President Confers With Top Advisers Today

Vatican Reveals Miracle: Pope Saw Vision of Christ

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican announced today that Pope Pius XII saw a vision of Jesus Christ during the most critical moments of his grave illness last winter. The recovery of the desperately ill pontiff began soon after.

The announcement was made by Luciano Casimiri, chief of the Vatican press office, upon authorization of the papal secretariat of state.

The secretariat normally would make such statement only with the personal authorization of the Pope.

Casimiri told newsmen that they could state that "responsible Vatican circles" confirm the report of the vision published last week in Oggi (Today), the largest Italian weekly magazine.

Oggi said that on Dec. 2, 1954, when the Pope's illness from a gastric disturbance reached a climax, he began reciting the prayer "Anima Christi (Soul of Christ)."

When he came to the invocation "In horae mortis mea, voca me (In the hour of my death, call me)," the Pope saw "the sweet person of Jesus Christ at his bedside," said the magazine.

"In that moment," said the magazine, "the Holy Father believed that the teacher came to call him to himself, and serenely answering to the call, he continued the prayer: 'Jube me venire ad Te (Order me to come to You).' Jesus, however, did not come to take him, but to console him and give him the certainty that his hour had not yet come."

The announcement of the Pope's vision recalled the announcement three years ago by Federico Cardinal Tedeschini, archpriest of St. Peter's Basilica, that Pope Pius saw a vision of the Virgin Mary in October 1951.

Later Vatican sources said privately that the Pope had not seen a vision of the Virgin but rather the same unusual rays of the sun which were reported to have accompanied the vision of the Virgin to the little shepherd children of Fatima.

Anemia Strikes Marie Dionne

Quint Enters Montreal Hospital Seriously Ill; Parents to Visit Bedside

MONTREAL (AP) — Quintuplet Marie Dionne today was reported seriously ill with pernicious anemia.

The 21-year-old girl, who has been studying for religious orders, was brought here by a nurse last week to Notre Dame l'Esperance Hospital from Quebec City's convent of the Servants of the Blessed Sacrament.

Two other of the four surviving quintuplets, Cecile and Yvonne, are training as nurses at the hospital.

Reporting the diagnosis of Marie's illness, the Montreal Gazette said Marie's parents had left their home in Callander, Ont., for Montreal.

Marie first entered the Roman Catholic cloister two years ago and was elevated to the rank of novice after six months. She returned home in July 1954, reportedly because of poor health, loss of appetite and extreme homesickness.

In September 1954, soon after the death of her quintuplet sister Emilie, Marie returned to the convent. After she left the second time, her father Oliva Dionne said he had been informed she was suffering from loss of appetite and loneliness.

Pernicious anemia is a disease characterized by a sharp reduction in the number of red blood cells. Among its symptoms are loss of appetite and a marked pallor.

Five-Year-Old Thanks Press for Story of Dog

A five-year-old girl today thanked the Pontiac Press for helping to find her beloved "little doggie".

"You helped answer my prayers," Lana Woznak, of White Lake Township, said.

An unidentified man, touched when he read Lana's story in the Press, returned the lost Mexican Hairless dog Wednesday. The story was in Tuesday's paper.

Mrs. Hazel Woznak, said the man's two children took the dog home when they thought it was lost.

"The man recognized 'Chico' from the newspaper story, and drove him right to our door," Mrs. Woznak said.

Lana, who is ill with flu, came to the phone to tell the Press: "Thank you very, very much for helping bring my little doggie back."

Stolen Chain-Driven Car Baffles Kentucky Police

ASHLAND, Ky. (AP) — A real puzzler faces police in an automobile theft case: There is no license to check and the model and make are in doubt.

The stolen car is a chain-driven, two-tone-blue miniature valued at $20. It was taken from a hobby shop.

Fellows Are Vain, Too

"HOW'S THIS, FELLOWS?"—That's what this young lad seemed to be saying to photographers as they snapped this picture while his mother held her compact mirror for him to check his haircomb. The lad is Billy Ziegemfmeier of New York, who was about to board a plane at Idelwild Airport for Ireland. The 14-month-old youngster left yesterday to visit his grandparents in Ireland for a few weeks.

NO LOVE LOST — John Rose, 5, doesn't want to cuddle these turkeys. He is feeding them with visions of having stuffing in them, and gravy over them, come Thursday.

Thanksgiving Day Holding No Tears for Turkey Farmer Without Favorites

No tears will fall when the Thanksgiving gobbler loses his head at the Rose Turkey Farm at 3881 Livernois Rd.

To Mr. and Mrs. Wendell A. Rose, turkeys are not pets; they're raised to be eaten.

"We like to eat turkey," said Mrs. Rose. "We're glad to chop off their heads."

The Roses have four children and two dogs. They all love each other.

They have a canary.

Everyone likes the canary.

But no one loves the turkeys—except when cooked.

"Turkeys aren't lovable," explained Mrs. Rose. "An occasional turkey may like to peck at your coat-button. But that's the limit of his affection," she said.

Without sentimentality, the Roses are raising 700 Empire Whites and Broadbreasted Bronzes for holiday meals this year.

When young, the birds were fed a high protein diet to make them plump. They grew up in special pens to make them tender. During their last months alive, they get a combination of selected grains to make them tasty.

Naturally, one of them will be picked to grace the Rose dinner table Nov. 24. Mr. Rose will lop off its head, happily.

80 Relatives, Friends Attend Birthday Party

Some 80 friends and relatives attended an open house yesterday honoring the 100th birthday today of Jonathan A. Ferrier who lives with his son, Arthur, at 14 McNeil St.

Probably the oldest man in Oakland County, Ferrier weathered the afternoon's activities without signs of fatigue and was up at 7 a.m. this morning as usual.

Ferrier attributes his longevity to a cheerful outlook toward life and the fact he's never used tobacco or liquor. He had seven children, four still living, plus 186 grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

Find Youngsters Walking Streets

Brother, Sister Seek Father During Trek After Midnight

A brother and sister, ages 3 and 5, are in Oakland County Children's Home, waiting for their parents to explain why the children were wandering on freezing city streets after midnight Saturday.

Buckey Lee and Charlotte Fraley told juvenile authorities: "Mommy works, and no one was home. So we went out to find Daddy."

Their father, Daniel R. Fraley, 249 Orchard Lake Rd., told police that the children were at home when he left at 2:30 a.m. to pick his wife up from work. She works at a drive-in.

But the children were found at a street corner at 1 a.m., police said.

The children were found by a Walled Lake man, Thomas O'Donohue, at the corner of Orchard Lake avenue and Williams street. He took them to the Pontiac police station, where they were identified by a workers badge in Fraley's hat, which his young son was wearing.

The Fraleys are to appear before juvenile authorities today.

You Think It's Funny? Wait Until Next April 15

STOCKHOLM (INS) — This may strike an American funny right now, but wait until next April 15.

Anyway, a poultry farmer in northern Sweden recently was presented with an income tax demand for 5,000 crowns, about $971.

He promptly slaughtered 600 of his hens and later explained:

"The demand made me desperate."

Hunters' Death Toll Reaches 25

Seven Die From Gun Wounds; Six Missing Presumed Dead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Seven Michigan deer hunters, an average of one a day, have died from gunfire since the 16-day season opened last Tuesday.

Twelve other hunters have died of heart attacks, two have frozen to death, one has died of exposure, and three have been asphyxiated sleeping in cars or tents. Another six hunters are missing and "presumed dead" by authorities.

Judson R. Montgomery, 31, of Ionia, died Sunday in a Traverse City hospital of wounds suffered Thursday while hunting in Kalkaska County, high in the Lower Peninsula.

