Weekend of Tragedies

Planes and Train, Roads and Water Take Heavy Toll

SOMERSET, Ky. (AP)—A day of pleasure riding in a rattletrap car ended in death on a railroad crossing for eight youngsters yesterday.

The youths had been riding around in the 1941 model car all day.

Only minutes before the Southern Railway freight hit them, one boy, scared by what he called "some reckless driving," had left the auto.

Dead were Charles Allen, 13; his two sisters, Frances, 14, and Josephine, 15; Betty Bray, 15; James Richards, 16; James Calhoun, 12; Charles Simmons, 16; and Ronald Davis, 17. All were from Somerset.

Sheriff Gilmore Phelps said witnesses told him the car approached the crossing at about 35 to 40 miles an hour with a flat tire and a broken tie rod.

The car, dragged nearly half a mile by the train, burst into flames.

Five of the youths were pinned inside. Three were thrown clear.

Car Falls on Track

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. (AP) — Three men and a 15-year-old girl, headed for a moonlight swim were killed last night when their automobile hurtled over an embankment, crashed onto railroad tracks and overturned.

Two other teenage girls were injured.

Police said another group in another car were also on their way to a swim but had stopped for gas when the accident occurred.

Elias Polovchak, 21, Robert Liberacki, 24, Harry Kostic, 32, and Constance Abbot, 15, were killed.

Katherine Abbott, 17, sister of the dead girl, and Shirley Hinds, 19, were in a hospital here, where their condition was reported as serious.

Ocean Surf Claims 5

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—The deadly Pacific Ocean surf off Point Ano Nuevo took five more lives yesterday.

Four men and a woman drowned when their 16-foot skiff dragged anchor and capsized in the same area where two couples perished four days earlier.

A Coast Guardsman patrolling the beach for the two bodies still missing from the 26-foot Pen Jay, which swamped last Tuesday, found instead two bodies from yesterday's tragedy.

Washed ashore were the bodies of Odell Wyatt, 28, Santa Clara, and his brother, L. D. Wyatt, 35, San Jose.

Still missing were Odell's wife Velda, 25, a third brother, Arlie Wyatt, 42, Corcoran; and Fred Bobo, 59, Mountain View.

Trapped 36 Hours With Parents' Bodies

ALLIANCE, Neb. (INS)—A 17-year-old Cozad, Neb., girl was reported in fair condition today after spending 36 hours pinned in the wreckage of a small plane which crashed Friday night, taking the lives of her parents and the pilot.

Judy Dehl was rescued yesterday after a search plane spotted the wreckage in the lonely sandhill country of the Nebraska Panhandle, southeast of Alliance.

The girl, who was pinned beside the body of her mother, was said to have been in surprisingly good condition considering her ordeal. She had fractured legs and was suffering from shock.

Killed in the crash were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Dehl, and the pilot, Milo German, 35, president of Nebraska Plastics, Inc., of Cozad.

The girl said the plane crashed into a hill Friday night when they ran into a storm and were unable to locate the Alliance Airport.

9 American Airmen Killed in Italy

TREVISO, Italy (AP)—Nine American airmen were killed and a tenth lay critically burned today after their Navy Neptune bomber crashed in flames while searching for a missing sister ship.

The P2V patrol bomber sideslipped in gusty winds and crashed yesterday 5,200 feet up on Mt. Pra near the Alpine resort of Sestriere close to the French frontier.

The plane was one of 20 U.S. and Italian aircraft hunting for another Navy P2V which disappeared Friday with 11 aboard.

A party of Italian mountain climbers saw the search plane fall. They pulled two living airmen from the flames that had burned away most of their clothes. The eight others already were dead.

One of the survivors died soon afterward. The other, described as about 19, was taken to a local hospital.

His condition was pronounced critical from burns of the face, chest and arms.

The plane crashed at noon, three hours after taking off from the U. S. air base at Aviano, near Udine.

American officials said the search plane was from Naval Patrol Squadron 23. They declined to make public the names of those aboard.

Expect to Join Sections at Straits Bridge Today

ST. IGNACE (AP)—Weather permitting, the huge steel sections connecting the longest total suspension bridge in the world are to be locked into place today on the 100-million dollar Mackinac Straits Bridge.

Except for two 240-foot gaps from the main towers toward shore, the straits then will have been bridged for the first time in history. The gaps are expected to be bridged quickly once the final suspension section is in place.

The giant bridge, its 3,800-foot center span second only in length to the Golden Gate Bridge at San Francisco, is to be completed Nov. 1. The bridge's total length including approaches is just under five miles.

The job of lifting the 100-ton steel sections that will support a suspended four-lane roadway for 8,614 feet requires split-second timing and teamwork.

Each section, box-like in design, is lifted from a barge and locked to steel suspender ropes hanging down from the main cables.

The main cables, 24½ inches in diameter, provide the only support for the hoisting device that lifts the steel sections. Each section is 70 feet wide, 120 feet long and 40 feet deep.

The sections were assembled at St. Ignace and brought to the bridge on the barge. The barge anchored directly beneath the hoist for lines to be dropped and fastened to the steel.

Calm water and ideal weather conditions are important for the delicate maneuvering.

Cooler Temperatures Arrive With Rain After City Swelters in 95 Degree Heat

Cooler temperatures arrived today to help pull Pontiac area residents out of the giant-sized oven which has baked this area along with the rest of the eastern half of the nation over the weekend.

Thundershowers were forecast for today. They were expected to lower the mercury to around the 60 degree mark tonight. Tomorrow's prediction is for pleasant and fair weather with the temperature near 80.

A mid-morning rain provided some relief for this area.

Yesterday's blistering 95 degree heat in Pontiac drove thousands of area residents to beaches and lakes. The same was true for Saturday when the mercury reached 94.

Oakland County sheriff deputies reported county roads thronged with motorists seeking some relief from the hottest weekend so far this summer.

A 68-year-old Dearborn man, who drowned in Pontiac Lake, was among 21 drowning victims in the state.

Some eastern cities recorded sizzling temperatures in the 100's yesterday. Baltimore had 103, while Washington, D. C. roasted in 101 temperatures, the highest reading in the nation's capital in three years.

Dodge Park No. 4 here reported it was "bursting at the seams" as 70,000 flocked there over the weekend. Cars were strung out a mile-and-a-half from the park.

The Pontiac Lake Recreation Area reported 36,000 persons packed the beaches and waters there. Kensington Park near Brighton was invaded with a record 22,900 Saturday attendance, and 32,000 yesterday.

Area hospitals reported only a few heat prostration cases, but a rash of minor injuries from swimming mishaps.

Water pumpage in Pontiac for the two-day period was about 2,000,000 gallons above previous July weekend pumpage, Joseph W. Gable, water department superintendent, said. There was 18,510,600 gallons pumped from about 10 city wells.

The Eastern Seaboard, from Virginia to New York, sweltered also in the summer's hottest weather.

The Weather Bureau said there was some possibility of a little relief in northern Midwest areas but none in the sun-baked sections in the Middle Atlantic states southward through Georgia.

Some 40 persons in the nation were known to have drowned attempting to escape the oppressive heat wave.

A golfer collapsed and died on a course near Chicago, and in New York a man collapsed and died after a tennis match.

Back in Pontiac, the lowest temperature recorded in downtown preceding 8 a.m. was 73. At 2 p.m. the mercury registered 80.

Refuse Lie Test for Sheppard Until Sure 'Confession' Is True

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Gov. C. William O'Neill said today Dr. Sam Sheppard will not receive a lie detector test until the "confession" of a Florida prisoner that he killed the doctor's wife is determined to be true.

The governor announced his position after a telegram from the unofficial "Court of Last Resort" headed by mystery writer Erle Stanley Gardner, cast doubt upon the validity of a confession by Donald Wedler.

Wedler said he bludgeoned a woman during a burglary in July 1954. There was no definite date given. Dr. Sam's wife, Marilyn, was killed in her Cleveland suburban home July 4. Sheppard who protested his innocence, is serving a life sentence for her slaying.

In New York, Gardner said it appeared to him that "justice in Ohio is on trial before the bar of public opinion in every state of the union."

"If they're so certain Sheppard is guilty," he added, "why are they so damned afraid to give him a lie detector test: That's the $64,000 question.

★ ★ ★

"And another thing, if Sheppard is not to receive a lie detector test until Wedler's confession has been proved conclusively, then what would be the object of giving Sheppard any test afterward?"

ABOVE POLITICS

Gardner said he thought the governor had done a "commendable thing in rising above politics" to authorize the Sheppard test by disinterested experts, and Gardner said he had received no word the governor had changed his mind.

"I'm going out to the scene of battle to find out what it's all about," said Gardner, who planned to catch a plane for Columbus at 3 p.m.

He said he had expressed doubts about Wedler's confession in communication with the governor before O'Neill consented to the Sheppard test, and that "while there still is doubt, I have a growing conviction that Wedler murdered Marilyn Sheppard."

O'Neill, who last week gave permission for a lie detector test to Sheppard, changed his position after receiving this telegram from the Court of Last Resort, an unofficial body created to prove innocent those who may have been wrongly convicted:

"We are still not prepared to take as true the confession of Donald Wedler. But following our examination of him in Florida we admit to a growing conviction that he may well have committed the murder of Marilyn Sheppard. However, no one should form any final opinion on this man until after there has been a lot more investigative work done and until there has been a psychiatric investigation.

"There are some important major conflicts between his story and existing fact. These conflicts may have been the result of drug reactions and attempts to rationalize his acts or just plain deception."

O'Neill pointed out that earlier telegrams from the court said there was not the slightest evidence of deception in Wedler's statement. But the governor said

Prize Tab Up for August in Press Weather Contest

If our 90-plus temperatures have left you wilted, wait until the month of August arrives on the weather scene.

During that traditionally torrid month the Press staff again will be eyeing the mercury's rise and fall in another Hottest Moment of the Month Contest.

And this time, instead of a $100 bond, the lucky winner in August's guessing bout will walk off with $200 in U.S. Savings bonds. The Press judges have decided that the stifling temperatures expected warrant higher contest stakes.

So there you are! Two hundred smackers just for the guessing.

Why not put your prognosticating power to the test and join the crew of amateur weather experts enjoying these suspenseful contests.

The same rules issued for the June and July contests will apply. Just address a post card with your own forecast as to the date, hour (a.m. or p.m.) and minute of August's hottest moment to:

Weather Man
Pontiac Press
P. O. Box 40
Pontiac, Mich.

Remember, you don't need to name the temperature.

Only one entry per person will be accepted, and all entries must be in the Pontiac Press Building, mailed or delivered in person, by the deadline at 5:30 p.m., Wednesday, July 31.

The decision of the Press judges will be final and in case of a tie, the prize will be split.

The contest is not open to Press employes and their immediate families; but otherwise all Press subscribers and carriers may participate.

Don't forget, the prize this time is double the amount offered the last two months.

For just a few seconds of your time you may wind up $200 ahead, so get that post card in the mail right away.

Man Drowns in County Lake

Hazel Park Woman Escapes Similar Death in Shallow Water

Two incidents in relatively shallow water resulted in the drowning of a Detroit man and the near drowning of a Hazel Park woman, as thousands jammed Oakland County swimming areas over the weekend.

Joseph Szabo, 68, of 4129 Tulane St., Detroit, was found Saturday afternoon floating face down in from three to five feet of water at the Pontiac Lake Recreation Area, in White Lake Township.

Township firemen were unable to revive him with a respirator, and he was pronounced dead from drowning by Dr. Leon Cobb at Pontiac General Hospital.

At Bob's Picnic Park, on Cranberry Lake, White Lake Township, Gertrude M. Hickey, 51, of 2336 Melville St., Hazel Park, escaped death.

Witnesses said she was wading when evidently she fainted, falling face down in the water. They rushed to her aid, pulling her body to the shore. The White Lake Township Fire Department revived her.

She was taken to Pontiac General Hospital and later released.

Meany Facing Rackets Probers

Testifies on Knowledge of Union Fund Usage by 2 Textile Leaders

WASHINGTON (INS) — AFL-CIO President George Meany tells Senate rackets probers today what he knows about the use of union funds by two high AFL United Textile Workers officials to purchase homes.

Meany was summoned before the Rackets Committee by Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) to testify specifically about the use of $57,000 in union funds by UTW President Anthony Valente and Secretary-Treasurer Lloyd Klenert to buy swank suburban Washington homes in 1952.

However, his debut before the committee is expected to develop into a broad look at organized labor's house cleaning efforts under the Ethical Practices Code adopted by the AFL-CIO in January.

The issues of Communism, corruption and hoodlumism in labor's hierarchy were expected to be raised by two Republican committee members — Sens. Karl Mundt (SD) and Barry Goldwater (Ariz).

Both said they want to know whether the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Code actually is being utilized to cleanse unions of till-robbing strong-armed methods and pro-Red bosses.

The AFL United Textile Workers Union executive council last night adopted what it called a "widespread and constructive ethical practices code" on the eve of Meany's appearance to tell of his efforts to halt alleged misuse of union funds by the UTW's two top officers.

Dulles Speech Tonight to Cover Disarmament

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles will deliver a 30-minute speech to the nation tonight detailing the U. S. position on world disarmament.

The talk will be broadcast nationwide on the ABC radio and television networks beginning at 8 p.m. (EST).

High Drowning Toll Claims 21; 11 Die on Roads

Miscellaneous Causes Result in Death of Four Other People

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Michigan paid a grim toll in human life in the flight to find relief from the heat over the weekend.

At least 21 persons drowned. The full toll of dead for the weekend was 36, including 11 in motor traffic and four from miscellaneous causes.

The drownings were among the greatest numbers in years for any weekend.

Loreno Turner, 12 of Inkster, drowned Sunday while bathing in Ford Lake in Ypsilanti Township.

Jack Dempsey, 35, Livonia, and Danny Buckingham, 5, Wayne, drowned in Belleville Lake in Van Buren Township Sunday when the boat in which they were riding capsized. Three other persons in the boat swam to safety.

Irwin Dellabaugh, 66, Ann Arbor, drowned in Huron River near Ann Arbor Sunday. The boat from which he was fishing overturned.

Albert Martin, 36, Wyandotte, drowned in Detroit River Sunday while bathing off Belle Isle.

Mrs. Vina Hahn, 53, Detroit, drowned in Detroit River Sunday when a boat in which she was riding with seven others capsized. The other persons in the boat were rescued.

Carlton Bennett, 57, Zeeland, was killed Sunday in a two-car collision three miles west of Holland.

Hugo J. Palo, 64, Virginia, Minn., was killed Friday night when his car hit a bridge abutment in Wakefield.

Catherine Skibo, 23, of Rural Crystal Falls, was killed Saturday night when a car overturned on an Iron County road.

Ferris Bryant, 31, an itinerant Mississippi cherry picker, was killed Sunday on Indian Hill Road in Benzie County. Deputies said he was the victim of a hit-and-run car.

Gets 4 Months at Hard Labor for 'Disobeying Orders'

Airman Sentenced in Haircut Row

FUCHU, Japan (AP)—A 20-year-old American airman who objected to getting a "white sidewall" haircut was convicted of disobeying orders today and sentenced to four months at hard labor.

The airman, Donald Wheeler of Cortez, Colo., also was sentenced to lose $200 in pay and reduced to the rank of basic airman—private—from airman third class.

Wheeler contended that he had "challenged" an order to get a "white sidewall" haircut because he had received a regulation Air Force trim only the day before the order was given.

A "white sidewall" strips the hair from the ears to the crown, leaving only a fringe on top.

After the court-martial board returned its verdict, Wheeler asked: "Can you imagine anybody going to jail for not getting a haircut?"

★ ★ ★

The charges against Wheeler did not mention haircuts and the Air Force contended it was a "routine" matter of military discipline.

The Air Force said the action involved only "disobedience of a lawful order of his superior officer."

Summing up before the court-martial board, the Air Force prosecutor traced U. S. military history from Valley Forge to Bataan and declared: "If we were to allow every airman to decide whether he should reject or obey an order, we would have a sorry group of people dedicated to our country."

The prosecutor, Lt. William D.

Graham Taking Day Off to Rest

Crusade Will Return to Garden Tomorrow After Going to Stadium

NEW YORK (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham resumes his New York crusade in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night.

Graham took yesterday and today off for rest.

★ ★ ★

The crusade, which had been due to end last Saturday night, has been extended through Aug. 10. The campaign started May 15.

★ ★ ★

On Saturday night the evangelist drew a crowd of 100,000 to an outdoor meeting at Yankee Stadium. The rally was the largest ever held by Graham in the United States.

The crowd was also the biggest ever to attend an event in the stadium.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon was Graham's guest of honor. Nixon spoke briefly in a portion of the meeting telecast over a local station.

The vice president said the progress and strength of the United States have come about because the nation has always had "a deep and abiding faith in God."

Graham told the throng that the nation is in danger of destruction and that only prayer and faith can pull it through.

He listed communism and a push-button, hydrogen-bomb war as two great external dangers. Racial tension is a great internal source of trouble, he said.

He put most emphasis, however, on a fourth danger—"moral deterioration."

Blame Defective Brakes for Intersection Crash

Defective brakes caused an auto collision at Telegraph road and Orchard Lake avenue about 7 p.m. yesterday.

Alfred J. DuPont, 56, of 37 Edna Ave., told Pontiac police his brakes failed as he approached the intersection and tried to stop for a red light.

Norman A. Englesman, 30, of Lapeer was released from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after treatment for possible head injuries.

Englesman was a passenger in an auto driven by Lillian E. Vinson, 48, of 105 N. Shirley St. The auto struck in the rear by Dupont's auto, according to police.

Know the Weather

By E. H. SIMS

What is heat lightning? Why does one hear about it only in summer?

There is really no such thing as heat lightning, although this term is very old in the field of weather lore. Heat lightning, or what is called heat lighning, is merely lightning at a great distance.

Interestingly, the very name heat lightning indicates oldtimers thought it was a product of heat, because it occurred in summer. But it is only summer lightning at a distance. With windows up—as used to be the case in the summer in most homes — one tends to hear noises at a greater distance. So distant thunder in summer is often heard.

Moveover, lightning seldom occurs in winter, at which time windows are usually closed anyhow, so "heat lightning" is merely normal hot weather lightning at a great distance. It's flashes in the sky are visible on summer nights at great distance because the sky is often clear except for isolated thunderheads, producing the lightning far away.

Oakland Public Works Director Will Push Two Sewer Projects

Newly-appointed director of the Oakland County Department of Public Works, Harold K. Schone, promised today that top priority will be assigned to the proposed Evergreen and Farmington Intercepter sewer systems.

