Nosedives Into Corn Field

AP Wirephoto

SCENE OF WRECK — Two police officers inspect scattered ruins of light plane which crashed yesterday afternoon into the White Lake Township corn field killing its three occupants, two men and a 4-year-old boy. All were from Warren. Cause of the nosedive crash had not been determined.

2 Warren Men, Boy Die in Plane Crash Near City

By MAX E. SIMON

Nosediving into a cornfield near Pontiac, a light, single-engine plane carried three persons to their deaths Sunday afternoon.

Killed instantly in the crash were:

The light plane, a four-seat Piper Tri-Pacer, crashed into a White Lake Township field near the intersection of Fisk road and M59, two miles west of Pontiac Municipal Airport.

Debris was scattered about the area. The plane was demolished.

Pontiac State Police troopers and Oakland County sheriff's deputies have not been able to determine who was piloting the plane. It was equipped with dual controls.

Wrecking crews were forced to use cutting equipment to remove the bodies.

Scores of White Lake Township residents saw the crash.

ENGINE SPUTTERED

Witnesses said the plane circled the field and headed due west when the engine suddenly sputtered. The pilot revved the motor, they said. Then the engine suddenly stopped, and the plane went screeching to the ground.

The plane was flying at an altitude of approximately 500 feet when it started its plunge.

The time of the crash was 4:30 p. m.

Hundreds of curious motorists and township residents converged on the area. Traffic was snarled both ways on busy M59.

Sowders had paid about $500 for a one-eighth share in the plane only a week ago.

Relatives of the two men said both were experienced pilots.

Trebesch held a commercial pilot's license and was seeking a job as a commercial airlines pilot. He was a clerical worker at the General Motors Technical Center in Warren.

8 OWN PLANE

The plane is registered to the eight-member Lakeland Flying Club which has a hangar at the Pontiac Airport.

Another member of the club, Dr. Joseph L. Schirle of 330 Lorberta Lane, took his wife and daughter up in the plane shortly before noon. Schirle saw the crash victims at the airport when he brought the plane back.

Sowders and his wife were planning to fly the plane to Florida later this month for their 10-year-old son, Steven, who is vacationing there with his grandparents.

Sowders told friends he wanted to fly yesterday "to get the feel of the plane."

The exact time the victims left the airport could not be fixed. The club apparently kept no log of flights, said State Trooper Gary Powell of the Pontiac Post and Sheriff's Deputy George Lumbard.

Besides his wife, Trebesch is survived by three daughters, Bev-

Passes Truth Serum Test

Clear Tunnell in Slaying

Lloyd J. Tunnell, 53, held for investigation of first degree murder in the shooting of Dr. W. Carleton Warrick, yesterday was released and cleared of any connection with the crime.

After two previous lie detector tests had produced what police called "inconclusive results," Tunnell passed a truth serum test Sunday.

Also present were several detectives from Pontiac and from the Redford State Police post.

After 45 minutes of questioning, Tunnell was brought slowly from his hypnotic state. Police said he had consistently said, "The doctor was always good to me," and "I didn't kill the doctor."

Det. Lt. William Nesbitt, commander of the Pontiac Police Detecive Bureau said Tunnell explained why he had lied in the two previous tests.

"At first he told us he didn't leave the doctor's office at 24½ E. Huron St. after finding Warrick and calling police."

LEFT IN FEAR

"Tests proved he was lying. He told us that he had walked to the corner of Perry and Huron streets, about three doors away, because he was scared.

"Then he denied he left the office for the same reason," Nesbitt revealed.

Tunnell, who operates a rest home at 1755 Williams Lake Rd., was a long-time patient of Warrick. He was the first person to

We're Brightest City in Michigan

Downtown Pontiac Has a Brilliant Glow From New Street Lights

Downtown Pontiac has become just about the brightest downtown area in Michigan at nighttime.

With the new downtown street light installations nearly completed by Consumers Power Co., officials and merchants are greeting the new nighttime brilliance enthusiastically.

Consumers has installed nearly all the 76 new lights on Saginaw street from Lafayette to Whittemore and on Huron street, Cass to Mill.

No other city in Michigan is using street lights as bright as Pontiac's, said Edward L. Karkau, Consumer's district manager.

7 TIMES STRONGER

The new fluorescent lights measure 35,000 lumens each in brightness, about seven times as bright as the former conventional street lights.

By comparison, similar fluorescent lights installed by Consumers on Perry street last year measure only 20,000 lumens.

"The new lamps have been available industrially for about a year, but have only been adaptable for street lighting purposes in the past few months," Karkau said.

"In downtown Pontiac, the nucleus has been established for one of the best lighted downtown areas in Michigan," said Karkau.

He said installation of the lights would be completed this week.

Believe Killer Seen in Woods

State Police Close In on Man Thought to Be Marquette Escapee

A man believed to be the escaped murderer of a Hazel Park tavern owner and his son was reported sighted early today in a tiny wooded area west of Marquette.

State Police, sheriff deputies and guards from the Northern Michigan Prison at Marquette prepared to close in on Michael J. (Mike) Gisondi, 29, in an area about a quarter-mile square near Humboldt Junction, about 27 miles west of Marquette.

The search was intensified in the area after a gasoline station was broken into last night at North Lake, about five miles from the wooded area. A leather jacket and some candy and food were stolen.

A steady rainfall handicapped the searchers.

Gisondi and his pal, Harold Hummel, were sentenced to life prison terms in 1953 by Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland for the 1952 "revenge" slayings of Vidos Vinokurow, 60, and his son, Joseph, 31, in their Oak Gardens tavern, 21630 John R.

Rockefeller Lets Figures Decide if He Will Run

Wants Public Opinion Polls to Tell Nixon's Strength Against Dems

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York will decide by Nov. 1, on the basis of public opinion polls, whether he will seek the 1960 Republican presidential nomination.

The governor, who is teetering on the brink of an announcement, has told friends he would be a candidate only if he had conclusive evidence that Vice President Richard M. Nixon is not likely to win against the Democratic nominee.

Rockefeller takes no stock in polls which point to the election of a Democrat as president.

More Muggy, Damp Weather Is on Its Way

Partly cloudy and warmer through tomorrow becoming humid tonight, is the weatherman's prediction. Showers are likely tomorrow.

The low tonight will be 65 degrees and the high tomorrow 88.

Temperatures will average about five degrees above the normal high of 83 and normal low of 62 for the next five days. It will remain rather warm and humid until Friday or Saturday

The lowest recorded temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 54. At 1 p.m. the reading was 78.

GUESS WHO'S COMING! — Watch for this man. You may see him this fall. In person. Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has accepted an invitation from President Eisenhower to visit the United States. The President, in turn, will visit the Russian leader later this year.

Soviet Leader Makes History in September

Eisenhower to Return Call Later in the Year; No Dates Definite

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev will exchange visits this fall — thus taking into a new phase of diplomacy the East-West differences on which world peace hangs.

Khrushchev's visit here—a historic first by a top leader of Russian Communism — will be in September. Eisenhower will go to Moscow later in the year. Exact dates for the visits have not yet been fixed.

(In Warsaw, Vice President Richard M. Nixon said he understood Khrushchev would go to the United States about Sept. 15).

Almost identical announcements of the plans were made here and in Moscow — the differences apparently only those of translation. Winding up the peace theme, the final paragraph, in the text released by Moscow, said:

"Both governments express the hope that the forthcoming visits will promote the establishment of better understanding between the United States and the U.S.S.R. and will further the cause of peace."

Eisenhower called a special news conference to make the announcement here. Exchanges at this meeting with reporters developed also:

BIG 3 MEET SET

1. Before meeting with Khrushchev here, Eisenhower will go to Europe later this month to confer with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, French President Charles de Gaulle and West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Tentative arrangements are being made in Paris to hold a meeting of the Western Big Four chiefs of government here late in August, reliable informants said. The planning was still in the formative stage, and details still had to be settled.

2. Exchanges on the question of Khrushchev-Eisenhower visits have been going on for some time; were initiated well before Vice President Richard M. Nixon went to Russia.

Eisenhower said he told Nixon on the day the vice president left for Russia that negotiations in form were in progress looking toward an exchange of visits between Khrushchev and himself.

Eisenhower said he told Nixon not to open the subject of the exchange visits, but that there was no prohibition on him to discussing the matter once the subject was opened up.

★ ★ ★

In telling of his plans to go to Europe to confer with the heads of state of Great Britain, France and West Germany, Eisenhower said coordination between the Allied powers has been good.

But, he added, there are prob-

Nixon, Gomulka Talk After Huge Welcome

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon met for more than three hours today with Communist chief Wladyslaw Gomulka and Premier Jozef Cyraniewicz. Crowds continued to cheer him at every turn.

About 5,000 enthusiastic Poles gathered to watch Nixon place a rose wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown soldier in a solemn ceremony honoring Poland's war dead.

Many in the crowd cheered him with cries of "live 100 years," a traditional cheer in Poland.

An excited Polish worker bolted through police lines and grabbed Nixon in a fierce bear hug, almost knocking him down.

Polish security agents pried Nixon loose and pushed the man roughly aside. Nixon was startled momentarily but quickly regained his composure. The vice president's aides said the man meant no harm and that he wanted to hoist Nixon on the shoulders of the crowd.

Governor Is Delighted

Rocky's Son Will Marry

KRISTIANSAND, Norway (AP) —Steven Rockefeller and a former maid in his wealthy family's home plan a late summer wedding in a small Lutheran church in Norway.

Gov. and Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York said they are delighted at their son's engagement to Anne Marie Rasmussen, 21, pretty blonde daughter of a prosperous Kristiansand grocer.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT — Steven Rockefeller, son of New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, and Anne Marie Rasmussen, former maid in the Rockefeller household, tell of their plans to wed. The ceremony will take place in a Lutheran church in Soegne, Norway, a village near the future bride's home town of Kristiansand.

"She is a wonderful girl," the governor said.

Announcing their engagement Sunday, the young couple did not set a wedding date. But a friend of the Rasmussen family said it would probably be Aug. 22.

It will be performed by the Rev. Olav Gautestad in the Lutheran Church at nearby Soegne. The pastor is an old friend of the Rasmussens. The Rockefellers are Baptists.

The governor has indicated he and his wife will come to Scandinavia for the wedding.

"I can't imagine that I would not participate in the wedding of any of my children," he told newsmen Saturday.

Steven, 23, and the third of his parents' five children, first met Anne Marie when she came to the United States in 1956 to learn English and worked for a time as a maid in his home. She left the Rockefeller employ in 1957 to work in a New York department store, then worked for an insurance firm in New York.

FLEW TO OSLO

After serving an army hitch, young Rockefeller flew to Oslo July 10 and met Anne Marie. They came on to her home by motorcycle, and the romance rumors have been booming ever since.

The girl's father, Kristian Rasmussen, appeared with the couple at a news conference Sunday.

"If our daughter will be happy this way, we will not stop her," he said.

Naples Off Bottle Now

NAPLES, Italy (UPI)—Normal water service was restored to this port city yesterday after a dry week that put some 600,000 Neapolitans on the bottle. The water supplies were cut off last Sunday when a landslide blocked a main aqueduct leading from the mountains, and many residents had to resort to beer, wine and soft drinks to quench their thirst.

Kicks 'Em Out of Downtown

45-Day Experiment Is Started With Malls for Pedestrians Only

TOLEDO (UPI)—The automobile was ostracized today from the heart of downtown Toledo in the start of a 45-day experiment.

With all the hoopla accorded the arrival of the automobile half a century ago, the pedestrian came into his own on the malls — the area sealed off from traffic.

The parking meters and street signs were gone and traffic lights ignored. In their places, 10,000 potted plants, 1,000 evergreens and other trees are to sprout.

Workmen have painted outlines on the streets where gardens and patios will be built if Toledo takes to the idea.

FIGHT SHOPPING CENTERS

Downtown businessmen hope the malls will serve as the inner city's answer to the convenience of shopping centers on the outskirts.

Like many metropolitan areas, Toledo, a city of nearly a third of a million people, found its downtown area choked by traffic. Shoppers were becoming more and more reluctant to go downtown.

City officials hope the public will return to public transportation, which will drop shoppers off at the malls' eight archway entrances.

The idea of creating malls where pedestrians could roam at will was backed vigorously by Downtown Toledo Associates, Toledo's merchant group.

The idea was suggested to American cities two years ago by Lewis Mumford, writer and city planner, who told the International Congress of Local Authorities at The Hague: "Either the motor car will drive us all out of our cities or the cities will have to drive out the motor car."

Tonight, the malls, dubbed "Toledo Shoppers' See-way," will be officially dedicated by Mayor John Yager and Lucas County Commissioner Ned Skeldon while a band plays "On the Mall."

During the next 45 days, Toledoans will be surveyed and, if they approve of the malls, the idea will be adopted permanently.

Mostly Pleasant Weather Prevails Throughout U.S.

By The Associated Press

Fairly pleasant weather prevailed today in most of the country, although it was a little cool in the northeast and showers sprinkled scattered sections.

Cool Canadian air covered the northeast corner from Maine through New York and Pennsylvania and into West Virginia. Temperatures ranged from the 60s into the 40s, far below normal in most of the region.

Readings were in the 60s in a narrow belt extending from Virginia through the Ohio Valley and the Great Lakes region into the upper Mississippi Valley. The 70s were the rule in most other areas except for the 80s in the southern and central plains and the Southwest desert region and the 50s near the Pacific Coast and parts of the northern Rockies.

Gillis flew the same plane to Mexico earlier this month. He is presently on active duty with the Air Force Reserve at Bakalor Air Force Base, Ind.

At first it was believed Gillis was one of the victims as the plane was registered to the club under his name.

William Welke, of 7520 Pontiac Trail, Walled Lake, maintenance officer of the club, said the plane appeared to be in good condition.

Government investigators were to begin a probe of the accident today.

The plane was traveling slowly when it started its plunge, witnesses said. They reported the craft "crumpled like a ball" upon hitting the ground. It did not burn.

The victims were not positively identified for three hours. The bodies were taken to the D. E. Pursley Funeral Home, 151 Orchard Lake Ave.

"One of the plane's characteristics is its basic stability," said David Silberg, treasurer, of 6321 St. James St., West Bloomfield Township. He called the accident "extremely unusual."

Even if a pilot let go of the controls completely, Silberg said, the plane would tend to fly straight at a level altitude.

He declined to disclose what subjects were discussed. Nixon's call on Gomulka stretched out through lunch time. The two men discussed international problems so intently they decided they might as well continue. Gomulka arranged to have luncheon served.

During the ceremony at the tomb, one of the Nixon's well-wishers handed the vice president his 5-year-old daughter to hold. Nixon held the girl in his arms, turned to the crowd around him and called out as they applauded: "We must all work for a better life for our children."

After placing a wreath of pink roses on the memorial tomb and reviewing an honor guard, Nixon suddenly moved toward the thousands of spectators applauding and cheering him. The crowd gave cries of "long life." One man broke through crying "Neexon."

He bore down like a fullback coming off right guard and clasped Nixon around his middle, almost weeping. Police and Nixon's aides went quickly to his side and people in the crowd set up the chant "stolat," meaning "may you live 100 years."

Grinning, Nixon moved back toward his car, and the procession went off to the government offices for calls on Communist party leader Wladyslaw Gomulka, Premier Jozef Cyrankiewicz and Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki.

'WE KNOW WHO YOU ARE' — New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller found that his fame had preceded him as he arrived in Puerto Rico this weekend to attend the Governors' Conference. Rockefeller says he'll decide by Nov. 1, on the basis of public opinion polls, whether to seek the 1960 Republican presidential nomination.

Rockefeller Lets Figures Decide Whether He'll Run

Some of his strategists have told the New York governor that his timing is too late. They say the reaction to Nixon's Soviet visit will be a rise in the vice president's poll popularity at the time Rockefeller plans his decision.

But the governor insists adamantly he will make no decision until fall.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan told a morning news conference he did not consider himself a presidential candidate at this time. Local financial problems, which he termed transitory, demand his full attention, the governor said.

Williams said he had no personal choice at the moment to lead the Democratic ticket.

"I am fond of all Democrats," he said.

TOUGHER THAN NIXON

He said he felt Rockefeller would be a more difficult Republican choice to beat than Vice President Richard M. Nixon. But, he said, any liberal Democrat would defeat Rockefeller.

Rockefeller clearly is the star so far of the 51st annual Governor's Conference, opening today.

Dressed in a conservative dark suit despite San Juan's muggy heat, he kept reporters laughing most of the way through a news conference in which he said he has no intention of seeking the presidency but—

He wouldn't preclude the possibility of completely changed circumstances under which he could become a candidate.

It was news to him that former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey had advised him to make a decision on the race this fall.

HADN'T HEARD

Neither had he heard, he said, of a prediction by Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-NY) that accelerating events would force such a decision earlier than expected.

Yes, Rockefeller continued, he had a lot of letters urging him to run. No, he hadn't counted them, but they probably ran into the hundreds. What was his reaction to these and newspaper reports of his possible candidacy?

"I'm interested, like everybody else is," he said with another wide grin.

He flatly rejected suggestions he might run for the vice presidency on a ticket headed by Nixon. He was kind in his comments, however, about his potential rival.

Nixon, he said, "seems to be a leading candidate for the prize." He thought Nixon had "handled himself with great skill under varied and difficult circumstances" in his tour of the Soviet Union and his encounters with Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

The Democratic picture was clouded by the reluctance of most of that party's governors to speak out in favor of any particular candidate.

Although Connecticut Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff insisted that Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) is the leading candidate for his party's nomination, some of his colleagues were not so sure.

Gov. Leroy Collins of Florida said his state probably will get behind its Sen. George A. Smathers as a favorite son. But he predicted compromises will be reached by which all major candidates will be represented on the state's delegation, and no one person, including Smathers, will be able to control it.

Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey, a prospective favorite son with obvious national ambitions, told a news conference he has no intentions now of becoming a candidate. But he said that "if the stream indicated I might swim in a certain direction, I might."

Ike, Nikita Reveal Exchange Visits Set

lems that ought to be talked out between heads of government. He remarked that it is good for these leaders to see each other.

As to whether all this may lead to a summit conference of East and West, Eisenhower in effect brushed that aside as a premature question. He said such a conference was absolutely impractical unless there were advance indications of positive results.

But, with the prospective collapse of the Geneva foreign minsiters' conference, it was obvious that there was opening up now a new, higher level of exchanges which the Western allies hope may bring some alteration in Soviet positions on the great issues between the East and West.

First reaction in Congress to the forthcoming Eisenhower-Khrushchev visits was favorable, though not unanimously so.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Republican leader, said the talks if successful could "enshrine the President as the boldest and most determined peacemaker in many gennerations."

From Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, assistant Democratic leader, came the comment that he had no doubt Eisenhower's decision was prompted by "good and sufficient reasons." Mansfield said there should be "no petty, partisan quibbling" and that he himself would give the President's decision full support.

Khrushchev is expected to visit Washington for two or three days to engage in, as the announcement put it, informal talks with the President.

Plans are for the Russian leader to put in another 10 days or so in travel about the United States.

The hope obviously is that these travels may change some of Khrushchev's ideas about the strength and character of this country and its people.

Eisenhower smilingly described his announcement that Khrushchev would visit this country in September and that he would return the visit later as one of the worst-kept secrets in a long time.

The Russian radio made the announcement about the time the President was meeting with newsmen. Also there had been word earlier from congressional sources that Eisenhower's news conference call was for the purpose of stating that Khrushchev was coming here.

NIKITA'S BEEN HINTING

Khrushchev has been throwing out hints for months that he was ready and willing to accept an invitation to visit the United States.

More Trouble on Cyprus

NICOSIA, Cyprus (UPI)—Military authorities disclosed last night that they had set up road blocks in north Cyprus to catch gun-runners believed supplying arms to both Greek and Turkish gangs. The disclosure followed the mysterious bombing yesterday of a culvert on a mountain road near the village of Lefka.

Rockefeller's Son to Wed in Norway

off Saturday for the publishing of the marriage banns, which in Norway must be done three weeks before the wedding. But this period may be reduced by the Department of Justice if the applicant shows cause.

Young Rockefeller, a graduate of Princeton University, said he will return to New York in September and enter one of his family's businesses.

"This will change my life completely," Anne Marie said. "Everything will become different for me, but what I have brought with me from the home of my childhood will always remain with me. I will remain the one I am."

She said she and Steven would live in an apartment in New York but that they haven't found one yet. Anne Marie added that she wants to keep house herself.

Steven said he will stay with the Rasmussens until the wedding and added he would like to get in some fishing. Putting his arm around Anne Marie, he added, "I was sure lucky catching this one."

Prospects of Mr. K's Trip to U.S. Eases Allied Fears

GENEVA (AP) — The prospect of a visit to the United States by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev eased Allied fears today of a dangerous new flareup in the Berlin crisis after the collapse of the foreign ministers conference here.

★ ★ ★

U. S., British and French officials all conceded that the conference almost certainly will end in disagreement Wednesday. The only reservation they make is that some unforseen and radical change of position by Russia could alter the outcome even on the final day. Informants said the West will not change its position.

★ ★ ★

Negotiations have come almost to a standstill. The only East-West talk scheduled today was a luncheon meeting between Russia's Andrei A. Gromyko and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd. The Briton was to meet before and after with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville.

★ ★ ★

Before talk arose of an invitation soon from President Eisenhower to Khrushchev, all the Allied delegations here were concerned over what Russia would do about West Berlin when efforts to reach an agreement finally collapsed.

★ ★ ★

Now Allied diplomats, especially the British and West German, express the view that so long as high-level discussions are in prospect or under way, Khrushchev can be counted on to keep his threats against West Berlin in suspension.

