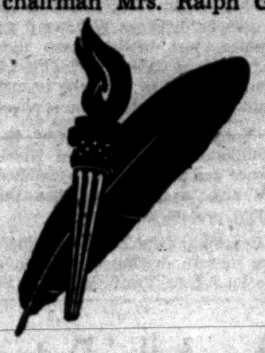
UF to Kick Off Sectional Drive

With an appetite for $19,057, some 300 Pontiac Area United Fund women solicitors will gather at a "brunch" tomorrow morning to kickoff their Geographic Division campaign for funds in the Oct. 23-Nov. 16 UF drive.

The women, under their chairman Mrs. Ralph G. Bump, will engage in a door-to-door drive to raise the $19,057 in Pontiac and Pontiac and Waterford Townships.



The division is the last unit of the current United Fund effort to get a pre-campaign start.

A large kick off breakfast Tuesday, Oct. 23, at the Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake Ave., will officially open the Pontiac Area Campaign seeking a total of $612,202.

Tomorrow's gathering at Devon Gables will be highlighted by a winter style fashion show conducted by the Bloomfield Fashion Shop. A brief solicitor training session will follow.

The residential solicitation has been broken into a Pontiac and Waterford Township collection. The township drive is under the direction of Mrs. George Eldred, while the Pontiac collection will be headed by Mrs. William E. Hutchinson.

Elmer Rosenberg, training chairman for the UF, will conduct the training session for the women.

Walter K. Willman, Pontiac Area United Fund chairman, and Miss Oriel Endelman, executive director of the Pontiac branch of the Michigan Children's Aid Society, also will speak at the "brunch."

The annual drive for the Pontiac area is conducted to raise money to support 54 agencies providing health, welfare, recreation and family services for the residents of Pontiac, and Pontiac and Waterford Townships.

Miss Endelman will tell the women of the work of her UF agency.

OK Extension of Northwestern

County to Pay $90,000 for 20 Years to Share in Project

After a lengthy debate this morning, the County Board of Supervisors agreed to pledge $90,000 a year in Road Commission state weight and tax revenues for the extension of Noorthwestern highway west to U.S.23 in Livingston County, north of M-59.

Floyd Andrews, Independence Township supervisor, objected to the plan because "it would take these revenues away from rural townships where roads need more improvement than there is money for."

According to the State Highway Dept., the project is scheduled to begin in 1957. The $90,000 pledged is for the next 20 years, officials pointed out.

County share of the project will be $1,800,000, five per cent of the cost.

EXPLAINS SOURCE

Waterford Township Supervisor Lloyd Anderson explained that funds for the Northwestern extension will be those earmarked for county primary roads.

It was pointed out by Hiland M. Thatcher, West Bloomfield supervisor and vice-chairman of the board, that "in the very near future" Northwestern will need blacktopping along its entire length. He added that the road is presently classified as a primary county arterial.

Under the current plan, the state and federal governments will pay equal shares of the 37 million dollar project, with the county's installments returning to the state.

Thatcher said if the state and federal governments control of the road, cost of repairs and a possible overpass at Eight Mile Road, will not have to come from county funds.

"This is the best investment we could possibly make," Thatcher said.

Moore on Trial in Child Slaying

12-Woman, 2-Man Jury to Weigh Evidence in Martha Little Murder

Opening statements were taken tday after a 12-woman and two-man jury was selected in the first degree murder trial of Howard Wayne Moore.

The statements were made by Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem and court appointed defense attorney Carl Ingraham of Birmingham.

Jury selection was speeded by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick. Ziem challanged one juror; Ingraham, six.

Moore, the 24-year-old former furnace repairman, is accused of driving his Lake Orion neighbor's daughter, 3-year-old, Martha Little, 11 miles to a deserted lovers' lane July 27, sexually assaulting her and beating her to death.

As attorneys sparred this morning, Moore sat staring at the full list of juror names, 12 of the 14 jurors will determine his guilt or innocence when the trial is concluded.

Plane Ditches in Sea, All 31 Saved

Wait 3 Hours for Daylight to Crashland

Crews of Weather Ship in Pacific Pull Victims to Safety

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A big Pan American plane went down in the Pacific Ocean today and broke in half, but the Coast Guard rescued the 31 on board within minutes.

The Stratocruiser, en route from Honolulu to San Francisco, was forced to ditch about 1,000 miles southwest of San Francisco because of trouble in two of its four engines.

The plane was ditched by Pilot Richard Ogg at 11:16 a.m. Pontiac time, and sank in 21 minutes, the Coast Guard reported.

"All survivors rescued," said a reassuring message from the weather ship Pontchartrain. Nobody was seriously injured, but five persons suffered minor injuries, a message said.

The Pan American crew, trained for such emergencies, apparently got the passengers into liferafts.

"Four rafts in water," the Pontchartrain messaged soon after the plane went down.

* * *

The Pontchartrain then launched its lifeboats and took everyone aboard.

Pilot Ogg circled three hours over the weather ship, awaiting daylight to put his plane down.

Pan American said the plane was flight No. 6-13. It had left from the Orient Oct. 13. Its last stop was Honolulu which it left last night. It was due in San Francisco at 7 a.m.

Of the passengers 15 were men, 6 were women and 3 were children, Pan American said. It did not give the names.

The pilot was Richard Ogg. Other crew members were:

1st Officer G. L. Haaker
2nd Officer Richard L. Brown
Engineer Frank Garcia
Purser Patricia Reynolds
Stewardesses Mary A. Daniel and Katherine Araki.

Mild Weather, Gentle Breezes to Linger Awhile

Another balmy day has been promised tomorrow by the weatherman as Indian summer puts in a blazing appearance before winter chills the area.

The thermometer reached a "Julyish" 80 degrees at 2 p.m. yesterday as windows flew open, furnaces turned off and coats went back in storage for a few more days. Yesterday's temperature did not reach the Oct. 14, 1938, record of a sizzling 85. The temperature a year ago in Pontiac was 54.

The low last night in Pontiac and vicinity was 58 degrees.

The forecast for Pontiac is more mild weather today, tonight and tomorrow with a high today of 76 to 80, a low tonight of 54 to 58 degrees.

South to southwest winds at 5 to 10 m.p.h. will diminish tonight. The high tomorrow will again be in the high 70's and may reach 80.

At 2 p.m. today in downtown Pontiac the mercury rose to 82.

Blonde Fraulein Wins 'Miss World' Contest

LONDON (INS)—Miss Germany, blonde 20-year-old Petra Schurmann, was crowned "Miss World" yesterday at an international beauty contest in London.

She beat out 23 other shapely beauties from as many countries.

Second place went to America's Betty Cherry, another blonde 20-years-old.

Miss Israel, Rina Weiss, ran third and Japan's Midoriko Tokura placed fourth.

Other runners-up included Miss Denmark, Anne Neilsen, and Miss Sweden Eva Brann.

Barbara Blue Wins Hero Award

Honor Girl Scout Tonight

Girl Scouting will give its highest award for life saving to an 11-year-old Commerce Township girl tonight.

She is Barbara Jean Blue, who is credited with saving her younger brother, Harry, from drowning in Long Lake where they live. She will receive the Bronze Medal for exceptional bravery, quick thinking and skill in emergency.

Leaders of the North Oakland County Girl Scout Council feel their scout training played a big part in the rescue.

Barbara, daughter of Callista and Gerald Blue, 1688 Point St. was first learning to swim in the summer of 1955. As a Brownie of Union Lake Troop 74 she had completed six lessons under scout leadership but had not yet taken the final test on the morning of July 8.

OVER HIS HEAD

That was the morning when Harry, then 6, waded in over his head in front of a neighbor's home.

Her mother and friends heard Harry's screams, but they were several houses away. Another woman ran into the lake only to find herself knee-deep in mud and unable to reach the boy.

Barbara darted in and was able to swim in shallow water above the mud. When she reached the spot, Harry was under water and she couldn't find him. The water was over her head, too.

She dove twice, eyes closed, but feeling with her hands. When she caught her little brother's arm under the water, she thought the worst was over. But it wasn't.

Harry, hysterical, tried to hold her under water. She fought to carry him to the surface where he continued to struggle, painfully pulling out a handful of her hair.

But keeping her head, as the Girl Scout rules say, the little girl talked calmly, telling her brother to turn on his back so she could swim with him under one arm to shore.

Hearing his sister's reassuring voice, Harry did as he was told.

* * *

Council leaders thought so much of Barbara's heroism, they recommended her act for citation by Girl Scout National Headquarters in New York City.

Headquarters saw fit to award Barbara with their top honor for courage and resourcefulness.

Now an intermediate scout of Union Lake Troop 74, Barbara will be presented the medal at the council meeting in the Waterford Township Communities Activities Inc. building. Mrs. Edwin J. Lally Jr., council president, will present the award.

* * *

The story of Barbara's heroism will be told by Mrs. William Merrill, council program chairman. Barbara will be escorted by her proud Troop Leader, Mrs. Charles Cox.

The Girl Scouts are a United Fund agency.

GM, City Officials to Discuss RR Yard

A meeting with traffic department heads of the three General Motors plants and Pontiac city commissioners has been arranged for tonight. City Manager W. K. Willman confirmed this morning.

The informal meeting, to be held at the conclusion of the weekly City Commission session, was called last Friday by the commissioners to discuss industry's role in the proposed $700,000 Grand Trunk industrial support yard.

Completion Due Within 3 Years, Board Learns

Lake Huron to Supply Oakland, Macomb and Genesee

Detailed plans for an 80 million dollar water pipeline to Lake Huron were read to Oakland County supervisors this morning by Howard K. Kelley of Royal Oak, chairman of the Southeast Michigan Water Authority and the Board of Supervisors' Water Committee.

The plans call for water to start flowing, at 569 million gallons a day, within three years.

Initial financing will come through a 30-year revenue bond issue, he said.

Ten per cent of the pipeline's gross revenue, Kelley said, will be kept in an irrevocable trust fund to be used for buying the pipeline from Lake Huron Water Supply Co.

WATER VITAL

In giving his report, Kelley pointed out that further development of the Detroit metropolitan area hinges on an adequate water supply.

"The mineral seepage into wells, the low water table and the pollution of rivers and lakes from which the present water supply is obtained, present an expensive and difficult problem," Kelley said.

In other action this morning, supervisors approved hiring a coordinator for county drain projects such as the Evergreen and Farmington interceptor sewers.

* * *

Under this proposal, to be studied further by the Ways and Means Committee, the county would be repaid the coordinator's salary from project funds raised in participating municipalities.

A proposal that the county extend its full faith and credit to back financing of such projects was referred to the Legislative Committee, which will seek enabling legislation in Lansing.

Kelley said the pipeline will be built to deliver water to communities along its route, for distribution through their municipal water systems.

In giving his "progress report," Kelley announced a meeting tomorrow at 2 p. m. in Royal Oak where the plans will be discussed by "most of the principal users" of water from the planned pipeline.

The pipeline, with a daily delivery rate of 569,736,050 gallons a day, is intended to serve Oak-

Adlai Warns of H-Danger as Ike Woos West's Vote

CHICAGO (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson says President Eisenhower is brushing aside a chance to end the "deadly deadlock" with Russia in a hydrogen bomb race that may destroy the world.

* * *

Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, defended in a nationally televised campaign speech from Chicago last night his proposal that America take the lead in efforts to end H-bomb tests which he said may do the human race "unmeasured damage."

Directly contradicting President Eisenhower on several points, Stevenson said that "most disturbing" to him was Eisenhower's comment at last week's White House news conference he had used the "last word" on his position that such tests cannot be abandoned because Russia might not honor any agreement to end them.

"We cannot brush the hydrogen bomb under the rug," Stevenson said.

Stevenson, who retired to his farm home in suburban Libertyville today to draft speeches for the start of a whistle-stop quest tomorrow for the combined 46 electoral votes in Michigan, Ohio and Kentucky, gave the nation a scary preview of what might happen if H-bomb warfare breaks out.

* * *

A four-man Republican "truth squad" will follow Adlai Stevenson through Michigan tomorrow, holding news conferences immediately after he makes addresses.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower set out today on his most ambitious vote seeking effort of the campaign, a five-day air sweep through the West.

The foray, expanding by stages since plans were first announced, was extended only yesterday to take in an appearance in California and a major speech at Los Angeles in that battleground state.

Accompanied by Mrs. Eisenhower and members of his White House staff, the President took off aboard his private plane Columbine III.

There was no fanfare as the White House party arrived at the Miltary Air Transport terminal and boarded the plane. Eisenhower paused briefly on the ramp and waved for photographers, then went inside.

The first scheduled stop on the 5,850-mile trip was in Minnesota for mid-day talks in St. Paul and Minneapolis. After that Eisenhower flies on West to campaign in Washington, Oregon and California and take in Colorado on the way home. Altogether he has eight speeches set up.

* * *

Eisenhower's decision to campaign in heavily populated southern California points up to the hot battle being waged between Republicans and Democrats for the state's 32 electoral votes. The President won California handily in 1952 against Adlai Stevenson, but there are signs of a closer contest there this year.

Ike Restricts Yugoslavia Aid

OKs Cash, Holds Back 200 Jets Until Study of Tito's Red Ties

WASHINGTON (AP)—Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito must give a satisfactory explanation of his confidential talks with Russian leaders before he can get promised American jet warplanes.

President Eisenhower made this clear last night in authorizing only limited military aid to Yugoslavia "until the situation can be more accurately appraised during the days to come."

Eisenhower specifically banned delivery, for the present at least, of more than 200 American Sabre Jet and Thunderjet fighters, previously earmarked for Yugoslavia along with howitzers, tanks and other heavy military equipment.

* * *

At the same time, he declared Tito's government eligible for full economic aid which has helped prop up Yugoslavia since it broke with Moscow in 1948.

But he qualified even this by noting pointedly this decision would be reviewed constantly to make certain it "remains justified in future circumstances."

* * *

Since Tito returned to Belgrade 11 days ago, American Ambassador James Riddleberger has tried without success to arrange a meeting with him to discuss the Yugoslav-Russian talks and other developments in the Communist world.

Seek Jobs for Youngsters

Expand Plan for Retarded Children

A program to aid the mentally retarded students in secondary schools in Pontiac begun last year by special educators has blossomed into a large expanding operation, Donnie Smith Jr., special education consultant at Jefferson Junior High School, reports.

* * *

The program has expanded high school-wise with five or six of the mentally retarded students now attending classes at Pontiac High School.

"But we need help," Smith explained in reviewing the program. "In order to help these slower pupils to go farther and to adjust better to their future lives, we'd like to arrange outside work for them."

One of three special education consultants working with the secondary students, Smith says that he has begun an informational program to contact possible employers for these slower students . . . employers who offer jobs that students with limited capacities can fill to their fullest extent.

* * *

The program in junior high schools and high schools in Pontiac now handles about 40 or 50 students. The theory for the program is based on classroom integration. Smith says. If a child is in anyway socially able to attend classes, he is integrated into a normal classroom situation.

SELF-EXPRESSION

Reasons for this, Smith accounts, are that a normal classroom situation gives him a chance for self-expression and a chance to associate with youths of his own age. Consequently he is not labeled retarded. He does not withdraw and is more accepted by his fellow students.

* * *

Before a child is accepted as a special education student in a mentally retarded division he goes through tests in four areas.

The four areas are social, physical, psychological and educational. He must take IQ tests. His parents and family doctor are consulted. He is tested for possible physical maladies. Former teachers enter into the final decision of whether the child requires special education.

Once a child is determined slow, he is placed in one of two divisions. One is for the student able to adjust socially to the classroom while the other is for the more seriously retarded child . . . the child who withdraws from social situations.

* * *

The special education instructor for the more seriously retarded has those students in class all day. The other students meet with a special education consultant just when troubles arise.

SUPPLEMENT TEACHING

"Actual duties of the consultant," Smith says, "are to supplement

Murder Charge Facing Smoot

Arraignment Set Today in Slaying of Divorcee, Wounding 2 Children

A first-degree murder charge was prepared today against Zackarios Smoot, 39, jealous suitor who Pontiac Police say admitted shooting a 29-year-old divorcee and wounding her two daughters.

A warrant was authorized by Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem yesterday. It was expected the warrant would be issued in Municipal Court at arraignment this afternoon, police said.

Smoot, of 206 Wessen St., is charged with the fatal shooting of Bessie McKinney, at her home, 18 Clovese St. Saturday night. The girls were wounded when rushing to her aid.

Tanya, 6, is recovering in Pontiac General Hospital from a bullet wound in her left leg. Joan, 14, was nicked in the ear.

The girls, sleeping upstairs, ran toward the downstairs kitchen when they heard quarreling. Smoot told police he shot at them to keep them away, then emptied his last four shots at the mother.

The quarrel started over another boy friend, police said.

4,300 MSU Students Sign Up for Salk Shots

EAST LANSING (UP)—Michigan State University students start lining up Monday to take Salk polio vaccine shots.

More than 4,300 students have signed up for the polio shots and more late registrations were being accepted. The three Salk injections are offered to the students at less than $1 under the first such program on a major U.S. campus.

The entire football squad registered for shots.

Shots will be given for the rest of the week. The second injection will be given the week of Nov. 12 and the third will be given during spring term.

A-Merchant Ship OK'd

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Eisenhower has formally directed construction of the world's first atomic-powered merchant ship, and predicted the revolutionary craft will be the forerunner of fleets "uniting the world in peaceful trade."

Italy produced some 75,000,000 pounds of hemp in 1955 compared with 92,000,000 pounds in 1954 and 164,000,000 in 1953.

Rioting Renews Phone Blackout

Ohio Violence Erupts Barely 10 Hours After Service Is Restored

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (UP) — A crowd estimated at about 500 by the state highway patrol last night stormed the strike-bound Portsmouth area telephone exchanges and a phone "blackout" descended again, barely 10 hours after it was lifted.

The violence erupted hours after the storm clouds began to gather. The crowd had assembled slowly after the state highway patrol escorted operators to their posts. There were sullen catcalls and shouts of "storm troopers."

The crowd was protesting the role taken by the state patrol, under orders from Gov. Frank J. Lausche, in reopening the exchange. The company has been using supervisory personnel in operating the offices.

The crowd struck just three months to the day after some 600 Communications Workers of America Union members struck upon expiration of their one-year contract with Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. The strike covers 23 counties in southern and eastern Ohio, but most of the "incidents" in the long and bitter dispute have centered in this area.

Claim 160 Killed in Hong Kong Riots

HONG KONG (UP)—Peiping radio claimed today that more than 160 persons died in the three days of rioting and factional fighting that wracked Hong Kong's mainland territory last week.

The Hong Kong government has officially set the death toll at 51. The government information office said after the Peiping broadcast it saw "no reason to change this figure."

The curfew clamped on Kowloon Peninsula and the mainland New Territories was lifted completely this morning. Police reported quiet throughout the colony. More than 3,000 persons have been arrested and more than 1,000 already have been arraigned for rioting and violating the curfew. Most of them have been sentenced from six weeks to two months in jail.

Reveal Plan to Build $88 Million Pipeline land, Macomb and Genesee Counties, Kelley said.

It will be 53 miles long and eight feet in diameter, with two separate aqueducts carrying the water at six m.p.h.

Two 80-acre settling basins are planned, with booster stations to keep the water flowing.

The intake, Kelley said, will be located more than a mile from the shore of Lake Huron, in water 45 feet deep.

Communities buying the water will pay 88 cents per thousand cubic feet, he said. He said the authority expects revenues of $26,340,794 a year, and operation will cost $15,213,520 a year, leaving $11,127,274 for bond retirement.

Kelley said a new private company, the Lake Huron Water Supply Co. will be formed to build the pipeline, and will own it for 20 years. At the end of that time, he said, the authority will have the option of buying it at its depreciated cost.

Beer Price Going Up

DETROIT (UP)—The price of beer is expected to increase some 20 cents a case in the Detroit area. The increase is expected to follow a 28-cent package settlement by brewery workers. Hub Cassidy, secretary-treasurer of the joint board of three brewery unions, said beer sells for an average of $2.50 per case in Detroit compared to $2.70 elsewhere in the country.

Maier, who is head of the Pontiac Office of Abstract & Title Guaranty Co., succeeds Vern K. Archer who will serve as a director.

Other officers elected were Alcuin G. Kampsen, vice president; Kenneth G. Hempstead, treasurer; and Cramer Partridge, secretary.

Named to the board of directors were John Irwin, John Waddell, Kampsen, William H. Knudsen, Hempstead, Earl Bartlett, Philip E. Rowston, Russell Doolittle, James Clarkson and John P. Niggeman.

All will be officially installed in office in January, 1957.

Air Force Continues Hunt for Survivors

LONDON (UP) — More than 100 planes, an aircraft carrier and dozens of other ships fanned out over the Atlantic today in search of a U. S. military transport that vanished six days ago, but hope was practically abandoned of finding any survivors among the 59 servicemen aboard.

The U. S. Air Force said the search force would be reduced to a token group by tonight. A communique said:

* * *

"Third Air Force authorities and the 9th Air Rescue Group, which has been in immediate control of the search, believe that a large-scale general search is no longer practicable."

* * *

The search, one of the greatest in air history, was spurred by the British tanker Navicella's discovery some 370 miles southwest of England of a pair of aircraft wheels and a partially deflated life raft believed to be from the missing C118 Liftmaster.

2,000 Expected to Hear Potter

State, Local Republican Candidates to Speak at Barn Dance

State and local Republican candidates and an audience of 2,000 are expected to turn out to hear Sen. Charles Potter speak at 8 tonight at a barn dance in the Waterford Hill barn of realtor Donald E. White.

Potter will be guest of honor. Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo, GOP candidate for governor, has accepted an invitation.

* * *

Retiring U. S. Congressman George A. Dondero will attend with State Sen. William S. Broomfield, the party's choice to succeed him.

* * *

According to White, invitations to the political rally have been distributed to homes throughout the northern part of Oakland County, "but it isn't necessary to have an invitation to attend."

* * *

Dancing and short hayrides are planned, White said, and the dance is open to the adult public without charge.

Ask Egypt Views on Suez Talks

U.N. Chief Requests Blueprint to Help Open Negotiations

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS) —U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold pressed Egypt today for concrete proposal to settle the Suez dispute through direct negotiations with Britain and France.

* * *

He called on Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi at a private meeting to submit plans which could serve as a starting point in projected three-power talks on Suez.

Fawzi said afterward "no program has been fixed" for initiating the talks but this is "mere detail." He said he will meet with Hammarskjold again before leaving for home.

The British and French have insisted Egypt come up with suggestions leading toward accord on the dispute over Cairo's nationalization of the canal.

