Serve Charges—Suspend Police Chief Straley

Charged with insubordination, incompetency and inefficiency, Herbert W. Straley today was under suspension from his job as Pontiac chief of police

The suspension, without pay, was effected at 11 a.m., when the 54-year-old police chief was served with charges filed yesterday afternoon by City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Signed by Public Safety Director George D. Eastman, the papers contained a list of allegations by which the Civil Service Commission is asked to fire Straley permanently.

The chief has until Friday to answer the charges and demand a hearing if he wants one.

If he does, the Civil Service Commission must schedule a hearing by Feb. 19. If he doesn't, the suspension will automatically become permanent.

Eastman said Straley would be asked to turn in the badge he has worn as police chief for the past seven years.

The chief recently took out a gun permit and might be legally allowed to keep his .38 caliber police pistol.

The long-awaited charges were finally filed at 3:15 p.m. yesterday after failure of efforts to persuade the chief to resign and avoid an open hearing before the Civil Service Commission.

Under a 90-day statute of limitations, the administration had until yesterday to charge Straley with anything that occurred while he still enjoyed full powers.

The charges alleged that poor conditions existed within the police department under Straley, up to the time he was shorn of powers by Eastman Nov. 12.

After 20 hours of secrecy, during which the charges were kept from the public, Stuart Austin, chairman of the Civil Service Commission, opened them up to inspection late this morning.

He said they had been kept under wraps until a copy had been served on Straley.

In addition to incompetency, inefficiency and insubordination, Straley was accused by Eastman of "deliberately disobeying" specific instructions.

Straley's vice squad policy was placed under fire and he was accused personally of "failure to maintain good behavior."

The chief was blamed for low morale, criticized for failure to put the Public Administration Service recommendations into effect, and called down for "improper external relations" and "strong indications of personal prejudice."

Few, if any, of the charges were new to the long battle Straley has had inside and outside the police department in recent months.

Many of the complaints were similar to those sounded in the past by rank-and-file police officers. Others reflected developments that occurred after the spotlight was turned on Pontiac vice conditions last fall.

Allegations in insubordination and disobedience were expected to carry the most weight if a hearing takes place.

Specific instances were outlined by the charges.

"The chief has consistently refused and neglected to do assigned work within ascribed time limits," the charges stated.

They outlined six routine assignments Straley was given and said

Twister Strikes City

TOWER TOPPLED — A section of KTVI-TV transmitting tower lies across a wrecked house and cars in St. Louis after it was blown to the ground by the tornado.

Killer Tornado Hits Heart of St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A tornado struck a deadly blow at the heart of St. Louis today without warning.

Eighteen were known dead. Another 265 were injured, 55 seriously.

Numerous persons were trapped in homes and apartments which crumpled under the storm's blows.

The storm took the same path of this city's worst tornado which killed more than 100 in 1927.

Men worked throughout the night, searching the fallen bricks, concrete and lumber.

The tornado hit at 2:12 a.m. First it hit two suburbs, Brentwood and Crestwood in southwest St. Louis County; then moved northeast into St. Louis. It took its toll in an area bounded roughly by Olive St., Grand Blvd., Newstead and St. Louis avenues. This is a mile west of downtown St. Louis.

LASHED BY RAIN

St. Louis was lashed by torrential rains for hours before the tornado struck.

The tornado delivered its hardest blows in a section of tenement houses occupied mostly by Negroes.

All but three of 16 bodies taken to the city morgue were those of Negroes. Seven of the dead were children under the age of 11.

On all sides there was tragedy and destruction. One father was pulled from the rubble, his dead son in his arms.

Both City Hospital and Homer G. Phillips Hospital were swamped with the injured.

Thirteen were dead upon arrival at City Hospital, and four at Homer G. Phillips.

All police and fire equipment was rushed into the area. Streets were barricaded. Live electrical wires curled in the streets. Pow was cut off to the stricken zone. Police patroled the darkened streets with flashlights.

The 575-foot tower at television station KTVI was toppled in St. Louis. It fell across two houses but no one was reported injured. The 385-foot-tower at radio station KXLW also crashed. It fell on part of the station where Bob Hetherington, the general manager, and four others had gone to inspect flood damage.

William McAllister was just closing up a filling station when he was caught in the path of the tornado.

"There was a terrific glow of light as if a cloud was illuminated and there was a sound like the roar of a tremendous automobile racing its engine," he said.

"Within two minutes the sound of the storm had passed and there was a terrific silence."

The Civil Defense went into full-scale operation for the first time since it was organized here in 1951.

Brig. Gen. Francis P. Hardaway (Ret), St. Louis Civil Defense head, pushed coordination of both rescue and rehabilitation work. Hardaway reported some looting. Eighty National Guardsmen were ordered to stand by.

Dulles Smiling as He Enters Army Hospital

Plans Hernia Surgery; Doctor Says Secretary Needs Long Rest

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles, walking slowly but smiling, checked into the hospital today for a hernia operation.

The secretary entered the Army's Walter Reed Medical Center at 10:28 a.m., EST. He was met by the hospital commandant, Maj. Gen. Leonard D. Heaton.

Heaton, a surgeon who will do the operation, told newsmen he expected it would be done either Friday or early next week. He said there was no rush since it is not an emergency.

Read Dulles Story Page 2 and 10

"Good morning," Dulles said to Heaton, "this is getting to be familiar ground."

Dulles laughed heartily at his own joke about his recently frequent trips to Walter Reed. He underwent surgery for cancer of the lower intestine two years ago, was treated for a colon inflammation in December and for a virus infection in January.

Heaton said it would take about two weeks for Dulles to recuperate from the operation. He said Dulles also will be treated for his colon inflammation, which has resisted medication.

He said that treatment will require several weeks of rest.

"The secretary is worn out," Heaton said. "He needs a rest."

Judge Trombly Changes Mind

Macomb County Jurist Asks That Request to Retire Be Ignored

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP)—Probate Judge Joseph B. Trombly changed his mind today and asked that his request to retire be ignored.

He submitted the request last Wednesday, along with a request for a physical examination, at the urging of various groups, including the Macomb County Bar Assn.

The bar association also asked the Michigan Probate Judges Assn. to investigate Trombly's work as judge.

Trombly appeared on the bench today and released a letter to Lawrence Farrell, secretary of the Probate Judges Retirement Assn., asking that his request for retirement be withdrawn.

The Probate Judges Assn. was due to meet tomorrow to consider the matter.

As probate judge, Trombly receives $15,000 annually. If retired he would receive a pension of $6,000 annually.

At Lansing, Lawrence L. Farrell, executive secretary of the State Employes Retirement Board, said Trombly telephoned him on the matter and was told to submit the withdrawal request in writing.

He said that since it was a voluntary proceeding initiated by Trombly he assumed the withdrawal request would be granted but that the decision was up to the retirement board.

The five-member board meets at 11 a.m. Wednesday. It is composed of Aud. Gen. Frank S. Szymanski, State Treasurer Sanford A. Brown, Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams, State School Supt. Lynn M. Bartlett and Atty. Edward Ryan of Kalamazoo, a governor's appointee.

Sand Barrel Salvation

VITAL COMMODITY — Dipping down into a Huron Street sand barrel, Detroit Edison employe Paul A. Verhey, of 4173 Athens St., Waterford Township, comes to the aid of a motorist having trouble making the slight hill in front of the Edison building. Traffic backed up out Huron Street as the ice-glazed street left work-bound motorists fruitlessly spinning their wheels.

Treacherous Ice Glazes Roads, Closes Schools

Motorists Risk Lives as Well as Fenders to Get to Work

The whine of spinning wheels, growls of exasperated drivers and chip-chip-chip of windshield scrapers were woven into a treacherous symphony of nature today, with freezing rain the central theme again.

Pontiac and most of the Lower Peninsula were locked in the tenacious grip of sleet, and streets, yards and sidewalks once more took on the appearance of one giant ice rink.

If they wasn't bad enough, a forecast of heavy snow—up to four inches—was issued at noon today.

There was hardly a road in this part of the state that wasn't either completely impassable or snarled as screeching tires got nowhere on ice-covered surfaces.

Schools by the score in Oakland County were closed.

Many arose this morning, took a peek outside at the glaze, and called their bosses and said they wouldn't be in. Absenteeism was reported high.

For those who risked their fenders — and in some cases their lives to make it to work — they wished they had stayed in bed.

Bagwell Asks Local GOP 'Restore Lincoln's Image'

Paul D. Bagwell, who found himself unexpectedly placed in the role of Lincoln Day speaker in Berkley last night, called upon local Republicans to restore to the party the image of "greatest of all Americans."

Some 548 Republicans braved rain and fog to pack the Northwood Inn expecting to hear Secretary of the Army Wilber B. Brucker as keynoter for the 69th annual Oakland County Lincoln Day banquet.

But Brucker was weather-bound in Ottawa, Canada. A hurried call to County Congressman William S. Broomfield, a half hour after the dinner began, told of his plight.

So instead the men and women were welcomed with a familiar greeting: "Hello, I'm Paul Bagwell, and I'm scared to death."

Bagwell, originally scheduled as master of ceremonies, was forced to hastily scribble notes while others munched on their tenderloin steak dinners. He also called upon his press secretary to pull out one of the prepared speeches he had for seven other Lincoln Day banquets this week.

"If you're disappointed that Secretary Brucker isn't going to speak," Bagwell told the gathering, "you can imagine how disappointed I am."

However, banquet-goers were far

Fail to Dislodge Bills on Vets Trust Fund

LANSING (AP)—Backers failed today in an attempt to pry the veterans trust fund mortgage bills out of the House Ways and Means Committee.

However, Rep. Arnell Engstrom chairman, said another vote will be taken soon, perhaps later today.

With two members absent, Engstrom said, the tally on a motion to advance the four bills for floor debate was 6 to 5 in favor, with seven affirmative votes required.

Christians to Mark Start of Lenten Period

Christians in Pontiac and throughout the world will mark the beginning of the 40-day Lenten period of penance and self-denial on Ash Wednesday, tomorrow.

Many churches will open their doors for special devotions to point up this most solemn season of the liturgical year.

The period of Lent follows a tradition which Christ himself instituted when He fasted 40 days in the wilderness in preparation for His public ministry and crucifixion.

In Catholic and some Episcopal churches, the faithful will receive the mark of ashes on their foreheads. The ceremony is a symbolic one—a reminder to Christians that the body and all earthly things must eventually become dust and only the spirit has eternal life.

Churches which have reported special Ash Wednesday and Lenten week day devotions include:

All Saints Episcopal Church will hold both 7 a.m. and 10 a.m. Holy Communion services tomorrow, as well as an 8 p.m. service. The Rev. C. George Widdifield, rector, will give the sermon at the evening worship period.

The Rev. David K. Mills will be the speaker at noon tomorrow in the first of a Lenten series of noon luncheon talks at All Saints. Weekly Bible study at 8 p.m. Wednesdays will be observed, and a series for children will be held from 4:15 to 5 p.m. each Monday.

The imposing of ashes—procured through burning palms left over from the previous year's Palm Sunday—will take place in all Roman Catholic churches.

In most churches, the ashes will be blessed just before the first Mass tomorrow.

St. Joseph Catholic Church will distribute ashes following a noon Mass and at 7:30 in the evening. Services will be held at 7:30 p.m. every Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of Lent, with the Rev. Dr. B. F. Jarzembowski, pastor, giving the sermon at all services.

St. Vincent de Paul Church will distribute ashes following the 6 a.m., 8 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. Masses tomorrow, and from 3 to 4 in the afternoon, as well as after the 7:30 evening service.

St. Frederick High School students will start a three-day retreat, with daily talks by the Rev. Raymond N. Ellis, archdiocese assistant director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

Friday night devotions, with sermons by the Rev. John Hardy, pastor of St. Anne Catholic Church of Ortonville, also will be held at 7:30 at St. Vincent's, as well as the regular 7:30 p.m. devotions each Tuesday.

At St. Michael Catholic Church, ashes will be distributed after all

President Calls Dulles 'Most Valuable Man'

Keego Harbor Sewer OK Raises County Aid Question

A possible precedent was seen yesterday as the Oakland County Board of Supervisors approved the construction and operation of a $480,520 sewer system in Keego Harbor by the Department of Public Works.

"Where do we stop?" inquired Albert J. Weinburger, South Lyon supervisor. "Can other cities get this same kind of help?"

Weinburger and several other supervisors questioned the DPW construction of the sewer in Keego Harbor, a planned facility to collect and transport sewage to the proposed Farmington sanitary interceptor system.

Supervisors for the most part found it hard to believe that the county would build and operate the sewer without any expense to the county, as outlined by Louis H. Schimmel, financial consultant to Keego Harbor.

The DPW would "float" the general obligation bond issue, with the county being paid back over a 30-year bond period from revenues collected from connection, service charges and general tax levies against Keego Harbor residents.

Fred L. Yockey, Huntington Woods supervisor, cautioned against the Department setting up a sewer for a single community.

When the county came under a 1957 Department of Public Works Act, it was so that the county could plan and initiate sewer disposal and water supply projects involving several communities which otherwise could not undertake such work.

Such is the case of the new Keego Harbor sewer, insisted Schimmel and Hiland M. Thatcher, DPW secretary and West Bloomfield supervisor.

Keego Harbor, Thatcher said, does not have the bonding capacity to build the sewer and also meet its obligations to the county in the $5,107,000 Farmington interceptor project.

Fears that the county "would get stuck" for paying for the new sewer, should Keego Harbor not be able to meet costs, were allayed when Thatcher stressed the county was not pledging its full faith and credit behind this DPW project, like it does for others.

Collateral, Schimmel pointed out, would come from service charges and advalorem taxes to the users.

Delos Hamlin, chairman of the supervisors and DPW board, defended use of the provisions of the DPW act for the Keego Harbor sewer as not being out of line.

After the discussions, a contract between the city and DPW was approved without a "no" being cast in opposition.

In other DPW matters taken up yesterday, supervisors approved new resolutions reflecting increased costs to the communities to be served by the Farmington and Evergreen sanitary sewer systems.

Costs—boosted from the time a year ago when engineering estimates were made—showed a new price tag of $5,107,000 on the Farmington sewer, up from $4,900,000, and a new cost of $6,919,000 for the Evergreen, up from $6,175,000.

Upon the insistence of Southfield Supervisor Donald L. Swanson, it was emphasized by R. J. Alexander, deputy DPW director, that a $200 connection charge to users "will be sufficient to absorb the increase" without added costs to citizens.

Supervisors also formally accepted a federal grant of $399,600 for further planning for the Clinton River sewage disposal area to the east of Pontiac.

Was Eastman's Action Illegal?

City Attorney Ewart to Give Answer to Straley Forces on Commission

Did Public Safety Director George D. Eastman illegally strip Police Chief Herbert W. Straley of powers last Nov. 12?

City Attorney William A. Ewart was to give an answer to that question to pro-Straley forces on the City Commission tonight.

Meeting in the wake of Straley's suspension, commissioners may be asked to consider charges against Eastman, if it is believed that he acted contrary to the provisions of civil service.

Commissioner Robert A. Landry, who last week demanded Eastman's ouster, was expected to lead the attack against Eastman, if one develops.

Landry has warned the public safety director to restore Straley to power "or else."

Straley, however, remained shorn of powers until his suspension yesterday.

Siding with Landry is Commissioner Milton R. Henry, who also called for Eastman's ouster.

Also up for Commission consideration is a petition from the Oakland County Table Toppers Assn., calling for an election April 6 to repeal an ordinance setting 2 p.m. as the Sunday opening time for Pontiac taverns.

Commissioners have to place the issue on the ballot, unless they decide to repeal the ordinance themselves.

Bids for purchase of four homes on the Pontiac General Hospital parking lot site are to be considered. They were opened yesterday.

A READY SUBSTITUTE — Paul D. Bagwell, new titular head of the Michigan Republican Party, walked into Northwood Inn last night to be met by a reception committee which informed him he would have to deliver the key address at the Lincoln Day banquet. Despite being unprepared, Bagwell met the unexpected news with a smile while he talked with former Oakland County Congressman George A. Dondero, an expert on Lincoln lore.

'Restore Lincoln's Image' — Bagwell

from downhearted in their state party leader, already singled out as their 1960 gubernatorial candidate. Bagwell gave Gov. Williams one of his closest battles in several campaigns in last November's balloting.

Bagwell, now director of scholarships at Michigan State University, got two standing ovations as he urged workers to forget the November "national catastrophe" and "return the Republican party to the image of the great humane party built by Abraham Lincoln."

Encouraged by the gains made in Michigan as compared to other states, Bagwell asked for a "start now" campaign in order to keep the drive for victory alive.

In addition, he said the Michigan GOP needs to continue to fight off a "rear-guard action" of pessimism symbolized by many, he said, who asked him in the last campaign "do you think you stand a chance of winning."

"The party can be restored to a position of influence if we go out and build a platform on strong issues, avoiding the radical extremes that characterizes the opposition party," he said.

As Republicans hope to erase Democratic claims that the GOP is an anti-labor party, Bagwell urged reorganization at the grass roots level to include members of labor unions.

Switching over to his prepared speech for the other dinner, Bagwell said, "We live in a period in history that demands the best we can give."

"It's an awesome era of rockets, trips to the moon, and hydrogen and atomic bombs. But these will not be the final measure of our destiny.

"The ultimate measure of our nation and age will be found in the principle for which we stand. We will fail or win not by atomic energy but by moral energy," Bagwell said.

The country needs "a Lincoln image of the Republican party genuinely concerned for all and not just a certain group of people," he said.

Radical programs of the Democrats are dangerous, Bagwell said, "not because they provide too much but because they provide too little."

Although Bagwell made no mention of the state's current financial headache—which Republicans have laid in the lap of Gov. Williams—they heard from Oakland County Lincoln Republican Club President, Gordon D. Haupt, that Lincoln too had some ideas of money problems.

Haupt borrowed, "you cannot help the poor by destroying the rich" and "you cannot spend more than you earn" quotes from the party martyr to show Lincoln had such awareness "which we need now in Michigan."

Haupt introduced Broomfield, who said the Republicans "stand the best chance of electing a governor because this fiscal situation has finally caught up with Williams."

BROOMFIELD GETS WORD — William S. Broomfield, Oakland County's U. S. Representative in Congress, picked up the phone at the Northwood Inn in Berkley last night to learn from Secretary of the Army Wilber M. Brucker that he was stranded by the weather in Ottawa, Canada. Brucker was scheduled to be principal speaker at the Lincoln Day banquet put on by the County Lincoln Republican Club.

Sees No Delay in Berlin Talks

Ike Says He Is Not Planning on Accepting Russian Invitation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower predicted today that Secretary of State Dulles' illness will cause no delay in Western talks with the Soviets about German problems.

Eisenhower spoke at a news conference just after Dulles had entered Walter Reed Army Hospital for a hernia operation. The secretary expects to be out of action for some weeks.

In his news conference statement Eisenhower praised Dulles as the most valuable man he has ever known in the foreign affairs field.

He also made clear that he resents the harsh criticism of American leaders and policy which Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev coupled last week to an invitation for Eisenhower himself to visit the Soviet Union.

Eisenhower said he understands Khrushchev is more concerned about having an informal heads of government meeting than about having a session of foreign ministers.

A summit conference, Eisenhower said, would require even more time to prepare.

In any case the President expects Dulles to be back on the job in time to contribute to the preparations. Once his hernia operation is out of the way, Eisenhower said, Dulles will have more time to think about U. S. policy on such issues as the future of Germany.

Eisenhower made these points bearing on his ailing secretary and the conduct of foreign affairs:

Dulles is the most valuable man Eisenhower has ever known in the management of U. S. foreign policy and the President believes every clear thinking person in the United States will pray for his early recovery—because America needs him.

Eisenhower noted that in the same talk in which he spoke of a possible Eisenhower visit to Russia, Khrushchev denounced U. S. leaders. He said he would have to have a more persuasive kind of invitation than that if he were to consider such a proposition seriously.

Eisenhower believes Dulles' latest mission to Europe, on which he visited London, Paris and Bonn, produced greater unity of purpose and determination among the United States, Britain, France and West Germany about dealing with Russia on its threat to West Berlin.

Eisenhower today voiced belief that some American planes have been lured across Iron Curtain country borders by false radio signals.

Eisenhower told a news conference that American pilots have strict orders not to play a fox and hound game by flying along Soviet borders in order to gain intelligence information.

Dulles in Hospital for Hernia Surgery

His ailment, kept secret for more than a month, was disclosed by President Eisenhower Monday night as Dulles asked and got a formal leave of absence. It immediately posed two big questions.

Will Dulles, who will be 71 on Feb. 25, return to his post?

Will the West, with an ailing Dulles or without him at all, revise its just a-borning policy toward new Soviet threats and demands on Germany?

Both Dulles and presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty sought to give assurances on those questions. Dulles said he would be gone for "a few weeks" only. Hagerty said Dulles would not only return but would represent the United States in any talks with the Soviet Union on the Berlin crisis.

Dulles' ability to shrug off illness and put in a grinding day is almost legend. But on Capitol Hill there was less optimism about Dulles' power to snap back completely from his third illness in as many months.

And the State Department, driving to develop a solid-front Allied response to the Soviets, pondered the effect of the absence of a chief who likes to do most of the heavy work himself.

Under Secretary C. Douglas Dillon took over as acting secretary. Under Secretary Christian Herter, who outranks Dillon, will relieve him Sunday, upon return from a South Carolina vacation.

Dulles' disclosure came about nine hours after he returned from critical talks with top leaders in London, Paris and Bonn. He had made the trip wearing a truss to ease a left inguinal (groin) hernia. He had also taken along medication for a persistent inflammation of the colon.

The Day in Birmingham

Kresge Continues Fight on Maple-Bates Alley

BIRMINGHAM—The S. S. Kresge Co. clung stubbornly to its objection to the Maple-Bates alley construction even as commissioners approved a special assessment district last night.

From the start, the Kresge firm has said the alley is of no benefit and has wanted no part of the district. The company has its own loading dock and parking area.

Commissioners took no action on the proposed sale and rezoning of lots along Quarton Lake. H. M. Merker of 1044 Lakeside Dr. filed formal objections saying he felt that the land should remain in the flood-plain area.

City officials, in consideration of Merker's objections, will reconsider the idea early in June. Careful study of the area will be made during the spring run-off to determine flood-plain needs.

Anthony Genna, owner of property on N. Woodward avenue, was given permission to grade and pave Island View drive where it adjoins his property. Commissioners said the drive could be used only for access to the property. The city will not be responsible for maintenance of the area.

City Manager L. R. Gare was asked to study the parking situation on Merrill street after Mrs. Jack A. Anderson of 475 Merrill St., reported that all-day parking in front of her two-family house results in cars continuously blocking entry at her door from the street.

The Michigan Division of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Assn. will hold its spring council beginning at 10 a.m. Thursday at the Oakland Hills Country Club. Forums on education and conservation will be held.

Following the noon luncheon and club reports, a demonstration lecture on arrangements will be given by Mrs. Inez Turner Burkett, noted horticulturist.

The young people of the First Presbyterian Church will begin Lenten activities tomorrow with a worship service and breakfast at 6:30 a.m. The service is being sponsored by the Youth Session of the church.

---

The Birmingham Unitarian Women's Alliance will hold a tea from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Frederick Robinson of 287 Pilgrim Ave. Mrs. Arthur Salley of Drayton Plains, one of the early presidents of the Birmingham group, will pour.

Chief Straley Suspended Pending Hearing

he either delayed or failed altogether to do the work.

One job was an assigned report on the Public Administration Service study, a task Eastman gave to Straley Nov. 4. The chief has never turned a report in, the charges alleged.

Straley was asked to take a day-long examination given to all command officers Nov. 26, the charges stated, but for various reasons failed to complete the examination until Dec. 15.

Eastman charged that last October Straley ordered new uniforms without first consulting Eastman, as he had been ordered to.

The monitoring system, which the chief had installed in the Public Safety Building a year ago, also came up in the charges.

Eastman said he once asked Straley if he could use his master set to hear what went on in Eastman's office. The chief first said, "no," the charges alleged; later said, "no, not unless the set is turned on."

Still later, Eastman said, it was discovered that the chief could monitor "any conversation carried on in any office."

This situation, he charged, "exerted a depressing effect on officer morale."

Under the heading of neglect of duty, Straley was charged with (1) failure to provide an adequate training program for personnel of any rank; (2) failure to properly uniform personnel of the department; and (3) failure to establish an effective vice suppression program.

The charges went into detail about the latter accusation. They read:

"Written directives (by Straley) formulating vice policy were totally non-existant. Police personnel were confused and unaware of vice repression objectives or policies.

"Field support (of the vice squad) from other operating bureaus and units was ineffectual and almost non-existant.

"Vice unit personnel were not always selected on the basis of merit.

"The chief both orally and in writing expressed doubts as to the integrity and loyality of his own appointees to the vice unit and, in some instances, employed assignment to the unit as a disciplinary measure."

Straley was also childed for failure to maintain good behavior.

He was charged with improperly upbraiding a police captain in the presence of lesser officers on one occasion, and on another allegedly scolded a police lieutenant "for spreading rumors about him."

It was alleged that during a Circuit Court suit last September, Straley lost his temper after police officers testified he had illegally withheld their promotions.

"If those — — — officers think they can sit in court all day and get paid for it, they have another think coming," Straley was quoted as saying during recess in the hallway.

"They won't get a —— cent. I'll see to that and I don't give a —— what the judge says."

On a fourth occasion, Straley was accused of saying of a police captain, "That —— is telling everyone in town that I belong in Jackson prison."

This statement, it was alleged, was made by Straley in a loud voice in his office, with the door open so that officers overheard it.

The largest single section of charges was devoted to inefficiency and incompetency.

Straley was charged with failure to provide the division with an adequate records system, and with failing to carry out a planning and research program in the division.

It was also charged that Straley "does not have a working knowledge of administrative formula and statistics that would provide him measures of effectiveness."

