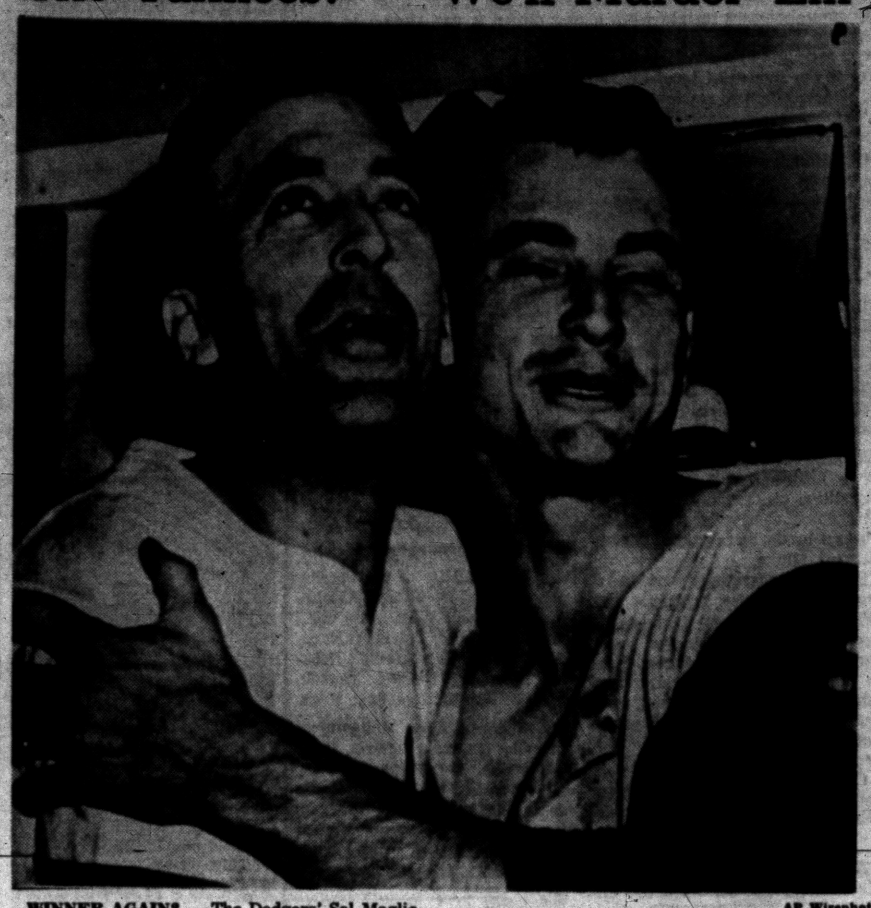
Larsen Hurls Perfect Game

The Yankees? — We'll Murder 'Em



WINNER AGAIN? — The Dodgers' Sal Maglie (left), starting hurler for today's World Series contest, has a big hug for his supporting pitcher, Don Bessent, as he gets ready to face the Yankees for the second time. Bessent beat the Yankees in the second game of the current baseball classic with seven innings of relief work, and has been tagged to provide support today if Maglie fails to go the route.

Egypt, Russia Urge U.N: Body to Study Dispute

Reject Western Plan for International Control of Suez Waterway

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. —(INS) — Egypt and Russia proposed today that the U.N. Security Council establish immediately a special negotiating body to attempt a settlement of the Suez Canal dispute between Egypt and the western powers.

Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi and Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov, making their first statements on the Suez crisis to the 11-nation council, rejected the Anglo-French resolution endorsing internationalization.

Fawzi, at his first meeting with the British and French foreign ministers on Suez, called for creation of a "negotiating body of reasonable size" which would attempt a solution on the basis of freedom of navigation for all in the waterway.

Shepilov went further than Fawzi and urged the withdrawal of the Anglo-French measure, warning that it was "fraught with the gravest consequences" and meant "playing with fire."

The burly former Pravda editor proposed that an "authoritative committee" of the Security Council be named to negotiate the Suez dispute with the following membership: The U. S., Britain, France, Russia, Egypt and India.

He said two other countries, Yugoslavia and Iran or Indonesia

Message Goes to 48 States

Adlai Gives Telephone Pep Talks to Fund-Raisers

CHICAGO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson told Democratic party fund raisers around the country in a long distance telephone pep talk today that "We are winning . . . but we must not be allowed to run out of gas."

Stevenson arranged the unusual means of getting in touch with leaders in the 48 states and District of Columbia.

From his farm at nearby Libertyville, Ill., he set up "conference calls" in which he could talk to 24 of them in the East at noon and the other 25 a half hour later.

Stevenson's message, made public beforehand by his aides, said:

"I need not tell you that so far our all campaign has been progressing well. All around us we sense a rising tide of optimism which is completely justified.

"We are winning the campaign. But, we must not be allowed to run out of gas."

Stevenson said the money to be raised Oct. 16 in the doorbell ringing "dollars for Democrats" fund raising will be used to buy television time for himself and his vice presidential running mate, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

The eastern calls were set up to be handled through the New York City conference board. All state chairmen were told in advance to stand by to receive their call. More than 40,000 miles of cables and wires were used. A total of 21 telephone companies worked with Illinois Bell.

Tanganyika Agog at Margaret's Visit

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanganyika (AP)—A deafening chorus of ship's horns and sirens today greeted Princess Margaret — the first member of the British Royal Family ever to visit Tanganyika officially.

As the princess sailed into Dar es Salaam harbor aboard the royal yacht Britannia, cheers rang out from thousands of people of many races lining the quayside.

Dar es Salaam's European, African, Arab and Indian population all joined in the enthusiastic welcome to the gay, smiling princess. A colorful sea of Union Jacks waved wildly as she stepped ashore wearing a milky white silk taffeta garden party dress with a full skirt.

Soon after coming ashore, the princess opened the port's new deep-water berthing space by throwing a switch.

Showers Tonight, Cooler Tomorrow

The weather prediction for the Pontiac area tonight is partly cloudy and turning colder with scattered showers likely. A low near 40 is expected.

Partly cloudy and colder is expected tomorrow with a high around 52 to 56.

Last night in downtown Pontiac the low was 41. The mercury reached 74 degrees at 2 p.m. today in downtown Pontiac.

Eden Returns to Desk After Hospital Bout

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Eden returned to his desk today after three days hospitalization for a severe cold.

The Prime Minister, 59, was stricken while visiting his wife who was in the hospital for a dental checkup.

Mamie Has Cold

WASHINGTON (AP)— Mrs. Eisenhower has "a slight cold," the White House said today and will not go with the President on a campaign trip to Pittsburgh tomorrow.

FPC to Hear Gas Arguments

Panhandle Co. Wants to Stop Service Into Detroit Area

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Federal Power Commission today has agreed to hear arguments by Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co., which wants to stop serving Detroit with 125 million cubic feet of natural gas a day.

* * *

The FPC also has agreed to allow Panhandle to intervene in a case in which American Louisiana Pipe Line Co., major new supplier of Detroit gas, seeks to expand its capacity for delivering gas.

Panhandle said it would support American Louisiana's expansion in view of its petition to stop serving Detroit.

Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. and its affiliates are charged by Panhandle with monopolizing the Detroit market, and "meddling" in Panhandle's affairs.

'Threat to Prosperity'

Humphrey Raps Dems 'Easy Way'

DETROIT (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey said today the Democrats' record and their campaign promises "are filled with concessions to the easy way which will destroy continuing prosperity."

"They present a glaring contradiction," he said in a speech prepared for the Economic Club of Detroit.

"They cannot be for the principal of sound money and all that it means to continuing prosperity while they are against the things that make sound money . . .

"The record of their past and their promises for the future are filled with concessions to the easy way which will destroy continuing prosperity . . .

"They propose cutting taxes regardless of the amount of the government's income. At the same time they propose new government spending programs calling for many additional billions of dollars.

"This is the policy of deliberate inflation and must result in a return to a budget unbalanced by several billion dollars with all of the inflationary pressures that would create."

* * *

Humphrey said recent Democratic administrations had deliberately fostered a policy of "wicked inflation" during which, he said, the value of the dollar was cut in half and the cost of living doubled.

He said there is much talk currently that the cost of living has reached a new high, but that in the 1939-52 period "there were 30—yes 30 — separate times when new record highs in the cost of living were set and the cost of things for living rose from $1 to $1.92." He continued:

"The cost of those same things today is at a record high at $1.-96½. But the real point is that of the total increase of 96½ cents over the whole period, 92 cents came during the 13 years under the inflationary policies of the previous administration as compared with only 4½ cents in nearly four years under the stabilizing policies of the administration now in power."

8 Lose Lives in State Traffic

Variety of Accidents Claims Seven More in Michigan

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

At least eight persons lost their lives in Michigan traffic accidents during a weekend marked by spotty rainfall in much of the state.

A variety of other accidents claimed another seven lives. A 6-month-old baby and her 71-year-old babysitter died in a fire at Sault Ste. Marie; two men drowned and a Hartford man died in a tractor accident.

An unusual hunting accident led to the death of Danny Pilas, 27, of Elgin, Ill. He tripped and fell on an arrow Saturday while hunting deer with a bow and arrow 50 miles from Ontonagon in the Upper Peninsula. Taken to a hospital, he died Sunday.

Six-month-old Rachel Ann Lewis and Mrs. Sophie Boyer died in the fire at the Soo. The infant died in her crib and Mrs. Boyer suffocated when the fire swept through the three-room home.

TRACTOR TIPS

William L. Blyle, 54, of Hartford died when his tractor tipped over Sunday, pinning him underwater in the bait pond he operates on the Paw Paw River.

Asher L. Cornelius, 30, of Detroit drowned Sunday while duck hunting in Lake St. Clair. A boat in which he was riding overturned off Metropolitan Beach.

Charlotte Ann Smith, 2, of Houghton, wandered away from her home Sunday and drowned in Portage Lake.

Floyd Berry, 55, of Grayling, drowned Sunday while duck hunting on Manistee Lake, 12 miles northeast of Kalkaska.

Traffic victims included:

James P. Moriarty, 42, of Monroe.

Leora M. McDonald, 17, of Alden.

Govette Edsall, 30, of Bloomfield Towhship.

Edward L. Mikulski, 56, of Grand Rapids.

James Edwards, 46, of Chicago.

Levi Mecumber, 74, of Escanaba.

Elwain S. Clark of Twin Lake and Vernon Russell Defouw, of Muskegon, both 19.

Offices Open Until 8 p.m.

Registration Ends Today

Today is the last day to register for the Nov. 6 election. The deadline is 8 p.m.

Pontiac City Clerk Ada R. Evans said the clerk's office in the City Hall and the booth in front of the courthouse will be open until 8 to handle the last minute rush

As required by state law, all township, village and other city clerk's offices will also be open until 8 tonight.

To date, 43,907 Pontiac voters are qualified to cast their ballot in the November election.

Today's expected line-up of voters is expected to push total registrations in the city over 44,000. There were 43,000 registered for the 1952 presidential election.

Mrs. Evans said any person in line at the clerk's office or booth at 8 would be allowed to register. She emphasized that the booth was to take Pontiac voter registrations only.

The booth has recorded 3,955 registrations since its Sept. 4 opening. The clerk's office has taken 1,008 new registrations since the Aug. 7 primary. Labor offices have taken 225 registrations.

The Oakland County CIO Council, 21½ E. Lawrence St., union halls at 386 E. Kennett Rd., 90 Mt. Clemens St., 821 Baldwin Ave., the Baldwin Rubber plant at 366 E. South Blvd., and the registration center at 141 Wessen St. will be open until 5 p.m. today to take registrations.

Truman Early, Gives Pep Talk

Hits Like a Whirlwind in Royal Oak, Leaves 10 Minutes Later

Arriving in Royal Oak 20 minutes early for his scheduled 11 a.m. speech Saturday, former President Harry S. Truman delivered a five-minute pep talk to 150 Democrats and whirled off before many party dignitaries arrived to see him.

Truman charged the Eisenhower administration is a "government by default," in which "nobody takes responsibility."

"They call me 'Give-'em-hell Harry,'" he said. "I don't give 'em hell, I just tell the truth on them and they think it's hell."

Truman had kind words for congressional candidate Paul Sutton, who he said would "do a job you can be proud of" if sent to Washington.

IN DEBT TO PARTY

He repeated remarks made at a Friday night dinner in Detroit, where he said he feels a "debt of gratitude" to the Democratic party.

Accompanied by Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart and Sutton, Truman left South Oakland Democratic headquarters at 10:50 a.m.

Police to Enforce Meter Ordinance Starting Tonight

Pontiac police tonight will enforce the city's new 9 p.m. on-street parking meter ordinance, Robert A. Stierer, administrative assistant announced this morning.

The City Commission passed the new law Sept. 4, adding the additional three hours to all on-street meters.

City officials have allowed a "grace period" since the Sept. 14 effective date of the ordinance so that motorists could become accusted to the new times.

The new law is effective every day except Sundays and seven legal holidays.

Crash Injuries Fatal in Saturday Collision

Govett H. Edsall, 30, of Bloomfield Township, died Saturday afternoon at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital of severe injuries suffered that morning in an auto accident. He was thrown out of his car when it went off the road and struck a tree after glancing off another vehicle.

Police said Edsall apparently drove through a red light at a high rate of speed and lost control.

Solicitors for United Fund Begin Training Sessions

Pre-campaign training session for volunteer solicitors, a new idea with the Pontiac Area United Fund, began this morning at the Waldron Hotel.

The sessions will last until the UF kicks off its three-week, $612,202 drive Oct. 23. They are conducted by Elmer Rosenberg, campaign training chairman.

Two groups of the large, 500-volunteer Commercial Division attended today.

They are the automotive group, headed by Gaylord Harrington, and the finance group, headed by Merle R. Boss.

Division chairman James F. Nye also scheduled sessions for other groups at 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday. There will be night meetings for solicitors unable to attend morning sessions.

Rosenberg stressed the 9 per cent increase the UF is asking this year in Pontiac, Pontiac Township and Waterford Township to provide funds for 54 health, youth welfare, family counsel, recreation and assistance agencies.

Pontiac City Manager Walter K. Willman is campaign director of the 1956 drive.

Heart Specialist First in Series

To Speak at Lecture Held in Memory of Dr. Charles Tolle

Dr. A. C. DeGraff, nationally known New York heart specialist, will be the guest speaker Wednesday night in the first of a series of annual lectures held in memory of former Pontiac physician Dr. Charles B. Tolle.

* * *

The lecture, "Some Problems in the Treatment of Congestive Heart Failure," is scheduled for 8 at the McAuley School of Nursing Auditorium, 26 Fulton St.

Dr. DeGraff is professor of therapy at New York University.

The memorial lecture series was requested by Mrs. Tolle who asked that in lieu of flowers, contributions be put in a trust fund to finance the series by prominent physicians. Dr. Tolle died last October.

Sister Mary William, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital administrator, said all doctors from Oakland County and other areas were invited to attend Wednesday's lecture.

Pumps 5 Shots at Bicycle Thief

UM Student Arrested for His Bang-Up Chase on Campus

ANN ARBOR (AP)—To catch a bicycle thief a University of Michigan student went a-hunting with a loaded pistol. He got the bike after a bang-up chase but got himself arrested too.

Patrolman Walter Hawkins reconstructed events thus:

Student Thomas Engle, 22, reported his bicycle stolen Friday. Yesterday he went looking for the thief with a .45 caliber automatic pistol.

Engle spied someone aboard his bike in the heart of the campus. Yelling at the rider, he opened fire at 200 yards as pedestrians scurried for cover.

CATCHES BIKE

The cyclist zig-zagged around a corner with Engle in pursuit, firing as he ran. Around the corner, Engle found his bike, but no thief. He mounted and rode off.

Police nabbed him five blocks away and held him on charges of carrying a concealed weapon and felonious assault with a deadly weapon.

One of the five bullets fired hit the university museum. The others apparently embedded themselves in trees or the ground. No one was hurt.

The Day in Birmingham

Report Given Commission on Court Zoning Decision

BIRMINGHAM — A report to city commissioners tonight notes a Supreme Court decision that the city's attempts to restrict the property of the Industrial Land Co., et al, to single family residential use is "unreasonable, confiseatory and unenforceable."

City Manager Harold K. Schone's communication advises commissioners that the city must abide by the decision or be in contempt, and should work with the developer to bring about best possible type of development under the decision.

Commissioners will hear objections to rezoning lots in Quarton Lake Estates from Business A to Business C, and some in Birmingham Hills Subdivision from public property to single family.

Requests have been submitted for a Little League football day solicitation on Oct. 12 and 13, and for a door-to-door cider sale in gallon jugs by the Presbyterian Youth Married Adults.

Other considerations will be a proposed collection, storage and delivery of merchant's flags, retention of auditors for another year, and appraisal of $8,020 of a triangle of property and moving the Birmingham Eccentric building and loading dock on the 3-A Parking Lot site.

* * *

Carleton Scott will talk on CAP activities at tomorrow noon's Exchange Club meeting.

BIRMINGHAM — George W. Zinky, 73, who retired as director of the FHA in Michigan in 1952, died Sunday at William Beaumont Hospital shortly after admittance. He was stricken at his home, 658 Hanna St.

Living here since 1938, he came from Detroit. He was a University of Michigan Law School graduate of 1904. Surviving is a daughter, Martha, of Lapeer.

Service will be Thursday at 11 a.m. at Manley Bailey Funeral Home, with burial in White Chapel cemetery.

Ike Answers Views on Draft

Says Service Under Present Conditions Is Indispensable

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower says that selective service is indispensable under present conditions and "loose talk of soon ending the draft" would be construed abroad "as letting down our guard."

Without mentioning Adlai E. Stevenson by name, Eisenhower issued a statement obviously replying to the Democratic presidential candidate's contentions that the draft is "wasteful" and "inefficient" and should be ended "at the earliest possible moment consistent with the national safety."

"To call the draft wasteful and to term it a Maginot Line," Eisenhower said, "evidences either ignorance of our military needs or a willingness to take a chance with our nation's security."

Eisenhower himself took it easy during the weekend as he prepared for his next major broadcast and televised campaign address in Pittsburgh tomorrow night.

Yesterday he attended services and received holy communion at the National Presbyterian Church as part of a worldwide observance of Communion Sunday.

In his draft statement, he said, "The United States is maintaining its military strength to safeguard the American people in their homes, to deter hostile attack at home and abroad, and to encourage the prospect of world peace. This administration is determined to continue that strength."

Pontiac Deaths

Harold Edwards

Harold Edwards, baby son of Cornelius and Hazel Johnson Edwards of 498 Nevada St., died Saturday at the Pontiac General Hospital after a brief illness. He was born in Pontiac May 8, 1955.

He is survived by his parents and brothers and sisters, Lucille, Vaughnell, Patrician Ann and Cornelius Edwards Jr. all at home.

Service will be at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday from the Frank Carruthers Funeral Home, with the Rev. R. L. Miner of the Macedonia Baptist Church officiating. Burial will follow at Oak Hill Cemetery.

Carl Heathman

Carl Heathman, 72, of 76 North Merrimac St. died yesterday at 9:30 p.m. of a heart condition in the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after an illness of several months. He had spent two days in the hospital.

Married to Freda Deaton, he was born in Raleigh, Ill. and was the son of James Heathman and Julia Hawkins. He was a member of the Raleigh Baptist Church at Raleigh, Ill. and came here from Raleigh 19 years ago. Mr. Heathman was last employed as a carpenter.

Survivors are his wife and children, Charles W., Paul E., Mrs. Max Warren, Glen R., James A., all of Pontiac; Edward L. of Indian River and 15 grandchildren.

Also surviving are brothers, Earl of Raleigh, Ill., James and Bryce of Pontiac, and Mrs. Harry Collier also of Pontiac.

Prayer service will be Wednesday at the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home at 2:00 p.m. He will be buried later at Lakeview Cemetery, Clarkston.

William A. Shaw

William A. Shaw, 74, of 829 Orlando St. died Saturday after an illness of eleven months.

Born in Chatham, Ont. July 16, 1882, he was married in Pontiac to Bessie Aikens, who survives him.

He had been a resident of Pontiac for thirty years, and was last employed at the Pontiac Motor Experimental Plant.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Dolly Cross of Florida, and a son, Lyle K. Shaw of the U. S. Navy. Also surviving is a brother Charles B. Shaw of Sarnia, Ont.

Service will be at 11:00 a.m. tomorrow from the Huntoon Funeral Home, with Rev. Wesley Wibley officiating. Burial will follow at Dresden, Ontario.

Mrs. W. O. Wright

Mrs. W. O. (Fannie) Wright, 73, of 99 W. Rundell St., died at her home Sunday evening, after a two-year illness.

Born in McLean County, Kentucky, she was the daughter of L. D. and Susan Waltrip, and married W. O. Wright in Clarkston, Mo. June 11, 1905.

A member of the Missionary Baptist Church of Campbell, Mo., she had been a resident of Pontiac for 12 years.

Surviving are her husband, her parents and six children, Waltrip of Campbell, Donald of Danville, Ill., Mrs. Alton Bonneson and Mrs. Benny Ellsworth, both of Drayton Plains, Mrs. Peter Theis of Pontiac and Mrs. Ray Bennett of Sikeston, Mo.

Also surviving are a brother, George Waltrip of Flint, a sister, Mrs. Alberta Waltrip of Lafe, Ark., eight grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

The body of Mrs. Wright will be taken from the Voorhees-Siple Funeral Home Wednesday morning to the Silvercrest Baptist Church for a 2 p.m. service, with Rev. James H. Luther officiating. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Egypt, Reds Seek U.N. Study of Suez and Sweden could be added to the list but expressed preference for the original six states.

He said the committee "should be instructed to report back at a time to be fixed by the Council on the results of the negotiations for finding an acceptable basis for agreement on the settlement of the Suez problem."

Shepilov added the committee also should be instructed to draw up the draft of a "new convention guaranteeing freedom of navigation through the Suez Canal to replace the 1888 convention."

Shepilov also suggested the proposed committee organize a "broad international conference to be attended by all countries using the Suez Canal" to approve a new canal convention replacing that of 1888. He endorsed the Indian plan for a consultative body to represent canal users with Egypt in charge.

Two Receive Minor Injuries in Accident

A Farmington Township driver and his passenger received minor bruises when their car went out of control and rolled over in Commerce Township Sunday morning.

John W. Brown, 32, of 21439 Wheeler Rd., the driver, and Joseph A. Jaber, 18, of Detroit, were released after treatment at Pontiac General Hospital.

