TELLS OF CRASH — Vividly showing how a haulaway truck swooped down on a Greyhound bus yesterday morning near Monroe, William E. Holdway, 44-year-old Ohio trucker, described the crash and fire which claimed three lives and injured 22. Holdway said the bus was about to pass him in the center lane of the three-lane highway, when the haulaway came towards them weaving into the center lane. Holdway thought the truck driver had fallen asleep.

Witness Blames Bus Crash on Weaving Truck Driver

By PETE LOCHBILER

An Ohio trucker, who says he witnessed the tragic bus-truck crash yesterday which killed three near Monroe, says he believes the trucker was asleep at the wheel.

The death-bound auto haulaway was weaving across two of the three lanes on U.S.24, according to William E. Holdway, as the bus was approaching Holdway's truck from behind to pass him in the middle lane.

"I blinked my lights to wake up the truck driver," Holdway said in Pontiac yesterday, "but the trucker didn't blink his lights in return.

"He (the truck driver) passed me, and a few seconds later I saw a blaze of flame in my side view mirror."

BUS DRIVER CRITICAL

The crash north of Monroe at 3:35 a.m. killed the trucker and two bus passengers. Twenty-two were injured, including the bus driver who still is in critical condition.

The Monroe County Sheriff's Department said Holdway's story apparently checks with a version by a woman passenger who has recovered consciousness in a Monroe Hospital.

Chief Deputy Walter Trowbridge said Holdway will be contacted as an additional witness.

Holdway, 44, a trucker 14 years with a 13-year safe-driving record, said he was delivering axles to the

Adlai Arrives in Washington

Tells Cheering Crowd Hopes by January to Be in White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson, arriving to open his national campaign headquarters here, told a cheering crowd at National Airport today he hopes to set up residence in the White House next January.

The Democratic presidential nominee flew in at 10:25 a.m. EDT from Harrisburg, Pa., where last night he formally opened his campaign with a speech broadcast nationally on radio and television. In that address, he said that "from here on" Republican leadership will be in the hands of Vice President Nixon instead of President Eisenhower.

Stevenson said the nation has a "part-time presidency" with power passing to the hands of Nixon and a "big business" cabinet.

An enthusiastic crowd of several hundred persons was on hand at the airport as a smiling Stevenson stepped from his chartered four-engine plane. He came down the ramp with two of his sons, Borden and John Fell, and Stevenson's sister, Mrs. Ernest Ives.

Foreign Pilots at Suez Finish Last Trip South

SUEZ, Egypt (AP)—The last southbound convoy guided through the Suez Canal by foreign pilots moved through Suez tonight.

The 16 foreign pilots who guided it left their jobs immediately afterward. As this convoy left the 103-mile-long canal, the first convoy to be piloted entirely by Egyptians began forming here

New Rail Yard Delay Protested by Civic Leader

Harold L. Blackwood Calls for Action, Says Project Is Necessary

Suggesting that action be taken on the matter of adding switching tracks in the north end, civic leader Harold L. Blackwood today expressed regret at the delays. "Both the General Motors and the Grand Trunk are ready," said he, "and I feel it is necessary to Pontiac's future to get the project started.

"This is the most important problem Pontiac has faced in the last twenty years," he declared.

"Do we favor future expansion of Pontiac Motor and Fisher body?

"Do we wish future growth shuttled to the several other cities that already have subsidiary Pontiac plants?

"We face this decision.

"Future growth and expansion of Pontiac is impossible without a new railroad marshalling yard.

BLACKWOOD

General Motors makes that very plain. They could not handle the volume of business properly they had last year. We face a new model in the fall and I'd like to think we were prepared.

"GM went to the Grand Trunk and requested relief. The railroad studied the problem in detail and came up with a solution that would cost it $700,000. It entailed the construction of 11 new switching tracks with a space for 21 to allow for future growth.

"Pontiac and Fisher approved.

"Since that time, the matter has been discussed and debated, but nothing definite seems to take place.

"Some 1,800 residents of that district signed petitions against expanding for fear this would decrease the value of their homes. I believe this conclusion is wrong because if we help maintain high employment in the factories, these homes may well be worth

Goad, Executive Vice President of General Motors (left) escorted Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, her niece, Mrs. Edward Elliott and Mr. Elliott, of 480 Pleasant St., Birmingham as they toured the General Motors Technical Center at Warren yesterday. The former first lady inspected many of the styling, research and engineering activities at the 330-acre center, and pronounced the visit "stimulating and fascinating."

Jordan Claims 21 Raid Victims

Accuses Israeli Force of Striking Police Post Near Border

JERUSALEM (AP) — A Jordan military source said today 21 Jordan soldiers were killed, wounded or are missing in an Israeli raid on a police post at Gharandal in south Jordan last night. He said a force of 1,000 Israelis made the attack.

It was the second attack on a Jordan post along the Israeli demarcation line that has been reported by Jordan in three days. Twenty Jordanians were reported killed at Rahwa in a two-hour battle Wednesday.

The Jordan source said the attackers at Gharandal, a village about half way between the Dead Sea and Red Sea, used heavy weapons and were supported by three planes which bombed the area.

Jordan's foreign minister summoned the envoys of the three big Western powers in Amman this morning and informed them of the attack.

Jordan lodged an urgent complaint with the United Nations truce organization, saying the raiders destroyed the post. Truce observers flew to Gharandal, 12 miles inside Jordan's border.

School Was Ready on Time

Impure Water Delays Classes

A yard-long section of yellow pipe represents the frustrations of school officials, parents and children who are to attend the new Linda Vista School this fall.

Board of Education members last night heard that the $399,600 building was ready for pupils when other schools opened Sept. 6.

But the City has not yet approved water for the subdivision in which the school is located.

Building coordinator Dr. Otto C. Hufziger explained that when the City approves the pureness of the water, the pipe-section will be removed and the City will install a water meter.

NO WATER IN SCHOOL

Until then, the school will be without water and the children without classes, he said.

* * *

City Sanitarian Charles Cohen said the water may be approved Monday in time for school to open Tuesday.

He said tests have been conducted for several weeks without results necessary for him to okay the water.

Three successful samples in a row are needed to guarantee that all germs have been removed from the City's water main, he said.

GOOD SAMPLE WEDNESDAY

A successful sample was taken Wednesday afternoon, he said, and as yet untested samples were taken yesterday and today. The results will be known Monday morning after laboratory analysis, Cohen said.

"I'm pretty confident that we've got the bugs out this time," he said.

Board President Louis H. Schimmel last night said, "It's a public health precaution, entirely outside of our hands. Parents who get angry are only inviting us to open up and then send their children home with stomach-aches.

"Besides, we can't open up till the City gives us water and they won't approve their main until they're ready to."

Cohen explained that the testing is part of standards set up by the National Public Health Service, "and, of course, we adhere to them."

He said the main had been chlorinated Tuesday afternoon and flushed Wednesday morning. Germs, he explained, get into the main as it is being constructed. Once removed, they're presumably gone for good.

The Board has had other difficulties and delays with the school, Hufziger said, mostly because school officials wanted it erected as soon as possible.

"The school has been tied to the initial growing pains of a new subdivision," Hufziger said. "We've had trouble with delays by the City in improving roads, with delays in winter construction, and with delays in obtaining contractors to work in the new area."

School officials were confident, though, that parents will approve once the building opens. The pet of the school systems building program because of its beauty and low cost, the Linda Vista School will serve 420 pupils and has facilities for 85 handicapped children.

Hufziger also announced that two units of the new Cora Bailey School will open the middle of next week for kindergarten and first graders. Second and third graders will continue attending Wisner School for another week or ten days after that, he said.

He believed the $1,260,000 Walton Boulevard School will be ready Oct. 1. Children there have been temporarily attending other schools.

Delays in delivery of glass to Cora Bailey school and of steel door frames to Walton Boulevard might possibly hold up the opening dates, however, he added.

The dedication ceremony for the Madison Junior High School was set for Oct. 14. A new wing with gymnasium, cafeteria and other facilities was opened this fall.

Suez Talks Call Ike Off Farm

Meeting With Menzies Slated; Bulganin Note to Be Made Public

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower interrupts a rest at his farm estate today to fly back to Washington for talks on the tense Suez Canal situation.

Eisenhower, who drove here Wednesday for a Republican rally kicking off his re-election campaign, planned to spend a few hours in the capital, chiefly for a talk with Prime Minister Robert Menzies of Australia. Menzies was the chief Western negotiator in futile Suez talks with Egypt's President Nasser.

In what was primarily designed as a rest period before he begins formal campaigning next week, Eisenhower kept in close touch with Suez and other developments.

Three times yesterday he talked with Secretary of State Dulles by telephone. Their final conversation concerned a note from Soviet Premier Bulganin in reply to Eisenhower's Aug. 4 letter calling on the Russians to help create a "new spirit" in international relations and to join in effective disarmament.

Stevenson Gives His Philosophy: Trust the People

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson, formally opening his campaign last night, said in a nationally televised and broadcast address that if he were to put his political philosophy into a single phrase, it would be:

"Trust the people. Trust their good sense, their decency, their fortitude, their faith. Trust them with the facts, trust them with the great decisions. And fix, as our guiding star, the passion to create a society where people can fulfill their own best selves — where no American is held down by race or color, by wordly condition or social status, from gaining what his character earns him as an American citizen, as a human being and as a child of God."

Dulles May Fly Back to London for More Talks

War Jitters Subside as Eden Vows to Take Case to U.N. First

LONDON (AP)—The Western Big Three moved swiftly today to set up a Suez Canal users' association with the prospect U. S. Secretary of State Dulles may make a hurried flight to London.

An American diplomatic source said he understood Dulles was coming here next week — probably Wednesday.

A British diplomatic spokesman said the invitation list for an international conference is still being drawn up — but the invitations would go out "shortly."

The British Press Assn. suggested the possibility that Egypt may be among those invited. The general feeling here was that the conference would be next week —but no definite date has been announced.

Whether Dulles' reported trip was to take part in the conference or merely to discuss preparations with the British and French was not clear.

The war jitters that gripped this capital — and a large part of the world—after the idea of the users' group was first raised—have subsided somewhat in the wake of Prime Minister Eden's qualified promise to seek U.N. action before resorting to force.

The Institute of London Underwriters announced big increases in "war risk" insurance rates for ships calling at Egypt and sailing through the Suez Canal.

The British Embassy in Cairo this morning warned Britons for the third time to leave Egypt "if they have no compelling reason for remaining."

Another British aircraft carrier, the 27,000-ton Albion, was ordered to sail tomorrow for the eastern Mediterranean.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd was busy enlisting support for the proposed association — intended to coordinate traffic through the canal in cooperation with Egypt.

Threaten Gas Rationing Here If Canal Closes

WASHINGTON (INS)—Government experts today said domestic gasoline rationing may be necessary if the Suez Canal is closed.

A rationing system, they pointed out, would stem from the herculean efforts America would have to make to replace sagging petroleum supplies in Europe.

The Middle East has been producing close to a fourth of the free world's high-grade petroleum.

Area Invited in Hunt

Search for 'Gator to Begin

In what promises to be the wildest Oakland County scene since the Indian wars, a dauntless band of men and boys tomorrow afternoon will comb a nameless Springfield Township swamp for a six-foot alligator, allegedly loose there since June.

"Brutus," an eight-year-old 75-pound alligator, left his home and friends in Allen's Serpentarium, 10070 Dixie Highway, reportedly in search of a mate.

He's been in the crescent-shaped swamp 400 yards from the highway ever since, according to his owner, Paul T. Allen.

Allen, who says he's hoping a total of 150 men and boys will join in the swampy search tomorrow, has invited State Police, Sheriff's deputies, the Sheriff's mounted posse, National Guards, Boy Scouts and members of the Pontiac Sportsmen's Club.

Population of U.S. Set at 168,360,000

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Census Bureau today estimated the U.S. population on Aug. 1 at 168,360,000.

This total, which includes 906,000 armed forces overseas, is an increase of 17,227,000 or 11.4 per cent above the count at the last census in 1950

It also represents an increase of 2,841,000 or 1.7 per cent over the estimate for Aug. 1, 1955. Census estimated the total civilian population on Aug. 1, 1956 was 165,520,000.

Doctor Lays Down Law, Pot-O-Gold Must Reduce

The doctor didn't waste any words.

"You're too fat, Pot-O-Gold. Pare it off, or you'll suffer."

"I am suffering," retorted Pot. "I feel all choked up ——sort of stuffed, if you know what I mean. And it gets worse every week."

The idle rich—that descriptive term fits Pot-O-Gold, as it added a few inches around the middle again this week.

The additional girth came when another stack of $100 went into the pot after 5,364 entries were checked against the solution to puzzle No. 14. A correct solution would have lined someone's pockets with $800, and possibly $825 if the winner was a regular Press subscriber.

Out of the running were 63 answers that missed the deadline, and another 43 received in envelopes.

Although doctors don't recommend losing too much weight in a short time, a strenuous diet of the right words to the next puzzle could really reduce the pot on the Pot-O-Gold. It will be worth $900 if you send in the right combination of words.

Readers who want to check their reasoning against puzzle No. 14 clues and solution will find it on page 12. And that $900 is waiting for the right combination of words for puzzle No. 15 which appears for the last time today on page 11.

Remember, you're the doctor. Put that pot right into your pocket with a little pencil and brain work. And to keep you busy, another puzzle begins Monday.

Kocsis Takes 2-Hole Lead on Magee at 18

LAKE FOREST, Ill. (AP)—Chuck Kocsis, 43-year-old veteran, took a two-hole lead over Canadian star Gerald Magee, 22, on the morning 18 of their National Amateur Golf Tourney semifinal match today.

Kocsis, from Royal Oak, Mich., fired a streak of three's at Knollwood to turn the tide against his rangy foe from Toronto.

Chuck chipped in from 60 feet on the 11th and tapped in a 60-foot putt on the 13th to move two ahead.

Kocsis matched Knollwood Club's 35-36—71 par exactly, while Magee needed 35-38—73.

Meanwhile, defending champion Harvie Ward was locked in a tight semifinal scrap with collegian Joe Campbell, holding a one-hole lead after the 15th.

Higgins Raps Ziegler for Delays

George N. Higgins, chairman of the dormant Michigan Turnpike Authority, today lashed out at State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler, who he says has blamed the off-again, on-again turnpike plans for delays in construction of the 25-mile Rockwood-Toledo expressway.

Joining Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams in criticizing Ziegler, Higgins denied he had "any role" in Williams' recent blasts at the highway commissioner.

But he said, "I am forced to admit that not only members of Williams' political party but also of mine are embarrassed and disgusted with Ziegler's ineptitude."

"The Turnpike Authority rejects as totally false, Ziegler's attempt to add us to his list of alibis for failure to properly plan and construct the Detroit-Toledo expressway," Higgins said.

Claiming "we were the reason" for the Toledo-Rockwood expressway, Higgins said Ziegler "purposely rushed" plans for the road in order to block building of the proposed Rockwood-Saginaw turnpike.

"It is incredible—but unfortunately true—that in his hurry to get the project started on his own, Ziegler forgot to provide any proper access or way for traffic to get off at the north end of Rockwood," Higgins said.

"Instead of letting contracts for this northern access with those which built the highway, he has just done so as an afterthought.

"The result is that in a few months he will have a beautiful $27 million expressway ready for traffic but no proper access at the north end."

CITES INDIANA PIKE

Higgins noted the 156-mile Indiana turnpike, started a year after the 25-mile Rockwood-Toledo expressway, will be opened and dedicated Monday.

If Ziegler's highway building continues "at the dawdling pace witnessed on the Detroit-Toledo expressway," Higgins said, "not only will the Rockwood-Saginaw turnpike be needed, but others as well."

Referring to Ziegler's proposed freeway through Oakland County, Higgins said, "If he can ever decide on a location here, he then will be faced with the responsibility of telling these people how long it will be before they have anything to drive on.

"That is the $64 question in our county right now, and he has no answer.

"As the highway picture in Michigan develops, it will become increasingly clear why the Turnpike Authority is keeping its construction plans in readiness."

MOBILE RADIO CENTER — Recently added to the Oakland County Civil Defense equipment is this new 1956 Pontiac station wagon which will be used by the department as a mobile radio communication center. Civil Defense Director Lewis C. Jarrendt (left) talks to Ransford Bromley, assistant director, before taking a test run. The car will soon be equipped with $2,000 worth of radio equipment including a two-way short wave set and a monitoring receiver. These will be operated by a 2,500 watt generator presently installed in the rear of the wagon. Jarrendt explained the mobile center would replace the county's control center if it ever was destroyed by enemy attack. The car and equipment was purchased by federal matching funds — 50 per cent paid by Oakland County and 50 per cent federal expense.

Civic Leader Hits Rail Yard Delay

more. At least the value will be maintained. Remember, the industrial and railroad development located in the north end ahead of the homes.

"The Grand Trunk is willing to start now and Pontiac wants the work immediately.

"The City proposed an alternate site and had an independent survey of its own as to whether this would be suitable. The city's expert was substantially in agreement with the Grand Trunk engineers holding the location selected by the railroad to be the right one. Any other location would be inefficient in operation to both the Grand Trunk and General Motors.

"Further, I am told that no switching operations are possible on a grade of that steepness. A locomotive can not hold a train by itself but needs individual braking on each car.

"I believe the citizens of this area are vitally interested in creating more jobs if possible. Building these yards won't bring immediate expansion, but it will allow it to happen when the chance comes. This area wants the opportunity to expand.

"GM found the yards insufficient for the volume that placed here in 1955. We mustn't let that happen again. More work and more jobs make more prosperity.

"Have we ever had too much of these?"

Big 3 Seeks Talks With Canal Users

the original plan for internationalizing the canal seem likely to form the hard core for the new association — although membership will be open to all the world's maritime nations.

There was an urgency to get the association into operation in view of the mass walkout of non-Egyptian canal pilots set for midnight tonight.

Lloyd met with the Scandinavian ambassadors this morning. The foreign ministers of Sweden, Denmark and Norway — among those originally cool to idea of a users' association—are conferring Sunday in Stockholm. After talking with the Scandinavian envoys, Lloyd met with representatives of the Baghdad Pact countries — Iran, Iraq, Turkey and Pakistan.

Eden got a vote of confidence from Parliament last night on his Suez policies and pushed ahead with plans to set up a canal users' association to handle the passage of ships through the waterway.

The Prime Minister refused to bow to opposition Labor party demands for an unconditional pledge not to use force without U.N. sanction.

Gotham Editor Sees Negro Votes for GOP

NEW YORK (INS)—"A surprising number of Negroes will definitely switch to President Eisenhower" in November, it was predicted today by the managing editor of New York's largest Negro weekly newspaper, the Amsterdam News.

Announcing himself for Eisenhower's re-election, James L. Hicks said he is a Democrat but "as a Negro I feel for the first time that I can call on officials to enforce the law of the land, and that if the law is enforced I will receive justice."

Blame Truck Driver in Greyhound Crash

Pontiac Motor Division. He did not stop at the accident.

"I came on to Pontiac, went to the Roosevelt Hotel and slept until afternoon when I read about the accident in the newspaper. If I had known it was that bad, I would have stopped to help," he said.

Holdway, employed by the Trans-American Freight Co. in Cleveland, described the accident yesterday afternoon in the hotel lobby before leaving for home. He said he left Columbus, Ohio, about midnight with his cab and trailer and headed for Pontiac. He said:

"I was going north on U.S. 24 around Monroe when I noticed the bus lights behind me. It was about 2,000 to 2,500 yards behind and had pulled into the center lane, apparently starting to pass me.

"At the same time, I saw the truck lights coming toward me. The truck was weaving back and forth, from the outside lane halfway into the center lane, first one and then the other.

"I figured he must be asleep, so I blinked my lights from bright to dim and back to wake him up. If he had been awake, he would have blinked his lights in return as truckers usually do.

"I was worried that he might run into me—I'm afraid of that piece of road nowadays.

"He went by me, still weaving. I couldn't see the driver because it was still dark and a little foggy.

"Next thing, I looked in my side view mirror and saw a big blaze of flame going up in the air. I knew he was in trouble, that something bad had happened.

"I figured he had hit the ditch and turned over—I didn't realize the bus had been hit.

"I kept on driving, truckers seldom stop for other accidents —big trucks just get in the way. I was about 2,000 feet ahead before I could stop and it's not easy to turn one of those trucks around.

"If I had known what had happened, though, I would have stopped."

Holdway said he was in the outside northbound lane going about 40 m.p.h. when the haulaway passed him at about 40 to 45 m.p.h., he estimated.

The three vehicles were the only ones on the highway he noticed, he said. The crash soon caused a "terrific" traffic jam deputies said.

Trowbridge said Holdway will be contacted tomorrow night at his home in Newcomerstown, 100 miles south of Cleveland. The trucker left Pontiac yesterday afternoon to spend the weekend with his wife and two daughters.

Deputies are waiting for the bus driver, Charlies Kier of New Kensington, Pa., to improve before questioning him. Kier is reported in "very bad" condition at Monroe Mercy Hospital. He suffered severe burns over most of his body.

A passenger, Annie Foxworth, of Darby, Pa., said she saw the truck in their lane, Trowbridge said. She said she remembered the driver tried to swerve out to the left and blew the horn, Trowbridge said, but recalled nothing else until the fire.

"We think the truck driver woke up when the horn sounded and swerved to the right, according to the way we found the vehicles afterwards," Trowbridge said.

The truck and bus were found burning side-by-side. Most passengers escaped through windows.

Greyhound officials said the bus left Pittsburgh at 7:45 p.m. The haulaway was outbound from Detroit with a load of three or four new autos.

Still Time to Get Tickets for Lunch Honoring Cobo

Tickets still are available at Osmun's downtown store for the luncheon Monday honoring Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo, GOP candidate for governor, chairman Richard I. Moore said today.

The event, scheduled for noon in the Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake Ave., is intended to draw a bipartisan crowd to hear the mayor's talk.

An audience of 250 is expected to hear L. Harvey Lodge, Republican candidate for State Senator, introduce Mayor Cobo.

Republican candidates for county and state legislative offices also are expected to accompany the mayor during his campaign tour of the country.

The Day in Birmingham

State Official, 3 Queens to Be in Tonight's Parade

BIRMINGHAM — Three beauty queens, State Treasurer Sanford Brown, and marching units including Grosse Ile's crack Marine marching drill unit will be among those in the Civil Defense Parade here tonight at 7 p.m.

Also on today's CD agenda is dedication of the ground observer post at 4 p.m., at which Brown will represent Gov. Williams and share speaking honors with Capt. Robert Faulhaber, commander of the Grand Rapids Air Force Filter Center.

The parade will lead off at 7 p.m. from Chester and Merrill corner, jog over to Brown, thence to Woodward, around the Maple Woodward intersection, over to Chester, back to point of origin.

Wendy Ross in a white formal and riding in a white car, will lead off the parade, guarded by the auxiliary police car.

Other queens, will be Carole Lee Rudd, Miss Michigan State Fair, and the queen of the Naval Reserve district members from Pontiac. The unit will be marching while their queen rides in a convertible. Also from the fair, will be the 26-foot replica of the Mackinac Bridge, one of the final parade features.

Mayor James Allen and the state treasurer will be in the next two cars, among fancier cars being loaned by auto firms for the parade. Mayor Allen will ride in a car especially designed for presidential use in such parades.

The county's director of civil defense will ride in his yellow station wagon, equipped specially for his duties.

About 200 men are expected to march with the 703rd Tank Batalion, and they'll bring a jeep, six trucks and two tanks.

* * *

Other marching units will be the Selfridge Field Air Corp Band, the Naval Reserve men from Pontiac, the Ground Observer Corps, and the CAP unit, and Boy Scouts of troop B-7, which aided the JayCees with its Flag sale this spring.

