraged.

That was and still is an honest appraisal of alcohol in medicine, but then, the AMA was honest in those days—poor but honest.

Today the AMA is rich, filthily rich. Why, just the weekly take from cigarette, pop and trick sugar promotion would be almost enough to pay a fabulous pension.

So far the organization has not made the break, but everytime I pick up a copy of the comic weekly, which I do with reluctance because it tends to reverse my peristalsis, I expect to find the first full color presentation of one or another "accepted" brand of booze.

The anti-alcohol resolution has never been rescinded, but if the whisky, beer and wine interests are ready to talk turkey the so-called medical organization can brush aside the old resolution and restore alcoholic liquors and beverages to the place they held in 19th century medicines as stimulants and tonics.

In any matter of health and happiness or life and death I'd hate to be at the mercy of a person or group of persons who are not teetotal abstainers.

A person, medical or lay, who thinks he can better solve a problem or use judgment or perform conscientiously while under the influence of a drink is in my opinion automatically disqualified.

Because if the drink contains enough alcohol to have an appreciable effect the alcohol benumbs, depresses, narcotizes the higher faculties first, so that the drinker is for a brief period free from the restraints of conscience, judgment and caution. I'd rather have a TTA operate on me.

It seems to me that alcohol is now a greater menace to America than ever before.

The churches can do nothing about it, lest they offend the sensitivities of wealthy citizens who derive their wealth directly or indirectly from alcohol.

But there is still one group of influential people who can't be intimidated—parents, uncles, aunts, grandparents, big brothers and big sisters of growing children.

In some instances these people have enough influence to persuade children 10 years of age to sign the pledge and renew it annually thereafter on birthday or other anniversary.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Woman Loses Guilt Complex at Police Station

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UP)—A little transaction at the police station cured a woman of a nervous breakdown and gave another $35 she lost at Santa Anita racetrack five years ago.

The deal was arranged by Dr. Samuel A. Reese, a psychiatrist. He explained yesterday that a woman patient was suffering from a breakdown stemming from a guilt complex.

She had found a wallet at the track in 1948, he said, and ever since has lived under the fear that if she turned it in to police she'd be arrested and if she didn't she'd be arrested.

Dr. Reese turned in the wallet and money for her. It was promptly claimed by an amazed Mrs. Blanche Brandstetter, whose driver's license was in it.

The doctor said his patient reported immediate relief.

Men Under 19 Face No Draft

Survey Reveals Most States Do Not Foresee Calling Youngsters Soon

WASHINGTON (AP)—No need to draft men under 19 in most states is indicated before next July unless draft calls skyrocket, an Associated Press survey showed today. The minimum draft age is 18½.

The survey of state selective service directors also found that a relative handful of men under 19 have been drafted since conscription was resumed shortly after the Korean War started in mid-1950. This does not count volunteers.

At least 13 states, New York City and the District of Columbia have drafted none or only a few men under 20 in recent months, according to the survey. Kentucky and Alabama haven't drafted any under 20 since World War II.

* * *

An earlier survey showed that 41 states dipped into the 19-year-old group to fill last April's draft calls. Since July the calls have dropped to 23,000 each month, allowing a lot of these states to slip back into drafting only 20-year-olds.

The big question before the state directors now is whether calls will jump considerably above 23,000 a month. November and December calls have already been announced at that quota.

Defense department officials have been considering raising the calls to about 37,000 a month starting in January. Some defense officials say such a jump is unlikely because of military budget limitations, although they don't discount the possibility of a smaller raise in the January-to-July calls.

* * *

The January draft call will be announced in a few days.

The calls will have to be much higher than 23,000 monthly after next June to replace draftees completing their two years of military duty. Defense officials estimate calls of about 45,000 for each of the 12 months following next June.

As long as draft calls remain at about the present level, many state directors indicated they wouldn't have to draft men under 19 in the near future.

The only state directors who didn't indicate they were in this position were for Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Ohio, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Utah, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

* * *

Directors for Rhode Island, South Carolina, Utah, Washington and Wisconsin either wouldn't comment on when they would be taking men between 18½ and 19 or said it was impossible to make an estimate.

The Iowa director said it would be about next April before he would be calling men below 19. The Louisiana director said it wouldn't be before next January. Wyoming and Ohio directors said it would be at least several months, while the Kentucky director said it would be next spring at least.

* * *

The states which are now taking none or few under 20 are: Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Mexico, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

12-Year-Old Girl Named '53 Young Homemaker

BOSTON (AP)—Pretty Kathy Szczebak, 12, of Springfield has been chosen the nation's "Typical Young Homemaker of the Year" and was cited last night at a dinner by the Girls Clubs of America.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bronislas Szczebak, who both work, Kathy usually cooks the family dinner. She also prepares breakfast for herself and her sister Barbara, 9.

Kathy was picked for the honor she did not have to cook herself. from a field of more than 4,000 members in the 48 states.

Will Run Crane Despite $50,000 Political Plum

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Joseph Tomaskovich, a 39-year-old crane operator who supports his wife and three children on an $85-a-week pay check, says he has no intention of quitting his job just because he'll pick up around $50,000 in the next four years as tax collector.

Tomaskovich, a Purple Heart veteran of World War II, was elected Tuesday to one of the choicest political jobs in Pennsylvania. He lives in Franklin Borough, a community of about 2,000 on the outskirts of Johnstown, where Bethlehem Steel Co. has a big plant—and is a big tax payer, contributing about $400,000 annually to the borough's coffers. The other taxpayers chip in about $100,000.

* * *

The tax collector doesn't have much work. Bethlehem just mails in the tax check to the collector and the collector deducts his 2½ per cent commission.

"It's really not a great deal of work," Tomaskovich laughed. "Of course, I have to fill in regular monthly reports but being tax collector in Franklin Borough, I'll have to admit, is a choice job.

"I'm lucky to get this extra job. I have a lot of friends. With the help of God, in the next four ears, maybe I can pay off the mortgage on our home and give my wife and kids a good many of the things we can't afford now."

* * *

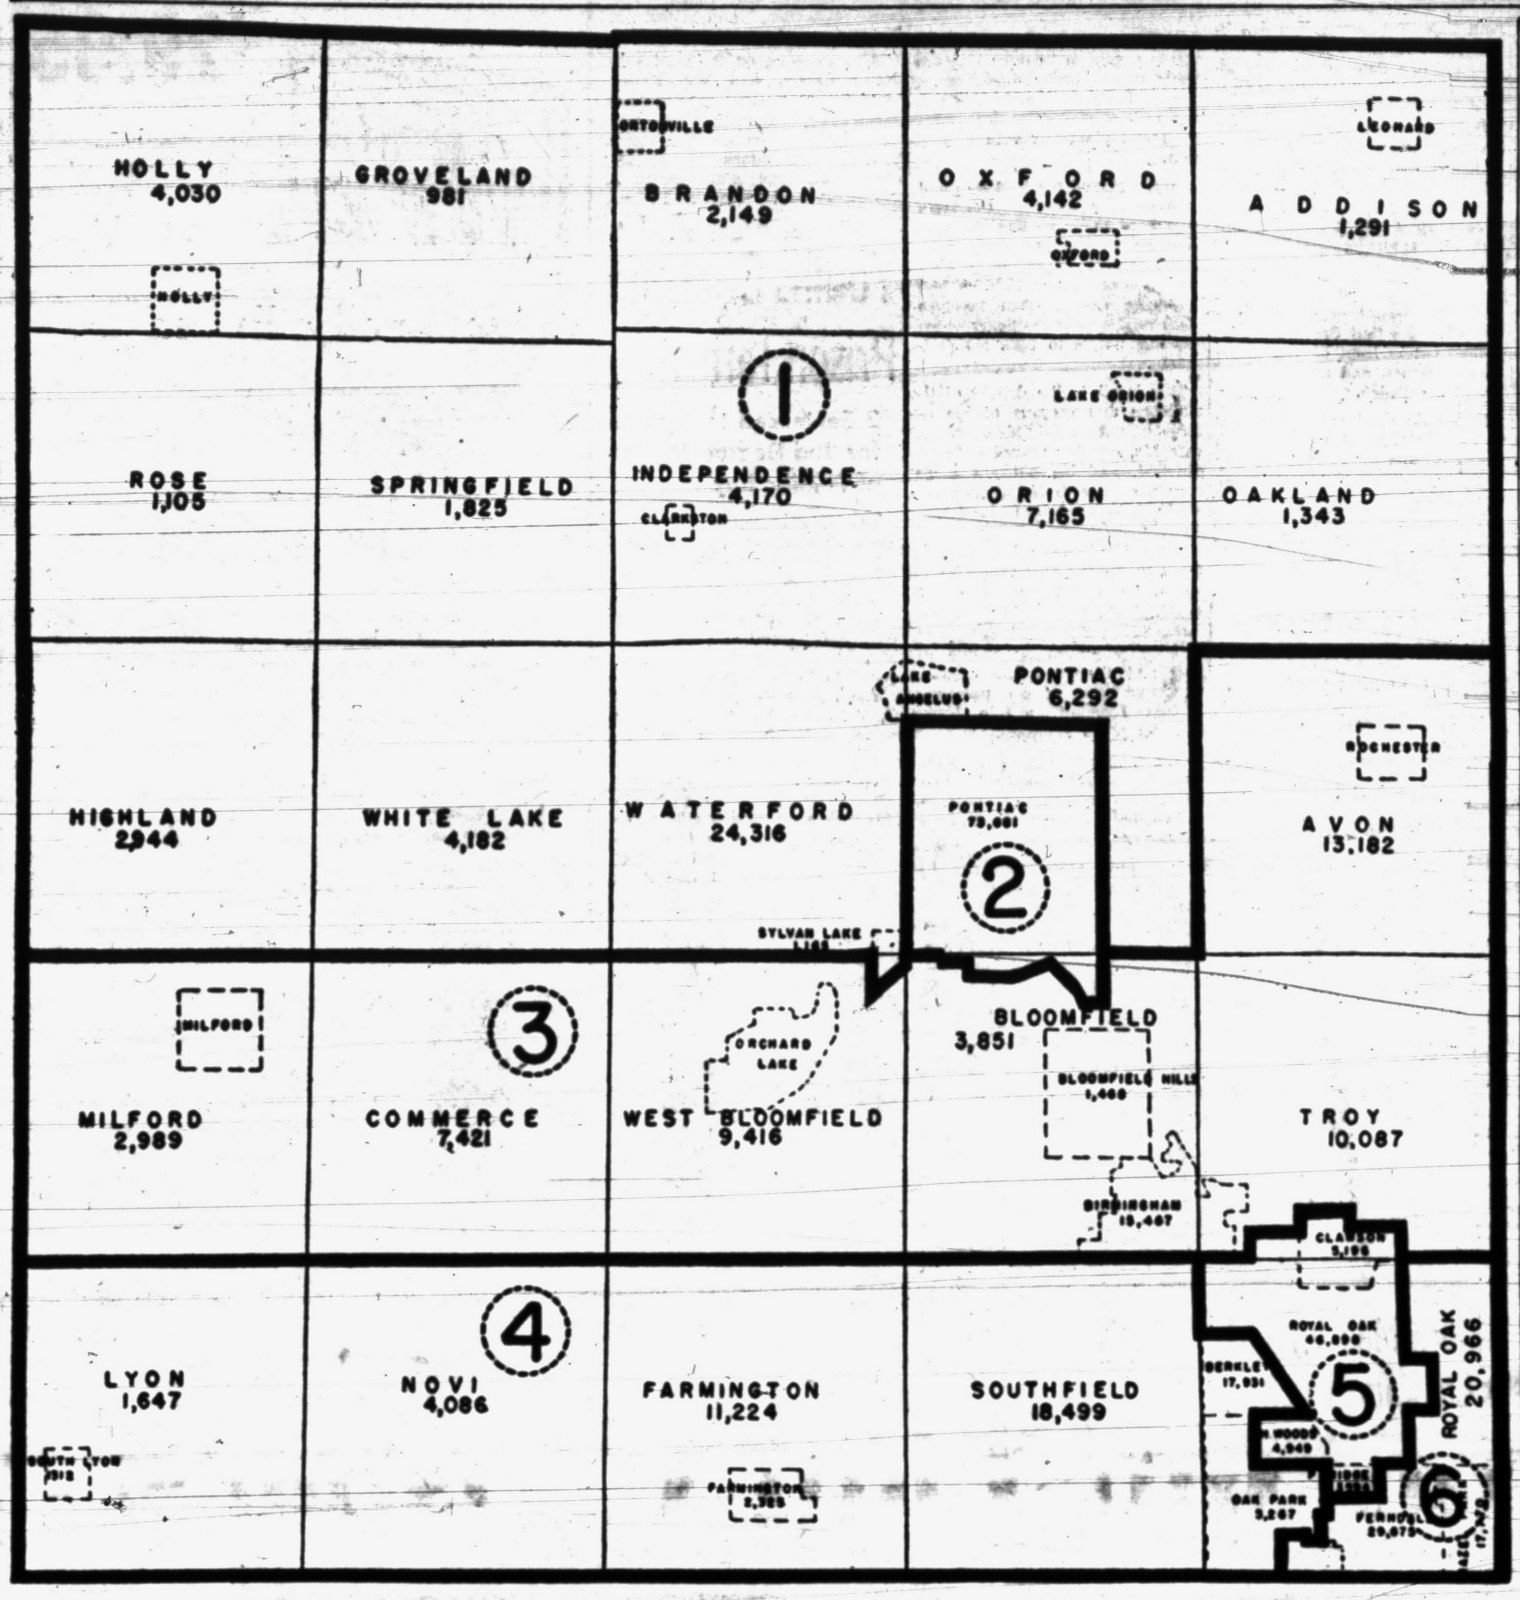
County Soon to Get $526,048 From Highway Fund



REAPPORTIONMENT—Oakland County Board of Supervisors recently set up new boundary lines redividing the county's legislative districts to make room for a sixth state representative. The added voice in Michigan's Legislature was granted this county through recent reapportionment measures. New boundary lines are shown above. As the map shows, District 5 now includes Clawson, Royal Oak, Huntington Woods and Pleasant Ridge. Grouped into District 6 are Ferndale, Hazel Park and Royal Oak Township.

Homes Blamed for Lake Filth

Storm Drain Is Linked to Residences, County Survey Discloses

The Oakland County Drain Office is now finishing a survey to find out who is using the county's Silvercrest storm drain for a sewer.

Ralph A. Main, county drain commissioner, said today his men have almost finished testing 80 homes near Silver Lake, the drain outlet. The homes are located in Silvercrest Subdivision and Supervisor's Plat 13 of Waterford Township.

Investigation began less than a year ago when several Silver Lake residents complained the county drain was pouring sludge and sewage into the lake. They said winds carried the filth across the lake and piled it up on the north shore.

Oakland County Health Department investigated, found part of the lake polluted, and banned swimming.

Main said that of the 70 houses tested, some 22 are hooked onto the drain.

"As nearly as we can find out," Main said, "an old subdivision sewer which used to take sewage into the lake at another point got stopped up. People found their septic tanks backing up into their basements.

"So a group of them got together one night and connected the sewer to the storm drain.

"We can tell whether or not a house is connected," he said, "by putting dye in its waste water and following the path of the dye."

Main explained that most of the connected homes have septic tanks and drain fields, through which sewage passes first. Some of the overflow, however, is going into the line.

"Also," he said, "some of the septic thanks haven't been cleaned for 10 or 15 years, so that their 'product' is almost as bad as if the home were tapped directly onto the line."

Main said that Michigan statutes forbid dumping anything detrimental to health, fish, wildlife or which may cause a public nuisance into a county drain. His office will notify the offenders and ask them to disconnect their septic tanks from the line.

MAJ. JOHN L. UNDERWOOD

New Commander Named to Squadron

Appointment of Maj. John L. Underwood as commander of Pontiac's volunteer Air Force Reserve Training Squadron to replace Lt. Col. Lloyd S. Smith was announced today.

The new commander of VART Squadron 9613 entered the U.S. Air Force in 1942 and served as a bomber pilot in Europe during World War II.

Major Underwood has lived in Pontiac since his release from service in 1945 and is employed by GMC Truck and Coach Division in the parts and accessory merchandising department. He lives at 4935 Payton Rd., Watkins Lake, with his wife and daughter.

Railroad Plans Crossing Gates

Grand Trunk to Install New Equipment at Five Locations in City

Construction of a half-roadway gate at the Grand Trunk Western Railroad's North Johnson avenue crossing, plus installation of automatic controls there and at four other crossings is scheduled in Pontiac.

The Grand Trunk management has authorized the changes and ordered materials for the work, according to a letter from the Michigan Public Service Commission to Pontiac City Commission.

The state commission requested the changes June 3, after a survey by the safety committee of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce revealed that 44 persons had been killed or injured at the Johnson crossing since 1929.

The changes will include moving the control tower from Sanderson avenue to the Johnson crossing and hooking up signals at Johnson, Florence avenue and Sanderson to it.

Flash signals at Johnson and the wye track, and Cass and the wye track would be changed to automatic control.

Oakland avenue and Cass avenue crossings would be hooked up with an automatic track circuit control. Estimated cost of the project is $7,226, with the city paying half.

The Johnson, Sanderson and Florence crossings are between Norton and Cass avenues. The Cass crossing is between West Huron street and Sanderson, while the railroad crosses Oakland near Sanderson.

Pontiac's Share Is $117,705.48

Other Cities in Area Set for Total of $177,998 From Gas, Weight Tax

Oakland County soon will receive $526,048.47 and Pontiac $117,705.48 from the third quarter 1953 collections of the State Motor Vehicle Highway Fund.

Other cities in the county will receive a total of $177,998.96, while villages will be allocated a total of $19,519.89.

In 1951 the fund was set up to include all the state gasoline and weight taxes, the diesel fuel tax and some miscellaneous fees.

After deductions for non-highway uses and collections costs, the money is divided, with the State Highway Department receiving 44 per cent, the counties 37 per cent and incorporated villages 19 percent. The money is used for road up-keep and construction.

Collections in the first nine months this year totatled $111,889,445.83. The state will retain $12,043,039.35 as it's share of third quarter collections and distribute the rest directly to the counties, cities and villages.

Cities in Oakland County and their shares are:

Royal Oak, $64,786.60; Ferndale, $29,845.97; Birmingham, $17,845.38; Berkley, $16,719.09; Hazel Park, $15,896.93; and Oak Park, $9,032.78.

10,000 Students Riot in London; 120 Arrested

LONDON (AP)—Thousands of celebrating students battled police for more than seven hours last night in one of the most riotous Guy Fawkes Nights this staid British capital has seen in many years.

More than 120 persons faced police charges as an aftermath of the wild outburst in London's plush West End, climaxed by a march of 10,000 university students and other young folks on the Houses of Parliament.

* * *

In Piccadilly Circus, heart of London night life, 65 stalwart bobbies stood shoulder to shoulder against determined assaults on the famous statue of Eros—Greek god of love—which dominates the traffic circle. Climbing the statue is a favorite stunt of celebrating Britons.

One group of revelers wheeled up a wood-canvas mock fire engine and tried to lay a ladder against the statue. They were beaten off.

Several policemen were scorched by firecrackers and roman candles. One small girl was badly burned on the face.

* * *

The annual celebration—in honor of a 17th century Englishman who tried to blow up the Houses of Parliament—started off calmly with millions of Britons dancing around bonfires, burning effigies of "The Guy" and drinking ale.

The rioting erupted, student spokesmen claimed, after police had refused them a permit for a big procession through London streets and a bonfire. A police spokesman denied such permission had been withheld and said the only restriction was an old one forbidding processions or meetings within a mile of Parliament while the lawmakers are in session.

Flint, 2 Townships May Form District

LANSING (AP)—The City of Flint may add adjoining townships to form a single legislative district, Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard held today.

Such an arrangement would permit the district to have three representatives in the House under the new legislativere apportionment and the remainder of Genesee County to constitute a second district with one representative.

For the Record

Whatever Party Is in Power in Britain, It Must Follow Middle-Road Philosophy

(Kenneth Lindsay, for 17 years an independent member of the British Parliament, tells what's in store for Britain on the political horizon since the annual Labor and Conservative party conferences.)

By KENNETH LINDSAY

I attended the annual conferences of the Labor and Conservative parties, at Margate, a summer sea-side resort 70 miles from London.

