School Board OKs $1,800,000 Building Plan

At Walled Lake Saturday

Annual GMC Family Picnic to Lure 30,000

Thousands of GMC Truck & Coach employes and their families will gather at the Walled Lake Amusement Park tomorrow for the division's annual GMC Family Picnic.

The event, expected to attract about 30,000 to the area, is regarded as one of the country's largest industrial outings.

Among the picnic's highlights will be a series of games and special field events, free ice cream and a special display of products manufactured by five General Motors divisions.

The exhibits, which will jam the roller rink and overflow onto the park's grounds, will include 18 GMC trucks and two buses, the Pontiac "dream car" Club de Mer, Frigidaire kitchen appliances, an electronic garage door opener and huge earth-moving vehicles.

Scheduled to be shown for the first time in Oakland County is the new General Motors experimental gas turbine automobile, Firebird II.

Named after the original Firebird introduced by GM in 1953, the new version was designed as a four-passenger family car for highway use.

Designed by Harley J. Earl, vice president in charge of styling, the vehicle's unique features include a shell of titanium, a lightweight metal of great strength, and a newly-developed regenerator for preheating air.

A public address system, hooked up to a hovering helicopter, will keep picnickers informed of the various events, according to Program Chairman Owen J. O'Neill.

Some 600 shirts inscribed with the GMC emblem will be among the prizes to be awarded to children and adults in the athletic and field events.

Rochester Park Plan Approved Over Protests

Most of Land to Be in Macomb County; 1,000 Acres in Oakland

Over protests from property owners in fringe areas, the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority voted Thursday to go ahead with its proposed 3,500-acre park development near Rochester.

R. Claire Cummings, Pontiac supervisor and Huron-Clinton commissioner, said today there is "no question that the preponderance of opinion heavily favored the park."

He said the Authority received 14 resolutions favoring the move from communities concerned, including the Macomb County Board of Supervisors and the Supervisors Inter-County Committee, and 17 more from individuals.

According to Cummings, most of the proposed park will be cut from Macomb County, with about 1,000 acres coming from Oakland.

"My primary concern all along has been to see that as little as possible was taken from the Oakland County tax rolls," Cummings said today.

* * *

The authority also approved picking up of options on about 1,000 acres of the land, nearly all of it in Macomb County.

The proposed park will run from 26 Mile road to 28 Mile road, and be bounded on the east and west by Mound and Sheldon roads.

The choice is good in view of traffic conditions in Oakland County, he said. Cummings added:

"If we hadn't taken the Rochester area, the Authority probably would have voted to buy the Scripps Estate in Orion Township. Then the heavy traffic would have been added to Telegraph road and M24, which are both already overloaded.

"Another alternative was a large area between Ortonville and Clarkston, which would have meant additional loads for Telegraph road and the Dixie highway.

"Again, both areas would have been lost to the Oakland County tax rolls."

Total estimated cost of the land for the Rochester park is two mil-

Railroad Report Delays Approval of Structure Site

Elementary School to Handle 360 Pupils at Cost of $450,000

The Pontiac Board of Education last night wound up approval of an estimated $1,800,000 building program to meet classroom needs in 1957.

But planning for one of two new elementary schools remained purposely vague pending a decision on the location of new tracks of the Grand Trunk Western Railroad.

The board approved locating the building in the northwest area for an estimated 360 pupils and costing about $450,000.

But proposed construction on a site north of Kennett road and east of the present Grand Trunk right-of-way will not be authorized until the City Commission and railroad officials agree on the location of new marshaling yards in that area.

The delay was recommended by Dr. Otto C. Hufziger, assistant superintendent in charge of the building program. He said the site was held on an option from the county which required construction by mid-1957.

The City Commission has proposed that the railroad site, about 3,000 feet long and 300 feet wide be located paralleling and east of Telegraph road. This proposal may bring the yards too near the site owned by the school system, Hufziger contended.

He stated the yards would be noisy and interfere with classes, would lower the value of the school property and might be a hazard for children.

Railroad officials had proposed a yard south of W. Walton boulevard and between Baldwin and Stanley avenues. This would not interfere with the school's plans, Hufziger said.

NEEDED BY FALL OF '57

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer pointed out that the school is necessary by fall of 1957 to meet needs of the rising school population.

* * *

The other elementary school, costing about $425,000 and serving an estimated 360 pupils, will be in the northeast area off Featherstone road.

The board also approved purchase of a site in the northern part of the school district for a new junior high school, needed by 1960, and a 10-acre site near Whittier School to be used for elementary purposes.

All-weather play areas were approved for the 14 schools which do not have these facilities.

Hitchhike Victim Fills In Story

Tells of Playing Dead While Assailant Drove to Dump Off Spot

FLINT (AP) — The victim of a $110 shooting-robbery has given police new clues to lead them to his assailant, described as a Negro in an Air Force sergeant's uniform.

Jack H. Vining, an Army private from Middleton, who has improved from critical to fair condition in Saginaw St. Mary's Hospital, was interviewed today by police.

While the search centered in Flint where Vining's car was found abandoned, Saginaw authorities planned to check fingerprints lifted from the car's interior. Some were described as "pretty good."

Dale Austin, head of the Saginaw County Identification Bureau, said Vining has set the place of the shooting as near Clio, instead of Tuscola County.

PLAYED DEAD 15 MILES

He told Austin his assailant then drove 15 miles to the Tuscola site where he dumped Vining. Vining said he played possum for fear he might be shot again. He was shot twice in the head with a .25 caliber pistol.

Vining told Austin he picked up his assailant near Ann Arbor on U.S. 23, then drove north with him. The man, Vining said, told him his wife was working in Flint, so he would like to ride north of Flint with him.

He told Vining, Austin said, he was stationed at Ft. Sill, Okla., but was a resident of Flint. Vining said he (Vining) was carrying $110 in back pay when shot Wednesday.

He underwent emergency surgery at the hospital Thursday, and doctors plan more surgery when he recovers. One bullet passed through his head sending bone splinters into the brain. The other bullet lodged in bone.

Ground Gobbles Up Garden Hose

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP)—Twenty-eight feet of Claude Key's 50-foot garden hose just disappeared into the ground.

Two of his children discovered the phenomena Wednesday morning.

Key tried to pull the hose out. It wouldn't budge. He dug down into the ground a few feet. The soil was hard and sandy.

Hundreds of curious went around to have a look. Many tugged at the hose. It is cracked and nearly broken a few feet back from the point where it enters the ground.

"It's made me so nervous I can hardly think," said Mrs. Key.

"Of course, keeping up with six kids doesn't leave me much time to think, anyway."

In similar cases across the nation, hydraulic engineers have explained that it's all due to vacuum suction. The water pressure from the hose makes a hole ahead of the nozzle.

The sand then closes around the hose, creating a vacuum which sucks the hose farther into the ground.

Ike and Nixon Huddle Delayed

Heavy Rain Postpones Meeting on U.S. Policy in Far East

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—A conference between President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon on U. S. policy in the Far East was washed out today.

Nixon got as far as the Washington Airport, but a heavy rain and poor flying weather here brought postponement of the trip until tomorrow.

Secretary of State Dulles did make it to Gettysburg in a light twin-engine Air Force plane. Dulles was driven to the Eisenhower farm.

The original plan was for Nixon and Dulles to meet together with Eisenhower so that Nixon could report to both of them at the same time on his 11-day, 27,000-mile trip on which he circled the globe and called at six Asiatic capitals.

Nixon and Dulles had attended a Cabinet meeting at the White House, at which Nixon presided.

Dulles left the meeting early and flew into Gettysburg. At that time a steady rain was falling, the ceiling was 1,000 feet and the visibility a mile. Subsequently, flying conditions worsened and Eisenhower's personal pilot, Col. William Draper, who brought Dulles up, telephoned Washington and advised Nixon not to fly in.

Hagerty told reporters that Nixon will come up instead at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Road Commission Retires 470 Years of Employment

With a total of 470 years in the employ of the Oakland County Road Commission, 23 of its men are retiring from its service, having reached the age of 70 years.

They will be tendered a dinner this evening by their association, at the Waterford Community Activities Building. At the same time they will be recipients of certificates attesting to their loyal service, and also will receive various gifts.

Vice president of the association John Tyson will preside, and County Road Engineer Leo V. Belknap will be toastmaster.

The certificates will be presented by Sol D. Lomerson and the gifts by Howard Pratt. The speaker of the evening will be a member of The Pontiac Press staff, Joe Haas.

The men who are retiring and their years of service are: Samuel P. Baer, 35; Frank B. Ousnamer, 33; Perry L. Dean, 32; Charles E. Frusher, 27; Franklin J. Spencer, 26; Lewis E. Meacham, 26; Asa O. Rash, 25; Frank Harp, 25; Orsel T. Dudley, 22; Elmer C. Rockefeller, 22; William H. Blackmon, 21;

Bert C. Ellsworth, 21; Earl Ellenwood, 21; Clive A. Stiff, 19; George R. Lindsey, 17; Orlando N. Corey, 16; Harry Dandison, 14; George F. Gaunt, 14; Clayton Brockman, 13; John M. Crooks, 13; Stanley Buda, 12; Wilber Hannabery, 10, and John Land, 6.

Saturday Forecast: Cloudy, Possible Rain

The U. S. Weather Bureau predicts a low of 65 for the Pontiac area tonight.

Partly cloudy with a chance of scattered thundershowers is the forecast for tomorrow. The high will be 81 to 85 degrees.

A gradual warming trend is expected over the weekend turning cooler Monday night or Tuesday. Precipitation will average one-half to three-quarters of an inch as rather frequent thundershowers occur throughout the area.

The lowest temperature reading in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 64 degrees. The thermometer registered 80 at 2 p.m.

Johnson Beats OL's Pete Green in Amateur Test

Orchard Lake's 15-year-old state amateur golf tourney entry, Peter Green, today fell before defending champion Glenn Johnson at Jackson CC 4 and 3. Sixty-three others, besides Johnson began the final three days of play today.

Several Oakland County players were still in contention, with Lloyd Syron not yet reported in his match with Cliff Zill of Ann Arbor. A handful of other area golfers fell by the wayside in this morning's matches including Tommy Watrous of Royal Oak who lost to Frank Skasden of Grand Rapids in 19 holes, one down.

Other results this morning:

Davey Hill, Grand Rapids defeated Marty Hurd 5-3; Ralph Ellstrom, Dearborn, defeated Jack Zinn, Royal Oak one up; Don Winterhalter defeated Ray Martin of Berkley 3 and 2; Doug Andrews, Jackson, defeated Stan Lendzon of Birmingham, 7 and 5; Don Stevens Paul Deyo, Livonia defeated Howard defeated Ron Stelter, Saginaw 3 and 2; Slocum, Ann Arbor, one up; Harold Brink, Grand Rapids defeated Ken Johnson, Jackson 4 and 3; Lou Wendrow, Lansing defeated Joe Fernandez, Allen Park 3 and 2.

Golfer Gets 2 Aces in Two Days Play

One ace in a single round of golf is usually the signal for a celebration in links circles. But when the same golfer hits TWO holes-in-one on the same hole that's even better.

Alex Marshall, retired GMC engineer, 4395 Forest, Watkins Lake, a 75-year-old golfer, even went it one better today. Yesterday he bagged his 1st ace on the No. 4 hole at Twin Lakes. Today in his 2nd successive round of play he repeated the stunt, with his 2nd lifetime hole-in-one on the same hole, with the same club, a five iron.

Marshall's feat is believed without parallel in this area.

Calendar Student Picks Ike

Who'll Win Presidency? Friday the 13th Tells All

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Let others poll for opinions and study political trends. For Lonnie Johnson, the calendar tells who'll win the coming presidential race.

His theory is simple, depending entirely on the mystic potency of Friday the 13th, of which today is one. There were three of them this year.

"That's not rare," said Johnson, "but when three come in the same year as a presidential election — that's significant. It has happened just six times before in history and it has produced a pattern."

The pattern? Well, in the triple Friday the 13th years of 1792, 1804 and 1832 the voters re-elected, respectively, George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson.

In the second cycle of the pattern, "new" presidents were elected: Abraham Lincoln in 1860; Benjamin Harrison in 1888; Herbert Hoover in 1928.

"So the pattern is clear," said Johnson, a blind broom salesman who delights in extracting odd little tidbits from his calendar hobby. "Everything goes in threes when there are three Friday the 13ths during an election year.

* * *

"The first three times it happened, the occupant of the White House was re-elected. The second three times, a new president was named.

"Obviously, then, the next three will result in re-elections. So it's perfectly clear that President Eisenhower will win another term."

Johnson's only announced political affiliation is that of a "Last Thursdaycrat." He believes there is no day like the last Thursday in November for Thanksgiving. So he doesn't want to be blamed if his prediction goes against your political convictions.

Defense Plans May Be Halted

Paper Says Chiefs of Armed Forces Revolt Against Radford Policy

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today that strategic planning of America's defense reportedly has been halted until after the November election because of a "revolt" by the chiefs of the three armed forces against Adm. Arthur W. Radford.

A proposal by Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to slash the nation's armed forces by about 800,000 men by 1960 was said to have united the service chiefs in vigorous protest against his ideas.

In a dispatch from Washington, the Times said the three chiefs objected to Radford's proposal on the grounds the reduction would shrivel U.S. armed force contributions to the defense of Europe.

Who gave the stop order was not learned but it was assumed that it was either Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson or Reuben B. Robertson Jr., his deputy.

Both exert influence over planning the "new look" in defense for the fiscal years 1958, 1959 and 1960. The service chiefs have been engaged in the strategic planning for about two months.

ARMY WAITING CUT

The Army reportedly was bracing itself for a possible cut of 80,000 to 100,000 men in the fiscal year 1958 which starts next July 1, and it was estimated that such a reduction would mean the withdrawal of 40,000 men from overseas bases.

The chiefs of staff are: Army, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor; Air

Royal Oak Boy Killed by Train

12-Year-Old, Brother Seeking Job to Earn Money for Vacation

A 12-year-old Royal Oak boy died in Beaumont Hospital early this morning from injuries received yesterday afternoon when he was struck down by a Grand Trunk commuter train in downtown Royal Oak.

Robert Ogden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ogden, was the victim. He reportedly was stooping over the tracks to pick up a dropped package and did not move away in time to avoid being hit.

Engineer Robert G. Corp, of Detroit, told investigators he saw the boy as he was approaching the crossing. "He raised up and I thought he was going to get clear. I blew the whistle and slammed the brakes, but it was too late," Corp said.

Robert and an older brother, Jack, 15, had started out to seek a job in hopes of earning extra money for a family vacation. Robert was the youngest of four Ogden children.

Over 7,600 Fail to Turn in Solution

Prize $700 as Pot Scores Shutout

Somewhere folks are laughing . . . someplace children shout.

But there's no joy today in Puzzleville . . . 7,623 just struck out.

Listlessly mouthing this mournful parody of a baseball song classic, two disappointed POT-O-GOLD judges gazed around a room piled high with 7,515 postcards, 108 envelopes that never had a chance and 55 entries that missed the deadline.

The pair of Press arbiters had waited all week, expecting like the fans at Mudville that some contestant would "shatter the air with the force of his blow" and claim $600 in accumulated cash prizes.

But our players again did a Casey . . . and the only thing that is richer by it is the scoreboard which now registers a whopping $700. Every cent of it, plus another $25 if the winner is a Press subscriber, is stashed neatly away in our groaning POT-O-GOLD for Winner No. 1.

About the most encouraging aspect of the contest has been the number of near-misses scored by hopeful entrants. Many regularly come within one or two words of compiling a correct solution.

Puzzle fans who failed to win last week can find out where they failed by turning to Page 4 for the answers and a detailed explanation of why each is the right one.

Those explanations are important if you want to be a future winner because they show the precise reasoning used by the puzzle-makers in planning their maze of words each week. You'll soon discover that a dictionary is an important item of the POT-O-GOLD participant's tool chest.

After you've studied last week's answers, turn to Page 20 where the last official Puzzle No. 7 entry form appears. If you're successful this time, you'll be richer by $700 within a few hours after next week's judging.

Good luck . . . good word-hunting . . . and may the geni of word games and frustrated Caseys smile on you.

Tips to Puzzle Fans

You'll be richer by $700 if you're successful in picking the right words from the 33 listed below to fill out your entry in POT-O-GOLD puzzle No. 7:

Bake, batter, better, bolt, bow, butter, chink, chunk, colt, flash, flush, foot, gab, gag, hog, hug, make, mop, nip, pack, parts, pick, pin, pom, roof, sports, spurts, tack, tank, traps, word, work and wow.

East side, west side — all around the county they're asking about seats aboard The Pontiac Press Theater Special to New York City. There's still time to fill in the application form on Page 2 and send it to the Press. For the low charge of $140 you, too, can be among the 60 who will watch five top Broadway plays while spending as many days in America's most exciting city.

County Play Areas Facing Crisis

Can't Keep Pace With Population

Planner Lists Reasons Why Need for Facilities Grows Critical

Detroit Regional Planner Robert Carpenter told the Supervisors Inter-county Committee yesterday there are five "explosive factors" expected to make area recreation facilities inadequate within 20 years.

* * *

"I sometimes feel like a man sitting on a time bomb," he said, listing the problems confronting the recreation of area residents. They are:

1. Expanding population of the three-county area, expected to reach 4½ million by 1974.

2. Expanding economy, which will team with rising personal incomes to inflate want for recreation.

3. Increased mobility of car owners who can reach recreation areas faster and easier.

4. Growing difficulty finding land for recreation with increased land use per unit built.

5. The expected impact of automation, which authorities believe will come into full use within 20 years, creating more leisure time and expanded desire for recreation.

Carpenter told delegates from six counties—Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, Washtenaw and St. Clair—expanded recreational planning is needed immediately to cope with the problem.

10 ACRES PER 1,000

A 30-year-old national study recommended at least 10 acres of recreational land for each 1,000 persons living in the area, he said, and advocated an additional 10 acres as "desirable."

Because of the five factors, he said, planners should reserve at least 30 acres of land for each 1,000 population.

In recreational planning, Carpenter commended state, county and Huron-Clinton Authority officials for their work.

* * *

"It's the local governments who are dragging their feet," he said.

Three objectives are essential to meet the need, Carpenter said.

He listed them as expansion of the Detroit Regional Plan Commission to cover the whole six-county area; preparation of a list of required facilities and a comprehensive land plan for the area, and coordination of planning among all units concerned to provide enough land for the purpose.

3 Thugs Beat, Rob Woman Florist, 80

DETROIT (UP) — Police said three young thugs pummeled an 80-year-old woman florist last night to make her tell where she kept her money and jewels.

* * *

They took $500 in cash and $1,000 worth of jewelry and left the woman lying nearly unconscious.

The trio entered the Knoch Florist Shop on Detroit's West Side and demanded money of Mrs. Minnie Knoch.

When she refused to tell them where it was they pushed her into living quarters at the back of the shop, bound and blindfolded her and beat her with their fists.

* * *

They stopped only when she told them where she kept her two strongboxes.

She was reported to be in serious condition.

POLIO PICTURE SO FAR — As the first six months of 1956 ended, a "substantial decrease" in polio cases was announced by the U. S. Public Health Service. Newsmap above shows the total number of cases in each state through the week of June 30 against the comparable week of July 2, 1955. The report said 2,654 cases have been reported throughout the nation. There were 3,706 during the first half of 1955. Despite the decline, officials said it is still too early to determine whether the Salk anti-polio vaccine was an important factor. The figures on paralytic polio are less favorable. The 1,397 cases reported so far are only slightly under the 1,482 reported during the first six months of 1955.

Paper Reports Plans for Defense Stymied

Force, Gen. Nathan F. Twining; and Navy, Adm. Arleigh A. Burke.

The Times said sources familiar with Radford's concept and views summarized his proposals in this way:

Protection of the nation's economy is an overriding requirement and the defense budget in 1960 must be held under 40 billion dollars.

The National Guard and Army reserves would be employed in civil defense and related roles.

The Strategic Air Command would be the dominant force — and the Navy's primary mission would be antisubmarine warfare.

The objectives in this period would be to reduce the Army by 450,000 men, the Navy and Marine Corps by 200,000 and the Air Force by 150,000.

Any war most likely would be a general one, short, violent and involving nuclear weapons. Consequently, Army forces overseas would be reduced to "token forces" with atomic weapons.

In a war the Army would not be committed, except for token forces, because both mobilization day and D-Day would be simultaneous. Hence decisive action might take place before the Army could be shipped overseas.

Rochester Park Plan Given Green Light

lion dollars, of which the Authority already has one million on hand. Cummings said the second million can be borrowed from next year's budget, if necessary.

Estimated cost of the 1,000 acres under option is $600,000. Cummings said he believes the Authority will have bought up some 2,000 acres of the total before the end of the year.

"The park won't be fully developed for four or five years," he said. "If we get the central acreage along the river, we can start developing right away and work on the additional land as it is acquired."

Opposing property owners, mainly from areas not immediately adjacent to the proposed park, argued that the land is most suitable for suburban development.

They said they feared the crowds, with resulting traffic congestion and other problems, attracted by such a park.

Landowners closer to the site, Cummings said, appeared to favor the project, especially after commissioners pointed out that land values generally rise near park sites after development of the facilities.

"At Kent Lake, values have doubled since we bought the park land," Cummings said.

The vote to continue came on a motion by Commissioner George W. Trendel to abandon the project, which was defeated 5-2.

Commissioner Herbert L. Frisinger, who supported the motion, said he favored the development of a park but opposed negotiating with property owners for the land.

Uniform condemnation, he said is the only way to insure uniform prices to all owners.

Added Benefits for Injured Vets Up to Senators

WASHINGTON (UP) — Unanimous House passage left up to the Senate today a bill to add 172 million dollars a year to government compensation for veterans disabled in military service.

* * *

Most present payments would be increased by 10 per cent. Veterans rated 100 per cent disabled would be increased 24 per cent from $181 to $225 a month.

* * *

With adjournment approaching, the likelihood of Senate action was uncertain. The administration opposed the measure, contending that living costs have gone up only one-half of 1 per cent since 1954, when the last veterans' increase was voted.

A Detroit architectural firm, Eberle M. Smith & Associates, Inc., was hired to design the new high school building to be completed by September 1958. The building will be at the site of the new Madison Junior High School, north of North Perry street.

H. E. Beyster & Associates, Inc., Detroit, will design the elementary schools.

Hufziger pointed out that construction near Whittier School at 600 Motor St. will ultimately serve elementary needs in the area and allow the present Whittier School to serve as an addition to Jefferson Junior High School at the same location.

The total construction for 1957 will add room for about 1,260 pupils in the elementary grades, bringing the total capacity to around 12,570 pupils.

Approximately 1,253 pupils will be removed from substandard classroom conditions as a result of the 1956 and 1957 building programs, Hufziger figured.

Kidnaping Case Enters 9th Day

Detective Reveals That Signature on Note Was 'Your Baby Sitter'

WESTBURY, N.Y. (UP)—Today is the ninth day since 5-week-old Peter Weinberger was kidnaped.

Basically, there is nothing new in the situation. The heart-rending personal tragedy of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Weinberger continues.

Each time the telephone rings in their home they hope against hope that this time it will be the real kidnaper, with news of their baby and how they can get him back.

With deadly frequency, however, it is some misguided crackpot or sadistic joker who pretends he knows where the child is and cruelly raises the Weinbergers' hopes.

Nassau County Chief of Detectives Stuyvesant Pinnell, who has been in charge of the case from the start, yesterday disclosed that the ransom note was signed "Your Baby Sitter."

'Applicant for Job' Flees With $10,000

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (INS)—A man drifted into the office of a Jersey City trucking firm, under the guise of looking for work, and fled today with a little more than $10,000 from an open safe.

* * *

Police reported that the man entered the second floor office of the plant of Thomas Brennan's Sons, truckers and riggers, in Jersey City carrying a vacuum bottle and a bundle that looked like his lunch.

* * *

George Brennan, 56, in charge of the office, had left the room momentarily, but had left open the safe containing the payroll money for 200 workers in two large envelopes.

Heart Attack Kills Golfer on Course

A heart attack during a golf game killed a Rochester man at an Orion Township course Thursday.

Kenneth Mills, 52, of 139 Glendale, was pronounced dead shortly after collapsing during a game at Bald Mountain Golf Course.

Dr. E. E. Ludwig of Rochester, who was playing behind Mills, was the only witness.

NEW RED JET—The new Soviet semi-delta wing experimental jet is shown in the air over Moscow's Tushino Airport during the annual observance of Soviet Air Force Day. Delegations from 28 countries, including the U. S. witnessed the show which stressed fighter planes rather than bombers.

Pontiac Deaths

Mrs. Troy Cunningham

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Troy (Vivian) Cunningham, 53, of 1102 E. Atherton Rd., Flint.

She is survived by her husband, a former Pontiac resident; a daughter, Mrs. Virginia Allen, and a son, Douglas Cunningham, both of Flint; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hollie Rogers of Paragould, Ark.; three sisters and three brothers.

Service will be at 3:30 p.m. Saturday from the Huron Street Methodist Church, Flint, with burial in Crestwood Memorial Gardens. The body is at the Reigle Funeral Home, 2417 S. Saginaw St., Flint.

Ernest S. France

Service will be held at 11 o'clock Saturday morning in the Pursley Funeral Home for Ernest S. France, 63, of 86 S. Jessie St. The Rev. Easton Hazard of the Wilson Avenue Methodist Church will officiate with burial in Kingston Cemetery.

Mr. France died suddenly Wednesday at his home of a heart attack.

Linus McCauley

Word has been received of the death of Linus McCauley, 81, of Richmond. He died this morning at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Mt. Clemens after a long illness.

He was born in Richmond Township Dec. 6, 1874 and had been a life long resident of the Richmond area.

Surviving besides his wife, Ella, are two daughters, Mrs. C. T. Forsman of Pontiac and Mrs. Stanley Lingeman of Detroit; one son, Robert of Dryden and four grandchildren.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Sunday from the Hensch Funeral Home, Richmond, with the Rev. William Edwards of the Richmond Congregational Church officiating. He will be assisted by the Rev. Brooks Warren of the Memphis Congregational Church with burial in the Richmond Cemetery.

Dixon-Yates Move Draws Dem Taunts

WASHINGTON (UP) —The administration's move to have the courts declare "unlawful" its repudiated Dixon-Yates contract drew taunts today from Democratic senators who said it will be a campaign issue.

* * *

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn), a bitter critic of the contract President Eisenhower had ordered negotiated with the Dixon-Yates private power interests, said caustically "It will be interesting" to hear how the President explains this in the coming election campaign.

"He'll have ample opportunity," Gore said, "because he'll be reminded of it frequently."

* * *

The comments came after the Justice Department yesterday asked the U. S. Court of Claims to throw out a Dixon-Yates suit against the government. The suit seeks $3,543,778.45 of payments by the government for costs incurred before the contract was canceled last November on the heels of a political fight.