Ways that Birmingham's safety will be guarded will be shown with such units as the American Red Cross's station wagon, the county rescue truck, ambulances and wreckers from local firms, mobile communications truck, trucks from Detroit Edison and Michigan Bell, the fire department, and DPW trucks.

Future siren for the city, approved just two weeks ago, but awaiting federal matching funds will be the Thunderbolt siren borne on a fire department truck. Two such sirens will be installed here.

Floats from the VFW and American Legion are planned in the line-up.

Early in the parade will be the president, Al Firth, and other officials of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, which has sponsored the parade and other civil defense week plans. Chairman for the week has been Richard Ernst.

* * *

At the GOC post dedication, Commander George McHugh of the American Legion Post will present a flag which post members will dedicate. The CAP wing will attend in uniform.

The Rev. G. Burton Hodgins will give the invocation and benediction and Mrs. Melvina Eberle, county GOC coordinator will introduce speakers.

New teachers here and in Bloomfield will be feted tomorrow by AAUW women at the Methodist Church at a luncheon.

Navy tractors in the antarctic weight 34 tons, but are almost as light on snow as a man. The reason is that their treads are so wide—54 inches.

GIs Buy Fighter Doll in Japan for Babe

TOKYO (INS)—A Japanese doll, purchased by American servicemen based in Tokyo, will be flown tonight to the John Sealy Hospital bed of cancer-stricken Babe Zaharias.

* * *

Thirty members of the Army's Military Advisory Group in Japan helped buy the little doll as a token of encouragement to the famed woman athlete in her fight against cancer.

* * *

The doll is a Samurai warrior, and was selected because it is going to the "greatest fighter of all times."

* * *

The package, with a letter signed by the men, will be flown from Tokyo to Los Angeles aboard an airliner.

Missing Woman Still a Mystery

Wealthy Broker's Wife Vanishes in San Diego; Police Doubt Kidnaping

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The disappearance of Mrs. Ruth Latham, 51, wife of a wealthy San Diego investment broker, remained a mystery today.

* * *

She vanished from her palatial home Wednesday afternoon. Police listed her as a missing person. They said there was no evidence she had been kidnaped. An earlier all-points police bulletin said she might have been abducted.

Mrs. Latham is the wife of broker George D. Latham. She is listed as president of four companies of which he is vice president. She was alone with a 4-year-old grandson just before she disappeared. The baby was not harmed and nothing was missing but three checkbooks and five corporate seals of companies in which Mrs. Latham is president.

She disappeared about the time two women said they were kidnaped by three men and a woman in suburban Bonita and driven to Calexico, where they were released.

* * *

Police said there was no evidence of a direct link between the two cases, although Mrs. Latham and her husband were involved in a law suit with Mrs. Beatrice Winn, 51, who said she was kidnaped at her Bonita home.

Mrs. Winn told police a visitor in her home, Mrs. Lucille M. Whisenand, 36, U. S. Customs Service employe, also was kidnaped.

Officers said Mrs. Winn told them the kidnaper said they were abducting her to prevent her from testifying against the Lathams. The case is scheduled for trial Oct. 12. Mrs. Winn said the kidnapers mentioned getting money from Latham.

* * *

The suit involves the ownership of a Chula Vista building materials company. Mrs. Winn is seeking return of $60,000 she says she invested.

City Hall Is Jumping While New One Goes Up

LANSING (AP)—Employes in Lansing's old City Hall are learning to duck while a new City Hall is built next door.

A crowbar Thursday smashed through a window of the old City Hall and plunged down a stairway, fortunately empty at the time.

Earlier, a hot rivet shot through the window, narrowly missing several employes.

Kissing and Chin-Chucking Befuddle the Kiddies

Babies, Not Politicians, Deserve Your Pity

BY PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Too many people are wasting too much sympathy these days on our country's baby-kissing politicians.

* * *

Any time a newspaper picture turns up, showing some distinguished national figure like Dwight David Eisenhower kissing a favorite son of some doting Republican mother, there are coos of pity from all sides.

"Poor Ike, what an old fool he must feel," somebody will say. "Isn't it a shame that he has to suffer through all this indignity for the sake of his campaign."

Then Adlai Stevenson appears on the front page of a local gazette. He is riding a ferris wheel with a couple of confused-looking kids from Bergenfield, N. J.

* * *

"Why does he do it?" an ardent Stevensonian will bleat. "Here is a man with intellect, and he's being made ridiculous for the sake of a few votes!"

JUST DON'T WORRY

Well, all I can say is nonsense—worry not about the Eisenhowers and Stevensons and their bussing campaign techniques.

* * *

It's the infants who deserve sympathy; the badgered, befuddled, bemused and kissed kiddies. It is they who must suffer, needlessly, the psychological after-effects of a hot political race.

"Mommy, who was that strange man and why did he chuck me under the chin like that?" plaintive small voices across the country must be asking.

Politics is just as unfathomable to children as it is to most adults, particularly as regards the chin-chucking bit.

So mommy must reply with something hazy like: "Well, he's an old friend of your Uncle Henry who as you know is a card-carrying member of the Young Republicans Club." This may or may not reassure the child, depending on how he feels about Uncle Henry.

Or mommy may take a chance and say "That, Darling, was the next President of the United States." This will soothe the child temporarily perhaps, but there is always the risk that after Nov. 6 his faith in the authority of mothers may be destroyed.

And then he may turn into a cynic with an inferiority complex—aware that he has been coldly "lent out" for reasons of publicity.

In glancing through newspapers in the past week, we have noticed that candidates for important office, locally and nationally, have been doing some of the most unusual things for the cameras: Flying kites, feeding mongrel dogs, attending high teas, and admiring new beer signboards.

What every campaigner consistently feels that he desperately needs, however, is the love of a good borrowed child.

* * *

Well, I would venture to say that any "good" child is either irritated, embarrassed or bored by the whole silly procedure. He knows what persons really like him, and who is this presumptuous guy who is rubbing his little fuzzy head?

* * *

Wouldn't be at all surprised some day to see an infant bite the hand that kneads him.

Safety Risk Charged at Monroe A-Plant

DETROIT (AP) — The proposed atomic power plant at Monroe, has been challenged again on the grounds of safety by an official of the National Rural Electric Co-operative Assn.

Clyde T. Ellis, general manager of the association, said that Atomic Energy Commission Chairman Lewis Strauss and Walker Cisler, president of the Detroit Edison Co. should have asked "a full scale hearing on safety."

Ellis, of Washington, said the Monroe plant, designed to produce electrical power, is a safety risk.

The AEC's tentative approval of the plant, Ellis said, is part of the "administration's rush to give away to its pets, the giant corporations, the greatest of all natural energy resources, atomic power."

The government, he said, is trying "to freeze out the consumer-owned systems."

Stray Cat Limps Home 105 Miles Over 2 Months

LANSING (AP) — Here's one of those animal mysteries scientists find hard to explain.

Two months ago, 11-year-old Theresa Crosby of Lansing, visited Muskegon, about 105 miles away.

She took along her pet cat, Finn, an 18-month-old gray and white male. Finn wandered off and disappeared.

This week, Theresa heard a commotion in the back yard. A dog had treed a cat.

Theresa and her parents swear it is Finn. And they cite as positive identification a lame left leg wounded by a B-B shot six months ago.

Fugitive Nabbed in Wild Chase

3 Officers Wounded in 2-Hour Gun Battle on Staten Island

By RAY KOHN

NEW YORK (AP)—Gunfire crackled on staid Staten Island yesterday as dozens of police fired at least 100 shots during a wild, two-hour chase to capture an escaped prisoner.

The fugitive and three law officers were wounded in the melee, and another policeman suffered a heart attack.

* * *

It all started with Henry Bryant, 28-year-old ex-convict, being held in a Richmond County Courthouse detention cell awaiting a lawyer to defend him on an assault and burglary charge.

Bryant asked to be taken to a washroom on the second floor. In the washroom, he knocked correction officer Max Rudtz to the floor, escaped through a window and boarded a bus.

Rudtz and Deputy Sheriff Russell Johnson, 46, were close behind in an auto. The officers boarded the bus. In a scuffle which terrified passengers, Bryant grabbed Rudtz's gun and fired several shots. One bullet struck Johnson in the stomach.

* * *

Bryant leaped from the bus. Meanwhile, police throughout the island — across the bay from Manhattan — had descended on the normally quiet St. George section. Residents took cover as police bullets followed Bryant, who darted in and out of back yards.

Bryant, a former amateur boxer, finally was cornered in a garage in New Brighton. Police pumped bullets into the garage until Bryant, bleeding from an arm wound, surrendered and pleaded: "Leave me alone. I ain't got the gun any more."

Beside Johnson, the wounded officers were Detective John Lipka, 46, and Patrolman Edwin F. Daggett, 35.

* * *

Johnson was described as in fair condition. Lipka and Daggett were in serious condition. Lipka suffered a chest wound while Daggett was hit three times — in the throat, arm and chest.

Patrolman Henry Heisinger suffered a heart attack while taking part of the chase. His condition was poor.

Real Estate Class Offered in Pontiac

A course in real estate management will be given in Pontiac under auspices of the University of Michigan.

One of several courses to be offered in many Michigan cities, the course will be taught by Russel A. Pointer, Saginaw realtor.

* * *

First session will be at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 26, at Pontiac High School. Persons in the real estate business in the Pontiac area interested in additional training may register at this first class meeting.

Fee for the course will be $22.

Students just entering the field are urged to elect the basic courses in land economics and psychology before enrolling for some of the more specialized subjects, said Charles H. Sill, coordinator of the program.

Latest Suez Moves

No hot war, but plenty of cold war moves.

★ ★ ★

That seems to be the strategy contemplated by the Western Nations in the Suez crisis. France, Britain and the United States have several possibilities open to them, each of which might serve to slow up Egypt in its determination to take over the control of the Suez Canal and operate it without regard for the West.

For one thing, the Western Nations control a great deal of the shipping that goes through the Canal. They could route the shipping, much of it Middle East oil, around the southern tip of Africa, thus depriving Egypt of the tolls which have made the canal profitable.

It was to receive these tolls that President Nasser recently seized Suez and declared in the future it would be the property of Egypt. It had been owned by a private company, with the controlling interests held by British and French.

★ ★ ★

The Western Nations also can put a financial nudge on Egypt by impounding Egyptian funds abroad. After all, Egypt seized property belonging to others when it took over the canal. The United States already has cut its foreign aid program off from Egypt with the exception of a mere trickle.

★ ★ ★

The United States has made it clear that it will not join in any offensive war to take back control of the canal from Egypt. But it has stood with Britain and France in protest over the Suez seizure and seems ready to adopt peaceful means of inducing Nasser to resume negotiations and work out some compromise which will permit other nations to have some voice in the canal's operation.

Whether Russia will aid Egypt financially in this crisis remains to be seen. That is a possibility, for Russia is standing by, ostensibly as Nasser's friend, and hoping to profit from the ill feeling which may be created between Egypt and the West.

It will take some time to learn the results of the new program. Meanwhile there may be further operating complications as foreign employes of the canal either quit or are released.

The whole situation still is touch and go. There are explosive possibilities, despite the fact that none of the nations involved apparently desires to precipitate a shooting war. When the air becomes as tense as it is today, some hothead could make a mistake which would upset the tense and uneasy calm which now prevails.

President Nasser now is playing for time, assured that the United States will hold Britain and France back from outright war, and believing that ultimately the latter two nations will tire of the stalemate and give in.

★ ★ ★

Only time will tell whether he is right, or whether the peaceful steps now being taken by the Western Nations will force Nasser to give ground and agree to something less than complete control of Suez.

35-23-35

Perhaps it is just as well that the American people, or at least many of them, occasionally choose to push aside their weighty problems and center their attention on unimportant things.

A new Miss America has just been crowned. The World Series is just around the corner. These events are not of vast importance but they do attract considerable interest.

The new Miss America is blonde, blue eyed Marion McKnight of South Carolina. She is nineteen years old and teaches Sunday School classes. Her talent specialty is a drawling, hip swinging takeoff on actress Marilyn Monroe.

★ ★ ★

Marian likes to sit up late at night and get up late in the morning, but she is going to reverse that program during her year as the nation's beauty queen, for she will be making personal appearances all over the country. She started out by meeting newsmen after only two hours of sleep following her crowning at Atlantic City last Saturday night.

Marian seems to be a normal American girl who likes rock 'n' roll music as well as the semi-classics, goes for the singing of Doris Day and Frank Sinatra and the acting of Rock Hudson.

She was a tomboy at 13 and is known as "Mac" by her friends in Manning, S.C. She is five feet five inches tall, and, since this was a Miss America contest, her measurements are 35-23-35.

★ ★ ★

Miss McKnight is a reigning beauty this year. She would like to become an actress. But she has a bit of insurance in Air Force Lt. John Gramling of Orangeburg, S. C. He's her steady boy friend.

Football Contest Bringing in Many Early Entries

Popular fiction: Some of the political speeches.

Several hundred entries have already been received in our Football Contest. They are from people who wish to take no chances on forgetting to go after that $300. Better play safe, and join them, hadn't you?

The prize goes to the person who comes the nearest to predicting the outcome of the 13 following games:

Sept. 29—Mississippi vs. Kentucky.
Oct. 6—Michigan vs. Michigan State.
Oct. 13—Duke vs. Southern Methodist.
Oct. 14—Detroit Lions vs. Los Angeles Rams.
Oct. 20—Michigan State vs. Notre Dame.
Oct. 27—Stanford vs. Southern Calif.
Nov. 2—Pontiac vs. Saginaw.
Nov. 3—Detroit vs. Cincinnatti.
Nov. 10—Texas vs. Baylor.
Nov. 17—Georgia vs. Auburn.
Nov. 22—Penn vs. Cornell.
Nov. 24—Michigan vs. Ohio State.
Dec. 1—Army vs. Navy.

It costs nothing to enter, and every member of your family is eligible to send in a prediction, but each entry must be on a separate piece of paper.

If you wish to do so, simply clip out the list and check the team which you think will win. If you think it will be a tie game, do not check either team. Then attach it to a piece of paper bearing your name and address, and send it to "Football Contest," The Pontiac Press.

For other members of your family you can write out the list and designate the predictions.

All entries must be received in The Press Office by Saturday noon, Sept. 29. Better do it NOW, so you won't forget it and lose $300.

This is an elimination contest, and you are in it only so long as you guess correctly. All entrants agree to abide by the rules, and the decision of the judges is final.

Only one entry is allowed from each person, and employes of The Press and members of their families are not eligible to compete. That $300 is beckoning to you. Want it?

"School Buses Will Take Them Right . . . Here"

David Lawrence Says:

Nasser Faces Economic Squeeze

WASHINGTON—There isn't the slightest need to use military force to win the battle of Suez. It isn't necessary to risk human lives. If the governments of Great Britain, France and the United States choose to take a lesson from the labor unions and adopt one of their favorite techniques, Col. Nasser will find himself compelled to yield to reason and a sensible settlement of the controversy.

In a sense, the British, French and American statement just issued is a start in that direction. For what the three governments have done is to form an organization of "users." In the vocabulary of the industrial world, these are analogous to the "buyers." Now, buyers can be persuaded to employ the boycott, and they can refuse to cross a picket line.

The picket lines in this case are at the entrance and the exit to the Suez Canal—international waters. Egypt remains the owner of only the water inside the canal. She is as sovereign as are the stockholders of a company in an industrial strike and probably just as helpless. For the users can be persuaded not to use the canal—that is, not to cross picket lines until satisfactory terms are obtained.

WARSHIPS UNNECESSARY

It would not be necessary to station warships on the picket lines to prevent any commercial ships from using the canal because enough of the users would themselves respect the picket lines. With a strike of the pilots going on, traffic would not be as safe as before.

The users of the canal are really the private shipping companies. They can be organized for their own protection. They can stipulate the conditions under which the Suez Canal will or will not be used. It doesn't need to be a governmental body.

Thus, the power of decision would pass into the hands of those who really can wield economic pressure.

TANKER PLAN

For one thing, if the Suez Canal isn't to be efficiently operated, there's not much use in investors lending money to Egypt to have it widened so as to accommodate larger tankers. It would be better to put the money into the building of huge tankers to carry the oil around the Cape of Good Hope. The American government is considering a plan to finance such a tanker-construction program. After figuring the savings in tolls and the time saved in putting so much more in a single cargo than ever before, the net result might be such as to render the Suez Canal superfluous.

But before such a program is embarked upon, a strike has to be carried on and decided one way or the other. Faced by the facts of life, Nasser will have to cease quibbing about sovereignty and turn his mind to the practical problem of operation. This is what the British, French and American governments now have done and they have invited users from other countries to join them.

Hence, the whole problem ceases to be an issue for war or for military threats and becomes a business proposition which Nasser is free to accept or reject. Like many an employer, he can shut down his operation and refuse to grant the demands of the strikers, or he can bargain and come to an agreement.

The presence of allied warships and paratroopers and mobile forces may have been a wise precaution in case Nasser should threaten any harm to foreign citizens in Egypt, but military action is wholly unnecessary as a means of settling the dispute over how the canal shall be operated.

This controversy is today, and has all along been basically an economic matter. It is solvable by economic pressure. Nasser needs the canal to get revenue. The users need the canal for economy's sake. But they want a showdown as to whether they are to be subject to extortion on tolls or confiscation of their property without a satisfactory plan of compensation. The strike of Suez pilots will accelerate the transfer of the issue from the intangibles of political nationalism to the tangible of economic negotiation.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment.—Deut. 16:18.

★ ★ ★

Justice is the idea of God, the ideal of man, the rule of conduct writ in the nature of mankind.—Theodore Parker.

Dr. William Brady Says:

The Cause of Rheumatiz Is Nutritional Deficiency

If your joint disability is really arthritis (joint inflammation), the classical signs of inflammation will be more or less obvious. The signs are calor, dolor, rubor, et tumor (heat, pain, redness, and swelling). If no such signs are evident, it is an affectation to call your trouble arthritis. Chronic arthritis is a rare disease.

If it isn't arthritis, what would I call it? No, not rheumatism. Rheumatism doesn't mean anything today — formerly it meant "watery discharge from mucous membranes, especially eyes and nose, catarrh, cold".

If the disability is of more than a year's standing, it may, of course, be internal derangement, such as loose cartilage, torn ligament, or other result of injury, sprain, or strain; and such joint disability requires orthopedic or surgical treatment.

If history and examination enable us to rule out real chronic arthritis and trauma (damage to the joint by injury or strain); and if the trouble has developed insidiously in the course of a year or more; and if the patient is middle-aged or older, we may be almost certain of the nature of the trouble — physical degeneration of joint tissues, a process well-designated as RHEUMATIZ.

The cause of rheumatiz is, I believe, nutritional deficiency through the years from childhood up to breakfast tomorrow.

I say breakfast tomorrow because I hope you will eat an adequate breakfast tomorrow morning and every morning thereafter whether your joints are weather-conscious or not.

Doctor Osler's candid statement will bear repetition here, "Chronic rheumatism", he said, meaning, of course, rheumatiz as described here, "comes on insidiously in persons who have passed the middle period of life" — sort of sneaks up on you while you are trying to convince yourself and everybody that you're just as supple as ever, even though you do not choose to roll somersaults to illustrate—"It is most common among the poor, particularly washer-women, day laborers, and those whose occupation exposes them to cold and damp."

Osler's language was probably appropriate for his era, but if he could see the cars in which the gardener comes to work and the cleaning-woman takes her family on vacation trips, I imagine he might revise the description.

Incidentally, Brady's boast will bear repetition here, since no one has ventured to challenge the claim. It is smply that when I was a boy on Chapel Street in Canandaigua the Chapel Street Bradys were the poorest family in Ontario County — and, if not the best, certainly as well-nourished as any family in New York State or anywhere else.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to diseases, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Asks Milk Price Inquiry Include Quality and Age

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Now that we are to have a committee to investigate the price of milk, let me suggest that they also investigate the quality and the age of the dairy products we are now paying such a high price for. Milk processed on Monday is marked not to be sold after the day stamped on the carton, which would be Friday.

This means that the bottle of milk processed Monday can be delivered to the consumer as late as Friday and still be within the law. Milk delivery men are not allowed to return unsold products and they take them out and sell them to the unsuspecting public the following day or days.

Why does the Pontiac Board of Health allow the dairy companies to do this? We are paying the high price, our children should have fresh dairy products, not old, unsold stuff carted around for days before delivery.

Britain and France Apply More Pressure on Egypt

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Britain and France are beginning to turn more screws to put the squeeze on Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser in the battle over the Suez Canal.

Paris headquarters of the canal company, which Nasser nationalized July 26 in a sudden swoop in which owners were not consulted, has authorized hundreds of non-Egyptain personnel to quit work today if they already have given a month's notice.

These non-Egyptians include key personnel such as the pilots, most of whom are British and French. If they quit in a group, traffic will be severely curtailed because Egypt does not have the trained pilots.

Egypt has been frantically appealing around the world, including calls at Moscow and Pieping, for pilots to replace Britons and Frenchmen.

★ ★ ★

It says it will not prevent the present pilots from leaving their jobs, although when Nasser first took over he threatened imprisonment under martial law for any pilots that quit.

DOUBTFUL PROSPECTS

Even if Egypt gets a big batch of pilots from behind the Iron Curtain, it is doubtful that they can keep traffic runing smoothly from the Mediterranean to the Red Sea.

★ ★ ★

A Suez Canal pilot is a highly trained man. He must be able to recognize each of almost 3,000 buoys along the 103-mile course.

He must know tides and currents, sudden freak weather such as sandstorm gusts, and the behavior of different types of ships in each of hundreds of varying conditions.

A pilot on the Suez under the company that operated before Egypt took over must have had 10 years at sea and his ship's master's papers before he starts on the canal. He must be physically fit, must know or acquire the nautical vocabulary of some dozen languages.

★ ★ ★

Egyptian scouts have been reported offering up to $25,000 annual pay in the quest for good European pilots.

Appeals for aid in the United States were turned down by pilot organizations. West Germany also has disapproved of the recruiting of Kiel Canal men.

MANY BENEFITS

Under the old setup a Suez pilot could earn up to $18,000 a year. He also got three months' annual vacation, his housing and food were subsidized. He got free medical care and educational funds for his children.

★ ★ ★

Most of the British and French pilots now on vacation apparently do not intend to return to Egypt despite the well-paying jobs.

Their attitude is that the Nassar regime is too unstable.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Help Newlyweds in Right Way

Marge offers a very clever idea which in-laws can profitably imitate. For many marriages go on the rocks because the husband and wife fail to revive their courtship emotions by a movie date together once per week. It is proper to subsidize newlyweds if you employ the correct methods outlined below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case S-365: Dick and Marge Gandy, of Long Beach, California, are a young married couple who wish to share an excellent idea with all of you.

★ ★ ★

"Dr. Crane," began Marge, "my husband's folks live about 30 miles away from our home. So they can't act as baby sitters for us when we wish to go out on a date.

"We never dreamed of the clever idea which they finally developed for acting as proxy baby sitters for us.

"But two years ago at Christmas time, they told us they were making us a different type of gift.

"They guaranteed to give us a check each month to pay for a hired baby sitter so we could go to a show.

"And they renewed that contract for this year of 1956. Don't you think that was a wonderful idea, Dr. Crane?"

IDEAS FOR GRANDPARENTS

Yes, I think it is excellent. Marge showed me the letter from her in-laws on this point, and I think it merits reproduction:

"Dear Dick and Marge," it began. "We don't usually give gifts with strings attached to them, but this present has a long string to it—12 months long, to be exact.

★ ★ ★

"The enclosed check is for the express and exclusive purpose of paying a baby sitter.

"A like amount will be forthcoming the first of each month, provided we receive a monthly report of your activities during the 'sittin'.

"Have fun — twice a month — on us. Much love, Mom & Dad."

This is such a thoughtful and practical gift that I recommend it to all of you in-laws whose married children are now having their babies. It is most desirable for young couples to have a date regularly.

