43,000 at Westinghouse in 28 Plants Quit Jobs; More Possible

NEW YORK (AP) — A general strike of longshoremen at all Atlantic Coast ports was ordered today in a union effort to force federal intervention in a dispute which has tied up the Port of New York for six days.

The International Longshoremen's Assn. (Ind.) issued the call for an "immediate" strike from Canada to Puerto Rico after an emergency meeting of its leaders.

An ILA spokesman said "one of the strong reasons" for the order was to make the stoppage a "national issue" and "take it out of the hands of the governors of New York and New Jersey, who are conducting beauty contests and visiting state fairs."

He added: "We want action and we believe the federal government can do it."

There was no immediate comment from either Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey or Gov. Averell Harriman of New York who previously have refused to intervene in the dispute over the bi-state supervision set up two years ago to end alleged racketeering and other abuses in this vast port, the world's busiest.

Following a meeting with union leaders, ILA President William V. Bradley sent the following telegram to 400 locals along the coast from Canada to Puerto Rico:

"It has become necessary to call a general strike of our organization in order to preserve the ILA. You are hereby ordered and directed to stop work immediately in order to gain our objectives. To be specific, this is a general strike."

At Pittsburgh, the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers ordered the walkout of 43,000 Westinghouse workers at 28 plants to begin on schedule. It came only a few hours after the company announced James B. Carey, union president, had "initialed an agreement" to end a five-week strike at the East Pittsburgh plant "and cancel a threatened national strike."

There was no indication whether Westinghouse's 30 other plants, employing about 70,000 workers, would be affected. These employes are affiliated with other unions.

The slowdown on the Long Island commuter system came in the midst of mediation efforts to settle a dispute over union demands for higher pay, shorter work days, improved working conditions, fringe benefits and settlement of 250 longstanding grievances.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Big Bill Campbell, U. S. Walker Cup team captain from Huntington, W. Va., won four holes in a row in the back nine today to beat David (Spec) Goldman of Dallas, Texas, 3 and 2, in the opening round of the 55th U. S. Amateur Golf Championship.

Another Campbell, tow-headed Joe of Anderson, Ind., holder of the national collegiate championship, shot the best golf of the early starters on a cool, sunny day. Joe shot an even par 35 on the front nine of the 6,713-yard James River course to lead William P. Haviland, erratic young Towson, Md., player, three up at the turn.

In another early match, 1949 champion Charley Coe of Oklahoma City trailed Jake Howard Jr., of Augusta, Ga., by one hole at the end of the first nine.

6-County Panel to Talk Roads

Supervisors' Committee Will Meet Thursday at Redford

A group of road experts will discuss highway problems in a six-county area including Oakland at Thursday's meeting of the Supervisors Inter-County Committee at 10 a.m. in Huck's Redford Inn, Redford.

The inter-county group's road committee, headed by West Bloomfield Township Supervisor Hiland M. Thatcher, has arranged the meeting particularly to investigate implications and effects of the recently completed Detroit metropolitan area traffic study.

Speakers will include J. Douglas Carroll, director of the Detroit area study and his assistant, Arthur T. Row; Howard Bacon, of the State Highway Department's traffic and safety division and N. E. MacDougall, senior highway engineer for the Federal Bureau of Public Roads.

The group's water committee, chaired by Royal Oak Mayor Howard K. Kelley, will meet during the morning to consider two proposals for providing this area with a water pipeline from Lake Huron.

The Lafayette Engineering Co., of Drayton Plains, has proposed a 55 to 65-mile pipeline to provide 1,600,000,000 gallons of water daily. It claims to have financial commitments for the $190,600,000 needed to build the system.

Port Huron officials have suggested a setup whereby that city would bring a pipeline to its limits and other communities could pick it up from there.

German-Soviet Leaders Unable to Bring Accord

Adenauer and Bulganin Disagree in Major Issues Facing Conference

MOSCOW (AP) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany and Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin met again today and found themselves so far apart on issues dividing the two nations that they were unable even to agree on a statement for reporters.

A German informant said they were as far apart as when the German-Russian consultations began last Friday.

They met to hear reports from their foreign ministers, who conferred for an hour and a half earlier in the day. a German spokesman — Felix von Eckhardt — said Foreign Minister Henrich von Brentano and V. M. Molotov also were unable to agree.

There may be another meeting tomorrow, but arrangements already are in the works for the German conferees to go home Wednesday.

Molotov and Von Brentano agreed not to disclose the subject of their morning talks and limited themselves to brief statements to the press.

* * *

These said the foreign ministers met in conformity with instructions given to them by their heads of government to discuss concrete proposals to be presented to the heads of government, taking into account the positions already outlined.

Since Adenauer had already said release of German prisoners and a start on German reunification were part of his position, it was assumed Von Brentano brought up these points.

$100 Million Link

Michigan Newsmen See Mackinac Bridge Project

(Newsmen recently were guests of the Mackinac Bridge Authority showing of the link joining Michigan's two peninsulas. Pontiac Press writer Joe Haas describes the project in the following article. Future stories will deal with more intimate facts about the bridge.)

By JOE HAAS
(Pontiac Press Staff Writer)

MACKINAW CITY — Chief Pontiac ruled the Straits of Mackinac.

That domain extended from Lake Superior to the Gulf of Mexico and from the Appalachian Mountains to the Mississippi River.

He held his war councils on Apple Island in Orchard Lake, less than 10 miles from the site of the city that was to be named in his honor.

His power faded away when his conspiracy of 1763 failed, but his strategy in planning that event, which almost succeeded, made him a commanding character in history. Hence, 55 years later his name was given to the Pontiac settlement, in 1818.

In view of these facts, it was fitting that the Pontiac Press be invited to send a representative to the recent "Newspaper Day" of the new Mackinac Bridge Authority.

A rainy day and high winds spoiled much of outdoor features that had been scheduled for the event, but the scribes were given an intimate look at what had been accomplished on the $100 million project which now is about even with its planned progress.

TO OPEN IN 1957

This schedule provides for the 4-lane bridge to be opened for traffic in 1957, and completed the following year. The toll charges are approximately the same as now in effect on the ferries.

In some respects the Mackinac bridge will be larger than the Golden Gate bridge at San Francisco. Its overall length is much greater, being 26,186 feet with its approaches, the longest in the world.

The Golden Gate towers rise 746 feet above water. Those at Mackinac will rise 552 feet above water. They now are 300 feet high, and will be completed Nov. 1.

It is 4,000 feet between towers

Hearing Slated on Handicapped

Legislative Committee on Mental Defectives Meets Tuesday

The joint Senate-House interim committee studying problems of Michigan's mentally handicapped will hold hearings tomorrow in Lansing beginning at 10 a.m.

Included in those answering committee questions will be State Health Commissioner Dr. Albert E. Heustis, State Superintendent of Public Instruction Clair L. Taylor and Charles F. Wagg, director of the state mental health program.

The committee is attempting to gather information which may result in a special session of the Legislature next month to take emergency steps to provide more institutional space for care of mentally retarded, said Sen. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), a committee member.

"Permanent measures could then be formulated at the next regular session in January next year," said Broomfield.

The lawmaker said he will report on a survey of the Lapeer State Home and Training School "and make recommendations as to what should be done to bring it to standard.

"The facility must be expanded in order to carry the ever-increasing load."

120 Reported Injured as Tremor Shakes Nile Delta, Alexandria

CAIRO (INS) —Nineteen Egyptians, including at least 11 school children, were killed today when a violent earthquake shook Cairo, Alexandria and large parts of the Nile delta.

Early reports indicated that 12 schools collapsed in Cairo. Eight children died in one school alone and 68 were injured.

Emergency relief centers were opened in the affected areas.

Minister of Social Affairs Lt. Col. Hussein El Shafie toured wrecked areas and supervised rescue operations. Blankets and first aid were given victims.

In mid-afternoon an interior ministry official said "the situation across the country now is calm and reassuring."

Taxis were comandeered when ambulances became scarce to rush the injured to hospitals in the Egyptian capital.

Police said skyscrapers trembled and at least 45 houses were wrecked.

The Alexandria observatory said the quake lasted more than a minute.

* * *

Many students bolted when the tremor shook their schools and jumped from windows and balconies.

Many old buildings were said to be in danger of collapse.

Says Boom Coming in Farm Truck Use

EAST LANSING (AP) — A top auto executive predicted today the number of farm trucks will increase 40 per cent in the next 10 years.

William A. Keller, general sales manager of the Studebaker Division of Studebaker-Packard Corp., made the estimate in a speech before the National Association of County Agricultural Agents.

The group is holding its 40th annual meeting at Michigan State University.

"When farm mechanization is mentioned, most people think immediately of the tractor," Keller said. "Actually, the truck is the unsung hero of American agriculture . . . "

Keller said 85 per cent of the farm trucks sold in the past two years serve double duty as a second family car.

Varied Weekend Weather Warms, Then Cools Area

The weatherman apparently tried to please everyone over the weekend—but probably failed to satisfy anyone.

In the past 48 hours, Pontiac area residents wilted in 91-degree summer heat, shivered in 42-degree autumn weather and sought shelter during a brief electric storm.

Somewhat warmer weather was predicted for tomorrow, with the high expected to hit 70-74. Today's temperatures were to reach the high 60s, with tonight's low near 40.

A brief storm disrupted electrical service in scattered areas Saturday evening and resulted in .18 inch of precipitation.

Sunday was clear and cool, with the mercury ranging from 50 to 69 degrees.

Oakland County escaped frost that blanketed some parts of the state last night, but the mercury dipped to a chilly 42 during the early morning hours. The downtown Pontiac reading was 47 at 8 a.m., rising to 68 at 2 p.m.

The award will be presented by Robert Lewis, an AAA traffic-safety consultant, to City Manager Walter K. Willman.

C. E. Wilson Enjoying 'First Real Vacation' at Long Lake Road Home

By HAROLD A. FITZGERALD
Pontiac Press Publisher

Enjoying the first real vacation of his life, Secretary of Defense C. E. Wilson is lounging around his home on Long Lake road for ten days or two weeks.

"I was up north for a short time," he said, "and I think this constitutes the biggest rest I have had since I first started to work."

Mr. Wilson asserts that he is especially happy over the way the nation is accepting Dwight D. Eisenhower as President, "The post of Secretary of Defense never had any part in my personal plans," he said, "and when the post was offered to me it came as a complete surprise.

* * *

"However, my admiration and respect for the President was such that I gave it earnest thought and finally went to Washington, resigning my place with General Motors where I had been very happy and where I knew the set-up intimately. Now as I look back upon my three years' association with the administration, I am glad to report that the man has proved to be even greater than I originally believed.

* * *

"The nation is accepting President Eisenhower readily on all sides. We see daily evidence that his popularity with all types of people has increased steadily since election. His sincerity, capacity and ability stand out through everything he has done. The nation is blessed with a leader of great personal honor and one who is close to the average man and who is sympathetic with his problems."

* * *

Incidentally, it cost Mr. Wilson several million dollars when he resigned from General Motors for his large block of stock would have appreciated this amount had he not been compelled to sell. Also, he accepted an annual salary of $22,500 in Washington as against a total of approximately $600,000 from General Motors with bonuses.

* * *

"I am pleased with Wilber M. Brucker as Secretary of the Army," says Wilson. "We had an excellent opportunity to observe him at close range in Washington and when this opportunity presented itself, I was happy to recommend him for the important post. He has gone forward well. Secretary Brucker had wide experience in Michigan with his well-known law firm and, of course, he was grounded in governmental affairs through his training as Governor of the State. He gets along splendidly with his associates, understands the complex problems and is making a favorable impression. No one pushes him around. He occupies a post of great responsibility and I am happy to report to the people of his home state that he is making good. Army affairs are in competent hands."

* * *

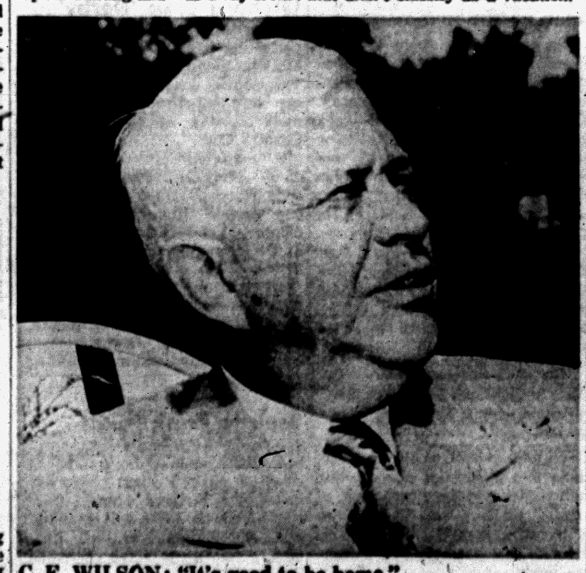
Secretary Wilson spent a few days at the Wilson cottage at Walloon Lake and then returned to his Oakland County home. Asked where his permanent residence would be when the Washington assignment was completed, he replied "right here." Recently he purchased a plantation in Louisiana and some people interpreted that as a possible move from Michigan, but the Secretary waved it off.

"This is my home. Five of my six children live around here with their respective husbands and wives and our grandchildren and this is where Mrs. Wilson and I propose to stay. Oh, we'll go down to Louisiana for three months or so a year, but any time I 'head home,' it means Oakland County."

"Do you intend to follow up your activity in cattle raising?" he was asked.

"I certainly do," he answered. "I'm interested in this cross breeding and I'm going to stick with it."

Now we were outdoors looking across the lake. "That gave me the only other extended 'time off,' I ever had," he smiled. "I broke a hip ice skating and was away from General Motors for a spell, but that didn't classify as a vacation."



C. E. WILSON: "It's good to be home."

He stretched and looked around.

"It's nice to relax. They tell me a flock of wild geese came in last night and held a long pow-wow right here on my lawn. Good. This is my home. The geese are welcome. My office is in the District of Columbia but my heart is right here in Oakland County when the job is done."

* * *

"One of the joys of being here now," he said, "is the fact I don't get cross questioned all the time by those who have some sort of an iron in the fire. I went to the State Fair and spent several hours with the cattle and the cattle people without a mention of world affairs. In fact, I was finishing up and sitting quietly on a bale of hay when a reporter and photographer from the Detroit News came up and asked for a picture." And so he was snapped with a cow instead of a visiting potentate or international bigwig.

Oakland County is contributing a great man to a great cause. The nation is blessed with the services of one of the top manufacturers and shrewdest business men the world has known.

State Fair Ends With Estimated $50,000 Profit

DETROIT (AP) — The Michigan State Fair closed last night after making an estimated record profit of $50,000.

Yesterday's record closing-day crowd of 101,805 helped push the total attendance for the 10 days of the fair to 786,758. The figure ranked second in the fair's history. The 1950 turnout of 801,248 still is the record.

This year's attendance, however, exceeded that of last year by more than 30,000.

Donald L. Swanson, fair general manager, said the $50,000 would be left for the state general fund after the $131,000 in premiums and other expenses are paid.

Miss America, Begins Reign

Colorado Coed Arrives With Parents on Visit to New York

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

NEW YORK — Sharon Kay Ritchie, the girl with the "perfect figure," paid New York a royal visit today as she launched her one-year reign as Miss America, the nation's beauty queen.

The second red-haired beauty to win the title of the 30-year history of the Atlantic City pagenat, Miss Ritchie stands 5 feet 6, weighs 116, and has a 35-inch bust, 23-inch waist and 34-inch hips—what fashion experts call the perfect measurements.

The almond-eyed college girl, whose sister was a second runner-up in the Miss United States competition last year, said the girl who keeps calm, cool and collected is the one who wins the coveted crown.

"There's no use getting fussed," she said. "If you look for the best, you'll receive the best. If you think success, then success will come to you."

Until she won the crown over 48 other beauties Saturday night, Sharon had some ideas about entering the fashion field.

But Sharon has now decided to fulfill "my greatest dream"—an acting career. Before the year is up, she would win some $70,000 in cash and a small fortune in prizes.

As for boy friends, the bue-eyed queen said: "I'm not engaged and I have no attachments."

A sophomore at Colorado Women's College, she said she had her eye on the Miss America title since she was 8.

Second spot honors in the Miss America 1956 race went to Miss Oregon, Dorothy Mae Johnson of Portland. Florence Gallagher, Miss Chicago, placed third.

—'ROYALTY' RELAXES — The new "Queen" — "Miss America of 1956" — rests on her trophy today after a grueling week of posing, parading and publicity. The new queen — Miss Sharon Kay Ritchie of Denver, Colorado — won over 48 other beauties at the annual Atlantic City (NJ) Miss America Pageant.

Faure Facing Foes on Moor Proposal

PARIS (AP)—Premier Edgar Faure today tackled the most potent political opposition at home to his new deal for Morocco.

Across the Mediterranean, the North African protectorate tensely awaited the outcome. The French showered the Arab quarters of the chief cities with leaflets, bluntly warning that they would permit no repetition of the uprising Aug. 20-21 in which more than 1,000 died.

Heavy detachments of troops patrolled Casablanca and other major cities to counter any violence that might be touched off by one nationalist group's call for a general strike.

Faure was determined to get Cabinet approval for his Moroccan settlement today, the target date he assigned himself a month ago. However, some right-wing cabinet ministers were expected to oppose at least some portions of the accord.

U.S.-Red China Confab Sets Off Bitter Anger

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — U.S.-Red China negotiations at Geneva have set off angry, bitter comment and worry here—the comment aimed at agreement already reached and the worry about what Nationalist Chinese fear might come.

The tenor of the comment is that the talks so far smack of appeasement, infringe on sovereignty of the Nationalist government and will hurt the friendly relations between Formosa and the United States.

Plan Discussion on Farm Study

County Plan Commission Agriculture Group Sets Meeting Wednesday

The Oakland County Plan Commission will meet with the Supervisors' Agricultural Committee Wednesday to discuss a proposed study of farming areas in the county.

