STARTS 1½-10 YEAR TERM — After the State Supreme Court refused to intervene with the start of his 1½ to 10-year Jackson Prison term, convicted arsonist and Flint Teamsters business agent Jack D. Thompson (right) yesterday was led handcuffed to other prisoners out of the Genesee County Jail headed for Jackson. Thompson, 42, was convicted April 3 of burning the Latreille Dry Cleaners pickup station outside Flint. A fellow business agent Frank Kierdorf received fatal burns in the fire. Thompson's attorneys will press for an appeal to the high court.

Fourth to Create Full Squeeze on County's Roads

Expect 2¼ Million Cars to Jam Highways in State During Weekend

Area police are bracing for an Independence Day weekend that promises to put Oakland County in the middle of a two-way traffic squeeze.

The Pontiac office of the Automobile Club of Michigan estimates that 200,000 or more cars will crowd county highways during the weekend.

Close to 2,250,000 are expected on roads throughout the state.

The usual holiday rush of Detroiters either to or through Oakland County is expected to be met Friday and Saturday by an even heavier amount of traffic moving toward the Detroit area.

The Automobile Club said the Detroit-Windsor International Festival, highlighted by the appearance Friday of Queen Elizabeth II, will draw an exceptionally large number of outstate tourists.

Visitors are expected to remain for the Friday and Saturday night fireworks displays and parades.

Also expected to act as a big drawing card is a doubleheader at Briggs Stadium Saturday between the Tigers and league-leading Cleveland Indians.

MUCH HEAVIER

Highways should be much more heavily traveled than on the Memorial Day weekend, officials say. That holiday also was on a Saturday.

State Police and sheriff's deputies are mapping an all-out war against a feared high highway kill. The Fourth of July toll traditionally is second only to the Christmas holiday toll.

Troopers' passes have been cancelled and their duty shifts extended to 10 hours beginning 6 p.m. Friday and continuing through midnight Sunday.

National Guardsmen will aid troopers at both the Pontiac and Redford posts, freeing more cars for highway duty. Throughout the state 129 guardsmen will work with

Most Firms Stay Open Tomorrow

General Motors Truck & Coach plant, Baldwin Rubber and Pontiac Varnish companies are the exceptions as most offices, banks, stores and plants will maintain regular working hours tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

However, in celebration of the Fourth of July, all banks, stores and other places of business will be closed Saturday and Sunday. Normal hours will be resumed Monday.

Staying closed all day Monday will be the Pontiac City Hall.

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors has decided to keep all county offices open tomorrow and Monday, but with partial staffs both days.

TRADE DAYS OFF

Those who have to work tomorrow will get Monday off, and vice versa, according to County Clerk-Register Daniel T. Murphy Jr.

Spokesmen for the Pontiac Motor and Fisher Body Division plants said normal Friday schedules will be followed, with Saturday and Sunday to be regular nonworking days, with the exception of "minimum crews" at the Pontiac plant Saturday.

Community National, Pontiac State and Pontiac Federal Savings & Loan Assn. offices will remain open until 6 p.m. tomorrow, be closed over the two-day weekend and reopen at the regular hours Monday.

The Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce reports that most stores will be open until regular 9 p.m. closing hours tomorrow, with "Closed" signs to be hung out Saturday. Monday will be a regular work day for most merchants, the Chamber said.

Nature Will Provide Free Air Conditioning

Cool temperatures breezed into Pontiac following the rain late yesterday afternoon, dropping temperatures from a high of 87 degrees to a fresh 50 at 5 a.m. today.

The weatherman said tonight will continue cool with the low near 55. Thursday will be partly cloudy and a little warmer the high climbing to 78.

★ ★ ★

Today's westerly winds at 10-15 miles an hour are predicted to become light and variable tonight and tomorrow. The outlook for Saturday is partly cloudy for Lower Michgan, with a chance of some showers for Upper Michigan.

Police Seek City Couple Who Left Baby at Motel

A Pontiac couple were being sought today after their abandoned two-month-old baby was discovered at an Independence Township motel early this morning.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies were called to the Motel McNeive, 6584 Dixie Highway, by Manager William D. Woods, who found the infant shortly after midnight when he checked the room.

Sought are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hibb of 357 W. Huron St., to whom the room had been rented.

Michael D. Hibb, born last April, was found by Woods on a bed in the Hibb room. The infant was well clothed and appeared to be in good health. He was taken to Pontiac General Hospital to be cared for temporarily.

Woods said Hibb, 25, registered Wednesday morning at about 6 a.m. listing his address as 25 W. Howard St. Deputies found this to be his father's home, where young Hibb and his wife lived until moving to the Huron street address last month.

Woods quoted Hibb as saying they were traveling and that night driving was "easier on the baby." He and his wife left the motel around 7 p.m. Wednesday, Woods said.

"I thought they had taken the child with them, but when I checked their room around midnight, there was that little baby on the bed," he explained.

A note on the dresser listed two phone numbers of relatives and said "Call these about the baby." Deputies could obtain no clear description of their car. The license number is EM 2746.

The Hibbs had not been seen by neighbors since Saturday. Deputies said the mother has been described as "mentally retarded."

Judge Orders Sniper Tested

Wants to Make Sure Shooter of Women Is Ready for Parole

Gary A. Taylor will have to undergo further psychiatric examination to convince Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty he can return to society relieved of impulses to hurt women.

All of Oakland County, especially residents of southern communities, probably remember Taylor's rampage with a .22 caliber rifle two years ago when he took pot-shots at women.

After studying one report from the medical superintendent of Ionia State Hospital, where the wavy-haired Southfield sniper has been since 1957, stating that Taylor no longer would be a menace to society, Judge Doty decided to make sure.

Yesterday he ordered that several psychiatrists examine Taylor and report back to him Aug. 6 on their findings. The 22-year-old Taylor, meanwhile, will remain confined to Ionia.

"I want to satisfy myself he's safe to let lose on parole," Judge Doty said.

Ionia's superintendent, Dr. Perry C. Robertson, corrected an earlier recommendation that Taylor be released outright by saying he was being considered for a three-year convalescent parole.

The first report had Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem preparing to take Taylor into custody to try him for assault with intent to commit murder. Ziem's chief assistant, George F. Taylor, and another assistant, Jerome K. Barry Jr., went to Ionia "to gain some medical and psychiatric information for preparation of trial."

However, Dr. Robertson told George Taylor that his office had sent out the wrong certification on Taylor, and that he was not being

Youth Drowns at Walled Lake

Detroiter Tossed Oar Out of Boat, Swam Until Exhausted

Oakland County sheriff's deputies were today searching for the body of a 19-year-old Detroit youth who reportedly drowned in Walled Lake Wednesday evening.

The victim has been identified as Norman Payne of 19618 Fenkell. He was boating with three companions when he decided to go for a swim, deputies said.

Harold Smith, 22, who lives at the same address, and Ruth and Mary Mara, also of Detroit, said Payne tossed an oar in the water and dove in to retrieve it.

Their 15-foot rowboat was about 100 yards off the east shore. Payne drifted from the craft and tired while swimming back, his companions said.

Smith went in after him. He grabbed Payne and tried to pull him to the boat but said he was too heavy. "We both went down once and I had to let go," Smith said.

Smith swam to shore where he collapsed. He was taken to Pontiac General Hospital for a brief examination. Payne surfaced three times before sinking, the girls told officers.

Deputy William Jackson, department skin-diver, began the search at 8 p.m., 30 minutes after the incident. He was forced to stop at 10:20 due to darkness.

SHARON SMENTOWSKI

Hunt Madman in Area of Earlier Stabbing Death

20-Year-Old Victim Slashed 16 Times as She Walked in Dark

DETROIT (AP) — A young woman was stabbed to death last night on a residential street in the same general area where a knifer killed a young mother less than six weeks ago.

Stabbed and slashed 16 times, Sharon Lorraine Smentowski, 20, one of 10 children of a retired toolmaker, died on the lawn of a home.

Sharon, a 1958 St. Theresa Roman Catholic High School graduate and supermarket cashier, was killed about 10 p.m. Shortly beforehand police had answered a call in the area about a man reported brandishing a knife. The man was not found.

Dark-haired and fair, Miss Smentowski was killed on her way home after accompanying her boy friend, Ralph Schleicher, 20, to his job at a bakery in the vicinity.

HEARD SCREAMS

Residents of the neighborhood reported they had heard screams. Then the girl's body was found. She lay with one arm beneath her. She had been slashed and stabbed in the chest, back and arms.

★ ★ ★

Last May 21 Mrs. Patricia Cioffi, 27, divorced mother of two, was stabbed to death while strolling alone at night about two miles from where Sharon was slain.

Louis Roberts, 15, is in custody for the slaying of Mrs. Cioffi, a recording sales agency secretary. Police say he admitted killing Mrs. Cioffi in yielding to an urge to molest women.

The district has a mixed population, including both Negro and white residents. Most of the homes are of a modest type.

For some time, Sharon's body was unidentified.

Then a brother, Robert, 21, hearing a description of the dead girl, flung his doubled-up fists to his forehead, crying "Oh, God.

Stars Dazzle Detroit at Movie's Premiere

DETROIT (AP)—Hollywood glamor, routed by way of northern Michigan, smote Detroit last night in the best of moviedom's brightlights style.

The big show was the world premiere of the Michigan-produced "Anatomy of a Murder."

Dazzling lights of a theater marquee and the presence of star actors as well as official dignitaries combined for a lot of luster.

Judge Voelker, present with Gov. and Mrs. Williams and the mayors of Detroit and neighboring Windsor, Ont., got handshakes and applause.

In Chicago the police commissioner ruled certain phrases in dialogue were obscene and immoral and denied permission for the film to open until the words were taken out.

Detroit's reception of the movie was unrestrained — except that the audience was limited. Seats were reserved by invitation only to top-drawer people.

Among the stars on hand were Joseph N. Welch, the Boston attorney and the lovely Lee Remick, who had the female lead of the made-in-Marquette picture.

Beck, Fruehauf Plead Innocent

Both Deny Violating Taft-Hartley Act, No Trial Date Set

By The Associated Press

Dave Beck, Detroit industrialist, Roy A. Fruehauf, and another trucking executive today pleaded innocent to charges of violating a provision of the Taft-Hartley Act forbidding union officials to accept money from management.

Counsel for the defendants claimed in court today that it was a legitimate loan, violating no laws.

Beck, former president of the Teamsters Union, is charged with accepting $200,000 from Fruehauf, of 5330 Middle Belt Rd., West Bloomfield Township, and Burge Seymour, president of a New York transport firm.

Beck was released under $2,500 bound until trial, as was Fruehauf, president of the Fruehauf Trailer Co. in Detroit. Seymour was freed on personal bond. The trial date was not set.

After arraignment, New York Federel Judge Gregory F. Noonan dismissed a bench warrant he issued yesterday when Beck failed to show up on his scheduled arraignment date.

A federal grand jury indictment charged the $200,000 payment was made in June 1954, but it did not elaborate about what the money was for.

A minor defendant named in the indictment also entered a plea of not guilty. It is the Brown Equipment and Manufacturing Co., a subsidiary of Seymour's firm.

Texan Bradley Shoots 68 for Early Golf Lead

GRAND BLANC — Monte Bradley, 28-year-old professional from Hillsboro, Tex. was the surprising early leader today in the $52,000 Buick Open Golf Tournament at Warwick Hills Country Club.

He picked up three birdies on the front side and added two more on the back nine while bogeying only once for his 4-under-par total.

Pontiac's Gene Bone, host pro for this tourney, had his difficulties. He shot 40 on each side for an 80.

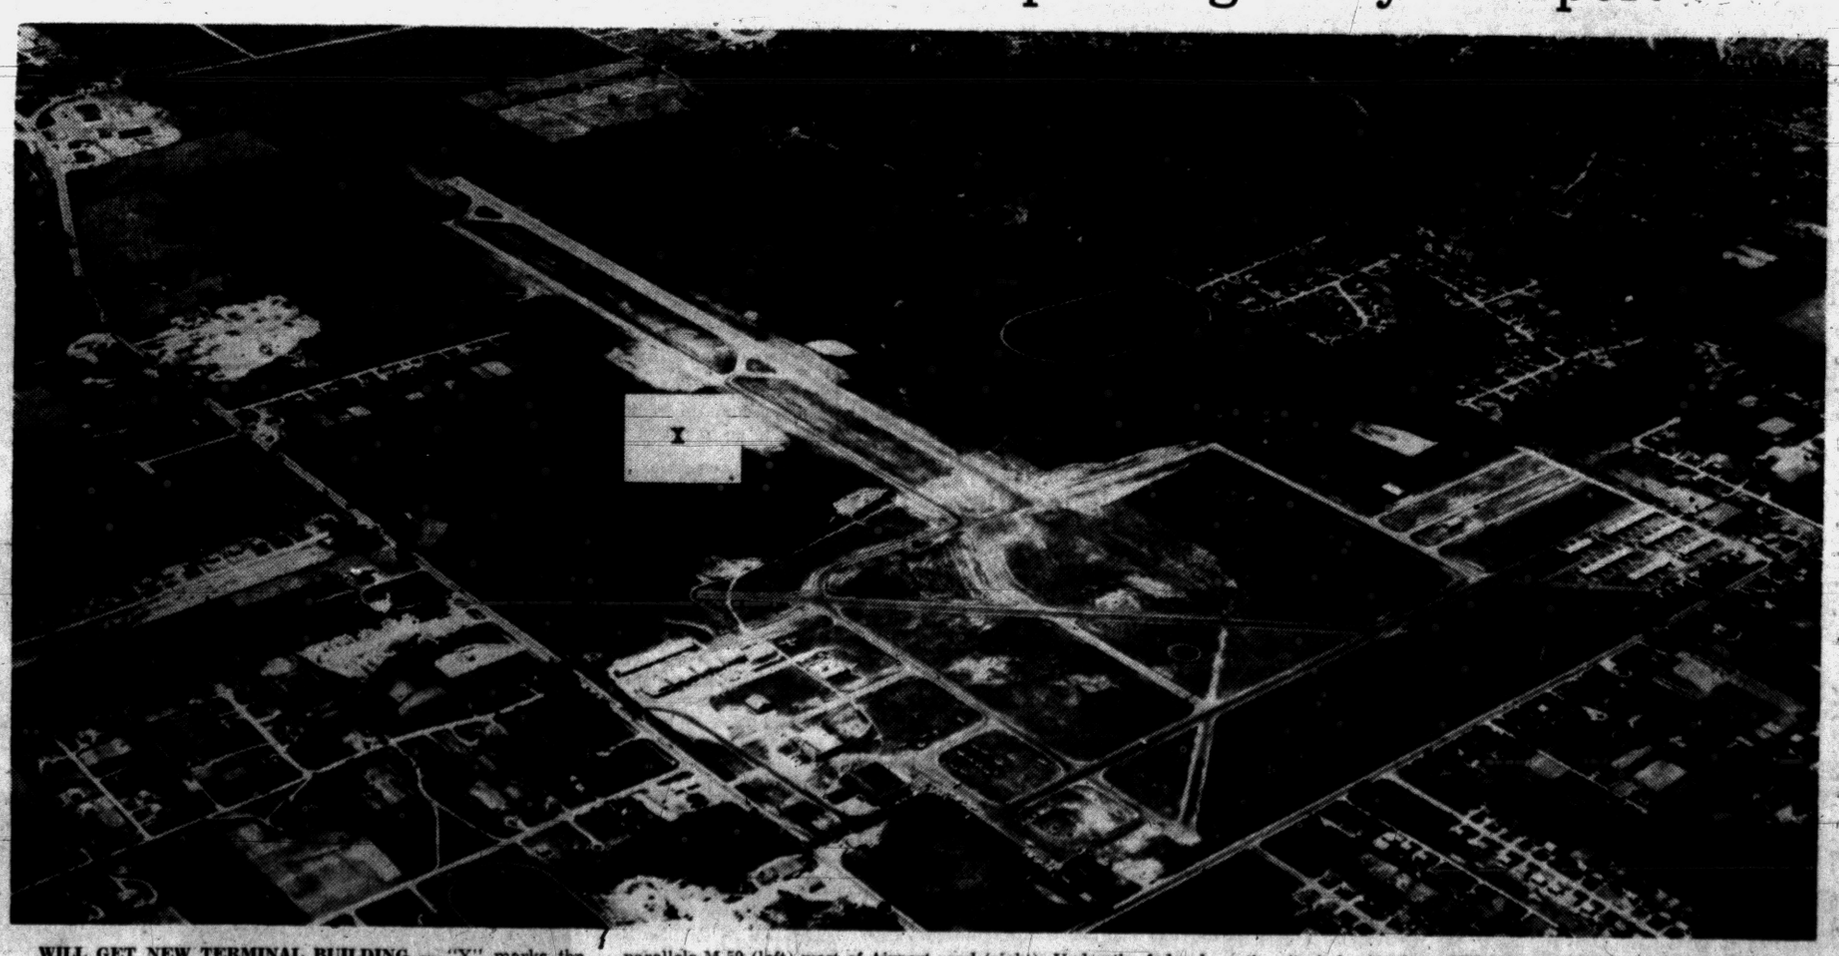
Here's Aerial View of Expanding City Airport



WILL GET NEW TERMINAL BUILDING — "X" marks the site where the new Pontiac Municipal Airport terminal building is scheduled for construction this summer. The $240,000 terminal will be located next to the expanded east-west runway (center), which parallels M 59 (left) west of Airport road (right). Under the federal aid to airports program, the city plans to spend another $150,000 this year developing the site around the terminal, constructing a new entrance way off M 59 and building a parking lot. Next year, the city is hoping for a $356,000 construction program, which would include lengthening the east-west runway from 4,000 to 5,000 feet in length to handle turbo-prop aircraft. This photograph is another in a series of aerial views of the Pontiac area The Pontiac Press is publishing.

Police, Park Officials Brace for Weekend

Waterford Township police and area state park officials are bracing themselves for one of the biggest Fourth of July weekends in the township's history.

Because the holiday falls on Saturday, and most Pontiac factories are not allowing their employes an extra day off, most residents are expected to stay close to home.

Pontiac Lake Area Office manager Tom Haddon pointed out that when there is a three-day holiday weekend, local parks are not quite so crowded.

Last Sunday, a capacity crowd of 15,000 had filled the Pontiac Lake Recreation area by 2 p.m., and family-filled cars were turned away for lack of parking space, Haddon said.

EXPECTS EVEN MORE

Even more people are expected to invade Dodge State Park No. 4 during the coming weekend, according to Park Manager Jack Weiler.

"If the weather is good, we are looking for more than 100,000 people at this park from Friday until late Sunday night," he said.

Although last year's Fourth of July weather was cloudy and rainy, 58,000 picnickers were in the park during the weekend, Weiler said.

Aided by Michigan State Police and Oakland County sheriff's deputies, Waterford Township police will go on 12-hour duty at 7 p.m. today until Monday night, Police Chief Millard J. Pender said.

The reserve officers will assist regular patrolmen on duty and five or six more will be on day shifts.

Pender pointed out that with three main state trunk lines—Dixie highway, Telegraph and Highland roads — running through Waterford Township, traffic will be heavy, and his men will be busy.

Senate Okays Foreign Loans

Direct Appropriations by Congress to Finance Development Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today voted for a two-year, two-billion-dollar program of foreign development loans to be financed by direct appropriations from Congress.

It was a compromise, offered by the Democratic and Republican leaders, of a hot issue that had developed between the Eisenhower administration and influential members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

While the total amount is greater than President Eisenhower had advocated, the Democrats yielded to his view that the funds should be handled as appropriations, subject to congressional review.

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark), chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, and others had wanted a five-year, five-billion-dollar program to be financed by simply authorizing the foreign aid administration to borrow the money from the Treasury.

considered for a total release, but rather jus. a parole to test whether he had recovered sufficiently to return to society.

Since it was Judge Doty who found Taylor insane after his shooting sprees, the law requires that he pass on Dr. Robertson's diagnosis that Taylor is ready for convalescent parole.

★ ★ ★

"The examination will be strictly for the benefit of Judge Doty to see whether he should concur with Dr. Robertson," George Taylor said.

He added: "If the doctor follows through after the examination with his suggested convalescent parole we cannot try him, but if he is released outright we have a duty to try him."

Resulting in his confinement was the testimony before Judge Doty of three psychiatrists who said then they found Taylor "unable to resist impulses to hurt women."

He also fired at more than a dozen others, police said, in Bloomfield Hills, Birmingham and Southfield Township before he was arrested Feb. 7, 1957 in Royal Oak.

Astaire a Bit Casual?

LONDON (UPI)—Dancer Fred Astaire was interviewed by newsmen at London Airport as he arrived from New York yesterday. The Evening Standard noted that he recently had been named one of the best-dressed men in the world. "What did this paragon wear today?" asked the newspaper. "Brown sports jacket, open-neck shirt and light trousers. And he chewed gum."

Satchmo Flies Back to States for Birthday

ROME (AP)—Louis Satchmo Armstrong left today by plane for home. The jazz king came to Italy for a festival of European and American music at Spoleto and was stricken by pneumonia June 16. His condition remained grave for several days.

"I'll be all right in a few days," he said at the airport. "I will be back home for July 4, my birthday."

Satch had cocktails with the ambassador last night and then went out on the town, growling his way through a Roman nightspot until almost three this morning.

It was after midnight when he arrived at Bricktops, a nightspot on Rome's glittering Via Veneto, from a cocktail party at the villa of U.S. Ambassador James D. Zellerbach.

It was just 10 minutes before three in the morning when he climbed out of the basement club, after having run through two vocals and kept up a gravel-voiced exchange with his wife, his doctor, nurse and valet and a handful of local belles.

"Finally, he says he wants to get some sleep," Dr. Alexander Schiff, his physician, said as Satchmo headed for the door, one arm around his wife, Lucille, and the other around Bricktop, the nightclub's vocalist-owner.

Oakland County Sheriff's Lake Patrol will be out in full force on area lakes, while every available man will be freed for highway duty, Sheriff Frank W. Irons said today.

The Auto Club has set a period from 4 to 8 p.m. Sunday as the anticipated time when traffic will be heaviest on highways.

CITE GRIM RECORD

Police point to a grim record as real reason for concern. There were 15 persons killed over the 78-hour Fourth of July weekend last year. Highest toll in recent years was 28 deaths over a 54-hour period in 1953.

Because the Fourth falls on a Saturday this year, police fear too many people may try to squeeze too long a trip into too short a period.

