Mild Weather Hailed in City

Watch Out for Sunburn; Balmy Weather to Stay

If Pontiac area residents find themselves afflicted with spring fever early this year it's no wonder.

While Pontiac's high of 54 yesterday was not record breaking, a high of 57 in Detroit was the highest reading recorded for that day since the Weather Bureau started keeping track back in 1872.

Residents in this vicinity can even get out their golf clubs and bermuda shorts, as the warm weather is due to continue.

For tonight, the U.S. Weather Bureau predicts partly cloudy and mild, with a low of 36-40 degrees. Tomorrow will be cloudy andl continued m i l d with a pleasant high of 50-54.

The lowest recorded temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 35. At 2 p.m. the mercury had risen to 50.

Goff's Mother Reveals Letter

Note Indicates Accused Murderer Attempted to Take His Own Life

An apparent suicide note was produced as evidence today indicating that accused murderer Ray Goff attempted to take his own life after allegedly killing the woman he "loved too much" to live without.

The mother of 35-year-old Goff, Mrs. Lottie M. Carpenter, of Flint, dabbed at tears as she told of finding the note on the morning of Aug. 21, 1955. It was on this day that Goff is accused of slaying Mrs. Rita M. Cummings with a .22-caliber target pistol.

"I took it he was going out to commit suicide," she told a jury of six women and six men. She also told of discovering Goff's billfold, bankbook and change purse on the kitchen table the same Sunday morning.

5th Judge Bill Nearing Vote

Roberts Sees Phillips' Attempt to Stall Bill Failing in House

A bill to provide a fifth circuit judge for Oakland County was headed for a vote today despite an apparent unsuccessful attempt by Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron) to stall it.

Phillips, member of the powerful House Ways and Means Committee, said the bill violated a "hold the line" spending policy Republicans in the state are insisting on.

"Phillips hasn't changed anyone's vote but his own," said Rep. Farrell E. Roberts (R-West Bloomfield Township), one of the six Oakland County lawmakers who sponsored the bi-partisan bill.

Still predicting successful house passage in its present form, Roberts said the measure probably would be voted on in the afternoon session.

All Oakland representatives united last month in forming the bill because they said the four present judges are saddled with the biggest case load per judge in the state.

COST TO STATE

Phillips' opposition, which forced a postponement of the vote last night, stems from the fact that the state pays a large share, around $12,500, of each judge's salary.

"How are we to be expected to hold down on the budget, to squeeze every dime out of the cost of government, if we pass on these bills without close study," he said.

The judge bill is aimed at creating the new judge with two initial terms, the short one starting July 1, 1959, and another of the normal six years, beginning Jan. 1, 1960.

Joint sponsorship among the four Republican and two Democratic lawmakers from Oakland County might side-step a partisan block which killed a like bill last year, they said.

Rebels Release Speed-Driver Fangio Unhurt

Cuban Race Results in Death; Officials Deny Course Was Oiled

HAVANA (AP)—Rebel kidnapers freed world champion automobile racer Juan Manuel Fangio of Argentina unharmed today after Cuba's $10,000 Gran Premio race ended in tragedy and suspicions of foul play.

While Fangio, unshaken by his 29-hour experience, talked with reporters, authorities disputed claims by other drivers that someone poured oil on the course of the race in which the 46-year-old, five-time world title-holder was to have been the star attraction.

A racer driven by Armando Garcia Cifuentes of Cuba skittered into the crowd along Malecon boulevard, killing four Cubans and injuring 34. Cifuentes was among those critically hurt.

Drivers said the track had been slicked down with oil, presumably in a rebel attempt to wreck the race.

Officials at first agreed, but later the National Sports Commission said Cifuentes' car "supposedly" went out of control. The commission contended its technicians had "eliminated absolutely all suspicion of sabotage," and claimed the oil on the street had seeped from the 27 racing cars.

Fangio told newsmen his abductors made clear they had grabbed him in hopes his disappearance would force cancellation of the race and embarrass President Fulgencio Batista's regime.

TO BE HELD AGAIN

Brig. Gen. Fernandez Miranda, head of the sports commission, said that despite yesterday's tragedy, the Gran Premio would be held again next year.

The race, originally schedued to run 314.19 miles, was halted after Cifuentes' crash. Stirling Moss of Britain, who had completed five laps of 3.5 miles each, was declared winner and awarded $3,000.

Fangio will wind up with more, even though he did not compete. The sports commission said it had guaranteed him more than $5,000 to appear and his abduction was a "circumstance beyond his control."

Fangio, who spent the night at the Argentine Embassy, said he would remain in Cuba two or three days and would not hesitate to return for next year's race.

Extra Money to Be Received After March 1

U.S. Blames Weather for January Jump in Nation's Expenses

DETROIT (INS) — The auto companies announced today approximately 105,000 of the firms' employes throughout the nation will receive cost-of-living increases in line with the Labor Department index.

Chrysler said 79,000 wage and salaried workers in the Detroit area will receive pay boosts effective during the first pay period after March 1.

The Labor Department said the cost-of-living index rose last month from 121.1 to 122.3.

Hourly rated workers will receive an estimated three-cents-an-hour increase and salaried employes will get $110 cost-of-living increase for the quarterly period starting after March 1.

This represents an increase of $15 over the last cost-of-living allowance for salaried workers.

General Motors said about 326,000 hourly rated employes in the U. S. will receive pay increase from the jump in the cost-of-living index.

Ford and American Motors have not yet said how many of their workers were affected by the boost.

The government reported today that the cost of living took the biggest jump in January since the summer of 1956 to reach a new record high.

Adverse weather conditions were blamed for a major increase in food prices which forced the overall consumer price index up by six-tenths of 1 per cent last month.

At 122.3 per cent of the 1947-49 average, the index was 3.5 per cent higher than a year ago.

The factory worker's buying power was down 2 per cent in January and now is more than 4½ per cent under a year ago.

The only major decline in prices in January were in household furnishings, apparel and cars. Other major groups of goods and services went up.

With the big jump in January, food prices reached an all-time high and were nearly 5 per cent more than a year ago. Fresh fruits and vegetables advanced 7 per cent while meats, poultry and fish increased 4 per cent.

January sales of household textiles, vacuum cleaners, washing machines, toasters and some furniture were not enough to offset increases in rents, gas and electric bills, and fuel oil.

AFL-CIO State Marriage Now Accomplished Fact

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The marriage of the AFL and CIO in Michigan was an accomplished fact today.

But reluctant kinsmen of the weaker AFL were still holding on to a dowry of some $171,000.

Aides of AFL-CIO President George Meany, who ordered the marriage, officiated here yesterday at the blending of the AFL Michigan Federation of Labor (MFL) and the state CIO into a united labor movement.

No one showed up to say no and it was done in comparative harmony.

Democratic Gov. Williams, wearing his green and white polka dot tie, blessed the occasion.

Williams told the state merger convention, "The unity of labor comes not a moment too soon because the forces that seek to destroy organized labor are more determined than ever to accomplish the goal if they can."

Meany's aide, Peter M. McGavin, will try to do something tomorrow about collecting the AFL dowry. It consists of $64,029 in cash in the treasury, $67,000 in cash and bonds in a reserve fund and a $40,000 building in Lansing.

McGavin has served notice on MFL officials he will appear at their Lansing headquarters at 11 a.m. tomorrow and demand their charter and all the property.

Mackie Writes Back:

All Money for Highways Being Spent as Available

By PETE LOCHBILER

Federal highway dollars are being spent in Michigan as fast as they are available, the State Highway Department retorted today to charges made by Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak).

"We have programed all of the federal money that we can actually collect and spend, plus more than 40 per cent of the funds that will become available after July 1," a highway department spokesman said.

Broomfield yesterday had charged the highway department with sitting on a "staggering backlog" of $139,000,000 in federal highway funds at a time when federal money spent here would be "a giant step forward in solving our current unemployment situation."

Broomfield blamed slow planning on the part of Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie. In Mackie's absence from the state capital today, the spokesman quoted a letter the highway commissioner had written Broomfield in rebuttal:

"Assuming your (co.mments) were in good faith and not a deliberate attempt to distort the record concerning Michigan's use of federal highway aid," Mackie's letter said, "I can only conclude you are sadly confused about how federal aid is made available by the federal government and how it is being used."

The spokesman argued that Broomfield's figures were misleading. "Of the $139,000,000 which he (Broomfield) refers to, $71,935,000 has been appropriated to us by Congress for interstate highways in the fiscal year 1958-59 and will not become available to the state until after July 1," the spokesman said.

Nevertheless, he continued, the highway department has already programmed more than half its 1958-59 interstate funds and "will have programed the entire appro-

4 or 5-Cent Stamp Issue Launches Senate Debate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate opens a long-delayed floor debate today on proposed higher postal rates, with the key issue whether the letter rate will be 4 or 5 cents.

President Eisenhower has been urging higher postal rates almost ever since he took office in 1953, as a means of reducing deficits in the Post Office Department.

But the issue has not reached the Senate floor until today, although the House twice has passed rate increase measures.

Before the Senate is a bill to raise postal rates by 700 to 750 million dollars. The current year's postal deficit is estimated at 700 million.

Included is a provision making the letter rate on non local mail 5 cents for three years from July 1, 1958, to June 30, 1961. Letters within a city would go for 4 cents. The permanent rate would be 4 as compared with the present 3 cents.

Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) said an effort would be made to tie pay increases for the 500,000 postal workers to the rate bill.

The administration is offering about 160 million dollars of annual increases to the employes: Democrats are pushing a bill which would total about 320 million.

Postal unions favor tying the two together with the idea that Eisenhower would not veto a bigger pay increase than he wants if it meant killing higher rates.

The Senate bill also would boost the cost of air mail letters from 6 to 8 cents, require a 3-cent stamp on printed post cards, and raise rates on second and third class mail 60 to 66 2-3 per cent.

Several Democrats are seeking to knock the 5-cent stamp out of the bill, leaving the flat 4-cent rate. The 5-cent provision was adopted by a 7-6 vote in committee.

The Republican leadership plans to try to retain the temporary 5-cent rate. Both sides expect a close vote.

Proceeds from the 5-cent stamp would be earmarked for modernization of post offices over the nation. This rate would add about 175 millions annually to the yield expected from a straight 4-cent stamp.

Is There Dust on Your Bible?

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—The door of opportunity is opened by pushing.

Take life as you find it, but don't leave it so.

Beaten paths are for beaten men.

So go the "Stop-Light Sermons" posted weekly by a bard of the church billboard, the Rev. Dale H. Conrad, pastor of Crescent Heights Methodist Church.

They flash their messages to motorists passing the busy corner of Fairfax and Fountain avenues. Newspaper columnists frequently quote them.

A Hollywood songwriter was so taken with "The train on the railroad to heaven carries no baggage cars" that he asked the clergyman for permission to write such a song.

The Rev. Mr. Conrad switched several years ago from straight announcements of sermon titles.

"I started thinking of a sermon out there for all the people who never would step in the door of a church," he said yesterday.

"They had to be short and say something — I just sort of went on from there."

Other pithy proverbs he has posted — some original, some culled from his reading, some from parishioners:

Is there any dust on your Bible?

Your day goes the way the corners of your mouth turn.

If your religion costs little it is worth little.

If you are too busy to pray, you are too busy.

A man is known by the company he keeps out of.

A man wrapped up in himself makes a pretty small parcel.

A fool's tongue is always long enough to cut his throat.

Faith keeps the man who keeps the faith.

A Bible in the hand is worth two on the shelf.

A lot of kneeling keeps you in good standing with God.

The Christ we will not share we cannot keep.

An ounce of church is worth a pound of police court.

The Sermon on the Mount will lift you out of the valley.

One motorist write the pastor:

"I started to apply your sayings in my life for the week they were up. It's worked wonders for me."

One woman calls him to criticize, however, if the message isn't cheerful or mentions the devil, as in:

Sleeping saints serve Satan.

The Rev. Mr. Conrad said his own favorite is this sign he posted last June after getting a call from a hospital:

It's a boy!!!

Debt Hike Bill Ready for Ike

Signature Only Needed to Raise U.S. Ceiling by $5 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Only President Eisenhower's signature on a bill was needed today to raise by five billion dollars the limit fixed by law on the size of the national debt.

The Senate passed the bill late yesterday after a day of debate in which some senators said no increase should be voted now, while others contend five billion was not enough.

The hike to 280 billion dollars will be effective through June 30, 1959. This is the fourth temporary increase in the limit passed at Eisenhower's request. The last previous one, a three-billion increase, expired June 30, 1957.

The Senate finally passed the measure on a voice vote, but not until it had gone through two roll calls demanded by foes of the bill.

Sen. Cotton (R-NH) was beaten 74-12 in his effort to shelve the bill for the time being by sending it back to the Finance Committee.

Sen. Lausche (D-Ohio) lost 56-27 on a proposal to hold the increase to three billion dollars, a move that was supported by Chairman Byrd (D-Va) of the Finance Committee.

The House passed the bill by a 328-71 vote Jan. 23.

Know the Weather

By E. H. SIMS

Is it true that a halo around the moon indicates approaching rain?

We noted in an earlier piece on the weather that a halo often means the approach of a warm front. This is true because a halo is formed when high, thin ice clouds move in above you, giving the moon a halo effect, while below, just above the surface of the earth, the weather is clear.

Quite often — but not always — this means the leading edge of a warm front has moved overhead, at a very great height, while the surface edge is still several hundred miles westward. The slant of a warm front is so great that its forward leaning, high-altitude edge, is often over you a day, or more, before you feel the effects on the surface of the earth.

Since this is probably the most frequent cause of a halo, then it follows that rain can be expected to follow a halo — in most instances. A warm front usually brings a day or more of steady drizzle, unlike the cold front, which passes in more quickly, with gusty winds and hard rains, for a short period, and then leaves the air clear and cold.

Senator Byrd to Run Again; Wife Consents

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Sen. Harry Flood Byrd (D-Va) agreed today with full consent of his wife to seek a fifth six-year term in the U.S. Senate.

Byrd, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, had announced Feb. 12 he would not seek re-election.

His statement today, addressed to the General Assembly of Virginia, contained a statement from Mrs. Byrd, an invalid, releasing him from his promise made six years ago to retire at the end of his term in January, 1959.

The Assembly asked Byrd to reconsider shortly after his announcement Feb. 12. Byrd has also received many individual requests.

"Owing allegiance to the people who are the Commonwealth of Virginia, with heartfelt appreciation for the honors they have bestowed upon me, and with Mrs. Byrd's blessing, I feel obligated to accede to requests that I should be a candidate for re-election," Byrd's statement said.

Goff's Mother Reveals Letter

land County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty testified the dead woman wanted Goff, a factory machinist and motorcycle racer, to "leave her alone."

Goff, married twice and the father of four children, was released last December from Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane where he was committed after four psychiatrists in 1955 found him insane and unable to stand trial.

In the resumption of the trial this morning, Goff wiped tears from his face as Dr. John J. Marra, pathologist at Pontiac General Hospital, described how Mrs. Cummings died from multiple bullet wounds to the face, neck and head.

Following the doctor to the stand was Mrs. Cummings' mother, Mrs. Andrew J. Maturen, of Davisburg.

She testified that her daughter, divorced from her husband two months before her death, had no plans to marry Goff. "My daughter in many conversations with me said she wasn't interested in marrying anyone unless it be for remarrying her former husband."

Defense attorneys L. Rex Bebout and Edward A. Portere said they will attempt to prove Goff not only was insane at the time of the sanity hearing but also at the time of the shooting.

Mrs. Carpenter, who was on the stand nearly an hour, said her son before the murder appeared "upset and acting so funny a long time."

"He told me," the mother testified, "he loved Rita and that she had promised to marry him, but that she started going out with other fellows."

Legislators, Citizens Confer in Ann Arbor

Study Personal Property Tax on Cars to Raise Local Government Revenues

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A personal property tax on automobiles would pour 18 million dollars a year or more into local government tills, legislators and select citizens studying Michigan taxation were told today.

The possibility was raised by four economists from three major state universities in a bulky, two-volume research staff report on the property tax.

It was reviewed by participants in the study headed by Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), House taxation chairman.

The researchers keyed their revenue estimate to current mill rates and assessment ratios in Michigan together with experience of Illinois in applying the personal property tax to automobiles.

Traditionally, Michigan assessing officials never have tried to reach household goods and other tangible possessions of individuals through the personal property tax, but in some places they bear down heavily on inventories of business and industry.

PROPERTY TAXATION

The Conlin researchers said that local government units now get about 95 per cent of their locally raised revenues from the property tax, and suggested that their taxing authority should be extended into other areas.

In New York and Pennsylvania, they said, non-property levies account for about one-fourth of local tax collections.

In fiscal 1957, the property tax levy statewide of 622 million dollars represented about 45 per cent of combined state and local tax receipts, the report showed.

The researchers found some fault with the so-called Dodge Report on assessment procedures in Detroit last October, saying criticism of methods used by the Detroit Board of Assessors might be construed as an argument for lax enforcement policy.

They also said a number of changes in property tax assessment administration generally should be considered, including:

Encouragement of payment of property tax bills by installments.

Review of assessments by county-wide agencies, rather than local boards.

LEGAL LIMITATIONS

Statutory tax rate limitations to replace allocation of millage under the constitutional 15-mill amendment.

Complete exemption of tangible personal property under the property taxation system.

Chief reliance by the State Tax Commission on the sales ratio method, rather than appraisals, in its equalization studies.

Seeking improvement of property assessment through creation of larger assessment districts manned by professional, well-paid assessing officers insulated from political influences.

City High Graduate to Give Science Talk

A 1934 graduate of Pontiac Central High School will return to his school tomorrow to stress the need for more scientists, engineers and technicians.

He is Lt. Col. Paul E. Cool, a native of Pontiac now assigned as chief of Guided Missiles Branch, Investigation and Field Operations Division at the Norton Air Force Base, California.

Col. Cool is the brother of Joseph Cool, 22 Collingwood Ave.

He will fly from California today to speak to junior and senior boys at an assembly tomorrow morning at 10:40.

Called "Operation Hometown," the program is one in which senior officers in the Air Force are selected to return to their high schools to address members of the student body.

LT. COL. PAUL COOL

TO INFORM STUDENTS

Col. Cool's purpose will be to help make students aware of the requirements needed to be scientists, engineers and technicians, and emphasize the obligations students have in trying to meet America's needs in these fields.

The assembly program has been operating three years, although this is the first time Pontiac has participated.

Col. Cool, a veteran of more than 21 years service, joined the Army Air Corps in 1936 and became a pilot in 1940. In 1942, he served as captain and flight leader in B17 combat operation in the South Pacific area.

Doubts Death Was Suicide

Pontiac Brother Relates Habits of Man Found Dead in Mississippi

A Pontiac man today doubted that suicide could explain the mysterious death of his brother, a Detroiter who drowned in the Gulf of Mexico at Gulfport, Miss.