I heard and saw the star performers Attlee and Bevan, Churchill and Eden, and the rest, most of them old colleagues of mine in the House of Commons.

Margate has gone to sleep again for the winter, but the echoes of the two conferences will be heard in Westminster for months to come.

These gatherings are, in a rough and ready way, policy-making or policy influencing conferences. They show the leaders and the country what is going on in the workshop of democracy. Appeals are made to the youth of the country, the women of the country, the farmers and the workers.

LINDSAY

Underneath the oratory trends of opinion can be discerned. Sir Winston Churchill's ministers claimed to have reversed the engines, to have stopped the rot and to have prepared the way for a more sane and progressive administration.

In a word they had removed a host of restrictions, improved the financial reserves, de-nationalized steel and road transport, de-rationed most foods except meat and butter. Now they proposed to give the country a chance to let the price-mechanism work and increase production and exports.

The Labor conference was notable for a division of opinion between the industrial and political wings. Most of the powerful trade unions are unhappy about wholesale nationalization, they are bitterly anti-Communist and anti-Bevan.

They also contribute considerable sums to Labor Party funds and are not prepared to accept ill-digested politics put up by the intellectuals. At one point in a debate on further nationalization Mr. Deakin, a powerful trade union leader exclaimed, "Don't drive us into the position of falling out and breaking with the party."

What then of the future? Neither party can afford to offend the marginal voter, the ex-liberal, the small trader, the commuter, the lower-paid civil servant, the teachers and the rural workers.

Whatever party is in power, it must tread the middle-road. There will be differences of emphasis in foreign, colonial, financial and domestic policy.

I doubt whether a Labor Government would dare to re-nationalize steel or even road-transport. Some partnership between the state and major public utilities is more or less accepted by all.

It would be most unpopular to restore food rationing, but Labor would be awkwardly placed to accept the financial and economic policies which have made the abolition of rationing possible.

The plain truth is that both parties have become empiricists. Labor is learning the sober responsibility of being the Majesty's loyal opposition.

Given a reasonable chance the Conservatives should be governing Britain for the next two years.

Billy Rose Eats Crow Over Operas in English

By BILLY ROSE

Back in 1948, as some of you may remember, I aimed my popgun at the Metropolitan Opera House and wrote a dozen pieces in which I outlined a program for making grand opera more profitable and palatable.

* * *

BILLY ROSE

Among other things, I suggested that the singers at the Met be instructed in the ABCs of diet and stage deportment; that the operas be performed in English so that we might know what was going on; that the management doll up or replace the unsightly piles of lumber which was masquerading as scenery; that it install a couple of front spotlights so the audience could distinguish an occasional face; and that it acquire a ballet troupe which didn't look like so many hangovers chasing each other.

* * *

In succinct short, I said it was time that we took the Old Lady of 39th Street by the elbow and escorted her into the 20th century — and if she didn't want to go quietly, to grab her by the hair and drag her kicking and screaming.

A few months after these colums appeared, Mr. Rudolf Bing was appointed Obermensch of the Met and, by large and in the main, I think he's done a good job of prettying up the Old Lady in the past five years.

Some of his dabs of rouge followed the beauty hints in my pieces — not, I'm certain, because I happened to suggest them but because the blemishes were so glaringly evident.

However, one of the little things I recommended has boomeranged and hit me right in the ears — the one about doing opera in English at the Met.

This bit of masterminding, I'm afraid, wasn't too well thought out, and I hereby publicly announce that, if anyone will heat it up, I'm ready to eat a portion of fricasseed crow.

In my plea for opera in English, I pointed out that Joe Citizen was seldon a linguist and so couldn't get excited about the plots because he didn't know what the plots were all about. And the jabber-wocky in the printed synopses didn't help much.

I further maintained that, because of the language barrier, performances at the Met lacked dramatic punch and were little more than concerts with costumes and scenery. All of which, or course, is as true today as it was in 1948.

What I failed to take account, however, were three Simple Simon facts:

1. The Met is pretty much a copy of La Scala in Milan which was erected in 1778 before "accoustics" was even a word.

Its stage and auditorium are twice as large as the average theater, and the singers have to project over a wide pit and 80 musicians to spectators who are often a city block away.

Under these conditions the words of a new liberetto, be they in Afghan or Snglish, tend to get lost in their own echoes.

2. In addition, the plot lines of most of the old operas come closer to being dodo than drama. To a generation which relishes the realism of "South Pacific" and "Pal Joey" the "Way-Down-East" heroics of "La Boheme" and the mistaken identity gimmicks of "Cosi Fan Tutte" are as outmoded as the whalebone corset.

To put it bluntly, when these hokey yarns are translated into our mother lingo, they are more embarrasing than enlightening.

3. With few exceptions, the singers at the Met can't act their way out of a paper bag—although they often resemble one. As a consequence, a soprano who looks like a rolled-up mattress frequently sings a romantic duet with a tenor who looks like an aging shoe clerk.

In Italian — all right, I can close my eyes and listen. But in English the net effect, I'm afraid, is more Grand Guignol than grand opera . . .

As I see it, it all adds up to this: Opera in English at the Met was a noble experiment but, like Prohibition, an unsuccessful one, and the time has come to use the horse sense that comes from hindsight.

At least until they build him a modern opera house, I think Mr. Bing ought to stick to his foreign librettos and continue his comup the old favorites. and what, in the name of Gatti-Cazazzi, is wrong with that

I still think it was a heck of a good idea for the Old Lady to mendable program of sprucing now — and I think I'm speaking for a lot of people — I'd be mighty obliged to the maestro if he'd have her take one step backwards.

Do You Dig?

Teenagers 'Crazy' Talk The Most, to Say the Least

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"Cool today, Cra-a-azy tomorrow."

That's the weather picture forecast by Michigan teenagers as they go further afield with new phrases to keep bedeviled parents and interested onlookers in a daze.

Take your pick. It happens all over the state from Pontiac to Paw Paw. You can't stop 'em, so why not join 'em?

"Don't goof, dadd-o, let's cool it down to the pad and dig some of the birds and dollies. It'll be the most, to say the least."

You see, the coming generation is still making up its own language as it goes along.

The talk is a mixture based on the king's English, garnished with sprigs of musician's bop talk and southern drawl, basted with phrases from the Dragnet program and served with World War spices.

Nowadays, you don't get a date by starting, "May I . . ."

The "cat cools it" (okay, shuffles) over to the phone, buzzes a "dollie" and says, "Are you dealing tonight?" the accepted phrase to see if she's busy.

If she is occupied, the reply is, "What was your first clue?"

Well, all he wants is "the facts, ma'm, just the facts."

A few more negative answers and "he's had it" and can figure on spending some time with the other "cats" driving, or talking about, souped-up, dressed-up Hollywoods—uh—autos.

Much of the current slanguage fad comes from hot-selling phonograph record parodies about "St. George and the Dragonet," and "Little Blue Riding Hood."

But things come and go. Just think how much fun you'll have telling your grandchildren what a cool pair their parents were as today's teenagers.

Car Hits Truck Injuring Three

Accident Happens at Elizabeth Lake Road and Roslyn Street

A car-truck accident on Elizabeth Lake Rd., at Roslyn St., in Waterford Township yesterday hospitalized one Pontiac man and injured two others, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Deputies said a pick-up truck driven by Paul W. Brown, 32, of 38 Sylvan Ct., and electrician, was struck from behind by an auto driven by Edward J. Dement, 45, of 34 Murphy Ave., a Pontiac State Hospital employe, hospitalizing Brown.

Dement, treated at Pontiac General Hospital for leg injuries, told deputies that Brown's truck pulled out in front of him from Roslyn street, and he could not avoid a collision.

Brown, in good condition today at Pontiac General Hospital with shoulder injuries and a possible concussion, said he did not know what happened.

A passenger with Dement, Robert Kelly, 39, of 222 N. Cass Ave., a Grand Truck employe, was treated for forehead and knee bruises.

Truck Replaces Last Milk Horse at Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — If a horse can get a stomach ache from eating too many sweets, "Red" will have a king size pain tonight.

Most of the children, and a good many of the housewives along his milk route in the northeast section of town were at the curb this morning with apples, carrots, candy, sugar, and sweet rolls.

It was "Red's" last trip, and the last milk delivery by a horse drawn wagon in Grand Rapids. Buth's Dairy is retiring the 13-year-old horse who has served the neighborhood for years. He will be replaced by a truck.

Mrs. Max Elliott, whose daughter gave "Red" a pound of cube sugar as a Christmas present last year, summed up the neighborhood's feelings:

"It will be almost heartbreaking to see that shiny new milk truck turn the corner Monday morning."

Milford Man Injured as Car Rams Truck

A Milford man was injured yesterday when a stalled pickup truck and a car were involved in a smashup on South Milford Road in Milford Township, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Billy Bailey, 26, of 110 Detroit St. was treated at Pontiac General Hospital for knee bruises and back injuries.

Bailey, a passenger in the truck driven by Donald F. McGrain, 33, of 3455 Ormond Rd., Davisburg, was attempting to fix the stalled truck when it was struck from behind by a car driven by James R. Faust, 18, of 3435 Detroit Rd., White Lake, said deputies.

Faust claims that the truck had no tail lights.

Removal of Elms Should Be Delayed

Oakland County Foresters' Association resolved this week to oppose removal of elm trees suspected of being attacked by Dutch Elm disease unless a state laboratory test proves they are afflicted.

George Hamilton, publicity chairman, said this policy would prevent unnecessary destruction of healthy trees.

The emphasis now should be on burning elm wood to destroy the disease-causing beetles that live in the wood over the winter he added.

Police Check Complaints of Property Destruction

Pontiac Police said today they are investigating several complaints of destruction of property occurring in the city since Halloween.

Four of the incidents, which happened during the night of Oct. 31, and another occurring Nov. 1, were reported to police Thursday, according to Chief Herbert W. Straley.

Straley added that damage this year was not as extensive as former years. He attributed the "orderly Halloween" to church and service club affairs and other activities.

Comedy Opens '53 Season for Master Players Group

By ROBERT E. DeBRODT

The Pontiac Master Players theater group opened its fall season Thursday night with an excellent performance of Noel Coward's sophisticated comedy called "Present Laughter."

Playing to a near-capacity house at the Orpheum Theater this amateur group under direction of Merrill F. Walls caught the temper of the play's farcical situations and played it with enthusiasm.

Walls played the lead role and convincingly handled Coward's flip lines in developing the personality of the principal character, Garry Essendine, a London matinee idol whose on and off-stage charm often involves him in affairs of the heart which he alone fails to take too seriously.

This is all to the delight of the audience and chagrin of his associates, particularly his estranged wife Liz, capably played by Mary Mitchell, and his efficient secretary played with the proper and acid officiousness by Dodie O'Connor.

His entanglements however, all seem to resolve themselves as he eventually discourages two particularly predatory females.

One is a stage-struck debutante, freshly played by Kathie Elliott and the other the casually unfaithful wife of an associate, Joanna Lyppiatt, a role Kathy Thomas plays skillfully.

An aspiring, crack-pot playwright, cleverly played by Bob Cox, also attaches himself to Essendine to learn about the 'theater.'

A "heavy" scene precedes the outcome as Joanna's outraged husband, Hugo Lyppiatt, well done by William L. Fogle, and her intimate friend Morris Dixon, as Per H. Person aptly handled the role, confront Essendine and each other with their own and Joanna's primrose activities.

The final act gets things straightened out farly well and the play ends with Essendine going back to his wife.

Performances will be given again tonight and Saturday night starting at 8:30.

Excellent supporting parts were handled by Marta Person as "Miss Erikson," the maid; George W. Proven as "Fred", the valet; and Velva Bell as "Lady Satburn."

The business staff included Kay Walls, stage manager; Midge Baker, Alice Derderian and Pauline Person, assistants; Jonas H. Person and Delmont Walter, set construction; Kay Walls, interior decoration; Mary Jane Lashmet, Merna Way, Shirley Jacobsen, Nellie Benson and Pauline Parson, properties; and Peter E. Newman, make-up supervision.

Also assisting on the staff were Nellie Benson and Val Walter, wardrobe; Monroe Carmichael, electrician; William L. Fogle, public relations; George W. Proven, graphic art; Jonas H. Person, house manager; and Charles J. Nasstrom and Eleanor Proven, box office.

German Airman Plans to Shorten Lengthy Name

DENVER (AP) — A. 2. C. Max Michael George Schneckenaichner is going to have his name changed today when he becomes an American citizen.

He will become plain A. 2. C. Max Schneckenaichner.

Max doesn't like his two middle names. "There's 16 letters in that last name. That coupled with Max is a long enough handle for any man," he said.

He was born at Munich, Germany, and joined the Army there, serving 22 months as an alien component. He immigrated to America Dec. 10, 1951, and joined the Air Force Jan. 2, 1952.

Ex-Prof Puts Zip in Banking

Chicagoans Backed Him in Depression, Firm Now in Nation's Top 4

CHICAGO (INS) — A bright young college professor who put "merchandising into mortgages" now heads one of the nation's largest savings and loan banks.

Twenty years ago, a group of Chicagoans raised $80,000 in share capital and put the 31-year-old professor, Morton Bodfish, to work with his ideas on streamlining the savings business.

Today, from that depression-born start, the First Savings and Loan Association of Chicago is among the four largest in the country with $130 million in assets.

It is the Chicago area's No. 1 savings and loan institution.

Bodfish went after women and children first.

His bank was a children's savings center with a junior-size teller's counter and furniture to match for kids up to 12 years of age.

Every Saturday morning, the once-staid bank echoes to the shouts of some 50 youngsters being entertained in First Federal's ranch room complete with western-style murals and cowboy-and-Indian displays.

"Thrift," says Bodfish, "is like religion or good manners — it has to be taught."

His ideas have paid off, he adds, pointing to his institution's more than 11,000 account holders who are under 12.

Bodfish approached the ladies from a "merchandising angle" too.

He directed a special appeal to the women whom he regarded as the key person in the savings field.

"The essential thing was to remove the aura of austerity and mystery from financial institutions and make them open and inviting," Bodfish recalled.

He moved the bank away from Chicago's financial district and closer to State Street, where the big department stores are located. And closer to the women shoppers — they now open three of every four new accounts at First Federal.

Although he is president, Bodfish still buttonholes people and strives to get them to open an account.

"Why not?" he reasons. "If the boss doesn't make an effort to get new business why should personnel down in the ranks."

It is estimated there are about 20,000 milk distributing companies in the United States.

Proposal on Guiana Given to Parliament

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Churchill's government has asked parliamentary action on an order formally suspending British Guiana's constitution and setting up an interim administration.

The new organization plan, submitted to Parliament last night, provides for an executive council and legislative council. The two bodies will be closely supervised by the British governor and he will appoint department heads.

The governor has been administering the South American colony under emergency powers granted him by the Colonial Office after it suspended the Guianan constitution on Oct. 9. At that time, the government of the Progressive People's party was kicked out on grounds it was conspiring to establish a Communist state.

Vatican Letters to Be Recorded, Kept in St. Louis

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican library's priceless collection of ancient manuscripts is being microfilmed for a Pope Pius XII memorial library to be built at St. Louis, Mo.

Details of the project were announced yesterday in a joint statement issued here by Archbishop Joseph E. Ritter of St. Louis and the Very Rev. John B. Janssens, father general of the Society of Jesus.

Te library will be built at St. Louis University, a Roman Catholic institution. Plans call for construction to start late next year. The work is expected to cost from four to five million dollars and a fund-raising campaign is now being organized.

* * *

The joint statement announced the Pope had granted permission of the library in his name. Much of the microfilming already has been completed with the cost being paid by the Knights of Columbus. This phase of the work is expected to be completed within two years.

The Vatican's collection of 50,000 hand-letter volumes are estimated to contain 600,000 manuscripts, including many of the treasures of ancient learning.

Camp Fire to Be Helped by 'Annie Get Your Gun'

Civitan Club Sponsors Nov. 14 Show to Benefit Girls' Gulick Lake Project

By MAUDE DONAHUE

The production of "Annie Get Your Gun," chosen by the Civitan Club to be presented Nov. 14 at Pontiac High School, is of special interest to Pontiac Camp Fire Girls.

The story of how "Annie Get Your Gun" ties in with the Camp Fire Girls began eight years ago when one man took an interest in a group of little girls, called upon their fairy godmother, and started things happening.

The girls were the Camp Fire Girls of Pontiac, the man, Frank Marsh and the "fairy godmother," the Civitan Club.

Mr. Marsh, a Civitan member and a member of the Camp Fire Board of Directors, interested the Civitan Club in one of the Camp Fire Girls' needs — practical camping experience.

The Civitan Club, coming to the rescue, made a project of locating a suitable campsite for the Camp Fire organization to rent for the girls, and of transporting girls and equipment to the site when it was located.

The girls later started a camp fund so they could buy land for a summer camp. The Civitans made their second project a purchase of American flags for the girls to sell to add to their fund.

In 1951 William McLean, chairman of the Camp Fire Committee of Civitan, asked William B. Lane to find a campsite for the girls to buy.

A little over a year later, he found camping grounds which encompassed Gulick Lake. Gulick, coincidentally, is the name of the Camp Fire founder, Luther Halsey Gulick.

Since the purchase of the site, the group has worked toward future buildings and maintenance of the camp. Proceeds of "Annie Get Your Gun" will help support the resident camp fund.

And that is why the girls are hoping the performance will prove a big success.

Stanley Woolf of the Civic Drama Guild of New York is producing the show and tickets may be obtained at Pauli Jewelers, Cole's Drug Store, Gallagher's Music House, Thrifty Drugs, or from any Civitan member.

Refreshments were served by the social committee under the supervision of Mrs. Hazel Anderson. She was assisted by Mrs. Roy Ashwin, Mrs. O. F. Marsal, Mrs. W. J. Baumgartner, Mrs. Dean Thompson, Mrs. H. T. Rombaugh, Mrs. T. W. Bradford and Mrs. T. C. McFetridge. Mrs. R. C. Cummings poured.

WCTU Federation Has All-Day Parley

Mrs. L. G. Rowley spoke on educating children in the schools to the harm of alcoholic beverages, when Pontiac Federation of WCTU met in the Central Methodist Church parlors Tuesday evening.

The opening songs for the all-day meeting were led by Mrs. George Douglas, accompanied by Mrs. Catherine Cable. Mrs. Rowley led the salute to the Flag, and devotions were given by Mrs. Mary Woods.

The group discussed plans for the coming year, and an invitation was read from the Goodwill Industries of Detroit to visit the demonstration of work done by the handicapped.

Noontime prayer was given by Mrs. Cabel, and Mrs. Frank Coons gave devotions. Secretary pro tem was Mrs. Frank Hardenburg.

Dior Veils 1954 Styles in Secrecy

Paris Pace - Setter Keeps Gals in Dark About Hemlines

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY

NEW YORK (UP) — Christian Dior took the wraps off his 1954 fashions, only nobody is supposed to tell what they are.

He wants to keep his spring hemlines a secret until mid-January. Also his necklines, waistlines and hiplines.

The French designer promised a conservative 15 inches for spring skirts when he arrived here two weeks ago. They looked shorter than that on those models, Mr. Dior. After the first two dozen or so legs had flashed by, a spectator at Wednesday's fashion show sighed.

"Amazing, isn't it, how quickly you get used to those shorter skirts?" she asked. "I guess I'll go home and hem up my old clothes."

(Not having a tape measure handy and also because of the secrecy pledge, we are unable to give exact skirt-length figures.)

Dior, a mild-mannered, balding man who looks more like a banker than a dress designer, stayed behind scenes at his spring fashion preview. However, his handiwork was very much in evidence.

The hats, gloves, hosiery, jewelry and shoes the models wore were designed by Dior. The showroom, the program stated, had been sprayed with Dior perfume.

Cigarete smoking was permitted, so his helpers handed out tidy boxes filled with chocolate brown oval-shaped cigarettes, lettered Christian Dior.

Actually, the cigarette paper was "a rich dark mink shade called Monaco," according to information inside the box. That is the newest of the designer's fall hosiery shades.

Other designers, even those from Paris, bring out their new ideas with less secrecy and more informality. Jacques Fath came over from Paris recently with his new spring designers.

"You can talk about them," he said with a shrug. "I like stripes and I like polka dots for spring."

Of approximately 25 spring outfits showed in the Joseph Halpert showrooms here, seven were strewn with polka dots.