★ ★ ★

Lloyd and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan see a Khrushchev - Eisenhower meeting as a step toward a Summit conference, which they still ardently desire. They apparently believe talks between the Soviet Premier and the U.S. President would open up prospects for agreement at the Summit on at least one or two issues.

Citizens Research Council Sets Bloomfield Meeting

BIRMINGHAM—Meyer L. Prentis, president of the Citizens Research Council of Michigan, and Thomas R. Reid, director and annual meeting chairman, have announced plans for the annual meeting of the Citizens Research Council to be held Oct. 15 at Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Research council members and their guests will convene at 4 p.m. for a business session. Following the formal meeting will be a social hour and dinner.

The Citizens Research Council is an independent, non partisan, privately supported research agency which has been devoting its attention to public affairs since its founding in 1916.

Purpose of the research council is to promote more efficient, economical and responsible government.

DANIEL W. SYMONS

Pythian Memorial Service for Daniel W. Symons, 91, of 544 W. Brown St., Birmingham, will be held 8 p.m. today at Manley Bailey Funeral Home in Birmingham.

★ ★ ★

Funeral service will be at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow at the funeral home. Entombment will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Mr. Symons died Saturday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, after a short illness.

He was a member of First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, a past chancellor-commander of the Birmingham Knights of Pythias Lodge, a current member of the City of the Straits Pythian Lodge and of the DOKK, Pythians.

Surviving are six daughters, Mrs. Charles M. Jones of West Bloomfield Township, Mrs. J. Howard Wendorph of Lathrup Village, Mrs. Loran O'Brien of Manton, Mrs. Cidney O'Brien of Perry, Mrs. Elsie Knox of Bradenton, Fla., and Mrs. Louis Clark of Dearborn; one son, Lloyd of Manton; 21 grandchildren, and 46 great-grandchildren.

Mother Claims New Underwater Endurance Mark

HERMOSA BEACH, Calif. (UPI)—A 23-year-old mother of three children today claimed a new underwater endurance record of 55 hours and 37.11 minutes.

Mrs. Dolores Fisher, operator of an underwater diving school, climbed out of the water last night after a doctor ordered her topside for an examination. Mrs. Fisher was reluctant to surface but her co-workers were becoming worried about the possible effects of the long submersion.

Mrs. Fisher was pronounced in good condition when she came up.

She wore an aqua lung during her stay on the pool bottom and was fed liquids through a squeeze bottle. The old record was 50 hours and 2.43 minutes set last May 16 by Mrs. Alberta Jones of Northridge, Calif.

Our City Becomes Brightest in State

cooperatively, Karkau said, by the City Engineering Department, headed by John Emerson, and Consumers' Electrical Engineering Department, headed by Gordon A. Low.

"The merchants are very grateful to Consumers and to the City Commission for making the change," said Richman.

"With the downtown area brightened up at night, we expect there will now be a strong movement to make other improvements downtown.

★ ★ ★

"The lights will improve downtown Pontiac's competitive ability, making it a more enjoyable place for nighttime shoppers."

Mayor Philip E. Rowston said one of the City Commission's aims was to help downtown Pontiac increase its popularity as a retail center.

"Good street lighting is a necessity for a good city and its commercial areas," he said. "A poorly-lighted commercial area tends to 'fold up at night,' while a well-lighted one tends to stay alive."

The downtown area at night should be a safer place for pedestrian shoppers and motorists, he noted.

Willman said it is the city administration's hope to extend the new lighting when funds become available.

The downtown lights will cost the city between $5,000 and $6,000 more in its annual light bill, he said. The City Commission approved the extra expense early this year.

Soviets Reject British Request

Plea to Intervene in New Red Rebellion in Laos Denied by Gromyko

GENEVA (AP)—The Soviet Union has rejected a British plea to intervene in a new Communist rebellion in the southeast Asian kingdom of Laos.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd discussed the new outbreak of violence in what was formerly French Indochina with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko Sunday.

Official sources said Lloyd had told Gromyko that Britain is gravely concerned over the situation and that Communist North Viet Nam, Laos' northeastern neighbors, is aiding the rebels with men and arms.

In rejecting this, Gromyko claimed the Laotian government had violated the 1954 Indochina armistice, under which Laos was to remain neutral and establish a national front government with Communist participation. Britain and the Soviet Union were co-chairmen of the armistice conference.

Gromyko recalled that the Soviet Union last month had urged reestablishment of the Indian-Canadian - Polish Armistice Commission which was abolished five months ago. Britain turned down that proposal after the Laotian government had refused to accept the commission again.

Escaped Murderer Reported Sighted

Troopers at a roadblock on U.S. 41 said they saw a pickup truck approach without lights at about 2:45 a.m. It stopped about 300 yards from the roadblock, they said, and a man jumped out and ran into the woods alongside the road.

Officers said they gave chase but lost sight of the man in the darkness and heavy undergrowth.

The abandoned truck was found to be registered to Leander Johnson of Negaunee, who was away from the home when officers sought to talk to him.

They said earlier they were awaiting reports of thefts from farms in an effort to trap Gisondi.

Gisondi and Hummel were escapees from the Ionia State Reformatory at the time of the Vinokurow killings.

A break in the baffling murders — the tavern was not robbed — came when a 16-year-old Indianapolis, Ind. girl told police the pair had confessed the murders to her during their flight from Michigan.

Besides his escape from Ionia and Marquette, Gisondi, who steadily maintained his innocence during his trial, had once fled from Jackson Prison where he had been sentenced by Judge Holland. He then was shifted to the tougher prison at Marquette.

Survey Sees Bigger Year for U.S. Cars

DETROIT (AP)—A New York investment survey today estimated the 1960 automobile market at 6½ million cars, up about half a million from the current year.

In an analysis of the auto industry, Value Line Investment Survey viewed 1960 as "a good year for production; an uncertain, perhaps even a chaotic, year for profits."

It predicted the increased sales will come almost entirely from the new, smaller cars to be built by General Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

The survey said preliminary production plans of these companies call for 600,000 of the smaller cars and commented: "We see no reason for doubting the Big Three's ability to sell their new cars—the only question is, will they make any money doing it?"

Value Line said that unless the small car market should expand by considerably more than 50 per cent, the Big Three's marketing plans will "almost certainly have an adverse effect on the independent domestic and foreign manufacturers."

State Park Visitors Post a National Record in 1958

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Persons seeking outdoor recreation made a record number of visits to state parks last year, the National Park Service has reported.

Visits exceeded 237 million, a new annual travel record and an increase of 20.5 million, or 9 per cent, over 1957.

Seven states reported more than 10 million visits. New York led with 33 million and was followed by California with 19.9 million; Pennsylvania, 19.5 million; Michigan, 18.5 million; Ohio, 16.9 million; Oregon, 10.5 million, and Illinois, 10 million.

Tent and trailer camping surged 24 per cent. California had the biggest camper clientele, reporting 3 million camper days.

New York and Michigan each reported 1.8 million camper days. Other states reporting a larger camping patronage were Pennsylvania, Oregon, Wisconsin, Ohio and Massachusetts.

Expenditures by state park agencies totaled about 73.2 million dollars, down 1 per cent from 1957. Some 6.3 million dollars was spent by agencies other than those administering state parks on park roads and other projects.

Revenues from operations, including state-owned facilities, concessions and entrance and parking fees, increased 14 per cent over 1957, totaling 18.2 million dollars.

Average cost to the states, per visit, was 31 cents. Of this, 20 cents was for operation and maintnance, 11 cents for capital improvements.

Net operation and maintenance cost, per visit, was abuot 12 cents, since revenues amounted to about 8 cents per visit.

National Park Service said these per-visit costs have remained virtually the same during the past few years.

Midland Hospital Assn. Sets Expansion Drive

MIDLAND (AP) — The Midland Hospital Assn. will conduct a November drive for $975,000 to finance construction of an addition to the 160-bed Midland Hospital.

Fred Harlow, association president, said the expansion would cost $1,065,000, but that a $90,000 grant had been received from the Ford Foundation and other private gifts would reduce the amount needed to $975,000.

Latest Bill Lists Atlas Missiles

Defense Plan Includes 170 of Ocean-Spanning Nuclear Bombs

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $39,228,239,000 compromise defense appropriations bill includes funds to build at least 170 Atlas missiles, informed sources say.

The defense measure worked out Friday by Senate and House conferees still needs approval by the Senate and House. The House probably will consider it on Tuesday.

Although the bill totaled 20 million dollars less than President Eisenhower had asked, the conference committee offset this by boosting the amount of money that the Pentagon could use from funds authorized in the past. In this category, it gave the Pentagon 90 million dollars more than the President had sought.

In other sections of the compromise bill, the conferees agreed:

1. To order an increase in National Guard manpower.

2. To pay for—but not order—an increase in Army reserve and Marine manpower.

3. To cut appropriations for the Navy, Marines, Air Force and secretary of defense but boost them for the Army.

4. To provide 35 million dollars to start work on another nuclear-powered aircraft carrier.

5. To push development on other missiles besides the Atlas. Two intercontinental ballistic missiles—the Titan and the Minuteman—and the Nike-Zeus, a defense missile, will benefit.

Reserves Report Older Age Limit Change in Policy

The Pontiac Naval Reserve Training Center, 469 S. East Blvd., has announced a change in the Reserve enlistment age limit.

According to Lt. Cmdr. William C. Remick, commander of the center, the first age span for men going into the Reserve without reporting immediately into active duty has been widened to from 17 to 26 years.

★ ★ ★

Previously only those between 17 and 18½ years could enlist without going immediately into active duty. Under the new setup, men between 17 and 26 will be able to join the Reserve, complete their recruit training at home, which takes about one year, and then go into two years of active duty in a higher pay grade than they would through other programs.

★ ★ ★

The Navy announced this change as part of a "get tough" policy for enlisted Reserves who have not been attending drills and who have not completed two years of active duty.

Toilet ALL-ANGLE Plunger

Ordinary plungers just don't seat properly. They permit compressed air and water to splash back. Thus you not only have a mess, but you lose the very pressure you need to clear the obstruction!

With "Toilaflex", expressly designed for toilets, no air or water can escape. The full pressure plows through the clogging mass and swishes it down. Can't miss!

- Double-size cup, double-pressure
- Tapered tail gives air-tight fit
- Designed to flex at any angle
- Centers itself, can't skid around

Flies Thick, and Vicious on Red Jets

EN ROUTE WITH NIXON—The Russian TU104 jetliner has something the big American jets don't have—house flies.

A goodly swarm flew with us wherever we traveled in Russia. The Russian house fly seems to have no trouble making the transition from conventional power to jet. It still hits like a pebble, hits back if swatted and likes to join you at meals.

IN FRACTURED ENGLISH

Our 100-passenger plane had three stewardesses, one of whom, Lyda, spoke fractured English. I never saw one of them sit down during a flight except on takeoffs and landings. Lyda briefed us before the first takeoff.

She explained about seat belts and no smoking and finished with a kindly-spoken, "These rules will be obeyed with no objection."

Then the other girls began passing out little plastic bags. It surprised them when none of the Americans accepted them. They were for fountain pens. Apparently Russia has invented a fountain pen that leaks, another "first" for Soviet science.

The girls fed us well. Flying from Novosibirsk to Sverdlovsk, we started off with a glass of grape juice, then on to a half cold Siberian chicken, tough but tasty, a whole tomato, whole raw cucumber, black bread, cookies and coffee.

The girls looked out for our welfare in other ways. The doors of the TU104 are quite small. "Take your head off," Lyda recommended when ever we entered or departed.

Lyda didn't mean hat either.

The Russians won't tell us how many of the big, rakish TU104s have been built, but we saw dozens parked at airports. Looks as if somebody goofed in estimating the expected volume of air traffic. A U.S. airline with that many planes on the ground would go bust in short order.

Novosibirsk and Sverdlovsk have been closed to Westerners so long that people just stared and stared at the Nixon party or, when urged, gave vent to ecstatic applause. The sight of a $10 bill all but threw the director of the Bolshoi Ural, Sverdlovsk's Waldorf, when it was presented in hopes of buying 100 rubles. He examined it for a good ten minutes, then compared it minutely with a facsimile of a sawbuck in a Russian book.

Editor George Healy of the New Orleans Times-Picayune was standing 17th in line outside a forlorn one-holer in the mud-splattered hotel where reporters traveling with Nixon were billeted while in Novosibirsk. No hot water, of course, and many affronts to olfactory senses. Scotty Reston of the New York Times walked past Healy, looked at his friend and said, "If Earl Long could see you he would say, 'Who is crazy now?'"

The dining room of the Bolshoy Ural has a mamoth cross-eyed hostess who couldn't be kinder. She is the only member of the staff who speaks English. She revealed this in a somewhat unexpected manner the other day. She came up to a table of reporters who had finished their day's work and were having the customary thimble-sized glasses of vodka, smiled and, looking at all of us simultaneously, said, "You'll get drunk if you don't eat."

Another Russian first.

Marooned on Alaska Glacier

Flare Brings Rescue for 2

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — A single smoke flare, saved for use at just the right moment, brought rescue Sunday to two men marooned seven nights and days high on the barren face of an Alaska glacier.

The flare was sighted by a helicopter pilot participating in a week-old sea and air search over the mountains and through the valleys and inlets of rugged glacier bay national monument.

Although the two were saved, the body of a third man remained with the wreckage of a helicopter in which they crashed last Sunday at the 5,800-foot level Gilman Glacier.

Dead was Robert Baldwin of Ridgefield, Conn., a geophysicist for the Newmont Exploration Co., Ltd., of New York City. Another helicopter was to remove the body today.

Bearded and weary, bruised but otherwise not seriously hurt, were Robert Sheldon and Melvin Guerrera. They survived through chilling temperatures and heavy rain with the aid of a sleeping bag and emergency food rations.

"The first thing they wanted were baths," said Dr. Joseph O. Rude, who treated the men at Juneau's St. Anne's Hospital.

"There's nothing seriously wrong," he said, "nothing a few days rest and food won't fix."

Sheldon, a geologist from Spokane, Wash., was working with Baldwin at an oil exploration camp on Brady Glacier in the National monument area. Guerrera, 28, formerly of Reno, Nev., is a pilot for Petroleum Helicopters of Lafayette, La., working on charter.

Birmingham's Traffic Record to Be Admired

The City of Birmingham and its 26,000 residents have every right to be proud of their "no traffic deaths" record for 1958. An appropriate award was presented to the Mayor by a representative of the National Safety Council.

★ ★ ★

Such an outstanding record does not come by chance. City officials, police officers and the residents themselves have all contributed to help make this achievement possible.

★ ★ ★

Successful accident prevention is not easy to come by, and in all cases it is a full time job that requires 100 per cent cooperation.

Traffic deaths are horrible, to say the least.

All cities and towns in the immediate area should take stock of Birmingham's outstanding record and work with positive enthusiasm to accomplish like results.

★ ★ ★

Iraq's Premier Kassem Lacks Dynamic Plan

As a result of the recent unsuccessful Communist inspired uprising in Iraq, the West's position in relation to that of Russia may be somewhat improved.

★ ★ ★

Premier Kassem had Red support for his 1958 revolution and welcomed it. However, as no Communist is interested in the independence of a country, quarrels broke out and the Premier eventually removed all known Reds from his cabinet. They have been replaced with staunch anti-Communists.

★ ★ ★

Last March a rebellion of Iraqi Nationalists aligned with President NASSER of the United Arab Republic also failed. Thus Premier KASSEM is under fire from both Communists and Nationalists while he strives to steer an independent course.

★ ★ ★

Recently on the anniversary of the revolution the Premier called on all Iraqis to lay aside feuds and grudges and to arm themselves with the spirit of co-operation. While he does have widespread popular support he has no dynamic program to unite the people. Just being anti-Communist and anti-Nasser aren't enough.

Doctor Education Plan Would Shorten Training

A new approach to the shortage of medical doctors is contained in Boston University's announcement that it plans to train doctors in six years instead of eight and with better qualifications.

The proposed plan, result of a a study financed by the Rockefeller Foundation, makes no fundamental change in medical education. Students will attend a liberal arts school for two years and then go to medical school for four years. Part of that period will be spent in clinical clerkships in medicine, surgery, pediatrics, psychiatry, obstetrics and home care.

A year round schedule will be maintained to integrate under-graduates and graduate work into "a program of general education with medicine as a major." One-third of the time will be devoted to non-medical electives such as literature, religion, ethics and history.

The United States needs more medical men to take care of the nation's expanding population and the ever increasing demand in foreign fields. It is estimated that by 1975 our present and projected medical schools will be able to supply only two-thirds of the number needed to maintain the present standards of medical care.

Boston University's experiment has great possibilities. By cutting the time required for medical education, it would lighten the burden on the schools and the students themselves and bring in more who are now deterred by the present length of training as well as its cost.

ACCORDING to our private statistician, 44 per cent of motorists are careful drivers, and the reckless drivers are made up of 47 per cent d. fools and 9 per cent idiots.

David Lawrence Says:

Nixon Appeals to Russian People

WASHINGTON — A phenomenon unparalleled in the history of diplomacy has just occurred. It is of transcendent importance in the struggle for world peace — a "sputnik," it might be called, in the progress of international relations.

LAWRENCE

For, in the midst of the "cold war," a leader of one nation has spoken in criticism of a hostile government directly to the people of that country. It was an address as tactful and yet as argumentative as a diplomatic note.

The speech made by Vice President Nixon to the people of the Soviet Union contained little that had not been said before in the formal and informal exchanges of view between the foreign ministers of the two sides at Geneva and through their ambassadors for several years past.

But it was of tremendous significance because these words were transmitted directly over the television and radio to the Soviet people inside their own borders and over their own governmental facilities.

It was something that could not have been arranged without the sanction of the Soviet government itself, which has hitherto maintained a strict censorship of what might be said to the Soviet people either through the press or over the air.

★ ★ ★

The vice president didn't mince words. He made pointed criticisms. But they were couched in earnest, polite, dignified and reasoned phrases. He didn't "pull his punches" but he handled himself without giving offense. Ever since his college days when he was a prize debater, Richard Nixon has known how to argue persuasively in competition with adversaries before big audiences.

DIPLOMATIC GEM

The vice president himself worked six hours on his speech. He chose his words carefully and covered every vital issue. It was a masterpiece of diplomacy, yet it was an effective appeal over the head of a government to the people —something that President Woodrow Wilson first enunciated as a principle in his war address of 1917 when he said that "we have no quarrel with the German people" but only with their autocratic government.

It is most unfortunate that inside the United States so much press speculation by supporters and opponents of Mr. Nixon has been devoted to the question of whether the trip enhances his political prestige for the presidential contest in 1960. This detracts from the true importance of the Nixon visit to Russia and Poland.

For today it is the impact of the Nixon address on the course of the "cold war" that is alone important. His mission was authorized by President Eisenhower and is therefore associated with the conduct of our foreign relations.

Did the Nixon trip help toward world peace? Did it advance the cause of the West in its indefatigable endeavor to find a common ground for "getting along" with the dictatorship in the Kremlin?

These questions are difficult to answer because Khrushchev is a ruthless man who has been guilty of ordering mass murders in eastern Europe, where he holds many countries as his captives. He is fanatically wedded to the idea of world conquest by threats of military action, by spreading Communistic ideas and then by infiltrating other governments and taking possession of them.

The Soviet Premier says he would like to come to the United States when "the time is ripe."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Smallest Skin Puncture May House Tetanus

The common name for tetanus is lockjaw.

The tetanus or lockjaw germ was formerly called Bacillus tetani. It is now called Clostridium tetani. It is a natural inhabitant or parisite of the intestine of domestic and wild animals and sometimes that of man. Hence, it is present in the soil, especially manured soil or the soil or dust of street, field, stable or anywhere about was formerly called Bicillus tepens or corrals.

BRADY

The tetanus germ is rod shape or spindle shape with a round or oval swelling, the endospore. This spore survives long drying or deprivation of the conditions that favor the growth and multiplication of disease germs in general — heat, moisture and darkness. It may even survive ordinary quick sterilization by steam or boiling.

Th lockjaw germ itself does not invade or travel through the blood or spread through the system, as other disease germs do. It just lodges in a wound, burn, puncture, scratch or blister, maybe a trifling one which is soon forgotton, and multiplies, producing its deadly toxin, which is absorbed into the blood and causes convulsions which are difficult to distinguish from strychnine poisoning.

A puncture by splinter, thorn or nail (rusty or bright) is more dangerous than a wound which bleeds, because the puncture may plant lockjaw germs in the flesh, whereas bleeding would perhaps wash the germs out.

Burns, Fourth of July wounds, cap pistol or toy fireworks wounds, wounds in which powder grains or other particles of foreign matter are lodged and wounds in which there is any dead or damaged tissue are most likely to be complicated with tetanus. If tetanus occurs the first symptoms, four to ten days after the wound, are "sore throat," stiffness of neck and inability to open mouth widely.

I believe that still another type of wound often predisposes to tetanus because it is improperly treated. I refer to wounds by teeth, claws or talons, especially such wounds subjected to cauterization.

In my opinion the application of "fuming nitric acid" or the "actual cautery" (red hot iron) to a fresh wound constitutes malpractice. If the doctor thinks the wound cannot be disinfected by washing with soap and water and removing foreign matter at the time of first aid, then the only alternative is immediate excision of all the tissue surrounding the wound — debridement.

Cauterizing a fresh wound in any circumstance is most reprehensible, in my opinion, when the doctor's preoccupation with this medieval practice makes him forget to administer tetanus toxoid or tetanus antitoxin at the time of first aid.

