Authorities Requestioning Victim of Burns

Williams Trounces Foe; Local GOP Slate Intact

Six Republicans to Seek Seats They're Holding

3 Defeat Challenges of Primary Opponents; Others Unopposed

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL Jr.

Three opposed Republican officeholders in Oakland County kept a six-man incumbent slate intact for the fall election as they knocked off opponents in yesterday's primary.

Three other members of the ticket, Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem, Sheriff Frank W. Irons, and Surveyor Ralph A. Main, were unopposed.

The Democratic election of nominees for county offices was highlighted as one candidate won his fourth nomination for sheriff, while a 1956 nominee was defeated by a first-time county office seeker.

George D. Hicks, former Pontiac police officer, won his fourth straight Democratic nomination for sheriff., David E. Utley, Pontiac attorney who was against Ziem in the general election in 1956, was defeated by James P. Lawson, Farmington Township Justice of the Peace.

The battle for the three opposed Republican offices turned out this way:

For county treasurer: Charles A. Sparks (incumbent) 11,732 to Louis G. Barry's 6,212.

For clerk-register of deeds: Dan-T. Murphy Jr. (incumbent register) 10,641 to Roy M. West's 7,379.

For drain commissioner: Daniel W. Barry (incumbent) 9,844 to Arthur C. Becker's 7,272.

They'll Seek Seat in House

Hudson to Square Off With Sen. Broomfield to Represent Oakland

Come November it will be incumbent William S. Broomfield and Leslie H. Hudson seeking Oakland County's seat in Congress.

Broomfield, former state representative and senator, yesterday easily beat out his Republican primary opponent, Thomas F. McGuire, of Oak Park, 17,132 to 2,098, to win the GOP nomination for the county's 18th District seat in the U.S. House of Representatives.

The 36-year-old Broomfield thus made it over his first 1958 political hurdle as he sought to gain his second two-year term in Washington.

Throwing up the second barrier this year against Royal Oak's Broomfield will be Pontiac hardware dealer and druggist, Leslie H. Hudson. Hudson, also 36, scored a victory over his Democratic foe for Congress, Zigmund J. Niparko, Hazel Park councilman and former mayor, by a 2-1 margin.

With all the county's 295 precincts reporting, Hudson had accumulated 12,813 votes to Niparko's 6,770. It was the second straight election in which Niparko, of 72 Chestnut St., lost out in the primary balloting.

Like his November Republican, Hudson, of 361 Gallogly Rd., "prepped" for Congress in the Michigan Legislature. The former supervisor from Pontiac and Waterford Township clerk, gave up a possible third term as Pontiac state representative in order to try and climb the political ladder to Congress.

Hart, Swainson Also Swamp Rebel Dems

See Governor's Victory as Boosting Stature for Nomination in '60

From Our News Wires

DETROIT—Gov. G. Mennen Williams won nomination to an unprecedented sixth term by an almost six-to-one margin yesterday in the most decisive Democratic primary landslide in Michigan history.

The 47-year-old governor overwhelmed Ironwood broadcaster William L. Johnson, his first primary opponent in 10 years, with a bigger vote than that for both Johnson and Paul D. Bagwell, the unopposed Republican candidate.

The vote, which marked the first time Democrats polled more than half of the state primary votes, was seen by national party leaders as enhancing Williams' stature as a 1960 presidential contender.

VICTORY LOPSIDED

Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart won a lopsided victory over Homer Martin in the Democratic primary for U. S. senator. Incumbent Charles E. Potter was unopposed.

State Sen. John B. Swainson had a decisive win over Michael Mohardt in a bid for a spot on the Nov. 4 ticket for lieutenant

Democrats Here Elect New Name

Oakland County Democrats have come up with a "new name" in their drive to win the county seat in the State Senate, but the GOP is sticking with its incumbent.

The Democrat name is Leo P. Meagher, Farmington Township real estate broker who for the next two months will try to campaign himself into the Senate.

Meagher, 50, of 29097 Utley St., is a newcomer to the Senate race. For the last two political campaigns, Fred Elias, Hazel Park restaurateur, has been the Democratic nominee.

FRECKLED-FACE CHAMPION — Eleven-year-old Judy Fay Blaylock of 677 Fairview St., Lake Orion, looks as if she is bursting with joy as well as freckles. The little sixth grader outfreckled 33 other contestants last night. She walked off with a $50 savings bond awarded to her by The Pontiac Press at the freckled-face contest held the first night of the Oakland County 4-H Club Fair.

Redheaded Girl of 11 Is Freckle Champion

By SYLVIA de STEIGER

A cute little sandy redheaded girl with twinkling blue eyes trembled up to the microphone last night to receive a $50 savings bond 'cause "she has the most freckles in Oakland County."

The freckle-face champion whose brown spots showed up more than any other of the 33 contestants, is Judy Fay Blaylock, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbern Blaylock, 677 Fairview St., Lake Orion.

Judy received the bond from The Pontiac Press, which sponsored the contest for the first time at the Oakland County 4-H Fair which opened last night.

The sixth grader at Lake Orion Junior High School whose slender body, especially her arms, legs and face, is smothered with freckles, blushed when asked what her nickname was.

"Freckles," she replied, "and I hate 'em too!" But she certainly was happy about them last night when she found out they brought her $50.

Judy thinks she has "at least 5,000 freckles" but instead of talking about her freckles, this typical tomboy would rather "play with the boys, climb trees, swing a bat, and eat green apples."

She loves music and wants to learn to play the piano.

Judy, who is the second youngest of six Blaylock children ranging from 8 to 25 years old, wants to become a singer and "make records" when she grows up. She has also thought about teaching "little kids" in school.

"I'm four aunts already and I'm only 11 years old," she proudly related when speaking of her nieces and nephews.

Cloudy 'n' Warm; Showers in Store

The weatherman predicts partly cloudy and continued warm with widely scattered afternoon or evening thundershowers today through tomorrow. Tonight's low will be about 64-68.

Tomorrow's high will reach near 86-90 with temperatures cooling late tomorrow with the low around 64. Friday will be warmer, but cooler weather is expected over the weekend. Precipitation will average one-fourth to three-fourths of an inch with showers through Friday and Saturday.

Seventy-four was the lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury rose to 90 at 2 p.m.

Ike Would Join in Mideast Talk

Says He'll Attend U.N. Special Assembly if He Finds It Necessary

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower said today that he will attend the United Nations special assembly meeting on the Middle East if he finds it necessary or desirable that he should participate.

The President told a news conference that he believed the assembly discussion should not be confined to what he called little Lebanon, but should range over a wider section of the Middle East because the causes of the troubles there are so widespread.

Eisenhower said the United States is still willing to consider an eventual summit meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and other big power leaders if proper preparations could be made toward worthwhile accomplishments.

★ ★ ★

He said the United States will start pulling its troops out of Lebanon just as soon as the United States and the government of Lebanon feel that there is no longer any danger of indirect aggression of the type that was being carried on before U.S. troops went into the area. He added that any time the legitimate government of Lebanon asks the United States to pull out, it will leave.

Kierdorf Failing; Seek Link With Blaze in Flint

Police Experts Reveal Teamster Leader Was Doused With Water

Attorney General Paul L. Adams announced this afternoon he would begin immediately questioning of teamster union officials in this area in connection with the burning of Frank Kierdorf.

By PETE LOCHBILER

"Torch victim" Frank H. Kierdorf, his narrow grasp on life failing, was requestioned by stubborn authorities at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital at noon today, perhaps for the last time.

Reports that a link was being sought between the 56-year-old Flint Teamster leader and possible union terrorization of a dry cleaning establishment, were neither confirmed or denied.

There was a possibility that Kierdorf, an ex-convict, accidently received the burns that cover 85 per cent of his body in a blaze that damaged a Flint laundry Sunday night.

The results of the interrogation, in which top county and state law enforcement officers participated, were not immediately announced.

Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem may have "an important announcement to make later today," his chief assistant, George F. Taylor, said at 1 p.m.

The Flint blaze reportedly is believed to be attempted arson. It occured at about the same time that doctors say Kierdorf received his injuries.

While authorities here declined to discuss the Flint blaze, they did indicate strong disbelief of Kierdorf's original story that gunmen turned him into a "human torch."

One important official hinted privately, however, that a "break" in the case was expected soon, and another indicated that it hinged, in part, on Flint police investigation of the Teamsters union there.

The possibility that Kierdorf may have been injured during some shady or illegal activity, instead of being the victim of a savage attack, was under consideration as Ziem met with Pontiac, State, Oakland and Genesee county police investigators this morning.

Kierdorf may have "invented" the gunmen incident in order to

Flee With Jewels

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI) — Bandits smashed a jewelry store display window, tossed a smoke bomb inside the store and escaped with jewels valued at more than $750,000.

Police said four bandits with handkerchiefs hiding the lower parts of their faces took part in yesterday's daring daylight robbery. They escaped in a waiting car.

Ex-Mayor Law's Victory Highlights Primary

McMahon Out in District 6

Incumbents Roberts and Anderson Get GOP Nod to Seek Re-Election

Highlighting the primary election battles in Oakland County's six legislative districts yesterday were former Pontiac mayor Arthur J. Law's victory in a six-way District 2 Democratic battle, and Hazel Park incumbent Rep. Walter T. McMahon's loss in the Democratic contest in District 6.

The only other incumbent Oakland County representatives seeking re-nomination — Republicans Lloyd L. Anderson and Farrell E. Roberts — won in District 1 and 3 GOP races, respectively.

As they will appear on the Nov. 4 ballots, the legislative candidates for the county's six seats in the Michigan House of Representatives are:

The tally in this Pontiac district race was: Law 1,721; Flack 929; Robert P. Scott 522; Harold A. Grant 408; L. D. McLauchlin 393; and Mitchell L. Bacow 247.

Law served three terms as mayor of Pontiac, in addition to being a city commissioner between 1942 and 1954. He lives at 27 Miami Rd. Flack was the 1955 local president of the Pontiac National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and is a metal finisher at General Motors Truck & Coach.

After falling 167 votes short two years ago for the District 6 Democratic nomination, Hitchcock spoiled McMahon's hopes for an 11th year in the House.

Hitchcock, 55, of 438 E. Jarvis St., edged out 61-year-old McMahon, 1,633 to 1,311. Hitchcock is an insurance and real estate salesman from Hazel Park. He has been on the Hazel Park School Board for seven years.

Rep. Anderson, for six years supervisor of Waterford Township, assured himself a spot on the Nov. 4 ballot when he defeated attorney Anthony Renne for the GOP nomination for District 1. The vote was 2,767 for Anderson and 545 for Renne.

Mrs. Paul (Hope) Gorman, Pontiac housewife, received 1,901 votes as the unopposed condidate for the District 2 Republican nomination. She will be pitted against Law in November.

Republican Roberts, 36-year-old Keego Harbor lawyer, tallied 3,188 in District 3, to Robert L. Mott's 1,553. This is Roberts' bid for a second term in the House.

The District 4 Republican nomination race was a hot and close one. The closest fight came in a losing cause. Only 17 votes separated runners-up Ralph S. Moore Jr. and Donald N. McPherson.

Winner in this race was Farmington Justice of the Peace Allen C. Ingle, 37, of 21934 Tulane St. Ingle received 1,327 votes, 168 votes more than Moore.

Hayward, Royal Oak city commissioner won the District 5 GOP nomination (1,992 votes) over Pontiac attorney Brakie J. Orr (834 votes).

The winner is manager of a Birmingham insurance firm. The 52-year-old former banker once was mayor of Royal Oak. He has spent 17 years on the Royal Oak Commission either as commissioner or mayor.

Mrs. Rowley, former Hazel Park newspaper editor, sides with Mrs. Gorman in being the only women who will appear on the Nov. 4 ballot.

After failing to win a Democratic county clerk nomination in 1956, Johnson, 53, of 5912 Longpoint Beach Dr., Davisburg, was successful in the nomination which will pit him against Anderson in the fall District 1 encounter.

Johnson, a Pontiac attorney who has campaigned in the past for Congress and the State Senate, pulled 1,194 votes. His nearest competitor was Robert H. Chapin, life insurance salesman, who tallied 538 votes.

The one-time Michigan assistant attorney general, George H. Heideman, a Detroit lawyer and Birmingham resident, was the loser to Cobb in the District 3 Democratic campaign.

Cobb, who will match votes with Roberts two months hence, is an expeditor for a Detroit firm. He is 35 and lives at 3875 Livernois Rd., Rochester. Cobb received 1,334 votes to Heideman's 1,098.

Clarkson, 33, a Detroit attorney and Southfield resident, sat back unopposed Tuesday and gathered 3,085. He was the Democratic nominee for the same post two years ago. He lives at 23525 Valley View Rd.

Devereaux, a Royal Oak barber, was given 400 votes more than each of his Democratic opponents for the District 5 nomination fight. He received 949. The 50-year-old winner is an official of his barber's union.

MRS. DONALD WHITE

UF Campaign Leader Named

Mrs. Donald White to Head Women's Group in Approaching Drive

The appointment of Mrs. Donald White, 6251 Balmoral Terrace, Waterford Hill, to chairman of the Women's Division of the forthcoming Pontiac Area United Fund drive was announced today by Philip J. Monaghan, campaign chairman.

Mrs. White will direct the door-to-door solicitations in the Pontiac and Waterford township residential areas. In past years this division was known as the Geographic Division. However, it has been recognized since the 1957 campaign with its name changed to Women's Division.

One of Mrs. White's first duties will be the appointment of co-chairmen for Pontiac, Waterford Township and Lake Angelus. These three chairmen will in turn appoint area chairmen to insure that the broadest possible solicitation will highlight this fall's campaign.

Mrs. White has been active in Pontiac Area United Fund work for the past five years. In 1956 she served as district captain, and last year moved up to the post of Waterford chairman.

Hoffa Warned by Monitors

Teamster Boss Told to Clean Up or Face 'Get Tough' Policy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Court-appointed monitors filed a 204-page report today bluntly warning Teamster Union President James R. Hoffa they will adopt a "get tough" attitude if he resists their cleanup demands.

The monitors submitted an inch-thick document to summarize their six months experience overseeing the nation's largest union under orders of Federal Judge F. Dickinson Letts.

Letts appointed the three-man "watchdog" panel in settlement of a legal challenge to Hoffa's election by 13 rank-and-file Teamsters from the New York area. The compromise allowed the 45-year-old Hoffa to take office but set up the monitors to see he ran a clean union.

Filed in Federal Court today the report:

—Denounced Teamster keeping of records as so slipshod the international union does not know the names and addresses of its members.

—Asserted inadequate membership lists could lead to milking of the Teamsters' 39 million dollar treasury unless new safeguards are erected.

The long-awaited document contained no sensational new evidence of wrongdoing. But it gave the reader an X-ray glimpse into operations of the 1,500,000-member truck union and the monitors' rehabilitation efforts.

The monitors adopted a report by Price Waterhouse & Co., a noted accounting firm, which found Teamsters headquarters makes no effort to check the names of members submitted by locals or their standing in the organization.

Without such a system, the firm said, "there can be no real financial control over per capita tax revenues," which form the greatest part of the Teamsters' multi-million dollar income.

4-H FAIR ROYALTY — This happy looking couple were selected last night to reign as queen and king of the 18th annual Oakland County 4-H Fair which runs through Saturday. Grace Williamson, 17, of 1121 Bielby St., Waterford Township, out smiled 15 other queen candidates and Walter Cudnohufsky, 18, of 1940 S. Lapeer Rd., Lake Orion, captured the honor from four other contestants to be the first king in the history of the fair.

Over 1,500 at Opening Night

Pick King and Queen to Reign at 4-H Fair

A Waterford Township blonde who wants to become a nurse and a Lake Orion Community High School graduate and football player will begin their second evening as king and queen of the 18th Oakland County 4-H Fair tonight at the fairgrounds.

★ ★ ★

Selected over 15 other candidates last night for her beauty, 4-H record, school, community and church work to reign as queen was Grace Williamson, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Williamson, of 1121 Bielby Rd., Waterford Township.

More than 1,500 attended the fairs opening night.

Her partner, the first king to be selected in the history of the fair, is Walter Cudnohufsky Jr., 18, of 1940 S. Lapeer Rd., Lake Orion. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cudnohufsky.

The blue-eyed, natural curly-haired blonde is a June graduate of Waterford Township High School Queen Grace, who possesses an attractive dimple on each side of her peaches and cream complexion face, plans to attend the University of Michigan this fall to study nursing.

Following that, "I want to be an airline hostess for awhile before I return to nursing," she explained.

A member of the Junior Homemakers 4-H Club in Waterford Township, of which her parents are leaders, the queen was the winner of the 1957 County Home Economics Award. In 1955-56 she won the dress review contest during achievement day and last year she was in the fair queen's court.

This week she has entered three of her sheep in the fair. Her hobbies include water skiing, sewing, and reading historical novels. She has been a member of 4-H for eight years.

ACTIVE IN SCHOOL

Active in high school, Grace was a member of the student council, secretary of the French Club, member of the Y-Teens, Girls Athletic Assn., Dramatics Club, and played a lead in the spring play.

"Walt," the masculine half of the royal couple, is a six-year member of 4-H belonging to the East Orion 4-H Club.

One of nine children of which five are in 4-H, he has been awarded a 4-H scholarship to attend Michigan State University this fall where he will study landscape architecture.

During his 4-H career, Walt has received award trips to Detroit from the Michigan Milk Producers Assn.; to Traverse City for a conservation camp; and was one of two in the state to be sent to tour New York and Boston last year because of their outstanding conservation work.

He was also the 1958 winner of the county achievement booth contest and won a trip to Camp Shaw for his conservation efforts.

PRESIDENT OF HI-Y

In high school he was president of the Hi-Y Club, secretary of the Varsity Club, had the lead in the Junior Play, attended Boys State and was a member of the varsity football squad.

Sharon Brodie of Birmingham the 1957 4-H Fair Queen, presented the traveling trophies to the royal couple.

The queen's court includes: Gloria Sanders, 17, of 1625 W. Hamlin Rd., Rochester, member of the Clinton Valley 4-H Club and Bonnie Upthegrove, 16, of 2151 Orion Rd., Lake Orion member of the East Orion 4-H Club.

Walt's court consists of Bill Middleton, 18, of 2610 Stoney Creek Rd., Lake Orion and Harold Owens, 17, of 12513 N. Holly Rd., Holly, member of the Newark Bustlers Club.

Tonight, 4-H clubs throughout the county will compete in a parade of floats beginning at 7:35 p.m. A tractor square dance will follow at 8 p.m.

BASEBALL TOMORROW

Tomorrow morning at 9 a.m., the clubs will compete in the baseball playoffs. At 1 p.m., the dairy judging will be held.

Due to the construction on Perry street, visitors will have to enter the fairgrounds on Pontiac road.

Birmingham Businessman Bares Deal

Payoff Denied by Hoffa

Teamster Union president James R. Hoffa shouted denials to the Senate Rackets Committee today that he got any part of a $17,500 alleged payoff to prevent a 1949 laundry workers strike in Detroit, after a Birmingham businessman testified that he paid more than $1,000 as his share of the reported payoff.

Yesterday, Vincent B. Watkins, partner in the Grand Laundry in Detroit, told the committee had paid more than $1,000 as part of a $17,500 "fee" to a Hoffa labor consultant, to avoid a strike against members of the Detroit Laundry Institute, a trade association.

Watkins, a former Birmingham city commissioner, was called to Washington with other Detroit laundry businessmen to relate details of a reported payment to a teamsters official to stave off a 1949 strike.

After Watkins related his contribution story, he was asked if he regarded it as a legitimate transaction.

He said, "No, sir, I think it's morally wrong."

Howard Balkwill, executive secretary of the Detroit Laundry Institute, said the payoff arrangement was made with Joseph Holtzman, a labor consultant and friend of Teamster czar James R. Hoffa.

Balkwill said Holtzman said he could get a contract along the lines the Institute outlined, but would require $25,000 for his services.

Balkwill added that they eventually compromised on $17,500 to be paid in three annual installments. He told the committee he assumed that Hoffa got part of the payoff.

Several Detroit laundry owners told the committee they helped finance the payment to Holtzman at the rate of $90 for each truck they operated.

Sen. Irving M. Ives (R-NY) told Balkwill the payment was a violation of the Taft-Hartley labor law.

Watkins of 587 Henley St., served on the Birmingham City Commission for three years from 1952-55, one year as mayor pro-tem.

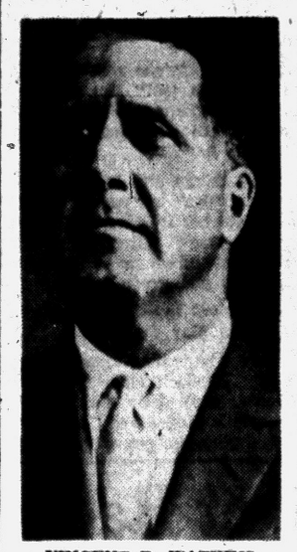
Hoffa testified that he did not recall attending a meeting at Detroit's Leland Hotel, where, according to one witness, Hoffa okayed a contract between the laundry and Teamster Local 285.