During the past eight years, statistics show, one person has been killed on the highways every three hours over the Fourth of July weekend.

Police cite the Memorial Day death toll as indicating a trend. There were 15 persons killed over a 54-hour Memorial Day period this year—the same number as died during a 78-hour Memorial Day weekend last year.

If warm weather continues, a high drowning toll also is anticipated for the weekend.

Smoke Routs 200 in Pentagon Fire

WASHINGTON (AP)—A smoky fire, smouldering behind walls, routed about 200 employes at the Pentagon today. Several firemen were overcome by smoke.

★ ★ ★

The blaze apparently began in defective wiring behind the false ceiling in the concourse area—a section devoted principally to shops and used as an entrance to the giant building.

A half-hour after the fire was discovered, officials said it seemed to be "slowly spreading," but there still was no visible evidence of flames to the hundreds of Pentagon workers who watched the fire fighters.

In addition to government fire equipment, fire trucks came from nearby Ft. Myer, Arlington County and Falls Church.

At least one shop—a branch of the Woodward and Lothrop Department Store—closed as smoke seeped into its showroom.

Ban on Michigan Highway Maps Bad Publicity

LANSING (AP) — The legislative ban on state highway maps "only gives nationwide credent to the story that Michigan is "broke," Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie complained today.

Mackie said he has ordered form postcards to be sent out to those requesting the map by mail, indicating the department sought to publish the maps and was prevented by the Legislature.

The last issue of 600,000 maps cost $34,000. The department estimated more than 100,000 went to out-of-state tourists.

At the Smentowski home, the father, Frank, 65, was frantic in his grief. He vowed vengeance on the killer.

★ ★ ★

"I'll see him on a slab," he sobbed. "I'll cut him up in little bits. If I have to go to prison for life, I'll get the guy."

Sharon, youngest of the 10 children, studied at night school to become a business machine operator while holding her daytime supermarket job.

★ ★ ★

In his own grief Robert berated young Schleicher, demanding: "Why did you let her walk home alone? You take her home every night. Why didn't you tonight?"

★ ★ ★

Schleicher told police he had said good-bye to Sharon at his place of employment. He was taken to headquarters to aid in the investigation.

Firecrackers Backfire

PUEBLO, Colo. (UPI) — Marked money passed by undercover agents led to the conviction of Tony Geonetta yesterday. The money, passed by two boys, aged 9 and 10, was found in Geonetta's till, police said. He was convicted, and fined $50, for selling firecrackers in his doughnut shop.

Long May Have Heart Ailment

Doctors Fearful as He Keeps Strenuous Pace in Campaign Drive

COVINGTON, La. (AP) — Doctors say Gov. Earl K. Long, working restlessly day and night on fourth-term campaign plans, may now have a slightly failing heart.

Dr. Victory Lief, one of four doctors attending the 63-year-old governor, said Long had a slight heart failure Wednesday.

There was no indication the Louisiana governor suffered a coronary attack, he said, but doctors are concerned about the condition. They stayed through the night at his motel headquarters here.

The governor suffered a heart attack in 1950.

Earlier, Long announced plans to adopt a 14-year-old youth he met while they were both patients at John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, Tex. The boy's parents said they had not consented.

The youth is David Rankin, son of Mr. and Mrs. F.H. Rankin of Texas City, who was hospitalized with a high blood pressure condition.

Long, in the midst of a separation suit from his 58-year-old childless wife Blanche, said simply: "He got to likin' me and I got to likin' him...I've always wanted to have a son. Well, I've wanted a daughter too, but I can't chaperon one under the present circumstances."

Long said he and David had whiled the time away playing poker and dominoes.

David's parents said their boy and Gov. Long got to be good friends but they said it was untrue they agreed to adoption.

He announced plans for a whirlwind vacation trip west to the Pacific Coast and up to Canada, then down through the Midwest possibly to Mexico. He said he would leave next Thursday.

He said he was determined to appear before the Louisiana public in four Fourth of July campaign speeches, if his doctors say he is well enough.

He said his wife tried to buy his assassination, then recanted a few hours later with the comment, "I doubt if it's true."

Mrs. Long filed a countersuit for divorce after Long sued for separation.

Ike and Mamie Wed 43 Years

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President and Mrs. Eisenhower slip off to their retreat in the Maryland mountains today to continue celebration of their 43rd wedding anniversary with an old-fashioned house party for old friends.

★ ★ ★

The couple was expected to leave this afternoon for Camp David, Md., in the Catoctin Mountains where they will be able to escape the muggy Washington heat over the long July 4 weekend.

The President said Wednesday on his 43rd anniversary that the only formula he had for a successful marriage was that it "gets happier as the years go by."

The President made the comment after grinning and blushing a bit at the lead-off question at his news conference. The reporter asked for his "formula for 43 years of successful marriage."

HAPPY EXPERIENCE

After a pause, the President allowed as how he did not have "any formula." Then he added:

"I can just say it's been a very happy experience and . . . speaking from . . . the advantage of my years, I would say this: that a successful marriage, I think, gets happier as the years go by."

It was in 1916 in the old-fashioned frame house of Mamie Geneva Doud in Denver, Colo., that 1st Lt. Eisenhower put a platinum and orange blossom ring on his bride's finger.

It was learned that the happy occasion was relived in part at a private White House party Monday night — complete with organ, white carpet and bridal veil.

The unpublicized celebration came at the Eisenhowers' farewell party for former Commerce Secretary Lewis L. Strauss and James R. Killian, retiring White House science adviser.

Eisenhower was said to have told the guests of honor that the first part of the evening belong to them.

REST FOR 3 COUPLES

But he said the latter part was reserved for six others who were present and who all were celebrating wedding anniversaries — Defense Secretary and Mrs. Neil McElroy; Army Surgeon General and Mrs. Leonard Heaton and the Eisenhowers.

★ ★ ★

The McElroys were married 30 years ago on Monday and the Heatons celebrated their anniversary yesterday.

The three "brides" then left the state dining room. Then, in a surprise reported to have been arranged by one of Mrs. Eiserhower's aides, they donned three short bridal veils and took bridal bouquets.

★ ★ ★

As an organist played the Wedding March the three women walked to the East Ballroom. On their arrival, the scarlet-coated Marine Band broke into a waltz. The McElroys and Heatons took a quick dance turn around the floor as the Eisenhowers watched.

★ ★ ★

The Eisenhowers marked their anniversary again last night with an informal party for members of the White House executive staff and their wives.

HAPPY OCCASION — President Eisenhower and wife Mamie posed happily on the portico of the White House as they celebrated their 43rd wedding anniversary yesterday evening. They had dinner alone in the executive mansion after a busy day for the President.

The Day in Birmingham

C. of C. Again Sponsors Public Fireworks Display

BIRMINGHAM — A public Fourth of July fireworks display at the Birmingham High School athletic field will be sponsored at 8:30 p.m. Saturday for the fourth year by the Chamber of Commerce.

A total of $1,000 worth of fireworks, mostly aerial displays, will be shot off during a 40-minute program. In the event of rain the program will be postponed until the same time Sunday.

Other holiday activities in the Birmingham area will include an outdoor dance, steak cookout and swimming party for members of Birmingham Country Club Saturday.

Pony rides will be available all day for the youngsters, a German-type band will play from 4 to 7 p.m. and a swimming exhibition is set for 7 to 8 p.m.

Fireworks will go off at 9 p.m. followed by a dinner dance at 9:30 p.m.

Mrs. James Scribner, who teaches puppetry to children at Birmingham playgrounds, yesterday sent out an S.O.S. for materials.

Last year, she taught the craft to about a dozen children on the playground. Tuesday, she was amazed to find 65 youngsters on hand for her class at the Adams School playground.

Mrs. Scribner foresees similar turnouts at other playgrounds. She wants as many children as possible to enjoy puppetry, but her supply of materials is dwindling fast.

She asks that parents or any interested person donate buttons, sewing scraps, yarn scraps and spools — necessary elements in making puppets.

James K. Flack is scheduled to speak Sunday at the Congregational Church of Birmingham, during the first week of the Rev. Raymond Fenner's vacation.

Mrs. Hilda Maria Hartley

Service for Mrs. Hilda Maria Hartley, 74, of 351 Lake Park Dr., will be held 3 p.m. tomorrow from First Presbyterian Church. Cremation will follow at Lake Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Mrs. Hartley died yesterday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, after a long illness.

Lost Facts Fight Last Night

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

WASHINGTON — Soviet Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov suddenly called off a scheduled trip to Maryland this morning in order to devote his time to a major address to be delivered later in the day.

Kozlov's decision came in the wake of sharp exchanges with administration leaders yesterday which apparently jolted the Soviet official.

Kozlov got caught with his facts down last night and had to own up under prodding that Communist history was in error.

He admitted American food shipments to Russia in 1921-22 were gifts. Earlier in the day he had told President Eisenhower the U.S. contributions to stem a famine were a loan that this country forced Russia to repay in gold.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter succeeded in wringing the admission from the wily Soviet First Deputy Premier at a reception in Blair House.

"I want to straighten you out on one matter," said Herter, who arrived at the reception late.

Herter recalled going down the Volga in 1922 when Russia was in the throes of a famine. "The Congress of the United States had made a gift of money to buy food for the hungry people of Russia," Herter told Kozlov. "You probably don't remember because you were young."

"I remember well," Kozlov said, "because I was hungry."

At this point, Nixon quickly interjected, "one thing about Mr. Kozlov, he's a frank talker. That's why this trip is useful."

Nixon went on to say that he had had breakfast in New York last Monday with former President Herbert Hoover, who had been in charge of the relief program to Russia in 1921-22.

"He showed me a letter from the Soviet expressing appreciation of the gift that was made," Nixon said. "It's not a question that anyone concerned should show appreciation of a gift—it's a question, as the secretary suggested, that the record should be straight."

The three - way exchange was spirited but without rancor. They seemed to be borrowing a leaf from the European receptions at which Soviet Premier Nikita Krushchev has made headlines many times with his cocktail banter.

Road Boss Faces Fine for Growing Too Much Wheat

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's highway commissioner John C. Mackie faces a $372 fine for growing six tenths of an acre too much wheat.

The state's road boss is in a position to sympathize with Stanley Yankus, Michigan's rebel wheat farmer.

But unlike Yankus, Mackie doesn't plan to pull out for Australia to protest the government crop controls.

"Id like to fight the thing as a matter of principle," Mackie said, "but it's like jousting with windmills. The whole thing is so nubilous I don't know where to go next."

Mackie got into a go-around with agents of the federal government because he runs a tidy, 80-acre farm near Holt, in Ingham County, in addition to the state's highway program.

He put in 55 acres of corn this year and what he thought was 15 acres of wheat. A farmer planting 15 or less acres of wheat isn't subject to federal and marketing quotas and penalties.

Mackie, a surveyor by profession, surveyed the wheat acreage himself to make sure he wouldn't be in violation of federal order.

Then he was called down to county office of the U.S. Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service at Mason and told an aerial survey showed he actually had planted 16.4 acres.

William Crampton, manager of the Mason office of the federal agency, said the penalty will be enforced unless the excess wheat is plowed under by July 3.

New York Ousts Racing 'Czar'

3-Man Board Voted After Racket-Buster Tainted by Scandal

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller begins a search today for three commissioners to replace George P. Monaghan, ousted as New York state's "czar" of racing.

Monaghan, appointed by Thomas E. Dewey five years ago to clean up the then gangster-ridden sport, was voted out of office Wednesday amid a scandal that hurt his own reputation.

At Rockefeller's request, the Legislature, meeting in special session, passed a bill substituting a three-man agency for Monaghan's one-man rule.

Less than an hour after the session adjourned, Rockefeller signed the measure into law. The change-over must be made by Sept. 1.

★ ★ ★

The lawmakers also voted to end the multimillion-dollar state subsidy for harness-track expansion, a program that Monaghan administered, and elected a speaker of the Assembly to succeed the late Oswald D. Heck.

The new speaker is Joseph F. Carlino, Long Beach, Republican.

Monaghan has been accused by state investigators of accepting free meals, liquor and other favors from the tracks he supervises. Rockefeller asked him to resign but he refused, denying any wrongdoing.

Assails Italian Ideas

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration has been urged to instruct federal agents to refrain from associating all Americans of Italian origin with gangsters, Sens. Hugh Scott (R-Pa) and Kenneth B. Keating (R-NY) said some law enforcement officers and Senate investigators, too—have tended to do just that.

Lemnitzer New Army Chief of Staff

Enjoys Resembling MacArthur

By United Press International

An officer who looks a little like Douglas MacArthur and who became a paratrooper at the age of 50 is the new Army chief of staff.

Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, who will be 60 years old next month, has been serving since July 1957 as second-in-command to Gen. Maxwell B. Taylor, whom he succeeds.

Associates of Lemnitzer think he is glad to preserve any resemblance he may have to MacArthur. They also think Lemnitzer would like to emulate MacArthur by combining the virtues of the soldier with global political thinking.

WEST POINT GRAD

Lemnitzer was born Aug. 29, 1899 in Honesdale, Pa., and was graduated from West Point in 1920.

He was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Coast Artillery, and went to England during World War II as commander of the 34th anti-aircraft brigade. He led that outfit through the Tunisian campaign.

Later, he became first deputy chief of staff and then chief of staff for the Mediterranean theater command.

Lemnitzer accompanied Gen. Mark W. Clark on a secret submarine mission to North Africa for discussions with the French concerning the African invasion. He also took part in talks prior to Italy's surrender to the Allies.

After serving as a special assistant on foreign military affairs for the defense department, Lemnitzer took the basic airborne course for paratroopers at Ft. Benning, Ga., in 1950.

This enabled him to take command of the 11th Airborne Division at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

LEADS 7TH INFANTRY

During the Korean War, he commanded the 7th Infantry division in Korea. Later he was transferred to Washington to become deputy chief of staff for plans and research.

Lemnitzer went to the Far East again in 1955 as commander of the 8th Army. Three months later, he was named commander in chief for the Far East.

One of his hobbies since youth has been sharpshooting, and he likes to take part in target practice with a good rifle.

Associates in the Army say Lemnitzer is especially interested in personnel problems as they relate to Army modernization.

Lemnitzer is married and has two children, Capt. William Lemnitzer, assigned to the West Point Military Academy, and Mrs. Lois Simpson, wife of a lieutenant at Ft. Sill, Okla.

Russia Reduces Prices on Consumer Goods

MOSCOW (UPI) — Retail prices on certain mass consumer goods in the Soviet Union were reduced by an average of 21 per cent starting Wednesday.

The government action affected such items as bicycles, clocks, cameras, toys, wines, and combination radio-record players, Tass, the official Soviet news agency, reported.

Mayor Will Snip Ribbon at Lot for Hospital Parking

Mayor Philip E. Rowston will cut a ribbon Wednesday evening, officially opening the new Pontiac General Hospital parking lot.

City Manager Walter K. Willman; James Clarkson, chairman of the Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees; Rev. Theodore R. Allebach and Rev. Philip Somers are scheduled to take part in the brief program.

Guided tours will take in recently-completed portions of the hospital's east wing and the finished west wing.

The 211-car municipal parking lot opened Monday, providing three-hour parking at a nickel an hour for visitors to the hospital.

$2,880 Found in Gomez Home

Man Slain by Police Had Money Hidden in Old Trunk

A search yesterday by Pontiac Police through the apartment of a Mexican citizen killed by a city detective turned up $2,880 hidden in an old trunk.

Alberto Becerra, Mexican consul in Detroit, asked for the search after neighbors of the late Manuel Gomez, 53, of 38 W. Wilson Ave., told him they had seen Gomez with a large sum of money before his death.

Gomez was fatally shot June 22 by Det. August R. Martinez after police were called to his apartment by neighbors. They said Gomez apparently had gone berserk.

The money was turned over to the Mexican Consulate, which is handling the dead man's estate. Becerra was with Police Sgt. Robert Gaines during the search.

An inquest into the shooting has been requested by the Mexican Ministry of Foreign Relations. It will be held July 9 at 1:30 p.m. in the Oakland County Courthouse.

Royal Couple to See Shakespeare Festival

STRATFORD, Ont. (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II today looks at history, a renowned Shakespearean festival and possibly the aftermath of a comic opera Indian independence movement.

The royal tour, now in its third week, is taking the Queen and Prince Philip through a region of southwest Ontario where the echos of the War of 1812 between the United States and Britain still resound.

In anticipation of the royal visit, flags were flying at a farm house known as "Battlefield House," on Stoney Creek near Hamilton.

The battle of Stoney Creek, not the most glorious passage of American military history, saw some 800 British regulars attack under cover of night and rout four times that many Americans. Historians say the skirmish vitally affected the course of the war.

The royal couple also was to ride through Shakespeare Street in Stratford and attend Canada's celebrated Shakespearean festival, before joining the royal yacht at Windsor.

Two Marines Stagger From Crash Scene, Die

HONOLULU (AP) — Two U. S. Marines, severely burned when their truck turned over and caught fire, staggered several miles along a highway Monday, then a passing motorist rushed them to a hospital. But the two men died Tuesday.

The accident occurred on the island of Hawaii where the First Marine Brigade will conduct training exercises.

California began its present park system in 1927.

Women, Beware: Reserve Food Tops

By JOE SINGLETON

CAMP McCOY, Wis. — With all due respects to all the little ladies' cooking back home, I think it's only fitting that they be warned that unless they have mastered the skill of preparing delicious meals, they may be in for a bit of competition in this department from cooking personnel of the 2nd Battalion.

As an army travels on its stomach, it is important that its personnel get a tasty, well-balanced meal. There is no doubt that Pontiac and area reservists are getting just that at Camp McCoy.

Although it is traditional that a soldier never boasts about Army chow, no matter how good it is, these soldiers need only be observed hitting the lines for "seconds" to be convinced that they are eating first-class in the mess hall, run almost completely by their own cooks and mess personnel.

Headed by Mess Sergeants M. Sgt. Thomas Pappas, 401 E. Third Sfc. Frank Newman, 3113 Oakshire Rd., Berkley, and Sfc. Calvin E. Rynolds, 209 Earlemoor Blvd., the staff of mess personnel keeps these reservists well fed with well-balanced, delicious and fancy decorated meals.

Completing the list are: Pfc. William F. Brown, 96 Oliver St.; Sp-4 Robert W. Weakland, 2497 Cass Lake Rd., Keego Harbor; and Sp-4 Jack Turnbull, 1790 Elsie Dr.

Typical of menus served in the mess hall was the one served for Sunday dinner.

It consisted of baked ham beautifully decorated, candied sweet potatoes, buttered greens, lettuce and tomato salad, mayonnaise dressing and rye bread.

Completing the menu were cherry sauce, corn on the cob, ice cream and chocolate sauce, iced tea and milk.

Not only have mess personnel been able to keep the troops well fed, but they have also contributed their share in winning top ratings from inspectors on food handling, and economy, to help the 2nd Battalion chalk up an impressive score on the individual and over-all training program.

Martinez's Decision Only Possible Solution

Recently, a Pontiac detective faced the necessity of shooting a madman who brandished a knife and was attacking a fellow officer who was cornered.

Clearly he saved a life.

MARTINEZ

This newspaper stands squarely behind August R. Martinez. He found himself facing a life and death problem, and he solved it in the only practical method there was. For his fortitude and good judgment, we commend him.

★ ★ ★

Decisions such as this are never pleasant. But the fact remains that MARTINEZ is a duly constituted member of Pontiac's law enforcing agency and he must take prompt and decisive action when critical moments arrive. There was nothing in the situation that he precipitated himself. He simply happened to be the man on the spot.

★ ★ ★

Had other Pontiac officers found themselves in these shoes, we are quite confident they would acquit themselves with equal honor to themselves and the citizenry they represent. Tragic situations can't be solved by looking the other way.

★ ★ ★

These men were dispatched to bring in a dangerous individual. They were entrusted with the general protection of society and the taxpayers they represent. They have taken solemn oaths to uphold the law and comport themselves in conformance with the exigencies of the situation. MARTINEZ argued in Spanish with a man of his own descent in an attempt to reach a peaceful solution. It was to no avail.

The officer simply did his duty. There was no other course.

This newspaper wants to align itself with law and order. We want to stand with protectors of society. We want policemen, firemen, school teachers, traffic officers, clergymen and others to know that they have our staunch and unwavering support.

★ ★ ★

All of us face unhappy decisions and we step forward and make them in conformance with the dictates of our own conscience and the expectations of the high-minded members of society. Happily, very few of them reach such extreme proportions; but when they do, we look for brave and courageous decisions like the one at hand.

Caution on Your Part Can Reverse Statistics

The grim predictions as to what will happen on U.S. highways over the upcoming weekend are already appearing.

★ ★ ★

From past experience, if this holiday is normal, it could best be described as "human slaughter." Just listen to these figures:

Approximately 25,000 people will be either killed or injured by automobiles over the holiday.

More than 40 per cent of the highway crashes will come as a result of a speeding car crashing into the rear of another.

Studies show that the average accident this weekend will not be a spectacular crash on a super highway. On the contrary, figures show that more than 80 per cent of the crashes occur on good, clear, straight roads—surprisingly enough, not far from the victims' homes.

These statistics are the result of one of our largest auto insurance companies' studies. One of the alarming facts pointed out is that in 85 per cent of the accidents the primary cause of the accident is human failure.

Human failure is the man behind the wheel. He is the one that holds the lives of many in his hands every time he gets behind the wheel. Listed first among human failure are inattention, recklessness, excessive speed, and aggressive driving.

At one time or another we all fall into one of these categories. Over this particularly busy weekend we should reverse our stand and become "defensive drivers."

Caution and alertness should be foremost in our minds when we take to the highways this weekend. If we will all take special pains to guard ourselves while driving, we will in turn be looking out for our neighbors.

All Must Register

Young Men Required to Do So on 18th Birthday

Pontiac: What identifies you as no other city can, wherever you go.

Since the military service act has been renewed, attention is called by

Miss Mary Kelly,

Chief Clerk of the Out-County Board, that all young men must register on their 18th birthday. Such registration must be made at the office of the board in whose territory the registrant lives. Both of the local boards are located at 701 Pontiac State Bank Building. Their hours are 9 to 5 every day except Saturday and Sunday. If the registrant cannot appear on his 18th birthday, he should make preliminary contact with his board, and arrange for his appearance.

As in the United States, the newspapers of Canada have their top official with a long name, so they refer to Prime Minister Diefenbaker as

just as we call a more famous person because their regular names are too long for the liking of head writers, linotype operators and the public in general. Both men like it.

