Shot Victim to Avoid Capture

Ex-GI, Hero-Worshiping Brother Admit Rifle Murder of Brighton Gas Attendant

EAST LANSING (AP) — Two brothers —one an expert marksman as an Army occupation soldier, the other his youthful admirer — have confessed to the shot-in-the-back slaying of an 18-year-old Brighton gas station attendant.

William Joles, 23, and his brother, Daniel, 18, both of Mesick, confessed the killing after a four-hour grilling last night by State Police.

The older brother, also a deer hunter, detailed how he first shot his victim in the back using car headlights as a guide, then shot him again at almost point blank range.

They confessed to the Brighton slaying after they were arrested for questioning and admitted to an almost similar gas station holdup — without a killing — at Manton, near Cadillac, Saturday morning.

Rewards totaling more than $3,000 have been offered for the slayers who kidnaped and then shot twice through the heart young Lawrence Jackson Jr., of Brighton, May 19.

After they confessed to the crime, the brothers were taken to Howell over night. The Livingston County prosecutor is expected to ask for first degree murder warrants today.

The older brother, who served honorably as an occupation soldier in Germany and won medals as a marksman, said he staged the Brighton robbery "to get money to get married."

He detailed in a signed statement how he forced young Jackson out of the car, ordered him to walk up the road, leaned his .32 caliber rifle on the door of the car, used the headlights for a guide and shot Jackson in the back.

"There wasn't anything else to do," he said. "He had seen the license plates of the car."

"Couldn't you have let him walk away?" reporters asked.

"I was afraid of being caught," he said.

4 POWs Cross China Border After 2 Years

Freed Airmen Found in Very Good Physical Condition

HONG KONG (AP)—Four weary men came out of Red China today.

"Gee, it's wonderful to be back," Capt. Harold Fischer Jr. of Swea City, Iowa, told an American Red Cross representative as he and three other American fliers imprisoned for two years by Red China crossed the border north of here.

Lt. Col. John Norcross, U. S. medical officer, examined all four and said they were in "very good physical shape."

The men were taken to the Jockey Club in Kowloon on the mainland to change from the faded blue Chinese uniforms they were wearing.

The other three are Lt. Lyle W. Cameron, Lincoln, Neb.; Lt. Col. Edwin Heller, Wynnewood, Pa., and Lt. Roland W. Parks, Omaha.

Cameron saw a banjo on a shelf at the Jockey Club and yelled:

"What shall we sing, boys?" One of the fliers, already in the shower, bellowed back "Let's sing 'Cross Over the Bridge'."

LETTER WAITING

Heller was handed a letter from his wife. He walked a little to one side to read it.

Changed into fresh shirts and slacks, the men were taken to Kaitak Airport. There they boarded the Bataan, the famous C-54, DC-4 which used to be Gen. Douglas MacArthur's personal plane, for a flight to Honolulu and reunion with Boyd A. Smith of Odom, Tex., it will go via Wake Island and possibly Guam or Kwajalein.

Seventy newsmen crowded the airport ramp. British Royal Air Force police tried to hold them back, but they broke through.

The freed four lined up under a wing of the Bataan for a picture. "How does it feel to be back?" shouted a newsman.

U.S. HOPEFUL

In Washington U.S. officials informally expressed confidence today that 11 more American fliers held by Communist China will be released in the near future.

Ultimately it is believed the Chinese Reds are aiming at breaking down United Nations trade barriers against Red China, winning U.N. membership and gaining recognition from the United States, Britain and France as a world power capable of sitting in on meetings like those of the Big Four.

Open Runnerup Sinks Five-Footer

PUTT DROPS — Marlene Bauer of Sarasota, Fla., is shown sinking a putt for a par on the 10th hole at Forest Lake Country Club Monday during her final round in the Wolverine Ladies Open tournament. The Press camera stopped the action just as the ball (arrow) was disappearing in the cup. Miss Bauer had a 73 Monday to finish in second place, seven strokes behind winner Fay Crocker of Uruguay. ## Move Puts Off Any Decision on Vote Request

Reuther Seeks Ballot by Workers on Rival Contract Terms

DETROIT (AP) — The Ford Motor Co. and the CIO United Auto Workers today clamped a 24-hour secrecy lid on their strike-threatening contract talks.

A joint statement by the company and union had the effect of delaying Ford's public reply to a UAW proposal that company employes choose between the union's guaranteed annual wage demand and a company "prosperity partnership plan."

The delay led to speculation that Ford, at this morning's bargaining session, may have placed another offer on the table.

Ford negotiators were reported to be cool to the unique union proposal made by UAW President Walter Reuther yesterday to put the matter to a workers' ballot choice.

The joint Ford-UAW statement said:

"The parties have agreed to a 24-hour moratorium on any public discussion of matters being considered at the bargaining table. This understanding may be extended by mutual agreement."

Bargaining sessions continued after the joint announcement and it appeared they might develop into a marathon session.

Carl Stellato, president of the UAW's Ford Local 600, called a mass meeting of 45,000 Ford Rouge plant workers for 2 p. m. (EST) tomorrow.

Stellato said that "if negotiatio nare not successfully concluded by June 1, then the membership may set the time for striking the Rouge plant at this meeting.

Reuther proposed the ballot question be confined to the year-around pay against three proposals in the Ford "package" that incorporate what the company calls its "partnership in prosperity" plan. They are the Ford stock participation, income stabilization and separation allowance plans.

The vote would be taken by an independent agency within two weeks.

The current contract would be extended on a day-to-day basis, and negotiations would continue on other parts of the contract.

The result of the vote would bind both parties to negotiate whichever plan the employes pick.

Holiday Safety Campaign Here Marked Success

Due to its success here over the weekend, the holiday safety campaign sponsored by the Oakland County Red Cross Chapter will be continued during future holiday critical traffic periods, according to Mrs. Mildred Bennett, executive secretary.

A total of 167 volunteers worked an average of seven hours each a day during the 78-hour holiday weekend. There were 30 cars, manned by radio-ham operators and first aid teams, working a total of 1,169 hours.

The first-aid teams, coordinated by a main dispatch center, rendered aid to injured persons throughout the county after accidents were reported to them by police.

Chairman of the huge operator was Leon Bumgardner.

Mrs. Bennett said another chairman would soon be selected for the July 4th project.

Holiday Traffic Toll 365; Overall Total Reaches 580

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Motorists traveling the nation's highways on the Memorial Day holiday weekend died in record numbers in automobile accidents.

The total traffic deaths reached 365 today, with an additional 129 drownings and 86 deaths in miscellaneous accidents. The over-all total stood at 580, also a new high for a four-day Memorial Day holiday period.

As the highway death toll rose Monday, the National Safety Council revised its death toll prediction upward from 360 to "at least 375."

This year's total was 566, including 125 drownings and 82 deaths in various types of accidents.

The number of fatalities on the highways mounted steadily yesterday as millions jammed roads on their way home from outings and vacation lands. The National Safety Council, which in a preholiday statement, estimated a traffic toll of 360, revised its prediction yesterday to 'at least 375."

Fifteen persons died on Michigan highways over the Memorial Day weekend, but this was five under to total killed during last year's holiday.

7 Men Perish in Crash of C47

Air Force Plane Stalls and Falls Into Canyon in New Mexico

ALAMOGORDO, N.M. (AP) — A twin-engine Air Force C47, its engines apparently stalled over the rugged Sacramento Mountains, crashed and burned yesterday in La Luz Canyon, killing the seven men aboard.

The plane had taken off from Holloman Air Force Base 15 minutes earlier after refueling and picking up freight on the last leg of its journey home to Clovis Air Force Base, N.M. It was on a return trip from Burbank, Calif. The crash scene was 15 to 20 miles north of here.

Air Force spokesmen at Holloman said the plane sent no distress signals.

The victims were Maj. Edward A. Miller, Clovis; Lt. Don R. Forbes, listed as pilot, Portland, Ore.; Lt. Robert D. Haugan, Chicago; Lt. Clyde B. Johnson, Benson, N.C.; T. Sgt. Leamon Lawson, Clovis; A.2.C. Lester M. Barnes, Maywood, Calif.; and A 2. C. Charles A. Deaton, Commiskey, Ind.

Barnes, Lawson and Johnson were passengers on the plane.

Bulletin

Four Negro men were sentenced to life imprisonment this afternoon for the March 6 rape of a white mother of three. Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland passed sentence.

The four, Oscar Chavers, 26, of Gary, Ind., his brother, Richard 23, of 38 Lake St., Joe Williams Jr., 22, of the Lake St. address and Winston Johnson, 25, or 312 Hughes St., also were sentenced to 20-40-year terms for kidnaping the woman. They were found guilty by an all-woman jury May 20.

Morey, McHale Gain 3rd Round

Hoosier Walker Cup Star Has Tough Time in British Amateur

By PRESS WIRE SERVICE

ST.-ANNE'S-ON-SEA, Eng. — Walker Cup star Dale Morey of Indianapolis and veteran Jim McHale of Philadelphia led a somewhat disrupted American advance today into the third round of the British Amateur golf tournament.

Morey defeated Frank Morrell, 1 up, in a hard-fought second-round match at sun-baked Royal Lytham and St. Anne's, and McHale eliminated Dr. J. H. M. Thomas of England, 7 and 6.

However, Walker Cup Captain Bill Campbell, runner-up in the 1954 British amateur, was a first-round casualty.

These 2nd round victories came after Campbell, American Walker Cup captain, had been eliminated.

Completion of the 1st round today saw four Americans, paced by Frank Strafaci of Mineola, N. Y., win their matches and three others advance by default.

Other Americans didn't fare so well in early 2nd round matches although Joe Bullins Jr., of Winston Salem, N. C., came through with a 5 and 4 victory.

Richard Ashcroft of England defeated John W. Bailey of Grand Rapids, Mich., 3 and 2.

Morrell, a little-known golfer from Blackpool, gave Morey a real tussl eand the lean Hoosier didn't win until the last hole. There Morrell chipped badly and putted short while Morey canned a second putt of five feet a par four.

Morey, two down with only four holes to play, made a great recovery. He won the 15th when he chipped dead from 20 feet and he squared the match on the 354-yard 16th with a straight 250-yard drive and an eight iron that finished hole-high on the tight green.

Proclaims Emergency

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Eden's government late today proclaimed a state of emergency to deal with Britain's rail and dock strikes.

Ike Back in Washington

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Eisenhower returned to Washington early today after a long Memorial Day weekend at his Gettysburg, Pa., farm.

City Physician Given Honors as CMH Winner

Dr. Harold A. Furlong, of Pontiac, World War I Congressional Medal of Honor winner, was one of five individuals honored for outstanding gallantry in military service today by Michigan State College.

The awards were made as a feature of a special ROTC centennial program and commissioning ceremony in the MSC Auditorium.

Dr. Furlong, now a practicing physician, went into Army service following graduation at MSC in 1918. For his service in World War I he received the Congressional Medal of Honor, plus the Croix de Guerre with Palm from the French government.

Also honored today were Robert E. Simanek, a recent Medal of Honor winner; Brig. Gen. Thomas L. Sherburne Jr., William H. Kasten, major general retired, and Lawrence G. Fritz.

Pleasant Weather Returns to Area

Pleasant spring weather moved back into Pontiac again today after a bleak Memorial Day weekend. The forecast is for continued fair tonight and tomorrow.

It's to be cooler tonight, with a low of 47-50 degrees, and somewhat warmer tomorrow, with a high of 75-78 expected.

Yesterday's high was 64, low 48. Today's 8 a.m. temperature in downtown Pontiac was 60 degrees. By 1 p.m. the mercury had climbed to 72 degrees.

Confederate Vet Given Diploma

CRESTVIEW, Fla. (AP)—Florida's last surviving Confederate war veteran, Williaim A. Lundy, had a crisp new high school diploma to frame and hang on his wall today.

The 107-year-old veteran, and honorary member of the Crestview High School senior class which was graduated last night, marched up with his 58 classmates—including two of his great-nieces—to receive the diploma.

Freed Flier's Father Pledges to Aid Others

By ROLLAND CAMERON

(As told to the New York Journal-American)

LINCOLN, Neb. (INS)—I happen to be a very lucky father today. My boy, 1st Lt. Lyle W. Cameron, stepped into freedom after 43 months in a Red Chinese jail.

When he crossed the line into British Hong Kong early this morning my wife and I won a long battle with ourselves. We had kept our determination never to lose heart even though we suffered set-backs from official quarters while we did everything in our power to get him freed.

Now we're just as determined to win the next battle. Neither I, nor any member of my family will either want, or be allowed to rest until they're all set free.

This isn't a threat. Nor is it politics. There is no such thing as politics when American lives are concerned.

Our boys in uniform are neither Republicans nor Democrats. When they're fighting anywhere in the world, they're just plain Americans—and they're the individual sons of every single one of us that has stayed behind.

That's why I won't forget, nor will any member of my family forget that we still have a "son" in foreign captivity just as long as there is a single American in a Chinese jail.

News of my boy's capture came to my wife, Dorothy, and myself on our 25th wedding anniversary. News of his release came three weeks after his 26th birthday. We've got a lot to make up to him for.

But we've got just as much to make up to the others who are still being held. I'm starting to pay off that debt right now.

Senate Debating Foreign Aid Bill

George Predicts Okay for $3.4 Billion Fund Aimed for Asia

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Senate starts debate today on a three billion, 400 million dollar foreign aid measure aimed largely at bolstering Asia's economy to block Communist inroads.

Foreign Relations Committee Chairman Walter F. George (D-Ga), has predicted that the bill will pass, possibly by Thursday, in substantially the same form as recommended by his group.

Efforts to slash the funds are expected, but George said he expects the "main fight" to be over a GOP attempt to restore authority for the Eisenhower administration to fire some 2,000 foreign aid workers.

The Georgia Democrat has said "there isn't a chance" that the Senate will provide this authority, but Republicans mustered forces to fight for it. Democrats charge that it is an effort to open up political jobs for Republicans.

George's committee sent the bill to the Senate floor without any cut in the funds' authorization as sought by President Eisenhower for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

In its report to the Senate, the committee called for greater emphasis on economic aid for the troubled Far East to counter "new Soviet tactics" in that area.

Lansing Solons Ending Session

Legislature Winds Up Business; Adjournment Likely Friday

LANSING (AP)—The Michigan Legislature's 1955 session, one of the longest in modern times, probably is in its last week.

Barring an unsolved revenue scrap, the lawmakers will adjourn Friday.

The big issue of the week will be whether the House and Senate Taxation Committees can agree on a revision of the business receipts tax to balance the budget.

One Senate leader, Sen. Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville) said flatly that if the tax fight is not settled by Friday night the Legislature will have no alternative but to recess.

RETURNING TODAY

The lawmakers will return this afternoon from a long weekend recess with some odds and ends to clean up. Today is the last day for passing bills in either chamber.

Senate leaders appeared to be weakening in one respect in their support of their own business receipts tax change. They appeared to concede that the Legislature must raise the 30 million dollars in new revenue which the House advocates.

The Senate bill would raise about 23 million dollars, reportedly.

But neither chamber has shown signs of agreeing on a complex formula for computing the tax on multistate businesses

Schedule Make-Up Polio Shots Here

Starting tomorrow and continuing through the week, make-up shots will be administered to first and second graders who missed second round Salk inoculations.

The shots will be given at the main office of the Oakland County Health Dept. 15 W. Huron St., and the south county office, 2401 E. Fourth St., Royal Oak.

Second round shots have not been given in all county areas yet because of a lack of vaccine. The make-up shots are only for youngsters from areas where the shots have been given.

High Court Orders End of Segregation in Public Schools as Soon as Possible

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today directed that public school segregation of white and Negro pupils be ended as soon as feasible, taking local conditions into account.

Chief Justice Warren, announcing the court's decision, said lower courts could decide whether a prompt and reasonable start toward full compliance was being made by local school authorities.

Warren said the high tribunal expects full compliance to be carried out as early as practicable.

He added that lower courts, sitting as courts of equity, "may properly take into account local problems."

Warren said the "validity" of the Supreme Court's decisions in the segregation cases cannot be yielded because of disagreement with them.

As he did a year ago, Warren went to great lengths to prevent any possible "leak" of the court's decision.

The chief justice began reading the opinion immediately after the opening formalities of admitting attorneys to practice before the high tribunal.

It was some minutes before copies of the printed decision were distributed to newsmen. Normally pages deliver copies to reporters the instant the justice delivering the majority opinion begins to read from the bench.

At the outset Warren noted the court's year-old decision declaring the fundamental principal that racial discrimination in public education is unconstitutional. He said: "All provisions of federal, state, or local law requiring or permitting such discrimination must yield to this principle."

Outlining the steps the Supreme Court wants taken now, Waren added:

"While giving weight to these public and private considerations (of equity) the (lower) courts will require that the defendants (school boards) make a prompt andreasonable start toward full compliance with our May 17, 1954, ruling. Once such a start has been made, the (lower) courts may find that additional time is necessary to carry out the ruling in an effective manner.

President Eisenhower predicted at a news conference weeks ago that the court would not be arbitrary in its final decision and would take emotional and practical problems into consideration.

New Ordinances to Head Agenda

City Slated to Adopt Two Laws; Reading Set for Third

New ordinances will take the spotlight at tonight's City Commission meeting, with adoption slated for two and first reading set for a third.

Scheduled for adoption are a new rule allowing police to ticket other railroad agents besides the train engineer when a train blocks an intersection for more than five minutes, and a revised regulation controlling rubbish burning.

On the agenda for first reading is a weed control ordinance.

The Commission is also scheduled to consider a property swap with Detroit Edison Co. for two parcels of land in and adjoining Murphy Park, plus appointment of a Police and Fire Trial Board member.

Also to be considered are a resolution extending insurance coverage to city employes retiring on pension, a request for a liquor license change and a food license issuance.

A public hearing is set on intention to construct curb, gutter and drainage on Carlisle from Walton to New York. Other hearings are scheduled on special assessment rolls for curb, gutter and drainage on Fourth avenue from Joslyn to Fuller, and Ypsilanti avenue from Carlisle to Stanley.

Pontiac Deaths

Gerald R. Fritz

Service will be held Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. in the Voorhees-Siple Chapel for Gerald R. Fritz, 52, of 3050 Phillips Rd. The Rev. Theodore R. Allebach of the Oakland Ave. United Presbyterian Church will officiate. Burial will follow in Perry Mt. Park Cemetery.

Mr. Fritz died suddenly Sunday afternoon of a heart attack suffered while fishing in Batchawana Bay, Ontario, Canada.

Edward H. Tutty

Edward H. Tutty, 54, of 932 Melrose Ave. died last night at Pontiac General Hospital after a two month illness.

Born July 15, 1900 in Louisburg, Nova Scotia, Canada, he was the son of John E. and Lilly Bagnall Tutty and married the former Margaret L. Hodgkinson in Angola, Ind., Feb. 17, 1936.

Coming here from Louisburg where he was a member of the United Church, Mr. Tutty had lived in Pontiac 24 years and had been employed as foreman in the export boxing department of the General Motor Truck & Coach Div. He was a member of the Foremans' Club of the Division.

Besides his wife and mother he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. C. Eugene (Carol) Ball of Rochester, Mrs. Elden (Georgina) Dobbe of Clawson and one grandaughter.

Also surviving are four sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Walter Isenor, Mrs. George Wilcox, Mrs. Dan Smith, Mrs. George Hatfield and Hector Tutty, all of Nova Scotia, and Harold Tutty of Quincy, Mass.

Service will be Thursday at 1 p.m. in the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home. The Rev. James W. Deeg of the Oakland Park Methodist Church will officiate. Burial will follow in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p.m. tonight.

Girl Visiting Here Dies After Mishap

Ten-year-old Wanda Cooper, of St. Charles died this morning at Pontiac General Hospital after she reportedly fell while riding a bicycle on Winding drive near Elizabeth Lake yesterday.

Cause of death was not determined. A coroner's examination was scheduled for later today.

Authorities said the child was brought to the hospital by her father, Norris, a St. Charles farmer. The family was believed visiting here over the holiday.

Ford Strike Would Cost Workers $3 Million Daily

DETROIT (UP)—It will cost Ford Motor Co. workers nearly $3,000,000 a day to go on strike Thursday if a settlement of the current contract dispute isn't reached.

The figure includes the $2,690,000 a day Ford workers get in direct wages from the company and an extra $2.50 a day per worker in fringe benefits.

In just three weeks, in direct wage losses, the strike would cost workers $40,350,000.

That is more money than all of the past nine authorized strikes against Ford in the union's history have cost workers. The other nine strikes combined have cost only $40,000,000 in wage losses.

HIGH COST IN AREA

In the Detroit area alone, where Ford has 76,000 hourly workers, the cost of a strike in direct wages each day would be $1,600,000.

Each week the bill would mount up to $8,000,000 in the Detroit area, while in the nation it would cost $14,800,000 a week.

If the strike develops over the annual wage, both the union and company expect a long-drawn battle that could last four to six months. The strike against Chrysler in 1950 lasted 108 days.

A four-month strike against Ford would cost its workers $251,600,000 in wages, more than a quarter of a billion dollars.

But his cost, compiled from official figures, would be only a part of the economic loss of such a strike.

The Ford Motor Co. has 6,000 suppliers which produce parts for its Fords, Mercurys and Lincolns. These suppliers range from big steel and tire companies to small machine shops turning out chrome trim and other small parts.

6 PCT. OF ALL STEEL

Ford uses roughly 6 per cent of all steel fabricated in the nation. It uses roughly a fifth of all rubber products turned out in the nation.

Recent figures compiled by Ford's chief competitor, Chevrolet, showed exactly why the auto industry is the keystone of the nation's economy.

In turning out 10,000 cars in one day recently, Chevrolet used so much steel it would take a plant employing 20,000 workers to turn out enough steel to keep pace.

It would take a tire plant employing another 10,000 to turn out enough tires. It would take a glass company employing 4,500 to turn out enough glass.

SAME FOR FORD

The figures would be roughly the same for Ford.

The Automobile Manufacturers' Association has compiled statistics showing every job in an auto plant requires another job in a supplier firm. The $14,800,000 the Ford workers would lose in wages each week if they go on strike would be merely the beginning.

Ex-GI, Kid Brother Admit Rifle Murder

fessed first, said he was driving the car when William ordered him to stop.

"He said he didn't want to be shot. That he wanted to live," young Joles in his sob-wracked confession quoted Jackson as saying. "I asked him what he knew and he said he didn't know anything.

"Then Bill opened the door. I thought he was getting into the front seat. He told the kid to walk straight up the road. It was still dark and you could see him in the headlights. Then he shot and the kid staggered and fell.

The brothers then told how they stopped the car again and the older brother shot into the body at a range of about six feet.

STOLE RIFLE

The death rifle, the brothers said, was stolen from the home of a cousin, Clarence Joles, of Detroit. The brothers returned the weapon after the Brighton slaying and then stole it again for the second holdup where a gas station attendant was robbed and slugged.

Their father, William Joles, is a gunsmith, watch repair and small farmer near Mesick. The brothers said they threw the rifle used in both crimes in a lake near the father's home following the second holdup.

"I wouldn't do it again if I had to do it over," said the older brother, the more composed of the two.

He said he had been laid off for about three weeks from the Kelsey-Hayes Wheel Corp. in Detroit where he was making between $70 and $75 a week as a machine operator. He was also studying electronics in night school.

The older brother said he was engaged to be married on June 4 and needed money for the wedding.