Peter C. Loncharte of 39 N. Ardmore St. said of his brother, John, 54, whose body was discovered last week:

"There's no possibility whatsoever of suicide. We were very close. I know him well and can't conceive he would take his own life."

The Pontiac man said his brother had owned a used car lot in Detroit for about 20 years, but had sold out a month ago and left for Hammond, Ind., with his wife, Alice, 34.

The victim's wife told police that her husband left her in Hammond to return to Detroit on business when a snow - storm interrupted their project trip to New Orleans for a Mardi-Gras vacation.

Authorities were unable to determine whether Loncharte returned to Detroit. His body, with weights attached, was found in the harbor at Gulfport Feb. 17. Police said an autopsy revealed no physical evidence of violence.

Mrs. Loncharte, who returned to Detroit last night, said she was sure her husband had intended to return to their home.

The victim also is survived by three sisters who live in Pontiac; Mrs. Harry F. Killian, 139 Lincoln COLN St.; Mrs. June Kinney; and Mrs. John C. Brown, 21 S. Shirley St.

His mother, Mrs. Lucile Loncharte, lives in Bessemer, Loncharte's home town. Loncharte's brother said that funeral services would be in Bessemer Thursday or Friday.

Worst Storm of Winter Howls Across California

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Northern California's worst storm of winter left at least one person dead in a trail of washed-out roads, falling trees and snapped power and communication lines.

Three small communities in the upper Sacramento Valley were evacuated last night as rivers flooded homes.

The storm howled itself out in the Central Valley, but yesterday 5 inches of rain fell in the Mendocino County towns of Hopland and Cloverdale and most areas north of Salinas got up to 2 inches.

Gusts of wind reached 80 miles an hour at Hamilton Air Force Base near San Francisco. Plate glass windows in San Francisco, were blown in.

Landslides and falling redwood trees blocked U.S. Route 101 in Mendocino and Humboldt counties.

Trees knocked out telephone lines, including the main Eureka-Ukiah cable. Power lines snapped from Siskiyou County to the San Francisco peninsula.

CHICAGO — The precipitation in the East was confined mostly to the eastern Great Lakes region from New York into New England and was in the form of showers or snow.

LONDON (AP) — Blizzards swept over Britain today, leaving a trail of abandoned cars, overturned snow plows and blocked roads.

Bitter cold also gripped Scandinavian countries. Oslo recorded temperatures of 13 below zero.

Snow up to 12 inches was recorded in many areas in Britain. The north was hardest hit. Conditions in Ireland were the worst this year.

Bay City Buses May Stop Runs

Coach Firm Announces Decline in Patronage Forcing It to Quit

BAY CITY—This community of 70,000 faces the possibility of no bus service after May 14.

The Balcer Brothers Motor Coach Co., which operates a fleet of 36 buses, served notice to the City Commission that it will go out of business May 14.

The reason given was steadily declining patronage and a 1957 net operating loss of $8,375. The company has lost money the past several years on the line and said its losses since 1947 totaled more than $152,000.

Barney A. Balcer, general manager, said the company didn't have the money to buy license plates to operate beyond May 14.

He said the loss of $8,375 was recorded last year despite a reduction of operating expenses of more than $40,000 from 1956 to 1957.

The company increased fares a nickel last May to 25 cents for adults, but the revenue failed to cover the losses.

Balcer said the only solution the bus firm could see would be some program of municipal participation which would have to be adopted and approved by a vote of the citizenry.

Balcer said the motor coach company has operated at a profit in only two of the last 11 years. He said the company has reached a position where higher fares, shorter routes or even state relief would not be enough to take care of losses on the city lines.

SAGINAW — Served by Saginaw City Lines, Saginaw faces bus problems. A Saginaw Citizens' Bus Committee was appointed here early last fall after the company cut night and Sunday service and boosted fares in face of declining passenger revenue.

'Spending All Funds for State Highways'

priation by July 1," he predicted.

In addition, another $30,000,000 in federal primary, secondary urban road aid will not be available until July 1, the spokesman added.

"We have programed all the 1956-57 and 1957-58 funds that were apportioned us," the spokesman declared.

He scoffed at hints by Broomfield that the state and Oakland County might "lose out" in federal interstate funds because of slow planning.

"The funds released so far are based on initial need studies submitted to the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads. The funds from 1959 on will be appropriated on the basis of need studies submitted by the states last summer.

"These funds are not politically released, there is no lobbying for them."

The spokesman hit at Broomfield's figures from the bureau of roads, showing that Michigan had only obligated 61 per cent of its interstate highway funds for the last fiscal year, compared with a national average of 78 per cent.

'WRONG STATISTICS'

"These statistics are a month and a half old," the spokesman said. "As of Feb. 14, the highway department had advanced road planning to a place where we were in a position to let more contracts than we had federal funds available."

Unlike some states, the spokesman added, Michigan is not tying up its anticipated federal funds by contracting for construction far in advance of the date the funds are available.

"We want our highway program to remain fluid," he said. "In case there is difficulty concerning right-of-way, for instance, on one project, we want to be able to switch our funds to another project, where there are no obstacles preventing immediate construction."

Girl Rescued; Police Praise Safety Boys

A Baldwin School safety-patrol boy and his two companions were praised by police today for their part in snatching a kindergarten girl from in front of an oncoming car.

Jimmy Gaylord, 11, of 124 Edison St. was cited by Pontiac Dets. Herbert Cooley and James Bale in front of his sixth-grade classmates half an hour after he had rescued the little girl at his safety post on the southwest corner of Howard and Edison streets.

According to Cooley, Jimmy stepped off the curb in the face of the approaching car and pulled the girl, Kaye Liechty, 5, back to safety by her coat.

Apparently Kaye, of 67 Sheridan St. had become confused about the corner traffic light. She had crossed the street once on the green light, Jimmy said, then returned on the same light to pick up something she had dropped.

"She thought the light was still green when she started to cross the street again," Jimmy explained. "But it wasn't. It had turned red."

The incident occurred as the youngster was returning home from school for lunch shortly after 11 a.m. With Jimmy at the corner were two other patrol boys, Peter Awedian, 12, of 445 N. Saginaw St. and James Gillespie, 12 of 32 Moreland.

Jimmy modestly gave credit to his fellow safety - patrolmen.

"After I pulled her back, she stepped out into the street again and Jimmy Gillespie had to pull her back that time," he said.

The Day in Birmingham

City to Ask Delay in Suit to Abate Bus Nuisance

BIRMINGHAM — City Commissioners, meeting in their weekly session, last night, requested City Attorney James Howlett to seek a court delay in the nuisance suit against the Greyhound Lines.

This action was taken to enable a conference to be scheduled between the firm, city officials and residents who filed the complaint, in an attempt to settle the matter out of court.

Edmond Brady, Greyhound attorney, said the bus company is willing to do whatever it can to lessen the noise and fumes of bus motors at the Forest street-Hunter boulevard lot, which residents have complained about.

One change already is being put into operation, he said. Buses used on school lines are being brought on the lot first and are the last to leave in the morning. This, he said, should do away with some of the disturbance at night.

A 'LAST RESOURCE'

Commissioners told Brady the condition had existed for some time and that court action was brought only after company officials apparently ignored complaints by residents living in the area of the parking lot.

Brady said the Great Lakes Transit Corp., which is purchasing the Greyhound lines in this area, already had discussed with him two changes planned.

The firm will use electric heaters to warm the buses instead of running the motors at night, and will buy the best grade of diesel fuel obtainable in an attempt to reduce fumes.

In other business, commissioners backed Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley's recommendation that two AAA Cab Co. cars be taken off the streets. Both vehicles were unable to be brought in for inspection as ordered because they were not in running condition.

A Birmingham salesman escaped with bruises yesterday when his private plane skidded on a snow-covered runway at a Rochester, N. Y., airport, turned over and slid about 50 feet on its top.

Donald C. Hawkins, 29, of 5400 Sunnycrest Dr., Birmingham, was taken to Strong Memorial Hospital, Rochester, for observation.

Hawkins is employed by the General Aircraft Supply Corp. of Detroit. He learned to fly under the GI Bill and has had a pilot's license for about 10 years, his wife said today.

She said her husband's firm called her to tell her that he had not been injured.

This week's bulletin of the First Presbyterian Church strongly urges local support to the bill now before the Michigan House of Represenatives which would curtail most Sunday selling.

Allen Seeking Post to Represent City

Stanley R. Allen, 38, of 80 Stanley Ave., has become the fourth candidate to throw in his hat for state representative from Pontiac in the coming fall elections.

Allen, a household appliance dealer in the city and Oakland County chairman of the National Nephrosis Foundation, Inc., today announced he would seek the post on the Democratic ticket.

Also seeking nomination for the seat now held by Leslie H. Hudson, are Robert P. Scott, of 31 Bloomfield Terrace, Harold A. Grant, 481 N. East Blvd., and former Pontiac mayor Arthur J. Law, of 27 Miami Rd.

'57 Peak for Auto Club Emergency Service

DETROIT (AP) — More cars needed emergency service on the road in Michigan in 1957 than in any previous year, says the Automobile Club of Michigan.

And, it forecast, 1958 will be an even bigger year.

Robert C. Nisbet, road service manager of the club, said about 3,556,000 emergency service calls were made by garages in Michigan last year. This was an increase of 289,000 over the 1956 figure.

The chief complaint was, "My car won't start," he said.

AFL-CIO Groups in State Merged

Dean and Secretary-Treasurer John Thorpe are expected to give McGavin the cold shoulder. But McGavin is counting on that. The AFL-CIO has already hired a lawyer. McGavin is making the trip to Lansing just to prepare the way for legal action.

McGavin said convention business may prevent him from appearing personally and, if so, Raymond H. Rappaport, Lansing attorney, has ben authorized to make the demand.

Merger of the MFL and the state CIO into a new state organization, named the Michigan State AFL-CIO, was effected late yesterday with the adoption of a constitution by a special merger convention.

The vote was overwhelming for merger. On a standing vote, only several score of some 1,200 delegates opposed the pact.

WILLING PARTNER

The state CIO Council, with a membership of about 600,000, was a willing partner. It complied with Meany's order to turn over its charter and assets of 1¼ million dollars to Meany's aide, R. J. Thomas, former United Auto Workers president. The MFL claims a membeship of some 300,000 but AFL-CIO spokesmen say that estimate is at least 100,000 too high.

Meany lifted the charters of both the state CIO and the MFL to pave the way for merger. He cracked down after the state AFL defied his orders.

The Michigan merger — 40th among the states—sets a pattern for Meany to follow in dealing with other states, such as Rhode Island and New Jersey which have been slow to merge on the state level. After merger on the national level Dec. 5, 1955, state and local groups were given two years to merge voluntarily.

The CIO is dominant in Michigan because of the large UAW membership. On the national level the AFL membership is about twice the CIO membership.

Merger here appeared so smooth that Meany cancelled plans to show up in person. He messaged the convention that "reasons beyond my control" kept him away.

He said he regretted having to force merger in Michigan but expressed hope that "the few remaining states that have not fulfilled their merger obligations will hasten to complete their labor unity at the state level as quickly as possible."

The building trades are merged on the national level. AFL-CIO spokesmen said no punitive action is planned against building tradesmen refusing to take part in the merger here. They are expected to come into the fold later.

Left out in the cold were the Teamsters. They have been expelled by the AFL-CIO and were not eligible to take part in the state merger even if they had been willing. One reason Meany cracked down on the state AFL was for its refusal to part company with the Teamsters.

The new state organization scheduled election of officers today.

Barring upsets, Gus Scholle, former president of the Michigan CIO Council will take over the presidency of the state group at a salary of $12,500 a year. He has been getting $11,500 as president of the state CIO which like the MFL officially went out of business upon merger.

Two Teamster Locals Planning to Look Sharp

DETROIT (AP) — Two Detroit Teamsters Union locals are planning to have just about the sharpest dressed truckers anywhere.

Local 299 is headed by Teamster President James R. Hoffa and Local 337 by an aide, Owen B. (Bert) Brennan.

Placid Pigs in Waldorf Alarming to Some

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — I'm a city girl, except for an occasional romp through the poison ivy on May Day, and this may explain why I was alarmed to see pigs in the Waldorf-Astoria.

Six pigs and to make it even more disturbing, they were in the company of three steers, eight sheep, a coopful of chickens and a flock of gentlemen—almost all of them (except four of the sheep and a distraught Waldorf executive) under the influence of tranquilizers and/or antibiotics.

"What we are trying to show here," said an agricultural scientist, gazing calmly at the chandelier-lit barnyard, "is that scientific progress in agriculture has dramatically helped to make food a better buy than you might think.

"People who complain about the price of food do not realize that an average hour's 'take home pay' after taxes buys generally twice as much food as an hour's 'take home pay' 30 years ago.

"May I tell you why?"

Except for a muffled grunt, tossed off by a pig or possibly the Waldorf man, there were no objections. The scientist pointed a stick at the six pink, vari-sized porkers and explained that each had been fed a different diet.

The smallest were given the same feed farmers offered pigs in the year 1910. The medium hogs had had a 1930s diet. The giant size, whose tails wagged winsomely in their sleep, had been fed actually less food, but boosted with antibiotics and vitamins.

"Without this scientific advance," he said cheerfully, "pork chops would now retail at about $1.77, instead of the 87 cents you're paying."

We moved on to the sheep and steers, who not only had terramycin in the digestive tracts, but a good shot of tranquilizer. They looked fat and considerably calmer than the average guest at the Waldorf, and this was explained by the fact that the advanced combination of scientific feeds has made them grow infinitely faster than Topsy.

As in the case of humans, the tranquilizer in small quantities apparently tends to cut down their appetites; yet the wonder drugs and vitamins in their food causes them to put on weight nearly twice as fast. And a placid, fat steer makes a well-marbled steak.

At the chicken coops, there was much clucking over the fact that terramycin at breakfast has boosted egg-laying by as much as 53 per cent.

Montague Brown Links World With Churchill as His Secretary

By International News

The link between an anxious world and ailing Sir Winston Churchill is a career diplomat turned private secretary, Anthony Montague Browne.

Montague Browne, who doesn't use a hyphen in his double-barrelled name, is only 35. But he has all the background typical of Churchill's "private court."

He is a war hero and possesses a ready wit — like nearly all the people with whom the 83-year-old British lion surrounds himself.

All information, including medical bulletins, on Churchill's attack of pneumonia and pleurisy, comes from Montague Browne.

Montague Browne is an alumnus of Stowe School, one of Britain's most reputable private educational establishments. During World War II he won the Distinguished Flying Cross as a fighter pilot.

His first association with Churchill dates back to 1952 when he left his job in the Foreign Office to become one of the then prime minister's seven private secretaries.

When Churchill retired in April 1955, turning No. 10 Downing St. over to Sir Anthony Eden, Montague Browne went back to the Foreign Office. But not for long. Churchill liked him so well that two years ago he arranged to have him detached from the Foreign Office to become his private secretary.

Montague Browne is still on the official Foreign Office list but Churchill pays his salary and expenses.

He is Sir Winston's constant companion and rates more as a friend than an employe. His apartment in London is but a few minutes drive from Churchill's Hyde Park Gate residence. He is married and has a four-year-old daughter.

In addition to his ready wit, he is a first-rate player of bezique, Churchill's favorite card game.

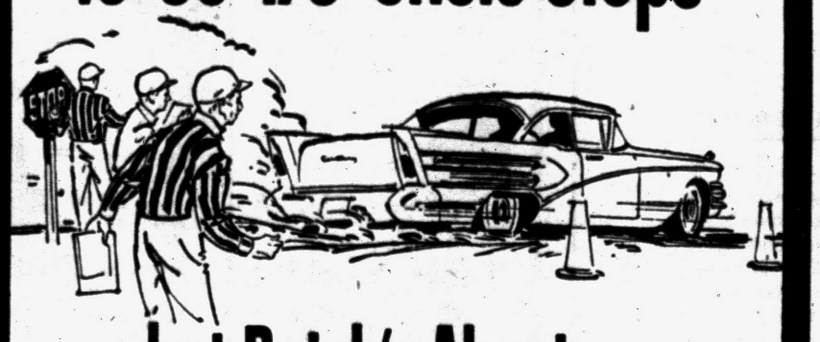
40·60·176 "Crisis Stops"



—but Buick's Aluminum Brakes never lost their grip

Accelerate to 60—then step hard on the brake till she stops:

Do it again and again and again—till the heat starts burning out the linings:

That's what test drivers did in Daytona Beach and in California with new American cars—trying to find which car has the best brakes.

The 1958 Buick CENTURY went through 176 of these "crisis stops"—up to 8 times more stops than other cars tested—and the brakes were still gripping strong. No other car's brakes measured up to this phenomenal performance:

That's because Buick brakes are air-cooled aluminum brakes—and aluminum gets rid of heat three times faster than other brake drum metals:

If you want brake power that's built to match horsepower—you'd better buy Buick:

Aluminum front brakes are standard on CENTURY; SUPER; ROADMASTER 75 and LIMITED, optional at extra cost on SPECIAL Series:

Will 1958 Be the Year That Changes the World?

A strange man in Los Angeles known as "The Voice of Two Worlds," is offering, free of charge to the public, an astounding 64-page booklet analyzing famous world prophecies covering these times. Written in 1951, it successfully predicted that the next great world crisis would be in the Near East (Egypt, Palestine, Syria, Jordan, Turkey). It shows that four of the greatest prophecies could not come true until the present time. But now they can and the years that change the world are at hand. Great dangers but still greater opportunities, confront forward looking people in 1958.

"The Voice of Two Worlds," a well known explorer and geographer, tells of a remarkable system that often leads to almost unbelievable improvement of power in mind, achievement of brilliant success and new happiness. Others tell of increased bodily strength, magnetic personality, courage and poise.

These strange methods were found in far-off and mysterious Tibet, often called the land of miracles by the few travelers permitted to visit it.

He discloses how he learned rare wisdom and long hidden practices, closely guarded for three thousand years by the sages, which enabled many to perform amazing feats. He mantains that these immense powers are latent in all of us, and that methods for using them are now simplified so that they can be used by almost any person with ordinary intelligence.

The 64-page booklet he is now offering free to the public gives guidance for those who wish to prepare themselves for the momentous days ahead. It gives details of what to expect, and when. Its title is "Beware of These Days!"

The book formerly sold for a dollar, but as long as the present supply lasts, it is offered free to readers of this notice.

For your free copy of the astonishing prophecies covering these momentous times, as revealed in this 64-page book address the Insitute of Mentalphysics, 213 South Hobart Blvd., Dept. 391-A, Los Angeles 4, California. Send no money. Just your name and address on a postcard or in an envelope will do. No obligation. Readers are urged to write promptly, as only a limited number of free books have been printed.

Junior Editors Quiz on FAMOUS STORIES

QUESTION: Was there a real "Swiss Family Robinson"?