Schone resigned as Birmingham's city manager Friday night to become acting director of the new county department. He is scheduled to take over the $17,500-a-year county post Aug. 1, and has asked the Birmingham City Commission to relieve him of his present job as soon as possible.

Schone, a acting DPW director, will be in charge of planning and coordinating inter - community sewer and water projects.

The new department of public works is empowered to acquire, construct and operate sewers, storm drains and water supply systems.

Both the $3,000,000 Evergreen interceptor sewer and the $2,500,000 Farmington interceptor have been stalled for several years by the inability of townships to provide their share of the cost.

Another problem facing the DPW, Schone said, is the possible construction of a sewage treatment plant at the eastern end of the county to service Waterford, Avon ownship, Pontiac Township, and the city of Troy.

Oakland's water supply problem is a third area that may be explored by the department, Schone said.

If the Lake Huron water pipeline is approved and built, Schone pointed out, local governments will face the problem of linking up "feeder" lines with the main transmission system.

All projects of the DPW must be approved by the Board of Supervisors. The department, subject to approval by the board, may issue bonds pledging the full faith and credit of the country, and may set up special assessment districts to pay for the improvements.

'Certain' He Killed Dr. Sheppard's Wife

the latest telegram uses the language "or just plain deception."

"This present telegram," O'Neill said, "indicates the tests show he may be guilty of just plain deception.

"I have discussed this with Warden Alvis (of Ohio) Penitentiary). It is my opinion and his that until the truthfulness of this confession is determined, there should be no lie detector test given to Sheppard."

★ ★ ★

O'Neill said he would wire a similar statement to the Court of Last Resort.

The judge who presided at the trial of Dr. Sheppard when he was convicted of murdering his wife in 1954 called on Ohio's attorney privilege of acting as a "court of last resort" in Ohio.

In a strongly worded statement, Judge Edward Blythin termed the test "nothing short of fantastic" and questioned the "ethics and propriety" of such a test by a non-official agency.

When shown a photograph of Wedler, Sheppard remarked: "I have a vague feeling this is the man who attacked me."

The osteopath, who has claimed his innocence all along, said he was twice knocked out by a "bushy-haired" intruder whom he blamed for his wife's death. But Wedler said he encountered a man at the murder scene whom he struck only once.

Judge Blythin, a former Cleveland mayor, was on the bench during the 10-week trial in which a jury convicted Sheppard Dec. 21, 1954, of killing his pregnant wife Marilyn. She was beaten to death July 4, 1954, in their home in Bay Village, a Cleveland suburb. Dr. Sheppard is serving a life sentence in Ohio Pententary here.

Episcopal Church Closed Over Communist Issue

NEW YORK (AP)—An Episcopal bishop ordered the closing of a feud-ridden Brooklyn church yesterday to prevent its "being used as a battleground."

Bishop James P. DeWolfe called for the closing of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Holy Trinity until the courts settle a bitter struggle within the congregation.

★ ★ ★

For nearly a decade the church has been divided over the alleged pro-Communist activities of the Rev. William Howard Melish, its former rector.

He has denied any Communist link.

The closing of the 110-year-old church "until further notice" was announced at the 11 a.m. service by the present rector, the Rev. Dr. Herman S. Sidener. The 107 persons at the service were stunned by the news.

★ ★ ★

A dozen Brooklyn police detectives were at the church. There were no untoward incidents, however.

A court order recently removed the Rev. Mr. Melish from the pulpit and upheld Dr. Sidener as rector. The ousted cleric is appealing the decision.

★ ★ ★

During Dr. Sidener's first service July 7 pro - and anti-Melish church members contested over collection plates. And at a "coffee hour" in the parish house that followed the July 14 service, Dr. Sidener was reported knocked to the floor by a pro-Melish member.

The recent history of Holy Trinity has been marked by the long service of Melishes. The Rev. Dr. John Howard Melish, father of William, became rector in 1904.

In 1949 the elder Melish was ousted for supporting the alleged left-wing activities of his son, who had become his assistant rector at the church 10 years earlier. These activities included writing for the Daily Worker, the Communist newspaper.

The younger Melish from 1946 to 1948 was chairman of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship. The organization was cited as subversive and Communist by the attorney general in 1947.

He has said he is trying to build bridges of understanding.

When the elder Melish was ousted, the congregation called his son to the pulpit. Bishop DeWolfe refused to confirm him as rector. But the younger Melish resisted repeated attempts at his ouster.

Storm Drainage Waterford Topic

Estimates on Solution to Whitfield Estates Flooding Anticipated

A report by Johnson and Anderson Engineering Co. regarding the drainage problem in the Whitfield Estates Subdivision will be discussed at tonight's regular Waterford Township Board meeting.

The subdivision was one of those most deeply flooded damaged in the township during the recent heavy rains, and it is expected that surveys and estimated costs for a drain will be presented for discussion.

Two new police cars have been lettered for identification on both sides and across the back, according to James Seeterlin, clerk. Estimated costs for signal domes will be presented to the board.

Estimated costs for a fence around the Waterford Cemetery on Dixie Highway will also be up for discussion, Seeterlin said.

The present wire fence is fall apart and consideration will be given to replacing it to preserve the century-old landmark for its historical value, he said.

Airman Is Sentenced in Haircut Hassle

Prigden of Kingstree, S. C., told the court-martial Wheeler had disobeyed a lawful order in refusing to get the short trim.

Murray Sprung of New York, Wheeler's civilian attorney, argued that "under our system, he (Wheeler) has a right to question an order . . . including the type of haircut he wanted to get."

After the verdict, Sprung said the sentence was more severe than he had expected.

Maximum penalty could have included forfeiture of two - thirds pay for six months, six month's imprisonment and a bad conduct discharge from the Air Force.

The conviction and sentence will be reviewed automatically by higher Air Force authorities. The review could reduce the sentence or order a new trial.

Sprung said Wheeler had been scheduled to be reassigned to the United States in 20 days.

The Air Force also disclosed Wheeler had been convicted by a court-martial last February of failure to report to his place of duty. On that count he was reduced from airman second class to airman third class and forfeited $50 in pay.

The "white sidewall" haircut order challenged by Wheeler was given him while he was a member of the now disbanded Far East Command honor guard in Tokyo. The guard served at flag-raising ceremonies and other military functions, Air Force officers testified the shaving of the hair above the ears of honor guard members was intended to give them a uniform appearance.

Wheeler was taken to an Air Force stockade pending the review of the conviction and sentence. The $200 fine was ordered subtracted from his pay at the rate of $50 a month for four months.

Members of the court - martial board were Lt. Col. Thad S. Strange, Union, S. C., the president; Maj. Frank E. Mitchell, Tecumseh, Neb.; Maj. Phillip Benzell, New York City; and Capt. Shubert Dingus, Kingsport, Tenn.

The Day in Birmingham

Commission to Discuss Resignation of Manager

BIRMINGHAM—Formal discussion of the resignation of City Manager Harold K. Schone will be among agenda topics at tonight's city commission meeting.

Schone announced his resignation last week to assume the post as acting head of the Oakland County Department of Public Works. In extending his thanks to the city and expressing his regrets at leaving the local post, Schone said he felt the change would be beneficial to Birmingham as well as other area communities in that his new office would include considerable work on proposed intercommunity sewer systems.

He asked commissioners to hasten the appointment of his successor so he may take over his new duties the first of next month.

Other items to come before the commission will be a street vacation hearing concerning Buckingham road and vacation of an alley running west from Edgewood between Bird street and 14 Mile road.

Commissioners also will consider a complaint of a flooded area two blocks north of 14 Mile road and immediately east of Woodward ave.

Samuel Jess

Private services were held this morning from the Manley Bailey Funeral Home for Samuel Jess, 88, of 1613 Buckingham Blvd., who died yesterday.

A native of Scotland, Mr. Jess would have been 89 tomorrow. He was a retired mining superintendent, and a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Calumet, Masonic Lodge Royal Arch Masons of Calumet, the Commandry Knights Templar and Shrine of Marquette.

He is survived by his wife Catherine, three daughters Mrs. E. Palmer Shelton of Oklahoma, Mrs. W. F. Thomas of Birmingham and Mrs. Floyd J. Barkman of Texas, a sister and a brother, both of Scotland.

Robert E. Doyle

Robert E. Doyle, 55, of 1076 Pierce St., died suddenly at his residence yesterday. A member of the Holy Name parish, he was district sales manager for the steel and tubes division of the Republic Steel of Ferndale. He was a member of the Birmingham Golf Club.

Survivors include his wife, Virginia, three children, Catherine, Nancy and Michael at home, a sister and two brothers.

Rosary Services will be at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Manley Bailey Funeral Home with funeral services in Holy Name Church at 10 a.m. Wednesday. Interment will be in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

James Gordon

Prayer services for James Gordon were held at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home at 8 p.m. yesterday with the Rev. Robert Dewey, Church officiating. Services will be held Wednesday at the Bjork Funeral Home in Ishpeming.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Gordon, 71, died at his home 1308 Davis Saturday. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and was an accountant and office manager for Stainless Wares of America of Walled Lake. He is survived by his wife Merriam and two sisters.

Find DDT Killing Fish in Union Lake

Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies, headed by Sheriff Frank W. Irons, discovered why fish have been dying in large quantities during the past few days in Union Lake.

★ ★ ★

Irons investigated the situation Saturday and today reported the fish died from a DDT compound used to spray trees in the area. compound had settled into the shallow waters, making them temporarily unsafe for small fish.

Hundreds of small fish were found floating on the surface Friday by Dr. S. A. Heyner, of 7056 Willow Rd., and his neighbor Pat McIntosh, of 7030 Willow Rd.

Dr. Heyner reported taking a wheelbarrow full of fish from the water in front of his home.

Demand Examination on Entering Charges

Charles K. Markham, 26, of 22041 Colgate St., Farmington, and Roger J. Goers, 21, of 22141 Springbrook Dr., Farmington, demanded examination on charges of breaking and entering, Saturday, before Farmington Municipal Court Judge John J. Schulte.

Both were released after furnishing bond of $1,000 each, and the date of their examinations has been set at July 26.

Unfavorable Weather Postpones Atomic Test

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—Detonation of the ninth atomic shot of the summer test series was postponed again today, until Tuesday, because of unfavorable weather conditions.

The weapon scheduled to be tested today is below nominal in size, or less powerful than the atomic bombs dropped on Japan during World War II.

$386 in Goods Stolen From Carburetor Shop

Approximately $386 in merchandise and $35 were stolen from the Tomkin's Carburetor Service, 298 Oakland Ave., after thieves pryed open the front door, police report.

Detective James F. Bale, Pontiac Police, said the merchandise included five carburetors, $100 worth of ignition points and 100 spark plugs.

Owner George Tomkins told police he discovered the break in about 8:30 this morning.

Loses Control of Car, Strikes Tree, Pole

A Farmington man, Loyal James Barber, 28, of 33679 Colfax St., was injured Saturday night when the car in which he was riding went out of control, hitting a tree and utility pole.

Harold L. Williams, 30, 3558 Alida St., Rochester, the driver, told Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies that he was blinded by the lights of an oncoming car.

Barber was treated for minor head and arm injuries, and released from Pontiac General Hospital.

Will Meet to Discuss Tri-County Airport

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — Top western Michigan city and county officials meet here Wednesday to discuss setting up an airport to serve Ottawa, Kent and Muskegon counties.

The Grand Haven Chamber of Commerce has invited officials from the three counties plus representatives from greater Muskegon, Grand Haven, Grand Rapids and Holland to attend the meeting.

Claude Verduin, chamber secretary, said "This area has a population of nearly half-a-million people, and we think this is the time for the three counties to examine the situation."

Appeal Death Sentence for 3 in Hungary Revolt

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — The secretary general of the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions today appealed to workers of the free world on behalf of three Hungarians sentenced to death for their part in last year's Hungarian uprising.

The ICFTU appeal said: Bela Laki, Jozsef Burghermeister and Attila Olah "were sentenced despite the repeated promises made by Hungarian Premier) Janos Kadar, who stated ... that no one would be punished for having participated in the revolution if he returned to work."

American Traps Snakelike Fish

LONDON (INS) — The London Daily Telegraph has reported that an American zoologist in Nigeria has caught a rare fish that rises to the surface of the water to breathe air.

A dispatch from Lagos said Herbert Axelrod of the Smithsonian Institution trapped a Calamoichthys during an expedition. He plans to send it alive to London by plane.

Only six specimens of Calamoichthys, a primitive snakelike fish, are known to have been caught alive in the past.

Maurice Bourges-Maunoury

New Premier of France Tackles Algerian Crisis

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Maurice Bourges-Maunoury, the small, shy man with a great sense of authority who has been French premier for just over a month, likes to tackle his problems head-on.

The biggest and most serious problem he inherited as chief of the 22nd post-war government was the Moslem rebellion in Algeria.

MAPPED CAMPAIGN

Convinced that 80 to 90 percent of Algerian Moslems are "for us," the brilliant 43-year-old premier mapped his campaign for ending two years of bloodshed and terror in North Africa.

Within a few weeks, phase one of the plan has been readied and cleared for action by the National Assembly vote of confidence given Bourges-Maunoury yesterday on a controversial civil rights bill.

His idea is to start dealing with the rebel at home. The assembly paved the way by approving increased police powers to allow a government crackdown on rebel agents and sympathizers among the 400,000 Algerians living in France.

The premier evolved his strategy during years of public service in 11 previous governments, the first of which he entered as a cabinet member at the age of 33.

Long before that he distinguished himself in the resistance movement during the German occupation. In 1944, 13 machine-gun bullets tore part of his back away while he was trying to make his way through German-held territory near Lyons.

A radical, Bourges-Maunoury has displayed the same caliber of political courage.

He was among the first to link the Algerian war with Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser. His charge that the French army was fighting to halt the expansionist plans of the "Egyptian dictator" led the French into the invasion of Egypt.

As minister of defense at the time of the invasion, and now as premier, Bourges-Maunoury has made it clear he'll fight fire with fire when absolutely necessary, but he holds that excesses, even in the "civil and military conflict" in Algeria, should be avoided.

Often brusque and blunt, the unsmiling premier pressed his Algerian bill equally as a deterrent to "development in France of an anarchy" and as a great hope for Algeria itself.

While the bill grants the government power to take all "exceptional measures" required to keep order, it also pledges a program of "economic expansion, social progress and administrative reform."

State Agencies Due for General Review

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams has called for a general review of employment practices in all state agencies.

Williams scheduled a conference of state department heads for Aug. 6 to talk over the situation.

Among other matters, he said, they would discuss the impact of the Fair Employment Practices Act on state employment.

He noted that a civil service commission directive issued April 2 implemented the law in all state agencies.

"In view of this directive and the fact that the fair employment practices commission has been in operation 19 months," he said, "it seems time that a check was made to determine if every possible step is being taken to implement the spirit and letter of the law in state government."

Tree Has Crying Jag Since Spring Rains

DALLAS (AP)—A tree on a crying jag helps keep the W. S. Werners cool.

Branches of the redbud tree spurt tiny jets of a clear liquid. Werner said from a distance it "looks like a fine mist." The branches produce droplets which look similar to "large tears," he said.

A nurseryman, Werner said, told him the trunk may have loaded up on water during the heavy spring rains.

Valley Forge Is an Ideal Location

Returning from the National Jamboree at Valley Forge, the Boy Scouts of our own Clinton Valley Council not only experienced an outing they never will forget, but got it in intimate touch with one of our nation's most hallowed historical shrines.

Their locale was one of the best on the grounds. They were camped almost within a stone's throw of some of the cabins where the heroes who won our independence spent a gruesome winter, and where George Washington later designated as the one spot in the Revolution where he almost lost heart.

No Michigan delegation had a better location than Clinton Valley. Its unique, original and truly representative entrance dominated anything in the Region Seven area, composed of over 6,000 Scouts from Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan. It was the only entrance to tell the local story in detail, both in word and illustration.

Inquiry as to the location of any council in the region generally brought a response as to their direction from Clinton Valley.

Our tents were in perfect order, the chow accomodations were tops, a general spirit of good will prevailed, and the men in charge quickly ferreted out a homesick boy and put him at ease. They made him one of the gang.

★ ★ ★

The natural amphitheater for the opening pageant at the Jamboree very comfortably accomodated the 55,000 Scouts and the thousands of special guests, and everybody had a good seat — on the ground — with an unobstructed view of the enormous stage. The world never before had such a gathering.

The ground was covered with grass, and was not a dust bowl, as was the case at the last Jamboree which was held near Los Angeles.

Held every three or four years, this was the second time that Valley Forge has been the site for the Jamboree. On both occasions the entire Philadelphia area went all out. Nothing was overlooked.

While its geographical location is not conducive to the fostering of a large attendance from the western states. it would seem that Valley Forge should be the site for at least one-half of the future get togethers of the largest youth and manhood building organization in our nation.

★ ★ ★

Regardless of where it may be held, it is assured that our own Clinton Valley Council will be there in the full numbers of our quota, which this time was filled several months in advance. And we know of Cub Scouts who already are saving their pennies, in order to be ready to grab this great opportunity as soon as it is offered.

Manpower Report

A final report of the National Security Training Commission headed by Brig. Gen. Sarnoff, gives a hopeful picture of the military manpower setup.

The Commission says the military reserve training program is a success. Before World War II the U.S. had 400,000 men in the reserves. Now there are about 2.5 million ready reservists, of whom one million are in active pay status, plus 700,000 standby reservists.

The Army Reserve and the National Guard total 678,000, an all time high. A year ago enlistments for six months' active duty with a long period in the reserves, were only 1,000 a month. Last April they had grown to 4,000 a week.

★ ★ ★

Now that recruitment is adequate, leadership and training must keep pace with military developments. This is where our greatest weakness appears. Some of the best officers and enlisted men return to civilian life because pay is not geared to talent but to seniority. Thus the cost of their training and their services are lost to the country.

In the Cordiner study of this loss, it was pointed out that offering incentive pay to specialists would allow savings of up to $5 billion by 1962 or before. The necessity for training new men in critical technical skills to take the place of those who leave the service, would be eliminated.

The report also stressed the fact that 500,000 men had to be kept constantly in training to maintain a flow of skilled men for effective combat and support force of 2.3 million. This, of course, is due to the loss of skilled personnel on completion of the service period—only 10 per cent of the "expensive-to-train-skills" re-enlist.

Defense Secretary Wilson said legislative proposals to implement changes had been worked out carefully after discussions with President Eisenhower and had the unanimous approval of service secretaries and the Chiefs of Staff.

Why, then, is Congress ignoring this essential step in improving the balance of personnel skills and experience in the armed forces?