There were polka dots of all colors and sizes and on all kinds of material. Pale blue dots on a beige silk twill afternoon dress, for instance; big red coin dots on white Swiss organdy; black polka dots irregularly spaced across white pique.

Fath says he can see no drastic change in fashion in the near future. "Maybe a little shorter skirts," he conceded, "but not showing the knees."

Small Business Often Fails Needlessly for Lack of Legal and Financial Advice

By ANNE HEYWOOD

One of the most unfortunate things in the world is the small business, based on a good idea, which fails because the woman who started it had no legal advice.

I see this happen many times, and the tragedy is that it is so preventable.

The Legal Aid Society could often have been called on, or in many cases, the woman had only to consult a lawyer and ask how much his fee would be.

"But I just took it for granted it would be too much," a woman will frequently tell me after it is too late.

Yet the average good lawyer operates as does the doctor—and it is never out of line to discuss his fee in advance.

There is an excellent little book, called 'Law for the Small Businessman," which I recommend to any of you who are toying with the idea of starting a project of your own.

It is clearly and simply written, and handles all the legal aspects of organizing a small business—taxes, insurance, partnerships and stockholders' agreements, leases, pricing, etc.

It is not designed to take the place of a lawyer, but it will introduce you to the subject and give you a good idea of your rights and responsibilities in business.

The second biggest mistake which women make in running a small business is in connection had lost her little business because with the financial aspect

Last week I met a woman who debts had piled up. After it was too late, and she had already liquidated, she learned that she could have obtained the necessary loan right from her own bank.

"But I took it for granted," she confessed, "that my project was too small to interest them."

If you have a good idea, or service, or product, and want to capitalize on it, don't take anything for granted. Talk to a lawyer or your local Legal Aid Society. Talk to your local bank.

Your idea may be much more promising than you know. And if it isn't, think of the heartache you can save by finding out!

The homemaker, in particular, is apt to think she is small fry, beneath the notice of a banker. Yet many bankers have time, and interest, to devote to the woman who is starting a business that has a high potential.

Secretly Engaged Teenagers Rebel as Family Cracks Down on Romance

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I know I'm only 15, and Van's only 16, but we really and truly do love each other. My dad and my aunts and uncles all say we're too young to know what it's all about.

"Dad liked Van until one of my aunts, who is jealous because her daughter has no boy friend, made up a wild story about us that isn't true. She has my parents convinced and they won't even listen to Van and me.

"They want us to break up. But they don't know that we are secretly engaged. Van is all for eloping, but I know that's wrong. What else can we do?"

The two of you are wildly rebelling against your family's disrupting of your young love. You're both struggling against their authority to have your own way.

You've protested your innocence to no avail. So why not face the fact that it's the way things are, and decide between you that the following is the best course for you to folow:

Your family has laid down some laws, so you've really nothing else to do but obey. A reasonable willingness to cooperate with your parents may convince them that you're more mature than they thought. A slight vacation from Van won't do either of you any harm, incidentally.

It would quiet down the storm raised by your aunt. It would give you time to work quietly and cautiously at convincing your family that her story was false.

It would give you a chance to practice some self-control to organize your emotions. And would help both you and Van to find out if your devotion to each other is as deep as you think it is.

Being separated may dampen your ardor for each other, and it may not. Later on, should you find your affection for each other still strong, your family may then decide that you're old enough to be that serious about Van.

A little mature patience is the only way to cope with things as they are now.

"Dear Miss Woodward: We've had many arguments and have always made up, but I'm afraid this last one is really the last one. I see him around, but he never tries to make up. When he breaks up with a girl, he won't speak to her.

"And that's what's hurting me now. He was one of my closest friends and I can't stand having him go by without even saying 'hello.'

"I'm not in love with him, but I would like to patch things up. Have you any advice?"

He's acting true to form in not speaking to you these days. It's the way he is when he's on the outs with a girl. What can you possibly do to change things?

Nothing much, except wait until he gets over this final curtain act of his. It's on purpose to show you he's through. When he's sure you're sure, he's likely to start speaking again. That's just the way he is.

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

But Chocolate-Testing--- That's a Different Matter

"Mama's crying," my small brother announced in an awe-struck whisper. And when I rushed to see for myself, lo and behold, it was true.

Mama, the imperturbable, she who solved her children's problems with such ease, was unpacking the ragged, buttonless, rumpled garments I'd brought home from boarding school and tears were streaming down her cheeks.

When she saw me, she cried even harder and it was quite awhile before she could speak to reproach me, but she made her point by holding up to my guilty gaze the damning evidence. I began to cry right along with her and made aguished promises which I truly believe I have kept in spirit if not absolutely to the letter.

Mama's tears seem also to have set up in me an active prejudice against disorder in others. Take smokers. I don't smoke but I should have no objection to my associates doing it if only they wouldn't be so thoughtless, inconsiderate and mess-making.

For instance, why can't a smoker confine himself to a single ash container? Why must he perpetually ashtray-hop, tapping a few ashes here, a few there," so that by the end of an hour every receptacle in the room including flower pots, piano tops and bonbon dishes bear evidence of his ruthless presence?

Even then, if he would clean up his unwholesome debris I could forgive him. Instead, he goes blithely away, leaving the unsavory job to me.

A non-smoking hostess and I often commiserate with each other. The other day she told me of an experience with a mutual friend of ours who habitually lights one cigarette off another.

"Please give me something to do," pleaded this woman during a weekend visit.

But when the chore of cleaning ashtrays was proposed, she refused, protesting, "That's such a dirty job."

If I seem to dwell overlong on unmannerly smokers, it's because I've just gone through a weekend with one. I can be just as vocal about other destroyers of my peace of mind, as, for instance, the obnoxious creature who invariably beats me to the Sunday newspapers.

Nothing, except maybe a March wind, can produce such a scene of confusion as a Sunday newspaper in ruffian hands. Then there are the people who eat apples and leave discarded skin and core in the fruit dish for me to deal with.

Just as enraging is the noisy nutcracker who scatters shells over my only Oriental rug and another cheerful barbarian who sets down wet glasses to leave ineradicable rings on my best rosewood table.

Although I love them, I look forward with dread to the visits of two sisters who throw their coats, hats and scarves on all the available chairs, kick off their shoes and generally make my living room look as though a tornado had struck it, no matter who else is there.

Still, you never know. One of those devastating sisters said to me when I visited her the other day, "If there's one thing I simply can't stand, it's a person who tests every piece of candy in a box looking for caramels and if she makes a mistake, tosses the bitten-off piece back into the box!"

And, imagine, she was looking right at me!

Sponge Stain

If you spill mercurochrome on white cotton or linene, sponge it promptly with a solution of equal parts of alcohol and water. Work glycerine into stain and continue using while color bleeds. Launder. Add a few drops of ammonia to rinse.

To Dry Girdle:

After washing a foundation garment, hang it over a rod or lay it flat to dry. Girdles should never be hung by their garters.

Manners MAKE FRIENDS

You've bought your girl a corsage, taken her to a dance, and now you're down to your last dollar. You'd like to buy her a cup of coffee, but you can't run the risk of having her run up the check.

Now's the time for laying your cards—or your dollar—on the table and saying: "That's all we've got. Now what will it be?"

Man's Mom Asks About Duty Letter

Should She Write to Parents of Son's Fiancee?

By EMILY POST

A mother writes: "My son who lives in a distant city has just written us that he has become engaged to a girl from the same city. Her parents, however, live in still other part of the country.

"It will be impossible for my husband and me to pay the conventional visit on the girl and her family. It is my understanding that when this visit cannot be made, the mother of the man should write a note of welcome to the girl. This I have already done.

"But I am completely at a loss as to how to deal with her parents. Should I also write to them, and if so, can you give me some idea of what to say? I will be very grateful for any help you can give me."

Answer: If possible, you invite the girl to come and stay with you. You would wait until you have met the girl and then you would write a friendly letter to her mother telling her how much you liked her daughter.

Dear Mrs. Post: I have a 12-year-old daughter who is extremely pretty and is told so by practically everyone. I have noticed lately that she is becoming very conceited and I'm very much afraid that she will become so pleased with herself that she will find herself without friends.

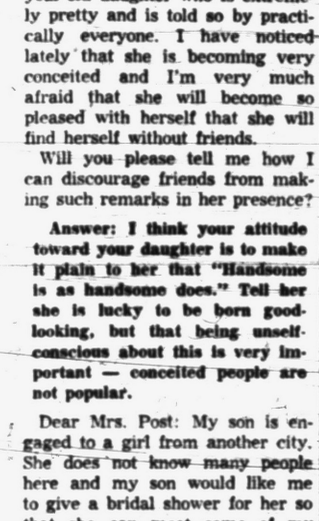
Will you please tell me how I can discourage friends from making such remarks in her presence?

Answer: I think your attitude toward your daughter is to make it plain to her that "Handsome is as handsome does." Tell her she is lucky to be born good-looking, but that being unself-conscious about this is very important — conceited people are not popular.

Dear Mrs. Post: My son is engaged to a girl from another city. She does not know many people here and my son would like me to give a bridal shower for her so that she can meet some of my friends. Would it be proper for me to give such a party?

Answer: Give a party "to meet her," but not a "bridal shower," which would indicate presents.

IF overweight—



Delicately pointed shoes are not for you but the latest squared toe can add novelty and has the substantial look you want in footwear.

Mrs. O.—The truly elegant look is highlighted now. Skirts are somewhat shorter, whether slim or full, and that puts the emphasis on becoming footwear. Pumps with squarely tapered toes, medium heels, best in a dark color.

Mrs. Harold King Heads Niblick Club

Mrs. Harold King was elected president of the Niblick Club at the annual meeting held Tuesday in Elks Temple.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Harold Slankster, vice president; Mrs. Frank Gerls, secretary, and Mrs. Arthur Barnes, treasurer.

Mrs. Ray Kingsbury presided. Prior to election of officers, reports covering the past year's activities were given by the committees.

The golf trophy was awarded to Mrs. Charles Manz, winner of the tournament, and other members were awarded prizes according to standings.

Mrs. Albert Games, social chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Hollway, Mrs. P. B. Jones, Mrs. Sytz and Mrs. John R. Meddaugh.

'Size' Accessories

Just as you buy clothing to fit, choose accessories that are the right size for your height. A large hat or handbag dwarfs a short woman, while a tall girl looks rather ridiculous toting a tiny purse.

The closer you get to some people, the quicker you get next to them.

Here's a stunning arrangement for a modern living room. This one is a vertical design of brandywine roses and dramatic Scotch broom. Three sprays of gold-dusted ivy sweep down from the top of the vase for a final touch of holiday glitter.

Peace Will Be Destroyed by Progressive Jealousy

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Neil's mother writes, "He's always been able to count on me. After his father died, we stayed together, although I had to put him in a day nursery while I worked . . ."

This means that Neil's mother worked very hard to keep them together. It means that in his early childhood, day in day out, she rose, dressed herself and Neil, prepared their breakfasts, took him to the day nursery, and then went to work.

It means that at the end of the day the routines was reversed, and there was also shopping to do, supper to be made and a child to put to bed. It means there were interminable evenings for the battles with physical exhaustion, discouragement and self-pity.

Now, at 14, accustomed to counting on his mother, Neil is shocked and angry that she wants to marry again.

"I suppose it's only natural for him to hate the idea," she writes. "Sometimes I think I'm not strong enough to go through with this marriage. Although I love this man, don't you think I should put him out of my life for the sake of peace?"

What I think is that possessive jealousy, whether it claims mothers who begrudge love to their sons or sons who begrudge it to their mothers, is an evil thing.

However, Neil's mother does not think so, or she would not have written for help. So she must not act on my thoughts. We cannot deal firmly or kindly with possessive jealousy if we fear it or sympathize with it.

Just as its grip on a parent can make a child ashamed of his love for someone else, it can make Neil's mother ashamed of her love for the man who wants to marry her. Under such circumstances, love becomes something else.

As to peace, we don't get it by putting love out of our lives. For these three people, it will be gotten only by a united effort to put possessive jealousy out of their lives.

One day, not too distant, Neil will want for himself the kind of love he is denying his mother. Do we want him to marry his girl without self-reproach?

Do we want him to feel free to be a man as well as a son? What kind of example in growth are we giving him by refusing to grow ourselves? Isn't this our chance to begin to open this closed corporation of mother and son to take in others?

Neil will believe in the goodness of our marriage if we do. If we really want to marry as much as we think we do, we and our boy ca nlook forward to quite a time working out that peace from possessive jealousy.

Teenagers, Don't Forget Deodorant

Teenagers, in your eagerness to acquire the latest grooming know-how, don't overlook the basics.

One would think that the use of deodorants would be second nature to everyone by now. That this is not quite true is evident when one travels on a bus or other public conveyance.

Apparently some people confine their use of deodorants to warm weather.

Yet, we perspire all year around and heavy winter wools hold the perspiration. Besides offending others, the perspiration can play havoc with the woolens.

Be sure you establish a year around ritual of personal daintiness. Besides using an underarm deodorant daily, you might use a deodorant dusting powder. If you must occasionally skip your daily bath, substitute a sponge bath.

Protect your clothing by wearing shields. They are available for many different sleeve styles.

As you know, hair holds perspiration, so continue shaving under arms throughout the year.

Stage Plays in Shadow

Do you sometimes have neighborhood plays? Here is one which can be given inside in a small area. I wonder if any of you have seen any of these shadow plays on television. They often use this medium for illustrating songs.

If you have this in your home, and you might want to put on a show for the family, use a doorway which opens into a large room.

You will need to fasten a sheet over the open doorway. This can be done by taping a bamboo pole up over the door, then stretching the sheet down and taping it in several places. The sheet must be tight or the picture will be distorted.

You will need to have a large light about 5 or 6 feet away from the screen. The actors must stand in a dark room as close to the screen as possible. You can use all kinds of things made from cardboard for props. I have shown an Indian.

The different pictures can be standing still or with action. If you use the still pictures, it is nice to play music which is in keeping with the scene. The actors can talk in the others.

Water Paint Is Ruined by Freezing

By HUBBARD COBB

You won't get into trouble if you allow an oil paint to remain in an unheated area during freezing weather, but don't store water-thinned paints where there is a chance of them freezing.

It may not hurt them the first time but a few freezings and thawings will ruin them for future use.

Watch out for dead or dying tree limbs near telephone and power lines. These little items should be carefully removed before they get broken off by a storm and put things out of order.

It's usually possible to prevent a cement floor from dusting by coating it with a concrete hardener or with wax, but in extreme cases it will require a new top coat of cement.

As a new cement topping won't stick over wax, try out the wax over a small area and see what sort of results you get before you go ahead with the entire floor.

In some cases the clapboards on a house will bulge out, producing a wide opening that will allow moisture and even rodents to cause trouble.

It's usually possible to close these up by running an 8-inch finishing through the warped board, but in some cases you'll have to use a long thin wood screw to bring the board back into place.

It's best to use only open-type shelves and storage cabinets in the basement and attic, for solid ones will reduce the circulation of air.

Pontiac High Couples Will Whirl at 'Snow Fall Twirl'

High School Addition Open House Tuesday

Parents will be invited to view, not only their children's work, but the new addition to Pontiac High School Tuesday when a school open house is held.

Pontiac High will open its doors to one and all from 7:30 to 8 p.m.

The importance of the new wing which has been added to the building will be stressed. The new rooms allow for further comfort and greater efficiency.

Science, instrumental and vocal departments, plus the modern facilities of a new cafeteria, have found room to expand and grow in this new addition.

Anyone who would like to view the progress of the student, plus the encouragement of up-to-date equipment, is invited to attend this educational and pleasant affair.

Elect Representatives

Representatives for the St. Michael Catholic Youth Organization were elected this week.

Representing the seniors are Donald Farrell and Susanne O'Neil, while Martin Keller and Ella Powers are doing their share for the juniors.

Sophomores Bill Bookie and Gloria Vizza were chosen to represent their class. Charles Brown and Annette Couture will represent freshmen.

Why Not Be a Saint?

"Wh Not Be a Saint" was the intriguing subject chosen by the Christian Family Living class for a panel discussion at St. Frederick.

Chairman was Dennis Presto, and supervising panelists were Alphonse Mellado, Madonna Apley, Michael Retzloff and Thomas Miller. Concluding the list was Bernard Slabinski, Raymond Wagner, and Sue Cassidy.

St. Mike Seniors Pick Graduation Colors, Motto

'Those lucky seniors,' sighed St. Michaelite underclassmen while those highly respected individuals made plans for the "big day."

Class colors, motto and flower were chosen, and not without a twinge of nostalgia, due perhaps to the "Memory" assembly presented.

In a daze of activities senior "wheels" decided on old rose and silver as class colors, picked the rose as class flower and St. Maria Goretti as the senior patron saint.

The motto of the graduating students is, "With righteousness in the heart there will be beauty in the character."

The state flower of Texas, the Bluebonnet, grows during the winter and prefers poor soil over rich.

PHS Football Dance Tonight

Student Council Affair to Begin After Game With Flint Northern

Shades of pigskin prancers! Pontiac High will resound to the whirl of discs and the stomp of feet as the Student Council sponsors a football dance tonight.

Festiviities are scheduled to begin as soon after the game as possible, and the event is to last until about 12:30 a.m.

Tickets will be sold to all lucky clansmen who can pay 50 cents for the privilege of celebrating a resounding victory (we) all hope) against Flint Northern.

There will be but one restriction on the gaiety. Only PHS students will be allowed to attend. All couples who plan to join the fun must make sure that one, at least, graces the time-worn halls of Pontiac High.

High School Retailers Party at Rowe Home

Pontiac High School retailers were in a festive mood Saturday, as the tribesmen celebrated Halloween with a party held at the home of Barbara Rowe.

Retail Club members started off with a hayride, and ended the evening with dancing and refreshments. General chairman for the affair was Lloyd Harper.

CHORAL CONFAB—Looking over the material which the St. Frederick Choral Club may sing during the coming year are the four newly elected officers of the organization. St. Michaelites Celebrate Gridiron Win; Pep Rally Staged by St. Fred Seniors

While St. Michaelites rejoiced in a gridiron victory against the Rams, St. Frederick seniors performed for the last time at a school pep assembly.

That exciting but melancholy event, graduation, is just around the corner. At St. Fred prospective graduates fondly recounted "Memories," the theme of the pep rally.

St. Michael looked forward to a day of relaxation Monday; a free day granted in honor of their recent pigskin victory.

Pontiac High Chiefs, aside from finding a bat in a corridor, planned to attend a zoo, prepared for the annual J-Hop and wandered as usual in a maze of books, confabs, and parties.

ST. MICHAEL

Jubilee reigned supreme in the halls of St. Michael. The glorious sound passed from person to person was victory! The traditional gridiron classic was over and the Rams had defeated the

MARGARET

Scribe Margaret Martin excitedly reported that celebrations highlighted the great event.

Bud Schwartz, Joe Wilhelm and Al Wilhelm hosted an open house Friday after the game and the Rev. Michael J. O'Reilly is granting a free day to the lucky St. Michaelites.

Although Halloween is over, and dances, goblins, contests, and ghosts are becoming part of the past, freshman Jimmy Barnowsky is still receiving congratulations. He was a third place winner in the Halloween window painting contest staged recently in stores throughout the city. The lucky winner received a $10 prize.

ST. FREDERICK

As October faded into the past, and holiday festivities loomed, newshound Mary Drake found the halls of the Alma Mater buzzing.

MARY

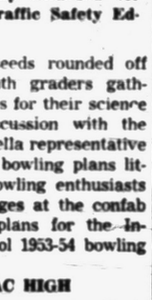
Students exercised their tonsils in preparations for the last home game tomorrow night, while the American Male Chorus also limbered their larynxs' during an assembly held for the student body.

Arms became sore from some well-deserved back patting when the St. Frederick faculty became the proud recipients of the Traveling Safety Cup awarded for excellence in Traffic Safety Education.

Bowling and seeds rounded off activities as ninth graders gathered seed samples for their science studies, and discussion with the Daughter of Isabella representative Rose Griffin got bowling plans literally rolling. Bowling enthusiasts exchanged averages at the confab which included plans for the inter-Catholic School 1953-54 bowling league.

PONTIAC HIGH

Pontiac Highers were going "batty" according to pen pusher Vicky Micu. Lo and behold, in one of the darkened corridors a bonafide bat was found, alive and kicking. From its secluded nest the creature was transported immediately to a biology classroom where after a few futile efforts at escape, the bat decided to accept a life of captivity.



