'Refreshed' President Sees Dulles for Policy Talks

DENVER (INS)—President Eisenhower had another good night's sleep and was reported "refreshed and cheerful" today for his scheduled bedside conference on foreign affairs with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

It will be the chief executive's first meeting with any member of his Cabinet since a heart attack struck him 17 days ago.

Since then, his prograss has been so "satisfactory" that other such conferences will be permitted in the near future, perhaps this week.

Before going to Fitzsimons Army Hospital for his meeting with the President, Dulles went to see Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams at the Denver White House. He will also do "a little work" there, the nature of which was not disclosed.

The cabinet officer arrived in Denver last night, and expressed "personal gladness" at being able to see Eisenhower again.

They were to discuss a number of diplomatic questions, including the Big Four ministers' conference opening in Geneva on Oct. 27.

Thus, their topics of conversation would cover German unification, European security, increased contact between East and West and world disarmament.

CALL ON RUSSIANS

The subject of disarmament came to the fore again yesterday when Dulles called on the Russians once more to accept Eisenhower's military blueprint exchange and aerial inspection plan.

* * *

He did so in a speech at Miami to the American Legion Convention. Then he flew to Denver aboard the President's personal plane, Columbine III.

Dulles' visit with Eisenhower was not expected to last more than 15 minutes, on doctors' orders. However, the secretary said on his arrival last night it was a "good sign" that the physicians decided the President could see him at all.

While the White House has stated that Eisenhower's conference with Dulles would cover matters with which the President was thoroughly familiar before his illness, Eisenhower's doctors have made it clear it will not be any "rubber stamp" discussion.

Piston Workers Return to Plant

Troops Patrol Riot City as Perfect Circle Opens Foundry Doors Today

NEW CASTLE, Ind. (AP)—Perfect Circle Corp. reopened its piston ring foundry today with troops and five pickets patrolling together in a litter of stones and broken glass left from last Wednesday's strike riot.

About 70 workers entered the foundry as the doors were opened for "anyone who wants to work."

Other Perfect Circle plants remained open without incident in nearby Hagerstown and Richmond. Almost 1,000 National Guard troops imposing martial law, protected all of New Castle and Hagerstown and two plants at Richmond.

Four tanks sat on the foundry parking lot here, facing the plant, where about 90 nonstrikers were evacuated by state police last Wednesday after an exchange of shots that wounded eight persons.

About 350 guardsmen of the 139th Field Artillery Battalion moved into Richmond early today but limited their patrols to a triangular area at the northwest edge of the city. The pie-shaped area under martial law, bounded by U. S. 35 and Ind. 627, includes four homes and an Alcoa Bottle Cap Factory, where about 500 CIO United Steel Workers are employed.

The troops at Richmond were billeted in the National Guard Armory a mile and a half from the two Perfect Circle plants and in a shelter house at Conservation Park on the north edge of the city.

The CIO United Auto Workers union has been on strike against Perfect Circle here and at Hagerstown and Richmond, Ind., since July 25 in a contract dispute.

The company's decision to reopen came after Gov. George N. Craig proclaimed full martial law for New Castle and extended it to include all of surrounding Henry County, the town of Hagerstown and the Perfect Circle plant area in Richmond.

General Motors Hikes Fund Donation

CHECK FOR $115,000 — William B. Hartman (left), Pontiac Area United Fund president, this morning accepted a General Motors Corp. check for $115,000 from Robert M. Critchfield, general manager of Pontiac Motor Division. The corporation's gift, 15 per cent above last year, was presented at a breakfast launching this year's UF drive attended by some 400 volunteer workers at Devon Gables.

Three Divisions Open Campaign With Bigger Gift

Early Rally Begins 1955 Solicitation for Goal of $562,175

By BURDETT C. STODDARD

The theme for this year's Pontiac Area United Fund drive was established before the campaign was an hour old this morning.

A $115,000 gift from the three General Motors divisions here was presented before some 400 volunteer workers assembled at Devon Gables.

The donation was 15 per cent above last year when $100,000 was presented by GM.

UF officials expressed the idea that if other donations are increased in like manner over last year the drive will quickly go to the top.

This year's goal is $562,175, compared with $525,823 last year.

The GM gift comes directly from the corporation itself and does not include donations which employes will make.

General Manager of Pontiac Motor Division Robert M. Critchfield, who is UF campaign manager this fall, handed the check to UF President William B. Hartman following remarks by the noted actress Nina Foch, who was a featured guest.

Miss Foch compared the UF worker's job with the thought behind a television play she recently appeared in which was sponsored by Pontiac Motor Division.

The play attempted to bring home to the nation new responsibilities placed on it by the atomic age, she explained.

"You are embarking on an exciting task. That of reminding the citizens of your area of their specific responsibilities to the community. You must impress citizens right here with what we attempted to say at a distance.

"I feel the message and essence of the United Fund is simply this—love one another."

"We appreciate the manufacturers of this area for their contributions of money and personnel," said Hartman.

"But also for their example pointing out that each has a tremendous interest in the spiritual, moral and social welfare of the community . . . that spirit has led to success in the past and this year will be no exception."

Critchfield pointed out that "the

Coral Gables Police Seek Walled Lake Boy's Body

Police at Coral Gables, Fla., were dragging a canal there today in an attempt to find the body of a 17-year-old Walled Lake boy who authorities said left home last month threatening suicide.

The youth, Earl White, left his home at 1910 Austin Dr., for a vacation in the south and was last heard from last Tuesday.

His car was found Friday beside a bridge over a canal. It contained his clothes, camping equipment and $75 in savings bonds.

The youth's mother, Mrs. Victoria White, was in Coral Gables today to aid authorities in the search.

She said her son had threatened to "drive his car into the nearest river" because he feared Naval authorities would not accept him for enlistment because of rheumatic fever.

Earl, whose father died nine years ago, suffered an attack of the fever when he was about five years old, according to an aunt, Mrs. Virginia Kincy, also of Walled Lake.

Mrs. White told Florida authorities that she had feared her son "might do something desperate" if he tried to enlist and was rejected.

She said the boy called her last Tuesday from Waycross, Ga., where he was visiting a friend, telling her he was coming home.

A Coral Gables resident told Mrs. White she saw a boy matching Earl's description on the bridge Friday.

"He was devoted to his mother and six brothers and sisters and I can't believe he would kill himself," Mrs. Kincy stated.

The sister, who is caring for five of the White children, described the boy as very blond with blue eyes, about 150 pounds and five feet, nine inches tall.

The family moved to Michigan from Kentucky 14 years ago.

Meanwhile, local Naval enlistment authorities said that White had made no attempt to enlist locally.

Port Huron Judge to Hear Sewer Suit

Circuit Judge Eugene E. Black, of Port Huron, has been scheduled to preside here over trial of Pontiac's suit claiming Waterford Township illegally connected a sewer line to the city system.

A jury will be assembled to begin trying the suit Oct. 24, said Oakland County Circuit Court Assignment Clerk C. Richard Smith.

The three local judges' schedule is too full for any of them to hear the case this month, he explained.

Pontiac contends Waterford did not have city approval to connect the line, as required by a previous agreement.

Bantu Tribesmen May Hold Answer to Heart Trouble

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—The Bantu Negro tribes of central and south Africa may give science a key to curbing heart diseases in the Western world.

* * *

Doctors have found members of the Bantu tribes immune to coronary thrombosis and other heart ailments.

One reason is that these Africans have "Peter Pan" blood vessels—they "never grow up." The arteries and veins of a Bantu 70 to 80 years old compare favorably with those of a European of 20 to 30, doctors say.

* * *

Research has shown that most white men have much larger deposits of lime salts and fatty materials in their bodies than the Bantus. Such materials tend to harden the blood vessels over the years and apparently create conditions making the heart more susceptible to disease.

Why the Bantus have less is still unknown.

* * *

Dr. I. Bersohn of the Johannesburg Institute of Medical Research says, "The problem is to find what protects the Bantu blood vessels from aging."

The U. S. Weather Bureau forecast for today, tonight and tomorrow will be fair and continued mild. The high for tomorrow is expected to be near 80. Tomorrow evening it will be party cloudy and a little cooler with a low near 50 degrees.

The weatherman foresees temperatures near normal for the next five days, with alternating periods of minor warming and cooling about every 24 to 36 hours. Precipitation will total near one-half inch occuring as showers at rather frequent intervals throughout the period.

Today's high in Pontiac is due to be about 78 or 80 degrees. Tonight the mercury may go as low as 55.

Downtown today's low before 8 a.m. was 51 degrees. The thermometer registered 76 at 2 p.m.

Water, Road Authorities Approved by Supervisors

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors yesterday endorsed formation of water and highway authorities by the Supervisors' Inter-County Committee.

The inter-county committee, including supervisors from Oakland, Wayne, Monroe, Macomb and Washtenaw Counties, will draw up articles of incorporation for the authorities then submit them for final approval by the individual boards of supervisors.

The water group would work toward construction of a pipeline to bring water from Lake Huron, while the road group would be assigned to co-ordinating highway development in the metropolitan area.

In other action during the meeting in the office building at 1 Lafayette St., the board approved hiring an architect to draft plans for construction of a new dog pound in the county service center on North Telegraph road.

Land on which the present pound is located at 1200 E. Walton Blvd. has been sold, explained Chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee Harry W. Horton, of Royal Oak. The building must be moved by Feb. 25 next year, he explained.

The new building will cost about $18,000, said Horton, and be finished by the time the present one must be vacated.

Agricultural Committee Chairman Howard J. Reid, of Milford Township, read a committee report recommending up to $2,500 be spent renovating the agricultural agent's offices at the service center.

It was referred to the Ways and Means Committee for a decision on how soon the money will be available.

Avon Township Supervisor Cyril E. Miller moved that the Legis-

State Employes Vote on Pension

Heavy Balloting Report Favors Federal Social Security Tie-In LANSING (AP) — The first of some 24,000 eligible state employes are voting on incorporating Federal Social Security in their pension plans.

* * *

First reports indicate the balloting is running heavily in favor of accepting the Federal benefits, said Donald O'Hara, executive secretary of the State Employes' Retirement System.

Under the plan, employes would contribute two per cent of their pay to Social Security and three per cent to their state pension plans. Participating employes now contribute five per cent to the state plan.

If the combined plan is accepted, O'Hara said, employe retirement benefits would be increased up to 100 per cent for the lower pay brackets and 35 or 40 per cent in the higher salaried groups.

* * *

Balloting will continue through the week. Results will probably be known by the end of the week and canvassed by the retirement board Oct. 20, O'Hara said.

Half of the eligible employes—or about 12,000 workers—must accept the plan if it is to become effective, O'Hara said.

Legion Parades Through Miami

40 and 8 Almost Bolts Convention; Delegates Hear Meany Speak

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—American Legionnaires put aside the serious business of their national convention today to step out on parade.

If there was a sour note in the five-hour line of march, it came from the 40 and 8, the honor and funmaking organization.

The 40 and 8 nearly came to a parting of the ways with the Legion. One of its strongest complaints is that it wasn't allowed to parade as a unit. The parent organization insisted that 40 and 8 members split up and parade individually with state delegations. There was reluctant compliance.

LABOR LEADER SPEAKS

Parade day came after a busy national convention opening at which Secretary of State Dulles promised that the United States would not disarm "unless we can be sure that others are doing the same."

Another major speech was delivered by George Meany, president of the American Federation of Labor. Meany said there was an "undemocratic trend" in the South.

Meany devoted most of his speech to Russian relations. He said the Soviet rulers "are just as much on the offensive as ever before."

Commissioners Prefer Oakland Sanatorium Purchase

State's Mental Health Hospital Program Revealed

LANSING (AP)—A program to expand state facilities for mentally retarded children, estimated to cost more than five million dollars, was being studied today by Gov. Williams for recommendation to the Nov. 1 legislative session.

Williams made public proposals by Charles A. Wagg, state mental health director, for taking 1,221 mentally retarded children off hospital waiting lists and placing under state care within six to eight months.

The Governor said he would consult with legislative leaders before deciding on a final program but he expressed general agreement with Wagg's ideas.

Wagg recommended the state buy the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium seven miles west of Pontiac and the Farmington Children's Hospital. The first would give the state 350 additional beds and the second 300.

Wagg and Williams said they were negotiating with officials of both institutions to determine a selling price and could not estimate one now.

OTHER SUGGESTIONS

Farmington Hospital officials have talked about a $1,200,000 figure for their institution.

Wagg also included in his suggestions for adding 1,350 new beds the completion of a new 220-bed unit now under construction at Mt. Pleasant State Home and Training School, expansion of the boarding home patients program to take another 100 patients, placing about 100 patients in private and local hospitals on a contract basis and the emergency use of 280 beds at Coldwater and Lapeer State Home and Training Schools by using two old structures due to be closed and remodeled as soon as replacements are completed.

As an alternative, Wagg said the state could convert the Howell Tuberculosis Sanatorium into a mental hospital instead of the buying of the Oakland Sanatorium.

This would accommodate an additional 100 patients and raise the program total to 1,450 beds.

PREFER OAKLAND

However, Wagg said the Mental Health Commission preferred buying the Oakland institution to converting the Howell Sanatorium.

He said the Oakland and Farmington hospitals are only 17 miles apart and could be operated economically as a single administrative unit. They are also closer to both the labor market and the patient load, he said.

Wagg recommended the Legislature provide an additional $700,000 to double new construction scheduled at Mt. Pleasant for December and to move up from next year's plans two additional units at the Caro State Hospital.

SALARY AND OTHER COSTS

He said $564,000 would be needed to remodel and furnish the Farmington Hospital and $370,000 for the Oakland Sanatorium. Converting Howell, he said, would cost $315,000.

Salary and operating expenses for the entire program would cost about $464,000 for the rest of the fiscal year, he said.

Wagg said his commission is asking the 1956 Legislature for 13 million dollars for new construction.

Williams told newsmen he favored buying the Oakland Hospital over converting Howell.

He said he hoped the state would not have to use 150 beds at the Lapeer State Home and Training School which are in substandard buildings.

He said he would "put up a renewed fight" to get the Fort Custer Station Hospital from the Army. The Defense Department has indicated reluctance, he said, to letting the state use this idle institution.

Court Upholds Offshore Oil Plea

Louisiana Claims to Land Boundary Given by 6-0 Vote of High Tribunal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court has turned down a federal effort to restrict Louisiana claims of offshore submerged lands having oil reserves worth many millions of dollars.

By a 6-0 vote, the high tribunal yesterday rejected a Justice Department request that Louisiana's seaward boundary be fixed at three geographical miles from its shore. Louisiana contends its boundary extends about 10½ miles into the Gulf of Mexico.

The court rejected the Justice Department's motion without giving any explanation. Its action left open the question of ultimate ownership of the mineral resources in the disputed offshore area. This issue may have to be settled in future litigation.

In another action yesterday—its first decision session of this term—the court granted a Justice Department request for a hearing in its long-standing efforts to force the Du Pont interests to dispose of their stock in General Motors Corp.

U. S. District Judge Walter J. Labuy in Chicago had thrown out a government civil antitrust suit against the Du Ponts and G. M. The department appealed to the Supreme Court and seven justices agreed to review Judge Labuy's decision. Justices Clark and Harlan disqualified themselves.

In other actions yesterday the Supreme Court:

1. Ordered the University of Alabama to admit to its graduate school two Negro girls, Autherine J. Lucy and Polly Anne Myers.

2. Granted a hearing to New York gambler Frank Costello, who appealed his conviction for income tax evasion.

3. Refused to act on a Costello appeal from a contempt conviction for refusing to answer questions in a government action to cancel his naturalized citizenship. The Italian-born Costello now faces deportation proceedings.

4. Rejected an appeal by gambler Joe Adonis who was convicted of perjury after telling a Senate crime investigating committee he was a citizen of the United States. The government says Adonis was born in Italy and it seeks to deport him.

5. Turned down an appeal which asked the tribunal to declare unconstitutional Michigan's one man grand jury system.

6. Agreed to rule whether the Federal Communications Commission may set an arbitrary limit on the number of radio and TV stations owned by any one person.

7. Refused to review a decision in which columnist Westbrook Pegler and two Hearst corporations were ordered to pay $175,000 in libel damages to author Quentin Reynolds.

Both will continue to teach at the school.

The Hazel Park board of education accepted both resignations last night, the News said, although both Websters quit the team last Thursday.

Petitions Asking Tax Surplus Cut

Non-Teaching Workers at Schools Requesting Share of Funds

Petitions asking that non-teaching school employes receive equal benefits with teachers in a split of state sales tax surplus funds, will go to Gov. G. Mennen Williams "possibly next week," Becher E. Bevington, Pontiac district director of the Michigan Association of Non-teaching School Employes (MANSE) annouced today.

More than 12,000 signatures are listed and additional ones are being received daily, Bevington said, following a state-wide meeting of MANSE directors held Saturday at Kellogg Center, East Lansing.

"We understand Gov. Williams has earmarked $200 per teacher, from kindergarten through 12th grade, to be taken from surplus funds and used for salary increases and other benefits," Bevington said.

"The MANSE believes that non-teaching employes should get a portion of this. We hope to get the petitions to the governor early next week."

Bevington stated that MANSE represents approximately 20,000 office, clerical, maintenance and cafeteria workers in Michigan schools.

Japan Breathes Easy as Typhoon Changes Course

TOKYO (AP)—A weakening typhoon sideswiped Tokyo today, delivering a glancing blow instead of the expected head-on smash, then curled out to sea.

* * *

The huge metropolitan area, the world's most densely populated, had been braced for a full-scale blast.

Instead, the center of the storm skidded by 70 miles east of Tokyo, just off the Pacific Coast. Its center winds were slowing to 85 miles an hour as the storm blew itself toward extinction.

Tokyo still was hurt by the storm. Streets were sprayed with shattered window glass, houses were flooded and electric power failed.

Landslides cut roads and rail lines from Tokyo and big waves sank at least two fishing boats with eight crewmen.

State to Operate St. Louis Busses

Governor's Order Sent After Striking Drivers Send 200,000 on Foot

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Gov. Phil M. Donnelly today ordered the state to seize and operate the St. Louis Public Service Co., tied up last night by a strike of AFL streetcar and bus operators.

He took the action under the King-Thompson law, which permits the state to take over a public utility in the interests of public welfare.

Approximately 200,000 persons use the street cars and busses daily. The strike was voted unanimously last night by some 1,400 union members and took effect immediately.

The morning rush period was marked by a constant traffic jam as motorists drove slowly, bumper-to-bumper, toward the downtown area. Most persons who needed rides got them.

Traffic officers turned off many electric signals and took over the direction of motorists themselves to keep intersections clear. A trip that normally took 15 to 20 minues, today took an hour.

Miss Truman Denies Report of Engagement

NEW YORK (AP)—Margaret Truman returned today from a two-month vacation in Europe — and once more denied that she is engaged or expects to be.

She was wearing a diamond sapphire ring, which she said her parents had given her as a college graduation present. She said it was what probably touched off engagement reports.

"This is the only ring I've had on," she replied as reporters meeting her on the liner United States brought up the betrothal matter.

"There's no truth to it. I'm sorry there isn't . . . I'm more disappointed than you are."

Miss Truman visited Italy, England and Austria, sightseeing and shopping.

She said she made recordings twice weekly for the National Broadcasting Co., and is scheduled to appear on television shows later with Jimmy Durante and Martha Raye.

Birmingham Wife Wins Contest in Italy

MILAN, Italy (AP)—Barbara Gibson Williams, who knitted socks for her husband back in Birmingham, Mich., while waiting her turn to perform, won an international singing contest last night.

Barbara won the Giovanttista Viotti contest in Vercelli over a field of scores of singers from all over the world.

She was married to Sam Williams, an engineer from Birmingham a month ago in the United States, then returned here to prepare for the contest.

Barbara's performance gave her a share of four million lire ($6,500) in prizes, engagements with the Italian and Swiss radio networks and a number of Italian opera houses and musical associations. She made her opera debut in San Francisco and has appeared on American radio programs.