ANSWER: Yes, and no. The Swiss family of the beloved old book, with its father, mother and four sons, is a group portrait of the family of the author Johann Wyss, who was a Swiss army chaplain. Quite probably papa Wyss lectured his sons on proper behavior and the wonders of plant and animal life in the same way as does the shipwrecked pastor of the famous story. But the shipwreck itself, the family on the island, the fascinating adventures, are pure fiction. Even more fictional are the details of the island, for all sorts of plants and creatures are brought together in a wholly impossible manner.

Robert L. Wyss, a descendant of the author, has told the story of how "The Swiss Family Robinson" came to be written. Father Wyss was devoted to his family and liked to take his sons on long hikes and hunting trips. He also enjoyed reading travel and adventure stories with them—among others Robinson Crusoe, first published in 1719. He and his sons began to work out a Crusoe-like story, featuring themselves. Written purely as family entertainment, the book was published by one of the sons in 1812, and became famous almost at once.

FOR YOU TO DO: Find a tree which you can safely climb and in which you can build a tree house even if it is only a platform. Then get a copy of "The Swiss Family Robinson" and read at least some of it in your tree. It's an experience you won't forget.

'Wake Up, Coppers, We Wanna Race'

OWENSBORO, Ky. (AP) — The long, loud blast of an auto horn outside the police station brought patrolmen running. They found two young men in a car.

"Just wanted to see if you were awake and on the job," they said, and zoomed off.

Police caught Robert Lee Arold, 23, when he ran out of gas after a seven-mile chase. Ernest Hayden, 27, was caught hiding in a farm yard. Both were fined on drunkenness and other charges.

Skate, Atomic Sub, Takes to High Seas

GROTON, Conn. (AP)—The USS Skate, the world's third largest nuclear-powered submarine, has sailed for Portland, Eng., on a shakedown cruise.

The Navy said the Skate, the first atomic sub built by assembly line production, got under way from her berth at the Electric Boat Co., a division of General Dynamics Corp.

The 265-foot submarine, which joined the Nautilus and Seawolf in the Navy's growing nuclear fleet last December, is scheduled to arrive at Portland on March 5.

The craft also will visit other undisclosed European ports. It's due back in Groton late in March.

Capable of traveling 61,000 miles without refueling, the Skate cost the Navy 31 million dollars to build.

Her skipper is Cmdr. James F. Calvert of Cleveland, Ohio.

Col. Nasser's Dream Is Becoming a Reality

The government of the Sudan has appealed to the United Nations Security Council for immediate action to prevent armed conflict with Egypt.

In anticipation of an Egyptian plebiscite in what the Sudanese claim as their territory by virtue of agreements with Egypt in 1902 and 1907, NASSER's troops have crossed the now disputed frontier. Egypt has made no secret of its intention of taking over the Sudan for one important reason —its control with Ethiopia of the upper waters of the Nile.

In 1953 Britain and Egypt gave up control of the Sudan but NASSER was blocked then from taking over when the Sudanese voted for independence. Since then Egypt has been trying to reach an agreement with the Sudan on the building of the High Dam at Aswan which would flood much fertile Sudanese land.

The Near East Report says NASSER's agents are actively preaching hatred of the West and undermining existing governments. In the Sudan they have been bribing opposition political parties in order to influence the election.

Because of his subversive activities in Ethiopia the Egyptian Embassy's military attache has been recalled at the demand of King HAILE SELASSIE. NASSER promptly counterattacked over the Cairo radio by charging that Moslems in Ethiopia were being oppressed. Cairo broadcasts vitriolic attacks on the West to Africa in 14 languages and reaches 25 million listeners from Somaliland south to Mozambique.

Several years ago in his book, The Philosophy of Revolution — Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser made clear his ambition to carry out political and social revolutions all over the Islamic world and the continent of Africa. It would be no mistake to say that he is well on his way to a Hitler-like dictatorship of an immense Arab federation in Asia and Africa.

U.S. Should Present Better Brussels' Show

The Brussels World's Fair which opens on April 17, will give us an unequalled opportunity to display our wares to the world.

Millions of visitors will see the exciting story of American achievement and its plans for the future. Belgium is providing participating nations with an extensive physical and cultural setting for the seven months long exhibition.

Congress voted $12.3 million for our display compared with $70 million to be spent by Russia, including $10 million for related propaganda. The U.S. is building a beautiful pavilion for the fair but unless $2 million more is voted, as requested by President EISENHOWER, our exhibit will have to be closed at 6 p.m. each day instead of the 11 p.m. fairground closing time. The adjoining vast barn-like hall housing the Soviet display will be open full time.

Our program of musical and theatrical arts is limited. So limited, in fact, that leading artists are protesting and, to make matters worse, international party giver ELSA MAXWELL threatens to master mind a grand ball in the U.S. pavilion. Russia is sending its finest singers, actors, ballet dancers, as well as impressive scientific and industrial displays.

American prestige is just recovering from Russia's launching of the first satellites and we have an urgent need to show the world the results of our political and economic freedoms. The Brussels fair presents the opportunity and let's hope Congress votes enough money to do it justice.

IT MUST be getting monotonous. Almost every time President EISENHOWER returns to his office after spending a few days out of Washington, he finds on his desk a long note from BULGANIN.

Pontiac Mayor at Turn of Century Asked Inspection

Memory: What, if you're losing, don't worry: just forget about it.

In that unsurpassed collection of Pontiacana collected by is conclusive proof that even over a half-century ago our officials appreciated their home area, and wanted to tell the world about it.

This is an elaborate gold embossed invitation by

Peter I. Meloy,

known as Pontiac's boy mayor, when he held that office in the period lapping both centuries. It says:

"I cordially invite you to visit the most interesting suburban city in the whole country. Inspect our thriving factories, enjoy the beauty of the famous Oakland lakes, and let us demonstrate to you that the enterprise of Pontiac citizens is equalled only by their hospitality."

I like the industrious attitude of

for many years scoring a daily first in getting The Pontiac Press to a good part of the downtown section. That name Pound has figured prominently in Pontiac history.

A pair of pet rabbits that are real expediters keep the family of

Mr. and Mrs. George Glastonbury

People who have bought their 1958 auto plates, and do not put them on their cars until close to the deadline are creating the impression that a large majority have not secured their tags. According to

of the Pontiac license office, a far greater percentage of our people bought their plates early than a casual check of the cars indicates.

Mrs. Harrison Worden of Andersonville Road is sure that spring is close at hand. The boys near her home are playing marbles.

I like that slogan of the National Recreation Association; which still is being waged, in spite of all the cures for a common cold.

"Live ALL Your Life."

Third Dimension TV

David Lawrence Says:

Criticize West, Not East, Today

WASHINGTON — What a strange attitude of captious criticism and contradiction seems to be publicized these days toward the top personalities in the western world. In Britain they pick on the queen or the prime minister. In America they pick on the President. He is not supposed to live a normal life— to take rest and recreation for health reasons or even to go on trips over the weekend to please his wife.

LAWRENCE

If he holds up an unloaded shotgun so as to give the press photographers the pose they request, he is lambasted as inexpert in the art of handling a gun. If he stays at home and doesn't make public appearances, he is suspected of being ill or incapable of discharging his office.

Nobody used to criticize President Wilson for playing golf twice a week or President Franklin D. Roosevelt for his frequent trips to Hyde Park, many of which were not even mentioned in the press for "security" reasons during the war.

Newsmen did not ask President Truman why he flew to Key West, Fla., with guests aboard a government plane for a vacation in the sunshine of the Southland.

The simple rules of courtesy which have been observed with other Presidents do not seem to be respected these days.

Curiously enough, there is an absence of criticism of the Soviet Union for doing certain things that are denounced when the United States does them.

Thus, in the last few days announcement was made that the Soviets had made another big test with one of their H-bombs. None of the scientists either in Britain or this country, with their customary solicitude about "fall out," expressed their horror and indignation.

The critics in America, to be sure, are not in any way interested in forwarding the Communist cause. Primarily they want to embarrass the administration here for partisan political reasons. In Britain, the socialist laborites are carrying on a vehement campaign to persuade public opinion that it must disapprove of the newly signed agreement which provides missile bases to be used in cooperation with the United States armed forces.

Throughout the world, the "Cold War" presents a similar set of paradoxes. Thus, the Egypt-Syria merger has been promptly approved by Moscow after a typical "election" of the Communist variety in which 99 per cent of the people vote one way—in approval.

There is a tendency in the western press to regard the Egypt-Syria merger as a legitimate one, instead of a carefully contrived plan by the Communists to dominate the Middle East.

The Communists, moreover, are busy in every trouble area—in Cuba, Argentina, Guatemala, Indonesia and, of course, in Algeria and Tunisia. The western powers do not seem as yet to have learned how to come to grips with the Communist techniques in the "Cold War."

The Country Parson

"Kindness is like light—no matter how little there is of it, a fellow can see it if it is dark enough around him."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Lead in Water, on Fruit Can Produce Poisoning

Medical authorities estimate that the normal American adult excretes 0.3 milligrams (approximately 1-200th of a grain) of lead daily through the intestine and the kidneys.

Where does this lead come from?

DR. BRADY

Drinking water sometimes contains lead dissolved from lead pipe. Lead is a component of paint. Wiping solder contains lead. Lead arsenate (insecticide) has been much used for spraying growing vegetables and fruit. Of 1,468 apparently healthy workers in a smelter foundry, 138 were found to have chronic lead poisoning from exposure to lead fumes.

Although toys, cribs, etc. for infants are seldom painted with lead paint today, in the past many babies have been poisoned with lead from things on which they gnawed or sucked.

In the past, too, the use of hair dyes containing lead has given many victims chronic lead poisoning.

Painters get lead poisoning by inhaling fumes from burning painted surfaces or dust from scraping or sand blasting old painted surfaces or by eating, drinking or smoking with unwashed hands.

REMOVE FROM PRODUCE

To remove possible traces of lead arsenate from fruit, vegetables or salad greens, wash them with water, then immerse them for one minute in 0.2 per cent solution of hydrochloric acid and finally rinse them freely with running water to wash away the acid. Prepare solution by putting a tablespoonful of standard USP diluted hydrochloric acid in three pints of water.

Old-timers considered certain signs typical of chronic lead poisoning, such anemia with stippling of red corpuscles (speckled appearance when stained with dye for microscopic examination) some muscular weakening or partial paralysis, a blue line on margin of gums close to the teeth, severe headache.

But we know today that a positive diagnosis of chronic lead poisoning can be made only by finding more than the normal 1-200th of a grain of lead per day excreted in the urine. The blue line on the gums is, I think, apocryphal.

In some cases the symptoms of chronic lead poisoning are bizarre and may be diagnosed as encephalitis, multiple neuritis, spastic paralysis, epilepsy and even dementia. In such cases it might be well to determine chemically the quantity of lead excreted in the urine.

Best treatment for chronic lead poisoning seems to be a heaping tablespoonful of magnesium sulfate (Epsom salts) every morning and an adequate medicinal dose of potassium iodide or sodium iodide two or three times a day after food.

Truman Speech Arouses Criticism From Readers

In answer to hair-brain Harry's little speech, he had it just about perfect. He just had his words misplaced. He said whenever the country got in trouble it put a Democrat in. It should have said when they put a Democrat in they are always in trouble. That goes back to World War One, Two and Korea. The headline about the story just lacked one little letter in being right. It read "Democratic Win on Capitol Hill." It should have read "Democratic Wind on Capitol Hill."

Lee Beegle

113 Tregent

Harry Truman, having once been President of the United States, certainly cannot be the complete demagogue which his speech last Saturday would indicate. It follows, as surely as day follows night, that he spoke as he did because he believes that we, the people, are just plain stupid.

One Letter Brings Praise, Complaint

I would like to compliment The Press for carrying many local stories and local pictures. However, I feel the picture of the young lady on the front page Feb. 20 was in very poor taste, not because of the contrasting seasons, but because of the obvious lack of clothing.

The Ageless

Woman Wonders About Unworried

I wonder how many children Unworried has had to feed, clothe and care for. I wonder how much money he has spent on an older model car trying to keep it in running condition, unable to afford a newer model. And most of all, I wonder if sitting back and gloating and taking the attitude he has could ever be considered American or Christian.

New Storm Brewing Over Arab Federation

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

New storm clouds are gathering over the Arab East as Gamal Abdel Nasser takes over as virtual dictator of all Egypt and Syria.

The United Arab Republic (U.A.R.) is being hailed as the dawn of a new Arab era. Under happier circumstances it might be that. Despite its surface look of strength, the union essentially is weak. This weakness can lead to new uproar.

The Arabs are unable to hide the deep suspicion and sharp rivalry existing between the U.A.R. and the new Iraqi-Jordanian federation. Nasser himself hailed federation of the two Eastern Arab States as a step toward all-Arab unity. But already Egypt's propaganda machine has begun a campaign to undermine the eastern federation, which in effect rivals the U.A.R.

The developments are causing anxiety in Israel. Voices are being raised there now for stepped-up military preparations against the prospect of new violent outbreaks.

Egypt's potent radio propaganda is attempting to convince Arab nationalists that the Iraq-Jordan federation will benefit Israel. This is like pouring sale into raw Arab wounds.

Now head of the U.A.R., Nasser undoubtedly will pressure Iraq to quit the Baghdad Pact. If Iraq resists, Nasser's propaganda may appeal to "the streets" in Baghdad and Amman. That means violence.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Child Discipline Must Be Efficient

Notice the game of tag which the Dionne quintuplet's nurse played with her toddler. It worked but was it efficient? Modern mothers haven't time to indulge in such silly tag games at bedtime for they have too many other obligations. Don't be too softhearted with your kids for there is a straight road from the high chair to the electric chair at Sing Sing!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case X-338: It was just about 22 years ago that one of the nurses for the Dionne quintuplets wrote an article for an American magazine.

Therein she abhorred the use of any corporal punishment when rearing children!

DR. CRANE

And to prove her point, she mentioned how she had tucked her protege among the five Dionne tots, into its bed.

But by the time the nurse had walked back into the living room, presto, there stood the same little girl.

So the nurse just smiled and took the youngster back into the bedroom where she again tucked her into bed.

But as soon as the nurse reached the living room, there was the same Dionne youngster.

Well, this game went on until, as I recall, the nurse tucked the girl into bed 58 times.

"Then she stayed in bed," gleefully recounted the nurse.

Probably the child was so exhausted by then that she couldn't throw her leg over the side of the bed to climb out!

The next night this same tableau was enacted again, except that the little girl finally gave up with about 45 tuckings!

And the third night she quit when the nurse had tucked her into bed about 30 times.

Ultimately, the Dionne girl stayed in her bed after just one tucking!

And the nurse exultantly cited this case as an evidence that corporal punishment is entirely unnecessary.

But she was wrong, for while we psychologists do not deny the facts in this case, we question the efficiency of such a method.

With the wealth showered upon the quintuplets, they could afford private nurses, so a lot of far-fetched techniques could be employed which are inefficient in the modern home.

For example, the average mother nowadays has far more to attend to than just play bedtime tag with one toddler!

The modern mother may have several youngsters, plus a husband to feed. She must do her own laundry and keep house.

And she has PTA and church obligations, plus shopping, budgeting and innumerable other responsibilities.

BE EFFICIENT

So the method used by the Dionne quintuplet's nurse may work, but it is too costly in time to be feasible in the modern home.

The issue is not always whether a method will work, but whether it will be most efficient.

The more sensible and approved psychological plan for situations like that of the Dionne quintuplet, is to smile and yet warn the child to stay in bed!

Use short words within the comprehension of the toddler. If the child disobeys, give him a second chance, but warn him that he will be spanked if he disobeys the third time.

And then make good your promises, not in a spirit of anger but in one of farsighted affection for the child.

For we parents must teach our youngsters the acceptable code of modern society or we are derelict in our duty.

"I can't bear to see his tears," said a father of a toddler boy not long ago, who was being permitted to violate sensible household rules.

"Then you may shed your own tears 20 years hence as you look at him where he sits behind prison bars!" I tersely reminded this doting dad.

So send for my 200-point "Tests for Good Parents," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

You have to learn how to be good parents just as you must learn to play the piano or golf, for you don't inherit this knowledge.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

You Have a Choice on Deductions: Try Both Methods to Find the Best

(Seventh in an eight-part series on your income tax, this article tells how to get the greatest possible mileage from deductions. Keep it handy for use when you prepare your return.)

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Feature Writer

In the fifth article of this series we discussed the possible exclusion of "sick pay" from your gross income. In the sixth article we discussed job-connected expenses that may be deducted.

With those figures in hand, you can now determine whether you will be better off to take the standard 10 per cent deduction allowed for certain personal expenses, or whether you should itemize them on page 2 of form 1040.

Your Income Tax-No. 7

(You can't itemize your deductions on form 1040A, but you are automatically given credit for the standard 10 per cent off.)

The basic figure you have to work with is your "adjusted gross income," which means your total taxable income minus your "sick pay" and job-connected expenses.

On line 5 of the first page of the form 1040 you list your gross wages and compensations. On line 6(a) you can list your business expenses, and on line 6 (b) your sick pay exclusion. Add the figures on lines 6 (a) and 6 (b), and subtract the total from line 5.

The remainder is your adjusted gross income if you have no income from other sources such as interest, dividends, etc. If you list no sick pay exclusion or job-connected expenses, the amount on line 5 would be your adjusted gross income.

The standard deduction allowed to all is 10 per cent of this adjusted gross income, but with certain dollar limits. If you are single, the standard deduction can't total more than $1,000. The limit is also $1,000 if you are married and file a joint return. If husband and wife file separate returns, the limit they may claim under the standard deduction is $500 each.

If you itemize your deductions, you can forget both the 10 per cent and the dollar limits. Thus it may be to your advantage to work it out both ways and see whether you would save money by itemizing.

Husbands and wives filing separate returns should remember that if one takes the standard deduction, the other must do the same. Likewise, if one itemizes his or her deductions, so must the other.

Pages 8, 9 and 10 of the instruction booklet that comes with form 1040 go into great detail on the itemized deductions you may claim.

Some of the more important categories are:

CONTRIBUTIONS—This includes gifts to religious, charitable, educational, scientific or literary groups. However, you can't deduct gifts to friends or relatives, political candidates or organizations, social clubs, labor unions, chambers of commerce or propaganda organizations.

Generally, these contributions may not exceed 20 per cent of your adjusted gross income.

However, you may deduct up to 30 per cent if one-third of what you claim is for contributions to churches and tax-exempt hospitals and educational institutions.

INTEREST — This includes interest on your home mortgage or on a bank loan or other personal debt. The "service charge" or "carrying charge" on many installment purchases are not strictly interest but you can still deduct a part of this. Just add up the balance still due at the end of every month and divide the total by 12 to find the average unpaid balance. You may then deduct 6 per cent of that figure as interest.