David Lawrence Says:

Civil Rights: History Repeats Itself

WASHINGTON — Three words—"Lest We Forget"—might well be included conspicuously among the millions of words being recorded in the Senate debate on the so-called "civil rights" bill.

LAWRENCE

Will history repeat itself, and will Congress again tamper with the machinery of local elections under the guise of protecting the right to vote? Senator Allen J. Ellender of Louisiana, Democrat, in his speech in the Senate the other day, referred to comprehensive reports to the House of Representatives by its own committees in 1893 which tell the shocking story of what Federal intervention in local elections means and why Congress repealed then the very same type of statutes now being proposed for passage.

There is a significant analogy to present-day events. The Federal intervention took place not alone in the South, but in other regions, under laws—known as "force bills"—passed in the emotional days that followed the war between the states.

Federal agents and deputy marshals and supervisors were appointed to guard local elections—to insure "purity of the ballot." Scandals ensued. The House of Representatives chose the New York city area to examine how these laws were being applied. Here in part is what the investigating committee formally reported to the House on January 27, 1893:

DID NO GOOD—IN 1893

"Your committee, after a very careful study of the operations of the Federal election laws before election and on election day in the City of New York, are of the opinion that all of these laws have entirely failed to produce any good results in the direction of the purity of elections or the protection of the ballot box, and have been productive of such serious and dangerous results that they ought at once to be repealed."

Later in the year, a report was submitted to the House by the committee to which the various bills for the repeal of the statutes had been referred. It said:

"How then can the United States, marshals . . . scrutinize the registration—a condition of suffrage in many of the states—when the right of suffrage emanates from the state itself and the state alone can determine it? . . .

★ ★ ★

"Finally, these statutes should be speedily repealed because they mix state and Federal authority and power in the control and regulation of popular elections, thereby causing jealousy and friction between the two governments; because they have been used and will be used in the future as a part of the machinery of a political party to reward friends and destroy enemies; because under the practical operations of them the personal rights of citizens have been taken from them and justice and freedom denied them; because their enactment shows a distrust of the states, and their inability or indisposition to properly guard the elections, which, if ever true, has now happily passed away."

This report emphasized that the wording of the Constitution gives only the state legislatures the right to prescribe the qualifications of voters. Congress was impressed and repealed the laws.

Today a majority in Congress are proposing to set up a civil rights commission with the power of subpoena, and also a civil rights division in the Department of Justice which is to have the use of tens of thousands of FBI agents in getting evidence for prosecution.

If the Federal government goes into the business of inquisition or supervision, one political party or the other will find it advantageous to demand that the machinery of inspection be used to its own advantage. The end result will be the same as it was 65 years ago.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Need Water, Vitamins During Heat, Humidity

June 17 was a warm day. There were rumors of temperatures as high as 95 to 100 here and there, and these rumors demoralized most of the country so much that many citizens remained in the shade while some hardy souls exercised as usual — no casualties.

DR. BRADY

But it is only fair to say that a temperature of 87 or 90 is harder to endure in the Northeast than a temperature of 95 or 100 in the Southwest, because "it isn't the heat, it's the humidity.

★ ★ ★

One, and perhaps the main reason why very hot weather is harder to endure in the Northeast than in the Southwest is that sweat evaporates rapidly in dry air, slowly in humid air. Evaporation of water from the skin surface of a porous water bag cools water in the bag.

One who is at all active in hot weather naturally sweats profusely. This excessive sweating is obvious if the atmosphere is humid and scarcely noticeable if the atmosphere is dry.

Walking, working, playing in very hot weather, one may lose pounds of weight in an hour or two—the weight of the water lost in sweat. The weight is restored in an equally short time by drinking water to satisfy thirst.

DON'T RESTRICT INTAKE

It is practically impossible and certainly unwise to attempt to maintain such weight reduction by restricting water intake.

When sweating is profuse, whether from hot weather or from vigorous exertion or both, it is well to remember that not only water but also salt and some vitamins—particularly the B vitamins—are lost in sweat.

Therefore one should take some salt, say five grains, with every pint of water or other liquid taken for refreshment. Also some B vitamins, in addition to the B vitamins (usually inadequate) one gets in food.

★ ★ ★

At my favorite bowling green, there is a refrigerator and a supply of ice water. Out on the walk between the greens there is a drinking font. In very hot weather a drink from the font is, in my judgment, intolerable, when I know ice water is on tap just a few steps away.

But my preference for ice water is not shared by many—I'm not quite sure whether they fear ice water might cause some dreadful stroke or interfere with digestion or maybe close the pores.

Oddly enough, some of the men who will not take ice water do not hesitate to drop coins into the dispenser for ice cold pop! They seem to think that doctoring up ice water makes it healthful.

★ ★ ★

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Praises Girls for Kindness

A fine group of girls from Bell Telephone brought great joy to the heart of Mrs. Emaline Leonard, 124 Henry Clay, who celebrated her 98th birthday yesterday.

These girls, who have been assiting Mrs. Leonard for many years in making her telephone calls, telling her the time of day and so forth, planned a beautiful birthday party at her home. They knew her on the phone, but wanted to see and know this remarkable lady who has retained so much alertness of mind and fire of spirit. She demonstrated her ability to sing and to tell stories that provoked hearty laughs.

I wish to pay the highest compliments to the telephone company in staffing its organization with young girls and men who have not only efficiency, but who are so highly endowed with those qualities that brought happiness to Mrs. Leonard that will remain with her as long as she lives and that make everyday life a thing of beauty.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Shift of Scene Shatters Illusion

Frank fell in love at first sight with a night club dancer. She cast almost a hypnotic spell over him. He thought she was angelic, though his relatives and friends all realized she was wholly unsuited to him as a wife. So how could they shatter the spell which Rita unwittingly wielded over Frank? Scrapbook this case for future use.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case V-343: Frank G., aged 24, is madly in love.

★ ★ ★

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, he has become infatuated with a girl named Rita," his brother informed me.

"He met her at a night club where she was a dancer. She is a good looking girl but entirely unsuited to Frank.

"Everybody realizes he is making a tragic mistake in thinking of marrying her. But what can we do?

"They have the odds against them, for they are of radically different religious backgrounds. She is also of a different race and drinks liquor like a fish.

"But Frank is so crazy about her he can't see a single defect in the girl. He actually moons around as if she were an angel."

"Dr. Crane, how can you treat a case of mad infatuation?"

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT

Frank later informed me he had fallen in love with Rita at first sight.

"As soon as she came out for her dance number, she passed my table and smiled at me," he confessed.

"Well, Dr. Crane, my heart turned over and I have been hypnotized by her ever since. I think she is wonderful."

In sales psychology we often recommend the "Yes, but" technique. This means it is helpful to "Yes" such a person along for the time being, so you can retain his confidence.

"But" meanwhile quietly set the stage so he can get a new perspective.

★ ★ ★

"Yes, Rita sounds very exciting," I admitted, "but why don't you invite her to spend a week or two at your home so she can get better acquainted with your family?"

SHIFT OF SCENES

Frank thought that was a great idea, and his mother invited Rita to visit them.

Frank's parents treated her graciously, so Frank felt no need to go to Rita's defense, and that is an important point.

For when parents criticize their child's choice of a sweetheart, then that child launches upon a vigorous defense.

And the more he recites the praises of his girl friend, the more he actually believes his own sales talk.

"Reputation is repetition," runs a truism from the realm of Applied Psychology. This applies to sales speeches about sweethearts as well as about automobiles or life insurance policies.

★ ★ ★

Rita felt somewhat constrained in Frank's cultured home, but she tried to put her best foot forward.

However, her talk was occasionally rather coarse and out of place, although it had seemed OK in the night club where Frank had met her.

HOW TO BREAK A SPELL

Love at first sight is almost hypnotic in the spell it will create. But one of the best antidotes is to let the magician break his or her own spell.

Since Rita was the sorceress who unwittingly captivated Frank's heart, it was well for his family and friends to let Rita shatter her own halo.

This is best accomplished by thus shifting her from her own background and then letting her perform against Frank's home environment.

In hypnosis, nobody else can take the place of the hypnotist until the latter wills it so.

★ ★ ★

And in trying to shatter "love hypnosis," which is approximately what love at first sight amounts to, it is likewise difficult for outsiders to dislodge the one who wields the love magic.

See tomorrow's dramatic follow-up of this case.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Midwestern Pigeon Reacts Just as Women Do

New York Casts Spell on Females

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — In some ways pigeons are similar to people (this statement may be resented by some people and more than a few pigeons), and the fact was clearly illustrated recently.

A female homing pigeon, allegedly with instincts for Chicago—not to mention a two-egg family in the suburbs there—had a tussle with her conscience in New York.

For more than two hours after she was let loose by her owner at Idlewild Airport at 6 o'clock one lovely morning, "Triple Streak"—that's her name and she probably hates it—sat on a 100-foot light tower. Presumably thinking about things like her responsibilities back in Chi.

Dully, she watched while her two male companions, "Blue Streak" and "Red Streak," wheeled around the field once and then headed back to their duties in the Midwest.

* * *

But "Triple Streak" was not about to leave yet. Maybe, you would think, she hates air travel, and it's 725 miles to Chicago as the crow or pigeon flies.

FLING ON THE TOWN

Much more feasible is the notion that this little 3-year-old hen, a small-town female who had never been around, except suburbs, was wrestling with the idea of having a fling or a waddle, on the town.

* * *

The very fact she selected that particular tower to perch and ponder upon is indicative.

She liked the bright lights.

Well, fortunately for the gentler side of this big city, many thousands of women have felt much as "Triple Streak" did, during the last few decades.

New York is a city that gets under the skin of certain types of females, and itches. It is not altogether a comfortable feeling—New York doesn't pretend to be placid and content-making—but it is stimulating.

* * *

When you itch, you scratch; and when you scratch, you tingle; and that's what the bright lights do to women and hens. Make them tingle.

MOTHER BEWARE

The business side of New York is a man's world, basically, but the glamor side is all for the femmes. The dim-lit bistros, the penthouses, the hidden gardens, the skyline at dusk, the minks, the splashy signs on Times Square, the Central Park hackies: Put them all together, they spell, "Mother beware. New York will really get you if you don't watch out."

There undoubtedly are more Midwestern women living in New York now than there are native New York women.

Most of them are from towns no larger than Berwyn, the Chicago suburb which "Triple Streak" comes and coos from, where the air is clean and the organdy curtains hang starched and there is plenty of time for dreaming.

The men? Well, there are probably more Midwest men here too, than native New Yorkers. But they are here to make money or names for themselves and they tend, as quickly as feasible, to move their families out to suburbs where the air is clean and the organdy curtains hang starched.

Hal Boyle Says:

He Prospers Giving Away Money

NEW YORK (AP)—Bernard Spero is a man who became rich by giving money away.

★ ★ ★

"I may be a crazy idealist," said Spero, a 63-year-old Chicago business executive, "but I've had the privilege of living a life I believe in—and most people don't get that privilege."

Spero is head of House of Vision, Inc., a Midwest optical firm with 23 branches in five states. His "crazy idealism" has consisted of a profit sharing plan under which he has given away 49 per cent of his firm to his employes.

The firm was small and debt ridden and doing only about $90,000 worth of business a year in 1924 when Spero, a young engineer, took it over. It had doubled its volume by 1938 when Spero decided to distribute 24 per cent of the stock to key employes as a bonus, and to donate another 25 per cent into a trust fund to benefit all employes.

"I had several reasons for doing this," he recalled. "One was selfish. I wanted to build a good organization, and I decided that a human being, since he is a flexible organism, would work twice as hard if he felt he was really getting what was coming to him—and not just a living wage.

"Another reason was my feeling that a man who puts a lifetime into helping build a business really deserves something more than a gold watch after 25 years."

Spero's employes contribute 2 per cent of their salary to the fund. The fund itself, in addition to its share of the dividends, gets 20 per cent of the firm's net earnings before taxes. The firm grossed nearly four million dollars in 1956.

★ ★ ★

Business has mushroomed the value of the employes' fund with these typical results:

A parapiegic worker who joined the firm in 1944 and gets $90 a week has paid into the fund only $800, but his share is now $12,600.

A $500 a month bookkeeper has contributed $645 to the fund since 1950 but her share now amounts to $7,932.

An $8 a week messenger boy who rose to become a branch manager has paid $2,474 into the fund since 1939 but now has a stake of $41,411. If the firm continues its present growth, in another 10 years his stake will amount to $150,000 or more.

Spero rewards key employes with annual bonuses, but to keep executives "from hogging the fund" limits their share in it by restricting their contributions to 2 per cent of their first $10,000 in salary.

He applies the same rule to himself. While he has the largest share in the fund, it comes to only $68,000.

Spero is hopeful that other firms will adopt similar profit sharing plans because "they would help to make all business sound and healthy.

"This system is an answer to many of our economic problems. It is one way small business can prosper, compete with big business, and keep peace between labor and management."

★ ★ ★

Although Spero still owns 51 per cent of his firm, he has pledged that in the event of his death or retirement his survivors will retain only 12½ per cent of the stock, leaving his employes the opportunity to buy actual control.

This, he feels, is a good thing, too.

"I don't think you do people a favor by leaving them too much money," observed the slender, wiry haired executive, who has two grown children. "I've seen too many kids spoiled by inherited money.

"I've also seen lots of fine firms ruined by family control of the business after the founder died. It's better to leave a small part of a sound business to your family than control of a big business turning sour. In the end the employes who helped build a business ought to have the chance to take it over."

★ ★ ★

Then Spero, a business philosopher who rarely likes to get sentimental, observed:

"One of the best things about this whole idea is the feeling I have that the employes regard me as a friend. You know, over the years, that counts for a lot."

Youths Heading for Red Festival

Some Nations Forbid Attending; U.S. Calls It Communist Propaganda

LONDON (AP) — Hundreds of youths from points around the world headed for a festival in Moscow today but some of those who stayed home attracted more attention.

The Communist party youth paper Komsomolskaya Pravda criticized some nations that it said had discouraged or even forbidden attendance at the youth festival.

★ ★ ★

The festival, one of a series in odd-numbered years, begins next Sunday and ends Aug. 11. The U.S. State Department has called it "an instrument of Communist propaganda."

A party of 400 French young people sailed from Le Havre yesterday on the Soviet steamer Baltika. A surprise late addition to the party was Maurice Thorez, veteran Communist strongman and secretary general of the French Communist party.

★ ★ ★

A group of 15 students, teachers and musicians flew from New York after defection of another member, 16-year-old San Francisco pianist Maureen Lundroth.

Miss Lundroth said, "I made my decision when I found out all about the festival." Her mother had telephoned her not to go after reading the State Department's comment.

The secretary of the U.S. Youth Festival Committee, Barbara Perry, 22, said before departing that she was not a Communist. "If we want peace and understanding with the Russians, how are we going to understand the without meeting them?" she said.

★ ★ ★

The Communist youth paper was quoted by Radio Moscow as saying Pakistan, Japan, West Germany, Argentina, Thailand and the Sudan "are afraid" to send youths.

"Where is the danger?" the paper asked. ". . . We do not fear comparison.

"Our country, slandered by its enemies a hundred times, is boldly opening the doors and ready to show its way of life."

Junior Editors Quiz on DRAGONS

QUESTION: Are there dragons alive today?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Yes, indeed, although modern dragons are not quite like those of legend.

Storybook dragons, which never really existed, lived in caves, breathed fire, devoured maidens and fought brave knights.

Modern dragons, for such they are called, are the great lizards on the island of Komodo, in Indonesia, They are the largest of a family of reptiles that include chameleons and the little lizards that live in gardens in some parts of the country.

These dragon lizards of Komodo grow ten or twelve feet long, weigh over 200 pounds. Their tails can strike a serious blow, but they're not nearly as fierce as they look.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Look in pet shops for chameleons, or in gardens for little lizards. Also color this picture, making the dragon lizard brown, paste it on cardboard, cut out around the edge, and fold on dotted line to stand up.

Post Armed Guards at Liberace Homes

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The San Fernando Valley homes of pianist Liberace and his two brothers are being watched by armed guards.

★ ★ ★

The guards have been posted as a result of the attack made last Thursday night on the pianist's mother Mrs. Frances Liberace Casadonte. She said two big men jumped on her and beat her unconscious on the service porch of Liberace's home. She is in a hospital.

★ ★ ★

Liberace's attorney John R. Jacobs Jr. said the guards were posted at the home of the pianist and his brothers George and Rudy because "we can't take a chance." He added: "You don't know how to combat something you don't understand. What else can we do?"

Plane Canopy Crashes Into Residential Area

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A metal and plastic plane canopy from an Air National Guard F98 jet interceptor plane crashed into a residential neighborhood in suburban Havertown yesterday.

The canopy narrowly missed several homes and buried itself in a mound of dirt in the midst of a new housing development. It fell about 50 yards from the nearest dwelling.

The pilot, Lt. Mark Pfeiffer, said the covering ripped loose as he was making his long distance approach to International Airport. He landed safely.

Horror Lingers On in Louisiana

Still Counting Hurricane's Casualties

LAKE CHARLES, La., July 20 (AP)—In the still lingering horror of Hurricane Audrey the cold accounting takes place. The dead and missing: over 500. The dollar loss: over 40 million.

Sheriff Henry Reid, in his latest report on the ravaged Cameron area, said 328 bodies had been recovered and 190 persons reported missing. The missing total probably is larger. Whole families may have drowned. Transient workers ay have drowned. Unless their bodies turn up, they will not be reported.

★ ★ ★

There were other deaths outside of Cameron Parish. At least five died elsewhere in Louisiana. Texas reported 11 deaths, including nine who drowned when a boat sank offshore.

The biggest money loss involved Louisiana crops. Sidney J. McCrory, Louisiana agriculture commissioner, estimated the state crop loss at 26 million dollars.

The General Adjustment Bureau, Inc., which handles insurance claims, said the June 27 hurricane brought 50,000 claims. This meant a total loss of 11 million dollars in insured property.

In the Cameron area, 600 buildings were destroyed. Also heavily damaged were the oil well rigs in the Gulf of Mexico. Some estimates place these damages between three and five million dollars.

McCrory also placed the state livestock loss at 35,000, valued at ore than two million dollars.

In Texas, hurricane Audrey did little farm and range damage. There was little harm to livestock and crops. The rice crop was not far enough advanced to be hurt.

But the Texas Department of Public Safety estimated property damage at six million dollars, with Beaumont, Port Arthur and Orange receiving about one million dollars damage each. The General Adjustment Bureau said the insured property that was lost totalled $1,500,000.