Every baby should be immunized against tetanus at the age of three months. If one so immunized should sustain a wound of the type we have described more than four years afterward, he should be given a booster injection of tetanus toxoid plus 1,500 to 3,000 units of tetanus antitoxin as prophylactic treatment.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'TV Wrestling Shows Are Not Very Good for Child'

I'm a wrestling fan, but how can we teach our young people the true art of sports and fair sportsmanship when such bums are allowed to wrestle as are seen on TV. I'm shocked to see so many youngsters attending that program at such a late hour. Surely there's better entertainment for those of that age at an earlier hour.

W. J. M.

Ike's Just Not a Believer in Summit Conferences

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's ideas on diplomacy go back to the 19th century. That explains in part his lack of eagerness for a summit conference and the great, free-rein he gave his late secretary of state, John Foster Dulles.

★ ★ ★

Some of his views, not stated publicly, can be given here on excellent authority. Others he has expressed at his news conferences. His ideas are in the numbered paragraphs below.

1. He does not like the modern development of diplomacy — summit conferences—and considers it a step backward for the heads of state to spend their time on work that belongs to specialists, like foreign ministers.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is the advocate of summit conferences. Now British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan backs the idea. Khrushchev considers foreign ministers messenger boys and says only the heavyweights can get things done.

2. Eisenhower prefers seeing foreign ministers enjoy the exercise of the great authority given them in the 19th century. He says their governments normally try to establish limits within which they can negotiate.

Dulles, who ran American foreign affairs like a one-man show, was given a freer hand by Eisenhower than any American secretary of state enjoyed in this century. But he insisted that Eisenhower approve every move before he made it.

3. Eisenhower considers the congress of Vienna in 1814-15, called to reorganize Europe, after the downfall of Napoleon, an example of foreign ministers' exercising the ultimate in autority, both in negotiating and in making agreements.

Some historians, judging from their appraisal of the Congress of Vienna, might think Eisenhower chose an unfortunate example of what foreign ministers can do when they have the ultimate in authority.

4. He has cited as an example of what he doesn't like about summit conferences the 1807 meeting between Napoleon and Czar Alexander I of Russia on a raft in the River Niemen near Tilsit.

That was a meeting between a bamboozler, Napoleon, and a half-baked mystic, Alexander, who at first admired each other, talked of dividing the world up between them, and then wound up fighting each other.

Khrushchev has been trying for more than a year and a half to get Eisenhower into a conference with him. At first the President was downright reluctant. Then he seemed to yield a bit.

Lately he has been saying he'd go to the summit if the foreign ministers, discussing the Berlin problem at Geneva, showed some progress. He has never said precisely what he considers progress.

There's a chance a summit meeting might make things worse instead of better. And there has been no tangible result from the first summit meeting Eisenhower had in 1955 with Khrushchev and the then Soviet Premier, Nikolai Bulganin.

These may be factors in his hesitancy about trying it again. But the memory of the meeting between Napoleon and Alexander seems to be high in his wariness about a second summit get-together. He has referred to it repeatedly.

Boosts Inspirational Quotations

Louise is a wonderful teacher, for her students will look back to her for some 50 years hence and be forever grateful. You mothers and fathers should also cooperate at home to enrich the minds of your children with inspirational quotations. Test them right now and see how impoverished most of their minds are. Start remedying that defect at once.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

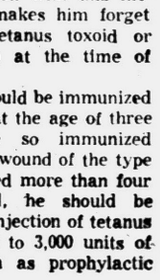
★ ★ ★

"She is different," a teenage boy informed me, "for she gives us credit for every quotation we memorize. "When we are old and gray, she says we should have our minds full of rich gems of literature.



DR. CRANE

"Until I took her course, I couldn't recite even one verse of any poem or give any quotation from a famous man. Now I can quote from 68 men of the past.

"And it has already helped me in public speaking class."

BRAVO, LOUISE

Modern children can often quote all the TV trademarks and sing the radio commercials correctly, yet be unable to recite a single verse from the Bible!

★ ★ ★

Just suppose you were the only person at the bedside of a dying friend; what could you quote to buoy up his spirits? Be honest with yourself.

Better get out your Bible NOW and memorize John 3:16. Then turn a few pages and memorize the first three verses of the 14th Chapter of John.

The Bible is still the greatest treasure-trove of inspirational quotations, so reward your children for memorizing some of them.

Mrs. Crane and I paid our five youngsters at the rate of $1 per book for reading any of the 66 books in the Bible.

Modern TV commercials will not help you much in making talks in class or in your social and other club memberships. But choice quotations will richly document your English themes and speeches.

So teachers like Louise deserve a public salute. But all good parents should also cooperate at home by urging their youngsters to memorize a dozen choice bits of verse or prose.

SOUL TONICS

"Man does not live by bread alone," Christ stated, meaning that there are hungers of the heart and soul that need nourishing.

★ ★ ★

So drop in at your local library and copy at least a dozen of these maxims. Then reward your youngsters for memorizing them. Here are a few samples:

Euripides: "There is no worse evil than a bad woman, and nothing has ever been produced better than a good one."

Benjamin Franklin: "There are no gains without pains."

★ ★ ★

Voltaire: "There is one thing stronger than all the armies of the world and that is an idea whose time has come."

Epictetus: "Choose the best life, for habit will make it pleasant."

Victor Hugo: "When you have accomplished your daily task, go to sleep in peace; God is awake."

Emerson: "Before a man can wake up and find himself famous, it is necessary that he

J. P. Richter: "Men, like bullets, go farthest when they are smoothest."

H. W. Beecher: "Flowers are the sweetest things God ever made and forgot to put a soul into."

Elbert Hubbard: "Don't make excuses - - - make good."

★ ★ ★

Grand Rapids Theaters Win Settlement of Suit

DETROIT (UP) — A 10-year-old federal court antitrust suit involving Grand Rapids theaters and several Hollywood movie companies has been settled out of court for $127,500.

Judge Clifford O'Sullivan dismissed the case Friday after being informed of a settlement accepted by the companies and the Jack Loeks Enterprises, Inc., of Grand Rapids.

Loeks sought 4½ million dollars in damages for a period from December 1948, to May 1959, contending the W. S. Butterfield Theaters, Inc., of Grand Rapids, several film distributors and the movie firms conspired to keep him from bidding on first-run movies for his theater.

American Exhibit Tickets on Sale for First Time

MOSCOW (UP) — Tickets to the American exhibit in Sokolniki Park went on public sale at the gate for the first time Saturday. Two thousand were sold in the first hour.

The fair director, Harold C. McClellan, said the decision to put the tickets on sale was made after discussion with Soviet officials. Tickets also were being sold at booths which handle theater tickets.

During the first week admission was by tickets distributed through factories and other organizations, and were sold for 2½ rubles, or about 62 cents at the official rate of exchange.

McClellan said attendance would still be kept at about 50,000 a day. This is about as much as the grounds will handle.

Public sale, it was expected, would thwart an unofficial market for the much-sought tickets.

GOP Diplomat Leaves Estate of Three Million

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Henry T. Fletcher, former Republican national chairman and career diplomat, has left a personal estate estimated at three million dollars. His will was admitted to probate Friday.

The will leaves personal papers dealing with public affairs and some personal effects to the Library of Congress.

UAW Political Fund Probe Is Postponed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Rackets Committee has postponed for a second time a planned preliminary hearing on funds used to promote candidacies of United Auto Workers' union officers.

Spokesmen said the session now is scheduled for Aug. 13. It had been planned originally for July 27 and then put back to Aug. 2.

Homes With Television Increase to 86 of 100

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Census Bureau reports that 86 out of 100 households have a television set, and eight of every 86 have two or more.

In 1950, there were sets in only 12 of every 100 households.

The percentage of households with more than one set is on the rise, the bureau said. The eight per cent reported for May compared with 7 per cent in January 1958, and five per cent in April 1957.

Founding Father or Pirate?

Argue Over Florentine

NEW YORK (AP)—All you have to do to start an argument on Staten Island these days is ask "who was Giovanni de Verrazano?"

History tells us he was a footloose Florentine who came this way more than 400 years ago. He is credited with discovering Manhattan and the Hudson River in 1524.

The controversy started when the state decided to do him honor. It was suggested that the bridge over New York Bay which will link Brooklyn and Staten Island bear his name.

There wasn't peep from Brooklyn. But many Staten Island residents were outraged. They felt the bridge should be called Staten Island Bridge, and the Staten Island Chamber of Commerce agreed.

* * *

Indignantly these people will point out to anyone who'll listen that Verrazano, who sailed for the French, was an out-and-out pirate.

As far as they're concerned, there's a Staten Island ferryboat named after him, and that's memorial enough.

One outspoken Staten Islander described Verrazano as nothing more than "a foreigner who made a navagational mistake."

Man Dies Under Tractor

MIDLAND (AP) — Ignac Klozik, 64, was killed Saturday when a tractor he was using to pull stumps tipped over on him at his farm near Midland.

Adrian, a Latin name, means "black."

Detroit Cited as Safest Large City This Year

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council reports Detroit led the nation's cities with over one million population in traffic safety for the first six months of 1959.

Detroit recorded 2.6 traffic deaths per 10,000 registered vehicles in the period. Los Angeles and Chicago were second with 2.7 deaths.

Muskegon tied with Cedars Rapids, Iowa, and Rancine, Wis., for honors in the cities with 50,000 to 100,000 population class. Each had no traffic fatalities in the period.

160 More Major Movies

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—National Telefilm Associates announced yesterday that 160 more major motion pictures will be hitting the television screens shortly.

The company said it received rights to the films from 20th Century-Fox. Included in the deal were such films as "The Razor's Edge," "Grapes of Wrath," "Blood and Sand" and "Seventh Heaven."

Paper Cup Bombs Wreck Cuban Air Force Planes

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Two Cuban air force training planes were wrecked by homemade bombs at Miami's International Airport Sunday.

Police said explosives were found in four Cuban planes but only two exploded. The bombs were made by filling paper cups with nitroglycerine and sand and attaching fuses.

The planes formerly belonged to the government of ousted Cuban President Fulgencio Batista. They were brought here for repairs after Fidel Castro's rebels took over.

While 86,300,000 persons talked about something they'd read in the newspapers during an average day of 1958, according to a recent survey, 75,700,000 talked about something they'd seen on television; 30,100,000 about something they'd read in magazines; 38,400,000 talked about theater movies, and 32,100,000 about radio programs.

Balloon From Minnesota Drops to Earth in Finland

NORTHFELD, Minn. (AP) — The State Department reports that a research balloon launched here July 23 has landed in Finland, 10 miles from the Soviet border.

The G. T. Schjeldahl Co. here was notified that the 75-foot plastic bag had come down near the town of Ilomantse. It carried instruments to record and radio to ground stations data on air pressure and temperature within and outside the balloon.

Ike Nominates Dowling for State Dept. Post

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Walter Dowling, U. S. ambassador to Korea, will be President Eisenhower's nominee for Assistant Secretary of State for European Affairs, it has been learned.

The 53-year-old career diplomat will replace Livingston T. Merchant, who is stepping up to the post of Deputy Undersecretary of State for Political Affairs.

Russians Drinking It Up in Top American Style

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (UPI)— Donald Kendall, president of the Pepsi-Cola Co., says that Russians are drinking 100,000 free Pepsi-Colas a day at the American exhibition in Moscow.

Kendall, who was returning from Russia via Stockholm, said the drink is produced in the Soviet capital with raw materials brought from the United States.

Gone Are Days of Fancy Free Steel Picketing

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Being a picket at one of the nation's steel mills probably is one of the dullest jobs in the country—at a dollar a day.

Unless a passerby noticed a sign with not-too-large print proclaiming that the United Steelworkers of America are on strike, he probably would not realize that the bulk of one of the nation's great industries is strikebound.

It's quiet on the picket line—so quiet you can hear a card drop on a makeshift table as a picket takes a pinochle trick.

It would take 300,000 hemlock seeds to make a pound.

TO THE DOCTORS OF OAKLAND COUNTY

As a practising physician knowing about the newest medical developments, you no doubt have read about an entirely new concept in mattresses developed by Simmons in consultation with members of your profession. This new mattress is called the BACK-CARE and is the first and only mattress with a "built-in bedboard." It has been demonstrated and enthusiastically received at numerous conventions of the AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION and at the recent meeting of the AMERICAN ACADEMY OF GENERAL PRACTICE.

REQUESTED . . . SUPERVISED . . . APPROVED BY DOCTORS

From a survey of over 100,000 doctors, prior to the engineering of BACK-CARE, Simmons was asked to research and develop a new firm mattress for back sufferers. (It was obvious that there was not then on the market a satisfactory mattress answering medical needs!)

During the experimental period in which dozens and dozens of new and different constructions were tested, a panel of leading orthopedists consulted with Simmons engineers. Finally, when the new scientific BACK-CARE construction was perfected, these specialists tried the mattress for themselves and their patients. Their verdict . . . complete and unanimous approval.

We want you to know that this remarkable new mattress is now on our floor and that we would be most happy to actually demonstrate its corrective therapeutic benefits to you. We know you will agree with many others in your profession who have seen or are sleeping on BACK-CARE, and acclaim this new mattress as an answer to a long felt need for low back syndrone relief.

WHY BACK-CARE IS BEST FOR BACKS! . . .

1. This upper layer of 312 springs adjusts to body contours so that sleeping comfort is assured.
2. The Built-in Bedboard . . . made of plywood and placed in the center of the mattress . . . keeps the spine properly aligned and exerts corrective action close to the back where support is needed.
3. This lower layer of another 312 springs acts as a "floating" mechanism for the bedboard, equalizes weight and prevents "sag."

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. ## Ex-Ambassador Told to Set Assassinations of Nicaraguan Exiles

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP) — Nicaragua's former ambassador to Costa Rica says he quit his post because President Luis Somoza's government wanted him to arrange assassinations of Nicaraguan exiles in Costa Rica.

Dr. Leonte Herdocia, who also has represented his country at the United Nations and in El Salvador, said the Somoza regime has been waging a slander campaign against him since he resigned in March and joined other exiles seeking Somoza's overthrow.

Declaring himself a firm opponent of the Somoza family's rule, Herdocia told an interviewer the Nicaraguan government had tried to treat him like an insane person by claiming he had been under psychiatric treatment. Herdocia denied this.

Small Firms Given Record U.S. Loans

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A record 5,582 loans totaling $267,042,000 were made to small business firms by the government during the fiscal year ended June 30, the Small Business Administration announced today.

The tally compared with 4,014 loans totaling $194,997,000 approved the previous year.

Small Business Administrator Wendell B. Barnes said that the yearly totals was boosted by an all-time high monthly volume of loan activity during June—601 loans for $31,588,000.

Small business loans are made to finance business construction, conversion or expansion, purchase of equipment and machinery, facilities or supplies, and to supply working capital when financing is not available elsewhere on reasonable terms.

She's Only 1 to Survive as Plane Falls

OKMULGEE, Okla. (AP) — "I found that water pond, and I just drank and drank, that water tasted so good," said the lone survivor of a plane crash which killed three other persons Saturday night.

Mrs. Jewell Lois Hamby, 43, of Kennett, Mo., told how she had spent the night near the wreckage, then crawled and staggered Sunday morning to a nearby home. It turned out to be the home of the dead pilot's parents.

Killed were pilot John L. Lane, 35, La Habra, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Lane of Okmulgee; Mrs. Emma Shanks, 73, and her sister, Mrs Agnes Tidwell, 63, both of Kennett. Mrs. Hamby, hospitalized in serious condition, said she, her mother, and her aunt were returning from a California visit.

Mrs. Lane said Mrs. Hamby had appeared at their home about 8 a.m. The Lanes took her to the hospital. At first the injured woman mumbled the pilot was her brother. Then at the hospital she mentioned the name Lane.

"That must be my son," cried Mrs. Lane. The couple rushed back and found the wreckage, obscured by high weeds, about 300 yards from their home, four miles northeast of here.

Flood Waters Rise After Nebraska Rain

ASHLAND, Neb. (AP) — Flood waters swirled near Ashland early today after week-end rains which reached an unofficially reported 12 inches a few miles upstream.

Army Ducks stood by prepared to evacuate some 300 boy campers, members of a Woodmen of the World Boys of Woodcraft, at Camp Ashland on the Platte River to the east.

Observers could make no estimate of expected tremendous crop damage after the torrential downfalls of Saturday night and early Sunday. Heaviest rainfall points were Schuyler and Wahoo to the north.

In Omaha, up to three feet of water washed through basements in a new residential area, and there was flooding to the south near Offutt Air Force Base.

There are about 1,400 different producers of frozen foods in the United States.

Woodrow Wilson Fund Gets Rockefeller Aid

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Rockefeller Foundation has made a grant of $150,000 to be used to meet the cost of collecting and processing for publication the letters and papers of Woodrow Wilson.

The Wilson Foundation received a grant of $175,000 for the same purpose on July 14.

Proteins Your Key to Life, Happiness

By LELORD KORDEL

Installment Nineteen

A good look at Dave was evidence that he had gone overboard on some diet fad. His posture droop showed extreme lassitude, and his body was soft and flabby. Loss of tissue had lined his once cherubic face. His muscles sagged, and his whole appearance was one of weakness and dejection.

"My friend Joe," Dave said, "is a vegetarian. He got me started on it. For months I ate nothing but vegetables."

★ ★ ★

"Vegetarianism is a vicious fad," I said, "which is responsible for malnutrition, anemia, and countless borderline deficiencies which gradually build up into major disorders. You should have known better."

"Joe told me," said Dave, "that I'd lose weight and feel better than I ever had."

"Everybody should be taught," I said, "that protein is the food of life."

"The food of life," said Dave. "And me trying to exist on vegetables!"

"Vegetables," I said, "fill a definite need in your diet as sources of vitamins, minerals, and regulatory substances which you must have. It's simply foolhardy to try to exist on vegetables alone. You must have protein to live—and to make life. Protein is your key to success both in living and in loving. It's the essential ingredient that makes you a doer, a creator, and a man!"

ROLE OF PROTEINS

The word "protein" was coined in 1828 from the Greek. It means "to come first." This substance is so necessary for the function and the replacement of the body's cells that we must feed our bodies protein first, last, and always.

Unlike fat, protein cannot be stored in the body. All the protein that your body can get is used for its work 24 hours a day.

The body needs protein constantly as a tissue builder. The more protein you give your body to work with, the better the quality of its repairs.

Severe cases of protein hunger result in edema, or water-logging of the tissues. Proteins build muscle tissue. They also make up the materials used by the endocrine glands in the manufacture of hormones. Hormones are secreted by these glands. These hormones are chemical messengers which control your internal activities—and even your personalities.

★ ★ ★

The hemoglobin of the blood, the red coloring matter of the red corpuscles, is largely protein. Sufficient proteins have to be present in the blood for it to clot readily.

Protein is essential for the growth of antibodies in the blood—our defense against bacteria and toxins.

"The National Research Council says that children must get 100 grams of protein a day," I told Dave, "and adults 70 grams, if they're not to suffer from some kind of deficiency disease. But in your case, since you've been deprived of complete proteins on your vegetable diet, I recommend at least 100 grams a day."

"How can I know," asked Dave, "the amount of protein I'm getting in the food I eat, that it adds up to that 100 grams?"

"Roughly speaking, a pound of meat and a half cup of cottage cheese will furnish 100 grams of protein. I'll give you a list of first-class protein food," I said, "with the amount of protein each contains."

★ ★ ★

(The list I made out for Dave will be found in my "Better-Eating Plan" booklet which readers may have free—by sending a stamped self-addressed envelope to Lelord Kordel, care of The Pontiac Press. This booklet will be of special value for the 60 to 80 per cent of the people who get far too little protein in their diets.)

ROLE OF VITAMINS

Fifty years ago rickets of the most severe type were common in our cities. Today this deforming childhood disease is rare.

During the past 40 years beriberi and pellagra have been found to be preventable.

In hospitals and clinics the vitamin story is so well known that people under medical supervision no longer sicken and die because of a lack of them.

"Vitamins," I told Dave, "are accessory food substances. They're necessary for the metabolism of food and for the performance of important body functions. But they aren't of value unless there's food to work on. They can't be substituted for complete protein foods."

"Well," said Dave, "I didn't know anything about protein. Now it looks as though I was pretty confused about vitamins, too."

"A lot of people are," I said. "And much of that confusion is caused by failure to understand the basic nature of vitamins as essential nutrients. Remember, vitamins do not produce energy or body tissues.

However, you can't manufacture either energy or tissue in your body without them. They are the catalysts which change the foods you eat into the materials to sustain your body."

"You should take a reliable vitamin-mineral supplement," I said. "If we could get our foods fresh daily from a farm where they were grown in good, mineral-rich soil, we could rely on them for all our vitamin requirements. But most food suffers losses of important dietary essentials through premature harvesting, long storage, processing, kitchen preparation, and cooking."

"So I should eat lots of protein," said Dave, "especially meat. And take a vitamin-and-mineral supplement. Do you think all this will help me?"

"That like asking," I said "if John L. Lewis has eyebrows! You'll find a renewal of strength and vigor. And you'll never again be content to lead a subnormal, dejected, defeated life behind a hidden-hunger curtain!"

Federal, State, Local Cooperation Sought

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Government Operations Committee Saturday recommended passage of a bill to set up a permanent bi-partisan advisory commission on intergovernmental relations.

★ ★ ★

The legislation would create a permanent agency to bring together public officials from federal, state and local governments, to promote cooperation in the solution of problems calling for action on all three levels of government.