VINCENT B. WATKINS

Dulles Sees War Signs Repeated

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today indirect aggression threatens another world war. "This time," he said, "with even more disastrous consequences."

World events now show "disturbing symptoms such as preceded and forecast World War II," Dulles said in a speech prepared for a luncheon given for him by the American Chamber of Commerce in Brazil.

Dulles spoke to the American business community just before flying with Brazilian President Juscelino Kubitschek to Brasilia, the nation's capital - under - construction 600 miles northwest of Rio. It was the secretary's last stop on his 2½-day visit to Brazil. He was to fly back to Washington tonight.

Dulles and Kubitschek were reported near agreement that a summit conference of the presidents of the 21 American republics should be called to knit together the strained ties between the United States and its Latin neighbors.

Plugging a theme he sounded last week to counter the Soviet Union's criticism of the American landing in Lebanon, Dulles in his luncheon speech accused international communism of using indirect aggression in an effort to rule the world.

Warm and Fair Weather Rules Most of Nation

By The Associated Press

The nation's weather pattern showed minor changes today.

Fair and warm weather was the rule in most of the country, much the same as yesterday. The major storm belt was in the central Midwest.

Thunderstorms, with heavy rain strong winds and hail, swept across eastern Nebraska and western Iowa during the night. Rainfall measured from 2 to 4 inches in extreme eastern Nebraska. More than half an inch of rain fell in Omaha in a one-hour period. Some crop and property damage was reported in the Wahoo, Neb., area, by hail and strong winds.

The Day in Birmingham

Voting Light in Primary as 15 Per Cent Turn Out

Bloomfield Township had the best showing with 1,220 of its 8,440 registered voters going to the polls.

In Birmingham, 2,004 ballots were cast. The city's total registration was 13,139.

Bloomfield Hills had 277 of 1,435 registered electors go to the polls.

Voting percentage for the three communities was 15 per cent.

The four-month marriage of Mrs. Amy Wendt, the former Amy Roosevelt of Birmingham, is headed for the divorce court.

Daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Kemp Roosevelt of 292 Greenwood and niece of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, she filed suit for divorce Monday in Denver, Colo., against her husband, John A. F. Wendt, to whom she was married last April 26.

Mrs. Wendt charged her husband, a Denver attorney, with extreme and repeated acts of mental cruelty, and asked the district court to grant her alimony, divide their joint property and restore her maiden name.

The couple was married at the home of Quigg Newton, president of the University of Colorado, where they met as students. Wendt is a graduate of the University of Michigan.

Ormond E. Hunt, retired executive vice president and presently a director of the General Motors Corp., was sworn in yesterday by Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield as a member of the Post Office Department Advisory Board.

Hunt, of 1650 Rathmore St., Bloomfield Hills, replaces the late John Coleman, former president of Burroughs Adding Machine Corp. and the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

As a member of the Board, composed of private citizens, Hunt will be consulted on service and policy changes in the Post Office Department.

Mrs. Jeanne Lloyd, head librarian at the Baldwin Public Library in Birmingham, this morning announced the appointment of Miss Lee Tuttle to the library staff.

A graduate of the University of Michigan Department of Library Science, she was editor and writer for the U. of M. television office and woman's editor at a radio station in Lansing.

Miss Tuttle has taught at Michigan State University and Heidelberg College in Tiffin, Ohio.

Water consumption in Birmingham sets a new record one day and breaks it the next.

The all-time high of 6,671,000 gallons was pumped Monday, going over Saturday's record by more than 2,000 gallons.

Robert Kenning, assistant city manager and superintendent of the Water Department, said this morning there is no indication of curtailment in this rising water consumption in the city.

Should the City of Detroit declare the necessity of restricting water use, Birmingham would be included, he said.

Vote to Continue Annual Meeting

Residents in Waterford Back Ban on Hunting With Firearms

Waterford Township will continue to have an annual township meeting, and hunting with firearms in the township will be prohibited.

These two propositions, which were decided by voters at yesterday's primary election, had been debated for some time and both passed by a large majority.

There were 1,160 votes in favor of retaining the annual meeting, and 760 votes in favor of abolishing it.

At the last annual meeting held April 5, residents had voted to place on the ballot the proposition of whether to retain or abolish the 60-year-old law that permitted people a once-a-year opportunity to conduct township business from the floor.

Before yesterday's election, hunting was allowed anywhere in Waterford Township with high powered rifles, providing the hunters had the consent of the property owners.

There were 1,462 votes cast in favor of enacting a law to prevent hunting in the township, while 522 were against the proposition.

Welsh Case to Governor

LANSING (UPI) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams today had the removal case of St. Clair Shores Mayor Thomas S. Welsh under consideration along with about 1,900 pages of testimony, a 190-page summary and about 10 pounds of written exhibits.

Boy Drowns at Belle Isle

DETROIT (AP)—Caught in a tangle of weeds, 12-year-old Anthony Cobb drowned in the Detroit River off Belle Isle Beach yesterday. He was the son of Mrs. Mamie Powell of Detroit.

Pony Express Higher

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—"Don't feel too bad about the new four-cent postal rate," advises Salt Lake Tribune columnist Dan Valentine: "The Pony Express used to charge $5 for half an ounce."

News Flashes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gift-giving millionaire Bernard Goldfine sent a letter to nearly 400 House members today, urging them not to cite him "unjustly" for contempt of Congress.

The Boston textile tycoon also sent their administrative assistants a letter urging them to put his letter to the congressmen "near the top of the pile on your boss' desk."

Jazzman Ziggy Elman Missing, Wife Reports

She said the 44-year-old musician left their home in suburban Van Nuys Monday night in the family car and has not been seen since. Police said Elman instructed his telephone exchange to cancel all further calls.

And Deadwood Approves

Jury Frees 'Murderer' Daily

By MURRAY M. MOLER

DEADWOOD, S. D. (UPI) — A man branded as a "known killer" roams the streets of historic Deadwood every day.

Five times a week, he is "captured," "tried" by an impromptu court and jury, found not guilty and ordered to leave town.

But he never does.

If Jack McCall, alias "Crooked Nose Jack," did leave, it would spoil much of the summer fun for the 4,000 residents of Deadwood.

It would also spoil things for the thousands of tourists who visit the Black Hills mining district every summer and join in re-creating the legendary events that followed McCall's shooting of Wild Bill Hickok on Aug. 2, 1876.

Admittedly, the re-enactment is pretty much "hammed" up. But it's all in fun and proceeds from admissions paid to see the "trial" go to the Deadwood Chamber of Commerce for civic purposes.

The roles of Jack McCall, Calamity Jane, Alkali Ike, and Judge Kuykendall have been played during the 20 years the "drama" has been presented, by various residents of Deadwood and nearby Lead. Seven "regulars" serve on the jury, but the other five jurors are picked from the audience. One day, they included this reporter.

The basic story is that Hickok came to Deadwood, a rip-roaring mining camp, from Abilene, Kansas, where he had served as marshal and reputedly killed 21 men in the line of duty.

Deadwood was so disorderly, the story goes, that Hickok was about to be named marshal here. Lawless elements supposedly bribed McCall to kill Wild Bill.

McCall found Hickok playing poker in Saloon No. 10 on Deadwood's Main Street, his back to the door, contrary to his usual practice. In his hand were a pair of aces and a pair of eights and a fifth card whose value has never been satisfactorily established.

The assassin came behind Hickok, shot him through the head and then ran out, only to be captured a block away.

At the trial, the story of the killing is related by witnesses, including Calamity Jane. A "defense attorney" argues for McCall's acquittal on grounds that the court — in 1876 there were no regular courts yet established here — had no legal status.

The jury retires and returns an acquittal verdict. The judge acts incensed at this "miscarriage of justice," and orders McCall to leave town.

In real life, McCall did leave town, only to be arrested by a federal marshal later in Cheyenne, Wyo. He was tried in Yankton, then capital of Dakota Territory, and found guilty on Dec. 6, 1876. He was hanged at Yankton on March 1, 1877.

Report Liquor Sales Below Last Year

Case sales for the week totaled 61,899, down from 67,804 during the same week a year ago.

Large losers were whiskys, down from 39,703 cases to 36,202 and wines, off from 13,107 cases to 9,904. Gin and vodka both were up; vodka from 3,116 cases to 3,270 and gin from 6,791 cases to 8,681.

Pacifists in Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—A protest meeting against continued nuclear weapons testing has been scheduled in Detroit next Saturday by a pacifist group, the Fellowship of Reconciliation. The organization, which sponsored a peace walk on July 4, also seeks withdrawal of all troops from foreign countries.

Window-Breaking 'Culprit' Reported by City Police

In the midst of a series of complaints reporting vandalism late last night and early today, Pontiac Police believe they have found the culprit responsible for breaking car windows throughout the city.

The troublemaker? Old man weather, say police. The heat and humidity of yesterday and last night has been blamed for the unusual occurrence.

Police and the Automobile Club received calls from 20 irate citizens from scattered parts of Pontiac.

One witness said she heard a car race down Putnam St., accompanied by some crashes shortly after midnight. About a dozen cars parked on Putnam and nearby streets suffered damage.

On the west side, on Prall and Green streets near Pontiac Central High School, the heat struck a half-dozen cars around 1:30 a.m.

The wave of destruction was also reported to have hit in the southeast section on Jessie street at about 1:15 a.m.

★ ★ ★

Police said the condition of the broken glass and the fact that it seemed to blow out from the cars instead of crash into the cars made it unlikely the damage was caused by rocks thrown by vandals.

Annexation Defeated

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — A proposal to merge Clinton Township with the city of Mount Clemens was defeated by a 557-vote margin yesterday. Clinton Township went against the proposal, 2,347 to 424, while Mount Clemens favored it 1,851 to 485.

He's for Women Drivers

Said Floyd Webb of the Automobile Club of Michigan at a driver education institute at the University of Michigan:

"Two-fifths of the nation's drivers are women and we have found they don't cause anywhere near the number of accidents that some of us men sputter about.

"They are cautious and perhaps we could learn a lesson from them."

Khrushchev Kills Summit Talks

The talk on talks continues.

As of yesterday, each of the big four was on record as wanting, or at least being willing to attend, a summit meeting of some sort.

★ ★ ★

But like a chess game there was a sharp divergence of views about the nature of the meeting. This difference of opinion found at least one of the Western powers closer to Russia than to its allies.

Originally Russia wanted a meeting of the Big Four plus India and the U. N. Secretary General, DAG HAMMARSKJOLD.

But now she comes up with a big switch. KHRUSHCHEV now asks an emergency meeting of the 81-member U. N. General Assembly to debate a Soviet resolution ordering Anglo-American troops out of Jordan and Lebanon.

President Eisenhower quickly accepted the Krushchev proposal. It is too early to determine just what this will mean. But it definitely looks like any early summit talks are off.

Britain endorsed the Security Council idea, but said that the real work of the conference would be carried on by the chiefs of government meeting as a kind of Council subcommittee.

France, like Russia, figured a meeting limited to the Big Five and emphasized that it should have no connection with any special meeting of the Security Council.

For the past three weeks this has been the sequence of exchanges. To date nothing is definite as to time and place.

Out of all this second guessing one thing remains certain: That is that the meeting when it is held will be one of the biggest propaganda battles of the post war area.

★ ★ ★

The Russians are past masters at this sort of thing. They will most certainly seek to indict the United States and Britain for aggression in the Middle East. We should be prepared, and not let this deter us from being hopeful that out of the meeting will emerge some concrete progress.

Italy's Prime Minister Urges Mid-East Help

Italy's Prime Minister AMITORE FANFANI who has concluded a visit to this country, feels that NATO should be more than a military alliance.

An economics professor, 50 year old FANFANI thinks the organization should prove by joint economic projects that it is interested in the welfare of the Middle East and wishes to help the emerging nations. He stressed the need for protection against new explosions and Communist plotting.

★ ★ ★

As a long range answer to the problem he calls for a pledge by major nations, including Russia, to avoid interference in Middle East affairs; a promise by Middle East countries to avoid meddling in each other's affairs and a multi-nation economic aid program, sponsored by the United Nations, which would seek to lift the living standards of that region.

A year ago former Prime Minister PELLA suggested that Italy use interest payments due the U.S. under Marshall Plan loans for such development, but nothing came of it. A new billion dollar World Bank to grant promising loans for economic assistance has been proposed by Sen. MONRONEY.

This fund would be available to applicants who could not meet requirements of the present World Bank which also is assisting underdeveloped and overpopulated areas. West Germany already has recognized this need by joining with France in a $500 million project to develop North Africa.

Italy's government, a consistent friend of the West, has specialties of geography and trade with Arab and North African countries. Prime Minister FANFANI's proposals should be given thoughtful consideration.

SHOOTING all the politicians and diplomats in the world would bring permanent peace, but it would be a long-drawn-out process, as those who shot them would take their places and others would have to shoot them, and so on.

"It's Your Turn to Carry It"

David Lawrence Says:

Big Steel Strike Looms Ahead

WASHINGTON—Next year may see the biggest steel strike in American history. For the steel industry, which has just absorbed about half of the automatic increase in wages—fixed by a previous contract made in boom times—cannot afford to do so again. In 1959, when the labor contracts are up for renewal, a strike seems certain unless there is an abandonment of demands for higher wages by the unions.

LAWRENCE

If the steel companies had put up their prices this time to offset entirely the full labor costs, the increase of $4.50 per ton announced recently would have had to rise to around $7 or $8 a ton.

The statisticians in one major steel company say that, if there had been no price increases since 1955, it would today be operating $30,000,000 a year in the red.

The steel companies, moreover, have to find a way not only to meet the direct increases in wages imposed by the industry-wide union in steel but to offset the price rises for the raw materials the steel companies buy which are themselves affected by the upward trend in steel wages.

Thus it is estimated that, apart from the $7 or $8 a ton of increased costs due to direct wage increases, another item of at least $1.50 a ton has to be absorbed which comes from the higher costs of wages in brick plants, alloy plants, acid plants, and in the purchase of such materials as aluminum, vanadium, nickel and zinc.

★ ★ ★

What is the answer? It is to be found in greater productivity per man-hour by labor or in technological improvements through larger and larger capital expenditures. The latter course has thus far saved the steel companies from bankruptcy as they have introduced new mechanical gadgets and bigger and better power plants.

But to do this requires millions of dollars of more capital, and the investor is not attracted to industries which don't give a substantial return on the money invested.

Since the steel industry recently raised its prices, a howl has gone up from spokesmen for a Congressional committee. An assistant attorney-general at the Department of Justice in charge of antitrust laws speaks of the possibility of an investigation to see if any statutes were violated.

But why is the obvious overlooked? Hasn't anybody heretofore ever heard of industry-wide bargaining — the practice sanctioned by Federal law which imposes a uniform wage cost on the steel companies?

Senator Kefauver, chairman of a Senate subcommittee on "monopoly" problems, asks:

"Why are identical price increases put into effect by all companies at the same time when each has different costs? This is the key question."

Of course, it is the key question, and it has been ever since the Congress permitted labor unions to group together in a single monopoly in each industry.

Each company has to base its prices on what kind of earnings and rate of return on the invested dollar must be obtained to attract the investor. This also means a rather uniform pattern. A company that thinks it can get larger volume by cutting prices is likely to find itself mistaken and also bankrupt.

"Our mistakes in life are like highway errors—they not only endanger us but may cost the lives of others as well."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Iodin Ration May Correct Low Basal Metabolism

A reader writes:

"I was discharged from the Air Corps for 'low basal metabolism.' I had suffered no ill effects whatever, and there have been none since I was discharged. The — — medical school gives me a clean bill of health, but now I can't enlist in any branch of the service because of the Air Corps discharge." (P. H.)

DR. BRADY

I can't believe the Air Corps or any branch of the service of defense is so stupid.

"Low basal metabolism" is not a diagnosis.

To any Yankee Wiseacre reading this screed and smiling in his superior way at my audacity, I say this: Your medical merchant, having sold you a $5 BMR (basal metabolism test) for $35 can't do a thing about it or for you that an honest doctor would not have done with the information elicited by proper medical examination.

In other words, I'm trying to tell you that the metabolimeter (apparatus for measuring basal metabolism), however useful in the physiology laboratory, serves but one purpose in practice—the gadget impresses the simple layman.

PREFERS TEMPERATURE TEST

Time and again I have cited here the report by Dr. Barnes who found in a study of over 1,000 cases that the basal temperature test proved a better index than the basal metabolism test. To the best of my knowledge, no one has controverted the fair and logical conclusion drawn by Barnes, namely, that a clinical thermometer and a little intelligence will enable a real doctor to get all the information about the state of metabolism that he can get by the use of the metabolimeter.

Hypothyroidism, functional deficiency of the thyroid gland and low basal metabolism are, in my judgment, pretentious ways of saying iodin deficiency. Generally there's nothing wrong with people who have low basal metabolism that a suitable iodin ration won't correct.

For instructions send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope and ask for the pamphlet THE IODIN RATION.

Minimum Speed Limits Should Be Maintained

A few days ago I read the letter from one of the Orchard Lake Village authorities regarding the high ratio of traffic fines in comparison to the rest of the Village budget.

The letter stated that the Village police don't give tickets unnecessarily, but due to the bad driving conditions on the roads, must keep the speed limits low. Therefore, some drivers who don't have any regard for the safety of others soon find themselves paying for the privilege.

About 13 years ago my wife and I moved to the west side of Cass Lake from Ferndale. We drive a great deal through the Orchard Lake Village roads, especially on Commerce Road and Old Orchard Trail. When I first became licensed to drive in 1929 a very fine Sunday school teacher impressed me with the fact that not only are traffic fines unnecessary, but disobedience to civil laws is unchristian. I determined to always drive within the speed limit. I have seen them give tickets to folks who were driving just a few miles over the posted speed limit. Of course, they should, otherwise why bother to call it a "limit"?

Here is a suggestion for the Orchard Lake officials which will make it possible for them to abolish all other taxes and get by 100 per cent on traffic fines. Give their police the right to ticket the very slow drivers on Commerce road. These people are a real menace, often blocking as many as 25 cars, while loafing along the winding highway on which nobody can pass.

It is possible to make laws forcing drivers to maintain minimum speeds, as witness the Detroit expressways, where the police ticket anyone going under 40. The minimum speed on Commerce road should be 30.

Feels Awed By Power

I am no mastermind of theology but I do have sufficient elementary intelligence to observe and feel awed by the power of God's creations. Therefore, I must contradict the opinions expressed in Ernest Coleman's article, "Religion Must Go If We're To Grow."

★ ★ ★

The religious beliefs held by what he calls our ancient and ignorant ancestors led to the founding of our nation. Their beliefs passed down through heritage have built our nation of freedoms into its present greatness.

★ ★ ★

As to a free thinking country, perhaps he has heard of a Russia that I have not. If we are of same reference, I hope I never acquire such freedom.

I am proud of our editors, instructors and all categories of our citizenry that comprise our nation as one whose delight is in the law of the Lord.

Have faith in our growth. Remember—

"And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper." "For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish."

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols hath committed abomination. — Ezekiel 18:12.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Don't Mistake Infatuation for Love

Girls beware that you don't mistake infatuation for true love! They feel much alike when you are in the throes of both, but one is selfish whereas the other is unselfish. And be sure you read about Amnon's supposed true love. Then send for the sex booklet mentioned below. Pass it around among your friends and classmates for it gives you the true facts.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

★ ★ ★

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, we are REALLY in love," she positively informed me, "though my parents think we are just infatuated.

"And Bob wants me to run off and elope with him. He says there is no point in waiting. I felt we shouldn't do that, so he said I didn't love him. And now he insists that I give myself to him just to prove my love.

"I am weakening, for I really and truly love him and want him to know that I do. But I realize my mother would veto what he demands.

★ ★ ★

"So who is right? Is it wrong to live together before you are married?"

BEWARE TRIAL MARRIAGE

Trial marriage is a stupid thing. For it demands that the girl make ALL the concessions.

And in true love, man and woman are to operate on a 50-50 basis.

Beware, too, of that fallacious argument that the girl must always be the one to "prove" her love by submitting to illicit sexual relations.

It is just as logical that the boy also "prove" his love by treating her with respect and honor.

True love and sexual infatuation resemble each other in several ways, so Thelma may think she is "really and truly" in love, yet wake up a few months later to the fact she was only sexually infatuated.

For example, in both true love and sexual infatuation, you feel giddy and gay while with the other person. You may also grow trembly and breathless. You may get "butterflies" in your stomach and your knees may grow weak or wobbly.

You may pine for each other until you actually become sick abed.