* * *

The meeting is scheduled for 1 p. m. on the fifth floor of the County Office Building at 1 Lafayette St., according to Commission Chairman J. Robert F. Swanson.

The survey would aim at determining present and future effects of rapid industrial, commercial and residential development on local farming areas.

The plan was outlined to Michigan State University officials Sept. 8, who tentatively agreed to join in the study.

The project hinges on whether some $6,000 can be allocated from county funds to finance it.

* * *

Plan Commission Director George N. Skrubb is meeting with the Supervisors' Ways and Means Committee today to consider changes of financing the plan. If money appears available, another meeting with MSU will be scheduled this week or next, said Skrubb.

Thank You, Call Again

Michigan Newsmen See Bridge Project

at Golden Gate, while at Mackinac it is 3,800 feet. The suspension between the cable anchorages at Mackinac is 8,614 feet, the longest in the world.

GIGANTIC FIGURES

Figures on the overall structure at Mackinac far exceed anything of the kind ever before attempted. They are so gigantic that comparison with objects about which a lay person has knowledge is necessary in order for us to understandingly grasp their full significance.

For instance, the wire used in the suspension cables is not as large round as an ordinary lead pencil, its diameter being approximately one-fifth of an inch.

Thirteen thousand of these wires will be compacted into each of the 8,362-foot main suspension cables which will carry the center span.

Each of these cables will be 24 inches in diameter, and the total weight of the two cables will be 23 million pounds. The total length of the wire in them will be 41,000 miles, enough to circle the earth at the equator, with 16,000 miles left over. The work of spinning the cables soon will be under way.

At each end these cables will be embedded in 85,000 cubic yards of concerete, a solid mass that is approximately the size of the Pontiac State Bank Building. This holds up the center span.

SOLID ROCK FOUNDATION

The approaching spans are supported by 33 foundations of varying heights above water, increasing as they near the middle span. All of these are set on solid rock in the bottom of the straits, some at a depth of around 200 feet below water level. The foundation of each of the suspension towers is on solid rock at a depth of 200 feet below water level.

In the bridge will be 75,000 tons of structural steel, mostly in the superstructure, and furnished and erected by the American Bridge Division of United States Steel Corporation.

The sub-structure, done by Merritt-Chapman and Scott Corporation, now is 75 per cent completed.

The total weight of all materials going into the bridge exceeds one million tons, three quarters of which is under water. Some of the depth work was the greatest on any bridge construction in the entire world.

Pontiac Deaths

Donald Black

Donald Black, 21, of 334 Huron St., died Saturday in Pontiac General Hospital from injuries received in an automobile accident.

Born in September 1934, he was the son of Samuel and Lula Lane Black.

Mother to Answer in Heiress' Death

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dist. Atty. Samuel Dash says he has new evidence that will help fix responsibility for the death of Mrs. Doris Silver Ostreicher, whose mother answers today to charges that she was involved in a criminal abortion that caused the death.

Dash said last night the new evidence was contained in a preliminary report by New York pathologists who have been studying tissues and vital organs of the beautiful 22-year-old Food Fair stores heiress.

Dash would not indicate the nature of the new information. But he said previously that pathologists would attempt to set the exact time that the girl died on the night of Aug. 24 while with her mother in the North Philadelphia home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Schwartz.

Mrs. Silver is the only one charged by Dash in the investigation. She is accused specifically with conspiracy and with being an accessory before the fact of an abortion.

The Day in Birmingham

Lawmakers Meet Tonight on Parking Assessment

BIRMINGHAM—This is the night which downtown business property owners have been waiting for—the night when the City Commision, by probable confirmation of the assessment roll for Municipal Parking Lot No. 1, sets the pace for two other parking lot assessments.

Approval of the formula used to derive these assessments will bring speedy action on assessing for the second off-street parking lot the commission has in mind, the northern end of the block south of Shain Park.

The same formula will be the pattern followed for a third lot in the northeast business section.

Lawmakers will also discuss the paving of Lincoln avenue from Eton road to the city's eastern boundary, signs and dedications for city parks, the hiring of a planning consultant and the zoning ordinance amendment procedure.

Squalling Hilda Brings Warning

Hurricane Winds Spawn in Pacific; Bahamas and Coastlines Are Alerted

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)— Hurricane warnings were hoisted along the north shore of the Dominican Republic today as the eighth tropical storm of the year, named Hilda, was spawned 840 miles east-southeast of Miami.

The distrubance, not yet a fully developed hurricane but with squalls of 75 m.p.h. blowing around her center, was moving west-northwest at 13 m.p.h.

Islands in the eastern Bahamas were alerted for hurricane or gale force winds tonight and tomorrow. Small craft in the islands and along the lower Florida east coast were told to keep in close touch with future advisories.

The center of the storm at 11 a.m. EST was near latitude 20.0 north, longitude 69.1 west, or 165 miles southeast of Turks Island at the extreme eastern tip of the Bahama Island chain. Turks Island is 100 miles north of the Dominican Republic.

Hurricane warnings were displayed from Cabo Frances Diejo to Punta Isabella on the Dominican coast, and northwest storm warnings eastward to Cabo Smana.

A steamship, the Andros Fortune, sailed north of the storm's eye and reported very rough seas with visibility of one-half mile in 50-mile squalls and a swiftly falling barometer.

Gordon Dunn, chief storm forecaster, said here that it was too early to tell whether Hilda would affect the coastline but that the growing disturbance was in a critical position.

Royal Date Book Opens

Princess Margaret Faces Busy Year-End Schedule

By CHARLES A. SMITH

LONDON (INS)—Princess Margaret will return to London Oct. 17 from vacation in Scotland to plunge into a round of public engagements planned well into next year.

Margaret's engagement book is filling rapidly and gives no sign whatever that the princess is not going to be available for royal public duty throughout this fall and winter.

It has strengthened the impression held by many that if Margaret's old affection for Capt. Peter Townsend continues, and if she still hopes to marry him despite his divorced status, it will be handled in a manner permitting the princess to retain her full royal status.

In any event, Margaret will again be at her job appearing at public functions. The night of Oct. 18, she will be guest of honor at a big cocktail party at Claridges Hotel here to aid Royal Air Force charities.

The next day, the princess goes to Salisbury for a get together with the Highland Light Infantry. Margaret will present new colors at an impressive ceremony, will lunch with officers, and inspect a regimental parade.

Back in London, Margaret on Oct. 20, will motor to Epsom to open a new department of the local hospital. Two days later, she will drive to London's east side to open a new church community center.

On Oct. 24, Margaret will be on the road again, this time to the south coast of England where she will open a new center for asthmatic children at Seaford.

* * *

Margaret has engagements through November and December, and already there are half a dozen entries in ther diary for 1956.

International Bridge Work Set for Spring

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—Present plans call for starting work next spring on an International Bridge across the St. Mary's river between Michigan and Canada at Sault Ste. Marie.

Paul P. Hoholik, of Sault Ste. Marie, member of the bridge authority, said in an interview that the group is nearly ready to talk financing of the contemplated 25 million dollar structure.

The 1¼ mile bridge would be complete by November, 1957, when the 100 million dollar Straits of Mackinac Bridge, 50 miles south, also is scheduled for completion. The Straits bridge would span the five mile Straits separating Michigan's two peninsulas.

Hoholik said the Soo bridge would be financed by United States tax-free revenue bonds.

Medical Head Resigns

DETROIT (AP)—The resignation of Dr. Robert L. Novy, 63, as president of the Michigan Medical Service, commonly known as Blue Shield, was announced Saturday. Dr. Novy, who served as president without salary for 13 ywars, said he was resigning for "personal reasons." A successor will be elected next month.

Indiana's 1955 population is extimated at 4.5 million.

New Zealand Exports Climb $24,000,000

New Zealand's exports totaled nearly $685,000,000 in 1954, an increase of $24,000,000 over 1953 and second only to 1951, when total exports reach $695,000,000, owing to exceptionally high prices for wool.

Imports in 1954 were valued at $597,000,000, an increase of $139,000,000 over 1953 and $46,000,000 below the 1952 record.

Noisy Mufflers Silenced

JACKSON (AP)—Police report success on a crackdown on motorists with noisy mufflers. Since Aug. 13, when the drive started, more than 200 drivers were ticketed and officers say it's "pretty much under control now." Strict enforcement will continue.

France Seething Under Increased Labor Troubles

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

French Premier Edgar Faure, to add to his heavy troubles in North Africa, now is being harassed by increasing labor troubles.

* * *

But France is ont the only nation where economic storm signals are flying. Britain has lost $1,500,000 in gold and foreign exchange reserves since 1950, and rounds of wage increases still are demanded by workers.

In the French case the nation is coming to the end of the dollor flow that orginated in the last days of United States economic aid to Europe and military aid to the French to bolster the war machine in Indochina.

Violence has led to bloodshed in the shipbuilding and steel industries. Labor unrest is spreading to the fields of transport, rubber manufacture and department stores. Coal miners are threatening to strike in northern France unless they get a 20 per cent pay boost.

PRODUCTON JUMPS

He reported earlier this month that French production had jumped by 11 per cent in the last 12 months and by 40 per cent from 1950 to 1955.

He compared the French industrial expansion rate of 40 per cent with the 16 per cent in Britain, the 22 per cent in the United States and the 25 per cent in Belgium.

The same rate in West Germany was 77 per cent and it was 53 per cent in Italy. But Pflimlin said that those two countries started from lower levels because of the effects of World War II.

INCOME RISES

The finance minister noted that for the first time since the war the recent increases in workers' incomes, through hourly wage rate boosts, had been achieved without price increases.

In other words, Pflimlin in a speech to the annual Strasbourg Fair said in effect that France has never had it so good since the war.

French prices have been kept steady for three years and in turn the franc has been kept firm on the international money market.

Official economists are quick to say, however, that an over-all wage hike automatically will bring higher prices and start an inflationary spiral all over again after it took years to limit that plague in Europe.

Brain-Wash Class Will Continue as Is

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary Donald A. Quarles says the Air Force plans neither to stiffen nor to ease its course of training men to survive as prisoners of war.

Disclosure of simulated brain-washing and other tactics used at the school at Stead Air Force Base, Nev., last week brought some criticism that it was too rough. Quarles told a CBS audience however, the program "is definitely justified."

President's Day Founder Runs Up Novel Baby Flag

COMPTON, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. Elaine Fischer's baby was overdue and the neighbors kept inquiring. Finally she told her husband, salesman Hal Fischer: "We're always flying flags on holidays. Tell them we'll fly a flag when the baby's born."

* * *

A 6-pound, 6-ounce boy arrived yesterday, the Fischer's fourth child. Fischer proudly hoisted a flag on the front porch. The flag shows a baby lying on a blanket on a deep blue background with the words: "It's a Boy." The child was named Dwight David and Fischer telegraphed President Eisenhower that his namesake had arrived.

Fischer is known as the founder of President's Day, celebrated every March 4 in honor of all American presidents.

Scientists Claim Plants Have Muscles, Too

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Reporter

EAST LANSING (AP)—Plants apparently have muscles, similar to human muscles, a team of scientists reported today.

This explains how plants convert chemical energy into mechanical energy or usable work, much as human bodies convert food energy into work through muscular action.

Human muscles contain a protein, actomyosin, which reacts the energy-giving chemical ATP to produce movement and work.

A similar kind of protein now has been isolated from plant life, named myxomysin. It reacts with ATP produced in the plant. Mechanical energy, or work, results. In plants, cytoplasm is always moving and flowing. This muscular action explains how it is moved.

PROTEIN ISOLATED

The muscle protein was isolated from a low form of plant life, the slime mold. Further studies will show whether all plants have it. It is a guess that they do.

The plant muscle protein forms a gell until exposed to ATP. Then it becomes less viscose, then gells again when all the ATP has been used up. A wave of gellification pushes a wave of liquid ahead of it, creating the flowing movment.

In the same laboratories, H. R. Highkin has detected a mystery chemical, apparently a hormone, which makes some plants flower after exposure to cold.

* * *

Winter wheat, for example, won't flower until after exposed to cold, but spring wheat will.

SEEDS SOAKED

Highkin soaked spring wheat seeds in water. Then he removed them and put winter seeds in the same water. The winter wheat then would flower without ever being exposed to cold temperature.

The mystery chemical had leaked out of the spring seeds into the water and was taken up by the winter seeds. It is the first lead on the chemical nature of the effect of cold on flowering, Dr. Bonner said.

Spring seeds contain the chemical to flower without cold. Winter seeds don't have it, other water-soaking tests showed. But these plants make the chemical later on when exposed to cold.

Highkin also finds that spring wheat will flower earlier than normal if it is exposed to cold.

POTENTIAL SEEN

This means that wheat-growing areas could be extended farther north. Spring seeds exposed to cold would flower and mature sooner and be able to produce a crop in the shorter growing season of more northern latitudes.

Lawrence Ordin and Dr. Bonner reported on tracing the chemical mechanism by which a potent growth hormone makes plants grow. A softening of cell walls in the plant is produced so that internal pressure lets the cell expand.

Mink predominates in the fine fur field. In 1954 about 60 per cent of all the raw furs purchased in the U. S. were mink.

Special Session Plan Emphasizes Road Needs

Gov. WILLIAMS is right in his decision to call a special session of the Legislature.

He is right, too, in deciding that when the lawmakers meet late in October or early in November, they should enact legislation to promote greater safety on Michigan highways.

Almost as serious a problem is that of finding additional hospital space for the emergency care of mentally retarted children. That this problem shouldn't be ignored is clear to all who have given it thoughtful attention.

The fact remains, however, that highway safety will be the major issue confronting the Legislature. Latest evidence of this is the number and variety of suggestions of new regulations to reduce the accident toll.

Among them is the 12 point program suggested by Secretary of State HARE on which the Governor will base his recommendations to the Legislature. Regardless of whether the lawmakers decide to shift driver licensing from local police and sheriffs to state civil service employes, there is no doubt about the need for stiffer regulations.

The idea of better regulations is sound. We're for them. But our State and Federal Legislators and the public are living in a Fool's Paradise if they believe that new laws alone will solve this problem.

The need is for more and better highways here in Oakland County and in every other traffic congested area in the land. Little improvement in highway safety can be expected until our Federal and State Legislatures face the problem realistically and act constructively.

Army Apology Vindicates Professor at Wayne U.

Army Secretary BRUCKER has acted wisely and promptly to undo a serious injustice to Dr. ALFRED H. KELLY of Detroit.

The Secretary's action took the form of a complete formal apology to the head of Wayne University's history department. This had the effect of eliminating from Army files a charge that Dr. KELLY was contributor to and supporter of American Youth for Democracy.

The actual facts in the case are just the reverse, as everyone who knew Dr. Kelly was fully aware. He conducted the investigation which resulted in the group being banned from Wayne's campus.

The erroneous charge against Dr. KELLY grew out of the case of SANFORD WAXER, a former student at Wayne, who had given the professor's name as a reference. The Army wanted WAXER to accept a dishororable discharge on the grounds that he had associated with Communists and Communist sympathizers.

An even greater source of satisfaction than the Army's apology is the announcement by Secretary BRUCKER that he is correcting the faulty procedure which made the mistake possible.

"The Army wants to deal justly with all persons mentioned in allegations regarding security investigations," says the Secretary, a former Governor of Michigan. "It becomes a matter of fair play to admit a mistake of this kind whenever it occurs."

We feel confident public opinion will endorse that statement.

President Signs Bill to Halt Land Racket

When President EISENHOWER signed the fake mining claims bill, he put an end to one of the worst land rackets in the modern history of this country.

The measure is the result of long agitation by conservationists. One of the last bills passed before adjournment, it is aimed to end a practice permitted under laws dating back more than 75 years.

These allowed applicants for mining claims to get control of choice timber, cottage sites and trout streams on public lands in the West. All they had to do was pay a small fee and declare their intent to mine for minerals, or just even sand or gravel.

Over the years more and more choice lands were obtained by individuals as a result of this legislation. It was not until the uranium boom came along that the protests of conservationists got any Congressional attention.

By last Spring mining claims on Federal forest lands had totaled 166,000, twice as many as three years ago. Incidentally, these claims tied up $112,000,000 worth of good timber and many fine recreational spots. On many of them no mining has been done or ever will be.

President EISENHOWER was right when he signed the bill in calling it "one of the most important conservation measures affecting public lands that has been enacted in many years."

Nitrogen Does It

It Tides Our Growing Crops Over Dry Spells in Summer

Traffic safety slogan: Start earlier and your chances are better of being around later.

In spite of the hot weather through most of the summer, it is quite remarkable that growing crops suffered but little. Several of the leading farmers in this area give credit for this to a modernized system of fertilization that has been adopted in very recent years. In enriching the soil a fertilizer that contains a major portion of nitrogen has come into general use. Nitrogen draws moisture from the air, and preserves it, thus enabling crops to continue their growth for longer periods between rains. Its use encourages heavier dews, and even draws moisture from the fogs which often cover the fields on summer nights.

The Depression Has Set In

David Lawrence Says:

Ike Has a Knack for Saying the Things Americans Like to Hear Over and Over

WASHINGTON — Small wonder that Dwight Eisenhower is the most popular president America has had in half a century—every time he makes an impromptu speech he says the common-sense things that Americans enjoy hearing again and again. He is today the living symbol of traditional Americanism — the kind that started with a sturdy individualism at Plymouth Rock and has continued to this day as the backbone of the free-enterprise system.

In his speech at Denver over the weekend, interpreting Lincoln's famous phrase about "government of the people, by the people, for the people," Eisenhower said:

"'For the people': we have seen the phrase tortured by demagogic types to mean that an over-wise and over-busy government takes over all the functions of living. They say: 'Now go on boys, do just what you are told and we will take care of the 165 million people.' And they tortured the general welfare clause of the Constitution.