VICKY

Speaking of animals, the Toledo zoo will attract John Youngpeter's biology class.

The American Male Chorus performed for Pontiac High Chiefs recently, acting as a sneak preview for four concerts which will be presented in the near future.

Harold Richards, PHS debater, received a superiority award at the Saginaw Valley Conference tournament recently. His name was unfortunately omitted in the debating accounts printed in last week's paper.

Juniors Choose Dec. 5 Hop Date

Moreau, Nelson Are Co-Chairmen of Dance Activities

Junior brains started to click as the ball began rolling for the yearly, traditional J-Hop. Chairman were chosen, the theme selected and that all important item, the date, was decided upon.

Heading the activities will be co-chairman John J. Moreau and Gary Nelson. Decorating the gymnasium for the gala event is the decorations group headed by Martha Varney. Tickets will be supervised by Sandra Johns and Publicity will be handled by Eva Johnson.

The tasty chore of refreshments falls on the shoulders of Gail Barber, while Malcomb Stoglin bears the all-encompassing title of chairman of the dance. Supervising the music department will be Joe Mills, while Carol Young will take pen in hand and select the patrons for the affair.

The theme of the dance is "Winter," and couples will be tripping the light fantastic in a world gleaming with icicles and winter stars. Red pencils are busy circling the date Dec. 5, and students are waiting with bated breaths for the "Snow Fall Twirl."

St. Fred Students Hold Essay Contest

Students made pen, pencils and typewriter keys fly recently, when an all-school contest was held at St. Frederick High School.

Expressing their views in essay form on Fire Prevention Week, garnered honors for winners Karen Kergan, 9th grade; Ruth Ann Schachern, 10th grade; James Kraus, 11th grade; and Mary Drake, 12th grade.

Pontiac Men Await Cadet Training in the Air Force

Two Pontiac men, who have qualified for U. S. Air Force aviation cadet training, are awaiting class assignments, according to an announcement this week by T-Sgt. Percy R. Moore, commander of the Pontiac Army and Air Force recruiting station.

The future airmen are Walter E. Denio of 62 N. Telegraph Rd., and Terence K. Penfold of 348 Whitttemore St. Both men attended Michigan State College for two years.

Was Contest Winner in Gateway to Hollywood, Met Husband There

NEW YORK — Pert little Gale Storm who plays the role of Margie in TV's situation comedy series "My Little Margie," has a youthful beauty which her admirers claim is "fresh as the plains of her native Texas."

While such claims might be "Texas talk" with some people, it is a true fact that within the past dozen years pretty little Gale has managed by a combination of looks, talent and luck to achieve a highly successful career as a movie and television star and a very happy life as a wife and mother. Even for a Texan that's quite a record!

Born in Houston, Texas, on April 5, 1924, Gale (whose real name was Josephine Cottle) had only one ambition, that of becoming a good secretary.

At the insistence of her high school dramatics teacher, however, she entered a local drama contest. Quite unexpectedly she found herself with a contract from a major Hollywood studio and a brand new name, "Gale Storm."

Another winner of the "Gateway to Hollywood" contest was handsome young Lee Bonnell of Indianapolis, Ind., who served as Gale's partner in many of the dramatic sketches they did for the talent experts at the studios.

Although very young they fell in love and married as soon as they were old enough.

The young Bonnells wanted to have as normal a life as possible and decided on one picture a year for Gale so that they would have time to raise a family.

They now have three sons, Phillip Lee, 10, Peter Wade, 7 and Paul William, 6.

Because of her children Gale has time for few extra-curricular activities. She does find time for vocal lessons and occasional spurts of oil painting.

None of her spare time has to be spent in concentrating on dieting, however, for as Gale says, "rearing children is hard work, especially when they're in some kind of trouble most of the time."

MADCAP MARGIE — Pert and pretty Gale Storm who plays the title role in the lighthearted comedy "My Little Margie" is in reality a contented housewife and the mother of three sons. A popular film star of a few years ago, Gale has switched to the "more inclusive" medium of TV.

Employes in Detroit Join Airlines Strike

DETROIT (UP) — Seventy-five employes in Detroit and at Willow Run airport were among the 2,000 office workers striking today against Northwest Orient Airlines.

Because of the cold, pickets stationed themselves in cars at the airlines' downtown office here and at the airport terminal. Robert J. Wright, district company sales manager, said pilots and mechanics have refused to join the walkout and flights in and out of Detroit are running on schedule.

Wright said there was a chance of about 25 cargo handlers joining the walkout today.

Northwestern Game to Be Televised Here

NEW YORK—General Motors today announced that its TV football "game-of-the-week" program for tomorrow over the NBC-TV network will be regionalized, with separate complete-game telecasts being presented to each of three sections of the nation. A fourth game will be telecast locally.

The Wisconsin-Northwestern telecast, starting at 2:15 p.m., EST, in Evanston, Ill., will be seen in this area over the NBC-TV network.

Urge Color TV Approval Delay Until Christmas

WASHINGTON (UP)—Television dealers have asked the Federal Communications Commission to hold up approval of new color TV standards until just before Christmas to avoid a drop in holiday sales of black and white sets.

The request was made Thursday in a letter to FCC Chairman Rosel Hyde from the National Appliance and Radio-TV Dealers Association, with headquarters at Chicago.

The letter said the color system the FCC is now considering "is the right one and its approval is seemingly inevitable." But the association said it "can expect a marked decline in demand for black and white sets" the day the FCC issues its decision.

The dealers said they usually sell 36 per cent of their year's volume of TV sets during the Christmas buying season.

"If your decision were announced around Dec. 24, unemployment in our industry based on the advent of color would be minimized," the letter said.

Pontiac Woman Hurt When Car Overturns

Mrs. Lula Peters, 55, of 101 Mt. Clemens St., was injured yesterday when the car in which she was riding overturned on Orchard Lake road near 12 Mile road in Farmington Township, according to Farmington Township police.

Mrs. Petters was admitted to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with back and shoulder injuries suffered when she was thrown from an auto driven by her son, Harold, 20, according to Patrolman Irving Yates.

The youth told Yates that he swerved to avoid a bicyclist and his auto overturned. Harold was uninjured.

If Autos Stayed Sober Roads Would Be Safer

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) — "In the old days the horse never got drunk. Today, the car is just as drunk as its driver."

"There are enough crazy, reckless drivers on the road as it is," he said. "The intoxicated driver is a potential killer."

Bank Head to Form New Government

HELSINKI (UP) — Sakari Tuomioja, 42-year-old head of Finland's national bank, agreed today to try to form a new Finnish government.

Premier Urho Kekkonen resigned Wednesday after losing a vote in the Finnish diet's steering committee on an industry construction subsidy program.

Tuomioja was minister of commerce in the first Kekkonen government three years ago, and foreign secretary in one of the ex-premier's later governments. He also handled the negotiations which led to Finland's five-year trade agreement with the Soviet Union.

Governor Asked to Block Extradition

LANSING (UP)—Before Gov. Williams today was the application of an attorney for Turk Prujanski, formerly of Detroit, that the governor refuse to ask California to extradite him to Michigan.

Williams was asked by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office to request Prujanski's extradition to face charges filed by Circuit Judge Miles N. Culehan, one-man grand juror, that he conspired with operators by extortion.

Attorney Joseph Louisell of Detroit, representing Prujanski, asked a hearing before the extradition request was forwarded.

The hearing was conducted before Philip A. Hart, Williams' legal adviser. Louisell contended that the legal documents supplied by the prosecutor's office were faulty. This was denied by Joseph Sullivan, assistant Wayne County prosecutor.

Hart said he would report his findings to the governor on Monday.

Woman Burned on Arms Trying to Quell Blaze

Mrs. Clifford B. Mason, 33, of 835 Cedar St., suffered burns to both arms yesterday while trying to put out an oil stove fire in her home. She was treated at Pontiac General Hospital.

Pontiac firemen said oil from the heater overflowed to the floor and caused an estimated $15 damage. Mrs. Mason said she was in the rear of the home filling another oil can to refuel the stove when the fire broke out.

SHOSHONI, Wyo. (UP)—Retired "windjammer" sea captain W. A. Bloomfield planned his first visit in 65 years to England to visit his aunts. The captain is 91 years old — his aunts 105 and 107.

Housewife Injured as Auto Overturns

A Lake Orion housewife was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital early today after her auto went out of control and overturned on Indianwood road in Orion Township, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Mrs. Cheryl Jasmund, 30, of 856 Fairview St., suffered forehead cuts, bruises and neck and back injuries. Her condition is fair today, the hospital reports.

Mrs. Jasmund, westbound on Indiawood road one and one-half miles west of M-24, lost control of her auto on a curve, knocked down a mail box on one side of the road, swerved to the other side, hit a bank and overturned, according to Deputy Steve Hawlik.

Deputies ticketed Mrs. Jasmund, who was unable to make a statement, for driving with an expired operator's license.

Former Peck Resident on 'This Is Your Life'

A retired Highland Park school teacher, Miss Lou Babcock, recalled her early life in our own Thumb area of Lexington and Peck, on the national TV show, "This is Your Life" broadcast Wednesday evening.

Years of patience, generosity and kindness paid off for the white-haired Miss Babcock, who with tear-filled eyes greeted more than 200 former pupils who had come to pay her homage.

Russian TV Set Being Tested Here

BALTIMORE (UP) — Engineers at the Bendix Aviation Corp. here are testing a Russian television receiver, believed to be the only modern set of its kind in this country.

The set, labeled a Leningrad T2, was said to have been picked up by air intelligence agents in East Germany.

The receiver has an eight-inch picture tube and is encased in an attractive modernistic table-model cabinet of walnut veneer. It has six dials but can tune only one channel. Engineers said the sound receiver is very good but the picture apparatus is about 10 years behind American sets.

About three-fourths of the shore of the Dead Sea is in Jordan territory, the remainder in Israel.

Auto Production Cut in November

DETROIT (AP) — Passenger car production is due for a sharp drop this month.

Whether because of new model changeovers or because an increasing number of retailers are protesting the high volume of factory shipments, the car makers have cut back their schedules.

Unlike the nearly 540,000 cars they built in October the manufacturers have projected about 385,000 units for November assembly. Regardless of the reason for the cutback it will help retailers who have reported they were being forced to cut list prices and grant high trade-in allowances to make sales.

Part of the reduced volume projected for November can be accounted for by the fact there are fewer working days this month than in October. Nevertheless, a r g e r factors are pre-model changeover cuts by General Motors.

Champion Saws Huge Fir Log in Record Time

SEATTLE (AP) — In little more time than it will take you to read this, Paul M. Searls last night sawed through a log thicker than your dining room table is high.

In doing so, he set a record he thinks will stand a long time. As far as Searls personally is concerned it never will fall. The 46-year-old Toutle, Wash., saw filer hung up his contest cuttin' saw after whizzing through the 32-inch fir log in 1 minute 26.4 seconds and said:

"Never again."

His sawdust-making feat broke his own old mark of 2 minutes 8 seconds. Searls has been cutting logs in competition since 1936 but never for a living. His occupation is sharpening saws for Weyerhaeuser Timber Co. at Toutle.

The new mark was set at the Pacific Logging Congress.

Smathers Hits GI Censorship

Protests to Pentagon About Interference With News From Korea

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Smathers (D-Fla) protested bitterly to the Pentagon today against what he termed "intolerable interference" by the Army with newsmen's efforts to report the news from Korea.

He wrote Secretary of Defense Wilson urging a swift crackdown on "putrefying" news censorship by the military and suggested that some eager-beaver censors are "more officious than efficient."

There was no immediate comment from the Pentagon.

Smathers, who made the letter public, said in an interview his protest stemmed from dispatches earlier this week by John Randolph, Associated Press correspondent in Korea. Several other senators had said in previous interviews that Randolph's account raised disturbing questions.

Randolph reported increasing "political" censorship of the news and said some facts not related to security had been suppressed. Among other things, Randolph said the military has refused to clear the true story of an Allied plane which bombed and strafed U. S. soldiers in the field last January, killing 14 men.

Randolph said there has been growing double censorship—the type in which official censors check reporters' stories to make sure they contain nothing harmful to security, and a second censorship by public information officers who, he said, suppress unpleasant facts having no bearing on security.

Michigan Medics Take Movies of Human Throat

CORONADO, Calif. (AP)—Surgeons have taken motion pictures, with sound, of what you would see if you could turn an eye around and look down your own throat.

The soft palate, that muscular fold at the back of the roof of the mouth, dominates the scene.

It is a much more complex organ, say the surgeons, than had been supposed.

The films showed and recorded the sound of the palate in talking, swallowing, coughing, whistling, snoring and sneezing.

In each it has a special function—ranging from pushing food down the throat in eating to rising into the nasal cavity in snoring and vibrating like a clarinet reed.

Many elements of blood are formed in the marrow of bones.

Resting—After a Long, Hard Day!

Twenty minutes ago, the man you see in this picture came out of a long and harassing conference—tired, tense and with a bit of a headache.

And he said to himself—"I'll take the long way home, and drive out by the waterfront, and let the Cadillac relax me!"

And that's just what he's doing.

If you own a 1953 Cadillac, you know exactly what's taking place. But if you don't—let's see what happens as he climbs into the driver's seat and lets his wonderful car begin its magic.

It's relaxing just to look over that long, beautiful hood into the beckoning distance.

The seat cushions hold him in buoyant comfort; the slender wheel fits naturally into his hands; great areas of glass surround him and let each glance reveal a panorama.

And, of course, he's proud and happy—for it's an endless satisfaction to own and command such a respected possession.

And now comes the great lift to his spirits: He touches the key, and hears that deep-throated response so characteristic of a Cadillac engine—and, in an instant, he's off for a wonderful, wonderful hour!

Steering is no more than a gesture . . . the lightest touch on the throttle gets immediate action—smooth, quick, positive . . . the brakes are easy and certain under his foot.

So he just sits back and rolls along—with the soft sound of the wind for a lullaby—and the beautiful view for a tonic—resting, relaxing, at peace with the world!

His wife will never suspect, as he wheels into the driveway, that he was a tired and tense and weary husband just one short hour ago.

That's one of the nicest things about a Cadillac. It's a proven therapeutic for a work-weary man!

Try it, soon, at the end of a long, hard day. We'll furnish the car. You name the time and place.

Selfridge Pilot Sacrifices Self

Jet Engine Dead but Officer Avoids Detroit; Parachute Fails

MT CLEMENS (AP)—An Air Force pilot is dead today, apparently having sacrificed himself to avoid plunging his rocket-laden and disabled jet plane into heavily populated Detroit.

He was 2nd Lt. David E. Axthelm, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Axthelm of Fairfield, Iowa. He was stationed at Selfridge Air Force Base, a member of the 13th fighter-interceptor squadron.

At 15,000 feet north of Selfridge, Axthelm radioed he had a "flame-out," or engine failure, and would attempt an emergency landing.

Apparently he overshot, winding up over Detroit. Then he radioed he would attempt to "ditch" the plane in water.

Shortly before the F86D Sabrejet plunged into Lake St. Clair two youths saw the pilot jump. His parachute opened only partially, and he was killed. But he had nursed his then low-flying plane safely across Eastern Detroit to Lake St. Clair.

It plunged into 20 feet of water between Peche Island and Windmill Pointe, off the American shore. Axthelm's body was found off Belle Isle, a Detroit park.

Air Force rescue boats warned Coast Guard and police boats from the scene because of the planes live rocket load.

South Korea to Get U. S. Ships on Loan

PUSAN, Korea (AP)—The chief of South Korea's navy said today the United States will loan additional warships, including destroyers, to South Korea for "fighting communism more effectively."

U.S. naval officials in Tokyo refused to comment.

Vice Adm. Pak OK Kyoo told a news conference ship maintenance facilities in South Korea are to be substantially increased to handle the new warships.

Pak refused to say how many he expects or when.

'World Needs Freer Trade'

C. E. Wilson Claims Cause of Peace Would Be Helped

NEW YORK (AP) — Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson says the United States cannot depend on arms alone to preserve peace and freedom in the world.

The free world, he says, must develop exchange of goods and services, and gradually eliminate barriers to trade.

Wilson spoke last night before 1,000 members and guests of the Academy of Political Science at a dinner.

He said the United States, in the face of militant communism, must continue to be strong militarily and economically, but "we Must make progress in eliminating the causes of war and put into effect the policies that will contribute to a stable peace." Wilson added:

* * *

"Among the policies that must be subscribed to by all nations to bring the world's economic productivity to the highest possible level are freer exchange of technical knowledge and production know-how, freer access to raw materials in a world market, including the active development of natural resources throughout the world, freer exchange of goods and services, and the gradual elimination of artificial and political trade barriers.

* * *

"Real progress must also be made in strengthening the economies of all nations and raising their standard of living through a better understanding of the relationships between the production and consumption of goods and services, of exports and imports, of credit and debt, of trade barriers and the money supply."

Police to Quiz Boy on Vanished Sitter

LA CROSSE, Wis. (AP)—La Crosse authorities today were expected to question a 15-year-old boy who told Madison police yesterday after he was picked up as a runaway that he had dated the missing Evelyn Hartley.

The youth, from nearby Onalaska, was picked up on the request of his parents. La Crosse police were sent today to return him.

Madison Police Capt. Richard Gruber said the boy told him he was in Onalaska the weekend of Oct. 24 when Evelyn vanished but that he did not see her during the visit. The boy said he had not seen Evelyn for several months. He had been working in Madison restaurants.

Charles Wilson, director of the state crime laboratory, said that tennis shoes found along a highway outside La Crosse are believed to be those worn by the abductor who snatched the 15-year-old girl from the home where she was baby sitting.

Inspired by a last minute pep talk by Vincent Secontine and Harold Newcomb, the Birmingham High School faculty squeezed through to a narrow 192-111 victory over GAA and Varsity Club in a hard-fought volleyball game last Thursday night.

Although each team won four games, the teachers finished on top in total points to polish off the over-confident students.

This is one of the few times that the teachers have had a chance to participate in activities with the students on an equal level. Everyone had a great time and it is likely that there will be more student-faculty activities during the year.

Michigan State Teachers College cross-country course at Ypsilanti will again be the site of the state meet Saturday when schools from all over the state fight for the championship.

This year teams wishing to enter the state meet first had to qualify at one of the four regional meets instead of at one large meet.

Schools qualifying in class A at the regionals held at Birmingham High School were Pontiac, Birmingham, Dearborn, Mt. Clemens, Royal Oak and Hazel Park.

A turnout of more than 50 prospects crowded into Barnum pool last Monday as the Birmingham tank season got under way.

With 16 returning lettermen, 12 of whom are seniors, this year's team promises to match the quality of the championship squads of the past five years.

Fun was the keyword last Saturday at the annual Halloween party sponsored by Student Congress at Birmingham High School.

The party featured a dance in the gym with music provided by Tony Currier and his band. The dance also included Joe Cornell, a square dance caller.

Another attraction of the party was a movie presented in Little Theater.

Credit goes to Cherry Harris, general chairman of the party; Marlene Crawford, publicity; Mary Knecht and Lynn Bennett, decorations; Joan Gassaway, chaperones; Pat Jackson, movie; and Doug Austin, in charge of refreshments and clean-up.

Marksman's Bullets Pile Up in Barrel

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UP)—Leon Morrison, 37, of Chula Vista (a San Diego suburb), fired nine times with his .38 caliber revolver—then the pearl handle broke off in his hand.

Morrison took the gun to the Chula Vista police station. Officers found all nine bullets jammed in the barrel.

"I didn't think anything was wrong when I apparently missed the target; I'm no expert marksman," Morrison commented.

King's College, precursor of Columbia University, is believed to have been the only college in Colonial America which did not have a theological faculty.

Plans Dates Way Ahead

MARION, Ill. (UP) — Daniel Cobb, son of the local draft board secretary, vowed after a spat with his mother that she never would see him in the Army. He volunteered first for the Navy, then was "accepted" by the local Air Force recruiter. Danny, will begin his Air Force enlistment some time in 1966, when he will be 19. He's six now.

Matches Cheap in U. S. Because of Advertising

NEW YORK (INS)—Americans pay less for their matches—31 cents a year per capita—than any other people in the world, according to match industry spokesmen.

The cost is so low, in fact, that even the Swiss "reusable match," which gave 120 lights for a nickel, can't compete. At a two-for-a-cent rate, American match books provide 200 lights for a nickel.