Grand Rapids Man Pays Reckless Driving Fine

A Grand Rapids man paid a total of $125 in fine and costs in Justice Court yesterday after pleading guilty to a reduced charge of reckless driving.

* * *

Frank Haight, 46, agreed to the reduced charge before Novi Township Justice Edmund P. Yerkes. He had previously pleaded not guilty to drunk driving.

City Resident Charged in Knifing Roommate

Franklin Hollis, 28, of 76 Hess St. was charged this morning with attempted murder in the knifing of a roommate yesterday.

* * *

The victim, Sam Williams, 46, is listed in good condition in Pontiac General Hospital with severe wounds of the face and a fractured jaw.

Williams claimed that Hollis slashed and then kicked him in the face following an argument. Both are employed by the same wrecking firm.

Group to Have Detroit Planner

Inter-County Unit Votes to Seek Kavanagh Help on Sewerage Plan

Members of the Supervisors Inter-County Committee, meeting yesterday in Berkley, voted changes in the organization of their recreation committee and resolved to ask Attorney General Thomas M. Kavanagh to compile a booklet of state laws on sewer and drain projects.

The recreation committee will have the full-time services of a planner from the Detroit Regional Plan Commission to assist in coordinating recreational planning.

In addition, the committee will be expanded to include six planners from the six member counties, and a representative citizen from each county to aid in committee work.

A compilation of sewer, drain and water legislation was asked to aid individual communities in solving their problems. Regional Plan Commission Director Paul Reid called the project "a service that the state, at the top level, ought to provide."

Members approved a resolution that each member county be asked to appoint a highway engineer to serve on a special subcommittee of the Inter-County Highway Commission.

A unanimous resolution commending the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority for its planned 3,000-acre park near Rochester also was passed.

The next meeting of the group —a cooperative movement by Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, Washtenaw and St. Clair counties to solve common problems on a common basis—will be held September 6 in Monroe County.

Booth Seeking to Cut Confusion Over Questions

Henry S. Booth, chairman of the Oakland Citizens League, said today he is "very definitely concerned" over possible confusion between his organization and the recently-formed "Oakland County Association of Citizens Leagues."

* * *

The new organization, apparently started and run by Frank J. Nievelt, a Berkley resident is sending questionnaires to all county candidates in an effort to "rate" candidates for county voters.

* * *

Booth's Oakland Citizens League has been carrying on this type of work for 17 years, he said.

* * *

"We want to make sure that both candidates and voters know that Nievelt's questionnaires are not our questionnaires, and his ratings are not our ratings," Booth said.

Good Weather Seen for GOP Convention

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Odds are 100-1 the weather will be good during the Republican National Convention beginning here Aug. 20, says State Climatologist Robert F. Dale.

* * *

After checking the city's August weather data back to 1849, Dale yesterday predicted "fair with morning fog." That's customary for San Francisco in summer months.

* * *

Dale also came up with these odds:

That the temperature will reach 60 each convention day 20-1,

* * *

It won't go over 70 degrees, 20-3,

* * *

It won't hit 80 degrees 50-1.

In other words, bring some warm clothing. You can f-r-e-e-z-e evenings in cool San Francisco if you're acclimated to summer h-e-a-t elsewhere.

Bob Carleton, 60, Dies; Composer of 'Jada'

BURBANK, Calif. (UP)—Robert L. (Bob) Carleton, composer of the Dixieland jazz classic "Jada," died last night at St. Joseph's Hospital after an exploratory operation. He was 60.

* * *

Carleton turned out more than 500 tunes during his career that began in his native St. Louis, Mo., during World War I. He came to Hollywood in 1932.

The Day in Birmingham

Cost of North Evergreen Estimated at $2 Million

BIRMINGHAM — Cost of the North Evergreen sewer system is being tentatively estimated at two million dollars, now that Birmingham has placed a price on its sewage treatment plant.

* * *

North Evergreen Sewage Disposal Authority members talked of several ways of equalizing payments from its four member towns at their meeting this week.

The Birmingham plant price is to be $520,000, city commissioners decided on Monday. The price was considered fair by members at the authority meeting called following the price-setting, but definite action is not possible until each community government approves it.

* * *

Other costs will be an addition to the plant, which is estimated at another half-million, and the sewer lines, which are estimated at about one million dollars.

Some of the plant cost will go to Bloomfield Township, which has a small equity in the plant, according to discussion at the authority meeting.

Allocations for each of the member towns, Birmingham, Troy, Bloomfield Hills and Bloomfield Township, would according to a tentative plan, be based on the ultimate population in the areas for the sewer line. The population estimate being used is for the year 2000.

Fifty per cent of the plant cost will be figured on the basis of 1970 population, with the other 50 per cent on the use required by each member town, according to tentative plans discussed at the meeting.

Thus, Birmingham and Bloomfield Township, with about 13,000 and 6,000 people using the sewer lines, would be paying the greater shares of the plant costs, with other towns increasing in use as their sizes increase.

The plant sale by Birmingham will be subject to approval of voters in the November election, although transactions may be completed by Oct. 1.

* * *

"Don Egbert Day" will be celebrated July 29 in Birmingham with an open house and a city-family-night supper for the resigning city manager.

Employes, former employes, commissioners, former commissioners, and their wives will attend the supper at Devon Gables at 6:30 p.m. that Sunday.

The supper, at which a gift presentation is planned, will follow an open house sponsored by the city commission for Egbert's associates at the Community House from 4 to 6 p.m.

Reservations for the supper are being taken by the assistant city manager, Dana Whitman, at the municipal building.

About 250 registered on the final day for registrations this week, according to City Clerk Irene Hanley, bringing to a total of about 350 the new registrations in the last few days before the primary deadline.

At no time were there more than ten or twelve in line, Miss Hanley reports, although long lines had been expected.

Monday at the library auditorium, "Portrait of a City," a filmed story of Detroit, will be shown. The program is a weekly event for later elementary and junior high school boys and girls, at 2 p.m.

Children's story hour subjects for Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. are "No Room," a Russian fairy tale, and Cinderella."

Trial Expected to Close Today

Psychiatrists Slated to Testify on Mental State of Mrs. Hermiz

DETROIT (INS)—The six-week-long trial of Mrs. Victoria Hermiz and Maurice Hamilton, accused of murdering her husband, was expected to end late today after psychiatrists testify on Mrs. Hermiz's mental condition.

Dr. Ira Altshuler, a defense witness, was expected to tell in Recorder's Court that Mrs. Hermiz is insane and has been for a number of years, but a psychiatrist from the court's clinic was due to say she is not.

After the medical testimony, Asst. Prosecutor Joseph Rashid and defense attorneys for the pair were to begin closing arguments before the jury which will decide if the two murdered Aziz Hermiz last February.

Victoria's testimony was completed yesterday when, through involved statements in Arabic, she accused Hamilton of wielding the butcher knife used in the killing.

She said when Hamilton came to her home the night of the slaying he brought a butcher knife with him from the home of her brother, Azzawi, and that she knew Hamilton planned to kill Aziz.

However, in her testimony Mrs. Hermiz said she was responsible because she asked him to do the killing.

Garage Become Tunnel; Brakes of the Game?

LAWRENCEBURG, Ky. (UP) — Deputy Sheriff Herbert Phillips had an auto accident in his own back yard yesterday.

Driving his car into the garage, Phillips caught his foot under the brake pedal.

The auto was undamaged. But the garage now is a tunnel—no rear wall.

OK Subdivision of Otto Kern Estate

BLOOMFIELD HILLS —Bloomfield Hills planning commissioners this week approved a tentative plan for subdividing the estate of Otto Kern.

The land includes 102 acres, mostly wooded, which will be split into 108 lots according to the tentative plan submitted to the Hills officials. The larger portion of the plat is in Bloomfield Township and its subdivision was approved last month by the township board.

The lots hold the foundations of the Kern home which burned about a year ago, several barns, two stables, a green house, and two residences.

Howard Keating is the subdivider and Samuel Walker, Birmingham surveyer, is doing the promotion work.

The land is on the west side of Squirrel between Long Lake and Square Lake Roads. Number of lots is subject to change as development progresses, officials stress. Of the 108, 20 are in Bloomfield Hills, plus parts of three more.

No Early Settlement Seen in Steel Strike

PITTSBURGH (INS) — Negotiations in the crippling steel strike continue today in an atmosphere almost frigid enough to discourage any optimism lingering after 13 days of the nationwide walkout.

David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union, added yesterday to pessimism over the renewal of talks in Pittsburgh.

The union leader said that the industry, represented by bargainers for the so-called "Big Three" companies, does not seem to want agreement at this time with the 650,000 steelworkers who walked out July 1.

McDonald apparently referred to a statement by John A. Stephens, U. S. Steel Corp. vice president and chief industry bargainer, that management already has made the best possible offer, indicating that the producers might not budge from their last offer for a 52-month contract.

The union rejected the 52-month offer as "too little and too long."

In Cleveland, the Lake Carriers Assn. said today two thirds of the Great Lakes fleet "is laid up or in the process of being laid up because of the nation wide steel strike."

In allied industries, about 70,000 workers have been furloughed.

Yellow Lines to Mark Prohibited Parking

All prohibited parking areas along curbs in Pontiac will be painted yellow beginning Monday, Theodore M. Vanderstempel, city traffic engineer, announced today.

He said the painting was being done "to aid the public in observing more easily where they cannot park."

Workers will begin in the downtown area at such places near fire hydrants and at street corners.

Tentative Allocations for Drain Approved

At an informal hearing before the County Drain Board yesterday, tentative allocations among 14 communities, the state, and the county for the planned $30 million Twelve Towns Relief Drain were given nearly unanimous approval.

The single dissenting voice came from Royal Oak Township supervisor Elwood Dickens, who said he wanted an analysis of the factors considered in determining the township's first-year payment of 15.21 mills on township-assessed valuation.

Charles Harmon, consulting engineer retained by the board to work out the financial arrangements, told representatives of the 16 units the tentative allocations will become final when passed by the board.

A formal hearing was set for August 9, giving all units time to report on the project to their governing bodies.

The 30-year bond issue for construction of the drain will be spread among participating units on the basis of benefits received from the project, Harmon said.

Each unit will spread its assessment through the unit as a whole, he said, even though the new drain may not affect the whole unit. Assessments will be outside the statutory 15-mill limitation.

When finished, Harmon said, the new drain will complete a $47 million drain system in the area. Twelve area drains previously constructed cost $17 million, he said, and this cost will be paid by 1966.

Interest on the new bond issue will run between $11 million and $18 million, Harmon said, depending on the interest rate obtained.

The board hopes to have contracts let by Oct. 15, Harmon said, and to spread the first year's assessment on the December tax roll, with payment due April 2, 1957.

First-year payments under the tentative allocations will total four per cent of the total cost. Millages on assessed valuation for the units concerned are:

Berkley, 7.49; Birmingham, 1.89; Clawson, 11.58; Ferndale, 4.18; Hazel Park, 3.51; Huntington Woods, 5.52; Madison Heights, 6.18; Oak Park, 6.75; Pleasant Ridge, 2.63; Royal Oak City, 4.23; Southfield Township, .34; Troy City, 9.89; Troy Township, 11.46; Royal Oak Township, 15.21; Oakland County, .03.

* * *

State payments totaling $555,652.88 will be paid from the State Highway Department funds, Harmon said.

'Have Patience,' Cypriots Urged

Rebel Leaders Oppose British Plea for Help on Eventual Self-Rule

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Some Greek Cypriot leaders today were reported ready to reject Britain's new appeal for cooperation in drafting a constitution and developing self-government for Cyprus.

* * *

The latest British moves came in a speech to Parliament by Prime Minister Eden and a radio broadcast here by Field Marshal Sir John Harding, governor of this British island colony.

In his appeal to Cypriots to "tackle this problem one step at a time" with patience and common sense, Harding indicated he would prefer to treat with secular Cypriot leaders rather than with exiled Archbishop Makarios and other Greek Orthodox Church officials.

This appeared to be a major barrier. Greek Cypriot leaders repeatedly have demanded that Makarios, leader of the Enosis movement to unite Cyprus with Greece, be brought back from exile to participate in any new negotiations on the island's future.

* * *

In his broadcast, Harding asserted pro-Greek extremists are beginning to crack under British countermeasures. He said he therefore saw no reason for further delay in developing self-government.

He warned, however, there will be no letup in the drive to stamp out underground violence.

Power Line to Connect State's Two Peninsulas

ST. IGNACE (AP) — Michigan's Upper and Lower Peninsulas will be linked by a power exchange line for the first time Tuesday.

The line, laid on the bottom of the Straits of Mackinac, connects systems of the Consumers Power Co. and the Edison Sault Electric Co.

It runs from McGulpin Point to Point La Barbe.

Saved From Cave-In

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A water department worker, Leon Preston, 47, escaped serious injury Wednesday when fellow workmen rescued him from a cave-in of concrete pavement and sand in a tranch where he was repairing a water main break. Preston was treated for chest and hip bruises at St. Mary Hospital.

Republican Wins Plenty of Votes —on Wrong Ballot

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Monroe Jones, an Oklahoma County candidate for constable, received 3,267 votes in last week's Democratic primary through a printing error. He's a Republican.

Jones said he wants to thank all those Democrats who voted for him, adding that was more votes than he could have received in the Republican primary, where he was unopposed.

He said he didn't even campaign and wondered what would have happened if he had won the Democratic primary. As it was, he finished last in a field of four in the mixup. The County Election Board, in certifying Jones nomination in the Republican primary, apologized for the error of printing his name to the wrong ballot.

Thousands Wanted These 16 Words

The $600 Answer: Solution to Puzzle No. 6

1. MANY is the word. Every pretty girl hopes to be popular with MANY beaux. She usually hopes they will be of a variety of types and occupations. A pretty girl living in Annapolis would probably not want to limit her choice to Navy beaux, but since there are a greater number of unattached men than most communities could boast, she could hope for MANY beaux.

2. DOG is good here, in connection with a little boy. If the boy has to plead to go on his father's fishing trip, it is apparent that he usually is not allowed to go, and therefore he probably does not have his own fishing Rod.

3. FLOAT is better. A balloon was an exciting sight to a child of fifty years ago. It was naturally Aloft, or high up in the air, but the remarkable factor was that it did not fall down. So watching it FLOAT was the thrill.

4. An egotistical MAN often describes a matinee idol. Ham is slang for one who overacts. A matinee idol is more than likely to be an excellent actor, to whom the word ham would not apply. In view all the adulation he receives, it is only human that often a matinee idol is an egotistical, or conceited, MAN.

5. An unforgivable PAST, which has suddenly come to light, has often blighted a romance. A Spat is a petty dispute, too trivial to fit into the category of "unforgivable."

6. ARGUE is best. A hot-tempered man will always insist on having his say, and is likely to ARGUE, even about unimportant things. since he is described as

"hot-tempered," it would go without saying that he is readily inclined to either Anger or Rages.

7. A strong CAR light is often used, in order to play lawn croquet at night; that is, the strong headlights which can be turned to light up dark corners of the lawn. Too few people would have Are lights installed for the word often to apply.

8. FAITH is better. Citizens might question the FAITH, (Fidelity to an agreement or promise) of a dictator who promises too much. Obviously his words would not be sincere, since in promising "too much," he would know that he was stirring up false hopes when he could not fulfill. His Fiats, or authoritative decrees, however, would be another matter. Citizens do not dare to question the fiats of a dictator, since disobedience would be quickly punished.

9. BLOC is the word. Some legislators are reluctant to join a BLOC, or group of men acting together for a specific political purpose. Frequently some political "trade" is involved—support for one bill being bought by reciprocal support for another—and some legislators might prefer to feel free to vote as they think best. To join anyone who must be re-elected at intervals, and therefore makes it a point to be a good mixer.

10. EXACT amount of food for her dinner guests is suggested by the description, "thrifty" housewife. She would not want to see any food wasted, and would try to figure out accurately just how much she would need, without buying anything Extra.

11. A girl's lovely GLOW is generally the result of a happy state of mind, so it is fair to say that when people comment on a girl's lovely GLOW, she usually feels happy.

12. The SOURCE, or origin, of every large river in the U. S. has been established and surely is known to scientists in that field. The Course of a river, however, changes from time to time, and would require constant re-study.

13. Waiting for a test pilot to LAND his plane would be anxious moments for the designer. If the pilot should Laud, or praise his plane, the designer would be delighted; but chiefly he needs to know details about the plane's performance, whether there are flaws to be corrected. It's primarily a report from the pilot that he wants, so he eagerly waits for the pilot to LAND his plane.

14. ADO—bustle or commotion—fits the scene after a neighborhood catastrophe. While there are always some efficient persons who offer Aid, everyone is not equipped to help, but crowds gather through curiosity and concern. There is much excitement and ADO.

15. A special LODE, or vein of ore, might keep miners employed for months or years. When the LODE was worked out, it might mean the end of the mine itself, with consequent laying off of men. They would perhaps for a time have to depend on a Dole, or relief money, for subsistence. A dole, however, does not come under the category of "special"; in advanced countries it is a regular and routine function of government to give help to those who are unable to find work.

16. A wild SCARE results when an escaped convict is at large in a community, putting the local residents into a panic. There would be a Chase by the police, with possibly some amateur help, but it undoubtedly would be organized, and not wild.

Police Fly to Rescue—Find Nothing Wrong

DENVER (AP) — "A man is trapped behind the elevator!" cried the unidentified telephone caller.

Police patrol cars, a city ambulance, fire department rescue squads and building inspectors raced to a two-story downtown structure.

But there was no one trapped behind, in or under the elevator. In fact, there was no elevator.

Parking Lot Attendant, Age Barrier Collide

JAMESTOWN, R.I. (AP) — The town council said it would fire the collector of parking fees at two town-owned beaches today because of his age.

The town's ruling body said Douglas F. Cunha was doing a good job but—he is only 13 years old.

Allies Against Ban on A-Tests

Proposal by Yugoslavia, Russia, India Rejected in U.N. by French

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Western Powers were expected to stand firm today against appeals by Russia, India and Yugoslavia for a ban on test explosions of nuclear weapons.

This was indicated by French Delegate Jules Moch in a preliminary statement late yesterday after the U.N.'s 12-member Disarmament Commission heard a long plea from India's V. K. Krishna Menon for immediate action to end the tests.

Moch suggested a series of steps to limit the tests but described them as "practical measures which France suggests that the subcommittee study, as one of the important parts of any disarmament plan.

He referred to the five-power disarmament subcommittee made up of the United States, Russia, Britain, France and Canada. The Western Powers already have proposed that the subcommittee study the question of banning or limiting nuclear weapons tests along with other disarmament problems.

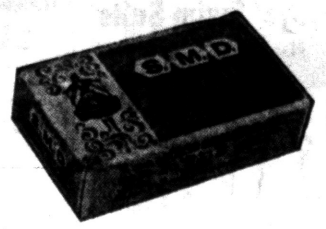
New Swedish Way to Get Slim

REDUCE WITHOUT BEING HUNGRY!
LARSON'S
SWEDISH MILK DIET
3.00



WHAT IT IS:
Larson's S.M.D. is a special diet which was invented in Sweden, the country with the healthy way of living. If you are overweight because you eat too much and if you want to reduce easy, quick and safe, without being hungry, then you should get a package and see for yourself that you don't have to be so fat.

HEALTHY—NOT DANGEROUS:
Larson's Swedish Milk Diet takes off the excess fat in a natural way without using drugs, slimming ingredients or exercising. Invented in Sweden, Larson's S.M.D. is now being introduced here in America. Because it is so limited in supply it sells out fast so you should ask for it today.

IMPROVE YOUR HEALTH:
Larson's S.M.D., a granular preparation, combines with milk to form bulk to help keep your intestinal tract regular. Larson's S.M.D. supplies healthy bulk and encourages normal habit time. You will feel more fit in body and clearer of mind. And you also should be more energetic.

HOW TO USE:
Just a teaspoonful of S.M.D. granules with a glass of milk four times a day, only 3 days a week! Monday, Wednesday, Friday you diet the Swedish Milk Diet Way. Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday you eat your normal meals!

NO UNDERFEEDING:
The Larson's S.M.D. Swedish Milk Diet contains full daily requirements of minerals, necessary vitamins, calcium, protein, carbohydrates, iron, phosphorus, energy elements. And the Swedish Milk Diet gives you the necessary variation between diet days and days with normal meals when you eat like you do now. You only use Larson's S.M.D. 3 days a week: The other 4 days of the week, Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday and on Saturday you don't diet at all but eat just like you do now!

RESULTS ARE GUARANTEED:
If you follow the diet faithfully you should lose pounds and inches the first week, or you return the package and get a refund.

Couple Facing Separation --by Voters in August

LUDINGTON (AP) — It could be that their ventures in politics may bring a "separation" for Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Hansen, who are happily married and harmoniously operate a Ludington dining room.

The ultimate word on their separation would come from voters.

Hansen, formerly a real estate agent in Muskegon, has filed as a Democratic candidate for state representative from Mason County.

His wife, Louise Rameaux Hansen, is a Democratic candidate for Congress from the 9th district.

If they win, Mrs. Hansen goes to Washington and her husband to Lansing.

BOTH OPPOSED

Both have opposition, however, in the Aug. 7 primary elections.

Mrs. Hansen philosophically chuckles that the possible separation and the operation of their dining room is "a bridge that we'll have to cross when it comes to us."

A former Muskegon resident, Mrs. Hansen graduated as valedictorian of that city's St. Mary's High School in 1935. Since then she long has been active in Democratic circles.

She is a delegate to the Democratic national convention this year as she was in 1952.

Mrs. Hansen also has been Mason County Democratic chairman; 9th congressional district chairman for two years; a member of the state Democratic testimonial dinner sponsoring committee and a candidate (losing by 12 votes) for Pere Marquette Township supervisor last year.

The Hansens' are parents of a 14-year-old son, who attends Ludington Junior High School.

Hansen, a native of Ludington, started the dining room operation about 15 years ago. Two years ago he also was a candidate for state representative.

A former member of the Democratic state central committee and Mason County Democratic committee, Hansen holds active memberships in numerous Ludington civic and fraternal groups.

Mrs. Hansen says the success of her candidacy needs "luck and prayers." But she sees no cause for alarm regarding the family if their political goals are reached.

"Those things work out," she comments. "If it was meant to be, then so it will be."

Success of both candidacies, she adds, probably would mean calling in help to operate the dining room while the Hansens' are away.

Mrs. Hansen is opposed on the Democratic ticket in the 9th district by George Apostle of Muskegon, Frank Schuler of North Muskegon and William Baker of Mesick.

Vital Requisites at Home

Dulles, Adviser Disagree on Value of Wide Travel

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles and one of his top advisers disagreed sharply yesterday on the value of extensive travel to pursue diplomacy.

"The vital requisites for the effective discharge of the duties of the secretary of state are perspective and wisdom," said Dr. Henry M. Wriston, president emeritus of Brown University. "Those qualities find their most effective employment when there is at least a modicum of leisure for quiet reflection."

Dulles said: "We all have to travel . . . Nowadays when you can fly overnight and have a personal talk with a foreign minister it is old fashioned to sit at home. You can accomplish so much more through a personal talk."

Wriston, an adviser who has helped Dulles put into effect an extensive revision of the U.S. foreign service, set forth his views in Foreign Affairs, a magazine published by the Council on Foreign Affairs in New York.

He told a reporter he had not aimed particularly at Dulles but at a growing addiction by top diplomats to extensive travel. He said Dulles had been away from his desk less than Democratic former Secretaries of State James F. Byrnes and George C. Marshall, although more than Dean Acheson.

Dulles has travelled more than any other secretary of state in history — more than 300,000 miles in 3½ years, taking him to 38 countries.

In defending that practice in a talk to the Girls Nation, a gathering of high school girls sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, Dulles did not take specific note of Wriston's article.

* * *

He said events in diplomacy now move at high speed, and added: "I notice that Khrushchev and Bulganin have traveled more in the last six months even than I have."

More State Schools

Demand for more school facilities in Michigan is being met, on the top level as well as in the primary and high school grades.

★ ★ ★

Not only are existing colleges and universities expanding their buildings and facilities, but new schools are springing up. To add to the confusion, some of the older schools are changing their names.

In this latter category, Wayne University in Detroit has now become Wayne State University, since the State of Michigan now has begun to contribute to its operating costs. The former Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti hereafter will be named Eastern Michigan College. This is to bring its name into proper relationship with the other "Normal" schools throughout the State.

Northwestern Michigan College is a wholly new school established in 1951 near Traverse City. It has a one hundred acre campus on Old Mission Peninsula. This college was set up and financed locally and moved to its permanent quarters last year. It now has county support and approval.

★ ★ ★

In nearby Flint the University of Michigan has established its first branch, although the University maintains extensive year-round activities in Detroit, Grand Rapids and other cities. It gives some courses each year in Pontiac.

But the demand for more school facilities continues, and new junior colleges and university branches may be expected as a result. The University of Michigan has declared its readiness to set up facilities for additional classes in any community which shows evidence of the need for them and the determination to utilize them once they are set up.

Here is a field in which Pontiac residents might well act. There has been some talk of need for a junior college here but the matter has not been followed up. Whether real need exists remains to be demonstrated. It would seem that this might be a legitimate activity for either the PTA's or the Chamber of Commerce to investigate.

★ ★ ★

With population in this area growing rapidly, conditions which were considered satisfactory a few years ago may no longer remain so. It would seem desirable at least to have a survey made to ascertain the facts.

Britain Losing Out

Great Britain is finding the going tough in its battle against inflation. Rising prices of British products are gradually cutting down on exports, which is the lifeblood of the island kingdom.

★ ★ ★

Once the richest nation in the whole world, Britain long ago lost its supremacy to the United States. Today West Germany has surpassed Britain in its wealth and ranks second only to the United States among the Western nations.

The Germans are able to produce more cheaply. The Volkswagen is taking the market away from British made cars. British auto plants are closing down and going on shorter and shorter weeks. Today West Germany leads all Europe in motorcar production.

The factors involved in Britain's inflation are many and complicated. But the results, as usual, have been mostly bad. Britain is following France in her decline in wealth and power. Before Britain's rise, France was the most powerful nation in Europe.

Today France is a sick nation. One government follows another in quick succession. Its colonial empire is slipping away. It no longer has the money, the men or the national spirit to wage an effective war.

Britain has by no means sunk to such a level, but it has lost most of its colonies, and it is slowly losing out in its struggle to maintain markets for its exports. England must ship in raw materials, and export manufactured goods, for it cannot produce enough food to feed its population.

★ ★ ★

Its people must retain a favorable trade balance to live. They are not doing so. As one step in his program to meet the nation's problem, Sir Anthony Eden proposes a big reduction in defense spending.

"Playing golf is good for the nerves," says a physician. Are you sure, Doc? Many believe one of the most severe strains on the nervous system results from exasperation.

Noting the kind of men a few girls are marrying, it is assumed they erroneously believe that becoming an old maid is the worst thing that can happen to a girl.