The charges continued that the chief "has consistently failed to delegate responsibility and commensurate authority to Bureau and Unit commanders."

"He has failed to take advantage of a blueprint for departmental improvement drawn by the Public Administration Service in its report submitted to the city April 21, 1958."

Straley was also cited for failure to "devise and administer an effective and consistent disciplinary program and failure to establish a continuing program for evaluation of police personnel of all ranks."

The chief, it was charged, "lacks personal qualities of leadership."

Straley was accused of 11 improper external relations, strong indications of personal prejudice in personnel relations and inconsistent applications of rules and applications of rules and regula-regulations."

The charges also alleged failure to properly coordinate operations, low morale on the police force, and lack of divisional efficiency and production learned through "careful observation during the period of Oct. 7 through Nov. 10, which required the assignment of Chief of Police of Pontiac to special duties on Nov. 12."

Killer Tornado Hits Heart of St. Louis

Arena, scene of many of a world's championship fight, was sheared off and a top section of a television tower fell in its parking lot nearby.

The storm smashed into a building adjoining the Arena. There a rolling skating rink was wrecked.

A newspaper vendor, Guy Gross, 62, was on the street to sell papers in a night club area when the storm struck.

"I saw a blue flash of light and I heard a terrible roar," he said. "It shook the ground. There was not any warning and the wind seemed to stay forever."

A brick chimney toppled at McAuley Hall, a Roman Catholic home for women workers where about 150 persons were asleep. It fell onto a separate structure to the rear, killing two maintenance men employed by the home.

Nearly all of the occupants of the home slept through the storm, Sister Mary Xavier reported.

The area around Busch Stadium, home of the St. Louis Cardinals baseball team, also was hit. There a number of persons were buried in the rubble. The ball park was undamaged.

Numerous fires broke out but they were brought quickly under control. Gas mains were shut off after breaks were reported.

Five children of one Negro family were being cared for at Homer G. Phillips Hospital. Their parents were missing, but the hospital said an aunt has been located.

as they went to the side of the road to get sand and salt to give their stalled cars some traction.

Many gave up and just left their cars by the side of the roads.

But they didn't find going by foot any easier than by car. Walking was treacherous.

Huge trucks, with spinning rear wheels, caused giant traffic jams in the Pontiac area. One such snarl happened before 8 a.m. at the Telegraph road by-pass just south of Orchard Lake avenue.

The weather man said the freezing rain and sleet which struck hard early this morning, will change to snow by tonight.

A snowfall of one to three inches is expected by Wednesday morning. Temperatures will drop from highs of 35 this afternoon to lows of between 8 and 12 above zero tonight.

Airports in the state were forced to curtail service when a blanket of fog spread over southern Michigan last night on the heels of a day of freezing and sometimes just plain rain. The freezing rain hit again about 1 a.m.

Some roads were made more of a nightmare because of deep puddles of water that had collected from the heavy rain.

Hazardous driving warnings were posted for throughout southern Michigan.

Motorists were aided somewhat when salt and sand trucks were dispatched. Many of these vehicles couldn't get by jackknifed trucks and cars to do their work, in some instances.

Joseph B. Jewell, superintendent of Pontiac's Department of Public Works, said the storm made roads in the city just about as bad as on New Year's Eve.

Eleven trucks spreading sand and salt, and three graders trying to remove the slush from the streets were dispatched at 6:30 a.m. At 11 a.m. Jewell still described the city streets as "very bad" although he said none were closed.

Supervisor Turns Fire on Function of Auditors

Criticism was leveled at the Oakland County Board of Auditors yesterday, as supervisors decided to see what could be done in the way of reorganization of the county government without home-rule.

Birmingham Mayor and Supervisor Carl F. Ingraham said some supervisors feel "that the administrative and executive powers of the Board of Auditors are not being used to their utmost."

After the meeting, Ingraham repeated the claim, but would not single out any one board member. Nor did he spell out what these "powers" were that he had referred to.

"We have no powers. All we can do is recommend," declared Board Chairman Robert Y. Moore, an auditor since 1930, after Ingraham's remarks.

"I feel we've done a pretty good job and have fulfilled all the responsibilities given us," he added.

CALLS FOR STUDY

Ingraham, an attorney, asked Delos Hamlin, chairman of the supervisors, to have a special county government study committee make a report on what improvements might be made in Oakland's governmental structure.

"There are things that can be done under the present framework of the constitution," he declared.

Such a report from the special committee, headed by Springfield Township Supervisor John L. Carey, might show if the Board of Auditors was "utilizing all its powers," Ingraham said.

Supervisors and Hamlin agreed to having such a report prepared. When it will be ready for submission was not indicated.

Ingraham's request for the study came after Oakland supervisors endorsed a constitutional amendment providing home-rule charters for counties, despite knowing a bill calling for the amendment was killed in Lansing last week.

Ingraham, who urged and won a clause in the resolution passed Monday to protect present home-rule cities, insisted that failure of the home-rule proposal should not hamper any changes Carey's committee might come up for Oakland County.

"It's the feeling of the Board that something should be done, and that we can't afford to wait until the constitutional amendment gets on the ballot," Ingraham said.

Carey's committee has already brought about the merger of the county clerk and register of deeds office. It now is urging the consolidation of the Drain Commission office with the Department of Public Works.

If Speed's 35 M.P.H., Temperature 27, You're There!

Like to Go on a Hayride at 40 Below Zero

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Suppose a group of young people are out for a hayride some winter night. The temperature is around 27. The night is still, and doesn't seem cold.

They're bundled up just right for sitting around in this wintry weather. Then they spin along for a couple of hours at 35 miles an hour.

If the Army's experience is right, probably a good number of the hayriders will have frostbite.

For the 35-mile-an-hour ride is the same as a 35-mile-an-hour breeze. That makes the temperature equivalent to 40 below zero.

This is one discovery of painstaking Army Medical Service research. It is a sidelight, of course. The Army research men are trying to find out how to keep troops in healthy fighting condition.

ABANDON MANY IDEAS

They're especially interested in learning how to keep U. S. soldiers from becoming weather casualties.

They've abandoned a lot of ideas—the Army's old-fashioned tight-fitting long-handled winter underwear, for one.

They've discovered a number of things of value to Mr. John Civilian and his family.

Suppose the children are out playing when the temperature's 45. A moderate five-mile,an-hour breeze blows up. Then take quick action, say the Army men. For the wind will chill the children as though it was 11 below zero.

The answer isn't another sweater. The chill moves right through the loose-knit wool. What the children need is something hard-surfaced, such as a raincoat or a tight-woven jacket.

And get them in the house from labor because his program includes new tobacco taxes and a higher tax on beer.

Amid the troubles of his fellow governors, Meyner sounds as proud as the fellow who just bought a new car for cash while his neighbors are still in hock for their old ones.

His budget message last week spoke of well-advertised deficits and the need for tax increases elsewhere.

He included the federal government in this soft indictment but complained later last week that the Eisenhower administration had not budgeted enough for urban renewal projects in cities.

milk, or cocoa. This is what the Army learned in Korea and in its experiments since.

On a cold, very windy day, a light trench coat may keep a man warmer than a heavy, fuzzy woolen coat. Or a woman may be warmer in a light raincoat than in a heavy fur.

every half hour for a cup of hot

If it's hot—say 110 in the shade—don't turn on the office fan. It will only make everyone hotter.

CLOSE WINDOWS

At home, on a sweltering day, say the thermometer is over 100. Close all the windows, pull shut the drapes and the venetian blinds and close all the doors. It will keep things cooler inside.

But if the temperature is around 90, turn on the fan full blast, open all the windows and doors. A 10-mile-an-hour breeze will make it seem like 83 degrees, or rather comfortable.

If the temperature outside is a moderate 64, but the wind is 45 miles an hour, better stay inside. For anyone out will shiver as though the temperature were 10 below zero.

The right kind of a patio will make those cold, early-spring days really liveable, the Army medical research seems to show. In most places there's at least a two-mile-an-hour wind.

An enclosed patio can make a man outside feel 10 to 40 degrees warmer—10 to 15 degrees warmer when the temperature's around 60 or 70 degrees warmer when the temperature's around zero.

John Q. Civilian would find his house a lot more comfortable if he would have a portable fence. Set it up in winter to cut off the wind.

Take it down in summer to let the wind blow at will—until the temperature moves up above 95 degrees. Then up with the fence again to cut off the wind.

If John Civilian had a patio lined with aluminum, there'd be a lot of days in winter when he or his wife could sun bathe in comfort, even when the temperature was down to freezing.

Army studies have shown the striking effects of even a gentle breeze. If the temperature is around 70 and the wind is blowing only one mile an hour, to a man out in the yard the temperature feels like 60.

If the temperature is 48, the one-mile wind makes it seem like 23. If the temperature is 20, the gentle breeze makes it seem like 11 below zero.

Atomic Data Safe in Fordham Fire

NEW YORK (AP)—Material on government-subsidized research projects escaped damage in a half-million-dollar fire in a chemistry building at Fordham University.

Firemen fought the explosion-dotted blaze on the Bronx campus for an hour to bring it under control Monday. A student laboratory assistant was treated for smoke poisoning.

The salvaged material pertained to cancer research projects for the National Institute of Health and the Air Force and an undisclosed project for the Atomic Energy Commission.

Dr. William O'Connor, chairman of Fordham's chemistry Department, said total loss probably would reach about $500,000, including $250,000 worth of scientific equipment.

The injured student was Frank Monahan, 20, of Greenwich, Conn., a junior.

In Group of 4 Called Presidential Possibles

3 'Picked' Governors Ask More Taxes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Of four big state governors getting attention as 1960 presidential possibilities, three are asking for hefty tax increases this year to finance record state budgets.

The one playing by the old rules is Gov. Robert B. Meyner, the New Jersey hopeful, who has a record budget, too, but no new taxes in his program.

The three risking howls from the taxpayers are Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, Edmund G. Brown of California and G. Mennen Williams of Michigan.

Rockefeller is the only Republican in the foursome and the only potential challenger now in sight to contest with Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the 1960 presidential nomination.

He is asking for a 277 million dollar tax increase to carry New York's first two billion dollar annual budget. Calculated to tap the average family for something like an extra $50 a year, his program is already drawing complaints from taxpayers in general and Democrats in particular.

It also may tend to confirm the suspicions among top conservatives that Rockefeller is a big spending New Dealer in disguise.

Brown is asking his legislature for a 256 million dollar tax increase to finance California's two billion dollar budget. Williams is proposing 140 millions in new taxes for Michigan in a 447 million dollar budget.

Williams is asking for new personal and corporation income taxes while Rockefeller and Brown are asking for personal income tax increases. There are other differences.

Rockefeller would lower the income tax exemptions for individuals and couples, thus boosting their taxes, but would allow greater exemptions than permitted in present law for large families. The tax rate increases would go on the upper brackets.

Brown's plan would carry higher income taxes only for the upper brackets and would give low income families a break through increased exemptions for dependents. Williams' proposal would carry fat exemptions—$2,750 for a single person, $4,000 for a couple, etc.

Rockefeller said he wasn't trying to assess blame but that the gap between state income and outgo had been growing for years. He was talking about the administration of Gov. Averell Harriman, the Democrat who once had White House hopes himself before he was turned out of Albany by Rockefeller last fall.

Williams blames a Republican legislature for budget policies in the past two years that pushed Michigan into a financial crisis. Republicans are renewing charges that his budget policies are driving industry from the state.

Brown, who was elected with labor support, is hearing growls

Scoff at 'Antidisestablishmentarianism'

Have Own Jawbreaker

CHICAGO (UPI) — Local dentists scoffed today at "antidisestablishmentarianism," allegedly the longest word in the English dictionary, and came up with a jawbreaker of their own: "Psychostethokyrtographmanometer."

Dr. Harry C. Peake of Parkhill, Ont., told the dentists of the psychostethokyrtographmanometer—an instrument to measure changes in respiration which occur in a patient as he reacts to sound.

Top Experts Declare U.S. Defense Adequate

Secretary of Defense McELROY has made it clear that the United States does not intend to match Soviet ICBM production missile for missile despite political capital being made out of the controversy.

In testimony before the House Armed Services Committee he stated that by December this country will have as many intercontinental missiles as will the Soviet Union. The so-called U. S. "missile lag," he says, is in the amount of thrust developed by Russian ICBMs. But this is a problem of improving our technology, not one of going into mass production of these very costly ICBMs which soon may be outdated.

The U.S. is pushing forward a widely diversified program taking into account newer weapons. Simpler, quicker to launch solid fuel missiles may soon make obsolete the liquid fueled Atlas. The Air Force's Minuteman and the Navy's Polaris, solid fuel weapons, are being studied because they can be concealed in sites almost impossible to attack and are expected to be more reliable.

After hearing recent testimony of the top military officials before his committee, Sen. RICHARD B. RUSSELL, chairman of the Armed Services committee, told a press conference that the Soviet Union is ahead of the U.S. in missile development but that America's strategic bombers will keep this country superior in striking power during the next year.

The Senator thinks that unless the Russians have some new defense against bombers, our air power has a substantial military lead at the moment. He takes the view that neither Atlas nor the Soviet's ICBM can match U. S. bombers in accuracy and destructive power. A Georgia Democrat, Mr. Russell has been in the Senate for 26 years and is well informed on military affairs.

In short, what can be deduced from the conclusions of these two responsible men is that there is no immediate peril but there could be future danger unless we take prompt action to forestall it by a greater effort on missile development.

That is exactly what the Administration is doing in its balanced defense program.

Khrushchev and Nasser Exchange Accusations

In his six hour speech to the 21st Soviet party congress, Premier KHRUSHCHEV made known his irritation with President NASSER's treatment of Egypt's Communists.

"We cannot remain silent, said KHRUSHCHEV, "in the face of the campaign conducted . . . against progressives under the spurious guise of anticommunism." He chided some officials of the United Arab Republic for making anti-Communist statements, warned against allowing political differences to strain USSR-UAR relations and stressed "their joint fight against imperialism."

Cairo reacted to the attack with a mild rebuke delivered by a close friend of NASSER. In a front page editorial in Al-Ahram, says Near East Report, KHRUSHCHEV was reminded of his 1957 statement in Moscow that what NASSER did about Communists in Egypt was "an internal matter which concerns him and his people." The writer rejected any implication that the Communists were infallible and cited ousting of the Soviet Union's "anti-party" group.

For a long time there has been active police pressure against Egypt's Communists. The UAR recently arrested 500 in Egypt and Syria. While President Nasser likes to use Russian propaganda in what he calls his war on imperialism, he doesn't want Communists interfering with his own plans.

KHRUSHCHEV's statement was his first public rebuke of President NASSER and shows his displeasure with recent developments in the Middle East.

Apples vs Oranges

Pontiac Area Product Is Gaining Favor in Florida

Fool: He who assumes that everybody else is also a safe driver.

The Pontiac area is playing a prominent part in a new industry that the residents of Florida find to be a taste tickler. It threatens to put a big kink into one of the state's principal sources of revenue.

With hardly an apple tree in the entire state of Florida, (where they cannot grow such a delicious fruit), its residents have taken a liking to Michigan apple juice. In some localities there it already is outselling the native orange juice.

For several years one of Florida's principal industrial plants has been of Bradenton. It's refrigerated trucks deliver Florida products to over one half the states in the Union.

Until the past year or two these trucks have been returning to Bradenton empty, lacking a return cargo, and seriously cutting into the profits.

Now Michigan apple juice is carried on the return trip, to a greater extent than a similar products from any other state, much of it from the Romeo section and other points in the Pontiac area.

If the juice is not available in this area, the trucks pick up our apples, which are crushed and the juice extracted in its own plant at Bradenton. Modern processing makes it more desirable to many Florida residents than their own orange juice which often is made from the cull oranges that cannot be sold in the regular market, or from oranges that have been frozen on the trees.

The apple juice industry got a big boost in last winter's freeze in Florida, after which the market was so glutted with juice from frozen oranges that legislative action against its sale was necessary.

Under Heavy Pressure

David Lawrence Asks:

High Unemployment Labor's Fault

WASHINGTON—The paradox of continued unemployment on a large scale during a period of steadily progressing recovery is something that should begin to worry the labor leaders of America. It already has produced anxiety among many businessmen.

LAWRENCE

For, though business is slowly approaching high levels, the number of jobs isn't increasing as they should.

The latest figures show that perhaps labor is "pricing itself out of the market" and that labor-saving machinery is being forced on industry at an unprecedented rate.

Thus the economic unit of "U. S. News & World Report" in a copyrighted article this week presents the results of a survey of the job loss in the last 10 years.

This survey reveals, for instance, that since the close of World War II, the output per worker has increased 19 per cent in steel because the industry, "pressed by high labor costs, has rushed new equipment and techniques to hold payrolls down."

The result is that in 1958 the steel business employed only 536,000 workers. The article says that "if output per man had been the same as in the postwar years 1947-49, steel companies would have needed 637,000 workers."

Similarly, in autos, labor's loss in 10 years due to higher output per man is 132,000 jobs. An additional 48,000 jobs were lost due to the imports of foreign cars.

Another dramatic example is in the coal industry where a 46 per cent increase in efficiency of output due to modern methods and labor-saving equipment has kept down the number of workers.

Employes in 1958 in the bituminous coal mines numbered 195,000, but for the same output now as in 1948 there would have been needed 95,000 more workers than are employed today.

In the oil refining industry a loss of 71,800 jobs is noted in the last 10 years.

This information comes at a time when American industry, fearful of the power of labor in the present Congress, and of higher and higher wage demands, feels the necessity for introducing more and more labor-saving equipment.

This course is often a very expensive one, but seeing ahead higher and higher payrolls every year regardless of any assurance of greater productivity, there is but one choice to make—to introduce the labor-saving devices to get the increased productivity.

The U. S. Department of Labor in figures just released says that there are still many hard-hit areas in the country and that 11 of the 149 major labor markets in the United States have as much as 12 per cent unemployment.

In 17 cities the report shows from 9 to 12 per cent unemployed, and in 48 more the figures show 6 to 9 per cent unemployed. There are 76 "labor surplus" areas, compared with 45 in that status a year ago.

What is needed, of course, is a study by the government to learn just what kind of companies in each industry are finding it hard going and why.

The outward appearance is of a boom because many of the well financed and more efficient plants, where new machinery has been introduced, can do a better job and at lower prices competitively than can many of the so-called marginal companies.

America can have a boom among the large industrial plants and yet see the plants of smaller companies running at much less than normal capacity.

The Department of Justice seems to think the answer lies in bringing antitrust suits against the large companies, but this alone cannot halt the drift toward more mergers.

The tendency is to try to cure everything by more public spending and by more and more borrowing by the government. The effect, however, is not to cure things, but make them worse as the dollar is driven down in value.

Planning ahead in business during such an era is hazardous. When will the legislators here come to grips with the economic facts of American life?

Smiles

If money really talks, why doesn't it give itself away?

Dr. William Brady Says:

Adequate Calcium Vital to Bone, Tissue, Nerves

Of the 2½ pounds of calcium in the body of a healthy adult 98 per cent is in the bones and teeth, the remaining one-third of an ounce is distributed to nerves, muscle, heart, glands, blood vessel walls, blood and glandular secretions.

DR. BRADY

The calcium in the bones and teeth is subject to metabolism gain or loss from day to day, precisely as is that in the other body tissues. Bone and tooth is tissue, living tissue.

The healthy adult requires a daily ration or intake of not less than a gram (approximately 15 grains) of calcium to keep well.

Twenty-six pounds of lean meat, or 17 pounds of potatoes, or 7.3 pounds of white bread, or 3 or 4 pounds green vegetables, or 5 to 20 pounds fruit, or 20 eggs or 1½ pints milk (three glasses) will barely supply the minimum daily requirement of calcium.

Pasteurizing (par-boiling) milk necessarily changes part of the calcium into insoluble forms. Therefore if milk is the chief or sole source of calcium, raw milk is the best, provided, of course, that Grade A Raw from tuberculin tested herd, Certified raw or other raw milk approved by your own physician or health officer is available.

Instead of merely trying to prevent the various common complaints which are the manifestations of calcium deficiency, everyone—especially the growing child, youth or adult who has not yet reached his or her peak—should strive for better-than-average nutritional condition, which is what I call VITE. This calls for a quart of milk daily as an essential part of the diet. In other words, four glasses of milk every day instead of just three glasses.

Calcium in the bones and teeth constitute a reserve to be drawn upon whenever the daily intake of calcium is deficient. In prolonged states of debility or low calcium supply, the bones steadily atrophy (waste, become lighter, spongier, more fragile, weaker) and the teeth, gums, jaw muscles and tooth sockets undergo the same sort of degeneration.

A growing child, a pregnant woman or nursing mother requires more calcium than an ordinary adult. In late pregnancy and during lactation, if the mother doesn't get extra calcium, the fetus or nursing baby will take it out of her bones and teeth.

Irritability of the nerves, in most instances, is a manifestation of calcium deficiency.

The Country Parson

"I suppose parents never get quite as worried as they do when they think their children are about to make the same mistakes they did."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Mind Has Great Effect on Body

Howard's query indicates the attitude of all scientists for he wants to know how positive thinking can improve the secretion of inner organs and glands. That's a natural question. Modern psychosomatic medicine is stressing the fact that the proper mental attitude can serve as a tonic to the body, just as iron tonics and insulin do.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case A-450: Howard L., aged 30, is the husband of Myrna, mentioned yesterday, as neurotic for lack of a baby.

"Dr. Crane, you say that it is rather common for a previously sterile wife to become pregnant after adopting a baby," he began.

CRANE

"Just how is it possible for the mind to influence the organs and glands of the body?

"Dr. Peale and Oral Roberts both stress the power of positive thinking, but I'm a chemist and I'd like to know the mechanism by which the mind can produce chemical secretions in distant glands."

BODY AND MIND

You readers are aware that tension often produces a peptic ulcer.

Thus, fear or nervous excitement at the mental level will zoom the secretion of hydrochloric acid by the acid glands of the stomach. How?

By the same method that tension causes your muscles to be partially flexed. Your muscles are not relaxed and flabby when you are emotional.

For the brain is connected with every muscle and also with every gland and organ in the entire human body!

We have two nervous systems. The brain (and spinal cord) permit us to think and react to distant objects or persons. It is called the "conscious" nervous system.

But there is also another nervous system called the autonomic. It regulates heart beat and breathing rate, blood pressure, sweating, goose pimples, blushing, stomach contractions, etc.

It is normally the "subconscious" system, for we don't need to think consciously 72 times per minute, "Beat, beat, beat, etc." as regards our heart.

Nor do we consciously order our stomach to "Contract, contract, contract" at stipulated intervals.

And we don't tell our lungs to "Inhale, exhale; inhale, exhale, etc.

If we had to direct all of our organs consciously, we'd never have any free time to read or talk to our companions or admire sunsets and enjoy the external world.

So God Almighty gave us two nervous systems. The autonomic takes care of automatic functions and usually doesn't break through into our consciousness.

But it can do so, as when our shaking hands and knocking knees overwhelm us with the realization we are victims of stage fright!

CONNECTING WIRES

Howard wants to know the mechanism by which the brain can influence the stomach or heart or intestines or even the liver and pancreas.

"Well, there are connecting nerve fibers (like wires) at each vertebra which link the brain with the various organs and glands of internal secretion.

In modern medicine we are beginning to realize the fact that positive thinking seems to exert a beneficial tonic to many of the internal organs.

On the contrary, negative thinking and fears can throw a monkey wrench into the smooth functioning of those inner organs and glands.

This field of medicine is called psychosomatic, but all doctors have realized these facts for generations, though we haven't stressed them as much as lately.

Drugs and chemicals can influence glands. But the mind can do so, too.

We can thus prescribe medicine that will perk up your appetite and serve as a physiological tonic.

But a cheery soul and companionship of loved ones will likewise tone up your appetite and perk up Grandmother's hunger, too!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

Pontiac Citizens Sound Off About Police Department

City Commissioners and Willman are stalling again so the charges against the police chief will be over the time limit set by Civil Service rules, and the whole thing can be dismissed.

Willman and Donaldson said they were afraid if they pressed charges Straley would bring things into the open that will make bad publicity for the City. As a citizen I say let's hear them. If all the dirty linen is brought out, we can launder it and start fresh.

I cannot see where the City Commission has any part in this and neither does any committee appointed by them. They're supposed to be the law-making branch of the City government, but they're the ones prolonging the bad publicity by keeping this police chief in office.

Tired of Stalling

I'm glad to see the City Commission want another vote on Civil Service. It's high time taxpayers wake up. I see they're going to hire 18 more men for our police force. Other City departments are laying off men and so why do we need more policemen?

Taxpayer

I suggest the broom sweep out a few more. On two occasions recently I telephoned the Prosecutor's office. Each time I talked with a different assistant prosecutor.

One could give lessons in buck-passing and the old run-around. The other was extremely rude and apparently ignorant. Believe me, I wouldn't vote for either if they ran for street sweeper, dog catcher or truant officer.

This is taxation with poor represenattion. An honest, useful, trustworthy public servant would want to learn more facts about a case and then investigate. These need elementary lessons in honesty and courtesy.

After Some Hides

It burns me up to hear people spouting off about Civil Service in the police department when I'll bet they haven't the least bit of factual knowledge about it. They couldn't have read or studied the act and still make these silly remarks I read in the paper.

There are people who understand it very well and would be glad to go over it with anyone who really wants information. One is the chairman of the Civil Service Commission. Others are any of the policemen who have served on the Civil Service Committee of the Police Officers Association.

Call them and ask why it was necessary to get Civil Service protection in the first place. Please, Pontiac, don't let them take away this guarantee of fairness to our policemen.

Policeman's Friend

Even though I'm a police officer, I feel I'm privileged to express my feelings as a resident and taxpayer. I've worked for the department for ten years, and have felt honored to represent the City of Pontiac. I've worked with men who thought only of rendering good service to people even when their own safety was challenged.