What keeps U. S. match costs so low? The messages on the covers, paid for by some 257,000 companies, and permitting you to buy four books for the price of three.

Every American of 16 years of age or more uses matches, for a grand consumption total of 508,526,549,500 lights a year. About half of this total are book matches.

Twins Plan to Double in Dental Office Work

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UP)—Looking like your twin brother has its advantages, and David one more than most identical and Richard Leffler, 21 have twins.

They both graduated from Western Reserve University's school of dentistry this year—and they take care of each other's teeth. They plan to open a two-chair shop soon in Massillon, Ohio, their home town.

No more than a step has separated them from the time they entered kindergarten to the present.

"I've filled two of Richard's teeth," David said. "Painlessly, of course."

If an American husband is five years older than his wife, the chances that she will outlive him are 70 in 100; and they are 80 in 100 if he is 10 years older.

Greedy Turkey Finds He Has Stiff Neck

CHILDRESS, Tex. (AP) — A careless turkey came up with a stiff neck recently and presented a problem. He couldn't eat during feeding time.

Owner Grady Gilliland of Childress hustled the hungry bird off to a veterinarian.

It was a stiff neck, all right. The veterinarian removed a stiff weed stalk, 11¼ inches long, from the turkey's neck. Everything is all right now.

Lad of 11 Masters Chess but Parents Don't Play

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—A lad of 11 has mastered enough chess in 18 months to be rated today as perhaps the most promising young player in 30 years.

Larry Remlinger learned the fundamentals from his uncle, but soon was winning consistently. So he began to frequent the Long Beach Chess club. Now he can hold his own with any of the club's experts.

Herman Steiner, chess expert for the Los Angeles Times, says, "Larry is as good as Samuel Reshevsky was at the same age."

Reshevsky came to the United States from Poland in 1921 as a 10-year-old chess wonder and has won the national championships several times. Young Larry won't get any chess instructions from his parents—neither plays.

Foreign Entries Cause Interest Abroad in Race

NEW YORK (INS) — People, Places, Events. . .

There's a hoss race at Laurel, Md., tomorrow that is getting more space in the British, French, Irish and Argentine press than it is getting in that of the Yewnited States of these here Americas.

It is the $65,000 mile and a half Washington, D. C. International.

Native Dancer won't be in it, and Tom was fool enough to retire. But Paul Dubosc's Silnet is in, from France, as is Wilwyn, owned naturally by an Englishman, named Ralph B. Strassburger and ridden by one of the most aptly-named men in sports—jockey Charlie Smirke.

Then there's Ireland's Thirteen of Diamonds and Treetops Hotel, the latter trained by Capt. Darby Rogers, no less.

Trainer Angel Penna, a male, is banking on Mister Black to take the $50,000 first prize and a slab of silver plate back to Buenos Aires.

And a gent of Italian descent named Eddie Arcaro, aboard Crafty Admiral, the favorite.

The other day at Eglin Field, Fla., a general who still can hardly talk about some of the things he was in charge of in World War II (much less what he was in charge of in Korea) let us in on a bit of little-known information about the air war against Germany.

In a desperate effort to knock out V-2 launching sites, our Air Force reconverted a number of B-17 Flying Fortresses into dynamite carriers.

They'd be loaded to the hilt with explosives, were taken by remote control to the chosen target, and guided into it by the mother plane—which would stay at a safe distance.

Another Air Force plan was to take off such a plane with a pilot and one crew-member, then have the crewman "set" the charges—at which point the pilot and his man would bail out and turn the plane over to a nearby mother ship for a remote-control glide into enemy territory.

"I still can't tell everything that happened," he said, "but I guess it's alright to tell you about one such plane we sweat out. The people in our mother plane were guiding it along nicely, and keeping tabs on it visually, when both ships were forced to fly through a heavy cloud formation.

"The mother-ship switched to its crude television system and was able to see the dynamite plane for some time. Matter of fact, once our fellows were able to look (by television) right down through the plastic nose of the '17 and see Germany below.

"Then we lost it. We had no way of knowing that its engines were icing up and it was slowing down. All of a sudden all our fellows could see on their screen was trees. No dynamite plane.

"Couple days later one of our fighters spotted it. It had made a perfect landing by itself, stopping yards short of the trees that would have blown it up.

"We went out as soon as we could to explode it by fighter-fire, so as to destroy the remote control equipment. But now we couldn't find it. We searched for days with dozens of planes.

"It wasn't until after the war that we learned what happened. The people of the nearby village sent word to the Nazi boss that a B-17 was down and that tbe crew had escaped.

"The boss arrived, ordered a fruitless search for the crew, then invited a lot of his buddies to visit the downed plane.

"It was while they were poking gingerly at it that the old B-17 just upped and decided to go bang.

Almost two million homes in the U. S. are still lighted by kerosene lamps.

Urge Parents Teach Meaning of America

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The chairman of the National Association of Manufacturers Board of Directors said yesterday American parents should "talk freedom at the dinner table" if they want to keep their children from turning to leftist beliefs in college.

William J. Grede of Milwaukee told a Rotary Club meeting that American people too often blame higher education "for making pinks of our children."

He said, "We are probably as much to blame as the schools by our failure to inculcate an understanding of our heritage."

Grede said government monopolists, industrial cartelists and a labor bloc are taking form in this country and are "threatening our individual freedom here."

The sheriff's office says that except for one girl who walked into the rear of a car because she was gazing at a uniformed patrol boy, the record is perfect.

London Visitor Finds Texas Travel Slow

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP)— A visitor from London learned something about Texas distances and Texas weather yesterday.

It took Mrs. Regi Bauman longer to fly from Dallas to Lubbock than it took her to get from London to New York. The reason, of all things—fog.

Mrs. Bauman left Dallas for Lubbock at 9 a.m. The plane reached Lubbock at 11:40 p.m. but couldn't land at the fog-covered city. It took refuge at Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Bauman then flew from Wichita Falls to Hobbs, N. M., and took a bus to Lubbock, arriving 11 hours after she left Dallas.

The trip from London to New York required 10 hours.

Tobacco and grain alcohol have not been proved directly harmful to the eyes, but may indirectly cause eye trouble by attacking the general health. On the other hand, wood alcohol injures the eyes directly and incurably.

Man's Untimely Death Pays Off Home Mortgage

DENVER (AP)—A Denver widow paid off a $9,000 mortgage on her home yesterday at a cost of $9.46.

Her husband applied for life insurance which paid the mortgage last Saturday. He died next day.

Actuarial experts estimated the odds against such a circumstance at more than a million to one.

George Smart, 31, a head file clerk for the Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad, took a physical examination for his policy the day before he died.

Awaits Sentencing in 'Spanking' Death

GRAND RAPIDS (UP)—Arthur J. Wiltse, 26, was awaiting sentence today on manslaughter charges in the "spanking" death of his two-year-old stepson.

Wiltse was found guilty late Thursday by Superior Judge Thaddeus B. Taylor after a three day trial.

The boy, Thomas B. Roszell, died Aug. 19 after the stepfather administered a spanking. Judge Taylor said, after hearing testimony, that the child was victim of a "merciless beating."

Testimony and photos offered disclosed that the child had several bruises and injuries which the prosecution contended were inflicted during the "spanking."

Runaway Truck Slams Into Train, Engineer Dies

NEWBERRY (UP) — A railroad engineer was killed near here Thursday when an out-of-control logging truck knocked a locomotive and eight cars off the tracks.

The engineer was identified as Eldredge Hicks, 39, Marquette. Injured were Joe Fink, the train's fireman, and Lawrence Snyder, 26, Shingleton, driver of the truck.

Railroad officials said the truck ran out of control while traveling along M-28, which parallels the Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic Railroad tracks. The truck rolled off the highway and hit the locomotive.

The Erie Canal was completed in 1825.

Climber's Holiday

HASTINGS, Neb. (UP) — Mac McClenahan got in shape for his annual summer mountain climbing trip by walking 16 miles to visit a friend in nearby Kenesaw, Neb.

Hit and Run Horse Eludes Patrolmen

DAYTON, Ohio (UP) — "Attention all cars, attention all cars," the police radio blurted out. "Wanted for hit-and-run accident, a large white horse pulling a vegetable wagon."

The docile beast was trotting along when a street department crew triggered noisy air hammers, police discovered later.

Nellie tore off like her grandma used to when the autos first hit the road. Nellie slammed into a parked car and went on her way with her elderly driver handling the reins.

The speedy police cars weren't able to catch old-fashioned Nellie.

Hydroelectric Power Changes Face of Portugal

LISBON (UP) — A 10-year-old, government-backed hydroelectric power development project is gradually changing the face of Portugal and opening the door to industrialization.

Steam and diesel engines produced most of Portugal's electricity as late as 1946. The country's new hydroelectric plants now, however, produce nearly 95 per cent of electric power at considerably cheaper consumer costs.

Heavy industries now pay about .44 American cents per kilowatt hour; private consumers 1.4 to 2.8 cents.

The Portuguese government has invested some 40 per cent of the money in the power projects. Most of the actual development, however, has been done since 1945 by three big private companies.

United States aid, through ECA and MSA, has been extensive. Direct dollar aid has been nearly $3,500,000 in Portugal and her overseas territories.

Sheriffs and members of the clergy are not eligible for election to membership in the house of parliament.

ONE-WOMAN SHOW—Mrs. Eda Sadler, 73-year-old artist, displays one of her paintings for her grandson, Roger Wilson, 9, in the picture gallery of a Chicago department store. Mrs. Sadler's successful one-woman show displays her "primitive" style, much like that of the famed Grandma Moses. Until three years ago "Grandma Sadler" used buildings on her farm as subjects for most of her paintings.

U.S., England Frustrated, Both Resigned to Cold War

By PHIL NEWSOM
UP Foreign News Editor

The United States and Britain have resigned themselves to an indefinite cold war with Russia.

It means that for years to come East and West can hang in a state of suspended animation, a state neither of peace nor of war.

The prospects are not particularly pleasant, especially since the decision is not based on any Communist retreat.

Rather, it is based on the belief that the Reds have other fish to fry and that in dealings with the United States, particularly, they will be content to let the pot simmer rather than come to a boil.

Recent events and pronouncements reflect such a conclusion.

Responsible United States military commanders have said they do not believe the Reds want war to break out again in Korea.

Yet Secretary of State Dulles has said he has reason to suspect the Reds are not negotiating in good faith in Korea.

Sir Winston Churchill, a hardy optimist, has all but abandoned hope of a high-level conference with Russia on world problems, plus the hope that if such a meeting were held, any good would come of it.

Official Washington reacted to a Russian rejection of a peace conference on Germany and Austria with the view that the Allies had about made their last concession.

But with all these frustrations there is the mounting belief that the danger of war is receding.

Partly this is due to increasing confidence in Western preparedness against attack and to the view expressed by Churchill that as mankind develops more destructive weapons, "No one will want to kill anyone at all."

Partly also it is based on Western interpretation of events inside Russia itself.

One impression is that the Kremlin is reverting to an earlier theory that the capitalistic countries are crumbling and must fall of their own weight.

Therefore the Reds can sit it out for awhile, refusing to retreat but carefully avoiding armed conflict.

Another is that the regime which took over after the death of Stalin is first trying to popularize itself at home.

On top of the five-year economic plan expiring in 1955, the Russians have imposed a three-year plan running through 1956 emphasizing production of better food and choicer consumer goods.

In 1955 they propose to turn out 3,445,000 bicycles, 350,000 electric refrigerators, 64,000 tons of aluminum tableware and 16,500,000 metal beds.

Responsibility for their production will fall heavily on such producers of war goods as the aviation ministry, the ministry of machine building and the ministry of defense industries.

From the internal point of view, the improvement will be greater than any Soviet worker or housewife had dared to hope.

But it is noteworthy that Soviet industry is being told to produce these goods on top of others and that there will be no reduction in the output of war goods. Moreover, production of these luxuries can be halted at a moment's notice.

Ferguson Predicts Seaway OK in '54

FLINT (UP)—Sen. Homer Ferguson said Thursday that the St Lawrence Seaway project bill will be approved by Congress next year.

The Michigan Republican, who has travveled more than 9,000 mil giving his "report to the people," spoke at a service club luncheon. He said the Senate will begin acting on the seaway proposal in January.

Ferguson also predicted that amendments to the Taft-Hartley Labor Law will be made within a year. He said early budget cuts were difficult because of financial obligations stemming from the Truman administration.

Couple Happy as Ghosts and in Real Life

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—As ghosts or in real life, Anne Jeffreys and Robert Sterling are the happiest married pair you can find.

Their other-worldly existence can be seen tonight over CBS-TV on "Topper." Anne and Bob play Marion and George Kerby, the playful wraiths who make life miserable for Cosmo Topper, enacted by Leo G. Carroll. These are the roles played in the film version by Constance Bennett, Cary Grant and Roland Young.

"Topper" on TV has been well received and appears set for a year's run and perhaps much longer. That means the versatile Sterlings will be tied down to the TV film grind. I asked how they like that.

"It's a rugged life," said she. "We're up early in the morning and home late at night. We've been in town a couple of months and most of our friends don't even know we're here. We haven't had time to see them."

"We make one half-hour show in three days and do two a week," said he. "We work three weeks and have one week off."

"Our big night of the week is Saturday night," said she. "No matter how tired we are, we go out on the town. But we never see our friends, because Hollywood people don't go out on Saturday night. By 11:30, we start yawning and fighting to stay awake."

"It's terribly confining, but not much different from other fields in show business," said he. "You always have to be somewhere at a certain time and give out with a performance."

"Sometimes I feel as if it's all for nothing," said she. "You do one, they put it in the can and you start another one. I miss the reaction you get with a live audience."

"But you can't knock success," said he. "If this show catches on—and we've had good reports on it—it will be great for us. The important thing in our business is to have a hit, no matter what medium it is in."

Anne and Bob can share a bit of satisfaction in returning in triumph to Hollywood. They weren't given a chance to show their potentialities in the movies.

Anne has a fine soprano voice, but she was never allowed to display it in films. When she was under contract to RKO, she was generally relegated to cowpoke dramas.

Bob was rising fast at MGM before the war. Spencer Tracy picked him to play in "A Guy Named Joe," and he was all set for the role. A notice from Uncle Sam ended all that. Van Johnson got the part and rose to stardom.

"I came back from the war and found I was 14th in line for roles," he said. "I didn't work for a whole year, and I begged to be released. Paramount, Warners and Universal wanted to sign me. The week after I finally got my release, the bottom fell out of the English market for Hollywood films. The studios weren't signing anyone."

Bob went back to New York and did some fine work on TV and in "Gramercy Ghost" on Broadway. Anne did shows like "Street Scene," "Three Wishes for Jaimie" and "Kiss Me Kate," which she performed 885 times. Their romance started while both were in Broadway shows and were known as "the lovers of Shubert Alley."

They started working together when Anne's mother dropped an idle suggestion that they should do a night club act. Anne had never done clubs and Bob had never done musicals. But they whipped up an act and scored a solid hit. They played 10 months and had to pass up a year's bookings for the "Topper" show.

SHAGGY STORY—Zoo-keeper Michael Quinn of the Bronx, New York, lends an attentive ear as one of his chimp charges whispers the latest "shaggy man story" into his ear. The other chimps, bored because they've already heard the joke, wait impatiently for the keeper to resume his feeding chore. Quinn, with the zoo for 20 years, is known as the "keeper of the great apes."

Editor Demands Easing of Tight Atomic Secrecy

CHICAGO (AP)—A newspaper editor today called for an easing of the tight secrecy surrounding atomic energy on grounds that the price paid for such secrecy is "too, too high."

William P. Steven of the Minneapolis Star and Tribune said:

"A full development of the peaceful uses of atomic power inevitably demands that the secrecy clauses in the present law be eliminated."

Steven, chairman of the Freedom of Information Committee of the Associated Press Managing Editors Association, told news executives at the annual APME meeting:

"The one greatest power source discovered by man we lock up as best we can behind a wall of secrecy—not trusting it to ourselves for fear we reveal it to someone else, not trusting our own capacities to think ahead, produce ahead and stay ahead of the nations of the world.

"How can we win the battle for democracy, for the rights of man, with tactics of nationalization, of monopoly, of secrecy?

"The answer is we cannot."

Steven told fellow editors amendments to the Atomic Energy Act will be proposed at the next session of Congress. One amendment, he suggested, should "strike out the legal requirements of secrecy."

"The price of that secrecy by law," he said, "is too, too high."

"No such requirement of law," he said, "guards the few necessary secrets of our armed forces or our State Department."

He pointed out that the Atomic Energy Act of 1946 gives the Atomic Energy Commission authority to "control" information in a manner that will "assure common defense and security."

Steven said that among the things "wrong" with atomic secrecy are these:

"Newspapers cannot inform the people.

"Public agencies and employes cannot be fairly judged.

"We cannot evaluate our defenses. We cannot know whether we are doing all that must be done to be safe.

"We stultify proper interest in civilian defense.

"We put blockades in the way of building a free world army by banning the exchange of military atomic information.

Korean Talks Handed to Aides

Staff Advisers Will Try to Smooth Out Disputes Stalling Conference

PANMUNJOM (AP) — Allied and Communist diplomats today handed a team of staff advisers the tough job of ironing out disputes which have stalled efforts to arrange a Korean peace conference.

U. S. envoy Arthur Dean and top Red negotiators recessed indefinitely while their aides try informally and probably in secret to break the deadlock.

Ki Sok Bok, North Korean Foreign Ministry councillor, indicated yesterday he would reject Dean's suggestion to turn the preliminary peace talks over to lower level advisers. As today's session opened Ki announced unexpectedly that the Reds would accept the proposal.

* * *

The Reds stipulated that "your side give up its unreasonable stand in ignoring composition" of the conference.

Two staff advisers from each side will hold their first session Saturday.

A spokesman for Dean said his proposal for lower level talks was made "in the light of the background" of Korean armistice talks. The truce negotiators often "took the heat off" disputes at the top level by handing them down to staff officers for solution.

* * *

Kenneth Young, director of the Office of Northeast Asian (Japan and Korea) Affairs for the U.S. State Department, and Col. Stanton Babcock, a senior adviser, will represent Dean in the discussions.

The Communists picked North Korean adviser Chon Dong Hyok and Chinese Communist Pu Shou Chand.

The Communist acceptance came so quickly that Friday's session was the shortest of 11 meetings so far. It lasted only 22 minutes.

Dean told newsmen he thought the staff advisers would work in "executive secret sessions."

Dean said he felt the staff workers could achieve a "freer exchange of ideas" than in the top-level discussions, where there is "no give and take."

Actress Gets Temporary Support From Husband

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress June Lang has been awarded $45 weekly temporary support for herself and her child, Patricia Ann, 4, from her estranged husband, William Morgan, manufacturer's representative.

Morgan told the court yesterday he would like a reconciliation but that Miss Lang would not consent.

"No, I've had too many years to think about it," the actress testified.

Morgan filed a divorce suit; she filed a cross-complaint a few days later.

Vivien Leigh in First Play Since Collapse

LONDON (AP)—Vivien Leigh, more like a purring kitten than ever, returned to the London stage last night for the first time since her collapse in March and stole the hearts of a swank opening night crowd.

Miss Leigh was celebrating her 40th birthday. And the cheers and shouts were the nicest gift possible.

The play was "The Sleeping Prince" by Terence Rattigan — all about an American chorus girl playing in a London musical during the coronation of 1911, who enraptures a visiting prince regent from the Balkans, played by Miss Leigh's husband, Sir Laurence Olivier.

The cast had staged a special prevue charity performance of the play two days ago.

The critics, too, loved her, although they found the play light and frothy stuff.

Detroiter Killed in Crash

DETROIT (UP) — Mrs. Easter Radcliff, 62, was killed Thursday when her car collided with one driven by Joseph Camel Jr., 33, an off-duty policeman. A passenger in Mrs. Radcliff's car, Mrs. Emma Fisher, was injured seriously.

Voiceless Dinah Shore Uses TV Sign Language

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Dinah Shore has lost her voice.

This happened yesterday two hours before she was scheduled to appear on NBC's national television hookup.

Her doctor says she is suffering from laryngitis and will be silent for at least three days.

Her guest, Johnny Desmond, did all the singing on the show. Miss Shore appeared occasionally holding up signs reading, "Hi," "I can't talk."

