First Building Rising for MSUO

Probers Charge Hoffa Hides Use of Funds

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Teamster President James R. Hoffa testified today that a $5,000 check he received from the Union and listed as income on his tax return was spent for "organizational purposes."

He told the Senate Rackets Committee he listed the amount as income and paid a tax on it on the advice of his accountant because he had no bills to prove it was used for orgainzational expenses.

"I got stuck pretty good," he said.

The committee questioned Hoffa about the check in the course of tracing a number of incidents Chairman John L. McLellan (D-Ark) described as "cover-up transactions."

The stocky Teamster boss bristled at some of the questions and comments, and snapped his answers in a hard, flat voice.

"Mr. Hoffa," committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy told him at one point, "in the last five minutes you've unveiled exactly what you are."

"I don't care what you think I am," Hoffa retorted.

One of the matters the committee inquired into was an $11,000 union check drawn for cash in 1953. Hoffa said it was a loan "for organization purposes" to Gerald P. Connelly, secretary-treasurer of Local 548 in Minneapolis, Minn.

Hoffa conceded the loan didn't show in the records at that time. But he said the $11,000 was carried as "cash on hand" so he would be responsible for the money if Connelly failed to repay it. He said it was repaid two or three years later.

"Mr. Hoffa," McClellan said, "that is what gives us concern. Too frequently we find these cover-up transactions" where union records did not reflect the true use of union funds.

"You may think that's the way to run a union," McClellanl continued, "but others would disagree."

Earlier Hoffa explained that a $2,000 check for cash was used to buy an automobile for Eugene San Soucie, head of an Indianapolis, Ind., local, as part of the union's campaign to discourage auto dealers from driving new cars from Detroit rather than having them hauled by Teamster-driven trucks.

★ ★ ★

He said San Soucie was instructed to buy the car so it could be shown that customers for new cars actually were getting "used cars" driven several hundred miles.

He said he did not want it to appear that San Soucie bought

Faubus Moves Integration Vote Up to Sept. 27

'Time Is of Essence' in Little Rock Now, Governor Explains

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus today advanced the date of the scheduled vote in Little Rock on the question of integrating the city's schools from Oct. 7 to Sept. 27, saying "time is of the essence."

A planned demonstration by pupils at Hall City School against the closing failed to materialize.

Only 10 boys appeared, preparing to stage a sit-down protest, they said. Guards ordered them to leave.

Today was the second day of what would have been the start of the fall school term in Little Rock. Faubus by proclamation last Friday ordered the schools not to open.

This was five hours after the Supreme Court ruled against further delay in enrolling Negro pupils.

Faubus criticized the Little Rock School Board for a "cruel and unnecessary blow to the children" in canceling this year's football schedule and other extra-curricular activities.

"This move yesterday was just spite. The board is using the children in its own pressure campaign in this cold war for integration," he said.

The scheduled referendum gives the voters an opportunity to say whether they want the schools to be reopened on an integrated basis.

The new date falls on a Saturday. Elections normally are held on Tuesday in Arkansas.

Should the people vote against reopening the schools on an integrated basis, Faubus presumably will move ahead with plans to operate them as private schools.

Hall pupils said about 25 of them had planned to go to the school today. They said they were going to take their lunches and sit down on the grounds to protest against Faubus' action. Only 10 appeared.

★ ★ ★

Another group of about 40 boys also came to the school. However, they said they were members of the football team and had come to inquire about their status of eligibility.

One of them, James Rule, was asked if he would go back to Hall if Negroes were in the classrooms.

"I don't want to answer that question," he said.

Another, James Mitchell said: "We want the people of the state to know our feelings in the closing of the school. We have nothing to do during the time the schools are closed and now our parents are beginning to worry about us."

Quiet prevailed at Central High, scene of the riots last year and

Settle Before Deadline or Strike, Says Reuther

3,000 Walk Out at Ford in Chicago; Tension Rises Throughout Industry

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

DETROIT — Tension mounted in the auto industry today with nearly 3,000 workers walking off the job at two Ford plants in Chicago more than 24 hours in advance of tomorrow's 10 a.m. (EST) strike deadline at Ford Motor Co.

The United Auto Workers Union and Ford were termed "within reach" of a contract agreement but UAW president Walter P. Reuther left little doubt that Ford will be struck unless the settlement is reached by the deadline.

"We have made it very clear that a strike will be called at 10 a.m. tomorrow morning if a settlement is not reached by that time," Reuther said as he entered the last-ditch bargaining session with Ford this morning.

He said "we have no intention of changing that deadline for any purpose."

The walkouts at Ford's assembly and stamping plants in Chicago were not unexpected. In 1955, when another strike deadline passed at Ford, there was scattered strike activity in advance of the deadline.

A Ford spokesman in Chicago said the strikes were "unauthorized." The union said they were prompted by disciplinary action against an employe and an alleged production speedup.

Ford presented an offer for a three-year contract to the union late yesterday. General Motors and Chrysler tendered almost identical offers within 18 minutes of the Ford offer.

OFFER REJECTED

The union rejected the Ford offer and made a counter offer before the talks broke up at about midnight.

Reuther said "We have rejected the company offer and have a counter offer in the areas in which there is disagreement. At the moment, there is still time to reach an agreement although there is a great difference in some areas."

Although details of both the company's offer and the Union's counter offer were withheld, some details became available through various sources.

Ford Vice President John S. Bugas first revealed that the offer was for a three-year contract.

An authoritative spokesman later disclosed the offer would include pay hikes of between 24 and 30 cents over three years.

The Union originally asked for benefits which would have cost 73 cents per hour per employe according to company estimates. They were later scaled down to a company-estimated 48 cents an hour and stood at that point when the company presented its offer.

Reuther refused to say which areas of the company offer he

Big Three Proposals to UAW

DETROIT (AP) — Although neither the auto companies nor the union would disclose exactly what was in the new offers, reliable sources said the proposals included:

1. — Continuation of extra payments if the cost of living continues to increase.

2. — Extension of the company financed supplemental unemployment plans from 26 to 39 weeks with an increase in the $25 maximum paid under the old contract.

3. — Increase in pensions for retired workers from $2.25 per month for each year worked to $2.40.

4. — Additional pay for skilled workers.

5. — Continuation of the annual improvement factor under which workers receive a yearly increase of six cents an hour or 2½ per cent of their hourly wage. Companies say these payments now average seven cents hourly.

Picked to Head Steelworkers

P. J. McDonald Elected Union President Without Open Dissent

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — United Steelworkers delegates turned to convention business today after giving a colorful vote of confidence to David J. McDonald, the union president.

The vote, accompanied by a demonstration, was carried without dissent. Opponents of the incumbent leadership remained silent.

Donald C. Rarick of McKeesport, Pa., leader of the rebel group, described the demonstration of support for 55-year-old McDonald as a rehearsed farce.

"The rank and file is damn mad about the way this thing has been rigged and by the time we get through with McDonald he'll be a mighty sorry boy," Rarick said.

His group calls itself the Dues Protest Committee.

Supporters of McDonald cited him as a labor statesman who had brought great gains to the 1,200,000-member USW.

The vote marked the third time in the opening session of the USW's convention that expected opposition to union policy failed to develop. The others were on convention procedure.

Fair, Cool Weather, With Rain Friday

Fair and cooler is the prediction for Pontiac tonight and Wednesday. The low tonight will be near 60 degrees and the high tomorrow 72.

★ ★ ★

For the next five days temperatures will average a little below the normal high of 75 and normal low of 65. Friday will be warmer with Saturday somewhat cooler. Rain is expected again about Friday.

★ ★ ★

The weather bureau said it will be warmer than usual in the East and Southeast during the next 30 days while most of the West will be cooler.

Sixty-seven was the lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The recording was 79 at 2 p.m.

County Offices Might Merge

Eye Drain Commission, Public Works as Next in Streamlining Effort

Feasibility of combining the Oakland County Drain Commission Office with that of the Department of Public Works is the next project under study by a special committee seeking ways of streamlining county government operations.

John L. Carey, chairman of the County Government Study Committee, said his nine-member committee will meet Thursday "to study the mechanics" of such a merger.

It was this same committee that in June made its first inroad into modernization when the offices of county clerk and register of deeds were combined.

Carey, Springfield Township supervisor, said there were many questions to be answered before action could be taken on the committee's second goal. Carey himself said he believed it not only feasible but necessary.

"Here you have the Drain Commissioner putting in one drain," Carey illustrated before yesterday's Board of Supervisors' meeting, "And on the other hand you have the DPW working on another drain project."

★ ★ ★

To help iron out the many questions, Carey and his committee have summoned the Drain Committee of the Board of Supervisors, the Oakland County Planning Commission, and members of the Board of Public Works to meet Thursday morning with his committee.

It was formed by the supervisors in October of last year for the purpose of seeking reforms in the operations of the county government.

Claims Arrest of Driver on Area Lake Unlawful

Hardly anyone would question that Oakland County has 423 lakes, unless they wanted to take the time to count them.

But which of these lakes, large and small are public, and which are private, is likely to come out of an appeal being heard now in Circuit Court.

Appealing an April jury conviction from West Bloomfield Justice Court for reckless driving is Harold W. Zielke, of 6671 Pinnock Dr., West Bloomfield Township. He was fined $75 and assessed $25 court costs, or 30 days in jail.

Zielke, who owns a home on the western end of Upper Straits Lake, was arrested last January 25 by sheriff's deputies for spinning his car on the ice of the lake.

Now Zielke's attorney, James P. Mattimoe, of Detroit, claims the deputies had no right to arrest his client, on what Mattimoe contends is a private lake.

But Jerome K. Barry Jr., assistant prosecutor assigned to the case, sees it another way. Barry argues the arrest was justified, but admits that he'll have "to dig into" law books to support his case.

So far he views Upper Straits Lake as public because it can be reached either from public-owned land, highways or other waters.

Judge Frank L. Doty yesterday decided to give Barry some extra time to prove whether the lake is public or private. No date when the appeal will return to court was set.

Father of 2 Dies of Auto Injuries

Drayton Plains Man, 26, Killed; Car Smashes Into Tree on Woodward

A Drayton Plains father of two was killed early this morning when his car smashed into a tree on Woodward Ave. in Bloomfield Hills.

Joseph J. Aleks, 26, of 4041 W. Walton Blvd., died in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital at 2:15 a.m., according to Bloomfield Township Police who discovered the accident almost an hour before.

Oakland Highway Toll in '58 65

A township police car cruising on Woodward found Aleks' auto rammed into a tree on the center island about 500 feet north of Opdyke Rd. There were no known witnesses to the accident.

Police said there were no skid marks and that Aleks probably had fallen asleep at the wheel while traveling north.

He was assistant personnel director for the Baldwin Rubber Company plant in Pontiac and the father of a young son and daughter.

★ ★ ★

This was the second tragedy for the family this month. An infant son, Frank, died at Pontiac General Hospital on Sept. 2, only 18 hours after birth.

Brucker Finds Formosa Easing

Ike Avoided Shooting War

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Army Brucker, back from a Far East tour, says President Eisenhower's no-appeasement speech last week has averted a shooting war with Red China.

Brucker said the Formosa situation has eased but still is serious.

"The President's utterances have done a lot to cool it off," he told newsmen on arriving at National Airport from his three-week tour. Without Eisenhower's statement "this would have been a shooting war," he said.

"I think the President's statement has done a great deal to put that situation in the proper perspective in the free and the Communist worlds," the army secretary added.

"I look to see quite a difference in the next 30 days."

Brucker said he found Formosa calm with "no hysteria, no panic."

Grass-Roots Executives Built 'Biggest Corporation'

GM Is 50 Years Old Today

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT (AP)—The world's biggest industrial corporation is 50 years old today.

General Motors Corp., first and only manufacturing concern to pile up a single year profit of more than a billion dollars, plans no bang-up celebration on its 50th birthday.

Most of the Golden Anniversary celebrations have already been held.

General Motors' success basically was a matter of men rather than of money. Under its 12 presidents the company built 69 million vehicles. It also made scores of millionaires.

Its top executives usually have been grass-roots men. Its founder, the late William C. Durant, was a one-time buggy maker. Still living are such fabulous personalities as Alfred P. Sloan Jr., now 83 and honorary board chairman, and Charles F. Kettering, now 82. Sloan once sold ball bearings. Kettering was a one-time telephone lineman who worked his way through college.

★ ★ ★

Harlow H. Curtice, just retired as president, came to General Motors as an accountant. One of his predecessors as GM president, the late famed William S. Knudsen, was a Danish immigrant.

It has been said Durant founded GM and Sloan built it.

Durant envisioned a huge single corporation to build motor vehicles. He brought together Oldsmobile, Cadillac, Buick and Oakland (later Pontiac) to form the nucleus of General Motors in 1908.

He sought to dominate General Motors subsequently through stock control. He lost two multi-million dollar fortunes in stock market speculations. Durant died in obscurity after seeing others fashion the structure that held GM together.

Veteran City Policeman Selected for Court Post

Capt. Walter C. Krause, veteran member of the Pontiac Police Department, is expected to announce his resignation tomorrow to accept a job as municipal court process server.

Krause, 59, has been recommended for the post by the two city judges. City Commissioners are expected to act favorably on the appointment tonight.

Krause would fill the position left vacant last week by the death of Percy G. Newman. He said the resignation would be effective Oct. 1.

Head of the uniform patrol bureau the past year, Krause has held the rank of captain since June, 1956, when he became the department's first night patrol captain.

A World War I veteran who served with the 32nd (Red Arrow) Division in France, Krause joined the police department in 1924. He served for many years in its juvenile division, being promoted to sergeant in 1938 and lieutenant in 1946.

A native of Shawano, Wis., he came to Pontiac in 1920 and is married with one daughter and one grandson. Capt. and Mrs. Krause live at 821 Menominee Rd.

Formosa Talks Progress; Speed Up Quemoy Relief

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — The talks in Mysliewiecki Palace between the ambassadors of Red China and the United States on easing the Formosa crisis were in recess today.

U. S. Ambassador Jacob Beam and Peiping's envoy, Wang Ping-nan, surprised Warsaw's diplomats yesterday by sitting for 2 hours and 50 minutes at their first meeting. Then they adjourned until Thursday.

The interval gave both their governments time to analyze what was said at the first session and to prepare the next step.

The length of the first meeting, diplomats believed, meant the two negotiators had approached the central problem without preliminary maneuvering.

In Washington, the State Department indicated what it considered was the core of the talks in the former hunting lodge of Poland's kings. A press officer said the purpose of the discussions was to "bring about a situation where use of force will not be taken without prejudice to either side."

It was understood that Beam brought up the long-standing demand for Red China to renounce the use of force in Formosa Strait at the first meeting.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Premier Chen Cheng said today that if the Red Chinese persist in sealing off the Quemoy offshore islands "it would mean extending the war."

The Chinese Nationalists tightened the news blackout on the Quemoy islands today while working on new attempts to crack the Communist artillery blockade.

★ ★ ★

New speedup methods of unloading Nationalist planes and ships at Quemoy and the parachuting of supplies to smaller islands near Quemoy were reported. More effective ways to get supplies through the curtain of shells are being sought, Premier Chen Cheng told Parliament.

★ ★ ★

So far the United States has limited itself to essentially defensive operations while bringing in a nuclear-armed striking force just in case.

The hottest plane in the U.S. air arsenal, the F104 Starfighter, has begun to fly over Formosa as part of the U. S. protective force should fighting spread beyond the offshore islands.

The American Taiwan Formosa Defense Command also said Marine Air Group 11, which came here for joint U. S.-Nationalist amphibious maneuvers, has been assigned to defend naval vessels. These presumably include the U.S. 7th Fleet warships escorting Nationalist supply ships to within three miles of Quemoy.

National Anthem Really Intended as Drink Song?

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Star Spangled Banner, written 144 years ago yesterday by Francis Scott Key, was intended to be sung with gusto as a drinking song, according to a professor at the University of Southern California.

"Many people think Key's lyrics were set to the tune of a popular drinking ballad as an afterthought," said William Templeman head of the USC English Department. "This is not correct.

"Key actually wrote his lyrics with the specific intention of having them used as a drinking song. The handbill on which our National Anthem was first printed indicates that it was 'to be sung to the tune of Anachreon in Heaven,' a barroom ball of the day. It was to be sung with gusto and for fun."

Templeman backed up his contention by citing the prohibitionists' action in 1931 when they opposed adoption of the song as the national anthem.

More Showers for Broad Areas of Nation Today

By The Associated Press

More showers were in prospect for broad areas in the Eastern half of the country today while generally fair weather was the outlook in most Western states.

Rain fell along leading edges of cooler air which moved across sections of the Midwest while showers and thunderstorms broke out in most sections of the South to the Gulf Coast region. Heaviest rain belt extended from western Texas northeastward through Oklahoma, Missouri, Illinois and Lower Michigan.

Rainfall measured nearly 6 inches in parts of west Texas. More than 2 inches fell at Midland, Tex., during the early part of last night. At Odessa, in west Texas, a cloudburst dumped 1.67 inches of rain within one hour. The downpour caused a freight train derailment and flooded low-lying areas. Kansas City reported nearly 2-inches of rain.

Meanwhile, dying tropical storm Gerda moved across Cuba today into the Gulf of Mexico.

Gerda, the seventh tropical storm of the season, had whirled across western Haiti with 65 mile an hour winds before losing its power.

Probers Quiz Hoffa About Hidden Funds

the car with union funds because the dealer was expected to start legal proceedings to stop the union's counter campaign.

The way it was handled, he explained, San Soucie could have said he borrowed the money.

Hoffa objected strongly when Kennedy characterized the transaction as "just a little white lie." This was what prompted Kennedy to say that Hoffa had "unveiled exactly what you are."

Hoffa explained that the money was used to buy a Plymouth automobile for Hoffa's home Local 299 in Detroit.

At the same time, he said, one auto company had instituted a program under which dealers were urged to go to Detroit and drive new cars back to their home cities. This would bypass normal delivery by truck.

Hoffa said the local gave him discretion on "how to whip" the system.

He said he decided to buy a motion picture camera, mount it on a car, and follow a "drive-it-yourself" Indiana dealer back to his place of business.

He said the plan was to park a trailer in front of the dealer's establishment and invite the public to see how it was being "defrauded" into buying a "new" car that actually was "used."

Later, Hoffa said, it was decided to buy a car and drive it on such a trip and use it as a "display" in that campaign. Hoffa said the Plymouth was purchased for cash, in the name of Gene San Soucie, head of the Indiana conference of Teamsters, who was acting as a "private citizen" in anticipation that the dealer would retaliate with a law suit.

Later, Hoffa said, ownership of the car was transferred to the Local. He said that transfer came after the campaign against the drive-it-yourself system was completed but he did not immediately summarize the results of those efforts.

GM Today Observes Golden Anniversary

Chief of the latter was Sloan, whose vision not only developed the corporation's strength and put its activities on a worldwide basis, but brought other men of vision into its top posts. It was Sloan who kept Chevrolet in the GM family after a firm of industrial engineers surveyed the corporation's properties and recommended its liquidation, because Chevrolet "could not hope to compete in its field." That was in 1921.

Chevrolet, top producer in the industry for most of the last quarter century, became GM's biggest money maker.

At the time of this decision in Chevrolet's history Sloan was principal assistant to Pierre S. Du Pont, GM president. He succeeded Du Pont as president.

In its first full year General Motors built approximately 31,000 cars. In the industry's record year of 1955, GM produced almost four million.

Motor vehicles account for approximately 85 per cent of GM production. Other products range from tiny ball bearings to huge earth-moving vehicles.

During World War II, when all civilian automobile production was halted, General Motors produced more than 12¼ billion dollars worth of war material, including airplane engines, airplanes and parts, trucks, tanks, marine diesels, guns, shells and miscellaneous products.

DEATH COACH LIFTED FROM BAY — Floodlights from salvage barges converge on coach of Jersey Central Railroad as it is lifted in slings from the 35-foot-deep waters of Newark Bay early this morning. It was in this coach, second of three that plunged from open drawbridge across the bay yesterday that most of the passengers died.

Bodies of 20 Plucked From Newark Bay

Work to Recover Wrecked Train

BAYONNE, N. J. (UPI)—A huge floating crane worked through the night to recover three Jersey Central Railroad passenger cars that, with two engines, plunged through an open drawbridge into 50 feet of water in Newark Bay yesterday.

Twenty bodies had been recovered by early today and the death toll threatened to rise as high as 40. At least 40 persons were injured. The bodies recovered included seven picked up shortly after the tragedy and 13 found in a passenger car raised by the crane at 12:10 a.m.

The Hudson County medical examiner meanwhile scheduled an autopsy on the body of Engineer Lloyd F. Wilburn, 63, to determine whether he may have had a heart attack at the throttle.

The dripping passenger car hauled up by the crane shortly after midnight was identified as the second of the three cars to plunge into the water and the one believed containing the most dead. The first of the three cars was empty. The third hung suspended from the bridge for 2½ hours before dropping into the bay, allowing most of its passengers to escape.

GRISLY SIGHT

Nearly every window was smashed in the first car hauled up although the car itself was in fairly good condition. The grisly, floodlighted scene inside was one of horror. A man's leg hung outside one shattered window indicating he nearly escaped the watery death. The hands of another man's body were badly cut, apparently from smashing a window in a vain escape attempt.

No one was known to have escaped from the second car which followed the two engines and the deadhead car into the water like a link in an anchor chain.

Determination of the exact death toll might take days, officials said, because the strong tidal currents in the area may have washed bodies out through the smashed windows.

One of the bodies brought up in the second car was tentatively identified as that of John Hawkins, mayor of Shrewsbury, N. J. Police said he carried an unspecified amount of negotiable securities which were recovered.

Missing and feared to have been on the train was George (Snuffy) Stirnweiss, former star infielder for the New York Yankees.

Federal and state inquiries attempted to determine why the train rolled apparently unhesitatingly through two warning lights and a final red light into its watery tomb. Because of the manner in which the train ran non-stop off the bridge, investigators were inclined to spotlight the heart attack theory as a possible cause.

After passing the red light the train hit a derail switch which sent it bumping along the ties between the bridge's two sets of tracks. Even then the train did not stop.

Some witnesses have said they believed they heard the train's brakes screeching at the last minute.

One question being asked by investigators was: Why, if the engineer did suffer some sort of seizure, were not the brakes applied by a second trainman believed to have been in the engine cabin with him?

The federal and state investigators also were trying to determine whether the bridge should have been opened for the sand barge that had requested passage only several minutes before the appearance of the banker's hours commuter train. Coast Guard regulations state that such bridges need not be opened in the area where the wreck occurred if a train is due in three minutes or less.

A much greater loss of life was prevented by two quirks of fate—the first car was empty, the third car caught and held on the bridge instead of dropping after the others, allowing most of its passengers to escape. The final two cars, one of them containing passengers, remained on the bridge.

Jersey Central President E. T. Moore said the passengers included weekend vacationers returning home from the Jersey shore and commuters bound for New York, just across the Hudson River.

Moore told reporters that, despite the severity of the tragedy, "We don't know how to stop accidents. We have to accept accidents."

The bridge is the center-lift type, where one huge section of the bridge is lifted straight up by means of pulleys and cables.

The trestle approach to the open drawbridge was strung with warning signals. An amber caution signal was a mile from the draw. A quarter of a mile closer to the draw was another. And 550 feet from the draw was a red stop signal.

★ ★ ★

Railroad officials said all three were working.

Engineer Wilburn's train ignored all three signals, ripped through an automatic derailing device and bumped on for 500 feet over the ties before it plunged off the lip of the 216-foot drawbridge.