State police said Montgomery was shot in the right hip by Robert Sronk, 35, of Kalamazoo, who accidentally discharged his rifle while unloading it.

* * *

Latest heart attack victims include George Lee Howard, 53, of Kalamazoo, and Clarence Lucas, 63, of Flint.

Howard dropped dead on state ferry docks at St. Ignace Saturday night while awaiting transportation across the Straits of Mackinac from an Upper Peninsula hunting expedition.

Lucas suffered a fatal attack Sunday while hunting near Houghton Lake.

Conservation and sheriff's officers renewed their search of Gratiot Lake today for four deer hunters who disappeared Wednesday en route across the tricky inland lake in a 14-foot, outboard-powered boat. Three of them were golf professionals in the Grand Rapids area.

* * *

These four have been listed as "presumed dead," as are two others missing in rugged Upper Peninsula woods since before a blizzard raked the area Wednesday night and Thursday.

Stanley Syabula, 34, of Riverview died of a heart attack Sunday night. He was stricken in a car while returning home after hunting near Rapid River in the Upper Peninsula.

Study Group Asks Action by Local Chamber

Urges Conferences of Waterford Citizens and City Representatives

"Pontiac's Chamber of Commerce is happy to study the annexation problem of this entire community," declares President Ralph T. Norvell. "Frank Steere's proposal as outlined in Friday's Pontiac Press is very sound. We have an advisory committee on this general question," he said, "and the members are submitting a report to the Board proposing a general study of the whole problem.

"It was the unanimous opinion of this committee that the Chamber of Commerce should be vitally concerned with annexation, particularly with respect to Waterford Township," he said. "Any growing, thriving community such as Pontiac must have room for expansion to permit its future development, both from a population standpoint as well as business and industrial-wise.

A study of the area lying within Pontiac's present boundaries reveals that nearly all of the available land is now being utilized one way or another."

The committee makes the following recommendations to the Chamber's directors for their consideration:

1. In order to approach this matter of annexation intelligently, the need for consultation between the governmental units of Pontiac and Waterford Township is paramount. Therefore, it is suggested the Chamber of Commerce attempt to bring responsible officials and citizens of both communities together to discuss the many facets of the problem in question. Certainly, without a spirit of harmony and willingness to work together by these groups, nothing can be accomplished.

2. At such a meeting, it is suggested the Chamber propose to the respective governmental units that a qualified planning firm be engaged to make an impartial study and assemble facts relative to the costs, needs, benefits or advisability of such consoli-

Graham Sought to Learn Wiring

Denver Paper Claims Suspect of Bomb Plant Asked for Job

DENVER (AP)—John Gilbert Graham, accused of murder in a time-bomb explosion aboard a commercial airliner that carried his mother, was reported today to have worked in an electric shop shortly before the fatal crash.

The Rocky Mountain News said in a copyrighted article that Graham worked six days in October at the Denver shop. The paper said he told his employer he would make more money elsewhere but wanted to learn the trade.

The FBI, meanwhile, was checking a report of a storekeeper at Kremmling, Colo., 105 miles west of Denver, that he is "pretty sure" a man he sold 20 sticks of dynamite to Oct. 29 was Graham.

Graham, father of two children, is charged with murder in the death of his mother, Mrs. Daisie King, 54. She and 43 others were killed in the United Air Lines plane crash near Longmont, Colo., Nov. 1.

Graham, who has denied the act, was visited for a second time in jail last night by his wife, Gloria, who told reporters:

"I'll believe he's innocent as long as he's not proven guilty."

Mrs. Graham, 22, in response to a reporter's question, said she would remain loyal to Graham, "as every wife should be toward her husband."

Lapeer Woman Held for Murder

Bride of 3 Months Cited for Shooting Mate After Hassle Over Drinking

LAPEER (AP)—Mrs. Grace Tverstol, 29, a bride of less than three months, was held today in the shotgun slaying of her husband, Glendon, 35, at nearby Otter Lake yesterday.

Undersheriff William J. Porter said a first-degree murder warrant would be asked against her.

Porter said the shooting climaxed a family quarrel involving Mrs. Tverstol's 11-year-old son by a previous marriage, religion and Tverstol's drinking.

It erupted, the undersheriff said, when Mrs. Tverstol called her son, Donald Lince, to come and clean up and dress for church. At the time he was helping his stepfather clean the basement.

Donald, his 10-year-old sister, Judy, and Mrs. Tverstol were to make formal statements to Prosecutor George E. Lutz today. Mrs. Tverstol was held in Lapeer County jail.

Porter said Mrs. Tverstol threatened at one point in the argument to kill her husband, whereupon he went to a bedroom and got a 20-gauge shotgun. After supposedly unloading the gun and putting the shells in his pocket, Porter said Tverstol walked into another room, handed the gun to his wife and dared her to shoot. She did, the undersheriff said, the hammer banging on a shell overlooked in the chamber.

Tverstol was employed by a Detroit construction firm on a project at Grand Blanc outside Flint.

Ike Will Speak First to National Security Council

Two-Day Conference to Deal With Foreign and Domestic Policy

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (INS) —President Eisenhower briskly tackled a load of desk work today as a warm-up for conferences with his top advisers on foreign policy and domestic issues.

The Chief Executive drove to his Gettysburg office shortly before 10 a.m. (EST) to handle correspondence and other matters before going to Camp David for a 2:30 p. m. session with the National Security Council.

Eisenhower will spend two days at the closely-guarded Presidential retreat in the Catoctin Mountains, 25 miles from his farm. His schedule calls for the most intensive activity permitted him since his Sept. 24 heart attack.

The President's mood matched today's bright, crisp weather. He gave newsmen a cheery "good morning" as he strode into his downtown headquarters in the Gettysburg post office building.

The Chief Executive meets with his Cabinet at 9 a.m. tomorrow. The Camp David sessions will give the President his first opportunity to preside over National Security Council and Cabinet meetings since he left Washington Aug. 14 for his Colorado vacation.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Eisenhower decided to go to Washington while the President is at Camp David. She left by auto at 9:15 a.m. EST for the drive to the White House.

Both she and the President are expected to return to the farm sometime Tuesday.

Presidential News Secretary James Hagerty said the President "got a good night's sleep of more than eight hours" last night.

The Chief Executive sat on his glass-enclosed front porch after breakfast, talking with staff members, before motoring to the office.

He was to leave for the Catoctin lodge after lunch at 1:30 p.m. EST with Allan Dulles, director of Central Intelligence, and Col. Andrew Goodpaster, secretary of the Security Council.

Dulles flew to Gettysburg this morning to brief the President on global intelligence during the drive to the NSC meeting.

The President and several guests will stay overnight in the President's lodge at Camp David.

Let's Help Save More Lives

Mark December First! It's Safe Driving Day

WASHINGTON (AP)—The second annual campaign to promote traffic safety throughout the nation started today.

* * *

The campaign, involving a tally of all traffic deaths during the next three weeks, features S-D Day—Safe Driving Day—on Dec. 1.

But Vice President Nixon, urging all citizens to drive safely "365 days of the year," said S-D Day "does not mean that we try to drive safely that day alone."

"It should mean to all of us," he said in a statement yesterday, "that we will not only avoid accidents on that day, but that we will try to avoid them every day."

* * *

The success of S-D Day will be measured by comparing traffic fatalities that day as compared to the 81 on the corresponding day in 1954 and for the comparable three weeks last year when 2,144 lost their lives.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dwight David Eisenhower II, grandson of the President, has been used as a model to illustrate a poster in connection with the nationwide observance of Safe Driving Day Dec. 1.

Copies of the drawing, distributed by the Ohio Highway Safety Department, were sent to 419 television stations throughout the country, said U. C. Felty, department head.