Both brothers are neat appearing, well spoken and clean cut. Both had pompador haircuts. The older brother wore a white shirt open at the neck, the younger a yellow sports shirt.

The brothers said they purchased a six-can package of beer the night of the slaying. The older brother said he had "a couple" and the younger said he had "taste of one." Both said they had never used narcotics.

The younger brother appeared most affected by the fact of the killing.

"The poor kid . . . the poor kid . . ." he sobbed several times when telling of the shooting. "Being sorry doesn't help bring that kid's life back," he said later. "God is making me tell about this crime."

ADMIRED BROTHER

He told of how much he admired his older brother and how much he missed him when he was in the service.

After the second gas station holdup the brothers were stopped by State Police. Although it was only about an hour after the holdup they had changed clothes and were released because they were known by troopers to live in the vicinity.

A checkback made the brothers prime suspects and they were arrested in Grand Rapids Monday after a statewide call was put out.

WILL MULICK

Shift Announced by State Police

Sgt. Melvin Will, Head of Pontiac Post, Slated to Retire Thursday

Sgt. Melvin Will, commander of the Pontiac State Police Post since 1944, will retire Thursday after 25 years of service, according to an announcement by Commissioner Joseph A. Childs.

Named to replace Will was Sgt. Charles H. Mulick, currently assigned at the Operations Office at State Police headquarters at East Lansing.

Sgt. Will, who joined the force in 1930, served at East Lansing, St. Clair, Paw Paw and South Haven. In 1942 he commanded the White Pigeon Post and on June 1, 1944 he was promoted to sergeant and assigned here.

After joining the force in 1937, Sgt. Mulick served at the Alpena, Romeo, Traverse City and East Tawas Posts. He was promoted to sergeant in 1954 and assigned to the Operations and Communications Bureau at headquarters. He holds citations for bravery and meritorious service.

3 Pontiac CAP Members Get Scholarships

Three members of Pontiac squadron 6318-2 were among 103 Michigan Civil Air Patrol personnel recently chosen to receive flight scholarship awards, presented at Olds Auditorium in Lansing.

The three winners are 2nd Lt. Erma Haynes, 1st Lt. Neal Ulmen and Cadet Frances Affelder. The awards consist of 10 hours dual flight training, which may be taken anywhere in the state, according to Sgt. Dee Robinson, public information officer for the Pontiac squadron.

Miss Haynes and three other members of the squadron will receive Red Cross instructor's cards in first aid June 18. Completing the 36 hour instructor course, besides Miss Haynes were 1st Lt. Robert Turner, Cadets Archie Haynes and Wesley Jennings.

A new Chaplain, the Rev. Wesley R. Wibley, pastor of First Assembly of God Church in Pontiac, joined the squadron this month, Miss Robinson said.

2 Israelis, Egyptian Killed by Artillery

JERUSALEM (AP) — Two Israelis and an Egyptian soldier were reported killed and six Israelis wounded in a heavy three-hour artillery battle yesterday in the Gaza trouble area.

Each nation charged the other with opening fire.

A spokesman said one of the Israeli dead and four of the wounded were civilians. An Egyptian spokesman in Gaza admitted his troops had pumped shells into civilian settlements in the area, in an effort to silence Israeli batteries there, he claimed.

AMA Reveals Vaccine Plans

Asks Members to Aid by Cooperating With Voluntary Priority

CHICAGO (AP) — The American Medical Assn. has asked its members to cooperate in a voluntary government priority plan for polio inoculations of children 5 through 9.

In a statement released yesterday through Chicago headquarters, Dr. Walter B. Martin of Norfolk, Va., president of the AMA, said:

"The AMA has been assured that technical problems relating to the safe manufacture of polio vaccine have been worked out and the vaccination program will move ahead.

"In behalf of myself and the AMA Board of Trustees I have assured President Eisenhower that the nation's physicians will cooperate in limiting polio vaccination to children from 5 through 9 until the vaccine is available in larger supply."

He said the physicians will keep a record of each child vaccinated, including the name, age and date of vaccination, the manufacturer of the vaccine and the lot number.

Throws Away Tags

NEW LONDON, Conn. (UP) — Officer Joseph Rafferty stopped a woman motorist because her automobile registration plates bore 1954 inserts. The woman promptly showed Rafferty her 1955 registration certificate. When asked where the new inserts for the plates were, she said, "Oh, those. I threw them away."

The Day in Birmingham

Voters League to Decide Position on Bond Issue

BIRMINGHAM—The League of Women Voters has called a special membership meeting for Thursday night at Birmingham High School to decide whether to support a multi-million dollar school bond issue.

The proposition will be on the June 13 ballot. It calls for a $5,500,000 bond issue to pay for an expansion program which includes constructing, remodeling and furnishing certain schools in the Birmingham School District.

League President Mrs. John Rumsey said the meeting would start at 8 o'clock. The membership will be asked to decide whether it will take a stand on "this extremely crucial issue," she said.

"If we cannot put the league on record either way, the Voters' Guide will have to be published with only the 'bare bones' of information," Mrs. Rumsey said, "and no indication of the stand taken by the League, which we know our public awaits."

In an information bulletin to League members, Mrs. Rumsey said the pros and cons of the school bond proposal would be discussed by able and informed people, including Mrs. Charles Blunt, Charles E. James and Bennett Root.

The school board earlier this month, acting on recommendations by a citizens' advisory group, approved placing the proposal on the ballot.

The money would be used to defray cost of building and furnishing five new elementary school buildings, erecting and furnishing additions to five existing elementary school buildings, remodeling the older portions of Adams, Barnum, Pierce, Quarton, Bloomfield Village, Franklin and Walnut Lake school buildings, and acquiring property for future school expansion in the district.

Mrs. Robbins Milbank, assistant to the president of Smith College, will deliver the commencement address at Kingswood School, Cranbrook, June 11.

Henry S. Booth, Bloomfield Hills, C. Theron Van Dusen and Robert Silbar, Birmingham, were elected recently to the board of directors of the Oakland County Citizens League.

Thomas Henderson

Service will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow morning for Thomas Henderson, 747 Ruffner, Birmingham, at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Henderson died Sunday. He was 69.

Burial will be in the Michigan Memorial Park at Flat Rock. A native of Scotland, Henderson retired from the Wyandotte Chemical Co., Wyandotte, in 1950 and moved to Birmingham.

Survivors include a daughter, Miss Jessie Henderson, and a son, Henry, at home; a brother and a sister in Scotland.

Lion's Reach Longer

PEORIA, Ill. (UP)—Maggie, the lioness and Zoo Director Dick Houlihan reached for a bone at the same time. Houlihan came in second, receiving a slash on his hand that required eight stitches. "She had a longer reach than I thought," he said.

There are more than 15,000 different kinds of the orchid.

Berserk Gunman Shoots 5 in Bank

DAYTON, Ohio (INS)—A berserk gunman walked into the Third National Bank in downtown Dayton this morning and wounded at least five persons in a wild shooting spree.

The wounded were rushed immediately to local hospitals but the extent of their injuries has not been determined. Police said the gunman made no attempt to hold up the bank. No further details were immediately available.

Monied Community

MINERAL HILLS (AP) — Anyone who lives in this Michigan Upper Peninsula village and isn't worth $34,938, hasn't got his share. Mineral Hills (pop. 333) is one of the wealthiest communities in the Midwest because of its iron ore mines and mineral reserves. Its property valuation is $11,645,000.

Turnpike Authority Claims Toll Roads Cut Accidents

The Michigan Turnpike Authority (MTA) today released figures which it claims show a "substantial" reduction in injury and property-damage accidents would be brought about by construction of the proposed Rockwood-Saginaw toll road.

"State police records show 136 persons killed on highways U.S.10, 23, 24, 25 and M15 during 1954 in sections which will be relieved by the north-south pike," the MTA said.

"Estimated total economic loss in auto accidents in these sections during the year totaled over $15,000,000."

MTA Chairman William E. Slaughter said traffic surveys forecast about 26,000,000 potential toll-road trips yearly from these highways of which some 38 per cent would actually be diverted to the turnpike.

Slaughter said his claim the pike would save lives and money is based on the latest traffic safety figures from other operating turnpikes and national safety officials.

DEATH RATES DOWN

They show, he stated, the average death rate per 100,000,000 miles by auto in the nation at 6.3 and in Michigan at 6.6 in 1954. Death date per 100,000,000 miles on the New Jersey Turnpike last year was 2.47. The New York Thruway was 2.44 and the Pennsylvania Turnpike 4.2.

"With the Rockwood to Saginaw pike in operation and with the elimination of traffic lights, reduction of grades and curves and accident hazards plus an increase in overall driving ease, the pike would save many lives in this north-south corridor and substantially reduce property damage."

The turnpike would also remove "millions" of trucks and cars from parallel federal and state highways making them easier and safer to drive, said Slaughter.

"Our latest reports also show a turnpike time saving on a passenger car trip for the 113-mile route of 64.4 minutes on what is now a 3-hour drive."

Atomic worker in protective clothing

HALF our present work force is making and selling things that were unknown in 1900. There are new careers today in industry, in science, in the arts, in farming—in almost every type of work.

Many of these new careers are open to women—and women are quickly moving into jobs once reserved for men. For instance, there are now 6,500 women engineers, compared to 730 in 1940.

With our population soaring, there will also be a growing demand for people in the "traditional" occupations—such as law, medicine, banking, teaching, merchandising, life insurance, government.

For most good jobs today, higher education is required. That's why millions of families are making sure the children will have money for college, whether or not the father lives to see them through. They can do this through life insurance. Already, thousands of young people have been helped through school by life insurance plans.

And people are using life insurance for many other purposes—to guarantee money for the family in case of the father's death . . . to cover the mortgage . . . to help build an adequate retirement program.

Today, life insurance is owned by 93 million men, women and children. It is America's most popular form of thrift.

Trained Bank Men Are Difficult to Find

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The problem of securing trained men for the jobs of bank presidents and bank officers came under study today at the 53rd annual convention of the American Institute of Banking.

Dr. Leroy Lewis, of New York, director of education for the national organization, said, "Finding capable trained people to fill vacancies at the executive level is one of the most serious problems facing banks today."

"It has been said that banking needs 1,000 new bank presidents and 5,000 new bank officers every year."

Judge Turns Down Bailiffs' 'Kind Offer'

HOUSTON (AP) — Judge Byron Johnson complained yesterday he had no gavel for his courtroom.

Bailiffs W. A. Storey and Frank Rutland quickly supplied the judge with a new "gavel"—actually a 25-pound mallet.

10th Houston Child Gets Polio After Vaccination

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A 10th Houston child lay stricken today with polio after taking the Salk vaccine in April.

She is Linda Koelle, 6, only child of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Koelle Jr. She has paralytic polio, the third such case. The other seven children who contracted the disease after taking the new serum had nonparalytic cases.

Linda was reported getting along very well.

new safe All-in-One capsule discovery for

EASY REDUCING

Science now helps you take off your fat while you eat the foods you choose

Do you like sweets, candy, cake, butter, gravy potatoes? Have you tried one thing after another to reduce, spent dollar after dollar for pills and tablets and in spite of everything you've tried you're still too fat? Well, be as skeptical as you like, but NOW, right NOW, there's a wonderful new kind of capsule that helps you take off pounds and inches of ugly fat safely, quickly and so much easier you hardly know what's happening. You don't suffer starvation dieting hunger, you take no drugs, you don't exercise. In fact, you don't even diet one bit more than you want to, because you automatically eat less and here's why . . .

counteracts hunger

Just recently a well known scientist perfected a new tiny capsule that combines not one but ALL THE RECOGNIZED proven aids to reducing. It combines the vitamins and minerals often lost when cutting off fattening foods containing these needed vitamins and minerals. It combines the vegetable cellulose that has no calories yet expands when it absorbs water thereby helping give the feeling of a full, contented stomach. In fact these tiny capsules are so packed with vitamins and minerals, protein and non-caloric filling food, they actually equal and exceed many a meal.

fat goes fast

You'll be surprised at the fat you lose the first week, the inches that disappear the first month. No hunger, no strict dieting, no drugs, no exercise. And the cost is absolutely nothing unless you grow slim, more youthful looking, more active and enjoy better health.

We certify that ALL-IN-ONE CAPSULES are entirely safe for human consumption

Bob Considine Says:

Wanted: Starving Young Playwrights to Aid

NEW YORK (INS) — If you're ever going to write that hit play, write it soon. My friend John Golden, who has given the theater so many of its golden years, is getting impatient and frustrated.

He took a $300 advertisement in the program of the 1955 Lambs Gambol to say that he and his associates would be most happy to pay for your garret, candle, quill and jug if you'd just get around to submitting a tantalizing first act.

The incredible John Golden wrote or produced the likes of Turn to the Right, Lightnin', 3 Wise Fools, The First Year, Dear Me, Thank-U, Spite Corner, The Serpent's Tooth, Seventh Heaven, Wages for Wives, Pigs, The Wisdom Tooth, Two Girls Wanted, Four Walls, Night Hostess, Let Us Be Gay, Salt Water, That's Gratitude, As Husbands Go, After Tomorrow, Riddle Me This, When Ladies Meet, Divine Drudge, The Bishop Misbehaves, A Touch of Brimstone, Susan and God, Skylark, Claudia, "Theatre," Counselor-at-Law, 3 Is a Family, Made in Heaven, They Knew What They Wanted, The Male Animal, and an exciting assortment of plays named "etc."

LOOKS YOUNGER

John is in his late 39's, though he doesn't look it for an instant, and he has long felt that the only hope of his beloved media is to encourage even younger playwrights to come forward with new thoughts, themes, theories.

On October 1, 1952, at his beckoning, 50 members of the Society of Authors' representatives gathered at the Hotel Biltmore in New York and took under their wing an endowment fund properly named the "New Dramatists Loan Fund." It was more popularly known as "the Benign Pawn Shop."

The general idea was that if a committee composed of nine top-flight agents voted at least 6-to-3 that an unknown's script had possibilities, it could recommend that he/she be presented with enough money to enable him/her to complete or polish the script and go on to bigger and better things.

(Mr. Golden had raised the money for this commendable effort from, among others, John Golde, Gilbert Miller, Walter Vincent, John Hertz, Sr. and Jr., the Messrs. Shubert, Marcus Heiman, George Seaton, Bernard M. Baruch, Irene Selznick, Mrs. Joshua Logan, William S. Paley, Howard Lindsay, Garson Kanin, Louis Lurie, Gen. David Sarnoff, Max Gordon, Emil Friedlander, Victor Emanuel, John F. Wharton, Robert Coleman et al.)

Alack! Here's what has happened, as Mr. G. composed it in his program ad:

"It seemed a splendid idea at the time—very likely it was—but IT DOESN'T APPEAR TO BE WORKING, for in the years of the loan fund's existence the committee, probably due to the fact that its members have set very high standards, has granted loans to only three applicants, and unless business improves we may find it advisable to close up the shop.

STILL LOOKING

"The Benign Pawn Shop and its member agents are still looking for new, needy, promising playwrights to help. Applications may be made exclusively to accredited members of the authors representatives group until the 1st day of October. The idea will thus have been given three full years.

"I hate to give up, and it is my hope that we may find applicants who can qualify for loans and thus carry on the work, which I still believe to be one of the best plans advanced to help the American theatre."

Well, John, I'm game. Here's my idea: It's a story about the Civil War, told from the South's viewpoint. I've got a beautiful, hot-tempered heroine named Chartreuse O'Neill, who gets mixed up with a handsome scoundrel (gun-runner, he is) named Rhett Jeeves. Well, Atlanta gets burned to a cinder by the dam' Yankees and Rhett leaves Chartreuse in a big rage at the end...but to tell the truth, John, this has been turned down so often by those agents you picked that I know it will never amount to anything—not even a book.

Traffic Deaths Show Increase for April

CHICAGO (AP)—April was the second consecutive month in which traffic deaths showed an increase, the National Safety Council said today.

The death toll was 2,700, the council said, about 4 per cent higher than April 1954. It was the first time deaths in traffic rose two months straight since a downward trend in September 1953, the council noted.

For the first four months of the year the total was 10,480, or about the same as for the same period last year. Among 47 states reported, 21 showed decreases in the first four months.

Arizona was down 33 per cent, New Mexico 27, Arkansas 23, Minnesota 19 and Idaho 14 per cent on the four-month basis.

Plane Lands Safely

HONG KONG (AP)—A four-engine U.S. Navy transport plane with 11 persons aboard returned safely to Hong Kong today when one engine caught fire 15 minutes after it took off for Manila. The fire was immediately put out by an automatic extinguisher.

No other low-priced car has any—no high-priced car has all—of these great features...

THEY'RE ALL WRAPPED UP IN CHEVROLET!

9 ENGINE-DRIVE CHOICES

The hottest, shortest stroke—and lowest priced—V8's. Two new 6's—most powerful in their field. Three modern drives. You get the power you want—the way you want it!

OUTRIGGER REAR SPRINGS

They're spaced wide apart, like outriggers on a canoe, to give you sure-footed stability on curves. The new Chevrolet corners like a sports car!

BODY BY FISHER

And that means by the world's best known builder of automobile bodies! Only Chevrolet and higher priced cars offer the fine craftsmanship and enduring beauty of Body by Fisher.

12-VOLT ELECTRICAL SYSTEM

Twice the voltage of electrical systems in other low-priced cars! This means quicker starting in all weather, finer performance, and a greater reserve of electrical power.

BALL-RACE STEERING

Special ball bearings in the steering system roll with the turn of the wheel to reduce friction. Nothing makes steering and parking easier except Power Steering itself. And only Chevrolet and higher priced cars give you Ball-Race steering.

HIGH-LEVEL VENTILATION

You get cleaner, fresher air at hood-high level. A special chamber beneath the hood keeps rain out—supplies a more even flow of air.

DOUBLE-ARCH COWL CONSTRUCTION

The ventilation system air chamber is actually a double arch of steel that acts as a girder. It adds the strength of an extra cross-member to the frame!

ANTI-DIVE BRAKING

Chevrolet's the only car in the industry that stops with its head up! With Anti-Dive braking control, an exclusive Chevrolet development, you stop on the level—with less lurching—even when you stop in a hurry.

Adlai Stevenson Must Declare Himself Soon

With Mrs. Eisenhower's health the unpredictable obstacle in the way of the President's candidacy again in 1956, interest shifts to the Democratic ticket which presents many possibilities.

Michigan is primarily interested in the fortunes of our own Governor who has been mentioned several times by Michigan adherents as a possibility. It is a grave question whether G. Mennen Williams occupies this same role in the national picture, but still his unqualified success in a pivotal state grants him an automatic consideration.

Of course, the Number One Candidate is Adlai E. Stevenson. He leads the field by a country mile. In fact he leads it so far he can well afford to act a bit coy and kittenish — which he is proceeding to do right now with all the theatrical assurance of a veteran trooper.

Averell Harriman, Governor of New York, is possibly one of the top contenders. As Governor of New York, he occupies a prominent post in party considerations and Mr. Harriman has been a "working Democrat" with a record of honorable and faithful service.

New York's vote is tremendously important. Democratic wheel horses figure his name would give the party a flying start in the nation's biggest state. No one laughs at nearly 100 ballots in the Electoral College. However, many people believe that the New York boss awaits definite word from his close ally from Illinois, Adlai Stevenson. If Mr. Stevenson is a candidate, Mr. Harriman will step aside quickly.

Estes Kefauver of Tennessee is of a different mind. If he decides to run, all the Brother Stevensons in the country won't deter him. And apparently, he's of mind to go. He is a colorful figure who will probably campaign vigorously from the start and if he can acquire an A-1 investigating assignment, complete with television and radio rights, he could be a formidable contestant. Mr. Kefauver has been vocal and vociferous in his criticisms of President Eisenhower. We believe a definite part of this was done with a weather eye cocked calculatingly on the presidential derby.

Of course, there are always a goodly number of "native sons" whose names will be bruited about in the public squares. Some of this is mainly for fun; and some of it is with the hopeful idea that the unexpected may happen and lightning strikes without warning.

Governor Frank J. Lausche from nearby Ohio is a possibility, although he has disclaimed any personal ambitions. His election record in an important State, however, is very significant and he could easily be a compromise candidate if Adlai Stevenson bows out.

At the moment, the whole thing seems to depend upon Mr. Stevenson. If he "wants in," the list of candidates will fade and melt like snow in a July sun. If he declares himself out, the shooting will start in earnest and the cannonading will be heard from "sea to shining sea."

Milford's AFS Students

At least five Milford High School students are glad that the American Field Service exists and that it has an international scholarship program.

Two of these students are visitors from overseas, Bettieke van Steenbergen from Holland and Ervin Olschofsky from Germany. They are beneficiaries of a Huron Valley Board of Education decision to waive tuition for foreign AFS scholarship winners.

The educational advantages extended to them have qualified Milford High School to send one or more of its own students to Europe for six to eight weeks. Instead of attending school, however, they will be temporary members of European families during the summer months. Milford students chosen for this honor are Marilyn Busch, Tom Meagher and Alan McFarlane.

American Field Service is an outgrowth of a field ambulance corps which served in both world wars. Reorganized in 1947 to promote the publicly and privately financed scholarship idea, AFS brought its first 18 European students to the United States the following year.

By 1950 the plan had developed into an exchange of visits. This year 605 American boys and girls are expected to enjoy the experience of living in Europe. Next year at least 700 foreign students will attend schools in the United States.

This AFS program is a splendid means of furthering international understanding on both sides of the Atlantic. Congratulations are due all those who help make it possible and to Milford's scholarship winners.

Graduate: A young person who soon learns what "commencement" really means.

She's a pioneer on her job, and her name is "June." She's a 20-year-old horse in the employ of and has been hauling a milk wagon for 16 years, refusing to admit that the automobile has brought the end of the horse and buggy days. In the good company of her driver, who has been her pilot all those years, she delivers milk every day to the residents out Pontiac Motor and Perry Park way. She really needs no pilot, for Stub says she knows the route as well as he does, and goes it alone most of the time, while he calls at the houses. She gives cars their full half of the road, and more if she sees a road hog coming. She rounds all corners with plenty of space, and never dents a fender. She absolutely obeys Stub's demands to stop or start, but is suspicious of a stranger's voice. Until a couple of years ago she was on the job seven days per week, but now gets Sundays off, with liberal vacation allowance. June walks about eight miles per day, which in 16 years figures up to a distance closely approaching twice around the world. She is the pioneer among eight horses still used by her company, the only local horses in such use. Before taking his present job, Stub was a race horse trainer. Perhaps that's why June is still active and in good health at an age that approximates three score years in humans. One of his biggest jobs is keeping June's waist line down, on account of the lumps of sugar and other snacks that her admirers ply upon her. In this he does not enjoy her whole hearted cooperation. Sometimes she snitches.

Melvin (Stub) Newbegin,

David Lawrence Says:

Britain Hopes for 5 Years of Stability and Progress

LONDON — England has settled down to what it hopes will be five years of stability and progress.

The general election, which has given the Conservative party a comfortable majority in Parliament, reflected a basic desire for continuity.

There was no appreciable amount of protest against the party in power, and the opposition didn't offer anything attractive.

So the people gave the Conservative party an increased majority — something that no party in power has achieved in 90 years.

LESSON FOR U.S.

American political leaders can derive a good deal of guidance from a study of the British election results. For it is a rare thing also in America when a party in power increases its strength in a subsequent presidential election.

What has been a virtual deadlock between the two major parties in Britain has been broken. The Conservatives actually polled nearly a million more votes than the Socialists did.