In one case, he said, construction of a church in Avon Township was stopped by a court injuction "after it was well under construction for violation of zoning regulations.

In the other, he asserted, work was allowed to continue on a second church which also does not meet zoning requirements.

Another resolution by Miller was passed requesting the Michigan Department of State to hold off recommending to the Legislature that driver's licensing be taken from individual police and sheriff's departments and placed in special branch offices.

The resolution asks that no action be taken until supervisors have time to study the proposal.

"I'm against continually adding new offices which eat up more tax dollars," Miller explained.

A report from the Miscellaneous Committee commended Sheriff Frank W. Irons for his efforts in redecorating and modernizing the county jail.

Following the breakfast, which was paid for by the Pontiac Manufacturer's Assn., Miss Foch lighted the torch which will burn throughout the drive at N. Saginaw St. and Oakland Ave.

Large signs on which the drive's progress will be recorded have been erected in front of the courthouse at Saginaw and Huron Sts. and at the Tel-Huron Shopping Center.

The drive is slated to run through Nov. 3. A report luncheon will be held Oct. 19.

The Day in Birmingham

City to Collect Leaves Readied by Residents

BIRMINGHAM—Three of Mother Nature's seasons and the problems each bring got the attention of the City Commission last night. Apropos of the current one, commissioners approved an ordinance change which will permit residents living on paved streets to rake their autumn leaves into the street for city collection.

Since city equipment cannot operate on gravel roads, those residents must continue the old policy of placing leaves in baskets for pick up.

Lawmakers also heeded the persevering insistance of Commissioner Florence Willett, who once again asked that a swimming pool ordinance be enacted before, rather than after, a life could be lost through unsafe or unsanitary conditions.

The new ordinance, which will provide for proper fencing and chlorination, will probably be ready for approval in two weeks.

Also, because of the hazards during snow plowing time, where large stones are used for ornamental or marking purposes on streets that have no curbs, householders must now place the stones three feet back from the right-of-way.

Book lovers or bargain hunters can again get ready for their annual trek to the AAUW Book Sale and for some it will be the 28th such trip made to seek out a treasure, or just plain pick up some inexpensive reading material.

This marks the 28th year of the sale which benefits the group's fellowship fund, and members are about set for the preview to take place Sunday at the Detroit Edison Co. building. They'll open their doors for the public to gobble up their finds on Monday, with the sale to continue through Saturday.

The routine has been pretty well established by now, says Mrs. N. J. Rakas, general chairman, but each year the growing sales have created a demand for more books, magazines and records, Mrs. J. S. Judd may still be contacted to arrange for last-minute pick-ups or learn where the nearest collection station is located.

An introductory panel discussion on "The Indian American," will be followed by a color and sound film strip entitled, "Missions Follow the Indian Trail," when the Embury Methodist Church WSCS holds its general meeting at 8 tonight.

Guest speaker was the Rev. Thompson L. Marcero, pastor of Guardian Angels Church in Clawson, who pointed out that parishioners, by reducing the current debt, will help to build their own grammar school.

French Debate Algerian Crisis

Faure's Plan to Squelch Rioters Expected to Get Assembly's Support

PARIS (AP)—The National Assembly turned its attention to troubled French North Africa today for the second time in less than a week, opening a three-day debate on Premier Edgar Faure's plans to suppress nationalist violence in Algeria.

With the Communists the only faction favoring the Algerian nationalists, Faure was expected to win a grudging endorsement for his policy of military action against the terrorists and guerrillas.

The Assembly has approved home rule for France's other North African territories, the protectorates of Tunisia and Morocco, but unlike them Algeria constitutionally is a part of France itself.

The bulk of the deputies neither want to let the territory go nor give its eight million Moslems the same rights that the 1,230,000 residents of European origin enjoy.

Will 1956 Be the Year That Changes the World?

A strange man in Los Angeles, known as "The Voice of Two Worlds," is offering, free of charge to the public, an astounding 64-page booklet analyzing famous world prophecies covering these times. It shows that four of the greatest prophecies could not come true until the present time. But now they can, and the years that change the world are at hand. Great dangers but still greater opportunities, confront forward looking people in 1956.

"The Voice of Two Worlds," a well-known explorer and geographer, tells of a remarkable system that often leads to almost unbelievable improvement in power of mind, achievement of brilliant business and professional success and new happiness. Others tell of increased bodily strength, magnetic personality, courage and poise.

These strange methods were found in far-off and mysterious Tibet, often called the land of miracles by the few travelers permitted to visit it. He discloses how he learned rare wisdom and long hidden practices, closely guarded for three thousand years by the sages, which enabled many to perform amazing feats. He maintains that these immense powers are latent in all of us, and that methods for using them are now simplified so that they can be used by almost any person with ordinary intelligence.

The 64-page booklet he is now offering free to the public gives guidance for those who wish to prepare themselves for the momentous days ahead. It gives details of what to expect, and when. Its title is "Beware of These Days!"

The book formerly sold for a dollar, but as long as the present supply lasts, it is offered free to readers of this notice. This liberal offer is made because he expects that many readers will later become interested in the entire system of mind power he learned in the Far East and which is now ready to be disclosed to the Western world.

For your free copy of the astonishing prophecies covering these momentous times, as revealed in this 64-page book, address the Institute of Mentalphysics, 213 South Hobart Blvd., Dept. T-27, Los Angeles 4, Calif. Send no money. Just your name and address on a postcard or in an envelope will do. No obligation. Readers are urged to write promptly, as only a limited number of the free books have been printed.

Among those hospitalized was Frank P. Irwin of Iuka, Ill., who was thrown out of the plane and was reported seriously hurt.

U. S. Army Chaplain, Lt. Col. John I. Rhea, stationed at Heidelberg, Germany, suffered a slight foot injury. Slightly injured was Princess Schwarzenberg, wife of the Austrian Ambassador in London, and her daughter.

Coast Guard Joins Man With His Drifting Cruiser

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Coast Guard has reunited H. Wilson of Ventura, Calif., and his Dottie.

They became estranged, quite by accident, in the Pacific Ocean. Dottie is Wilson's 24-foot cabin cruiser. The Coast Guard said that Wilson went aboard a fishing boat off San Miguel Island early yesterday to radio that his craft had broken down.

After radioing, he found that Dottie had gone off and left him, since he hadn't lashed her to the fishing vessel. The Coast Guard found Dottie, alone, about 10 miles away.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet says the United States will retaliate with atomic bombs if the Communists reinvade South Korea.

Under terms of a treaty between the United States and the Republic of Korea, the retired former United Nations commander in Korea said, "an attack against Korea is an attack against the United States."

The general, who recently returned from Korea, made the statements yesterday at a question-and-answer session after a talk to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Bad Axe Polio Victim to Get Television Set

BAD AXE (AP) — Mrs. Mary Seiman will get a television set today — something she wants almost more than anything else in the world.

* * *

Mrs. Seiman is paralyzed with polio. She has been in a hospital for 6½ years and can move only her head and fingers.

The TV set is going into Mrs. Seiman's room at Bax Axe General Hospital. It's a gift from a former polio victim — Mrs. Mia Cove of Bad Axe.

Mrs. Cove visited a friend in the hospital one day, and while she was there, heard Mrs. Seiman comment about how nice it would be to have a TV set. With her husband and four children living on a farm in Huron County, there was no money to spare.

* * *

So Mrs. Cove went out and raised $209 in donations so Mrs. Seiman could have a treasure she really appreciates.

German PWs Report Reds Hold U. S. Men

(AP) — The first group of civilian German prisoners from the Soviet Union arrived in the West today. Some of them reported an American soldier and four others claiming to be Americans or to have American connections were being held in Russian slave labor camps.

* * *

A total of 195 civilians arrived, 26 in West Berlin and 169 at Camp Friedland. They included 58 women and five children born in captivity.

The returnees said they had been arrested "for minor offenses" between 1946 and 1953 at their homes in East German territory.

The civilians had been with some 300 others — including 42 women and 10 children — who stayed in East Germany.

Several thousand military prisoners have arrived in West and East Germany. A batch of 31 today included 22 former generals, among them Hans Rattenhuber, commander of Hitler's Elite Guard escort batalion.

Cobo Warns Drivers on X-Way Speeding

DETROIT (AP) — Mayor Albert E. Cobo warned motorists today they would have to change their driving habits on high sped expressways.

Otherwise, the mayor said, the 55-mile an hour expressway speed will be reduced to end traffic accidents and tie-ups.

"Expressway motorists are driving too close together. Either they will start driving farther apart or we will lower the speed limit," Cobo said.

The mayor's warning came as the new 2-mile extension of the Lodge Expressway to Glendale was opened and the $10,000,000 Ford-Lodge interchange was formally dedicated.

U.S. Uptakes Rocket Altitude Test

By VERN HAUGLAND
AP Aviation Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the 18 months from July 1957 through December 1958 the United States will launch more than twice as many high-altitude rockets as it has fired in the past 10 years.

* * *

About $1,700,000 has been budgeted for this effort, in addition to the 10 million dollars or so expected to be spent during the same period on the much more ambitious, but closely related, space satellite project.

BASKETBALL BARRAGE

The details of the U.S. rocket research program during the 1957-58 International Geophysical Year were discussed in a speech to the American Rocket Society here last week by Dr. Homer Newell, acting superintendent of the Atmosphere and Astral Physics Division of the Naval Research Laboratory.

The laboratory has been assigned all the rocket projects, including the satellite program. Six to 10 satellites about the size of basketballs are to be rocketed to altitudes of 200 to 800 miles in an attempt to get them then to orbit for months or longer around the earth.

* * *

Newell said that during the 1957-58 period the United States will launch:

1. A dozen Aerobee rockets from White Sands, N.M., and another 33 from Fort Churchill on Hudson's Bay, just below the Arctic Circle in Canada. More than 140 Aerobees have already been fired, to altitudes as high as 123 miles.

* * *

2. A number of Nike-Deacon combination rockets, also at Fort Churchill. The 25-foot-long Nike is the Army's standard antiaircraft missile. Its power plant is attached to the Deacon rocket to give the latter added range.

* * *

3. Four dozen or more Deacon-Skyhook balloon combinations, off Greenland and northeren Canada in the Arctic, a like number from ships in the Pacific off San Diego and another four to six dozen from ships on a track south from the Equator to the antarctic. The Skyhook balloon carries the Deacon to a height of many miles, from which the rocket is launched. The combination is called the Rockoon, and more than 30 of them have been launched, to as high as 60 miles.

* * *

Hundreds of Rockairs — three-inch rockets and other small types launched from jet aircraft at high altitude, in the Chincoteague, Va., area.

GOP Chairman Predicts Dems May Ditch Adlai

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (AP)—Leonard W. Hall, the GOP national chairman, said today it looks as if Adlai Stevenson "may be dumped in midstream."

He made the comment on Democratic affairs for the benefit of newsreel and TV cameras prior to an address at the National Republican Club.

The reference was to the possible 1956 presidential candidacy of Illinois' former Gov. Stevenson, who was the 1952 Democratic standard bearer.

* * *

"I see Mr. Truman is sidling up to Mr. Harriman," he said referring to the former president and Gov. Averell Harriman of New York.

Asked to comment on the effect of President Eisenhower's illness on the 1956 campaign, Hall reiterated:

"My opinion is that Eisenhower in 1956 will sweep the country, just as he did four years ago."

Replying to what he said was "gratuitous" advice from "some of our opponents," Hall declared:

"I say that the Republican party is the strongest it has been in 25 years. We're in that shape because President Eisenhower has led us along the way."

Parents Fighting Killer Disease

Kazoo Citizens Waging War on Deadly Malady Which Strikes Children

KALAMAZOO (AP)—A campaign of education against cystic fibrosis, called the nation's No. 1 child killer, has been undertaken by a group of Kalamazoo parents whose homes have been invaded by the still incurable malady.

* * *

The organization known as Criptic Fibrorsis Foundation, Inc., is believed to be the state's first lay organization to make war on the disease. The president is Mrs. Kenneth Meyers of Barton Lake, Vicksburg.

A former Kalamazoo man, Sheldon Burnett, formed the country's first Cystic Fibrosis Foundation at Whittier, Calif., two years ago. Burnett was a research assistant in the Upjohn Company laboratories here before he moved west.

The object of the organization is "to bring the rare disease to the attention of the people in the hope it will lead to the kind of research campaign that has conquered so many other maladies."

* * *

Cystic fibrosis is an inherited disease. It will strike a child only if both its parents have a certain recessive gene. By the law of averages it affcets about one in 20 such children. Most of its victims die at or shortly after birth.

The children's Hospital at Los Angeles is the authority for the statement that about one child in 600 falls victim to the disease.

* * *

When it strikes, it affects either the lungs, resulting frequently in pneumonia, or the pancreas, which it robs of the power to deliver the proper number of enzymes to the digestive system.

Georgia Permits 2 Negro Jurors to Judge Case

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP)—Two Negro jurors sat in judgment of a white man yesterday in a Columbus court for the first time since Reconstruction days. And a Negro lawyer was the first of his race to defend a person in open court here.

* * *

The jury sentenced Eugene Bruckner, charged with fictitious writing, to two years in prison. Bruckner pleaded his own case. He agreed to take the first 12 jurors on the list and two Negro men were among them.

* * *

The Negro attorney, Stanley P. Hebert, defended Randolph Grier, also a Negro who was charged with assault to rape a white woman. Grier was sentenced to 15 to 20 years after being convicted by an all white jury.

Tot Crushed, 5 Hurt in Truck Smashup

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—A 3-year-old girl was crushed to death and five others injured yesterday when a runaway trailer truck crashed against a laundry wagon and pushed it against a group of pedestrians.

Little Cathy Holmes died beneath her seriously injured mother, Mrs. Josephine Holmes, 27. A second Holmes child, Maureen, 5 months, was injured in her smashed baby carriage.

* * *

Mrs. Holmes was wheeling the carriage with Cathy walking beside her near a group of pedestrians.

Suddenly the vehicles plowed over the sidewalk, pinning many of the pedestrians against a factory building.

* * *

Others injured were Mrs. Frances Gallagher, 44; Mrs. Gloria McFarland, 26; and Mrs. Estelle Morgera, 37.

The driver of the truck, John F. Riley Jr., 20, Rogers, Conn., escaped injury. He said the brakes failed.

'I've Got Hitler's Desk Set, if Anyone Cares'

By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK (INS)—The relatives of Adolph Hitler and Eva Braun have been attempting for a decade to get the German courts to declare them dead officially. Greed rather than historical clarification moves them.

Hitler left three properties: The great rambling house atop Berchtesgaden, a more modest place in Munich, and his book, "Mein Kampf."

The courts up to now have considered Hitler and his wife alive for want of a witness who saw them dead. Hitler's valet, Heinz Linge, just returned from 10 years in a Russian prison, may offer the testimony that will clear up the matter to the full satisfaction of the German jurisprudence.

He entered Hitler's bedroom immediately after the man shot himself through the mouth on the afternoon of April 30, 1945. Linge put a blanket over the body and with the aid of a chauffeur carried it to the garden outside where lay the body of Eva Braun, who had died just earlier of perhaps the same poison capsule that Goering used to kill himself at Nuremberg.

BURNED BODIES

Linge spread Hitler's blanket over both bodies, soaked them in gasoline, and touched a match to what lay there. He was captured by the Russians shortly after that and only now has been released. His testimony should give the courts the necessary confirmation of the obvious fact that the despot is dead and gone.

* * *

When last observed, the eagle's nest at Berchtesgaden, looking down on some of the most beautiful countryside in the world, was a tea house and tourist attraction.

Ten years ago, Allied officers stationed in that area told me they contemplated scraping the whole thing off the top of the delightful mountain, in fear that it might become a Nazi shrine. But everybody who has been to Germany since V-E day knows full well that there aren't any Nazis, nor can you meet a German who ever knew one.

The house in Munich shouldn't produce any more income for the heirs than, say, Wallis Warfield's house in Baltimore. But the book remains a valuable property, especially if royalties can be collected from firms that pirated the manuscript and printed it outside Germany for their own benefit.

NO PROFIT FOR HITLER

One firm we know of sold the books like mad and announced with pious hypocrisy that Hitler, the louse, wouldn't receive a penny for the sales. The pirate neglected to mention that he was keeping it all for himself.

But the Berchtesgaden place could become one of the top tourist traps of that part of the world, travelers being either curious or morbid or both.

Brother Alois Shicklegruber, serving the suds or taking tickets at the entrance of the two-story elevator that climbs the last few hundred feet of the mountain to the aerie, should be quite an added attraction. He is the white sheep of Hitler's family.

If the designated heirs set out to regain the furnishings of Hitler's places at Berchtesgaden (the house he preferred was down the hill a bit, and smaller) they'll have to search the world. Every soldier and correspondent of every nationality that passed that way carried off what he could lift. But it's only honest to inform the heirs that if they recover everything except a desk set, a book called "Der Soldat," a monogrammed tablecloth, sherbet glass, fruit bowl, cream pitcher, piece of a living room rug, and a bottle of Moselle (Erbhof Welzenbach, 1942), I've got 'em.

MAKES ESCAPE

Yes, and some of Reichsleiter Martin Bormann's stationary. The signs all about the place said that anybody caught looting would be immediately court-martialed. Indeed, a chaplain was on a court for cutting a rug, literally. But thanks to a 5,000,000-to-1 shot the sergeant who stopped me as I wandered through an underground passage with the hot stuff turned out to be Eddie Simon of the New York Daily Mirror. He showed me the passage way that led to New York.

Phenix City Murder Trial May Be Heard

PHENIX CITY, Ala. (AP)—Former Atty. Gen. Si Garrett is back in Alabama and behind bars here, and speculation mounted today on whether he will stand trial for one of the state's most sensational murders.

Garrett was clapped in the Russell County Jail yesterday after he surrendered voluntarily and announced he is ready to prove his innocence in the murder of A. L. Patterson, Democratic nominee for attorney general who had promised to clean up Phenix City.

Garrett's statement, issued through his attorney, said he is cured of the mental illness that has kept him in a sanatorium in Galveston, Tex., for the past year.

Circuit Judge J. Russell McElroy of Birmingham, the special judge who already has presided at the murder trials of two other men indicted in the Patterson killing, scheduled a hearing here Friday on a habeas corpus petition seeking bond for Garrett while he is awaiting trial.

Bipartisanship Record of 84th Congress Good

One of the big questions bothering politicos is whether there will be as much bipartisanship in the second session of the 84th Congress as there was in the first.

This is important for several reasons. One is that during 1955 bipartisanship smoothed out most—65 per cent—of the bumps in the road Congress traveled. This was better than the previous year when the two parties agreed on only 56 per cent.

Another reason is the eagerness of the politicians to find an answer to the question of whether the spirit of bipartisanship will stand up to the shocks of election year politicking.

This year Republican and Democratic majorities agreed on nearly two of every three roll call votes. By contrast little more than half of the 1954 roll calls were bipartisan.

Senators found common ground on nine of every 10 foreign policy votes this year. Domestic issues split the parties half the time. In the House almost as much friction developed on foreign policy as on domestic matters. Representatives split along party lines on about two of every five roll calls, both foreign and domestic.

★ ★ ★

Highest bipartisan GOP voting records in the House were held by JOHN F. BALDWIN and PAUL DAGUE at 96 per cent. Four Democrats, WAYNE ASPINALL, RICHARD E. LANKFORD, JOHN W. MCCORMICK and JAMES W. TRIMBLE shared a 98 per cent record. In the Senate best bipartisan voting records were held by seven Republicans and five Democrats, all above 90 per cent.

★ ★ ★

It perhaps would be unreasonable to expect as flourishing a bipartisanship in the election year session as prevailed this year. But it's a safe guess that it will remain an important EISENHOWER Administration objective in the field of foreign policy.

Food as a Weapon

A prominent Briton, Lord BOYD ORR, has advanced a thought-provoking new approach to the problem of winning world peace.