The poster shows young Dwight seated in a soap box "auto." He's saying, "Grampa says we should make EVERY day Safe Driving Day."

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Indiana's traffic death toll, which reached 1,000 on safe driving day last year, appears certain to pass that figure sooner this year, even though S-D Day is two weeks earlier.

* * *

Eight deaths during the weekend—including two in an intersection crash and three at railroad crossings—brought the unofficial total for the year to 995.

Patrolman Hits Teen Vice Probe

'No Cause for Alarm,' Officer Delbert Hunt Says in Letter

Oakdale Gardens Patrolman Delbert Hunt, in a letter to a Detroit newspaper, today said there is "no cause for alarm" at alleged juvenile vice activity in Royal Oak Township.

Hunt, who said the one and one-half square mile township is "an economic jungle, not a vice jungle," quoted the negative findings of the 1952 Grand Jury probe into alleged corruption there.

He called the police department "capable, but inadequate," and claimed "less delinquency and vice than similar low-income and densely populated areas."

Lt. William Ware, acting chief of police in Oakdale Gardens, said he had no comment on Hunt's letter.

Widespread press interest in the Oakdale Gardens housing project developed last week when police disclosed a formal statement from an unidentified high school student charging that organized gangs were making the project a juvenile "vice jungle."

Police, said to have been skeptical of the youth's statement, allegedly were convinced of its reliability when he accurately predicted a burglary attempt Nov. 1.

Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem has announced he is investigating the charges.

Search Intensified for Missing Detroiter

DETROIT (AP) — A statewide hunt was on today for David W. Velandra, 26, feared the victim of a savage attack by robbers.

Valandra left his home in Warren Township Friday night "to close a deal" on a car.

His wife, Doris, 27, said he had about $300 with him and expected to get another $200 for his car.

* * *

The vehicle was found Sunday in Hazel Park. A six-inch section of lead pipe was on the rear floor. Velandra's horn-rimmed glasses, snapped at the bridge and with one lens smashed, were found on the front seat.

Police said spots which appeared to be blood were found in the vehicle.

Velandra is assistant manager of a suburban finance company.

Grand Jury Awaits Ann Woodward Talk

NEW YORK (INS)—Ann Woodward is scheduled for release today from Doctors Hospital in New York where she has been hospitalized since Oct. 30 when she killed her wealthy socialite-sportsman husband.

* * *

The blonde mother of two young sons is expected to appear later in the week before a Nassau County grand jury probing the death of William Woodward Jr. at his plush Long Island estate.

Mrs. Woodward told police she fired two shotgun blasts at her husband when she mistook him for a prowler.

Her attorney said she would leave the hospital "via the front door, like any other patient," and not try to avoid newsmen and photographers.

* * *

Mrs. Woodward's physician, Dr. John M. Pruttig, said his patient "is a bit nervous about going home," but he added that "any patient would be after a stay in the hospital."

Believe Tongay Will Surrender

Jailbreaker Informs His Close Friend of Plans to Return to Prison

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Police say they have indirect information that Russell Tongay, swimming instructor who escaped a week ago from a Florida state prison agent, plans to surrender here today.

Police here said Florida authorities notified them that Tongay twice telephoned a friend in Florida yesterday and said on the second call he planned to surrender to Los Angeles police, accompanied by a lawyer.

CONVICTED IN TRIAL

Tongay was convicted of manslaughter in the death of his "Aquatot" daughter Kathy, 5, who was fatally injured in a 33-foot exhibition dive. He was sentenced to 10 years in prison.

Florida authorities asked Los Angeles police to search for Tongay. They said he telephoned William Burrell Jr. at Coral Gables, Fla., saying he was in Los Angeles to obtain medical care.

* * *

Tongay told his friend to call the Florida governor and ask permission for him to stay here for treatment, the Florida officials told police here. Miami authorities said he may be using the name Tom Gay.

Nonstrikers' Homes Ripped by Gun Blasts

NEW CASTLE, Ind. (AP) — Two nonstrikers in the Perfect Circle Corp. piston ring foundry, scene of a riot Oct. 5, reported shotgun blasts were fired into windows of their homes early today.

* * *

Gerald Harvey, a foundry supervisor, said two blasts were fired through a picture window in his home in nearby Sulphur Springs about half an hour after a blast broke a window in Herbert Owens' home near New Castle. No one was hurt in either incident.

* * *

The reports were announced by Chesley Juday, a foundry manager.

Nonstrikers went to work without incident as the CIO United Auto Workers continued to restrict the number of pickets to five, the limit set in an Aug. 1 injunction.

7 Midshipmen Decorate Signs at West Point

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—Seven Annapolis midshipmen invaded West Point this weekend to let the cadets know how they felt about next Saturday's Army-Navy football game.

Early yesterday the Middies painted "Beat Army" in big red letters on the West Point skating rink and on the walls of Michie Stadium.

* * *

On fortress walls over the Hudson River a "Beat Navy" neon sign was altered to read "Beat A".

Army precautions to protect their mascot mule thwarted the midshipmen's principal advance objective. The animal, they later reported, was kept in a locked pen inside a locked barn, with two guards stationed beside the pen.

* * *

The midshipmen were on weekend leave and dressed in civilian clothes. They reported they entered the academy grounds around 2 a.m. and avoided detection by numerous Army guards during a two-hour stay there.

After a long silence on the matter, a West Point spokesman commented: "Anyone in civilian clothes could have come in. This is an open post. If they had been in uniform it would have been different."

3. In addition to the above recommendations, it is our feeling that the Pontiac Planning Commission should study other areas adjacent to the city. Only in this way can so-called "wart" annexation requests, such as recently occurred, be handled properly by our City Commission.

The Chamber's Annexation Advisory Committee consists of: Howard L. Canfield, Milo J. Cross, William B. Hartman, William H. Knudsen, Edward J. Novak, Louis H. Schimmel, Robert J. St. Clair and James F. Spence.

"Let me go on record for the committee in stating that we will be very happy to assist in every way possible on the matter under discussion," said President Norvell.

Red Chief Urges India Progress

Khrushchev Advises Youngsters to Prepare for Real Independence

NEW DELHI (INS) — The outspoken first secretary of the Russian Communist Party advised Indian youth today that if they wanted real independence they should prepare themselves for the quick development of their nation.

Balding Nikita S. Khruschev found a ready audience for his words at a boy and girl scout rally held to honor him and Soviet Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin.

The seemingly tireless Ukrainian party chief declared that a large country like India with a vast population could meet its needs only by the mechanization of agriculture and industrialization.

Khrushchev told the gathering of young people that independence could be defended not only by arms but also by economic strength.

It was the second day running that the visiting Russian party leader had referred to the necessity of India's developing her economy.

* * *

Khrushchev also expressed the hope that Soviet-Indian friendship would last forever. He added that the present friendly relations had been established on firm foundations "by Indian's great leader Nehru."

Council Seeks Youth Groups at Meetings

The Greater Pontiac Advisory Council desires to get a list of all youth groups in the Pontiac area which would like to be represented in the deliberations of the council.

Elected representatives of these youth groups will be ex-officio members of the council's executive committee.

Any group interested in participating is urged to notify Mrs. Forrest Brown, 101 Osceola, of the name of its representative. When the list of representatives is complete, they will be called together and will then elect the representatives who will serve as ex-officio members of the executive committee.

'Girls Just Having Fun,' but They Weren't Funny

WINNETKA, Ill. (AP)—What two young girls "thought was real fun" turned into an extended nightmare for a middle-aged couple in this exclusive North Shore suburb of Chicago.

* * *

For nearly four months, the telephone had been an instrument of torture of Maurice R. Franks, 56, and his wife, Violet, 47.

There were seven to 10 anonymous calls a day. Once there were 30.

