Pass Halfway Mark in Fund Campaign

Dwight Adams Sees Pontiac Locality Drive Ahead of 1952

Pontiac Area United Fund was past the half-way mark in its drive for $487,200 as volunteers attended a report luncheon today.

A tabulation this morning showed $286,734 already reported in at fund campaign headquarters in Hotel Pontiac.

"With the campaign only a week old," Dwight S. Adams, executive director, commented "we're running slightly ahead of the 1952 drive."

Some 300 campaign workers heard division and group chairmen report on the drive's progress at today's noon program at Pontiac Elks Temple.

Main speaker was Carl W. Moyer, general manager of Pontiac Fisher Body Division, GM, telling why General Motors and its employes support the United Fund.

Frank S. Lyndall, commercial divison chairman, was chairman for the luncheon, sponsored by Pontiac Manufacturers Assn.

Of the funds reported in this morning toward their quota, Pontiac area industrial workers had contributed $120,000; industrial corporations, $94,000; commercial division's stores, businesses and professional men, $57,480; and Pontiac area's share of Birmingham-Bloomfield solicitations, $10,000.

House-to-house canvassers in the geographical division had raised $3,000 in Pontiac and $2,254 in nearby areas.

Gifts of $500-or-more came from Pontiac Retail Store, $850; Mrs.

County Officials Reappointed

Austin, Merritt Among Ten Renamed to Posts by Supervisors

Ten men were re-elected to key posts in county government when Oakland County Board of Supervisors met Tuesday.

Harry J. Merritt was renamed corporation counsel and John C. Austin was renamed member of the Board of Auditors for three years. Dr. Frank R. Bates was renamed animal welfare director for a year.

The board renamed Ransford Bromley, Ralph A. Main, Robert Swanson and Merritt to three-year terms on Oakland County Planning Commission.

Dr. Ernest Bauer was retained as a county board of health member for another five years and Lyle Baker was renamed to the Oakland County Retirement Commission for four years.

John A. MacDonald and Albert Weber were reappointed to Oakland County Social Welfare Board and Tuberculosis Sanatorium Board of Trustees, respectively, for three-year terms.

Dean Optimistic Over Planning of Peace Talks

U. S. Envoy Will Offer Reds a New Formula for Korean Confab

PANMUNJOM (AP) — U. S. special envoy Arthur Dean tomorrow will offer the Communists a new formula for setting up a Korean peace conference. Today he said "there is a possibility we are going to work something out."

Dean's optimistic prediction followed the third session of preliminary talks to plan a Korean political conference. There was no noticeable progress at the 2 hour and 40 minute meeting.

Dean said he replied that Russia logically should attend the conference — and sit with Red China and North Korea — since Communist armies in Korea "were equipped with planes, tanks, guns and munitions sent from the Soviet Union."

"The Soviet Union has openly supported your side by word and deed," Dean declared. "The U.S.S.R. has thus played a direct role in the Korean hostilities."

The U. S. envoy, who represents the U. N., also reiterated that he had no authority under the United Nations resolution approving the preliminary talks to negotiate on composition of the top-level conference.

North Korean Delegate Ki Sok Bok branded the U.N. resolution as "completely illegal."

Dean is authorized only to set a time and place.

Dean said of repeated Communist assertions that Russia is a neutral:

"We cannot accept this suggestion seriously or indeed believe that you put it forward seriously. It is really very funny."

In his opening statement, Dean said he replied that Russia logically should attend the conference — and sit with Red China and North Korea — since Communist armies in Korea "were equipped with planes, tanks, guns and munitions sent from the Soviet Union."

U. S. to Resume Aid for Israel

Halting of Controversial Jordan River Project Basis for Decision

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the United States has decided to resume economic aid for Israel. He didn't specify when.

The President told a news conference he was delighted to learn of Israel's offer to go along with the United Nations and halt a controversial power project on the Jordan River while the U. N. consider the question.

As a result, he said, we can proceed with plans for economic help for Israel. He said he expected Secretary of State Dulles to have something to announce on that line probably later today.

Dulles earlier had disclosed that the bulk of U. S. economic aid to Israel was being held back on the grounds that Israel had defied a ruling by a U. N. commission that it should suspend work on diverting waters of the Jordan River. Syria had protested the Israeli project.

Israel's chief delegate to the U. N., Abba Eban, announced yesterday that his nation would hold up the project.

Asked today whether it is fair to say that this country has agreed to resume economic help, the President replied that it has made the decision to resume, yes.

Judd to Retire

LANSING (UP)—The State Agriculture department today announced Dr. Albert W. Judd, 62, Lansing, assistant state veterinarian, will soon retire after 21 years service.

Detroit Fire Kills 3, Hurts Nine Today

DETROIT (AP)—Two men and a woman were killed today in a rooming house fire which trapped them in their beds. Nine other persons were injured.

The fire broke out on the third floor of a building at 750 St. Antoine St., and spread to two stores. Policemen in a passing patrol car noticed the flames and helped rescue some occupants of the 19-room house.

The injured are Maragos Odysseos, 70; Mustafa Buch, 75; Goerge Nandekkar, 65; William Tempos, 58; Ahmed Darvish, 70; Wali Kahn, 58; Mrs. Emma Washington, 54; Mrs. Mary Rashid, 36; and her son, Robert, 10.

Engine Noise Muffled

GM Truck Reveals Exhaust to Absorb Offensive Sound

LOS ANGELES—After two years of engineering research GMC Truck & Coach Division has developed an exhaust system for its trucks that renders exhaust noises inoffensive to the human ears, P. J. Monaghan, vice president of General Motors and general manager of the division, announced here today.

Monaghan made the announcement during sessions of the American Trucking Association convention which has already had under discussion the subject of truck exhaust noises as one of the truckers' serious public relations problems.

GMC truck models with the newly-designed mufflers and exhaust pipes will be in production next month, the GMC executive said. A special name, "Silent Power," was originated for the system to indicate not only that GMC has eliminated objectionable exhaust noises but has not had to decrease its engine power to achieve it.

Although the Silent Power system costs more to manufacture, it will be standard equipment at no extra cost to the user.

Drizzle Brings Out Lights by Early Afternoon

STREET SCENE—Drizzle and mist which shrouded the city Tuesday brought early darkness. This view of West Huron street (looking west from Saginaw street) was taken in the afternoon, when offices, stores and motorists were obliged to use lights.

The cold drizzle brought .4 of an inch of precipitation to the Pontiac area and kept temperatures in the low 50s. Cool and cloudy weather, with a low of from 36 to 40 degrees tonight and a high of from 50 to 54 Thursday, is forecast by the U. S. Weather Bureau. The mercury stood at 40 degrees at 8 a. m. and dropped to 39 degrees by 2 p. m. in downtown Pontiac.

Germ Charges Branded 'False'

Britain Calls on U. N. for 'Decent Burial' of Red Propaganda

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Britain today denounced germ warfare charges against the United States, and urged the U. N. to "give these most indecent charges a decent burial."

By thus clearing the decks, Minister of State Selwyn Lloyd told the 60-nation political committee, the U. N. can return to its task of "working out ways and means to achieve conditions for the peaceful co-existence between our two systems which the Soviet leaders now say is feasible."

Nationalist China's Dr. H. R. Wei said dropping of the matter might be interpreted by the Reds as a weakness.

The U. N. turned its attention to the germ warfare debate as tensions over Palestine eased after Israel offered to hold up her Jordan River hydro-electric project. The suspension is scheduled to last during Security Council debates on the issue. President Eisenhower said today the United States has decided to resume economic aid to Israel because of the decision.

"Never has so much been written by such confirmed fellow travelers to prove so little," he declared.

"The utter falsity of these allegations of bacterial warfare having now been proved, let us consign them to the oblivion which they properly deserve with a tribute in our hearts to the courage and endurance of the men who went through such terrible ordeals."

Erasing Chalk Mark on Tires Not in Book

DETROIT (AP) — Patrolman Irey D. Smith put chalk marks on car tires so that he could identify on later rounds any parking overtime.

Fifteen minutes later he saw 17-year-old Peter W. Vanderhelst rub the chalk off his tire. Smith ticketed him under "Section 44C, Chapter 236 City Ordinances."

Traffic referee Oscar A. Riopelle found in court today that section referred to excessive noise and smoke and defective bumpers and fenders. No where else could he find anything about erasing chalk marks from tires, so he dismissed Vanderhelst.

8 Ordered to Trial in Juke Box Case

DETROIT (AP) — All eight defendants in the labor rackets grand jury's juke box extortion case were ordered to stand trial today.

Recorder's Judge Martha W. Griffiths, in holding against the eight men, declared evidence at a three-week examination showed them to have put a "union label" on "terror and violence."

"If there is anything of which I am certain," she said, "it is that there is a conspiracy here."

Ike Won't Meet Malenkov Till Reds Show Good Faith

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today it would be perfectly hopeless for him to take part in a meeting with Soviet Premier Malenkov unless he knows Russia has an honest purpose for such a meeting.

He added that Russia could show such honesty in any of a hundred ways.

The President's news conference statement was in response to questions about a new Russian hint that Premier Malenkov may be ready for peace talks with the Western chiefs of state.

The President also repeated what he has said before—that regardless of handicaps or inconvenience he would do anything in the world he thought would advance the cause of peace.

He qualified that again by saying there must be an indication it would produce results in good faith.

The President also told reporters:

1. There exists no plan of any kind for reducing the armed forces of the United States anywhere.

2. It is conceivable that he will make some general statement urging the election of a Republican Congress next year, or even that he may give an incidental pat-on-the-back to some individual candidates. But he reiterated a previous stand that he will not go into any state or congressional district to campaign.

3. He hopes and believes cattle prices have reached the bottom and are on the way back up. In that connection, the President said only a future drought or other crisis would justify calling a special session of Congress to deal with the farm problem.

4. When he shook hands with Paul Troast, Republican candidate for governor of New Jersey, on a recent visit to Atlantic City, he had never heard of Joseph (Joey) Fay, the imprisoned union official whose release Troast has sought in a written appeal to New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

Cars 'Unload' Fast as Haulaway Skids

HARRISBURG, Pa. (UP) — Truck Driver Robert G. Callahan, Rochester, Mich., set a record for unloading four new automobiles from his auto carrier Tuesday night.

Callahan failed to see a darkened, rain-swept intersection until the last minute — then applied his trailer brakes. The auto-carrier skidded into a curb and dumped the four new cars over Warren K. Harlacher's newly-landscaped lawn.

County Sets Up Vet Department

Supervisors Name Three Members of Board to Direct Program

Three members of Oakland County Board of Supervisors were named today to manage a newly-authorized county department of veterans' affairs.

The three are Don R. MacDonald, Sylvan Lake, chairman of the supervisors' veterans committee, named for three years; Harold K. Schone, Oak Park, committeeman, two years; and John K. Irwin, Pontiac, one year.

Supervisors named the three after approving a veterans' committee proposal, presented by MacDonald, to adopt the provisions of Michigan Act 192 of 1953. The law, which originated in this county, gives counties with over 350,000 people and less than 800,000 the right to establish veterans' affairs departments.

Actually, an Oakland County veterans' service office had operated since shortly after World War I. Directed by the late Morgan E. Siple Sr., clerks helped veterans get government benefits and aided them with problems.

A three-man commission should have been named regularly by Oakland County Probate Court, but no appointments had been made since 1946, according to county corporation Counsel Harry J. Merritt.

Under the new provisions, members of the three-man board must be honorably discharged veterans who live in Oakland County.

Michigan Car Licenses at Record Peak Oct. 15

LANSING (AP) — The Department of State reported today that automobile licenses reached a record high on Oct. 15.

Drop Charges Against Unionist

Five Other Teamsters Officials Still May Face Extortion Trials

DETROIT (AP)—One of six AFL Teamsters Union officials is free today of charges of extortion and conspiracy.

Accusations against Anthony J. Liuzzo, business agent of Detroit Local 247, were dropped on motion of Assistant Prosecutor Joseph A. Rashid as a week-long examination of the six ended in Recorder's court yesterday.

Defense motions to strike certain testimony and dismiss will be heard at 2 p.m. Thursday by Judge Martha Griffiths.

These still are to learn whether they must face trial:

Louis Linteau, business agent of Pontiac Local 614; Mike E. Nicoletti, president of Detroit Local 247; Samuel Marroso, business agent of 247; Daniel J. Keating, president of 614, and Frank Fitzsimmons, vice president of Detroit Local 299.

Contractors detailed during the examination a long list of what they said were solicited gifts and payoffs. Eighteen payments involving $11,710 were placed in the record yesterday alone.

Since the examination started, Locals 247 and 614 have been put under trusteeships on orders of the AFL International Teamsters Union, James R. Hoffa, president of the Detroit Teamsters Joint Council, took them over.

The six men were indicted by a one-man labor-rackets grand jury.

Ex-Convict Dies Trucking More of $50,000 Loot

Trenton Couple Is Held After Agents Uncover Stolen Goods on Farm

FBI agents arrested a Trenton couple this morning after a search of their farm uncovered part of a $50,000 cargo of cigarettes stolen Monday in Pontiac.

Earlier today, an ex-convict identified as Chester Rudzinski, 35, of Detroit was killed near Trenton when his panel truck crashed while being chased by a carload of FBI agents working on the case.

Fourteen cases of cigarettes were found in a hayloft on the farm and 37 cases of the stolen cigarettes were recovered from the panel truck. From 225 to 250 cases were believed destroyed when the truck burned.

The office of F. H. McIntire, special agent in charge of the Detroit FBI Headquarters, identified the Trenton couple as William LaForest, 45, of 20473 King Rd., and his wife, Ernestine, 43.

The pair faces arraignment today in the U. S. Federal District Court, Detroit, on a federal charge of possessing stolen goods.

FBI agents said the couple's farm is located near the spot on U. S. 25 where a stolen truck-trailer containing the cigarettes and other household articles was abandoned yesterday. The truck was empty when Michigan State Police of the Flat Rock Post found it.

The truck-trailer was stolen Monday night from the loading dock of the Pontiac branch of the National Transit Corp. at 324 Irwin Ave. Its main cargo was 540 cases of cigarettes shipped here for distribution to city merchants.

A shed on the farm near Trenton yielded 10 floor heaters, 24 ironing boards and a table and chair, said agents. The articles were identified as those that had been placed in the stolen truck.

The Detroiter killed in the early morning chase was an ex-convict, according to the Detroit FBI office. Agents said he apparently had gone under an alias of Carl Chester Ross.

His panel truck, without a rear license plate as required by Michigan law, was spotted by four FBI agents investigating the Pontiac case. When they stopped the truck, agents said, it made two complete turns in an intersection and sped off across a field.

The FBI said the truck continued its cross-country dash for nearly a mile, then plunged into a gully and burst into flames. The driver was trapped in the cab.

Police said cigarettes found in the rear of the burned-out truck were from the same shipment stolen in Pontiac on Monday night.

DEATH TRAP—In this charred truck cab a driver identified as Chester Rudzinski, 35, of Detroit died early today in Romulus Township when his truck, chased by FBI agents, crashed into a ditch and exploded. The truck carried a cargo of cigarettes which FBI agents said were part of a truck load stolen Monday night in Pontiac.

Birmingham Plan Group Discusses City's Present, Future Traffic Problems

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — Rather than having to discuss one or two particular subjects, plan board members last night found themselves in the rare position of being able to devote the evening to the city's basic planning program, with an eye to the future.

Discussing present and future traffic problems, the planners agreed basically that obtaining a right-of-way to extend 14 Mile road through from Southfield to Cranbrook roads should be the first step taken to alleviate traffic congestion in the heart of Birmingham.

Members agreed that they must first set up policies showing residents the board's basic ideals and objectives for maintaining the residential nature of the city.

Plans would show how the proposed state-built expressways bypassing the city could turn what are now considered major arterial streets, such as Maple or Southfield, into feeder streets.

They would show how a grid pattern of streets might keep through traffic out of residential areas. Also, closing off certain streets fast becoming major arteries in residential areas would maintain the original character of these neighborhoods.

Even the possibility of one-way streets will be looked into.

"Natural neighborhood areas" would work with the plan board and the city commission to develop, according to Plan Director Robert Boatman, "ways to conserve and improve the living conditions in their area as well as into the overall pattern of land uses in the city."

An open study meeting has been set for next Tuesday to draw up some of the general policies.

Contract Given on Incinerator

3 Furnaces for Area Garbage Disposal Unit to Cost $414,272

BIRMINGHAM — Low bidders, the Morse-Boulger Destructor Co. of New York, have been awarded a $414,272 contract for three furnaces for the Southern Oakland County Garbage and Rubbish Authority's incinerator at John R and 12½ Mile, Royal Oak Township.

A bid by the same firm in July was delayed when the bearer, Thomas J. Kelly was arrested following a traffic accident in Ferndale. The Authority decided to revise their plans and re-advertise for bids.

Previously contracts totaling $885,530 have already been awarded for the 40-acre incinerator site which will serve Authority members Berkley, Birmingham, Oak Park, Ferndale, Hazel Park, Huntington Woods, Pleasant Ridge, Clawson, Royal Oak and Southfield and Royal Oak townships.

Gas Institute Sees Substitute in Sight by '55

ST. LOUIS (AP) — An acceptable substitute for natural gas may be available for home heating and industry by the end of next year or early in 1955.

Those dates were set by E. S. Pettyjohn, vice president and director of the Institute of Gas Technology, Chicago, at a meeting of members and trustees of the institute last night.

Pettyjohn said a new process of hydrogastification last year allowed researchers to make headway in a search for a natural gas substitute.

"For the first time," he said, "a conversion to gas has been accomplished without a solid or liquid residue resulting in the operation."

Cigarettes Found, Trenton Pair Held

Wayne County sheriff's office said the thieves apparently transferred part of the cargo into the smaller truck. Whereabouts of the rest of the cargo was not immediately known.

A traffic accident led to the discovery of the semi-trailer truck stolen at Pontiac. Mrs. Mary Bais, 40, Trenton, called police Tuesday when the vehicle forced her off the Dix-Toledo highway. The truck ran off the other side of the road and its driver fled.

The FBI agents were en route to check the abandoned truck when they decided to stop the smaller truck because it lacked a license plate.

The smaller truck was first spotted on U. S. 25 near King road, in the same general area where the semi was abandoned.

The agents said the driver of the second truck turned off his lights when they stopped him. Then he sped down the highway, forcing about a dozen cars into the ditch.

The Romulus Fire Department salvaged some of the stolen cigarettes. They were identified as part of the Pontiac shipment by stencils on the cases.

The cigarettes were shipped into Pontiac on Monday afternoon, but were not distributed to local merchants due to a shortage of manpower. The truck was reported stolen between 7 p. m. and midnight.

The cargo, originally estimated at $20,000, was re-evaluated today.

S. C. McHugh of Detroit, vice president and general manager of the transit firm, estimated the retail value of the cigarettes at $50,000.

The floor heaters and ironing boards, worth a total of about $200, were being shipped across state lines. This permitted the FBI to enter the investigation.

Employe Retirement Age for County Now Flexible

County employes may now keep working beyond retirement age as long as health and ability permit.

Oakland County Board of Supervisors Tuesday changed retirement rules to let employes keep working for one-year periods indefinitely after age 65. Each extension would need approval from the employe's department head and the retirement commission.

Formerly, employes could retire at age 60, had to retire at age 65 unless special extensions of service were given, and on no account could delay retirement beyond 70.

Employes who work beyond the age of 70, however, will not get higher benefits when they eventually retire. Benefits will stay at the age-70 level.

Supervisor Fred W. Smith of Royal Oak, suggested three changes in retirement rules on behalf of Oakland County Retirement Commission.

Robert E. Lilly of Oakland County Board of Auditors explained the three moves, all of which won supervisors' approval.

A second change provides for an employe's survivors or his or their legal representatives to collect his unused contributions to the retirement fund—no matter which of the three retirement plans he chooses.

The third move changes a ruling which formerly let only employes who left county service before they were 60 collect delayed benefits.

These "delayed" benefits are provided to let an employe collect some pension after the lapse of 10 years if he retires with more than eight but less than 10 years of service.

From now on, all employes who retire with eight years or more of service may wait the extra year or two and collect their pension when they reach the age of 60, regardless of their age when they retired.

The fund from which retired employes draw pensions is made up about half-and-half by the employes and the county.

The county now puts in 5.95 per cent of its payroll and each employe contributes five per cent of his salary each year.

Dean Is Optimistic About Peace Talks

accused the Reds of moving from a discussion of an agenda to arguing items on the agenda —specifically the Red demand that neutral nations participate in the peace conference.

"This action is arbitrary on two counts," he said. "It involves a unilateral determination of the agenda by your side as the official agenda of this meeting. It also involves a unilateral choice of one item in that agenda as the primary interest and subject of first importance."

The North Korean representative objected to Dean's statement Tuesday which he said "conspicuously omitted the question of the withdrawal of all foreign forces from Korea as was provided in the armistice agreement.

"Outside the meeting, your side openly declared that the objective which the political conference seeks after should only be the withdrawal of all Chinese forces whereas all the American forces will remain in Korea. Our side will never tolerate such an attitude of your side."

GMC Truck Develops New Silent Exhaust

two years ago in response to demands by truck operators, we had no formulas or a base line from which to begin," Monaghan said.

"Our engineers by trial and error method, and in cooperation with muffler manufacturers, finally worked out a system that will absorb those noises so offensive to the ear."

The mufflers are a reverse-flow type, larger than previous units and made rigid by the use of heavier gauges of metal. New exhaust manifolding and larger exhaust pipes are incorporated in the system.

"It is our hope that other manufacturers will copy our system so that all operators eventually will benefit from this development," Monaghan said.

City Manager Negotiates for Walkway for Children

BIRMINGHAM — City Manager Donald C. Egbert is negotiating with two residents for a walkway through land they acquired two years ago when the city vacated a portion of Dixie road.

The walk is necessary for children living north of the Porritt property to walk to Torry school to the south. The city commission secured similar walkway rights in the informal agreement they have made on the zoning the Porritt property will bear if it is annexed.

The vacation was granted by the city Jan. 22, 1951, on the petition

Church Leaders Speak for U. N.

Also Hear Mrs. F. D. R. Defend Its Works and Its Cost

CLEVELAND (AP)—Church leaders today made it plain they're worried about the fate of the United Nations.

Speaker after speaker at an interdenominational conference rose to decry anti-U.N. activity in the country and to declare their confidence in the world organization.

The U.N., said Dr. Richard M. Fagley, New York Congregationalist, is "threatened by a jungle of dashing nationalism, social systems and power blocs."

Mrs. Edith Sampson, Chicago Episcopalian, said, "The future of the United Nations is at stake. . . The U.N. deserves the full support of the churches we represent."

* * *

Such sentiments were echoed repeatedly as 400 clergymen and laymen, representing 30 Protestant and Eastern Orthodox denominations, sought to put world questions to the test of Christian doctrine.

Last night, opening night of the four-day meeting, 2,000 persons joined conference delegates in listening to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt praise United Nations achievements and defend its cost.

She said the danger that another war probably would bring extinction to most of the earth's people had provided a "tremendous incentive" to make the U.N. work, and added:

* * *

". . . We are paying a great deal less for this first effort at insurance to promote the possibility of a peaceful world than we would pay for a new war."

* * *

Because of the big share of U. N. cost paid by this country it is a "natural feeling" to have misgivings, she said, but few people have taken the trouble to find out Americans are getting more than their money's worth.

The children's fund and the U.N. health organization have saved thousands of lives, the technical assistance program is building new world markets vital to our economic future, and the effectiveness of U.N. collective security has been shown in the Korean War, Mrs. Roosevelt said.

* * *

The delegates last night also heard an Eisenhower administration official take issue with what he called the "small minority of Americans" who oppose the U.N.

* * *

"I can understand the feeling of those who seek to protect our basic liberties," said Asst. Secretary of State Thurston B. Morton. "But I do not see that the United Nations, an organization of sovereign states, is any threat."

He called it "mankind's best hope for peace."

Lansing Opens Heart to Quads

Hospital Reports That Trollman Foursome Is Doing 'Pretty Well'

LANSING (AP) — For the second time in a quarter-century, this capital city opened its heart today in welcome to a set of tiny quadruplet babies—"A, "B," "C" and "D" Trollman.

The youngsters, three boys and a girl, were reported doing "pretty well" in an incubator while nurses hovered with eye-droppers to feed them their first meals.

The quads were born to Mrs. June E. Trollman, a 33-year-old divorcee and former state employe, who has four other children. The mother was reported doing well.

A local dairy company was first to the front with a promise of a year's supply of milk and the proprietor, Dewey McDonald, said with a grin that it wouldn't all be delivered at once.

Officials reported a warm, quick flood of telephone calls from local residents who wanted to provide gifts of all sorts for the young mother and her little newcomers.

Lansing had experience in greeting quads. It was 23 years ago that it welcomed the four little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morlok, an unemployed factory worker. The town elected the father constable at the next election, a post he has held ever since.

The gifts flowed in then as they have started to do now.

One of the Morlok quads, Edna, went over to Edward W. Sparrow Hospital where she was born, and grinned through the same glass window which permitted inspection of her and her sisters in their debut 23 years ago.

Lansing already was worrying about what the "official" birthdate would be for the Trollman quads. It has observed the Morlok birthdate ever since.

The puzzle resulted from the fact that three of the new quads were born minutes before midnight Monday and the fourth was born two minutes after midnight on Tuesday — all within a space of 12 minutes. The children all weighed under 3 pounds.

Passenger Injured in 3 Car Accident

Noble Martin, 44, of 4 S. Main St., Clawson, suffered bruises yesterday in an accident involving three vehicles at Auburn Ave. and Hartline St., Avon Township. A passenger in an auto driven by William G. Scott, 55, of 511 S. Main St., Clawson, was treated at Pontiac General Hospital.

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies said a second auto, driven by Louis W. Castor, 40, of 2965 Hartline St., Rochester, was hit by Scott's auto.

Pontiac Deaths

John E. Cline

Funeral was held Tuesday for John Edward Cline, 27, of Ann Arbor. Mr. Cline was born in Pontiac June 1, 1926, son of James and Elsie Elliott Cline, who now reside at Drayton Plains.

Receiving his M.A. degree from the University of Michigan in 1950, he was preparing for his Ph.D. degree while working in the university's Engineering Research Institute.

He was a member of the following engineering honorary fraternities: Phi Kappa Phi, Tau Beta Pi, Eta Kappa Nu and Sigma Xi and also Gamma Alpha professional fraternity. He also was a member of the Ann Arbor Airfoilers (model plane club).

Besides his widow, the former Elaine Grossman, he is survived by his parents.

Mr. Cline was killed last Saturday in an automobile accident on U. S. 23 near the Willow Run Expressway.

Mrs. Signe O. Fisher

After a prolonged illness, Mrs. Signe O. Fisher, 52, of 455 S. Marshall St., died Tuesday afternoon.

Born in Sweden July 8, 1901 she was the daughter of Carl and Minna Olson Jostrand. She married Eugene B. Fisher at St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 22, 1919, and came to Pontiac in August 1923.

Besides her husband and mother, she is survived by seven brothers and sisters, Mrs. Linnea Mueller, Mrs. Vivian Sperance, Charles, Erick, George, Margaret and Dorothy Jostrand of St. Paul.