MEDICAL AND DENTAL EXPENSES — This one can be a bit tricky, but it may be a means of saving you considerable money. First, find 1 per cent of your adjusted gross income. You can include in medical expenses the cost of drugs and medicine that exceeds exceeds that amount.

Next, find 3 per cent of your adjusted gross income. You can deduct medical expenses that exceed that amount.

Persons 65 or older may ignore the 3 per cent rule on their own medical bills, but not the 1 per cent limitation on drugs and medicines.

However, persons of any age whose medical bills during the year have been extremely high should refer to page 10 of the instruction booklet for the dollar limitations that the law places on medical deductions. These limitations start at $2,500.

TAXES — In general you can deduct most of the non-federal taxes you paid during 1957. This would include state, county or city retail sales taxes, personal property taxes, real estate taxes, state or city income taxes, state gasoline taxes, poll taxes, auto license fees, etc. However, you can't deduct federal excise taxes on your personal expenditures, water taxes, hunting licenses, dog licenses, federal social security payments, auto inspection fees or taxes paid by you for another person.

CASUALTY LOSSES AND THEFTS — The law allows you to deduct any loss not covered by insurance, from the destruction of your property in a fire, storm, automobile accident, shipwreck, hurricane, flood or other natural forces.

You can deduct your losses from theft in the year of discovery, but not losses from misplacing articles of value.

Damage to your car by collision or other accident can be deducted if due merely to faulty driving, but not if due to your willful act or negligence.

CARE OF CHILDREN AND DISABLED DEPENDENTS—A deduction of up to $600 may be claimed by employed women and men who are widowed, legally separated or divorced, for the care of certain dependents. The basic rules are that the care must be necessary to allow the taxpayer to work or seek work and that the dependent be under 12 or physically and mentally unable to acre for himself.

A married woman can claim the deduction only if she files a joint return with her husband. Furthermore, the deduction must be reduced by the amount the combined adjusted gross income exceeds $4,500. Thus, if the combined adjusted gross income is $5,000, the deduction must be reduced by $500. And you do not get a flat deduction of $600 — only the amount you actually spent up to that figure. The child care payments cannot be made to a person whom you claim as a dependent.

MISCELLANEOUS — This is a catch-all category where you may be able to find some tax savings. It includes most of your job-connected expenses which you have not claimed on page 1 of the form 1040.

For instance, if you work for salary or wages and your job requires the use of small tools, this is the place to deduct the cost of those tools. The same applies to special uniforms which you have to buy yourself, safety equipment, etc.

You can deduct dues to a union or professional society, fees to employment agencies, the cost of entertaining customers — where your firm did not reimburse you—and alimony or separate maintenance payments.

You cannot deduct the cost of traveling to and from work, no matter how far and how expensive it might be. You can't deduct educational expenses. And you can't deduct the cost of entertaining friends.

After you have itemized all the personal deductions permitted by law, compare the total with 10 per cent of your adjusted gross income. Then either take the standard 10 per cent deduction, or itemize your deductions, whichever gives you the biggest saving.

The next, and last, article in this series will point up some common mistakes made by taxpayers in filing their returns, and some tips that may keep you out of trouble with the tax collector.

All Outside Sensations Missing

2 Psychiatrists to Spend Two Days in Salt Water

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Two psychiatrists from here plan to spend Friday and Saturday in salt water in an attempt to link their reactions to treatment of mental illness.

Dr. Jay T. Shurley and Dr. Louis J. West will participate in an experiment at the National Institute of Mental Health in Bethesda, Md. They hope to find out what happens in the absence of outside sensations.

West, head of the University of Oklahoma Medical School psychiatry department, and Shurley, chief psychiatrist at the Veterans Administration hospital here, will observe each other's reactions in an experiment conducted by Dr. John C. Lilly, physiologist at the institute.

West says some mentally ill persons have symptoms like those of normal persons cut off from all stimulation to the senses.

The doctors will alternate being submerged in a tank filled with salt water. They will be nude and the water will be heated to body temperature. A mask, designed for a minimum of pressure, permits breathing.

"There are no sounds, no sights," Dr. West said. "You feel nothing. It is the most completely cut off you can be unless you are floating in space."

West said one subject in a previous study "experienced vivid visual hallucinations and strange bodily sensations that were difficult to describe. Apparently there was a very strong hunger for some sensation. We don't know how long this can be tolerated. This is one of the things we want to find out."

Columbia Rights Date on John Jay's Diploma

NEW YORK (AP) — One hundred and ninety-one years ago John Jay got a master's diploma from Columbia University. Only now has the university finally got around to putting the correct date on it.

The document, on exhibit at the university, bears the date May 90, 1767, written in Latin. A card now explains that somebody goofed and the date should be May 19.

Jay, who became first chief justice of the United States, noted the error himself on the back of the diploma.

Suggests Ike 'Simple Minded'

Senator Kerr Believes Talk Alone Will Not Halt Decline

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Kerr (D-Okla) said today that President Eisenhower is "simple minded" if he believes talk alone will halt the business decline.

Kerr, a member of the Senate's Finance and Public Works committees, said he agrees with Eisenhower's statement to the National Food Conference yesterday that "America is strong, America is healthy."

But the Oklahoma senator took exception to Eisenhower's reference to "men of little faith, little spirit" — an obvious presidential answer to former President Truman's talk of a "Republican recession." Truman himself replied that "all the men of little faith are in the Republican party."

"We're not short on men of both faith and spirit," Kerr said, "what we are shortest on now is a man of knowledge in the highest office.

"If the President gave as much attention to the economic condition of the farmers and small business men as he does to picking a vacation spot, he would know this is the time for presidential action instead of the Micawber-Hoover statements he has been making recently.'

Kerr added: "Eisenhower is both sincere and simple minded and there are times when I don't know which of the two traits is controlling."

Panama's annual mean temperature is 78.6 degrees.

Ike Asks More for Foreign Aid

New Bill Drops Request for Lasting Authority on Arms Assistance

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower is asking Congress for a lot more foreign aid money than he got last year, but other parts of his request are comparatively modest.

Gone from his new bill are last year's striking features which would have granted permanent authority for arms aid, for economic aid in support of foreign defense efforts and for technical assistance abroad.

Congress balked at granting this long-term power last year. It continued these programs just for one year, as before.

Limited approval in 1957 made it unnecessary to repeat last year's request for a three-year authorization of a development fund to make loans for foreign economic projects.

Eisenhower had asked for two billion dollars for this fund over the three years. Congress cut the time to two years and placed a ceiling of 500 million dollars the first year, 625 millions the second.

The new program seeks just the 625 million dollars for the second year. However, it would convert the loan fund into a permanent government corporation to be run by a $20,000-a-year managing director with several well-paid assistants. A foreign aid official said the fund would need both another authorization and an appropriation from Congress to get more money after the 625 millions for this year.

For the 1958 fiscal year started last July 1, Eisenhower wanted $3,864,410,000 in new aid funds plus a carryover of unspent appropriations from previous years.

Congress chopped heavily, finally voting an appropriation of $2,768,760,000 new money and a carryover of $667,050,000.

For fiscal 1959 Eisenhower is seeking $3,942,092,500 in new funds nearly $1,200,000,000 more than the fresh cash he got last year and half a billion dollars more than the 1958 total. A fiscal 1959 request for carryover of unspent funds may be sent to Congress later.

YWCA of Pontiac Celebrates 13th Year at Dinner Meeting

Eighty members and guests of the YWCA gathered in Grace Lutheran Church Monday evening for a dinner meeting celebrating the Pontiac Y's 13th year.

The party, which had a typical birthday theme carried out in "YWCA blue" and pink, was highlighted by the presentation of an automatic dishwasher from Zonta Club, by Mrs. Lillian Wattles, Zonta's service project chairman, and an announcement that Parke Davis will present a dictaphone to the Y.

CHORUS ENTERTAINS

A Y-Teen chorus from four area schools presented two selections and Mrs. George Zannoth sang two numbers accompanied by Mrs. B. H. Zannoth of Detroit.

The invocation and benediction were given by the Rev. Francois Jochmans.

Susemarei Diestel, a German exchange student attending Waterford High School, spoke on the Y-Teen conference held at St. Mary's Lake Camp, Battle Creek.

Amy Krueger, public affairs chairman for Pontiac YWCA, described the association's interest in the problems of its women and girls from the time of the industrial revolution, and how it has led to active participation on state and national levels.

Mrs. S. B. Netzler, executive director, reviewed the progress made by the local association, during the past year, taking as her theme, "We Have Had A Good Year." Mrs. Fred Stimpert president, looking at the year ahead, said the best birthday gift the Y could have would be more volunteers.

CAPTAIN SPEAKS

Capt. Morgan L. Howell of Birmingham, master of the cruise ship "Aquarama" and a veteran of 35 years sailing experience, said that in Y work, as in sailing or flying, preparation and program make up the secret to a safe and successful voyage.

New members of the board of directors elected to replace the third of the board who retire each year include Mrs. Robert Anglemier, Avis M. Carey, Mrs. David Eames, Mrs. Percy Jones, Mrs. Donald Redmond and Alice Serrell. Mrs. Charles Harmon and Norma Strickland were re-elected for a second three-year term.

Elected to the nominating committee were Mrs. Adrian Ish, Mrs. Maynard Slater, Bessie Carpenter, Mrs. William S. Dawe and Mrs. C. Wales Goodwin. Margaret Steward was chairman of tellers.

Buck, hospitality chairman of the YWCA, cuts a birthday cake in the form of a new building the Y is hoping to construct, topped by the association's emblem. The cake was made and decorated by the YWCA cake-decorating class.

Looking over a few of the birthday gifts presented to the association on its 13th birthday are Mrs. Fred Stimpert (left), president of the YWCA, and Mrs. S. B. Wattles, service project chairman for the Zonta Club, whose members presented a dishwashing machine to the YWCA.

Dear Abby....

And You Claim No Problems?

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I read the letter from the teenage baby-sitter who complained because she only got 50 cents an hour and all she could eat.

ABBY

Well, that could amount to about 10 dollars for the evening. I've had sitters who helped themselves to everything in the refrigerator that looked good to them. Even leftovers I was saving for the next day were eaten up.

I finally got smart and now I keep everything locked up! Please tell your readers how I solved the problem of the starving sitters.

NO PROBLEMS

DEAR NO: Most sitters are more than eager to please and do not help themselves. If you're leaving your children in the care of people from whom you have to LOCK your food, I'm afraid your problems are just beginning.

DEAR ABBY: My boy friend's birthday was in October. I gave him a wallet. My birthday was in November. From him—nothing.

For Christmas I gave him a shirt and two nice silk ties. From him—nothing. On Valentine's Day he didn't even send me a 10-cent card. What gives?

IRENE

DEAR IRENE: Not your boy friend!

DEAR ABBY: My husband owns a bar and does pretty good in it. My complaint is that he works seven nights a week from 5 p.m. until 2 a.m. We tried getting in a spare man but he drank more than he sold so we gave that up.

My kids never have a supper together with their father and I don't think that's right. He is a good man. He doesn't chase around, but I think he should work out something to take a day off, don't you?

BAR OWNER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: He is working for the good of the family, so don't be too hard on him. He should take one day a week off and hire a man with ulcers to relieve him.

DEAR ABBY: We are two people who are very much in love. I'm in my last year of high school and he is 21. Last Saturday night we went over the state line and got married. We came right home and haven't told anybody about it.

I am old enough to quit school if I want to. Should I quit or graduate? Should we tell our folks or wait a while? We both feel very guilty. Please tell us what to do?

JUST MARRIED

DEAR JUST: Tell you folks at once (but nobody else!). Perhaps they'll want you to have a religious ceremony. Finish school and good luck!

DEAR ABBY: I was glad to see you tell off that old grouch who kept the kids' baseballs that landed in his yard. Doesn't he know that when boys are playing ball they can't be smoking marihuana or stealing hub caps and doing various other acts that idle kids sometimes do for excitement?

If we're going to stamp out juvenile delinquency we must encourage our young boys to engage in wholesome neighborhood sports like baseball. What's a couple of rosebushes and a patch of grass?

Frozen Fruit Delicious in Gelatine

Mrs. Watkins' Salad Built Around Cherry Theme

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Cherries are a favorite February fruit. Since tart red cherries are always on the grocer's shelves, you can use them often with happy results.

Mrs. Donald Watkins of Walled Lake suggests this cherry gelatine salad. She is a homemaker who loves to bake. Her outside activities include the local Business and Professional Womens group, her church woman's association and flower designing.

RED CHERRY SALAD
By Mrs. Donald Watkins

1 package cherry gelatine
1 cup hot water
⅓ cup sugar
1 large package frozen tart cherries
½ cup celery
½ cup chopped English walnuts

Dissolve gelatine in hot water, add sugar and frozen cherries. Add other ingredients and pour into 6 individual molds. Chill. This is especially good with turkey or ham.

For the feeling of complete luxury spray yourself with one of the new spray mist colognes. It will make an exotic costume complete. Good perfume is part of being well dressed.

Your Face Will Reflect Foot Ache

Your Expression Will Be Strained, Disposition Acid

If you think your feet have little to do with your face, you're wrong.

At almost every school dance there's at least one teenager who has lavished time and effort on her makeup and wardrobe, only to find that she looks and feels miserable because her feet ache.

A LILTING SPRING

Comfortable feet give a lilting spring to your walk and make dancing twice as much fun. But aching feet make your smile taut, your face strained and your disposition acid.

Dr. Joseph Lelyveld, cofounder of the first hospital foot health clinic at New Englands Deaconess Hospital in Boston, says that 80 per cent of adult foot ailments get their start in the teens.

He feels that teenagers should do plenty of walking, wearing comfortable shoes and socks, and include a few foot exercises in their daily routine.

Foot exercises are easy to do. A good one is to remove your shoes and walk around the room on the outer edge of your feet.

STAND ON A BOOK

Another is to stand on a book and curl your toes around its edge. However, exercises won't be helpful if your feet are not properly cared for.

The proper choice of shoes has frequently been stressed. Feet need the support of a low heel and a close fit. Flat shoes cause the arch muscles to stretch and the feet to flatten.

Because of this, saddle shoes or the oxford-type casual shoe are ideal for school. For dress, slippers with a mid-high heel are best.

One thing you may not realize, however, is that poorly chosen socks can cause foot difficultiess, too.

TOE DEFORMITIES

Socks that are too short can bring about toe deformities and enlarged joints. Active teenagers should choose socks that are at least a half inch longer than the longest toe, and they should be of a fabric like cotton that will absorb moisture.

If socks are not absorbent enough, perspiration will cause skin irritations.

Discusses 'Gifted Child' Monday Evening

AAUW Hears Speaker From MSU

Parents who expect more from their children usually get more, according to Dr. Stanley Idzerda, head of Michigan State University's Honors College.

This statement was made to members and guests of Pontiac Branch of American Association of University Women Monday evening at Isaac E. Crary Junior High School.

Speaking on the "Gifted Child," Dr. Idzerda pointed out that in order to achieve the goals of schools to give the gifted child the curriculum he needs, parents must not only cooperate with educators, but must support both morally and financially.

He then explained the Honors College at MSU and pointed out its merits.

Mamie Enjoys Arizona's Sun at Fancy Ranch

PHOENIX, Ariz. (INS) — Mamie Eisenhower thawed out under Arizona's warm winter sun yesterday as she began a two-week vacation at Elizabeth Arden's exclusive "Maine Chance" beauty resort in Phoenix.

Secret Service agents maintained a tight cordon of security around the swank women-only desert retreat and newsmen were not permitted on the grounds.

But a resort official said the First Lady "soaked up some sunshine" around the ranch pool and had begun a schedule of treatments "designed to assure her of complete rest and relaxation."

The official explained that these treatments include body massages, steam baths, calisthenics and therapy in the swimming pool.

At late afternoon yesterday Mrs. Eisenhower was reported "resting" in the nine-room cottage at the ranch she is sharing with her sister, Mrs. Gordon Moore, and Mrs. Ellis D. Slater, wife of a retired distillery executive.

U. S. Goods and Fashions Appeal to Peru's Tastes

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — Consumer tastes in Lima, Peru, are amazingly similar to those in Lima, Ohio, and other U. S. cities.

Mrs. Baz Robischon, buyer and fashion coordinator for Lima's largest department store, the Casa Oechsle, says her firm stocks and sells everything from U. S. blue jeans to barbecues.

Petite Mrs. Rubischon, whose crisp black curls frame a California-tanned face, makes two buying trips during a normal year.

In winter she selects summer items, which the store displays in September at the beginning of the hot weather months. Her July-August trip covers winter merchandise which goes on sale in March as the "cold" season opens.

The Peruvian booster is a native of Switzerland where she started her retailing career as a salesgirl and studied fashion, textiles and business in night school.

She makes a buying trip to Europe every other year for specialty items. "Peruvian women are elegant and like Paris hats, and the fine knits of Switzerland, Italy and Vienna," she says.

The shopping center system has crossed the Andes, the visitor reports. In Lima seven new supermarkets are drawing thousands of fascinated customers.

Despite duty and transportation costs U. S. goods — and modes — are increasingly popular.

Senors sport the Ivy League look. Their wives like California-styled leisure togs and outdoor living customs. Youngsters vote for milkshakes and U. S. movies.

An open house tea to honor the more than 900 sewing volunteers was held at the North Oakland County Unit office of the American Cancer Society for the first ime Monday.

Dr. John Marra, president of the nit, conducted a question and answer period following a film, "Time and Two Women." The movie discussed methods of preventing the types of cancer to which women are most subject.

Mrs. E. H. Scott, Pontiac service chairman, and Mrs. Walter Lentz, unit service chairman, were cohostesses.

Samples of poorly and well made cancer dressings were displayed.

Mrs. Harry Slater and Mrs. Ray Kingsbury served the tea.

Cologne Makes Chore a Treat

In Medieval days, guests washed their hands in bowls of scented water brought around by servants before dinner.

It's not necessary to remind guests about this sanitary habit today, but kiddies might find their before-meals wash-up more intriguing if a little cologne is added to the wash water with its rich suds lather.

This makes hand washing seem like a "special treat."

Quick-sudsing, lightweight plastic "china" is now considered high fashion for well-dressed tables.

Be Casual in Talk With Strangers

Steer Away From Subjects That Are Controversial

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is there any rule to follow for conversing in company — meaning when at a party in the presence of a group of people who are strangers? I never know what topics are safe to start and in consequence usually remain silent."

Answer: Conversation on every occasion is necessarily an exchange of casul thought. Ideal general conversation at a party should be amusing and have gay lightness suggestive of balloons tossed back and forth.

It is always tactful to avoid controversial subjects unless you know that you are not in danger of offending the opinion of those present. Also, it is well to remember that strangers are not interested in having you air your private concerns.