Sometimes the callers, who sounded like women, wound hang up. Other times they would tell Franks or his wife of a delivery being made to their home.

THE DELIVERIES

Once Franks came home to find a load of sand. Another time, a load of gravel.

A truck rolled up with 80 folding chairs; another arrived with 350 cement patio slabs.

A rug cleaner's truck arrived to take away the Franks' rugs for an unordered cleaning. At 7 o'clock one morning, a piano tuner showed up to tune the family piano.

* * *

To add to the family woes, Mrs. Franks was bedridden most of the time with a spinal injury. When her husband and son, Maurice Jr., 13, were not home, she got up laboriously from bed to answer the calls.

A month ago, the callers threatened, Franks said, that they would "grab the boy." Franks started escorting his son to and from school.

* * *

Finally he reported the calls to the telephone company. A round-the-clock tap was put on the Franks' phone.

Most calls were too short to be traced. But Friday, one of the mystery callers talked to Mrs. Franks for 22 minutes.

The call was traced to another Winnetka home. Police took into custody Saturday a 12-year-old girl.

* * *

Lt. Frank Birkenheier said she admitted making the calls and implicated another girl, age 13.

The girls, whose names were not disclosed, were questioned and released to their parents without formal charge. A hearing is scheduled Friday.

"We did it just as a prank," Lt. Birkenheier quoted them as saying. "We didn't have anything against Mr. Franks. We just picked him at random.

"We thought it was real fun."

Holly Youth Injured as Auto Rolls Over

Robert Letson, 15, of Holly, who was injured slightly Sunday when his car rolled over on Grange Hall Road near Fagon Road, was issued a ticket for traffic violation by Sheriffs' deputies who arrived at the scene.

* * *

They said Letson was driving without a license, and going excessively fast.

Agreement Averts Possible Walkout

A walkout was averted late Saturday evening at the Fisher Body Division plant here when management and officials of Fisher Body Local 596 (UAW-CIO) reached agreement on a matter of speedup cases and related issues.

William McAulay, Regional Director of the UAW-CIO, said today that the threatened walkout was averted when members of Local 596 met yesterday and ratified agreements that management and local officials had agreed to Saturday.

The weekend meetings concluded more than seven days of bargaining during which the local requested that the union's international executive board authorize a strike.

Some pasture soils are generally poorer because they are too acid for the best growth of pasture legumes or the better pasture grasses. Their improvement usually requires lime.

Hal Boyle Says:

Pussy Cats Can Now Rely on Horoscopes

NEW YORK (AP)—Astrology has reached its peak at last.

It has gone feline. They now have a book out on how your cat, too, is controlled by the stars.

* * *

The book is called "Horoscopes for Pussy Cats," and the author is Bootsie Campbell.

A note about the author says:

"At the moment she is stretched out on sunny window, tail curled around, contented and delighted with everything and everyone! She is very special."

What makes her so special? A publisher friend of mine says this would describe any author he has ever known.

I am glad to see this book on astrology for cats published.

For years I suffered from an allergy to cats, which, happily, I was able to conquer. For many more years, however, I have suffered from an allergy to people who believe in astrology. This allergy, fight it though I try, I can do nothing about.

Even the dictionary defines astrology as a "pseudo science," and the dictionary usually has a nice word for everything. The idea that people actually believe events on earth are controlled by the position of the stars and planets thoroughly depresses me with the future of the human race.

People who believe in astrology I cannot help but classify with those who have a blind confidence that picking up a toad will give them warts and that if they leave a horse's hair in a bottle of water for six weeks it will turn into a snake.

Recently I picked up a Cleveland paper and was astounded to note it estimated that 50,000 people in the area read astrology publications regularly. For days I've pondered what to do to save them from themselves. Is there no philanthropic society willing to float propaganda balloons into Cleveland and tell these lost 50,000 souls about how wonderful life is in the outside world?

Paganism is at least worth philosophic consideration, but astrology—never! For humans, that is.

A cat shouldn't find it too hard to believe in astrology. After all, a cat doesn't believe in people, so it has to believe in something.

The volume at hand, "Horoscopes for Pussy Cats," offers this sound warning to cats born under the sign of Aries, from March 21 to April 19:

"You are susceptible to headaches and weakness of the kidneys. Don't eat too much catnip or you may suffer from a hangover. Take more milk."

Group OKs New Layoff Pay Plan

Pact Based on Separate Fund for Each Worker; Differs With UAW Idea

NEW YORK (AP)—A layoff pay plan differing in two major respects from that agreed to by the CIO United Auto Workers and the automotive firms has been approved by the National Assn. of Manufacturers.

The NAM-approved plan already is in use by two large glass manufacturers. It is based on an individual fund for each worker and has nothing to do with state unemployment compensation.

The plan negotiated by the union with the auto industry provides for a pooled fund tied in with state jobless pay benefits. The NAM is opposed to the UAW plan.

The NAM-approved plan provides for an employer-individual savings account for each worker, to be drawn on in periods of sickness or layoff. The money would be earmarked for a particular worker and would belong to him if he left the company.

Because it is divorced from state unemployment payments and is not a pooled fund, the NAM said yesterday, "if a laid-off employe uses his plan to stay out of work longer than is necessary, he will be using money he otherwise could keep for himself."

The NAM contended its approved plan also would strengthen the feeling that each worker has a personal responsibility to help safeguard his own financial security.

* * *

Such a plan as that approved by the NAM is in effect between the United Glass and Ceramic Workers (CIO) and the Pittsburgh Plate Glass and Libby-Owens-Ford companies. It calls for a company contribution of five cents an hour for each employe, as does the UAW plan.

MSU Labor Relations Office OK'd by Board

EAST LANSING (AP)—The State Board of Agriculture has approved the establishment of a labor and industrial relations center at Michigan State University. The board is the university's governing body.

Dr. Charles C. Killingsworth, 38, head of the MSU Economics Department and a former chairman of the Wage Stabilization Board, was named director of the center. Board approval and the appointment of Killingsworth was made Saturday.

The center will coordinate services relating to labor and industry and research in that field now being carried on at Michigan State.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Police today questioned an aircraft worker in connection with the death of a 21-year-old Indian girl who tumbled from an eighth-floor hotel window.

Detective William Garn said the girl was Dolores Birdtail, who lived at an unidentified Indian reservation in Montana.

• • •

Garn arrested James G. Warlick, 27, of Tulsa, Okla., and booked him on suspicion of murder. Garn said Warlick told conflicting stories of the incident and had scratches on his chest and neck.

Bombay Erupts in Pitched Battle

4 Killed, 225 Wounded, 1,000 Jailed as Indians Oppose Nehru Plan

BOMBAY, India (AP) — Bombay seethed in the grip of a pitched battle between armed police and stone - throwing demonstrators today. Four persons were reported killed, at least 225 wounded and over 1,000 rioters were arrested.

• • •

It was the second successive day of violence touched off by Marathi - speaking Indians with Communist and Socialist backing protesting Prime Minister Nehru's decision to create a separate Bombay city state out of the big west coast port.

More than 100 persons were injured in rioting yesterday.

Gangs milled through the streets stoning buses and trains, barricading main streets with huge boulders and setting fire to buses. The violence exceeded that in last August's anti-Portuguese riots in Bombay.

Police and home guard forces first wilted under a barrage of stones, then raised their rifles and fired at the Communist-led demonstrators trying to reach the state legislature building.

• • •

The crowds set fire to three buses and showered passing traffic with rocks. They attacked firemen called to fight the fires.

Ambulances made their way through the littered streets picking up persons injured by stones and flying glass.

The battle started after 200,000 textile workers answered a strike call and moved out into the streets.