Michigan Potato Crop Fine Quality This Year

EDMORE (AP)—Micgigan's potato crop this year was the best for quality in the history of the state, Leyton V. Nelson, Michigan State College specialist, said here yesterday.

Nelson said that ideal fall weather averted frost damage to crops of virtually all commercial potato growers. The Michigan State crop specialist was here as a judge for the Southwest Michigan annual potato show.

At a meeting last week Charles Riffenberg of Walled Lake was named to succeed Ray Munde as chairman of the temporary committee. Munde will serve in an advisery capacity as an attorney.

Munde reported on tentative plans for the clinic, which would be named in honor of the late Dr. MacKenzie who was killed in an automobile accident recently after serving Walled Lake and the area for many years.

Plans call for eight examining rooms, including one for emergencies; three offices, a laboratory room, therapy room, two lavatories and storage rooms. The committee set the cost of the project at $60,000.

Board to Try Trimming Costs

Final Decision on Offers Postponed Till Special Meeting Nov. 23

WALLED LAKE — Three contractors submitted bids for two new schools here yesterday but all three exceeded previous cost estimates of the board of education.

The board, after discussing alternates, postponed final decision on the bids until a special meeting set for Nov. 23.

Meanwhile, discussions will be held with contractors and architects to seek ways of cutting costs by eliminating parts of both buildings.

Proposed are a 25-room high school at South Commerce and Oakley Park roads and a 13-room elementary school in the Twin Beach area.

Supt. Clifford H. Smart said the bids exceeded estimates and funds available because they did not include equipment or furnishings for the schools. Voters passed a $1,300,000 school bond issue last May.

A. M. Hickson Co. of Detroit submitted bids of $1,100,000 for the high school and $289,800 for the elementary school and a combined bid of $1,380,000 for both.

Bids of $1,115,000 for the high school, $311,000 for the elementary school and $1,418,000 combined were given by Dailey Construction Co. of Detroit.

Submitting bids of $1,140,000 for the high school, $281,683 for the elementary school and $1,417,000 combined was Commercial Contractors.

MARLETTE — Drainage and flood control problems of the Saginaw Valley project were discussed Tuesday at a meeting of the Sanalac County Flats Area Association with state and national representatives.

Also present were members of the Saginaw Valley Planning Commission.

Gale Gibson, commission secretary, discussed the history of the project.

Others speaking were Bill Dennison, chairman of Saginaw Valley Planning; Claude Stewart, Lapeer County drain commissioner; State Senator Frank Heath of Bay City, chairman of the legislature interim committee on drainage and flood control; and Senator Alpheus Decker and Rep. Herb Clement of Sanilac County.

The group presented a picture of the needs of the area to U. S. Senator Homer Ferguson and Rep. Jesse P. Wolcott, who gave their approval and explained procedure in obtaining federal assistance.

This year's crop losses in the Sanilac flats area, according to a Soil Conservation Service survey, was $1,500,000 in the south branch of Cass River.

Estimates of the total cost of the Sanilac Flats Project, which includes both the middle and south branch, is $1,835,300. The local share of the cost, if the project were approved, would be $804,900, and the federal share would be $1,020,400.

Parker Insists Lions Still in NFL Title Race

Buddy Figures Rams to Lose 'at Least Once More' This Season

DETROIT (UP)—Coach Buddy Parker of the Detroit Lions predicted that the Los Angeles Rams, front-runners in the National Football League's Western division, will lose "at least once more" before the season ends.

"We are not out of the race," insisted Parker, whose defending champion Lions trail the Rams by one game.

"The way I see it, we're in better shape right now than we were last year at the same time," Parker added. "We don't have any injuries. Doak Walker and Bob Hoernschemeyer were sidelined a year ago at mid-season and we still kept going to win the championship."

Parker doesn't expect a total collapse by the Rams, such as the San Francisco 49ers experienced in 1952 when they dropped five games in two months after a fast start.

"But the Rams aren't going to finish with an 11-1 record," he said. "Not in this division. Ten victories will be good enough to win the division title, maybe even nine."

Rams have won five of their first six starts, including a pair of victories over the Lions, only blemishes on Detroit's record.

Parker wouldn't predict the division title for his Lions. "But we'll give the Rams a run for their money if we can avoid serious injuries," he said.

Lions embark on the second half of their 12-game schedule Saturday night as host to the Baltimore Colts. Parker indicated there would be one change in his backfield.

Gene Gedman, hard-running rookie from Indiana, will be at fullback where the Lions have been noticeably weak this season.

Idaho College Tops Nation in Offense

NEW YORK (AP) — Spectacular running and passing of Ted Martin and Boyd Crawford has turned unbeaten College of Idaho into the hottest offense team in collegiat football.

The Caldwell, Idaho, Coyotes, who wind up their regular season tomorrow against Whitman, are averaging 460 yards per game for seven games, topped by an amazing 714 yards last week against Lewis & Clark.

In that game Crawford hit 18 passes in 2. attempts for 362 yards and three touchdowns, the year's best one-game passing performance as recorded by the NCAA Service Bureau.

Notre Dame's Mentor Praises Irish Linemen

By FRANK LEAHY

I've asked my secretary to hold off til the last minute on sending this column out as we couldn't get definite word from the medical people as to whether or not they wanted me to make the trip. Today we got the word that I can be back down on the sidelines when we play Penn Saturday.

Naturally, while being bedridden I have not kept as close a touch on the national scene as in the past, but I do believe it has afforded me more time to study our own team than the busy days at school permit.

I've studied the movies many times to try and determine why the team has been doing even better than our fondest expectations.

What success we have had to date has been due parimarily to the work done by our linemen on offense. Our running backs would not have gained many yards this fall were it not for the job done by our linemen.

Columbus, Ohio will see a game Saturday between two of the nations finest teams. Regardless of the fact that they have both been beaten. It is my belief that Michigan State and Ohio State are two of the best, and on a given day could give any team in the country a real battle.

From the Big Ten title standpoint the Michigan-Illinois game carries more interest. A win for Illinois would make its lead mighty solid. Michigan knows this and will be tough to beat.

Baylor-Texas game could well decide the eventual Southwest Conference champ. Baylor has yet to lose one and one more victory would pretty much eliminate competition.

Likewise the Southern California-Stanford result will be the key to the Pacific Coast title race. If Stanford wins chances of their being sidetracked are slim, but, Southern Cal is favored so it should be a thriller.

PHS Harriers in State Title Chase at Ypsi

Pontiac High's cross country team will go to Ypsilanti Saturday to compete in a 14-team Class A field for the state championship.

Chiefs, who have an imposing record of 28 consecutive dual meet victories and triumphs in the Saginaw Valley Conference and regional meet at Birmingham, will be ranked among the meet's favorites.

Other regional titlists are Ann Arbor and Grand Rapids Union, defending state champion. Also entered are Jackson, Lansing Sexton, Midland, Kalamazoo Central, Battle Creek, Grand Rapids Catholic Central, Dearborn, Hazel Park, Royal Oak, Mt. Clemens and Birmingham.

Meet will be held at Ypsi's Washtenaw Country Club course, with the Class A run scheduled for 11 a.m.

Heavily-favored Flint Northern invades Wisner Memorial Stadium tonight to close Pontiac High's 1953 home football season.

Game is one of three important Saginaw Valley Conference contests. In other tilts, Bay City Central is at Arthur Hill and Saginaw High is at Flint Central.

Northern, currently tied with cross-town rival Flint Central for the SVC's lead, is driving toward its 1st Valley championship since 1950. Vikings' great Bolden - Duckett - McDonald trio sparked the team to victory that year.

As in 1950, speed is again the keynote of Coach Burt Smith's attack this season. Halfbacks Art Johnson and Jerry Miller and fullback Dick Ruhala — all dash men on the Northern track team — operate behind a line that averages 193 pounds, end to end.

Johnson is the team's top ground gainer with an average of 10.6 yards in 61 tries. Miller has 6.2 in 51 carries, while quarterback Bob Failing has ripped off 192 yards in 58 plays. Ruhala has toted the ball on only 19 occasions for 26 yards.

PHS seniors making their final home appearances tonight include backs Jimmy Williams, Bill Rose, Homer Harrison, Dick Ayling, Lee Quince, Kirk Hoboleth and Zack Athanas, ends Leroy Moore, Jim Wiscombe, Joe Singleton, Dave Beckley, Jim Greenwood and Dick Weir, tackles Tom Metzdorf, Jack Hopkins, Marvin Evans, center Ed Hoban, and guards Bill McLarty, Ed Reid and Gene Vaughn.

Coach Ed Graybiel's only contemplated change in his usual lineup tonight will have junior end Willie Wilson moving to end and linebacker on defense. Regular flanker Leroy Moore will switch to tackle on a 7-man line.

'Natural' Rivalries on Tap

By JACK SAYLOR

A number of natural rivalries highlight today's prep football action in Oakland County.

Oxford makes the short jaunt down M-24 to tangle with Lake Orion. These teams always have a good game regardless of what has happened on the rest of the schedule—and this year both have winning records. T

Two years ago, they played to a 13-13 tie, while Orion eked out a 13-12 decision last season. Jim Hoag's Dragons won four of its 1st five games, losing only to Lapeer, 7-0, then lost last week at Ionia, 26-13.

Mike Yedinak's Oxford eleven dropped its opener to Milford (7-0), then lost only to Romeo (6-0) in its next five starts. Game looms as a toss-up.

Another strong rivalry matches Clarkston's Wolves and Holly in a night game at Holly. Ed Hintz' injury-plagued Clarkstonians have managed only one win and a tie in seven outings. Holly also experienced trouble after its 13-game winning streak was snapped and stands 4-3 for the season.

Over in the western section of the county, Milford closes its campaign at home against South Lyon. Each needs the victory to finish over .500. Redskins are smarting from last year's 19-13 upset at the hands of Class C Lions.

Royal Oak's biggest rival is Birmingham, met each Thanksgiving morning, but the Acorns also have no difficulty getting themselves "up" for Ferndale. Tonight's game is on the "Dales' field.

Other games on today's nonleague schedule are Birmingham at Waterford; Rochester at Cranbrook; Walled Lake at Trenton; Troy at Dexter and Plymouth at Southfield.

Keego Harbor has a tough test at Clarenceville in the pivotal Wayne-Oakland League game. Trojans have come on fast to win three straight. Like its foes, Keego is once-beaten.

Charlie Guinnip's Presidents tied Waterford in their opener, won three in a row, were upset by Brighton (6-0), then rebounded to rout Milford.

Fitzgerald and Roseville meet in the top Oakland B game. Each has a 3-1 league mark. Avondale, also 3-1, can gain no worse than a tie for the title by beating Madison. Berkley must spill Van Dyke to tie for the Inter-Lakes corwn.

TODAY

Former Tiger Manager Confirms Report He's Candidate for Post

DETROIT (AP)—Red Rolfe may be the next manager of the Toronto Maple Leafs of the International League, and again he doesn't know whether he'll return to baseball or not.

Rolfe, former Yankee "murderers row," confirmed reports last night he had conferred with Maple Leaf management on the possibility of managing Toronto.

He put it this way.

"I sounded out Toronto and went there to look into the possibility (of becoming manager). I have not settled on what I shall do in the future and have no definite plans as of now. I don't know if I'll return to baseball or not."

Toronto fired its 1953 manager, Burleigh Grimes, two weeks ago.

Rolfe, former Yankee third baseman and Yale baseball coach, was fired as Detroit's manager in mid-1952.

Gopher 1-Man Gang

Giel Given Edge Over Lattner by Pitt, but Caliber of Team Is Strong Factor

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—What the country's football fans would like to see on their home screens tomorrow more than anything else would be a composite of the Notre Dame-Penn and Minnesota-Indiana games.

Specifically, they would like to get a first-hand comparison of the two most talked-about backfield stars in the land—Paul Giel of Minnesota and Johnny Lattner of the Irish—because by season's end there is going to be one whale of an argument as to which of the All-Americas is the greater.

Lattner's team has the more glamorous record, and the 20-year-old senior from Chicago has played a big part in winning the No. 1 national ranking for the Irish, but it would be difficult to convince anyone who watched Giel propel the Gohers to their decisive victory over Pittsburgh last week that Lattner is his superior in any respect.

* * *

The Panthers themselves, who can speak with some authority after having faced both men—they lost to Notre Dame 23-14, to Minnesota 35-14—voted almost unanimously for Giel following his one-man show against them.

The Irish whippet has three other "name" backs in there with him—Ralph Guglielmi, Neil Worden and Joe Heap—and there are several others nearly as good just behind them.

* * *

Minnesota, on the other hand, is just another football team when Giel isn't in there running or passing or kicking on about two out of three plays. He virtually is the Gopher attack, and so he naturally stands out. There can be no argument at all that he is of greater value to Minnesota than Lattner is to Notre Dame, but that doesn't necessarily make him the better player.

Duck, Goose Shoot Area Being Planned

LANSING (AP) — A new 20,000-acre duck and goose shooting area near Saginaw is contemplated under joint federal and state sponsorship, the conservation department reported today.

The plan, now awaiting approval by both governments, is that the department and the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service would purchase the land on a 50-50 basis.

Part of the area would be open to public hunting and part would be a waterfowl refuge.

The area would be tied in with the Saginaw Valley flood control program, providing a reservoir for harmless storage of flood waters as needed.

Haughton Top Driver

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Billy Haughton of Fultonville, N. Y., apparently has clinched honors as the nation's leading harness horse driver for 1953, the U. S. Trotting Assn. announced today.

The 30-year-old reinsman has won $368,302, a new record, and 115 races this year.

Early Rabbit Hunting Costs Dearly in Ohio

MILFORD, Ohio (AP) — Justice of the peace Homer H. Ernst hung a dead rabbit outside his office yesterday and attached a sign which read, "this rabbit cost $211.40."

The idea was to discourage hunters who might get itching trigger fingers and open the rabbit season ahead of time.

Riley Johnson, 31, of Norwood and Paul Rush, 38, of Loveland were caught with the rabbit. They were charged with hunting out of season and each was fined $100 plus $5.70 costs.

Soviets to Go Abroad

TOKYO (AP) — Soviet athletes will be permitted to enter Japan for two world championship meets next year, even though Russia has no diplomatic relations with this country.

Foreign minister Katsuo Okazaki told the house foreign affairs committee today that Russian athletes will be permitted to enter a skating meeting in Sapporo Jan. 16-17 and a wrestling meet here in April.

Laughs, Knockouts Spice Motor City Fight Card

DETROIT (AP)—It was a night of knockouts and laughs at Motor City Arena last night.

The laughs came in the scheduled four-rounder between Noel (Bull) Reid, 232-pounder, from Detroit, and Bill Johnson, a 207-pounder from Grand Rapids. Each wild swinging, no-defense heavies floored the other in the first.

At a minute and 40 seconds of the second round, Johnson pushed Reid into the ropes and he fell. As the referre was brushing off Reid's gloves, Johnson climbed out of the ring and announced he was quitting. Reid was awarded a technical knockout.

Eddie Simms, 160, Chicago, scored the only 10-count knockout, winning over Chuck Coleman, 161, Detroit, in the second of their scheduled six-rounder.

Tommy Leedle, 159, Detroit, took a long step up the comeback trail by scoring a technical knockout over previously unbeaten Harry Hudniewski, 159, of Buffalo, in the third of their six-rounder.

Ken Hammer, 189, Detroit, won by a TKO over Bob Biehler, 182, Rochester, N. Y., when Biehler was unable to answer the bell for the second round because of a cut eye. It was scheduled for six.

Governor Plans to Give Trophy in M-MSC Series

By JACK I. GREEN

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams is going to present a permanent trophy for the annual Michigan-Michigan State football game—whether the schools want it or not.

His initial offer of a trophy having been received with something less than enthusiasm, Williams bluntly requested the presidents of both universities today to arrange to receive the trophy in a ceremony between the halves of the annual football classic at East Lansing Nov. 14.

One of the governor's aides said Williams has commissioned a Chicago sculptor to carve a sizeable figure of Paul Bunyan out of Michigan pine for the trophy.

Figure will be straddling a bas-relief map of Michigan. It will carry plates of Michigan copper for the inscription of each year's winner.

Spokesman said he did not know how big the statue was but that "it will be big enough to see from the stands."

Williams' initial offer apparently did not excite either university much.

H. O. (Fritz) Crisler, director of athletics at Michigan, was quoted as saying Michigan already has its "little brown jug" trophy for the Michigan-Minnesota game and doubted whether a school should have too many trophies.

Ralph H. Young, director at MSC, was more noncommittal but kept looking sideways to see what Crisler's reaction was. The executive office said, however, that MSC's athletic board of control had formally approved the idea.

Southern Loop May Lift Ban on Bowl Games

Action Would Clear Path to Post-Season Tilt for W. Va.

ROANOKE, Va. (AP)—The Southern Conference may soon lift its ban on postseason football games.

The conference's Special Events Committee met here yesterday for three hours behind locked doors and later said it would recommend that the 10-member league permit bowl participation.

Max Farrington of George Washington University president of the conference said the recommendation must be voted on by the circuit's membership.

Action may be taken at a special meeting. Farrington said he had had requests from five members to call a special meeting, which may be held on request of two-thirds or seven of the 10 schools.

Farrington said that no request for a special meeting had been received from West Virginia University. The West Virginia football team is under consideration for bids to the Cotton Bowl at Dallas, Tex., and the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans.

Montreal Sextet Wins 7th Game in 8 Tries by Nipping Rangers

By The Associated Press

Front-running Montreal Canadiens have been just about unbeatable on their home ice in National Hockey League competition this season.

Canadiens came from behind with three goals in the 3rd period to edge the visiting New York Rangers 4-3 last night. The victory was their seventh in eight games at Montreal and boosted their 1st place margin to four points over the runnerup Detroit Red Wings.

After each team had scored once in the opening period, Rangers went ahead in the 2nd stanza 3-1 on a pair of goals by Wally Hergesheimer and Max Bentley.

Ken Mosdell launched Montreal's 3rd period comeback with a goal at 4:10 and less than two minutes later Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion registered his 2nd tally of the night to tie the score.

Maurice (the Rocket) Richard snapped the deadlock on an unassisted goal at 8:28.

In the only other game Boston Bruins tripped the Chicago Black Hawks 4-2.

Brooklyn Club Still Seeking Pilot for 1954

Pee Wee Reese Decides to Pass Up Chance to Manage Dodgers

By BEN PHLEGAR

BROOKLYN (AP) — The Brooklyn Dodgers hung a "vacancy" sign on the manager's door at Ebbets Field today and claimed they have no one under serious consideration for the job.

* * *

Pee Wee Reese, the Dodgers' star shortstop and captain who figured as the No. 1 candidate, made up his mind last night he wasn't interested.

* * *

"Maybe I have made a mistake—I will know that in a couple of years," the popular Pee Wee said at his home in Louisville as he declared himself out.

"I think I have done the right thing. Anyway, that's the way it is, and I'll never be sorry, no matter how things might turn out."

Ever since they failed to come to terms with Charley Dressen in mid-October, the Dodgers have let it be known—without saying anything officially—that Reese would have a chance to say "yes" or "no" before they went shopping elsewhere.

Last week Buzzi Bavasi, vice president of the club, met with Reese for an hour in Columbus, Ohio, and discussed the situation.

Reese said he wasn't offered the job but he knew Bavasi was trying to find out how he felt about it.

"It was my impression he was not interested in being a player-manager," Bavasi said last night, shortly before Reese made it official.

Reese said Buzzi got the right idea.

"I still think I can play a couple of more years," Reese said.

* * *

The deal apparently would have specified that Reese both play and manage since Bavasi said Reese always has been counted upon to be the club's regular shortstop next season.

Stengel Can Remain With Yanks for Life

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP — Casey Stengel apparently can keep on managing the champion New York Yankees as long as he wants the job.

Co-owner Del Webb said as much at a testimonial dinner given Casey last night by his home town chamber of commerce at the exclusive Verdugo Club.

Webb called Stengel "not only one of the grandest guys in baseball but the finest manager," and added "I hope Casey stays with our ball club as long as he wants to."

LINEMAN OF WEEK — Bruce Bosley, West Virginia tackle, was selected as Lineman of the Week by the Associated Press this week. Bosley's sterling play against Penn State Saturday won him the high rating. West Virginia won to stay undefeated, 20-19.