HOPE FOR IDEAS

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd expressed hope before leaving for London last night Egypt would make counterproposals on the issue.

Hammarskjold at the same time planned strong steps in the Security Council this week to prevent a blow-up on the Palestine issue which he feels is interlocked with the Suez problem and the whole question of Middle East peace.

He conferred with Jordanian Ambassador Abdul Monem Rifai on the latter's request for a council meeting on the Oct. 11 Israeli reprisal attack on Jordan.

They also discussed the proposed dispatch of Iraqi troops to Jordan to "stabilize" the situation in the Arab kingdom.

Chamber Vote OKs Name, Rule Change

Pontiac Chamber of Commerce members voted unanimously yesterday to change its name to Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce and to extend its services into the larger area.

The two amendments to the chamber by-laws were recommended by the 15-member Board of Directors last month.

Manager John W. Hirlinger said the action was prompted because more than 10 per cent of chamber members are outside the city limits.

Gas Station Breakin

Ernest H. Saville, 41, of 258 Osmun St., was arrested by Pontiac Police last night as he attempted to enter a gas station at 240 Osmun St., according to the police.

They reported that when they arrived at the scene, Saville, who lives next door to the station, had his arm thrust through a broken window and was attempting to force a door open.

JOSEPH F. BURKE

National DAV Chief to Talk in Royal Oak

Disabled veterans of Oakland County will be honored by the appearance of National DAV Commander Joseph F. Burke at a special meeting to be held at the VFW Hall in Royal Oak Friday at 7:30 p.m.

* * *

The Bayonne, N.J., resident will address the veterans as a highlight of the meeting. He will be accompanied by State Commander Casimir Zabik and National Service Officer Denvel Adams, both of Detroit.

Burke, who was named national leader in August, is stressing a sound rehabilitation program, increased disability compensation, and strong membership.

* * *

Local DAV leaders are urging all county disabled veterans to attend the important meeting.

the teaching the student gets in the normal classroom. A large part and perhaps the greatest part of our work is to give that necessary moral support."

Another duty and a major one of the special education consultant, Smith accounts, is to inform a teacher of a child's limitations.

"In this year's program at the high school," Smith said, "the students carry the regular program of classes suited to their individual capacities. They are flexible and adjustable programs.

"We also talk with parents and keep them oriented to their child's progress and his adjustment in high school."

* * *

Although this whole program is in the experimental stages in Pontiac, the program is deemed successful in three nearby communities which have tried it . . . Lansing, Ann Arbor and Dearborn.

SHARE RESPONSIBILITY

A major idea of the whole program is to share responsibility of the retarded child with the parents and employers. "We can help them live up to the fullest of their capacities, these slower children," Smith said.

* * *

Other teachers on the secondary level working with Smith are Frank Budd, also at Jefferson, and Mrs. Mary Wagner, special education instructor at Madison.

Director of special education for all the Pontiac schools is William Wright.

City to Act on 2 New Ordinances

Two new ordinances—one establishing a Civil Defense department in the city government, and the other providing legal jurisdiction for "yield right of way" traffic signs—are slated for City Commission approval tonight.

Some opposition is expected to the latter ordinance if Commissioner John E. Carry resumes his one-man fight against the traffic signs in Pontiac.

Carry voted against the ordinance last week claiming the signs "only add to the sting of fear of parents with children that live where they are posted."

The Civil Defense law will set up a department in Pontiac to coordinate plans in case of enemy or natural disaster.

* * *

The ordinance was prepared by a committee of the Michigan Municipal League of which City Manager W. K. Willman was a member.

DISASTER PLAN LATER

Establishment of a "disaster organization plan" under the law is expected to be adopted at a later date.

Having a place on the weekly 21-point slate is an agreement with the Community National Bank for construction of two retractable curb bank-teller cages. The commission approved the project last Tuesday.

Action is scheduled on an application for a food license by James H. Dolan, 164 Auburn Ave., whose drug store was declared "unsanitary" by the City Health Inspector recently.

* * *

Public hearings will be held tonight on the following:

Intention to construct curb, gutter, grade, gravel and related work on Parkdale avenue from Woodland to Baldwin. Special assessment rolls for similar work on Hollywood avenue from Kennett to Parkdale, and on First avenue from Joslyn to Highwood.

More action is expected on a Walton Subdivision plat waiting City Commission approval. Approval, along with a citizen's request for a plat bond in the subdivision, was tabled last week.

City Attorney William A. Ewart is slated to report on a deed to Naum Karagueff and Nicholas Karagueff for part of lot 97 in assessor's plat 128, a vacant lot in the city's southwest section.

Confirmations are expected on five public improvement projects completed in Pontiac.

Two requests, one for addition to a package beer and wine license and the other for transfer of ownership of a like license, will be considered by the commissioners.

The Day in Birmingham

Parking Takes Cut-Back on Bates, Willits, Chester

BIRMINGHAM — Lengthy discussions of parking on Bates and Willits and the road conditions at Derby Junior High School took the fore at last night's city commission meeting.

* * *

Commissioners agreed that parking should be banned for a 30 day trial period on Willits between Chester and Woodward; and on east sides of Bates between Martin and Willits, and on Chester between Maple and Willits.

While they talked, road workers put final coating of asphalting on Willits to complete that road project in a nighttime, "under the lights" effort.

Another road project that began yesterday and will probably take relatively few weeks brought pleasure to many city officials, who have worked through red tape towards the project for several years.

* * *

They began construction of Oak crossover, between Woodward and Hunter, just below where those two avenues intersect. Traffic will continue to flow past the triangle until the Oak continuation is paved.

Northbound traffic will be discontinued above Oak on Woodward and a light will be installed at Oak and Hunter when the final project is in order.

Commissioners heard two mothers discuss driving difficulties at Derby School. Traffic goes into the school area on Derby except for school buses, which enter off Adams.

Mrs. Charles Randolph III requested city support of a request from Troy to repair the street, which is now a city street instead of a county road.

Request to erect a pylon sign by Birmingham Cleaners was referred to the building inspector, with an eye to possible rewriting the sign ordinance for such type of display.

Collection of tree branches was set up on a once-monthly basis, instead of the present weekly pick up, which officials reported had used up over the year's budgeted funds within a three-month's time.

Commissioners approved tentatively the North Evergreen Authority's allocation for the city's share of funds. Based on a two million cost figure, the share for Birmingham would be $646,000 according to the figures.

Troy would pay $440,000, Bloomfield Hills, $139,000; and Bloomfield Township, $723,000, on the same basis.

* * *

Pythian Sisters Temple No. 94 will meet tonight at 8 p. m. at the Community House for a "Past Chiefs" night program.

* * *

Young Adults Co-Ed Club of the YMCA will have a Parisian program at the "Y" tomorrow night at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Harold I. Patterson

Mrs. Harold (Martha) Patterson, 40, 1171 Arden Lane, died yesterday at Old Grace Hospital, Detroit, after a long illness. She had lived three months here, coming from Bethesda, Md. She leaves her husband, central zone manager for Plymouth Motor Corp., and two sons, John and Hunter.

Service will be in Philadelphia, Pa., at the Oliver Blair Mortuary on Thursday at 2 p. m.

Ike, Adlai Rated as Millionaires

Stevenson Is 'Honored' by Estimate; President Doesn't Comment

NEW YORK (UP)—Published reports putting both President Eisenhower and Adlai E. Stevenson in the millionaire or at least near-millionaire class brought a comment from Stevenson today that he is "certainly honored by the suggestion that I am a millionaire."

* * *

The White House said it would have no comment on the matter.

A Washington news story written by Peter Edson of the Newspaper Enterprise Assn., said both presidential candidates can be rated in the millionaire or near-millionaire category.

* * *

Another news story published by the New York Herald Tribune said a survey of Stevenson's stock holdings, first divulged during the 1952 campaign, shows that his portfolio since then has registered a 100 per cent gain.

* * *

The story added that there are some indications, discounting any reinvestment and portfolio changes, that Stevenson's common stock holdings have made him a millionaire.

* * *

Stevenson, commenting in Chicago on the financial reports, said he has "no idea" of his net worth. But he indicated that any estimate that he is a millionaire is too high.

The Washington story by Peter Edson said that when Eisenhower and Stevenson during the 1952 campaign listed their earnings during the previous 10 years, they both listed capital assets then estimated to be worth a half-million dollars or more.

* * *

The story said that, assuming the investments of both have made the capital gains and value increases of stock averages during the past four years, then both Eisenhower and Stevenson could easily be worth a million dollars each at present.

* * *

The New York Herald Tribune story on Stevenson's current investments said there is no comparable information available on Eisenhower's investment history.

Florida Storm Moves North Along Atlantic

MIAMI, Fla. (UP)—A slow moving storm which battered Florida with high winds and torrential rains continued to move northward along the Atlantic Coast today, kicking up heavy seas.

* * *

A Miami Weather Bureau bulletin said the storm was centered this morning near Vero Beach, Fla., and moving northward at 10 m.p.h. Winds of 20 to 40 m.p.h. extended 300 miles north of the storm center.

* * *

Small craft warning flags flew on the east coast from Stuart, Fla., northward to Cape Hatteras and on the Florida Gulf Coast from Tarpon Springs to Fort Myers.

* * *

After the center moves offshore, the Weather Bureau said the storm might intensify slightly while switching to a north-north-easterly course.

More than an inch of rain fell in numerous Florida east coast communities, impeding a cleanup of tree limbs, washouts and sea-sand accumulations caused by Sunday's winds of 30 to 55 m.p.h., with gusts to 60.

* * *

A sideshow storm described by witnesses as a "twister" hit a section of North Miami beach during a noon squall yesterday.

Two drownings occurred. Roy A. Hurst, 59, drowned in Daytona Beach surf. Henry Vukoty, 14, drowned during a squall on a lake near Cocoa.

* * *

Stormy weather also hit sections of Texas, with rain, hail and strong winds lashing the eastern half of the Panhandle. Some crops were damaged by hail. A flash flood inundated the eastern part of Odessa, in west Texas, forcing families in a 45-block area to flee their homes. The 3½-inch cloudburst followed a blinding dust storm.

Michigan Humming With Politics

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With the 1956 political campaign fast approaching a climax, Michigan today prepared for another visit of national political figures in quest of the state's vital 20 electoral votes.

* * *

Campaign funds are the major objective of former New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, who returns to his native state for a major address at Flint tonight.

Republican party leaders hope to muster at least $50,000 at a fund-raising dinner in Flint's 6,000-seat IMA Auditorium before Dewey's address. The speech will be carried over a national ABC television and radio hookup at 7:30.

Tomorrow Adlai Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee, will hit the state on a whistle-stopping train tour through Niles, Battle Creek, Flint, Saginaw and Lansing and perhaps other cities. He'll spend tomorrow night in Detroit.

TRUTH SQUAD ON TRAIL

A four-man Republican "truth squad" of two senators and two congressmen will follow Stevenson, scheduling a series of news conferences to answer his remarks.

Other speakers slated for Michigan appearances in the next few days:

For the Democrats: Gov. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut at Detroit and Grand Rapids tomorrow; former U. S. Ambassador to India Chester Bowles at Ann Arbor Friday; Gov. Edmund Muskie of Maine at a $100-a-plate dinner in Detroit Saturday.

For the Republicans: Indiana Rep. Crumpacker at Allegan today; U.S. Treasurer Ivy Baker Priest at Monroe Friday.

* * *

On another front, Sen. Potter (R-Mich) launches a statewide tour in his "Minute Men for Eisenhower" campaign tonight with a rally in Waterford. The tour is a get-out-the-vote project.

Meanwhile, candidates for state office pushed their campaigns yesterday with speeches attacking opponents.

Gov. Williams, speaking on a statewide television program in Detroit, assailed the federal government's "hard money" policy, contending it contributes to unemployment in Michigan.

BUSINESS CHOKES

Williams said the government's plan to restrict credit and induce higher interest rates "held business down while unemployment in Michigan went up."

"Jobs in Michigan depend upon the ability of people in the other 47 states to buy the automobiles and other products made in Michigan plants," he said. Federal money policies, however, have made it harder to borrow money to buy homes or cars or to start new businesses, he said.

Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo, Republican candidate for Williams' post, moved his campaign into Washtenaw County. In an address at Ann Arbor, he blamed Williams for not taking the initiative in spurring the state's highway-building program. Had he done so, Cobo said, "we would have good highways from one end of the state to the other."

Cobo attacked Williams for not ordering issuance of 146 million dollars in revenue bonds which he said had been authorized for highways by the State Legislature but never spent.

* * *

At a Democratic rally in Grand Haven, Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart urged creation of an "automation study commission . . . to cure the ills of the 'flood and drouth' production" in the auto industry.

Hart accused the Republican Legislature of killing last spring Gov. Williams' proposal for such a commission.

"The critical problem of periodic unemployment in the auto plants must be met by joint action of all parties concerned," Hart said.

Colorado Senate Race Enlivened by Accusations of Coattail Riding

DENVER (AP) — Friends of two American presidents are slugging it out for a United States Senate seat from Colorado in a campaign enlivened by accusations of "coattail riding."

Democrat John A. Carroll, making a third Senate attempt, originally tossed the barb at Republican Dan Thornton, golfing companion of President Eisenhower.

Thornton retorted that if he is linked to Eisenhower, Carroll must be tied to former President Truman, whom he publicly supported in 1946, 1948 and 1950.

Thornton, millionaire cattleman and former governor who heads the national Republican farm vote campaign, is making his first Senate race. Carroll is a former U.S. representative.

Much of the campaigning has been in rural Colorado, and bitterness already has erupted. Carroll has referred to Thornton as "no barefoot cowboy" and "a huckster." The Republican has been equally as sharp in jibes, chiefly at Carroll's record.

Thornton stresses peace and prosperity under Eisenhower and claims the administration is solving inherited farm problems. Carroll demands more farm aid and argues that small business needs better national policies to survive. Both emphasize a need for more water in the drought-ridden state.

The winner will succeed ailing Sen. Eugene D. Millikin, 65-year-old Republican who is retiring after 15 years.

Aid for both Thornton and Carroll has been forthcoming from men at the top of their national tickets.

Adlai Stevenson, in a Denver address, called a campaign blast against Carroll by Vice President Nixon two years ago "a smear," and Sen. Estes Kefauver urged Carroll's election.

Nixon during a visit to the state called for Thornton's election.

President Eisenhower beamed on Thornton during the GOP National Convention, and state party chieftains say his candidacy was recommended by the national administration.

The two candidates bring differing backgrounds to the Senate race.

Carroll joined the Army while under age during World War I, became a Denver policeman and later an identification expert. He studied law at night and eventually served four years as Denver's district attorney. He lost a race for the Democratic nomination for governor, acted as an OPA official, then entered the Army and did wartime duty overseas during World War II as a military government officer.

* * *

Returning from service, he won Denver's seat in the U.S. House of Representatives in 1946. Re-elected in 1948, he ran for the Senate two years later and was nominated without opposition. He lost to Millikin. For a time he acted as a congressional liaison man for President Truman.

He won a bitter Democratic primary for the senatorial nomination in 1954 but was defeated in the general election. This year he shaded Charles F. Brannan, Truman's secretary of agriculture for the nomination.

* * *

Thornton was born on a Texas farm, played college football at the University of California at Los Angeles, did movie bit parts, worked in oil fields, became an Arizona rancher and developed a western Colorado ranch for blooded cattle more than 15 years ago.

Because of a foot damaged in a boyhood gunshot accident he was turned down for military service. He was elected state senator in 1948 and governor two years later, serving four years.

Rowan Eases Chores on Campaign Caravan

Rising Star Pestered Adlai for Job

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—A six-foot matinee idol type "Mr. Fixit" is the rising star of Adlai E. Stevenson's presidential campaign caravan.

He is 27-year-old Richard Rowan, onetime sea cook and water ski instructor.

As far as many of the newsmen covering Stevenson are concerned, Rowan is the one bright light in what at times was a very dark picture of organization.

Luggage is his main chore but he has a flair for getting other things done. Reporters know that, if the local constabulary leaves them stranded in traffic, the taciturn and unassuming Rowan will get out, wave people politely aside and make a path to a point right behind Stevenson's open car.

About six months ago, as Stevenson's aides tell it, a letter came in from Rowan asking for a job. A polite noncommittal reply went back. That brought a flood of letters and postcards, at least one a day, saying:

"Stevenson needs Rowan."

Stevenson turned this burgeoning correspondence over to his personal aide and law associate, William McCormick Blair. Blair handled it for a while, then passed it down to his blonde secretary, Phyliss Gustafson.

At length she complained:

"This Rowan character is driving me out of my mind."

Then one day a huge package came. When opened, it turned out to be a mobile which, when hung up, said on all of its free-wheeling parts:

"Stevenson needs Rowan."

That did it. Blair told him to come to Chicago as a volunteer worker for Stevenson during the Democratic convention, if he wanted to. He did, and on the basis of his work there Blair put him on the payroll.

In submitting a required biography, Rowan disclosed he is the son of a dress shop owner in Monterey, Calif., worked his way through the University of California at Los Angeles, got to Europe as a sea cook, taught water skiing to pay his way through the Sorbonne at Paris and finally — convinced that "I admire Stevenson so much I felt I should do something for him" — he launched his Stevenson-needs-Rowan campaign.

Nixon to Reply on Bomb Issue

Answers Adlai Tonight With Major Address at Buffalo, N.Y.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Vice President Nixon, seeking to refute what he calls "misstatements of fact" by Adlai Stevenson, worked today on a reply to Stevenson's proposals for international negotiations to stop H-bomb tests.

* * *

The Democratic nominee said last night that if he were elected president he would promptly follow up what he termed an "opportunity" presented by Britain and Russia to discuss a halt in testing the big nuclear weapons.

Nixon's campaign, aimed at areas which Republicans consider in need of special vote-seeking effort, swings across part of Indiana today and to Buffalo, N.Y., for a major address tonight.

* * *

Nixon bluntly disagreed with Stevenson yesterday on economic matters. Following a grueling schedule of talks in industrial glass and steel centers in Ohio, Nixon repeatedly said that American labor never had it so good as under President Eisenhower's administration.

He said in Toledo that if anyone questioned Eisenhower's integrity and desire to improve the living conditions of Americans, "he is engaging in low-road campaigning in the worst Harry Truman tradition."

* * *

And in steel-producing Youngstown, Nixon said Stevenson sounds "more and more like Harry Truman."

He cited statistics intended to show that labor under the Republican administration has increased its share of the national income, while the real income of Americans generally has climbed.

* * *

Such progress, he said, "will be halted if we turn back to the reactionary policies of the Truman era which Mr. Stevenson would impose on the country."

Nixon said also that Stevenson was showing desperation and setting up a straw man when he concentrated his campaign fire for a time on Nixon, and when he referred to the vice president as the "annointed heir" of Republican party leadership.

Nixon said he is concerned with doing a good job as vice president and supporting for president in the 1960 election a choice of the Republican party. It has plenty of good men, he said. And under questioning at a news conference, he said Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Harold Stassen should be listed among these.

Ike Leads in 5 of 6 Counties That Always Pick Winners

WASHINGTON (AP) — Political soundings from five of six "bellwether" counties indicate a re-election victory for President Eisenhower. A close vote was predicted in the other.

* * *

These six are among eight counties, scattered across the country, which have voted for the winner in every presidential election for more than 50 years, most of them since William McKinley won in 1896.

Estimates were made by newspaper editors and correspondents in response to an Associated Press inquiry.

A similar survey in 1952 resulted in a misfire in one county. Then the "bellwethers" numbered 11. Three fell by the wayside when they went for Stevenson against the national trend. In the 1952 survey, they had been tabbed as likely to go for Stevenson.

* * *

Those left in 1956 with records intact are Crook County, Ore.; Albany and Laramie counties, Wyo.; Jasper and Palo Alto counties, Iowa; Vanderburgh County, Ind.; and Strafford and Coos (pronounced Co-oss) counties, N.H.

No sampling was undertaken this year in the two Iowa counties, where voters were reported reluctant to speak out.

* * *

A switch was predicted for Albany County, Wyo., with Laramie as its biggest community. Three out of five newspaper editors and political leaders interviewed seemed to think Stevenson would carry the county. They reported more Democratic party interest than in 1952, a stronger endorsement of Stevenson by organized labor and a weakening of Eisenhower's support among a few ranchers.

* * *

In the other Wyoming county — Laramie, site of Cheyenne — four of six interviewed felt that Eisenhower would carry the county again but that his margin would be smaller. Newspaper editors said the end of the war in Korea would be a factor with women. Four years ago the editors expected Laramie county to go for Stevenson — the one misfire.

* * *

Those interviewed in the two New Hampshire counties unanimously predicted Eisenhower would carry their counties again. However, most said the margin of victory would be smaller than 1952.

Another Eisenhower victory was foreseen in Vanderburgh County, Ind., site of Evansville.

* * *

A poll being taken by the Evansville Press showed Eisenhower would get 66.3 per cent of the vote around the end of September.

* * *

Two newsmen in Crook County, Ore., predicted Eisenhower would carry the county again this year.

38 Perish in Wreck of Japanese Trains

TSU, Japan (AP) — The death of two young students today raised to 38 the toll in the collision of a speeding express train and a local carrying high school boys and girls on a holiday.

* * *

Twenty-three of the dead and 20 of the 35 injured were among the 99 students from two high schools on an excursion to Ise shrine.

National railway officials said the tangled wreckage of four locomotives and 20 passenger cars would not be cleared for many hours.

* * *

The wreck occurred shortly after dark last night. The local was derailed while being sidetracked and two cars toppled into the path of the Nagoya-bound express. Tsu is about 200 miles southwest of Tokyo.

Intriguing Events Punctuate Nixon's 'Big Day' in Ohio

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Vice President Nixon had a big day in Ohio yesterday, for it was a day when:

Mrs. Pat Nixon autographed a little boy's hand at a school near Toledo . . .

The vice president told Defiance College students that when he went out for football "I wound up sitting on the coach with the bench (sic) . . .

* * *

A circus elephant hired for an airport welcome at Warren panicked and bounded down the highway when a jet whooshed overhead, just before the vice president's plane arrived. (Jumbo's trainer gave chase and soothed the critter down in time) . . .

* * *

Mayor Ollie Czelusta of Toledo, the "Glass City," handed Nixon a glass key to the city and the vice president inquired innocently, "Is this plastic made in Toledo?" . . .

A local candidate was — literally — crowded off the platform in Maumee, receiving nothing worse than a few bruises. . . .