Brown told Oakland County deputies he was blinded by the lights of an oncoming car and lost control of his vehicle while driving on West Maple Road near Haggerty.

'Encouraged' on Visit

SEOUL (INS)—U. S. Central Intelligence Agency Chief Allen Dulles arrived in Seoul today and said he was "much encouraged" by the success of the free world in the fight against communism.

Dulles will meet with South Korean President Syngman Rhee, U. S. Ambassador Walter C. Dowling and others during his one-day visit to South Korea.

Gets Top Court Review

WASHINGTON (AP) — William Radovich, onetime football great at the University of Southern California, today was granted a Supreme Court review of his unsuccessful suit for $105,000 damages from the National Football League and others.

Yugoslavia, Bulgaria Establish Relations

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Marshal Tito's government says it has reached an understanding with neighboring Bulgaria based on equality, mutual respect and noninterference in internal affairs.

The move was described as an establishment of "contacts" between the two Communist countries. It came as Communist delegations flocked to Belgrade in increasing numbers.

The understanding, worked out with a delegation of leading Bulgarian Communists presently visiting Yugoslavia, was considered significant because Yugoslavia has criticized Bulgaria for being slow in modifying the Stalin-era freeze against Tito's regime.

Leaders of the Bulgarian delegation told Yugoslav reporters that Bulgaria believes every Communist party has the right to build socialism in its own way.

High Court Upholds Decision in Virginia

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today let stand a lower court decision barring Virginia from leasing a state park under any plan that might result in discrimination against Negroes.

The decision, by U. S. Dist. Judge Walter E. Hoffman of Norfolk, was appealed to the high tribunal after the U. S. Circuit Court in Richmond upheld Judge Hoffman.

The Supreme Court rejected Virginia's plea that it review and overturn Hoffman's decision.

Hoffman decided the state in operating the Seashore State Park must permit all races to use it. He said if the park were leased, "The lease must not, directly or indirectly, operate so as to discriminate against the members of any race."

Quick Freeze Inventor Birdseye Dies at 69

NEW YORK (AP)—Clarence Birdseye, 69, inventor of a quick-freeze food process that netted him a fortune, died last night in the Gramercy Park Hotel.

He developed the process on a $7 experiment based on an idea developed while working as a fur trader in Labrador. Six years ago he sold the process to General Foods for 22 million dollars.

Chamberlain Denies Divorce of Iranian Shah

ROME (INS)—A personal chamberlain to beautiful Empress Soraya of Iran denied today her inability to bear a male heir to the throne may lead to her divorce from Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi.

The chamberlain described the report in the London Sunday Dispatch as "utter nonsense."

"I can tell you that their majesties are deeply in love with each other and are a most happy couple," he added.

Soraya is the Shah's second wife. Persons in the royal circle have said the couple is very much in love.

But the Sunday Dispatch claimed that the Shah may be compelled to divorce Soraya because she has not been able to give him a son to succeed to the throne.

Hearings on Hodge Scandal Open Today

CHICAGO (AP)—The U.S. Senate Banking and Currency Committee today opened televised hearings in the 1½ million dollar Hodge scandal.

The Democratic controlled committee is digging into the embezzlement of public funds by Orville E. Hodge, Republican who was forced out of office as state auditor and sent to prison.

The announced purpose of the public hearings is to check up on the role of federally insured banks in the case and to decide whether bank laws should be strengthened.

Motorist Kills Horse on Avon Twp. Highway

A horse was killed by a car after galloping onto the highway from a nearby field on Pontiac road in Avon Township last night.

Driver Bazyki Tessak, 59, of 328 Main St., Rochester, said the horse ran out in front of him, according to the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

3 Youths Each Pay $35 for Possessing Drinks

Arraigned before Orion Township Justice Helmar G. Stanaback were Daryle F. Freeman, 17, of 4601 Baldwin Ave., Gillis Hanson, 17, and Robert McCullough, 17, both of 185 N. Perry St.

Maud Allan Dies —Shocked World With Her Dancing

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Maud Allan, the controversial dancer who shocked the world nearly 50 years ago with her portrayal of a flimsy-clad Salome passionately clutching the papier mache head of John the Baptist, is dead at 76.

* * *

Miss Allan, bed-ridden for nearly two years, died yesterday at a rest home.

She created a sensation when in 1908 she appeared at London's Palace Theater clad in diaphanous veils to dance her "Vision of Salome."

* * *

She was a pioneer in aesthetic dancing in revealing costume, but was modest compared with today's bubble and fan dancers. She always defended her dances as pure art.

Her dancing career ended in 1938 when she was seriously hurt in an auto accident. She recovered to write an autobiography and to encourage other dancers on their way up.

* * *

Miss Allan was born in Toronto Aug. 27, 1880, the daughter of two physicians, Dr. William Allan and Dr. Isbel Hutchinson Allan. The family moved to California when she was a child.

Man Accidentally Shot While Hunting at Holly

A Holly man was accidentally shot in the left leg by his brother during a duck hunting expedition Saturday near Holly.

Vernon McGinnis, 27, of 12203 Dixie Highway, was treated for the shotgun wound at Pontiac General Hospital. The shot was fired by Harold McGinnis, 29, of Flint.

Questioned by deputies of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department, Harold stated he mistook his brother's hip boot for a duck moving in the weeds and fired.

Turks Take to Wheels

ANKARA—There were 27,692 automobiles, 27,549 trucks, and 5,933 buses registered in Turkey at the start of 1956, 6½ times more than in 1938. This is an average of one automobile for every 808 persons and one truck for every 813.

Dies From Cancer

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Film producer Bert Friedlob, widely known in motion picture cirles, is dead of cancer.

He died in his sleep yesterday after a month's illness.

Pictures he produced included, "Beyond a Reasonable Doubt," which was his last, and "While the City Sleeps."

He was once married to actress Eleanor Parker.

13 Safe After Hours on Buffeting Barge

SAULT STE. MARIE (INS)—A 300-foot barge carrying 13 seamen was in sheltered waters today after being buffeted in Lake Superior for nine hours by strong winds and high waves.

* * *

The unloaded barge, Delkote was cast adrift 130 miles Northwest of Sault Ste. Marie yesterday morning when a towline connecting it with the steamer George Hindman parted.

Waves as high as 20 feet and 40-mile winds prevented the Hindman and another vessel, the Capt. C. D. Secord, from reaching the Delkote for several hours.

* * *

The Secord finally managed to get a line aboard the barge and towed it to the sheltered waters behind Michipicoten Island.

Give Salk Vaccine Credit

Statistics Show U. S. Has Lightest Polio Since 1947

WASHINGTON (INS)—Statistics show the U. S. is experiencing its lightest polio year since 1947, with the Salk anti-polio vaccine achieving the near 100 per cent effectiveness its developer always predicted it would.

* * *

Latest figures of the U. S. Public Health Service show 12,153 cases of polio for the period Jan. 1 through Sept. 29, 1956. For the comparable period in 1955, there were 23,010 cases reported.

While the 1956 calendar year isn't over yet, the waning "polio season" all but insures that the 1956 polio total will not even approach the 39,000 case average of the last five years.

In 1947, the lighest polio year in a decade, there were 10,827 cases for the entire year.

Dr. Jonas E. Salk, University of Pittsburgh scientist who developed the vaccine, told International News Service he is letting "the figures for 1956 speak for themselves" as far as polio-fighting effectiveness is concerned.

Dr. Salk has consistently maintained, even when others strongly questioned the vaccine, that three shots properly spaced would give nearly 100 per cent effectiveness in preventing paralytic polio.

* * *

The Francis report on the Salk vaccine field trials of 1954 had placed effectiveness at between 60 to 90 per cent. U. S. Public Health Service officials have been using a 75 per cent effectiveness figure.

But Dr. Hart Van Riper, medical director of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, told INS the present vaccination picture is beginning to square with Dr. Salk's own evaluation. He said:

"Thus far, we do not have a single authenticated case of paralytic polio in any individual who has received three properly spaced injections since 1954."

This statement, Dr. Van Riper explained, includes all persons fully vaccinated in the mass field trials of 1954, the on-again-off-again program of 1955 and the smoothly-operated, full-scale current drive.

By Dr. Van Riper's own estimate, some five to seven million individuals, the overwhelming majority of them under age 19, have received three properly spaced inoculations.

With not one case of paralytic polio out of the five to seven million persons properly inoculated, Dr. Salk's confidence in his vaccine's near 100 per cent effectiveness is apparently being vindicated.

63-Year-Old Jimmy Durante to Wed Girl, 35

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Comedian Jimmy Durante, 63, and his fiancee have returned to Hollywood, a little astonished at all the fuss.

News of the comic's engagement to Margie Little, 35, an actress from Plainfield, N.J., was disclosed Saturday night at the opening of a tennis club in Phoenix, Ariz.

"Why, we've been going together for 10 or 11 years," the Schnozzola said upon returning here last night.

He said they plan to be married "sometime next year."

Durante's first wife, the former Jeanne Olsen, died in 1943.

Man Celebrates 100th —Then Dies in Sleep

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Walter Moon invited a few friends up to his hotel room to help celebrate his 100th birthday.

When hotel manager Jerry Smith departed with the other guests, Moon reminded him: "Be sure and call me for church in the morning."

Smith knocked on the door shortly after sunup, but there was no answer.

He went in and found Moon had died in his sleep.

Truman's Convention Appraisal of Stevenson

As the current political campaign sweeps onward, we are often reminded of Ex-President Harry S. Truman's candid pronouncement in Chicago.

★ ★ ★

We refer to his declaration that Adlai Stevenson would have to go through a long period of trial and error in the White House because of his inexperience. This would penalize America.

Mr. Truman was right.

It becomes increasingly apparent.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Stevenson has made a good, average Governor of Illinois according to the records, but his 'neptness for White House tenure shows more clearly as he stumps his way across the country.

We have an expert in Washington right now.

Why monkey with success?

★ ★ ★

Mr. Truman admitted in an unguarded moment of utter candor and frankness that Stevenson would be a rookie in national and international government. Nothing that Mr. Stevenson has done or said since then causes any revision of Mr. Truman's estimate. "Give 'em Hell" Harry was right on the ball.

That's unusual.

But it happened once.

★ ★ ★

We accept his verdict as a man who understood and it should be final, absolute and complete.

Yanks Even Series

The sky over Yankee Stadium is bright and sunny once more!

Yankee fans are happy again and they have two good reasons to be.

One of those reasons is the stylish eight hit pitching of Whitey Ford on Saturday. This sent the Dodgers back home on the short end of a 5-3 score. The other is the masterful mound job done on Sunday by Oklahoma's Tom Sturdivant.

Sturdivant was even stingier with base hits than the blond Ford. He turned the Flatbush enemy back with only six hits. So steady and courageous was his pitching that in the Sunday contest Alston's men were able to get the ball out of the infield only once in the first five innings.

Meanwhile Stengel's crew of first class RBI men were giving Sturdivant a comfortable 6-2 lead. There is no suggestion here that the Dodgers didn't fight back. They fought all the way to the wire. In seven out of nine innings they put their leadoff hitter on base.

The Yankees deserved to win the game that squared the series at two each. Six of their seven hits were used in scoring. They deserve credit too for the spirit and speed with which they rebounded from the depths to which they had been plunged by Brooklyn's capture of the first two games.

The lesson of the four games played so far is that it is a mistake to discount the Yankees' skill afield and their power at the plate. In two well pitched games they already have liquidated the tremendous psychological advantage two victories gave the Dodgers.

★ ★ ★

What a difference a few base hits can make. And after those first two games the Yankees' series prospects were bleak indeed. Today it's a whole new series and the Yankees have won another chance to try to recapture the world championship crown they lost to Brooklyn in the 1955 series.

Keego Harbor Mourns Chief Calvin Baxter

Keego Harbor residents are mourning the death of Calvin C. Baxter, its Chief of Police who suffered fatal burns in a bowling alley fire recently.

Baxter was also a member of the fire department and it was primarily in that capacity that he was fighting the fire.

★ ★ ★

He was trapped inside after entering the front door with a hose. He was rescued through a window, but was burned over his entire body. Several other firemen and bystanders suffered minor burns.

★ ★ ★

Calvin Baxter's death is a reminder that our firemen and policemen are public servants who risk their lives daily in their regular line of duty. Theirs is indeed a hazardous type of service. Keego Harbor residents are paying homage today to a man who gave his life for his community.

The Man About Town

Large Contrasts

Area Voters Show Distinct Variance in Their Politics

Goodfellow: Most any political candidate—according to him.

Oakland County offers some political extremes. For instance, four years ago Birmingham's first precinct cast 1,225 votes for Alger for governor, and gave Williams 463, a ratio of over 20 to one one.

On the same day Pontiac's 34th precinct cast 23 votes for Alger and gave Williams 463, a ratio of over 20 to one the other way.

The vote on governor is given as a sample of the contrasts, rather than on president, on account of Eisenhower's popularity, when he swept the county with a plurality of 41,632.

When Michigan State defeated Michigan, 9-0, Saturday, 679 entries in our football contest were eliminated. They were the 625 who picked Michigan to win and the 54 who predicted a tie.

The 1,241 who predicted State would win carry over to next Saturday's game, on which they predict: Southern Methodist, 616; Duke, 605; tie, 20.

His Double Sacrifice

David Lawrence Says:

22nd Amendment Presents Peril

WASHINGTON—President Eisenhower has put his finger on one of the real weaknesses of the American constitutional system—the fact the American people, perhaps even in the midst of a nuclear war, cannot continue their commander-in-chief in office if he happens to be finishing a second term during a crisis.

The President says that adoption of the 22nd Amendment which limits a president to two terms "was not wholly wise" and that the United States "ought to be able to choose for its president, anybody it wants, regardless of the number of terms he has served." The 22nd Amendment was adopted by two-thirds of both houses of Congress in March 1947 and after ratification by three-quarters of the states was proclaimed in February 1951.

Eisenhower has never before expressed himself on the subject and did so only because the question was asked by Ed Morgan of the American Broadcasting Co. at a press conference a few days ago as a result of talk in political circles that a president in his second term might lose influence with Congress. Eisenhower thought not and pointed out that the next aspirant would want a president's support for nomination and election. But the weakness arises when a chief executive can no longer hold—not the candidates—but party members in line.

When President Wilson was asked in February 1913 by a congressional committee his views on a proposal for a constitutional amendment limiting a president to a single term of six years, he replied that he believed four years is often too long and sometimes four years is not long enough depending on how good the president happened to be and that he hoped some day the American people would establish a system more responsive to the nation's will. Obviously he had in mind a parliamentary system.

The late President Franklin D. Roosevelt in talks with friends used to cite the successful experience of Canada under the 21-year tenure of Mackenzie King as prime minister—a service interrupted only twice for brief intervals.

This writer in a dispatch on July 10 last predicted that the matter of a third term would come up in the event of Eisenhower's re-election. Of particular interest now is an unpublished letter written to this correspondent on July 25 last by Rep. James M. Quigley, Democrat, of Pennsylvania, who had just introduced a resolution to repeal the 22nd Amendment. He said:

"I invite your attention to this legislative measure because its introduction was inspired, at least in part, by your recent column suggesting the fairness or the desirability of making an exception to the rule of the 22nd Amendment in the case of President Eisenhower . . .

"I do not favor a third term for Mr. Eisenhower any more than I favored it for Mr. Roosevelt, but I am terribly afraid that the deadening effects of four years of a 'lame duck' president would have on this country are far greater than those that might come from the possibility or even the realization of a president being re-elected for a third term.

"Since I am a Democrat, and since I happen to have the honor of representing the district of Pennsylvania which includes Gettysburg, I suppose it should be expected that I should be doing everything possible to discourage President Eisenhower from seeking a second term let alone attempting to create a situation where he might possibly run for a third term. However, since I am convinced that the 22nd Amendment is wrong in principle, I think it incumbent upon me to urge its repeal before it has an opportunity to do great harm to this country regardless of what the political consequences might be to me personally."

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

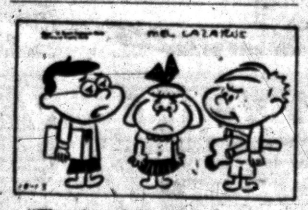
Some of His children must go into the furnace to testify that the Son of God is there with them.—E. Prentiss.



"The time has come for you to choose between superior intellect and expert marksmanship."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Reader Says Iodin Ration Banished His Psoriasis

Reader thanks me for recommending the iodin ration for psoriasis, says he has been on the ration for six years and that in the past two years he has had no sign of psoriasis, his gums have stopped bleeding, and he is no longer bothered with sinus trouble. He doesn't say whether he beats his wife or smokes in the woodshed.

From a quick once-over of the literature I gather that we are just as capable in the treatment of psoriasis as we were in the days when some people didn't mind whether or what I tried to teach.

In Volumette 9 of the Pocket Cyclopedia of Health, Save Your Skin (for which send 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope) I call psoriasis "the silvery scale disease."

About three out of every hundred cases of chronic skin disease are psoriasis. Characteristic are the sharply defined red patches covered with silvery white scales, especially behind the elbows and over knees and outer surface of legs. Psoriasis runs a chronic course of years or a lifetime, marked by remissions and relapses from time to time. If a remission occurs at a particular season, or if it occurs at a time when the individual is using medicine, diet, vitamin, or bath that purports to be curative, he is liable to write a testimonial that far outlasts the remission.

In this instance the reader remained on the iodin ration for three or four years before his psoriasis cleared up, his gums stopped bleeding and his sinus trouble ceased. I don't know whether the iodin ration had anything to do with these changes, but I know it can do no harm in any case.

The man's faithfulness to the ration is remarkable because so many readers, despite my constant admonitions, regard the iodin ration I recommend as medicine and hence use it, if at all, for a few weeks only—in other words they "try" it, as they think, and drop it when the test proves negative. The iodin ration is like meat and potatoes, bread and cheese, or apple pie and milk—you can't expect to get the full benefit of it unless you keep eating it regularly from now on.

Because of the characteristic remissions and relapses it is difficult to gauge the effect of any particular remedy for the silvery scale disease. In my own experience the most effective remedy seemed to be thyroid extract. Today I believe the iodin ration is a safe substitute for thyroid feeding.

The cause of psoriasis is unknown. It is certainly not contagious or communicable. Some physicians believe it is inherited, but this is conjectural. Climate is not a factor, although in many cases the trouble is worse in winter than in summer.

Send me, in care of this newspaper, a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for the pamphlet The Iodin Ration.

Bleeding gums and sinus trouble, mentioned by the reader, have no particular connection with psoriasis.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

What difference does it make in any civilized country whether evidence is obtained through wiretapping or in some other manner? The method does not lessen the crime, does it?

The main thing is that the criminal is caught. If we don't want to catch crooks, why do we have detectives? Why not allow all criminals their freedom unless they voluntarily confess? What rot!

Burned Citizen

The Duchess of Windsor was rejected as a leader of the British people because she was a divorced woman. Princess Margaret's romance with Peter Townsend was cancelled because of his marital status.

Yet the British wholeheartedly endorse Adlai Stevenson for the Presidency of the United States. Do they, then consider this country a nation inferior to theirs?

Thomas M.

Noting your editorial concern with regards to Dr. George Waldbott's research on fluoride poisoning, Pontiac citizens will be pleased to hear some recent additional facts on the same subject.

Nineteen doctors, all members of the Michigan State Medical Society, speaking for its Physicians' Committee Studying Fluoridation, had this to say in a recent news release:

"Committee members said they fully concur with the statement of Dr. Luther R. Leader, president of the Wayne County Medical Society, that Dr. Waldbott's work is 'careful, meticulous, and thorough, and he has produced some important data which warrants earnest consideration and careful evaluation by an open mind.'"

The Wayne Society, after Studying Dr. Waldbott's work, no longer endorses fluoridation. In the light of this and other recent developments in professional circles, we can feel happy that Pontiac voters rejected this questionable procedure.

Mildred E. Huttula

I cannot see how the people of Michigan want to try this crazy idea of putting fluoride in our drinking water when it may be injurious to people's health. Allergic individuals seem to be particularly susceptible. Fluoride is a very toxic chemical.

It may cause irreversable damage to teeth and bones. It may injure the nervous system, kidneys and other tissues. Why, then try to cram this idea down the people's throats when they have already voted it down?

We have highly trained dentists to treat children's teeth. What are they trying to do . . . put those dentists out of business? Why not sell this water in five gallon jars in drug stores, so that those who wish to take a chance can do so. I, for one, and my family want no part of it.

Taxpayer

So Waterford Township is starting a dog training center. How wonderful. Why not just pass a law to keep these beasts at home where they belong? I suggest starting a training center for children, too. Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he or she will not depart from it.

What has become of the Widower and Widows' acquaintance club, which met every Tuesday night at the Malta Hall on Perkins street?

That club was founded to bring widows and widowers, bachelors and bachelor girls together one evening a week for music, games and dancing. There was a list of all members and their marital standing kept and no married folk except those who had met at the club and later married were allowed to attend.

The club now running on Perkins street has no membership list. Anyone who has 75 cents may attend. Why can't all members of the former WWA get together and have the old club back?

Medicine and advice—easy to give and hard to take!

* * *

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Douse Flame Spouse Carries

Clara says her husband is carrying the torch for his former wife. Many sweethearts do. But you can soon put out such a flame by following the advice below. When people flee into the past, it usually means their present ego isn't being inflated properly. A wife can soon make her husband forget all his former romances if she uses the modern technique.

BY DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case S-385: Clara B., aged 24, is confronting the problem which often faces a second wife.

"Dr. Crane, I have a wonderful husband," she began, "but he still thinks about his former wife.

"He married her against the wishes of his family and friends, for he was wildly infatuated with her.

"It was during the Korean War. She worked in a tavern and he was sorry for the sordid life she lived.

So he thought he would give her a good home and reform her. But she kept having so many affairs with other men, he finally had to get a divorce.

"That was three years ago. But he still broods about her and sometimes cries because he thinks she may be mistreated.

"Now what can I do? It hurts my pride to have him carrying the torch for his former wife, but if I let on that I am jealous, he may bottle up his feeling. I'd rather he got them out of his system so I know what he thinks."

TORCH BEARERS

A lot of folks carry such torches for former lovers.

But if you second mates want to put out the flames quickly, just make the present and future so pleasant that such dreamers will no longer wish to flee into the yesterdays.