I've watched the situation change until it's reached the point of becoming merely an eight hour job. This isn't good. Voters were right in voting in Civil Service. The City Commission and City Manager made a wise decision in obtaining outside investigation. Since the new man arrived, I've seen an unbelievable rise in morale of the men, but I have sincere doubts that the Cimmission and Manager want the police department to continue to better itself.

I attended the meeting in which Commissioners unanimously denounced Civil Service for the police department as unworkable and unthinkable, but in the same breath said it's fine for the fire department. Before the Commission or outside groups make such decisions, they should check with the men affected. Why not give George Eastman a fair chance to prove his worth?

Detective James La Ponsie
263 Michigan

In a city of this size we hire an outsider to come clean house. The first way to clean house is with public officials. Citizens have eyes and ears and they know where authority rests. To start on the citizens first is the worst method I could imagine.

City Old Timer

If Mr. Spurlock and his Rema Club are so anxious to form a committee, I suggest they start by forming a cleanup committee for the Bagley and Wessen corner It's so infamous people come from Detroit.

I'm sure this would be more beneficial to the City than his suggested committee on human relationships, whatever that means.

Mrs. Swan

I understand the recall petition signed by 71 police officers should be completely discredited as coercion was used by certain department heads in securing signatures. Any officer is going to bow and sign when his superior "suggests for his welfare" he do so.

nate the radical element and go forward from there.

Basically I believe in the integrity of the force. We're better than the Straley-Eastman battle indicates.

One for Police Harmony

I've noticed our City Commissioners have suddenly become interested. They've decided to appoint a group to help them do a job the voters expected them to be able to do when they elected them. The buck has been passed from one group to another. No one has had the courage to stand up and say this is what we believe should be done.

Whatever actions are taken will probably come from the recommendations of the advisory committee, then when election rolls around again, Commissioners will be able to tell the people they didn't make the decisions.

Chief Straley has said he will not resign. This indicates he thinks he's in a position to defend himself. Commissioners haven't taken a stand until it looked as though it would be brought out in the open. Could this be something they don't want the citizens to know about? I'd like to see an open investigation of all City officials and department supervisors. If nothing's wrong, no one will be hurt. If there is, it can be corrected before it's too late.

Taxpayer

Pontiac should be called "Willis Brewer Town." He's got our hospital all set up to his liking now, and how many people know he recommended Police Chief Straley? Maybe that's why both institutions are having so much trouble.

Start Integrating Quietly There

Alexandria, Va., Admits Nine Negro Children to All-White Schools

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP)—Nine Negro children entered three previously all-white public schools in this historic Southern city without incident today.

They were admitted under court order, and backed by a display of police force, but there was nothing to indicate any need for the guard.

Alexandria thus became the third Virginia community to accept integration since the collapse of the state's "massive resistance" program and the failure of last-ditch court efforts to obtain delay.

Seventeen Negroes in Norfolk and four in Arlington County, adjoining Alexandria, previously had been admitted to junior and senior high schools. Seven of the nine in Alexandria were the first to get into former all-white elementary schools.

Five youngsters, ranging in age from 6 to 11, walked quietly into Ramsay Elementary School.

Two others entered Theodore Ficklin Elementary in the downtown section. Another two were admitted to Hammond High School.

Authorities had prepared for the possibility of a disturbance but nothing happened.

Between 60 and 65 police were deployed about the three schools.

There was a notable lack of attention from other students.

A few persons watched from a considerable distance, in silence.

Crash Injures Jose Greco and 4 in Company

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Jose Greco and four members of his dance company — including Paul Haakon — were injured today when their chartered bus crashed into a ditch in a very heavy fog.

The accident occurred four miles west of Jacksonville. Eighten persons were aboard.

Trooper C. M. Schwartz of the Florida highway patrol quoted Fred Bischoff Jr., 39, of Morristown, N.J., the bus driver, as saying the fog prevented him seeing a dead-end road in time to stop.

Greco and the other injured were taken to St. Vincents Hospital. The 37-year-old dancer apparently received a bad leg injury and facial lacerations which required several stitches.

Also cut about the face were Haakon, 48, New York City; Linda Latzke, 30, Buenos Aires; Maria Merida Perez, 31, of Madira, Spain; and Rogre Machado, 52, of Paris, France.

Another bus brought the remainder of the company to Jacksonville where an engagement was scheduled for tonight.

Death Notices

THOMAS LEE WILSON

MILFORD—Thomas Lee Wilson, five-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson of 13501 W. Highland Rd. died at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital Sunday after a three-day illness.

OSCAR J. HEGELUND

40-Day Lent Period to Begin Tomorrow

morning Masses, at 12 noon, 3 p.m. and following a 7:30 p.m. service. The 7:30 p.m. Wednesday services will continue throughout Lent, as well as Stations of The Cross at 2:15 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. each Friday.

St. Benedict Church has scheduled 7:30 p.m. devotions each Wednesday and Friday during Lent. Ashes will be imposed tomorrow after the 6:45 and 8 a.m. Masses, from 3 to 4 in the afternoon, and after the 7:30 devotions.

Our Lady of the Lakes Church at Waterford will distribute ashes after Masses at 6:45 a.m., 11:25 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. There will be a Mass and sermon at 7:30 p.m. each Wednesday and Stations of the Cross and benediction at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. each Friday.

St. Paul Lutheran Church will have a Holy Communion service at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow, the first of a series of midweek Lenten services each Wednesday night. The Rev. George Mahder will base his sermon on "The Sign of Forgiveness."

A series of "Christian Living" dinners will be held at 6:30 p.m. each Wednesday at Central Methodist Church. The Rev. John Mulder, pastor of Walled Lake Methodist Church, will be guest preacher at the Ash Wednesday dinner.

Christ Church Cranbrook will have a parish supper at 7 p.m. tomorrow, followed by an Ash Wednesday worship service at 8 p.m.

Lutheran Church of the Ascension will hold the first of a series of Wednesday services at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at Leggett School.

Northeast Community Church will open the penitential season with an Ash Wednesday service at the manse.

Wesleyan Methodist Church will have a series of five evangelistic services tomorrow through Sunday, with the youth group of the church in charge. The meetings, at 7:30 each evening, will feature Battle Creek's singing evangelists, Al and Vivian Welsh.

The husband and wife team will provide both music and sermons for the services. Adults and youths throughout the area are invited to attend.

The Eastern Orthodox churches reckon the date of Easter by a method different from that used in Western churches. Hence their observance of Lent begins on a different date—this year on March 16.

Multimillion $ Plan Told by Edison Head

DETROIT (AP)—President Walker L. Cisler today outlined a multi-million-dollar expansion program for the Detroit Edison Company.

He said long-range plans projected through 1963 call for an expenditure of 300,000,000. Of this, an estimated $68,000,000 will be spent this year to expand the company's electric power system and related facilities. The eletric company now serves nearly 8,00 square miles in Southeastern Michigan.

Wants to Pay Off National Debt —in 101 Years

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Rep. Jim Wright (D-Tex) wants to pay off the national debt in 101 years.

Wright's resolution introduced yesterday declares that the principal of the debt should be reduced by 1 per cent per year, starting July 1, 1960. He said this would save 485 billion dollars in interest payments over 100 years.

The debt now stands at 283 billion dollars, with interest on it costing $8,100,000,000 in the coming fiscal year.

"If things go along exactly as they have been going, without any change in the total debt and with the government having to pay 3.5 per cent interest on its borrowings, in 28 years we will have paid the total amount of the debt, but we will still owe all of it," he said.

Deaths Elsewhere

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (AP) — D. O. (Don) Gilbert, 46, chief of the New York bureau of the Canadian Press, died Monday while undergoing surgery for a stomach condition. Gilbert, who had spent nearly 30 years in top news posts in Canada and abroad, had headed the New York bureau since 1953.

CHICAGO (AP) — Mrs. Bessie Shaw Peterkin, 52, wife of Daniel Peterkin Jr., president of the Morton Salt Company, died Monday, apparently of a heart attack.

LESABRE, the Buick you can own for only $200 more than the best models of the leading low-priced cars . . .

This is in no way a "stripped" car you're looking at. Come in and study the manufacturer's suggested retail price of a Buick LeSABRE like this, equipped with Twin Turbine automatic transmission, radio, heater, white sidewall tires, and anything else you want in your next car. Then do the same to the top models of the leading low-priced three, and you'll find the statement above stands up.

What a difference for only $200!

Now think how much more you'd enjoy a Buick. A comfortable, substantially built automobile. A car with the finest ride in all Buick history. A car with Buick's exclusive fin-cooled brakes, and the smoothest type of transmission money can buy. A wonderfully quiet and greatly respected car!

Owners report QUALITY outstanding

Your money in a Buick today puts you in on the ground floor of what promises to be a long new time of leadership for Buick cars. "My sixth Buick and the best I ever owned!" . . . "Best-operating car I've driven in thirty years!" . . . "Much the best Buick yet!" . . . Reports like these mean extra pleasure in your Buick ownership . . . and they mean hard dollar value when the time comes to trade. It all adds up to the best proof in 50 years that: "WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT, BUICK PEOPLE WILL BUILD THEM!"

New in gas economy, too!

In planning the '59 Buick, the new Wildcat engines, transmissions, and axles were all engineered to work together for greater gas mileage. Across the country owners tell us they are getting 15 to 20 miles per gallon in the '59 Buicks. And in a recent thorough test of Buick LeSabre against another car of comparable size and a good reputation for economy . . . the Buick won in every case under all kinds of driving conditions.

So we think we've got a new kind of value in this Buick LeSabre. And we suggest you go to your Quality Buick Dealer's and see whether you agree before you buy a new car.

WHO IS RENFREW?

Social Security Tax Deadline

Self-Employed Must Pay

Associated Press Writer

You self-employed people face a double task between now and April 15.

By that date, you not only have to figure, report and pay your federal income tax, but you also have to figure, report and pay any Social Security tax that's due.

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) makes the work involving your Social Security tax easier by supplying you with appropriate forms and information. But, the job of being accurate is up to you.

This and my next column are designed to help you with the job. This column applies to regular self-employed people. My next concerns self-employed farmers.

These three questions probably bother most people: Am I self-employed? On what earnings must I pay Social Security tax? How much tax must I pay?

Here are the answers:

In general, you're considered self-employed and must file a Social Security tax report if (1) you carried on a trade or business in 1958—either as an individual or as a member of a partnership—and (2) you had net earnings in 1958 of $400 or more.

You're specifically covered if you practiced your profession as a lawyer, dentist, osteopath, chiropractor, veterinarian, naturopath, optometirst, chiropractor, veteneer, funeral director, architect, free-lance writer, artist or as any other independent contractor.

Your net earnings as a self-employed person is that amount of income remaining after all allowable business and trade deductions — as determined by the internal revenue code—are made from your total income.

Because of the wide variances in businesses and trades—and the allowable deductions—it's impossible to list them here. But, any IRS office can give you an appropriate list for your business or trade.

Here's some income you may be in doubt about:

Rental from real estate — unless you receive real estate rentals as a regular real estate dealer, the rentals are not considered self-employment income.

Room rentals — generally, if you're renting rooms or other space where services are rendered, such as maid service and laundry service, the income from rentals is considered self-employment earnings.

Dividends and interest — dividends and interest generally are not considered self-employment income, unless they're received by you as a dealer in stocks and securities.

The tax for self-employed people for 1958 is 3⅜ per cent of your net earnings up to $4,200.

This means, if your earnings were $4,200 or more in 1958, you'll have to pay a tax of $141.75. That's 3⅜ per cent of $4,200. If your earnings were less than $4,200, you'll have to take 3⅜ per cent of your net earnings to figure your Social Security tax.

If you also had earnings in 1958 as an employe of—$4,200 or more, you pay nothing on your net earnings from self-employment.

Less than $4,200, you pay on the difference between your earnings as an employe and $4,200.

Youth Meets Mother After Long Search

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Carlos Lince Jr., 14, ended a six-month, 6,000-mile search when he stepped off a plane Monday night into the arms of his weeping mother whom he had not seen for eight years.

The blond, curly-haired Carlos also met a half-brother he had never seen, B. K. Pullen, 18.

Mrs. Margie Pullen Lince Hill of Crystal Springs, Miss., met the plane from Los Angeles and kissed Carlos at Moisant International Airport.

Mrs. Hill said she would try to have her daughter, Lucia, 11, returned to America. Lucia is in Bogota, Colombia, with her father Capt. Carlos Lince Sr., an airline pilot there.

Carlos ran away from the home of his father and step-mother in Bogota last July. He wandered through the South American jungles 15 days before making his way to the American consul at Panama.

Mrs. Hill said she would take Carlos to Crystal Springs, where she works as a waitress.

"I don't have much money, but I know I'll be able to give Carlos all the love and care he needs," said Mrs. Hill, whose third husband died last year.

Carlos was only five years old, Mrs. Hill said, when she and the elder Lince were divorced.

Young Carlos was brought to the United States by Roy Aldridge, an American policeman in the Panama Canal Zone.

In a telephone call to Crystal Springs a few days ago, Carlos talked to his mother. Neither was able to understand much of what the other said. Mrs. Hill speaks only English, Carlos mostly Spanish.

Proposes Limit to Planet Work

Noxious Surface Odors Put Large Exploration in Too Costly Class

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Large-scale exploration of the planets — some of which are but "the chemical dungheap of the solar system"—wouldn't be worth the cost, astrophysicist Heinz Haber said Monday.

Haber, here for the 10th anniversary of the Air Force School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Air Force Base, is a former member of the school's faculty.

"Astronomers and astrophysicists have amassed numberous data about the physical and chemical make-up of the alien worlds in our solar system so that we can say with a fair degree of probability that none of them is equipped to be of absolutely vital interest in terms of human affairs," Haber said.

"The other planets are the chemical dungheap of the solar system, and it is not likely that we shall find truly earth-shaking scientific novelties in the masses of noxious chemicals that constitute the outer shells of the planets."

He added, however, that exploration of the planets "could be justified primarily in terms of international reputation of this country."

His Dog Stuck in Septic Tank, He Sues Owner

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—The owner of a dog that got stuck in a septic tank is suing the tank's owner and several John Does for $12,600 damages.

Edwin C. Sears, a Menlo Park dogbreeder, charged in a Superior Court suit that the tank, hidden in bushes behind Dr. George H. Neumayr's summer home west of Menlo Park, was "carelessly maintained."

His champion Irish setter Hunter's Sun vanished into the tank and was not found for five days, Sears stated.

He wants $5,000 in general damages $5,000 in punitive damages, $2,000 for loss of the dog's stud services, $500 in veterinary fees and $100 he paid to the man who extricated Hunter's Sun.

Dutch Won't Accept Molotov as Envoy

THE HAGUE (AP)—V. M. Molotov has gotten the cold shoulder from the Dutch.

An informant said the Hague government has told Moscow it has changed its mind about accepting Molotov as Soviet ambassador since he was criticized again at the recent Communist congress in Moscow.

Dutch government sources said last month that after an informal Soviet inquiry the Hague had indicated it would not object to Molotov as envoy here. The report incurred the wrath of the Dutch labor press, which labeled Molotov a security risk.

Wild Tale Told of Madagascar

Said to Have Once Had Bird Large Enough to Carry an Elephant

WASHINGTON — The island of Madagascar, which recently proclaimed itself a republic within the new French Community, excited the interest of Marco Polo in the 13th Century.

Wide-eyed Arabian merchants told the Venetian adventurer that a bird on Madagascar could carry an elephant. The story has long been discredited, but Madagascar did have a bird (Aepyornis) that grew about twice the size of an ostrich. It laid eggs with a capacity of 10½ quarts. Now extinct, the bird's skeletons may be seen in museums.

Polo thought of equipping several big ships to sail the south Indian Ocean to the mysterious land that no European had seen. Nothing came of the project. Madagascar remained undiscovered until Portuguese sailors arrived in the early 16th century.

Madagascar is the world's fourth largest island, after Greenland, New Guinea, and Borneo, the National Geographic Society says.

Bigger than France, it measures 970 miles in length and 350 at its greatest width. Placed on the eastern seaboard of North America, it would reach from Savannah, Georgia, to Ottawa, Ontario.

The mountainous eastern region has dense forests of valuable woods. Raffia and coconut palms, papaws, and mangoes grow in abundance. The flat western region is less fertile, but the middle region has mountains containing gold, mica, agate, and graphite.

The people, known as Malagasy, customarily wear the lamba, a large piece of cloth wrapped around the body and drawn over the shoulder. Their main food is rice, supplemented with manioc, sweet potatoes, beans, tomatoes, groundnuts and yams.

Aristocratic Accent Decreases

Brains, Not Titles, Admit to Oxford

OXFORD, England (AP) — The spires of old Oxford meditate as calmly as ever in the sunshine, but there's something different about the university. Among the students chattering in the quadrangles the aristocratic Oxford accent is diluted, or even missing.

The broad "A" sounds flatter, and the crowds have a common touch. There is more science and less ancient Greek at this historic seat of polite learning.

A few years ago 3,000 was regarded a comfortable student population. Today the number is just about 8,000, and many of the new students are sons and daughters of such ordinary folks as bakers and policemen.

"Money and titles no longer can get you into Oxford," said an old-timer. "Now you've got to have the intelligence and the preparatory education to get you through the very strict selection processes."

About eight of 10 students are supported, wholly or partially, by some form of scholarships. They are lively youths, ready for pranks. But their first business is to equip themselves to cope with the difficult world.

NEW INTERESTS

For one thing, the subjects of student talk have changed markedly. Oxford always was a center of bright conversation. Light, clever and often immature debate was a highly rated accomplishment. The most earnest discussions were mostly political, with the old university taking pride in its contributions to Parliament and the ministries.

Now the political parties have lost their attraction to undergraduates. Students traditionally are radical and progressive, but the parties have lost their hold here. The communist party is dead, killed by disillusionment over events in Hungary in 1956. The British Conservative, Labor and Liberal parties are thought by many to be too much alike to be worth a debate. Prime Minister Macmillan is regarded as boring as Karl Marx.

Discussions now explore deep issues, such as racil intolerance, capital punishment and homosexuality. To show how they feel on the racial issue undergraduates raised $1,400 pounds ($3,920) toward a scholarship for a non-European, South African student. A political party which passed the hat would get a few pennies. The university is full of the new angry young men who vaguely feel thwarted and find little hope in conventional politics.

PATH TO GLORY — Through most of its long history, the pathways of Oxford have been the private roads of the rich and highborn. But today the sons and daughters of bakers and policemen also tread college grounds amid beauty such as this walk beneath Hertford Bridge.

Being a girl at Oxford can be a lot of fun. A girl has to be bright, and be willing to work hard. But the ratio in the student body now is one girl to seven boys, and dates are no problem. Besides, sex barriers have been lowered under the new students' impact, so girls mingle freely with the men students.

There is a changing fashion even in the misdemeanors of students. A common offense in the days of the pure Oxford accent was some mildly racy adventure with a girl, likely as not a pretty but quite unacceptable "town girl."

Today the common offense has something to do with automobiles —parking, going too fast or improper registration.

Air Force Cadets Study Fine Arts

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI)—A fine arts course which includes painting, sculpture, music and architecture from the early Greeks to the present day is on the curriculum of the U.S. Air Force Academy.

More than 40 cadets are taking the course — a combination of art appreciation and history with a dash of creative effort by the students themselves.

The cadets begin the course by learning how to look at pictures and wind up with a 1,000-word paper on some aspect of modern art. They also model figures in clay and draw in pencil, ink, tempera and oils.

U.S. Maintains Lead in Bridge Tourney

NEW YORK (AP) — Round-robin play for the 1959 world contract bridge championship is turning into a two-team struggle between the United States and Italy.

The American team maintained a slight lead over Italy's defending champions, although the Italians won yesterday's match 35-33.

The score in international match points now stands at 70-69 in favor of the Americans at the end of 52 hands in the 156-hand tournament.

The third competitor, Argentina's South American champions, lost both matches yesterday. They trail the U.S., 51-71, and Italy, 48-83.

Dulles Has Faced Crises After Crises Since 1953

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has had problems which pursued him like a devil. He inherited crisis when he took office in 1953 and has had to face one crisis after another ever since.

In trying to solve them he became the most traveled secretary of state in history. He seemed to feel that handling foreign affairs required not only his personal attention but his on-the-spot attention.

This zeal for first-hand dealings didn't save him from criticism. On the contrary he's been criticized for being away from home base too much, for not relying more on the collective brains of his advisers. His has been called a one-man show.

Illness has been piling up on him: an intestinal cancer operation in 1956, an inflamed colon in December, a severe virus attack in January.

When he became secretary six years ago he inherited the war in Korea and the war in Indochina. Truce came to Korea in time but before the shooting stopped in Indochina half of Viet Nam was lost to communism.

The Red Chinese pushed him into repeated crises with their shelling of the Nationalist Chinese islands off the Red China coast. There was the crisis in Egypt when President Nasser seized the Suez Canal.

Some of Dulles' critics suggested he himself precipitated the Suez crisis with the curt way in which he refused Nasser American money to build the Aswan Dam.

But, as if Red crises were not enough, this country's French and British allies and its friend, Israel, shook the world with their invasion of Egypt. Last year when the Iraq government fell, American troops were sent to Lebanon.

And always, there was the steady push from the Soviet Union and Red China.

Dulles' problems had their roots in the problems of his predecessor, Secretary of State Dean Acheson. Yet in a way they were different while remaining the same.

Acheson and President Truman finally decided that the Soviet Union and Red China had pushed far enough and had to be stopped. The result was not only the war in Korea but a series of alliances intended to chill the Communist ambitions.

Yet in the Truman-Acheson days the Soviets and to some extent the Red Chinese, who had only recently seized control of the China mainland, were beginning to emerge as enormous powers, particularly the U.S.S.R. as it grew in industrial and military potential.

President Eisenhower and Dulles have followed the basic Truman-Acheson foreign policy: the policy of containment, of trying through military alliances and foreign aid to keep communism from advancing any further.

What Truman and Acheson, and after them Eisenhower and Dulles, sought was to stop the pressure of communism dead in its tracks. They never found the complete answer.

Both the Soviet Union and Red China are expansionist and, because of their growing power, determined to push. No one yet, despite the endless negotiations, has come up with an answer to the problem.

But Dulles' problem was different from Acheson's in this way: in the years since Dulles took office the Soviet power, industrial and military, has become gigantic. The Red Chinese are making a break-neck effort to catch up.

There is no doubt Eisenhower considers Dulles one of the great secretaries of state. He has said so. History will have to decide just how good or poor a secretary Dulles has been. It is a little too close for a cool appraisal yet.

Mayor Boots Transients Out of Jail and Locks It

GRANVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Granville's jail is locked up tight — to keep people out.

Mayor Edson Rupp booted eight transients out of the seldom used jail Monday after they had become rowdy in a local restaurant.

Legally, the jail cannot be used for prisoners. State fire laws require a jailer when a jail is in use and Granville has no such person.

Vagrants and transients had been using the two-cell jail.

Police here use the county jail in nearby Newark.

Goldwater Blames State Ills on Reuther

SAGINAW (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) says United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther is the "hidden hand" behind the policies which have brought the State of Michigan to its knees financially.

The Senator made the remarks yesterday at a Lincoln Day dinner here.

Goldwater asserted that what he termed the "strange hold of the labor politicians of the State of Michigan is a well known fact to businessmen across the country."

Asserting that the problem with Michigan business is political, not economical, Goldwater said the Democratic party in this state is "a shell—merely a label taken over by special interests. That special interest is the UAW. I am referring to a few politically ambitious union leaders — men with socialist background."

Traverse City Grocery Robbed by Gunman

TRAVERSE CITY (AP)—A young gunman obtained more than $800 last night in the holdup of a Traverse City grocery store.

Mrs. Rita Diday, 38, a checkout clerk, told state police the man persuaded another employe to hold off closing the store for a last-minute purchase. He ordered and paid for a dozen eggs, she said, then puled a chrome-plated pistol and demanded the money from her cash register.

The bandit walked from the store after warning the two clerks and a janitor not to interfere, Mrs. Diday said.

Jobless Roles Down From Last Month

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit had 194,000 jobless in mid-January, a decrease of 3,000 from the previous month, but there was an increase of 8,000 in the statewide jobless total, the Michigan Employment Security Commission reported today.

Statewide unemployment in January was estimated by the commission at 329,000.

Fire Burns Landmark

ISHPEMING (AP)—The Nolan Building — a 75-year-old landmark here — has been destroyed by fire. Firemen said the blaze apparently was started in a second-floor apartment Monday by a carelessly discarded cigarette. There was no estimate on damages.

The National Bureau of Standards said there are 10 million different colors.

52-Year-Old Teller Held on Embezzling Charge

GRAND RAIPDS (AP)—A 52-year-old bank teller has been charged with embezzling $3,000 from the old Kent Bank and Trust Co.

The teller, William Smits of nearby Sparta, was arraigned before U.S. Commissioner Stephen W. Karr last night. He waived preliminary hearing and bond was set at $2,500.

Thomas J. Gearty, special agent in charge of the Detroit FBI office who announced the arrest, said the investigation is continuing.

4-Day Flu, Fog Harass Britain

Many Cite Connection Between Thick Skies, 109 Virus Deaths

LONDON (AP) — Britain suffered Monday from four-day flu and fog. Many experts think there is a connection.

Fifty-four persons died last week as a direct result of flu, 55 the week before and there were no indications of abatement.

"The strain this year is of the 'B' flu variety," a Health Ministry spokesman said. "This is a milder form than the Asiatic strain of last year. But, this is serious enough and we are very concerned."

Many of the areas with near epidemics to contend with, also had the usual thick coating of recurring fog. In the Cotswolds and West Country — around Bristol, Exeter, Exmoor, Dartmoor and southwest of Oxford — visibility even in the open country was less than 25 to 50 yards. London itself was not seriously affected by fog Monday.

For some areas this has been one of the two or three foggiest winters of the century and many health officials and doctors say there is an evil connection between the flu and fog.