Happiness Eludes the Queen of Iran

In June 1950 dark-eyed and lovely Soraya Esfandiary-Bakhtiary was a carefree schoolgirl in London. Nine months later, she was Queen of Iran, the wife of Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi. The tale of how these two met and fell in love is straight out of a story book. But despite their love, happiness eludes them. Here, in the first of three articles, begins their story.)

By CHARLES WIGHTON
(International News Service)

Doctors in a half-dozen countries have tried to find the answer to a question upon which depends the success or failure of one of the greatest royal love matches of the century.

The 36-year-old Shah of Iran has told them he must know why he and Soraya, his lovely 25-year-old wife, have had no children.

For a crisis is boiling up in Iran over the absence of a royal heir.

Rumors of a divorce have been rife for some time. Soraya has told her friends: "They are just nonsense. The Shah loves me just as much as I love him."

Now the Shah's family and the Moslem priesthood are urging him to take another wife.

As a Moslem, he can legally have four wives. But he knows that that would break Soraya's heart. And so great is their love that he cannot bear to do that.

Soraya, determined to save her marriage, has seen many specialists. Last year one, a Russian, said he could find no reason why she could not have children. He suggested that perhaps the Shah—although he is the father of a 16-year-old daughter by his first marriage to Farouk's sister — was to blame.

So now they have both volunteered to undergo clinical tests and Kinsey-like probing into their intimate life in a desperate attempt to save their marriage.

The story behind this royal romance began in London in June, 1950. Dark and rather plump, 18-year-old Soraya Esfandiary-Bakhtiary — daughter of a beautiful German blonde and a Persian nobleman diplomat—was at a finishing school.

One morning she received a letter from her mother saying that the Shah's eldest sister, Princess Schams, was arriving in London and that it was likely Soraya would be invited to call on her.

Soon another letter came. It was an invitation to have tea with Princess Schams in her suite at the Savoy Hotel.

Soon after four the following afternoon Soraya presented herself at the reception desk of the Savoy and asked for Princess Schams.

As she was shown into the princess' sitting-room, she curtsied and started to say: "Your Royal Highness. This is a great honor . . ."

The princess, dark, good-looking and in her late twenties, quickly cut Soraya short, saying:

"We are both strangers here in London, and we are both Persians. Don't let us stand on ceremony. I am going to call you Soraya, and you will call me Schams."

Soraya was entranced and soon the two girls were chatting spiritedly about London.

Soraya was hardly out of the hotel when Princess Schams booked a call to the Royal Palace in Tehran. There the Shah was waiting.

"Well, Schams," he said, "What is she like? Is she as beautiful as her picture?"

"She is far more beautiful," answered the princess. "And she is clever too. She is definitely the most attractive girl I have ever met."

The Princess told of their chat and finally the Shah said, "So you are going out with her tomorrow. All right, I'll call you tomorrow night for a report. But be careful, Schams—go slow and don't on any account alarm her."

As Soraya talked excitedly with school chums that evening about her new friend she did not know that their meeting had been planned with the purpose of bringing her and the Shah together.

The Shah told Princess Schams to get Soraya a complete outfit from Dior in Paris. He would foot the bill, but Soraya must be told that everything was a gift from the Princess.

So over lunch the Princess suggested to Soraya that they should go to Paris.

Two days later the two girls were installed in a suite in Paris' Hotel Crillon. Each morning the Shah phoned his sister to hear more about Soraya.

One day early in July the two girls were at breakfast when his call came unexpectedly early.

The Princess answered, and looking at Soraya, said: "Yes, Machmed, she's here . . . we're having breakfast together."

"What does she look like, Schams?" asked the Shah in Tehran. The Princess looked at Soraya who by this time had realized that Schams was talking to her brother about her.

"She's blushing Machmed—like a rose," laughed Schams, "and she looks prettier than ever."

The modest Soraya turned scarlet with embarrassment and rushed from the room in confusion.

After the call the Princess led the half-angry, half-curious Soraya back to the breakfast table.

"There's no use pretending any more, Raya," she said. "My brother saw your photograph and he was fascinated. He sent me all the way to Europe to see you . . . and Raya . . . I think he wants to marry you."

Soraya, weeping, angry and half-hysterical, fled back to her room. As she flopped on to her bed the thoughts must have raced through her mind . . . she . . . an 18-year-old girl . . . to marry a man she had never seen . . . He was king of Iran . . . And she was to be Queen. Half - sobbing, she eventually fell asleep.

(Tomorrow: Soraya and the Shah meet)

MRS. DONN R. SHELTON

To reside in Pontiac are Mr. and Mrs. Donn Raymel Shelton who were married Saturday. The bride, the former Barbra Ann Zuege, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David O. Zuege. Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Shelton are Donn's parents.

Couple to Live in Pontiac Following Milwaukee Rite

A chapel-length gown fashioned with a chiffon taffeta bodice and tulle skirt was worn by Barbra Ann Zuege for her marriage Saturday to Donn Raymel Shelton. A taffeta apron outlined with Chantilly lace accented the skirt.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was secured by a lace shell hat embroidered with seed pearls, and she carried a cluster of orchids, stephanotis and carnations.

The Rev. Thomas B. Lyter of Washington Park Presbyterian Church in Milwaukee, Wis., performed the 7 o'clock ceremony in Bethel Evangelical and Reformed Church of Milwaukee.

BRIDAL ATTENDANTS

Barbra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David C. Zuege of Wauwatosa, Wis., asked her sister, Mrs. Jack Kole, to serve as matron of honor. May Nellingan of Lansing and Kim McIver of Brimley were bridesmaids.

★ ★ ★

The attendants were gowned alike in waltz-length dresses of white eyelet over powder blue taffeta. Cummerbunds of blue taffeta accented the waistlines of the gowns.

Blue and white carnations and Eucharist lilies arranged on white lace fans were carried by the attendants.

Donn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Shelton of Detroit, was attended by Larry Kobylarz as best man. Seating the guests were Mario Conteras of Detroit, David Zuege of Wauwatosa, Wis., brother of the bride, Jack Kole of Wauwatosa and 2nd Lt. Edward C. Pardon of Ann Arbor.

RECEPTION FOLLOWS

A reception was held at the Wauwatosa Women's Club following the ceremony.

The newlyweds will reside in Pontiac following a wedding trip through northern Wisconsin and Michigan.

Both are graduates of Michigan State University School of Journalism. The bride is affiliated with Mortar Board, Theta Sigma Phi, Kappa Tau Alpha and Alpha Xi Delta sororities. Donn is a member of Sigma Delta Chi and Excalibur.

Keep Supply of Canned Food Handy

CHICAGO (INS) — Dress up a pickup meal and it will hit the spot on a hot, sticky day.

For example, a lazy susan can make an assortment of iced fruit, cold cuts and garden relishes look pretty instead of haphazard.

From the revolving tray, the family can choose individual fixing to make a base of crisp salad greens more rib-sticking. Round out the meal with soup and dessert.

Look ahead to days that will be sizzlers when spur-of-the-moment meals are the only spur left to appetites. Keep a supply of foods like canned ham, luncheon meat, beans, spaghetti, anything which can be eaten either cold or quickly heated to fit the taste buds.

Also, keep canned fruits as well as fresh fruits in the refrigerator for summertime meals. Fruits can serve as the focal point of a light meal with soup and a sandwich or start off a heartier meal.

The latest trick of home economists is to slice an assortment of fresh fruit—for example bananas, pineapple and apples—into a dish and cover with a carbonated beverage. The soda water helps keep the fruit crisp, helps to slow down discoloration and adds a tangy flavor.

Your favorite casseroles will come in handy for summertime meals, too, if they can be prepared in advance, stored in the refrigerator and then popped into the oven for supertime. That way your family will have a hot meal and you can avoid feeling as if you were cooked along with it.

She's Glad to Be Going Back Home

But Stay in Capital Was Interesting for Mrs. Humphrey

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON—Mrs. George Humphrey, wife of the retiring secretary of the Treasury, isn't concerned about the problems of moving their Washington household belongings back to their home near Cleveland, Ohio.

★ ★ ★

"It's not too difficult when you're moving back to a place you've lived in some 25 or 30 years," she explained. "I haven't even started packing."

VERY REWARDING

Gentle-voiced, friendly and unassuming Pam Humphrey, one of the most popular of the Cabinet wives, says their stay here has been a "very rewarding experience."

★ ★ ★

"But I can't honestly say I'm sorry to be going back to my family," she admitted, "and it certainly will be easier than living half in one place and half in another."

Mrs. Humphrey says they will remain in Washington until Congress adjourns, making only occasional weekend visits to Holiday Hill, their farm near Cleveland. Their three children and eight grandchildren all live nearby.

★ ★ ★

"It's lovely in Cleveland in the summer," she said wistfully, "but, except for brief visits, we've spent most of our summers here. As you know my husband has been kept very busy."

Pearl S. Buck Won't Retire--Not at 65!

By OLGA CURTIS
INS Women's Editor

NEW YORK (INS) — America's greatest woman novelist, Pearl S. Buck, is "starting a new life" at 65.

"I'm not retiring," smiled the author of "The Good Earth" and some 45 other books. "When you're self-employed, you have to keep on working."

"But I'm starting a new life. I'm writing plays for the first time. And I'm writing different books; I'll always have China in my books, but the new ones will be centered in the United States."

Miss Buck, the only American woman ever honored with both the Pulitzer and the Nobel prizes, told International News Service her "after 65" plans for writing and living in a rare exclusive interview.

She's a big woman with long white hair twisted into a bun, green - blue eyes and regal pose, but she talked as shyly as a novice might about her coming debut as a playwright.

"I have one original play with an American background scheduled for Broadway this fall," she said. "Another original play about China is going to be produced off-Broadway in October. And I'm also writing a musical based on a story of India."

With unbelievable energy, Miss Buck is at the same time writing a new novel, running a 400-acre Pennsylvania farm and an 18-room house, tending her family and continuing her work for retarded children and orphans of mixed blood. For relaxation at her Bucks County home, she prunes roses, plays the piano or the organ and cooks Chinese foods.

"I don't spend any time on anything I don't like," she claims. "That's the secret of my enjoyment of life."

Children rank first on the list of what Miss Buck enjoys in life. She's had 11 of them—two daughters from her first marriage to missionary John L. Buck, three stepchildren from her present marriage to publisher Richard J. Walsh, and six adopted children, the youngest a Chinese girl of 11.

"Only the children are allowed to disturb me when I'm working," Miss Buck laughed. "I usually get up early, about 6 a.m. I start working about 8 a.m. and keep working without interruption until 1 p.m. Afternoons usually I answer mail and take care of the farm business.

"I'm a serious worker. I won't even take phone calls until 1 p.m. but the children can come in anytime."

Her love of children also explains her two pet projects. She says simply:

"Children of mixed blood need to be adopted. Any child should be adopted by the persons who most want him and can take best care of him, not by the old tradition of matching up religions and races.

"As for retarded children, my eldest child was retarded. I know how much we need research into the causes, so that we need not have as many retarded children born."

Mrs. Buck hopes "to see a great deal of progress in the next 10 years" not only on behalf of children, but on behalf of women.

"I believe in women," she smiled. "Especially the women of the United States. But they're in a transitional stage; just beginning to think of themselves as citizens and human beings. They're fearful of responsibilities beyond family and home, but they must take on those other responsibilities for themselves and their communities."

The novelist does not believe responsibility means "running in groups or doing ineffectual work." She explained:

"I think instead of working to collect money for charity, for instance, women should put their energy into working for laws and conditions that would eliminate the need for charity."

"Every woman should do what she does best," Miss Buck added.

The best-selling author said "competition is so meaningless" to her that she doesn't even keep a count of her writings.

"I write them and forget them," she laughed, admitting that when her newest book, "Letter to Peking," was snapped up by Warner's for a movie, she didn't even take a morning out from the play she was writing.

The latest novel, like her other works, involves China, where she spent 40 of her 65 years.

Born Pearl Sydenstricker in Hillsboro, W. Va., on June 26th, 1892, the writer was taken to China as a child by her missionary parents. She herself was a missionary for many years, and did not return to the U. S. until she was in her 40s.

Miss Buck has no plans now for visiting China.

"I haven't been in China for 20 years," she said, "What with war, and Communism.

Tap Those Hidden Springs of Talent Before They Dry Up

Use Imagination to Make Life Colorful

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Lack of imagination and a lowered state of energy limit us and can make life dull and boring. It is our approach to life, our mental outlook, which paints daily existence in vivid colors or reduces it to sameness.

★ ★ ★

One person will be acutely aware of the mood of each season, will find humor and inspiration in little happenings which occur daily and lift life out of humdrumness, while another in the same spot will fret, completely immune to the drama and humor, the poignancy and whimsy with which we are all surrounded.

We can dream about castles in Spain and still find living dull unless we bring awareness and perception to the picture.

Perhaps you don't have a castle in Spain. Maybe you cannot even afford to take a vacation trip of any sort this summer. You still can dream. The scope of the mind and spirit is limitless.

★ ★ ★

Why not learn all about that city or country you long to visit while you wait to accumulate the essential cash? This is entirely possible and lots of fun. There are books and reference libraries and courses in art and music and history to explore.

You are NOT too old to take up a new sport. There is something revitalizing about mastering a new medium.

Why not put your dreams into action? Write that story even though you may not sell it. Learn to play a musical instrument even though you never cut a record. Take that course in dancing even though you will never be behind the footlights. There is something revitalizing about expressing oneself in a new medium.

★ ★ ★

Develop talents which have been put aside because of the pressure of responsibilities. Even if you do not have talent, invest in that flair or interest you always have held.

Don't let life settle into the rut of sameness because of inertia, or thinking you are too old, or because of self-consciousness. Tap those hidden springs before they dry up.

If you would like to have my leaflet "Individual Happiness," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 65 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Today much is required for vibrant living. I have written before about my five C's which are so emphasized today. They are Courage, Color, Calisthenics, Clothes and Cooking. If a woman is proficient in these she is almost certain to be attractive and to enjoy life.

It is always hard to weave one's way between old and trusted standards and new ideas, to tell the true from the faddish, to hold to familiar values and yet discard those which are outmoded and never had much meaning anyway.

Courage always will be an essential ingredient of vibrant living. Clothing is no longer thought of just as a covering but as an adjunct of personality and physical attractiveness. Exercise is a proven health promoter and figure beautifier.

Cooking is a highly developed art, not only from the gourmet's viewpoint but from that of fine nutrition. We now know that color can make a great difference in the way we look and also in the way we feel.

★ ★ ★

There is so much information today about adequate nourishment, beauty care, the art of clothes styling and makeup, and figure molding exercises, and there are so many avenues of accomplishment open to women today. We should take advantage of all of these.

CONSIDER COURAGE

Today let us consider courage. It takes courage to create a good figure, to lose weight, to grasp opportunity when it arrives, to build happiness or success. There is no such thing as a magnetic and sparkling personality without this characteristic.

★ ★ ★

If the mind and spirit are tied down with myriad petty fears, this results in shyness and a lack of humor and keen interest. Courage lifts the corners of the mouth, brightens the eyes, improves posture and makes life exciting.

We always salute courage when we meet it, whether it be a man or woman sticking with a hard day-by-day job, or an act of heroism as shown in war.

Women naturally are courageous as evidenced by their ability to stand pain and to stick by those they love through thick and thin. Their crusades for better living conditions and for justice also reflect their courage. Yet many women who rise to heights in a crisis are not brave in their daily lives.

★ ★ ★

Their wish for security may make them marry the wrong man or fail to take advantage of their opportunities for new activities and interests. They would rush into a blazing house to save a child and yet worry about what Mrs. So and So says about them.

VITALLY ALIVE

The more courage we can bring to our daily living the more vitally alive we will be!

If you would like to have my leaflet "How to Overcome Loneliness and Self-Consciousness" send a stamped, self-addressed, envelope with your request for leaflet No. 59 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Tomorrow: "More About the Other Important C's."

Frets About Relative's Late Hours

Is She Responsible for the Behavior of Cousin's Daughter?

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My cousin's daughter recently came to this city to work. When she could not find a place to live within her means, I asked her to come and stay with us, as we had an extra room. My daughter, who is this girl's age, was delighted.

"Everything went well for awhile but she has suddenly taken to staying out very late. I do not approve of this at all as she is still rather young and I certainly wouldn't allow my own daughter to do this. I feel that since she is living with us I am more or less responsible for her and I think she should conform to the rules of the house.

"My daughter thinks it would be very wrong for me to say anything to her as I have no right to tell her when to come and go. I am sure her own mother would not approve of the hours she keeps. As she is living under my roof, don't you think I have a right to say something?"

Answer: As long as she is living in your house you not only have the right to see that she comes in at a reasonable hour, but it is your duty. If her mother tells you she does not object, that would be a different story.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it proper, at a second wedding reception, to have a white-iced wedding cake with a miniature bride and bridegroom on the top of it, or is this for a first wedding only?"

Answer: While such a cake is unusual at a second wedding there will be no impropriety if you wish to have one.

May Have Used Glasses in 1275, Records Claim

A simple epitaph appears on a tomb in Florence, Italy: "Here lies Salvino d'Armatti of Florence, the inventor of spectacles. God forgive him his sins. Died in the Year of our Lord 1317." The inscription may be misleading. Marco Polo is recorded to have seen eyeglasses used in 1275 in China, according to researchers.

Dye Job Easy With Automatic

Do you have a tedious dye job which means keeping the cloth immersed in the boiling solution while you stand by to stir it? Why not put your material to be dyed into your automatic washer?

The solution can be kept at high temperature and the spinning action of the machine will distribute the color evenly.

And there's no need to worry about cleaning out the washer if it is finished in porcelain enamel. No dye can penetrate the pores of the glass - hard surface. A thorough rinsing is all that's needed.

Press the breast bone if you want to determine the age of a chicken before buying it. The bone of a young bird will be soft and pliable; it becomes firm and hard as the bird ages.

Moms, Kids Having Fun at Echo Grove Camp

Pontiac Press Photos

SOUP'S ON—When the farm dinner bell rings out across the countryside, mothers and children flock to the dining hall of the Salvation Army—Echo Grove Camp at Lakeview Lake. Established nearly 40 years ago, the camp serves Girl Scouts, Cubs, Girl Guards, Sunbeams, Golden Agers, music students, mothers and children of the 32 Salvation Army cities in the Eastern Michigan Division. The Pontiac Exchange Club chartered a bus to transport the 48 mothers and children of this area to the camp last week.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

BUILT BY EXCHANGITES—Captain Magnus A. Michalsen is shown admiring the new cabin built by members of the Pontiac Exchange Club at the Salvation Army—Echo Grove Camp on Lakeview Lake. Under the leadership of DeLos Nicholie, chairman of the special project committee, the Exchangites donated their time, talents and money to construct the frame cottage. The interior contains sleeping quarters for 16 campers. The screened-in porch was built for loafing.