Estimates of the train's speed varied. Under normal circumstances, with all signals in its favor, it was limited to 45 m.p.h. A towerman said it hit the draw at about 30 m.p.h. Passengers aboard estimated its speed at up to 60 m.p.h.

Bugas at first said he did not feel the union had made a counter offer.

"We merely discussed the Union's objections to the company offer," he said.

But when told by reporters that Reuther said the union had made a counter offer, he said "I guess you could call it that."

Neither Reuther nor Bugas would back down, however, in a sharp clash over whether there was "collusion" between Ford, General Motors and Chrysler. All three companies presented similar offers to Union negotiators in a surprise move yesterday.

"I think it goes without saying," Reuther said, "that when the Big Three auto companies are able to come within 18 minutes of each other with a common proposal, there is industrywide bargaining by remote control."

Bugas denied there was any collusion between Ford and any of the other auto companies and said he felt the company's actions were "completely justified."

"Since the 1953 negotiations we have been able to perfect our intelligence and I don't think it is important where we get our intelligence," he said.

Ford Vice President John Bugas told newsmen it was not mere coincidence that the offers were alike. "We have perfected our intelligence since 1955. We (of the auto makers) and they I am sure use all intelligence and information we get from all sources in deciding what type of offer we can make our workers," he said.

UAW teams representing Chrysler and General Motors workers recessed negotiations shortly after the companies placed their contract offer before them.

Ford, faced with the strike deadline, held a night negotiating session — the 91st since contract talks began.

Bugas told newsmen last night, "We still have 24 hours of intensive bargaining left before the strike deadline and we still hope for an agreement." Reuther echoed those sentiments.

One big stumbling block in the companies' latest offer was their bid for a three-year contract. The UAW's recent three-year pacts with the Big Three expired Memorial Day weekend and the union has been operating under a request of its convention that no contract be for more than two years.

There was some indication the UAW might agree to the three-year contract if the auto makers sweetened their offers.

Says Eddie Fisher Will Lose in Love

EL PASO, Tex. (UPI) — Mrs. Owen Harman, Debbie Reynold's grandmother, said yesterday that "Eddie Fisher will never have another girl who will love him as much as Debbie has."

The grandmother recently spent four months in Hollywood with Debbie, who was born in El Paso.

"I thought they were very happy," she said. "They certainly put on a good act."

This Takes the Cake

ISLEWORTH, England (UPI) — The sole male entrant in a cake-baking contest walked off with the first prize yesterday, beating 30 women competitors, one his own mother. The prize winner, Gerald Simpson, is eight years old.

Stops for School Bus—Crash!

Right Law, Wrong Place

EAST LANSING (UPI)—A woman motorist thought she knew the law, a police officer did know it but was surprised—the result, crumpled fenders.

Mrs. Joan J. Carver, 22, Okemos, was driving along an East Lansing street yesterday when she saw a school bus stopping. She stopped.

Capt. Bert Yunger of the East Lansing Police didn't stop. His car bumped Mrs. Carver's car.

Mrs. Carver said she thought it was the law. The state law making cars from both directions stop when a school bus does, went into effect yesterday but it isn't effective where city ordinance is to the contrary.

The East Lansing city ordinance doesn't require motorists to stop for school buses.

The Day in Birmingham

Alter Building Ordinance to Fit New Construction

BIRMINGHAM—Builders in Birmingham who have had trouble meeting city construction requirements, as outlined in the zoning ordinance, saw some of their difficulties removed with adoption of an amendment to the statute last night by the City Commission.

Lots, particularly in the older subdivisions, are sometimes narrower than those presently platted, making it difficult for builders to meet minimum side-yard requirements.

On the recommendation of City Planner Herbert Herzberg, the commission altered the ordinance making it possible to reduce side-yards six inches for each foot under the "50-foot desirable width."

Commissioners also approved the bid of the Subterranean Construction Co. of Oak Park for installation of a sewer and water main on Cole avenue. This will include the loop connecting these mains with those on E. Lincoln avenue.

The area is being prepared for commercial development, which includes the new parcel post annex and a garage for the Birmingham Post Office.

Also approved was an agreement with the City of Troy for the maintenance of Adams and 14-Mile roads by the City of Birmingham.

The contract states: "Troy will hold Birmingham harmless from any and all liabilities arising out of maintenance and repair."

Birmingham Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley and Detective Lt. Merlin Holmquist are attending the state's re-training program of the FBI National Academy. The three-day session is being held at the academy grounds near Milford.

Dave Blanchard of 1211 Lenox Rd., Birmingham, is accepting calls for the young people of the First Baptist Church who will participate in the church's youth work day slated for Saturday.

They will take any and all jobs around homes, both inside and out. Earnings will be used in church charity activities.

The 12:30 p.m. meeting of Missionary "B" of the First Presbyterian Church will be held tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Ernest W. Seaholm, 1587 Fairway Dr.

Missionary "A" will meet in the church lounge at 2 p.m. for a discussion of the services and needs of the Presbyterian Village in Redford.

Family Night at the Congregational Church of Birmingham will include a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. Thursday. Dr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Grey will be special guests at the event. Reservations may be made at the church office before noon tomorrow.

Mrs. Hugh Coldren

Service for Mrs. Hugh (Kitte) Coldren, 93, of 623 E. Lincoln Ave., Birmingham, will be held at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Burial and graveside service will take place at the Mancelona Cemetery, Mancelona, Mich., at 2 p.m. Thursday.

A former Minnesota and Wisconsin school teacher, Mrs. Coldren died Monday following a long illness. She was graduated from Hillsdale College in 1888 and was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and Germanae Sodales.

Surviving are a son, Harold of Birmingham, a granddaughter and a grandson.

2 Circuit Judges Rule Selves Out

Doty, Beer Won't Hear Police Officers Suit on Promotions

Oakland County Circuit Judges William John Beer and Frank L. Doty today disqualified themselves from hearing the suit of four Pontiac Police officers who claim certain city officials are blocking their promotions.

First to rule himself out this morning was Judge Beer, who said he once, as an attorney, served as "legal consultant" for the Pontiac Police Officers Assn., which is indirectly involved in the suit.

Judge Doty then called into his chambers the attorneys in the case and disqualified himself.

"I know too much about this case already and the officers involved," explained Judge Doty. Judge Doty's court officer is former Police Capt. Vance L. Hanger, whose police son, Lt. William K. Hanger, too is indirectly involved in the case.

Filing the suit, asking the court to issue a writ of mandamus ordering the city to promote them, were Sgts. Raymond E. Meggitt and Fred L. Goines, and Detectives Herbert C. Cooley and James H. LaPonsie.

Goines and Meggitt claim in the suit, filed in June, that they placed second and third, respectively, on an eligibility list for three lieutenant vacancies on the force, but only Hanger, who placed first, got the promotion to lieutenant.

After Judges Beer and Doty disqualified themselves, Judge Clark J. Adams decided to hear the suit.

In it, the four officers charge that Police Chief Herbert W. Straley and City Manager Walter K. Willman have refused to promote them to the higher ranks which they say they are entitled to, after taking written and oral Civil Service examinations last October.

The city argues that the positions the four wish to fill are no longer needed in the department. City Attorney William A. Ewart today was to file a motion dismissing the suit on the grounds promotions were part of the "discretionary duties of the manager."

Cooley and LaPonsie are shown in the action as finishing second and third behind Detective James F. Bale for two sergeant openings on the force. Bale is not a plaintiff in the suit.

SEC Contends No Favor Shown to Goldfine

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Edward N. Gadsby spelled out today the Securities and Exchange Commission's contention that it showed no favor to Bernard Goldfine, Boston millionaire and friend of Sherman Adams.

Gadsby told a House investigating subcommittee that it was not the agency's idea for a federal court to cancel a $20,000 fine against Goldfine's East Boston Co. for a seven-year failure to file financial statements.

★ ★ ★

The court acted "of its own motion and over the objections of the SEC" when it held the fine was erroneously imposed, Gadsby said.

Earlier testimony before the subcommittee was that the company finally had to pay only $3,000 and promise to file reports promptly.

★ ★ ★

Adams, President Eisenhower's chief of staff, has acknowledged having the White House staff make an inquiry to SEC about the East Boston case. But he, Goldfine and SEC witnesses all denied any special influence was exerted on Goldfine's behalf.

Boy Stands Mute on Murder Charge

FLINT (AP)—A 15-year-old boy accused of shooting his mother and sister to death stood mute yesterday when arraigned on a first degree murder charge.

Attorney Herbert Booth said he planned to ask for the appointment of a sanity commission to examine Roger St. Pierre and determine whether the youth is mentally competent to stand trial.

Police said Roger told them the "devil" drove him to shoot his mother, Mrs. Martha St. Pierre, 44, and his sister, Donna, 19, last Aug. 21.

★ ★ ★

Booth said the sanity commission may be appointed by next Monday. He said Roger will be held at Hurley Hospital until then.

Juvenile authorities waived jurisdiction over the youth last week so that he could be tried as an adult.

Thief Kept Promise

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI)—A stickup man who took $20 from grocer Frank Comito back in 1936 left with the promise "You'll get your money back." Yesterday Comito received two $10 bills in the mail, along with a note that said: "This is yours. I took it from your grocery store back in the thirties. Forgive me."

Hearing Postponed in Bookie Ring Case

A hearing to examine charges that five Pontiac persons were involved in a bookmaking ring and conspired to violate state gambling laws was postponed until Sept. 30 by Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum yesterday.

The delay was granted attorney Bernard Girard, who represents three of the defendants; Basil W. Burke, 49, of 29 Salmer Ave., described by State Police as the kingpin of the ring; Charles D. Apley, 44, of the same address; and James Pruzor, 54, of 4 S. Saginaw St.

The other two are former deputy city treasurer LaRue E. Guillett, 41, of 301 Dick Ave. and his wife, Gladys, 35.

Arrested in State Police raids Aug. 30, the five originally had been scheduled for examination tomorrow, but this date conflicts with other appearances that have since been set for him in Circuit Court, Girard told McCallum.

All five defendants are free under $5,000 bond apiece.

Fisher Body Employes Vote to Work Overtime

FLINT (AP) — Members of United Auto Workers Local 598 at the Fisher Body plant here have voted to work overtime when asked by management.

Harold Mulanix, president of the local, said members previously had banned working overtime while other UAW members were laid off.

Mulanix said lifting of the ban was "a temporary measure."

"If overtime should continue once full production gets under way," Mulanix said, "we will ask management to review their policy."

Some 4,000 workers at Fisher Body Plant No. 1 left their jobs last week because of the overtime issue. They returned to work yesterday.

2 Killed, 4 Injured in Head-On Collision

GAYLORD (AP) — Two Michigan men were killed, two women injured critically and a father and daughter hurt today in a head-on collision of two automobiles on U.S. 27 two miles south of Gaylord.

Allen F. Clark, 72, of (RFD-1) Manitou Beach, and Harry Atkinson, 73, of Hudson, were killed. Riding with them and critically hurt were Ethel L. Atkinson also of Hudson, and Nettie Williams, 76, of (2739 Arletta) Toledo, Ohio.

Sharon Morey, 19, and her father, Omar Morey, 46, of Escanaba, were hospitalized but not believed hurt seriously. Morey was en route with his daughter to Ypsilanti, where she was to enter Eastern Michigan College.

Clark, Atkinson and their companions were en route to the Straits of Mackinac on a sightseeing tour that was to include the 100 million dollar Mackinac Bridge. They had spent the night at Harrison, Mich.

Negligent Homicide Charged in Accident

The driver of a car which killed two men on U.S. 10 at Hatchery Rd., in Drayton Plains, early Sunday was arraigned before Waterford Township Justice Donald E. Adams Monday.

Alfred H. Thompson, 51, of Davison, originally held for investigation of manslaughter, has been charged with negligent homicide.

Thompson waived examination and was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court with date of arraignment there set for Sept. 29. He furnished a bond set at $1,000.

Alfred R. Adkins, 21, of 163 Augusta Ave., and David J. Williams, 33, of 6831 Saline St., Waterford Township, were struck by Thompson's car while fixing a flat tire. Thompson told police he didn't remember making the curve and must have fallen asleep.

Knows What Not to Do

DETROIT (UPI)—Police were doubtful today about Hollaway J. Reese's qualifications to instruct a Detroit driving school. Reese owes $244 for 16 moving violations. And he was instructing after his driver's license had been revoked.

LONDON (AP) — Stephen Bone, 53, British painter and art critic, died yesterday of complications resulting from an operation for cancer of the kidney. He has been the London art critic for the Manchester Guardian since 1948.

Color in Advertising Ups Reader Interest

NEW YORK (AP)— Color in advertising increased readership by 80 per cent in a recent test by the Houston, Tex., Chronicle, M. Jack Butler, the Chronicle's business manager, said today.

Butler gave the results of the Chronicle's study of run of press color in a talk before the third annual newspaper ROP color conference. Around 1,000 newspaper executives, ad agency personnel, advertisers and supplier representatives are attending the three-day meeting.

Butler gave the following overall retention figures for both color and black and white: color contributed an 80 per cent increase over black and white in readership and a 94 per cent increase in retention two, three and five days later.

ROP color advertising is used to describe color ads which appear in the regular run or main sections of newspapers as opposed to the rotogravure, comic or special sections.

Robert K. Drew, advertising director, The Milwaukee Journal, reported, "ROP color has gone through the era of experimentation and now is rapidly being accepted. There was unusual interest in color during the past summer, particularly in view of the economic conditions."

Dem Party Leader Rips Kamp Pamphlet Tactics

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler called on Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn today to denounce and repudiate the Kamp pamphlets.

Butler also called on the Fair Campaign Practice Committee to take action on what he called "this serious violation of the fair campaign practices code now being carried on in California and elsewhere on behalf of the Republican party."

The pamphlets by Joseph P. Kamp attack Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers Union.

Butler told Alcorn the GOP chairman's "silence on this matter can only mean that you condone, and that your party intends to employ, the smear tactics of Joseph Kamp."

Over Third of Lawyers in Hungary Disbarred

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — More than a third of Communist Hungary's 3,500 lawyers have been reported disbarred and the rest subjected to political qualifications.

★ ★ ★

Reliable sources said disbarment notices have been going out since Sept. 1 but a decree signed by Justice Minister Ferenc Nazval went into effect Saturday.

★ ★ ★

The decree requires lawyers to have "certificates of good conduct" from their local bar associations. Most of them must work in cooperatives, which pool their fees, and must try to improve their "political qualifications."

Hal Boyle Says:

U.S. Man Buys One-Third of a Suit Yearly

NEW YORK (AP)—If you are an average American man, you bought a third of a suit last year. Maybe less.

Don't tell me this is impossible. The men's clothing industry has been saying for years it is impossible. But it is so.

★ ★ ★

Daddy is getting awful dowdy. The figures show it.

For example:

In 1956 some 20,888,000 men's tailored suits—an industry term—were produced in America. In 1957 the figure dropped to 20,100,000.

The industry realizes the ordinary papa is self-sacrificing. It realizes, too, he is buying more sport coats and slacks. But it also feels that dad's clothing isn't getting a fair share of the family budget.

One of the cheerleaders in this field is Joseph Daroff, vice president of one of the country's largest clothing firm. He puts at least part of the blame for the American husband's unkempt look on Mrs. America, the wife.

"As manager of the family's spendable income," he remarks in the current issue of the magazine, sales management, "she lists his clothing budget items down somewhere between charitable contributions and canine training fees."

★ ★ ★

The answer? Daroff says that some firms now lend money to their salesmen to outfit themselves in a way to win their own selfconfidence and represent their firms better. The corporation puts dad above either charity or the dog.

As I get it, the general idea is that the guy with a new suit makes new sales.

Daroff has figured out that a salesman can sell himself and his customers with an ideal wardrobe of $1,133—less than many a wife spends to furnish a large living room.

★ ★ ★

For this money, he says, a man can get six suits, a tux, two sport coats, four pairs of slacks, two topcoats, a raincoat, two formal wear shirts, 10 business shirts, four sport shirts, two hats, one pair of formal shoes, three pairs of business shoes, a pair of sport shoes, and a dozen neckties. You inherit underwear, presumably, and borrow socks from your neighbor.

★ ★ ★

And the upkeep? Daroff says it can be maintained for $377 a year or about $7.27 a week.

One of the sorrows of men's clothing manufacturers is the American male's shyness about his dress.

"Too many men feel that an intelligent concern with their apparel is akin to male vanity—unbecoming a rugged man," said Daroff. "This attitude is as expensive as it is ridiculous. Becoming clothes are a priceless asset to any man."

★ ★ ★

Whether you have an ideal $1,133 wardrobe or a basic $665 wardrobe that Daroff also says a salesman can get by with, one thing is for sure:

If every grown-up fellow in America would just buy two thirds of a suit in 1958, all the sheep in the world would be paid to grow wool on an overtime basis.

It is also true that if everybody suddenly drank an extra glass of milk every day, every cow in the land would have circles under her eyes.

That's the problem of prosperity. Everything the average guy does or doesn't do makes or breaks a business boom. It's a terrible personal responsibility we all bear to one another, whether we know each other or not.

BIG BREAK COMING? — Art Skarbo, of 91 S. Josephine St., Waterford Township, hopes that big break in the songwriting field is headed his way. Skarbo, a Pontiac area resident since 1925 and a songwriter for more than 15 years, recently submitted his composition "Hello Michigan" to the Secretary of State's Office. Lansing officials were looking for an official state song. Skarbo's was accepted and will compete with about 35 others for the title. Musical directors from the University of Michigan and Michigan State University will decide on the winner sometime before Jan. 1.

VILLAGE OF LIGHT

It once was called Village of the Blind. But the Israelis who live there, all of them blind, voted to change the name to Village of Light. They changed it because now there is light—the light of hope. The citizens all have their own houses and support themselves by making and selling furniture, handicrafts, rugs. They were trained through rehabilitation programs operated by one of America's religious faiths. It isn't only the blind who need rehabilitation help overseas. Many have been maimed during war years. They've been deprived of training and education. They need the help you can give when you support the religious OVERSEAS AID Program of your faith.

Grace Kelly's Father Names Union in Suit

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — John B. Kelly, father of Princess Grace of Monaco, has filed a $100,000 suit against a union local. The suit says the union, in a pamphlet, questioned Kelly's honesty.

The millionaire contractor filed the suit yesterday in Common Pleas Court against Local 1, Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers International Union.

Kelly accused the local of stating in a pamphlet that his company was behind in its payments to the union's welfare fund. Kelly denied the accusation.

Press Clarifies Policy and Answers Charges

Monday we printed an advertisement from the Pontiac Police Officers Association expatiating upon the faults of Chief STRALEY, and finally The Pontiac PRESS. We were personally held responsible for letters in the Voice of the People and we were asked why these were run without actual names.

★ ★ ★

The answer is simple.

If you want to criticize a private individual, you sign your name. If you wish to criticize the Mayor, Governor, President, the Police, the Army, Republican party, etc., you can sign an anonymous name for the Voice of the People, with your real name on file here.

★ ★ ★

We decide in which category cases in the twilight zone shall be classified.

The letters in question were not from the same writers. The second writer must have seen the first, answered immediately and brought the reply in at once.

Is that bad?

★ ★ ★

Pontiac is condemned as a one newspaper town. So are 99 per cent of all other cities of this size and usually many, many times larger. This newspaper has defended the police, local courts, sheriff's office, the State Police, the FBI and representatives of law and order far beyond the normal publication. We intend to continue as long as they're right. And we won't be muzzled or intimidated by the P. P. O. A.—not one whit.

★ ★ ★

And by the way, just who is it that's silly enough to say "You can't beat City Hall?" At times, all over the nation, they're pushovers.—H.A.F.

Invitation to Inspect Building

In order to acquaint the public with a better understanding of the historical value of the Moses Wisner Home, it is to be thrown open for three days.

Now owned by the Oakland County Historical Foundation, this very substantial, but aged, building on Oakland Avenue has a background that makes it an Oakland County shrine.

★ ★ ★

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week it will be open from 9:30 to five o'clock, and the general public is invited to visit it.

Members of the foundation will be there to guide visitors through its historical rooms, and explain the reasons why they are fraught with such significance.

Built of brick 111 years ago, in many respects it is as substantial as when it was constructed by Judge WISNER who later was to become Governor of Michigan, and to refuse a second term because he foresaw the Civil War and wished to devote his energies to recruiting and training men for that conflict.

With the assistance of a number of local organizations and individuals, the foundation has made some substantial repairs and additions which merit the inspection of the general public.

★ ★ ★

You are urged to attend this open house, where you'll get a better understanding of the historical value of the home and are sure to realize its near-hallowed local importance.

Supreme Court Gives Faubus Firm Answer

Governor ORVAL FAUBUS has his answer from the Supreme Court, written in capital letters.

Integration is the law.

And it starts NOW!

★ ★ ★

There is hardly any other decision that the Justices could make. Either the law means what it says—or it doesn't. And all laws will have to apply to Arkansas as well as the other states. This newspaper believes that a delaying action would merely postpone the day of judgment and decision.

★ ★ ★

Perhaps Arkansas faces a tough social problem with overtones that do not exist in Michigan in quite the same degree. Perhaps she faces the precedent of many decades, but when all is said and done, it doesn't grow better or easier by postponing action.

The thing must be faced.

Dodging won't help.

★ ★ ★

In the meantime, all this shouting gives us a bad name in the world at large, for our enemies are capitalizing on the situation and every fresh outburst hurts that much more.

"Let Me Take You Away From All This"

David Lawrence Says:

Useless to Throw Away Adams

WASHINGTON—Should Sherman Adams be sacrificed on the altar of political expediency as so many of the Republican candidates for office this autumn are demanding? If he resigns his post as assistant to the President, will this dispose of the matter? Will the Democrats promptly stop discussing it, or will they regard the resignation as a confession of guilt and hammer away at the issue even harder?

LAWRENCE

The mere asking of these questions points up the dilemma faced by both President Eisenhower and Mr. Adams this week, now that the latter has returned from his vacation. The problem doesn't involve any new facts. For the underlying situation is just the same as it was when the political furor over the acceptance of gifts by Mr. Adams from his close personal friend, Bernard Goldfine, first hit the headlines in June.

It is now being said, of course, that the Maine election a week ago accentuated the importance of the issue. This sounds like an alibi from the side that, for other reasons, lost the election and from those weak-kneed candidates among the Republicans who now fear they may lose out, too—also for other reasons.

Actually, it will do no good, politically speaking, for Sherman Adams to resign voluntarily.

There might have been last June a slight benefit politically if President Eisenhower himself had asked for the resignation. But if done at this late date, the Democrats would immediately ask why Eisenhower waited so long—and they would continue to try to smear his administration anyhow as somehow "tainted."

★ ★ ★

If the Republican nominees who are clamoring for the scalp of Sherman Adams would exhibit some of the courage that is occasionally manifested even by candidates for public office, they would turn the Sherman Adams issue around and take a leaf from the book of the militant "liberals" whose battle cry in recent years has been that a man should be presumed innocent until he is proved guilty and should not be made to suffer because of "guilt by association."

It's better sometimes to lose an election in order to reaffirm and eventually vindicate a principle. Not a single piece of evidence exists to show that Sherman Adams violated any law or exercised any improper influence or achieved any improper objective.

His acceptance of gifts from a personal friend turned out to be "imprudent" because of the innuendoes publicized by a hostile investigating committee in Congress, but it is true that Adams performed exactly the same service for many other citizens from whom he never received any gifts.