And Away They All Go

David Lawrence Says:

Mudslingers Accuse Ike's Doctors

WASHINGTON—These are unhappy days for Democrats, for Trumanites and New Dealers, for those who say they really "like Ike but ——" and for those who say that, of course, President Eisenhower's health must be a campaign issue.

* * *

The unhappiness emerges largely because Eisenhower is still a candidate—the fates somehow have been kind to him and have preserved him for duty to his country. But here in Washington in one breath the Democrats say Eisenhower is sincere and doubtless, believes what his doctors tell him, and then in the next breath they insist that, of course, it's all propaganda and that what his doctors said must necessarily be prejudiced.

The idea that medical men will not tell a man or his family the truth, that they will risk a life and let the patient do things he ought not to do for some remote political purpose, is a new one for the American people to read about. Yet there are great newspapers in the East and several writers unfriendly to Eisenhower who are asking the American readers to swallow such partisanship.

The real question is whether Eisenhower as a human being is entitled to respect and consideration by those sections of the press which have always argued that "gutter politics" is bad and that American political contests should rise above personalities.

COMMENTS CITED

Perhaps the most amazing comment this correspondent has read is in a publication called "Christianity and Crisis," which is issued bi-weekly by a group of so-called "liberals" in the ministry at the same address as the Union Theological Seminary in New York. It purports to be a "journal of Christian opinion," and not a political publication. It said in its July 9 issue:

"Almost before the President was out from under the anesthetic, competent medical authorities were announcing that the incident raised no questions with respect to his bodily fitness for a second term. But subsequently, other authorities—equally competent and equally medical—came forward with a much more pessimistic prognosis.

"One might imagine that this situation would leave the genuinely concerned and honestly seeking public in total perplexity. But such is not the case. On the whole, honest Republicans believe one set of doctors; honest Democrats believe the other. In fact, one suspects that the honest opinions of honest doctors are not completely uninfluenced by the doctors' own political predispositions."

HONEST REPORT?

Is the foregoing an "honest" report of what happened? Did the President's doctors "announce" that the incident "raised no questions with respect to his bodily fitness for a second term?"

Who were the doctors "equally competent" to come forward with a "pessimistic prognosis?" Did any of them examine the President? Are the doctors who attended Eisenhower to become victims of character assassination just because they happened to be summoned to attend the President of the United States? Is a man in the U.S. Army Medical Corps the tool of a political party, or does he serve his country irrespective of party?

The record shows that the press conference was called on June 9 at the request of the newspapermen, that it occurred a long time after the abdominal operation and its anesthetic, and that Maj. Gen. Heaton, the doctor who was interviewed, did not take the initiative in making any "announcement." All he did was answer a reporter's long question, which inquired whether he thought that what the doctors had said on Feb. 14 with respect to the President's fitness to run for re-election after his heart attack was now to be modified by any medical reason. The answer was, "I certainly do not."

For several weeks the distortions have gone on without receiving the slightest disapproving comment from those who all along have contended that innuendo and insinuation of guilt should never be employed in public debate and that no man should be wantonly accused of deviating from duty or ethics or loyalty to his profession unless there is conclusive proof thereof.

* * *

Maybe it's a sense of guilt that brings the unhappiness to the accusers of the President's physicians. And maybe trying to win an election for Stevenson by any means available—even condemnation of the nation's foremost medical men—produces its own cycle of unhappiness.

Dr. William Brady Says:

There's No Secret Drug to Cure Any Alcoholism

"Your dissertation entitled "There's No Drug to Give Secretly for Alcoholism" was not only a great disappointment but led me to conclude that you are uninformed and a bit narrow minded in your views on alcoholism. You might do untold good by investigating Alcoholics Anonymous . . ." (D.K.D.)

Thank you, sir. In the piece I wrote I said:

"I believe that any addict whose use of alcohol or other narcotic becomes such a problem should be committed to an institution for a term sufficient for a course of medical treatment, with or without all the help religious or spiritual advisers, Alcoholics Anonymous, family and friends can give."

For years I have been urging persons with alcoholism to communicate with a local A.A. group. Anyone who is ready to admit that he or she can't "take it or let it alone" may telephone the A.A. group listed in the telephone book. Don't expect A.A. to come and coax you to do anything. They merely tell you what other members have done for them and what they will gladly try to do for you—but they won't come to you. You must go to them.

Next thing you know somebody will advise me to investigate somersaults, the iodin ration, or the relation between calcium shortage and joint disability.

I might say some people apparently do not read the papers, were it not for the frustrating fact that when I read 'em, the piece I contributed has too often been ruthlessly abbreviated or maybe missing altogether.

Let's put it this way: The battle is half won when the addict, of his own volition, attends a meeting of A.A.

Before I learned about the wonderful work of A.A. I used to send readers who asked for it a booklet. Well, I have long since suppressed the booklet. Now I have no special advice for addicts. Instead I merely offer to send on request, to anyone who provides a stamped, self-addressed envelope, a pamphlet titled Young Folks and Old Folks, in which there is not a word about alcohol. It deals with the national malnutrition and how to prevent it, and in my narrow-minded view, malnutrition in the well-to-do—which includes the great majority of Americans—predisposes young people to indulge in narcotics, alcohol being the universal narcotic.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Says Something Is Wrong With Hoax Callers' Minds

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I have one thing to say about those people who are calling Mrs. Weinberger. There surely must be something wrong with their minds to want to add more grief and hurt to this mother.

I hope whoever made the calls from Pontiac reads this. How would you feel if it were your child? I get disgusted with people when I hear things like this.

Reader Questions Press Forecasts

I am often disappointed in the weather forecast which The Pontiac Press prints. Some of our amateurs in the neighborhood seem to do as well. Can't you improve your accuracy?

Weather Watcher

Editor's note: The Press does not forecast the weather. It's done by the U.S. Government and we merely print the report. We have been advised that the Great Lakes region is the most difficult in the United States to forecast accurately.

Polish Riots Offer Excuse for Repressing Satellites

BY JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

The anti-Communist riots in Poland will give Red leaders in Czechoslovakia, Hungary and other Soviet satellite states a pretext for another dose of repression.

* * *

Patterns already have been set by Moscow and Warsaw announcements blaming the uprising in Poznan on "Western agents."

* * *

Prague followed by saying there had been attempts to stir Czechoslovakian students against the Communist regime. So did the Reds in Budapest and East Berlin. The Communist officials called for vigilance against "foreign agents."

The organization of university students in the Czechoslovakian Youth Union demanded a relaxation of restrictions as early as March.

* * *

In an unusual show of independence in the Stalin debunking era the students adopted a resolution pointing out the "shortcomings in our public and political life" and recommending changes to "democratize" life in a dictatorship.

PROGRAM OF STUDENTS

The press—"We consider that the press does not fulfill its basic function of providing early and accurate information concerning life in our country . . .

"We demand that our press should publish factual material instead of extracts and commentaries which are frequently copied from the Soviet press . . . We demand that foreign newspapers should be made available to a greater extent."

Radio—"We consider that the jamming of foreign broadcasts (even in the case of such a station as Radio Free Europe) is beneath the dignity of our state."

The student resolution slyly poked fun at the Red bureaucracy for failing to report the dismissal of First Deputy Premier Alexej Cepicka and Soviet party boss Nikita Khrushchev's "secret speech" attacking Stalin—until after the Czechs had learned of these events through the privately endowed Radio Free Europe.

National Assembly: The students said the Communist press "publishes only reports of unanimous voting and never any news of the course of a debate or of critical comments," and added:

"We demand that reports should be published in the press on the preliminary debates of the National Assembly. . . ."

RETRIALS ASKED

Judiciary: The students said, "We demand that all political cases be retried . . . by persons who were not present in the original proceedings.

* * *

"We demand that all persons who permitted violations of these principles (of Socialist rule) be strictly punished. The general public should be informed of the results of the retrials by press and radio."

The students called for literature that was not on a blacklist, for less exaggeration of life in the Soviet Union, for more films from the West, and for answers to many questions such as the "privileged position of Soviet citizens" in the uranium mining district.

All this was very bold on the part of the students. It also is unlikely to achieve any immediate liberalization. But it shows the ferment behind the Iron Curtain.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Physical Defect Needn't Throw You

Joyce is unhappy because she is a cripple. Never develop such a "cripple complex," but compensate by cultivating additional social assets. Men seldom marry legs or pretty bodies. They pick wives with beautiful personalities, and most wives are only average in physical looks.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case S-311: Joyce L., aged 23, is a very attractive blonde secretary.

"Dr. Crane, I try to put up a social 'front' and act happy," she spoke with a quiver to her chin, "but sometimes I can't stand it.

"Maybe you can guess my problem. "It's this artificial limb," and she thrust her left foot forward.

"Most people don't seem to mind. I pay compliments and really have loads of friends.

* * *

"But recently I overheard two boys discussing me. One asked the other why I wore slacks at the beach party when all the other girls had on bathing suits.

"And when he was told I had an artificial leg, he exclaimed, 'Good heavens, and I was just going to ask her to go to a dance next week.'

"Well, Dr. Crane, that hurts me. I freeze up. Must a girl become an old maid just because she happens to have some defect like an artificial leg?"

LUCKY CRIPPLES

No, a defect often is a blessing in disguise if you will only analyze your situation more intelligently

For when you have any defect, whether real or imagined, such as partial deafness, or absence of a leg or arm, or habitual blushing or stuttering, you really may outshine other normal people.

But that is true only if you use your supposed defect to spur you onward in gaining other charms.

Personality is not synonymous with legs or hands or ears or smooth complexions. No, an attractive personality is a mosaic of thousands of things.

* * *

It includes physical features, but if you lack a leg, just smile more and develop gay conversational skill. Pay your companions oodles of honest compliments. Toot their horns via your praise, instead of your own.

Make your companions feel important while in your company and you can win husbands or wives easily, despite your physical defects.

This isn't generalized reassurance to mollify the wounded ego of a girl like Joyce, but is an established fact. Millions of people with defects are happily married right now.

And millions of people with no physical defects are rapidly becoming old maids or bachelors. So analyze the reasons.

Sometimes people with defects refuse to give up and actually compensate in the same realm where they were considered below par.

Thus, sickly Teddy Roosevelt became noted for his virility and rugged physical health.

Glen Cunningham had his legs so badly burned in childhood that he was told he would never even walk again.

* * *

But he vowed he's not only walk, but also run, and later he broke the world record in the mile run!

Stuttering Demosthenes also became the world's foremost orator.

Some cripples compensate in other realms, often far better than the original.

Thus, deaf Edison, epileptic Caesar, tubercular Robert Louis Stevenson, paralyzed Franklin D. Roosevelt, club-footed Lord Byron—these are just a few.

MEN DON'T MARRY BODIES

Too many modern girls get the erroneous idea from bathing suit ads that men are only interested in marrying perfect bodies.

Marilyn Monroe hasn't had too much success in matrimony despite a curvaceous female chassis.

And millions of other girls with hardly average looks or with missing arms and feet, or with thick ankles, freckles, snub noses and many other supposed defects, have husbands who are devoted to them.

So get wise to the fact that your body is scarcely any more indicative of the attractive you than the automobile you ride in.

It is simply an anatomical vehicle that carries your real spirit through a few decades on this earth.

Send for my 200-point "Tests for Sweethearts," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents. Use them to cultivate the true charms that win lifelong sweethearts even if you lack legs or arms.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Argentine Reds Return to Homes

1,000 Begin an Exodus to Russia and Satellite Nations to Take Jobs

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—About 1,000 Russians, White Russians, Poles and Czechs, who have been living and working for years in Argentina, have sailed for their Communist-ruled homelands.

* * *

This was the third sailing in three months of persons who have heeded published Communist promises that they will find homes and work in their specific fields behind the Iron Curtain. The first two ships transported about 2,200 returnees.

An army spokesman told reporters the mass departures have aroused the "preoccupation" of Argentine authorities. Most of leaving, he said, are needed to work in Argentine cotton and wine growing areas.

* * *

The Argentine ship Salta's scheduled departure yesterday was delayed at the last moment when Argentine authorities refused to permit the departure of 160 prospective returnees, presumably for passport irregularities. The ship is headed for Odessa.

* * *

It was obvious the older returnees simply want to spend their remaining years on native soil. A younger man said he was going back, sure of finding a job which will "permit me to life with my wife." He said he left her and three small sons in a village near Minsk 28 years ago.

Bonn Jails 3 Reds for Treason, Slander

KARSLRUHE, Germany (AP) — The Federal Supreme Court today sentenced three West German Communist leaders to prison terms ranging from 2 to 3½ years after finding them guilty of preparing high treason and of slandering the West German government.

Fritz Frische, 43, a former member of West Germany's Parliament, and Josef Ledwohn, 48, both received 3½ years' imprisonment and forfeited all civil rights for four years.

Richard Scherzinger, 51, got two years in prison and lost his civil rights for that period.

Two other defendants, Karl Zemke and Christine Zeller, were acquitted.

Businesswomen Elect Canadian President

MONTREAL (AP) — A 54-year-old Toronto lawyer, Margaret Paton Hyndman, is the new president of the International Federation of Business and Professional Women.

Delegates to the annual convention of the 300,000-member organization elected her at their closing session yesterday to succeed Dame Caroline Haslett of London, England. She is the first Canadian named to the post.

Judge Sarah T. Hughes of Dallas, Tex., was one of eight vice presidents chosen.

The women at their final session also approved resolutions urging employment of more women in U.N. technical assistance programs and wider application of equal-pay-with-men principles.

'Miss Tornado Alert'

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A new title will be added Saturday to earlier honors won by Shirley Ann Swanson, Muskegon beauty who presides as Miss Michigan for 1957. She will be crowned "Miss Tornado Alert" by Brig. Gen. Benjamin J. Webster as part of the Grand Rapids ceremonies celebrating the fourth anniversary of the Ground Observer Corps.

Show Industry Report Probed

House Committee Says 'Blacklisting Partisan, Prejudiced' for Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities explores further today a report on entertainment industry "blacklisting" which Chairman Walter (D-Pa) says is "partisan and prejudiced" in favor of Communists.

The report was sponsored by the Fund for the Republic.

* * *

Called by the committee today were Francis McNamara, editor of a Veterans of Foreign Wars publication, and Godfrey Schmidt and Paul Milton, described as being connected with Aware, Inc., a New York City organization.

Speaking last night to the Pennsylvania VFW meeting in Philadelphia, Walter said the report "makes an indictment of everyone who has been active in opposing the employment of Communists and Communist sympathizers in the entertainment industry."

* * *

Walter said his committee has found that "a number of persons who have cooperated loyally in exposing the Communist conspiracy" have been denied work, and he added:

"It is peculiar that the report deals at great length with the rights of Communists but never with the rights of loyal patriotic citizens."

Mule Arrested for Aiding Output of Illegal Whisky

CHATHAM, Va. (AP)—And everywhere the agents went, the mule was sure to be. Now he's been arrested.

* * *

Agents for the Virginia Alcoholic Beverage Control Board said they found the mule—a lonely white animal—at the site of three raids on stills in the cascade section of Pittsylvania County. He was turned loose twice, agents hoping he'd lead them to his employers.

* * *

But the mule didn't and he was brought before the Pittsylvania County judge yesterday, charged with aiding the manufacture of illegal whisky.

He was labeled "contraband" and turned over to ABC authorities. They said he probably will be sold at auction.

Senate to Up Aid Bill to Around $4 Billion

WASHINGTON (INS)— Republicans and Democrats seemed to agree today the Senate will provide more foreign aid money than the House but not as much as President Eisenhower wants.

* * *

A vote is anticipated late today in the Senate Appropriations Committee which completed hearings Thursday night on the bill providing money for military and economic assistance to friendly nations.

Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La), a leading Senate economizer, said he thinks the figure the committee will agree on "will come close" to the four billion dollars Congress set as a ceiling.

But Ellender said he will offer an amendment to cut it back to the 3.4 billion dollars approved by the House.

After conferring with President Eisenhower at Gettysburg Tuesday, GOP Congressional leaders quoted the Chief Executive as saying it would be dangerous to go below four billion. Even this was 900 million dollars less than he had oroginally requested.

'Lucky' Sisters Mark Birthdays on Friday the 13th

DENVER (AP)—Two of the girls at the Kaiser home are having birthdays this Friday the 13th, but dad's the only one whose luck is bad.

He's going to have to foot the bill when he takes the family out to dinner.

Sharing the birthday will be Betty Lou Kaiser, who'll be 10, and Joanne, who'll be 8. They're the children of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kaiser.

A third Kaiser girl, Karen, 2, also was born on a Friday the 13th. Her month, however, is November.

'Stolen' Key Is Found

PONCA CITY, Okla. (AP)—A frightened housewife telephoned police shortly after midnight and reported the keys had just been stolen from the family car.

"The thief can't be far away. I just heard the car door slam," she added.

Two officers rushed to the scene and after an intensive search of the area found the keys—in the woman's purse.

New Orleans Fights Traffic Problems

(This is the last of six articles of the daily traffic jams in cities across the nation.)

By JACK LOTTO
INS Staff Writer

The story of how New Orleans is meeting the traffic problem is the story of how a city changed its face but retained its character.

Ten years ago New Orleans was covered with a maze of railroads which stifled automobile traffic to a greater extent than any city its size in the nation.

"These tracks," Mayor DeLesseps S. Morrison declared, "became a strangling barrier on the movement of automotive traffic and an increasing hazard to vehicles and persons."

There were 144 grade crossings within the city limits. Forty-six passenger trains moved in and out of the city each day. Scores of freight trains hauled a massive tonnage of goods shipped into and out of the second largest port in the country.

ONE STATION

For years newspapers and civic leaders fought for relief from the situation, with equally bitter opposition. Finally, voters adopted a constitutional amendment authorizing negotiations to build one station and issue bonds to help pay for it.

The railroads were combined into two approaches, eliminating 120 grade crossings. Overpasses eliminated the remainder. A vast air conditioned terminal was constructed, eliminating six existing ones.

This program was the biggest single factor in alleviating the strangling traffic conditions. But it was only part of $57,000,000 project paid for by the city, state and railroads.

PEOPLE RIDE BUSES

Mayor Morrison believes improvements are keeping pace with increasing traffic.

The New Orleans Public Service, Inc., a private concern, owns the public transportation facilities. The fare is seven cents, lowest of any city its size in the U. S. Sixty five per cent more people use public service conveyances now than in 1938.

Despite these changes, the 200-year-old French quarter remains untouched. The quarter is under the control of a city commission, and a brick can't be changed without its okay. Few people seem to mind as the quarter, with its attraction for tourists, is considered the third largest industry in New Orleans.

ALDERMANIC COURTESY

"Aldermanic courtesy" is probably one of the biggest reasons for the strangling traffic jams in St. Louis.

According to official records, the city has 6,754 street intersections and a total of 7272 individual stop signs, or one for every 764 feet of the 1,050 miles of streets in the nation's eighth largest city. Traditionally, a stop sign bill is introduced by the alderman in whose ward the sign will be located.

The alderman receives a request from some one person, or group of merchants, or just a householder for a stop sign in a certain neighborhood he represents. He seldom turns down these requests from his constituents.

The result, according to independent traffic experts, is chaos.

Many intersections have four-way stops, where they are not needed at all. Others, where very heavy traffic moves in both directions, have neither stop signs nor traffic lights. Until 1953 there were no traffic lights at all in the entire city.

To further complicate matters, there is a complete lack of coordination between St. Louis city and St. Louis county municipalities on traffic control, stop signs and signals.

Often traffic moves freely along major city thoroughfares where curb parking is prohibited during rush hours, only to pile up just beyond the city limits because county communities permit parking and have inadequate control devices.

Despite the "stop signitis," the city is trying to do something to ease the flow of traffic. In 1953, a master traffic relief plan, designating one-way streets and limiting parking in congested areas, was unveiled.

The Blonde Cried MURDER

By Brett Halliday

THE STORY: A disappearing body at the Hibiscus Hotel, a frightened woman who says her brother was murdered, and a man who claims he is the brother has started Michael Shayne on another adventure. When Mike attempts to bring the scar-faced "brother" face-to-face with the girl, the girl is found to have escaped by Shayne's fire escape. The brother draws a gun and retreats when Mike suggests police.

XIII

She slowed to a fast walk on the avenue. There was a single loitering female figure on the sidewalk ahead of her. She had a large red handbag swinging carelessly from her shoulder and was strolling along as though she hadn't a care in the world.

And she probably hadn't, thought the distraught girl to herself. Miami must be full of people who hadn't a care in the world.

She was abreast of the other girl who turned curiously to see who was passing in such desperate haste. She caught only a brief glimpse of her face as she was going by without slackening her pace, and had a brief feeling of recognition.

She heard a surprised exclamation, and then the footsteps slightly behind her quickened and a moment later a hand seized her arm firmly.

She turned to shake it off, and then she recognized the features of the girl who had been so nice to her in the taxicab about letting the driver pick her up and take her to Shayne's hotel.

NOTHING HAPPENS

"Goodness!" the girl exclaimed. "It is you, isn't it? I was so utterly surprised to see you," she went on anxiously. "Did you find your detective all right? My, that was so exciting in the cab. Nothing ever happens to me," she added resentfully.

Her first impulse was to rudely snatch her arm away from the other's grasp and run. But she glanced swiftly over her shoulder at the empty street behind them, and forced herself to slow down instead. After all, wasn't this better? Two girls walking along sedately together. Practically running and alone as she had been, she was much more conspicuous. And the girl had been nice to her in the cab. She did owe her some explanation.

She caught her breath as best she could, and said, "I never expected to see you again, either. How on earth do you happen to be here?"

"I stopped to see a friend and when I started back there weren't any taxis. So I thought I might as well walk the few blocks." She linked their arms together tightly as they neared the intersection, and steered the other girl across the street, saying happily, "Let's sit on a park bench for a minute and you've got to tell me all about it."

SO MIXED UP

"I—I—oh, it's all so mixed up. That man followed me there somehow, you see. And I was out in the kitchen while they talked. And I got frightened and—ran away." They sat on a bench.

"You poor thing. You mean the same man who was chasing you when you jumped in the cab with me?"

"Yes. With the scarred face. Oh, it's all so impossible. I just can't make anybody understand. Even Mr. Shayne."

"That's a shame. What are you going to do now?"

"He gave me an address. I've got it here in my bag. A note to his secretary where I can stay and be perfectly safe." She started up, fright seizing her anew.

The other's hand was tight on her arm, pulling her down to the bench. "No one can see us on this bench."

"Well, I—I guess maybe you're right." She allowed herself to be persuaded and sank back onto the bench, thinking it would be good to talk to someone else and see how her story sounded.

"I'm Mary Barnes," she began. "I'm staying at the Roney Plaza, and—"

It was dark on the palm-shrouded bench in the park with only a slim sliver of a moon overhead. Silent except for the low murmur of the girls' voices as they sat close together.

And after a time that murmur ceased and there was complete silence for a moment, then the sound of a brief struggle and a low, gasping, "A-h-h-h."

And then more silence.

And then a single set of footsteps, coming out of the darkness and the silence to the streetlights, to wave down a cruising taxi.

* * *

And a girl getting in the rear seat and settling herself composedly in the corner and opening a black suede purse to take out a sheet of paper and read the address in Michael Shayne's handwriting aloud to the driver.

The parking place in front of the Hibiscus Hotel was still empty, and Paulson parked his car there in practically the same place it had been before.

He hesitated beside the car for a moment, reaching inside his coat to settle the Army automatic snugly and inconspicuously against his left groin and checking to see that his coat was buttoned over it. Then he squared his shoulders and went toward the lighted entrance to the hotel.

It all looked completely dull and normal, not at all as though there had been any murders or alarms of murder recently, and Paulson was encouraged to cross to the desk casually and lean one elbow on it in a negligent sort of way when Dick snapped to attention behind it.

The Boxing Kangaroo

In the animal show at the carnival is a boxing kangaroo. This big animal has boxing gloves tied to his front paws and he sits up on his powerful hind legs, with his paws ready to fight.

Kangaroos come from Australia and this one is called Aussie. Although they are so big—sometimes as tall as seven feet—kangaroos are easy to tame and train.

When you color this picture with your crayons make the kangaroo's fur a gray-brown. Then paste the picture down on cardboard. Cut the circle carefully, keeping a smooth edge.

Cut out the top part of the kangaroo, along the finely dotted line. Then fold the top half of the circle back along the central dotted line and the kangaroo will stand up.

Railroad Travel to Join Dinosaurs in 20 Years?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —A railroad man predicts that within 20 years the Pullman car will be extinct and that there will be little, if any, long-distance passenger rail travel.

The reason, says Donald J. Russell, president of the Southern Pacific Co., is the airplane.

He said in an interview yesterday railroads are making a mistake in trying to keep up with the airlines at a time when jet transports capable of speeds up to 1,000 miles an hour are in prospect.

"All we have to offer in passenger business is the comfort and luxury that go with land travel. You can't get a train to run as fast as a plane," Russell said.

8-Pound Mushroom

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Charles R. Burtnick, doing yard work Wednesday at a suburban Grand Rapids home, discovered an 8-pound, salmon-colored mushroom which measured 18 inches in diameter. Museum Director Frank L. DuMond, who examined it, said the mushroom is edible.

Orion Plans Community Center

Elect Officers for 3 Months

Area About Lake Orion Included; Committees Go Into Action

LAKE ORION—Interim officers were elected and committees dispatched on various studies last night as 23 citizens of the Orion area took a major step towards establishing a community building.

Those attending, who represented all but three of the community's civic clubs and boards, elected Walter Green chairman and Mrs. David Eraldson secretary for the next three months.

The other three organizations have pledged support to the community project although they were not represented.

Creation of workable plans to govern the building's future operation as well as planning an adequate structure will be the task facing the officers, a board and several committees during the three-month period.

The board consists of James Sheldon, Harry Slater, Charles Starr, Mrs. H. W. Robinson, Mrs. Gilbert Woodcock, J. P. Taylor and Gilbert Tallman.

From that group, the bylaws chairman is Slater, a local attorney and Sheldon, nominations chairman. The board members will form the committee to work with each of these chairmen.

The nominating committee is to present a slate in October. It was decided last night that the wait for permanent officers would provide a choice from leaders of the entire township not possible with an immediate election.

Announcement was made that an offer of a site has been revealed to Green. Fred Rugie and Richard McNeal were appointed to consider it and other property that might be available.

They were directed after a half hour's discussion to give thought particularly to where the center of population would be within the next few years. Lake Orion proper might not be the ideal site, some felt.

Bruce Trumbell, Harold Ingram and Jean Wertenberger of the Lake Orion Youth Center Board, were appointed to the building committee.

They will present plans for consideration after visiting other community centers, studying their construction, and talking to those centers' officials about what changes they would now advocate in their present building plans. They will also study how other centers are maintained and governed.

The committees will present initial findings to a public meeting on July 26 at 8 p. m. in the Village hall.