A similar measure, sponsored by Sen. Edmund S. Muskie (D-Maine) and 25 other senators, has been approved by the Senate Government Operations Committee.

The commission would consist of 25 persons appointed by the President. It would include three senators, three House members, three administration officials, four state governors, three members of state Legislatures, four city mayors, two county officials and three private citizens.

Petition to Return Papers Is Rejected

LAHORE, Pakistan (UPI)—The Supreme Court has quashed a petition by publisher Mian Iftikharuddin for the return of the newspaper Pakistan Times and three other publications.

The govrenent seized the publications last April on grounds they were supported by foreign interests and endangered the nation's security. The petition was dismissed Friday under a martial law order which forbids any legal action against the government.

Water Diversion Foes Set for Last Arguments

WASHINGTON (AP) — Opponents of Chicago's bid to divert more water from Lake Michigan will present their final arguments at a Senate hearing next Friday.

A Senate Public Works Committee spokesman said Sens. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis) and William Proxmire (D-Wis) have asked for time to testify then.

★ ★ ★

A Public Works subcommittee has held a series of hearings on a House passed bill which would permit Chicago to increase its diversion date into the Illinois waterway on a one-year-trial basis.

★ ★ ★

The plan is solidly opposed by six Great Lakes states and by Canada. These jurisdictions contend the diversion would lower the level of the Great Lakes and threaten shipping and power projects.

4 Dems Seek Governorship

Issues in Mississippi Tied to Segregation, Liquor, Party Politics

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Democratic voters will wade through segregation, liquor and party politics Tuesday to pick from four candidates in first primary balloting for governor.

Some 450,000 voters will choose from a field made up of Lt. Gov. Carroll Gartin, attorney Ross Barnett of Jackson, Dist. Atty. Charles Sullivan of Clarksdale, and Robert Mason, a Magee welder.

The two high candidates will enter a runoff Aug. 25 to determine the governor for the four years beginning Jan. 19. There is no Republican candidate in this Deep South state, and the general election is a mere formality.

Other state, legislative and county offices also will be filled in the primaries.

The gubernatorial issues include how to retain segregation, whether to keep statewide prohibition in the nation's last dry state and relationships with the national Democratic party.

Gartin, 45, former mayor of Laurel, has campaigned largely on his experience, gained during eight years as lieutenant governor. He has stressed the industrial progress during this time and the fact that Mississippi is the only state which has maintained a perfect segregation record.

2 Cases Paralytic Polio in Michigan Last Week

LANSING (AP)—Only two new cases of paralytic polio were reported in Michigan last week, the State Health Department said today. One was in Detroit and the other in Bay County.

There have been 19 paralytic polio cases recorded this year against 25 during the same period in 1958.

Only one death from polio has been reported — a 59-year-old woman who had not been vaccinated. One death also was recorded in the corresponding period last year — a 19-year-old youth who had not been vaccinated.

The health department said 15 of the 19 paralytic victims reported this year had not received three or more shots of vaccine.

Says Americans Seeking Control of Volkswagen

BONN, Germany (UPI)—Hermann Lindrath, minister of public property for West Germany, said today he could have sold the Volkswagen Automobile Co. "10 times over" during his just-completed trip to the United States.

He said, however, that the federal government would see that the company remains in German hands even after its projected return to private enterprise. The company, originally founded by the Nazis, is under a trusteeship pending a final decision on whether it is owned by the federal government or the government of Lower Saxony state.

Statehood Vote Not New

HONOLULU—As early as in 1940 a two-to-one vote for statehood was registered in a territory-wide plebiscite on the question by the people of Hawaii.

Campus Youth Has New Shoe

It Is Light in Weight With Squared-Off Toe, Often Suede

The campus All-American will kick off in high fashion this fall in a pair of the new American continental shoes.

It is an Americanized version of the Italian styles that never quite made the grade with college men.

The new shoe is slim, trim and lightweight, in keeping with the shorter jackets, narrower lapels and softer tailoring of men's clothes.

The gently squared-off toe and tapered silhouette make for a snug, comfortable fit. Extra flexible, the leather sole is cropped close to the basic shape of the shoe.

In class and dorm, the young American male is often seen in suede shoes. But he doesn't restrict his leisure shoe wardrobe to one leather or style—he wears shoes of smooth, grained and brushed leathers in moc-front, slip-on and blucher styles with two- and three-eyelet ties.

The newest in men's colors, "true brown"—with yellow and ivy undertones, rates straight "A" for dress and casuals, blending well with slacks and suits of tan, brown and blue.

Prison Inmate Invents Games for Children

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UP) — An Ohio Penitentiary inmate has found new hope for his future—in children's games.

Roy Weightman, who has served 18 years behind bars, has developed 13 children's games, five of which will soon be on the market.

"This is going to set me straight," he said. "It's a whole new life for me. A guy searches and searches to find his own special field. I've found mine."

Weightman is serving a 10-to-25-year sentence from Summit County for armed robbery. After release here he must serve additional time in Jackson, Mich., for parole violations.

But Weightman figures his money worries are over. In addition to royalties on the games, he says he had been offered a good job as a game designer.

His games now in production are "Spellaline," "Rocket to the Moon," "Hot Rod Racers," "Pin and Sink" and "World Animal Hunt."

Last year the per capita consumption of newsprint in the United States was 76.2 lbs.

Record Selling Listed in June

$600 Million Increase Over All-Time High Achieved This May

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Manufacturers rang up record sales in June, the Commerce Department reported Sunday.

It is estimated the sales total, seasonally adjusted, at $31,300,000,000. This was an increase of $600,000,000 from May, the former record high.

New orders in June rose about 2 per cent while the backlog of unfilled orders was reduced as a result of record industrial activity and heavy deliveries.

The June sales total was nearly six billion dollars higher than in June 1958. Hard goods manufacturing sales were up four billion dollars and soft goods lines posted a two billion dollar gain.

Manufacturers added about $500,000,000 worth of goods to their inventories, on a seasonally corrected basis, in June. The inventory total of $51,900,000,000 compared with $50,300,000,000 a year earlier.

New orders totaled $31,100,000,000 for the month, a rise of $600,000,000 from May.

Pope John Pens Drivers' Prayer for Guidance

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII has written a prayer for motorists.

"Almighty God, who hath created man in Thine image," it begins, "let us drivers feel our great responsibility and show us the way of charity and prudence . . .

"Immaculate Virgin, guide us in our earthly journey, defend us from dangers of the soul and body and make us good and patient toward persons who are under our care . . .

"Angels . . . saints, give us strong faith by which to dedicate our life to God and keep us ready for the last journey to the eternal homeland."

Mortgage Financing Program Is Extended

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A government program to provide otherwise unavailable mortgage financing for homes in small towns will be available in August and September under an emergency extension that took effect Saturday.

President Eisenhower signed into law Friday the 60-day extension of the voluntary home mortgage credit program which otherwise would have expired last midnight. Any housing bill Congress approves this year presumably would provide longer life.

Summerfield Curb Is Sought

ACLU Against More Powers to Censor Books in the Mails

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The American Civil Liberties Union has appealed to Congress to deny proposed new censorship powers to Postmaster General Arthur S. Summerfield, who recently tried to ban from the mails the novel "Lady Chatterley's Lover."

Ernest Angell, chairman of the organization, said Summerfield had a "notoriously poor . . . record of judgement." This was an apparent reference to Summerfield's ban on the unexpurgated version of the D. H. Lawrence novel. An appeals court overturned the ban.

Angell said the Administration's censorship proposals would grant "vague powers" that might be unconstitutional.

He testified before a House Post Office subcommittee Friday at hearings on a bill designed to crack down on the use of the mails to peddle lewd or filthy literature or to promote fraudulent money schemes.

Herbert B. Warburton, general counsel for the Post Office Department, urged enactment of the bill. It would give Summerfield the power to impound mail for 45 days instead of the present 20 days in cases where the mails allegedly are used for obscene or fraudulent material.

The bill also would let the Postmaster General impound such mail in the public interest." The present standard is only "for the enforcement of this act."

Argentines Restrict Red Diplomatic Traveling

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — The Argentine Government has clamped travel restrictions on Russian and Rumanian diplomats.

The Red diplomats will not be permitted outside a 25-mile radius from Buenos Aires without special permission from Argentine authorities.

The move was in retaliation for similar Russian and Rumanian restrictions on the movement of Argentine diplomats in those countries.

Wedding Bells Ring Out

Rites in Evening Unite Pair at Lutheran Church

Some 250 guests were present at the Saturday evening wedding of Barbara D. Sahr and Larry Scott. The Rev. George J. Mahder of St. Paul Lutheran Church officiated before an altar banked with bouquets of white gladioli.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Sahr of Cameron avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Huffman of North Anderson street.

She wore pearl earrings and a gold cross and held a bouquet of white feathered carnations, pale yellow roses and stephanotis. A crown headpiece of pearls and sequins held her illusion veil.

Patricia Sahr, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Hudson, the bridegroom's cousin, and Helga Falk. The honor maid wore a pale blue street-length dress of taffeta with a matching headpiece and veil.

Edwin Scott of Flint, a cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were John Patterson and Donald Younker.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Sahr wore a French blue silk dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses and carnations. A light beige dress with persimmon accessories and a beige and persimmon cymbidium orchid corsage was the choice of Mrs. Huffman.

The couple is traveling through Arkansas and Texas and will reside on North Anderson street upon their return.

Meets at Lake

Mrs. Robert B. Oliver was hostess to the July-August group of the First Presbyterian Church Friday at her summer home at Elizabeth Lake. Twenty-six members and guests enjoyed a cooperative dinner and celebrated Mrs. Harry Windiate's birthday.

Couple Married Here Under Flowered Trellis

Robbie Grace Bennett and William Eugene Bullard were married Saturday evening before an altar banked with white gladioli and candelabra at the Church of God on East Pike street. The bride's brother, the Rev. Billy P. Bennett, officiated standing under an arched trellis trimmed with huckleberries and gladioli. He is pastor at the Dearborn Church of God.

The former Miss Bennett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie P. Bennett of Crescent Lake road. Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Bullard of LaSalle are the bridegroom's parents.

The bride's floor-length gown was fashioned of tiered embroidered silk organza over tulle and taffeta and featured short sleeves and a Sabrina neckline. She wore matching gauntlets and a crown headpiece with sequins which held a fingertip veil of silk illusion. Her flowers were white calla lilies in an arm bouquet.

WORE AQUA CROWN

Peggy Bennett attended her sister as maid of honor, gowned in a floor-length dress of aqua nylon over taffeta in princess styling. She wore an aqua crown headpiece with sequins, matching gauntlets, and held a heart-shaped cascade arrangement of white and aqua carnations.

Bridesmaid Joan Ford of Detroit, junior bridesmaid Judy Bennett, sister of the bride, and flower girl Colleen Bullard of LaSalle, sister of the bridegroom, wore gowns identical to the honor maid's.

The junior bridesmaid and flower girl wore headbands of aqua carnation petals. Miss Bennett and Miss Ford carried cascades of aqua carnations, and flower girl, Colleen, carried a basket of aqua and white carnation petals.

Delbert Rose of Monroe was best man. Ushering were Ronald Bullard, the bridegroom's brother of LaSalle, Phil Templeton, Bernard King of Commerce, and Harry Bennett, brother of the bride. Ricky Gillon of Plymouth was ring bearer.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Bennett wore a pink lace sheath with white accessories and a corsage of Carol Amyling rosebuds for the wedding. Pale blue lace with navy accessories and a corsage identical to that of Mrs. Bennett's was the choice of Mrs. Bullard.

U.S., State Federations Plan Meet

More than 500 women, representing the executive board of National Federation of Music Clubs, Michigan Federation of Music Clubs and Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs will, attend meetings of their respective organizations at National Music Camp, Interlochen this week.

An honors convocation will be held Sunday morning. At this time the NFMC and the National Music Camp will present joint citations to Dr. Howard Hanson, composer and Dr. Alexander Ruthven, former president of University of Michigan for their contributions to music and music education in this country.

Also to receive recognition are six state federations, Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin and Texas which have endowed scholarship lodges at the music camp.

Shower Honors Future Bride

Miss Hayworth, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delvin Hayworth of Royal Oak will marry Charles Seidel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Seidel of Royal Oak Aug. 29.

Married in Birmingham Saturday afternoon were Janet Hudson and James Faxon. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Hudson and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Faxon.

MRS. JAMES FAXON

Vows Said Before 300 in St. James Church

St. James Church in Birmingham was the scene of the Saturday afternoon wedding of Janet Hudson and James Faxon. The Rev. W. E. Snoxell officiated at the ceremony before 300 guests.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Hudson of West Walton boulevard and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Faxon of Dover road.

The bride wore a nylon chiffon gown with a neckline trimmed with Alencon lace. The bouffant, floor-length skirt ended in a chapel sweep and the skirt was accented with appliques of Alencon lace. An Alencon lace cap held her fingertip veil of pure silk illusion and she carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Thomas Berry of Royal Oak was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Patricia French of South Haven, Sarah Faxon, the bridegroom's sister and Mrs. Norbert Capistrant. They wore identical dresses of white embroidered English organdy with ballerina length skirts, scoop necklines and taffeta cummerbunds with white picture hats.

Following a reception in the church parlors, the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Northern Michigan and Canada. The bride wore a black and white eyelet going away dress with white accessories. They will live on Seminole avenue.

The bride attends Eastern Michigan University and the bridegroom is attending General Motors Institute.

Mrs. Hudson wore a dress of white organdy over green taffeta with green and pink accessories and a pink rose corsage for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Faxon was dressed in a gray chiffon dress with white accessories and a corsage of miniature pink roses.

Guests Honor Kay Brantley at Shower

The marriage will take place at Baldwin Avenue Methodist Church Aug. 22. Parents of the engaged couple are the Ernest Brantleys of Brooklyn avenue and the John Pierons of West Cornell avenue.

Dinner Honors Her Retirement

Mrs. James Bowden of Franklin, who is retiring from Pontiac Motor Division after 25 years, was honored with a retirement dinner Saturday at Devon Gables.

Florence Landry gave the invocation and Enoch Ely served as master of ceremonies. Guest speaker was Howard Powers and Albert Kray made the gift presentation.

Play Bridge

Bonneville Bridge Club met Saturday evening with eight tables in play. Winners were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Thompson; Mrs. Norma Keller and Mary Malchie, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sandelmont.

Does Hubby Want Shirts Ironed?

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: The other day I received a postcard from the lady who irons for me. She said her church was giving a stork shower for her daughter and she thought I'd like to know in case I wanted to send a present.

ABBY

My husband is raving mad. He says if I let her "work me" for a present he will be very disappointed in me.

She irons very well and I'd hate to lose her over a little gift I could buy for $3.

NO NAME PLEASE

DEAR NO: This is a new wrinkle! If it gives you the feeling of pleasure, generosity or security to send a gift, by all means, send one. Men don't always understand these things. If your husband ever tried to iron a shirt he wouldn't get so steamed up.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My husband is the best man in the world when he's sober — but he hasn't drawn a sober breath in two years. He says he'll quit drinking when I quit nagging.

But the reason I nag him is because he drinks.

Now, Miss Abby, if you will figure out a way for him to quit drinking so I can quit nagging, I will sure thank you.

NAGGING

DEAR NAGGING: If you can't get your husband to call Alcoholics Anonymous (they are listed in your telephone directory), investigate the group called "AL-ANON." They are the wives, husbands, sweethearts and friends of alcoholics who are organized for a common purpose . . . to learn how to cope with problem drinkers and eventually lead them back to the road of sobriety and self-respect. Good luck!

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am in love with a boy the same age as I, which is 14. We have been going steady for two years. We have it all planned to get married when we get out of school in four years. He kissed me last Saturday night for the first time. It was just a peck on the cheek. Don't you think that after waiting for two years I deserved at least a kiss on the lips?

DISAPPOINTED

You had better slow down, Honey! Get the bands off your teeth before you start thinking about a band on your finger. A peck on the cheek is quite enough for two fourteen-year-olds.

DEAR ABBY: A certain married couple who used to be in our crowd suddenly gave us all the cold shoulder.

It seems that a rumor got started that they were being divorced. They denied it and tried to find out who started the gossip, but so many people repeated it that it was impossible to pin it on anyone.

Now they refuse to associate with any of us. I say if there were no truth to the rumor they would have laughed it off in the first place. Or don't you believe, Abby, that "where there's smoke — there's fire?"

EX FRIENDS

DEAR EX: Where there's smoke there is not always fire. Could be just someone smoking the peace pipe. Those who repeat gossip are as guilty, in my opinion, as those who start it.

★ ★ ★

To get ABBY's booklet, "What Every Teenager Wants To Know," send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY in care of this newspaper.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Is your jewelry box a tangle of necklaces, pins and bracelets? It shouldn't be. Aside from the danger of breaking clasps, the pieces will scratch one another, dimming stones and metal.

12 Pontiac Area Students Get Degrees, Certificates

Twelve Pontiac area students at Eastern Michigan University were awarded degrees and certificates at the eighth annual Summer Convocation July 27.

From Pontiac were Cheryl Dee Bruestle, B.S. Degree; Stuart Alan Choate, B.S. Degree; Robert E. Duff, B.S. Degree; and Gladys F. Levine, secondary provisional certificate.

Others were Virginia I. Owens, M.A. Degree in Education; Dorothy Lee Smith, state limited certificate; Fred G. Steinbaugh, Bachelor of Music Education Degree; Marilyn K. Stickle, B. S. Degree; Gerald T. Winckley, B. S. Degree and Sam Yarger, B. S. Degree.

OK to Let Friends Pay Their Share

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: This past spring my husband and I bought a summer cottage. I have been spending the summer here with my daughter and my husband comes up on weekends. Quite a few of our friends have hinted that they would like to come and spend some time with us.

★ ★ ★

"We would love to have them if it were not for the extra cost their visits would entail which, frankly, we cannot afford. Could we possibly suggest to them that they will be welcome to come if they are willing to share the food expenses?"

Answer: I think that if you quite frankly explain the situation to your friends they will understand, and gladly share the expenses.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My fiance talks about having four friends as ushers whereas I expect to have only two bridesmaids. Will this be proper or will I have to ask two additional friends so that the number is even? Or if I have only two and he does have four, should two of the men simply usher and not walk in the procession?"

Answer: It is not at all necessary that the number of bridesmaids and ushers be even, and it will be entirely proper for you to have two bridesmaids and the groom four ushers. They all walk in the procession regardless of number.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Two weeks from this coming Sunday my graduation class will be having its tenth reunion. One of the alumni has a beautiful big house with lots of ground around it and the reunion will be held at her house. I understand it is to be a picnic. I would like to know if it would be proper for me to wear slacks, or should a dress be worn?

Answer: You should wear a dress, unless you are told that slacks may be worn.

Trim Figure Now for Fall

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Are you going to be able to get into the clothes you wore last fall, or have you gained a few pounds since then? If you suspect that the seams will have to stretch, or worse, that you will have to have your clothes altered, or even worse, that it will not be any fun to buy new clothes, you have eight weeks in which to do something about it before really zippy weather arrives.

The following is a letter from one of the winners of my 8-Week Self-Improvement Marathon which runs every January.

"Dear Mrs. Lowman: A short time ago I wrote for your 8-Week Marathon. As soon as your booklet came I started counting calories. I had gone up to 152 pounds and I am only five feet tall. I felt very uncomfortable.

"I stuck to 1,200 calories a day and lost about two pounds a week. I have tried many other programs with no success but Marathon did it. Thanks to you and my self-control and willpower I now weigh 138 pounds. I plan on losing until I weigh 130 pounds. Any woman can lose weight if she just makes up her mind to do it."

Another letter: "Just a note to tell you that I started your Marathon four weeks ago. I weighed 201 pounds when I began dieting. I already have lost 15 pounds and am not only delighted at the loss of weight but also because it is so easy to diet the Marathon way.

"I had always been hungry on other diets because they denied me substantial meals but with your calorie counting plan I can still enjoy good meals."

This letter tells you of the actual experience of a woman who dieted successfully and without unpleasantness. If you are going to lose only a few pounds, short, carefully planned rapid reducing menus are splendid, but for a larger weight loss holding the calorie count to 1,200 a day is most effective. You lose steadily and can still eat well.

If you did not join my 8-Week Self - Improvement Marathon last January and would like to have the routine this woman used, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for the Marathon booklet to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

New Hairstyling

by Rowena Wilson

With the rediscovery of femininity in the fashion world, hair styles are back in the romantic mood. One can even see hints of the famous Gibson Girl in many of the softer arrangements. The styles are worthy of the description. "A woman's crowning glory," for they frame the face with a gentler look than the clipped, brisk styles of little or no hair. The new hair fashions will add that touch that the current style trends demand.

Your current hairstyle may be a difficult decision for you to make. Let the professional hair stylist take over for you. It takes special know-how. Make an appointment at Rowena's Beauty Salon, 4831 Dixie Highway, Drayton Plains. OR 3-3541. 14 S. Main, Clarkston, MA 5-1000. 1216 Baldwin, Pontiac, FE 5-3735.

Marriage Can Ruin Fellow's Education

By RUTH MILLETT

Recently I've had the opportunity of talking to a number of girls who are entering college this fall, and I think I ought to warn you most of them have only one objective in mind — to find a husband.

Why should that concern you? Because unless you're wary, your dreams of going through medical college or law school or becoming a scientist may end with helping to pick out a silver pattern by the end of your freshman or sophomore year.

Oh, the girl may convince you that she is willing to drop out of school and go to work to let you finish. She may even do it — if a baby or two doesn't come along.

But even if she puts you through school at the sacrifice of finishing her own education, it is going to be a long, hard struggle and you'll end up with a wife who hasn't as good an educational background as you.