AMNON'S FALSE LOVE

In the Bible, King David's son Amnon likewise thought he loved the beautiful Tamar (II Samuel, Ch. 13).

★ ★ ★

He was so smitten with her that he finally took to his bed, ill. And he consulted a love adviser.

But after he finally forced Tamar to submit to his desires, his supposed love turned out to be simply sexual infatuation.

And he then had her tossed out of his house, despite her tears and pleading. Sexual infatuation thus can change to nausea and hatred within a matter of a few seconds.

For the sake of jolting Thelma, I reminded her that a boy who truly loves a girl, is interested in HER future happiness and welfare.

They may infect her with BOTH gonorrhea and syphilis, for these two venereal diseases are different but can be contracted at the same time.

They may force her to drop out of school before graduation because of pregnancy.

And what happens in that event? On my desk were 5 letters from girls ranging in ages from 16 to 23, all of whom had succumbed to that false argument that they must "prove" their love.

Two of the boys fled into military service as soon as they found the girls were pregnant.

Two more ran away to parts unknown, leaving the girls to face the music and bear their babies out of wedlock.

The 5th boy callously told the girl he wasn't interested in having kids, so she better look around for some other guy who'd marry her. Then he started dating a girl friend of his former victim, brazenly jilting her!

★ ★ ★

So send for my booklet "Sex Problems of Young People," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit). It is widely used in the schools.

Hemingway Fights With 'Esquire'

The stories appeared in the magazine in late 1938 and early 1939. At the time, Hemingway favored the Soviet-backed Loyalists in their losing struggle against the Franco forces.

"The passage of time can affect the writings of authors either favorably or unfavorably," Hemingway said yesterday as he began court action to prevent reprinting.

★ ★ ★

"Illustrative is the change in attitude of people to writings of men during the time Russia was our ally to the present attitude of people to such men and their writings now that Russia is perhaps our greatest enemy."

The action to restrain republication was filed in State Supreme Court.

Pension Funds Showdown Due

House Battle Forecast Over Efforts to Exempt Employer Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House faces a showdown today on a bill to require public reporting of employe welfare-pension funds. A major battle was forecast over efforts to exempt plans handled by employers.

★ ★ ★

Rep. Albert H. Bosch (R-NY) predicted success for his proposal to exclude from the financial reporting requirements management run funds known as "level-of-benefit" plans.

These are the programs set up by an employer who guarantees a definite amount of benefits to the employe. Management, employes or both pay the costs of various such plans.

As the bill now stands it would require administrators of all plans to make available to the participants a description of the plan and an annual report of its financial operations. Copies would be filed with the secretary of labor.

The bill is designed to cut down abuses brought to light by the Senate Rackets Committee.

Rep. Ludwig Teller (D-NY), the bill's author, predicted it would pass but told a reporter he was not prepared to say whether the Bosch amendment would be adopted.

AFL-CIO President George Meany sent telegrams to House members urging passage of the bill and rejection of efforts to exempt some plans.

Hurry Up Jets, Travelers Urge

They're Impatient to Zoom Through Airlanes in Swifter Craft

This is the basic conclusion of a University of Michigan survey on attitudes of those who ride the airlines.

The survey, consisting of interviews with almost 3,000 adults, received financial support from strange bedfellows — Boeing Airplane Co., New York Central Railroad and Pennsylvania Railroad.

Two-thirds of the air-traveling public is looking forward to the day it can fly regularly scheduled jet craft, the researchers said.

Speed and time saving were the major reasons cited by those accustomed to traveling in conventional planes.

Among groups showing a general tendency to favor jets over propeller-driven planes were businessmen, younger, better educated and higher income travelers, men and city dwellers in contrast with rural residents.

Those air travelers not eagerly awaiting the advent of the commercial jet age spoke more of a sense of strangeness to jet travel than lack of safety.

Thieves Leave Mark of Zorro Behind Them

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — Police, seeking a solution to the $631 burglary of a drug store, felt sure today the job was done by juveniles.

Hal Boyle Says:

Wagon Bout Shows Man in True Light

At any given moment in America there are perhaps 15 million people involved with the water wagon—5 million climbing on, 5 million riding precariously atop it, and 5 million falling off.

Sometimes one gets the feeling that the major form of adult exercise in our country is clambering up or diving off that old water wagon. It's a popular way to tone up the muscles—if not the character.

Ability to ride the water wagon gracefully, without losing either one's own balance or boring one's friends, is probably the sternest test of character in our civilization.

Wagon riders tend to fall into generally recognizable types.

The daily double climbs on every morning at 2 a.m., falls off during the lunch hour, climbs on again at 2 p.m. and falls off again at 5:31 p.m.

The misery sharer pleads with all his friends, "I been on two whole days. Why don't you climb on, too? It's lonely up here."

The 100-proof Munchausen, after he has been on the wagon 15 minutes, starts thumping himself on the chest and crying his bil lie, "I feel 100 per cent better already."

★ ★ ★

The friendly noser has given up the taste of it, but can't give up the smell. So he goes down the bar sniffing the drinks of all his friends, muttering, "terrible stuff, isn't it?"

The profiteer goes to the nearest WCTU organization and asks, "How much will you pay me to serve as a horrible example at your lectures of what drink will do to a man?"

The ancestor-doomed claims it isn't a matter of choice with him, that it's a hereditary curse. "Going on the wagon runs in my family after 45," he says mournfully. "I can't whip it."

The phony creep insists he went on the wagon only "to help a friend." But since his only friend is himself, everybody knows who he's helping.

The playback artist enjoys the morning after reminding his pals all the stupid things they did and said at the cocktail party the night before. "Used to act that way myself — until I saw the light," he says, trying not to look too much like Zeus on Olympus.

★ ★ ★

Finally, of course, there is the guy who decides to go on the wagon, does so, but shuts up about it until he is ready to fall off.

Withdraw Warrant for Barbara Burns

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A warrant for the arrest of Barbara Burns was withdrawn when the daughter of the late comedian Bob (Bazooka) Burns showed up in court 4 hours late.

★ ★ ★

Miss Burns, who failed to appear at a guardianship hearing Monday, told the court yesterday she thought the matter had been postponed. The judge set a new date for the hearing and withdrew the warrant.

★ ★ ★

The 20-year-old girl, awaiting appeal of her recent conviction as a narcotics user, is married to a film technician under prison sentence for furnishing her drugs.

Polio Surges in Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—Polio cases took an upturn in Detroit last week with 20 new cases, bringing the total for the year to 45 cases with one death. In the same period of 1957 there were 44 cases, also with one death. Of the total this year, 17 had received Salk Vaccine inoculations. There have been 24 paralytic cases so far, compared with 19 paralytic cases in all of 1957.

Asking for Prayers

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit area Catholics have been asked by Cardinal Edward Mooney to join in a worldwide nine-day period of public prayers for Catholics in communist eastern Europe and Asia. The appeal, requested by Pope Pius XII, will end Aug. 15 on the Feast of the Assumption, a principal Catholic holy day.

Dictator Fears Alliance Between Iraq, Syria

Arab Turmoil Spells Trouble for Egypt's Nasser

THIRD IN SERIES
By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

Gamal Abdel Nasser has headaches too.

The Arab East's noisy turmoil gives the impression that the United Arab Republic president is riding the crest of an all-engulfing wave. Nasser may devoutly wish that was so. But there are shoals ahead.

DANCING IN STREETS

In the bustling northern cities of what now is Nasser's Syrian province there was dancing in the streets at the news of the July 14 coup in Iraq.

Did that please Nasser? Not altogether. In his July 23 Cairo speech Nasser went out of his way to be sharply critical of northern Syria.

Here was the rub:

The Iraqi coup was a revolution by nationalists—perhaps even extreme nationalists. But was it wholly a Nasser revolution? The man who led it, Brig. Gen. Abdul Karim Kassem, by his own account had plotted revolt against Premier Nuri Said's rule ever since 1934, 18 years before he ever heard of Nasser. Those who supported the revolt owed Nasser little if anything for its success. Indeed, its suddenness seemed to have caught Nasser by surprise.

★ ★ ★

Naturally, Nasser pictured the Iraqi revolt as a personal triumph. He had to do that. And the Iraqi regime for its part would capitalize on the support it could demand from Nasser. Yet the U. A. R. President must have had some serious misgivings about the future.

That dancing in the streets in Syria did not mean the celebrants were pro-Nasser; it could even have meant the reverse.

Many Syrians after passionately pursuing total union with Egypt suddenly found themselves restive under Nasser's rule. There had been well-founded reports of anti-Nasser manifestations in northern Syria, whose practical businessmen chafed at what they considered the U. A. R.'s economic madnesses.

The northern Syrians showed only that they were pro-Iraq. A cherished dream seemed within their grasp: Union with Iraq.

MEANS TROUBLE

This could mean trouble for Nasser.

Iraq has great oil and mineral wealth. She has an oil-financed economic development program well under way. Syria's economy remains sound. Politically, Syria is far more sophisticated than Egypt. And Egypt has little but Nasser.

Syria and Iraq together in the U. A. R. surely would overbalance the Egyptians and eventually dominate the union.

What does this mean to the West? For one thing, it offers some assurance that, barring grotesque Western blunders, oil will continue flowing from the Persian Gulf and through Iraq Petroleum Co. pipelines. There are good reasons for expecting this.

Nasser probably will want to move slowly with regard to Iraq. Possibly Iraq's affiliation with Egypt will stop short of full union.

The U. A. R. president has condemned foreign exploitation of Arab resources. But oil is no good to Arabs until it gets to markets. Iraqis cannot extract it or market it. Egypt cannot help them do it. Neither is likely to invite Communist bloc help in this respect.

The reasons are manifest. The Iraqis will continue to want the western foreign exchange, with all it means, from their oil production. They are aware, too, that Western Europe can do without Iraqi oil if necessary, so long as Kuwait's vast production potential is available. So nationalization of Iraq's oil-producing facilities might prove a boomerang.

But one of Nasser's major goals has been to get his hands on some of the oil revenues from the "have" countries for the benefit of "have-not" Egypt. How does he hasten this without bringing Iraq into the U. A. R. and endangering Egypt's pre-eminence in the union?

Nasser has other troubles too. The momentum his movement gained by events of the past three months will be lost if he stands still now. But can he afford another major explosion under his auspices?

Nasser has enemies in his own country. He is less popular with Egypt's literate population than he is outside.

ECONOMY A MESS

Egypt's economy is in a sorry mess which has required her to pay a bonus on the Egyptian pound in foreign transactions. On the political side, many of Nasser's own supporters fear communism and dread further involvement with the Soviet bloc.

Equally important, many Arabs clearly were shocked by realization that recent events could make the Middle East the cockpit of World War III.

Nasser can ill afford new explosions now. But neither can he afford to halt his violent propaganda, even now pouring into psychotic little Jordan. Probably only the arrival of British troops saved the life of King Hussein, and their departure surely would mean a new blowoff.

★ ★ ★

A Soviet aim is to keep the Middle East in turmoil and off balance.

If Nasser tries to profit from Soviet aims, he may build up forces which eventually will destroy him.

If he does not attempt to profit from Soviet purposes, he risks losing the momentum he has created and the support of the more impatient nationalists of Jordan and the Saudi peninsula.

★ ★ ★

Nasser's dilemmas may point a course. Western diplomacy could attempt to understand the paradoxes of the Arab East. It could seize the opportunity to give the more moderate nationalists something tangible to grasp in the way of support for their reasonable aspirations.

TOMORROW: Some diplomatic facts of life.

2 Injured Critically as Plane Crashes

HILLMAN (AP) — Two men were injured critically when their private plane crashed while they were trying to land at a dimly lighted airstrip at Hillman Airport last night.

Carl Funk, 58, of Detroit, the pilot and owner, his passenger, Maurice Johnson, 55, of Hillman, were taken to an Alpena hospital.

They were returning from a Canadian fishing trip. Their only light was from an automobile's headlights parked the the end of the runway. Witnesses said they misjudged the distance, hit a tree and nosed over.

Employment Down to Record Low

Rail Workers Hit Hard by Changing Times

By LARRY MORRONE

He's seen employment already cut to a record low of about one million persons. He's seen the colorful gandy dancer replaced by an automatic spike machine. He's seen the legendary towerman replaced by a board of push buttons.

And, in the railroad industry's desperate struggle to get over its financial sickness, he's seen the diesel engine push the steam locomotives off the rails. He's watched the roundhouse disappear.

He's witnessed the consolidation of small-town rail depots that once gave even the tiniest hamlet a link to the outside world.

So the railroad worker naturally wonders when his time is coming.

Engineers, conductors and brakemen interviewed by United Press International said that as far as they're concerned the rail industry is a dying business.

They gave their names but asked that they not be published.

A 65-year-old veteran engineer said: "The railroads of today and the railroads of yesterday are complete strangers."

Trucks and planes have taken over from the trains, said this railroader of 42 years' service. "The railroads are hanging on by their teeth. Now we are just waiting to see what happens to us."

NO OPPORTUNITY

He said the industry no longer offers the opportunity to young men that it once did, adding:

"If I had a son that wanted to go into railroading I'd do everything in my power to make sure he didn't. The hours are irregular, the promotion slow and the pay too low for the responsibility."

A conductor for a leading rail line said he also felt that the modern day railroad offers young men little opportunity.

"Years ago," he said, "there were more jobs to shoot for. Sure, the seniority was there but at least the jobs were, too. Now, with the automation and consolidation, they don't have half the jobs available."

A 56-year-old brakeman for another large line said that if he had it to do over again he would not go into railroading, "and if I had a son who wanted to go into the industry at any level I'd give him a good paddling."

Railroad management, on the other hand, wants young man. At the executive level railroad men think one of the things wrong with the industry is the lack of young blood, and they've begun to invade the college campuses for bright young prospects.

Willard Dinnella, employment supervisor for the New York Central railroad, said it's high time the industry started to compete for its share of the cream of the college crop.

"Railroads have been missing the boat in this respect for years," he said, adding that as a result the industry is finding itself top-heavy with older men in high level jobs.

He said the situation stems from a period extending from the depression to the end of World War II when the railroads did very little hiring at management level.

YOUTH NEEDED

"Now, years later, the industry is realizing it has few young men to take up the slack," he said.

George Gillully, personnel director for the Rock Island lines, echoed that opinion. He estimated that more than 40 per cent of the Rock Island's supervisors were 50 years of age or older.

★ ★ ★

"We'd prefer the type that has a definite interest in railroading," he said, "a young man who as a boy alawys wanted to be a railroad engineer or had a basement full of model trains."

Railroad recruiters are having their problems there, too.

Several placement directors at colleges throughout the country have said that young men are reluctant to embark on a railroad career.

Fred L. Hefferon, business placement director at Northwestern University, said young college graduates seem to hesitate because they fear the well-known stiff seniority system of the railroads and their publicized financial weaknesses.

"The young graduates seem to have more confidence in the booming industries — especially the aviation field," he said. "They feel that they have a chance to move ahead faster in the other fields."

Gillully said it is the job of the railroads and the purpose of the campus interviews to show young men that the industry is interested in having them and that there is a real future for them.

"Railroads are here to stay," he emphasized. "It is the job of the railroads either to find young men within our own companies or go out and compete with other large industries for their share of potential management."

Try a Little Skunk

By RENNIE TAYLOR

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rattlesnakes can be frightened by the odor of a skunk, one of their natural enemies, says a University of California zoologist.

This points to a possible way of making campsites and homes in snake-infested areas safer, he adds.

To test the odor, Dr. Raymond B. Cowles acquired a live rattler, hooked him up to an electrocardiograph and measured his rate of heartbeat before and after exposure to the odor.

The snake also was subjected to the smell of a king snake, another natural enemy. Both the king snake odor and the skunky chemical speeded up his heartbeat, with the chemical only slightly less effective than the king snake smell.

Although the chemical is a synthetic one, its odor is almost identical with that of the skunk, Dr. Cowles said.

Dr. Cowles thinks bits of charcoal soaked in the mercaptan and sprinkled about a campsite or a home would produce enough odor to terrorize the rattlers but not enough to annoy the human occupants.

Do You Drive Perfectly? So Does Everybody Else

By PATRICIA MC CORMACK

NEW YORK (UPI) — Apparently, no one is an "average driver" anymore. Nearly 100 per cent of drivers interviewed by "depth probers" rated themselves "above average" in driving skills.

"Mr. Typical Driver," for example, puts a lot of the blame for traffic mishaps on drunken drivers and speeders. But if he himself is caught tipsy at the wheel, he'll insist he's only had "a couple," with no harm done. And if caught speeding, he'll boil over as he tells you he was only going five or 10 miles over the limit, endangering no one.

The nationwide survey, conducted by the Opinion Research Corp., also found drivers taking issue with ticket-giving and the abilities of some traffic court judges.

More than half of the adult drivers, for example, said that "many of our judges in traffic court are not very well qualified for the job."

The drivers want warnings instead of tickets for minor violations, since "tickets, in such instances, insult a driver's intelligence."

In their appraisals, the drivers were a little easier on policemen than they were on traffic court judges. One out of two said the cops are tops.

The depth-probers also said that traffic slogan "Drive Safely," for example—probably mean nothing to the typical driver.

"The study indicates that he thinks those slogans are for the ordinary, every-day drivers, the kind you run into in trafic jams. They're certainly not for him; he'd be insulted at the suggestion that he doesn't drive safely.

"People really want to be good, law-abiding drivers. They want to be, so they say they are. If we hold up symbols of their ideal to them, instead of abmonishing them to 'look out' or 'take it easy,' safety communications may be more effective."

Professional drivers — police, truckers, taximen and others—told the depth probers that traffic accidents can be curbed by:

Promoting uniformity of traffic laws and signs throughout the nation, setting up driver clinics for habitual violators, increasing the number of road-side parks where drivers would be enrouraged to rest every so often, and stressing the important of other violations besides speeding.

Enterprising Flier Builds Own Plane

HAMILTON AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UPI) — First Lt. Thomas C. Davidson is the proud owner of a low-wing, single-seat airplane capable of cruising at 160 miles an hour. He built it himself.

The plane cost Davidson about $1,000 to construct, including $400 for a used engine.

He began the job in his garage while stationed at Tyndall Air Force Base, Fla. Transferred before he finished the plane, he moved it to California by trailer for completion.

The midget craft has a frame of steel tubing covered with thin aluminum and fabric. The wing span measures 18 feet. The engine is 85-horsepower.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (UPI)—Thieves raiding the grocery of Van Hogan here yesterday added insult to injury.

Man Dies of Injuries

HART (AP) — Lawrence D. Law, 58, of rural Mason County, died Tuesday after being injured July 28 in a farm accident. He was the father of 11.

Gambling Probe Set in Indiana

Believe Syndicate Took Bets Over $1,000 on Football Games

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—An international gambling syndicate which authorities contend grossed $3,500,000 in 10 weeks on bets of $1,000 or more, mostly on football games, comes under the close scrutiny of a federal grand jury here next week.

More than 170 persons, most of them identified as patrons who could afford to make big bets to satisfy their gambling whims, were ordered to appear as witnesses.

Some of those subpoenaed were well known, including Herbert (Zeppo) Marx of the famous brother comedy team in movies, and H. L. Hunt, one of the world's richest men and head of a fabulously huge oil firm in Dallas, Tex.

U. S. tax agents swarmed into a third-floor suite above a Terre Haute, Ind., restaurant last November and grabbed six persons, including known gamblers and a former Indianapolis sheriff, for failure to have $50 federal gambling tax stamps.

The agents found a roomful of telephones and evidence that the syndicate scorned all except big bets and took them from all parts of this country and Canada, mostly on college and professional football games.

U. S. District Attorney Don A. Tabbert said the operation at Terre Haute was only 10 weeks old and had grossed an average of $350,000 a week during the period. He said evidence indicated the syndicate moved from Canada after a raid by Canadian mounties.

Prison Trustee Given Money; He Leaves

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI) — John Henry McNeill did a good job as trusty in the county jail coffee shop, so when he was transferred to the county farm deputies took up a collection to show their appreciation.

Since January 1948 the standard weekly work hours throughout Australia have been fixed at 40.

2 Children Rescued From Inner Tube

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich. (AP) — Nearly exhausted after drifting helplessly for six hours on an old innertube, two children were rescued seven miles out in Lake Michigan at dusk last night.

Coal mines in Kentucky have poured out more than 2.3 billion tons since 1800, or almost 5 per cent of the 27.2 billion tons mined in the United States as a whole.

Young Parisien Upsets World of Fashion

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Along Seventh Avenue this week, there is dark silience. Only the grinding sound of molar striking bicuspid penetrate the racks of unloved chemises and hopeful trapezes.

Any girl of 19 could have told them — but the multi-million buck dress industry wouldn't listen:

So it was that the young successor to Christian Dior, Yves Saint-Laurent, decided he didn't like the looks of this summer's girl, and switched to a different model.