UM, Spartans Both Picked to Lose; Penn Given Little Chance Against Irish; Baylor Is Favored

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK — It begins to look as if Notre Dame, Illinois, West Virginia and possibly Maryland and Baylor are not going to fall from the unbeaten bough this fall.

* * *

Notre Dame has some setups but she is better than any team she will meet. Pennsylvania and North Carolina can't be expected to offer any violent opposition but more trouble can come from Iowa, So. Cal. and SMU, who are not too strong but certainly are not to be rated with weaklings.

* * *

And there is always the chance that a very fine football team will have one bad day at the wrong time. Illinois, Maryland and Baylor all have tougher assignments before remaining unwhipped.

* * *

Here is the way things look before the games begin.

EAST — Army-North Carolina State. Army will rebound and should win with ease. Columbia and Dartmouth offer a keen contest. The edge to Columbia. Harvard-Princeton. An even game. Princeton. Navy-Duke. Duke looks too strong after Navy's weak showing against Penn and Noter Dame. Pennsylvania has little chance against Notre Dame. They shouldn't belong in the same league.

Penn State-Fordham. A rattling good game between two good teams. The nod to Penn State. Uncertain Yale has nod over Temple. Syracuse looks too strong for Cornell in good game. West Virginia over V.P.I.

* * *

SOUTH — Alabama over Chattanooga. South Carolina over North Carolina. Kentucky too good for Vanderbilt. Pittsburgh far over Virginia. Wake Forest over Boston College. Georgia Tech too good for Clemson and Georgia has edge on Florida. LSU over Tennessee.

* * *

WEST — Texas-Baylor. One of the big games of the day. Little choice from past performances. Baylor. Rice to beat Arkansas. Illinois is named over Michigan. Ohio State has a rough one with Michigan State. About even. Edge to OSU. Minnesota to beat Indiana and Iowa over Purdue. Wisconsin is named over Northwestern. Oklahoma over Missouri.

* * *

Southern California-Stanford. An important bowl meeting. Stanford. California over Washington. Kansas over Kansas State. TCU over Washington State.

Wolverines Highly Keyed for Illinois Game

Wells Doing Fine, Despite His Sad Debut

Flopped in 1st Showing Before Munn, But Now Is Key Performer

By ED SAINSBURY

CHICAGO (UP) — Billy Wells' first appearance before Michigan State Football Coach Clarence Munn was a Thorough bust, but since then, he's turned into the kind of football player that probably could sweep out the stadium as well as the ends.

A gum chewing halfback, Wells' hobbies include dancing and water skiing, swimming and diving, and playing the ukulele. But the first time Munn saw him, at a football clinic, a punt smacked him flush in the face.

Wells overcame this bad start, however, and has been more or less a regular on the Spartan squad, last year's national champions and defeated only once in six games this year.

His standout play as a sophomore, after he missed the first two games due to infection, earned him top consideration to pair with Le Roy Bolden as Munn's offensive backs.

Six Wings Players Topped .300 Mark

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (UP) — The Rochester Red Wings were in a hitting mood during the 1953 season. Six players hit better than .300.

Tom Burgess led the hit parade with a .345 mark. Allie Clark was next with .331. Charlie Kress batted .317. Don Richmond and Wally Moon each finished with a .311 average. Vern Benson had a final mark of .308.

Playing manager Harry Walker and outfielder Eddie Mierkowicz just missed the "charmed circle" as they wound up with .299. Lou Ortiz hit .298.

Mel Ott was thumbed out of both games of a doubleheader in 1946 when his club played at Pittsburgh.

Three Spartans on Doubtful List for OSU Tilt

But Neal, Schrecengost, and Duckett Make Trip to Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UP) — Biggie Munn planned to send his Spartans through a final workout today in the huge Buckeye Stadium as Michigan State prepared for its important clash Saturday with Ohio State.

Spartans, minus one regular and with three 1st stringers on the doubtful list, arrived in Columbus last night.

At stake in the 2nd meeting between Michigan State and Ohio State is 2nd place in the Big Ten. Loser also will drop out of the Western Conference title chase and its trip to the Rose Bowl.

Munn brought 38 players with him for the Columbus invasion, including center Jim Neal, tackle Randy Schrecengost, and end Ellis Ducket, all on the injured list.

Missing from the traveling roster was regular guard Bill Ross.

Michigan State ran through a light workout yesterday at Macklin Stadium. Flashy Billy Wells, senior right half-back, showed improvement during the workout. Wells had been limping all week with a lame foot.

Clash between the Spartans and Buckeyes pits the Big Ten's leading defensive squad against the conference's second strongest offensive team.

Big Ten statistics credit Michigan State with holding its opponents to an average of only 181.5 yards in three conference games. Ohio State ranked eighth in offense, have gained an average of 321 yards a game thus far in conference play.

Munn expects the air to be filled with passes Saturday.

John Borton, Ohio State quarterback, is second among Big Ten passers with 23 completions out of 43 tries for 274 yards. MSC's ace Tom Yewcic is sixth among Big Ten aerial artists with 17 completions out of 40 attempts for 264 yards.

Yewcic passed Ohio State to defeat last year when Michigan State took a 24-20 decision.

Argentine Horse Is Rated Threat in International

By JOHN CHANDLER

LAUREL, Md. (UP)—Most of the talk about Saturday's big international race at Laurel Park has concerned European and American horses, but there is a gaucko here from the Argentine named Mister Black who could grab all the apples.

The field for the $65,000 Washington, D. C. International simmered down to 10 with the withdrawal of Royal Vale, the English-bred horse owned by Mrs. Esther Du Pont Weir of Delaware, and the arrival last night by plane from Ireland of Mrs. F. L. Vickerman's Chamier.

As for Mister Black, his owners and handlers are as full of confidence as any group in the race, which has the largest collection of horses from different countries in the sport's history.

Mister Black is quite a good 4-year-old. He has started only 13 times, and has won six races, his most important the Classico America at the swank Palermo track in Buenos Aires.

Iceberg II, Chilean-bred, will be another one tough to beat. He is listed in the early odds at 6-1, with Mister Black 20-1.

It appeared that the American horse, Crafty Admiral, would be the favorite at around 5-2. Crafty Admiral, owned by the Charfran Stable, has never raced on the grass, but won the Empire Gold Cup last Saturday by 10 lengths at Jamaica.

NY Golfer Scores Ace in Open Test

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. (UP)—John Frucco of Sprain Lake couldn't have picked a better time to make a hole-in-one than during the first round of the Westchester Open golf championship at Knollwood.

It happened on the 184-yard par 3 eighth. He used a No. 2 iron and was playing with pro stars Claude Harmon and Pete Cooper, both of whom had three's. Harmon incidentally, paced the first round with a 66 and Cooper was one stroke back.

UM Is Upset Minded Heading for Champaign

Odds Ride With Illini, but Oosterbaan Eleven Will Shoot Works

By JOHN F. MAYHEW

ANN ARBOR (UP) — Michigan Wolverines were at their highest emotional peak of the season today as they headed for Champaign, Ill., and a big football game with unbeaten Illinois.

Not once this season, through five victories and one loss, has coach Bennie Oosterbaan's players appeared so highly keyed for a game.

Despite Oosterbaan's professed belief that there is "little chance" of surprising the talented Illinois club, the 38 members of the Wolverine traveling squad exhibited the grim intense appearance of players keyed to their peak.

Faced with the apparently insurmountable job of stopping an Illinois team that has fled past opponents for 2,227 yards in six games, the Wolverines were determined to stage a full-scale rebellion against the odds-makers who almost uniformly pick Illinois.

The situation has convinced the players they can survive only if everyone adds to his own individual performance.

Based on past gridiron history, it would seem the Wolverines were building up to their top game of the season or, given early misfortune, a collapse before the onrushing Illini.

There were no stand out players yesterday as the squad wound up local drills. Pass and ground plays came in for equal attention, with players waiting their turn contributing a frenzied din.

Final move was a dummy tackling session in which the charging Michigan tacklers shook the supporting steel structure in its concrete foundation.

After a noon departure from nearby Willow Run, Michigan players were to work out in Illinois Memorial Stadium Friday afternoon.

Skipper Jayvees Drop 26-7 Decision to CC

Waterford High School's junior varisity football team dropped its 2nd game in six starts Wednesday to Catholic Central JV's, 26-7, at Waterford. Shamrocks moved out from a halftime lead to 7-0, to tally twice in the 3rd quarter and again in the 4th to take a 26-0 lead.

Skippers scored in the final period on a 33-yard pass play from Tom Bryce to Lou Maloney. Waterford closes its schedule Wednesday at home against Dublin.

Ty Cobb's lifetime batting average of .367 is the highest in the history of the major leagues.

Pioneers, Reds Expected to Stretch Win Streaks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The state's two longest Class A winning streaks are expected to remain unbroken tonight as the big school football season nears its end.

Powerful Port Huron, with 26 straight victories, is a four to five touchdown favorite over erratic Grosse Pointe. Pointers, with a 4-2-1 record, alternately have rumbled and bumbled this season.

Ann Arbor, meanwhile, returns to action and is a solid choice to make Jackson (3-3-1) its 22nd consecutive victim.

The two other unbeaten Class A teams—Detroit Pershing (6-0) and Grand Haven (7-0)—also are expected to advance without much trouble. Pershing plays Southeastern and Grand Haven, one of the season's big surprises, meets Servite.

Flint Northern, conqueror of Bay City Central, will try to take a firmer hold on first place in the Saginaw Valley when it meets Pontiac, another team which has had its ups and downs. Northern, with an overall 5-1 record, is a two-touchdown pick over the Chiefs.

Another top Saginaw Valley game pits Saginaw (4-2) against Flint Central (5-1). Bay City Central should return to winning ways with a minimum of effort against Saginaw Arthur Hill.

On the other side of the state, Muskegon Heights invades Grand Rapids for a title against South.

Sale of Bike Ends Era on Texas Campus

AUSTIN, Tex. (UP) — When Dr. D. A. Penick sold his bicycle for $10 to a 12-year-old boy it marked the end of an era around the University of Texas campus.

Dr. Penick, the first and only tennis coach Texas ever had, produced 28 doubles and 23 Southwest Conference champions in 38 years. Among his pupils were Wilmer Allison, Berkeley Bell and Bruce Barnes.

The doctor, now 84, rode the bicycle around the campus for 20 years. Dr. Penick hadn't ridden his bike in some time and his wife thought there was too much traffic around.

Singapore Council Wants Rule Cleared

SINGAPORE (UP)—The Singapore Olympic Sports Council wants an eligibility rule clarified before it prepares to enter teams in the 1954 Asian Games.

The rules stipulate that only persons of British nationality with five years residence in Singapore can be entered.

The fear in Singapore is that the rule will bar British servicemen from the games. These servicemen are among the colony's best athletes.

Smart's Racing Future at Stake

Suspended Sulky Driver Says He Wasn't Familiar With Rules

NEW YORK (UP) — The racing future of Wayne (Curly) Smart and his assistant, who have admitted giving hypodermic injections to horses, rests today with the New York State Harness Racing commission.

Smart, a trainer-driver, and Carl Larsen, his assistant, admitted to the commission yesterday using hypodermic injections on horses, but said they didn't know it was against the rules.

Both insisted the needle contained ACTH, not a narcotic, and that a veterinarian had recommended it to eliminate stiffness.

Smart and Larsen, both of Delaware, Ohio, have been under suspension in New York since last Sept. 29, following their suspension for a year by the Michigan Racing Commission.

They also were barred by the U. S. Trotting Association, but Smart obtained a court order prohibiting enforcement of the ban pending a judicial review.

Smart, trainer for Castelton Farms of Lexington, Ky., said he knew nothing about commission rules forbidding use of a hypodermic needle on a horse without the permission of the steward or presiding judge at a race meeting.

Then he pleaded: "If the commission will consider our ignorance in this case I'll be sure to read the rules more carefully the next time."

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

CASE—Hand Behind Ball.

Set for the Hook Turn—The hand, behind the ball, is shown in an "optional" position.

Coming into the fourth (final) step of the stride, the wrist can be turned to the right to produce hook spin, as in the case of stylist

Junie McMahon, or turn can be eliminated entirely for a straight ball, such as the beginner is taught to bowl to first perfect footwork and control.

A full wrist turn is recommended only for bowlers with big, strong hands. It also demands constant practice. A "half" turn of the wrist in the backswing, I have found in teaching, is easier to manage and is just as effective.

Top Elevens Face Severe Tests

NEW YORK (AP)—Baylor, Illinois and Stanford, surprise leaders of three of the major conferences, face their most severe tests of the season tomorrow as they drive toward football bowl bids.

Unbeaten Baylor, ranked third in the nation in the most recent Associated Press poll, visits the University of Texas needing another victory to maintain its hold on the Southwest Conference.

Illinois, the only undefeated Big Ten club, entertains the very capable Michigan eleven.

* * *

Stanford, with five straight triumphs in Pacific Coast Conference play, invades Los Angeles as a six-point underdog against Southern California.

* * *

The Illini rank fourth in the country and Stanford 11th.

Top-ranking Notre Dame continues its barnstorming campaign for its first national championship since 1949 against overmatched Penn at Philadelphia's Franklin Field.

Maryland (No. 2), Georgia Tech (No 6) and West Virginia (No. 7) should have even less difficulty than the mighty Irish. The unbeaten Terrapins from Maryland visit George Washington. Georgia Tech rules a heavy favorite over Clemson and West Virginia appears considerably better than Virginia Tech.

Michigan State (No. 5), Oklahoma (No. 8) and Duke (No. 10) have games that fall in the in-between category. They should win but they'll have to hustle, particularly Michigan State, which comes up against Ohio State. Oklahoma faces its last major test in the Big Seven Conference against Missouri. Duke takes on the Navy at Baltimore.

UCLA, ranked ninth, will rest and hope that Southern Cal can stop Stanford.

* * *

The experts figure the Baylor-Texas meeting provides the most likely spot for an upset. Nobody ever has figured a sure-fire way to dope the Southwest Conference race. But a team on top at this stage rarely survives. Even if Baylor gets past the Longhorns it still must face Southern Methodist and Rice. SMU tangles with Texas A & M tomorrow while Rice bumps into a one-man tornado named Lamar McHan from Arkansas.

* * *

Indiana faces the unpleasant task of trying to slow down Minnesota's Paul Giel while Iowa plays Purdue and Wisconsin meets Northwestern in other Big Ten games.

Young and Giuliani Meet in Tonight's Bout on TV

NEW YORK (AP)—Paddy Young gets a screen test for a proposed Dec. 9 Cleveland bout with Gil Turner tonight at St. Nicholas Arena when he meets Sammy Giuliani of Stamford, Conn.

Since losing to Bobo Olson June 19 in an American middleweight title bout, Paddy has been on a 4½ month "vacation." Now he starts on the road back, hoping he can escape the fate that awaited George Araujo last Friday. Promoter Larry Atkins of Cleveland wants to match Young with Turner and Rocky Castellani with Ernie Durando on his Christmas fund show.

* * *

Young is a 4 to 1 favorite in the 10-round match, scheduled for 10 p.m., EST, with ABC network radio and NBC television coverage.

Paddy fought only once last year, a 10-round victory over Durando, and twice this year. He whipped Durando in 12 rounds March 27 to earn the Olson bout.

The record books show 38 fights for the 21-year-old Giuliani. He has won 29, lost 8 and fought 1 draw, with 11 knockouts. He has been stopped three times.

Young's record for 56 fights since 1946 is 44-9-3.

Key Games Dot Big 10 Slate This Saturday

Four Contenders Get Chance to Chop Each Other Down

CHICAGO (AP)—Big Ten enters the last half of its football championship campaign tomorrow with four of the most powerful contenders getting a chance to chop each other down.

In what may well be key games of the showdown grind, Michigan is at Illinois and Michigan State invades Ohio State.

Only the Illini are unbeaten and will be seeking their fourth, and undoubtedly most important, conference triumph. They have rolled over Ohio State, Minnesota and Purdue. After Michigan, the Illini will wind up at Wisconsin and then Northwestern.

Michigan is defeated once in three Big Ten engagements, losing 22-0 to Minnesota, a team that was trampled earlier 27-7 by Illinois. Illinois is favored tomorrow by seven points.

Michigan State and Ohio State each has a 3-1 league record. The Spartans were knocked off 6-0 as Purdue gained its only victory of the entire season. Illinois beat the Buckeyes 41-20.

Michigan State will have only Michigan remaining on its conference schedule after tomorrow while Ohio State — playing seven league games to six for the other top contenders—will finish against Purdue and Michigan.

Michigan State is a seven-point choice.

Wisconsin also figures in the race after losing only to Ohio State 20-19, while beating Purdue and Iowa. Badgers tomorrow are at Northwestern, which has three non-league victories while losing all three Big Ten starts.

Illinois and Minnesota will remain for Wisconsin, a 3-point selection over Northwestern.

Traces of 'Touts' Found in Old Rome

ROME—Touts have been in business longer than you think.

Archaeologists uncovered a buried suburb of Hurculaneum, destroyed by a volcanic eruption centuries ago. An advertisement was scribbled on one of the walls.

"For the smallest reward," it read, "Elvius, the charioteer, will tell all factions the names of the winning chariots in the races of Rome, and this before the day of the contest. Elvius sits with his secrets at Crocus, the wine seller's, near the Gate of Augustus."

Sheriff Blake Rates Hornsby No. 1 Hitter

BECKLEY, W. Va. (AP) — Fred (Sheriff) Blake, ex-big league pitcher, maintains Rogers Hornsby "still would be able to hit if they rolled him up to home plate in a wheelchair."

The Sheriff figures the Rajah was the best of the greats he pitched against in his 21-year baseball career.

Blake, now a repairman in a coal mine near here, pitched for the Pittsburgh Pirates, Chicago Cubs, Philadelphia Phillies, St. Louis Cardinals and Browns, and eight minor league clubs. He broke in with the Pirates in 1920 and retired after managing a team at Hungtington, W. Va., in 1941.

Balke, who will be 54 on Sept. 17, won 87 games and lost 102 in the majors. He still follows baseball but his No. 1 love is gardening.

Hunter Helps Farmers by Bagging Woodchucks

EPSOM, N. H. (AP)—A rainy-day hunter with a steady hand and an eagle eye probably has the undying affection of all farmers.

Lumberman Percy S. Helson unsheaths his .22 calibre rifle whenever rain shuts down his woods operation. Nelson claims he bagged 205 woodchucks—the scourge of farmers — during the summer alone. And he doesn't count the "maybe's," he says.

12-Team Major Loops Are Seen at Future Date

Rising Clamor to Give Recognition to Coast Reaching Fever Pitch

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—The rising clamor to bring major league baseball to the West Coast has reached a fever pitch and the club owners were wondering today just how they would approach the problem at the minor league meeting at the end of the month and the major league sessions in December.

* * *

Until International League President Frank Shaughnessy presented his plan for two 12-team leagues, the moguls were in a dither. They wanted to expand, but they didn't know just how to do it.

* * *

Shag's plan calls for two leagues of 12 teams each—which, naturally, would take in at least a couple of West Coast cities—to be divided into Eastern and Western sections. The first four finishers in each section would play off to meet in the World Series.

"It would give the majors a sensible program for expansion," said Shaughnessy, who is here for a Baseball Rules Committee meeting, "instead of the present uncertain, panicky grabbing of minor league territory. At the same time it would stabilize the minor leagues."

* * *

Walter O'Malley, president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, already has seen the Shaughnessy plan. He likes it, but he cautions that "it isn't something that is going to be done in a couple of weeks or maybe a couple of years, but eventually something will have to be done and to me the Shaughnessy plan looks sound."

* * *

When and if the leagues are expanded, four cities seem virtually certain of being included—Los Angeles, San Francisco, Montreal and Toronto.

Golfer Scores 'Birdie' in Back-Yard Practice

OMAHA (AP)—Credit Dell Hanson, Omaha newspaperman, with one of the season's oddest "birdies."

Hanson was standing in his back yard, 7-iron in hand, preparing to take a few practice swings. Around the corner whizzed a pair of low-flying robins. One struck the club head and fell to the ground.

"I wasn't even swinging," said Hanson.

Students Like New 1-Platoon Football Ruling

NEW YORK (AP) — College students report that they prefer the one platoon football game over last year's multi-platoon system.

This was revealed by Lester Rand of the Youth Research Institute here. The poll surveyed 800 college students in 20 different schools throughout the nation.

Of all students polled, 81 per cent were for the one platoon game, 11 per cent were two-platooners and eight per cent were undecided.