But chances are, what will happen is that you'll drop out of school yourself and settle for a job you don't really want.

And all because some girl set out for college determined to get a husband, rather than to get an education.

So if you're smart, you'll hang on to your freedom until you have prepared yourself for the life's work you really want to do.

If before you've finished your college training you find the girl you're sure you want for a lifetime partner why not do what your Dad probably did — ask the girl you want to marry to wait for you?

If it's you she wants and not just a husband, she'll wait. If all she wants is a husband you'll, of course, probably lose her to somebody else. But you won't have lost as much as you think at the time.

Skin Diving Fun—But No Mermaids

(This is the second of a series of articles dealing with fast growing sports and how a person feels experiencing them for the first time. Last week, Judo expert Hiroshi Oriti bounced around Bruno Kearns, sports editor of The Press. Today Kearns' adventure goes to Orchard Lake where he put on the aqua lung and went skin diving for the first time with Leon Johnston, Pontiac skin diving expert doing the tutoring).

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

For the second time in my life, a storybook belief has been shattered.

It was a great shock many years ago to learn that Santa Clause was just a myth. (I never did forgive my fat uncle for letting me pull off his phony white beard only to find it wasn't St. Nick behind it).

Now I will probably carry a personal grudge against skin divers. I just found a few days ago that there are no such creatures as mermaids.

For three hours I searched the watery empire of Orchard Lake and the closest thing to a mermaid was that little fresh female perch— named Mimi who followed me around with a flirting eye.

(She probably thought I was an oversized mackeral and was trying to invite me home to see her mother and father).

I tried to scare Mimi off by flapping the fins on my feet at her. This must have some significance in fish sign language because she flipped her tail at me and threw a few bubbles at my mask.

No use fighting it I thought so I proceeded on with my first journey in a new watery world with that she-fish tailing right beside me.

It was not until after a preliminary orientation given by Pontiac skin diver Leon Johnston that I finally took my aqua-lung journey.

"Skin diving can be dangerous, and all prospective divers should take instructions on proper methods and safety precautions before going down," said Johnston.

There is a certain amount of shock that accompanies the first underwater breath through the aqua lung hose. This is experienced in shallow water by putting the head underwater and breathing normally until adjustment is made to this new sensation.

One warning to the absent minded, don't forget to put on the face mask before going under. I put the mouthpiece of the aqua lung into my mouth but left the mask on my forehead. My head came out of the water in a hurry after I tried to sip a few gallons of Orchard Lake through my nose.

There are four types of suits for skin divers. The wet suit, the dry suit, the swim suit and the birthday suit. (The latter is not recommended by the law).

Leon wore the wet suit, made of neoprene rubber which serves as insulation to keep the cold water away from the body. It is porous but the body warms the water in the suit.

The dry suit can be worn over clothing and diver can stay completely dry.

My choice as a novice was my own bathing suit, but later when we moved into deeper water which got colder I realized the need for the neoprene outfit.

It was a new and wierd sensation breaking through the weeds at the bottom of the lake. My deepest dive as a beginner was about 12 feet, but the feeling of confidence stayed with me knowing that Johnston was right next to me.

What would be my first souvenir in my treasure hunt under Orchard Lake, I wondered?

No sooner I asked myself that question, I found it. It It was a brown receptacle from a premium brewery. Oh well, at least I learned what kind of beer the fish drink.

As we moved along the bottom, another wierd appearance in looking back was to see the formation of the weeds after going through them. Just as we moved them, that's the way they stayed.

All the wiggly little creatures came by to welcome our visit to their homeland. A snail waved to little Mimi who was still tagging along taking in the sights.

Later, Leon and I decided to go diving the mechanical way. (Those who want to admit it call it the lazy method of skin diving.)

I took hold of the porta-sub and made like a submarine. It towed me around at about 4 m.p.h. Leon hooked a post power-pack to his aqua lung tank and away we zoomed. (At this point I lost my little friend Mimi. Guess she didn't like the idea of my going jet propelled).

During the tour, we held on to a white piece of cord. The cord was attached to small rubber raft which we pulled along the water's surface.

On the raft there was a red and white flag which served to indicate to any boaters in the area that a skin diver was below. When such a flag is seen on the water, the boat driver should keep at least 90 feet from the point for the safety of the diver below.

"It is a courtesy which all boaters should know," said Johnston.

In the rise to the surface, I remembered the warning given me that I should continue to breath normally and not hold my breath.

Holding the breath in rapid rise to the surface could result in air embolism which is when an excess of air pressure within the lungs overexpands the lungs and ruptures the air sacs and blood vessels.

Just like any guy who hates to admit he will never see 30 again, no such venture into a new sport world could take place without a few aches and pains. No sooner we got back onto the dock, the calves of both legs cramped. Thanks to Ron Newman, the lifeguard at Orchard Lake Country Club, I walked away with straight legs after he rubbed out the cramps.

Cramps or no cramps, it was a great adventure.

And please, as a personal favor, if any of you fishermen should hook into my little friend Mimi, throw her back in. She's a true friend of "us" skin divers.

In Diving, Follow All Safety Rules

Like most sports, there are basic fundamentals and safety precautions which should be adhered to in skin diving. Make the sport more interesting by forming good safety habits.

1. Never go diving immediately following an illness without checking with physician. And never dive with a cold or sinus condition because mucous clogging cannot equalize pressure and could rupture the eardrums because of obstruction.

2. Expose your body gradually rather than a sudden immersion into cold water. When diving in any cold water without protective suit the diver should watch for effects of exposure.

3. Before diving all equipment should be checked. Never use damaged equipment.

4. Don't try to go deep when not accustomed to the pressure change. The diver's limit may be determined by pain in the ears or sinus tract.

5. Do not use ear plugs for skin diving because an air pocket is formed between the eardrum and the plug. Pressure can also drive the plug deep into the ear.

6. Never go skin diving alone.

7. Never hold your breath. Breathe normally during ascent and come up slowly. Breaking this rule may result in air embolism.

8. Be careful in using a hood with a dry suit. It can be used with a wet suit because the wet suit fits the body snugly and does not entrap air between body and suit.

9. Always use swimming fins because locomotion depends on the flutter kick leaving the arms free for other purposes.

10. Never leave the regulator on the cylinder when the aqua lung is not in use.

11. If far away from base and out of air, swim on your back to prevent weight of tank from tiring you.

12. It is advisable when diving to have a small rubber tube float with the skin diver's flag attached. The float can serve to rest the diver in deep water, and the flag serves to tell boaters in the vicinity that there is a diver below. A piece of cord attached from the rubber float to the wrist of the diver is all that is necessary to pull the float along the surface. BOATERS SHOULD RESPECT THE SKIN DIVERS FLAG BY STAYING AT LEAST 90 FEET FROM THE FLOAT.

Skin Diver Since 1950 Expert Leon Johnston

Leon has been skin diving since 1950. He has held instructional classes at the YMCA and started many new skin divers in the sport.

He has all the modern equipment used in skin diving including many feature items such as the post power-pak and the Porta-sub for more underwater fun.

5. Now the Real McCoy

Much to Learn

Skin Diving Know-How

1. There is a lot of equipment that goes into skin diving and it should be thoroughly checked before using it in the water. Pontiac expert skin diver Leon Johnston is seen in photo No. 1 showing Kearns the large assembly of underwater devices he has.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

3. Before going into deep waters, beginning skin divers must try their equipment and their breathing methods in shallow waters. New devices such as the power-pak, which is attached to the aqua lung tank, or the porta-sub, which the diver holds, enables the diver to triple his air time by less exertion. They also minimize fatigue.

★ ★ ★

4. The Power-pak cruises the diver through the water at three to five miles per hour, and even faster for lighter people. A slight effortless use of the fins will more than double the diver's speed with the power-pak or porta-sub.

★ ★ ★

5. After a period of orientation on the use of the aqua lung and underwater safety, Kearns puts on a full skin diving outfit which includes the neoprene wet suit which keeps the body comfortably warm under water.

7. It was a thrilling experience for the first time, but like all things they must come to an end. It was a painful experience after leaving the water following three hours of skin diving. Both legs cramped at the calves and so that Kearns could get back to his loyal typewriter without crutches, life guard Ron Newman rubs out the cramps and sends Kearns on his way to plan his next venture —water skiing.

Rosburg PGA Champ as Barber Bogeys Last Two Holes

New Champion Fires Hot 66 for Pro Title

Pudgy Bob Shoots 30 on Front Nine With Five Birdies

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)—Bob Rosburg, the new P.G.A. champion who finally won "the big one I've been looking for," wasn't sure today whether his triumph came on merit or "little Jerry's mistakes."

Little Jerry is the 43-year-old, five-foot, five-inch, 138-pound Jerry Barber, who blew the P.G.A. championship yesterday when he bogeyed the last two holes.

"I gave the tournament away," Barber said, "when I put my approaches on the last two holes in sand traps, I blew it."

But he didn't take anything away from the bespectacled Rosburg, who with three children, ages eight, seven and six, wanted to win "a big one" in the hope he will get a good job with a golf club so he will be able to spend more time at home, rather than travel the tournament golfing trail.

Rosburg, who has been making his living playing golf since he turned professional in 1953, was six strokes behind the leading Barber going into yesterday's final round. But that four-under-par 66 gave him a 72-hole total of 277, one stroke better than Barber and Doug Sanders. Sanders, one stroke behind Barber going into the final round, carded a two-over-par 72 for the second place tie.

Defending champion Dow Finsterwald was fourth at 280. He shot a fourth round par 70. Tied for fifth at 281 were the favored Mike Souchak, whose putter failed him again, Bob Goalby and Ken Venturi. Next at 282 came Sammy Snead and Cary Middlecoff, U.S. open champion Billy Casper was among eight who finished at 287. The others included former U.S. Open champion Tommy Bolt and former P.G.A. king Walter Burkemo.

Souchak came in with a two-over-par 74 and, with only six players left in the field, there were only three golfers in the running — Rosburg, Barber and Sanders.

Sanders, who was in the tournament on a pass, shot a final-round 72. He lost his chance when he three-putted from 23 feet on the 17th hole.

Souchak went out of the running when he bogeyed three of the first four holes.

* * *

At the nine hole turn, Rosburg had picked up those six strokes on Barber by going out in 30 against little Jerry's 36.

That 30 was one of the finest nine holes ever shot. He scored five birdies, knocking in a 25-foot putt on the second hole to start his string. On the 565-yard par five-third he trapped his approach but wedged to within 12 feet of the pin and rammed it home for another birdie. On the fifth sank a 10-footer for another bird, canned a six-footer on the eighth and a three-footer on the ninth for his other birds.

Barber, meanwhile, was having trouble. His putter, the best club in his bag, let him down on the eighth hole when he missed a two-and-a-half-foot putt for a bogey.

So going to the 10th Rosburg and Barber were all even. Rosburg was playing in a threesome ahead of Barber. The sandy-haired Rosburg bogeyed the 12th when he was short with his approach, but matched the card for the other eight holes.

He was in the clubhouse when he heard that Barber had parred the 16th. It looked like tiny Jerry was home free. He needed only two pars to win. But on the 430-yard 17th, he put his seven iron second into a trap.

AP Wirephoto

JUNIOR STEALS THE SHOW — Something has attracted the attention of Bob Rosburg Jr., on the huge cup emblematic of the Professional Golf Championship which was won by his dad in Minneapolis yesterday. Rosburg shot a final round 66 and finished with a 277 total to edge Jerry Barber by one stroke.

Two Racing Stars Die in Accidents

BERLIN (UPI)—The world of auto racing today mourned the deaths of international stars Jean Behra and Ivor Bueb who died this weekend as a result of accidents here and in France.

* * *

Behra, France's champion driver who won the Sebring, Fla., race in 1957, died as a result of injuries several hours after his sports car skidded on a wet turn while competing in the sports car grand prix here Saturday.

* * *

Bueb, 35-year-old British veteran of the race track, died Saturday night as a result of injuries he suffered on Sunday, July 26, when his car plunged off a hilly track at Clermont-Ferrand, France, at the start of the Grand Prix D'Auvergne formula-two race.

Middlecoff Pays High Compliment to Jerry Barber

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Cary Middlecoff, one of the many-titled men of golf, offered a hand of sympathy today to Jerry Barber, who was beaten out of the PGA title yesterday by Bob Rosburg.

"Bob deserves all the credit he receives," Middlecoff said. "He played fine golf. But I played in a threesome with Jerry on the final day and it made me feel sick to see such a fine little guy lose that way."

"Here's a little fellow who led all the way up to the 70th hole. He's in the twilight of his career. He's been playing fine golf the whole tournament and he has the wind at his back the final two holes. Then he had to loose it.

Gopher Pitch Beats Foytack in 8th

Boston Comes From Behind on 2nd Homer

Maxwell's Sunday Blast Wasted in 5-4 Tiger Loss

* * *

The pitch varies. Sometimes it is a fast ball. Other times it is a curve, or epen a slider. But always, it's the gopher ball pitch.

Two gopher ball pitches, one to Frank Malzone and the other to Jackie Jensen, beat Foytack and the Detroit Tigers yesterday. The score was Boston 5, Detroit 4. And it was the 20th one-run decision the Tigers have dropped, compared with only eight victories by the same margin.

* * *

Despite Foytack's home run miseries, the strong-throwing right-hander could have griped a little about the way his teammates responded to Boston pitching. The Tigers got only four hits and except for the wildness of starter Bill Monbouquette, might have ended up with only one run.

* * *

The last time out, Foytack was a loser when the Tigers got only one run and six hits off a couple of Baltimore pitchers. That day, the Detroit infield kicked in a pair of unearned runs to make Foytack's task even more difficult.

Foytack, whose record now is 9-10, had a 4-2 lead entering the eighth inning. He retired the first two batters, Pumpsie Green and Pete Runnels, on routine grounders.

* * *

Ike Delock, a Highland Parker who entered the game in the seventh, kept the Detroit bats quiet and picked up his seventh triumph.

The Tigers staked Foytack to an early lead. They got one in the second on a walk, Frank Bolling's double and an infield out. Two more scored in the third when Eddie Yost walked and Charlie Maxwell slammed his 23rd home run into the right field pavilion.

Frank Malzone got two runs back for the Red Sox in the fourth when, with two out and Jensen on first via an infield single, he cracked his 15th home run.

* * *

The Tigers added their fourth run in the sixth on three walks and a sacrifice fly by Bolling. The 4-2 lead looked safe until Jensen, who had collected only a puny infield single in 12 previous trips in the series, hit his three-run blast.

* * *

The Tigers had an off day today before opening a week-long road trip against the Yankees in New York Tuesday night. Frank Lary (13-7) will work the series opener.

McCovey and Mays Stay Hot; Braves Split

Giants, L.A. Sunday Victors

By The Associated Press

The new firm of Willie McCovey and Willie Mays are keeping the San Francisco Giants on top of the National League. They provided the dynamite Sunday while Johnny Antonelli's 15th victory — a six-hitter — tamed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-3.

* * *

McCovey is hitting a sensational .500 with 9-for-18 since the Giants moved him up from their Phoenix farm last Thursday. He went 4-for-4 the first day, knocked in the winning run the second and then went 3-for-5 Saturday.

* * *

Once again Davenport scored. The Giants added another run in the eighth off Roy Face (still 14-0).

* * *

Los Angeles regained second place, a half game behind the Giants by shading Philadelphia 4-3 while Milwaukee was splitting a pair with St. Louis. The Cardinals took the opener 4-3 as Lindy McDaniel rescued Larry Jackson. Lew Burdette won his 15th in the second 11-5 when Billy Bruton hit a pair of three-run triples and Felix Mantilla connected for a three-run homer.

* * *

Rookie Jay Hook and veteran Brooks Lawrence teamed up with a five-hit shutout for Cincinnati's 2-0 decision over Chicago. Hook gave up only three hits but walked three in a row in the seventh, bringing Lawrence from the bullpen.

Antonelli became the first in the majors to win 15 but he was joined about two hours later by Burdette, The Giants' left-hander has lost only six.

Pittsburgh grabbed a 3-0 lead in the fourth but McCovey's homer got two of them back. Willie Kirkland's double, followed by Hobie Landrith's single tied the score in the sixth and Mays put San Francisco out front in the seventh. Felipe Alou's single drove in the final score in the eighth.

* * *

Despite Duke Snider's 14th homer, the Dodgers trailed the Phils 3-1 going to the fifth. They rose up for three in that inning, two on Charlie Neal's homer and another on Snider's single and Norm Larker's double. Larry Sherry, who had taken over in the fifth, allowed only one hit the rest of the way, fanning five, to record his second victory. The smallest crowd of the season, 10,201, saw the game.

* * *

Milwaukee's largest crowd of the year, 42,732 watched the Braves split. They now have won 10 of their last 12. After Joey Jay lost the opener, the Braves opened up on Vinegar Bend Mizell for 10 of their 11 runs in the second. Milwaukee made four errors in the first and three in the second game.

* * *

Its No Secret Wertz Wants to Play for Tigers

DETROIT (AP) — Vic Wertz wants to come back to the Detroit Tigers, and he's making no secret about it.

* * *

The 34-year-old first baseman is sitting on the Boston bench while Pete Runnels, a second baseman by trade, plays first for the Red Sox. Owner Tom Yawkey ordered a team shakeup and apparently Wertz and Dick Gernert will sit out most of the season, except for occasional pinch-hitting duties.

Wertz, who took a third strike in a pinch hitting role against Detroit yesterday, is batting .280. He has started only some 40 games and has been at the plate only 186 times. Among his hits are six home runs and nine doubles and the former Tiger slugger has driven in 36 runs.

"I know I could help the Tigers," said Wertz. "Physically I'm in good shape. All I need to do is play."

Chisox 3 Games Up; Orioles Dump Indians

By The Associated Press

After Luis Aparicio and Nellie Fox bunt and run you dizzy, Al Lopez waves in Turk Lown or Gerry Staley to shut the door in your face.

* * *

That is the reason the Chicago White Sox are three games out front in the American League today and pulling away fast. Except for the runner-up Cleveland Indians, the rest of the league is fading into the gloaming. Both Baltimore and Kansas City, tied for third, are 11 games back. And the Yankees? They are 12 games down in fourth place.

* * *

The little men did it again Sunday in the first game with Washington, slashing and racing to upset the punchy Senators. Trailing 2-1 in the last of the ninth, Aparicio opened with a single. Fox bunted and catcher Steve Korcheck threw the ball away. Aparicio scored and Fox dashed to third. Two intentional walks loaded the bases and Billy Goodman plunked a fly ball single into left over a drawn in outfield for a 5-2 victory.

* * *

Again in the second game, when Bob Shaw began to stumble in the eighth, in came Staley to breeze through 1 1-3 hitless innings, saving Shaw's 10th victory, 9-3.

Washington hit the only home runs. Faye Throneberry got No. 9 in the first game and Jim Lemon No. 24 in the second. But the Senators lost their 15th and 16th in a row, only two short of their club record set in 1948.

* * *

Chicago now has won six straight and 11 of its last 12 games. Since the first All-Star break they have a 19-5 record. Their opening game victory was their 28th by one run.

Cleveland lost ground by dropping a 5-4 decision to Baltimore in 10 innings. Willie Miranda beat out a high bounder to the mound, driving in the winning run. That one little hit minimized Rocky Colavito's 31st homer and Woody Held's 20th.

* * *

Tito Francona's seventh hit of the day, a three-run homer off Billy O'Dell in the ninth gave Cleveland a 6-3 decision in the second game. Francona had four singles in the first game and a double and single before his homer. The only time the Orioles got him out was when third baseman Brooks Robinson made a diving catch of a line drive.

* * *

Gary Bell won his 11th in the second while Al Ciootte lost his first on relief in the opener. Hoyt Wilhelm was Baltimore's winner and O'Dell, who worked in both games, dropped the second. Cleveland's attendance soared over the million mark to 1,009,562 with the turnout of 34,682.

Elston Howard drove in four runs with two singles and a double in New York's 7-5 victory over Kansas City. Ryne Duren struck out seven in 3 2-3 shutout innings but Duke Maas was the winner over Bob Grim.

High-Scoring Games Feature Legion Play

There were runs galore in the District Junior Legion League yesterday with the play highlighted by Royal Oak's 2nd win in as many days.

Bob Lyons of the Oaks blanked Birmingham on one-hit, 4-0, Saturday in a makeup contest featuring three hits by Ross Gillespie. They downed Clawson 7-3 yesterday with Bob Lezotte hurling a two-hitter while getting a pair of bingles himself. He had a shutout until the 9th and fanned 11.

Birmingham bounced back to wallop Milford 19-0 yesterday. Gary VanGelson swatted five of the 17 hits for six rbi's. Jay Madonna socked two triples and George Forrest homered.

Troy outscored Rochester 16-12 in a game marred by 16 errors. The victors went ahead to stay in the 5th with Done Smith winning in relief. Rich Billings had a triple and two singles among 15 bingles.

Southfield beat Berkley 15-6 as Bob Filar and Dave Boyd each had three hits and scored three runs. Jim Gatti homered in Tom Ridley's easy triumph.

Finsterwald's Golf Tip:

Take Club Away Slowly

By DOW FINSTERWALD
1958 PGA Champion

Keep the head still.

Don't take the club away from the ball too fast. If you do, you set up the timing in such a way that your mind will flash to the hole. The body will raise up. Keep calm with the head still and stay over the shot.

There never is too much body action in a short approach, none at all when you are close.

Hit the ball smoothly with the forearms and wrists and no body movement, if possible. Relax and follow through.