As reported in the Toronto Globe and Mail, the first chairman of U. N.'s Food and Agriculture Organization believes that food may be the key that will unlock the door to lasting peace. He therefore would double the existing supplies of food and arrange for its distribution among perennially hungry peoples.

No doubt one reason back of this idea is the fact that Communism has won the support of millions with unfulfilled promises of more food. He believes that distribution of all foreign aid through FAO would be a stronger stimulus to peace than the combined results of Point Four, the Colombo Plan and other such services.

Lord BOYD ORR's contention is that it would cost no more than the $10 to $12 billion to relieve the world's hunger. That, of course, is only a fraction of the free world's annual defense cost. He further argues that the plan would result in a fourfold expansion of world markets and hence in world prosperity.

★ ★ ★

How much support this plan would get in free world capitals, is anybody's guess. Nonetheless it is refreshing to read of a plan so forthright that it would strike directly at this grave problem by filling millions of empty stomachs.

Protecting Junketeers

Small though it is, fortunately there is some sentiment in Congress for ending a system which protects abuses of Congressional junkets.

Since Congress adjourned many of its members have added to their store of knowledge about foreign lands by visiting overseas. A few of these lawmakers, however, are known to have abused the privilege of making these trips at the taxpayers' expense. It is common knowledge that they wasted Government funds and interfered with urgent diplomatic business.

★ ★ ★

Though they constitute only a small minority, these junketeers are protected by a Congressional courtesy of long standing. All such expense accounts are stamped "confidential" by the Senate Appropriations Committee or the House Administration Committee. Thus the cost of foreign joy rides is kept from the taxpayers who foot the bill.

★ ★ ★

This newspaper believes that junkets which increase the ability of lawmakers to do their work efficiently are worth all they cost. It is long since time, however, that Congressional courtesy be forgotten and that the expense accounts of junketeers be made public.

ANOTHER great disadvantage in a person's having his nose to the grindstone is that he's in such a handy position for people to kick him in the pants.

IN MANY a case a headache is just a pain in the neck that has moved upstairs.

David Lawrence Says:

Can a Citizen Refuse to Pay His Taxes Claiming Foreign Aid Money Is Wasted?

WASHINGTON — Few people realize that a person actually has to violate a law and run the risk of penalty in order to get a court test of the constitutionality of that law.

* * *

Hence, abuse is being wrongfully heaped on Governor J. Bracken Lee of Utah, who has announced that he isn't going to pay his income taxes because the Federal Government, in his opinion, has no right to spend his money to support or aid foreign governments or countries.

Lee may not win his court case and, in fact, the end result may be that the Federal Government will make some money on him. For when one doesn't pay income taxes, a six per cent interest charge is levied from the date the taxes are due.

There has been some mention in the news reports that the government might attach a lien on Governor Lee's bank account. It could do this but probably will not, for that would be playing into the Governor's hands.

It's a question, for instance, whether refusal to pay income taxes on the plea that the money is being improperly spent would cause the Supreme Court to take the case at all. It could refuse on the ground that the Governor's interest was really not material. The moment his bank account is attached, however, it would give the Governor legal standing and a direct interest in any suit.

WAITS DECISION

Most of the time, when there are disputes about payment of back taxes, the Federal Government doesn't attach any liens or attempt to collect until the case goes through the courts.

If this is ignored, the government then confiscates a part or all of a taxpayer's property to get the money to pay the claim. Usually the Federal Government lays off on such enforcement measures till the case is decided by the courts unless, of course, it anticipates that a man's assets might be dissipated in the meantime.

The Utah Governor's point is that money raised from American taxpayers should be used only inside the United States or at least for the direct benefit of the American people. Now there are some appropriations for foreign aid of a military nature which could readily be proved by the testimony of military experts to be of direct help to the American people.

* * *

But some of the funds used for economic aid might not be so easily demonstrated in court to be of direct benefit to the people of the United States. It is presumably this angle which the Utah Governor wants to agitate.

INDIRECT INTEREST

Based on recent cases in the Supreme Court there is a question whether any taxpayer can get into the high court with an argument about the way his funds are spent by the government. The court might refuse even to hear it. In a famous case known as "Massachusetts versus Mellon," it was decided by the Supreme Court that the interest of a federal taxpayer in a federal appropriation is too indirect to provide him with standing to challenge the appropriation.

But it so happens that many of the "Liberals" have lately been saying that the Supreme Court's requirements of a "pocketbook interest" by the citizen draw too narrow a line on which to reject cases questioning federal appropriations.

Professor Ralph F. Bischoff, assistant dean of the New York University school of law, in a recent symposium on the "conditions and scope of constitutional review," argues that the Supreme Court's "conception of litigable standing needs to be reformed."

The same professor wrote this while arguing that some of the persons who wanted to enjoin New York state from enforcing the state law on eliminating subversive persons from the staffs of public schools should have been allowed to appear in the Supreme Court as plaintiffs against the constitutionality of the state law.

* * *

Bischoff is right—for that's the American system by which laws are tested. It so happens that in this instance it is the governor of a state who is taking all the risks of adverse comment and the possible loss of interest money in order to determine whether the Federal Government can be legally restrained from spending its money for any purpose whatsoever outside the United States.

Reduce Weight Gradually —the Way You Put It On

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

A Detroit reader wants me to know how happy she is that in some six months she gained ten pounds since she began following the advice in the pamphlet How to Gain Weight. If you want it send stamped, self-addressed envelope. Please ask for it in writing, signed.

She had never weighed more than 100 pounds before. She is just 5 feet tall and has a small frame, and it is so wonderful to hear people say "How good you look" rather than . . . and she feels better than she has felt in years.

A Boston reader thanks me for helping her reduce. She has lost twenty pounds (in how many months she does not mention, but I hope it took her eight or ten months) and she intends to keep her weight down, for it is now just right for one of her height (and here again the lady gives no figure).

The Boston reader doesn't mention whether the pamphlet How to Lose Weight or the booklet Rules for Reducing helped her. For the booklet send 25 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope. If you ask also for the pamphlet it will come along with the booklet, provided the two bit piece doesn't require laundering or dry cleaning. Or, as one Celt to another, I might suggest that you send only a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for the pamphlet How to Lose Weight. It's free, and you never know, some one may make you a present of the booklet. I? Fat chance!

TAKE IT EASY

It is generally best to gain weight or lose weight gradually, in way you lost it or put it on. If it is a matter of ten pounds, it should take at least six months.

A bed-time meal is advisable for any one on the callow side of forty who wishes to gain weight. Whatever substantial undenaturized food one likes, and no nonsense about it. Say a pint of fresh milk, Certified, Grade A Raw from tuberculin tested herd, any fresh milk scalded (brought to a boil and then cooled), or even Pasteurized (parboiled), with a slice of whole wheat bread and butter, with or without sugar.

Such a bed-time meal will increase weight twenty pounds in a year. Eating at bedtime is natural and physiological, and digestion is better when you are asleep than when you are awake and maybe "watching" it. Also it is natural and physiological to sleep after a hearty meal — and healthful for persons under forty.

Plump ladies who are "going on a diet" almost never make good. Anyway a reducing regimen which need not start until two o'clock next week generally aggravates malnutrition, and most fat persons suffer from malnutrition, from excessive consumption of refined carbohydrate food which is deprived of vitamins and minerals when it is refined.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Change in Meeting Night Pleases Pontiac Minister

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature

As a pastor of one of our local Baptist churches I want to express my sincere appreciation to the many service, civic, social and fraternal groups that have changed their weekly or monthly meetings from Wednesday evenings.

Traditionally and educationally, Wednesday evening has been church night in Pontiac. Many of us, both pastors and people, want to do our share in the civic leadership of our community, and we are now in a better position to do it, when agencies outside the churches, set their meetings on evenings other than Wednesday.

Once again, a great big and deeply sincere vote of thanks to the leaders of all groups who are recognizing Wednesday evening as "Church Night."

Hal Boyle Says:

Letter to Grave Is Tribute to Cabbie's Plucky Wife

NEW YORK (AP)—Dear Sarah:

You have been in your grave two years. You never heard of me in your life, and I never heard of you until an hour ago. I am taking this way of letting the world know what a wonderful wife you were.

I was late to work, and hailed a cab driven by your husband, Max. It was a crisp clear autumn morning, the kind that makes a music in your veins.

"It's a fine day," I said to Max, "but I guess in the cab business you make more money on rainy days."

* * *

"All days are good days," Max said. "I don't worry about the money. I take it as it comes, and I don't cry if less comes in one day than another.

"People let trifles pile up and wear them down. I don't. I've been hacking 23 years, mostly at night. I can remember during the depression when I came home with only 40 cents after 12 hours at the wheel.

"Some of my friends in business for themselves fret now if they don't make more money every day.

Then he told me about the only time in his life money meant anything to him.

He told about meeting and marrying you 19 years ago. He told about the first years when all you often had to eat was bread and milk and coffee, and how cheerful you were. He told about the kids coming and how well you made out with little money, and how you never complained over the long years he worked at night and you were alone.

"She had happiness in her," he said more than once.

Max told me how thriftily you put by the dollars and pennies, until you both had a nest egg of $5,000 when you fell ill of cancer nearly three years ago.

* * *

He told how the nest egg dribbled away in efforts to cure you —specialists, nurses, treatments— and how you fought against spending it. He told how he finally quit work and took care of you himself, because he couldn't bear to leave you alone. He told how resigned you were.

* * *

Max didn't want to talk about your death. In the two years since you left he hasn't forgotten you.

"A cab driver meets many lonely women," he said. "But they don't interest me. You know the reason they're so lonely? It's because they have loneliness in them.

"My wife wasn't that way at all. She always had happiness in her."

Max then told me about your two daughters. He is very proud of them.

"The older girl is 17," he said. "She won't get to go to college. The nest egg was for that. But she didn't want to go to college very much. She soon will graduate from business school and she is going steady with a fine boy. Our other girl is 15 and doing well in school. They're both good girls."

* * *

"It makes me feel bad," he remarked, "when couples get in my car and start quarreling. One says, 'I hate you,' and the other says, 'I wish you'd drop dead.' Sometimes I turn around and tell them, 'don't talk like that. You don't know what you really have, just being together. Stay healthy.'"

When I got out of the cab I could see Max felt better himself, just from reliving out loud his memories of his life with you. He loves to talk about you—but happily, not sadly, and I think that would please you.

"Stay healthy!" he called back, and drove away smiling, still thinking of you.

Sincerely,
Hal Boyle

As Custodians of Culture and Morality, Women Should Inspire Their Children

Mrs. Shoffstall is typical of good mothers who constantly try to inspire and educate their children. And she gives me a lift, too, for when mothers regularly clip my columns and mail them to their teenage children away from home, that is the supreme test of the effectiveness of any newspaper feature.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-362: Mrs. W. J. Shoffstall, is an excellent example of a good mother.

Yesterday I mentioned that it isn't the length of our life which is so important as what we do while we are here on earth.

* * *

Like the typical good mother, Mrs. Shoffstall inspires her children and clips helpful items from newspapers or magazines to enclose in her letters to them when they are away from home.

"Dr. Crane, we certainly enjoy your Worry Clinic column in our Tulsa newspaper," she began.

"Our younger son would always beat me to the quiz you send and then ask me the questions, to see how many I could answer.

"So when he left for Marine boot camp in California, I would clip your column daily and at the end of the week, I'd enclose them in my letter.

"He and his pals in the Marines would make a game out of your quiz questions. One would read off the questions while the others would try to give the correct answers.

"My son wrote home saying that all the fellows looked forward to my letters just from this standpoint.

"Dr. Crane, I even mailed them to Shanghai when he was there, so they helped entertain and educate dozens of boys in my son's company.

"But my son Bob never got back home. His young life was snuffed out. And when my last letters to him were returned to me, your questions and answers were in them.

"But I always felt they helped keep up the morale of the boys and widened their information."

SALUTE TO MOTHERS

Good mothers duplicate the behavior of Mrs. Shoffstall all over the land.

For it is the trait of all good mothers to want to inspire and educate their children.

* * *

Women have thus been custodians of culture and morality, as well as of music and education, ever since the beginning of time.

My mother used to send me clippings of religious maxims and good poems while I was away at college, and so do the mothers of most of you readers.

And my wife still includes similar clippings to our four sons and daughter, who are away at school or in Military Service.

Hundreds of fine mothers have written to me that they, too, sent my Column to their sons during the war, and still do so to their college youth today.

"Dr. Crane," a college coed from Kansas recently told me, "my mother also clips your Worry Clinic from our home town paper and mails it to me at college.

"In every letter I get several of your columns. But 14 other girls in my dormitory, who come from all over America, also get clippings of your column from their home town newspapers almost every week, too, for their mothers also cut them out."

So we need to salute all good mothers, not just on official Mother's Day in May, but on all the other 364 days in the year, too.

* * *

Mrs. Shoffstall stood by her son to the end, even though she had to do it via letters. Her last messages to him were to inspire his mind and widen his cultural knowledge.

Send for my "Tests for Good Parents," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents. Use them monthly to improve your parental batting average.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

A-Tests May Prove to Be Non-Explosive

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new series of Atomic Energy Commission tests has been scheduled on the Nevada desert about Nov. 1—but this time there may be no atomic explosions. An AEC announcement indicated the tests will aim at learning whether atomic weapons can be accidentally detonated by fire or by nearby explosions of bombs or artillery shells.

If nuclear weapons prove safe under such circumstances, as believed, the only explosions presumably will come from more conventional devices.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

MEET YOUR PRESIDENT—3
West Point Cadet

Dwight D. Eisenhower became a soldier by chance. Seeking a college education, he took examinations for both the United States Military and Naval Academies, finishing first in the Annapolis exam and second in the West Point.

Then it turned out that he was a few months too old for Annapolis but not for West Point. By another quirk of fate the highest man on the Military Academy list was unable to accept. Ike went in his place.

At the Acadmey he became a highly rated quarterback, but a broken leg ended his playing. He had a lot of fun at West Point and graduated 61st in a class of 164 in 1915. He held the rank of color sergeant. See the emblem on his sleeve?

His first post was at Fort Sam Houston, Tex. It was there at a party that Ike met pretty Mamie Geneva Doud. They were married in Mamie's home town, Denver, July 1, 1916.

Chiang Sends Balloons

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Balloons with Chinese Nationalist flags attached were floated toward the Red China mainland yesterday by Chiang Kai-shek's troops on Quemoy Island. The balloons formed part of the Double Tenth celebration marking the 44th anniversary of the Oct. 10, 1911, revolution.

State Readies Snow Crews for Winter's Bitter Blast

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's snow fleets of equipment that keep highways open from the Keweenaw Peninsula to the Ohio line, is readying itself for winter's icy attack.

* * *

Already in the Upper Peninsula men are stringing the hundreds of miles of snow fences that soften winter's punch for thousands of motorists.

Throughout the state, highway department crews are working at top pace to put a fleet of 800 trucks in trim for their rendezvous with the elements.

Keeping thousands of miles of highways clear throughout the winter is a costly business. Last year, the Legislature appropriated half a million dollars to help hard-pressed counties in the north.

In rural areas alone, the state expects to spend nearly four million dollars to keep traffic rolling. Most of it — some two million dollars — will be spent to remove ice, winter's most effective weapon against highway travel.

What does it take to erase the white mark of winter from Michigan highways?

Lots of sand, rock salt and calcium chloride — about 75,000 tons for an average winter.

LOTS OF SAND

"We use a lot of sand and cinders," says N. W. Paquette, assistant maintenance engineer for the State Highway Department. "But recently we've been using more of the two chemicals, and found they work very effectively."

Ice, says Paquette, is a special problem in the southern part of the state, where heavy traffic quickly polishes new-fallen snow into treacherous sheets.

In the Upper Peninsula and in the northern part of the lower, snow is the overwhelming problem.

The snowfall in Houghton County runs as high as 240 inches a year. Three years ago Kent County, in the southern part of the state, had 85 inches and considered it something of an emergency.

A crew of 450 men is on duty round-the-clock through the winter months to man the big rotary plows and trucks that spread chemicals to keep the highway surfaces clean.

* * *

"These men must leave their phone numbers with their foreman if they leave their homes. "They can be called out at any time — nights, Saturdays and Sundays, and they often work alternate eight hour shifts," Paquette says.

Much of the work of snow removal is made unnecessary by some three million feet of snow fences strung along the state trunklines.

In the Upper Peninsula, some of the fences are 16-feet high and left in place the year around. Most of the fencing is of hardwood stake construction made at the state prison of Southern Michigan in Jackson.

For the past three or four years, the department has experimented with paper fencing made of heavy, reinforced, water-proofed paper.

CHEAPER THAN STAKES

"This is much cheaper than the stake fencing and there is no storage problem — we burn it after the season," Paquette said.

It will be some years, however, before paper fencing proves itself. Already, it has caused the department problems: I is punctured by malicious kids and cows looking for greener grass.

Paquette, who has worked in the department's maintenance and construction divisions for 35 years, says the last few winters have been nothing compared with earlier years.

"In the winter of 1935-36, we had one-way traffic from the Straits to the Ohio line on state trunklines most of the time. That's all we could keep open," he observed.

There have been advances in snow removal equipment — the big rotary plows can drill their way through several feet of snow, throwing it a hundred feet to the side of the road.

But in spite of all-out attempts to find an easy way the job of snow removal is a cold and primitive one.

Hospitalize Drayton Man When Car Strikes Tree

William Garneau, 22, of Drayton Plains, was listed in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital with a fractured skull suffered when the car in which he was riding struck a tree on Elizabeth Lake Road early today.

Waterford Township Police said the driver, Oscar Wibley, 23, of Waterford Township, apparently failed to negotiate a curve about one-half mile west of Crescent Lake Road. Wibley was treated for face cuts and released.

Prowling Politicos Seek Farmers' Choice

By DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic and Republican scouts are prowling the farm belt these October days checking the political temper of the farmers and then trying to project their readings into the 1956 presidential year in terms of votes.

* * *

No one yet has found a foolproof method of discovering how the farmers will vote. Nor can one say confidently that farmers will vote as a bloc any more than druggists, electricians, fishermen and golfers. But the guessing game goes on and there is no vote which is studied, analyzed, watched, wooed and feared more by politicians than the farm vote.

At the present time, messages from the farm belt are reported to be encouraging to the emocrats because farmers are not happy about farm prices and their own economic position in relation to the industrial worker. The Republicans are concerned because a discontented farm belt could mean trouble at the polls.

* * *

One GOP scout, recently returned from a trip through the farm country, brought back this story:

"I went back to my home and visited my brother on the farm where I was raised. When I was a kid, mother baked her own bread. We milked our own cows. We canned fruit and all kinds of garden truck. We had fresh eggs and fresh butter and there ere frying chickens running all around the place. We didn't have the modern conveniences, but we lived well.

"My brother gets his bread and butter from the store. He buys milk and eggs and frying chickens and canned food from the supermarket in town. He says it's cheaper that way. And maybe it is. I don't know.

"He's living better than he ever lived before—far better than we did as kids. He's even got power steering on his tractor.

"But he's sore because prices aren't what he thinks they should be. He says Ezra Benson (Secretary of Agriculture) keeps telling farmers they have to expect a leveling off—but that nobody is saying the same thing to the industrial worker. And he doesn't like it."

The farm problem is vastly more complex than outlined in this capsule picture, of course, but it is a part of the whole.

There are about five million farmers in the country today. With their wives and children of voting age they probably total more than 12 millions. And how they vote is tremendously important.

* * *

Three years ago presidential candidates Adlai Stevenson, Democrat, and Dwight Eisenhower, Republican, pleaded their cases before 100,000 farm folk gathered in the open fields near Kasson, Minn. The throng listened to their speeches, standing almost silent, giving no hint of favoritism for either man. You felt as though here was a giant jury gathered to pass judgment on the two parties.

* * *

The bulk of the farm vote went to Eisenhower. But the farm jury must judge again in a few more months. And the politicians are trying to find out whether the verdict will be the same.