Light Action

READING, Pa. (AP) — Tom Dondore wanted a traffic light on Schuylkill Avenue near his home. So he took his problem to City Council. "It's very busy and I'd like a traffic light there," he informed the councilmen. "Sometimes you can hardly get across the street."

Tom is 10 years old. He goes to school near the busy intersection.

Corner's Name Sticks

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C. (AP) — One of Elizabeth City's busy intersections is known as Dog Corners.

The name dates back to the 1890's when a popular barroom faced the streets. To pass the time of day, men would move outside where dog fights were held with as many as six canines participating.

Kiltie-Clad Portuguese

The fishermen of Nazare, on Portugal's coast, wear the colorful tartans of the Scottish Highlanders. They explain their unusual garb by telling the story of a Scottish ship that was wrecked off the coast in the 17th Century. The Scots, clad in their native costumes, lived among the Portuguese. As a result, the villagers of Nazare adopted the vivid dress, extending it even to their own pantaloon version of the kilt.

Adlai Composes Theme to Harp on Until Nov. 6

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. — (INS)—Adlai Stevenson and his top campaign strategists have worked out the blueprint they will follow in the final stretch drive bid for the White House.

* * *

He and his advisers have decided on a six-point program they will stress as campaign issues between now and Nov. 6.

In the opinion of Stevenson and his "brain trust" these are the six dominant campaign issues which will be hammered constantly in the final three weeks of the campaign:

1. General Motors and "big business" control of the Eisenhower administration versus Joe Smith.

* * *

2. A vote for Eisenhower is a vote for Nixon, who will succeed to leadership of the Republican party, win or lose, because Eisenhower will become the first "lame duck" President in history.

3. The cost of living which has reached an all-time peak under the Republicans.

4. The issue of war and peace.

5. Stevenson's proposal to halt further testing of the hydrogen bomb and his suggestion that a highly trained professional Army of career soldiers, trained in the technique of atomic warfare, might make possible discontinuance of the "wasteful" two-year draft.

* * *

6. Farm policy and the low income of farmers due to the Eisenhower administration's flexible support policy.

Stevenson will pound these issues hard in the final two-weeks of the campaign, which will see him hopping by airplane on criscross paths back and forth across the nation.

He will concentrate his heavy caliber campaign guns in the parts of the nation which the Democrats feel are vital to victory.

Stevenson will wind up his campaign, which has been under way without letup since a week after the Democratic National Convention, with a giant rally in Chicago election eve.

* * *

He said he plans to vote in Libertyville, election day morning, and will fly immediately to Washington, D. C., where he will await the nation's verdict at his headquarters there.

Adlai's Idea Is Fine –If You Trust Russia

Who trusts the Russians?

Do you?

This newspaper does not.

★ ★ ★

If you do, Adlai Stevenson's H-bomb program is a jim-dandy. On the other hand, if you believe the Commies are crooked, double crossing and power-mad, then the Democratic candidate seeks to place you right in their lap with palms pressed together beneath your chin in fervent prayer.

★ ★ ★

"Let's quit testing H-bombs," says Adlai. "If the Russians agree to stop and don't, we'll know it when they fire one off."

If it's possible to make an H-bomb, isn't it possible to make one in the future that can be fired without recording on the current detectographs?

Can't progress be made there? What do YOU think?

★ ★ ★

Mr. Stevenson, you're never going to make headway towards election with silly, suicidal proposals like this. What gives Mr. Stevenson the idea that all the world scientists have ceased progressing on the firing methods? Everything about the H-bomb is in its infancy—including Adlai's reasoning.

White Line Proves Big Help to Motorists

Have you noticed that white line that runs along the edge of the new surface of the pavement on Telegraph Road between Orchard Lake Avenue and Square Lake Road?

This white line was painted down the side of the pavement by the State Highway Department as an experiment, according to Leon V. Belknap, Oakland County Road Commission engineer. The Department is seeking to determine whether the white line is of sufficient help to motorists driving at night to justify the cost of the paint and its application.

★ ★ ★

The line is a big help after dark. It marks the edge of the pavement clearly. It helps a driver to keep on the road, and should prevent many accidents.

★ ★ ★

When a car runs off the road in wet weather, an accident can easily result. If the shoulder is soft, the wheels may sink down and throw the car out of control if it is traveling at a high rate of speed.

Or, if the driver keeps control of his car, he must get it back onto the pavement. If the shoulder has been worn down below the level of the pavement, there is danger again as the car comes back onto the road.

★ ★ ★

Night driving on a heavily traveled highway is dangerous enough at best. Anything that the department can do to increase safety should be done if the cost is not prohibitive. In this case, the cost is small. Let's have more of these white lines marking the edge of our pavements.

35,042 to 125

In the year ending June 30, says our Immigration Department, no fewer than 35,042 Communist refugees entered this country.

During the same period only 125 refugees from Communist tyranny have returned to their homelands. Quite properly our immigration service has gone to great lengths to learn from these persons whether their returns were voluntary.

Only two of them admitted sympathy with Communism. All the rest were going home to rejoin families who couldn't get Communist governments' permission to come to the U.S. In other words, America outdrew Communist states 35,042 to 125, an almost perfect score. It should be remembered that the relatives at home of those who returned were under constant Communist pressure to persuade their kin to leave this country.

Last year a total of 50,470 refugees who had come here earlier were granted American citizenship. They had to overcome many obstacles in their efforts to reach America, not only because of the dangers of attempting to escape Communist tyranny, but because of our own laws governing entry.

It is easy to believe that these new citizens, willing to take such risks to win freedom, will enrich and strengthen our national life.

Human nature being what it is (alas!), a person can gain far more attention by wiggling his ears than by reciting Hamlet's soliloquy.

The Man About Town

But Little Change

Ratio in Political Poll Remains About the Same

Tossed salad: What many of them should have been.

Contacts since last Tuesday with 59 voters make but little change in the relative standings in our poll. They were mostly in Oakland County, and were scattered through several locations and occupations.

Over the entire area there's a growing sentiment of weariness on the bunk that comes from discredited politicians now out of a job, but who profess to know a better way to run things.

Added to the number previously contacted, these 59 make the total standings as follows:

Eisenhower	341
Stevenson	282

Just One Big Brink

David Lawrence Says:

H-Bombs and Politics Don't Mix

WASHINGTON—What's back of Adlai Stevenson's insistence H-bomb tests must become a campaign issue?

Only one man—the President—has the power to order the H-bomb used. If Stevenson becomes President, will he order the superbomb to be used, or will he refrain from doing so? That's the basic question.

Would Stevenson wait before making a decision? How long would he wait? Would he compel the Air Force to wait till enemy planes had destroyed New York or Detroit, and then order "massive retaliation?" Wouldn't that be too late to save America from dreadful casualities?

Intercepting devices and guided missiles are being tested and developed which could render harmless enemy bombs. But such experiments require intimate knowledge of the bomb. Hence, tests at faraway points are of paramount importance.

KEEPING PROMISES?

Would Stevenson stop such tests, too? How can he promise he will stop all H-bomb tests without at the same time being compelled in all good faith to say he will during thta period not experiment with or use the H-bomb at all?

If America undertakes on her own to stop H-bomb tests, what assurance is there the Communists will halt also? There is authoritative information available here that says certain tests can be concealed. America knows how to conceal such tests.

Does Stevenson propose to stop tests for this country on Russia's promise while there is no sure way of knowing whether the Communists have stopped testing and are keeping the agreement?

* * *

All these queries will have to be answered by Stevenson now that he has made the H-bomb a campaign issue.

What does he hope to gain by this strange emphasis on the H-bomb in the midst of a political contest? Does he mean to imply Eisenhower isn't as anxious to keep the peace? Or is it because by talking about stopping H-bomb tests, some uninformed voters will mark Stevenson as a man of peace, and Eisenhower a man who wants to "rattle the bombs?"

Some scientists who boast they owe no allegiance to any country but are "citizens of the world" are insisting there be a stoppage of H-bomb tests. Some of these scientists have been insisting fallout will hurt future generations.

NO EVIDENCE

There have been many H-bomb tests by both Russia and the United States, but so far no nation anywhere can point to real damage from fallout.

Only last week there was released in Japan an important on-the-spot study by doctors who have examined children, born between 1946 and 1953, one or both of whose parents were atomic-bombed at Hiroshima or Nagasaki.

The experts were able to find in these children "little or no observable difference from a child born to unexposed parents."

It is easy enough to scare people about fallout but there is no proof persons outside the testing area have been injured.

Republicans have a ready answer for the Stevenson argument. They say to stop America's testing while waiting for the Communists to do likewise, is an example of the kind of judgment which the American people are asked to accept if Stevenson should be elected.

H-bomb tests regrettably will be an issue—but in the long run it may be the issue that insures Stevenson's defeat. It's the wrong issue at the wrong time and in the wrong place—certainly it doesn't belong on the political stump.

LI'L ONES

"Thanks, but we've got our own flashlight!"

Dr. William Brady Says:

Best Source of Calcium for Youths, Adults Is Milk

"For the past ten months my wife has complained of severe cramps at night, to the extent that she fears to try to stretch. She also states that the pain lately seems to be in her shin bones . . ." (S. C. O.)

I have been trying to tell you all along that most people in Yankeeland, men, women, and growing children, the well-to-do perhaps more than the poor, which is risky for a teacher to explain, suffer from nutritional deficiency or, as Daniel T. Quigley, M.D., F.A.C.S., called it in his enlightening little book of the same name, The National Malnutrition.

To a good many sophomorons "malnutrition" means the poor "underprivileged" child or adult doesn't get enough to eat. So Lady Bountiful sends a loaf of refined white bread or a cake or cookies made of white flour and white sugar. Or the local lunch club offers a free Thanksgiving dinner with all the trimmings. Or the PTA provides milk in the school cafeteria, although it doesn't appeal to the sickly taste of the average pampered child as much as pap or pop does. This noble achievement makes all us do-gooders feel gooder.

On page 22 of his 100-page book (published by Lee Foundation, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, $1.50) Dr. Quigley says:

"Without a sufficient amount of calcium pains may occur which completely disappear after a sufficient amount of calcium is taken. Some of the pains of advanced cancer may be completely relieved by giving calcium."

By "giving calcium" Dr. Quigley does not mean dosing with calcium pills, tablets, or other medical preparation. He means high calcium diet and/or supplementing the diet with calcium and (of course) vitamin D to insure good metabolism or utilization of calcium as food.

The correspondent's wife, who is afraid to have a good stretch lest she get a painful cramp in leg, foot, arm, hand, or other muscle probably has tetany, which, in infant, child ("growing pains"), or adult is just one way in which calcium deficiency is manifested. She should learn that calcium (every healthy adult of average weight has 2¼ pounds of calcium distributed through bones, teeth, nerves, organs, blood, etc.) tends to steady the nerves and make them less irritable, and also tends to relieve or prevent a good many everyday aches and pains. We are talking about what I call an optimal daily ration of calcium, that is, two or three times more than the minimum requirement, which is the amount nutrition authorities consider indispensable to maintain good nutrition, good health.

The best source of calcium for infant, child, adolescent, or mature adult is milk or milk products, such as skim milk, separator milk (that is, what's left after the milk fat has been removed), and cheese, and any and every kind you prefer. The minimum daily requirement of milk is 1½ pints—three glasses. You had better not try to worry along on less than 1½ pints of milk every day if you want to enjoy your share of health, functional efficiency, vite, good looks, sense of physical well-being, freedom from the frequent aches and pains that harass victims of malnutrition, Yankee style.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Talk About Farm Situation Recalls Truman Policies

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Much is being said about the present administration letting the farmer down. Has the Democratic party forgotten so soon what happened under the Truman administration when the government was loaded with millions of bushels of potatoes and was so tied up with red tape it couldn't release them to our own benevolent institutions, and they sold them to Russia for one cent per hundred pounds?

What brought on this condition? Too high parity, so high it induced the millionaire to farm and sell to the government for the government paid more than he could get on the open market. And there are those who are still praising the FDR administration. Yet in a little more than 12 years he spent our entire national wealth and left us a bankrupt nation with a blanket mortgage covering every man's property to 100 per cent of its value. A private corporation or individual in such a financial situation would be foreclosed on. And the government, if so pressed by its creditors, could consign every man's property and control the sales of it.

If the Democratic party during its 20 years in power had accomplished what it did basically and fundamentally without drawing from the capital stock of the nation, much credit might have been given it. What the farmer needs is markets for what they produce.

'Why the Fighting Between Races?'

Why must there be the fighting against races that goes on today? Stop and realize that God put all races on earth. It isn't the color of our skin or of what religion we are, it is the person we are and the life we live.

There is good and bad in all. American people are supposed to be well-educated, so why not prove it? It makes me sick when I hear parents tell their children not to play with someone because his skin is darker. All colors need schools, a place to worship and the right to live.

Look around you and help those which perhaps you consider a little less fortunate than yourself and then thank God you are what you are.

Mrs. Joseph E. Cool

Hopes to Avoid Future Mistakes

Our little village is located on a hill on Shimmons Road off M-24. We are told our rules, which are the same as any village. The only difference is that families with children are in one section and those who have raised their children or never had any are in a section where it is just a bit quieter.

We all pay taxes the same as land owners, including school taxes. We live in trailers so we can be with the fathers who work at construction of new roads, homes, power lines, etc. We also vote. Now we are in the process of registering at the Pontiac Township hall.

We lost our owner, or mayor, of our village. His wife is our mayor now, with the help of her two brothers. When Mr. Hillman died of a heart attack, M-24 was being repaired and our fire department didn't know how to get up here. There was no way from M-24. No one knew 100 families, taxpaying citizens, lived up here.

I believe when a road so important to so many citizens is being repaired, signs should be put out telling how to detour to a village of our size. The ambulance also couldn't get up here from M-24.

Let's show respect to trailer villages in the future so a mistake like this won't happen again.

And so let him go his way.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Adoption Ties Strong as Blood

Mrs. Long offers an excellent suggestion for parents of adopted youngsters. Scrapbook this Case Record or mail it to friends in other parts of the U.S.A. who have foster children. Discuss it in Sunday school or high school hygiene classes, for most people have the wrong notion about kinship. Help clear up their confusion with these facts.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case S-392: Mrs. John D. Long recently gave me a very nice compliment concerning my column which dealt with the matter of how to inform a foster child of its adoption.

* * *

"Your advice was very practical," she said, "and here's an additional point you might like to pass along to your readers.

"We have three adopted youngsters and make a family celebration of each 'Adoption Day,' much as we do for actual birthdays.

"When I overheard a neighbor boy taunting our daughter when she was only three years old, about her being adopted, our daughter quickly replied:

" 'Well, on my 'doption day I get pink cake and pink ice cream and you don't.'

"He promptly dropped the subject. Don't you think our method is psychologically sound, Dr. Crane?"

FOSTER CHILDREN!

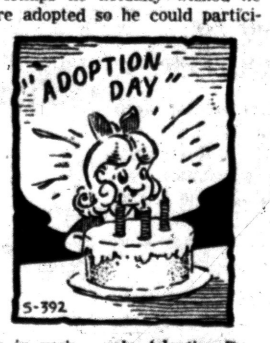
Yes, it is just as proper as for a husband to remember his wedding anniversary and take his wife out to dinner or bring her flowers and candy.

Indeed, it may have even more lasting value on the developing personality of the young child.

* * *

Mrs. Long's own example showed how quickly the foster daughter put the neighbor boy in his place.

Perhaps he actually wished he were adopted so he could participate in such a gala Adoption Day with pink cake and pink ice cream!



This is the technique which we psychologists call "stealing their thunder."

Whenever you can take the taunt of another person and change it from an apparent stumbling block into a stepping stone to greater success, that falls under the category of "stealing thunder." (See tomorrow's column).

And the adopted youngster actually has several strong selling points to prove that a foster child is more fortunate than a flesh-and-blood youngster.

ADOPTION SALES POINTS

For example, his daddy and mother simply "adopted" each other from strange blood lines when they married.

If a man can "adopt" a strange girl as his wife and thereafter feel closer to her than to his own flesh-and-blood brothers and sisters, he can likewise adopt children and feel closer to them, too.

Second, an adopted child knows that he was wanted, anticipated happily and much desired.

Many flesh-and-blood children are "accidents" and the prospective parents may not only grumble about having the extra baby, but may even intimate, if not rudely tell him, they didn't want him.

Moreover, there is no magic in that old saying that "blood is thicker than water."

For the blood brothers Cain and Abel feuded until Cain slew Abel. The Bible is full of cases where brothers killed brothers and even slaughtered their own parents, or vice versa.

So never make a fetich of blood relationship. The only true kinship among human being is spiritual. It is based on voluntary love and affection.

So adopt children when you get a chance. And tell them early about this wonderful event.

Mark it on the calendar as you do wedding anniversaries. And to raise your batting average as parents, send for my 200-point "Tests for Good Parents," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20c. cents.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane, in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Ohio Man, Boy Killed in Two Freak Accidents

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A man and a 4-year-old boy died yesterday in separate accidents that might be considered unusual.

Tudor Brown, 57, died after burning trash at the rear of his home in Newark. Police said a metal fragment from a burst shaving cream can pierced Brown's right leg and severed an artery.

The boy, Verner Lee Redding, was electrocuted in his home at New Holland when he poured water into the empty socket of a small lamp he was holding, the Pickaway County Sheriff's office reported.

Hungary Foils Airliner Escape

Secret Police Prevent Seizure of Plane; One of Four Plotters Killed

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—Hungary's Communist government says two of its secret policemen foiled an attempt by four heavily armed men to seize a Hungarian airliner in flight and head it to West Germany.

* * *

In a bloody fight above the clouds, the police officers shot one of the plotters dead and wounded another. The other two surrendered, the Hungarian Interior Ministry said.

The ministry gave this account of the incident:

Police arrested a confederate of the four and learned of the plot shortly before the plane left Budapest Airport yesterday. The aircraft, bound for the Hungarian town of Zalaegerszeg, stopped at Szombathely en route and two armed plainclothesmen got on board.

* * *

The policemen opened fire when the four, brandishing submachine-guns, pistols and other weapons, tried to force the pilot to change course.

The plane returned to Szombathely.

Seven Hungarians succeeded in a similar attempt last July 14. After subduing the Communist crew and a secret policeman aboard a Hungarian state airliner with makeshift clubs, they flew the plane to Ingolstadt, Germany.

ROGER E. BUXTON

For his outstanding service as a Pontiac Press carrier for one year, Roger E. Buxton, 15, of 294 Farnsworth, was recently honored with a certificate from the Inland Daily Press Assn. The banquet at which Roger and nine other carriers were honored was held in connection with National Newspaperboy Day. Roger is a 9th grade student of Dublin School and likes to hunt and fish. He is undecided as to his future plans, and like many a boy, loves baseball and football.

The basis of mankind's clocks, the turning of the earth itself, varies slightly. It sometimes speeds up, then slows down. These differences are minute. From 1680 to 1800 the earth "lost" 27-100ths of a second. From 1800 to 1900 it "gained" 30-100ths of a second, the National Geographic Society says.

Physician Killed by A-Radiation

Dies Eight Years After Leaving Post in U. S. Laboratories

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Exposure to atomic radiation in a government laboratory between 8 and 10 years ago has taken the life of a Philadelphia physician, the city medical examiner said.

* * *

Medical Examiner Joseph W. Spelman issued his finding after an inquest into the death last July 24 of Dr. Kenneth A. Koerber, 50, of Philadelphia. Dr. Koerber had worked in the Atomic Energy Commission's Brookhaven National Laboratories, Upton, N.Y., between 1946 and 1948. He inspected laboratories to protect workers from radiation.

"We presume," Dr. Spelman said, that "Dr. Koerber somehow got a dose of atomic radiation which now, 10 years later, caused his death. We have conclusively proved that he was subject to atomic radiation or to the inhalation or to the eating of atomic compounds. At the present time his bones contain 1,000 times the maximum safe concentration of radiation."

* * *

Dr. Spelman said the radiation was probably cumulative instead of a single dose.

Dr. Spelman said that from the time Dr. Koerber left Brookhaven until his death he was in failing health.

Find Way to 'Bridge' Quorum Shortage

SOUTHBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — A town meeting interrupted a bridge party.

Only 143 voters showed up at the special town meeting — 7 short of a quorum.

The town fathers learned a bridge party was in session at a nearby home. They went there and induced the women into attending the meeting.

The meeting voted $10,000 for veterans benefits and granted hospitalization benefits to town employes.

'Spousery' Advocated for Marital Success

BY PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—Emily Hahn, writer, wife and world traveler, daintily removed the cigar from her mouth and stated the facts as gently as she could.

"Husbands and wives," she said, "do not talk.

"Anyways husbands don't.

"And it takes two to make a chat.

"The average couple is already well on the road to verbal bankruptcy by the wedding day. People don't get around to marrying until they have already swapped opinions on everything and told their best anecdotes."

And what is the salution to this problem, Miss Hahn? Is there any way to overcome this dull, thuddish silence that stagnates the lifestream of a marriage?

"Of course," replied Miss Hahn, once again puffing thoughtfully. "It doesn't look right at parties if a husband and wife don't talk to each other.

"Men at parties have got to be polite, even to their wives—at any rate at the beginning of the evening. The solution then is obvious:

"Married people should go to a lot of parties, that's all."

EXPERT ON 'SPOUSERY'

Emily Hahn, whose succinct advice you have just read, is an expert on all forms of "spousery." This is a new word, which she has invented and written a book about. It means "the technique of being married without too much pain."

She calls marriage a universal phenomenon, beset with pitfalls, entered into by two sexes: Women—who are attracted to marriage by necessity and instinct; and men—who are not really attracted to it at all, but get involved through conscience and social pressure.

How these two wildly varying types manage to cohabit and live without exploding their tops has been the subject of long study by Miss Hahn.

This stogie-smoking lady writer, once described by a "New Yorker" editor as having "a great gift for supreme cattiness, "has divided her suggestions for painless-as-possible domesticity among a number of basic problems.

About each she has voluble ideas to impart, but due to space limitations, here is a brief resume for the edification of spouses (sometimes called "spice," though nothing could be more misleading):

On Privacy—some men join stag clubs, to rest up from the rigors of domestic bliss, but this is a shabby expedient. Instead, develop a sport or hobby that will get you out of the house. Women feel indulgent about a man engaged in innocent play.

On the Wearing of the Pants—The man should be boss on all matters that count. His wife should decide on all questions that bother or bore him.

On Bed—It isn't easy to learn to sleep with somebody every single night of your life, but in time you'll come to accept it if you learn to grow tolerant of snores, odd legs and arms flopping over you, and hair tickling your nose.