Though the total vote of the nation fell off from 82.6 per cent in 1951 to 76.82 per cent this time, the Socialists suffered the heavier defections. There was a definite switch in the voting — or rather a "swing," as they call it here.

Donald McLachlan, political commentator for the "London Daily Telegraph," says:

"After the ordeal by television and radio, the word 'swing" is branded in our minds. No longer shall we watch the neck-and-neck struggle of parties or do quick sums with the totals. We shall look out for percentages of voters who have changed their minds since the last election — the one thing that official results do not give us. We are all swingsters now. Indeed, as more of us realize that two persons in a hundred, by changing their minds, can topple governments, we may take our politics more seriously."

FAMILIAR RING

This has a familiar ring because in America we are constantly hearing about the "independent" vote and how it can shift from party to party and change the outcome of the entire election.

In the British election last week, there were many Socialist members elected by majorities of less than a thousand votes, and many more districts by what must be considered narrow margins.

It means that there was a trend toward the Conservatives which was revealed not only in reduced Socialist majorities but in substantially increased Conservative majorities.

There is no question about it — the margin of 59 seats by which the Conservatives won does not tell the whole story of the basic shift toward conservatism which appeared throughout the country.

The large stay-at-home vote was to some extent, too, a measure of the acquiescence of the electorate in the policies of the Conservative government.

POLLS ACCURATE

The Gallup polls which forecast the result were remarkably accurate — within one per cent, which is, of course, the kind of thing that can be misleading in a very close election like the Truman-Dewey contest in 1948 but which, when it occurs in a decisive result such as was experienced here last week, gives the scientific polling method a great deal of prestige.

There was the usual criticism that polls produce apathy or that they stimulate a desire "to get on the band-wagon." But the newspapers printed them just the same, and the politicians showed worry or pleasure, respectively, depending on which party seemed to be in the lead.

All in all, the British election brought a great deal of satisfaction in many quarters. Some of the Conservatives were glad they didn't get a top-heavy majority which could start feuds inside their party.

Some of the "right wing" Socialists were glad because the country showed no inclination toward "left wing" Socialists, some of whom had a hard time getting re-elected in districts normally safe for Socialist Labor candidates. The Communists got very few votes and elected nobody.

SOCIALIST STRUGGLE

The "left wing" Socialists have an idea they can make more progress now as a minority and can force the other wing of the party to come to them. Undoubtedly a struggle for leadership has begun already in the Socialist Labor party ranks.

As long as Britain stays on a sound economic basis and taxes are gradually reduced, there is little likelihood that the parliamentary life of the Conservative party will be endangered in the next five years.

'Sunshine Lady' Urges Persons to Visit Shut-ins on Special Day Sunday, June 5

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature

On Sunday, June 5, we will be observing International Shut-ins Day. It is my sincere wish that all organizations in the area will take part in this movement.

The aim of persons interested in promoting the special day is to encourage the practice of friendship for the sick and shut-ins.

I don't believe there is a hospital in the area that doesn't have at least a dozen lonely and forgotten patients. And in my working with these hospitals, I have found them always very anxious to do something for that person. At the TB Hospital the birthday of a patient is never forgotten. And they are given a cake and a lovely gift.

It may seem so little at the time, but I have seen more than one patient who would not have been remembered at all if it hadn't been for this bit of toughtfulness.

It would be very nice if the school teachers would find out the name of a home-bound school child and have her students shower them with friendly notes. Our stores are full of beautiful cards to send a sick person.

However, when buying a card, one must watch the wording. A person who will never leave their bed again can get little joy out of a card that says, "May you soon be out again." In such cases, why not use the "thinking of you" cards?

At any rate, remember the shut-in in your neighborhood.

Richard Kincaid Replies to Mrs. Patterson's Letter

A reply to Mrs. Patterson in regard to tree removal on West Long Lake Road. I must say I am very surprised to find in this modern day someone so abjure to progress.

I am in a position to know that during the summer of 1954 there were several elm trees on West Long Lake Road across from the C. E. Wilson home and west of Franklin Road that were sampled for Dutch Elm disease, and they were found to be infected by this fungus.

According to record this disease is spreadihg at an astounding rate, and in all probability would have infected a great number of the trees that were removed in behalf of progress. This is in reply to Mrs. Patterson's statement that the trees were not sick.

As for many people being glad to drive over this despicable piece of pavement, I cannot agree. I should think it more likely they were lost and stumbled on the road by mistake. It is my opinion anyone who paid hard-earned money for their car would not subject it to the pounding it would take driving over West Long Lake Road.

Hal Boyle Says:

Ohio Industrialist Takes Positive Step in Problem

NEW YORK (AP) — Everybody complains about juvenile delinquency in America. But who is doing anything to reward earnest teen-age kids who do face up to their responsibilities?

Industrialist W. W. Sebald of Middletown, Ohio, fell to brooding over this a year ago.

"I got tired of hearing about nothing but delinquent kids," he said. "We are living in flush times, and I think children are too used to taking money from their parents—two few are developing their own initiative and earning their own way.

"But it isn't enough merely to complain. We need to put a focus of attention on the kids who go out and do things for themselves."

Sebald, president of the Armco Steel Co., found his own answer in a series of "self-reliance awards" for high school seniors in Middletown and Ashland, Ky. helped by members of the Junior Chambers of Commerce in the two towns, he has handed out $3,000 from his own pocket in prize money to some 20 students "for doing the most they can with the best they have."

The prizes range from $50 to $400, and they have uncovered heartening evidence of hundreds of teen-age boys and girls working hard against all kinds of handicaps to win achievement.

"We were rather surprised at the amount of self-reliance we did find," admitted Sebald, who is now ready to dig deeper into his pocket to help the idea of the contests spread to other towns.

Examples: One youngster was working 97 hours a week, and still attending school . . . An honor student had borrowed money to buy a farm for his father . . . A girl was paying all her expenses in school by holding three outside jobs at the same time . . . A boy, also working his way through school, still managed to contribute 10 per cent of his earnings to the church he attended.

The $400 prize winner in Middleton this year, Willie Napoleon Clements, a Negro youth, worked 52 hours a week at three jobs. He delivered newspapers, worked in a wholesale produce house and clerked in a grocery store. Yet he also played on the high school football and track teams, took part in school plays, was active in his church, and was elected to the National Honor Society.

Sebald himself is a self-made man. Starting as a $30 a month office boy with the steel company 49 years ago, he worked up through the ranks to his present post, which last year paid him $245,000.

During his own high school career he drove a laundry wagon during the day, played in a dance band at night.

"It wasn't a matter of necessity," he recalled. "My family was well off. But they never had to buy my clothes after I was 13 years old. I didn't want them too. I wanted to make my own way."

Sebald would like to see other individuals and organizations do more to encourage teen-agers today who show a willingness to accept responsibility.

"Self-reliance made this country," he said. "It is a basic thing in America, and we have to preserve it."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

You Can't Feel Like Sports Roadster If You Possess the Chassis of a Truck

Dorothy Staley offers an excellent idea to help you follow my dehydration diet whereby you can lose 10 pounds in 10 days. And you'll not feel unduly hungry on this diet, nor does it involve folderol. You can follow it at a restaurant or at home. So slenderize, not just for health's sake, but to regain your romantic charm.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case O-344: Dorothy Staley, a smart housewife, lives in Alamogordo, N. M.

"Dr. Crane, my husband and I are avid readers of your Worry Clinic," she graciously began.

"We followed it faithfully in the Indianapolis Star when we lived there. Then we moved to Miami and read it daily in the Herald, and then in the Los Angeles News.

"You sold me entirely on going on a diet with your dehydration plan, where you allotted one glass of fluid the first day; two glasses the second and three glasses per day thereafter.

"But I found that 8 ounce glass of water went down too fast! So I tried another plan.

ICE WAFERS INSTEAD

"For example, the first day I poured exactly 8 ounces or one full measuring cup of water into an ice cube tray, leaving the sections in the tray.

"This made quite a few wafers of thin ice cubes. Whenever I'd get very thirsty, I'd take just one of these ice wafers and keep it on my tongue till it melted.

"The second day I didn't pour the two glasses of water into a single ice tray, but used one glass of water for each of the two trays. That gave me twice as many wafers of ice.

"Then the third day I used two glasses for these wafers, but held back the third glass to take in liquid form as desired.

"My plan proved especially successful, for the wafers of ice last longer on the tongue than it takes to drink a full 8-ounce glass of water. And it also killed my thirst better, for the coldness seems almost as important as the liquid itself.

"When the weather is warm and the will power a little weak, I think most housewives will prefer wafers of ice to ordinary water."

AN EXCELLENT IDEA

Mrs. Staley's idea is an excellent one, so I am passing it along to you men and women who wish to regain a more youthful figure,

If you are also past middle age and feel somewhat elephantine, then lop off the poundage. It will make you feel younger and also more romantic.

So streamline your figure now—not tomorrow. In order to kill your ravenous appetite, you can employ my dehydration plan if it isn't too hot or you aren't doing heavy manual labor.

It limits men to 1,200 calories of food per day and women to 800. But to take the edge off that appetite, reduce your fluid input.

Drink just one glass (8 ounces) of fluids the first day; two glasses the second, and three glasses per day from the third through the tenth days.

DIVERTS ATTENTION

The restricted fluid not only makes your mouth cottony, but it diverts your attention from food to liquid. You may crave water but will be quite content on your food intake.

And don't indulge in folderol or fancy menus, like a single lamb chop with cauliflower, etc., for those are not easy to obtain, especially if you dine at restaurants.

Calcium Deposit Is Result of Injury, Not Its Cause

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

My mother, aged 59 years, has shoulder bursitis (writes Mrs. H. V. A.) and thinks it is from too much calcium in her system. That's ridiculous, as she never drinks milk, never eats eggs, eats very little fruit and hardly any salads. Her evening meal is meat, potato, vegetable The rest of the time she lives on bread and coffee. She won't listen . . . (Mrs. H.V.A.)

If mother's bursitis is as painful as the right shoulder bursitis I had some years ago, I can sympathize with her. Two or three times I cried so piteously with it that a medical colleague came in and gave me a shot of morph—at least I suppose it was morphine.

It was not until my bursitis was over with that I learned about the needle treatment (and I don't mean morphine), but that's a subject for a piece to follow.

In the course of six weeks, under diathermy (deep heat) treatments, passive movements by physical therapists and gradually increasing active movements or exercises (which were somewhat painful, but necessary if I was to regain full use of the shoulder) I made a complete recovery.

A year later I suffered a fracture of the opposite shoulder. X-ray films of both shoulders (for comparison revealed a calcium deposit in the right shoulder bursa—calcification. Mind, now, for ten months before that, not the slightest discomfort or impaired use of the shoulder.

Whether the bursa is still calcified I don't know or care. An X-ray film would probably show the calcium deposit, or possibly it is no longer there, but no matter. What I'm trying to make you understand is that despite what the neighborhood fishwives, the saireygamps, Ben Told, Mrs. Sumsey, the trick specialists or the "clinic" racketeers may say about it, the deposit of calcium or calcification anywhere in the body is the consequence of inflammation, infection, or injury and not the cause of it.

Long study of pathology gives me the assurance to say this—and I challenge contradiction by any qualified physician or pathologist.

How much "too much" calcium or "too much" vitamin D may be "clinic" racketeers, et al., are careful not to specify.

How much calcium and/or vitamin D may be the proper medicinal dose in any circumstances is a question for the attending physician. It is not in my province.

NOT DOSING

In this column and elsewhere I recommend no more calcium and/or vitamin D than a person should get from his everyday diet and/or exposure of naked skin to sunshine or skyshine.

It is absurd to imagine that one who gets an adequate daily intake of calcium and/or vitamin D is more likely to have calcium than one who doesn't.

If you have chronic joint disability, please send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope for the pamphlet Calcium and Rheumatiz. If you'd like to know more about calcium feeding, high calcium diet, and the everyday manifestations of calcium deficiency, inclose 25c in addition and ask for Little Lesson 26, The Calcium Shortage.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 300 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, but to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Wallace Advocates Clinging to Bombs

BEDFORD VILLAGE, N.Y. (AP)—Henry A. Wallace says this country should "refuse to give up the hydrogen and atom bombs until a safe machine has been arranged to eliminate all armaments and to enforce that elimination by continuous inspection."

The former vice president adds that delay in setting up this machinery is "flirting with violent death."

Wallace made the statement yesterday in a Memorial Day speech to members of the local American Legion post and volunteer fire department.

Wallace lives on a farm in South Salem near here.

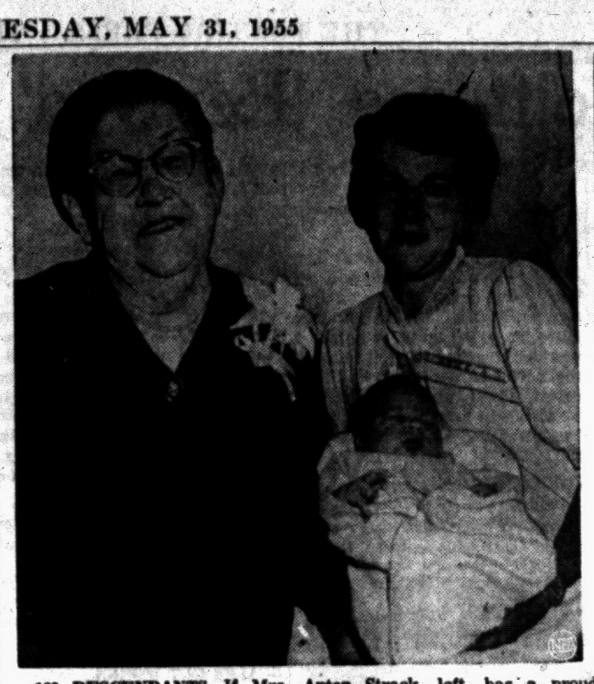
World Situation Better, Nehru Tells Newsmen

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru said today he "definitely" thinks the international situation is generally better.

"There is less tension in the world," he told his first news conference since last November. "There is a little more hope in the world. There is a little more understanding in the world."

Nehru's two-hour conference was an anticlimax after yesterday's press session at which his special envoy V. K. Krishna Menon announced Red China's decision to release four imprisoned American airmen.

Main crop of Thailand is rice, which is grown in 40 or 50 varieties and accounts for two-thirds of the country's export trade.



180 DESCENDANTS—If Mrs. Anton Strack, left, has a proud smile on her face, it's because she's standing beside her 100th great-grandchild, a nine-pound four-ounce boy born recently to Mrs. Raymond Thessing, right, of Conway, Ark. Great-grandmother Strack also has 13 living children and 67 grandchildren, for a grand total of 180 descendants. She's a widow, originally from St. Patrick, Mo.

Russian Doctors Criticize Reds' Medical Science

MOSCOW (AP)—The Medical Worker, publication of the Soviet Union's Ministry of Health, says Russian science would be further advanced if it kept informed on scientific progress in the West and elsewhere in the world.

The magazine criticized the Institute of Experimental Surgical Equipment for lack of "knowledge on world scientific literature" and "inability to use creatively the experience which is gathered by the scientists and engineers of other countries."

The Medical Worker said Russia does not have enough surgical instruments and is not importing them to fill the deficiency. Pointing out that only the big clinics of Moscow and Leningrad have enough, the article said Soviet surgeons elsewhere write hundreds of letters begging for everything "from needles to stethoscopes."

The magazine demanded mass production of instruments.

Absenteeism Cured

FLEMINGTON, N.J. (AP)—Judge Henry F. Schenk has cured the chronic absenteeism of a 15-year-old high school sophommre. The boy hasn't skipped a day of school since the judge threatened to fine the lad's parents $5 for every day he stays home.

IT'S A PSYCHOLOGICAL FACT: PLEASURE HELPS YOUR DISPOSITION

How's your disposition today?

MAD AS A WET HEN? That's only natural when little annoyances ruffle you. But one help to your disposition is pleasure. That's a psychological fact! That means everyday pleasures, like smoking for instance, are important. And, if you're a smoker who smokes for pleasure, you owe it to yourself to smoke the most pleasure-giving cigarette — Camel!

For more pure pleasure _have a Camel

YES, it's a fact that Camels give more smokers more pure pleasure than any other cigarette. Camels are America's first choice, year after year! No other cigarette has ever matched Camel's costly blend. No other cigarette is so rich-tasting, yet so mild. So choose your cigarette for pleasure. Pleasure helps your disposition. For more pure pleasure — have a Camel!

Gents' Coiffures 'Revived' to Original Color

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—Ever since Medusa captured the public fancy with that real snakey coiffure, women have been doing unusual things to their hair. Like clipping, steaming, greasing, bleaching, ropin' and a-tyin'.

And what have the men done to their hair?

Let it go. Sometimes literally.

To a man of distinction, not to mention nobility, name of Prince Artchil Gourielli, this preposterous, depressing and slothful.

Being no sloth himself, the prince has just opened a hair, beard and mustache dyeing department in his "groom shop for men," where the facial mud pack and the sun-tan shave were formerly the services de resistance.

"Ah, but we never call it 'dyeing' or even 'tinting,' even if we know what it is," whispered Patrick O'Higgins, the groom shop guide, as he led the way through a corridor of curtained booths toward the new hair department. "It is called, simply, 'reviving.'

"Men, you know, are shy of any term that might link them with the ladies."

DYEING SALON

Pointing out that "Here is where Tyrone Power has his beard dyed," O'Higgins entered the reviving room. It was petite and outfitted, from chair to drapes, in gray.

"Banker's gray?" we asked.

"Oh, that sounds so mercenary," he chuckled. "We call it battleship gray. Nice, isn't it?"

O'Higgins pointed out that men are taking to the hair department most enthusiastically, although they are not yet trying out glamor colors, as women do. Most customers, so far, are older men whose hair is fading or (in the case of gray coifs) yellowing. "They want to be returned to their natural, youthful color.

"First we give them a patch test, to make sure they have no allergies. And then we tint—call it revive — them to a shade that blends in with the coloring in their face. This is usually brown, the most popular shade."

SCALPS GET WORKS

O'Higgins pointed out that Gourielli's also offers a bankers' gray shampoo, for vitalizing gray-heads, and hot oil shampoos and complex scalp treatments. "The facial pack with sun lamp," he pointed out, "is also popular, at only $2.75."

One of the reasons why Prince Gourielli, from an old Russian (White, of course) royal family started this shop is that he is married to Madame Helena Rubinstein who, as everyone should know by now, has a marked interest in cosmetics.

"Madame started her business, for women, 50 years ago in London and was a tremendous success immediately," O'Higgins explained. "She was also impressed by how many lackeys would come into her shop and buy cosmetics for their lords.

Since then, Madame has thought that a man's face takes a terrific beating, with all the shaving and so on, and she has wanted all these years to improve the situation.

"She is leaving it to her husband to accomplish this dream."

By way of assistance, O'H pointed out, Madame has created some special soothing facial products for men.

MILK PROTEINS

"Madame observed in Europe that the dairy workers had the best arms, and this meant that milk must be beneficial to the complexion. So after years of experimenting and consultation with doctors—she is a dermatologist herself, you know—she came out with a cream which is loaded with milk proteins.

* * *

And are men going for milk proteins with the same zeal they are going for hair reviving? I asked.

"You would really," said O'Higgins, "be amazed."

"Oh, I don't know," I said.

And still don't.

Lost Motorcyclist Mystery Is Solved

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—The mystery of a missing motorcycle racer has been solved.

Herbert Alba Sischo, 26, of Torrance, Calif., disappeared Saturday while racing on an 80-mile course around a dry lake. Thirty sheriff's deputies launched a search for him yesterday.

Last night Sischo showed up. He explained that during the race he ran out of gas in an isolated section and was picked up by two uranium prospectors who were just starting out for the weekend.

He had to either go along with the prospectors or hike many miles back to civilization. He prospected.

Poland Rulers Bow to Jazz Western Style

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — The Communist rulers of Poland have bowed to western-style jazz music, Red newspapers received in Vienna reveal.

"The discrimination against jazz music is over", Warsaw's Zycie Warszawy announced. At the same time, the paper assumed the sponsorship of four jazz concerts in the Polish capital.

But the Communists are not admitting their change of heart in good grace.

"Jazz music is not simply Negro music with wild rythems", one Red newspaper wrote, "but rather it is the music of American Negroes, who are people threatened with mass murder and longing for freedom.

"Jazz must therefore be considered something like a social bill of indictment against the American rulers", the paper said.

Other papers gave what apparently is the real reason for the permission for jazz. "Our youths are not content with only political songs or music depicting the progress of the working class, they also want music which amuses them," one paper said.

Ike Says Reds Need Watching

Warns Against Excess Optimism About Intent of Communist China

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today Communist China has implied that it released four imprisoned American airmen in an effort to relax tensions in the Far East.

But the President told a news conference the situation needs to be watched carefully. He cautioned against what he termed any hit or miss conclusions with respect to the intentions of Red China.

Asked about the prospects for release of other Americans held by the Chinese Communists, Eisenhower replied he had nothing on that at this time.

Eisenhower opened his session with newsmen by noting that the Communists had released the four American fliers early today.

He said the airmen were at the moment en route to Honolulu and that members of their families would be flown to Hawaii to greet them.

When questioning began, a reporter asked whether the President felt that release of the four men indicated the Chinese Communists are sincere about trying to relieve world tension.

Eisenhower replied that messages received by this government imply that is the stated intention of the Reds. Then he added that the whole situation must be watched carefully without any hit or miss conclusions.

Eisenhower, tanned from a holiday weekend of golf, also dealt with these other topics:

Polio vaccine—The President said it looks now as though there will be enough Salk vaccine within 30 days to handle the program calling for inoculation of first and second graders.

He added the program for those age groups should be completed in 60 days.

On the same subject, Eisenhower voiced earnest hope that Congress will provide the 28 million dollars he has asked for inoculation of children whose parents are unable to pay for vaccinations.

Woman Travels From Belgium to Meet 2-Year-Old Goddaughter at Cooley Lake

Therese Elizabeth Schulte of Cooley Lake is two years old today. That's nothing unusual, except for the fact that her godmother came all the way from Brussels, Belgium, to help celebrate Tresi-Lou's birthday and meet her goddaughter for the first time.

In 1947 Tresi-Lou's mother was attending a religious conference in New York City. While there she met Louise Vanderpoorten, a young Belgian business woman. The brief acquaintance ripened into a friendship through correspondence.

When Mrs. Schulte's third child, a daughter, was born, Louise Vanderpoorten became her godmother.

Mrs. Schulte's sister, Mrs. Leonard Romfka of Mt. Clemens, served as proxy godmother at the christening ceremony.

Now traveling in this country on business — her firm exports home heating equipment from American factories — Miss Vanderpoorten took time out to spend 24 hours with her goddaughter.

Although unable to be here today for the actual birthday, godmother and goddaughter shared a gaily decorated cake on Saturday.

Miss Vanderpoorten likes America.

She says she thinks American parents spoil their children outrageously. But she must approve of the final results, for she says she prefers American to European men.

FBI Holds Off in Hunt for Girl

Delays Joining Search for Kalamazoo Child, 8, Missing for Week

KALAMAZOO (AP) — The FBI has delayed entering the search for 8-year-old Jeannie Singleton.

Sherwin Heywood, Kalamazoo police chief, said yesterday the government agency declined to enter the case on the grounds there was no evidence the missing school girl had been taken across the state line.

If it could be proved Jeannie had been taken to another state, the FBI could enter the case under the Lindbergh Law.