"Ike,"

If a fountain pen comes addressed to a recently deceased relative, do not accept it. A gang of crooks is sending out ten-cent pens to names taken from the obituary columns in newspapers, with a $2.50 COD attached, expecting that relatives will assume that the deceased had ordered it, and pay the $2.50. A number of such cases have been reported in Pontiac, the sender being with a Chicago address. However, the law has already caught up with them and several arrests have been made. The scheme makes one wonder if the bottom will ever be reached in crime.

Our former Congressman is getting a lot of richly deserved acclaim in connection with the dedication of the St. Lawrence Seaway. George fought for that in the halls of Congress when the clever lobbyists of the railroads and other interests were making it unpopular to fight that way. I distinctly remember when, about 15 years ago, he said to me: "All that its opponents are doing is to delay something that will be worth untold millions to our nation every year. But we'll lick 'em."

David Lawrence Says:

Court Frustrates U.S. Security

WASHINGTON — After 18 years of operation of the government's loyalty and security programs, those procedures relating to industrial plants where defense work is done now have been frustrated.

LAWRENCE

The Supreme Court of the United States, by its latest decision this week, has cast doubt on the right of the Congress or the President to assure, through administrative action, the preservation of government secrets in defense plants.

In fact, there is considerable confusion as to what the court actually ruled invalid and what it struck down by implication.

The case concerns an $18,000-a-year engineer whose firm had a government contract on secret projects. He was accused of having, over a period of years, certain associations with Communists and of maintaining "sympathetic associations" with Russian embassy officials.

His employers stood by him and testified that he was loyal. He was nevertheless deprived of his job as a consequence of a formal letter revoking security "clearance," sent by Robert Anderson, now secretary of the treasury but then—in April 1953—secretary of the Navy.

A year later, the secretary of defense created a new security board, and the defendant was given a hearing and cross-examined extensively, but the sources of the information compiled against him were not revealed to his lawyers. "Clearance" was again denied.

Four of the justices — Messrs. Black, Douglas, Brennan and Stewart—subscribed to the opinion of the court, written by Chief Justice Warren, upholding the defendant. But Justice Harlan, while concurring in the result, criticizes the Warren opinion because "it unnecessarily deals with the very issue it disclaims deciding."

Then, in another opinion, Justices Frankfurter, Harlan and Whittaker say they concur in the result only because "it has not been shown that either Congress or the President authorized the procedures whereby petitioner's security clearance was revoked, intimating no views as to the validity of those procedures."

Justice Clark, in his dissenting opinion, however, seems to have no doubt about what the court decided, and he uses language concerning the court's attitude which, if employed by anybody else, would be denounced by various critics in the so-called "liberal" school of thought as "defiant" or as "undermining confidence in the Supreme Court."

In the dissenting opinion, Justice Clark—himself a former attorney general—says that to him the case is "clear and simple" in that the government refused to give the defendant "further access to certain government military information which has been classified 'secret'." He adds:

"Surely one does not have a constitutional right to have access to the government's military secrets."

The Clark opinion then proceeds to give chapter and verse showing that the security program was, in effect, authorized by the President and was in line with the procedures used in the first employe security program, inaugurated upon the passage of the Hatch Act by Congress in 1939, "in which the right to confrontation (of witnesses) and cross-examination has never been recognized."

The reason, of course, is that the government, and particularly the FBI, must protect its sources of information if, for example, it expects to continue to keep undercover agents at work inside the Communist movement. Justice Clark writes:

"It should be noted, though several cases here have attacked the regulations on this ground, this court has yet to strike them down. I shall not labor the point further than to say that in my opinion the procedures here do comport with that fairness required of administrative action in the security field. A score of our cases, as I have cited, support me in this position. Not one is to the contrary. And the action of the court in striking down the program for lack of specific authorization is indeed strange, and hard for me to understand at this critical time of national emergency."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Honey as 'Miracle Food' Much Buzz About Nothing

The late Dr. John R. Pratt, Manchester, N. Y., lived to be nearly a hundred. His diet, the man with the hives tells me, was mainly milk, mutton, salt mackerel and honey, and he always had six or eight hives of bees. The man with the hives wonders why I don't advise people to eat honey.

DR. BRADY

Probably it is merely because I don't like honey. However, there are many foods. I don't advise people to eat, foods that are as wholesome and healthful as any I do advise. In regard to honey, my advice is: eat it if you like it.

The man with the hives has several customers over 75 who eat honey every day. One customer is 80 and he does on goat's milk, eggs, plain wheat and honey. Another is 86, husky, never sick. Still another is 88 and going strong.

The man himself says he lives on honey, cottage cheese, buttermilk, skim milk, plain wheat and things made of it, sauerkraut, plenty of eggs, a little meat etc. "The sanitarium here is filled mostly with wrecks from improper food and drink," he says.

CAN BE ADULTERATED

Adulteration of honey in the comb is practically impossible, but it is not unlawful to feed bees sugar syrup or other artificial sugar food and so produce honey that is virtually adulterated by the bees. Pure honey usually contains 8 to 10 per cent cane sugar which the bees have gathered from the plants they feed on. When honey contains much more than 8 to 10 per cent cane sugar it is very likely adulterated by the producer.

One-sixth to one-fourth of the weight or volume of comb honey is water. The principal sweet components of honey are dextrose and levulose. Both of these sugars are obtained from the blossoms the bees feed on.

Honey has about the same food value (calories) as commercial glucose, maple syrup or molasses. Except flavor, if you are fond of honey, there is no particular reason for preferring honey to other sweeteners, in my judgement.

The man with the hives makes no extravagant claim for its remedial or medicinal value, although he implies that one who eats honey every day will live long.

I'm always quizzing elderly persons who have more than ordinary vite, about their diet, and I can't recall one who even mentioned honey. I have suspicion that most octogenerians who still get about under their own power prefer delicacies not so sweet as honey.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

The Country Parson

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Trifles Mean Success or Failure

Michelangelo's formula is still a good yardstick for modern business success, for he said "Trifles make perfection and perfection is no trifle." So notice the different strategy below in merchandising airplane flight insurance. Even an attractive sales girl cannot offset a mechanical machine, if the latter meets more needs of the customer.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE B-476: Business psychology can make or break a modern firm, for attention to minor items often pays big dividends.

★ ★ ★

DR. CRANE

"No, I haven't," I replied.

"Then how about my filling out a policy for you?" she asked.

"Do you furnish me an envelope in which to mail it to my wife?" I asked, and she shook her head.

★ ★ ★

"Then of course you don't give me a 4-cent stamp, either?" I continued, and again she shook her head.

"Sorry," I added, "for I prefer to use the machine down the corridor."

At that machine, I could fill out my own application form, which I prefer to do, anyway.

Then I drop quarters into the slot and purchase the amount of insurance I wish. The machine then stamps the date and hour on the policy. But that isn't all.

For it also delivers a 4-cent stamp. Since the policy can be folded into an envelope, I address it, stamp and seal it, and then drop it into the nearest U. S. mailbox myself.

Some of you readers may think I am unduly cautious and overly suspicious of the sales girls efficiency.

But how would my wife or children ever know I had insured myself in their favor if my carbon copy of the policy wasn't mailed to them?

"Oh, but we'd notify them in case the plane crashed," the sales girl glibly replied.

"Says you," is my reaction, though I tactfully do not utter that thought, for I have been around this world long enough to know that a lot of errors creep into business.

★ ★ ★

Besides, the company issuing the policy requires that the beneficiaries must make application for the insurance within a given time limit, or the company is not liable.

And how would Mrs. Crane ever know I was insured or by what company unless I notified her myself?

SUCCESS PRINCIPLES

Most of us airplane travelers prefer to handle our own insurance policies and mail proof thereof to our beneficiaries.

In fact, at Midway Airport I will walk through all the adjacent ticket offices till I find an insurance machine. And other shrewd travelers do likewise.

So the fact that we customers get an envelope and a 4-cent stamp, and can handle our own insurance in a few moments, even to the extent of depositing the duplicate policy in a mail box, tips the scales in favor of the company that shows such smart merchandising psychology.

You must often meet more than one need of your customer in this modern competitive age if you wish to succeed.

In my case, it isn't insurance alone that I crave, but proof thereof in the hands of my beneficiaries, that finishes the deal with a flourish.

So send for my booklet "New Psychology of Advertising & Selling," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

'If We Take Pennant, Is It Ours or the League's?'

As a baseball fan, I have a little gripe I'd like to get off my chest. I wonder what's become of all the young players the Tigers used to bring up to develop into a real championship club.

★ ★ ★

I look at the names of the present roster, such as Yost, Mossi, Bridges, Berberet, Zernial, Wilson, Morgan, Narleski, Lepcio, Maxwell, Sisler, Harris, Schultz, Smith, etc. Then I says to myself, if we win the pennant, do we actually win a pennant? Or does some of it belong to Washington, Cleveland, New York, Chicago, Kansas City, Boston, etc?

★ ★ ★

Frankly I'm almost as badly mixed up as the players themselves, and I tell you that is plenty.

Describes Fallacies of Our Economy

If steel workers who don't want a strike have no expression of opinion, what about innocent bystanders? Can such an expression of opinion be looked for in lesser employment groups? Must our economy plunge recklessly on without regard to overall results?

Our dilemma stems from fallacies concocted to overcome the depression 25 years ago—the 40 hour week and time and one-half. It was a spread-the-work idea and no employer was intended to be so stupid as to pay the 50 per cent additional. Push button factories work 168 hours a week with no premium on machinery.

Most of our national debt is another depression fallacy that's being continued as though honesty had vanished. It wouldn't hurt us to work a few extra hours each week and help reduce the national debt, which got started to help us when we needed it most.

Another fallacy is that workers should enjoy or be entitled to annual raises. Continuation of the same job at same pay is an increase in many instances. Having a job is worth consideration against no job.

When confronted with pay increases every year, employers have scrambled to find new methods, costing tremendous sums, to keep pace with demands. Each improvement has meant fewer people employed at that work.

We urgently need to bring these fallacies into the open and get some sanity into our economy. If a strike isn't wanted, let's speak up.

Mexican Society Makes Statement

The Mexican Mutual Society of Pontiac is protesting the rash statements made by officials of this city arising from the shooting of a fellow Mexican June 22.

★ ★ ★

The society wants to make clear, however, that not knowing the exact circumstances of the affair, it does not want to weigh the decision of whether the officer was justified or not in his actions. Most of the Spanish speaking people here have known the officer for any number of years and they have been proud that he was an honest officer and a credit to Spanish Americans.

★ ★ ★

However, this group strongly opposes commendations for such serious acts involving deranged or mentally ill persons, particularly where they had not committed any serious offenses and are in their own domicile.

This society feels that Mr. Taylor and Mr. Eastman were too quick to defend their position and owe the people of Mexican origin, here in Pontiac, a retraction of their statements. Far greater acts of bravery have been credited to our police officers without so much as a single sentence from the Prosecutor's or Safety Director's offices. Why now?

'Bathing Suits Belong on Beach'

I like bathing suits and I think bare legs are a healthy summertime mode. But I don't think bathing suits belong downtown and all women suffer a little when a few misguided souls blunder into the business area.

It just isn't the right background and often they look like clowns. If you aren't especially shapely and trim, let the beach and summer resorts become the background for your bathing suit appearances, or you'll find the crowd snickering behind your back.

Journey To Love

CHAPTER XXXI

Alex helped her aboard, then stepped lightly down into the dinghy and began handing up the packages of grocery bags.

The tiny galley was smaller than her cramped clothes closet on the farm, and yet it had everything a kitchen should have. Alex showed her his own system for stowing the food in the locker and then put on the coffee pot.

While it heated, he took her down into the master cabin. It was as compact as the galley, with two built-in chests, two double-decker bunks, and a lavatory.

She could understand his remark about the Wikiwiki losing her glamour during the war. The mahogany paneling was scratched and marred, but the sections of it that Alex had scraped and sanded and revarnished shone with the dull gleam of old satin.

★ ★ ★

"The hull is good," he boasted, "and I've got new engines in her."

"I'm going to love it!" Kathie said.

Kathie gave him a surprised look.

"I'll be out first thing in the morning," he told her, and her moment of uneasiness passed. "Will you cook breakfast for me?"

"Oh, Alex, that would be fun!"

"It's a date."

He poured the coffee, and they took their mugs and went up through the pilot's compartment amidship to sit on the broad mahogany seats that stretched under the wide square windows just astern.

He finished his coffee rather quickly. "I'm going ashore now, Kathie. I want to get back to the post office and pick up that deed."

"What are you going to do with it?"

"Take it down to the newspaper office and do some research work," he said casually. He faced her, and for a breathless moment she thought he was going to take her in his arms. Instead, he touched her lightly under the chin and said, "You won't be nervous out here?"

"I'm going to be all right," she said.

BRAVE WORDS

They were brave words, but as she watched him disappear over the side into the dinghy, a sense of her aloneness engulfed her.

She turned down the bunk she had chosen and found it made up with snowy linens. In a few minutes, clad in pajamas, she was turning off the lights and crawling into her bunk.

★ ★ ★

She lay there listening to the new sounds around her, trying to identify each one from her brief encounter with them coming out in the dinghy.

Suddenly her alert ears caught a new sound. It was the plop! plop! of the oars of a small boat. Very faint at first, growing more distinct.

Someone else was rowing out to a buoy-moored boat. She listened intently, trying to distinguish the direction. It seemed to be coming closer and closer. It was going to pass right by the Wikiwiki.

The boat shuddered as something scraped alongside, and her heart did a funny little flip-flop. Could Alex be returning?

She had noticed that her porthole was completely black. There was not even one faint star in the blackness. While she watched, paralyzed with fear, the blackness moved and the star shone again. There was another scraping noise. And then she heard the unmistakable sounds of someone clambering stealthily aboard the boat!

TRIED TO SCREAM

She tried to scream, but fear had paralzed her throat, and the sound that came out was choked, unrecognizable.

Alex had told her that she could not go ashore until he came for her. And she couldn't swim. She was trapped! She lay there in her bunk, terrified and helpless.

It was futile, and she knew it even while she again shrieked for him. He had gone all the way downtown, to the post office, and from there was going to his newspaper office. There was no possible chance that he was still near enough to hear her cry for help, but still she screamed his name.

A splash startled her out of her panic. It sounded as if someone had jumped overboard. Hope filled her as she realized her screams must have frightened the intruder away.

She jumped out of her bunk and found her tailored robe. When she had slipped it over her pajamas, she turned on the lights and left the cabin.

In the pilot's compartment she picked up a flashlight. From there she could see there was no one in the boat now. She made her way to the stern of the boat and flashed her light over the water. A dinghy was tied alongside! The intruder had left his boat behind.

★ ★ ★

She sank down on the mahogany bench with her flashlight in her lap. Who knew she was aboard the Wikiwiki besides Alex? She was sure now that the thief who stole her purse and the intruder she had frightened away were in the hire of the same person, if they were not indeed the same man. She was certain the intruder had come to search for the deed, since it had not been in her purse.

Fourth of July Event Set at Oakland Park

The Northside Community Club of Pontiac, co-operating with the Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation, is set to launch its annual Fourth of July celebration at Oakland Park today.

The celebration will run through Sunday, with a carnival featuring rides and amusements for the public each day. Special events are planned for the children Friday and Saturday.

Highlighting the festivities will be a gigantic fireworks display Saturday night beginning at about 10.

Senate Chops Funds to Fight for Water Rights

LANSING (UPI) — Attorney General Paul Adams is happy the U. S. Supreme Court will hear a dispute over water rights in Lake Michigan, but unhappy the legislature did not appropriate money for the fight.

The high court Monday appointed a special hearing master in two disputes involving Illinois and six other Great Lakes states.

The Senate Monday night lopped $10,000 from a general government appropriations bill that would have paid for Michigan's part of the action.

"We'll just have to let something else go by the board to pay for this action," Adams said.

"Last year, engineering fees alone ran to about $4,000," he said. "That makes it awfully difficult. In the past we've had a special appropriation for this," he said.

Adams said he was "delighted" with the Supreme Court action.

"With the appointment of a sepcial master there will be an opportunity for the entire issue to be studied and evaluated," he said.

New York City Ups Tax Take $90,000,000

NEW YORK (AP)—Five new, or increased, excise levies today bit into New York City taxpayers' pocketbooks. The city anticipated additional revenue of 90 million dollars.

★ ★ ★

A 10 per cent tax on taxicab rides is expected to yield 20 million dollars annually in additional revenue.

★ ★ ★

A 0.5 per cent tax on real estate sales should bring in another million dollars.

The general business tax on gross sales rose to $4 for each $1,000 in sales—eight times the rate when it was first imposed in 1933.

Last year that tax was 99½ million dollars—more than $12 each for every man, woman and child in the city.

A similar levy, the tax imposed on the gross inome of finanial business, increased to 1½ per cent—15 times the original rate.

Best Ride
MOTOR TREND magazine calls Chevy ". . . the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." You'll be able to tell this yourself, instantly, once you take the wheel.

BANDUNG (UPI) — Police summoned the city's newspaper delivery boys to a meeting and warned them to stop shouting "indecent" remarks in an effort to sell papers. Promises Effort to Bolster Army

Senator Asks 30,000 More Men, Additional $100 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new effort to increase the size of the Army to 900,000 men was promised today by Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La).

His proposal, for which he claimed strong support, would add another 100 million dollars to a defense appropriations bill already about 900 millions higher than the total voted by the House. The Senate Defense Appropriations subcommittee completed action on the bill Wednesday.

"I think we have the votes in the full Appropriations Committee to hold the Army to a minimum of 900,000," Ellender, a committee member, said in an interview.

The administration wants to hold the Army to 870,000 men, and the House held to that figure despite efforts to increase it.

Chairman Dennis Chavez (D-NM) said the subcommittee defeated Ellender's Army buildup move "by a narrow margin."

It did vote to add 43 million dollars to build the Marine Corps back to 200,000 instead of the 175,000 asked by the administration and approved by the House. It also added 400 millions for Army modernization.

Subcommittee increases would beef up the Navy with a new 380-million-dollar nuclear - powered aircraft carrier and step up the long-range ballistic missiles program as well as planned defenses against such missiles.

The group also approved nearly 60 million for the Air Force to buy new jet trainers and some turbojet cargo-passenger aircraft which had been denied by the House.

And it gave the secretary of defense broad authority to save or shift many millions from smaller antiaircraft missiles to the larger ocean-hopping ballistic missiles.

Third Time for Snark

Missile Return Successful

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Snark intercontinental guided missile shot 1,000 miles over the Atlantic today, then turned around and came back to the cape, the Air Force said, terming the round-trip flight highly successful.

The sleek, 69-foot rocket dropped smoothly onto the cape landing strip 4½ hours after it was launched. Special skids and a parachute that popped from the tail eased the missile's landing.

This particular missile successfully made the trip on two previous launchings this year. On each recovery, crewmen prepared it for a repeat performance.

Earlier rockets dropped dummy warheads on target near Ascension Island, 5,000 miles away. These rockets were not designed for recovery as is the Snark.

★ ★ ★

The Snark, which cruises at a comparatively slow 600 miles an hour, can zig-zag and dodge in flight to elude enemy defenders. The missile has an inertial guidance system which steers it and checks its accuracy by the stars.

Company Plane Crashes, 10 Die

8 Top Executives of Continental Can Killed Returning From Confab

MARION, Ohio (AP)—An airliner owned by Continental Can Co. hurtled out of an overcast sky late Wednesday and disintegrated in a wheat field near here. All 10 aboard, including eight of the firm's top executives, apparently perished.

The plane literally dug the graves for most of them. Only parts of three bodies were found. The others evidently were buried under the earth.

Eight were top executives returning to New York, where the firm has its headquarters, after a meeting of company officials in Chicago, Continental Can said.

The plane, carrying a crew of two, was believed to be a twin-engine B26 Martin. It was demolished almost beyond recognition. The wreckage was spread over an area 150 yards in diameter, a sheriff's deputy reported.

The aircraft hit with such impact that only one engine was found, said the deputy, Robert Obenour. The other engine presumably was buried with the victims.

The plane crashed shortly before 6 p.m. on the farm of H.F. Smith, six miles east of this north central Ohio city.

Smith was in his barn when he heard the aircraft approaching from the north. He said he thought it was going to hit the barn, but it passed over and crunched into the wheat field 100 yards away.

New Soviet Jets Rarely Fly Unlawful

By VERN HAUGLAND

MOSCOW (AP)—Every seat in the big TU104 jet is filled. Some of the smaller, propeller-driven planes of the Soviet Aeroflot fly half empty, but the new jets are popular for crossing the Soviet Union's vast distances.

★ ★ ★

As soon as the plane is aloft the two hostesses bring candies around. Pleasant faced, attractively uniformed and speaking English, the attendants shortly serve a well prepared hot meal.

After a couple of hours of smooth, uneventful flying, the plane lands 1,000 miles deeper into the Soviet Union.

To an American who spent a month in Moscow three years ago and returned for a 17-day Soviet visit this summer, the improvement in Soviet air service is striking.

True, a flight aboard the old DC3-type Ilyushin transports used in large quantities on many routes shows that Aeroflot still operates service without stewardesses, without food, without seat belts, even without clean lavatories.

American aviation experts say the TU104 is inferior to the U.S. Boeing 707 jet in performance and economy. But the Soviets quickly point out that the TU104 went into service several years ahead of its competitors. The same American experts declare the new Soviet IL18 prop-jet is superior to anything the United States has in the field of jet-and-propeller combination.

Aeroflot folders advertise, in conjunction with British-European Airways, a London-Moscow fare of 885 rubles. At the 10-to-1 rate of exchange for tourists that is $88.50. The coach or tourist class fare is $73.90.

Flight times by TU104 from Moscow, as advertised, include 2 hours 20 minutes to Copenhagen, 3 hours and 45 minutes to Paris, 7 hours 5 minutes to Cairo, 7 hours and 55 minutes to Delhi, 10½ hours to Peiping and 11 hours 20 minutes to Pyongyang, North Korea.

Berths are available on longer flights, at an additional fee.

The Soviet Union, aware of the value of the dollar, expects to play host to 15,000 Western tourists—most of them Americans—this year. The 1958 total of U.S. visitors was about 6,000; 1957, 2,500. The big drawing card: Western curiosity about this huge country, long closed to visitors.

As yet, however, only 22 cities are on the official itinerary of Intourist, the government travel agency with which every tourist deals. The tourist lands at the airports of other cities on Aeroflot's system without getting a chance to visit the cities themselves. Except for a stay in Irkutsk, Intourist provides no tours in Siberia.