Funeral will be Friday at 2 p.m. from the First Church of God. The Rev. Grover Johnson, her pastor, will officiate and burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

James F. Lancie

James F. Lancie, 53, of 46 W. Hopkins St., died early Tuesday afternoon in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. He had been ill two months.

Born in McKees Rock, Pa., March 26, 1900, he married Ruth Williams here July 7, 1928 and had lived in Pontiac since that time. He was an employe in the tool and die department at Fisher Body Division.

Besides his widow, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Edna Thompson of Keego Harbor, Ruth and Charlotte at home, five brothers, three sisters and five grandchildren.

Prayer service will be tonight at 8 o'clock in the Farmer-Snover Funeral Home. The body will be taken Thursday morning to the Miller Funeral Home at Mancelona for service and burial.

Mrs. Edith M. Phinney

Funeral for Mrs. Edith M. Phinney, 63, of 13702 Edmore St., Detroit, a former Pontiac resident, will be Friday at 2 p.m. from Pursley Funeral Home. The Rev. Paul R. Havens of First Methodist Church, of which she was a member, will officiate and burial will be in Perry Mount Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Phinney died Tuesday morning after a prolonged illness.

Mrs. Anna E. Rederstorf

Funeral for Mrs. Anna E. Rederstorf, 52, of 270 S. East Blvd. will be Thursday at 2 p. m. from the Pursley Funeral Home. The Rev. Carl W. Nelson of St. John Lutheran Church will officiate and burial will be in Perry Mount Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Rederstorf died in Pontiac General Hospital Monday.

Peanut-Hungry Youth Sounds Emergency Call

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—K. G. Wells, director of the Ozark Empire Fair, got an emergency call on the public address system.

Fairgrounds police sent him hurrying to the grandstand where his young son, Keith, was waiting for him.

"You want me?" Wells asked.

"Yes, Daddy, I want some peanuts."

3 Die as Bomber Crashes in Flames

VANCE AIR FORCE BASE, Okla. (AP) — A B25 bomber, on a routine training flight, crashed in flames in an open field some four miles southwest of here last night killing three airmen.

Identification was withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Col. Leonard Nicholson, base commander, said a pilot saw the wreckage from the air and notified the control tower. Fire equipment and ambulances were rushed to the scene.

The three bodies were found in the wreckage which was strewn over 1,000 yards.

Nicholson said apparently no one saw the plane go down. The nearest farm house was three quarters of a mile away and it was deserted.

Grandmother Asking 'Day' of Recognition

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — The grandmothers of California want their day—

"We want a day set aside for honoring grandmother," says Mrs. Lottie P. Gregory, a spry 73 year old from San Jose who founded the California Grandmothers' Club in 1949.

She plans to talk to the state convention today about marching on the capitol to see Gov. Goodwin J. Knight about making the second Sunday in October Grandmothers' Day.

Air Academy Close to Reality

Bill Before Congress Would Establish New Service University

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)— The Air Force is ready to set up a West Point of the air as soon as Congress says yes.

There is even a possibility it may not be necessary to await congressional authorization before starting an experimental air academy on a small scale.

These possibilities were discussed at a briefing by Lt. Gen. Laurence S. Kuter, commanding general of the Air University, for visiting aviation writers.

* * *

The university, at nearby Maxwell Air Force Base, is not an academy, but a military graduate school for officers.

Kuter said officers on the Air University staff "hope that legislation now before Congress to establish an air academy will pass."

"We would expect to provide much of the staff for such an academy," he said. "We have drafted a curriculum and other details, and are ready to put them into operation."

* * *

Brig. Gen. Dale Smith, the Air University's director of education, added that plans are to enroll 250 students in the first class, "and we are prepared to start with the freshman class at any time."

A bill now before Congress, sponsored by Rep. Vinson (D-Ga) and supported by the Defense Department, would authorize an air academy of 2,500 students, an enrollment equal to that of the military academy at West Point.

The bill also would authorize establishment of a smaller interim academy. It is such a temporary academy which some experts believe the Air Force already has the authority to set up.

Londoners May Tote Masks to Repel Fogs

LONDON (AP)—Millions of Londoners who carried gas masks for nearly six years during World War II soon may be toting a new type of mask—this time as protection against winter "killer fogs."

A London medical committee representing 6,000 general practioners today urged Londoners to make themselves simple gauze masks for the oncoming smog season.

The committee said nearly all 6,000 deaths caused by sulphuric fumes of the smog last year could have been avoided by a gauze mask costing the equivalent of a dime to make.

Before World War II, Korean industry, located mostly in the north now held by the Communists, was more important than that of either Mexico or Turkey.

Shuns Remarks on Match Plans

Dorothy McGuire Quiet; LaRosa Says He Has Hopes for Marriage

NEW YORK (AP)—Dorothy McGuire is refusing to comment about any plans she may have for marrying singer Julius La Rosa.

La Rosa says he hopes to marry her, but her father insists the whole affair is "just publicity—just lies."

The attractive Miss McGuire—a 22-year-old entertainer on the Arthur Godfrey television and radio programs from which La Rosa was fired a week ago Monday—reportedly had intended to make a statement yesterday.

* * *

However, a source close to her said later she had decided against commenting. She continued to avoid newsmen.

She made her customary appearance with her two sisters on Godfrey's morning program. Godfrey expressed his high regard for the three sisters in introducing them for their number.

The 23-year-old La Rosa sought seclusion yesterday, but it was disclosed that he had conferred at length on Monday with a priest regarding the problem of his romance with Miss McGuire.

La Rosa said on Monday he hopes to marry Miss McGuire but that there are religious and legal difficulties to work out. He is a Roman Catholic. Miss McGuire, whose mother is a minister, is not. The young entertainer is still married to a serviceman, Sgt. John Brown, now in Korea.

* * *

In Miamisburg, Ohio, Miss McGuire discounted the reports that she would wed La Rosa. Her father, Asa McGuire, insisted she was "happily married" to Brown.

Miss McGuire's mother, the Rev. Lillie McGuire, resigned last year as pastor of Miamisburg's First Church of God after her daughters went to New York.

Rob Good Samaritan Who Gave Car a Push

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Two men drove into a gasoline station, bought a tank of gas and then couldn't get their car started.

Supervisors Honor Late Clare W. Seery

After the opening invocation by the Rev. Robert M. Atkins, supervisors stood with bowed heads for one minute of silent prayer in Mr. Seery's memory.

Mrs. Genevieve Schock of Berkley then won board approval of a statement telling of "our great debt of gratitude" to Mr. Seery, who acted as adviser and counsel to the welfare committee department.

R. Clare Cummings, a Pontiac supervisor, offered memorial resolutions honoring both the late John B. Ford and Mr. Seery.

Used Car Sales Tax Produces $76,612

LANSING (UP) — A 1953 act imposing a three per cent tax on private used car sales produced $76,612 in its first 12 days, Secretary of State Owen J. Cleary said today.

The law went into effect Oct. 2. It abolished the sales tax exemption on used car sales by private individuals.

Cleary said that his department did not yet have enough experience with the law to predict its annual return. Legislative sponsors had estimated the return at up to $7,000,000 a year.

In the first 12 days, Cleary said, there was a total of 4,527 taxable transactions.

Ballpoint Pens Take On Jeweled (Ruby) Tip

NEW YORK (UP) — Ballpoint pens are taking on a jeweled look.

A new retractable pen called the "Clicker" has a ruby tip in place of the conventional steel ballpoint.

The ruby-tip pen is said to boost writing capcity six times and to do away with "weepage," which results from wear at the point.

For the average person, the firm says, the pen will write a full year without refilling.

An all but forgotten ruler, Queen Margaret of Scotland, is the lady credited with introducing special privileges for unmarried girls during leap years. In the leap year 1288 she ordained that any single young man who rejected an offer of marriage from a maiden would be fined one pound or less, according to his means.

New Type of Leather Lets Shoes Go Wading

NEW YORK (UP)—Shoes that shun the slush are being readied for winter footwear.

Thanks to a new type of leather, the shoes are estimated to be 250 times more resistant to water than the ordinary variety.

The shoe prevents slush, rain and snow from passing through the outer pores of leather. At the same time, the water vapor resulting from foot perspiration is allowed to escape from the inside.

The first recorded exploration of Texas by a white man took place just 27 years after Columbus' voyage to the New World. Alonxo Alvarez de Pineda sailed into Corpus Christi Bay in 1519. The first white settlement at Corpus Christi came 321 years later, when Col. William Kinney set up a trading post.

GM's Free Blood Bank

Pontiac Motor Division employes have set a remarkable record as donors in establishing a blood bank for all GM workers employed here and their families.

During the 24 days the Red Cross mobile unit was in operation at the plant, 7,700 volunteered as donors. Preliminary screening eliminated 3,631, but the remainder contributed a record total of 4,069 pints.

The idea grew out of a meeting of supervisory personnel addressed by Red Cross Director MILDRED BENNETT. The plan adopted includes provisions for maintaining the bank. When more blood is needed, a mobile collecting unit will be stationed at GMC Truck & Coach Division or Fisher Body Division.

GM workers as well as the Red Cross deserve commendation for initiating this self help plan. Everybody realizes the blood bank's necessity in war. But it isn't as generally understood that illnesses and accidents on the home front often make transfusions equally essential in saving lives.

With this new blood bank in operation, GM employes and their families will be able to get this lifesaving fluid without cost to them.

Townsend Plan Revived

If current signs are accurate, Congress will face a demand for consideration of the Townsend Plan.

It will be backed by a lobby of Townsend Clubs which hope to raise $150,000 to put organizers into each of the Nation's 435 Congressional districts.

★ ★ ★

The plan, first advanced by Dr. Francis E. Townsend, now 86, calls for a two per cent tax on all income over $250 a month. Revenue therefrom would be divided equally among all unemployed persons over 60, widows and dependent children under 18, and the totally blind and disabled.

★ ★ ★

As in the beginning, however, opponents call the plan impractical and insist it won't work. This Nation wants fewer taxes instead of more. Last session supporters succeeded in inducing 163 members of the House to sign a discharge petition. That is only 55 short of the 218 required to send the legislation to the floor. The petition still is alive.

Unbelievable Injustice

An Associated Press dispatch from Brocton, Mass., reveals what may be one of the most shocking records of prolonged injustice in this country's penal history.

It came to light when Superior Judge FELIX FORTE ordered the release of seven men who had served terms in State institutions ranging from six to 41 years. All of them, said Judge FORTE, had been committed illegally to indefinite terms as defective delinquents, some without even a hearing.

One of the seven had spent 41 of his 51 years in custody on a charge of truancy, though it now is known that it was a brother who was guilty of the offense. Another, now 33, was committed at the age of 10 for truancy. One man, now 55, has spent 30 years in custody for larceny of a pipe, tobacco and pillow.

Perhaps most shocking of all is the case of one released prisoner confined for 28 years after commitment at the age of five. This man later was classed as a sex case.

Judge FORTE found that some of these men had been transferred from detention homes to State prison institutions for minor infractions of rules. He also was critical of State Attorney General FINGOLD, who, he said, "up to now has found no merit in any of these cases."

> The facts above suggest, however, that criticism should cover far more than the incumbent attorney general. Not only his predecessors, and officials of detention homes and prisons, but Massachusetts laws can be suspected of sharing the blame.

We hope public indignation will force such reforms in the Bay State that similar miscarriages of justice never again will be possible.

"EVERYONE should learn how to die," says a philosopher. But how can one learn how to die, when practicing dying only once would prove fatal?

IN THIS land of the free and the home of the brave, 15 per cent of the men are bachelors, who are long on freedom and short on bravery.

"SPANISH Ship, Hole in Side, Races to Port."—Headline. This is probably the first time in history that a crippled ship did anything other than limp into port.

IT IS true that facts speak for themselves, but the trouble is that most of the people are over in another hall listening to propaganda.

Conscience: What makes you tell your wife before someone else does.

The warm October has been a boon to the state parks and other recreational grounds. According to

of Cass Lake Park, which draws the biggest crowds in the Pontiac area, his October visitors were over five times as many as in October, 1952. Like reports come from the smaller parks, while

Secretary Robert E. Furlong

of the Michigan Tourist Council says it was the largest October in history, and that many resort owners who usually closed on Oct. 15 are keeping open until Nov. 1.

If you have been sending away for some product, why not find out if you cannot buy it from a home merchant, and save carrying charges? We know a party who has been sending to Omaha for several years for a certain make of candy, and now discovers that it has long been on sale at a Pontiac store.

It is doubtful if any of the young men in Pontiac's draft call, who were inducted into the army today, got a better sendoff than

Errola Crager Ready to Help United Fund; Claims He Also Is in Need of Assistance

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature).

We now have a United Fund Drive on to raise money to take care of all the organizations to help needy and handicapped people. Now, I, for one, am handicapped and am trying to make a living. I am also a taxpayer.

But being handicapped as I am, the city engineers have come along and closed up part of my business by cutting off the direct approach to it.

If the United Fund will send a representative out to see me I will give them a donation and also show them the complaint I have.

It is about city property which the Pontiac City Planning Department and the city engineers had the power to make right. It is at 1481 Baldwin, one block north of Walton Boulevard.

Motorists in this day and age are demanding an easy approach and exit to do business in service stations. You and anyone else come and see for yourselves.

Reader Opposes Special Price for Young People

Regarding the letter which appeared in this column signed Civics Class, I would like to offer a few opinions.

The class suggests that because at 13 and 14 years old they are not considered adults, they be given a special rate at theaters.

I would like to call to their attention that movie exhibitors like other business men wish to make a profit from their efforts. Do restaurants, clothing stores, grocery stores, barber shops offer special rates for children?

In a theater a student occupies a seat just as an adult does. In fact many times, the management has to be called to quell some teenager's enthusiasm.

I can see no point in offering special rates to anyone because they are not adults.

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Thomas E. Dewey's reported decision not to run for re-election as governor of New York in November 1954 is an important development in national politics.

He is known to have made up his mind last year that he wouldn't run again, but he has deferred any announcement and probably will not make it formally till next spring.

The significance of the Dewey retirement may be this: The New York governor will be able to take a position in the Eisenhower Cabinet if a vacancy develops.

Then, if President Eisenhower decides not to be a candidate for renomination, the opportunity would be open to Dewey to try for the nomination from inside the government.

As a Cabinet officer, he would be in the limelight and would be getting valuable experience in national affairs.

For several months now — particularly since President Eisenhower made a cryptic remark at a public dinner attended earlier this year by Governor Dewey about the latter's further usefulness in the national picture — it has been assumed that Eisenhower will say sometime between now and 1956 that he does not want to run again.

Four years in the White House is likely to prove a grueling experience for a man who reluctantly accepted political office in 1952 and who may figure that, at the age of 66 in 1956, he will want to travel around the world and enjoy some leisure.

But Dwight Eisenhower, on the other hand, is a soldier, and something of the same influence which caused him to listen to the urgings of friends that he allow his name to be entered in the New Hampshire primaries in March 1952 as a public service may be felt again by him when the question of running for a second term comes up.

In any event, the decision is not likely to be made known until close to the time for the 1956 Republican convention.

If the Eisenhower administration is fairly successful and the President is personally very popular, the pressure upon him will be almost irresistible to accept a second nomination and keep the country from being handed back to "corruption and communism" — the political criticism voiced in 1952 against the Democrats.

To begin a second term at the age of 66 will make him two years younger than when President Truman retired, and it wasn't age that influenced the latter to bow out but political considerations.

Governor Dewey has been the center of a factional fight inside the Republican Party. When he was a candidate for the presidency, he ran ahead of his party in Congress in both 1944 and 1948.

While bitterness has arisen between the Dewey and Taft factions, this antagonism would be largely absorbed if the New York governor came to the Cabinet in Washington and began to work with all factions of the party.

What Cabinet post for Governor Dewey? He has been mentioned for secretary of state in the event that his close friend, John Foster Dulles, tires of the job — and the secretary is going at a pretty fast pace these days in hard work and exhausting trips to various parts of the world.

There is always the possibility that a vacancy may occur on the Supreme Court of the United States, to which it might be logical to name Attorney General Brownell, an excellent lawyer and a man of judicial temperament.

If the attorney generalship became vacant, Governor Dewey would be a natural choice. For, as district attorney in New York, he made a great record against the criminal elements and is noted for his ability not only as a prosecutor but as an organizer.

It could be, too, that the New York governor might be willing to go on the supreme bench himself, as Governor Hughes did in 1908, but if that happened Dewey would take himself out of the running for the presidency. He is much too young and vigorous a man to retire from national politics.

The news dispatches from New York say Governor Dewey plans next year to resume the practice of law. That's a plausible way to describe his temporary plans — but Thomas E. Dewey some day will be a political figure again and on the national rather than the state level.

Case Records of a Psychologist

U. S. Full of Potential Hitlers, Other Bullies

Larry's black eye and swollen lip proves that America is always on the verge of dictatorship. Each generation starts out as selfish bullies, and only the ethical teachings of the churches, permit minorities to enjoy equal rights with majorities. So think soberly about Larry's case.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

"Larry came home with a black eye last night and a swollen lip," his father told me.

"I asked him how it happened. He said that he and another classmate of his were walking along 79th Street.

"A group of 5 older boys, apparently high schoolers, were standing on the corner.

"When Larry and his pal drew abreast of them, one of the high schoolers threw a stick of gum on the pavement and ordered Larry to pick it up. He refused.

"So they started to beat him up. He fought back as long as he could, but when he saw he was overpowered, he ran into a store nearby.

"But he said the five high schoolers beat up his classmate badly."

America is full of potential Hitlers and other such bullies. Don't think that TV and our other inventions have moved mankind far away from dictatorship or savagery.

Each new crop of children starts out in life just as vicious and addicted to bullying tactics, as did the pagans of ancient days.

Only moral instruction, as under the leadership of Hi-Y sponsors, Boy Scout Leaders, clergy and civilized parents, will superimpose an ethical code upon our little beasts, called human babies.

Imagine 5 high schoolers picking on two grammar schoolers: Nobody but bullies would allow such a thing. But there are millions of bullies in America, and they aren't all children, by any means!

You can spot a guy who is yellow by the fact he travels in a gang, and only picks a fight when he outnumbers his opponent.

If you kids want to feel big and actually prove that you are, why not go out for high school athletics?

Or compete in the Golden Gloves tournaments each year. If you are 18, then join the Army or Navy or Marine Corps, and do your fighting legitimately.

If you want to be a man, then operate like a man. And what is a man? A male who carries his fair share of the load in the age in which he lives.

What is your fair share of the load as teen-agers? Well, if your Dad is still supporting you so you don't have to punch a time clock every day, then your fair return is at least a "C" average in your studies.

If you don't bring home that amount of scholastic "pay," then you are a slacker.

And if you have further energy available, then help your school in its athletic or debating or musical activities.

You have heard of drugstore cowboys who gang up at the corner, smoke cigarettes, and try to feel like 20-year-olds when they are 15 to 17.

The simplest way to feel big is really to be big. Which means carry a man's load in this world. So operate a newspaper route and earn your way.

Or work part time after school and on Saturdays. Or go out for school events. And don't double-cross your hard working parents by bringing home low grades when they've been furnishing you a free roof over your head, plus food and clothing.

Live like a lion instead of a coyote which gangs up, cowardly, and is too chicken to fight alone.

My Seldom Book

I seldom ever read a book . . . But when I pick one up . . . I cannot put it down until . . . My lips have drained the cup . . . I start to read a chapter and . . . I go from page to page . . . And then I am a prisoner . . . Inside the author's cage . . . Of course the book must be a gem . . . And one that interests me . . . The kind that seems to have a hold . . . On time and memory . . . And when it is that special tome . . . I take a second look . . . And usually I keep it as . . . A sort of reference book . . . I seldom choose a volume and . . . More seldom read it through . . . I only wish the worth-while books . . . Were not so brief and few.

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

International News Service

When the desk-master blows the whistle for the senatorial shape-up the score will be closer than ticks in a watch.

The two big organizations on the Potomac waterfront are both on the prowl for the works. Every census shows there are more fleas than pups.

The governor of Ohio poured mucilage down the mail chute when he appointed a Democrat to load Bob Taft's vacancy. Bob was so Republican he wouldn't lick a stamp with Andy Jackson's picture on it.

That appointment gives the Demos 48 objections, the Repubs 47 nods and one as independent as a goat on a hill.

If the independer votes Republican it ties everything up like a square dance to waltz time.

If the independose gangs with the Democrats it blows a fuse in the White House.

It will give the minority a majority of one, and one to grow on.

If the independine nods Republican everything will be as even as a coat of paint.

Then it will be up to Veepee Nixon to vote as guest artist on the senatorial panel. Making it an avalanche of one pebble.

The destiny of nations hangs like Mohammed's sword on one hair. Ike may have to do the same trick bald-headed.

Are Psychosomatic Troubles Increasing? Or Are Doctors Diagnosing Cases Better?

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

What is a neurosis? It is any functional derangement of the nervous system which is dependent on no evident physical lesion or change.

In other words, choose an assortment of vague symptoms, complain of them steadily, and you rate a sojourn in a sanatorium for the rest cure.

A neurotic is a person who has a neurosis, and neuroticism is the condition of being neurotic, the tendency to develop neuroses.

Mitchell's rest cure was responsible for the rash of sanatoriums with which the country suffered 60 years ago.

The fad became so popular that nearly everybody who had the price and sufficient freedom from responsibility managed to get away from home for a few weeks, at least, of complete relaxation in the san.

There, all hands, from the head doctor to the bath attendant devoted themselves to making the patient feel important, as one with such a finely adjusted nervous system had a right to feel, just as long as he or she cared to pay $280 a week.

Except the handful of sanatoriums that have remained in business because of some lucky circumstance of climate, scenery, social, political or religious interest, the rest cure institutions have gone with the wind.

Just a reminder of the quaint theory occurs when some sympathetic friend urges the friend who has, say, tuberculosis, diabetes, cancer or cardiovascular degeneration without benefit of medical advice to drop everything, go away and take a complete rest.

I said friend — have you a more ladylike epithet to apply to the individual who refuses to consult a physician until he himself can no longer pretend it is just over-work, nervous exhaustion, heavy business responsibility, etc. etc.?

Or for the individual who thinks a periodic physical examination or annual "check-up" by one's physician is all right for other people but not necessary for a smart cookie like him?

Offhand it may seem that psychosomatic disorders (neuroses) are increasing in frequency.

It just seems so — in my opinion the truth is that doctors are diagnosing such complaints and giving more attention to them these days.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Waterford Meet Plans Toy Drive

Goodfellows Set Date of Nov. 23 for Annual Paper Sale

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Volunteer workers with new ideas for child welfare in connection with the Christmas aid program swelled attendance at a meeting of Waterford Townshoip Goodfellows Monday.

Further plans were made for the Christmas toy drive. Toys will be picked up at any one of the three fire stations in the township during the drive and at Drayton Cleaners. A box will be furnished for donations of good used toys or wrapped toys and for used clothing.

Persons or organizations wishing to donate toys or clothing are being asked to call OR 3-7655. Additional volunteer workers also are being sought.

The date for a paper sale will be set at the next meeting of the Goodfellows, Nov. 23. Men who wish to sell the Goodfellow papers are being asked to leave their names ar Wheeler's Grocery.

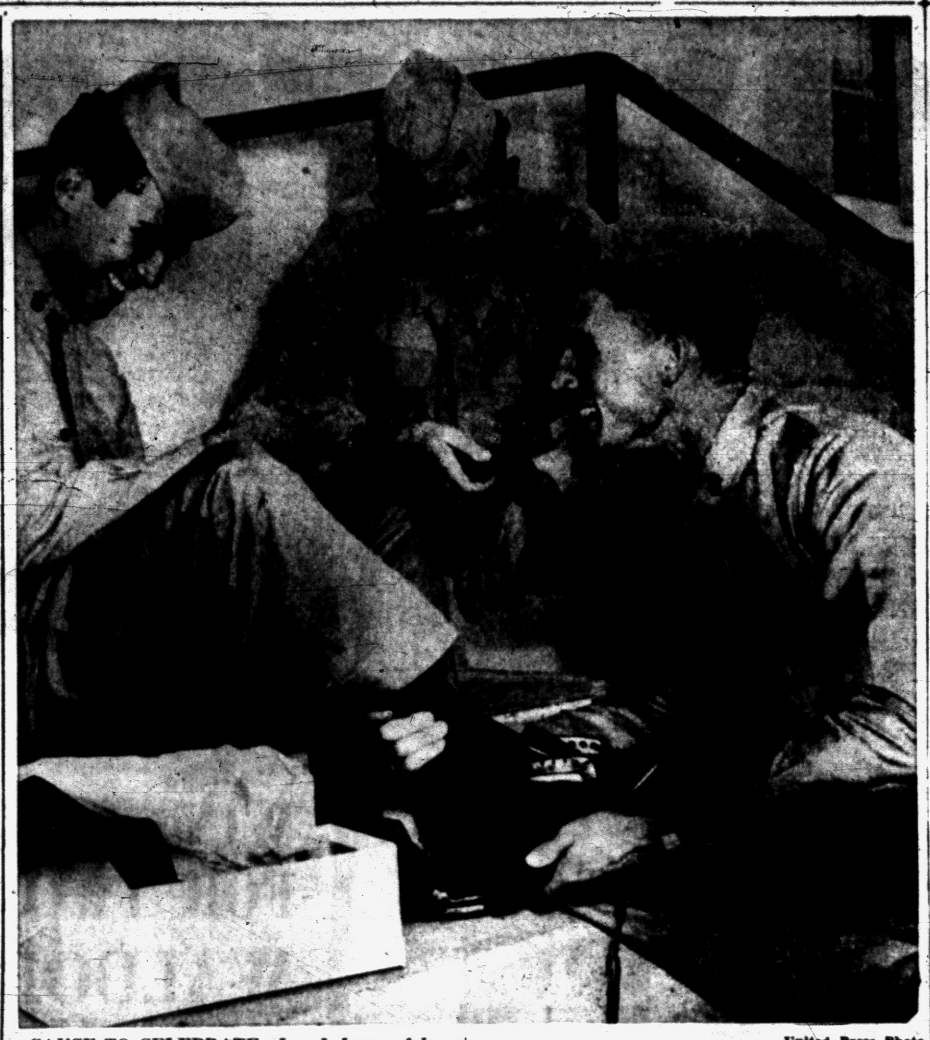
Cities Plan Meeting to Fight Elm Disease

OAK PARK — A meeting to organize an authority for combating Dutch Elm disease in South Oakland County has been scheduled for Nov. 10 at Oak Park city hall.

Royal Oak, Ferndale, Berkley and Hazel Park have agreed to send representatives to the meeting proposed by the Oak Park Planning Council.

Plan council members have warned that an emergency exists and that destruction of many shade trees in this area will be necessary if the disease isn't checked.

State laws require that 10 days after notification by the state, diseased trees must be cut down and burned.



CAUSE TO CELEBRATE—Lee J. Irons of Lum (center) and two other former Korean POW's found another cause to celebrate after they reported for duty at Marine Corps Air Training Station in Miami, Fla. Parade, Prizes, Free Cider, Coffee

Milford Youngsters Invited to Big Party Given by Townspeople Halloween Night

MILFORD — One of the biggest area Halloween parties in history has been planned here for Saturday night.