Interested individuals in the area now consolidated in the Orion Community Schools are invited to the meeting. Those not able to attend should contact board members or the chairman.

ALTERNATE ROUND-UP — Early this morning six Oakland county Girl Scouts and two from Lapeer left for a 12-day primitive camp at Three Rivers. Alternates to the Scouts who participated in the Senior Roundup at Highland, these girls will be joined by 120 others from Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan. Carolann Bingham of Pontiac will accompany the group as counselor. From left to right the campers packing their station wagon are Judy Abersold of Westacres, Mary Way and Sue Ennis of Rochester, Sharon Daniels of Pontiac, and Betsy Cook and Bonnie Brookbank, both of Rochester.

Builders Back Sewerage Plan

Proposed $1,200,000 Approved by Southfield to Aid in Construction

SOUTHFIELD—A new private enterprise here is gathering pledges for a $1,200,000 interceptor sewer, with $900,000 already promised.

The enterprise is called the Southfield Evergreen Corporation.

Supervisor Eugene Swem said this morning the new firm, which has been approved by the township board, plans to borrow $400,000 to help finance construction of either the "big" or "little" Evergreen projects.

Swem said $400,000 would come from the Lathrup and Acacia drain districts and that builders have agreed to pledge more than $900,000 of their own funds to construct the system.

Three of Southfield's most prominent builders and land developers have already given their signatures for the new corporation. They are Howard K. Keating, Woodrow Nelson and Charles Bauverie.

"I expect to get more signatures in the next day or so," said Swem.

The corporation will have two choices on the type of interceptor it wishes to build. The "little" Evergreen would only serve Southfield and Lathrup with a line to the Detroit treatment system.

The "big" Evergreen would take in Birmingham, Troy, Bloomfield Hills and Bloomfield Township and the sewage treatment plant would be abandoned.

Communities to the north would use an existing sewage treatment plant in Birmingham to dispose of their sewage.

Swem said all communities favor the "big" Evergreen plan, and that cost to Southfield would be about the same under either plan.

JoANNE CHAPMAN

Announcing the engagement of their daughter JoAnne to George Campbell Jr. of 31025 Haggerty Hwy., Walled Lake, are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chapman also of Walled Lake.

Highland Church Seeks Minister, Plans Buildings

MILFORD — Securing of a new minister for Highland Congregational Church and building of a minister's residence were discussed at a congregational meeting Sunday at the church.

The meeting followed a service conducted by a guest minister from Lansing.

Members decided provision of a residence would be of assistance in procuring a full-time minister. A program for a house plus an addition to the Sunday School building with a new kitchen included was presented and unanimously approved in principal.

Trustees agreed to present a detailed plan for work in the near future.

Spectators Watch as Firemen Burn House

MILFORD—Hundreds of people lined Wixom road last night to watch Wayne and Oakland County firemen burn down a century-old farmhouse.

More than 50 firemen representing the Tri-County Fire Assn. were given the old farmhouse by the Lincoln-Mercury division to use as training project for members and recruits.

Land is being cleared by the company to make room for a new plant under construction.

The fire began at 6:30 p.m. when firemen threw 50 gallons of fuel oil over the downstairs portion of the structure.

The fire was put out and restarted eight times before the last spark was extinguished at 11 p.m. This is the second old house that was burned by firemen on a training basis.

State and Novi Township police controlled heavy traffic with red flares. They estimated that close to a thousand cars jammed the narrow highway as spectators tried to gain a good vantage point.

Fireman James Welch explained there are 22 different departments in the Tri-County organization, a new area project.

Keego Harbor BPW Club Installs, Names Delegate

KEEGO HARBOR — Mrs. Francis Leaf, first president of the Business and Professional Women's Club who recently installed her successor for next year, will represent the club at the Miami, Fla., convention.

Mrs. Leaf is district chairman for BPW clubs.

The installation at Rotunda Inn saw Mrs. Marjorie Billingsley become new president by taking the gavel from Lylla Ross.

Other officers are Mrs. Geraldine McCracken, first vice president; Wilma Webb, second vice president; Mrs. Helen Loch, recording secretary; Mrs. Ruth Guinnup, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Dorothy Webber, treasurer.

A girls club is to be sponsored in the near future by the BPW club, which also has a civic auditorium for the city of Kego Harbor on its planning agenda.

Walled Lake Loses Official

City Manager Sought as A. J. Koenig Resigns Post Effective August

WALLED LAKE — The rapidly growing city of Walled Lake, in its second year of incorporation, is looking for its second city manager.

A. J. Koenig, who came to Walled Lake as city manager a year ago, will step out August 1, according to his resignation tendered to Mayor Harry W. Thomas and the council.

Mayor Thomas and the council are advertising this week in several trade journals for a replacement for Koenig.

Koenig blamed pressure and the complexities of the problems confronting the new city for his desire to leave. With so many solutions needed simultaneously, he says in his resignation, he has decided to seek employment which will permit more leisure time.

He reportedly plans to enter a commercial field in the Walled Lake area.

Mayor Thomas estimates that the city population has increased by 600 since the charter was granted in 1954.

Although the Mayor, too, constantly faced problems of the city's growth, he says he is pleased with the progress made since the incorporation. He feels that it has been accomplished because the council and various committees had been willing to work long hours and to tackle several problems at the same time.

Rochester Wife Wins 4-H Award on MSU Campus

EAST LANSING—Mrs. Frank R. Chapman of Rochester was honored today for outstanding contributions to 4-H club work in Michigan.

Mrs. Chapman received a bronze plaque in ceremonies ending the 38th annual 4-H club week on the Michigan State University campus.

Leadership awards of $25 were given 12 members, including Lauren Geiger, Route 2, South Lyon.

Mrs. Chapman has been instrumental in the work that the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, Inc., has done to further the 4-H club program in the state. She is past president of the Michigan division and has held a number of other offices in the organization.

The association has been the largest single contributor to the International Farm Youth Exchange program with a total of $4,900. It also awards each year a number of scholarships to 4-H club members interested in studying horticulture and agriculture.

Metamora Mason Wins Rite's Top Designation

METAMORA — Earl August Hayes of Hadley, has been awarded the designation of Knight of the York Cross of Honor.

This honorary degree, highest in the York Rite of Freemasonry, is conferred only on those who have held the highest office in each of the four bodies of the rite.

Hayes served as master of Hadley Lodge of Masons in 1936, 1943-44; high priest of Lapeer Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, in 1949; master of Flint Council; royal and select master, in 1953, and commander of Fenton Commandery of Knights Templar, in 1956.

He was elected to membership in Fred H. Pocock priory and his election confirmed by convent general of the order June 30th. A certificate of membership has been sent to him.

School Consolidation Vote Set for July 30

METAMORA —The Buckingham School District No. 2 Fractional Attica Township, will vote July 30 on annexation to the Lapeer Public Schools.

Balloting will be at the schoolhouse from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Enrollment in the district is 34. Last year nine high school students were sent to Lapeer.

Milford Students to Present Band Concert

MILFORD—Sixteen members of the summer high school band will present their first concert tomorrow night at Maple Beach and Kensington Park, beginning at 7 p.m.

First in the series of five Saturday night concerts to be presented by the group, the concert will be presented rain or shine, according to Phil Haddrill, band director.

Besides the band, the beach house can accommodate 200 people and the newly installed public address system allows spectators to sit in their cars or boats on the lake and listen to the concert.

Selections from "Oklahoma," Leroy Anderson's "Phantom Regiments," and a medley of Gay Nineties numbers also will be featured.

Holly Children Visit Kent Lake Park

HOLLY—Community Playground Director Reese Protz announces that children will go to Kent Lake Park today. Other trips include Island Lake July 20, Camp Dearborn July 27 and the Detroit Zoo Aug. 3.

Kathy Fagan is the winner in points at the playground, with 124. The fishing contest was won by Robert Elliott.

County Deaths

Kenneth M. Mills

ROCHESTER — Kenneth M. Mills, 51, of 139 Glendale St., died suddenly yesterday on the Bald Mountain Golf Course. Arrangements from the William R. Potere Funeral Home are pending.

Kenneth R. McCollum

OXFORD — Service for Kenneth R. McCollum, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray McCollum, 24 West St. will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. from St. Joseph Church, Lake Orion, with burial in East Haven Cemetery, Lake Orion. Arrangements are being made by the Bossardet-Mabley Funeral Home.

Kenneth died at the University Hospital in Ann Arbor yesterday after a two year battle with lukemia.

Surviving besides his parents are one sister, Pamela, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Grant of Leonard and Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Gotwalt of Marlette.

Some Indian girls of northern Panama wear necklaces of United States coins.

Berkley Seeking Details on Bonds for New Library

BERKLEY — The city council here favors a 10-year bond issue for a proposed $1,150,000 library.

City Manager John W. Short has been instructed by the council to consult with a law firm for details.

Short estimated a library would cost taxpayers another $1 per $1,000 assessed value for 10-years.

Jeanette Marie Wood Discloses Engagement

METAMORA—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wood of Dryden, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jeanette Marie, to Robert Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gilbert.

Romeo MMPA Local Issues Statement

A statement concerning the forthcoming decision on the Fritz-versus-Michigan Milk Producers Association court case was mistakenly credited to the association rather than the Romeo Local of the MMP in Wednesday's Pontiac Press.

The statement came from Mrs. Marion M. Lloyd, secretary of the local.

Predict Celery Peak

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — Growers at the Wednesday meeting of the Michigan Celery Assn. reported that the 1956 crop will reach a peak about Aug. 15. They said storms striking Michigan early this year affected only a small percentage of the total acreage under cultivation, estimated from 3,200 to more than 5,000 acres. Most growers are featuring pascal celery.

Name Suits the Job

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Bob White is a conservation officer on the staff of the Connecticut Department of Fisheries and Game.

Should be a warm summer and fa'l.

Bob Considine Says:

U.S. Breaks Out in Rash of Political Books

NEW YORK (INS)—There's a rash of new books emerging for election - year reading. Fascinating stuff, generally.

Cornell Prof. Clinton Rossiter's provocative study "The American Presidency" has just emerged in a 35-cent Signet Key Book Edition. It's packed with facts, fables and features on Presidents past and incumbent, and the nature of their awe-inspiring job.

("Government is people and it is just as simple as that. Get good people and you have good government. That is what I have tried to do," said Dwight David Eisenhower. Harry S. Truman put it another way: "There are probably a million people in this country who could do the presidential job better than I, but I've got the job and I'm doing the very best I can.")

"The American Presidency" contains a valuable appendix, every word of the Constitution which bears on the presidency, including such dusty provisions as "when the President of the United States is tried, the chief justice shall preside."

ANOTHER VOLUME

Former newsman Lamont Buchanan has put together a lively, informative, picture - and-cartoon-filled big book for Dutton called "Ballot for Americans."

* * *

The old cartoons are more wonderful than the modern day photography. So must have been the arrival for inaugural ceremonies of Presidents of the past. George Washington's for example:

"The trip (from Mount Vernon) was a triumphal procession. Repeatedly the President-elect was forced to halt to acknowledge the greetings of his countrymen along the way.

"Reaching Elizabethtown Point, N. J., Washington was feted by a group of officials and then put aboard a splendid barge specially built for the occasion, manned by 13 pilots resplendent in white uniforms.

"Other decorated barges joined the fleet of vessels, and the whole colorful flotilla moved slowly up the bay of New York, viewed by thousands from the shore.

ROUSING WELCOME

"When Washington's barge finally landed at Murray's Wharf, a witness to that long - ago scene, writing in his diary the next day, tells us: 'Pealing bells, roaring cannon and the huzzas of people made a mixed thunder of noise that was almost frightening.'

"Long carpets were spread to a waiting carriage, but George Washington preferred to go on foot to the residence that had been prepared for him at Cherry street. As he walked, he bowed gracefully every few steps, doffing his hat to the ladies who waved and threw flowers in his path."

President Washington, who deplored political parties and won all 69 electoral votes cast in the first presidential election, would have scratched the powder out of his wig trying to figure out an article in the current issue of "Sponsor," a TV and radio trade journal.

It's a debate between two advertising men on TV's impact and responsibilities in an election year.

"In some ways the Republicans tried to sell their 1952 presidential candidate like a tube of toothpaste, and to all indications, they'll be using TV in a similar way to sell their 1956 candidate," claims Lloyd G. Whitebrook of Kastor, Farrell, Chesley and Clifford agency. Conscientious research revealed that Whitbrook is a registered Democrat.

Rosser Reeves, chairman of the board of Ted Bates Co., the man behind Ike's 1952 "spots" on TV, retorts with:

"Politicians have been using (sloganeering) announcements for time immemorial. I defy anyone to tell me what else Roosevelt said when he said, 'I see one-third of the people ill-fed, ill-clothed and ill-housed.' Or, 'I promise you again and again and again, your sons will not fight in foreign wars.'

"These are statements of belief, political philosophy or political intent. If anyone yells 'toothpaste' just because they're short, they're in essence pleading for redundancy."

Raise Hopes Just for the 'Fun' of Crushing Them

'Hoaxers' Cast Shadow Over Human Race

NEW YORK (INS) — The Peter Weinbergers of Westbury, L.I., have been tortured, humbled and persecuted by what seem to me to be the most cruel brand of criminals in existence.

* * *

The police call them "hoaxers," but the term is too tolerant.

It is like labeling a child who beats a dog to submission a "little rascal."

Nine days ago the Weinbergers' baby, 5 weeks old, was stolen from the patio by a kidnaper who left a note demanding ransom. The abductor confessed in writing that he (or conceivably she) was ashamed of the act, but urgently needed money.

This was tragedy enough.

'BIG MENTAL KILL'

But then, when the couple had almost succumbed to hysteria, fatigue and the inevitable pessimism that feeds on and grows strong under emotional exhaustion, they were set up for what could be called only the "big mental kill."

* * *

The anonymous phone calls began to come in, one by one, to offer false hope when no hope existed.

There were the voices of people who told the Weinbergers or the police that the baby was in such-and-such a spot, waiting to be picked up. Voices of others promising to return the infant, in exchange for a monetary reward.

The Weinbergers and detectives went on wild chases, following up all the leads, planting ransom money at a crossroad one night, in a car the next day.

* * *

They searched every pew in a Roman Catholic Church because a voice said the baby was there. They followed every lead that the hoax-happy torturers gave them; and each defeat was tragedy-relived.

THE CALLS CONTINUE

Inevitably, two of the "hoaxers" were arrested. One was the 27-year-old father of three children, the other a 24-year-old ex-convict. But even while they were held, the calls kept on . . .

* * *

"A hoaxer 'elevates' himself temporarily by pulling another person down to his own level of misery," a psychologist said.

* * *

There are a lot of elevated inhumans in New York these days.

Psychiatrists point out that the persons making these phone calls are invariably emotionally imbalanced humans. Possibly sadists. Undoubtedly immature.

* * *

Whatever the cause of the psychotic weakness in such people, there can be no invective strong enough to describe one who, apparently of sane mind, will revive a family's dying hopes—only for the thrill of killing them again.

* * *

Since time began, there have been crimes of passion, self-preservation, need and greed.

Horrid as they were, these were crimes committed for a reason. They were somehow understandable to some deep-buried sense of logic in the mind of men.

But the monster who hurts for the simple malicious fun of, or sense of power attained from, hurting—he is incomprehensible.

He makes me wonder, as I did in kindergarten when a boy pulled the wings off a fly, whether humans deserve to live in the same bright world with hollyhocks.

Eva Peron Reported Cremated Last Year

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — The newspaper Diario de Noticias published a story from Buenos Aires yesterday saying the body of Eva Peron, wife of Argentina's ex-President Juan D. Peron, was cremated last year and her ashes scattered over the River Plate estuary.

Mrs. Peron died of cancer July 26, 1952. Peron ordered construction of a towering monument in the base of which her body was to rest in commemoration of her work with labor organizations.

The partly finished monument was destroyed after Peron was ousted in last September's revolution. Succeeding governments never have announced what happened to Eva's body.

'We'll Lose in Air If Reds Attack,' Korean Warns

SEOUL (AP)—The chief of South Korea's air force warns that if the Communists attack again in Korea, waves of Red jets will sweep Allied air power from the skies within minutes.

"We have no way to defend ourselves against the first attack," declared Lt. Gen. Kim Chung Yul, the ROK (Republic of Korea) air force chief of staff, in an interview.

* * *

"We certainly would be faced with the difficult job of winning back control of the air."

The two 75-plane wings of F86 Sabre Jets—one ROK and one American—in Korea would offer no more than token resistance to the more than 500 MIG jets the Communists could throw into the initial assault, Kim declared.

* * *

U.S. Air Force officers said privately that the tremendous Red plane buildup, in violation of the Korean armistice, is partly responsible for the recent shift of U.S. air strength out of Korea.

There are enough standing trees in the U.S. to build a six-room house for every man, woman and child in the country.

Designers Blend Comfort, Elegance

By OLGA CURTIS

NEW YORK (INS)—A trio of fashion experts—Ben Reig, Maurice Rentner and Anthony Blotta—today agreed that comfort and elegance both have a major place in 1956 fall styles.

★ ★ ★

All three demonstrated in showings to fashion editors that clothes with new ideas can have easy-wear appeal as well.

Ben Reig, for instance, marks some of his impeccable suits and costumes with a high-waisted belt or a low-waisted banding. But the natural waistline is still the focal point for shape.

Reig also offers full skirts as well as softened sheath skirts, adding many pleated and gored skirts to suits.

Reig's evening dresses are silky and vividly colored, with a new hemline—full skirts falling to the floor in back, but cut away to show slippers in front.

Maurice Rentner likewise adopts the high-waist look but keeps the easy, natural indented waistline. Some suits have seaming or self-fabric trim at bust level. Others have jackets very slightly cut away in front under a jewel waist clasp.

Rentner's coats are dolman-sleeved this year, but remain narrow in outline. Black wool dresses and costumes add little cropped fur jackets with bloused backs—indicating the high waist look.

Anthony Blotta is doing tricks with coat and jacket sleeves. There is a cape sleeve coat with cape panels where the sleeves should be, a loose cut jacket with long sleeves, and a jacket with cape-like arm slits that "cuff" at the elbow.

Other Blotta suits, with their own chiffon blouses, feature back blousing or panel pleats.

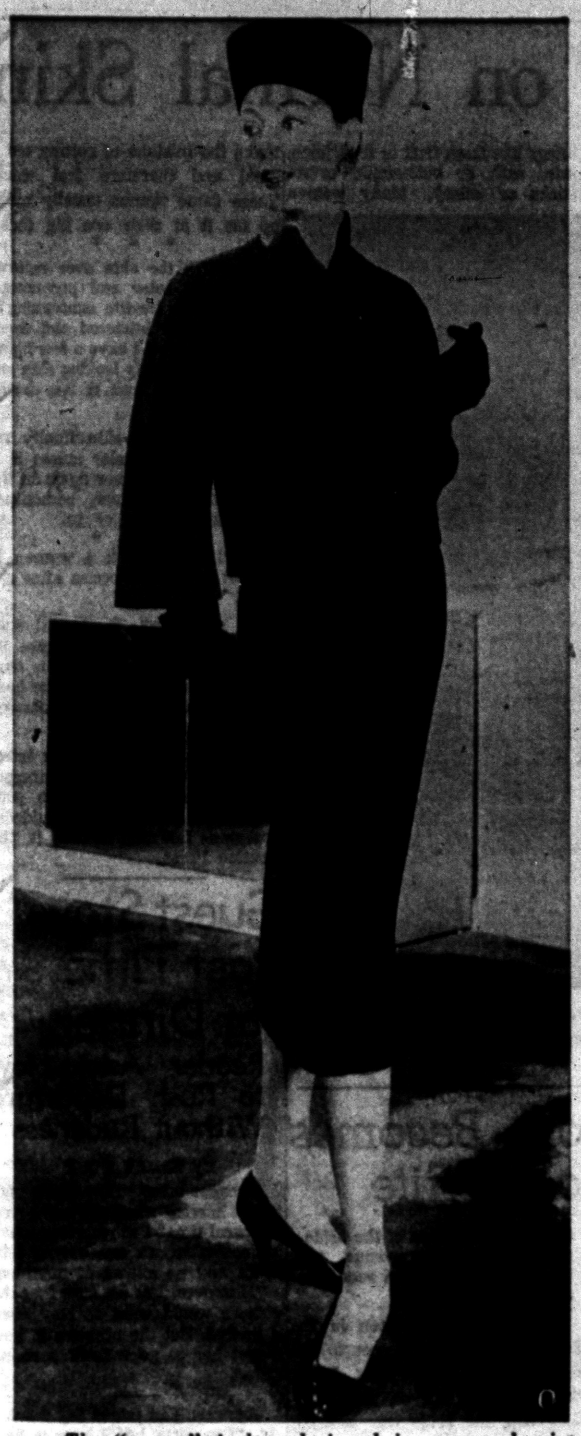
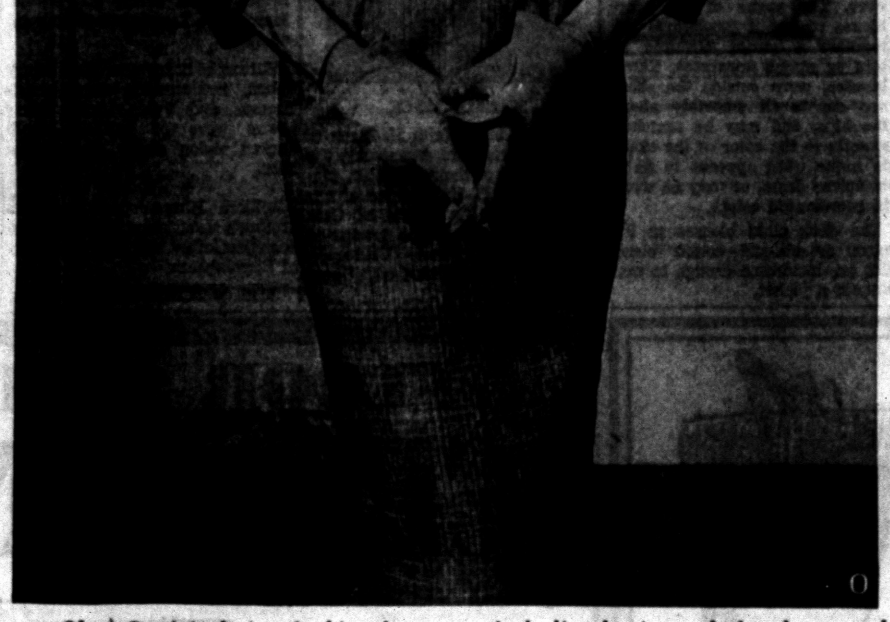
This salute to the "1912" trend is also seen in Blotta's slim day dresses, many of which carry gold chains or fob jewelry high on the bustline.



The "gentry" jacket, designed in peppered mint English tweed for an afternoon dress, comes from the fall collection of Anthony Blotta. Rounded in shape, wide neck bands button in front and cross in the center back. A green and black chiffon scarf is tucked into the V neckline of a beltless sheath.



Oleg Cassini designed this elegant shadow-checked worsted brown and beige two-piece empire costume. The double-breasted jacket covers a beige silk satin yoke bodice that is attached to the worsted skirt. Double-buttoning also marks a front waistline panel.

Ladylike Air Featured in Collection

Semifitted Dresses and Suits Styled by Adele Simpson

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Ladies should lift their chins and look proud this fall, says diminutive designer Adele Simpson, whose collection of fall fashions climaxed a crowded week of style previews for the visiting press.

• • •

There's a subtle Empire emphasis in her new suits, a new accent in her dresses and costumes, a prim and ladylike air to the entire group of fashions designed for a brilliant fall and winter season.

• • •

Notable is her wingback bolero suit with demi-belt front, shown in a series of high colors in featherweight tweeds. Says Mrs. Simpson:

"The body should be able to move freely inside the suit."

She refuses to make clothes that nip the waistline or bind the bustline, preferring instead an unaccented and semifitted line that accentuates feminine curves even more than the exaggerated cinched waists and emphasized busts of a few seasons ago.

• • •

Suits are likely to have a tiny half-belt just below the shoulder blades in back, or a bow, or a detail or tucking or stitching. Jackets are either waist or hip-bone length and skirts are uniformly slim. Fabrics are suave and sophisticated, the woolens whisper-weight, and silks rich and rustling.

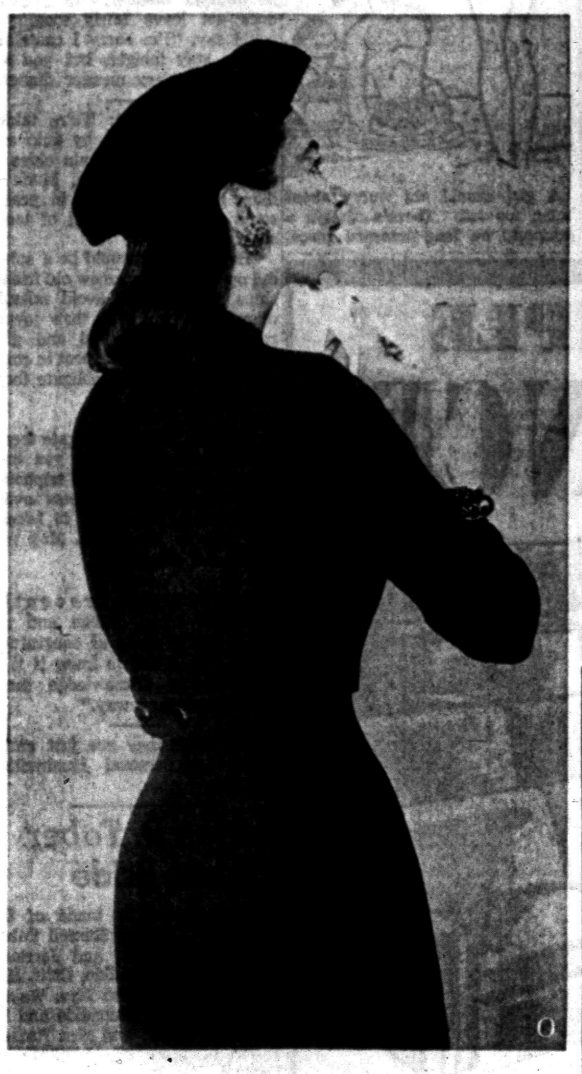
Wider, higher belts are used on daytime dresses.

• • •

The House of Hattie Carnegie carries on the tradition of the famous "Little Carnegie Suit" even though the guiding genius of the house is no longer there. Since the recent death of the dynamic little queen of the New York fashion industry, her family and staff have continued in her footsteps, turning out a collection bearing the unmistakable mark of the founder. Here again are the perfectly executed suits with surprise feminine touches, the suave afternoon dresses, the well-bred cocktail and evening clothes that always manage to anticipate a change in the fashion picture, and usually to be one step ahead.