"I don't believe that is what Lincoln meant at all. If we are for the people, which means for the individual as such, we go first to the ten first amendments of the Constitution—to the Bill of Rights. That was written for the people.

* * *

"That Bill of Rights does not guarantee to each of us a profitable living. It guarantees to each of us an equal opportunity with all others to earn our living for ourselves and our families, and to protect our future.

GOP DOCTRINE

"We could discuss further what we mean by 'for the people.' But I refer to another quotation of Lincoln's which was generally to this effect: The function of government is to do for the people what the individual cannot do at all, or do so well for himself, and in all those things which the individual can do for himself, the government ought not to interfere.

"Now I think today that is as good a presentation of the Republican case as I know how to make."

The President was tactful and restrained. He might have referred to the way the New Deal and Fair Deal packed the federal judiciary including the Supreme Court of the United States to distort the Constitution and tear down decisions of more than 150 years standing.

What a refreshing contrast between the Eisenhower utterances and those of Adlai Stevenson on the same day. The 1952 candidate could only paraphrase Lincoln to say that today there is a "government of the rich, by the rich and for the rich."

MORE RICH TODAY

Happily the rich today constitute almost the entire population. There are, for instance, according to the latest figures obtained from the Federal Reserve Board, about 18,800,000 families with an income of $5,000 a year or over out of a total number of 49,400,000 families in America.

While the $5,000-a-year-and-over group is about 38 per cent of all the families, this same group now buys about three-fourths of all the new cars sold each year. There are indeed about 5,000,000 families that own two or more cars.

Where would the automobile industry and its hundreds of thousands of workers be if the individuals constituting this important market did not have the initiative and the opportunity to earn $5,000 a year which is certainly "rich" in terms of half a century ago? Incidentally there are in addition about 15,000,000 families with incomes between $3,000 and $5,000 a year which isn't exactly "poor" either.

Indications are that the next set of figures issued will show—according to the present rate of growth—that there are about 36,000,000 families earning $3,000 a year or more, which is about three-fourths of all the families in the country. There are a lot of votes in that mass of families and if Democratic Party leaders intend to revive Huey Long's doctrines of redistributing wealth, they will find a lot of protests against tampering with incomes of those above the $3,000 mark.

Sinus Ailments Traced to Deficiency of Calcium

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

There is a pair of air-spaces in the frontal bones behind the brows, called frontal sinuses, each sinus being ventilated or drained by a small duct which connects the sinus with the nasal passage between middle and lower turbinates.

* * *

There's another pair of sinuses in the upper jaw bones which are also ventilated or drained into the nasal passages.

There's another pair of sinuses, called sphenoid sinuses, and ethmoid sinuses or cells. These are deeper in the base of the skull, but they drain or ventilate into the nasal passages farther back, and altogether these air-spaces in the otherwise solid ivory are the seat or source of many, varied and interesting symptoms, but for the average dumb layman the doctor, or, preferably, the specialist need say no more than sinus and the poor geek goes on his way rejoicing that such a difficult diagnosis has been made and all that remains is for the doctor to apply whatever the latest remedy or treatment may be.

NEW VERSION

To say one's ailment is "simus" seems to be the modern version of the old timers' "catarrh."

Infection and inflammation of one or more sinuses happens sometimes and in exceptional instances it requires opening through the bone, irrigation and drainage.

The maxillary sinus, otherwise called antrum of Highmore, in the upper jaw bone, may be thus opened for irrigation and drainage by punching a hole through the wall of the nasal passage or by drilling through the floor of the antrum where the root of the canine or "eye" tooth bulges into the sinus.

* * *

Even the ever-ready operators have been constraintd to keep out of the sinuses in recent years. Not that surgery is no longer necessary, but the prospective customers have friends who have submitted to such surgery only to regret it.

I mean to imply that "sinus," sinus trouble, chronic sinusitis, call it what you will, even "catarrh," is not a specific disease or condition and no particular medicine, diet, climate, season or weather can be "good for" it.

"I am interested in your advice of calcium and D for adult tetany," writes a Virginia reader. "My husband, recently returned from Japan, "complains of joint aches and seems to be unable to get over that nasal drip from sinus. He has been taking treatments for several months but still is coughing. Would the change from Japan to Virginia cause this?"

No, nor vice versa.

INFECTION SPREADS

Because the sinuses are all lined with mucous membrane continuous with that which lines nose and throat passages, nose and throat infections (c r i) spread into the sinuses as readily as into the middle ear through the Eustachian tube.

* * *

What the Virginia lady says between lines suggests that her husband's trouble may be mainly if not entirely due to calcium deficiency. If she will send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and a quarter in condition fit to handle without laundering or dry cleaning, I'll send her Little Lesson 26, The Calcium Shortage. Anyway it can do no harm to boop the daily calcium intake and keep it at the optimal level for a year.

'Expanding North Side Needs Aid of Boys' Club'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these ill not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature

In a recent article and picture published in the Press, it was interesting to note the enthusiastic response of the more than 450 boys who enjoy membership in the Pontiac Boys' Club.

It is not surprising when one considers the varied program which the Club has to offer on a yearly basis. It provides physical training and athletics, swimming and lifesaving, musical and dramatic activities, libraries and books, instruction in arts and crafts . . . all these and more under competent instructors.

It meets the needs not met by other organizations and is truly what we need in the north side of Pontiac, with our tremendous increase in population.

The Boys' Club with its trained staff, leading boys in the things they enjoy doing, has shown boys can be trained in an informal and enjoyable way to be citizens.

Unfortunate Remarks Recalled by Mr. Clapp

Within my memory the first unfortunate statement, politically, was the remark of an itinerant preacher at a reception for James Blaine. "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion go hand in hand." The Democratic press of the nation credited the statement to Blaine, although he knew nothing about it until the following day. It lost him the presidency.

In later years an unpardonable remark was made by a quite prominent (and quite nice, I have heard) Michigan lady by the name of Nancy before a group of Virginians about getting Secretary Wilson out of Michigan.

Secretary Wilson's remark about the setter started another brainstorm in the new, Fair Deal. Had it not been campaign time, no attention would have been paid to it.

Well aware that their only hope for success in 1956 is to have either Mamie or Ike die or at least get very sick, Soapy came up with the old age idea. It did not seem to meet with general approval from either Republicans or his own party.

Cold Facts Fail to Support Charge Ike Is Anti-Union

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

With the coming up of a major national election campaign, in which the economic facts of life will be bandied about, it will be desirable for the plain citizen to provide himself with a psychological gas mask.

Already a preview of coming efforts to distort the realities is available. The opposition is seeking to identify the Abilene, Kan., boy, now in the White House, with big business. Campaign orators have already described the Eisenhower Administration as anti-union.

A common sense rule to remember is that when you criticize others you reveal your own position. Obviously, it is a distortion to link President Eisenhower in a sinister way with the big corporations or to represent him as hostile to labor.

The implication behind the slogans of critics is that it is good policy to be hostile to bigness in corporations, but that a public official should have altogether different standards of equity in judging the acts and recommendations of an association called a labor union.

65,000,000 WORKING

If any incumbent politicians are unrealistic enough to be hostile to big pressure groups, certainly such unfriendliness—if it exists to even the minutest degree—has not been confirmed in current economic statistics.

On the contrary, in many ways, this is the golden hour of the working man. Upwards of 65,000,000 persons—an unprecedented number—are reported employed, and average wages are the highest in the history of the nation. In addition, workers are receiving fringe benefits which are not reflected in visible income.

A politician has to be thick-skinned, for it is normal to be damned if you do and damned if you don't. While some Democrats seek to portray Eisenhower as an anti-social friend of big business who is cool to the labor unions, extremists in the right wing of his own party criticize him as a Republican New Dealer.

If Ike's critics want to eliminate him, they are barking up the wrong tree. It would have been more effective to have leaned over backwards and described his efforts at statesmanship with the utmost fairness. Under such circumstances, Ike might conceivably have retired after one term. The below-the-belt attacks doubtless will have the practical effect of making him think it is his duty to seek a second term.

Mom Worries Needlessly About Baby Inheriting Disease From His Father

Rachel is almost crazy with fear. It has made her lose weight and become a victim of insomnia, for fear itself can cause more damage than actual diseases. Your editor runs this educational column primarily to free your minds from needless anxiety, often based on wrong notions, so scrapbook these cases or mail them to distant relatives.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, before we were married my husband offered to donate blood for the Red Cross," she began.

* * *

"But when they tested his blood, they reported he had syphillis. Since he was in the army, he was hospitalized at once and given intensive treatment.

"When we were ready to be married, the doctor told us it was all right to go ahead with the wedding.

"But now I am worried almost to death. My husband is overseas and I have a baby boy.

"He has had a chronic red rash for months. Our family physician says it is just an allergy. But I am afraid the baby may have syphilis. My doctor made a blood test of me, however, and said I do not have it.

"But can't a baby inherit venereal disease from its father?"

TRUTH FREES YOU

Jesus said the truth shall set us free, and that will be readily evident from Rachel's case.

* * *

Babies cannot inherit venereal disease! So Rachel's young son cannot have inherited syphilis from his father.

An infected father cannot procreate a syphilitic child through a pure or non-infected mother That's a medical axiom.

"But, Dr. Crane, aren't some babies born with syphilis?" Rachel asked.

Yes, that is occasionally true. But they contract their syphilis from an infected mother during the time they are carried in her womb.

* * *

"But isn't that inheriting the disease?" Rachel presisted.

No, there is a big difference between catching a disease from

DUE TO PROXIMITY

A mother with syphilis might also infect any baby who nursed at her breast, but that would not be inheriting disease.

Mammals, which carry their young inside the mother's body, thus often infect those offspring before birth with their mother's diseases, yet this is simply due to proximity to the female parent.

A chicken, which lays its eggs, can have them hatched by an incubator. Meanwhile, the fertilized eggs may have no contact with the mother hen. If the chicks then could be shown to have ailments that the parent hen or rooster possessed, you'd have a good argument for inheritance of such diseases.

And if Rachel's husband could procreate a syphilitic child though Rachel's blood test proved she did not have syphilis, then we'd have a right to argue that the baby inherited its syphilis.

* * *

But no baby has ever been found to have syphilis at birth, despite their syphilitic fathers, if the mothers are not meanwhile syphilitic.

GERM DISEASES

Germ diseases apparently are not capable of being inherited. Thus tuberculosis, syphilis, gonorrhea, diphtheria, typhoid, etc., cannot be inherited.

* * *

But babies can have many of these at, or shortly after birth, if their mothers are so infected.

Feeblemindedness, diabetes, deafness and certain other glandular defects may be inherited, for these are not germ diseases.

Furthermore, if a man has syphilis but has been treated until the doctors pronounce him safe for marriage, you wives need not worry about contracting his syphilis, even if his blood tests are not yet negative for that disease.

In case of doubts about organic medical ailments, simply go to your family physician and have a test made. It will not cost you much and the relief of your mind is worth twice the price.

Lincoln Urges Abolishment of Slavery, Pleads With Dems to Save 'Equality'

(Michigan's history is rich and alive. Too often it is lost in the dullness of school-time lessons. In an effort to bring some of these moments to life, the following story was compiled from eye-witness accounts on file in the Michigan Historical Collections at the University of Michigan.)

KALAMAZOO, Aug. 7, 1856 (AP)—Abraham Lincoln, a former Illinois congressman, called on Democrats today to support the new Republican Party to save "the great principle of equality."

* * *

Speaking at a day-long political rally in Kalamazoo, Lincoln gave his support to John C. Fremont, running for the presidency against James Buchanan.

At the same time, some observers felt the young leader of the new Republican Party in Illinois may have hurt his chances of ever re-entering the national political scene.

Lincoln told the convention of the Republican Young Men of Michigan that the presidential election was based on one great issue: the question of extending slavery into the Western Territories.

Republicans estimated the crowd at about 30,000, but estimates by Democratic observers ranged from 7,000 to 15,000.

SHORTEST SPEECH

Lincoln's speech was the shortest of the day. He told the convention in calm, logical terms that the evil of slavery was inherited from the British. "We have ever deplored it," he said.

The principle of equality, Lincoln added, was responsible for this nation's great growth in its 80 years of existence.

* * *

He then said that the Democrats should ask themselves if they were not making up arguments to defend their stand that the government had no right to abolish slavery.

"If you answer this in the affirmative, see how a whole party has been turned away from their love to liberty? Throw off these things and come to the rescue of this great principle of equality.

"Come and keep coming. Strike and strike again. So sure as God lives, the victory will be yours," Lincoln concluded.

(Whether Lincoln's calm stand against slavery ever hurt his chances was never known. The same year he made this speech, Lincoln opposed Stephen Douglas for the senatorship from Illinois.

(Although Lincoln won a popular majority, he lost the election. Buchanan defeated Fremont for the presidency. Four years later, though, the fame of the homespun backwoodsman had grown. He was nominated by the Republican Party and elected President.

(One year later the Civil War exploded to settle forever the question of slavery in the states.)

'Breaking Point' Different With Each Personality

WASHINGTON (AP) — No two war prisioners — or civilians — have the same breaking point under pressure, the American Academy of Polygraph (lie detector) Examiners has been told.

* * *

Charles A. McInerney of the Allegheny County crime laboratory at Pittsburgh made the statement in commenting on the code of behavior for POWs recently drawn up at the Pentagon and approved by President Eisenhower.

The code requires captured servicemen to say or do nothing harmful to their country or comrades and to the utmost of their ability, to evade giving any information beyond name, rank, serial number and date of birth.

McInerney, a lie detector specialist, said Americans captured in the Korean fighting have made "obviously false" germ warfare and other confessions "because the prisioners reached their respective breaking points."

"The breaking point isn't the same for each individual," McInerney said. "Every experienced polygraph operator has had suspects confess before the test ever began — in some instances because of an abnormal fear of the lie detector.

* * *

"Others, even when confronted with guilty responses, will refuse to admit to any complicity in crime — regardless of how skilfully they are interrogated."

POSES PROBLEM

they'll confess to crimes they

He said it is the people with a "ridiculously low" breaking point who often pose a problem—they'll confess to crimes they couldn't possibly have committed. Sometimes, it's only the lie detector that keeps them out of jail or the electric chair, McInerny added.

The report came as the Academy of Polygrapher Examiners, opened its first annual meeting here.

Fred E. Inbau, Northwestern university law professor and president of the Academy, said only about 100 of the 500 lie detector operators in the country have the training and experience to qualify for membership.

The U.S. $500 bill carries a picture of President McKinley.

Workers Dig Debris From Refinery Blast

WHITING, Ind. (AP) — Workers were cleaning up debris today at the Standard Oil Co. refinery after an explosion and fire — the second in two weeks — damaged a three-story oil filter building Saturday night.

The building is less than a mile from the scene of an explosion and fire Aug. 27 which caused an estimated 10 million dollars damage and killed two persons.

A company official said the loss from the Saturday blast would be between $50,000 and $100,000. Seven employes suffered minor injuries or shock, but none was hospitalized.

Davisburg Man Dies

Charles Mercer Says:

Wilder's Play Encourages Hope of Mature Television

NEW YORK (AP)—Television is a little more mature today because NBC last night bravely presented a difficult play and made it superior entertainment. The play was the Broadway stage success and Pulitzer Prize winner, "The Skin of Our Teeth," by Thornton Wilder.

If any literal-minded viewers were confused by the scene of the drama, they nevertheless must have been entertained by the superb acting of Helen Hays, Mary Martin, George Abbott and Florence Reed, to name four among a topflight cast.

As George Antrobus and his wife, of Excelsior, N. J., George Abbott and Helen Hayes became every couple who have lived long together, loved, quarreled, had children—and depended on each other.

As Sabina, their maid, Mary Martin was a delightful fantasy of man's dreams and other women's everyday experience. A host of other fascinating characters could be said to symbolize other human points of view.

AMORALITY PLAY

But "The Skin of Our Teeth" is not a morality play. As conceived by Wilder and executed by last night's brilliant cast, it was an offbeat amorality play that says some true and devastating things about mortals. Combining burlesque with deadly seriousness, it gaily jumbled that thing called time.

George Antrobus and his wife and Sabina (Mary Martin) survive the Ice Age, the flood and the holocaust of war. After the Ice Age George finds himself elected president of the ancient and honorable order of mammals, assembled in convention in Atlantic City.

A transformed Sabina finds herself the blonde winner of a beauty contest. And after flood and war and reconcilation with George, Mrs. Antrobus finds herself steadying George in enduring the Sabina who returns as their maid.

So, if it is necessary to say it, "The Skin of Our Teeth" concerns the indomitable survival of that comically-viewed vertebrate, mankind.

To at least one viewer the play actors, set, direction combined to make "The Skin of Our Teeth" the most mature and enjoyable television program in many months of watching the set. But the greatest accolade goes to NBC for having the grace and gumption to present it.

* * *

With nearly everybody trying so terribly hard to be so terribly "popular" on television these days, it's a pleasure to see an imaginative leadership that recognizes viewers as more than automatons with carefully conditioned reflexes.

Cambodia Elections Show Norodom Wins

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP)—Virtually complete returns from Cambodia's general elections gave former King Norodom Sihanouk an unprecedented shutout victory today.

With only two remote districts unreported, Sihanouk's Popular Socialist rally had won all 89 of the National Assembly seats thus far decided.

The anti-Communist Sihanouk conducted a political-social crusade, asserting that his sole goal was to destroy corruption in high places and help his country's poverty-stricken peasantry.

Dems Scatter After Blast at Farm Handling by GOP

* * *

"A brazen and ruthless betrayal of America's farmers"—that's the way the Democrats described administration agricultural policies in a resolution containing other strong phrases, like "calculated deceit," "callous indifference," "flagrant neglect."

Paul Butler of Indiana, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, said the farm issue promises to be No. 1 in the 1956 presidential campaign.