6 Die When Train Rams Car in Illinois

FORRESTON, Ill. (AP)—A passenger train collided yesterday with an auto, killing the car's six occupants and scattering wreckage 2,800 feet along the wayside.

State Trooper Gordon Savage quoted Wm. G. Lewis, engineer of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific Railroad train, as saying he was traveling between 75 and 80 miles per hour at the time of the collision. No train passengers were reported injured.

Savage said visibility was good and the signal device was working at the crossing north of this northwestern Illinois town.

The victims were all residents of Orangeville.

Car Part Maker Hits GM Policy

Armature Firm Head Claims 'High Pressure' Sales Tactics Are Used

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Boston manufacturer told Senate investigators today that General Motors Corp. is providing "almost insurmountable" competition for small firms engaged in rebuilding auto generators.

• • •

Albert S. Holzwasser, president of Arrow Armatures Co., Boston, assailed the marketing policies of United Motor Service, a GM parts distributing subsidiary. His testimony was prepared for the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee, which is holding public hearings on General Motors operations.

Holzwasser said his firm sells rebuilt generators to wholesalers for substantially less than United Motor Service — $6.95 compared with $8.95.

"But," he added, "we have a hard time outselling them and in some cases keeping long-established customers to continue to buy from us."

• • •

Holzwasser accused United Motor of using high-pressure tactics. He said a United Motor salesman told one Arrow customer in Massachusetts, "You have two lines of armatures on your shelf . . . What will it be, Arrow or Delco-Remy?" Delco-Remy products are manufactured by a GM subsidiary.

Another witness was Harold T. Halfpenny of Chicago, counsel for the National Standard Parts Assn., a trade organization of independent manufacturers and wholesalers of auto parts and supplies.

• • •

In his prepared testimony, Halfpenny said "there has been no appreciable change in General Motors' pricing" on highly competitive replacement auto parts. But he said "GM has substantially increased its list and net prices" for items not subject to great competition.

Red Arms Purchasing Denied by Saudi Arabia

A communique from the Middle Eastern kingdom's information department denied specifically reports that (1) King Saud had sought a meeting with Soviet representatives to discuss an arms deal, (2) the Arabian government is sending a delegation to visit Czechoslovakian arms factories, and (3) Soviet President Klementi Voroshilov offered arms in his message congratulating King Saud on the anniversary of his accession.

State Police Expansion Creates 200 Good Jobs

Following Legislative action approving expansion of our State Police force, its officers now are waging a Michigan wide recruiting campaign.

Commissioner Childs plans to use most of the 200 recruits for highway patrol duty. He also plans to concentrate patrols on the most dangerous stretches of highways such as Telegraph Road from Detroit to the Ohio line, sections of U. S. 16 and U. S. 12.

This program creates attractive job opportunities for 200 young men who can meet State Police requirements and will expand the force to more than 900 men. Applicants must be in the 21 to 29 age bracket, 5 feet 9 inches to 6 feet 4 inches tall with weight in proper proportion—at least 150 pounds.

Educational requirements are a high school diploma or its equivalent. Starting pay is $152 every two weeks. The maximum for a trooper is $190 and can be reached in four years.

★ ★ ★

Applicants from this area should apply at the Pontiac Post, 2905 Dixie Highway. Sgt. Charles Mulick, who is in charge, points out the advantages of a State Police career. Besides excellent pay, free uniforms, subsistence allowances, paid vacations and a 25 year retirement pension plan, State Troopers never are laid off. Not only do they have steady and interesting work, but they perform a service of vital importance to the people of Michigan.

Acreage Control Fails to Cut Cotton Surplus

For a perfect example of why surpluses are driving farm experts crazy, consider cotton.

Last year agriculture's planners figured that if cotton farmers planted only 18,183,000 acres they would produce 10,000,000 bales of 500 pounds each in 1955. That is just about the annual consumption and it made the plan look fine on paper. It looked even better when farmers planted only 16,514,000 acres to cotton.

However, things didn't work out as the experts planned. The farmers took their poorest acres out of production and concentrated fertilizer and weed and insect control on their best acres. As a result the Department of Agriculture says:

"Nearly as much cotton is being produced this year on 16,514,000 acres as in 1951 or 1952 when the acreage was at about the 25,500,000 level. Yields per acre are hitting the two bale mark in many areas where a bale per acre once was the long time goal."

This raises that very important question. What will be the next step in the Government's efforts to solve the cotton surplus problem? It had been planned to cut acreage further to 17,391,000 for 1956. But that is more than was planted this year.

There is nothing to suggest that reduction of the cotton price support level from 90 to 80 per cent of parity would be effective. Farmers merely would fertilize more to maintain their income levels.

In other words, no political solution has worked so far. This suggests that henceforth the search for a real remedy should be bipartisan.

Uncle Mat says a woman's club is a place where they knock after they enter.

State Crops Set Records

Whatever is lacking pricewise, Michigan 1955 farm crops generally are both ample and of high quality.

This is the burden of a report just issued by the Federal-State crop reporting service. It highlights the noteworthy fact that this year's corn crop of 90,000,000 bushels set an all time high record.

It also was noted that high yields in most of the southern and eastern counties more than offset severe drought damage in the north and west central parts of the Lower Peninsula. Average of all field crops was one per cent above last year and nine per cent above the 10 year average.

One of the surprises in the report was the potato crop of 8,270,000 bushels. This is the smallest production since 1887. Despite the Spring freeze, the fruit crop was only one-eighth below average. But the apple crop of 6,400,000 bushels was seven per cent above last year.

Good Fall weather permitted a field bean crop estimated at 30 per cent above last year and the largest since 1949. A record crop of soy beans was reported and the estimated yield of 23 bushels per acre was second highest on record.

Sugar beet production averaged 14 tons to the acre, or two tons above last year's record crop. Total tonnage was nine per cent above last year and one-third greater than average.

★ ★ ★

These facts do more than prove that Michigan farmers rank among the Nation's best. They explain why agriculture ranks second only to the automobile industry as one of the State's three greatest sources of income.

The Man About Town

Auto Takes Toll

Rail Passenger Business Drops to a Very Low Figure

Money: What may not keep you at the top, but makes things more comfortable at the bottom.

When the Pontiac, Oxford and Port Austin Railway was built around two-thirds of a century ago it did a good passenger business over its entire 100 miles. But the auto age has taken its toll, in spite of the fact that the entire area served has shown a remarkable growth.

The Grand Trunk Western, which has owned it for many years, now seeks to abandon all passenger service. Its single passenger car in each direction during 20 months has carried an average of less than one passenger on each of the 377 trips made. The total cost of operating that car during that time, the owners assert, has been $8,266.32, and the total ticket revenue has been only $131.82.

The G. T. W. also wants to abandon passenger service on its line between Pontiac and Richmond, which has cost $5,169 and brought a revenue of only $162.56 during the same period. This is the former Michigan Air Line between Jackson and Richmond via Pontiac. Passenger service between Pontiac and Jackson was discontinued several years ago.

Second Battle of Gettysburg

David Lawrence Says:

Russia Now Faces a Dangerous Choice —Internal Unrest or German Unification

WASHINGTON — The "Four-Power Conference" is, in effect, still going on. The address by Secretary Dulles delivered on his return is an integral part of current negotiations. Words spoken now could become the basis for a four-power agreement in a few months.

* * *

There is no rule in diplomacy which says negotiations must be carried on only by foreign ministers in personal conferences. A direct appeal to the public opinion characterized as "The Propaganda Battle," is in some respects more powerful than what is said in face-to-face conversations.

Every word of Dulles' speech will be re-examined many times by the Soviet. The Soviet government cannot ignore the effective points made by Secretary Dulles.