Jeannie vanished a week ago on her way home from school. No trace of her has been found.

Capt. Riley Stewart, Kalamazoo chief of detectives, said searching parties, which once numbered more than 1,500 persons, were dwindling to nothing.

"Have covered the entire county two and three times and have found nothing," Stewart said. "Volunteers think there is no use looking any farther here."

Keego Meeting Set Wednesday

To Consider Proposal to Shift West Bloomfield School Equipment Fund

KEEGO HARBOR — An open meeting will be held at 8 p.m. at the Roosevelt School, for the residents of the school district.

Members of the board of education have been invited to attend, along with Dr. Leif Hogen, superintendent of schools.

Purpose of the meeting is to discuss the need for changing the 3½-mill tax from the West Bloomfield High School equipment fund to the general operating fund.

This change will be Proposition One on the ballot at the school election to be held June 13.

Want Property Annexed to Bloomfield Township

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP — Three property owners within the township have petitioned to have their total of 9.05 acres annexed into Bloomfield Township, since their property has not been included within the boundaries specified for incorporation, lying just north of the boundary on 14 Mile road.

Those signing the petition include Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Goldman, at 27360 14-Mile Rd., who own 3.42 acres; Mr and Mrs. H. H. Reske, 27272 14-Mile Rd., who own 2.88 acres; and Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Greig, 27140 14-Mile Rd., who own 2.75 acres.

County Deaths

Mrs. Charles Carroll

ROCHESTER—Service for Mrs. Charles (Ora May) Carroll, 56, of Luzerne, formerly of Rochester, will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday from Pixley Funeral Home, with burial in Mt. Avon Cemetery. She died suddenly Sunday at her home.

Surviving are her husband; one daughter, Mrs. Maxine Bull of Rochester; one son, William of Luzerne; two brothers, Clarence Partrick of Rochester, Max Partrick of Pontiac; and three grandchildren.

Extend Deadline in Indo Exchange

Reds Agree to Allow Refugees to Cross Into South Until July 20

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — France and the Communist Vietminh have agreed to give persons living in North and South Viet Nam an additional month in which to choose their permanent homes, the International Armistice Commission announced today. The new deadline is July 20.

The Vietminh already had agreed under pressure from Viet Nam, France, the United States, Canada and Russia to add 30 days to the May 18 deadline provided for by the Geneva armistice accords. The second extension was proposed by the commission and agreed on May 28.

It means that thousands more will be able to join the 800,000 persons who already have chosen to leave the Vietminh controlled North for new homes in the free South.

Elements of the French navy's Far East fleet will stand by off Haiphong to take aboard those who wish to move southward.

Dearborn Teenagers Injured in Accident

Three Dearborn teenagers were injured Monday when their car overturned on Hickory Ridge road in Holly Township, Oakland County Sheriff's deputies said.

The driver, Malcolm M. Neimeyer, 16, was treated for bruises at Pontiac General Hospital while his passengers, Richard Repp, 15, was treated for a broken left arm and ribs, and Miss Judy Wright, 16, was treated for possible head injuries.

Neimeyer said the car rolled over when he failed to negotiate a curve where Hickory Ridge joins Baker road.

(Man! what Variable Pitch Propellers do for Dynaflow Drive*!)

IN A land vehicle, there's never been anything like the magic a pilot gets with his variable pitch propellers.

He can angle the blades of his propellers for performance as he heads his plane down a runway — to get quick take-off and climb.

He can switch the angle of those propellers for economy aloft — to get more mileage from the fuel in his tanks.

As we said — there's never been anything like that in a land vehicle. But there is now.

It's in a Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflow — and you can take the word of thousands of excited owners of new Buicks that it's the closest thing to wheeled flight...

Because you have twenty propeller-like blades whirling in oil inside your Dynaflow unit...

Because you can switch the pitch of those propeller blades from high-economy angle that gives you top gas mileage in cruising — to high-performance angle that gives you action plus...

And because, when you call for that action by pressing the gas pedal way down — you get it split-second quick and silky smooth — an instantaneous power response for getaway, or for a sudden safety-surge of acceleration when needed.

It's a solid, soaring, pulse-quickening thrill — unlike anything you ever felt before — and robustly bolstered by walloping new horsepowers raised to record might.

It's something you definitely ought to try — just to know what's really new in automobiles — and to see for yourself why Buick sales are zooming to an all-time best-seller high.

Drop in today or tomorrow and we'll gladly arrange matters — show you, too, the prices that are keeping Buick in the tight circle of America's top sellers.

U.S. Expedition Going to Arctic

Will Help America in Dealing With Reported Soviet Buildup

SAN FRANCISCO (UP) — An expedition will go to the North Pole this spring to seek information about the polar basin that will help the United States counter the threat of reported Russian air bases in the Arctic only 2,400 miles from major American cities.

The American Polar Basin Expedition, headed by John F. Stanwell-Fletcher, has set as its major goal the discovery of practical means of operating U. S. aircraft off the polar cap from the 80th parallel to the pole.

The 20-man expedition, sponsored by American industry, will travel by plane and dog sled. It will explore the north geographic pole and the icecap between the pole and the northernmost point of Ellesmere Island in the Canadian archipelago.

The expedition's chief of flight operations is Capt. Marvin Griggs, Nateca, Calif. A veteran pilot with 17,400 hours of flying time, he was chief test pilot for Britain's Ministry of Aircraft Production and served with the U. S. Air Force Transport Command.

Griggs will fly one of the three planes the expedition will use during the two-month exploration.

"Already," Griggs said, "the Russians are claiming 86 per cent of the polar cap itself—a claim the United States has refused to accept.

"But if they move more bases down to the 80th parallel—600 miles closer—they'll be within 1,800 miles of our major cities.

"And what have we got up there to stop them?"

Griggs said other objectives of the expedition would be to determine the feasibility of semi-permanent observation stations on the polar basin ice and to make oceanographic, ionospheric, cosmic, ozone and radiation, gravity, magnetic and auroral observations.

The explorers also will study marine biology, meteorology and magnetic variations in the basin.

Reds' Warsaw Pact Ratified by Romania

NEW YORK (UP)—The Ford Foundation reports a growing trend among business firms to support "educational activities not directly related to the corporations' business interests."

This is "particularly encouraging," the foundation said in its annual report yesterday. However, it added, private and corporate donors must raise their level of giving "for private institutions to fulfill adequately their appropriate role in our national life."

"At the same time," it said, "the criteria for giving should be importance, not popularity, and need, not safety from criticism."

Tunisian Nationalist Ends Exile in France

PARIS (UP)—Tunisian nationalist leader Habib Bourguiba headed home for a hero's welcome today after a three-year exile.

The leader of the Neo-Destour party had been living under surveillance outside Paris. The French forced him to leave his homeland after outbreaks of agitation for independence.

An agreement reached during negotiations on terms of Tunisian self-government left him free to return home.

Warns Against Excess Optimism About Intent of Communist China

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today Communist China has implied that it released four imprisoned American airmen in an effort to relax tensions in the Far East.

But the President told a news conference the situation needs to be watched carefully. He cautioned against what he termed any hit or miss conclusions with respect to the intentions of Red China.

Asked about the prospects for release of other Americans held by the Chinese Communists, Eisenhower replied he had nothing on that at this time.

Eisenhower opened his session with newsmen by noting that the Communists had released the four American fliers early today.

He said the airmen were at the moment en route to Honolulu and that members of their families would be flown to Hawaii to greet them.

When questioning began, a reporter asked whether the President felt that release of the four men indicated the Chinese Communists are sincere about trying to relieve world tension.

Eisenhower replied that messages received by this government imply that is the stated intention of the Reds. Then he added that the whole situation must be watched carefully without any hit or miss conclusions.

Eisenhower, tanned from a holiday weekend of golf, also dealt with these other topics:

Polio vaccine—The President said it looks now as though there will be enough Salk vaccine within 30 days to handle the program calling for inoculation of first and second graders.

He added the program for those age groups should be completed in 60 days.

On the same subject, Eisenhower voiced earnest hope that Congress will provide the 28 million dollars he has asked for inoculation of children whose parents are unable to pay for vaccinations.

Woman Travels From Belgium to Meet 2-Year-Old Goddaughter at Cooley Lake

Therese Elizabeth Schulte of Cooley Lake is two years old today. That's nothing unusual, except for the fact that her godmother came all the way from Brussels, Belgium, to help celebrate Tresi-Lou's birthday and meet her goddaughter for the first time.

In 1947 Tresi-Lou's mother was attending a religious conference in New York City. While there she met Louise Vanderpoorten, a young Belgian business woman. The brief acquaintance ripened into a friendship through correspondence.

When Mrs. Schulte's third child, a daughter, was born, Louise Vanderpoorten became her godmother.

Mrs. Schulte's sister, Mrs. Leonard Romfka of Mt. Clemens, served as proxy godmother at the christening ceremony.

Now traveling in this country on business — her firm exports home heating equipment from American factories — Miss Vanderpoorten took time out to spend 24 hours with her goddaughter.

Although unable to be here today for the actual birthday, godmother and goddaughter shared a gaily decorated cake on Saturday.

Miss Vanderpoorten likes America.

She says she thinks American parents spoil their children outrageously. But she must approve of the final results, for she says she prefers American to European men.

AND NOW SHE IS TWO — Therese Elizabeth Schulte of Cooley Lake is ready to share her birthday cake with her godmother, Louise Vanderpoorten of Brussels, Belgium. The first meeting of the two came this weekend when Miss Vanderpoorten was a guest in the Gordon Schulte home.

FBI Holds Off in Hunt for Girl

Delays Joining Search for Kalamazoo Child, 8, Missing for Week

KALAMAZOO (AP) — The FBI has delayed entering the search for 8-year-old Jeannie Singleton.

Sherwin Heywood, Kalamazoo police chief, said yesterday the government agency declined to enter the case on the grounds there was no evidence the missing school girl had been taken across the state line.

If it could be proved Jeannie had been taken to another state, the FBI could enter the case under the Lindbergh Law.

Jeannie vanished a week ago on her way home from school. No trace of her has been found.

Capt. Riley Stewart, Kalamazoo chief of detectives, said searching parties, which once numbered more than 1,500 persons, were dwindling to nothing.

"Have covered the entire county two and three times and have found nothing," Stewart said. "Volunteers think there is no use looking any farther here."

Camp Fire Girls Slate Council

The city-wide council fire sponsored by the Pontiac Council of Camp Fire Girls will be held June 11 at 7 p.m. on the camp site at Lake Gulick.

Several hundred are expected to participate in the program which will honor Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds who have earned recognition during the past year.

Spokesmen for the Camp Fire Girls say that the day camp training program will conclude Saturday with an all-day session at Central Methodist Church.

Registrations for day camp have been completed, and girls attending will be taken to the site by bus.

Jewelry Design Is Going Antique

NEW YORK (INS)—This may or may not be a hint of coming fashions, but new jewelry designs are going heavily antique.

We're going to have baubles, bangles and beads copied from ancient Greece, Rome and Egypt. The best way to describe most of it is that it's bulky, brassy and clinks when you walk.

The new jewelry is predominately gold—fake gold, of course—dull-finished for the same effect you get from a brass doorknob.

Earrings will be big and angly, pins will be massive, and both necklaces and bracelets will be wide and fringed. Most typical of these ancient style necklaces will be the Egyptian bib—the collar-like affairs of stones and metal that Cleopatra wore.

A great many new jewelry items will be set with fake stones.

She Turned a Needle Into Profit

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Judging by the books—written by men—on the modern woman's dilemma, one would get the idea that mothers and their married daughters almost always are at swords' points, that the average married daughter considers her mother to be, at best, a nuisance and, at worst, a threat.

But that has not been my experience.

In fact, hardly a day goes by without bringing a letter from a married daughter, telling me of the splendid project her mother has, how wonderful she is, and how proud she makes her daughter feel.

GOOD MANAGER

Here is an example, from a young woman named Margaret.

She writes: "I read your column regularly and notice that you frequetly have stories of women who find useful and satisfying work when their children marry and leave home.

"My mother is one of them.

"I thought you might like to hear what she did about it.

"Mother had four of us and was always busy at home.

"Father was a teacher, so there was never much money, but mother was marvelous at managing.

"She could remake all kinds of clothes, mend table linens till they were like new, turn collars and cuffs, repair slipcovers and curtains, and, in general, make things last forever.

TURNS PROFESSIONAL

"After Father passed away and all of us were married and in homes of our own, Mother decided to turn professional with her talent for mending.

"She took samples of her work to fine hand laundries and dry cleaners and began getting orders right away.

"Then she called on the shops which sell fine linens and left her name.

"After all, a beautiful, expensive tablecloth can get a cigarette burn when it's practically new.

NEW AMBITION

"She had quite a few customers, and was making a nice income when, the next thing we knew, she was studying re-weaving!

"It took some time to master the art of re-weaving, but with perfect eyesight and tireless energy she soon became an expert.

"She now does work at home for several good tailors, and continues her mending service as well."

This daughter concludes: "Mother is doing all right—and we're all terribly proud of her!"

Groups Enjoy Traditional Holiday Get-Togethers

By JANET ODELL

Despite adverse weather, Oakland County residents got outdoors over the weekend.

One of the larger gatherings was held at the Pontiac Lake Recreation Area on Memorial Day. For the sixth year members of the Fellowship Class of the Drayton Plains United Presbyterian Church held a family breakfast.

A hundred and forty hardy individuals braved the chilly day to enjoy bacon and eggs with their pants.

Traditionally the men do the cooking. One of those scheduled to help was Keith Johnson of Seebaldt drive. His plans were changed when his wife went to the hospital to have their fourth child, a son.

CHAIRMEN OF EVENT

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Morgan were chairmen of the event and did the buying. Some 35 pounds of bacon and about 35 dozen eggs were needed to satisfy the hungry crowd. After the meal, brisk games of volleyball and baseball warmed the participants.

Former members of the class came from Muncie, Ind., and Ann Arbor to attend.

A new grill has been on the "want" list of the George Gale family ever since they moved from Pontiac into their new home at Fairfax road in Birmingham a year ago. They bought one in time to christen it on Memorial Day and invited their neighbors, the Leon Miles, to help.

Naturally, so far as the children were concerned, the important part of the menu was the meat course. It's such fun to roast hot dogs over the coals.

Graduating seniors are unusually busy people. Girls, however, always seem to have time to be social. Eight girls of Waterford High are planning a reception for all the graduating class after baccalaureate services on June 12.

They hope the weather will permit an outdoor affair, which is to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bennett of Saginaw trail.

Hostesses for the coming party are Gail Bennett, Jeannie Stickel, Mary Kay Nelson, Charlotte Robb, Norma Sutherland, Betty Williams, Sue Oberholtzer and Dolores Brown.

PUNCH BOWL TO STAR

They are planning to have a huge bowl of fruit punch dominate the table decorated in the graduation theme. Little sandwiches and dips with plenty of crackers and potato chips will complete the menu.

It will mark one of the last times this group will be together; they have been a "gang" since grade school days.

Chlorine Lends a Hand During Housecleaning

Add to the list of things that are always with us — the laundry! At spring housecleaning time, the hamper fills up like a creek in rainy season.

Towels, linens, clothing.— all the regular laundry items, plus all of the extras at housecleaning time—mattress pads, bedspreads, curtains, draperies, cotton rugs.

Let the convenient new laundry aid take over some of the cleaning load, chlorine bleach in a new dry form.

Add it in the washing machine or washtub according to the directions on the glass jar and let it go to work on white or colorfast linen, cotton, orlon, dacron and nylon.

Chlorine bleach loosens dirt without any rub or scrub, and added with soap or detergent, does a good job of laundering.

Western Whirlers Conclude Season

Members of the Western Whirlers Square Dance Club closed a successful season of Western dancing when they met recently at West Bloomfield Township Hall.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Patten, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Brown and Mr. and Mrs. George Sweazy.

Ed White, president, announced that the new season will begin the fourth Saturday in September. Pete Lergen will be retained as caller.

Handbag Can Be Handy Reminder

Because carrying a handbag is such a reflex action for women, it's a good way to remind yourself of things.

A string and note tied across the handles of your waiting-to-go-out bag is a vastly more effective reminder than a string on the finger.

Zonta Planning Sunday Event

The Zonta Club of Pontiac will hold its annual spring breakfast Sunday at Rotunda Inn, President Mrs. Adrian Ish announced at the recent meeting.

The breakfast honors new members of the organization. Mrs. Ish revealed that there now are 65 members of the club. Speaker for the breakfast will be Mrs. James Rosenthal.

New members of the club attending the meeting were Mrs. J. Chester Reynolds and Phyllis Nelson. Mrs. E. A. Reitmeyer was a guest.

Following the meeting, members and guests toured the new city hall.

3 New Members Installed by Sorority

Grace Campbell, Delores Hylla and Mrs. Ronald Weaver were formally installed in Beta Alpha Chapter of Sigma Beta sorority following a recent dinner at Joe's Spaghetti House.

The installation ceremony took place at the Riviera drive home of Mrs. Paul Beith.

Three Are Initiated Into Esther Court

Mrs. Frederick Kline Jr., Mrs. Alex McVean and Mrs. Victor Bodamer were initiated into Esther Court 13, Order of the Amaranth, when members gathered recently at Roosevelt Masonic Temple on State avenue.

Guests were present from Detroit and Mt. Clemens.

Says 'Match-Making Is a Dubious Business'

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: My girl friend is crazy about my cousin, and he acts as though he likes her, too, but he won't do anything about it.

"I'm trying to get them together. So what should I do?"

Answer: Match-making is a dubious occupation. Yet that's what you're letting yourself in for.

He may like her, but he won't like being pushed around by you. And if you don't do something your girl friend will feel let down.

But what can you do, actually, but expose them to each other and let nature take its course? You can see to it that they're both at your house at the same time, then you can leave them to their own devices.

Give them a chance to get better acquainted while you go about other business. Without your presence, your cousin might get up his courage to do something about her.

"Dear Miss Woodward: I recently broke up with my boy friend.

"I've made several attempts at reconciliation, but he has made no effort to go along with me. So I've decided to leave it as it is.

"But how shall I act toward him now?"

Answer: You've done all you can, apparently, to patch things up with the lad. He isn't interested.

So let it be while you go your merry way. Be polite and nice when you see him.

You needn't act as though you loathe him for letting you down, breaking your heart, disappointing you.

Speak to him whenever you meet, but don't seek him out. "Wash him out of your hair" and get busy, devoting yourself to someone else. The busier you are at that, the less aware of your old beau you'll be.

You won't notice him around or care what he's up to. You'll close the door firmly on that old love, so nature can take a new course.

"Dear Miss Woodward: Recently he told me pointblank that he wanted to be boss. I've always been under the impression that a steady deal is on a 50-50 basis.

"He's very jealous, and when I tell him so he thinks I like someone else and want to break up.

"How can I get along with a guy like that?"

Answer: Otherwise you like him, and all goes well? So let him be boss.

Few relationships are true 50-50 deals. One is usually more dominating than the other. So go along with him until you're faced with something you can't take.

Then quietly, gently, tactfully get yourself out of it. Avoid attentions to other boys that will make him jealous, then pretend not to notice it if he turns green.

Play up to him to restore his self-confidence.

You can't reform him. You can't boss him around. You have to take him as he is and put up with him if you want to get along with him.

It's Good! Cook Beef With Soup

Mrs. Wm. J. Lacy's Swiss Steak Made Quick 'n' Easy Way

Pontiac Press Food Editor

Here's an idea for all the new brides who are just learning to cook. Condensed mushroom soup makes an excellent gravy or cream sauce. Mrs. William J. Lacy uses it to give round steak a different flavor.

Kentucky born, Mrs. Lacy has a pleasing, soft speaking voice. She enjoys her two sons and their activities. For her own activities, she includes membership in the Lucy Webb Hayes group of her church and a Bridge club.

MUSHROOM SWISS STEAK
By Mrs. William J. Lacy

Pan fry round steak until it is brown. Season with salt and pepper. Add either a can of condensed mushroom soup or a can of mushroom steak sauce. If desired, one-half cup of canned tomatoes may be added. Cover and let simmer until the meat is very tender.

SHIRLEY RUTH BAYLIS

Shirley Ruth Baylis, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Baylis of Spence street, will receive her B.A. degree from University of Michigan June 11. Miss Baylis was charter president of Delta Phi Epsilon sorority and was one of the original founding members.

Besides being a member of Phi Beta Kappa, she has memberships in Mortar Board, National Senior Women's Honorary Society, Pi Lambda Theta and Phi Kappa Phi. She was also recipient of the Oreon E. Scott award.

Bleach Saves Wear on Cotton Fabrics

Cottons take a tremendous amount of wear and tear. Save additional strain on the fabric by using chlorine dry bleach in every wash along with the soap or detergent.

A small amount of bleach eliminates a vast amount of scrubbing and rubbing to get the dirt out. You'll find this, adds considerably to the life of your possessions, as well as to their bleach-white and bleach-bright appearance.

Chlorine bleach is much more convenient to use now, thanks to its debut in dry form. The directions are on the container.

Open Those Paint-Stuck Windows

Handyman Says Bead Removal, Linseed Oil Helps

By HUBBARD COBB

According to one of our experts, one of the best ways to cool a house is to open a window.

Trouble is that in a lot of homes there are a lot of windows that won't open for all the money in the world.

About half the stuck windows you find are stuck because someone was a little too generous with paint when the sash was painted and now the paint has formed a seal between the sash and the frame.

Often you can cut through this seal by running a knife blade down along the seam between sash and frame.

Another trick is to take a block of wood, hold it against the side of the sash and hit it with a hammer. Move the block up and down along each side of the sash and tap away with your hammer.

If all goes well, and it often does, the sash should loosen up.

Sometimes none of these ideas work and then the best thing to do is to remove one of the little stop beads along the side of the window frame that hold the sash in place.

These are usually held in place by small finishing nails or wood screws. You just have to remove one of the beads—it's seldom necessary to take them both off.

Once the stop beads is out of the way the sash can be pulled out of the frame.

Take some sandpaper and remove any accumulations of paint from along the edge of the sash—also on the frame where the sash moves up and down.

Before you put the sash back into place, give the edges of the sash a coat of linseed oil. This will prevent the wood absorbing moisture and swelling up.

Kitchen Tool Kit Performs All Jobs

Are you a back-yard woodsman, a back to nature boy, handy-man or jack of all trades? Perhaps you're a gal who's handy with her hands?

Whichever you are, you're in the right kind of fix, with the right kind of tools — right at hand for the handy. A bottle or a can to be opened?

Do you need a hammer or a chisel, file, reamer, awl, screwdriver, fish-scaler, hook remover? Do you need a pair of side-cutting pliers, and the always necessary knife?

Each useful little tool fits right into the end of the pocket knife. It's an all-useful kit in its fine pigskin case. Handy as reaching for wallet, easier than searching through the tool chest — a place for everything and everything in its place.

JACQUELINE MENZEL

Eye Doctors Come in Three Varieties

Need help with your eyes? Keep this in mind: an oculist or ophthalmologist is an M.D. who specializes in eye trouble.

An optometrist is a non-medical man who measures eye errors and prescribes glasses and exercises. An optician is a man who grinds glasses, fits them into frames and fits frames to you.

Back Door Entrance Is Preferred

Feels Dirt Roads Offer an Excuse for Her Request

By EMILY POST

A reader asks: "Will you please tell me if my neighbors could take offense at being asked to use the back door when they drop in to see me during the day?