With the blithe freedom (some would call it gall) of youth, he turned his back on the giddy child with the near-nude kneecap, and elected for a five-inch hemline drop and a sophisticated woman.

Everywhere, there was shock—pleasant for some women, and most men.

But deadly indeed for store buyers and fashion makers who now had to face the certain fact that the average woman has a perfect excuse to say, "I told you so," and turn down the short chemises and trapezes they had advised her she'd have to buy—or else.

If I wasn't so shocked, I'd have to laugh — at the irony of it," said a salesgirl in the French room of a local swankery.

"They (the wholsale dress industry) have only themselves to blame. They proclaimed this guy as the great genius. They copied every move. They taught us to say 'This is similar to the Yves Saint-Laurent line — the most influential man in fashion,' to persuade women to accept the trapezoid line. And now they're stuck with him."

Of course, most other Paris designers have continued to show fashions that are evolutions of last year's silhouette, and presumably the styles will continue to be sold. But the whim of Saint-Laurent is a tremendous psychological blow . . .

The chemise and trapeze had not been fully accepted, particularly in the U. S. Women were waiting. By this fall, had all the Paris moguls gone along with the gag, they would have had to give in.

Now the "hold-outs" have a hero who is not to be debunked, even by the most self-possessed salesgirl. The next time one of same speels the "It's the look, and you'll have to get used to it" routine, a vindictive woman will respond, "So's your Saint-Laurent!"

As long as the young designer recommended skirts at last year's level, and put shape into his new dresses — which he did — a woman no longer is threatened with complete dowdiness in last year's clothes. She can be independent.

It is interesting to ponder the reasons behind Saint-Laurent's sudden switch in fashion. Was it to shock? Was he wily enough to sense that the exaggerated styles wouldn't sell? Or did he, even as designer Patou did in the flapper days of 1929, cry "My God, I can stand it no more!" after staring at too many homely ladies' knees?

Whatever the reason, he has made millions of friends and enemies.

And in the United States, where "planned obsolescence" is as important to fashion as to the auto industry, Saint-Laurent suddenly has all the economic characteristics of a Volkswagen.

Rochester, Avon Area Voters Reject Incorporation

Pontiac Press Photo

Requestion Burn Victim

This theory was strengthened by a report from the Detroit police laboratory today. It said that the traces of liquid on the clothing Kierdorf wore when he staggered into the hospital were not gasoline —as originally supposed — but water, as if someone had doused him to put out the flames.

Despite a throat operation yesterday that helps him breath, but now makes it more difficult for him to speak, Kierdorf will "definitely be re-questioned," Ziem said before the conference.

"It is becoming more and more obvious that Kierdorf, and only Kierdorf, is the key to the whole thing," Ziem said. "The story he has told to us so far is full of discrepancies."

Dumped from a car in front of the hospital early Monday with 85 per cent of his body seared by burns, Kierdorf remained conscious today and coherent, though still on the critical list, authorities said.

Though Kierdorf was sinking and his death predicted, it might not occur for several hours or until tomorrow, the hospital said. However, there was the possibility that the victim would lose consciousness and not be able to talk further.

The tough, stocky union leader showed no improvement, but at the same time was holding his own, the hospital said, thanks to his strong physique.

Kierdorf's story was not borne out by the findings of a medical expert who examined him yesterday, Ziem indicated.

1. Someone put salve on Kierdorf's face after he was burned.

2. Inflammable liquid could have splashed on Kierdorf as a result of an explosno. "This is very, very possible," Ziem stressed.

★ ★ ★

3. At the time he was burned, Kierdorf was probably wearing a belt and a wristwatch. He had neither when he staggered into the hospital.

4. The burns were not uniform, but more severe on the upper left portion of the body.

5. There was no evidence of particles of dirt or grass to bear out Kierdorf's story that he "rolled over and over" on the ground to extinguish the flames.

Olsen interrupted a vacation in West Branch to make the examination. He was brought here by state police.

The pathologist was sent for after Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor announced he was dissatisfied with the results of the fourth, and so far the longest, interrogation of the victim.

"He (Kierdorf) is not helping us," Taylor said. "I feel ke knows more than he's telling me. In my opinion, he could give us information to help the progress of the case."

Taylor said the burned man sticks to his original story, avoiding certain questions as if his mind were cloudy but answering others in a straightforward, clear manner.

"My impression is that if he could answer one question clearly, he could answer them all," Taylor said.

He said Kierdorf "vehemently" denied that the burning had anything to do with the internal affairs of Flint Local 332, of which he is a business agent.

Taylor said he couldn't get any answers at all to questions that Kierdorf apparently wants to avoid, such as what happened to his clothes after he was burned.

Two Detroit police homicide detectives, Lt. John Morin and Sgt. John Ware, took part in the latest interrogation. They said that so far, no Detroit connections with the burning have been discovered.

Ware believed that Kierdorf may have been injured during some illegal activity, such as the burning of records or the preparation of an arson bomb.

If such were the case, he figured, Kierdorf would have reason to keep silent about the nature of the accident and its location.

The possibility would also explain why Kierdorf was dropped off on the hospital grounds instead of accompanied straight to the emergency room.

"If the persons with him were engaged in the same illegal activity," Ware said, "they would try to avoid being identified in order to stay clear of trouble."

Kierdorf himself had refused to give his identity or any hint of what might have happened for 15 hours.

Then, under the persuasion of his uncle, Herman Kierdorf, 67, another ex-convict and former business agent of Detroit Teamster Joint Council 42, the torch victim volunteered a story that had this outline, Taylor said:

Two men he did not know called at his Flint home Sunday evening. He rode with them toward Pontiac, where they said there was a union organizational meeting.

South of Telegraph road and Dixie highway, the car turned off onto a gravel road. Kierdorf was forced out at gun point, doused with an inflamable liquid and ignited.

He rolled on the ground to extinguish the flames, was put back in the car after one of the men observed, "We don't want a murder rap," driven to the hospital and dumped there.

Authorities, who have unsuccessfully searched for the torture spot described by Kierdorf, now believe that the burning may have taken place inside a building.

They have all but discarded the revenge theory, suggested by the victim's original story.

"You don't turn a man into a human torch simply to threaten him," one police officer observed. "And if your intention is to bump him off, you don't take him to a hospital afterwards."

★ ★ ★

Genesee County authorities planned to take a statement today from a woman who is a neighbor to Kierdorf. In contradiction to Kierdorf's story, she has said that she saw Kierdorf leave his home carrying bundles that looked "like pillow cases."

Meantime, the search for Herman Kierdorf has relaxed.

After visiting the hospital Monday afternoon, Kierdorf dropped out of sight and his whereabouts are still not known, Ziem said.

Taylor, however, expressed the belief that the Teamster official, who lives at 29078 Spoon St., Madison Heights, will show up soon.

"He probably will tell us that he was resting up because he suffers a heart condition," the assistant prosecutor suggested.

★ ★ ★

Tending to discount theories that the elder Kierdorf is seeking revenge, or is in hiding because he fears for his own safety, some authorities advanced another theory for the disappearance.

They said now that he is under investigation, Herman Kierdorf may be seeking to clear away traces of any affairs he might not want police to look into.

It was discovered that Kierdorf gave two loaded pistols — one equipped with a silencer, two telephones and a half-empty box of dynamite caps to a neighbor for safekeeping.

Ziem obtained a warrant yesterday, charging him with illegally possessing the silencer, a state and federal offense punishable by five years in prison.

Police said that Herman Kierdorf had with him a black, 1956 Cadillac, registered to Teamsters Local 2999, home local of Teamster President James R. Hoffa.

Hard-Pressed Farmington Loses Bid for Annexation

By JOEL RIPPA
Suburban News Editor

Voters in the village of Rochester and a 3½-square mile section of Avon Township rejected by an almost 3-1 margin a proposal that would have incorporated the two areas into a city.

Thus was settled—at least temporarily—a heated issue, fought in the township, in the county and even taken to the Supreme Court before it was put to the electorate in yesterday's primary election.

The vote was 1,346 to 531.

Oak Park saw its plans for expansion of the city's Department of Public Safety and City Hall facilities washed down the drain as taxpayers rejected a $306,000 bond issue by a walloping 1,646 to 938 margin.

The city of Farmington, hard-pressed for expansion area, lost its bid to annex eight square miles in the southwestern portion of the township. Residents in the township area declined to be taken in by the city, 391 to 74. City electors favor annexation, 425 to 205.

Annexation requires majority approval in both the city and the area to be taken in.

Another "no" was voiced in Milford Township where voters rejected a 2-mill tax increase for one year to finance construction of a township hall and adjoining fire station.

The margin of defeat was just 15 votes.

Reversing the tide somewhat was approval of a village incorporation proposal in Farmington Township and a tax levy hike in Highland Township.

Residents in a 2½-square mile area just northwest of the city of Farmington voted 107 to 13 to create the village of Quaker Town.

Highland Township voters okayed a one-mill tax increase for 10 years for the purchase and maintenance of fire equipment and to pay a full-time crew of seven firemen.

Indicative of the interest in the Rochester issue is that of the 2684 ballots cast in Avon Township's six precincts, 2252 were in the three precincts where residents were voting on incorporation.

Elected to draw up the charter, had the city been approved, were John L. Dahlmann, 789 votes; William C. Chapman, 784; Wayne Y. Holman, 783; Clarence M. Burr, 754; Stowell A. Collins, 742; Dr. Glenn R. Brooks and James C. Hill, 725 each; Edward A. Potere, 718; and Roy Rewold, 670.

Incorporation was opposed by officials of the township and many residents and businessmen in both the village and the township who feared the city would greatly increase taxes and scare out industry.

Blocked by legal action for nearly two years, the proposal got the go-ahead last March when the State Supreme Court affirmed Circuit Court dismissal of a writ of mandamus which had prevented the Oakland County Board of Supervisors from setting the election date.

UAW Counting Strike Votes

Big Three Workers Reported in Favor of Walkout to Back Goals

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers today virtually completed tabulation of strike authorization votes at Big Three plants.

It showed 212,768 voting in favor of strike action if necessary to back up the union's goals in current bargaining talks with General Motors, Ford and Chrysler. The vote against was given as 15,191.

Since June 1, some 400,000 UAW members have been working without contracts at Big Thre plants.

The union said returns from 52 out of 55 Ford locals showed 56,235 votes for a strike and 2,533 against.

The vote at 37 of 38 Chrysler locals was given as 40,560 in favor and 2,248 against.

Bay City Votes Down Subsidy for Bus Line

BAY City (AP—Bay City voters gave a firm no to a plan to subsidize city bus service. The count in yesterday's election was 6,437 against to 1,518 in favor.

The proposal would have authorized the city to enter into a contract with Balcer Bros. Motor Coach Co. to provide service at $3,850 a week. If fares fell below that figure, the city would have been empowered to spend up to $60,000 a year in subsidies.

Bay City has been without bus service since May 15 when Balcer Bros. quit because of financial losses.

He Insults Witnesses; Judge Doubles Term

ALEXANDRIA, La. (UPI) — Orville Chellette, convicted of disturbing the peace at a cafe, had his sentence doubled from 30 to 60 days when he turned to the witnesses who had testified against him and shouted:

Post Offices Get 1 Cent Stamps; Supply Short

Both the main post office on West Huron street and the downtown branch on East Huron street today have one cent stamps according to Robert C. Miller, acting postmaster, but the supply "won't last long," he added.

The branch ran out of them Saturday and the main office's supply was down to broken lots and coils. After calling Chicago to check on a stamp order which was due, 100,000 one centers were sent to Pontiac Monday.

Yesterday, 10,000 were transferred from the main office to the downtown station. The main building still has 20,000 of the one cent stamps today.

Miller added that there is a shortage of this stamp throughout the nation due to the postage rate boost which became effective Friday.

Reducing Charge Against City Man

The charge of attempted murder filed against a Pontiac man in St. Catherine, Ontario, last Friday, has been reduced to assault with intent to do great bodily harm less than murder.

29-yer-old Ranson Alden Campbell, alias Malcolm McGregor, still remained in a St. Catherine jail without bail.

His case was postponed until August 13. Campbell was charged with stabbing Charles Fisher, 20, in the back during an argument and fight Friday night.

★ ★ ★

Fisher is reported in satisfactory condition at a St. Catherine hospital. The two men had come to the city several days before with their wives to work for a local firm.

Plane Hits Wires

Crash Kills Oxford Man

OXFORD—Lloyd R. Wait, 52, a crop-dusting potato dealer from Oxford, was killed at 6 a.m. today when his plane crashed in a sugar beet field, four miles east of Bay City.

He lived at 3381 W. Drahner Rd.

Alex Walraven, whose field Wait was dusting, witnessed the crash. He said Wait's plane zoomed under electric lines but that he apparently didn't see the telephone wires directly ahead of him. The plane hit the wires and rolled into a ball of wreckage on the ground.

Walraven, who was parked in a car at the corner of his Hampton Township field at the time, said Wait was dead when he got to him.

The Oxford man had dusted the field a year ago, Walraven said. He had just flown up from Oxford, landing at Bay City Airport prior to taking off for Walraven's field.

Sharon Blanchard Repeats Vows

ROCHESTER — In a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at St. Paul's Methodist Church in Rochester, marriage vows were exchanged by Sharon Lee Blanchard and Robert F. Potere. Performing the rite was the Rev. J. Douglas Parker, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde F. Blanchard of 1950 Washington Rd. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Potere of 325 Charles Rd.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of silk taffeta with a chapel train. Re-embroidered Alencon lace sprinkled with seed pearls accented the neckline. Her fingertip veil fell from a headpiece of stephanotis and tiny gems, and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, ivy and sweetheart roses.

Her sister-in law, Mrs. Anna L. Blanchard of Rochester was the matron of honor. Attendants were Miss Barbara Howlett of Rochester, Miss Frances Warner of Wayne, Miss Rose Marie Albright of Allen Park, and Miss Nancy Plastow of Detroit.

MRS. ROBERT F. POTERE

★ ★ ★

Clifford W. Johnson of Pleasant Ridge was the best man while the ushers were Del Blanchard, Allan Sanders, Bill Lindeman and Ed Grabman, all of Rochester.

The ceremony was followed by a reception on the lawn of the bride's parents' home.

Upon return from their two-week honeymoon in northern Michigan the newlyweds will make their home at 209 W. Fourth St., Rochester.

★ ★ ★

The bride attended the University of Michigan for two years and was graduated in June from the Henry Ford Community College as a nurse. Her husband, who also attended U. of M., is a prelaw student at Wayne State University.

Pontiac High School Class of '38 Set for Reunion

Pontiac Press Photos

Members of Pontiac High School's 1938 graduation class are planning a reunion to be held at Elks Temple Thursday evening. Committee workers were taking care of last-minute details when photographed here. From left to right, they are Mrs. J. D. Medlen, co-chairman; Arthur W. Kollin, finance chairman; Mrs. Worley H. Smith, tracing committee; and Hilman Fortney, reservations chairman.

J. D. Medlen (left), general chairman for the reunion, joins Ernest Marsh, master of ceremonies, and Mrs. C. Ray Shelton of the tracing committee in checking the map to point out how far some of the graduates have traveled over the past 20 years.

Theresa Landry Says Vows in St. Vincent Rite

White gladioli banked the altar of St. Vincent de Paul Church for the Saturday wedding of Theresa Landry and John T. Leone. The Rev. James Sheehan officiated at the 10 a.m. ceremony before 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Landry of Cottage street, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Sadie Leone of Auburn avenue.

HONEYMOON IN LAS VEGAS

★ ★ ★

Nutrition the Key

Vibrant Health Means Fullest Life

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Many people drag along through the years without real illness but without ever experiencing the vital living which surplus energy makes possible. There is a big difference between just not being sick and having vibrant health, between barely being able to do what you have to do and doing the things you want to do joyfully.

It is the difference between pessimism and optimism, between popularity and lack of friends, between success and failure in love or business, between a contagious personality and one which is dull, between courage and fear, between a sense of humor and dourness.

Today nutrition is being correlated with extra energy. See that yours is proper so that you will have that added energy which allows you to do the things you want to do.

ADDS SHEEN

Extra energy adds sheen to daily living and an element of adventure to life. It sharpens our senses and stirs up our hearts and minds. In other words, it lifts life out of the ordinary. It is impossible to invest in life with enthusiasm when we are haunted by chronic fatigue.

Optimum health has such an effect on our lives that it is a wonder we do not make it our first objective. Yet we constantly penalize ourselves with small neglects and abuses which count up to the staggering total of half-aliveness.

Nutrition is being highlighted today as an important weapon with which to wrest the prize of vitality from life. There is the maintenance diet which brings us average health and saves us from the well-known deficiency diseases. Then there is the optimum diet which brings us wings.

Today nutrition is being closely correlated with energy and many diseases are being classified as deficiency diseases for the first time. We do not yet have any idea of how far reaching the effects of nutrition may be, or how drastically it may affect our health.

No success is worth the loss of real health and the energy which accompanies it. However, it is not the work we do which saps our vitality but the emotional strains which may accompany it. Worry, lack of exercise and poor nutrition are more likely to be culprits! Why not take your diet seriously for the good of your soul?

If you would like to have my leaflet "Diets for Youth and Health" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 43 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Style Precious Jewelry to Individual Personality

★ ★ ★

It is the exceptional woman today, rather than the average one, who knows the jewelry styles best suited to her individual physical characteristics. The styling of a ring, necklace or earrings may be beautiful—"yet wrong for her"—in the same sense that a chemise or sheath dress is wrong for many women.

DESIGN IMPORTANT

The first consideration is to choose a good design. The distinguishing mark of the best jewelry designs is simplicity, not an over-elaborate, cluttered motif. Simplicity—reflected in a natural, life-like design—endows a piece of jewelry with enduring elegance.

★ ★ ★

Having found a good design, the next step is to decide if it right for you. This decision should be based on whether the jewelry enhances your physical makeup and personality. The latter point simply means you should avoid overpowering, overly dramatic designs if your personality is more the demure, retiring type—and vice versa.

EMPHASIZE POSITIVE!

Coordinating jewelry styles with physical traits involves giving thought to shape of face, type of hairdo and color of hair, complexion, shape of ears and fingers. For example, pendant earrings are best calculated to give an elongating look to a round face. The same style earrings would be unflattering on a long, narrow face because it would accentuate that trait.

For a short-necked woman, a single-strand necklace of normal length is suggested. A choker only calls attention to the short neck, and the very long, big necklaces are also wrong.

Similarly, women with large bosoms can avoid focussing attention on the bosom if they clip a pin or brooch on the shoulder of a gown. A tall, heavy woman should wear large pins since a smaller design tends to accent her size.

Much care should be given to choosing rings. The most common problem is the woman with short, stubby fingers, who should never wear a large ring. She should choose a style with a narrow shank and a high dome, so that the eye will center on the dome.

Wash-and-Wear Clothes Popular

Mothers want washables for the boys, too. A recent survey across the country made it plain that women not only want washable slacks and jackets for their sons — but they want these garments to be in the wash-and-wear category.

Include Husband

She kept talking about "my house," "my children," "my garden," for all the world as though she hadn't a husband. Yet her husband was sitting beside her, left out of the conversation completely. "We" and "our" when used by a husband or wife tend to draw the other into the conversation.

The Paul A. Cardwells of Grosse Ile announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith Edna, to Donald Walser Hite, son of the Howard J. Hites of Birmingham. She attended Hillsdale College and her fiance is a Hillsdale graduate. A Sept. 27 wedding is planned.

JUDITH E. CARDWELL

Married Saturday evening at First Methodist Church were Joan Delores Bevans and Daniel Blast. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bevans and Mr. and Mrs. Max Blast.

MRS. DANIEL BLAST

Joan Bevans, Daniel Blast Married in Church Rite

Joan Delores Bevans and Daniel Blast were married Saturday evening at First Methodist Church. The Rev. Paul Hart officiated at the candlelight ceremony before 150 guests.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bevans of South East Boulevard and Mr. and Mrs. Max Blast of Allen Park.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and Italian silk. The bodice of Chantilly lace was fashioned with short sleeves and a sabrina neckline trimmed with seed pearls and sequins. The bouffant skirt of Italian silk featured a front panel of lace accented with seed pearls and sequins. The skirt formed a chapel train. A fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from her crown of seed pearls and sequins and she carried a bouquet of white roses on a Bible.

Mrs. Harvey Carlon was her sister's matron of honor, with Angela Vlisides of Ann Arbor and Gilda Halley of Dearborn as attendants. They wore identical dresses of light blue silk organza and carried cascade bouquets of yellow and pink glamelias. The matron of honor's bouquet was yellow.

ASSIST BRIDEGROOM

Best man was Joseph Williams of Dearborn and ushers were John and Gerald Blast both brothers of the bridegroom.