* * *

The very fact that anyone dwells in the past, generally proves his present ego is not being adequately inflated by praise and indirect compliments, such as a fervent mate.

Happy marriage often requires histrionic (acting) skill. Shakespeare said all the world's a stage and we are but actors thereon.

So if Shakespeare praised you by saying you are an actor, don't let him down:

HOW TO PREVENT DIVORCE

If you men wish to keep your wives devoted to you all their lives, then learn to verbalize your love. Say it in words.

Pay your mate a sincere compliment every day. Women are more verbal than sexual, so you can hold a wife's love forever by leaning upon her for advice and counsel.

Ask her opinions about your workaday problems, instead of clamming up. Even if you don't follow all of her suggestions, encourage her to offer them.

The day of the "strong silent man" is past. Such a fellow may lose his wife quickly to another man who learns to talk smoothly.

But you wives must realize that the Achilles tendon of your husband's ego is his sexual vigor.

So put on an act. Affect more physical ardor than you feel. For if a wife acts naturally in this realm, she will appear disinterested and frigid to the normal male.

Divorces usually start in the bedroom. To avoid this tragedy, be sure you have the booklet named below. And re-read it on every wedding anniversary.

WORRY FORWARD

Keep your marriage worries pointed forward. Plan to have children and do so early in your marriage.

They help unify the interests of husband and wife. But don't succumb to the pitfall of becoming so parental that you forget your sweetheart role.

Shakespeare expects you actors and actresses to perform many roles. So a successful wife must be pal and playmate, as well as confidant and mother, family treasurer and chief psychologist in her family.

Clara followed the advice below and also got her family started. When the first baby arrived, her husband became so interested in getting home to see it, that he had no time to brood over a former romance.

So send for the booklet "Sex Problems in Marriage," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents. It helps prevent divorce so give it to all newlyweds, too.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

All-Woman Bear Hunt Planned Near Grayling

GRAYLING (AP)—What is believed to be the first all-women bear hunt will be staged in the Hansen-Dead Stream area near here Oct. 13-14. Promoter Mable Dingman said she got the idea after she was refused permission to join an all-male bear hunt last year.

She said 56 women have already paid the $5 entry fee. One of the rules is that the women cannot load their weapons until they have been stationed at their posts by guides hired for the hunt.

Planning News Curb?

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru's Congress Party organ Economic Review says public interest demands curbs on Indian newspapers' reporting of religious matters. Several newspapers have criticized Nehru for saying legislation is needed to check newspapers from stirring religious passions. There have been several Hindu-Moslem riots recently.

India is moving to ban public drinking.

Moose Out of Hand

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (AP) — Harry Walters, provincial wildlife director, says the moose herd in some parts of Newfoundland is out of hand and over-populated. The annual kill of moose totals 1,600,000 pounds of meat. Walters says an additional 200 moose are killed each year by trains.

The 3,000-th ocean-going vessel has entered the port of Amsterdam, Holland, three weeks earlier this year than last.

Artificial Kidney Filters Blood

Doctors' Hopes High for Conquering Uremia With Device

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A surgeon today described a simple new artificial kidney which you might swallow to prevent death from blood poisoning.

* * *

Once easily swallowed, it would do the work of ailing kidneys to remove fatal poisons from the blood. It is merely a thin, collapsible tube of plastic sausage casing, filled later with a special fluid to make it work like healthy kidneys to purify the blood. It works when it's inside the small intestine.

* * *

This artificial kidney has kept dogs alive even when both their kidneys had been removed. It also helped a man dying of a chronic kidney disease that had ruined his kidneys.

* * *

This bold approach to a most serious problem was reported at the opening of the American College of Surgeons' annual congress by Dr. Paul R. Schloerb, surgeon of the University of Kansas School of Medicine and Kanss City Veterans Administration hospital.

* * *

Blood poisoning, or uremia, comes when injured or diseased kidneys fail to remove poisons accumulating in the blood. One answer is to tap blood flowing through an artery and send it through an artificial kidney machine where it's purified and put back into a vein.

* * *

The heart of these machines is a thin sausage casing with tiny pores permitting poisons in the blood, such as potassium, urea and nitrogen, to escape into a special bath of surrounding fluid.

Dr. Schloerb finds the sausage casing works just as well when put inside the small intestine. It can remove poisons from the blood then even though not in direct contact with the blood.

* * *

The tube, with one end closed, is put into the intestine. The special liquid which can draw out poisons is pumped into the open end of the tube, and escapes through another channel at the open end.

Hal Boyle Says:

State Girl Reaches Executive Heights at 28

NEW YORK (AP) — Joan Grove could well be the heroine of a Hortense Alger success story.

* * *

At 28 she can't cook and is afraid of gas stoves. But she is a vice president in a 12-million-dollar a year firm, earns about $50,000 annually herself, and has a wardrobe containing 125 hats.

She also has her own apartment on Fifth Avenue —Jackie Gleason is a neighbor in the same building — dresses better than the average movie star, and collects expensive Louis XIV furniture. What else could a girl ask for — except maybe a decorative husband?

* * *

"I'm in no hurry for one," said Joan, a tall, slender, blue-eyed girl with blonde-tipped brunette hair. "Right now I like my life as it is."

Miss Grove, daughter of a Detroit auto engineer, was graduated in 1951 from Michigan State University, where she had studied sociology and psychology.

* * *

"I had dreamed of becoming a crusading social worker, spending my life helping the needy," she said, "but after looking into the financial rewards of social work, I decided I'd end up being a needy person myself. So I decided to try the business world."

A newspaper ad changed her career.

The ad was placed by Larry Mack, dynamic young president of Slenderella, Inc., who the year before had launched a nationwide chain of salons to help American women improve their figures.

* * *

Joan, who has an interesting figure herself (33-24-35), skyrocketed right up with the skyrocketing firm which last year claims it reduced U.S. women four million inches in girth and three million pounds. This has freed in a crowded land a space equivalent to that taken up by 24,000 women weighing 125 pounds, or the area required to park 2,400 cars.

Last year Miss Grove became the youngest of seven vice presidents of Slenderella, and now supervises about 225 employes in 22 salons ranging from here to Canada.

* * *

"I like responsibility," she said frankly. "I have tremendous energy. I couldn't be happy as a housewife sitting around brooding about the price of potatoes."

Joan has decided opinions on the role of women as business executives, and doesn't hesitate about stating them.

"In hiring," she said, "I look first of all for sincerity. And I don't find it hard to make decisions. I study the facts in a situation thoroughly, but I depend a lot on intuition also.

"There is a lot of nonsense written about feminine intuition. What is intuition really but a mental judgment based on all your previous experience? You have to heed intuition."

She believes any woman who is well-groomed, intelligent and has a well-balanced personality can succeed in business—and compete with men for top jobs.

"But she should be better dressed than most movie stars," Joan added. "She can't afford to look as casual or disheveled in public as—well, say Marilyn Monroe sometimes does. If clothes make the man, they are even more important to the business woman.

"I am very fond of hats myself, and believe a woman should have a hat for every mood."

* * *

Joan, who has some 125 hats, doesn't have any $2.90 moods. Her hats cost from $75 to $175 for a neat ermine bonnet.

"No, I can't cook," she said. "I'm actually afraid to light a gas stove. I don't cook because I do not have the time to learn to do it well. I don't like to do anything unless I can do it well."

Eventually she hopes to marry and have three children. But, admitting "I like fine things," she said she had no desire to serve as a breadwinner for any impecunious young artist or writer. Her husband will have to be able to support her in the same style she can now afford herself.

Her top job and high income overtake many young men in her own age bracket who hesitate to ask her for dates.

* * *

Is she lonely, for all her success?

"Not now," she said soberly, "but I don't know how I'll feel when I'm 45. I'm not looking that far ahead."

Nehru Levels Blast at Indian Commies

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru yesterday leveled a vehement attack at India's Reds.

Addressing Congress party workers at Alipore, he asserted: "It's sheer foolishness to think communism will solve India's problems. It will only result in violence, class war, hatred, civil strife and nothing else."

India's Communists, he continued, "have no originality of their own. They swear by whatever emanates from Moscow and follow it with religious fanaticism."

Asking if the Indian Reds "want to repeat in India the whole struggle of Russia under the Lenin leadership," Nehru said his country "cannot afford all that process of fighting; we cannot fritter our energies in fighting."

3 Gunmen Steal $400 From Macomb Tavern

MT. CLEMENS (AP) — Three men robbed Tassie's Tavern on M29 in Macomb County of $400 early today after tying up the manager, Nick Reichardt.

Reichardt, who was alone in the tavern, said the men entered about 1 a.m., ordered a beer and then held him up at gunpoint.

A dispute over new Australian rules for faster cargo handling tied up Melbourne's waterfront for two weeks.

Of the 150,000 Americans employed in atomic energy plants, 99.7 per cent are considered standard insurance risks.

Israeli Tries U. S. Citizen Spying for Syrian Nation

JERUSALEM (AP) — An Israeli court is scheduled to give a verdict Thursday on charges that Mary Frances Hagan Kayali, 29-year-old American wife of a Syrian diplomat, spied for Syria. If found guilty, she could be sentenced to 28 years in prison.

* * *

The woman, whose family lives in Huntington, W. Va., was arrested in Tel Aviv Aug. 27 after a nine-day tour of the country which aroused the suspicions of Israeli security officers.

She pleaded innocent and was tried in secret in the Jerusalem District Court last week before Judge Benyamin Halevy. Censorship prevented publication of news of the case until after the three-day hearing was ended.

* * *

Mrs. Kayali was defended by Tel Aviv attorney Max Kritzman. An observer from the U.S. Embassy attended the trial, and the State Department notified her family of the action against her.

Israeli newspapers said she was "the first U. S. citizen ever to have been charged by an Israeli court with espionage on behalf of an Arab state."

Reliable sources said the woman openly expressed pro - Arab sympathies but contended she came to Israel on her own to find out the truth about the Arab-Israeli conflict and not to spy.

* * *

A graduate of Pembroke College, in Providence, R.I., Mrs. Kayali studied theology and fine arts for two years at New York's Columbia University and was a secretary for the American Friends of the Middle East, a non-profit organization the Israelis consider has a pro-Arab slant. Later she was a secretary for the Syrian delegation to the U.N. and then worked in the Syrian Embassy in Washington.

* * *

Her half-brother in Huntington said she married Galeb Kayali about two years ago and visited Syria and Lebanon for six weeks in 1955. On her return she became secretary of the Arab students' organization and also worked for the Arab information center in New York. Kayali went back to Syria early this year and his wife followed in June, planning to return to the United States in October.

The Tel Aviv newspaper Maariv said Kayali, now head of the Syrian Foreign Ministry's political department, is also an official of the Syrian intelligence service. The paper reported the couple had parted.

No Nagging Backache Means a Good Night's Sleep

Nagging backache, headache, or muscular aches and pains may come on with over-exertion, emotional upsets or day to day stress and strain. And folks who eat and drink unwisely sometimes suffer mild bladder irritation ...with that restless, uncomfortable feeling.

If you are miserable and worn out because of these discomforts, Doan's Pills often help by their pain relieving action, by their soothing effect to ease bladder irritation, and by their mild diuretic action through the kidneys — tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.

So if nagging backache makes you feel dragged-out, miserable, with restless, sleepless nights, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 60 years. Ask for new, large, economy size and save money. Get Doan's Pills today!

Fallout Affects Cattle 400 Miles Away

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — Cattle 400 miles from the scene of Britain's current series of atomic tests in Australia today were reported heavily affected by radioactivity.

The British have exploded two atomic devices at the Maralinga testing grounds in South Australia and are to set off two more soon.

The cattle were slaughtered at Hamilton Downs station, northeast of Maralinga. A Geiger counter check of their thyroids after the cloud from the blast passed over the station reportedly gave a radioactivity count of 3,000 instead of a normal 30. But scientists would not say whether a count of 3,000 was dangerously high.

India's National Small Industries Corporation plans to permit small industries to buy machinery on the hire-purchase (time payment) plan to boost production, New Delhi reports.

Pilot Describes Jumping From 45,000 Feet

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (UP)—Imagine you're a cigarette ash thrown from a speeding auto on a freeway. That's how it feels to bail out of a jet at 45,000 feet, says an Air Force pilot.

"Chances of injury in today's new high - speed aircraft are high because of the lack of safety equipment," Capt. Edmund G. Sperry told the American Assn. for the Surgery of Trauma (shock) convention.

Sperry, of Annapolis, Md., holds the Air Force altitude record for a parachute jump.

Bar Reporters From Liner

Russian and American Daughter on Way to Soviet Union

CHERBOURG, France (AP)—The Cunard Line today barred reporters and photographers from the incoming liner Queen Mary so they would not disturb a Russian taking his 2½-year-old American-born daughter to the Soviet Union.

* * *

The father, Alexis Chwastov, slipped aboard the ship with the child, Tanya, in New York despite the mother's plea that the little girl be left with her in America.

U. S. immigration agents searched the Queen Mary for the child in vain last Wednesday until the ship reached international waters. However, a Russian official admitted the pair were on board and said under Soviet law Tanya was a Russian citizen.

U. S. officials said the child was considered an American citizen by birth.

Because Chwastov does not have a French visa, police said they would prevent him from leaving the ship here. They added he has a British visa, however, and was expected to quit the ship in Southampton, the liner's next stop.

The French Interior Ministry said no warrant had been issued to have Chwastov or his daughter removed from the ship in Cherbourg.

* * *

Chwastov went to the United States in 1951 as a stateless displaced person. He married an American woman in Philadelphia, but decided recently to return to Russia after his aged mother there wrote him urging that he come back. The Soviet Embassy offered to pay passage for him and his child.

An official of a church organization which sponsored the man's move to the United States said he feared Chwastov had been coerced into returning.

It's Bargain Day at Shop of Man 107 Years Old

CORBIN, Ky. (AP)—It's bargain day at Robert A. Early's workshop.

"You can buy anything you want for a $1.07," says Early, "because it's my 107th birthday."

Age has slowed the knife which carves various articles from wood but Early's eye for business is still sharp.

"It's a fitting and proper thing to turn an honest penny any time," he said, "and my birthday is no exception. People always buy more then."

Early turned to woodworking after a "heap o' living" as a school teacher, carpenter, mail carrier and storekeeper. The 12 years he spent as a police judge here earned him the nicknam "Judge."

The Judge married twice. Seven of his 10 children are still living and he makes his home with one of them, Police Chief William D. Early.

The Judge still writes his other children, keeps a diary and smokes his corncob pipe, "once a day—from the time I get up until I go to bed."

Wife Hospitalizes Mate in World Series Spat

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—Dink Davis, 68, and his wife, 64, argued over the World Series.

Mrs. Davis told police her husband hit her twice with a chair, bruising her arms. Davis said she hit him with a hammer.

Davis went to a hospital for treatment of head lacerations. Mrs. Davis was charged with assault with intent to kill and was released on $1,000 bond.

Both declined to tell which team they rooted for.

But Voters May Produce Some Surprises

New Jersey Dems Face Uphill Fight Against Favored GOP

By RELMAN MORIN

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — In New Jersey today, the Democrats are like a football team about to take the field against a heavily favored opponent.

* * *

They know the betting odds are against them.

They know it will take their best effort to win.

And they are confident in any event they can do better than last time. In that contest, four years ago, Dwight D. Eisenhower defeated Adlai E. Stevenson by a whopping 359,000 margin, representing more than 57 per cent of the total vote.

* * *

On their part, the Republicans profess to see no reason why they shouldn't repeat.

Today, employment and payroll figures are higher than in 1952. Farm policy is not a big issue here. No other questions seem to be agitating the whole state.

* * *

However, doorbell ringing brings out some "X" factors. They could surprise both sides. Examples—

1. A large percentage of people say they are still "undecided." Of these, many said they voted for Eisenhower in 1952.

That being so, which way will they vote this year?

2. As in other states, a handful out of a sampling of New Jersey voters say they are switching from Eisenhower to Stevenson this time. None was met who talked of switching the other way.

How many of these double-value ballots will be cast for the Democrats?

* * *

3. The state has had an estimated 14 per cent population increase since the last census, largely from migration. The Democrats believe they will reap the bigger crop in this new field of votes.

Will they? Or will the people who have moved into predominantly Republican communities vote as their neighbors do?

Registration appears to have increased all over the state in relation to the 1952 figures. Republicans are elated over that, interpreting it as a sign that their get-out-the-vote drive has succeeded.

On the other side, the Democrats claim their organization is in better shape today than in years. They say the "trend" is toward them. And they watch admiringly as the personable and energetic Gov. Robert Meyner—who is expected to seek re-election next year—gets out virtually every night to battle for the party.

Here are some statements typical of what seem to be elements in the voters' thinking—

A housewife who said she voted for Eisenhower in 1952 : "Both my husband and I are independents, and we are both undecided right now. We don't feel sure Eisenhower could finish another four years."

A Negro physician who said he is an independent and voted for Stevenson before: "I am not committed to anyone yet. I want to hear more from both men. Adlai Stevenson seems a little different to me, not quite so forthright as last time."

* * *

A laundry delivery driver said: "Eisenhower's for big business and I'm a working man. Sure, I'm getting along okay, but you ought to hear my boss complain."

A mailman said: "I'm voting for Eisenhower again even if he did give us a hard time on our pay raise. I've got three boys and I don't want any more Korean Wars."

* * *

Two housewives, unhappily comparing grocery bills, said nevertheless they will vote for Eisenhower again because "he's done a good job" and "things are high but everybody I know has a job."

"Modern marriages would fare better if some o' thae young wives learned how to make a pot o' broth," said Mrs. James Christie, of Dundee, Scotland, on her 60th wedding anniversary.

Just Take Trip to Alaska

Now You, Too, Can Have Genuine Walrus Trophy

The time has come, the walrus said,
To speak of things precise.
Of blubber, hides and ivory tusks,
And how to keep on ice.
Anon.

By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Anybody want a lugubrious looking walrus head for the trophy room?

Well, it's possible to get them now — provided you're physically and financially hardy enough to stand a hunting trip to the arctic regions of Alaska.

It comes about through a new law passed by Congress to give the Eskimo economy a shot in the arm.

* * *

Chief aim of the new law is to permit Eskimos to export the hides of the walruses they kill for food. It is estimated such exports may bring the Eskimos an additional $24,000 a year — a small sum down here perhaps, but a lot of blubber up around the 70th parallel.

One section of the new law permits a non-native to go to Alaska, hire an Eskimo guide and kill one bull walrus per year. The non-native, however, must give the meat of his kill to the Eskimos. This would leave him the head, complete with tusks, and the hide.

* * *

The Interior Department, which is to draw up the regulations under the new law, isn't looking for many hunters to make a safari to Alaska just to hunt a walrus.

"In the first place," said a department spokesman, "It would be a rather expensive and uncomfortable trip. In the second, it would be about like killing a cow. And in the third place, who'd want a walrus head looking at him from across the room?"

Who, indeed?

Negro Won't Back Either Candidate

NEW YORK (AP) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-NY) says that, as a Negro, he cannot campaign for either Adlai E. Stevenson or President Eisenhower.

Powell, pastor of the Abyssinian Baptist Church in Harlem, urged his congregation yesterday to "think first as an American and second as a Negro—there isn't anything to the Democrats or Republicans."

"How can I as a Negro campaign for Stevenson or Eisenhower," he asked, when both parties "take Negro money and send it to Mississippi and other Southern states to build separate schools for whites and Negroes."

Red China to Give $12 Million to Nepal

HONG KONG (AP)—Radio Peiping today announced that Red China will give the Himalayan kingdom of Nepal 60 million Indian rupees —about $12,650,000—in economic aid during the next three years. Nepal now gets a million dollars a year in U.S. aid.

The foreign policy of the little kingdom, which lies between India and Communist-controlled Tibet, previously has been closely aligned with India's

Deer Hunting in Hawaii

HONOLULU — Molokai Island in the Hawaiian chain offers fine deer hunting. Some 4,000 deer roam the hills, descendants of spotted Indian deer shipped to King Kamehameha V from Hong Kong in 1867.

Beatify Pope in Sunday Rite

Innocent XI Blessed 267 Years After Death in 1689

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Innocent XI, a humble prelate who dared oppose the mightiest ruler of Europe, has been beatified 267 years after his death.

Pope Pius XII proclaimed him "blessed" and entitled to public religious honor in a glittering ceremony yesterday in St. Peter's Basilica.

Beatification is the church's second degree of sanctity and usually is a step toward canonization, the process of enrollment among the saints.

Pius XII called Innocent XI "reformer of the church, defender of its rights and protector of Christianity." His words were carried to the Basilica and to the world by Vatican radio immediately after the reading of his paper brief proclaiming the beatification.

As thousands of electric lights flashed, golden drapes were drawn from a crystal coffin holding the pontifically robed remains of Innocent XI. The body will be placed permanently at the Altar of St. Sebastian in the Basilica.

Pope Pius led more than 35,000 in veneration for the 17th century Pope.

* * *

Born Benedetto Odescalchi at Como, Italy, on May 16, 1611, Innocent XI was known for his humility and the severity of his way of life. The process for his beatification began 25 years after his death on Aug. 12, 1689. It was slowed up by the antagonism caused by his fight with King Louis XIV of France.

The struggle was based primarily on royal prerogatives that Roman Catholic rulers then enjoyed. Louis had extended to the whole of his kingdom privileges that the church had granted to certain dioceses.

Bronx Dogs Leading Man's Life at Shelter

NEW YORK (AP)—A dog's life is the good life at a plush new $350,000 shelter opening in the Bronx today.

The modernistic refuge for homeless dogs and cats was built by the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. It is equipped with running water, indirect lighting and soft music.

The music is piped throughout the building to calm excited inmates.

Arriving dogs will probably be impressed most with the outdoor play enclosures. Each pen has a bright red fire hydrant.

Racetrack Cashier Held in Fund Shortage

DETROIT (INS) — A veteran racetrack payoff cashier was held for questioning today in connection with a reported $4,100 shortage at the Detroit Race Course in Livonia.

Edgar J. McDonnell, 70, had $515 in cash and an airline ticket in his possession when arrested at his Detroit hotel. He will be turned over to Livonia police later today.

Applications in Mail for '57 Auto Plates

LANSING (AP) — Applications for 1957 license plates now are being mailed out to Michigan's 3,500,000 motorists, the Secretary of State's office said.

Commercial vehicle owners are required to prepare their own applications since they must present new weight slips this year.

"We have done our best to get every change of address into our files before mailing new applications," said Secretary of State James M. Hare.