The Intourist travel rate for individual visitors is $30 a day. This "deluxe rate" covers lodging, meals, transportation within the U.S.S.R. and services of a guide-interpreter.

For groups of 15 persons or more a "first class" rate of $17 a day is available. Also for groups of 15 or more there are a "Tourist A" rate of $12 a day, calling for two persons to a room with private bath and standard meals, and a $10-a-day "Tourist B" rate for more austere accommodations with three or four persons to a room and no private bath.

The deluxe tourist gets a booklet of four meal coupons for each day of his visit. The waiter totals up the meal check of each customer, and when the total exceeds the value of the coupon—as is usually the case—the customer pays the extra cost with rubles.

Most Western tourists find Intourist an indispensable aid to travel in the Soviet Union. The guide-interpreters, usually men or women in their 20s, for the most part are intelligent, hard-working and agreeable.

But the Soviet Union is not yet geared to accommodate large numbers of tourists. In practice the deluxe traveler usually gets hotel accommodations that in other countries would be considered no better than second or third class. There is simply nothing better available.

It has become possible to tour parts of the U.S.S.R. by private automobile. Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Carton of Baltimore, who made such a tour in May and June, recommend against it for the average traveler.

"The Russians just aren't geared yet for tourist traffic," says Carton, an attorney.

In Tula, a city of 250,000 south of Moscow, the Cartons strayed from the route foreign automobiles are required to take.

"Now I know why the Russians don't want foreigners to get off their marked routes," Mrs. Carton says. "We have some poor sections in our American cities, but never have we seen poverty and human misery like that we found in Tula.

"Everywhere we found the people very friendly, and curious about us and our car."

Jewish Population Rate in U.S. Down

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Religion Wrier

The Jewish population of the United States has risen to an estimated 5,260,000 yet there is evidence that it "is not keeping pace with the general population."

★ ★ ★

The figures are from the 1959 edition of the American Jewish Year Book, published last week by the American Jewish Committee and the Jewish Publication Society of America.

★ ★ ★

Some anxiety is expressed over the facts that (1) the average Jew is older than his Gentile fellow-citizen and (2) the average Jewish wife is bearing less children than her Gentile counterpart.

The yearbook's figures are adapted from the U.S. Bureau of Census report on population characteristics, released in 1958, which included a religious question for the first time.

More than half (52.5 per cent) of the Jewish population is 35 years or older while considerably less than half (42.8 per cent) of the total population is younger than 35.

The average Jewish woman in the 15 to 44 age grouping has 1.74 children while Roman Catholic women in the same age bracket have 2.28 and Protestants 2.22.

A year ago April, Arthur Jacobs of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations estimated that at the current rate only 2.2 out of every 100 American would be Jewish in 1975. The current atio is 3.4.

The year book also comes up with these statistics on Judaism:

The United States, with 5,260,000, is home for nearly half the world's estimated 12 million Jews. The Soviet Union has some two million and Israel is third with 1,780,000.

★ ★ ★

The state of New York alone has more Jews than either Israel or the U.S.S.R. New York's Judaic colony totals 2,379,050, or nearly 15 per cent of its total population.

New York City, with more Jews than there are in the whole state of Israel, is the world's largest Jewish city. It has 2,018,000 to 365,000 for Tel-Aviv-Jaffa in Israel.

★ ★ ★

Jews are much less likely to contract an interfaith marriage than are Roman Catholics and Protestants. Nearly 93 per cent of Jews marry within their faith. For Protestants the figure is 91 per cent and for Catholics 79 per cent.

Greenville Newspaper Ups Home Price 5 Cents

GREENVILLE (UPI) — The Greenville Daily News has announced an increase of its home-delivered price from 35 to 40 cents a week effective this week.

"This is the first time in seven years that there has been a general increase in the carrier delivered price of this newspaper," the Daily News told its readers. "It has been made necessary by increased costs in the newspaper business."

An average of more than 66,000 cars cross the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge every day.

Federal Bureau Says Gasoline Octane Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The octane rating of automobile gasoline continues to climb.

The Mines Bureau in the Interior Department reports its latest checkup disclosed that regular gasoline had an average rating of 90.6, premium grades an average of 98.9 and super octane grades 101.8.

These figures represent a gain of four tenths of one per cent in the average regular grades since last summer. The average rating of regular gasoline 10 years ago was 80.5. For premium grade gasoline it was 86.5.

Cost of Living May Stabilize

Expert Sees Little Rise for Rest of Year Due to Food Prices

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A government expert predicts that the cost of living may remain fairly stable in the last half of this year.

He said lower food prices may offset increased costs of rent, transit fares, medical care, haircuts and other services.

The guarded forecast was made by Ewan Clague, commissioner of labor statistics, in the current issue of the Labor Department's monthly labor review released last night.

The article said a downturn in farm prices is under way. It coincided with an Agriculture Department report showing that the prices farmers received for their crops and livestock dropped 1 per cent in the month ended June 15.

Clague said that lower consumer prices for fruits and vegetables should begin to take effect about mid-summer. The Agriculture Department looks for some decline in meat prices about the same time.

As a result, Clague said, cheaper foods may hold the consumer price index down during the latter part of this year.

George Liberace's Wife Files Suit for Divorce

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—"We just live different lives," George Liberace's wife said after suing for divorce Wednesday.

She told reporters that George —violin-playing brother of pianist Liberace—"is away so much of the time. I tried to keep up with him, but it was impossible. My health suffered."

Mrs. Jayne Shields Liberace's complaint charged mental cruelty. Its only specific allegation: "He comes in late and frightens affiant."

She asked $1,135 monthly temporary alimony and said the violinist earned $60,000 last year. A hearing on her alimony request will be held July 17.

Jet Airliner Sets Record on 'Frisco-Honolulu Trip

HONOLULU (UPI)—A Boeing 707 jet airliner of Qantas Airways set a new commercial speed mark Tuesday by flying here from San Francisco in four hours, 49 minutes.

★ ★ ★

Captains Dispute Facts on Lake Huron Collision

DETROIT (AP) — Contradictory testimony is in the record from the two ship's captains whose vessels collided in foggy Lake Huron last Thursday.

Capt. George B. Albinson of the Canadian grain carrier Royalton yesterday denied before a U.S. Coast Guard inquiry that he was going too fast before the collision with the Liberian freighter Monrovia.

Capt. Albinson, declaring he was "either at a dead stop or going slightly astern" at the time the ships struck, denied testimony of the Monrovia's Capt. Stefanos Svokos of Greece.

The Canadian vessel's skipper also said he tried vainly to contact the Monrovia on the radio-telephone.

Capt. Svokos, a witness Tuesday, said the Royalton was going at excessive speed and failed to answer signals of the Monrovia.

Damage suits for more than a million dollars have been brought on behalf of 27 Monrovia crewmen against owners of both ships.

Attorneys filed suits for $1,080,000 in U.S. District Court yesterday against the Eastern Shipping Co. of Liverpool, England, owner of the Monrovia, and F. Scott Misener, Ltd., of Port Colborune, Ont., owner of the Royalton. The damages are claimed for injuries to the crewmen.

The Coast Guard's hearing was marked by criticism of the Monrovia's captain by the vessel's second mate.

The mate, Adamantios Pappas, 49, of Chios, Greece, said Capt. Svokos used "bad judgment" in ordering a turn to the right instead of the left upon hearing the Royalton's signals.

In the confusion of the fog the positions of the two ships were not clear.

However, Capt. Albinson said the Monrovia "came out of the fog about 400 feet away and struck us on the bow."

Albinson told of maneuvers to avoid a collision after picking up the Monrovia on his radar. He said he turned left three times and after the third time, three minutes before the crash, he ordered "double full astern." He already was going full astern, he said.

Capt. Albinson was sharply critical of the Monrovia.

"What are you supposed to do?" he said. "A ship that didn't cut its speed, wouldn't answer its telephone and has no radar."

153 Bodies Recovered

IBAGUE, Colombia (AP) — Searchers have found 153 bodies left by a flash flood that killed an estimated 250 persons in central Colombia last Tuesday night. The U.S. relief agency CARE sent in air shipments of food, and the Colombian government set aside $250,000 for flood relief.

6-Year-Old Girl Safe After Kidnap Ordeal

Barbara was unharmed except for bruises on her neck where she apparently was choked, Spencer said. She was examined at a hospital and then taken home.

A massive nine-hour search by almost 1,000 police and volunteers ended about 15 miles east of Springdale. Estep was taken to an undisclosed jail and held on an open charge, Spencer said. The sheriff quoted the man as saying he didn't know why he took the girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wentz.

Australia's 1st Jetliner Delivered at Sydney

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Australia's first jet airliner landed at Sydney today after crossing the Pacific in 16 hours 10 minutes on its delivery flight from the United States.

The time—from the San Francisco control tower to the Sydney tower — clipped 11 hours off the tower-to-tower record.

Pakistan Visitor Lakes Baseball

Studies Waterford Recreation

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

Siraj U. Ahmed, 40, an exporter by profession, is one of 14 other foreign visitors now participating in a four-month tour of communities with outstanding recreational programs.

"We have most of the activities that the United States provides, with the exception of square dancing, and this wonderful game of baseball," Ahmed explained in excellent English.

So far, he has had several square dancing lessons, and he says, the dance will "surely be accepted with enthusiasm by the youth of East Pakistan."

CLIMATE SIMILAR

Michigan climate is much like his country's, he said, but the food is very different and there're more people living in small communities here.

This week, Ahmed has become thoroughly familiar with Waterford Township's community recreation services, methods of developing them and ways to apply these programs in his own country.

He has seen local league baseball games at night, visited the instructional Day Camp at Highland Recreation Area and mingled with hundreds of children on well-organized playgrounds.

Explaining the customs of his own country has intrigued local youngsters "with leisure time for listening."

As a dinner guest of several local residents, Ahmed has had the opportunity of observing typical family living in United States.

In return he has explained the cultural, business and recreational aspects of his own native land.

Ahmed has learned about "home made" recreation equipment, how to train others in leadership.

11 WEEKS OF WORK

His own education includes a degree in intermediate arts from Calcutta University.

Before his return home, Ahmed's trip to the United States will have included 11 weeks of field work in recreation departments here.

Highlighting the summer program will be four weeks training at New York University Graduate Camp at Bear Mountain.

Baseball is the game that intrigues the foreign visitor most, because it is foreign in East Pakistan.

During his stay in Waterford Township, he is the guest of Recreation Director Tom Belton, who is teaching Ahmed the basic fundamentals of the game.

"Although I have read many books on baseball and directors have tried to show me, I can't seem to make the bat hit the ball at the right time," he said.

This will have to be corrected, he added, "because you can't strike out if you want to teach youth the right way to go."

LEARNING ABOUT BASEBALL — Waterford Township's guest from East Pakistan, Siraj Ahmed, gets a pointer on how to hold a baseball bat from Little Leaguer Rickey Lyons as Barney Watts looks on, critically. The distinguished looking visitor from the Far East is in the United States to learn about recreational programs for future expansion of youth activities in his native town of Sylhet.

Ike Signs Bill Raising GI Mortgage Rates

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower signed a bill this week authorizing the Veterans Administration to raise the maximum inteerst rate on GI housing mortgages from 4¾ per dent to a record high of 5¼ per cent.

The bill also increased by $100,000,000 funds available to the VA for direct government loans to veterans in small towns and rural areas who are unable to obtain privately-financed GI mortgages. The President opposed spending this additional money.

5 Pontiac Lions at Convention

Newly Elected Local President Heads Group in New York

Other Lions in the delegation are Dr. George Harkless, immediate past president; Tom Kent, secretary; Walter Heaphy, treasurer, and Michell Calbi, a member of the convention committee.

The convention is scheduled to end this weekend. Opening day highlights included a parade featuring 60 bands and 40 floats.

More than 40,000 delegates and members of their families from 99 countries or areas, representing a membership of 595,000, are attending the convention.

BEACH HIKERS — Donald Jenkin, 22, left, and Frank Culy, 21, have left Santa Barbara, Calif. on an 18-month hike along the beach to New York City. Starting off penniless and planning to live "off the beach," they will walk to Panama, along the Gulf Coast, and up to the East coast. Jenkin said he plans to write a book about the trip.

The longest game in major league baseball was played between Brooklyn and Boston in 1920, ending in a 1-1 tie after 26 innings.

Remember When Girls Wore Dresses, Ribbons?

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — —"I am 16 years old and at that age when a boy should have a steady girl," he writes, "but I can't seem to find any feminine young ladies around.

"Perhaps those misses in the motion pictures — that have long hair, and a minimum of makeup; that wear dresses and use feminine articles, such as ribbons—maybe they never existed. However, I prefer to think they did, and that many still do. But where?"

You can see him as you read it. A Boston boy, from Hemenway street. Kind of lonely there, and mature for his age. Ready to go steady because he wants somebody to love and write poetry to, for one thing. But for another, he can't find a friend worthy of confiding in . . .

"This is not to say that boys are any better," the letter goes on. "On the contrary, they are a great deal worse. Someday take a stroll down any crowded street and observe the dress and affectations of today's boy.

"Plain cotton shirts are no longer good enough. All must be shiny material with silver and gold threads. They would die without string ties, tight dungarees, flaming red jackets, white bucks and a comb."

You can see him grimacing as he writes. "Where the girls have decided that their hair must be short and stuck up with bobby pins —boys have unanimously acclaimed that 'long look.' They have invented more new swirls and curls and dips and twirls than Parisian hairdresses could in the next 20 years.

COMBS STUCK

"I am beginning to think that the combs are stuck to their hands, which in turn are glued to their heads."

The bitter Boston boy now stops to control his annoyance. "I don't want you to think I'm a fanatic," he writes, "or that I'm imagining things and being too hypercritical.

"I just wonder why in my age group I can't find a feminine girl or a masculine man."

He then, carefully and coolly, lists the complaints against the girls he knows. They have replaced flirting with boldness. They talk too much. Smoke too much. Wear cheap perfumes. Groom themselves, only from the chin up, in public.

And the worst thing about girls is their idols: "Singers and actors that are more vain and feminine than themselves."

He is only mailing these thoughts to you because there is not a soul in the neighborhood he can talk to. With his short haircut and his plain cotton shirt and his crumbling concept of ribboned lady teenagers, he is doubtless shunned as a nonconformist.

HASN'T GIVEN UP

But he hasn't given up his faith that somewhere, even today, there may be a better world of women.

"P.S. If you happen to know of any feminine lady of 15, tell her she is still the greatest idol, as far as one man is concerned."

March of Dimes Plans Aug. 1-25 Fund Crusade

The Oakland County Chapter of the National Foundation (March of Dimes) is looking to an August crusade as solution to its empty treasury and a $57,000 deficit.

The local chapter is only one of 53 in Michigan trying to negotiate near-disastrous financial straits with emergency summer campaigns.

Last year's epidemic in Michigan and an increase in the number of cases reported this year have been cited as causes for the emergency move.

The Rev. G. Burton Hodgson of Birmingham, chairman of the chapter, said wiping out the deficit is only a part of the goal established for the coming drive.

"Oakland County residents must raise $75,000 to make up the present deficit and prepare for future needs this summer," he said.

The drive will be conducted Aug. 1-25. More than 10,000 mothers are expected to "march" from door to door throughout the county soliciting funds on the last eve of the campaign.

Waterford-Drayton Club Will Install Officers

The Waterford-Drayton Rotary Club will hold its annual installation of officers at its noon luncheon Tuesday at the Community Activities Center.

Outgoing President Russell Hicks will install R. J. Beattie as the club's new president and William E. Jackson, vice president.

Col. Frederick J. Thompson will serve as secretary, and Gerald Monroe as treasurer. Richard McCarius and William Crommett are the new trustees.

Ike Finds Cutting Outlays Not Easy

Has Balanced Budget Only Twice; Fiscal '59 Deficit $13 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has found it a lot tougher to cut government spending than he seemed to think it would be when he was on the outside wanting in.

He set a low spending goal he has never been able to get down to. He promised to balance the budget but has been able to do it only twice since he took office.

Tuesday the government wound up the fiscal year with the biggest budget deficit in peacetime history. It reached almost 13 billion dollars.

Back in the 1952 presidential campaign Eisenhower banged away at Democratic spending and promised to do better, a lot better. He promised that if elected the Republican administration would:

"First, provide a sound dollar. A major step is to reduce government spending (from the then rate of 81 billion dollars a year) to something like 60 billion dollars within four years.

"Such a cut would eliminate the deficit in the budget and would make way for a substantial tax reduction."

What has happened since Eisenhower took office in January 1953? This is the story of the budget, starting with fiscal year 1954 which began July 1, 1953.

For fiscal 1954—budget deficit of $3,100,000; fiscal 1955—budget deficit of $4,200,000,000; fiscal 1956—budget balanced, with $1,600,000,000 to spare; fiscal 1957—budget balanced, again with $1,600,000,000 to the good; fiscal 1958—budget deficit of $2,800,000,000; fiscal 1959, which ended Tuesday—budget deficit of around 13 billions.

In short: Eisenhower managed to balance the budget only twice. Never in that time did government spending get down to the 60-billion-dollar figure he talked about in the 1952 campaign.

Get Him to a Doctor — Abby

BY ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband will soon be 57 and I am 56. We've been married 34 years and he has been very lucky in business. He says if I won't give him a divorce he will go to Mexico and desert me. He also says that when a woman is 35 a man should kick her out. I am deaf on top of it. He has offered me $1,000 a month, but what good will money do me if I am alone? His lawyer laughed at me. How can I keep my husband, Abby? Maybe I am a crackpot but I love him. FAITHFUL

ABBY

DEAR FAITHFUL: Make your husband a deal. Tell him you will have a complete physical (and mental) examination if he will. A doctor might be able to help both of you. And ask the lawyer who laughed at you to go along. He doesn't sound too well either.

DEAR ABBY: I am a Polish man who likes to go out with American girls. Many times when I am at their homes and there are American men present, the American men offer to collect and wash the dishes. The men in the Polish home from which I come never did this. As a result I do not know if I am supposed to offer to help when I eat in an American home. Is this an accepted American custom? Sincerely, CASIMIR

DEAR CASIMIR: In America it is proper for a guest to offer assistance to the hostess if she has no hired help.

DEAR ABBY: My child is a head-bumper. He gets up at night and starts rocking on his knees and bumping his head until he tires himself out. Then he falls asleep. He has been doing this since he's been 10 months old, and he is almost four and still does it. The thumping sounds like our house is falling apart. Also we are afraid he will hurt himself. Is there any cure for this or should we let him outgrow it? MOTHER OF BUMPER

DEAR MOTHER: If he's bumping his head on the wall—move the bed away from the wall. If he's bumping his head on his bed, pad the bed so he can't hurt himself. Ask your pediatrician for other suggestions, but don't wait for him to outgrow it.

DEAR ABBY: My parents were "the best" but with all their good intentions they failed miserably as parents because of their own mid-Victorian upbringing. They could not bring themselves to mention sex in any form. I can't tell you how ignorant (not INNOCENT—IGNORANT) I was for a girl of 16. You simply would not have believed it possible.

Fortunately I married a man who had to de-educate me and re-educate me in such matters. Thank heavens I do not have to raise my children the way I was raised. I tell them everything they want to know as soon as they are sufficiently interested to ask the questions. Please pass this on. It might help others. HAPPIER NOW

DEAR "HAPPIER NOW": With pleasure—it might help others to be "HAPPIER LATER."

MRS. ALEXANDER ARNOT

Married Saturday evening were Lorraine Weine of Chadwick street and Alexander Arnot. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weine of Berrien Springs and Mr. and Mrs. James Arnot of St. Clair Shores.

Bermuda Honeymoon Follows Nuptial Rites

The bride is the former Lorraine Weine of Chadwick street and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weine of Berrien Springs. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Arnot of St. Clair Shores.

Dr. Milton Bank officiated at the candlelight ceremony before 200 guests.

The new Mrs. Arnot wore a silk taffeta gown with a scalloped neckline of Alencon lace re-embroidered with sequins and pearls. The bouffant floor length skirt formed a chapel train and a heart shaped headpiece embroidered with pearls held her fingertip veil. She carried a chapel bouquet of white roses, feathered carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Curtis Hanes of St. Joseph was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Abraham of Detroit and Mrs. William Morris. They were dressed in white nylon organza floor length dresses with blue cummerbunds and pink and blue leaf headpieces. They carried baskets of pink snapdragons, carnations and blue daisies.

Charles Saxton of St. Clair Shores was best man. Ushers were Richard Snyder of Warren and Dr. John Wooton of St. Clair Shores.

Friends Will Have to Do Own Serving

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am very handy with the needle and make all of my own clothes as well as those of my children. Whenever any of my friends and neighbors have hems to be put up or anything to be fixed, they come to me and ask me if I will do it for them. I have been asked to make dresses and suits for some of my friends.

"Between taking care of the house and sewing for my own family, I have no time to do any sewing for anyone else. Will you please tell me how I can tactfully refuse them without causing hard feelings?"

Answer: The only thing you can do the next time they ask you to do something is to tell them frankly that you are so busy with your own things that you simply can't do it. Add that if you do for one friend you can't refuse another and that the amount of outside sewing you have been doing has gotten to be beyond your capacity.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My son is going to be married at a morning wedding. All the men in the wedding party, including the bride's father, are going to wear striped trousers and cutaway coats. My husband had planned on wearing a dark blue business suit but my son has told him that he has to dress the same as the bride's father. My husband is very upset over this and we would like to know if my son is right."

"Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I are planning a week's vacation at a mountain resort some time soon. We will be served three meals a day by the same waitress. Will you please tell me how much of a tip we should leave her at the end of the week. This will be our first vacation and we want to be sure to do the right thing."

Answer: If the hotel is an inexpensive one, five dollars will be enough for the two of you. But if it is more expensive or at all pretentious, you will have to at least double this tip.

And Italian Princess Giggles

Royal Wedding Glitters

By EDDY GILMORE

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Prince Albert of Liege, heir presumptive to the Belgian throne, today married a beautiful blonde Italian princess who broke down with giggles midway through the glittering church wedding.

★ ★ ★

The radiant 21-year-old bride, Dona Paola Ruffo di Calabria, was asked by Joseph Cardinal Van Roey, the officiating clergyman, "Have you come here of your own free will to engage in marriage?"

★ ★ ★

"Yes," she replied in French—and then suddenly halted, giggled and couldn't go on.