* * *

At the conference, he disclosed national committee plans to "outhuckster" the Republicans in employment of advertising techniques next year. He said he expected former President Truman to remain on the firing line during the campaign.

* * *

Truman's popularity, he said, has "increased tremendously" since "Eisenhower has been in the White House."

He said that five million dollars will be allocated for radio and TV time in the coming campaign, and that by Oct. 1 a selection will be made from among some 20 advertising concerns to take over the party account.

He detailed other plans in the making, including formation of a half-dozen special advisory committees—each devoted to one field, such as labor and agriculture—to be staffed by full-time, paid directors. All will be functioning by Jan. 1, he said.

* * *

The conferees called in their resolution for an "effective and realistic" farm program, and predicted a "green uprising" at the ballot box that will bring Democrats into office to put it into action.

Among other things, the program should cover these main points, the resolution said:

Restoration of 90 per cent of parity price supports for basic commodities but restricting participation of corporation-type farm enterprises, as distinguished from family units.

Extension of 90 per cent supports to livestock, poultry, milk and other perishables, but with provision for production payments as an alternative.

Mandatory supports for grain sorghums, barley and oats based on their feed value relative to corn.

* * *

Longer-term, lower-cost credit for farmers, giving preference to those to low-income groups.

Fishermen Rescue Plane Crash Victims in Marsh

ALGONAC (AP) — A Detroit pilot and his 21-year-old niece escaped injury yesterday when they crash-landed their two-seater plane on Dickinson's Island in Lake St. Clair.

Robert Hendley, 47, and Gail Burton, 21, also of Detroit, were rescued from three feet of marsh water by fishermen.

Donate Drugs to India

DETROIT (AP)—Parke, Davis & Co. announced Saturday it is donating 19,200 Chloromycetin capsules and 15,000 doses of Dacoquin to four flood-ravaged areas in India. The drugs, given the Indian Red Cross, will be used to combat possible outbreaks of typhoid fever and malaria.

Expect Top Enrollment

Predict Linking of Doctors, TV via Super-Clinic

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A "superclinic of the future"—linking doctors of the world by television—is envisioned today by a New York electronics and TV consultant.

* * *

Dr. Alfred N. Goldsmith said he foresaw the possibility—perhaps "within five to 15 years"—of televising a medical problem, such as symptoms of a rare disease, around the world in a tenth of a second, thus marshaling the talents of many experts for quick advice to the part of the world affected.

He told a reporter this in amplifying on remarks prepared for the opening session of the 20th annual congress of the American and Canadian sections of the International College of Surgeons.

Goldsmith told the doctors:

* * *

"Television symposia provide new means for tying together, by interconnection, widely separated hospitals and thus combining them into the superclinic of the future. The most expert knowledge of each will be available to all."

Goldsmith said TV relay circuits "could be engineered" to carry medical television sessions over any distance on earth.

As an example of how the system would be of aid to doctors, he told a reporter:

"Say you had an outbreak of a rare tropical disease in New Orleans. Doctors could visualize a case of the disease on the world-wide network, explain the symptoms, and perhaps get advice very promptly from an expert in Singapore who was familiar with the malady."

Hal Boyle Says:

He Explores Frontier of Closed-Circuit TV

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—American industry today has more frontiersmen than the old Far West ever knew.

These Davy Crocketts of the business world are pioneers with a new idea or a new product to sell.

* * *

Nate Halpern, who dresses and looks more like Clark Gable than ole rifle-totin' Davy, at 40 is the founder and chief promoter of a new multimillion-dollar offspring of the video industry called big-screen closed-circuit television.

"It's a terribly long name for a basically simple thing," he admitted.

* * *

Halpern, president of Theatre Network Television, Inc., isn't interested in the nonpaying home-viewing TV spectator. He sets up networks over phone lines which enable him to:

* * *

1. Televise to paying theater audiences big sports and special entertainment events too costly for any advertiser to sponsor. Example: The Marciano-Moore fight, which Halpern predicts will draw "the first million-dollar TV box office gate in history."

2. Replace expensive business conventions, which cost some firms up to a million dollars a year.

* * *

It is as a new tool for business communication that Halpern expects closed circuit television to make its greatest success.

"It is estimated that businessmen spend 45 million dollars a year on transportation alone going to conventions, and an additional 216 million for room rentals, meals and entertainment," he observed.

Halpern doesn't expect to destroy the tradition of conventions—"people always need to meet each other face to face"—but in many cases he feels closed circuit TV can do the job better and cheaper, particularly for giant corporations.

* * *

"A convention may take up the time of top executives for days or even weeks," he said. "Over a TV closed circuit, management can get over its messages to all its employes or stockholders in a few hours."

Last June over a TNT network which he set up, Sun Oil Co. executives introduced and demonstrated a new kind of gasoline in a one-hour program to 14,000 dealers gathered in 27 hotel ballrooms, two theaters and one auditorium in 30 cities.

Other closed circuit networks organized by Halpern have enabled him to:

Televise 16 championship fights.

Brief doctors in 40 cities simultaneously in the use of a new drug firm product.

* * *

Demonstrate to salesmen and scattered factory workers a new electronic brain built by the International Business Machines Corp.

* * *

Halpern, who himself is almost as tall as a TV antenna, once bounced basketballs for the University of California.

He went on to Harvard law school, became a Navy ensign, served as a psychological warfare specialist on Gen. Eisenhower's SHAEF staff in Paris.

In 1948 he quit a top job as assistant to Bill Paley, head man at CBS, to gamble on the unexplored field of closed-circuit television. Halpern takes no credit for originating the idea.

* * *

"Theoretical engineers talked of its possibilities as long ago as 1947, he said. "All I did was put the idea into effect."

There are now five or six closed-circuit TV firms in the field, but Halpern, who predicts the industry soon will have a 25-million-dollar annual income, so far has remained dominant.

* * *

Some of his friends regard Nate as something of a renegade from regular commercial TV, but he says:

"We don't hurt either ordinary TV or the movies. We simply give the public and business a new medium they never had before."

Paralyzed Man Weds Childhood Sweetheart, 18

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Carl Metzger, 29, paralyzed two months ago when he broke his neck in a swimming accident, married his 18-year-old sweetheart Marilyn Phelps from his bed in Butterworth Hospital.

Metzger was wheeled into the hospital chapel for the ceremony. A boutonniere was pinned to the white sheet that covered him.

Doctors have told Metzer his injuries may be permanent. He can move only his arms.

Some 30 persons attended the wedding ceremony. Cake and ice cream was served at a small reception. Mrs. Metzger served her husband coffee through a straw.

"Everyone says I'm brave," the bride said. "But I know we can work things out. I'm so happy I don't know what to say."

"I'm getting a wonderful wife," Metzger said. "She has stuck by me. I love her."

Dixon-Yates Figure Frank T. Tobey Dies

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Mayor Frank T. Tobey, 64, died yesterday before he could start a re-election campaign in which his successful plan to halt the Dixon-Yates power plant promised to be an issue.

* * *

His announced opponent, former Mayor S. Watkins Overton, a Dixon-Yates foe, has criticized Tobey's action to build a municipal generating plant rather than accept private power through TVA lines.

Tobey was stricken with a heart attack last Wednesday. He slipped into a coma Saturday and never regained consciousness.

The late boss E. H. Crump backed Tobey, then a city commissioner, for mayor when Overton split with Crump in 1953.

* * *

With Tobey's death, Overton is rated a strong contender. He declined comment on whether he can or will change the city's present power plans if elected.

Lost Detroit Boy Found by Police

Discovered on East Side After City-Wide Search by Volunteers-Army

DETROIT (AP) — Police Saturday found 12-year-old Edward Strisar walking along an east side street. He had been the object of a widespread search since he disappeared Friday afternoon.

The boy was found near a gasoline station in Clinton Township about 10 miles from his home. The attendant at the station called the boy's father, Andrew J. Strisar.

The station is at 16 Mile road and Groesbeck. The boy had been hunted since he disappeared after leaving his home at 4 p. m. Friday for football practice. He failed to show up at the playfield.

Some 125 police and soldiers, aided by scores of neighborhood volunteers, had been combing the area in a search near the boy's home.

Teams of detectives were sent to tour the Michigan State Fair grounds some five miles from the boy's home on the chance he might have hitchhiked there to see the sights.

Neighbor youngsters said Edward liked to "wander around." One report said he had been seen at 7 p. m. on a street a mile from his home.

Some 60 policemen, aided by 25 volunteers from the 99th Anti-Aircraft Artillery Base in the neighborhood, scoured streets and alleys in the area. It is about a mile from where 7-year-old Barbara Gaca was abducted and slain March 24.

Fall and Winter Cottons Use Exciting Fabrics

Versatile fall and winter cottons take a look at the calendar and welcome cold weather with exciting new textures, patterns, colors and fashion silhouettes, reports the National Cotton Council.

For going places—be it college or job—this year's cotton knits rate high in fashion mileage. The knits are styled in charcoal tones, as well as bright colors, harlequin checks and stripes.

For dorm-wear and warm-as-toast sleeping there's a football set in red cotton knit. The cotton knit sweater top and Bermuda shorts in broadcloth are color-coordinated to striped sleeves and socks.

Girl Looks Her Worst so She Snubs Beau

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: We liked each other all summer and were getting along quite well, until he caught me one night looking my worst. I was cutting the grass and was all dirty, had no shoes on and my hair up in pincurls, when he came over with a friend of his.

"I felt so awful that he should see me looking like that. I just said 'hi' and didn't even go out front to see him. I guess I made him feel funny in front of his friend, for he hasn't talked to me since.

"I know I still like him, and I've heard that he still likes me. I see him all the time, but I'm shy and afraid to talk to him first. So please help me."

Answer: You can go on mulling over the night you looked a fright and were rude to him, and the episode can become quite an issue. Or you can take your courage in both hands, and stop him for a chat.

Imagine out loud. Guess that his icicles are due to the way you weren't very cordially welcoming to him that night. Then try to make him see that you were embarrassed to be caught with your shoes off.

That you were shy about meeting his friend. That you didn't have sense enough to call him to come in and wait while you scampered to tidy yourself up.

Tell him frankly that you don't enjoy his icicles. They hurt. And if he knew how sorry you were maybe he'd thaw out.

You owe him an apology and an explanation, so get it over with. And start being friendly when you see him around. It ought to do it.

"Dear Miss Woodward: While on my vacation I met a boy I grew to like very much. He flirted with me all the time so I'm sure he liked me, too. The first day I knew him he asked me for my address, but I didn't give it to him because I was too scared to tell him. He gave me his address, but I wonder if I should write to him? I would like your opinion."

Answer: Frankly, you're not likely to hear from him if he doesn't know where you live. But you have his address, so go ahead and write to 'im, and be sure to put your own address in your letter.

You were being overly cautious when you refused to tell him where you were from on your first meeting. Your street address wasn't necessary, but your home town would have been a subject of conversation.

And before parting to return home, you could have made a point of exchanging addresses without being scared. You knew you liked him, you wanted to hear from him. And now you won't unless you let him know that you'd like to.

Jewelry Shows Individual Taste

Sweaters and skirts, Bermuda shorts or skirts and tailored suits may be all of a kind in a particular town, but jewelry is the opportunity most school girls take to show their initiative and taste.

The jewelry almost all school gals wear is the class ring and a watch. New watch bracelets this fall give an opportunity to dress up a handed-down or overpractical watch.

Bands may also be changed from something practical to something jewel-like for big occasions.

The third basic in the student's jewelry wardrobe is a string of pearls. Year in, year out, these remain right near the top of the list in popularity.

* * *

Pearls change, though. Years ago, the necklaces were thin, slightly long single strings. They then bunched up and in a few years chokers were the form they took.

Baby Fashions Improve

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Even the littlest members of the younger set are fashion conscious nowadays, and coo their approval of the gay, comfortable clothes top designers are turning out for them.

Gone are the days when babies were dressed in cumbersome frilly swaddling clothes. The modern baby has his streamlined sports, sun and play wardrobe just as Mom and Pop do, and gets dressed up in those lacy batistes only for an extra special occasion, such as christening.

Fabrics for baby clothes have gone modern, too, to provide easy laundering for Mom, as well as soil and wrinkle-resistance to keep baby looking spic-and-span longer. You'll find nylon and dacron blends in the new toddler clothes, that wash as easily as a pair of stockings, dry in no time and need little or no ironing.

Colors in these new small-fry fashions are bright and permanent, don't fade or run when washed or exposed to the sun.

It's a great age for babies and also for mothers, when science takes the drudgery out of keeping baby clean.

Sorority Chapter Slates Meeting

Mrs. J. J. Hogan will host the Birmingham chapter of Alpha Xi Delta at her home on Westwood road Sept. 19. Co-hostesses Mrs. L. Benerd and Mrs. F. West of Royal Oak will assist in serving the 7 p.m. dinner. Mrs. Hogan is handling dinner reservations.

Mrs. A. Meacham, delegate to the National Convention this summer, will tell of her experiences at Swampscott, Mass. and will give the latest national reports.

Pearls Ride High

This fall's news note is a happy one for camisole tops of ballet or full-length dresses. Today's pearls ride right on the neck in front, but are tied at the nape with black velvet and hang down in back to below the waist.

A farm-raised mink pelt brings an average price of about $25.

Films Enjoyed at Meeting

Mrs. F. G. Van Horn conducted the meeting of the Standish Group of the First Congregational Church when the group met in the church parlors on Friday evening.

* * *

Mrs. Paul Havens showed the group colored pictures of many of the places in the Holy Land which she and Mr. Havens visited during their recent trip. Speaking of their visit to the tomb of Christ, Mrs. Havens said of their experience, "The Bible lives differently today than it ever has before."

The group was hostess to the Mayflower and Plymouth groups of the church.

Announcement was made of the October meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Howard Losee on North Perry street.

'Luck' Comes to Those Who Work

By ANNE HEYWOOD

The most interseting thing about life is the unexpected things that happen.

* * *

Oddly enough, they hardly ever happen to the person who sits around wishing for a fairy godmother, or a prince on a white charger.

They happen mostly to the woman who is plugging along, doing her day's work. Then, presto! One of those "lucky" breaks.

A GOOD ORGANIZER

Claire learned she could not have any more children and for a while she was unconsolable about it. Eventually, she picked up the pieces of her life and get moving.

She organized her housework to get it done fast and efficiciently and she took excellent care of her little daughter and of her husband.

But there was still spare time. "Time," as Claire put it, "that would have gone to caring for the large family I had hoped to have."

* * *

But Claire decided not to waste the time weeping. Instead, she began making hooked rugs as a hobby. She worked hard.

Using wool, she specialized in small hooked rugs, for bedside use, made up in patterns she designed. The rugs were soft and comfortable to bare feet and the designs were fresh and original.

JUST A HOBBY

"I did them for our house and did several for friends," Claire told me. "I meant to keep it up just as a hobby and was really absorbed in it.

"When our church bazaar came along, I donated two of my rugs. And then the most unexpected thing happened.

"One of the town's leading decorators came to the bazaar, bought my bedside rug and was delighted with it! In fact, she liked it so well that she got in touch with me and asked if I would make them, to order, for houses she is decorating.

"I was really bowled over.

"At first, I honestly thought she was joking, but no, she really thought my designs were delightful. We discussed different color combinations and kinds of wool.

* * *

"Now I have orders from her, at really good fees. While I'm never snowed under, it gives me a nice steady amount of work as well as a steady income.

"I have never in my life had such an unexpected good break!"

Fill Peppers and Simmer in Juice

Mrs. Kilroy Cooks Beef-Stuffed Cases on Top of Stove

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Green peppers are on the market in great abundance these days. Use them often in salads and as stuffed peppers. Mrs. Bruce Kilroy has an unusual way of cooking her peppers in that she simmers them on top of the stove.

Mrs. Kilroy is a contented, busy homemaker, the mother of five youngsters. She loves to bake and to sew. She enjoys a neighborhood club. This year she is helping on the committee of her daughter's Brownie troop.

STUFFED PEPPERS
By Mrs. Bruce Kilroy

1 pound ground beef
1 egg
½ cup washed rice
1 medium onion, diced fine
¼ teaspoon paprika
1½ teaspoons salt
Pepper
4 green peppers, seeded
Tomato juice

Mix together all ingredients except tomato juice. Fill peppers. Place in a pan and cover with tomato juice. Bring to a boil on top of the stove and simmer 1½ hours. Serves 4.

Practical Hints for Buying Raincoat

One of the most necessary pieces of outdoor wear for spring and summer is a raincoat. Other coats may be deep in the mothballs, but the raincoat needs to be ever ready and ever serviceable.

* * *

These practical hints for buying and caring for a raincoat come from a well-known clothing specialist.

Fiber, care, finish and style are important in picking a raincoat, says this expert. The label tells about the first three; eyes about the last one.

There are waterproof and water-repellent coats. The former are for all-weather wear, the latter for rain only.

Water-repellent coats are treated fabric of almost any sort. They won't withstand long exposure to rain. The treatment can be either permanent or nonpermanent.

PERMANENT BETTER

The permanent can withstand repeated dry cleanings; nonpermanent finishes must be added every time the coat is washed or cleaned. Be sure to determine which treatment your coat needs.

Waterproof coats are of sheet plastic or sheet rubber. They resist moisture regardless of how hard it's raining. In picking a coat of this sort be sure the seams are sealed and that rubber or plastic covers the threads used in sewing the seams. Also be sure there's ventilation. Waterproof coats without air holes or vents are too warm for comfort.

From looking and trying on, pick a coat that's large enough to wear over a suit or coat. Close-fitting cuffs keep out rain when carrying packages.

* * *

Fasteners should be secure, durable and extend the full length of the garment. The style should be flattering, in addition to these practical aspects of the coat.

Select a brief case suitable for the profession chosen by the student; keep in mind that there are many sizes to accommodate all types of books and papers. Ginger and suntan are the most popular colors in both leather and plastic.