The Huron Valley Halloween committee, headed by Carlos Long, chairman, has completed plans for an evening of fun, entertainment and food for the smallest tot to the biggest teen-ager.

More than 25 organizations and merchants are cooperating in the affair. Some $500 has been pledged and the Detroit Edison Co. has donated 1,500 balloons and lollipops for the occasion.

Free cider, friedcakes and coffee will be offered. The Huron Valley Lions Club, headed by Dr. E. H. Campbell, will provide transportation for out-of-towners.

One of the biggest attractions will be window decorations. Cash prizes will be given to children according to age and grade for the most colorful trim.

The evening will begin with a parade, costume judging and announcing of awards for best floats and window prizes.

Bags of candy will be distributed to youngsters by St. Mary. Altar Society. Games and contests will be conducted by Milford Rotary Club.

Lee Osborne has offered the use of a sound car for special music, which will include singing by the Barbershoppers, a local quartet.

A window decorating committee headed by art teachers Mrs. Ruth Remus and F. G. Vanderslice is cooperating with the Garden Club and Literary Club.

Noise makers will be furnished by the American Legion Auxiliary and coffee and friedcakes will be served by OES members and Rebekahs. Mrs. Beryl Butterfield and Mrs. H. Andrews, will also bring friedcakes to go with the cider, which will be supplied by South-West Farm Bureau.

Village councilmen headed by Joe Gerrard will judge hundreds of costumes. Awards will be made by VFW Auxiliary, Hi-White Chapter.

High school students meanwhile are invited to a dance in the gymnasium with a Halloween decor. Free refreshments also will be available there.

Decision Result of Long Study

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Citizens' School Advisory Committee is on the "brink of decision."

Speaking before the Harrison-Central Parent Teacher Association meeting this week, Wallace R. Hodges chairman of the committee, said that a school bond issue under ten mills would be recommended to the Rochester Community Board of Education shortly.

This, he said, would provide both an elementary expansion building program and a high school.

Tentative bond issue figure has been set at about $1,700,000, he said.

Functioning for the past several months as a representative group, the citizens committee has voluntarily inspected the existing facilities of Rochester schools, studied enrollment figures and made tours of other schools to decide what Rochester should do about its bulging classrooms.

"If we could just get every taxpayer in the district to take one day off and go through the schools we have, I am sure we would have no difficulty getting a wholehearted endorsement of a bond issue," he declared.

"High school classes are running from 40 to 50. Several elementary classes are on half-day sessions and we are using all kinds of temporary housing facilities.

"Kids are practically hanging out the windows, and, after being exposed to the conditions that exist, your citizens' committee believes it is time we faced facts," he continued.

Stating that a proposal that would please 100 per cent of the people would be impossible, Hodges said it was the hope of the committee to present a recommendation that will receive the support of a substantial majority.

"If the board of education accepts the recommendation we make, it will mean compromises on all sides.

"Our past two defeated bond issues were fraught with community strife and while the town had itself a good battle, the kids suffered. All of those elements must be removed this time," he said.

Option on the controversial Axford - Hopkins site has been dropped. It expired Oct. 15 and was not renewed by the board of education. They have been investigating several other possible high school sites this past ten days.

The committee, said Hodges, is recommending the purchase of a high school site of at least 40 acres.

He pointed out that, after consideration, the committee would recommend the McGregor site on North Rochester and Tienken Rds. be used for an elementary school if this meets with the approval of the McGregors.

Hodges said in reviewing other acreage, it was evident that the Axford site was less costly per acre than any of the others.

Argument that Rochester district did not have the valuation to finance a building program was erroneous, said Hodges, for although school enrollment increase has been 45 per cent in the past few years, the increased assessed valuation has been 150 per cent.

Hodges said that within a short time their formal recommendation will be made to the board of education. The next step will be up to them.

Mrs. Charles Burgess, president of the PTA, presided and appealed for the support of all parents during this school year.

Mrs. Frederick Nash, program chairman, introduced Mr. Hodge for the meeting and also detailed the year's program for the PTA.

Ellen L. Rathka, Richard Jurn Exchange Vows

IMLAY CITY—Before a candlelit altar banked with white carnations and palms, Ellen Louise Rathka became the bride of Richard A. Jurn Saturday at West Goodland Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rathka, and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Jurn, all of Imlay City.

For the double-ring rites, the bride chose a floor-length Chantilly lace gown fashioned of nylon tulle over white satin. Trimmed in rhinestones, the gown matched her coronation crown which held a silk illusion fingertip veil. She carried a white orchid on a Bible.

Miss Eileen Rathka, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in a gown of pink lace over taffeta and a picture hat. Mrs. Phyllis Jurn and Mary Sherwood were bridesmaids.

Serving as best man for his brother was Robert Jurn, and seating guests were William Jurn and Clarence Wheeler.

After the rite, the 450 guests were received at Masonic Hall in Imlay City.

Troy High School PTA Slates Halloween Dance

Scheduled for 9 p. m., the dance will feature an orchestra for modern and old-time dancing. Prizes for the best costumes also will be offered.

Proceeds from the event, which is open to the public will be used toward enlarging the school project fund.

Big Halloween Night Scheduled at Holly

HOLLY — There will be something doing all the evening in Holly on Halloween.

Festivities will open with a parade at seven p. m. with a total of over 30 costume prizes.

This wil be followed by two football games at Cyclone Park, and the evening's program will close with a dance in the high school gymnasium. Refreshments will be served.

Milford Church Service Conducted by Laymen

MILFORD — Male congregation members conducted services when Milford Presbyterian Church celebrated Layman's Sunday this weekend.

The all-male choir, under the direction of Mrs. Marion Beam, presented a special anthem, and Carl Hanna, Milford PTA president gave the sermon. He was assisted by Ralph Watkins, Dudley Grayson and Howard Heintzelman.

Area Residents Join 'Messiah' Rehearsals

MILFORD — Residents from several sections of Oakland and Macomb Counties volunteered their talents when the Hartland Chorus held their second rehearsal of the "Messiah" here Monday.

Director of the oratorio, an annual presentation scheduled for Dec. 13, is J. C. Nelson.

According to Nelson, high school students and church choir members are being invited to participate.

Area Dem Club Condemns Dismissal of Radulovich

The Southwest Oakland County Democratic Club Saturday passed a resolution condemning Air Force methods in recommending the dismissal of Lt. Milo J. Radulovich as a "doubtful security risk."

In its resolution the club requested that congress enact legislation "to require that traditional rules of evidence and procedure be applied in all loyalty and security risk hearings."

Copies of the resolution are expected to be sent to Senators Homer Ferguson and Charles Potter and to Rep. George A. Dondero.

A 10th Air Force Reserve board of three colonels recommended Radulovich's discharge Oct. 14 because the loyalty of the lieutenant's father and sister were questioned.

The action, the board said, resulted from Radulovich's "close and continuing association" with them. His loyalty was not questioned, according to the board.

Radulovich's attorney said that if the recommendation isn't set aside, he would take an appeal to the Air Force personnel board and Secretary of the Air Force Talbot.

The club's resolution said:

"The Radulovich case has clearly established that hearings conducted under government 'loyalty' and 'security risk' regulations have consequences for the individual involved which far transcend immediate employment rights . . . and the ever-spreading application of the totalitarian practice of guilt by association are to be condemned."

'Thermometer' Checks Rivers

Health of Water Easily Determined With New Equipment

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—A river "thermometer" to determine the health of rivers and streams has been developed by scientists of the Academy of Natural Sciences here.

Dr. Ruth Patrick, curator of limnology who conceived the idea, said the device will save much time and work in testing the condition of river water.

It is expected to find wide use, especially among industries which must check the streams into which they discharge waste material.

The "thermometer," believed to be the first of its kind, measures about 2 feet in length and consists of a series of glass slides on a plexiglas frame supported by two floats.

It is anchored in mid-stream, where tiny microbiological units called diatomes collect on the glass slides. By studying the diatomes — their species and condition — scientists can tell if the water is healthy.

Dr. Patrick said the job of collecting diatomes previously has been time-consuming and has involved much work. Now the study can be done in less than two weeks.

It's a Small World!

CUSHING, Okla. (AP) — Four years ago Terry DeVilbess carved his initials on the back of a terrapin and turned him loose at his home here.

He didn't see the turtle again until the other day. The terrapin crawled back to the DeVilbess home.

Cattlemen Vow to Get Supports

Caravan Heads Home, Voicing Disappointment With Benson's Stand

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cattlemen's "caravan" hit the trail for home today, its members voicing chagrin at lack of success in the capital but vowing to take their fight for livestock price supports to the political grass roots.

At their windup session yesterday, they greeted enthusiastically a suggestion that each man carry the campaign for a government floor under livestock prices to his own congressman and senators.

The cattlemen appeared to have written off completely any idea of getting direct price supports from Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

* * *

"Benson isn't going to help us," said James G. Patton, president of the National Farmers Union, which organized the caravan. "He had the perfect chance to do it while these men were here, if he was going to do it."

Patton said in an interview that a new caravan would march on Washington "that will make this one look like a small affair" if Congress doesn't vote high-level price supports for livestock.

Dennis Driscoll of Colorado Springs, Colo., elected by the cattlemen as their chief spokesman here, had this reply when asked if the next moves of the livestock men must be in the political arena:

"I hope not but I'm afraid they will have to be."

Sen. Kerr (D-Okla), in a speech to the cattlemen yesterday, pledged to fight for high-level rigid price supports in the next Congress. He said he would seek them on livestock and all other farm products.

Kerr appeared to have summed up the feelings of many of the cattlemen's delegation when he said of top Agriculture Department officials:

"They couldn't have treated you nicer or done less for you."

The 350 cattlemen from 30 states outlined their case calmly to Benson and his top aides in their two-day talks, but after their final interview Driscoll called the secretary "obstinate" and "a square peg in a round hole."

Some cattlemen also voiced disappointment that they did not get to see President Eisenhower after asking to see him.

* * *

Benson reiterated yesterday that he would study the proposals of the caravan members but he did not budge in his contention there were serious obstacles to direct price supports on live cattle.

The cattlemen asked him to support livestock prices with loans as he now does for a number of field crops and dairy products. The supports are mandatory for six "basic" crops, optional for other farm products.

Benson noted that crops can be stored and used later, but he said the government might be stuck with huge quantities of perishable meat under a cattle support program.

South Korean Group Returns From Reds

SEOUL (AP)—Another 205 South Koreans, repatriated last summer in Operation Big Switch, arrived this morning on their way home after three years of war and captivity.

The group had been "re-educated" on Yongcho Island, west of Pusan, after their return from the Communists.

Of 7,000 South Korean repatriates taken to the island since Big Switch ended early in September, 1,000 were sent home last month in Operation Homecoming. A total of 848 sick and wounded repatriates are being held for medical treatment.

Greek Royalty Arrives

NEW YORK (AP)—King Paul and Queen Frederika of Greece arrive here today aboard the liner United States for a month-long tour of this country.

Whistling Seen as Aid to Cure of Lung Ailment

ATLANTA (AP)—A Boston doctor today recommended "whistling at work or play" as a possible aid in treating a chronic lung ailment he says is highly prevalent in the nation.

Dr. Maurice S. Segal of Tufts College Medical School said the ailment is an overdistention of the lungs called "chronic pulmonary emphysema"—and that its present high incidence may be associated with an increase in industrial and other fumes in the atmosphere.

He said whistling might widen constricted breathing tubes in the body, relieving shortness of breath. In its worst stages, the ailment requires prolonged hospitalization and a variety of complex treatments.

"The high incidence of (the ailment) in this country may be related directly to the increase in industrial and environmental inhalant vapors, gases, fumes and dusts, or indirectly to the increased incidence of respiratory infections or allergies under these circumstances."

He said such irritants are capable of producing progressive narrowing of the bronchial airways and eventual overdistention of the lungs.

"This may be the price we have to pay for our advances in living and industry," Segal added. "The prevention of and care of the patients with this progressively disabling lung disorder may soon require the assistance of the U.S. Public Health Service."

On Seoul Inspection

SEOUL (AP)—Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd jr., commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps, arrived today for a three-day inspection of the 1st Marine Division and the 1st Marine Air Wing.

Improved Farming Urged by Benson

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson says American farmers must "increas fficincy, improv quality and lower costs in their production and marketing" if they are to meet future national demands.

Benson said in a statement sent to a conference onf adult education yesterday that "the American farmer today is the best informed farmer in the world." He adde.

"We need, and must have, even more widespread adult education in the fields of marketing and research, farm and home planning, housing and health, plus greater opportunities for rural youths, and for the families of our marginal farms. . ."

O-Jib-Wa Worked Wonders

I DON'T FEEL LIKE THE SAME PERSON

Thanks to O-JIB-WA BITTERS, my rheumatism and arthritis is gone and I can get around again says Mrs. Thelma Huff, R No. 2, Ortonville, Michigan.

Mrs. T. Huff

When I look back, just a short time ago, and think how I suffered with inflammatory rheumatism and arthritis throughout my entire body, it seems impossible that one medicine could do so much—so soon. Every joint ached and pained and my hands and feet hurt so that I couldn't do any work except get meals, and that was hard. I could get about the house only by using a cane or by holding on to the back of a chair. My husband had to help me out of bed and then I could hardly bear to stand, as my ankles and feet were so bad. I used many things that were supposed to help, and after many disappointments was ready to give up altogether. A friend urged me to try O-JIB-WA BITTERS as a last resort, so I decided to give it a good trial. I seemed to be a little worst at the start and didn't see much change in the first month, but after that, quickly got better. I really feel great now and whereas I couldn't get in or out of a car before, I now climb on a tractor and help with the haying. O-JIB-WA BITTERS seemed to have completely reconditioned me as I no longer catch colds easily and have lots of pep. O-JIB-WA BITTERS worked such wonders with me that I can hardly believe that I'm the same person. I sure recommend it highly, and urge all who suffer as I did, not to delay in trying O-JIB-WA BITTERS. I believe that its the best medicine made for rheumatism and arthritis."

Golfer Discovers Tricky Lap Shot

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (UP) — Ed ("Porky") Oliver, Palm Springs, Calif., pro, banged out a trick shot while competing in the second annual $15,000 Insurance City Open golf championship.

The ball bounded into the lap of a woman spectator, who was sitting in a portable chair near the 14th green. She had the presence of mind to wait until Oliver arrived, inquiring, "Where's my ball?"

"In my lap," she told him. "What should I do?"

Oliver told her "get up and run," hoping she would head toward the hole.

She did, but the ball dropped into the rough.

"It was a lousy lie, but I got a par on the hole," Oliver related afterwards.

Motorists Wrong

BOSTON (UP)—Motorists complained that Summer Tunnel, under Boston harbor, was filled with carbon monoxide fumes. However, tests revealed that the carbon monoxide level in the tube is only .010 per cent—less than on any busy downtown street.

The "Great Brood" of Cicadas (17 year locusts) appeared in 1953; the next of this large brood, also known as "Brood 10" is due to appear in 1970.

Chrysler Hikes Power for 1954

235 - Horsepower V-8 Engine to Be Offered in Some Models

The 1954 Chrysler cars, featuring a new 235-horsepower V-8 engine in some models, go on display in dealer showrooms tomorrow.

The new engine, most powerful in any stock car, goes into the Custom Imperial, Crown Imperial and New Yorker deluxe models. Power output in the New Yorker model has been increased from 180 to 195 horsepower with a V-8 engine. Windsor deluxe models are powered with a six-cylinder, 119 horsepower engine.

Power output of the Imperials and New Yorker deluxe models this year was 180 horsepower. This has been stepped up to 235 through major modifications such as adaptation of a four-barrel carburetor, larger carburetor air cleaner; larger manifold; larger exhaust and intake valves; enlarged manifold outlets, and a dual exhaust system.

Chrysler's new fully-automatic transmission is made standard on all 1954 V-8 models and is optional on the Windsor deluxe.

Chrysler also has developed for its 1954 models what the engineers describe as a new anti-roll front suspension.

Exterior styling features functionally designed grilles of heavy chromed horizontal bars, massive new bumpers, front and rear and new one-piece, wrap-around rear window. Interiors are designed to harmonize with exterior finishes. Instrument panel and garnish moldings are painted to match the overall color scheme.

Most of the panel instruments are contained in an inverted U-shaped housing that spans the steering wheel post. The instruments are placed in two large circular dials, with edge lighting.

The five models for 1954 will have a total of 20 body styles.

It is estimated that about 1.8 billion pounds of detergents are manufactured in the United Statses in a year.

County Votes Land Sale, Signing of Tax Warrants

To Dispose of 12 Pieces of Land

Sealed Bids on Property Must Meet Minimum Appraised Values

Oakland County Board of Supervisors voted to sell a dozen pieces of land, approved signing of tax warrants and named new officers Tuesday morning.

The board adjourned subject to the chairman's call—but not later than Jan. 18.

The board's gavel now rests in the hands of Floyd Andrews of Independence Township, newly-elected chairman. Delos Hamlin of Farmington was named to the vice chairman's post Tuesday.

The board approved allocation of $400 from the Drain Commission's budget to Saginaw Valley Planning Commission and authorized issuing a deed to Walter Stotler for a lot he has finished paying for.

Committee on local taxes, headed by Earl B. Rhinevault of Groveland Township, submitted its tabulation of county and school taxes. County residents will pay some $21,000,000 in county, drain and school taxes this winter. Of that amount, $4,436,622 is to meet the general costs of county government.

Schools are levying $7,883,163.82 for operating expenses; $7,873,726.79 in voted "extra" taxes to meet added operating and building costs and $566,707 for debt service. County drain assessments make up the rest of the total.

Approval of the report and signing of warrants gives city and township tax officers the go-ahead for levies.

The board after some debate referred a Salaries Committee suggestion raising the salary for an assistant Planning commission director to $6,500 a year to the ways and means committee. The original motion asked the board to approve the pay increase of some $2,000, leaving the question of "where the money comes from" to the Ways and Means committee.

The move to sell county property came from the Buildings and Grounds Committee, headed by Harry W. Horton.

Horton explained the land isn't being used by the county and should be sold to get it back on the tax roll.

Property includes four lots—17, 18, 217 and 218—in the Bloomfield Hills Addition to Pontiac City; lot 69, McConnell addition, city of Pontiac; and two other parcels, one at Walton boulevard and Perry street and another lying east of Perry street and north of Pontiac road.

Others up for sale are lot 14 of assessor's plat 7 in Farmington; lots 228, 229 and 230 of Starr Acres subdivision, Royal Oak and lots 435 and 436 of Dewey Beach Subdivision, West Bloomfield Township.

Board of Auditors and the committee were authorized to take sealed bids on the property. One parcel will be valued by real estate appraisers; others by county men themselves. Bids must meet the minimum appraised values, the board and committee agreed.

'For the Record'

Good Ranchers Roll With Nature's Blows

This is the second in a series of articles entitled "For the Record" by many of the nation's top-flight writers Today, Roscoe Fleming, long-time newspaperman and free lance writer, concludes a two-part report on how 20 years of soil conservation practices have helped Texas ranchers and farmers weather the 1953 "dust bowl."

DENVER — Americans moved west into a dryer land, but they took old wet-region farming practices along. It took the drouth disaster of the 30s finally to convince wise Great Plains farmers and ranchers that in their region, such practices were the worst possible.

In the East, they turned the soil upside-down, and the best farmer drove the straightest furrow.

Today good prairie farmers stir the soil from the bottom, never turning it over. They "keep the trash on top."

They plow in curves across the water's path, so as to interpose a thousand little dams against its running away, and so turn their soil into a rain-trap.

They know that slow "sheet erosion" by water is even deadlier than the more spectacular wind-blowing.

Many have gone into grassland farming, so that farming and ranching have in effect blended.

In 1936 President Roosevelt wrote that, "We must face the fact that (in the Great Plains) climatic conditions make special safeguards absolutely necessary."

Many farmers and ranchers have learned to live with nature, and roll with her blows. Many belong to soil conservation groups and work together. Many thriftily put away savings during the good rainfall and high prices of the 40s.

The best of the half-million plains farmers have restored nearly 11 million acres to grass, built 250,000 small reservoirs and hundreds of small irrigation projects, and have planted 275,000,000 "shelterbelt" trees.

They have gone into drouth-resistant crops like sorghums. Many farm groups experiment with cloud-seeding for more rain.

But just as the demand for wheat during World War I and the "roaring 20s" deepened the 1930 disaster by inducing a big plow-up, so with World War II and after.

"Suitcase farmers" again invaded the prairies with hug modern equipment that could turn over a square mile of sod between sunrise and sunset. Golden grain stretched as far as the eye could see. Even more sod was turned over after World War II, as the government continued to guarantee high prices for unneeded wheat.

The story was much the same with cotton farther south. Grimly the Great Plains Council yearly recorded millions of acres "in condition to blow."

But new "suitcase" millionaires scoffed at old-timers' warnings. Cadillacs crowded the prairie roads. The new-rich lived in town, went out only to plant and sow, and ate cellophaned tomatoes from California. For them, farming was mechanized mining of the soil.

Chambers of commerce even demanded that the government turn the healed blow-spots "back to private enterprise."

But then the rain-bearing winds again began avoiding the southern plains. For three years the soil grew dryer. Nature, who always collects, had presented her bill.

The 1953 drouth has cost comparatively little, if the people of the southern plains have learned their lesson.

College Teaching War

KINGSTON, Ont. (AP)—Canada's smallest college, located here, has no campus, professors or football team and its students write no exams. But they all graduate.

The college is concerned only with how to conduct total war. Its graduates are a war "brain trust." Its objective is to educate senior officers of the U.S. and Canadian armed forces and government departments in the principles of higher government administration.

A prospectus of the National Defense College says students are trained to become "thoroughly versed in interservice and interdepartmental planning, including political and economic aspects and the organization for the central direction of war."

* * *

The content of the courses taught at the college is highly secret. The students have access to top-secret information on Canada's ability to wage war, including aircraft production figures and information on how quickly army divisions could be mobilized. Secret documents from defense headquarters and other government departments are kept under guard.

The college opened in 1948. There are 27 students at present and a six-man staff, composed of the commandant, four directors and an adjutant. The lecturers are government officials, business leaders, university professors and officers of the armed forces of Canada, the United States and Commonwealth countries.

Employe Turnover Reduced in Pontiac

Stelt said the rate of turnover in September was only 1.70 per cent, compared with 3.18 per cent in the first half of this year and 3.21 per cent during the past three months.

He pointed out that 73 employes left city jobs from July through September, and the city hired 74 employes during the same three-month period. Most of those leaving the city service were seasonal construction workers, added the personnel director.

White Settlers Founded Novi 124 Years Ago

Situated in the township of the same name, in its early days Novi was known simply as "The Corners." Its first white settler was John Elmore who came there in 1829. Benjamin Brown opened the first store soon after, and Clemendon Smith was the first postmaster.

The site of a toll gate and night stopover for stages on the Detroit and Howell road, now Grand River road, was the settlement's first business. The coming of the Holly, Wayne & Monroe Railroad, now the Chesapeake & Ohio, in 1870, lifted it out of the woods and gave it a stimulus to growth.

Novi now has several home factories, in which most of its residents find employment. In recent years it has had a substantial growth, and many new residences, industrial plants and business places have been erected.

Sixteen miles southwest of Pontiac and within three miles of the Wayne County line, Novi is in the center of a good agricultural district, which also has been a prominent factor in its growth and development.

Circle Players Start Drama Class Oct. 29

The Circle Players of the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department will begin fall classes in dramatic art Thursday, at a drama workshop in Pontiac High School at 8 p. m.

The company this year will be supervised by Patricia Stites, an instructor at Wever Junior High School. Participation in the group is open to young adults interested in dramatic productions.

Workshops will last through the winter with at least three plays scheduled for this season.

Jack Martin Sleeps On Despite Fire, Sirens

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Bit of a fuss over at Jack Martin's house. Didn't seem to bother him much.

Seems there was a fire in Jack's shed. Four fire engines roared up. Put out the fire all right, but one of them hit an automobile. Lots of banging around, sirens wailing and so on.

But when the fire chief returned to investigate he found Jack sound asleep. Hadn't heard a darned thing.

Plead Guilty on Weapons Count

Three youths pleaded guilty to a charge of carrying concealed weapons when their trial opened Tuesday before Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

Each of them was released on $500 bond and sentencing was set for Nov. 13.

The youths, Tilton Glenn, 19, of 17408 Arlington, Detroit; Edward Bradford Jr., 21, of 21687 Glenfield, Royal Oak Township; and Jayward Walker, 19, of 10683 Eckley Ct., Royal Oak Township, were arrested July 14 with two companions.

Their companions, Donald Murdaugh, 20, of 10772 Darlow Ct., Royal Oak Township, and John Box, 18, of 21014 Calibar Lane, Royal Oak Township, were arrested on bench warrants yesterday when they appeared late for trial. They were sent to Oakland County Jail pending court appearances today.

Murdaugh and Box also face similar concealed weapons charge.

The youths were arrested on Woodside near Eight Mile road, Royal Oak Township, last summer when police found their car blocking traffic. Officers claim they discovered several guns under the rear seat of the auto upon further investigation.

This morning Judge Doty increase dbond on both Murdaugh and Box from $500 to $1,500.

Exceeds Goal

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) — Kent County exceeded its $1,255,078 Red Feather campaign drive by more than $15,000, the committee reported today.

Rabies Resolution Pops Up but Board Delays Action

A surprise move to call off rabies vaccination was tabled by Oakland County Board of Supervisors after a heated discussion.

The motion to rescind the resolution passed over a year ago came from Lloyd Anderson, Waterford supervisor, as the three-hour session neared its end.

Anderson said Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty had rules some time ago that Pontiac was exempt from the county-wide ruling requiring all dog owners to have their pets vaccinated in order to get dog licenses.

"This action," he said, "defeats the aim of this board and discriminates against dog owners in the rest of the county, who must have their pets vaccinated."

A shout of protest went up from William A. Ewart, Pontiac City attorney and supervisor, who countered that "we weren't the bad boy in this case!

"We adopted a vaccination ordinance," he said, "and we were taken to court on it. That's when the decision was handed down."

Orph C. Holmes, supervisor from Ferndale, suggested the question of the legality of rescinding the resolution be referred to Harry J. Merritt, county coporation counsel.

Holly Supervisor Cass B. Waters rose to object, asking the matter be referred to the attorney general instead of Merritt since Merritt had written the resolution.

"This has left the whole board of supervisors out on a limb," Waters said. "The corporation counsels should have taken this case to the Supreme Court right away."

Ewart then called for a referral to the supervisors' legislarive committee, as the resolution was passed under a state enabling law. Actually, he said, the matter "should be clarified in Lansing."

By this time matters had grown so confused that George A. Schweigert, Ferndale, appealed to "clear the floor and start over;" but a move to table the matter came from still another supervisor.

Waters objected that the matter "is too important to be tabled," but was shouted down by other supervisors, who pointed out that a motion to table can't be debated. The motion was passed on a voice

Naval Reserve Needs Trainers

Calls for Experienced Men as Instructors at Pontiac Center

Experienced petty officers and veterans of World War II and the Korean War who are now on inactive reserve status are badly needed to act as instructors in the training program of Pontiac Naval Reserve Surface Division 9-104.

"We have vacancies in radarman, electronic technician, quartermaster, radioman and electrician mate ratings," said Lt. C. J. Casserly, commanding officer of the training center.