If you in-laws live close enough to baby sit once every week or two, fine and dandy.

But if you live too far away, why not finance an arrangement like that just described?

★ ★ ★

In this modern age, young married couples have it pretty tough. In colonial days, the men of the neighborhood banded together and helped build a new log house for the newlyweds.

Meanwhile, the women folks had a shower to furnish the couple enough pewter plates and bedding so they could move in at once.

HOW TO HELP

Nowadays, the costs of setting up housekeeping have zoomed. Added to that, the price of babies is likewise growing much higher.

So you parents-in-law should try to subsidize the newlyweds as much as possible in these first crucial years of marriage.

But don't give cash gifts to be applied to the current expenses of the young couple, for that method encourages an extravagant living standard and makes them "remittance" couples perhaps for life.

Instead, make a down payment on a little house for the newlyweds. Let them then apply their normal rent money thereafter to pay off the balance of the price of the home.

A baby-sitter gift check like that of the Gandy's is also desirable.

★ ★ ★

And a bonus for each new grandchild helps a lot. Many of you grandparents would have twice as many grandchildren if you'd offer adequate baby bonuses.

For further specific advice, send for my booklet "How to Live on a Budget," enclosing a stamped return envelopes, plus 20 cents.

Remember, a young couple can often profit more from a $1,000 down payment on a home now than from 10 times that sum in your will, 25 years hence!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Adult Education Classes Begin Next Week

Pontiac adults begin their back-to-school trek next week when Adult Education classes, sponsored by the Pontiac Public Schools, get under way.

Registration for classes begins next week, says Raymond J. Graff, supervisor for vocational education. "Classes to meet the needs of our adults will be offered depending on enrollment of enough people in any one class to warrant such a class being organized," Graff said.

In most cases, a minimum of 12 people will be necessary to organize a class, Graff continued.

REGISTER NOW

Registrations for classes are held Monday through Thursday from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. in the office of the Vocational Building at Pontiac High School. Registration is held Thursday evening from 7 to 9.

Classes in accounting, bookkeeping, office machines, typewriting, shorthand, business English, Spanish, photography, lip reading, tailoring, dressmaking, citizenship, Americanization, machine shop, drafting and blue print reading are offered as in former years.

Other courses offered again include tool design, die design, sheet metal layout, automotive diagnosis and tune up, electrical maintenance, and driver training.

MORE CLASSES URGED

In addition to these classes, numerous requests for additional classes were made, Graff said.

* * *

These include art metal work, canning, ceramics, china painting, fabric painting, furniture refinishing interior decorating, jewelry making, leathercraft, rug making, knitting, drapery making, slip cover making, oil painting, water color painting, show card writing, window decoration, beginning reading, bridge, cake decorating, landscaping, French, public speaking, music appreciation and parent education.

Persons qualified to teach any of the Adult Education classes and who would like to do so are asked to call the vocation office, Graff said.

* * *

Information regarding the courses is obtained by contacting the vocation education office, Graff added.

Prison Outfielder Fouls Up Things Trying to Steal

NEW YORK (UP) — Brooklyn police captured an alleged purse snatcher last night and said he was a North Carolina prison baseball player who sprinted after a fly ball during a game and kept on going.

* * *

Mrs. Gertrude Horn, 40, and Irving Kartzevite, 45, had just emerged from a restaurant when a man snatched the woman's purse containing $20.

Kartzevite, a baker who has a permit to carry a gun, opened fire on the fleeing man, who ran into the arms of a police officer.

Police identified their prisoner as James Herring, 29, who they said should be serving a burglary term at Center Prison, Raleigh, N.C.

* * *

They said Herring was an outfielder on the prison's baseball team. During a game last June with another prison team at Winston-Salem, N.C., they said, Herring chased a fly ball and continued running away from the diamond to freedom.

Herring was held on a grand larceny charge and Raleigh police were notified.

Women's Chorus Seeking Singers at First Meeting

The Pontiac Women's Chorus, sponsored by the Parks and Recreation Dept., will kick off its 1956-'57 season with a meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in room 127 of Pontiac High School.

Women wishing to join have been urged to attend. Auditions are expected in October when Charles E. Hutton, chorus director, recovers from an illness.

The chorus meets every Tuesday during its fall and winter schedule.

'Pappy,' 101, Blames Legs for Feeling Old

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (UP) — Joseph (Pappy) MacGergor Baxter Brower celebrated his 101st birthday yesterday and had one comment: "I don't feel my age if it wasn't for these legs."

Brower, a retired butcher and janitor, is confined to a wheel chair. He said doctors recommended a number of years ago that the legs be amputated.

"I told them to get out. I said, 'They go when Pappy goes.'"

More Hurricanes Needed to Keep Scientists Happy

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The world's top hurricane forecaster, Gordon Dunn, said today there's a good chance that none of these tropical terrors will visit the United States this year.

* * *

Good news? Well, not to everybody.

Florida hasn't had a big storm since 1950 and it could use the torrential rains that always accompany them. Water tables are far below normal.

And Richard Simpson, head of the National Hurricane Research Project, wants to see some hurricanes.

* * *

The research project, launched this year, is intended to perfect long-distance hurricane forecasts and to find some way to divert or weaken the more dangerous tropical storms.

"Obviously," said Simpson, "the amount of information you get depends on the number of specimens you have to work with. We can't do much unless we see some storms."

Most persons along the Atlantic Seaboard will be delighted, however, with the cautious statement by Dunn, chief storm forecaster in the Miami Weather Bureau, that conditions are not right for hurricanes.

* * *

"We might have another hurricane or two before the season ends," he said, "but there's a good possibility that none will reach the U.S. mainland.

"That's not a definite forecast, of course. I'm just optimistic about it."

If it happens, it will be the first year since 1937 that no hurricane crossed a U.S. coastline.

* * *

And it will be a welcome relief after 1955, when hurricanes killed 218 persons and took a property damage toll of more than a billion dollars in this country.

The major factor in the lack of big storms this year, Dunn said, is that the "westerlies," which normally blow through the temperate zone, have shifted southward, dipping into the subtropics.

* * *

These high-altitude winds have brought with them cooler air and low pressure which discourages the formation of hurricanes. Tropical storms feed on warm, moist air and high pressure.

Argentina Prohibits White Collar Strike

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Argentina's provisional government cracked down hard last night in an effort to ward off a threatened labor crisis.

It declared illegal a 24-hour strike set for last midnight by the nation's white collar workers union, whose million members are protesting that management is offering unacceptable terms in deadlocked labor contract negotiations. The strike had threatened to close down business offices, department stores and grocery shops.

The government said employers could fire any employe who walked out and police would arrest anybody who tried to interfere with the "liberty to work."

The first elephant to be exhibited in this country was named "Old Bet" and was shown by a New York farmer in 1815.

Bob Considine Says:

'Remember the Maine' Becomes GOP Cry

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (INS)—Republican leaders devoured enough free fried chicken, ham, baked beans, potato salad and ice cream at Ike's farm the other day—at the pep rally—to feed all of Gen. Pickett's men before the charge they made across these hallowed fields 93 years ago.

* * *

It was like an old currier and Ives print of a farm picnic which might have been captioned "Plenty."

The loudspeakers bayed pleasant chants. The Black Angus stood like picture cattle in their neighboring pasture, and the vigorous 65 - year - old President, called by Len Hall "the greatest living citizen of the modern world," stood beaming from a flag-draped rostrum. He won an ovation by saying, with brimming confidence, "I feel fine!"

But the whole mood of the fine show was, "Watch out! This is too good to last, unless we get out and work like the dickens:"

The theme of the GOP campaign, if this kickoff party is a criterion, will be roughly this:

1.—Peace, progress, prosperity, full employment and other current "plus" factors of the American scene can be maintained only by Ike's re-election.

2.—The country will enter into an even greater era, under the Party of the Future, if voters elect a GOP Congress and a majority of governors.

3.—Ike, and the "team," will lose — with perhaps appalling results here and abroad—unless all Republicans register and vote and each becomes a missionary bent on converting independents, non-voters and "discerning Democrats."

There were, of course, voices of vibrant optimism. A bald man, named Charles K. McWhorter, head of the Young Republicans, spoke of victory in November through the combined efforts of other youths like himself.

Morton H. Hollingsworth of Illinois threatened a dire political end for Adlai Stevenson in the nominees' state and others.

Wellington Rankin, Montana, said Ike positively would win the 11 states of the Pacific slope. William Shartzer, Georgia, predicted rousing success in the South because "the Democratic platform double-crossed the South on Civil rights."

But the President took his mood from Mrs. Dorothy Houghton, co-chairman of the National Citizens for Eisenhower. Mrs. Houghton's general theme was that it's going to be one heck of a fight this time.

"Remember the Main," she cried then added, "we could well have that as our slogan today. Remember the Maine as of Monday, when the stay-at-home vote got out and the independent vote put in those Democrats."

The President said that a lesson could be drawn from what happened in Maine, which re-elected a Democratic governor and sent to Congress its first Democrat since 1934.

MEETS THE FOLKS

As the Republicans chawed their victuals, their leader eschewed the special table that had been set for him under the big tent and wandered down to the end to sit with folks he didn't know.

* * *

All agreed it made him a man of the people more than ever. But they were counseled before leaving that the people won't vote for this man of the people, however lovable, unless prodded.

But Ike was not cast in the role of a pessimist, as he began his war on his party's complacency and sounded his trumpet for new troops.

He urged his fellow Republican missionaries to greet each prospect with a smile and not to dwell on problems which might besiege the Grand Old Party. This led one press tent pundit to begin his story:

"On a Maine, Maine, Mainey day.

THE BERRYS By Carl Grubert

Latest Republican Poll Shows

Farmers Favoring GOP Congress

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON (INS)—Top Republican strategists are jubilant at results of a secret poll of 12 Midwestern states which indicates a growing farm-belt tide for a GOP Congress this fall.

* * *

The poll, conducted by Princeton, N. J., researchers, would seem to suggest an abrupt about-face in farm-belt sentiment in the past five months.

Republican prospects hit their lowest ebb in April, when a similar Princeton survey reported 47 per cent favored a Democratic Congress, 39 per cent a Republican Congress, with 14 per cent undecided.

Perhaps the rise in farm prices since the first of the year has changed the picture.

GOP IN LEAD

The latest poll gives Republicans the edge with 43 per cent, while 40 per cent of the Midwesterners favor a Democratic Congress. Seventeen per cent still are undecided.

The National Committee is proudly attributing some of the GOP upsurge in the farm belt to the work of its precedent-shattering farm headquarters in Chicago.

The impressive office, frankly envied by the money-needy Democratic National Committee, is a beehive of activity.

* * *

Ten Midwest farmers, with an average age of 35, are busily touring the 13 central states to enlist rural support for Republicans. The original over-all goal was 5,000 volunteer farm organizers. But after a rousing speech by former Colorado Gov. Dan Thornton, 4,000 signed up in Iowa alone.

Mrs. Mabel Fraser of Delphi, Ind., is also traveling through the nation's breadbasket area to organize "coffee klatches" among farm wives.

The 11 paid organizers have informed headquarters the "peace" issue is still uppermost among farm families.

PREFER PEACE

"They say they would rather take smaller prices than see their sons leave the tractors for the battlefields," the workers report.

Organizers, in their addresses to farm groups and rural rallies, are stressing gross farm income has varied little since 1947—the best all-time year.

They insist: "It's the higher cost of living due to steel workers raises, etc., that brings your net income from 17 billion to 11 billion dollars since 1947."

* * *

Republicans concede what they term "good Eisenhower weather" is responsible for some of the upturn in farm sentiment for the GOP. This is one of the best growing years in history.

The most recent Princeton poll indicates 44 per cent of Midwest farmers favor President Eisenhower's soil-bank plan, with 8 per cent giving qualified support, 35 per cent disapproving, and 13 per cent with no opinion.

Rabbit Lives Without Heart for 45 Minutes

STOCKHOLM (AP)—A new scientific record in stopping an animal's heart without killing was claimed here today by a Dutch professor.

The record was 45 minutes. The heart was a rabbit's.

* * *

The report caused a stir among 1,000 heart doctors attending the second European Congress of Cardiology.

Prof. I. Boerema, of Amsterdam told the conference he did the trick by using refrigeration in a pressure cabin used for testing submarine crews at a Dutch naval base.

* * *

By increasing the pressure, he said, he was able to raise the oxygen content of the blood of rabbits 15 times. This enabled him to keep their hearts open for experimental operations for 45 minutes.

* * *

At normal body temperature delicate brain tissue is destroyed by lack of oxygen in four to five minutes after heart stoppage.

By cooling the body the time is increased to about 10 minutes.

16 Words, $100 Offer Challenge to Puzzle Fans

In autumn, the mind—unlike the leaves—usually experiences a rejuvenation that makes it more brisk and ready to take on new burdens. Pot-O-Gold is for Press readers who have felt this seasonal nudge. It's challenging, and it's worth at least $100 to the one who can come up with a solution. Read the clues carefully and then take a good look at the rules before filling in the empty spaces. It can mean money in your pocket.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.

2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answer words in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 15 must bear a Tuesday, Sept. 18, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time, whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner, no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries become the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Woman Driver Pays for Distressing Crash

DETROIT (INS) — A Detroit common pleas judge ruled yesterday a woman driver must have her car under control even when in great distress.

Judge Harry J. Dingeman Jr., ordered Ardice Garrison to pay $404 in damages to the owner of a car she rammed.

Miss Garrison argued the accident occurred while she was trying to remove a bug that was buzzing around inside her blouse.

NEW CANAAN, Conn. (AP)—Town Court Judge Louis Bucciarelli refused to convict a motorist charged with speeding on the basis of evidence provided by police radar alone. "A machine cannot be cross-examined, and the defendant ought to be given the benefit of every doubt," he ruled, noting there was no corroborating testimony.

Puzzle No. 14 - - Here's Answer

Editor's Note: The following list of 16 words comprises the solution to the Pot-O-Gold Puzzle No. 14 which appeared in last week's editions of The Pontiac Press.

1. TIES is preferred, since spots are most likely to be made by food, and TIES are right in line to be spotted. A SUIT is not so directly exposed.

2. AGUN, if it is kept at all, should certainly be kept where a child can't get at it; better still, where he doesn't even know about it. A GUN, which would seem like a toy to a child, is more tempting even than something in a bottle, like GIN.

3. The juvenile delinquent's LAPSE, or moral slip, fits better here. Against a sordid background, the sympathetic judge might feel that the boy had never had a chance, and, with understanding treatment, could be made into a good citizen. The circumstances causing the LAPSE would be worth considering. Sometimes a defendent's PLEAS are only a form of whining, or self-pity.

4. An AREA of his own to farm is a European's peasant's ambition; he is often too poor to aspire to an ACRE, which is the unit of square measure in the U.S. and the British Isles but not usually in Continental Europe.

5. To HALT his heavy wagon may be difficult for a small boy who is running with it. The wagon would have a certain momentum of its own, particularly on a downgrade, and would continue to roll forward for a few moments. With wheels to roll on, the wagon should not be hard to HAUL.

6. BRUSH would give a fugitive a better hiding place than a SHRUB, being a concentration of bushes and trees, with a greater range for concealment than a single bush or SHRUB.

7. A moving CAR is a great challenge to many frolicsome puppies; the dogs' owners often have trouble breaking them of the dangerous habit of chasing CARS. A dog often lives amiably in the same household with a CAT; unless taught to attack CATS, dogs are quite likely to ignore them. CAB, would be too special for the context here.

8. The VISTA, or wide sweeping view,—in this case, of the mountains—would certainly be enjoyed by visiting friends. It's impossible to generalize as to whether a VISIT even with a "charming couple," is enjoyed; there are too many elements involved.

9. RAW materials are all-important to have in a stock pile when a country is threatened with invasion; there is a real danger of being cut off from supplies. Without RAW materials, a country could not make WAR materials.

10. A PINK jacket is suggested by the words "might be appreciated"; a MINK jacket would certainly be a delight to almost any young girl or woman. A KNIT jacket would be better described as a KNITTED one.

11. A ROBIN is one of the first birds the interested beginner would learn to identify, and a child would wish to show off his knowledge. A BROWN bird is too ordinary and incomplete a description to challenge a child's newly acquired bird-lore.

12. DIVER is better here. In a dangerous spot, where there are bad under-currents, or the water is shallow, or there are rocks, a DIVER would need enormous skill to dive in the safe area of water. In a dangerous DRIVE, it is rather the DRIVER who requires skill. (It is always possible to substitute slow and careful driving for skill.)

13. To make a good MATCH would be lucky for a spinster of thirty. At this age, with overwhelming competition from the younger set, she'd have to be more than merely lucky to wed the rich bachelor who is the proverbial good CATCH.

14. SOAP, used by children in classes learning the art of sculpture, is a surprisingly effective medium. This is a more outstanding fact especially in regard to a child artist, than that the POSE is effective.

15. A man who is NOBLE — of high birth or title—is part of the PRINCE Charming legend that most girls feel romantic about. NOBLE also means "of lofty character," which adds further substance to such a daydream. A BLOND man has an appeal for some girls; others prefer brunets.

16. ALERT investigation—lively, vigilant—is suggested by the clue of a country sheriff who was baffled by the crime. A country sheriff, whether appointed or elected, rarely has had the kind of training or experience which could put clues together and track down a murderer. The ALERT efforts—looking out for every clue—of the state police would be more likely to solve the murder. This is more descriptive than the rather negative LATER investigation.

Williams Knocks GOP on Roads

Points to Job Increase in State Since Taking Office in '49

IRONWOOD (AP) — Gov. Williams today swung into the final phase of a quest for Democratic votes in the Upper Peninsula after swatting once more at the Republican record on road building.

* * *

Besides roads, he talked chiefly Thursday of the growth of industry and jobs in the state since he took office in January 1949.

Williams said the state's highway building program has been in Republican hands for 13 years, and that Republicans muffed the job of providing a modern highway system.

"The Republican party in its official statements has endorsed and approved the policies of the Republican highway commissioner," he said. ..

"UP NEGLECTED"

"A Republican vote Nov. 6 is a vote to endorse the Republican program of bits-and-snatches and neglect of Upper Peninsula road problems."

Williams said the last 7½ years have seen an increase of 21 per cent in jobs and 23 per cent in the number of companies doing business in the state.

Both figures are well above those on population growth, he said.

* * *

And in 1953, he said, plant expansion in Michigan, in proportion to population, topped that in any other state.

As an example of progress, he cited a six million dollar plant to be built by the Celotex Corp. at L'Anse. Eventually, 1,400 new jobs will be provided by it, he said.

Pie He Didn't Steal Wins $1,500 Lawsuit

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Clarence Clifford Wilson was $1,500 richer today—because of a 10-cent fried pie he didn't steal.

A district court jury awarded that judgment to Wilson, climaxing his damage suit against the Honest John grocery. The Oklahoma city man told jurors he was "very embarrassed" three years ago when a store clerk accused him of stealing the pie and had him thrown in jail.

Even though another jury later cleared him of the crime, Wilson said people still referred to him as the "Fried Pie Man."

The American honeybee is an immigrant. They came over with early settlers, astonishing the Indians who called them "white man's flies."

Youth, 18, Killed Putting Head Out of Car Window

YPSILANTI (INS) — An 18-year-old Michigan youth lost his life last night in a freak auto accident when he stuck his head out the window to get a breath of fresh air.

Quinton M. Hill of Willow Run Village, apparently had his head outside the right front window of the car he was riding in with two friends when it sideswiped a highway sign, breaking his neck.

The car was stopped by State Police after a chase and they found Hill unconscious in the front seat with two 17-year-old youths, Thomas C. Overton, the driver, and John A. Norris, both of Willow Run Village.

They rushed Hill to a hospital in Ypsilanti, but he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Overton and Norris were so intoxicated they couldn't give a coherent story. However, the troopers checked the highway and found the sign with blood on it. They also located the right rear fender of Overton's car and a shattered window of the car.

Rule Accused Killer in Glass Box Insane

LOS ANGELES (AP) — James Merkouris, strapped to a chair in a glass and steel isolation booth, heard a jury rule him insane yesterday.

The 40-year-old former convict was committed to a state hospital "until such time as he may regain his sanity." If found legally sane later he will be tried for the murders of his former wife and her husband, who were shot to death two years ago.

As Merkouris was taken from the booth in which he was confined during the sanity trial to silence his outbursts he shouted: "I'm not insane. As for killing that woman, I had no more to do with it than I did with the assassination of Abraham Lincoln."

Merkouris was convicted of murdering his former wife, Mrs. Despine Forbes, but the State Supreme Court ordered a new trial, contingent upon his being found sane.

Real Civic Service

FLINT (AP) — Flint's nine city commissioners gave up a trip to the Michigan Municipal League meeting so children won't have to pay an extra five cents to swim in the city pools. The commission turned over $1,350 set aside for the league trip when advised that a deficit in park funds would make it necessary to boost swimming pool fees from 5 to 10 cents.

Post Office to Repaint Dingy Small Branches

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department announced today new identification signs will be placed at some 45,000 post offices and postal stations starting the first week in October.

Postmaster General Summerfield said the red, white and blue signs are "an important improvement at a slight cost," making it it easier for patrons to identify postal service facilities in growing areas, resorts, and shopping centers having new postal contract stations in their stores.

Hal Boyle Says:

Glue Tycoon Enjoys Giving Away Money

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Ira I. Slomon has an odd hobby for a millionaire. He likes to give away money.

* * *

Slomon, known to his friends as "The Glue King," is a kind of poor man's Rockefeller, but likes to think of himself as "the biggest small businessman in America."

He keeps bags full of silver dollars in his country estate, his main factory, and his city apartment. He likes to distribute them to others — but on his own terms. Sometimes he slips a silver dollar into the hand of man he has talked to for five minutes. But he may know you for years and never offer you one.

* * *

"I give them to anyone who shows a sign of trueness in him," he said. "I don't think of them as money—but as symbols of good will and a wish for good luck to someone who has done or said something worthwhile."

A dapper little man of 72 with squirrel-bright eyes, this silver-dollar philanthropist likes to wear checkered caps, tattersall vests and yellow shoes. He looks like a retired vaudeville hoofer—and that's what he is.

Ira I. Slomon—squeeze his initials together and you get $ — is a grauate of the poverty-stricken Lower East Side and only had three years of schooling.

"But I always had a creative mind," he said. "I always liked to develop new things."

After a brief period as a song and dance man, he became a top ladies' hat salesman. In 1911 he turned his guest bedroom into a laboratory and developed a new kind of millinery glue. This launched him on a third career.

It's a poor glue-maker who cannot make money stick to his fingers. Slomon has had no trouble in this respect.

* * *

He now makes 80 kinds of specialized adhesives — they stick together everything from feathers to metals — in three plants. Long ago he became a millionaire, and his hand-picked customers range from Lily Dache to the Pennsylvania Railroad. But for 45 years he has run his operation himself, refusing to hire even one salesman.

* * *

"I learned early in life to rely on myself," he said, "and I want to stay that way. I'd rather be a big small businessman than a small big businessman who had to depend on other people.

"Maybe that sounds nutty," he added, smiling. "But you should be so nutty, too!"

* * *

Now the dean of his industry, Slomon often acts as a consultant on special problems in adhesives for large corporations. Even his competitors like to ask his advice.

"There's a revolution going on in the field," he volunteered. "Before long men and women will be going around without a stitch on. The new fabric adhesives will replace sewing. They'll make the needle needless."

* * *

Slomon, who is hopping through his elder years with the gaiety of a cricket and has more fun than some people think a millionaire is entitled to, began collecting silver dollars back in 1933 after the nation's banks were briefly closed.

"I couldn't even draw out funds to meet my own payroll," he recalled, "and I swore then I'd never again be caught without plenty of ready cash.

"But after I piled up around 10,000 silver dollars they began to be a nuisance. They took up an awful lot of space. So I started giving them away gradually."