With only an occasional faint trembling smile she completed the long ceremony performed amid medieval pageantry and splendor in the Roman Catholic church of Sts. Michael and Gudule.

When she took communion, she broke down and cried, her long hands once more flying to her face.

The bridegroom, younger brother of bachelor King Baudoin, was grim and nervous through the long ceremonies that began with a civil marriage service in the royal palace.

Riding in an open car along the procession route from the palace to the church for the religious ceremony, the bride waved gaily. The crowds loved it with excited cries of "Paola!"

Albert looked nervous and glum, giving only an occasional salute. Just before reaching the church, his pretty bride moved closer to her handsome husband in the back seat and squeezed his arm.

She wore a gorgeous high-necked ivory satin gown with a long-trained veil of snow-white Brussels lace. Albert wore a Belgian naval commander's dark blue uniform.

Cardinal Van Roey, during the church ceremony, called her a "lovely princess" and said Italy "sends you to Belgium as a ray of its beautiful sun and a reflection of its ardent soul."

Threatening skies failed to curb the enthusiasm of the crowds for the show of medieval splendor — trumpets blending with booming cannon and pealing church bells. Ancient Brussels was festively decorated.

The political rancor that changed the arrangements for the story-book wedding — originally scheduled for the Vatican with Pope John XXIII officiating — was pushed into the background.

Dona Paola responded to the burgomaster's query in a firm, clear voice. Albert's response was less audible. She smiled faintly. The groom was nervously grim and serious. Only after 20 minutes did he manage his first smile.

★ ★ ★

The only American on the guest list outside of the diplomatic corps was Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen, auxiliary bishop of New York, a personal friend of the Belgian royal family.

Anna Florence Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil R. Shaw, married William J. Englar Jr. Saturday in St. Michael Church.

MRS. WILLIAM J. ENGLAR JR.

Anna Shaw Speaks Vows in St. Michael Ceremony

Delphiniums and carnations banked the altar of St. Michael Catholic Church for the Saturday morning wedding of Anna Florence Shaw and William J. Englar Jr. The Rev. Francis O'Donnell officiated at double-ring Nuptial High Mass, before 200 guests.

The bride's gown was of French lace and nylon tulle. Iridescent sequins appliqued on lace panels accented the front and back of the bouffant skirt, which formed a chapel-length train.

Her veil of silk illusion was held by a sequined headpiece and she carried a bouquet of carnations, and lilies of the valley centered by an orchid on a Bible.

ATTEND BRIDE

Mrs. James Tinson was her sister's matron of honor and bridesmaid was Mrs. James Parker. Mrs. Tinson wore a ballerina-length gown of gold crystalette, and a crown headpiece held her nose veil. Mrs. Parker wore an aqua dress like the matron of honor's. They carried bouquets of white carnations.

Louis J. Blesch Jr. of East Lansing was best man. Gerald Englar of East Lansing, the bridegroom's brother, and James Tinson served as ushers.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Basil R. Shaw of Omar street. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. William J. Englar of Centerville and the late Mr. Englar.

BREAKFAST FOLLOWED

A breakfast, following the ceremony, was held at Hotel Waldron and an evening reception was held at the K. of C. hall.

Before leaving for a honeymoon through the northwestern states, the bride changed to a white sheath dress with aqua accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple will live in Idaho Falls, Idaho, where the bridegroom is employed as a food technologist. He is a graduate of University of Michigan.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Shaw wore a dress of mist blue lace over taffeta with white accessories and Mrs. Englar was dressed in a two-piece pink sheath dress with white accessories. Both had corsages of white carnations.

Liver at Fault

Age May Bring Sallow Skin

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

While some women take a beautiful peaches and cream complexion into later years the general tendency seems to be toward sallowness. Not all women experience this but many do find that their skin may acquire a yellow tinge as the years pile up.

The weathering process of course plays its part in the sallow looking complexion. The women who avoid this usually stay away from sunbathing and have lubricated their faces and necks faithfully over the years. Denied regular care our outer coating becomes dried out like a leather pocketbook which has not been properly oiled and thus kept soft and pliable.

Sometimes this yellow look which women dread may be due to some physical abnormality. For instance, a sluggish liver can cause it. I like to repeat the following exercise periodically because one of America's most distinguished physicians recommends it to all of his patients because it stirs up the liver.

Lie flat on your back. Pull your abdominal muscles in hard, toward your backbone. Push the muscles up as high as you can. Continue pulling down and pushing up with a pumping motion. You can do this in bed before going to sleep at night and when you awaken in the morning.

I recommended this same exercise to you the other day in connection with menstrual cramps, but did not mention the benefit to the liver. Here is another abdominal exercise which squeezes the liver. Lit flat on your back. Bend both knees up close to the abdomen. Grasp the knees with the hands and pull back. Return arms and legs to the floor or the bed and continue.

The habit of stirring up circulation, both generally and locally, will beautify your complexion. These above exercises and facial and neck exercises, plus circulation creams, will all be helpful. Lying while at rest, with your feet and legs higher than your hips increases the circulation in your face and neck too.

If you would like to have my facial or neck exercises, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 9. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

The household is vibrating with excitement. Mother is dashing about like crazy, buying chic bathing suits and a gorgeous formal gown.

Her pretty daughter, who is to wear these glamorous garments in competition for the "Miss Michigan" crown at Walled Lake this Sunday, bites her fingers nervously, but is careful not to break off a nail.

Father slumps in bewilderment in his chair. There is a gleam of pride in his eyes, however.

Little sister wants to know if there is anything she can do to help. Even her brother is swept along in the rush.

NEW RESPECT

Generally, emotions are running this same gamut in some 38 homes throughout the greater metropolitan area today.

From one of these homes a lovely girl will smile through her tears Sunday when she is picked "Miss Michigan 1959."

Locally, there are two attractive young misses who will vie for the state crown. Both are 18 years old, minimum age for entry in the contest.

Janice Howland sighed sweetly as she sank into a lounging chair to answer questions. "Nervous? No, I'm not," she said quickly.

She danced too quickly past judges then, her mother explained. "It was her first beauty contest."

"I'll go slower this time," the pert teenager said. A graceful 5 feet 3 inches tall, Janice weighs 118 pounds and measures 34-23-34. Her hair is a lustrous brunette and she has quick blue-green eyes.

The other local contestant, equally charming, is Dawn Mathews. She lives with her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Snarr, at 3216 Adele Terrace, Commerce Township.

VERY EXCITED

Dawn admits she is very excited about entering the contest, but says, "My family is even more excited than I am.

"We're going to buy my formal gown tomorrow," Dawn added. "I hope we can find a white one with a royal blue sash!" Her violet eyes flashed.

Dawn is a 5-foot, 6-inch brunette and weighs 125. Her other statistics: 34-24-37.

A graduate this year of Walled Lake High School, she is working for the summer as a waitress at Walled Lake.

"Unless I can beeome an airline hostess, I'd like to go on to college, probably at Central Michigan," Dawn said.

Her hobbies include sketching in pencil and pen and ink, water skiing and, of course, swimming.

A talented speaker, Dawn, won her high school's forensic contest this year and went on to place second in the school district contest.

Janice also was graduated from Walled Lake High School this year. Her main hobby since she was 12 years old has been horseback riding. Here a note of sadness tinged her soft voice.

She explained that she had had to sell her horse, Golden Nugget, a beautiful palomino, last week.

"I'll be going away to college and won't be able to ride him anyway," said Janice.

Her favorite hobbies are reading and traveling and she studies piano. Janice intends to major in physical education at Eastern Michigan College, Ypsilanti.

The two lovely young ladies will enter competition with approximately 36 other aspirants between the ages of 18 and 28 Sunday at Walled Lake Amusement Park.

Officials haven't decided yet whether to hold the event in the park's roller rink or in the Casino Ballroom on the park grounds.

A bathing suit review of entrants is scheduled for 4 p.m. Then they will parade past judges in formal gowns at 7 p.m., at which time "Miss Michigan" will be picked to reign for the year.

She will go on to compete for the "Miss Universe" contest at Long Beach, Calif., during the week of July 16 with a complete wardrobe donated and all expenses paid.

Rochester Set for Gala Show

Event to Climax Festive Holiday

Coronation of Queen, Plenty of Talent Slated at 4th-O-Ram-A

ROCHESTER — A swift-moving, entertainment-packed Fourth of July finale awaits Rochester area families planning to attend the Kiwanis Club's first "Family 4th-O-Ram-A" celebration, to be staged from 5:30 p.m. through dusk at the Rochester Athletic Field Saturday.

Kiwanis President Milton Weaver said today that some 60 club members and their families have been making preparations for the event for more than two months. They agree that this is the community's most ambitious public undertaking in recent years, he said.

The gala stage show will start at 5:30 p.m. and will feature top amateur acts in the area. It will be continuous to 7 p.m.

At this time Miss Rochester and her attendants, Beatrice Bissett and Janice DeBaene, will make their grand entrance onto the field. Miss Rochester is Carole Bird who, with her two maids of honor, has been making numerous radio and television appearances during recent weeks to publicize the Kiwanis event.

Following the coronation of the queen, the program of professional entertainment will begin. This part of the program will include a high-wire act, a Chinese tumbling act, Captain Reynolds and his trained seals, the Dancing Debs, and the Royal Jokers, a rock 'n' roll singing-comedy act.

LENNON TO EMCEE

Rochester's own master of ceremonies, Paul Lennon, will preside over the professional entertainment, which will last until 9 p.m.

The finale of the show will be the traditional fireworks display to be put on by the Rochester volunteer fire department, in cooperation with Rochester industries. Admission to this event will be free.

William Slavin and Jack Mitzelfeld, cochairmen of the 4th-O-Ram-A, are making final checks with committee heads for entertainment, food, facilities, prizes and ticket sales today.

Free, supervised parking will be provided for motorists off Livernois road, just south of University drive, according to Richard Huizenga, facilities chairman.

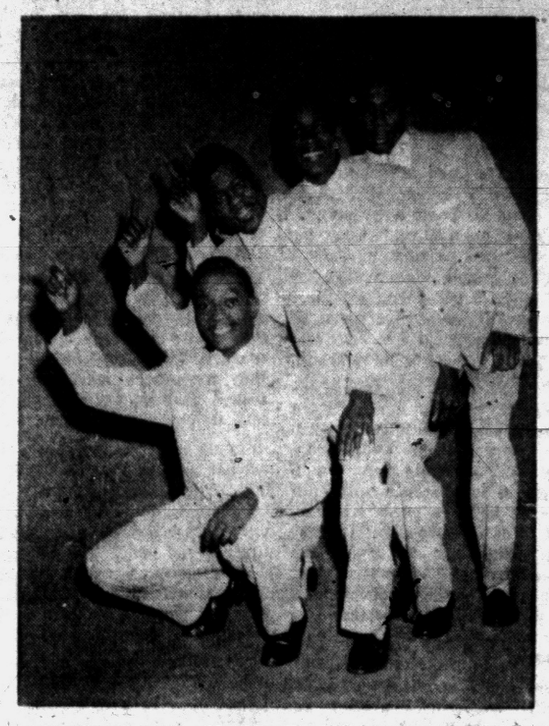
There will be off-street parking for as many as 1,000 cars, and the athletic field is being converted into a theater-in-the-round by program chairman Carl Lehnen and his professional advisors.

Food to be offered for sale will include barbecued beef sandsandwiches, ice cream, popcorn and soft drinks, according to Vern Houghten, food chairman.

Advance sale tickets may be purchased from any member of the Kiwanis Club or its affiliate, the Planters' Club, or from ticket depots set up in the village.

Proceeds will be used to defray expenses and any earnings will go into the Kiwanis year-round youth activities fund, according to Weaver, who is also ticket chairman of the event.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES — Rochester's own comedy emcee, Paul Lennon, will spark the "Family 4th O-Ram-A" professional and amateur show at Rochester this weekend. The professionals will present five major attractions, and the amateur show will bring top local talent to the gala celebration.



FEATURED ACT — The Four Royal Jokers, a rock 'n' roll and pop quartet, will appear in person at the Rochester Kiwanis "Family 4th O-Ram-A" celebration Saturday at the Rochester High School athletic field. The program, to be presented on a theater-in-the-round stage, will start at 5:30 p. m.

Ridding Walled Lake of Slum Area

Duplexes Will Replace Shacks

By DENNIS DINAN

WALLED LAKE — Yeterday marked the first step in a clean-up program that will rid Walled Lake of a long-condemned slum area.

★ ★ ★

Mark Chessler, owner of the Willow Camp Housing Development on Walled Lake drive, took out two building permits that will enable him to replace his shacks with clean, modern duplex apartments.

With a threatened legal battle on his hands, Chessler at the 11th hour compiled with a city request to tear down the old dwellings and replace them with living quarters complying with the city building code.

The colony of shacks, with the crudest of living essentials, had existed in Willow Camp since 1941. That was prior to Chessler's ownership. But in 1955 the city warned him that his property constituted a health menace in the community.

During a peak period, 77 dwellings were in use, each occupied by one or more families. Complaints, often more than one a day, poured into the Walled Lake City Office concerning the unsanitary conditions in Chessler's development.

According to Walled Lake Building Inspector Harold Milspagh, the people originally attracted to the development were "problem" families.

Finally, after four years of bickering, Chessler has signed an agreement with Walle Lake to erect suitable living units. Already he has evicted the old occupants and has demolished most of the buildings.

Two new apartments, which will house four families are to have two bedrooms, a utility room, kitchen and one bathroom for each. Chessler plans to complete the two new units this fall.

"Chessler has agreed to provide adequate sanitation and we will see that he does," said Milspaugh.

★ ★ ★

The Oakland County Sanitation Division had joined with Walled Lake in persuading Chessler to replace the old shacks. The county also will be checking to insure decent living conditions in the new buildings.

Dryden to Stage Boom Day Fete

Parade, Games, Dance, Fireworks to Spark July 4 Celebration

DRYDEN — A holiday atmosphere will prevail here Saturday when the Dryden Area Development Assn. stages its "Boom Day" celebration. The festivities will open with a flag-raising ceremony at 11 a.m.

The next event, to be held in front of the Township Hall, will be the coronation of "Miss Dryden," Sonja Schultz, by Village President Robert White. The queen will be accompanied by her two attendants, Jacque Arnold and Sharon Hilliker.

The crowd then will reassemble along the main streets of town to watch the parade which will form at the school. Leading off will be Boy Scout Troop 130, followed by the high school band, children in colorful costumes, floats and decorated cars.

A chicken barbecue will be served throughout the day, beginning at noon, on the Community school grounds, weather permitting. If it should rain, the meals will be served in the school building.

A baseball game at 1 p.m. will feature the Dryden Little Leaguers versus the Imlay City Little League All Stars. The game will be played on the school athletic field.

A tractor pull at 2:30 will be followed by a tug o' war on Main street between the Dryden volunteer firemen (Lapeer County champions) and county challengers.

A street dance will be held at the same location at 8 p.m., and from 9 to 9:30 there will be a spectacular fireworks display on the school athletic field.

Throughout the day-long celebration, the association plans to have booths offering a variety of items for sale, games to attract youngsters of all ages and refreshments. Admission is free.

Brandon CD Police Finish Up Course

BRANDON TOWNSHIP — The 14-member Brandon Township Civil Defense Police Auxiliary won certificates of graduation last night in a brief ceremony held in the Oakland County Jail building.

Having completed a 10-week course, the group now stands ready to aid regular police officers in event of military or natural disaster, said Howard Quick, 925 Sands Rd., Ortonville.

MARY MAPLEY SUTTON

Mrs. Patrick L. (Mary) Sutton was graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in art from San Diego State College, San Diego, Calif. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mapley of 18 McNeil St., she attended Michigan State University three years before transferring to San Diego last June.

She and her husband both plan to continue their education for Master's degrees.

Over 6,000 Expected to Join Fun

Highland to Stage Gala 4th Festivities

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

HIGHLAND — More than 6,000 people are expected to attend the all-day Fourth of July celebration in this tiny town of 350 residents.

Sponsored by the Highland Volunteer Fire Department, festivities will get under way at 1 p.m. with pony rides, a merry-go-round, and other carnival rides for children. They will also be given free rides around the Highland School grounds on the big fire trucks.

Two teenage baseball teams will battle it out in mid-afternoon, and a parade of fire trucks from Milford, Hartland, White Lake and Highland will begin at 6:30 p.m. around the school grounds.

From 7 p.m. until dusk, the Milford High School band will present a concert of marches, semi-classical and show music.

When it is dark enough, one of the largest fireworks displays that the department has ever presented, costing $1,000, will be touched off by Fire Chief Kenneth Hayden.

For weeks, the 30-member department has been working on ground displays. There will be "whistle wheels, devil wheels and crazy wheels." A 35-foot high "Niagra Falls" display took firemen four nights to prepare.

Kerney-Knapp's "cement-mixer truck" display will again be one of the most spectacular projects of the show, and a huge American flag, and a statue of Liberty have also been constructed for the ground events.

Eight parachute shells will shoot into the sky and are guaranteed to "hang" there for several moments. Forty U.S. Army mortar guns will open and close the show, along with the fiery "Welcome," and "Good Night" ground display.

Funds for the huge event were accumulated through special events held during the year, and through voluntary contributions of people interested in the fire department's project.

Last year, approximately 5,500 people witnessed the display in the 'natural' arena surrounding the school grounds. There are sod-covered banks, tiered for easy viewing, and there is parking space for some 2,000 cars.

Pair Is Accused of Possessing Drugs

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP—Warrants will be sought today for a Royal Oak Township man and woman on charges of possession of narcotics, township Police Det. Albert West reported today.

Being held at the Oakland County Jail are Alice Bell, 27, of 20868 Westview St., and Marion Yancy, 26, of 21626 Hillcrest Ct.

They were arrested Monday night by patrolman Henry Burks who said he saw Yancy throw a package which proved to contain narcotics from the back window of a car in which he, another man, two youths, and Miss Bell were sitting.

Yancy and the woman are being held on an open charge. The two youths and the other man, all of Detroit, who were arrested at the same time, have been released due to lack of evidence, West said.

Solons Ask Study of UP Resources

LANSING (AP)—A group of Upper Peninsula legislators has introduced a resolution in the House calling for a special committee to investigate the resources of the area and its economic potential.

The resolution said that although some studies have been made they were "vague in economic structure, without definite programs."

The group, headed by Rep. Louis Mezzano (D-Wakefield) proposed that four House and three Senate members be assigned to the committee. It was suggested the lawmakers work with the State Economic Development Commission to study a 1953 report made by Ebasco Services, Inc., to determine what legislation is needed to make portions of the report effective.

New Teen Club Plans Hay Ride

Club members have established the third Sunday of every month as Teen Communion Sunday at the 9 a.m. Mass, to be followed by a breakfast.

Dues of $1 will be collected at the next meeting, to be held at 8 p.m. July 7. All parish teens, members or not, are invited as well as interested adults.

Legislators Don't Want to Hear Romney Speak

LANSING (AP)—A suggestion that the Legislature invite George Romney, president of American Motors Corp., to counsel it on taxes met a cool reception in the Senate.

A resolution to ask Romney to speak to a joint legislative meeting and to take part in tax discussions was submitted yesterday by Sen. Haskell L. Nichols (R-Jackson). It was referred to committee.

World of Good Eating Is Available for Holiday

You can take a holiday on the Fourth of July! Plan to choose economical seasonal foods that are also labor savers advise the Michigan State University marketing agent.

MEATS FOR THE FOURTH

If you took a poll, most people would say that ham, broilers, turkey, frankfurters, hamburgers and canned meats are fun to prepare and eat.

You're in luck if your family likes ham. Regular smoked hams are about 50 cents a pound . . . that's less than 20 cents a serving. Canned hams range from about 76 cents a pound for the 10-pound size to $1.20 per pound for the 2-pounder. If you figure costs, the canned hams yield 3 to 4 servings per pound depending upon the size of appetites.

You're in luck again. Even though wholesale prices on fryers are higher this week, many stores are featuring them. You'll find a 4- to 8-cent-per-pound difference between whole ready-to-eat birds and those cut for frying. Those cut for frying are sometimes heavier and meatier, however. You might double check at your store. The popular size for broiling is between 1½ to 2 pounds.

How could you use turkey this week? Wholesalers predict that prices are as low as you will find this year. The small, broad-breasted Beltsville type turkey is 39 to 49 cents a pound in a number of stores. Did you know that small turkeys weighing 5 pounds or less are fine for frying or barbecuing over the grill just as you would a fryer? The breast of a large turkey might be cut into 1-inch cubes and broiled on a skewer with a thin slice of orange between each piece of turkey.

Beef prices remain as they have been. Choice grade sirloin steak is about 40 cents a serving or you could use the top part of a round at 33 to 35 cents a serving. The top round needs marinating overnight in tomato juice, French dressing or some other food acid mixture.

The meat for one hamburger will cost from 12½ to 21 cents. A safe way to take hamburger meat to the picnic spot is to make a batch of well-seasoned mixture in advance. Form into flat patties and stack with a piece of waxed paper between each one. Fit patties into a tall milk carton, cover with foil and freeze.

Large family size cans of tuna (9½ ounces) are available, and tuna is easy to mix for sandwiches or salad at the picnic site. Canned meats are quickly sliced for sandwiches. Or cut cold meat into thick slices or cubes for grilling. Daub with barbecue sauce as you turn and turn often.

VEGETABLES THAT BELONG

Potatoes are the backbone of picnic vegetables. Oiled, wrapped in foil and cooked over the open fire you can serve them for about 3 cents each. Or plan plenty of cold potato salad. For safe keeping, keep the storage temperature of potato salad below 50 degrees during travel.

You might be more generous with use of cucumbers this week. Local supplies are increasing and prices are lower. Cabbage is one of the most economical vegetables at 5 to 8 cents a pound. Green onions and radishes fit into your menu plans at low cost also.

BEST OF PICNIC DESSERTS

Dessert choices are many, and your decision depends upon how much work you wish to do.

Watermelon requires no preparation in advance. Supplies are increasing and you'll find many specially marked for the holiday. Whole melons average about 4½ cents per pound.

What could be easier for dessert than ice cream and raspberries or strawberries? Seasonal supplies of ice cream are large and Michigan berries are a timely choice. Strawberries are about 50 cents a quart this week with most arriving from the Alpena area.

Had you thought about serving apples in July? Good, fresh, crisp Michigan apples are available at lower prices per pound than many other fruits in the market. This is possible because they have been stored in controlled atmosphere rooms since last October.