Dad Straightens Out Son's Thinking

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

The June before last, Rafe brought home barely passing grades from the college term that had cost about $2,500.

* * *

Nobody attacked them. So, a few days later, Rafe attacked them himself. Driving home with his father, he said abruptly, "Dad, I know what a rotten showing I made this term. I want to quit school. I'm not like you. I'm not cut out to grind away at engineering math the way you ground away at law.

"What I'd like is a job in a small garage somewhere. I don't want what you've got. All I want is a roof, one suit of clothes and three squares a day. Honestly, dad . . ."

His father swung the car over to the grass along the road. Then he said quietly, "Rafe, would you be telling me that I'm a great guy, by any chance?"

* * *

After a moment, Rafe, his voice sounding curiously young, said urgently, "Well, you are a great guy, pop. Look what you can do. You can buy a car like this. You had a state court judge to dinner last week. As to mother . . ."

THE BIG YEARS

"Yes—well, women," his father said. "The thing is, you're seeing my big years, son. Has it ever occurred to you that you didn't see my sweating out the little ones?"

* * *

Leaning to turn off the ignition, he asked, "You've heard my stories about the summer I worked as oiler on a lake freighter, haven't you?"

"Sure," said his son enthusiastically.

"I quit college to take that oiler's job," his father said.

"Quit College?" echoed Rafe, stupified. "Walked out, you mean?"

"Yes," his father said. "You see, where a great guy wouldn't have needed rules of a run-down boiler room to discover he preferred college ones, I did. I was still a little guy."

"Gosh," muttered Rafe. "Does mother know what you did?"

"She just remembers I went back to school," his father told him. "For I had a great guy for an old man, too. So when I wrote and asked him for another chance, he said, 'OK.' And he said something else, too."

"What?" Rafe asked. "What, dad?"

* * *

"He said to me," his father told him, "Boy, start taking better care of yourself. It's very easy for the son of a great guy to decide he wants to be a little one. The thing is, you're seeing my big years, son. Don't let them scare you into believing you can't have yours.' "

THANK YOU

With care, Rafe avoided looking at his father. "Cripes," he said, shakily. "Well, what do you know? Thanks, dad. Cripes, I. . .Thanks."

* * *

"It's all right," his father said. "All men have to get straight on this 'what a great guy my dad is' business."

Distressed by Misuse of Words

Friend Asks How to Correct Errors in Girl's Speech

By EMILY POST

"I have a girl friend who constantly uses words incorrectly. I know for a fact that people are beginning to laugh behind her back, and it really distresses me as she is a very nice person and I don't like to see her hurt.

"Should I remain silent and let her go on speaking incorrectly, or should I try to help by correcting her? Will you please tell me how to handle this situation tactfully?"

Answer: The word tactful is the crux of the situation. You will have to go about it very carefully. If you are real friends, and she is certain of your interest in her, just ask her:

"Would you like to have me correct you when you carelessly make a mistake in the use of words?" If she doesn't agree, there is nothing more you can do.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My husband's employer has invited the whole office force out to his country house for a barbecue next week. I would like to know if it would be proper for me to wear a good-looking pair of pedal pushers and a blouse to match at this party or must I wear a dress. I would appreciate hearing from you as I don't want to be unsuitably dressed."

Answer: Wear a dress by all means. The dress cannot possibly be wrong; the pedal pushers can.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it ever proper for a woman to wear a formal evening dress if the man with whom she is dining has no dinner coat and has to wear a business suit?"

Answer: This is a very moot question of the present day when any number of well-born men wearing day clothes are accompanying women in barest evening clothes.

According to longest established etiquette, a gentleman accompanying a lady in evening dress must wear at least a tuxedo but not necessarily tails.

OES Areme Initiates New Club Member

Mrs. Theron Taylor was initiated into the Past Matrons Club of Areme Chapter 503, Order of Eastern Star, when the group began its fall activities at a meeting held in the home of Mrs. Karl Shultz on Clyde avenue.

Plans were made for several projects to be held this year.

Following the business meeting the hostess served refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Harry Vernon.

Her own personal jewel box will be a big help in training the teenager to keep her accessories in order; newest models have special trays and sections for rings, earrings and pins.

Sorority Sets Project Plan at Meeting

Mrs. Elwynn E. Tripp opened her home on Voorheis road Thursday afternoon to officers and committee chairmen of the Omega Mu Sigma Sorority. A program of social, philanthropic and educational projects was set up by the group.

* * *

Officers for the coming club season are Mrs. Elwynn Tripp, president; Mrs. Alfred Summers, vice-president; Lola Strom, recording secretary; Mrs. Donald Nelson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Merill D. Petrie, treasurer; Mrs. Harlan S. Oakes, chaplain; and Mrs. Milo D. McLintock, auditor.

Mrs. Tripp announced her committees at the meeting. Mrs. Leo K. Halfpenny is program chairman; Mrs. Harold Frack will be in charge of the telephone committee assisted by Mrs. Elmer Lea and Mrs. Oakes.

Mrs. Emma Olson is in charge of flowers for the sorority and Mrs. Kuja Kojima will be in charge of the scrapbook. Mrs. Austin D. Esler will handle publicity.

Use an old blanket as a skid, when linoleum is laid, to move the range, refrigerator and other heavy objects back in place without scarring the floor.

A bright stylized floral cotton print is used for this day or party-minded jumper. Gay rickrack trims the garment, which is worn with a tucked blouse.

Smart Pillows Add Color Note

With the aid of pattern's, it's now easy to slipcover standard pillows or make your own from scratch. Designs include giant playing cards, a compass, a clock, daisy, rose, Chinese money, a star and a flanged square.

They're particularly pretty (and practical) in a washable cotton or in a cotton felt. The pattern includes iron-on transfer designs for appliques.

Fellowship Class Holds Meeting at Mahan Home

The Berean Fellowship class of the Oakland avenue Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Quillan Mahan on James K boulevard Friday evening.

Devotions were led by Stanton Levely and Mr. Mahan conducted the business meeting. Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Koch were appointed on the reception committee for the month of September, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Levely and Omar McNutt will be in charge of entertainment.

Mrs. Walter Napersky, Mrs. Lexie Williams, Mrs. Elmer Good, Mrs. Orval Robb and Mrs. Vernon Wait served the refreshments.

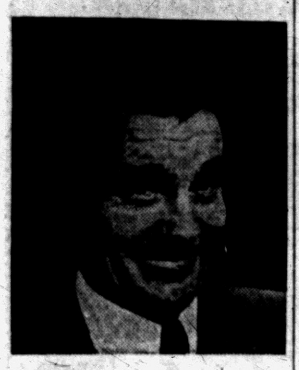
More Kitchen Space

Here's an idea for homemakers who want to make the most of kitchen space: Have an "island" constructed, incorporating your stove and a serving center.

Behind the stove, install a snack bar, seating as many as four persons. This snack bar can have an easily cleaned tile surface in any color that will match the walls and other kitchen work surfaces.

"Sure proud of my Peggy!"



I'm just as proud as a peacock of my Peggy for the efficient way she manages our home. For instance, many of her friends are still knocking themselves out scrubbing wood floors. But not my Peggy! She cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. And I'll be hanged if Peggy's floors aren't the talk of our block. I sure have to hand it to my Peggy and her Bruce Cleaning Wax for making easy work of a tough job. And I love 'em both for it!

P.S. For lighter waxing on linoleum and wood, Peggy uses Bruce Floor Cleaner.

HAVANA — Cuban milk production reached 1.6 billion pounds in 1954, an increase of about 15 per cent from the 1953 total. The production came from just over 1,000,000 cows.

The Case for Juvenile Decency

Two Per Cent of U.S. Youth Are Lawless

(Everyone talks about juvenile delinquency, but there's another side to the story—the millions helped along the straight and narrow road by youth organizations and other groups. This is the first of six articles which takes a closeup look at how successful youth groups work.)

By JACK LOTTO
INS Staff Writer

This is the story of 23,500,000 "forgotten" American boys and girls.

You never hear about them.

They never get in trouble. And they're 98 per cent of the nation's youth.

* * *

The two per cent make the sensational headlines with their lawless actions. The headlines they spawn make it seem all American youth is going wild.

ARE THINGS TERRIBLE?

Are things as terrible as statistics make it seem?

Isn't anything being done to combat juvenile delinquency effectively?

The answer is that a lot is being done — and has been done in a quiet manner.

In city after city where youth boards operate or kids are enrolled in Police Athletic Leagues, Boy Scouts, Boys Clubs, religious groups, community baseball and other projects, there was a drop in delinquency rates.

Children headed for trouble were spotted and helped by agencies which concentrate on the "delinquency prone."

HEAD NURSE — Lieut. Col. Inez Haymes, 46, a Texan, has been named Chief of the Army Nurse Corps to succeed Col. Ruby F. Bryant. She joined the Corps in 1933.

To get the positive side of the picture, International News Service interviewed scores of experts across the country: social welfare officials, juvenile court judges, police authorities, and community leaders.

Different types of programs were put under the microscope to see what makes them tick.

CITIES SURVEYED

The study took in more than 30 cities of all sizes from coast to coast including:

Boston, Cleveland, Indianapolis, Chicago, New Orleans, Dallas, Portland, San Francisco, Louisville, Denver, Pittsburgh, Omaha, Kansas City, Philadelphia, Miami, Seattle, Atlanta, Birmingham, Harrisburg, Oakland.

There are as many different ideas on how to cope with the problem as there are on what causes delinquency.

A PUZZLER

There is, however, one area of general agreement: The combination of causes of juvenile delinquency may vary from case to case.

* * *

One major puzzler is why two almost identical programs in two cities will see one fail while the other succeeds. Some say the supervisors of the program can be a deciding influence. Nobody knows for sure.

Suggestions heard most often are 1) punish the parents, 2) educate the parents, 3) keep the children off the streets at night, 4) provide better homes, schools and recreational facilities.

The bulk of the programs in action in the United States are the recreational type. But, some studies show the delinquent and the potential trouble-maker stay away from such supervised play.

FOUR BASIC IDEAS

According to the Children's Bureau of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, all nationwide programs boil down to four basic ideas:

1. Give children a good place to play and good leadership.
2. Increase neighborhood cohesiveness and sense of responsibility.
3. Identify the "delinquency prone" and help them with psychiatric or social treatment.
4. Redirect the energy and interests of anti-social gangs.

* * *

Eighty-five years ago a group of Salem, Mass., parents sat down together to figure out how to keep their children out of trouble. They decided to build a clubhouse where the kids could play games under watchful eyes of adult leaders.

BOY'S CLUBS START

This idea was the beginning of the first Boys Club in the country. It became such a good weapon against post-Civil War juvenile delinquency, that Boys Clubs sprang up throughout New England, eventually spreading across the country.

Today more than 350 Boys Clubs of America, operating under the slogan of "Juvenile Decency," provide recreational facilities for over half a million boys in crowded city districts.

Relatives Gather in Hong Kong to Await Freeing of 10 Yanks

HONG KONG (AP)—Jubilant relatives began collecting in this British crown colony today to await arrival of 10 American civilians whose quick release has been promised by Red China.

It was not known just when the 10 would cross the border into Hong Kong, but a Peiping radio broadcast indicated they may already be heading for freedom.

When their release was decided, three of the Americans were believed to be in Peiping, three in Foochow, two in Canton, one in Chunking and one in Shanghai. Since all were expected to cross the border together, they would have to meet at some assembly point—probably Canton—for the train trip to Hong Kong.

Mrs. Sue Buol, who arrived here from Taipei, said she "had not been able to sleep a wink" since hearing that her husband Lawrence was among the 10.

REACHES DEAD END

She said she had been busy since she got here checking "every possible avenue" for the date and time of her husband's arrival but she had "not been able to find out a darn thing."

Mildred Lovegren, daughter of the Rev. Levi O. Lovegren, said she was "all aglow" when she received a telegram yesterday from her father datelined Chungking, which read, "Expect me very soon."

Lovegren's wife also was awaiting his arrival. She and Mildred have lived in Hong Kong for the past three years, doing missionary work among refugees. Other relatives waited back in the States for the prisoners to return.

In Yonkers, N.Y., Mrs. Adele Austin Rickett, herself a prisoner in Red China for three years, expressed happiness that her husband Walter is among the 10. She said she recently had a "long letter" rom her husband and that he "seemed fine."

ATTITUDE UNCHANGED

The 35-year-old graduate student, who praised the Reds when she was freed last February and was described by U. S. officials as "thoroughly brainwashed," said, "I made the comments then and still have the same feeling."

Negotiations at Geneva between representatives of the United States and Red China involved about 41 Americans in all.

The Chinese first announced that 12 Americans against whom no formal charges had been placed were free to leave when they chose. Then they announced that 10 others in prison or under house arrest would be let go in a few days.

A joint U. S.-Red Chinese announcement said machinery had been established so the other 19 could "expeditiously exercise their right" to go home. A source in Geneva said the Communists had declared their willingness to release all the American civilians "in due course."

The Communists' official New China News Agency said today he decision to release the 10 was made in consideration of their offenses and their "fairly good" behavior while in prison.

It gave this report on some of the cases:

OFFENSES' DESCRIBED

The Rev. Harold W. Rigney, 54, dean of the Catholic Fu Jen University in Peiping when arrested in July 1951: "Sentenced to a term of 10 years in prison for bribing Chinese government personnel, spying on Red China's state security and collecting extensive intelligence of a military, political and economic nature in China."

Brickett, 34, a Fulbright scholar from Seattle: "Six years for collecting Chinese military and political intelligence."

The Rev. Mr. Lovegren, 67, of Seattle, Wash., Baptist missionary in Chungking when arrested in 1950: "Guilty of collecting intelligence in the Sikang area and conducting espionage." Sentenced to five years.

Buol, 34, of Stockton, Calif., operations officer for the American-owned Civil Air Transport when he was seized at the Mengtze airtrip, 140 miles south of Kunming in Yunan province in January 1950: 'Sentenced to expulsion from China for intruding into China on board an aircraft to conduct military espionage."

COTTON MAN PRISONER

Dilmus T. Kanady, a Houston, Tex., cotton man who was jailed by the Reds in October 1950: "Sentenced to 4½ years imprisonment and immediate explusion from China for hiding arms, forging financial accounts in an attempt to evade taxes, and making black market foreign exchange transactions with American bank notes."

Miss Dorothy Middleton, 42, formerly of Cicero, Ill., adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hines of Lakeland, Fla., a Presbyterian missionary at a leper colony when arrested in February 1951: "Sentenced to expulsion from China for conducting sabotage."

If Ike Feels Fit, He'll Run

Odds Favor Eisenhower as GOP Candidate

DENVER (AP)—Republican strategists said today President Eisenhower's own evaluation of his health next spring may determine largely whether he runs for a second term.

The President's precedent-setting conference here over the weekend with the Republican chairmen of 48 states, the District of Columbia and Hawaii left technically unanswered the $64,000 question of whether he will run again next year.

But many of those who attended reached this conclusion:

If the President feels next spring that he can take on four more years in the White House without danger of physical incapacitation, he will be a candidate.

Republicans who talked with Eisenhower spoke of his outward physical fitness and reported his "bubbling enthusiasm" about Republican party prospects next year. They said they think the odds are heavy that he will run again.

George Kinnear, Washington state chairman, put it succinctly when he said in an interview he believes Eisenhower wants to determine for himself several months from now whether his physical stamina is such that he can withstand another four years of the kind of strain to which he has been subjected.

* * *

"The mere fact that he is keeping himself in tiptop shape supports the theory that he would like to run again to carry out his program," Kinnear said.

Ray Bliss, Ohio state chairman, said he thinks while Eisenhower's appraisal of his health is a major factor, he agrees with GOP strategists who think it is too early for the President to say what he intends to do in 1956.

Eisenhower wasn't of much help in his weekend conference with the state chairmen. He spoke about the philosophy of the Republican party but when he got down to the second term question he was so elusive nobody was sure just what he meant.

* * *

He said he likes the GOP "more than ever." But he said it is not and should not become—as even the most ardent party leader now concedes privately—"dependent on one man."

He said that "humans are frail—and they are mortal." For this reason, he said the party members should never "pin your flag so tightly to one mast that if a ship sinks you cannot rip it off and nail it to another."

Army to Storm Wilson's Retreat

Task Force Will Present Case Against Proposed Military Budget Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army, like the Air Force and Navy before it, is sending a mission to Michigan this week to tell Secretary of Defense Wilson why it shouldn't be hit by the administration economy hatchet.

* * *

Secretary of the Army Wilber M. Brucker, former governor of Michigan, and his No. 1 military officer and Army chief of staff, Gen. Maxwell Taylor, are to arrive in Detroit Tuesday on the way home from a brief Western inspection trip.

There they will see the vacationing Wilson, and probably be joined also by Deputy Secretary of Defense Reuben B. Robertson.

Secretary of the Navy Charles Thomas and Secretary of Air Donald Quarles have held similar meetings with Wilson, as the result of service worry over persistent reports that further spending cuts in the present fiscal year may be insisted upon.

* * *

Robertson, pressed by questions and harried by criticism from Democratic quarters on Capitol Hill, put out a formal statement that Pentagon spending during the year ending next June 30 is "still expected to be approximately 34 billion dollars as originally estimated" last January.

* * *

Robertson issued the statement to counter widespread reports that defense spending might be cut to 33 billions to help the Eisenhower administration wipe out a budget deficit by the end of the fiscal year. Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey has done nothing to discourage the belief that he is pressing all government departments, with emphasis on the Defense Department, to help wipe out the estimated $1,700,000,000 deficit.

The Pentagon fiscal chiefs say there have been no "instructions" to cut back further, but that there have been "continuing instructions to find better ways of doing things and more economical ways of doing things."

'Friendly' Chinese Seek U.N. Seat

WASHINGTON —Signs of more friendly behavior on the part of the Chinese Communists will increase pressure in the United Nations to give Red China a seat, diplomatic experts predicted today.