For the executive offices staff to make inquiries from other departments or agencies of the government in behalf of the citizens—all of whom have a right to "petition the government for a redress of grievances"—is to apply the First Amendment in the Bill of Rights of the Constitution.

But the politicians, who know that suspicion does not constitute proof of guilt, are nevertheless groping for a scapegoat. Somehow, they believe that they can curry favor with the voters by coming out for the dismissal of Adams. This assumes that the public has been misled or cannot weigh the truth when it is fully presented on the stump.

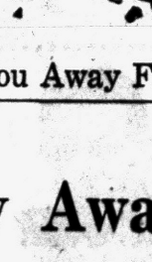
Smiles

It's a lot easier and a heap more fun to live up to a reputation than live one down.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Anti-Tetanus Injection Is Lifesaving Measure

Seems to me, says an editor, your comments on rabies are that a person bitten by a rabid animal should have an immediate anti-tetanus shot and forget about Pasteur treatment. Am I right about this? What are your present views on this question?



DR BRADY

You are right, sir, although I didn't say a rabid animal—whether an animal is called "rabid" or not, the person bitten should receive an immediate injection of anti-tetanus serum or toxoid, in my opinion.

Being anaerobic (thriving only or best without air), tetanus germs buried in the flesh (by puncture wound, by the teeth of animal, beak or claw of bird) and beyond the reach of ordinary cleansing or swabbing, antiseptic, germicide, caustic or what have you, are most likely to prove fatal.

It is necessary to understand the character of the tetanus (lockjaw) germ in order to know how to prevent and how to treat tetanus:

1. The germ itself is harmless. The poison (toxin) it produces when it grows and multiplies in the wound is quickly absorbed and affects the body much as an overdose of strychnine does.

2. Being anaerobic (unable or scarcely able to grow and multiply in air or oxygen) the germ is most likely to grow and multiply and generate toxin if it is deeply implanted in the flesh and especially if particles of cloth, paper, gunpowder, soil, damaged, burned or dead tissue are implanted with it.

3. Here let me repeat what I have said many times, namely, that anyone who cauterizes any type of fresh wound with "fuming nitric acid" or any other destructive chemical or agency, is guilty of malpractice—I'm sure no reputable physician or surgeon will dispute this.

ADDED DANGER

4. Any wound sustained in an environment possibly contaminated by animal droppings (barnyard, country roadside, manured garden, street dust, pasture, bird cage, dog pen) even though it be seemingly trifling scratch, puncture or abrasion, is serious because it involves possible implantation of tetanus germs or spores. Tetanus germs are normally present in the intestinal tract of animals and sometimes in that of man.

A gash which bleeds freely is less serious because the bleeding tends to wash out any germs that may have been on the claw, tooth, beak, "rusty" nail or other object that broke the skin.

5. The proper treatment of dogbite or any similar wound or burn is therefore quite simple: Immediate thorough washing with plain soap and boiled (sterile) water; excision of any dead or damaged tissue; then a sterile dressing to protect the wound from infection or, if the environment is suitable, leaving the wound exposed to the air. And in each case it is up to the doctor to decide whether a prophylactic injection of tetanus antitoxin (serum) or toxoid is necessary.

★ ★ ★

My advice in any case is this: If your physician advises Pasteur treatment—do as the doctor says!

★ ★ ★

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Writer's Firmly Rebuked for Anti-South Sentiments

In reply to Pontiac Born Citizen, he said he wished some southern hillbilly would say who has a better right to express opinions about Faubus and Arkansas. You have every right to say anything about that, but when you say southern hillbillies, I assume you mean illiterate migrants.

If you check around you'll find some of the finest doctors in your best hospitals in this city, top offices in the state and county, are southern born. I'll tell you why southern people have the jobs — because they have the initiative, ability and willingness to execute any job given them, efficiently and satisfactorily.

Jim Raines

334 W. Huron St.

I'd like to ask Pontiac Born Citizen just when it was that this ceased to be a free country, or did all those boys die for nothing? It's stupid, selfish people like that that make me want to lie when I'm asked where I was born.

100 Per Cent (Lived Here All My Life) Michigander

The person who signed himself Pontiac Born Citizen must really be bitter to sit down and write such a blast of lies and accusations against Arkansas and other Southern states, and also Southern people.

★ ★ ★

I was born in Arkansas and am married to a Northern husband who also was born in Pontiac. I feel I'm better qualified to know about this situation than that person who had the nerve to write such a nasty little letter.

People are people everywhere, and God doesn't love the Northern people better than Southern people, or vice versa. Why doesn't that great citizen of Pontiac look inside himself and see what he sees there and keep his big mouth shut?

Socialized Medicine Gets Man's Backing

To see the difference between socialized medicine in Russia and capitalized medicine in the United States, we need to remember that in Russia the government-paid doctors are not only paid to treat patients, but are also paid to educate the public in right living for real health and natural immunity to disease. On the contrary, here in the United States our private enterprise doctors, paid by patients, as a rule, for treatment only, cannot afford to teach people how to avoid becoming patients in need of their drugs, shots and prescriptions. So we pay dearly for our ignorance and rejection of socialized medicine.

'Why Wasn't Adams Tossed Out Then?'

On a trip through the East, I was shown the place where Major General Harry Vaughn lives. People say he had many offers to go on TV and radio, where the main theme would be jokes about mink coats, deep freezes, vicuna, hotel bills, etc. They're proud of the fact he turned them all down. Why wasn't Sherman Adams tossed out like he should have been? Ask Goldfine.

Newspapers should quit running a news story every time the wind blows hard 500 miles off the Florida coast. You keep everyone worrying about hurricanes that never get here and if they do, they just get to Florida. You print so much about the storms no one will take it very seriously when a bad one does come.

Others Complain of Ads for Movies

The movie ads are becoming more revolting each day, but the ones of the last few weeks, especially the huge one in color, were really appalling. It seems that movie houses, especially drive-ins, are trying to outdo each other as to who can show the most lurid pictures. Doesn't Pontiac have any form of censorship? It has come to a point where censorship is needed. The Press, as a good family newspaper, should refuse to print such material. I'm sure many people feel as I do.

One Who Likes Good Movies

Harry, old dear, you obviously haven't been to a local movie or drive-in lately or you'd have seen what gives on the back pages of your newspaper. The movie ads therein are becoming downright pornographic. Good publishers the country over are cleansing their chronicles of this smutty advertising and if others can do it, so can The Press.

★ ★ ★

I'm not just another old prude, but a young mother happily noting that youngsters are becoming newspaper minded. Must parents dissect the paper just because the children can now see and read? If so, The Press has come to a sorry state. The decay of young minds is far more serious a problem than tooth decay, and loose morals more than molars. We need your help to conquer it. How about a good drilling aimed at studios which release these filthy ads?

Wallflower Withdraws Into Shell

Lola lived in a city where she didn't read this column daily. Thus, she missed having access to the many booklets which would have helped her carry on conversation, win popularity, and become happily adjusted to her social world. Scrapbook these cases, for this column is really prophylactic psychiatry.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE Z - 320: Lola G., aged 17, is the brilliant girl mentioned yesterday who began to lose interest in external reality.

Lola was well launched into the mental condition called schizophrenia.

★ ★ ★

This abnormal mental state is apparently not related to brain injury or germ disease.

CRANE

Some types of insanity do spring from syphilitic infection of the brain, or from metallic poisons, etc.

But schizophrenia seems to develop as an example of a person who feels that reality is so painful, cruel or forbidding, that the victim imitates the turtle and pulls into her "shell."

Such a patient may then disregard conversation and even show such total disinterest in the outside world that she will not even eat.

To prevent her from starving to death, we medics may need to feed such a patient via a stomach tube.

In modern times, we have found several drugs and shock therapy which help force the "turtle" to resume contacts with reality.

SHOCK TREATMENT

But please get the straight dope on shock treatment. It is simply a form of psychiatric "aspirin," which temporarily masks the condition.

★ ★ ★

If you suffer from a chronic headache due to eyestrain, as from lack of properly fitted eyeglasses, you may cover up the headache by use of drugs like aspirin.

But you should realize this is only a temporary relief that just masks the underlying cause.

What you really need is a good eye examination or other medical checkup to find the real cause of those daily headaches, so they can be corrected.

★ ★ ★

The aspirin may be very useful for a matter of a few critical hours while you must perform your vital duties on the job.

But you would not think of expecting the aspirin to be a cure. No, aspirin is a temporary masker of pain. It is what we call palliative medicine.

Well, by the same token, be grateful that shock treatment also masks the mental patient's problem temporarily so we can then dig out the basic cause.

★ ★ ★

Too many people get the mistaken notion that shock treatment is a cure.

Psychiatric analysis and many lengthy psychology interviews are usually required to ferret out the cause of the insane condition.

CHERCHEZ LA FEMME

The French police motto is "Cherchez la femme," which means "Look for the woman (motive)" in the crime.

Lola can be brought back to a temporary rational state by shock treatment.

But she may again slip back into an abnormal state unless we remedy her shyness. For she has been a wallflower.

To compensate for her lack of social popularity and dates, she studied hard and played the piano during her spare hours at home.

The less she was accepted in her social group, the more she compensated by harder study and piano practice.

It finally looked like a hopeless dilemma to her. Life appeared so cold, cruel and forbidding, that she subconsciously decided to run away.

Instead of fleeing to California or some distant geographical spot, she imitated the turtle and drew within her anatomical "shell."

Send for the booklet "How to Carry on Interesting Conversation," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit), for it is part of the psychological vaccination to prevent Lola's type of unhappiness.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

2 Lake Levels to Be Raised

Judge Doty Approves Alterations in Face of Local Opposition

Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty yesterday granted an order permitting the drain commissioner to fix the levels of Oakland and Woodhull Lakes in Waterford and Independence Townships at 957.5 feet above sea level.

Judge Doty granted the order after a hearing Friday at which a number of residents of the lakes protested the move, claiming their property would be damaged.

The county, back in July, petitioned the court to fix the levels in order to prevent them from getting so low as to cause unsanitary conditions. The county said it was acting on the request of the property owners.

"I think the public health and welfare of everybody concerned demands fixing the levels as requested," Judge Doty said in agreeing with the order.

It was granted Monday afternoon as two petitions bearing 39 signatures of residents of Townsend Lake, to the northwest of the two other lakes, urged the judge not to fix the levels. Petitioners contended "raising water levels of the two lakes will create an unsanitary condition and endanger" property owners living on the smaller Townsend Lake.

★ ★ ★

The established level is approximately one foot higher than the present height according to Daniel W. Barry, drain commissioner.

Rival Painters Battle Over Future of France

ALENCON, France (UPI) — Rifal road painters fought a battle over Gen. Charles De Gaulle's proposed new constitution yesterday with paint cans and brushes as weapons.

A group of supporters of the constitution, busily painting the word "yes" on a highway, encountered some anti-De Gaulle painters decorating the road with "no." After a brief skirmish between the groups, police dispersed the rivals, leaving the highway decorated with "yes" and "no" at intervals for a distance of three miles.

Suing Grand Trunk Here for $50,000

A suit asking $50,000 from the Grand Trunk Western Railroad Co. was filed in Oakland County Circuit Court yesterday on behalf of a 15-year-old Waterford Township mother killed in July at the West Huron street crossing.

Filing the suit was John A. Saylor, of 4120 Mapleleaf Dr., Waterford Township, special administrator for the estate of Mrs. Freda Harper, formerly of 4141 Mapleleaf Dr.

Mrs. Harper was killed instantly July 19 when the motorcycle driven by her husband, David, was struck by a freight train at the crossing.

★ ★ ★

The suit contends that safety signals at the crossing did not go on until Harper's motorcycle was 20 feet from the tracks.

Integration Closes 5 Schools

Pupils, Parents Awaiting Next Move

By The Associated Press

The full impact of school closure orders hit pupils and parents alike in Arkansas and Virginia yesterday while the first Negro student quietly registered at the University of Florida.

Four high schools failed to open for the fall term in Little Rock, Ark., and the only high school at Front Royal, Va., was empty.

Pupils, parents and school boards wondered what to do while state and federal authorities planned new legal maneuvers in an effort to resolve the current crisis over integration.

Areas around the five schools were quiet during the day and no incidents were reported.

Gov. Oryal E. Faubus, who closed the schools in Little Rock, was studying ways to reopen them, presumably on a private and segregated basis. But he told his press conference that nothing might take place until after Oct. 7, date of a special referendum election on integration in the city schools.

Such stopgap measures as instruction via television and a program of suggested reading were being studied by the Little Rock board.

About 100 high school pupils were making efforts to transfer to schools in nearby Arkansas cities.

In Virginia, school officials presumably were surveying the possibility of reopening Front Royal High in Warren County on a segregated basis. The law requires the governor to attempt this when a school is closed under the state's plan of massive resistance to integration.

Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. shut the school in the wake of a final federal court order to admit Negroes. Other Virginia schools threatened with closing are in Charlottesville, Norfolk and Arlington County. Federal court orders requiring integration have been issued in these cases and may become final within days.

In the deep South at Gainsville, Fla., 27-year-old George H. Starke Jr., a Negro and son of a Florida physician, registered for the law school at the University of Florida. He is an Air Force veteran and is attending on the GI Bill.

★ ★ ★

The City Council at St. Petersburg, Fla., closed the city's Spar Beach permanently, thus side stepping a U.S. Supreme Court order for its integration. The beach was closed last week after four Negroes went swimming there.

At Collingswood, N.J., Dr. Carl McIntyre, president of the International Council of Christian Churches, said the church itself must integrate before its leaders can sanction the use of force to achieve racial integration in the South.

WHO-O-OSH! — Like a deadly bird of prey a Martin Matador blasts skyward, impelled by a powerful booster rocket. The rocket is automatically jettisoned after the missile is airborne and its jet engine takes over. A tactical missile, Matador can be controlled electronically from the ground.

Halt Launching of Navy Moon

7th Try on Vanguard Cut Off Split Second Before Firing

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) The mighty engine of a Vanguard satellite rocket roared into action today but then was cut off a split second before launching.

The Navy announced 10 minutes later that the launching was postponed because of technical difficulties. The shoot will be rescheduled in the near future.

Just as the crucial preliminary countdown reached the zero mark, a flash of red flame and smoke was seen and the bullet shaped 72-foot rocket remained poised on its launching pad.

The rocket carried a 20-inch, 21½-pound satellite which housed instruments to study weather phenomena.

This was the seventh try at launching a composite three-stage Vanguard. The program has been marked by only one success. A pounds was blasted into orbit March 17.

Today's launching was tymied by a series of "holds" during the countdown when minor malfunctions occurred.

When everything appeared to run smoothly, trouble again developed and the test conductor apparently ordered that the engines be cut off just before liftoff.

There was no immediate explanation of what caused the shutdown.

Icelanders Attempt to Board Trawler

LONDON (AP) — The Icelandic gunboat Thor tried to put a boarding party on the 397-ton British trawler Red Lancer last night as the codfish war off Iceland flared up again, the British navy reported.

An Admiralty communique said the destroyers Hogue and Lagos and another British trawler—the Arctic Explorer—chased the Icelanders away.

The incident broke a lull of several days in active Icelandic attempts to arrest British trawlers fishing inside Iceland's new 12-mile limit.

Many From Pontiac Among Returning Students

MSU Campus Will Come to Life

By LYDIA ROTHMAN

The banks of the Red Cedar River—East Lansing—will resound with cheering fans from the Pontiac area soon.

Local students are looking forward to a thrilling football season with Michigan State University's Spartans, ranked as one of the top teams of the coming year.

RENEW FRIENDSHIPS

The Union Grill will be the meeting place of many area students as they renew old acquaintances and freshmen plan their winter term classes.

On the academic side—Berkey Hall will be the scene of many a stimulating class for our local students.

★ ★ ★

Roland Tollefson of Stanley street will enter Michigan State for the first time this fall to study engineering.

Dennis W. Alexander of Clarkston will also be a freshman majoring in police administration.

A senior this fall, majoring in elementary education, is Barbara Hess of South Draper avenue. She is membership chairman of her sorority, Alpha Xi Delta, and chairman of public relations committee with the university. She also is a member of Pan Hellenic Council and on its scholarship committee.

Another senior, majoring in accounting, is Lewis C. Hopkins of Rohr road.

★ ★ ★

Frieda Griesbach of Waterford is returning to MSU as a sophomore majoring in elementary education and minoring in art and music.

Planning to major in public school music is Sandra Sommerville of North Edith street. She will be a freshman.

Wayne Pyke of State street will return as a senior and major in business administration.

Also a senior is Carol Young of Riviera street, majoring in elementary education. She is affiliated with Pi Beta Phi Sorority and is also a member of Union Board.

STUDIES ENGINEERING

Brant Cotterman of West Iroquois road will be a junior engineering student this fall. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity.

Another major in elementary education is Jo Uligian of Starr street. She will be a senior and plans to live in North Williams Hall.

Jane Ann Russell of Birmingham will return to MSU this fall as a junior majoring in nursing.

★ ★ ★

Marcia Petrie of Cherokee avenue will be a sophomore taking a liberal arts course. She is a member of Delta Gamma Sorority and Spartan Women's League.

Freshman Ann Pirochta of Shimmons street will be an education major in foreign languages — French and German. She plans to join the French Club and perhaps work on the year book.

Also going to East Lansing for the first time is Worley H. Smith Jr. of McKinley drive. He has not yet decided on a major.

Janet Wiltgen of Wenonah drive will continue her major in elementary education. She is a sophomore.

★ ★ ★

Jo Ann Johnson of LaFay drive is returning for her second year at MSU. She is majoring in secondary education.

A freshman this fall is Dave Kimball of Ogemaw road.

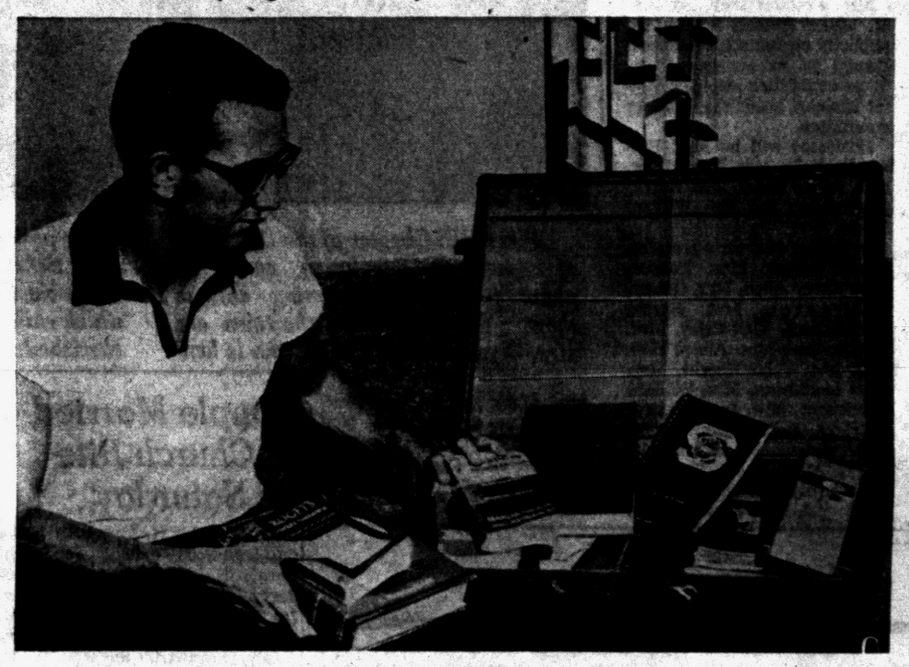
Rodney Evans of Dover road will be a sophomore pre-med student.

Majoring in business education is Barbara Broadway of Auburn road. She will be a sophomore this fall.

Judy Baker of Navajo drive is college bound next week. She will be a freshman at MSU majoring in speech education. She plans to live in Yakeley Hall.

You can be sure "Ginger" will be sad and lonely when her playmates Dein and Donna Nolf of Lafay drive return to MSU this fall. Dein will be a junior majoring in chemical engineering and Donna is a sophomore with a major in history.

What the well dressed coed will wear this fall is displayed by Katherine Armstrong of Wenonah drive. She will be a senior majoring in elementary education and home economics. Gilchrist Hall will be her home for the year.



Donald Braunagel of East Longfellow street collects his books as he prepares to go back to Michigan State University. He will be a sophomore in civil engineering.

Was the Service Good?

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: Not long ago a waiter told me my tip was not enough. In order not to create a scene in the restaurant I added to it. What I should have liked to do was pick up the amount and walk out. Will you make same comment on this behavior?"

Answer: If he gave you inefficient service you could have said, "The tip was more than enough for the service you gave me" and left it. If you had no complaints with the service you would then probably have shown surprise and could have said, "How much should it be?"—and then added the difference. (All in perfectly good temper of course.)

"Dear Mrs. Post: I went to the wedding of a neighbor's daughter the other day. She had on a very beautiful dress but she was so heavily made up that it spoiled her whole appearance. She wore a very vivid lipstick and quite a lot of eye make-up. Wasn't this in bad taste? I have always felt that make-up should be used very sparingly on this occasion. What is your opinion?"

Answer: I most certainly agree with you. The make-up you describe on a bride is actually shocking!

"Dear Mrs. Post: We'd like to have the two mothers as part of the bridal receiving line. Will you please tell me how they should stand—in what order, I mean?"

Answer: Correctly, there are two lines. The bride's mother stands at the door of entrance—the bridegroom's mother on her right. Fathers are sometimes next, but they usually walk about. The bridal receiving line is: The bride on the bridegroom's right, her maid of honor on her right and the bridesmaids beyond the maid of honor. They stand wherever the best background happens to be. (Best man and ushers not included.)

"Dear Mrs. Post: When giving a shower for two sisters who will be married at a double wedding, should all the invitations include both names or just the one name for each separate set of friends?"

Answer: As a rule, the two names are put on the invitation although this does not mean that guests are expected to send gifts to both. They would, of course, if they know both equally well.

Look of Luxury Distinguishes Collection

"The Look of Luxury" is the theme of the collection of fall fashions by Ruth Joyce.

The outstanding feature of the look is created by the versatility of the elegant simplicity of the slim lined gowns.

★ ★ ★

Luxurious fabrics — bulky and smooth — heavy wools to lightweight silks — add the elegant look of the beautifully finished gowns, most of which are fitted with flattering waistlines.

★ ★ ★

"Never, never," is the comment on above the knee hems. All daytime dresses feature mid-calf lengths.

Miss Vernon Plans to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vernon of West Rundell street announce the engagement of their daughter, Gwendolyn Sue, to Loren Francis Thompson. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Thompson of Court street.

The wedding will take place Nov. 1 at Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church.

County Hospital Receives 2 Gifts

Patients at the Oakland County Convalescent Hospital have received a donation of money from the Newcomers Club of Pontiac. Mrs. Peter Aldo of Voorheis road was chairman of the project.

A gift of 60 books for the hospital library also has been given by Mrs. Eva J. Shaw of Parkwood avenue in memory of her sons, S. Sgt. Cecil Glen Smith.

Keep Your Beau's Sweater Clean

Teenagers who wear their best beau's letter sweaters should keep them clean and pressed.

★ ★ ★

Letters on sports jackets will stand out if you iron them on the wrong side with a large folded bath towel placed under the letter.

Dear Abby . . .

Be Good Scout at Home

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: Scouting is wonderful, especially when you have two sons growing up. But shouldn't Scouting begin at home? There are screens to put up, painting to be started and yard work to be done. My husband and sons think Scouting means to pack a lunch and go for a hike. Their intentions are good but our place is a disgrace to the neighbors. What do you say to that, Abby?"