* * *

Selecting the club for a short shot, check the contour and speed of the green and the distance the pin is set back. If the pin is close to the edge, the ball, landing on the edge of the green, will have only a short distance to roll, indicating the proper club to be one with more loft.

The feet are close together in the stance, the toes slightly open, the face of the club slightly closed on the ball.

Quarter-Midget Thrills

3 Wheels Enough to Win

Larry Joe Wallace of Pontiac drove like a "500" veteran in the quarter-midget races at Miracle Mile yesterday afternoon.

With two laps to go in the 8-9 year old division, Larry Joe's wheel came off his racer. He finished the race with three wheels and won it.

* * *

10-11 year olds—Alex Kujawski, Hamtramck; Mickey Fisher, Toledo; John McKenzie, Utica.

Hose All-Stars Insured by AL for Million Each

CHICAGO (AP)—The American League will insure for one million dollars each the safe transportation of four Chicago White Sox playing in today's All-Star baseball game in Los Angeles.

The pennant-conscious Sox demanded the insurance and the league agreed today.

Joe Cronin, league president, said the league will pick up the tab for insuring pitcher Early Wynn, catcher Sherman Lollar, second baseman Nelson Fox and shortstop Luis Aparicio on their airplane flights from Chicago to Los Angeles and then back East to Baltimore where the first-place Sox play a night game Tuesday.

DON'T GIVE UP THE SHIP — Art Lasvar used all his resources to win a hydroplane race in Seattle yesterday. He ran ont of gas 20 yards from the finish line and then sprawled out on the boat's bow and is seen paddling furiously trying to get to the finish line. The crowd cheered him mightily for his valiant try but the other craft sped by and won the race.

Orion, Lytell Win 'D' Playoff Thrillers

Some of the best baseball of the season highlighted Sunday's playoff action in the Pontiac Parks & Recreation junior baseball program.

Lake Orion nipped Don Nicholie 2-1 in 11 innings and Lytell-Colegrove edged Pontiac Boys Club 3-2 in a pair of Class D thrillers while two B & B pitchers combined for a two-hit shutout of Auburn Heights Boys Club in a 5-0 "F" triumph in some of the featured games.

Northside Kiwanis held off a late rally to upset State Farm 8-6 in the other Class F battle. The Aces (Hall) and Ultra-Stone were Widget winners.

A double by Jeff Brady, Gary Hunter's single and an error produced the clincher for Orion off Daryl Thorpe, who fanned 18 in defeat. Nicholie had led until the 7th when an error set up the tying marker. Roger Williams won in relief.

Chuck Kirken won out in a duel with Chuck Honchell for Lytell allowing three hits and fanning 13. He also had a two-run triple and a single. Ken Shaw's single in the 5th decided the issue as Kirken retired the last 10 batters.

Roger Hayward struck out 12 in five innings and Wes Harden two for B & B Sewer Cleaners with Hayward getting the victory. Willie Love had a two-run homer and scored another on a ground out.

N. S. Kiwanis saw an 8-2 lead almost disappear before Dave Tinkis took the mound and halted the threat after four runs had scored on starting pitcher Terry Chase. Steve Daniels and Les Smith batted in three runs each for the winners.

Steve Kraft belted two homers and Scott Gailbraith one in a 23-2 romp for the Aces over Baldwin. Bill Gaddes' two-run blast was the only hit for the vanquished. Dan Fife's three hits paced Ultra-Stone over East Side, 8-2.

R-Buoy 'Flips' but Still Wins Exciting Race

More than usual interest attached to Sunday's sail races for Watkins Lake Yachting Assn., with the top highlight the victory for Chuck Morris and Carol Morris in R-Buoy.

★ ★ ★

Out front in the snipe event, Morris' craft was capsized by a heavy gust. The crew, soaked by the swamping, managed to right their boat and went on to win by a tight squeeze over Neil Wheeler's Little Faster, skippered by Bruce Brede. Guy Duffield was 3rd in G-Whiz.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Tar Baby, skippered by Jim Parshall, took the thistle class, with Don Zannoth's Seaweed and Carl Kreitz in Kritz-Kraft in that order.

2 Men Share Lead in Pistol Tourney

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (AP) — The first round of firing for the 1959 National Pistol Championship ended yesterday with a two-way tie for the lead in the men's division.

★ ★ ★

John W. Hurst, a Los Angeles policeman, and Army Sgt. Santiago Muchuza of New York City each had an aggregate score of 879 points out of a possible 900 with the .22-caliber pistol.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Third in the men's field was Air Force Sgt. John L. Keyser of Stockton, Calif., with 877 points and Army M-Sgt. Richard Stineman of Columbus, Ga., was fourth with 875.

Walker May Face Drysdale Today on Coast

Stengel's New Lineup Lists Mantle Instead of Kaline

LOS ANGELES (AP) — There was a 24-hour truce in the redhot Major League pennant races today as interest switched to the season's second All-Star game.

★ ★ ★

Today's All-Star affair was the second edition of 1959, and the American All-Stars were seeking revenge for their 5-4 loss at Pittsburgh July 7.

The site was huge Memorial Coliseum, the time for the game was 4 p.m., PDT, and upwards of 50,000 were expected to brave 90-degree-plus heat for Los Angeles' first turn as host of the event.

The brass was here, including Commissioner Ford Frick and the rival league presidents, Joe Cronin of the American and Warren Giles of the National, plus other top names in the game.

But the eyes of the fans were set for the galaxy of stars, and doubtless the Coliseum's controversial left field screen, which stands 250 feet from home plate at the foul line and rises 40 feet.

But what to do about pitching was something else.

Stengel was set to start fireballer Ryne Duren of New York. This would have been a dilly. But he had to use Duren for 3 2-3 innings against Kansas City yesterday.

And four other American League All-Star hurlers were pressed into action yesterday. They were Hoyt Wilhelm and Billy O'Dell of Baltimore, Cal McLish of Cleveland and Bud Daley of Kansas City.

Still another, Early Wynn of Chicago, has an injured ankle.

Walker was belatedly named yesterday to replace his teammate, catcher Gus Triandos, and Ramos was subbed for temmate Camilo Pascual. Triandos and Pascual came up with injuries.

Walker pitched one inning in relief Saturday and Ramos last pitched Friday night. He has lost five straight.

★ ★ ★

For Pan-Am Games

U.S. Mat Team Selected

EAST LANSING (AP) — An eight-man wrestling team, bolstered by burly youth and experienced age, was picked Saturday to represent the United States in the Pan American games in Chicago.

The winners and alternates in eight weight brackets were selected from more than 100 entries who battled for honors in the three-day elimination held at Michigan State University.

The U. S. team will begin training here Aug. 18 against second and third place grapplers, who could move up in the event of injury or illness. Claude Reeck, veteran Purdue University coach, will head the U.S. team.

Dale Lewis of Milwaukee, Wis., copped the heavyweight position over huge Dale Behrman, 257 pound Michigan State freshman football prospect. The San Francisco Olympic Club's entry, Dr. M. A. Northrup, finished third in the 147½ pound division. The 50-year-old veterinarian lost his final match to champion Jim Burke of Boulder, Colo.

Champions in the four heaviest weight classes were the first to be decided in the final day of tryouts.

Lewis, burly 250 pound former University of Oklahoma star and a member of the 1956 Olympic team, earned his final berth on a decision over Bob Morella. The decision, plus an earlier pin and two draws gave Lewis the post despite five penalty points.

Hausman Leads Qualifiers in City Medal Play

Ex-PCH Golfer Has 36-34—70 at Municipal

29 Players in Finals This Weekend Include Ex-Champs

Bob Hausman, 24-year-old barber, led the 20 qualifiers in the city Men's Medal qualifying round who will enter the 36-hole finals this weekend at Pontiac Municipal course.

Hausman fired a 36-34—70 Saturday to take honors one stroke ahead of Bill Pembroke who had 35-36—71 and Dick Robertson, 37-34—71.

There were 39 entries in the Saturday round with those carding 79 or less qualifying for the finals.

Hausman, who played on the same team at Pontiac Central with Pembroke, the tied runner-up, birdied the par-4 third hole by dropping a 6 foot putt. He then took a bogey-5 on the 4th and a double bogey-5 on the 5th where he three putted after chipping on.

On the back nine he birdied the 13th, a par-3, with an 8 footer and on the 16 he dropped a 20 foot putt for a birdie-4.

Hausman won the city match play tournament while a junior at PCH in 1952 and he also won the city Jaycee tourney while in high school.

Saturday, the 20 qualifiers plus nine former champions of those among the top five last year, will play 18 holes and then continue with another 18 holes on Sunday.

Ralston, Beste Win

Ralston won by scores of 4-6, 7-5, 6-4, 6-4, in the best of five sets match.

SOFT BIRD — Milwaukee Brave shortstop Johnny Logan (23) finds a soft landing on the back of Cardinal Joe Cunningham (15) in the 6th inning of their second game yesterday. Cunningham tried to take Logan out of the play with the slide but the Brave still completed the double play.

Benefit Tilts Net $300

All-Stars, Shaws Victors

Waterford Township softball fans enjoyed a jammed weekend of exhibition contests on the Drayton Plains field, with the Saturday night double-header benefit for Jerry Hesse, and Sunday's bill attracting big audiences.

Saturday's benefit produced about $300 which was given Hesse to help pay for medical care for a broken ankle sustained in a league contest several weeks ago.

Benefit card winners were Waterford league B All-Stars, 9-6, over Lakeside Royals, and Shaw's 1958 city league champs, 7-0, over current kings, Snobol.

Sunday's game resulted in a win for National League All-Stars, 4-2, over Class B leaders Nonne's.

A 5-run blast in the 5th, with the Royals ahead 6-3 proved the winning move for the Class B All-Stars. Stars added another counter in the 6th to clinch the argument. Dale Badder was the winner, Walt Travis the loser. Perce McConner hurled the 6th for Royals, also combined with Ken Spears for Shaw's shutout over Snobol in the afterpiece. Dick Shell was loser. Shaw's 2-run first frame actually was the winning effort.

The C All-Stars bunched four of their five hits for all four runs in the 3rd. Dorsey Underwood's bases-loaded single was the deciding blow, scoring Daryl Donaldson. Ralph Long was the winning hurler, Bob Fargher the loser.

Two games, both scheduled as rain makeups, were listed as forfeits when both Dobski's and Snobol, in the Waterford league, failed to have enough players. Eagles and Arrows were given the games.

Area Skeeters Fire Perfects

Bob Thiefels and Bud Brown Card 100s for NSSA's Opening Test

(Special to Pontiac Press)

LYNN HAVEN, Va. — Pontiac's Bob Thiefels was one of four Michigan skeet shooters breaking 100 clay birds for a perfect opening round in the National Skeet Shooting Assn., world championships at Princess Anne Gun Club at this place.

Other "perfects" were carded by Bud Brown of Birmingham (one of three Brown brothers in the big shotgun tournament) by Ken Sedleckey of Baldwin, Mich. and Howard Confer, Detroit.

Rookie Pleases Eagles' Camp

Bears to Test Casares' Injury

By The Associated Press

The Chicago Bears plan to find out quickly if bustling fullback Rick Casares is going to figure full-time in their offensive backfield plans for 1959.

The 225-pound veteran severely slashed a toe in a boating accident this summer and there was considerable speculation whether he could be ready for fulltime duty in coach George Halas' backfield.

Halas put Casares through his first running exercises yesterday with no apparent damage as the Bears ended the second week of training at their St. Joseph College, Ind., camp. But it'll take a more testing workout to determine just how fast and far Casares can go.

Just how important Casares is to the Bears is reflected in the 1958 rushing statistics in which he finished sixth in the NFL. The 27-year-old Florida great gained 651 yards in 176 attempts for a 3.7 average. This was 32 more than teammate Willie Galimore, who finished in the No. 7 spot.

Halas yesterday singled out rookie halfback Pete Johnson as the outstanding Bear newcomer so far. Johnson, a 6-2½, 200-pound halfback from Virginia Military Institute, has been particularly impressive in blocking and passing drills.

Another rookie, Art Powell of San Jose State, has brought cheer into the life of coach Buck Shaw of the Philadelphia Eagles. Shaw, whose team had a pitiful 2-9-1 record last year, is looking for rookie who can jazz up the Eagles' offense.

★ ★ ★

"There's no telling how far he (Powell) can go or the limit of his ability," Shaw said of his 11th round draft choice, who led the nation's pass receivers in 1956. He has been working out as a defensive safety man at the Eagles' Hershey, Pa., camp, but also is being looked on as a candidate for the end or halfback spot because of his speed and size.

★ ★ ★

Buddy Parker, coaching the Pittsburgh Steelers at their California, Pa., camp, also had smiles today after his team's first week of training. However, end Jimmy Orr and rookie halfback Dewey Bohling are on the temporarily disabled list after receiving concussions during a scrimmage last Friday.

Twenty-two rookies are still in the San Francisco 49ers Moraga, Calif., camp, along with 33 veterans, after coach Red Hickey cut three players yesterday. They were halfback Frank Bailey of Rice; halfback Joe Belland of Arizona State College at Temple and Jerome Jurczak, a linebacker from St. Benedict's College (Kan.).

The pro teams had yesterday free from hard scrimmage but contact work in all camps is due to resume today. The first exhibition game involving an NFL team is Wednesday, when the Chicago Cards take on the Toronto Aragonats of the Canadian Big Four football union.

Softball Playoff Openers

Royals, Casa Mia Win

The Class A Lakeside Royals and Casa Mia, Pontiac Merchants in "B," Arro Realty and Harrison's Grill in C, and Class D. Buttercup Drive-In were opening day city softball playoff victors last night.

All the scoring was in the 9th as Lakeside and Perc McConner downed Elks 810 by 3-1. Roger Reynolds of Casa Mia beat Deni's & Herks on three hits, 6-1.

Ken Spears of the Merchants allowed only a single in the 5th in blanking UAW-CIO, 5-0. Arro came from behind to tie and then tallied twice in the 5th to best Big Bear Construction 4-2 for Art Weiss. Dayton Patterson's homer started the comeback and an error on his grounder completed it.

Down 4-0, Harrison's scored seven in the 4th in whipping Blue Star, 8-6. Ray Bell socked a two-run homer in defeat. Buttercup scored all its runs in the two innings and then held on to squeeze by the Moose, 6-5.

Girl Riders Battle for LO Show Honor

A pair of capable, determined feminine riders yesterday highlighted the annual fall Lake Orion Saddle Club - LO Rotary horse show at Kelly's Park. More than 100 horses took part in the 22-event show.

Birmingham's Sandy Wells emerged as tops, with her final-event win, a special $50 cash test. Sandy and Sandra Pegg, of Oxford, were winners of several trials. Sandy won the speed and action, and barre-bending, while Sandra took the flag race, a horsemanship test, an obstacle race and speed and action event. Sandy rode San Min, Sandra was up on Queen and Champ.

Foreigners Hard Court Singles Champions

DENVER (AP) — India's agile Ramanathan Krishnan and Sandra Reynolds, 20-year-old South African, won the singles titles yesterday in the National hard court tennis championships.

With smooth, almst effortless play, Krishnan clinched it by running Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif., off his feet 12-10, 6-3, 6-3.

King Changes Positions

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds Sunday night released pitching coach Clyde King so he could become manager of Rochester in the International league.

★ ★ ★

King will replace Cot Deal who resigned Saturday night. Deal is slated to join the Reds in King's coaching post.

Michigan State and Southern California will meet for the first time in football on a home-and-home basis in the 1963-64 seasons.

Ruth Title Won by Birmingham

The Birmingham Pioneers made certain there will be a new state champion in Babe Ruth ball by eliminating the 1958 titlist yesterday at Birmingham.

Carol Kolocsay hurled four-hit ball as the Detroit Northwest Americans bowed 10-2 in the District final. Birmingham exploded after Northwest went ahead 2-0 in the 4th.

Charge She Carried Murder Kit for Finch

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Carole Tregoff, 22, was held in county jail today awaiting preliminary hearing tomorrow on charges that she carried the "murder kit" society Doctor R. Bernard Finch planned to use in a murder plot against his wife.

The attractive red-haired divorcee was arrested and charged with first degree murder last week after testifying at Finch's preliminary hearing. The state charged she helped Finch plan the slaying of Barbara Finch, 33, last July 18 with the hope of later marrying the 41-year-old physician.

The original murder plot of injecting a sedative into Mrs. Finch and shoving her car off a cliff was thwarted by the appearance at the scene of the Finch maid, Marie Ann Lidholm, the state charged. It said Miss Tregoff carried the "murder kit" containing sedatives, rope and hypodermic syringes among other things to the scene.

Mrs. Finch was found shot in the back on the lawn of the Finch $65,000 home in nearby West Covina. Miss Lidholm, 19-year-old Swedish exchange student, said she last saw Mrs. Finch being chased across the lawn by Finch.

U. S. Output Shocking

GM Tests Cars for Road Wear With New Device

WARREN, Mich. (AP) — General Motors is using a new gadget to test driving effects on a car without taking the car onto the road.

A tape recorder and instrumentation transmit the bounces and pitches of a rough road onto a standard car body that stands still. The body has no wheels.

GM calls its development a "Ride Simulator." It was explained at GMs technical center here today by Robert H. Kohr, vehicle dynamics supervisor of the corporations' research laboratories.

Kohr said the simulator produces the motions of a car on a road and is important to study of suspension systems and other factors.

The Ride Simulator is something like the airplane flight simulators used in pilot training. But GM's device is meant to determine car riding characteristics, not to train drivers.

No Damage Revealed

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — An artillery battle broke out near Matsu Island at the northern end of Formosa Strait today when Communist and Nationalist warships appeared, the Nationalist Chinese Defense Ministry announced.

Nationalist warships suffered no damage, the ministry said, and it claimed no hits on Red warships. There was no mention of naval gunfire.

Western Dems Want Convention Vote Bloc

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — A campaign to organize a western voting bloc in the contest for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination was disclosed today by Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown of California.

Brown told newsmen at the 51st annual governors conference he intends to canvass other Democratic governors on their presidential preferences at a meeting of western state chief executives in Sun Valley, Idaho, next month.

Although he denied any intention of attempting to control such a Western bloc, Brown made it clear he wants California's 76 convention votes supplemented with others behind a strong candidate.

Without shutting the door on his own possible candidacy, Brown said he thinks the field is wide open at this time.

Ford Reports Best Production Since '55

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. today reported its best July production since record 1955 and said it built more Thunderbirds during the month than in any previous month since the car was introduced.

Total car production for Ford was 159,653 against 82,559 last year. In seven months the company has built 1,107,809 cars compared with 613,572 in the January-July period of 1958.

French-Canadian Gets High Post

Although Gen. Vanier advocated disarmament in the League of Nations and saw France fall in 1940, he tried to rouse his fellow French-Canadians to war in 1941 and served as Canada's envoy to Gen. Charles De Gaulle in London and Algiers. He also was Canada's fifth ambassador to France.

"I wouldn't do anything differently if I had my years to do again," Vanier has said.

Born in Montreal on April 23, 1888 — the day Englishmen honor their patron St. George — Vanier learned fluent French from his French father and equally excellent English from his Irish mother.

GEN. GEORGE P. VANIER

He studied law and went to Ottawa to serve as aide-de-camp to two governors-general and to marry a judge's daughter.

With the advent of World War I, Vanier helped organize the famed Royal 22nd regiment that saw long-term duty in the front line trenches. He won numerous decorations for bravery and was wounded twice, the second time losing his right leg above the knee.

Despite the loss of a leg, Vanier was appointed second in command of his old regiment after the war and went to Geneva as a delegate to the preparatory disarmament commission of the League of Nations.

His diplomatic career began with an appointment as secretary to Canada's high commissioner in London in 1931.

His appointment eight years later as Canadian envoy to France was soon followed by France's capitulation in 1940. Vanier managed to get his wife and children to the Bay of Biscay, where he herded them aboard a sardine boat that eventually rendezvoused with a British destroyer which took the family to England.

Returning to Canada as wartime commanding officer of the Quebec district, Vanier stumped the province, campaigning against anti-conscription nationalists among French speaking Canadians.

Toward the end of the war, he served in the London headquarters of Gen. De Gaulle's French committee of liberation and moved with De Gaulle to Algiers in 1944. Twelve days after the liberation of Paris, Vanier reassumed his duties as ambassador to France. He retired in 1953 to take up charitable work in Montreal.

Vanier has three sons and a daughter living in Europe. A fourth son is a trappist monk in Oka, Que.

Lost Stream Swallows Patrolman

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Is there such a thing as a lost stream?

A tragedy has revealed that there is.

It all started Saturday night when patrolman Joseph Reiss, 35, was checking a reported cave-in at a street intersection in northeastern Philadelphia.

Suddenly the earth below him crumbled without warning. He was swallowed into a gaping hole 43 feet deep, 60 feet long, and 60 feet wide. There has been no trace of him since.

City Water Commissioner Samuel Baxter said that the cave-in was caused by the collapse of an 11-foot arch over a forgotten stream that had been turned into a sewer 75 years ago. The area has a history of cave-ins but this was the worst.

One Dead, Two Missing in Fire in Wild Gas Well

HOUMA, La. (AP)—Oil crews today tried to choke out a fire burning in a gas well that blew out of control, wrecking a big drill rig valued at some 1½ million dollars.

One man was killed, two are missing and presumed dead, and five were badly burned.

THE FOUR FRESHMEN

The Four Freshmen will be the attraction at Walled Lake Casino Ballroom on Saturday night. The Dukes of Dixieland will be the feature on Friday night.