TRYING NEW TRICKS—David Williams of 57 Seneca St. spends most of his time at the Salvation Army—Echo Grove Camp diving, swimming and trying new antics in the water. The camp was organized nearly 40 years ago for character building and recreation. The Pontiac Exchange Club assists the Salvation Army with the camp.

Plenty for All to Do Each Day

Salvation Army Offers Campers Opportunities for Character Building

Forty-eight mothers and children from the Pontiac area are having fun this week at the Salvation Army — Echo Grove Camp on the shore of Lakeview Lake about four miles west of Oxford.

Most of the day, the children are in a program planned by counsellors, while the mothers are free to enjoy handicraft classes, games, hikes, swimming, boating and other activities.

★ ★ ★

For mothers with small children, the camp provides strollers, play pens and swings. Baby food as well as milk is supplied and a washing machine has been installed in the laundry for use by the campers.

Every evening a program of entertainment is planned for the entire family.

A swimming pool, tennis and shuffle board courts, ball diamonds and children's playground are a part of the outdoor recreation facilities.

TWO-FOLD PURPOSE

Conducted for character building and recreation, the camp, also provides a well-equipped nursery, and a first aid clinic is operated during the season with a registered nurse on duty.

Organized about 40 years ago, Echo Grove Camp will accommodate 225 people in small frame cottages.

Meals are served in a large dining hall. Centrally located is the outdoor shelter for use during rainy weather and for picnic lunches.

According to Captain Magnus A. Michalsen, Echo Grove Camp has the highest rating for all camps in the state of Michigan.

Everyone who attends this camp must have a doctor's examination according to the standards of the Oakland County Health Department.

The camp is under supervision of Salvation Army Divisional Headquarters with Brig. and Mrs. Clyde Cox in charge.

40 ADULTS ON STAFF

The summer staff consists of approximately 40 adults, including nurse and recreation director.

The facilities of the camp, available to the 32 Salvation Army cities in the Eastern Michigan Division, are used by the following groups, Scouts, Cubs, Girl Guards, Sunbeams, music students, Golden Ages, mothers and children.

The Pontiac Exchange Club has provided transporation down through the years, usually by cars. This year a chartered bus was used, with Gorden Reynolds in charge of arrangements.

Survey Says States Meeting School Needs

WASHINGTON (AP)—A survey of school construction in Michigan and 27 other states, sent to Congress by the Council of State Chambers of Commerce, says that federal aid for school construction "is not needed because the job is being done in the states."

"At the present rate of school construction," the report said, "the need to provide classrooms for the nation's growing number of children will be met within four years in a great majority of states.

Sweep Pair as Braves Split

Redlegs Are Rolling Again

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The pitching of Brooks Lawrence and the hitting of George Crowe, a pair of buffeted-about ball players, has the hot-and-cold Cincinnati Redlegs sizzling again, spelling bad news for the other four pretenders to the National League throne.

Today the Redlegs, following their 4-2 and 6-4 doubleheader sweep over Philadelphia, are only two games behind the pace-setting Milwaukee Braves, largely because Brooks turned in his 11th triumph of the season and Crowe walloped his 22nd home run.

In other National League games Milwaukee split with New York, winning the second game 7-4 after the Giants had won the opener 5-4. Brooklyn gained a split with Chicago, winning the second game 7-2 after the Cubs had won the first game 5-4. St. Louis defeated Pittsburgh 7-3 in 10 innings of the opener and led 11-2 with one out in the top of the ninth when the second game was halted by Pennsylvanian's curfew law.

Lawrence won his 11th game for the Reds, giving up five hits before he was relieved by Raul Sanchez in the eighth of the opener. Crowe's two-run homer and a four—bagger by Gus Bell was enough to hand Robin Roberts his seventh straight defeat and 13th of the season. The Philly right-hander has given up 28 home runs this season. A 16-hit attack, including three hits each by Ted Kluszewski, Wally Post and Roy McMillan moved the Reds up into fifth place past the Phillies.

Johnny Logan got five-for-five and Del Crandall drove in two runs with a home run and two singles as the Braves scored all their second game runs in the last three innings to come from behind a 4-0 deficit. The split enabled the Braves to retain their full-game lead over runner-up Brooklyn. A two-run hingle by pinch hitter Hank Sauer in the ninth won the first game for the Giants.

A five-run fourth, highlighted by Duke Snider's pinch-hit single with the bases full, helped the Dodgers gain their split with Chicago. Clem Labine won his fifth game pitching five innings of scoreless relief after replacing starter Don Newcombe. Home runs by Walt Moryn, Chuck Tanner and Lee Walls gave Chicago bonus righthander Moe Drabowsky his sixth victory and his first over Brooklyn on his 22nd birthday.

Second baseman Don Blasingame drove in four runs with a two-run homer in the third and a two-run single in the 10th in St. Louis' first game victory over Pittsburgh. Bonus righthander Lindy McDaniel hurled a six-hitter and contributed four hits himself before the second game was halted by the 7 p.m. Pennsylvania Curfew law. The game will be resumed Aug. 27.

Stan Musial, who had played through 826 consecutive games, a National League record, did not get into the second game lineup but he can keep his record intact if he makes an appearance when the game is resumed.

3rd No-Hit Game for Hall

Doug Hall continued his phenomenal pitching for Shaw's Jewelers and Lane's Drive-In pulled a major upset to spotlight Sunday night's City League softball action at Beaudette and North Side parks.

Making his 4th appearance of the season, Hall hurled his 3rd no-hit, no-run game as the Jewelers defeated Stadium Inn, 2-0.

Hall's other winning effort was a one-hitter and his no-hit bid in that contest was ruined by a home run with one man out in the 7th inning. Last night's no-hitter was the 6th for Shaw's mound staff this year.

Lowly Lane's threw the Pontiac Police into a 1st place tie with Franklin Products in the tight International League race by stunning the Police team, 10-2. The winners lashed out with 11 hits for their convincing triumph.

Clawson Upsets Berkley Legion

Clawson's Junior American Legion baseball club yesterday turned in one of the 18th District's season upsets. The southern Oakland county club dumped a heavily favored Berkley nine 8-2 with a display of pitching and hitting. In the other league contest, Sunday afternoon, Milford, first half winner in league play shut out Birmingham in a tight battle, 2-0.

Clawson's Laquier had a big day on the mound, setting down 15 Berkley batsmen. The southenders won their game in the third when they scored three runs to go with a first inning tally. Berkley got all its count in the fourth, in which Clawson also added two more.

Runs in the second and fourth innings iced the win for Milford which this week goes to the Owosso zone playoffs. The tilt was a close pitcher's argument between Milford's Anderson and Birmingham's Rondeau, who each gave up two hits.

Wasik Sinks Ace in Elks Tourney

Although Eddie Wasik, member of the Pontiac Elks golf team at the annual Michigan Elks tournament at Kalamazoo, Sunday, wasn't the winner, he was the only player who scored an ace. Wasik holed out his No. 3 iron shot on the No. 13 green, a 185-yard hole. He had a 73 for the round, same card as that for Mike Andonian, state publinx king. Tom (Sylvester) Thum another member of the team from Lodge No. 810 of Pontiac had 72 to top the Pontiac delegation.

Dallas Space of Ann Arbor was individual winner.

Sunday's Crowd Is Smallest in Several Years

Error in 9th and Walks in 10th by Washington Gives Detroit Victory

DETROIT (AP)—The generosity of the last-place Washington Senators has enabled the Detroit Tigers to cling to their slender fifth-place margin and remain within easy striking distance of the American League's first division.

The Senators simply refused to return to Washington with a well-earned victory and instead provided the Tigers with enough errors and bases on balls for a 6-5 triumph in 10 innings yesterday before 8,189 spectators.

It was one of the smallest Sunday crowds in years at Briggs Stadium.

It took some managerial masterminding that backfired on Washington's Cookie Lavagetto, some shabby fielding and some timely hitting by the Tigers to put the contest into extra innings.

With the Nats leading 3-2 going into the 9th, Lavagetto brought Clint Courtney in as a pinch hitter for Pedro Ramos, the fastballing righthander who relieved Truman Clevenger after the first six innings in 90-degree heat.

Courtney responded with his third home run that also scored Lou Berberet, who had opened the inning with a walk. Lavagetto then called on veteran righthander Bud Byerly to get the Tigers in the 9th.

Byerly, who blanked the Tigers three innings Saturday, was in immediate trouble. Al Kaline drilled a single to left for his third hit of the afternoon. Frank House followed with his second safety, a single to right. Byerly then walked Bill Tuttle, loading the bases.

Russ Kemmerer, Saturday's winner, came on as the fourth Nat pitcher. He got pinch hitter Dave Philley to force Tuttle at second but shortstop Rocky Bridges, trying to complete a double play, threw wildly past first and two runners were home. Kemmerer walked Harvey Kuenn and retired Frank Bolling before young Reno Bertoia smashed a safety off the arm of third baseman Pete Runnels to tie the score at 5-5.

The run that won the game in the 10th was a sheer gift. Jim Heise, a rookie who has yet to win his first Major League game, yielded a bases-loaded walk to pinch hitter J. W. Porter, forcing in Boone from 3rd with the winning run.

Mrs. Boyer Takes City Golf Crown, Mrs. DeBolt 2nd

Last year Mrs. Zadah DeBolt won the women's City Medal golf championship and Mrs. Phyllis Boyer finished 2nd. This year the two women reversed positions.

Mrs. Boyer annexed the annual city tournament Saturday afternoon at Pontiac Municipal Golf Course with an 86 on rounds of 44-42. Mrs. DeBolt came in 2nd with 45-45—90.

A disappointing total of only seven players, the lowest entry in tourney history, participated in the 18-hole event.

Mrs. Lucy Everett took 3rd place with 49-45—94. Other scores were: Miss Pat Wilson, 51-49—100; Mrs. Eve Miller, 52-52—104; Miss Bobby Robson, 53-53—106; Mrs. M. Allen, 61-54—115.

Second Straight Shutout Eases Chicago Problem

By INS

Jim Wilson gave Chicago pitchers two straight shutouts when he held the Boston Red Cox to three hits yesterday shortly after White Sox vice president Chuck Comiskey had stated his club needed a good relief pitcher to revive the pennant fight.

The 3-0 victory sliced the Yankee lead to 4½ games with the New Yorkers dividing a doubleheader with the Indians before 51,670, the largest crowd in two years at Cleveland.

The Tribe came from behind to win the 2nd game 7-4 after a walk to Mickey Mantle had forced in the winning marker in a 4-3 opener. Detroit won the same way defeating Washington 6-5 in 10 innings while Baltimore missed a chance to tie the Tigers for 5th place by losing the 2nd game of two 3-2 to Kansas City. The Orioles had taken the opener 7-2.

In his statements, Sox Veep Comiskey had said he was "worn out" from his search for a reliever but Dick Donovan, with a Saturday one-hitter, and Wilson eased the problem somewhat. Chicago now appears to have its mound staff primed for a big three-game set aaginst the Yankees starting tomorrow night.

Larry Doby provided the offensive spark for the Chisox yesterday. He singled in one run and scored another following a double off starter and loser Mike Fornieles.

At Cleveland, Bobby Avila's bases-loaded triple highlighted a four-run Cleveland rally that overcame a 4-2 Yank lead to give Ray Narleski his 6th triumph against one defeat in the 2nd game. Johnny Kucks took the loss with Mantle, Gene Woodling and Al Smith socking homers.

Gil McDougald and Elston Howard swated circuit clouts in the opener to start Bob Lemon towards his 9th setback compared with only six wins. Mantle forced in the clincher in the 6th.

★ ★ ★

Bob Cerv's two-run home run gave Kansas City a split as Alex Kellner won out in a duel with Ray Moore in the 2nd game. George Kell and Bob Nieman gave the Orioles four homers for the day. Tito Francona and Joe Ginsberg had hit one apiece in the lid-lifter to back up a good mound performance by Hector Brown.

Fair Shines Again at Pontiac Track

Joy Fair kept up his winning ways Sunday in the full modified hardtop program at Pontiac Speedway. The veteran Pontiac auto racer won the 30-lap feature, the 1st heat run and the dash.

Fair's winning time in the main event was 8:47.05. He was followed across the finish line by Chuck Partello and Bob Valentine.

Don Graham took honors in the 15-lap semifinal, with George Goodman placing 2nd and Rocky Armstrong 3rd. Mickey Katlin's time of 16:44 was tops in the speed trials while other heat winners were Red Camp, Dick Cummings and Johnny Wallace.

From The PRESS BOX

Royal Oak's Gary Pitcher was signed recently by the Chicago Cubs and has joined their Class D farm club at Pulaski, Va. The righthanded hurler had also received offers from the Tigers, Orioles and Kansas City before signing. Pitcher graduated from Dondero High in June after winning eight letters in three sports.

★ ★ ★

Tom Willwerth, a sparkplug of last season's Walled Lake regional hoop champions and an all-around sport star, left recently to serve in the Air Force. He will take his basic training at San Antonio, Texas along with Charles Wilson, who was on the cross country, track and cage teams at WLHS.

Basketball ace Wilt Chamberlain made a shattering visit to the NBA offices in New York the other day. He didn't have any earth-shaking announcements about leaving Kansas for the pros but caused an uproar when he broke pro boss Maurice Podoloff's favorite chair when he settled his 7-foot bulk in it. Wilt is a construction worker in Washington, D. C. this summer.

"That lad" said Irish "was deeply interested in the game, as well as being an all-around player. He was one of the best liked boys in the league."

Ann Arbor Man Is Elks Champ

Wins Golf Title Held at Kazoo; Flath Leads Pontiac Entries

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Dallas Space of Ann Arbor edged out a record field of 241 entries with a 5-under par 68 during the weekend to win the ninth annual Michigan Elks state golf tournament.

Space shot 34-34—68 on the 37-36—73 par course.

Second place went to Joel Shepherd and Virgil Shaw, both of Kalamazoo, and Ed Lauer of Royal Oak, all of whom tied at 70, just two strokes off the pace set by Space. Bernie Kot of Kalamazoo and Frank Bachus of Royal Oak shared fifth place with 71 each.

Of the Pontiac entries in the tournament, Kirk Flath took first place in the low net division by shooting an 80 less 15 handicap for a 65.

Also in low net, Jack Ross was tied for 7th with a 68.

In the low gross division, Ronnie Rothbarth and Bert McLaughlin each had 72 in a tie for 8th and 9th places.

Shaw's, CIO Win 'Amateur Day' Games

The Class A City Baseball League's two top powers demonstated why they hold that distinction yesterday.

League-leading Shaw's Jewelers and runner-up CIO Local 594 scored impressive victories over star-studded foes in Sunday afternoon's annual Amateur Day festivities at Wisner Field.

Shaw's, behind the combined three-hit pitching of Jerry Taylor and Ted Reaver, shut out the Detroit Oldtimers, 5-0, in the feature game of the twin bill.

In a contrasting attraction, the CIO banged out a dozen safeties for a convincing 13-2 decision over the City League All-Stars, a squad composed of ace players from the other four teams in the circuit.

Dave (Boots) Kringe paced Shaw's six-hit attack with two singles as the Jewelers disposed of the Oldtimers, comprised of several former Major League players, among them George Lerchen and Whistlin' Jake Wade.

The Jewelers iced the verdict with three runs in the 1st inning off Tom Critch, the starting and losing pitcher. Reaver relieved Taylor in the 5th, with the latter receiving credit for the win.

It took a couple of innings for the Union club to get warmed up in the opening game, but there was little doubt about the outcome after the landslide began.

The CIO spotted the All-Stars a 2-0 1st inning lead, then tallied three runs in the 3rd, four in the 4th and six in the 7th.

Four Union players collected two hits apiece against four opposing pitchers, with Rocky Forton, the 2nd of the mound brigade, taking the loss. Neil Ricketts, Jim Wagner and Don Picman hurled for the CIO, with Ricketts garnering the victory.

Detroit 9 Wins Babe Ruth Title

The Babe Ruth team Northwest Detroit won its third Michigan Babe Ruth title in four years at Southfield yesterday by defeating Benton Harbor, 5-2.

★ ★ ★

The victory sends Northwest to Portland, Wis., for the regional early in August, and the winner there will get into the National championship at Ann Arbor, August 20th.

In the quarter-finals Saturday, Southfield was eliminated by Grosse Pointe, 2-0 and Walled Lake fell, 6-4 to the Detroit Americans.

Defending state champ, Lincoln Park also fell in the quarters, 2-0, to Northwest Detroit.

Younger of Golf Brothers Beats Dow Finsterwald

Lionel Triumphs 2 and 1 in Finals After Taking Burkemo on Saturday

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Lionel Hebert, a chunky, keen-eyed product of Louisiana's Evangeline land, emerged from under his brother's protective wings during the 39th PGA championship and now stands by himself as a golfer of first magnitude.

Up to a few days ago, Lionel was best known as the younger brother of and chief rooter for Jay Hebert, one of the leading performers on the pro golf circuit. He was pretty well satisfied and complained only because Jay didn't have the killer instinct to win more often.

Then, in the rather dramatic finale of this "nameless" tournament, the kid brother came through with a surprise 2 and 1 triumph over Dow Finsterwald.

Saturday, Hebert eliminated one of the best match play competitors in the game when he took care of Wally Burkemo, 3 and 1.

Burkemo held a 2-up lead after the first nine of the Saturday morning round, and 1-up after 18. In the afternoon round, Burkemo made it 2-up after the first hole when Hebert called a penalty on himself when the ball moved on the address on the green.

But the 97-degree heat seemed to affect Burkemo more than it did Hebert, and on the last nine holes, the Franklin Hills pro lost it by missing three short putts less than five feet each.

Jay never has won a national title; Lionel now has one. Lionel is almost certain of the place on the Ryder Cup team, which will play Britain's top pros in October; Jay probably won't make it. From 49th place on the PGA money winning list, Lionel moved up to 15th. His $8,000 first prize gave him a year's total of $10,968, Jay, earning only $1,500 for seventh place, still is seventh, about $4,000 ahead.

It wasn't a timid emergence from obscurity. The younger Hebert, a surprise finalist in a tournament where such stars as Sam Snead, Jackie Burke, Doug Ford, Gene Littler and Ed Furgol couldn't even make the quarter-finals, came out boldly at the finish to win.

The younger Hebert is 29, a native of Lafayette, La., a town he still calls his home. He served a couple of years in Japan in the Army Medical Corps, went to college two years—afterward and studied music, then bookkeeping.