"We know, however, that we have not been able to catch them all," Hare said. "Motorists who received an application improperly prepared can do us a great service by reporting these changes to the Department of State immediately."

Hare reminded drivers that Michigan is returning to the two-plate system in 1957 for the first time in 14 years. He urged them to make sure the front plate is mounted when they receive their 1957 plates.

France was host to 60 per cent of all American tourists in Europe in 1955, but travelers spent the most money ($82,000,000) in Italy, followed by France and England, Paris statistics indicate.

Denim Ball Aids Hospital

Sigma Beta Unit Plans for Parley

Final plans to attend the National Convention of Sigma Beta Sorority in Dayton Oct. 19-21 were made by Psi Chapter members when they met with Jean Sheridan of Ottawa drive. The group also discussed submitting a bid to have the 1957 convention held in Pontiac.

Planning to attend the convention are Mrs. Morgan Siple, Mrs. DeVere Games, Mrs. Wallace Williams, Mrs. Eddie O'Brien, Mrs. Joe Benson, Mrs. Raymond Meggitt, Mrs. Eugene Russell and Mrs. William Spalding.

Mrs. Thomas Thorneberry, Mrs. Charles Fournier, Mrs. George Tuson and Miss Sheridan also expect to attend.

Mrs. Tuson announced the sorority would sell Christmas cards, wrapping paper and candy as its money-making project for the season. The charity agenda for the year was presented the group at the recent meeting.

Formal initiation of Mrs. Joseph McDounagh and Mrs. Marlin Whitt was held at the Rundell street home of Mrs. Thorneberry, president, Sept. 20.

Taking time out for refreshments at the Denim Ball, held Saturday evening at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club, are (left to right) Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davis of Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. James Q. Goudie of Bloomfield Hills. The party is an annual affair sponsored by the Auxiliary to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Mother Ill; Should Pair Go to Party?

Daughter Worried People May Think Her Heartless

BY EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: "My husband's mother is quite seiously ill in the hospital. She has been there over a week and don't know how much longer she will have to be there. We have received two invitations—one to a large dance and the other to a cocktail party—both taking place very shortly.

"My husband thinks it would be wrong for us to accept any invitations while his mother is so ill, and that people will think us heartless. I would like your opinion on this matter."

Answer: I see no impropriety in your going to the parties. I think under the circumstances you need a certain amount of cheering.

Dear Mrs. Post: "I am giving a large tea for a bride-to-be and I would like to know if she is supposed to furnish the guest list. My entertaining is necessarily limited, therefore I would like to repay some of my obligations by inviting my friends to this tea and yet give the party in her honor.

"Would this be proper or, since the party is for her, must the guests be only friends of the bride-to-be?"

Answer: Generally not her friends but your friends. You invite your friends to meet her.

Dear Mrs. Post: "When introducing a married woman, do I call her Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Alice Smith or simply Mrs. Smith?"

Answer: Under ordinary circumstances, you would call her Mrs. Smith. If there are two Mrs. Smiths present you necessarily have to name the older one "Mrs. Smith" and the younger one "Mrs. John Smith."

Dear Mrs. Post: "When guests have already put on their coats and are leaving, is it the hostess' place to offer her hand first, or vice versa?"

Answer: The hostess should wait for her guests to make the actual gesture of leaving, since offering her hand first might seem to speed their departure.

Officers Are Elected by Paulson Circle

Mrs. John VanderMeer, was elected president of the Paulson Circle of Emmanuel Baptist Church when the group met Tuesday at her home on Rascob street.

Serving with Mrs. VanderMeer are Mrs. Leland Lloyd, vice president; Mrs. Charles Cupp, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Lyle Howard, publicity and Mrs. Roy Church, work chairman.

Devotions for the evening meeting were given by Mrs. James Threlfall.

Date for Installation

Thirty-five members of Iraq Caldron met at the South Paddock street home of Mrs. Fred Crossman recently. Mrs. Albert Kugler, mighty chosen one elect, announced installation of officers Oct. 17 at 8 p.m. at the Roosevelt Temple.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Richard Parson and Mrs. Roger Smiley. The group will hold its next meeting Nov. 7.

Autumn Brings Shows, Meetings

Travels Dot Birmingham Scene

BIRMINGHAM— Arrivals home, departures for other cities, modeling in fashion shows, rounds of club meetings and boosting for forthcoming musical programs are keeping localites busy.

* * *

To honor Mrs. Craig Ritchey, before she and her husband move to Tucson, Ariz., Mrs. John Maynard entertained eight women at Oakland Hills Country Club. The Ritcheys have lived on Arlington drive.

Twin daughters, Lisa and Lydia, will be tiny models along with their mother, Mrs. Fritz Fiesselmann of Larchlea street at the scholarship benefit at the Rosedale Community House in Detroit Tuesday.

Funds will be going to student funds of the State Federation of Garden Clubs.

FUN WITH TOTS

Mrs. Fiesselmann has her Christmas shopping all done so she'll have lots of time for holiday fun with their three tiny tots.

She did England's shops while her husband did business, and then they toured other European spots. They took in the Wimbleton tennis tournament, since the young matron was once an avid player.

* * *

Just back last week from Europe are Mrs. Morgan Douglas Jr., of Everbreen road, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Morgan Douglas Sr., of Cranbrook crossroad.

They toured five countries in three weeks, with sight-seeing in London, Paris, Zurich, Florence, Rome and Madrid.

Fall gardening projects are a favorite topic for Mrs. Frank Webb, who has been making many talks in these weeks at various Garden Clubs. Wednesday night she was off to Ann Arbor for a talk there.

Among localites planning to hear the noted Italian chamber music group, "Societa Corelli," coming soon to Detroit are the Matthew Cammareris of South Adams street, who have been organizing a group to attend the event at the Art Institute.

The Italian group has the Pope's endorsement, notes Mrs. Cammareri, and the program is arranged through the Italian Consul in Detroit.

The Robert Ricardis, married recently in Detroit and the son and daughter of Mrs. Marie Lolli and John Ricardi of Detroit, will be moving into a new home in Bloomfield Hills when they complete a two-month honeymoon in Europe.

TO ENTERTAIN GUILD

Mrs. James Moon will be entertaining five of her fellow officers of the St. Anne's Guild of St. James Episcopal Church to round out plans for the Town Hall lecture series. She met at the church with her board of 21 last week.

Christmas party plans for the Oakland County Crippled Children's Home in Pontiac will be discussed when Mrs. Cammareri has the board of Rotary Arms to her home, this evening.

On Oct. 16, Panhellenic members of Detroit, Birmingham and North Woodward chapters will be feted at tea at Mrs. Harold R. Chapel's home on Suffield street.

Shower Honors Ponnie Sue Davis

Ponnie Sue Davis was the honoree at a miscellaneous shower given Friday evening by Mrs. Charles Mollhagen of Wolverine Lake. Mrs. Rex Shelton was assistant hostess.

Ponnie Sue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart I. Davis of Mohawk road, is the bride-elect of Bruce A. Reh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reh of East Beverly avenue. The couple plans a Nov. 10 wedding at First Baptist Church.

Among the 35 guests attending the shower were Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Reh, mothers of the young couple.

Do-C-Do Club Plans Hayride and Dance

The Do-C-Do Square Dance Club will open the fall season with a dance at Hayride Lodge near Rochester, Thursday, at 7:30 p.m.

The group will gather for a hayride, followed by a buffet supper and square dancing until midnight —giving the callers a chance to warm up before the guest night on Oct. 25. Mrs. W. M.McCandless is handling reservations for the affair.

The club will hold its regular dance meetings at Washington Junior High School this year.

Noted Conductor to Lead High School Vocal Concert

Don Craig to Be Guest Director Nov. 5 of 750 Vocalists in Fall Music Festival

Don Craig, nationally known conductor, will appear in Pontiac Nov. 5 with the Pontiac High School Vocal Department. Mr. Craig will direct the 750 vocalists in its annual fall music festival.

This program is the first of a series of concerts which will celebrate the Music Educators National Conference Golden Anniversary year.

Selections which the combined glee clubs and choir will sing are taken from all types of great choral literature. They include oratorical selections, spirituals, anthems and popular songs.

Numbers to be presented are:

Let All the World In Every Corner Sing ..... Chapman
There Shall a Star from Jacob ..... Mendelssohn
O Lamb of God ..... Kalinnikof
King Jesus Is a Listening ..... Arr. Dawson
Walk Hand in Hand ..... Arr Simeone
O, Dear, What Can the Matter Be ..... Arr. Shaw
Battle Hymn of the Republic ..... Ringwald
Glendy Burke ..... Foster-Cain
Let Their Celestial Concerts All Unite (Sampson) ..... Handel

Also appearing on the program will be the Pontiac A Cappella Choir, and several small ensembles from the vocal department.

Mrs. Doreen Voltman and Ed Banghart are assisting George Putnam, Pontiac High School vocal music director, in preparations for the clinic concert.

DON CRAIG

Tickets will be available and may be purchased from any of the singers or at the vocal department.

Fear of Tattling Can Injure Child

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Do you disapprove of all tattling by your youngsters?

If so, let's imagine a situation in which two brothers are playing on the dock of their parents' lake cottage. Against orders, the older one suddenly declares his intention of using their father's rowboat.

Shocked, his little brother scrambles hastily back to the dock yelling, "I'm gonna tell! You're not SUPPOSED to! I'm gonna tell. . ."

He doesn't tell. Like your children, he has been taught that tattling is the nastiest thing a child can do. So on the way home, fear of disapproval overcomes concern for his brother's safety—and he decides to keep silent.

His moral confusion could cost his brother's life.

* * *

Toward our widespread prejudice against any tattling, I share the view of novelist Pearl Buck who writes:

"We act without reference to the practical question of how a child is to help keep order if he cannot report disorder; and what the confusion is in his own mind if he must remain silent about something he knows is wrong."

If we scorn tattling by our children, we are suffering from suspicion of authority. For us, authority has not been made a protective power but a punishing, frustrating one. Otherwise in our own tattler's appeal to us we'd see an appeal to our power to love, not to our power to punish.

It is out of our own resentment of authority that we encourage children to make conspiracies of silence about wrongdoing in the name of "group loyalty" and "good sportsmanship."

Actually, our scorn of any tattling is just our old fear of controlling children in new form.

Not long ago, child guidance theories gave us the excuse we wanted to withdraw all controls from Johnny. Now scorn of tattling gives us our reason to withdraw all controls from Johnny's brother.

If this fear of controlling children joined them in mutual love, something might be said for it. It doesn't. All it does is join them in mutual contempt for grown-ups.

Tattling must be judged by the feeling behind it. If Johnny tattles out of a spiteful wish to hurt his brother, he needs knowledge of his motive and experience of it as unprofitable. But if he tattles out of concern for his brother, out of loyalty to a respected family regulation or moral value, then he must be credited with a sense of responsibility.

Use Ingenuity to Solve Problems

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Ingenuity is a fine thing to have, but unfortunately most of us don't exercise it, until our backs are against the wall.

Ideally we ought to go through life solving our problems with ease and skill, but my experience has been that it takes a bad blow before we develop and use our ingenuity.

"I began by being very brave," Sally L. told me, "when we discovered that John's firm was sending him to Venezuela for six months and I could not go along with our little boy.

"I thought I'd do some typing at home and make some money and keep busy. I assured John, as I kissed him goodbye, that we'd make out all right.

NOT EASY

"But it wasn't that easy.

"First of all, our little house that had seemed so rural and charming with John around, suddenly became just plain lonely.

"We were the kind who said we'd never have our picture window looking into someone else's picture window—and we didn't. We didn't have a neighbor within two miles!

"I found that nobody wanted me to do typing at home—at least, no one answered my ad.

"Then I began to worry about little Johnny. He was four and really needed other children to play with, yet our budget wouldn't allow for a nursery school.

"Finally, I decided no matter what else we had to go without, I would just have to put Johnny in a nursery school, because I was getting gloomier and lonelier by the day and he deserved some fun.

"I called one of the schools near us—I must have called them a dozen times—but never got an answer. This gave me a good idea.

* * *

"Bright and early one morning Johnny and I presented ourselves at the school and talked with the lady in charge.

EXCHANGED LABOR

"I told her I had tried to reach her by phone but no one answered. It turned out that she was so busy and understaffed, she sometimes couldn't answer the phone! I asked her if she could use an extra hand to answer the phone, type, file and do odd jobs, in return for Johnny's tuition. She thought it was a marvelous idea!

* * *

"Now," Sally concludes, "Johnny and I go to school every day and he loves it.

"Also, I've gotten to know a lot of the parents—some of them professional people—and I am getting a good bit of typing to do at home in the evenings when Johnny is asleep and when I'd otherwise be horribly lonely."

This is one more example of ingenuity coming to the fore when the going gets rough! And it's also an example of what a handy skill typing is—if you'll pardon my repeating myself!

If you don't know how to type, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my pamphlet Learning to Type at Home.

Can Peppers in Olive Oil for Relish

Soak Hot Ones Overnight in Brine Says Mrs. Pirtle

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

We received a request the other day for a recipe telling how to can peppers in olive oil. We think this recipe may be of more general interest and are publishing it for all our readers. Our authority on canning peppers is Mrs. Al Pirtle of Commerce Lake.

Mrs. Pirtle divides her time between an outside job and her home. She loves to garden and is most successful at it. Sewing is a favorite hobby. She also sings in a church choir.

CANNED PEPPERS IN OLIVE OIL
By Mrs. Al Pirtle

If hot peppers are used, soak overnight in a brine made of ¾ cup table salt (NOT Iodized) to 1 gallon of water. Sweet peppers need not be soaked.

Drain off brine in the morning. Pack peppers in jars and cover with following mixture: for each jar:

1 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon olive oil

Make a solution of 2 cups vinegar and 2 cups water. Bring to a boil and pour over peppers. Seal.

Mrs. Bickley Hosts Queen Mary Group

Queen Mary section of Needlework Guild met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Bickley on Mechanic street.

Mrs. Charles Clarke, president, conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Alec Joss was appointed chairman of the coffee hour for the annual Needlework Guild Ingathering being held in November. Mrs. Henry Milligan wil assist.

Reports were given by Mrs. Harvey Little, welfare chairman, and Mrs. Joss, knitting chairman. Letters of thanks were read from families receiving clothing from the group.

Sorority to Host Convention Here

Beta Theta Chapter of Lambda Chi Omega will be hostess to other Michigan chapters for the state convention being held at the Elks Temple, Oct. 14.

The announcement was made at the recent meeting of the sorority held at the Beverly road home of Mrs. Don Eilson. Delegates to the convention will be Mrs. Forrest Elwell and Mrs. Charles Kistner.

The group also discussed plans for the Nov. 9 dance at the Elks Temple. Dance proceeds will benefit the Muscular Dystrophy fund.

BARBARA JANE HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hill of Draper street announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jane of Fort Worth, Texas, to David A. Birkett. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Birkett of Fort Worth. A Nov. 24 wedding is planned.

To reside on Dwight avenue are Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lee Williams who were married Saturday evening. The bride is the former Martha Ruth Burris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Burris of Pingree avenue. Everett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lexie Williams of Baldwin avenue.

MRS. EVERETT LEE WILLIAMS

Martha Ruth Burris Wed to Everett Lee Williams

Before an alter banked with white pompons, chrysanthemums and palms, Martha Ruth Burris became the bride of Everett Lee Williams Saturday evening. The Rev. Hilding Bihl performed the 7:30 o'clock candlelight ceremony in First Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Everett Burris of Pingree avenue. Lee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lexie Williams of Baldwin avenue.

For her marriage the bride chose a gown of Italian silk and French lace, featuring a front panel of the lace appliqued with sequins and seed pearls. The empire bodice, with sabrina neckline, had long lace sleeves that tapered to points at the wrists.

A low-draped sash, tied in a soft bow with tapered steamers, accented the back of the gown and the skirt extended into a chapel fan train.

A square pillbox headpiece of sequins and seed pearls secured the bride's fingertip veil of illusion and she carried an arrangement of roses and ivy.

ATTENDANTS IN VELVET

Princess style gowns of sapphire blue velvet in ballerina-length were worn by the bridal attendants. Their headpieces were of matching color, and each carried a cascade bouquet of shocking pink chrysanthemums.

Suzanne Lilliquist was the bride's maid of honor and Mrs. Carl Fifield, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Her other attendants were Mrs. John Spears, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Robert Laity.

Jerry Lawrence served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Lowell Satterlee, Carl Christensen and Marvin Caswell.

RECEPTION HELD

When Mrs. Burris received her guests at the reception, held immediately following the ceremony in the church parlors, she was wearing a navy blue sheath with pink sequin hat and navy blue accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses and feathered carnations.

Mrs. Williams chose a gown of mauve satin with matching hat and navy blue accessories for her son's wedding. Her corsage was also of pink roses and carnations.

Following the wedding trip in Canada the newlyweds will reside on Dwight street.

17 New Sylvanites Gather for Meeting

Seventeen members of the New Sylvanites Club were present when Mrs. Harold McGraw opened her home on Beverly avenue for a Thursday evening meeting. Guests were Mrs. Robert Hay, Mrs. Earl Kuehl, Mrs. Thomas White, and Mrs. Patricia Papineau.

At the close of the business session, the group held a white elephant sale, followed by cards. Mrs. Robert Menees of Maplewood avenue will be hostess for the next meeting.

Reception Fetes New Principal of Bagley School

A reception honoring John F. Perdue, new principal of the Bagley School, was held recently in the school gymnasium.

Greeting guests with Mr. Perdue and his wife were Mrs. William White, president of Bagley PTA; Mrs. William Mihalik, president of the Pontiac PTA Council, Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of public schools; and the 10 teachers who recently joined the Bagley staff.

Dr. Whitmer introduced Mr. Perdue to the group. Also introduced were Mrs. Mihalik and Mrs. White.

Mrs. Bernard Thompson presented a piano selection, and "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Mrs. James Overton accompanied by Mrs. Colen McGlown. Dr. Roy Cooley provided background music for the occasion, sponsored by the Bagley PTA an dother groups.

Teachers to Meet

The Teachers Exchange Club will meet Thursday at the Ottawa drive home of Mrs. Marjorie Cotterman. The event of the 7:30 p.m. meeting will be a "Poly" Party, a money-making project for the group. It will also be a Guest Night affair.

MRS. ROBERT BROWN

Dinner Is Held by Trabajamas

At the Wednesday evening dinner meeting of Trabajamas Alumnae Chapter One, held at Old Mill Tavern, Mrs. Robert Brown assumed her duties as president.

Others elected to serve are Mrs. Jim Smith, vice president; Mrs. Edward Shaw, treasurer; Mrs. Donald Treece, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Henry Grace, recording secretary; Mrs. Donald Ostrander and Mrs. Richard Rosenbaum, sergeants-at-arms; and Sandy Johns, historian. Mrs. Earl Skrobeck will handle publicity.

New member Joan Richards was honored at the dinner meeting.

Local DeMolay Mothers Elect Mrs. McVean

Mrs. Duncan McVean was elected president of the Pontiac DeMolay Mothers Club at its Thursday meeting, held in the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Dale Moats presided and Mrs. James Ryan gave the Mothers' Prayer. Mrs. Fred Mittledorf was appointed nominations chairman with Mrs. Matt Shelton and Mrs. Ryan Tellers.

Also elected at the meeting were Mrs. Socrates Sekles as vice-president, Mrs. Irving Mills, secretary; Mrs. Clifford McLean, treasurer and Mrs. Lloyd Reynolds, chaplain.

Officers were installed by Mrs. Moats and Ed Zielke, father adviser of the Pontiac chapter, presented Mrs. Moats with her Past President Pin.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 1 and all mothers of DeMolay boys are asked to attend.

Too Thin?—Tips to Round Out Sharp Angles

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Most women have to train like jockeys in order to keep their weight down and their figures lovely. Most of us have such a struggle that we sometimes forget there are many others who would like to have those pounds we lose. It is too bad that we cannot set up some kind of a pound exchange.

Underweight presents a woman with problems. She longs for curves and often would even settle for "pleasing plumpness." She may be flat chested or may dislike pipestem legs. She may not have enough curve at the hipline, and prominent collar bones may make her unhappy.

In dieting either to gain or to lose weight, individual eccentricities in digestion and taste must be taken into consideration. Some persons also have food allergies.

If a certain food disagrees with you then you will have to have to substitute another food. You must be certain that this belongs to the same food classification or family. Otherwise your diet will not remain well balanced.

You should also be sure that the substitute food has about the same number of calories. Care should be taken with these substitutes, because a good diet provides you with all of the foods essential for good health.

'KNOW-HOW' NEEDED

For instance you would not substitute vegetables for meat or a starchy vegetable for a leafy one. One kind of green leafy vegetable can be used in the place of another, fruits can be exchanged.

If orange juice does not agree with you drink tomato juice, but drink twice as much since tomatoes are not as rich in vitamin C as orange juice is.

Meat, fish and fowl, are all fine protein foods and can be interchanged. Often a person who cannot drink sweet milk can tolerate buttermilk.

Always remember that vitamin deficiency is one reason for underweight. Therefore if you wish to gain weight be sure to get lots of fresh vegetables and fruits even though they are not high in calorie count.

Do not forget the dried beans and lima beans. They are fine for health and relatively high in calories. Stewed prunes and apricots will load on the pounds.

* * *

Do not stuff until you are uncomfortable. Eat five meals a day instead of three. Two of them can be snacks to build up your health and your weight. If you can add a little extra cream to your whole milk this is a great aid in pound collecting.

Mild exercise is a gaining aid. Plenty of sleep is a must. Cut out the tenseness which goes along with hurrying whenever possible. Learn to live in a relaxed manner. You will accomplish just as much with less wear and tear.

If you would like to have my calorie chart send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 36 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Sometimes it is more important for a woman to know about feminine figures than about geometry. If you will observe your sisters as they walk past you on the street, in a hotel lobby, in a train or airplane terminal, in a restaurant, any place where there are crowds, you will discover the most usual of all feminine figure faults—the protruding abdomen!

This is a badge of neglect rather than years. The reasons for this defect are varied. As we grow older we are likely to pick up some pounds we do not need and these land where we least want them.

Also, lack of exercise and poor posture cause the abdominal muscles to become lax. Pregnancy stretches these strong bands which should act as a natural girdle. However, special exercises can correct this condition.