U. N. Delegations Await Canada's Atom Stand

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Diplomats looked today for Canada to urge closer U.N. ties for the proposed atoms-for-peace agency than those suggested by the United States.

They predicted Canadian Delegate Paul Martin would take this stand in his appearance in the atomic energy debate before the U.N. Assembly's top Political Committee this afternoon.

The United States, with British support, has insisted that the body should be similar to a specialized agency and not too closely linked to the U.N.

Hearings Slated on Automation

Industrial Chiefs Called by Senate to Discuss Effects of Machine Era

WASHINGTON (AP)—Leaders in industry, science and labor have been summoned by a Senate-House committee to discuss the effects of automation on the American economy at hearings starting Friday.

Rep. Patman (D-Tex), chairman of a subcommittee on economic stabilization, which is a unit of the joint committee on the economic report, today announced a list of witnesses which included:

D. J. Davis, vice president, Ford Motor Co.; Walter P. Reuther, president, CIO; James J. Nance, president, Studebaker-Packard Corp.; Ralph J. Cordiner, president, General Electric Co.; Vannevar Bush, president, Carnegie Institution; Secretary of Labor Mitchell; Robert C. Tait, president, Stromberg-Carlson, and Don G. Mitchell, president, Sylvania Electric Products Corp.

The hearings run through Friday, Oct. 28.

Patman said the subcommittee is interested in such broad implications of automation as displacement of personnel, possible distortion in the distribution of mass purchasing power, the equitable distribution of expected gains in productivity, and the effect on business and private investment.

11 Die in Crash

MAZATLAN, Mexico (AP)—A loaded freight truck overturned on the Guadalajara-Nogales highway yesterday, crushing to death 11 persons riding among the boxes and crates as passengers. The dead included five children. Police said the driver had charged his passengers a fee for the trip to Guadalajara and fled after the accident.

16 Rows of Cotton Pile Money Woes on Station Owner

CUBA, Ala. (AP)—Joe B. Killian planted 16 rows of cotton to draw tourists to his service station and souvenir stand.

Now it has drawn the eyes of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and Killian is in a first-class dispute with the government. Agents of the Agriculture Department say he owes a fine of $6.37 for planting the crop without a government cotton allotment. They estimated it will yield 36 pounds of cotton.

"They can't understand that I want to grow cotton just to give away to tougists," Killian said yesterday, somewhat baffled.

Killian wrote Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson a registered letter giving his side of the controversy. The letter was referred back to the local cotton office at nearby Livingston, which now has the dispute under consideration.

GOP Money Dinner Hears Unity Pleas

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—California Republicans raised more than $150,000 from a $100-a-plate dinner last night at which U.S. Asst. Atty. Gen. Stanley N. Barnes called for party unity.

* * *

Barnes' call for unity came on the heels of an open fight between Gov. Goodwin J. Knight and supporters of Vice President Nixon for control of the 70-vote California delegation to the national convention.

* * *

He said President Eisenhower had set an example of party unity that should be followed during his illness and in anticipation of the 1956 campaign.

Barnes was introduced by Senate Minority Leader William F. Knowland.

Canada Marks Golden Jubilees

Saskatchewan, Alberta Celebrate Fifty Years of Progress

WASHINGTON — Canada's Saskatchewan and Alberta are celebrating golden jubilees this year, extolling 50 years of progress.

* * *

Each gained provincial status 1905 after the arrival of thousands of land-hungry men and women in the late 19th and early 20th Centuries, the National Geographic Society says. Few except English and French fur traders previously had frequented the Saskatchewan and Alberta prairies.

The growth and bustle of Edmonton, Alberta, symbolize the entire region's progress. Scarcely more than a trading post before 1900, it now is gripped by an oil and natural-gas boom and has become one of Canada's fastest growing cities.

Situated in central Alberta, Edmonton's one-time role in outfitting Klondike prospectors brought it the name of Gateway to the North. Today it is called the Crossroads of the World and the Meeting Place of a Hundred Races.

THE BREAD BASKET

Busy Calgary factories produce packing-house products, automobile bodies, flour and bread. Coal, livestock, wheat and lumber are drawn for shipment from an area of 150,000 square miles.

The two provinces share a common accomplishment — the enormous production of grains. Known as Canada's bread basket, Saskatchewan leads in wheat raising, followed by Alberta. In central Alberta the rich black topsoil is sometimes a foot thick; in Saskatchewan the fertile land provides livelihood for an estimated seven out of ten persons. Thousands of sheep, cattle and horses help shape the agrarian economy.

Saskatchewan industries supplement farming. Regina, Saskatoon and Moose Jaw variously produce flour and feed, cheese, petroleum and lumber products, cement, brick, iron and steel.

* * *

Myriad lakes and streams of the upper province supply whitefish, pickerel, sturgeon, bass and lake trout for visiting anglers. Trappers take the furs of badger, bear, beaver, coyote, lynx, marten, mink, muskrat, otter, wolf and wolverine.

* * *

Now the northern solitude around Lake Athabaska has given way to atomic-age production of pitchblende, source of uranium and further progress for the province.

Benjamin Mott Given Probation, Court Costs

In Oakland County Circuit Court yesterday, Benjamin Mott, 20, of 25389 W. Twelve Mile Rd., Birmingham, was placed on two-year probation and assessed $150 court costs by Judge George B. Hartrick.

He admitted Oct. 3 taking $100 and a car Sept. 17 fro ma gas station owner he was employed by.

1-14 Year Sentence for Passing Bad Check

Sentenced to 1 to 14 years in the Detroit House of Correction yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick was Joyce Turner, 23, of 9366 Sashabaw Rd., Clarkston.

She admitted Oct. 3 passing a bogus $304 check last June 18 in Pontiac.

Polio Kills Mom-to-Be

EAST MEADOW, N.Y. (AP)—Mrs. Alden Ames, a 16-year-old expectant mother, died of polio yesterday after being stricken Friday. Doctors at Meadowbrook Hospital were unable to save the life of her unborn child.

Too Much Telephoning

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) —The Taipei Telephone Co. appealed to the public today to avoid nonessential calls, particularly in business hours. It said the average number of calls through each phone per day is 24, highest in the world.

YOUR CHILD MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS
1 OUT OF 3 DOES!

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often tell-tale signs of Pin-Worms . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it: First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. Get genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . small, easy-to-take tablets . . . special sizes for children and adults. Perfected by Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for 100 years.

Stretch Like a Cat, Weight Expert Advises

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — "Say, would you like to wish on a star?" inquired the pretty lady. "Or would you rather," she frowned, "be a pig?"

Well, I said, I'd like to wish on a star. I'd find that preferential to being a pig, anyway.

She was delighted. "Then come with me." And so saying, she opened the gilded doors to the latest innovation in the oldest autumnal avocation of the century—a "reduce shop."

Standing inside the entrance, ready to receive star-wishers and their contributions, is Miss Mala Rubinstein, a niece of Helena Rubinstein, long-time exponent of contours and cosmetics. Eying my hips, Miss Rubinstein spoke:

"Everysing is laid out in such a way as to put ze woman psychologically in ze mood for reducing," she said, waving at the yellow walls and carpeting, and the pink chair. "Bright, zunny, heppy. We believe that before a lady reduces successfully, she must be provided wis both a sense of humor and a sense of duty about ze project."

TRICK MIRROR

To make a fat lady laugh at herself at the outset, there is a distorted mirror which blows the image up double. You can just hardly help letting out a big Ha Ha when you see yourself looking like twice the pig you are, they say at Rubinstein's.

* * *

Then, along two walls, are showcases full of contrastingly fat and thin works of art. "Zis," says Miss R., "is our gross-and-slim theme, carried out through the ceramic and sculptural art from the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries . . ."

In one case, there's a bloated crystal blowfish, side by side with a slender miniature sea horse. There's a fat porcelain cat, and a slim wooden kitty. A fat, naturalistic hippopotamus beside a slim, streamlined hipp.

"Zey see how fat zey can be, and how slender, and comes ze sense of duty."

UPSTAIRS SALON

Imbued with the spirit of being a sea horse rather than a blowfish, the custom is then led upstairs to the deep-carpeted reducing salons where she is checked over by Dr. Ettinger, proprietress of what is known comfortingly as "the 8th floor face and body department."

Here, the psychologically happy client is given her first taste of the seriousness of this thing she has undertaken. "We teach her to stretch like a cat," says Dr. Ettinger, "and bend like a tree."

If she's up to it, she can also wiggle like a snake and churn like an undercurrent. Zis, it was pointed out, removes all ze lazy kinks from summer.

"For women who prefer passive reducing" (and who doesn't?), "there are some new machines." These are technical devices that involve infra-red lamps, hot paraffin wax smeared on problem portions of the customer, and the "streamliner," which is an electric treatment designed to shock the muscles into reducing.

Each and every one helps. But the biggest help of all, say the Rubinstein reducers, is a new appetite-curbing pill simply crammed full of vitamins called "Reduce-Air." It is rumored to have the quality of making hot fudge sundaes seem odious to hot fudge sundae devotees.

APPETITE REMAINS

Miraculously, however, it does not curb one's appetite for such tidbits as cottage cheese, unsalted tomatoes and celery sticks.

How could a woman help but be happy to get back her girlish figure this easy way—reclining amid yellow walls, being streamlined by electricity, munching on pills, stretching like a cat coated with paraffin?

Certainly made me feel good, anyway. I just laughed and laughed.

A modern factory can handle about 6,000 tons of sugar beets in a day.

Church Organist Dies in Car Pyre

Woman Lights Gasoline Drenched Auto Causing Fatal Explosion

LEAVENWORTH, Kan. (UP) — A church organist burned to death yesterday in an automobile which her minister said she set afire a few minutes after he attempted to talk to her.

* * *

Coroner Charles Larkin said the interior of the car had been soaked with gasoline. He said the reason for her action was not known.

The organist, Mrs. Mildred Hitzman, 48, a divorcee, disappeared a week ago. The Rev. Paul W. Burres, pastor of her church, and members of the congregation had been searching for her.

REFUSED TO TALK

Yesterday the Rev. Mr. Burres, pastor of the Wesley Methodist Church of Kansas City, Kan., and Loren Land, 17, spotted her car south of here near U. S. Highway 73.

"I stopped behind her car and went up to the door to talk to her," the minister said. "She didn't want to talk. She just started the motor and drove off."

He said they followed and noticed she had a couple of matches in her mouth.

* * *

"We saw her throw one in the back of the seat," he said. "Then came the explosion. The back glass was blown out. The trunk lid came back toward us and we had to dodge it, as we were following close. The car was a mass of flames as it went off the road. We couldn't get in to her, and she was already dead anyway."

On Bruny Island, Tasmania, traffic stopped when thousands of penguins invaded the roads, Hobart reports. No one was allowed to frighten or injure the birds.

Explosion Rocks Refinery Area

Sinclair Oil Explosion Shakes Twenty-Block Section; 18 Hurt

MARCUS HOOK, Pa. (UP)—An explosion rocked a low-pressure receiving unit of the Sinclair Oil Co. refinery in nearby Trainer yesterday and showered workers and supervisors with liquid fire, injuring at least 18 men, four critically.

* * *

Flames poured out of the unit and covered those closest to the explosion. Homes and stores in a 20-square-block area were shaken.

A company spokesman said a bad break had developed in a gasoline line in the basement of the receiving unit and the explosion occurred while 8 to 12 men, mostly supervisors, tried to repair it.

The receiving house, a 20 by 40-foot brick and steel building was wrecked. The flames were put out in about an hour and a half.

* * *

The receiving unit takes in and dispenses a variety of petroleum products after the refining process. It handles an average of 50,000 barrels of oil daily. Some 1,450 persons are employed at the refinery.

* * *

The blast occurred a few minutes after the day force had left the plant but some of the workers upon hearing the explosion rushed back and helped fight the fire.

There was no estimate of damage.

BALTIMORE (UP) — Mrs. James William Winsor, 21-year-old bride of 10 days, lay injured on a Hagerstown, Md., street for half an hour last week after an automobile accident.

Mrs. Winsor was taken to Washington County Hospital, then transferred to University Hospital in Baltimore for treatment of head injuries.

She died in the Baltimore hospital yesterday.

...And They Shall Have Music...

Fate Played Important Role in Partnership

This is the second of five articles on the careers and private lives of two men who have written some of the world's most unforgettable music —Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein.

By CHARLES P. ARNDT

Fate, the right time, and circumstance joined together to bring a new musical experience to Americans and to the world. Were it not for the combination of these elements, Rodgers and Hammerstein might never have been melded into the famed partnership wrich exists today.

* * *

It all began with a pre-planned luncheon. The time was late fall of 1942. The place was the Barberry Room of the Hotel Berkshire on East 52nd Street in New York City. . . .

Co-directors Theresa Helburn and Lawrence Langner wanted to make a musical of the Lynn Riggs' play "Green Grow the Lilacs."

They approached Rodgers. He thought it a great idea but his lyricist partner of 24 years, Lorenz Hart, was in poor health. Rodgers telephoned Hammerstein, whom he had known for 20 years since Columbia University days.

MUSICAL AMERICANA

From their combined genius has emerged a completely new musico-dramatic form not as heavy as grand opera, not as light as musical comedy, nor as superficial as opera. It's been called everything from folk art to light opera to Musical Americana.

The authors themselves slash thruogh all the clinches with these simple words:

"We want the audience to care if a baby dies."

Playright Hammerstein goes on to explain:

"What we have done, and are doing, is writing musical plays that have an emotional effect on the audience. Unlike many musicals, they are not strictly entertainment. In each one, we have tried to affect the audience like a straight play does."

Rodgers and Hammerstein quickly torpedo another popular legend likening their musicals to those of Gilbert and Sullivan.

"Dick and I really are at opposite poles from Gilbert and Sullivan," Hammerstein says. "They were satirists in comic opera—masters in their field. They would have been horrified if anyone cried during one of their performances. We are delighted when they cry, but we try to make people laugh, too."

And from Rodgers:

"Gilbert and Sullivan never took a love story seriously. We have never taken one any other way."

ELEVEN COUNTRIES

The emotional impact of the Rodgers and Hammerstein musicals has been felt by audiences in 11 countries—as far off as Australia and South Africa.

During the two-year Broadway run of their second smash hit, "Carousel," the authors were particularly jolted to note that more men than women broke into tears.

The daring R & H hero-killing in "Carousel" was followed by another audible gasp along Broadway when it became known that the partnership had lured thunder-voiced Ezio Pinza from the Metropolitan to play the male lead of Emile de Becque opposite the incomparable Mary Martin in "South Pacific."

WILL REPEAT

The critics are unanimous that Rodgers and Hammerstein never repeat themselves from show to show. But in one way, they are repeating the Pinza "experiment" this fall.

On Nov. 30, they will bring to Broadway their seventh musical with the mighty voice of a big former Met. star, Helen Traubel. It's called "Pipe Dream."

With Rodgers and Hammerstein, the audience is the thing. In almost the same breath, they declare:

"You can't fool the public."

Musician Rodgers would regard it as "unthinkable" even to consider "writing down" to an audience.

* * *

They launched their partnership by throwing away the rulebook. It was long-accepted musical comedy practice for the music to come first. The lyricist then made his words "fit." But with Rodgers and Hammerstein, the melodies have followed the words, with rare exceptions.

MET IN COLLEGE

Rodgers and Hammerstein first came face-to-face 25 years before their fateful Barberry Room luncheon. Rodgers' older brother Mortimer brought his "little brother" to the Hotel Astor ballroom to meet Columbia student Hammerstein, who had written and was appearing in a varsity show called "Home James."

At that time, Hammerstein was preparing at Columbia for a law career.

It was not surprising that Hammerstein abandoned law for the theater. His grandfather, Oscar I, was the most celebrated show man in America. His father, William, was a theater manager.

Oscar II's theatrical transition began with an assistant stage managership. He was 25 when his first modest success, a farce called "Tickle Me," ran seven months.

That same year, Columbia old grad Hammerstein wrote the words for his first Rodgers song. Rodgers was a Columbia freshman, the first ever to win the annual varsity show contest. One of the judges was young Hammerstein.

WRITE THE LYRICS

He liked Rodgers' tune so much that he supplied the words for the song that became an undistinguished trunk item called "Always Room for One More." Nowadays, it "amuses" them to hear it again.

* * *

After that, they developed a mutual professional respect, but traveled separate creative paths until Rodgers phoned Hammerstein that day in 1942.

"Oscar and I began hitting it off from the first day we began discussing the show," he recalls. "The very first lyric Oscar finished was 'Oh, What a Beautiful Mornin'!' and when he handed it to me I was a little sick with joy. When you're given words like 'The corn is as high as an elephant's eye,' you get something to say musically."

Hammerstein, an admitted perfectionist where anything theatrical is concerned, calls the Rodgers music "very clean and clear-cut."

EXPERT SHOWMAN

"There is nothing fuzzy about Dick's writing, or the man himself," the elder half of the partnership says. "He is an expert showman and has a great sense of theater, peace and character."

As a fanatical craftsman Hammerstein labors days, sometimes weeks, over his lyrics. Rodgers has been called one of the fastest and most facile composers who ever put music on paper.

"I simply hand him a lyric and get out of the way," Hammerstein once remarked half in jest, half seriously.

Actually, there is much more to it than that. Even the bare outline of each production is the result of perhaps three months of long discussion, writing, cutting and rewriting.

* * *

So when Rodgers received a Hammerstein lyric, he already has the complete background on setting and mood required.

Tomorrow: Charles Arnot describes the composer and the lyricist—two men who are as different as they are alike.

Surveys in 35 American cities show that 74.1 per cent of the people travel by automobiles as compared with 25.9 per cent who rely on public transporation.

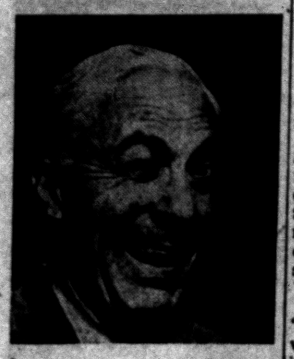
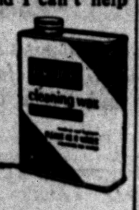
"Smart gal, my Susie!"



▶ A lot of wives complain about housework, but not my Susie. She uses her head instead of her muscles. For example, some women spend a whole day just scrubbing and waxing wood floors. My Susie cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. It takes only half the time and a lot less work. Yet our beautiful wood floors are the envy of her friends. My hat's off to Susie and her Bruce Cleaning Wax for making a tough job so easy. And I can't help but feel proud of both of them.



▶ P.S. For lighter waxing on linoleum and wood, Susie uses Bruce Floor Cleaner.

Spanish Lessons Pay Off Twice

By ANNE HEYWOOD

There's an old saying which goes, "If you can't do it, teach it." But Mrs. G. R. is an example of a woman who can do both.

* * *

Mrs. G.R. was a good secretary before her marriage. Then, after her baby was born, she was suddenly and tragically widowed and found she had to go back to work. It was a tight pinch for a while.

"But eventually," she told me, "I got a good job as secretary to the export director of one of our city's largest firms. I worked hard and began studying Spanish on my own, in the evening while the baby slept.

"After a while, I took special Spanish classes, learning commercial terminology and all the details of handling business with South American countries. This made my job much more interesting and also gave me regular salary raises.

* * *

"Little by little," she continued, "I rose in my job and pretty soon was in charge of hiring and training all the stenographers and secretaries for the export division, which was expanding rapidly. I love it.

GRANDMA NOW

"The years went by. My baby grew to a big son, graduated from college and married. Now I'm a grandmother, three times over.

* * *

"Last year, at 55, my company retired me. I was lost for a while, still young and peppy but with nothing to do.

"The children were wonderful and insisted that I move to the suburbs with them. But I think young people have a right to a life of their own. Besides, I had enough to live on and didn't want to be dependent on others. That's when I got my idea.

"There are many export houses in our city. Naturally, there's a great demand for stenographers and secretaries who not only have office skills, but also know Spanish, particularly commercial Spanish.

* * *

"I put an ad in our local papers, offering to tutor girls in commercial Spanish dictation and usage. I got no end of replies.