"If some of the veterans available would volunteer to instruct, it would help immeasurably.

"Young non-veteran naval reservists would be provided with training from men who can instruct intelligently and well. They would be trained to easily fulfill future service obligations.

"Going on active reserve duty does not increase the chance of being called into regular active duty," Casserly continued. "Instructors will get a full day's pay for 2½ hours of duty and will help their country's preparedness drive at the same time."

Pitching Horseshoes . . . By Billy Rose

Londos No Champ Until He Had Out-Wrestled His Dad

If you'll bear with me for a few dullish paragraphs of background material, I think I can make it up to you by telling you an interesting yarn about a wrestler . . . .

In 1910 a lad named Christopher Theophelus left his home in Greece and came to America to make his fortune, and, as is usual in Horatio Alger stories, fortune at first played hard to get.

BILLY ROSE

Chris lived for a while with relatives in Boston, then went to San Francisco where he washed dishes in hash houses, ran errands in its Chinatown and, when he was 18, became the "bottom man" in a tumbling act which played the West Coast variety theaters.

At 20, the youth became a professional wrestler and for the next few years won most of his matches. This news delighted his father who was wrestling champion of the Mycenae district og Greece.

In 1920, Theophelus dropped in to see a well-known promoter. "I'd like for you to handle me," he said, "I guess you've heard my name."

"Wouldn't make any difference if I had," said the promoter. "I couldn't pronounce it anyhow."

So Christopher Theophelus became Jim Londos, the Golden Greek, and, as the record books will attest, a thousand matches later he won the world title.

So much for background material . . . .

In 1928 Jim Londos returned to Greece where he took on Karol Zybszko, the Athenian champion, and an audience of 70,000, including his father, watched him throw his opponent in record time.

In the dressing room after the match, the father put his arm around his son, and said, "Now we go back to Mycenae for the main event."

Nearly everyone in the district was at the station when the famous wrestler arrived, and the mayor made a speech in which he compared Jim to Alexander the Great and gave him all the best of it.

Then he announced that the world titleholder had been challenged by the long-time local champ—his father.

The match was held a few days later on a raised platform in an open field and, as was the custom on important days, the spectators were dressed in traditional peasant costumes.

The mayor, of course, made another speech and then the two men climbed into the ring, shook hands and began to circle each other.

For half an hour it was quite a match, for the old man was wise in the ways of the sport and kept breaking out of his son's fanciest holds.

Finally, however, Londos managed to get a hammerlock and toehold on his father and, though the oldster gave it all he had, his body began to buckle. A few minutes later, sweat pouring from his body, his shoulders touched the mat.

As the shouting started, the mayor climbed back into the ring. "Now, the ancient ceremony," he announced. "The loser must carry the winner to his home."

The father got to his feet, walked over to his son, picked him up and held him straight-arm over his head. Then, followed by a cheering mob, he walked through the streets of the village and up the rocky hillside to his home.

When he set his 210-pound boy down on the threshold, the smile on his face was a pleasant thing to see.

"I've been waiting for this all my life, Christopher," he said. "Now you are the champion."

Can Act, Sing, Plan Routines

Now Directs Steps for Jane Froman Show; Likes New Effects

NEW YORK — Jack of all trades may occasionally be master of none. But in the case of tall, lithe Peter Birch, choreographer and dancer of television's "Jane Froman Show," the adage doesn't hold.

Peter can do just about everything when he steps on the stage, and dancing although it's his specialty, is just one of his accomplishments.

Peter can compose dance routines, or do the dancing himself, or the singing, if that's in demand. And he's a first rate actor.

In his 12 years in show business, he has been choreographer for "The Vaughn Monroe Show," "Stop the Music," "The Jack Carter Show," "The Jimmy Durante Show" and others.

He has sung or danced in "Stop the Music," "The Kathryn Murray Show," "The Firestone Hour" and other shows.

He played the dance lead in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," and danced in "Carousel," "Oklahoma!" and "One Touch of Venus."

Birch spends four days each week planning the Froman show dance routines, and dances frequently on the show. Occasionally, he takes dramatic roles in television plays.

"A dancer discovers, sooner or later that his legs aren't what they used to be," says Birch. "He slows up. So he's smart to have other talents, too."

Summing up his work on the "Jane Froman Show": "A good choreographer must develop his own original style; he must bring freshness and newness to the theme accented in each number. The one thing to avoid is imitation. It's too easy to simulate effects that have become the trade marks of other choreographers."

Birch's most critical audience is right at home, in suburban Fleetwood, N. Y., where his wife, Pat, and his five-year-old daughter Nancy watch the show.

Bible Classes Convene Here

Site for Convocation Is Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church

Baraca-Pholathea Bible Classes of Michigan will convene this weekend at Oakland Avenue Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Nellie Monroe of Pontiac is state president.

Mrs. Nelson Rich, president of the class at the host church, is general chairman of the event, and Mrs. John L. Gemmell is in charge of reservations.

The annual business meeting will be conducted Saturday noon, followed by the annual banquet Saturday evening. The Berean Class will be banquet host.

The toastmaster, the Rev. Walter Ballagh of Lake Orion, will introduce Howard School, professor of music at Detroit Bible Institute, as guest speaker.

Guest speaker Friday evening will be the Rev. James Luther of Silvercrest Baptist Church. Others participating will be Mrs. Ethel Matthews, Jack Black, Jack Mayer and Mrs. Sam Rae.

New officers will be installed and consecrated Sunday morning. About 100 are expected to attend.

Building Cleaners Trip Bank's Burglar Alarm

BALTIMORE (UP) — Four squad cars, answering a burglar alarm, screeched to a stop in front of the Progress Federal Savings and Loan Assn. But in the building officers found only Floyd Warriner and his cleaning crew. Seems one of the cleaners had accidentally tripped the alarm button in the cashier's cage.

Baja (Lower) California in Mexico is rich in minerals, but lack of transportation has hindered large-scale development.

RELAX—The keynote of Dave Garroway's TV program, "Garroway at Large," is "take your time, don't hurry." Consequently, casual Dave tries to show singing discovery Shirley Harmer the proper way to take it easy. Any way you look at it, the job seems mighty pleasant.

U.S. Suspicious of Red Overture

Hint Malenkov Willing to Talk Peace Seen as Strategy Move

WASHINGTON (UP)—American officials turned a cold shoulder today toward a new Russian hint that Premier Malenkov may be ready for peace talks with Western chiefs of state.

President Eisenhower, they said, will consider such a conference only after Russia has proved its sincerity on specific moves to ease East-West tension, such as German and Austrian peace settlements.

Britain's Prime Minister Churchill has been plugging the idea of an informal meeting with Malenkov, but informed officials said last night he has promised Secretary of State Dulles to delay any move toward arranging one.

* * *

There has been speculation Churchill was planning to go to Moscow by himself. He reportedly stuck to the view, during recent talks with Dulles in London, that some such meeting is needed if the West is to find out at first hand what Malenkov is like and what his views may be.

But officials said Dulles won an agreement from Churchill not to take any direct action at least until (1) Moscow replies to the latest Western invitation for a Big Four foreign ministers' meeting, and (2) France and the other signers have been given a chance to ratify the proposed six-nation European Defense Community.

* * *

The new Russian hint that Malenkov might be willing to meet with his Western counterparts came from Russia's United Nation delegate, Andrei Vishinsky. Vishinsky told U. N. correspondents in New York yesterday "there is no special problem" in arranging face-to-face discussions between Malenkov and Western leaders.

He insisted such a meeting could be called "without a preliminary test of the sincerity and good intentions of the Soviet Union"—the condition Eisenhower and Dulles have laid down.

State Departments experts on Russia carefully noted Vishinsky's remarks. Nearly all were convinced the former Russian foreign policy chief chose this time to publicize Russian views for a specific reason.

* * *

Some officials believed it possible Vishinsky was sending up a "trial balloon" to determine whether Eisenhower would be interested now in meeting Malenkov informally, as Churchill has suggested.

A majority, however, believed it likely Vishinsky was trying to publicize Russia's professed willingness to talk about ending the cold war in a move to soften an imminent rejection by Moscow of the Western Big Three invitation to attend a foreign ministers' meeting.

Commie Poland Again Asks U.S. to Restore Ship

WARSAW, Poland (UP) — Communist Poland has fired off a new note to the United States reiterating its demand that Washington secure the release of a Polish ship seized by a Chinese Nationalist gunboat early this month.

A Warsaw radio broadcast last night quoted the note as saying the Polish government holds the United States responsible for the lives and health of certain members of the ship's crew who have been reported under arrest.

The vessel, the Praca, was seized by the Chinese Nationalist warship Oct. 4 in Far Eastern waters.

* * *

A previous Polish note to Washington, delivered Oct. 12, said the United States was responsible for the seizure because "it is well known that the Chiang Kai-shek forces stationed on Taiwan (Formosa) are under the political and military control of the U. S."

It also claimed that two aircraft, one bearing U. S. Air Force markings, circled over the Praca an hour before its arrest.

A U.S. reply a week ago rejected the charges, stating that the U. S. government had no connection with the stopping of the ship.

* * *

The new Polish note termed this answer completely unsatisfactory. It declared the Nationalist forces dared to stop the ship only because of U. S. support.

Usually a Political Dead End

3-Way Scramble Begins for New York Mayor Job

By JAMES DEVLIN

NEW YORK (AP)—A three-way scramble is on for the glittering job of mayor of New York although history shows that more often than not it is a political dead end.

The job of governing eight million people—more than the population of some foreign countries—often has been rated as second only to the presidency.

Yet no New York City mayor ever has gone to the White House.

Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri can't even get on the ballot to run for reelection in the Nov. 3 balloting.

* * *

Three major candidates now are bittery fighting for the post that has led so many to disillusionment or obscurity.

* * *

The three are:

Democrat — Manhattan Borough President Robert F. Wagner Jr., 43, son of the late senator for whom the Wagner Labor Relations Act was named.

Republican—Harold Riegelman, 61, a former acting postmaster and long active in civic affairs, but little in the public eye until the present campaign.

Liberal—City Council President Rudolph Halley, 40, who was in the public eye of millions as chief counsel of the Kefauver Crime Committee in its televised questioning of underworld characters.

A fourth candidate, Clifford T. McAvoy, backed by the extreme left wing American Labor Party, is conceded no chance of winnig.

The city normally votes Democratic, and betting odds at this point favor Wagner. But the citizens often cross party lines in a mayoral election and the experts are wary of making predictions.

Impellitteri, defeated in the primary by Wagner for the Democratic nomination, announced he would run as an independent. But a court ruled he had an insufficient number of valid names on his nominating petition.

Boy Strangled to Death at Bakery in Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—James Przeslica, 14, was strangled to death yesterday when his head wedged between an oven door and a revolving belt at a bakery where he was employed cleaning pots and pans. Police said the boy apparently stuck his head in the oven to see whether pans were drying.

Booklet Explains Employe Policy of Pontiac City

A pocket-sized handbook explaining Pontiac city government's employe policies will be distributed to more than 600 city employes after Nov. 1.

City Personel Director James R. Stelt said the booklet is the first of its kind ever published by the city. He said it will cover such items as employes' hours, pay scale, seniority, vacation provisions and sick leaves.

"We have received a lot of questions concerning the city's employe policies," said Stelt. "This puts them down in black and white in a pocket-sized book."

The booklet was compiled by the personnel department.

Aid to Europe 'Futile' Clardy Tells Jaycees

FLINT (UP) — Rep. Kit Clardy said Tuesday night it would be "futile" to allot any more money to bolster the economy of Europe.

The Michigan Republican, who recently returned from a trip abroad, told the Junior Chamber of Commerce that he found "no feeling of gratitude or financial progress" during his travels.

Acquiring Bases in Spain Was Master Stroke for U.S.

By WARREN BENNETT

NEW YORK (AP)—The new aid-for-bases pact between Spain and the United States has put new muscle into the underbelly of anti-Communist Europe.

The Spanish agreement, together with the Balkan Alliance linking Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey, has converted the once-vulnerable Mediterranean area into a strong defense bastion.

Two years ago when Greece and Turkey joined the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, the West was committed to defend a huge arc all the way from the Norwegian Arctic to the Caucasian border between Turkey and Russia.

The distance was so vast some military experts feared NATO had over-extended itself.

At that time the southern flank was weak. Greece and Turkey, the two newest members, formed the eastern anchor of the Mediterranean line. Both countries had tough but under-armed forces.

France and Italy are side by side on the Mediterranean but France as a sea power was weak and Italy had been stripped of its navy by the peace treaty.

Little Portugal sat by itself at the end of the NATO line in Europe, separated from the others by Spain. NATO also was pledged to defend the Algerian departments of France in North Africa.

The southern flank had a gap at its very center. Albania was a Russian satellite state and Yugoslavia was an independent Communist country.

Necessity forced Marshal Tito, perhaps the No. 1 foe of the Kremlin in Europe, to line up with the West. Yugoslavia was not even considered as a prospective NATO member but the United States did send it separate economic and military aid.

The Balkin Alliance was a happy way out for three former enemy countries faced with the same over-riding problem.

Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey all touched the Iron Curtain and each recognized its individual fate as a nation was threatened by the massive Red and satellite armies just across their borders.

The Balkan defense pact linked their rugged, well-trained standing armies. With this closer bond to the west, the United States sent Yugoslavia vitally-needed tanks and heavy artillery. Tito is now negotiating with the United States and Britain for jet planes with which he hopes to equip his expanding air force.

But strategically speaking, the acquiring of American sea and air bases in Spain was a master stroke, far outweighing other recent developments.

After the end of World War II, the U. S. Navy looked upon Naples as a possible operating and refueling base for the U. S. 6th Fleet, strongest maritime force in the Mediterranean.

But the late Adm. Forrest Sherman decided that it would be far better to have the 6th Fleet operate entirely independent of European supplies, depending for fuel and other supplies brought over by tankers and cargo carriers from Norfolk and other eastern ports in the United States.

It was Adm. Sherman who opened the negotiations with Spain for air and sea bases. Signing of that 20-year pact makes his dream possible, even though he did not live to see it.

American air bases in Spain can provide vital stepping stones for both medium and heavy bombers on stabs deep in the heartland of Russia if war should come.

Defensively, Spain has the advantage of providing bases for fighters and fighter-bombers needed to provide cover for ground troops defending the central and southern sectors of western Europe if it should be invaded. Spanish air bases are beyond the range of Russia's MIG15 jet fighter.

Moreover, Spain sheltered behind the Pyrenees, is far enough removed from Soviet airfields to allow time for warning if the Red Air Force ever were to head for it.

Even more important, the Spanish air bases fulfill a requisite of air military planning—that there must be alternate fields if enemy action or weather should prevent the use of other fields.

The air strips in Spain will round out the complex of American air fields in North Africa, at Morocco, Libya and Saudi Arabia.

Farmer Sticks By Windswept Acres

ARCADIA, Neb. (UP) — Since May 9, when a tornado leveled every building on his farm, Guy Lutz has worked hard picking up the pieces.

He erected three small buildings, bought a new car to replace the old one, which was demolished, and gradually began to clean up the debris-littered farm.

A month from the date of the tornado, a wind storm swept the farm, knocking down the three new buildings and overturning the new auto.

Lutz, who was in a storm cellar with his family when the tornado hit, was caught on a tractor in the windstorm. He and his son finally hid in a granary building on another farm, although at one point the wind carried the boy out of his father's arms.

"A lot of people tell me I should move, but we like it here and wouldn't go anywhere else," Lutz said.

FALSE TEETH
That Loosen
Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

Chemical Reaction Can Injure Clothes

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (UP) — Electrolysis causes holes and brown spots in many washable fabrics, says Florence King, University of Illinois textile expert.

Research showed that spots and holes sometimes appeared in garments with zippers made of two different metals such as copper and aluminum.

When the garment is wet and in close contact with these metals, electrolysis takes place. Enough acid is given off to damage the fabric. A conductor of electricity must be present. This may be minerals found in hard water, salt found in some liquid starch, or detergent left by insufficient rinsing.

To avoid brown-spot damage, Miss King suggested letting the garment dry to the damp stage, then ironing it without rolling it up.

Company Proud to Have World's Worst Railroad

Families Healthier in Upper Brackets

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (UP)—Families are healthier if they're in the higher income and education brackets, three University of Pittsburgh professors found in a survey.

The survey, which covered 2,370 families, also showed that larger families are more likely to need the help of social and health agencies than small ones.

"There is a definite relationship between health and socio-economic status," the professors said. "Some illnesses are found more frequently and have a longer duration in one or another of social or economic groups."

Soviet Now at High Level: 'Champagne Is Available'

By PHIL NEWSOM
UP Foreign News Editor

The Reds have announced that now even a Russian working man can afford champagne.

It is a significant announcement indeed. Clearly, it implies the beating down of the last barrier between rich and poor. Completion of the perfect state.

That is, if you like champagne.

This bit of intelligence was disclosed in a speech by Russian trade minister Anastas I. Mikoyan before a conference of Soviet trade experts whose main theme was that the better life is just around the corner for the Russian people, and in fact may already be here.

Mikoyan tossed in the statistic that wine consumption in the Soviet union has jumped 180 per cent since 1940. . . "which is also an indication of general prosperity."

Nor, while the vast increase in production and consumption of champagne contributed so materially to the bubbling gay life of the Soviet union, was the busy housewife neglected.

These, he said, would relieve her of "petty housekeeping which strangles, dulls and humiliates her, chains her down to the kitchen and nursery, wasting her labor by unproductive work, petty nerve wracking and oppression."

"Good comrades, drink Cavpivo brew!
"If the politburo likes it, so must you."

Or the jump in champagne sales with this:

"Ochachanya, through the five-year plan
"Every boy and girl, every working man
"In the U.S.R. now can be a czar
"For on steppe or plain, he can drink champagne."

But while Mikoyan is doing it, it looks as if he ought to be thinking up some good campaign slogans for himself.

His ministry of foreign trade was taken away from him two months ago. This weeks Pravda listed him simply as minister of trade and made no mention of his position of deputy chairman of the council of ministers.

3 POWs Slain in Indian Camps

Killed by Prison Mates; 15 Other Anti-Commies Have Died in Custody

PANMUNJOM (AP) — The chairman of the Korean repatriation commission said today three Korean and Chinese prisoners have been slain by fellow POWs in a camp for anti-Communists in Korea's neutral zone.

Fifteen other prisoners have died —10 of natural causes, it was announced. Three were shot to death by Indian guards during demonstrations, one apparently committed suicide and another died of starvation, the report said.

Nine of the dead were Koreans and nine Chinese.

* * *

The Communists have charged bitterly in propaganda broadcasts and in letters to Indian custodial troops that South Korean and Chinese Nationalist agents in the camp tortured and murdered prisoners who wanted to return home. The Reds demanded that the murderers be found and punished.

Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, Indian chairman of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission, said the Indians had not discovered the persons who committed the three murders.

"We can't find out why any of the captives were killed," he said.

* * *

Thimayya said one prisoner had his upper legs crushed, another was near starvation before his death, and one had been badly beaten and his body thrown out of the compound by fellow prisoners.

The Indian general reported the murders after a meeting of the NNRC, which is deadlocked over whether to use force to make reluctant North Korean prisoners attend interviews with Communist representatives. He said the dispute on explanations was not discussed. Instead, the Swiss, Swedes, Czechs, Poles and Indians on the commission discussed methods of investigating the prisoner slayings.

* * *

Brig. Gen. A. L. Hamblen, head of the United Nations Command repatriation group, wrote the Indian command today that he was unable to find sufficient evidence to verify an NNRC assertion that an Allied officer had called a Polish officer a foul name during explanation interviews Oct. 17.

But, Hamblen said, a U.N. representative has been relieved "from duties for failure" to meet the standards of the Allied command. Some other officers were reminded "of the need for proper military discipline and behavoir," he said.

Engineers have developed a year-round air-conditioner that heats in winter and cools and dehumidifies in summer but uses air instead of fuel and water.

HIT BY A TRAIN—The life of "Bummie," a Springer Spaniel owned by Jack Johnson of Grand Haven, wasn't worth much after the dog was hit and dragged by a streamliner on a railroad bridge. But expert repair work on his ear, plus other treatment, proved successful and the dog is on the road to recovery.

TOKYO (AP)—A Tokyo department store today sold a gold tea kettle for about $7,800. But the store won't say who bought the seven-pound trinket. The buyer wants to keep his identity secret from the tax collector.

Lingerie Linked to Missing Girl

Underwear Discovered Under Bridge, May Be Blood-Stained

A white brassiere and pantie, of a size worn by the 15-year-old girl "who never went out with boys because she thought she was too young," bore stains which Dist. Atty. John Brossard told newsmen last night "could be blood."

* * *

"They have not been identified conclusively as Evelyn's," Bosshard said, "but her parents tell us she wore things like that and that they were the right size. We have sent them to the state crime laboratory at Madison for analysis."

The underclothing was found yesterday on the Burlington Railroad right of way beneath a highway overhead two miles southeast of La Crosse.

"It looked like they might have been thrown from a car and blown under the bridge," Brossard said.

Simultaneously, with word of the clothing discovery, Bosshard told of what he called "a large spot of blood" on a highway about 12 miles south of where the lingerie was found. The search will intensified in that area.

Services Will Oust POWs Who Broke

WASHINGTON (AP) — Informed senators said today all U. S. military prisoners in Korea who cooperated with their Communist captors or gave false confessions will be quietly ousted from the services.

They said this assurance had been given by Secretary of Defense Wilson and the secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force. Lawmakers who asked not to be named said the ousters will be on an individual case basis.

The reported Pentagon promise that those who broke under Communist persuasion or tortures will be separated from the service may head off a potential investigation by the Senate Armed Services Committee.

"Autumn Theme" (left) is a soft box bag, particularly newsworthy because it retains the capaciousness of the box, yet it has a new softness to match fashion's soft gentle mood of elegance.

A new shape is discovered in the polished "Feed Bag." Fashion news in the nth degree, it may be obtained in cashmere, mock ocelot or patent leather as well as the favored calf, and proves practical as well as beautiful because of its slimness and wide zipper opening.

PTA Fair to Feature Costumes

Witches, hobgoblins, space cadets and a few animals will be competing in the costume parade at Daniel Whitfield School Halloween Fair Friday.

The costume parade will begin at 6:30 p. m., and prizes will be awarded for the most original costume. The fair will be held at the school from 5 to 8 o'clock.

Other features of the evening will be pony rides, a fortune teller, games of skill, movies, a fish pond, and refreshments.

Alan Boegehold to Claim Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Marshall of New Caanan, Conn., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Alan Lindley Boegehold, son of the Alfred L. Boegeholds of Erie drive.

The bride-elect attended Wellesley College and is a graduate of Stanford University.

Her fiance is a graduate of the University of Michigan and a student at Harvard University, where he is working toward a Ph. D. degree.

Child Study Club 3 Conducts Meeting.

Mrs. Carroll C. Braid was hostess in her Rosewood drive home Tuesday afternoon to members of Child Study Club Three.

Mrs. Carl Dahlgren, Mrs. Earl Bartlett, Mrs. Howard Looney and Mrs. Oliver Filer assisted the hostess.

Following the business meeting, members heard recordings on sex instruction as a guide for parents. The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Robert Reynells on North Johnson avenue.

Gentle Reminder

Everyone should remember the truth of the statement that nobody can be healthy without cleanliness, and nobody can be clean without using plenty of hot water and soap.

Pickpocket-Spotter Really Saves Cash

By ELIZABETH TOMEY

NEW YORK (UP) — Saving money is so tough now that it's refreshing to sit down and talk to a woman who is a success at money saving—and other people's money at that.

Say you spot a bargain counter piled with remnants and surrounded with eager shoppers. You push into the crowd. Your purse, hanging over your wrist before, slides up your arm as you reach with both hands for a choice bit of wool tweed.

You're a pickpocket's dream girl about this time. Maybe Mary Shanley will be surveying the crowd from a few yards away. She can spot a pickpocket quicker than you can say, "Charge it, Please."

She steps up as the pickpocket deftly closes your purse again and steps back with your billfold.

She's arrested scores of pickpockets in her 18 years as a detective assigned to the police department's pickpocket division. Plump, blue-eyed and easy-going, Detective Shanley pursues her strange career by wandering in and out of department stores, into movies and churches.

Fifteen other women detectives specialize in pickpocket spotting too—some of them pretty young things and others who pass easily for matronly shoppers.

Amazing how careless we are with our money, when you hear the stories of these detectives. Most of us can be absolutely positive international jewel thieves will never jimmy a window of our modest dwellings. But anybody's purse is fair game—the shabbiest purses sometimes yield a fat roll of somebody's life savings.

"When you put your purse down in the next seat at a movie, or hang it on your arm with the catch on the outside, you're asking for trouble," Detective Shanley said, sipping coffee before she started her round of department stores.

An out-of-town visitor is even fairer bait. "They figure a visitor won't know what to do and won't sign a complaint," the detective explained.

Don't get the idea that Manhattan's abounding with pickpockets. It isn't, thanks to people like Mary Shanley. "But there are still a few good ones out," she said. She meant out of jail.

"I don't think there's a good thief in the business that I haven't had in a case at least once," she said. "You get so you recognize them by just the way they operate. You hear that a certain kind of theft took place and you say, 'That's so-and-so.'"

Seat tippers are the men who spot that purse in the seat next to you, sit down behind it and tip the seat with their toes so the purse slides to the floor. "They take out the billfold and slide the purse back on the seat," Detective Shanley explained.

Recently she got her picture in the paper (something she doesn't like to do) when she caught a pair of pickpockets in St. Patrick Cathedral. One got away while she struggled to subdue the other.

"You get so every place you go you find yourself looking for somebody acting suspiciously," the motherly-looking detective said. She stood up and said she had to go uptown and get to work.

"Ride the subway?" she looked at her watch. "No, guess I'll take a bus. Buses are more crowded at this hour. I might get me a pickpocket."

Girl Interested in Fashion Designing Should Also Investigate Other Fields

By ANNE HEYWOOD

The other day, I received a very interesting letter from a young girl whose initials are D.B., and who lives in New Jersey. She wrote:

"I am a senior in high school and plan to go to college next year. I know that I want to do something in the field of art, but I don't know just what.

"I'm quite sure I would like fashion designing, but they tell me it is very difficult to get a satisfactory job or to advance in that line.

"I wonder what your opinion is, and if you would suggest some other way I could use my artistic ability and perhaps my interest in working with people."

First of all, I believe this girl should plan to take a general course in college at least for the first year or two. This will give her an opportunity to explore additional subjects with which she is not now familiar.

At the end of that time, she may be able to see that her interest in art is stronger than ever or, on the contrary, that it is diminishing rapidly and some other subject is becoming more appealing to her.

Trying to decide without this is a little like marrying the first boy you ever date. You owe it to yourself to "date" a few more subjects.

In addition, she should plan to take jobs each summer. One can learn a great deal about a field from firsthand experience, and the job market is getting much better for summer jobs.

If she learns to type, the chances are she can get into the advertising department of a department store, or even into the office of a manufacturer of dresses, coats or fashion accessories.

Buying offices for out-of-town stores also have interesting openings now and then.

Even in selling dresses in a department store teaches one a good deal about the field of fashion design.

It will, at the same time, offer experience with people which any career girl needs and be of great help in impressing a future employer, when she finishes college and enters the business world permanently.