Cantaloupe, lemons, limes and peaches are in largest supply in July. These are clues for you to use them while supplies are large and prices are lower than at other times of the year. The California plum crop is 30 per cent above average and 72 per cent larger than last year. Most need further ripening to develop good eating flavor.

Harvest to Start on State's Giant Sour Cherry Crop

LANSING (UPI) — Harvest will start next week on a sour cherry crop expected to be 70 per cent larger than last year's, the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service said today.

★ ★ ★

Harvest of sours for processors will be about a third above average, the service said.

Prospects for other tree fruits were described as "generally good."

Soil moisture was improved by light to moderate rainfall recently but more rain was needed.

★ ★ ★

Sales Tax Goes to 3½ Pct. in Illinois

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (UPI)—The Illinois sales tax moved up to 3½ per cent Wednesday in Chicago and most downstate cities.

A law boosting the state tax from 2½ to 3 per cent became effective then. In addition, most communities in the state levy an additional ½ cent for local use.

Added revenue from the increased state sales tax, estimated at 110 million dollars during the next two years, is earmarked for educational purposes.

Bloomfield Osteopath Alternate for Convention

Dr. Paul W. Trimmer, 881 Bloomcrest Dr., Bloomfield Township, has been selected as an alternate member of the House of Delegates for the 63rd annual American Osteopathic Assn. convention July 13 to 17 in Chicago.

He will represent the Michigan Assn. of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons. The 146-member House of Delegates is the policy-making body of the osteopathic profession.

Nixon on Spot Again as Ike Refuses to Endorse Him Publicly for '60

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Once again, as in 1956, President Eisenhower refuses to say whether he wants Vice President Richard M. Nixon chosen for high office. It was rough on Nixon once. It may be again.

Nixon, a man with many friends and many enemies, is both liked and despised.

In 1956, although he had some opposition within the party, he was front-runner all the way for the Republican vice-presidential renomination, yet the latest book on him indicates he must have had grave doubts about his chances.

Newspaperman Earl Mazo — in "Richard Nixon, a Political and Personal Portrait" — says Nixon three years, ago, because of Eisenhower's reluctance or delay in endorsing him, seriously considered getting out of politics.

But Nixon never had in 1956—as he does now—anyone of the stature or popularity of New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller throwing a shadow across his path. Rockefeller isn't officially in the race—yet.

Wednesday, Eisenhower — in what sounded like an echo of 1956—told a news conference he will keep hands off the choice of the 1960 Republican presidential candidate.

Both early and repeatedly in 1956, Eisenhower refused to say yes or no to wanting Nixon as his running mate again. At the same time he denied reports his advisers had urged him to "dump" Nixon.

Eisenhower sad he would be "happy" to have Nixon on the ticket with him. But he said it only after Nixon had received a large number of write-in votes in the New Hampshire primary.

Now comes some inside light on those days in Mazo's book which, the author acknowledges, was written with considerable help from Nixon.

Although Eisenhower denied the dump-Nixon report, Mazo says the President asked Nixon whether it wouldn't be wiser for him—if he wanted to run for president in 1960—to step aside and take a Cabinet job.

And Eisenhower, Mazo says, pointed out to Nixon that while Herbert Hoover moved into the presidency from a Cabinet job, no vice president in 100 years had been directly elected to the presidency.

Mazo says one of Nixon's friends told him Eisenhower's "reluctance to come out flatly and ask Nixon to be his running mate was one of the greatest hurts of his (Nixon's) whole career."

Eisenhower brushed aside a suggestion Wednesday that he was trying to build up Nixon for 1960 by sending him to open the American exhibit in Moscow this month.

Nevertheless, Nixon's trip there, as in the case of his previous travels around the world, not only will keep him in the public eye but, depending on how he handles himself, may build up the presidential image of him. Among other things he will have a chance to talk with Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Even if Nixon is Eisenhower's personal choice for president in 1961, Eisenhower would be sticking his neck out if he said so now. The reason is simple enough.

A lot of things can happen—some of them to Nixon's dismay—between now and the Republican convention next summer. Besides, Eisenhower has no way of telling now how the convention delegates will feel by that time.

By next summer Rockefeller may be in the race up to his neck. And, while professional Republican politicians may be indebted to Nixon for many favors of one kind or another, they are still professionals.

If by convention time they think they can win with Rockefeller and would lose with Nixon, they're apt to forget the Nixon favors. But at least Nixon, working on the inside, will have a year to try to nail down the nomination.

4-Point Safety Program Fights Traffic Carnage

(This article deals with the four-point legislative program of the Traffic Safety Commitgee of the Michigan Press Association and what various state agencies are doing to reduce the toll of accidents and fatalities on Michigan highways and streets.)

By AL HAUGNER
Editorial Writer,
Port Huron Times Herald

If the State of Michigan were to experience tomorrow a natural disaster in which more than 2,000 persons were killed, about 60,000 were injured and in which property damage exceeded $240,000,000, we would be appalled.

The whole state would pitch in to relieve the distress and work at remedial action. The leadership of the state would unite in a program of rehabilitation.

That happened to Michigan in 1955—on the state's highways and streets. And the result was a statewide conference in Lansing and a special session of the Legislature.

The carnage on the highways was dealt with boldly. Since that time, the death toll, the number of injured, and the economic loss have dropped. But, unfortunately, there is nothing to indicate that the number of dead and injured will continue to fall, unless enforcement, education and statewide cooperation is stepped up.

Support of the Michigan State Safety Commission is part of the four-step program endorsed by the Traffic Safety Committee of the Michigan Press Association.

The Michigan Safety Commission is pre-eminent in the traffic field of our state because it seeks to save lives through organization of a safety council in every community in the state.

★ ★ ★

Members of the commission are the governor, secretary of state, commissioner of State Police, commissioner of state highways and the superintendent of public instruction. Advisory members are the attorney general and the chairman of the Public Service Commission.

CREATED IN 1941

The commission was created in 1941 by act of the Legislature.

It is the duty of the commission to consult and cooperate with all departments of state and elsewhere; to cooperate with safety officials of the United States government; to encourage safety education, and to do whatever is possible or necessary for more effective safety conditions.

The governor is the honorary chairman. It meets the first Tuesday of each month, and it is financed by a state appropriation passed each year by the Legislature. The commission employs an executive secretary and as much other help as is necessary to carry out the work. The present secretary is Gerald W. Shipman.

The support organization for the commission is the Michigan Citizens Highway Safety Action Committee. This support group was sworn in following the President's Highway Safety Conference in May, 1956.

In seeking to carry out its four-point program, the commission seeks the cooperation of all departments of state government, the Legislature, the state's educational institutions, and officials of local governments.

The four-point program of the commission follows: 1) promote greater safety on public highways and streets; 2) study and investigate traffic conditions and menaces to public safety; 3) to cooperate with officials of the Federal and local governments in regulating highway traffic, and 4) to encourage safety education in the state.

Because education is a prominent part of the program, the emphasis is laid heavily on the schools. Committees sponsored by the Department of Public Instruction are constantly developing new techniques and programs with the aid of educators and others.

SOCIAL PROBLEM

The commission holds that because traffic safety is getting to be our great social problem, young people are particularly qualified to do something about it. They are original and have ingenuity and do well in group activity.

It is the belief of the commission that students, individually and collectively, can have a profound effect on traffic safety.

Students are encouraged to form safety groups within the framework of their school student councils. They are encouraged to spread the word among their associates that it is "smart to be safe."

But the commission is not content to work on students to gain safer driving conditions; it encourages the formation of county and community groups.

Most safety councils have a board of control, and this is representative of the community and membership. Working committees cover each phase of the council's activity.

In one Michigan county, the Board of Supervisors is the board of control. In others, public officials are ex-officio members. In some organizations, chairmen of working committees are on the board of control, occasionally on the executive committee. The executive committee is usually a smaller group consisting of officers of the organization.

Chief function of the executive committee is to secure finances and expedite council business. The executive secretary should be a person with leadership qualities and a good sense of public relations.

But, in the last analysis, it is important that the final county or community safety council is representative of the area it serves. And cooperation is the absolute foundation of a productive safety effort.

Finally, all experts agreed that a local or community program should be based on a study of needs and cooperation with public officials responsible for safety.

The finance needed to operate will come, the state commission believes, if top people are sold on the community organization in the beginning.

The commission says a simple test should be applied to each project: "Will this project help save lives and reduce accidents in our community?"

World War II Grenade Kills 4 Italian Tots

TARANTO, Italy (UPI) — Four children were killed and four were wounded near here Tuesday when a hand grenade exploded in their midst.

Officials said the children had come across the grenade—apparently of World War II vintage—while playing in a field. It went off as the youngsters attempted to take it apart.

1 in 3 Drink Treated Water

Fluoridation Grows

WASHINGTON (AP)—One out of every three persons served by a central water supply in this country now drinks fluoridated water.

This new estimate was made yesterday by the Public Health Service. The service said in a statement that water supplies serving seven million persons contain enough natural fluoride to prevent two out of three dental cavities.

There are another 35 million people in 1,800 communities in which the water supply is treated with fluorides to provide dental protection.

Data compiled by dental directors of all state health agencies at the request of the Public Health Service showed there are 1,903 cities and towns in 43 states which use water in which the fluoride occurs naturally.

Community populations served range from fewer than 50 to more than 500,000.

Texas tops the list by far, with 356 communities served with naturally fluoridated water. They have a population of 2,766,767.

New Mexico reported the highest percentage of population being served such water, 465,292 people or 68 per cent of those in the state. Numerically, New Mexico ranked second among the states.

Roach Powder Kills Grief-Stricken Girl

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Miss Dorothy Baker, 21, died of swallowing roach powder Wednesday night, less than 24 hours after her fiance drowned in a midnight swim.

They were to have been married Saturday.

Harry Brandon, 19, drowned when a party of 15 or 20 youths climbed a fence at a public park pool which had been closed for the night. Police, answering an anonymous call, found his body on a sun deck.

Miss Baker was charged with public intoxication in connection with the incident. She was given a suspended fine of $1 and costs Wednesday.

Police Sgt. Thomas Flanary said she evidently went home from the courtroom and ate a quantity of the insect poison.

Defecting Envoy Says Reds Hold Horde in Camps

RANGOON, Burma (AP)—Alexander Kaznacheev, the Soviet diplomat who fled to the American Embassy here last week, said in a recorded statement that "millions of people are in concentration camps" in the Soviet Union.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

He declared that the prisoners were being used not only for national reconstruction work but also for "building palaces for the bloody clique ruling the country."

Election in West Berlin Calls Communist Bluff

BY J. M. ROBERTS
AP news Analyst

The election of a German president in West Berlin has passed off, like the May 27 deadline originally set by Khruschchev for Western evacuation of the city, without the reprisals threatened by the Communists.

The event helps to point up three situations which have been subject to speculation in recent months.

First, it is added evidence that the Communists have been set back on their heels by Western determination to maintain the position of West Berlin as an enclave inside the Iron Curtain, and eventually to re-establish the city as the capital of all Germany.

It increases the belief that the Kremlin has been conducting a limited offensive rather than an all out attack for control of the whole city.

When Khrushchev brought up the matter of Western withdrawal from West Berlin he may have been judging their position by his own. Knowing the celebration which would accompany Communist withdrawal from German territory, he could have hoped to stir up a German Nationalist movement against the Western Allies.

Instead, there is every evidence that West Germans are now more than ever aware of their integration with Western European and American interests, and no sign has developed of a "Yankee go home" spirit.

Chancellor Adenauer, having opposed convocation of the electoral college in Berlin as a possible provocation to the Reds during the Geneva conference interim, is proved to have been overly cautious. The outcome, however, represents a political victory which the Western Powers will welcome for him.

The political squabble resulting from reversal of his decision to quit his job for the less active one of president appeared in the West as a threat to German unity at a time of crisis. Now it appears to have been less serious than it appeared. His party, though undoubtedly divided over his actions, was able to present an overwhelming front against its principal challengers, the Socialists.

Every time the Communists have reached out for new territory in the past few years—in the Middle East, Europe, Quemoy—they have drawn back a nub.

Press Printers Attend Union's State Convention

Pontiac Press printers were among some 40 delegates attending the 1959 Convention of the Michigan Federation of Typographical Unions in Bay City this week.

William C. Pfahlert and Dale Branigan attended the three-day convention as representatives of the union's Local 512 in Pontiac.

The union awarded its 1960 convention to Escanaba and its 1961 meeting to Grand Rapids. The fall conference will be held in Flint.

By BILL CORNWELL

GRAND BLANC — Never bet against the champion until he's beaten, so they say, but the odds were not in Billy Casper's favor today as the $52,000 Buick Open golf tournament got under way at giant Warwick Hills Country Club.

The letdown that inevitably seems to follow a victory in the National Open has taken its hold on stout William, who is having difficulty regaining his magic touch since winning the marbles at Mamaroneck, N. Y.

Casper won this tourney last year to pocket the fattest check of his professional golfing career — $9,000. The same-sized purse goes to this year's winner, but many observers here will be surprised if Billy repeats.

Tommy Bolt suffered a letdown here a year ago after winning the U.S. Open at Tulsa, Okla. He got off to a good start, then sagged badly during the last 36 holes to finish far down the list.

★ ★ ★

There are a lot of favorites here — depending on whose opinion you're getting — but the concensus boils the list down to Arnold Palmer, Mike Souchak and Gene Littler.

★ ★ ★

Accuracy as well as distance is required over this par 36-36—72 layout which measures 7,280 yards at its maximum length and Palmer has the long accurate game to fit it. Runnerup here last year including a rained-out 67, Palmer is playing well right now.

Littler is at the peak of his game, according to his fellow pros, and he must be regarded as a top title threat. Souchak's performances lately have been his best in a long time and he is held in high regard by the bettors.

Other favorites are Samuel Jackson Snead, Dr. Cary Middlecoff and Ken Venturi, who just picked up 1st place cash in the Chicago Open last weekend at Gleneagles.

Snead and Bill Collins turned in the best practice rounds of the bunch yesterday, five-under-par 67s to equal the competitive course record currently held by Palmer and Don January.

Other outstanding tuneup scores were reported by long-hitting Paul Harney and slim Dave Hill from Jackson. Harney went around in 68 strokes while Hill carded 70.

Pontiac's Gene Bone, host pro for this 72-hole model play event, strings along with Souchak, Littler and the Doc as the ones most likely to capture the nine grand on Sunday night.

★ ★ ★

What does Bone think of his own chances? "They're not too good," commented Gene, "I've never been able to shoot lower than 72 on this links and I'll have to do better than that to stand any chance of winning."

★ ★ ★

A total of 152 players, including 14 amateurs, started leaving the 1st tee this morning at 8 oclock.

DEFENDS TITLE—Billy Casper, the 1959 National Open champion, begins defense of his Buick Open title which started today at Warwick Hills in Grand Blanc. The tourney has a top prize of $9,000 which Casper grabbed a year ago.

LONG HITTER — Warwick Hills' long course will need some long ball hitters like George Bayer to crack its par-72 layout. Bayer stands 6-feet-5 and weighs 240 pounds. Warwick Hills, where the Buick Open is now being played, measures 7,280 yards on the long blue course tees.

Foytack Needs Help From Narleski

Chrisley Blasts First Home Run in 5-4 Triumph

Groth Is Fourth Tiger Player to Be Sidelined by Injuries

DETROIT (UPI) — For seven innings, twice interrupted by rain, Paul Foytack appeared headed for the best pitching performance of his career.

But the pair of delays finally began to tell on Foytack and he needed help from Ray Narleski in the ninth yesterday to preserve a 5-4 victory over the Kansas City Athletics.

Foytack held the Athletics to one hit until the eighth and that safety was of the questionable variety. Jerry Lumpe led off the game with a fly to deep center.

Johnny Groth started for the drive but the Detroit outfielder seemed to be running at half speed. The ball fell for a triple and Lumpe scored on a sacrifice fly by Kent Hadley.

★ ★ ★

When the inning ended, Groth confessed to manager Jimmie Dykes that he had been playing with a pulled leg muscle for two days.

It marked the fourth time in five days that the Tigers had lost a player because of an injury. Frank Bolling, Al Kaline and Jim Bunning preceded Groth to the sidelines. Kaline was injured in mid-June at Baltimore but had to leave the lineup for corrective surgery.

But Dykes has been most fortunate during the series of injuries. Detroit has won four of the last five starts and reserves from a bench he readily admits is weak have done their share.

Chrisley, who had only one hit in 20 times at bat before moving into the outfield after Groth's departure, personally tied the score with his first homer of the year in the fourth inning after a 10-minute delay because of rain.

The second delay was 35 minutes. It came after Kansas City had batted in the top of the seventh.

Detroit pounded out five hits in a four-run rally in the bottom of the seventh.

Rocky Bridges singled leading off and moved to third on a pair of infield outs. Eddie Yost singled him home and chased Kansas City starter Ned Garver.

Johnny Kucks came on and Harvey Kuenn tagged him for a double to score Yost. Charley Maxwell beat out an infield hit and Kuenn scored as Hadley threw wildly to first. Maxwell reached second and came home on a single by Gus Zernial.

seventh win against seven loses, Garver dropped his seventh decision against six wins.

A single by Lumpe and homers by Hadley and Bob Cerv pulled the Athletics to within a run of Detroit in the ninth.

Holiday Races Set

Busy Weekend Slated for Quarter Midgets

A 50-lap, 4th of July feature, with 75 entries will be held Saturday at 2:30 p.m., and on Sunday 100 entries will take part in the regular trophy point races.

A brother combination, Bobby and Jimmy Newberg of Bloomfield Township, ages 9 and 11 respectively are top contenders in their divisions, as is Tom Hanz of Birmingham driving the Moss Special among the 13 year olds.

Qualifying for the 15 events Sunday starts at 1:30 p.m. with the first race going at 3:00 p.m.

The quarter-mile track has races each Sunday without admission or parking costs. Plans are being made for lighting, which initiate evening races.

Argentinian Makes 11th Attempt at British Title

MUIRFIELD, Scotland (AP) — Antonio Cerda, a stocky, powerful, Argentinian, has one big ambition — to become the first South American golfer to win the British Open.

"And I think this is going to be my year," he said today as he started the second round of the 72-hole championship only one stroke behind the leaders.

"This is my eleventh try. I was in sixth place or better from 1951 to 1956. In 1951 I was runner up to Max Faulkner (England). The course for this year's championship — Muirfield — is one I like.

"You need to control all your shots. And that's the way I play."

Cerda shot a 33-36--69 yesterday to finish one stroke behind leaders Fred Bullock and Arnold Stickley, two little known English professionals, who led the field of 90 with 68s.

★ ★ ★

The Muirfield links beside the Firth of Forth changes rapidly from easy to tough — according to the wind. Once the wind blows the course becomes three or four strokes harder. It's a lucky golfer who gets his round in before the wind howls.

"Ruiz's tremendous driving will help him a lot on this longer course," Cerda said. "If Ruiz putts well then he's in with a great chance."

★ ★ ★

Ruiz took 36-36--72 in yesterday's opening round. Player, 23-years old and experienced on the U.S. circuit, finished with 39-36--75 after getting a six at the 14th hole in the strong winds of the afternoon.

★ ★ ★

Sam King, 48-year-old English professional, playing in his first big tournament for a year, British Walker Cupper Michael Bonallack and Flory Van Donck of Belgium were two strokes behind the leaders on 70.

★ ★ ★

The four American competitors faced a hard task to get into the maximum of 50 players for the last two rounds Friday. John Garrett, a 23-year-old amateur from Houston, Tex., was best placed with 76.

★ ★ ★

Bob Sweeny, an amateur from Palm Beach, Fla., and Willie Goggin, 53-year-old world senior champion from San Jose, Calif., had 78. Bob Watson of Ardsley-on-Hudson, N. Y., had 82.

Bobby Locke, four times winner from South Africa and his fellow countryman Harold Henning, were five strokes behind with 73.

★ ★ ★

Two British Walker Cup players — Joe Carr of Ireland and Reid Jack of Scotland — were among the leaders. Jack shot a 71 yesterday.

Comeback Star Conley Gains 6th, Cubs Win

By The Associated Press

No doubt about it, long Gene Conley is the No. 1 contender for the comeback-of-the-year honors in the National League. And he's doing it the hard way—as a winning pitcher for Philadelphia's last-place Phillies.

The 6-foot-8 right-hander who couldn't win a game last season for pennant-winning Milwaukee, underscored his selection to the All-Star staff by pitching his second shutout last night, beating Pittsburgh 1-0 with a five-hitter.

It was the sixth victory in 10 decisions for Conley, who has hurled the Phils' only two successes in their last 10 games and three of their four over the last 15. Three of his defeats were by one run, the other by two.

In the only other NL game played, the Chicago Cubs defeated St. Louis 6-5. Milwaukee's game at Cincinnati was rained out, leaving the first place Braves with a half-game over the San Francisco Giants, who were idle along with Los Angeles.

Conley, 28, walked but one and struck out eight while gaining his sixth complete game and lowering his earned run average to 2.80. Dick Groat had two of the Pirates' hits, all singles.

The Phils had six hits, using just one to score in the third inning against loser Ron Kline 6-6. Joe Kopper, who came to Philadelphia along with Conley in a spring trade with Milwaukee, walked, stole second and came home on Richie Ashburn's single.

Conley, (0-6) with Milwaukee last season, was sent packing by the Braves when his role as a bench-strength big guy for pro basketball's champion Boston Celtics overlapped spring training. He since has had a taste of revenge while beating every club but Cincinnati whom he hasn't faced and St. Louis, blanking the Braves 6-0 on six hits May 24.

Just this week his ex-boss, Braves' Manager Fred Haney, who will skipper the NL, named him to the All-Star team for next Tuesday's game at Pittsburgh. It's the third All-Star berth for Conley, who was a loser in relief as a rookie in 1954, then won the 1955 game in relief. He had a 14-9 record in '54, 11-7 in '55, his best seasons in the majors.

The Cubs overhauled a 5-1 Cardinal lead with four runs in the eighth, then won it in the ninth when Ernie Banks singled, moved up on an infield out and scored on Bobby Thomson's single. Don Elston (5-1) was the winner after a perfect relief job in the ninth.

Legion Leaders Keep Winning

Big Weekend Could Shuffle the Standings Around

Everything is pointing to a big weekend of decision in the local Legion baseball league as three first place tenants face both Saturday and Sunday games.

Birmingham, Rochester and Southfield all continued their winning ways Wednesday as Royal Oak won another to remain the top threat to the pacesetters.