"Our front door opens directly into the living room as the streets out here are not as yet paved, a good deal of sand and mud is tracked through the house, and much of this could be avoided if they would use the back entrance.

"I would appreciate hearing what you think about this?"

Answer: Under the circumstances you give, I think explanation to them would make your request understandable and surely no one could take offense.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When the knife has not been used during the meal, should it be picked up at the end of the meat course and laid with the fork across the plate so it will be taken out when the plate is removed?"

Answer: It should be left where it is.

In correct formal service the table is cleared of the salt cellars and pepper pots and unused silver, and crumbed before dessert by the person waiting on table.

If there is no one waiting on table, the unused silver would be left until the table is cleared after the meal.

"Dear Mrs. Post: While visiting my son and his wife I went to church with them on Sunday. They belong to a different church than the one that I do and the service was unfamiliar to me.

"Rather than do something to which I was not accustomed, I simply sat throughout the service. My son thinks that I made myself conspicuous by doing this and that I should have knelt when the others did.

"Did I do the wrong thing?"

Answer: You are certainly not expected to do anything that is against your own religious beliefs, but I do agree with your son that you should have followed the example of others insofar as you were able—such as standing when they stood and sitting when they sat.

Be Laundry Expert by Planning Ahead

A little planning ahead and good organization can make you a laundry expert in next to no time.

For instance: As a matter of laundering routine you need soap or detergent and a good chlorine bleach to give your clothes that extra cleanness and freshness.

The new chlorine bleach that comes in dry form is light, handy and convenient to use. Then sort your clothes.

The white and colorfast cottons, linens, nylons, dacron and orlon things can all be washed in normally hot water, with chlorine bleach added to the suds. In using any bleach be sure to follow the directions on the jar.

Linen Tablecloths Whiter if Bleached

When you are planning ahead for company dinner and you look at your best linen tablecloth, it may not look as dazzling white as you like.

Pop it into the washing machine with your favorite detergent plus the new chlorine dry bleach. In the regular cycle of the washing machine it will be as white as white can be.

No matter how fine the linen, you can use the new chlorine dry bleach, for it will not harm the fabric; just follow the directions on the label.

Vacuum Wand Cleans Walls Safely, Easily

Not so many years ago the system for cleaning walls was to climb a shaky stepladder, lean this way or that precariously while wiping the ceiling or walls, only to discover after climbing down from the lofty perch that the entire "cleaned" surface had been left a mass of streaks.

You cannot rub a soiled wall or ceiling with a dustcloth and have it "come clean." If no grease is present the household vacuum cleaner will remove the dust prefectly, and with the long wand which comes with the kit of attachments, the homemaker can stand firmly on the floor without any physical risk whatsoever.

Furthermore, with the attachments so easy to use, dusting can be done frequently, thus preventing for a long time any appearance of soil.

Garbo: The Legend and the Lady

Greta Begins Romance With Gayelord Hauser

By JOHN BAINBRIDGE

For thirteen years Garbo had enthralled audiences with her gift for beautifying illicit, tragic love.

The peerless symbol of gorgeous tragedy, she had made her special province of the portrayal of women who, judged by bourgeois morality, are so destructive of the established order that they do not deserve to end their days happily.

Thus, in Flesh and the Devil, she drowned. In A Woman of Affairs, she crashed to death. In Mati Hari, she perished before a firing squad.

In Anna Karenina, she threw herself under a train. In Camille, she was carried off by tuberculosis. And the finales of most of her other films had found her either in the shadow of death or in everlasting misery.

SEEKS COMEDY ROLES

Though she had earnestly sought comedy roles, Metro executives had always been wary of risking their most valuable property in an experiment they considered so chancy.

At last, by using her customary weapon of hinting broadly of a wish to retire, Garbo had made her will prevail.

Returning to Hollywood in the fall of 1938, after nine months abroad, she plunged into making Ninotchka, which proved her sure gift for comedy and turned out to be one of her best films.

A brilliant satire of Communism, Ninotchka was directed by Ernest Lubitsch, a great Garbo favorite, who had established a reputation as one of Hollywood's foremost directors in a series of films distinguished by sophistication, wit, elegance and nonchalance.

Besides his masterly camera craftsmanship, Lubitsch possessed a rare ability to get the most out of his players.

In working with Garbo he was a paragon of gallantry, thoughtfulness and charm. Arriving on the set in the morning, he called at Garbo's dressing room and formally paid his respects.

Then he removed his coat and worked in his shirt sleeves the rest of the day. At five o'clock, when work was over, Lubitsch again put on his coat and called at the star's dressing room, where he bade her a courtly good evening.

GRETA GARBO

This daily routine, as far as anyone could remember, was unprecedented on a Hollywood stage.

ATTENDS PRIVATE SHOWING

Having shunned, as usual, looking at the rushes, Garbo did not see Ninotchka until after it had been cut and edited. Accompanied by Lubitsch, she attended a private showing of the picture at the studio. "Do you like yourself in it?" Lubitsch asked the star as the lights went up. "Even then," he said, "she didn't seem to know if she was bad or good."

She was quite alone in her indecision, for Garbo's debut as a comedienne was unanimously hailed as a major screen event. Ninotchka earned Garbo her second nomination for an Oscar, but it was Vivien Leigh who was chosen as the best actress of 1939 for her performance in Gone with the Wind.

Throughout the filming of Ninotchka, Garbo was so uncommonly cheerful, when not involved in playing a scene, that people who had worked with her before were bewildered.

She mixed easily with other members of the cast, joked with the crew, and even played one day in an impromptu noonday baseball game on the lot (revealing a good throwing arm—the result, she said, of youthful snowballing in Sweden).

MEETS GAYELORD HAUSER

Primarily accountable for Garbo's new and surprising public character was the dietitian, lecturer and writer, Gayelord (Look Younger, Live Longer) Hauser, under whose bubbly influence the actress had fallen.

Her acquaintance with the eupeptic dietitian began when she was taken by a mutual friend, Mercedes de Acosta, to a dinner party at Hauser's Beverly Hills estate, to which he had given the glad name Sunrise Hill.

Garbo didn't like the party and left very early. Deeply disappointed and hurt, Hauser implored Miss de Acosta to persuade the actress to accept another invitation.

Garbo at length relented, transmitting the information that she would come to dinner at Sunrise Hill on condition that no other guests would be present.

Nothing could have pleased Hauser more. When Garbo made her solitary visit, Hauser served her one of his most tempting dishes—wild rice and hamburgers.

(These treats are made of wild rice and chopped hazelnuts or walnuts, with egg as the adhesive agent, and are fried in butter or peanut oil. For dessert Hauser served his guests broiled grapefruit, to the center of which had been added a soupcon of blackstrap molasses.

CHARMED BY FOOD

Garbo was much charmed by the food as well as by its ebullient creator. He was full of talk, energy and confidence, and he also made an impressive appearance, standing six feet three, handsome, broad-shouldered, black-haired and smartly and immaculately tailored.

A man who had never married, Hauser was then forty-four, ten years older than Garbo, but looking much younger than his years. Before long, the dashing dietitian had become Garbo's constant and exceedingly attentive escort.

Unlike Garbo, Hauser had no hesitancy in talking about himself. He took pleasure in telling Garbo how he had found salvation through spinach and other healthful foods.

At the age of sixteen, he had emigrated from his native Germany to the United States, where, after a few years, he contracted an ailment diagnosed as tuberculosis of the hip.

Orthodox medical men gave him up, but a Dr. Benedict Lust, a so-called naturopath, persuaded him to try a regimen that included herb teas and special diets and sent him to a clinic in Europe to pursue the treatment.

By eating only "living" foods, Hauser has said, he cured himself of his disease and determined to spend the rest of his life spreading the gospel of proper diet.

TAKES COURSES IN CHICAGO

Back in the United States, he veered briefly from his objective by taking some courses at the Chicago College of Naprapathy, where he looked into the system of treating diseases by manipulating ligaments in the spine, pelvis and thorax, and by earning a diploma from the American School of Chiropractic.

His main interest being diet, Hauser opened a store in Chicago to dispense "natural foods," and the idea caught on.

The business began to branch out after Hauser had made the acquaintance of Frey Brown, a young student of the Chicago Institute of Fine Arts, who saw possibilities that Hauser hadn't, such as starting diet classes at ten dollars a series and buying up the small company in Milwaukee that manufactured the foods Hauser sold.

Brown became Hauser's business partner, and the two have since been inseparable companions.

Soon Hauser extended his operations, which now included lecturing and a correspondence course, to other dietetic trouble spots like Hollywood, where he converted Clara Bow, Laura La Plante, Billie Burke, Paulette Goddard and a number of other actresses.

Hauser also had great success among the female winter residents of St. Petersburg, Fla. Then he carried the word to Europe.

By the time Hauser began his courtship of Garbo, he was himself a member in good standing of the international set, a prosperous businessman and an established fixture of Beverly Hills society.

Socially and temperamentally, he was well equipped to become her impresario. He began what resulted in a superficial metamorphosis by changing Garbo's eating habits.

Taking her off a vegetarian diet, he prescribed one that included plenty of meat particularly liver as well as his "wonder foods," such as yogurt, dried skim milk, brewers' yeast, blackstrap molasses and vegetable juices.

Dietary advice was only a part of Hauser's treatment. Perpetually, he preached his doctrine that "fun is something that all human beings are entitled to, an essential, a must," and persuasively urged his repressed inamorata to follow him and have a fling at living.

LONGS TO BE LED

Owing in large part to her natural longing to be led, Garbo submitted to Hauser's management with docility. She willingly accompanied him to private parties at the homes of his friends and also joined him in public excursions to the theater, restaurants, concerts and galleries.

Their developing friendship began to be the subject of much comment in the press. They were, Louella O. Parsons announced, "thataway."

On November 15, 1939, a few days after the premiere of Ninotchka, newspapers carried the information that Hauser had presented Garbo with a diamond ring and that she was wearing it on "the proper finger."

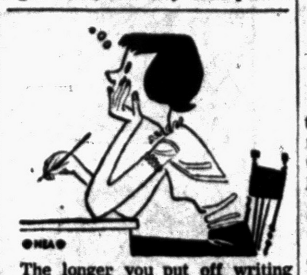
There were no denials from either her or Hauser, and when they left Hollywood a few weeks later, with Frey Brown, for a vacation in the east, the gossip columnists confidently predicted that Garbo would soon be wed.

As Garbo's impresario, Hauser showed the actress New York as she had never seen it before. They had tea with Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt at her Fifth Avenue mansion.

They had a box at the opera and attended the theater and the ballet. They lunched at the Colony and dined at Twenty One and other fashionable restaurants.

To make the visit complete, Hauser escorted Garbo to smart night clubs, and they even paid a visit early one morning to a hot jazz establishment on Fifty-second street.



The longer you put off writing a letter, the more difficult it becomes. So whether you are answering a friendly letter, writing a note of congratulations or of sympathy — write it the day it should be written.

Then you don't have to begin your letter with a lame excuse.

After this round of pleasure, Garbo and Hauser took off, early in February, for Palm Beach. Toward the middle of the month the vacationers, accompanied by Frey Brown, flew in a chartered plane to Nassau. There they boarded the fabulous yacht Southern Cross, owned by the wealthy, controversial Swedish industrialist, Axel Wenner-Gren.

After cruising in waters around the Bahamas for a couple of weeks the yacht put in at Miami, and Garbo's eventful sojourn with Hauser drew to a close.

HAUSER IS DISAPPOINTED

For Hauser the vacation ended disappointingly. He was so confident that he would make Garbo his bride that he had personally approved and left with a friend at International News Service a story of the wedding.

As soon as the ceremony had been performed, Hauser promised to confirm the event by telephone, giving INS a news beat. The confirming call never came.

Though Hauser, like Stokowski, Gilbert and other hopeful suitors, failed to take Garbo to the altar, he continued to be her close friend and escort for many months after their return to Hollywood.

Then, following the familiar pattern, Garbo gradually began to lose interest. At length she and Hauser drifted apart, but they remained on cordial terms. Like old soldiers, Garbo's romances never die—they just fade away.

OUR FIRST TOURISTS—1

Ponce de Leon and the Fountain of Youth

Traveling around the United States to see all the wonderful sights is easy and a lot of fun today, but it was a long and hard job for this country's first tourists—the men who discovered these places.

Juan Ponce de Leon, a Spanish explorer born around 1460, discovered Florida while searching for the "Fountain of Youth." This fountain was said to restore youth to old persons. Many legends were told about it.

Ponce de Leon arrived in Florida in 1513 and on Easter Sunday, April 8, claimed the land for Spain. The name of Florida comes from Pascua florida, which is Spanish for flowery Easter.

The explorer thought that a spring near what today is Saint Augustine really was the fountain of youth. He was killed by Indians in 1521 when he returned to colonize the territory.

Florida, known for its sunshine, flowers, fruit and beach resorts, is our most southern state. Its ocean coastline is longer than that of any other state.

Color the drawing of the Spaniard bathing in what he thought to be the wonderful "Fountain of Youth." This is the first in a week-long series on America's first tourists.

Durable Dallas Thug Survives Knife Cuts

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Jettie Bass, 41, was released from Parkland Hospital here yesterday just five days after he was disemboweled and cut about the head in a street fight.

Bass, regarded as Dallas' No. 1 hoodlum by police, survived 19 machine-gun slugs in 1952 when he was caught in a police ambush during a burglary.

Ex-convict Raymond Pope was charged with assault to murder in the latest injuries to Dallas' durable badman.

Minister Plans to Start Writing

Rev. Forgy, of 'Praise Lord and Pass Ammo' Fame, Retires

PLUCKEMIN, N.J. (AP)—The Rev. Howell M. Forgy, whose phrase "Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition" became a famous World War II battle slogan, plans to resume a writing career now that he has resigned as an active preacher.

Memorial Day marked the formal end of the preaching career of the Presbyterian minister who coined the inspiring words during the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941.

In resigning as pastor of the Pluckemin Presbyterian Church, where he has served since March 1954, the Rev. Mr. Forgy gave ill health as his reason.

The congregation at the church accepted the 47-year-old pastor's resignation Sunday, and his successor will be picked by a committee.

Now, he says, his full attention in the coming years will go to writing, where "I can set my own pace."

"I'd like to help fill the tremendous need for drama and pictures which have something to say . . ." he said.

His writing career began with a play, sponsored by the Rockefeller Foundation and T. S. Eliot.

At the time of the Pearl Harbor attack, the Rev. Mr. Forgy was a Navy chaplain aboard the cruiser New Orleans.

Hoover Group Backs Research Spending

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Hoover commission, altering its familiar economy theme, today urged more federal spending, bigger staffs and better pay in research programs, both military and civilian.

The commission in effect scolded Secretary of Welfare Hobby and the Budget Bureau, an arm of the White House, for not seeking funds to carry out 723 approved research projects at the National Institutes of Health in the coming year.

And the 12-member commission headed by former President Hoover offered proposals for military reorganization which it said might increase the effectiveness of weapons research by 25 per cent in five years.

Even this, it said, "may be too slow . . . to maintain our leadership in weaponry." The commission report continued:

"Pioneering in intercontinental ballistic missiles, the maturing technology of shorter range missiles, the needs for greater effectiveness in continental defense, the opportunities for major improvements in all military electronics . . . for example, combine in presenting the Department of Defense with an increasing volume of research and development opportunities and demands.

"It would be false and dangerous economy to hold the research and development appropriations at a level too low to permit a volume of effort essential to effective programs in areas of opportunity for new and improved weaponry."

As for the backlog of 723 research projects approved for work at the National Institutes of Health the commission voiced concern over this "apparent failure of the executive branch" to appraise Congress of the $7,400,000 needed.

The omission "may indicate a tendency to de-emphasize basic and medical research," the report said, whereas actually such research deserves "greater federal support."

Pointing out such "dramatic results" as the development of the Salk polio vaccine and progress in the fields of cancer, mental disease and other fields, the commission told Congress:

"We must make sure of general support to this field which daily demonstrates such potential benefits for mankind."

The commission also held that U.S. weapons development is "not sufficiently daring and imaginative" in its approach to "radically new weapons and weapons systems." It said most of the major accomplishments have been inspired by the "informal proddings" of civilian scientists.

Most of the 50-page report was devoted to recommended reorganization within the military establishment to eliminate duplicating efforts by the Army, Navy and Air Force, and to strengthen the military research and development staffs both in quality and numbers.

It proposed also that the armed forces gradually transfer to colleges, nonprofit institutions and industrial concerns much of the research now done directly by the government. Work costing 125 million dollars a year might advantageously be shifted, the report said.

But the commission emphasized that its comments on "weaknesses" in the research program were not intended to disparage the "enormous accomplishment" of the federal research organization. Its conduct generally "has the approbation of this commission," the report said.

"There is no tribute great enough to express the nation's obligations to its scientists, engineers and military personnel for their contributions to our constantly increasing productivity and the strengthening of our national defense," it said.

"And there can be no relaxation in this effort."

The report was based on a study by a task force subcommittee headed by Dr. Mervin J. Kelly, president of Bell Telephone Laboratories, Inc.

It disclosed that 8,000 projects are under way in the federal research program which will cost $2,050,000,000 in the next fiscal year. Military outlays are estimate dat about $1,400,000,000.

Louis (Little New York) Campagna, Once Member of Capone Gang, Stricken, Dies

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Louis (Little New York) Campagna, a sidekick of the late Al Capone, died yesterday of a heart attack.

He was stricken while battling to land a large fish. He was removed from the boat by Coast Guard helicopter but died shortly after reaching a hospital.

Campagna, 57, was one of the notorious Capone gang during the 1930s. In 1943 he drew 10 years in prison on conviction of conspiracy to extort a million dollars from movie executives. He served one third of the sentence in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta and was paroled.

He was one of Capone's original bodyguards and received the nickname "Little New York" from the stubby kingpin mobster. Police sources at Chicago said Campagna joined Capone from New York, where he had been known as "Lefty Louis."

Campagna told the Senate Crime Committee headed by Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) that bookmaking in Cicero, a Chicago suburb, netted him about $80,000 to $90,000 a year before he was convicted in the movie extortion case.

At last report, he had bought an 800-acre farm near Fowler, Ind., and lived there.

On a boat about 10 miles southeast of Miami, Campagna brought a 30-pound fish aboard, then sank into a deck chair while others in the party radioed for medical assistance.

The Coast Guard dispatched a helicopter that removed him from the cruiser Nellie, out of Miami, and brought him to Mercy Hospital, where he died.

Miami police, who said he had no local record, attributed the death to "natural causes."

KIDS' DELIGHT — Joe Dailey (top) and Charlie "Butch" Sears, members of the clown troupe with the King Brothers and Cole Brothers Circus which rolls into Pontiac Saturday for a one-day stand, panic youngsters everywhere the show appears, press agents say. Kids—and their parents—will be able to confirm the report Saturday, when the circus sets up on Walton boulevard near Baldwin. The circus's appearance here is sponsored by the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce. Tickets are now on sale at M. A. Benson Lumber Co., Blue Cleaners, Boys Club, Dairy Crown, Fox Cleaners, both Osmun's stores, Pearce Floral Co. and the Waldron Hotel.

Also the Bank at Monte Carlo

Refugee Buys a 'Floating Palace'

By ROBERT MUSEL

MONTE CARLO (UP)—Aristotle Socrates Onassis, the man who bought the bank at Monte Carlo, invited me to look over his yacht, Christiana, so I climbed aboard the polished gangplank and into wonderland.

In the small harbor at Monaco, the Christiana lies like a beautiful white whale somehow stranded in a shoal of minnows. It dwarfs every other yacht I have ever seen. Some of the millionaires vacationing on the Riviera take pains to anchor their own cherished craft as far away as possible.

There is something faintly prewar about a yacht that can be accurately described as a "floating palace," just as there is something strikingly anachronistic about its small, dark, impressive owner. Kept wondering how he escaped from the 19th century.

With a modest stake partly earned as a telephone operator, this one-time Greek refugee has massed the largest shipping tonnage controlled by a single individual in our times. Estimates of his holdings ashore and afloat range up to $280,000,000. And he is not yet 50.

BUYS INTO CASINO

He needed office space in Monaco because he wanted to be near the sea and his boat and because he likes the climate. So he bought an interest in the Societe de Bains de Mer (Society of Sea Bathing) which runs the famous casino here. His share is estimated at 49 per cent.

They were clearing away debris of the previous night's party when I went aboard the Christiana. The bill, estimated from empty champagne and Scotch cases, must have been around $1,500.

That is not large, as multimillionaires spend these days, but Onassis entertains frequently on his floating palace and his annual entertainment tab must run into six figures.

I went everywhere on the Christiana except the private apartment in which his lovely blonde Anglo-American-Greek wife, Athina, 25, was still asleep. I saw her that night at a party, a pretty picture in Dior blue wearing a magnificent matched jewel set of rubies and diamonds.

ANCIENT MOTIF

The Christiana (named after Onassis' five-year-old daughter) is magnificent. Many of the decorative motifs go back nearly 7,000 years to the palace of King Minos at Knosses in ancient Greece.

The centerpiece of the main deck is a tiled representation of the mintaur or bull of Minos. From a panel, Onassis can, with a twist of a dial, lower the tile piece so it becomes the bottom of a swimming pool whose water is shot with colored lights. Another twist and the pool empties, with the tilepiece rising to become a dance floor.

In the bar are two large magnetized maps with metal silhouettes of the Onassis fleet stuck to them. The steps of the bar stools are polished whale's teeth and the bar stools are covered with leather made from the underbelly of whales.

The private suites have every luxury and the adjoining baths are in colored marble with gilded fittings and glass enclosed showers. In his own suite, Onassis has an almost priceless El Greco painting and a kidney-shaped sunken bath in Sienna marble.

There are several record players set on floating gyroscopic platforms so the music will not be disturbed in heavy seas.

NO GAMBLERS

What makes a man like Onassis tick? Here are some clues:

He is a student of psychoanalysis. He has an excellent memory and the ability to concentrate on one problem at a time. He speaks fluent Greek, English, French, Spanish, Italian. He goes to work on an idea whenever he gets it, whatever the hour. He smokes and drinks a little, likes good food but keeps in trim by swimming. He is not a gambler.

He says he has "no friends, no enemies—only competitors."

When people ask him how much it would cost to run a yacht like the Christiana he is fond of quoting the late J. P. Morgan:

"If you've got to ask—you can't afford it."

SOME CATS HAVE FLEAS — But not Fluffens. She's got mice. The 4-year-old mixture of Persian and Angora cat is perfectly content to be a playground for a white mother mouse, lower left, and her seven youngsters. Fluffens and the pet mice belong to 13-year-old Marlene Nyquist of Minneapolis, Minn.

Mercury Mine Booming Again

Heavy, Liquid Metal Object of Prospectors Now in California

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Mercury, the rare liquid metal that seems to run away when you try to pick it up, has a new generation of prospectors on its trail in the mountains of California.

Something like a boom has hit the small and shaky quicksilver (or mercury) mining industry.

The Defense Minerals Exploration Administration is spending more than $300,000 in searches for new quicksilver deposits.

The new Idria quicksilver mine, which bores into a mountain in lonely deer-hunting country 180 miles southeast of San Francisco and produces 29 per cent of the nation's output, is seeing activity seldom equalled except in time of war.

Besides its familiar role in thermometers, insecticides, and medical and paint preparations, mercury is used in detonators for certain explosives. It also has been reported that mercuruy is used in construction of atomic reactors, but the Atomic Energy Commission has refused to confirm or deny this.