If you happen to be one of those who dread meeting strangers because you can't think of anything to say, you should console yourself with the fact that the faults of conversation are committed not by those who talk too little, but by those who talk too much.

To "listen eagerly" is really the best advice possible to give on conversation, since the person whom most people love to sit next to is a sympathetic listener who makes others want to talk.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I recently was invited to a rather large wedding reception at which the guests were seated at small tables of 10. After the meal, the bride's parents went around to each table and spoke to the guests, asking them if they enjoyed the dinner and if everything was all right. I have never encountered this before and would like to know if it was a proper thing to do."

Answer: Their solicitous attention to their guests' enjoyment was very unusual but certainly not improper.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it bad form when meeting someone for the second time to say, 'I've already had the pleasure.' It seems rather ungracious not to say something more than 'how do you do' in such cases.'

Answer: Instead of "'Ive already had the pleasure,' say "I think I met Mrs. Blank several years ago."

Wise Parents Let Offspring Struggle

By RUTH MILLETT

Five years ago, when Mary and Jim were having a hard struggle to get by on his beginner's salary, when Mary was tied down with housework and small children, when life was anything but easy and gay for either of them, friends of Mary's parents wondered why they didn't make life easier for the young couple.

The parents could well have afforded to help Mary and Jim out financially so that getting started wouldn't have been such a struggle. Many thought them selfish not to help.

ALL OVER NOW

But today the real struggle is over. The two young people have made good on their own, and they are beginning to be able to get for themselves the things Mary's well-to-do parents could have given them from the start of their marriage.

Furthermore, Jim and Mary are a proud and happy couple. Their struggle to get a start has taught them to rely on themselves and on each other.

All they have they can proudly claim as the result of their own efforts. They have proved to themselves that together they can make their own way.

They've proved it to Mary's parents, too, who are proud of the young people's self-reliance and ambition and wouldn't think of interfering in their lives to offer advice.

The story might have been different if the parents had not followed their hand - off - the - young-folks policy.

LESS AMBITION

If the young couple had been helped along by Mary's parents, Jim might not have worked so hard for success.

If Mary had been given all the luxuries by her parents, she might have quickly come to take them for granted and looked down on her husband for not being able to provide them without her parents' help.

And unless the parents were indeed unusual, they would have figured that by giving help they had paid for the right to give advice.

The most that parents can give their children, however easy they might be able to make life for a young couple just starting out, is the right of the children to struggle for what they want.

Bob Considine Quotes:

'Haven't We Had This Party Before?'

NEW YORK (INS) — Sen. Theodore Francis Green, the Rhode Island nonagenarian and bon vivant, paused pensively in the buffeting din of a recent Washington cocktail party and reached for his little black date-book.

A doting hostess, fond as all women (and men) are of the doughty millionaire bachelor, hovered over him. "Looking up where you're going next?" she teased him.

"Not at all," Green answered. "Just wondering where I am now."

It was an able critique of the institution of the cocktail party. Not quite as good, perhaps, as that of a small girl we know coined when she was 85 years younger than she is the courtly senator now. But surely good enough.

As for the small girl's commentary, it emerged from the bewilderment she suffered under the packety-yack, cirgarette smoke and booze fumes of a party at our apartment. The dear baby's brow furrowed and she asked, "Haven't we had this party before?"

We sure had. The incredible aspect of the cocktail party is the universality of its cacophony. Its language is the Esperanto of Euphoria.

As an aficianado I just happen to know that the language swelling up from a cocktail party in Omaha, let us say, is absolutely identical to that given off in New York, Havana, Acapulco, Rio, Dakar, Cario, Istanbul, Abadan, New Delhi, Sian in Darkest China, Seoul, Toyko, Eniwetok, Kwajalein, Wake, Hana Maui, Fairbanks, Melbourne, Dien Bien Phu and Coyle, Okla.

The above run-down of places pales miserably before a passage in Gill Robb Wilson's "The Airman's World." (Random House.) The World War I combat flyer, World War II correspondent, and distinguished aviation editor, has written a thin and beautiful volume that St. Exupery would have been proud to sign.

"The airman," Wilson writes, "may be equally well-acquainted with Bubbling Well Road of Shanghai and the Pureto Del Sol of Madrid and the lovely Avenida Beira Mar of Rio de Janeiro and the Maidan of Calcutta as with main street.

"He has seen that the shape of the family hut in New Guinea is a tribal identification; that the aborigine along the headwaters of the Amazon is cursed with toothache; that the bushman of outback Australia can follow a trail by scent . . . that the biggest oranges grow in Crete; that the stone huts of Eric still stand in Greenland . . . that there is a jade mountain in outer Alaska . . . The airman perhaps never pored over ancient history — but:

"He has flown the trails of Tamerlane, the treks of Alexander, and marked the conquests of Cyrus and Hannibal, and lowered his flaps in the land of the pharoahs and of the Incas and by the Great Wall of China.

"His sole source of knowledge may be that he has been there, but the lore has rubbed off on him and is authentically his. Of such stuff is the airman world; and I have barely hinted at its fascination."

Wonderful book. You feel airborne after two pages.

NO ONE IS IMMUNE TO MENTAL ILLNESS!

Mental illness isn't choosy. It pays absolutely no attention to vital statistics like age, sex, wealth, occupation, etc. No one is immune to the darkness that is mental illness...no one!

You who read this and we who write it have been lucky. The 16 million people mentally ill at this very moment haven't been lucky. They need our help. They need it badly.

Medical progress has cleared away much of the mystery about mental illness. In fact, with what doctors know today, 70% of all mental patients could improve or recover completely. Why don't they? Simply because most mental hospitals do not have the staff, the equipment and the facilities they need to put this scientific knowledge into everyday practice!

That's where we come in. Our understanding and support can help people suffering from mental illness get well . . . help them return to their families, their jobs, their lives!

We who have never faced the darkness of mental illness can do much to bring others out of it! Today, please work with and support your local Mental Health Association.

County Homes Told to Improve

39 Health Agencies Given Only Temporary Licenses in Campaign

In a recent canpaign to improve conditions of county nursing homes for the aged, the county health department has ordered that 39 of the 50 homes be granted only temporary licenses until they meet nursing and sanitation standards.

According to Dr. John D. Monroe, Oakland County health director, only six of the 50 homes were in shape to receive full licenses which are valid for one yenr.

The temporary licenses were issued from two to six months depending on the type of changes and repairs needed to be done in the homes before full licenses were warranted.

The local department was delegated the authority to investigate the homes by the state health department in November. Previously, the state department, and before that, the county welfare department, had this duty.

In July, the state adopted a new set of rules and regulotions for the homes amending the law. Some of these new rules have not been complied with by the homes, although they have been effective since July.

Holdup Suspects Admit Robbing Store in Pontiac

Two robbery suspects, arrested in Lincoln Park Friday have confessed the holdup of Gerzanics Market, 750 S. Saginaw St., on Feb. 13, police say.

The pair, Edward DeChamplain, 23, and Charles H. Miller, 22, both of Detroit, were riding with a Garden City couple when they were stopped by Lincoln Park Police for making an illegal U-turn.

The officers spotted a gun on the car seat which had been hidden under a man's hat. The turn had dislodged the hat.

Under questioning the two men confessed six armed robberies including the one in Pontiac in which they had locked the owner, John Gerzanics, in the beer cooler. He was released minutes later by a customer. who heard his pounding on the door.

The two men and the couple were turned over to Garden City Police for prosecution for a robbery there in which all four were allegedly involved.

DeChamplain and Miller told police they pulled the Pontiac robbery on the spur-of-the-moment while riding up Woodward looking for a place to rob.

PURE DIRT PROCESSED — Thousands of bags of Milford soil are being prepared for shipment throughout Michigan, Ohio and Indiana by teenagers JoAnne Carritti (left) and Gloria Forbes. Supervising the operation is Russell Thompson, owner of 16 greenhouses at 1525 Bogie Lake Rd., Milford.

Dirt Piles in Milford Contain 'Gold' for Flower Lovers

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

MILFORD — There's literally "gold in them thar hills" of dirt piled up behind Russell Thompson's 16 big greenhouses near Milford.

Russ is in the process of packaging more than one-half million boxes and bags of scientifically sterilized dirt for fussy "green-thumb" enthusiasts in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana.

Good rich sod is grown on 60 acres of Thompson's 600-acre farm at 1525 Bogie Lake Rd. Manure, peat and decayed vegetation is mixed with the sod, then piled up and "forgotten about" for the next four years.

When the time comes to get the soil on the market, it is put into a five-yard dump truck specially equipped with steam-holed pipes in the bottom, rolled into a room and connected to high pressure steam hoses.

There, the soil is "cooked" for four hours, until all weed-seed and bacteria have been eliminated and the dirt is completely pure.

Thompson's mother earth is then put through a grinder, and a heavy shredder prepares it for a conveyor which dumps it into an automatic weighing machine.

A mild commercial fertilizer is added at this point, "to give it just the right amount of growing zest," Thompson said.

Working in the greenhouse business for more than 20 years, he admits that selling soil is big business. For the last 12 years he has been experimenting with soil operation, and, he says, "each year the soil business has pretty nearly doubled."

Oddly enough, soil never loses its potency after the sterilizing process, according to Thompson. However, one thing is important—the dirt must have air to breathe, so a tiny hole is punched in each bag after it has been packaged.

The dirt operation takes about one hundred days, periodically, throughout the year. Seven employes package some 6,000 bags and boxes in an average day.

Three types of terra firma are shipped from the big farm. The African violet demands a richer soil of peat humus and the philodendron grows in a highly acid soil.

A special substance of soils contains a charcoal substance and broken crock for plants with no drainage facilities.

All of the greenhouses on Bogie Lake road presently are being readied for the climax of the year—Easter Sunday.

Soon there will be a galaxy of color and fragrance equal to none as employes "push" tulips, daffodils, hyacinths and lilies.

On Palm Sunday, March 30, open house will be held at the greenhouses. Thousands of plants and flowers will prove what growing in pure dirt can produce.

Women's Club 'Outstanding'

Walled Lake Rotarians Pick Civic Welfare Club for Annual Award

WALLED LAKE — The annual Walled Lake Rotary Club award for "Outstanding Service to the Community" was presented last night to the Walled Lake Civic Welfare Club.

Rotary Club President Leslie Churchill made the presentation of the plaque which was accepted by Mrs. Mabel Rose, vice president of the Welfare Club. Mrs. Frances Hoyt, the only active charter member of the Welfare Club, gave an acceptance speech.

This is the first time the award has gone to an organization. The selection of the Welfare Club this year was in recognition of its long span of service to the community, Churchill said.

The club was founded in 1910 as the Walled Lake Embroidery Club. Taking an early interest in civic affairs it campaigned and was responsible for Walled Lake's first street signs and numbers being placed on houses. The club also was instrumental in getting street lights installed and the issuance of the first directory of residents in the area.

The name of the club was changed in 1924 to the Civic Welfare Club. Since that time, no request for help has been refused. It assists Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Goodfellows and any individual or family in need.

In 1939, the club purchased Stonecrest, one of the original school buildings in the community, in order that it might be preserved as a civic landmark.

Club officers are Mrs. Helen Urquhart, president; Mrs. Parthena Philp, secretary; Mrs. Margaret Mesnard, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Bertha Williams, treasurer.

County Nurses Get First Look at Field Hospital

The group was introduced to the intricate prefab equipment and sterile supply procedure for a field hospital, by Mrs. Marie Rodriquez, who is Director of Training for Medical Emergency in the Civil Defense program.

One of the first to be released by the United States government, the portable hospital will serve as a training unit for all phases of C. D. and Red Cross work throughout the county.

Included in the equipment for disaster use, is a complete pharmacy with all types of antibiotics, heart medicine sedatives, and narcotics.

Acquainting the registered nurses with the portable hospital will help prepare them for what to expect when the special training classes get under way March 3, according to Mrs. Rodriguez.

"In case of disaster," she added, "these trained personnel will be ready to take over the directing of other trained Civil Defense and Red Cross volunteers."

Family Homeless as Fire Guts House

ROMEO — A Shelby Township family of three was left homeless yesterday afternoon when fire gutted their frame home at 6720 26-Mile Rd.

No one was home when the blaze was discovered by a passing milkman. Occupants of the home, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clements and their daughter, Denise, 2, were visiting relatives in Flint. They knew nothing of the fire until they drove into the driveway last evening.

Shelby Township firemen, assisted by the Washington and Romeo departments, brought the blaze under control in about an hour and a half. Seven pieces of fire fighting equipment and a rescue unit were on the scene at about 3:30 p.m.

Cause of the fire is still undetermined, and loss is estimated at more than $7,000.

The Clements rent the house from the Nowa Co., Detroit.

Avondale Teacher Injured in Accident

ROMEO—A Romeo woman who teaches at Avondale High School was injured yesterday morning when her car collided head-on with a Rochester school bus.

Mrs. Gladys Posey, 76, of 72955 North Van Dyke, Romeo, is in good condition today in Avon center Hospital, Rochester. She suffered facial cuts and a bruised chest in the accident which occurred on M150 near Hamlin road, a mile and a half outside of Rochester.

Romeo State Police said Mrs. Posey apparently lost control of her car on slippery pavement and skidded into the path of the oncoming bus.

The bus driver, Mrs. Leona Reid, 40, of 415 Castell St., Rochester, suffered slight bruises from the impact. One student, Louise Eason 14, of 3557 Harrison St., Rochester, also was slightly bruised.

Mrs. Posey's car was a total loss.

The bid of another firm, the Miller Insurance Agency, of $1,301.57 on a liability insurance package, which includes workman's compensation, also was accepted.

Seven agencies had submitted field bids at the regular meeting Feb. 10. Sunday, the Village Ways and Means Committee met to screen the bids and make its recommendations.

All policy payments will be due March 1, the beginning of each fiscal year.

Raises Tropical Fish in Romeo; 'Exacting Science,' Says Wife

By LEE WINBORN
Romeo Correspondent

ROMEO — "Raising tropical fish is more than a hobby, it's a science," says petite Mrs. Robert C. Smith, 129 Church St., Romeo.

The hobbyist usually starts out, she said, with the idea that an aquarium filled with sparkling, clear water, colorful fish and underwater plants will add decorative interest to a room.

"But providing all the ingredients is not the whole story," Mrs. Smith explained. "A fish fancier must know how to keep the water clear and free from disease. And a knowledge of the various species of fish is also important."

She and her husband began raising fish about a year ago and accumulated seven tanks within a few months. When their initial enthusiasm started to wane, they cut the number of tanks to three —one 20-gallon, one 15-gallon and one 5-gallon capacity.

"We have one tank for big fish, another for little fish, and one for breeding," Mrs. Smith said. "In fact, one of our angel fish went on a hunger strike for two months—then suddenly he began to eat. We learned that he had objected to his transfer from the big tank to the little one."

SOME FISH SMARTER

"Another thing our experience has taught us is that it is not always the prettiest colored fish that are the most interesting to watch," she said. "They have a definite order of intelligence—the more intelligent they are, the more fascinating they are to study."

"Angel fish are the smartest fish in the tank, but they are either cowards or bullies. All of them, however, have a definite personality," the Romeo hobbyist said.

"Siamese fighting fish, with their gorgeous, feathery fins, are beautiful to watch. They are even prettier in a tank with another fish of the same species. However, they must be separated by a glass partition because for centuries they have been bred for fighting."

Experts differ, Mrs. Smith said, in the care and feeding of fish. "We have found aerators in tanks are not necessary except when they are overcrowded, and that filters will keep the water clear."

Theoretically, dealers are supposed to keep fish in quarantine for two weeks before they are sold. "If more dealers would do this," she said, "aquariums would be comparatively free of disease."

EAT SHRIMP

"We feed our fish frozen brine shrimp because we feel it's not good to give them dry food all the time," Mrs. Smith explained.

The diminutive Romeo housewife has achieved quite a community-wide reputation for her knowledge of tropical fish. In addition to learning by experience, she consults periodicals on the subject and has an encyclopedia which contains descriptions and pictures of all species.

Served as Lapeer Sheriff in Eviction Cases

Gregory Approved as U. S. Marshal

LAPEER — More than a year after the original recommendation, the Judiciary Committee of the U. S. Senate has approved former Lapeer County Sheriff Clark W. Gregory as U. S. Marshal for Eastern Michigan.

Formal Senate confirmation is considered assured after the committee approval.

In March, 1957, Sen. Charles Potter recommended Gregory and President Eisenhower nominated him for the marshal post, to fill the vacancy created by the death of William A. Nowicki.

Senate confirmation of the appointment became stalled, however, reportedly on the basis of Gregory's role in the tempestuous Lapeer County eviction cases, which were climaxed in 1952.

Lapeer County Sheriff Leslie C. Mathews ended an 11-year career in May, 1952, rather than enforce court-ordered evictions on an aged widow and two elderly farmers, and former Marine Gregory was appointed to the job.

The widow and several farmers owed money after the failure of a mutual fire insurance firm to which they were said to belong. The case had been in and out of the courts for 20 years.

Deputies and State Police troopers led by Gregory evicted the farmers and the widow, after an earlier attempt by Gregory and a single deputy ended with irate farmers manhandling the two law-enforcement officers.

Two farmers served brief prison terms for their part in the scuffle, and Clayton C. Gilliland, Detroit advisor to the embittered farmers, was found guilty of conspiracy to obstruct justice.

Sentenced January 25, 1954 to 4½ to 5 years, Gilliland lodged several appeals, and finally began serving his sentence on May 21, 1956.

Following his appointment in 1952, Gregory was elected sheriff in 1952 and 1954, but declined to run in 1956.

Approximately 600 plates are being issued each day, and no long lines are anticipated this week, he said.

German Student Gets 'A' Grades at Orion

ORION TOWNSHIP — Although the difference in educational methods might be expected to put him at a disadvantage, Rhineland's exchange student, Dietrick Ristow, has breezed through his first semester as an American student with all-A grades—better than he does in his native Germany.

The youth came to Lake Orion from his home in Beuel last August, in time to start the fall semester as a senior at Lake Orion Community High School. Now, only one other student of his class can compete with him as an all-A scholar.

Besides this, Dietrick has earned distinction by winning the trophy for ping pong in the school tournament and in his hobby of wildlife photography. He also has mastered the French horn well enough to play first chair in that section of the school orchestra. In Germany, he plays the Fluegehorn, an instrument similar to the trumpet.

Although he has no TV at home, the youth seldom watches it here. He thinks it an impediment to accomplishment.

An exchange student in a double sense, Dietrick is living at 501 Baldwin Rd. with Mr. and Mrs. John Lessiter and their son, Frank, who spent last summer as Lake Orion's exchange student to Germany as a guest of Dietrick's parents, in their home near Bonn. Both youths were sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches.

VISITED WASHINGTON

Dietrick, 18, was one of the 58 youths who visited New York City and Washington, D. C., this year in a trip sponsored by the Detroit Conference of the Methodist Church. While there, he visited the United Nations and the Capitol buildings, as well as touring foreign areas of the cities.