Some faraway day on the nice neat bed in the dressing room, you might be nostalgic about it, in fact. Crumbs, books, feet, snoring and all.

On Children—If the propinquity of children is rationed, you get fond of the creatures. Fathers should advise them, but never be talked into caring for them.

Any intelligent husband can do such a terrible job of babysitting that his wife will never again trust him alone in the house with the poor little things.

It is suggested here that if some of this experienced author's advice is followed, you may find your marriage a supremely successful venture.

"Or then again," says Miss Hahn, "you may not."

Truck Rams Viaduct at Cass Underpass

Traffic at the Cass avenue-Orchard Lake avenue underpass was slowed this morning after a large tractor-trailer truck jammed into the viaduct.

A second truck, driven by Robert Seconder of 453 N. Perry St., rammed into the rear of the larger truck according to Pontiac Police.

Police reported that David S. Swan, 347 Irwin Ave., driver of the large truck, "suddenly realized the bridge was too low to pass under."

Seconder said he had started from a light, when the second truck stopped too fast for him to prevent the collision.

Parents Watch as Son Crashes

Naval Airman Salutes Folks, Then Plunges to His Death

NEW AUGUSTA, Miss. (AP)—Farmer George Cochran looked up from his field work yesterday, watching for an air salute from his naval air cadet-son.

A Navy trainer flew over, the pilot waggled the wings and waved, then disappeared behind some trees. A crash and explosion jarred the earth under Cochran's feet.

Cochran and his wife hurried to the scene and Cochran sobbed, "I'm sure it's him," but his wife said, "we just don't know."

They said their son, 22-year-old George Everett Cochran, had written from the Pensacola, Fla., Naval Air Station that he would fly over yesterday or today on a solo training flight.

At Pensacola, the Naval Air Station confirmed the pilot was George Everett Cochran. The announcement said the cause of the crash is under investigation.

Cochran was alone in the yellow trainer when it dived almost vertically into the ground.

Contends Birth Rate May Cause Famine

WASHINGTON (AP)—Historian Arnold Toynbee says mankind faces the possibility of widespread famine and starvation unless it solves "the problem of limiting the birth rate."

In a recorded statement which the Voice of America is broadcasting around the world, Toynbee foresaw a likelihood that war will be abolished and that disease will be brought under control, and he continued:

"Is mankind going to rid itself of two of its three traditional scourges, disease and famine? Surely we are no going to be so stupid as that."

He said control of the birth rate could be achieved either through compulsion or persuasion, noting that the latter course would mean that some parents would have to change "some of the tenets of their ancestral religion."

THE STORY OF GLASS — 2

A Medieval Glass Blower

Sometime before the birth of Christ the art of blowing glass was developed at Sidon, in Syria. The Syrians discovered that by blowing molten glass into bubbles through a long pipe, and then molding it, cups, vases and bottles could be made.

During the Middle Ages glassmaking brought great wealth and fame to Venice. Although the methods of the Venetian glassblowers were carefully guarded, their secrets eventually spread all over Europe. America's first glass factory opened at Jamestown in 1608.

Today glass can be blown, pressed, cut, spun into threads, cut into mosaics, stained, etched or polished.

Here is a glass blower of the Middle Ages with some of his tools. Behind him is a furnace. Color the picture with your crayons, and paste it down on cardboard. Cut out the picture and fold it forward on the dotted line to make it stand. This is the second picture for your collection on the story of glass.

Charge Safety Lights Caused Flier's Crash

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The estate of Joel W. Thorne has filed a half million dollar suit against Pacific Airmotive Corp., described as the company which attached special lights to Thorne's plane before it crashed into an apartment house here last October.

The suit said a set of rotating beacons attached to the plane by the company made Thorne dizzy and contributed to his loss of control of the plane on the night flight on which he died. The lights were installed for safety reasons, the suit said.

Eight occupants of the apartment house were killed.

Marines Still Ban Families Overseas

SEOUL (AP)—The boss of the U.S. Marines declared today he has no intention of lifting his service's ban against its members' having their families with them overseas.

But Gen. Randolph Pate, the Marine commandant, said he had no objections to Marine dependents who went to Japan as "private visitors."

Pate, on a worldwide tour of Marine posts, leaves tomorrow for Japan. There, some 250 Marine wives have been complaining that their husbands have been threatened with "continuous transfers" unless their families return to the United States within 30 days.

The Marine husbands in Japan, most of them attached to the 1st Marine Aircraft Wing, brought their families to the Far East at their own expense. Although the women claim they came as private citizens and tourists, most have obtained new visas identifying them as dependents of American servicemen. They also receive the post exchange and commissary privileges accorded all military dependents.

2nd Crash Victim Dies

SHERIDAN (AP) — Robert R. Garrett, 28, of Ashley, died Monday at Sheridan Hospital of injuries received in a headon collision that earlier killed Leroy Stockholm, 28, of Lyons. The accident happened early Monday at the intersection of M57 and M66, eight miles east of Greenville.

Rep. Powell Backs Ike

DETROIT (AP)—Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-NY), the Negro congressman who last week announced his support for President Eisenhower, will speak at a public meeting in Detroit Sunday. Powell, a Stevenson backer in 1952, said he believed Eisenhower held out greater opportunities for the civil rights movement than Stevenson.

Bob Considine Says:

Thanks for Your Kind Invitation, Pal, but---

NEW YORK (INS)—Received a flattering letter recently beginning, "Dear Bill Constantino: We never miss your stuff in the 'Christian Science Monitor' or your program on sonar.

* * *

"The fellows took a vote last night, after getting rejections from certain big shots who won't be named, and decided that you'll be our speaker at the club's annual cream cheese and anchovy paste luncheon at Hotel Amoebic in Krud, North Dakota, November 13, 1958. Noon, sharp.

Unfortunately, our treasury does not permit us to pay speakers, even those who are miserable enough to ask for an honorarium. But we feel sure that in view of the many followers of your bird-watching column in this area you won't be a louse and let us down.

"We have reserved a single room for you at the 'Y' because the Amoebic is booked up that week. Answer by return mail because there are plenty others on the hook. The room is $12. Check-out time is dawn."

Well, what to do. . .

Obviously, there was the matter of thanking the chairman of the committee.

WHAT A THRILL

"Dear J. Buford Abernathy," I wrote. "What a thrill it was for little old me to receive your kind invitation, which was forwarded to me through my last known address, the Wetok Hilton at the Eniwetok Proving Ground. Pardon the delay.

"It may be hard to explain, but I'm not quite sure I can be there sharply at noon on that day in 1958. Who knows what the traffic will be at that time on that day? If I arrived at 12:15, would that collapse the whole affair?"

Mr. Abernathy, a man who knows exactly what he is going to be doing from minute to minute on Nov. 13, 1958, was offended.

"Friend Bill," he wrote. "If this is your way of holding us up for some important money, I personally don't like it and it won't set good with your readers out here.

* * *

"I met you one night at Toots Shor's place on 48th street, where they serve that good Italian food, hardly 17 years ago, and if you've gone 'high hat' in the meanwhile then let's hope it don't get known to your dear old Irish father, God rest his soul."

JOSHING LETTER

What to do. . .

"Dear J. Buford," I wrote. "Sorry you were upset over that 'joshing' letter I wrote.. Truth is that it's kind of hard for a reporter who chases fires and things like that to promise he'll be in such and such a place at such and such a time.

* * *

"Last time I made a positive promise I'd be somewheres I landed in Korea with Eisenhower, numb in the dead of winter, when I was supposed to be in tropical Columbus, Ohio, speaking on the topic, 'See America First.' "

"Now suppose the Z-bomb drops on N. Y. C. around Nov. 11 or 12, 1958? I really should be covering that story from the front lines of Allenhurt, N. J.

"Or suppose I get arrested by the collector from the Cheery Chummy Home Loan? Strange things happen, sometimes. If you know what's going to happen on Nov. 13, 1958, please let me know by Nov. 12 the results of the next day's card at Pimlico."

J. Buford replied, "If that's the way you feel, we'll just have to go elsewhere. We always heard you were a good fellow, but recent events show that you are a jerk. However, if you can make it, the room is still available, though they would like a deposit."

WRONG IMPRESSION

"Dear J.," I apologized. "Pardon me if I gave the wrong impression.

"It's only that a guy can't tell where he's going to be anymore, and anybody who says he does is living in a 'fool's paradise' and the last time I wound up on one of these things I got the suite and paid for the booze and the chairman drove me home through a plate glass window."

No word since from Buford.

What to do. . .

Jordan, Israel Grow Calmer

Tension Eases as Iraq Decides to Keep Army Inside Borders

JERUSALEM (AP) — Tension subsided somewhat on both sides of the Jordan-Israelf border today after a report Iraqi troops will not enter Jordan at this time.

* * *

The report, carried in the Amman newspaper Al Jihad, helped clear the atmosphere in Amman. War fears had mounted in the Jordan capital after Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion warned Israel reserved the right of freedom of action if Iraqi troops crossed into the neighboring Arab kingdom.

Al Jihad said that during Monday's talks in Amman between Jordan's King Hussein and Iraq's Crown Prince Abdul Illah, agreement was reached that the Iraqi troops would stay just outside Jordan's borders but would join Hussein's forces in the event of Israeli aggression.

* * *

A palace official in Amman said a joint communique on the Jordan-Iraq talks would be issued in Amman and Baghdad tonight.

Earlier, Iraqi plans to send about 3,000 troops to strengthen Jordan's government against collapse reportedly had Western approval. The United States and Britain were said to feel the Iraqis would serve as a stabilizing influence during countrywide elections next Sunday.

Israel, however, saw the move as a direct threat to her.

It also caused alarm in Egypt, where officials appeared to view such action as an Iraqi attempt to take over Egypt's kingpin position in the Arab world. Salah Salem, President Nasser's former propaganda minister, accused Iraqi Premier Nuri Said of engineering a plot to accupy Jordan.

Israel remained in readiness and ordered air raid sirens tested in Tel Aviv and the six surrounding communities. But the war fears eased at the report the Iraqi troops would not move closer.

Pontiac Sailors to Donate Blood Wednesday Night

Servicemen, veterans, and their families will benefit by a blood bank Pontiac Naval Reservists hope to build up at their Reserve Training Center, 469 S. East Blvd.

The blood will be free and especially valuable to families of overseas servicemen, according to Lt. Cmdr. Bernard A. Woessner, training commander.

Although mostly sailors are expected to donate, the blood will be available to members of all the armed forces, he added.

Members of the center's Surface Division 9104 will start the supply flowing with donations Wednesday night, he said. A Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit the center from 7 to 11 p.m.

Woessner added that anyone may donate blood at that time, or use the facilities of the bloodmobile to donate to other banks.

What put the magic in the new kind of FORD?

The new Ford Fairlane 500 (118-inch wheelbase). Longer, lower, larger than many medium-priced cars, yet lower in price than most of them!

Here's what put the magic in the new kind of FORD!

It all started with the new "Inner Ford." When Ford engineers planned this baby, they didn't just think in terms of new springs, new brakes, new axles. They thought in terms of a car through-and-through new.

The wheels got smaller. Yes, this new Ford is so new in every detail that even the wheels have changed. Now smaller and broader for a better grip on the road, they help you take off quickly . . . give you a better ride.

The wheelbase got longer . . . in fact Ford offers two wheelbases, both longer than any in its field. So now you can choose between a Ford that's over 16 ft. long—or one that's over 17 ft!

The frame got wider. Side rails bow out and dip down between front and rear wheels to give a more stable, safer riding platform . . . a lower, sleeker silhouette.

The ride got smoother. With new suspension, new springing front and rear, the ride this new Ford gives you is the closest you'll ever come to coasting on velvet-covered clouds. And that holds true on back roads, too!

The handling got easier . . . and no wonder! This new, lower Ford with stiffer frame is poised and balanced like a panther. And the new swept-back front suspension works its magic when you need it most.

The power got hotter. This new kind of Ford is packed with Thunderbird GO! It offers a wide range of Silver Anniversary V-8's to fit every horsepower need* . . . plus a new version of the famous Mileage Maker Six.

"Six or V-8, the going is great"

The roof got lower. You can shake hands with admiring friends over the roof of this low, low Ford. No wonder it clings to the road like a coat of paint. And it's designed to let you make the easy entries and graceful exits you've always known.

The body got quieter. As a matter of fact, it's the strongest body ever built for a low-priced car. It's built to keep its new-car "tightness" longer. And no car in Ford's field has such generous sound-proofing.

The room got bigger. There's head room to spare for a tycoon-type hat. There's real stretch-out leg room, too, even for six-footers. And there's plenty of shoulder space for six big passengers.

The lines got sweeter. They have the Touch of Tomorrow. Ford gives you the longest, lowest, low-priced car ever. Each graceful contour, every long, low, lance-like line of its sculptured-in-steel body says, "Let's go!"

The style got smarter. With this new-look new Ford you have a car that belongs anywhere! For example: all Fairlane models, including the sedans have the look of a hardtop.

The value got greater . . . and the price is still Ford-low. The result—even more promise of buying a car that will keep its value high . . . a car that will stay worth more.

A special 270-hp Thunderbird 312 Super V-8 engine available at extra cost. Also an extra-high-performance Thunderbird 312 Super V-8 engine delivering up to 285 hp.*

MMPA Wins Judge's Backing

Murphy Rules Against Fritz Suit on Monday, Endorses Delegates

DETROIT (AP) — The Michigan Milk Producers Assn. today had the backing of Circuit Judge Thomas J. Murphy in a dispute started by a minority faction over the organization's election procedures.

In a 10,000 word opinion yesterday, Judge Murphy ruled against a suit brought by Harold Fritz, Romeo dairy farmer and leader of a rebellious group of about 2,000 farmers.

Fritz sought to change election and other procedures, including methods for selection of delegates and naming of directors to staggered terms.

Denying a protest against only delegates having a vote at annual meetings, Judge Murphy said:

"Delegates were members of the corporation and had the right to vote and any actions taken by them would be the action of the members. As long as all of the members consented that some of the members should vote for them, I do not see how it can be said that this is illegal.

Judge Murphy said records showed no objections to the delegate system till 1955.

'Tender Trap' Brings Laughs From 2 Groups

By MYRENE TAYLOR
Rochester Correspondent

ROCHESTER — "The Tender Trap" presented by The Avon Players Friday and Saturday nights in the High School Auditorium produces more laughter and applause from two large audiences than any comedy produced in the nine years of the club's existence.

Marie Sorenson, director, said, "During the five week's rehearsals the wit and humor of the lines of the eight actors made it hard to concentrate" but the final presentation was as near professional as Rochester audiences have seen.

While all Avon Players' shows are not equally professional, their work has developed in the last few years and today the Players can give entertainment for a discriminating audience.

Main drawback to full recognition as an area institution and as a real cultural center for the community is not having their own playhouse, but a building committee has had scouts looking for desirable playhouse or a suitable one for remodel, and hope runs high for such a project in the very near future.

Bob Halbach gave a splendid performance as the lead, and Charlie Reader, and Tom King gave excellent support. Worth Mallory's few lines almost stole the show.

Fritz Removed From Office; Won Few Points

Harold H. Fritz, whose suit was ruled down by a Detroit circuit court yesterday, was voted out of office, 7 to 6, last Thursday night at the annual election of the local MMPA.

His successor was Robert Hotchkiss of Romeo. Fritz was also removed as a delegate to the MMPA annual meeting.

Fritz's attorney Edward A. Jacob, said this morning that he is "not dissatisfied" with the decision and that he and his clients started out originally to see if MMPA directors could be removed without cause, and if members can bring up points for annual meeting consideration.

He says he feels the ruling was favorable to Fritz in those respects.

The decision has provided fuel for splinter groups, Jacob says, predicting that FSBA and Home Martin followers will try to capitalize on the new rulings. He feels the CIO may tell MMPA members "See you can't do anything, you need the unions."

Plan New Plant in SE Oakland

Power Company Tells Building Plans to Aid in Area's Growth

Continuing growth in its Southeast Division, Consumers Power, embraces some 790 square miles of the Metropolitan suburban area including such cities as Plymouth, Northville, Ferndale, Royal Oak, East Detroit, Mt. Clemens and Pontiac, which necessitates immediate construction of a large plant, a firm official says.

A new Consumers Power Co. service center at Coolidge Highway and 14 Mile Road in Royal Oak, is planned, Southeast Division Manager David H. Gerhard announced today.

Gerhard said growth both in the Pontiac District and in the South Oakland District, headquartered in Royal Oak, has made the building project essential from the standpoint of continued efficiency.

Recently, the company announced expansion of its existing East Detroit service center, which serves South Macomb county, also in anticipation of greatly increased customer needs.

Gerhard added that recently a site was acquired in Livonia for future expansion of facilities for the West Wayne county District.

The new center will provide for expansion of the South Oakland district's service and office facilities and will enable the company to move its division offices from its Pontiac building, where the space will be filled by the growing Pontiac district, which thus will take over most of the Consumers building in downtown Pontiac.

Announcing the plans for the new service center, Gerhard said it will occupy the 19-acre site where for years Consumers engaged in the manufacture of artificial gas for the Royal Oak area, and where after the arrival of natural gas in the area, the company continued to operate a pipe-wrapping plant and other service facilities.

The new building project, designed by Giffels and Vallett, Inc., Detroit architects, will feature a 124,000 square-foot structure containing offices and service facilities.

It will include a warehouse, and smaller structures to house service vehicles and a section of the company's gas construction department.

The main building will contain two floors of offices, the top one to be devoted to the division offices.

Gerhard said the Souheast Division now serves 190,000 customers, an increase of 115,000 in the past ten years. This, with the anticipation of future growth of the dynamic area makes expansion necessary. He said also that the various districts in the division anticipate sharing in this growth about equally.

He said that the Darin and Armstrong Construction Co., Detroit, has been awarded the contract to build the center, which will take from 18 to 24 months to complete.

Women's Club Leads Campaign

Monday Club Votes Funds From Bazaar to Start Center Donations

ROMEO — The first offer of financial support for the proposed civic center was made last night by the Romeo Monday Club when its members voted to donate proceeds from its forthcoming Christmas bazaar to the project.

Recently 42 area organizational representatives volunteered their 28 groups' support of the center, both with money and service.

The local women's club, which has about 50 active members, is the first to come forth with a concrete offer of monetary aid.

Detroit industrialist W. F. Sheetz, now a Romeo resident, has offered a $40,000 panelized steel building to house the center. After club support and church support won, the village council approved the creation of the Romeo Community Building Authority.

Interim directors are now seeking sites with a view to early acquisition of the most suitable parcel.

The bazaar, scheduled for Oct. 26 and 27 in the local Masonic Temple, will feature eight booths offering items made or collected by Monday Club members.

Co-chairmen of the bazaar are Mrs. Anne C. Onley and Mrs. Howard Ostrander. They have named their booth chairmen and plan to write to the 27 other organizations interested in the center asking their patronage at the event. They will also offer to reciprocate in their ventures.

In the event a site must be purchased, several thousand dollars might be made available through relatively small earnings of each organization, leaders feel.

'Fairgrounds' Site of 170 Homes

MILFORD — Another big real estate development will get under way here early next spring, according to builders R. J. Dunitz and Al Klein.

Final inspection of a 55-acre plat was presented to council members at last night's meeting. The land was formerly known as the fairgrounds and borders along Atlantic street and the cemetery on the east side.

Winding paved streets with natural rolling hills will be featured as background for 170 homes in the $18,000 bracket and there will be many waterfront lots where the property extends to the Huron River on the south side. This will be dredged and cleaned with a sandy beach along the edge, according to the owners.

Dunitz and Klein are now in the process of developing 120 homes in the Bonnie Highlands Subdivision on Summit street. Sixty-eight of the homes are roughed in and all of the streets will be paved before cold weather, Klein said.

A request from Dearborn city officials to extend village sewage facilities to camp Dearborn was presented to the council. Dearborn has agreed to pay $2,500 a year for the use of Milford's disposal plant.

Village Attorney Harry Mead was authorized to review the agreement.

Formal action allowing the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. to install natural gas in Milford was approved by council and installation should begin within the next week according to Lew Stanford, in charge of public relations.

Due to increase of enrollment in the Huron Valley School system, the Board of Education has requested that more sidewalks be installed along Summit to protect students going to and from their homes in new real estate developments.

Hal Boyle Says:

Woman Missile Engineer Can't Fix Her Own Auto

GREENWICH, Conn. (AP)—There is a young gal engineer here who holds down a top job in building America's guided missiles — but admits she can't fix her own motor car.

* * *

"I can change a tire," said Ruth Harlam, smiling. "But if anything goes wrong with the motor, I take it to the garage, just like everybody else."

The current national shortage of trained engineers has broken down much of the old antipathy against career women in this field. At 32, Miss Harlam, dark-haired and quietly attractive, is a rising slide rule princess of the atomic era.

KEY WEAPONS

She is a project supervisor in developing launching mechanisms for two key weapons in the nation's defense arsenal—the Talos and Bomarc guided missiles.

She directs a staff of 23 male draftsmen and engineers in the laboratory of the American Machine & Foundry Co.

* * *

It sounds like an unfeminine job, but Miss Harlam was advanced to it because of the outstanding work she did on such other unfeminine projects as a new howitzer, an antiaircraft gun and a tank.

The gal is thoroughly feminine herself. She wears dresses in the laboratory, donning slacks only when her job sometimes makes them more practical. She likes to knit and would rather cook than eat out, eventually hopes to marry and have a family.

BORN IN BERLIN

Miss Harlam, who was born in Berlin and came to this country in 1938, worked her way through college as a sewing machine operator. She speaks, writes and reads four languages, now is studying nights to win her doctorate in engineering.

* * *

"I got into this by accident," she recalled. "I started doing some tracing work for my brother who was studying drafting. But he wound up in sales work, and I ended up an engineer."

Miss Harlam blushed when asked if her knowledge of thermodynamics might operate as a barrier to romance by making her too critical of men, who are ususally more thermal than dynamic.

"No, I don't think so," she said. "Men are human, after all, and not an engineering problem. There is no predictable scientific law on how two people fall in love."

NOT HANDICAPPED

She has found neither her sex nor her youth much of a handicap in supervising men engineers senior to her.

"They don't resent me," she said. "In engineering work, what determines how a thing gets done is whether it is right or wrong. Whether a girl says it or a man makes no difference.

"Girls with the right training and the right attitude toward their work can do as well as men. There is a certain amount of prejudice against them still, but most of it can be overcome by showing you can do the work.

* * *

"That is the only solution I know of. A girl can't do it by charm alone."

EMPHASIS ON WAR

It bothers her occasionally that so far most of her career has been spent in developing military weapons.