School children have been hardest hit by the wave of virus attacks, commonly called four-day flu. One of the worst-hit schools was Eton. Three hundred of 1,167 boys there were sick in bed.

Some college houses had 50 per cent of their members ill. One London school of 2,100 students reported 600 of them ill in bed. A Sussex school of 700 had 200 sick.

A heavy run on stocks of flu vaccine was under way by large firms, which were inoculating their employes to hold down absenteeism. Two large drug firms were stepping up vaccine production.

Anyone asking for admittance to a hospital must be examined carefully to determine if the vacant bed could not better serve a flu victim, officials said.

Increased pressure for hospital beds "is due to a combination of fog, influenza and complications of influenza," said Cmdr. J. R. E. Longworthy of the emergency hospital bed service.

"There is an undoubted association between respiratory diseases and the many fogs this winter," a London physician said.

Many doctors have asked patients to grin and bear the flu for a few days if they possibly can — to avoid calling on overworked doctors.

Hal Boyle Says:

Millionaires Can't Afford Working Wives

NEW YORK (AP)—Why don't more millionaires mary poor but honest working girls?

If you go into a drugstore in any business office area in America during a coffee break, you'll find half a dozen AWOL secretaries and stenographers debating: "Why can't I find a tall, dark, handsome millionaire who will marry me and take me out of this world of work and worry?" is the topic.

Every time one of these female desk jockeys snags her nylon hose, or the boss bawls her out because her typewriter can't spell, she asks herself, "Why can't I find me a nice tall, dark, handsome millionaire?"

She never asks for a tall, dark handsome plumber or bus driver. She won't even settle for a short blonde, balding, pot-bellied millionaire.

While this wish can be dismissed as a hopeless dream in most cases, it isn't altogether an idle dream with many office girls. They scrimp and save to go on expensive cruises or to take vacation trips to Mexico or the Bahamas—places where they fondly imagine every palm and pine tree shades a love-hungry millionaire.

And whom do they meet? Vacationing plumbers and bus drivers most of whom, alas, have brought their wives. And the girls come home bitter—and one year nearer to being old maids.

Not long ago I met a young, tall, dark, handsome millionaire bachelor. I asked him why he didn't marry some poor but honest working girl — a girl desperately eager to make him happy.

"I'd be crazy, too," he replied crisply. "The poor but honest working girl you describe is suffering from a Cinderella psychosis. She isn't looking for a husband. She's looking for a helping hand.

"She doesn't have a romantic urge. She just has an urge to acquire some valuable male real estate without even putting up a real down payment. She wants something for nothing."

"But wouldn't a girl like that make a good thrifty wife?" I asked.

The man gave a hollow laugh. "Why, a girl like that would have me broke in two years," he said. "She'd expect an apartment on Park Ave., a winter home at Palm Beach, and a summer place on Long Island.

"She'd want diamonds, furs, servants, and a new Rolls-Royce every year. She'd expect a trip to Europe every year, too.

"Working girls have big ideas about how millionaires live, but their ideas are a generation behind the times. A millionaire doesn't live that way anymore — at least guys with only one million, like me. We don't have that kind of dough."

"Well, what kind of girl are you looking for?" I asked.

"I'm looking for a good sensible girl — not too homely — whose father has only a million dollars," he replied. "A girl like that will know the real value of money, and be able to make it stretch."

Well, if you are a poor but honest working girl, there is the true reason you can't find a tall, dark, handsome millionaire to marry you.

English Girl to Return to Marry British Lover

LANSING (AP) — An English lass, who insists she will return to England next week and marry a boy friend there, has been granted a visa extension to spend more time with her American suitor.

Dark-haired, 24-year-old Pauline Giles was given the extension yesterday by the American consul at Windsor, Ont. It was not learned just how long it would last.

Pauline and the American beau, 23-year-old Chicago Tribune advertising salesman Loran Shaffer, visited his parents in Lansing yesterday and plan to go on to Chicago today to see the sights and meet some of his friends.

But she says she still loves Louie (that's Louis Gaches back in England) and is going to marry him "as soon as I can."

If she loves Louis, then what's she doing on this side of the Atlantic with a salesman?

Did it on a dare, she told newsmen. But then quickly added:

"I guess you might say I was kidnaped, too."

"No you weren't," replied Loran. "Nobody dragged you onto that plane."

Loran said he spent more than $1,000 on the trip to England to persuade Pauline to marry him.

Her parents, Maj. and Mrs. Edward H. Giles of Eastcote, Middlesex, are all for him.

Loran and Pauline met last year at South Bend, Ind., where they were both working in a dress shop. He was a student at Notre Dame, and she a visitor who was trying to forget Louis — also a salesman.

"I fell in love with her and I thought she loved me," said Loran.

When she went home she wrote Loran. One of her letters complained that Louie was mistreating her.

Loran took his savings and went after her. But he found her affections had cooled.

He begged her to come home with him. Her parents backed him up. Newsmen dared her. She came.

But she has since talked to Louie by transatlantic telephone and he has persuaded her to return to England.

Pauline says she simply has to go because: "I've only got the clothes I'm wearing."

Miami Police Hunt Jewelry Robbers

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Two jewel robberies adding up to a total haul of nearly a million dollars kept police busy seeking clues today.

Latest was Monday's holdup of the Al Levinson Co., a downtown jewelry importing firm which reported gems valued at $500,000 retail were taken.

A man posing as a customer entered the office but aroused no suspicion until an armed confederate came in and ordered workers and a visitor to lie down.

The two took set and unset gems from an open safe and also stripped rings from the fingers of some of those in the office.

Levinson said the stolen jewels were insured for 70 or 80 per cent of their value. Several thousand dollars in cash also was taken.

Police would not speculate on the possibility of a connection between the Levinson robbery and the theft Sunday from a hotel suite of $400,000 worth of jewels belonging to Leon C. Greenebaum, board chairman of the Hertz Car Rental Corp.

Spend 50th Anniversary in the Same Hospital

DETROIT (AP)—John and Lois Lemon agree a hospital is no place to celebrate a 50th wedding anniversary. Both are confined on doctor's orders.

"The law of averages finally caught up with us," said John, 70, a veteran musician who once played for Victor Herbert. "We've been together for 49 anniversaries.

Nevertheless Lemon and his wife Lois, 68, exchanged notes on their anniversary Sunday when doctors wouldn't allow them to leave their separate rooms at Detroit Memorial Hospital.

"Stick with it, gal; we ain't down yet," Lemon wrote.

"May all the treasured memories . . . make this a happy day for you . . ." responded Mrs. Lemon.

The couple met while both were playing in the Barnum and Bailey Circus Bands. Mrs. Lemon played second trumpet in the women's band. Her husband first trombone in the men's band.

Lemon worked at Ford Motor Co. as a tool and die maker until his retirement several years ago.

Lemon, who suffers from a heart ailment, expects to go home in about a week. His wife will be in the hospital for at least another five weeks.

Mrs. Lemon still has a keen sense of humor. She asked newsmen whether her husband had told of the days when he played in a burlesque band.

"Didn't you object to that?" she was asked.

"No, not as long as he brought home his paycheck," she smiled.

Donald O'Connor Sick, Flown to L.A. Hospital

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Donald O'Connor, running a fever, was flown here from Las Vegas, Nev., for hospitalization Monday night.

His doctor said O'Connor possibly is suffering from pneumonia. O'Connor was forced to cancel the final performance of his month-long run at a hotel-casino in the Nevada gambling resort.

The Life of Lincoln

During Lincoln's early electioneering days in Illinois, he and his fellow party members were attacked at a rally by a demagogue. Lincoln stood by patiently while he was charged with being an aristocrat and manufacturing lord.

Then going to the platform, he pulled open the speaker's coat. The contrast between the man's ruffled shirt, gold watch, chain and seals and Lincoln's rough attire was immediately apparent.

Celebration Set to Honor Lincoln in 150th Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation he reunited is paying reverent tribute to the memory of Abraham Lincoln 150 years after his birth.

President Eisenhower, who has proclaimed 1959 as Lincoln sesquicentennial Year, will oin about 1,000 others at a memorial banquet Wednesday night, the eve of Lincoln's birthday.

On the anniversary itself Congress will hold a joint session to hear an address by Carl Sandburg, a leading biographer of the Great Emancipator, and a reading of the Gettysburg Address by actor Fredric March.

Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin will address an anniversary dinner in Lincoln's home town, Springfield, Ill. About 20 foreign envoys will travel from Washington to attend.

Republican members of Congress have scattered far and wide to deliver addresses eulogizing Lincoln — and, while they're at it, raising money for the campaign chests of what they fondly refer to as "the party of Lincoln."

Bob Considine Says:

Cuban Officials Firm in Business Dealings

NEW YORK—Business as she is being done under the Castro government in Cuba:

The bearded boys walked into the office of the president and owner of a big U. S. car agency in Havana. There was no need for palaver. They had his books, a complete run-down on his relations with the Batista people, had sealed his safe, closed his bank.

"You have been getting tax concessions because you claim to be operating an assembly plant," the serious young leader of the group said. "You do not have an assembly plant, in truth. All you do is attach fenders and a few little things like that. You owe the government more than a million dollars, over the years."

The man exploded, "When Batista was in power his people smuggled American cars into the country by the thousands, with no thought of paying the duty. I did indeed add only fenders and a few parts, but I spent more than $4,000,000 on this plant. There was no way I could compete with the smugglers except the way I did it. Now, I'd be happy to be an assembly plant in reality.

It will take two years to train labor. Why make me pay back taxes as an importer while those two brought in cars without any trouble, except bribing some Batista man, paid no taxes whatsoever. At least I showed my faith in the future of Cuba by building this plant in the first place."

"No," the young accountant with the beard said. "The government needs money right now. You can space out your payments, but the first payment must be made now. We'll let you earn money in the future. If you have all this faith in Cuba, start paying now and depend on the future."

"Communists! Reds! Confiscators! I'll move away!" the owner of the American car agency stormed.

P. S.—He won't.

Then there is the case of the Cuban representative of a big U. S. road contractor. His bid of $7,000,000 to the Batista government, for a certain new section of national highway, was accepted with a typical proviso: he was to submit a bill for $10,000,000, not $7,000,000.

The $3,000,000 juice was for "political expenses." He had received $3,000,000, of his money, on account, when the Castro forces took over.

The rebel engineers and auditors who called on him were very polite, but firm. They had in their possession photostats of his engineers' original worksheets, estimates, specifications, bid.

"Everybody in your position gave bribes as part of doing business in this country," a bearded one said. "You will now take a personal loss of $1,000,000 of the $3,000,000 already paid you. Then we will permit you to complete the highway at the exact price your engineers know it will cost. Pay us the $1,000,000 now and we'll know you're for Cuba."

Last Wednesday the man gave the Castro government a check for $982,000, and he's reputed to have received new contracts in excess of $25,000,000 for the years to come.

Castro really has little time to spare these days for running the Cuban government. Most of his waking hours are taken by U. S. reporters, radio and TV people. He is not one to care very much whether he is acting or thinking in the way the Americans might wish that he would.

His answer to the public trials and executions which offended most observers is, "If I don't put on trial nd kill a handful of the known assassins and thieves and torturers, the streets of Cuba will run red with the blood of 100,000 Batista people."

Then there was the dialogue with one of his best known admirers, Jack Paar. Paar said that he had heard while in Cuba last summer that Castro might kidnap him for publicity purposes and Batista people guarded him against such a calamity.

"Did you really think about kidnapping me for publicity?" Jack asked, with mingled incredulity and pride.

Castro thought a moment and said, "I didn't know you then and I don't know you now."

Much Difficulty Ahead as Castro's Social Revolution Is Just Starting

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro's social revolution has just begun. It promises to be immeasurably more difficult than the military preliminaries that ended Jan. 1.

In disclosing dictator Fulgencio Batista, Castro was operating against a known quantity. Now he is up against the near intangibles that have spawned more than a half century of unemployment, poverty and disease on one hand, corruption and privilege on the other.

Castro's spade work for reform is starting in the cradle of his revolution, impoverished Eastern Cuba, among the Guajiros, the poor farm folk, of the Sierra Maestra.

These are the tasks ahead:

Recover and develop about 7½ million acres of idle farm land that Castro says has been stolen from the government;

Find jobs for about 600,000 persons chronically unemployed;

Convert millions of acres of sugar cane fields to other products that will make Cuba less dependent on foreign imports.

The revolutionary government's agricultural and tariff reform programs were drafted in the midst of the revolution by the score or so of professionals—lawyers and engineers—who took up arms with Castro.

In theory, the application is simple.

Hector Goiricelaya, an agronomist who studied at Iowa State College and works for the Ministry of Agriculture, says there is enough state owned land illegally taken over by private operators to give 67 acres to each of 22,500 Cuban families.

A team of soil experts will determine what acreage can be converted to rice, tobacco and coffee crops. Agriculture Minister Humberto Sori Marin wants U. S. Point 4 aid in this project to diversify crops. Cattle raising and dairy production are integral parts of the program.

Thus Castro hopes to have his country produce the food for which she has been spending millions of dollars annually, mostly from the United States.

High tariffs will protect the Cuban producer and help achieve his goal of economic independence, Castro says.

Unemployment is still another major problem.

A recent United Nations survey said that of a working force of 2,204,000 Cubans, only 1,592,000 have permanent jobs. Of these, 864,000 receive between $30 and $70 monthly. Sugar cane workers average from $30 to $40 a month on an average of five months work a year.

The Batista government last year fixed a minimum wage of $75 a month, but authorities say it was never enforced outside the Havana area.

As commander in chief of the revolutionary army, Fidel Castro also has before him the job of reorganizing the military and police forces. Observers consider this task his most delicate politically. In Latin America these elements traditionally are the incubators of splinter groups, dictators and liberators.

As of now, the revolutionary Chieftain has the vast majority of Cubans behind him. They mob him wherever he goes and cheer him wildly, especially when he rises in defense of the war crimes trials and executions which have drawn criticism from abroad.

Castro complains the outside world simply cannot comprehend the brutal, violent nature of Batista's police state methods.

Addressing a group of revolutionary widows at Santiago last week, Castro said, "If the unjust campaign of villification being waged against us from abroad now had been raised against Batista, thousands of lives might have been saved."

His vigorous defense of the poor farm folk, both militarily and economically, has raised him in stature among the people to a level possibly unprecedented in Latin America history.

These same people provided Castro with the backbone of the revolutionary forces. The Guajiros generally are humble, gentle and polite and notably well behaved. Their discipline is remarkable. The bearded troops rigidly observe Castro's "no drinking" edict, at least in public.

There have been no reports thus far of incidents involving these troops, who walk nightly around the lobbies of luxury hotels with rifles and submachine guns dangling from their arms. It is an incongruous scene at first glance, but the tourists seem to have become adjusted to it.

Idealist that he appears in his crusade to elevate the lot of the Cuban people, Castro becomes a realist in assessing the importance of leadership in carrying his program to fruition.

He told a giant rally in Havana last month that he had named his brother Raul as second in command of the revolutionary forces.

He has chosen Raul to succeed him, Castro said, not because he was just a brother but because he felt Raul understood his objectives and would work as zealously to realize them should he (Fidel) become the victim of "an enemy of the revolution."

He also is apparently aware that his hectic work schedule of 18 to 20 hours a day could exact its toll. After an exhausting five-day plane and auto sweep through Oriente Province last week, Castro was chatting informally with reporters at Bayamo Airport. They were discussing the pace.

"I've probably taken 1 to 20 years off my life," he said wearily. "But there is no other choice. It has to be done."

Hunting Is His Favorite Pastime

Bloomfield Justice Looks Back

Currently celebrating his 20th anniversary as West Bloomfield Township Justice, Elmer C. Dieterle sat for a few moments this week to look back over the years.

He is a hearty man who looks as much at home trudging through hip deep water on a duck hunt or fishing a trout stream on a spring day, as he does behind the bench with a gavel in one hand.

Dieterle moved to Oakland County to begin practicing law at his office in Keego Harbor several years after graduating from the Detroit College of Law in 1930.

As for his favorite pastime, hunting, he has many memories. "I've been hunting deer for 18 years and have yet to get my first buck," he says with a laugh.

As an example of this yearly jinx he cited a hunting trip to Beaver Island in Lake Michigan several years ago with his brother, Ralph, a Detroit attorney.

"Ralph had never gone hunting in his life and borrowed just about everything he had on. It seemed that everything was a misfit," he laughed, "but the thing that I got such a kick out of was the warming pad he brought along."

"We set him on his warming pad under a big pine tree in an open field and then the several other hunters and I went into the woods nearby to find ourselves a 'good' spot."

"About 15 minutes later we heard a shot and ran out to find Ralph standing over a nice buck," Dieterle chuckled. "Ne never went hunting again. Figured he was already batting a thousand and he couldn't improve on that."

Dieterle then remarked with a half-sigh that he, as usual, was the only member of the party who didn't get a buck.

ELMER C. DIETERLE

Duck hunting is a different story. Dieterle gets out for a shot at the airborne prey as often as possible and usually comes home with his limit.

"The greatest hunting experience I ever had was just over last New Year's holiday," he said with a glint in his eye. "I flew down to a hunting camp near Brinkley, Ark. with several other men the Monday before New Years Day.

"These guides are such expert bird callers that they can actually carry on a conversation with the ducks," he said. "The guide set out several decoys, began calling and the ducks came in so thick that it was just unbelievable."

To offer a more realistic idea of the guide's skill he added, "We had our limit in just a few minutes—all of us.

written, signed and witnessed affidavit asserting that last Thanksgiving he actually reached up and picked a flying duck out of the air with his bare hands. That's how thick they were."

The plane trip each way was touch and go due to poor weather conditions, Dieterle recalled, quickly adding "but it was worth it."

Most of Dieterle's hunting is confined to Michigan, however. He fishes in area lakes much of the time, but his favorite fishing hours come on trout streams north of Oakland County.

His only major indoor hobby is the collecting of antiques, which pop up here and there throughout his home at 4764 Old Orchard Trail in Orchard Lake.

As for future plans and aspirations he is modestly silent, sitting in the leather upholstered swivel chair in his office surrounded by shelves full of law books.

But even surrounded by this stately legal atmosphere, the glint in his eyes betrays him, and one suspects his greatest ambition is to bag that first buck before anniversary No. 21 rolls around.

Dear Abby . . .

Husband Searching for Evil Makes Wife the Scapegoat

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: My husband has a dirty mind. The beauty parlor I go to happens to be located in a hotel. He says he doesn't want me to be seen going in and out of the hotel (it is a perfectly respectable hotel) because it looks bad. Also, if I happen to catch a bus right away and get home early he suspects that I had someone drive me home.

ABBY

"I have never done anything (or thought of doing anything) that would give him reason to think I was unfaithful. Am I the only one with a man like this? Why does he think these things?" FAITHFUL

DEAR FAITHFUL: When someone continually spies dirt on the next fellow, the speck of dirt can usually be found in his own eye. If it is any comfort to you, you are not alone.

"DEAR ABBY: I am a mature, independent woman in the real estate business. I am interested in a man in the next town. When I call him to tell him I am driving down to see him he seems delighted and is always available. I pack a hot dinner and tuck in a bottle of wine and we have a wonderful spread by the countryside. I can't understand why he never calls me or comes here to see me." PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: Why should he? He never had it so good.

"DEAR ABBY: I would like to say to the woman who is afraid to have a child because she dreams that her baby will be born blind or crippled, my fears were similar to hers. When I was pregnant I prayed every night that my baby would be a healthy, normal child. God chose to send us a precious little boy who was born blind. He is almost 3 now and we have taken him to many doctors, but they can do nothing for him.

"I will not say that this was easy to accept, but we have done so, long ago, because it was God's will. Our son creates more problems than an ordinary child but we wouldn't trade him for any other baby in the world. Things could be a lot worse, and in spite of everything, we still feel that both our son and we are richly blessed. A MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Thank you for your beautiful letter. You reconfirm the wisdom in the words, "God never gives us a heavier load than we can carry." Bless you!

"DEAR ABBY: I am a girl who is 12 years old and my problem is my best girl friend. She is a real cute girl and smart in school, but she doesn't want me to have any other friend but her. She cuts down every other girl I speak to. I like to be friendly with everybody but it seems I have to take my choice between this one girl and all the rest. Please tell me what to do."

UNDECIDED

DEAR UNDECIDED: Be friendly with ALL the girls. If this one girl realizes that she can't monopolize you, she will probably be friendlier with the other girls, too.

CONFIDENTIAL TO WANTING TO KNOW: Ask your father. Tell him that you have heard that your mother is not "in heaven" but in a "mental hospital." (Not insane asylum.) You have a right to know the truth, but it should come from your father.

Plans were made for the celebration of Pythianism Feb. 19 and for the Mizpah Temple birthday.

Rho Chapter Names Leaders

Committees for the year were announced by Wilma Webb, president of Rho Chaper, Alpha Delta Kappa Sorority, at the meeting held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Joseph W. Fouts of North Telegraph road.

Mrs. Morrell Jones and Mrs. Taylor Harris were named to the telephone committee. Others were Mrs. N. G. Polk and Mrs. Ross Tenney, ways and means; Mrs. E. Cleo Wiley and Mrs. Theodore R. Fauble, program; Lamonte Wertz and Mrs. Elwood Dunn, altruistic; Mrs. Fouts and Mrs. Edward H. Leland, bylaws; Mrs. Polk, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Leland, publicity.

Plans were discussed for the sorority's international convention to be held in August at Miami Beach. Miss Webb will represent Rho Chapter as a delegate.

Mrs. Fauble, a member of the Pontiac Story League, presented a French Canadian story from "The Talking Cat," by Natalie Carlton and "The Best Hated Man in Town," by Joan Vatzek.

A rush tea will be held Feb. 14 at the home of Miss Webb. Refreshments were served by the hostess and Mrs. Wiley, cohostess.

Tell Guests You Cherish Furniture

Soup Course May Be Served in Your Living Room

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: We recently refurnished our living room completely with beautiful and expensive furniture. All pieces are custom made. This is my problem: Our sofa is all white. We had company the other night and one woman curled up on the sofa with both feet tucked under her. She was wearing black suede shoes.

"I was so annoyed that I was ready to ask her to take her feet off the sofa. Please tell me how does one handle a situation of this kind without embarrassing the guests."

Answer: When you have white or very delicate furniture, it is best to say something to a new guest before she sits down about how proud you are of your new furniture and of your fear that it will soon be ruined.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Several times of late I have been to the houses of friends who served a pre-dinner course in the living room. It was thin soup in cups which was passed on a tray. I like the idea because it eliminates service of a first course at table. Do you consider this correct?"

Answer: Usually the first course served in the living room before dinner is restricted to canapes or hors d'oeuvres, but if you would like to serve soup in cups there is no reason why you may not do so.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Will you kindly tell me what part, if any, the grandmothers of the bride and groom take at the reception, and where are they seated in the church?"

Answer: They are usually seated next to the parents in the front pew, but if they prefer aisle seats they are then seated in the second pew. At the reception the bride's grandmother would receive with her mother and the groom's grandmother with his mother.

Hair Gets Dusty

Follow shampoos with a thorough brushing and scalp massage each day. These stimulate circulation and clean the scalp of dust and scaly deposits from excess oil.

Hats Take Perky Tilt for Spring

Spring hats are designed to wear level or tipped back on the head. Some styles have a decided tilt, worn at provocative angles.

The Millinery Creators of America, a group of 17 designers, shows wide, floppy brimmed picture hats which give two different effects, depending on the angle.

They hide the face when worn straight or frame the face in a youthful manner, dipping to the shoulder in back, when tilted.

Veils are in abundance—swathing evening hats, obscuring the face in a cloud, or falling from brim to neckline in harem fashion. These long Turkish veils often are trimmed at the bottom with fabric matching trim on the hat or with colored flowers, resembling a boa which falls around the shoulders.

Dondero Speaks

George A. Dondero was guest speaker at the meeting of General Richardson Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. W. E. C. Huthwaite.

He spoke on Abraham Lincoln and stressed the influence Mrs. Lincoln had on her husband's career.

Film, Songfest to Spark Banquet at Wever School

A film and songfest under the direction of Arthur Bell will be part of the program featured at the Wever School PTA Mother-and-Daughter banquet. The banquet will be held at 6:30 p.m. Thursday in the school gymnasium.

Guests for the evening are Mrs. Arthur Bell and daughter Althea; Mrs. Irwin Mills and daughter Carolyn; Mrs. Frank Harp and daughter-in-law Mrs. Floyd Harp; Mrs. Clarence Miller and daughter Mrs. John Lyons; Mrs. Keith Pawley and daughters Marie and Susan, and Mrs. Melvin Boersma and daughter Marilyn. Mrs. Boersma is in charge of music.

Posters made by students for the affair have been judged, and prizes will be awarded during the program.

Eat Some Daily

Vitamin C Glues Us Together

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

This is the third and last day I am giving this week to the story of vitamin C. It has become increasingly important as its many effects on health have become known through research, studies and experimentation.

Just what is vitamin C? The United States Department of Agriculture says that vitamin C is "essential to the integrity of the cement substance which lies between the cells of the body's various tissues and keeps each cell properly set and supported." This makes me feel that I will fall apart unless I get enough of this vitamin each day. In a way we are all sort of glued together!

I already have mentioned many of the benefits derived from a sufficient vitamin C intake and I also have touched on some of the penalties which result from a deficiency.

The National Research Council recommends 70 milligrams daily for the average-sized woman in normal health, 100 daily for the pregnant woman and 150 for the nursing mother. It also seems wise to increase your vitamin C intake during many illnesses, during periods of stress, following an injury or an operation, to fight infection, or when chronic fatigue haunts you. Naturally you should follow your doctor's advice concerning your individual case.

One-half grapefruit or one whole orange supplies about 75 milligrams of vitamin C. Four ounces of orange juice supply 40 to 50 milligrams and a tangerine about 25.