Following a reception held at the Community Hall, Auburn Heights, the couple left for a honeymoon to the upper Peninsula and Madelin Island. The bride chose a light blue dacron dress with pleated skirt and white accessories for her going-away outfit. The couple will live in Taylor Township.

Shoe Sizes Set in 1324 by Royalty

An English king more than six centuries ago set up the system of sizes still in use in the shoe industry of today.

In 1324, King Edward II decreed that three barleycorns laid end to end would make the standard unit of measure known as an inch.

Shoemakers discovered shortly afterward that 39 barleycorns, or 13 inches, was the length of the largest foot in the kingdom. That foot was declared to be size 13.

Other sizes were established, taking away one barleycorn at a time (or one-third of an inch at a time) for smaller sizes.

As shoemaking progressed, half-sizes were established, with one-sixth of an inch making the difference between full and half-sizes.

That system, minus the barleycorns, is pretty much the one used today, except that the modern size 13 is exactly one-twelfth inch less than a full 13 inches.

Plan Your Leisure Time Well

NEW YORK (UPI)—Leisure, like money, can slip through your fingers without your knowing where it went, and it can be spent unwisely.

★ ★ ★

That's why, according to the recreation experts, some persons complain about never having enough time for play.

If you're always "too tired" to have fun, that's another matter. You may be sick and should see a doctor.

But some persons, according to psychiatrists, don't get good mileage out of leisure time because they have "guilt feelings" about it and feel that they must be working all the time—or looking busy, at least.

TOO MUCH TIME

Maybe your problem is that you have too much free time and don't know how to spend it. Or, perhaps, you have too many interests and are going off in all directions.

If you feel isolated, unappreciated or shunned, maybe you're spending too much of your free time alone.

Or you may be just plain shy.

In that case, here are some pointers:

—Be a joiner. Inquire about the League of Women Voters, the auxiliary at the hospital, or any of the dozens of other organizations in your town. They're always looking for new faces.

—Once in, be active, doing anything no matter how menial it seems. You'll meet new friends and have fun.

Your leisure time activity will be most rewarding if it is different from your work-a-day world.

Pride in Right-Doing False and Wrong

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

One or another of Mrs. G.'s children is always bursting out at her: "For gosh sake, can't you quit nagging a minute?"

Sometimes, out of her hurt and bewilderment, she tries to answer the question. She'll say, "If I've asked you to take those old movie magazines down to the cellar once, I've asked you 10 times. But I never get anything done in return for what I do for you.

"Who's the one you came to when you wanted Dad to advance you the money for that blouse you've got on your back? Who fixed your skirt last night? Who does everything to make you a good home you're not ashamed to bring your friends to?

"There's never anything too much for me to do for you, even when my arthritis is killing me. . . ."

It never does any good.

So perhaps Mrs. G. might be willing to listen twice to those words she speaks to the child who has hurt her. What is she really saying?

She is saying: "Please, please recognize what a good woman I am. I give constantly to other people. And when I don't feel like giving to them, I give anyway because of my superior sense of duty. Now that I've itemized my virtues, couldn't you credit me with the goodness I perpetually do?"

Yes, that is what she is saying.

Mrs. G.'s words are an appeal for relief from her terror of wrongdoing.

It's a cruel form of pride for a parent to indulge. When we get rid of it, the child who criticizes us no longer wounds us. We accept the possibility that we have done something wrong and are content to have done it. And so we can say cheerfully to the accusing child, "O.K.—just take those magazines down to the cellar—and I'll quit nagging."

When the possibility that we've done wrong loses its power to terrorize us, children accept our shortcomings as comfortably as we do.

But until we lose our pride in right-doing, their accusations will continue to betray us into scared, long-winded, futile appeals to change their point of view and see us as perfect, irreproachable people— which we aren't.

FACE CARE

Soap and water are enough for your face only if it's very oily. Remember that the same soap that cleanses, removes the very moisture that holds your youth.

So do use a fine cleansing cream. Take advantage of night cream, too. It is the foresight that can delay wrinkles and keep skin young longer.

Hold the look of health with a tinted foundation lotion. It is so smoothing and brightening to your complexion and it will hold in by day the same precious moisture that your night cream holds in over night.

Your Car Too Small for Her

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: A friend and I are planning to take a motor trip out West on our vacation. Another young woman whom we both know, but who is not an intimate friend, asked us what we were going to do on our vacation. When we told her she asked if she might join us.

"This person is a known complainer and we feel that she will spoil the trip for us and frankly we don't want her along. How can we tactfully handle this situation?"

Answer: You might explain that you are sorry but that your car has only enough room for you two and your baggage.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I tried to say good-by to a friend before she left for an extended European trip but something interfered and I never got to see her. I explained this to her when she returned but she seemed very much put out and I don't think she believed that I tried to see her.

"This brings up the question: Shouldn't people who are going away for any length of time actually be the ones to make the effort to say goodby to their friends and not the other way round?"

Answer: There is no rule that covers this. In general, you are right because unless the one going away says goodby how can she expect all her friends to know she is leaving.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I've just started going out with boys, only to the local movie and to church dances. Often we stop for a soda on the way home. When a young man leaves me at my door I never know what I'm supposed to say to him. Do I thank him for having taken me out?"

Answer: You say, "Thank you, John, for a pleasant evening" or ". . . for asking me to the dance," or perhaps, "I enjoyed that movie very much. Thank you."

Friction Causes Clothes to Wear

Recent tests showed that a shirt can be washed 100 times without collar-fraying if it's not worn between sudsings. But collars frayed after only 35 washings when shirts had a day's wear between tubbings.

To prevent lipstick from running in the tiny crevices and lines that edge your lips extend your regular foundation make-up over your lips to help fill in the lines with a "skin color" before applying the lipstick.

Patricia Campbell Feted

Patricia Campbell, bride-elect of Walter L. Jackson, was honored at a linen shower Sunday at the Lake Angelus road home of Mrs. Robert Evans. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Campbell of West New York street and Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Jackson of Cherrylawn street.

Guests at the shower were Mrs. Fred Cohassey, Judie Cohassey, Mrs. Ted Cohassey, Mrs. Ralph Mapley, Mrs. Jack Mapley, Mrs. Leo Morrison, Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Mrs. Fred Schram and Gail Campbell.

Other guests included Mrs. Michael Donner of Detroit, Mrs. Addison Kerby of Ferndale, Mrs. Donald Schwalm of Akron, Mrs. Martin Schember of Caseville, Mrs. O. D. Foster and Mrs. Ralph Limberger both of Pigeon, Mrs. Frank Griffo of Troy, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Jackson.

Coax Hair to Wave

Despite much moaning about straight hair, most girls have some natural wave. This can be coaxed out by religious daily brushing. Brushing hair dry after a shampoo also brings out the natural wave.

Train Child to Help at Home

A substantial percentage of American children are still being trained in good old-fashioned usefulness around the home, according to a recent study made by the University of Michigan.

The researchers found that 7 out of 10 youngsters in the 8-to-12-year brackets, help with dishes, set tables, make beds, dust, and tidy up.

Four out of 10 in this age group help care for younger sisters and brothers, clean the cellar, and wash the car.

Commenting on these revelations, a famous psychologist says tersely that children who are expected to help as a matter of course "haven't produced as much trouble for the world as children raised as parasites have."

Beet tops make a fine substitute for spinach greens and are rich in vitamins and minerals, especially iron.

Quick Spice Cake Can Have a Caramel Icing

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

We run into sources of recipes in the most unusual places. When we went to vote in the June school election, one of the election officials said she had a recipe we could use. So here is Mrs. Charles F. Rose's recipe for Spice Cake.

★ ★ ★

Charter member and first president of the Interlakes Garden Club, Mrs. Rose has many civic interests. She is a vice president of the Walled Lake Civic Club and a member of the Walled Lake Study Club.

SPICE CAKE
By Mrs. Charles F. Rose

1 cup sour cream
1 cup brown sugar
1 beaten egg
1½ cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon cream of tartar
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ cup nutmeats
½ cup raisins

Sift dry ingredients together. Put into a bowl and add all the other ingredients. Mix until all flour is moistened.

★ ★ ★

Bake in greased 8x8x2 pan at 350 degrees for 45 minutes. This may be topped with a crumb topping or a caramel icing.

Man's Wife Can Be His Silent Partner

By RUTH MILLETT

That's the kind of business partner Mrs. C. has been through the years.

From the first, she saw her husband's dream of what he wanted to accomplish, and she has helped him in every way a wife could.

She not only moved the family to a different part of the country when it meant a step up for her husband, she made the move without complaining and set about putting down roots in their new home and looking for all the advantages the new town had to offer.

Her friendliness to everyone has made her a good-will ambassador for her husband. Her hospitality has made and kept friends.

Because she has always been a good manager, the C's have always lived well on whatever her husband earned. And they have always managed to save money for the unexpected emergency or opportunity.

Because she likes, as well as loves, her husband she has always presented him in a flattering light and been happy to see him shine.

Mr. C. has always had the comfortable assurance that his wife would never let him down, that she could manage the house without his help and leave him free to concentrate on his career.

Mr. C. is now a successful man. But he could never have gone as far without his silent business partner — the woman who saw what he wanted to achieve and set about doing all that a wife could to help him.

Think Long Time Before Exploding

If you think you have been overcharged for a service, think a long time before you write an angry letter or make insulting remarks over the telephone.

If you keep your temper you won't be regarded as a sore-head.

Instead of attaching a small rattle to a gift wrapped package for baby's shower, why not tie on a tiny can of baby powder? It's just the right size to tuck into baby's traveling bag.

The little gold ring often given to a new baby may be impractical for him to wear, but makes a delightful charm on mother's bracelet. Name and date of birth can be engraved inside the ring.

Murphy Park has been the setting for the Girl Scouts' day camp for the past two weeks. Meeting three days each week, the girls have been studying lashing, nature, and outdoor cooking. An open house is planned for parents at Thursday's closing session. Scout, Lillian Rock (left) models a crepe paper Hawaiian skirt she has made, as Pam Solomon, Carol Warner and Ruth Neville work on their costumes.

RUTH TYRA

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Tyra of South Adams road announce the engagement of their daughter Ruth to Kenneth Paul Dupuis. He is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Graves of Berkshire street and the late Joseph Dupuis. A Nov. 1 wedding is planned. She is a graduate of McAuley School of Practical Nursing.

Oldster in Wrong League—Abby

Time to Stop the Game

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: When my husband hears the rustle of a skirt he loses his mind. He has been with this insurance company 40 years and is well respected around town because nobody thinks he's serious when he flirts with the young girls. He calls girls in my presence right from our home telephone and brazenly makes dates with them. When I tell him I will divorce him he says he will rot in Alimony jail before he pays me a cent. He has even suggested that I get myself a "boyfriend." I am 62 and he will be 66 on his next birthday. Is there any hope, Abby? He used to be such a grand man."

HEARTSICK

ABBY

DEAR HEARTSICK: He is probably still a "grand" man, but he is sick. Ask his insurance doctor to call him in for a thorough physical examination and tell him you suspect your husband needs a "mental" examination as well.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: My wife and I had a big argument over you. I said that only an Irish woman could turn out the kind of column that you do. She said that just because I'm Irish, I can't see how anyone else can be worth two cents unless they are Irish, too. Please settle this for us. I've got five bucks riding on you."

IRISH

DEAR IRISH: Pay her the five dollars.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: I am a teenage girl and my friends and I want to ask you a question because we know you have a teenaged daughter. Do you wait up for her when she comes home from a date? Some of us feel embarrassed when our mothers do this because we think it means our mothers do not trust us. Please put this in the paper."

TEENAGED GIRLS

DEAR GIRLS: I always wait up for my daughter when she comes from a date NOT because I don't "trust" her, but because if she has something to tell me, I want to listen — and if she has something to ask me, I want to answer.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: My husband got drunk and came home at four in the morning with lipstick smeared all over his face. He said it was tomato juice. What do you think I ought to do?"

MAD

DEAR MAD: Find out who the tomato was.

"DEAR ABBY: I am a nice looking widow with a small girl. I met a man and think he is nice. I had him over for dinner because he enjoys eating homecooked meals and lives in a room by himself.

"While he was eating I noticed he looks as though he could be bald in a few years. He has asked me to marry him but I don't think I could stand a baldheaded man. I can't make up my mind. Please help me."

CHRISTINE

DEAR CHRISTINE: What's ON a man's head is not nearly so important as what's IN it. If he is kind and would make a good husband, don't let a little thing like hair stand in your way. (Hair today and gone tomorrow.)

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: We live on a farm, but I was brought up in the city. My husband still believes in lots of things that can't possibly have any truth to them, such as if a pregnant woman watches any butchering done it will mark her child. He said his aunt was frightened by a bat before her child was born and the baby had a bat's form on his back as a result. Am I mistaken or can there be any truth to these stories?"

EXPECTING AND NERVOUS

DEAR EXPECTING: You need not be nervous. Your husband has swallowed some fish-wives' tales hook, line and sinker. Don't let him feed you the same.

★ ★ ★

McLish Snaps Tigers' 6-Game Streak

Tribe Pitcher Has Easy Time in 6-1 Verdict

Veteran Righthander on Way to Best Year Ever in Majors

DETROIT (UPI) — Success is coming late to Calvin Coolidge Julius Caesar Tuskaloma McLish. The wait has been almost as long as his name.

He added proof last night with a 6-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers to end the Tigers' 6-game streak.

McLish, who will be 33 this year, was pitching for the Brooklyn Dodgers before Bob Lemon switched from the outfield to the mound and while Mike Garcia was still in the minors.

That was in 1944. Both Lemon and Garcia went on to stardom and numerous 20-victory seasons. McLish kicked around three National League clubs, had several trips down to the minors and finally wound up with the Tribe in 1956.

His total number of Major League victories since 1944 was a paltry 19 against 32 defeats. He was again headed for oblivion this season until Joe Gordon was installed as Cleveland manager.

Since the former Yankee and Indian second baseman took over, McLish was installed as a regular starter. He's amply rewarded Gordon for his confidence with eight victories in nine games since Gordon assumed control.

The only loss was a 13-inning affair.

And now the veteran right hander's record stands at 11-6. He has a chance to equal or better his entire previous victory output in the majors.

McLish stopped the Tigers with comparative ease. His teammates gave him a 6-0 lead behind him. Charlie Maxwell's fifth inning homer prevented a shutout.

Al Kaline's first error since last September and starter George Susce's balk led to the first Tribe run in the second. Russ Nixon and when Larry Doby's single got away from Kaline, Nixon scored.

The Tribe put together five hits, a sacrifice fly and a walk for five runs in the third. Mickey Vernon's towering homer off the facing of the third deck in right with McLish aboard was the big blow.

Ex-Tiger Hal Woodeshick (3-1) who pared 25 pounds off his waistline during the winter and has been impressive in recent starts, was scheduled to work the closing game of the two-game series today against Frank Lary (10-10).

'Bullet Bob' Goes Distance for 16th Time

Turley Breezes to No. 17

By The Associated Press

You have to hand it to that fellow Bob Turley. When he starts something he finishes it. The New York Yankee ace, top winner in the majors with his 17-4 record, has completed 16 of 22 starts.

★ ★ ★

If Baltimore never sees Turley again it will be much too soon. The Orioles have scored only one run against their former teammate in 36 innings. They wince every time they think of the deal that sent Bullet Bob and no-hit Don Larsen to New York.

Turley's latest effort was a seven-hitter against the Orioles Tuesday night for a 4-1 victory that equals his personal major league high. He had a 17-13 record in 1955 the first year with the Yanks.

You can't convince Baltimore fans that Mickey Mantle is having a sub par year. Although he still is below the .300 mark at .291, he has slugged Oriole pitching for a .465 average with 20 hits in 43 at bats.

Mantle slammed his 30th home run off loser Connie Johnson with two men on in the third. It was his fourth in spacious Memorial Stadium where he failed to hit one among his 52 in 1956. The blow tied him with Boston's Jackie Jensen for the American League homer lead.

Billy Monbouquette, a 21-year-old rookie from Medford, Mass., beat Washington 7-1 for his first major league victory for Boston. Ted Williams playfully eluded a fan in the outfield until the police caught up with the intruder in the seventh. Jimmy Piersall's three-run homer was the big blow of loser Camilo Pascual.

Chicago jumped on loser Bob Grim for five runs in the third inning and hung on for a 5-4 edge over Kansas City with some neat relief work by Turk Lown.

With 49 games to play in almost eight weeks, Turley appears to have a good shot at a 25-win season for the Yanks. He ran his league-leading strikeout total to 129 by adding eight more. A walk, Gene Woodling's single and an infield out produced the Oriole run in the first.

Cleveland scored all its runs off George Susce in the first three innings. Two came on Mickey Vernon's homer. Charlie Maxwell led off the Detroit fifth with a homer for the lone run off McLish.

★ ★ ★

Burdette Cools Pirates as Braves Pad Margin

By The Associated Press

All it took was a little dose of Lew Burdette magic to cool off the Pittsburgh Pirates as National League pennant contenders. Although the Milwaukee righthander allowed 10 hits, he maintained his old spell over the Pirates.

Home runs by Eddie Mathews and Del Crandall set up the 6-1 victory last night that restored the Braves' five-game lead over San Francisco. The third-place Pirates, over whom Burdette owns a life-time record of 16-3, dropped seven games behind the leaders.

The Giants came from way back, trailing by six runs at the end of six innings in Chicago, only to lose to the Cubs 10-9 in the 10th. Ernie Banks' single chased home an unearned run at the expense of Johnny Antonelli in the 10th.

Cincinnati rallied for three runs in the last of the ninth to top Philadelphia 6-5 as Frank Robinson knocked in the tying and winning runs with a two-run double off Dick Farrell.

St. Louis broke out of its batting slump with 21 hits in a 13-3 romp over Los Angeles. The result shoved the Dodgers deeper into the cellar. Wally Moon was the Cards' big hitter with a homer and three singles, driving in three runs.

Burdette shut out Pittsburgh for seven innings on the way to his 11th victory. Successive singles by Dick Groat, Hank Foiles and pinch hitter Ted Kluszewski finally produced the run in the eighth. All Milwaukee scores were charged against Ron Kline who gave up all five Brave hits for his 10th defeat. Mathews hit his 22nd with one on and Crandall his 13th with two on.

Banks, a leading candidate for Most Valuable Player honors in the National, had four hits, including his 31st homer, high in both leagues. Rookie Morris Thacker also homered for the Cubs and Leon Wagner and Orlando Cepeda for the Giants.

The Giants tied it in the ninth on a wild pitch by winner Glen Hobbie only to lose on an error by Danny O'Connell, a walk and Banks' single.

RACES — Chuck Partello of Rochester is having a banner season racing modified hardtops. He is one of the leading winners at the Mt. Clemens track this year.

American Trackmen After Solid Victory

U.S. Leads in Hungary Meet

BUDAPEST, Hungary (UPI) — Olympic champion Tom Courtney, making what could be his last real attempt to break the world 800 meter record before retiring, was expected to lead United States track and field forces to the completion of a solid victory over Hungary today.

Although no official tally of points was being kept, the U. S. men's team held a 66-30 lead over Hungary going into today's events while the Hungarian women led the U. S. women's team, 33-30, in unofficial standings.

Courtney, former Fordham star from Linvingston, N. J., already holds the world 880 yard record and is anxious to add the 800 meter mark, too, before he ends his brilliant career. He came out of semi-retirement to compete on this U. S. touring team and expects to quit completely after the meets here and at Athens, Greece.

Courtney said he expected today's race would be his last good chance at the mark of 1:45.7 held by Belgium's Roger Moens because of better competition here than is expected at Athens. Courtney bid for a record last weekend in Warsaw and burned himself out too soon, finishing second in a 1:46.7 race.

"Even if Courtney should not succeed, we are sure he will turn in an excellent time," said U. S. official Daniel J. Ferris.

One world record already has been set in the two-day meet — Istvan Rozsavolgyi of Hungary clipped three-tenths of a second off his own accepted world mark for 1,500 meters by running the distance in three minutes, 40.3 seconds.

A crowd of more than 50,000 at Nep-Stadium saw American athletes win six of eight men's events and three of five women's events yesterday as the tournament got under way. In addition, they led in qualifying for the men's and women's 100-meter dashes.

Ira Murchison, former Western Michigan University star, qualified for the finals in the 100-meter dash yesterday with a first in his heat in a time of 10.4 seconds.

Murchison also ran a leg on the winning U. S. 400 meter relay team at the U. S.-Hungary meet while Hayes Jones, Eastern Michigan speedster, ran a leg on the U. S. "B" relay team that placed second behind Murchison's quartet.

For Junior Teams Next Week

Baseball Districts Here

Pontiac junior baseball switches from the city playoff level to the important district tournaments next week when playoffs are held here in three divisions.

A two-team Class D event, six-team "F" meet and five-member Midget meet will comprise the playoffs. Pontiac will have an entry in each. City representatives will be decided in title games Monday.