* * *

I know this to be true because of my experience in teaching figure-molding classes. Many pupils who had such weak abdominal muscles they could not lie on their backs and lift the legs from the floor, had no difficulty in executing rather difficult abdominal exercises after a course of daily exercise.

HEALTH INSURANCE

We need strong abdominal muscles for health as well as for good looks. However, if you are determined to blame a protruding abdomen on years, nature will abet you in your complacent spread!

Today and tomorrow I am going to give you exercises which will help you rid yourself of this aging figure fault.

Lie on the floor on your back with your feet tucked under the end of a divan or bed or chair. Your arms rest on the floor overhead, legs straight. Raise your trunk and touch your fingertips to your feet. Return to starting position. Continue.

Later on you will be able to do this more difficult exercise: Take the same starting position with the following exception. Bend your elbows and place your hands behind your head, palms facing the head. Keep your arms in this position as you raise and lower your trunk.

If you have not taken exercises for some time and especially if you are past early youth, have your heart and blood pressure checked before you begin.

* * *

Perhaps you would like to have my tested abdominal exercises. If so, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 2 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Tomorrow: "Today's Styles Demand More Figure Attention."

Wayside Gleaners Hear Mrs. McCully

Barnett Chapel of First Baptist Church was the Friday meeting place of the Wayside Gleaners Society. Mrs. Edward McCully spoke of her work among the Indians in Ecuador.

Mrs. Al Degen chose the topic, "Trust in the Lord," for the devotions. Joe Davis sang several solos, accompanied by Eleanor Hassenzahl.

Mrs. H. C. Armstrong served as hostess with Mrs. Walter De Nio as chairman.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 2 when the Rev. Edward D. Auchard of the First Presbyterian Church will speak.

City Teachers Back From Higgins Lake Parley

Educators Report Need for Parent-Teacher Conferences

By MARGARET COLE

Teachers and educators who attended the sixth annual Pontiac Educators Conference at Higgins Lake this weekend returned to their classrooms today inspired to translate School-Home Communications findings into action.

The three-day conference began Friday with a general session that brought together teachers, principals, administrators resource people and PTA representatives.

Purpose of the gathering was to discuss ways in which better communications could be established between parent, teacher and student.

Workshops were held to attempt to determine how our educational program can meet the needs for this communication program; when it can be done; what the effect will be on the school room; and what is expected of the school system.

REPORT-CARD STUDY

An evaluation of the report-card study made in Pontiac schools was also conducted during the workshop method of communication.

* * *

Teacher-parent conferences were recognized as a most important means of communication and great stress was placed on the need to anticipate the fears of people so that there would be no misconceptions or misunderstandings.

Dr. Brownell

"In dealing with individuals, what is effective with one is not with the other and we must recognize the variations," said Dr. Samual Brownell, superintendent of Detroit Public Schools, keynote speaker during the conference.

"We must remember that there are many avenues of communication over which we have no control, and that parents may get slanted information in this way," Dr. Brownell continued.

"For years and years we have tried to use a system in which we have to interpret before we can put it into code. What we mean and the way it is interpreted can make a great difference."

Stressing home-school communications, Dr. Brownell said, "We should utilize the English language more and codes less. I feel it is important to report to parents and to report symptoms."

PARENTS WANT TO KNOW

The speaker reminded his listeners to keep in mind that parents want to know whether children are learning things that are essential and that schools were established to assist parents not parents to assist schools.

"Children go through school today because it is compulsory, not knowing the history of public education and its significance to the nation and to them as individuals," Dr. Brownell said.

In concluding, Dr. Brownell said, "It's the little things that go on in a variety of ways that add up to a comprehensive whole that means good working relationships. I think we have underestimated the fact that the child of today is the parent of tomorrow."

Dr. Russell Curtis and Donald Dolan conducted the final session. Speaking at the session, Dr. Leon S. Waskin, chief of curriculum services, department of public education, said: "If we can allow time for conferences there will be a greater understanding between parents and teachers. Fellowship is a tremendous asset."

Mr. Dolan reminded group members that they needed a constant criticism of their outer evaluation of freedom to communicate with people.

"We have a tremendous job in schools and we should put our ingenuity and imagination to work right now," he said.

Attending the Pontiac Educators Conference for the second year, Dr. Guy Hill of Michigan State University said we must start thinking in terms of what we can do to change our educational program to make adjustments for atomic program. "Ultimately all we can bring the pupil to be is objective; we have not yet matured to the point where we have become objective," he concluded.

* * *

The general consensus of the conference was the Pontiac schools are ready for more parent-teacher conferences and are in a position to start an action School-Home Communications program.

Polio Vaccinations Start Oct. 15 at MSU

EAST LANSING (AP)—Polio vaccinations will be started Oct. 15 for the some 18,300 students on the Michigan State University campus, MSU officials said today.

The campus-wide program is believed to be the first of its kind in the country.

The program of supplying the Salk Vaccine shots for the students was suggested by the student government.

Vaccination will be on a voluntary basis and a $2 fee will be charged to help cover the cost of the program.

MSU Hospital nurses will give the first shots through the entire week of Oct. 15. Second shots will be given two weeks later and the third and final shot will be administered during the spring term.

Modern 'Cousin' of Gatling Gun Can Fire 6,000 Bullets a Minute

By HOWARD H. FITZGERALD II
Business Manager: The Pontiac Press

AIR PROVING GROUND COMMAND, Eglin, AFB, Fla.—In order to keep pace with the supersonic speeds of today's fighters, the Air Ground Proving Command Sunday unveiled its new T-171 "Vulcan" 20mm aircraft machine gun. The new weapon has a cyclic rate of 6,000 rounds per minute and is the modern application of the old Civil War Gatling Gun.

The T-171 contains six 20mm barrels which, together with the major portion of the feed mechanism, rotates at high speed.

Each barrel fires once per revolution as it comes into firing position. The power for the rotation is provided by either an electric or hydraulic motor as contrasted with the normal gas or recoil operated guns.

The gun is manufactured by General Electric and is designed for use by the Strategic Air Command, the Tactical Air Command, and Air Defense Command. At present the gun is being tested in the F-94B fighter which simulates a forward firing installation and in the tail turret of a B-47 for bomber defense application.

★ ★ ★

During World War II the technique known as "skip-bombing" was evolved. This was adequate for the delivery of high explosives on the enemy. However, since the A and H Bombs have been added to our armament, the delivery has provided a problem.

It has been solved with a variation called "toss-bombing."

As the aircraft approaches the target low, it pulls up, releasing the bomb as it passes either the 60-90 or 110 degree point in its climb, depending on the type of target.

As the bomb follows its trajectory to the target, the aircraft executes an "Immelman" (an inverted half roll) and flies safely away out of range of the bomb blast.

This new technique is being tested at the Air Proving Ground Command for use by the Tactical Air Command.

After watching the Air Force flex its new muscles and refine its new ones, it gives one a satisfaction of knowing that come what may the U. S. Air Force is ready to meet and defeat any power misguided enough to think it can win.

★ ★ ★

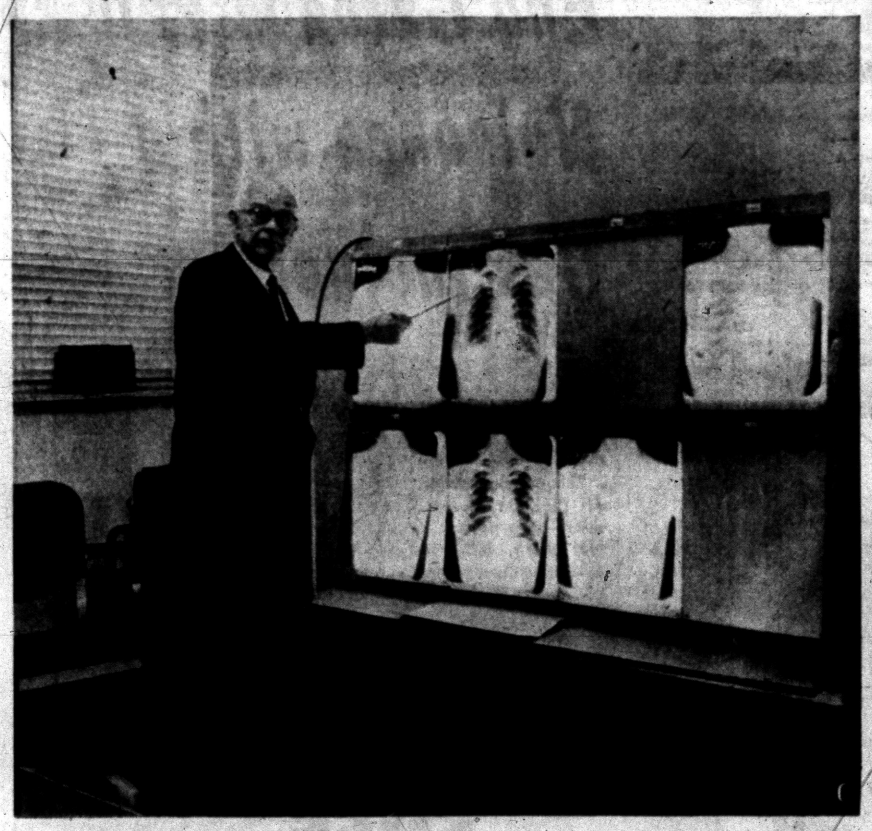
The success of the aerial firepower demonstration for the group representing the 10th Air Force goes to Maj. Gen. Robert E. L. Eaton, commanding officer and to his able assistant, Col. Paul E. Todd. Without these two fine officers, our tour would have lacked much. Also Capt. John Macha, our escort officer at Eglin, should be commended on the way he handled our questions concerning the 800 square mile Air Proving Ground.

Camera Peeks Into County's Spacious New Health Center

NEW $300,000 HEALTH CENTER—A rear view shows the expanse of aluminum-framed windows in Oakland County's new health center at 1070 N. Telegraph Rd. Clinics and offices are on the long main floor. There is a conference room for employes and maintenance facilities in the smaller basement. Also shown above is the terraced play area for children. Pontiac Press Photos

COMMODIOUS OFFICES — Lots of light, air conditioning and decorations in various pastel shades help make a happy working day for office employes at the new health center. Part of the staff above work with the county's Salk polio vaccine program. The vaccine is stored in the refrigerator at the right.

ALMOST FUN — Dr. C. L. Leftwich, dentist in the children's clinic, tells stories about the "bad cavity and the good toothbrush" to amuse and instruct youngsters. With the help of technician Colleen O'Halloran (left), he tries to make children forget fears and lets them watch the proceedings. The new county health center has a dentist's drill which squirts warm water to ease pain.



TB PREVENTION — X-ray records of tubercular patients remain an important function at the county health department's new center. Dr. John S. Lambie, above, county medical coordinator, points to plates which show that hundreds of cured patients must return periodically to the center for checkups. The center takes X-rays in the public interest.

COMFY BOSS — In a brand new office after years at the crowded courthouse annex in downtown Pontiac, Dr. John D. Monroe directs the activities of the county health department. He is in charge of the offices shown on this page, as well as county sanitation, field nursing and vital statistics. All of the activities are now located at the new health center.

Quips About Sickness

Wilson Back at Pentagon Reading 'Get Well' Mail

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson returned to his Pentagon office today saying he felt "surprisingly well, after fooling with the doctors" who performed surgery on him two weeks ago.

* * *

The Pentagon boss found his desk piled high with get well cards and messages of cheer. One card, which prompted Wilson to quip that there is at least "one discerning Democrat," read:

"Dear sir; I wouldn't vote Republican for less than $100,000 tax free, but I like you and hope you will get well soon. (signed) A Democrat."

* * *

Just two weeks ago, doctors at Walter Reed Army Hospital here performed surgery to correct what they said was "a benign prostatic condition." Wilson left the hospital last week but remained in his Washington apartment until this morning.

Among the papers on Wilson's desk was a report of a political poll indicating that national defense was considered a major election issue by only 2 per cent of the people polled.

* * *

Wilson commented that it "looks to me like the people think that defense is being handled pretty well," and added, "This is one time I didn't want top billing."

Seek Clues in Rape-Slaying

Find Girl, 20, Stabbed to Death in California Home

LANCASTER, Calif. (AP)—Authorities sought further clues today in the rape-slaying of a young, religious-minded girl who was stabbed to death with a carving knife.

* * *

The pajama-clad body of Jody Diane Burford, 20, was found yesterday sprawled on the living room floor of the house she had managed for her father and younger brother since the divorce of her parents.

Sheriff's deputies said a medical examination confirmed she had been raped. The carving knife was found in the room, its blade broken off near the hilt. Investigators said the victim was stabbed five times.

Officers issued an all points bulletin seeking Charles Raymond Elms, 17, believed to be an acquaintance of Jody's brother, for questioning in the case. Sheriff's Sgt. Ray Hopkinson said the youth has been missing since Saturday night.

The body was found by the victim's brother, Hal Burford Jr., 15, and a friend, Robert Alonzo, also 15.

Cypriot Sentenced to Hang for Killing

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—A 22-year-old Greek Cypriot was found guilty today of killing a British police sergeant and was sentenced to be hanged.

* * *

Nicos Tsartellis, a grocer from Larnaca, was convicted in Nicosia special court of the fatal shooting of Sgt. Reginald William Tipple at Larnaca last June 21.

Tsartellis protested: "I did not shoot him. I am completely innocent."

When the sentence was pronounced, Tsartellis' wife, sister and mother fainted and other relatives burst into tears. "This is a disgrace to English justice," the condemned man shouted.

Tsartellis is the father of one child and his wife is expecting another.

Mayor Asks for Cleanup

City Fights Fire Hazards

A plea to clean up fire hazards has been made by Mayor William W. Donaldson in proclaiming Fire Prevention Week from yesterday through Oct. 13.

* * *

"Everyone should pitch in to make our community a safer place to live and work," he said.

The local campaign coincides with a national effort, proclaimed by President Eisenhower, to cut down on death and destruction caused by fire.

Most experts agree that just a little smart prevention goes a long way. Simple things easy to remedy, such as bad wiring, careless smoking, piled rubbish, thoughtless use of stoves and furnaces—these are what everyone should be on guard against.

ASKS COOPERATION

The mayor called on all city departments and agencies to bring that message to the public.

He priased the fire department and the schools for their cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce Fire Prevention Committee's program this week. Harvey Johns is committee chairman.

The program is highlighted by a demonstration by firemen at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at Northside Park, Edison street and Montcalm avenue.

The committee invited requests for free inspection of fire hazards at home, directed by Fire Chief John Schroeder.

School children will be shown movies and demonstrations pointing out the dangers of fire and how to prevent them.

New Steel So Thin It Costs More Than Gold

NEW YORK—A recently developed electrical steel is rolled so thin it is literally worth more than its weight in gold. A stack of 8,000 sheets stands no higher than an inch. It is made in strips up to two inches wide.

The ultrathin steel is planned for use in such highly specialized fields as radar equipment, atomic energy, and in memory sections of electronic computers.

Hatoyama Off to Seek Russia Peace Treaty

TOKYO (AP)—Prime Minister Ichiro Hatoama flew toward Moscow today, hoping to sign a World War II peace treaty with the Soviet Union. He is due Friday night.

* * *

The 73-year-old Prime Minister has been under heavy fire from political enemies and newspapers contending his poor health makes him unfit to tackle the Russians. It is generally expected he will quit his office, or be forced out, before the end of the year.

"I feel certain I will return successful," he said before leaving.

* * *

Hatoyama has anhounced he hopes to postpone a decision on the future of the disputed Southern Kurile Islands north of Japan. Russia had occupied them since the war, and the issue has blocked two previous sets of treaty negotiations.

Bob Considine Says:

Our Election May Be Eye-Opener for Reds

NEW YORK (INS)—John Foster Dulles scored a bullseye with his proposal, since accepted, that the Russians send a group of observers over here this fall to see what a free and unfettered election looks like.

* * *

No matter how dedicated these Communist visitors are, they will take back with them an indelible memory of free people voting freely for free candidates in a great election year.

The contrast with their own regimented, rigged elections should be striking enough to give them pause and doubt which could conceivably express itself in a way that would interest the world.

It would be fine, I think, if the State Department asked Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, last free premier of Poland, to accompany the Communist group as it makes the rounds of polling places and sees the end of the campaign for office.

* * *

Mikolajczyk could embellish the tour by pointing out that when the Reds took over his country they did so under the guise of a "free and unfettered" election (which Poles had been promised by Stalin, Churchill and Roosevelt) but they introduced certain improvements.

CANDIDATES JAILED

For example, hundreds of candidates for office who opposed Soviet rule were jailed just before the election. Some were shot. Every device was used to force people to vote for the Communist candidate in each race.

* * *

Whole blocks of apartment houses were emptied in Warsaw and their people marched off to the poll, with music and submachineguns, to vote the straight party ticket.

A man who would compare in this country to an independent suddenly found himself without his food ration ticket, or his family moved into a foul room with two other groups.

Even in the face of all this, the great courageous heart of Poland responded stoutly. People by the thousands found ways and means of voting against the Commies, though it might mean the end of them.

* * *

Eventually, the Reds had to throw free votes in the river to make the final figures platable to Moscow.

ADMIRABLE GUIDE

Mikolajczyk would be an admirable guide for the visiting Russians. He won't get the bid, of course. The State Department will want to do nothing more vigorous than point out our differences by inference, not the direct approach.

That's better than nothing. But I can dream, can't I?

* * *

Both candidates are worried about "getting out the vote" this time. We hear a lot about Republican complacency especially.

The Census Bureau has compounded the worry by pointing out that the incredible total of 102,000,000 Americans will be eligible to register to vote this year, if they register.

It suggests, off past figures, that maybe about 70,000,000 will get around to it, which would be a record. To break it down a bit more, the bureau says that there will be somewhere between five million and six million more women voters than men.

* * *

That further alarms the politicos, and the poll takers. Women are by nature more inclined to be independent politically than men. At the summit of his popularity in 1952 Ike won the duke by a little more than 6,000,000 votes.

NO GUARANTEE

The Census Bureau could make no guarantee about the percentage of registered voters as opposed to the overall figure of the eligible. But let us say, as we've said before, that countless men and women have died for our right to vote.

* * *

As a materially weak little group of colonists we won independence with that in mind.

There have been wars and conflicts ever since, all of them aimed at preserving the priceless right and duty to express ourselves at the polls as free people and defenders of free people everywhere.

If we let it pass we are individually a living affront to good Americans living and dead who toiled and sacrificed themselves to provide us this chance.

End of sermon.

Altar Boy Wins Antarctic Stay

17-Year-Old Prepares for 'Operation Deep Freeze' Expedition

PEORIA, Ill.—A 17-year-old altar boy is preparing for a six-month stay with "Operation Deep Freeze" in the South Pole area.

* * *

Judged outstanding Civil Air Patrol cadet, Robert N. Barger of St. Cecilia's parish here, was awarded the tour in competition with the nation's 51,000 CAP cadets.

He will join the navy-airforce expedition to the Antarctic where a scientific observation post will be set up for the coming International Geophysical year.

Barger is a CAP cadet major and commander of the Peoria cadet squadron. He recently returned from a month in Denmark, where he went on a CAP exchange program.

Selection to take part in the Antarctic operation was based on honor, character and leadership, plus photographic, writing and public speaking ability.

Young Barger has been active in the Civil Air Patrol for the past four years. He will make stops at the photographic school of Douglas Aircraft Corp., Santa Monica, Calif.; Bolling Air Force base, Washington, D. C., and Donaldson Air Force base, Greenville, S. C.

He will also make radio and television appearances in New York City.

He will leave the United States on Oct. 10, for base headquarters in New Zealand.

World War II Vets Pay Loans Up Fast

DETROIT (AP)—About 2 of every 11 GI loans issued to Michigan veterans since the end of World War II have already been repaid in full.

Lloyd H. Jameson, VA regional manager, said 34,072 loans for homes, farms and business ventures totaling 184 million dollars have been marked paid in full.

The VA has been forced to pay claims on only 1,767 defaulted loans in Michigan. They resulted in a net loss to the government of $1,023,750—slightly less than 70 cents for every $1,000 borrowed by the ex-GI's.

Stalin Era Censors Lose Heavy Grip

Cool Jazz Definitely on the Upswing in Russia as Swingsters Get Hep!

By CHARLES KLENSCH

MOSCOW (INS) — Both the weather and the music have been unusual in Moscow the past few months—it's been real cool in both departments.

Ten thousand youngsters a night, ignoring topcoat weather, filled the Gorky Park Open-Air Theater to stomp with the Polish "blue jazz" band.

Another group of satellite swingsters from Hungary and a Norwegian variety combo also set the boots and sandals tapping in Moscow this summer.

Local jazz maestros Leonid Utyosov and Eddy Rozner have played to capacity houses at the Hermitage Summer Theater. After a decade of swinging low to avoid official displeasure, they're taking the downbeat with a new confidence, not having to keep watch for the censors over their shoulders.

PRESS PUBLICIZES

The press has given space to pro-swing and jazz critics tuned to the American invitation to the dance.

The Voice of America's "Music U.S.A." feature has scored such a heavy Hooper with Soviet youngsters that the newspapers have been obliged to take note ("the endless recorded American jazz broadcasts over the radio station in Tangiers.")

* * *

The young Communist league newspaper "Komsomol Pravda" has acknowledged the trend—and, apparently, a flood of requests—by publishing a photo of Duke Ellington captioned, "The talented bandleader and musician known in America as 'the King of Jazz'."

Now that the Soviets have seen the "long-haired" side of American jazz during the triumphal tour of "Porgy & Bess" they may be about ready to give Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong his long-sought chance to "blow my horn for those cats in Russia."

The cultural commissars haven't bought bop or Elvis Presley. They still have reservations about jazz. But the reactionary Stalin-era music czars have lost their heavy-handed grip.

A Komsomol Pravda critic outlines the current "liberal" line on jazz this way:

During the past two decades "jazz abroad developed, roughly speaking, along two different paths—that of tune and melody and that of eccentric rhythm and sound.

"If we take Gershwin's jazz songs as an example of the first, then all and sundry boogie-woogies are an illustration of the second.

"The first is pleasing; the second, mostly repugnant."

Fables Galore Sprouted from Great Blaze

Chicago Still Debates Part of O'Leary Cow in Fire

By RICHARD GERSHMAN

CHICAGO (INS) — What the O'Leary cow had to do with the great Chicago fire of 1871 has sprouted more fables than a leprechaun's brew.