Shadow-striped orange and black French wool designed for a fitted slim suit comes from Ben Reig's fall collection. The collar is rolled and open, and the two hip buttons match those at the jacket closing.

Flecks of pale blue mix with striped claret in this John Barr tweed town or country ensemble. From Davidow's fall collection, the suit skirt is knife-pleated. The 29-inch coat is designed with a soft round collar and slit pockets.



Anne Fogarty's sheath suit is of navy flannel. The jacket is tightly fitted at front, tautly bloused at back and belted at a higher waistline. The bared sheath has a squared V neckline.

Paris Reveals New Trend

Hoods Highlighted for Fall

PARIS (INS)—This fall we are in for a hooded season. And the "little ridinghood"—not necessarily red—is one of the coming Paris looks.

Next autumn and winter hooded coats and jackets will be the solution for hat-reluctant women who like their heads covered.

Raincoats cut in one with hoods will be smart as well as practical. Hooded cardigans will come in handy for autumn weekends in the country.

Dior now has a hooded sports sweater in his fashionable boutique. It is horizontally striped, including the hood, in red, blue, white and yellow with the hood becoming a cowl when folded back around the neck.

• • •

Designers of French ready-to-wear clothes are showing hoods on sporty as well as dressy coats for next winter.

The hoods are cut in a new intricate way so they don't look like hoods but like large draped collars when turned down. That way a woman can wear her coat with the hood up or with the hood down and a hat if she wishes.

Fur coats, too, many turn up hooded to look like glorified duffle-coats.

• • •

Since Lanvin-Castillo started the hooded evening coats last season, other Paris designers will follow up and show hooded coats in rich silks and brocades for evening wear.

Coming Events

Pine Lake Cemetery Association will meet with Mrs. Anna Ross, 2630 Orchard Lake Rd. Wednesday for a 12:30 p.m. cooperative luncheon.

Malta Temple Association will sponsor a family style roat beef dinner in the temple, 52 Perkins St. Sunday from 12 noon until 3 p.m.

News From Birmingham

Oakland Hills Plans Teenage Event

BIRMINGHAM—The second annual luncheon and fashion show at Oakland Hills Country Club for teen and post-teenage daughters of members is scheduled for July 25.

Mrs. Carl Sundberg is senior chairman of the committee under Mrs. James A. Ewing, who is the club's social chairman this year, and assistants are Mrs. Lloyd H. Diehl Jr., Sally Lawlor, Susan Sundberg and Pat Flaherty.

Models, all sub-debs, will meet for a try on and rehearsal Wednesday, followed by a Coke party.

On the day of the show, which will feature fashions from the Village Store of Birmingham, a band of renown, led by Mrs. Ewing's son, Jim Jr., will play for the style parade.

This band, composed mostly of Cranbrook students, is achieving fame under the name of Brooks Brothers Orchestra.

YOUNG VISITORS

Louise and John Gillette, children of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Gillette of Springfield, Va., are spending the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gillette of Wing Lake road. They are attending summer day camps at Cranbrook School.

• • •

Mrs. John Mead of Delray Beach, Fla., is spending a fortnight with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Mead III of Bedford road, Beverly Hills.

The Meads plan to go North to visit Mrs. Mead's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Menard, at their summer home at Point Nipigon. En route they will pick up their daughter who is attending camp at Chippewa Trails.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tod Reed of Wimbleton road will give a family luncheon Sunday following the christening of their granddaughter, Karen Melissa Reed. The very young lady is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Reed who are spending the summer here.

The ceremony will follow the morning service at St. James Episcopal Church. Sponsors will include Peggy Ann Reed and Nancy Martin of Chicago, who is Mrs. Timothy Reed's sister.

START ON TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jacobs of Ridgewood, N. J., who formerly lived in Grosse Pointe, left here Wednesday for visits in the Pointe and in Riverside, Ont., with the Lawrence P. Smiths.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs spent 10 days in Birmingham with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Willett Jr. of Pilgrim road.

• • •

The engagement of Sherrell Adams to Charles F. Spademan, son of Dr. and Mrs. Loren C. Spademan of Warren court, was recently announced in Lorain, Ohio.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don B. Adams of Lorain. She was graduated from the University of Michigan in June and Mr. Spademan will complete his course there next year.

They are planning an Aug. 17 wedding.

ARRIVES FOR VISIT

Mrs. Charles W. Lummis of Worcester, Mass., arrived Monday to visit Mrs. H. J. Stringham. Mrs. Stringham entertained at cocktails for her guest Monday evening.

Together they left on Tuesday for a motor trip through Northern Michigan to Sturgeon Point, Wis., where they will be guests of Mrs. Stringham's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Benedict, at Leatham Smith Lodge.

• • •

Sara Stringer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Stringer, is spending this week in Menasha, Wis., visiting her fiance, Fritz Heidebrand, and his parents, Dr. and Mrs. William B. Heidebrand.

Sara and Fritz will be married Aug. 11.

An entire garment should not be lined because when it is washed or cleaned the two different fabrics may react differently.

Joint Shower Held at Selmes' Home

Mrs. John Blamy and Mrs. Lavern Selmes were cohostesses at a shower Thursday evening at the Selmes home on Motorway drive.

Simplicity, Keynote to Cosmetic Use

Intricate fashions or style trends invariably call for simple makeup and hair-dos.

But with the fall fashion trend emphasizing simple flattering designs that are extremely feminine, the fashions for the face change to a more glamorous, truly feminine look. A rich ruby red is more glamorous than the fashion lipstick shades of previous seasons.

Volunteer Bureau Board Outlines Plans for Future

Fall speaking engagements, recruitment month, awards, policies, agency requests and an evaluation all received consideration when the board of the Central Volunteer Bureau met Thursday at the YWCA.

Service and social organizations will be hearing board members September is the annual re-explain the function of the bureau at their early fall meeting.

Requests for speakers may be sent to Mrs. William A. Shunck or to the Central Volunteer Bureau, located in the Pontiac Area United Fund offices.

Mrs. M. D. Shelton was appointed by Mrs. Ralph Bump, chairman of the bureau, to make an overall study of the CVB, its functions and results to date. Robert Jegole of the Catholic Family Center is the new board member representing the agencies.

cruitment month for the bureau. An extensive drive will be made at that time to register new volunteers.

MOTOR AIDES

However, current requests from agencies include an immediate need for a large number of motor aides. They are needed Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. to transport children throughout the county.

Volunteers should be over 18 years of age. They will be assigned a specific day to be on call for "spur of the moment" transportation.

Many, many volunteers capable of doing clerical work, dictaphone typing, and so on, are needed by several agencies. They may sign up for a few hours per week, or for one or more days each week.

There are many openings for teachers and nurses who have some spare time. Program consultants—those with some craft skills — and committee members are needed by the youth groups.

Swimmers, field trip workers, square dance instructors, musicians and party planners are also on the request lists. Others are needed to visit with convalescing patients.

Call the Central Volunteer Bureau if you can volunteer for one of these openings.

Skirts and Blouses Clothes Answer

First requirement for the well-dressed working girl is a good supply of blouses and skirts.

Smart girls on a budget have learned that the trick of a versatile wardrobe is to go in for separates, which can be switched around

This year blouses are more colorful and interesting than ever. The vogue of the over-blouse makes it possible to put together a smart costume in mix or match separates. These blouses, worn outside the skirt, are cut to fit smoothly about the hips, and may be matched exactly to the color of the skirt, to make what appears to be a two-piece dress, or may be worn in coordinated colors.

The dark plaid blouses in fine cotton or silk-and-cotton blends also are handsome enough to wear without a jacket.

Use Soap, Water on Normal Skin

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "Is there any good book on skin care?"

A. I am sure that there are many, but right now I will give you a few of the main tenets. Cleanliness: If your skin is normal use soap and water twice a day. If you are an adolescent use these four times a day. If you are past 35 and you probably will need a lubricating cream daily.

If your skin is oily, use only soap and water, no creams, on it. Use an astringent after cleansing. If it is very dry do not use soap and water at all. Cleanse it with a cleansing cream and also employ a lubricating cream. Use no astringents.

Remember that nutrition and exercise, emotional states and the general state of health affect the skin drastically.

* * *

Q. "Does a weekly application of vegetable hair rinse harm the hair? Mine has been coming out badly recently."

A. No, not unless you are allergic to it, and this is seldom true of a rinse. It is often true when dye is used.

* * *

Q. "I need to lose weight but when I diet I become very weak. Why is this?"

A. There is a certain feeling of hollowness when you first diet after eating much more than you should have for many years. However, you probably are dieting incorrectly. Eat three meals a day with some in-between snacks. Count all of this in on your daily calorie intake.

Make your in-between snacks things like fresh fruit or fruit juice, skim milk or buttermilk, carrot sticks or celery. Many women make the mistake of cutting out a meal and therefore feel weak. These same women usually make up for it at their one big meal.

If your skin is very dry, do not use soap and water at all. Cleanse it with a cleansing cream and also employ a lubricating cream.

* * *

Q. "Will the skin ever return to normal color and pigmentation after a terrific suntanning? My skin was blistered and then peeled off. Now I have a few light freckles and dirty looking skin on my shoulders and it has been months."

A. Usually the skin finally returns to normal color unless it is treated over and over again in the same way. However, sometimes this takes a year or so.

Q. "Do you think a woman is too old to begin exercise after she is 30?"

A. Don't make me laugh! She is never too old to exercise if she takes the right kind for her condition and age unless she has some organic or systemic abnormality.

If you would like my six introductory exercises send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 25. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

MARITA MACK

Mr. and Mrs. Keith H. Mack of Oakshire drive are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Marita, to Jack L. Hruska, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Hruska of Cass Lake road. The couple graduated from Michigan State University where he was affiliated with Theta Chi fraternity.

Donna M. Rose Becomes Bride in St. Michael Rite

Donna Marlene Rose became the bride of Daniel James Himmelspach Saturday at St. Michael Church. The 11:30 o'clock ceremony was witnessed by 250 guests.

* * *

The bridal gown of Point d'Esprit was fashioned with a scalloped portrait neckline, short sleeves and a full tiered, hooped skirt. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught by a cap of embroidered organdy trimmed with seed paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil T. Rose of Euclid avenue are parents of the bride. Daniel is the nephew of Marguerite Levengood of Norton avenue.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Henry Felice. Bridesmaids were Nancy Thomas and Valda Wood. Their gowns were of ballerina-length flocked nylon sheer in rainbow hues.

* * *

William Himmelspach was his brother's best man. Ushers were John McGaffey and Dah McGaffey of Birmingham.

The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bridegroom on Norton avenue, followed by an afternoon reception at St. Michael Hall.

Following a honeymoon in the Southeastern states, the couple will reside in Drayton Plains. When the newlyweds left on their wedding trip, the bride was wearing a blue and white print silk cotton with white accessories.

Guest Stays Past Time for Dinner

Reader Asks How to Rush Departure Without Rudeness

By EMILY POST

A reader asks: "How can a visitor be hurried when she stays past our meal time? I'm referring to occasions when we are having leftovers and no extras of anything.

"Moreover, I'm not sure that the visitors would want to stay even if invited. But the problem is how to get her to go without seeming rude."

Answer: You might say frankly, "I'm sorry but I have to begin getting dinner ready. Will you come into the kitchen with me?" The chances are certainly in favor of her saying she didn't know it was so late and taking her leave.

If, on the other hand, she does go into the kitchen with you and does not leave fairly soon, you could say, "I'm sorry I can't ask you to stay tonight, but you see we have a very meager dinner."

"Dear Mrs. Post: We're taking a cross-country trip by auto and will pass through certain cities in which we have friends. Much of them we haven't seen in years; some we have been out of touch with.

"But I think it would be a splendid opportunity to renew old friendships. To try and avoid missing them when we're in their towns, could we write ahead and give some idea when we expect to come through? Would this obligate them to anything?"

Answer: It would obligate them very much. Wait until you are there, call them on the telphone and say, "We're stopping over here for a few days, to break our trip to the coast. May we come and see you?"

"Dear Mrs. Post: I recently graduated from college and received many cards of congratulation. I would like to know if it is necessary to acknowledge these messages in any way."

Answer: If they are just cards without a personal handwritten message, no.

James R. Taber Claims Bride

Announcement is made of the marriage of James Russell Taber of Morrison, Colo., and Jerriann Hannegan of Escondido, Calif. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne T. Hannegan of Escondido and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Taber of Morrison, formerly of Pontiac.

Committee Chairmen Are Appointed for 'High Fever Follies'

General Hospital Benefit Will Be Staged Oct. 24-25

'Kick-Off Talent Party' Scheduled for Oct. 2 in Savings and Loan Building

Things are really getting under way for the "High Fever Follies" of 1956. Committee chairmen have been named and everyone has instructions, in preparation for the big days ahead.

* * *

The "Kick-Off Talent Party" is slated for Oct. 2 and performance dates are Oct. 24 and 25. Sponsor of the affair is the Auxiliary to Pontiac General Hospital.

Housing Chairman Mrs. Orrin Huntoon has reserved Pontiac High School auditorium for the event., Talent Party Chairman Mrs. Robert Shorey has announced that the opening party will be held in the Civic Room of Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building.

An executive board has been selected to supervise the project. Included are Mrs. D. R. Wilson, John Bell, John Hirlinger, Lauretta Paul, Elmer R. Pettengill and Mrs. William J. Dean.

* * *

Others are William P. Babcock, Mrs. P. Eugene Miller, Mrs. Harold A. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Leo Heenan and Mrs. Harold Tripp.

SUPERVISING FOLLIES

General chairman of the Follies is Mrs. John Nicolls. She has appointed Mrs. Robinson Bronoel and Mrs. William Merrill as talent chairmen.

* * *

Robert Miller and John Bell will arrange the "Chief Pontiac" contest, and Mrs. Leland A. Clemence will handle publicity.

Mrs. Charles Crawford and Mrs. Raymond Rapaport are handling tickets. Mrs. Dexter Kennedy and Mrs. Jack Hale are in charge of patrons.

Finance will be directed by Mrs. Ralph Babbington, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shorey are cochairmen of the Kick-Off Talent Party. The final cabaret party will be arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vernon and Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy.

* * *

Properties are the project of Mr. and Mrs. Garth Sayers, with Mr. and Mrs. Noyce Strait as program chairmen. Music is under the supervision of Mrs. George Boyd.

ALSO ASSISTING

Other committees include photography, Mrs. F. R. Wood; costume, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tillson; makeup, Pat Stites; housing, Mrs. Orrin Huntoon; ushers, Mrs. Collis Scott; courtesies, Mrs. L. Raymond Sampson; and stage manager, William Merrill.

A meeting will be held Aug. 23 at 1:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Nicolls on Sylvan Shores drive for all committee chairmen.

Plenty of Sleep Biggest Asset to Keep Beauty

Rest is so vital to beauty that it seems silly to have to point this fact out again and again.

Yet recently several women have mentioned that they knew they looked sallow, yet simply couldn't understand why, when they had custom-mixed cosmetics. Two others were at a loss to understand brand-new wrinkles under their eyes.

* * *

Cheating on sleep can never be compensated for by cosmetics, foods, drugs, coffee or ice packs. Sleep is like air—there isn't anything else that will do.

Sleeping may run in cycles. A woman may need more in the winter than in the summer. Or she may sleep less soundly in the summer and find she is fatigued. A woman may be more tired just before her menstrual period, or during it. A woman definitely needs more when she's pregnant or just after she's had the baby.

* * *

It is possible to sleep one's self into a state of stupor, when one never gets up and tends to business. But a decent allowance of sleep, whatever one needs, is the basis for any beauty development.

Aside from the women who feel they "can't" sleep, there are many potentially beautiful women who cheat themselves by skimping on sleep or doing just one more task before falling into bed at one a. m.

Cover Sun Marks With Make-Up

Where goggly eyes, caused by wearing sunglasses, need to be made up to match the rest of a sunburned face, concentrate your makeup foundation.

If the face is so red that the circles under your eyes remain pale still, heighten the color to match by blending in a small amount of fluid or dry rouge. Powder will complete the blending.

ELAINE HAMILTON

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Hamilton of North Hillsdale drive announce the engagement of their daughter, Elaine, to Joseph F. Kosik of Mohawk road, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kosik of Fairgrove. He is a graduate of U. of M. Law School. A Sept. 8 wedding is planned.

Carole Lewis Announces Bridal Party at Shower

Mrs. John Paddock and Mrs. Adolph Magnus were cohostesses at a bridal shower Wednesday evening honoring Carole Lewis. The Magnus home on Brookside drive was the setting for the affair.

Carole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Omer W. Lewis of Woodbine drive, will become the bride of Eugene D. Thompson in a ceremony to be performed Aug. 4. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson of Hershey drive.

The bride-elect chose this occasion to announce her bridal attendants. Frances Bohlman of Auburn Heights, a college roommate, will serve as her maid of honor.

Joan Amburn and Mrs. Darrell Whitaker of Dover, Del., cousins of the bride, will be bridesmaids.

* * *

Eugene has asked Robert Graham to serve as best man. Seating the guests will be John Boaz, Robert Wright, George Morse and Norman Patton.

Invited to the shower were Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Clarence Saunders, Mrs. John Ball, Mrs. William Garner, Mrs. Hugh Hales, Mrs. Marie Rickner, Mrs. Floyd Schoonover, Mrs. Milo Cross, Mrs. Floyd Short, Mrs. William Emerson, Mrs. John Main and Mrs. Vere Hodges.

Completing the guest list were Mrs. Ericson Lewis, Mrs. Robert Newill, Mrs. George Newton, Mrs. Clifford Steffey, Mrs. Byron Cole, Mrs. Elmer MacLean, Mrs. William Kuklinski, Mrs. Lola Burrell, Mrs. O. M. Amburn, Gerry Paddock and Barbara Magnus.

Add sparkle and charm to your favorite upholstered chair with this lovely filet chair set. You'll find this design fascinating to crochet.

Pattern No. 2444 contains crochet directions; stitch illustrations; filet charts.

Send 25c in coins, your name, address and the pattern number to Anne Cabot, Pontiac Press, 372 W. Quincy St., Chicago 6, Ill.

Now available—the colorful 1956 Needlework Album containing dozens of lovely designs from which to choose more patterns in crochet, embroidery and knit — plus three gift patterns, directions printed in book. Only 25c a copy!

Don't Be Too Eager

The important point about sun concoctions is that you should not be too eager to get your tan even though you wear sun protection. Give yourself time and plan your exposures so that you build up your tan gradually.

Tender Rolls Are Made in Two Hours

Mrs. Galbraith's Cinnamon Twirls Use Sour Cream

By JANET ODELL

You'll consider it your lucky day when you try this recipe for Mrs. Clinton Galbraith's Sour Cream Rolls.

Mrs. Galbraith is a teacher in the Waterford schools. She is an active member of the AAUW. In her leisure hours she enjoys reading, music and some gardening.

SOUR CREAM ROLLS
By Mrs. Clinton Galbraith

1 cup sour cream, heated
3 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons margarine
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon baking soda
1 beaten egg
1 package yeast, dissolved in ¼ cup lukewarm water
3 cups sifted flour

Add sugar, margarine, salt and soda to hot cream. Let cool. Add rest of ingredients. Cover with a damp cloth and let stand for 5 minutes.

Roll into rectangular shape. Brush with butter or margarine and cover with 1/3 cup brown sugar and 1 teaspoon cinnamon mixed. Roll like a jelly roll and slice in 1 inch slices. Place in muffin tins, cut side up.

Cover with a damp cloth and let rise 1 hour. Bake 12 minutes in a 375-degree oven. These rolls may be frosted with a mixture of 2 tablespoons milk and 2 teaspoons sugar. Makes about 24.

Study Your Goal

If your summer vacation still lies ahead, a little thought about basic clothes requirements can avert sartorial problems later on. Give thought to the type of place you'll be visiting, the climate there, and to what you'll be doing when you get there. From this you should gather a pretty good idea of your basic requirements — and what you'll need for specific occasions.

JANET VAN WAGONER

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Van Wagoner of Oxford announce th engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Janet, to Charles Baty, son of the Horace Batys of Niches, Tex. An August 4 wedding is planned.

In Miss Universe Contest

Brunettes Hold 2-1 Edge

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Brunettes outnumber blondes by more than 2-1 among the contestants gathering for the Miss Universe beauty contest.

Sharp-eyed observers, and this Navy base town is full of them, counted 40 brunettes, 17 blondes and 8 redheads among the entrants already on hand. A total of 74 girls will take part.

Blondes can take comfort, however, in the fact that last year the two top titles, Miss Universe and Miss United States, went to fair - tressed beauties, and the year before blonde Miriam Stevenson of South Carolina won both titles.

In fact, the only brunette to become Miss Universe in the four years the contest has been held was Christiane Martel of France in 1953.

The final batch of beauties is due to arrive today but the first big event on the program won't be until Sunday when the Miss Universe parade will give the public its first chance to see all the contestants.

Fifteen finalists for the Miss Universe title will be chosen Thursday and the winner crowned on Friday.

Would You Like a Larger Diamond?
. . . Sure, Most Everyone Would!
CONNOLLY'S will take your diamond in trade on a larger diamond, allowing you the full amount that it would sell for today.
You may, in fact, receive more for it in trade than you actually paid . . . proof that diamonds are always a good, sound investment. Fortunately, unlike other commodities, there is no such thing as a used diamond. For, over a period of years, diamonds always increase in value. Therefore, diamonds are considered one of the safest of investments.
Bring your diamond in for an estimate today . . . and we'll gladly advise you in selecting a larger diamond if you desire . . . free of obligation, of course.
If you know the size of your diamond you can pretty nearly determine the trade-in allowance by using the price chart below. This chart, too, will help you determine the larger size diamond you can best afford.
We list below five of our most popular grades, showing our everyday prices.

CONNOLLY'S Is Your SAFEGUARD
With every Connolly's diamond purchased, you receive a written guarantee of valuation describing your diamond in complete detail. This certificate also states that Connolly's will allow full purchase price on a more expensive diamond . . . at any time in the future!

Just 16 Words Can Win Prize in Pot-O-Gold!

You have a chance to match your wits against those of the experts in the Press' summer word game POT-O-GOLD, the seventh of which appears below. Compiled by some of the top puzzle-makers in the country, POT-O-GOLD is a challenging contest in which words are made to fit the clues given below the blank. Read the rules, fill in the empty spaces and send us your entry by the specified deadline. Good luck on the $100 weekly prize!

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conform to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.

2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answer words in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 7 must bear a Tuesday, July 17, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time, whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner, no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end, Labor Day. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries become the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Elvis Acts That Way for a Reason---Money

NEW ORLEANS (INS) — Elvis "The Pelvis" Presley, the Mississippi hip-swinger who parlayed an affected stutter and a guitar into fame and fortune, relies on simple economics to defend his style of singing.

The 21-year-old high priest of rock 'n' roll paid homage to the almighty dollar as the prime reason he and other rock 'n' rollers perpetrate the teenage music craze.

"I'm in this business to make money," he said. "And if the kids like the way I sing and are willing to pay to hear me then I'll go right on doing it."

Presley, during a stopover in New Orleans en route to Florida for a vacation, said that before he attained success he used to "lie awake at nights wondering what to do with myself." He explained:

NEVER DREAMED IT

"I never in wildest dreams thought I'd be making as much money as I am now. I wasn't trained for anything and I didn't have much schooling."

Presley, ex-truck driver from Tupelo, Miss., refused to tell how much his warbling has netted, but pointed out he owns four Cadillacs.

The long-haired singer of very "short-hair" music also defended rock 'n' roll in its own right, saying:

"I can't see why people think rock 'n' roll contributes to juvenile delinquency. It's no worse than the waltz, or the fox trot or jazz.

If rock 'n roll were "bad' his parents would not have allowed him to sing in that style. He asserted:

"I come from a very respectable family and if they thought rock 'n' roll was vulgar and indecent I wouldn't be singing it now."

"I think rock n' roll makes as much sense as any other type of music," he continued. "There really are some pretty lyrics in the style. I'll tell you what I don't understand, I don't understand jazz, especially that 'progressive' kind."

"As for me, I like all kinds of music even that highbrow stuff, you know, like Mario Lanza sings," he concluded.

'Not Quite a Tornado,' 2 Hurt

Winds, Hail Rip Oklahoma

NORTH MIAMI, Okla. (AP) — Residents of this tiny northeast Oklahoma town today began cleaning up operations as the aftermath of a wind and hail storm that whipped in from the southwest at twilight yesterday, injuring two persons.

The wind's violence led some persons in this Ottawa County town of 500 to call it a tornado but the U. S. Weather Bureau at Tulsa said its radar screen showed "good echoes" in the area but not a twister. A tornado smashed a section of Miami, Okla., two miles to the south, last April 3.

A half-dozen homes were nearly demolished and many others hard hit. Several business houses were severely damaged. The state highway patrol estimated 78 homes damaged in this area and at Commerce, a city of about 1,500 five miles north near the Oklahoma-Kansas line.

Commerce, home town of New York Yankee Mickey Mantle, received less damage than North Miami from the winds and there were no reports of injuries there. Mrs. Oliver Jones, 75, was hospitalized with a broken shoulder and abrasions and suffered shock. Ruth Ester Chapman, '14, was treated for deep lacerations and released.

Two Royal Oakers Fined on Drinking Charges

Two Royal Oak men were fined $15 and paid court costs of $10 each for drinking on a highway yesterday.

George M. McClintock, 52, and Ronald G. Hambleton, 40, pleaded guilty to the charge at an arraignment before West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Dieterle.

50 Million Frenchmen Can't Be Wrong

Bardot: Pixie With Glamour

This is the fourth of a series of six articles by Joe Hyams, Hollywood correspondent of the New York Herald Tribune, who has interviewed Europe's top feminine movie stars to find out the secret of the charm of the European woman.

By JOE HYAMS

The leading glamour girl of France today is a little blonde with the face and the dancing talent of Leslie Caron, the peekaboo hair style of Veronica Lake and the amoral appeal of the heroine of "Bonjour Tristesse."

Her name is Brigitte Bardot and in films she usually plays a gypsy beauty struggling to break through the bounds of traditional French morality

Miss Bardot, who was a model at 13 and a professional dancer at fourteen, has made 15 pictures in the last three years. Her face and figure have been on the cover of every important French magazine and she has a tremendously loyal fan following.

On screen she is the magic mirror in which French youth sees itself. Her personal idol is the late James Dean and her own fans, male and female, seem to identify with her as closely as American youth identified itself with Mr. Dean.

CARELESS BEAUTY

Off screen Miss Bardot, who is 21, is a shy introverted young lady who proudly boasts that she has never been to a beauty parlor or a hairdresser — and looks the worse for it.

She has long shoulder-length blonde hair which she uses as a hedge when she feels shy and as a prop when she poses for pictures. When she wants to appear demure she piles the hair on top of her head or pigtails it. When she wants to appear sexy she nibbles on a few strands or half hides behind it.

She owns no comb and has no need for one. "Fingers were invented first," she says.