Class F and Midget play will be held Aug. 12 and 13 while the lone "D" contests will be at Wisner Field Aug. 13 at 4 p.m. with Pontiac meeting St. Clair Shores.

★ ★ ★

Saginaw, Center Line, Roseville, East Detroit and St. Clair Shores will be the visiting "F" team with all but St. Clair Shores also sending Midget contingents.

Saginaw and Center Line have already drawn byes into the Class F semifinals. Pontiac will play Roseville and East Detroit takes on St. Clair Shores in opening contests.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac and East Detroit will play the Midget opener with the other three entries certain of reaching the semis on byes. Games in Class F and Midget will be at the Jaycee and Columbia-Joslyn diamonds.

Aussies Disappoint in Tennis Tourney

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (AP)—What's with the Aussies? Too much grass or not enough class?

Tournament officials running the Eastern Grass Court Tennis Championships weren't too sure what the answer was today. But they were emphatic about their displeasure over the poor showing of the boys from Down Under.

Aussie Ace Ashley Cooper took a second round 6-3, 6-3 drubbing yesterday from John Cranston of San Marino, Calif., and when a player ranked only 29th in the United States whips the Wimbledon and Australian champion, it's time to start asking questions.

★ ★ ★

One tournament official said, "These Australians do not seem to be trying. They just look upon this tournament as a place to practice. They don't care if they win or lose.

State Archer Sets Record

Big Rapids Man Takes Lead in National Bow and Arrow Tourney

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Bob Bitner, a 21-year-old bow and arrow salesman from Big Rapids, Mich., shot a record single-day score Tuesday and seized the first-round lead in the National Target Archery Tournament.

Bitner's 983 for the first day of York shooting broke the mark of 974 set in 1955 by Joe Fries of Los Angeles, the 1957 champion, who is not defending his title.

In the 60-yard section, Jim Caspers of Racine, Wis., piled up a score of 202, breaking the record of 196 set by Pat Chambers of Portland, Ore., 20 years ago.

Bitner is 30 points in front of Jack Wilson of Springfield, Mo., who had a first round 953. Wilbert Vetrovsky of Cleveland is third with 947. Ernest Henkel of Minneapolis fourth with 938 and Caspers fifth with 935.

Carole Menihart, Pittsburgh housewife and national women's champion the past two years, posted a 1,136 in the first National and Columbia rounds to take a narrow lead in the women's division.

9th-Inning Single Nets 5-4 Triumph

Jim Wall's Service rallied to eliminate Drayton Drug in nine innings, 5-4, in the 1st round of the single-elimination Waterford National League softball playoffs Tuesday night at Drayton Plains.

After scoring twice in the bottom of the 7th inning to tie the score and force the game into extra innings, Wall's triumphed in the 9th when Daryl Donaldson singled to send home Jack Pote with the deciding run. Pote had four hits for the winners.

In regular season American League play yesterday, Ed Miller pitched Lakeland Pharmacy to a 2-0 victory over Nonne's Drive-In.

Legion Playoffs Start Thursday at Clawson, Troy

Junior Legion league champions Southfield, Lapeer, Flint and Owosso swing into zone eliminations Thursday morning at the Clawson city park and Troy High School diamonds to determine the area representative to the Michigan playoffs scheduled for Bay City Aug 15-16.

The tourney will continue through Friday and Saturday before a winner is determined in the double elimination system.

Two games will be played daily at 9:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Southfield dominated the county loop losing only to Clawson.

110-Pound Angler Lands Record Bass

While fishing off Cuttyhunk, Mass., a few days ago, a 110-pound women from Branford, Conn., landed a record (for women) striper that went 65 pounds. The big bass was taken by Mrs. William P. Rosen. 5-feet-two inches tall, on a trolling rig using a lead-center line. The fish beats the present accepted record by four pounds.

The bass was 56 inches long.

Fishermen's Luck Good at Lakeville

Anglers at Lakeville Lake have been having good luck with the big ones, according to reports from boat liverymen.

George R. Wood, of Royal Oak took a one pound, 13½ inch long bluegill; James Conley and Charley Weiss, Lakeville, caught a 3 and ¾ pound fish, and several 2-pound smallmouth bass.

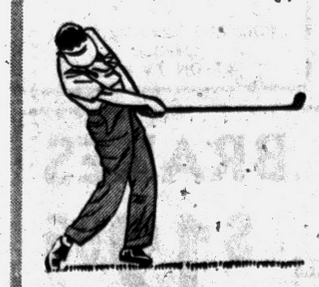
Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Mid-round Blowups.

DIAGNOSIS: Success Goes to Your Head.

TREATMENT: Many golfers just can't stand golfing prosperity. They go along for a few holes hitting the ball well and scoring well, and all of a sudden they start swinging too hard and ruin everything.



They seem to feel that their good shots can be made a lot longer and better if they let out some notches and pile on the power. So they start trying to kill the ball off the tee and first thing they know their timing is gone and their score are soaring.

I know it's hard to keep yourself in check when you're meeting the ball nicely and solidly on the clubface. You yearn for those extra yards. I do it myself—even after all these years of playing.

You must stay within your limits to play good golf. Pace yourself. Keep thinking. Swing hard, sure. But be sensible about it.

Jets Plaster Union, 16-1

Make 16 Hits in 'A' Massacre; Goldsworthy Stars in 'B' Game

The Jets unloaded a 16-hit attack against pitcher Ted Reaver of CIO Local 594 yesterday and rolled to a 16-1 triumph in Class A City League baseball action at Wisner Field.

★ ★ ★

In Class B warfare at Jaycee Park, Dick Goldsworthy hurled a sparkling four-hit game as the Boys Club downed Pontiac Business Institute with ease, 6-1.

Goldsworthy struck out 16 batters and his shutout was ruined in the 8th inning when Leroy Nicholas blasted a home run. Bill Hayward clouted a homer for the winners in the top half of the same stanza.

Hurston Avery and Gene Cox each made three hits for the Jets during their murderous assault on Reaver and three other players collected two safeties apiece.

★ ★ ★

Cox pitched the first five innings and received credit for the victory. Dick Cloonan finished on the mound for the Jets and yielded the CIO'S lone run in the 6th. The badly mistreated Reaver went the distance.

Nevada Racer 1st Qualifier

SEATTLE (AP)—Bill Stead of Reno, Nev., whipped the monstrous mahogany Maverick up to 119.956 miles an hour yesterday and opened Seattle's annual week of speedboat madness by becoming first to qualify for Sunday's 51st running of the Gold Cup race.

Game is set for 8:30 p.m. at Orion Waterworks Park, and the public is invited. Orion's Small Fry Baseball league will also benefit from sales at the concessions, which it will operate.

Satchell Paige Suspended

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Leroy "Satchell" Paige, Negro pitching phenomenon who retains the ability to win at age 50 or so, is under indefinite suspension by the Miami Marlins of the International League.

General Manager Joe Ryan said the suspension was imposed for "utter disregard of rules."

It followed the placing of Paige on the club's inactive list Monday at Montreal. Paige had quit the team for about an hour during the weekend but returned and pitched at Rochester Sunday. He was quoted as saying he wanted an unconditional release from Miami.

Paige accused the Marlin club of not paying him the salary due him and not giving him any meal-money for the 13-day road trip.

Ryan said Paige had made advances on his salary and that he didn't get meal-money because he wasn't around when it was passed out.

Satchel has a 9-7 record for the Marlins.

Ex-World Series Hero Brawls Aboard Airliner

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Dusty Rhodes, hero of the New York Giants World Series victory in 1954, and one-time Giant pitcher Joe Margoneri were fined Tuesday for a fist-swinging brawl aboard an airliner.

Crew members aboard the plane said the brawl, which took place Monday, was so violent that chairs and tables on the airliner were broken. Stewardess Betty Hunt said both men had been drinking.

But members of the Phoenix Giants, for whom the two now play, said a bit of boyish ribbing led to the fight.

Rosy Ryan, general manager of the Giants, said both players were fined but would not disclose the amount. Rhodes and Margoneri, once again are the best of friends, Ryan added, and anyway — it wasn't much of a fight.

The plane was flying the team home from Portland when the fight broke out. The plane commander, Capt. Joseph Seday ordered both players off at San Francisco International Airport and asked airport police to escort them to another plane. Airport police officer Leo Bunner said both appeared friendly as they boarded another airliner. Seday declined to press charges.

Neither Rhodes nor Margoneri were available for comment.

Field manager Red Davis, who was on the plane, said the fight capped off a lot of ribbing between the pair.

Both apologized, he added, and promised to avoid further trouble. Davis gave this account:

"I was in the back of the plane when someone asked me, 'what's the trouble up front?' I see Rhodes and Margoneri goin' at it. When I get there, (shortstop) Andre Rodgers and (pitcher) Curt Barclay have 'em separated. The only thing I saw broken was a meal tray.

"No one else was in on it. The fight lasted, say, five minutes. Nobody got hurt. We brought Margoneri to the back of the plane. But he goes back up front — and they start all over again.

"We get 'em apart again and I told 'em, "you guys better cut it out—or you'll lose your paychecks.' They were quiet after that. Then the captain asked them to get off the plane.

(Davis estimated the plane was flying at about 14,000 feet when the fight broke out.)

Rhodes' batting prowess led the Giants to their 1954 World Series victory over Cleveland. He has a .269 average and 20 homers this season.

Wilson Watches Bears Win 24-7 Scrimmage Test

Ex-MSU Signal Caller Ninowski Is Probable Starter for All-Stars

By BRUNO L. KARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

When the cat is away, the mice will play.

Bob Dove and Bob Nussbaumer conducted a short workout in the afternoon and the Lions were free men the remainder of the day.

"It's good to let up once in awhile," said Nussbaumer, "we have been pushing it pretty hard since camp started."

In the scrimmage, which was a 65-minute affair, the Bears trimmed the All-Stars, 24-7 with the lone All-Star touchdown coming on a five-yard pass play from quarterback Jim Ninowski, probable All-Star starter from Michigan State, to Dayton's Fred Dugan.

The Bears opened the scoring when Ed Brown tossed a 50-yard pass to Harlon Hill. Charley Sumner intercepted an All-Star pass and went 57 yards for another touchdown and the third came on a 51-yard pass from George Blanda to rookie Ed Anderson. Blanda also kicked a field goal.

"Naturally, we didn't expect the All-Stars to show us anything out of the ordinary," said Wilson, "but we were mainly interested in their personnel."

"We were able to get some idea on the blocking and tackling, and also the defensive abilities of some of players," he added.

★ ★ ★

The Lions returned to full twice-daily workouts today with most players reported in good physical condition. Some of the older veterans such as Lou Creekmur, Bobby Layne and Jim Martin were keeping the scales registered several pounds under their weights of the 1957 season.

Layne's throwing arm hasn't lost its touch. He and Tobin Rote were hitting Jim Doran, Jerry Reichow, Steve Junke and rookie end Harry Mackay with regularity yesterday morning.

Mackay, who came into camp as a free agent, made three outstanding catches for long gains.

NFL NOTES: Milt Davis, all-pro safety of the Baltimore Colts, suffered a hip injury yesterday and would be out of action for at least 10 days . . . . Tom Catlin, former Oklahoma center, has been nominated by Cleveland coach Paul Brown to cal ldefensive signals. . . Buddy Parker of the Steelers says he is pleased with the way his three quarterbacks, Earl Morrall, Len Dawson and Jack Kemp have been throwing.

VETS IN SHAPE — The three oldest veterans on the Detroit Lions' squad now training at Cranbrook all reported a few pounds lighter and good physical condition. Lou Creekmur (76), Bobby Lane (22) and Jim Martin (47) have 29 years among them in pro football. Layne starts his 11th season, Martin and Creekmur their 9th.

4 Finalists Decided in Junior Playoffs

Pontiac Boys Club had two teams in the finals and the Yanks and Cranbrook were other finalists as the City Junior Baseball League playoffs moved into the 3rd round today at Jaycee Park.

The city Boys Club reached the final round in the Midget division and Class F, the Yanks advanced to the finals in the Widget division and Cranbrook moved into title contention in Class D on the Jaycee diamonds.

B&B Cleaners stranded four runners on 3rd base while dropping a 2-1 decision to Boys Club in Midget action. Tom Zink hurled a three-hitter to outpitch Rudy Ranson who allowed six safeties.

Auburn Heights Boys Club eliminated Welden's from the double elimination tourney with a 3-1 triumph in the other Midget contest. Lynn Thorpe twirled a two-hitter for the winners and Hoppi Wagner bowed on a three-hit effort.

Pete Vasquez pitched four-hit ball and Darryl Thorpe collected three safe blows to pace Class F Boys Club to a 5-1 verdict over Tel-Huron. In the remaining "F" game, Auburn Heights Boys Club ousted Clarkston with a 10-5 victory after trailing in the early stages, 3-0.

The Yanks clinched their berth in the finals with an 11-run explosion in the 2nd inning which enabled them to coast to a 15-8 conquest of the Little Braves.

Glen Shook pitched an ill-fated no-hitter for the Little Tigers as they fell before the Rockets, 4-3, in the other Widget game. Jim McLeer was the winning hurler on a five-hit effort to eliminate the Tigers.

John York scattered five safeties during Cranbrook's 6-3 victory over Lytell & Colgrove. The remaining Class D game saw Birmingham sideline Don Nicholie with a 9-5 rout. Birmingham made 10 hits, one a two-run homer by Bill Muenchinger, and Darrell Lovell socked a two-run circuit clout for the losers.

Survey Shows an Increase in Organized Boys' Loops

CHICAGO (AP)—The number of baseball playing kids in organized team and leagues increased more than 30 per cent this year, a survey by the Athletic Institute showed Tuesday. But they still include only about 15 per cent of those eligible.

The survey, covering nine major organized programs, plus an estimated 125,000 participants in miscellaneous programs, showed 2,438,233 boys eight years old and upward playing this year. A similar survey in 1957 listed 1,754,400 participants.

The institute's publication, Sportscope, says there are approximately 17 million youths in the age groups covered by these programs. Thus the players included are only about 15 per cent of the total. At the present rate of increase, it estimates five million will be playing in various youth programs by 1968.

Largest of the kid baseball organizations is Little League, which takes in 4,800 leagues, 24,000 teams and 1,320,000 players from eight to 12 years old.

The American Legion junior baseball program, whose players are 16 and over, has 600,000 players on 20,000 teams and Babe Ruth League, for 13-15 year olds, lists 102,885 players on 6,859.

Minor League Duty Assigned to Jack Tighe

DETROIT (AP) — Jack Tighe, the deposed manager of the Detroit Tigers, now is on minor league assignment for the baseball club.

Swinging back to baseball after an extended rest at his Spring Lake, Mich., home, Tighe has gone to scout the Tigers' Decatur Club in the Midwest League and the Idaho Falls team in the Pioneer League.

Tighe was relieved in June and replaced by Bill Norman. At the time, both Tighe and the club said he would remain in some capacity. The Tigers have not disclosed what future plans they have for Tighe.

College Cagers Face TV Camera

NEW YORK (AP)—College basketball will be televised nationally on a Saturday afternoon game-of-the-week basis starting Dec. 14.

The National Broadcasting Co. said today that the college telecasts would replace the pro basketball series which had been switched previously to Sundays.

The college basketball series will run 14 Saturdays, concluding March 21. There will be no game on Dec. 27 when the Blue-Gray and East-West post-season football games will be televised.

The schedule of games has not been drawn up.

Konchis Hurls No-Hitter

Playoffs in Final Round

Championship pairings were completed in all four classes last night at Beaudette and North Side parks and eight teams will go for broke tonight on the same diamonds in the finals of the double-elimination tournament.

Class A — Elks No. 810 vs. VFW Post 1370, Beaudette, 8:30; Class B —CIO Local 594 vs. Stadium Inn, Beaudette, 7; Class C — Pontiac Police vs. American Legion Post 20, North Side, 8:30; Class D — Post Office vs. Spence Rambler, North Side, 7.

All of last night's games were in the loser's bracket and the four teams that reached the finals — VFW, Stadium, Legion and Rambler — face "do or die" situations this evening against their undefeated foes.

Fred Konchis and the VFW furnished the biggest news yesterday by surprising Birmingham, 6-0. Konchis pitched a magnificent no-hit game with three walks, a hit batsman and an error giving the losers their only base-running opportunities. The VFW, meanwhile, was rapping out 10 safeties off veteran Roger Reynolds.

Jim Bird's single in the bottom of the 7th inning drove home Maurice Stack and handed Stadium a 3-2 victory over Blue Star Drive-In. Blue Star tallied twice in the top of the 7th to tie the score, then Bird delivered his game-winning blow.

For the 2nd straight night, pitcher Ken Spears of the Legion won his own game. Spears hammered out a two-run single in the top half of the 7th as the Legion came from behind to defeat the Pontiac Merchants, 3-2.

Spence Rambler advanced to the "D" finals with a 4-2 decision over O'Neil Realty. Foust clouted a solo home run for the winners in the 6th inning.

Walker Cupper Aces

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Mason Rudolph, Walker Cup golfer from Clarksville, Tenn., said Tuesday he intends to play golf professionally.

Cincinnati Royals Get 4 From Hawks

CINCINNATI (AP)—Cincinnati's Royals acquired four players from the personnel-rich St. Louis Hawks Tuesday in a pro basketball trade.

The new Royals are:

Jim Palmer, 6-8 rebounder who starred for Dayton.

Wayne Embry, also 6-8, a Miami Ohio, standout.

Ken Siddle, 6-5 Ohio State veteran.

In return, St. Louis will get the Royals' No. 2 draft choice next year or a player to be agreed upon.

SMU Grid Ace Moves to Oklahoma Campus

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Ronny Payne, star football player of Breckenridge, Tex. High School, said Tuesday he was changing from Southern Methodist to Oklahoma because his brother, Jerry, is at Oklahoma.

Payne said he always wanted to go to Oklahoma and although his father, Dr. Frank Payne, once a football player at SMU wanted him to go there, "my brother being at Oklahoma had a lot to do with my changing."

Heavyweights on TV

CHICAGO (AP) — Philadelphia's Sonny Liston goes after Wayne Bethea of New York and his 12th heavyweight victory in a row tonight at Chicago Stadium.

The 10-round bout will be nationally televised over ABC-TV beginning at 9 p.m.

Water Skiers Back at Sherwood

11 States in Midwest Test

By H. GUY MOATS

One weekend of fine competition in water skiing calls for another, at Lake Sherwood. Following on the heels of the tight Michigan Championships of last Saturday and Sunday, followers of the mushrooming water sport will be given an even bigger and more expert demonstration of the game on Aug. 9-10, at the same location.

★ ★ ★

"The public is invited without cost", says chairman Dwight Holton of the host Lake Sherwood club. "They will see some of the finest water ski performers in the country in action during the two days of competition."

Eleven states will be represented in this regional competition, says Holton. The goal of the event is to qualify for the big nationals at Shipley, Ga. on Aug. 23-24-25.

Program for the Midwest follows closely the pattern of the Michigan Championships. Friday will be devoted to qualification runs, and for practice sessions. Competition gets under way Saturday at 7 a.m. runs through to 6 p.m. Final day's tests also start at 7 a.m.

One of the youngest ski experts in the country will be here, seeking a nationals' birth. He is Mike Emsinger, 10, of Indianapolis, Ind., who holds an expert rating among the juniors. His father is Fay Emsinger, and his mother, Marion, both Midwest entries.

At the other end of the list — oldest entry — is 56-year-old Rollie Wililams of Elkhart, Ind. Rollie's daughter, Sharon, 22, is the defending woman's all-around champion. There are several other prominent brother-sister and family skiiers on the entry list, expected to total more than 110.

Among the top contenders coming here to seek new laurels, is Sue Maurer, 17, of South Bend, Ind., 2nd in jumping, 4th in tricks in 1957, Sue is in the women's division now and is expected to pose a real threat for the title.

Norinne Bendill, 16, of Toledo, Ohio, high placer in trick and slalom and junior jumping last year, has already qualified for the nationals and the world tourney at Jamaica, last of August. She is the big junior threat for the Midwest.

In the under-17 group are Dave Eckner, 1½, and Bob Juhl, 156, of Elkhart; George Lowing, 16, White Bear Lake, Minn.; Terry Nergaard, 17, of St. Charles, Ill., all in the top five of the 1957 regionals.

They'll battle the Michigan champions, Scott Smith, 16, of Port Huron in jumps; Phil Willis of Wolf Lake, in slalom and Kent Obert, 15, of Pontiac and Jim Dawson, 15, of Jackson in trick events.

Ruth Pointer, 17, Grass Lake; Arlene Carter, Holland and Joann Burgie, 16, of Devils Lake, club are strong contenders, in women's events. Among the state men contenders are Bill Riskey, Dave Lake and Roy Fullerton who finished 1-2-3 in the jump, last weekend.