"Now I teach three nights a week and all day Saturday. It is such fun seeing 'my girls' advance in their jobs and feeling that my own experience was not wasted. I'm still useful in this world!"

For the woman who likes her black in less exotic terms, there are white ermine bibs and collars to make black appealing. Balenciaga is full of ermine touches such as an ermine collar tied with a bow-knot in back and an ermine bib tucked under the chin of a black faille evening dress.

A PERFECT SET UP

Boy Has No Love Greater Than His Auto

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: For about a month we went out together quite steadily. Then all of a sudden he stopped coming over or even calling me up on the telephone.

"I heard he was saving to buy a car, but I don't think that's a very good reason, do you? Should I forget him, or is there still a possibility that he'll be around again?"

Answer: You obviously don't understand the mania of a man for a motor! Around about the age of 9 boys can name all the cars on the road. At 13 they're already talking about the first car they're going to have. And the nearer they get to license age the madder they become on the subject.

Nothing in the world is nearly as important. Doctored-up jalopy or sporty convertible—the possession of his motor vehicle makes him a king. He'll skimp on lunch money, skip a haircut now and then, and go absolutely dateless to put aside the wherewithal for buying royalty.

It's the toughest kind of competition for a girl. But your boy friend apparently can't afford two loves in his life. He'll probably be around, though, once he gets his car.

"Dear Miss Woodward: My girl friend and I usually double-date with two boys who are very good friends. She and her boy friend have had an argument, and it's having a dreadful effect on my own romance.

"It seems that my boy friend can't go anywhere without his boy friend, and they're used to dating the two of us girls together. Now that one girl is out of the picture, I am, too.

"We had a date for the other night but he didn't show up and later I saw him with his boy friend. I think an awful lot of him, so he thinks anytime he chooses to apologize I'll come running back.

"How can I get him to come around all by himself?"

Answer: Another couple's romance (or lack of same) is rugged interference. Too bad your own is in the doldrums because the foursome has been disrupted. But it needn't be permanent. Not if you'll take both boys together for a while.

Let your boy friend bring his sidekick over when he comes to see you. Be equally nice to them both. Don't mention your girl friend. But tactfully mention that you could get some other girl as a date for the friend if he'd like, and name a few names.

You might launch another foursome. Meantime, you'll be having time to cement a stronger personal relation with your own boy friend, so that your friendship will stand on its own legs and be dependent on no other couple.

She Objects to Smoking During Meal

Hostess Asks for Tactful Method of Curbing Guests

By EMILY POST

"How can one tactfully curb dinner table smoking? I am getting very tired of having the time and effort that goes into cooking a party dinner wasted because of the rudeness of some of our guests.

"Neither my husband nor I smoke, but do not object to smoking except at the dinner table. If I purposely leave ashtrays off the table, our friends go and get them without even asking if smoking is permitted.

"I have no objection to cigarettes at the end of the meal, but these people whose bad manners permit them to throw a smoke screen around other guests while dessert is being served are intolerable.

"Have we as host and hostess no jurisdiction over our dinner table other than removing certain friends' names from our guest list? We would rather not lose friends but if there is no other way we will cross them off our list and appreciate all the more those who allow us the courtesy of setting the precedent in our own home."

Answer: My sympathy is with you because I feel exactly as you do. The only thing you can do is say, "I hate to have to ask you, but please don't smoke until after dinner because it really makes me sick."

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it correct for a man to go to dinner in a resort hotel or country club dressed in a long-sleeved shirt buttoned at the top but with no tie and wearing a sport coat?"

Answer: It certainly is not!

"Dear Mrs. Post: In what order should two young women and two young men enter a row of seats at a concert or theater?"

Answer: One woman goes in first, then a man, then the second woman and, last, the second man.

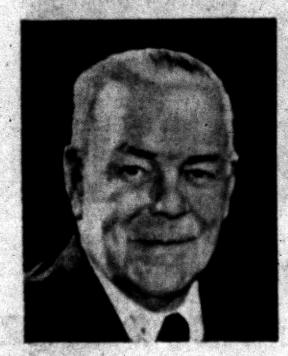
Sunshine SPONGE Cake Mix

High as an angel food . . . with a moistness that lasts . . . and the mixing couldn't be easier!



DUNCAN HINES
America's Foremost Authority on Good Eating

Duncan Hines says: "Of all the cakes I've put into mixes, I'm especially proud of this—because I know the cake you make with it will be everything a true sponge cake should be: high, light, tender, moist, with a sunshine color and fresh, delicate flavor.

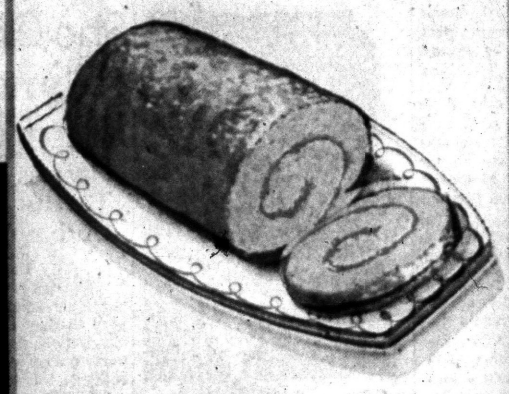
"The mix itself is so highly perfected you just can't have anything less than a huge success. And the two fresh eggs I ask you to add make all the difference! They make the cake rise high in the pan, make it tender and moist, and keep it moist for days.

"Bake it any way you please—in a tube or loaf pan, in layers, in a sheet. It's so easy to handle! You can roll it, split the layers with a nice clean cut . . . and of course fill it, frost it, serve it with a simple custard, fruit, ice cream or your richest sauce.

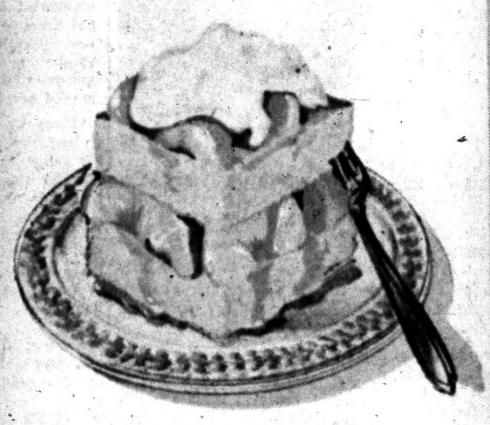
"You can have fun with this mix, because everyone knows a fine sponge cake is the beginning of dozens of wonderful desserts. Vary it as many ways as your imagination can dream up—it will make the most talked-about desserts you ever brought to your table."

Duncan Hines

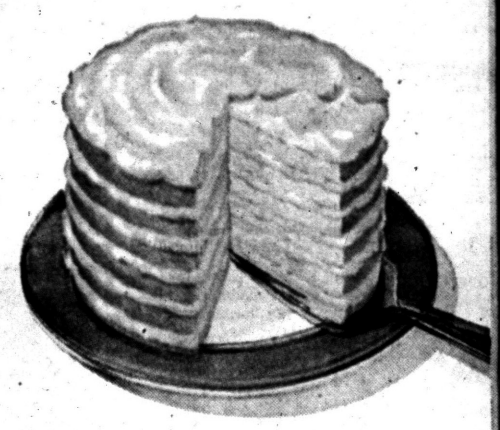
IT'S THE MIX THAT MAKES THE MOST AND FANCIEST DESSERTS . . . SO EASILY



JELLY ROLL—easier than you think. (Directions on package.) Dust with powdered sugar, cover with frosting, or serve with whipped cream. Takes just ½ the batter—enough left for a layer or a loaf cake.



FRUIT SHORTCAKE—just split squares of sponge cake, fill with sweetened berries or fruit, and top with more fruit and whipped cream. See package for easy directions and fruit suggestions.



LEMON ICEBOX CAKE—sponge cake layers, split and put together with a cool, tangy filling that begins with packaged lemon pie filling. Makes a handsome and delicious dessert. Package tells how.

BAKED ALASKA—who'd dream you did-it-yourself, and so easily? Make a stiff meringue of 4 egg whites, ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar, ⅔ cup sugar. Then, pile very firm ice cream on a sponge cake layer to ½ in. of edge. Completely cover with meringue, and pop in a 500° oven until light brown (3 to 5 min.). Serve at once.

DUNCAN HINES CAKE MIXES: White, Yellow, Devil's Food, Spice, Marble, Burnt Sugar, Sponge, Angel Food, Chocolate Angel Food.

Colorful Turning Leaves Surround Orchard Lake

Fronting Press Photo

DONKEY GAME AT AVONDALE—Avondale is sponsoring its first donkey softball game under the new lights of its football stadium on M 59, between Crooks and Livernois Roads at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. School faculty men, Avondale business men and students will ride the Texas-trained animals in a hilarious show. Purpose, however is a serious one. Avondale schools need an electric score board, toward which game proceeds will go. Pictured above (left to right) are: Roseo Crowell, high school principal; Leonard Passint, rider, and Lawrence Scharer, junoir high principal and program chairman.

Tour of Autumn Draws Drivers

Varihued Trees Cover Scenic Route Along Old Orchard Avenue

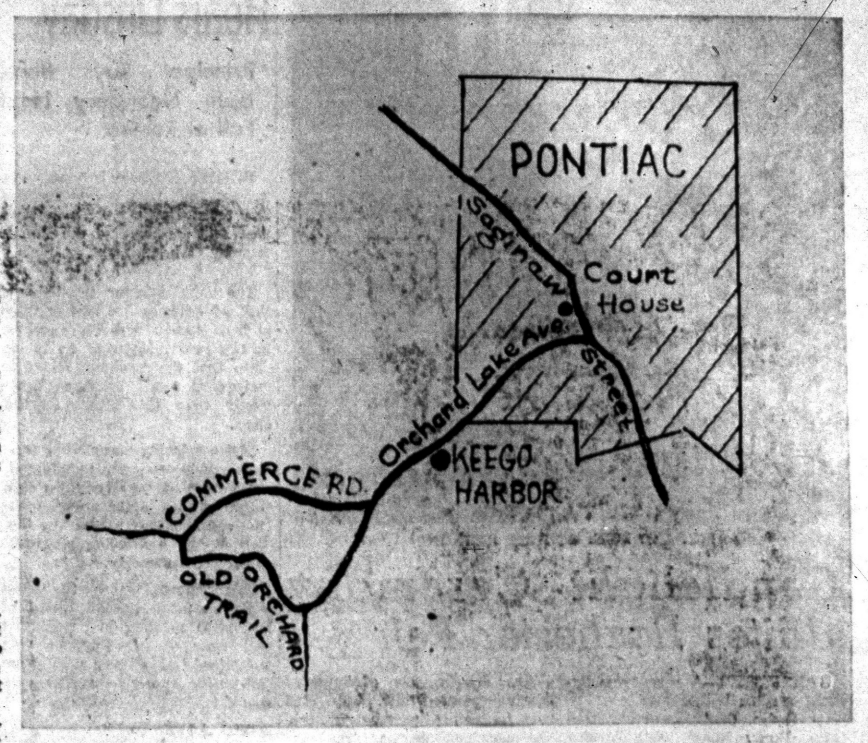
A swing of only a few miles around Orchard Lake furnishes a good example of the autumn foliage colorings in this area.

It gives some entrancing lake vistas and traverses one of the most historical sections of our county. On it you can view from every angle Apple Island, which was the seat of the war councils of Chief Pontiac.

Very careful attention to the following directions is necessary or you may turn up the wrong road, but even if you do, the view is worth the trip.

Go out Orchard Lake Ave. through Keego Harbor to the point where the pavement divides into Pontiac Trail and Farmington Road, where you take the right fork into Pontiac Trail.

Now watch very closely, for within the first half mile you must turn right into Old Orchard Trail, which is plainly marked. This you follow to Commerce Road where you turn right at the Scotch school, and follow the road back to its end at the new West Bloomfield High school, where you turn left and return to Pontiac on Orchard Lake Ave.



Nixon Cancels Near East Trip

Extra Duties, Increased Unrest in North Africa, Dictate Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—Capital observers saw no prospect today that Vice President Nixon's now-postponed trip to the Middle East and Africa ever will take place.

* * *

They saw that result stemming from a number of factors, including President Eisenhower's illness, a more touchy diplomatic situation in the Middle East, and Nixon's own potential role in advance of next year's presidential election.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty announced the postponement yesterday. He said Nixon would remain in this country to preside over meetings of the Cabinet and the National Security Council while the President recuperates. He told newsmen he could not say whether the trip would be rescheduled later.

CRITICAL CONDITION

But observers saw little likelihood that Nixon would be leaving the country for any length of time even after the President recovers.

When the plans for the vice president's visit were first announced Aug. 23, it was made clear that he was to be charged with no diplomatic responsibilities. He was merely to show a friendly American interest in the countries visited.

Since then have come such developments as Egypt's deal for arms from Czechoslovakia, concluded against U. S. urgings.

* * *

There was some feeling in diplomatic circles that it would be almost impossible now to send a good will mission headed by an important official to the Middle East without running into great pressures involving U. S. policy decisions.

Death Stalks Flood-Tired Port of Tampico

TAMPICO (INS) — The pestilence-ridden muddy waters that set a stage of death for Mexico's flooded port of Tampico do not change perceptibly—only the actors and the scenes change.

* * *

Even the individual battles for survival are so similar that each new drama of life and death could have been the story of any one of a thousand others.

Tiny 8-year-old Juanita Perez, crowded along with 800 others in a Tampico schoolhouse away from the raging flood waters, is just one of some 50,000 thin-legged children left homeless by the storm.

Jauanite told haltingly her own story of personal grief. She said her 6-year-old brother was drowned in the flood and her mother is in the hospital.

Romualda Martinez is the prototype of hundreds of mothers whose homes were washed away in the Morelos-Barrio area where 5,000 homes were battered earlier by Hurricane Hilda and then destroyed.

FORTUNATE MOTHER

Mrs. Martinez was more fortunate than most. Her husband and their nine children were evacuated from their home before it was crumpled. But he said:

"I will never go back to Morelos. They have changed their existences and modified their lives to fit the unpredictable mood of the flood.

They buy meager rations from Even if they rebuild it I will not go back. Everything we had is gone, I don't know what we will do now."

* * *

But 43-year-old Ciro Garcia, whose home was destroyed said: "I will rebuild. I don't know how. I have no money. But I will rebuild when the waters go down."

In many partially submerged homes, people remain, still clutching to their belongings. vendors in dugouts and defuse to leave. They look at the waterline on their homes and take hope when it drops a few inches and curse the fates when it rises.

More than 150,000 persons were stranded by the flood, which covered 7,000 square miles of the Tampico area.

Meanwhile, Adm. M. E. Miles, in charge of the U. S. effort to save thousands of the flood victims, said the combined forces of Mexico and the U.S. have won the first phase in a life-saving campaign against the flood.

GOP to Use Ike Record as Core in Election Fight

NEW YORK (AP)—Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall says that even if President Eisenhower does not run in 1956, the GOP will win with the help of "Ike's philosophy, personality and the record of his administration."

* * *

And if the President should decide to seek re-election, Hall said yesterday, he will "sweep the country just as he did four years ago."

Hall told a "Pulse of the Nation" luncheon, given by New York's National Republican Club, that only the President could say whether he will seek re-election. "We must leave that decision entirely to the President himself," Hall said.

NO IDEA WHEN

He said he had no idea when Eisenhower would announce his plans, but he thought the President's heart attack might prompt an earlier announcement than would normally be expected.

In foreign affairs, Hall said, the President has brought in a "bold and dynamic" policy to replace "indecision and fumbling."

* * *

On the domestic scene, he said, "more Americans are working at more jobs, making more money with more take-home pay and more value to their dollar to buy more good things of life than ever in our history."

* * *

"And it hasn't taken a war for America to be prosperous," he added. "The Republican party represents prosperity with peace. The New and Fair Deals were never able to achieve prosperity without war, or peace without unemployment and depression."

Gruenther to Stress NATO Weaknesses

PARIS (AP)—Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, supreme Allied commander in Europe, underscores the bad news today for NATO's defense ministers—Western Europe is still highly vulnerable to a Communist attack.

The ministers and many of the chiefs of staff of the 15 NATO nations went to Gruenther's headquarters outside Paris for the second day of a three-day meeting here. Gruenther was reported ready to emphasize NATO's serious shortcomings in the face of Russia's mighty armed forces.

Gruenther was said to favor particularly formation of a single integrated Allied air force to help counter the East's power. Built into one mighty striking arm, such an air force would be capable of swift and devastating retaliation against any aggressor, wherever he might strike.

Cobo Cautious Seeking Governorship of State

DETROIT (AP)—Mayor Albert E. Cobo, whose term expires at the end of 1957, said yesterday, "I have no intention of running again for mayor," but he added, "of course, I can always change my mind."

Cobo also was asked if he would be a candidate for the Republican nomination as governor.

"I can't honestly answer that because I don't know," Cobo said.

The mayor previously has said he will decide around the first of the year whether he would be willing to run for governor.

Rescued From Ditch

DETROIT (AP)—Gordon Bates, 39, a Mount Clemens construction worker, was rescued after being buried up to his neck for 20 minutes in a 20-foot sewer ditch at St. Clair Shores Monday. He was cleaning the bottom of the ditch when a side caved in on him. Three fellow workers dug him out.

Probe Legality of Dixon-Yates

AEC Chairman Admits Power Contract Award Will Need Review

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission has conceded publicly for the first time that "there may be a question as to the validity" of the Dixon-Yates contract.

* * *

He said in an Oct. 7 letter made public yesterday by Sen. Anderson (D-NM) that any cancellation payment to the Dixon-Yates power group is being held up while the question of validity is studied intensively.

VALID CONTRACT

Both Edgar H. Dixon and Eugene A. Yates, heads of the two major utility companies involved, now-abandoned contract was a valid one.

Anderson, chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, said in a statement that AEC now appeared to be moving toward the position he has maintained all along. He has contended it never was a binding obligation on the government, and that no cancellation fee was due Dixon-Yates.

* * *

The AEC consistently has maintained heretofore that the contract became legally effective some time last winter.

The contract was negotiated by AEC last year at President Eisenhower's direction. It called for a 107-million-dollar plant at West Memphis, Ark., to supply power to the Tennessee Valley Authority to replace TVA electricity and used elsewhere by AEC.

GOVERNMENT LIABLE

On July 11 this year the President directed that the contract be terminated and the AEC has been conducting negotiations looking toward a final settlement of the contract since that time. If it is binding, the government is obligated to pay costs incurred by the Dixon-Yates group. There have been estimates these could run to several million dollars.

Strauss wrote Anderson last Friday, "It appears on the basis of our study thus far that there may be a question as to the validity" of the contract.

* * *

"Under these circumstances," he said, "the commission has decided to hold in abeyance the negotiation of the major aspects of a settlement with the company until our analysis has been completed."

Sentence of 1-4 Years for Detroit Woman

Marie Thomas, 19, of 3230 Franklin, Detroit, yesterday was sentenced to one to four years in the Detroit House of Correction by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick.

She pleaded guilty Oct. 3 to taking clothing valued at $241 from a home at 13241 Dartmouth, Oak Park, last Jan. 11.

Fisherman Sees Long, Cold Winter After Big Catch

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (INS) — A fishy weather forecaster went out on a perch and predicted a long, cold winter.

Mathon Kyritsis, a Waukegan, Ill., restaurant operator and president of the Illinois Commercial Fisherman's Association, made his dire prediction after his two fishing boats returned with the first sizeable catch of perch this season in Lake Michigan.

Kyritsis, who has compiled a brilliant record as a forecaster for several years by literally thinking like a fish, bases his prediction on the depth at which the fish are found.

He said if they are deep, the fish think the winter will be severe, and if they are in shallow water they are looking for a mild winter. This year his boats caught the perch at depths of 140 to 180 feet and Kyritsis said:

"Pray that I and the fish are wrong, but it sure looks like a rough winter."