It always is best to obtain as much of our vitamin and mineral intake as possible through diet. Vitamin capsules will not make up for a poor diet, although they often are most beneficial when used as supplements to a well-balanced diet and in special cases of illness or abnormal conditions.

The citrus fruits and juices are your richest and most reliable source of vitamin C.

Margaret Ann McIsaac, Louis Miller Speak Vows

MRS. LOUIS D. MILLER

St. Michael Church was the scene of the Saturday morning wedding of Margaret Ann McIsaac and Louis D. Miller. The Rev. Michael J. O'Reilly officiated at the Nuptial Mass.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. McIsaac of Harper street and Mrs. Florence Miller of North Cass Lake road.

The bride wore an Italian silk waltz-length gown with a scalloped neckline accented with lace and sequins. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of white pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. James Asher was her sister's matron of honor. She was dressed in a ballerina-length gown of white lace over pink tulle, with a matching half-hat of iridescent braid and a circular veil.

Mrs. Donald McIsaac was bridesmaid. Her dress was like the matron of honor's but of aqua tulle. Both had cascade bouquets of Yuletide roses.

Best man was Frank Sapelak of Grove City, Ohio. Ushering were Leonard A. Peres of Detroit and Donald J. McIsaac of Oxford.

A breakfast was held at the bride's home. The reception for 200 guests was held in the Miller Building.

Before leaving for a honeymoon to California the bride changed to an off-white lace dress with matching accessories and the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet. The couple will live on Elizabeth Lake road.

Mrs. McIsaac wore a blue shantung dress with pink accessories for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Miller was dressed in a blue silk print dress with white accessories.

Rennee Chevallier Wed at Scott Air Force Base

Air Force Staff Sgt. Rennee T. Chevallier and Air Force Tech. Sgt. Albert L. Anglin were married Saturday afternoon at Scott Air Force Base, Ill.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Marion Shay of North Opdyke road.

Her ballerina-length dress was of white Chantilly lace over taffeta, with a fitted bodice and round neckline. A fingertip veil of illusion was held by a satin and lace headband, and she carried a white Bible.

Mrs. Mitchell Delmar was matron of honor. She wore a blue off-the-shoulder dress with a corsage of carnations and white iris.

Gerald Prete of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was best man, with Marvin Schimmel as usher.

A reception was held at the NCO Club for the bridal party. Before leaving on a honeymoon to New Orleans, the bride changed to a tan knitted suit with black accessories.

Mrs. Shay wore a blue and white sheath dress with black accessories for her daughter's wedding.

St. Michael Group Plans Blood Drive

St. Michael Altar Society met Wednesday evening at the Parish Hall.

Mrs. Vincent Vaverek announced that the Red Cross Blood Bank would be held at St. Michael Hall from 2 to 8 p.m. April 20.

Cream Cheese Mixture Tops Pineapple in Pie

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Whenever we get a cherished recipe from a reader, we are so pleased bcause everyone likes the unusual dish. This Pineapple Cheese Pie recipe from Mrs. Niles Shelton comes under that category.

The mother of an active year-old son, Mrs. Shelton keeps more than busy at home. She enjoys painting, but her chief pleasures of homemaking are cooking and sewing.

PINEAPPLE CHEESE PIE
By Mrs. Niles Shelton

½ cup sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1 can (9 oz.) crushed pineapple
1 package (8 oz.) cream cheese
½ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
3 eggs
½ cup milk
½ teaspoon vanilla
1 unbaked pie shell

Blend 1/3 cup sugar, cornstarch and pineapple in saucepan. Bring to boiling point and remove from heat. Let cool.

Beat cream cheese, sugar and salt together. Add eggs one at a time, then milk and vanilla. Beat until smooth.

Pour pineapple mixture into pie shell. Cover with cheese mixture. Sprinkle chopped pecans or graham cracker crumbs over top of pie. Bake 10 minutes at 400 degrees. Reduce heat to 325 degrees and bake 50 minutes more.

Five Editors Resign, Form Own Firm

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five top editors of Missiles and Rockets Magazine today announced their resignation and said they had formed a new publishing company.

They were Erik Bergaust, editor, and associate editors Norman L. Baker, Raymond M. Nolan, Peer Fossen and Alfred J. Zaehringer.

The men said they had set up a new company, Eastmount Corp., which will publish a series of trade publications for the missiles and space industries. Bergaust will be publisher and editor of the new firm.

The first of its publications will be a daily newsletter service for management and executives of missile and space industries.

Bergaust said the company also will have a research division to carry out study contracts for the military services and industry.

The newly formed company, with headquarters here, will have branch offices in New York, Los Angeles, Detroit, Dayton and Huntsville, Ala.

Order Death Certificates for Missing Bradley Men

CHARLEVOIX (AP)—Death certificates have been ordered issued for 15 crewmen whose bodies still are missing from the Nov. 18 sinking of the freighter Carl D. Bradley in a Lake Michigan storm off Charlevoix.

The order by Probate Judge William T. Downs followed a hearing yesterday in the case as prescribed under a Michigan Public Act of 1951.

Two men survived the sinking and 18 other bodies were recovered a day later. The ship carried a crew of 35.

Parking Meter Firm Set to Foil Bandits

CHICAGO (AP)—Vandals damaged some 22,000 parking meters last year so the city has been offered new and havier ones — described as vandal resistant.

The company holding the contract for servicing the city's meters offered to install the new meters as replacments if it is granted a new contract. The number of meters damaged in 1958 represented a 400 per cent increas

Man Who Wants a Longer Life Had Better Get Himself a Wife

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Young men . . . old men . . . middle-aged men! It pays to get married.

At least in France and the United States, that is.

Statisticians at the National Office of Vital Statistics have put together a lot of figures that present a fairly convincing case. They have been corroborated by data from the French Institut National de la Statistique et des Etudes Economiques.

French figures show that a young married man of 36 can expect to live six years longer than his unmarried—or divorced—cousin.

The American figures show that an unmarried or divorced man of 35 to 44 has two-and-a-half times as great a chance of dying this year as does his married brother.

Even an American unmarried 75-year-old has almost a 40 per cent greater chance of dying than if he were married.

There are a lot of theories as to what this means. The Americans have some pretty complicated and stodgy ones. The French, however, simply say of the married man:

"He is less inclined to yield to all sorts of temptations."

And it may be said, even the American statistics seem to bear out the French theory.

It should be mentioned in passing, that married women live longer, too, than unmarried women, both in France and in the United States.

What then do these married men and women get out of married life? Here are the astounding details.

Strange as it may seem, married men apparently have fewer ulcers than unmarried men. At least fewer married men die of them. And fewer married men die of hypertension. Furthermore, fewer widowers die of ulcers than men who have never been married.

As for women; very few women have ulcers anyway, married or single, divorced or widowed.

Single men have a greater chance of being murdered, or of dying of pneumonia, tuberculosis, cancer and heart disease.

Three times as many widowers commit suicide as their married friends.

Until they reach 50, single men are more likely to die of hernia. After 50, there's no advantage in being married as far as hernia is concerned.

THEY'LL LIVE LONGER — Statistics show that American husbands and wives enjoy more years on earth than single, divorced or widowed men and women.

Taught Philosophy for 39 Years at Columbia

Mark Van Doren to Retire From College

By DICK VALERIANI

NEW YORK (AP)—"Nothing is too difficult for students."

For 39 years, this teaching philosophy guided Mark Van Doren at Columbia University.

Now, at 65, the gray-haired English professor has decided to close his teaching career. He said Monday he will retire this June—but only from teaching.

Despite the urging of colleagues to remain, Van Doren is retiring three years before the mandatory age, he said, to be "free to do more writing and, when I feel like it, not do anything."

"I have always loved teaching, but it takes a great deal of time and energy and I haven't had enough of either to devote to writing," he said.

The time he did have for writing produced first-class results. His "Collected Poems" won a Pulitzer prize in 1940. He has written literary criticism, biography, short stories and novels.

His first play, "The Last Days of Lincoln," is set for Broadway production next season.

Van Doren, like his late brother, Carl, is a Lincoln expert. There is a trace of the Lincolnesque in his slender, wiry frame and wrinkled features. He was graduated from the University of Illinois in 1914.

Van Doren recalled that his students have always been the same—"very serious and very good."

"We try to look at our subject straight in the face and discern some truth," he said. "A teacher and student can help each other discover what each thinks and understand if they approach their subject with honesty and preciseness."

A number of his students went on to achieve their own measure of distinction. They include Thomas Merton, Clifton Fadiman, Mortimer Adler, Jacques Barzun, Lionel Trilling, Henry Morton Robinson, among others.

Van Doren also has been singled out as a family man. In 1957, he and his son, Charles, who won $129,000 on a television quiz show, were named "father-son team of the year."

The professor said he and his novelist wife, Dorothy, will spend much of their time after June at their country home in Cornwall, Conn.

"I am not sure more leisure will mean more poetry; it might mean less," he said, "but I want to try it anyway."

Chicopee, Mass., turned out this country's first friction matches.

What Is Wrong When Prayer Fails?

A strange man in Los Angeles, known as the "Voice of Two Worlds," is offering free of charge to the public, an astonishing Booklet which is a great step forward toward the answer to this question. The search for clues led to a prolonged study of all the great religions of the world, until at last a surprising new light was thrown upon the entire subject of prayer.

In this new light, even the well known Lord's Prayer acquires astonishing new meanings. Hidden between the lines are deep significances and wonderful truths that do not appear in the words alone. The free booklet points these out and is entitled: "The Magic Between the Lines of the Lord's Prayer."

"The Voice of Two Worlds," a well known explorer and geographer, tells of a remarkable system that often leads to almost unbelievable improvement of power of mind, achievement of brilliant business and professional success and new happiness. Others tell of increased bodily strength, magnetic personality, courage and poise. These strange methods were found in the Far East, where in ancient times all the great religions and philosophies of the world originated.

He discloses how he learned rare wisdom and long hidden practices, closely guarded for three thousand years by the sages which enabled many to perform amazing feats. He maintains that these immense powers are latent in all of us, and that methods for using them are now simplified so that they can be used by almost any person with ordinary intelligence.

In his own case, he was brought back to splendid health. He acquired wealth, too, as well as world-wide professional recognition as a leading geographer and map-maker of the Far East.

He wants to tell the whole world what he learned there, under the guidance of the wisest mystics he ever encountered during his twenty-one years in the Far East. He wants many others to experience the greater health and the Power, which there came to him.

For your free copy of the amazing free booklet entitled "The Magic Between the Lines of the Lord's Prayer," together with other free literature regarding this remarkable system, address the Institute of Mentalphysics, 213 So. Hobart Blvd., Dept. 211-R, Los Angeles 4, California. Send no money. Just your name and address on a postcard will do. No obligation. Readers are urged to write promptly, as only a limited number of the free books have been printed.

Teacher Raps Idea That We Will Grasp All

Science Can't Solve Every Problem

NEW YORK (UPI)—A scientist urges humility on his fellows because science definitely is not capable either of explaining or solving all the problems of the human race, even if many scientists think it is.

Scientists who believe science is the only method of solving problems are kidding themselves—they have a faith in science which science can't justify, said Prof. Ernest Van Den Haag, anthropologist and sociologist of New York University in a communication to the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

When you apply only the "scientific method" to problems, you are assuming "the cosmos is so arranged that its total magnitude and contents cannot exceed the grasp of scientific method—that nothing can exist that cannot also be known and proved scientifically."

That assumption leads to the dilemma that unless values can be proved to be "right," the universe becomes valueless. "Only science can make testable predictions, and thus prove scientific theories. But, if it is correct to say that only what is true can be proved to be so, it does not follow that only what is proved or provable, can be true."

Demonstrability and truth are not the same. And there are many matters which pose problems that will not yield to scientific methods. To ignore such problems surely is not to solve them. To pretend that science can solve them is to create pseudo-scientific morals and to discredit science."

"The ends and purposes of life" have moral implications whose "truth" science can neither establish nor prove, he said. For instance, happiness-for-the-greatest-number scientifically is not a workable law for the human race.

Happiness is hard to observe, impossible to calculate. Yet we act—and must act—as though we knew what action will lead to a net increase of happiness." But we don't know.

Science cannot prove the "truth" of this or other moral implications. "One may well allow that there is such a truth—even though people disagree on where and how to find it," Dr. Van Den Haag said.

"A difference of beliefs does not imply that there is no truth or that it cannot be found. It implies only that it has not been found."

He challenged the idea that "perfect knowledge, goodness, and wisdom, such as may be attributed to angels, would lead to agreement on ends and means and thus make government superfluous." In the first place, he doubted angels are "cast from the same mold."

"They may have different preferences," he said. "Some, for instance, may wish to leave nature unspoiled. Others, in concrete circumstances, might want to give up some natural beauty in favor of, say, electric power or housing developments.

"No social science, indeed no knowledge at all, can decide which should be done, which is better, or even by what means the decision should be made. Yet decisions must be made all the time and we are not angels."

'It's Just Like Merchandising'

To Tony Curtis Acting Is a Serious Business

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Tony Curtis, clad in immaculate Navy lieutenant's whites, saluted and came aboard the submarine Balao.

This was a scene in a movie, "Operation Petticoat," which is being filmed here. It should give a smile to Tony's former shipmates, who knew him as Signalman 3-C Bernie Schwartz on a sub in World War II.

The kid has come a long way, and I don't mean just in the Navy. He is among the brightest, most ambitious and most successful of the new young stars.

"Look—it's just like merchandising," he explains. "I want to get the public so hepped up that they can't wait to see the next Tony Curtis picture."

As a result, he is the press agent's dreamboat. But Tony is shrewd enough to know that you don't become a star by publicity alone. You've got to have the product, too.

"I've had the greatest string of pictures I could possibly get," he said enthusiastically. The string: "The Vikings," "Kings Go Forth," "The Defiant Ones," "Perfect Furlough," "Some Like It Hot." Upcoming: "Spartacus," "Who Was That Lady I Saw You With?" "The Rat Race."

He told his method of picking pictures: 1. the script; 2. the director; 3. his co-stars.

Money?

"That doesn't worry me," he said. "If you're a success, the money will come. I expect to make $900,000 from my share in 'The Vikings,' and $600,000 for 'The Defiant Ones.'

"So it doesn't matter that I make 'Petticoat' for just $55,000 as part of my old Universal contract. Because they're getting me so cheap, they can afford to get Cary Grant for the picture. And I get to work my all-time idol."

Tony's energy has made him the youngest member of the golden dozen male stars who virtually run the movie business today. None of the other young players has exhibited his drive.

Oh, yes—there's one other element in Tony's success. He is learning to act. It's not utterly necessary in movies, but it doesn't hurt, either.

Castro Eligible for Presidency?

Age for the Office Is Reportedly Lowered by Revolution Government

HAVANA (AP)—Cuba's revolu- has lowered the presidential age limit from 35 to 30—thus opening the door to Fidel Castro, 32.

Presidential Palace sources said the Cabinet decree changing the constitutional provision was contained in a special issue of the official gazette Monday night.

Dr. Osvaldo Dorticos, a legal expert for the provisional government, said the change was not made to benefit Castro specifically.

The revolutionary hero has denied he wants to be president, but various leaders of his movement consider him the logical choice. He and Provisional President Manuel Urrutia have said the country should be ready for elections by June 1960.

Constitutional provisions normally can be changed only by a Constituent Assembly. But since the overthrow of President Fulgencio Batista on Jan. 1, the revolutionary forces consider themselves the "source of law" and the provisional government changes the constitution by decree as it sees fit.

On the labor front, Havana's vital tourist trade was threatened once again by a nationwide strike of restaurant and hotel workers called for Thursday to protest the government's continued shutdown of the gambling casinos.

Union President Alfredo Rancano, defying Castro's stay-at-work appeal last Saturday, said the walkout would idle more than 20,000 workers.

Rancano estimated 10,000 musicians, cabaret artists and other casino employes had been laid off because the rebels closed the gaming houses when they took over.

War crimes executions continued with the firing-squad killing in Bayamo of three Batista soldiers on charges of hanging rebels. In Santa Clara, a former army captain convicted of war crimes also was shot. These brought the unofficial total of executions to 292.

In Havana, an official investigator was assigned to study the case of Alan Robert Nye, the former U.S. Navy pilot accused of plotting to kill Castro. Nye is being held at Havana's La Cabana Fortress. So far the 30-year-old American has been charged only with entering Cuba illegally.

Door Is Guarded as Newlyweds Give Ship Party

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Industrialist Louis E. Purmort, who got a court order preventing his mother from attending his wedding to a divorcee, is on his way to Honolulu on his honeymoon today.

Purmort, 34, and his bride, the former Barbara Jean Thorndike, 26, held a party aboard ship, with a guard posted outside their stateroom.

The Purmorts were married Saturday in Pasadena.

In gaining a court order to bar his mother from both the wedding and reception, Purmort alleged that she threatened to kill him if he went through with the marriage. The mother, Mrs. Tessie Purmort, denied the charge.

Brazilian Government Seizing Red Propaganda

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—The government is seizing Communist propaganda sent into Brazil from the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia.

Custom officials are picking up Red publications found in shipments, and police confiscate all that slip through.

Distributors of the Czech Spanish-language magazine "Problems of Peace and Socialism" said they intend to challenge the confiscation in the courts. Soviet magazines being picked up include "New Times" and Trud."

Juke, Coin-Machine Racketeering Probed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gangsters and racketeers were accused by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark) today of seeking to take over legitimate business in the multibillion - dollar coin - operated machine industry.

Opening an investigation by his Labor-Management Committee into that industry, McClellan said underworld figures from widely scattered areas in the nation will be called as witnesses.

"The current investigation," he said, "will likely be one of the most important we have undertaken with reference to the hoodlum effort to achieve legitimacy through association with unions and business enterprise."

The committee expects to examine for four weeks juke box and coin machine racketeering in such states as Ohio, Minnesota, Florida, Pennsylvania, New York, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan.

$2,500 a Month Given Power's Widow, 3 Tots

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Tyrone Power's widow and his three children will get $2,500 a month living expenses from the actor's estate.

Superior Judge Burdette J. Daniels, setting the allowance Monday, advised survivors to tighten their belts "until we find the condition of this estate."

He ordered $1,500 a month for Power's widow and third wife Deborah, 27, and their newborn son. The actor's second wife Linda Christian, 31, will get $1,000 a month for their daughters Romina, 7, and Taryn, 5.

Power's estate is estimated at about $300,000. He also left $370,000 in life insurance.

Romeo Council Gets $$ Requests

ROMEO — The village council last night heard two requests for village funds—one to help support the summer recreation program, the other for the Romeo Peach Festival Assn.

The Romeo Community Youth and Civic Center Board asked the council for $825 which would be the village contribution toward its second annual summer program for children in the area.

A total of $1,100 is sought by the board to cover the cost of the community-wide project. The Bruce and Washington Township boards will be asked to share payment of the remainder of the amount needed to offer the program again this year.

The Peach Festival Assn. made its annual request for $750 to help pay the expenses of the 27th annual celebration, to be staged over the Labor Day weekend.

Action on both requests was tabled pending a recommendation by the Village Ways and Means Committee which is scheduled to meet Feb. 23.

Bids on gasoline and fuel oil, to be used in village-owned vehicles and buildings, and insurance bids were opened last night. All bids were turned over to Village Attorney J. Gerald McLean who will report his findings at the Feb. 23 committee meeting.

Village President Joseph Rymill appointed councilmen Fred C. Hebert and Donald Payne to serve on the election board and Stanley Bluhm to act as dog warden.

City Disobeyed, Judge Charges

Adams Says Pontiac Not Following Writ to Promote 3 Officers

Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams yesterday said the city of Pontiac had not complied with his writ of mandamus ordering the promotion of three police officers.

The judge granted the policemen's attorney, Paul W. Harty of Southfield, a motion to amend the original writ so as to spell out "specifically" which vacancies on the department the men must be promoted to.

Harty contended in a hearing before the judge that City Attorney William A. Ewart was "deliberately trying to avoid" the writ by elevating two of the officers to positions created with the retirement of Lt. Claude A. Evans.

Ewart argued that Judge Adams' writ of mandamus had been complied with.

Promotion of Sgt. Fred L. Goines to Evans' old position, and the placing of Detective James F. Bale in Goines' previous spot, did not comply with the writ, Harty said.

He said he would file the amended writ in Circuit Court tomorrow.

Judge Adams warned of further court action should city officials not comply with it.

Vermont Fire Ruins Theater, Offices

BENNINGTON, Vt. (AP)—The only movie house in Bennington and several businesses and offices were destroyed by fire early today.

Lost to the flames were the General Stark Theater, the officers of the state's attorney, and the federal Internal Revenue Service, Joy's department store, a toy shop, a sandwich shop, a flower shop and the Bennington Social Club.

All were in one big three-story brick building on Main street.

Damage was estimated unofficially at $750,000.

The roof of the theater and all the floors of the building collapsed. No one was hurt.

The blaze raged out of control for more than three hours as firemen handicapped by freezing rain, sought to keep it from spreading.

Thief Gets $50,000 From Grace Hospital

DETROIT (AP) — A thief broke into a safe at Grace Hospital yesterday and got away with nearly $50,000 in cash and checks. Most of the money belonged to a doctor who was in surgery.

Police said two checks totaling more than $48,000 were taken in a billfold which belonged to Dr. Clyde Hasley. About $200 in cash and some smaller checks were taken.

Peach Festival Head Named

Herbert Miller Chosen President of Romeo Assn. at Meeting

ROMEO — Local businessman Herbert A. Miller was elected president of the Romeo Peach Festival Assn. during the annual meeting of the 15 member board held last night in the Lions Club Den here.

Other officers named to serve with Miller this year were Robert C. Inwood, vice president; Norman L. Engel, secretary; and Wesley Pardon, treasurer.

The new board promptly set the wheels in motion to appoint new members to fill board vacancies and to launch initial plans for the 27th annual Peach Festival celebration this year.

The three-day event is scheduled annually over Labor Day weekend and traditionally attracts over 30,000 visitors to "the heart of the fruit country."

The first order of business will be the appointment of a publicity float chairman. It will be his job to see that a float is ready this spring to advertise Romeo's annual celebration in parades in neighboring communities.

Another early event will be the contest to select Miss Romeo and her two maids of honor who will ride on the float in the parades prior to the festival.

Gets Life Sentence for Killing Woman

Life imprisonment is ahead for Luther J. Green Jr. of Royal Oak Township who was convicted last month of slaying a township mother of four with a hunting knife following a quarrel.

Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty imposed the mandatory life sentence on the 28-year-old Green after a Circuit Court jury found him guilty of first-degree murder Jan. 23.

Green of 20815 Woodside St. was accused of killing Mrs. Ann Mosley, of the same address, last November. He later gave himself up to township police.

Your PTA Is Planning

Clarkston Group to Hear Talk on Reading Thursday

CLARKSTON—Dr. Robert Dodd, director of language arts education for Oakland County schools, will speak at the Clarkston Elementary School PTA meeting at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in the school.

His subject will be reading problems for elementary through the sixth grade. "If He Is Interested, Nothing Can Stop Him" is the title of Dr. Dodd's talk.

A discussion period, to enable parents to bring up any reading problems they may have encountered in their children, is scheduled to follow the talk.

The Sashabaw Elementary School PTA in Clarkston will hold Founders Night at 8 p. m. Thursday in the school.

A brief "Founders Report" will be given by historian Robert Stump. It will be followed by a lecture, to be given by the Rev. W. F. Bostick of Inkster, on "Basic Attitudes in Rearing Children."

Refreshments will be served by the third grade mothers.

FOUR TOWNS—The Four Towns School PTA has scheduled its meeting from 7:30 to 8 p. m. Thursday in the school, when parents will have the opportunity to meet with their children's teachers.

A special "Mothers Night" program has been planned for the evening. The homeroom mothers will put on a skit, and Tom Belton will speak on Waterford recreational activities.

Refreshments will be served.

DECLINE IN FARM FAMILIES — Steady decline in the number of American farm families is depicted in the above chart. The 6,814,000 farms of 1935 shrank to 4,754,000 by the end of last year, according to the Department of Agriculture.

FARM OPERATOR'S INCOME — From a recent-decade low of $288 in 1932, the average farm operator's annual net income has risen. A postwar high of nearly $3,000 dropped to $2,735 last year, according to U. S. Department of Agriculture figures.

County Health Department Plans Diabetic Class

A series of evening classes for persons who have diabetes and their families will begin Feb. 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the Pontiac office of the Oakland County Department of Health, located in the City Hall, John D. Monroe, M.D., director, Oakland County Department of Health, announced today.

"The purpose of the classes is to help diabetics and their families to gain better understanding of diabetes," Dr. Monroe said. "It is important that the person who has diabetes cooperate with his physician and accept the responsibility for the prescribed treatment.

"In no other disease is the education of the patient a more important part of treatment, than in diabetes," he added. "With proper care diabetics can expect to live as long as anyone else and as usefully and happily."

The five classes will be taught jointly by Miss Grace Purdy, public health nurse, and Miss Annabel Rickard, public health nutritionist of the Oakland County Department of Health.

Persons interested in getting more information about the course or taking it should call the Oakland County Health Department.

People attending the classes must have the written approval of their physicians.

Michigan Navy Man Found Dead in Ditch

EDISON, N. J. AP—Police are investigating the death of a young Michigan sailor who had planned a three-day pass in New York but instead wound up in a ditch beside a railroad track here.

The body of Malcolm D. Foster, 22, of Grosse Pointe Farms, was found yesterday with his clothes torn from his body. Police theorized that he fell or was pushed from a train.

"There was no reason for him to have jumped, and I don't understand how he could have fallen," said his brother, Miller Foster.

Wife of Gov. Williams Uninjured by Tornado

LANSING (UPI) — Nancy Williams, wife of Gov. G. Mennen Williams, was in a hotel near the area of St. Louis, Mo., hit early today by a tornado, the governor said.

She was attending a Red Cross convention.

Williams said he was unable to get a circuit into the disaster area but that Mrs. Williams reached his office to say she escaped injury.