The German student says education in his native land is more competitive than in America. At the fourth grade level, students take competitive exams. These exams decide whether the students shall continue standard elementary training, move up to "middle school," which requires above-average grades and carries the student forward through six more years of training, or take the high school training which requires high ability and in Germany, offers nine years of education over the fourth grade level.

Those who rate for the high school instruction must keep a high grade average. Two "D" grades automatically disqualify and bring demotion to the middle school.

Dietrick, who averages A and B grades in the German high school, will have to return for his senior year even after graduating here because of a difference in credit requirements.

TO BE PHYSICIST

His ambition is to attend the University of Bonn, where he will study to be a physicist. Before leaving Germany, the exchange student had completed seven years of English and 5½ years of Latin.

The German youth sees his stay in America as a rare opportunity to understand the people of this country. Tourists, he feels, move too fast to gain any true insight into character of the nation visited.

"But peace would surely come in this world if more people could live with other families, as I am doing here, and learn to understand and truly appreciate them," says Dietrick, "instead of just visiting the 'points of interest' in a foreign land."

THAT'S FOR ME! — Milk is not so plentiful in Germany, exchange student Dietrick Ristow, 18, says — and proves he's a real enthusiast by pouring an extra glass to keep up his 2-quart-a-day average. An all-A student at Lake Orion Community High School, Dietrick makes his home with Frank Lessiter and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lessiter of 501 Baldwin Rd. It's a double-exchange, the Lessiters say, since John spent last summer as an exchange student to Germany, where he lived with Dietrick's parents in their home at Beuel.

TIGERTOWN, U.S.A.—Could you imagine living in a community where every man in town was a doctor? Or possibly where every resident was a lawyer, a carpenter or bricklayer by profession?

It would sure be a monotypic existence, and is as impractical as talking about it.

Yet, just a few miles from downtown Lakeland, there is a large piece of acreage where for all practical purposes all of its several hundred residents are of the same profession.

By trade they are all professional baseball men, and their community, which will be five years old Saturday, is not incorporated as a village. Yet when you cross its boundary lines you are welcomed by a sign which says "Tigertown."

This is a neat respectable community. Its population varies each year, anywhere from 260 to 300. And every year a lot of new faces make this their hometown. This year about 75 new faces will take up residency here.

His Honor, James A. Campbell, is the unofficial "mayor" of Tigertown. He is a 34-year-old progressive who was mainly responsible for engineering the layout of this community in 1952.

On March 1, 1953, the first group of settlers moved in and since then Tigertown has prospered with each passing spring.

Members of the appointed city commission of Tigertown include Ed Katalinas, Ralph Snyder, Pat Mullin, Rick Ferrell and Bernie deViveiros.

Katalinas, the director of scouts to bring in good citizens, is chairman of the board with the other commissioners holding assignments as commissioner of pitching, commissioner of batting, and commissioner of base runnng and sliding.

Life in this community is far from dull. Its all-male population toils each morning and afternoon on four plantations, adequately called Cobb, Gehringer, Heilman and Cochrane Fields.

These men aren't without legal and medical advice, or transportation means, or dining and recreational facilities.

There are a couple "physicians" called trainers ready to remedy their ailments which consist mostly of "charley horses and strawberries."

There are "lawyers" also, called umpires who are always on hand to settle any disputes when one of the men is charged with stealing bases.

Many veteran teachers conduct classes for these men with majors required in pitching, hitting, catching, running and other courses.

Many of those who graduate from Tigertown University often leave with a BMD (Baseball Majors' Degree).

There are 23 alumni of Tigertown University, back this spring to get their Master's and Doctor's Degrees in baseball, including such prominent alumni as Frank Lary, Billy Hoeft, Al Kaline and Jim Bunning.

Some who started out as charter residents of Tigertown five years ago are now prominent citizens in other communities such as Tribeville, Dodgertown, Soxburg, Oriole City and Yankeetown.

It all sounds like a myth. But its real life here in Tigertown, U.S.A.

Chief Wrestlers Close Regular Season Today

The Pontiac Central wrestling team was heavily favored to close its regular season with a victory as it met Royal Oak Kimball at Royal Oak this afternoon.

A win would enable the Chiefs to finish with six straight triumphs and a 9-5 record.

Pontiac will compete in the 1st of its post-season events Saturday at Bay City when the Saginaw Valley meet is held.

Howe, Bathgate Gain on Moore

Ranger's 62 Ranks Him Third, Gordie Has 58 in NHL Race

MONTREAL (AP) — Andy Bathgate of the New York Rangers, as smooth a skater and stick-handler as there is in the National Hockey League, is making a belated bid for scoring honors.

The 25-year-old winger, whom Ranger General Manager Muzz Patrick rates as one of the coming super stars in the league, collected six points last week to boost his season's output to 62.

Figures released by the league today showed that Bathgate trails front-running Dickie Moore of the Montreal Canadiens by nine. Moore has accumulated 71 points on 31 goals and 40 assists.

Teammate Henri (Pocket Rocket) Richard is hot on the heels of Moore with 69 points. Richard's 44 assists makes him the leading playmaker while Moore has scored the most goals. Moore and Richard each compiled four points last week.

Detroit's Gordie Howe, last season's scoring champion and a five-time winner, moved up a notch to fourth. Howe accounted for seven points to give him 58 points, one more than Boston's Bronco Horvath, who slipped to fifth with 57.

The leading scorers:

Cage Powers Fail to Clinch Positions

NCAA Berths Remain Open

NEW YORK (INS) — Doesn't anybody want to go to the NCAA's national collegiate basketball championships?

Tennessee Tech could have clinched an NCAA bid last night and two others, Michigan State and Arkansas, could have taken a big step toward the post-season tournament.

However, all three lost and three conference races once again are wide open.

Tennessee Tech might have sewed up the Ohio Valley Conference but lost instead to Murray State, 66 to 55. Tech now leads Morehead State by one game with one to go, and that one is with the Kentucky school.

Going into last night's game with Purdue, Michigan State led the Big Ten by one game. However, the Boilermakers won, 72 to 70, and now are tied with the Spartans. Both have 8-and-4 records and still must play two games.

Arkansas had been in a three-way tie with Texas Tech and Southern Methodist for the Southwest lead. But the Porkers lost to Rice, 61 to 59, and now are tied with the Owls at 7-and-5, with two to go. Tech and SMU moved in front with 7-and-4 marks.

Idle Kansas State clinched a tie for the Big Eight title when Kansas was upset by Iowa State, 48 to 42. The Cyclones used the ball control technique employed by Nebraska in upsetting Kansas Saturday.

But Wilt Chamberlain couldn't be controlled. He scored 30 of Kansas' 42 points.

Kentucky, which has earned at least a tie for the Southeastern Conference title, was upset by Auburn, 64 to 63, and now the Plainsmen trail the Wildcats by one game with one to play.

Bradley climbed to within a game of front-running Cincinnati in the Missouri Valley Conference by crushing Tulsa, 72 to 54. Wichita whipped Houston, 82 to 65, and Oklahoma State downed North Texas State, 63 to 52.

In the Pacific Coast Conference, California defeated Oregon, 61 to 60. The Bears thus stretched their lead to one-and-a-half games over Oregon State.

Boston College, newly named to the NCAA, lost to Boston University, 63 to 60, but another NCAA entrant, Pitt, crushed Geneva, 109 to 74.

Kansas State Five Holds 1st in Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The season's biggest upset in the Big Eight Conference accounted for the only major change in the Associated Press college basketball rankings today as Kansas State stayed on top with West Virginia second.

It was a real shocker when unranked Nebraska knocked off Kansas 43-41 Saturday, and it was reflected in the balloting of sportswriters and broadcasters in the weekly rankings. Kansas, one of the pre-season favorites and high on the list all season, dropped from fourth to seventh.

The top 10 teams with points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis (first place votes and won-lost records through Saturday, Feb. 22, in parentheses):

1. Kansas State (22)	(19-1)	727
2. West Virginia (23)	(22-1)	707
3. Cincinnati (15)	(20-2)	688
4. San Francisco (7)	(21-1)	624

Waller's Group Would Transfer Club to Miami

Offer Wired to Cards President; Bell Says No Franchise in Sight

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Attorney Richard H. Cantillon said today a group headed by Ron Waller, Los Angeles Rams halfback, has made an offer of 1½ million dollars to buy the Chicago Cardinals of the National Football League.

The attorney said the offer was telegraphed to Walter Wolfner, president of the Cardinals.

"We don't know whether the Cardinals are for sale or not but we put out a feeler for a NFL franchise in Miami. Commissioner Bert Bell said there is no franchise available.

Cantillon said Waller and his group feel that eventually the NFL will expand to 14 teams but "he would like to expedite a Miami franchise by purchasing the Cardinals if at all possible."

The Waller group, if successful, would move the Cardinal franchise to Miami, the lawyer said, quoting Waller as saying: "Dan Reeves took a big gamble in switching his Cleveland team to Los Angeles back in 1945 and I'm willing to take an even bigger gamble down in Miami."

Yardley Within Reach of Mikan

Detroit Star Can Better '51 Season Point Total by Minneapolis Great

NEW YORK (AP)—George Yardley of Detroit, with a 125-point lead in the National Basketball Assn. scoring race, is within distance of breaking George Mikan's NBA season's scoring record.

Yardley, who has 1,764 points in 65 games for a 27.1 average, need only average a few tenths above 24 points for the remaining seven games on his schedule to break Mikan's record of 1,932. Mikan set his record in 1951 when he averaged 28.4 points a game over a shorter schedule.

The one NBA game last night had no effect on the various scoring statistics released today.

The Philadelphia Warriors defeated the Minneapolis Lakers, 110-95, in the first NBA game ever played in Bethlehem, Pa. Paul Arizin scored 29 points to lead the Warriors to their triumph.

Yardley also is in a position to join teammate Dick McGuire in giving Detroit two offensive leaders. Yardley is the best scorer, McGuire leads the association in assists with 411.

Keg Champs Walking on Air

By CHUCK ABAIR

Still walking on air as the two newest stars in Oakland County bowling circles are Pontiac resident Richard Cork and Mrs. Pat Donner of Drayton Plains.

They won the championships in the men's and women's divisions of the 2nd annual Pontiac Press Bowlerama which concluded Saturday at Huron Bowl following three weekends of competition.

Cork, a 172 average bowler, compiled a 673 total with handicap to win fairly easily while Mrs. Donner had to go all out right down to the final frame to hit 641. She carries a 149 average.

"I was ready to go home after starting with a 168 but I was glad I stayed," said Cork who is a grinder at Pontiac Motor and the father of two daughters.

"I wasn't going to enter the Bowlerama because I have not had much time to practice due to my busy schedule of working days and going to electronics school nights but my wife kept urging me on," he added.

Mrs. Peggy Cork, who helped lead the large cheering section for her husband, told The Press the encouragement of friends and relatives and the help of Dick's friend Tony Eisele were big factors in her husband's big victory. "Tony helped point out the things Dick was doing wrong," said the proud wife. (Both Eisele and Peggy were entries who did not qualify.)

The Corks bowled in their regular Dixie Recreation Sunday Mixed League the day after he won the title and Dick reportedly was "getting splits all day." It is the only league he bowls in.

Pat Donner is also a Dixie Recreation bowler and a good friend of the Corks and the woman she dethroned, Donna Verhey. She also had a rough time Sunday in loop play.

"I was very nervous all day Saturday. I could never have done it without all those people cheering for me," commented the little 24-year-old woman who also is employed at Pontiac Motor.

A 2nd squad bowler in the finals, she was on hand during the 1st squad practicing her southpaw tosses on a spare alley and was knocking them over well then but she started worrying all over again when Mrs. Verhey's 631 was announced.

Championships are made on coming through when the chips are down and she did just that as her followers kept telling her what she needed everytime she approached the ball rack.

Patricia has now picked up $350 and various other awards in the two Bolerama events. She was runnerup in 1957. "I don't know if I can take it again next year," she told friends.

Both champions had definite plans for the money shortly after thinking it over. "The city is putting in a new street near us so that will just about take my share," stated Cork. "I'm going to go down Tuesday and buy a fur coat," chuckled Pat. "My husband said I earned it."

It seems that husband, Don, who was as nervous as an expectant father throughout his wife's three games in the finals, had promised Mrs. Donner she could have anything she earned herself. "He said I worked harder for that $250 than he ever did for that much," said Pat.

All finalists who could not be on hand for the presentation of awards which followed the action Saturday will be sent checks by mail.

Only 'Paw Paw' Remains Unsigned

LAKELAND, Fla. — Only one player remained outside the contract fold today as the Detroit Tigers prepared for the formal opening of spring drills tomorrow.

Bengal regulars will move into action at Henley Field while farm system rookies will continue workouts at the Tigertown base a half-mile away.

Charley Maxwell is the lone unsigned player on the 39-man Tiger roster. The Paw Paw, Mich., outfielder has refused to sign a contract calling for the same salary he got last year, an estimated $23,000.

Gen. Mgr. John McHale says he isn't worried.

Maxwell had company until yesterday when third baseman-outfielder Lou Skizas came to terms. Skizas was acquired in a trade with Kansas City last year.

Billy Martin, scrappy infielder, was the center of attraction at workouts again today.

Martin, who is expected to take over at shortstop for Harvey Kuenn, has been impressive, especially in dashing behind the pitcher's box for slow grounders.

First baseman Ray Boone disputes doubts in some quarters that Martin's throwing arm isn't all it should be.

Boone held up a reddened and puffed hand during workouts yesterday in which he was a target for many of Martin's tosses.

Meanwhile, the Tiger coaching staff kept up its efforts to mold Kuenn, last year's shortstop, into a centerfielder. His mentors have reported they are encouraged by Kuenn's performance so far.

Royals, CIO Win Openers

The Lakeside Royals and CIO Local 594 were first round winners in the Class A City League basketball playoffs, which got under way Monday night at Pontiac Central High.

A last-second basket by John James gave the CIO a 60-58 upset win over Shaw's Jewelers. Substitute Joe Soto's field goal with 10 seconds left tied the score at 58-all for the Union quintet, then James connected.

Big Hudson Ray paced the CIO with 20 points while Ellis Appling scored 17 for the Jewelers.

The Royals, regular season winners and defending "A" champs, trounced the Knights of Columbus, 70-56. Rollie Jackson tallied 17 points for the Royals, while John Keller topped the Knights with 16.

Class B double elimination playoffs start tonight at PCH with first place Griff's Grill meeting Booth Homes at 8:30 and Walled Lake facing the Boys Club in the 7 o'clock opener.

The Class A double knockout tourney resumes Wednesday, also on the PCH court. Shaw's will meet the K. of C. at 7 o'clock, followed by an 8:30 clash between the Royals and the CIO.

Spartans Bow to Purdue, 72-70

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Purdue clipped Michigan State 72-70 at Lafayette last night and moved into a Big 10 league-leading tie with the Spartans on an 8-4 record. Both Indiana and Iowa came through with clutch victories and are one-half game off the pace with 7-4 marks.

To complicate matters further, the four contenders stage a showdown Saturday with Purdue at Indiana in a regionally televised afternoon game and Michigan State at Iowa that night.

But that's only half the story. Iowa is at Purdue Monday and Indiana invades Michigan State March 8. To balance the 14-game schedule, Indiana is at Illinois Monday and Iowa winds up at Michigan March 8. If Purdue and MSU split in their final two games and both Indiana and Iowa win two-of-three, all four teams will finish with 9-5 records.

Indiana, down by 14 points at halftime, stormed back to defeat Michigan 95-88 at Bloomington and Iowa whipped Northwestern 86-78 on the Wildcats home floor. In the only other game, Minnesota topped Wisconsin 71-63 at Minneapolis behind George Kline's 38 points.

A tremendous effort of 28 points by State's Johnny Green failed to stop Purdue which is seeking its first Western Conference basketball title in 18 years.

The game turned into a torrid affair after Purdue, leading at the half 38-32, blew a 70-64 lead with two minutes to play. MSU tied it at 70-all but Willie Merriweather's basket clinched it with eight seconds to play.

The game-winning basket was sandwiched between scoring efforts by the Spartans' Tom Rand and Larry Hedden.

Michigan State coach Forddy Anderson dejectedly said "Rand had a perfect shot and missed, Merriweather didn't. Then we put four men under the board to give Hedden his favorite shot and he missed."

Merriweather led the Boilermakers with 20 points, followed by Jack Eison with 19, Harv Austin 16, Bill Greve 11 and Bob Fehrman 6. Purdue used only five men—all juniors.

Iowa had little trouble with Northwestern as Dave Gunther pushed through 26 points and Clarence Wordlaw added 23. The Hawkeyes led 43-30 at the half and when Northwestern moved within six points in the second half, Wordlaw pumped in 9 of Iowa's next 12 points to put the Hawkeyes ahead, 64-50.

Six Indiana players, led by Archie Dees' 27 points, scored in double figures in a remarkable Hoosier comeback. Michigan led 44-25 in the first half and was ahead 50-36 at intermission.

The Hoosiers put on the steam in the second half and pulled into an 83-76 lead. Michigan rallied to within one point of the lead but Indiana put on a final spurt for the victory.

George Lee and M. C. Burton topped the Wolverines with 23 and 22 points, respectively.

All 10 teams are in action Saturday. In addition to the Purdue-Indiana and MSU-Iowa games, Michigan is at Illinois, Ohio State at Minnesota and Wisconsin at Northwestern.

Clarkston Seeks W-O Clincher Tonight

Rochester vs. Orion

The final Tuesday night of the regular season 1957-58 prep basketball slate is on tap tonight with a scattering of interesting contests highlighting a 15-game schedule.

Topping the list for local fans will be Rochester's invasion of Lake Orion in what could be a preview of what to expect in the Pontiac "B" district tourney and another non-league tussle matching Romeo and Avondale at Avon.

Clarkston may overshadow these area features by clinching the Wayne - Oakland championship at Clarenceville. The Wolves are already assured of matching last year's tie for the title.

Brighton will be at Holly in another W-O contest while the only other league action will have new co-leader East Detroit playing at Birmingham in the Eastern Michigan.

Other independent battles ranking closely behind the local pair will be once - beaten Ferndale's meeting with powerful Grosse Pointe, Walled Lake's final road test at Wayne and Clawson at West Bloomfield.

Rochester is expected to follow the pattern of previous Orion conquerors — this is, attempt to stop either Jim Drake or Nick Neira.

The Falcons have the better balanced scoring with steady Carl Montross the usual leader. Rochester has won 12 and lost only four. Lake Orion had a five - game win streak snapped last time out and is now 10-4 behind the scoring of its senior sharpshooters.

A losing skein will end for one team at Avondale. Romeo has dropped five in a row after playing .500 ball while Avon has been beaten three straight.