Preacher Teaches 'Y' Class

Sailing Complex Sport

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Rev. Ensworth Reisner, a minister of the First Methodist Church here, is an expert sailor who has raced in four international regattas of the Lightning Class, one of the country's largest.

He teaches sailing five times a week at the local YMCA.

Sailing, Rev. Reisner points out to his students, is an infinitely complex sport. Mr. Reisner says he once figured there are 300,000 ways to adjust the rigging on a 19-foot Lightning Class sloop.

A sailing crisis, he says, can bring the calmest skipper to a boil in seconds.

"But sailing," Rev. Reisner declares, "is the closest thing I know to the deep experience of prayer." He adds:

565 Dogs Named for PKC Show

The field for the annual fall outdoor, all-breed dog show by Pontiac Kennel club will include some 565 dogs of scores of breeds and many varieties. When entries closed Tuesday noon, the list was just about the same as for the 1957 show, PKC officials reported.

★ ★ ★

Show, and obedience trial, take place Aug. 17 at the Waterford High Athletic field, where facilities will be provided for shelter in case of inclement weather.

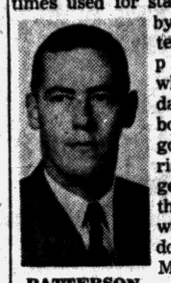
ALL-AROUND KING — Master-Sergeant Hal Myers, U. S. Airforce Base, Westover, Mass., garnered more top honors than any other shooter in the big National Skeet Championships at OCSC, that wound up six days of action Saturday. Above are Myers, left, with Dave Crosby of Concord, Mass., after they won the two-man world crown. Myers took the all-around crown, also won the husband and wife title with his woman's champion helpmeet, Betty.

Canoe Trip Offers 'Escape'

August Is 'Fun Month'

By JACK PATTERSON

August is a fun month; nothing about it being suited to serious endeavor. Althought it is sometimes used for starting wars it is by tradition and temperature a playtime. So, when on the last day of July neighbor Bob Nelson got us out at sunrise hour and suggested we kill the balance of the week with a run down the Big Manistee we did not argue.



PATTERSON

Since there are many odd jobs on a canoe trip that are made to order for youngsters, Bob took along his boy Jim, and at bow paddle our own Joe.

Drifting down from the M72 bridge in the gathering twilight came the reflection that this canoeing business is one of the few easily contrived civilization-escapers left these days. Of course, there are many areas along the river that are well-cottaged, but then there are miles of uninterrupted spruce and cedars and one could easily be on the Southwest Mirimichi.

The most pleasant part of canoeing, perhaps, is the complete independence of the operation. With all facilities for transportation, eating, sleeping, drinking and fishing at hand or underfoot, the only problem is finding a suitable night layover spot, which on the Manistee is no problem at all.

A typical day sees camp broken, fires out and the expedition afloat by eight. With fishing gear rigged, bow paddler does most fishing, while stern paddler attempts to keep to the inside of the bends and present the deep water to the fisherman. There are occasional changes of paddlers to equate fishing time.

Time out on the bank for lunch and a nap for the oldsters and considerable tearing around for the youngsters, then back afloat to pick up some necessary mileage. In the heat of the afternoon a tie-up for a swim in the sandy shallows and deep, cold sandy runs where the current grabs hold and the swimmer fetches up far downstream.

After camp has been set up and dinner is out of the way, and it's dark and the moon isn't yet up, one fisherman slides into waders, feels his way into the dark stream and listens for the "chunk" of a heavy fish. For a time there's company. Bats trying for the fisherman's fly, whip-poor-wills calling, a family of coons out hunting. Then things quiet down and it's very still on the river. The air temperature is down to 58 and the water doesn't feel cold and it's been a pretty good day, all things considered.

EARY START — Six-year-old Tomy Crites, one of two little lads belonging to ex-NSSA prexy Chesley Crities, was much in evidence at the recent Nationals at OCSC. Tommy, above, lugged a replica shotgun around, but his proud dad says he really gets in some work with a .410. Larry, five, also shoots the little gun, Crities says. They start these skeet shooters young!

Little Stories About Outdoors

Norman Hook, son of "Shorty" Hook, long-time boat liveryman at Pine Lake has a boon companion in "Beede" which he says is East Indian for Little Lady. Beede is a 13-year-old dog (combination of beagle, pointer, and Irish setter). She was given to Norman by his dad who received Beede as a door prize at the old Keego Vets hall in 1945.

She has been Norman's faithful friend ever since that time. But her big claim to notoriety is her ability to catch fish. Beede walks into shallow water, stands still until unwary bluegills swim close when she ducks under water to grab the fish. Norm says she gets several some days.

Watching her husband, daughter and three sons glide about Lake Orion on water skis started 45-year-old Mrs. Henry Goodsell, Pontiac grandmother, on the belief she could do it, too. And she did, becoming probably the only area grandmother in the thrilling sport. She had her first try at Orion a week ago, and did OK, says her daughter, Mrs. Louis (Bonnie) Fournier.

★ ★ ★

Recent world skeet tourney here proved to be an event of universal appeal in its contestants. There were millionaires, wealthy men in industry, finance, business, big and little manufacturers, ranchers, merchants, engineers, salesmen, professional men and women of scores of categories. All had a common interest. Many "followed the sun" around the big-time skeet circuit.

★ ★ ★

And they're all good shooters, like Joe Frost Sr., from San Antonio, Tex., banker and 3-times NSSA All-American. There's Eugene Dupont III, and wife Carol Lee, of the Wilmington, Del. chemical family. Like F. Stuart Molson, Montreal brewery head, owner of the Canadien NHL team, and new NSSA prexy. Like colorful Texarkana, Ark. minnow dealer, Lew Gordon. Like little Eddie Brown. Ken Sedlecky, Katy McGinn (Texas), Bob Shuley of Illinois, Judy Allen of California, and M. Sgt. Hal, and wife Betty Myers from a U.S. Army air base.

Pike Fishing Rated Fabulous

"Any one who has never experienced the thrill of pike fishing on the Montreal river in Canada has missed something fabulous," says M. J. O'Brien, 74 Ogemaw road. O'Brien took his 13-year-old grandson, Timmy O'Brien of Sandusky Ohio, on a three-day trip to the famed fishing area reached by storied Algoma Central railway.

"Timmy got the biggest, a 12-pounder which we brought back along with a half dozen others averaging six pounds. We threw back 35-40 in the three days, lost a lot of lures. Hospitality of our host, Lester Patton (who lives near Pontiac) was out of this world," says O'Brien.

Rangers Plan Show for Coming Weekend

Some 25 events have been arranged for Sunday's Michigan Association approved western horse show, sponsored by the Michigan Rangers Saddle club. Event takes place two miles west of Davisburg, on the Davisburg road. Action begins at 9 a.m. and the show runs through the early afternoon. Rain date is Aug. 17.

Irish Setter Club Has Specialty Show

Entries closed yesterday for the regional specialty show, Aug. 17, at Farmer's Market in Royal Oak, for the Irish Setter Club of America, with Michigan Irish Setter Club as host.

Lester O. Gatchell, president of the Irish Setter club of America will be the judge.

Crosswinds Hit WLYA, Scramble Club Fleet

Spotty breezes and crosswinds that hit the Watkins Lake Yachting Assn. races last weekend, did some intermixing of the thistle and lightnings, except for the leading thistles. Don Zannoth and Phyllis Seabaldt were 1st, Harm Gillen and Paul Saghy in Jim Parshall's Tar Baby were 2nd.

Glenn Fries, with wife Jo, and Neil Wheeler won the lightning event, trailed closely by Jack Berlein in his new boat, with Mrs. Berlein and Gene Morris. Dave and Jo Green with Art Hoover were 3rd.

Shoot Set for Aug. 9-10

Shotgun Title at Stake

The annual Michigan Shotgun Championship will be held on the Williams shooting fields Aug. 9th and 10th. Sponsored by the Williams Gun Sight Company, this tournament is one answer to the age old question — "Who is the best all-around shotgun shooter?"

There never has been a perfect score in this tournament, and it's doubtful if there ever will be because each shooter must compete in trap, skeet and the bird field. 25 targets on each field. The best score ever posted was a 71 shot by Mack Seagraves of the Lansing Police Department who won the championship in 1956.

There are many shooters who break a hundred or so targets straight in skeet or trap — but — in this tournament — it's the tough bird field that makes the difference. In its six years of operation, only four shooters have ever run 25 straight on this field.

Shooters are expected from all over Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Canada, etc. Spectators are welcome to watch this unusual tournament. Meals will be available in the spacious club room that overlooks the shooting layout.

Shooters desiring to participate should contact the tournament chairman, Dale Williams, of the Williams Gun Sight Company, Davison, Michigan. Phone: Davison, OLympia 3-2440 or Flint, PIlgrim 2-2120.

Union Lakers Hold Annual Boat Parade

Final arrangements have been made for the 2nd annual Union Lake boat parade, set for Sunday, Aug. 10, starting at 1 p.m. Event is sponsored by the Dewey Beach Improvement Association.

Boats may be registered at the Embree and Gregg office, 1565 Union Lake road. Entries are still being taken for the parade, for which the winners will receive a cup and ribbons. Nine prizes in all are provided.

Sergeant Talks 88 Hrs., 37 Min., Then Gives Up

PLATTSBURGH, N. Y. (AP) — S.Sgt. Thomas A. Johnson quit his attempt at setting a world's talking record and went home to bed today. His tired vocal chords had spieled for 88 hours and 37 minutes.

★ ★ ★

At 4:30 a. m. Capt. Oscar Ruiz, an Air Force doctor, advised Johnson to quit or risk permanent injury to his voice. Johnson complied.

Sentenced to Life for Shotgun Killing

KOUNTZE, Tex. (AP)—Bryant W. Bowles, 38, was convicted and sentenced to life in prison last night for the shotgun murder of his brother-in-law James Harvey, 35.

★ ★ ★

Bowles, founder of the National Assn. for the Advancement of White People, showed no emotion. His wife, an expectant mother and a sister of the slain man, fainted.

Witnesses said Harvey slapped Mrs. Bowles in a family argument the day before he was shot to death last May 4 at Loeb, Tex.

Defense lawyer Joe Goodwin of Beaumont said he will appeal.

Hollywood Headlines

Is Film Musical Dead? 'No,' Says Cyd Charisse

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

★ ★ ★

She admits she is on the defensive. The number of musicals has sagged to almost nothing, whereas they once constituted almost a fourth of the Hollywood product. The reasons are many.

"Mainly, it's because musicals are expensive," she admitted.

The five-month strike of film musicians also contributed to the decline. And there is the repeated claim that musicals do not sell overseas, where about half the profits must come in order for the studios to survive.

"I hear that all the time," Cyd said angrily, "and I don't think it's true. The whole thing started because 20th Century-Fox had bad luck with a couple of its musicals in Europe. They were 'Carousel' and 'The King and I.'

"But those weren't movie musicals in the strict sense. They were filmed stage plays. There was little dancing, and most of the songs were sung in closeups. Some of the songs were cut in Europe, because they didn't understand them over there.

"But none of my numbers from "Meet Me in Las Vegas' or 'Silk Stockings' have been cut in Europe, and those pictures have done well over there."

"TV has made dancing less important," she said. "It used to be a real treat to go to the movies and see Fred Astaire dance. But now you see dancing every time you turn on the set. You see lines of girls on the variety shows — even girls dancing around a big box of cleaning powder for commercials.

"But dancing in movies still has its advantages. It's impossible to make dancing really effective on TV. The screen is too small, and the cameras can't move fast enough to get the right angles."

She sees hope on the horizon. A top producer was moaning to her weeks ago that he'd never make another musical, despite her arguments. Recently, he confessed to her that he had several planned.

Man Quits Driving After 40 Years

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) —The pace of today's traffic has prompted an 80-year-old Grand Rapids motorist to surrender his driver's license and give the keys of his 17-year-old car to a son-in-law.

"I'm too old to cope with today's fast-moving traffic," said Kuensel. "I don't want to hurt anybody and I don't want to get hurt."

Kuenzel's voluntary surrender of his license was brought to the attention of Michigan Secretary of State James M. Hare who wrote him:

"Your fine attitude shows common sense and good citizenship. We in the department of state would be thankful if more men and women of advanced age with delayed reactions would decide for themselves that they are not qualified to cope with present-day traffic."

A Heel at Bay!

The guy with the smooth line, the sophisticated heel, whose love-'em-and-leave-'em attitude toward women is his life credo has been depicted in motion pictures before, but never with such complete devastation as it is in the United Artists release, "Kings Go Forth," which will open tomorrow at the Oakland Theater.

The picture tells of two GI's, played by Frank Sinatra and Tony Curtis, stationed in southern France, who fall in love with an American girl, played by Natalie Wood, who lives a rather secluded life with her widowed mother (Leora Dana). To say they fall in love is not quite the truth. Sinatra falls in love. Curtis sees the opportunity for a quick romance, which means some fun while it lasts and then—"lady, good bye."

When Sinatra learns that Curtis has no intention of marrying the girl, he forces him to tell her the truth. There is an added fact which makes Curtis' behavior even more despicable. The girl is part Negro, her father, now dead, had been a Negro, and the family moved to France to escape racial prejudice.

Curtis uses this situation as an excuse to break his promise to Natalie Wood. In her mother's presence, he tells her that he has been with many girls before in his life, but at least they were white. The mother becomes infuriated beyond words, and the girl shrieks with shock.

His Satellite Plan Shocks Pentagon Brass

Boy Scientist Gets Security Check

By HARRY MILLICAN

NEW YORK (UPI) — The trouble with being a 12-year-old scientist — even if you do design a manned satellite so similar to top secret Pentagon plans that you have to undergo a security check — is that it just doesn't pay enough. That's the complaint of Jonathan "Johnny" Orovitz, boy space expert.

Squirming restlessly on a divan in the comfortably-furnished living room of his family's three-bedroom house in Kew Garden Hills, the pudgy, brown-haired lad admitted readily in an interview that he had enjoyed all the public acclaim accorded him.

NEEDS MONEY

But he said so far none of it had brought him any closer to attend the California Institute of Technology, where he hopes to become a real "space engineer."

"It isn't that we're any more mercenary than anybody else," his short, plump, black-haired mother, Mrs. Beatrice Orovitz, 43, said.

"It's just that it takes every cent we earn in our little women's wear shop to get along. We'll find the money for Johnny's college somehow when the time comes, but we were disappointed when all the fanfare about him produced not even a single scholarship offer."

HAS 'SPACE BUG'

Jonathan, who acquired the "space bug" last November when Russia sent its dog-carrying Sputnik II aloft, got an idea early in June and promptly drew a three-foot-long, cardboard-mounted plan for a satellite rocket capable of taking a man into space for two weeks and then returning him safely to earth.

Then he typed out a letter and sent the whole works to Roy W. Johnson, director of the Advanced Research Projects Agency, the Pentagon's new space coordinating organization.

A few days later he got the first reaction — in an entirely unexpected form. A government gentleman from Washington came to call on him and spent several hours asking searching questions.

"There must be a thousand different ways to ask 'who helped you with this' and he used every one of them," Mrs. Orovitz recalled. "He finally became convinced that the whole business came right out of Johnny's skull and went back to Washington."

Two weeks later, Jonathan got a letter from Johnson praising his design and containing a paragraph that solved, so far as Mrs. Orovitz is concerned, the mystery surounding the visitor from Washington.

"Your design has all the elements of a workable system, and, in fact, is not very different from one of a number of systems that have been under consideration," Johnson wrote.

"I didn't have a college education and I don't know what Johnny is talking about half the time," said Mrs. Orovitz, "but I caught on to this all right. They thought somebody in the Pentagon had leaked some information which eventually got to Johnny. Can you imagine that?"

Johnson also wrote that he had turned Jonathan's design over to the National Science Foundation, and that's where the build-up to a big let-down began.

The entire Orovitz family including Jonathan's father, Louis, 51, a commercial artist turned storekeeper, and another son, David, 9, who can't decide between big league baseball or singing like Elvis Presley — gathered around a brand new encyclopedia.

They discovered that the National Science Foundation, established in 1950, not only gives cash grants to scientific undertakings, but also passes out scientific scholarships. All of them jumped to the conclusion that a scholarship was what Johnny would get.

Disillusionment came fast when they contacted the foundation. The organization, it seems has money for scholarships for post-graduate work, beginning at the pre-doctorate level, but nothing for a boy still in junior high school.

"I simply won't stand for it," she said. "To begin with I have no way of knowing just how thorough Johnny's knowledge is, and I do know he's a temperamental child. Suppose he missed the very first question, which he very well might. Can you imagine what this would do to him after all this fame?"

★ ★ ★

In the meantime, Jonathan is much too busy to worry about where his college tuition and expenses will come from. There are his studies when school opens again, summer day camp now, studying everything about space flight that he can lay his hands on, designing of a larger and more advanced satellite — and trying to wheedle a new bicycle from his mother.

Double-Deck X-Way on Couzens Mall OK'd

DETROIT (UP) — Construction of a double-deck expressway in the center mall of James Couzens Highway on Detroit's Northwest side has been approvd by the City Streets and Traffic Commission.

Th $33,000,000 project would extend 3½ miles to link the northern end of the Lodge Expressway with Northwestern Highway at Eight Mile Road. The City Council still must approve the plan and has set a public hearing for Aug. 15.

Uncover Loot Worth $4,000

Waterford Authorities Raid Home of Suspect Held With 2 Others

The arrest of three men has led area police and sheriff's deputies to the discovery of more than $4,000 worth of stolen goods.

Much of it was reported stolen from the Ace Auction Sales Co., 2616 Dixie Highway, Waterford Township, about two weeks ago.

Some of the stolen property has been traced back to burglaries as much as a year ago, said Maur.

Others arrested were Easton Ray, 24, of 691 Brown Rd., Pontiac Township, and Billie White, 25, of 118 Church St., Ortonville, said detectives.

Worthum and Ray were arraigned on breaking and entering in the nighttime charges yesterday before Waterford Township Justice Patrick K. Daly.

Ray waived examination and was bound over to circuit court for arraignment on August 11. He was held on a $5,000 bond. Worthum demanded examination and was held on $10,000 bond. The date of his examination has been set for August 20.

White is scheduled to be arraigned today. The three were apprehended by Waterford Township Police and sheriff's deputies when they were spotted sitting in a car behind the Ace Auction Sales firm at 2:30 a.m. Saturday.

The loot was discovered in Worthum's attic after authorities had obtained a warrant to search the home.

News in Brief

Pontiac Police wondered yesterday whether to look for a dog or a human after it was reported that someone had broken into the Michigan Animal Rescue League, 790 Featherston St., and stolen three bags of dog food value at about $5.

James Anthony, of 466 Highland St., reported to Pontiac Police Tuesday that someone had stolen the radio, headlights and dome light from his car while it was parked at a gas station at Paddock and Wilson streets.

Boy, 5, Dies of Injuries

DETROIT (AP)—Glenn Quinn, 5, died today of injuries suffered last night when he was struck by a car after dashing into a street near his home. The driver was not held.

Stocks Mixed in Early Deals

Key stocks generally had fractional changes. Aircrafts were higher and some oils also made headway.

Trading turned quiet shortly after the opening rush in which the ticker tape momentarily fell behind in reporting transactions.

The market appeared to be taking a breather after two hectic sessions. There was little in the way of major business news to affect investor sentiment.

Getty Oil, yesterday's most active stock, rose a major fraction in heavy trading. Standard Oil (New Jersey) and Royal Dutch also worked higher. However, Gulf and Union Oil of California gave up fractions.

★ ★ ★

Goodyear lost about a point. Also down were Bethlehem, General Motors, American Telephone & Telegraph, Kennecott, Kaiser Aluminum, General Electric and Liggett & Myers.

Commission Slates 3 Public Hearings

Three public hearings are scheduled for what is expected to be a brief session of the city commission tonight.

Two are on intention to construct sanitary sewers, the first on the north side of Montcalm street, Wing to Portland; the other on Lounsbury avennue, from Stanley towards Blaine.

The third hearing is on intention ot construct curbs and gutters on Longfellow avenue, from University to the Pontiac, Oxford and Northern Railroad.

Minor communications comprise the other items listed on the agenda, according to City Clerk Ada R. Evans.

Housewives Believe It's Already Here

U.S. Consumers Facing Inflation Threat

(Editor's Note—Is the stock market right about more inflation being a sur thing? How much more? What can be done about it? In the following article, first in a series of three, Sam Dawson, AP business news analyst, discusses the impact on the consumer.

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Ask the housewife and she'll tell you more inflation is already here.

She isn't talking about what she doesn't buy — the higher priced ton of steel or pound of copper.