She should not concern herself now with what fields are easy to get into, or hard; well-paying or not. In short, she shouldn't put the cart before the horse.

She ought to study the things that really interest her. Her interest and enthusiasm will enable her to enter a field, regardless of how difficult "they" may say it is.

A book which might help her at this time is "Career Planning for High School Students" by William J. Reilly.

It covers most of the problems with which she is concerned, and covers them realistically and well.

Let's Make Delicious Apple Butter

Mrs. Windeler of Crescent Lake Has Seasonable Recipe

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Mrs. Edmund L. Windeler of Crescent Lake takes time out from her multitude of duties with and for children (she has six of her own) to give us a recipe for Apple Butter. The apples on the market now are just right for making this delicious table spread.

Mrs. Windeler has a Cub Den, a Brownie Troop and a Girl Scout Troop; indirectly she works with the Boy Scouts too.

She's a past president of the Oakland County PTA and is program chairman of the Waterford Center PTA. Any excess energy is channeled into Tuesday Musicale and gardening.

APPLE BUTTER
By Mrs. Edmund L. Windeler

4 quarts cut up apples
Scant cup cider or water
3 to 5½ pounds sugar (depending on ripeness of apples)
1 tablespoon cinnamon
1½ teaspoon cloves
2 teaspoons allspice
Scant ½ cup vinegar

Cook the apples in the cider or water and press through a sieve, ricer or food mill. There should be 10 cups of apple pulp. Combine pulp with the rest of the ingredients and cook over medium heat on top of the stove for 1 hour, stirring frequently. This may be placed in a covered pan in the oven and baked at low heat until of desired thickness. Stir occasionally.

LISTEN, LADIES! This gal just has to be "the life of the party"—and will do anything for a laugh, even the cigar-smoking bit. This sort of thing—like all unfeminine acts—is most unattractive to men.

Keeping Heat Away Better Than Fans

CHAMAIGN, Ill. (U) — The Small Homes Council of the University of Illinois says controls to keep the heat away from walls, glass and roof of a house are far more effective than fans and other air cooling technizues used inside the rooms.

The council said major walls and glass areas should be on the south side of the house where they can be protected from the sun or on the north where effects of the sun are negligible. Walls and glass areas should be held to a minimum on the east and west sides.

The low angles of the un on these areas in early morning and late afternoon make them more fifficult to protect, the council said.

"Sun-controls" suggested by the council include overhangs, trees and plantings, window louvers or blinds, and awnings. The council also advised using venetian blinds outside windows. Light-colored venetian blinds are 70 per cent effective in reducting heat load outside but only 40 per cent effective shen they are inside the house.

Human hearing usually begins to be less acute shortly after the age of 20.

Storm Sash Best Cure for Sweating

By HUBBARD COBB

Glass was invented by the Egyptians and while the Egyptians had and still are having a lot of trouble, there is nothing in the history books that says they were worried by sweating windows.

We, on the other hand, have a lot of headaches from this particular item.

We've said, and we'll say it over again for the benefit of any newcomers, that about the best way to eliminate sweating and frosting windows is to install storm windows.

This is not because we own stock in various concerns that sell and make storm windows but because of something we learned in a book.

This book says that condensation is caused by the moisture vapor in the air turning into a liquid or solid when the temperature of the air is lowered to a certain point.

Now glass happens to be a very good conductor of heat, so in the average house the glass will be pretty cold if the outside air is cold. When the warm moist air hits the cold glass the water vapor it carries is deposited on the glass either as a liquid or a solid.

When you install a storm window it keeps the cold outside air away from the inside glass so that the glass does not become too cold. That means that when the warm moist air strikes it, little or nothing occurs.

Of course, some people have trouble with sweating windows even with storm sashes on all windows.

In most cases these are the homes where the moisture content of air inside the house is so high that it takes only a few degrees difference in temperature to condense some of the water vapor into a solid.

We don't have time today to tell these people how to lower the water content of the air in their homes but we'll certainly be sure to tell them how to do it next week.

UM Alums Hear Wayne Professor

First Meeting Held Tuesday Evening at Tarr Home

Dr. Katherine Chamberlain, professor of physics at Wayne University, was guest speaker at the first meeting of the University of Michigan Alumnae Club of Pontiac Tuesday evening when the group met at the home of Mrs. Robert B. Tarr on West Iroquois road.

Speaking on educating women to their responsibilities, she said higher education for women was once difficult to obtain, and that women still need encouragement to pursue work in specialized fields.

Dr. Chamberlain told of her interview with Madame Curie, whose contribution was made after years of study. She tied this in with a discussion of the use of scientific discoveries, which she said should not be used for destruction in war.

She urged all to stand against non-peaceful use of such discoveries, pointing out that where an individual does not have much influence alone, he will be influential if he works with others who share his point of view.

Musicale Meets With Mrs. Foley

Mrs. E. D. Foley opened her home on Old Orchard drive Tuesday afternoon to members of Tuesday Musicale. She was assisted by Mrs. E. R. Trawick and Mrs. Ralph Norvell.

Mrs. Martin Wager presented an analysis of the structure of musical form. She was introduced by Mrs. James Briney, chairman for the day.

The musical program consisted of vocal solos by Mrs. Gordon Woolcock accompanied by Mrs. Addison Oakley; Mrs. John Nicolls Jr. accompanied by Mrs. Ferdinand Gaensbauer, and Mrs. Victor Lindquist accompanied by Mrs. Wager. Mrs. Trawick and Mrs. Paul A. Kern presented piano solos.

Mrs. T. E. Nelson will open her home on Watkins Lake for the November meeting.

Mothers' Group Has Installation

William Coulacos, director of the Pontiac Boys Club, was master of ceremonies when the Boys Club Mothers met for their installation dinner Tuesday evening at the Boys Club. Charles Rhodes conducted the installation.

John Hirlinger, guest speaker, presented "Pontiac at the Crossroads," telling what Pontiac was, what Pontiac is today and what it can be in the future. A movie, "Morning Star," was shown.

Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. Hirlinger and Mrs. Coulacos were guests for the evening.

Being a health enthusiast you will appreciate this NEW APPROACH to YOUR HEALTH PROBLEMS. Even though you may be "FED UP" with the same old HEALTH LECTURES that deal in theories, come and hear a discussion in laymen's language that gives the real answers to specific health problems such as the following:

- Why is it possible to have abundant vitamins and minerals in your diet and still feel much below par?
- Why do some people continue to gain weight no matter how little they eat? If the endocrine glands control weight then is "calorie counting" the answer?
- What foods are important for proper functioning of the endocrine gland system — metabolism, etc.?
- Why do so many who follow all the health rules of good diet still suffer from irritability, nervousness, dingy complexion, skin eruptions, and temper outbursts?

Other booths are gift shop and bazaar under the direction of Mrs. William Wesch and Mrs. William Harsch; homemade candy, Mrs. Fred Henry, and pop, Mrs. Lewis Hanoute. Movies will be supervised by Mrs. R. R. Dougherty and Evelyn Woodworth.

Mrs. Lamar Pepple Hostess to Sorority

Mrs. H. W. Diekman, Mrs. Lloyd Moseby and Elena Bajari were appointed to the nomination committee Monday evening when members of Alpha Sigma Nu sorority met with Mrs. Lamar Pepple of Cherokee road.

A donation to the United Fund was approved by the members. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Diekman, Mrs. Arthur Dahl and Mrs. Daniel J. Hackett.

Home Accessories Easier to Clean

Homemakers have learned to treasure accessory furnishings that don't have to be removed from their accustomed places for washing.

White Collars Need Frequent Sudsing

The normal skin produces sufficient oil to deposit a trace on the neckline of a blouse very soon after you put it on. This tell-tale streak not only looks less than dainty, but is hard on the fabric.

It's not frequent sudsing that wears the threads. It's allowing soil to remain that weakens material and shortens its life. So make up your mind to do your washbowl homework if you intend to be a "white collar girl."

It is possible for as many as 40,000 cicadas to emerge in a single night from under one tree.

STAPP Fitting For Special Cases

We at Stapp's have since our opening day devoted much time and study to the fitting of 'special cases'. The real need for shoes especially designed and built to provide normal, comfortable walking habits for these children made us search every source to have shoes for them when they wanted them. But shoes alone cannot give the satisfaction so desired.

Our staff then began schooling themselves and training to carefully handle each case. To follow the doctor's recommendations. To observe during fitting and checking periods the reactions obtained so that the child could achieve normal, comfortable foot and leg development.

Regularly we carry many 'special shoes' in stock. Others are available to us on a few days special orders. Whatever the need, Club Foot, Tarso Pronator, Pigeon Toe, Pre-Walker Surgical, Brace, Mis-Mate, we welcome the opportunity to serve your child.

Bus Rider Takes Seat From Child

By EMILY POST

A reader today explains: "I would very much like to have your opinion of the following incident which occurred yesterday when my daughter and I were returning from a shopping tour. After walking around all afternoon I was very tired and couldn't wait to get on the bus to sit down.

"However, the bus was very crowded and there wasn't a vacant seat. Toward the back of the bus, a young woman was seated with her small child next to her. I asked the mother if she would please hold the child on her lap and let me sit down.

"I thought I was quite within my rights in my request as children under a certain age ride free and are not entitled to a seat. My daughter was very much embarrassed and said that I was out of order in doing this. I would appreciate your opinion."

Answer: As the mother didn't volunteer to take the child on her lap, you were within your rights. It certainly was an expected courtesy on her part.

Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter had to postpone her wedding because of the death of her father. The invitations had already been sent out and a notice of postponement was sent to each guest.

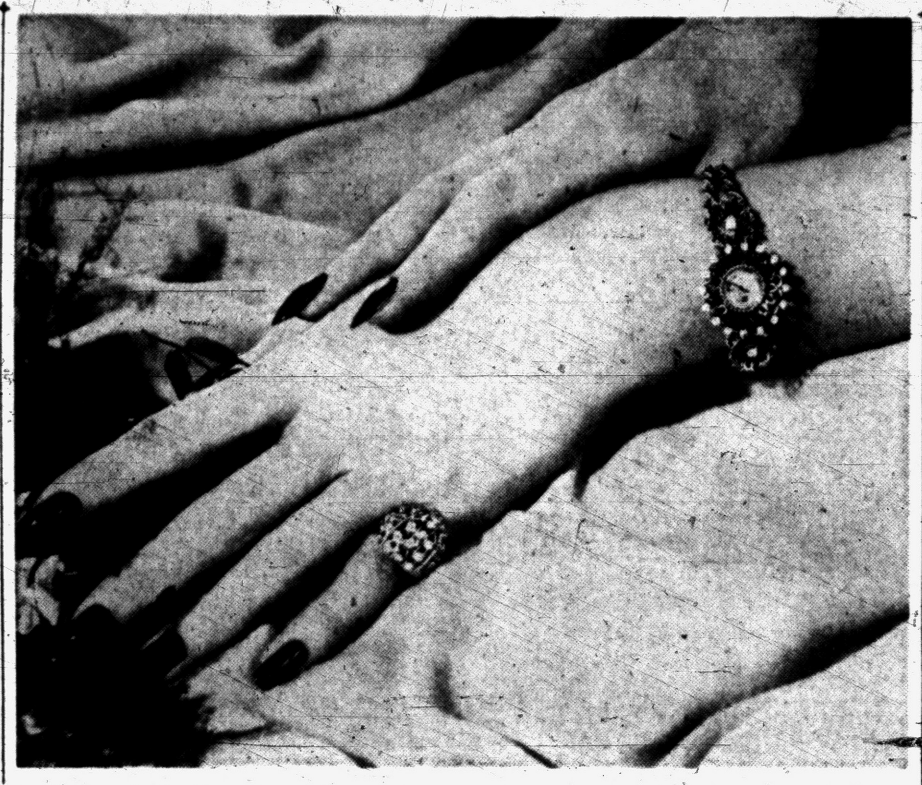
The wedding will take place within a month and I would like to know how to go about informing the guests of the new wedding date. Is it necessary to have new invitations engraved?

Answer: You merely send a notice similar to the one you sent postponing it.

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I received an invitation to a neighbor's silver wedding anniversary. Since we have known these neighbors only a short time, I was wondering if a gift of silver is necessary or if it would be just as proper to send flowers?

Answer: Since you have known them only so short a time, it is not necessary that you send anything.

However, if you would like to do so, get a small piece of silver (plated, if not sterling) equal to the price of the flowers. It would be nicer because it is more permanent.



Diamond dewdrops tip petals of a lacy gold flower with a watch in the center. The floral motif is repeated in two small flowers of gold with diamond centers on each side of the timepiece. The bracelet is of twisted gold.

It's Hometown Girl's Duty to Plan Fun for Her Visiting Cousin and His Friend

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I have a cousin whom I've met only once, but he's a swell guy, though very shy. One time I met his best friend, developed a big crush and started to write to him, and we became fairly well acquainted.

"Now I've just found out that they're both coming here to visit! Though I'm every bit as shy as they are, isn't it up to me to break the ice?

"I mean, would it be proper to ask my friend for a date and to get a date for my cousin, too? Since I'm not in the habit of asking boys for dates, what should I say?"

You're the native and they're the visiting firemen, so it's definitely up to you to come through with some plans for fun. Call up their hostess and find out what you can do to help entertain the two boys.

Suggest an invitation to your house for dinner, for instance. (If sitting around afterward seems too dull, maybe your dad could get your cousin aside and give him the dough to finance movies for the four of you.)

If there's anything special going on at school and in your crowd, suggest that you take the two boys along. Their hostess might be delighted to know that she won't have to be responsible for digging up dates for them — you're ready to take over the job.

And when they arrive at her house she can tell them what's already been planned for them and have them get in touch with you at once. And that's not asking for a date really!

"Dear Miss Woodward: The boy I like lives very nearby and I go over to his house a lot—it's usually the only way I see him.

"I'm quite sure he likes me (his mother says so), though he won't admit it to me or to anyone else. I'd like very much to go with him. Can you think of any way?"

Though this boy is pretty used to having you around and enjoys it — maybe the idea of dating a girl hasn't hit him yet. That idea usually churns the girls before it does the boys.

So, if he's a slow starter, give him a little prod in the right direction. Invite him when you're supposed to bring a boy along. Show him how much fun it can be to go out with you — and maybe he'll come up afterward with some entertaining ideas of his own.

"Dear Miss Woodward: I was dancing with my girl friend when the boy I like came up and asked me to dance.

"I don't know why I did it, but I said 'maybe later.' I think he likes me, but do you think my putting him off has ruined my chances with him?"

"I took a rain check the last time you asked me to dance — when am I going to have a chance to use it?" Such a question is bound to start something!

It's teasing him into asking you then and there. If he answers you "maybe later" — don't take it as a rebuff, but go on teasing him to make it soon, 'cause you can hardly wait.

And next time something's offered to you that you dearly want — grab it!

Manners MAKE FRIENDS

Says a mother whose yard is the neighborhood playground: "I don't mind having all the children in the block use my yard for a playground. But when their mothers want them to come home I wish they wouldn't always telephone to ask me to send them. I have to answer the phone; go outside and separate Johnny from a game he doesn't want to leave. And sometimes I get half a dozen such calls in an hour."

Remember that, mothers. Johnny's your responsibility — not a neighbor's.

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

Tea Lovers, Let's Unite Against Flat, Pallid Brew

A plaintive note the other day from Gen. Charles Brandon Booth, chief of the Volunteers of America, brought to a head an oft-considered scheme of mine to start a campaign.

"When are you and I and others who enjoy tea going to succeed in making dining car, hotel and restaurant chefs use water freshly brought to a boil?" wailed Gen. Booth. "On my Western trip last weekend, they served me a dreadful, insipid brew.

MISS McBRIDE

"I found they were using a brand I like, so I know the tea wasn't at fault. Since most packages have exact directions, clearly printed, why is it that good, well-made tea is almost impossible to get on the road?"

Well, and in the home, too, Gen. Booth. A person who hasn't experienced it wouldn't believe the difference in tea made with water which has just come to a galloping boil and the flat-tasting stuff done with the same liquid merely heated up to some point of other.

I can come to a galloping boil myself, if you'll please excuse the expression, when I think of my disillusionment the other day in a really good restaurant where the soup was perfection, the meat course a poem, the dessert a rich delight.

But when I asked for tea, the waitress unapologetically brought me a limp tea bag, a cold teacup and a little glass bottle of warm water.

Because I drink it less often, I'm not so much concerned about coffee. But when I do crave it, I want it hot and freshly-made and I think those who prefer it strong with real cream should be able to get it that way instead of in the lukewarm, pale, milky state which seems to be standard.

After our campaign has taken care of the deplorable tea and coffee situation, I'd like to go on to hot breads. Again and again you'll see with a thrill of anticipation the words "hot rolls, hot muffins, hot biscuits" on a menu, but when you order, what do you get? Breadstuffs that undoubtedly have been hot at some time in their existence but now are at best tepid.

Almost worse, if the eagerly awaited treats should turn out to be a bit warm when they arrive at table, instead of in relays they are brought en masse to sit and cool unless you gobble.

While we're at it, Gen. Booth, let's do something about plates that are hot enough to scorch you when the melon balls are served and ice cold when the sizzling steak is slid onto them, assuming of course that the melon balls are iced and the steak sizzling, which they aren't always—another chore for us.

Then there are proprietors of places that charge you prices that go with delicious, lovingly-prepared food, but give you instead a slapdash massacre of good materials. They certainly ought to be pilloried, and you and I are just the ones to see to that, aren't we?

Remember, Gen. Booth, this is Our Campaign and I shall expect to hear from you with further reports as you travel about the country doing your fine work.

I was thinking, too, that possibly interested readers might like to volunteer help in rooting out practices unfair to eaters. Suggestions eagerly received.

The Needlework Guild, which was begun in 1896, had its origin in the efforts of seven young girls who wanted to help the needy. Today all over the country young people are still carrying on with this charitable work. Marlyn Sherman of Washington street (left) and Carol Wortman of Dwight avenue took a little time at a recent Amies meeting to discuss the work that the club is doing for the Pontiac Branch of Needlework Guild.

Newlyweds Will Reside in Covington, Ky., Home

Planning to reside in Covington, Ky., are Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. May, who were married Saturday morning in St. Michael Church.

The bride, the former Marguerite Ann Martell, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tanuta of North Saginaw street, and the bridegroom is the son of Colonel May of Covington, Ky., and the late Mrs. May.

Mrs. Joeph D. Smith of Clarkston wore a light blue suit for her duties as matron of honor and carried red roses. Mr. Smith was best man, and groomsman was the bride's brother, Donald Martell.

The new Mrs. May is a graduate of Mercy College School of Nursing and she attended the University of Detroit. The bridegroom attends the University of Cincinnati.

Attend Convention

Attending the Michigan Music Teachers Convention in Detroit Monday and Tuesday were Mrs. Lester Snell, Mrs. William Heitsch, Mrs. Carl Clifford and Charles Wilson.

Mrs. Snell presided as chairman of the music education forum and the state student recital group.

Local Blue Star Presents Dinner

Blue Star Mothers Chapter Four hostessed the kickoff dinner for Blue Star Mothers National Convention Monday in Grand Rapids, in honor of National President Mrs. George Brown.

Attending from Pontiac were Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Mrs. Archie Tryon, Mrs. Florence McCrae, Mrs. James Dando, Mrs. Alma Cowley, Mrs. James Schram and Mrs. George Kayga.

Others were Mrs. George Cervenka, Mrs. Helen Smale, Mr. and Mrs. George Leinenger with their son, Marvin, Mrs. Wilbur FitzThomas, Mrs. George Kemper, Mrs. Wright Madell of Keego Harbor and William Morris.

Y Program Will Include Girls 8 to 14

'Saturday Fun' to Feature Variety of Activities

Girls 8 to 14 years old are the ones included in the new YWCA activity program called "Saturday Fun."

Assisting her will be Shirley Clancy, and special interests and activities will take place with the assistance of students at Kingswood School Cranbrook.

Sharon O'Gorman of Birmingham is chairman of this group, which includes Susie Zumbrink, Mary Hague, Alice Lewis, Clarainda Schmidlapp and Peggy Potter.

Saturday is registration day, and an opening party will be held. A fall term will run through Dec. 12, and a winter program will follow from Jan. 4 to March 27.

A small fee and YWCA membership are necessary in order to join the program, which is sponsored by the teenage committee with Mrs. William Isaacson as chairman.

The YWCA, located on Franklin boulevard is an agency of the Pontiac Area United Fund.

'Spook Scoot' Held by Job's Daughters

"Spook Scoot" was the theme for a Halloween dance held by members and friends of Job's Daughters Bethel 40 Saturday evening in Roosevelt Temple on State avenue.

Camp Nesbitt Makes Plans

Convention to Be in City

Mrs. William Paetow, president of Camp Nesbitt II, Ladies National League, has announced the committees to serve when the group entertains the National Camp at its 52nd national convention to be held Thursday and Friday evenings in Hotel Roosevelt.

Mrs. Phillip North is convention chairman; Mrs. Lewis Lingle and Mrs. Phillip Orencia are in charge of banquet tickets; Mrs. William Vandruska and Mrs. Floyd Opperman, campfire; Mrs. Paul Antilla and Mrs. Ward Crooks, reception, and Mrs. Paetow, decorations.

National officers appointed from Pontiac include Mrs. Gladys Christie, national press correspondent, and Mrs. Marie Drumm, national historian. Mrs. Louie Nurthum is delegate from Pontiac and Mrs. Antilla is alternate delegate.

Registration will begin at 10 a. m. Thursday, with an executive board meeting at 11 o'clock. The annual convention will be held at 1:30 Thursday in the hotel ballroom. Six o'clock is the hour for the banquet, followed by the campfire.

All-Rubber Broom Is Kind to Clothes

A new utility whiskbroom is made entirely of rubber. Because it's so soft, it can't scratch or pull threads — and because it brings up the nap of a garment, it retards shine.

You can keep it efficient and sanitary because it's washable. Just dip the rubber end in lukewarm soapy water. Squeeze it out at once, rinse, and prop it up so that circulating air can speed the drying.

Keep Knees Cozy

A pair of cozy knees is most welcome when the north wind blows. Wool knee warmers—tube-like affairs ribbed at both ends for snug fit — will keep you toasty all winter if cared for properly. Wash them like your sweaters in lukewarm soapsuds and rinses.

Lt. Shoulders Testifies Today

Goes Before Federal Grand Jury Hearing on Greenlease Case

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A federal grand jury today awaited testimony from a veteran officer who broke the Greenlease kidnaping case and later quit his force in anger over a police board inquiry.

A top-level St. Louis police inquiry into Shoulders' handling of the case brought his resignation. He claimed the investigation destroyed his reputation as an officer after 27 years on the force.

* * *

Another witness waiting to testify was John Hager, St. Louis taxicab driver. He gave Shoulders a tip that helped bring the arrest in St. Louis of Hall and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, 41-year-old divorcee who aided Hall in the kidnaping.

The grand jury was expected to return indictments against both Hall and Mrs. Heady. The hearing was opened yesterday.

Robert C. Greenlease, 71-year-old multimillionaire father of Bobby, was among yesterday's witnesses before the jury. He told newsmen only that he "had identified some things."

* * *

Greenlease paid a record $600,000 ransom, approximately half of which was recovered. Hall claimed he lost the remaining $300,000 during a drinking spree in St. Louis.

Hager, who picked up Hall as a fare, told newsmen last night he didn't think the missing $300,000 ever got to St. Louis.

"Whenever I was around Hall he never seemed to be in the condition where he could be rolled (money taken from him) without his knowledge," Hager said. He said Hall had two suitcases in the motel room in which he was arrested.

* * *

"When we took the money out of the room I carried one suitcase down to Shoulders' car and put it in there and Shoulders carried the other one," he said.

Hager said he then drove to the police station in his cab and waited there until Shoulders appeared with Hall and the suitcases.

The police inquiry in St. Louis was called following reports the FBI had found discrepancies in officers' accounts of the arrests of Hall and Mrs. Heady.

Philippine Army Units Protect Foreign Buses

MANILA (AP) — Philippine Army units were ordered today to protect American owned passenger buses victimized by Communist Huk guerrillas south of Manila.

Five buses of the Batangas Transportation Co. were held up and burned in the past month. Army sources said the Huks did not harm the passengers but warned them not to patronize the American-owned company.

4 Fined $100 Each in Numbers Racket

Four persons pleaded guilty to possessing policy slips and were fined $100 each by Pontiac Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

They are Walter McKinney, 53, of 40½ Bagley St., his wife, Ruth, 44; James L. Burnett, 45, of 380 Bagley; and Herbert A. Sarvaer, 61, of 574 Highland.

Detective Sgt. Donny E. Ashley said the four were arrested Saturday at the McKiney home with policy slips in their possession. All were released after paying the fines.

Wants Hair Cut Well, So He Cuts It Himself

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UP)—Because he didn't like the way the barber cut his hair when he was 14, Hubert Brown, 52-year-old salesman, has sat in a barber's chair only three times in his life.

The man with the neat crewcut said his last trip to a barber shop came about 10 years ago when he had an important engagement.

"After the barber had finished and I looked at my hair, I called the person I was supposed to meet and said I would be late for our engagement," Brown said. "Then I went home and trimmed it to my own satisfaction."

YOUR CHILD MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS

1 OUT OF 3 DOES!

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

JAYNE'S P-W for Pin-Worms

John Wayne Angry at Wife's Charges

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rugged John Wayne leaves a sick bed today to angrily refute his Mexican wife's charges of infidelity, drunkenness and brutality.

"I'll be on that stand getting some things off my chest, even if they have to carry me in on a stretcher," he promised.

"I'm not going to sit idly by and hear myself and friends made the victims of vicious lies.

"I will refute my wife's accusations one by one. That's for sure."

A quick end to the bitter divorce trial is seen once the actor gets his day in court.

Wayne spent all yesterday in bed with a severe cold while attorneys for both sides worked on last minute details of a property settlement. The settlement, which made Mrs. Wayne admittedly happy, reportedly will be worth $100,000 a year to her.

What is probably the oldest wild duck on record is one shot on the Sartian Ranch in Calofirnia Dec. 27, 1952. It was banded at Lake Merritt, California, Dec. 8, 1932, making it at least 20½ years old when shot.

DON'T HURT HIM, POP—That's what worried Cary Pearson, 3, of Cleveland, Ohio, could be saying as his dad, Charles B. Pearson, rescues Archie, their favorite dog. Archie was caught in a drain while chasing a rabbit on a morning hunt.

Bob Considine Says:

Reds Stole U. S. Thunder on Germ Warfare Rebuttal

NEW YORK (INS)—Dr. Charles Mayo's presentation of the United States' reply to Russian charges that we engaged in germ warfare in Korea was masterful, dignified and so superbly documented that it could not have failed to impress his intelligent listeners in the United Nations.

But Russia's Jacob Malik was on his feet without hesitation. In a windy rebuttal he repeated the bizarre lies which some warped propaganda office first concocted in 1950.

Also he put before the U. N. the fact that this country never ratified the Geneva protocol of 1925 that had to do with outlawing war by poison gas and bacteria.

Malik renewed his often-rejected plea that all United Nations members that have not ratified that protocol, apparently discovered by a browsing Soviet researcher, now do so.