MOM

ABBY

DEAR MOM: When I was a Girl Scout (Troop 36, Sioux City, Iowa) I learned that a good scout had to do a good deed every day. Carity begins at home and there is no better place to be a good scout.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a sister-in-law who comes to your house and starts housecleaning? She visits me once a year and I can't take much more of her. She's one of those fuss-budget types who can't stand to see a speck of dust anywhere or a dish in the sink. She has torn apart my cupboards and closets till I think I will go nuts looking for stuff she either threw away or put somewhere else. She's my husband's oldest sister and I can't tell her off. What can I do?"

GOING NUTS

DEAR GOING: This is one battle you will have to fight alone. Serve her notice before she sets foot in your door that she is a GUEST and you don't want your guests working. If you don't make it clear that you mean business you can expect this annual annoyance.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: You are VERY wrong. There is plenty of harm in LOOKING according to Matthew 5:28 and I quote: 'But I say unto you that whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart,' end quote. Married men who gape and gawk at other women are being 'mentally unfaithful' to their wives."

MRS. E. L. D.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: Now about that woman who was complaining because her 63-year-old husband was always 'looking.' She should be glad she's got a man with that much life in him at his age. I am also married to a man of 63 and he quit looking (at me, too) 10 years ago. Some people don't know when they're well off."

STEADY READER

"DEAR ABBY: Five years ago I married a widower. I was a widow. Neither of us ever had any children. I am now 55 and he is 63. We own a comfortable home, have no debts and travel with a grand circle of friends. My husband is a perfect host and I am always congratulated on my fine husband who, by the way, is important in our church.

"When we are alone he calls me vulgar names and tells me if I don't like it I can get out because there are lots of wealthy widows waiting for him. His mental cruety is making a nervous wreck out of me. I took my marriage vows seriously. Could he have a split personality or is it just meanness? Please help me."

ALL CONFUSED

DEAR ALL: Your husband should be checked thoroughly by a doctor. Tell the doctor (in confidence, of course) about your husband's inconsistent behavior. He needs his mental furniture dusted.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "MISTER FIVE BY FIVE": What YOU need is a lesson on GIRTH CONTROL . . . and that was no misprint.

On Wednesday, Carolyn Leacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Leacher of Murphy avenue, received the Lucy B. Germain award from Harper Hospital School of Nursing. She received the award for scholarship, leadership and service.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bigham and son Harry of South Johnson avenue, with their other son, Lloyd Jr., of Flint, have had as house guests, Mrs. Bigham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Jamison of Springfield, Ohio.

Mrs. Bigham's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Dennis of Ionia, also joined the family for the past week.

The Jamisons also have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bigham of Midway avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Vanderworp of Strathmore avenue and son, Michael.

★ ★ ★

Local students were among those at Michigan State University who earned degrees this summer.

Larry D. Detmers of Birmingham received a B.A. in art. Harris J. Jackson, also of Birmingham, earned a B.A. in accounting.

Recipient of a B.A. in economics is Richard C. Kramp of Auburn road.

George L. Kreglow of Birmingham earned a M.S. in electrical engineering.

Also of Birmingham, Albert P. LaMachio, received a B.A. in production management and Terrence C. Laundry of Birmingham received a B.A. in social science divisional.

Couple Married in Church Rite on Saturday

At the John R. Cornforth home on Inglewood avenue Jacquelyn Cornforth became the bride of Jerry Qualls, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Qualls of Oldsmobile street, Saturday evening. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. E. Welton of the Parkdale Church.

The bride wore a ballerina length dress of white nylon chiffon fashioned with a satin cummerbund. The shoulder-length veil was secured by a band of coils of nylon. Her flowers were white carnations and baby breath.

Matron of honor Judy Hutchinson was gowned in aqua faille and wore a corsage of yellow carnations. Robert Hutchinson served as best man.

Mrs. Cornforth selected a blue jersey dress and wore a corsage of pink and white carnations for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Qualls was dressed in navy and also wore a pink and white carnation corsage.

After a reception held at the bride's home, the couple left for a trip to northern Michigan. Upon their return they will reside on Mechanic street.

Mrs. Reeves Hosts Flora Shelly Group

Flora Shelly Group of the First Presbyterian Church met Friday evening at the Scott Lake home of Mrs. Wayne Reeves. Avis Carey and Edith Bandeen assisted.

The meeting was conducted by chairman Miss Cary, and Lulu McGregor gave devotions. Guests were Mrs. Roland West, Mrs. Galen Hershey and Mary Phipps.

Lambert PTA Plans Movie Thursday

MRS. KENNETH W. HALPIN

Kenneth W. Halpin Claims Dianne R. Kent as Bride

Wearing a waltz-length nylon lace gown, Dianne Ruth Kent was married to Kenneth William Halpin Saturday morning at St. Michael Church. The Rev. Michael J. O'Reilly officiated, before 250 guests.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Kent of Scottwood avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Halpin of North Ardmore street.

The bride's fingertip French illusion veil, trimmed with seed pearls, was held by a crown and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and roses.

Judy Bossett was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Karen Metz, Mary Halpin and Rita Halpin. They all wore identical dresses of pink chiffon over taffeta and carried bouquets of pink baby crysanthemums. Anne Halpin, the bridegroom's niece, was flower girl. She wore a dress of white nylon over pink.

Charles Halpin was his brother's best man, with ushers Art Fitzgerald, Larry Hayden and Kenneth Rogers.

Following an evening reception at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for a honeymoon to northern Michigan. They will live on Sanford street.

The bride wore a black velveteen sheath with black accessories for her going away outfit.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kent selected a beige brocade sheath and Mrs. Halpin was dressed in a black wool dress with black accessories. Both had corsages of white baby chrysanthemums.

Judy Katherine Trumble and Alfred James Macksey Jr. were married Saturday evening at Christ Church Cranbrook. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Charles Trumble and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred James Macksey.

MRS. ALFRED J. MACKSEY JR.

Macksey-Trumble Vows Spoken at Christ Church

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene of the Saturday evening wedding of Judy Katherine Trumble and Alfred James Macksey Jr. The Rev. Harold C. DeWindt of Kirk in the Hills officiated at the double-ring candlelight ceremony, before 300 guests.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Charles Trumble of Rochester and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred James Macksey of Birmingham.

IN EMPIRE GOWN

The bride chose an Empire gown of peau de soie featuring a long fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. The portrait neckline was outlined in clipped Chantilly lace with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil was edged with the same lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of pompons and shattered chrysanthemums.

Identical white silk ballerina length dresses were worn by the attendants.

The bride's sisters, Jacqueline and Joy Trumble were maid of honor and junior bridesmaid.

Bridesmaids were Carole Melstrom, Janet Mason and Frances Duffield of Rochester, and Carole Sue Hopkins of Leonard.

Their gowns featured fitted bodices and full skirts and their headpieces were bows of autumn gold. They carried nosegays of chrysanthemums.

ASSIST BRIDEGROOM

Richard Lee Cunningham of Birmingham was best man and ushers were Dr. Thomas S. Torgerson, the bridegroom's cousin of Birmingham, Robert Brownell, John S. Kurtz of Detroit and John B. McClear of Livonia.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Trumble chose a Givenchy blue brocade dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Macksey was dressed in an emerald satin dress with matching accessories.

A reception following the ceremony was held in Guild Hall of the church.

Work to Achieve Lovely Bustline

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

All legs and no bust is plain unjust! But there seems no doubt about it — we are going to be all legs with the short skirt-line; therefore we must compensate on the upper level.

A lovely bustline is essential to a beautiful figure. Many women who have this in youth lose it as the years pass. There are many factors which enter into this change.

Pregnancy and the nursing period are times of danger to bust contour. However, a woman need not have this handicap. If brassieres which properly support the increased weight of the bust are used, you greatly minimize this danger.

As I have said many times before in this column, a mother always should lie down when she nurses her baby. Firming exercises also are beneficial after weaning your child.

However, motherhood is not the only reason for a change in bustline. The tissues of the bust are very delicate and brassieres which squeeze or put undue pressure on the bust will break these down and cause sagging.

The only way to increase the bust measurement and decrease sagging is to build up the underlying chest muscles. You can do this with special exercises. I have had many pupils who have added inches to their bust measurements in this way. However, do not expect results within a week or so. This takes several months.

The following are two exercises which will be helpful: 1. Stand tall, raise the arms sideward, shoulder height, palms facing forward. Swing the arms toward each other, crossing them in front of the body, right arm over the left.

Move the arms back to the sideward, shoulder height position. Again swing the arms toward each other, this time the left arm over the right when they cross. Continue. Keep the arms stiff so that the chest muscles do the work.

2. Bend the elbows, raise the arms up in front of you and clasp the hands. Hands should be about level with the top of your head. Grip the hands hard and pull the elbows in toward the center of the body. Maintain the squeeze while you count to six slowly. Relax and continue.

★ ★ ★

If you would like to have my routine which will add inches to your bust measurement, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 7 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Canned Spanish Rice Good to Stuff Peppers

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

If you've been to the farmers' market lately, you probably have bought some of the large shiny green peppers. They're wonderfully crisp and juicy at this time of year. Mrs. William Bell suggests a way of using them for a main dish.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Bell is the mother of two children. She is active in the Commerce School PTA. Gardening is her hobby and she tells of planting 200 glads this year.

STUFFED PEPPERS
By Mrs. William Bell

Cut peppers in half and remove seeds. Boil in salted water for five minutes. Fill pepper halves with a mixture of one can spanish rice and ¼ pound ground beef, browned. Bake 10 minutes at 350 degrees. Serve at once.

This amount will fill three whole peppers and serves six.

Moles loosen and enrich soil, and their burrows hold rain to be used by plants rather than running off uselessly.

Wileys Entertain at Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Wiley of LaSalle avenue were hosts Sunday at a diner and open house honoring the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wiley of Matamora who are leaving to make their home in Marion, Ind.

The norman Wileys' sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Wiley and family of Battle Creek, Norman Jr. of Lapeer, and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson J. Wiley who have recently returned from France and their daughter, Alma Jean, of Lapeer, also were on hand to be with their parents.

Esther Court Plans Party on Thursday

Members of Esther Court No. 13, Order of the Amaranth, will hold their annual cup and saucer card party at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building.

Chairman for the event is Mrs. Harley Bowers. Committees include: Mrs. Pierre Shaver, refreshments; Judy Lacy, prizes; Mrs. Gladys Holliman, cards and tallies; and Mrs. Wallace Morgan and Mrs. John Balch, candy.

If a baby's dress has lace or ribbon trim, place it in a mesh bag before laundering. Remove from dryer while slightly damp. Iron immediately or enclose in plastic bag and store in refrigerator until ironing.

Mary Frances Weakley and George J. Felice were married Saturday morning at St. Michael Church. Parents of the couple are Mrs. Mary L. Weakley and Mrs. Elsie Felice.

White gladioli and white carnations banked the altar of St. Michael Church for the Saturday morning wedding of Mary Frances Weakley and George J. Felice.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Mary L. Weakley of State street and Mrs. Elsie Felice of South Marshall street.

The bride was dressed in a waltz-length gown of white lace over taffeta and net. It featured a fitted jacket with long tapered sleeves edged with lace and a bouffant skirt.

She wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom. On a white prayer book, she carried a bouquet of white camellias and white rosebuds centered with a white rose corsage.

Mrs. Henry Felice, the bridegroom's sister-in-law, was matron of honor. She wore a pale pink chiffon dress with a rose sash and carried a bouquet of white camellias with pink rosebud centers.

Henry Felice was his brother's best man.

To receive guests at a reception held at the bridegroom's home, Mrs. Weakley chose a brown dress and Mrs. Felice wore a blue lace dress. Both had orchid corsages.

When the couple left for a honeymoon to Washington, D.C., and New York City, the bride was wearing a two-piece blue jersey dress with the white rose corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will live on Boston avenue.

It Can't Last, Federal Authorities Feel

To Wait Out Closing of Schools in South

By MERRIMAN SMITH

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Federal authorities are counting heavily on everyday human factors to play a major part in moving the South toward solution of school integration problems.

The basic factor they see is the desire of most parents for a good education for their children.

They think school closures will cause questions such as these to be pondered:

—What happens to the college entrance qualifications of a high school senior if his school is closed by state law for a considerable period to avoid racial integration?

—What happens to teacher pay when the schools are closed? Most public school teachers don't draw paychecks from the end of the old school year until one month after the start of the new school year.

—What happens to working mothers who bank heavily in the September-to-June period on their youngsters spending most of the day in school?

—In some southern states legislative provision has been made for reopening closed public schools as so-called private institutions. How are these to be financed if they are to be truly private? Will contributions by the parents be based on the size of their incomes, as in the case of income taxes, or will they have to pay on a per pupil basis?

—What happens to the school lunch program, subsidized in part by the federal government? The same question can be raised concerning school construction where federal money is helping to foot the bills.

Government policy-makers interviewed by United Press International disclaimed any idea of a federal economic offensive against communities whose schools are closed in the integration fight.

These officials, however, were firmly convinced that the answers to their questions would come from within the school districts involved —from the parents whose kids will be rattling around loose with nothing to do.

"The federal government," said one eminent official, "has two real interests in this whole matter—seeing to it that there is equality under law, and that orders of the federal courts are upheld in a legal, orderly manner.

"But quite aside from these two highly important considerations, I just don't believe there are many parents who, for long, would support any action depriving their children of an education."

★ ★ ★

In communities where schools are closed by state decree to avoid integration the side effects hit first at high school seniors. Most of them want to go to college. If a school is closed for any length of time the educational lapse might have a real effect on accreditation of seniors for college entrance. A student who missed much of his senior year would have to make it up somehow.

Some officials doubted the constitutionality of some of the plans for conversion of public into private schools.

"A private school as we see it is one completely owned and operated by private capital, private management," one authority said. "If the switchover is just a matter of changing names but using the same public building, if it is just another way of circumventing integration, then no matter what they call it the student denied admission still is being denied equality under law.

"It is true that when a school is closed the federal government is quite limited in getting it open again. We can't make teachers teach; we can't make kids go to school.

"In the meantime, we'll see what we can do about maintenance of law and order when local authorities find it too much for themselves, and we'll do our best to see that the law is interpreted by the Supreme Court is carried out."

★ ★ ★

When it was suggested that reliance on the human factors, however valid, seemed like a rather long-term proposition this official said:

"Not as long as you might imagine. Parents want their children to have an education. They won't go without it for very long."

Fleeing Burglar Falls 50 Feet, Gets Caught

NEW YORK (UPI) — Twenty-seven-year-old Michael Keller was in the hospital yesterday with fractured arms and legs because, police said, when he fled from a burglary the first step he took was 50 feet straight down.

They said Keller broke into a Bronx check cashing office early Sunday and tripped off a burglar alarm. He grabbed $22.80 from a drawer and dashed to a window to escape.

But Keller didn't know the building abutted a New Haven Railroad cut and he plunged 50 feet down to the tracks.

Both his legs and both arms were fractured. Emergency squads had to cut off power while Keller was removed from the tracks with hooks.

Negro Parents Settle Dispute

Seven Brooklyn Pupils Shifted by Rezoning School District

NEW YORK (AP) — Parents of seven Negro children who had been kept out of public school in Brooklyn in a protest against schools with almost all Negro pupils have settled their dispute with school authorities.

The parents agreed to send the children to classes today in a school other than the one to which they were originally assigned.

The issue was settled yesterday by the expedient of immediate instead of delayed rezoning of school districts.

There actually is no segregation in New York City schools. But the racial makeups of neighborhoods leads to some schools with nearly all Negro or Puerto Rican pupils and other schools with nearly all white pupils.

The Brooklyn settlement was reached at a three-hour meeting of the Negro parents with Dr. John J. Theobald, superintendent of schools.

★ ★ ★

The pupils had been assigned to Public School 93, which has almost all Negro pupils. The objecting parents claimed the school is inferior. Theobald denied this.

Under the agreement, the seven pupils will attend nearby Public School 138, which is in a racially mixed neighborhood and has a mixed student body.

★ ★ ★

Theobald said the Board of Education had planned to rezone the area next March when the new Public School 289 will be completed. Under the rezoning, he said, some of the schools in the area will achieve a greater mixture of the races. This is being done in other parts of the city also.

Yesterday's agreement to speed the rezoning will affect other pupils in addition to those whose parents protested. With the seven will go 80 other pupils who had been attending School 93.

More U. S. Aid to Arabs Arrives in Cairo, Egypt

CAIRO (UPI) — More road-building and repair equipment has arrived in the Egyptian part of the United Arab Republic in a resumption of aid under a 1955 Egyptian-U.S. agreement.

A shipment which arrived last week was the second since aid was resumed last month. The 1955 pact was for 40 million dollars in U.S. aid for road building, water systems and public health. More than 30 million dollars had been given before the 1956 Suez crisis when the aid was halted.

Students at Central School in Fort William, Ont., Canada, spent their hours after school collecting 35,000 coathangers which they sold to cleaning firms for one cent each. They spent the money to buy equipment for a school for retarded children.

Danish Island to Get TV for Christmas in '59

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (UPI)—The Baltic Island of Bornholm—the only Danish island not covered by the state-owned television network—will get its own TV set-up next year.

The Danish TV network wants to buy some land at Ystad, Sweden, where it will build a relay station. Construction of the station is scheduled to begin next fall, with Bornholm residents receiving Danish programs by Christmas 1959.

You can get extra miles per gallon from the BIG BONUS in Gold Crown Super-Premium

200,000-mile test proves it

- Now, a 200,000-mile test backs up what GOLD CROWN users have said all along—"We get extra miles per gallon with GOLD CROWN!" The 100 car owners who took part in this test proved it in three-months of everyday driving!

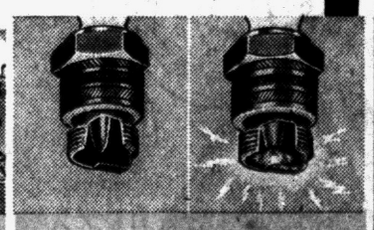
So, for thriftier BIG BONUS mileage and smoother BIG BONUS performance, try it in your car—GOLD CROWN Super-Premium. There's never been a gasoline like it!

STANDARD

You expect more from Standard ...and get it!

100 private cars were driven by their owners for three months of ordinary daily rounds—to school, shopping, work . . . in city traffic and on the highway. No professional drivers, no charted courses. Gold Crown was tested the way we all drive.

Cars that started the test using competitive brands switched to Gold Crown Super-Premium. Accurate records to tenths of a mile and fractions of a gallon proved you get extra mileage with Gold Crown, particularly at highway speeds.



One big reason Gold Crown gives more miles—a few tankfuls restore full fire to most fouled spark plugs. Plug on left is fouled, spark is erratic, wasting gas. Plug at right shows how Gold Crown restores spark for full power, more mileage.

Couple Pleads Guilty of Lapeer Thefts

LAPEER — George P. Smith Jr., 24, of Flint, and Betty Thompson, 22, of 2159 Miles Rd., pleaded guilty in Lapeer Circuit Court yesterday to charges of breaking and entering in the nighttime.

Judge Timothy C. Quinn set the sentencing date for Sept. 29. Bonds of $1,000 each were continued.

The couple has confessed to 22 burglaries in Lapeer and Genesee counties and Traverse City.

Smith and Miss Thompson were arrested Sept. 7 in Flint on information furnished by a Lapeer man who reported seeing them leaving the Lapeer Hardware Store, 141 W. Nepessing St. early that Sunday morning.

RITA LOU HAWK

The engagement of Rita Lou Hawk, of 1038 Golf Dr., Bloomfield Township, to Donald Carroll, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hawk of Kittanning, Pa. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carroll of 3242 Signet St., Drayton Plains. A graduate of Bob Jones University, the bride is a teacher at the Emmanuel Christian School of Pontiac. The couple plans a June wedding.

HONOR ROCHESTER BANKER — Fifty-four years in banking have come to a close for Milton Haselswerdt, vice president of the Rochester office, National Bank of Detroit. Henry T. Bodman, president of the Bank, is shown presenting him with an engraved sterling silver place tray as a token of appreciation of his lifetime of service. The presentation took place during a testimonial dinner at the Kingsley Inn, given in his honor last night and attended by 20 friends and banking associates. Included in the group are Henry W. Axford (center, left), and Alfred G. Wilson (extreme right), both members of the bank's Rochester Advisory Committee. Haselswerdt will retire officially Sept. 30. He will be succeeded by Jack E. Taylor, vice president.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD A. TRUBEY

Area Newlyweds Attend College in Berrien Springs

HOLLY—Following their honeymoon in northern Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Trubey are making their home in Berrien Springs where they are students at Emmanuel Missionary College.

They were married recently at the Holly Seventh Day Adventist Church. Performing the rite was Prof. R. W. Pratt of Adelphian Academy in Holly.

The former Ardith Erie Sutton, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sutton of 300 Davisburg Rd. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Lester Trubey of Rock Creek, Ohio.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Alencon lace over white taffeta. A sweetheart neckline enhanced the fitted bodice from which the bouffant skirt extended. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a silver crown tiara and she carried a cascade bouquet of white baby mums and Garnet roses.

The bride's sister, Edith, was maid of honor. Three other sisters, Dorothy, Linette and Barbara, were bridesmaids.

Lighting the candles were another sister of the bride, Christina, and the bridegroom's sister, Jeanette. Jo Ann Gard of St. Joseph, the bride's cousin, was the flower girl and Bible boy was Jackie Sutton, the bride's brother.

★ ★ ★

Best man for his brother, was Charles Trubey of Columbis, Wis. The attendants were Lee Stillwell of Warren, Ohio, the bridegroom's brother-in-law; Bill Knecht and Dean Flint, both of Berrien Springs. Guests were seated by Dale Zimmerman of Berrien Springs and Dan Peters of Hemlock.

★ ★ ★

The reception took place in the multi-pupose room of the Holly Elementary School following the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Adelphian Academy. Her husband was graduated from Mt. Vernon Academy, Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

Hula Hoopin' Contest Extended in Rochester

ROCHESTER — They'll be hula hoopin' again next Saturday out at the North Hill Plaza shopping center north of Rochester.

There were so many youngsters entered in the contest, which began last Saturday, the event had to be held over to complete the competition. Some 220 kids are taking part.

★ ★ ★

When time ran out Saturday, four contestants in the 7-10 year-old bracket were still twirling after 2 hours and 45 minutes. Four 6-year-olds held out for 50 minutes.

Slate Fashion Show at Devon Gables

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Junior Woman's Club will sponsor its third annual fall fashion show beginning at 12:30 p.m. Thursday at Devon Gables.

Three hundred area women are expected to attend, according to cochairmen Mrs. Hudson Hill and Mrs. Robert Ott.

★ ★ ★

The show will be put on by Selma's Smart Shop, the Lucille Shop, D. J. Healy's, Mitzelfeld's, Linda Lee Shoppe, Buzzell's and the B-Bar-B Western Shop.

A bridge session will follow the show.

Proceeds will be used in the club's various charity projects.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Zoulek of 6700 Orchard Lake Rd., Orchard Lake, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Anne Marie, to David C. Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cunningham of Albuquerque, N.M., and formerly of Keego Harbor. A December wedding is being planned.

Sewer Payment Gains Approval

Waterford Board Hears 12 Residents Protest Plans for Ditch

The Waterford Township board last night resolved to make final payment of $5,029 to the Seymour Weissman Construction Co. for the installation of sanitary sewers in the Sylvan Shores Subdivision.