SLUMP SINCE WAR

The new Idria mine, which dates back to the rowdy gold rush era, had been in the doldrums since the end of World War II.

But last year the government announced a price support for quicksilver and the production curve swung back up.

The General Services Administration said it would buy quicksilver at $225 per 76-pound flask and stockpile it. Actually, the support has never been put into effect because the handful of quicksilver mines have sold all their output to industry at the going market price of $300.

"At our current rate of production," said new Idria president C. Hyde Lewis, "we will soon ship the 500,000th flask of quicksilver produced at new Idria."

Officers of the company say they are determined to keep their industry more healthy by saving it from the fluctuations of war and peace. Their answer is diversification. New Idria has bought interests in some tungsten and uranium companies.

Panels Meet to Set UF Campaign Goal

First steps will be taken tomorrow night towards setting the 1955 Pontiac Area United Fund campaign goal when members of seven budgeting panels meet at the Hotel Waldron.

Some 44 citizens will hear Robert M. Critchfield, campaign chairman, outline drive prospects for next fall. Critchfield is a General Motors vice president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division.

"William B. Hartman, UF president, will then explain Pontiac's budget process whereby civic-minded citizens determine the amount of money to be sought for our community's needs for voluntary health, social-service and youth character-building agencies," said Dwight S. Adams, UF executive director.

BRIEF PANEL MEMBERS

Robert M. Glenn, budget steering committee chairman, will brief panel members on their duties and assign specific agencies to each panel.

"During June these men and women, representing business, industry and labor, will donate evening after evening to study the agencies' fund requests in detail," said Adams.

"This is the fair way to insure that our community will get the utmost in service from its donated dollars," Hartman stated.

This year each panel will review budget requests of only two agencies instead of five or six as in former years. "This will enable citizens to study not only each agency's needs in dollars and cents, but also to learn more of the program each offers to our community," Glenn explained.

The panel chairmen are Glenn, Edward P. Barrett, Theodore E. Wiersema, Donald G. Berryman, Robert S. Nelson, Henry D. Price and Howard H. Fitzgerald III.

Hollywood Headlines

Movie Violence Defended by Industry Spokesmen

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Violence in Hollywood movies has become a controversial issue. What caused the wave of violence in films? What is being done about it? Bob Thomas review the hot topic in three articles starting today. The stories include a rare interview with industry censor Geoffrey Shurlock and a defense of film violence by a star-producer.)

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Here are some catch lines of the movie ads of a recent newspaper:

"A terrifying spectacle of violence! Mayhem and murder—from siren scream to a cell in solitary! . . . The complete unbelievable record of a savage, senseless career of crime!"

"Mickey Spillane's latest H-bomb!"

"The day all hell broke loose!"

"A shock story . . . of juvenile high school hoodlums!"

"The terrific impact of its kill-to-stay-alive story explodes across the motion picture screen!"

Judging from this display, you can see why violence in movies has become a hot problem.

Hollywood has been hit from all sides on this matter. Women's groups have complained about the overdose of film brutality. Movie reviewers and highly influential religious groups have lodged similar protests.

Excessive violence has caused the film industry to be hit where it hurts—in the moneybags. This is because foreign countries, which are more sensitive about violence in films than the United States, have been banning some rough Hollywood movies.

British film censor Arthur T. L. Watkins warned American producers: "Anyone who prolongs scenes of violence is only doing so to titillate a small unhealthy section of the audience."

England has banned six American films in the past 18 months on the grounds of brutality. Marlon Brando's "The Wild One" drew strong criticism there. Similarly, movies have been refused showings in the important markets of Australia, Indonesia, India and Scandinavia.

Eric Johnston, head of the producers association, has recognized the problem. He has said:

"We're having to re-examine the (self-censorship) code because there is nothing in it which prohibits violence or excessive brutality. Since England has banned so many of these elements and since 45 per cent of our revenue comes from foreign countries, we've got to be careful."

It seems incredible that violence should have been overlooked in the code, which prohibits such diverse items as white slavery, cries of "Fire!" and traveling salesman jokes. Yet the only caution is that brutality "must be treated within the careful limits of good taste."

There is a historical reason for the oversight. Producers adopted the code because of the clamor of religious groups and to prevent the censorship by political groups in every city and state.

The religious groups were primarily interested in curbing matters of immorality and indecency in films. So the code was largely devoted to those matters. Violence was not considered a major problem.

Why is it so important now? Why have producers turned out so many brutal pictures?

Said one movie maker: "Because the public just won't buy family entertainment in the movies any more. They get too much of that on TV. To get them out of the house, you've got to give them shock and spectacle."

Geoffrey Shurlock, who administers the code, offers another reason:

"Part of it is because of the decline of the program Western and costume adventure films. Hopalong Cassidy shot up dozens of people and you thought nothing of it. Nor were people up in arms because pirates tortured the leading lady. Or when Fu Manchu menaced the star. Or when Pearl White escaped sudden death at the hands of the villain.

"But now more independent producers have turned from Westerns and adventures to modern stories. People feel an identification with a heroine who is threatened by a modern gangster, where they wouldn't if she were menaced by Fu Manchu. Because they see brutality in a present-day setting, it hits them harder—and they complain."

Everest Conquerer Declines Reds' Bid

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Friends of Tenzing Norgay say the conqueror of Mt. Everest has refused an invitation to take part in a Communist world Youth Festival at Warsaw in August.

Warsaw radio announced May 24 that the famed Nepalese Indian guide would participate in the festival. Sources here who are close to Tenzing said last night he had written the festival organizers declining the invitation.

Tenzing conducts a school for mountain guides in Darjeeling, north India.

Sen. Knowland Scores Policy of Appeasement

WILLIAMSBURG, Ky. (AP)—Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif) says Americans must continue to work for peace but also "must keep our powder dry."

The Senate minority leader, addressing Cumberland Junior College graduates yesterday, claimed the voices of appeasement are growing at home and abroad. "History does not teach us that this is the way to peace," he declared.

"This nation of ours," he said, "was not built on a policy of fear, but on a policy of faith and courage.

Earlier, he was asked for comment on a Peiping radio announcement that four American airmen will be deported by the Reds.

"If the report is correct," he said, "we rejoice, along with members of their families, that the pilots will be returned to this country. We are not unmindful, however, that the Chinese still are holding 11 American airmen and 35 American civilians."

Fingerprint Experts Find Man Has Extras

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)— Police fingerprint experts were baffled when they started to fingerprint a suspect in a theft case.

Officer Mark Higgs placed 54-year-old Oran Telford's hands on the fingerprint card, which contains five slots—and discovered there was a finger left over. Higgs did a double take, looked further and found the suspect had six fingers on each hand.

Said Telford: "That's nothing. I've got six toes on each foot."

He took off his shoes to prove it.

For the past 10 years the death rate in the United States has fallen below 10 per 1,000.

Divorcee, Twins Shot in Ambush

Seek Former Husband for Wounding Ex-Wife, Two Children

CLOVERDALE, Calif. (AP)—A 38-year-old divorcee and her 8-year-old twins were shot from ambush yesterday while picking cherries at her summer cabin.

Sheriff's deputies sought her former husband, Grady C. Hayes, 60, a San Francisco real estate man who was reported seen fleeing from the area.

The woman, Mrs. Ernestine McLorin, 38, was reported in serious condition at Healdsburg Hospital with bullet wounds in her thigh and abdomen.

Her children, Wilhelmina and Daniel, were less seriously wounded. A bullet hit the girl in the neck and dug into her shoulder, and the boy had a seven-inch crease across his back.

Sheriff's deputies said a friend heard a volley of rifle shots and saw Hayes flee to a car. They said the shots were from a 30-06 rifle with a telescope sight.

Sheriff's Investigator Andy Johansen reported the car in which Hayes presumably fled, then abandoned, contained a dynamite bomb — two sticks of dynamite with wires which could be attached to a car's ignition system.

The friend of Mrs. McLorin who witnessed the shooting said Hayes had at one time threatened to blow up her car.

Deputies charged Hayes with assault with intent to kill.

Mrs. McLorin divorced Hayes recently and assumed her maiden name.

For we brought noghing into this world and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

Driver Slightly Hurt as Train Rams Auto

IRVING, Tex. (AP)—Ambulance attendants pried Lowell Consler Jr., 33, from the wreckage of his automobile and found he suffered only a broken nose and a facial cut.

Consler had been en route to a friend's funeral when a Rock Island freight train struck his car and carried it a quarter mile yesterday.

Just Out for Walk

BOSTON (AP)—Samuel Evangelista, 13, had a reason for being out in his pajamas at 3 a.m. When police picked him up, he explained he had sneaked out of the Boston Floating Hospital because he was homesick. He had had his appendix removed only two days earlier, but doctors said the stroll caused no ill effects.

Ford Foundation Spends $50 Million

DETROIT (AP) — The philanthropic Ford Foundation has revealed it spent nearly 50 million dollars during the first nine months of 1954.

H. Rowan Gaither Jr., president of the foundation, announced yesterday that the foundation had spent $49,438,558 in that period, with more than two-thirds of the money going to support education in some form.

The foundation is backed by Ford stock.

Gaither said the report covered only nine months because the trustees decided to end the foundation's fiscal year on Sept. 30 instead of Dec. 31.

The foundation, Gaither said, gave a $30,000 grant to the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and $148,500 to the University of Michigan to study consumer behavior.

Excessive speed is the most common cause of traffic accidents. In 1953, nearly 3 out of every 10 drivers involved in fatal accidents were violating the speed law.

Top Soviets Tour Yugoslavia; Joint Statement Expected

POSTOJNA, Yugoslavia (AP)—The leaders of Russia—Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev, Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Deputy Premier A. I. Mikoyan—began a two-day tour of northern Yugoslavia today.

They rose early on the Adriatic island of Brioni, traveled by the yacht Podgora to the mainland and then got into a fleet of American automobiles.

Schoolchildren, housewives and workers lined the streets of the towns of Rsa, Labin, Lovran and Opatija as they rolled past.

Along the road, the Russians got a graphic reminder of the aid the United States gave Tito after the Kremlin booted him out of the Cominform seven years ago. Twenty-four American Sherman tanks and long-barreled American cannon were moving along the highway on summer maneuvers.

After vising the big underground grottos at Postojna, the Russians go on to Ljubljana and Zagreb, before returning to Belgrade.

Tito did not accompany the Russians but will meet them Thursday in Belgrade.

Borba, Yugoslavia's leading Communist paper, said today that the principal task remaining in the Soviet-Yugoslav negotiations is the completion of a joint document setting out the results of the talks. Work on this already has started and it will be published in Belgrade late this week.

Borba said some progress clearly had ben achieved in the talks, which will be concluded Thursday or Friday.

"The talks have been profitable for Yugoslav-Soviet interstate relations and for the efforts to reduce international tension,' the paper declared. It added that all "conflicting questions" had been tackled during the two-day visit to Brioni and it was believed a solution of all outstanding problems had been reached.

Borba said the joint document to be released after the return of the Russian leaders to Belgrade will contain a review of the present international situation with gestions for improving it, the agreed foundations for future Yugoslav-Soviet relations and the outline of "essenial elements of a policy of coexistence."

A joint communique issued last night said the negotiations were continuing "in an atmosphere of mutual understanding" but gave no details.

The Soviet delegation arrived in Yugoslavia last Thursday to patch up the Soviet bloc's bitter squabble with Tito.

An informed source said Tito in the talks was pressing his visitors for specific guarantees on a number of points, including a concrete pledge of no interference in Yugoslavia's affairs. This source said the Russians wanted only a "hazy" general statement of Soviet-Yugoslav friendship and promises of more economic cooperation.

"Tito wants them to be very much more specific," the source said.

Authoritative Yugoslav sources already had said that Tito had rejected Soviet overtures for the return of his country to the Moscow bloc, as well as any proposal that Yugoslavia accept a neutral role of "passive coexistence."

Says Ike Might Run Again if He Gets More Support

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Ives (R-NY) said today that if Republicans in Congress want President Eisenhower to run again next year they had better give more support to his legislative program.

Ives said he thinks the progress that program makes in Congress may have much to do with Eisenhower's decision on whether to seek a second term.

"If he doesn't get Republican support in Congress, that fact alone might have quite an influence on his decision," Ives said in an interview.

"If the Republicans in Congress want him to run, they had better get back of his program."

Sen. George (D-Ga), actively supporting the administration's foreign policies, said the Democrats can't be charged with delaying any of Eisenhower's proposals in this field.

He said he can't guess about Eisenhower's 1956 plans but doesn't believe the President will make any decision until next year. Eisenhower has turned aside all recent queries about his plans.

Ives said action on the President's 3½-billion-dollar foreign aid program, on which the Senate may begin debate late today, may serve as an illustration of what he is talking about.

Sen. Jenner (R-Ind) has indicated his intention of attacking the program. Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill) said he wants to take a "good look" at the amount of money unspent from previous years before voting for any new appropriations.

Ives said he believes the Republicans' best chance of getting Eisenhower to run again lies in demonstrating that the party intends to carry out his program of getting the government out of business. He said what he called a threat to "return to socialism" under the Democrats will offer a potent appeal to Eisenhower to run next year.

Last GAR Survivor Hospitalized Again

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Albert Woolson, 108, last surviving member of the Civil War Union Army, entered St. Luke's Hospital early today after being stricken at his home here.

Doctors said he was being treated for a recurrence of the condition that hospitalized him twice in recent months. In those periods of hospitalization, he was placed in an oxygen tent after developing lung congestion.

The old soldier yesterday visited the grave of his wife, but otherwise spent a quiet day at home.

Has Its Own Vocabulary!

Over the years there has come into being what amounts to a Cadillac vocabulary.

Certain words and phrases have so long and so often been used in association with Cadillac that they almost automatically call the car to mind.

When the talk is of motor cars, for instance, who can hear the word "prestige" without thinking of Cadillac?

It is likewise true of "distinction" . . . of "luxury" . . . of "pride of ownership" . . . of "satisfaction" . . . of "comfort" . . . of "long life and dependability" . . . of "beauty" . . . of "impressiveness" . . . of "value"—and of dozens of other words used to denote superiority.

In a sense, these are Cadillac words—and they actually sound strange when employed in any other connection. Even when used in the promotion of another automobile, they still suggest the "car of cars".

Naturally, words like these can become inseparable only from a product which deserves them. In the case of Cadillac, it has taken half a century of the strictest adherence to the highest automotive standards to win this public approval.

Most people, of course, realize that these wonderful words apply to the great Cadillac car. But we suspect that many have not yet personally found out why.

If you are among these, we think you should come in and see us today. We will give you the keys to a new 1955 Cadillac—and you'll know in a single hour why Cadillac has its own vocabulary.

You'll know, from personal experience, that when you speak of "prestige" and "distinction" and "luxury" and "pride of possession" and "value"—you are speaking of the Standard of the World.

We have the keys—and the car—and a real welcome waiting for you.

291 Total Wins Wolverine Open, $1,000 for 'Crocker

By JACK SAYLOR

Fay Crocker, golfing senorita from Montevideo, Uruguay, headed for the Reading Open Monday night $1,000 richer after pocketing 1st money in the Wolverine Ladies Open tournament at Forest Lake Country Club.

Miss Crocker fired her 4th straight sub-par round, a 3-under 72, Monday to finish 9 shots under par with 291 for the 72-hole test and a 7-stroke bulge over runner-up Marlene Bauer.

The popular South American shotmaker started the final round 6 strokes up and any thoughts she might fold were quickly dispelled as she turned in another torrid 3-under par 33 on the front nine.

From then on, all interest switched to the 2nd place battle between Miss Bauer and Wiffi Smith. Eighteen-year-old Wiffi was one under at 35 on the front nine to pull into a tie as Marlene had a 36, but Miss Bauer finished fast with birdies on the 17th and 18th to finish with 37 for the nine, 73 for the round, and 298 for the tourney.

Meanwhile, Wiffi, transplanted Californian, was going great until the par-3 14th hole. Here, her tee shot bounced off a spectator's head and into the lateral water hazard by the green.

The penalty stroke gave her a bogie and she picked up 2 more in a row on the 15th and 16th holes, to close with 75. However, her 3rd place-finish on 301, was the best she has ever done in a big medal play event.

As has been the case throughout the tourney, Miss Crocker was as steady as Gibraltar. She had birdies at the 4th, 6th, 9th and 18th holes and was over par only on the long 15th.

When Fay holed out on the 18th, she received a great hand from the big gallery and she responded with a big smile and the waving hand, which came to be a familiar gesture in acknowledgement of applause for her fine shots during the tourney.

The gallery of about 2,500 brought the total attendance for the 4-day event to an estimated 9,000 or 10,000.

Betty Hicks recovered from her Sunday lapse to shoot a 3-under 72 and claim 3rd money among the pros ($600). Marlene Bauer's second-place finish was worth $700.

Gloria Armstrong joined Miss Crocker and Miss Hicks at 72 Monday, but the day's best round was turned in by amateur Pat Devany of Grosse Ile.

She equalled the course record set by Miss Bauer and tied by Miss Crocker with an excellent 71. She had 2 birdies in a 1st nine 35, added 3 more on the back and missed a 6-foot putt that would have given her still another.

Black-haired Pat needed a birdie on the par 5, 400-yard 18th for a new record 70. Her 2nd shot (following a good drive) was on the apron, but well below the hole. Her chip was short and she missed a 12-foot putt to settle for par.

Miss Devany's card:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| PAR OUT | 534 | 344 | 445—36 |
| Devany out | 444 | 244 | 445—35 |
| PAR IN | 545 | 435 | 445—39-75 |
| Devany in | 535 | 435 | 335—36-71 |

Pat's 308 placed her 7 strokes back of low amateur, Wiffi Smith. Fine prizes were given through 10th place among the amateurs. In order, back of Wiffi and Pat were Norma Labisky; Irene Bretzlaff; Pine Lake's Sally Sharp; Mrs. H. G. Marquardt and Mrs. E. O. Reynolds (tied); Mrs. J. P. Stapchinskas; Mrs. Don Weiss; and Clara Jane Mosack.

Eleven pros shared in the proette's cash melon in addition to Misses Crocker, Bauer and Hicks. Betty Jameson finished 4th for $500, Betty Dodd, 5th for $425, and Peggy Kirk Bell, 6th for $350.

Mickey Wright and Alice Bauer Hagge tied for 7th and took $280 each, while Bev. Hanson's 9th place rating was good for $200.

Bonnie Randolph, Miss Armstrong and Carol Bowan collected checks for $150 each and Joyce Ziske and Betty Bush rounded out the cash winners with $107.50 apiece.

Campbell Loses 1st Round Match in British Test

England's Pattison Is Upset Victor Over U. S. Walker Cup Captain

ST. ANNES, England (AP) — Reginald Pattinson of England upset Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., captain of the American Walker Cup team, 2 and 1, in a first round match in the British Amateur golf championship today.

Campbell was the third member of the American team to be eliminated in the first round. Don Cherry of Wichita Falls, Tex., and Dick Yost of Portland, Ore., lost their opening matches yesterday.

It was Campbell's first competition since he reached England two weeks ago. He held himself out of the Walker Cup matches at St. Andrews May 20-21.

Three American Walker Cuppers, Dale Morey, Bruce Cudd and Billy Joe Patton, won their opening matches yesterday and two others, Jim Jackson and Joe Conrad, reached the second round today when their opponents scratched from the tournament.

Campbell, who suffered badly burned hands in a fire at his home last Christmas, faltered slightly on the back nine after reaching the turn all even. That was enough to cost him the match as Pattinson played even par golf for the 17 holes.

Pattinson, a 41-year-old, five-foot, five-inch housemaster at the Royal Grammar School, High Wycombe, is competing in his first British Amateur.

The turning point of the match, Campbell said, was the eighth hole, where his drive and approach both were off line. That let Pattinson get ahead and although Campbell won the ninth he could not regain the lead.

Conrad of San Antonio received a default from A. A. Murray of England. His Walker Cup teammate, Jackson of St. Louis, had received a free ride into the second round when his opponent, Charles M. Kittle of Memphis, withdrew.

Aggies' Alumni Fighting Back

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The Texas A&M athletic recruiting controversy flared anew today with reports that Aggie alumni had hired a private eye to investigate all other Southwest Conference members.

Texas A&M was placed on two-year probation, had its Letters of Intent (contracts with athletes) canceled and was prohibited from participating in post-season contests for violation of the recruiting rules.

A San Antonio investigator, who wouldn't reveal his name because he said it might interfere with his efforts, revealed that he had been retained by former students of the college to look into the recruiting practices of the six other members of the league.

Aggie alumni has been saying ever since the conference ruling three weeks ago that other members of the conference were guilty of illgal tactics.

The man said he believed other alumni groups over Texas had also retained investigators but this could not be confirmed. At Dallas, for instance, L. H. Ridout, president of the A&M club, said his organization would not have such a function and if the alumni was hiring investigators it was by independent groups.

Dr. E. D. Mouzon of Southern Methodist University at Dallas, president of the conference, said "That's fine" if the alumni groups wanted to investigate and added "It would be well for them to start at home."

Howard Grubbs, executive secretary of the conference, said the conference welcomed any help "that would get at the truth" and that if anybody wants to submit evidence of rules violations at any school in the conference 'we will certainly receive it.'

At the same time as the announcement of the investigation, H. C. Heldenfels, Corpus Christi contractor, identified himself as one of the ex-students who contacted Bobby Manning, Yoakum high school football star, regarding going to A&M. He said the other ex-student was Jack Little, former A&M football player now with Baltimore in profesional football.

Race Fans Pour 20 1-2 Millions in Mutuel Wagers

Holiday Total More Than 1½ Millions Over Last Memorial Day

NEW YORK (AP) — Horse racing crowds poured $20,492,352 through the mutuels of 12 major tracks yesterday, more than a million and a half dollars over last Memorial Day's handle.

Belmont Park headed the list with a handle of $3,852,826. Hollywood Park and Garden State each topped the three-million dollar mark, Hollywood Park, as is customary, had the largest attendance, 62,752.

Baseball's eight major league doubleheaders lured crowds of 194,448 for the two leagues. The American League, led by Chicago which pulled in 40,645 for its twin bill with Cleveland, played to 101,937 spectators. The National League had 92,511 fans at its games.

The two-league total represented an increase of about 40,000 over last year.

Tourney Casualty

One of the day's casulties at Forest Lake Country Club, Monday, was Mrs. George Hoke, Birmingham, Mrs. Hoke was standing along No. 14 fairway when a drive from the tee struck her on the head. Wiffi Smith had just played off the tee. Mrs. Hoke was given medical attention at the emergency station where it was reported she had suffered a contusion.

2nd Game Goes 11 Innings

Crippled Stars in Limited Service, Scrubs, Rookies Lose Pair to Kaycee

DETROIT (AP) — Bucky Harris dressed slowly, carefully, quietly, as though it was a chore—which it probably was after five arduous hours of baseball in the dank chill of Briggs Stadium, with nothing more to show for the long day's work than two losses to the lowly Kansas City A's.

A heavy silence hung over the dressing room of the Detroit Tigers: A silence which meant only one thing: Defeat.

No, the manager of the Tigers wasn't very talkative after yesterday's two holiday beatings by the A's, 8-6 and 5-4, the second game going 11 innings.

But, then, what could Harris say?

He had seen his patched-up lineup of substitutes and rookies give away run after run, while his veteran players — Ray Boone, Harvey Kuenn and Steve Gromek, the "money" men — sat by in the dugout, unable to play because of injuries.