He followed his brother into pro golf at Jay's urging but gives Johnny Bulla most of the credit for his development.

Althea, Seixas Win Clay Court Tennis Crowns

CHICAGO (AP) — Wimbledon Champion Althea Gibson finally won the tennis championship "I've been chasing since '51" when she breezed past Darlene Hard, 6-2, 6-3, in the National Clay Courts Tournament yesterday.

Miss Gibson's triumph came as no surprise and was by the exact score by which she defeated Miss Hard in the Wimbledon finals.

Vic Seixas rallied in the men's finals to defeat defending champion Herb Flam, 1-6, 8-6, 6-1, 6-3. Flam, going for his third clay courts title, found the 90-degree temperatures "sorta hot" after dropping a tough second set decision.

PMC Is Victor in Trophy Test

Compiling 56½ points for its golfing efforts on a sizzling hot Saturday at Davisburg course, Pontiac Motor Company's team has regained possession of the coveted Detroit Hydramatic award. The PMC crew outscored a strong team from Flint's AC Sparkplug Division. AC collected 33½ points.

Ed Wasik and Whitey Vidland of PMC led the field with one-under par 71's. Vinny Frechette had 75 for Flint, same figure carded by PMC's Stan Savage and Charley Whipple. Low net cards were topped by Sundwik of AC with 65. Ralph Skrine of PMC had 67.

A net of 60 for AC's De Meyer and Hable was tops and Wayne PMC had 61 for the best ball feature.

Art Nelson of PMC just missed an ace on No. 4 (265 yards) when his shot hit the pin, stopped a half-turn from rolling back in.

REGATTA CHAMP—To the victor belongs the spoils, in this case a pair of very handsome sailing trophies, won during the Michigan District Lightning regatta at Pontiac Yacht Club. Regatta ended Sunday with Wes Wedrick of Bay View Yacht club (center above) saling his fast craft to the championship over a strong, extensive field. At left is District Commodore Warren Jones of Grosse Pte. Farms who presented the district trophy. At right is crewman Jim Smith of Grosse Pte. Farms, holding Wedrick's permanent award. Howard Boston, 2nd crewman for the champion lightning, was absent when the picture was made.

Wind Finally Arrives

Regatta Ends at PYC, Wedrick Champ

By H. GUY MOATS

Michigan District Lightning association regatta finally got its wind, for which the more than 35 skippers were "whistling" Saturday, and sailed the regatta at Pontiac Yacht Club to its scheduled end.

Delayed from Friday, the event got under way Saturday with two good races, with a 12 to 16 mph breeze. But the winds really gave the skippers something with which to work Sunday. Morning race were under fine "spinnaker weather" conditions with the sleek craft setting the big, billowing "wings" for some fast maneuvering over the three-mile triangular course.

★ ★ ★

By Sunday afternoon the wind freshened and the final race was what race committeemen Chuck Buck called "a blinger." Wind was from 20-25 mph with gusts hitting 30 or more. But the only capsize of the regatta was Sunday morning spill for M. E. Dickman of Bay View on a reach from No. 3 buoy. Dickman's boat was beached, emptied and returned to race in the afternoon finale. His spinnaker lines fouled, swinging the craft over.

★ ★ ★

New district champion is Wes Wedrick of Bay View with 159 points; Jim Schudel, Bay View 148; Herm Nickels, Lake Fenton Yachting Assn. 145; Johnny McKinley Tawas Bay Yacht club 144; Alex Carlin, Lake Fenton, 140 and Hank Cawthra of Crescent Sailing club, sixth. But for a disqualification in the Saturday race, Cawthra would have taken top honors, PYC committeemen said. He missed a place for failure to respond to a luff.

First five skippers qualified for the internationals to be sailed at Long Island Sound late in the fall.

Race results:

Saturday—1st race—Wedlick; Cawthra; Bob Grant of Crescent; 2nd race—Wedrick; Henry Jones, Bay View; Schudel (Cawthra disqualified); Andy Rouslet, PYC.

SUNDAY—1st race—Cawthra; Schudel; Herm Nickels; McKinley; Wedrick; 2nd race—Cawthra; McKinley; Nickels; Carlin; Wedrick; 3rd race—Cawthra; Dick Crandall, Crescent; Rouslet; Wedrick; McKinley.

Crocker-Smith 4-Ball Kings

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP)—It took them a long time to do it, but Fay Crocker and Marilyn Smith finally have achieved one of their cherished golfing ambitions—winning a tournament together.

The two lady pros, close friends ever since Miss Crocker came to this country from Montevideo, Uruguay, in 1954, have been teaming up in four-ball competition for four years.

But the big payoff eluded them until yesterday, when they captured the $7,500 Hot Springs Four-Ball Tournament and earned a purse of $1,500.

Miss Crocker and Miss Smith, five strokes behind the leaders as yesterday's fourth and final round of the 72-hole tournament started, had to put on a spectacular finish to win. Over the last 18 holes of the rolling, treacherous cascades course they fired a best ball of 66—eight under women's par for the 6,375-yard layout.

Elliott, Rogers Gain Waterford LL Wins

The top two teams in the Waterford Little League continued their winning ways Saturday in a triple-header at Drayton Plains.

First place Elliott Furniture continued its hot pace by whipping Elizabeth Lake Estates 13-5 but had its lead sliced by one-half game as chief contender Rogers Electric took two games, Rogers walloped Drayton 5 & 10 16-1 and blanked Elizabeth Lake Estates 17-0.

Gonzales Gives Hoad Lesson of Pro Circuit

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP) — Lew Hoad, the $125,000 Fledgling of Jack Kramer's professional tennis stable, surveyed his new world today and decided he needed some immediate improvement.

"You can't afford to miss the easy ones in this league," said the big, blond Australian who signed with Kramer after he won the Wimbledon title two weeks ago. "Miss a couple when yu're an amateur and you still can win, not with the pros," he said.

Hoad finished his first job for Kramer yesterday in the tournament of champions. He wound up with a 2-3 record after bowing to champion Pancho Gonzales, 9-7, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

"But I'm not discouraged," Hoad said. "After all, it was my first tournament and I thought I did all right, all things considered."

Hoad and Gonzales go on tour, starting in January.

The champion, who collected $2,500 for his week's work, said he thought he would beat Hoad as a steady diet on "consistency."

"He should be tougher on the tour," said Gonzales, "but I don't think he'll gain enough experience to beat me."

Frank Sedgman, who defeated Pancho Segura, 7-5, 4-6, 6-0, 6-1, finished second in the tournament with a 3-2 mark. Tony Tarbert, Ken Rosewall and Hoad all had 23 and Dinny Pails 0-3.

★ ★ ★

Trabert and Sedgman turned back Kramer and Hoad, 6-4, 6-4, to win the doubles competition with a 3-0 mark. Gonzales and Rosewall showed a 2-1 mark, Kramer and Hoad 1-2 and Segura and Dinny Pails 03.

Lakeville Lake Producing Big Bass, Walleyes

A lake that had been tabbed for a "poisoning out" project, which was dropped, after which 800 pounds of legal-size walleyes were planted, is doing all right with some big fish.

Mrs. Edward Nymshack who with her husband is operating a bait and boat livery on Lakeville Lake says anglers have been taking some big bass and walleyes there.

Donald Henne, 1664 East Long Lake road, took a five-pound, 20½ inch long smallmouth, and Robert Schultz, 2814 Bashwood, Royal Oak landed a five-pound largemouth, 21½ inches long from the lake on recent visits.

Biggest walleye of the season for Lakeville Lake, says Mrs. Nymshack, was a four-pounder caught by a woman angler "who was so excited she ran right up the hill with the fish before we could get her name."

Weyand and Nelson Win at Birmingham

After turning back the defending champions, Chuck Kocsis and Jimmy Nick Sunday morning in the semifinals of the Birmingham CC annual best-ball invitational championship, Dick Weyand of Birmingham and Roy Nelson of Essex, Ont. went on to defeat Randy Ahern of Plum Hollow and Tommy Stillwell of Red Run for the title.

The eventual champions edged Kocsis and his partner 1-up. They forced the going in the finale, carding a three-under par effort prior to winding up the match on the 16th.

Grid Pro Killed at Bar

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Roy Barni, standout college and professional football player, died today five hours after he was shot during a quarrel at his tavern.

Held on a murder charge was James D. Invernozzi, a beer truck driver, who police said, pumped three bullets into the 30-year-old Washington Redskin halfback.

Witnesses said Barni had escorted Invernozzi, 62, from the Fillmore Street bar for using vulgar language.

Barni, shot in the chest, abdomen and thigh, died at San Francisco City Hospital.

Barni is married and the father of a daughter, 3. His wife Gloria is expecting another child in November.

LOS ANGELES—Ted Kroll won one pro golf tourney in 1955, finished second twice and third twice but in the 1958 season he became golfdom's leading money maker.

Claim World Marks

Tiny Racers Run Here

Three world records for miniature racing cars were claimed here Sunday in a meet held by the Pontiac Miniature Race Car Assn.

The three marks were set by Harry S. Briggs' .19 custom class with a time of 4:67 (reduced to miles per hour, 96.26 mph), his .15 B Class racer with a time of 5:31 for 84.75 mph and in the .29 class at a time of 4:09, reduced to 110.02 mph. Briggs is a member of the PMRCA.

A large field entered the five event race, a nationally sanctioned test, held at the North Side skating rink.

C. S. Schofield of Muncie Ind. was 2nd in the .19 custom; J. Love of Kokomo Ind., won the .19 stock class with a time of 7:10 (64.36 mph); C. Foster of Kokomo was 2nd; P. Martin of Kokomo won the .15 A Class race with time of 7:67 (58.67 mph); Phil Sauer PMRCA, was 2nd in the .29 class, John Heitsch (raced by Briggs) was 3rd, both hitting better than 100 mph.

Red China Visitors Come Home Quietly

HONG KONG (AP)—An American businessman and his family were en route home today to a "quiet family" homecoing in Cincinnati after an unauthorized stay of almost four months in Red China.

Donald J. Blackwood, his Korean wife and child left by plane this morning for Tokyo, Seattle and home. His father, Cincinnati restaurant operator James V. Blackwood, said there would be no celebration.

The family arrived in Hong Kong July 12 from Macao. They had disappeared from the Portuguese enclave March 28, slipped into China against U.S. government regulations and then been expelled.

★ ★ ★

The father said Donald asked by telephone that his return be kept "on a quiet, homelike basis." He said their plane is due in Seattle at 8:50 p.m. tomorrow but he didn't know when the family would reach Cincinnati.

Set Trial Wednesday on Cab Threat Charge

Charles Theobald, 19, of 22 Auburn Ave., will be tried in Municipal Court Wednesday on a charge of threatening a cab driver with a pair of brass knuckles.

Thelbald was freed on personal bond after he pleaded innocent to the simple assault charge before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

He was arrested Tuesday by police after Bobbie Mabrey, of 41 N. Midland St., complained Theobald had threatened him after Mabrey told him not to stand in the street and block traffic.

Bootlegging Fines Not Deductible 'Expenses'

PETERBOROUGH, Ont. (AP)—Alvin Stoneberg told a police inquiry he paid taxes on his $50-a-week income from bootlegging, but income tax collectors had rejected his attempts to deduct his fines as "expenses."

He said he had been arrested eight times in his 14 years as a bootlegger.

Egypt Opens Airways

CAIRO (AP) — Egypt has cleared the way for resumption of flights into Egypt by British airlines. The Finance Ministry canceled military orders that banned British planes from Egypt after the British-French attack on Suez last fall.

Eyes Restoration of Monarchy

Franco Planning Political Changes

MADRID, Spain (AP)—The nationalist regime observed the 21st anniversary of the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War this week amid signs of big political changes ahead.

There was no indication these changes are immediate. Reports abroad predicting an immediate restoration of the monarch found no echo here.

But a source who has held some of the highest posts in Spain said discussion of the restoration question will be carried forward during a meeting between Gen. Francisco Franco and Don Juan, the Spanish pretender, in late September.

This informant said Franco told him during a recent interview, "I don't want to die without putting into action the monarchy and seeing how it functions."

Franco celebrates his 21st anniversary as chief of state Oct. 1. The Spanish Civil War, which put his regime in power, started in Morocco on July 17, 1936, and cost a million lives in three years of fighting.

★ ★ ★

Franco actually has no intention of allowing Don Juan to take the throne his father, King Alfonso XIII, abdicated. The generalissimo's choice is Juan's son, Prince Carlos. The youth has been in college in Madrid for several years, had a long talk with Franco July 8 and was commissioned a 2nd lieutenant in the Spanish Army July 13.

Much of the flurry over the monarchist question came after a speech in the Cortes (parliament) by Rear Adm. Luis Carrero Blanco, minister-secretary of the presidency of the government.

He reminded the deputies Spain officially had been a monarchy since a popular referendum in July 1947 and that a king will be brought to the throne when Franco "is gone" or when the generalissimo "judges the moment opportune."

Carrero spoke in support of a measure providing for separation of the posts of chief of state and prime minister. Both posts are now held by Franco.

Many political informants think Franco will take the premiership and bring Juan Carlos to the throne as chief of state. They say it all depends on whether a formula can be worked out to assure the premiership a certain amount of stability in office.

Will Arraign Mother on Assault Charge

A 34-year-old mother will be arraigned in Circuit Court today on a felonious assault charge which accuses her of pointing a .22 calibe pistol at her neighbor following a row over an arguement between their children.

Mrs. Virginia Lawrence, 76 S. Parke St., was bound over to the higher court by Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum after preliminary examination.

Several neighbors and the complainant Mrs. Mary Ann Benton, of 93 S. Parke St., testified Mrs. Lawrence threatened the life of Mrs. Benton by pointing the gun at her.

This followed a street fight between the two women. Mrs. Lawrence is free on a $200 bond until arraignment today.

Hunt Sentence Dodger

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Police are looking for Chang Tzejan, 25, sentenced to jail for two months for counterfeiting. Chang induced another man to assume his identity and serve the sentance, offering him 5,000 Formosan dollars—$150. He refused to pay when the man got out of jail and the man informed police.

Money's Yours for Answering Pot-O-Gold

More and more entries are coming closer and closer to the right solution, so if you want to get in on the $1,800 this week's Pot-O-Gold is worth, you'd better do it now. Even if there's a winner for last week's puzzle, the prize for this one will be $100, so what have you to lose?

The new puzzle contains a series of squares which are alphabetically lettered and a corresponding list of sentences with two clue words. Each of the words is numbered. The object is to select the word which you think best fits the clue sentence. You then place the number of that word in the square which has the same letter as the clue sentence.

In other words, you will read the clue labeled A and decide which of the two words makes the most sense in the sentence. You then write the number of that word in the puzzle square marked A.

Do the same with all other squares. Read all the clues carefully and be sure the right numbers are in the right squares.

Cornel Wilde Gets Offer to Be in Gina's Next Film

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Cornel Wilde has received an offer from Ponti Gerosi to be in Gina Lollobrigida's first picture after the birth of her baby, with the American-sounding title, "Anne of Brooklyn."

With a title like that, it's not surprising they want an American actor in the lineup. The other star is Vittorio de Sica, the Italian glamor boy who will also direct.

Gina is expecting her baby momentarily, but doesn't expect to go to work for two months, which would be around Sept. 1. That's where the hitch is for Cornel. He expects to start his own picture, "Arrows in the Sun," about that time.

However, he hasn't said "no" to Lollo's movie—and my bet is he arranges his schedule to make it.

All during the illness of Humphrey Bogart, Harry Cohn refused to cast "The Good Shepherd" because that was the one picture Bogie wanted to do.

Lauren Bacall has told me many times how much she appreciated Harry's discussing the picture with Bogie as if Columbia were waiting for him, when everyone knew this could never be on the Bogart schedule.

Now the picture is up for discussion again, and Glenn Ford will play the lead instead of going to England for "The Notorious Tenant" as his last picture for the studio.

"The Good Shepherd" will follow immediately after "The Sheep Man" which Glenn will do at MGM following his current lead in "Cowboy" for Harry Cohn.

The exciting "marriage" of Fox West Coast theaters and International Telemeter Corporation (meaning the large group of movie theaters and pay TV) is the happy culmination of many years of work and effort on the part of Carl Lesserman.

Since 1949, when Carl severed relations with both Paramount and UA film companies to devote himself to pay TV, he has been tirelessly working toward this result. For many years the theater exhibitors were dead set against the idea of pay TV and were fighting it hammer and tong.

Can we any longer doubt that pay TV is practically in our living rooms since the merger announcement of Elmer Rhoden, president of National Theaters and chairman of the board of Fox West Coast, and Louis A. Novins, vice president of International Telemeter Corporation, last week?

Liberace told me he didn't know about the brutal beating of his mother until after his show. The news was kept from him. He intends to leave no stone unturned until he finds out the names of the assailants.

Mrs. Liberace was kept under sedation and was too much in shock to be able to have X-rays, but it is believed she may have some broken ribs and severe internal injuries. Lee says his whole family will have the protection of bodyguards.

"I can only feel these brutes had a grudge against me," said Liberace, "but I don't want to say who I think it is. It's horrible that they would take their revenge out on my mother who never hurt anyone."

Washington Tower to Have Floodlights

WASHINGTON (AP) — Workmen will begin installing floodlights around the Washington Monument today.

The final phase of the six-month job will be the setting of eight aircraft warning lights in recessed holes to be cut near the top of the 555-foot marble shaft.

The $205,000 project of the National Park Service will provide 76 floodlights in four concrete vaults to illuminate the base of the tower and eight searchlights set on masonry pedestals to light the top.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON ESTABlishing normal level of waters in Lakeville Lake, Addison Twp., Oakland County, Michigan.

To whom it may concern.

Particularly: Garnet West, Charles Gunn, John & Edna Dunn, Grenville & Betty Ford, Gerald Dunn, Russell Randall, Anna Raddix, John & Gerald Dunn, Hayes and Agnes Dopp, Paul C. Johnson & Wife, and all owners of property fronting on, abutting or having access to rights in Lakeville Lake, or who are interested in having fixed and maintaining the normal level of said lake pursuant to the provisions of Act 194 Public Acts of 1939, as amended:

You are hereby notified that the Oakland County Board of Supervisors has caused to be filed in this Court a petition praying for the establishment by this Court of the normal level of Lakeville Lake, said lake being located on Sections 15, 21, 22, 26, 27 and 28 of Addison Township, Oakland County, Michigan.

You are further notified that a hearing on the petition will be had in the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland on Wednesday, the 4th day of September, 1957, at the opening of Court on that day at 9:30 a.m. or as soon thereafter as Counsel can be heard.