The only time she wears undergarments is when there is a stiff breeze blowing and she refuses to wear any dress or blouse which will hide her shoulders.

COLT IN PASTURE

I first saw her informally on the waterfront in St. Tropez, where she greeted friends at a sidewalk cafe. She was wearing tight blue jeans, a low cut Basque shirt, no shoes and no makeup. She was as easy in her movements as a young boy. She seemed as unaware of herself as a colt in pasture.

When she learned she was to pose for pictures, Miss Bardot disappeared. A few mintues later she returned wearing a tight fitting, off-the-shoulder dress of vivid orange. It destroyed any comparison of her figure with that of a boy.

She has a fantastically small waist (18") and a comparative large bust (36"), with slim hips (34"). The only jewelry she wore was a gold snake which encircled her right arm.

Miss Bardot could have been transplanted from the beach at St. Tropez to Greenwich Village in New York without missing a beat.

HAIR IS FRAME

During the sitting Miss Bardot asked for a mirror and proceeded to finger-comb her hair. She took many poses within the range of two expressions: open-mouthed surprise and a pout. Her hair was used as a frame for her face in all the poses.

After the sitting, Miss Bardot joined me at lunch. Her English is not very good, but she said she is "working on it" in the hope of making a film in America.

She made no attempt to be glamorous or coy, either in her appearance or in answers to my questions.

She said she believed her popularity in France stemmed from the fact that she is a typical French girl. "I am the kind of girl every man in France has a chance to meet," she said. "I play myself in films. I am not good enough to play something else. That is why I like simple, wild and sexy parts."

CAREER IS FAIRY TALE

She seemed indifferent about her career. "I can be replaced by some one else with the same set of dimensions," she said. "I don't care. It's all a fairy tale and like a fairy tale it will some day have an ending. I hope it's a happy one."

How long does she think she can last, playing herself? "I would like to stop acting when I am old — thirty-five. I don't want to play old women. Perhaps I will be lucky and last that long. Perhaps not."

Miss Bardot said she keeps her hair long because she believes that long hair is beautiful and men think it sexy. She uses only eye makeup because she considers eyes the most important part of the face.

"It is not how they look that is important, it is what they say," she said. "But to get a man to look for the message, you must first attract his attention to the eyes. He will see mirrored there what is in his own thoughts."

BRIGITTE BARDOT—In France they say 'Ou la la.'

COUNTY DIVER — The addition of skin diver Bill Jackson has doubled the efficiency of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department in recovering drowning victims over the past year. He has recovered six bodies from county lakes, four since becoming a deputy. Jackson is shown above resting during a diving operation through the ice at Cooley Lake last March. He found the victim a short time later.

Skin-Diver Unique Among State's Lawmen

Deputy Dives a Chilly 'Beat'

Ask most lawmen what items they regard as tools of their trade and they'll probably pick a gun and a fast car.

But not Thomas (Bill) Jackson Jr. — his choice would be an aqualung, face plate and flippers, for besides being a deputy in the Oakland County Sheriff's Dept. Bill also bears the unique classification of skin-diver.

JACKSON

And he is as good at his job as any expert marksman — you can ask Sheriff Frank Irons about that. He'll tell you that Jackson is a valuable man, especially in a county that had 16 drownings this year alone.

According to Irons, the 31-year-old Waterford Township resident has, in the year he has been with the department, improved the county's efficiency in handling drownings a great deal.

Jackson has so far recovered four drowning victims since going to work for the county. He is currently searching the bottom of Cass Lake for the body of a victim who drowned last Sunday.

The combination of diving and dragging know-how gives Oakland County one of the outstanding recovery systems in the state. Jackson is the first skin diver ever to be hired by a county as a deputy in Michigan, according to Sheriff Irons.

A former high school and YMCA swimmer, and lake lifeguard, Bill likes his job and says diving has saved the county a great deal in time and money over the past year. He cites his recovery of a man from under the ice last March as an example.

He has been diving with complete gear for four years and started going under with fins and a mask to look at fish way back in 1939.

"I kind of hate to instruct or encourage anyone because it can be dangerous," says Bill about the many requests he receives for advice.

Some of the points stressed by Jackson to would-be divers are the reading of authoritative literature on the subject, taking of a life saving course, purchase of reliable equipment with good safety reserve features, and good health.

He also warns against wearing homemade equipment or diving alone. "Divers should stay above 50 feet until they have adequate experience. Many have the proper gear but lack the experience," Bill explained.

Jackson discourages all such persons from attempting to aid at drownings because "they are usually not used to the depths and are in danger themselves."

Completely devoted to his profession Bill is constantly experimenting and studying books on the subject and keeps active doing commercial diving in off hours.

His wife, Peg, summed it up with the remark: "He's part fish." This mother of three growing youngsters previously aided Bill on dives before he joined the Sheriff's Department. "She knows as much about diving as most anyone I know," Jackson says.

Jackson maintains that the majority of drownings are caused by people leaving overturned boats. "A swamped boat will hold 8 or 10 persons up indefinitely if they hold on," exclaims Bill.

Jackson looks like a man from Mars when he gets all dressed in his rubber suit with an air tank and other equipment.

Although he carries about 50 pounds, he is able to move easily and work effectively on muddy bottoms. His search always begins at the bottom and a pattern is established from there.

He says the hazards are many, such as getting stuck under logs or caught in weeds but points out you can overcome such scares by "keeping your head." Bill calls winter the most dangerous season.

Bill plans to go on diving the rest of his life and says the underwater activity is not injurious to health over a period of years as many people believe.

What's in a Name? The Credit Bureau Can Tell You Up to the Last Decimal

You can't hide a thing from the Pontiac Credit Bureau.

Inside the ivy-covered walls of the brick building at 333 N. Perry St. is enough information to help or hinder the activities—and not just buying power—of some 250,000 people, most of whom reside or work in Northern Oakland County.

This information is made available to 400 members of the local member of the Associated Credit Bureaus of America. Membership in the local bureau ranges from small county meat markets to big-business corporations and city banks.

Let's say you walk into a market and ask to open an account. Even though the owner doesn't "know you from Adam," all he has to do is telephone the Pontiac Credit Bureau and in 98 chances out of 100 he's got you pegged in a jiffy.

The bureau serves also many businesses from coast to coast. Some well-known corporation official journeys to the West Coast and rents a luxurious room at $75 a day. The hotel manager doesn't know the name so he calls or wires Pontiac.

Are you wondering whether you are one of the quarter-million individuals on file in the bureau? If you ever got into a tangle with the law, applied for a marriage license, or had your name in The Pontiac Press, you undoubtedly are on file.

"We act on the theory that everybody is a potential credit seeker or whose name will have some bearing on credit," Francis L. Miller, general manager of the office, explained.

This information—classified confidential—is not hard to compile, Miller added. It is obtained by phone, letter, and personal contact with friends and neighbors.

It contains your name, any aliases, all recent addresses, dependents, when you were married and where, arrests and convictions if any, how many payments you have made on your home, and other pertinent data.

A quick phone call to the bureau can tell an individual how you stand with payments to other companies and stores.

Although the bureau is used primarily by its 400 members, nonmembers may secure information after they sign a contract and are thoroughly interviewed as to the intent of the information.

"We have had fathers checking on their future son-in-law and girl friends checking on their boy friends," Miller said. "You should have seen the look on one girl's face when we told her her beau had been married previously."

If an employer is puzzled as to which applicant for a job to choose, information from the bureau may help him decide.

File case after file case contains the cards which are filed according to a unique system. And Miller warned it wouldn't do any good for someone to break-in and attempt to destroy his card, because he could never find it.

The staff of the bureau numbers 36—27 women and nine men. The women are constantly busy pulling files and releasing information over the phone to a member.

The woman at the switchboard clips daily copies of The Pontiac Press of stories containing names for which the bureau may have some need in the future.

10,000 Tourists Leave New York in One Day

NEW YORK (AP) — Six transatlantic liners steamed down the Hudson River yesterday carrying more than 6,000 passengers to Europe.

Including four passenger ships which sailed yesterday with 4,038 travelers, the 10 ships gave the New York port one of its busiest 24 hours in its history.

The giant Queen Elizabeth led the parade followed by the Guilio Cesare, the Brittanic, the Flandre, the New York and the Ryndam.

Sailing Wednesday were the Independence, the Italia, Kungsholm and Mauretania.

To Display Big Bills

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Visitors at old Kent Bank's remodeled main office will have more to view than just new furnishings next week. Bank officials said a $10,000 bill, a $5,000 bill, other large currency and old-style bank notes will be on display July 19 during "open house" tours.

Big Buildup on Mainland

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The Nationalist Defense Ministry today said the Chinese Communists have stationed 70,000 more troops in Fukien province opposite the offshore islands of Quemoy and Formosa.

Fishing Was Fine Till Fin Finished It

WAHOO, Neb. (AP)—Larry Eads, 13, got his fish all right—but it's a question whether he caught the fish or the fish caught him.

* * *

Larry spied a pound and a half carp in shallow water and grabbed it with his bare hands.

A fin penetrated his left palm and he had to hold it tightly with his right hand while the Wahoo fire department first aid squad, summoned from a farm house by a pal, made a quarter mile run and a squad member cut the fin from the fish. Then a doctor cut the fin from Larry.

In 1900, the median age at which men married was 25.9 years and for women, 21.9 years.

Nazareth in Israel has had its first modern water supply system only a short time.

The bow and arrow had not been invented by the first men to reach America, scientists believe.

Hal Boyle Says:

Business Executives Are Heroes of Today

NEW YORK (AP)—Fashions in heroes change, just as women's styles do.

* * *

In bad financial times the big hero is the politican who makes the most golden promises.

* * *

In war times the military leader is top dog as long as he wins.

* * *

But in boom times the hero is the industrial tycoon. He becomes an oracle consulted on all topics and it is assumed that, since he is smart enough to make a lot of money, he also must know how to cure warts and predict the weather.

At the moment the business executive is riding on a tidal wave of popularity that puts him higher in public esteem than either Lassie or Gene Autry. If an executive could be found who could also sing like Elvis Presley, nothing could keep him from the White House.

In dozens of recent plays, books and TV dramas the businessman has been built up as a rugged, resourceful, tough - fighting hero with a two-fisted mind.

He is portrayed as a kind of Roy Rogers or Hopalong Cassidy with a brief case. He is brisk, brusque and competitive. He never rides to head off the rustlers at Eagle Pass, but he is willing at any moment to sacrifice everything else in life for "the good of his company."

He invariably is tall with strongly chiseled features, and works feverishly late at night at his office to complete his plan for building a better bridge or drafting a new sales campaign to market a better mouthwash. Modern business is pictured as jungle fierce—only the strong can survive.

* * *

Just how does this literary portrayal of our new-type hero compare with the average real-life executive?

Well, fairly close. That is, if you take the executives' own word for it—and assume they haven't seen so many TV business dramas themselves that they have unconsciously patterned themselves after the video heroes of office and factory.

* * *

The ordinary working man has perhaps an ineradicable belief that the average executive has an easy life—that he gets most of his chores done on the golf links or during three - hour, four - martini lunches.

But the executives themselves claim they put more hours at their desks than their hired hands do.

* * *

The average work week is about 40 hours. But a survey by the American Management Assn. showed that corporation presidents work 51 hours, vice presidents 52 hours and department heads about 48 hours.

The rewards of the executives are obvious. They get higher salaries, bigger pensions and bonuses, stock deals and many extra fringe benefits denied the janitor.

* * *

But what about the price they pay for their prominence?

* * *

The mental urgency of their jobs seems to exact a hidden toll in terms of health. A check of 600 corporation executives by two Chicago doctors showed that 55.6 per cent of the men and 64 per cent of the women were suffering from ailments they didn't know they had.

They were afflicted with 25 diseases, including 48 cases of high blood pressure, 37 of heart disease and a case of tuberculosis. Oddly, the checkup showed only a couple of ulcers but a surprising 112 hernias. Now there's a real mystery for a medical detective to solve.

* * *

Do you want to become a business executive yourself? Well, now is the time to prepare. The field is full of aging heroes.

It has been estimated that 42 per cent of the executives active today are within 10 years or less of 65, the usual retirement age.

LOCKER ROOM SCENE — Gwen Verdon, carrot-topped dancing star, tries to turn the head of Stephen Douglass in "Damn Yankees," one of the five plays members of The Pontiac Press Theater Special will see during their trip to New York City in September. The smash musical tells the story of a Washington Senators fan who options his soul to the devil to win the league pennant away from the New York Yankees.

Hollywood Headlines

Dorothy Collins' Contract Now Allows Movie Roles

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Certainly imposing is the list of the first four pictures George Sidney will make for the George Sidney Productions at Columbia.

He'll direct the much discussed "Andersonville," "The Jeanne Eagles Story" starring Kim Novak, "Pal Joey" with Rita Hayworth, Kim Novak and Frank Sinatra, and "The Great Sebastians," the Lunt and Fontainne play, with Judy Holliday in the lead.

The first of the four to be made is "The Jeanne Eagles Story," which goes in October. The deal George has with Columbia is a fabulous one. He gets a percentage on all films with which he is associated. His success with "The Eddy Duchin Story" is responsible for this.

Singer Dorothy Collins of "Hit Parade" fame on TV has paid visits to 20th, Paramount and MGM to say that she is available to make a picture under her new contract. She opens at the Thunderbird in Las Vegas next week.

Dorothy has had so many offers, but could never accept them because under her TV contract she exclusively belonged to "Hit Parade." Under her new contract she has a right to withdraw from her TV show for eight weeks anytime during the year to make a picture.

MORE INCREDIBLE

To make the incredible story of Robert Briscoe, the first Jew ever to be elected lord mayor of Dublin, even more astounding—it's none other than Irishman Robert Ryan who has the inside to bring Briscoe's inspiring story to the screen.

Bob, who is here making "Man in War," has been on the transatlantic telephone almost daily talking to Mayor Briscoe, with the result that Bob has been promised first consideration.

I was surprised to learn that Montgomery Clift has left for New York for about 10 more days of rest and recuperation before "Raintree County" goes back before the cameras at MGM on July 23.

It was thought that Liz Taylor and the rest of the company were just waiting for Monty to be sufficiently recovered from his serious automobile accident before resuming the Civil War story.

But apparently—Although there are others in the cast, including Eva Marie Saint, now in Europe, still to be rounded up—the studio has definitely set July 23 as the date to start this picture for the second time. Meanwhile, Monty will take it easy at his home in New York.

Ava Gardner, now in London starring in "The Little Hut," corroborates Porfirio Rubirosa's denial of any impending marriage between them.

"I've only seen Mr. Rubirosa twice," says Ava, "and that was with a group of other people."

Some lucky Oriental beauty will be chosen either in Honolulu or Tokyo for the lead in "Saronaya." Sol Biano, Warner Brothers' talent executive, took off Tuesday, stopping first in Honolulu to test girls, then on to Tokyo to make additional tests.

A complete rewrite of the ending of "The King and Four Queens" takes Clark Gable and Eleanor Parker back to St. George, Utah, for additional scenes.

Thanks to Capitol records for "Don't Ring-a-da-Bell" and "Puppy Love," sung by Barbara Bebe Lyon, who's a great success on TV in England.

Republicans Hit Harriman Talk

Label Charges That Ike Assisted Red Cause as 'Fantastic'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Several Republicans assailed Gov. Averell Harriman today for suggesting that President Eisenhower has helped the Communist cause by crediting the Soviets with peace aims.

* * *

Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) said Harriman's evident intent in a speech yesterday to hang a "soft on communism" label on Eisenhower "is an invitation for Republicans to review again the miserable record of the Truman and Roosevelt administrations on this issue."

* * *

Sen. Thye (R-Minn) described as "fantastic" Harriman's contention that Eisenhower, by crediting Soviet leaders with peace aims at the Geneva conference last summer, had naively paved the way for great Communist gains.

Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz) said Harriman's attack on Eisenhower was "typical of the indications of the bankruptcy of the New Deal party."

"If they have to consider a man of this type as a possible presidential candidate, they have fallen below the normal level of bankruptcy," he declared.

Atomic Medicine Center Started

UPTON, N.Y. (AP)—Work got under way here yesterday on the nation's first medical research center designed solely to serve the nuclear age.

* * *

The five-million-dollar center will include a nuclear reactor built especially for medical research and therapy, and will be a part of the Atomic Energy Commission's Brookhaven National Laboratory.

The one-story center, expected to be completed in 1958, will spread over nearly three acres of Long Island. It will house research laboratories for medical physics, pathology, microbiology, biochemistry and physiology. It also will include a 48-bed research hospital and an industrial medicine branch for Brookhaven personnel.

Instructor in Reading Advises Parents to Leave Formal Training to Teachers

ATLANTA (INS) — An expert on reading problems feels that parents should leave formal instructions to teachers.

Dr. Frances Triggs, chairman of common diagnosite reading tests in New York, adds, however, that the parent can provide the proper "background" for learning at home.

The "background" described by Dr. Triggs covers a variety of phases, from the simple answering of questions asked by the child to the planning of field trips.

Dr. Triggs says:

"The parent should start preparing the child for learning as soon as he can handle things without putting them in his mouth and swallowing them."

She adds it is particularly important for the parents to answer a child's questions, observing:

"Many parents don't answer their children's questions, hoping they won't be asked any more."

Answering questions, she says, should be done "at the level which the child can understand."

The child's development of a "wide auditory vocabulary," by learning words through hearing them, is a decided help in school work, in her opinion.

She suggests planned trips to introduce the child to new fields —a trip of the zoo, for example. She explains:

"When the child meets the names of animals in print, then he has something to attach them to."

As for formal reading instructions, she believes this should be left to the teacher. The parent might tend to put particular emphasis on spelling, while school instruction was on the basis of word recognition. This would lead to a conflict, slowing the student down.

* * *

Dr. Triggs believes it is all right for a parent to read aloud to a child, provided the child is making an effort to read for himself as well.

* * *

But most important of all in the parent's role in education is the example he sets. Dr. Triggs says:

"As children see their parents do positive, constructive things, they learn to do them themselves."

At the present rate of growth, the world population will double in the next 55 years.

The San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridge is the longest bridge in the world over navigable water.

It's the Kids Who Have All the Fun in Russia

By EARL WILSON

LENINGRAD—Here in this "hero city" which Hitler besieged for almost three years, the Russians astonished us with their beautiful "white nights."

We surprised them with some American inventions which, as luck would have it, they'd already invented.

★ ★ ★

The "white night" is a kind of midnight sun.

You can read almost till midnight without a light. Dusk falls about one o'clock in the morning. Imagine walking around in daylight at 11 p. m. In nearby Helsinki they even have a midnight golf match. But the Russians don't play golf.

"What do middle-aged Russian men play for exercise?" I asked.

"Chess!" was the answer.

We Wilsons went a-walking. Me with my Polaroid and Nikon cameras . . . Slugger grinding a movie camera . . . and the wife clickety-clacking past streams of Russians on fantastically high heels.

"Mommy, everybody's looking at your feet!" Slugger said in a hoarse stage whisper.

I guess the "crazy Americans were positively that to these people. A woman was walking on stilts. A man was taking pictures in 45 seconds.

RUSSIAN BOYS

I had a great time with the Polaroid. Some Czechoslovakian visitors exclaimed over it—I should mention that tourists are pouring in here (and some are being poured out of here) from all over the Soviet Union.

"We have that camera," a Russian proudly remarked.

And I knew he spoke the truth, for the Polaroid officials in New York had told me they do have a version.

But there is one delightful thing the Russians have I've never seen—a "joke fountain."

★ ★ ★

These are fountains that seem dry one moment, then suddenly gush at a child who walks near. The children anticipate the soaking and try to outguess the "joke fountain," which is usually secretly manipulated by somebody sitting near reading a book or seemingly paying no attention.

I visited these "joke fountains" at Peterhof Park—where Peter the Great built 124 fountains to amuse himself.

BEATRICE

The children leaped and shouted with laughter when they were trapped in the spray and the grownups howled, too.

It seemed to me that the children in Russia have most of the fun.

Bonn Joins Probe of Threats to GIs

BONN, Germany (AP)—The U.S. Embassy says West German authorities have joined in an investigation of warning notes received by high American officers in Germany.

* * *

The Bonn government stepped in after the embassy complained that American generals, colonels and others were being flooded with threats to leave the country or face the wrath of an outfit calling itself "The Fighting Assn. for an Independent Germany."

* * *

The Interior Ministry, which is making the inquiry, said it had no knowledge of such an organization. An official said the letters "could be the work of pranksters or a well-organized Communist campaign."

First Aid Class of Advanced Unit Set Oct. 22-26

A first aid instructor training class has been scheduled for Oct. 22-26 at the Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross, 118 Franklin Blvd., Ralph Forman, chairman of first aid for Oakland County, announced today.

The 15 hour course will be the only one to be offered this year, Forman says. Holders of advanced first aid certificates are qualified for the course.

Forman says: "Recruitment of instructor trainees from all parts of Oakland County will enable the first aid program to cover the entire county, keeping transportation difficulties at a minimum."

Enrollment information can be obtained by contacting the chapter house, Forman said.

Shirt Cuffs Help Woman to Prove She Was Born

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A pair of shirt cuffs mailed from San Francisco a few days after the earthquake and fire of April 18, 1906, probably will enable Mrs. Marion Howard Snell of nearby Panorama City to obtain a birth certificate.

* * *

Her attorney is using the shirt cuffs as evidence in his petition to Superior Court for a judicial determination that Mrs. Snell was born in San Francisco April 19, 1906. With such a decree she can obtain a birth certificate which she needs to get a passport for a trip to Europe.

Her father, the late Elbert J. Howard, mailed the shirt cuffs, like postcards, April 22, 1906, to his sisters, Mrs. James Rodgers of The Dalles, Ore., and Mrs. Dan Hawes, Sellwood, Ore. In later years Howard got the cuffs back and often told how he used them because he could find nothing else on which to write.

Reds Offer Their Plan for Unifying Korea

MOSCOW (AP)—Communist North Korea and the Soviet Union have issued a joint communique insisting that North and South Korea must negotiate between themselves on reunification.

The communique was signed in the Kremlin yesterday after talks here by North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung and Soviet officials. It complained that North Korean proposals for economic, cultural and other ties "to facilitate peaceful reunification" had "not met with the necessary understanding" from South Korea.

Gornick Gardens Planned for Privacy

"Planned for privacy" are the gardens and lawns at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Gornick, Vaughn Road in Bloomfield Hills.

* * *

The huge lawn surrounding the Gornick home is divided into four sections — one for play and kitchen area, another devoted to formal gardens directly off the family living room; the third for barbeque and picnic area and the last a formal allee.

Flower lovers would be most intrigued with the second area devoted to the formal gardens. Surrounding this part of the lawn are huge evergreens of every variety.

* * *

Next are a few flowering bushes which bloom in the spring. Then the gardens themselves are strictly perennial with the exception of a few geraniums and alyssum used for borders.

Flowers in bloom in the Gornick garden right now include the popular regal lilies, Estate lilies just beginning to bloom, Shasta daisies, floribunda roses, delphiniums, and coreopsis.

* * *

In the spring the flower beds are bordered with tulips. The flowering shrubs also bloom in the spring and there are many on display at the Gornick home including dogwood and almond.

Yet to bloom this year are phlox, hardy asters, chrysanthemums and Siberian iris.

In the long garden (the fourth section) a lawn walk is lined with hybrid tea roses including such varieties as Sterling, Peace, Red Radiance, Forty Niner, Lowell Thomas, Rubaiyat, Poinsettia and Talisman.

The Gornicks enjoy their garden and spend quite a bit of time with it, Mrs. Gornick said to make clear, though, that Mr. Gornick was the gardener of the the family.

Beware Japanese Beetles! If you're anywhere in the vicinity of Pontiac, you haven't a chance!

Word comes this week from Leslie H. Goschke, field supervisor of the Southeastern district of Michigan for the Department of Agriculture, that if any beetles are in town, they better watch out.

The Japanese bettle is an insect naturally introduced from Japan. It was first found in New Jersey in 1916 and has spread in all directions since its discovery. It is still fairly scarce in Michigan, mostly found in Detroit and suburbs.

According to Goschke, the last Japanese beetle found in Pontiac was in 1938 on Summitt Street. However, the Department of Agriculture still checks regularly.

Bright yellow traps resembling bird cages have been placed this year at 300 feet intervals on both sides of the street, every other block, in the Northeastern section of Pontiac.

A new chemical, Dieldrin, is used exclusively by the Department of Agriculture for treating the soil during this trapping program in July and August, the time when beetles are worst in this area.

Goschke has set 132 traps for the Jap beetles and three for European chafers, a similar insect with the same feeding habits as the beetles.

The beetles are especially fond of ripening fruits, corn, trees, shrubs and other plants. The beetles in the larvae stage live in the ground and feed on roots of plants and grass.

The beetle itself is a little less than half an inch long and is a shiny metallic green with coppery brown wings. You can tell it by the six small patches of white hairs along each side and the back of the body, just under the edges of the wings.

Snipping Will Insure Better Blooms in '57

To insure better blooms next year, snip off the withering bloom on laurel and rhododendron.

Leave azaleas alone and remember that the "flower" of the dogwood isn't the flower-like pink or white cluster of leaves but an insignificant tiny bloom in their center.

When Gardens Began!

Gardens first appeared when primitive man, no longer depending on the chase or migratory stock-raising for his sustenance, settled down in one spot, says the American Association of Nurserymen.

If Tree 'Pale,' May Be Soil

Yellow Foliage Means Possible Deficiency of Iron

Trees sometimes get pale as ghosts, but it's for earthly reasons. One or more trace elements may be missing from the soil.

Certain trees and shrubs, notably oaks and rhododendrons, suffer from a deficiency "disease" called chlorosis, denoting a yellowing of foliage. Many other species frequently are affected.

A number of trace elements are essential for the healthy complexion of any tree. A soil deficiency in one or more such elements as iron, zinc, manganese, boron and copper, among others, can cause an arboreal jaundiced look.

There are technical differences in the appearance of the trees, but only the professional tree man or horticulturist can spot them. Fortunately, the vast majority of chlorotic cases are caused by the lack of iron in available form.

Most cases can be treated successfully by the injection of iron solutions into the tree trunk or by soil applications.

Now a new chemical form known as "chelated" iron is available for treating stubborn cases that fail to respond to conventional treatments. Where its use is warranted, it is included in small amounts in tree food applied over root areas. It may also be used as a surface application.

Because of the precise diagnosis and treatment involved, amateur tree doctors are advised to resist the urge to treat chlorotic trees themselves.

Cable, Ground Trees Against Lightning

Bombed cities learned during World War II that the best protection against assault from the skies was underground.

An underground network of copper bars driven deep in the earth harmlessly dissipates electrical charges from lighting.

The bars, three or more per tree, are connected to heavy copper cables extending from the top branches. Cables are grounded to the bars several feet from the tree trunk.