One check will be made out for $3,711 and the balance of $1,317 will be made out to Weissman and the Oakland County Road Commission. The latter check is the amount Weissman owes the road commission for repair work done on the completion of the sewer installation.

In other business, there were 12 residents living in the Airport road M59 area protesting the construction of an open water ditch on the west side of Airport road.

Board members tabled this problem for further information to be acquired from the Highland Estate Subdivision developers and engineers.

A hearing date for the establishment of a special street lighting district for subdivisions located in the M59 Crescent Lake road area has been set for Sept. 29.

Board members approved the township share of $1,450 for the repairing of a water hole on Dixie highway near Walton boulevard. The state, county and township have split the cost of this repair which is approximately $15,000.

The board also approved $211 as a share of their part in building the Pontiac Lake level control dam.

Slate Meeting of Garden Club at Pine Lake

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The first fall meeting of the Pine Lake Farm & Gardens Club will be a dessert luncheon at the Pineview drive home of Mrs. Lawrence Keller at 1 p.m. Thursday.

Mrs. Keller will be assisted by Mrs. Jack Radcliffe and Mrs. Dale Bartholomew. They have selected the fall shades of bronze and gold for their color scheme.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. William McCallum, national extension chairman, will be guest speaker. Mrs. Arthur Hyde, state extension chairman, also will be a guest at the affair.

The group entered six arrangements in the Autumn Splendor Flower Show, winning four ribbons. Mrs. Lawrence Creasy took first, Mrs. Ralph Clingaman, second, and Mrs. A. J. Lindemann and Mrs. Lawrence Keller, third.

School Bus Tires Stolen at Romeo

ROMEO—Thieves broke into the Romeo school bus garage and stole four bus tires from a rack, Romeo State Police said today.

Entry was gained by breaking a pane of glass in the front door.

This was the second theft reported in Romeo in five days. The first occurred last Thursday night when burglars made off with two large metal planters, had been used to decorate the front of the Peppermint Stick Gift shop on South Main street.

The planters, filled with petunias, were so heavy that it would have taken two people to lift them, according to store owners Mr. and Mrs. Marshal L. Peirce of Birmingham.

ORGANIZE NEW ZONTA CLUB — Edna Nairn, governor of District 5 of Zonta International; Mrs. Chadd Mellinger, president of the Pontiac club, and Mrs. W. S. Lovejoy, president of the newly formed Zonta Club of Milford, were on hand for the charter dinner Monday at Milford First Presbyterian Church.

ATTEND ZONTA PARLEY — Mrs. Dorothy Brooks (left), State Sen. L. Harvey Lodge, and Mrs. T. F. Wolcott, of Flint, lieutenant governor of District 5, Zonta International, took part in the charter dinner held at Milford Monday night.

Voters Will Decide $450,000 Bond Issue

SOUTHFIELD — A $450,00 bond issue for the purchase of land and improvement of parks within the city of Southfield will be placed before voters for approval in a general election Nov. 4.

The City Council voted unanimously to place the proposal before the electorate, following a joint meeting with the Parks and Recreation Commission.

No increases in taxes will be required to pay for the general obligation bonds, which will be spread over a 30-year period, according to City Administrator Eugene M. Swem.

He said the three-tenths mills allocated to the Parks and Recreation Commission by the charter will cover interest or charges.

According to a Spanish tradition, the word, mayonnaise, is derived from Mahon, the capital and port city of Menorca, the least known of the Balearic Islands, which lie off Spain's east coast.

Zontians of Milford Hold Charter Dinner

MILFORD — Two hundred Zontians and their guests attended a charter banquet held last night for the Zonta Club of Milford at Milford's First Presbyterian Church.

Sponsoring the new club was the Zonta Club of Pontiac, under the leadership of Mrs. Chadd Mellinger.

★ ★ ★

Inspiration for the club came from Marion Holden, a member of the Pontiac Zonta Club. The Milford club was the 35th club organized by District 5.

President of Zonta International, Mrs. Audra Francis of Saginaw, presented the charter to the Milford club and installed officers and members.

Edna Nairn, governor of District 5, gave the welcome address. Joseph M. Gerrad, president of the Village of Milford, welcomed the guests, and Mrs. W. S. Lovejoy, the club's first president, spoke on the objectives of the new organization.

State Sen. L. Harvey Lodge told of the early days of Milford and outlined its growth. Presiding officer was Mrs. Chadd Mellinger, and Mrs. Ashton W. Emery was program chairman.

Grace Beck of Toledo announced the conference in Toledo Sept. 26-28.

★ ★ ★

Soloist was Mrs. Rebecca Gould. The invocation was given by the Rev. Bertram White, and the benediction by The Rev. Charles Richey.

Dismissal Denied in Suit of Teamsters

Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty today denied a motion which would have dismissed a suit against Detroit Teamsters Local 283, brought last week by a Farmington firm which charged the union with illegal picketing.

★ ★ ★

Judge Doty, after conferring this morning with the three other circuit judges, granted the union the right to station two pickets at the Northwest Propane Corp., 32445 Northwestern Highway, until the case can be heard Sept. 30.

He ordered further that any violence between the pickets and the employes would terminate his "peaceful picketing" order.

Donald J. Prebenda, Detroit attorney for Local 283, filed a motion to dismiss the suit of the company, claiming it was a matter for the National Labor Relations Board to decide, not the circuit court.

The firm, which bottles and distributes propane gas, sought an injunction and $250,000 damages against the union and pickets for allegedly interfering with company operations. The company says its employes are not under contract with the Teamsters.

MR. & MRS. JAMES D. ARNOLD

Drayton Plains Pair Wed in Pontiac Church Rite

DRAYTON PLAINS — Making their home at 8615 Pontiac Lake Rd., White Lake Township, are Mr. and Mrs. James D. Arnold who were married recently at the Evangel Temple in Pontiac. The rite was performed by the Rev. Godfrey Day.

★ ★ ★

The former Retha Carol Cowan of 4120 Baybrook Dr., Drayton Plains, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Cowan of Pasadena, Calif. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. William I. Arnold of 4474 Major Dr., Drayton Plains.

For her wedding, the new Mrs. Arnold chose a ballerina type gown of white taffeta featuring a scoup neckline, and trimmed with daisies. Her jewelry was pearl earrings and she carried a bouquet of white carnation and white roses.

Maid of honor was Phyllis Willoughby of Waterford, and Ronald Willoughby was the best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Huff, of Drayton Plains, with whom she had been making her home.

Having spent most of his life in hospitals with various ailments, Mickey went in again when he recently suffered a fractured left leg. After the traction period, doctors plan to put him in a cast from the waist down for six to eight weeks.

Arab Terrorism Spreads to Marseille

MARSEILLE, France (AP) — North Africans carried their campaign of terrorism inside a military camp in Marseille today and blew up a tank. One soldier was killed and six wounded.

★ ★ ★

Other terrorists set a bomb under a 12-ton fuel storage tank in the city but it was discovered before it went off.

A charge yesterday rocked the local government headquarters, wounding four persons.

Police in Le Havre reported a bomb exploded last night in the port area under a tanker containing sulphuric acid. Nobody was injured and damage was slight.

★ ★ ★

Violence also erupted last night in eastern France where Europeans clashed with North Africans in three cities. Eight persons were injured.

The violence reflected French anger over the wave of terrorism which has been fatal to 14 Frenchmen since Aug. 25.

Russia Warns Japan Against U.S. Bases

TOKYO (AP)—The Soviet Union today warned Japan against letting the United States use its bases here for "aggression" against Red China.

A Soviet note cited press reports of "the American forces' open use of Japanese territory for their provocative aggression" in the Formosa Strait area.

"If these press reports are based on facts," the note said, "Japan will be involved in American aggressive acts against the People's Republic of China whether Japan likes it or not."

★ ★ ★

The note played on Japanese fears that this country might be open to reprisal attacks should the United States use its bases here to reinforce its troops in any shooting war with Communist China over the Nationalist-held offshore islands.

Calls Desert Tests Extremely Important

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Atomic Energy Commission Chairman John T. McCone has described projected tests in New Mexico next year as "extremely important" to arid lands throughout the world.

★ ★ ★

He said yesterday that project Gnome involves the use of isotopes to trace underground rivers and water beds. He said it could have long-lasting effects on research projects throughout the world.

McCone also said proposed suspension of nuclear tests would result in an intensification of work on the peaceful use of the atom.

But during the ban, he added, "We will not relinquish in any way or slow down our laboratory research on atomic weapons."

Increased SS Assistance Depends on Each State

(This is the seventh in a series of nine columns explaining the changes just voted by Congress in the Social Security Program.)

By RAY HENRY

If you're one of the six million getting public assistance checks or you think you may be eligible for checks, this column is for you.

★ ★ ★

Congress has just added about 200 million dollars to what the federal government spends each year for the four public assistance programs: aid to the needy aged, blind, severely disabled and children in families without breadwinners.

The programs are part of the Social Security system—although it's not widely known. Probably this is because the programs are run mainly by the individual states, with the federal government laying down broad rules and chipping in with money.

In fact, whether your assistance check will be bigger due to the extra 200 million depends on your state. It'll get some of the money. But, it doesn't have to pass it on in bigger checks.

Here's why: Your state has to put up part of your check to get any assistance money for you from the federal government. How big a part of your check each puts up depends—in general—on the size of your check. With the money Congress has just added, your state may use the government money to reduce the amount it puts up and not change the amount of your check.

Or, it may be impossible for your state due to its own laws to raise your check now. Your state may have a law which sets a limit on how big public assistance checks can be and you may be getting the limit.

Some states do have such laws. In those states, the legislatures would have to change their laws to raise the limits. None of the legislatures are in session now and only New Jersey plans to meet before next year. So people in those states getting the legal limit will have to wait.

This can be said: Generally, in the past, the states have—sooner or later — raised public assistance checks when the federal government has put up more money for the programs.

But, if you want to know what may happen to your check, about the only way you can find out is to phone or stop by your local public assistance office.

In putting up the extra money, Congress figured the states could raise the checks for the needy aged—that is, people 65 or over—and average of $4.75 a month; for the blind, an average of $4.35 a month; for the severely disabled, $5.01 a month and for dependent children $1.17 a month.

If you're not geeting public assistance but you think you may be eligible, here are some things you ought to know:

Public assistance is paid only to people with little or no income because they're too old, disabled, blind or young to work much.

The size of the payments are based on a minimum budget the state figures a person needs to live. These budgets vary widely from state to state, and, as a result so do the assistance checks.

For example: In June, the checks to the aged averaged $29.85 in Mississippi—the state with the lowest payments—and averaged $106.40 in Connecticut—the state with the highest payments.

★ ★ ★

Usually, any income a person eligible for public assistance has is deducted from the amount of his payment and he gets the difference up to the budget maximum.

Queen Juliana Urges Dutch People to Save

THE HAGUE (AP) — Queen Juliana of the Netherlands today urged her subjects to save so Holland can maintain her competitive position in international markets.

★ ★ ★

Addressing members of the States-General, the upper and lower houses of Parliament, the Queen in her annual Speech From the Throne said:

"A high level of savings for the prosperity of our people, now and in the future, is urgently required" for a balanced economy and full employment.

★ ★ ★

She said, "The developments in Indonesia have imposed particular burdens on the national economy and the national budget."

Indonesia has seized many large Dutch enterprises in the former Dutch colony.

The 1959 budget shows a deficit of 1,300,000,000 guilders (347 million dollars), double of last year's.

The Queen warned that a stable wage level was required in the coming year, and that tax increases would have to be maintained.

Plan to Study Children of Atom Bomb Victims

TOKYO (UPI) — A joint U.S.-Japanese survey by geneticists will begin next month in the atom-bombed cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, it was reported yesterday.

The Kyodo News Agency said the survey will cover 10,000 children of both cities between the ages of 5 and 10 years to study growth conditions and possible genetic effects of atomic radiation. The survey follows a study of 80,000 pregnant women made between 1948 and 1953.

First Love Best, Says Bride, 71; Weds Again

LIVERPOOL, England (UPI) — It was love at first sight — 50 years ago. And Mrs. Madge Prichard, 71, said today she realizes, "Your first love is the best."

Fifty years ago as Madge Balt she became engaged to 24-year-old David Prichard who was just about to emigrate to Canada. Because of her parents' opposition to the trip she let her fiance sail without her.

★ ★ ★

Years passed and Madge married, becoming Mrs. Madge Meredith. Prichard joined the Canadian army and married too. Then Meredith died and this year so did Prichard's wife.

Prichard returned to England this spring for a three-month vacation and spent most of the time searching for the girl he had left behind. He found her through a notice in a local newspaper.

So the widowed Mrs. Meredith and the widower Prichard met after 50 years and were married. Prichard sailed back to Canada to prepare a home for his new bride and Mrs. Prichard booked passage for Canada for Oct. 3.

★ ★ ★

"People say I am brave starting a new life at my age," she said. "But this time I know I have found happiness. It only proves what I have always believed: Your first love is the best."

Lands Missile Contract

DETROIT (AP) — Burroughs Corp. announced today its award of an additional $8,000,000 Air Force contract for work on the Atlas intercontinental ballistics missile. Burroughs, business machines company, said the work includes development of digital computer systems.

Marie McDonald to Wed Stockbroker

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Marie McDonald and Los Angeles stockbroker Blake Garne say they'll be married during the Christmas holidays.

Friends said the couple met some years ago at a party given by Linda Darnell.

★ ★ ★

It will be the fourth marriage for Miss McDonald, 35, dubbed "The Body" by publicity men early in her career. Two of her marriages were to Harry Karl, wealthy shoe manufacturer. She and Karl were divorced last spring. Earlier she was the wife of actor's agent Vic Orsatti. That marriage ended in divorce in 1947.

★ ★ ★

Garner, 40, is a bachelor.

She made headlines last year when she charged she had been kidnaped from her home in suburban Encino, taken to the desert east of here by two men and later released. Police investigated but made no arrests in the case.

Phillip Crosby Plans to Wed Chorus Girl

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The chorus line at a Las Vegas, Nev., hotel has captured another Crosby heart.

Phillip Crosby announced yesterday he'll wed Sandra Drummond, 20-year-old dancer, in the near future. They met through Phillip's 23-year-old twin Dennis, who recently married showgirl Pat Sheehan.

★ ★ ★

Pat and Sandra were both in the show at the Tropicana Hotel in Las Vegas.

Bing Crosby, reportedly fishing in the Pacific Northwest, was not at home to hear the news. However, Bing's brother Larry said that the wedding may be delayed because Sandra is taking instruction preparatory to joining the Catholic Church.

★ ★ ★

He said another of Bing's sons, Gary, 25, is currently playing the field but with special attention to another Las Vegas dancer, Felicia Atkins. Younger brother Lindsay is in the Army.

Steelworkers Pledge to Support UAW

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)— The United Steelworkers have pledged financial and moral support to the United Auto Workers in their current contract talks.

The pledge came in a resolution adopted unanimously yesterday by the 3,500 delegates attending the steelworkers' ninth constitutional convention.

Steelworker president David J. McDonald said his union would back up the auto workers in their struggle to the "absolute limit of our treasury."

The steelworkers have 1,200,000 members and the auto workers about 1,500,000 members.

At New Peak Third Month

Personal Income Gaining

WASHINGTON (AP)—Personal income climbed to an annual rate of $355,600,000,000 last month—a record high for the third month in a row.

★ ★ ★

The Commerce Department reported last night that the rate of individual incomes rose another 1½ billion dollars during the month—providing a new indication the nation is making a rapid upward climb from the recession. The figure was nine billions above February's recession low of $346,400,000,000.

★ ★ ★

The report also aroused speculation that the government might end the current fiscal year next June 30 with less of a deficit than anticipated.

If income continues to rise, government tax revenues naturally will increase also. That would reduce, at least in part, the $12,200,000,000 deficit estimated last week for fiscal 1959.

Bob Considine Says:

Faubus Blaming Newsmen for Troubles

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—The hundred or so reporters and cameramen all stood up respectfully as Governor Faubus entered the conference room at the state capitol. There was a curious silence as he moved to the head of the long table and took his seat in front of the half a dozen microphones placed there. He smiled, but grimly.

Faubus is a handsome sort, standing six feet or more, fairly trim, and given to very well-tailored dark blue business suits and expensively discreet ties.

He has the hair and hairline of a Pat Boone or Cary Grant. He finds it easy to be affable, expect to most reporters. "Outside" newspapermen are the cause of most of his bad publicity, he often says. "Outside" reporters and, of course, integrationists. He thinks of them largely as not only outlanders but, in all probability, Communists.

The governor handles himself better around reporters now than he did last year. He knew he disliked them last year but was timid about showing it. Now his confidence has increased, as his calm defiance of the Supreme Court has advanced, their questions don't rattle him as they once did.

This was his first meeting with the press in the wake of closing the Little Rock senior high schools. It was not a scheduled press conference.

What happened was that those of us who had gotten up early enough to go to the affected schools, where nothing was happening except football practice and cheer-leading rehearsals, moved in a body on the capitol to see what—if anything—the governor might have to say, now that the chips were formally down.

"I've got nothing to tell those fellows," I could hear him say over a phone hookup to his executive assistant, Arnold Sykes. Faubus was talking from his mansion and Sykes had just told him that the cameramen had set up their lights and other equipment and reporters were dropping cigarette butts on the floor of the capitol's conference room. Sykes politely suggested that it might be best "to get it over with."

So Faubus came down to work, conferred for a few minutes with Sykes and others in his private office, and then strode into the big, hot and now garishly lighted room, as silent as the listless oil paintings of Arkansas' previous governorh who looked down at him from canvasses on the walls.

By now, of course, you know what he said: any use this year of federal troops in Little Rock will be met with "cold fury"; the schools may not reopen until after an October 7 referendum which is certain to take Faubus' side; he wouldn't say whether he'd attempt to open them as private schools even though he felt he has the legal right; the education of the children won't be unduly hurt by the time they are missing, etc.

He repeated the basic answers for NBC, CBS and ABC perspiring a bit under the increased vehemence of the special lights. Then he went back to his office, and his office help relaxed with with coffee in white mugs bearing each person's name.

Most of us moseyed over to the Federal Building to see what the North was up to. Federal Judge John E. Miller, who was rushed here to hand down sentences against people trying to interfere with the Supreme Court's integration order, was fixing to return to Fort Smith. "No sense twiddling my thumbs around here," he grumbled.

The grand jury due to be called Sept. 29 would be called for the 16th, a young Justice Department lawyer said, but he seemed aghast when I asked him if it were being called to consider an indictment against the governor.

Back at Centeral High, scene last year of shocking violence, terrible curses and taunts, and glistening bayonets of 101st Airborne troops, activity was now confined to a lady tourist who, armed with a Brownie 2-A, was taking photographs of the photographers.

Quiet day in Little Rock, but its high school students aren't any brighter as a result.

Trying to Prove Integration Wrong

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A white minister, who said his actions would show "the rights of Negroes as well as those of white people are being taken away," tried to enroll yesterday at a Negro college.

The pastor of the Independent Missionary Baptist Temple, who has opposed school integration, termed his actions an illustration of stupidity because "there are plenty of fine white schools in which I could enroll."

★ ★ ★

Everett O. Bell, registrar of Texas Southern University, said the Rev. Mr. E. A. Munroe's application will be handled like any other. He said he thought he would be admitted if he established himself as scholastically qualified.

The registrar said several white students enrolled at the college last year.

★ ★ ★

The minister was accompanied by about 25 placard and flag carrying members of his congregation. One placard said, "The Supreme Court is not the word of God."

He Couldn't Wait

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—Nine-year-old John McDermott Jr. ran into the back of a car going the same way he was running. That's what the boy's father told city police while John was being treated at a hospital for a bump on his head. It seems young John stirred up a wasp nest and had to move fast.

First Atomic Firing in Fall Series Friday

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—A third postponement has reset the first atomic shot of the fall test series for Friday morning.

The blast originally was scheduled for yesterday. The Atomic Energy Commission did not give the reason for the delay.

The first of 10 scheduled tests will be an explosion of a less than 10-kiloton weapon from a balloon at 500 feet elevation. The weapon's power would be less than that of 1,000 tons of TNT.

Passengers Tell How They Escaped

'Thought I Was Drowned...Kept Swimming'

ELIZABETH, N.J. (AP)—"I was trapped under water. I thought I was drowned. I kept swimming upward. Suddenly I felt a surge of air. I pulled myself up out of the car and there was a boat."

This was Robert M. Klein, 54, a real estate executive, describing his struggle with death after a Jersey Central commuter train plunged into Newark Bay yesterday.

Hear some others.

"I was drowning and praying. My wife was beneath me in the water. I tried to get hold of her. I had one hand on something above me in the water—a seat or something. I had the other hand on my wife. She slipped away. I thought I was drowning and I prayed. Then I saw a light and I realized I was not completely lost."

This was the grief-choked voice of Rafael A. Leon, 55, a Venezuelan financier, who must live always with the memory of his wife's hand slipping through his own to her death.

Quick-thinking Lloyd Nelson, a marine insurance claim agent who had survived the Woodbridge, N.J., train accident which took 84 lives in 1951, prepared for his escape even seconds before the accident actually occurred.

He saw the open drawbridge, figured it might not close in time and began opening a window.

"By the time the car was in the water I had the window open all the way," Nelson said. "I swam to the surface and grabbed a hunk of piling that must have been knocked loose by the train. I floated on it for about 300 yards until I was picked up."

★ ★ ★

Seventy-year-old F. Campbell Jeffery, retired dean of the New York Law School, said he found himself in water up to his waist.

"I reached up and chinned myself up on the luggage rack," he said. "The train was about an angle of 80 degrees to the abutment of the bridge. I went up hand over hand, from seat to seat, working myself toward the rear of the car. There was a man in front of me who could not make it at the top. So I boosted him up and then stepped out and joined between six and eight others who had escaped."

★ ★ ★

Paul V. Land, a New York broker, said he found himself suddenly in the aisle of the car.

"Now I couldn't decide what to do," he said. "I was afraid if I got out of the car the under current would suck me down. So I just buttoned my coat and thought, 'What a lousy way to die.'

"Then I saw a window and broke through it. I don't know how. Maybe with my shoulder, maybe with my head. There are cuts on my head."

Train Jumps Rail, 16 Sent to Hospital

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Eight cars of the Soo Line's Mountaineer were derailed at Hamel, Minn., last night, 40 minutes after the train had left the terminal here, bound for western Canadian points via Portal, N.D.

★ ★ ★

At least 16 persons were hospitalized and upwards of a score more were given first aid for cuts and bruises at the scene, 20 miles northwest of Minneapolis. None were reported seriously hurt.

"I really don't know what happened. We just went, that's all," said one unidentified crew member."

★ ★ ★

Six of the eight cars derailed with the two-unit diesel carried mail, express and baggage.

H. M. Ratje, the conductor estimated 75 persons were aboard the train, which carried 15 cars. He said the train was traveling at normal speed of about 50 miles per hour.

Construction to Rise

DETROIT (AP)—Contracts for future construction in Michigan in July showed a 14 per cent increase over the same month a year ago, F. W. Dodge reports. The biggest increease was in heavy engineering, up 74 per cent. Non-residential building was up 9 per cent. Residential building was down 7 per cent. Contracts for the first seven months of 1958 are down 12 per cent from the like 1957 period.

Hot Lunch Program for Schools Gaining

LANSING (AP)—The federally-aided hot lunch and special milk programs in Michigan schools continue to grow in popularity.