* * *

American and British officials are confident that a showdown on the issue, on which Washington and London are basically divided, can be avoided again this year in the U.N. General Assembly meeting which opens next week.

But even the most optimistic have grave doubts that the problem can be put off again next year if the Chinese continue to improve their relations with other countries.

The latest step was their agreement announced at Geneva to let all American civilians still held in Red China, including those in prison, come home. There was a parallel, face saving assurance that Chinese in this country who wish to do so could go to Red China. They have actually been free for months to go to Red China, and many have done so.

* * *

The United States also agreed that the Indian Embassy could give assistance to any Chinese who did not feel he could get a fair deal by contacting United States government authorities directly. Similarly, Red China agreed that the British Embassy could assist Americans behind the Bamboo Curtain.

The State Department said it was "delighted that all the American civilians in China are going to be permitted to leave," and said there are "no hidden meanings . . . no side understandings" in the agreement.

Press Officer Henry Suydam said, "We expect it to be done. We have no reason to doubt that it will be done."

The Geneva talks which produced the decisions on release of civilians are due to enter their second phase this week. By previous agreement almost any issue of common interest to Peiping and Washington may be raised by either U.S. Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson or China's Wang Ping-nan.

* * *

Johnson is expected to press for information on almost 500 American soldiers who disappeared during the Korean War and some of whom may still be alive in Chinese prisons.

But the Peiping radio said only yesterday that this idea "has been proved by facts to be pure fabrication."

* * *

Other issues which may be brought up include Korea, Formosa, the possibility of a general international conference on the Far East, and Secretary of State Dulles' request for a declaration from the Red Chinese government renouncing the use of force.

Discussion of these issues may go on for months. They will provide a further testing of Red China's policies. They will also afford opportunities for Red China to create a more favorable world public opinion.

Actress Claims Natural Childbirth Offers Many Advantages for Mother

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Hollywood glamour gals, noted for their pampered way of life, have switched to one of the most primitive feats of womankind—natural childbirth.

Jan Sterling, latest devotee of this age-old phenomenon, says movie dolls as well as Chinese women working the rice fields, have discovered the advantages of having their children naturally—"as God intended."

The actress, who expects her first child some time this month, thinks that children born in this manner—without benefit of anesthetics and drugs—have a better chance for a healthy life.

"I'm convinced that any normal woman can have a child this way," Jan insisted. "The reason many of them don't is because they fear pain. But three-fourths of the pain is only fear and if a woman is emotionally prepared for childbirth there is no need to be afraid."

OLD WIVES' TALES

Jan, who is married to Actor Paul Douglas, blamed old wives' tales for much of the anxiety existing in the minds of modern women.

"Now knowing exactly what is going to happen to you and having your mother tell you about the so-called agonies of childbirth doesn't help things one bit," she complained.

"Most of these stories are completely untrue. When my baby is born I want to know exactly what is happening. It should be the greatest thrill of a woman's lifetime," she added.

HOSPITAL ASSEMBLY LINE

"It's just like an assembly-line," she declared. "And you can't even see your baby until the notion strikes some nurse and she condescends to bring the child into the room.

"I expect to have my baby at home — all a part of the natural childbirth procedure."

The pretty, blonde actress also pointed out a slight difference in cost.

"One Hollywood doctor said he'd deliver my baby for $2,000 and I know another one who quoted a $5,000 fee to one of my friends. You know how much my doctor is charging: — $300!

* * *

Jan also has figured out a wonderful cover-up for the expectant mama — an Indian sari that drapes gracefully from shoulder to heel.

"It's so much more stylish," she insisted, "than those horrible maternity clothes."

Bob Considine Says:

Stassen Sees Harriman, Williams on Ticket

NEW YORK (INS)—Harold Stassen, joining in the nation's foremost gessing game, says that the 1956 Republican ticket of Eisenhower and Nixon will be opposed by a Democratic team made up of Gov. Averell Harriman of New York and Gov. G. Mennen "Soapy" Williams of Michigan.

If so, it might be the most soft-spoken campaign in our history. Eisenhower absolutely refuses to indulge in personality wars. Harriman has a horror of name calling. They have been very close friends in the past. Harriman's mansion in Washington featured a bronze bust of the general and an early Eisenhower water color. Truman would have to make all the noise.

Stassen's selection of Eisenhower seems to be part of a determined campaign to make up the President's mind about running. Behind that campaign is the GOP's complete dependence on Ike as a standard-bearer. He is to Republicans as much the indispensible man as F.D.R. was to the Democrats. No hot young Republican politicians appear to be coming up from the minors any Democrats challenging Roosevelt. more than there were young

Curiously, the last two Presidents the Republicans have elected were strangers to the political ring—Hoover and Eisenhower. Each toyed with the notion of running as a Democrat; each was offered strong Democratic backing. Hoover could have had the Democratic nomination of 1924 which went to John W. Davis. As for Ike, he was approached by no less a personage than President Truman, who, at Potsdam, offered to support him for President in 1948.

Clothes make propaganda, too. The Robert Hall people, a subsidiary of United Merchants and Manufacturers, Inc., will present an exhibit at the Berlin Industries Fair this month demonstrating how the American free enterprise system enables the U.S. working man to clothe his entire family for an entire season with money earned in three work weeks. The fair is sponsored by the Department of Commerce and the U.S. Information Agency.

By the latter part of next year track, hitting an intersection and passing through a town. A big and important link in the superhighway chain will be forged Oct. 1 when the 241-mile Ohio turnpike is formerly opened.

The new turnpike will have playgrounds and picnic areas which will provide travelers with a welcome breather when the full NY-to-Chi hookup is made. Estimated safe running time: 16 hours.

Small girl-type child of ours named Debbie has given up on 1955. She showed unusual interest in the first few hurricanes of the season. By the time hurricane Connie blew itself out she was beside herself.

"What are they going to call the next one comes?" Debbie asked excitedly.

"Diane," I said.

Fund Official Denies Charge

Head of Legion Claims Project for Republic Threatens Security

WASHINGTON (AP)—A charge that the Fund for the Republic threatens natinal security has been met with a reply that the fund "is dedicated to the principles of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution."

* * *

The charge was made yesterday by Seaborn P. Collins, national commander of the American Legion, who called on three million Legionnaires to "have no truck" with activities sponsored by the fund. Collins said "it appears that the Fund for the Republic . . . is threatening and may succeed in cripping the national security."

In New York, Dr. Robert M. Hutchins, head of the fund and onetime president of the University of Chicago, retorted:

* * *

"It is too bad that Mr. Collins had not bothered to try to find out the purposes and activities of the fund before he attacked it.

"The fund is dedicated to the principles of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution."

* * *

Collins said the fund has carried on "constant, loaded criticism of congressional and administration efforts to resist Communist infiltration." He said this "propaganda is considered by the American Legion to be as dangerous as it is untrue . . ."

Ex-Governor of Arizona to Address State GOP

LANSING (AP)—Howard G. Pyle, former governor of Arizona and special assistant to President Eisenhower, will speak at the opening session of the Michigan Republican Conference Sept. 17-18 on Mackinac Island.

Conference Chairman John B. Martin of Grand Rapids said Pyle is expected to bring a special message to the conference from the President.

Tito to Visit France

PARIS (AP)—President Tito of Yugoslavia will make an official visit to France soon, French Foreign Ministry officials report. No date has been fixed. United Nations and Big Four meetings will keep Premier Edgar Faure and Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay busy until November, the officials said, so it is unlikely that Tito will come before then.

The Mississippi, Missouri and Rio Grande, in that order, are the three longest rivers in the United States.

Make-Believe Squad Car Frightens Away Robber

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP)—A young gunman walked into Western Union's downtown office last night and said:

Night clerk Mrs. Grace E. Cline glanced toward a window and said: "A police car just pulled up."

The gunman departed.

There was no police car outside but the gunman didn't come back.

Landing Strip Sinking

TOKYO (AP)—The main landing strip at Tokyo International Airport, laid over a filled-in river bed, today was reported sinking under the pounding of transocean Super-Constellations and Stratocruisers. An official said it had dropped 55 inches and still was sinking four inches a year. An estimated $27,780 is needed for repairs.

Peak Climb Approved

KATMANDU, Nepal (AP)—Nepal has granted permission to attempt to climb Lhotse, second highest peak of the Everest group, to an international expedition headed by Norman Dyrenfurth. The team originally planned to climb the Gyan Chung Koan peak, but were balked because the route to it goes through part of Red China.

Says Death Pact Was Ordered

Reports Extortionists Threatened to Murder Suspected Arsonists

STREATOR, Ill. (AP) — LaSalle County State's Atty. Harlan Warren today said investigators had been "unable to verify" an Illinois woman's story that extortionists drove her and her husband to form a suicide pact.

* * *

Mrs. Ruth Craine, 49, of Geneva, Ill., told Warren her story yesterday after her husband Leon, 52, had been found dead Saturday night in their car parked near Streator.

She told Warren she and her husband planned to die by piping exhaust fumes into the car. She said she lost consciousness when the carbon monoxide fumes poured into the car but awoke a few hours later to find the motor had stopped running. Her husband was dead.

A coroner's jury held Craine's death was due to natural causes. A pathologist testified Craine died of a heart ailment. He said no traces of carbon monoxide were found.

Warren said Mrs. Craine told of being threatened by unknown persons after she and her husband were charged with arson following a fire at their restaurant near Kewanna, Ind.

* * *

Mrs. Craine told Warren three men she did not know ordered the couple Sept. 5 to raise $15,000 or die. He said Mrs. Craine told him they were to deliver the money at Starved Rock State Park last night, but that she was unable to give the exact location of the rendezvous within the park.

Warren said Mrs. Craine was released yesterday without charge and returned to Geneva, where she and her husband had been living with Craine's sister.

The extortion plot was described by Mrs. Craine as being due to demands of "the syndicate" to recover the cost of pinball machines lost in the fire. She said the extortionists promised the arson case "would be fixed" if the money was raised.

* * *

She said she and her husband had been free on $2,500 bond each awaiting trial in October on the arson charges. The charges were brought by a fire marshal. The restaurant burned last July.

Love Birds Cause Havoc

CAPISTRANO BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Two linnets smooching on a power line shut down pumps at the San Juan Water Co. Fuses were replaced and the pumps started in about an hour.

Mao Changes China Timetable

Says 50 Years Needed to Put Economy on Par With U.S., Britain

LONDON (AP)—Mao Tze-tung has changed his timetable for building up Red China's industries. The Chinese Communist chieftain is telling his people 50 years will be needed to put the nation's economy on a level with Britain or the United States.

According to official statements, Mao now figures he will need about 15 years to squeeze out private businessmen and independent farmers. Then Red China's economy will fall into the pattern laid down by Russian communism.

The congress papers revealed that Peiping is paying heavily for the goods coming from Russia. Food badly needed at home, plus other agricultural and mineral products, is going to Eastern Europe in exchange for these industrial tools.

Earlier the Chinese Reds had given the impression that a lot of Russian capital goods was coming to them free. Now it is disclosed that Russia's free aid is confined largely to the loan of designers and other experts to help in the construction of 156 major industrial projects.

This could be one of the reasons why Mao has adopted a more conciliatory tone toward the United States in recent weeks. With Russian aid limited, Peiping may hope for a lifting of the Western embargo on the sale to Red China of strategic goods such as heavy generators and machine tools.

But Western experts think that even an easing of the embargo will do little to help the Chinese Reds. They doubt Peiping has the goods or the gold to pay for big scale imports from the West.

Plan Future Tarzan Film Deep in 'Wilds' of Africa

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (IND) — After a good look at "Tarzan and the Last Safari," shot in Africa, Sol Lesser isn't going to be satisfied with anything but the real McCoy from now on.

* * *

He has decided to make the next of his series, "Tarzan and the White Chimpanzee" in the Kruger National Park near Johannesburg, South Africa, which abounds with wild life and which many tourists travel far to see. He's already obtained permission for Gordon Scott to work there and it will be the first time a film company has been granted this right.

Lions, Elephants, Chimpanzees roam around at will past tourists in parked cars gawking at the animals. The beasts of the jungle seem bored with the whole thing and pay no attention. But it might be a different story if one of them saw a good meal moving out of a car!

Very palsy-walsy these days are Doris Day and June Allyson, who spent about a week together at Coronado Beach with their husbands, Marty Melcher and Dick Powell. The two girls worked on their golf lessons and tried hard to protect their game so they could play with the boys.

Doris has said she won't make another picture until January. She has "Love Me or Leave Me" out, and she feels it's important for her to have a rest. Probably her best picture to date is "Love Me or Leave Me," which could win her an Academy nomination.

Now he tells me he is going to New York for the opening of "Guys and Dolls" on November 2, then to Chicago, then to Boston, and then back to the coast. So he and Frances will be present at all the gala events.

"And then," says Sam, "I'm going to take a rest. I'm going to spend two months in the new home we bought in Palm Springs, then Frances and I are going around the world. We're going to the Orient, India, Europe and the middle East. Why don't you do like I do and rest, Louella?"

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: The Alan Hale Jr's have a new son. That makes three boys and a girl.

Just before Susan Hayward took off for Honolulu with her twins, she had dinner with Don "Red" Barry at Holiday House. She's been seen quite a lot with him lately, but Susie has had so much trouble with the opposite sex that I don't look to see her get involved again.

READIN' 'N' WRITIN' 'N' 'RITHMETIC—1

A Trip to Robinson Crusoe's Island

Things are different now. We have books from which to learn.

Once there were no printed books. Stories were told by men with good memories. The children who heard the stories told them, in turn, when they grew up. These stories became what we call legends.

In the books we have today you can travel all over the world, climb Mt. Everest, take part in great events in history, go on voyages with figures in fiction, like Robinson Crusoe.

The printed word — in books, magazines and newspapers — can teach you how to make things and how to decide upon a career and keep you in touch with the news of the world.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Yankees, Not Tribe, Now Choking Up in Clutches

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Time was when the Cleveland Indians took the rap for choking up in the pennant drive. But no more. Now it's the New York Yankees, the club with a reputation for winning the big ones, who find it tough to stay loose.

* * *

The Indians, winning 11 of their last 14, were held to just four hits by southpaw Tommy Byrne in a 6-1 first-game defeat at New York yesterday, but they rebounded to come from behind and win 3-2 in the pivotal nightcap.

* * *

A loss of the twin bill would have dropped the Indians from first place in the American League race. Instead, they can sit back and rest while the Al; takes a day off today, holding a 1½-game lead with 11 to play. Second-place New York has 12.

Bobby Avila, with eight hits in his last 14 at bats, and reliefer Don Mossi kept the Tribe alive in the second game. But in the end, it was a wild pitch by Whitey Ford, New York's ace, that let the clinching run score.

* * *

It was the second game in two days the Yanks let slip away. Saturday, they blew a 6-1 lead and lost to Chicago 9-8 in 10 innings.

The victory gave Cleveland the season series with the Yanks 13-9. It's the first time since 1945 the Tribe has whipped New York over the year, although they split even in the 22 games while snapping the Yanks' five-year pennant reign last season. It is also the first time since Casey Stengel, who became manager of the Yankees in 1949, has lost a season series.

* * *

The doubleheader split also left Cleveland 3½ games up on third-place Chicago, which divided a pair at Boston. The White Sox won the second 7-2. Boston, six games back, took the opener 6-2.

Avila, hitting .272 after winning the '54 batting title, had four hits in the doubleheader and walloped his second homer of the day to tie it at 2-all in the eighth inning of the nightcap. Until then, Ford, 17-7 had a three-hitter.

* * *

Mossi, in relief of rookie Herb Score, scattered three hits over the last three innings for a 4-3 record. Evers pulled him out of his only possible jam, making a diving catch of Elston Howard's liner for the final out with the potential tying run on base.

Score, giving four hits and both Yank runs, struck out six before giving way to a pinch hitter in the seventh. That upped his strikeout total to 226—one short of the rookie mark set by Grover Cleveland Alexander in 1911.

* * *

Byrne was great as he won his 15th in the opener fanning five and walking only two. Yogi Berra knocked in three runs and Joe Collins swatted an inside-the-park homer off loser Early Wynn. Avila had two of the hits off the 35-year-old lefty—a home run and a single.

The White Sox hung on as Connie Johnson and Millard (Dixie) Howell, although rapped for 11 hits, tightened in the clutch and left 15 Bosox stranded. Frank Sullivan won his 18th in the first game with a five-hitter while Norm Zauchin drove in three runs as Boston racked up Bob Keegan.

* * *

In the National, Cincinnati's Johnny Klippstein one-hit Brooklyn's champs. Pee Wee Reese blooped a single with one out in the ninth for the spoiler as the Redlegs won the first game of a twin bill 9-0, then made it a sweep with a 5-3 decision. Ted Kluszewski hammered his 45th homer in the opener.

NATIONAL TENNIS CHAMPION — Tony Trabert and his wife, Shauna, hold trophy symbolic of men's singles title after he defeated Australia's Ken Rosewall in National Tennis Championships. Tony, from Cincinnati, won in straight sets, 9-7, 6-3, 6-3. He completed a tennis "triple slam" with his victory. Earlier this year he captured the Wimbledon and French championships.

Senators' Jinx Doesn't Faze Cleveland Club

Tribe in Washington Today, Sitting in AL's Driver's Seat

NEW YORK (AP) — The league-leading Cleveland Indians were in Washington today, sitting squarely in the driver's seat and not even the sight of their season-long jinx team could scare Manager Al Lopez and his band of happy warriors.

* * *

Although no one would dare say so publicly, the Cleveland players feel the American League flag is as good as theirs now—barring an unforeseen collapse. And that's the furthest thing from their minds.

* * *

They have only 11 games left, none with the Yankees, who now have to depend upon others to beat Cleveland for them. The Yanks failed to do it themselves yesterday, losing the second game 3-2 after winning the opener 6-1.