One Third of Students Fail, Go on Probation

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Almost a third of the student body at Bellarmine College was flunked out or put on probation at the end of the last semester.

The school had an enrollment of 743 and 38 students were failed and 225 placed on probation.

Dem Leaders Scorn Program

Agriculture Secretary Seeks OK on Lower Price Supports

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson urged farm belt lawmakers today to help fight inflation by curbing the cost of government aid to farmers.

He appeared before the House Agriculture Committee to seek approval of the administration's plan for lower farm price supports and relaxed production controls.

The committee's Democratic leaders served notice in advance that they want no part of the new program. They said the committee will not approve any reduction in price supports.

Benson said present support and production programs have "obviously failed" in controlling surplus crops and have helped large farmers more than smaller ones.

He added that farm costs are "a powerful factor in the fight against inflation . . . one of the most serious domestic problems facing the American farmer and the American people today."

His inflation statement was apparently part of an over-all White House campaign to hold down government spending to achieve a balanced budget. Otherwise, his testimony added little to the proposals President Eisenhower submitted in his recent farm message to Congress.

The President asked Congress for authority to lower price supports to reduce the incentives for over production. He suggested basing supports on recent open-market price averages instead of the old "fair earning power" parity formula.

Benson said Congress should enact a new program for wheat before May 15 when production controls for the 1960 crop are to be announced. He said the wheat surplus has grown so big that "we are facing a crisis."

White gold is pure gold whitened and hardened by adding nickel.

For Rochester High School

OK Athletic Field Bonds

ROCHESTER — Revenue bonds totaling $30,000 to improve the new athletic field at Rochester Community High School have been approved by the State Municipal Finance Commission.

The district asked for the money last summer to cover the cost of lighting equipment for night games, sodding of the bank, construction and erection of permanent bleachers to seat 2,000 spectators and fencing.

Faced with the opening of the football season in October and no money to do the job on developing the field, parents, students and area organizations bought bonds on the strength that the school's request for the needed funds would be approved, school officials said today.

The field was ready for the first home game. And now, as their bonds mature, the investors will receive their money back from the revenue derived from the field, the school district spokesman said.

Township to Install 24 Street Lights

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — At last night's regular meeting, the Pontiac Township Board approved installation of 24 street lights in the township.

This action followed recommendation by the township lighting committee which recently conducted a survey of locations where street lights were felt to be needed in the township.

In a letter to the board, a Pontiac firm of registered engineers, Feldhauser-Russell, Associates, offered the township its services "to help cope with impending problems of land development in the township."

The firm was asked to submit a schedule of fees before action would be taken on the offer, Greta V. Block, township clerk, said today.

Continue Questioning of Besonen in Killing

DETROIT (UPI)—Police in Detroit today continued to question Woodrow Besonen, 46, of 1913 Fourth St., Royal Oak, about the death last Friday of George Sweigert, 60.

Homicide detectives said a murder warrant would probably be issued today or tomorrow on the basis of circumstantial evidence in the case.

Besonen allegedly confessed the slaying while undergoing questioning after taking a truth serum. A tape recording of the "confession" was played back to him yesterday. Detectives said he flew into a rage and damaged the tape.

Police said Besonen told conflicting stories of his actions Friday when Sweigert was found dead in his Detroit home (at 19732 riopelle St.) Sweigert was killed by a number of blows from a hammer.

Adds to Weather Woes

MARINE CITY (UPI)—A broken water main added to the weather woes here last night, flooding four blocks in the west section of the city. Rain and sleet were falling at the time the main broke.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Phil Woolpert, outspoken basketball coach of the San Francisco University Dons, recently made the statement that he believed basketball officials are too often swayed in their decisions by crowd reactions.

Woolpert did not say it was deliberate. He believes that the effect on an official is psychological when the emotions of a crowd is running high.

Probably in no other sport is the referee as important as he is in basketball. The game moves quickly and decisions have to be made as fast.

In most every case the call is as the official sees it and there is no reason to doubt the integrity of his decision. No one expects him to be infallible.

Basketball however does require a good official to be consistent. Some officials call fouls and floor violations very close. Others are scrupulous about fouls and discrepant on floor calls, or vice versa.

Officials are often accused of being "homers," and the question raised by the accuser usually is, "Why is it the visiting team has more fouls than the home team?"

Factually, this question has a lot of truth. Just to check the box scores of 46 games this year, we found that in 31 instances the visiting team was called for more fouls.

The home team had more fouls on only 11 occasions and in four games the total number on each team was identical.

But there is a good argument against this statistical data. It is agreed by most people that the home team does have a certain advantage in court familiarity and fan support.

The shooting eye usually is better on the home floor and as a result the visiting team attempts to compensate for this, especially when it falls behind by trying to get possession more often, thereby hoping to get more cracks at the basket.

The fact in this statement bears itself out in the same 46 games which showed that the visiting team tried the greater number of shots in 28 games and had the poorer shooting percentage.

It can also be pointed out that when a visiting team does fall behind because of better home team shooting, many of the fouls committed occur in the final minutes in trying to get possession.

We do not attempt to absolve the officials, however, in every type of foul they call.

Two of the most frivolous fouls called are rebounding and back court whistles.

When man learns to control himself in midair by walking in space to keep from bumping the other player attempting to rebound this foul will warrant the whistle.

The same holds true when two players run into each other coming down court at a distance far from where the ball is in play.

There are exceptions here in deliberate situations, but in most cases these fouls are petty and the points are cheap.

The Wests usually have entries in all metropolitan area shows from their kennels. Ami has won 37 all-breed shows.

Two 'A' Cage Powers Clash Here Tonight

Chiefs Lose Top Spot, Highland Park Quintet Also Slips in Voting

By BILL CORNWELL

Both of them have dropped in the rating list, but they should give one whale of a basketball performance tonight at Pontiac Central High School.

Pontiac Central and Highland Park, still highly ranked but a little further down the scale, renew their sizzling cage rivalry on the PCH court this evening at 8 o'clock.

Coach Art Van Ryzin's quintet, voted Michigan's No. 1 Class A prep team for the past four weeks, slipped to 3rd place this week in the wake of a 53-52 overtime loss to Flint Central last Friday.

Highland Park fell two notches in the latest "A" poll, despite breezing to lopsided victories over U. of D. High and Dearborn Fordson between voting sessions.

Once-beaten Detroit Austin Catholic, defending state champion, took over the top spot in the newest Associated Press poll conducted by sports editors and writers throughout Michigan.

Hamtramck, also with one loss, jumped into 2nd place ahead of the Chiefs. The Parkers tumbled from 7th to 9th.

Both the Chiefs and the Parkers will be trying to regain some lost prestige when they collide in the PCH gymnasium. The Chiefs would like to return to the top rung on the ladder and the Parkers hope to convince the pollsters that they deserve better than 9th.

Each team has a standout season record and a reputation for stellar feats on the hardwoods. PCH enters the battle with a 9-1 record while the Parkers are 8-2.

The Chiefs were riding the crest of a nine-game winning streak when they went to Flint last Friday. The Indians of Central ruined their perfect slate and the PCH cagers are still smarting from the sting of their 1st setback.

Pontiac has a rough road ahead in its bid for the Saginaw Valley Conference crown. Valley rivals Bay City Central, Saginaw and Flint Northern remain to be conquered and tough Royal Oak Dondero joins Highland Park in the non-league group.

PCH scouting reports indicate that, as usual, the Parkers are fundamentally sound and well coached by Jim Wink and that making mistakes against them is a costly proposition.

Highland Park always is a rugged customer for the Chiefs. Two years ago here, the Parkers were ranked No. 1 and PCH was rated 2nd and the game ended with two teams in the same order. Last year the Chiefs dropped a one-point decision at Highland Park.

A game of great importance to the Chiefs as far as the Valley race is concerned takes place in the Flint IMA this evening when city foes Central and Northern clash for the 2nd time this season.

Central bowed to the Vikins in their 1st meeting, 54-49, and the Indians seek to avenge that defeat. The Chiefs hope they do since a Northern loss would tumble the Vikings into a 2nd place tie with their city rival.

Northern and PCH currently share the Valley lead with 6-1 records, followed by the Indians at 5-2.

Buffs Sign Grandelius

Duffy Regrets Loss of Sonny to MSU Staff

Ex-State Star Given $14,000 Contract; Will Use MSU-Style Play

EAST LANSING (UPI)—Michigan State head football coach Duffy Daugherty today expressed "deep regret" over the loss of backfield coach Everett (Sonny) Grandelius to Colorado.

He said both Colorado and Grandelius should benefit from the change.

Grandelius was named head coach at the University of Colorado in Boulder yesterday, replacing Dallas Ward, who was fired last year.

"I have been closely associated with Sonny both as a coach and a friend," Daugherty said, "but I feel this is a grand opportunity because Sonny is a capable young man who has always been extremely loyal to MSU, and Colorado is a fine school."

Daugherty said a replacement would be named after talks with Grandelius who was expected to return to East Lansing today.

He said Grandelius would be given help in setting up his staff at Colorado. But Daugherty did not say he expected any of the other six MSU assistants to join Grandelius at Boulder.

Grandelius, 29, was an MSU halfback in 1948-49-50, and played a year with the New York Giants of the National Football League before returning as Daugherty's assistant in 1954.

He holds MSU records for most ground gained by rushing in a season and in a single game and for most rushing attempts in a season.

Grandelius, married and the father of three children, will receive $14,000 for his services at Colorado. The deposed Ward got $12,800.

The hiring ended more than two weeks of wild speculation in Boulder over who the new coach would be. A committee considered such names as Terry Brennan and Frank Leahy, former Notre Dame mentors, and Bob Blackman, Dartmouth coach. Negotiations were actually held with Blackman.

Grandelius will name five of his assistants. He won't fare as well with his team, which will be riddled by graduation with many holdover members bitter at the way Ward was booted out.

Grandelius jumped right into his new job. He announced he will employ a double winged "T" offensive, which he learned from Daugherty. But perhaps the biggest chore facing Grandelius will be to bind the wounds among prominent alumni, split over Ward.

Ward, meanwhile, was working at his full professorship of athletics at the university. But it was reported he had been offered the head coaching post at the University of Wichita.

Wildcats Lose Monday; MSU Cagers Fall Into 12th Place

By The Associated Press

Kentucky, North Carolina and Kansas State still are rated the top three teams in college basketball in the new Associated Press balloting but Kentucky wears the honor somewhat dubiously after its 66-58 loss to Mississippi State last night.

The sports writers and broadcasters participating in the weekly accounting based their selections on games through last Saturday. As a result, only Michigan State dropped from the top 10 from the teams that made up the elite a week ago.

The Big Ten Spartans skidded down to 12th place after an 85-81 loss to Purdue on Saturday. Bradley, St. Louis and West Virginia moved up one place in the rankings, making room for Mississippi State in tenth place.

The top ten teams with first place votes and won-lost records through Saturday, Feb. 7, in parentheses:

Pistons Whip Royals in Ft. Wayne Game

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Pistons returned to their old home town of Fort Wayne, Ind., last night and put on a good show for their former friends and neighbors. They beat Cincinnati, 122-97.

It was the first National Basketball Assn. game in Fort Wayne in two years. Jack Twyman gave the crowd something to yell about by scoring 30 points.

Seven players scored in double figures for Detroit in its eighth victory in 10 games with Cincinnati this season. Phil Jordan was top man with 20 points.

Twyman hit 11 fielders in 20 shots and sank eight of nine free throws. Wayne Embry of Cincinnati was the only other Royal in double figures with 16 points.

Tonight the Pistons go up against the world champion St. Louis Hawks at Olympia Stadium.

The Hawks can clinch their straight Western Division by winning here. They could even wrap it up in defeat if Cincinnati defeats Minneapolis.

St. Louis downed Syracuse 99-94 and Boston bowed to host Philadelphia 121-113 in a doubleheader last night while the Lakers were dumping the Knicks 128-122.

Bob Pettit finished with 26 points after going scoreless for 16½ minutes last night. Elgin Baylor's 31 points led the Lakers to their 3rd victory in as many days. Paul Arizin tallied 25 for Philly and Bob Cousy 32 for Boston.

Busso Strong Threat to Take Crown

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Because Joe Brown will be meeting the strongest fighter of the six he has defended his lightweight title against, there is sentiment aplenty that the skinny little guy will reach the end of the road here tomorrow night.

Brown, the aging Negro from Baton Rouge, La., meets a fellow who already has given him a licking—Johnny Busso of New York.

He will enter the ring a 7-5 favorite locally but with longer odds elsewhere—in New York it's 2½ to 1—but even Brown and his manager, Lou Viscusi, aren't making any strident claims of victory.

It's quite different from Brown's last two title fights, both in Houston, when the champion told all that he would knock out both Ralph Dupas and Kenny Lane. He did kayo Dupas, but he never came close to putting Lane on the canvas. In fact, he won a very close decision.

"This Busso has the biggest dimensions of any lightweight I ever saw," observed Viscusi. "If you consider everything but his weight, you'd think the fellow was a welter or middleweight."

Busso proved too strong when he decisioned Brown in a non-title fight at Miami Nov. 4. He took everything Brown had to offer and wasn't even shaken. Brown weighed 141 for that fight, Busso 139.

Brown has claimed that had the fight gone 15 rounds he would have won. That's something Busso, the New York boy known as the "string breaker," hotly disputes.

Busso says Brown's age—he's 33 to Busso's 24—is against such a claim.

And Chickie Ferrera, Busso's trainer, says he has seen Brown in all his title fights and "the guy definitely is slowing down."

But even Ferrera admitted that there's likely to be a knockout in the televised fight and he's not too sure Busso will do it.

"Both are great punchers and each is likely to put the other out at any time," Busso's trainer declared.

Ticket sales for the 15-round bout, due to go on at 10 p.m. EST, showed a boom yesterday after progressing so slowly for a week that Texas Boxing Enterprises, the promoters, had predicted only a $50,000 house in contrast to the near $70,000 gates of the Dupas and Lane fights.

Viscusi said the $15 seats had begun to move and he felt pretty certain that the gate would exceed $50,000 considerably. He didn't think it would approach $70,000, however.

Humphries Regains Huron Lead on 3293

Humphries Real Estate rode a sizzling 3293 series back into first place in the Huron Bowl Classic as it powered games of 1074, 1159 and 1060 for a four point sweep over West Side Mobil.

Skee Neal led the real estaters with 696. Mike Samardzija added 661, Don Martell 657, John Nickell 654, and Bill Leigh 625.

Monroe Moore, contributed a near-perfect 290 and a 750 series as West Side Mobil scored well with a 3140 set but ot no avail.

City Parochials Add Extra Tilts

Two additional basketball games, designed to help keep Rams and Shamrocks in condition for coming tournament tests will be played this week by St. Frederick and St. Michael high school quintets. Each has closed its regular schedule of Suburban Catholic League tilts.

The Rams will entertain St. Francis deSales of Detroit in a Friday night encounter in the St. Frederick hall. Several other tilts are also in prospect.

Also on Friday the Shamrocks go to Farmington to play Our Lady of Sorrow club, first meeting in any sport for the schools.

While all other SCL teams have wrapped up their schedules, one game still remains to be played. Royal Oak St. Mary goes to Ferndale tonight, to play a postponed tilt with St. James. The game was set originally for last Friday.

There was also a possibility that Orchard Lake St. Mary might arrange extra tilts for this week and next.

Seniors' Golf Event to Have Larger Purse

DUNEDIN, Fla. — The PGA Seniors' golf championship will be a $15,000 tournament in 1960, PGA officials have announced.

Prize money for next year's tournament will be 50 per cent greater than the recently concluded 1959 event. First prize next year will be worth $1,500, second $1,000 and third $750.

The Seniors' tourney for golfers 50 years of age and older will be held next year at the PGA National Golf Club from Jan. 26 through Jan. 31.

Closing date for entries in the 1960 tourney will be Jan. 9. It will be the 21st renewal of the event.

No 'D' Tilts Tonight

Tonight's two scheduled Class D City League basketball games at Lincoln Junior High have been called off due to previous commitments for the use of the Lincoln gymnasium.

City Team 6th in State

The Stroh team of Pontiac, captained by Peggy Bender, finished in 6th place for the 1st weekend of the Women's State Bowling tournament at Grand Rapids over the past weekend with 2856 handicap score. Hazel Clark was the top individual with a 575 actual and 641 handicap total.

By BEN OLAN

The pickoff play is a neat one when it works. Otherwise it can be disastrous. Pitchers laboriously work on the pickoff in spring training but many still have not mastered it.

Here's a theoritical case involving the pickoff play. Hit the right answer on the nose and you qualify as a baseball expert.

The Pittsburgh Pirates have Bill Mazeroski on first base and two out against the Milwaukee Braves. The score is 3-3 in the last of the seventh. Lew Burdette is the Braves' pitcher and he's facing Roberto Clemente. Burdette takes the stretch on the pitching rubber and then fires over to first base, attempting to pick Mazeroski off the bag. The throw, however, is very wild and the ball lands in the box seats behind first base.

Do you think that:

a. Mazeroski is entitled to score?

b. He can move around to third base?

c. He can only advance to second?

Answer: C—He can only advance to second. If a ball thrown by a pitcher while he's on the rubber in an attempt to catch a runner is wild and goes into the stands, the ball is dead. The runner is entitled to one base only.

Golfing Great Now Comfortably Retired

Hagen Star of 'Golden Age'

(This is one of a series of articles about Walter Hagen, one of our great golf pros who played in the "Golden Age of Sports." It was Hagen who brought the golf pro out of nowhere. He now is retired and lives near Traverse City.)

By CLANK STOPPELS
Grand Rapids Press Sports Writer

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Once upon a time there was born a Walter Hagen.

It is quite probable there never will be another quite like him. This is true partly because Hagen is Hagen, partly because the "golden age" of sport, the 1920s and '30s, provided the opportunity for the glitter and flamboyancy that became part of the national sports hero.

Hagen made—and spent—a million dollars as he strode glamorously across golf's horizons for nearly 30 years. Kings, counts and millionaires he called by first name. He golfed the world over, dated glamorous movie queens, chartered ocean-going vessels and brought golf professionals out of the cellar.

Hagen always was fast with a buck and he spent each dollar as if it was his last opportunity to get rid of it. Hagen never went second class. Even today, as a stout 66-year-old living in happy retirement at Long Lake, near Traverse City, he owns a touch of living, a sensitivity for the finer things, seldom found in other men.

It was many years ago that Hagen first penned those classic words:

"You are here only on a short visit. Don't worry, don't hurry and don't forget to smell the flowers."

It also was Hagen who said: "I don't want to be a millionaire, I only want to live like one."

Hagen doesn't live like one now, but he's not too far from it, living most comfortably off royalties and the stipend he receives each year for the use of his name on golf clubs and golf balls manufactured in Grand Rapids.

"Do I miss the game?" he asks, then answers his own question. "Well, I must confess that I still have a very active interest in golf. It has done everything for me.

"But I just can't play any more. Perhaps it is because I simply couldn't play anywhere near the level I once did. I once said that they'd never catch the Haig playing second-rate golf, and I bowed out making sure they didn't."

Hagen has a million memories. Many he picks out of great triumphs such as his four British Opens, his five PGA conquests, his two National Open victories, and a long list of other conquests. Many of his prize stories were born not on the golf course but from his antics that carried around the clock 12 months of every year.

In the late '20s, he was to meet Leo Diegel in the final round of the match play PGA championship. Hagen spent the entire night touring Manhattan, finally showing up by dawn's early light in a taxi, shortly before the 36-hole final was to start.

"Good grief," an astonished member said to him, "do you realize that Diegel has been in bed since 10 o'clock last night?"

"No doubt he has," Hagen said, "but he hasn't been sleeping."

Another time Hagen came to an eastern course for a special exhibition. One of the members collared Walter in the locker room. "I'll bet you $50 you don't tie the course record of 67," he challenged the Haig.

"It's still early in the day," Hagen replied. "Perhaps you can get a little more support."

The member did, to the tune of $10,000, which Hagen matched. Hagen reached the 18th hole with a chance to win—if he could birdie. His second to the par-4 green stuck hole high to the right, leaving him a dangerous, downhill, 12-footer. Hagen looked the putt over hurriedly, then stroked the ball. Scarcely had it left his putter when he turned to the gallery, announcing boldly, "Pay me, suckers."

The ball rolled dead into the hole. Hagen chuckles today when he recalls the incident. "I'd have looked pretty foolish if it hadn't dropped."

Brundage Sees U.S. Losing Stature in Sports World

MILWAUKEE (AP)—America, says Avery Brundage, is "slipping into a secondary position in the world of sports."

The only way to reverse the trend, says amateurism's staunchest advocate and severest critic, is to start teaching children in kindergarten "to play for fun and not for money."

Brundage spoke in an interview Monday night after the male and female athletes-of-the-year banquet sponsored by the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Miler Herb Elliott of Australia and tennis star Althea Gibson of New York received the Frederick C. Miller memorial trophies for being named the world's foremost athletes of 1958 in the annual Associated Press poll.

Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee, told a crowd of 600 the selections of Elliott and Miss Gibson by the nation's sports editors "should dispose of this myth that an amateur is someone not good enough to be a pro."

But, later the Chicagoan discussed what he called "a sad state of affairs."

"In the last Olympic games," he said, "we were outclassed in half of the sports on the program. Australia won 35 medals and we won 74. On a per-capita basis, they did 10 times as well as we did and they're not the only ones."

Brundage, 70, declared: "We haven't won a long distance race over a half mile in any international competition in many years, 25 years or so I would say.

"Russia alone had 800,000 trained gymnasts three or four years ago when I visited there. You couldn't find 800 in the U.S."

Asked about reports that the Soviet Union pays her athletes, Brundage replied: "They swear they are within the amateur rules. You hear rumors and stories about them paying their athletes, but so far we have no proof."

Told of Elliott's suggestion that Australia reimburse its Olympic athletes to the tune of a half day's pay for each day's training, Brundage said:

"You can't make a champion with a subsidy. It takes diligence and hard work. That's why Elliott got where he is. Anyone who says you can wear yourself out by three or four hours of training a day is silly."

Grand Rapids Women Defend Title Feb. 21-22

CHICAGO (UPI) — A record number of 32 teams will compete for the third national women's team championships sponsored by the Bowling Proprietors Assn. of America, Feb. 21-22, at Warrensville Heights, Ohio.

The defending champions are the Fanatorium Majors of Grand Rapids, Mich. The Fanatoriums will be bowling under a new name this year — the Steelcase Majors.

But missing from the title team is ace Marion Ladewig. The seven-time All-Star champion will not bowl with any team in the tournament.

Returning from last season's championship unit are Charlotte Kardas, Marge Davison, Dolly Konwinski and Eloise Van Geest. Pat McBridge replaces Mrs. Ladewig.

The championship will be decided on the basis of total pins for 12 games this year. First prize is $1,000.

Northern Sophomores Win in Wrestling

Carl Bills, Don Teets, Winfred Miracle and Dave Taylor scored pins as the Pontiac Northern sophomores walloped Detroit Catholic Central 32-16 at PNH last night. Miracle scored his win in 43 seconds.

Husky decisions were won by Don Scott, Mal Oswald, Jim Miller and Early Hewitt.

The Waterford varsity team returns to action tonight in a home match against Edsel Ford.

7-Foot High Jump May Not Count

NEW YORK (AP) — John Thomas, the 17-year-old high jumping Boston University freshman, may have to clear seven feet again indoors to get his name in the record books.

His brilliant leap in the Millrose Games at Madison Square Garden Jan. 31 — the first over seven feet in indoor track and field history—may not be allowed because the height of the crossbar was not measured after the jump.

AAU chief Dan Ferris disclosed the dilemma yesterday and while officials involved indicated they might be lenient in the matter, the rules require measurements before and after record jumps.

Litzenberger Newest NHL Point Threat

MONTREAL (AP)—New York's Andy Bathgate has regained the National Hockey League scoring leadership from Bernie Geoffrion of Montreal, but both have a new challenger in big Eddie Litzenberger of the Chicago Black Hawks.

Litzenberger picked up six points in his last three games and 13 points in the last two weeks. He now is only five under Bathgate's leading pace of 64 points. Bathgate with four points on a goal and three assists moved two points ahead of Geoffrion, who managed two assists although he remains in the slump that has shackled him with only one goal in his last 19 games.

The scoring leaders:

| | G | A | Pts. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1. Bathgate, New York | 20 | 35 | 64 |

Pettit, Hagan 1-3 in NBA Race

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Pettit and Cliff Hagan of the St. Louis Hawks are forming a one-two punch unmatched in the history of the National Basketball Assn.

Through games of Sunday, Feb. 8, Pettit had scored 1,559 points and Hagan 1,277 for a total of 2,836. Between them, they have accounted for an average 52.5 points per game and need only a combined average of 30.9 the rest of the way to top the all-time combo mark of 3,392 set by Paul Arizin and Neil Johnston of the Philadelphia Warriors in 1957.

Pettit's No. 1 again in scoring and Hagan is up to No. 3, according to statistics released today by the NBA. Pettit has a 28.9 average in 54 games, followed by Arizin with 25.5 and 1,401 points for 55 games, and Hagan 23.6 and 1,277 points for 54.

The leaders:

Legion Baseball Meeting Tonight at Birmingham

An organization meeting for next summer's area American Legion junior baseball program will be held tonight at 8 at the Birmingham Post home.

Birmingham and Clawson are reportedly considering entering two teams and Rochester, Southfield, Royal Oak and Berkley one each. Legion officials have hopes of adding teams from Pontiac and Waterford.

All teams interested in taking part are invited to send a representative to the meeting.

IMPROVED FALCON — One of the big reasons Rochester is having another big court season has been the steady improvement of rugged forecourt operator Chuck Ebersole. He has totaled 60 points in the last five games following a slow start. The Falcons host top local foe Avondale tonight.

Orion, Northern Tangle Tonight

Local Rivals Play 2nd Time at PNH Gym

Avon-Falcons, Wolves Travel to Ortonville in Other Battles

The best Tuesday basketball schedule of the season will be served up for prep fans around the Oakland County area tonight.