* * *

In the last five years Slomon, whose larger philanthropies are his own secret, has presented 3,600 silver dollars, usually keeps half a dozen handy in his pocket so he can reward any Boy Scout caught helping an old lady across the street.

Slomon says he had a fine time when he was poor and sees no reason why, now that he's wealthy, he can't afford a few eccentricities.

* * *

"Money is a necessity," he said cheerfully, "but it is a particular blessing when you're sick. A rich man in a hospital can always get a bedpan in a hurry."

Blame Fumes for Accidents

Modern City 'Canyons' Trap Exhaust Gasses, Slow Brain, 2 Say

CINCINNATI (AP) — Two Michigan men say increased horsepower in cars may be causing traffic accidents.

John C. Soet of the Michigan Department of Health, and William G. Frederick of the Detroit Department of Health, joined in making the statement.

Fumes from engines have no chance to waft away in the "canyons" of modern city streets, the men said at the U. S. public Health Conference.

"It's quite likely," Frederick said, "that many a confused pedestrian who just walks into the side of an automobile may have been partially overcome by motor fumes. The same factor could account for many errors of judgement on the part of an otherwise careful driver."

Similar hazards may apply to many garages and repair shops, Frederick said. Mechanics could be so stupefied by fumes they can't do a good repair job, he told the meeting.

The complexity of chemicals, plastics and other industries are "making people age more rapidly," Soet said. The degenerative diseases which normally come at a much later age often strike earlier, he added.

Eire has increased social welfare benefits by an estimated $22,400,000 a year.

DENVER — The Four Corners country, where Utah, Colorado, Arizona, and New Mexico meet, is a natural geological museum. Rock strata showing the passing of the ages lie exposed in towering buttes, deep canyons, and lonely monoliths.

Ike Speaks Sept. 25 in Peoria, Illinois

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — The White House announced today that President Eisenhower will make a major farm speech in Peoria, Ill., and give Vice President Nixon a personal sendoff on the latter's campaign trip.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty told a news conference Eisenhower decided today to speak in Peoria Sept. 25, at the Bradley University field house, on the farm issue.

Next Tuesday, he said, the President will speak at a breakfast at the Washington National Airport from which Nixon will leave on a 15,000-mile, 32-state campaign speaking tour.

Eisenhower will make a nationally televised and radiocast appearance on CBS Wednesday night, speaking from a studio in Washington.

Hoffa Facing Senate Probe

Group Will Investigate Detroit Teamster Boss' Labor Activities

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Senate Permanent Investigations subcommittee has launched a probe into the labor activities of Detroit teamster boss James R. Hoffa.

This marks the third time in three years a congressional committee has gone into Hoffa's operations. Headed by Sen. McClellan quiry will be more general than either of the others and may become part of a widespread probe of labor racketeering across the country.

Hoffa said:

"I don't even know what the investigation will be about. I wouldn't know what they are trying to find."

The subcommittee staff has taken steps to obtain Hoffa's income tax returns covering an eight-year period.

The subcommittee reportedly is interested in Hoffa's attempts to muscle into teamster councils in New York and other parts of the country, and his connection with the notorious international longshoreman's union.

At present, Hoffa is involved in an income tax case pending before the United States tax court. The government charges he owes several thousand dollars in back taxes.

Cat in the Candy Closes a Store

Shut Down Drug Sales Until Owner Cleans Up After Pets

Cats and dogs are fine pets but they can hurt a man's business if they create unsanitary conditions, Charles S. Cohen, city sanitarian, says.

* * *

In conjunction with the State Department of Agriculture, the City Health Dept. this week succeeded in having Dolan Drugs at 164 Auburn Ave. closed because of unsanitary conditions.

Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan Monday ordered James H. Dolan, 68, owner of the store, to close until he complies with the city's food ordinance. Dolan pleaded guilty to maintaining an unsanitary store.

Cohen said his inspectors, along with a state inspector, discovered worm infested candy, roaches in the store and cat and dog hairs throughout the shop.

TABBY IN THE TAFFY

The inspector also complained Dolan let his pet cat take a daily nap in a display case on top of open trays of candy.

Cohen said the City Commission in November 1953, denied Dolan a food license. He violated the city ordinance by selling candy and beverages, Cohen said, but would comply with it "temporarily" whenever his store was inspected.

* * *

Cohen said Dolan gave "illness" as the reason he couldn't keep his store clean.

4 Issues Decided by Orion Council

LAKE ORION—Among decisions made by the Village Council here this week was one for accident insurance covering police while on active duty. The policy would protect six persons at a most of $22.08 per year they said.

Council also agreed to share half the expense of hiring school guards and voted that parking on M24 throughout the Village will be prohibited immediately, on both sides.

The group asked for two other estimates on fencing for the Village Park after receiving one estimate for over $600. Hearing to discuss the change in zoning ordinance here was set for Oct. 8.

Celebrates With 2 Events

Little Church Chalks Up 100

SASHABAW — Renovation of the little white church of Sashabaw Plains has been termed phenomenal by Dr. Kenneth Neigh, executive secretary of the Detroit Presbytery, who will be a Centennial Service guest on Sunday.

* * *

He has commended the activities of the women's organization in stimulating the church's growth.

The congregation, which has slated the 11 a.m. Sunday talk, has asked the public to join in the observation. Invitations have been forwarded to churches in the Detroit Presbytery and to local ministers.

Older members of the parish, some children of founders, will be stars when the church holds a congregational dinner Sept. 22 at 6 p.m.

Tracing the church's founding as the Church of Orion and Independence, the members and their friends will hear details of its transfer later to the Presbyterian denomination.

They will note that the wide plank floors of the old church, built in 1855-56 at a total cost of $3,000, have been covered with inlaid linoleum, and the rostrum carpeted richly.

The old brown pews and faded walls have been repaired during the past six years of renovations.

A new electronic organ stands now in place of the original manual type, and the old paper-bound hymnals have been replaced by new ones, given by the Rev. and Mrs. William Bos. Dr. Bos is a former pastor.

Complete dinners can now be served in the all-modern kitchen, and such a meal will be served by the adult class of the church at the Centennial dinner.

The dinner will precede talks by Dr. Harold Fredsell, chairman of the board of extension, Detroit Presbytery, main speaker, Dr. Bos, George Fisler and the Rev. Albert Ratcliffe, all former pastors, and Mrs. Isaac Parrish, whose husband had a long pastorate there.

The Rev. Robert Wilkie, pastor, will introduce the special guests and speakers.

Reservations should be made by Sunday, with Mrs. Frances Poole or Mrs. Mildred Roberts.

Reveal Arrears of Area Justice

Royal Oak Official Has Since Settled Shortages of Money Due County

State Auditor General Frank S. Szymanski, in a report to Atty. Gen. Thomas N. Kavanagh, today called attention to a former shortage in the accounts of former Royal Oak Justice Maurice E. Tripp.

At one time, Szymanski said, Tripp was $5,051 in arrears on payments due to the county treasury.

Gerald A. Terrien, Justice Court coordinator for the County Board of Auditors, said today the shortage in Tripp's accounts occurred during two months when he was sick and unable to supervise clerical work on reports.

SHORTAGE SETTLED

The shortage has since been settled, Terrien said.

* * *

Tripp, who resigned as justice of the peace last October, became ill in September, Terrien said. He did not file reports or money received in fines and costs for cases handled in September and October, totalling $5,051.

Terrien said Tripp had "credit" with the auditors for $3,745.45 in uncollected justice's fees. The shortage in his accounts thus totalled $1305.55, Terrien said.

Resigning in October, Tripp traveled to Texas, Terrien said, under the impression that his accounts were straight. Contacted there, he returned to Oakland County and deposited $3.640 with Terrien to cover "any discrepancies."

When a subsequent audit showed the total shortage in Tripp's accounts, Terrien said, $2,334.45 of his deposit was returned to him.

* * *

Asked whether criminal prosecution of Tripp would be started, Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem said today, "I can see no grounds for a warrant at this time. According to the information I have received, Tripp's accounts have been straightened out."

Parking Meters Cost Till 9 P.M. in Pontiac Now

Starting tonight all on-street parking meters in Pontiac run until 9 p.m. instead of the usual 6 p.m.

The new law was passed by the City Commission Sept. 4.

Signs soon will be posted on all meters reminding motorists of the new time limits, City Manager W. K. Willman said.

The three-hour increase was adoped to provide for more turnover of downtown parking, to bring on-street meter times in line with municipal parking lot times and to boost income, Willman pointed out.

The new law is effective every day except Sunday and legal holidays.

Cobo Stumps at Saginaw Fair

Says Williams Stealing His Road-Building, Park Programs

SAGINAW (AP)—Handshaking and making candy at a county fair, Detroit Mayor Albert Cobo hopped through Saginaw County yesterday in his campaign for governor.

He visited a half dozen communities, spoke briefly at some of them, and said Gov. Williams is "pilfering" Cobo's announced programs for highway building and state park improvement.

"The governor," Cobo said, "has no program of his own, so now he's trying to take over mine."

A novice in a state election campaign, Cobo handshook his way through a Farmer's Day crowd at the Saginaw County Fair. He stopped to make candy in a concession and passed it out to the crowd.

LATE FOR LUNCH

Some 20 minutes late for a St. Charles Lion's luncheon, the mayor missed most of his audience, but spoke to about 20 who waited. He said Williams has been neglecting highway building and farm-to-market roads.

Williams carried Saginaw by 122 votes in 1954. In 1952 he lost the city by 4,000. He lost the county both years, by 1,354 votes in 1954 and by about 9,000 votes in 1952.

About 40 per cent of the radios produced in the U. S., today are designed for installation in motor vehicles.

1263 Acres Being Limited

Farmers Sign Contracts Here for $39,302; Cook Expects More

Although a two-week extension has been given Michigan for wheat acreage allotment agreements, Oakland County has already contracted for over half of its alloted $74,000 in promised government payments.

* * *

Extension of the deadline to Oct. 5 was announced yesterday in Lansing by Clarence Prentice, state administrator for the agricultural stabilization and Conservation Office.

He said it was because county offices did not receive contracts until Sept. 4.

Walter Cook, director of the ASC office here at the Hubbard Bldg., 18 S. Perry, agreed that his office had not had the contract forms until Sept. 4, but has had them in ample supply since.

Late yesterday afternoon he told the Press he had just signed up the 81st farmer, making a total 1263 acres that will not be producing wheat in Oakland County this year.

Those farmers thus under contract will be paid a total of $39,302, Cook says, nearly half of the county's allotment of $74,000.

However, he says, if more farmers apply than funds would cover, additional money may be borrowed from other counties not having such a high average.

"Oakland county is small potatoes in comparison to wheat-growing counties in Michigan like Huron, which has an allotment of $340,000," he says. "The state allotment is $7,000,000."

Oakland County had 1,200 wheat farmers, he reports, and many of them have been in to talk over the soil bank problem. He says, "most of them will be back."

"We feel the contracting is being successful," he says. "It isn't the government's idea to go to 50 or 100 per cent of wheat growers on this—if the county goes in with 20 per cent, it will be meeting the goal as averaged for the nationwide program."

On a state level, about 1,500 farmers signed contracts in 25 counties during the first four days of activity, Prentice said, with promises made for about one-tenth of the state's funds.

Michigan One-Man Grand Jury Is 'Unique' Function in Nation

(Editor's note: allegations of corruption in Ecorse, led to the naming of Judge Theodore R. Bohn as a one-man grand jury to investigate. Robert O. Scigliano, MSU political scientist, in this series of two articles highlights some of the colorful history of earlier one-man grand juries, and explains how they operate.)

EAST LANSING (AP) — The Michigan one-man grand jury has been used for almost three decades as an investigative tool to seek out corruption and crimes. It has been called "unique" by the United States Supreme Court and the adjective appears well deserved.

* * *

A few other states, it is true, do provide a similar device in investigating suspected crimes. But only in Michigan has it been used on a large scale as an aid to probing charges of corruption or crime.

Under Michigan law, a one-man grand jury has broad powers to compel the attendance of witnesses and to hear them in absolute secrecy. It may grant them immunity from prosecution in return for their testimony.

Witnesses can be jailed if they refuse to answer questions. Witnesses may have legal counsel, but the Michigan courts have said the lawyers must stay outside the jury chamber.

QUITE DIFFERENT

The grand jury in most other states is quite different. It usually consists of from 12 to 23 citizens who sit in secret sessions to hear accusation brought against persons charged with a crime or misconduct in office, or to conduct broad investigations. Michigan has this multi-member "traditional" grand jury form in addition to the one-man grand jury.

The grand jury should not be confused with the trial or petit jury. The grand jury determines whether there is just cause to indict the accused person and bring him to trial. The trial or petit jury decides his guilt or innocence at the trial itself.

One-man grand juries have not been used often in Michigan in the last few years. A 1955 U.S. Supreme Court decision, "in re Murchison," involving alleged corruption in the Detroit police force, reversed two contempt convictions by a one-man grand jury.

* * *

The supreme court ruled a judge who sits as a one-man grand jury cannot then convict his reluctant or lying witness for contempt. A second judge must decide whether the witness's behavior actually was contemptuous.

UNCOVERS SCANDALS

These cases indicate the difficulties that might beset Judge Bohn during his sessions on the Ecorse charges. When sitting as a one-man grand jury, the judge has more power than those given to the traditional grand jury. But he must take care that he does not overstep the bounds set by the Michigan and U.S. Supreme Courts.

Since its inception in 1917, the one-man grand jury has been effective in uncovering scandals. And it has helped some of the judges who conducted them to reach prominent public positions. At the same time, it has generated criticism that too much power and responsibility has been concentrated in the hands of one man—the judge.

An estimated 15,000 witnesses have appeared and testified before one-man grand juries in Michigan. At the peak of its popularity in 1945, approximately 50 to 60 one-man grand juries were in session each year.

USED AS DEVICE

But of all the hundreds of one-man grand jury investigations, five great ones have aroused lasting public interest. The first of these was made by a Detroit judge, the late William F. Connolly, to investigate alleged corruption in Detroit and Wayne County.

Before the Legislature passed the 1917 law, Judge Connolly attempted to summon a traditional multi-grand jury, but was blocked by the county prosecutor.

Once the new one-man law was passed, Judge Connolly made use of the device.

In the subsequent investigation, Judge Connolly concentrated on the Detroit Water Board and a certain real estate deal by its chairman, and on building contracts.

Six years later, in 1923, a new scandal ripped the state. Sitting as a one-man grand jury, Judge Harry J. Dingeman investigated the Israelite House of David and its founder, Benjamin F. Purnell.

Subsequently, the religious community and some of its members were involved in court action. It was alleged Ben Purnell ran portions of the community as a private harem, and otherwise used his religious guise for immoral and fraudulent behavior. Purnell disappeared. Though he was later returned to Michigan, he died before he could be brought to trial.

(Next: the Legislature is investigated).

After a news conference in Tampa, Kefauver is to move on to Sarasota to address a Young Democratic rally tonight. He is to drive tomorrow to St. Petersburg. Kramer's home, before flying to Orlando for another address Saturday night.

Gathering at the summer home of Mrs. Walter Thompson in Clarkston, the group admired some of her beautiful antiques. Among the members were (left to right) Mrs. Thomas R. Navin, past regent, Mrs. Ellsworth Kramer (seated), and Mrs. Clarence B. Mitchell, all of Birmingham.

Once again it's time for the antique show and sale sponsored by Piety Hill Chapter of the DAR of Birmingham. The four day show begins Sept. 26 at the Birmingham Community House.

Under the direction of Sam Yeagley of Ammiville Pa., many of the country's outstanding dealers will display authentic antique silver, china, glassware, prints and furniture.

Several of the dealers, according to cochairmen Mrs. Frederic C. Pew Jr. and Mrs. Dale O. Miller, are returning for the sixth consecutive year.

Local, state and national projects benefit from this annual sale, as entire proceeds are used to assist in educational, historical and patriotic programs.

AIDS ARTIST

Last year Piety Hill chapter was able to continue toward the support of a talented artist, an American Indian girl, enabling her to continue her studies at St. Mary's School for Indian Girls.

* * *

American Flags have been presented to schools, and one has been purchased for presentation to the new Derby High School.

Contributions were made to the American Red Cross Migrant Ministry Harvester Wagon and to other worthy organizations.

The chapter continued its annual donation of $100 for magazines for patients at Dearborn Veteran Hospital, and reforested five acres of pine trees in Northern Michigan. Approved history books also were supplied libraries in two Birmingham schools.

Committee chairmen assisting Mrs. Pew and Mrs. Miller are Mrs. Clarence B. Mitchell, finance; Mrs. Francis M. Fisher, tickets; Mrs. Ellsworth E. Kramer, posters; Mrs. Thomas R. Navin, mailing; Mrs. Walter A. Kleiner, prizes; and Mrs. Clyde Bennett Jr., programs.

Other committee chairmen include Mrs. Stella Sellers, hostesses; Mrs. Royce L. Beers, regent; Mrs. Robert Watt, vice regent, and Mrs. Ferd M. Broock, publicity.

Volunteer Bureau Cites Progress

Board members of the Central Volunteer Bureau reviewed their recruitment month activities when they met in regular session yesterday at the YWCA.

Seventeen different organizations already have heard speakers from the bureau, and nearly one third of its goal has been reached, it was reported. The bureau hopes to register 300 new volunteers this month.

The Central Volunteer Bureau is a United Fund agency serving the Birmingham - Pontiac - Waterford area. It recruits volunteers for both tax-supported and private social service agencies. And it places volunteers who want to serve their community.

New requests presented at yesterday's meeting included several for motor aides, others for story telling and book reading for elderly patients, and visitation women for hospitals.

PLAN NEW DEPARTMENT

There have been so many requests for motor aides that plans are in the offing for a separate department to handle this.

Motor aides transport the sick and crippled from homes to hospitals, doctors and clinics when they have no means of their own. Many "spur of the moment" motor aides are needed—that is, those who would promise to be on call certain days of the week to furnish this type of transportation. Aides must have their own cars.

Mrs. M. D. Shelton heads the Visitation Ladies group at Pontiac General Hospital. Quite a number of women are needed to fill this request and those interested are asked to contact Mrs. Shelton.

Mom Asks About Her Obligations

Should She Write to Young Man and His Mother?

By EMILY POST

"My daughter, who lives on the West Coast, is going to announce her engagement very soon to a man from the same city in which she lives. I have never met him. When she receives her ring, am I supposed to write to her fiance or to his mother or to them both?

"And if so, what do I say? This is all new to me and I need your help as to just what is expected of me."

Answer: It is the man's mother who should go to see (or write to) the girl and also her mother. In this case, which is hampered by distance, you should, of course, write a welcoming letter to your future son-in-law. This is all.

If his mother doesn't write to you, you must not be offended because this is one of the rules of etiquette which a great many people do not know.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married soon at a very small wedding with just the immediate families present. Many of my old friends and relatives do, however, know of my forthcoming marriage.

"I would like to know if wedding announcements should be sent to them anyway, or whether they are sent only to those who do not know of my marriage."

Answer: Correctly, wedding announcements are sent to all those who were not invited to the wedding, whether they know about it or not.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When the centerpiece on a dinner table is of fruit rather than flowers, isn't it proper for a guest to help himself to a piece of fruit after dessert. A friend of mine says it is not proper to disarrange the fruit and that it is purely for decoration. Is she right about this?"

Answer: It is correct to eat the fruit after you have finished your dessert, providing people remain seated at table. However, if the fruit is in such a complicated arrangement that taking one piece might cause an avalanche of the rest, it would be better not to take it.

Press Theater Party Snickers Through 'Damn Yankees', Tour U.N.

By L. JAMES BINDER
Asst. City Editor, Pontiac Press

NEW YORK CITY — When it comes to cities, New York is the Pacific Ocean of them all . . . Its taxicabs rival in number the cracks in Gotham's sidewalks, and mid-Manhattan is a screaming jumble of hurrying people, traffic noises and neon lights.

They say you can't see it all—at least that's what a veteran cab driver told some of us yesterday—but 100 sightseeing members of the Pontiac Press Theater Train are trying, and doing so well that several groups are already looking over points of interest in Brooklyn and the Bronx, across the river.

Yesterday's activities were capped by the fourth show of the week, "Damn Yankees" at the 46th Street Theater. (Incidentally, it's almost directly across the street from our Paramount Hotel).

Gwen Verdon, a carrot-topped dancer who still overflows with energy during every "Yankees" performance despite its long run, is the star. The musical comedy is about a rabid Washington Senators fan named "Joe" who options his soul to the devil to keep the Yankees from winning the league pennant.

DEVILISHLY FUNNY

The show literally goes to the devil, to coin a pun, because of the acting and witticisms of Ray Walston whose role of "Applegate" is synonomous with Satan.

* * *

Miss Verdon, as Applegate's most talented disciple, has been assigned to the task of negating Joe's talents as a newly-discovered and phenomenal ballplayer.

This George Abbott production, highlighted as it is by the performances of Verdon, Walston and Stephen Douglass (as Joe), also boasts one of current Broadway's biggest and best choruses, according to critics in these parts.

It all comes out for the best—Joe tears up the option on his soul, the Senators win the pennant and Miss Verdon flits off, not so sure that "Whatever Lola wants, Lola Gets."

VISIT U. N.

The impressive creation that is the United Nations Building drew nearly 90 of the group to the East River banks Thursday morning for a tour of its vast meeting chambers and luncheon in the delegates' lounge.

Pontiac's busy delegation bombarded the trim guides with questions as the group inspected panel after panel of futuristic paintings and sat in the conference rooms.

There were no meetings in session, but one visitor is said to have walked up to the U-shaped security council parley table to take a long look at the chair usually occupied by the Russian delegate.

* * *

"It sure has seen noisier times, hasn't it," she observed to a friend as she tiptoed back to the group.

The functions of the U. N. and its various divisions were explained to the visitors by multi-lingual guides.

The group had completed only a look at the three large meeting chambers when it was whisked up to the dining room for a luncheon of fresh fruit, eaten on table in a big room overlooking the East River.

The afternoon found several excursionists viewing the harbor from the Statue of Liberty. Others went to the top of the Empire State Building to look down on the city and crowds. The latter structure appears to be a "must" on everybody's sightseeing list of events.

Television shows are also among the week's top attractions: One young lady in the group awoke in the morning's wee hours to look in on Dave Garroway and his "Today" program. The Arthur Godfrey show has also been among the week's top TV attractions.

"Odds and ends" in the way of sights are expected to be put neatly in place today with its 12-or-so hours of free time.

And then comes tonight with its "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?" topped off by an after-theater party at Leoni's Restaurant where tour members will meet some of the actors and actresses who have appeared in the week's five shows.

A tour of the United Nations was a highlight of the Pontiac Press Theater Special yesterday. Shown with their guide at the building in Manhattan are several members of the theater group. The guide uses a scale model to outline tour plan.

She Combines Hobbies Profitably

By ANNE HEYWOOD

What can you do when you have two real interests, which are equally important to you, and yet only a limited amount of time?

How do you decide which one to cultivate and which one to drop?

That was Margery's problem and she was beside herself with indecision.

"I love ceramics," she told me, "and have had some luck with them. I have made ashtrays, powder boxes, vases and things for presents for the past couple of years. I don't have my own kiln, but I rent one.

"But while I love doing it, it doesn't quite satisfy me because I also love to cook. I am an especially good baker. My cakes and cookies go like hot cakes at our house and all over the neighborhood.

CHILDREN IN SCHOOL

"The children are going to school now," she went on, "all four of them this year. I will have some time to myself and I would like so much to make some pin money and have a really businesslike project.

* * *

"But, should it be ceramics or baking? I can't decide. I'll have to specialize — I know that. But I hate to drop either one!"

As is so often the case, Margery had analyzed the problem for so long in her own mind that she couldn't really see it any more. The answer was simple—combine them!