There is reason to believe the Soviet went to the second Geneva conference under a complete misapprehension which now, fortunately, has been dispelled. The Kremlin thought the smiles at the first Geneva conference meant the West was willing to make peace at any price and that the Western Allies would not stick together. In a sense, the second Geneva conference was a testing-out of the solidarity of the Allies. The key paragraph in the Dulles address was the following:

'OUR PARTIES ARE UNITED'

"It would have been easy to make some apparent agreements with the Soviet Union—but they would have been without real content. They would have given an illusion of a meeting of minds, where none in fact existed. The three Western powers stood steadfastly against that kind of performance. In doing so, they showed their confidence in their own strength and in the steadfastness of their own people. Thereby, this conference may have improved the prospects for real agreements in the future."

Translated into political realities in the United States, this is how it might have read:

"Don't be misled, Molotov. The Democrats in our country are not forcing us into a peace-at-any-price position. Neither Stevenson, nor Harriman, nor Kefauver is going to attack the Republicans and blame them for failure at Geneva. If they did, our public opinion would not support them. Our political parties are united as never before in seeking a real peace in Europe, and you are blocking it. You can't stand on that position very long, so you might as well come to an agreement with us."

As for Britain and France, their foreign ministers also might have said privately the same thing—that the opposition parties in their respective countries aren't going to make political capital out of a so-called "failure" at Geneva.

* * *

There is nothing new in the points made by Dulles except the significant way he restates them after conference with the Russians.

NO COMPROMISE

The world has been told now that the West is willing to sit with the Soviets and talk things out. It also has been emphasized that readiness to talk, smile and evince a conciliatory spirit does not mean surrender of basic principles for compromise of any kind with evil things.

There is no room for compromise between slavery and freedom—and that's the issue for the peoples still held by force of arms.

How many months or years can Russia prolong World War II and keep the world from achieving peace? How long will the peoples of the countries affected remain passive? The fires of revolution are being kindled, and discontented masses in the satellite states will be the first to fan the flames.

A DANGEROUS CHOICE

There are men in the Soviet who know all this and fear it. Ferment underneath the surface is going on. Suddenly a supposedly loyal army may come to rescue the people, as has happened many times in other areas of the globe when tyranny and oppression have run their course.

Russia faces a dangerous choice between inaction—which means internal trouble — and making some sort of agreement with the West that will give back to the West German people their East German kinsmen under a single government and bring some basis for the recovery of their independence by the satellite nations.

It is an inexorable cycle that lies ahead. A third Geneva conference may find the Kremlin more tractable. Certainly the Dulles speech starts a new series of moves designed to convince Moscow that the West will not recede but will insist on a truly peaceful setup in Europe before the much-talked-about "peaceful coexistence" of two different ideological systems can really begin.

Keep Your Muscles Warm After Vigorous Exercising

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

I don't mind being the butt of banter—but I just can't take it if you are serious about it.

For instance, I have no time and less inclination to try to set this ninnyhammer right. He briefs me on the ailment for which he wants my advice:

"I got it two years ago sitting in the draft from an air conditioner—I moved to the desk ahead, but the damage had been done and I have suffered ever since . . ."

It's no use, my friend, I don't understand your language and you wouldn't understand mine.

Believing, as I do, that no one ever gets any illness or indisposition, or lameness or disability from exposure to cold, dampness, wet, draft, sudden change or insufficient clothing, I can't draw any inference regarding your complaint, except that your H.I.Q. is lower than your G.I.Q.

SORENESS FOR DAYS

I acknowledge that a person who works, plays or exercises vigorously enough to get heated up and then cools off too quickly may suffer muscle soreness and stiffness for days, expecially if he or she is not in training or not accustomed to exercise.

This is a free country, so every one may decide for himself whether liniment, massage, internal remedies, heat or resumption of moderate general exercise before the stiffness develops is the best treatment.

Such muscle soreness or stiffness lasts 24 hours, more or less. Longer if one is in poor physical condition, not so long if one is in good training.

* * *

So, if you please, do not clog my chucker trying to tell me you know from experience that it's just a cold settled in the weakest spot.

IMPLICATION UNWARRANTED

The implication of air conditioning is unwarranted, in my judgment. I have no sympathy with either the customers who ascribe complaints to it or the vendors of air-conditioning appliances who make absurd claims of benefits to health.

There's only one criterion for judging air conditioning. That is, does it make you more comfortable? If so, it is worth the price. If not, then you may as well charge it off as education, just as you did the dish-washing gadget.

From years of experience I learned to say that if application of your favorite liniment makes you feel better, apply it.

But notice, please, I mean the application, not the liniment—that is, rubbing and massage. The liniment lubricates.

'People Will Not Be Good Just Because of the Law'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Judge not that you may be judged. There are times when children will go wrong even though they have good, Christian parents. But not often.

No one seems to have any answers. A person can hardly go through a day without hearing or seeing the answer. It's on the radio, TV, signs and in our church.

A child who has been taken to Sunday school and church from the time he is two years old will rarely go bad. However, it's never too late to start. God doesn't say to wait and let the child choose when he gets of age. He says to bring them up in his ways and they will not depart.

An adult or child will not be good just because of our laws. They must know that we have laws, because God gave them to us. They are all covered by the Ten Commandments. They must realize that even though they are not found out and punished by law or parents, God knows of their wrong deeds and they will have to answer to him some day. The love and fear of God will keep them straight.

Yes, my friend, that is your answer. It's the answer to all the trouble in the world. A Christian knows he is a sinner, but he lives every day to be more perfect in his thoughts, words and deeds. When a Christian does sin, he feels like he is nailing Jesus to the cross again.

Parents, go with your children to church. Read your Bible and live by it. You will soon find that your troubles are few. If your child has friends who don't go to church, take them with you. Your blessings will be great.

GOP-Big Business Tieup Charges Disproved in Poll

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

The practical significance of the subtle campaign to stigmatize President Eisenhower as pro-business has been clarified in a recent public opinion survey.

It will be recalled that James B. Carey, secretary-treasurer of the CIO, charged that under Eisenhower a monopoly of business has controlled the government. This is incorrect because Congress is under the sway of the opposition party. The Administration needs Democratic help to pass issues.

The Supreme Court is dominated by New Deal and Fair Deal appointees.

Carey's attempt to associate Eisenhower with special interests was repeated by Adlai E. Stevenson, in his Duluth speech, when he said:

"The outlook for democratic balance is in danger when any one group gets control of the government. And that is exactly what has happened to us. The industry, money, management group has control of our political apparatus."

What's the pitch? Dr. George Gallup, in testing public opinion, has found only seven per cent of the voters like a "man who usually sides with business," whereas 39 per cent like a "man who usually follows a middle of the road policy."

The public opinion poll indicates the opposition would like to make hay by shifting the Chief Executive from a popular position to one that would win less than one-eighth of the support. Another category, which was more than three times as popular as being a stooge of business, is "a man who usually sides with labor."

Discussing the effort of labor bosses to "purge" Sen. Robert A. Taft, Ohio Republican, prior to the 1950 election, I criticized the attempt in a speech before the Ohio Chamber of Commerce.

If we are to mature as a people, we must grasp the fundamentals of the American system. Ours is a free-choice society, in which customers spend income as they wish; in which workers can select a congenial vocation. But a free-choice society is not a foolproof system. Freedom, of course, includes the right to be wrong.

Accordingly, it would be unthinkable for statesmen to be pro-business or pro-union, as the case may be. It would be just as improper for a judge to always be pro-defendant or pro-prosecuting attorney.

In business, competition, through which the customer expresses his verdict, tends to reward virtue, and punish error. Similarly, there is nothing occult in an association, called a labor union, which prevents it from making slips and errors of judgment.

Within these limitations, it is economic nonsense to be against management per se or against labor per se. Both are indispensable in the national success formula, and the true statesman encourages the various segments to work together harmoniously.