Lake Orion will invade Pontiac Northern and highlighting the slate.

Other interesting affairs will include a big battle of state-rated teams — Berkley and Royal Oak Dondero—and the Clarkston-Ortonville tussle.

The Eastern Michigan, with Birmingham at East Detroit, and Southern Thumb leagues will account for most of the area loop action.

Pontiac Northern should have another big crowd unless poor weather conditions continue. The Huskies have had a good following during a rough 1st year and Orion is certain to bring a lot of rooters along.

The Dragons, of Hal Carlin have been an unpredictable quintet as their 6-4 record indicates. They hit their season high of

Keego-Viking Game Off

The Walled Lake-West Bloomfield game scheduled for tonight at the Viking court has been postponed until Wednesday night due to the hazardous driving conditions.

70 Friday on the heels of a 60-point night so they may finally have their offense clicking.

Northern stands at 2-7 now with a much tougher schedule and has been beaten by at least 12 points each time while dropping its last four starts.

Orion was the 1st school PNH played as a varsity team. The Dragons posted a 46-42 victory at home Dec. 2. Husky Mike Fedynik and Jim Recknagel were the stars that night. Each has gone on to become two of the top point-getters in this sector.

Rochester should have a breeze against Avondale but comparing such rivals on paper is a waste of time. The Falcons beat the Yellowjackets 73-40 in December. Both are smarting from bad beatings last Friday in which Rochester suffered its initial game and Avon turned in a listless showing.

Berkley reigns now as the county's lone unbeaten team but the Bears will have to be at their best at Royal Oak against big John Meadows & Co. Berkley is 11-10, Dondero is 8-2 and has won its last five.

Clarkston will be returning an earlier visit by Ortonville in hopes of matching a previous 19-point triumph. The Wolves have won their last two after an upset by Bloomfield Hills. Ortonville has dropped two in a row.

Birmingham could possibly move into a tie for 2nd place in the EML by defeating East Detroit — currently the chief threat to Ferndale. The latter school will be at Port Huron as Hazel Park is host to Mt. Clemens.

Cranbrook travels to Grosse Pointe University School, high-riding Imlay City meets Mariette, and North Branch entertains Yale. Lapeer is at Owosso in non-league play.

The Thumb slate will have Almont at Brown City, Capac at Armada, Dryden at New Haven and Memphis at Anchor Bay. Utica battles Warren in the Bi-County, Harper Woods vs. Country Day and Lamphere meets Clintondale in the Central Suburban.

Illinois Stuns Hoosiers, 89-83

MSU Gets Title Help

By The Associated Press

Michigan State's Spartans today still ruled the Big Ten basketball race after a pair of second division teams dumped ambitious Indiana and Purdue.

Illinois, a loser of five straight, whipped Indiana 89-83 last night and prevented the Hoosiers from climbing into a first place tie with Michigan State. Worse yet, Indiana sustained the loss on its home court.

Purdue went rolling up to Madistreak. The Boilermakers had aspirations of catching up on the leaders after a poor start. Wisconsin hadn't won a Big Ten game in six starts. The final score: Wisconsin 91, Purdue 86.

The loss was the fourth in eight games for the Boilermakers who fell behind 53-40 at halftime. Rick Murray, a reserve guard, led Wisconsin with 27 points and Jim Biggs added 24. Willie Merriweather was high for Purdue with 27.

The loss dropped Purdue (4-4) into a four-way tie for fourth place with Northwestern, Iowa and Minnesota. They are all one-half game behind Michigan (4-3).

Indiana (5-8) remained in second place, one game behind Michigan State (6-2). The Hoosiers grabbed a 17-0 lead over Illinois and were in command, 47-34, at the half.

But Illinois fired a 55-point second half salvo. Roger Taylor scored 28 points for Illinois while Mannie Jackson added 21. Leroy Johnson was high for Indiana with 23 and Walt Bellamy had 19.

Michigan State and Michigan return to action Saturday when they meet at East Lansing. In other games, Indiana is at Minnesota, Iowa at Wisconsin and Purdue at Northwestern in a regionally televised matinee.

Kentucky's tournament picture was hidden behind a cloud of uncertainty today following a stunning reversal by Mississippi State on a night of basketball upsets that also saw Marquette's 15-game winning streak go by the boards.

Kentucky, the defending NCAA champ and again top-ranked in the new Associated Press poll, succumbed to Mississippi State 66-58. The setback, the Wildcats' second in 20 games, dropped them into third place in the Southeastern Conference.

Last night's result gave Mississippi State an 8-1 SEC record to 8-2 for Kentucky. Auburn, which beat Florida 93-71, heads the conference with a 10-0 mark.

However, because Auburn is on NCAA probation and a state law in Mississippi prohibits competition against teams having Negro players, Kentucky may find itself in the unique position next month of representing the conference in the NCAA tourney despite a third-place finish.

Marquette was the victim of a second half uprising by DePaul. Trailing 47-44 at the intermission, DePaul broke open the game after Jim Fleming put it ahead 69-67. The Blue Demons than banged in nine straight points. The 89-80 setback was the second in 19 games for Marquette. DePaul is 9-5.

Auburn extended its unbeaten streak to 28 games — 17 this season — with a 61.7 field goal percentage. Florida was no match for the Tigers, who won 93-71.

Fewer 'Whistles,' Faster Game

Rule Test Is Rated OK

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) — Tex Winter says his experiment with some proposed new basketball rules turned out pretty well last night but he thinks they need more testing.

Winter, coach of No. 3 ranked Kansas State, had his reserves play a demonstration game. He had two main objectives: To improve officiating and stop the stalling.

Winter put one official on the floor and stationed two others up in a sound-proof booth high in the stands. The idea is to free the officials from the pressure of crowd reaction.

He banned a time clock. The first half ended when one team reached 25 points, and the game stopped after one got 60 instead of the 50 he first planned.

Here's how it turned out:

The two officials in the booth, using a public address system, called 21 personal fouls. The man on the floor called five more. In addition, 14 minor violations were called.

That means action was stopped 40 times by the whistles. Anybody know how often it happens under present rules? No official figure is available, but some games this season have seen one team alone shoot 50 free throws.

Kite Thomas and Dougal Russell, the cooped-up officials, said they were too far way. Winter said there should be a booth on each side about halfway up in the stands, but last night they had to use a single radio booth 'way up there on a wall.

Thomas said they couldn't see the hacking under the goals, and Russell noted, "You can't hear it either."

Winter conceded that maybe you need one official above and two on the floor.

There wasn't any stalling.

The first half ended in 18 minutes with the score 25-13. The second half ran 30 minutes and the final score was 60-38.

That's 63 minutes elapsed time, including time-outs and intermissions, compared with the usual 90 minutes or more.

Strikes and Spares

By JOE WILMAN

I know teams that have broken up and frendships that have been ruined because the team captain had trouble selecting the five bowlers who were to bowl each week when six or seven men were on the team.

Here's how my team in Berwyn, Ill., solved this problem. We took our scores from the previous week, and the low scorer sat out the next week. The man who had sat out the previous week was lead-off man. The second-lowest scorer bowled second and so on down the line with the best scorer from one week bowling anchor the next week.

All six members can get together when they finish bowling, as the group in today's drawing, to figure out the next week's lineup.

I think it is one safe and honest way to determine your lineup if you have more than five bowlers available each week.

Even if you bowl under the handicap system, as most leagues do, you can figure out your scores with handicap.

This way, no one can accuse your captain of favoring or hurting any other team member. It's as good a system as any I know to solve this problem.

Lakeside's Lead Dwindles After Defeat by Knights

The Knights of Columbus cut Lakeside's lead to one game in the Class A City League basketball race with a 73-70 triumph over the Royals as runnerup Shaw's Jewelers defeated the Sports Shop, 69-64, in games Monday night at Pontiac Central.

A better balanced attack produced the upset win for K. of C. with Hal Trott leading the way on 23 points and John Keller coming next with 19. Gerald Fudge scored 23 points and Bill Pembroke made 21 for the Royals, defending city champions.

Charlie Barge, the recently graduated PCH star, sparked Shaw's to victory over the Sportsmen as the Jewelers moved within one game of the league-leading Royals. Barge tossed in 19 points. The loser's Felix Brooks tallied 20 to take game honors.

In Class D games last night at Lincoln, Central Christian created a three-way tie for 1st place in the National loop by dumping Eastside Shopping, 61-46, and Welden's tightened its grip on 2nd spot in the American division with a 52-46 conquest of Jefferson.

Ray Smith's 20 points featured Christian's win as the church cagers joined their victims and the idle Pledges in a triple deadlock for the league lead. Another Smith — Dan — had 19 for Eastside.

Bill Davis went on a 30-point scoring spree to pace Welden's success over Jefferson. Al Manley bagged 18 for the Jefferson quintet.

State Billiard Ace Leads Jap Expert

CHICAGO (AP) — Harold Worst, the world's three-cushion billiard champion, defeated Miss Masako Katsura of Tokyo, Japan, yesterday in the first block of a week-long, 600-point match.

Worst, from Grand Rapids, Mich., won 50-46 in 50 innings. He led 27-25 and then scored 12 more in the next five innings for a 39-27 lead. After 43 innings, Worst led 48-31 but the Japanese expert rallied putting together runs of six and eight to cut Worst's lead to two points, 48-46. Worst came back in the 50th inning to win the block.

They'll compete in afternoon and evening blocks through Saturday and the first to pile up 600 points will win the exhibition.

The Green Empress

(Copyright 1958) . . . by Elizabeth Cadell

CHAPTER XLIX

"What became of Holt?"

"He was in the photograph too. They were all in the photograph."

"I see. Well, before I go back, I'd like to thank you for getting me the job. I'm sorry I made a hash of it."

"It wasn't your hash, everybody knows that. Incidentally, I'm your courier."

"Good. I'll watch you and see just where I went wrong."

He arrived at the departure point shortly before half past ten on the following morning. Waiting outside the hotel stood the Green Empress, its color blending pleasantly with the soft hues of the garden. Beside it, talking to Wax was a stout, familiar figure, and Angus, after staring for a moment in astonishment, went forward with hand outstretched.

"Ferdy! Are you driving us?"

"I am, sir." Ferdy's face beamed. "I asked Mr. Sealing if I could take you back. Be like old times, sir."

"I sincerely hope not," said Wax. "I've told Mr. Graham that he's to keep his seat and watch the scenery—and you'll watch the road. That way we'll stay out of trouble."

Ferdy grinned.

"Come and look at the Empress sir, he invited Angus. "Good as new."

"I wasn't sure whether she was the same Empress or not."

"And that, if you don't mind me saying so, sir, is the difference between us drivers and you gentlemen. You couldn't get a driver in the Company that didn't know, after his first trip, exactly which Empress he'd handled.

"But don't they all look alike?"

"To you, sir, maybe. To us . . . no." Ferdy patted the side of the coach affectionately. "She's my bus, sir, and I'd know her anywhere."

They peered at the places in which she had been wounded, and saw no least mark or sign. She was her old, sleek self. Ferdy started her engine and she purred contentedly.

"Here that, sir?" He beamed at Angus. "That's the sound I like to hear."

Wax appeared round the side of the coach.

"Passengers aboard," he announced. "Are you two thinking of joining us?"

Angus followed him round to the door. Wax, with mock ceremony, waved him on.

"After you, sir."

Angus paused for a last look round. He had stood, as Wax was standing, not so long ago, ready to board the Empress, ready to take charge, ready to assume the responsibilities of the trip. Now he was going back without responsibilities, with only memories.

SCENE MISTS OVER

The gentle hum of the coach faded as the ghosts crowded round him. He heard the Admiral and his sister. He heard Mr. Holt's unhurried sentences. Miss Seton, with her poise, Mrs. Zoller, with her jewels. Maurice Tarrant's uninhibited speech. And Angela . . .

Pain gripped him. Wax, watching him, saw his face whiten, and put a gentle hand on his arm.

"All aboard," he said, softly.

For a moment, looking to left and right through a fog of confusion, he thought that the ghosts had come aboard with him. He put out a hand and gripped the back of a seat, and a horny hand reached out and covered his own.

"Well, well, well," boomed the Admiral.

He had walked thus many times. He had passed up this aisle and he knew exactly who would be seated to right and to left. His throat too tight to allow him to reply to the words of greeting from his old passengers, he went to the only empty seat, which had been Angela's.

He sat down. Here she had sat, and in front of her there had been Lionel Yule, and in front of Yule, Lord Lorrimer.

And Lord Lorrimer was there now, opposite the smiling Miss Seton—but in the seat behind him there was not Yule. Yule was missing, and in his place was a slim figure, and Angus could see the back of a head that he had once thought too fair. Round it was a narrow band, a band that was not a ribbon, but a scarf. A scarf gay with little fans . . .

He heard Wax speaking to him.

There was a ripple of mirth throughout the coach and then suddenly there was silence, the silence of happy expectancy. For Angus had put his hand on the chair in front of him, and was slowly turning it, turning it until he saw the fair face, the eyes, so unexpectedly brown, and glistening now with tears.

"If there's anything you want, sir . . ." came Wax's voice from an immense distance.

THE END

Claims Congress Saver, Not Spender

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas said that Congress "has not been the spender but the saver" in dealing with the federal budget.

Johnson's remarks to reporters were made in the light of President Eisenhower's challenge to those he called "spenders" in Congress to come up with additional taxes if they increase outlays above the 77-billion-dollar budget total he has set.

Congress, Johnson said, has cut Eisenhower's monetary requests by 22 billion dollars in the last six years.

Virginia Model for Rights Plan

Ike Program Omits 'Big Stick' in Light of Orderly Integration

WASHINGTON (AP)—The civil rights program the Eisenhower administration submitted to Congress is understood to have been tailored in the light of the recent orderly integration of the public schools in Arlington and Norfolk, Va.

Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers virtually said so at a news conference last week when he expressed the hope that other areas coming up to a school desegregation problem would take a leaf from the Virginia book.

Rogers expressed pleasure that the Virginia program got under way after final court rulings without disorder and without federal intervention.

During the many conferences at which the administration's proposals were shaped, consideration was given to asking new powers for the government to initiate school integration suits on its own motion.

The attorney general told a news conference in mid-January, that the administration would mark time on submitting its proposals to Congress to see what happened in Virginia.

Apparently as a result of the peaceful integration in Arlington and Norfolk, the administration bills omitted any big stick role for the federal government.

Instead, the President asked in relation to the school situation for a stronger law to deal with persons seeking to obstruct valid court orders for desegregation.

Mooney Due in Circuit Court

Bound Over Following Waived Hearing That Was Delayed 3 Times

Suspended Waterford Township High School instructor Arthur C. Mooney, 50, waived a three-times postponed pre-trial examination Monday afternoon and was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court on a charge of having committed gross indecency.

For Mooney, of 1651 Grimshaw St., Commerce Township, yesterday was a busy day in the courts. In the morning he stood mute to a charge of driving with a revoked license, and then appealed the drunk driving conviction of last Tuesday for which his license was revoked.

His morning appearance in court was before West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Dieterle. In the afternoon he was arraigned in the courtroom of Pontiac Township Justice Robert W. Hodge.

He originally appeared before Hodge on Dec. 19 when charged with furnishing beer to minors and gross indecency. He then stood mute on both charges and Hodge set Jan. 9 as the date for trial on the misdemeanor and examination on the indecency charge, a felony.

Both the trial and examination had been postponed three different times prior to yesterday, with the latest date being set at Feb. 27. Mooney with his attorney appeared voluntarily late yesterday before Hodge to waive the examination.

Hodge bound Mooney over to circuit court for arraignment next Monday at 1:30 p.m. on the morals charge. His trial date on the lesser charge remained the same.

The charges grew out of an auto accident Dec. 13 involving four students, one of whom was killed. One of the students told Oakland County sheriff's deputies that Mooney had bought beer for the four on the night of the smashup, and then revealed the alleged acts of gross indecency, police said.

Appearing again before Deiterle yesterday morning, Mooney stood mute on the latter charge and Dieterle set his trial date for Feb. 24 at 2 p.m.

Mooney then appealed the drunk driving charge and is scheduled for arraignment on the appeal in Circuit Court next Monday at 9:30 a.m.

He was freed after posting a $500 bond on each charge.

Mrs. Roosevelt May Do TV Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is considering an offer to present commercial messages on television for an oleomargarine manufacturer.

Thomas L. Stix, a partner in a talent and production agency which represents clients in radio and television, said yesterday that Mrs. Roosevelt had appeared in experimental commercial films.

Mrs. Roosevelt, when asked previously about a report that she had decided to accept the offer, said that any information would have to come from Stix.

The offer was made by the Lever Brothers Co., maker of the margarine.

Stix said a contract "had not been concluded" and that the matter was "in the discussion stage."

News in Brief

Walter S. Chalmers, 23, of Detroit, was treated for minor injuries and released from Pontiac General Hospital when the car in which he was riding, driven by Neill A. McLeod, 22, of 20 Salmer St., slid on icy pavement and struck a utility pole early this morning on Orchard Lake road just south of Dover street, according to city police.

Earl Crenshaw, owner of a restaurant at 426 W. Huron St., told Pontiac Police yesterday that thieves had broken into the restaurant and stolen an undetermined amount of money from several vending machines.

Dwight Roger, owner of a gas station at 304 N. Johnson St., reported to city police Monday that thieves had broken into his station, attempted unsuccessfully to open a safe, and then had taken an estimated $8 from vending machines.

Stocks Start Up After Decline

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market bounced back today after four straight sessions of decline. Gains ran from fractions to about 1 point or more in early lively trading.

Steel stocks were in the lead on the advance, reflecting the highest operating rate for steel since mid-April 1957. There were substantial gains in motor and electronic issues.

Heavy early trading threw the ticker tape behind floor transactions shortly after the opening. It quickly caught up.

Brokers were not surprised by the rally, which came after a sharp selloff yesterday on top of three weak sessions. Brokers felt the market was due for at least a temporary rebound.

U. S. Steel and Republic Steel raced ahead about 1 point. Lukens, one of the few strong stocks yesterday, tacked on more than 2 points.

Haveg highlighted the electronic shares, gaining 3 points on top of a 4⅝ point gain yesterday. Fractional advances were scored by Radio Corp., Raytheon and Sperry Rand.

Metals were mixed. There was some selling on lower copper prices in London and a price reduction in the Belgian Congo, Anaconda gained but Kennecott, American Smelting and International Nickel slumped.

Corsages Given to Local Women in Who's Who

Corsages of carnations were presented to three feminine members of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors yesterday for being listed in the new edition of "Who's Who in American Women."

Delos Hamlin, chairman of the board, handed out the corsages to Mrs. Harriett Phillips of Huntington Woods, Mrs. Genevieve C. Schock of Berkley and Mrs. Hope F. Lewis of Birmingham.

Their names and brief backgrounds were listed among some 19,000 American women.

Call Ike School Plan Inadequate

Term 5-Year Proposal at Cost of $2½ Billion a 'Monstrosity'

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower ran into bipartisan complaints in Congress today that his five-year school aid program doesn't go far enough fast enough.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky) said that as top Republican on the Senate Education and Labor Committee he will introduce the administration's bills. But he said he does not believe Eisenhower's proposals "will meet the needs for elementary school construction."

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming made public details of the administration program Monday. It proposes a five-year plan of helping finance school and college construction at a cost to the government of about 2½ billion dollars. But the spending, on a bond retirement basis, would be spread over about 25 years.

Cooper was expected to discuss his views with Eisenhower in a call at the White House.

CALLED 'INADEQUATE'

Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich), who has proposed a two-year program of a billion dollars annually for school aid, said in a separate interview he regards the administration's program as "totally inadequate."

Sen. James E. Murray (D-Mont) chairman of a subcommittee considering school aid bills, called the administration's program a "legislative monstrosity" he said was "designed not to help education but to help bankers."

As submitted to Congress Monday the Eisenhower program would call for federal aid to needy school districts—up to a maximum of 85 million dollars a year—to pay half the cost of bonds and interest to finance needed public schools. This would cost about two billion dollars over 25 years.

A college and university aid program would provide up to 25 million dollars a year for debt retirement assistance on construction of housing and academic facilities. Total cost was estimated at half a billion dollars in 25 years.

IOWA CITY, Iowa (UPI) — Iowa's popcorn crop was "just average" last fall, a State College marketing expert has reported, but it's still enough to fill about "three billion" bags of popcorn.

Wheat Showing Firmness Again

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat showed some firmness again today in early dealings on the board of trade but soybeans and other grains were about steady to weak.

Export business was absent but so were cash wheat arrivals and brokers said the scattered buying appeared to be short-covering following reports of additional freezing rain or other unfavorable weather over much of the winter wheat area.

India bought 700,000 bushels of Pacific Coast white wheat overnight, a variety not traded here.

Near the end of the first hour wheat was ¼ cent a bushel higher to ⅛ lower, March $1.99⅝; corn ⅛ lower to ¼ higher, March old type contract $1.14⅛; oats unchanged, March 66¾; rye ⅛ higher to 1 cent lower, March $1.37; soybeans ⅛ to ⅜ lower, March $2.20⅜.

Wind Fans Flames; Cleaning Plant Lost

BAY CITY (AP)—Flames fanned by wind gusts up to 22 M.P.H. today destroyed the interior of the Hudson laundry and dry cleaning plant here.

Firemen estimated the damage $100,000.

The city's entire fire fighting force was called out to battle the blaze. Firemen were handicapped by ice glazed streets as well as high winds.

The fire broke out at 5:45 a.m. in the plant's boiler room and quickly spread through the two-story brick structure.

The laundry firm is owned by Leigh Hudson and his son, Ralph.

In a three-hour battle, firemen kept the flames from spreading to a nearby gasoline station and residential properties.

But a two-story frame house only four feet away from the plant was damaged by the intense heat. Floyd Neveau and his family were forced to move out until the fire was controlled.

Queen Knights Alec Guinness in Ceremony

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II today knighted Alec Guinness, who as a struggling young actor was so poor he couldn't afford a couple of two-penny chairs in a royal park.

The ancient and colorful ceremony took place in the great gilded ballroom of Buckingham Palace.

The Queen was calm. Guinness looked frightened.

As he entered the huge room, filled with about 300 people, the color drained from his pinkish face.

Guinness clenched his fists and threw back his shoulders — looking exactly as he did in The Bridge on the River Kwai when he faced the ordeal of questioning by his Japanese captor.

"Mr. Alec Guinness," shouted the Lord Chamberlain.

The actor marched four paces forward, stopped, executed a left face, walked forward two yards and knelt, his right knee on a royal stool. He almost missed the stool.

The uniformed band in the gallery played "You've Got to Have Heart"—purely by chance, an attendant said.

Thieves Leave Loot, Flee Metamora Store

METAMORA—Would-be thieves who entered the Hickory Market here early this morning left their loot behind when they were frightened away by a burglar alarm which went off at 5 a.m.

Romeo State Police said the burglars left 13 six-packs of assorted brands of beer outside the market under a side window when they fled.

Owner Merle McKay, who lives next door to the store, heard the alarm go off. Upon checking he found the side window open and the screen ripped off. Nothing was reported missing, state police said.

School Board Refuses to Reinstate Dr. Street

FERNDALE—Cheers and jeers from the opposition failed to deter the Ferndale school board last night from refusing to reinstate Dr. Scott Street as principal of the Best Elementary School here.

He was fired Feb. 2 with the understanding that he would be given a teacher post in the school system.

A crowd of 900 persons attended the public meeting on the ouster, lending their loud support to Street. A Michigan Education Assn. representative also asked that the ousted principal be given the chance to confront those whose complaints allegedly resulted in his firing.

Elton Mavon, president of Ferndale's Board of Education, said he expects a school principal to show dignity, good judgment and moderation.

"None of these were shown by Dr. Street when he campaigned openly against five members of the present school board," he said.

The principal was demoted after the board decided he was not adhering to its policies.

Most of the some 900 persons at the meeting were parents of children attending the school. Their cheers indicated that many of them were in sympathy with Street.

The meeting was called by Daniel Irwin and Thorland Peck, members of the Board of Education, and supporters of Street.

Don Giese, field representative for the Michigan Education Assn., asked that Street be: (1) given a bill of particulars on why he was removed, (2) given sufficient notice of the time set for a public hearing, (3) allowed to confront the persons whose complaints allegedly resulted in his dismissal, and (4) that the board acknowledge Street's right to counsel.

"The board is acting under powers given it by law," said William Beasley, attorney for the board, "no trial is necessary and no charges need be preferred. It is simply a question of the board reassigning a teacher."

The Ferndale school district board fired Street by a 5-1 vote, with one member absent. The board favored conservative education methods while Street was an advocate of the progressive system.

3 Stand Mute in Bribery Case

Former City Policeman, 2 Others Await Trial in Circuit Court

Innocent pleas were entered yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland for three men, one a former Pontiac policeman, after they stood mute to charges of bribery and conspiracy to obstruct justice.

Judge Holland allowed all three men to remain free on $500 bonds each. No date has been set for the trial.

Arraigned were former patrolman Jess W. Quick, 43, of 502 E. Beverly Ave.; Charles B. Johnson, 57, of 26 W. Kennett Rd., and Lealon S. Karnes, 63, of 822½ Baldwin Ave.

Quick is charged with taking a $122 bribe from Johnson, allegedly the operator of a gambling game, to turn over to a Pontiac vice squad officer for "protection money."

Named as co-defendant after he refused to testify against Quick was Karnes. Quick was suspended from the force following his arrest last September.

Mamie, Sister Ready for Arizona Vacation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mamie Eisenhower and her sister, Mrs. George Gordon Moore, plan to leave tonight for a two-week vacation at the Maine Chance health and beauty resort near Phoenix, Ariz.

The two spent a vacation there last year, staying from Feb. 23 to March 11.

Their stay as paying guests this year will include the period during which President Eisenhower will make an official trip to Mexico. He is due in Acapulco Feb. 19 and 20.