Lynn M. Bartlett, state superintendent of public instruction, said 117 newcomer units have been approved for the hot lunch program in the school year just starting with 22,000 participating youngsters represented.

★ ★ ★

A smaller rise in milk program participants was reported. In the last three years, federal reimbursements for the two activities grossed over 15 million dollars, not counting about eight million dollars in surplus food commodities consumed.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Charles "Ducky" Oertel says his stay in the Major Leagues depends on one thing—getting a fast start when he goes to the Baltimore Oriole spring camp next February.

"I've been a slow starter every year since I've been in pro ball," said Oertel. "I don't know why but I do think that if I can hit in the spring like I do from June to the end of the season I could make the Baltimore team."

Oertel isn't exactly a youngster at 27 as far as Major League rookies go, nor does he tower over home plate to any extent of frightening opponent pitchers.

★ ★ ★

He makes his first big Major League bid at the age of 27 and he stands 5-feet-8, but Chuck does not consider neither size nor age a serious handicap for making the grade.

"It's the size of the batting average, and the figures on hits, runs batted in and fielding that count," he declared.

Oertel's climb from a tour of the minors to Baltimore has been long and gradual, but not without glamor and a stack of statistics which would indicate he was ready for the majors.

★ ★ ★

San Antonio fans presented him with numerous gifts on "his night" after he took the honor of being his team's all-star selection in the Texas League.

Louisville fans also extended honors on Oertel by presenting him with a mammoth trophy for being the city's most popular athlete.

In fact the name, Oertel, has been for many years well known to Louisville baseball fans. The city's brewery which sponsor the Colonel baseball games is owned by a family of the same name.

★ ★ ★

There is no relation, but everyone in Louisville tagged Chuck with a nickname which is closely linked to the name of the brew. The sportscaster doing the Colonel games would automatically say, "Going up to the plate is ole "92."

This was just one of several nicknames which has followed Oertel since he was a youngster. Everyone in Pontiac knows him as "Ducky."

People in American Association fandom have called him "Snuffy."

"I've had the nickname Ducky since I was about two years old. My family and most of our family friends gave me the name because every animal, whether dog, cat or chicken, was a duck to me."

The name Snuffy came from his many teammates who linked it to the tattoo on his arm. It caught on with the fans around the league and snuffy was their man everytime he came to the plate.

★ ★ ★

There are no winter ball plans for Chuck. "When we end our season early in October, I'm going to pick up family in Vinita, Oklahoma, and get back to Pontiac," said Oertel.

Chuck is quite an outdoor enthusiast. In fact during the recent visit of the Orioles to Detroit, he came up to Pontiac and took his hound dog out for some exercise.

"I'm looking forward to ice fishing and hunting and of course getting a job around Pontiac for the next five months," he said. "The outdoors keeps me in good shape, and I plan to being ready when we go to Miami for training camp," he finished.

During his visit last weekend he did accomplish two things he thought about years ago. He got a chance to play Major League baseball at Briggs Stadium and one of his hits last Saturday dropped into the seats for a home run. This he dreamed of over 10 years ago while at St. Frederick's high school.

LEAVES SHAMROCKS — Disgreement over current athletic policies at St. Michael's high school today brought about the resignation of Robert (Bob) Mineweaser as the Shamrocks' football mentor. Mineweaser had directed the North Side school sports squads for the last 14 years. He relinquished the grid reins today, to former Shamrock star, James (Jim) Niebauer, who graduated from St. Michael in 1952.

Blame Policy Disagreement

Mineweaser Quits St. Mike

By H. GUY MOATS

One more Suburban Catholic League club today had effected a change in head football coaches, and the shift hit Pontiac St. Michael's well-rated eleven.

★ ★ ★

After some 14 years—or more—of directing the Shamrock grid, cage and other sports squads, Bob Mineweaser has resigned following what both he and school officials said was a disagreemnt over current athletic policies.

The school, announcing Mineweaser's resignation, at the same time made known his successor, Husky former Shamrock halfback star and cage ace, Jim Niebauer becomes head coach, filling the job of his own former mentor. Along with Niebauer, St. Michael named another ex-north side star athlete, Mike Slivensky, as Jim's assistant. Mike replaces Ed Graybiel, former PCH coach who had worked with Mineweaser for the last two years.

Niebauer is the 4th new coach to take over in SCL circles this fall. He assumed charge of the squad yesterday afternoon, said no changes in style of play were contemplated. Squadmen also conferred with the new coach at a meeting last night.

Jim and Mike both graduated from St. Michael's in 1952 after sparkling athletic careers under Mineweaser's tutelage. Jim was a quarterback and played that position at Adrian College over a two-year period. Mike also played at Adrian one year as an end, later went to MSU to play with frosh and varsity squads as a flanker. He graduated in June this year. Both Niebauer and Slivensky entered the U.S. armed forces at the same time in June 1955. Jim served in Virginia and Greenland, Mike in Japan and Korea.

Their alikeness extended to their release from service, on the same day, and to their families. Both have sons, 1½ years old, and both bear the name of Mike. Jim and his family reside at 700 Lake Angelus Rd. Mike's residence is at 498 Harper, Pontiac.

Speaking for both Niebauer and himself, Slivensky yesterday said "there is no plan for any changes in the Shamrocks' play. The boys have been working under a system they are familiar with, and a sound one, as taught them by Coach Mineweaser. We hope they keep on progressing, and bear out the potential the squad possesses."

★ ★ ★

This is Niebauer's first head coaching position and his first grid job. He has been Mineweaser's basketball assistant during the last two years.

Mineweaser made no immediate statement about his position over the reported disagreement.

Carl Karilivacz Goes to Giants for Draft Pick

Junker May Be Lost to Detroit Because of Knee Injury

DETROIT — The Detroit Lions broke up the once-heralded defensive backfield by trading Carl Karilivacz to the New York Giants, but coach George Wilson's current problems are focused at the end position.

The defensive unit is still in good shape with veterans Yale Lary, Jimmy David and Jack Christiansen who made up the "Chris' Cres" combination with Karilivacz, Terry Barr, Gary Lowe and newcomer Dave Whitsell complete the defensive crew.

Karilivacz goes to the Giants for a 1958 draft choice.

At end, however, it appears that Steve Junker, 1957 rookie star may join Jerry Reichow on the hospital list.

Junker is at University Hospital in Ann Arbor awaiting a decision on whether he will have to undergo an operation on his knee.

Junker's knee, injured in training at Cranbrook and then re-injured Saturday against the Philadelphia Eagles in Norman, Okla., was to be put in traction and then tested to find out the extent of the injury.

Darris McCord and Stan Campbell also were fined $100. Four Eagles, including Ed Meadows, were thrown out of the game. Meadows is best remembered for the tackle that put Bobby Layne out of commission on the final day of the 1956 season when the Chicago Bears beat the Lions for the Western Division title.

The ironic part of the loss to the Eagles was that end Pete Retzlaff, a former Lion who couldn't quite make the team in two tries and was picked up by the Eagles on Wilson's intercession, set up the winning touchdown with an interception and then caught the touchdown pass for the victory.

But at the time Retzlaff was trying to make the team, the Lions were loaded with ends.

★ ★ ★

Saturday night the Lions play their last pre-season game at Cleveland before the regular season opener in Baltimore, September 28th.

There were many other changes in the NFL yesterday as clubs sought to bring their roster down to the 38-player limit required two weeks before the regular season opener.

CLEVELAND—Released back Milt Campbell of Indiana, guards Charley Mitchell and Fred Robinson and linebacker Tom Louderback. The Browns also traded halfback Billy Reynolds to the Steelers for tackle Willie McClung.

NEW YORK—The Giants got veteran guards Al Barry and Joe Skibinski from the Green Bay Packers.

GREEN BAY—The Packers waived veteran halfback Veryl Switzer and also released backs Bob Burris and tackle Ed Culpepper. Jerry Helluin and Ron Kramer, ex-Michigan ace were placed on the injury list.

BALTIMORE—Released guard Jack Patera of Oregon and are two players above the limit.

LOS ANGELES—The Rams gave Bob Cox of Minnesota the pink slip and also released halfback Ed Kelly of Texas Jesse Arnell from Penn State and end Gene Mitchum of Arizona State.

WASHINGTON—The Redskins released Dan Nolan, Lehigh quarterback and also tackle Darrell Dess of North Carolina State and halfback Myrel Moore of San Jose State.

PITTSBURGH—Released end Harvey Horton, obtained last week on waivers from Green Bay. Halfback Ray Mathew is out with a fracture in the left foot.

MAY BE RIVALS — Everything indicates that Philadelphia Phillie manager Eddie Sawyer (left) and veteran infielder Solly Hemus may be rivals next season if rumors hold up that Hemus will replace Freddy Hutchinson as manager of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Bucks, Other Rated 11s Hold Business as Usual

By The Associated Press

Ohio State and the 41 other teams that merited at least one vote in the annual Associated Press pre-season football poll paused only for a slight nod at the accolade yesterday and continued business as usual on their practice fields.

The sessions, most of which have reached the one-a-day state, have settled down to polishing the finer points as opening Saturday approaches.

★ ★ ★

The Buckeyes, second in the final 1957 poll, had a double workout after spending a free weekend. Coach Woody Hayes plans a single session today. He also kept Lee Williams in the No. 2 halfback slot, even with the return of highly touted Dick Matte. Williams can do 100 yards in less than 10 seconds.

★ ★ ★

Oklahoma, rated No. 2, promoted two linemen and a pair of backs to first string jobs, continuing preparation for the Sept. 27 opener against West Virginia. Coach Bud Wilkinson also held a 40-minute scrimmage with Wahoo McDaniel and Gilmer Lewis, the new line additions, and Dave Baker and Jackie Holt in the starting backfield.

★ ★ ★

Notre Dame, picked No. 3, had a bit of good news when speedster Pat Doyle was given a medical OK for heavy work. Doyle is expected to be one of the Irish's starting halfbacks. Fullback Nick Pietrosante and quarterback Bob Williams were withheld from a 20 minute scrimmage session.

★ ★ ★

Michigan State began concentrating on the players most likely to see action as Coach Duffy Daugherty started to set a varsity outfit for the opener against California Sept. 27. The Spartans were picked No. 4, while No. 10 picked North Carolina welcomed back soph halfback Sonny Folckoner after an ankle injury and Coach Jim Tatum after a throat examination that found him OK.

★ ★ ★

The second ten was topped by Texas, where Coach Darrell Royal admitted that the six seniors on the squad had given it the leadership it needs. He also planned on starting three seniors in the opener Saturday night against the University of Georgia.

The top 10 in the pre-season poll (first place votes in brackets):

Ohio State (46)	859
Oklahoma (23)	798
Notre Dame (11)	702
Michigan State (4)	605
Auburn (9)	567
Mississippi	283
Navy	195
Texas Christian	185
Army (1)	141
North Carolina (1)	140

Second Ten

Texas 121; Oregon State (2) 116; Iowa 104; Wisconsin 100; Mississippi State (1) 94; Miami 77; Southern Methodist (1) 70; Clemson 54, Pittsburgh 41; Texas Aggies 38.

Others' Receiving Votes

Colorado 35; UCLA 31; Arizona State, Tempe 30; West Virginia (2) 28; Georgia Tech 26, Penn State (1) 23; Duke (1) 22; Tennessee 21; Michigan 19; Oregon 13; Maryland 12; Purdue 11; Rice 10; Oklahoma State 6; Florida 6; Louisiana State 5; Illinois 5; Minnesota 4; Washington State 2; Vanderbilt 2; Arkansas 2; Holy Cross 1.

Do As I Say, Not As I Do

BEARDSLEY, Minn. (AP) — The thing to do when recovering a fumble, Coach Dick Elrite patiently told his high school footballers, is to relax and you won't get hurt.

To demonstrate, Elrite signaled one of his players to toss a ball on the ground.

Elrite pounced on the ball and broke his left arm.

Dugout-to-Office Changes Near at St. Louis

Shakeup Due for Cardinals

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A shakeup of the St. Louis Cardinals all the way from dugout to front office is all but an accomplished fact, the Associated Press has learned.

The key figures in the sweeping changes that seem inevitable — Birdie Tebbetts and Solly Hemus—spoke guaredly of their future.

But some confirmation of what seems to be in the wind came today from the Philadelphia Phillies GHQ.

Hemus, the reports have it, will replace Fred Hutchinson as the Redbirds' field manager. Hemus is the veteran infielder who has been as dynamic as any man on the last place Phillies this season.

★ ★ ★

Tebbetts, who recently quit as manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs, will team up with Vaughan "Bing" Devine as co-general manager but without a formal title.

As further told by well posted sources, another front office berth would be made for a man with baseball savvy, a man now with another major league club. His job would be to help Devine, who in turn would move up higher in the administrative scale.

★ ★ ★

It is understood all this will come to pass by the sole authority of August Busch, Cardinals president. Obviously smarting over the club's poor showing this season, Busch is represented as convinced at last that seasoned baseball men are better able to improve the fortunes of ball clubs than is a hierarchy of veeps at the brewery.

★ ★ ★

Busch, by report, has himself approached Hemus, Tebbetts and the third man, whose name is withheld.

Roy Hamey, Phils general manager, said the Cards have asked to dicker with the club for Hemus' managerical services.

He added that the Phils are ready to grant permission, but that they mean to demand suitable players as the price of a Hemus trade.

★ ★ ★

Under the baseball code, the Cardinals would have to ask such permission to deal with Hemus so long as he is under contract to the Phils.

"Hemus is a very valuable man, "Hamey asserted with special emphasis. "He is a front line player for us."

Said owner Bob Carpenter: "I'm not going to stand in Hemus' way. On the other hand, I expect a fair return."

In St. Louis, Dick Meyer, Cardinal executive vice president, admitted that he had approached Carpenter concerning Hemus' availability.

"His attitude seemed to be reasonable," Mayer said, "but I don't know, as a result of all this publicity, what his reaction will be now."

Hemus, himself, had these words for sports writers:

"The story is news to me. I don't know anything more than I have read in the papers.

Canadiens Open Training

NHL Champs Please Blake

MONTREAL (AP) — Coach Toe Blake looked over a squad of 56 Montreal Canadiens today, and declared:

"This is definitely the strongest bunch I've seen in my four years as coach at the camp."

That statement brought no joy for the rest of the National Hockey League since the Canadiens have won the Stanley Cup the past three years.

★ ★ ★

"I am elated at seeing our regulars in such good shape, although Maurice "Rocket" Richard seemed a few pounds overweight," said Blake. "Jean Beliveau really looked in remarkable shape and Dicke Moore didn't appear to be carrying around the extra weight he had at this time last year."

Blake starts this season with three Stanley Cup championships in as many years since he took over the Canadiens which makes him sort of a Casey Stngel of hockey.

★ ★ ★

"That ties a record but it's always harder to break one," said Blake. "You can be sure the five other clubs will do their best to keep us from breaking it.

"As for our prospects, though, I'll say this—if our club shows the same desire as it did last season we should be okay."

"This year we have at least three places open since we no longer have Dollard St. Laurent, Bert Olmstead and Floyd Curry, and it's not just a lot of talk, either, to say other places will be available if the newcomers can fill them.

Gene Bone Fires 60 to Win VA Tourney

Pontiac's Gene Bone, whose summer job as assistant pro at Tam O'Shanter Country Club ended last week, won the VA Rehabilitation golf tournament Monday in Battle Creek over the 9-hole par-34 course built and maintained by the VA Hospital.

Bone carded seven birdies and an eagle three while firing an 18-hole score of 60, eight under par, to beat his closest rival by three strokes. The tourney is held annually in Battle Creek for the benefit of veterans at the rehabilitation center.

Ben Lula of Monroe finished 2nd with 63, followed by Jimmy Johnson, Horton Smith and Wally Burkemo at 64. Ted Huffman, assistant Tam O'Shanter pro, was in a 4th place tie with four others at 65. Thirty pros competed.

'Incidents' Mark Weekend Sailoffs for WLYA's Tars

Sailors of the Watkins Lake Yachting Assn. fleet last weekend cleared up two of the summer-end sailoffs, but not without a series of "incidents" that lent extra color to the races.

Guy and Nancy Duffield ran into a disqualification in the morning snipe event, after their boat bumped the winner, Chuck Morris and Frank Fleck. Ray Frenkel and Shel Covert were 2nd, Bob and Don Newman 3rd.

Don Zannoth, with Phyllis Sebaldt; Harm Gillen and Paul Saghy and Karl Kreitz and Dave Gooding finished in that order for thistles. Bruce and Fred Brede Sr. and Junior; Dave and Joe Greene, with Art Hoover; Glenn and Jo Fries and Neil Wheeler, were 1-2-3 for the lightnings.

Strong winds took their toll during the afternoon.

Fred Brede, Bruce Brede and Don Goss led the lightnings in the afternoon. Glen and Jo Fries, Neil Wheeler were 2nd after Dave Green's boat had its boom track lifted and mainsail snap pulled off. In a "photo-race," Gillen Saghy, and owner Jim Parshall, led the thistles over Karl Kreitz, Dave Gooding and the reefed Zannoth boat, in that order.

Duffields took the 2nd snipe race, with the Newman boat 2nd.

Fleck and Morris lost their mast in a "tiff and righting" mishap, and did not finish.

Two more sailoffs are set for next weekend.

Plan Touch Football Loop at Waterford

A Saturday Morning Touch Football League, sponsored by the Waterford Township Recreation Department, will get under way this Saturday on the Waterford High School gridiron.

Don Beedle of the Waterford Hi coaching staff is in charge of the program, which will run for six consecutive Saturdays. Any boy who lives in Waterford Township is eligible to compete.

Fifth and 6th grade boys will play from 9 to 11 a.m. while 7th, 8th and 9th graders hold their games from 11 o'clock to 1 p.m. Registrations can be made at the school field without charge. Neighborhood or school class teams will be accepted, otherwise they will be arranged at the field.

'Maverick' Near Hydroplane Title

President's Cup Regatta Scheduled for Weekend on Potomac River

WASHINGTON (AP) — William T. Waggoner's Maverick has a chance to pull away from other contenders for the season's hydroplane championship at the President's Cup regatta this weekend.

★ ★ ★

Seven rivals already have indicated they will compete with Maverick on the Potomac River as some of the country's fastest speedboats make their annual East Coast visit. More are expected before the races start Saturday afternoon.

★ ★ ★

Detroit's Schoenith Family may enter two boats, Gale V and either Gale VI or Gale VII. The last of the Gales was built to carry jet engines but if she runs here will use regular piston jobs.

Others planning to race are J. Gordon Thompson's Miss Supertest II, London, Ont.; Chuck Thompson's Miss Detroit; George Simon's Miss U.S. I, Detroit, and a Buffalo, N.Y., group's Wildroot Charlie.

Stirnweiss Aboard Train

Ex-Yank Accident Victim

RED BANK, N.J. (AP) — George "Snuffy" Stirnweiss, onetime New York Yankee infielder and American League batting champion, is believed to have been a victim of yesterday's commuter train disaster at Elizabeth.

★ ★ ★

Stirnweiss, 38, best known as a second baseman, was with the Yankees from 1943 to 1950, when he was traded in mid-season to the old St. Louis Browns in an eight-player deal that also gave the Browns $50,000.

★ ★ ★

He was sold to the Cleveland Indians the following year, and quit baseball in 1956 after managing in the minors.

Stirnweiss, born in New York City led the American League in batting in 1945 with a .309 average. He had hit .319 the year before, his best average in the majors.

He also led the league in stolen bases in 1944 and 1945, also topping the AL in triples, hits and runs those same years. His stolen bases totaled 55 in 1944, a mark unequaled since.

Stirnweiss was a shorty, standing only 5-8. But he was an outstanding halfback at the University of North Carolina and after his graduation in 1940 passed up a bid by the Chicago Cardinals of the National Football League to sign with the Yankees.

American Sports Popular but Not Strongly Played

Soccer Big With Foreign Students

By CHUCK ABAIR

Baseball has long been known as America's national pastime with football and basketball ranking close behind in popularity but foreign athletes will tell you soccer has a decided edge over all three on an international level.

★ ★ ★

That is especially true in high school, according to the boys from 11 different countries who played on the American Field Service team in a soccer game against Cranbrook Sunday.

There were some in the group who had played baseball at home and others basketball but no football, yes everyone of the new area high school students could talk on and on about soccer.

All had played the game in their natfve lands which included England, Japan, Spain, Switzerland, Uruguay, Argentina, Sweden, Turkey, Italy, Germany, and New Zealand.

One of the outstanding AFS performers was Ercan Sonkoya of Turkey, now attending Birmingham High. He lists soccer and wrestling as tops in his country followed by basketball and volleyball.

"We don't have baseball but I learned how to play by watching some American Airmen at a base near home. I saw the Harlem Globetrotters play twice in Turkey," commented the Maple cross country candidate who also hopes to compete on the swimming and track teams. He saw a game in Yankee Stadium shortly after arriving in the U. S. but was not too awed by the big park "because we have big ones at home."

★ ★ ★

Avondale student Lennart Nilson said he played soccer and hockey in Sweden but never had even seen a baseball game until he watched one on TV recently. "In Sweden, we do not play other schools in sports as they do here," he commented in comparing the prep setups.

★ ★ ★

Rudolph Schild said the same was true in Switzerland. The Zurich lad, who is attending Farmington, is active in basketball, handball and skiing when home besides soccer. He hopes to try out for the Farmington basketball team next winter. Rudy praised the way sports are handled in this country as better than in Switzerland because "we never practice."

★ ★ ★

Attilio Cortella of Italy, who played against the Cranbrook team of which he is now a member, also expressed amazement at the amount of practicing Americans do.

"Soccer teams here practice as much as four hours a day as compared to the same amount of time in a week in Italy," stated Attilio. He thinks his native teams are stronger because most of the boys start playing at an early age. "I am 17 and I have been playing 11 years," he remarked in explanation.

★ ★ ★

Uruguay resident Jose Kun said soccer is so big there it is played professionally. That and basketball are his chief loves at home. He plans to be a candidate for the Fenton hoop team.

Two fellows who had played a lot of rugby besides soccer before coming here but never football are John Williams of England and Renato Meyer of Argentina.

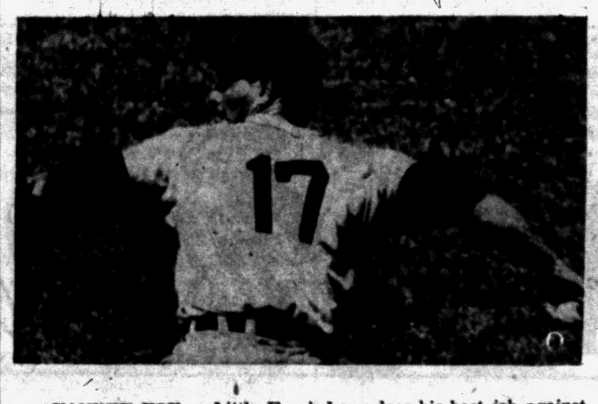
Meyer has become a great deal more acquainted with the game of late as a member of the West Bloomfield squad. He is anxious to play in his first game Friday against St. Michael. It will be the 1st time he has played against another school in regular competition as Argentina also restricts athletics to within its schools.

Like Uruguay, soccer is the big pro grame in Argentina. Meyer also played basketball and softball there.

Williams has been playing rugby and soccer since he was a little tyke. He had trouble keeping going in the heat Sunday. "We always played when it was cool in England. The season usually starts in late September or early October," stated John.