You are further notified that on said date the petitioner intends to ask this Court to establish the high level of said lake at 952.3 feet above sea level and if you desire to oppose the establishment of the level at 952.3 feet above sea level you should then and there appear and show cause if any you have why.

(A) The normal height and level of said lake should not be established;

(B) Why 952.3 feet above sea level should not be the level fixed as the high level of said lake;

(C) Why such other and further relief as to the Court seems fitting and proper should not be granted to petitioners.

SALES AWARD—In recognition of superior salesmanship during the recent "Drive the Champ" contest, Pontiac Motor Division is presenting the Knudsen Trophy to 1,786 of its dealers across the country. The handsome trophy is named after S. E. Knudsen, Pontiac general manager and GM vice president.

Nearly 50 per cent of Pontiac's dealers either met or exceeded their sales quotas during the April-May sales campaign in which the company awarded 100 new 1957 Pontiacs to contest winners.

Meg's Current Favorite Facing Cyprus Transfer

LONDON (AP) — The current favorite of Princess Margaret is being transferred to Cyprus within two weeks.

The War Office labeled the charge a routine assignment but friends called it a surprise.

Lord Patrick Beresford, 23, a lieutenant in the Royal Horse Guards for four years, has completed his tour of duty in Britain and is now due for overseas service, the War Office said.

Rumors last week had his engagement to the 26-year-old princess in the offing. The Daily Express said, "The constant association of his name with the princess has caused the palace officials acute embarrassment."

The paper commented that "being a friend of the princess seems to be becoming a qualification for a ticket to far-off places."

★ ★ ★

A palace aide, Group Capt. Peter Townsend, was transferred to the British Embassy in Brussels when his name was romantically linked with Margaret's.

Officers at the London barracks of Lord Beresford's regiment said they were surprised at the transfer. He originally wasn't supposed to leave until October, they said.

Say GM Overcharged on Air Force Contract

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government auditors reported today General Motors Corp. "overstated" or "misstated" cost figures on a 375-million-dollar Air Force contract. They said this "resulted in unreasonably high prices being paid by the government."

★ ★ ★

Their testimony before a House armed services subcommittee was called "shocking" by Chairman Hebert (D-La).

The auditors further told the subcommittee General Motors has refused to refund any part of its contract profits totaling 12.6 per cent, despite three separate pleas by the Air Force to do so "on principle."

Flour Failure Drops Wheat

CHICAGO (AP)—Expected business in flour failed to materialize in early dealings on the Board of Trade today and wheat, which got off to a firm start, eased sharply to around Friday's levels.

Soybeans also moved higher at the start on reports that 300,000 bushels had been loaded out of Chicago for Toronto, Ont., over the weekend.

Later, however, selling developed in the new crop deliveries, influenced by a favorable five day weather forecast. Early gains of nearly two cents were wiped out.

Corn too opened higher, but then declined as selling developed on the basis of the favorable weather outlook which included from ½ to ¾ inch of rain over the Central States area. Oats eased slightly in sympathy with corn.

Near the end of the first hour, new style wheat was unchanged to ⅝ lower, July $2.16¾; corn was ½ to ¾ lower, July $1.31¼; oats were ⅜ higher to ⅜ lower, July 67⅞; rye was unchanged to ⅝ lower, July $1.31¾; soybeans were ⅛ lower to 1⅛ higher, July $2.56; and lard was seven to 15 cents a hundred pounds lower, Sept. $13.80.

May Summon Hoffa

Senate Rackets Probers Will Investigate Dio Next

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Rackets Committee, already forecasting trouble, will open next week its long-planned probe of New York gangster Johnny Dio's labor union connections.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark), announcing last night a July 30 for the new hearings here, expressed hope they will "aid and assist Congress in dealing with the problem of hoodlum control of labor unions."

★ ★ ★

He said they "will center around the activities of Johnny Dio and the use of his followers in the power struggle for the control of the Teamsters Union in New York City and the East Coast."

The committee arranged to resume today its current hearing into alleged misuse of funds of the United Textile Workers by the union's President Anthony Valente and Secretary Treasurer Lloyd Klenert.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, was summoned to testify. McClellan has said that Meany, then secretary treasurer of the AFL, caused Valente and Klenert to return to the union money used to purchase homes for themselves. Both have denied any irregularities.

The UTW Executive Council met here during the weekend and said the union itself previously had investigated the charges against the two top officials and had found them to be "erroneous." The council also formulated what it called a "widespread and constructive" ethical practices code for the union.

★ ★ ★

McClellan has said the name of James R. Hoffa, Midwest Teamsters Union boss, probably will figure in the New York City probe and that Hoffa himself may be called as one of the more than 100 witnesses to be summoned.

Hoffa was found innocent Friday of charges that he had bribed a New York lawyer-investigator, John Cye Cheasty, to get a job with the committee staff and turn secrets from its files over to Hoffa.

Dio, also known as John Dioguardi, has been charged with masterminding the plot to blind labor columnist Victor Riesel with acid. He was indicted on charges of conspiring to obstruct justice in that connection.

Dio currently is on trial in New York on charges of taking bribes from two business firms to insure labor peace. His trial in the Riesel case was indefinitely postponed when two key witnesses against him refused to testify.

Stock Market Dull, Irregular

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was irregular in slow early trading today.

Most pivotal stocks showed narrow price changes.

After a fairly active opening, turnover slackened. There was no outstanding action anywhere in the list.

Oils and steels were narrowly on the upside. Rails were unchanged to slightly off. Motors, base metals and utilities were mixed.

Wall Street observers said news developments over the weekend brought little of major interest to bear upon the stock market. Business conditions this month were reported spotty.

★ ★ ★

Sunshine Mining, last week's most active stock, gained a major fraction. Eastman Kodak added more than a point. Allied Chamical fell well over a point. Lukens Steel advanced a point or so. Chrysler added a major fraction.

Bethlehem Steel, Goodyear, Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft, Kennecott Copper, Westinghouse Electric and American Can made small gains.

American Telephone, Southern California Edison, International Nickel, American Cyanamid, American Tobacco and Boeing took small losses. International Paper was down about a point.

Announces Sales Gains

CLEVELAND (AP) — Thompson Products, Inc., today announced huge gains in net sales and income for the first half of 1957.

The aircraft, automotive parts and electronics firm said sales totaled $196,000,703, compared with $142,931,111 in the first six months of 1956.

Some Choose Difficult Methods

Water Draws Travelers With Long-Range Goals

SOUTH HAVEN (AP)—A middle-aged South Haven couple had the bow of their 45-foot schooner pointed for Chicago today on the first leg of a projected two-year cruise around the world.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Kappler left South Haven during the weekend on a trip they had been planning for more than 10 years.

They plan to go to Chicago and then down the Illinois waterway to the Mississippi and the Gulf of Mexico.

After a stop in the West Indies and a long cruise down the eastern South American shore they will sail across the Atlantic to Africa, through the Sues Canal to the Indian Ocean and across the Pacific to home.

The Kapplers purchased their schooner this spring and learned how to handle it by making practice runs on Lake Michigan.

PRESCOTT, Wis. (AP)—Four hardy young adventurers paddled their canoe on toward Lake Superior today for the next stage of their 4,500 mile water trip from Colorado to Maine.

The quartet landed here for a brief rest Saturday night and then got back into their canoe Sunday to paddle northward on the St. Croix river in a journey which will take them through Michigan's Upped Peninsula.

They will travel up the St. Croix, then along the Namakagon and White Rivers before reaching Lake Superior.

★ ★ ★

The travelers are Ed Vestal and Bengt Soderstrom, Aspen, Colo.; E. G. Rickers, Berkley, Calif., and Gerald Hewey, Cape Elizabeth, Me. They left Denver April 30 and expect to arrive in Old Town, Me., in October, via the Great Lakes.

---

HOUGHTON (AP)—His 14-foot outboard swamped and beached, 71-year-old Michael Corson today was inviting the offer of a powerboat to take him around all but 125 miles of Lake Superior's roving shore line.

Corson, a retired New York metallurgist, began rowing around the lake July 8 and gave up Saturday after his boat was swamped by heavy seas and a fog set in. He had reached a point 125 miles from his starting point in Marquette.

"I'd like to hire a skipper with a powerboat to take me around the rest of the way," said Corson. When he started the long row Corson said it was because he wanted to prove an elderly man could "still accomplish great things and I want to explore Lake Superior's coastline for rare rocks.

His little rowboat was weighted down with scientific devices when he set out.

'Clinton Trial' Is Nearing Jury

Attorneys Start Final Arguments Today in Segregation Case

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Opposing lawyers are beginning final arguments to the jury today in the highly charged "Clinton trial" milestone case in the struggle over civil rights.

Afterwards, U. S. Dist. Judge Robert L. Taylor will instruct the jurors—10 men and two women, all white—on the legal complexities of the trial. Deliberations probably will begin tomorrow.

Awaiting judgment are 10 Tennesseans, one a woman, and John Kasper, 27-year-old Northern segregationist. They are charged with crimini contemp of court.

The U. S. government asserts that the 10 conspired with Kasper to violate a federal court order forbidding interference with desegregation of the high school in the little town of Clinton last fall, and that they committed "overt acts" to keep Negroes out of the school.

The complication lies primarily in the conspiracy section of the government's charge.

In his statement, Taylor will explain to the jurors whether they must find that more than one person "conspired" with Kasper in order to convict him. Lawyers say there have been instances where only one defendant in a conspiracy trial was found guilty. Kasper is the only one named in the court injunction.

The maximum sentence possible in this case is six months in jail and $1,000 fine, or both.

New Hudson Scene of Milk Strike Base

The Dairy Farmers Cooperative Assn. set up a strike headquarters in New Hudson today.

Homer Martin, organization director and chairman of the strike committee said the association "is preparing for strike action if necessary to get the price of milk up.

"We are asking for $5.50 per hundred weight by Aug. 1," Martin said.

Martin also said the organization, which bolted from the Michigan Milk Producers Assn. last year, "wants a further increase later."

The present milk price is about $4.60.

"Prices have gone up so, the farmer faces an impossible situation," he said.

At a meeting in Owosso June 11, Martin said, the membership voted unanimously to give the board of directors power to call a strike if necessary to support their demands.

Martin said the association has around 8,000 members, "a majority of the dairy farmers of the Detroit market."

New Spreader Built by Ford Division

A newly developed power-driven manure spreader, in two sizes, has been introduced by Tractor and Implement Division, Ford Motor Company, as its answer to farmers' problems in connection with this age-old farm chore.

Some of the difficulties encountered in the mechanization of manure spreading have been in the areas of equipment maintenance, clogging, overloading and wheel slippage. By concentrating on each of these areas of farmer complaints, Ford engineers have developed a more trouble-free longer-life spreader suitable for farmers with large and small herds, according to E. H. Woods, general sales manager.

STATE OF MICHIGAN — In the Probate Court for the County of Oakland, Juvenile Division.

In the matter of the petition concerning Harlin Haskel Downs, Minor.—Cause No. 15716.

To Arbey and Eleanor Downs, parents, of said child.

Petition having been filed in this Court alleging that the present whereabouts of the parents of said minor child are unknown, and said child has violated a law of the State, and that said child should be placed under the jurisdiction of this Court.

In the name of the people of the State of Michigan you are hereby notified that the hearing on said petition will be held at the Oakland County Service Center, Court House Annex, 1200-B West Blvd., in the City of Pontiac in said County, on the 30th day of July, A.D. 1957, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, and you are hereby commanded to appear personally at said hearing.

It being impractical to make personal service hereof, this summons and notice shall be served by publication of a copy one week previous to said hearing in the Pontiac Press, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County.

Witness, the Honorable Arthur E. Moore, Judge of said Court, in the City of Pontiac, in said county, this 18th day of July, A.D. 1957.

Mother Leaves Prison Today

Escapes Life Sentence for Killing 3 Children; Will Rejoin Husband

ALDERSON, W. Va. (AP) — Mrs. Eunice Brillhart, convicted of killing three of her children by dropping them on their heads, walks out from under a life prison sentence today to rejoin her soldier husband and their one remaining child.

Apparently she and Sgt. Robert W. Brillhart hope to pick up a normal life again on a New Mexico Army post.

★ ★ ★

"Do you still love her and does she love you?" a reporter asked the 26-year-old sergeant when Brillhart visited her yesterday.

"Yes, yes," he replied. "Our feelings toward one another have not changed."

Mrs. Brillhart, 30, is a British subject. She was convicted in 1954 by a U.S. Army court-martial in the deaths of their three youngsters.

★ ★ ★

Her case was reviewed after the Supreme Court recently ruled that military courts have no jurisdiction over civilians who accompany U.S. servicemen abroad. She was ordered released after serving about three years at the federal prison for women here.

Sgt. Brillhart was stationed at an African base in what now is a part of Ethiopia when the three children died between November 1952 and December 1953. The court found she killed them by "dropping them on their heads."

Sources close to the case have said privately that she probably broke under the strain of living in a remote area.

Brillhart said he and his wife will go to Columbus, Ohio, to visit their 6-year-old daughter Diane, then move into family quarters at Sandia base near Albuquerque, N.M., where he is stationed.

Diane has been staying with his parents at Columbus since the trial.

ANN LOUISE GRIFFIN

The engagement of their daughter, Ann Louise, to James Frisk Thompson is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Griffin of 1726 Lyka Rd., Bass Lake. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thompson of 1701 Bogie Lake Rd., Milford. The wedding will take place in November.

Audio-Visual School Course Begins Here

A two-week course in audio-visual education begins today for interested teachers. The course is given by Michigan State University School.

★ ★ ★

Registrations will be accepted tomorrow at the beginning of the class period. Information is available from Dr. Ted Ward, MSU College of Education supervisor in Pontiac, 217 Oneida Rd.

MSU concluded Friday seven six-week courses in Pontiac, primarily for teachers, including a workshop on how schools can better inform parents about their children's activities in the schools. Dr. Edith Roach Snyder, principal of Webster School, taught this workshop for MSU.

Detroiter New President of Savings, Loan League

MACKINAC ISLAND — The new president of the Michigan Savings and Loan League is Hans Gehrke Jr., of Detroit.

Gehrke was elected yesterday as the league wound up its 70th annual convention here. He succeeds Leo F. Drolshagen of Detroit.

Other officers elected included J. J. Dingwall Jr., of Owosso, first vice president; Fred C. Reynolds, of Kalamazoo, second vice president, and Grant H. Longenecker, of Lansing, secretary-treasurer.

Ductwork Unnecessary

If you wish, you can air condition to install? A new booklet the walls. Chilled water from a chiller is circulated through units in each room, says the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau. This ductless system is especially suitable for modernization work in homes heated with hot water or steam. Heating contractors will supply further details and estimates.

Civil Rights Bill Talk Continues

Supporters in Senate Vow to Retain Voting Provisions Intact

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate starts a third week of debate on the administration's civil rights bill today with supporters vowing to keep its right-to-vote provisions intact.

Their expressed determination on this point coincided with mounting indications that only a last-minute compromise could save another section aimed at strengthening the enforcement of all civil rights.

★ ★ ★

All sides seemed to be in agreement, however, that an old Reconstruction era law permitting the President to use the armed forces to carry out court orders in civil rights cases should be repealed.

Senators Knowland (R-Calif) and Humphrey (D-Minn), leaders in the fight for the civil rights bill, joined in offering an amendment to do this. The amendment is expected to be voted on during the day.

Adoption of this amendment would be the first Senate change in the bill passed by the House.

It also would represent a concession to Southern senators who protested that, under the wording of the bill, the old troop-authority law could be used to force school integration and other mixing of the races on the South "at bayonet point."

In the Senate debate so far, the principal controversy has centered about Part 3 of the bill. This would authorize the attorney general to obtain federal court injunctions against violations, or threatened violations, of civil rights in general.

Similar authority is provided in another section for the protection of voting rights. Under both sections, persons accused of disobeying injunctions obtained by the government could be convicted and jailed for contempt of court with a jury trial.

Senators Onderson (D-NM) and Aiken (R-Vt) have offered an amendment to strike out Part 3 of the bill, and present indications are that the Senate may vote on this tomorrow. If adopted, it would tend to limit the bill to enforcement of voting rights.

Chicago-to-Mackinac Race Won by Sabre

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP)—The 87-foot yawl Sabre, owned by Roman Brotz of Sheboygan, Wis., was the first boat across the finish line today in the 50th running of the Chicago-to-Mackinac Island yacht race.

The Sabre was clocked in 42 hours, 19 minutes and 20 seconds for the 333-mile run up Lake Michigan. Last week the big racer was the first to finish in the 235-mile Port Huron-to-Mackinac race.

Rossellini a "Sick Man" Reports Ingrid Bergman

ROME (INS) — Actress Ingrid Bergman said today that her husband, Roberto Rossellini, is a "sick man."

But she failed specifically to deny rumors that Rossellini was bringing Indian beauty Sonali das Gupta to Italy with him to help edit a new film.

Ingrid said the stories circulated in the American press were "cheap journalistic stunts."

She added that she did not know if Rossellini has any intention of bringing Sonali from India to Rome.

Appearing somewhat surprised at the latest development in the Roberto - Sonali story, the beautiful actress told international news service:

"He hasn't told me anything about this.

"He told me he is winding up his films as soon as possible and returning home.

"He's a sick man."

She did not elaborate.

Rossellini is in India making documentary films for the Indian government. Press reports have linked him romantically with Sonali for several months.

Sonali, 27, is married. She has two children. There were reports at one time that the Indian government had, at the request of Sonali's family, told Rossellini to stop seeing her. Government officials later denied this.

Report Rita Shares Aga Khan's Fortune

GENEVA (INS) — Sources close to the late Aga Khan said today that he left his one-time daughter in-law, American actress Rita Hayworth, a share of his vast fortune.

Miss Hayworth was once married to Aly Khan, elder son of the Aga Khan, and is the mother of Yasmin, only granddaughter of the Imam of Ismail.

It is known that the Aga Khan always had a soft spot in his heart for the beautiful flame-haired movie queen.

Even Motionless Cars Are Sometime Unsafe

Sometimes a motorist isn't safe even when his car is standing still as two accidents proved Sunday morning.

Gordon L. Morrison, 23, of Detroit, told Waterford Township Police he took his eyes off the road for a second and slammed into a standing car driven by Cecilia M. Tompkins, also of Detroit, at M59 and Pontiac Lake road.

John E. Walts, 36, of Clarkston, was waiting at U.S. 10 and Saginaw Trail, in Waterford Township, when his car was struck by the auto of Leon Schultz, of Oak Park. No serious injuries resulted in either accident.