Woman Held on Bond for Bad Checks Charge

Blonnetye Collins, 23, of 498 Bloomfield Ave., yesterday waived examination before Pontiac Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan on a charge of uttering and publishing forged checks. She was bound over to circuit court for arraignment Oct. 17. Bond of $500 was not furnished.

Arrest was made Oct. 7 by Pontiac police.

Warren Wife Pleads Guilty to Charges

WARREN TOWNSHIP — A 29-year-old Warren Township mother of three pleaded guilty yesterday to cashing more than $1,000 in bogus checks to finance a Florida trip for her carpenter husband so he could find work.

Recorder's Judge Joseph A. Gillis, set bond at $1,000 for Mrs. Audrey Baranski, who told police her arrest last Friday prevented her husband Irving, 28, from leaving for Florida.

Police said Baranski and his wife have a similar previous conviction in Macomb County. They received two years' probation.

Fire Prevention Week Shows Blaze Causes

The week of Oct. 9-15 has been designated as Fire Prevention Week, and is designed to alert the public to the causes of fires, and the damage they do annually.

According to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, in an average 24 hours, 800 homes, 100 commermial establishments, 50 manufacturing plants, 20 storage warehouses and 100 other buildings are consumed by fire.

The loss totally $2,400,000. The statistics continue to point out that 30 persons will be killed during the average day, 20 per cent of whom will be children five years old or younger.

Some simple fire prevention rules are listed below.

DINING ROOM—Be careful not to overload electric circuits. Don't use too many appliances all on one circuit. If you like to dine by candlelight, use electric candles. An overturned real candle can easily set fire to your tablecloth and cause great damage to your house.

BATHROOM — Water and electricity are a dangerous combination, producing electric shock that's often fatal. It's unwise therefore to have a radio, electric heater or any electrical appliance that you might touch while bathing or grasping a water faucet.

Monday Club Hears Linsday

Principal Says Bond Issue Necessary Next Fall at Romeo

ROMEO — "There is bound to be a bond issue next year." Elementary Schools principal, Bruce Linsday, told members of the Romeo Monday Club last night.

* * *

The administrator pointed out that 463 students are now enrolled in high school, with 640 expected in two years. He went on to explain that the freshman class in two years would be three times larger than the present senior class.

After bringing many other factors emphasizing the anticipated increase and enrollment in the upper grades to the attention of the club, Linsday stated "by the fall of '56, a building program must get under way."

This statement echoes the views expressed at a special Board of Education meeting last week. At that time T. C. Filppula was authorized to look over sites in the district for possible school construction.

BASIC ADVANTAGE

The grade school principal outlined several basic advantages to be gained by the construction of a new high school by the fall of '57. Among them were a hot lunch program for the high school, the discontinuance of the use of the Maples School for classrooms (operating now only by special permission of the State Fire Marshall) and the consolidation of guidance and counseling, music, homemaking and physical education for junior high students in one building.

In concluding, Linsday assured the group that the administration "hopes to present a schedule with little or no increase in millage to support the proposed building program."

Another guest at the Women's club meeting was Jean McKay of Almont, education chairman of the Community Hospital drive. She addressed the group concerning the need for the proposed $350,000 hospital to be constructed on M-53, between Romeo and Almont.

Buster Keaton Would Quit Show Biz for Two Acres

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Deadpan comic Buster Keaton, marking his 60th birthday, remains active in all fields of show business.

* * *

But he adds, "Just give me enough money for a couple of acres in the valley and I'd chuck the whole works."

This is a refreshing contrast to the show biz veterans who feel the show must go on and on and on. Buster says he would retire tomorrow, if he only had the loot.

He made this reflection while preparing for yesterday's NBC spectacular, "Show Biz." A regular guest star on most TV variety shows, Buster has also averaged two tours of Europe each year the past six years.

His film career is also perking again. Today he was scheduled to leave for Oklahoma to continue locations for Mike Todd's "around the World in 80 Days." He plays the conductor on an oldtime train crossing the prairie.

* * *

And Paramount is getting set to film "The Buster Keaton story," a hilarious tale of his rise from vaudeville to movie fame. They're thinking of casting Donald O'Connor or George Gobel in the title role. Buster approves of either.

"Gobel would get more laughs," Buster observed. "But O'Connor would be better for the action. He's a dancer and could handle my kind of knock-about comedy."

They even talk about having Buster play his own father, but he doesn't think much of the idea.

Despite all this activity, Buster declared he was in no financial shape to retire.

"You can't really make much out of European tours," said Buster, whose pantomine act makes a hit in France, Italy, Belgium and other countries. "I've done more TV guest shots than most stars. I've been on Ed Sullivan's show four times, the Comedy Hour five times and I'm the only one who has been on What's My Line twice.

"But you do a shot and then lay off two months. You can't save money that way."

Keaton has earned millions in his film career, which dates back to 1921. But he has little to show for it.

* * *

What happened?

Bad investments, high living, a divorce. These three combined to make him flat broke.

His divorce from Natalie Talmadge disposed of much of his fortune. She was awarded their $300,000 home in Beverly Hills, now occupied by the James Masons.

Keaton lives comfortably in his Los Angeles home with his young wife. Both are avid cooks, and Buster spends his spare time working in the garden.

Multi-Language Typewriter Used

Army Utilizes Machine Which Prints in Fifty Different Tongues

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Army today announced development of a typewriter-like device which writes in more than 50 foreign languages.

* * *

The machine enables non-linguistic Army personnel to prepare messages in totally unfamiliar foreign tongues.

The Army said the machine, which weighs 40 pounds and is somewhat larger than a standard office typewriter, will be used in mobile psychological warfare printing units.

The new multi-language device was patterned after machines made by the Ralph C. Coxhead corporation of Newark, N.J., for the composition of office forms, booklets and reports to be reproduced by the commonly used methods of mimeograph and offset printing.

The Army said that through the interchangeable type fonts employed on both the Coxhead varityper and its mate, the Coxheadliner, its problem with languages in the Latin alphabet was simple. However, the problem was different with languages having hundreds of characters, compared to the 26 letters in the English alphabet.

St. Louis Street Car, Bus Operators Strike

ST. LOUIS (AP)—All streetcars and buses in St.Louis were tied up today by a strike of AFL operators of the Public Service Co., forcing about 200,000 persons to walk or hitch a ride to work.

The strike was voted unanimously by some 1,400 union members last night.

The union rejected a 12-cent-an-hour wage increase across the board, to be granted over a 27-month period. That was the recommendation by a special mediation panel set up July 12 to end the prolonged deadlock.

Affected are 1,921 bus and streetcar operators now receiving $1.87 an hour and 544 nonoperating union employes, some receiving more and some less than the operators.

Illegal Knife Possession Brings 1-Year Probation

Miguel Rodrequez, 29, of 271 Going St., yesterday was placed on one-year probation and assessed $150 court costs by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick.

He admitted Oct. 3 having a hunting knife illegally in his possession when arrested in Pontiac Sept. 11.

'But I Wuz Framed!'

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Four boys escaped from Kentucky Village, stole a car last March 13 and wrecked it. The village superintendent did his duty and swore to warrants against them. The April grand jury did its duty and returned a grand larceny indictment. The superintendent didn't know—possibly isn't aware yet—that he was "indicted". Embarrassed court officials said yesterday the typing error will be corrected.

Susie Strasberg Wins Plaudits From the Stars

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The world's most famous theatrical hangout—Sardi's — is particularly adored by actresses . . . Helen Hayes, Marlene Dietrich and Mary Martin . . . and I suspect that it's because some waiters address all women, regardless of age, as "Young Lady."

After one waiter had said "Young Lady" all evening to my Beautiful Wife, I mischievously tried to needle the B.W. by asking him:

"Say, how old does a dame have to be in here before you quit calling her 'Young Lady'?"

"Only 18, sir," he softly replied . . . a gallantry that shamed me into silence a whole evening.

Which reminds me that Susie Strasberg, who says she's either 16 to 17—"it depends on my mood"— was the glitteriggest gal there the other night after triumphing in "The Diary of Anne Frank."

SUSIE

Marilyn Monroe, a drama student of Susan's father, Lee Strasberg, burst into Sardi's exclaiming, "Wasn't Susie wonderful?"

Susie — who has a year to go in high school — sat beside Franchot Tone during a long supper celebration of the hit.

Susie didn't start studying till she was 14 because I loathe child acting," her mother, Paula, herself an actress, said. "Outside of Helen Hayes, what child actress ever developed?"

Ruth Gordon helped her a lot, she said. "What about her father's help?" I inquired.

"Oh, Lee won't take anybody under 18!" she retorted. It left me to ask Susie how she got so terrific. "Osmosis," she replied.

Indonesian Moslems Get More Support

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — The pro-Western Moslem Masjumi party whittled down the lead of the Indonesian Nationalist party to about 600,000 today with the help of revised unofficial returns. More than 28 million ballots had been counted, about 80 per cent of the anticipated total.

Heavy majorities on Sumatra and Borneo in Indonesia's first popular national elections put the Masjumi in a position to challenge seriously the Nationalists' bid to capture the largest number of the 260 elected seats in Parliament and form a government for four years.

Pneumonia Strikes Germany's Adenauer

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has pneumonia, his doctors disclosed today.

A special medical bulletin issued by two physicians said the 79-year-old West German government chief's "feverish bronchitis has been complicated by a light bronchial pneumonia."

This was the first indication that the Chancellor is seriously ill. He has been confined to his home for the past five days.

First announcements said Adenauer was suffering only from a cold. This diagnosis was later amended to tonsillitis, and yesterday to "feverish bronchitis."

More than 1,500,000 Americans live in trailers today, most of them staying in the 7,500 trailer parks which provide for parking space, electric connections and sanitary facilities.

Wolverines Take Over No. 1 College Grid Spot

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Michigan's "champions of the West," bidding for their first national title since 1948, moved into the No. 1 spot this week in The Associated Press football poll, overhauling Maryland's mighty Terrapins, who fell to the runner-up role.

* * *

Michigan, missing from the final Top Ten since finishing 9th in 1950, proved its comeback as a national power by humiliating the proud Black Knights of Army 26-2 last Saturday. It was the third game of the season for the unbeaten Wolverines and it convinced the nation's experts.

* * *

The Wolverines were accorded top billing by a healthy 200-point margin over Maryland, which gathered a 4-0 record by whipping Wake Forest, less imposing than the previously unstopped Army machine, 28-7.

Oklahoma, with its winning string now stretched to 22 games, remained in third place, followed by a general shakeup that listed Notre Dame, Georgia Tech, Wisconsin, Texas Christian, Navy, UCLA and West Virginia in that order.

In realigning the Top Ten, the nation's sportswriters and broadcasters gave Michigan 80 first place votes—nearly four times as many as the Wolves picked up last week. Adding points on a 10 for first, 9 for second, etc., basis, Michigan wound up with a total of 1,662 after a count of the 191 ballots.

* * *

Maryland, which held the No. 1 position for two weeks, collected only 45 firsts (the Terps had 88 a week ago) and a 1,457-point total. Oklahoma was awarded 21 first-place votes and totaled 1,350 points.

* * *

The Sooners were the only team to hold its position. Notre Dame moved up a notch, shifting places with Georgia Tech. Wisconsin jumped from 9th to 6th, displacing Army, which tumbled to 18th.

Texas Christian took a step up from 8th, where Navy took over after being 12th last week. UCLA, the pre-season choice but already hung up by Maryland, slipped from 7th to 9th. West Virginia, up from 11th, replaced Southern California, upset by Washington 7-0, in 10th. The Trojans slipped to 16th.

* * *

Southern Cal gets a chance to recoup this weekend in a game with Wisconsin. Notre Dame may have a fight ahead Saturday with Michigan State, since the Spartans worried Michigan and then slammed Stanford. Georgia Tech meets Auburn, unbeaten but tied.

Those are the only toughies coming up for the Top Ten.

The leading teams with won-lost records and first-place votes in parentheses (points on 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis):

1.	Michigan (3-0) (80)	1,662
2.	Maryland (4-0) (45)	1,457
3.	Oklahoma (3-0) (21)	1,350
4.	Notre Dame (3-0) (7)	1,286

Maize and Blue Turns Out Grid Power Again

Michigan, Country's Leading 11, Differs From Yost, Crisler

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Mighty Michigan has turned out another football powerhouse.

But this team, ranked the nation's best in this week's Associated Press poll, isn't one of those razzle-dazzle clubs that used to grind out a point-a-minute while pounding its opponents into the turf.

Coach Bennie Oosterbaan's 1955 team relies on a smothering defense that gives up midfield yardage, then cuts it off inside the Michigan 30-yard-line.

In the 1920s under Coach Fielding H. (Hurry Up) Yost, the Wolverines rolled over the opposition without mercy, pounding out an astounding 2,826 points against their opponents 42 over a five-season period.

Nor is Oosterbaan's team like the "Mad Magicians" of the 1940s, whose ball handling wizardy was developed by H. O. (Fritz) Crisler, now Michigan athletic director. Crisler's squads called their shots, striking with precision and mobility anywhere on the field. Their ball handling made shadows look like halfbacks.

Oosterbaan's team has goaded opponents into making mistakes, then capitalized on them.

A 26-2 victory over Army Saturday convinced the nation's sportswriters and broadcasters that Michigan has another great team.

But the Wolverines real test is yet to come. They have six grueling battles in the Big Ten Conference coming up.

"You can fall as fast as you get up there," said Oosterbaan. "We'll take our games one at a time. Right now I'm worried about Northwestern (Saturday's opponent here)."

Michigan also had bad news yesterday. End Ron Kramer, top All-America prospect, will be sidelined for at least the next two games and possibly longer because of a chest injury suffered in the Army game.

Kramer was the big gun in Michigans 42-7 opening victory over Missouri and played a sparkling defensive game in the hard fought 14-7 conference victory over arch rival Michigan State.

IRISH STALWART—Paul Hornung is shaping up as a Notre Dame quarterback in the best Irish tradition. Hornung pitched two touchdown passes as Notre Dame whipped a strong Miami team, 14-0, and will call the signals Saturday when the South Benders face Michigan State at East Lansing.

'We Gave Ball Away'

Blaik Still Talks About Army's Loss; Spartans Refuse Scrimmage for Irish

NEW YORK (AP) — Army Coach Earl Blaik still is talking about last Saturday's 26-2 licking the Cadets took from Michigan—and he wants to forget it.

"We've seen movies of the game," he said today, "and it's sickening. Michigan wasn't hitting us harder than anyone else, but when you lose the ball on fumbles eight times as we did, you give the opposition 400 yards.

"Michigan is a fine team and I don't want to take anything away from it. But we were able to move, as deeply bottled up as we were, until we gave the ball away each time. There isn't a thing a coach can do about this. We know the boys don't want to fumble and take extra precautions, maybe too many.

"We couldn't cope with Michigan's speed and depth when we gave away the ball. We just couldn't stay with them. They were just as tough as we expected them to be."

Believe it or not, the Michigan State first stringers haven't scrimmaged since the season began and they have a date with mighty Notre Dame Saturday in the NCAA television game of the week.

Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes went against all rules of the Coaches' Union when he predicted his club might beat Duke Saturday.

"I know we have a real job on our hands," said Hayes, "but if we continue to improve we have a chance to win."

Bill Murray, the Duke pilot, was more pessimistic.

"We will not be disappointed in our defense if we are able to hold Ohio State to two touchdowns," he commented a trifle sadly. "Our team has yet to face a challenge, and we simply do not know how it will perform against a team of the calibre of Ohio State.

"The teams we have played have won a total of 1 game and lost 5 while the 4 teams we play on the upcoming Saturdays have won 11 and lost 3."

Duffy Takes It Easy With 1st String, Pointing for ND

EAST LANSING (AP) — There would appear to be a difference in opinion from the two respective football camps as to just what is required to win the Michigan State-Notre Dame game Saturday.

For instance, MSU coach Duffy Daugherty says he won't scrimmage his 1st team this week. In fact, Michigan State's 1st string hasn't scrimmaged since the football season began three weeks ago.

Then there's Irish coach Terry Brennan. He put his squad through its most bruising workout of the season today in preparation for the nationally televised game Saturday at East Lansing.

Daugherty says: "We're too thin to take chances of getting our 1st string hurt in practice scrimmages. You can only afford to do that when you're deep enough to absorb an injury or two in scrimmage. We're not that deep."

Brennan says: "The boys are tired and bruised, but we have no injuries and they need the scrimmage."

Michigan State also has no injuries, but that's where the similarity ends.

Notre Dame is treating its 1st three strings on an equal basis as far as workouts go.

Daugherty, on the other hand, yesterday assigned his promising freshman team to run through "dummy" Notre Dame plays against the varsity.

He then turned the freshmen loose for a live scrimmage against the 2nd and 3rd strings. "I'd like to develop some of these boys to replace the 1st string when they're needed," he said. "We have plenty of depth after you get by the 1st string."

Undoubtedly, most of Michigan State's football magic this season has been based on the fact that its 1st string is in top physical condition and hasn't been injured. Understandably, one or two key injuries in the 1st string could spell disaster for the Spartans.

DALLAS (AP)—The Texas League wound up is fall meeting today with the troublesome Beaumont situation apparently settled by transfer of the franchise to Austin.

Only a few details remain to be ironed out before Austin can be welcomed back into the league after a 41-year absence and Beaumont, a charter member, drops out.

Walker Still Has Hopes for Cardinal Job

ST. LOUIS (AP)— Although Fred Hutchinson reportedly has the job all but nailed down, Harry (The Hat) Walker says he hasn't "given up hope" of being back next year as manager of the St. Louis Cardinals.

If the Cardinals' new general manager, Frank Lane, hasn't made up his mind about the 1956 pilot "That's all I can ask," Walker said in a long-distance telephone conversation with the Globe-Democrat from his home at Leeds, Ala., Saturday.

"I don't know what I'll do if I lose out," the former Cardinal outfielder said, "but I think I can get a job in the top minors, if not the majors."

DETROIT — Season ticket sales for the 1955 Detroit Lions six home games totaled 36,434.

Boxer, Manager Patch Up Feud

Vince Martinez, Daly Settle Trouble; Sign Five-Year Contract

NEW YORK (AP)—Welterweight Vince Martinez and Manager Bill Daly have buried the hatchet after a family feud that prompted an investigation of an alleged "boycott" of the Paterson, N.J. boxer by the Managers' Guild.

Under terms of the new five-year private contract, the manager's share of 33 1-3 per cent will be split between Daly (23 1-3 per cent) and Anthony Martinez (10 per cent), the fighter's father.

Daly still is suspended in New York State for failure to testify at an inquiry into International Boxing Guild (Managers) affairs by the New York State Athletic Commission. However, he says he is willing to appear at any time when asked by Chairman Julius Helfand.

In the meantime, Daly is taking aim on the welterweight title held by Carmen Basilio of Canastota, N.Y., with an offer of a $75,000 guarantee for a Basilio-Martinez match in Los Angeles next summer. Basilio is defending his championship against Tony DeMarco at Boston, Nov. 30. If Basilio losses, the offer stands for DeMarco.

Yale-Columbia rivalry marks the oldest in the history of the Ivy League. They 1st met in 1872 when the Elis conquered the Lions, 3-0.

Otto, Ameche Shine

Veteran, Rookie Stars Head NFL Statistics

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A veteran and a rookie are the toast of the National Football League, the season's first statistical release disclosed today.

Cleveland's fabulous Otto Graham, who was supposed to be selling insurance instead of pitching footballs, is the top passer among Commissioner Bert Bell's professional dandies; while Alan Ameche, former Wisconsin blockbuster, leads the ball carriers.

Graham, who came back to pro football this year only to help out his old friend and coach, Paul Brown, has completed 26 of 41 passes for 393 yards, 2 for touchdowns. Only two of Graham's passes have reached enemy hands by interception. Otto has averaged 9.59 yards per flip.

Little Eddie LeBaron, quarterback of the surprising Washington Redskins, is just behind Graham, averaging 9.25 yards per pass with 25 for 51 good for 472 yards and 3 touchdowns. Bobby Thomason of the disappointing Philadelphia Eagles is third in aerial artistry with an 8.60 average based on 40 completions for 72 attempts, 619 yards and five TDs.