* * *

And today, 85 years later, Chicago folk are still debating over whether the cow was kicking a gambling king known as "Big Jim" O'Leary — branded the lantern-kicking story as "the monumental fake of the last century." He told a newspaper in 1909 that:

"The origin of the blaze was spontaneous combustion of 'green hay.' I'll give odds of 1,000 to one that I can prove it.

* * *

"Who would be milking a cow at quarter past nine at night? The cows were always milked at half-past four, when it was light enough so we didn't need a light or lantern at all."

When Patrick and Catherine O'Leary were contentedly keeping cows before the fire, the then not-so-big Jim was only two. When he died in 1925, it was not known whether he had any takers for his 1,000-to-one odds.

against Mrs. O'Leary's intrusion or a party of revelers pilfering milk for a whisky punch.

Other accounts deny there even was a lantern to be kicked over. Some say the Oct. 8 holocaust which killed 300 persons and destroyed 17,450 buildings was touched off by a pair of boys sneaking a smoke. Another version brands the fire as a Communist plot.

No one can agree. Not even on whether the cow was named Madeline or Gwendolyn, nor whether she perished in the sea of flames that shone for 30 miles along Lake Michigan — or wound up as sausage in Frank Schult's shop a few doors from the O'Leary home.

An O'Leary son — who became

His outburst had followed a sermon in the Whitney Opera House in which The Rev. John Leek asserted the O'Leary cow was thrashing in protest against three youths who were milking her to mix a whisky punch. The reverend said he got it straight from Andrew Bird, because two of the youths — Christopher O'Neill, 14, and his 12-year-old brother, Sam — attended Bird's Bible class.

The whisky punch saga takes a different twist at the hands of other spokesmen.

One yarn blames the McLaughlins who rented an annex of the O'Leary home. With the arrival of a cousin from the "auld sod," the gala festivities required more than beer. And milk was needed for punch, so several set out for the barn with a bucket.

DENIES STORY

Mrs. McLaughlin denied this vehemently — as vehemently as Mrs. O'Leary, herself, stormed against the version spread by the son of the first fireman to arrive at the blazing barn.

This man, Col. Harry Musham, insisted that the 35-year-old Mrs. O'Leary, after tippling at Frank Schult's store, went home and, at around eight o'clock, went out to the barn for milk.

* * *

Both O'Learys testified under oath that they were in bed at that hour.

The Board of Police of the Fire Department held an official open investigation from Nov. 23 to Dec. 4, 1871. After quizzing 50 witnesses and evaluating the testimony, the official finding was:

"The origin of the fire could not be definitely arrived at, but from all the circumstances connected with the case, it is currently believed to have been set through the careless action of some person or persons at present unknown."

Yet this didn't get Mrs. O'Leary off the hook. Her family physician, Dr. Swuane Wickersham, told a newsman in 1884:

"It would be impossible for me to describe to you the grief and indignation with which Mrs. O'Leary views the place that has been assigned her in history.

"That she is regarded as the cause, even accidentally, of the great Chicago fire, is the grief of her life."

* * *

It is said that the saddened Mrs. O'Leary moved to a new home near Chicago's stockyards — almost within earshot of mooing cows—and died of a broken heart.

BOLD VOYAGERS — 1

Leif the Lucky

About the year 1000 the boldest sailors in the world were Vikings, who came from Norway, Sweden and Denmark seeking new lands and riches.

One of their leaders, Eric the Red, settled in Greenland. From there in 1000 his son, Leif the Lucky, sailed westward. He found a spot he called Vineland for the berries growing there. Many believe this was the coast of Massachusetts and that the berries were cranberries.

According to stories which came down to us, Leif's sister and her husband founded a colony there, and their son was the first white child born on these shores. After three years the colony was given up, and no trace of it has ever been found.

This week we are bringing you a collection of adventurous voyagers and their ships. First in your collection is this picture of Leif. Use your crayons to color it and then paste it down on cardboard.

Cut out the parts and cut the dotted outline around the strap on his wrist. Put this through the slit indicated in the center of his shield. Cut the slit shown in the helmet and put it on his head. Fold back the end panels and Leif will stand.

How to Win an Election, GOP Puts It All in Book

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Republican National Committee has come up with a GOP politician's "dream" — a handy, pocket-sized booklet that gives his party's answer on just about every possible issue.

Entitled the "Republican Speakers Handbook," the 3½x5½-inch booklet is described by the committee as "your key campaign document."

The committee says it will have available two free copies for each request. If quantities are needed, they can be bought at 30 cents each.

On the blue cover are quotations from President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon on how the GOP campaign should be conducted.

ADVICE

The President: "Tell the truth; tell it forcefully. The record is there; and it is good."

Nixon: "Plain talk will do the job."

The booklet is indexed so any speaker caught unawares by a question can quickly thumb to the correct page to find the party's answer.

The index ranges from "Accomplishments Summary," which covers two pages and lists 14 items, to "Youth," which is confined to one page and includes four points.

* * *

The seven-page index lists 205 subjects. Some of them are on the same general subject, however. For example, there are eight different items concerning agriculture.

Despite the GOP's "Peace and Prosperity" campaign slogan, there is no "Peace" listing in the index and only three under "Prosperity." These two subjects are covered in detail under other headings.

The booklet contains six headings referring to former President Harry S. Truman and only three under Adlai Stevenson's name although more space is devoted to Stevenson.

116 PAGES

The book has 116 printed pages with 10 blank pages in the back for note-taking by any user who gets some ideas of his own he wants to keep available.

It opens like a notebook and is a revision from a similar booklet put out some months ago in limited quantities.

A spokesman explained the new edition has been brought up to date and the change in its form was made to provide easier handling by the campaigner who wants a quick answer.

Even Disc Jockey Becomes Traitor to U. S. Homes

TV Lures Housewives Away From Duties

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—Ever since television came in, American homes have become gradually grimier.

The reason, of course, is that housewives have gone and goofed-off on the chores because of their fascination for the insidious monster with the glassy eye.

You simply cannot keep a clean house and a clear view of the screen simultaneously; and surveys prove that the little woman has made her decision. . .

If it's a choice between elbow-grease and entertainment, the missus will take the latter.

* * *

The one "white hope" for the preservation of order in the American home has been the disc jockey radio show. Here was a bouncy sort of program that generally kept women on their toes and perking with the duties. (The only exception is brides, whose efficiency tends to drop off sharply during the rendering of sentimental ballads.)

"I always said," said Martin Block, one of the nation's top disc jockeys, "that radio music was a great inspiration to keep a woman on the job. It made her work pleasant. She didn't have to stop to cry or worry or laugh, as she has to if she's watching morning TV shows.

"Yes, I always said as long as they just keep disc jockeys on radio, there will be fewer husbands coming home to unmade beds."

So a couple of weeks ago, Block—utterly untrue to his word—removed the last vestige of hope for a cleaner domestic America by taking his famed 20-year-old radio show, "Make Believe Ballroom," to television.

Now all his fans, who once worked efficiently to the top 85 or so tunes of any given day, presumably are goofing with the rest of the girls and watching with lazy fascination while Martin works.

"It seems to us," we told him sharply, "that you are going back on a personal principle. Why?"

WITHOUT A BLUSH

Dapper, self-possessed Block did not blush.

"I have changed my principle somewhata," he said, "on the basis that women can turn on their television sets and still not watch them.. That is, they spent a great deal of money for their television sets, and they want to get a lot of use out of them—but they need not look at them all the time.

"Just a glance now and then is all that is necessary. They still have the music they enjoyed on the radio show, but they have also the comforting feeling that they are not alone—that there is 'presence' encouraging them to keep up the good work."

To rationalize his change of mind, and to keep listeners on the ball, Block opens his show with such homey advice as, "Now don't let me keep you from doing your housework."

* * *

He also tosses in, between records, an occasional "Ah-ah-ah, no keeping now. The kids'll be home from school in a few minutes!"

Martin Block says he sincerely hopes that his devoted lady followers are adhering to his advice about not peeking at the screen, because he wants that housework done, by George!

His six sponsors sincerely hope that, in so saying, he is either kidding or crazy!

'Suicide Service' Set Up in Berlin

BERLIN (INS)—Pastors and psychiatrists have set up a new "suicide service" in Berlin.

On the average, two people a day kill themselves in the city.

The new service, similar to organizations in Stockholm, London and Vienna, answers calls at any hour from desperate, would-be suicides.

Agence France Presse reported that the service was decided on at a meeting in Berlin of the Council of the Order of Saint Luke.

The agency said that 12,000 to 13,000 Germans commit suicide each year.

Serum to Use Live Polio Virus

Convicts Agree to Test Vaccine Taken Orally, Developed in Ohio

CINCINNATI (AP) — Tests with Chillicothe Reformatory volunteers will be the first hurdle toward studies in the United States and abroad for a new "live virus" polio vaccine.

That's the report last night by the vaccine developer, Dr. Albert B. Sabin of the University of Cincinnati.

He said that results at the federal institution will have a strong bearing on plans he has made with fellow scientists for steadily widening tests of the vaccine.

Dr. Sabin, professor of research pediatrics at the UC College of Medicine, has championed development of a polio vaccine using a live but harmless virus that can be easily taken by swallowing.

* * *

He reported development of a promising "highly attenuated" version of his live virus vaccine last Saturday at a conference here of the Ohio Valley section of the Society for Experimental Biology and Medicines.

The polio researcher emphasized that the new development represents a "distinct" new step, but that it is still undergoing cautious tests.

He said, "It must be pointed out that this merely represents the next step forward in the experimental studies on an oral polio vaccine, rather than a transition to mass immunization."

* * *

He said the tests at Chillicothe will be the first with the highly attenuated live virus on humans

And the trials may not start until early 1957. "First we must get the vaccine prepared and tested," he said.

Unions Boost Schreier

DETROIT (AP)—John F. Schreier, assistant regional director for the AFL-CIO in Michigan, will become assistant national director of organizing for the combined union Oct. 15. Schreier, who joined the AFL's organizing staff in 1937, will direct AFL-CIO organizing in 11 midwestern states, including Michigan.

Four American firms now established in Northern Ireland are urging other United States companies to come there, Belfast reports. An available labor force is one incentive.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drugstores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

P.S. DOCTORS PRESCRIBE SPECIAL LAXATIVE TO EASE PAINFUL ELIMINATION WHILE SHRINKING PILES

The makers of Preparation H also make Petro-Syllium®, a special type laxative prescribed by doctors for hemorrhoid sufferers. Softens hard dry stool and assures easy elimination without pain. Ask for Petro-Syllium.

PASS SNATCHER — Herb Rich (27) of the New York Giants, leaps high to intercept a Chicago Cardinal pass in the end zone at Comiskey Park yesterday where the Cards beat the Giants, 35-27. Don Stonesifer (80) is the Cardinal end who was the intended receiver.

Maglie Makes Encore Against Yanks in 5th Game

NEW YORK (AP)—If the World Series continues at the present pace, with neither team able to win on the road, the Brooklyn Dodgers will repeat as world champions—in seven games.

* * *

For the first four games the Series has followed the exact pattern of last year's, only in reverse. New York's 6-2 victory yesterday behind the surprisingly strong pitching of Tom Sturdivant plunged the Series into a 2-all deadlock as it moved into the fifth game today.

Sal Maglie, winner of the opener at Ebbets Field, comes back for Brooklyn to face Don Larsen, who couldn't hold a 6-0 lead in the second game, also won by the Dodgers. The Yankees roared back to win the next two, both at Yankee Stadium.

* * *

In the 1955 Series, the Yankees won the first two games in their home park and the Dodgers took the next pair at Ebbets Field. The teams continued to win in their home parks until the final game when Johnny Podres broke the string with his brilliant 2-0 victory at Yankee Stadium to bring the first world championship to Brooklyn.

Apparently, a spacious ball park such as Yankee Stadium is not suited to the Dodgers' power. In sharp contrast, bandbox Ebbets Field is made to order for their hitters. Except for Duke Snider and Gil Hodges, the Dodger hitters are not real long distance clouters despite their imposing home run record.

In the five Series between the two clubs since 1949, Brooklyn hitters have banged 23 home runs in 15 games at Ebbets Field. In 14 games at Yankee Stadium, they've hit only seven, none this year. Snider, for instance, has hit eight of his 10 homers off the Yankees at Brooklyn. Roy Campanella has hit all four there and Hodges has hit three of his four at friendly Ebbets Field. On the other hand, it hardly has made any difference to the Yankees where they've played, as far as home runs are concerned. They've hit 19 in the stadium and 17 at Ebbets Field in one game less.

Two home runs were hit yesterday. Mickey Mantle got his second of the Series, a Ruthian 440-footer into the center field bleachers off Ed Roebuck in the sixth inning. Hank Bauer walloped his first in 36 Series games off Don Drysdale in the seventh with one on.

Those runs would have been enough for Sturdivant who held the Dodgers to six hits, walked as many and struck out seven. His biggest strikeout came in the ninth after the Brooks had scored once, and had him on the ropes with the bases full and only one out. Randy Jackson came up as a pinch hitter, representing the tying run and young Tom whiffed him for strikeout No. 7. Jim Gilliam then flied out to end the game.

Overcomes Tension

Sturdivant Now Relaxes

NEW YORK (AP) — Young Tom Sturdivant had to conquer himself before he could become a conquering World Series pitcher for the New York Yankees.

"The hardest thing I've had to learn is how to relax and take it easy," the tall, good-looking Sooner from Oklahoma City said after hurling the Yankees to a series-leveling 6-2 victory over the Dodgers yesterday.

"I've always been pretty intense and high-strung. Jim Turner (Yankee pitching coach) helped me a lot."

Turner, a drawling Tennessean, disclaims any credit. "He did it all himself," says Jim. "He's a tension pitcher, but he's whipped his nerves. He's a good pitcher now. Don't sell him cheap."

Fans who watched him beat the Dodgers, pitching out of tight situations and retiring the last two men with the bases loaded, may have noted the 26-year-old Oklahoman's mound eccentricities.

As he bends over to start his windup, he gives his pitching hand a peculiar wiggle, as if shaking off a bunch of pesky ants. It's a gimmick to relax. Occasionally he walks off the mound and strolls absently toward second base. It's to get into the proper mood.

"He may walk almost to the outfield until he feels he's ready, relaxed enough, to pitch to the batter," says Turner. "When he's ready, relaxed enough, to pitch to the batter, he pitches."

Sturdivant started his baseball career as an infielder. He became a pitcher when he became convinced he wasn't a hitter.

WHAT GOES UP, MUST COME DOWN — Dodger catcher Roy Campanella tosses aside his mask as he goes after a foul pop up in the yesterday World Series game off the bat of Hank Bauer of the Yankees. Bauer attempted to bunt, but the ball popped straight up into the air. The Yanks evened the Series at 2-2 with a 6-2 win.

St. Fred Gains 6-6 Tie

The St. Frederick Rams come close every once in a while, but they still can't win a football game.

Royal Oak St. Mary and the Rams traded touchdowns in the final three minutes of their Suburban Catholic League battle at Royal Oak yesterday and wound up in a 6-6 deadlock.

It marked the 2nd straight year that the Irish and St. Fred fought to a draw, last season's contest ending at 19-19. The tie was the 4th for the Rams during their victory famine and extended their winless string to 29 games.

The two squads packed all of their scoring into a wild finish after getting nowhere for 45 minutes.

* * *

St. Mary hit pay-dirt 1st when halfback Paul Smuts intercepted quarterback Tom Derocher's pass in the flat and galloped 35 yards unmolested. The kick for extra point was wide.

St. Fred received the ensuing kickoff and bounced back to tie the score with 1:15 of game time remaining. The touchdown play was a 48-ynrd pass from Derocher to end Bill Mountain. Derocher's boot for the conversion was blocked.

The Rams muffed three scoring opportunities in the 1st half. Their furthest penetration was halted on the Irish 12-yard line.

In other SCL games Sunday, St. Benedict downed St. Clement, 21-7, and St. Rita defeated St. James, 13-6. Wyandotte Mt. Carmel handed Shrine a 46-6 shellacking.

It was a bad day for the star ends of Michigan and Michigan State Saturday afternoon.

Ron Kramer, Wolverine ace, played the game with a badly swollen hand suffered in the UCLA encounter. He re-injured the hand in the 4th period, but X-rays showed no fracture.

Dave Kaiser, who missed the entire second half for Michigan State, will be lost for the Indiana game because of a badly sprained ankle.

Pontiac Trotter Beats Arch Jackson Rival

JACKSON — Pastime Lawrence, a hard-hitting trotter from Pontiac, gained sweet revenge in winning the Open Handicap Trot at Jackson Raceway last night before 2,641 harness fans.

Frank Lobeck's five-year-old stallion covered the mile in 2:08 2-5 and finished a length in advance of Lady Volo to return $8.00.

Pastime Lawrence had lost a half-length decision to Lady Volo on Sept. 28 but this time there was no question of the superior horse.

Ohioan Wins on Sizzling Finish

EL CAJON, Calif. (AP) — Pudgy Bob Rosburg of San Francisco came from behind to win the $15,000 San Diego Open with a blazing 18-under par 270.

Rosburg was two strokes behind Dow Finsterwald of Bedford Heights, Ohio, at 54 holes, but he finished with a sensational 32-33 on the Singing Hills Course yesterday to add to his previous rounds of 70-68-67.

* * *

Finsterwald carded a 2-over-par 74, finishing far back with a 277.

In the runner-up spot was Dick Mayer, St. Petersburg, Fla., who shot a 68 for 272.

Don January, Lampasas, Tex., Bill Bisdorf, San Diego, Jim Ferrier, North Hollywood, and Doug Ford, Mahopac, N.Y., tied for third with 273.

Lions, Cards Unbeaten

Only 2 NFL Clubs With Clean Slates

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

As the National Football League heads into its third weekend of action, only two undefeated teams remain — the Chicago Cardinals and the Detroit Lions, both preseason underdogs.

The unbeaten Cardinals, who defeated the New York Giants 35-27 Sunday for victory No. 2 were given little chance of finishing higher than last-year's fourth place in a tough, balanced Eastern Conference. The Lions, who dropped from Western Conference champs in 1954 to cellar-dwellers in 1955, also won their second straight, surprising Baltimore and the experts 31-14 Saturday night.

* * *

In other Sunday action, the Chicago Bears righted themselves on the arm of quarterback Ed Brown and the toe of George Blanda for a 37-21 victory over Green Bay, and San Francisco's 49ers stunned defending Western champion Los Angeles 33-30 on the brilliant kicking of veteran Gordie Soltau.

League champion Cleveland and Philadelphia each won for the first time Saturday night. The Browns upended Pittsburgh 14-10 and the Eagles sloshed to a rain-washed 19-9 decision over Washington.

Quarterback Lamar McHan, running for two touchdowns and passing for two, upset the odds against New York and more than equalized three touchdowns by the Giants' Mel Triplett.

* * *

Brown, completing 11 of 15 tosses for 188 yards, flipped for two touchdowns and scored himself from 3 yards out with a recovered fumble. Blanda booted three field goals and added to his league record for extra points with four, giving him 150 without a miss. Green Bay's Al Carmichael ran back the opening kickoff 106 yards for a score to break the league mark by a yard. The Bears have a 1-1 record. Green Bay is 0-2.

The 49ers, atoning for past disappointments, scored 14 points in the last quarter. One touchdown came on a plunge by Hugh McElhenny after an intercepted pass and the other also on a McElhenny plunge after the 49ers recovered a Ram fumble.

Soltau kicked four field goals, from 37, 39, 15 and 25 yards, accounting for his team's 12-10 halftime lead. A last-minute Ram threat produced a touchdown on an 8-yard pass from Norm Van Brocklin to Elroy Hirsch, but time ran out as 56,489 fans went wild.

* * *

The Eagles came from behind in the last quarter, covering 63 yards in 10 plays, to hand the Redskins their second straight defeat. Quarterback Bobby Thomason sneaked over from the 1 for the score.

Mostly Fair Weather Promised for Series

NEW YORK (AP)—The weather bureau promised mostly fair weather for today's fifth game of the World Series at Yankee Stadium. The prediction also called for temperatures in the mid 60's with winds ranging up to 20 miles per hour, just about the same that swept the Yankee ballpark yesterday.

RHUMBA LINE — These gridders act as if they're trying to work up a rhumba line. In truth, it's fullback Terry Raymond of Orchard Lake St. Mary reeling off yardage in Sunday's important Suburban Catholic League football game with St. Mike at Orchard Lake. The two unidentified Shamrock tacklers hanging onto Raymond did manage to bring him down in this 1st quarter action. St. Mary won, 28-0.

Layne Leads Lions' 2nd Win

BALTIMORE (AP) — The 1956 Detroit Lions are not the Lions of 1955. That is obvious, and the 1956 variety currently are leading the Western Division of the National Football League—its only unbeaten team.

The Lions are 2-0 now where they were 0-2 a year ago, and they have met the same two clubs: Green Bay and Baltimore.

San Francisco's 33-30 upset of the Los Angeles Rams yesterday left the Lions the only club in the Western Division without a defeat. The 1955 team won only three games while losing nine, including their 1st six.

Passing through a Baltimore fog as if by radar, quarterback Bobby Layne led the Lions to a 31-14 triumph Saturday night. In 1955 the Colts won 28-13.

The previous week the Lions whipped Green Bay 20-16, avenging a 20-17 loss in the NFL opener a year previous.

Comparing performances through the 1st two games, one Detroit sports writer said the 1956 Lions "have looked real good, particularly on defense," while the 1955 club "looked lousy most of the time."

Layne did to the Colts over the weekend what their own passer, George Shaw, did to the Chicago Bears a week earlier.

Jim Sack, Michigan State left fielder, led the Spartans in hitting during 1956. He's only 5 feet 6 and 140 pounds.

Dodgers Most Hated Foe for Billy Martin

NEW YORK (AP) — If it were legal to take off his spikes and hit the Brooklyn Dodgers over the head with them, Billy Martin would do just that.

The skinny second baseman of the New York Yankees will do anything . . . well, almost anything to lick the Brooks, his most hated enemies.

Most of the Dodgers refer to him as "that punk .240 hitter," but they fear him as much as any Yankee. Going into today's fifth game, Martin was batting only .267, but two of his four hits were home runs and one was a solid single that broke a 1-all tie in yesterday's 6-2 Yank victory.

"Those Dodgers do make me mad but that makes me play better ball," Billy the Kid said, "and that means better hitting among other things."