Margery is now making mouth-watering old-fashioned cookies and selling them in charming pottery cookie jars, which she also makes!

"It's such fun," she told me. "I sell them as gifts, of course, and have several shops stocking them for me.

ANOTHER GIMMICK

"But I also have another gimmick. I sell a big jar, full of cookies, to a customer and then, if she likes, I have a weekly refill service! This way, I have some regular customers which makes for a steady income. And then, in addition, I have the gift sales."

* * *

If you have two major interests, see if there isn't a way to combine them to your greater profit, both vocationally and financially.

If, like Margery, cooking is one of your loves, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my list of books on, "Making Money From Cooking."

Nancy Page Gray Weds R. F. Euler

Nancy Page Gray became the bride of Richard Fox Euler Thursday evening in a ceremony performed at North Congregational Church, Detroit. The Rev. Ralph H. Read officiated at the 8 o'clock service.

* * *

Nancy is the daughter of Mrs. Moffat Gray of Lake Angelus Shores and the late Mr. Gray. Richard's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Euler of Ottawa drive.

David M. Gray II gave his sister in marriage before an altar banked with white chrysanthemums and gladioli.

A silk mist taffeta gown styled with a portrait neckline and chapel train was worn by the bride. The full length front panel of the dress was fashioned with appliques of rose pointe lace and seed pearls.

* * *

A Dijon cap of lace and seed pearls secured the bride's fingertip veil of silk illusion. Her only jewelry was a pair of pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a cascade arrangement of glamellias, stephanotis and ivy.

FOUR ATTENDANTS

Mrs. William Kester was her matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Diane Euler, Carol Tuttle of Lake Angelus and Josephine Przybylski of Wyandotte.

Their gowns were champagne satin trimmed in pale bronze and they wore headbands of matching satin leaves. Their flowers were cascade bouquets of chrysanthemums in fall shades of bronze and gold with accents of wheat.

Richard's father, Harold B. Euler, served as his best man. Ushers for the candlelight service were Smith Falconer Jr. of Berkley, Brooke Bennett of Pemberton, N. J.; Charles Wixom of Ann Arbor, Verne C. Hampton II, Richard Fitzgerald and Lewis Wint of Holly.

* * *

RECEPTION AT CLUB

Pine Lake Country Club was the scene of the reception following the ceremony.

Mrs. Gray wore beige lace over antique gold taffeta for her daughter's wedding. Her accessories were gold, and a corsage of bronze cymbidium orchids pinned to her purse completed her ensemble.

A cafe au lait lace sheath trimmed in taffeta was worn by Mrs. Euler. She wore a matching taffeta evening hat and her flowers of cream cymbidium orchids were pinned to her purse also.

* * *

A beige coat and sheath ensemble with avocado green accessories was chosen by the bride for her going-away outfit. She wore a corsage of green cymbidium orchids.

Following their honeymoon in New York City, the couple will live in East Lansing where Richard will do graduate work at Michigan State University.

MRS. RICHARD FOX EULER

Heat of Indian Summer May Bring Skin Rashes

The tremendous wave of heat in September and early in October, is generally summer's disagreeable farewell. It causes a rush to beaches and picnic spots and a few moans over stored cotton clothes.

It also may cause skin troubles for some women.

Because of warm weather and lots of moisture in the air, some women find that their temperamental skins behave better in the summer. But this last wave of blazing weather, with its humidity, reverses the procedure.

* * *

Women whose skins peel or flake off in winter find that they are getting minor rashes during this season. They are liable to scratch the rash and pretty soon they're about as uncomfortable as it's possible to be.

This is particularly true of women whose glands are adjusting to change — adolescents, pregnant women and women in menopause.

Dirt and perspiration, sometimes emotional tension, contribute to this annoying condition.

Trying to stay cool and reasonably dry can be an aid. Some women find that the absorptive qualities of a long-sleeved cotton shirt compensate for the heat of its coverage. Itchy clothes should be avoided, as should any synthetic that could possibly cause allergy.

* * *

An extra bath a day, voidance of rush or running where possible can also help. Anything that prevents the location of the rash, (generally elbows, backs of knees and underarms), from being chafed or saturated with heavy perspiration may also be beneficial.

Air-Minded Gals Visit Washington

Miss Cochran and Mrs. Lapham Are at Home in the Sky

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON—Colorful Jacqueline Cochran, record-breaking aviatrix and wealthy head of her own cosmetics business, is setting new goals politicking on the Republican ticket for Congress from California's 29th District.

* * *

From the time she announced her candidacy early this year until August, when she came to Washington to see an old friend, President Eisenhower, she says she has already shaken more than 40,000 hands, made some 600 speeches, flown her twin-engine plane 35,000 air miles around her district and driven more than 8,000 miles in her car.

She says she expects to double these figurse before the November election.

Speaking of air travel, Mrs. John H. Lapham, the flying grandmother of Texas, who breezes in and out of the capital in connection with her interests in the National Society of Arts and Letters, has somewhat of a record of her own.

Co-pilot with her husband, a director of an oil company, she averages about 6,000 air miles a month flying with him on business trips.

FLYING LAPHAMS

Mrs. Lapham and her husband, known to Texas as "the flying Laphams," have three private planes.

They first took to the air back in 1935, when Lapham saw a sign on a Texas road which read "Learn to fly for $40."

"He just bundled me into the cockpit because he wanted a copilot," Mrs. Lapham told newswomen on one of her trips here.

Actually, Mrs. Lapham says that flying a plane "feels so much safer than driving a car today."

* * *

"Once your ship is up," she explained, "you can push on the automatic pilot and relax. Apart from the getting up and the coming down there's no having to look for the other guy. In the sky other guys are always supposed to be at a different angle."

COMMUTES TO RANCH

The Laphams live in San Antonio, and Lapham commutes almost every day to their ranch 52 miles away.

When she goes to the ranch, this is one time she really prefers a car. The family dogs, which accompany her on these trips, are not "air minded."

Among the three planes owned by the Laphams is a trainer which Mrs. Lapham says her husband has used to teach many local Boy Scouts how to fly.

In quiet good taste is this three-button ivy sports coat made of an alpaca and wool blend with a contrasting stripe. The slacks and neckie are black.

Entertains Sorority

Mrs. Don Harrison of James road entertained members of Phi Epsilon Nu sorority Tuesday evening. A discussion of money making projects for the year was held and refreshments were served by the hostess. The group will meet with Mrs. Archie Bartlebaugh of Briggs road in October.

Yomar Group Welcomes One New Member

Mrs. Lloyd E. Smith was welcomed as a new member of the Yomar Group of the First Presbyterian Church when the group met Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Wilfred Beebe opened her home on Elizabeth Lake road for the meeting. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Lester Martindale, Mrs. Robert Burnes and Mrs. James C. Sutton.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Richard Wright, and Mrs. Earle VanDyke led the group in a round table discussion on "The Christian Family of Today."

Assisting with the discussion were Mrs. Fred Hoenstine and Mrs. Eldred Mathes.

Plans for fall activities were outlined by Mrs. Gene Feneley and Mrs. William Hilderley.

Fall Activities Start

The Birmingham Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Xi Delta will begin its fall activities with a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Thomas Jensen of Beechwood road, Birmingham Monday at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Jensen is handling reservations for the affair.

St. Bernadette Group Meets

Mrs. Ray Valentine and Mrs. Emil Swiecicki assisted Mrs. James Bale of Tilden avenue at the Wednesday meeting of the St. Bernadette Unit of St. Benedict Church. Mrs. John Gossick was a guest of the unit.

Plans were made for members to visit patients at the Oakland County Convalescent Home and for the parish dinner Oct. 28.

Members also discussed a talent show for the early part of January.

Mrs. Arthur Kirken of South Avery road will entertain at the next meeting. Assisting her will be Mrs. James Owens and Mrs. Earl Retzlaff.

Plea for Volunteers Made to Sorority

A plea for volunteer workers was made by Mrs. Trudy McLaren of the Central Vounteer Bureau when she spoke to members of the Gamma Chapter of Beta Theta Thi Sorority. Patricia Knudsen was also featured on the Wednesday evening program with a presentation of a floral demonstration.

Mrs. Ralph Behler of Niagara street was hostess to the chapter when plans were made for the formal initiation of new members Sept. 25 at the home of Mrs. William Frankenfield on St. Joseph street.

Backs are bared by so many of fall's late day and evening dresses that the low-back or backless foundation has become a must.

If the ladies adopt these new musical handbags designed by Romani of Rome, Italy, "They shall have music wherever they go." A silent "guitar" (left) in brown leather is eyecatching as well as functional. At right, a model "plays" a song on her chamois-leather "mandolin," with the handle serving as the instrument's neck.

'Old Faithful' Exercise Slims Hips

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "I am 22, and am 5 feet, 3½ inches tall and weigh 122 pounds. My bust measures 34 inches, waist 24 and hips 37 inches.

"I know that my hips are 3 inches too large. Actually they are just right, front view, but my lower hipline in the back sticks out. I cannot wear any straight skirts or dresses because I look awful in them—just like a duck!

"Six months ago I weighed 118 pounds and my hips were 34 inches. Naturally I am convinced that those four pounds which I gained and which I needed landed on my hipline."

A. You are the correct weight. After long experience I believe it to be impossible to gain 4 inches in the hipline with a gain of only four pounds. I think I know what happened. You measured at a different spot on your hipline, or your tape measure did not pass straight about your hips each time you measured.

Your hips are a little out of line, so instead of giving you a new exercise which I have not tested I am going to give you my "old faithful," which has been so effective and which I have printed several times in this column.

Here is it: Sit on the floor, with your legs resting on the floor, knees straight. Lean back as you raise your legs up with stiff knees to a point where your body weight falls directly over the largest part of your hips.

Keep your legs in this position as you roll from side to side, catching at the end of each roll and lift end of the roll on each side. Let your legs flop down on the floor at the eand of each roll and lift them as you roll across the center. I can guarantee this one!

* * *

Q. "Do people develop goiter if they do not eat salt? Suppose a person is reducing and nearly all these diets say to eat little if an salt."

A. You are mixed up. A person develops goiter if he or she does not get enough iodine. Foods grown near the sea are fine sources of iodine.

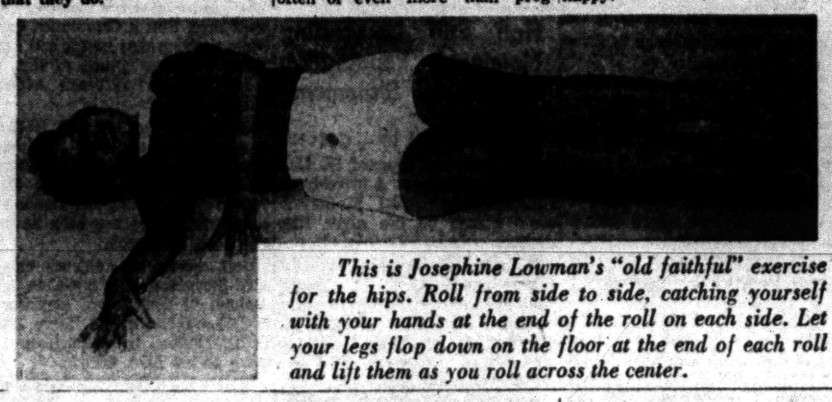
Persons living in inland countries, or states, away from the sea, are more apt to have this trouble. In those areas iodized salt is recommended. That is where you got the idea that lack of salt is connected with goiter.

* * *

Q. "I had a child before I was married. When I did marry I did not tell my husband about it. You can be sure that it has been hard for me to live with this secret. However, I am sure I did what was best at the time.

"I have little white stretch marks on me. I live in fear that my husband may sometime ask me about these. Do these ever occur after overweight? It seems to me that I have read that they do."

A. Overweight causes them as often or even more than pregnancy does. Don't live in fear. Be happy!



This is Josephine Lowman's "old faithful" exercise for the hips. Roll from side to side, catching yourself with your hands at the end of the roll on each side. Let your legs flop down on the floor at the end of each roll and lift them as you roll across the center.

Practical Nurses Meet at Beaumont

Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers, president of the State Association of Practical Nurses, spoke at the meeting of the Oakland County District of Michigan Practical Nurses Association held at William Beaumont Hospital.

Mrs. Rogers told of the availability of extension course for practical nurses in the near future and the third anniversary of the local association was celebrated.

The group will hold their next meeting at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

Don't Change Home Life to Please Mother-in-Law

She Should Conform to the Customs of Those She Lives With

By RUTH MILLETT

Should a couple who are used to serving drinks to their friends in their own home feel they can no longer continue to serve a before-dinner drink when a parent who objects to drinking moves in with them?

* * *

That is the question that confronts one wife who writes:

"My husband's mother is going to make her home with us. I am glad to have her but I am worried about one thing.

"My mother-in-law is very intolerant about drinking. My husband and I are used to serving a drink or two when we have dinner guests or when friends stop in for an evening. Do you think it is necessary that we stop this custom out of respect for my husband's mother?

* * *

"None of our friends drinks to excess but they are used to being offered a drink when they are entertained and I am afraid that things will suddenly seem very stiff and formal at our house if we do not feel free to ask, 'Would you lik a drink?' "

WHY NOT CONTINUE?

Things are likely to be even more constrained between you and your mother-in-law if you start trying to lead your life and run your own home according to her ideas instead of your own.

* * *

If you are in the habit of serving drinks why not continue to do so?

Your mother-in-law may not approve but you can be pretty sure that when she was your age and the head of her own house she did the things that were customary among her friends.

If she is going to make her home with you she should be willing to accept your standards of conduct and your way of doing things.

* * *

Don't make an issue of your custom of serving drinks at home by apologizing for it or trying to defend it.

Just go on as you always have, remembering that you are the mistress in your own home, that you are old enough to make your own decisions and that if you are making your mother-in-law a welcome member of the family she should be willing to accept your way of life without criticism.

Petite sizes are flattered in brief-jacket suits with higher buttoning, smaller-scaled collars and pockets. Avoid bulky fabric, collar, hat.

Suit jackets are shorter, cut off at the hipbone which is the perfect length for the short, slender figure. Jacketed dresses appear everywhere which is even better proportion than skirt and blouse for this petite type.

Easily Made Plain Cake Is Standby

BY JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

We are definitely in favor of using cake mixes when they suit the purpose you have in mind. But we maintain that there are times when your own cake is the one you want.

Mrs. Richard Marietta has a simple cake recipe that is her standby. It never fails, she says.

At present Mrs. Marietta is deep in preparations for her daughter's wedding. There are three other children in the family. Mrs. Marietta's hobbies include sewing and jewelry making.

PLAIN CAKE
By Mrs. Richard Marietta

2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
2½ teaspoons baking powder
¾ cups sugar
1 cup milk
⅓ cup shortening
1 egg
1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift dry ingredients into a bowl. Add shortening and ¾ cup of the milk. Beat to blend two minutes. Add rest of milk, vanilla and egg. Beat another two minutes. Pour into greased layer cake pans. Bake 25-30 minutes in a 350-degree oven.

One cup brown sugar may be used in place of the white sugar. One square of chocolate melted and ¼ teaspoon of soda added to dry ingredients are used for a marble cake. Add chocolate to half of the cake batter and alternate in the pans.

Brown Sugar Frosting

1 cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons shortening
2 tablespoons butter
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup milk
1½ cups sifted confectioners sugar

Put brown sugar, shortening, butter and salt in sauce pan and let melt on the stove. Add milk. Boil slowly three minutes. Let cool.

Embroider either (or both) of these handsome panels in beautifully blending colors and you'll be pleasing the men of your family. No. 2035 is worked in easy-to-do cross-stitch, and No. 5333 in simple stitches. These are two patterns.

Patterns No. 2035 and 5333 each contain hot-iron transfer for design; material requirements; stitch illustrations; color chart.

Form 3rd Party to Tie Up Vote

Splinter Groups Hoping to Force House to Pick President

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The National States Rights Conference opened its ambitious drive today to lay the framework for a third political party.

About 200 delegates from a dozen splinter parties in 20 states were on hand for the first general session in a downtown hotel ballroom.

The committees worked behind closed doors with no hint of the planks being smoothed out, except that it was doubtful that the declaration would include anything on civil rights.

The long-shot goal of the meeting is to form a coalition strong enough to deadlock the Electoral College in November, throwing the presidential election into the House of Representatives, where each state would have a single vote.

To do this, States Rights candidates must win enough electoral votes to keep either the Republicans or Democrats from getting the required 266 electoral majority.

The "keynote" address comes tonight when Clarence E. Manion, a lawyer from South Bend, Ind., takes the floor at Municipal Auditorium.

Adoption of the "declaration of principles" comes tomorrow, when all parties represented will be urged to support these candidates:

For president T. Coleman Andrews of Richmond, Va., a Democrat and former commissioner of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service; for vice president, T. H. Werdel of Bakersfield, Calif., a former GOP representative.

Illinois Man Dethrones Sauerkraut King Eater

FORRESTON, Ill. (AP) — In the world of sauerkraut, Richard Boyle, 25, of Rockford, Ill., is king. Boyle ate 2¾ pounds of the shredded pickled cabbage in three minutes.

That was too much, and too fast, for Dale Markel of Ridott, Ill., last year's king, who managed to stow only 2½ pounds in the time limit.

It all happened at Forrenton's 37th annual kraut festival. Forreston is the place where most of the kraut comes from.

New Plant Dedicated

MONROE (AP)—A new plant at Hartwell, Ga., was dedicated Thursday by the Monroe Auto Equipment Co. It will manufacture shock absorbers for cars and trucks. The company has three other plants in Monroe and Hillsdale.

Adlai's Silence on Hiss Rapped

Hall Still Demanding Nominee's Repudiation of Truman Statement

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall today described as "a travesty on statesmanship" Adlai E. Stevenson's silence on the Alger Hiss matter.

In a speech prepared for the Union League Club, Hall joined other Republicans who have urged recently that the Democratic presidential nominee repudiate former President Truman's statements about Hiss.

Hiss is a former State Department employe who served a prison term on perjury charges growing out of his denial that he had passed government secrets to a Communist spy ring.

Truman, questioned during a televised interview Sept. 3, replied "no" to a question whether he considered Hiss a Communist spy. While denying that he himself had called the investigation of Hiss a "red herring," Truman added, "But it was."

Since then Sen. Mundt (R-SD) in a statement and Vice President Nixon, in a speech at Gettysburg Wednesday, have called on Stevenson to repudiate Truman's comments. There has been no reply from Stevenson.

Hall, asking his audience today why Stevenson hasn't spoken up, replied: "I don't know. Maybe he doesn't want to offend Harry Truman. Maybe he's listening to some of his ADA friends.

"But what a travesty on statesmanship."

Wins Suit With Aid of Weather Bureau

DETROIT (INS) — The Weather Bureau was called upon yesterday to settle a law suit in Detroit.

Steven Bononich sued Mrs. Helen Wendt for $125 for 70 parakeets and a parakeet house she bought from him last October.

Mrs. Wendt said she refused to pay because most of the birds died almost immediately from advanced age. She claimed she couldn't tell how old the birds were on the purchase date because it was a dark and gloomy day.

The suit was dismissed when Bononich's contention the day was sunny and clear was refuted by Weather Bureau records.

4 Detroit Area Youths Begin Jail Sentences

Four Detroit area men began sentences in the Oakland County Jail today following their arrests by Farmington Township Police. Three are serving time for being minors with beer in their possession and the fourth for driving without a license.

* * *

All four were arraigned before Farmington Township Justice Allen C. Ingle today and pleaded guilty to the charges against them.

* * *

Jailed for being minors in possession were James O. Nicholas, 20, Livonia, and James E. Westberg, 20, Livonia, both for 25 days, and Gary D. Barr, 17, of 33925 Calfax, Farmington, 30 days.

1956-57 School Year Brings New Surge of Activity

By JACK HENDRICKSON

Pontiac High School was a teeming crowd of confused students during the first few days of the new school year.

Many things were new around the school when the students returned.

In July the office staff acquired a new switchboard system. Principal Francis Staley said too many lines were coming in and going out causing much confusion.

Students will eventually take over switchboard operation during school hours. They will be able to earn credits and gain experience for office work.

Students are gazing fondly at new desks added to the physical school improvements over the summer. The desks are made of hollow steel, riveted to sturdy contoured plywood. They are beautifully furnished in unique one-piece desk and chair designs.

New water coolers in the halls also added to the comfort of the students. That refreshing drink of water between classes adds much.

Nineteen new teachers were added to the PHS faculty this semester. They are: Michael Fierillo, Gail Green, Edward Banghart, Connie Coon, Peter Evart, Ralph Gardener, Mary Gibbs, Muri Glendenning, Ralph Grubb, Mrs. Ann Hagenbush, Mildred Ooper and Jean Lucas.

Others are Welley Maas, Elizabeth McDonald, Colon McGlown, Donald McMillen, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, Helen Swanson and Harry Wenzel.

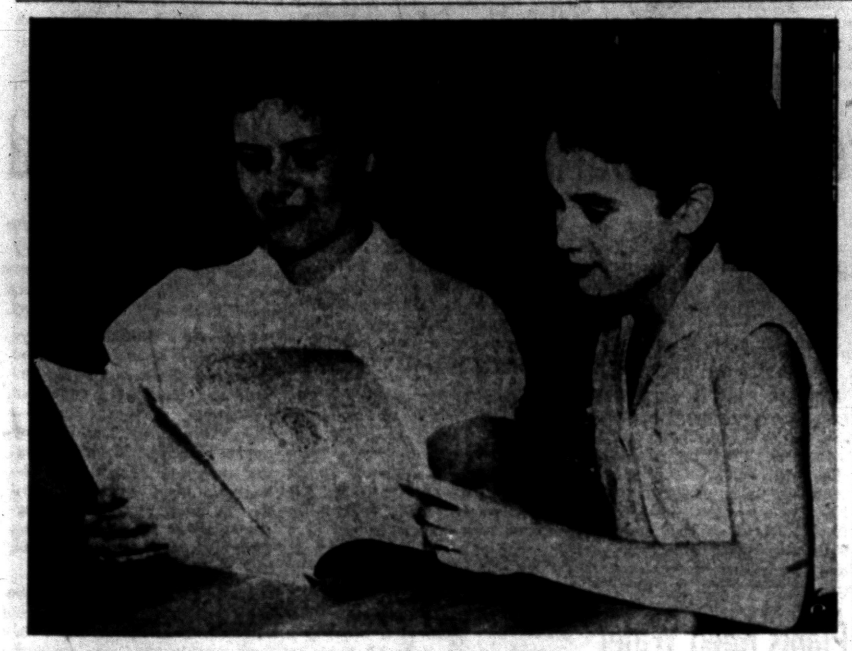
Various clubs have started their activities for the year but most are still organizing.

The Student Union was the main topic of comment early this week. The group is preparing to sell membership tickets Wednesday.

This is an organization in the school which gives the students many benefits at lower prices.

Ralph Rotsel, advisor, heads the group. Harry VanMarre is new manager; Pat Clark treasurer; Helen Seybart, cashier and Mary Sue Dahlgren, typist.

Cheerleaders are looking forward to this season with the visions of their heros trouncing all opposing teams. There to lead the cheerleaders as they urge their athletic stars to higher levels are Linda Burt, captain and Helene Prizant secretary. The girls plan to sell sweat shirts and decals again this year.



LINCOLN VIP'S — Leading Lincoln Junior High School students in a successful year will be Marilyn Vernor, president (left) and Anita Bowers vice president. The two ninth graders were chosen last year by the school. Their duties began this week.

Pontiac Press Photo

EASTERN LEADERS — Student Council president for this year who is set to guide Eastern Junior High School students is ninth grader, Judy Haroutunian (left). To aid her in the task will be Vice President Fred Mayers, (right) and faculty adviser Helen Lapish. The officers were chosen last spring.