"Girls are all for the one platoon even though it means fewer men," asserted Rand. Nearly all the girls interviewed—98 per cent to be game because "It's easier to follow and less confusing."

Cotton Bowl Team Gets Record Check

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)— The Cotton Bowl has made no definite move toward getting a visiting team to meet the Southwest Conference champion in the Jan. 1 football game but whoever it is will receive $150,000 for the afternoon's work.

The Cotton Bowl will pay its all-time high, this amount exceeding the last check by almost $4,000. Each school got $146,491 last Jan. 1.

Under new conference rules, the host team receives a flat $60,000 plus $7.50 per mile one way travel allowance. Remainder will be distrubuted equally among the seven conference members.

No concrete action will be taken toward a formal invitation until Nov. 15.

Referee-Principal Uses Whistle to Start School

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Pupils of the Edison Junior High School have their ears tuned for the sound of a football whistle.

Eugene E. Miller, principal of the school, uses the whistle to signal the time for changing of classes while the school bell system is out of order.

On Saturday afternoon Miller uses the same whistle in its official capacity, at college and professional football games.

Spies Infiltrated Radar Station

Ring at Ft. Monmouth Operated Long After War, Says McCarthy

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) says evidence presented before his Senate permanent investigations subcommittee indicates that a spy ring was functioning at Ft. Monmouth, N. J. and "elsewhere" for a considerable length of time after World War II.

McCarthy's subcommittee yesterday wound up current closed hearings into alleged Communist activities and espionage in the Army Signal Corps and especially at the Ft. Monmouth top-secret radar laboratory.

Among seven witnesses who testified during the day was an unidentified woman who, McCarthy said, refused to say whether or not she was a spy.

"There is no question but that she had engaged in espionage in the Signal Corps at Ft. Monmouth," McCarthy said, and added:

"Evidence before this subcommittee clearly indicates that people labeled as part of the Rosenberg spy ring are still walking the streets free."

Julius and Ethel Rosenberg were executed last June as atom spies. McCarthy says evidence shows that Rosenberg also headed a radar spy ring at Ft. Monmouth.

McCarthy described another witness as an engineer who he said worked on radar material in the Federal Telecommunications Laboratory at Nutley, N. J., from 1943 to 1951. The senator said the laboratories are a subsidiary of the International Telephone and Telegraph Co. and "are doing 100 per cent government work."

* * *

McCarthy said the engineer refused to tell the subcommittee whether he is a spy or whether he ever stole radar secrets.

"We have evidence," McCarthy said, "that he is a member of the Communist underground today and that he was part of the Rosenberg spy ring which delivered material to Communist agents . . ."

Another hearing witness yesterday was a man suspended as an employe at Ft. Monmouth Oct. 20 because of alleged Communist affiliations.

McCarthy said the witness denied he is a member of the Communist party now, and testified that he never attended Communist party meetings.

McCarthy described an additional witness as a man who worked in the Ft. Monmouth Signal Corps from 1940 to 1942 and again from 1951 to 1952.

This witness, McCarthy said, was chairman of the International Workers Order in the Monmouth area in 1951 and 1952. The IWO has been declared subversive by the attorney general's office.

Although the witness denied being a Communist party member, the senator said, he admitted a party card "might have been slipped into his pocket at a Communist party meeting."

McCarthy, who announced plans to return to Washington, said the subcommittee tentatively has scheduled open hearings here starting next Thursday.

Discrimination Found in Taxes and Sexes

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—There's discrimination between sexes under the new Pennsylvania sales tax. If a woman buys a garter belt for herself, it's exempt from the tax. But if a man buys garters for himself, he must pay the one per cent levy.

Revenue Department officials won't give a reason for the distinction between the gadget used to hold up women's stockings and the gadget used by men.

Grapes Are Subjects of Coast Research

DAVIS, Calif. (UP)—The flavors and aromas of grapes and grape products are being studied here to determine what factors in climate, soils and processing affect the flavor of various grapes.

Scientists at the DDavis campus of the University of California say the study will lead to selecting the best grape varieties for particular soils and climates, improving fermentation and distilling processes and altering cultivation practices.

A preliminary study on the composition of a typical grape brandy fusel oil is now being followed by studies of the aromatic and flavor constituents of muscat grapes, their wines and their fusel oils.

The study, a cooperative project between the departments of viticulture and chemistry, is being supported by annual grants from the Wine Advisory Board.

River Craft Is Longer Than Ocean Liner

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP) —The British liner, Queen Elizabeth, may be the longest vessel on the high seas, but a newly built towboat would give her some competition on the Ohio River.

The Ashland Oil and Refining Co., new towboat, the Aetna-Louisville, and her eight integrated tank barges are 1,170 feet long at the water line. The over-all length of the British liner is 1,031 feet.

Ex-Jailbird Releases 13 Feathered Friends

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Ernest McDade, 23-year-old seaman from Mountain City, Tenn., was put behind bars after he freed 13 birds from their cages.

He opened the cages in a dime store yesterday and released four canaries and nine parakeets. All except a few had been recaptured last night.

Larry Kabel, manager of the store's pet department, said that McDade started by opening a cage and telling a canary, "Come on out, litle birdie, I was in jail once. I know how you feel."

Sheriff Fights See-Saw War Against Saws

ENID, Okla. (AP)—A couple of determined prisoners were scheduled to leave the Garfield County Jail for the state penitentiary to serve auto theft sentences today, but not before they gave Sheriff Lelon Coyle a few sleepless nights.

Sunday, Coyle discovered one bar to their cell sawed through and another started on. He confiscated a hacksaw blade.

Monday he shook the pair down to play safe and confiscated another hacksaw blade.

Tuesday he found them sawing on a long chain barring their cell door and confiscated a third blade.

Wednesday, a search produced still another blade.

The prisoners were sentenced yesterday.

May Shift Army to Percy Jones

Defense Officials Weigh Possible Move of 5th Chicago Headquarters

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army plans to consider using the recently closed Percy Jones Hospital at Battle Creek, Mich., as a new headquarters for the 5th Army, according to Rep. Paul Shafer (R-Mich).

Shafer said yesterday that he had conferred with both the White House and the Defense Department on the use of the hospital as headquarters for the Army now located in Chicago.

He said that he understood the Defense Department had decided to move the 5th Army from its present location. "I have been assured that a thorough survey will be made of facilities available at Percy Jones to determine whether they will be suitable for 5th Army headquarters," he said.

Shafer, a member of the House Armed Services Committee, said that some 2,500 officers and men would be involved in the proposed shift of the headquarters.

The hospital was closed Nov. 1 but still requires a constant outlay of money to pay for heat and maintenance of the unused buildings, Shafer said.

Smooth Driving Is Said to Give Best Mileage

CHICAGO (UP)—One of the nation's top drivers advises that smooth driving at constant speeds is a big factor in obtaining good gasoline mileage.

Les Viland, winner of the 1953 Mobilgas Economy Run, said fast starts and jerky driving costs more gasoline mileage to the average motorist than to any other driving habit.

"Abrupt starts and an irregular driving pace cost more mileage because they slosh gasoline around in the carburetor and the car burns too rich a mixture," Viland said.

Here are some tips Viland outlined for gasoline ecomony:

1—Drive at a steady pace and avoid excessive sped.

2—No jack-rabbit starts and stops and eliminate jerky driving.

3—Try to regulate your speed so that you pass lights while they're green and won't have to start and stop.

4—Avoid long engine idling.

5—Have your engine tuned for top efficiency.

6—Don't use heavier lubricants than the owner's manual of your car specifies.

French Forces Kill 52 Reds in 2 Fights

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—A French Army spokesman announced that French-Vietnamese troops killed 34 Communist-led Vietminh troops last night in a light clash southwest of the village of Laicac, 10 miles from Phu Nho Quan. The French-Vietnamese forces regrouped at Laicac after abandoning Phu Nho Quan.

In the Red River delta, French-Vietnamese forces killed 18 Vietminh. French fighters and bombers flew 93 sorties, hitting the Vietminh in the Phu Nho Quan sector and war bases around Thei Nguyen, administrative capital for Ho Chi Minh, 40 miles north of Hanoi.

TV Attracts Students Over 6 Hours Weekly

NEWTON, Mass. (UP) — A survey of 840 students at the high school here showed that they watched television an average of 6½ hours a week.

Their reports indicated that their parents watched TV an average of 10 hours weekly.

News programs topped the list of educational program interests.

Prisoner Gets Stuck Making 'Clean' Getaway

LOGAN, Utah (UP) — Loude Guinn was clean but his getaway wasn't.

That's because he tried literally to soft soap his way out of Cache County Jail.

Guinn tried to slither through the narrow jail bars by lathering himself with soap. But he got caught at the hips.

Officers took a clue from Guinn's technique and tried using more soap to get him back into the cell. But it was no soap.

Hacksaws were too slow, and after three hours a welding torch finally cut through the bars.

Guinn said he wanted to leave his cell just "to get a sack of tobacco."

Mail Comes Through —but 47 Years Late

HOLYOKE, Mass. (UP) — Miss Helen Doyle of Holyoke hopes Miss H. C. Bates of Chicago hasn't been holding her breath.

Miss Doyle and Miss Bates were classmates at Mount Holyoke College. On Aug. 8, 1906 Miss Bates mailed a postcard to Miss Doyle from Chicago saying, "Don't forget to write" and "Don't forget pictures."

The postcard arrived here Sept. 4, 1953.

Business Notes:

Yule Promotion Bigger, Earlier

Most Retailers Name Newspapers as Best Advertising Medium

For every retailer who gloomily predicts that business during the coming Christmas season will drop below year-ago levels, there are six who are confidently aiming at sales increases.

For every merchant who will be satisfied to equal last year's record Christmas sales during the coming months, there are two who will be disappointed with anything less than a 5 to 10 per cent gain in volume.

For every retailer who foresees no noticeable change in business conditions in the next two months compared to last year, there are four who predict that business will be much tougher to get.

And for every store planning to advertise less this Christmas than last, there are three who will advertise more.

This cross-section of the psychological frame of mind of retailers as the peak selling season of the year approached emerged this week from a survey of 87 stores of varying sizes and types in 35 major metropolitan markets, conducted by the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association, it was disclosed today by Edward H. Burgeson, director of the bureau's retail department.

* * *

The survey covering mostly department stores, but also including gift shops and furniture, jewelry, men's and women's specialty, hardware, sporting goods and stationary stores also revealed:

More than 56 per cent of surveyed merchants plan to launch Christmas promotions on or before Nov. 16.

Daily newspapers are the overwhelming and unanimous choice of surveyed retailers as the medium in which they will invest all but small fractions of Christmas advertising budgets.

Over one-quarter of the merchants covered indicated they expect to invest 100 per cent of their Christmas promotional outlays in daily newspapers; 46 per cent plan to place 95 per cent and over in newspapers; 60 per cent will allocate 90 per cent and over to newspapers; and 70 per cent will earmark 85 per cent and over for newspapers.

J. P. Dowing of Ramsey Corp. will demonstrate products and introduce a low-cost budget plan for all types of car repairs and service Monday at a meeting of automobile maintenance men in the Oakland County area.

The meeting will start at 8 p.m. in Oakland Auto Supply, 233 S. Saginaw St. Howard Seiss, owner of the auto supply store, invites all auto service men and mechanics in the area to attend the free meeting. Dowing's plan hinges on the public paying for car repairs on the same basis as time payment plans now in effect in other stores.

Three senior changes in the passenger department of the Canadian Railways were announced here today by J. T. Whiteford, general passenger traffic manager for the system. A. P. Lait, passenger traffic manager, is named assistant general passenger traffic manager; J. N. Vincent, assistant passenger traffic manager becomes manager of the passenger service bureau, and W. E. McCall, assistant manager of the passenger service bureau is appointed assistant passenger traffic manager.

The S. S. Kresge Co. today reported sales totaled $28,658,901 in its stores across the nation last month, an increase of 1.2 per cent over October of 1952. The company said sales for the first 10 months of this year totaled $248,165,120, compared with $237,768,280 during the same period last year.

Demand Slack in Grain Pits

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain prices eased slightly in quiet dealings on the Board of Trade today.

There wasn't much pressure on any cereal but demand was very slack in all pits. Flour business which gave wheat a boost in the past two days fell off sharply, and no exports of any importance were reported. Cash corn receipts were normal for this time of year at 235 cars.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ¼-⅝ cent lower, December $1.97⅝; corn was unchanged to ⅝ lower, December $1.47½, and oats were unchanged to ⅛ lower, December 77⅝. Soybeans were unchanged to ½ cent higher, November $2.77½, and lard was 10 to 35 cents a hundred pounds higher, November $14.80.

I married her.

We thought the preacher had become mixed up when he asked Frances if she would take me ". . . for bitter, for worse . . ."

But in the years since then my wife has often found occasion to muse, "You know, I think that minister meant exactly what he said. He was probably trying to warn me before it was too late what life with a newspaperman would be like."

"Well, what is it like?" I ask, and she said, "Oh, it's rather like coaster. You don't know whether building a home in a roller you're having fun . . .or just getting dizzy. But you sure never have a settled feeling."

"Would you rather I worked in a bank?"

"Well, I'd at least have the consolation of knowing where you were," says Frances. "If you handled the bank's money like you do your own, you'd be in a nice warm prison, and I could bring you cookies every month."

The subject of money has come up between us several times in the last 16 years, partly, I suppose, because of the way I frittered away her dowry.

Frances arrived here from the Ozarks with a $100 cashier's check, which she had brought along to pay her railroad fare back home in case she came to her senses and changed her mind about marrying me.

I had never seen a girl with that much money. And I guess it did rather go to my head. I could hardly wait until she cashed the check.

As soon as I got my hands on the dough I let her know she wasn't getting married to a cheap tinhorn but a man with the real "Diamond Jim" Brady spirit.

I bought her a six-bit dinner (five courses in those days), took her to the best movie on Broadway, and flipped half a buck to a flower peddler for a gardenia.

Frances was visibly impressed. But she was even more visibly depressed when I informed her that the rest of her $100 dowry would have to finance the wedding, as I was between paydays.

"In Missouri I'm sure the bridegroom at least pays for the marriage license," she whisperd, as the clerk peered out the window.

"You're in the big city now, honey," I said, reaching for her pocketbook.

The wedding was tasteful but simple — as befitted my child bride's dowry. We didn't have organ music as that cost $5 extra. Figuring we ought to save something for a nest egg, I also opposed forking out $2 for altar candles but Frances balked.

"I don't want the church so dark I can't even see what I'm getting," she said. "It would be like getting married in Braille."

We blew our 20 guests to a wedding reception-dinner in a small but adequate Italiain basement restaurant. What a gay mad evening it was . . .Spaghetti twining over everybody like maddened ivy vines . . . Cheap red wine flowing like champagne. The Rockefellers, I bet, never had a wedding reception like tha tone.

And then I toted my bride, flushing with happiness, across the threshold of my tiny $30 a month Greenwich Village apartment. The furniture consisted of a table, an icebox, a stove, two chairs (one broken), an old iron lamp and bedsprings that rested on 16 red bricks.

"It's really picturesque — I'll have to think of it as picturesque or go crazy," said my new wife, and then added, "I wonder how mama and papa are."

When people ask Frances now where we spent our honeymoon, she still laughs — a trifle deliriously.

"Honeymoon?" she asked. "Listen, the day after Rover ambushed me at the altar I asked him for some groceries. He said it was all gone, he wouldn't be paid until the next day, and we would have to eat what was in the icebox.

"You know what was in the icebox? A loaf of bread and two bottles of milk. So we had nothing but bread and milk for two days. There wasn't even any butter."

Well, times picked up some in the years that followed. But whenever I ask Frances what she would like to have as a wedding anniversary, she laughs and says:

"Just give me back my $100 — and my common sense."

But after 16 years she knows it's too late.

Father's Ingenuity Gets Youth Home

BUFFALO, Okla. (AP)—Nineteen-year-old Victor Terbush, stricken with polio, got to go home from the hospital a lot sooner because of the ingenuity of his father. Terbush has had to take physical therapy baths each day and doctors advised he remain in the hospital so that the treatment could be continued.

However, his father, F. H. Terbush, knew how much his son wanted to come home and inquired about getting bathing equipment such as used by the hospital.

He was told it would cost $400 so the father set about building similar apparatus. With the outlay of 15 cents for materials, and the use of the family vacuum cleaner and bathtub, he succeeded in making a bath which is as effective as the regular equipment.

The Army maintains 69 supply depots in the United States and 68 overseas.

Speeding Plea Included Noise; Traps Couple

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Municipal Judge Homer A. Ramey fined four noisy members of a wedding party for speeding, although he readily admitted no one was traveling fast.

The four were driving a bride and bridegroom and 10 friends from a church to a wedding breakfast. They tooted their car horns and went noisily up the streets.

Picked up by police, they denied they were going fast. The judge said he would be willing to accept a guilty plea to "making excessive noise." The four defendants agreed. They were fined $10 and costs apiece.

But when they went to pay, the court clerk told them they had pleaded guilty to speeding and their drivers' licenses had to be so stamped.

They protested to the judge, but he told them:

"Excessive noise comes under the general offense of speeding."

DUELER—Publicity Agent Guido Orlando of Paris, France, demonstrates the tehcnique he says he'll use in fighting a duel with ex-King Farouk of Egypt as he boards a ship for Naples, Italy. Orlando, who provoked Farouk with alleged remarks linking the deposed monarch with Mimi Dedart, daughter of a St. Louis meat dealer, claims the Naples council will vote a law permitting the duel aboard a yacht in the city's harbor. The alternative to the duel is a one-million-dollar lawsuit. Orlando has made his will. Farouk says there will be no duel.

Benson's Mail Dwindles Down

Letter Flood Becomes Trickle as Secretary Orders Shakeup

WASHINGTON (AP)—The office of Secretary of Agriculture Benson is getting a respite from a flood of telegrams and letters that poured in on it in recent weeks either protesting or supporting his plan to reorganize the department.

The flow of such communications, aides said today, fell off to a trickle after Benson on Monday ordered the plan into immediate effect in the face of requests of some farm groups and some congressmen that it be deferred.

* * *

Before he took this action, hundreds of messages were received, most of them taking positions on his proposed plan to alter the department's Soil Conservation Service. The principal change involved abolition of seven regional offices of the conservation service.

This proposal brought sharp protests from the National Association of Soil Conservation districts. It contended the reorganization plan would virtually ruin the conservation service—a claim which Benson has denied.

Benson aides said it appeared the bulk of the communications received before Benson acted Monday were inspired by groups which both opposed and favored the plan. Many were identical in wording, they said.

* * *

Aides said that fewer than two dozen communications have so far been received since the secretary ordered the plan into operation. They said that all but about two commended Benson.

3-Year-Old Immigrant Begins English Classes

BALTIMORE (AP)—A 3-year-old immigrant who arrived in Baltimore only yesterday begins classes in English today.

The student is a 1,500-pound baby elephant who received her early training in Milan, Italy, and responds to Italian commands.

The teacher is Clarence Taylor, elephant trainer at the Baltimore Zoo for more than a decade.

Police Chief Pays Fine for Not Obeying Rule

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—Police Chief Paul Shaver paid a $5 fine for failing to halt at a stop sign.

The ticket was issued by Patrolman Robert Cecil. Shaver said he had thought the car came to a complete stop.

"Cecil told me he had orders to warn people on that," the chief said. "I told him nothing doing; if I hadn't come to a complete stop he should give me a ticket.

"He did."

Monkey Has Owner in Stitches—22 of Them

ONEONTA, N. Y. (AP)—An 8-year-old monkey named Flukey has his master in stitches—22 of them.

Dan Sherman opened Flukey's steel cage to adjust a chain and the 25-pound monkey bit his hands and forearms. The wounds were closed with 22 stitches. Sherman was given a tetanus shot.

Now Sherman is looking for a new home for the pet he got in The Philippines during World War II. If no one wants a temperamental monkey, Sherman said, it's curtains for Flukey.

Man, 67, Found Stuck in Tar Patch in Kansas

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—A 67-year-old man was found in an abandoned quarry yesterday, stuck fast to a patch of tar. It took two men to pry him loose.

Police identified the victim as Otis Hull of Kansas City. They said he was unable to give a coherent account of his misadventure.

Hull, suffering from pneumonia and exposure—he evidently was trapped overnight — was hospitalized. Physicians said his condition was poor.