The second-game loss was the bitterest blow of the year suffered by Yankee Manager Casey Stengel. He was a picture of gloom as he sat in his office next to the players' dressing room.

* * *

"You can't win a pennant by splitting four games with your two toughest rivals," he growled, referring to the last two series against Chicago and Cleveland. "How can you expect to win a championship if you can't get a winning streak?"

* * *

There was a different air in the Indians' clubhouse.

"We just want to go the way we are and stay the way we are," said Lopez smilingly. "We're in good shape now.

* * *

"I figured on a split in New York although I was hoping for two. Had we won both, we'd be in real good shape instead of just good. If we get by Washington, we ought to be in excellent position, athough it won't be a cinch. I still think it will be real tough all the way."

Bengals Split Twin Bill; Meet Yanks Tuesday in NY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Detroit Tigers leave Washington today carrying a 17-5 season record over the Senators.

Rookie Ted Abernathy won the 2nd game, 1-0, when Mickey Vernon singled him home with two out and the bases loaded in the 9th. It was Frank Lary's 14th defeat in 27 starts.

Hoeft's teammates pounded Johnny Schmitz for four runs on as many hits in the 2nd inning. Harry Malmberg drove in two with a single and Harvey Kuenn accounted for the other two.

Doubles by Al Kaline and Ray Boone and a single by Red Wilson brought in two more runs in the 3rd.

Detroit's last two tallies came in the 8th. Malmberg's sacrifice fly brought in Fred Hatfield, running for Boone, and Kuenn forced Hoeft, who had singled, to bring in Phillips with the last run of the game.

It was Washington's 14th hit.

UM Picked Second to UCLA

This is the first in a series of INS stories on collegiate football prospects for the year, featuring the opinions of a group of well known observers of the gridiron.

NEW YORK (INS)—UCLA helps launch the 1955 college football season Friday night and before it's over, the Bruins are expected to be sitting high and mighty atop the national rankings.

Coach Red Sander's single wing machine, which debuts against Texas A. and M., not only is expected to win the Pacific Coast Conference title for the third year running but is picked by International News Service to defeat Michigan in the Rose Bowl and make off with the mythical national championship.

UCLA was prohibited by conference rules from repeating in the Tournament of Roses last year and polled second in the final roll call to Rose Bowl champion Ohio State, which also had a regular season's record of 9-0.

The rest of the elite, in ascending order, includes: 3. Oklahoma; 4. Maryland; 5. Southern Methodist; 6. Ohio State; 7. Southern California; 8. Georgia Tech; 9. Auburn, and 10. Navy.

Making up the INS board of authorities are East-West Shrine Game coaches and talent scouts Bernie Bierman of Minnesota and Andy Kerr, former Colgate coach and long-time member of the NCAA rules committee; Francis J. Powers, veteran football writer and also an East-West scout; John Barrington, INS sports editor; INS reporter-columnist Bob Considine, and sportscaster Harry Wismer.

The panel awarded Michigan, the new standard-bearer of the Big Ten conference, more first place votes than UCLA but ranked the Bruins no lower than fourth on any ballot.

Jess Hill's seventh-ranked Southern Cal squad will provide the Uclans with their stiffest resistance on the coast. The Trojans are improved but so is UCLA, which is so deep in backfield talent that surplus backs are being converted to linemen. Fullback Bob Davenport will sparkplug the power-laden Bruin attack. Ronnie Knox appears to be one of Sanders' better passing tailbacks.

Last season's national champion and this year's No. 6 team Ohio State will find it tough replacing quarterback Dave Leggett and such standouts as Hubert Bobo, Dean Dugger and Bobby Watkins. Halfback Howard Cassady, who with Navy end Ron Beagle represent the only two returning INS All-Americans, won't be enough to offset the manpower loss.

Michigan, on the other hand, has 20 of the 25 players who almost beat the Buckeyes in last season's "climax game," plus more speed. Bennie Oosterbaan is blessed with the return of end Ron Kramer, wingback Tony Brannoff and Quarterback Lou Baldacci.

Muskegon Looms as 1955 Leader in SW Prep Loop

MUSKEGON (AP) — The cozy three-team southwestern Michigan Football Conference quite likely will have a new winner this fall.

Benton Harbor won in 1953, Muskegon Heights last year and now it appears to be Muskegon's turn to win the Bennie G. Oosterbaan trophy.

Muskegon's Big Reds, although experiencing their worst season since 1920 last year, winning three of nine games, appear to have most of the balance this year.

Coach Harry Potter lost only four regulars by graduation and has an outstanding crop of juniors this season. Those who would get most of the mention this season are backs Jim Kuzyk and Jim Saylor, end Paul Tyler and center Ron Scott. Potter has 10 lettermen back.

Coach Oscar E. Johnson of Muskegon Heights, starting his 29th season at the Tiger helm, is faced with the problem of virtually rebuilding his line from the team which won the title last year on the strength of five extra points by fullback Ted Halasinski.

Halasinski will be back as well as reguars Bob Slezak at quarterback and Joe Christie at halfback. Tackles Fred Hilliard and Jack Snider provide the Heights with a line nucleus but the building program starts there.

For the 1st time in years the Harbor Tigers will be without a power runner like Nate Clark or Don Arend.

Boudreau Signs for Next Year

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Lou Boudreau, who has skippered the reformed Philadelphia Athletics to sixth place in their first season at Kansas City, had another year's contract in his pocket today.

Salary terms, as is customary, were not disclosed, but Arnold Johnson, owner of the Kansas City American League club, said Boudreau deserved "a great deal of credit for what has been accomplished."

The A's also announced Saturday the purchase of pitcher Lou Kretlow and catcher Joe Ginsberg from Seattle in the Pacific Coast League "for a considerable amount of cash" and three players, to be named at a later date.

Southeastern Football Has Champs Galore

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Seers who like nothing better than climbing out on a limber limb have found a paradise this year in the Southeastern Conference football forest.

There is a potential champion hiding behind practically every tree, and the woods are full of darkhorses. For the past two seasons, at least half of the 12 SEC teams went into their season-ending games with a chance to win or tie for the championship. No change in that routine is foreseen for 1955.

The "Big Four" in pre-season rankings are Georgia Tech, Auburn, Mississippi and Kentucky, with Florida and Georgia close behind. But there is a noticeable lack of agreement on just which one of these will grab first prize in the championship derby.

* * *

Alabama and Tennessee, once Dixie's football giants, are rebuilding under new coaches, J. B. (Ears) Whitworth at 'Bama and Bowden Wyatt. They should be better than last year, but not quite good enough. Mississippi State could finish in the first division. Louisiana State, under new Coach Paul Dietzel, Vanderbilt and Tulane aren't serious title contenders, but neither will they be pushovers.

SEC coaches agree the conference is perhaps better balanced than ever before and that most squads can point to improvements. Likewise, they agree that it is highly doubtful that any SEC team will finish the season with a perfect record. All six teams picked for the first division play at least two of the other top-notchers.

* * *

Slyvan Glen Player Fires Net 66, Sunday, at Highland CC

Sylvan Glen's Jack Gregory Sunday afternoon captured top honors in the final links event sponsored this season by the Metropolitan Golf Associatioin. Gregory hit a gross 68 over the rolling Highland Country Club's layout, which gave him a net 66, with his two stroke handicap.

Sunday's 18-hole handicap test was the 4th MPGA sponsored tourney of the season.

Only two strokes back were Roy Cullenbine, the former Detroit Tiger baseball player, who had 71-3—68, and John Lock with 72-4—61. Cullenbine plays out of Maple Lane club and Lock represented Hillcrest.

They included Roy Iceberg of Pontiac (Edgewood), with 71-2—69; Sam Lima of Sunnybrook, with 72-3—69, and George Greenhalgh of Redford, with 74-5—69.

Other flight leaders were:

Third—James Slattery, 95-29—66; Sam Laine (one-armed player) with 80-13—67.

Lenk Wins 1st Running of Manhattan Marathon

NEW YORK, N.Y. (AP)—Ray Lenk, a 29-year-old factory foreman from Detroit, won the inaugural running of the Manhattan Outboard Marathon yesterday, a rugged test that found less than half the starting fleet completing the course.

Lenk, one of the country's leading drivers, completed the course in just over an hour and a half at an average speed of 36.8 miles-per-hour. His victory margin was 7½ minutes over Lester Kahn of New York. Lenk's triumph brought him a cash award and two big trophies.

Title Annexed, Trabert Ready for Pro Offers

Ken Rosewall Defeated in Straight Sets at Forest Hills Play

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—Tony Trabert took his seat in the throne room of amateur tennis today, and no sooner did he get his crown adjusted than he began thinking of giving it all up.

"I'm waiting to hear professional offers," said the new king. "But right now I can say truthfully I haven't had any. I think the promoters were waiting to see how I did in the National Championship before they decided whether I'd be worth it."

Trabert, a crew-cut, power-hitting Cincinnatian, won the title for the second time in three years yesterday, beating Australia's Ken Rosewall decisively in the final 9-7, 6-3, 6-3. Just like Wimbledon, Trabert went through the entire tournament without losing a set.

* * *

"It doesn't make any difference to me who I play for—if I decide to turn pro," he said. "I'd play for the promoter who gives me the best offer."

Trabert is committed to the Pacific Southwest Championships in Los Angeles next week, so it wouldn't be prudent for him to announce publicly he's turning pro at least until then.

"I have a good job with Bill Talbert's securities company," said Trabert, "and I'd have to weigh things very carefully. For example, if I turned pro, I'd have to find out if the company would keep me. Also, I'd have to determine if I'd make more money in the long run as a pro or sticking with the company."

That didn't discourage Jack Kramer, who has a bundle of cash to dole out.

"Tony's hot and I'm going to make him an offer," gushed the former American champion turned entrepreneur. "Of course, I'd like to get Rosewall and Lew Hoad with him. But in any event, I'm going to try to get Tony. I'll make him a percentage offer. A great champion can do better that way than on a flat agreement. I may even make a comeback myself."

As for the match with Rosewall, it wasn't much of a contest. Ken looked like a babe in the woods.

* * *

Doris Hart of Cora Gables, Fla., defended her women's title successfully when she whipped England's Pat Ward in the final 6-4, 6-2. Miss Ward was the first foreign girl in the final since Anita Lizana of Chile won it in 1937. Miss Hart indicated this might be her last year of serious competition.

Patty Threatens in St. Louis Test

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Louise Suggs of Sea Island, Ga., faces another threat to her three-stroke lead today from Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill., in the last round of the $5,000 St. Louis Women's Open Golf Tournament.

Miss Berg moved within one stroke yesterday with a two-under-par 34 on the first nine holes while the leader had a 38. But Miss Suggs, a steady sub-par shooter all three rounds, came back with a three-under 36 on the back nine to her rival's 38.

Patty turned in a remarkable 68 opening day, then blew to an 80 before her 72, the day's best round, for a 220 total. Miss Suggs had 71-72-74—217.

Marion Cites Kennedy as Main Reason Why Sox Are Still in American League Pennant Battle

BOSTON (AP) — Manager Marty Marion thinks his Chicago White Sox are still in the thick of the American League pennant battle and singles out third baseman-outfielder Bob Kennedy as the main reason.

Chicago pulled out the second game of a doubeheader with Boston yesterday to remain 3½ games behind pace-setting Cleveland. The White Sox won 7-2 after the Red Sox took the opener 6-2.

* * *

"This is a crazy race and we're still in it because we bounce back mighty good, as you saw in the second game," Marion said in the cubhouse. "We put in a couple of fresh players and they did the job. We were going through the motions in that first one and you could feel the difference in the second game. We just knew we had to win."

* * *

Marion said he thought the White Sox could take the pennant by winning 10 of their remaining 12 games.

"We have a doubleheader with Baltimore Tuesday and another on Wednesday. I'll have (Jack) Harshman and (Virgil) Trucks the first day, and (Billy) Pierce and (Dick) Donovan the second day. If we come through those, we'll be in pretty good shape and I think we'll have a good chance."

* * *

Kennedy, who has hit at a .314 clip since joining the White Sox May 30, hit a two-run double and scored a run in the Chicago triumph yesterday.

* * *

"Except for Kennedy, we're in the second division right now," Marion said. "He's made hit after hit for us in the clutch. He has heart."

No Resignation Yet

Lane Rumored Leaving Chisox Post, Although Club President Denies Rift

CHICAGO (AP)—Is Frank Lane going to call it quits as general manager of the Chicago White Sox?

Lane is quoted as saying he doesn't care to comment and also that he hasn't tendered his resignation.

* * *

Mrs. Grace Comiskey, Sox president, says she doesn't want him to leave and "he definitely won't."

* * *

Warren Brown, sports columnist of the Chicago American traveling in the East with the Sox, posed the question that Lane might quit. He recalled how Lane recently was fined $500 by Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick for an allegedly profane protest over umpiring. Lane made the vocal outburst at Comiskey Park in the presence of American League President Will Harridge and Cal Hubbard, supervisor of AL umpires.

Brown also recalled an alleged statement by Chuck Comiskey, White Sox vice president, that Lane's conduct was "inexcusable" and also that "Lane can remain with the club if he wanted to."

The Chicago Sun-Times quoted Lane in Boston as saying: "I have not tendered my resignation but I don't know how much more of this I can take without blowing up. Chuck (Comiskey) has taken every opportunity to ridicule me and, frankly, I'm getting fed up with the whole business."

* * *

Comiskey told the Sun-Times that he thought "this thing has been carried too far....there have been stories about what he (Lane) allegedly said about me and what I allegedly said about him, but I'm not going to comment on any of it."

Meanwhile, Mrs. Comiskey, mother of Chuck, was quoted in the Sun-Times as saying, "I don't want him (Lane) to leave and he definately won't.

"Charles just talks too much. He's my son and when he was smaller I could tell him to keep his mouth shut. But, after all, he's 29 now.

* * *

"I'm certain this will all blow over," she was quoted as saying.

In Boston, Lane was quoted in the Globe:

"I have nothing to say about those reports. All I'm doing is trying to root this team home." The White Sox currently are 3½ games off the pace in the American League.

Ward Shuns Top Role as Amateur Test Begins

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Harvie Ward Jr. shunned the favorite's role today as the 55th National Amateur Golf Tournament began, exactly a quarter of a century since the incomparable Bobby Jones scored his unprecedented Grand Slam.

Ward plainly didn't approve of the fact that many of the field of 200 in this blue ribbon classic have put the finger on him as the man to beat.

* * *

"I've never gotten past the fourth round," Ward said. "I seem to be jinxed in this tournament, and I don't like to predict anything for myself in this one."

* * *

Then the North Carolina native, now playing out of San Francisco, quickly began to rattle off a handful of players he thinks have a better chance to come out on top in Saturday's 36-hole finals. Finally, he narrowed his choices down to five, including Don Bisplinghoff, Doug Sanders, Hillman Robbins, ex-champion Joe Conrad and wisecracking Billy Joe Patton.

Still it was Ward, 1952 British Amateur champion, who turned in what probably were the most consistent tuneup rounds over the Country Club of Virginia's toughened James River course, a 6,713-yard, par 70 collection of rolling hills, narrow fairways and exacting greens.

Ward, playing the course for the first time Saturday, fashioned a 69. He put together 15 pars, two birdies and a one-over-par 5 on the 460-yard 18th hole. Yesterday, he was even a bit better, carding 12 pars, 4 birdies and 2 over-par holes for a two-under 68.

Bobby Jones, the Old Maestro himself, told the contestants at a banquet Saturday night that "Some of you might say it's impossible to win the National Amateur.

"Well, I think it is . . . but some-body will do it."

Among the contestants who heard Jones were Ward and four other current Walker Cup team members — Bruce Cudd, Jimmy Jackson, Conrad and Bill Campbell—alone with former champions Charles Coe, Ted Bishop, Willie Turnesa, Dick Chapman and Chick to win this thing," said Jones, who won the amateur crown five times and in 1930 recorded victories in the British Open and Amateur and the U.S. Open and Amateur. "It's different today. Why, every time you turn over a log, some kid will run out and shoot a 67."

Of course, nobody will have to worry about a defending champion this year. Arnold Palmer, who downed Robert Sweeny 1-up in 1954 at Detroit, now is a pro.

Seventy-two first-round matches were scheduled today and 64 second rounders tomorrow. Two days of double rounds leading up to Friday's 36-hole semifinals will begin Wednesday.

TOM DRAPER, Red Run, vs Bob Reilly, West View, Pa.
RAY PALMER, Grosse Ile, vs Bob Kunts, Larchmont, N.Y.
Byes—Art Olfs, Royal Oak; Dr. Bob Corley, Jackson; Chuck Byrne, Lochmoor.

Pontiac Golfers Second in MRA

City's Five-Man Team Trails Host Midland; Bada, Wasik Post 73

For the 3rd consecutive year Pontiac's five-man delegation to the annual Michigan Recreation Association golf tournament finished in 2nd place. This year's winning team was Midland, host for the 18-hole tourney at the Currie Municipal Golf Course.

Pontiac's golf team shot a total of 385 for the runnerup position, 14 strokes behind Midland. Detroit took 3rd place with 390. Ten teams participated in the Saturday event.

Parsons Uninjured as Racer Overturns

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) —Johnnie Parsons, veteran auto race driver, escaped with minor injuries last night when his car turned turtle in a midget race at 16th Street Speedway, across the street from the Motor Speedway where he won the 1950 500-mile race.

Parsons, of Van Nuys, Calif., was taken to a hospital where he was released after examination.

49ers Lose Norris

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Surgeons removed a torn cartilage from the knee of Clarence Norris, a rookie halfback for the San Francisco 49ers, Sunday and said he'll play no more football this season.

Not So New!