The blond Detroit flinger connected with his 1st three passes and covered 50 yards for a touchdown, hit end Dorne Dibbie on a 56-yard scoring play, and passed 56 yards toward another TD, which he got himself by ramming the ball over the seven. He also converted four times.

Detroit's other touchdown came on a two-yard plunge by Gene Gedman that a 20-yard Layne pass set up. Jim Martin booted a 4th period field goal from the 29 to ice the game and end the scoring.

In a NFL opener a week earlier Shaw hit on 17 of 25 passes—nine of them in a row—to whip the Chicago Bears 28-21.

Except for two long scoring aerials by Shaw the Colts were shackled by the Lions' defenders.

Cub 11 Helps Rams Capture Pee-Wee Lead

With an assist from the Cubs, the Rams moved into 1st place in the Pee-Wee Football League after Saturday night's game at North Side Park.

The Cubs rolled to a 21-13 victory over the previously unbeaten Crusaders, enabling the Rams to take over the lead. The Rams handed the Lions a 27-14 setback, giving them two wins and a tie in three starts.

Bada Sets Pace

Leads GM's Golf Victory

Paul Bada is still hitting 'em for low links totals.

The area's leading amateur shotmaker Saturday, at Pontiac Country Club led the General Motors Truck & Coach team to a 7-stroke victory in the Philip J. Monaghan Trophy tourney.

The win gave the Truck squad first possession of the fine new trophy that has replaced the venerable Irving B. Babcock Trophy, which the Truck retired with last year's victory. Five teams took part in the industrial event.

Saturday's win was engineered by a steady, close-to-par quartet led by Bada's two-under 72 as medalist. Trucks' total of 296 was compiled on Bada's 72 (36-36), Charley Barker and Walt Larozas' 74s and Charley Cappel's 76. It was even par for the quartet's combined cards.

Fisher Body was runnerup, with 303, led by Ron Rothbarth and Harley Hyatt with 74s.

Third place went to Pontiac Motor, with 307. Eddie Wasik, former city medal play champion, set the pace with 74.

Merle Mathews' 73, runnerup medalist, led American Forge and Socket to 4th place. Forge compiled 320. Baldwin Rubber had 338. Pat Halverson led his team with 80.

Because Michigan Bell did not have a full team of four players, its total was not registered.

Because of Mr. Mongahan's absence from the city, in Chicago, presentation of the trophy will be delayed until his return.

Sooners Set Major College Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

College football is looking for a new king in the East, satisfied with the one it has in the Midwest, wary of a new power in the South, but for a national champion—well, those Oklahoma Sooners will do and do very well.

Bud Wilkinson's Sooners went their merry way on Saturday, rolling up a major college record of 32 straight victories to the surprise of exactly no one.

Kansas State was the victim, and the only question was the score. It was 66-0 in spite of, or maybe because of Wilkinson using five full teams.

* * *

Southern California, probably the best in the Far West, can be expected to tumble in potential when Jon Arnett and others of its half-season players, retire after USC's fifth game. The Trojans, with Arnett gaining 182 yards, whipped Wisconsin 13-6.

Michigan State, rated best in the Middle West and No. 2 in The Associated Press poll, and Ohio State, No. 4, used late rallies to defeat difficult opponents.

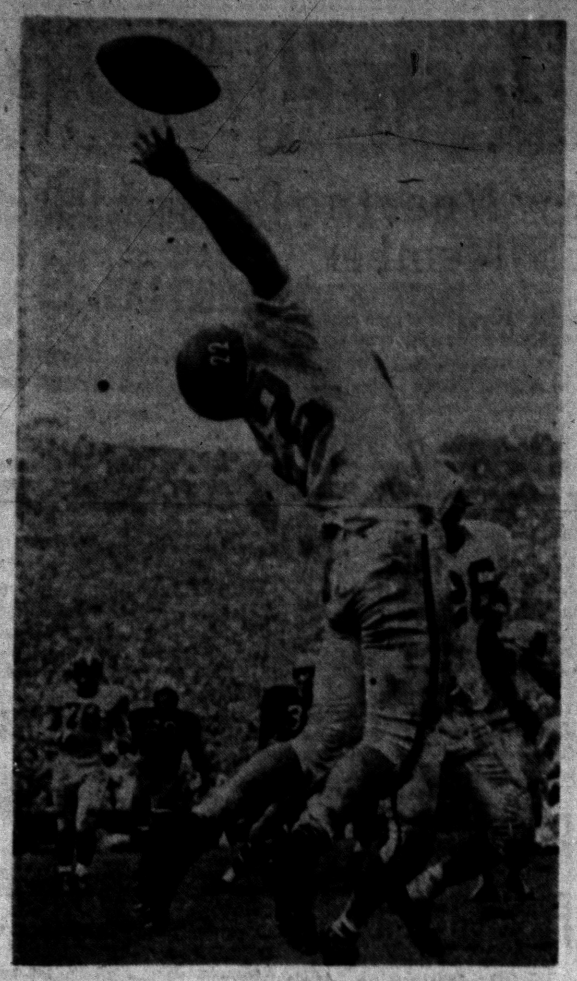
* * *

Georgia Tech, ranked third by the nation's experts, was idle but Tennessee, Ole Miss and Vandy upheld the prestige of the South. Tennessee, moving back into the national picture under Bowden Wyatt, thrashed Duke 33-20 in the highest scoring game in a rivalry dating back to 1893. Mississippi, sixth in the poll, defeated Houston, 14-0.

Vanderbilt's power was unexpected and eye-popping in 32-7 stomping of Alabama. Vandy, which used substitutes for half of the game, can be expected to turn up higher in the rankings this week. The Commodores were tied for 18th last week.

* * *

In the Southwest, TCU, the Texas Aggies, Baylor and Rice remained unbeaten and unpressed, Texas Christian blasted Arkansas, 41-6 while displaying a host of good backs to keep Jim Swink company. The Aggies gave future member Texas Tech another idea of what it can expect in the tough conference, 40-7, Baylor defeated Maryland, 14-0, and Rice spilled Louisiana State 23-14.



OUT OF REACH — Halfback Jim Wulff, (22) of Michigan State goes high to break up a Michigan pass in their game Saturday afternoon. Alongside is halfback Clarence Peaks, with (79) Joel Jones of State and (69) Dick Hill of Michigan in the background. State won, 9-0.

MSU Depth Too Much for 'M'

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

ANN ARBOR — It was an unpredictable day at Ann Arbor Saturday afternoon.

A huge crowd of 101,001 sat through everything the weatherman had to offer to watch a football game which was just as uncertain as the skies.

* * *

Michigan State, a lifeless team for 30 minutes, came back with a second half onslaught to defeat arch-rival Michigan 9-0, in the 49th game of their all time series.

The two halves were exactly a reversal of form for both teams. Michigan held the upper hand in the first two periods with an aerial and ground attack that moved the Wolverines into goal range three times.

State, known to have the depth advantage, used its manpower to wear down the Michigan line.

* * *

Even the pair of breaks which led to State's field goal and touchdown came when fresher State line forces broke through the Michigan forward wall, which became more porous in the second half, to smear Wolverine runners.

Sophomore Johnny Herrnstein was the victim in both instances. While attempting a jump pass, Herrnstein was hit as he threw. The ball wobbled toward its received but guard Archie Matsos grabbed it on Michigan's 40.

Clarence Peaks, Don Gilbert and Walt Kowalczyk, who saw only limited action in the first half because of an injury, moved the Spartans to the 13, from where Johnny Matsko's field goal attempt split the uprights, after eight minutes of the third period.

* * *

Michigan was expected to have the edge in punting but the kicking of Peaks was a big factor in thwarting the Wolverines at the crucial moments.

Just as the 4th quarter started Peaks punted 47 yards out of bounds on the Michigan 13.

Three running plays lost Michigan 5 yards, but a 15 yard penalty gave "M" a first down on its own 24. State hit passer Jim Van Pelt for a nine-yard loss, and then converged on Herrnstein forcing him to fumble.

It was MSU's backfield of second and third stringers which moved the 21 yards after recovering the fumble.

Quarterback Jim Ninowski and fullback Jim Handloser, third men in line on the depth chart, and Dennis Mendyk and Jim Wulff, second stringers, led the drive for the goal line.

Mendyk went the last six yards and when Matsko missed the placement it was 9-0 with nine minutes to play. Any passing hopes Michigan may have had at this point died when a heavy downpour made the ball too slippery to handle.

* * *

Outstanding performances were turned in by respective centers, Matsko of Michigan State and Mike Rotunno of Michigan.

Rotunno who played all except a few minutes of the game was a consistent thorn in the Spartan backfield. His defensive work helped repel State's aerial game.

The Spartans failed to complete a pass in only three attempts, while Michigan made use of the jump pass, had 11 completions in 21 attempts.

	Mich.	State
First Downs	13	9
Rushing yardage	80	143
Passing Yardage	79	0
Passes	11-21	0-3

Michigan State	0	0	3	6	—9
Michigan	0	0	0	0	—0

Michigan State: Touchdown—Mendyk (8, run). Field Goal—Matsko (30).

MOVING FORWARD—University of Michigan halfback Terry Barr (41) who played an outstanding game against Michigan State Saturday, picks up considerable yardage before Johnny Matsko (49) hurdles his way to make the tackle. Throwing the block on Pat Wilson (24) was John Herrnstein (36) Wolverine fullback.

Eaglets Overpower St. Mike, 28-0

By BILL CORNWELL

St. Michael's football team gave everything it had Sunday afternoon, but it just wasn't enough.

A big, powerful Orchard Lake St. Mary squad, relentlessly grinding out yardage and seizing every opportunity, hammered the Shamrocks into submission in their Suburban Catholic League showdown yesterday at Orchard Lake.

The score was 28-0.

It was the 3rd consecutive victory for the high-flying Eaglets, who now seem unchallenged in their quest of a 2nd straight SCL crown.

After grimly holding the St. Mary steamroller to a 7-0 halftime lead, the Shamrocks wilted under the unceasing pressure and yielded three touchdowns and a safety in the final two periods.

In the meantime, St. Mike's offense was completely throttled. The Shamrocks gained a total of a meager 31 yards and made only three first downs. Their deepest penetration reached the Eaglet 36 in the fading moments of the game.

The Eaglets struck swiftly for their 1st touchdown. On the 1st play following the opening kickoff, Joe Waluk recovered a Shamrock fumble. St. Mary marched 30 yards in five plays, with fullback Terry Raymond pounding over from the one. Halfback Paul Franckowiak placekicked the extra point.

St. Mary made one more serious threat before intermission, driving to the Shamrock three in the 2nd quarter where St. Mike fell on a fumble. But the Eaglets wasted little time in the 3rd period.

They took the kickoff and drove 51 yards in three plays, with Raymond reeling off 38 at one whack. Franckowiak rammed over for the score from two yards out.

* * *

St. Mike was forced to give up a safety in the late stages of the 3rd period when a bad pass from center went over the head of halfback Dan Dropps.

Dropps, back in punt formation, was downed by a horde of Eaglet tacklers behind the goal line.

Two intercepted passes, the 1st by Stan Moniuczko and the other by Dennis Mutrynowski, led to two Eaglet touchdowns in the last quarter.

* * *

Quarterback Larry Charkowski sneaked across from the one for the 1st tally, completing a 34-yard push. Franckowiak's 11-yard pass to end Pete Madelans climaxed a march of 40 yards and wound up the scoring.

Italian 'Wonder Horse' Beats 'Boy,' Fisherman

PARIS (AP)—Career Boy and Fisherman, two of America's top flight race horses, start for home tomorrow after failing to give Ribot, the unbeaten Italian "wonder horse," any worthwhile competition in the rich Prix de L'Arc De Triomphe.

* * *

Ribot, winner of the famous Longchamp race last year, ran his unbeaten string to 16 as he won the 2,400-meter (1½ miles) yesterday by 6 lengths over the English-owned Talgo. Tanerko was third, another 2 lengths back.

MSU Captain Explains 'Jekyll-Hyde' Change

EAST LANSING (AP) — Johnn Matsko, center and team captain, probably provided the simplest and best explanation to rthe Dr. Jekyl-Mr. Hyde change in his Michigan State football team in the second half of the game with Michigan Saturday.

In the first half, Michigan State was pushed all over the lot. In the second half, the Spartans did the pushing and the scoring for a 9-0 margin of victory.

* * *

The change was as startling as the transformation of the mild mannered Dr. Jeykell to the diabolical Mr. Hyde.

Matsko's explanatioin was this: "The coaches find the holes for us at the half."

Saturday's game followed a tradition set when Biggy Munn was coaching MSU to its frabulous 28-game win streak in the early 1950's. Fifteen times during that series the Spartans either came from behind or broke a tie to win.

* * *

In the last six games of the regular 1955 season, Michigan State outscored its opponents during the school half by an even 100 points to seven points.

The only one of six to score in the second half was Minnesota with a single touchdown.

It was the same in the Rose Bowl game against UCLA. It was a 7-7 tie at the half, and MSU won 17-14. The same again in the Stanford opener—a 7-7 tie at the half and a 21-7 victory.

So what miracle happens to the Spartan teams between the halves.

* * *

There's no miracle; merely a teamwork performance of smart coaching.

Backfield coach Sonny Grandelius and defensive line coach Lou Agase rush down from their spotting posts in the press box. All the coaches huddle. They quickly diagnose strong points and weak points in the offense and defense of both State and its opponents.

Frost Delays Corn Field Day

Lyle Abel Announces Postponing to Oct. 24 of 5-County Meeting

The Corn Field Day slated to be held tomorrow at Yale has been postpond until Oct. 24, according postponed until Oct. 24, according agent.

Corn is too immature, Abel says, to harvest with the machinery that was to be demonstrated at the Field Day. Frost has killed the stalks and ears haven't dried down yet, he says.

The Day will be at the same place, the Lyndon Street Farm, a mile south and two miles west of Yale. Five counties, Oakland, St. Clair, Lapeer, Sanilac, and Macomb are to be included.

About eight farm machinery companies will participate, Abel says, with a tour of the demonstration plots starting at 10 a.m. Actual demonstrations will start at 1 p.m.

KEEGO HARBOR — Viola May Cork, daughter of Mrs. Mable Cork of 1739 Beechcroft, became the bride of Hobart Pace, son of Mrs. Cloide Pace of Telegraph road and the late Mr. Pace at Findlay, Ohio, last week.

A reception was held for them later at the home of the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caswell, for friends and relatives.

After their honeymoon in Virginia, Ohio, they will reside in Pontiac.

Muskegon Chronicle to Mark 100 Years

MUSKEGON (AP)—The Muskegon Chronicle's 100th anniversary next June will be saluted at a civic banquet based on the theme, "Sawmills to Seaway."

* * *

The theme denotes Muskegon's rise from a lumbering center to one of Michigan's chief Great Lakes ports.

* * *

The banquet plans were announced yesterday by Charles F. Latimer, president of the Greater Muskegon Chamber of Commerce, who said the event honors the oldest Greater Muskegon Industry for "a century of leadership and public service."

The Chronicle was founded June 27, 1857.

List Lapeer ASC Men

Ervin Haskill, Mayfield township farmer, is the new chairman of ASC in Lapeer County, succeeding Norman Clothier of North Branch. Glenn Lake has retired as vice chairman.

Haskill had been the third man on the board, now advanced to chairman. New vice chairman is Duane Laur, and John Jostick has succeeded Haskill as third member.

Residents Elect First Officers

19-20 Protective Unit of West Bloomfield Area Is Newly Formed

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Election of the first officers of the new 19-20 Protective Assn. was recently held at the Twin Beach Country Club.

* * *

The group, formed of residents in sections 19 and 20 on the west edge of the township, formed in the past three months for neighborhood action in such township as possible rezoning.

Patricia Unick, as temporary chairman conducted the meeting until Kenneth Lehman was elected president and he took the chair.

Mrs. Unick was elected to the post of secretary, Day Perry, treasurer and Erwin Bruner, Gerald McDonnell, Tudor A. Madoc and A. Cree Wheat, directors.

A report on special investigation of a committee on zoning board activities was presented.

The 19-20 group is an incorporated and registered group with aims and purpose to maintain as high as possible a level in residential zoning and requirements, according to Lehman.

Sheriff Offers Learner Permits in Walled Lake

WALLED LAKE — Members of the sheriff's department licensing division will be at the Walled Lake Senior High School tomorrow from 6 to 9 p.m. for issuing learner permits.

A student must appear with his father or guardian and have his birth certificate and a $3 fee, according to Principal E. V. Ayres.

The program is under the recently passed law requiring all students enrolled in school driver training classes to have either a driver's license or a learner permit.

All students enrolled in the course who have failed to obtain permits by Wednesday will be dropped from the course, Ayres stresses.

Adult Education Starts at Romeo

ROMEO — Adult Education evening classes at Romeo High will be offered at 7:30 p.m. tonight.

On Pontiac General Critical List

Cancer Blacks Out 'Stevie's Army'

AUBURN HEIGHTS — Stevie Jones, 4, on critical list at Pontiac General Hospital, is waging a battle against cancer encroaching on his nervous system and affecting the eyelid of his "good eye." He lost his other eye last year.

"Mommie," he said yesterday to his mother, Mrs. Norval Jones, 481 Featherstone, "its getting dark and I can't see my army."

He referred to the soldiers of the nike base near the home where he and his parents live. Sedation drowsiness makes him unaware he is hospitalized.

The Joneses, now fearing loss of Stevie, their only child, had waited seven years for a child before he was born. Their friends in this community and the Pontiac area have given many gifts to help them and make Stevie a little happier in his long battle against cancer, that hit first an eye and then his legs.

Fire department, soldiers, neighbors and many others have helped, said Mrs. William Hall, of Drayton Plains this morning. She and three other sisters of Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Raymond King, Mrs. James Black and Mrs. John Burke, all of this area, are helping keep the day-and-night vigil at the hospital.

"He enjoyed the Christmas tree that he had at home Thursday night," she reports. The Morris Nursery in Rochester donated the tree, and gay decorations were put on it to enrich the little boy's last days at home. He was taken to the hospital Saturday morning.

His grandmother, Mrs. Floyd Cave of Albany, Ind., arrived Friday.

A firemen-sponsored benefit dance was turned down by Mrs. Jones, but remains a possibility if funds are needed.

Holland Has Harbor Ideas

Expects to Be Among St. Lawrence Seaway Ports by 1960

HOLLAND (AP) — This Ottawa County community of about 16,000 persons expects to be among the St. Lawrence Seaway ports of call when the deep water route opens in 1960.

* * *

A joint City-Chamber of Commerce committee has announced bids being taken by the United States Army Corps of Engineers on $285,000 worth of harbor improvements to accommodate large seagoing vessels.

The project includes widening and deepening the turning basin and extending it to join the new Black River channel to create an operating area 750 feet wide and 1,300 feet long.

A second phase will deepen the channel from Lake Macatawa to Lake Michigan.

TO PAY 25 PCT.

Holland will pay 25 per cent of the cost, augmenting federal funds provided in the 1956 rivers and harbors appropriations bill.

Completion of the project will mark the end of an enterprise started by Holland residents about 100 years ago after a federal appropriation of $8,000 for a channel to Lake Michigan was revoked in 1830.

* * *

City records of the 1850s show that Dr. A. G. Van Raalte led groups of Holland citizens in digging their own channel—the same channel and turning basin soon to be improved.

A small port, Holland still is no stranger to seagoing vessels.

Ships carrying cement and other export materials have docked in Holland's harbor and it was one of Michigan's first West Shore ports to obtain potash shipments from Germany after World War I.

Roosevelt Moms Slate Thursday Party for Public

KEEGO HARBOR — The Mothers Club of the Roosevelt school will sponsor a benefit card party at the school at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday.

Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served by the committee.

Proceeds from the party will be used to purchase much needed equipment for the kindergarten room for Roosevelt school. The Board of Education recently purchased new modern furniture for the room and the Mothers club will add new toys and books to complete the room.

Tickets may be purchased from club members or at the door. Chairman for the evening is Mrs. Dorothy Mason, with Mrs. Dorothy Young and Mrs. Ida Zidar assisting.

9 Wounded, 1 Dead in Honduras Riot

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP)—Officials say it may take a week to count the ballots in an Assembly election marred by police gunfire that killed one person and wounded nine others.

The balloting yesterday for a new Constituent Assembly was peaceful until the shooting outside the opposition Liberal party headquarters in the capital's central square.

The new Assembly will name a president and adopt a new constitution.

The Liberals, whose leader, Dr. Ramon Velleda Morales, was exiled last July on charges of seditious agitation, complained that supporters of acting President Julio Lozano blocked their campaign in outlying districts.

Lozano's National Union party predicted it would win a two-thirds majority in the Assembly and that the 71-year-old Lozano would be elected to a regular term.

$800,000 Fire Hits Adrian Grain Elevator

ADRIAN (INS)—A fire visible for 20 miles caused an estimated $800,000 damage at the J. J. Walper and Son grain and feed elevator near Adrian yesterday.

The blaze raged four hours before being brought under control by firefighters from 18 departments.

New Brake for Jets

OSLO, Norway (AP) — A new braking rocket for jet planes may cut the necessary length of fighter airstrips by as much as 50 per cent. Designed by a Norwegian Air Force officer, the rockets are clamped under each wing of the plane. When landing, the rockets fire a 1,000-pound forward thrust, braking the plane.

Hollywood Headlines

Barbara Rush Is Lauded for Her Ability in Acting

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Never in her life will Barbara Rush have a nicer compliment than the one paid her by Nunnally Johnson after she and David Niven were given the leads by Nunnally in "Oh Men, Oh Women!"

Said Nunnally: "Barbara Rush is not only one of the most beautiful young actresses in this town, but one of the most capable."

He didn't overlook David either when he was passing out the praise. He said, "I consider David Niven one of the best light comedians and I was delighted when 20th signed him."

Rita Hayworth hopes to keep right on making pictures and she would like to do another one before she reports for "Pal Joey," which won't be ready until next spring.

She'd like to make another picture with Robert Parrish, who directed her in "Fire Down Below," and she's been reading scripts submitted by him with that idea in mind.

MARRIAGE LIKELY

When I put the question straight to Ruth Roman, "Are you planning to marry Bud Moss?" She came back with the stock answer, "I'm still married and I think it's premature to talk about another marriage until I'm divorced from Mortimer Hall."

She considered a moment and then added, "But I probably will."

Young Moss is the son of Lou Moss who owns the Matador Restaurant in Los Angeles and Bud is really smitten with Ruth.