Both Kuenn and Boone were able to pinch hit — but nothing more. Even in their brief appearances, they almost salvaged the second game for the tumbling Tigers, who now have dropped four in a row for their longest losing streak.

Boone pinch-hit in the fifth inning and tied the score 3-3 with a looping single to center. Then Kuenn, barely able to run, stroked a pinch-hit single in the eighth to again tie the score, this time 4-4.

But three innings later, in the 11th, the A's completed the first sweep of their brief history in the American League by pushing across a run on a double by Elmer Valo and a single by Gus Zernial, both off losing pitcher George Zuverink.

Earlier, Harris had seen his starting pitcher, Duke Maas, give up two runs in the first inning by walking Jim Finigan and Jack Littrell with the bases loaded.

In the first game, Harris watched helplessly as another rookie, Frank Lary, threw the game away with one bad toss —to first base, of all places.

With the bases filled in the second inning, Zernial hit a slow roller down the first base line. Lary picked the ball up and tried to lob it over Zernial's head to first baseman Ferris Fain.

The ball went wild and rolled into the bullpen and Power, Hector Lopez and Enos Slaughter all scored.

Fain tried to get the Tigers back in contention, slamming a two-run homer in the third to cut the A's lead to 7-5. But that's the closest they ever got.

High Winds Hit Holiday Races

Boat racing enthusiasts in the Oakland County area had a rough go of it over the holiday weekend, but did manage to determine a few winners Monday.

Memorial Day wound up the "early bird" series of races in the Lightning class at the Pontiac Yacht Club. Five races were scheduled for the weekend, but two were cancelled Sunday because of high winds. PYC's regular summer series starts this Sunday, June 5.

Yesterday's 1st race was won by Al Oberson, of Birmingham, in boat No. 5777. Lary O'Dell took the 2nd race, piloting No. 5166. The winner of the 3rd race is still undecided pending a decision by the race committee. Ed Bonner, in boat 842, and Les Huntworth, in No. 5299, are involved.

At Watkins Lake yesterday, Commodore Ted Schaad won the Thistle race and Martin Hoskins took honors in the Snipe group. Glenn Fries Jr. skippered his Lightning to victory, followed by Jack Berlien's boat. The Watkins Lake group tried racing Sunday, but gave it up as a bad deal when all the boats capsized in the wind.

St. Mary's Honors Sports Squads at Annual Party

Athletes were honored with varsity and reserve letters in four major sports Monday evening at Orchard Lake St. Mary's annual high school banquet and sportsman's program in the campus dining room and auditorium.

Letters in football, basketball, baseball and track were awarded to 89 Eaglets by Rev. John Rakoczy, athletic director and basketball and baseball coach. Assisting him in the presentation were Rev. John Gabalski, football and track mentor, and Rev. Edward J. Szumal, rector at St. Mary's.

Three special awards were made. Ted Kopacki received a trophy for best percentage in free throws. He won it by a one-toss margin.

Pete Ziebron, star pitcher, received the "highest achievement" trophy, an award given to the boy who best combines athletics and scholarship.

Don Horka, competing against 54 others, was honored as the outstanding prep sports reporter of the Archdiocese for the second straight year.

Guest speakers were Wally Fromhart, U-D head football coach, and acting toastmaster, Frank Guyott, Michigan Catholic. Rev. Szumal also spoke briefly and talks were given by Rev. Rakoczy and Rev. Gabalski.

Hungarian Cuts 2-Mile Record

LONDON (AP) — Hungary loomed today as a track power to be feared in the 1956 Olympic Games at Melbourne on the heels of two amazing races in three days.

Sand Iharso, too sick to run Saturday when Laszlo Tabori and two Britons ran a mile in under four minutes, showed what he could do yesterday when he sliced a full seven seconds off the world 2-mile record with an amazing clocking of 8 minutes, 33.4 seconds in an international track and field meet at White City Stadium.

The world mark of 8:40.4 was set by Gaston Reiff of Belgium in 1952.

Tabori two days earlier had startled the track world with a 3:59 performance, one second over John Landy's world record, in winning the first mile race in history in which three men bettered the once fabulous 4-minute mark.

No Batting Practice!

Newcombe Hits Single, 2 Homers for Brooks

BROOKLYN (AP)—If Don Newcombe hadn't missed batting practice there's no telling what kind of fireworks he might have set off on Memorial Day.

It took big Newk a while to get his batting eye adjusted in the second game of yesterday's doubleheader against Pittsburgh at Ebbets Field. After slapping a mere single in his first time at bat, the ponderous pitcher blasted home runs in his next two times up to drive in three runs and score three times in his first three appearances at the plate.

The added chore of pitching for more than two hours under a warm sun tired him a bit, so the best he could do was bounce out meekly to shortstop in his last time at bat.

"No, I didn't take batting practice today," Don told newsmen after he had whipped the Pirates 8-3 for his eighth victory without a defeat this season. "Since I was scheduled to pitch the second game, Alston (Manager Walter Alston) told me I didn't have to hurry to the ball park. I didn't get here until the second innig of the first game."

Newcombe said he would have arrived sooner but was delayed by a traffic cop. No, the officer didn't want his autograph. He just handed the pitcher a ticket for driving the wrong way on a one-way street.

Maples Beaten in State Test

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—Kalamazoo and Battle Creek will clash Thursday for the Class A high school baseball championship.

Kalamazoo gained the title game yesterday by defeating Benton Harbor, 2-1, in the quarterfinals and Birmingham, 4-0, in the semifinals.

Birmingham had won its quarterfinal game, defeating Dearborn Fordson in nine innings, 2-1.

Battle Creek moved into the championship game by winning its bracket last Friday.

Bay City Fighter Aims at Bout With Davey

DETROIT (UP)—Alan Kennedy, Bay City welterweight, may take the 1st step toward a bout with Chuck Davey tonight when he meets Al Perry of Columbus, O., in one of three six round features at the Motor City Arena.

Promoter Julius Piazza said Kennedy has been lined up for a series of fights to test his worthiness for a meeting with Davey should the former welterweight contender decide to try a "comeback." Tonight's bout is the 1st of the series.

Bench Warmers Turn Stars to Help Cubs, Braves Sweep Twin Bills; Williams Blasts First Homer

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Baseball's reserve corps—the unsung utility players — celebrated Memorial Day yesterday by enjoying their biggest day in the sun.

Such fill-ins as Bob Speake, George Crowe, Roy Smalley, Gene Stephens, Elmer Valo, Harry Simpson, Juan Delis and others made their managers glad they kept them around.

Speake was a one-man riot as the sizzling Chicago Cubs bombed the St. Louis Cardinals twice in extra innings 9-5 and 4-3 for their 14th and 15th victories in the last 19 games.

Crowe's bat provided most of the fireworks as Milwaukee captured two hitting sprees from Cincinnati 7-6 ad 8-4. Smalley was the big gun in Philadelphia's split with the New York Giants. After dropping the opener 6-5, the Phillies roared back to win the second game 3-1.

The subs didn't get a chance as Brooklyn's regulars swept a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 8-4 and 8-3.

Utility outfielders Simpson and Valo led the Kansas City Athletics in a double-barreled triumph over Detroit 8-6 and 5-4. Washington beat New York 3-2 when substitute Juan Delis sent the tying run to third with a 10th-inning single and scored the winning run on another single by pinch hitter Maury McDermott. The Yankees took the second game 5-3 on pinch hitter Irv Noren's two-run single in the seventh.

The other two American League twin bills also ended in splits. Billy Pierce pitched the Chicago White Sox to a 5-0 victory over Cleveland after the Indians massacred the Sox 9-1 on 16 hits in the opener. Baltimore defeated Boston 8-6 but the Red Sox bounced back with an 8-1 second-game victory as Stephens drove in four runs with a double and triple in support of a four-hit pitching job by Ike Delock.

Speake, who batted only .264 with Des Moines in the Class A Western League, continued his sensational slugging since he replaced the then injured Hank Sauer in the Cubs' outfield. The Springfield, Mo., youngster hit his 11th homer of the season and the second of the day in the 11th inning to win the nightcap. His two-run homer in the ninth of the opener paved the way for Chicago's winning four-run rally in the 10th.

* * *

Cal Abrams, used in right field in place of Gil Coan, scored three runs in Baltimore's victory over Boston that took some of the glitter from Ted Williams' first home run of the season. Stephens took over left field when Williams was rested in the second game.

Vukovich Dies in Crash, Sweikert Wins

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Curly-haired, boyish Bob Sweikert, of Indianapolis, will pick up a check of about $75,000 at the 500-mile auto race victory dinner tonight and somebody will accept at least $7,500 for Bill Vukovich's widow.

Vukovich, an intense little Slovenian mechanic from Fresno, Calif., driving in his fourth straight Memorial Day race when he died in a flaming wreck that took five cars out of the race yesterday.

He won 50 of the first 56 laps before he died, at $150 a lap.

There were seven casualties in the bloodiest Memorial Day race since 1930. Seven cars smashed up in a single accident. The wrecks brought the winning speed down to 128.209 miles an hour, compared with Vukovich's record 130.84 set last year.

Vuky had escaped injury late in the 1952 race when his steering failed and Troy Ruttman came on to win. He won in 1953 and 1954, and was going after the first three-in-a-row series in the Speedway's history.

Walt Faulkner, of Long Beach, Calif., long-time competitor against Vukovich, unknowingly pronounced his memorial before the race.

"Vuky is the greatest race driver in this era," he said in a casual conversation. "You can beat him only if his car fails or he wrecks. You'll never beat the man."

Yesterday's race started off as a tremendous duel between Vukovich and Jack McGrath, of Inglewood, Calif., the early leader in four of the last five Memorial Day classics.

In spite of a gusty wind, the two veteran drivers fought for the lead as if they were in a dirt track sprint.

McGrath, starting in the front row, won the first two laps. Vuky, starting in the second row, gradually took command and set a record of 136.212 miles an hour for the first 125 miles.

McGrath's ignition system failed and he was through at 135 miles. Sweikert, Tony Bettenhausen, of Tinley Park, Ill., Sam Hanks, of Burbank, Calif., and 1954 national champion Jimmy Bryan, of Phoenix, were coming hard but not gaining on Vukovich when the big wreck happened with stunning suddenness.

Rodger Ward, of Los Angeles, lost control coming out of the southwest turn. Johnny Boyd, fellow townsman of Vukovich driving in his first 500, locked wheels with Al Keller, another Speedway rookie from Green Acres, Fla., and both cars tripped.

Vukovich didn't have a chance. His Hopkins Special plowed into the wreckage and bounced end over end. It went over the wall, hit a safety patrol car and stopped upside down, in flames.

Tony Bettenhausen was 2nd, Jimmy Davies 3rd.

LPGA Tourney Likely to Be Back Next Year

Forest Lake Officials Pleased With Success of Event

The future of the Wolverine Ladies Open golf tournament looks secure.

While no official action can be taken towards sealing the event's return to Forest Lake Country Club until the entire membership decides, it looks at this point as though the Ladies Professional Golf Association tour will be invited back.

Both club president Blaine Eynon and tourney chairman Bill Newberry expressed the belief that Forest Lake would host the event again in 1956.

Proettes and amateurs alike, who played in the event, had nothing but words of praise for the work of Newberry and his various committees, Dale Weitzel and his crew for the superb condition of the course, and the tourney as a whole.

Betty Hicks, 4th place finisher in the event and publicity chairman of the LPGA, told Eynon after the prize presentations that the complimentary remarks made by the proettes were said in all sincerity.

"Believe me," she said, "I hear all the gripes in the locker room—and there were none."

The tournament survived rocky circumstances to become a success. First, there were reportedly to be no stars on hand. Babe Zaharias and Jackie Pung were ill, Patty Berg, Betsy Rawls, and Louise Suggs had prior commitments and couldn't play here.

However, nobody could find fault with the brand of golf exhibited by the 17 members of the LPGA who were present and any of the missing stars would have been hard-pressed to better champion Fay Crocker's brilliant 9-under-par 291.

Weather, too, was fickle to the Forest Lake members, but despite often-threatening conditions and a day's delay because of rain and high winds, nearly 10,000 fans attended during the 4-day event.

Harrison Dillard, Olympic spring and hurdle champion in 1948 and 1952, respectively, received a special scroll form the Bolivian government in appreciation of his good will tour to that country.

Williams Hits for the Cycle in Three Tilts

BOSTON (AP)—Ted Williams has hit for the cycle in the three games he has played since returning to the Boston Red Sox lineup last Saturday.

The big slugger, making his fifth comeback with the club, has belted a homer, a triple, a double and a single in his 12 official times at bat. He has scored one run and driven in four.

Heiloscope Is Suburban King

NEW YORK (AP)—The blood pressures of New York racing fans slowly returned to normal today after Helioscope's victory by a head in the $88,250 Suburban Handicap at Belmont Park, but there were arguments aplenty about handicappers and the weights they hand on thoroughbred horses.

Helioscope carried 128 pounds and the silks of William G. Helis to a brilliant victory yesterday over the King Ranch's High Gun in the mile and one-quarter Memorial Day classic. High Gun, 3-year-old champion of 1954 and No. 1 horse for the season, was loaded with 133 pounds, after winning the Metropolitan Mile Handicap May 14 with 130.

Maryland Comes Up With Point Race for Mules

BALTIMORE (AP) — Maryland, long famed for its Preakness, fox hunts and jumping races, comes up with a new social and sporting event next Sunday on the property of sportsman T. Courtenay Jenkins at nearby Madonna.

The rules laid down by the committee include:

1. Riders, preferably fat men, by invitation only.
2. Mounts to be drawn by lottery 10 minutes before post time.

The event will be run over a flagged course of a mile and five-eighths dotted with streams and post and rail fences a foot high, described as "natural jackass country."

PHS Golfers Start Slowly, End Year OK

Six wins against three losses, 2nd place in the Saginaw Valley Conference, 3rd in the regional, and 9th at the state meet—that's the record compiled this season by Pontiac High School's golf team.

Coach John Maturo's linksmen started slowly and unimpressively, dropping three of their 1st four dual meets. But they hit their stride by mid-season to fashion a 5-game winning streak and qualify for the state meet with a 3rd place finish in the regional tournament.

Squad's most brilliant individual performance was recorded by junior Tom Cross, who single handedly put the Chiefs into the state tourney finals with a 1-under-par 70 at Brighton's regional. His 77 at Battle Creek, two shots back of Jackson's Bob Zimmerman, was good enough for co-runnerup honors. Cross received a medal for his effort.

Sam Snead's Golf Clinic

Let's pretend that here you stand ready to start swing action with a slight preliminary wiggle. The idea of the wiggle is to take the tenseness out of the swing, to relax. After that little preliminary wiggle the back swing is under way with that all-together (arms, hips, shoulders) movement. Not all good players use this method of starting the stroke but it's a good one for players who tend to become too tense and rigid in the address position. Others are content to get the tenseness out of their stroke simply by a preliminary waggle of the club over the ball. Either method will help you get your swing flowing smoothly but I think the one described first is best for most players.

Eastern NCAA Playoff Slated at Easton, Pa.

EASTON, Pa. (AP)—Four college baseball teams, will compete here next weekend to determine the district representative in the National Collegiate Baseball Tournament.

The selection of Colgate, Ithaca College and Penn State was announced yesterday.

They join Lafayette (16-5), which was chosen last week as the Middle Atlantic Conference representative.

Juniors Try Again

The City Junior High School League will attempt again this afternoon to run off its annual track meet at Wisner Field. Rain and wet grounds forced postponement of the meet last week. Jefferson is a slight favorite over defending champion Washington.

Left-Handers Setting NL Pace, Righties in the AL

NEW YORK (AP)—Left-handed hitters are doing the best batting in the National League while in the American League the players with the most impressive averages bat from the right side.

Among the first five leaders in the National League batting competition, only Brooklyn's Roy Campanella is a righty swinger. He's tied for fourth place with Ted Kluszewski of Cincinnati at .333. Kluszewski is a lefty batter as are Richie Ashburn of the Philadelphia Phillies, the pace-setter with a .383 average, runner-up Don Mueller of New York, who is at .363 and Bill Virdon of St. Louis, a .336 hitter.

In the American League, the first three—Harvey Kuenn and Al Kaline of Detroit and Vic Power of Kansas City—are right-handed swingers. Fourth-place Mickey Mantle of New York is a switch hitter and Hoot Evers of Baltimore, in fifth place, is another righty hitter.

Kuenn, resting a leg injury, batted only three times last week. He had two hits and raised his average six points to .379. Kaline, meanwhile, climbed nine points to .367 with 12 safeties in 29 trips. Power, however, slumped 39 points to .350 with a 6-for-39 showing. Mantle is batting .329 and Evers .324.

Lord Pick Takes 6th in Row at Hazel Park

DETROIT (AP)—Lord Pick won his 6th straight race by taking the feature trot at Hazel Park Harness Raceway last night. His time was 2:04 3-5, the slowest mile the 4-year-old has trotted this season.

Foy Funderburk, who drove Lord Pick, also won the 6th race with Hennessey Hanover.

Bags Holiday Ace

Fred Harrison of Mansfield, O., played a round of golf Monday at Pontiac Country Club. He made it a fine holiday affair with a hole-in-one, sinking his tee shot on the No. 8 hole with an 8 iron. His father, J. Harrison, and Fred's wife made up a threesome. Harrison had a 79 for the 18-hole round. The couple was visiting at the J. Harrison home, 514 Second Ave.

Topsy-Turvy House Offers Lots of Fun

CRESCENT BEACH, S.C. (AP) — A house left at a freakish tilt by last October's Hurricane Hazel has been affording a lot of fun here.

It's tilted at 45-degree angle and the perspective from inside is crazy. It's impossible to stand upright because you have to lean 45 degrees to stand at all and glancing overhead is a mistake.

A glimpse outside the doorless front doorway shows the ocean apparently running up hill.

Stories of adventure in the crooked house tell of one man who ventured inside took a few steps, then staggered out and walked at the same angle back to his autombile, tried to crawl in and missed by a good 2 feet. Two soldiers fell flat when they tried to walk about the inside. A woman visitor said her eyes whirled clockwise and her stomach counter-clockwise.

"Why do you close your eyes when you kiss, Daddy? Don't you like to see what you're doing?"

Grains Reveal Downward Drift

CHICAGO (AP) — A slight downward drift appeared in grains on the Board of Trade today. It was accompanied by very low volume.

Fractional losses were registered in wheat, corn and oats. Soybeans displayed an erratic trend, posting a few gains early and then losing them. Rye continued to act better than the rest of the grain list, advancing fractionally.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅓ to ⅞ lower, July $1.99½; corn ¼ to ¾ lower, July $1.42¾; oats ¼ to ⅝ lower, July 68⅝; rye unchanged to ½ higher, July $1.06; soybeans unchanged to 1 cent lower July $2.44½; and lard 3 to 15 cents a hundred pounds higher, July $12.50.

With the harvesting month of June just about upon the trade, brokers said there was very little speculative incentive to buy wheat.

Many grainmen have the feeling the new crop will be quite readily absorbed by mills at this price level, however.

Army Awards AC $3 Million Contract

FLINT (AP)—An Army contract of nearly three million dollars for improvements in the electronic control system of the Skysweeper anti-aircraft gun has been awarded to the AC Spark Plug Division of General Motors.

Announcement of the new $2,833,992 contract was made by Joseph A. Anderson, general manager of the AC Spark Plug Division.

Anderson said the contract supplements present orders for fire control units used in the big anti-aircraft gun.

"It is another example of the constant progress being made with this important weapon since we delivered our first system in 1953,'" Anderson said.

Seven per cent of the fatal accidents in 1953 in which a driver violation of the law was involved were due to one or more driverrs failing to yield the right of way.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN OF A public hearing to be held by the Waterford Township Zoning Board at the Township Hall, Wednesday, June 8, 1955 at 7:30 p.m., to consider the following changes to the Zoning Map.

1. To change from Residence District 1 to Commercial District 1 lot 306 of Huron Gardens Subdivision.

2. To change from Agricultural District 1 to Commercial District 1 a parcel of land comprising approximately 6 acres and located at the SE corner of Cooley Lake Road and Hiller Road.

All persons interested are requested to be present.

A copy of the Zoning Map together with a list of the proposed changes is on file in the office of the Township Supervisor and may be examined by anyone interested.

Montgomery Ward Studies Progress

CHICAGO (INS)—Montgomery Ward & Co., said last night the management was deep in a study of the mail order giant's future.

In a letter to the stockholders, John A. Barr, president and chairman, said:

"Many projects for the advancement of the company are being reviewed and will receive the open minded consideration of the management and directors.

"Meanwhile, the financial strength, the quality of merchandise and service, and the integrity of management which have characterized your corporation in the past will be zealously guarded and maintained."

Barr pointed to the eight-month proxy fight in which financier Louis E. Wolfson and two associates gained directorships and said:

"It is my belief that the stockholders, by their vote, have put an end to this controversy and have indicated their confidence that the company can move forward with a sound and progressive program of improvement and growth."

Stock Dealings Same to Lower

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was unchanged to lower today in early dealings.

Prices were off between 1 and 3 points at the outside in key areas while gains ran to around two points.

Trading was moderate in the beginning as the market resumed business following a three-day recess over Memorial Day.

Aircrafts were lower. Boeing was down between 1 and 2 points following an announcement of an employment cutback in its Wichita division. Also, two congressional groups started aircraft profit probes.

Capital Airlines opened on a block of 7,000 shares up 2⅛ at 37. Canadian Pacific had a block of 4,000 shares up ½ at 34.

Adlai Is Willing: New York Times

Writer Says Stevenson Ready to Run Again Regardless of Ike

NEW YORK (UP) — Adlai E. Stevenson would accept the Democratic presidential nomination in 1956, the New York Times said today.

Times correspondent Richard J. H. Johnston reported from Chicago that Stevenson has "reached a firm conclusion that the Republicans do not have the ability to govern the nation at a complex and critical point in history."

Johnston wrote that Stevenson would make no public statement of his availability for the nomination until the end of the summer but he said the former Illinois governor is no longer a "reluctant" candidate.

Stevenson's intimate friends are convinced the self-elimination of potential candidates such as Senators Estes Kefauver of Tennessee and Stuart Symington of Missouri is clearing the way for Stevenson's candidacy, the story said.

Johnston said Stevenson would attempt to win the support of dissendent Southern elements of the Democratic party but, should this fail, will fight them.

Stevenson has told friends that he is "profoundly disillusioned" with the apparent inability of President Eisenhower to unite warring elements of the Republican party and for this reason Stevenson's availability does not depend on whether Eisenhower runs again, Johnston said.

Automobiles in Michigan Now Total 2,873,573

LANSING (AP)—The number of motor vehicles in Michigan has jumped to 2,873,573, the Department of State reported today.

Secy. of State James M. Hare said that licensing had brought in $47,974,736 as of April 30, an increase of $3,077,858 over the same time last year.

Teamsters Vote on Offer Today

Western States' Truck Walkout Goes Into Its Twelfth Day

LOS ANGELES (AP)—AFL teamsters start voting today on a new contract offer from the trucking industry as the tieup of freight trucking in Western states goes into its 12th day.

Members of Teamsters Local 224, the long line drivers, and Local 357, the freight handlers, are scheduled to vote today on the new offer. Members of Local 208, comprising local freight drivers, are to vote tomorrow night.

The industry offer proposes an annual wage increase of 8 cents an hour for the next three years, or a total of 24 cents an hour by the end of the three years, for most of the employes.