One thing all the boys were in agreement on was that the various athletic facilities at Cranbrook are outstanding.

Most of them had never met before the AFS got them together Sunday for the game. They had a lot to talk about during a post-game luncheon in the school hall.



YANKEE FOE — Little Frank Lary does his best job against the big boys, namely the New York Yankees, and he will start for the Tigers in the series against Bombers. The Yanks call him "Little Bulldog." He has a 15-5 record against them.

Tiger Hurler Has 15-5 Mark Against Bombers

Lary Is Yank-Killer

DETROIT (AP) — The American League race is not over for some teams, notably the Detroit Tigers.

Their chances of a first division finish hinge partly on a two-game series against the New York Yankees. Frank Lary, already established as a Yankee-killer with six victories and only one defeat against the champions, got the starting assignment in today's opener.

Since he started pitching for the Tigers in late 1954, Lary has racked up an amazing 15-5 record against New York. Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees calls him "the little bulldog" but the Yankee players undoubtedly have some other names for him.

The Tigers went into the Yankee series needing a couple of victories to solidify their rather shaky grasp on third place.

Despite the recent surge that has produced four straight victories, it is not impossible for the Tigers to finish as low as seventh. From third place to seventh place the teams are bunched closely.

★ ★ ★

At this stage, the schedule does not favor the Detroit club.

After the Yankee series, the Tigers play four home games in three days against Cleveland, another first division contender—and the Indians have beaten the Tigers nine times in 15 meetings.

The Tigers will finish the season on the road, playing three games in Chicago against the second place White Sox and going to Cleveland for the final three games of the campaign.

★ ★ ★

The Tigers are 10-9 against the White Sox and 4-4 in the White Sox park.

Here's the gloomy and surprising aspect of the whole thing:

★ ★ ★

Despite their occupancy of third place, the Tigers must win 11 of their last 12 games to do as well as they did in 1956—when they finished fifth and the club fired Bucky Harris as manager.

That year, Detroit was 82-72 and finished fifth.

And last year, under Jack Tighe, the team won 78 and lost 76, so the Tigers must win seven of their remaining dozen games to equal their 1957 showing. The 1957 club finished fourth.

In 1955, Detroit won 79 and lost 75, and finished fifth.

Begin Obedience Work Wednesday

Dogs Go to School, Too

Just like their masters and mistresses, in many cases, scores of canine "students" will this week begin a fall session of study, And in most instances they will really be going to school.

First of the fall period of obedience training events, under the expanding program of the Southern Michigan Obedience Training club, takes place Wednesday in Waterford's CAJ building, at 8 p.m. Other scheduled demonstrations include Daniel Whitfield School Thursday, and at Bloomfield Hills high school, Monday, Sept. 22. No dogs should be taken to any of these events. They will include appearance of obedience—trained dogs. Admission is free.

The SMOTC sponsors nine classes in southeastern Michigan this year, with Reg Armstrong in charge at Whitfield; Jim Richmond at Waterford and Henry (Holly) Thornton at Bloomfield Hills. SMOTC instructors must meet exacting requirements before being awarded classes, and they give their services without pay.

★ ★ ★

The club turns over any funds after buying trophies, ribbons and diplomas for its "graduates," to the MSU College of Veterinary Medicine and to the Leader Dog League. At the last club meeting an additional $1,000 was given MSU for special research projects and for equipment for the work. SMOTC has also maintained a student assistance fund for some time.

Auburn Star Asks Court to Reverse Loop Action

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., (AP) — Banned from intercollegiate athletics by the Southeastern Conference, sophomore Don Fuell of Auburn has asked the courts to overturn the SEC action.

★ ★ ★

Fuell contends he was convicted by the SEC without a hearing and that he can prove his innocence of charges that he was illegally induced to enroll at Auburn.

Defense Emphasized in PCH Grid Camp

'Stop Other Guy' Is Stressed by Coach MacLeay

Chiefs Drill in Rain Preparing for Opener Friday at Waterford

By BILL CORNWELL

The old football maxim "offense is the best defense" may be true, but Pontiac Central coach Jesse MacLeay is going on the theory that a sound defense is also a mighty big asset.

It would be nice if the Chiefs could score a touchdown every time they got their hands on the pigskin. However, MacLeay would like to have his boys stop the other fellows, too.

With that idea in mind, the PCH mentor has been stressing defense more than just a little bit in preseason workouts at Wisner Stadium.

★ ★ ★

The Chiefs open their 1958 grid campaign this Friday night against Waterford on the Skipper field and how to keep the underdog Skippers from scoring is MacLeay's top concern.

Highly dissatisfied with their defensive work in scrimmages last week, MacLeay put an even greater emphasis on defense in yesterday's drills.

Rain failed to slow down the stepped up program of "halting the other guy" as Central's No. 1 defensive unit butted heads with an offensive team.

When the session was over yesterday, the PCH pilot seemed happier than he has at any previous time. "The defense perked up today," Jesse commented, "it showed improvement."

The defensive squad consisted of guard John Gayten, tackles Willie Duncan and Jerry Rush, linebackers Charley Brown, Howard Batten and Doug Voydanoff and ends Gary Andrews and Ray Smith.

Dick McCauly, Joe McCauly, Andrew Terry and Ken Dextrom formed the defensive secondary. Willie Driver and Bradal Pritchett alternated with Andrews and Smith at ends.

Offensively, the Chiefs haven't jelled yet and that phase of the game will also get more attention before kickoff time. "They move the ball quite well," said MacLeay, "but they've been fumbling a lot and making too many mistakes."

MacLeay's biggest headache on offense is replacing injured Fred Staley at quarterback. Harrison Munson, Bill Davis and Allen Howze are competing for the job.

Despite his numerous problems, MacLeay is undaunted. "The ability is there," he said, "if they catch the spirit, they can go."

Closest Grid Race in Loop History Predicted

Port Huron Favored in EML

(This is the 7th of a series of area prep league football roundups. Tomorrow the series concludes with a roundup of area independent schools and the Tri-County League.)

By BILL CORNWELL

Hazel Park is the defending Eastern Michigan League football champion, but concensus has it that the Vikings will relinquish their honors this year.

Coach Chuck Skinner saw only one returning regular and very few familiar faces when the Parkers reported for training.

Skinner's personnel is vastly different from the squad which last year won the EML crown hands down and rolled to the first unbeaten season in the school's history.

The Big Reds of Port Huron are generally favored to win the conference title this fall, but the opinion also prevails that the race may be the closest in loop history.

Both Ferndale and East Detroit are expected to be stronger and find themselves tagged with "dark horse" labels.

Birmingham and Mt. Clemens are also figured to improve and must be ranked as "sleepers." Despite severe graduation losses, Hazel Park cannot be counted out of the running.

Being the favorite is nothing new to Bob Hayes and his Port Huron gridders. The Big Reds are the perennial EML power, although they had a disastrous campaign in 1957.

The choice of Port Huron is well taken. Hayes has been blessed with a wealth of returning letter winners and there is plenty of speed as well as size in both the line and backfield.

★ ★ ★

Bernie Palmateer is a bruising 220-pound fullback and supporting him are Mike McDonald and Fred Reid, a couple of fleet-footed halfbacks. There is experience at every line position.

Carl Lemle's Birmingham team is a good "long shot" bet. The Maples will be smaller and faster this season and 14 lettermen are available, including seven backs.

Tested material on hand includes tackles Phil Isbell and Bob Lovell, guard Fred Buesser and halfbacks Ed Busch and Phil Russell. Sam Reeve and Chick Hartung are fighting for the fullback post vacated by graduated Chuck Gibson.

★ ★ ★

Quarterback Tom Morey and halfback Luther Graham are a pair of big reasons for coach Ted Meister's happier outlook at Ferndale. Tackle Dave Williams and guard Pete Pfacione, both 200-pounders, are two more.

East Detroit, undefeated EML champ two years ago, gave Larry Hartsig a rough initiation last fall when he took the coaching reins from Alva Asbury who retired.

The Shamrocks collapsed completely and failed to win a single league game. All-State halfback Gary Ballman is now an alumnus but, in Hartsig's own words, "we have a young club that could go."

Mt. Clemens, which has been the doormat of the circuit more often than not in recent years, looks for an upswing in gridiron fortunes. Coach Bill Mowry has 10 veteran holdovers. Fullback Jack Smoot was the most serious loss.

Hazel Park will rely largely on last season's reserves for its title defense. Skinner refuses to discount his team's chances.

Royal Oak Kimball, the EML's newest member, does not enter league competition until the 1959 season. Coach Pin Ryan has his hopes set high as halfback Frank Voetfray and a dozen other lettermen return for Kimball's second year.

Here is how the EML teams are expected to finish in 1958:

1. Port Huron
2. Ferndale
3. East Detroit
4. Hazel Park
5. Birmingham
6. Mt. Clemens

City Horseshoe Schedule Ends

Tourney Sunday Among Top Players to Close Season Officially

The Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department's City Horseshoe League ended regular season play last weekend and a playoff this Sunday at Oakland Park among the loop's leading pitchers will officially conclude the season.

Tuesday and Thursday leagues, each one comprised of 16 men competing in both singles and doubles, held complete round-robin schedules this summer for 15 straight weeks. Action started on the 1st of June.

Herb Steffey in singles and the doubles team of Lloyd and Floyd Bartley were champions of the Tuesday circuit. Jim Clarkson won the Thursday singles title and also teamed with Milton Swigert to win the doubles crown.

Next Sunday's final playoff, a single elimination tournament, will feature the top eight singles pitchers from each loop and the four best doubles teams from each league. Starting time is 1 p.m.

Competing in the season's farewell tourney are:

SINGLES

Tuesday League—Herg Steffey, Floyd Bartley, Lloyd Bartley, George Ledgey, Hercules Renda, Leonard Skaggs, Joe Kiley, Mike Sapelak.

Thursday League—Jim Clarkson, John Vitton, Bob Hanna, William Bigford, Arlie Reed, Al Briggs, Bert Breeze, Ed Justin.

DOUBLES

Tuesday League—L. Bartley and F. Bartley, Skaggs and Steffey, Ledgey and Kiley, Renda and Terry Cantrell.

Thursday League—Clarkson and Swigert, Vitton and Bigford, Don Johnson and William Dalby, Briggs and Richard Stranahan.

Area Harriers Begin '58 Tests

Chiefs, Maples, Valley Runners Hold Opening Competition

Pontiac Central and other Saginaw Valley harrier squads, along with most other area prep cross-country crews, swing into formal competition for the fall campaign this week.

Coach Dean Wilson's Chiefs get their first test at 4 p.m. Friday at Birmingham. Flint Central, rated the top Valley prospect and a state-title threat, goes against Arthur Hill and Saginaw, at Saginaw on Thursday. Coach Varnard Gay says he is "definitely shooting for the state title this fall." He appears to have the "horses" with which to do it, most SVC coaches agree.

Kermit Ambrose, with a 47-man squad that includes only senior lettermen Jim Reilly, Dave Pew and Fraser Cocks from 1957's "best in history" team, goes against Edsel Ford, at Birmingham, on Wednesday. Ford was 1957 regional champion.

West Bloomfield and OL St. Mary meet on Friday at Orchard Lake.

Milwaukee Magic Number Narrows for NL Pennant

By The Associated Press

The Milwaukee Braves' magic number is going down in the National League pennant race, and Richie Ashburn's is going up.

Over in the American League the pennant at last is in the bag, Mickey Mantle and Bill Skowron are healthy, Gil McDougald's hitting and all Casey Stengel has to worry about is rebuilding his pitching staff again with his American League champion New York Yankees two weeks from the World Series.

The Braves, closing in on a repeat National League pennant, reduced the clinching combination to four by whipping Los Angeles 8-3. And Ashburn, riding a hot streak in a bid for his second batting title, pushed his average to .343 as Philadelphia rapped St. Louis 6-2 last night.

Those were the only games scheduled in the NL yesterday.

The only American League game scheduled, Baltimore at Cleveland, was rained out.

Any combination of four Milwaukee victories and/or defeats by the second place Pittsburgh Pirates will make the Braves the only club other than the Dodgers to pin pennants back to back in the NL since 1944.

The Braves had to rally in their final game of the season series with Los Angeles. A five-run seventh inning, with two runs unearned, did the job. Joe Adcock batted in three runs for the champs, hitting his 19th home run in the fourth inning to cut the Dodger lead to 3-1, and then adding a two-run single in the seventh.

Ashburn, setting a Phillie record for games played with 1,631, belted a triple and single in five at-bats. That put him .005 points ahead of the Cards' Stan Musial, out with a leg injury.

★ ★ ★

Stengel's ailing pitchers—Whitey Ford, Don Larsen and Tom Sturdivant—provide part of the answer for the Yankees' slow clinching. But those three join 21-game winner Bob Turley as Stengel's top men, and although his second line staff got the pennant job done, it's Ford, Turley, Larsen and Sturdivant Casey wants ready for the series.

"I had to make a new pitching staff in the middle of the season and I did it," said Stengel: "And now I'm going to do it again if these men show me they are capable."

Ford, who pitched five innings Sunday, had been ineffective for a month because of a sore arm.

Strikes and Spares

By Joe Wilman

Yesterday, I gave some advice for bowlers who haven't kept up their bowling during the summer months. Today, I have a word for all bowlers.

At least twice a year I think a bowler should take stock of his bowling equipment — his bowling ball, bag and shoes. The first time to check this equipment is, of course, right now — before the season starts.

Make sure your bowling ball fits properly. Your bowling proprietor or instructor can help you decide if your ball still fits your hand. And while you're at it, check the ball for nicks.

Look at your shoes. Are they comfortable? Do they give you the support you need? How about the soles? Check the soles and heels, as we point out in the drawing. Make sure you can slide properly on your left sole (it's the right sole for left-handed bowlers).

Keglers Hot Early in Huron Classic

The Huron Bowl Classic is off to another fast start with 12 keglers averaging over 200 after only two weeks of play.

Bill Bull, Calbi Music capt., recently rolled the highest set in loop history with 246-258-238 for 742. Max Bottom has had the top single of 278 and Humphries Real Estate the best team total with 3084.

Huron Bowl proprietor Joe Bonfiglio currently boasts the highest average at 216 followed by Bull's 211.

SOUTH HAVEN (UPI)—Coach Jim Smith has a football team but no games.

Smith said 35 boys turned out for South Haven High's newly-organized ninth grade squad but so far he hasn't been able to arrange for any games although he hopes eventually to have a four-game schedule.

Russia Agrees to Talks With West on Methods of Prevention

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union has agreed to exploratory talks with the West on ways to prevent surprise attacks. An agreement by experts on a workable system could lead to political discussions on establishing safeguards against another Pearl Harbor.

In answer to a series of notes from President Eisenhower, the Kremlin agreed yesterday to meet in Geneva. The Soviet note handed to U.S. Charge d'Affaires Richard H. Davis proposed that eight-nation talks begin Nov. 10.

The meeting would follow the precedent of technical talks that ended Aug. 21 with East-West agreement on ways to police a nuclear weapons tests ban. The United States, Britain and the Soviet Union are to begin political negotiations on an actual ban in Geneva Oct. 31.

The two related aspects of easing world tension, by possible nuclear weapons test ban and safeguards against surprise attack, contribute to Soviet Premier Khrushchev's on-again off-again drive for a summit conference. At the same time, they represent the type of thorough preparation that the United States insists must precede any meeting by heads of government.

Far East Crisis Talks May Be Only Doubletalk

By The Associated Press

The reputation of Wang Ping-nan indicates the United States can hope for little in the Warsaw talks on the Far East crisis except flowery doubletalk in broken English.

Wang has had long experience at that sort of thing, apart from the 73 meetings he held over 2½ years at Geneva, ending last December. Those U.S.-Chinese talks began on the basis of American demands for the release of U.S. prisoners in Red China.

★ ★ ★

The current talks are considered a resumption of those meetings, but the emphasis now is on the situation in Formosa Strait and American demands that Red China renounce force.

Wang, pudgy and moon-faced, looking like an obscure middle class businessman, has been in the business of talking to Westerners for at least half his 33 years as a dedicated and fanatic Communist.

The Chinese Communist representative seated opposite U.S. Ambassador Jacob Beam in an 18th-century royal Polish hunting lodge will look strangely out of place in those surroundings. His lack of color has been one of his principal assets in a career devoted largely to intrigue.

He was well known to the foreign colony in Chungking, China's World War II capital, where his principal job for the Communists was to appear friendly and helpful to all seekers for information.

Wang served as the chief contact man in Chungking for Chou En-lai, then the representative of the Red Chinese in Chiang Kai-shek's capital at Chungking. Chou now is Red Chinese premier. Wang actually was one of Chou's favorite proteges.

Wang was born in Shensi province in 1908, the son of a landowner. He went to school in Nanking. At 17 he joined the Communist party in Shensi.

Wang's father sent him to Germany to study. There he became fluent in German, developed a taste for close-cropped haircuts and a fondness for highly spiced food heavily flavored with garlic. He also acquired a German wife, Anna.

Wang, who speaks broken but understandable English, accompanied Premier Chou to the April 1954 Geneva conference when the Indochina partition was decided. In November that year he was named assistant to the foreign minister, and in January 1955 he became ambassador to Poland. Later that year he was named to negotiate with the United States representative, Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson, at Geneva on Far East issues.

Singer Paul Robeson to Tour East Germany

BERLIN (AP) — Singer Paul Robeson plans to tour East Germany next spring, the East Berlin newspaper Neues Deutschland reported.

In a Moscow dispatch the official party newspaper said Robeson expects to return to Russia to complete two films after his forthcoming concert tour of Britain.

One of the Soviet films deals with Robeson's life story.

Algeria Ponders Meaning

Constitutional Proposal From De Gaulle Puzzling

By DAVID MASON

PARIS (AP)—What will the proposed French constitution mean for rebelling Algeria? So far the answer is mostly guesswork.

The only man in a position to give an authoritative answer is Premier Charles de Gaulle. And he has spoken only in general terms.

More than three million European and Moslem residents of Algeria are registered to vote Sept. 28 on the French constitution.

They will pretty much be voting in the dark.

★ ★ ★

De Gaulle's constitution for a fifth French republic is shaped to accomplish two major things: put more backbone in the French executive and provide a new arrangement—anything up to independence—for vast areas of French Africa and Madagascar.

The course of Algeria—France's No. 1 headache for more than three years—is not charted.

★ ★ ★

De Gaulle has said that by their votes in the referendum residents of Algeria "are going to supply a response to the question of their own destiny." He added: "For each to respond 'Yes' in the present circumstances will mean, at least, that he wants to consider himself completely French and that he believes that the necessary evolution of Algeria must be accomplished in the French framework."

De Gaulle did not explain what evolution in the French framework meant, nor did he say what a no vote would mean.

★ ★ ★

The All-Algeria Public Safety Committee, which ran Algeria between the May 13 revolt and De Gaulle's rise to power, says it will interpret a yes majority as a call for complete integration of Algeria with metropolitan France. Algeria is already technically considered part of metropolitan France, but many differences in fact remain.

De Gaulle has carefully skirted the word "integration."

★ ★ ★

De Gaulle critics question the referendum as an indication of Algeria's real desires. They claim the army in its intense referendum campaign is trying to ram the constitution down Algeria's throat. Opposition to the referendum has virtually no voice in Algeria's rightist (and only) press, nor on the government-controlled radio.

The powerful Algerian National Liberation Front, leading the rebellion has rejected the constitution. The front has ordered the election boycotted and has dismissed it in advance as a farce and a fraud.

No one argues that it speaks for all of the some nine million Algeria Moslems, but it can keep many away from the polls.

'Compulsion' 1st Picture for Darryl Zanuck's Son

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The resemblance was amazing. The same short, wiry figure, the broad brow, the firm manner of speech, even the mustache. All that was missing was the polo mallet.

This was Richard Zanuck, son and image of the great Darryl F. At 24, he is producing his first motion picture, "Compulsion" — oddly enough, for Darryl F. Zanuck Productions.

How much autonomy does young Dick have?

"Complete artistic autonomy," he replied. "As a matter of fact, Dad went off to Africa and Europe to make 'Roots of Heaven' and left me to prepare 'Compulsion' entirely on my own.

"My relationship to Dad is much the same as the setup is here at 20th Century-Fox. The producers prepare their properties and get approval and help from Buddy Adler, who's in charge of production. Dad performs the same functions with me as Buddy does with them."

Dick roams easily about the Fox lot, speaking to many of the workers and executives. That's only natural, since he has spent a large part of his life there.

"I started listening to story conferences almost before I could talk," he reminisced. "Dad never instructed me formally in picture making, but I was around a great deal of the time.

"I started selling the Saturday Evening Post on the lot when I was 9. Business? It was pretty good. I don't know whether everyone felt it was a good policy to buy the magazine from me. All I know is, when I stopped selling at 13, I had five boys working for me, and we covered every office on the lot."

★ ★ ★

Dick went on to greater glory, working during the summer in various departments. One year he was a laborer striking sets on the back lot. Then he worked in the story department analyzing scripts.

"Dad always wanted a youthful view of the scripts he worked on," Dick said. "He was always bringing them home for me and my sisters to read."

The project Dick is embarking on is the fictionization of the famed Loeb-Leopold thrill slaying of the 1920s. Unlike the first three D. F. Z. independent films, "Compulsion" will be made on a comparatively modest budget.

Confidence Has Recovery Role

Long-Range Goals for Business Gave Upturn Healthy Boost

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Confidence unimpaired has played a stellar role in halting the recession and starting business on the uphill climb again.

Confidence is made up of many ingredients—including good American horse sense. No one factor can take a bow as being the only one to keep confidence unimpaired.

★ ★ ★

But today businessmen can pat each other on the back for two things:

1. Most of them conducted their own affairs in a way that showed their confidence in the economy's essential soundness was unshaken, no matter how prudent they might be at the moment in meeting current problems.

2. Individually and in unison most of them stressed this confidence. This undoubtedly had its part in keeping the American people's eyes focused on the long-term prospects for growth and prosperity and in keeping them from losing their heads when a rapidly developing recession was making the short-term prospect disturbing indeed.

★ ★ ★

The concrete result is shown in figures on consumer spending. In areas hard hit by unemployment, spending naturally has slowed down. Elsewhere it hasn't.

Consumers have changed the objects of their buying affections —to the distress of some manufacturers and the delight of others. But there has been no panic—no widespread snapping of rubber bands on well-heeled wallets.

★ ★ ★

When the recession was at its worst some five months ago the Advertising Council, with the support of many business leaders and their national organizations, launched a "Confidence in a Growing America" campaign. The accent was on the long-term view. The idea: to show the public that the over-all economy was sound and to stress that the recession, like so many other setbacks, would pass.

Today the council has just about worked itself out of a job.

Reports Nixon Due in Michigan

Sen. Potter Optimistic About Fast Settlement in Auto Industry

LANSING (AP) — U.S. Sen. Charles E. Potter says Vice President Nixon will campaign in Michigan Oct. 27 — speaking in Flint and perhaps making a western Michigan appearance as well.

Potter told newsmen yesterday he still thinks there is a "good possibility" that President Eisenhower will come to the state in behalf of himself and other Republican candidates.

Nixon will make an address in the IMA Auditorium at Flint, he said. Kalamazoo was mentioned as a possibility for a second appearance the same day.

Potter, here for a day of campaigning in Ingham County, was optimistic about a quick settlement in the union-auto industry contract negotiations.

"I'm convinced it would take the latch off the pocketbooks for a lot of people," he said.

"Once there is a contract settlement, we're going to start climbing toward the best prosperity we ever had."