'Howdy Week' Greets Students

St. Frederick Slates Get-Acquainted Dance Tonight

By MARGARET DRAKE

"Howdy Week" at St. Frederick High School started students onto another school year. This get-acquainted period will end tonight with a Sock Hop in the parish hall.

High school classes resumed last Thursday morning with a High Mass sung by our new pastor, the Rev. Thompson Marcero. Grade school classes began Friday. The enrollment this year totals 327 in the high school and 477 in the grade school.

Football co-captains Walter Quarles and John Bradley have buoyed our hopes in the ability of our team by relating the works of the football team on their trip north for training.

Judging from the elaborate plans being made for the pep meeting Friday in the auditorium, our boys will carry enthusiastic hopes and wishes with them for the first game which is scheduled for Sunday afternoon at Marine City.

New junior cheerleaders were elected Tuesday as former juniors moved into senior spot.

Senior cheerleaders are: Margaret Drake, Ardith Green, Marjorie McHugh, Donna Moody and Nancy Tracy. The cheerleaders welcomed Beverly Malinowski as a member of their team, a replacement for Frances Kline who transferred to Dearborn, Michigan.

The newly elected junior squad is composed of Kathy Bieri, Maureen Drake, Pat Foster, Peggy Owens, Ingrid Soderberg and Sharron Talbot.

St. Michael Seniors to Make Ring Choice

By JUDY NIEDJELSKI

Classroom doors opened for the students of St. Michael after the eight o'clock Mass Thursday, Sept. 6. Schedules were made out and classes began.

School activities for the coming year will be supervised by Mother Gilbert, who is being assisted by eight other nuns, two of whom are making this their first year at St. Michael's, and one lay teacher.

Seniors are already anticipating Monday when they will make their choice of class rings. Nominations for class officers are being considered by all in high school.

Meanwhile, outside school time the varsity cheerleaders are busy preparing for their first football game which is being played at Avondale Friday.

Those cheering the team on to victory will be: Captain Mary Raymond, Sharon Walsh, Yvonne Koprince, Phyllis Raymond, Betty Cronan and Pat Harbert.

CHECKING NEW EQUIPMENT — Pontiac High School students checked over the new desks that awaited their return this fall. Here "giving the goods the once over" are (left to right) Jack Pilkinton, Rosale Richards and teacher Colon R. McGlown. Also new at PHS was a switchboard system soon to be student operated.

Fall Brings Varied Activities for Area Schools

Area high school students, with a week of school behind them, are planning great things for this favorite fall season. Football, dances, club meetings and classes are vying for the center ring in every school.

AT AVONDALE

Football tops the news at Avondale this week with a game planned tonight under the new stadium lights. This first contest of the season will be with St. Michael High School.

Cheering their heroes on to victory will be Barbara Gordon, Shirley Knoll, Carol Atwood, Barbara Parker, Pat Parker, Joan Bourdo, Janet Wisehart and Joan Ward, new cheerleaders.

The social season heads into high gear also tonight with the kick-off dance, to be held immediately following the game.

The first debate meeting was held Tuesday evening with forensic coach Leonard Passint in charge. The debate team has four debates scheduled so far this year.

AT LAKE ORION

Hardly had the vibrations of the first bell died away when students began talking of the many plans ahead. With enrollments up about 250, the system has more students than ever before.

The football season begins with a varsity game at 8 p.m. today. First pep assembly was this morning, giving a glimpse of our new cheerleaders and the senior band.

For the first time the Junior High students will have their Junior High team, their own cheerleaders and their own band. Their first game will be with Madison, there, at 4 p.m. Sept. 20.

On Wednesday at special assemblies students went over the student handbook which was prepared by the administration and the student council. Principal Hoag advised "Start your future successes today be entering wholeheartedly into a program to make your classes, your social activities and your school the very best."

The student council executive committee is meeting this week and beginning plans for our homecoming game on Sept. 28. Next week we will be selecting our class queens. All clubs will be planning floats, etc.

New vocal teacher who comes from Minnesota and has taught in California for two years, was secured only a few days before school started. She is busy with her choral groups who will present concerts at many of the assemblies and special events of the school, as well as competing in the state festival.

This may be our most eventful year for in January, if plans are met, we will begin our next semester in the new high school.

AT ST. MARY'S

The initial meeting of St. Mary's High School Glee Club was held Monday with a return of 22 members and the Rev. John Gabalski, director.

Officers for the forthcoming year were selected: Presidents, Jerry Ostrowski and Kenneth Yaroch; vice president, Frank Kokoczka; librabian, Timothy Kubasinski; secretary, Roy Selenske.

The Rev. John Gabalski outlined the year's program which includes participation in the Class B district festival and state finals. The Glee Club's first performance will be for the first student assembly planned for the third week in September.

AT WALLED LAKE

All activities are getting underway at Walled Lake with clubs and organizations holding meetings to elect officers and plan the calendar for the year.

One group which was functioning in a hurry was the staff of the school paper, The Echo. Within thirty hours from the time that school opened, the first issue was on its way to press.

The staff prides itself in not missing deadlines and once started, publishing every week including the vacation periods until school is out in the summer.

The halls seem more crowded and well they might for the sophomore class includes about 360 students. The class of 1956 graduated 212.

All of the student body, the faculty, and those parents who have seen them are enthusiastic about the manuals which were compiled and distributed by the Student Council.

They are particularly valuable to new students and faculty members because they cover the activities of the school so thoroughly.

Band members and majorettes have been fitted with uniforms and are ready to participate in the opening football game with Redford Union on Friday night. Cheerleaders are in practice, too. The Student Council has planned a get-acquainted dance to follow the games.

Paint Brightens Washington Walls

Junior High Activities Rolling Along

Pupils returning to Washington Junior High were surprised and pleased to find a new coat of paint had brightened the classrooms and corridors over the summer. New fluorescent lighting in ten classrooms and the library added to the general improvement.

Students coming from the east found new concrete sidewalks had replaced the cinder path; the base of the flag pole has new steps to improve the appearance of the front entrances; an incinerator has been installed in the rear eliminating the unsightly burner.

There are five new faces among the faculty. Mrs. Millicent Hollis, remembered as a substitute teacher, will be teaching English and speech. The vocal music department has Gordon Wilder, who will handle the Boys' Glee Club along with his regular classes in vocal music.

In the math and business section of the building Arthur Tyrrell is holding fort. Tyrrell formerly taught driver training at the high school. Art and handicrafts are being taught this year by John Siltonen and girls' physical education is being taught by Rosemary Wandell, both graduates of Ball State College of Indiana. The Student Council held its first meeting this week with the new president, Ronald Joyner, in the chair.

Other officers for this semester are Ted Gaensbauer, vice president, and Mary Conrad, secretary-treasurer.

One of the first items of business was the selection of reporters to secure school news for the Pontiac Press. A number of people will be given this opportunity during the year. Selection of clubs is also a major problem this week. Selection is made now and clubs will be organized and functioning next week. Several new clubs including Tom-Tom (publishing of the school paper) Camera Club, First Aid and Rag-Rug making, are being offered.

AT EASTERN

Classes are getting under way this week at Eastern Junior High School. Many activities are still in the process of organization but the various leaders predict a good year.

Coach John Andrews advises that football practice has already begun and there are prospects for a good team. Eastern has five returning letter men and twenty-two boys with football experience. Seventy boys are practicing nightly.

Wilma Webb, girls' physical education instructor, reports her classes are presently being organized and her girls are anticipating a good year.

Mrs. Helen Jesse and 9A class members took a trip to Walled Lake Amusement Park today.

Alton Madden, director of Eastern's Safety Patrol, reports that his Safety Patrol, which is composed of students average or above in scholarship, has 20 members this year headed by Captain Gary Evans and two lieutenants: Nathan Justin and Melvin Thornton. Students who serve on the Safety Patrol may win a special honor point for this service.

Eastern's school paper, The Arrow, will be sponsored this year by teacher Rhea Jagoe.

AT MADISON

High fidelity music adds much to lunch time in the new cafeteria at Madison Junior High School. Returning students found that cafeteria and gymnasium facilities at the new school were completed over the summer and both are ready for full operation.

The hi fi music set was earned by students last year through the sale of hot dogs.

There are eight new teachers this year at Madison and enrollment is 686 students; 193 of which are seventh graders, 243 eighth graders and 250 ninth graders.

AT ISAAC CRARY

Six hundred and fifty new seventh graders at Isaac E. Crary learned about their new school Wednesday Sept. 5 while eighth and ninth graders enjoyed their last day of vacation.

Student Council officers and the ushers of the Assembly Club presented an Orientation Day for seventh graders, Ed Kurnmert, Student Council president was chairman of the two assemblies of the day which featured a panel discussion of junior high school activities, group singing, student talent and introduction of school personnel.

Tours of the building conducted by the ushers introduced special activity rooms and all areas of the building, seventh graders would later need to know.

Last stop of the tour was the cafeteria with discussion of the use of the room and serving of refreshments.

WTHS Football Team Ready for Action

By SANDRA WHITE

Waterford Township High School's football team will make its first appearance tonight against West Bloomfield Township High on their field. Kickoff time at 8 p.m. under the lights will open another traditional football season.

Likewise, making a first appearance are the varsity cheerleaders, who will lead the chants and cheers for a Waterford victory. This years varsity cheerleaders are Tish Fitzgerald, Barbara Floyd, Carole Moore, Carol Ponn, Carol Soules, Laura Terry; and Mary Lou Winters.

Classes and schedules are beginning to take shape with an enrollment of 1,201 students, grades 10-12, topping last years enrollment of 1,167.

400 seventh graders are also attending half day sessions in the high school building.

During summer vacation a paved parking lot and drive were added to the campus.

Exclusion of room 103 will provide needed room for the new counseling offices and waiting lounge now being remodeled. Permanent 15 minute homeroom periods are now separate from the first hour classes.

Nine teachers are new to Waterford this year. They are; John Coleman, government; Mrs. Lioubitsa Siagris, Latin; Mrs. Helen Siegman, English; Martha Smith, vocal dept.; Marjorie Lugar, home economics; Robert Alexander, speech; Donald Gregory, English; Lynn Rohrer, commercial dept. and Carroll Lanning, assistant librarian.

Due to changes in the administration, Lauren Manhart, former assistant principal, will head the math department.

Over 300 attended the first dance of the year, "Back to School", last Friday evening in the gym. This was a Student Council project headed by the vice-president, Marlene Lazenby.

Set Vegetables in Root Cellar for Flavor

Some vegetables such as parsnips and salsify are much sweeter and tenderer if stored in an outdoor root cellar throughout the winter.

* * *

Outdoor root cellars are easily made. One way is to sink a large drain tile upright in the ground, with its top several inches below the surface.

Cover the top with a lid insulated underneath with a straw mat. Hardware cloth can be nailed on the lid to protect the stores from rodents.

Vegetables may be packed in boxes or barrels, which are sunk in the ground and covered with soil several inches deep.

Grass Failure Shows Poor Soil, Fertility

When applying seed for grass this fall, don't apply extra seed in areas where grass has failed before. If previous seedings did not survive, it indicates that something was amiss either with soil or maintenance. Correct the poor soil conditions or lack of fertility and the results will be quickly noticed.

Fall Shrub Striking

The firethorn, or pyracantha is one of the outstanding decorative shrubs in moderate climates, having strikingly colorful orange or red berries in the fall.

Ample Water Allows This Plant to Grow Easier, Better

The outdoor hardy chrysanthemum is especially valuable in the garden because it provides color in both early and late autumn when so few flowers are in bloom.

Chrysanthemums grow more easily if given ample water. The Old Gardener's advice is "Never let chrysanthemums be set back. Watering is of utmost importance, so keep the soil moist, but not soggy."

If the soil about the roots is dry, the stems become hard and the foliage withers and drops off.

The best way to test whether the soil is damp enough is to observe the color of the leaves. Should the lower leaves be as green as the upper ones, the plant has sufficient soil moisture.

Chrysanthemums should be fed only until the buds show color, as later feeding somehow produces faded colors. The taller growing varieties should be staked now, as the plants will soon be getting heavy and in danger of snapping off in strong winds.

Wood or bamboo stakes may be pushed into the ground near individual plants and the stem neatly tied to these. Try to preserve the natural habit of the plant and avoid tying so that the plant is bunched together like a shock of corn.

Chrysanthemums want plenty of sunshine and resent crowding. Rust is their common enemy. This disease appears on the underside of leaves as small blisters which break open, exposing a brownish powdery mass of spores.

Control may be had by dusting the plants with sulfur and handpicking and burning all badly infected leaves.

Plant, Seed Business Starts With Red Paint

The story goes that the first American dealer in seeds and plants owes his success to red paint. He was running a general grocery store and had some flower pots in stock that weren't selling.

One day he painted a few of them red, and his women customers snapped them up before the paint was hardly dry. Next day he painted twice as many. Same thing. So he started putting plants in the painted pots—and that's how he got started in the plant and seed business which grew to flourish all along the Atlantic seaboard. Luck—and the power of paint!

Differences Defined

Many people have a difficult time distinguishing the spruce from the fir tree. The spruce usually has four-sided leaves or needles, while the fir has flat leaves.

GLORY GROWS—From a spindly eight or nine inch plant set in the ground last spring, comes the mighty morning glory shown above. Nine-year-old Karen Blahut, 79 Spokane Dr. shows off the plant which she started from seed in her class at Webster School last spring. Originally planned as a Mother's Day gift for her mother, Mrs. Michael Blahut, the plant has now twined itself up the television antenna atop the house. "What a Mother's Day gift!" says Mrs. Blahut.

Big Crop Complaint

McLOUD, Okla. (AP) — Blackberry growers in the McLoud area voiced a new complaint this year. So heavy was Oklahoma's strawberry crop that a shortage of crates and cups developed before blackberry picking time arrived.

Uninsured Tree Damage May Be Tax Deductible

Nature's violence can spread havoc through garden and home landscaping.

Suppose your valuable trees, foundation plantings, hedges or the like are severely damaged? Chances are that your insurance does not cover your loss.

There's one compensation — tree and shrubbery and even lawn damage are deductible on your income tax, providing there is a combination of circumstances which make them allowable to the Internal Revenue Service.

Your trees are part of the value of your home.

You are permitted to deduct, a fair value for the loss of such, less any insurance you may collect, Internal Revenue spokesmen say, if you come within the prescribed regulations.

Generally, you must have records of the type of casualty, when it happened, and the value of the property lost. Further, you must claim your deduction for the tax year in which the loss occurred — not the subsequent year or years in which you replaced the loss.

One federal tax expert applauded the suggestion that all home owners should take pictures of their houses and grounds, and to make an inventory of the type of plantings.

If severe storm damage results, another picture should be taken of the damage. Any bills which are incurred in replacement or repair of garden and landscaping damage should be preserved.

But, the Internal Revenue Service advises, before you file your return, you should visit one of the IR offices which are set up to help taxpayers and discuss your problem with an agent.

How do you determine the value of lost trees and shrubbery?

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has issued a guide on the value of trees. It is Agricultural Handbook No. 52, entitled, "The Small Timber Owner and His Federal Income Tax."

* * *

Its contents have the approval of the IRS. If you have had extensive tree loss, it may be obtained by writing to the U.S.D.A. in Washington.

LIGHTED CANOPY — Floodlights and Christmas bulbs turn a shapely tree into the focal point for evening beauty in a garden. To create the above effect, place lights on your house and another nearby tree, aiming them at each side of the tree. Lights and bulbs can be used to light border flowers and create dramatic shadow patterns in the garden bed. Mixing colors with reflector color lamps will give gardens the appearance of a sunny day. These same lamps can be used for floodlighting your house at the holiday season.

Traces of Prehistoric Gardens Dot Michigan Land

ANN ARBOR — Michigan had gardens before Columbus discovered America, according to Harlow O. Whittemore, professor of Landscape Architectuure in The Unniversity of Michigan College of Architecture and Design, which celebrates its semi-centennial this fall.

Of prehistoric age and origin and known as "garden beds," patterns of these long-vanished plots are found in the Kalamazoo and St. Joseph river valleys and the prairie openings in Southwestern Michigan, the landscape expert says.

They were located in nine Michigan counties.

Kalamazoo County, with seventeen, had more of the garden beds than any other county. St. Joseph County enjoys the distinction of having contained the largest—a bed of 120 acres located near Three Rivers.

Branch County had two; Van Buren, three; Cass one; Berrien one; Shiawassee three; Sanilac one and Saginaw one.

In 1748, Professor Whittemore states, the explorer La Verendrye reported their existence to the French government. In 1827 Henry Rowe Schoolcraft, Indian agent at Sault Ste. Marie, gave their plans and accuurate measurements.

Professor Whitfemore explains that the raised patches of ground were about seventeen inches in height and were arranged in plats or blocks of parallel beds separated by sunken paths and scalloped work with ample walks between.

GRIDIRON SHAPE

"Some, like the one which was situated in the city of Kalamazoo where the Park Club House now stands, were in the form of a cartwheel with radiating paths and rims. Others were shaped like a gridiron in regular straight-line designs with parallel ridges at a distance of about three feet," he states.

"The garden beds, which received their distinctive name because they resembled beds in a formal garden, have all been destroyed. What knowledge we have of them has been gathered from the writings of Schoolcraft, surveyor Bela Hubbard, and a few others who saw them in their original form," Professor Whittemore says.

Professor Whittemore says Michigan's aboriginal period shows the southern part of the state and the nearby Ohio and Mississippi Valleys inhabited from very ancient times by mound building, village building, and garden-planning Indians who had since been driven southward by the more warlike hunting-fishing tribes like the Shawnees, Pottawattomies, Chippewas, Fox and Sauks.

"No doubt, these ancient, peace-loving tribes planted the garden beds with the medicinal herbs they found most useful," the landscape expert concludes.

Farmington Promoting 'Day in the Country'

The Farmington Garden Club is spearheading "A Day in the Country," a community celebration to be held on Saturday, Sept. 15th.

Barns and other buildings on the McWilliams farm, West 12 Mile Road at Powers in Farmington Township, will be utilized to give the affair a true country flavor. All exhibits will be open to the public from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m.

At this time the Farmington Garden Club will present its Annual Flower Show. Featured will be flower arrangements, table settings, mantel decorations and conservation and horticultural exhibits.

In keeping with the rural atmosphere, country style will be emphasized in pantry containers, kitchen utensils and compositions using materials found in fields and near streams.

The Garden Club is competing for the national Purple Ribbon and all members, juniors as well as adults, will participate.

In addition to the Flower Show, which will be free to the public, several Farmington clubs will cooperate in activities for the benefit of the proposed Farmington Community House. Farmington Players will present a comedy entitled "Spreading the News."

An Arts and Crafts Market, featuring hand-made jewelry and ceramics as well as paintings, will be conducted by the Little Group. The Town Club will furnish pony rides and other entertainment for children and the Jaycees will operate a hamburger stand. Boy and Girl Scouts are also contributing.

Mrs. W. Allen Nelson, president, Mrs. Keith Willoughby and Mrs. Glenn Leland are garden club coordinators for "A Day in the Country."

Plants Need Water During Fall Months

Dry weather over some areas of the country makes it necessary to water ornamental trees and shrubs on the home property to help them through the winter months, says the American Association of Nurserymen.

* * *

Many home owners tend to neglect the watering after the summer months have passed and cooler weather arrives, but plants need sufficient moisture even during the dormant season.

In the colder areas all plants need to be watered until the ground freezes. Where natural rainfall has been sufficient this of course is not necessary.

In the naturally dry areas of the country many plants will not survive the winter months unless they have sufficient water about the roots.

* * *

A good soaking with a sprinkler for four to six hours once a week is sufficient. After a long dry spell it takes days of rain before the soil contains enough water.

NEW OVERHEAD SPRINKLER — The low cost of this overhead sprinkler brings it to the home gardeners who have just too many vegetables to water sufficiently. The system can be installed permanently or made to move from site to site. Construction is simple says the company.

Set Out Trees, Shrubs After Rain Softens Soil

Right now the most important new work is setting out shrubs and trees — deciduous and evergreen. This work is much easier on the gardener if undertaken after a good rain when the soil is deeply moist.

When setting in a new planting stake, guy the plant instantly so that fall winds won't whip it around and tear up the roots trying to establish themselves in a new location.

Transplant Evergreens When Growth Stops

The time to transplant evergreens is when the tips of the branches have stopped growing for the season.

If transplanting is contemplated, water the plant thoroughly for several days ahead, and when digging take a big ball of earth and move them quickly and carefully to a spot which has been carefully prepared in advance.

Keep them out of the ground the shortest possible time.

National Polio Cases Decline

Illinois Leads Country With 103 August Cases of Total 855 Stricken

WASHINGTON (AP) — The states listed 855 new polio cases last week, compared with 887 in the preceding week. It was the second successive weekly decline.

* * *

The Public Health Service cautiously declined to speculate on whether the 1956 peak was reached at 943 cases in the week ended Aug. 25 but the indications were that it well might have been.

Illinois, reporting 103 cases, was the only state reporting more than 100 last week. In the comparable 1955 week Massachusetts had 290, New York 245, Wisconsin 224 and Illinois 112.

"The outbreak in Chicago is definitely on the decrease and the total for Illinois dropped again," a spokesman said. "We don't anticipate an outbreak anywhere else."

CASES FALL OFF

With a total of 9,769 cases this year from Jan. 1 through Sept. 8, compared to 18,198 in the similar 1955 span, it began to appear this year's cases may fall considerably below half as many as those in 1955.

The Health Service spokesman conceded that this year's cases well may approximate half the 1955 total but he would go no further in his prediction.

However, the 855 cases last week compared with 2,007 in the corresponding week last year. Should the reports continue such a favorable trend in the next few weeks, the 1956 total would be substantially below 50 per cent of the 1955 cases.

* * *

In the polio disease year which began April 1 there were 8,702 cases through Sept. 8, compared with 17,135 a year earlier.

Hint Princess Margaret to Visit Canada in '58

OTTAWA (INS)—A source close to the Canadian government said yesterday it is "almost certain" Princess Margaret of Britain will visit Canada in 1958.

A visit by the princess to North America has been hinted for some time. Previous reports claimed if she visits Canada she probably also will visit the United States.

Cedarville Real Estate Man Drives Clients to See Property — by Boat

CEDARVILLE (AP)—Guy Hamel, a Cedarville real estate agent, usually suprises prospective customers looking for property at the northern tip of Lake Huron.

Like most realtors, Hamel tours his clients, pointing out the virtues of various tracts as he passes. But there the similarity ends. Hamel hasn't been behind the wheel of a car in 35 years and he doesn't even own one.

He conducts business in a sleek, custom-built speedboat.

Because the majority of his real estate activity takes place in the Les Cheneaux resort islands that dot Lake Huron off the southeastern shore of the upper Penninsula, Hamel learned long ago that an auto is useless. He figures he records some 1,500 miles a year in his craft by dodging in and out of the channels escorting clients around the islands.

Often, of course, somebody shows a preference for property that isn't accessible by water. But after explaining he doesn't drive, Hamel prevails on the customer to use his own car for the tour.

SHUNS AUTOMOBILES

Hamel merely explains he lives on one of the Les Cheneaux islands himself and commutes to his office by boat.

* * *

When Hamel is busy with civic affairs as a members of the Cedarville Chamber of Commerce, he again shuns the automobile and glides around in his boat.

Many of his long-standing friends in town never realized he doesn't own a car. It came to them suddenly after he adeptly hitched a couple of rides.

One of the 61-year-old realtor's favorite tales is his only experience as a potential motorist 35 years ago, just about the time he was starting his real estate business. His brother was teaching him how to drive and one day Hamel decided to take the car out alone for a spin to Hessel, a three-and-a-half mile ride from Cedarville.

"I made it around the block," Hamel relates, "and none of my friends realized I was driving for the first time. I got so disgusted, I haven't driven since."