* * *

"But out of all these projects come peaceful uses," she said. "And I hope to see the day when it will be possible for nations to devote at least half the money and effort now going into defense weapons to more peaceful goals.

"My own dream is to find a way to make solar energy available cheaply for the home."

* * *

Besides harnessing the sun, Miss Harlam is interested in teaching. She feels that today all engineering and science graduates are duty-bound to do at least some part-time teaching.

"But it has a special responsibility," she said soberly. "In working with machinery if something goes wrong, we can throw it away and start over. It only costs money.

"But if you make a mistake in teaching, you can't throw the child away."

Marines Open Up 2-Year Enlistments

The Marine Corps again is accepting two-year enlistments, it was announced today by M. Sgt. Ishmeal Powers of the Pontiac recruiting station.

Men between 17 and 28 may enlist by passing mental and physical examinations.

Applicants will fly to San Diego for 12 weeks basic training and five weeks of combat drilling at Camp Pendleton, Calif. A recruit is granted leave after completing training and is assigned to a Marine school, post or station.

Information on the two-year plan may be obtained at the recruiting office.

Government authorities estimate that coal and lignite comprise about 98 per cent of the U.S. mineral fuel energy reserves, not including the atomic power elements.

Club Visits Wisner Home

Dedicates Restored Dining Room

History of Dwelling Told to Members of Woman's Group

BY MARGARET COLE

An air of nostalgia was evidenced at the Monday afternoon meeting of the Pontiac Woman's Club when members and guests gathered at the Governor Moses Wisner Home on Oakland avenue.

* * *

This was the first meeting to be held in the home since the restoration program was undertaken.

Adding to the atmosphere of the event were the gowns of earlier eras worn by Mrs. Joseph Panter, Mrs. Ray Falk and Mrs. Harry D. Chapman, representatives of the Pontiac Woman's Club on the restoration committee of the Oakland County Historical Foundation, who greeted guests.

Highlighting the afternoon program was the message of Mrs. Edward Wallace, granddaughter of Gov. Wisner. She commended the Pontiac Woman's Club for the manner in which they had restored the dining room of the home, the project of the club.

* * *

Mrs. Wallace told of her recollections of events that took place in the home while she lived there, and also told of her mother always challenging her to be as good a citizen as "the man who slept in that room," referring to President Abraham Lincoln who was an overnight guest in the Wisner Home at one time.

SETTING FOR HISTORY

The speaker told of Mrs. Wisner coming to the home as a bride in 1848 and of the government functions that were held there after Mr. Wisner became governor.

* * *

She presented a 1905 edition of the Pontiac Gazette to the home. Published on Dec. 9 of that year, the paper carried the story of Mrs. Wisner's death.

Richard Poole, chairman of the restoration committee for the Oakland County Historical Foundation, briefed his listeners on the formation of the foundation and told of hopes to open the Gov. Wisner Home as a historical museum.

Interesting features of the living room furnishings of the home were discussed by Mrs. Panter, who said that the carpet and curtains are the original ones and are over 100 years old.

Mrs. Chapman told of the restoration of the DAR Room and of that organization's interest in the restoration program.

ORIGINAL TABLE

The cherry drop-leaf table in the dining room is the original, Mrs. Falk said. She told how redecorating entails much research and how everything that is done must be done in character.

* * *

"The silver tea service to be used during the social hour was presented to the Pontiac Woman's Club by Mrs. Wallace, to complete our project of refurnishing the dining room," Mrs. Falk said.

The formal dedication of the dining room was made by Mrs. I. M. Lewis, president, following which members enjoyed a tour of the home.

A crystal compote flanked by miniature crystal antique slippers, possessions of Mrs. Falk, held arrangements of chrysanthemums in fall shades on the tea table. Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Clarence Meyer presided at the silver services.

* * *

Serving on the social committee for the affair were Mrs. Earl Eddy, Mrs. Elmer McLean, Mrs. Aaron Fox, Mrs. Meyers, Mrs. A. E. Ball, Mrs. H. N. Watson and Mrs. Nelson Wylie.

Mrs. Clarence Meyer, first vice president, pours tea for Mrs. Edward Wallace (center), granddaughter of former Gov. Moses Wisner, while Mrs. Earl Eddy, tea chairman, looks admiringly at the silver tea service that was presented to the group by Mrs. Wallace. The dining room of the Gov. Wisner Home was officially dedicated at the Monday afternoon meeting.

Seated at the square piano in the living room of the Gov. Moses Wisner Home, Mrs. Archie Allen, program chairman, played several selections for Mrs. I. M. Lewis, president of the Pontiac Woman's Club, and Mrs. Glenn Behler, member of the Wisner Home committee (left to right). The Monday afternoon meeting of the Pontiac Woman's Club was the first held in the Gov. Wisner Home since the restoration program began.

Following the Monday afternoon meeting of Pontiac Woman's Club held at the Gov. Moses Wisner Home, members enjoyed a tour of the home and found many items in their original setting. Pictured as they admired a baby carriage of the past era are (left to right) Mrs. Elmer McLean, Mrs. Aaron Fox, Mrs. Alfred Danton and Mrs. Turris McCully, members of the organization.

Nothing Stops Collegians Who Want to Be Married

By HERMAN R. ALLEN

CHICAGO (AP)—When it comes to trying to advise college students who want to get married, Miss Margaret Habein is just about ready to stop talking.

* * *

Miss Habein is dean of instruction and student services at the University of Rochester, N. Y. She is here for the annual meeting of the American Council on education.

"There's no use trying to stop them from getting married," she said. We know that. But we have tried to counsel with them and get them to make sure it's what they want to do, to consider the possible consequences to their education and so on.

* * *

"But by now I've just about decided that I might as well stop talking. Once they've made up their mind, that's all there is to it."

Actually, Miss Habein said, marriage need not interfere too much with a couple's college work. Sometimes the young wives find it better to take a lighter class load what with the added chore of running a home. Even so, Miss Habein acknowledged, "they sometimes look awfully tired."

* * *

If the young couple decides to start a family while still in college — and Miss Habein said they seem to be increasingly so inclined — the wife is the one most likely to suffer, educationally speaking.

"Unless she is very highly motivated to finish her education," Miss Habein said, "a girl is not likely to come back to college after she has had her baby and is through with the first few months of caring for it.

* * *

"We have one such highly motivated young wife on the Rochester campus, a 26-year-old who dropped out of school to become a mother and now is back in school four to five hours a day — and handling her divided program with a great deal of skill. Her husband, I must say, is very cooperative. He takes over care of the baby early in the evening so she can get her homework done."

Miss Habein said another trend is earlier engagements, or at least "pinning," to the extent that girls are beginning to worry if they're not sporting a boy's fraternity badge by the end of their sophomore year.

"Actually," she said, "this kind of worry is so real that in planning our new women's dormitories we had to provide for upstairs recreation rooms where girls can amuse themselves over weekends if they don't have dates. Some girls take it so hard they just don't want to show themselves in public."

Don't Depend on Color Sense Only

BY ANNE HEYWOOD

Most people seem to think they have a good sense of humor and a lot of imagination. I've never known anyone who would admit to not having either.

* * *

And now, so far as my mail is concerned, I'm ready to add a third taken-for-granted quality.

Almost every woman believes she has a flawless color sense! Not only that, but most of them want to become color consultants right off the bat.

A good color sense is a fine thing, but it's not very often that you can make money from it alone.

The field of color psychology requires years of training and study and even then there are very few jobs in the field.

Decorators do not hire people to advise them about color—they have that skill themselves. So the woman who really has a fine color sense must think of a way to combine it with something else.

* * *

That's what Mrs. C. did, and very successfully, too. I heard about her when I was visiting a friend for tea.

The friend has a charming modern apartment. She brought the tea in on a tray which was the most attractive one I'd ever seen.

It was beige-painted tin, with a design in chartreuse, turquoise and purple. I had never seen such colors blended so well and, of course, I commented on it.

* * *

Then my friend told me about Mrs. C. and her home business in painted trays.

A LOVE OF COLOR

Mrs. C. always had a love of color and a good sense of it. She read up on the subject and experimented in decorating her own home.

She tried unsuccessfully to get a job in the color field. But instead of giving up, she decided that painting trays would give her a good opportunity to use her color talent.

She sent for instruction books and used the ready-made patterns, since a sense of design was not her strong point.

But as she advanced, she became bolder and braver with her colors and, even though the designs were simple, the trays turned out to be works of art.

* * *

She began, as is often the case, giving them as gifts to friends. But before long, friends of friends were clamoring to buy them. She now has a small shop in her own home and a good, steady business.

SATISFIED CUSTOMERS

"It's terribly exciting," she told me; "experimenting with all the beautiful colors. And it is so encouraging to have satisfied customers send their friends!"

If you're interested in doing hand-painted trays, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope in care of The Pontiac Press, and I'll send you a list of good books in the field.

Mrs. Brown Says This Easy Dessert Is Her Standby

BY JANET ODELL

You're going to entertain the PTA Board — or your church guild — or just a group of friends. You want a delicious dessert, of course. Well, why not try Mrs. James L. Brown's Date Dessert?

Mrs. Brown considers working in St. Joseph's Guild her most important leisure time activity. She is fond of playing bridge. Her family includes a son at Michigan State and a daughter in high school.

'Ali Baba' Appreciated by Children

By JANICE HAYHOW

An exuberant audience of elementary school students filled the auditorium of Pontiac High School to capacity yesterday for opening performance of "Ali Baba and the 40 Thieves," this year's production for Children's Theater.

* * *

Clapping for the hero, Ali Baba, understandably portrayed by Don North; whistling at the pretty slave girls and booing the villainous, ferocious robbers were the only interruption in a smooth running, continuous program.

Several dances in the production added to the magical atmosphere the old-time Baghdad scene suggested. A dance by Morjana and Hassan, another by the pretty slave girls carrying out their deed of killing the 40 thieves, and a third loud, stomping dance by the thieves helped weave this tale of old.

The famous story was related to the audience by Scheherazade, played by Marilyn McLintock. Ali Baba was joined in his escapade with the "Open Sesame" by his faithful friend, Hud Hud, a rather human donkey, portrayed by Sharon Boyce.

* * *

Charles Williams was a growling, whip-cracking robber king and his 40 thieves were loud, swaggering and convincing.

ALSO TAKING PART

Others in the leading roles were Jo Ann Dearing who played Ali Baba's shrewish wife, Foo-mee-ya; Bob Skinner as Ali Baba's handsome young son, Hassan; Carl Code as Khazzim, Ali Baba's pompous brother who comes to no good end, and Donna Chilvers as Morjana the pretty slave girl who saves them all.

* * *

The 40 thieves included Tom Crandall, Dick Mann, Tom Holler, Robert Thompson, Judy Baker, Bruce Bergstrom, Pat Graham, Bill Hansen, Roberta Hunt, Judy Lauckner, Joanne Laughlin, Judy Levine, Don Lucas, Margaret Selvala, Carol Venner and Helaine Wolfe.

Mary Farrish directed the high school Drama Department in the production. She was assisted by Mrs. Shirley Medrano.

The play, which continues through this week with matinees daily at 3:30 and one night performance Thursday, is sponsored by the Pontiac Chapter of the Association for Childhood Education.

* * *

Dorothy Virtues, president of ACE, and Norma Bidstrup, general chairman, are directing the sponsorship.

Married Saturday, were Joyce A. Hayward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hayward of Grandie avenue, and Donald Reichard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Reichard of Port Huron.

Girl Refuses to Let Aunt See Gown

Wants the Design of Wedding Dress Kept Secret

By EMILY POST

"I have just bought my wedding dress. It is lovely and, I think, quite different. Yesterday afternoon my aunt came to visit us. She asked me if I had bought my wedding dress yet and I said 'yes.' Whereupon she asked if she could see it.

"I refused, saying that I didn't want anyone to see it until the wedding. When my aunt left, my mother was furious with me and said that she was ashamed of my behavior.

"She thinks I should apologize to my aunt for my rudeness. Will you please tell me if I was wrong in refusing to let her see it?"

Answer: I don't think you were. If you let your aunt see it, then others would want to see it, and it would certainly detract from the wedding.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am giving a luncheon for several of my friends very shortly. One of the young women whom I especially wanted to invite has her mother-in-law staying with her.

"Would it be rude to invite my friend and not her mother-in-law? She is more than 20 years older than the rest of us."

Answer: If she is paying a very short visit, then it would be rude. But if she is staying a long time, inviting her would not be necessary.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I would appreciate your answers to the following questions: (1) Should the wife of the principal (and the wives or husbands of teachers) be included in the receiving line at a school function? (2) Also, do those receiving introduce themselves to strangers going down the receiving line?"

Answer: (1) It is not usual for the wives and husbands to be included. (2) When they are not known to the parents, they do say who they are, and usually add what subject they teach.

Good Nutrition Is Vital at All Ages

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

While the general public is much better nourished today than ever before, the majority of people do not yet apply to their daily lives the facts now known about nutrition.

* * *

Last spring at the New England Conference on Human Nutrition which met in Boston, Dr. James M. Hundley (chief of laboratory research, National Institute of Arthritis and Metabolic Diseases, National Institute of Health, Bethesda, Md.) told us that teenagers, overweights and older people are the poorest nourished of all.

The idea that a person who is fat must be healthy is a fallacy. Often overweights are anemic and tired because of malnourishment in spite of their extra pounds.

The fact that they are obese may indicate that they have eaten so much and so many of the devitalized high caloric foods that little appetite or space remains for adequate amounts of the foods necessary for good nutrition.

* * *

All sorts of luscious tidbits, in-between meal snacks, rich desserts, sauces, salad dressings, gravy and fried foods may have dulled the wish for essential foods and piled on the pounds.

MATTER OF SNACKS

I have written recently about why teenagers frequently are malnourished. This is mainly a matter of in-between meal snacks and irregular meals.

* * *

It is easy to see why the older person might fall into this trap. Physical activity has decreased and the individual actually need less food. This makes it even more important that the food he does eat is the right kind. Lack of appetite may be a problem.

Also many older people live alone. They no longer have hungry younger members of the family for whom to plan and prepare food. Only a real interest in good nutrition will make the effort to get variety in the diet seem worthwhile.

Older people may find chewing a problem because of loss of teeth. Dental defects should be remedied and, when necessary, baby foods can be used. Meats are available in these as well as vegetables.

* * *

Many folks think of certain of the protective foods as essential only for the young. Actually what was good nutrition in youth is good nutrition in older years. The older generations need these foods for repair and maintenance if not for growing.

Milk is one of the foods which often is neglected yet the average individual of 65 is calcium poor.

A LIFETIME JOB

Nutrition is a lifetime and an important job!

'POWER-PACKED' — The V8 engine makes its debut for the first time in the 1957 Rambler, scheduled to go on sale at Nash and Hudson dealerships Oct. 25. The Custom four-door sedan above features American Motors' "living room" exterior. The Ramblers will be on display at Rogers Sales & Service, 695 Auburn Ave.; and Jacobson's Motor Sales, 58 W. Pike St.

New Models Going on Display in 9 Days

Rambler Joins Switch to V-8's in Restyled '57 Cars

A power-packed and completely restyled 1957 Rambler will make its debut Oct. 25 when it will be displayed at Nash and Hudson dealerships throughout the United States.

* * *

For the first time a V-8 engine, rated at 190 horsepower, will be offered in the compact Rambler. The Champion "six" engine has been boosted to 125 horsepower and can be increased to 135 horsepower with an optional "dual-throat" carburetor.

As American Motors Corp.'s basic volume car, the Rambler assumes its own identity this model year and no longer will be known as the "Hudson Rambler" or "Nash Rambler."

Thirteen models—including the popular station wagon—are in the 1957 line, six of which are V-8's. All are on a compact, 108-inch wheelbase.

SOME RESTYLING

While the Rambler retains the same general body design as last year there have been styling changes in the grille and parking lights, rearrangement of chrome moldings and color panels, to make it distinctively different.

In announcing the new models, Roy Abernethy, vice president of distribution and marketing for AMC, said:

"We are confident the V-8 engine, plus the new styling, will further boost the popularity of the Rambler, which has made great strides in the past two years.

* * *

"The new engine, which uses regular grade gasoline, is designed to give excellent economy, high performance, exceptionally long life and minimum maintenance. It is the type of V-8 engine best suited to the Rambler, which long has been known as the economy champion."

The Rambler is being offered in 15 colors, 11 of which are new. Four of the new colors are metallics—plum, avocado, cinnamon bronze and Gotham gray. The colors are available in five three-tone and 12 two-tone combinations.

Either standard, overdrive or Hydramatic transmissions are available on both the six and V-8 engines. Power assist on brakes and steering are optional.

* * *

There are optional and standard safety features. Air—safety features, airliner reclining seats and twin travel beds.

Iraqi Visiting GMTC to Study Plant Methods

To Remain Here for One Month

Hopes U.S. Know-How Will Aid Transportation, Development of Iraq

An Iraqi scholar whose childhood hobby of building model cars kindled his interest in motor transportation is visiting GMC Truck & Coach Division to see how commercial vehicles are manufactured.

He will apply the knowledge gained at GMC and other industrial plants to his country's vigorous development program, when he returns to his native Baghdad after a two-year tour of American industry.

The 24-year-old student, Rajih M. Yusuf, son of Iraq's former undersecretary of education, is studying our industrial methods under a special scholarship granted by the Iraqi Government.

Since his arrival in the United States last January, his itinerary arranged primarily by the Institute of International Education has taken him to three other General Motors' divisions. He has been at GMC since Sept. 24.

TO AID IRAQ

"My main purpose in this study," Yusuf explained, "is to learn all I can about the truck and bus industry so I can help my country in this important work.

"When I return, I shall enter government service and probably find employment in the Ministry of Construction. It has the responsibility of building our dams and roads and the other things we need so desperately."

Yusuf speaks English with an Oxford accent that stems from his undergraduate days at London University. He was a scholarship student there before receiving his mechanical engineering degree last year.

Foreseeing a vast expansion in truck transportation in Iraq, Yusuf is grooming himself for the day when he will take a direct part in shaping his country's destiny in this important field.

"Much of the future of my land depends on trucks," he said. "They will haul the supplies that will build our cities and give my people a better life. For this reason it is important that I study hard and learn much about motor transport."

Yusuf said he is concentrating on deisel-powered trucks because they seem best suited to the operating conditions prevalent in Iraq.

He has already taken training in GM diesel engines and is now studying diesel products information in the GMC sales engineering section.

He plans to remain at GMC for at least a month and has taken up temporary residence at 21 Mark St. in Pontiac.

Open Sky Plan Works in Italy

Aerial Photos Show Up Mock Military Buildup as Hoped

ROME (AP)—Italy after five days of aerial snooping says it has proved President Eisenhower's "open skies" military inspection plan works.

* * *

"The results of the practical demonstrations prove aerial reconnaissance is an efficacious method of checking on military preparations," the Italian Defense Ministry announced.

The exercise was an all-Italian operation with no help from NATO or the Western Allies. For five days 50 jets and reconnaissance planes prowled over central Italy taking before-and-after photographs of simulated military preparations.

The pilots did not know where to look for the mock installations, and the experts who studied the photographs were not told what sort of buildup was being made.

* * *

Under the "open skies" plan, a nation's planes would be allowed by agreement to fly over another's territory to check on "warlike activity or preparations." The plan first was sponsored by President Eisenhower at the Geneva summit meeting in July 1955, as a first step toward world disarmament. The Soviets so far have rejected it.

Power Firm's Boss Dies

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Joseph E. Coy, general superintendent of the Hercules Power Co., died over the weekend at Borgess Hospital after a lingering illness. He was 60 and was in charge of the company's northern plants.

Order Panhandle to Revise Refunds

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Power Commission examiner has ruled that Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co., Kansas City, should recompute payments made to its wholesale natural gas customers in settlement of a rate refund of $35,601,613.

A commission spokesman said yesterday the finding will not affect the amount involved but probably will increase payments to customers.

It will become a final commission order if no review is initiated within 30 days.

Panhandle serves areas in Kansas, Indiana, Missouri, Ohio, Illinois and Michigan.

Oklahoma's Ex-Governor, Alfalfa Bill Murray, Dies

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—William H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray, Oklahoma's ninth governor who campaigned unsuccessfully for the 1932 Democratic presidential nomination on a platform of "bread and butter, beans and bacon," died here yesterday.

* * *

The 86-year-old cigar-chewing pioneer, framer of the young state's constitution, died in a coma after a five-day battle against double pneumonia and the after-effects of a stroke.

Alfalfa Bill had been blind and deaf for more than a year but before becoming infirm he was the Sooner state's most colorful personality — in or out of political office.

* * *

At his bedside at death were two of his three sons, former Oklahoma Gov. Johnston Murray and Burbank Murray, Milwaukee, Wis.

Noted for his individuality — in both political and private life — the shaggy, frank-spoken Murray faced all his adversaries with an iron determination.

* * *

During his four years in office, he called out the state National Guard on the average of every 45 days. He used the guard to force Texas to drop toll charges of a bridge between the two states.

He served as governor from 1931 to 1935, then made another try — his fourth — for the post in 1938, but ran afoul of President Franklin Roosevelt.

Born in Collinsville, Tex., Nov. 21, 1869, Murray gained his early education in fits and starts then turned his hand to several pursuits including those of cowboy, farmer, bookseller, woodchopper, teacher, lawyer, and unsuccessful promoter of a plan to settle an American farm colony in South America.

He won election to the U.S. House of Representatives for one term in 1914. After his 1938 defeat, Murray retired to write several books on government, politics and history.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The rain-swollen Jumna River, lapping at the outskirts of New Delhi, began to fall today after reaching its highest flood level on record.

It was believed the death toll might reach 50—thus raising India's flood casualties for the year to nearly 400.

Army Holds Hearing on Improving Lakes

DETROIT (AP) — The first of a series of Army Engineers' hearings covering navigation improvements for Great Lakes' harbors opened in Detroit today.

* * *

Brig. Gen. P. D. Berrigan, division engineer of the North Central District, said purpose of the hearings is to "coordinate closely all water resource studies with local interest and to afford all interested parties full opportunity to present their view."

"Due regard will be given to the scheduled time of the completion of the St. Lawrence Seaway and of the presently authorized deepening of connecting channels between the Great Lakes," he said.

Sen. Potter (R-Mich), several congressmen, representatives of Great Lakes harbors and shipping interests are to testify at the hearing.

Col. Peter C. Hyzer, Detroit District engineer, who will conduct the hearing, said he hopes to get an over-all picture of needed harbor improvements for both present and future deep-draft ocean commerce.