Clarkston should be anything but overconfident despite its favorite role the way things have gone in the Wayne-Oakland this season. The Wolves walloped Clarenceville 75 - 38 earlier but Wayne County school has improved considerably since paced the big point totals of Larry Andrews. Clarenceville's victory over Brighton Friday brought new worries for Clarkston coach Dom Mauti.

Holly has been drilling hard for Brighton in hopes of clinching at least a tie for 3rd after a dismal mid-season slump.

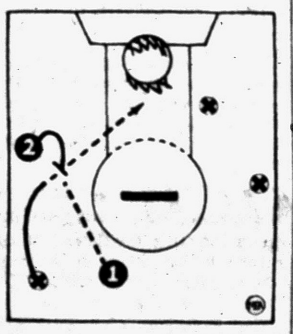
Rounding out the schedule will be Ortonvile playing host to Hartland, South Lyon at Howell, Dearborn fordson at Royal Oak Dondero, Madison Lamphere at Country Day, Mt. Clemens at home against Royal Oak Kimball, Utica at South Lake and Imlay City at Kingston.



POINTERS ON POINTS

First of a series by college and professional coaches and star players written for NEA Service and The Pontiac Press.

By KEN SEARS
New York Knickerbockers

The shot I say is my best is a jump shot moving behind a pick. Most of the points I've scored at Santa Clara and with the Knickerbockers came out of this move.

I like to move behind a guard (No. 2) and let him provide the screen. If his man fights through or there is a switch, then I'll have a small man on me.

On this play I prefer to get the ball on a pass (No. 1) after I move behind the pick.

If the man guarding me gets through the screen, I double back and go for the basket without the ball hoping to be clear for a layup.

Arrows Suffer First Setback

The Bowen Arrows suffered their first defeat of the season last night in the American division of the Class D Basketball League, a 44-41 setback at the hands of Auburn 5 & 10 at Lincoln Junior High.

Chuck Johnson and Ken McClintock scored 16 points apiece for the winners while Amos Bailey hit 15 for the Arrows, whose record now stands 9-1.

In the other American "D" game, Glenn Ray's 18 points paced Pontiac Boys Club to a 76-55 rout of Home Lunch. Chuck Langdon tallied 21 in defeat.

Al Piche's 18 points were wasted as Bud & Lou's Bar bowed to Lakeside, 49-39, and the Pontiac Police nosed out the Vikings, 31-29, as the Class C division ended its regular season schedule at Madison Junior High.

Whiteside Tells of Airlines Offer

Attorney Refused Bid for Services in Miami TV Channel Contest

WASHINGTON (AP)—Thurman A. Whiteside testified today that the president of National Airlines sought to employ him as an attorney in the contest for TV Channel 10 in Miami.

Whiteside said he refused employment but told G. T. Baker, the airlines president, he was "being helpful" on behalf of National's subsidiary, Public Service Television Inc., which eventually won the channel.

Whiteside said Baker sought to employ him on a fee basis but did not discuss amounts of fee.

Whiteside, a Miami attorney, was under questioning for the second day by a special House investigating committee inquiring into reported pressures and influences on the Federal Communications Commission and particularly Commissioner Richard A. Mack of Miami in the Channel 10 fight.

The investigators developed testimony from Whiteside yesterday that Mack got a free-ride insurance partnership from him. He said it paid Mack $9,822 in the years 1953-56 and that so far there has been no cost to Mack.

Chairman Harris (D-Ark) of the special subcommittee on legislative oversight said he also wanted more information on some missing promissory notes Whiteside said Mack gave him on some loans.

Temperature Hits 57; Sets Record in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit thermometers, zooming to 57 degrees in the wake of a cold wave, set a new high record for Feb. 24 yesterday. The old record of 56 was set Feb. 24, 1906.

Today's temperatures also were expected to be in the mid-50s, but no record was anticipated. A year ago a record Feb. 25 high of 66 degrees was set.

City Will Hold Hearings on Paving, Sewer Plans

Public hearings on construction of more than $125,000 worth of new paving and sanitary sewer facilities are scheduled for 8 tonight before the City Commission.

Commissioners also will hold public hearings on special assessment rolls prepared for nine paving projects, receive rolls for eight others and initiate the first 1958 improvements on gravel roads.

The sanitary sewer system, costing an estimated $76,900, includes a pumping station and pipelines to serve homes in the Arlene-Fuller street area near Fourth, Third and Second avenues.

Cost estimates totaling more than $50,000 have been placed on the following paving projects, for which public hearings on intention to construct are scheduled:

Pike street, Astor to East boulevard; Pingree avenue, Cadillac to LeGrande; Putnam avenue, Cadillac to LeGrande; Rosalawn drive, Fiddis to Mainer; Rundell street, Baldwin to Pingree; Tennyson avenue, Joslyn to Highwood; Tregent street, Baldwin to Saginaw, and Yale avenue, Carlisle to Stanley.

Other public hearings are scheduled on assessment rolls for the following paving projects:

Burt street, LeGrande to Hillside; East Chicago avenue, Baldwin to the Pontiac, Oxford and Northern Railroad; East Colgate avenue, Baldwin to University; Carlisle avenue, Cornell to Columbia; Colorado avenue, Bagley to Franklin road; Fairmont avenue, Baldwin to Carlisle; Hudson avenue, Pingree to Summit; Jefferson avenue, Cadillac to Kimball, and Kimball street, Jefferson to its southern end.

Thirteen gravel streets are scheduled for curbing, gutters, drains and blacktopping. They are:

Adelaide street, Oakland to Baldwin; LeGrande avenue, Baldwin to Euclid; Wyoming avenue, Bagley to Franklin road; Lenox avenue, Burkell to its eastern end; South Jessie street, Wilson to Baldwin; Brush street, Bagley to Linfere; Linfere street, Brush to Franklin road; West New York avenue, Baldwin to Walton; Harriett street, Adelaide to Cadillac; Euclid avenue, from High street south; Carlisle avenue, Columbia to Sheffield; West Ann Arbor avenue, Carlisle to Stanley, and Gladstone place, Edison to Cooper.

In addition, a property owners' petition for a sanitary sewer on the southeast side of Montcalm street near Corwin street will be presented.

Ice on Great Lakes Thinner Than Usual

DETROIT (AP) — Ice on the Great Lakes is thinner than usual for this time of year, the U.S. Weather Bureau said today.

But W. W. Oak, chief meteorologist of the Detroit bureau, said an early opening of 1958 navigation is not being stressed.

Oak, in his first ice report of the season, said ice did not appear to be a serious factor this year because of sufficient stockpiles of most commodities shipped over the Great Lakes.

Boats are operating out of many ports in southern Lake Michigan, he said, but most of Lake St. Clair and Lake Erie are covered with ice. The Detroit River has floating ice and open patches.

Canada is the sixth leading industrial nation of the world.

Ike Bolstering Aid, Trade Bills

Convinced of Necessity, He May Launch Series of 'Sales' Breakfasts

WASHINGTON (INS) — President Eisenhower, alarmed by mounting congressional opposition to his foreign aid and reciprocal trade programs, has tentatively decided to launch a series of intimate White House breakfasts for senators and representatives next month.

A high administration source said: "The President is really sold on the absolute necessity of the two bills, and when he really has his heart in something, he'll fight for it."

The informant said that as a consequence, Ike probably will begin inviting the legislators, 30 at a time to breakfast, in order to "do a selling job on them."

The President also has high hopes that today's bipartisan foreign aid conference which Eric Johnston has called at Ike's request will help rally the nation's leaders to support of aid-and-trade.

A presidential adviser said Mr. Eisenhower wants to "inspire these key men to carry the torch back to their communities," in order to help convince the voters that the programs are vital to our own security and prosperity.

New Book Free in Pontiac

Short on Plot, but It Reads Well

Drop into City Hall nowadays and you can pick up some handy reading in a 71-page booklet available free of charge from City Clerk Ada R. Evans.

The book doesn't offer much in the way of plot, dialogue and characters. In fact, for some readers just a few minutes browsing through it before bedtime would be a sure remedy for insomnia.

It is the first reprinting of Pontiac's City Charter since its adoption 37 years ago. And city officials are kind of proud of the nice, neat package it turned out to be.

It only cost $1,134, too, for the first 2,000 copies printed. That's because Mrs. Evans and her staff did all the work preparing new texts, adding a complete new index, and proofreading the finished manuscript.

17 AMENDMENTS

Why reprint the 1920 charter? Because since 1920 it's been amended 17 times by public vote and the only way you could get at the amendments was by referring to supplemental material.

If you didn't have the supplements, you'd never have known the charter had been changed. With the new booklet, you're brought completely up to date.

Three of the biggest changes: In 1939, an amendment providing for the seven city commissioners to be elected from seven different districts instead of at large; in 1937, an amendment setting up the city's municipal court; in 1945, an amendment providing for a city employes' retirement plan and creating the pension board.

There are some other big changes, though, you can't find in the charter, since they were brought about by city ordinance. For example, the municipal parking lot system, Pontiac General Hospital and its board of trustees and civil service for police and firemen.

Old Crop Wheat Contracts Lifted

CHICAGO (AP)—Hedge lifting and mill buying gave old crop wheat contracts a boost of around a cent a bushel in early dealings today on the Board of Trade.

These deliveries, along with March and May rye, were the only ones to move outside minor fractions from their previous closes.

The nearby rye contracts also were about a cent higher. But some traders said the grain probability was oversold yesterday in general liquidation which followed the government announcement of lower price supports.

Near the end of the first hour wheat was ¾ cent a bushel higher, to ⅜ lower, March $2.20¼; corn ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, March $1.10½; oats unchanged to ⅛ higher, March $1.28½; soybeans unchanged to ⅛ lower, March $2.21⅜; lard unchanged to 7 cents a hundred pounds lower, March $12.85.

Missing Bride May Be Hiding

Doctor, Friend Reveal Fright of Brooklyn Girl Before Wedding

NEW YORK (AP) — A doctor and a girl friend say Brooklyn's missing bride-to-be may have gone into hiding on her wedding day because of "stage fright." The prospective bridegroom disputes this theory.

As 25 detectives and 10 policewomen worked full time on the case and met dead-end after dead-end in the hunt for 29-year-old Irene Arzedi, her best friend, Tess Roman, told of a shower given the prospective bride at a Brooklyn sportswear factory where they worked.

"During the party Irene grabbed me by the arm and said: 'Tess, stand by me, I'm frightened,'" Miss Roman said. "She was shaking at the time.

"I think she just ran away. She's a frightened girl. She's that type — a very timid person."

Dr. Alfred Ianora, who had treated the Arzedi family for 25 years, said he believed Miss Arzedi could not face up to marriage, as has happened to many other women, and ran away.

"It's my feeling that she suffered stage fright," the doctor said.

Miss Arzedi was to have been married Saturday afternoon to Joseph Pinto, 31, a neighbor. After they had breakfast together that morning she went to a neighborhood pharmacy, bought cold cream and bobby pins — and vanished.

Lease Post Offices, Broomfield Urges

Congressman William S. Broomfield has introduced a bill to restore lease-purchase agreements for U.S. post offices.

The act provides for the construction of post offices by private capital, available for lease to the government on a long term basis.

Broomfield said the previous act allowing this expired last year "because of short-sighted thinking on the part of Democrats in the House Public Works Committee."

The representative predicted many new post offices in Oakland County, because of the rapid growth experienced here.

Pontiacs Sweep NASCAR Trials

Capture Top Six Spots in Daytona Beach Tests for Speed

Pontiacs ran off with the honors at the national speed trial championships, sponsored by NASCAR at Daytona Beach, Fla.

Dr. L. D. Morris, driving a stock 1958 Pontiac, outpaced all other cars to take the event. He was clocked at 144.346 m.p.h. on his downwind run and 131.627 return for an average of 137.693.

The first six cars in the speed event were Pontiacs, followed by Chrysler 300's in seventh and eight places.

Pontiac also was tops in the passing tests. Starting at 30 m.p.h., Jim McMichael in a '58 Pontiac whipped around the official car in 96 yards. His average for three tries was 101 yards.

A Plymouth placed second in this event, followed by three more Pontiacs.

In the 50 m.p.h. passing event, a Detroit housewife, Mrs. Vicki Wood, 39, was the winner in a Pontiac. She passed in 177 yards from 75 feet behind the official car. Second and third places were also taken by Pontiacs.

Most Pontiacs Built Since '45 Still Run

More than 83 per cent of all Pontiac automobiles built since World War II are still in operation today, according to S. E. Knudsen, general manager of Pontiac Motor Division and vice president of General Motors.

Knudsen revealed today that Division production since 1946 now totals in excess of 4,000,000 units. Passenger car registration figures indicate 3,400,000 1946-1958 Pontiacs are currently traveling U. S. highways—the fifth best record in the automotive industry.

"These gratifying figures are clear-cut evidence of Pontiac durability and a real tribute to the Company's engineering and production know-how," Knudsen declared.

He will work out of the district office in Detroit. Other branches are in Grand Rapids, Flint, Saginaw and Ann Arbor.

Stock Prices Continue to Fall

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market continued its downward drift in light dealings early today.

The market's trend was in its fifth day of an irregular decline on very small volume.

Key stocks generally were off fractions but some losses went to about a point or more. A few small gainers spotted the list.

A number of blue chips were unchanged as sizable blocks were sold, indicating some portfolio changes by institutional investors.

Rubbers and aircrafts were lower. Steels and motors showed little change. There were scattered losers among oils, chemicals, rails and utilities.

Business news continued drab. A drop in the U. S. Treasury's short-term borrowing costs to the lowest in three years, however, was another sign of the easier money trend.

Caterpillar and Westinghouse Electric dropped major fractions.

Fractional losses were taken by Amerada, Republic Steel, Goodyear, Boeing, Douglas Aircraft, Radio Corp., Consolidated Natural Gas, American Cyanamid, General Electric and U. S. Rubber.

Dome Mines, Homestake, Du Pont, International Paper and Texas Co. gained a bit.

Opening blocks included: U. S. Steel unchanged at 57 on 4,000 shares, Royal Dutch unchanged at 37⅝ on 2,500; Chrysler unchanged at 50⅛ on 3,000; and International Nickel off 1 at 73½ on 1,100.

Conciliator Murphy Leaves for Tunisia

PARIS (AP)— U.S. envoy Robert Murphy today carried the British-American effort to make peace between France and Tunisia to the Tunisian capital.

Murphy, U.S. deputy undersecdication before taking off for Tunis of how his conciliatory work was progressing. He had spent the past three days conferring in Paris and London. It appeared that so far he was only filling in the details of each government's position.

Informed sources in Tunis said the North African republic will reject U.S.-British good offices and return the dispute to the U.N. Security Council unless Murphy 1) agrees to give priority to the Algerian war and 2) helps speed evacuation of France's 22,000 troops in Tunisia.

On Building Code Offenders

Waterford Plans 'Clamp Down'

A "clamp down" policy for inspection of all new buildings in Waterford Township was agreed upon by board members at last night's regular meeting.

A long discussion regarding inspection procedure on water, sewer and building codes ensued before the get-tough policy was adopted.

The agreement followed complaints of new homeowners in the township that pipes freeze up, furnaces are inadequate, and sewer and water facilities faulty, according to Clerk James Seeterlin.

Another controversial issue was brought to light when Pontiac builder Edward Sanders objected to the rezoning of a lot on Williams Lake and Maceday roads from commercial to residential after he had purchased the land.

In June, the Jack Hyman Co., builders, presented blueprints for a drug store and asked that the area be rezoned from residential to commercial.

The zoning and township boards both approved of the change and then they were informed that the drug store deal had fallen through. The two boards then rezoned the lot back to residential December 31.

In the meantime, Sanders bought the land to build a gas station thinking it was still zoned commercial. He presented a deed last night, dated September, and threatened to take the case to court.

In other board business, a hearing date was set for a special street lighting district to be established in the Oakwood Manor Subdivision on Dixie highway near Silver Lake road for March 10 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The issue of the $28,781 which has been set aside for township road construction by the Oakland County Road Commission was tabled until further study of the township budget.

Board members also approved the adoption of the 1956 National Electrical Code for use in Waterford Township.

Township Attorney Paul Mandel outlined a tentative sewer administrative procedure ordinance, and was authorized to draw up a formal ordinance to be acted upon at next week's meeting.

The Steere Study Group asked the board to accept a new name for its organization. It will be known as The Waterford Township Library Committee.

British Crews to Man Thors

Sending Missile Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States apparently is finding it easier to export its missile weapons than to deploy Air Force units overseas to man the special squadrons.

This was indicated in yesterday's announcement of an Anglo-American agreement whereby some 60 Thor intermediate range missiles will be stationed in Britain.

Original plans called for American airmen to handle some of the missile units. But the final agreement disclosed they will be manned and operated by the Royal Air Force Bomber Command after British launching crews receive training in the United States.

The change in signals apparently stems from Laborite opposition to setting up any missiles base in Britain prior to a new attempt at easing East-West tension at a summit meeting.

Although both the United States and Britain were silent on the point, it was understood the missiles agreement was reworded to strengthen the Conservative government's hand in its effort to win popular approval of the bases.

Negotiations are now under way with France to station intermediate range 1,500-mile missiles in that country.

Should the French demand equal treatment and demonstrate their ability to operate the missiles when they arrive, this would eliminate the need for deploying Air Force missile units to that country.

Masked Bandit Robs Station

Holds Up 2 Attendants and Flees With $1,300 to $1,400

A masked bandit wielding a rifle robbed two attendants of a Waterford Township gas station of an estimated $1,300 to $1,400 last night, according to State Police at the Pontiac Post.

Charles Allen, the station manager, and an attendant, Francis Robinson of 5811 Eldridge St., Waterford Township, were closing up the Walters and Hardy Service Station, 5040 Elizabeth Lake Rd., shortly before 11 p.m.

A man entered with a white handkerchief over his face, waved the rifle at them and shouted, "I want the money," according to police.

The bandit took from Allen's pocket $1,200 which was to be used to pay his gasoline bill today, according to Ellis Martin, an attendant who had left moments before.

He also took about $50 from Allen's wallet and then emptied the cash register of an undetermined amount of money, it was reported.

COSTA MESA, Calif. (AP) — It's Taps today for Oki, Alsatian shepherd dog decorated for saving the lives of 151 Marines during the invasion of Okinawa.

The enemy hemmed in the patrol and other units for two days. Oki was sent back through the lines with a note to the U.S. command post. A short time later, Harr said, "our artillery fire began pouring in and we were rescued."

UAW Offering GM Work Plan

To Ask Firm for Some Layoffs Rather Than Cut for All Workers

KANSAS CITY (AP)—United Auto Workers delegates representing more than 150,000 General Motors employes are planning to ask GM officials tomorrow to lay off some workers rather than reducing the work week for all.

The decision was reached yesterday at a meeting of 165 UAW representatives from five General Motors sub-councils.