The purpose here, of course, is to suck us into signing something which Russia knows all to well is less than worth the paper it's written on. And, once signed Russia could announce to its captive audience and to the rest of the world that it had (a) forced us to stop making germ warfare and (b) that we had tacitly admitted our previous guilt by now signing, and (c) Russia is a peace maker.

Malik has been around U. N. long enough to know all the tricks of stealing the show away from those who speak with wisdom and knowledge of their topic, if that topic is detrimental to the evil designs of the U. S. S. R.

For instance, all within hearing distance of Dr. Mayo knew that he had presented ultimate proof that we did not use germ warfare and "confessions" about such alleged use were obtained from American prisoners of war by means of brain-washing and inspeakable cruelties. Even the Indian delegation, whose country was sold a bill of goods by the purveyers of germ warfare charges, was impressed.

But Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, usually quick on the draw, did not follow up Dr. Mayo's dissertation by introducing a resolution. The very introduction of a resolution causes U. N. debate. We said our piece and sat down, and Malik took over for hours with his phony charges and his own ludicrous resolution that the '25 protocol now be ratified.

We could have used that time with our own resolution or some other device near and dear to the parliamentarians' mind, and kept Malik from running with the ball.

Our own resolutions might have asked U. N. to submit to the International Court at the Hague Russia's conduct in repeatedly vetoing our efforts to clear our good name of these germ warfare charges, which charges are now accepted by millions who never see or hear other than the Russian side of the great debate.

Russia's Security Council veto has smashed our demand that a five-nation neutral group be formed to make an "on the spot" study of epidemics allegedly started by our "G-Bombs;" and our further demands that this be done by the International Red Cross, the Swiss Red Cross, the World Health Organization and/or a team of selected scientists.

The Department of Defense has in its possession a remarkable captured film, and some sound recordings, which graphically show how American POWs were tortured into confession they dropped germ bombs.

This film, by the way, may be seen by accredited groups upon application to the Department of Defense, Pentagon, Washington. It is understood that the plan is to make many copies of it for distribution through this country and the world, with especial attention paid to distribution in movie-mad India.

But we forgot to finish him off then and there. We let him come back to sow a seed of suspicion in the minds of the wavering.

"The United States coerced these men (returned POWs) into repudiating their confessions," Malik shouted with a zeal which most men reserve for the utterances of great truths. By that time the referee should have been counting him out.

Instead, he was still talking when we went to press.

PUBLIC NOTICE!

NO -- we are positively not going out of business -- The simple fact is that we are just too overloaded. When one has a serious business illness -- if something isn't done about it -- then that business is sure to suffer a fast ending. Too large an inventory -- Far too much for our business is our illness. Regardless of it's size or financial conditions, it's much too easy to buy too much -- and we've just plain bought too much for our business health. Therefore we have employed the National Sales System to "cure" our troubles. They are the "doctors." What they say and do is "tough medicine." But we must take it. You will be the ones that benefit from our mistakes! Better plan to get here early.

A Message From the Sales Conductor

Folks—you don't know me—But you do know the fine store and its unbeatable reputation for fair dealings and better merchandise at the lowest possible prices.

When Mr. George Hawn recently finished his annual inventory he was astounded at the tremendous amount of merchandise he had on hand. Far too much for the safe operation of his business. He decided he MUST, at all costs, dispose of at least one half of the entire stock at once. He called me and my firm in to do this for him, as it is so important that it be done at once.

My orders are to SELL-SELL-SELL, forget former prices and profits and move this large stock in the shortest time possible. Therefore in my long years of liquidating stocks of merchandise, I have never had a finer stock of merchandise to sell at such low prices. Take it from an expert . . . If you don't take advantage of this sale . . . you'll be missing a chance that doesn't come very often. It's like money in the bank for you . . . you'll save more than you thought could be possible on first grade regular merchandise. I warn you—it'll go fast, so better hurry or what you want will be gone.

Signed:
JOHN W. HERRON, Sales Mgr.

Wind Isn't Welcomed as It Blows In for Lunch

MARIAVILLE, N. Y. (UP)—A heavy wind upset a two-story lakeside house here recently while its owners and two workers were eating lunch inside.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schembri, Schenectady, said they had just lowered the five-room frame house onto foundation blocks when the wind blew up. The gust shoved the house off the blocks and into a 4-foot-deep basement.

His Secret of Happy Eating

Without Acid Stomach Worries!

He always used to worry that eating favorite foods might mean hours of gassy heartburn and acid stomach distress. But tiny Tums ended that worry. For Tums stop heartburn and gassy pressure pains in record time, whenever they occur. Yet Tums can't overalkalize your stomach—can't cause acid rebound. So follow the rule for happy eating—always carry Tums in pocket or purse. Get a roll today.

Cool Contest Shows Every Place Is Hot

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UP)—A group of southwestern cities held a contest this summer to determine which was the coolest—a very relative thing.

Phoenix, Mesa, Tucson and Yuma in Arizona, El Paso, Tex., and Santa Fe and Albuquerque, N. M., entered the contest, which consisted of watching a 100-pound block of ice melt.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce in each city was to keep tab on the melting ice, and the winner would have largest hunk remaining at the end of the day.

Came sundown, and the final reports were gathered. Judges considered the reports and came to the conclusion that the contest didn't prove much, except that the Jaycees had had a lot of fun.

Each city claimed the victory.

LA Air Mail Is Delayed by Postmaster General

It took a half an hour to get the couple out of the throng of well-wishers on the rooftop and into the cargo compartment of the helicopter.

Detroit Blasts Appear Ended

Fire Marshal Blames Underground Blowups on Short Circuit

DETROIT (UP) — Fire Marshal Edward W. Hall said today that chances were "remote" for a recurrence of underground explosions which shot at least eight manhole covers 20 feet into the air in downtown Detroit.

Hall said the blasts, which caused one of the Motor City's worst traffic snarls Tuesday, probably were caused by a short circuit in an underground high tension line. Police said it was fortunate that none of the flying covers hit any cars or pedestrians. No injuries were reported.

However, police roped off a stretch of Woodward Avenue, Detroit's main thoroughfare, until the danger of additional blasts passed. Fire shot from several of the coverless manholes for a time and six precinct stations were cut off from downtown headquarters when flames burned through police telephone cables.

Workmen rushed to the scene to remove the 100-pound covers still in place. Hall said the danger of more blasts no longer existed because the sewers were "ventilating themselves."

Maurice Liptzer, 38, said the first explosion seemed to "lift up the back end" of his car.

"I thought for a second the truck back of me had hit me," he said.

The first blast occurred shortly before noon and four others followed in quick succession. Traffic was reported back to normal on Woodward about 8 p. m.

The U. S. Army expects to save nearly $11,000,000 in one year by putting into practice more than 10,000 ideas for improved methods of operation submitted during 1952 by military and civilian employes of the Army. The ideas were chosen from more than 50,000 offered.

Police Seize 13 in Mail Thefts

Men Accused of Taking, Cashing Checks Worth $100,000 in Illinois

CHICAGO (UP)—Thirteen persons accused of stealing and cashing hundreds of checks worth a total of more than $100,000 have been seized by postal inspectors and Chicago police.

Three letter carriers were among those arrested, postal inspector Raymond J. Dunne said. He said between 500 and 1,000 city, state, federal and commercial checks were taken by the carriers who gave the checks to others to be cashed.

Dunne said investigation of the thefts began in August and the first arrests were made several days ago.

James P. Piragine, described the 13 as members of the largest ring involved in mail thefts "ever apprehended in this district as far as the amount of money is concerned." Eighteen northern Illinois counties are included in the district.

Charges of embezzling checks from the mail were brought against the three letter carriers. Others are charged with possessing and passing checks and of receiving stolen checks. All those arrested are Negroes.

Dunne said the group destroyed all stolen old age assistance checks because their ages would not coincide with those of persons who normally would cash them.

HARTFORD, Conn. (UP)—The Connecticut Development Commission has come up with the slogan: "What is good for Detroit is good for Connecticut." The reason is that dozens of products used in Detroit made automobiles and trucks are manufactured in Connecticut.

Ex-Fireman Arrested in Setting of 2 Blazes

UPPER MARLBORO, Md. (AP)—Edward Wink, 31-year-old former volunteer fireman for the District Heights Fire Department, has been held in $2,000 bond on charges of setting two fires.

Detective Sgt. Ralph E. Bond of Prince George's County said Wink started the fires Sept. 30, then answered the alarms with the Fire Department.

Divorce High, Also Costly, in Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Divorce in Hollywood has been much in the news since the John Wayne trial, which is slated to resume today.

The upholders of the film town's virtue often claim that the divorce rate here is lower than the national average. That may be true when you consider all film workers. But the average among stars is something else.

There have been many long-term marriages, such as those of Bob Hope, Pat O'Brien, Irene Dunne, Robert Young, Fred Astaire and Abbott and Costello.

But these are offset by stars who have married four times, including Clark Gable, Rita Hayworth, Lana Turner, Humphrey Bogart, Bette Davis, Myrna Loy, Mickey Rooney, Ginger Rogers and even Bill (Hopalong) Boyd.

Among those who have wed three times are Ida Lupino, Judy Garland, Joan Fontaine, Errol Flynn, Greer Garson, Ava Gardner, Victor Mature, Janet Leigh, etc.

I had a chat about divorce and related matters with Mickey Rooney, an expert on such things. Last week the much — but now happily-married actor got a break from the courts.

A judge decided that even though Mickey is $16,253 behind in alimony to his third wife, Martha Vickers, he is doing his best by paying $250 a week.

Many California males feel that the state's laws favor women overwhelmingly, and Mickey agreed with this view. "But I think the courts are changing a little," he added. "The John Wayne trial seemed to be the start of that change."

Despite the recent judicial leniency, Mickey is still paying through the nose for his past marriages. He said he dished out a $100,000 settlement to his second wife, Betty Jane Rase, and remits $1,600 a month for her and their two sons. Miss Vickers gets $1,750 a month for herself and one son (inflation must have set in between the two divorces).

The first Mrs. Rooney, Ava Gardner, got no alimony — "I gave her a cash settlement; I don't recall how much, but it was a lot of money."

Mickey estimated that he has earned six or seven million dollars while working 30 of his 33 years. What has he got to show for it?

"About a quarter-million dollars," he replied. "Luckily my mother put that away in trust funds that can't be touched."

He isn't bitter about the drains that divorces have cost his fortune. "Nobody told me to get married," he philosophized. "It was all my own doing. But I've certainly paid for my mistakes.

"It's a funny thing about being married in Hollywood. In other places, you have a spat with your wife and you make up. But here you have a spat and immediately the girl wants to get a divorce.

"I can't understand it, unless maybe the girl had some ulterior motive in getting married. It makes you wonder."

I asked him if the alimony obligations force him to work harder than he ordinarily would.

"No. I've always worked hard. It's my life."

But supposing he got sick and couldn't work?

"Then the girls don't get paid. It's as simple as that."

Fortunately for his former wives, the wiry Mick is the healthy type. Although his present picture, "Little Giant," is his first in 10 months, he keeps busy in other fields.

He plays night clubs and theaters and is lining up his own TV show. He signed a deal to make pictures at Republic for his own company and even plans to direct one in Venezuela next year.

LET IT POUR—There will be few complaints about the weather from happy Kim Kimber, for the umbrella that protects her smiling face from the rain is made of mink. The luxious umbrella was designed by Rosin and Starr in Chicago, Ill.

Medley Pleads Guilty

Richard Medley, 396 Highland Ave., pleaded guilty yesterday befor Circuit Judge Russel Holland to a charge of receiving stolen property. He was returned to Oakland County Jail until sentencing Dec. 6.

'TV Hurts School Work More Than Eyesight'

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — After eight years of television, Dr. Merrill J. Reeh, expert on eye diseases from Portland, Ore., says "the consensus seems to be it does no actual damage to (children's) eyes."

The major damage, said Reeh, speaking last night at the Oklahoma Clinical Soceity conference, is to junior's school work.

GREAT PLACE TO MAKE A MOVIE!

MOGAMBO proves it. This picture outdoes "King Solomon's Mines". It's got a better story for one thing and it's more exciting in its natural shots. The wild gorilla—a most elusive beast when he's not in a zoo—has actually been photographed for the first time. But scenery and animals are only important as they embellish a good story. This MOGAMBO is a darned good story. Clark Gable and Ava Gardner and a cute blonde named Grace Kelly are the principal fireworks. You've never seen anything until you've seen these fireworks in the jungle... in Technicolor!

Wreck Ruins Campaign

MEMPHIS (AP) — Horace Pegues, ticketed for running a red light, told officers he was looking at a wrecked car, didn't notice the light. The wrecked car was featured in a civic club display. Purpose: Encourage safe driving.

Hal Boyle Says:

Rehearsal Room Is Dingy but Sparkles With Talent

Want to see one Well, let's go:

You clump up three flights of stairs in an old side street building — the elevator works only during every other leap year — and walk into a dingy rehearsal room.

Its walls are rusty red, its windows dusty. In show business they don't put on the tinsel until the curtain goes up.

Little waves of sound ripple and break in chaos as a dozen actors run through their lines like magpies. Most are dressed as casually as if they were a bunch of high school kids at the beach.

See anyone you know? Oh, yes, those three glamorous looking girls — the Gabor sisters, Magda, Zsa Zsa and Eva.

And that bouncing pigeon-chested, rubber-faced gal in the gray sweat shirt, blue jeans and red slippers — Martha Raye. She was seriously ill a year ago. Today she's back in the $18,000 a show bracket.

That fellow who looks like a piano mover, the one with the hair and the broken nose — could it be Rocky Graziano, the celebrated actor and ex-middleweight champ? It is.

They are all here for the opening rehearsal of next Saturday's TV "All Star Revue." They are relaxed as rubber bands now. The tension and tears will come later in the week.

"She puts out as much in rehearsals as she does on the show itself," says the man, "and when the show is over she always throws a big party for everybody in the cast. Everybody — not just the big shots."

Nick Condos, her manager and ex-husband, holds up a roll of $20 bills. Martha bounces over yelling, "Gimme, gimme!"

"It's not for you," says Nick, "holding up dough is the only way I can catch your eye. Say 'Hello' to these people."

"Hello," says Martha, makes a futile grab for the roll of bills, wrinkles her face and skips away.

In sweeps a stylish woman of well-preserved charm. This is Mama Gabor herself. Her three daughters rush over. Clinch. Clinch. Clinch. The four erupt in Gaborese — a mixture of English, Hungarian, French and German intelligible only to themselves.

Someone else is playing the role of Mama Gabor in the show, but in five minutes Mama is trying to take over. She tells the director that if the actress is going to really look like her she should wear a monocle. The director is polite — but unconvinced.

Rocky Graziano wanders over. Mama Gabor, who wouldn't know him from Jack Dempsey, beckons imperiously and says:

Graziano looks stupefied, then snaps his fingers at a fellow holding the designs.

"Thank you, Mr. Capone," says Mama Gabor sweetly.

"She shouldn't call me that — I jump whenever I even hear that name," grumbled Rocky. "Anyway, I ask you — do I look like a dress designer"

Rocky confides he finds acting easier than boxing, but that he still prefers fighting, "on account I was born a fighter. It took me a half hour to learn how to act.

"I and Jake LaMotta did a little boxing the last time we played with Martha," he says, grinning, "and guess what? Two Broadway creeps tried to get me to throw the show."

Rocky says he has just sold an apartment house and wants to move to Miami.

"Anybody who don't like Miami is broke," he observes cheerfully. He eyes the bounding figure of Miss Raye and adds admirmigly:

But as we leave, Martha sits on the edge of a chair for a moment. She glances at the three beautiful Gabor sisters chattering with their mother, and over her face there steals that wistful look that clowns and kings wear when they see something that they themselves may never be.

Hot Dog Finds Rival in Italian Pizza

ASBURY PARK, N. J. (AP) — The hot dog has a new rival for the affection of boardwalk guormets.

Pizza, the tomato pie imported from Italy, is making cash registers jingle all along the fabled Jersey shore.

They are the exclusive fare at scores of boardwalk stands and pizzeria proprietors predict an even bigger boom.

Frank Brown, an authority on the subject, credits tastiness and economy with making the pie the big seller it is.

He says teenagers started the boom. Short on cash, they found that a divided pizza went a long way toward filling an empty stomach.

All Mixed Up

LIVERPOOL (INS) — A British geographer contends that theories of racial superiority are scientifically unsound because no race can claim it is "pure." Prof. R. H. Kinvig, of Birmingham University, says all races are mixed and that it is quite "absurd to speak of an English race, or an American, or a German or a Hungarian race."

Debunk Legend of Aged Turtles

Marine Workers Say Huge Sea Creatures Aren't Ancient

MARINELAND, Fla. (UP) — Workers at the Marine Studios here are throwing cold salt water on the popular belief that big sea turtles live for hundreds of years.

F. G. Wood Jr., one of the employes, said that actually no one knows just how long the huge turtles live, but it's probably no longer than the average human life span. He added, however, that some giant land tortoises have apparently reached at least 150.

Wood explained that large size is often associated with long life, but a green turtle at the studios has reached a length of almost 4 feet in 10 years, and a loggerhead turtle weighed 80 pounds in only 4½ years.

The venerable ages ascribed to whales also are probably incorrect, Wood said. They probably attain no more than 50 years.

Workers at the studios are keeping a close check on seven members of the porpoise colony born in captivity to find their average life span.

The oldest is now 6½ years old, and, although she is not yet fully grown, she is expected to give birth to a calf next spring.

Pete, a Florida brown pelican, may be around the studios for some time yet. Pelicans have been known to reach 51.

Among the other long-living marine life are the common North American eels which may pass the half-century mark.

However, the Methuselah of the sea world may be the lowly sea anemone. Members of this group are reported to have lived in captivity for 66, 70 and even more than 100 years.

Fast Information

LONDON (INS) — To assure prompt answers to inquiries, a special telephone apparatus which gives instant access to 20 clerks has been installed at stations of British railways doing away with long lines of questioners.

Defensive Stars Still Shine

By JACK SAYLOR

Boys who recover fumbles and intercept passes continue to share the spotlight with the offensive backs on the list of weekly prep football stars, cited as standouts by their coaches, opposing coaches and other observers.

Homecoming often serves as an incentive for outstanding performance. Jerry LeBarre of Rochester and Ed Leach of Lake Orion starred as their teams won victories on the occasion of homecoming.

LeBarre sparked the Falcons both on offense and defense in their 19-0 win over Lapeer. Leach scored two touchdowns, one on a 65-yard run, as Orion downed South Lake, 15-0.

Other offensive aces were Jerry Winterhalter and Don Colegrove of Milford, which topped Brighton, 20-6. Winterhalter scored one touchdown and passed for two others. Colegrove led the ground attack, scored a TD on a pass reception and ran one extra point.

End Jim Watts grabbed two fumbles for Milford, while Fred Baker also played well, defensively.

Tops in fumble recoveries for the week was Troy's Dave Anderson. The senior guard jumped on four Madison bobbles, one of which he ran 35 yards for a touchdown. Ray Podulka went 55 yards to score on an intercepted pass, and Norm Norton tallied twice, including a 80-yard return of the opening kickoff.

Guard Ralph Wells, a bulwark in the Holly line all season long, stood out despite his team's 13-0 loss to Clarenceville. End Dick Tims, a fine two-way performer for Waterford, scooped up a fumble and ran 25 yards for one of the Skippers' scores against Berkley.

Jerry Kruskie, Dick Clautier and Chuck Schuster also excelled on defense for Waterford. Kruskie's hard tackle set up Tim's touchdown run; Clautier blocked a punt; and Schuster tackled a Berkley runner in the end zone for a safety.

Kerry Keating and Ray Campbell shared offensive laurels. Each scored two touchdowns and averaged over seven yards a carry. Keating accounted for 150 yards, bringing his season total to 748.

Marv Evans and John Engstrom of Avondale each tallied twice against Clawson, and Toby Aldrich ran well from his left half position. Joe Schwerin, playing his first game as an end, starred defensively.

Romeo's Bernie Carter, hampered much of the season by injuries, sparked the Bulldogs' 6-0 win over Oxford and got the game's lone touchdown. Marvil Smith played well for Oxford, while Larry Spencer turned in another fine defensive job.

Kline Is Fifth in Nation in Total Offense

UD Passer From Pontiac Leads Missouri Valley in Aerial Game

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Quarterback Dave Kline, who had to wait until his senior year to side step an understudy role at the University of Detroit, finally has taken over the lead in every phase of passing offense this week in Missouri Valley Conference football.

Kline completed 9 of 22 passes for 132 yards in 1952.

This week he has blossomed as the best in the business in Valley statistics, and is ranked fifth in the nation in total offense with a 749-yard net in 136 plays.

The Pontiac, Mich., Titan has hit 38 of 88 tosses for 612 yards and five touchdowns, both tops in the Valley. His .420 completion record also is No. 1.

Halfback Lee Riley of Detroit remains the No. 1 Valley pass receiver, hauling in 15 for 306 yards. Halfback Bob Burgmeier of Detroit is the scoring leader with 36 points on six touchdowns.

Detroit is the total offense leader, averaging 301.3 yards in six games.

Tech Aims for Clemson

ATLANTA (AP)—The Georgia Tech football squad is looking ahead to a big game with the Clemson Tigers here Nov. 7. It will be homecoming weekend for the Yellow Jackets. It also will be Tech Coach Bobby Dodd's first chance to get even with Clemson Coach Frank Howard since the Tigers upset Tech, 21-7, in 1945. That was Dodd's first year as coach of the Engineers.

At the start of the 1953 college football season the University of Texas had played 535 football games, winning 375, losing 137 and tying 23.

Spartans Return to Fundamentals

Biggie Chides Players for 'Chest Tackles' in Purdue Upset

By ROBERT E. VOGES

After the 6-0 loss to Purdue, Munn was digging the needle in deep as he chided the squad for poor blocking and tackling in the upset.

Due to a downpour of rain, most of yesterday's workout was held indoors in Jenison Fieldhouse. The squad got a brief wetting, however, when Munn trotted them outdoors for a signal drill.

"Does anyone know what shoulder pads are for?" he asked. "Not to make you look bigger," he told them. "You fellows have been tackling with your chests. If you were supposed to do that, you'd have pads on your chests."

Runs Best Minus Shoes

MIAMI (AP) — The veteran race horse Brush Burn does his best running on grass—without shoes. The barefooted horse has scored three important wins on grass this year. Two were at Hialeah. The third was Washington Park's $50,000 Meadowland.

Sellout Tilts Might Upset TV Control

Policy of Substituting Local Games Unlimited, NCAA Admits

CHICAGO (UP) — Actual sales of tickets to college football games could become the pressure point which might upset the National Collegiate Athletic Association's current control of grid television.

It was conceded today by NCAA officials that the national policy of substituting sell-out college games on local television for the national "game of the week" has no limit.

Thus, if on some Saturday in the future, enough tickets are sold to produce sell-outs of numerous standout spectacles, there could be as many as 20 or more exceptions to the nationally selected "game of the week."

Such a result could make the restrictive NCAA policy of the "game of the week" meaningless.

City Planning Officials' Clinic

First Session for Cage Referees Set Monday at PHS

City Basketball League games will soon be under way and as in the past, the Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation will conduct a basketball official's clinic.

Clinic sessions will begin at 7 p. m., Monday, Nov. 2 at Pontiac High School, Room 117 and there will be five sessions in all — Nov. 2, 9, 16, 23 and 30.

Discussions will cover basic fundamentals of officiating basketball games, rules and regulations, and rule changes.

Persons who anticipate officiating basketball games for the Parks and Recreation Department during this season should plan now to attend this Clinic.

Clinic is open to those persons who have officiated in previous years and also to any new prospective officials.

For more information, call John A. Streit, parks and recreation department FE 3-7131.

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—Television, the big black bear of sport that walks like a regiment, is finally being subdued. Not entirely, nor by everybody. But at least it has been cornered by boxing and by pro football.

• • •

Television has about wrecked the minor leagues, the Coast leagues, and it has cut in heavily on the major leagues. It has been cutting attendance figures about 250,000 a season for the last five years.

When we met Bert Bell, president of the pro circuit, a day or two ago, he was highly satisfied with the present arrangement. This arrangement was to use television away from the home park. Make the home fan pay admission if he wants to see a game.

• • •

"This is a good arrangement for us," he said. "It is working out perfectly. For pro football, baseball nor any sport can beat the system of a look for nothing. You can't use a charge show to beat a free show."

If there had been New York television at the Bobo Olson-Randy Turpin fight last week in the Garden, there wouldn't have been 10,000 present. There were over 18,000 on hand.

Pro football games, without home television, have been drawing well. Los Angeles and Detroit have averaged above 50,000 a game. There will be games over 80,000 this season.

• • •

The TV program of college football hasn't been too hot so far. But there will be a big improvement later on when Michigan State and Michigan meet on Nov. 14, UCLA-Southern Cal on Nov. 21; Army-Navy, Nov. 28 and Notre Dame-Southern Methodist on Dec. 5.

• • •

The pregame chatter of Red Grange and Bud Palmer has been a strong weekly feature and has helped a lot.

TV and daily big-league baseball are still in the debating stage. Baseball has been growing in television attendance, but slipping when it comes to people paying at the gate.

TV Grid Fans to Watch Paul Giel in Action

Panthers' Line Good, but Dawson Lacks Ace to Lead Attack

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Devotees of hack-and-hammer football will get a full serving Saturday when Pittsburgh runs into Minnesota and Paul Giel in the week's nationally televised game.

• • •

The old-time power stuff with which the two teams bruised opponents back in the 1930s comes wrapped in a new bundle but the slam-bang pattern is still pretty much the same.

Minnesota, running from a variety of formations, grinds off the tackles with mass blocking and unbalances its line to get maximum push on short yardage plays.

The Gophers' main departure from the old power system is linked directly to the assorted football gifts of All America Giel.

Giel is hitting on over 50 per cent of his passes, and when they try to toughen the pass defense, Giel cuts lose with a stop-and-go open-field style which has frustrated tacklers for three years.

Pittsburgh, without a backfield ace like Giel to trigger its attack, has relied on straight-ahead power for most of its yardage. Fullback Bobby Epps, who carries 195 pounds on a 5-foot-8 frame, has produced most of the punch.

Pitt has lacked a first-rate passing quarterback to give its T attack versatility.

Pitt's big failure is an inability to string together four quarters of solid football, something which proved just as costly to Minnesota before the Michigan game.

Both teams have lost three times, Minnesota to Southern California, Illinois and Michigan State, and Pittsburgh to West Virginia, Notre Dame and Northwestern. Pittsburgh holds a lone victory over Nebraska and a tie with Oklahoma. Minnesota has beaten Northwestern and Michigan.

Orion Sports Club Plans First Session

The re-organized Lake Orion Rod, Gun and Archery Club will hold its first meeting of the year Thursday at 730 p.m. at the Old Park Island bath house, which has been rennovated into a clubhouse.

Club, headed by Fred Caldwell, has an indoor eight-target archery range and a rifle range, along with an outdoor rifle range on Newman Road. Two Natioal Rifle Association certified instructors will be available each Sunday at the range, which is open to the public.

Wilson Says MSC Stature Improved Through Defeat

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State may receive some profit from its 6-0 football loss to Purdue, according to Western Conference commissioner Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson.