Aerial Photo Course

HOUGHTON (AP) — Foresters and timber operators will learn how to interpret aerial photographs in a short course to be offered at the Michigan Tech Ford Forestry Center at Alberta Sept. 26-29. The four-day workshop offers aid in cruising, mapping and general location work for aerial photography used in the study of timber lands.

Although there has been a great increase in air travel in the past few years, its potential has barely been tapped. It is estimated that 90 per cent of the American public has never flown in a commercial airliner.

Ava and Peck May Team in 'Thieves Market' Film

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — The first of the year, after the Gregory Peck baby is born, Greg takes off for Madrid to film "Thieves Market" for his and Sy Bartlett's independent company.

When I was in London, I talked with Ava Gardner and she told me that she hopes to co-star with Greg in this picture, which will be shot almost in its entirety in Spain.

"However," said Ava, "I am definitely coming back to spend Christmas with my family in North Carolina and to pick up my divorce papers from Frank Sinatra in Reno. I can't say definietly whether I'll do 'Thieves Market,' because I can't do it without the permission of MGM."

After six months in Spain on "The Pride and the Passion," Cary Grant said that he is so exhausted he won't even read a script for a while. He is taking Betsy Drake (Mrs. Grant) to Palm Springs tomorrow to rest.

"I was on location when Betsy was rescued from the Andrea Doria," he told me, "and knew not a word about it until I returned. There was a cable from Betsy, but before I had a chance to open it, the clerk said, 'We are so sorry about the sinking of the Andrea Doria.'"

"The telephone lines, which usually close at 1 a.m., were kept open so I could talk to Betsy when she stepped off the Ile de France, which had picked her up. She lost everything she owned, even her shoes and glasses. It was a harrowing experience."

I went straight to headquarters when I heard that MGM has already found "Ben Hur," in a young Italian actor named Cesare Danova.

"True or false?" I asked Marvin Schenck, because I had heard that Tony Curtis was leading the field for this spectacle.

"We've had Cesare under contract here since June," Marvin told me, "Benny Thau, our head of talent, found him in Rome and signed him after seeing him in 'Don Juan.'"

"I'm telling you the truth when I say we expect big things from this boy, although it's too soon to talk about 'Ben Hur.' He'll do something important before that as soon as he perfects his English."

I learned that Mrs. Danova, who expects a baby in two months, has just joined her husband in Hollywood.

When you learn that "The Brave One" has a background of bullfighting you're going to think the heat touched me when I say seldom have I seen a more charming, delightful and sentimental picture.

It's the story of a little boy and a great and courageous bull he raises from a calf.

What a wonderful little actor is Michael Ray as the Mexican boy! I might add, what a wonderful "actor" is the bull!

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Mother-in-law trouble is said to be the reason for the Mary Murphy • Dale Robertson split. But most of their friends believe the separation is only temporary.

Frank Sinatra sent his car for Kim Novak who motors to Las Vegas tomorrow to hear him sing at the Sands. Kim won't fly.

Window shopping after hours on Fifth avenue looking at baby clothes were Grace Kelly and Prince Ranier.

Jerry Lewis is breaking out all over in solo acts. He's now made an album for Decca of Al Jolson's tunes, and no clowning, either.

Drops Dead in Pulpit at Prayer Meeting

MAYWOOD, Calif. (UP) — "I am so happy that I am close to the Lord and that my family is close to the Lord."

Shortly after saying this, 23-year-old Miss Geraldine Flanagan of New Orleans dropped dead in a church pulpit where she was addressing a prayer meeting.

Mrs. John A. Curtis, wife of the assistant pastor of the Lutheran Zion Church, said Miss Flanagan had been asked to say a few words to the 25 persons present.

An autopsy failed to determine the cause of death.

Volunteers to Clean Up Pere Marquette River

BALDWIN (UP) — Volunteer crews of Boy Scouts, sportsmen, river guides businessmen and resort operators are set for the annual cleanup of the Pere Marquette River — one of the state's most heavily used trout streams.

The crews will operate Saturday from a fleet of flat-bottomed boats, delivernig refuse at various landings to trucks supplied by the Lake County Road Commission.

The cleanup netted five truckloads of cans, bottles and other rubbish hauled from the river bottom last year.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Most everyone in football circles in the state of Michigan knows Sam Ketchman as the sports boss at Ferris Institute in Big Rapids.

Being athletic director isn't the end of Sam's activities. At Ferris he is also the football and track coach, but one role, important these days to any institution, which Sam undertakes, is that of goodwill ambassador.

No matter where you go, Detroit, Ann Arbor, Lansing, even here in Pontiac where there is some sports function going on, you're almost sure to see Sam Ketchman.

He is one real enterprising personality. You'd think that during those off days, or vacations and summers away from Ferris it would mean forgetting football for awhile.

★ ★ ★

But not for Sam. In his spare time, as a "hobby" he works in another role as an editor and publisher.

In this position he stays close to football even in July.

What Sam does is somewhat novel as far as high schools go in the country, and in Michigan its a unique venture.

Ketchman puts out a couple publications devoted strictly to the Michigan High School setup.

★ ★ ★

One of the books contains all the informative data about every high school in the state, including everything from the coaching personnel to the school colors.

The other is devoted to the football angle, listing the schedule, past records and league standing of every school according to class (A-B-etc.).

Sam admits he got the ideas for putting out the books from the college Blue Book of Athletics.

"I got the idea last year to make it easier for press, radio and coaches to get the basic facts they need about any high school at the flip of a page," said Sam.

"Besides, I like to do things like this," he added, "and you know over the past year I've gotten to know quite a bit about almost every high school in the state."

★ ★ ★

With all of his activities one wonders where Sam gets all the time to compile, mail and edit these books.

"For the past two summers I've worked at them like a hobby," he said. "And don't forget living in a small town like Big Rapids doesn't offer the diversion like down there among you big city folks," he added jestingly.

That's how he spends his evenings when he's not making the tour of the banquet circuit.

★ ★ ★

From a newspaper's standpoint for getting information, such a booklet is ideal, especially when writers have to assume the role of dentists in pulling information out of coaches.

"I mail as many as six and seven questionnaires to some coaches before getting the necessary material," said Sam.

"Many high school coaches aren't the best public relations men," he realized "but you do find most are very cooperative."

★ ★ ★

Here's where Sam brings out a good point. It's doubtful that any coach gets a salary addition to act as press relations man for his high school, but in today's ranks the battle for recognition depends highly on the coach.

This is especially true in college ranks, even in a small institution like Ferris.

Ketchman realized this even before high school coaching days, while in the service as a sports director of an Army camp.

The Ferris football team may not take any headlines, but Sam Ketchman won't hesitate to let everyone know that Ferris has one.

Braves Lead by 2 After Double Win

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Warren Spahn had his 200th major league victory, Henry Aaron had a firm grip on the batting title, Bobby Thomson had his $100 fine rescinded and the Milwaukee Braves were closer to the National League pennant today than ever before.

* * *

In addition, the Braves, now leading the Brooklyn Dodgers by two games with 13 left to play following last night's spectacular extra-inning 3-2 and 4-3 triumphs over Philadelphia, appear to have uncovered a new pitching star in 23-year-old Taylor Phillips.

Never has the Milwaukee picture been brighter. Never has the Braves morale been better. Never has their confidence been higher. And probably never has there been a more determined, more tireless, Braves team than the 1956 edition.

"This is the dog-gonest team I've ever seen in my life," said the jubilant Spahn after his teammates had practically carried him off the field early today. "It just refuses to accept defeat. Did you ever see a team battle back to win two such games as those—all in one night?"

* * *

Just as they were forced to overcome an early 3-0 deficit against Brooklyn Wednesday, so the Braves had to survive early 2-0 Philadelphia leads last night. They won the first game on Aaron's 13th-inning, run-scoring triple after tying the score at 2-2 in the eighth. Aaron's double also featured that rally.

* * *

The second game was won in the 12th on Aaron's sacrifice fly that scored Spahn. Milwaukee tied that one 2-2 in the fifth and went ahead 3-2 in the 11th on Aaron's 25th home run that gave him a .327 batting average. But the Phillies pulled even in their half on Ted Kazanski's two-out homer. Spahn, who permitted only six hits for his 17th victory of the season and the 200th of his career, helped his cause with a perfect night at bat. He got two singles, a double, two walks, scored twice and drove in two runs.

Milwaukee's victories would never have been possible were it not for a pair of spectacular throws by left-fielder Thomson. The hero of the 1951 New York Giants, pennant drive, averted certain defeat in the 12th inning of the opener by scooping up Del Ennis' long single and throwing Willie Jones out at the plate. A Jones tally would have given the Phils a 3-2 triumph.

Then, as if it were borrowed from a movie script, Thomson made an identical play in the ninth inning of the second game. Again the sequence began with an Ennis single. This time, however, it was the swift Richie Ashburn, who was thrown out trying to score from second with the run that would have given the Phils a 3-2 victory.

Thomson's great throw in the first game, followed by Aaron's big bat, made it possible for Phillips to post his fifth victory as a Braves since joining the club in June. The young southpaw hurled brilliantly after relieving Bob Trowbridge in the sixth. He permitted eight hits but no runs in eight innings and fanned six.

Victory-Hungry Rams Face Marine City Squad Sunday

By BILL CORNWELL

St. Frederick, owning one of the most unenviable records in Michigan high school football, opens its 1956 season Sunday afternoon at Marine City and the Ram gridders are wondering if a "good luck" omen is intended.

* * *

Sunday's opponent will be Holy Cross, the only school St. Fred has defeated during the past three seasons. In addition, the southsiders gained a 13-13 deadlock with Holy Cross in last year's curtain-raiser.

St. Fred scored an 18-0 decision over the Crusaders on Sept. 20, 1953, in the opening game of the schedule. That was St. Fred's last win in the fall sport.

Since that time, the Rams have lost 22 games while gaining three ties. Prior to that, the Rams dropped seven decisions in each of the 1951 and '52 seasons, giving them one lone triumph in their last 40 starts.

Injuries are plaguing Gene Wright's gridders. Co-captain and fullback Wally Quarles sustained a broken vertebra during a scrimmage session against Detroit St. Agatha and will be sidelined for five weeks.

Jack Lyon and Tom Nesbitt, sophomore halfbacks with speed to burn, are both out with ankle and foot injuries.

Andy Landry will replace Quarles at fullback for the Rams. Other likely starters are Bill Mountain, Don Landry, Marty Koenig, Dick Thompson, Bob Yapo, Frank Zwicker and Bhil Bieri in the line and backs Tom Derocher, co-captain John Bradley and Mike Glynn.

Other season openers Sunday afternoon include Visitation at Ferndale St. James and Holy Redeemer at Royal Oak Shrine.

Midget Program Opens Saturday

Annual Football Clinic Ready for 6-Week Stay Tomorrow at Wisner

Football fundamentals will be emphasized during the 10th annual Midget Football program, which gets under way Saturday morning at Wisner Field.

The gridiron clinic for 5th, 6th and 7th grade boys will be conducted for six successive Saturdays, climaxing on Saturday, Oct. 20, with the Midget All-Star show under the lights at Wisner Stadium.

Sharing the sponsorship of the 6-week program are the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department, Board of Education and Junior Chamber of Commerce.

All boys in the 5th, 6th and 7th grades are invited to attend. Tomorrow's session for elementary school youngsters starts at 9 a. m. while 7th graders begin at 11 o'clock.

Each player must bring his own headgear and shoulder pads. Spiked shoes cannot be worn. Only tennis shoes will be permitted.

Written permission from the parents or guardian is required for a boy to take part in the program. Permit cards may be obtained at tomorrow's opening session.

Kocsis Enters Semi-Finals

LAKE FOREST, Ill. (AP)—For the second straight year, two dedicated golfers and a pair of weekend players squared off today in the 36-hole semifinals of the National Amateur Golf Championship. And people who had been calling the 56th championship another Harvie Ward benefit began to wonder a little.

The difference between 1955 and 1956 was in the pairings. Ward, who seems to have the knack of bringing his game to a peak for the late stages of an important tournament, laid his title on the line against Joe Campbell, a brash, blond-headed college kid who doesn't quite believe he can lose.

On the other side, 43-year-old Chuck Kocsis of Detroit, a top-flight golfer of 20 years ago who came here just for a little fun, opposed tall Jerry Magee, a 22-year-old Toronto auto salesman whose sight was impaired in a hockey accident some years ago.

A year ago Ward had a rather soft touch in his semifinal match against Billy Booe and he breezed through the final against Bill Hyndman, who had worn himself out upsetting Hillman Robbins. This time it looks a little different.

* * *

Campbell, a quarter-finalist last year, isn't the kind of kid who is easily disturbed. So far in the tournament he has specialized in getting his approach shots so close to the pin that he can get down in one putt.

Kocsis has qualified for the championship 14 times and reached the quarter-finals way back in 1936. Never sensational, he has been playing some of the steadiest golf of the tournament.

"I haven't made a single long putt all week, but I've hardly missed a green, either," the broad beamed Detroiter chuckled. "I just came down here to have a little fun; I wasn't expecting to go far."

* * *

Kocsis said he hasn't been playing much golf this summer and has passed up the national amateur since 1952.

* * *

Reaching the semifinals marks a milestone in Kocsis' golf career which was touched off when he won the national intercollegiate crown in 1936 while at the University of Michigan. He was his state's amateur champion six times and in 1943 had a brief fling in the professional ranks before applying for reinstatement as a simon pure.

* * *

"I thought my playing days were about over in 1945 when I was in an auto accident while on a hunting trip in Montana," Kocsis recalled.

* * *

"I was in the hospital seven months and they had to do a lot of bone grafting in my back. I gained 20 pounds in the hospital—up to 180—and I've never been able to take it off since. I haven't even lost any in battling to the semifinals."

Tourney's Best Field

4th GMC Event Saturday

Fourth annual General Motors Truck, Fisher Body and Pontiac Motors match play tourney on Saturday at Davisburg course promises some of the hottest golf of the season in the Pontiac area.

With each plant entering a 24-man team comprised of its leading shotmakers, the field this year, according to Jim Hanes, "is the finest in the history of the tournament. Most of the section's finest players are on the lists."

Hanes' reports that most all league winners of each plant are among the contenders.

Indicative of the quality of competition expected Saturday is the entry of Paul Bada, whose recent 61 at Pontiac municipal course was one of the season's finest performances for the district. Bada is a member of the Truck team.

Other sharp players include the city's medal play champion, Ron Rothbarth, with Fisher Body, and Lyle Wiscombe, Klingler League individual champion at Pontiac Motors. Pontiac Motors team won the event last year with a 1616 total, with Fisher Body 2nd with 1724. Truck had 1735.

Some of the other top players include Charley Barker, Stan Savage, Ed Wasik, former medal play champion, Jack Ross, Harley Hyatt, Wayne Beals, Hilton Stults, Charley Cappell, Don Bruske, all of whom have long been prominent in area links activities.

Many prizes are provided. A best-ball event will be run concurrently with the tourney, by Pro George Ferguson of the host course.

A buffet luncheon in the park adjoining the course, and award of prizes will follow the tourney.

Parker Tests Rookies in Game With Browns

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The Detroit Lions will try to make it two straight over the world champion Cleveland Browns tomorrow night in Akron's Rubber Bowl.

* * *

With three victories in four preseason contests, Lions appear to be much stronger — both defensively and offensively — than the club that finished in the Western Division basement last season. They have whipped the Pittsburgh Steelers, Philadelphia Eagles and the Browns, while losing to the Chicago Cardinals in a narrow 20-17 decision.

Coach Buddy Parker, whose Lions whipped the Browns 17-0 last Friday night at Briggs Stadium, will give a batch of rookies a thorough test in tomorrow night's fray.

He must pare the squad before long to 35 men — then to 33 after two regular season games — so some of the rookies trying to land a place on the squad must show quickly they can do the job.

* * *

The last time the Lions and Browns met on consecutive weekends was in 1954. Lions took a 14-10 decisions in the snow to set the stage for the world championship game a week later. Then the Browns thumped the Detroiters 56-10 to halt the Lions' bid for a 3rd straight world title.

In special ceremonies before tomorrow night's contest, Lion end Sonny Gandee will be honored by hometown fans in Akron.

Beat Nats, Face Yanks

Tigers' Streak Now 7

DETROIT (AP) — Bucky Harris, whose Detroit Tigers are riding a seven-game winning streak, says the American League "should start the season in July and run into December."

"That way," said the Tiger skipper after his club had whacked Washington's Senators 7-3 yesterday, "we'd be in better shape than Cleveland."

Despite their late surge, with 11 victories in 13 outings, the Tigers find themselves with little hope of climbing out of the second division. They are 17½ games behind the league-leading New York Yankees and five games behind the fourth-place Boston Red Sox. Cleveland is 6½ games ahead of the Bengals.

Harris cited injuries to key men Harvey Kuenn and Ray Boone at midseason.

"We hadn't set the league on fire up to then," said Harris, "but when they were out of the lineup we just fell apart. You can't lose men like that — when you have no one on the bench to go with—and stay up there."

* * *

The Tigers probably have been in as bad straits as any major league club as far as bench strength goes.

"Some teams can lose key players and send someone else in and not be hurt too bad," said Harris, "But we can't do that."

The club got both good hitting and solid pitching against the Nats yesterday. Righthander Paul Foytack yielded only five hits and his mates backed him with 15 base hits, seven of them divided between Boone and reserve first baseman Jack Phillips.

* * *

The victory, at the expense of Washington's best pitcher, southpaw Chuck Stobbs, gave the Tigers a sweep of the three-game series following a four-game sweep over Kansas City.

The Tigers must face the pacesetting Yankees in a two-game series starting today at Briggs Stadium. Harris has decided to go with 24-year-old Hal Woodeshick, who will be making his major league debut after being purchased from Charleston of the American Association.

The Yankees' starter will be Don Larsen. The two clubs will conclude their 1956 engagements with an afternoon game on Saturday before the Boston Red Sox return to Briggs Stadium for a Sunday doubleheader.

Battle Creek Wins AABC Series Place

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (AP) — Two Eastern Division teams, Battle Creek and East Chicago, Ind., emerged victorious Thursday night to join Houston, Tex., and Tacoma, Wash., in the world series of the American Amateur Baseball Congress.

* * *

Battle Creek squeaked by Pittsfield, Mass., 7-6 to join East Chicago as the Eastern representatives. Houston and Tacoma had gone undefeated to win the Southwest and Northwest crowns respectively.

All four teams meet in Battle Creek for the World Series, a round-robin tournament beginning Saturday.

Perry Joins Lions

DETROIT (AP) — Gerald Perry, 235-pound defensive tackle, joined the Detroit Lions today after a hitch in the Army.

The former UCLA tackle, has been playing service football at Fort Ord, Calif. He was drafted and released by the Los Angeles Rams in 1953 and picked up as a free agent by the Lions in 1954. Perry is 26.

Mantle Hits 48th

Pressure Now on Brooks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nerve-wracking pennant pressure Brooklyn's world champions have been so sure would make Milwaukee crack today is squarely on the Dodgers—not the Braves.

Milwaukee never looked more like the National League champion than it did today.

It was hustle-guy Johnny Logan, banged up with a sore back and out of the lineup when the Braves were in Brooklyn this week, who complained the loudest about how the Dodgers were being called "the old pros."

"We," said Logan, "are the young pros. We can play under pressure, too."

With Brooklyn idle and third-place Cincinnati defeating Pittsburgh 5-4 in a single game, the race shapes up with Milwaukee two games ahead of Brooklyn with 13 games to play and 3½ games ahead of Cincinnati. The Dodgers have 15 games remaining, the Redlegs 14.

St. Louis defeated New York 5-0 in the only other NL game.

In the American, Mickey Mantle's first September home run, his 48th, gave the New York's pennant-bound Yankees a 3-2 victory over Kansas City. Baltimore bounced Cleveland 4-1, and Southpaw Billy Pierce became the league's first 20-game winner since 1954 by beating Boston 4-3 in 10 innings as Chicago reclaimed third place. Detroit beat Washington 7-2.

Seixas Beats Moylan for West's Singles Title

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Vic Seixas, veteran Davis Cup performer from Philadelphia, is Western singles champion after the "longest" tournament in the event's 69-year history.

Seixas had little trouble yesterday in disposing of Eddie Moylan, Trenton, N.J., 6-4, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2 in the championship at Woodstock Country Club, originally scheduled for July 15. Rain postponed the match, and previous commitments prevented Moylan and Seixas from getting together again until yesterday.

Hawaii Blanked by U.S. Nine for Global Title

MILWAUKEE (AP) — A brilliant three-hit, shutout pitching performance by Pete Olson Thursday night gave the United States a 2-0 victory over Hawaii, and the championship in the 1956 Global World Series of baseball.

The U.S. team from Fort Wayne, Ind., played its best game of the tournament which began last Friday. And the best was needed to turn back the spirited Red Sox who for the second straight time finished second in the series. The U.S. team also captured the title in the first global series last year.

It was the second series shutout for Olson who beat Puerto Rico on two hits last Sunday.

Speed Sought at Michigan

Wolverines Hold Relay Foot Races to Develop Team Swiftness

ANN ARBOR (AP)—With the opening game just 22 days off, Michigan coach Bennie Oosterbaan has turned to foot races to add a little speed to the power of his new single wing attack.

Oosterbaan divided his squad for fundamentals drill yesterday—then took time off for some relay races with the squad divided by positions. As usual, the backfield won the speed contest.

Jim Pace, the fastest man on the squad, and Terry Barr, a flashy runner from Grand Rapids, led the backfield team. Although the object was fun, the by-product was development of team speed which dulls in contact work.

Yesterday's practice began with a long kicking drill for ends and backs and contact work for linemen. After the relays, Oosterbaan put his charges through a regulation scrimmage.

Better Trout Fishing Expected for Weekend

LANSING (AP)—Fall trout streams are slightly high and colored but should be improved this weekend, the State Conservation Department said in its fishing report.

Some rainbows were being taken near the mouth of Whitney drain and in big Manistee River below Tippy Dam.

* * *

Trout lakes were improving on fall rainbows with good reports from Lake Ann, Benzie County; Bear Lake, Kalkaska County, and Reed and Harper Lakes, Lake County.

'Tiger' Favored Over Canadian

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ralph (Tiger) Jones, the Yonkers veteran, stands as a strong favorite to halt the rise of young Wilfie Greaves in their 10-round middleweight go at Capitol Arena tonight.

* * *

Jones ends a two-month layoff to resume his campaign for a shot at champion Ray Robinson. He's rated No. 3 contender, and Manager Bob Melnick is hopeful of making the match later this year if dickering for a Robinson-Gene Fullmer bout falls through.

* * *

Greaves, a 19-year-old Canadian now fighting out of Pittsburgh, lacks the kind of record that ordinarily would disturb Jones. But the blond youngster's pilot, old-timer Jake Mintz, says Wilfie is the best thing to come along in 20 years and declares, "Im' not going to be surprised when they raise his hand tonight."

The bout will be carried on the usual Friday night TV-radio network, NBC, 9 p.m. EST.

35 Area Prep Games on Tap

"Rock 'em, sock 'em" football is taking over the spotlight on the national sports scene and will hold that position of eminence for the next two and a half months.

Oakland County area already has fallen victim of the autumn fever and temperatures will rise sharply today when area high school teams square off in 35 games, 31 of them under the lights, to open the prep gridiron wars for 1956.

Today's openers "smack" of tradition in most cases and no league games are scheduled in any of the area's dozen conferences.

This afternoon's Birmingham-Southfield meeting on the Bluejay field is a top-flight example of the customary opening contest. Birmingham has chalked up 6-0 and 14-7 victories over the Jays in their last two outings, but the Maples will have their hands full beating them again.

West Bloomfield hopes to remove some of the sting from last year's crushing 58-0 defeat at the hands of Waterford when the two schools clash tonight at Keego Harbor.

Walled Lake tangles with a rough customer in visiting Redford Union. Redford boasts the return of nine starters from the 1955 squad which tied the Vikings, 7-7. Rochester gets a rugged initiation against Davison while a veteran Romeo team rates an edge over Richmond.