Coveralls Best for Tot Scholars

Keep Comfort in Mind When Purchasing Fall School Wardrobe

The first day in school is a milestone. The new student's experiences in the nursery or kindergarten classroom are unlike anything he's experienced before.

Mother can make life a lot easier and pleasant for the child by using just common sense in purchasing fall garments to start the child on his road to learning.

★ ★ ★

Since children in this age group devote a major portion of their day in play on the floor and with paints and crayons, the most appropriate attire for both boys and girls is the coverall or shirt and slack outfit. Since most of these are drip-dry there is no laundering problem.

George Rosenberg advises mothers to select clothes with elasticized waistlines to give a comfortable fit.

And try to select garments with zippers down the front. The little folks become more confident when they are allowed to dress themselves and find that it is easy to do.

Keep in mind not to buy clothes that are too big. Not only do they make the child uncomfortable physically but psychologically, too.

Most of the outfits made for children in this age group are popular priced, durable and can stand the rough wear the average child gives them right through a season.

Once the child does not feel restrained in his clothes or fearful of soiling them, he is off to a healthy and happy start at school.

Will Charge Driver With Murder of Boss

WARREN (AP) — Police today recommended a second degree murder warrant against James Bolden, 46, held in the death Saturday of the boss who fired him.

Bolden's employer, Leo S. Rovin, furniture store owner, died after a reported altercation with Bolden, his delivery driver whom he had discharged.

Macomb County Coroner Stanley K. Schultz said an autopsy showed that Rovin died of a heart attack. Detective Sgt. Walter O'Bee said the heart attack could have been induced by blows.

Second Explosion Hits Home of Negro Couple

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—The home of the only Negro couple in the formerly all-white suburb of Collins Park has been hit by an explosion for the second time in less than five months.

The latest explosion Sunday buckled the walls and tore a large hole in the front of the $13,500 home of Mr. and Mrs. George Rayfield. They were not at home at the time.

★ ★ ★

State police said the house and its furnishings are a complete loss. The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People said it would help pay for reconstruction of the house if the Rayfields could not afford it.

Space Capsule for Man to Be Tested in September

It will be sent up from Cape Canaveral, Fla., by a vehicle called Big Joe, essentially a modified Atlas Intercontinental Ballistic Missile.

The conventional Atlas, 75 feet tall, climbs to altitudes of several hundred miles and delivers its warhead at speeds of more than 15,000 miles an hour over a range of up to 6,300 miles.

With its mighty engine still putting out full power, it will thunder down a slanted course through the earth's thickening atmosphere.

The purpose: a maximum test of the ablation or heat erosion of the outer space of the space capsule's nose.

The space capsule atop the Atlas in Big Joe has been built by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration at its Lewis Laboratories, Cleveland, Ohio.

It is the same weight — 2,100 to 2,200 pounds — and will have the same instrumentation and pressurized compartment as the McDonnell capsule but will not have the environmental equipment required to keep a man alive.

It may be preceded by Little Joe rocket launchings from Wallops Island, Va., of from Cape Canaveral, some carrying rhesus monkeys or chimpanzees.

The Little Joe series will be followed next spring by the first rocket launchings of men into short flights in space capsules, in preparation for eventual orbital flight late in 1961 or in 1962.

Good Heating Vital to Schools

Comfortable Classroom Necessary for Efficient Learning

Although parents tend to judge a school in terms of curricula and teaching staff, proper heating plays an important role. There is a definite relationship between comfort and learning efficiency.

Several heating industry organizations conduct continuing research programs for more facts about good heating, in the home as well as the school.

Proper school heating is now a concern of engineers, school boards and parents because heating is an integral part of school construction costs.

The rising construction costs are reflected in the local taxes paid by all homeowners. Thus heating in the school involves two questions for parents: will it aid student performance and what will it cost?

The hot water heating industry is concerned with these questions, too. According to the Better Heating-Cooling Council, the industry recently developed new equipment and techniques to reduce school heating costs while maintaining high standards of performance and quality.

Some new school heating techniques come from developments in the home heating field.

These include such innovations as forced circulation hot water heating, baseboard heating panels, smaller but more powerful boilers (heating plants), use of smaller size distribution pipes (as small as ¼ inch).

The principle of increased efficiency and reduced size has been applied to school heating with considerable savings.

7-Nation Treaty Governs Troops in West Germany

BONN, Germany (AP) — A seven-nation treaty on stationing of North Atlantic forces in West Germany was signed here today.

Four thick documents, which have taken 3½ years to negotiate, set down in detail every condition governing the stay in West Germany of NATO troops.

The pact was signed by the West German deputy foreign minister, Hilger von Scherpenberg and the ambassadors of the United States, Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Canada — the countries whose troops are in Germany.

Spain Doubles Rates for Telephone Calls

MADRID, Spain (UPI) — The government announced Friday a nearly 100 per cent boost in the cost of telephone calls as part of the plan to stabilize the nation's economy.

The monthly basic rate of 60 pesetas ($1) was increased by 53 pesetas. The increase followed other price hikes on gasoline and tobacco, and the announcement of pending boosts in rail fares.

According to the U. S. Department of Commerce people in the United States last year spent in the neighborhood of $6 billion to repair their autos, appliances and other house furnishings. To inform these people of the latest facts regarding new products and servicing information advertisers last year invested over $3 billion in daily newspaper advertising.

Bridge Bout Shrinks, 2 Teams Unbeaten

CHICAGO (AP) — The American Contract Bridge League's annual summer tournament today narrowed to 12 teams, two of them undefeated.

★ ★ ★

The two unbeaten teams are headed by Oswald Jacoby, of New York City, and Lewis Mathe, of Los Angeles.

The Jacoby team defeated the Sidney Silodor squad of Philadelphia yesterday by 11 international points. Mathe's team downed the New York City quintet of Arthur Miller by 22 international points.

The Jacoby and Mathe teams square off today. Five other matches will be played today and tonight among the remaining 10 squads, which have one defeat each.

The winning team in the blue ribbon competition will represent the United States at the bridge Olympiad in Rome, Italy, next April. Seventeen other countries will be represented.

The bridge league's summer tournament began July 25 with 88 teams. The team averages five or six players.

1959 Stock Rapidly Dropping

GM May Move Up '60 Car Work

By JACK VANDENBERG
UPI Automotive Editor

DETROIT (UPI) — General Motors may move up the introduction of its 1960 model cars a week or 10 days because of rapidly dwindling stocks of 1959 models, auto industry sources said today.

But the industry appeared to be right on target with its production schedules and sales as it prepared for closing out the 1959 models and bringing in the 1960 cars.

The industry's sales during the second 10 days of July climbed 12.7 per cent above the first 10 days of the month but were still well below the similar period of June. This was exactly the way the industry had it figured.

Car and truck production dropped off 4.5 per cent this week from the previous week but again it was a planned drop.

The automakers are preparing for the end of the 1959 model run. They want to keep a big enough inventory of 1959 models so customers can get the cars they want but keep stocks low enough so there aren't many 1959 models left around the showrooms when the 1960 models start moving in.

All Chrysler Corp. plants except the Plymouth plant at Evansville, Ind., already are shut down on 1959 model production and that plant will complete the 1959 model run early next week. Studebaker-Packard also is shut down for model changeover.

American Motors and Buick will begin the changeover of machinery for 1960 model production next week. Other producers were gradually reducing their work week in preparation for closing out 1959 model production.

During the week, the industry turned out 142,851 cars and trucks compared with 149,565 last week and 79,122 in the same week a year ago, despite the earlier shutdowns for model changeovers.

Despite the upsurge in sales this week, sales during July were trailing 19 per cent behind June sales and the industry expects this margin to widen just a little more when the sales figures for the final 10 days of the month come in.

JUST A NORMAL DROP

Sales normally drop off toward the end of the model year and sales this year were still well above last year. During the July 11-20 period this year cars sold at a daily rate of 17,100 compared with a daily rate of 13,100 in the same period a year ago.

General Motors accounted for 46.4 per cent of the industry's sales in mid-July while Ford took 30.1 per cent, Chrysler Corp. 13.7 per cent, American Motors 7.3 per cent and Studebaker-Packard 2.5 per cent.

Although current production rates indicated an annual rate of 6,135,000, introduction of smaller 1960 models, coupled with the good showing of American Motors and Studebaker-Packard in the small car field currently, was expected to boost this figure in the final months of the year.

Lear Ready to Top All in Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Lear, Inc., now Grand Rapids' second-largest employer with more than 3,700 workers, soon may be in first position, William P. Lear, board chairman, said today.

Lear said at a press conference that the company's steadily increasing business in both military and commercial fields could double facilities and production at its new airport plant here within five years.

In 1959, Lear said his company will have done 80 million dollars worth of business, 90 per cent of it with the military, and expects to have a 90-million-dollar backlog by Jan. 1.

The outlook for 1960, he added, is promising and by 1962 his company should be doing business in excess of 100 million dollars a year, with commercial work expanding to 30 per cent.

Discussing new developments, said the company has men in its Grand Rapids and California laboratories working on a flight control system for a nuclear-powered airplane now in early stages, and also working in a field of solid state physics expected to produce a flat plate television screen within three years.

One Loss, One Gain

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Department of Street Railways said Friday it lost 477,469 passengers in the first 27 days of its new fare increase. The DSR raised bus fares from 20 cents to 25 cents. General Manager Leo J. Nowicki said the passenger loss was 5.27 per cent, but that fare revenue increased 11.48 per cent in the same period.

Market Rises to New Record

NEW YORK (AP)—Oils and motors paced a further stock market rise into record high ground early today. Trading was fairly active.
Gains of leading issues ran from fractions to about a point. Most advances were modest.

Most Grain Down Slightly

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures dealers bore down on soybeans again today and that commodity declined a cent or more a bushel during the first several minutes of dealings on the Board of Trade.
Reports of weekend rainfall had a general weakening effect on the grains, too, although rye moved up small fractions. Corn eased small fractions but receipts were a bit heavier than they had been recently the brokers said they apparently had relieved some of the cash dealer demand.
Soybean prices have been bobbing up and down over a range of about a cent for more than a week in mistly speculative trade but today they appeared to be following a weaker market for soybean oil and soybean meal.

Set Special Meeting of Board of Education

A special Waterford Township Board of Education meeting has been scheduled for 8 p. m. Thursday with non-teaching employes of Local 1295, according to Rudolph C. Lisac, president of the Local.
The Local has filed a grievance with the board, protesting the hiring of two painters instead of giving the present employes an opportunity to prove themselves worthy of the job, Lisac said.

News in Brief

Billy Moore, of 348 Russell St., reported to Pontiac Police Sunday morning that he was "strong armed" and robbed of $60 by two unidentified men at the end of Hess street.

Clayborne Carry, of 324 Hughes St., reported to Pontiac Police Saturday that someone broke into his home and stole miscellaneous items valued at $840.

Waterford Township to Award Contract

A $5,500 contract will be awarded tonight by the Waterford Township Board for construction of a 640-foot water main along Elizabeth Lake road. Four bids have been accepted for the job.
The project is an extension to Stringham School to rectify a contaminated well problem on the school property.
The Board meeting will be at 8 p. m. in the Township hall.

Farm Totals Dwindle

WASHINGTON—There are 4,790,000 farms in the U.S. now compared with a total of 6,812,000 farm operations in 1935.

Army Resumes Weapons Fight

Opposes Too Much Reliance on the Mass Destruction Types

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army renewed today its campaign against too great a reliance on mass destruction weapons, contending that properly equipped land forces can conquer without destroying an enemy.
Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, Army chief of staff, sounded this keynote at the outset of the three-day annual convention of the Association of the United States Army. The group is composed of present and former Army men and other backers of Army policies.

The general also re-emphasized another point the Army long has made, the possibility of a nuclear stalemate arising when both the United States and the Soviet Union could totally destroy each other with those weapons.
Lemnitzer said: that "a modern army is capable of conquering without destroying, of defending without reducing the defended land to radioactive waste."
He added that "the physical presence of armed men on the ground can exert more effective and lasting control than the threat of megatons of firepower that may never be used."
At another point, Lemnitzer said that in the not too distant future, intercontinental ballistic missiles can become so numerous and relatively invulnerable to counterattack that it would senseless for an enemy to attempt surprise attack.
Land power, primarily represented by the Army, is vital in strategy, the general declared.

County DAV Elects L. J. Keys Commander

The Oakland County Council of Disabled American Veterans has elected Luther J. Keys, of 2628 Lapeer Rd., Pontiac Township, as their commander for the coming year.
Keys, presently judge advocate of Pontiac DAV Chapter 16, has been a member of that chapter for seven years and a member of the Oakland County Council of Veterans for three years.
Others newly elected and their positions are: Payne VanDevener of Hazel Park, senior vice commander; Edward D. Edington of Pontiac, junior vice commander; and Alex Dutko of Warren, financial secretary.
Edington is a member of Pontiac Chapter 101. The other two officers belong to Royal Oak Chapter 19.

Secretary of Labor Dubious

Negotiators Set 2nd Joint Session in Steel Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — In the wake of a sharp public rebuke by Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, industry and union negotiators today hold their second joint session since the nationwide steel strike began July 15.
Today's meeting had been arranged by federal mediators before Mitchell accused both sides of failing to make serious efforts to settle their contract dispute.

Mitchell noted in Washington Saturday that the negotiators had met just once—and for only two hours — last Monday.
"This is no way to bargain," said Mitchell, who is serving as President Eisenhower's fact-finder in the strike. "They cannot reach agreement unless they talk to each other."

Spokesmen for the industry and of America denied they were not trying to reach agreement. They did not offer to alter their positions in the deadlock.
The industry called a news conference today — two hours before the joint bargaining session — in a move to support its contention that an increase in steel labor costs would spur inflation.

Industry spokesmen said that at the luncheon they would make public "thousands of letters" supporting the anti-inflation contention. The letters were written in response to a recent industry advertisement in newspapers.
Today's joint negotiations were arranged last week by Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. Finnegan has been meeting separately with both sides, before and since last Monday's joint talks, which he arranged.

'Reel' Hoods Startle Housewife

Expose Dark Figures

UTICA (AP) — A startled housewife pulled back into her driveway as two cars shot past. One was labeled "police" but the occupants clearly were sinister characters.
Mrs. Shirley Desaele, 27, of suburban Sterling Township, called state police. Her sister next door called the Macomb County sheriff's department. Three squad cars sped to the scene.

Eight figures in black derbies, trenchcoats and puffing big, black cigars milled menacing around two cars. One of the vehicles had the crude letters "Utica Police" painted on the side. A red lantern was perched on top.

When officers rounded up the hard-looking group, it turned out that they had interrupted a creative endeavor.
The "gang" was made up of boys from 16 to 20 years of age. They were making an Al Capone film with a home movie camera.

"We just told them not to make any more movies," one said.

Romeo Picks Peach Queen Friday

10 Beauties Seek to Wear Crown at Annual Festival

ROMEO — The big moment is fast approaching for the 10 girls who will be vying for the title of Romeo Peach Queen Friday evening at Romeo Junior High School.

The contest, staged by the Romeo Peach Festival Assn., will begin at 8 p.m. and is open to the public free of charge.

Candidates for the crown are title holder in their own communities. The girls' identities will remain secret until the queen and her two maids of honor are chosen.

Each contestant will cary a card bearing the name of a peach as her sole identification during the competition. They will be interviewed individually on stage by Romeo attorney J. Gerald McLean, acting as master of ceremonies.

Mrs. McLean is contest chairman.

Musical accompaniment will be provided by the Romeo High School dance band under the direction of E. C. Ojala.

The entire proceedings will take place in front of four out-of-town judges who will make the final decision.

Winner of the Peach Queen title will receive a formal gown which she will wear for her coronation by Gov. Williams Sept. 6 and in the floral parade on Labor Day.

An additional gift this year will be a free modeling course at Patricia Stevens Finishing School in Detroit.

All other contestants also will receive the gowns they will wear at the coronation and on the queen's float on Labor Day.

GUESTS IN HOMES

The 10 girls will be guests in Romeo homes during the 27th annual Festival Sept. 4, 5, 6 and 7 so they will be more readily available to take part in all the weekend activities, Mrs. McLean said.

★ ★ ★

Included on their agenda will be visits to Detroit's Mayor Louis C. Miriana, a Tiger baseball game, Selfridge Air Force Base and area Speedways and race tracks.

In each instance the girls will present baskets of peaches to their hosts and other dignitaries present at special events.

The stage setting and bouquets will be by the Romeo Florist and lighting by Verellen Electric Co. Stephen Burns will have charge of the sound equipment.

Jaycee Auxiliary Slates Walled Lake Meeting

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Duane Bachelor will serve as cohostesses for the evening at which time the group will select a Christmas card line for the annual Yuletide sales.

Southfield to Sift Water System

Installation of 9 Mains Called for Immediately by Proposal

SOUTHFIELD — A proposed water supply system calling for the immediate installation of nine transmission mains will get the City Council's undivided attention when it meets with the planning commission at tonight's special meeting, City Clerk Patrick Flannery said today.

The public meeting is to be held at No. 10 School at 10-Mile and Berg roads.

Estimated cost of the nine mains will be $420,700, which will be paid through water revenue bonds, acording to Flannery, who said there will be no increase in the present city water rates.

The installation of three other lines is being considered at a cost of $242,600, he added.

The system is part of a master distribution plan which will supply the entire 26-square mile city with water. The plan, submitted by Spalding De Decker Corp., city engineering consultants, calls for an estimated 77 million gallons of water a day for the city by 1975.

Urges Establishment of Space Cadet Corps

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congress was urged today to set up a space cadet corps to recruit youths for the nation's space effort.

Rep. Victor L. Anfuso (D-NY), a member of the House space committee, proposed a bill to create and incorporate a space cadet corps.

Anfuso said the oragnization would "encourage and help the young people of the country to take an active part now and eventually to find careers in the space sciences and practical astronautics."

"In order to meet the challenges of the space age, we need the fullest and earliest possible participation in space activities by our youth," Anfuso said.

The corps would be run by a Washington - headquartered corporation, directed by prominent persons from the fields of education, aviation, astronautics and related activities.

Newlyweds to Reside in Marlette After Trip

MARLETTE — Upon returning from a honeymoon in the Upper Peninsula, newlyweds, Mr. and Mr William A. Denton will reside in Marlette. The couple were married at the Free. Methodist Church in Snover before an altar banked with palms, candelabra, and baskets of white flowers.

The bride, the former Donna Grace Williams, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donus O. Williams of VanDyke road here. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. Dentons of Snover.

MRS. WILLIAM A. DENTON

The bride's floor-length gown of chantilly lace over net was accented by a scoop neckline and pointed sleeves. A tiara of sequins and pearls secured her illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white heart shaped carnations, centered with pink carnations.

Attending the new Mrs. Denton were Barbara Denton, of Snover, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor and Mrs. Sam Senople of Detroit. Mrs. Andy Tomlan of Mt. Clemens and Mrs. George Hyler of Marlette, as bridesmaids. Linda Gaulin of Troy and Nancy Denton of Snover served as flower girls.

Martin E. Denton of Snover served his brother as best man and the attendants included Sam Pandrea of Detroit, Wayne Billot of Snover, and Olex Kozub of Detroit.

Serving as ringbearer was Johnny Senople of Detroit. Ushers were Dan Stanko of Marlette and Leonard Gaulin of Troy.

Pontiac Press Photo

FIRST STAGE — The initial phase of development of the sewage disposal system for Michigan State University Oakland is the construction of sanitary sewers. Here workers of the Northeast Construction Co., Detroit, put in a manhole 15-feet below the surface on Avon road, east of Old Perch road in Avon Township. The disposal plant itself will be built after the sewers are in. Two crews of about 20 men each are on the job beginning today. The Oakland County Department of Public Works is directing building operations.

Give to Leonard Family

Friends Aid Fire Victims

LEONARD — Over 75 neighbors and friends of the John Schirmer family attended the miscellaneous shower given for them Saturday evening at Rowland Hall here.

The shower was sponsored by residents of the community who wanted to help the Schirmers get re-established after their home was gutted by fire and most of their belongings destroyed while they were on vacation recently.

The Schirmers, whose plans for the future are still indefinite, received bedding, kitchen and electrical equipment and other household furnishings plus an undetermined amount of cash, the committee said.

Mrs. Schirmer, her eyes brimming over with tears, expressed her heartfelt thanks to her friends for "their "kindness and generosity."

Mrs. Hiram Terry, Mrs. William Erickson and Mrs. Raymond R. Snyder had charge of the affair at which refreshments were served to all who attended.

Dean Hesses Honeymoon in Tennessee

WALLED LAKE — Following a honeymoon in the Smokey Mountains and Memphis, Tenn., newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gordon Hess will reside at 960 Adelaide, Wolverine Lake.

The couple was married at Walled Lake Methodist Church with the Rev. Fredrick Foutz of Shepherd of the Lakes Lutheran Church officiating at the ceremony.

The bride, the former Mary Jo Hinckley, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hinckley of 1099 Lake Rd., here. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hess of 960 Adelaide, Wolverine Lake.

A waltz-length gown of white lace over satin was chosen by the bride for her marriage. Her fingertip veil was held by a seed pearl cap. She carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Judith Rogers of Northville attended as matron of honor.

Serving as best man was Charles Rogers of Northville, and as ushers were Ronald Chiesa of Milford and Paul Kilar of Sylvan Lake, both brothers-in-law of the bridegroom: Gordon Olson of Green Bay, Wis., the bridegroom's cousin; and Michael Hinckley, the bride's brother.

Upon returning from the honeymoon, the bridegroom will attend school in Pennsylvania and later open a business in Walled Lake.