Wilson, visiting Michigan State to speak before the Faculty Club, said he thought football coach Biggie Munn "has grown as much in stature by losing as he did in winning."

"At least the other schools will realize Michigan State is human after all," said Wilson, referring to the snapping of the 28-game win streak.

"I'm glad none of our Big Ten schools are playing Michigan State next Saturday," he added.

Wilson said lifting of the Big Ten athletic probation placed on Michigan State would be on the agenda of the conference meeting at Chicago Dec. 9-12.

"I can't comment on what might happen," he said.

The Big Ten commissioner said he "was encouraged by the Michigan State attitude in its attempt to be a real member of the conference."

He was asked if Michigan State might be discriminated against in the Rose Bowl selectiotn if it tied in the conference standings with another school — Illinois, for instance.

"Faculty representatives try to choose th ebest team for the Rose Bowl," he said, "we've always tried to be fair. Schedules and standings and everything else would be taken into consideration."

Jockey Breaks 50-Year-Old Victory Record

Shoemaker rode three winners a 4th straight day at Golden Gate Fields. That ran his world record for one year to 410 and for two successive years to 725. And he's got two months to keep increasing them.

Miller in 1906 set a one-year record of 388. Shoemaker and Joe Culmone tied it in 1950. Tony Despirito upped it to 390 last year.

Then along came Wee Willie.

Lions Do 'About-Face'

DETROIT (AP)—Jim Doran and Dorne Dibble, Detroit Lion ends, performed a complete "about face" when they entered the pro grid ranks. Dibble was a defensive end at Michigan State but now is on offense for the Lions. Doran set an NCAA offensive record at Iowa State but now excels on defense.

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Roy Campanella's All-Stars defeated the Negro American League All-Stars 5-0 last night. Larry Doby hit a three-run homer in the fifth inning.

Gopher Edges Bratkowski

No Surprise to UM---Paul Giel Named 'Back of Week' by Associated Press

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK (AP)—Because he has learned to play defense as well as offense, and because he was the key man in one of last Saturday's major upsets, Minnesota's Paul Giel was chosen today as the Associated Press back of the week.

• • •

It was a close contest in the ballots between Giel and Zeke Bratkowski of Georgia, but the Minnesota player got the call for his all-around performance, which included a Big Ten record for ball-handling.

Bratkowski's passing, according to observers was "uncanny" and Sports Editor Furman Bisher of the Atlanta Constitution commented: "He means more to his team than any individual in the country." But "The Brat" was performing against North Carolina, a team with an ordinary record this season, while Giel was the big man in Minnesota's 22-0 decision over nationally ranked Michigan.

• • •

Giel had "the greatest day of any athlete in the school's history," said Charles Johnson, veteran Minneapolis Star and Tribune football writer.

The Minnesota Meteor handled the ball 53 times to set a conference record; he hit 11 passes before missing one and completed 13 of 18 for 169 yards during the game. He rushed for 112 yards, returned kicks for 83, punted and completely befuddled the Michigan defense with his faking.

In addition, Giel, strictly an offensive player up to this season, turned in a superb defensive performance, which included two leaping interceptions of passes.

Parker Denies Lions Invoke 'Dirty' Playing

Detroit Coach Blasts Coast Players Making Charges

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Detroit Lion football coach Buddy Parker has blasted back at the Los Angeles Ram and San Francisco 49er charges that his team played dirty football.

"Ever since I came to the coast to play the 49ers at San Francisco last week I have been hearing charges that the Lions play dirty football," he said Tuesday night.

"The charge is leveled specifically against defensive halfback Jim David who has been accused of playing dirty against Y. A. Tittle of the 49ers and Tom Fears of the Rams," Parker said. "I want to say this has gotten so bad that it's ruining David. It has affected his game . . . the Lions do NOT play dirty football."

Rams were installed today as 6-point favorites over the Lions for their NFL game Sunday, that could determine the Western Division title.

Mikan, Lakers on the Skids

At Least That's What NBA Opponents Hoping for in New Season

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) —National Basketball Association coaches guessed hopefully today that George Mikan's advancing age would make ordinary mortals of the Minneapolis Lakers.

The pro masterminds said as much in the annual pre-season poll conducted by the Minneapolis Star. They figure that Mikan, now 29, will fade just enough to loosen the iron fist which the Lakers have clamped on the NBA title.

Lakers and Boston were picked to win Western and Eastern division titles, but the coaches split evenly between Minneapolis and Fort Wayne for the western playoff title.

None of the coaches, remembering Mikan-engineered Laker titles in five out of six years, were ready to push the 6-1 center into discard. But Fuzzy Levane of Milwaukee had a typical comment: "Mikan is being replaced as 'Mr. Basketball' by Bob Cousy of Boston. But, he added, "Minneapolis is still the best club in basketball."

Most of the coaches felt Mikan will slip off to about 90 per cent of his last year's scoring output, when he averaged a healthy 20.6 points per game.

Coaches see Boston, New York, Syracuse, Philadelphia and Baltimore finishing in that order in the east, and in the west, Minneapolis, Fort Wayne, Rochester and Milwaukee.

Shindorf Grabs Lead in Grid Scoring 'Race'

St. Mike Back Has 60 Points; Keating, Evans Near Top

By JACK SAYLOR

Russ Shindorf, Pontiac St. Michael's quarterback, took over the individual scoring lead among Oakland County prep gridders this week over Joe Ruhlman, whose St. James team was idle.

SHINDORF

Shindorf, six-foot, 185-pound senior, tallied two touchdowns against St. Benedict to bring his season total to 10 for 60 points. Ruhlman retained second place with 49 points.

Waterford's Kerry Keating jumped into third place with two touchdowns against Berkley. His total is 45 on seven touchdowns and three extra points.

Others who advanced this week were Lake Orion's Ed Leach, with two touchdowns, and Paul Dellaire of Rochester and Royal Oak's Dick Nash, with single markers.

The leaders:

	TD	PAT	T'TL.
Russ Shindorf, St. Mikes	10	0	60
Joe Ruhlman, St. James	8	1	49
Kerry Keating, Waterford	7	3	45
Marv Evans, Avondale	7	2	44
Paul Dellaire, Rochester	7	0	42
Dick Nash, Royal Oak	6	0	36
Steve Zervas, Hazel Park	5	7	37
Ray Campbell, Waterford	6	0	36
Fred Burnard, Troy	5	2	*35
Ed Leach, Lake Orion	5	0	30
Jerry O'Shaughnessy, Keego	5	0	30
Dick Smith, Holly	5	0	30

* Also kicked field goal.

Graham Is Still Passing Master in Pro League

Has Completed 71 of 131 Tosses for 1,191 Yards, 5 TD's

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Even rain couldn't cut down the efficiency of the old pass-master Otto Graham. The Cleveland Browns star quarterback threw only five passes in last Sunday's rainy game with the New York Giants but completed two to increase his passing average to 10.5, best in the National Football League.

An old foe, Norman Van Brocklin of the Los Angeles Rams moved from 4th to 2nd place to challenge Graham. Van Brocklin has thrown the greatest number of passes, 137, completed 72 for 1,270 yards and nine TDs. His completion average is 8.79 and yardage norm, 9.27.

Graham has attempted 113, completed 71 for 1,191 yards and five touchdowns. He has completed 62.8 of his tosses and had only three interceptions.

Bobby Layne of Detroit ranks 3rd among the passers with an average of 8.79, followed by Bobby Thomason of Philadelphia with 8.58 and Jack Scarbath of Washington, 7.81.

On the ground, Joe (Jet) Perry of San Francisco continues to show the way with 487 yards and a 5.6 average on each of his 87 carries. He's 116 yards ahead of Fran Rogel of Pittsburgh who picked up 168 yards last Saturday night against Green Bay. Dan Towler, defending ground gaining champ from Los Angeles, moved from 5th to 3rd with 317 yards followed by Charlie Justice of Washington (313) and Frank Ziegler of Philadelphia (230).

Other leaders are Don Stonesifer of the Chicago Cards in pass receiving with 30 caught for 380 yards; Ben Agajanian of Los Angeles, Lou Groza of Cleveland and Doak Walker of Detroit, all tied for scoring honors with 36 points each; Pat Brady of Pittsburgh in punting with a 49.6 average, Woodley Lewis of Los Angeles in punt returns on a 14.2 average, Lynn Chandnois in kicking returns with a 38.7 norm, and Tom Keane of Baltimore in pass interceptions with six for 57 yards.

Chiefs Seek to End Three-Game Losing Streak

Penn Will Test 'M' Resiliency

Wolverine Fans Hope Team Can Bounce Back From Minnesota Loss

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Gridiron history indicates it's a toss-up whether Michigan will rebound from the jolting defeat by Minnesota.

Since Bennie Oosterbaan assumed the head coaching duties here in 1948, his teams have bounced from defeat four times. On an equal number of occasions Oosterbaan had to absorb further defeat before winning again.

That's the picture as Michigan prepared for Saturday's clash with upset-minded Pennsylvania. Partisans were hoping the Wolevrines will follow the pattern of the 1950 season when Michigan followed losses with decisive victories on three occasions.

However, Michigan couldn't find such resiliency in 1949, 1951 and 1952. Wolverines dropped successive contests to Army and Northwestern in 1949 and to Michigan State and Stanford in 1952.

And every indication points to the fact that Penn will be no easy touch.

One hopeful note brightened the preparation schedule. Tackle Art Walker was reported ready for limited action at least against Penn.

'You'll Have to Ask George'

Even IBC's Lure of $350,000 Unlikely to Draw Sugar Ray Back Into Ring Wars

NEW YORK (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson, who came out of Harlem a skinny kid to become one of the greatest ring fighters of them all, has been a big-timer for all of his career, and he will not change now that he is playing the medium night clubs as a song-and-dance man.

UNEXPECTED HELP—Pontiac High football coach Ed Graybiel got some unexpected help this fall when senior Kirk Hobolth (above) came out for football for the 1st time. The 5-foot 9-inch punter has averaged 29.1 yards in 29 kicks, but the real value in his booting has been his accuracy. Hobolth's pin-point placing has permitted opponents to run back only 10 punts all season. Five kicks were placed out-of-bounds inside the foes' 10-yard stripe. Running from both quarterback and halfback positions, Hobolth has averaged four yards in 22 rushing plays.

* * *

When the Sugar Boy announces he has been urged to come out of retirement and challenge Bobo Olson for the middleweight title which he renounced only last year, the lure dangled before him is not any ordinary sum. It is a cool $350,000, a round figure worthy of the Robinson imagination.

There wasn't a doubt in our mind that the powerful International Boxing Club had, indeed, caught Robinson backstage and begged him for the sake of $350,000 and the present 48 states to attempt a comeback — until we stumbled over the concluding paragraph.

* * *

"Of course," Robinson was quoted as having said, "the final decision will have to be made by my manager, George Gainford."

* * *

That sounded a gong back somewhere in the inner recesses. Since when was Sugar Ray Robinson depending on "the Emperor," as Gainford is affectionately known, or anyone else to make his decisions for him? It spoiled the whole story then and there, even before officials of the IBC professed their bewilderment.

But the men on the fight beat knew almost from the first that not Gainford nor anyone else ever was to tell the gifted young pugilist what he was to do, either inside or outside the ring.

Always Sugar would grin and say, "You'll have to ask George about that," when reporters got him cornered, but the joke was shared. Nobody took him seriously, even though George sometime would be asked as a matter of courtesy within the trade.

Pontac High's football team will seek to end its 3-game losing streak Friday night, when the Chiefs go to Royal Oak for their final non-conference game of the season.

Saginaw Valley League interest Friday will be focused on Flint's Atwood Stadium, where once-beaten Flint Northern entertains undefeated Bay City Central in a clash that might well decide the SVC title.

Flint Central is at Arthur Hill in another Valley contest, while Saginaw is host to Muskegon on Saturday night.

Royal Oak, beaten but once in five starts, is expected to provide rugged opposition for Pontiac. Acorns boast one of the area's most potent 1-2 backfield punches in fullback Dick Nash and halfback Jack Brawbaugh. Nash is the team's leading scorer with six touchdowns and six conversions.

Southern Oakland County eleven currently is tied with Monroe for 1st place in the Border Cities League.

Coach Ed Graybiel plans to make only one change in his Pontiac lineup. Jimmy Williams will take over his old post as safety man on defense, replacing Lee Quince. Graybiel moved Quince to the spot last week in an effort to add height to the PHS defense.

Game is set for 8 p.m. at the Royal Oak High School field.

New GM Outlines Job

Art Ehlers' '54 Plans Concern Oriole Fans

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "Everything I do next year will be aimed at pleasing the fans," said Art Ehlers, new head man of the Baltimore Orioles.

* * *

"I'm not going to predict a pennant for 1954," he said, "but I'll do everything in my power to put us as high in the standings as possible."

* * *

Ehlers is leaving a job as general manager of the Philadelphia Athletics to try and rebuild the old St. Louis Browns, whose franchise has been moved to Baltimore.

* * *

"I'll be commuting back and forth for a while," he said, "until I find a place to live down there for the family."

The new executive already has an outline for his job at Baltimore. He made it clear that:

1. He is willing to trade any player on the Orioles' roster.

2. He will first attempt to strengthen the Orioles' pitching staff.

* * *

3. He will not attempt a sudden rebuilding job by handing out lavish bonuses to untested high school stars.

* * *

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

Case — End Pin Pressure

Single Pins Simple — If you're in that stage when single pin spares still make you perspire, relax. You've got to learn to relax, in fact, to bowl well at all regardless of whether shooting a strike or spare ball.

And to help you relax we give you the report, which always makes pupils blink in disbelief, that a single pin, plus the width of a bowling ball on either side, as illustrated, measures half the width of an alley.

You don't get the benefit of a ball on the right of the No. 10, or the left of No. 7, with the drop-away into the gutter, but you get it on every other pin. While the end pin pressure is still on, this report should help you relax by making you realize what a big target a single pin really is.

Oklahoma Cage Coach Praises Japanese Fans

Drake Says Americans Are 'Put to Shame on Sportsmanship'

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Oklahoma Basketball Coach Bruce Drake, back home today from a Far Eastern tour, said the Japanese "put us to shame on sportsmanship."

* * *

Drake, who conducted coaching clinics for the Army in Japan and Hawaii for 30 days, said he found the sport there to be the epitome of amateurism.

* * *

Touring with two other coaches, Tipp Dye of Washington and Ray Oosting of Trinity, Drake said he found a highly competitive spirit and more sport for its own sake than is found in this country.

Game fixing scandals, such as those which rocked basketball in the United States, would be impossible in Japan, he implied.

"Before the game," he said, "the opposing teams huddle and cheer for each other, then line up in midcourt facing each other and bow politely twice. They repeat this after the game too. There is no booing."

* * *

Because the country is so sports-minded, Drake said, the U.S. Army believes the best way to improve international relations with Japan is through basketball and other games.

Laurent, Castellani Bout Ends 'International Week'

By JACK HAND

American boxers hold a 3-0 lead. Bobo Olson took care of Randy Turpin, Ernie Durando knocked out Charles Humez in Paris and Garth Panter whipped Pierre (Flu) Langlois at Madison Square Garden. Now it's up to Castellani.

Kid Gavilan and Johnny Bratton are training for their Nov. 13 title fight as though it were a New York fight. The Keed's defense is set for the Chicago Stadium but Gavilan is at Summit, N. J., and Bratton at Greenwood Lake, N. Y.

* * *

Randy Turpin seems to be getting his wish to be left alone since he lost to Bobo Olson. The British middleweight still is in a New York hotel. He plans to return to his camp in the Catskills later in the week. He'll sail for home next week.

* * *

The indoor boxing season will be rolled into a three-day package in mid-November with three championships at stake.

Jimmy Carter defends his title at Montreal Nov. 11 against Montreal's Armandy Savoie. Two days later comes the Gavilan-Bratton welter scrap at Chicago. Also on Friday, Nov. 13, at Sydney, Australia, Jimmy Carruthers risks the bantam title against Henry (Pappy) Gault of Spartanburg, S. C.

Leahy Directs Irish Practice by TV, Phone

A special microwave closed TV circuit was arranged by WSBT-TV, South Bend station, enabling Leahy to watch the Irish practice at Cartier Field, more than a mile away from his room in St. Joseph's Hospital. Leahy was stricken with a stomach ailment at halftime of Notre Dame's 27-14 victory over Georgia Tech Saturday. He is expected to be released tomorrow.

Zoo in Milwaukee Makes Animal 'Baseball' Trade

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The baseball fever which gripped Milwaukee all summer still is being felt here. The Municipal zoo made an off-season trade.

Director George Speidel traded a surplus leopard and two rhesus monkeys, plus cash, to the Chase Hill Wild Animal Farm at Egypt, Mass., for a male cheetah and four wanderoo monkeys. The cash involved was said to be $1,060.

Orange Bowl Event Draws Italian Pilots

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — Three boats from Italy will compete in the Orange Bowl International Regatta, Dec. 26-29. The three Italian pilots all from Milan, are Dr. Achille Castoldi, Ezio Selva and Mario Verga.

All races will be run on the Orange Bowl course — Biscayne Bay. Speed trials will be held over the intercoastal waterway north of Miami Beach where last year 12 world records were established.

Dressen's Contract to Run Three Years

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Chuck Dressen has that three-year contract he couldn't get from Brooklyn. He signed yesterday with Oakland of the Pacific Coast League as both manager and general manager.

He indicated his pay will be $32,500. Plus attendance bonuses, it will bring him about $40,000 a year.

Drill Team Will Appear at Michigan State Game

The appearance here is the ninth in a 12-game schedule for the 54-cadet team covering all parts of the nation. The unit lays claim to being one of the finest precision marching outfits in the country.

G.R. Wins in Overtime

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—Grand Rapids Rockets were extended into overtime last night as they downed Fort Wayne 3-2 in an International Hockey League game.

Grand Rapids goalie Doug Coxon blocked 46 shots and Bob Turner finally slammed the winning goal into the nets after 1:34 of the overtime period. A crowd of 3,483 was on hand to watch Fort Wayne play in its fourth overtime contest of the young season.

Irish, Michigan and MSC Ranked Favorites Saturday

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP)—Tricks may run ahead of treats on midwest gridirons this Halloween Saturday. Here goes a ghostly swami:

Notre Dame 21, Navy 7—the anchor still will be dragging for the Middies, who should have been blanked by Penn. Frank Leahy may, or may not be directing his lads personally, but the Irish are rolling.

Illinois 21, Purdue 14 — Illini will do it for dear old dad (it's his day). Caroline & Bates, Co., got scared enough by Syracuse to work up full steam against the giant-killing Boilermakers.

Iowa 14, Wisconsin 13—Hawkeyes have the line to handle Alan (The Horse) Ameche. Badgers will discover, as did Michigan State and Michigan, that Iowa is not the usual Iowa team.

Michigan 19, Penn 14 — Penn lacks a Paul Giel, so the Wilvernines can climb up off the floor.

Hunting Is Unimportant in Population Control

By MORT NEFF

Sportsmen throughout the nation entrust the management of their natural resources to their Conservation Departments. Too many of them expect that word "management" to mean the maintenance of fish and game populations at peak levels year after year — a responsibility far beyond the control of mere man.

NEFF

Game in particular pays little heed to the efforts of man in his attempt to stabilize populations. Strange "cycles" raise and lower the numbers of pheasants, rabbits, grouse, foxes, raccoons and other birds and mammals with surprising regularity.

It is nature's way of maintaining a balance, apparently — a balance between the species, and a balance in keeping with the food and habitat.

There are well-informed biologists who believe that a wide-open year-round season on many birds and animals would have little or no effect on their numbers. Gun pressure, they tell us, is the least important factor in the control of population.

But regardless of the theory such an action is a long way off in this state of Michigan. The psychological effect on sportsmen could be profound! With no closed seasons much of the anticipation and planning preceding "opening day" would be lost.

On the fish side of the ledger it's a little different story. We're likely to see the day — and in the not too far distant future — when many if not most of our inland lakes will be open to year-round fishing. The case at point is just about open and shut as a result of conclusive experiments — seasonal pressure has virtually no effect on the numbers of fish in a given lake.

Hunting License Supplies Short at Some Points

Oakland County, Other LP Areas Hit by Heavy Run on Permits

LANSING — A heavy run on small game hunting licenses in the southern lower peninsula has exhausted supplies of the game permits at some points, the conservation department reports.

The two areas hardest hit include the Grand Rapids-Holland section on the west side and the Genesee-Oakland-Wayne county area in the east. The department's license division serviced 33 calls for reorders the day before pheasant season opened, and then followed with 60 more opening day.

More licenses are now being printed, but these probably will not get to dealers before next week. To take up immediate slack, license officials have called in surplus licenses from the upper and northern Lower Peninsulas to fill in the emptied southern counties.

The department mailed 25 per cent more licenses to dealers this year than were sold last year in anticipation of an increased demand. They emphasize, however, that the sudden short supply of permits in some areas is no indication of a widespread increase in sales.

Pheasants Still Occupying No. 1 Spot in Popularity; Birds Now More 'Cagey'

By JACK PATTERSON

Recent break in the weather has given both upland and waterfowl hunters the shot in the arm they've need. Practically everyone you talk to these days has just returned or is just leaving for some form of field activity.

PATTERSON

Pheasant hunting still occupies the number one spot in popularity. With the first week of the season out of the way the birds have sharpened up quite a bit and are resorting to the cagey maneuvers for which they're best known.

A day or so ago we hunted over "Red" Lemeaux' fine pointers "Mike" and "Patsy" in the clover and stubble fields around Caro. The dogs found 48 birds, 45 of which were hens. The three cocks that made the error of getting within range were quickly brought to bag.

The birds sat tight in the clover, moving out just ahead of the dogs. The warm body scent tended to hold the dogs at the spot long enough for the birds to sneak away, leaving dogs baffled and hunters exasperated. After a few of these experiences, the dogs got wise and circled to cut off the escape routes.

* * *

Little, hard-working Patsy distinguished herself by tying down a bird for a good five minutes before we could get up to her and flush it. Hunters who know how difficult pheasants are to hold when they're in a running mood will appreciate that performance.

Along toward evening we picked a duck out of a high overhead flock. It scaled down into a neighboring wheatfield, and when recovered, turned out to be a nice drake mallard. It is another example of the fact that whenever we go after pheasants we wind up shooting something else.

Sunday, for example. Doing a little local pheasant searching with Jack Pflug, the bag included a partridge and a woodcock. After years of this sort of thing one learns that it saves a lot of explaining to just say he's going hunting, rather than naming the intended quarry too exactly.

* * *

One thing a hunter soon learns, but for some reason or other finds easy to forget, is that game birds seem endowed with a sort of sixth sense which tips them off to the exact moment when that hunter's guard is down.

* * *

Saw a flock of geese land in a nearby field of winter wheat the other day. Made an easy stalk to get in range. Reached a ridge beyond which geese should be. No geese. Turned back to watch some crows making a racket and to light a cigaret.

Geese got up noiselessly about 30 yards behind from a small depression that had hidden them from view. Geese began to clamor as they got under way and we stood open-mouthed with surprise while they flew out of range.

According to Bob Dawson the principal flights of migratory ducks are streaming into Wildfowl Bay. The next 10 days should see some real shooting.

* * *

Woodcock shooters will be happy to know that these birds are currently "flighting." They're beginning to show up in numbers in the north, and are putting in an appearance locally.

* * *

Coon hunters are having a field day nearby, but are getting real competition from automobiles, judging from the number of recently deceased coons noted on county roads lately.

Spaniel Field Trial Entries Close Nov. 2

Entry deadline for the English Springer Spaniel Club's 15th annual licensed field trial has been set for 8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 2. Drawing will be held at that time at 181 Lewiston, Grosse Pointe Farms.

Meet is scheduled for Nov. 7-8 at the Multi-Lakes Conservation Association grounds near Walled Lake.

Entries should be mailed to William S. Paschal, 21532 Elizabeth street, St .Clair Shores. Post entries will be accepted in the shooting Dog Stake only.

Lands Big Catfish

TUSCUMBIA, Mo. (AP)— Herman Abbett was fishing in the Osage River near here with a regular light casting rod. The hook was dressed with earthworms. A mighty tug came and Abbett tussled with his unseen game for 30 minutes. But it got mighty tiring so he tied the rod to a tree and went for help.

Fog Halts Racing at Jackson Track

JACKSON (AP)—There was no action at Jackson Raceway last night, despite a policy of sending the harness horses to the post "rain or shine." It didn't guarantee any races in event of fog—and that's what it got.

A track spokesman said "we could have run in the rain that was falling, but the fog was too bad for people to get to the foggy track."

Only seven points were scored in the Duke-North Carolina grid games in 1930, '31 and '32. The 1930 and '31 games ended in 0-0 ties. Duke won the 1932 game by 7-0.

'Nutting' Now Pays Rewards in Two Ways

Cash Prizes Awarded in Contest Sponsored by Nut Growers

LANSING — The ancient and honorable woodland sport of "nutting" may now pay fruitful rewards in more ways than one, the conservation department notes.

This being the season when woodland visitors like to gather the tasty kernels of hickories, walnuts and other tree types, it can also be the time to capture prizes in the annual cash award contest being sponsored by the Michigan Nut Growers Association.

The MNGA wants top seedling nuts of the black walnut, hardy English walnut and hickory types and is willing to pay for them. Three prizes will be awarded for each of the three types.

Entry blanks and rules of the competition may be obtained by writing Dr. James Moulton, the Horticulture Building, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

Angler Becomes Hunter

FORT FRANCIS, Ont. (AP)— George Phelps and three companions fishing in Lake Despair bagged a wolf. The animal was swimming when they sighted it and overcame it with paddles. To make the day complete, Phelps caught a 15-pound great northern pike.

Turkey Shoot Sunday

Second of three fall turkey shoots will be held Sunday at the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club range. Meet will be handled by Keith Van Kirk, assisted by rifle club committee members. Shooting will be for all types of firearms, on a handicap basis.

RIFLE PACKIN' MAMA — Benny Stowers, 2½, watches his mother win the Class D all-gauge match of the Pinehurst Gun Club's North Carolina Skeet Association Championships. Mrs. Henry B. Stowers is the wife of a Marine lieutenant who has won three divisions of the same shoot.

Buddy Rosar holds the record for highest fielding percentage by a catcher in a season. In 117 games for the 1946 Athletics, he made no errors.

Now's the Time to Visit Famed Miner Bird Refuge

It is an undisputed fact that no private home ever attracted as many visitors and guests as has and does the residence of the late Jack Miner at Kingsville, Ont. It is now rated Canada's second largest tourist attraction. Every visitor is made to feel he or she is welcome to come and see the migration of the birds at the world famous bird sanctuary in the suburbs of Kingsville.

* * *

The place is open to the public from now until the first of May, every day except Sunday. Best time for a visit is during the last week of October or the first two weeks of November. Plan to be there at 3 p. m. to see the afternoon flight and stay until dark to see the late evening flight.

* * *

The refuge is all private property and no admission fee is charged, no post cards or books are sold. In this way the ideals of the late Jack Miner are being carried out when he said, "Let us have one place where no money changes hands and let that be my home."

'Fool' Retired, Question Arises

NEW YORK (AP)—The great racing career of Tom Fool was behind him today, and now the question is whether he'll be voted the No. 1 horse of 1953 over the spectacular grey 3-year-old champion Native Dancer.