Rod Ruddy batted in three runs with a single and a long homer in Birmingham's 5-4 squeeze past winless Milford. John Miller was the victor in relief after Milford took an early lead on Bob Becker.

Rochester also came from behind. Trailing 2-0, hard-hitting Howard Hinkel tripled and scored one and later batted in another in a 4-2 verdict over Troy. Dennis Scott hurled the route for the triumph giving up six hits—three by Gerry Glidewell.

Two tallies in the sixth broke a tie and produced a 7-6 Southfield win over Berkley. A squeeze bunt by Steve Boyd iced the game. Royal Oak clinched its 6-2 victory over Clawson with four in the 1st. Ross Gillespie belted two doubles and a triple to lead the Oaks.

'Firecracker' Race Slates Trials Today

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Forty three stock car racing drivers set out today to better the 143 miles an hour record in qualifying for the "Firecracker 250" race Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Among them is Elmer George, son-in-law of the Indianapolis Speedway owner Tony Hulman. George has been suspended from races sanctioned by the U.S. Auto Club.

★ ★ ★

Officials of the National Assn. for Stock Car Auto Racing (NASCAR) said George is qualified to drive in their events. He made the third best time in practice runs yesterday over the 2½-mile high banked Daytona International Speedway.

★ ★ ★

Joe Weatherly of Norfolk, Va., had the fastest run of the day, 139.66 in a Thunderbird convertible, and Bob Burdick of Omaha, Neb., had the second best of 139.14 in a Thunderbird.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

Diagnosis: Backswing too fast.

TREATMENT: There are two ways in which you can upset your balance during the backswing. One is swinging the club back too fast, thus pulling yourself off balance. The other is swinging the club back too slow, thus keeping the body in a position which makes it hard to maintain your balance.

But for every player who swings back too slow, there are perhaps ten players who swing back too fast.

Remember that the double purpose of the backswing is to put you in position to deliver the hit and to set up a rhythmic pattern for the swing. Hurrying tends to defeat both phases of this dual purpose.

In general, the speed of the backswing should be about a third of the speed of the downswing. This ratio of one-to-three doesn't apply in all cases, but it's a good rule of thumb.

Round Table Seeks Another Big Purse

CHICAGO (AP) — Rich Round Table, who never has lost a race on the grass in Chicago, will try to maintain that record in Saturday's $75,000 added Stars and Stripes Handicap at Washington Park.

But at least eight other horses are expected to attempt to break that spell. And the owner of one of them predicts the all-time money winner will have tough competition.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Besides Manassas and Round Table, the field is expected to include Mrs. Herbert Herff's Tudor Era, 117 pounds; Cain Hoy Stable's One-Eyed King, 117; Jack Hogan's Santiago, 111, and Anxious Moment, 110; Hasty House Farm's entry of Ekaba and Martini II, both 110; and William H. Bishop's Hare Raising, also 110.

Tri-State Net Tourney Hits Quarter-Finals

CINCINNATI (AP) — Clearing skies gave promise of crowded schedules in matches of the 60th Tri-State tennis tourney today, and through finals set for Sunday.

Yesterday found fifth-seeded Crawford Henry of Atlanta, Ga., gaining the quarter-finals by overpowering Dave Snyder, University of Arizona tennis coach, 8-6 and 6-3. Another Arizonan, Bill Lenoir, 17-year-old national high school champ from Tucson, also went into the round-of-eight by winning 6-1, 6-1 over Gunder Polte of Springfield, Ohio.

Second-seeded Carol Hanks, also of St. Louis, won over Carole Loop of Los Angeles, 7-5, 6-4 in another second rounder.

★ ★ ★

Pick Johansson Top June Fighter

Ring Ratings Still List 'Sugar' Ray Robinson Middleweight Champ

NEW YORK (AP)—The choice of Ingemar Johansson as "fighter of the month" by Ring Magazine Wednesday was no great surprise, but there was one in the ratings of Editor Nat Fleischer.

Johansson will be presented a gold championship belt for winning the world heavyweight championship from Floyd Patterson last week. Patterson takes over the Swedish fighter's spot as No. 1 contender.

★ ★ ★

Yvon Durelle, Canadian and British light heavyweight champion, assumes that spot, as do bantamweight Joe Becerra of Mexico, lightweight Carlos Ortiz of New York and welterweight Sugar Hart of Philadelphia.

Hamilton's Contract to Run Five Years

Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Executive Director Tom Hamilton of the newly formed Athletic Assn. of Western Universities declared Wednesday he "didn't come out here to be a rubber stamp or a figurehead."

★ ★ ★

Hamilton, 53, said he would begin his job Sept. 1 with headquarters in San Francisco. He signed a five-year agreement.

★ ★ ★

He won't have investigative powers similar to those of Victor O. Schmidt, long commissioner of the now defunct Pacific Coast Conference.

"I'm to be a stop gap and try to avoid difficulties. If anything needs correction, we'll try to do it by cooperation," Hamilton said.

Unseeded Aussie Takes Five Set Battle From U.S. Ace

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Rod Laver, the red haired southpaw from down under, was within one step of the peak of the Wimbledon tennis world today after clouting a glorious, unseeded path to the finals of the men's singles championship.

A shy youngster despite his fearsome nickname of "rocket," Laver did it with the help of a wristy forehand that finally unsettled America's Barry Mackay, former Michigan star, in an epic, 87-game semifinal on the hallowed center court.

Laver will meet Alex Olmedo, the favorite from Peru, in the finals tomorrow, with today's spotlight shifting to the women's singles semifinals. In one match Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., met Sandra Reynolds of South Africa, and in the other Sally Moore of Bakersfield, Calif., plays Brazil's Maria Bueno.

The 5 foot 8 inch Laver took 3¾ hours of thrills ad spills to defeat the 6-4 Mackay, 11-13, 11-9, 10-8, 7-9, 6-3.

The redhead, who is better known as a doubles player, already has met Olmedo in the Queensland championships at Perth earlier thhis season. Olmedo defeated him in a five-set match.

"Will I beat him Friday?" Laver said, "I wouldn't try to guess. But I'm in the final so I suppose I've got a chance."

Stitch Boosts No. 2 Rating

The winner's record now is 21-5, with 11 victories by knockouts. It was the first time Sawyer had been knocked out in 22 professional fights. He has won 18, lost three and drawn one.

Lakeland, Bulman Win

The Lakeland Barber Shop defeated Gabriel's Market, 6-2, and Bulman's Hardware whipped the Boys Club B team, 7-1, in Waterford Junior League baseball games Wednesday.

Lead Cut to 1 Again; Yanks Triumph

White Sox Nip Indians, 6-5

By The Associated Press

If somebody's going to grab the American League pennant from those New York Yankees, the rest of the clubs better stop squabbling over who's to do it.

Take Cleveland and Chicago, the two most likely to succeed. The White Sox dropped the Yankees to fifth last Sunday with a three-game punch. But while they scuffled through two games with the Indians, the Yankees jumped back to third.

The second place White Sox split the series at Cleveland with a 6-5 victory last night, cutting the Indians' first place edge to one game. More important, it also trimmed the Injuns' lead to three games over the Yankees, who beat Baltimore 4-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Ralph Terry.

That Yankee victory also spilled the Orioles out of the first division for the first time since April 22.

The White Sox, 8-4 for the season against Cleveland, got this one on Jim Landis' ninth-inning sacrifice fly and a clutch relief job from Turk Lown. Woody Held's two-run homer, his 15th, chased Gerry Staley, second Sox pitcher, in the ninth, but Lown then retired Vic Power, Tito Francona, who had homered in the sixth, and Rocky Colavito in order. That saved it for starter Barry Latman (2-2).

The White Sox, out-hit 11-6, had taken a 3-2 lead against loser Jim Grant (5-4) when Luis Aparicio hit a two-run triple in the third and came home on Jim Baxes' wild relay. Earl Torgeson homered for the Sox.

Terry, reacquired by the Yankees from the A's May 26, walked only one and struck out six for his first victory and complete game since May 3. Billy Gardner doubled and singled for half of Baltimore's hits off the young right-hander (3-5), whose last shutout was a 1-0, one-hitter against Washington last August 22 for the A's.

Norm Siebern and Gil McDougald homered for the Yankees, who had eight hits. Siebern's 10th came in the second inning, but loser Hec Brown (5-3) then blanked the champs on one hit until successive singles by Yogi Berra, Bill Skowron and Hector Lopez made it 2-0 in the seventh.

Mickey Mantle returned to the New York line-up after a day's absence and played 7⅓ innings. He had two hits, one figuring in an eighth-inning run that scored on Siebern's grounder.

★ ★ ★

Right-hander Camilo Pascual had Boston blanked on two hits with two out in the ninth. Then singles by Vic Wertz and Frank Malzone sandwiched an error for an unearned run, leaving him with a four-hitter and a 7-7 record. Rookie Jerry Casale (6-6) was the loser, giving way when the Nats scored three in the seventh, two on Harmon Killebrew's double.

Lary, Bridges Not on 'Star Team

Bunning, Kuenn and Ted Named

BOSTON (AP) — The American League announced its All-Star squad and the name of Ted Williams was on the roster — for the 15th time.

Williams, now in the elder batsman stage of his illustrous and sometime controversial career, was not selected by his fellow players on the basis of performance.

But Casey Stengel, who will manage the All-Stars, said through Joe Cronin, league president:

Stengel's decision to select Williams came two days after Fred Haney selected Stan Musial, eldering star of the St. Louis Cardinals, who, like Williams, is having a rough year.

Williams, although hitless in the 1957 and 1958 All Star games, has compiled a .317 average in the 14 years he played on the American League team. He has hit four homers and driven in a dozen runs.

Williams will replace Jim Lemon of Washington in the second line outfield which also includes Mickey Mantle of New York and Harvey Kuenn of Detroit.

Stengel made one other change. He named Gil McDougald of the Yankees as an infielder in place of Detroit's Rocky Bridges, runnerup for shortstop.

Stengel explained through Cronin: "McDougald gives me three players, you could say, I can use him at any of three positions."

As pitchers, the manager's prerogative, Stengel selected Jim Bunning of the Detroit Tigers, Bud Daley of the Kansas City Athletics, Ryne Duren and Whitey Ford of the Yankees, Billy Pierce and Early Wynn of the Chicago White Sox, and Hoyt Wilhelm of the Baltimore Orioles. Wilhelm was on the 1953 National League squad but did not see service.

Wynn and Pierce were named for the sixth time, Ford for the fifth time and it is the second time for Bunning and Duren. Daley, bothered wtih an injured right hand, is a left handed knuckleballer.

The team selected by the players has Bill Skowron of the Yankees at first, Nelson Fox and Luis Aparicio of the White Sox at second and short, Washington's Harmon Killibrew at third, and Rocky Colavito and Minnie Minoso of the Cleveland Indians, and Al Kaline of the Tigers in the outfield and Gus Triandos of the Orioles catching.

Stengel added Yogi Berra of the Yankees and Sherm Lollar of the White Sox as catchers, Lollar was runnerup in the player poll to Triandos. This will be Yogi's 12th year and Lollar's sixth.

In addition to McDougald, Stengel added to the infield: Frank Malzone and Pete Runnels of the Red Sox, Vic Power of the Indians, and Roy Sievers of the Washington Senators.

The Yankees, with six, have the most men on the squad. They are followed by Chicago with five, Boston, Cleveland and Detroit three each, Washington and Baltimore two each and Kansas City with one player.

Hayward Flips 'F' No-Hitter

Widgets in Mound Gems

One gem was a 2-hit 3-0 victory Phil Poponea hurled for the Moose over Preston Brothers. He struck out 14 of the 15 batters he retired. Rick Lyons allowed three bingles in besting Aces (Hall) for Ultra Stone, 2-1. Steve Renda singled home the clincher in the 5th.

Both pitchers in the 3rd contest were stingy giving up only two hits apiece but they had control troubles. Tom Saunders and the Webfoot Mets won out over Emerson and Mike Clancy by 7-4. Dave Popa socked a grand slam as the Mets scored all their runs in the 1st. Jay Nash homered for the losers. Furtney Drugs walloped the Wild Dogs 17-5 with Paul Ronguillo and Art Green hitting home runs.

In Class F, Perry Drugs downed Metro-Chiefs 7-5 offsetting 15 walks for the losers. The Eastside Dodgers tripped the Little Eagles 7-4, B & B Sewer Cleaners nipped Northside Kiwanis 1-0 and Auburn Mikes 7-0.

Dave Tinkis, who lost it, gave up three hits and struck out 10. Lynn Thorpe had a two-hitter and fanned 15 for Auburn with Jim Ross homering. Westside Kiwanis blasted the Warriors 24-2 after getting seven runs without a hit. The Pontiac Yanks whipped the Wild Cats 22-2.

Don Nicholle tallied five in the 1st and went on to trip St. Michael's 6-4 in Class D. Lake Orion got good pitching from Bob Porritt in defeating West Bloomfield 7-4.

J & R Auto Sales, Arnold Drugs, the Junior Jets and Our Lady of Refuge took "F" contests. Don Albertson had a homer for the losers as the Braves bowed to J&R, 9-4. Arnold drubbed Rip's Bar & Grill 22-0. It was 15-12 for the Jets over the Eagles. A 13-run 3rd featured a 23-5 romp for Our Lady over Lake Orion. Gary Hintz had a homer and double to pace the attack.

3-0 Deficit Doesn't Stop Nonne's Squad

Nonne's Restaurant spotted Dobski's Bar a 3-0 lead, then bounced back for an 8-3 triumph in Waterford League softball action last night at Drayton Plains. Dick Ryan and Harry Dearborn made two hits apiece for the winners.

Sno-Bol piled up a 6-0 edge and coasted to a 6-3 victory over the Arrows in yesterday's other Waterford contest. Harvey Render cracked a leadoff homer in the 2nd inning for the winners and they tallied four times in the 5th without a hit on three walks and seven errors.

Sally Retains Her Medal Title

Finishing 80 Wins 54-Hole Crown at DGC

The old saying "it's not the start that counts, it's the finish" turned out to be true for Sally Sharp in defense of her Women's District Golf Association 54-hole medal play championship.

However, it wasn't so much Sally's finish as it was her chief rivals as Miss Sharp kept her crown yesterday at Detroit Golf Club with a total of 241.

Miss Sharp, winner of the women's triple crown last year, recently received her degree at Michigan State and she was making her first tourney appearance of the year in this event.

She started horribly with an 85, came down to a 76 on the second day, then slipped back 40 a closing 80, but still managed to gain a one-stroke victory to win the first leg of a possible 2nd triple crown.

It was a dismal finish for Mrs. LeClair and Mrs. Hume. Both jumped to 84s to wind up in a 2nd place tie at 242. They led Sally by three strokes going into yesterday's final 18-hole round.

Mrs. J. G. Israel took 3rd place with 85-80-81—246. Mrs. LeClair's rounds were 81-77-84 while Mrs. Hume's scorecard read 82-76-84.

Now it's one down and two to go for Sally in quest of her 2nd straight triple. Remaining are the Women's District match play event and the Michigan Amateur.

Sally Sharp	85-76-80—241
Mrs. John Hume Jr.	82-76-84—242

Pirates Move Into 2nd Spot

Pearson's Hit in 7th Shades Jets; Pointer Shuts Out Nicholie

They're still 4½ games behind the front-running Knights of Columbus, but the Pirates took over 2nd place in the Class A City Baseball League yesterday with a 4-3 conquest of the Jets at Wisner Field.

The Pirates won the contest with one run in the bottom of the 7th inning after the Jets had tied the score at 3-3 in their half of the same stanza with an unearned counter.

Bob Pearson singled to drive home the deciding run after walks to Jim Scheibner and pitcher Larry Demrick and a single by Dave Cooper had loaded the bases.

Demrick hurled the route for the Pirates to gain the victory while Dick Goldsworthy, who struck out 11, was the starter and loser for the Jets. Jim Jones failed to stem the tide in relief of Goldsworthy in the 7th frame. Each team made five hits.

Jerry Pointer pitched a five-hit shutout and received 12-hit support from his teammates as Griff's Grill trounced Don Nicholie, 9-0, in Class B action at Jaycee Park. Jerry Hill homered for Griff's with a mate aboard in the 5th inning. Bub Orr made two safeties for the losers.

Colleges Good Source to Get Needed Players

PHILADELPHIA (AP) Pittsburgh Pirate shortstop Dick Groat said Wednesday he knows where to get more baseball players for a third major league — extend the college season through the summer.

"Let the college baseball season run through the summer to prepare the best players for the majors.

"The present 20-30 game spring schedules give few college men a chance to make good. When I was in college (Duke, 1953) we were allowed to play semi-pro ball.

Outlook Getting Brighter for Detroit Farm Teams

The Charleston Senators, top farm club, came up to fifth place last week. Don Lee paced the pitchers with a 9-4 mark while Steve Demeter was hitting at a .326 clip. Demeter had driven in 48 runs.

Lansing's Jim Stump was 5-6.

Jay Cooke continued to lead the Birmingham Barons in hitting. The Barons won the first half crown in the Southern Association, and Cooke led the team with a .364 batting mark.

Manager Skeeter Newsom moved Flint's Steve Boros to the outfield and the former University of Michigan infielder was batting at a .336 clip. Dave Reed was 4-1, Wyman Carey 7-2, Phil Regan 3-1 and ex-bonus baby Bob Miller 7-4 to lead the pitchers.

Jim Proctor piled up a 7-1 mark for the fifth-place Knoxville Club in the Sally League. Third-place Durham of the Carolina League moved over the .500 mark with Dan Briner hitting at .324. Larry Foster, former Michigan State hurler, had a 4-2 mark and another Michigan product, Dick Sheldon of Birmingham, was 5-6.

Willie Lee of Grand Rapids was hitting .265 for the Decatur club, in sixth place in the Class D midwest league. Another former Michigan State athlete, ex- halfback Dennis Mendyk, was batting only .227 for Erie.

Ron Falkenhagan became the first pitcher in the Tiger organization to win 10 games. He won his 11th last week and has suffered only two defeats, pitching for the Montgomery club in the Alabama-Florida League. Jose Mejias was 9-1 for the same club, battling for first place in the league race.

Ladies' PGA Tourney Starts

FRENCH LICK, Ind. (AP) — Twenty-nine women pros set out in pleasantly cool weather today for the opening round of the Ladies PGA golf championship.

Rain abruptly ended a sizzling midwest heat wave yesterday and made hiking over the hilly Sheraton Country Club course a little less bone-jarring.

Louise Suggs of Sea Island, Ga., runnerup in the Open, won the French Lick Open here last year and figured to be hard to beat in the 72-hole medal play event running through Sunday.

Betsy Rawls of Spartanburg, S. C., the LPGA's leading money winner this year and winner of five tournaments, was another strong contender in the field of 29.

Auto Sales Up State Tax Grab

Excise Levy Figures Top Early Estimates by $3½ Million

LANSING (AP) — A booming auto business boosted sales tax collections in Michigan to $301,492,000 for the fiscal year that ended Tuesday, 3½ million above early estimates by the State Revenue Department.

Collections, the second highest in the 26-year history of the tax, surpassed last year's total by $3,150,000. The record was chalked up in fiscal 1957—309 million dollars.

June sales and use tax collections on May business totaled $29,556,000, more than 2½ million over June of 1958

June was the sixth consecutive month that collections surpassed those of the same month a year earlier. Previously, the state recorded 13 months of decline.

★ ★ ★

"The auto industry was responsible for most of it," said Louis M. Nims, state revenue commissioner. "They're building more cars than we expected, more people as a result are employed and they're spending more money."

Less favorable was the $55,503,000 in business activities taxes collected during the fiscal year. Last year they amounted to 61 millions.

"But until a few months ago they were trailing the previous year by about seven million dollars," Nims said.

Use tax returns for the year came to $18,701,000, down nearly a million dollars. Intangibles levies brought in $24,385,000, about half a million dollars less than last year.

Cigarette taxes went up from $42,837,000 to $45,450,000.

Brazilian Navy Searches for 'Mystery Submarine'

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Brazilian planes and torpedo boats searched today for a mystery submarine which a Brazilian naval task force reported sighting in the south Atlantic 55 miles off the coast.

The Navy command ordered an attack if the sub was located and refused to identify itself. However, contact had been lost since noon Wednesday.

A diplomatic source said it was unlikely that a friendly submarine would be in the area. He said there are no U.S. submarines in the south Atlantic at this time.

A Brazilian Navy communique said a strange periscope was spotted Wednesday morning off the coast of the northeastern state of Bahia while Brazilian submarines on maneuver were running on the surface.

The task force commander said contact was maintained for 30 minutes through sonar — underwater sound-echo equipment.

"The naval general staff decided that the task force should attack the possible submarine should it not identify itself through sonar . . .(but) the suspected target was not attacked for lack of opportunity," the communique said.

The high command called on the air force to carry out reconnaissance and sent two torpedo boats to search the area.

Proposes Strike Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill which would forbid strikes until union members can vote on the question by a secret mail ballot has been introduced by Rep Clare E. Hoffman (R-Mich).

Trapped by Bad Meter

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI) —When Joseph J. Lupa discovered he'd received a parking ticket, he rushed to police headquarters to complain that the meter was defective. After officers promised to check the meter, they handed him a summons for 10 unpaid parking tickets which cost him $55.

9 U.S. Governors Use Old Tricks on Russian Tour

LENINGRAD, Russia (UPI) — Nine touring American governors, using some old campaign techniques, tickled babies under the chin and posed for pictures Wednesday during a visit to the Lenin Pediatric Institute.

The governors admitted no votes were involved, but they figured they made friends with the staff of the 1,000-bed institute.

He said he saw signs that the Soviet Union would catch up with the United States in per capita production of meat, butter and milk.

To Survey Marine Life for Effects of Radiation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Public Health Service (PHS) will conduct surveys this fall on the effects of low-level radioactive waste discharges on fish and other marine life.

★ ★ ★

Arthur S. Flemming, secretary of health, education and welfare, disclosed the survey in a news conference this week. He said some marine organisms on which fish feed contain hazardous elements.

Surveys of two disposal sites off the New England coast are contemplated for September, he said.

Two additional areas off the Gulf Coast—one of them Houston, Tex.—will be surveyed later in the fiscal year.

Man With Broken Heart Is Comedian Pinky Lee

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—"I'm a man with a broken heart." This was Pinky Lee's explanation of why he had exiled himself from Hollywood.

Comedians are chronic worriers, and Pinky is one of the best in that department. His career has had more than the usual ups and downs.