In traditional curtain-raisers closer to Pontiac, Milford invades Oxford in quest of its second straight win over the Wildcats and Lake Orion hopes to make it four in a low over visiting Clarkston.

Holly entertains Grand Blanc in their annual outing and the Ortonville Blackhawks make the trek to neighboring Goodrich for another customary engagement.

Madison, which had trouble disposing of Royal Oak St. Mary last fall, tackles the Irish once more, while Berkley, winless a year ago, has its traditional opening encounter with Ferndale.

On the local front, Pontiac High wants to atone for last season's loss to Wyandotte and St. Michael goes after its second consecutive triumph over Avondale.

Although a few area schools don't swing into action until next week, a heavy percentage are lifting the lid today.

HANDY MAN — Here's the Pontiac High School football team's handy man, with Coach Ed Graybiel, during a little extra-curricular talk at a recent practice session on Wisner Field. The handy man is speedy Jim Shorter, Chief safety man for tonight's opening game at Wyandotte. Jim is so good at three jobs that he isn't a starter at any of them, says Graybiel, who tags Shorter as one of the finest safety men in the Valley loop.

4 More Wings Sign Contracts for 1956

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) — Four more Red Wings have signed 1956 contracts with the National Hockey League club.

* * *

General manager Jack Adams said yesterday defense man Marcel Pronovost, center Alex Delvecchio and left wings Lorne Ferguson and Marty Pavelich have agreed to terms. All were veterans.

* * *

So far eight players have signed with the Detroit club.

Shorter Too Good for One Job, Has 3

By H. GUY MOATS

"He's his own worst enemy" said Pontiac High's football coach, Ed Graybiel referring to 145-pound speedster, Jimmy (Sugarcane) Shorter, the Chiefs' downfield safety man this year.

What Jimmy's coach meant was that the slim quarter-miler from this year's state championship track squad is just too good to be used in only one spot—he probably could nail a regular job in any one of three. His versatility has made him the Chiefs' handy man.

"Because Jimmy is a good quarterback (he's right back of Dick Whitmer), and can run from the fullback spot or at left halfback, we haven't left him in any one of them," Graybiel explained.

So, in the starting lineups for tonight's game at Wyandotte Shorter appears only on the defensive unit, as safety man. In that position, PHS coaches believe, he is without a peer in the Valley loop. "He has a combination of speed and alertness, and the faculty of being in the right spot at the right time to break up opponent's passes," Graybiel says.

Illustrating how Jimmy works, Graybiel pointed to a hidden ball play in Wednesday's rough and tumble scrimmage. "Jim came out on the play, saw the goal line down there and no receiver immediately at hand. So he took off and I never say anyone go any faster for a goaline. Along with his alertness Jim has fight and determination."

Whitmer, No. 1 quarterback on offense is doing a good job with the aerials, particularly on long tosses. He may be a strong weapon, too, with his quick, over-the-line jump passes, where his height is an advantage.

No changes were made today in the PHS lineup, announced yesterday by Graybiel. "We worked the squad hard in the Wednesday drill. I don't know when I've done that sort of thing before. But everybody is in fine condition, and ready to go."

Toledo Oldtimers' 9 in Sunday Tilt Here

Pontiac's Oldtimers baseball club has signed a good opponent for a Sunday afternoon tilt on Wisner Field here. Toledo's representative in the International Oldtimers League, of which Pontiac also is a member, will provide the competition, Bud Leslie, Pontiac manager, says.

Game is a tuneup for the league's playoffs, starting next Friday night on Detroit's Butzel Field.

Open Entries for Rich UN Handicap

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Atlantic City race track opened the entry box today for the Invitational $100,000 United Nations handicap, and looked for a field of 10 or 11 to oppose California's mighty Swaps in one of the nation's greatest turf course classics.

Former Chief Speedsters May Help Chippewa Team

Anxious to get back into the Michigan sports scene, after long tours of duty with the U. S. Air Force, two former Pontiac High School football stars have enrolled at Central Michigan College at Mt. Pleasant.

And both are doing very well, indeed.

Walter Beach III, all-around sports star here during his prep days, a freshman on Bill Kelly's squad at Mt. Pleasant is the Chippewas' starting right halfback, opposite the brilliant Jim Podoley.

There was a possibility, Kelly has said, that Phil (Oodie) Officer, ex-PHS Chief ace speedster and outstanding performer in early CMC workouts, may get the call at fullback against Bradley of Peoria, Ill., in Saturday's opener at Saginaw.

Beach was one of the finest sprinters ever turned out at PHS, and some of his records still stand. He has been credited with a 9.6 second century while in the service. He does everything well, Kelly reports, and is the only non-letterman in the starting lineup.

Officer, who has just ended a four-year Army service, is a 170-pounder who can be used at either halfback or fullback. With Oodie in the backfield CMC would have one of the fastest trios in the country, Kelly says. He showed up exceptionally well in the Chips' recent full-scale scrimmage, going for touchdowns of 38 and 53 yards and setting up another tally with a 44-yard jaunt.

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — Bill Trombley, Dallas, Tex., rookie who has been traveling the PGA championship golf circuit for only three months, held a one-stroke lead today as second-round play began in the Fort Wayne Open.

* * *

Trombley ignored oppressive humidity and high winds on the 6,545-yard Elks Country Club layout yesterday to fire a sizzling 65, seven strokes under par.

The Texan looking for his first title, wound up with 7 birdies and 11 pars for a 33-32 total.

Close behind with 66s were veteran Jim Turnesa, Spring Valley, N.Y., and Gardner Dickinson, Panama City Beach, Fla. six others, including amateur John Carlson, of Palos Park, Ill., tied at 67.

Ivory, 32, is now rated a 7-goal player and he is expected to become the first Michigan player ever to achieve 10-goal status.

Injuries Bring Player Changes

Arend, Panitch Nose Out More Experienced Men on MSU Squad

EAST LANSING (AP)—It doesn't help to get hurt if you're angling for a starting spot on the Michigan State football squad.

In at least two cases, players have jumped up in the rankings during the early practice this fall with a little assist from the injury jinx.

Don Arend, sophomore from Benton Harbor, now has nosed out the more experienced Don Gilbert in the competition at fullback.

Sophomore Mike Panitch has pulled ahead of Jim Ninowski of Detroit, also a more game-seasoned player, in the rankings of the quarterbacks.

Gilbert, 190-pound, 5-10 junior from Dubois, Pa., has been bothered by a sprained leg. He had more than 64 minutes playing time last season.

Arend, a 200-pound, six footer, is admired by the coaches for his weight and speed despite his lack of experience.

Backfield coach Sonny Grandelius has predicted all along he would be the starting fullback before the end of the season.

Dodds Turns In Record 68 Card in PGA Tourney

WHITTIER, Calif. (AP) — A new course record of 68, two under men's par, has been hung up by Betty Dodd of Louisville, Ky., for the gals to shoot at today in the second round of the $5,000 Ladies PGA Tournament at the Clock Country Club.

Miss Dodd's 32-36—68 bettered the course record for women set last year by Mary Lena Faulk, Thomasville, Ga. Women's par is 74 but for tournament play, men's par is counted. Yesterday Miss Faulk had 37-37—74.

Pressing Miss Dodd as play began today was veteran Patty Berg the defending co-champion with a 35-35—70 first-round score.

Much Improved at Quarterback

Gopher Squad May Surprise

(Following is another story in a series on Big Ten football prospects by Jerry Liska, midwest AP sports editor, who made a flying tour of conference camps.)

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — If the Big Ten football race is to have a dark horse this season, it well might be Minnesota's rugged team, greatly improved at quarterback.

One of the conference's top passers may be Bobby Cox, the celebrated quarterback transfer from the University of Washington.

At present, Coach Murry Warmath, who starts his third Gopher season, is favoring a holdover letterman, Dick Larson, at the signal-calling post.

But after the season gets underway, Cox figures to be the man who can lift the Gophers from their 8th-place conference finish (2-5) last season. Overall Minnesota had a 3-6 record.

Another newcomer who will help at quarterback is Jim Reese, 195 pounder, who came to Minnesota after Fordham dropped football in 1955. He also can fling the pigskin adroitly, and Larson has the distinction of throwing Minnesota's only two touchdown passes last year.

* * *

So when Warmath says "our passing game should be more effective than last year," it's one of the understatements of the season.

About his quarterbacks, the shrewd Warmath comments that the competition is "nip and tuck and close enough that any given day one might outplay the other."

One of the big factors which may help the junior-studded Gophers make a determined move in the Big Ten is the eligibility of veteran left half Deck (Pinky) McNamara. His status was challenged because he played varsity football while a freshman at Stout Institute (Wis.) in 1951, but he has been declared eligible.

Minnesota will have a great fullback in Dick Borstad, who as a sophomore, led all conference fullbacks with 336 yards and a 4.7 average last fall. The Gophers have fine runners in Bob Schultz, Ken Bombardier and sophs Bob Blakely, Bob Soltis and Bill Chorske, but McNamara's experience would be a big help.

Blakely, a 193-pound understudy to Borstad, has caught Warmath's fancy. "In raw ability, he's the No. 1 man on the squad," said the Gopher coach.

The line will have typical Minnesota size, anchored by two established stars, tackle Bob Hobert, 225, and center-capt. Dean Maas. Hobert has trimmed down from 235 and maybe ready for an outstanding season. He is backed by 225-pound Dave Herbold, a letterman. Frank Youso, 230, is the other starting tackle, experienced and tough.

Pierce Gets 20th Victory

CHICAGO (AP)—The goal of 20 victories, every major league pitcher's ambition, was realized by Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox, as he says: "Just when we really needed it."

* * *

The brilliant lefthander who has flirted with the mark twice in the past came through yesterday with a 4-3 victory over the Boston Red Sox in 10 innings.

* * *

Pierce had no doubts about reaching the magic number when the White Sox opened their three-game series with Boston. "I guess I'll make it this year," said Pierce, "but this is the club I'd like to get it against. They're pretty close to us."

* * *

That was Tuesday when the White Sox were tied for second with Cleveland and Boston was in hot pursuit. By the time Pierce's turn came, the Red Sox had taken two straight from the White Sox to move into third place, dropping Chicago to fourth.

* * *

Pierce made good, pitching Chicago back into third, one game behind Cleveland, and becoming the first White Sox hurler to win 20 games since lefthander Thornton Lee did it in 1941 with a 22-11 record.

Virgil Trucks had a 20-10 mark with the Sox in 1953 but five of his victories were with the old St. Louis Browns.

Pierce also became the first 20-game winner in the American League since 1954, and outdueled Tom Brewer for the honor. Both went into the game with 19-7 records.

Pierce, 29, came close to the goal in 1953 but faltered late in the season and had to settle for an 18-12 record. The following season it was a poor 9-10 but came up with a 15-10 mark last year when he did some of his greatest pitching.

Derby Winner Rides

Erb Gets Dogoon at DRC

DETROIT (AP)—Eighth running of the $50,000 added Michigan Mile will take place over the Detroit Race Course tomorrow with a dozen thoroughbreds to go to the post.

Fredrick (Pat) Farrell, director of racing at Detroit, said he expects at least 10 horses to start, but it's possible the field might reach 12 by post time at 5:20 p.m.

Among those definitely starting is E. G. Drake's Dogoon, who'll be ridden by Jockey Dave Erb. Erb rode Needles to victory last May in the Kentucky Derby. Another horse who's a certainty to go to the post is Skipper Bill, owned by John Galbreath's Darby Dan Farms. Galbreath is also president of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Prior to the mile run, Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan will lead the traditional ceremonies.

Sapulpa Blanks Wichita

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Defending champion Sapulpa, Okla., blanked Wichita, Kan., 2-0 Thursday night on Buck Miller's no-hitter and joined San Pedro, Calif., in the winner's bracket of the National Softball Congress Tournament.

San Pedro also turned in a shutout, 5-0, over Tulsa, Okla., Berry Carter.

Steels Active in Stock Deals

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels were traded actively as the Stock Market rose in brisk turnover early today.

Prices of pivotal issues advance fractions to around 2 points. There were some losers.

* * *

While a barrage of reports came from world capitals on the Suez Canal crisis, prices of oil stocks deeply involved in the Middle East advanced.

Gulf Oil was up a point and Royal Dutch more than that, adding to its 4½ run-up of yesterday. Meanwhile, a spokesman for Royal Dutch refused to confirm or deny rumors of an impending stock split.

Aluminum Ltd. was a 2-point gainer. New York Central was up 1 at 36⅞ on a trade of 2,600 shares. Chrysler gained about a point, General Motors a fraction. Union Carbide and Texas Co. gained around a point or so.

Opening blocks included Bethlehem up 1⅜ at 168⅛ on 1,800 shares, Royal Dutch up 1 at 108½ on 3,000 and General Motors up ⅛ at 47¼ on 2,500.

* * *

An early advance turned into irregularity yesterday when the Associated Press average of 60 stocks dipped 40 cents to $181.10.

On the American Stock Exchange prices were higher. Gains were made by Cuban Atlantic Sugar, Creole Petroleum, British Petroleum and International Petroleum.

Corporate bonds were mixed.

Considine Selected for Murrow 'Visit'

NEW YORK (INS) — Reporter and Columnist Bob Considine and his family will be visited "Person to Person" on the CBS Television program, Sept. 21.

CBS said today the famed newsman, his wife Millie, and their four children will be interviewed by Edward R. Murrow at the Considine's country home in Allenhurst, N. J.

Considine has covered virtually every kind of a story from world series to a hydrogen bomb test in his years of roving the globe for INS and The Pontiac Press.

Murrow also will visit on Sept. 21 with screen star Bette Davis and her actor husband Gary Merrill in their Maine coast home outside Portland.

To Show Prizewinners

DEARBORN (INS) — Handicraft exhibits which win national awards in the Ford Motor Co.'s $50,000 Idustrial Arts Awards and Student Craftsman's Fair will be displayed at the Rotunda in Dearborn Sept. 17-24.

Mental Tests May Benefit Employes Reaching 65

WASHINGTON (INS — The American Medical Assn. has suggested older workers take mental tests to determine when to retire or change jobs.

The AMA said such tests would be fairer to both employer and employe than forcing a person to quit work at 65.

The lead editorial of the current AMA Journal, suggests special examinations to determine an older person's "mental adaptability, judgment and reasoning ability" are better measures of mental deterioration than standard tests.

SPEED WRITING

One such test is speed writing. Dr. James E. Birren, of the U.S. National Institute of Mental Health in Washington, has found writing speed clearly distinguishes senile patients from normal ones.

The editorial said:

"A battery of tests that would give a quantitative indication of the mental adaptability, judgment, and reasoning ability of aging executives could, if properly used, be of enormous benefit to business and to aging persons, many of whom are now forced to retire prematurely solely on the basis of their chronological age.

"Removal from positions of responsibility for signs of mental deterioration would also save companies from embarrassment and should be a real service to the aging employe as well, freeing him in some cases to turn to a less taxing occupation and thereby prolonging his life."

At the same time the AMA, in recognizing the great number of Americans living past the age of 60, announced the formation of a new committee on aging.

The committee hopes to explore and stimulate interest in all aspects of the aging process.

After 20-Year Wait He'll Use His Coffin

DANVILLE, Ill. (AP) — For 20 years, William J. Mellott's coffin has been waiting for him. Today, Mellott's body lay in the poplar burial box he fashioned, awaiting funeral services Sunday.

Mellott, 96, who spent most of his life as a farmer and carpenter near Veedersburg, Ind., a few miles from here, died yesterday in a nursing home.

Undertaker Charles Fishero knew just what to do. He got the casket Mellott had made out of storage. Inside it, he found the suit Mellott wanted to be buried in.

Frontier Hero Must Be Good

But Emphasis on Knife May Be Troublesome for Parents

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—"Jim Bowie" (ABC-TV, Friday evenings) is advertised as an "adult Western," but doubtless it will find more fans in the younger set. Scott Forbes stars as the knife-slinging character of the old Southwest frontier.

* * *

For whatever it's worth, let's remember that the actual Bowie was born some time between 1790 and 1796, some say in Georgia, and others say in Kentucky. In his young manhood he was involved in smuggling slaves into Louisiana with the pirate Jean Lafitte. About 1828 he moved to Texas, where he was prominent in the revolt against Mexico. He died March 6, 1836, in the defense of the Alamo while lying ill with pneumonia. The long hunting knife is associated with his name, but he did not 'invent" it.

As with Davy Crockett, our hero's character has been considerably cleaned up for the television audience. Bowie represents 'good," and 'good" always triumphs over "evil". But the producers have set quite a task for themselves in selecting a protagonist who lived by the knife.

* * *

No one was worked over with a knife in frontier style on last week's opening show. It's doubtful if anyone ever will be. Too many parents would put the program on the forbidden list. In any case, the program's preoccupation with the knife is something for parents to think about. One six-year-old boy, who was greatly excited by the program, still was talking about knives long after bedtime. In fairness to him and "Jim Bowie," however, one must add that he still has not stuck his younger brother . . .

Elvis Presley Department: The appearance of the teen-agers' hero on Ed Sullivan's show Sunday night resulted in the highest viewer audience rating the program has received in its history. A 15-city Trendex survey of about 1,500 viewers indicated that the Sullivan show had 82.6 per cent share of audience. NBC-TV, which shelved Steve Allen for the night and went to film with Robert Donat in "The Magic Box," had an 8.3 per cent share. ABC-TV, which presented "In Which We Serve" for the third time in a year, had 6.8 per cent.

Year-Old Bread Wins 1st Prize at County Fair

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A man won first prize at the Los Angeles County Fair with a year-old loaf of whole wheat bread.

That's right. Streeter Blair, 68, entered nine kinds of bread in the 1955 fair, winning four firsts and five seconds. He put a loaf of the whole wheat that had placed second in his home freezer. Yesterday, he thawed it out and put it on exhibition.

But he didn't tell the story until the judges had pinned the blue ribbon on him.

Incidentally, Blair is a Beverly Hills antique dealer.

Clay, Ky., Lads Sell Guardsmen Pop With Cigars

CLAY, Ky. (AP)—Two youngsters pulling a wagon loaded with iced soft drinks circulated among National Guardsmen on duty at Clay school.

Each man who bought a drink got a cigar free.

"That wasn't our original plan," said David Croft, 12, and Johnny Chapman, 10, who were out of school along with 500 other students to protest admittance of two Negroes.

"We bought a box of cigars to sell to the guards but couldn't find any buyers," they explained. "We finally decided to give them away."

The cigars disappeared in five minutes.

Fire Rescue Squad Rushes to Cut Ring

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — The fire rescue squad had to remove a metal washer from the finger of 7-year-old Maxine Thomas when she decided she didn't want a ring on her left hand after all.

* * *

Neither could her mother.

Neither could a doctor and three nurses at Martland Medical Center.

* * *

The fire rescue squad finally did it with a hacksaw and metal cutter a foot and a half long.

30 Employes Strike

MARSHALL (AP) — Some 30 employes of the Kennedy Automatic Products, Inc., went on strike after company officials refused to sign a new contract. Guy Kiefer, plant superintendent, said the dispute involved interpretation of the pact's escalator clause. Officers of local 1294 of the United Auto Workers said employes would lose a four-cent cost of living adjustment under the company's interpretation.

Making Things Grow

Here is a modern schoolroom where pupils are studying plant and fish life. Sally is looking at two experiments with vegetables and Dan examines the condition of the goldfish, while the teacher watches them.

In front of Sally is a carrot which is sending out fine feathery green leaves. To grow these the top was cut off the carrot and four toothpicks were pushed into it from different directions. It was then placed in a glass filled with water, the toothpicks holding it on the rim of the jar so that the end did not touch the bottom. Very soon the foliage appeared.

Near the carrot a lima bean is sprouting. To do this fill a glass almost full of water. Punch a small hole in a blotter and bring a long piece of yarn through the hole up on top of it so the water will be drawn up and keep the blotter damp. Place a lima bean on top and in time it will sprout.

Paste this picture down on cardboard after coloring it with your crayons. Put a string through the holes at the top and hang it up. The diagrams will help you if you want to try these experiments.

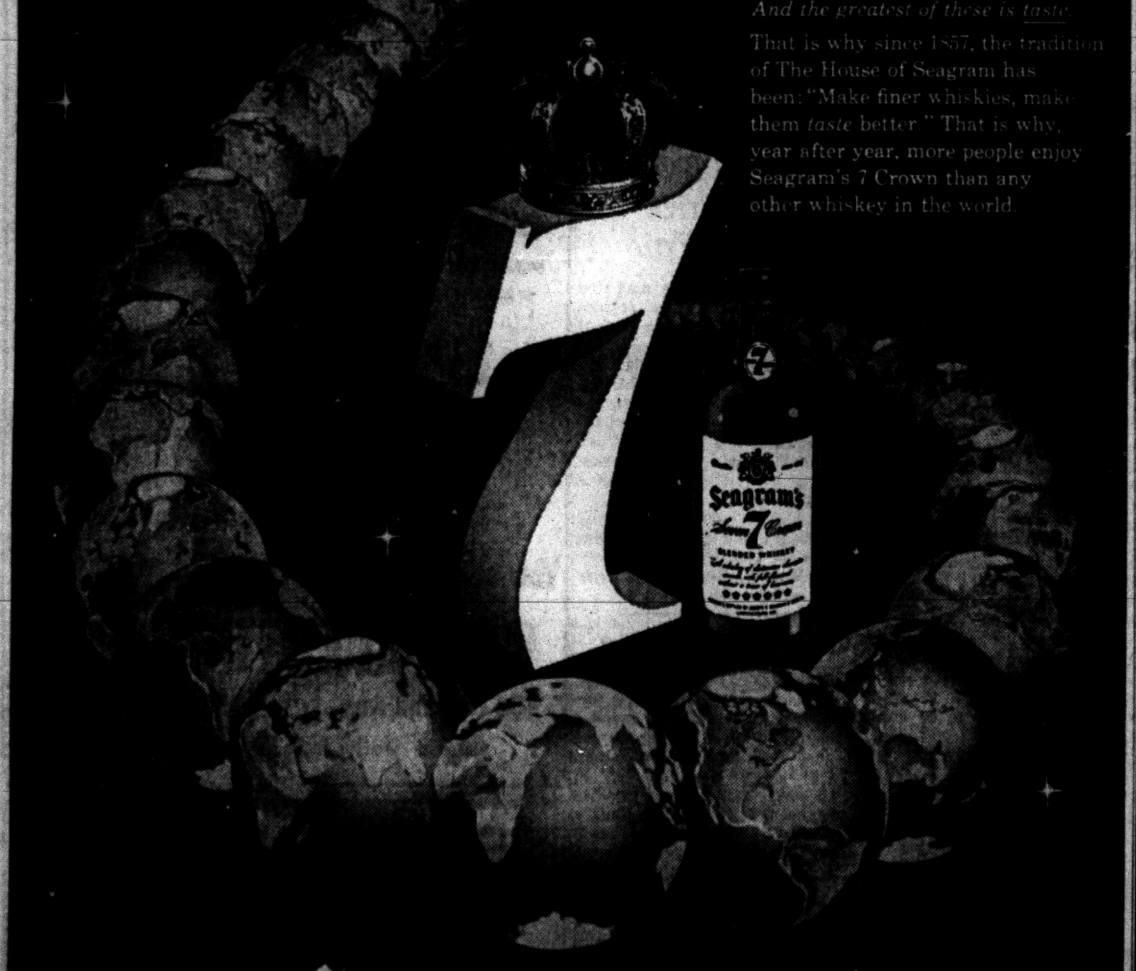
TIME...TASTE and TRADITION



And the greatest of these is taste. That is why since 1857, the tradition of The House of Seagram has been: "Make finer whiskies, make them taste better." That is why, year after year, more people enjoy Seagram's 7 Crown than any other whiskey in the world.