In the head cracking department, Ameche shows the way with 404 yards on 62 runs for an average of 6.5 per try, an excellent performance in the rugged pro loop, especially for a rookie.

The running of Ameche and the passing of George Shaw, "bonus pick" of the Western Conference-leading Colts last winter, have been outstanding features in this topsy turvey NFL campaign so far. Shaw ranks fourth among the passers averaging 8.02 yards on 23 completions of 47 attempts for 337 yards and 5 TDs.

In other departments, Pete Pihos, who tied for the pass receiving title last year, is in front with 14 caught for 178 yards; Vic Janowicz of Washington tops the scorers with 35 points on 4 touchdowns, 5 extra points and 2 field goals; Norman Van Brocklin leads the punters on a 44.3 average; Ronald Drzewiecki, rookie of the Chicago Bears, heads the punt returners with a 10.5 average; Jerry Norton of Philadelphia leads in kickoff returns with a 47.3 average, while Willard Sherman of Los Angeles tops the pass interceptors with five.

Athletics Get Top IL Hurler

Jack Crimian Worth $60,000 Price Tag Including Fricano

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Kansas City Athletics today announced the purchase of Jack Crimian, voted the International League's Most Valuable Pitcher last season, from Toronto.

The Athletics' front office said the club would give up a considerable amount of cash, pitcher Mario Fricano and another player to be named at a later date for the 28-year-old Crimian who had a 19-6 record with Toronto. The total outlay, including value of A's players involved, amounts to about $60,000 according to the club's estimate.

Crimian is the third "most valuable" purchase by the Athletics recently. Previously they acquired Rance Pless, infielder from Minneapolis who was voted most valuable player in the American Assn., and Lou Kretlow, Seattle, the Pacific Coast League's Most Valuable Pitcher.

Cubs Buy Kellert From Bums; Get Two Others

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Cubs yesterday acquired the services of first baseman-outfielder Frank Kellert from the Brookyn Dodgers and two other players from their Des Moines farm.

The other two players purchased by the Cubs are pitcher Gene Fodge, 25-year-old righthander, and infielder Bob McKee, 23.

Falcon Mascot for Air Force Athletic Teams Scratches Talon Marks on Denver Freshmen

DENVER (AP)—Fred the Falcon, a newcomer to college football, has scratched his talon marks on victim No. 1 and the imprint looks like an old pro's.

Fred, Falcon mascot for the U.S. Air Force Academy athletic teams, "drinks blood and subsists entirely on (Army) mule and (Navy) goat meat," the academy says.

He bowed in last Saturday—aboard a jet airplane—as the academy team of first-year cadets walloped the University of Denver freshmen, 34-18, before 17,785 fans—probably the largest paid crowd ever for a frosh football game.

Denver fans said they saw the "old pro" touch in the sure tackling, solid blocking and precise ball handling of the cadets. Helping in coaching them this fall has been Lawrence T. (Buck) Shaw, veteran collegiate and professional coach who was consultant for 90 days ending Sept. 30. Buck will be back next year as the full time head coach but for the present he's home in San Francisco while the Falcons sharpen their talons on regional freshmen teams.

"The Air Force has an outstanding squad, especially their ends and halfbacks," remarked Dale Hardy, Denver University freshman coach, after the game.

* * *

A Butler, Pa., quarterback, George Klutinoty, turned in one of the top performances. He passed 23 yards to John White, 185-pound fullback from Baltimore, for the academy's first touchdown after Denver jumped to a 6-0 lead with a touchdown on the first scrimmage play.

"If there was any boy who rose to the occasion it was Klutinoty," said Col. Robert Whitlow, the academy head coach. Klutinoty got the call after Eddie Rosane, No. 1 quarterback from Pasco, Wash., chipped a wrist bone a week ago. Klutinoty "stepped in and in one week really made progress," said Whitlow.

White, who caught the Falcon's first scoring pass, never played high school football in his home town. But he wrote academy history by scoring their first two touchdowns—the second on a two-yard plunge.

But the academy's show of tradition and color was as interesting as its playing on the field.

Doubt Is Cast on Legality of Winning Play

USC Mentor Can't Say Washington Pass Was OK, or Otherwise

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Was Washington's winning touchdown against USC last Saturday legal: Trojan Coach Jess Hill says he can't honesty say, even after rechecking game movies.

The play which gave the Huskies a 7-0 decision was a pass from quarterback Steve Roake to end Jim Houston who lateraled to the other end, Corky Lewis. The play was good for 80 yards on the wet field last Saturday in Seattle.

Some say Houston's knee touched the ground before he got the ball away. Others say the lateral was really a forward pass. Hill told a weekly meeting of football writers yesterday he really doesn't know.

Anyway Hill said he's worrying this week about Wisconsin whom the Trojans meet Friday night.

"We respect them, as we do all the Big Ten teams," Hill said. "But we do not fear them." Hill added that the Badgers have a "multi-multi-multi offense" utilizing every formation in football.

Phillies Drop Four From Club

Free $40,000 Bonus Hurler and 3 in Hopes of Build-Up

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies, trying to get back in contention in the National League baseball race have disposed of four more second-line players and brought up four rookies.

The latest to go were Tom Casagrande, $40,000 bonus pitcher whom the Phils gave several trials, outfielder Mel Clark, catcher Jim Command and pitcher Thornton Kipper, all of whom put in brief stints with the Phils.

Also sold to the Syracuse Chiefs was pitcher Paul Penson who was with Reidsville in the Carolina League this year.

Lakers Replace Presidents at W. Bloomfield

Students Approved Change; Past Name Remains As Tribute

Under the supervision of the West Bloomfield High School Student Council and with the popular approval of the students of the high school and junior high, the school's athletic teams will be officially named the Lakers instead of the Presidents.

According to 1956 class president Duane Vogelsburg, the name of Presidents will remain at the former high school as a tribute to past athletic teams in the school's history.

UCLA's Knox Shoved Out of Starting Slot

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—In case you've been worrying about whether Ronnie Knox will start at tailback for UCLA in its football game with Stanford Saturday, don't. He won't.

"Sam Brown is our first-string tailback, regardless of whether Knox is physically able to play," Vic Kelley, Bruins' publicity man, told northern California football writers yesterday. "He moved Knox out of the starting job on ability alone. He's one of the best tailbacks we've ever had."

As a matter of fact, Kelley added, UCLA is loaded in the line and has the backs to produce "what might be the nation's highest-scoring team."

"We are not embarrassed by the many remarks made by Ronnie's stepfather, Harvey," Kelley said. "The only Knox we're interested in is the boy. If anyone's embarrassed by the constant talk, it's possibly Ronnie himself."

Crisler Looks for Removal of TV Restrictions

Tells Chicago Group NCAA Is Gradually Easing Controls

CHICAGO (INS)—The prediction that the National Collegiate Athletic Association eventually will remove all restrictions on football television has been made by Fritz Crisler, Michigan's athletic director.

He told the weekly Quarterback Club in Chicago yesterday that "TV will keep some people at home who might otherwise attend a game but it will also make new fans."

Crisler added:

"TV is beyond the novelty stage and can be the means by which we can promote college football.

"We have to continue to feel our way, however, and some controls are still necessary but we are gradually loosening them.

"TV will contribute in some measure to our success as radio did."

The end objective, he pointed out, is the elimination of all restrictions on football television.

Another aspect of televised football came in a report from South Bend, Ind., where Ed (Moose) Krause, athletic director at Notre Dame, cited the "extremely successful" closed circuit TV game Friday night between Miami and the Irish.

Krause said the closed circuit TV telecast drew 12,400 fans at $4 per ticket in hotels in 11 cities. The game was shown on screens 15 by 20 feet.

The Irish athletic director said the expenses for the showing were $36,000 against a return of about $49,600.

Perez Staying in Lightweight

Former Featherweight Contender Felt Strong Beating Courchesne

NEW YORK (AP)—Lulu Perez will concentrate on lightweights from now on.

The clever Brooklyn youngster, once a leading featherweight contender, felt strong at 135 pounds last night when he won a fierce battle from Bobby Courchesne of Holyoke, Mass., at St. Nicholas Arena.

"I don't know what held him up," said Lulu, speaking of the seventh round when he battered Bobby from rope to rope, only to see the New England 20-year-old stage a rousing rally.

Again in the 10th, Lulu staggered Bobby and rained punches at hom for 15 seconds. At the end, game Bobby still was coming in and throwing desperate rights.

"I couldn't get going," said Bobby in the dressing room, applying an ice bag to his swollen face.

Plans Record Trial

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—England's Don Campbell, who holds the world's power boat speed record of 202.32 MPH, was expected to fly in today for another race against time this week on Lake Mead.

Campbell sent word he will enter boat trials Thursday and Friday and make an attempt Saturday to break his own speed record. His boat, Blue Bird, is jet-propelled.

Trabert Expected to Quit Amateur Net Ranks Today

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Amateur tennis champion Tony Trabert is expected to turn professional today.

Promoter Jack Kramer said the signing awaits only completion of attorneys' studies of the fine print in the contract and "I don't expect anything to hold up the deal."

Kramer expects not only to bring Trabert, the U.S. and Wimbledon champion, into the pro ranks but also the Australian Davis Cup aces, Lewis Hoad and Ken Rosewall. Snaring this trio, rating as the world's three best amateurs, would constitute the biggest pro tennis raid in history.

* * *

Kramer's attorney and Trabert's brother, Marc, a Cincinnati, Ohio, lawyer, were going over a few revisions each side asked in the proposed contract. Marc Trabert flew here yesterday.

The promoter declined to give the actual amount offered Trabert but said the amateur king will get more than Australia's Frank Sedgman did when he turned pro. Sedgman got a $7,000 guarantee against a percentage of the gross that carried him somewhat above that figure.

Kramer said publicity over the Sedgman offer "cost me, as Tony just had to look back at the news stories to see how much Sedgman got. Naturally, he asked for more, and will get it. From now on I'm playing it like they do in baseball. Let there be speculation only."

As for Hoad and Rosewall, Kramer said he has had several telephone calls from Australia "which lead me to believe that the two will sign." Reports are that Hoad and Rosewall have been offered $50,000 each.

Hoad said in Hong Kong yesterday that he had not decided and will talk things over with his wife and family.

Mickey Tops, Kaline Close as Sluggers

NEW YORK (AP)—Finishing with a flourish, the New York Giants' Willie Mays captured National League slugging honors for the second straight season, compiling a .659 average after a mid-season slump that caused him to be benched for a few days.

* * *

The young center fielder had a .581 slugging mark and had hit only 17 homers when he was benched June 19. From then on he proceeded to find the range as he wound up with 51 home runs, most in the league, and also boosted his batting average 40 points.

* * *

Statistics compiled by The Associated Press revealed that Mays accumulated 382 total bases in 580 at bats. Slugging averages are computed by dividing a player's number of times at bat into his total bases.

* * *

The New York Yankees' Mickey Mantle, with 316 total bases in 517 trips, topped the American League with a .611 slugging percentage. The switch-hitting outfielder also led his league in homers with 37.

* * *

History repeated itself for Mays as he again had to beat out his rival center fielder, Duke Snider of Brooklyn. In 1954 Mays edged Snider by 20 points. This past season Snider's slugging average was .628 and he finished 31 points behind the Say-Hey Kid. The Duke of the Dodgers, whose home-run swatting was a big factor in Brooklyn's World Series success, amassed 338 total bases in 538 at bats.

* * *

Mays' collection of 185 hits included 18 doubles and 13 triples. Snider's extra-base output numbered 34 doubles, six three-baggers and 42 circuit-clouts among his 166 hits.

* * *

Mantle, third during the 1954 season, easily outdistanced the American League field. His nearest pursuer, Detroit's Al Kaline, compiled a .546 slugging mark and wound up 65 points behind Mantle.

Included among Mantle's 158 hits were 25 doubles and 11 triples. Kaline, the batting leader, collected 321 total bases in 588 trips.

The only player in both leagues to obtain 200 hits, Kaline's extra bases output included 24 doubles, eight triples and 27 homers.

* * *

Ted Williams of Boston far outdistanced Mante, with a resounding .703 slugging average on a total of 225 bases in 320 official at bats. League headquarters ruled however, that he was ineligible for the slugging title because he had too few at bats.

Area Gridders Prepare for 2nd Half of Loop Seasons in Friday Contests

A chant of "two down and three to go" was echoing about the practice fields at Inter-Lakes League high schools Monday afternoon as the gridders prepared to plunge into the 2nd half of the 1955 slate on Friday.

In an afternoon contest, Waterford Skippers hope to better their 1-1 loop record when they travel to Farmington which as yet hasn't seen the light of a league victory after suffering two setbacks.

Skipper head coach Dave Freeman pasted a 37-0 defeat on the Falcon's last year but said yesterday "that we don't expect such an easy battle this week because Farmington has improved both offensively and defensively. It has a much better balanced club this year.

Southfield, which shares the I-L top slot with Van Dyke, will have its record tested as the Jays host Walled Lake Vikings in another I-L contest. Southfield hasn't allowed a league opponent to cross its goal line this year. Jays worked hard yesterday on pass defense and correcting last week's errors, in preparation for the Viking invasion.

In the single night game, top-ranked Van Dyke Abes will seek win number three against scoreless Berkley on their home field. In four games, Bears has given up 137 points to the opposition.

Veteran Romeo head coach Dan Barnabo will send his undefeated charges against a spirited Lapeer eleven at Lapeer. In their last three matches, Bulldogs have held opponents scoreless and have only sacrificed 21 points in the 1st contest against Richmond (25-21)

Oxford, fresh from its 1st win last week over Ortonville, will tangle with Lake Orion, Oakland-B loop squad presently resting in the league basement with three straight defeats. Contest is scheduled for Lake Orion.

Gene Konley's Rochester eleven has an open date while winless Bloomfield Barons tackles Fraser in a Suburban Southeastern clash in the Hills. South Lyon will journey to Manchester.

Bud's Team Boot Sooner Opponents Deep in Hole

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Opponents of the undefeated, untied Oklahoma Sooners have a kick coming against Texas last week. Four times.

This potent portion of the Sooners' offense came into its own against Texas laszt week. Four quick kicks set the Longhorns back so deep they wore themselves out trying to come out of the hole.

"You try to move the ball," is the way Coach Bud Wilkinson laughingly explained the strategy of the quick kick, Oklahoma style, yesterday.

Wilkinson's football teams have always used the quick kick as a means of chasing foes back in their own ballwick. But this year's club, riding a string of 22 victories and third-ranked nationally, never demonstrated it so effectively as it did beating Texas, 20-0.

Fullback Billy Pricer booted three of the four beauties, one into the end zone actually traveling some 62 yards and the others around 50. Halfback Clendon Thomas got off a 49-yard effort.

The four kicks had these effects:

No. 1. chased Texas back from Oklahoma's 29 to the Steers' 20.

No. 2. rocked Texas back to its own 20, 80 long yards away from a touchdown.

No. 3. put Texas back on its own 31.

No. 4. left Texas stranded on its own 5, with 95 yards to travel for a touchdown and not enough elbow room to work up steam.

Cross Country Team Aims for 36th Victory

Chiefs' Distance Men Match Strides Today With Flint Central

Pontiac High School's cross-country "juggernaught" today hopes to roll along to its 36th straight victory in dual engagements.

Every time the harriers win another, without loss, they hang up a new record for the school. The string of consecutive wins in dual competition is believed to be the longest in state prep circles for this sport.

Today's opponents are Flint Central's Indians. Meet is set for 4 p.m. at Beaudette Park.

Chiefs are favored to chalk up the new mark. Central's harriers were beaten by Royal Oak, which recently was a rather easy one for the speedy PHS team.

Coach Wally Schloerke said his team would include the "tie twins" Perry Williams and Bill Douglas. These lads have finished in 1st place ties in every meet so far. They'll probably do it again today. They will aim for a 10:50 mark for the two miles.

Others who have been high finishers include Rod Treais, Gene Cretal, Pete Cox, Don Evans and Alex Barge.

Pontiac is generally conceded four out of five of the top places. Central's only real threat is said to be Larry Tilley, who may give the leaders some tough competition.

Chiefs will be in action again Friday, against Flint Northern, at Beaudette Park. After that one comes the Valley meet at a neutral Flint course, Oct. 20.

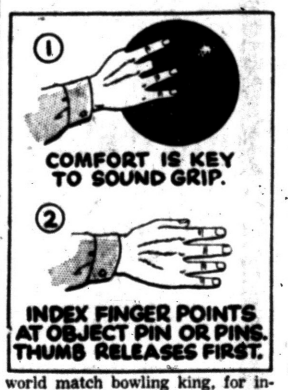
Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

POINT FOR CONTROL—Champions in most sports do something different to distinguish them from the rest. Charlie Daw, former world match bowling king, for instance, used the index finger pointing system to reach fame. Until he suddenly hit on it he was just another bowler.



The method is simple, and it could be what you need. Concentrate on pointing the index finger at the target pin or pins at ball-release. With index action you regulate the amount of lift-and-turn on the ball, and you eliminate the common urge to overturn the wrist. The index finger "stays on the target." Also, the arm swings through all the way, which is very important. Your hook will be short, but finger-lifting action will give it spilling spin. If you give the index method a try, stick to medium speed for best results.

Janowicz Spark in 'Skins Top-Rating

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nobody has stopped Vic Janowicz inside the five-yard line yet and that's about as good a reason as any that the Washington Redskins are up with the leaders in the National Football League.

The Redskins were bounced from the unbeaten by the Chicago Cardinals Sunday, 24-10, but it wasn't the fault of Janowicz. He scored all 10 points, for a probable league lead in total points. Vic has accounted for 38 points in three games.

* * *

"That boy has really got determination," Coach Joe Kuharich said today. "When he gets that ball, he believes he's going to score every time."

* * *

Janowicz, you may remember, quit footbal after an illustrious career at Ohio State for a try at major league baseball with the Pittsburgh Pirates. But he didn't make the grade there and joined the Redskins last season. He is 25 years old and weighs 190 pounds.

* * *

Kuharich used him exclusively on defense last season and he still figures that Vic is as good a defensive halfback as he has. But Janowicz has been switched to the offense now except when he is needed to guard against passes in an emergency.

In each of Washington's first three games, Janowicz has cracked over his own right tackle for touchdowns from inside the 5 on his first try. He also has caught a pass for a touchdown, kicked two field goals and eight extra points.

* * *

So far he has scored more than half of Washington's entire 68-point total this season.

* * *

Owner George Preston Marshall quipped: "We don't let him run too often. We don't want to break up the league."

* * *

Next Sunday, however, Janowicz will be doing a lot of running. The club's other left halfback, Leo Elter, broke a bone in his left hand against the Cardinals and will be unable to play in Washington's return game with the Cleveland Browns.

The 'Skins upset the Browns, 27-17, in an earlier game at Cleveland and first place will be at stake here Sunday. The Cardinals and Pittsburgh Steelers also are in the four-way tie for first place in the NFL's Eastern Division.

Janowicz is a bit of rarity in pro football's two-platooning. He is an excellent defensive player, a first-rate runner and not only kicks field goals and extra points but punts, does the booting on kickoffs and is no slouch as a passer.

Lane Indicates He's Still High on Hutchinson

Former Tiger Manager May Be Named at Press Confab, Wednesday

ST. LOUIS (AP)—It appeared certain today that Frank Lane, new St. Louis Cardinal general manager, was speaking of Fred Hutchinson when he dismissed the question of the club's 1956 field manager with one sentence: "We'll name him Wednesday at a press conference."

Lane, the trading wizard of baseball, wouldn't say much more yesterday about the managerial job. As a week-long Cardinal organizational meeting began, Lane preferred to speculate about possible trades to help the club.

He had previously mentioned Hutchinson, manager of the 1955 pennant-winning Seattle club of the Pacific Coast League and former Detroit Tigers manager; Harry (The Hat) Walker, who took over as Redbird pilot when Eddie Stanky was fired last May and a third party he wouldn't identify as still in the running for the job.