The bars must penetrate the earth to a depth where moisture is assured at all times in order to be constantly prepared to conduct an electrical charge away from the tree. Unless

Quizzing the Gardener

Q—Should the foliage of daffodils be cut to the ground as soon as the flowers have faded?

A—The foliage should be left on the plants to build up reserves for another year. It will ripen and disappear when the growing season is over. Even careless removal of leaves when picking flowers can check the growth of daffodils.

Q—Is there any scientific evidence that fruit receiving organic fertilizers is more immune to insects and fungi, or that fruit so treated has a higher nutritional value?

A— If this means a low nitrogen level then the foliage of the trees may be rather tough as compared to trees receiving adequate quantities of nitrogen.

Insects and fungi have their nutritional problems and preferences for food as do other forms of life. These pests may not thrive as well on some types of foliage as on other types.

It is doubtful, however, if any fertilizer program will ever be a substitute for sprays in the control of insects and diseases. We know of no scientific evidence which indicates that the source of fertilizer elements has any influence on the nutritional value of the fruit.

* * *

Q—We lost many of our so called hardy chrysanthemums this past winter. How can they be wintered over successfully?

A—The most important factor in successful wintering is good soil drainage. The better drained the soil, the better the chance the plants have of wintering well. Mums planted near the house usually come through the winter in good condition because of drier soil.

So plant your mums on well drained soil, but if you cannot do this, we suggest digging and storing them next fall. There are no fully hardy chrysanthemums in the way we think of peonies being hardy. Heavy covering early in the fall should be studied.

Q—Should wistarias be fertilized, and if so with what?

A—Superphosphate sometimes aids in the production of flowers. If the plants bloom well, let them alone.

Q—What is the best approach to the problem of raising plants in extremely sandy soil?

A — An ample water supply, plenty of organic matter, attention to liming and other details of soil preparation are essential.

Late Colors Possible

Early flowering plants, like shirley poppies, larkspur and the like can give late color to the garden if seed is sown now.

Monroe Rose Tester Describes Duties

MONROE (AP)—When Dr. E. G. Bockoven carries on with his favorite blonde, a yellow topped charmer named Joanna Hill, no eyebrows are raised.

Nor is there gossip about the siren in his garden. For the Monroe dentist is a rose tester who grows roses—including the Joanna Hill and Siren—for major nurseries in the United States.

Talk to Dr. Bockoven and you'd almost think the 250 rose bushes massed in his front, side and back yard and clambering over his garage and fences were human beings.

"See those climbers," he says. "Well, I sprayed them and they just didn't like it. So they dropped their leaves.

* * *

"Isn't Queen Elizabeth (a new coral pink species) lovely? You can see Peace (a pink tipped yellow) in any of her descendants—the shiny leaves show through every time."

* * *

And just like people, roses are different. Some resist 23 above zero cold. Others are nipped by the first frost. Some withstand insect armies that would daunt a strong man. Others fade at the nibble of a single thrip.

Bockoven has grown roses for 13 years and has been a tester for eight. In his garden he tests plants for color, resistance to cold and disease, fragrance and whether a bush is best for gardens or exhibition.

PROGRESS CHARTS

He keeps daily "progress" charts on each plant, recording growth, air temperatures, appearance and treatment for disease.

Color seems to be the most important factor in success of a rose, Dr. Bockoven has found.

"Some colors just are not attractive," he said. "Then, too, flowers may fade too soon or change color as they open."

* * *

He recalled that a description almost knocked the Siren off the market. Its bright clear color was described as "fire engine red" by the company which patented the rose.

Rose buyers, who prefer less violent shades, weren't interested. The company burned more than 75,000 unsold bushes.

* * *

Now the catalogue omits the "fire engine" tag and Siren is a big seller.

If you've noticed your roses smell more lately, it's no accident. Fragrance is being bred back into blooms.

As for the saying, "a rose by any other name would be as sweet," Dr. Bockoven says it isn't so. There is an imported oriental rose that smells so awful it was named "Faetida," or "Fetid."

Dr. Bockoven keeps a careful count on the blooms produced by each bush. He once had a plant put out 250 blooms in one season.

* * *

What's the favorite rose of a rose tester? In Dr. Bockoven's case, the most is the best. He picks Grandifloras, which produce a great many blooms, all as large as a tea rose. And he likes tree roses to bushes because they bloom more often.

Bird Apartments Draw Swallows, Purple Martins

Purple martins and swallows are sure to like an apartment-house style bird house.

Some householders have begun building bird houses with 12 compartments each, and they find that purple martins and swallows are especially fond of them.

These kinds of birds are especially welcome summer visitors, for they destroy countless unwanted insects.

These houses should be set atop posts at least 10 feet from the ground and well away from trees or buildings. A barrier against cats and squirrels around the post at least a couple of feet below the house is needed to attract martins. Birdhouse patterns are available.

As it now stands, the Rose Bowl classic next New Year's Day may very well turn out to be a bed of thorns for the Pacific Coast and Big Ten Conferences.

Three coast schools are now ineligible to play in the "grand-daddy" of Bowls, and from present indications, the bloody ax of the PCC council is still looking for other heads to chop.

If the turmoil continues the most famous of Bowls will have to settle for the contest of bands.

With UCLA and Southern California, two of the more consistent Pacific Coast champions, along with Washington out of the picture, the only schools of Rose Bowl stature still among the six remaining eligibles are California and Stanford.

★ ★ ★

Either of these two can finish 4th in the conference and still be the representative to the Pasadena spectacle.

The heat is on Oregon and Oregon State now, but one could hardly consider them on Big Ten level with a championship team let alone a 3rd or 4th place finisher.

So what it all adds up to is a possible game of third-raters for New Year's 1957.

★ ★ ★

Even the Big Ten may be represented with its third best team.

Michigan State, last year's representative is ineligible by the two-successive-year rule, and Ohio State has been eliminated by its recent probation.

Michigan, Iowa or Wisconsin could provide the Big Ten with a champion to the coast, but even so, unless the game is a champion-versus-champion contest it won't be the most lustrous Bowl game next New Year's Day.

We doubt if Michigan versus Idaho would have any glamor.

DITTOS FROM THE PRESS BOX

Speaking of the Pacific Coast Conference, there is a move afoot to get athletic autonomy for UCLA from the University of California.

Uclan alumni are pushing this as a first step to possible withdrawal from the conference.

★ ★ ★

Al Watrous, golf pro at Oakland Hills, has taken a fancy to the Bald Mountain course. In two successive weeks Al fired 63's which is a course record.

★ ★ ★

Things to come will show Michigan State to be the host for the Coed Inter-Collegiate Golf Tournament next year, and there is a possibility that Forest Lake Country Club will bring the National Ladies' Open Championship here in 1958.

In the question department, here is one which has aroused some speculation. If Bill Veeck was to get control of the Tigers would he bring Leo Durocher back into baseball as Bengal manager?

Veeck Laughs Off His Critics

DETROIT (AP)—Bill Veeck, whose penchant for the unusual has prompted people to call him everything from genius to clown, says he's just like the man down at the corner meat market.

The fuzzy-haired Veeck has applied his promotional talents in Milwaukee, Cleveland, St. Louis and Miami. Now he is trying to land the Detroit Tigers as head man in a syndicate that bid $5,250,000.

"Let 'em talk," said Veeck of his critics. "I've set attendance records everywhere."

How does he do it? What does this man possess that enables him to swell the attendance figures? Veeck explains it this way:

"I'm just like the man down at the corner meat market. A customer may come in for a pound of steak. Okay. So the butcher figures he'll do a little something extra for the guy. So he gives him two pounds of liver—for free.

"So the customer will come back again and again. He may bring other customers with him. He gets a little something extra for nothing, and the butcher makes new friends and more money."

Except for opening day festivities, Veeck claims he never advertised his various surprises in advance. Such things as hillbilly bands, circus clowns, free orchids and nylons for the ladies, fireworks, free breakfast and beer and high-wire acts—all these gimmicks "just happened without advance notice to the fans," he says.

In Cleveland, where Veeck's operation brought the city its first pennant in 28 years and set an attendance record that still stands, an influential sports editor, says Veeck would be good for Detroit baseball.

* * *

Do the Tigers' directors want Veeck and his bid that tops all others? Observers close to the situation say no. They also say the American League would never approve of letting the exciting New Mexico rancher back into Major League baseball.

* * *

The syndicate that will take over the Tigers and Briggs Stadium by Oct. 1 will be the one headed by Michigan radio executives Fred Knorr and John Fetzer, they say.

The whole issue will be settled once and for all Monday afternoon at a meeting of the six-man board of directors.

The leaders, who posted three-under-par 71's in yesterday's opening round of the 72-hole event, were Louise Suggs and Gloria Fecht; Beverly Hanson and Kathy Cornelius; Alice Bauer and Betty Bush; Marilynn Smith and Faye Crocker; and Betty Dodd and Peggy Kirk.

Andonian Is Eliminated From National Publinx

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Four men from four different walks of life play in the semifinals of the National Public Links Golf championships.

C.P.O. Bill Scarbrough of the Navy meets fireman Ovid Seyler of San Francisco while Memphis businessman Junie Buxbaum goes against Jim Wilbert, a telephone installation man from South San Francisco.

The four were double winners yesterday. A field of 150 started Monday in this event at Harding Park.

This marks the second time in three years that Scarbrough, an aviation ordnanceman with a patrol bomber outfit, has reached the semifinals. He did it at Dallas in 1954 and was a quarter-finalist at Indianapolis last year.

A 185-pounder who stands 6-3, Bill keeps a cigar in his mouth continually while playing. Yesterday the 32-year-old Scarbrough defeated Bobby Nichols of Louisville, Ky., in the third-round match, 5 and 4, and came back to eliminate Joe Roach of Los Angeles, 3 and 2.

Seyler, a 43 - year - old, who reached the Publinx quarter-finals at Seattle in 1953, has played in seven of the events. This is the farthest he's gone. In his two matches yesterday he beat Honolulu's John DeMello 5 and 4 and schoolboy Emil Esposito of Franklin Park, Ill., 3 and 2. Esposito had disposed of long hitter Jim North of North Bend, Wash., 1-up after 19 holes of the morning round.

Mike Andonian, of Pontiac, Michigan's lone qualifier in match play, was eliminated in 20 holes Thursday morning by Joe Roach, three-time National Negro champion from Los Angeles.

Andonian evened the match by winning the 16th and 17th holes and the pair tied the 18th. Roach then birdied the 20th hole to win 1-up.

Jewelers Sign for Twin-Bill

Meet Port Huron Club Sunday at Beaudette Park

Arrangements were completed yesterday for a double-header softball card Sunday, July 15th, at Beaudette Park. The twin-bill pits Shaw's Jewelers of the Pontiac City Softball League and a club from Port Huron. The Huronites, called the Skidgies Bombers, are rated among the better teams of the Lake Huron city's area.

Shaw's Clint Plympton said that the Port Huron club plans to pitch Kerr, former U. S. Army European star and Armstrong, rated among the best in the state. Pere McConner, Shaw veteran and Fred Konchius are scheduled to work for Jewelers.

Opener is set for 7:00 o'clock.

Jewelers also have signed up for the Metropolitan Beach (Detroit) Invitational tournament, Saturday and Sunday, July 21-22. The fine Pontiac club has been finalists in this event for the last two years in a row. Wimpy Johnson, who also pitches for a church league club, is named for starting game mound duty.

Hoeft Wins 11th, 4-2

WASHINGTON (AP) — With four consecutive wins boosting their morale along, the Detroit Tigers will try to make it five straight tonight at the expense of Washington.

* * *

The Bengals, perhaps spurred into action by their pending sale, opened a series with the Senators last night by rapping out nine safeties good for a 4-2 victory.

Billy Hoeft won his 11th game against six setbacks, limiting Washington to four hits—including the 12th homer by Jim Lemon.

Tiger manager Bucky Harris will send Paul Foytack (6-6) to the hill tonight.

The Tigers jolted losing pitcher Bob Wiesler for two runs in the opening inning last night. The tallies came on a pair of walks and singles by Jack Phillips and Al Kaline.

Two more Detroit runs came across in the 4th on two walks, a double by Phillips and a balk.

Washington wasn't put to the trouble of making a hit when the Senators scored a run in the 4th inning. Jim Brideweser dropped two throw to second base and Phillips was charged with the third error in the frame when he pulled his foot off first base before receiving a throw.

The other Washington run came on Lemon's 8th-inning homer into the leftfield bleachers with one aboard.

Pete Runnels, Washington first baseman, couldn't solve the offerings of Hoeft. He went hitless for the first time in 17 games.

Boxer Fights Blindness

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP) — Lightweight Bobby Woods, who started boxing professionally at 16 and became a headliner in two years, is reported washed up and going blind at the age of 21.

"The chance of saving his sight in the right eye is slim, the left eye stands about a 50-50 chance," a doctor said after an examination yesterday.

Woods, a veteran of 94 fights, was to have met Jimmy Grow in a main event here Wednesday night but the bout was postponed a week on word Bobby couldn't make the 135-pound weight limit.

A doctor looked him over and ordered immediate hospitalization. A substitute was quickly found for Grow and next Monday's fight will now be for his benefit.

The doctor said Woods has "multiple retinal detachments in the right eye and a traumatic cataract in the left. The right eye must be operated on."

The report shocked boxing followers in Spokane, Wash., who saw Woods develop from a baby-faced preliminary boy in 1950 to a major drawing card who fought two world's champions within six weeks two years ago.

* * *

He gave featherweight champion Sandy Saddler a stiff test before losing a 10-round decision Dec. 10, 1954 in Spokane.

Six weeks later, he was matched with Jimmy Carter, then lightweight champion. It was a poor fight. Carter won the decision.

* * *

Woods campaigned in California after that and didn't return here until last May. Although a strong favorite, he was banged around considerably and lost in 10 rounds to Russ Tague. Referee Joey August said afterwards Woods should quit for at least a year.

Tague closed Woods' right eye in the bouse.

Last month, Bobby was stopped in two rounds by Grow at Boise, Idaho. Chuck Woods, his uncle-manager, jumped in to stop it while favored Bobby was taking a battering. The fight last night was to have been a rematch for the "Northwest title."

Athletes Bid for Decathlon

Olympic Hopefuls After Records in Attempt to Reach 8,000 Points

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind. (AP)—A lightning-fast track, barring rain, was ready today for 43 of America's top all-around athletes in their bid for a decathlon record and a trip to Australia for the Olympic Games.

* * *

An 8,000-point total was in reach. Favorite Rafer Johnson set the world record in the Pan-American Games last year at 7,983.

J. Owen Huntsman, Wabash College track coach and meet director, said three men who will emerge tomorrow night as the nation's Olympic decathlon team may be the three best men in the 10-event test since the Greeks started the Olympics in 146 B.C.

The decathlon scoring table is bulky and complicated. Athletes run against the clock and jump and throw against the tape. A heat victory in itself is meaningless — time counts.

* * *

For example, a man gets 505 points for running the 100-meter dash in 12.4 seconds. If he could do it in 10 seconds flat he would pick up 1,470 points.

Other events are scored similarly. World record performances are needed to get up around the 1,500-point mark.

Alan Luce, catcher from Farwell, Mich., will captain the 1957 Michigan State baseball team.

Junior Leagues

Junior baseball League action, on city diamonds yesterday and Wednesday included a Class E victory for Keego Harbor over Pontiac Boys' Club 8-6, on the strength of one big inning. All Keego runs were scored in the 4th frame.

Osmun's took a 17-7 win over Tel-Huron and Arnold Drugs got a forfeit from Pontiac Sluggers in Class F.

In Midget division Indians took a forfeit from Whitfield Cubs, Senators beat Earl's Market 20-11 with the help of Bob Morris' homer and Duane Richards' 3 for 3. Wing Lake had a big 6th inning (5 runs) in a 9-8 win over Mahan's.

Suggestion to Dissolve PCC Made by Governor

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A suggestion that the Pacific Coast Conference be dissolved and a California conference of UCLA, California, Stanford and Southern California be formed for athletic competition has been made by Gov. Goodwin J. Knight.

* * *

The governor made the suggestion in a letter to Ned Cronin, Los Angeles Times sports writer, who wrote him for his opinions about the athletic scandals that brought fines and bans against schools and athletes in the PCC.

"This whole ivory tower business raises the hackles of my red blooded American neck, and I join with you in the hope we can do something," the chief executive wrote. "I am wondering if it might not be a good plan to consider the forming of a conference, leaving out the two universities in Washington, the two in Oregon and the one in Idaho."

* * *

The governor pointed out that present day booster clubs have been composed of "all the community leaders with whom the professors fraternize and the community leaders from whom they ask university financial support." He said he played Rugby football at Stanford "and I can assure you that if some prominent alumnus had approached me with an offer of modest assistance in my tuition or expenses I would have assumed that this prominent alumnus was a man of character and standing in the community and that this proposition had the tacit approval of those in authority."

* * *

Gov. Knight told Cronin he endorsed his point of distinction that athletes were not being paid to play college football but rather were being aided to obtain an education while they do play football.

* * *

"Apparently the University of California at Berkeley is accepting the conference edict without a struggle," said the governor. "This complicates the situation very badly. And, incidentally, while we are on the subject, the rule that there could not be a 'repeater' in the Rose Bowl, regardless of merit, is, in my considered opinion, unrealistic and unsportsmanlike."

Last Call Sent Out for Class D Players

Players wishing to sign up for participation in the City Parks & Recreation Class D baseball league have only until Sunday to register. Any player seeking a berth should contact any one of the following team managers:

Nashua Leads Field

Eight Rivals at Monmouth

OCEANPORT, N.J. (AP) — Seven rivals are expected to battle Nashua tomorrow in the $100,000-added Monmouth Park Handicap as the syndicate millionaire attempts to knock off the tenth one hundred grand gallop of his colorful career.

A smashing victory in the $83,000 Suburban Handicap at Belmont Park July 4 apparently frightened off most of the Eastern opposition to the Leslie B. Combs II syndicate colt for the mile and one quarter race, richest in the history of Monmouth Park.

* * *

Nashua has high weight of 129 pounds, and must concede plenty of poundage. His opponents are expected to include C. T. Chenery's Manotick, 111, only filly in the lineup; the Valley Farm's Impasse, 109; the Clearwater Stable's Cavort, 108; Castle Rock Farm's Mr. First, 108; J. M. Roebling's Cedar Hill, 107; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Markus' Mielleux, 107; and the Chal-Mar Farm's Seven Chances, 105.

* * *

If eight start, the purse will gross $114,400, and the winner will collect $78,200, with second, third and fourth worth $20,000, $10,000 and $5,000. The race will be aired nationally (NBC), with TV time 4-4:30 p.m., (EST) and radio at 4:15 p.m.

Golfer, 75, Gets First Links Ace at Twin Lakes

A 75-year-old golfer, playing in the General Motors Engineering league at Twin Lakes club, sunk his 1st ace, yesterday.

Alex Marshall, retired engineer, hit a five-iron shot to No. 4 green and the ball just rolled straight up and in the cup. Marshall had a 43 for the round.

It was the 2nd ace of the season at Twin Lkes. Both were made on the same hole, a 165-yard par 3 hole.

Playing with Marshall were Joe Brankowski, R. Schmidt and W. Drescher.

Stadium, Elks, Royals Win Tight Softball Battles

Three tight softball league contests marked Thursday night's action on two Pontiac fields, with the 2-1 Stadium Inn victory over Shaw's the high-lighted event. Two extra-inning games grabbed a share of the spotlight.

Stadium set up its upset victory in the 2nd and 3rd frames. Sharrard counted in the 2nd after walking. An error and Francis' single sent him home. Willihite got the 3rd inning tally after getting life on a fielder's choice play, scoring on G. Wilson's double. Crivea, who had walked, was cut down at the plate.

Sheldon held Shaws without a run until the 6th when Keebaugh tallied Jewelers' lone counter. He singled, stole 2nd and went in with help of an infield play and an error.

Royal Bar got a pair of winning tallies in the top of the ninth (2nd extra inning) to defeat Bicmar 3-1 in an American League setto, Bicmar got the 1st run, in the 4th, with a hit and error helping Jerry Ganzel home. Royal squared it in the 6th with Vinson scoring on a combination of walk, single and an error. Winning run was made by Moorehead who singled and went home on Stewart's safe blow.

Elks No. 810 applied a whitewash to General Motors, in the American League, at North Side Park, 1-0. Only tally was made in the 8th inning of the extra-frame contest by Davis, all in one big blow—a home run. Two-hit hurling was turned in by both Pete Mihay, Elks' veteran hurler, and GM's two pitchers, capable Lynus Grant and Hall. Hall started.

Pulver Tire girls team took a 7-0 forfeit at N.S. when Michigan Bell failed to field a team.

Bucs Beat Cubs Twice

Yankees Rap Indians, 9-5

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If the Milwaukee Braves should win the National League pennant, it will be because of the spectacular success enjoyed by pitcher Bob Buhl and first baseman Joe Adcock against the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Rarely, if ever, have two players from one team overpowered a club the way Buhl and Adcock have done against Brooklyn this season. For Buhl, this complete domination of the Dodgers is something new but it is old hat to Adcock, who has hit 25 of his 100 big league home runs against Dodger pitching. Buhl was only 3-5 against the Dodgers before this season.

* * *

The pair combined their talents last night to lift Milwaukee to within three percentage points of first place as the Braves shut out the Dodgers 2-0 and the league-leading Cincinnati Redlegs were beaten 7-4 by the Philadelphia Phillies. Rain postponed the second game of the scheduled twi-night double-header and it will be played as part of a twi-nighter in Milwaukee tonight.

Pittsburgh climbed into fourth place with a sweep of its double-header from Chicago 2-1 and 5-4 as the St. Louis Cardinals dropped into fifth place by half a game despite their 5-3 victory over the last-place New York Giants.

The pace-setting New York Yankees widened their American League lead over Chicago and Cleveland to 7½ games, their biggest bulge of the season, by conquering the Indians 9-5 in connection with Boston's victory over the White Sox 3-1.

In other American League games, Detroit defeated Washington 4-2 and Baltimore blanked Kansas City 4-0 behind the six-hit pitching of Bill Wright.

Stan Musial hammered home three runs with his 16th home run and a single to lead the Cards to victory. A pair of ex-Giants — Alvin Dark and Don Liddle — also contributed to the victory against their former teammates. Dark had a double, single and sacrifice fly. Liddle pitched runless ball for 3 2-3 innings to receive credit for the win.

Dale Long hit his first home run since June 9 and also added a triple to drive in four runs in Pittsburg's second-game victory over Chicago. Bill Virdon's four-bagger helped Ronnie Kline chalk up his eighth victory in the opener.

A grand slam home run by Hank Bauer, his first in eight years with the Yankees, proved to be the big blow in New York's triumph over Cleveland.

Johnny Kucks, despite rough going, was credited with his 12th success and Bob Lemon was charged with his seventh defeat despite a three-run homer by Al Smith that ran the outfielder's hitting streak through 22 consecutive games.

Underwater Look!

Big Fish Where It's Deep

Anglers in the Oakland County area are even getting a look around in the fishes' own domain.

That's right. They're getting reports where the big ones go when they can't be found in the shallower portions of lakes hereabouts.

"The aqualung boys tell me they have seen many big bass out in deep water, when there have been few elsewhere," Jack Buliga of Keego Harbor says. "They say most of the bigger fish are now in 20 feet of water or deeper. At night some of them go in to shallow areas to feed, but during normal fishing hours, they're down in the depths."

These under-surface observers also have informed Buliga that the water is jammed with June-fly "wigglers". "Practically every fish we've stuffed with the larvae. been stuffd with the larvae. That's a cue for fishermen."

Observers say that only about one-third of the bluegills are still with spawn. Most are off the beds. Trolling with nightcrawler harness is reported getting good results. Leon Hubbard and Earl Castle Jr., took nice base and 'gill catches using the rig, and popper bugs. Buliga and Dave Rapson on Pine, and Buliga and George Hovas on Orchard Lake creeled some nice strings, Jack reported yesterday. "Fly fishermen should watch this June fly hatch, and with proper lures, should do all right." Buliga suggested.

Matches Washed Out in Tennis Tourney

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The Western Tennis Tournament faced a heavy schedule today because of rain that washed out all but one match yesterday.

Mike Franks of Los Angeles, and Mike Green of Miami defeated Art Andrews of Iowa City, Iowa and Crawford Henry of Atlanta, 5-7, 6-2, 6-3 in a second-round doubles match. Then rain halted play.

Officials announced a recording error had reversed the result of Wednesday doubles match. The corrected record gave Francisco Contereras and Alex Olmedo a victory over Eddy Moylan and Kingman Lambert, 6-1, 6-3.

Pairings Set

15 Teams in Best-Ball Test

Pairings were set up today for the 1956 Pontiac Parks & Recreation Department's mixed two-ball golf championship. The tourney roster shows 15 teams entered at this time, including defending champions Glen Harding and Betty Sue Syron.

With probably the best field in years, the event is expected to produce some close and interesting battles for the top award. Among the highly-rated teams are the Paul Bada-"Willie" Bone pair, Andy Condon-Eleanor Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. Ross DeBolt and Ed and Phyllis Boyer.

Post entries will be accepted at the first tee at noon Saturday.

Tournament is a two-ball, best-ball, alternate shot event. It will be over a 18-hole route at medal play.

The pairings, teams leave tees at 10 minute intervals:

12:15—Paul Bada and Willie Bone, John Rogers and Barbara Bundo; Bob Martin and Lillian Lazaroff, Bill Stoiloff and Agnes Mazza

Motors Snatch Win in Finale

Four-Run Rally in 7th Edges Elks 7-6 in 'A' Loop Battle

It was a case of either "do or die" last night, on Wisner field, when General Motors Class A City League nine went to bat in the bottom of the final frame. Elks No. 723 had set up a three-run lead, 6-3, adding a single run in its last turn at bat after collecting five others. Motors had three, all compiled in the 6th frame.

Bob Swindell, 1st GM man up in the finale, singled. Bob Hamilton walked and Wes Roberts hit one to score Swindell. Jerry Dorr then banged a timely triple to send Hamilton and Roberts over the rubber. He made the round trip himself, on Terry Thomas' single, for the winning counter.

GMC's Judge Booker led hitting with three for three, including a triple and double.

Doctoring Your Golf Game

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Pulling putts.

DIAGNOSIS: Shoulder turn.

TREATMENT: You'll find that the average player misses putts more often to the left than to the right of the cup because his right hand, turning, over, forces a break in the left wrist. It's what is called pulling the ball.

Blame it on being just a little anxious, a little hurried in getting to the ball. What happens? The shoulders get into the stroke, ever so little, but enough to strike the damaging blow.

Let me give you this helpful advice: Keep the body out of your putt. No head movement, no body movement, and certainly no perceptible shoulder movement. Putting is done with the arms and wrists alone. Some putt stiff-armed, some break the wrists in a hinge action.