E. J. Moran, assistant director of the union's General Motors division, said the proposal will be placed before the corporation in Detroit.

Moran said 90 per cent of the employes could earn a full week's pay while the 10 per cent who are laid off would get almost as much from unemployment compensation as they would earn on a reduced work week.

"The information is that General Motors will try to go to a three or four-day work week shorty to allow inventories ot catch up with production," Moran said.

He said the UAW's plan for a full five-day week with a smaller force won't cost the company any more money and "it will mean a lot more in dollars and cents to the communities where GM plants are located."

The delegates represented all the Chevrolet division plants, the assembly and stamping divisions of Fisher Body, the GM parts and accessories plants, and the GM foundry and forge plants.

Dems, GOP Boost $3.9 Billion Program

Big Pitch Is On for Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican and Democratic bigwigs closed ranks today in a pitch for public support of the $3,900,000,000 foreign aid program.

Both parties paraded their brightest stars before an all-day national conference on foreign aid—a meeting of about 1,200 civic, educational, church and veterans leaders at the Statler Hotel.

President Eisenhower will make the climactic address tonight. Former President Truman was tabbed for a luncheon speaker.

Secretary of State Dulles was lead-off speaker, and was followed to the platform by Adlai Stevenson, 1952 and 1956 Democratic presidential nominee.

Dulles repeated many of the familiar arguments for foreign aid and added a new one. It creates jobs for American workers.

Stevenson appealed for a "sustained, thought-through and coordinated" foreign aid program which would help underdeveloped countries to "economic and social health and self-reliance without military strings."

Dulles, speaking without a prepared text, said the Communists started with nothing 40 years ago and now control one-third of the world's population.

He said they did this because they have a dynamic belief, and the only way to combat them is with "a faith held more intensely, a greater and truer faith."

The secretary declared there are four good reasons for supporting foreign aid:

It provides jobs for about 600,000 Americans; it assures free world military bases around the globe; it helps maintain retaliatory forces in strategic areas, and it gives hope to people in underdeveloped countries who are being wooed by economic offensives from Moscow.

Other big-name speakers included Vice President Nixon, Secretary of Defense McElroy, Director Allen W. Dulles of the Central Intelligence Agency and presidential science adviser James R. Killian Jr.

The big rally was stage-managed by Eric Johnston, movie czar and part-time presidential aide.

Cardinal Agagianian Rates High

Will Russian Be Next Pope?

VATICAN CITY (INS)—Will the next Pope be a Russian?

There are highly-placed prelates at the Vatican who seriously believe this could happen. In fact, they rate the Russian's chances better than those of any "foreigners"—including New York's Francis Cardinal Spellman.

On March 2, Pius XII will celebrate his 82nd birthday He will begin the 20th year of his pontificate. He is said, by responsible men who should know, to be healthier and heartier than at any time in the past 10 years.

Nevertheless at the Vatican, as anywhere else, they talk—though most reservedly—of who might succeed him to reign over the world's 450,000,000 Catholics.

The front-runner in the foreign field is Cardinal Gregory Peter XV Agagianian. He is 62 years old—born Sept. 18, 1895 in what is now the Soviet Republic of Georgia, not far from the birthplace of another young man who studied for the priesthood—Josef Stalin. And born very close to the birthplace of a current Soviet star, Anastas I. Mikoyan, a fellow-Armenian.

Cardinal Agagianian is a member, not of the Latin, but the Armenian rite. Never, in the long history of the papacy, has anyone been chosen from outside the Latin rite. The Armenians hold the same beliefs as other Roman Catholics —including the supremacy of the Pope—but have their own liturgy and customs.

A BRILLIANT MIND

Agagianian wears a beard. He came to Rome as a youth of 11 or 12. He was a brilliant student, one of the most gifted young minds ever to study in Rome.

The highlights of his career: Ordination to the priesthood in Rome in 1917; consecrated a titular bishop in 1935; made patriarch of the Armenian Church in 1937 and became a cardinal at the Sacred Consistory of February, 1946.

Cardinal Agagianian speaks perfect Russian as well as perfect Italian and French. He knows English, German and Spanish better than most people born in the languages. And he speaks most of the tongues of the Middle East as well as those of the Far East.

Most of all Gregory Peter Agagianian knows Russia. He has studied the changes through the years. Nikita Khrushchev would need his script with this man—this gentle man with the soft, dark eyes behind the rimless glasses.

He has been a professor of sacred theology in Rome for most of his career. There are, in fact, few men in this world who know more about the study of God.

The cardinal commands extraordinary respect in Rome. Vatican veterans know him to be a man of rare dedication and, especially, intelligence. He is extremely polite, charming and so gentle and kind when speaking that even other Cardinals are known to feel an even greater sense of refinement in his presence.

With the Sacred College of Cardinals now favoring the "foreigners" 38 to 19 Italians, this two-to-one ratio could mean that the world will witness a non-Italian elevated to the Chair of Peter.

If early ballots prove inconclusive with regard to an Italian, the Sacred College could well turn toward a respected Russian.

SHIRLEY'S MEMORIES — With the same dimpled smile as in her child-star days, 29-year-old Shirley Temple (right) has returned to the entertainment world as hostess, narrator and occasional actress on an hour-long TV show, "Shirley Temple's Storybook." There weren't any TV programs when 6-year-old Shirley (left) was winning the world's heart in such pictures as "Little Miss Marker" with Adolphe Menjou.

Stories Marked Growing Years

Actress Now Returns to News as Hostess of Television Show

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD (NEA)—The nation's press recorded the life of child-star Shirley Temple in six years of headlines. From 1934 to 1940, she was the most publicized child in the world—24-hour-a-day news.

"Headline Memories," I suggested might be a fun game for her now. "That's a wonderful idea," she said.

Shirley's memory for lines as a kid star amazed Hollywood 20 years ago. She always knew them—PLUS the lines of everyone else in the casts of her films. Today her memory for long-ago headlines amazed me as I read them to her.

"SHIRLEY TEMPLE HURTS FINGER" (1938) — "A chauffeur accidentally slammed a car door on three of my fingers. They're still a little crooked."

"SHIRLEY TEMPLE NIPPED BY DOG IN HAWAII" (1937) — "Not true. I tried to steal a dog but the studio kept it quiet."

A TOOTHY TALE

"SHIRLEY TEMPLE VISITS WHITE HOUSE" (1938) — "My tooth," Shirley's face crinkled into a smile. "President Roosevelt asked me why I wasn't smiling and I said, 'Because I lost my front tooth.' He replied, "Don't worry about it, Shirley, I've lost a few, too.'"

"MAN SEIZED FOR SAYING HE'S SHIRLEY'S FATHER" (1937)—"That seemed to happen all the time."

"ALARM CALLS OFFICERS TO SHIRLEY'S HOME" (1936)—"The studio always had a guard at our home with four time-clocks he had to punch every hour. One night he dropped the key in a fishpond and missed one of the clocks. The police, the sheriff, the fire department — everybody came."

"J. EDGAR HOOVER VISITS SHIRLEY' TEMPLE" (1937)—"I gave him one of my Shirley Temple police badges and in 1952 when I visited him in his office in Washington I almost fell on my face laughing—he was wearing it."

"MRS. ROOSEVELT VISITS SHIRLEY TEMPLPE" (1938) — "I pinned a police badge on her, too."

"FATHER SEEKS MORE PAY FOR SHIRLEY" (1934)—"He was quite a businessman."

PIP BECOMES PEP

"SHIRLEY TEMPLE HAS HIGH FEVER" (1938) — "That was in Boston. The papers said I had the pip but isn't that something just chickens have? Anyway, when I got well, a Boston newspaper had a funny headline. It read, 'SHIRLEY TEMPLE'S PIP TURNS TO PEP.'"

"SHIRLEY TEMPLE GRAND MARSHAL OF ROSE PARADE" (1938)—"I had to get up at 4:30 in the morning and it was cold."

"SHIRLEY LOSES TONSILS" (1940)—"And thank heavens. I had to sing in a movie and my tonsils got in the way."

"SHIRLEY VISITS SECRETARY MORGENTHAU" (1938)—"We were sitting in his office and President Roosevelt wanted to see him. Mr. Morgenthau said, 'Tell him I'm busy entertaining a little blonde.'"

"HARRY LAUDER DELAYS SAILING TO MEET SHIRLEY" (1938)—"He wore kilts and came up to my bedroom and sang some songs and looked out of my window. On a clear day you could see Catalina Island—and it was a clear day."

"SHIRLEY TEMPLE HONORED BY SHRINE" (1938)—"My father was a Shriner. They gave me a red fez decorated with jewels. Dad acted real jealous."

NO CHAMPAGNE

"WCTU DEMANDS CENSORSHIP OF SHIRLEY'S FIRST COCKTAIL IN MOVIE" (1946)—"A story appeared saying I had to play a scene pretending to be giddy on champagne. The scene wasn't filmed. The camera crew walked out saying they didn't want to see me acting drunk in a movie."

"SHIRLEY TEMPLE TO RECEIVE FILM BONUS OF $300,000" (1940)—"The money had accumulated over a period of years. I remember my dad saying it wasn't fair—we had to pay almost all of it in income tax."

"SHIRLEY TEMPLE BECOMES MOTHER" (1948)—"I'm lucky to be alive. They almost lost me."

Yes, Shirley Temple will write her autobiography some day. "Maybe five years from now," she said. "I'm too busy now with my children. And now television—I'll have to include that in my book."

Youth Crimes Hit New Peak

California Officials See Rise Continuing Due to Unemployment

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—California officials said today juvenile delinquency has hit an all-time peak in the state and is continuing upward. They blame the unemployment situation.

Heman G. Stark, director of the California Youth Authority, termed the increase in juvenile crimes unprecedented.

"We handle an average of 350 cases per month," he said. "In January we had 418 and there's no doubt February will go over 400.

"Our juvenile halls are overcrowded and the jails are filled to capacity."

The courts may make juvenile offenders wards of the CYA, which is then responsible for detention and rehabilitation. At the end of January the population in CYA facilities was 3,878.

Noting that the majority of offenses are committed by youths 16 and older, Stark said in an interview: "These are the ones just out of high school and entering the labor market. When unemployment strikes, they are the first to suffer."

With nothing to keep them busy, they find themselves with time and don't know what to do with it, he added.

"It progresses from mischief to crime to violence. And crimes of violence are accounting for the majority of the present increase in juvenile offenses."

The CYA chief blamed television for some of the violence.

"That's where they learn how it is done," he said.

McElroy Snubbing Idea of Single Chief

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense McElroy apparently doesn't regard the idea of a single military chief of staff as the solution to the nation's defense problems.

"That idea was not pressed on me by my consultants," McElroy said yesterday on his return from a long weekend conference in Puerto Rico with senior military and civilian advisers on various proposals.

Without elaborating, the defense chief said much of the discussion centered on ways of streamlining the Pentagon and the military services "to get more rapid decisions." The proposal of some critics for designation of a single chief of staff, he added, was "not under predominant consideration."

McElroy said recommendations for reorganization of the defense establishment will be submitted to Eisenhower "late in March."

She's 10 Years Older but Prettiest of the Lot

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—I was sitting at a Latin Quarter chorus girl rehearsal when one of the big wheels looked up wearily at the unkempt, unmade-up kids in their unglamorous looking practice outfits.

"They look awful, don't they?" I said.

"They look like tired anchovies," he nodded. But then his eye fell on something lovely.

"Except Kitty Rowland!" he said. She was a 5-feet-8½-inch redhead out of Wichita and Chicago. "That's the kind we USED to get! Beautiful—and REALLY stacked! Where are those girls now? WHERE ARE THEY?"

"Can they all be in television—or are they married and settled down?" I wondered.

Because Kitty, the girl he was so enthusiastic about, is the mother of Dennis Rowland, 9; Mark Rowland 8, and Deborah Rowland 4½. She's the wife of Bill Rowland, a meat salesman, and every night, she and another girl drive out to Levittown and she joins the family around 4 a.m.

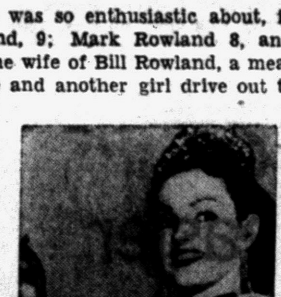
"Funny part of it is that 10 years ago Kitty was here as a dancer, then quit to get married, and just came back," they'll tell you.

"Yes, 10 years ago," Kitty said. "Willie Howard was the star here then.

"It's not necessary for me to work," Kitty explained. "Bill's salary is adequate. But I like a little extra. Bill's home at night and I guess he gets tired of being the mother once in a while. I'm off Sunday —I insisted on that."



KITTY

Kitty was 16 when "Blossom Time" came to Wichita and she went backstage to collect autographs. "I joined the company in Kansas City."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Polly Bergen continues her live TV shows 'til June, then hosts a filmed show or produces a summer spot for her sponsor. (Won't continue on same basis next year.)

Ted Williams'll make a movie about fishing in Puerto Rico after the baseball season . . . Wealthy Hope Hampton says she's refused a $1,000-a-week offer to sing in a N.Y. cafe: "Why should I work for such little money? I don't need it" . . . William Holden's new $20,000 car has a bar and two beds . . . Oddity: Charles Laughton, up for an Academy Award for "Witness for the Prosecution," was the first actor signed for Alec Guinness' "River Kwai" role—for which Alec was also nominated.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Comedienne Marge Cameron describes her cousin: "Tall, broad shouldered, with big muscles and a mustache. Aside from that, though, she's a lovely girl." . . . That's earl, brother.

Minnesota Educator Urges:

Aid Slow Learners

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Slow learners are the forgotten fifth of America's students and deserve a better break, a Minnesota educator said today.

All too often, said R. A. Tiegs of Robbinsdale, Minn., the slow learners are merely tolerated and permitted to fail. They drop out of school after becoming convinced through repeated failure that they are of little consequence.

And yet, Tiegs told the convention of the American Assn. of School Administrators, these are young people who will "do their share of the work of the world.

"They will cast their votes, they will participate in the activities of labor unions and farm organizations. They will make homes."

Tiegs said about 18 of every 100 school-age children are slow learners, with IQs of about 75 to 89. This does not include the two children in every 100 so mentally retarded that special education is required for them.

Many of the slow learners reveal unexpected aptitudes when given the proper opportunities, Tiegs said.

"Americans cannot afford waste in education," he said. The slow learners must be identified as early as possible, he said, and special classes must be set up to give them the education they need.

Sewer Back-Up Barred by Rubber-Cone Cover

CHICAGO — A rubber-cone drain cover that is said to prevent basement flooding due to sewers' backing up during heavy rains has been developed by a Chicago concern.

The cone fits over the drain and is held in place by a crossbar forced down between the drain bars and turned to straddle them underneath. It has a spring safety valve designed to release excessive air and back-water pressure.

Trunk-Lid Signs Aid Police in Accidents

LOS ANGELES — Detour signs painted on the inside of their patrol-car or motorcycle trunk lids simplify the task of Los Angeles police in routing approaching traffic around the scene of an accident.

When they stop for an accident, they need only raise the trunk lid to detour oncoming vehicles.

Trying Tranquilizers on Prison Inmates

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Tests on 60 unstable inmates at the Oklahoma State Penitentiary, McAlester, showed they did not become addicted to tranquilizer pills over a 12-week period.

Dr. Austin R. Stough, prison physician, writing in the Journal of the American Medical Assn., said he found a small percentage of the men experienced an "undesirable reaction" when the drug —meprobamate — was withdrawn abruptly.

All the inmates tested had a history of injury, illness or other abnormality. Some were formerly addicted to narcotics or alcohol, Stough wrote. He said all patients returned to their former mental and physical status within 48 hours.

Dog Bite Costs $1,000; Causes Wife to Bark

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Mrs. Ora Klar, 54, was awarded $1,000 damages in Fayette Circuit Court as a result of being bitten on the mouth by a dog a year ago.

The bite left its mark emotionally, Mrs. Klar said. She testified when her husband kisses her she sometimes thinks of dogs.

Said her husband, Jacob Klar: "Now she barks at me and pushes me away when I try to kiss her."

Security for You

Oldster Hunting Job Must Sell Himself

Job hunting for an older person often poses problems that seem almost impossible to beat.

But, they can be beaten. Thousands are doing so every week. The proof is in the fact that nearly one out of four persons 65 or over is working.

If you're an older worker looking for a job, your approach has a lot to do with whether you get it. At least, that's the view of an experienced job counselor whom I asked about "the approach" the other day. Here were his tips:

First, analyze yourself and your job capabilities and, then, make a list of your skills, training, experience, etc. Your employer will be looking for abilities. Be ready to show what yours are.

Next, make a list of your limitations. Your prospective employer will know that in a person your age certain limitations may exist. For example: The hours you can work, how far you can travel to your job and how much physical work you can do.

You should also make a list of your previous employers, the types of job you held and the wages you earned. If possible, you should get letters from previous employers attesting to your good service, skills and other things they found commendable in you.

Now you're ready to face an employer. If you haven't already got some sources of your own, try these on for size:

1. Visit your nearest United States Employment Service office (USES). Most USES offices have a section dealing entirely with older workers. They may be able to give you the names of a number of possible employers.

2. Carefully study the help-wanted ads in this newspaper. You also should try placing an ad describing your qualifications in the situation wanted in this paper. Some employers recruit workers entirely from such ads.

3. Look in the classified ad section of your telephone directory. If you see a specialty in which you have some skills, go to the advertiser and tell him about it.

4. Visit business firms and other establishments in your community where you think there might be jobs. Don't be afraid to ask. You may walk in off the street with exactly what is needed in an employe.

Remember, in applying for a job, you'll be competing with other, and mostly younger, workers for the same job. So, you've got to sell yourself. Be sure that your manner of approach, your dress and your preparation for the job interview are as perfect as you can make them.

If, after an interview, you're turned down for the job, ask your interviewer for his comments. Was there something wrong? Is there some way you can improve your approach? Has he any idea what other employers may be looking for?

In leaving an employer's office without the job you hoped to get, don't be afraid to let him know you may be available in the future. Show him you mean this, it will do no harm to check back with him after your interview. Employers are often as impressed by your desire to work as they are by your ability.

Don't get discouraged at a "no." Many workers younger than yourself are getting nays, too.

Two Hungarians Sentenced to Prison

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. (AP) — Two young men who fled Hungary in 1956 during an anti-Soviet revolt were sentenced yesterday to five years in Elmira Reformatory as burglars.

"Ignoring the kindness of this government and the people of the United States," Dutchell County Judge John R. Schwartz said, "you passed up the opportunities given to you to come, quite frankly, thieves and burglars."

Sandor Feigler, 18, a former student at Bard College, Annandale, N.Y., and Tibor Kepes, 23, an electrician, both had entered pleas of guilty in connection with two burglaries of a Hyde Park, N.Y., residence last year.