★ ★ ★

Potter said he was convinced that next year will bring success to the drive for repeal of the 10 per cent excise tax on automobiles, and add further stimulus to auto sales.

Nehru Sets Out on Arduous Trip to Remote Land

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru set out today for a 16-day trip by plane, motor vehicle and horse to one of India's oldest and most remote neighbors, the little Himalayan kingdom of Bhutan.

★ ★ ★

The primitive nation of about 600,000 persons occupies an important position on the almost impassable mountains between India and Communist China's restive province of Tibet. India controls Bhutan's almost nonexistent foreign affairs while pledging to leave internal matters strictly alone.

The inhabitants, of Nepalese and Tibetan stock, are ruled by a maharaja who apparently likes privacy and dislikes strangers. No newsman is known to have entered his 18,000-square-mile kingdom.

★ ★ ★

The first part of Nehru's journey is a flight to Bagdora. He will drive to Sikkim, astride the main trail from India to Tibet.

From Sikkim, he will go by horse to Yatung. His destination in Bhutan is Paro, two more days on horseback away.

Set Meeting to Organize Waterford GOP Club

An organizational meeting of the Waterford Township Republican's Club will be held at the home of Senator and Mrs. Harvey Lodge at 6610 Longworth St., Lotus Lake, beginning at 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

After 5 Years of Litigation

Drop Charges Against 6 Top Detroit Communists

BAY CITY (AP) — For lack of new evidence, U. S. District Judge Frank A. Picard today dismissed indictments against six top Michigan Communists accused of conspiring to advocate violent overthrow of the government.

Picard's decision closed the book on nearly five years of litigation that carried the case to the U.S. Supreme Court. The high court last year threw out the 1954 convictions of all six defendants.

"I do this very reluctantly, because the Supreme Court and I disagree."

The defendants, all from Detroit and admitted Communists, are Saul Wellman, Nat Ganley, Thomas Dennis Jr., Philip Schatz, Billy Allen and Helen Mary Winter.

Judge Picard fined the group $10,000 each and sentenced them to jail terms ranging from four to five years after conviction in a trial that began Oct. 27, 1953.

U. S. attorneys produced as evidence their writings in Communist publications and testimony of FBI undercover agents.

The U. S. Court of Appeals in Cincinnati affirmed the District Court convictions but the Supreme Court vacated them on grounds that an overt act must be proved and that the statute of limitations had expired. It remanded the case to the Appeals Court, which in turn sent it back to district court.

★ ★ ★

Wellman was acting state chairman of the Michigan Communist Party at the time of the trial. Ganley was a charter member and active in party organizing activities.

Allen was a writer for the Communist Daily Worker. Dennis and Schatz both were members of the party's secretariat.

Mrs. Winters' husband was a former state chairman.

New Car Stocks Hit Record Low

DETROIT (AP)—Stocks of unsold new cars dropped to the year's lowest point Sept. 1.

A dealer survey by Automotive News disclosed that 463,296 cars were in inventory at that time, compared with 630,656 on Aug. 1. On Sept. 1, 1957, retailers held 729,536 cars.

The trade paper said: "The figures corroborated what dealers have known for some time—that this year's cleanup gives indications of being the closest to-the-bare-walls sellout of new cars experienced in any autumn since 1954."

The paper adds that new car inventories were thinned out largely as a result of idle assembly lines. "And the factories currently are playing a major role in further stock reductions," it said.

Because September car output is not likely to exceed 220,000 units a furthr inventory reduction is indicated for the current month. New car sales, of course, are expected to exceed production this month.

News in Brief

Pontiac police reported yesterday that someone had broken into a railroad car behind the Hubert Distributors Co., 675 S. Saginaw St. and stolen four cases of beer valued at $16.80.

The Bethune School was reportedly broken into yesterday and the building ransacked but nothing reported missing, according to Pontiac Police.

West Germany manufactured 29,730,000 watches and clocks in 1957, a 26 per cent increase over 1956.

Grain Futures Steady to Firm

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices held within a steady to firm range in early dealings today on the Board of Trade.

Trade was light and lacking influences either way. Reports of crop damage in Europe appeared to have a steadying effect and was credited with slowing down the volume of offerings. Extent of damage, however, was not known.

Faces Assault Charge Following Death Try

A warrant was issued yesterday charging a Pontiac man with assault with intent to do great bodily harm less than murder after the man attempted to kill himself and his estranged wife, police said.

Gary Bacon, 22, of 75 Mariva St., faces the charge in a warrant issued by Municipal Court Judge Maurice E. Finnegtn.

★ ★ ★

Bacon argued with his estranged wife, Carole Ann Bacon, of 188 E. Rundell St., early Sunday as they drove out Oakland Ave.

She told Police that Bacon became angry and threatened to kill them both. He drove off the road striking a tree and utility pole, police said.

★ ★ ★

Arraignment will be held as soon as Bacon is well enough to stand trial, officers stated. Both he and Mrs. Bacon were treated at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Fords, Chevrolets Leave Cadillac Way Behind

SILVER CITY, N. C. (UPI) — All of the beauty contestants — except one — left the field after homecoming celebrations at a local high school football game in Fords and Chevrolets.

The last girl was seated in a long black Cadillac convertible, but she wasn't the proudest girl on the field. Her car wouldn't start.

The driver explained to a group of small boys whom he begged to push the car, that it was out of gas.

Held for Investigation of Murder in Royal Oak

Royal Oak Township Police are holding Harold Richardson, 29, of 1720 Collingwood, Detroit, for investigation of murder following the fatal stabbing yesterday morning of Herman Gibson, 26, of 1610 Glendale, Detroit.

Police said Richardson admitted knifing Gibson on a street corner in Royal Oak Township, but said he did it in self defense. Gibson had attacked him with a broken bottle, he said.

Gibson died three hours later at Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital, Detroit.

Industrials Push Stock Mart Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Industrials took off from their new historic peak to push the stock market higher in heavy early trading today.

Key issues rose from fractions to about a point. Buying was so active that the ticker tape fell behind the pace of trading for a period of nine minutes.

★ ★ ★

Steels, motors and nonferrous metals were favored. Rails also nudged forward in the wake of their upsurge of yesterday. The market was higher at the start and retained its gains in later dealings.

Business news continued favorable. Coppers were sparked by news of a price rise at the custom smelter level and a price boost by a big Belgian producer. Personal income was reported at a new high in August for the second straight month. Wall Street saw no change in the pressure of funds for investment.

★ ★ ★

Anaconda and Kennecott paced the coppers with a rise of about a point. Aluminium Ltd. which opened unchanged at 29 on a big block of 10,000 shares,, rose fractionally in active dealings.

Blue chips such as American Telephone, Du Pont and Eastman Kodak which lagged behind the parade yesterday, rose fractionally.

★ ★ ★

U.S. Steel was up around a point. Fractional gains were made by Bethlehem, Ford, Chrysler, Goodyear, General Dynamics, Douglas Aircraft, Phelps Dodge, American Cyanamid, Loew's, Southern Railway, Texas Co. and U.S. Gypsum.

Raps Gov. Williams on 'Interference'

FENTON (AP)— Republican Paul D. Bagwell last night criticized Gov. Williams for what he said was attempted interference in the UAW-auto industry contract negotiations.

Bagwell, GOP governor nominee, referred to appointment by the Democratic governor of a panel of three special advisers to counsel him on when and whether to make any move, and of an "observer."

The Republican candidate said he could see no gain for the people, "particularly in view of the governor's well known close political relationship with Mr. Reuther."

He said there should be no hint of political interference in the situation.

Auto company heads asked the governor to keep his special advisers away from the negotiating sessions. Williams indicated he would do so.

In Detroit, Ronald W. Haughton, a member of the governor's advisory group, declared the panel would do nothing that might disturb the negotiations.

"We definitely are not mediators and do not seek to be," he said.

Waterford Dem Club to Fete Candidates

Democratic candidates for Oakland County offices this fall will be honored Saturday at a wiener roast to be given by the Waterford Democratic Club.

Members of the club will gather at the Sleepy Hollow on Loon Lake, 3490 Dixie Highway, at 6 p.m. and first will conduct their regular business meeting prior to the roast. Waterford Township residents are invited to attend, according to Geraldine Clemmons, club publicity chairman.

Sparton Shows Profit

JACKSON (AP) — Sparton Corp., today reported net profits of $897,793 for the fiscal year ended last June 30, compared with losses of $235,233 in the preceding year. The firm, formerly the Sparks-Withington Co., said net sales jumped from $24,825,000 in the 1956-57 fiscal year to $26,626,000 this year.

Edison Reports Income

NEW YORK (AP)—Detroit Edison Co. today reported net income of $29,567,844, equal to $2.36 a share, for the year ended Aug. 31. This compared with $32,040,593, or $2.57 a share, in the period last year.

The United States Coast Guard was founded in 1790. It was proposed by Axelander Hamilton, then George Washington's Secretary of the Treasury.

BIDS WANTED

Sealed bids will be publicly opened at 10 a.m., E.S.T., September 26, 1958, in the office of the Oakland County Board of auditors, 1 Lafayette, 4th Floor, Pontiac, Michigan, for the construction of access roads in various locations within the Oakland County Service Center, aggregating approximately 3800 lineal feet of roadway.

A set of plans and specifications including proposal, contract and bond forms is on file at the office of the Construction Engineer, Mr. John McCormick, 1280 West Boulevard (Maintenance Building), Oakland County Service Center, and at the office of the consulting engineers, Municipal Consultant Service, 22655 Stephenson Highway, Hazel Park, Michigan, sets of which may be obtained at the above mentioned locations upon the deposit of Five Dollars ($5.00) for each set obtained. This deposit will be refunded upon the return of the set in good order within ten days of the bid opening.

Each proposal shall be accompanied by a bid bond or certified check payable to the Oakland County Board of Auditors for the sum of not less than five per cent (5%) of the amount bid. The Board of Auditors reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids and also the right to waive any formal defects in the bids when deemed for the best interests of the County.

No proposal may be withdrawn for a period of ten days after bid opening. All proposals with bid bond shall be delivered to the office of the Oakland County Board of Auditors, 1 Lafayette Street, Pontiac Michigan, on or before 10 A.M., E.S.T., September 26, 1958, in a sealed envelope entitled, "PROPOSAL FOR ACCESS ROADS, OAKLAND COUNTY SERVICE CENTER." Card of Thanks 1

WE WIS HTO THANK OUR MANY friends, relatives, and neighbors for their kindness, floral offerings and expressions of sympathy extended to us during our recent bereavement in the loss of our dear husband and father, Hiram Barger

A special thanks to our pastor, Rev. Thomas Guest, also to Rev. James Johnson, the singers, and Pursley's Funeral Home. Mrs. Hiram Barger and Family.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF HILDA Anne Henderson who passed away 3 years ago Sept. 15th.
God knows how much we miss her,
Never shall her memory fade:
Loving thoughts shall ever wander
To the spot where she is laid.
Sadly missed by Daddy, sisters & brothers.

Public Believes What It Sees

Many Viewers Think She's Actually Married to Robert Young

By CHARLES DENTON

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Both Jane Wyatt and Robert Young have golden Emmies on their mantels as proof of their prowess at acting married.

But the fact is (and this apparently will be news to at least a few) that they aren't—to each other, that is.

★ ★ ★

And Jane has a notion that if they were, things might be easier—professionally that is.

Genuinely wedlocked couples who play domestic duos on TV, explains the lovely 44-year-old mother of Young's brood in NBC's "Father Knows Best" series, derive greater artistic license from the fact that their unions are legal.

"Take Ozzie and Harriet, for example," said Jane, whose thesis took on additional authority because she happened to be dolled up in a wedding gown and veil for a scene in the series.

"You can't beat an arrangement like that because they really are married and that's their family on the show. Whatever they do, people will say, 'That's all right for them because they're actually married to each other.'

"I remember seeing Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontaine in a play in New York once in which there was a scene where she was supposed to rip off all her clothing.

★ ★ ★

"She actually wore a sort of a chemise thing, of course," Jane hastened to add, "but she was supposed to be stark naked. And you could hear all the little ladies of the Theater Guild whispering, 'Oh, it's all right because they're really married, you know, and that's the way they act.' "

Furthermore, said Jane, who has a happy home and two sons quite apart from her TV domicile, her relationship with Young on the home screen has led to considerable confusion off screen.

After four years, there are still some people who haven't heard they aren't really man and wife.

"When we were supposed to appear on the last Rose Parade telecast at Pasadena," she recalled with a laugh, "we decided to stay there the night before—and found that they planned to put both of us in the same apartment.

"Everyone was very embarrassed and confused about it all, but the odd part is that they KNEW we weren't really married."

PRETTY TV MOTHER — Jane Wyatt, who portrays Margaret Anderson on NBC-TV's family comedy series, "Father Knows Best," keeps getting into ticklish situations because viewers believe she is actually married to Robert Young, the show's co-star. It's true that they're both married — but not to each other.

Just Like Hollywood

ELIZABETH, N.J. (AP)—Five-year-old John Spond was hurrying home with a bottle of catsup when he was knocked down by a car. Doctors thought he was badly hurt until they wiped off the catsup. They found he had only a few scratches.

Any Cause Is Worthy if It Can Be Deducted

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — "How to Have a Nice Evening in New York for Only $2,000" is to be the title of this simple, homespun essay.

First, the B.W. and I cavorted to the fall opening of El Morocco where the joint was swingin' and rockin'. Maitre d's Joe and Angelo deposited us at a table in a doorway customarily reserved for charity canvassers.

"What are you seling?" asked the people streaming in, thinking we were peddling tickets.

WILSON

It wouldn't have occurred to us, but Bob Considine, at an adjoining table, printed out the words, "Toots Shor Benefit" on a slip of paper and handed it over. Inasmuch as Toots had just become a millionaire this was considered pretty hilarious.

★ ★ ★

Tommy Manville, Hugh Owen of Paramount and Billy Reed of the Little Club threw down greenbacked contributions without even bothering to ask what the nonexistent charities were.

Seeing actual money on the table, we changed some of the table cards to read, "Earl Wilson Benefit." Our point was—I'm sure we had one when we started—that several monied folks give to charities without even asking what they're for.

Some of the free-givers were Diana Barrymore, sober and 20 pounds lighter, to the xtent that she says she can hardly remember what booze tastes like; Scott Brady; George DeWitt the TV comedian; Hermione Gingold who was also looking thin due to performing in summer stock; Roy Cohn, and Jack Carter, the TV comic, who claimed that it was so crowded that when he got up to get on the dance floor, there wasn't any dance floor.

★ ★ ★

Afterward, several of the gang went to Toots Shor's where he was calling customers "Peasants" and relating how he'd been to see "Rocky."

"Graziano or Marciano?" he was asked.

"Nelsey Rocky," he replied. "NELSEY ROCKY! Since I got my check for $1,500,000, I'm beginning to feel very Republican!"

GEORGIA

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Jack Paar has confided to a few people that he would like to quit 5-nights-a-week TV in a year because it has ruined his chances of seeing his wife and daughter regularly. "It's too rough a grind," he says. June Havoc won the Judy Holliday role in the touring company of "Bells Are Ringing" . . . Georgia Landau, who eloped last week, got back in time to do "The Verdict Is Yours."

EARL'S PEARLS: Note on the spread of inflation: Even hemlines are going up.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: George DeWitt tells of the explorer renting camels for himself and wife. He asked her: "Darling—one lump or two?" . . . That's earl, brother.

2 Men Remain Under Pressure in Space Test

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Two men in a sealed pressure chamber continued today their experiments on human reaction to space flight.

A carbon dioxide buildup continued yesterday to simulate the failure of chemical absorbents in a space craft. The cabin's air pressure was gradually reduced from that encountered at 14,000 feet to that found at higher altitudes to determine their tolerance to the bends. Neither had taken oxygen.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Bruno Balke, 51, and M. Sgt. Samuel G. Karst, 34, entered the cramped cabin Friday morning. They intend to remain 10 days.

Nausea which struck both yesterday eased late in the day. Dr. Balke ate a light meal but Sgt. Karst fasted.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Robert T. Clark, head of the research project at the Air Force School of Medicine, said the current phase of the experiment involving the buildup of noxious gases may have affected their appetites. He said the men couldn't have done this well if they hadn't trained at both low and high altitudes prior to the test.

Gives Tip With Alimony

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — A deputy circuit clerk said a man required to make $40 monthly child support payments submitted $45 for September. The man explained that he had missed the August payment, but that his ex-wife hadn't complained. "Just tell her the extra $5 is a tip for waiting," he said.

Q. How long can contact lenses be worn? E.A.C.

A. Today's modern contact lenses, if properly fitted, can be worn all day long. Not only are they invisible while worn, but the wearer once adapted to them, is hardly aware of their presence.

Q. Bright lights make my eyes water and burn. I even find normal room light hard on my eyes. Is it safe to wear dark glasses all the time for this condition? F. S.

A. It is best not to resort to dark or tinted glasses, (especially for indoor wear), unless recommended by the eye doctor who is familiar with your case. A thorough examination may show the underlying cause of this sensitivity to light and if correctable, will enable you to face up to the brightest of lights without tint.

Q. I see dougle images quite often. What causes this? B. B.

A. Seeing double, (called dyplopia), is caused by the two eyes not working properly together as a team. Most often this condition can be corrected by glasses or visual training. In any case, this should be looked into at once as it can prove dangerous, such as in driving, reaching for objects, etc.

28 Children Hurt in Bus Crash

Swerving Truck Rams Into Vehicle on Road in Pennsylvania

JEANETTE, Pa. (UPI)—A delivery truck lost its brakes on a hill near here yesterday and crashed into a school bus, injuring 28 children and the bus driver.

A service station attendant who witnessed the accident said the truck roared down a hill on Route 30, swerved into the opposite lane to avoid hitting a stopped automobile and smashed into the left front side of the bus.

The bus, which had parked to pick up passengers, was carrying students to the Lincoln Heights Elementary School in Hempfield Twp.

Twelve injured were admitted to hospitals, two at Westmoreland Hospital at Greensburg, Pa., and nine students and the bus driver at Monsour Clinic here. Twelve others were treated at Westmoreland and five others at Monsour.

★ ★ ★

Officials said the injured were in satisfactory condition, including the bus driver, James Caperelli, 34, South Greensburg.

The driver of the truck was identified by police as Frank Nardizzi, of Greensburg. He was shaken up but did not require hospitalization.

Goodfellows Elect Officers in Waterford

Waterford Township Goodfellows have elected their officers for the coming year, and have set October 10, as the first meeting date to get things under way for the Christmas season.

The new president will be Walter Fangboner, assisted by Vern Price, as vice-president. Treasurer will be Clayton Soncrainte with Leon Griffin, secretary, and Mrs. Ruth Miller, secretary of welfare.

Each year the Waterford Township firemen spark the Goodfellows movement, locally, and have urged other organizations to join them in their once-a-year project.

Says Gromyko Seeking to Take A-Ban to U.N.

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio said today Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko had called for the question of the cessation of nuclear weapon tests to be included on the agenda of the U.N. General Assembly.

The broadcast, quoting a Tass dispatch from New York, said Gromyko made the request in a letter to Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

U.S. Will Trade Exhibit of Wares With Russia

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union and the United States are going to show each other a sample of their latest wares at big exhibits in New York and Moscow next summer.

★ ★ ★

The two countries agreed to it yesterday under a broad cultural agreement signed last January.

Both nations will display exhibits in science, technology and culture.

The Soviet exhibit is set tentatively to begin in mid-June at the huge New York Coliseum. The U.S. exhibit will open July 1 in Gorki Park in the heart of Moscow.

A State Department spokesman said it would be the first major showing of U. S. products in Moscow.

★ ★ ★

He said the exhibit would include an atoms-for-peace display, machinery, equipment and some of the most popular items at the U. S. exhibit at the Brussels World Fair.

Holding Detroit Scholar

Confesses Slaying Wife; Police Probe for Motive

DETROIT (AP) — Police today probed the background of an educator and former industrial executive in an attempt to learn what motivated him to kill his wife.

Scholarly Michael P. Kinsella, 51, holder of two university degrees, was held for investigation of murder in yesterday's slaying of his wife, Marianne, 48, in their fashionable apartment home.

Mrs. Kinsella, petite brunet of 90 pounds and onetime Marquette University student under Kinsella, was beaten with a clawhammer, choked with a cord, and placed in a water-filled bathtub. She also had been slashed on the throat.

Detective Lt. Hiram Phipps of the police homicide squad said Kinsella telephoned police saying "I've just killed my wife."

Police found Mrs. Kinsella's fully clothed body in the bathtub when they arrived at the apartment.

Lt. Phipps said Kinsella later told officers "I just wanted to get rid of my responsibilities."

Phipps said Kinsella, an Army gunsights expert in World War II, told in detail how his wife was put to death.

He was quoted as saying he first struck her with his tool box hammer as she napped on a couch, choked her with an electric cord, cut her throat, and placed the body in the tub "to be sure she was dead."

Kinsella had been laid off by Chrysler Corp. as a sales training specialist in June, police said. He had been industrial relations superintendent at the old Briggs Manufacturing Co. after eight years as a speech instructor at the University of Detroit.

Briggs, a car body plant, was a key factory of the entire auto industry prior to its purchase in 1953 by Chrysler. Chrysler's staff records described Kinsella as "exceptional in ability."

The Kinsellas had been once divorced and then remarried. They met at Marquette University in 1931. They married in 1937, divorced in 1945 and remarried in 1948. Kinsella has bachelor's and master's degrees from Marquette and has nearly completed work for a doctor's degree. He has been under engagement by the University of Detroit to return as a night school teacher.

Formosa First on U.N. Agenda

Most Formidable Array of Hot Potato Issues Await Discussion

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The General Assembly opens its 13th regular session today facing one of the most formidable arrays of hot potato issues the U.N. has handled. Formosa seemed certain to head the list.

Before debate even begins, the 81-nation body expects a battle over election of a new Assembly president. Two Arab foreign ministers—Charles Malik of Lebanon and Ahmed Mohammed Mahgoub of Sudan—are top contenders for the post now held by New Zealand's Sir Leslie Munro. Both claim they have enough commitments to get the required simple majority.

★ ★ ★

The contest springs out of July's Middle East crisis. The United Arab Republic objects to Malik because he is regarded as pro-Western.

If the two Arab leaders deadlock, the election may go to either of two dark-horse candidates — Yugoslav Foreign Minister Koca Popovic or Peru's veteran diplomat, Victor A. Belaunde.

In addition to Formosa, the Assembly is expected to give another airing to the unsettled Middle East crisis, France's dispute with Algeria, the British-Greek-Turkish squabble over Cyprus and the controversy over South Africa's racial policies.

Both the United States and the Soviet Union have made plain they intend to bring Formosa before the Assembly in one form or another.

Transport Plane Afire; Lands Safely on Island

HONOLULU (UPI) — A DC 4 transport plane made an emergency landing on Johnston Island last night after its five-man crew put out a fire that broke out while it was over the Pacific.

The Coast Guard said the plane radioed it was afire and in critical danger because it carried a highly combustible cargo. The nature of the cargo was not immediately learned.

The plane, a California and Hawaiian Airlines transport under charter to the Military Air Transport Service, was en route to Wake Island.

Engrossed in Movie?

PEGU, Burma (UPI) — Moviegoers here are not the sort who'll let a little thing like a flash flood disturb them. When steady rains sent rivers over their banks and put the whole town under a foot of water, patrons at the local movie house simply sat on the back of their seats and saw the picture through to the bitter end.