* * *

His findings will be sent to Congress for necessary appropriations, he said.

TROUBLESHOOTER — Slick as a whistle and streamlined to the hilt, this Lockheed XF-104 is the forerunner of an increasing number of F-104 Starfighters being produced for the U. S. Air Force. Described as the world's fastest jet, the series of fighters spawned by this spear-shaped craft all feature short wings — only seven-and-a-half feet from fuselage to wingtip — and horizontal stabilizer high on the tail fin for precision control at supersonic speeds.

When It Comes to Beds, Russians Get Their Lumps

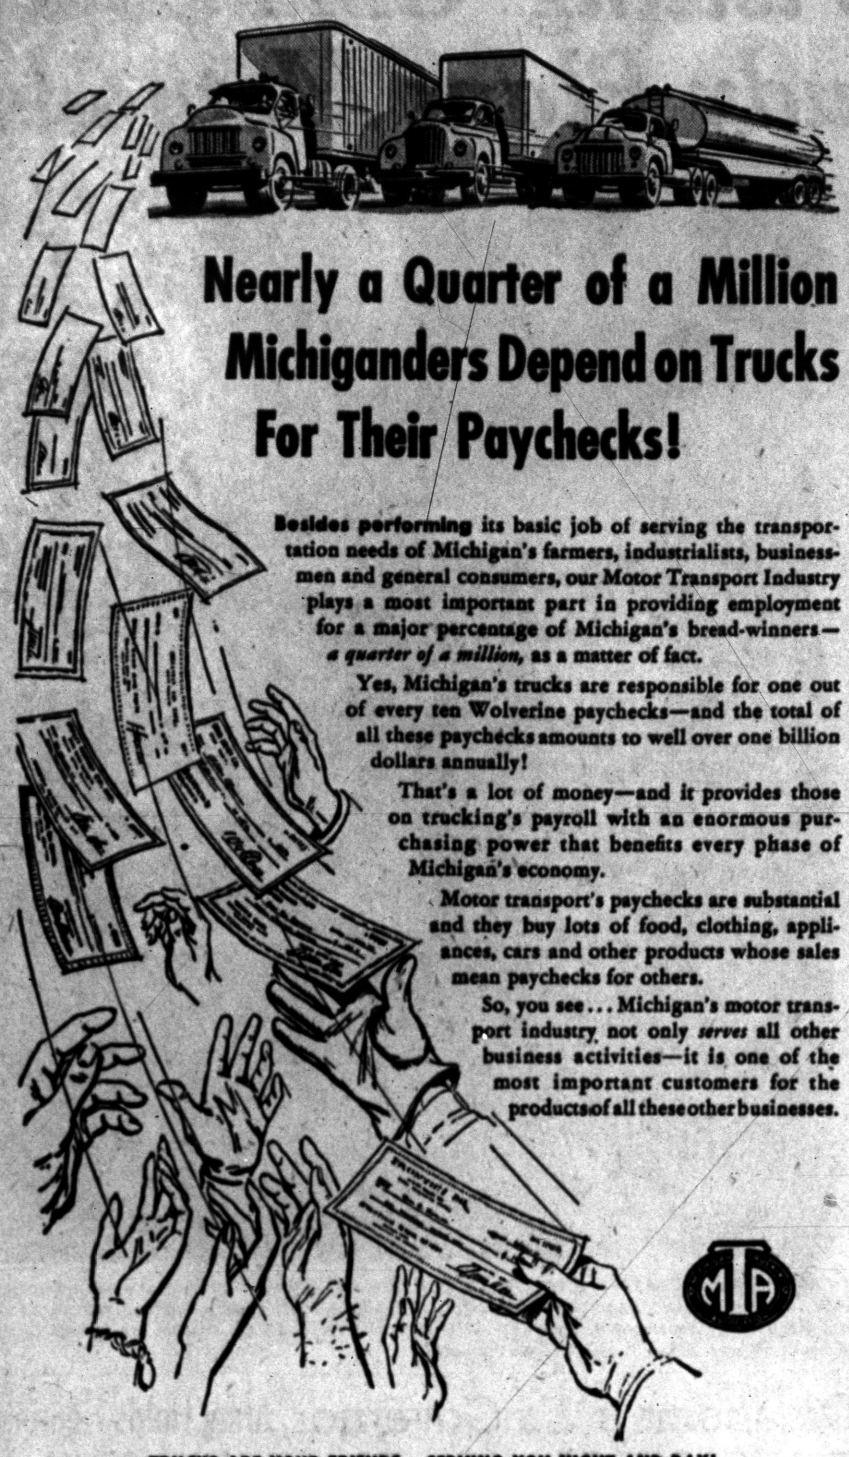
NEW YORK (AP)—"Russia is not sleeping properly," says a mattress company executive just back from the Soviet Union.

John W. Hubbell said on his return that a thin, cotton-filled mattress used on many Russians beds is at fault.

He said he paid 170 rubles—about $42.50—for one of the Russian mattresses.

"If this were put on a special sale here in a department store for $5," Hubbell said, "they wouldn't sell any."

Highway-construction contractors employed nearly 240,000 persons during 1955.



Nearly a Quarter of a Million Michiganders Depend on Trucks For Their Paychecks!

Besides performing its basic job of serving the transportation needs of Michigan's farmers, industrialists, businessmen and general consumers, our Motor Transport Industry plays a most important part in providing employment for a major percentage of Michigan's bread-winners—a quarter of a million, as a matter of fact.

Yes, Michigan's trucks are responsible for one out of every ten Wolverine paychecks—and the total of all these paychecks amounts to well over one billion dollars annually!

That's a lot of money—and it provides those on trucking's payroll with an enormous purchasing power that benefits every phase of Michigan's economy.

Motor transport's paychecks are substantial and they buy lots of food, clothing, appliances, cars and other products whose sales mean paychecks for others.

So, you see... Michigan's motor transport industry not only serves all other business activities—it is one of the most important customers for the products of all these other businesses.

Kefauver Keeps Hitting at Nixon

Calls Vice President 'Darling of Reactionary Republicans'

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver, hammering at Vice President Nixon during an 18-hour day and night of campaigning, called his opponent "the darling of the reactionary Republicans."

* * *

The Democratic vice-presidential candidate also called Nixon a man already a candidate to succeed "a lame duck president."

Saying that Nixon "is an important issue in this campaign," the Tennessee senator declared:

"Whether the people of the United States wish to trust their future and their destiny to Richard Nixon is one of the gravest issues of this campaign."

Kefauver wound up his 18-hour swing early today at a post-midnight Democratic rally at Glen Cove in Nassau County on Long Island. He was weary, but still going strong in his lambasting of Nixon.

Kefauver took a breather today from his marathon campaign chores to prepare for his first nationwide television speech tonight.

Since he left Washington by chartered plane yesterday morning, Kefauver barnstormed into Vermont and flew back to New York late in the afternoon for a series of street rallies and speeches in the New York City borough of Queens and at Woodmere, Great Neck and Glen Cove on Long Island. His motorcade covered more than 100 miles.

Tonight he goes on television at 8:30 p.m., EST, over a national ABC hookup.

* * *

He scheduled an appearance at a rally of hotel employes and a conference with state labor leaders during the morning, and dinner at the home of Gov. Averell Harriman before making his television talk. He flies tonight to St. Louis.

As Kefauver invaded Republican Vermont, he came away predicting that "the nation might be surprised to see Vermont, after a hundred years of unbroken Republican allegiance, going into the Democratic column this fall."

Pontiac USO Praised as One on Nation's Best

Speaking at a recent meeting of the Greater Pontiac USO Committee, Frank E. Finnerty, regional USO director, praised the local group as being one of the best in the country.

The occasion was a luncheon meeting at the Guided Missile Base in Auburn Heights, marking the beginning of the second year of activity for the group, composed of representatives from the civic and social agencies of the area.

Irving Steinman, general chairman, was host to the group of 14, including the commanding officers of both Nike bases in the area, Capt. H. E. Strong of the Auburn Heights base, and Capt. Marvin Alexander of the Commerce base.

Polish 'Titoist' Back in Power

Once-Jailed Gomulka Regains His Influence in Commie Party

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — The Polish Communist party announced today that Wladislaw Gomulka, its former leader jailed for seven years as a Titoist, will rejoin the party's Central Committee Friday.

* * *

Gomulka, who was arrested in 1948 at the height of the Kremlin's split with Yugoslav President Tito, is expected to take high offices in both the party and in the Polish government.

Gomulka was first secretary of the Polish Communist party from 1943 to 1948. He was released from jail in February 1955, declared "rehabilitated" last April, and readmitted to the party in August.

* * *

His return to high office had been widely expected as a move by the Polish Communists to hold the support of nationalist-minded Communists anxious to pursue a course independent of Moscow.

Gomulka's restoration is another significant development in the campaign in the Soviet bloc to loosen Moscow's control of the East European Communist parties and return to power popular Communists who fell afoul of Stalin.

Gomulka is expected first to take a seat on the party Politburo and to be named to the post of first deputy prime minister. But veteran observers of the Polish scene believe it is only a matter of time before he is back in his old job as the party's first secretary, a job now held by Edward Ochab.

Italians Raise Hue Over Rare Paintings

FLORENCE, Italy (AP)—Florentines are flooding their papers with letters protesting the Italian government's plans to lend 40 famous paintings to American museums for four months. But the government in Rome shows no signs of backing down.

The paintings, which include some of the most prized in Florentine museums, are to be shipped to America this month for exhibit at the National Gallery in Washington and New York's Museum of Modern Art.

Local artists claim that the wills of the Medici family bequeathing some of the paintings specified that they must never be taken abroad. They plan to go to court.

The biggest wool exhibition ever attempted in Australia will be held in Melbourne during the Olympic games this fall.

Dana Wynter Considers Abandoning Her Career

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—As if things aren't tough enough for the movies—now it appears that Dana Wynter is serious about ending her film career.

* * *

'Twould be a pity. Dana's defection would mark the second time in a year that Hollywood has lost out to matrimony with a bright and beautiful new star. The other: Grace Kelly.

Dana (pronounced Dahna) is the bride of Hollywood lawyer Greg Bautzer. Because of him, she is willing to give up a career that brought her stardom with her first movie.

* * *

"I told Greg when we were married that I was willing to give up my career," she said. "He was very nice about it and told me to do what I thought was best. I do feel that it's not fair to him to try to combine career with marriage."

But what about her studio? She has a contract with 20th Century-Fox.

"That's the difficult part," she sighed. "I hate to disappoint them, because they have been so good to me.

* * *

"After Fox tested me, I was signed and starring in 'The View from Pompey's Head' within a month. In my second picture I was co-starring with Robert Taylor. They have been so good to me that I hate to tell them I don't want to work any more."

She hasn't made the break yet.

"I suppose part of the trouble is that I am fundamentally lazy," she said. "My career doesn't mean that much to me; I'd be just as happy not to work.

* * *

"What I would like to do is an occasional picture—one that really excites me. The only subject like that I know of now is 'The Nun's Story.' It is a fabulous story and I would love to do it."

Dana is now doing a film that is close to her—"Something of Value." It concerns the efforts to combat the Mau Mau in Kenya, Africa, and Dana was reared in Rhodesia, in southern Africa. Her parents still live there, her father being a noted surgeon.

U.S. Reassigns Envoy to Yugoslavia

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has picked James W. Riddleberger, now ambassador to Yugoslavia, to be assistant secretary of state in charge of European affairs.

He succeeds Livingston T. Merchant who has been named ambassador to Canada.

Riddleberger, a career diplomat, has been in foreign service since 1929.

* * *

Before being named ambassador to Yugoslavia, he served as director of the State Department's Bureau of German Affairs.

'Switch Voters' Key to Kentucky

2 Contests for Senate Could Decide Control of Congress

By KYLE VANCE

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky's role in Republican hopes to grab control of the next Congress depends on the mood of a massive army of independent voters.

* * *

Many are registered Democrats who don't mind voting for the "right" Republican.

They will vote Nov. 6 for two United States senators.

One choice is John Sherman Cooper, 55, a Republican they have twice helped send to the Senate.

* * *

The other Republican is Thruston B. Morton, 49, whose three terms in the House of Representatives attests to his popularity among voters in Louisville and Jefferson County, which he represented.

Given weaker opposition, both Republicans might be conceded much better than outside chances in a state that almost always gives easy victories to Democratic office seekers.

Cooper must defeat Lawrence W. Wetherby, 48, a former governor whose administration was not subject to a serious challenge.

* * *

Morton's task is even tougher. He is trying to unseat Sen. Earle C. Clements, 59, second in command on the Democratic side in the last Senate and a man who never has been turned down by the voters in 42 years of public service.

Nixon Winning Younger 'Vote' on Campuses

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — "What I like," said the fresh-faced coed who had just listened to a speech by Vice President Nixon, "is that he isn't always saying mean things on the other side."

* * *

What she said emphasized one aspect of Nixon's current 10,000-mile campaign swing.

He is working hard to win young people to the Republican cause, even people too young to vote.

He has made two formal appearances on college campuses during his tour and has two more to come. In addition, he often finds high school students swelling the audiences in the school gymnasiums which serve as meeting places in many of the smaller cities.

He said in a plane-aisle interview he prefers not to make a flatly political speech to young audiences.

"I think its better in the long run to talk about the importance of taking part in politics," he said. "When you're talking to party workers of course you have to stir up applause so there will be continued enthusiasm to go on working. But in a different kind of audience the line that gets applause is not always the line that gets votes."

Soviet Tour Attracts 9

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The first Mexican travel agency to sponsor trips to Russia says its initial tour attracted nine persons. Excursiones y Viajes, S.A. (Evisa) plans to continue the program, expanding it to include several Iron Curtain countries which it says are cooperating to attract the Mexican peso.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Those who saw the Lion-Ram game Sunday are still buzzing about the catch Elroy Hirsch made of Billy Wade's pass in the late stages of the game.

Hirsch grabbed the ball with his arms extended forward as far as he could reach and he was running so fast he nearly ended up at the left-center field wall.

Probably the most shocked person was Detroit's Jimmy David who stayed with Hirsch all the way, and then found himself outmaneuvered by "Crazy Legs" the last 15 yards.

Hirsch is the "old pro" of the Rams. He has the longest period of service on the team, 11 years, and he is 33 year old.

When Hirsch grabs a pass he knows what to do with it. That's a good reason for his nickname. He holds the National Football League record for yardage gained by pass receiving with 1,495 yards in 1951.

BROWN'S FREQUENCY INTERCEPTED

Coach Paul Brown's plot to run the Cleveland team with radio receivers in the players' helmets has backfired on him.

In the opener the Cardinals used the radio gadget to set up defenses and defeated the Browns, 9-7.

Sunday the New York Giants tuned in on Brown's frequency and intercepted his messages to defeat Cleveland, 21-9.

What will Brown try next—Morse code?

LIONS USED RADIO GADGET

At one time during the Detroit-Los Angeles game Sunday it looked like the Lions made good use of the radio in Joe Schmidt's helmet. Bill Wade hit Joe Marconi with a flat pass, but Schmidt seemingly aware of the pass receiver was already in flight and he blasted Marconi for a loss.

"Someone must have gotten the message to Schmidt in a hurry," commented one observer in the press box.

OPEN AT FOREST LAKE

Three months ago we mentioned in this column that Forest Lake Country Club would be the site of the 1958 Women's National Open Golf Tournament. This was verified by the USGA Sunday in New York.

Pro Grid Team Needs at Least 60 Plays, Often

WASHINGTON (AP) — Owner George Preston Marshall of the Washington Redskins says a team that runs off only 45 plays in a game can't win in the National Football League.

* * *

"I'll show you records to prove it," Marshall said. Coach Joe Kuharich agreed, adding:

"You'll find you usually need 60 or so to win."

Maybe so.

But just last Sunday at Griffith Stadium, Chicago's surprising Cardinals whipped the Redskins 31-3. The Cards rushed or passed 45 times; the Redskins 64.

* * *

Moreover, while the undefeated Cards gained 310 yards to Washington's 236, the Redskins had a 15-13 edge in first downs.

Spectacular breakaway running, like Ollie Matson's 105-yard kickoff return and Frank Bernardi's 95-yard punt runback, propelled the Cards to their third straight victory and kept them on top of the NFL's Eastern conference.

Big Ten Rips Own Athletic Aid Policies

CHICAGO (AP) — In a frank and self-critical report which was meant to be a secret within the Big Ten, a special Conference Committee ripped into athletic aid practices with a warning that the Western Conference could some day become a farm system for professional sports.

* * *

The report, disclosed yesterday, was drafted by a committee set up last December and headed by Commissioner K. L. "Tug" Wilson, and called work-aid programs for athletes "an invitation to hypocrisy and deceit."

It added that financial help to athletes had reached "staggering proportions."

The two-part, 24-page report — half dealing with "facts" and half with opinions of the committee—was put together by Wilson, Asst. Commissioner Bill Reed; Michigan Athletic Director Fritz Crisler, Wisconsin Athletic Director Ivy Williamson and Faculty Representative Leslie W. Scott of Michigan State and Verne C. Freeman of Purdue.

* * *

Wilson warned against misapprehension of the report saying it "could easily be misunderstood without full appreciation of its purpose and background."

* * *

He said the report was intended solely for private distribution within the Big Ten and its general release had been decided upon because of a proposed publication of a paraphrase in a national magazine.

Under the facts section, the report criticizes the "offer" system and runs right on through recruiting and subsidation.

"Each conference school," the report states, "is on a definite 'offer' basis, meaning that the recruitment activity . . . is accompanied by financial assistance (promised work and-or scholarship).

"The scope of financial subsidies to conference athletes, earned and unearned (scholarships), has increased in staggering proportions in the past decade . . . from $47 in 1948 to $260 in 1955 (average amount of aid per athlete). . . .

"The work-aid program has developed purposefully as a subsidization device under the 'offer system' and limitations upon unearned aid . . . as such it is an invitation to hypocrisy and deceit unless there is complete insistence upon full work for compensation received, and there is not."

The report goes into detail concerning recruiting practices in which athletes actually are shopping in their campus visits.

Also coming under criticism was reliance upon alumni to establish contacts and arrange campus visits for athletes. The report said entertainment of prospective athletes for the current year averages nearly $5,000, running as high as $13,600.

And this, in part, is the committee's opinion of what might come about if the aforementioned practices are not curtailed.

"The Big Ten may well form a functional arrangement in the nature of a farm system with organized professional sports.

"The distinction between intercollegiate sports and professional sports will become so invisible that public support will shift to the latter because its caliber of competition and spectacle does not suffer from even the limited inhibitions upon intercollegiate sports, and the resulting financial chaos will force abandonment of the intercollegiate program. . . ."

CHAMP AT WORK — The gallery gathers around Mike Fetchick of Mahopac, N. Y., who is about to putt a one-footer for a birdie four on the 9th hole at the Western Open Golf Championship in San Francisco. Fetchick fired a 66, one stroke within tying the course record, to defeat Doug Ford, Don January and Jay Hebert in a four-way playoff of the tourney.

Fetchick Takes Playoff to Win Western Tourney

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "That was the toughest round of golf I ever played," said 205-pound Mike Fetchick after decisively winning the $5,000 top prize in the Western Open tournament in a playoff with three other pros.

* * *

"I didn't tie up, but I have to admit there was a little butterfly in my stomach," he declared yesterday after shooting a 6-under-par 66, five strokes better than any of his opponents. "I've had lower scores, but no round was ever harder."

* * *

Now it's home to Yonkers, N.Y., and hobbies including "regular eating and sleeping" for the big fellow. He'll get back to golfing when the pros reassembly for Florida in December.

* * *

Second place—just a matter of prestige since the three others all received $2,000—went to Jay Hebert, 33, from Lafayette, La., representing Sanford, Fla. He carded a 1-under-par 71.

* * *

Next came Doug Ford, playing out of Fetchick's hometown of Yonkers, with a 72. Don January, the 26-year-old comer from Lampasas, Tex., soared to 5-over-par through six holes, but steadied to finish with a 75, three over regulation figures for the 6,496-yard Presidio course.

* *

The weatherman continued to cooperate with a sunny, warm day, but the playoff crowd of about 2,500 again proved disappointing.

* * *

Fetchick fired seven birdies and went over par on only one hole, the eighth, when he seemed to baby an approach from the tall grass on the fringe of the green. His longest birdie putt was 25 feet. And attesting to the accuracy of his approach game, the others were from 8 feet, 6, twice from 4, 1½ and 1.

* * *

Hebert grabbed the early lead with birdies on the first two holes, but Fetchick caught him at the fourth with the second of his subpar holes. Then on the seventh, Jay flubbed a shot from the trap, and went over while Fetchick added another birdie. From that point, Big Mike was in command.

* * *

Ford, the 1955 PGA champion who has yet to gain his first 1956 victory, lost his chance at the top prize on Sunday when he went over par on each of the last three holes to wind up in the four-way deadlock at 284.

Orioles Extend Richards Lease

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles have given Paul Richards an extended lease on the driver's seat, but they plan to get him a co-pilot.

* * *

The club directors huddled with Richards yesterday and then announced his contract as "manager-general manager" had been extended two years, through the 1959 season.

* * *

"We feel that this action reaffirms the board's unanimous confidence in Mr. Richards and expresses our full satisfaction in the demonstrated growth of the Orioles under his direction."

* * *

"As in the past, Mr. Richards will continue to have full jurisdiction over all player personel, both on the Baltimore club and throughout our farm organization."

* * *

President James Keelty said the contract extension calls for a continuation of Richards' present salary, reported to be $40,000 to $45,000 a year.

Don Newcombe Finds Hitters Overseas, Too

HONOLULU (AP) — Brooklyn's Don Newcombe had little better luck last night against the Hawaii Red Sox than he did against the New York Yanks.

* * *

The semipro Red Sox collected three runs against him on a double, a single and a homer in the second inning of a game they lost to the Dodgers, 7-3, in 10 innings.

Newcombe left the game trailing after four innings. Roger Craig and Ed Roebuck finished, allowing no hits. The Yankees drove Newcombe from the mound twice in the World Series.

Brooklyn beat the Red Sox with four unearned runs in the 10th. The Dodgers outhit the Hawaiian club, 14-3.

Jim Doole, a former Dartmouth College player who is teaching high school here, pitched for Honolulu.

Daugherty Happy Over Quarterback Situation

EAST LANSING (AP)—"I'm happy about our quarterbacks," admitted Michigan State Football Coach Duffy Daugherty.

It was easy to understand after four of them worked in moving the MSU team to its 53-6 defeat of Indiana.