OL Member J. W. Gillette Had Double-Ace in 1912

Bill Whedon, an amateur golfer from Farmington, Conn., received widespread publicity last week when he shot two holes-in-one during a nine-hole round at the Insurance City Open tournament in Wethersfield, Conn.

Some news sources directing national attention to the feat indicated belief that Whedon was the 1st golfer ever to turn the trick. This promped an Oakland County golfer to remark that he had performed the same stunt 43 years ago.

John W. Gillette, Jr., 6115 Wing Lake Road, Birmingham, declares that he fired two holes-in-one during a nine-hole round on Aug. 27, 1912, at the Abenaqui Country Club in Biddeford Pool, Maine. And he has ample evidence to prove it.

Gillette was part of a fivesome touring the short 1,850-yard par 31 course when his two aces were posted. Among his four partners were two prominent American figures, artist James Montgomery Flagg and author George Barr McCutcheon. Completing the group were his father, John, Sr., and a Mr. Symington of Baltimore.

Gillette's 1st ace was on the 155-yard 2nd hole and the 2nd on the 143-yard 8th hole. In both instances Gillette used what was then termed a mashie-iron, now called a four-iron. He carded three-under-par 28 for the round.

Gillette's accomplishment was reported in several eastern newspapers, from which he has numerous clippings, and a golf magazine also carried the story.

The Birmingham resident was then attending Williams College in Williamstown, Mass., where he starred on the varsity golf team. Gillette, now 63, is a member of the Orchard Lake Country Club.

Indians Will Help Fight on Paralysis

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians, whose 1st baseman Vic Wertz contracted polio recently, will donate most of their share of the gate from their game with the Detroit Tigers Sept. 18 to the Cleveland chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

A crowd of around 50,000 is expected; so the donation should amount to approximately $40,000. It will be known as "fans march on polio day."

Wertz, an ex-Tiger, is reported making progress toward recovery and may be able to play in the final days of this season, the Cleveland front office said.

Detroit Driver Wins Fair's 250-Mile Race

DETROIT (AP) — Mason Bright of Detroit averaged 58.53 miles an hour in winning the 250-mile new model stock car race at the State Fair yesterday.

Bright took over the lead on the one mile track on the 207th lap. There were 55 starting entries.

Bright's nearest rival was Red Swanberg of Detroit who finished two laps behind. Tommy Dawson, also of Detroit, was third.

SUNDAY'S STARS

PITCHING—Tommy Byrne, Yankees, and Johnny Klippstein, Redlegs; Byrne, 35-year-old lefty, four-hit the Indians, striking out five and walking two in 6-1 first-game victory that gave Yanks a doubleheader split; Klippstein no-hit National League champion Dodgers for 8 1-3 innings before Pee Wee Reese singled for the Dodgers only hit, in first game as Cincinnati swept two, 9-0 and 5-3.

BATTING—Bobby Avila, Indians had 4-for-8 in twinbill, getting two of Tribe's four hits in opener and homering in both games; his first scored lone run in 6-1 defeat, his second tied it at 2-2 in 3-2 nightcap victory.

Kramer Shines in UM Workout

But Oosterbaan Isn't Satisfied With 65-0 Game-Type Results

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Ron Kramer, Michigan's all-America hope, accounted for 16 points as the Wolverine varsity swept to a 65-0 victory over the scrubs in a full dress football scrimmage Saturday.

But coach Bennie Oosterbaan wasn't satisfied with the lopsided score. "Overall, I was disappointed," he said, "They looked tired and out of zip."

* * *

Kramer booted four of six extra point tries and tallied two touchdowns—one on a 15-yard pass; the other on a blocked punt.

* * *

Coast Driver Wins American Road Race

ELKHART LAKE, Wis. (INS)—Phil Hill of Santa Monica, Calif., shot into the lead in the last turn and went on to win the 148-mile America road race yesterday at Elkhart Lake.

* * *

Hill averaged 80.2 miles an hour in his Ferrari Monza and beat the pace setting Sherwood Johnson of Rye, N.Y., who drove a Jaguar D. Ernie Erickson, of Chicago, also driving a Jaguar D, finished third.

Detroit Wins Polo Title

CHICAGO (AP)—Detroit Triple C defeated the Brandywine team of Fennett Square, Pa., 9-8, last night to win its 2nd straight National Open Polo championship.

Offense Seems Advanced in Big Ten Scrimmages

CHICAGO (AP)—Big Ten football enters its "semifinal" week of practice today and it looks as if the offense is ahead of the defense at this stage of drills.

An avalanche of touchdowns came Saturday when at least five schools held long scrimmage sessions.

Only two more weeks of tuneups remain before the season opens Sept. 24 with all teams in action.

Illinois' first two teams banged out seven touchdowns. Quarterback Em Lindbeck scored twice on runs of 71 and 5 yards. Halfback Bob Mitchell tallied on a 65-yard scamper.

Northwestern's first team scored the first four times it had the ball. The longest touchdown play was a pass from Dale Pienta to end Fred Nosal covering 65 yards. Guard Al Viola, an ex-Marine who is the only sophomore on the No. 1 team, set up two touchdowns by recovering fumbles.

End Ron Kramer caught a 15-yard pass for one touchdown, ran 12 yards for another with a blocked punt and converted four out of six times as Michigan's first stringers had a 65-0 frolic. Fullbacks Lou Baldacci and Dave Hill also scored twice.

Michigan State's first team, quarterbacked by Earl Morrall, romped to four touchdowns. Sophomore Walt Kowalczyk of Westfield, Mass., excelled in the running department after being sidelined all week with a shoulder injury.

Notre Dame's first eleven pounded out a 46-7 victory over the "blues" with fullback Don Schaefer scoring three times, including a 43-yard run, and booting five extra points. Quarterback Paul Nornung tallied twice, once on a 30-yard run.

The tryouts will be under Olympic hockey coach John Mariucci of Minnesota. He will be assisted by Cliff Purpur, North Dakota hockey coach; Al Renfrew, Michigan Tech coach; Vic Heyliger, Michigan coach, and Harry Cleverly, of University of Boston coach.

Golf School Sam Snead's

By SLAMIN' SAM SNEAD

I believe that many high handicap players would improve their golf simply by taking a slower backswing. Most players who hurry their backswings also rush their downswings. This causes all kinds of troubles such as starting the downswing before the backswing is even completed, throwing the club from the top with a premature uncocking of the wrists, or getting the hips and shoulders turned too far ahead before impact.

The whole idea of a good swing is to develop smooth-flowing power by use of perfect rhythm and timing. The faster the backswing the more difficult this task becomes for the average player.

During practice you can help "groove" a slow rhythmic backswing by counting to four. After you have acquired correct timing your game should improve. Remember—swing back s-l-o-w-l-y, start down s-l-o-w-l-y!

2 Eagles Help Middlecoff Win $10,000 Prize

Double Bogey Pushes Snead Down to 2nd at Cavalcade Event

SCOTCH PLAINS, N.J. (AP)—A pair of eagles, one at the start and the other at the end of the final round, plus a double bogey on a par 3 hole by his closest pursuer, gave Cary Middlecoff a victory and $10,000 in the Cavalcade of Golf Tournament.

The Memphis dentist, playing out of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., holed out an 80-foot wedge shot on the 490-yard first hole for an eagle 3 yesterday at the Shackamaxon Club. Then, on the 601-yard 18th, he repeated the performance, this time using a No. 9 iron to drop a 45-foot approach shot.

The two amazing chip shots gave Middlecoff a five-under-par 65 for the final round and a 72-hole score of 276—two strokes better than Sam Snead, the blaster from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

Snead, who went into the final round tied for the lead with Freddie Haas of Claremont, Calif., and Gene Littler of Palm Springs, Calif., lost his chance to tie Middlecoff when he took a double bogey on the par 3 16th after his tee shot hit a tree. Snead closed out his four rounds with 278 and second-place prize money of $5,000 from the total pot of $50,000.

Littler tied Gardner Dickinson Jr., of Panama Beach, Fla., and little Jerry Barber of Los Angeles for third. Each had 280. Haas was one stroke back tied with long-hitting George Bayer of Cincinnati.

Detroit Buys Atlanta Club of SA League

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers have bought Augusta Georgia's baseball franchise from the South Atlantic League.

The others are Jamestown, N.Y., in the Pony League and Valdosta, Ga., in the Georgia-Florida League.

Detroit had a full working agreement with Augusta this year. The team finished third and won the Sally League playoffs.

Lions Undaunted by Return of Graham

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Graham, who announced his retirement after last year's playoff but recently changed his mind, was in the lineup for the first time against Detroit last Saturday but the Browns dropped a 19-3 exhibition decision to the Lions. The defeat was the fourth in five games for the Eastern Division titleholders.

After Lou Groza put the Browns ahead with a 10-yard field goal early in the second quarter, the Lions came back to dominate the game under the direction of Bobby Layne. The Detroiters' first touchdown was a 50-yard pass play from Layne to Dorne Dibble.

* * *

In other Saturday games, the New York Giants dropped their second pre-season contest, 7-0, to the Chicago Bears at Little Rock, Ark., the Washington Redskins edged the Green Bay Packers 33-31 at Winston-Salem, N.C. and the Baltimore Colts turned back the Chicago Cardinals 24-14 at Chicago. And Sunday the Philadelphia Eagles whipped the Pittsburgh Steelers 24-20.

The Bears lineup set up the only touchdown of the Giants' game. Joe Fortunato blocked a punt in the second quarter, picked up the ball and ran 8 yards to the Giants' 7 from where Bobby Watkins scored.

* * *

Little Eddie LeBaron sneaked 6 inches on the last play of the game for a touchdown to give the Redskins their triumph. The Packers, riding on the pitching arm of Tobin Rote and the running of Howie Ferguson, had a 31-19 lead midway of the final period. Then, with LeBaron pitching and Billy Cox catching, the Redskins moved to two touchdowns in the final minutes of play. Cox caught three straight passes from LeBaron for 48 yards enroute to the first one and then, with only seconds remaining, he hauled in another for 11 to reach the 6-inch line.

* * *

The Colts moved to a 14-0 halftime lead over the Cardinals before rookie halfback L. G. Dupre of Baylor ran 84 yards for a touchdown at the start of the second half to bury the Cardinals' hopes.

Fullback Ralph Goldston's 55-yard touchdown run with a recovered fumble in the third quarter carried the Eagles to their triumph over the Steelers. It was the fifth straight exhibition triumph without a defeat for Philadelphia. Pittsburgh is 4-1.

Thrills, Upsets Mark Regatta

Thrills and upsets were the rule for the 500 spectators and racers at the Floyd Maddock Memorial Inter-Lakes Regatta, at Oakland County Boat Club on Sylvan Lake yesterday.

Racing ended at 6:30, but activities of recovered sunken and beached boats continued through the evening, after the tense day of close competition.

No one was injured as two boats flipped, dumping their drivers. One boat was struck by another after it capsized, but all craft were back on shore before midnight.

In the 1st heat of the 131 horsepower and under, race, a boat owned by Ray Hill of Cass Lake overturned, and was struck by the boat of Bob and Jack Rouse. The Rouse boat was beached before it could sink, and a diver put a line on Hill's boat in 30 feet of water later. It was recovered.

Olson and Ken Loy, of Bayside Yacht Club, Cass Lake, took the cup in the 131 and under classification. Another Bayside, Art Crouch, took 1st in the 125 and under race, with Olson and Loy finishing 2nd.

TOO FAR AWAY—Carlos Paula, Washington right fielder, sprints for second base but Ray Boone, Detroit third baseman, tags him out in a rundown in the second inning of second game Sunday. Paula tried to go from first to third on a single by Clint Courtney, Washington catcher, and got caught changing his mind. Detroit player in the middle is not identified. Detroit won the first, 8-0, and Washington the second, 1-0.

MSU Varsity Drubs Second Stringers

EAST LANSING (AP)—First Stringers were impressive as Michigan State's football squad held its 1st game-length scrimmage of the fall over the weekend.

Name State Bishop to Church Group

HONOLULU (AP)—The Rt. Rev. Richard Emrich, bishop of Michigan, and the Rt. Rev. Williams F. Lewis, bishop of Nevada, have been nominated by the House of Bishops to the Protestant Episcopal Church National Council.

The national council is the administrative agency for the church's program which is outlined for the next three years by the general convention now under way in Honolulu.

Bishop Emrich and Bishop Lewis will replace the Rt. Rev. Karl M. Lock of California and the Rt. Rev. Henry W. Hobson, bishop of southern Ohio, whose three-year terms have expired.

New Safety Features, Flight-Sweep Styling on Display at Chelsea

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Editor

DETROIT — Chrysler Corporation's 1956 model cars, introducing push-button automatic drive control, numerous new safety features and a new ultra-modern body design concept were displayed at a press preview today.

The showing, at Chrysler's proving grounds at Chelsea, west of here, disclosed that Chrysler, like other car makers, has been carrying on extensive safety tests.

In these tests, particular emphasis has been given to a new type door latch, designed to prevent doors from popping open in any but most unusual crashes. Chrysler calls them "life guard" latches. They will be standard on all Chrysler Corp. cars.

The push-button drive, to be standard on all Plymouth, De Soto, Dodge, Chrysler and Imperial models equipped with automatic transmissions, will be controlled from the instrument panel, left of the steering wheel. The selector unit consists of buttons for neutral, low, drive and reverse which are illuminated for night driving.

JUST LIKE RADIO

Chrysler emphasizes that the left-of-the-wheel installation keeps the buttons out of reach of children. It noted also that shifting with the new device is as gentle as operating a push-button radio.

Offered as optional equipment are safety seat belts and a newly designed vacuum-operated brake system with automatic transmission installations.

Chrysler calls the new body styling concept "flight-sweep." Rear fenders and quarter panels feature the fin treatment. Taillight units, integrated into the fins, carrying out the aircraft motif evident in the over-all styling.

Four-door hardtop models will be offered in all lines, along with advances in engines that will present higher output and increased compression ratios. Also incorporated into the new model design are new 12-volt electrical systems.

'HIGHWAY HI-FI'

Grains Faltering in Quiet Market

CHICAGO (AP)—Grains started out firm but then fell back in quiet dealings on the Board of Trade today.

In the early trade soybeans advanced the most and they managed to hold onto much of their gains. Wheat tended to lag from the start. Scattered commission house buying supported corn and oats early but this demand soon dried up.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛ to ⅝ lower, September $1.95½; corn unchanged to ⅝ lower, September $1.27½; oats ⅛ to ⅛ lower, September 56¾; rye unchanged to ¾ lower, September 95½, soybeans unchanged to 1½ higher, September $2.21½, and lard 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher, September $10.25.

Stock Market Mostly Higher

Many leading stocks were unchanged to lower, but the balance for the market as a whole was higher.

Prices ranged from around 2 points higher to a point lower. Aluminum issues were higher along with most steels, chemicals, and a good list of individual issues. The motors, aircrafts, and oils were mixed. The railroads were largely unchanged to higher.

Add a new electric dryer to your electric washer and you'll race through washday. You'll have no more weather worries, no more heavy, wet laundry to hang on the line. What's more, you'll find that tedious line drying never dried your clothes so beautifully clean, soft, and fresh-smelling.

"OK" USED CARS

We do not have to sell 100 cars in the next 48 hours. We will be pleased with all we sell one at a time.

We do not try to make people think they are getting something for nothing. It just can't be done!

The only thing we give free are courteous attention, kind treatment, and the kind of automobile deal we would like to give ourselves.

Our recondition shop is second to none in Michigan. We are proud of it. And you'll like it, too.

Praise Heaped on 'Wyatt Earp'

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—About 50 years ago a man named Owen Wister wrote a novel called "The Virginian" and started a literary fashion that has flourished to this day. The Western, it's called in the book trade.

* * *

The basic element of the Western is a rather mute and fundamentally decent guy who's quick with a gun and able with a horse. To this character is added a variety of plot developments that fall into well-established patterns.

Events in Western stories have little to do with the important events of our Western history. The opening of the West, once the war-like Indian tribes were scattered, is a story of land hunger, litigation, personal fortitude, and a struggle for such necessities as water and transportation rights. Bad men were as rare as gangsters in our time; in general they had as little influence as Lucky Luciano has on the citizens of Omaha today.

* * *

But history always has bowed to literary fashions. The fashion established by the Western novel is that there shall be a good guy and a bad guy shooting it out. Well, why be superior about it? The Western is a pleasing entertainment that has delighted boys from 8 to 80 and a surprising number of girls of all ages.

The movies seized on the Western early. As movie-making matured, it produced such superior works as "Shane" and "High Noon" besides its perpetual spate of incredibly bad Western films. Television followed the lead of the movies, picking up old films that had no market except the Saturday kids' movie matinees.

* * *

Now television is sufficiently mature to produce its own equivalent of "Shane" or "High Noon." Its programing of new Westerns is especially heavy this season, with loud fanfare that they're going to be better than ever.

First out of the corral last week trotted a spavined run and a high-stepping colt of promise. The runt was something called "Western Marshal," which appeared on NBC's New York outlet and may show up in your town if the salesmen have their way. It's the same old synthetic Western.

* * *

The promising colt is "The Life and Legend of Wyatt Earp" which premiered on ABC-TV. While it's not "High Noon," it's quite the best Western this department has yet seen on television. Hugh O'Brian is a credible and convincing Wyatt Earp, that actual Western marshal who took up the cause of justice reluctantly and died in bed in his 80s.

Travel Gum Produced

A mint-flavored travel gum is being produced by a Brooklyn pharmaceutical firm, which says its product will aid travelers prone to motion sickness. The chewing gum contains meclizine hydrochloride.

Let the Bees Worry

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—City Councilman Phil J. Bagley doesn't like bees because they sting. The same goes for wasps and hornets. He proposed and ordinance to make it unlawful to capture the insects in a device unless they would be retained by a wire mesh enclosure to prevent their escape.

"If each hive were so enclosed how would the insects get in? he was asked.