Boy Darts Into Car, Is Injured Slightly

A 12-year-old Walled Lake boy, Leroy Montague, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Montague, of 1869 Decker Rd., was injured slightly when he ran in front of a passing car Saturday night, according to Walled Lake police.

Dennis L. Martin, 22, of 428 Midway Ave., was going about 15 miles an hour when the boy darted in front of him near 623 East Lake Dr., said Officer Robert W. Williams.

Leroy was taken to Pontiac General Hospital where he was treated for minor chest injuries and released.

'Once in Million' Birth

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP)—A 4-year-old Hereford cow owned by G. G. Filmore Jr. gave birth to a calf recently, the second in four months. One veterinarian said he had heard of calves born a week apart but never four months apart. Others said it might happen once in a million births.

Potter and Hetzak Win Doubles Event

An Oakland county net star and his partner from Lansing and the new MSC head coach and his partner were semifinal losers in Sunday's doubles invitational championships at Orchard Lake Cl. The tourney was won by Dick Potter and Al Hetzak. Sixteen teams took part. A good gallery watched the tourney, conducted by Mrs. Jean Hoxie.

Tom Belston and Fred Hauser bowed to Potter of Detroit and Hetzak, of Hamtromck, 6-3, 6-3. Maurie Drilling of Dearborn and Jim Bicknell of Detroit defeated Stan Drobak (former partner of Belton) now head tennis coach as Michigan State, and Dave Brogan of Detroit in three sets. The Drilling-Bicknell team lost the finals 6-2 and 6-3.

City Police Hold Man Wanted in Georgia

Pontiac Police are holding a 24-year-old Alabama sailor wanted by Columbus, Ga., authorities on charges of passing a $200 bogus check to purchase an auto.

Ray W. Steele was arrested by Detective Charles L. Hewitt for investigation of driving a stolen car after Steele attempted to sell a car in Pontiac and had no proof of ownership.

Sherif fE. F. Howell, of Muscogoo County in Georgia notified Hewitt he had an uttering and publishing warrant against Steele.

Steele waived extradition in Circuit Court Friday.

Former Belgian King and Wife Survive Crash

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (AP) — Ex-King Leopold of Belgiu and his wife Princess Liliane de Rethy attended a dinner party last night only a few hours after a high-speed car they were testing skidded off a mountain road near here and overturned.

Both were said to have suffered shock and minor bruises. They seemed recovered at the dinner party in their honor at the villa of friends. Leopold later visited a crowded cafe and swapped mountain-climbing stories with Alpine guides.

The car plunged off the road after skidding on wet pavement on a turn. A member of the escort said later the princess was at the wheel at the time. Leopold was considering buying the car and had taken it out for a trial spin.

Leopold's first wife Queen Astrid was fatally injured in 1935 when a car he was driving crashed into a tree. Leopold was slightly injured in the accident.

Two Teenagers Injured in John R Accident

Two teenagers were injured in an accident on John R Rd. about ½ mile north of Auburn road in Avon Township early Sunday morning.

Injured were Theodore Schaefer, 19, 6269 Atkins Rd., and Wesley W. Wright, 18, 6060 Atkins Rd., both of Rochester. Wright was treated for cuts and bruises at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Schaefer, admitted with a concussion and possible fractured skull, was listed in fair condition today. Howard Miller, of 41576 Saal Rd., Utica, told sheriff's deputies that Schaefer tried to pass him and went into a skid.

Man's Back Injured in Bicycle Accident

A 21-year-old bicyclist was released from Pontiac General Hospital Saturday after treatment for back injuries received when his bike collided with a panel truck.

Rider Joseph Leo Motoyer, of 288 Rapid St., was rushed to the hospital by Pontiac firemen.

William J. Robare, 48, of 97 Peach St., was the driver of the truck according to Pontiac Police. The accident occurred at Rapid and Motor Streets.

Attempt to Restore SLP to State Ballot

Petitions to restore the Socialist Labor Party to the Michigan ballot are being circulated in Pontiac.

The SLP and other minority parties, were removed from the ballot several years ago by a legislative act raising the percentage of votes cast in past elections needed to insure a place on the ballot.

The SLP, founded in 1890, runs a candidate for president in every election. The party has no affiliation with the Socialist Party, Communist Party, American Labor Party, or others in the U.S. or abroad, its leaders state.

Rebellion Aimed at British Ally

English Forces Stand Ready to Assist Sultan of Oman

LONDON (AP) — British forces from Kenya to Cyprus were prepared today for possible aid to an ally hard pressed by rebellion in the potentially oil-rich eastern tip of the Arabian Peninsula.

Reports from Oman, an oven-hot, rugged country of sandy plains and towering mountains, indicated the rebellion against the Sultan of Muscat and Oman was unchecked in some 5,000 square miles of remote land.

★ ★ ★

British officials in the region conferred with the Sultan, Said bin Taimur, but said no forces had yet been sent into the region. The traditional symbol of British support, two Royal Navy frigates, were reported standing off the town of Muscat on the Gulf of Oman to help protect British residents if necessary.

British Middle East army headquarters on Cyprus said three infantry companies now in Kenya will fly back to their Persian Gulf base at Bahrein and can be moved to Muscat if needed.

★ ★ ★

The commander of the Sultan's 400-man private army, retired British Col. Pat Waterfield, flew to Muscat from leave here. The temperature at Muscat was reported at 120 degrees.

The rebellion by about 1,500 tribesmen broke out in the interior three days ago. The religious leader of Oman, Imam Ghaleb ben Ali, was reported heading the revolt.

The imam was driven out of the area in 1955 by the Sultan. He has since been reported in Saudi Arabia, which has no clearly defined border with Oman. Unofficial reports say he returned to Oman to lead the rebellion.

★ ★ ★

Britain has both a treaty with the Sultan and oil rights in the territory, which is believed to be potentially productive in oil. The treaty does not automatically commit British to provide military support but diplomatic sources in London felt that forces would be offered if necessary to prevent the Sultan's overthrow.

Pleasure Craft Bumps Mayflower II in New York

NEW YORK (AP)—A pleasure boat bumped into the bow of the Mayflower II yesterday.

About 30 visitors were aboard the sailing ship at her Hudson River pier. None were hurt. The sturdy oak hull was undamaged.

★ ★ ★

Police said the 75-foot pleasure craft Big Pebble of Miami Beach, Fla., backed into the Mayflower to avoid colliding with a sightseeing boat. The aft railing of the Big Pebble was damaged.

The Mayflower, a replica of the original Pilgrim ship, is on exhibit here.

Step on 'Air Breaks' to Keep Waves Down

YOKOHAMA, Japan (AP)—Oil for troubled waters? The Japan Steel Tube Co., says use compressed air and blow the waves down.

The firm is testing an air-breakwater device to protect moored ships in winds of up to typhoon force. Powerful jets of air from a tube laid underwater are said to weaken the force of the waves.

Pick Ordnance Deputy

DETROIT (AP)—Col. William A. Call, veteran Michigan-born Ordnance Corps officer, was appointed deputy commander of the army's ordnace tank-automative command here.

Earl's Crew Cut Gets No Help From Wife

By EARL WILSON

HOLLYWOOD—We husbands have to take an awful lot from our wives when we lose just a teentsy-weentsy bit of our hair.

★ ★ ★

I came here from San Francisco with a "round crew cut" which my wife said made me look like I had just come off "The Rock." I was, indeed, very thin on top.

So as we left with Terry Moore and her mother, I heard people chattering—and I suspected they were saying, as they always do, "Doesn't that fellow look like George Gobel (or Gary Moore?"

I mentioned my suspicions to the B.W. who said:

"No, they're saying, 'Doesn't that fellow look like Yul Brynner?' "

Speaking of hairdos, Mitzi Gaynor just got her locks trimmed to play the Nellie Forbush role in "South Pacific" and said afterward, "For this part, I'd have my head shaved."

MITZI

Curiously, when Mitzi was mentioned as top contender for the role, the mother of a famous Hollywood star, who was sure her daughter was going to get it, phoned a newspaper and stormed at them for printing such rubbish.

"The only thing she could be contender for is the "native girl' part," this mother raged. Now that mama's sorry.

★ ★ ★

Anna Maria Alberghetti's sister Carla, 17, is going out on her own as a single soon and will appear on the Ed Sullivan TV show.

"Who gets the mother, Carla or Anna Maria?" is being asked here . . . for the mother, now accompanying the girls in their performance, is playing a boogie woogie piano that brings down the house. Mama's good enough to go out on her own as a slaughterer of the Steinway.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y. . . .

Marilyn Monroe's taking cooking lessons from her mother-in-law. . . Lawrence Welk will write his autobiography . . . Jayne Mansfield'll get a big chunk of her inheritance—about 30G's—this year . . . Joan Crawford, whose husband heads Pepsi-Cola, coaxed Billy Wilder into plugging the drink in "Love in the Afternoon" . . .

EARL'S PEARLS . . . We've been watching TV a lot, lately—and you know, radio doesn't seem half as bad as it used to.

★ ★ ★

WISH I'D SAID THAT: A man who thinks marriage is a 50-50 proposition doesn't understand one of two things—women or fractions.

★ ★ ★

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Most people like to play in the sand on their vacations. Except, of course, golfers . . . That's earl, brother.

One Day Brings Three TV Bids

Actor Selects the Role of Richard Diamond in Detective Series

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—After chasing after acting success for half of his 28 years, David Janssen had it come to him — threefold.

★ ★ ★

The young actor is the star of the "Richard Diamond — Private Detective" show on CBS-TV Tuesday nights. On the same day he learned he had won the role, he also found out he had been chosen for two other TV series — both Westerns!

He had to choose one of the three. With Westerns flooding the TV market, the private eye opus appeared the best choice.

He takes over the role that Dick Powell did on radio for several years. He was Powell's personal choice for the series, which is being made by the company in which he is a partner, Four Star Productions.

★ ★ ★

David is no carbon-copy of Dick. The lad is broad-shouldered, broad faced with dark hair. Some say he rewembles Clark Gable, and that's possible. His voice is ideal for the private eye type. It is low and off-key.

Success has been a long time coming for Janssen. Born in Naponee, Neb., he toured with his mother, an actress and Ziegfeld showgirl. When she settled in Hollywood, he tried acting in school plays and occasional movies.

After graduating from Fairfax High, he got a contract from 20th Century-Fox, but nothing came of it. He did summer theaters, then landed a contract at Universal-International. His career was interrupted by the Army and he returned to U-I for a few roles before he was dropped.

★ ★ ★

A free-lancer, he did a couple of good parts at Warners in "The Girl He Left Behind" and "With You in My Arms." Then came Richard Diamond.

Canada Studies Bids to Pave Alaska Highway

OTTAWA, Ont. (AP)—Officials of Defense Construction, Ltd., a government corporation, are studying bids for paving the first 50-mile stretch of the Alaskan highway which runs from Dawson Creek, B. C. to Fairbands, Alaska.

If the first paved stretch, between Dawson Creek and Fort St. George, reduces maintenance costs the entire 1,150-mile highway within Canadian territory may be paved.

Canadian Army Size Smallest Since 1951

OTTAWA (AP) — Canada's army has dropped to 46,684 men—the lowest number since 1951.

With no draft, Canada depends on volunteers for all its services.

Pay hikes announced last week for the armed forces may increase enlistments. A recruit's pay now is $104, while a fully trained private with six years' experience gets $171 a month.

In March 1952, during the Korean War buildup the army numbered 49,278.

'Miss Liberty' Lighted

NEW YORK — The Statue of Liberty in New York harbor is now floodlighted all night for the first time in her history. Hitherto the lights had been turned off at midnight.

Gorilla Smacks May Bring Zoo a Rare Family

DALLAS (AP) — Boy met girl in the zoo gorilla cage Saturday, but it didn't have much effect until yesterday when the girl tried the direct approach — a good right hand to the chops.

★ ★ ★

Zoo officials hope it will result, eventually, in a family, something that doesn't happen often.

Jenny, a 3-year-old fresh from the Canary Islands, moved in on 2-year-old Jimmy Saturday. But he ignored her until, to the delight of a Sunday zoo crowd, she slapped him this way and that.

★ ★ ★

Now Jimmy pays attention, but zoo director Pierre Fontaine said they had plenty of time anyway, because gorillas don't mature until about 18.

Novels Dramatized Nation's History

Author Kenneth Roberts Dies in Village of Birth

KENNEBUNKPORT, Maine (AP) —Author Kenneth Roberts, whose best-selling novels brought the drama of the nation's history to millions of readers, died yesterday in this seacoast village of his birth. He was 71.

Roberts, who had been in bed for a week, fell victim to coronary thrombosis. He recently had completed proof-reading "Water Unlimited," a book for October publication.

★ ★ ★

Roberts first hit the best seller list in 1937 with his "Northwest Passage," a story of French and Indian War days.

Prior to this he had produced a series of romantic novels dealing with the Revolution and the War of 1812. These started with "Arundel" and were followed by "The Lively Lady," "Rabble in Arms" and "Captain Caution.

Recently a special Pulitzer citation went to Roberts for creating "a greater interest in early American history.'

Death came to the novelist at his seaside farm which he called Rocky Pastures. Here in a book-crammed studio, Roberts did much of the painstaking research and writing for his novels, the latest of which was "Boon Island." Here too he dabbled in what he called "off-beat agriculture," specializing in vegetables.

Roberts was a hard, eager worker and a stickler for accuracy and detail. "Northwest Passage," he said, required three years of the hardest kind of research "for the reader to understand in two days."

★ ★ ★

Roberts was born Dec. 8, 1885. He was graduated from Cornell in 1908 and three years later married Anna S. Mosser, who survived him. He was a staff member of the defunct Boston Post for eight years.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at Cambridge, Mass. Burial will be in the Arlington National Cemetery.

Bullet Speeds Baby's Delivery

Mother and Child OK After Shooting Accident in Family Automobile

CHICAGO — A policeman's 30-year-old wife was reported in liceman's wife was reported in satisfactory condition today after giving birth to an 8-pound, 8-ounce boy yesterday after she had been shot accidentally by her 3-year-old son.

★ ★ ★

The birth occurred eight hours after Mrs. Patricia O'Connor was wounded by a shot from her husband's revolver as their son Brian pointed it at her in play in the family automobile. The husband, Joseph, said he had parked his car and stepped across the street to a newsstand. A he got out of the car, he said, the revolver apparently slipped from his pocket to the seat.

★ ★ ★

The boy picked up the gun and turned to his mother, who was in the rear seat, holding another child, Beth, 2, and was pointing the gun at her when it was discharged.

★ ★ ★

The .38-caliber bullet struck Mrs. O'Connor in the left shoulder and penetrated to her spine. Doctors noted signs of paralysis and began efforts to induce labor for fear that the condition might interfere with the imminent birth. The treatment accomplished its purpose, and a healthy, full-term baby was born.

Two hours after the delivery, Mrs. O'Connor was operated on for removal of the bullet.

British Actor Marries

NEW YORK (AP) — British actor Wilfrid Hyde White, 54, was married to a 25-year-old Brooklyn-born actress yesterday in a quiet ceremony at the Universalist Church of the Divine Paternity. White and his bride, Ethel Koreman, plan to live in England.

Bob Considine Says:

Millie Gets Job Instead of Present

NEW YORK (INS) — Got a bit of pan mail recently from a priest who serves St. Mary Parish in Annapolis, Md. He pointed out, and quite correctly, that I had used "inferred" when I should have used "implied."

★ ★ ★

It stirred a lot of good memories, not in semantics but in a field that can be even more enduring than words. Girl I know named Millie was married in that church 26 years ago today. I was there. Innamed Helene Curtis: Two out of fact, I was the other half of the ceremony. You may safely infer that I am implying that it took.

Couldn't think of anything to give her for an anniversary present, now that San Francisco has bought the Giants, so I got her a job.

In addition to her column in Diplomat magazine, and in the Morning Telegraph, and her job of raising four children and handling a house the size of Toots Shor, she is now on Walter O'Keefe's radio show, "Nightline."

★ ★ ★

Am looking around for something for her to do on the side, but only because I lover her very much.

U.S. SUPERMARKET

Jack Logan of Washington, D.C., president of the National Association of Food Chains, announces that in cooperation with the Department of Commerce the Association will build a typical U.S. supermarket in the U.S. exhibit at the Zagreb Grand Fair later this summer in Yugoslavia.

Expect it to build internation goodwill, as did the "Supermercato, U.S.A." which has been a big thing in Italy.

The "Super-Trznica" in Zagreb will carry such rarities (for that land) as fresh fruits, frozen foods, and 4,000 other items familiar and dear to the heart of the American shopper.

A single item by one columnist has caused the U.S. Air Force to withdraw its wonderful show at the Radio City Music Hall after a few performances. It was part of the stage show which is an adjunct to the picture being shown there — "Silk Stockings."

The crabby columnist complained that the airmen shouldn't be used in that capacity. Yet the drill, music and tableaux they presented would have thrilled a million Americans expected to see the Music Hall show in the next six weeks.

A pity.

HAIR STATISTICS

Some unnerving statistics on hair have reached us from some lady their hair shampooed, cut, dyed, tinted, set, and so forth.

Seventy-five per cent of them dye their hair. Most women, the survey shows, would rather have blonde hair than any other color.

Most men would rather just have hair.

Certainly will be surprised if Dr. Sam Sheppard flunks his lie detector test. He was the coolest I ever saw in a murder trial.

We wondered at the time why he had balked at taking the test, when it was offered by the Cleveland Police. He would have fogged the windows on the machine.

The reason the Cleveland Police are not flipping over the "confession" of the fellow being held in Deland, Fla., is that it is one of perhaps two dozen that have come to light since Marilyn Sheppard was found with her head beaten in on the morning of July 4, 1954.

There are always a series of confessions after a well-publicized crime. And, of course, always a chance that one may be telling the truth.

Local Elks Lodge Given Top Honor for Programs

The Pontiac Elks Lodge has received top honors for its Flag Day and Americanism programs from the annual Elks convention in San Francisco, according to County Clerk Lynn D. Allen, who heads the local lodge's Americanism Committee.

The exalted ruler of the local lodge, Robert Morris, is attending the convention on the West Coast.

This year the lodge sponsored a Flag Day dinner, with J. Addington Wagner, last year's national commander of the American Legion, as guest speaker.

Other events included a patriotic presentation by Oakland County 4-H clubs; honoring of newly-naturalized American citizens of the Pontiac area; and presentation of a U. S. savings bond to the winner of the flag-flying contest.

Allen explained that every year the lodge selects the outstanding flag flown from a Pontiac home.