Any attempt to befuddle the citizen and confuse him with Marxian concepts of internal class warfare does a disservice to the well-being of the American economic system, on which the living standards of 42 million domestic families and the peace of the world hinge.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Antics of Pets Illustrate Intelligence Isn't Limited Only to Human Beings

Maybe you native Texans and Californians may doubt the truth of the stories below, but Dr. McCullagh and Mr. Greenlee are honorable men so I believe them completely. I've watched the clever strategy of the five little Cranes around our house, so I know Florida alligators and ducks and gulls must have remarkable I.Q.'s.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Q-301: Gate, aged about 5, is a pet alligator, owned by Dr. William H. McCullagh, a leading psychiatrist of Jacksonville, Florida.

"He is smarter than many people would imagine," Dr. McCullagh informed me as I was visiting him recently.

"Recently he left this little lily pond and headed down the street toward the river. He seemed to know the right direction, too, though he had never seen the river before.

"So we now have this low wire fence around the lily pond to keep him from traveling.

"We feed him ground meat (horseburgers). He will devour them with great delight.

"But he doesn't swallow the last chunk of meat. No, he simply holds it in his mouth. Then he submerges and swims over to the lily pads where he slowly comes to the surface.

"When all gets quiet, he opens his mouth, letting the lower jaw with the meat patty lie just beneath the water's surface.

"Soon a school of minnows will swim into his mouth to feed on the ground meat. Then Gate clamps his jaws shut and swallows the fish."

Dr. McCullagh vouches for the truth of this story, so don't think I am giving you a typical Texan yarn!

And here's another true tale of Florida's creatures. James T. Greenlee, the publisher of my college textbook on psychology, is a native of Chicago but commutes regularly to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

At his home there in Ft. Lauderdale, he has a small lake on which a number of wild ducks live. In fact, the ducks are now fairly tame because people feed them toast and table scraps regularly.

"Donald has become a special pet at our house," Mr. Greenlee recently told me.

* * *

"He comes to the door at breakfast time and pecks on the door or quacks till we feed him.

"And he is smart. If I tell him to back up, he will do so. Then I can toss him bits of toast and he'll catch them in his bill, much as a dog will do.

"But the last piece of toast he will not devour. Instead, he takes it to the water's edge and holds it in the water till soaked crumbs break off.

"Small fish are then attracted to the bread crumbs. So Donald baits them in this manner, for as soon as they are near enough, he gobbles up a mouthful of fish.

"And that isn't the only smart thing about these Florida fowls. I've watched pelicans stand along the water's edge waiting for fish.

* * *

"When one approaches near enough, the pelican will dart its head into the water and catch it.

"But the pelican will then toss the fish into the air in the process of turning it so it can swallow it easily.

And the gulls know this, so they swoop down at the very moment the pelican tosses the fish, and often will snatch it away from the pelican.

"I've actually seen a gull perch on a pelican's back and wait till the big bird snatched a fish out of the water and tossed it upward. Then that gull would beat the pelican to the meal."

I'm not very familiar with Florida fowls, but I do know that when we had five little Cranes at our house here in Chicago they were often pretty foxy, and could hoodwink both Mamma and Papa Crane!

I've told these true stories to illustrate the fact that intelligence is not limited solely to human beings, although we have by far the highest I. Q.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

AMERICA GIVES THANKS—1
The Mayflower Sails for America

Do you know the story of the Pilgrims?

A long time ago a group of people in England wanted to worship in their own way. So 102 of them sailed from Plymouth, England, on Sept. 16, 1620, on a small ship called The "Mayflower."

It was a hard voyage. The ship was crowded, the food poor and the ocean rough. When the voyagers finally sighted Cape Cod on Nov. 19, they were very happy.

A few of the men spent several days in a small boat looking for a good place to settle. On Dec. 21 they picked out a spot they called Plymouth. Five days later the "Mayflower" sailed across the bay and the people landed. They first set foot on this continent somewhere near a big granite boulder, now called Plymouth Rock.

Here are a little Pilgrim boy and girl waiting on the pier at Plymouth, England, to go aboard the "Mayflower."

Color this picture and paste it on cardboard. Fold the base forward. Now the picture will stand up.

TOMORROW: Starting a new life

Royal Oak Company, on American Exchange

DETROIT (AP) — Sherman Products, Inc., of suburban Royal Oak Monday becomes the first Oakland county-based corporation listed on the American Stock Exchange. The corporation will be listed simultaneously on the Detroit Stock Exchange.

W. A. Romain, company president, said 500,000 shares of common stock will be listed. The firm makes and distributes tractor-mounted hydraulic earth moving and excavating equipment.

Of the states that produce iron ore in America, the amount mined in New York is ranked fourth in total volume.

Matrimony Not Part of Natural Resources

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Sam Kirby, director of the Arkansas Publicity and Parks Commission, received a letter a while ago from a girl who wanted to know about the husband situation in this state. He told newsmen about it and the story got around over the country.

Now he's being swamped with letters from far and near from women who want a place on the list of husband seekers—and a few from men who want the women's names.

A woman in Los Angeles wrote "I have one now but I really could use a new one . . . He's over 50 and I'm 23 . . . I cain't cooke good, but I'm good in other things." A girl in Oklahoma City described herself as "pretty if not in a bright light."

Kriby is answering none because his job is to publicize the state's natural resources and "that doesn't include matrimony."

Argus Names Executive

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Appointment of Joseph H. Detweilder, 35, as vice president and treasurer of Argus Cameras, Inc., was announced Saturday by the company's board of directors. Detweiler has been secretary and treasurer. Martin B. Breighner, 30, succeeds Detweiler as secretary. He has been assistant secretary and legal assistant.

OJAI, Calif. (AP)—L. W. Trimmer went digging in his garden and hit a bomb. Fortunately his shovel didnt touch the triggering device of the 20-inch naval practice explosive. Police theorized that the bomb had fallen from a plane and embedded itself in the earth. A demolition squad removed it.

Red Official Criticizes Ornamented Stations

MOSCOW (AP) — The illustrated magazine Ogonyok says Moscow's lavish subway stations—a major tourist showpiece—are too ornate.

An article by V. F. Promislov, first deputy chairman of the Moscow Soviet's Executive Committee, said the stations contain too much sculpture, bas-relief, panels and mosaics.

His criticism followed recent government and Communist party attacks on over-ornamentation and wastefulness by Soviet architects and builders.

1-Teacher Rural Schools Down 737 Since 1930

WASHINGTON (AP)—The committee for the forthcoming White House conference on education said today one-teacher schoolhouses have declined 73.7 per cent in the last 25 years.

* * *

But despite the drop, the committee said, the nation's school district system is still organized along rural lines.

The committee said the nation now has 39,061 one-teacher schools compared with 148,711 in the 1929-30 school year.

The number of school districts has also declined—from 127,530 in 1931-32 to 59,270 during the 1954-55 period, the committee said.

* * *

Of the remaining districts, the committee said, 7,674 operate no schools at the present time, and in the 51,596 that do operate schools, 37,871 have fewer than 10 teachers. Only 6,679 have as many as 40 teachers.

Lists Cooperative Farms

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China reported today it now has 1,240,000 cooperative farms, 590,000 of them created in "the past three months or so." A Peiping broadcast said, "It is likely the over-all target of 1,300,000 cooperative farms by spring sowing next year will be exceeded."

Bob Considine Says:

Thousands of U.S. Taxpayers Denied Vote

CHICAGO (INS) — Some of the most anguished breast-beating over the controlled voting system behind the Iron Curtain comes out of Washington, D.C., where hundreds of thousands of tax-paying Americans are not even permitted to vote "ya" for the men who control their affairs locally and nationally.