John Hay (Jock) Whitney and his sister, Mrs. Charles Shipman Payson of the Greentree Stable, announced suddenly yesterday that Tom Fool would skip the $75,000 Empire Gold Cup Saturday at Jamaica. The 4-year-old son of Menow-Gaga will be sent to the Greentree Farm at Lexington, Ky., next month to enter the stud.

Tom Fool, unbeaten in 10 races this year, will go down in the record books as one of the great horses developed in this country. The sports world had anticipated a meeting between Massa Tom and the Dancer.

But Native Dancer came up with a bruised foot and was retired for the year by Alfred Vanderbilt early in September, and Tom Fool had the field to himself.

Mountaineer 11 Also Boasts Longest Streak

Win Over VMI 11th Straight; Furman and COP Rank High

NEW YORK (AP)—The Mountaineers of West Virginia emerged from the upsets of last weekend with the country's longest major college winning streak, the top team in scoring and the total offense leadership.

* * *

West Virginia rolled up 584 yards for the season's top total in 52-20 victory over Virginia Military Institute. The victory gave Coach Art Lewis and his squad 11 straight victories, the longest defeatless string now that Michigan State and Georgia Tech have been beaten.

* * *

And it also gave the Mountaineers an average of 36.6 points and 398.2 yards per game, NCAA Service Bureau statistics showed today.

* * *

Another Saturday rout, Furman's 34-0 victory over Davidson in which the victors gained 571 yards, catapulted the Purple Hurricanes into first place in ground attack with 319.4 yards a game to West Virginia's 317.2 and into second place in total offense with 387.8.

* * *

In the air, College of Pacific held to the No. 1 position with 165.7 yards a game, Northwestern remained in second with 159.4 and George Washington third with 155.4.

COP also has the most completions, 71, and shares with Army, Kentucky and Arizona State of Tempe the distinction of having thrown eight scoring passes.

* * *

Last week's total offense and rushing leaders, Utah and Illinois, both fell to third place. And Navy, last week's scoring leader, tumbled to fourth and fell from second to 10th in total offense.

* * *

Behind West Virginia in points per game are Texas Tech with a 35.5, Cincinnati with 34.2, Navy with 31.6, Maryland with 31.3 Utah with 30.3, Boston University with 29.8, Notre Dame with 28.8 and Army and Illinois, each with 28.4.

Hoople Selects Spartans and 'M' to Win, Saturday

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE

My word! How popular I am!

If this statement stuns you just a mite, let me hasten to explain that I am not just blowing my own horn. Zillions of my readers are doing it for me.

In other words, so many complaints have been pouring in concerning the variations between Dr. Cicero Zlobotny's system and the actual scores that I have been constrained to make a change. Always remember that we Hooples have been disciples of change since the days of the Magna Carta!

I am scrapping Zlobotny. Seeking a more accurate forecast, I again take up Dr. Etienne Nussbaum under my wing. We are again applying his hypothesis of alphabetical averages.

You will remember Dr. Nussbaum's prognostications from another year. He is a "chalk man." Not too many astounding upsets, but more or less straight lines, with a few laughs—heh-heh!

For a start, here's Michigan State and Michigan to win, Saturday. MSC over Oregon State 34-0; U of M over Pennsylvania, 28-7.

Army, 28, Tulane 7; Columbia 20, Cornell 6; Yale 27, Dartmouth 13; Pitt 13, Minnesota 7; Notre Dame 21, Navy 13; Illinois 34, Purdue 14; Indiana 20, Missouri 6; Wisconsin 14, Iowa 7; Kansas 20, Nebraska 14; Oklahoma 27, Kansas State 7.

OSU 20, Northwestern 6; Georgia 19, Alabama 14; Texas A.M. 21, Arkansas 14; Baylor 27, TCU 21; Georgia Tech 20, Vandy 7; Rice 19, Kentucky 6; LSU 21, Mississippi 20; Texas 14, SMU 7; California 14, UCLA 6; USC 20, Oregon 7; Stanford 14, Wash. State 7; Penn. State 20, W. Virginia 14.

Big Reds Still State Class A Grid Leaders

DETROIT (UP) — Flint Dye displaced Stockbridge today as leader of Class C-D in the weekly United Press High school football ratings while Port Huron and Mt. Pleasant continued to lead the higher classes.

There were no changes in the next seven places. Bay City Central, Ann Arbor, Flint Northern, Grand Haven, Saginaw Arthur Hill, Detroit Catholic Central and Flint Central. Muskegon Heights and Saginaw relinquished 9th and 10th spots to Benton Harbor and Muskegon, respectively.

Ahern, McAllister Meet in Top Senior Match

PINEHURST, N. C. (UP) —T. J. Ahern of Houston, Tex., author of the biggest upset so far in the tournament, clashed with Col. C. D. McAllister of Orlando, Fla., today in a featured second-round match in the North and South Invitational Seniors Golf tournament.

Ahern stunned the experts Tuesday when he fired a birdie four on the 16th hole to upset defending champion and co-medalist Judd Brumley of Greenville, Tenn., one up.

ORIOLES' BOSS — Art Ehlers, native of Baltimore and general manager for the Philadelphia Athletics Tuesday was named general manager of the Baltimore Orioles in the American League.

Six 'A' Prep Powers Boast Perfect Football Records

DETROIT (AP) — Led by six Class A powers, there are 45 high school football teams in the state today with perfect unbeaten, untied records.

Topping the list are Ann Arbor, Bay City Central, Port Huron, and Grand Haven, each with six straight victories. Two other Class A teams — Detroit Chadsey and Detroit Pershing — have won five straight games.

These records were made available to the Associated Press by Dick Kishpaugh, Kalamazoo sports statistician.

The unbeaten, untied list dwindled considerably last weekend when 14 teams tumbled to their first loss of the season. Only Class A casualty was Detroit Redford.

Others which suffered their first setbacks were Marshall, Ecorse, St. Francis Xavier, Kingston, Bad Axe, Stockbridge, Center Line, Linden, North Muskegon, Detroit Salesian, Detroit St. Ambrose, Detroit St. Anthony and Detroit St. Theresa.

All records however, will be forgotten Friday night when Flint Northern and Bay City Central meet in what probably will be the game of the year. At any rate, it should decide the championship of the Saginaw Valley.

Central, as mentioned, has won its first six games but the Wolves were given a genuine scare before subduing Owosso 26-20 Saturday.

Flint Boxer Is Loser in West Coast Bout

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rudy Garcia, 120¼, Los Angeles, won a split decision in 10 round last night from Auburn Copeland, 125¼, Flint, Mich.

It was a close fight, Garcia showing to advantage at long range and Copeland in close. Copeland landed more punches but Garcia the harder blows. Copeland lost a point for butting in the sixth.

Referee Charlie Randolph called it 55-54 for Copeland, but two judges voted for Garcia.

Redskins 'Draft' Dudley Out of Grid Retirement

By HERB ALTSCHULL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington Redskins, who have been going nowhere but backwards of late, have turned to their old reliable, Bill Dudley, in an effort to pick up last ground in the National Football League.

Dudley thought he had quit playing football two years ago when he retired from the pro league and went to work coaching the Yale University backfield.

The die was cast, however, when Dudley agreed to take a similar job with the Redskins this season. He went on the active player list right away—but only to kick field goals and extra points.

Now he's back in the Redskins' backfield for their encounter with the Browns at Cleveland Sunday. In effect, he was drafted because the 'Skins turned up with five ailing backs.

Dudley is one of the nation's all-time backfield greats. He was a 3-year triple threat man at the University of Virginia and played sparkling pro ball with the Redskins, Pittsburgh Steelers and Detroit Lions.

Although he'll be 32 next month, Dudley has been making tackles nearly every time he has kicked off this season.

Coach Curley Lambeau expects to use Dudley on defense what with defensive backs Dick Alban, Chuck Drazenovich, Harry Gilmer and Johnny Williams all sidelined. But he hinted he may try Dudley at offensive fullback if he feels he is needed.

Frank Rickey Dies

PORTSMOUTH, O. (UP) — Funeral service will be held Thursday afternoon for Frank Rickey of nearby Lucasville. He died at the age of 65.

Rickey was a former National League baseball scout, and brother of Branch Rickey, general manager and vice president of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Clark Tallies Three TD's for Skipper JV's

Sophomore halfback Bill Clark ran for 161 yards and three touchdowns Tuesday at Berkley as Waterford High School's junior varsity football team blanked Berkley, 21-0.

Clark went 66 yards to score in the 1st period, and added markers on 11 and 58-yard junkets in the 2nd and 3rd quarters. Norman Probert added all three points on runs as Waterford won its fourth game in five starts.

Clark averaged 16.1 yards for 10 carries.

Grains Drifting to Slower Pace

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains drifted a little lower in the absence of any news to arouse buying sentiment on the Board of Trade today.

Dealings slackened from their quite active pace in previous sessions this week. The market had to absorb hedging pressure and there was no indication of any important export business overnight. Losses were small.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛ to ½ lower, December $1.95½, corn was ¼ to ⅝ lower, December $1.49⅞, oats were ⅛ to ⅜ lower, December 77⅞, soybeans were ¾ to 1¼ lower, November $2.75¼, and lard was 10 to 35 cents a hundred pounds lower, November $14.40.

Stocks Mixed, Majors Quiet

NEW YORK (AP)—The Stock Market today was narrowly mixed following two days of moderate decline.

Most changes were an eighth or a quarter of a point. Many issues held unchanged and others were slow in making their initial appearance on the tape.

Trading was quiet after the opening rush. No single major division made a pronounced move either way.

American Telephone, yesterday's second most active issue, opened today on a block of 2,300 shares unchanged at 153⅝. Mack trucks, yesterday's third most active, started today on 1,100 shares unchanged at 14½.

International Business Machines, which lost 4 points Tuesday, opened today off 11 points at 230. IBM yesterday declared a $1 quarterly cash dividend and a 2½ per cent stock dividend. The stock declaration was half the amount that has been paid since 1936. The company explained that the New York Stock Exchange objected to continued stock payments in small amounts not covered by current earnings.

Wilson to Keep GIs in Europe

Explains to Newsmen His Long-run Over-all Reduction Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon plans to reduce the over-all strength of the Army next year but there is no plan to pare down immediately American ground force strength in Europe.

Secretary of Defense Wilson and his manpower chief, Asst. Secretary John Hannah, sketched in some details at a joint news conference yesterday.

Wilson set out to explain remarks at an earlier news conference which had been viewed in some quarters, abroad as well as at home, as fore-shadowing a reduction in U.S. Army strength in Europe.

* * *

The secretary asserted that "we have no immediate plans for taking troops out of Europe." Then he quoted from a transcript of his earlier conference in support of his contention that he was talking about "long-run" plans when he associated developments of new weapons with the possibility of cutting ground forces overseas.

* * *

Official declaration of intention to maintain U.S. troop strength in Europe was immediately hailed as "reassuring" by the French deputy foreign minister, Maurice Schumann, who called on Secretary of State Dulles yesterday.

Schumann told newsmen afterward that he was "definitely satisfied" the U.S. contribution to defense forces in Europe would not be weakened and that "every responsible person in France" was reassured.

* * *

Hannah told the news conference that while the Air Force will remain at approximately present strength (960,000) the Army will end the current fiscal year next June with about 1,423,000 (present strength about 1,530,000) and afterwards would be cut somewhat below that figure.

* * *

The Navy, he said, will have a strength at the end of the fiscal year of about 742,500 and the Marine Corps 234,000.

Wilson and Hannah both insisted that the trimming away of non-combat manpower would make no reduction in battle efficiency of the Army. The present 20 divisions will continue, they said, athough it was indicated further study might be given.

Hannah expressed the opinion that, even when the combat structure of the Air Force reaches the level of 127 wings (compared with a present 106), an increase of only 10,000 men would be adequate to man that force.

Consumer Price Index Up Slightly in Month

WASHINGTON (AP)—The labor department's bureau of labor statistics announced that its consumer price index reached 115.2 in mid-September, a rise of two tenths of 1 per cent over the record August level.

The index is a composite average of retail prices paid by the American household for basic goods and services as compared with 1947-1949.

The bureau said a decline in retail food prices between August and September was not enough to offset higher prices for other types of consumer goods and services.

Thunder is heard in New Mexico 50 to 70 days out of each year, according to the "isoceraunic" maps published by the U. S. Weather Bureau.

Probing Cause in Area Death

Autopsy Report Is Due Today on Body Found in Panel Truck

A post mortem in the death of a 36-year-old Detroit man, whose body was found in a parked panel truck yesterday in a wooded area of Highland Township, is scheduled for this afternoon at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, according to the Oakland County sheriff's department.

A birth certificate found on the man identified him as William Saari, of 12234 Woodrow Wilson.

The body wes discovered by Edward Johnson, 21522 Roosevelt St., Farmington Township, and Donald R. Burgett, 1733 Pierson St., Redford Township, who became suspicious when they noticed that a panel truck parked near Pettibone road and Cooley Lake road had not been moved since Sunday.

Det. Mahlon France and Sgt. Robert Cannon of the sheriff's department, who are investigating the death, say a flexible hose was sticking through the floorboard of the truck, but that the other end was not connected to the exhaust pipe.

The truck is owned by Matt H. Miller of the Northern Automatic Heating Co., Detroit, where Saari was employed, according to Detroit police. The vehicle had been reported stolen.

Dr. Leon Cobb, deputy county coroner, will conduct the autopsy today.

Scribbled on Old, Tiny Fan

Autographs of Musicians in Exhibition for Charity

By INEZ ROBB

NEW YORK (INS) — Lives of great men all remind us that most of them left autographs of varying legibility and value to posterity.

The autographs of such legendary composers as Johannes Brahms, Charles Gounod, Pietro Mascagni, Jules Massenet, Guiseppe Verdi, Camille Saint-Saens, Petr Tchaikowski, Edward Elgar, Edvard Grieg and Anton Rubinstein dot their T's and cross their I's side by side.

Scrawled across the delicate parchment are the signatures of such legendary performers as Enrico Carouso, Leopold Auer, Hans von Bulow, Leopold Godowski, Ignace Paderewski, both Edouard Thibaud and Marcella Sembrich.

Fritz Kreisler, Artruo Toscanini, Misha Elman, Joseph Hoffman, Pablo Casals and Rudolph Ganz are among the famous musicians, still performing, who signed the fan long ago.

So long ago, in fact, that pianist Joseph Hofmann, now 76, was an "infant" prodigy of 14 when he wrote his signature near that of the majestic genius Brahms.

The fan, with its 84 autographs, is now the property of Mme. Louisa Stojowski, concert pianist and widow of Sigismond Stojowski, Polish pianist, composer, teacher and favorite pupil of Paderewski.

Originally, the fan was the property and the autographs the idea of Mme. Stojowski's mother-in-law, Countess Marie Jordan-Stojowski.

The countess was a dashing lady with great, liquid black eyes who maintained a musical salon in Paris in the Elegant Eighties and Gay Nineties when her son was studying piano in the French capital.

"I wish I knew the history of all the signatures. But I don't," Mme. Stojowski said regretfully. "I wasn't even born when most of them were inscribed on the fan.

"I do remember, however, my husband telling me how upset his mother was when Brahms insisted that the fan be left with him a few days while he studied and autographed it. By this time, the fan had many autographs and my mother-in-law thought it much too valuable to be left with a hair-brained composer!

Mrs. Stojowski has delightful memories of Paderewski, who was not only her husband's teacher, but their friend and the godfather of their second son.

(Paderewski, after hearing Mme. Stojowski, then in her teens, play in 1913, sent her to Stojowski to study, and felt himself a great matchmaker.)

"Paderewski must have signed the fan 40 years ago. But he loved his little jokes," Mme. Stojowski said, "and you will notice that after his signature is the date 'March 22, 1945, in the neighborhood of Pekin.' Paderewski died in 1944, and he autographed the fan in Paris.

The fan has been loaned by Mme. Stojowski, who has just returned from a concert tour of England, to the committee of the fan ball, which is given annually at the Plaza Hotel for the Children's Memorial Cancer Fund.

Mme. Stojowski has no idea what the fan is worth (Toscanini's signature is up-side down; Van Bulow signed himself "the decaying celebrity). But she has refused an offer for it from the Library of Congress.

Woman's Prerogative Doesn't Impress Judge

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP) — Woman's prerogative of changing her mind has been kicked out of Sacramento municipal court.

Mrs. Elma Pringle complained against her husband but then decided he had learned a lesson and wanted to drop charges.

"You swore under oath your husband struck you?" Judge McDonnell asked.

"Yes."

"And now you swear under oath he did not?"

"Yes."

"Five days for contempt," said the judge.

OK $4,350 Bid on Water Well

Lansing Firm Is Given Contract for Drilling at Walton-Telegraph Site

Pontiac City Commission last night approved a bid of $4,350 from the Layne-Northern Co. of Lansing for drilling a test water well near the Hawthorne School at Telegraph Rd., and W. Walton Blvd.

If the test indicates a sufficient supply of water, the contract calls for construction of a permanent well on the site.

City Manager Walter K. Willman called attention to an urgent need for additional wells to supplement the city's facilities before next summer brings increased demand for water.

Commissioners deferred until Nov. 5 the second reading of a proposed ordinance regulating city water supplied to air-conditioning and refrigeration units.

Willman asked for the added time to check reports that converting existing units to conform with provisions of the ordinance would be extremely costly in some cases.

The commission approved a low bid of $55,693 from W. H. Harvie Inc., of Birmingham for construction of the Paddock street bridge.

The firm will begin work five days after signing the contract. July 15, 1954, is the projected date of completion.

A communication from the Pontiac Electric Motor Works, 124 Cass Ave., was referred to the city manager and city attorney for an opinion. The firm asked for a review of a recommendation by the building inspector that its property should be rezoned from C-1 to C-2.

Accepted an engineer's estimate of $495 for sidewalk construction on the north side of Parkdale from Kennett to the northwest line of lot 87, and scheduled a public hearing for Nov. 3.

Approved a suggestion by the city manager that a request to conduct a small drop-off and pick-up laundry at 63-65 E. Howard St. be submitted to the Zoning Board of Appeals.

Scheduled a public hearing Nov. 3 on a resolution to receive a special assessment roll for sanitary sewer, pumping stations and related work on Brooklyn from Stanley to the PO&N Railroad, and on Chicago from Carlisle to the PO&N.

Rotary Club Hosts Farmers at Oxford

Church Gives Tea for Mothers of Nursery Tots

DRAYTON PLAINS — A tea for mothers of children in the nursery department of Community United Presbyterian Church was held Sunday as part of a program to promote closer relationships between church and home.

Participating in the program were the Rev. W. J. Teeuwissen Jr., John Hazlett, general superintendent of the Bible school, and Mrs. Charles Nolan Jr., department superintendent.

Feature of the tea was a duet by Margaret and Ethelene Morse.

Troy Zoning Board Member Appointed

TROY TOWNSHIP—Frank Christian yesterday was appointed to the Troy Township Zoning Board by Oakland County Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore.

Also named was J. Lawson Lockhart to succeed Roy L. Duncan who recently resigned from the board.

Motor Scooter Hits Car; Oxford Youth Injured

OXFORD — Bruce French, 15, of 68 Pontiac St., received a broken leg here yesterday when he was thrown from a motor scooter which collided with a car.

French was riding on a motor scooter driven by Jack Mosser, 15, when it struck a car driven by Ellis Tosch of Capac. The car had stopped for traffic after pulling out of a parking space, according to police.

French was reported in good condition this morning at Pontiac Geneal Hospital.

Name Director of New Hospital

O. R. Pinkerman Starts Oakland Job in Spring; Building Well Along

Owen R. Pinkerman, administrator of the Detroit Memorial Hospital, has been appointed administrator of the new Oakland Hospital, with title of director.

The appointment is effective March 1, 1954. He will serve in an advisory capacity on hospital construction and organization progress until then.

With construction of Oakland hospital ahead of schedule and the structure now rising above the second floor of the proposed five-story building, the annual meeting of the hospital corporation was held Monday, for the first time at the building site.

Transfer of official headquarters of the hospital construction site was approved. The address will be 3601 West 13 Mile Road, Royal Oak.

Meanwhile official business will continue to be transacted, for the time being, from temporary offices in the Fisher Building, Detroit.

Officers of the hospital were re-elected. They are E. A. Tomlinson, president; Franklin Fricker, first vice president; Lawrence S. King, second vice president; John E. Martz, treasurer, Frank Webb, secretary, and D. L. Tate, assistant secretary-treasurer.

The following trustees were elected: I. B. Babcock, Arthur F. Bassett, W. O. Briggs Jr., H. Lloyd Clawson, William D. Downey, Fricker, Rev. Charles Jatho, King, H. J. Klingler, Martz, Peter J. Monaghan, Tomlinson, C. T. VanDusen, Webb and William R. Yaw.

All trustees and the following members of the hospital corporation were elected overseers: Dr. E. W. Bauer, William T. Gossett, Merritt D. Hill, C. M. Houff, O. E. Hunt and Thomas E. Wilson.

Added to the building committee, under the chairmanship of Fricker, were Webb and Mark Beach, executive director of the Greater Detroit Hospital Fund.

Brownell Opposes Useless Censoring of Information

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Brownell today urged all groups concerned with freedom of information "to seek out and oppose any operation of government which causes information to be withheld unnecessarily."

"By this kind of cooperative effort, we can demonstrate to all the world the vivid contrast between our system of government, which believes in and encourages freedom of the press and all media of information, and the Communist system of tyrannical government to which the concept of freedom of information is anathema," Brownell said.

The attorney general's prepared speech was part of a freedom of information program at the 8th annual convention of the Radio-Television News Directors Assn.

Brownell detailed the background of the forthcoming presidential executive order narrowing the authority of government agencies to withhold information on grounds of security.

He said that when the order is issued, "it will be recognized as having attained the required delicate balance between the need to protect certain kinds of information and the need for keeping the citizens of democracy as fully informed as possible concerning what their government is doing."

Brownell noted that President Eisenhower had made public the text of the proposed executive order, and invited comment and criticism from all news gathering sources. Brownell said resulting conferences had been "most helpful."

He said that "as the clearing house" for newsmen's recommendations, he would offer these to the President:

1. That a large number of government agencies hitherto permitted to place security restrictions on documents be stripped of this authority.

2. That in a "second group" of government agencies only the head of the agency be allowed to classify — or keep from public release — information originating in his agency.

3. That the lowest security category for information, now known as the restricted category, be eliminated altogether. This would leave in force the designations top secret, secret and confidential.

4. That agency heads set up a "genuinely effective system for reviewing classified material" with a view to declassifying some of it.

5. That "the broad descriptions" which were contained in the old order to be given more specific definitions and that examples of the types of material to be classified be disclosed.

6. That there be a continuing "independent review of the classification operations" by the government itself and by interested parties.

It is estimated that the United States dog population grew from about 20 million to about 22½ million between 1947 and 1953.

Pontiac Driver Pleads Guilty

Woman's Car Hit Local Policeman Directing Traffic May 16

Mrs. Beatrice M. Burt, 34, of 1104 Pembroke St., pleaded guilty to a charge of felonious driving yesterday before Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland.

She was released on $500 bond after Judge Holland set Nov. 6 for sentencing.

A car driven by Mrs. Burt struck Clarence G. Smith Jr., 23, of 56 Seminole Ave., a Pontiac policeman, at 2:40 a.m. May 16 while he was directing traffic around another accident on Telegraph road, near Garland street.

Mrs. Burt told police officers at the scene of the accident that she and a passenger were on their way to a retaurant after leaving a tavern.

Compact New Tool Handy for Home

The "Shopmate" may be used as a lathe, grinder, router, bench saw and sander-polisher. It also functions as both a verticle and horizontal drill press and as a portable drill.

The unit is less than 40 inches long and weighs under 20 pounds, complete with attachments. It can be dismantled easily for storage.

IS THE "BIRD" TO SEE

CUTE AS A BUG'S EAR
Yes, this little 4 room home is just as cute as can be. It's located in a well restricted neighborhood. Here you have lake privileges on one of the county's finest lakes and you're not too far from a complete shopping center. End your search for a home of your liking, see this one today. Only $7,000 on easy terms.

YOU'LL LOOK A LONG TIME
before you find an income property that has so much to offer. Here is 100 feet of the most valuable business frontage in this county with a fine 2 family that can easily be a 3 family. A new 2 car garage is included, too. There's no doubt about it — this is the one you've been waiting for. Delay may mean disappointment. See this unusual offer today.

WONDERFUL NEIGHBORHOOD
Located on a paved street in a well established friendly neighborhood. There are 3 rooms down with a beautiful brick fireplace in the living room. Plenty of closet space in the 3 bedrooms upstairs. There's a full bath and lots of storage space in the attic. A new gas furnace will keep you warm all winter long. There are so many wonderful features about this home you just have to see it to appreciate it. Priced at $11,950. Come in and let us show you your new home.

Quarry Dangers Are Conquered

Offer Children Movies as Reward for Staying Away From Hole

CHICAGO (INS) — Free movies have been a literal lifesaver for thousands of youngsters who live near a deep quarry on Chicago's southwest side.

It came about through a father who was determined to keep his two sons—and their buddies—from playing around the dangerous hole. Although a 10-foot fence encloses the quarry, adventurous boys have a way of infiltrating most barriers.

So Tony Schillaci had an idea. Reward instead of punishment seemed the logical approach and he explains:

"I had this movie projector and I told the kids they'd have a free movie every Friday night—as long as they stayed away from the big hole."

The plan worked and after seven years Tony's weekly movie audience has swelled to hundreds. Scores of grownups, many wheeling baby buggies, also take in the free entertainment.

Tony, 41-year-old operator of an auto fender and body shop, was joined four years ago by the firm which operates the quarry. They now pay Tony to cover expenses of the films.

The supervisor of nearby White Park also stepped in. Patrick McCarthy provides Tony with space around the public playground fieldhouse to accommodate the expanding audience.

Are the youngsters still curious about the "mysteries" of the big hole?

Naturally. But a joint enterprise with the park supervisor and the quarry company takes care of that. They conduct the children on guided tours of the quarry.

'Big-Time' Operators Tiresome Travelers

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — The "small time operator who tries to act big time" is the biggest headache in air travel, says Miss Shirley McManus, of Washington, an American Airlines stewardess.

She describes a "small time" operator as a person who has traveled little and tries to make everyone think he is a globetrotter. Annoying habits are snapping fingers at stewardesses and addressing them as "Dearie."

Easiest air traveler to please? Average service man. Business men who travel regularly are an easy second.

He Shot an Arrow—and the Town Knew It

SEDALIA, Mo. (AP) — A young archer shot a green willow stick into the air, and all kinds of trouble resulted.

Radio Station KDRO was cut off the air, a third of Sedalia residents were without electricity and it took three-quarters of an hour to get things back to normal.

The willow branch lodged across the wires of a 12,000 vote feeder line. Both the stick and the wires burned as the current shorted through the green stick.

Use Found for Ragweed; Tasty Snack for Cows

The Depler brothers, who farm near here, had a 10-acre field which grew up in ragweed. As an experiment they cut it, stacked it—and it turned into silage which smelled like licorice.

Over 7,000 Miles Track Shown on New York Map

ALBANY, N. Y. (UP) — New York has more than 7,369 miles of railroad tracks, used by 36 carriers.