In Tornado Before, So — He Heads for Basement

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—"I was in a tornado once before and I knew this was one as soon as I heard it coming. I shouted to my wife, 'Grab the kids and head for the basement.'"

So Charles Tibbs described the terrifying moment in which a tornado roared through his block near Busch Stadium, the home of the St. Louis Cardinals baseball team.

"I grabbed one of ourrchildren and my wife the other," he said. "But we didn't make it to the basement."

The storm crashed through a row of brick apartment houses across the street from Tibbs' home. It blew out the windows of his place. None of his family was seriously injured, only dazed and shaken.

Police credited cab driver Bill Purcell, who lives in the same block, with saving the life of a motorist by warning him to stay in his car which was covered by downed electrical wires.

Purcell said a car came along, drove over the wires and they curled around it like snakes.

"Boy, it was dark — but when that car hit the wires it lit up like a flare," Purcell said. "I yelled that if he got out he was a dead man."

A policeman helped Purcell to convince the motorist of his danger.

Double Blaze Fought in Detroit

Need Much Equipment to Put Out Packard Fire That Started Twice

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit's fire department rolled out much of its equipment yesterday to whip a blaze which was brought under control and then flared anew after tired firemen left the scene.

More than 125 firemen and 35 pieces of equipment fought the second blaze at the old Packard Motor Car Co. plant for several hours before bringing it under control.

No one was injured although three firemen were overcome by smoke in the first fire.

The early fire started in waste materials stored on the fifth floor. Abraham Weisman, owner of the material, estimated the damage at $65,000. Damage to material stored on the sixth floor was estimated at about $20,000.

Fire Commissioner Dave Pollack said the second blaze was the equivalent of an eight-alarm fire. But he added, however, that the highest classification the Detroit Fire Dept. has is a five-alarm fire. He termed it a five-alarmer with extra equipment.

Most of the firemen returned to their stations after they thought it was under control. Then they rushed back when it was discovered the blaze had spread to the sixth and seventh floors of the seven-story building on East Grand boulevard. The sixth floor contained mostly bales of rags. The seventh floor was empty.

The building is owned by Packard Properties, Inc., which purchased it when the car manufacturing operations were discontinued.

Correction on Error: License Not Revoked

Due to an error of the Michigan Secretary of State's Office, the Pontiac Press stated in the Jan. 26 issue that Daniel M. Adams of 31750 Eastlady St., Birmingham, had his driver's license revoked because of an unsatisfactory driving record and for failure to appear for re-examination.

Adams appeared before the driver's license administer at a hearing in Pontiac and his license was not taken away, according to the Lansing office. He was given a warning.

Plans Added Phone Service

Northeast Pontiac Area Is Slated for $133,334 Bell Project

Work will begin next month on a $133,334 project to provide additional telephone facilities for the northeast section of Pontiac, it was announced today by Raymond H. Storm, district manager for Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

Underground cable will be placed along Mt. Clemens street from Mill street to East Boulevard and along Court street from Mt. Clemens to Perry street.

Aerial cable also will be installed along Mt. Clemens from East Boulevard to Opdyke road and north to Pontiac road.

Storm said this project will enable the company to fill new orders for residential service in the area and also to fill orders for better grades of service.

Completion of the project is scheduled for September.

Lenawee Fears State Wage Tax

Beg Lawmakers to 'Say It Isn't So'; but Income Levy Looms

By ROGER LANE

ADRIAN (AP)—Anxious taxpayers of Lenawee County, rich in agriculture and industry and blessed by distinguished representation in the legislature, begged their lawmakers last night to "say it isn't so."

* * *

But after two and one-half hours of firing questions at Sen. Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield) and Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), 400 of them filed out in the foggy, rainy darkness uncomforted.

"You think then it's coming to a state income tax?" asked Duane Deloach, publisher of the Blissfield Advance, toward the end of the unusual countywide town meeting.

"I think so," answered Conlin, House Taxation Committee Chairman and number one tax expert in the legislature. "Although I don't know whether it will be a graduated tax or flat rate or what the form will be."

"If it's six per cent the state will be getting more money out of my business than I get," the questioner protested.

Nearly everyone in the St. John's Lutheran School gymnasium burst into loud applause, as if to say "amen."

Earlier, Conlin told the home folks he didn't think a four-cent sales tax proposition ever would clear the legislature and win statewide voter approval.

Porter, Senate appropriations chief with a quarter century in the legislature, pointed to the state general fund's $100,000,000 deficit, and said:

"As long as you are getting the same services you're getting now you're going to have the same problem," he said.

Unemployment Rises 616,000 in January

WASHINGTON (AP) — Unemployment rose by 616,000 in January to 4,724,000. It was the highest number idle in any January since 1950.

The number of Americans at work dropped by 1,267,000—from 63,973,000 in December to 62,706,000 in January.

The monthly joint report of the Commerce and Labor Departments attributed the job decline to seasonal factors such as release of extra Christmas season workers in stores and post offices, and further curtailment of outdoor work.

Some of these temporary workers were not looking for further employment. Hence they were not counted as among the unemployed.

President Eisenhower jumped the gun on the official report, and told a news conference earlier that he belives there will be a pickup in employment as the year goes along.

Reports Grand Jury to Probe U.S. Steel

NEW YORK (AP) — The Journal American said today that the Justice Department is preparing to subpoena the records of United States Steel Corp. in connction with an antitrust investigation.

An article by Leslie Gould, financial editor, said "a grand jury investigation, similar to that just launched against General Motors Corp., is to be made, with two main objectives:

"1. A regional divestment of U.S. Steel's mills where the company has a major share of the steel market.

"2. An end to the present system of pricing."

The journal said this is part of the Justice Department's new drive against bigness in business, "particularly where the enterprises are successful."

"The antitrust campaign is bigger than any ever attempted in the past, including the days of Theodore Roosevelt," the Journal said.

U.S. Steel had no immediate comment.

Radio Moscow Does Shouting

Kremlin Is Officially Silent About U. S. Plane Charges

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department states that despite Radio Moscow's cry of forgery, the Kremlin has been officially silent on U.S. charges that Soviet jets shot down an unarmed American plane.

Department Press Chief Lincoln White said the Soviet government has "studiously avoided" telling the Russian people about the American charges.

White renewed the U.S. offer to play for Soviet Ambassador Menshikov a recording the Department sayd is the conversation by radio among the Russian pilots as they shot down the plane Sept. 2.

"Now, Radio Moscow in various languages other than Russian, can yell 'foul' and 'perjury' until it is blue in the face," White declared, his face flushed in anger.

"The facts speak for themselves."

White said the U.S. information agencies' Voice of America radio is broadcasting the recording into Russia. However, the Russians maintain elaborate jamming equipment to garble voice broadcasts.

White told reporters:

"We have had no" — and here White spelled out the word for emphasis — "no official communication from the Soviet government on this subject. We hope we will."

He said the U.S. government still hopes to receive some information from Moscow on the 11 American crewmen missing since the plane went down Sept. 2 in Soviet Armenia. Six bodies were returned by Russia, which has maintained it has no further information.

White refused, as he has all along, to say how the recording was made. He also refused to say whether it was made by U.S. or other Allied agents.

Under questioning White said, "We are convinced of the authenticity of the recording."

Says Hypnotism Is Good Lie Detector

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Harry Arons of Newark, N.J., who teaches hypnosis, says the technique can be used as a lie detector.

Arons, who just completed a course in hypnosis for doctors, dentists and psychologists at Southern Methodist University here, said the procedure is this: A suspect is hypnotized and a posthypnotic suggestion is placed in his mind.

Then, after he wakes up, he will react with a specific mannerism every time he tells a lie. His eye will twitch, he will pull an ear or rub his head, for instance.

Sag Harbor, Long Island, was once the center of the whaling industry around New York City. In 1857, its ships brought in a million dollars worth of oil and bone.

'Unemployed Should March on Lansing'

LANSING (AP)—Republican State Chairman Lawrence B. Lindemer suggests unemployed Michigan workers could dramatize their troubles better with a march on Lansing instead of the nation's capitol.

The GOP spokesman referred to a weekend comment by United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther that a jobless trek to Washington "would shatter the complacency of the nation's leaders" that the recession is over.

Lindemer termed Michigan "a sick state" and added:

"If Mr. Reuther wants to march, he should march on the governor's office in Lansing and demand a program which would encourage business to invest in and create more jobs in Michigan."

Macomb Supervisors Table Court Probe

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP)—The Macomb County Board of Supervisors has tabled a bar association resolution calling for an investigation of the juvenile division of probate court.

The board voted unanimously yesterday to delay any action on until the retirement of Provate Judge Joseph Trombly is settled. Trombly, target of the investigation resolution, has requested that he be retired because of a hearing defect.

A decision is expected to be made by the state retirement board this week on the 52-year-old judge's application.

Dental Students in Nation Set Record Peak

CHICAGO (UPI)—The president of the American Dental Assn. said more young men and women are studying dentistry now than ever before in the nation's history.

Dr. Percy T. Phillips, New York City, told the 94th midwinter meeting of the Chicago Dental Society, however, that there is "still a great need for more dental schools to assure the increasing demand for public health service."

Phillips said dental researchers are currently studying factors involved with oral cancer and attempting to devise a means of early detection.

He said other research has extended to the study of prenatal nutrition's effect on a child's later dental development.

Phillips was here for the formal launching of the ADA centennial year.

B.B. Banned by Censor in Fort Worth; to Appeal

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—U. S. Dist. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson has upheld the City Censor Boards ban of the Brigitte Bardot movie "And God Created Woman."

He ruled Monday the board had not acted arbitrarily or capriciously in forbidding the movie to be shown. He would not permit the movie to be shown in court.

Grover Hart Jr., counsel for Kingsley International Pictures Corp., said he expected to appeal.

Says Michigan GOP Needs Reshuffling

WASHINGTON (AP)—Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield says he would like to see some improvement in the Republican Party organization in Michigan.

Summerfield asserted the Michigan GOP organization is badly in need of improvement. But under questioning by newsmen here yesterday he declined to criticize the leadership of Michigan GOP Chairman Lawrence Lindemer.

Summerfield, a native of Flint, Mich., and a former national Republican chairman, said he would make no derogatory statements, but added: "I am concerned about our lack of success in the past six years."

Summerfield said he has not been invited to attend the state Republican convention in Detroit Saturday, and does not expect to attend.

He said he is scheduled for a Lincoln Day speech in Florida and will stay there Saturday.

Detroit Air Reserve Best

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP)—Maj. Gen. Robert E. L. Eaton, commander of the 10th Air Force, has designated the Detroit area reserve center as the finest reserve center in his command. Col. Henry J. Y. Moss, commander of the 2480th air reserve training wing, received the award at a commanders' conference at Selfridge AFB. The award recognized the center's overall ability to provide personnel requirements in event of mobilization.

Grand Haven Man Observes 100th Birthday

GRAND HAVEN (UPI)—John Pol, a Grand Haven bachelor who has never been in a hospital, observed his 100th birthday Monday.

Pol, who likes to take long walks and covered at least two miles a day on foot until recently, doesn't smoke but "gets a kick out of chewing tobacco."

Pol was surprised when he received a birthday greeting from President Eisenhower.

"How did he know I live in Grand Haven?" Pol commented.

State Has 9.3 Pct. Drop in Liquor Sales

LANSING (AP)—The State Liquor Control Commission reports net liquor sales dropped about 9.3 per cent in 1958 from the previous year.

The 1958 sale of 3,791,000 cases netted $153,719,000. This compared with the 1957 figure of 3,975,185 cases which brought in $169,741,000.

State liquor officials said the decline stemmed mainly from the recession and a 4 per cent liquor excise tax which went into effect in 1957.

Two items bucked the general decline. Case sales of prepared cocktails surged 82 per cent and wines were up 23 per cent.

Michigan to Show Off Its Tourist Attractions

LANSING (UPI)—Michigan tourists attractions will be on display in Chicago, Cleveland and Fort Wayne with more than 250,000 prospective vacationeers getting information about the state.

The Michigan Tourist Council will sponsor booths and exhibits at these shows in cooperation with Michigan's four regional tourists groups.

The shows are the Vacation and Boat Show this weekend at Fort Wayne, Chicago's International Sportsman's and Vacation Show Feb. 7—March 8, and the American and Canadian Sportsmen's Vacation and Boat Show in Cleveland, March 13-22.

Billy Graham Crusades Again

Leaves for Australia After 3-Week Rest in Hawaii Sunshine

HONOLULU (AP) — Sun-tanned and rested, Billy Graham left by plane Monday night for a five-month religious crusade in Australia and New Zealand.

The 40-year-old evangelist spent three weeks in Hawaii recuperating from a nervous disorder in his left eye which doctors ascribed to overwork and strain.

Graham said that his eye was much improved.

"It's about 75 per cent of normal," he said, "and far better than I'd hoped for. It gives me no pain."

Graham said he had been confined to bed for two or three days with a virus infection but that he was over it.

He will begin his crusade in Melbourne next Sunday and will conduct meetings there for five or six weks.

After a two-week rest, he will go to New Zealand for religious meetings in Auckland, Christchurch and Wellington, and then return to Australia for services starting in Sydney about April 15. He plans to return to the United States about July 15.

Mountain Slide Perils Village

Swiss Resort Area Farther Away Faces Cut in Supply Route

VIEGE, Switzerland (AP)—Authorities announced today that a huge mountain slide threatens the Swiss Alpine hamlet of Herbriggen and could cut the only supply route for more than 5,000 tourists and villagers in the luxury resort of Zermatt.

A Swiss pilot flying over the area noticed the slide moving slowly down the slope of 14,205-foot Nadelhorn Mountain. Geologists estimated the slide consists of more than five million cubic feet of ice, earth and rocks.

Officials of Valais Canton alerted police and working parties. Evacuation of Herbriggen has begun. This village of some 200 inhabitants lies in a deep valley on the Viege-Zermatt Railway line.

Authorities said Zermatt was in no danger but would be greatly inconvenienced if its link with the outside world was cut.

The resort now is teeming with more than 3,000 winter sports enthusiasts from many parts of the world. Dr. Walter Zimmerman, director of the hotel association, said Zermatt has ample food reserves. Zermatt is about 10 miles away from Nadelhorn Mountain.

Atoms Like Billiards

NORTHHAMPTON, Mass. (UPI)—A billiard table is being used by Smith College girls to demonstrate the principles of physics. A physics department spokesman explained that billiard balls behave the same way atoms do in some instances of collision.

Survives 5 Days Without Water, Food or Heat

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Rose Blondell, 63, survived at least five days in an unheated apartment without food or water.

Her condition, however, was described today as critical, with her body temperature so low medical thermometers do not record it.

A doctor at Newport Hospital said thermometers go only as far as 94 degrees—4.6 degress below normal.

He said Mrs. Blondell also suffered from dehydration and frostbite of the legs. He said it may be necessary to amputate the legs.

Mrs. Blondell collapsed last Wednesday or Thursday, and was unable to summon help or feed herself.

A boy had refilled the container in her kitchen oil range Wednesday with enough oil to last about 24 hours.

The temperature in Newport has been below freezing practically all the time since last Thursday. It was 4 degrees Monday morning.

Neighbors, concerned because they had not seen Mrs. Blondell, summoned police who broke down the door and found the woman.

Message by Mansfield Sent to South America

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Jayne Mansfield has carried to South America the message of the shapely shape. She is telling Latin girls the way to get a Brazilian with a million is to put all her best figure forward.

WILSON

While lolling around with Jayne and Mickey Hargitay, I spoke up in praise of Kim Novak. "Kim," I mentioned knowingly, "has come far—she used to be a demonstrator."

"Aren't we all?" giggled Jayne. "I'm STILL a demonstrator!"

Everybody who could see Jayne's backless, frontless, sideless dress agreed. Low-cut Tina Louise was also there as a guest of Brazilian playboy Jorge Guinle. Deciding in advance that they weren't going to be outstripped — two other guests, Millie Considine and Doris Lilly, wore high-necked dresses. She has gone to Rio for "Carnival."

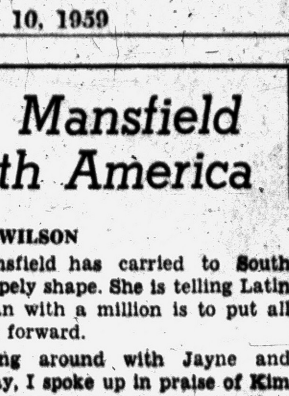
"Those who've tried to flatten the figure have fallen flat," she said. "If God had meant us to look alike he'd have made boys and girls alike. Ever since Cleopatra, and before that, Eve, it's been that way, and I've attempted to carry on in my time."

Jayne said her daughter Jayne 8, has three dressing rooms in their Hollywood house (25 rooms on the first floor; nobody's ever counted the second floor rooms yet). Everything's heart-shaped or S-shaped, including a closed circuit TV set at the gate enabling them to see who's there.



PRISCILLA

Beautiful Priscilla Alden, 5-foot Finch College freshman, today's Wilson Girl, is proof that tall girls haven't captured the country. A busy Conover model, she does commercials on the Arthur Godfrey and Dick Clark TV shows, and is becoming a society pet. Alongside of Priscilla (who was born in Tulsa and is daughter of an airline pilot), Dick Clark seems tall. Actually, he sometimes sits on phone books on panels, and has said, "Sitting on, standing on, or looking at phone books is the story of my life."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: An unpopular B'way check-dodger was run over by a whisky truck, and Nat Cole cracked, "That's the first time the drinks were ever on him."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Sending a son through college is very educational. It teaches the parents, for instance, how to do without a lot of things.

An overworked sec'y (relates Billy Kennedy) put this note on her boss' desk: "Nobody ever got everything done by Friday—except Robinson Crusoe." . . . That's earl, brother.

Dems Try to Stall on Wayne Bill

GOP Wants to Speed Up Action to Make Governors Appointive

LANSING (AP)—While Republicans tried to speed things up, House Democrats today stalled action on a bill to make the Wayne State University board of governors appointive instead of elective.

Senate Republicans last night agreed in caucus to go along with an amendment tacked on by the House education committee which would allow the governor to appoint the seven-member board without Senate approval.

"We knocked out the confirmation requirement strictly to expedite matters," said Sen. Frank D. Beadle (R-St. Clair), Senate majority leader.

House Democrats, meanwhile, came up with a substitute plan of their own.

Rep. Josepth J. Kowalski (D-Detroit), House Democratic leader, said Wayne County Democrats would propose a constitutional amendment to give Wayne the same autonomy as the University of Michigan and Michigan State University. Both of the latter schools operate under their own constitutional governing bodies, relying on the Legislature only for their appropriations. Members of the Wayne Board likewise would be elected.

Some Republicans branded the new proposal a stalling tactic.

Joan Davis Won't Bring Charges Against Stock

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Actress Joan Davis isn't going to prosecute her ex-fiancee for assault and battery but she says there's no reconciliation.

She dropped the charges against Harvey Stock Jr., 30, a real estate salesman Monday.

The 46-year-old comedienne had accused Stock of clouting her with a rabbit punch outside her desert home here two weeks ago. She said she had nothing to gain by going ahead with the prosecution.

Wyoming was the first state and Colorado the second to grant suffrage to women.

EYE Q?

Q. You have written many times about Contact Lenses; exactly what are they? B.B.D.

A. A contact lens is a tiny, plastic lens about the size of your small fingernail that fits over the colored part of the eye. Contact lenses are fulfilling a definite place within modern eye care today. If you come in, we will advise you and demonstrate the wearing of Contact Lenses.

Q. Does poor vision affect a child's posture? A.A.M.

A. When a child is handicapped, he may tilt his head at an angle in his effort to see better. Of course, continually assuming such an unnatural position in his effort to see may cause a slumping of one shoulder and an abnormal curvature of the upper section of the spine.

Q. Do many people have need for extra eyeglasses for special purposes?

A. Special occupations are now being considered by Optometrists as an efficiency problem, and they recommend the type of lenses that will provide this service for all phases of work or occupations such as reading, sewing, playing musical instruments or poker, typing, bookkeeping, bowling, machine operation, bench work and the like. Eyeglass lenses have a fixed focus, therefore a lens that is needed for comfort while reading at sixteen inches will not provide comfortable vision for ironing or bench work twenty-six inches from the eyes. Special lenses for special purposes provide the efficiency necessary for progress in this missile age.

Ex-Queen Says: 'I Lived in Cage'

Wilhelmina of Holland Tells of 50-Year Reign Which Began at Age 10

THE HAGUE (AP)—Ex-Queen Wilhelmina told the Dutch people in her memoirs today she grew up "in a cage, unable to get in touch with ordinary life."

The book, which the 78-year-old dowager princess began after her abdication in 1948, was published today. The first printing of 80,000 copies was nearly all sold in advance.

Wilhelmina became queen at the age of 10, on the death of her father, and reigned for 50 years. She retired to a gray, forbidding 16th century castle near Apeldorn after turning the throne over to her only child, Queen Juliana.

She hated her official functions as a child and soon learned to develop headaches at the opportune moment.

She related that she turned to religion to escape from her cage and, after her abdication, to give her a mission in life.

The memoirs made no mention of the crisis which developed in 1956 between Wilhelmina's daughter and son-in-law, the Queen and Prince Bernhard, over the influence of a woman faith healer on Juliana.

The healer, Miss Greet Hofmans, had been called in to treat the royal couple's partly blind youngest daughter, Princess Marijke.

Rumors that Miss Hofmans was influencing Juliana's conduct of her official duties finally resulted in an investigation by a royal commission, a break between the Queen and the healer, and the resignation of several members of the royal staff.

To Be Most Modern in U. S.

First Contract Is Signed for Detroit Post Office

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $1,283,900 contract for the foundations of a new Detroit post office which will handle about 50 per cent of all Michigan mail was signed yesterday by Postmaster General Summerfield.

Summerfield told a news conference of the contract with the Raymond Concrete Pile Co. of New York represented "the culmination of major planning efforts that will improve mail service in Detroit and throughout all Michigan."

He said the new post office, a modernistic building planned for Detroit's new civic center, is expected to be completed by late summer of next year.

Bids for construction of the building will be received and opened in April, Summerfield said. He estimated total cost of the land and building will be 15 to 20 million dollars.

A model of the building, which will have a 10-story office section and a 4-story mail handling unit, was displayed at a news conference in Summerfield's office. He said it would be the largest and most modern post office in the country, when completed."

AUTOMATION

"The new building," Summerfield said, "will have the latest equipment to cull mail automatically (separate smaller pieces from larger ones), sort it automatically to hundreds of destinations, cancel it at high speeds, automatically handle parcel post and sacked mail, and will have conveyor belt systems for transporting mail swiftly throughout the building."

He said the new building, to be bounded by Fort, Eighth, West Jefferson and Tenth streets will have the most modern working facilities for 9,000 employes; space and platform facilities to handle 10 railroad cars and 100 trucks at one time at street level; and loading platforms for another 60 vehicles at a higher level.

Summerfield called the contract signing "one of the most pleasant tasks I've had in the past six years." He said the construction work "should help the employment situation in Detroit," since up to 700-800 men will be working on the building at one time during some periods of construction.

The building was designed by the Detroit architectural firm of Giffels and Rossetti.

TV News and Reviews

Lucy the Only Sunshine in Frozen Alaska Script

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI)—Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz, cemented to a frozen script, idled through a bleak and blanched CBS-TV special last night.

The hour was titled "Lucy Goes to Alaska" and although Lucy and Desi filmed some of it in Alaska, it might just as well have been shot inside their sponsor's refrigerators. The program made scant use of its Alaskan settings.

It did, however, make liberal use of Alaskan cliches: The Eskimo who strikes it rich, the entrapment in a comic blizzard, the supposed primitive hotel accommodations, plus hack jokes about cold, snow and even one that went "be it ever so humble that's no place like Nome."

Red Skelton was booked into this gelid bungle and except for a clumsy insert of one of his hobo routines, he seemed to be on board for no apparent reason.

The hobo business was ornamental rather than functional, a kind of cadenza for Miss Ball and Skelton to fiddle around with and they fiddled to middling effect.

Verdict: Loved her. Hated it.

SHORT SHOTS: "Goodbye Johnny," presented by NBC-TV's Alcoa Theater last night, was a real crisper around the middle, but unfortunately it was fissured by a rather dud ending. Cliff Robertson, Harold Stone and Douglas Fowley chipped in solid performances.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Debbie Reynolds has pulled out of NBC-TV's special tribute to Manie Sacks on March 3 because of the blood clot in her leg . . . CBS-TV's Perry Mason will be spelled this summer by 10 weeks of reruns of Climax, Pursuit and Studio One beginning July 11.

Just Like Baseball Trading

Zoo Gets 3 Chimps for Spring Training

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—If you bid at the right time you might have taken home an elephant or a lion.

The wholesale bartering of animals was the top business at Monday's convention opening of the Midwest Assn. of Zoological Parks and Aquariums.

The transactions by the directors of 32 of the nation's zoos were similar to major league club owners trading baseball players.

Three chimpanzees who couldn't learn to ride bicycles and ponies, drive cars or turn cartwheels were traded off by Frank McInnis, director of the Detroit Zoo.

DIDN'T MAKE GRADE

"They were rookies who just didn't make the grade," he mourned.

The backward trio will be shipped to a New York City dealer, who in turn will send McInnis three more chimp prospects for the spring training season.

Gordon McLain, director of the soon-to-open Moline, Ill., Zoo picked up a healthy 5,000-pound elephant free.

Freeman Shelly, director of the Philadelphia Zoo, where the 14-year-old elephant valued at $3,500 has been living, said:

"We've been trying to sell it. But there were no takers. She's just not compatable with our two young elephants so I thought I'd give her away."

The trading indicated that it takes 24 baboons to trade for one camel, a pair of kangaroos equals a leopard cub and one giraffe is worth five tigers.

The bargaining session began with each zoo director reading a list of his surplus animals, and of his needs. After that the officials gathered in little huddles to do business.