DAWSON

She's talking about what the family pays out — the higher prices for meat, the increased cost of her husband's getting to work, the bigger bills for keeping the children healthy, the latest rent boost Ask the businessman and he'll tell you more inflation is a real threat. He's talking about the increases in the price of metals and other basic materials, the higher wage scales, the greater transportation costs — all pushing him toward raising his prices to you.

Ask the economist and he'll tell you more inflation isn't a sure thing yet but a tossup.

He concedes the threat from the increase in the money supply which seems sure as the government borrows more and more from the commercial banks. But he also notes that while there's likely to be too much money around, there aren't too few goods for it to chase — the capacity to make more goods is already in place waiting for demand to call it into production.

Inflation is no economic theory for the consumer. It hits him where he lives. For him it simply means that the cost of living goes up.

If more inflation is really coming for sure, your present income won't buy as much. If inflation is big enough, your income won't buy what you need, let alone what you'd like to have if you could.

If you're lucky enough to get your income boosted along with the cost of living, you're likely to end up in the same old rut anyway — just keeping even with what in time can become a losing game.

For the consumer a new threat of inflation comes on top of what looks bad enough right now. By official figures what $1 would buy 10 years ago and $1.20 would buy last year, it takes $1.24 to buy now. If you talk about what a buck would buy in 1939 you have to talk now about what $2 will buy.

Food prices average 8 per cent higher than last year. The Agriculture Department says 60 per cent of the increase is due to farmers' getting higher prices and 40 per cent to marketing concerns', getting more. Meat prices seem high in the store. Well, live hogs are bringing 11 per cent more now than last summer; beef on the hoof 22 per cent more.

But food prices are moved up or down as much by weather and marketing problems as by pure monetary inflation. It's in other fields that the consumer may be hurt next.

The recession didn't bring the general drop in prices that many expected, so any new inflation would start from a high level.

The average consumer spends 14 per cent of his income on durable goods. Their average price reached a record high in November 1957 at 110.9 per cent of the 1947-49 average. and it slipped back only to 109.6 per cent in June — before the rise in metal prices which bring the new threat.

Soft goods prices reached a peak last November at 117.4 per cent of the 1947-49 average and slipped only to 116.5 per cent by this June.

★ ★ ★

Food prices are today's villain. These seem likely to ease in the months ahead. But standing in the wings are threatening rises in other prices now — in durables, and in the cost of the services you've come to demand.

Incumbent Ticket of GOP Intact

er was Wallace E. Rice, 14,529 votes, and surveyor, Robert J. Lowney, 14,267.

Winner in the Democratic nomination for clerk-register of deeds was John E. Kronnberg, 34-year-old manager of the Royal Oak-Berkley Secretary of State's office.

Kronenberg, of 711 N. Altadena Ave., received 9,916 votes to 7,086 for his opponent, Emil F. Jaworski, 41, of 691 Stanley St., a worker in the Aircraft Division of Chrysler Corp.

Matched against Sparks, who hopes to enter his 26th and 27th years as treasurer, will be William K. Benson, a Ford factory millwright from Rochester.

The race Nov. 4 for the county's newly-created position of clerk and register of deeds will be between Kronenberg and 34-year-old Murphy, incumbent register.

It was the second time that West, court officer for Berkley, has lost to Murphy in a nomination race. In 1956, he trailed Murphy by 3,700 votes for the Republican nomination for register.

Louis G. Barry was unsuccessful in his attempt to step out of his job as Sylvan Lake city manager into the county treasurer's office. Barry was Sparks' first primary opponent since 1935.

★ ★ ★

Barry's brother's bid for drain commissioner remained intact as he downed Becker, a Detroit printer living in Southfield. This year marks Daniel Barry's try for a second two-year term as drain commissioner.

Lawson, the Democratic winner against Utley for the prosecutor nomination, was elected Farmington Township justice in April, 1957. He is 33 and lives at 28136 Sybil Ct., Farmington.

Hicks gained 8,621 to 5,553 for Francis J. Stephenson, supervisor, 2,024 for William S. Dahlerup, 1956 repeater, and 1,359 for Herbert Koester, retired Detroit policeman.

Station Wagon Tops in '58 Plymouth Line

The custom 4-door suburbans accounted for 13.8 per cent of the total 1958 production. In 1957 the station wagon model was 7.4 per cent of production.

Charges Favoritism at Pontiac General

Surgical rules at Pontiac General Hospital, which four doctors claim restrict their practice, favor "a certain group" of doctors that make them, Dr. Leonard Blackwell said yesterday.

"If we don't get the business, they do," Dr. Blackwell, 36, of 51 Niagara Ave., declared outside Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams' courtroom.

★ ★ ★

Besides being denied the right to perform certain operations at Pontiac General, some doctors cannot use "powerful medication" for their patients, Blackwell told City Attorney William A. Ewart.

Blackwell said he didn't believe all rules and regulations should be abolished. But he hinted that the doctor should be made "more the judge" of what is good for his patient instead of the hospital.

He refused to name the doctors who he said the surgical regulations "favored." "I wouldn't object to a set of rules written by out in yesterday's primary balloting by 1,079 votes. Meagher won 9,598 to Elias' 8,519.

On the other side of the political fence, in the Republican race for the 12th District Senate post, the picture was the same as in past years. Challenger for the fourth straight time, Richard D. Kuhn, 32-year-old Pontiac automatic car wash owner, lost.

Incumbent Sen. L. Harvey Lodge, Pontiac attorney and resident of Waterford Township, bowled over Kuhn, also of Waterford Township, 12,511 to 5,866.

The 55-year-old conqueror of Kuhn will be seeking to serve a second two-year term in the Senate when the November election rolls around. Lodge represented Pontiac in the Michigan House of Representatives in 1947-48.

Lodge, a member of Senate committees on waste in government, elections, and county home rule, lives at 6610 Longworth St. His opposition in November, is Meagher, a licensed pharmacist. He specializes in the sale of drug stores now.

Williams Trounces Foes

FOUGHT GOVERNOR

Johnson, Martin and Mohardt ran on a slate that campaigned against Williams' political kinship with labor leaders. Williams' advisor had predicted Johnson would get only about 40,000 votes.

Both Bagwell and Johnson claimed there was nothing about the primary that would add luster to Williams' stature as a presidential contender.

"It is my firm belief that Williams will never attain his ambition to be President or vice president of the United States," Johnson said.

"He not only will never be president," said Bagwell. "I am confident he will never be governor again."

Johnson conceded defeat about 11:30 p.m. But Williams, who munched ham sandwiches while he listened to returns at his Lansing home, did not issue his victory statement until 1:30 p.m.

All 18 sitting Michigan congressmen were renominated in Tuesday's primary, including Democratic Reps. John Lesinski Jr. and Thaddeus M. Machrowicz who overcame strong oposition.

Lesser challenges were brushed aside by Reps. Charles C. Diggs in the 13th District, Louis C. Rabaut in the 14th, Martha W. Griffiths in the 17th, Clare E. Hoffman in the 4th and William S. Broomfield in the 18th.

By far the closest battle was waged in the 16th District, where Lesinski bid for a fifth term nomination against three opponents, but notably Carl Stellato, president of Ford Local 600 of the United Auto Workers Union.

Republican state candidates pointed to the scrap as evidence of the domination of labor, and particularly the UAW, in Michigan Democratic politics.

However, in union affairs Stellato frequently has been at odds with UAW Chief Walter P. Reuther, reputedly a power in Democratic affairs nationally as well as in Michigan.

In the first district, Marchowicz, of Hamtramck, won 27,861 to 14,822 over Russell S. Brown Jr., who quit as a Wayne County parole officer to make the race.

The race, in a district divided almost equally between Poles and Negroes, was regarded as a sensitive affair in high Democratic circles and Gov. Williams was quick to declare neutrality. Brown is a Negro.

Hoffman ran away from his two opponents, beating his nearest rival, Prosecutor Luther I. Daines of Van Buren County, about three to one.

★ ★ ★

FOUR . . .

BEDROOMS — 11x9, 11.6x12, 10 x 12, 15.5x10! Why be cramped? This is your opportunity to give that boy or girl a room of their own. And, for you, dear parents, a 24-ft. living room, a separate 11x12 dining room, 12x14 kitchen with built-in oven and range, stainless steel double sink. Mother, you will enjoy the luxury of wall-to-wall carpeting and the ½ bath off kitchen. But when Dad sees the basement—with fireplace and miles of workshop, he will be convinced the house was built for him. Yes, and it will suit his pocketbook too. Only $20,800 with reasonable terms.

WOULD . . .

YOU LIKE TO SEE A SPARKLER? Yes, a 28x34 beauty built in 1953 Oil heat, Fully insulated. Blacktop drive to full two car garage. 15 x 15 living room and a wonderfully arranged kitchen. Storms and screens. This home is the cleanest we have ever had the pleasure to list. Lake privileges too! $10,900, very reasonable terms.

$800 DN. . . .

Will buy you an outstandingly attractive bungalow, two car garage with blacktop drive, a lovely lawn with evergreens, with everything inside and out in top notch condition. The kitchen has windows on two sides and oodles of cupboard space. Living room is 15x15! Big bedrooms Oil heat. BETTER HURRY!

AUDIENCE PICKS HITS — TV disc jockey Dick Clark, who plays eight hours of pop music each week, insists that it's the audiences who select the big-selling songs. He is the host of "American Bandstand" which appears in the afternoons Monday through Friday over the ABC-TV network.

He Must Learn What's Wanted

Insists Disc Jockeys Can't Make Poor Song Into Top-Tenner

By DICK CLARK

NEW YORK (AP) — Take two round, shiny, black records. Ten weeks from now one will be the biggest hit in America; the other will be just a sad memory for the artist who made it.

How do you tell which is which?

A musical show becomes known for the quality of music it plays; if you can spot hit material far enough in advance—ideally, before release—and then "give it a ride," your audience comes to expect good records of you, and jes' grows.

But you can't make a hit out of a tune that doesn't have the potential; all you can do is bring it before a bigger audience and make more people dislike it. And spotting incipient top-tenners is a full-time job.

Aside from your own, fallible intuition, you have three main sources for tips on future hits—mail, personal contact and, most important of all, hops. It may seem unusual for a network performer to play local record hops in and around Philadelphia, at scale or gratis.

But I'd willingly pay out my own money to go on running these affairs for teenagers, and not as a matter of charity, either. May I never get so smug that I stop doing hops; that's where I find out what records are going to do what.

We usually arrange for the 500 to 1,000 teenagers who will be attending to submit requests in advance. A big chunk of these requests will always be for the current hits.

But if I spot a sizable minority requesting a brand new record, one that's only been played on the air once or twice, I know I'm on to something. During the dance, too, I get a chance to chat with the youngsters, and I learn what records to watch.

I'm lucky enough to operate out of one of the "heppiest" areas of the country. Among the most sensitive barometers for new records are Philly, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Pittsburgh and Boston; these and a few more cities will pick up a future hit faster than any other part of the United States.

In each of them I have pals in the music business, and we talk almost daily by phone.

Girl Gassed as Fumes Unleashed

SANTA PAULA, Calif. (AP)—A teen-age girl is in critical condition from poisonous ammonia fumes which swirled through a crowded trailer camp.

Every pet dog, cat and bird in the Pepper Tree Trailer Park was killed.

Gas-masked rescuers went into the gas-cloaked park to remove those unable to aid themselves. Ambulances shuttled back and forth between here and nearby Ventura, taking the victims to Ventura General Hospital.

Sixty persons were hospitalized. All but five, all children, were treated and released.

Listed as critical was Linda Baudizzon, 13.

Comedian Kaye Snubs Citation, Forfeits Bail

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Danny Kaye may have been the main attraction on stage at the Greek Theater, but backstage it was something else again.

The comedian forfeited $5 bail yesterday when he failed to appear in court to answer a citation charging him with smoking backstage at the theater last Thursday.

Fire Inspector John Lansing said he cautioned Kaye against smoking and was told: "You can't do this to me. I'm the star of the show."

To which Lansing said he responded: "I'm the star of my show too, and (handing the citation to Kaye) just present this ticket at the box office."

Lana at Work for First Time Since Stabbing

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Lana Turner, returning to work for the first time since Johnny Stompanato was stabbed to death by her daughter Cheryl, 14, said:

★ ★ ★

The blonde actress, looking slim and glamorous, distributed kisses to her producer, director and cameraman yesterday and then went into rehearsal on the film, "Imitation of Life."

Cheryl was cleared by an inquest jury in the stabbing of her mother's sweetheart.

Gets Army Contract

DETROIT (AP)—Allen Electric & Equipment Co. of Kalamazoo has been given a $441,525 government contract through the small business administration to make battery chargers for the Army Signal Corps.

Jailed for Tax Evasion

DETROIT (AP) — A supermarket and racing stable owner of suburban Allen Park, Albert Perrino, has started an 18-month term in federal prison for evading $98,427 in income taxes in 1951 and 1952. He also was ordered to pay a $10,000 fine. Perrino, operator of the Al Mar Stable, pleaded guilty to one count of a two count indictment.

Jack Barry Hits It Off but Show Costs Plenty

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Quizmaster Jack Barry tap-danced, sang and belted the piano in his night club act which broke in at the Atlantic City 500 Club — and while he was good, he wasn't any financial wizard, according to the B'way mob of character assassins.

"He got $4,500 a week," one of the Big Brains was saying in Lindy's.

"He spent $9,300 on material, $2,500 on arrangements which he threw away, $2,000 on new material, and $600 a week to two girls who'll also be paid when he's off. He'll play one week in Miami for $2,600 and it'll be time to go back to TV seriously. If he'd just play Las Vegas and get clipped at the tables, too, he could be a h--- of a success at a cost of only about $50,000."

WILSON

★ ★ ★

THE TV BEAT: Mrs. Jack Benny will announce that she's joining her girl friend Gracie Allen in TV retirement. ("I'd bring my wife up here on stage," Jack recently said in Las Vegas, "'except she can't do a --- --- thing!") . . . Jackie Gleason's down to 222 and will be even thinner when he plays the guy in the barroom in Saroyan's "The Time of Your Life" on Playhouse 90 Sept. 23. "I want to be thin so nobody'll mistake me for Toots Shor," he says . . . George de Witt reports a TV star saying, "How I envy the audiences, being able to sit around enjoying me."

★ ★ ★

Pan Mail: "Listen, Wilson, why don't you learn the truth about Sinatra being a fighter? He never was a belter. It's a joke back home in Hoboken when you say he can fight. Patty Prince (4-feet-9) slapped Sinatra once and Frankie boy ran away. The real belter was Bob Anthony (the singer) who always defended Sinatra —Tony Pollota, Hoboken (on vacation in Hollywood)."

Let's you and them have a rematch.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Shelly Winters is wearing her hair long and she explained to a chum, "Sure I got to wear it longer than my husband's." (Tony Franciosa's locks are down his neck for "The Naked Maja" pic about Goya in Rome . . . John Jacob Astor puts vodka in a grapefruit and lets it soak and ice overnight. Makes a very healthy breakfast food, we do hear.

★ ★ ★

EARL'S PEARLS: "The trouble with political jokes," says Tony Pettito, "is that they get elected to office."

Iraq's Leader Indicates Withdrawal From Pact

BAGHDAD (AP)—The head of the new government of Iraq in his first public statement on the Baghdad Pact gave strong indication yesterday his regime is leaning toward withdrawal from the Western-sponsored alliance.

Brig. Gen. Abdul Karim Kassem, who led the revolt that dethroned and killed King Faisal, said in an interview that his government is giving careful study to the pact which U.A.R. President Nasser and the Soviet Union so often have assailed.

"The most important thing in this matter is friendship between Iraq and other states," Kassem declared. "This friendship is above any kind of pact or treaty."

The alliance with Britain, Iran, Pakistan and Turkey was "drawn up by a few people here in Iraq," he said.

"Though we have studied it, up until now we have been unable to get from those connected with the administration of the Pact any details about the Pact's function because these details were considered secret and are still secret to us," Kassem went on.

"We are studying, and then we will make our decision. But the decision won't be announced without previous contact with other members. We want everything to be settled in a friendly manner."

Nor will Iraq interfere in the affairs of neighboring Jordan, Kassem continued. But he said he thinks a plebiscite should be held in Jordan to determine whether the people want King Hussein to keep his throne.

Smoking Rules Set for Timber Workers

NEW YORK (AP) — Smoking a cigarette means much more to a timberman in the wood camps of Ontario than to the average smoker. There are certain restrictions to be observed.

Timber workers for newsprint companies must roll their own, remain seated while smoking and use only lighters. Matches are banned.

The Newsprint Information Committee says the rules were instituted as a fire prevention method. Factory-made cigarettes, the committee said, burn longer and may revive from the tiniest spark even when stepped on and believed extinguished. Seated, the smoker has been found to pay more attention to ash and butt disposal.

Charles Chaplin Jr. Weds Actress Susan Magness

Name of 'Olive Green' Could Mean Plenty

CHICAGO (UPI)—What's in a name? Plenty, if it happens to be Olive Green.

The Spanish Green Olive Institute said it's looking for a woman by that name to help celebrate green olive week. If found, she will be crowned "Green Olive Woman of the Year."

Makes Same Mistake

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI) — Perry Denson, 27, on parole for robbing a service station, was arrested yesterday for robbing the same service station again.

TV Dance Party Set

NEW YORK (AP) — The Arthur Murray Party, with Kathryn Murray as hostess, will start the new season on NBC-TV Sept. 29.

Atlas Firing Called 'Military Milestone'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Air Force Secretary James H. Douglas says the firing of an Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile at Cape Canaveral, Fla. Saturday was a "major military milestone in the Atlas program."

Douglas said the missile reached speeds in excess of 15,000 miles an hour and traveled a horizontal distance of more than 2,500 miles.

Gets 'Harvey' Role

NEW YORK (AP) — Marion P. Lorne has been cast as Elwood P. Dowd's sister in "Harvey," to be presented by CBS-TV Sept. 22. The role was created on broadway by the late Josephine Hull. Art Carney was announced previously as the star.

Australia's coastline extends about 12,200 miles and includes the nearby island state of Tasmania.

Bob Considine Says:

Boeing Bombers Scare Kremlin's Rulers

SEATTLE — The symbol of the peace — such as it is — is the breath-taking sight of 8-engined B52s still coming off the production lines here at Boeing's huge plant.

All you can do is whistle softly at the sight of a line of the intercontinental H-bombers, their huge rakish tails jutting four stories high, their vast wings deceptively droopy. One passes this line on the way in from Seattle's airport to town, and arrives in the city reassured.

Perhaps not even the people who build these incredible airplanes fully appreciate what they mean to the free world. They hear the statesmen of the West speak of "deterrent forces" and "massive retaliation." Really, it's a lot simpler to say. In truth, Nikita Khrushchev and every other ambitious thug in the Kremlin is scared out of his wits by the B52s and the men of the Strategic Air Command who have been painstakingly trained to fly them to appointed targets.

We detected that fear running through the interviews with Khrushchev and other leaders last November. They spoke of their great ICBMs and what they could eliminate with these missiles. But invariably the talk would come back to the B52 and what SAC could do in return.

Britain once forced a century of peace on the world through the sheer power of her navy, the Pax Britannica. Today we have the Pax Boeing, or the Pax SAC.

It is a mark of the versatility of the Boeing plant that in addition to building more B52s it is turning out the Bomarc, a 200-mile range anti-aircraft and anti-missile rocket; working on the Air Force's Dyna-soar project (which one day will produce a space bomber), and jumping back into the commercial field with both feet.

Boeing's 707 jetliner will soon open its doors to air travelers. A slightly smaller, lighter pure jet, the Boeing 720, will follow for shorter hops. As for the 707, the day it takes its first paying passengers in the air it will be the most-tested aircraft ever delivered either to the military or the transport lines.

The prototype, which cost Boeing $15,000,000 of its own money, first flew in 1955. The progenitor of the prototype, the B47, flew in 1947. The military version of the 707, the K135 jet tanker, has been roaming the earth—gassing up B47s and B52s—for two years.

As for the strength of the 707, one of these $5,000,000 planes was built not long ago simply to be systematically destroyed. It went through a torture test which must have been excruciating to watch. It's fuselage was secured and then its wing was pressured up, down, and twisted.

Then the body had to be taken from the giant presses. The 707 would not break until it had withstood violence it could not conceivably ever meet in the air. But Boeing had to know.

We asked a fellow at Boeing what would happen to the company if peace, real peace, broke out at the summit talks. He said, "Well it broke out once before, at V-J day, but now look at us—bigger than ever."

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

Police Court Judge Has Sure Evidence

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Mrs. Josephine Jefferson tried to settle her argument in court, but the judge overruled her.

The 28-year-old woman appeared in police court to answer charges of breach of peace and resisting an officer. The complainant, Sam Williams, was there, too.

The judge had just sentenced Mrs. Jefferson to 30 days in jail for resisting the officer, and found her innocent of the breach of peace charge.

"Sixty days for contempt of court," said the judge.