Daugherty was talking first about Paul Hornung, Notre Dame signal-caller the Spartans face next Saturday at South Bend, Ind.

"A real great one," he said, "a fine defensive back, a strong runner and a good passer. But I'm pretty satisfied with our own quarterbacks.

"After Saturday, I'm not afraid to use all three of them."

Daugherty said he liked the way Pat Wilson, who has been getting first call at the position, moved the team.

"He proved he could pass a little, too," he added. "I think that's important because a thing like that helps a boy gain confidence.

"That Jim Ninowski (second quarterback) is as good a passer as any around. And Mike Panitch (third quarterback) is going well, too.

"We even had Bob Popp (fourth quarterback) in there. He's been just working with the scouting team. Never worked on defense but he intercepted a pass for us."

Players on the two top levels were excused from the heavy hitting Monday afternoon as the squad went through an hour and a half of drill.

Dave Kaiser, out of his regular right end position since he was injured at Michigan, was working out in sweat clothes but still not going at top speed.

Six-Day PGA Meet Starts

Sixty Pros Will Tee Off Today in Team Action at Houston

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — About 60 professionals tee off today in a team event to open the Texas PGA's six-day golf carnival.

The draw was scheduled for 10 a.m.

A pro-amateur tournament follows tomorrow and the 72-hole texas PGA runs Thursday through Sunday.

Amateur Bobby Moncrief of Houston won the tournament ast year in El Paso and Chuck Klein of San Antonio was the low pro.

The 54-hole Texas PGA senior meets runs concurrently with the regular tournament starting Thursday.

George Aulbash of Houston is defending champion. The winner goes to Florida to play in the PGA National Senior Tournament.

All proceeds, sponsored by the Houston Golf Assn., go to the Babe Zaharias Cancer Fund.

Byron Nelson will give a clinic Saturday and is expected to be one of the 100 golfers in the tournament.

Patterson, Moore Date Is Announced

CHICAGO (AP)—Young Floyd Patterson and old Archie Moore will meet in Chicago Stadium Nov. 30 for the heavyweight title vacated by Rocky Marciano.

The International Boxing Club yesterday announced plans for the fight but said financial arrangements for the 15-round bout will be ironed out in a formal ceremony in Chicago next week.

Jim Norris, president of the IBC, said in New York that negotiations on home television and theater television were underway. The fact that the fight will be on a Friday—one of the two days a week the IBC broadcasts and telecasts network fights—was taken as indication that there will be home television.

WORKS FOR OLYMPICS — Charley Dumas, the first man to clear seven feet in the high-jump and who set a world mark of 7-feet ⅝ inches in Olympic trials, is shown as he started workouts at the Los Angeles Coliseum in preparation for the Olympic games in Melbourne, Australia, next month.

Northwestern Holds Gophers Scoreless

'M' Not Taking Wildcats Lightly

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Northwestern's surprising and fiery Wildcats, next invader of the Wolverines' den, aren't being taken lightly by the Michigan coaching staff. Not after holding Minnesota to a scoreless tie last Saturday in Minneapolis.

* * *

This obviously isn't the same Wildcat eleven whose best effort in eight games last season was a 7-7 tie with Illinois. Michigan beat Northwestern 14-2, last year.

What's behind Northwestern's resurgence?

"Good discipline and better organization," said assistant Wolverine coach Don Dufek, who scouted the Wildcats in all three of their engagements so far.

There's a new athletic regime at Evanston, Ill. Stu Holcomb, head coach for nine years at Purdue, became the new athletic director and he brought 33-year-old Ara Parseghian over from Miami of Ohio to coach football.

* * *

The new coach's biggest recommendation came in the form of a 25-14 upset his Miami squad scored over Northwestern in last year's opener. Miami then went on to an unbeaten season.

Now, as the youngest coach in the Big Ten, Parseghian has Northwestern hustling. The Wildcats triumphed over Iowa State, 14-13, in his debut as coach, then bowed to a strong Tulane eleven, 20-13, before tying the Golden Gophers.

"They've already improved over last year's record," remarked Dufek.

He had an abundance of praise for a wisp of a left halfback named Bob McKeiver who weighs only 162 pounds and stands 5-feet-10.

McKeiver does just about everything a coach can ask for on the gridiron. He punts and place kicks, runs and passes.

* * *

107 Boxers Vie

Olympic Tryouts Start

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The best amateur boxers Uncle Sam could find—and he's found them everywhere—started moving into San Francisco today for a three-day assault on 10 Olympic Games boxing berths later this week.

Only one man in each weight division will remain after the U.S. trials, but there'll be 107 punching and slugging for the team. The big show climaxes months of eliminations taking in service, collegiate and club fighters. The military, to mention one entity, has been aiming for the event since 1953.

Entrants from 11 teams will battle in preliminary bouts Wednesday and Thursday at the massive Cow Palace. Survivors slug it out in the windup Friday night. The trials, first in the West since the 1932 finals were held here, are sponsored by the San Francisco Examiner.

* * *

It is improbable any American amateur has been bypassed in the build-up to the big tournament. The cream of the simon-pures from Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines and AAU and NCAA champs have been assembled. In addition, there are winners from five regional eliminations staged throughout the nation.

The fighters will weigh in Wednesday morning under the international Olympic metric system that measures divisions by kilograms instead of pounds. The 10 classes:

* * *

Flyweight (51 kilograms or 112½ lbs.), bantamweight (54 kilograms, 119 lbs.), featherweight (57 kilograms, 125½ lbs.), lightweight (60 kilograms, 132½ lbs.), light welterweight (63½ kilograms, 140 lbs.), welterweight (67 kilograms, 148 lbs.), light middleweight (71 kilograms, 156½ lbs.), middleweight (75 kilograms, 165½ lbs.), light heavyweight (81 kilograms, 178½ lbs.), and heavyweight.

Two Share Scoring Lead Among Small State Teams

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jim Podoley, Central Michigan College's all-around athlete, and Russ McLean, a speedy halfback from Ferris Institute, moved into a first place tie this week in the football scoring race among Michigan small colleges.

Podoley and McLean each scored a pair of touchdowns in pacing their clubs to week end victories. Both have crossed goal line six times for a total of 36 points, but McLean has the better average, performing in four games to five for Podoley.

Podoley, a senior, was the 1954 Michigan small college scoring leader, but dropped to 9th place last year after playing only half a season.

* * *

Trailing the two leaders by a single point is Northern Michigan's Tom Schwalbach. He added another TD in Northern's 20-13 conquest of Michigan Tech Saturday.

Pilot Blames Water for Record Failure

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Speedboat pilot Bud Saile Jr. of Detroit blames the too-smooth waters of Lake Mead for thwarting his attempt to set a record in his big, unlimited class hydroplane, Miss Wayne.

* * *

He said that the heavy boat, which is powered by two Allison engines, needs a little chop on the water to keep it from "sticking" to the surface of the lake.

* * *

Best speed achieved yesterday was 163.8 m.p.h. recorded when Jack Regas was at the controls. Saile, who was aiming at the 178.497 m.p.h. record for propeller-driven craft set in 1952 by the late Stanley Sayres in Slo-Mo-Shun IV, had a top speed of 124.4 m.p.h.

The event sponsored by the Pontiac Motorcycle Club started at the Gingellville Community Hall. Widland had a total of 975 points.

Winners by divisions were:

New Cub Regime Buys 3 Players

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Chicago Cubs have bought pitcher Gene Fodge and two outfielders from the Los Angeles Angels.

Fodge won 19 and lost 7 this year. Leaving with him will be Jim Bolger, who batted .327, hit 28 homers and batted in 147 runs and Bob Speake, who also hit 28 homers and drove in 111 runs with a .300 average.

Going to the Angeles in the deal, announced yesterday, are Cub shortstop Richie Myers and outfielder-first baseman Frank Kellert.

Martinez Wins Fight by TKO

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Vince Martinez, the Paterson, N.J., welterweight ranked No. 4 by the NBA, has regained his winning form against Rinzi Nocero.

Martinez floored Nocero at 2:04 of the seventh round with a hard right cross last night for a technical knockout at the Rhode Island Arena.

Martinez had compiled a string of 21 victories before Tony DeMarco decisioned him last June. This was Vince's first bout since.

Martinez weighed 153½ for the scheduled 10 rounder, Nocero, 158½.

Referee Ben Maculan stepped in to halt the fight at the knockdown because Martinez was giving the Brooklyn boy a batter with combinations. Both of Nocero's eyes were swollen when he went down.

Rocky's Ex-Pilot Gets New Hopeful

PROVIDENCE, R.I., (AP) — Al Weill, former pilot of retired world heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, today announced he has become the manager of a new hopeful, Claude Chapman.

Chapman, New England heavyweight titlist, will make his debut under Weill against Bob Satterfield of Chicago at the Rhode Island Auditorium Nov. 12.

Chapman, a Cambridge, Mass., resident, defeated Julio Medeiros and Ray Phillips in his recent outings.

Hart Scores TKO in Telecast Bout

NEW YORK (AP)—It's easy to see why they call Garnett Hart "Sugar."

He looks like Sugar Ray Robinson of 15 years back and he fights like the slick Robinson when Ray first came up.

That's on the basis of his eye-catching, third-round technical knockout of tough, chunky Earl Dennis in a telecast bout at St. Nicholas Arena last night.

It was the slender, 21-year-old Philadelphian's ninth consecutive victory and his 17th in 18 bouts. He has 15 kayos to his credit.

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees will attend a benefit golf match here Oct. 28 at the invitation of Bob Hope. Mantle, Hope, Gov. Allan Shivers, Doak Walker and Cary Middlecoff will play in the tourney, with proceeds going to the United Cerebral Palsy Foundation.

Spartans Move Up on Sooners in Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's still Oklahoma No. 1 in college football but the Sooners, unmatched record and all, may find themselves lagging at the polls in a few days simply because their chief rival, Michigan state, gets first crack at Notre Dame.

* * *

Michigan State, getting its support from those who place schedule over statistics, pulled up to within 25 points of Oklahoma in the weekly Associated Press poll of sports writers and sportscasters despite a Sooner record that reads like this:

Three victories in three games.

A winning streak of 33.

Fifty-four consecutive games without a loss in Big Seven play.

One hundred nine successive scoring games.

One hundred forty-seen points scored this fall to none by opponents.

For Michigan State, a 53-6 winner over Indiana, the result of the new balloting was a gain of 95 points on Oklahoma, which whitewashed Texas 45-0 following thrashings of North Carolina and Kansas State. In the total standings with points awarded on the basis of 10 fo ra first place vote, 9 for second, 8 for third and so on Oklahoma led with 1,173 to 1,148 for Michigan State.

Between them, they drew 111 of 131 first place ballots, 67 for the Sooners.

The Spartans' showing this Saturday against sub par but always respected Notre Dame might do it. Oklahoma has Kansas coming up next before getting its shot at Notre Dame on Oct. 27. Even an Oklahoma romp over Kansas beaten twice and tied once in four games, might not be expected to carry the weight of a Michigan State victory over Notre Dame.

Only one major change turned up in the weekly accounting. Michigan moving back into the top ten at the No. 8 position after routing Army 48-14. The Wolverines had dropped out of the listing of the elite after losing to Michigan State, a week earlier. Texas A&M gave way, dropping from ninth to 14th.

George Tech held on to the third rating with five first place ballots and 900 points and Texas Christian held fourth. The remainder of the lineup was Ohio State, Mississippi, Tennessee, Michigan, Southern California and Baylor, in that order. Michigan is the only member of the group to have lost a game.

Notre Dame, beaten twice in three starts, dropped out of even the second ten in the listings after losing to Purdue 28-14. Any other year, a victory over the Irish this early in the season would have assured the winner a high rating, but Purdue, now 2-1, climbed only to 17th.

The leaders with first place votes and won-lost records in parentheses:

1. Oklahoma (67) (3-0)	1,173
2. Michigan State (45) (3-0)	1,148
3. Georgia Tech (5) (3-0)	900
4. Texas Christian (2) (3-0)	753
5. Ohio State (3-0)	721
6. Mississippi (7) (4-0)	532
7. Tennessee (3) (3-0)	531
8. Michigan (2-1)	411
9. Southern California (3-0)	272
10. Baylor (4-0)	168
SECOND TEN
11. Miami (Fla) (1) (3-0)	139
12. Iowa (3-0)	72

14. Texas A&M (3-0-1)	41
15. Clemson (3-0-1)	32
16. Pittsburgh (2-1)	30

Best in Majors

Ford, Burdette Top ERA

NEW YORK (AP)—Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees, a consistently brilliant pitcher, and Milwaukee's Lew Burdette, who came out of a slump on the final day of the season, won the earned run titles in the major leagues in 1956.

* * *

This was disclosed today with the release of the final averages compiled by The Associated Press. Ford topped the American League with a 2.47 mark while Burdette headed the National League with 2.71. The championships were the first for both moundsmen.

* * *

With a 19-6 record, good for the highest Junior circuit percentage of .760, Ford becomes the seenth pitcher to lead in won-lost percentage and ERA the same year. The others to do it were Lefty Grove of Philadelphia and Water Johnson of Washington (four times each) and Spud Chandler, Lefty Gomez and Ed Lopat of the Yanks and Stan Coveleskie of the Senators, once each.

Texas Loop Teams to Observe Ruling

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Texas League clubs will observe Louisiana's interracial law and not play Negroes at Shreveport but they will demand that Shreveport make the games equal by substituting at corresponding positions.

It was this actual ultimatum that brought a stalemate at their annual meeting here yesterday and last night. Shreveport President Bonneau Peters refused to accept the proposal and the directors dumped the whole thing on the desk of league president Dick Butler.

He will be asked to rule. But Butler said he wouldn't do so until he had studied the matter from all angles and determined whether he had the authority to tell a baseball club owner whom to play.

Picks Up 7-2-10 Split Twice in Single Game

Emma Birkle, bowling with Coughlins of the Warren Alloy Women's League, proved her pick up of a difficult split was no fluke. She picked up the 7-2-10 split in one frame and a few frames later she did it again.

Her team is in second place in the league at Dixie Recreation.

Mathias won the decathlon medal in 1948 and 1952. Lee was the Olympic high-diving champion in 1948 and 1952. Owens was the star of the 1936 Olympics in Berlin, winning four gold medals.

Injured Swaps Out of Racing

CAMDEN, N. J. (INS) — Owner Rex Ellsworth and trainer Meschach Tenney reported today that Swaps, their record-smashing four-year-old colt, has aggravated the week-old injury to his left hind leg.

Swaps broke the cast on his leg, in which he suffered two linear fractures of the cannon bone. Dr. J. Krall, a bone specialist from the University of Pennsylvania Veterinary Hospital, will place a special non-corrosive cast on the leg.

The thoroughbred is expected to be out of racing until next summer.

Boxers Agree on 11 Rounds as Compromise

HOLYOKE, Mass. (AP)—A "Compromise" fight over the odd distance of 11 rounds will decide the New England middleweight championship between title-holder Barry Allison and Sammy Walker at the Valley Arena Monday night.

Allison, the Chicopee Falls battler, insisted on 10 rounds and Walker of Springfield held out for 12 for their title meeting. The bout originally had been scheduled for last night but when the argument arose it was canceled.

Then the 11-round oddity was arranged.

READY FOR SHOWDOWN — The Oakland B Conference will have its first big showdown this week when Clawson tangles with Troy on the Troy gridiron Friday afternoon. The Colts of Joe Bechard lead the league with a 3-0 mark, while Clawson is 3-0-1. Left to right in the starting backfield are quarterback Wayne Figley, right halfback Fifield, fullback Dick Kelly and left half Sim Acton.

Only 8 Area Schools Remain Unscarred

The elite roster of undefeated, untied high school football teams in the Oakland County area was reduced by three after last week's action subsided.

Only eight teams with perfect records now survive and more fatalities loom in the next two weeks. The unblemished group includes East Detroit, Waterford, Walled Lake, Romeo, Lake Shore, Rochester, Orchard Lake St. Mary and Memphis.

Last week's casualties came from the ranks of smaller schools. Dryden of the Southern Thumb, Hazel Park St. Rita from the Suburban Catholic, and South Lyon each fell by the wayside.

Dryden was dumped by league foe Memphis, SCL champion Orchard Lake turned back St. Rita, and South Lyon bowed to Manchester.

Two members of the select circle didn't exactly romp to victory last week. Walled Lake experienced a close 7-6 shave with Farmington while Romeo had to cross the goal on the last play of the game to beat Lapeer 26-19.

A couple of schools in the area are still unbeaten, but have ties to mar their slates. Almont has four triumphs and New Haven owns three wins, but the two Southern Thumb teams fought each other to a 19-19 draw.

Milford and Mariette, undefeated but tied until last Friday, were also victims of the upset plague. Wayne-Oakland opponent Holly upended Milford while Mariette was downed by Bad Axe.

A dozen area schools still have the unenviable distinction of being winless. These include Berkley, Fitzgerald, Roseville, St. Frederick, Royal Oak St. Mary, Brown City, Armada, Capac, North Branch, Millington, South Lake and Mt. Clemens.

East Detroit (5-0)
Waterford (5-0)
Walled Lake (5-0)
Romeo (5-0)
Lake Shore (5-0)
Rochester (4-0)
Orchard Lake St. Mary (4-0)
Memphis (4-0)

Time for Color-Tour

Michigan Countryside Now at Peak of Beauty

LANSING — Michigan's color is on — now!

Autumn's dazzling display will be on tap this weekend for color-tourists and sightseers throughout all of Michigan, according to the State Tourist Council.

Dozens of Tourist Council reporters in the north country have wired that color there is now at its peak and will hold for another week or two.

"This means that by week's end, fall color will have blanketed foliage over the entire state," said Robert J. Furlong, Council executive secretary.

* * *

Generally pleasant weather is forecast with temperatures in the high 50's. Possibilities of widely scattered light showers should not seriously affect weekend color tours.

Motorists who prefer to follow pre-arranged routes, Mr. Furlong said, will find well-mapped tours offered by many Michigan communities.

Included in these are Newaygo, Traverse City, Cadillac, Alpena, Cheboygan, Jackson, Muskegon, Battle Creek, and the Irish Hills area in southeastern Michigan.

City Cage Loop Meeting Oct. 22

Class A and B are now being organized. All managers or representatives of men's teams considering entry in these leagues should attend this meeting.

Practice arrangements, players' contracts, and discussions of rules and league operation will be other matters taken up at the initial session.

Game-of-the-Year at Flint

Top Prep Grid Battle Looms

By DAVE DILES
Michigan AP Sports Editor

A weekend of slam-bang action with a high talent toll shook up the weekly Associated Press Class A high school ratings, but Flint Northern and Bay City Central remained locked in their one-two positions to add the final touch before their classic battle at Flint.

Despite Bay City's 71-13 romp over Saginaw High, the Wolves could do no more than to narrow the gap to two points. The Wolves have 131 points and Flint Northern 133 on the basis of 10 points for 1st, 9 for 2nd and so on down the line.

Northern has matched Bay City's record, and whipped Muskegon 26-0 Friday night.

Grand Rapids Catholic, which administered the first setback to Saginaw Arthur Hill, replaced the Lumberjacks in 3rd place, belting out 105 points in the heaviest voting of the year. Ann Arbor remained in 4th place by trimming Battle Creek Central 31-7. That loss knocked Central from a 7th place tie all the way out of the prep rankings.

Arthur Hill, despite the 31-20 loss to Grand Rapids Catholic, slipped only from 3rd to 5th place.

East Detroit, running its record to 5-0 by pasting Port Huron by a three-touchdown margin, jumped from 10th to 7th place, with 60 points—just one behind Fordson with another undefeated, untied mark.

The Friday night "Game of the Year" between Bay City Central and Flint Northern will be witnessed by one of the largest crowds ever to see a prep game in the state, and the contest may decide the class A kingpin for the 1956 season.

After that struggle, Central faces Saginaw Arthur Hill, Midland and Flint Central. Northern must do battle with Arthur Hill, Pontiac and then meet Flint Central in their traditional Thanksgiving Day tussle.

Up to now, Bay City and Northern have engaged just one common opponent. Bay City stung Saginaw High 71-13 while Northern dumped the Trojans 40-0.

Here's the way the vote went for the class A "top ten" among Michigan's sports writers and broadcasters:

Team, Record	Points
Flint Northern (5-0)	133
Bay City Central (5-0)	131
Grand Rapids Catholic (4-1)	105
Ann Arbor (4-1)	88
Saginaw Arthur Hill (4-1)	62
Dearborn Fordson (5-0)	61
East Detroit (5-0)	60
Midland (4-1)	53
Muskegon Heights (4-1)	36
Muskegon Catholic (4-1)	9

OTHERS RECEIVING VOTES: Jackson, Battle Creek, Grosse Pointe, Alpena, Flint Central, Muskegon.

Junior standouts Roger Coates and Rufus Anderson were being counted on to carry the Chief load. Veteran starts Tom Fontaine, Bill Alcorn and Bob Bensen are the Birmingham sparkplugs. The meet was held at Birmingham.

Meet 5th Ranked Arthur Hill

PHS Out of Pan, Into Fire

By BILL CORNWELL

It's just one hot potato right after another these days for the Pontiac High School football team.

Last Friday the Chiefs opened their Saginaw Valley Conference campaign against Flint Central at Wisner Stadium.

They pushed the Indians up and down the gridiron through most of the 1st half and forged into a 6-0 lead at the intermission, only to see Central rally with two touchdowns in the final quarter for a 13-12 decision.

This week the Chiefs have to contend with a powerful and swift Saginaw Arthur Hill squad in their 2nd SVC engagement. Pontiac will meet the Hillites on Saturday night at Saginaw.

Until today the Lumberjacks were ranked 3rd among the state's Class A grid powers. They dropped from 3rd to 5th in this week's ratings, due to last Friday's 31-20 reversal at the hands of Grand Rapids Catholic Central.

Before they were upset by Central, the Lumberjacks owned a perfect 4-0 record. They had disposed of Bay City Handy, 32-7; Midland, 26-21; Flint Central, 20-0, and Alpena, 26-13.

Fumbleitis cost Arthur Hill its 5th straight win at Grand Rapids. The Jacks fumbled seven times and the alert Cougars recovered four of them. Three were converted into touchdowns.

The Jacks boast one of the slickest T-formation operators in the Valley in quarterback Jim Draves. Draves is a clever ball handler and a deadly passer.

Draves' aerial wizardry is perhaps the greatest problem for the Chiefs to solve. In Arthur Hill's five games, Draves has attempted 62 passes and completed 34 for a sparkling 56 per cent.