Since then, reports have persisted Hutchinson has the job sewed up.

Walker, declaring he hadn't given up hope of being retained, arrived yesterday for a private conference with Lane. But Walker said last night the conference hadn't come off.

The unidentified third party was believed to be Jimmy Keane, Omaha manager.

"I'm looking for the man I think can do the job for me," the former White Sox general manager said. "If he fails on the field, then I'll fail in the front office."

Asked if Hutchinson was due in town, the 59-year-old Lane paused, then finally said, "Well, yes, if there is a reason for him to be here."

As for trades, Lane said "We're just in the talking stage now."

The man who made 241 deals involving 353 players in seven years at Chicago said he's already talked to Wid Mathews of the Chicago Cubs, Buzzy Bavasi of the Brooklyn Dodgers, Roy Hamey of the Philadelphia Phillies, Joe Cronin of the Boston Red Sox and Gabe Paul of the Cincinnati Reds.

Notre Dame entered its 67th football season with a record of 424 victories, 86 losses and 34 ties.

'New' Rangers Win Two Games in Row

NEW YORK (AP)—"What's so surprising about the Rangers winning two games in a row" snapped Coach Phil Watson today. "These are the new Rangers, you know."

He emphasized the "new."

The New York Rangers, the whipping boys of the National Hockey League for more than a decade, were riding undefeated when they arrived back in their home town—two victories in the first two games.

Watson might not be surprised that the club has won its first two games, but he's probably the only one in New York who isn't. The last time the Rangers won the first two games of the season was in 1941, the last time, incidentally, they finished atop the NHL standings.

They haven't been better than fourth since.

Stan Intihar, 6 foot 4 Cornell end from Euclid, Ohio, returned to action with a brilliant performance against Lehigh after missing 1954 due to ineligibility.

Buddy Dike, Texas Christian fullback who suffered a kidney injury last season, is coaching the freshman team for TCU.

Ayling Scores Twice in Alma's 21-6 Win

Pontiac's Dick Ayling accounted for two touchdowns to pace Alma Adrian in an MIAA game Saturday College to a 21-6 victory over at Alma. It was Alma's 4th straight win and 2nd in the MIAA league.

Ayling, who quarterbacks the undefeated Scots, passed to Marv Rab for a 39-yard TD on the 3rd play of the game, the winners' 1st score. Ayling plunged over from the one in the 3rd quarter for the Scots' 2nd touchdown.

First time that Nashua ever ran worse than 2nd was in the recent Sysonby at Belmont Park when he finished 3rd against older horses.

Hillsdale, Central Backs Leading Michigan Scorers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A pair of quick-striking halfbacks — Nate Clark of Hillsdale and Bernie Raterink of Central Michigan—lead the state's individual scoring parade today with 42 points apiece.

Each has scored seven touchdowns, mostly from long range, in a duel for the No. 1 spot.

Alma's Marv Raab, the 1953 scoring champion, is 3rd with 36 points, followed by Michigan's Ron Kramer (25), Ferris' Russ McLean (25) and Michigan State's Jerry Planutis (23).

Raterink, a 6-foot, 180-pound senior from Zeeland, has scored his touchdowns on runs of 4, 44, 67, 66, 38 and 54 yards, plus a 75-yard punt return.

He scored three times in Central Michigan's record 61-0 romp over Northern Illinois Saturday.

In that same game, the state's 1954 scoring champion—Jim Podoley — made his debut for Central Michigan, and scored twice. With five games left, the spectacular Podoley has a chance to retain his title.

Nate Clark tallied his seven TD's on an 85-yard punt return, runs of 18, 2, 20, 54 and 1, plus a 27-yard pass reception. He also has thrown one touchdown strike, covering 35 yards.

Mamie Works Overtime on 'Thank You' Letters

DENVER (AP)—The White House says Mamie Eisenhower so far has signed more than 11,000 "thank you" notes acknowledging part of the "tens of thousands" of get-well messages President Eisenhower has received.

* * *

And she intends to go on signing more—and means to see that every message gets a reply, James C. Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary, said yesterday.

Hagerty said he checked the statement about more than 11,000 signatures with Mrs. Eisenhower herself before making it public, and he later reiterated the figure.

IDENTICAL REPLIES

Hagerty didn't say so, but a big share of the replies Mrs. Eisenhower is sending out probably are identical. The latter are prepared for her signature by a secretarial staff.

* * *

The First Lady has been at the hospital since a few hours after the President was hospitalized Sept. 24.

* * *

"It is, of course, impossible to answer personally all of the mail, which right now totals tens of thousands," Hagerty said. Form cards are being prepared to acknowledge messages which do not get a personal reply.

"Both the President and Mrs. Eisenhower are deeply grateful for the thousands of 'get well' wishes and prayers for recovery that have come from people throughout the nation and the world," Hagerty said.

* * *

He reported that Mrs. Eisenhower—who has had a heart condition herself since childhood—is feeling "fine" and bearing up well.

Army Contracts to Firms Up 31 Per Cent in 1954

DETROIT (AP) — Army contracts to small businesses for tank and automotive equipment increased 31 per cent during the past fiscal year, the Ordnance Tank-Automotive Command has announced.

Brig. Gen. Nelson M. Lynde Jr. said 1,200 contracts totaling 17 million dollars were awarded to small businesses throughout the country compared with 988 contracts for 10 million dollars the previous year.

He defined "small" businesses as those employing fewer than 500 persons.

Soybeans Down in Slow Deals

CHICAGO (AP)—A slightly easier undertone prevailed in grains on the Board of Trade today. Dealings were slow in all pits.

Soybeans sank around a cent at times while wheat was off for losses of major fractions. Both recovered much of their early loss. Feed grains held up better than the rest of the list.

A government crop report was scheduled for issuance after the market's close. This tended to hold down trading, particularly in soybeans.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was unchanged to ⅜ lower, December $2.05⅝; corn unchanged to ⅛ higher, December $1.30⅞; oats unchanged to ⅛ higher, December 64¼; rye ¼ to ¾ lower, December $1.13¼; soybeans ½ lower to ½ higher, November $2.38¾, and lard 5 cents lower to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher, October $11.30.

$21 Million Used on 1956 Rambler

American Motors Plans Sales Program Around 'Cornerstone' Model

BURLINGTON, Wis. (INS) — American Motors Corp. said today it spent $21 million on the development of the 1956 model Rambler—the most completely redesigned passenger car in the low price field.

The new Rambler has been designated the "cornerstone" on which the company expects to increase its business by about 40 per cent next year.

The company said it was aiming at more than 150,000 sales of the Rambler and more than 100,000 sales of the standardized Nashes and Hudsons.

AMC President George Romney previewed the Rambler for almost 200 newsmen at a summer resort near the company's proving ground at Burlington, Wis. Hudson Hornet, Wasp, Nash Ambassador and Statesmen models were previewed yesterday.

Romney said:

"Only American Motors is building cars of the compact type. Our objective is to have a broad line of cars built on the cornerstone of the Rambler.

"We expect to see the time when compact cars will represent a substantial share of the American market."

Romney predicted a "gradually diminishing share of the market" for the "large type of car that has been getting bigger and bulkier."

The new Rambler, which will be included in both Nash and Hudson lines, will be introduced publicly on Dec. 15.

Market Rallies After Big Selloff

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market rallied today and moved higher in early trading after a selloff at the start.

Prices were up between 1 and 3 points at the best while losses extended to around a point.

There was an initial rush of trading at the opening that sent prices down abruptly in the fourth day of decline. The tape fell behind briefly in reporting the course of trading, and prices began to recover their balance and started to advance.

Yesterday's market broke sharply in one of the great declines of the past 25 years. It was the third Monday break since the announcement of President Eisenhower's illness.

Among good gainers today were Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Boeing, Glenn Martin, American Telephone, Anaconda Co., Du Pont Aluminum Ltd., New York Central, Texas Co., and Stanard Oil.

Lower were Goodrich, Magma Copper, Reynolds Metals, Baltimore & Ohio, Eastern Air Lines, and Hiram Walker.

Small GE Appliances Cut Fair Trade Price

DETROIT (AP) — General Electric Co. is abandoning fair trade pricing of small appliances in Michigan as a result of the State Supreme Court's new interpretation of the state law on fair trade.

This was announced in Bridgeport, Conn., last night by a spokesman for General Electric's small appliance division. He said a recent decision of the State Supreme Court puts a new interpretation on the law, and "As it now stands, the Michigan fair trade law is practically unenforceable, and places the dealers which signed contracts with us in an untenable position."

The GE spokesman said the company's new policy applied only to Michigan, and would not affect policies in other states.

Curbs Slowing Business Boom

Home Builders Argue Tightening of Credits Hampers Progress

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Tight money is slowing down some phases of the business boom. Some of those being pinched, such as home builders are complaining.

* * *

Businessmen are paying the most for loans from New York banks since September 1953. The Federal Reserve Bank of New York reports average rates here rose sharply in the first half of September to 3.48 per cent. This results from a firmer money policy of the Federal Reserve System.

* * *

As interest rates rise, the prices of U.S. Government securities fall. Banks often sell such securities to get money for loans to business. But if they sell them now they must take a loss, and that makes them look twice at a businessman's application for a loan.

TIGHTEN MORTGAGES

The rapid rise of home mortgages to record levels caused the government to tighten up a little on mortgage terms. Builders say the tighter credit is now taking hold.

* * *

There's usually a lag of one to two months between contract awards and the start of construction. The building agency looks for home starts to taper off the rest of this year.

The government apparently is attaining its objective of an "inflation free" level of new home building of between 1,200,000 and dent of the U. S. Savings and 1,300,000 new homes a year, Norman Strunk, executive vice president of the U. S. Savings and Loan League, says today.

Industrial Workers' Earnings Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — The average weekly earnings of industrial workers increased about 2 per cent during September to hit a record high, the government reported yesterday.

The Commerce and Labor Departments, in a joint announcement, said weekly earnings in manufacturing average $77.90 in September, an increase of $1.57 over August. The figure was up about $6 from a year ago.

September employment — estimated at 64,733,000 — also was reported topping all previous marks for the month. The September figure was 755,000 lower than for August, but this was expected because of students leaving summer jobs to return to school. As it was, September employment was well above the 62,145,000 reported a year earlier.

Unemployment declined 88,000 during September, to 2,149,000. This was the lowest figure since November 1953.

The report attributed the rise in average weekly earnings to longer working hours as well as pay increases. It said the factory work week rose a half hour to 41 hours in September — 1.3 hours more than a year ago.

Minneapolis Couple Open Suit for Custody of Son

DETROIT (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Borschell of Minneapolis filed suit in Wayne County circuit court yesterday to obtain custody of their 16-month-old son. A hearing has been set for Oct. 18 on a habeas corpus writ.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Levitt of Detroit have been caring for the baby, Daniel, since he was four days old. They said Mrs. Borschell gave them the child before she was married to Borschell.

Levitt, a floor covering salesman, said he was working in Minneapolis last year when a lawyer asked him if he wanted to adopt a child. He said a physician arranged for him to take the baby.

The Detroit couple filed a petition this summer to adopt the child in Michigan.

FAILED IN ATTEMPT

Levitt said he returned to Minneapolis in July in what proved to be a fruitless effort to gain the necessary written consent from the mother, plus a religious waiver. Both are required by Michigan law.

When he failed to gain consent, Detroit Probate Judge Nathan J. Kaufman dismissed the adoption petition.

Charles Bishop, attorney representing the Minneapolis couple, termed the situation "regrettable."

* * *

"The Levitts ran an inexcusable risk in obtaining the child outside the regular agencies usually consulted in these matters," Bishop said.

5 Thieves Hold Victims 12 Hours

Gun-Wielding Robbers Finally Grab $6,000 From Brooklyn Eatery

NEW YORK (AP) — Five patient robbers took over a Brooklyn restaurant at gunpoint yesterday and, holding employes at bay, waited nearly 12 hours for the manager, from whom they stole about $6,000.

The robbers forced the cook to serve them meals during the siege.

* * *

Around 2:30 a.m. the five took a cook and two porters by surprise at Tappen's Seafood Restaurant on Sheepshead Bay, the three employes were the last ones on the job and were ust about to leave.

When told that only the manager had the combination to the safe and he would not be in until noon, nounced, "Okay, we'll wait." The restaurant is not open Mondays.

The gunmen had the restaurant workers lie on the floor with tablecloths over their heads. During the morning they were joined by a laundryman and his helper, an electrician and three helpers, and an exterminator.

* * *

Rather than kep guard over so many people, the robbers decided to lock them in the refrigerator. To help them keephwarn in the 40-degree temperature, the robbers gave them whisky, cigarettes and coffee.

When manager Peter Chahales, 34, arrived, the robbers got him to open the safe then locked him with the others.

The cold room captives were finally freed by Chahales' father Nick, 66, whom the robbers had tied up outside rather than put a man his age in the refrigerator.

Charity Fraud Plea Dismissed by Court

A plea for review of the conviction of Morrison T. Wade and his wife, Bessie Lou, for fraudulent operation of a charity in 1951, has been turned down by the United States Supreme Court.

The high court yesterday granted a motion by the State of Michigan to dismiss the plea of the Wades, who live at 3402 Wards Point Dr., Orchard Lake Village.

They were convicted following a one-man grand jury investigation of the Society of Good Neighbors. Wade was managing director of the charity society.

Sentenced to serve from 4 to 10 years in prison, Wade started his term Oct. 15, 1954. Within two weeks he was freed on $5,000 bond pending the high court ruling.

Mrs. Wade was placed on five years' probation and fined $5,000 in the $75,000 fraud case.

The Wades' attorney, Larry S. Davidow, of Detroit, said today he will make application to the Supreme Court to reconsider its dismissal. Wade remains free in the meantime.

Lonardi Ponders Return of Free Argentine Press

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) — The International Press Institute reported today it has been advised by the office of Argentine provisional President Lonardi that the return of Argentina's independent newspapers to their owners is under consideration.

A message signed by Richardo A. Alizondo of Lonardi's office in Buenos Aires said the question of the newspapers seized by former President Peron has been turned over to the ministries of interior and justice.

Wilkowski Is Denied Supreme Court Review

WASHINGTON (AP) — Anthony J. Wilkowski was denied a Supreme Court review yesterday of his efforts to compel Michigan to swear him in as a state senator.

Wilkowski served a sentence for fraudulent election ballot changes.

Gimmick Picks People Who Have Contributed to Public Welfare

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — "The Big Surprise," first degree kin of "The $64,000 Question," having the same parent, one Louis G. Cowan, made its TV debut Saturday evening.

* * *

It took its place in the family tree as a very sad, very poor relation, for all its gaudy giveaway promises of $100,000. Actually, it gave away $1,001 to two persons selected for their fine deeds, but didn't manage even to let go of that.

Its format bears a strong resemblance in mood and method to other pretentious trifles seen on TV daytimes, such as "Strike It Rich," "On Your Account," and "Welcome Travelers."

The gimmick of "The Big Surprise," is to find persons who have done something unquestionably noble and "repay" them for their selfless civic-mindedness.

LAUD AND APPLAUD

Not just giving them the reward, of course—have them there to be lauded and applauded and then fire questions at them with the prizes starting at $1 and then rising through $10, $100, $1,000, $10,000, up to the promissory $100,000.

The last impressive sum remained as elusive on "The Big Surprise" as the poor lass on "Truth or Consequences" the night before who had $10,000 laid in front of her, was advised she could have it for the picking up, but carefully was hypnotized first into an inability to lift a hand in its direction.

This new one selected a police sergeant whose efforts resulted in freeing a falsely accused man from prison. Naturally they had the man thus so dramatically sprung right there in the studio audience to heighten the emotional sock.

They also imported a worthy gentleman from Richmond, Va., who had done right by youngsters, got them off the streets, into baseball uniforms.

Four questions about himself or his job brought the officer $1,000, then he missed.

The show prepared for just such a calamity—a lady had been selected from the audience (the studio audience registers on cards as they file in), sort of a "helping hand."

The lady knew Tom Dewey and Earl Warren ran for election in 1948, so the police officer's failure was arrested and he can come back next week to start at $10,000 again. The lady's reward—10 per cent of everything the policeman wins from now on.

The Richmond, Va., man, plainly eligible for any reward given simply and freely, was introduced by the whole kids' ball team.

Emcee Jack Barry asked one question before the show arrived at its closing commercial, and the man was winner of a one noisly announced buck.

When the Richmond man contemplated his one dollar, Barry enthused in that special fabricated glee utilized by quiz emcees;

"By golly, I've got a notion you're going to run this up to $100,000.'"

So, you see, though the show suggests $100,000 is its weekly prize, actually it gave away nothing—not even $1,001. Not even entertainment.

SPEECH THROUGH UF AVENUE—Bobby Dale Reynolds, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Reynolds of 76 State St., improves his speech through special education at Whittier School. The youth, a cerebral palsy victim, is being aided by speech therapist Beverly Eaton. The therapy is made available through the United Cerebral Palsy Assn., via the United Fund.

UF Education Aiding Palsy Victim

This is the story of a boy — one of the many appealing boys and girls in your city afflicted with cerebral palsy who is now being helped through special education.

Speech therapy is made available to children though the United Cerebral Palsy Assn.

Your United Fund contributions help to support the United Cerebral Palsy Assn.

* * *

Bobby Dale Reynolds, 11, is a youth who plays an excellent game of chess — but who requires special education to help him to do little things that come easily to other boys and girls — things such as talking or tying his shoes.

Bright — with a twinkle in his eye and a bit of mischief in his makeup, Bobby looks just like the normal boy of 11, though he is a bit small for his age.

However his spastic efforts — hesitant gait and difficulty in speech — denote him to be a victim of cerebral palsy.

Though Bobby was a premature baby and considered not too robust, no one noticed anything different about the boy until he had a "sick spell" at the age of nine months. His mother, said that this could have been polio.

It is believed that it was this illness that caused injury to Bobby's brain, leading to cerebral palsy.

The boy didn't attempt, after his illness, to walk or talk until he was three years old.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Reynolds of 76 State St., took him to the Detroit Orthopedic Clinic at the age of four years, and made regular visits there afterward.

However, no doctor has ever stated exactly how much of Bobby's trouble is due to cerebral palsy and how much to polio.

What is really helping the boy now is his attendance at special education classes for the handicapped held at Whittier School. His mom says he had no control of his tongue until the speech therapist there, Beverly Eaton, started giving him special training.

Now, though Bobby speaks haltingly, he can be readily understood.

About this, his mom says, "I can't say enough for what Miss Eaton has done for Bobby. I am wholeheartedly in favor of the program."

The program of which she is speaking is speech therapy, under special education at Whittier.

Need Skinny Port Chiefs

SEATTLE (AP)—To accommodate more cars outside the Port Commission's headquarters painters laid out one set of parking lanes so close together the average-size driver can't squeeze out of his car once its parked. One port official said, "We're either going to have to get broader parking strips or thinner commissioners."

Post Office Slaps Probe Charges

Rebukes Solon's Counts of 'Illegal' Means Used in Firing Postmasters

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Post Office Department says Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) is "wholly misinformed" and "totally incorrect" in his charges that postmasters have been fired by "illegal and political" means.

This was the department's preliminary reply last night to Johnston's charges, made in a statement announcing a "sweeping" investigation.

The department reserved its full-dress reply for a speech to be delivered today by Norman R. Abrams, assistant postmaster general, to a postmasters convention in Detroit. The department promised Abrams' speech would "fully and completely" refute Johnston's charges.

Meantime, Sen. Carlson (R-Kan) said in a telephone interview from his Concordia, Kan., home that Republicans would "welcome" the Johnston investigation. Johnston is chairman of the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee. Carlson is the group's ranking Republican member.

Johnston said committee investigators now are checking on a large number of complaints. He said that eventually public hearings will be held in Michigan, Texas, California, Illinois, Missouri, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and North Carolina.

Trailer, Train Crash