But in either case the back of the left hand faces the hole. And it will if the putter head is taken straight back from the ball and the back of the left hand is moved straight forward in a low sweep. As sketch shows, the face of the putter will then swing through open, in perfect alignment.

One more tip: Rest the right arm against your hip in your putting backstroke. And keep it there. You'll soon have the ball rolling on line.

Homers Aplenty for Churchmen

Home runs were the big factors in the Church League Softball games last night as First Presbyterian beat Columbia Baptist, 5-0; Memorial Baptist outslugged Community 14-12 and Liberty Baptist edged Marimont Baptist 7-6.

There were five homers in the Memorial-Community game, two by Ken Kelly.

Liberty won with 4 runs in the finals stanza despite the three run homer by Vaught.

In another league game First Baptist won its 31st straight victory, 13 so far this year, by nipping Central Christian, 2-1 in a pitchers battle between Perry Vaughn of First Baptist and Jack Koyl of Central Christian.

Coach Chuck Erickson of North Carolina's golf team is secretary-treasurer of the National Golf Coaches Assn.

Grimm Spikes Rumor as New Tiger Manager

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Former Milwaukee Braves Manager Charlie Grimm said yesterday he has rejected an offer to work in the Milwaukee front office and is considering other offers "both in baseball and out."

* * *

In telling of his decision, Grimm said, "I told John Quinn (Braves' general manager) that I didn't accept the position of director of player procurement."

"I'm still weighing three or four good propositions, both in baseball and out, but the Braves' job is not one of them and neither is managing," Grimm added. He declined to reveal the nature of the offers.

* * *

Grimm did spike a rumor which said he was under consideration as a successor to Bucky Harris, manager of the Detroit Tigers in the American League.

Teen-Ager Heads Amateur Pack

JACKSON (AP) — Medalist Dave Hill, 19-year-old Jackson machinist, and veteran Glenn Johnson, on the track of his third state crown, head a pack of 64 shotmakers today in the opening round of the Michigan Amateur Golf Tournament.

Yesterday's 63 qualifiers, plus defending champion Johnson of Grosse Ile, begin the first of six 18-hole match play duels over the par-72 Country Club of Jackson layout.

Two 18-hole matches will be played each day.

Hill, a long hitter despite his 129 pounds, captured medalist honors yesterday with a 36-hole card of 70-72—142. He will take on Martin Hurd of Flint, who qualified with 151, in today's first round of match play.

Johnson, exempt from the qualifying test, meets Peter Green of Franklin, one of two 15-year-olds to fire the 153 or better needed to qualify. Green had 75-76—151.

Two strokes behind Hill in qualifying for the 50th annual state amateur meeting were veteran Harrison Baker of Battle Creek and 54-year-old Joe Tangney of Grand Rapids, both with 71-73—144 cards.

* * *

Three strokes off the qualifying pace with 154's came Harold Brink of Grand Rapids, carding 71-74, and 18-year-old Bob Zimmerman of Jackson. Zimmerman brought home one of the two 69's in the first qualifying round but sagged to 76 yesterday.

Posting 146 was Detroit's Joe Grace Jr., a member of the Notre Dame golf team.

Another Detroiter, 25-year-old Don Stevens, blew to a 78 yesterday after scoring the other opening-round 69. He was bracketed at 147 with former champion Tom Draper of Red Run, who carded 74-73.

Grouped at 148 were Jerry Franklin, Jackson; Bud Reniger, Lansing; Lou Wendrow, the 1947 titleholder from Lansing; Dick Wibel, Bloomfield Hills; and Andy Andrews, Jackson.

Stroking out 149's were Vic Cuiss, Jackson; Dave McHarg, Dearborn; Frank Skestone Jr., Grand Rapids; Lloyd Syron, Pontiac; Doug Andrews, Jackson; and Stan Kwasiborski, Grosse Point.

A record field of 350 hopefuls competed for the 63 openings in the golden anniversary running of the state tournament.

High Scoring Games in Methodist Loop

The Fightin' Farmers continued their unbeaten ways by whipping the Crusaders 20-14 in a free hitting contest of the Free Methodist Church softball league at GMC field.

Another high scoring game saw the Sluggers trounce the Bulldogs 20-0.

In the 7th round of a nine-game round robin schedule next week, the Farmers and Sluggers will battle it out.

Fightin' Farmers	10 1 3 0 1 0 5—20
Crusaders	2 0 5 0 2 1 4—14

Myers and Tennyson; Heisel and Ballard.

Sluggers	7 3 4 0 6 0—20
Bulldogs	0 4 2 1 3 0—10

Lenger and Bigger; Bray, Burton and Bigger. (Called at six innings because of darkness.)

Dick Hoover of Akron, Ohio succeeds Buzz Fazio of Detroit as the American Bowling Congress Masters champion. Prior to this year Hoover had finished third the last two years.

Becomes Team's Top Clutch Hitter

Piersall Box Office Lure for Red Sox

BOSTON (AP)—Jimmy Piersall is astride the baseball world today—a clutch hitter for the Boston Red Sox as well as the game's finest defensive outfielder.

Four years after his conquest of mental illness, Piersall at 26 has developed the batting skills to become a scrapping, well-rounded player who is top box office.

A fierce competitor, Piersall demonstrated the new heights he has attained last night by ruining the Chicago White Sox in Boston's 3-1 victory.

Jimmy smashed a two-run homer with one out in the ninth inning off southpaw Jack Harshman to settle the issue. Twice earlier he made run-saving catches which had the distinctive Piersall trademark. That's another way of saying they were next to impossible.

* * *

In fact, Piersall started unsettling the cool Harshman who took a 4-1 lifetime record against Boston into the contest. For it was Jimmy whose sharp leadoff single in the fifth inning accounted for the first Red Sox blow off Harshman. His batting averaged soared to .303.

* * *

It was almost as if Piersall was following a script. His performance was recorded by movie cameras as part of the film of his life now in production in Hollywood.

The elated Jimmy's family was on hand and he was presented an award from a publication before the contest as the outstanding fielder of 1955.

* * *

An intense, nervous young man, Piersall—always a great fielder—was once the madcap gagster whose antics finally landed him in medical hands for treatment. There were bleak days for Jim and his wife, Mary. But everyone, including the Red Sox, had faith in the Waterbury, Conn. boy.

Winning a Perfect Cure

CINCINNATI (AP) — Brooks Lawrence doesn't have the stomachache any more that is one of the reasons why the Cincinnati Redlegs today are in the thick of the fight for the National League pennant.

Tonight Lawrence is due to go after his 13th victory and hasn't been charged with a defeat. Against the Philadelphia Phils he'll be trying to protect Cincinnati's league lead which was reduced to a half game last night when the Phils scored five times in the ninth for a 7-4 victory.

It would be hard to imagine the husky 31-year-old Negro righthander of today as the weakened, sorrowing athlete who went to his home in Springfield, Ohio, with a bleeding ulcer at the end of 1954, perhaps washed up.

Into the hospital went Brooks for eight blood transfusions and the beginning of a fight to regain his health.

The St. Louis Cardinals apparently had no faith in his chances, for they traded him to Cincinnati this year after he had a relatively poor 1955 season. In 1954, he had won 15 games and lost six for St. Louis. Last year, after dropping eight games while winning three, he was sent to Oakland by the Cards, where he won 5 games and lost one.

Favor Hartack Aboard Fabius

Swoon's Son Is Leading Contender for $100,000 Arlington Classic

CHICAGO (AP) — Fabius or Swoon's Son? That seems to be the capsule question of the $100,000-added Arlington Classic tomorrow.

* * *

The 28th running of the event at Arlington Park is expected to lure more than 30,000 patrons and provide a near split in favoritism for the two nifty 3-year-olds.

A probable field of eight will go in the Classic mile, including C. V. Whitney's Head Man and Claiborne Farm's filly, Doubledogdare.

* * *

But the pre-race interest centers on E. Gay Drake's Swoon's Son, unbeaten in four starts this season, and Calumet Farm's Fabius, winner of the Preakness Stakes over Needles and the Jersey Stakes over Career Boy, among others.

* * *

Needles, the Kentucky Derby winner, is foregoing his Chicago appearance until the Washington Park meeting.

Bill Hartack, whose five winners yesterday gave him 42 for the Arlington session and 181 for the year, will be aboard Fabius. The son of Citation thus possibly will be the slight choice. Dave erb will pilot Swoon's Son.

Fastest Mile Run by Pacer

VERNON, N.Y. (AP)—Duane Hanover, driven by Bill Haughton, won all three heats of the $20,000 second leg of the Empire State Pacing classic last night, pacing one of the miles in 1:58, fastest in the United States this year.

* * *

The 4-year-old stallion, owned by Pine Acre Farm of Garden City, N.Y. took the runoff from Highland Laird and Yankee Scott in 2:01. He won the first heat in 1:58.3 and paced his 1:58 in the second heat.

Afternoon rains held the attendance to 4,355.

Drugs Regain Top in Drayton Circuit

A 4-2 victory over the VFW club last night projected Drayton Drugs back into a share of the Waterford Recreation softball top league spot.

Drugs were knocked off the pedestal first of the week by a loss to Lakeland Pharmacy, which tonight plays the nightcap of a double bill at Drayton Field with Gidley Electric.

In the night's other league battle, Gidley's dumped White Brothers for another one-run defeat 4-3.

In tonight's twin - bill opener Thrifty Drugs plays VFW. Both are makeup games for previously rained-out contests.

Harvie Ward, 1955 National Amateur golf champion, won the National Collegiate crown while playing for North Carolina in 1949.

Frank Gould Heirs Agree on Settlement

NICE, France (AP) — The widow and two daughters of multimillionaire Frank Jay Gould reportedly have agreed on a division of his vast estate.

Roger Arneodo, a lawyer representing one daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Burns, said the three women had signed the necessary legal papers.

* * *

Arneodo said Mrs. Burns, who lives in Nice, and the other daughter, Mrs. Helen Maret of Lausanne, Switzerland, would share the bulk of Gould's huge European holdings. Their stepmother, Mrs. Florence Gould, would get the bulk of his U.S. holdings and his home on the French Riviera.

Mrs. Burns consented to withdraw her contest of the will she had filed in a local court.

Grains Gain, Lose Slightly

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains posted small gains and losses in quiet dealings on the Board of Trade today.

* * *

Corn was under persistent pressure and fel back around a cent in both the old and new crop months. But oats resisted selling, holding about steady. July soybeans again lost ground on scattered liquidation.

Hedging pressure sent wheat down in early dealings but most losses were recovered. Rye scored small gains.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛ lower to ¼ higher, July $2.05⅛; corn ⅝ to ⅞ lower, Juoy $1.52⅛; oats ½ lower to ½ higher, July 72⅜; rye ½ to 1½ lower to ¾ higher, July $2.67½; lard 10 to 25 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $10.75.

No Hairsplitting Here on Point of Theology

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Dr. Robert L. Forbes, dean emeritus of the University of Arizona's college of agriculture, was recalling the old days for the Arizona Cattlemen's Assn. Convention.

"Uncle Bob Leatherwood slapped a $20 bill down and challenged any man to say the Lord's Prayer.

"The $20 was matched, and a cowboy started reciting:

" 'Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep . . .'

" 'You win,' Uncle Bob said, and paid him the $20. 'I didn't think you knew it.' "

Family Luck Fall-ters —End Is 3 Bad Breaks

BRYAN, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Sybil Wallace fell and broke her hip as she stepped into the home of her mother, Mrs. T. B. Wood, here.

Mrs. Wood and her other daughter, Mrs. Clara Wallace, took Mrs. Sybil Wallace to a hospital. At the entrance there, Mrs. Wood fell and sprained an ankle and Mrs. Clara Wallace fell and broke her wrist.

DETROIT EGGS

DETROIT, July 12 (AP)—Eggs, f.o.b. Detroit, cases included, federal-state graded:

Whites—Grade A, jumbo 51-55; weighted average 52; large 45½-47, wtd avg 46½; medium 36-41, wtd avg 38½; small 26-30, wtd avg 29½; grade B large 39-42, wtd avg 41½; peewees 25.

Browns—Grade A, jumbo 53; large 44-46, wtd avg 45; medium 36-41, wtd avg 40½; small 30; grade B large 36-41, wtd avg 40; grade C large 32-33, wtd avg 33; peewees 25.

Commercially graded: Whites, grade A extra large 46-47; large 41-45; medium 35-36; small 25.

Browns, grade A extra large 44½; large 40-43½; medium 36; grade B large 35-36½.

Comment: Market steady to firm. Prices ranged unchanged to 2 cents higher. Moderate supplies are clearing readily at the wholesale level and generally short of full needs on grade A offerings. Retail movements appears fair to good. Receipts from nearby areas are declining.

CHICAGO POTATOES

CHICAGO, July 13 (AP)—Potatoes new stock arrivals 78; on track 145; total U.S. shipments 480; supplies light; demand slow; market weaker; carlot track sales: washed 100 lb California long whites mostly 8.75; Texas round reds 9.25.

CHICAGO BUTTER AND EGGS

CHICAGO, July 13 (AP)—Chicago Mercantile Exchange: Butter steady; wholesale buying prices unchanged; receipts 1,323,000; 93 AA 58.75; 92 A 58.75; 90 B 58.50; 89 C 55.00; cars 90 B 57.00; 89 C 55.75.

Eggs tops firm; balance steady; wholesale buying prices unchanged to 1½ higher; receipts 8,300; 60-69.9 per cent A 40.50; mixed 40.00; mediums 35.00; standards 32.50; dirties 29.50; checks 29.50; current receipts 31.50.

Poultry

CHICAGO POULTRY

CHICAGO, July 13 (AP)—Live poultry quiet; receipts 763 (Thursday 714, 108,000 lb); f.o.b. paying prices unchanged; heavy hens 18½-20; light hens 17-18; broilers or fryers 24½-25½; old roosters 15-18; caponettes over 4½ 28-29; under 4½ 27-28.

DETROIT POULTRY

DETROIT, July 12 (AP)—Prices paid per pound f.o.b. Detroit for No 1 quality live poultry up to 10 a.m.

Heavy hens 22-24; light type 15-17; heavy broilers or fryers 2½-3¼ lbs gray crosses 28; Barred Rocks 28-29; caponettes 5-6 lbs 29-32.

Comment: Market about steady on hens with farm offerings of 5 to 6 lb colored hens scarce and short; balance of offerings of hens are adequate and demands light. Fryers and caponettes steady. Receipts of Barred Rock fryers are short to fair to good demand. A good demand for fancy quality caponettes, but just fair on poor quality offerings.

Announce Purchase Pact

DETROIT —The Kelsey-Hayes Wheel Co. of Detroit plans to purchase all outstanding stock of the Utica Drop Forge and Tool Corp. of Utica, N. Y., for an undisclosed sum.

Steel, Copper Lead Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels, coppers and selected issues led the stock market higher in quiet trading early this afternoon.

Pivotal stocks advanced from fractions to around 2 points.

The market was narrowly irregular at the start following yesterday's decline which snapped off six straight daily advances. Around the second hour today prices began to step ahead.

Steels rose as negotiators renewed their efforts to settle the 13-day strike.

Bethlehem Steel gained better than 2 points. U. S. Steel advanced a major fraction, and Youngstown Sheet & Tube around a point.

The coppers rose as the industry's price situation became firmer. The nation's biggest copper producer, Kennecott, rose more than a point. American Smelting and Anaconda advanced around a point each.

General Motors and Chrysler rose fractions. Reports from Detroit were of higher auto output following the holiday - shortened week of July 4.

Eastman Kodak ran ahead around 3 points. Aluminum Ltd. was a 1-point gainer.

Among the aircrafts, Boeing advanced a point, Douglas dropped a point, United lost a fraction and General Dynamics was unchanged.

Du Pont was up around 2 points but other chemicals were narrowly mixed.

Ortonville Man Jailed

An Ortonville man was bound over to the Oakland County Circuit Court Thursday after standing mute at a Justice Court examination on an uttering and publishing charge.

John Flood, 37, was remanded to the County jail under $500 bond after appearing before Justice Emmett C. Leib, of Springfield Township. He had stood mute at an earlier arraignment before Leib following his arrest by Holly police.

Dow Sets Meeting Time

MIDLAND (AP) — Directors of Dow Chemical Co. said the annual stockholders meeting will be held hereafter in September instead of August. The meeting date was moved ahead, a statement said, because of the "increasing complexity of company operations."

In manufacturing, the number of persons who voluntarily quit their jobs each month runs more than 2 per cent of the labor force, says the National Assn. of Manufacturers.

Caution Against Chain-Letter Plan in Sale of Autos

DETROIT (INS)—William Carrico, manager of the Detroit Better Business Bureau, warned today against the purchase of automobiles on the "chain letter plan."

* * *

Carrico said that chain letter car sales "are already a racket" in Dayton and Cincinnati, and that California promoters are in Detroit trying to get dealers to do the same.

Carrico explained:

"The plan is that the dealers offer new automobiles free. When a buyer visits the show room, he is required to make a down payment and asked to sign an installment contract.

"It is agreed that the agency credits him with $100 if a prospect he submits buys a car and $50 for each car sold to a prospect and prospect submits."

* * *

John Hirlinger, manager of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce, said this morning that he knows of no attempts to sell similar schemes to local car dealers, although outside promoters have in some instances used the chain plan to sell other products such as home appliances.

Tired of April Fool

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Mrs. Priscilla Brown sued James Brown for divorce yesterday, charging he abandoned her — on April 1, 1920. Her suit in Fayette Circuit Court said they were married in 1918.

Business Notes

Promotion of A. V. Powers to the newly-created post of Detroit zone manager for the American Motors Corp. has been announced by Roy Abernethy, vice president of automotive distribution and marketing.

Two Pontiac insurance agents, D. H. Pritt and M. L. Nicholson, have been named winners in a recent sales contest conducted by the Lincoln National Life Insurance Co., according to Cecil F. Cross, director of agencies.

The two will receive personal mementos from President Walter O. Menge in recognition of their achievements.

Woman, Daughter Shaken Up in Crash

A Dearborn woman and her one-year-old daughter were shaken up but suffered no apparent injuries in a three-car accident at Telegraph road and Golf drive, Bloomfield Township yesterday afternoon.

* * *

Mrs. Ruth A. Beebe, 22, and daughter, Mary, were released by Pontiac General Hospital after examination. They were passengers in a car driven by Robert Beebe, 28.

* * *

The other vehicles were operated by Estes Robinson, 45, of 50 Sheridan St., and Alexander Werner, 77, of Flint. Werner was ticketed by State Police for failing to stop his car in a safe distance after his car crashed into the rear of the stopped Beebe vehicle causing it to strike the car ahead.

Infirmary Chief Calls Aging Talks 'Most Productive'

A report of the ninth annual conference on Aging held at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor this week was given by Howard Estes, manager of the Oakland County Infirmary and Convalescent Hospital.

"I think this meeting was the most productive of all of them that I have attended," Estes said.

"Theme for this year's conference was 'Health for the Aging,' and we discussed rehabilitation through occupational therapy physical therapy and better nutrition," Estes said.

Interested parties came from all over the country for the meeting he added and the attendance exceeded all other previous conferences.

Occupational therapist Marion Hagen and assistant food supervisor, Mrs. Wanda Cahow, both from the infirmary, also attended the meeting.

Four Escape Injury in Train-Car Crash

Four persons escaped injury yesterday afternoon when the car they were riding in collided with the moving engine of a Grand Trunk Railroad train at a crossing on Haggerty Rd., Commerce Township.

Investigating Oakland County deputies reported the car was a total wreck. Robert Dockstader, 20, of Farmington, was the driver of the car. The investigators said he apparently had attempted to beat the train to the crossing.

Curtice's First Classroom Is Victim of Consolidation

EATON RAPIDS (AP)—The Petrieville School, which calls itself the "school of corporation presidents," faces closing in a consolidation move.

Harlow C. Curtice, President of General Motors, and Clyde E. Weed, head of the Anaconda Copper Co., both attended the little elementary school some 50 years ago. The two men head corporations with assets of omre than $7 billion.

New Auto, Truck Plant Planned by Ford in Ohio

CLEVELAND (AP) — A new 1,500,000 square-foot Ford car and truck assembly plant will be constructed near Lorain, Ohio, R. S. McNamara, Ford Motor Co. vice president and division general manager, announced today.

When completed, the plant will contain separate manufacturing systems for cars and trucks. The plant's capacity, if operated on two shifts, would be 906 vehicles daily. Employment will be approximately 2500 for a one-shift operation, and 4,500 for two shifts.

Earnings

NEW YORK (INS)—Lukens Steel Co. earnings for the six months ending June 16 totaled $3,542,122, or $11.44 a share, on sales of $50,919,000. For the 24 weeks ending July 2, 1955, the closest comparable period due to a change in the fiscal year, earning were $849,390, equal to $2.67 a share.

Spanish War Vet Weds; So Does Granddaughter

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — George Graves, 76-year-old Spanish-American War veteran, was married at a ceremony during which his granddaughter also became a bride.

* * *

Graves was wed to Mrs. Lula Hendrick, 74, of Sacramento, Calif., his late wife's sister. The granddaughter, Mrs. Janet McCarthy, 22, was married to Edward Webster of Lakewood.

Mrs. Webster's two children by her first marriage were the ringbearers for the double ceremony in Beth Eden Baptist Church.

Heads Japanese Talks

TOKYO (AP)—The Japanese government today named Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu, a "go slow" advocate, to head its delegation for the renewal of peace treaty talks with Russia. Tokyo newspapers predicted the talks will begin late this month in Moscow.

Meek Comedian Plays Daredevil

Must Be Adventurous in the Television Role of Hiram Holliday

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Can you imagine Wally Cox as a bullfighter?

* * *

No, I couldn't either. But there he was, the shy little man with spectacles, learning to fling a cape around and stand commandingly before the bull. This was taking place at the Vincent Gomez School of Spanish Culture. His teacher was Luis McManus, a Mexican - Irish ex-matador who instructs movie stars and starlets and others in the art of the bull ring.

WALLY COX

"You must stand like this, with your feet together, your stomach out and your head down," he told Cox in the dirt arena behind the school. "You do not say, 'Please come here, Mr. Bull.'

"Your attitude is always defiant. You say, 'Hey, toro, come here.'"

* * *

Fortunately for NBC, there was no real bull present to endanger the network's star. The beast was simulated by McManus, who held out a pair of horns and steered past Cox as the latter swung his cape defiantly.

All this was not without a purpose. Cox, you see, is taking a second fling at a TV series. His Mister Peepers expired after a few seasons. Now he's coming back in The Adventures of Hiram Holliday.

* * *

After completing his bullfight lesson, Cox explained what the series is all about. He plays a proofreader on a New York newspaper who spies a comma error and saves the publisher a million-dollar libel suit. The boss rewards him with a round-the-world trip and sends a reporter along to record his experiences.

And what experiences! Holliday turns out to be a fellow who can do everything well, despite his meek appearance. And so he proves himself a champion skier, skindiver, bobsledder, bullfighter, etc.

* * *

"Oh, this fellow studies nights," Cox explained. "Sundays too."

Police Destroy Marijuana Crop—Twice Over

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Several weeks ago Ammie McCord complained to authorities that his next door neighbors had a flourishing crop of marijuana in their back yard.

Officers came out, uprooted the crop, made arrests, and McCord thought the matter was closed.

Yesterday he had to call the authorities again.

"Something's got to be done," he said. "Seeds from those marijuana plants are springing up all over my yard, and there's a five-foot stalk of the stuff growing in that yard next door."

The officers came out, destroyed the volunteer plant next door and then weeded McCord's yard for him, while he watched from his porch.

Bee Our Honey?

IONIA (AP) — The Michigan Beekeepers Assn., will select a "honey queen" Governor's Day — Aug. 8 — at the Ionia Free Fair. The queen will represent the bee men at other Michigan fairs and public events this year. Entry is restricted to single girls between 17 and 25 who are related to a beekeeper.

Plane to Circle Around Globe in Slow Motion

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A KC97 plane from MacDill Air Force Base here will start out next month on a flight around the globe.

* * *

Contrary to most flights these days, this one will be in slow motion. It will take about 60 days.

The plane will fly around the Earth's midsection to help plot the geomagnetic equator—that is, to locate points at which the magnetic pull of the North and South Poles is equal. It is a project of the Air Research and Development Command.

* * *

The KC97, most often used as a tanker to refuel other huge planes in flight, will carry ground crew members for the project and extra air crew members.

Battle Looms on Civil Rights

House Backers See Overwhelming Victory Despite Southern Bloc

WASHINGTON (AP)—House backers of civil rights legislation maintained today they will win an overwhelming House victory next week despite a new Southern appeal for Northern votes against it.

* * *

The virtually solid opposition bloc from the Southern states issued a "warning of grave danger" yesterday, declaring the question is a constitutional, not a racial, one. Nearly all Southern House members signed the document, as virtually all had signed an earlier "manifesto" urging reversal of the Supreme Court decision barring racial segregation in public schools.

Rep. Keating (R-NY), a backer of a pending House bill closely following President Eisenhower's recommendations, said he does not think more than 20 or 30 Republicans will vote against it. That many, he acknowledged, may agree with the Southern position on states' rights and constitutional interpretation.

* * *

And Rep. Bolling (D-Mo) said he and other backers of the bill are ready for the debate opening Monday and need no further strategy sessions.

Wayne to Get $2 Million for 3 Coming Pictures

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor John Wayne, long one of Hollywood's leading money makers, has signed a contract which his studio says will bring him two million dollars for three pictures.

The transaction was announced yesterday by 20th Century-Fox.

Wayne also heads his own film production company, which is currently preparing to make "The Wings of Eagles," biography of Navy aviation pioneer Comdr. Frank Wead.

Friday the 13th Chore: Chase the B Street Bees

EUREKA, Calif. (AP)—City officials handed City Pest Control Officer Brunson Bilven this Friday the 13th chore:

Get rid of the bees on B Street.

Walter Lane complained that a swarm of bees had driven him and his family from their house.

Teenage Jobs at Postwar High

Cities Urged to Guard Health, Physical Shape of Young Workers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Employment of teenagers 14 through 17 in April and May reached postwar highs for these months, the Department of Labor reports.

* * *

Predicting teenage employment will increase during summer vacations, the department urged communities to pay attention to health and physical fitness of teenagers taking their first jobs.

In a new publication of the Bureau of Labor Standards titled "Two City Programs," the department noted progress in Philadelphia and Cleveland in providing necessary health, counseling and other services to boys and girls applying for employment certificates.

The department said these cities use the employment certificate system to not only protect working children but to help them make better work adjustments.

The department also urged employers to get employment or age certificates for all workers under 18 and for those 18 and 19 in hazardous jobs.

Turn In $20,000 Check

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — A $20,000 check and contract for purchase of the yield from a nearby orchard was turned over to police Tuesday night by three teenage girls — Judy, 16, and Patty Linger, 17, and Diane Solem, 16—who found the papers on a downtown street.