Of course, Ruth's about-to-be ex, Morty Hall, is also expected to marry as soon as he's free, Diana Lynn being the lady of his heart.

Youthful actor Nick Adams, who made the trip to Memphis with his pal Elvis Presley, called to give me a blow-by-blow account. He said he wished he'd been born in Memphis, the town is so hospitable.

"I stayed right at Elvis' home," said Nick, "and his mother cooks the best Southern food you ever tasted. Maybe some people don't like Elvis, but you can bet they're crazy about him in his hometown.

"We rode motorcycles through the town and all the people—and I don't mean just the teenagers, but mothers, fathers and grandparents—came to their doors and shouted 'That's our boy! Welcome home!'"

MAE'S ADMIRER

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Mae West's new admirer is reported to be Phillip Beardsley, a Las Vegas croupier.

Debbie and Eddie at the Luau with Monte Proser means, I'd say, that Eddie will open at Proser's new Tropicana in Las Vegas.

Sheila and Gordon MacRae cocktailed in honor of Shirley Jones and her bridegroom, Jack Cassidy. Barbara Ruick, Shirley's best friend, was happily present with her new bridegroom.

Peter Lind Hayes and Mary Healy flew down from the Sands in Las Vegas for one canape and one drink. The Jeff Chandlers, Marge and Gower Champion, Rod Steiger and Henry King were among the guests.

Most of the crowd went on to the Corny Jacksons for dinner. Corny is Gordie's new boss on the Lux TV show.

South India will develop tourist centers.

Wheat Higher in Grain Trading

CHICAGO (AP)— Wheat moved higher on the Board of Trade today, stimulated by the dry situation in the southwest winter wheat belt and a five-day forecast which foresaw very little precipitation in that area.

Corn was steady while soybeans registered gains.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛-¾ higher, Dec. $2.29⅛, corn was ⅛-⅝ higher, Dec. $1.36⅝, oats ¼ - ⅜ higher, Dec. 75⅞, rye ¾-⅞ higher, Dec. 1.52¾, soybeans 1⅛-1⅝ higher, Nov. $2.38⅛ and lard 2 to 7 cents higher, $11.65.

Business Notes

Three Pontiac area service station dealers have won awards for the first portion of Shell Oil Company's "All Star Sweepstakes."

Honored for outside and inside appearance of the station, and management, were Paul Gorman of Pontiac, C. Batten anl E. Hudson of Auburn Heights, and Wilford Draper of Keego Harbor.

Three Pontiac area residents employed by Socony Mobil Dil Company for 20 years or more were special guests recently when the firm held a 20-Year Club session in Detroit. Honored were C. E. Landon, H. L. McAllister and G. R. Rivard.

Stock Market Climbs Slightly

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved ahead slightly in quiet early trading today.

Leading stocks gained fractions to around a point. A few small losses were taken here and there.

Some brokers suggested the time may be ripe for a pre-election rally in view of the market's recovery last week after a long decline. The trading week began with news of rising national output and national income.

No leadership was shown by any section of the Market as prices improved but there was a noticeable rise in turnover among the motors. Chrysler gained around a point and Ford was ahead a fraction.

Gulf Oil added more than a point. Royal Dutch and Texaco were fractional gainers. Sinclair eased.

Bethlehem Steel was up a point, U. S. Steel was steady but Youngstown was off a major fraction.

Gains of about a point were posted by Kennecott Copper, Phelps Dodge, American Cyanamid and Allied Chemical.

Smaller advances were made by U. S. Rubber, United Aircraft, Zenith, International Nickel, Du Pont and International Paper.

Leading rails were mainly steady. Small gains were made by Illinois Central and Southern Pacific.

Among opening blocks were Gulf Oil up ⅝ at 120 on 2,000 shares, Chrysler up ¼ at 74⅝ on 1,000 and American Cyanamid up ⅞ at 70¼ on 1,700.

On Friday rails led a moderate advance. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 90 cents to $177.50.

Realtors Fight Public Housing

Register Opposition to Any National, State Bills Proposed

LANSING—Formal opposition to "any and all public housing bills proposed either state or nationally" was recorded by Michigan's realtors at their 42nd annual convention held recently in Lansing.

Stewart E. Butts, Michigan Real Estate Association president, said that the realtors have taken this stand through a resolution unanimously passed by the 700 realtors at the conclave.

Text of the resolution follows:

"Whereas this State of Michigan and these United States of America have never known such prosperity, and

"Whereas there are 68 million plus people employed in these United States at a gainful occupation, and

"Whereas more people in America own their own homes than at any time in the history of these United States, and

"Whereas there are still a political few who advocate the need for public housing.

"Now therefore be it

"RESOLVED that the M.R.E.A. in convention assembled on this 10th day of September, 1956 unalterably oppose any and all public housing bills proposed either State of Nationally and will register their opposition with their Congressmen, Senators, or the members of the Michigan legislature."

Sentence Polish Youths to Four Years in Prison

POZNAN, Poland (AP)—Three Polish youths accused of murder in the fatal beating of a secret police corporal during the June 28 "bread and freedom" riots were sentenced today to prison terms ranging from 4 to 4½ years.

These sentences were considered mild. The death penalty could have been imposed.

Underground, Korea Vet Finds Home in U.S. Army

FT. HOOD, Tex. (INS) — Basic training at Ft. Hood is "old hat" for Army Pvt. Gene Fernand Moes, whose military career includes service with the French underground in World War II and action during the Korean fighting with a detachment from Luxembourg.

Two escapes—one from a German stalag in 1944 and the other from a Communist prison camp after being captured in Korea—are in Moes' service record.

* * *

His father, a former Luxembourg senator, was liquidated by the Nazis when he resisted occupation in 1940, and his mother was left an invalid from the shock.

Running away to France, young Moes joined a group of other youths dedicated to making trouble for the Nazis. Their mission in the underground included demolition and sabotage of Nazi installations and rescues of Allied airmen captured by German patrols.

Aiding an American flyer to escape to neutral Switzerland resulted in Moes' capture by the Nazis, but he managed to break loose and joined another underground brigade in Marseilles.

He moved north to meet Allied troops after D-Day and traveled the long road back to Luxembourg, staying close to free French forces.

With the war's end and the uneasy peace that followed, Moes joined the Luxembourg Army and earned a commission as a second lieutenant in the small force of 2,300 men.

Fifty-four soldiers from the ranks of that tiny Luxembourg army were sent to Korea when the fighting broke out there in 1950 and Moes was appointed liaison officer between his detachment and the 3rd Infantry Division.

MARCH TO CHINA

Captured by the Communists, Moes was taken on a forced march to a prison camp in China.

But the young officer, calling upon his underground experience escaped and took a badly wounded American sergeant with him. The pair made their way to Hong Kong. Six months after his capture, he was back home.

In 1955, Moes found a sponsor for citizenship in Minneapolis and headed for the United States where he enlisted in the Army for a three-year hitch almost immediately.

* * *

He says of his Army plans: "I want to stay 20 years. This country is just what I expected. Gold doesn't grow on trees, but there is freedom here and opportunity."

Three in Family Hurt in Two-Car Accident

Three members of a Milford family received bruises requiring hospital treatment in a two-car accident in Waterford Township Saturday.

Mrs. Winona Zehnder, 29, and her two children, Kirk L., 1, and Karla L., 5, were treated and released at Pontiac General Hospital following the collision at the intersection of Elizabeth Lake and North Avery roads.

The injured were passengers in a car driven by Ralph Zehnder, 32, of 505 Burgess St. The other vehicle was operated by Lawrence E. Cutcher, 23, of 470 Rivard.

Cutcher told Waterford police he stopped when a car in front of him began a left turn and was struck from behind. Zehnder said he could not stop in time to avoid the accident.

J. S. Haumann, 84, old-time hunter, showed he is still good when he shot down two blesbok (antelope) with one shot from a .22 rifle, in a high wind, near Harrismith, South Africa.

Girl, 14, Trampled by Crowd at Game

STAMBAUGH (AP)—A 14-year-old high school girl was recovering today from a trampling suffered Saturday night under the feet of a wildly excited football crowd. She is Beverly Murphy, a freshman at Iron River High.

Beverly was trampled when fans swarmed from the Iron River stands onto the field to congratulate their team on a 7-6 upset of Stambaugh High.

Run over along the sidelines, Beverly suffered a concussion from a kick in the temple and assorted bruises, but was released after a an overnight hospital stay.

Iron River and Stambaugh are adjoining Upper Peninsula cities.

Personal Income Climbs in August

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Commerce Department has reported that personal income in August was at an annual rate of 328 billion dollars, four billions higher than in July and 20 billions more than a year ago.

The department said four-fifths of the increase was in wages and salaries with the largest gains occurring in industries where July income had been affected by the steel strike.

Total personal income for the first eight months of this year was at an annual rate of 322 billion dollars, compared with 302 billions in the corresponding period of last year, a rise of 7 per cent.

Zionists Hear Nixon, Kefauver

Candidates Give Talks on Mideast Problems and Suez Situation

WASHINGTON (UP) — Vice President Nixon said yesterday the promotion of Israeli-Arab peace is one of the Eisenhower administration's "top priority objectives." Sen. Estes Kefauver said that in the Middle East and elsewhere the administration has "failed . . . to develop any approach to peace in a grand design."

The Republican and Democratic vice presidential candidates spoke at different times before the same group, the national convention of the Zionist Organization of America.

Nixon said U.S. policies in the Middle East should be kept out of partisan politics; Kefauver said those policies allowed Russia to gain a Mideast foothold.

Nixon and Kefauver were both in the capital during respites from their intensive campaigning. Nixon will set out again tomorrow, starting in Texas.

Kefauver leaves today for another week of aerial barnstorming which will take him 4,000 miles through the East and Middle West.

In his talk to the Zionist group, Nixon said both major parties agree on a need for preservation of Israel's independence.

"I know you will agree with me that for this issue to become a partisan one in the heat of a political campaign will serve neither the interests of Israel or the United States," he said.

Kefauver said that "without reaching a solution as to Suez we have also managed to alienate some of our most important friends." He said the administration has displayed a lack of firmness, and that it has bobbled opportunities ever since the Geneva summit meeting.

Blaze at Charlevoix Causes $95,000 Ruin

CHARLEVOIX (UP) — Losses yesterday were placed at $95,000 after fire destroyed the three-story Sunset Lodge Resort Hotel operated by Mr. and Mrs. William T. Butters at Charlevoix.

* * *

Firemen from Charlevoix, Petoskey and East Jordan, aided by Coast Guard personnel and volunteers joined forces Saturday night to prevent the flames from spreading to the Charlevoix business district a block away.

Charlevoix Chief John Curtis said it was the city's worst fire in at least 25 years, but reported no injuries. Winds up to 40 miles an hour off Lake Michigan carried flaming debris up to three blocks from the burning resort. There was no indication as to the origin of the fire.

* * *

Curtis said the resort, closed for the season about Labor Day, formerly was a summer home built about 50 years ago. It once was owned by the late R. E. Olds of Lansing and purchased by the Butters couple seven years ago.

Postmen's Added Peril

Lapeer Man in Jail Suspected of Car Theft

A Lapeer man, accused of stealing a car from a man who was giving him a ride, is in the Oakland County Jail today under investigation.

He is Charles W. Krakker who was arrested yesterday walking along M42 near Hadley road. He told deputies he had taken a car but abandoned it when he ran out of gas.

J. D. Balch, of Oxford, owner of the car, told deputies he met Krakker in a bar and was giving him a ride when an argument started. Balch said he stopped the car and ran off taking the keys, but Krakker started the car and drove away.

Police Investigate Beating, Robbery

Oakland County deputies today are investigating a report a man was beaten and robbed by two men outside an Avon Township tavern last night.

* * *

Morton Ulakovits, 25, of 170 Opdyke St., told deputies he recovered from the beating in his car to find an undetermined amount of money and the car keys missing.

He said he had met the men while drinking in the Auburn Avenue bar.

Ulakovits stated he was going to call a taxi rather than drive home when the pair offered him a ride. The robbery reportedly took place just after the men left the tavern.

Moslems, Hindus Riot Over How to Vote

DACCA, East Pakistan (UP) — Twenty - four persons, including three leaders of the Moslem League, were injured last night when rival groups advocating joint and separate elections for Hindus and Moslems clashed here.

The government banned public meetings and processions.

The Pakistan Parliament is considering whether to have separate or joint election rolls for the nation's two biggest religious communities.

The trouble last night reportedly started when a group favoring the joint system tried to break up a meeting called by advocates of separate voting. Police charged the crowd with clubs to restore order.

Alleged Knife-Wielder Held for Assault

A fight in front of a South Saginaw street restaurant early Sunday resulted in the arrest of an alleged knife-wielder for investigation of felonious assault, Pontiac police said.

Det. Herbert Cooley disarmed and arrested Saturnio R. Velez, 27, of 268 S. Paddock St. at 2 a.m. near Orchard Lake Ave.

Velez admitted, Cooley said, stabbing Darrell L. Beasley, 24, of no known address in the left chest and shoulder. Beasley was reported in good condition at Pontiac General Hospital.

Velez' four-inch jack knife was held as evidence, police said.

Sharply Declined American Labor Party to Dissolve

NEW YORK (INS) — The American Labor Party, which polled 500,000 votes for presidential candidate Henry A. Wallace in 1948 but has declined sharply since then, will be dissolved.

Peter K. Hawley, chairman of the left-wing ALP, which operated only in New York State, indicated yesterday the party's "negligible" assets would be liquidated but were not expected to pay all outstanding bills.

The ALP was formed originally in 1936 to enable non-Democratic voters to vote for President Franklin D. Roosevelt without voting the entire Democratic slate.

However, suspicion of Communist infiltration lost it important labor support in the elections of 1944 and 1948.

In 1954 the party failed to gain a sufficient number of votes to keep its place on the New York State ballot.

Also, that year, the state legislature outlawed the use of the word "American" in the title of a political party in New York State.

114 Arrested in Flint in 7 Gambling Raids

FLINT (UP) — Some 114 persons faced gaming charges today after seven simultaneius raids by Flint and State Police Saturday. More than $7,000 were confiscated.

Police Capt. Loren Herfurth said 90 were charged with frequenting gambling establishments, 22 with possessing gambling equipment and 2 with conspiracy to violate gambling laws.

Herfurth said the ring did a million-dollar annual business.

Small Town New York! Sal Maglie Is Neighbor

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—You write about New York being a small town . . . then you find out Sal Maglie's your neighbor . . . and you discover it really is.

★ ★ ★

My mother-in-law first told me that the great Brooklyn Dodgers hero lives two blocks from our madhouse.

"Sal Maglie, imagine!" The butcher and florist had told her.

She couldn't have been more surprised if President Eisenhower'd dropped in and caught her barefooted . . . which he'd do, too, if he dropped in.

"Sal lives with two mothers-in-law," a neighbor said. "Facing the Yankees must have been quiet after that."

I decided to pay a neighborly call on the eve of one of the Series games.

★ ★ ★

"Sal's gonna sleep out tonight—he's got to get his sleep," a woman told me when I phoned. "He'll be in for a while."

Kay Maglie, his attractive wife, cheerfully let me in. "I got to get my shoes on first," she said as she opened the door.

Sal was in rolled-up sleeves talking to two men and "the two mothers"—Mrs. Mary Maglie and Mrs. Mae Pileggi.

A big chicken dinner was a-frying in the kitchen.

"Is it hard living with two mothers?" I asked. Sal had his arms around them.

"No," Sal said. "It works when you understand each other."

"Who'd you normally root for?" I wondered. One mother laughingly said, "The Yankees," then quickly added: "We just root for Sal."

"I'm gonna go somewhere and get about nine hours sleep," he told me. "I was up at five for TV, then I hustled tickets. It's more trouble! Sometimes I almost think it's not worth winnin' the pennant. I' kiddin'."

Sal's so quiet the neighborhood didn't know he was here. One day before Brooklyn won the pennant, Mrs. Maglie, waiting at the drug store for medicine, asked a clerk how the Dodgers game was coming.

"Oh, them," he scoofed. "They ain't got a chance. Besides, who cares? I'm a Giant fan."

Just then the pharmacist stepped up. "Here's Mrs. Maglie's medicine," he said.

And—ironic touch—Kay Maglie told me as I was leaving that Sal'd planned to go to a hotel for that good sleep but waited too long.

"We'll put him in that back room. He won't hear a thing," she promised. And so he got his rest to the noise of screeching cabs and busses and garbage trucks—that Broadway lullaby.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Jack Benny—violining at Carnegie Hall—claimed that at his Oklahoma City concert they let people in free and made them pay to get out: "Made more money that way" . . . Herb Shriner's opening variety show (home movies, especially) was the funniest I've seen in a decade . . . They say an NBC exec told his secretary, "If my boss calls while I'm out, find out his name." . . . Danny Friendly, the Palace booker who fearlessly presented Judy Garland, says she can stay six months or a year.

MARION

Erin O'Brien, 22, pretty singer on the Steve Allen TV'er, has been wed six years and has two kids. (Actress Erin O'Brien Moore wants her to change her name) . . . Grace and her Prince saw "My Fair Lady"; they danced later but wouldn't pose for pix . . . Copa singer Marion Colby will run the election campaign for her husband, Bernard Frank, as a Miami Beach councilman.

Jeanne Crain's escort was Orrin Lehman . . . Barney Ross, out of the hospital, will convalesce in Bermuda . . . The "Nick Dean" on Deb Records is actually Pat Boone's kid brother . . . George Raft's doing the town with his buddy, ex-jockey Sammy Renick.

Earl's Pearls . . .

Sammy Kaye's clarinet reed squeaked twice during a rehearsal and he announced, "If I weren't the boss of this band I'd give myself notice!"

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Lynne Lyons reports on the actor who has so little personality that he worked on a color TV show and came out in black and white.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: "One nice thing about modern art," claims Walter Slezak, "—things can't be as bad as they are painted." That's earl, brother.

Pabst Wants Out of Fight Telecasts Due to 'Scandals'

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A spokesman for the Pabst Brewing Co., sponsor the firm is trying to sever its TV of Wednesday night fights on television for the last six years, said contract with the International Boxing Club.

The reason behind the move, the spokesman said, is that Pabst believes it is "losing prestige" because of recent boxing scandals.

Pabst's 52-week contract with the IBC runs through May 31, 1957. Discussions now are underway in New York to renegotiate the contract to conclude on Dec. 31, 1956. The Pabst-sponsored bouts are televised by the American Broadcasting Co.

The spokesman, who declined use of his name, said consumer surveys revealed that Pabst's sponsorship of the fights has led to "bad public relations in some areas."

He said he understood that two cigarette companies are interested in sponsoring the weekly bouts.

The IBC must agree before any contractural change can be made.

Boys Study Home Making

NEW YORK — A survey shows that the number of boys enrolled in homemaking courses in the nation's high schools more than doubled during the past 10 years. More than 26,000 are now enrolled in such courses.

Arnazes Wade Into 6th Season

Leading Comedy Team Plans Scene Changes to Enliven Program

By CHARLES DENTON

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz have waded into their sixth year on television, shrugging off the now annual rumors that this will be their final season as America's leading exponents of domestic drollery.

* * *

They are not planning to fold up "I Love Lucy" and tuck it into show business history at the end of this season.

In fact, they aren't planning anything at the moment beyond this year's doings in the Ricky Ricardo menage.

Even Lucy, usually credited with pressing for retirement from the weekly TV grind in order to spend more time with her children, snorted that trade talk of the impending mothballing of "I Love Lucy" was "just wishful thinking" on the part of competitors.

* * *

And Desi, the dynamic boss of the couple's flourishing Desilu operation, shrugged:

"With our own show we don't know yet what we plan to do. The hour format for Lucy is still in my mind, but it's sort of nebulous right now."

THE SPONSOR RULES

All of which seems to point to the conclusion that as long as a sponsor is willing — and they've never been less than eager—to pick up the tab for "Lucy," the show probably will continue to titillate the millions at home and abroad who consider the Ricardos honest-to-goodness neighbors.

* * *

As usual, this year's show will be enlivened by more changing scenery than the average citizen gets to see in a lifetime of summers.

Presumably on the time-tested show business theory that a moving target is harder to hit, the Ricardos will junket first to Florida, then hop across to Cuba to seek Ricky's "folks," and later move on to New Orleans and Texas, all without actually leaving filmland.

After that, the rambunctious redhead and her Latin Lothario will be abandoning the New York apartment where they first found almost unbelievable fame and fortune to do "the rural bit" in the suburbs, taking the Mertzes with them, of course.

* * *

There is an uncomfortable feeling in the tricky trade of the theater that once you have reached the top—where Lucy and Desi have been residing for the past five years—there is no place to go but down.

ALWAYS BE BETTER

But Desi, a non-conformist in the use of the English language and just about everything else, doesn't recognize this as the law of the profession.

* * *

"You can always be a better No. 1," he insisted. "The day I feel we can't improve, that's the day I'll hang up my hat and go home."

The ambitious Arnaz is many years from that point, however, regardless of what transpires with "I Love Lucy."

The Desilu studio is now producing 11 TV shows, plans to tackle more and is mapping a feature film, startling progress from Lucy and Desi's shoestring start as a pair of domestic comedians.

* * *

On top of all that, the couple is endlessly on the prowl for a good feature picture in which to star.

PLENTY OF TOIL

This work load demands 12 to 14 hours a day of nerve-twisting toil from Desi and a no less rigorous, though not so time consuming, effort from Lucy. But if either of them resents it, the worry lines don't show.

Would they start the whole thing again knowing where it would lead them?

"You kidding?" grinned Desi. "We'd have done it much more happily if we'd known what it was going to turn into."

Try, Try Again for Right Words to Pot-O-Gold

"If at first you don't succeed . . ." is especially true with Pot-O-Gold entries, because for each week that a winner isn't found, an additional $100 is put into the pot to reimburse you for your trouble. If Puzzle No. 18 doesn't bring in a winning entry, you can be the lucky one to walk away counting $1300 into your own pocket. Be sure to read the rules carefully . . . what would be worse than to have a winning answer disqualified because it was late or missent?

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.

2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answer words in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 19 must bear a Tuesday, Oct. 16, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time, whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner, no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries become the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Birds 'Storks' for Cattle

NIIMI, Japan — Forty carrier pigeons have been helping cattle breeders. The Okayama Prefecture Farm Experiment Station disclosed the birds for the last two years have been delivering artificial insemination material to remote ranches. "They have helped fatter 900 head of cattle," the station director said.