Head coach Kurt Kampe does not rely strictly on the overhead weapon, however. Arthur Hill has a dangerous ground attack which emphasizes balance. Halfbacks Gary Murphy and Jerry Bailey and fullback Luel Gerard share almost equally in ball-toting duties.

The Lumberjacks possess no individual speed merchant, Kampe says, but they do have good speed as a unit.

Pontiac's frustrating loss to Central brought its season record to two wins, two defeats, and a tie. Victory at Saginaw could go a long way towards assuring them of at least breaking even for the year.

Redlegs Buy Hurler

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs today announced purchase of John Brechin, 26-year-old righthanded pitcher, from Nashville of the Southern Assn.

I-L Cross Country Meet Gets Under Way Thursday

Walled Lake and Farmington are rated the teams to beat in the 9th Annual Inter Lakes Conference Cross Country meet which gets under way Thursday at 4 p.m. at the Hickory Hills Golf Course near Loon Lake in Commerce Township.

A total of six teams will take part in the event. The other schools to be represented are Waterford, Van Dyke, Southfield, and Berkley.

Walled Lake's harriers have dominated the meet of late by winning the past three years and have taken four of the eight held thus far. Farmington has won it three times and Milford, now out of the loop, once.

The Vikings and Farmington hold the favored roles with several key veterans back from last year. Walled Lake pulled out a one-point verdict in a meeting between the schools earlier this season. Berkley lacks depth but could be the surprise of the event.

The reserve teams of the Conference schools will hold a meet on the same course following the varsity battle.

Warriors Test Washington 11

Braves and Jefferson Lock Horns at Wisner in Junior High Scrap

The Pontiac Junior High League "game of the year" will be played Wednesday afternoon at Wisner Stadium when Jefferson meets defending champion Washington.

Dick Craig's Warriors, currently in 1st place on the strength of impressive victories over Madison, Eastern and Lincoln, hope to topple Washington from the lofty position it has occupied in the league for the past four years.

Jefferson's hopes for the Junior High League crown will also be riding on this one, since it is their last conference start. It will be an all-out effort for the Warriors, who must win to capture honors.

Washington, under new head coach Don Kelly, is undefeated in its last 22 games. The Braves have brushed aside Lincoln and Eastern in league action this fall while gaining a non-loop decision over Rochester.

Despite the fact that the Braves have won 20 and tied two while claiming four straight league titles, their chances of losing tomorrow are better than at any time in very recent years. Kickoff is scheduled at 4 o'clock.

Edgewood Given Tourney

The beautiful new clubhouse of the Edgewood Country Club on Commerce Road in Walled Lake will be initiated into tournament play next season when the club plays host to the Michigan Open.

An announcement of the selection of Edgewood as the site of the next tourney was made yesterday at the annual fall meeting of the Michigan PGA, co-sponsor of the tournaments with the host clubs. The Atlas Valley Club in Flint will stage the event in '58.

The sites of the 1957 Michigan PGA and State Pro-Amateur tournaments will be announced in a few days, according to Warren Orlick, state president.

The selection of Edgewood for next year's meet will enable state golfers to make use of one of Michigan's most modern clubhouses.

It is architecturally designed to a two-level area and occupies 13,000 square feet on a specially chosen, semi-hillside site. Included is a kitchen equipped with $30,000 worth of equipment.

Lutherans Urge Uniting Factions

Study Unit Offers Plan to Put U.S. Churches 'in Organic Union'

HARRISBURG (AP) — A new try at bringing Lutheranism into a united church in America was launched here Monday.

A special study commission submitted the plan to the convention of the United Lutheran Church in America.

It provides for a call "to all Lutheran bodies in America" to merge "in organic union."

The appeal is a more clear-cut restatement of a similar previous proposal made by the church, the largest of 16 Lutheran bodies in this country.

But it envisions a stepped-up unity drive, the enlargement of its negotiating group from 8 to 13, and the broadening of its approach to other Lutheran bodies. The plan was presented by Dr. Carl C. Rasmussen of Gettysburg, Pa., a member of the special commission.

The church, with 2¼ million members, already is in the midst of merger procedures with the 500,000-member Augustana Lutheran Church.

Other bodies also have participated tentatively, and all Lutheran churches have been invited to a meeting to explore the plan.

The unity theme has been a major one at this week-long convention, which closes Wednesday.

Market Rises, Then Mixes

NEW YORK (AP)—A slight rise in the stock market was nipped in the bud as prices turned mixed in early trading today.

* * *

Leading issues fluctuated from fractions to around a point.

After a fairly active opening with prices tilting to the upside, trading became very slow and some prices sagged.

Losses of around a point were taken by Chrysler, Goodrich and International Nickel.

* * *

There was little in the way of news to inspire either buying or selling. But once again the Treasury's short-term borrowing costs inched to another 23-year-high, putting them a little further above the federal reserve's 3 per cent discount rate.

Rails were practically unchanged. Chemicals showed some small gains. High-priced International Business Machines continued to stride forward, adding around 8 points.

U. S. Steel took a small loss. Montgomery Ward, Boeing and United Aircraft were steady. American Telephone and International Telephone held their ground.

* * *

Air reduction moved ahead slightly. Westinghouse and General Electric lost a bit of ground. Gulf Oil dropped a fraction.

Among the opening blocks were Bethlehem Steel up ¼ at 167½ on 1,000 shares, U. S. Steel off ⅛ at 68⅜ on 2,000 shares, Pan American Airways unchanged at 17½ on 1,000 and American Telephone up ⅛ at 169⅝ on 2,500.

Brennan Joins Supreme Court

Takes 2 Oaths of Office to Uphold Constitution, Administer Justice

WASHINGTON (INS) — William Joseph Brennan, New Jersey Democrat, takes the two oaths of office today to become the 90th man in history to serve as a justice of the Supreme Court.

The 50-year-old Brennan—President Eisenhower's third appointee to the high court—is the first Catholic to sit on the tribunal since the death of Justice Frank Murphy of Michigan, in 1949.

Brennan first takes the constitutional oath, administered by Chief Justice Earl Warren with only the other justices present. It pledges true faith "without any mental reservation or purpose or evasion" to the Constitution.

He then takes the judicial oath, promising "justice, without respect to persons," in the Supreme Court as the session begins. This is administered by Court Clerk John T. Fey. After this, Brennan was to be escorted to his place on the bench by Marshal T. Perry Lippitt.

He takes the seat vacated yesterday by Justice Sherman Minton, who retired. The Brennan appointment is subject to approval by the Senate in January.

Vandalism Reported at 2 County Schools

Oakland County detectives are investigating reports of malicious destruction of property at two schools. The damage is believed to have occurred over the weekend.

Robert Beaumont, Bundy Construction Co. worker, reported someone had entered the Pine Knob School under construction at Sashabaw road, north of Maybee road, in Independence Township.

He said broken beer bottles were scattered through three classrooms and that the fire alarm system had been damaged.

Beaumont told sheriff deputies the vandals had poured oil and sand into a cement mixer.

A teacher at the Webster School at 8100 Pontiac Lake Rd. reported Monday six windows in her classroom had been broken. Rocks were discovered on the floor, deputies said.

Probe Testimony Links Dems to Bank

CHICAGO (AP) — A U.S. Senate committee resumes its inquiry today into the involvement of Illinois banks in politics after hearing yesterday a statement —immediately denied— that a Democratic politician once offered to get Cook County deposits for Edward A. Hintz's bank.

* * *

Hintz once headed the bank which cashed many of the fraudulent state checks by which Orville E. Hodge swindled the state of 1½ million dollars. He and Hodge, former Republican state auditor, are in prison as a result of the thefts.

Unsworn testimony from Hintz, taken in a closed hearing when the banker refused to testify last week in public, said Michael J. Howlett, Democratic candidate for state auditor, once offered to get deposits of county money for the Southmoor Bank and Trust Co. Hintz was president of Southmoor at the time, his statement said.

* * *

Quick denials came from both Howlett and Herbert C. Paschen, Democratic Cook County treasurer.

Ike's Old Driver Passes Up Offer

Won't Ask President for Aid Because 'He's Been Sick, Too'

LANSING (AP) — William Robertson is crippled by arthritis and has plenty of financial worries but he isn't planning to ask aid from his old Battalion commander — President Eisenhower.

"I wouldn't ask Ike for help because he's been sick himself a couple of times in the past year," said the 59-year-old Robertson. "I know how it is."

Robertson says he was Maj. Eisenhower's personal tank driver when he commanded the 301st Heavy Tank Battalion at Ft. Meade, Md., back in 1921.

"He was also coach of the battalion football team," Robertson recalls, "and we called him Ike then, too."

Robertson's honorable discharge from the Army in August, 1922, was signed by "Maj. D. D. Eisenhower." He says Eisenhower told him to "pass on the word" if he ever needed help.

But instead of appealing to his old commanding officer, Robertson is asking Local 182 of the Allied Industrial Workers Union to help him quality for early retirement under the new Social Security law.

Persons totally disabled may begin drawing benefits at the age of 50 after July.

States Righter Andrews Attacks Both GOP, Dems

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — T. Coleman Andrews, who served for three years as chief tax collector of the Eisenhower administration, set out today to present his own presidential candidacy as "a new home for the orphaned members of both the old parties."

* * *

The 57-year-old Richmond conservative was designated to carry the states rights-tax reform third party banner at a whooping rally here last night.

Andrews and his running mate, former Republican Congressman Thomas H. Werdel of Bakersfield, Calif., are on the ballots in 14 states. In Virginia, at least, where both major parties regard the outcome of the election doubtful, Andrews' candidacy could tip the result one way or the other. Virginia went for Eisenhower in 1952 by an 80,000-vote margin.

* * *

The former tax chief, an Eisenhower Democrat in 1952, told some 3,000 supporters last night he didn't know whether his candidacy would draw strength mainly from President Eisenhower or Adlai Stevenson.

"But I do know it wouldn't make any difference which of the two old parties won because we would have a continuation of socialistic government in either case," he said.

* * *

Andrews, Werdel and other speakers — notably Clarence E. Manion, former dean of the Notre Dame Law School and cochairman of the National Andrews-Werdel Committee—received frequent cheers with their sharply worded attacks on Democrats and Republicans alike.

Demands for the federal government to leave the states free to operate their schools as they saw fit won the loudest applause and the heaviest boos went to Chief Justice Earl Warren. Andrews referred to Warren as "the great Republican chief justice and integrationist, Earl Warren."

* * *

Andrews resigned from the Eisenhower administration last year to become president of an insurance firm here.

100 Combing Woods for Game Warden

FLORENCE, Wis. (AP)—A party of 100 continues searching for Charles Ott, 28, a Wisconsin conservation warden, missing since Saturday in swampy brushland in the northeastern tip of Wisconsin, close to the Michigan line.

The Florence County Sheriff's Department and the State Ranger Station at Florence organized the search. A plane was en route from Iron Mountain to aid in the search.

Authorities said Ott was on duty Saturday. An empty gun case and an empty shell box indicated he may have taken his gun along with him, intending to go bird hunting. Ott, a single man, has been stationed here for the past year.

Durante Asks $25,000 in Cafes

Full-Scale Productions Outfit Is Organized by Constance Bennett

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS)—Billy Graham's ABC radio talks were renewed for 52 more weeks by the sponsor, which just happens to be "The Billy Graham Evangelistic Foundation."

Jimmy Durante's year-off from regular TV has his agents asking $25,000 a week in cafes . . .

Constance Bennett now has a full-size TV - radio - stage - screen productions outfit, with her own publicity staff, etc. Plans all sorts of expansion . . .

About a dozen of the new TV shows have been so bad that a flock of hovering stars will be ready with replacements in January . . .

Vaughn Monroe is doing better with records and commercials than he ever did as a bandleader, and so has turned down a quiz moderating job and a Montgomery-type drama hosting job . . .

A DOGGY DITTY

Dig this doggy ditty: "Rock Around Rin Tin Tin," offered in all seriousness to the management of Rinty's TV series . . .

Eddie Nugent was dropped by ABC after eight years on two weeks' notice. One of his bosses told ex-movie star Eddie, now a radio-TV director-producer: "You're just too brainy."

Lou Holtz reminded us of an old Fred Allenism: When Bob Hope's gag-writing realm slipped from 11 to 9 members, Fred said, "Bob's practically ad libbing."

Lynn Dollar shifted from money ($64,000) to monkey when she gave the commercial on Zoo Parade.

The panel shows are due for an attack on the subject of smut and double meanings in the guise of "humor."

Not only did ABC-TV have Adlai's son Borden Stevenson, a Harvard brain, as one of the quizzers on "College Press Conference," but they also enlisted a nephew of President Eisenhower, Michael Gill (University of Virginia); Ann Brownell, daughter of U. S. Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr. (Swarthmore); Letitia Dick (Smith), daughter of Mrs. Edison Dick, cochairman of Volunteers for Stevenson.

"Requiem for a Heavyweight" was that rare dramatic bird, a delicately sensitive play about a brutal subject—prizefighting . . .

Jack Palance gave a fine reading on the rough, repulsive leading role. The creative honors are Rod Sterling's, as the TV bard managed for the second week in a row to create something far, far out of the ordinary on the new "Playhouse 90."

Imagine the gasp of panel tycoon Mark Goodson in a British TV control room during the English version of "Two for the Money," when the moderator said Missouri was an American state but not a river as he airily flunked the contestant . . .

Odd Fellows to Install Officers Saturday Night

Fred House will become chief patriarch Saturday when Pontiac Encampment No. 26 International Organization of Odd Fellows holds a public installation of officers at 8 p. m.

The installing staff of Old Glory Encampment No. 171 I.O.O.F. will conduct the ceremony in the lodge rooms at 82 Perkins St.

Others to be installed are Theodore Monroe, high priest; Carl Clifford, senior warden; Wilfred Brown, junior warden; Milton D. Linsley, scribe, and Howard Smith, treasurer.

She'll Take Romance If She Finds It Again

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Annie Pie Sheridan, a Texan, skipped the "Giant" premiere, explaining to me, "I don't go to see my own pictures, honey." I asked whether she might marry now that she's over some of the shock of the death of her long-time love, Steve Hannagan, back in '53.

"Naturally it could happen," she replied candidly. "If I find romance, I'll take it. Steve would be the last person not to want it to happen to me again. He was a fine guy. Could it be an actor? Maybe! They're mad, eccentric, wonderful people, just like Steve was."

Grace Kelly and gent took the train to Wash'n to meet Ike 'cause her European medic told her not to fly.

A fellow in Findlay, O., said, "Beer reduces me, it makes me lean," and Tennyson Guyer asked him, "Against lamp-posts?" . . . "The trouble with 'Go, Go, Go' music is that it doesn't"—George Hart, Wildwood, N. J. . . . "Wives who wake up with a grouch," claims Art Moger the Boston Bard, "should try letting him get his own breakfast."

Mickey Rooney is again hot after his favorite blonde, Jane Kean, whom he almost married marriage-before-last. . . . Jackie Gleason lost a wad betting on the Bums.

Wonderful line in "Giant" when Liz Taylor says to Jimmy Dean, "Money isn't everything," and he says, "Not when you got it."

★ ★ ★

Before the premiere of "Giant" was over, Liz Taylor left with Grandpa Mike Todd for a party. "Here's why this dame left early," Mike explained later. "All the broads in town who are so crazy about me were waiting there to get my autograph and I was afraid they'd cause a riot and crush this dame under their feet. So I got her out before she got hurt by my fans."

Miss Taylor—who was actually knocked to her knees by her own fans—said she may go to Moscow with Mike if "Around the World" premieres there.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Hedy Lamarr denies reports of a bustup with Howard Lee by pointing out she and children are happily ensconced in Houston.

Though they've split, Vivian Blaine and Mannie Frank have adjoining suites in Chicago this week.

Frankie Laine led the Yankees' victory songfest at the Waldorf . . . Nicky Hilton was a patient at Mayo Clinic last week . . . Marlon Brando hired a guard for his home while he's away, to foil souvenir hunters . . . Judy Garland's been asked to extend her Palace stint through April.

The Rhonda Fleming-Dr. Lew Morrill reconciliation sent James Hill back to singer Helen O'Connell . . . Comic Jack Carter's dating his estranged wife, Joan, with Kay Medford along as "chaperone."

Earl's Pearls . . .

The church to which most people belong is the Seventh Day Absentists.—H. G. Hutchescn.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "The best way to cure your wife of nagging is to tell her it's a sign of old age."—Jerry Warren.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A local gent told Cy Baron he's enjoyed three happy years of marriage—which is pretty good, considering he's been wed for nine.

Education is certainly important. Only recently a holdup man didn't get a dime in a foreign language school because he didn't remember how to say "Stick 'em up" in French . . . That's earl, brother.

Ask Ike Aide to Back Great Lakes Pact

WASHINGTON (AP)—White House support was sought today for a controversial Great Lakes Basin compact.

* * *

The Great Lakes Commission, an interstate agency established by the compact in 1955, arranged a conference with Howard Pyle, President Eisenhower's assistant in the field of federal-state relations.

Thomas Kavanagh, commission chairman and Michigan attorney general, and Marvin Fast, acting executive director of the commission, head the delegation meeting with Pyle.

Six states — Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania — have ratified the compact. New York and Ohio are expected to do so next year.

* * *

The commission has urged that Congress formally consent to the arrangement, so that the Canadian provinces of Quebec and Ontario may be invited to participate.

* * *

The state department has objected, contending the compact is both unconstitutional and unnecessary.

A new cold record for the U.S. was set January 20, 1954 at Rogers Pass, Montana, north of Yellowstone national park, when the mercury fell to 70 degrees below zero.

MAIS OUI — Yes, you may be looking at the future "Miss World" if Genevieve Solare, recently named "Mlle. France" in Paris, makes the grade during the forthcoming Miss World contest in London, England.

Shipbuilders Scarce, Union Boss Warns

DETROIT (AP)—The leader of a large shipbuilding union says lack of a steady shipbuilding program has caused "a rising and critical shortage" of skilled manpower in the nation's shipyards.

John J. Grogan, president of the Industrial Union of Marine and Ship-Building Workers and Mayor of Hoboken, N. J., yesterday addressed his union's annual convention in Detroit, where he said:

"Only a long-range building program and the husbanding of our shipyard workers' skills can meet the maritime needs of our nation in defense and peace."

Grogar said he has been called to Washington for consultation on the government's reported plans to build 50 supertankers to lessen the nation's dependency on the Suez Canal.

But, he said, "skilled manpower has been migrating out of the shipyards for the past 15 years. It takes 7 to 11 years to train a rounded-out skilled shipyard man and no overnight panacreas or shortsighted plans can provide the fiber to man our shipyards."

Rush Work on Ski Area

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — Construction is under way on the Black Mountain Ski Area in Cheboygan County near the Presque Isle county line. The Bi-County Winter Sports Assn. has four ski runs near completion and work is progressing on the lodge building. The association hopes to have the ski park ready for winter use.

Fingerprints End Confusion of Twins' Identity

MUSKEGON (AP) — Fingerprints have ended the possibility that Mr. and Mrs. Lester Neal's twin daughters can masquerade under the wrong identification bracelets.

The suburban Twin Lake family feared last week that the 11-month-old girls had their name bracelets swapped. Mrs. Neal, who said she never could tell Debra from Diane, first tried to have the sheriff's department compare the girls' footprints with those on hospital record.

Results proved inconclusive until Deputy Marion Calkins, a print expert, found a distinct pattern which made identification certain.

He said each girl was wearing the proper name bracelet.

Suspicions of mixed identity now can be erased by bringing in only Diane for a print comparison, Calkins said.

Mrs. Neal wanted the girls' identity made certain before their first birthday, Nov. 3.

Bloomers, first introduced into the United States in about 1849, are generally believed to have derived their name from Mrs. Amelia Jenks Bloomer.

Quietest Sub Comfortable Too

Navy to Launch Darter With Silenced Diesels, Lots of Room

GROTON, Conn. (AP)—The Navy is getting a submarine which is described as "the quietest of all time" and which has comforts you'd expect only on an aircraft carrier.

It is the USS Darter (also known as SS 576) which the Electric Boat Division of the General Dynamics Corp. is turning over to the Navy in commissioning ceremonies here next Saturday.

Although the Darter is smaller than her World War II ancestor (it's 260 feet long and 1,800 tons), it is faster and a lot roomier insofar as the crew is concerned.

It's quiet, says General Dynamics, because its engine noise is confined to a "sound-isolated" compartment. The conventional, diesel-powered engines are operated by remote control from a sound proof cab or console.

Submerged, the new Darter can be operated by one man because of its airplane or "joy stick" type control. The corporation said that type of control also makes for a comfortable ride as well as for easier diving and maneuverability.

This is the set-up for the crew:

Wide aisles between berths; individual bunk lights and ventilation; an ice cream machine; automatic record player; modern, wide movie screen, and four-place dining room tables.

Boys' Club Members OK More Saturday Dances

Young Pontiac Boys' Clubbers, finding out that once the girl friend gets a toe-hold on their exclusively bachelor domain she won't let go, have decided they like the situation.

They're inviting the girls back this year for dancing at their "Club 530" Saturday nights.

In addition to rock and roll in the gymnasium, boys have decided to vary the program occasionally with hayrides and fun nights, according to executive director William V. Coulacos.

There'll be refreshments on dance nights, as there were last year when the program first started, and pizzas during intermission.

About 190 senior boys are eligible to bring dates, Coulacos said. The first dance is this Saturday.

The Boys' Club is a United Fund activity at 530 E. Pike St. which offers facilities for recreation, sports, hobbies and other group activities.

Boa Bobo Located in Store Basement

NEW YORK (AP)—A fugitive boa constrictor named Bobo was found curled up in the basement of a Bronx supermarket yesterday.

* * *

The nine-foot serpent had slithered out of its cage in a pet shop next door last August.

Isidore Sohn, 36, found Bobo when he went down to the market basement for a can of pickles.

"I was petrified when I saw it," he said. "It just lay there sticking its tongue out at me."

Bobo was thin from lack of food.

Dr. James A. Oliver, curator of reptiles at the Bronx Zoo, took the snake to the zoo with the approval of pet shop owner Nathan Kornhauser.

County Agent Taking Samples for Corn Contest

Sample yields are being taken from county cornfields for the 1956 corn growing contest, Lyle Abel, county agent, reported today.

Taking the yields are extension agents and agriculture instructors from county high schools. Results will be announced in November, Abel said.

About 20 entries have been made so far, he said. One field has checked in at more than 100 bushels, the highest so far.

Farmers interested in the contest should call the extension office or their nearest high school agricultural department, he added.