The union has asked 10 cents an hour more this year, with 8 cents additionally for each of the two following years. The present basic wage is $2.14 an hour.

Frank Brewster, president of the AFL Western Conference of Teamsters, predicted the offer will be defeated. He said the offer contains no pension proposal and excludes Washington and Oregon.

Industry spokesmen said a pension plan would not be feasible because most truck drivers quit before they are 65. As to the states of Washington and Oregon, the employers said these states have special regional provisions which will be taken care of later.

Business Notes

Sam L. Stolorow of Pontiac was elected to serve on the 1955-56 Board of Directors of the National Parking Assn. at the trade association's recent annual convention in Atlanta, it was announced by President L. B. Doggett, Jr., Washington, D. C.

This was the fourth annual meeting of the NPA which, since its organization, has grown to represent a three and a half billion dollar industry furnishing more than 90 per cent of the off-stret parking facilities in the nation's major cities.

June Graduates Are Cashing In

Increase in Beginning Pay Reflects Business Boom; Jobs Plentiful

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The June graduate is cashing in on the business boom.

Average starting pay has gone up a little since the midyear graduate came out in January, college placement offices report. And corporations have revised their hiring plans upward in line with the general optimism over the business outlook.

Available jobs are now running about 10 per cent ahead of a year ago, most colleges report.

Young engineers will get an average starting pay of $400 a month, and nontechnical grads will start at $300 to $390 month, according to a survey of 120 schools by the Northwestern National Life Insurance Co., of Minneapolis. This is a gain of from $10 to $35 over last year.

But a dark side of the picture is pointed out in another survey of 80 top corporations and 80 colleges in all parts of the country by Executive Job Counselors, a New York firm. Corporations report that on an average 30 per cent of each year's crop of June graduates changes jobs within the first year.

This is estimated to cost industry 336 million dollars in wasted recruiting and training expense. Recruiting a student for industry costs a corporation from $500 to $2,600, companies report.

Corporations estimate they spend an average of $1,000 a man in training the new employe in his first year. Many say they get little of productive worth out of a man in his first year, so that his first year's pay is a loss if he quits.

Most colleges report a sharp rise this year in the number of companies doing campus recruiting. Many placement officials report employers actively interested in "draft bait" this year. The larger companies are hiring youths who soon must leave for military service, or are signing them up for jobs on a "when you return" basis.

One Midwest university reports increased interest in hiring underclassmen for summer work. Another finds more interest this year in nontechnical seniors.

A Pacific Coast school sights a "trend to accept women in positions formerly reserved for men, particularly in science." An engineering school says, "Probably none of our seniors this year has less than six offers." And it adds that corporation interviewing teams are reserving dates now for next spring.

Experience, which at one time was demanded by some employers, isn't as necessary to land a job now, apparently. A Western school reports that "many jobs for which experience was formerly demanded are now opening up to qualified graduates without experience."

Late Packard President Leaves $1 Million Estate

TROY, Ohio (INS)—An Ohio inheritance tax determination today revealed that George T. Christopher, late president of Packard Motor Car Corp., left an estate valued at more than $1 million.

Gross value was set at $1,117,551.

Most of Christopher's holdings were in stocks. The total value of personal property was listed at over $989,000.

The bulk of the estate was left to Christopher's widow, Marie, 66, with a trust fund to provide slightly more than $50,000 for each of five nephews upon her death.

Back Where He Began

WESTMORLAND, Calif. (AP)—Lee Colbath, sentenced for drunk driving, was put with a prison work gang. They sent him for some lumber and he kept going. He started hitchhiking and the driver of a passing car, Westmorland Police Chief Jack Farley, gave him a lift—back to jail.

City Insurance Men to Receive Awards Thursday

Six local citizens will receive National Quality Awards at the Pontiac Life Underwriters Association annual award breakfast, 8:30 a.m. Thursday at the Waldron Hotel.

Dr. Dana Whitmer, superintendent of city schools, will be guest speaker and present the awards to Clifford E. Maison, of Prudential Insurance Co.; Howard C. Fowler, Central Life; Curtis E. Patton, Great West Life; Dee H. Pritt, Lincoln National; and Robert H. Wilkinson and Robert J. Zimmerman, both of Columbus Mutual.

The Quality Awards, given in recognition for achievement of high professional standards, are presented annually to American and Canadian underwriters by the Life Insurance Management Association of Hartford and the National Association of Life Underwriters of New York.

Max Wilson, president of the Pontiac association, will preside at the meeting.

Ford Foundation Gets $18 Million

Nine-Month Dividend of $5.80 Per Share Revealed by Trust

NEW YORK (UP)—The Ford Foundation disclosed yesterday it received about $18,000,000 in dividends during the first nine months of 1954 on its Ford Motor Company stock which comprises about 80 per cent of the company's stock.

The company is privately owned and the stock has a book value of $135 a share. The dividend would amount to about $5.80 a share on the 3,089,908 shares owned by the foundation for the nine month period.

Last week, the company offered, as a substitute for a guaranteed annual wage demanded by union negotiators, to let company employes buy stock at half the market value.

The exact earnings of the Ford company, the world's largest privately-owned business, have never been made public.

The Ford family owns the other 20 per cent of the company's stock and most of it is in voting shares which may be worth more than the foundation's stock.

Faulty Elevator Crushes Girl

Detroit Child Killed as Car Descends With Door Still Open

DETROIT (INS)—A Detroit girl was killed yesterday when she was dragged between an elevator and the wall of the shaft in the Douglas housing project while two horrified playmates watched helplessly.

Killed in the mishap was 12-year-old Carolyn Porter.

Carolyn and two other girls were playing on the self-service elevator in the 14-floor apartment building.

The elevator services only the odd-numbered floors and the trip had ridden up to the 13th floor. They pressed the button and the elevator started to descend slowly but the door didn't close.

The two Allen sisters told police Carolyn tried to get out of the elevator but was caught by the descending car and crushed between the wall and elevator until the car came to a halt at the ninth floor.

Police said they would investigate the mechanism of the elevator today to determine what caused the door to remain open.

They learned a mechanic, 28-year-old Herbert Pominville, had repaired the elevator shortly before the tragedy.

Pominville said he repaired the car and tested each door twice to make sure it was operating correctly before he left the building.

FOR IDENTIFICATION — Military planes and the aircraft of 31 U. S. Airlines will soon be equipped with electronic "license plates" for their fast, continuous identification by airport tower operators as they approach. It's called a radar beacon system and the above chart shows how it works. Its purpose is really twofold: (1) To identify an aircraft to the airport radar controller. (2) To pin-point the position of an approaching plane for the radar man when there is no visibility. The bottom part of the chart shows the radar scope at the airport. The upper dial shows the pilot setting the device so that it sends out a constant identification signal. If the dial is on "one," it sends out one blip to the scope. If it's on "two" it sends out a double blip, and so on. Even more than the 10 combinations of blips shown are possible. The two small planes on the sketch show what the scope looks like without the system. The plane on the left can't be seen on the scope through the clouds and storm. The one on the right has to circle or maneuver to cause it to be identified to the tower man. The two larger planes, sending out the new identification beacon signal, show how their double blip (with the dial set at "two") shows on the radar scope.

Sen. Potter Says U. S. Won't Stand for Appeasement

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The American people "want peace but will stand for no apeasement," Sen. Potter (R-Mich) said in an address during Memorial Day exercises in Wyoming Park, a suburb of Grand Rapids.

"America wants peace but is resolved the dead we mourn will not have died in vain and that the freedom for which they fought will be maintained," Potter said.

Rep. Gerald R. Ford (R-Mich) praised the recommendation of President Eisenhower for a cutback of 77,000 members of the armed forces to be made up by expansion of the National Guard and organized reserves. Ford spoke at Grand Haven Memorial Day exercises.

Police Nab Five, Confiscate Whisky

Three men and two women, held for investigation of violating the state liquor laws after a weekend raid, were scheduled for further questioning today.

Led by Patrol Sgt. William Nesbitt, the raid was conducted after Patrolmen Wayne Long and Robert Gaines arrested Curren Brooks Jr., 28, of 53 Chapman St., and Oscar Naylor, 25, of 273 W. Wilson St. The two patrolmen said they found moonshine whisky in the pair's car after they were halted at Walnut and Beaudette Sts.

Others arrested at 419 California Ave., Sunday morning, were Emmett Elliott, 35, Charles Neeley, 28, and his wife, Leona, 22, all of the California street address.

About six gallons of moonshine whisky was confiscated, said Nesbitt.

Detroit Safest Big City, Traffic Survey Shows

DETROIT (INS) — Detroit was the safest city in the nation, with the least number of traffic fatalities, during the first four months of 1955.

The National Safety Council ranked Detroit on top with the least number of traffic deaths for each 10,000 registered vehicles in the more than one million population class.

Detroit has an average of 2.9 deaths, followed by Philadelphia with 3.4 and Los Angeles with 3.6.

Friends Repair Farm for Tornado Victim

CHARLOTTE (AP) — Friends and neighbors of Henry Crane spent Memorial Day repairing tornado damage on his farm.

The 70-year-old Eaton County farmer suffered fractured legs and a fractured pelvis when the twister pulled a toolshed down on him Saturday.

The tornado caused assorted property damage before it headed south.

She is survived by her husband; one sister, Mrs. Florence Gardener of Detroit; and two brothers, Fred and William Bingham of New York City.

Policy Meeting on Drought, Dust Opening Today

DENVER (AP)—A policy meeting aimed at combatting drought and dust conditions opens here today with federal agriculture officials meeting governors and agriculturalists from 11 Midwest and Western states.

Federal officials and members of the Great Plains Council, including directors of agriculture experiment stations and extension services in the various states, began arriving yesterday.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson is due in tonight in time for a banquet with the governors.

States represented are Colorado, Wyoming, New Mexico, Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Montana and North and South Dakota.

Observer Corps Shifts Meeting Days This Week

Weekly meetings of Pontiac Ground Observer Corps personnel will be held Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. instead of Tuesdays, beginning this week.

In announcing the day shift today, post supervisor Arthur J. Heaton said the change was made so more members could attend.

Persons interested in becoming civil defense plane spotters may sign up at the meetings, held on the fifth floor of the Oakland County Office Bldg, 1 Lafayette St.

Mother Dies in Lung

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—An 18-year-old mother who gave birth to a daughter in an iron lung died last night. Mrs. Charles Ray Thomas died in the iron lung that had kept her alive since she was stricken with polio Aug. 3. The daughter, Landa Kay, delivered Aug. 17, continues in good health.

Laughing Man Seizes 2 Tots

Pistol-Waving Intruder Still Missing With Ohio Youngsters

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—An unidentified man with a "crazy, insane laugh" and the two young children he made off with are still missing today.

Police from five counties joined the search for the man and the children, Tommy Campbell, 2, and his 9-month-old brother, Ricky Jay.

The boys, barely dressed, were taken from their foster home yesterday, whisked into a waiting cab and then transferred to another car about four miles away, Zanesville Police said.

The children have been living with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Campbell.

WAVES PISTOL

Police said the intruder, waving a pistol, forced Violet Campbell, 30, and her sister, Miss Marie Somers, 29, into a bedroom and tied them to a bed. Campbell was not home.

Campbell said the boys had been abandoned six weeks ago in a Kansas City boarding house. He said he has temporary custody of the children and is seeking permanent adoption.

Campbell said his wife described the intruder as short, stocky, about 200 pounds and wearing a dark suit. She said he had a "crazy, insane laugh."

Southfield Girl Wed Saturday in Church Rite

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP — A reception at the Detroit Yacht Club followed the Saturday morning Nuptial Mass at St. Monica church, which united in marriage Katherine Ann Falconer and John Forest Dooley.

Katherine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Falconer, of Outer Drive, and John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Dooley, Lathrup Village.

The bride's wedding gown was of white silk taffeta with neckline outlined with appliques of imported French Alencon lace, and full sweeping skirt. Her fingertip veil of illusion was secured with a pearl trimmed headpiece.

Marion Falconer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mary Cadieux and Margaret Wilson, were bridesmaids.

Lt. Thomas Dooley, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Robert Carmody and Fred and Hayes Southers were ushers.

Sinatra Nails Man Prowling About Roof

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UP)—Singer Frank Sinatra nailed a suspected prowler with a flying tackle at his home here yesterday and then refused to press charges when the youth said he only was trying to sell Sinatra a song he'd composed.

Sinatra held the suspect, Robert Enriquez, of nearby Indio, until police arrived.

Enriquez told police he "was trying to get into Frankie's house to sell him a song I had composed."

The singer told officers he was awakened by the sound of footsteps on the roof. He said he went outside and tackled Enriquiz when he reached the ground.

Carolina Woman Sets Record for Marrying

SYLVA, N.C. (AP) — An 85-year-old great-grandmother, Mrs. Mary Jones, has been married eight times in 69 years. She first married her present husband, Charlie Jones, in 1885. This is the third time they have been man and wife. She also was married twice to Charlie Smith.

All of her former husbands are living.

Mrs. Jones figures her full name, taking everybody into account, is Mrs. Mary Fuller Jones Morris Garrett Jones.

Youthful Driver Backs Into Parking Spot, Fine

JOLIET, Ill. (AP) — Driver Jerry Kavanaugh, 19, backed into a parking place and a $5 fine.

Officer Jerome Kren said he saw Kavanaugh spot a parking place on the left side of an intersection which had a no-left-turn warning. Kavanaugh didn't turn left. He turned right and backed across the intersection and into the parking place. But he backed through a red light.

Kren said the law on red lights applies whether you're going forward or backward.

Argues Over $100 Bonus

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—Norman Kinzie, 19, closed out his account at the bank and recounting the money at home discovered he had an extra $100.

He notified the bank but was told he must be mistaken.

"Look," said Kinzie, "I can count and I've an extra $100."

Soon a bank messenger called at his home to pick up he surplus.

Pope Nominates New Patriarch for Near East

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Pope Pius XII has nominated Msgr. Paul Meouchi to become patriarch of the nearly one million Maronite Catholics in Lebanon.

The new Patriarch of Antioch and All the East has been bishop of Tyre. He succeeds the late Antoun Arida.

The delay in nomination of a new patriarch had aroused newspaper speculation in Lebanon, but Vatican sources said earlier this was the result of a misunderstanding.

Arida died May 19 at the age of 92 after a long illness. For the past five years the patriarchate has been run by an apostolic committee of three bishops named by Pope Pius XII.

Arida's logical succesor would be Bishop Bostani of Sidnoe, dean of the Maronite bishops. But Vatican informants say he also is old and ailing.

The Maronites are the largest single religious community in Lebanon. A Christian people of the old Ottoman Empire, they pay allegiance to the Pope but retain their own ancient Syriac tongue, ritual and administrative autonomy.

Another Cabinet Formed in Chile

New Ministers Face Rash of Political, Strike Trouble

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—President Carlos Ibanez last night formed his 10th Cabinet since taking office 2½ years ago. It must struggle with acute political and strike troubles.

The new 12-man government had one very familiar face, the President's son-in-law Oswaldo Koch. He has been in all Ibanez's previous governments, serving as foreign minister in the last Cabinet. Koch now takes over the key post of interior minister.

Rear Adm. Kare Olsen is the new foreign minister.

The latest Cabinet reshuffle followed resignation of six ministers belonging to the powerful Agrarian Labor party. Although the party is Ibanez's chief political backer, the ministers quit after the President refused to oust Undersecretary of the Interior Carolos Ferrer.

Ferrer had been under fire from student groups who accused him of delaying the granting of political asylum to 13 Peruvian students expelled from Argentina after being held in jail there six months by the Peron government. Chile finally admitted the students last week.

High school and university students have been on strike since Thursday, demanding Ferrer's ouster. To get a breathing space, the new government decreed a winter school vacation beginning today.

The government also granted pay raises to 25,000 cemetery and hospital workers who had been on strike for four days. The strikers agreed to return to work.

Girl From Clarkston Seeking State Title

Card of Thanks 1

I WISH TO THANK OUR friends, neighbors, relatives and Mrs. Captain Vie and the Salvation Army for their acts of kindness and floral offerings during our recent bereavement in the loss of my beloved wife, Mrs. Nellie Christensen of 741 East Pike.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF JAMES R. Mazza who passed away 4 years ago today
A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is still
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten
Though on earth you are no more;
But in memory you are with us
As you always were before
Sadly missed by parents, sister and brother-in-law.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MAY Caldwell who passed away October, 1954.
Peacefully sleeping, resting at last,
The world's weary trouble and trials are past,
In silence she suffered, in patience she bore,
Till God called her home to suffer no more.
Sadly missed by Daughter, Son-in-Law and Grandchildren.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF REX J. Kingsley, May 4, 1944.
It is lonesome here without you,
And sad and weary the way
Life has not been the same
Since you were called away
Anna Kingsley and Family.

IN MEMORY OF ALFRED ROY McMillan, who passed away 10 years ago, May 28.
God knows how much we miss him,
Never shall his memory fade;
Loving thought shall ever wander
To the spot where he is laid.
Sadly missed by wife and children.

Billy Graham Already Signed

Seek American-Type Shows for New-Style Programming

By WAYNE OLIVER

NEW YORK (AP)—Great Britain's new commercial television service may not be as lively as the American version but it won't be dull, says Harry Towers, who will boss much of the programming.

In fact, the short, dynamic young British TV-radio magnate says the new service, to start this fall, will include some American programs.

"I think the American viewer would find it very good," Towers said while here on one of his frequent ocean-hopping business trips.

He has just closed a deal with Evangelist Billy Graham for 26 filmed programs. He's dickering for I Love Lucy, the Roy Rogers show and others, and hopes to have frequent American guest stars such as Bob Hope and Johnny Ray.

"We may put Liberace on," he adds.

Meanwhile, London programs will incude a big Sunday evening variety hour from the London Palladium with such stars as Gracie Fields.

Also on the Sunday evening schedule will be an anthology show featuring dramatic stars such as Sir Ralph Richardson. The Sunday afternoon lineup will include a 90-minute program along the lines of Omnibus.

A major Saturday evening attraction will be a one-hour dramatic show telecast from high quality film recording.

Closing out the Saturday schedule will be a 45-minute program presided over by Jack Jackson, popular British entertainment personality.

"It will be a sort of Steve Allen show," Towers explained.

There also will be sports telecasts, kiddie shows, quizzes, newsreels and other features of types familiar to American viewers.

One noticeable difference will be the way the commercials are handled. They cannot be tied to the program in any way and the advertiser has nothing to say about the content of the program. The performer also may not deliver the commercial that precedes or follows the program.

Army Continuing Mt. Fuji Shooting

FUJI-YOSHIDA, Japan (AP)—The U.S. Army today resumed practice firing on the old Japanese army artillery range near revered Mt. Fuji. The shooting will last three days.

There were no objections from villagers, who had vigorously protested earlier firings. The United States is using the range with permission of the Japanese government.

The Army had compromised with the villagers by cutting down on the number of firing days.

Digger Escapes Unhurt After Trench Caves In

TROY, N. Y. (AP)—Noble Jenkins, 26, left home yesterday morning to dig a sewer-line trench for the house he's building about a quarter-mile from his temporary dwelling here.

About 11 a.m. his 24-year-old wife Gertrude took him his lunch.

She found him encased to the chest in gravel. The sides of the trench had caved in. He was unable to move.

Firemen and neighbors pulled him out, unhurt.

South Koreans Catch Two Communist Spies

SEOUL (AP)—South Korean police announced today they seized three North Korean soldiers they claimed were sent to South Korea on a spy mission.

The three crossed the demilitarized zone into the Allied zone May 21 and were arrested the same day on a South Korean mountain, some 20 miles north of Seoul, police reported. Two pistols were seized.

Statue Dedicated to Men, Women of Coast Guard

NEW YORK (AP)—A heroic bronze statue now stands in Battery Park on the southern tip of Manhattan Island, dedicated to the 172,000 men and women who served in the Coast Guard during World War II.

The monument was unveiled by the Coast Guard yesterday. Its three figures, nine feet tall, show two exhausted Coast Guardsmen evacuating a wounded soldier during heavy fighting on Luzon in the Philippines.

The memorial is the work of Norman Millet Thomas, 39, who served as a Coast Guard combat artist during the war. Thomas, formerly of Dedham, Mass., and Portland, Maine, now operates an art gallery in Mexico City.

New Prime Minister Named in Jordan

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Said Mufti has succeeded Tewfik Abul Huda as prime minister of Jordan.

A royal decree yesterday named a new 11-man Cabinet, including five former ministers and six entering the government for the first time. The Premier also will serve as foreign minister.

Tewfik gave no reason for his resignation Sunday. However, he has been struggling with a Cabinet crisis since the resignation three weeks ago of Justice Minister Hazzaa Majali.

17,000 Invited, 50 Attend

PORT ARTHUR, Tex. (AP)—Seventeen thousand persons were invited to attend the annual United Fund meeting. But the usual 50 showed up. The formal invitation went to everybody who contributed to the charitable fund.

"Please Omit Flowers" ...please omit Sentiment?

● When it becomes your responsibility to decide whether flowers shall be included in a funeral service, remember that flowers, symbolic of eternal life and hope, have always played a part in life's most significant ceremonies.

As members of the National Selected Morticians, we, of course, conduct services according to your wishes. Yet we think you should know that flowers at this time often provide comfort to the family as well as a tribute to the one they love.

Debbie, Eddie Deny Story of Breakup; Score Writer

HONOLULU (AP) — Film actress Debby Reynolds says there is no truth to reports her romance with Eddie Fisher is ended. She blamed Hollywood columnist Sheila Graham for what she termed "this rumor."

"She must have to make news," said the actress, who arrived today after a tour of military bases in the Far East.

"It was awfully unkind. I am very hurt.

"Eddie and I are very much in love," she said in a telephone interview.

"It's tough enough to live a normal life. I'm so upset. It isn't true. I don't know why Sheila did it."

Asked if she and Fisher had set a date for the wedding, she replied:

"We don't have a date planned. We had figured on June 17, but Eddie has a show that will run into July, and when I get back I will start shooting a new picture. But that (the wedding date) is no problem."

She said she had talked with her mother. Her mother and brother are "so upset and didn't know what it was all about."

On her tour Miss Reynolds took part in 22 shows. She said she and her companions spent most of yesterday sleeping. However, they got on a beach long enough "to get a good sunburn and I guess that is better than a white pallor."

In Hollywood, her mother said Debbie's romance was on full force.

She blasted as "a pack of lies" one columnist's report last night that Debbie was going to mail her ring back to Eddie. The columnist had quoted Debbie's brother Bill, who also angrily denied any talk of a bustup between the actress and crooner.

Another angry denial came from Fisher himself in New York.

Fisher said the romance "is not broken up." He added: "Debbie and I exchange three letters a day and I talk to her mother every day."

"Fortunately," said Mrs. R. F. Reynolds, "Eddie knows our family and didn't put any stock in the reports. He loves Debbie—he just told me so—and she loves him."

Mrs. Reynolds reiterated what Debbie and Fisher previously had said—that a conflict of careers prevented the setting of any definite wedding date.

"The kids are doing okay. After all, it's pretty hard to arrange a wedding date when you're separated by 3,000 miles most of the time."

New Baby Elephant Is Outcast, Says Zoo

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Miss Ararat, a baby elephant, is a social outcast at the Swope Park Zoo.

William T. A. Cully, zoo director, says the elephant, from India, won't be allowed on a special outdoor African veldt section of the zoo. All its animals must be from Africa.

Miss Ararat will be kept in her regular quarters in the main zoo building.