★ ★ ★

Even during his ups, he never was able to achieve acceptance by his fellow stars. Once Milton Berle surveyed a roomful of comics at a Friars Club banquet and cracked: "If a bomb hit this place, Pinky Lee would be the world's greatest comedian."

Such barbs hurt the painfully sensitive Pinky. When he suffered some career reverses, he sold his $200,000 house in Beverly Hills and moved to a $35,000 home in the outskirts of Tucson, Ariz.

★ ★ ★

"I couldn't stand to have people point at me and say, 'Oh, there's Pinky Lee! Wonder why he isn't working,'" he remarked.

"All my life, I had been entertaining adults. Then I suddenly became a favorite of the kids through TV. That was okay until the Madison Avenue boys took over. They decided the kids weren't going to get clean, wholesome entertainment.

"So the kid shows went off, and now what do the children have to watch? Gory Westerns with a woman shot through the breast by an arrow. Detective stories with brutal beatings.

"I couldn't get a job in TV and I was dead in night clubs, where I used to make my living. They said I was too identified as a favorite of kids. And I can't do personals any more because I've been off TV for two years."

He and his wife moved to Tucson, where their daughter is married to a real estate man and their son has become a disc jockey. One break in Pinky's ill fortune came with the offer to appear in the Dunes show last year.

The benefit was mutual. The hotel needed a star who could draw the family trade, yet be proficient in burlesque, which Pinky learned as a youngster. He needed identification with an adult type of show, which Minsky's certainly is.

★ ★ ★

But Hollywood hasn't seen the last of the lisping little guy with the funny hat. He has the drive to get back on top.

"I don't need the money," he admitted. "Ever since I was 5, I always put away a little of everything I earned.

"It isn't money I'm after. I've got to entertain people and have them like me. That's my life."

$10 Billion Seen Atomic Plane Cost

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department's research chief has told Congress the eventual cost of developing an atomic-powered plane would soar to at least 10 billion dollars—and possibly much more.

This huge estimate came to light in hitherto secret testimony on Air Force construction appropriations, made public by a House Appropriations subcommittee.

In the government bookkeeping year which began Wednesday, the administration plans to spend about 150 million dollars on nuclear-powered aircraft. This would bring total spending on the project to about one billion dollars over a period of several years.

Dr. Herbert F. York, director of defense research and engineering, implied to the subcommittee, however, that the outlay so far has been just a drop in the bucket compared to what the total would be.

Make Germs Radioactive, Reds Suggest

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Russian scientists suggest that the way to get the most out of germ warfare weapons is to make them radioactive.

Disease accentuates the damage done by radiation and radiation aggravates the severity of disease, they noted. Therefore, using them simultaneously "increases the effectivenes of both types of agents of mass destruction."

This discussion of germ-plus-radiological warfare was published by the state medical publishing house at Kiev under the heading, "The organization of medical service following mass contamination of the population."

Selassie in Urals

Romanian Asks Asylum

EDIRNE, Turkey (AP)—A student fleeing Communist Romania landed his light training plane in Turkey Saturday and asked asylum, authorities said Wednesday.

He told officials his father had been arrested and he fled to avoid a similar fate.

Hal Boyle Says:

Mankind Plagued by Daily Ordeal

Mankind's hardest industry is getting out of bed every morning. It is the greatest test of the human will.

Civilization only makes the problem worse. In caveman days, a man got out of bed for only one reason — he was hungry. It made sense for him to arise rather than lie there and starve.

But today everybody is on a diet. It is fashionable to starve. Therefore it makes more sense to stay in bed. Why starve on your feet when you can starve comfortably lying down?

Man's normal attitude toward a bed is very simple. It is the last thing he wants to go to at night — and the last thing he wants to leave in the morning. He fights sleep as long as he can. But once he surrenders, he surrenders all the way.

Getting out of bed is a real test of character. Obviously, anybody who can jump easily and merrily out of bed has no character. And that's what eventually mows them down in the stern strain of living — lack of character. Also lack of strength. They wear out all their strength leaping out of bed in the morning. By noon they are hollow-eyed. By 50 they are dead, and unmourned.

After awaking, one should think the problem through for a full half an hour. Then should follow 15 minutes of careful exercise—consisting of yawning and scratching. After that you should set up slowly, and let your feet down over the side of the bed one foot at a time.

An hour from the time the alarm clock first sounds you should, if all goes well, be looking at yourself in the bathroom mirror and wondering why such a fascinating devil has to work for a living.

There are, of course, mechanical aids to getting up—Such as being awakened by a clock-radio delivering the morning world news broadcasts. But world news is so terrible now that, listening, one has more of an urge to cower under the bed sheets than to arise and face such a terrible universe.

More helpful is the psychological approach. When you wake up you start brooding about how all the people you hate probably got up early this morning and are out making money. Before you know it you are out of bed, too—trying to catch up with them.

But the best solution of all is to marry. A wife will insist not only that you get to bed on time, but that you get out of bed on time—to earn her a living. She will take the responsibility from your worn shoulders.

That is probably why bachelors die younger than married men. There is no one to help them in daily life's most awful ordeal—getting out of bed in the morning.

Only Brake on Wild Inflation

Argentine Rent Freeze Hit in Housing Shortage

By JAMES R. WHELAN

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — "It's a steal," the man said as he showed off his apartment, and you had to agree.

It took up two floors. There were balconies on all sides and spacious terraces, one jutting out from what could easily be described as a cocktail lounge.

"And do you know what it costs me?" the man asked. "Fourteen hundred pesos a month." Fourteen hundred pesos is roughly equivalent to 15 U.S. dollars.

Not far away, a few steps off the Calle Florida, the city's famed shopping center, there's a fairly prosperous family living in an apartment only a little bit more modest for what amounts to $4.50 a month.

Both tenants are beneficiaries of Argentina's rent control law. On the books since 1943, it has since been extended 17 times. Commissions have studied it; debates have raged about it.

In the end, a comma has been inserted here, a phrase here, another one deleted, but, today, it's just about the same law that was passed in 1943.

Countless thousands throughout the nation benefit from it, paying rents of $5, $10 or $20 a month. But they're the ones who are still living in the same houses or apartments they occupied 16 years ago. If you were looking for a home now, you'd find those same places quoted at anywhere from $150 to $600 a month. The sky's virtually the limit for a landlord whose rents are unfrozen when a tenant moves out.

Technically, the law gives the landlord the right to evict the tenant if he is occupying the landlord's only property and he needs it for his own family. But eviction means lengthly court battles. Sometimes, it means street brawls.

Take the case of a landlord whose son was crippled by polio. He asked his tenant, a doctor, to move out because he needed more room for his own family.

The doctor agreed, providing the landlord paid 56,000 pesos. Eventually, he did vacate all but his office in a tiny part of the building in which he'd been paying a rent of $13 a month. That he wouldn't give up.

Owners of new property can set any rent they want at the beginning, but there it's frozen. That's a risky business in a country where inflation has rocketed the cost of living 115 per cent in the past year alone.

★ ★ ★

Time is running out for the rent law, and Congress is studying it once again. But with rent control just about the only brake on runaway living costs, there is a reluctance to tinker with it.

In addition, there is little agreement on what changes should be made if any are. Prospects, therefore, are for still another extension.

Chicago Greets Flotilla Today

14 Ships Will Parade Lake Shore Celebrating Opening of Seaway

CHICAGO (UPI) — The fleet comes in today at this lusty young world port, and a million landlubbers prepared to give it a rousing welcome.

Fourteen naval warships, the first armed men-of-war in the Great Lakes since the War of 1812, steamed down Lake Michigan for a round of ceremonies marking the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway and the visit Monday of Queen Elizabeth.

The 14 ships, front-running vessels of Task Force 47's "Operation Inland Seas," planned a day-long parade down the lakeshore from Waukegan, near the Wisconsin border, to Michigan City, Ind., on the southern tip of the lake.

They were to reverse themselves and repeat the maneuver tonight in a fully-lighted "sail-by" back to Navy Pier near the Chicago loop.

Sailors in white uniforms were to line the rails as the fleet of cruisers, destroyers, submarines, transport, cargo and landing ships broke out their battle colors.

Fifteen other ships were to join the flotilla here later in preparation for the Queen's only stop at an American city during her current North American tour.

Rogers Chides Lawyers for Mystic Slowness

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — U.S. Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers says the great weakness of the legal profession is that it is chronically slow.

★ ★ ★

In an address Wednesday, Rogers said, "The public can't understand why it takes so long to get a case tried."

He chided lawyers for having done what he called a bad job on the picture they have given the public of the administration of justice.

★ ★ ★

"We lawyers have a solemn duty to improve the administration of justice," he said.

Law on Succession Urged if Disaster

LANSING (AP) — The Senate's No. 1 traffic cop has blown the whistle on a bill to let a Michigan governor pick his own successor beforehand in case of atomic disaster by enemy action.

Sen. Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville) said there were better ways to provide for continuity of the state government should the governor fall a victim to an enemy bomb.

Perhaps the Legislature's foremost constitutional expert, Hutchinson said yesterday one was to by statute extend the list of constitutionally designated public officials in the line of succession.

These are the lieutenant governor, secretary of state, attorney general, auditor general and state treasurer.

Under the criticized bill, a governor would be required to name, in order, three choices for his replacement — with due regard for geographical dispersion—and file them with the secretary of state.

"If the governor gets blown up, so will the secretary of state and the list of three names," Hutchinson said.

Domestic airlines are planning for at least two million helicopter passengers a year and the helicopter service is expanding steadily.

School to Restore Relic Fire Engine at Reformatory

IONIA (AP) — Craftsmen in the Ionia State Reformatory's vocational school are reconditioning two fire engines that saw service in the historic Chicago fire of 1871 for the city of New Buffalo.

★ ★ ★

Inmate craftsmen are working on a hand-pump type fire engine and a horse drawn fire hose carriage. Both pieces of equipment are more than 100 years old.

The reformatory's vocational school already has gained widespread attention for restoration work done on cannons for the state park on Mackinac Island.

★ ★ ★

Two-Car Collision, Head-On, Injures 3

Three persons were injured Wednesday in a two-car head-on collision on W. Maple road near Haggerty road in Commerce Township, according to Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies.

All were taken to Pontiac General Hospital. One of the drivers, Manferd Smith, 36, of Brighton, is in fair condition with head and arm injuries.

Frank Reese, 51, of 555 Laguna Ct., the other driver, and his wife, Eleanore, 49, both were treated and released.

Rome Court of Appeals Reverses Annulment by Lower Tribunal

ROME (UPI) — A Rome court of appeals ruled today that Ingrid Bergman and Roberto Rossellini are still man and wife although she has since married Swedish impressario Lars Schmidt and is vacationing with him in Sweden.

The court reversed a lower court decision annulling the Bergman-Rossellini marriage, thus plunging into chaos the tangled affairs of the Swedish actress. The ruling added further complications to a legal battle for custody of three children.

A Rome court annulled the Bergman-Rossellini marriage on July 10 last year. It accepted Rossellini's theory that under Swedish law Miss Bergman was still married to her first husband, Dr. Peter Lindstrom, when she married Rossellini by proxy in Mexico in 1950.

Therefore, the lower court said, the Mexico marriage was not valid. Miss Bergman did not contest the suit and went on to marry Schmidt.

★ ★ ★

33,000 Defy Back-to-Work Order

USW Presses Members to End Wildcat Strikes

NEW YORK (AP)—Top officers of the United Steelworkers put pressure on the members today to end scattered wildcat strikes that erupted in Pennsylvania and Ohio in the midst of contract negotiations here.

Up to 30,000 workers were off the job at several plants in strikes which spread Wednesday after starting Tuesday night.

About 3,700 seamen on Great Lakes vessels also were defying back-to-work orders from the steelworkers union.

Some plants were forced to close. Violence broke out in a few spots.

Many of those who walked out ended their revolt Wednesday night in obedience to back-to-work orders issued here by Union President David J. McDonald.

In other cities, however, there was no immediate sign of a return to work.

The walkouts spread in defiance of the back-to-work orders sent by telegram by McDonald and other top officers of the union. McDonald said "prompt and vigorous action" was being taken to get the men back to work.

The wildcat strikes broke out in defiance of a two-week contract extension agreement made after President Eisenhower intervened in the stalemated contract negotiations last Saturday.

The first walkouts came at the time of expiration of the three-year contract covering 500,000 union members employed in plants that produce 90 per cent of the nation's steel.

After Eisenhower's plea for further efforts to avert a strike, the industry and union agreed to extend the contracts until midnight July 14.

The strikes caused cancellation of a negotiating session scheduled for Wednesday morning. After McDonald's back-to-work orders were issued, an afternoon session was held. There was no announcement on what happened at the meeting.

The union's Local 5000, which has headquarters at Cleveland, called the strike. The seamen were ordered to walk off their ships as they reached port.

The strike tied up about 20 steel company ore ships in Great Lakes ports today. A union spokesman said more than 100 would be idled by the weekend if the strike continued.

Veep Nixon Adds Life to Comedian's Routine

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Comedians, beware! Vice President Nixon just visited a Greenwich Village night club—where he got up and told a joke.

★ ★ ★

The Veep, Mrs. Nixon, Sen. and Mrs. Javits, Sen. Keating and five or six Secret Service men popped in—where Comedian Milt Kamen got mildly panicky because he does a Nixon gag.

WILSON

"Say, you look like—nah, it couldn't be," hesitated Kamen . . . but Jack Rollins, his manager, standing in the rear and fearing an embarrassing joke, shouted, "Yes it is, Milt!"

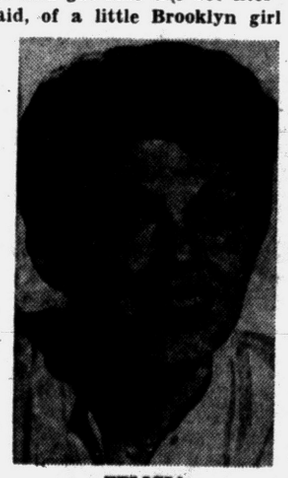
It was after Kamen mentioned he was from Brooklyn that Nixon mounted the stage and got into the act literally. It reminded him, he said, of a little Brooklyn girl who'd asked for his autograph one night as he headed for the show, "Two for the Seesaw." As he related it, the little girl said: "You'll like it—it's doity."



FELICIA

The crowd—which included Producer Hal Prince, Harold Lloyd and Harold Lloyd Jr. with Bill Bendix' daughter—applauded. Kamen said:

★ ★ ★

The Nixon party went to the club because Mrs. Javits is a fan of singer Felicia Sanders, also on the bill. Earlier that night the two-Cadillac party went to see "Gypsy" after which the Veep went backstage to congratulate Ethel Merman. He also met her daughter and father in her dressing room. "You're amazing, you're amazing! How do you do it?" the Veep exclaimed to Ethel. He naturally had a good seat at "Gypsy"—third row center, on the aisle.

Jury Deliberates Mrs. Klumpp's Fate

CINCINNATI (AP) — The jury in whose hands rests the fate of Mrs. Edythe Klumpp resumed deliberations this morning after taking another look at the automobile in which the alleged crime was committed.

The members also were provided with an imitation skull — that one defense attorney, William F. Hopkins, used in trying to prove that fractures in Mrs. Bergen's head were caused when Mrs. Klumpp shoved her body into the luggage compartment of the automobile.

The state contended that Mrs. Klumpp not only shot Mrs. Bergen, 32, last Oct. 30, but bludgeoned her.

The little courtroom was crowded today, as the feeling grew that a verdict would be reached at any minute.

Mrs. Klumpp was kept in her cell.

Fine Acting Jobs Rescue Steel Hour From Muck

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI) — Summer television is so bad that I've reached the point where I look forward to the U. S. Steel Hour.

★ ★ ★

Last night, the CBS-TV drama factory wheeled out a rather creaky drama, ancient of manner and stiff of joint. It was saved from complete infirmity by several capable performances, most notably Eddie Albert's.

The play, "Apple of His Eye"—a boiled down version of a Broadway vehicle offered during World War II—was one of those things about a gentleman in the October of life and a girl located somewhere around April.

Love, of course, won out—the Steel Hour took a firm stand last night in favor of it—and presumably, gentleman and girl are now settled happily somewhere around Labor Day.

★ ★ ★

Carol Lawrence, playing a poor farm girl, was not ideally suited for her role. She is a bit too middle class cityish in her speech and mien to be entirely credible as a rustic hired hand. But within her limits, she worked skillfully.

SHORT SHOTS: ABC-TV's Music for a Summer Night zeroed in on a shoal of old movie melodies last night to medium pleasant effect.

Movie tunes come equipped with built-in nostalgia and it's almost impossible to miss completely with a show of this sort even when they're presented in the stiffish manner of the ABC-TV entry.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Both Playhouse 90 and Desilu Playhouse are planning dramas about the Mafia for CBS-TV next season. . . . CBS-TV will offer five daytime specials in its Woman! series next semester—Claudette Colbert, hostess on the first Woman! show earlier this year, may not return as emcee.

Bing Crosby and Dean Martin will star in Frank Sinatra's first special for ABC-TV next season on Oct. 19—Sinatra will do four specs for the network. . . . Hugh Wedlock and Howard Snyder will join Bill Davenport as writers on NBC-TV's upcoming Fibber McGee and Molly series.

Rep. Rabaut Leaves Hospital, to Rest

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Louis C. Rabaut (D-Mich) was released from Bethesda Naval Hospital yesterday after two weeks of treatment and medical checkups.

An aide said Rabaut, 72, had been advised to rest for a couple of weeks before resuming his duties.

Rabaut was hospitalized June 17 after becoming ill in his office. The illness later was diagnosed as cerebral ischemia — a spasm in a small blood vessel in the brain.

A spokesman for Rabaut said the congressman "is in wonderful physical shape." He said attending physicians had advised Rabaut there had been no brain damage and that there was no reason to anticipate a recurrence of the illness.

Calls Michigan Better for Film Than Capital

The answer to that is "yes" if it is put to Producer-Director Otto Preminger, who filmed Anatomy of a Murder in the Upper Michigan locale where the story happened.

"I never saw such wonderful cooperation and such incredible hospitality," Preminger told a news conference upon his arrival at Wednesday night's premiere of the movie made from Michigan Supreme Court Justice John D. Voelker's novel.

"We used a good many residents of the area as actors, you know, including the actual court clerk, Lloyd Le Vasseur," Preminger said.

Did he find anyone he plans on taking back to Hollywood for an acting career? The answer to that is no.

"But we set something of a record in shooting it in eight weeks, and as a matter of fact, I booked the show in major cities for July the day before we started shooting March 23.

"Cooperation, of the kind we got, plus luck, accounts for my meeting my bookings."

Refugee Boy, 6, Assaulted, Slain

New York Police Hold Retarded Youth, 14, in Sex Killing

NEW YORK (AP)—A 14-year-old mentally retarded youth has been arrested for the slaying of a 6-year-old neighbor boy, the son of Hungarian refugees.

The body of Zoltie Toth was found Wednesday in an unoccupied tenement building next door to his home.

Police said Zoltie had been sexually assaulted. An iron bar, believed to have been used in the slaying, was discovered in a yard nearby.

★ ★ ★

The toth boy had left his parents' home at 11:25 a.m. His body was found at noon by an elderly junk man searching the building for plumbing salvage. Detectives scouring the neighborhood picked up De Voe, who resides six doors away from the Toth home.

Zoltie and his parents, Imre, 38, and Anna, 29, came here after the 1956 anti-Communist uprising in Hungary.

The father works nights in a paper cup factory and also helps his wife as superintendent of the building in which they live. They have another child, Mary, 5.

Clock in Space Planned to Test Einstein Theory

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A space clock, accurate within one second in 1,000 years, is being built to test Einstein's theory of relativity.ty.

The clock is designed for an orbiting satellite. Whirling around the earth, it will be compared with a similar clock on the ground.

★ ★ ★

By comparing the two clocks' performances by radio, theories on relativity can be tested, according to Dr. Harold Lyons, head of the Hughes Aircraft atomic physics department directing the project.

Lyons said the space clock should run slow compared with the ground clock for orbits below 2,000 miles and fast above 2,000 miles.

Skipper Hopes to Drift 18,000 Miles on Raft

He said he plans to drift 18,000 miles in 1961 from the Red Sea, up the coast of Asia and across the north Pacific to California and Guatemala.

His goal: to show that builders of ancient cities unearthed in Central America lived on the Red Sea until they followed ocean currents across the Pacific more than 2,000 years ago.

Invention Important in War

Government Finally Pays

WASHINGTON (AP) — An 18-year fight over payment for an invention that helped U.S. planes and ships evade enemy radar in two wars has ended with payment of $340,000 to a University of California physicist.

Announcement of the Defense Department settlement with Dr. Otto Halpern was made Wednesday. Halpern agreed to relinquish all rights to his development of a material and method for scrambling electro-magnetic waves.

The scientist said he developed his idea largely on his own time after the Navy accepted his theory and he joined a team working at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology's radiation laboratory.

The development was used in World War II and the Korean War and still is in use by the Defense Department.

When Halpern tried to patent his invention at the end of the war, the government held that granting a patent would make his secret processes public. In 1952 Halpern rejected an offer of $50,000 from the Navy and turned to the courts.

After he lost earlier rounds, a federal court of appeals in New York decided that a lower court should hear the claim behind closed doors. The litigation was at that point when the last settlement was made and accepted.

Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy sent a letter of appreciation to Halpern Wednesday. McElroy said the scientist's ideas continue to be the basis of research in radar defense.

White Council's Leader Awaits 2nd Jail Term

The 28-year-old White Citizens Council leader has a six months prison sentence to serve on a conviction of violating a federal injunction against interference with integration of the Clinton, Tenn., High School.

The U. S. Supreme Court refused Monday to review a second contempt conviction against Kasper who already has served nine months of a year's sentence. He now is awaiting arrest.

2 Convicted of Rape Press for New Trials

BEAUFORT, S.C. (AP) — Defense attorneys for two young men convicted without recommendation for mercy in separate interracial rape cases argue new trial motions today.

The defendants, both of whom face mandatory death sentences, are Marine Pvt. Fred Davis, 24, who is white, and Israel Sharpe, 19, a Negro.

Sharpe, a Beaufort resident, was convicted Tuesday of attempting to rape a young white woman in her home. Attempted rape—like rape—is a capital offense in South Carolina.

Replace ROTC Range

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Wreckers have begun tearing down the 65-year-old University of Michigan's Reserve Officers Training Corps rifle range on the central campus. Construction already has started on a new ROTC range in the North University building.