4-Month-Old Baby Found Dead in Crib

RAY TOWNSHIP—A four-month old baby was found not breathing in her bed yesterday morning by her mother who called to Romeo Rescue Squad to try and revive the infant. The emergency crew's efforts proved fruitless, and the child was pronounced dead at the Community Hospital near Almont.

Dead is Maureen Slane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Slane, of 17389 28 Mile Rd. Romeo State Police said the mother found the baby in her crib with her head in a corner against the mattress.

Coroner Dr. Stanley Schultz said the baby died of suffocation. The child had not been ill, he said.

Moroccan King Rushes Home to Settle Dispute

RABAT, Morocco (UPI)—Government officials today were anxiously awaiting the return of King Mohammed V to deal personally with a political dispute that threatens Morocco with widespread civil disorders.

He had been in the French capital for a tonsillectomy, but his sudden departure required plans for the operation to be set aside.

PAULINE SUE LOWERY

Mr. and Mrs. Ann B. Lowery of 2550 Livernois Rd., Avon Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Pauline Sue to James D. Kemler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Kemler of 5900 Cobb Creek Ct., Oakland Township. James is stationed in Norfolk, W. Va., with the U. S. Navy. No date has been set for the wedding.

Auburn Orchards to Open Modern Rochester Store

ROCHESTER — Owners of Auburn Orchards Market, Inc., of 1920 Auburn Rd., Shelby Township, have announced plans to open a new and modern food center here early in September.

Michael Giancotti, part owner and manager of the Shelby market, said purchase of the building which formerly housed the Kroger Co. store on Main street here has been completed and an extensive remodeling program will soon get under way.

To be called the "Rochester Food Center," the new store will incorporate the newest merchandising features plus "magic doors," piped-in music and air conditioning, Giancotti said.

Comanagers of the new store will be Ronald Pini of Shelby Township and Carl Pini of Detroit. The latter expects to move into the area in the near future.

Area Man Aids in Saving Five

Another Man Drowns When Small Boat Tips in Lake St. Clair

A Bloomfield Township man helped rescue five persons, including three children, in a boating tragedy on Lake St. Clair that claimed one life Saturday evening.

Dewey Phelps, 62, of Detroit, father of one of the saved children drowned when the party's small boat capsized about 100 feet from the Grosse Pointe Farms shoreline.

Joseph Miller of 221 S. Williamsbury Rd., Bloomfield Township, John Hartz of Grosse Pointe and Charles Jackson of Detroit, pulled the victims from the water. The rescuers were fishing from boats nearby when the tragedy occurred.

Saved from drowning were Phelp's son, Louie, 12; Raymond L. McClanahan of Detroit, owner of the swamped boat; McClanahan's two daughters, Donna, 8, and Marline, 10, and Claude Whitman, also of Detroit.

McClanahan, who was operating the 14-foot aluminum boat powered by a 25-horsepower motor, charged his boat was swamped by the swells of a larger craft.

Homing Pigeon Adopts Couple Who Found It

AVON TOWNSHIP—Homer the lost homing pigeon, has found a new home here. He has adopted the Harmon J. Pikes or vice versa.

Mr. and Mrs. Pike, who live at 2960 Crooks Rd., found the bird on the front lawn Thursday and discovered it had a band on its leg with the nunber 839AU59 F.H.C. on it.

The couple decided it must be a homing pigeon that had become exhausted after along trip, and they decided to keep it until its owners could be found.

When they received no inquiries about the bird they released it one evening expecting it would find its way home. But, when they opened the back door the following morning, there was the pigeon back again.

The bird must sense that the Pikes are people who love animals and birds. Mrs. Pike had a pet chicken at one time.

SONJA E. BOOSE

Announcing the engagement of their daughter, Sonja, to Robert L. Knauf are Mr. and Mrs. Herman Boose of 28 Stanton Rd., Oxford. Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Knauf of 760 Sanders Rd., Oxford Township. The couple plan an Oct. 10 wedding.

Disease on Rise Again

TB in Cattle Costs Farmers Money

LANSING (UPI)—The same problem that made Louis Pasteur famous in the 19th century — tuberculosis in cattle — is costing Michigan farmers money in 1959.

Pasteur developed a process used on milk — pasteurization — that when followed prevents people from getting TB from animals.

Other scientists following in his footsteps worked to eliminate the disease in cows until in 1940, every state in the United States was certified as having less than one half of 1 per cent of its cattle infected.

But then bovine TB began to increase.

Since the mid-1950s the disease has become more widespread until in the last two years, about one of every 65 Michigan cattle tested was a reactor.

★ ★ ★

However, cattle who react to TB tests must be slaughterd. Dr. Asa Winter, chief of the disease eradiction branch of the Federal-State Cooperative Disease Control Section, said in spite of salvage value and indemnity payments by the government, it costs farmers money.

LOSES MILK

Even if the farmer gets the full cash value of the cow, he must replace the animal and loses on milk it would have produced.

An autopsy on the dead animal determines how much of the carcass can be sold and payments from both the state and federal government help make up the loss.

Michigan State University has been given a grant from the U.S. Department of Agriculture to find a better method of detecting TB in cattle. Initial grants totaled $210,000 and additional payments were expected to bring the final amount over $400,000.

Michigan State University officials and members of several farm groups met with legislators recently to try and get money for an isolation building that would help in the research program but none was appropriated.

But their chances of getting the disease — unless they drink raw, unpasteurized milk — are slim. Health department officials said there is no "particular" danger to farmers from the cow itself. The kind of TB humans can get from cows or untreated milk is bone and joint TB rather than the respiratory variety.

A difficulty is telling when a cow has TB. An infected animal coughs some and milk production may fall off, but a full-scale test is needed to be sure the cow has the disease.

The disease control branch tests about a fourth of Michigan's cows each year, Winter said.

In the 1957-58 fiscal year, 492,000 were tested and in the year ended June 30, about 350,000 were tested.

It is hoped that a better detection method will come out of the MSU studies. And from the improved method, eradication of the disease and removal of the danger that a farmer may have to slaughter a valuable, milk-producing animal may come.

A Palace Guard Kicks Woman in Line of Duty

LONDON (AP) — A scarlet-coated Buckingham Palace guard — normally the last word in British military propriety—was confined to barracks today.

Police declined to name the woman or the member of the elite Coldstream Guards. One British paper, naming no names, said the woman tourist is an American.

As always, the guardsmen in their tall, black bearskin hats looked straight ahead, never changing expression as tourists posed beside them for pictures.

Then something went wrong with tradition. As one off-duty guardsman told it today:

The guard snapped to attention and slammed his rifle butt on the ground—the signal that he was going to march off. The guard may have thought the woman was teasing him.

★ ★ ★

"As he marched off on patrol in front of the palace gates, he accidentally bumped into the woman. She got very annoyed. But the guard was a bit shocked too, you know."

Show Goes On as Gary Crosby Defies Ailment

The eldest of Bing's sons became sick just before show time Saturday night. He didn't go on, and Sahara owner Milton Prell picked up $7,000 worth of dinner tabs for some 600 disappointed customers.

A doctor advised Gary to rest his tonsils till Tuesday at least. But the singer said he was going on anyhow, and got through his 60-minute act without any trouble.

Will Consider Civil Rights Bill

Senate Committee to Take Up Measure Over Southern Objection

WASHINGTON (AP) — By an 8-5 vote, the Senate Judiciary Committee overrode southern opposition today and took a civil rights bill up for consideration.

Earlier a subcommittee of the judiciary group lined up 2-1 in an incomplete vote, in favor of shelving a proposed constitutional amendment designed to annul the Supreme Court's desegregation decision.

The full committee overrode objections from Chairman James O. Eastland (D-Miss) and other Southern opponents. They had blocked attempts at two previous meetings to get the legislation up for action.

The bill called up, previously approved by a 4-3 vote in subcommittee, is limited to extending the life of the Civil Rights Commission and to require the preservation of voting records for use in investigations by the attorney general into alleged denial of voting rights.

Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois told newsmen after the meeting that he believes it now will be possible to get a civil rights bill out of the committee.

Bradley Families Want $4,750,000

DETROIT (AP) — Families of the 33 men lost in the sinking of the Great Lakes freighter Carl D. Bradley will propose that U. S. Steel Corp. pay them damages of $4,750,000, an attorney for the group said today.

Atty. Kenneth C. Davies said the proposal will be made at a conference Thursday in Cleveland with U. S. District Judge Charles J. McNamee.

Judge McNamee is to confer with representatives of the ship owners and the families over damage claims at that time.

The Bradley sank in a Lake Michigan storm last Nov. 18. Only two members of the crew survived. The Bradley was operated by the Bradley Transportation Co. of Rogers City for the Michigan Limestone Division of U. S. Steel.

PGA Tourney Provides Weekend's Top Drama

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI) — My enthusiasm for televised golf is somewhat less than that for stomach acid commercials, but there's little doubt that the principal drama of the weekend was manufactured by the pro golf tournament on CBS-TV.

★ ★ ★

CBS-TV devoted an hour on Saturday and 90 minutes yesterday to portions of the 72-hole competition from Minneapolis and from this mass of play there issued two moments of medium sublimity.

EWALD

The first took place at the close of hostilities Saturday when Jerry Barber, a wee fellow who had never won a major tourney in 20 years of competition, potted a 35-foot putt on the last hole of the third round.

The putt pitched Barber ahead of the whole field and when the TV camera zoomed in on the little California pro, the screen lit up with a study in controlled ecstasy.

Yesterday, the drama turned back upon itself. Barber goofed on the penultimate hole and then failed to dunk a 14-footer on the final hole that would have given him a tourney tie.

This time, the TV camera caught Barber in a different pose—body slumped, face slack and awash with dolor before he recovered and unleashed a forced smile.

CBS-TV's Stripe Playhouse trotted out on Friday a number called "a Ballad to Die For," a pilot film for a projected western series filmed by Jack Webb's Mark VII firm.

It was another one of those things about a wandering cowboy hero of moderately grotesque habits—he plays guitar for his horse, shoots villains by richocheting bullets off gravestones, kisses girls and skedaddles off—and is neither worse nor better than dozens of its kind jumbling the airwaves.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Masquerade Party, which gets the ax at NBC-TV on Sept. 24, may wind up in a Wednesday night spot this fall on ABC-TV . . . Jack Lemmon turned down the lead in "What Makes Sammy Run," the two-part NBC-TV special set for Sept. 27 and Oct. 4, because of other commitments. The female lead in the Budd Schulberg drama is being pitched at Martha Hyer.

Claudette Colbert and Robert Preston will star in "The Bells of St. Mary's," the 90-minute CBS-TV spec slotted for Oct. 27 . . . Dick Clark's upcoming ABC-TV panel show, World of Talent, having signed on Jack E. Leonard as a permanent panelist, is now looking for a female plank sitter—the third panelist on the show will be a swing guest.

Well, After All, Visitors Must Show Patriotism

By EARL WILSON

PONCE, Puerto Rico—My becoming a rummy . . . I mean a rum-taster . . . was just patriotism, that's all it was.

★ ★ ★

How would it look if I said no when this Commonwealth that so proudly flies the American flag asked me to become an honorary rum-taster? What would Nixon say? So I didn't say no. I said "Yippee!"

WILSON

My V.W. (Viewtiful Wife; it also stands for Vodka and Water) was fully as patriotic as I was when we toured this pleasant land, which was discovered by Columbus in 1493, and again by Ed Gardner, for income tax purposes, in 1949. Puerto Rico usually produces 86 per cent of our rum . . . or "rawn," as they call it . . . though the figures may be down a little this year due to our tasting tour.

To our surprise, after we flew here to meet the 50 or 60 members of the wealthy Serralles family that makes Don Q, we saw a vodka sign.

"Oh, sure we make vodka," an executive said, "from sugar cane. We call it Serranoff, based on the family name. The Smirnoff people in Connecticut object.

Naturally, we had to be patriotic about the vodka too. The rum, light, dry and 80-proof (the present trend) and low in calories, is being promoted as a romantic "lovers' drink."

MUNOZ-MARIN

"I come here to listen to the silences," he said.

The Puerto Ricans are so serious about rum (due to the taxes) that they have a "pilot plant" where chemists try to help the many distilleries make it even better.

Puerto Ricans love Gov. Munoz-Marin but wish he'd drink rum instead of scotch. He agreed that as a compromise he'd drink rum during business hours.

For those who care about such things, Ed Gardner's tax deal in Puerto Rico (long ago abandoned) won't be repeated, the Governor has told friends. He said he signed his approval without studying it much because "somebody told me Ed had to make a plane.

"That experience decided me," the Governor said, "never again to sign something for somebody who has to make a plane."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Bert Lahr is such a fisherman he dreamed he was out in a boat with Brigitte Bardot and all she was wearing was a towel and he got a 10-pound bass . . . That's earl, brother.

British Seamen Donate Blood at Every Port

BOSTON (AP) — A practice which will defy imitation by most folk is being pursued by a group of British tars, members of the crew of HMS Victorious. The big aircraft carrier is en route home today after taking part in exercises with the U.S. Navy.

They said they made such donations at each port they visited. In proof of this, Richard J. McCollough, 35, of Newcastle, England, displayed 14 donation cards; Harry Barber, 24, of Sheffield, 10 and John Stephenson, 23, of Birmingham, 8.

Many distant ports were represented, including Hong Kong, Singapore and Malta.

Detroit Will Become Tractor Service Center

DETROIT — Massey-Ferguson, one of the world's largest producers of tractors and self-propelled combines, has set up its United States service headquarters and a new service training center in Detroit.

The center will offer training programs for the company's 3,500 dealers in the United States and Canada in agricultural equipment and in industrial equipment.

22 Killed in Accidents

State Posts New Record of Deaths Over Weekend

By United Press International

Michigan posted a new record of 22 persons killed in all types of accidents during the weekend, but the traffic toll of 11 was was below the high for the year.

In addition to the 11 killed in highway mishaps, six persons drowned, three were killed in a plane crash, a young girl drowned in a home accident and an Ohio boy was fatally injured when he fell from a tractor.

The highest traffic toll for the year was posted last in April when 17 persons died on Michigan highways.

Two double-fatality crashes were recorded this weekend. Ermillo Soliz, 25, and Hoyt M. Earnest, 28, both of Eagle Pass, Tex., were killed early yesterday when a bus in which they were riding veered off a highway west of Saginaw. The vehicle struck a utility pole and two trees.

A single-car crash on M131 in Emmet County yesterday claimed the lives of Rudolph Fitol, 30, and his four-month-old daughter, Barbara, of Harbor Springs. Police said Fitol's car ran off the road and struck a tree.

Ralph Coleman, 46, Burr Oak, was killed yesterday near his St. Joseph County home in a two-car head-on collision.

Charles W. McCulley, 55, Detroit, died yesterday at St. Joseph Hospital in Flint of injuries suffered in a head-on collision on M15 in Genesee County.

Wayne Austen, 25, rural Reed City, was killed early Saturday when his car went off U.S. 10 near his home. The vehicle crashed into a tree.

Harold L. Edwards, 19, of Covert Township in Van Buren County, died Saturday when he was pinned beneath his overturned car near Covert.

Earl H. Willis, rural Williamston, was fatally injured Friday night when his car was involved in a head-on crash on a closed section of M37 in Lake County. Willis' vehicle struck the auto of another construction worker.

State police classified the death of Charles Hinchcliff, 16, Ypsilanti, as a traffic fatality because he was killed on a public highway. Hinchcliff died in an Ann Arbor hospital Saturday of head injuries received when gusts of wind blew him off the back of a truck.

Drowning victims included: Susan Bury, 10, Roseville, drowned yesterday afternoon when she fell into a canal off Lake St. Clair in Chesterfield Township of Macomb County.

Joseph Lechtanski, 18, Alpena, drowned yesterday in Grand Lake in Presque Isle County. Witnesses said he failed to resurface after diving from a boat into 20 feet of water.

Darwin Holdeman, 25, was killed when he either jumped or fell into Cashion Lake near Baldwin. Police recovered his fully clothed body yesterday afternoon.

★ ★ ★

Dewey Phelps, 62, Detroit, drowned in Lake St. Clair near Grosse Pointe Farms Saturday night when his motorboat was swamped by a swell.

One-year-old Christine L. Hakala, Milwaukee, drowned Saturday when she fell into the Chocolay River in Marquette County.

The body of Sylvia Jameson, 13, Ionia, was recovered in 12 feet of water in Houghton Lake Saturday. She was vacationing there with her family.

Two men and a young boy were fatally injured yesterday in a plane crash in Oakland County. The victims were identified as Earl Trebsch, 29, St. Clair Shores, his four-year-old son Mark, and Robert Sawders, 34, Warren.

A home accident claimed the life of 10-month-old Diana Vine, Sault Ste. Marie. The infant drowned in a basin which was partially filled with water on the porch of her home.

William Charles Altmaier, 8, Westerville, Ohio, died Saturday when he fell from a tractor on a farm on Little Lasalle Island in Mackinac County. Police said he became caught between the wheel and fender of the vehicle.

Hope to Settle State Tax Issue

GOP Senators Tonight Plan to Tie Up Loose Ends of Package

LANSING (AP)—The 1959 Legislature, apparently destined to end its work on a low key of interest, comes back again tonight to try once again to get it all over with.

Their main fight concluded, the lawmakers needed chiefly to tie up loose ends of disagreement over adjustments to the business activities tax.

It has been a foregone conclusion for at least 10 days, since House Democrats surrendered wholesale on the income tax issue July 24, that the revenue answer will be built around a use (sales) tax increase.

Some observers contend Democrats were hopelessly beaten as long —ago as June 10 when the "piggy Back" income tax was defeated for the second and last time.

The 116 million dollar use tax package put together by the Republican Senate majority will be ready for a decisive vote when the Senate returns at 8 p.m., except for the BAT element.

The big question on business taxes was how far the Senate was willing to go to meet House demands for a 20 million dollar revenue increase from this source.

House members, nominally scheduled to meet tonight, were expected to spend the night at home and show up at their desks at 10 a.m. Tuesday to review whatever action the Senate takes.

1st Woman Dem Elected to Congress Dead at 84

She died Sunday of a heart attack in Greenwich Hospital.

Mrs. Norton rose through New Jersey politics and was named to run for Congress in 1924 by Frank Hague, who headed the Jersey City, N.J., Democratic organization.

She was elected, and stayed in Congress for 26 years. On her 75th birthday, in 1950, she announced that she would not seek re-election. She made the announcement from the Bethesda, Md., Naval Hospital, where she was recuperating from a combination of influenza and pneumonia.

Her career in government was not over, however. Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin appointed her a special consultant to the Labor Department on "womanpower," and she served until the end of the Truman administration.

In her early years in Congress she drew considerable attention by calling for the repeal of prohibition, at a time when most congressmen were avoiding the subject. She introduced the first resolution calling for repeal.

Her congressional career set a record for length of service by a woman legislator. For five years she headed the House Committee on the District of Columbia, the first woman to ever head a congressional committee.

She was also named to the House Labor Committee and in 1937 became its chairman. She held that post for 10 years.

She was a strong New Dealer, helping to guide and later defend the Roosevelt administration's wage and hours legislation. She also championed the fair employment practices act.

In 1947 she was named "Outstanding Catholic Woman of the Year."

She was married to Robert F. Norton, a businessman, in 1909. He died in 1934. Their only child died soon after birth.

Mrs. Norton came to Greenwich three years ago.

She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Joseph McDonagan of Greenwich and Mrs. Ann Hopkins of New York City.

Union to Teach Latin Workers

CWA Plans Courses in Democracy to Offset Red Growth in S.A.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Joseph A. Beirne of the Communications Workers of America (AFL-CIO) has announced today a school to teach Latin American workers "vigorous industrial Democracy" will be opened at Front Royal, Va., Aug. 14.

A CWA press release said it would be "a new experiment in international relations combined with a unique education program to aid in offsetting the growing menace of Communist penetration in Latin America."

Five North American affiliates of Postal, Telegraph and Telephone International (PTTI) will cooperate in the program which will bring 16 young union leaders from Central and South America to the trade union institute at Front Royal.

The visitors will spend 90 days studying and learning the fundamentals of effective industrial Democracy, the press statement said. It added that the sponsors believe the leaders will return to their own countries equipped to train other leaders.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell and William F. Schnitzler, secretary-treasurer of the AFL-CIO, will greet the visitors at an official opening ceremony.

The classes will be under the direction of Prof. James Carper, formerly of the University of Minnesota.

Magazine Criticizes China's Mao

HONG KONG (AP)—An important magazine in Communist China has published an article conceding that people like Mao Tze-tung can make mistakes. The leader of Chinese communism is generally spoken of by his followers as infallible.

The article, appearing in the authoritative New China semi-monthly mentions Mao throughout a lengthy discussion of problems and mistakes of Communist agricultural and industrial policies.

Mao is not mentioned by name in the critical passage saying a great man cannot always be correct. However, the writer used a Chinese word for great — "wei ta" — that is always reserved for Mao.

This provides strong support for speculation abroad that Mao faced a storm of criticism over his handling of China's "big lead forward" production campaign and his establishment of the barracks-type commune system last year.

The context of the startling statement about Mao indicates however, that he has so far weathered the storm and still is very much in command.

Mao resigned as head of the Chinese Communist government when the problems came to light. But he kept his more powerful post as chairman of the Chinese Communist party.

Credit Card Plan Now Being Used on Eastern Buses

The Lehigh Valley Transit Co. announced Wednesday a "charge-a-fare" plan for bus rides in this northeastern Pennsylvania area.

Passengers may use any one of three types of cards, depending on the service they want. Company president A. M. Williams says the credit plan will create bookkeeping problems, but also boost business.