* * *

The citizens of Moscow, Warsaw, Budapest, Prague, Bucharest, etc., have more liberty in this respect than the citizens of the Capital of the free world. Next May 1 he may briefly make his wishes known in the first official primary ever held in Washington, and six of his number may cast a vote as delegates to the national convention.

But no native of the district may vote next November, when millions of free Americans march to the polls. Not even the District of Columbia national committeemen who helped the nominees get nominated can vote for them.

Melvin D. Hildreth, Democratic national committeeman from the district, gave us a sad little fill-in today. He started 99 years back.

"In 1856 the district sent an uninvited delegation to the Baltimore convention that nominated James Buchanan," he said. "The convention didn't know what to do with the delegation, so they put it up in a balcony. In 1892 the district tried again at the convention that nominated Grover Cleveland and Adlai Stevenson Sr. That time, two of our delegates were seated.

"We had no organization. We met in fire houses and such places and sent two rival groups to the Bryan convention of 1908. That convention gave each faction three seats. Not long after that the big parties each gave us six delegates.

"That's not many, but we've made our mark. In 1940 when it looked like Wm. B. Bankhead might slip in there as vice president even though the president wanted Henry Wallace, Jimmy Byrnes came to us and said that if we voted for Wallace he'd bring it to the personal attention of Roosevelt and help us get the vote for the district. Well, we voted for Wallace, and Byrnes called, but he forgot to mention what we had done."

IKE VETOED BILL

Eisenhower vetoed the first bill that would give Washington a primary but approved the second one presented to him. It provides that persons who want to indicate a preference for this or that candidate register next month for the May 1 test. A registrant must have lived in the district for at least a year. If he comes from another section of the country he may vote in the district primary and then vote by absentee ballot in his own bailiwick. But the bona fide native of Washington may not.

"We feel that we gave Ohio to Truman in 1948," Hildreth said proudly. "He won by 7,000 votes out of 3,000,000. And a later checkup showed that he got 7,000 absentee votes from Washington.

"We got in trouble with the vote in Washington when Douglas asked Lincoln in one of their debates, 'Say, what about slavery right there in Washington?' There was a slave market on Pennsylvania avenue, around Sxith street. Well, Lincoln said, 'Leave that to the qualified voters.' I'm not sure of the connection, but this was later used as one of the reasons why we shouldn't even be allowed to elect a mayor. Congress elects our local officials, as you know.

* * *

The embattled little we-want-the-vote groups in Washington held an unofficial primary in 1952 which attracted Estes Kefauver, Averell Harriman and 25,000 voters, none of whom had to register or prove he was not a repeater. Harriman won.

SENATE APPROVES

The Senate has approved full voting privileges for Washington, but the bill is being held up in the House. Hildreth doesn't go along with an opinion in Washington that if the vote goes through the district will be represented by a colored mayor and congressman.

* * *

"Colored voters are no more regimented than any other type of voters," he said. "They'll vote as they please. The important thing is that a city of about a million people is disenfranchised and has been for generations, though we pay taxes and in the case of the Democratic committee in the district we always oversubscribed our contribution to the national committee."

Red Chinese Urge U.N. to Act on Seats

TOKYO (AP)—The Peiping propaganda radio said today Communist China supports a resolution sponsored by Canada in the United Nations that would grant U. N. membership to 18 nations.

* * *

The nations include five Communist satellites—Romania, Hungary, Bulgaria, Albania and Outer Mongolia. The United States opposes all, but has said it would not vote against any.

* * *

The Soviets are demanding that all five be admitted.

The broadcast did not mention Red China's own hopes for a U.N. seat.

Jap Cabinet, Prime Minister Await Reshuffle

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's Prime Minister Ichiro Hatoyama resigned today along with his 16-member Cabinet. But he's expected to be back in office tomorrow.

The 72-year-old Premier stepped down to pave the way for a reshuffling of the Cabinet. The new members will be chosen from the new Liberal - Democratic party, formed last week by the merger of Japan's two big conservative parties, the Liberals and the Democrats.

Hatoyama, certain to be renamed prime minister at tomorrow's Diet (Parliament) session, is expected to name nine members of his old Democratic party and seven members of former Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida's Liberal party to the Cabinet. Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu, strongly pro-American, is expected to retain his office.

Chartreuse Puppy Born to Chicago Dog

CHICAGO (INS) — Queenie, a Chicago bird dog, doesn't observe any color bar.

There was nothing unusual about the color combination of Queenie's first six pups — they followed her pattern of black, white and brown.

But the seventh — it turned out a bright chartreuse.

However, color apparently makes no difference to the new mother.

John Bednarczyk, Queenie's owner, says she showers as much affection on the little light green pup as on those of more normal colors.

Cleric Removed From the Pulpit in Mississippi

DURANT, Miss. (AP)—A member of the Board of Deacons of Durchurch said a "personality clash" and not segregation issues prompted the board to ask that the church's minister be fired.

* * *

The breach between the board and the Rev. Marsh Callaway widened when 43 of the 45 adult members of the church met yesterday and voted unanimously to ask the Central Presbytery of Mississippi to remove the 60-year-old minister.

* * *

The situation came to a head at a recent meeting in Tchula when white men accused Dr. David Minter and A. E. Cox, operators of a cooperative farm in Holmes County, of advocating racial integration.

The Rev. Mr. Callaway reportedly "broke the camel's back" when he defended Minter and Cox at the Tchula meeting.

* * *

Calvin King, an attorney and member of the church's Board of Deacons, said, "The members of this church are very conservative people. They have just resented several times that Rev. Callaway has gotten involved in politics."

British Train Wreck Kills 10, Injures 100

MILTON, England (AP)—At least 10 persons were dead today and more than 100 injured after derailment of a Wales-to-London excursion train.

* * *

A search crew of more than 500 pulled the wreckage apart throughout the night, finding the bodies of nine women and one man.

Inside one of the three smashed coaches the searchers found an unidentified baby girl, only 6 or 8 weeks old. She had escaped with cuts on her head and chin.

More than 30 of the injured were in critical condition.

* * *

The train was carrying 290 excursionists from cities in south Wales, bound for an outing in London. The engine and three of the nine coaches left the rails and toppled down a 20-foot embankment after passing a switch. The 150-ton locomotive rolled over on the first coach, crushing it.

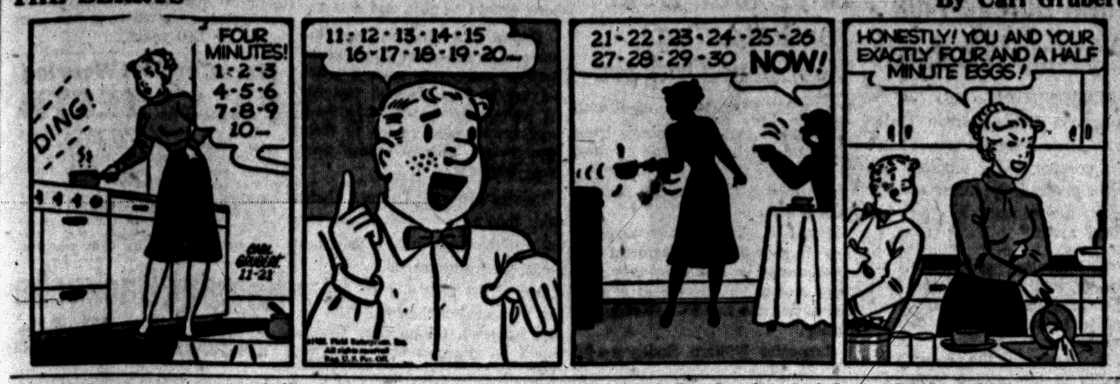
THE BERRYS By Carl Grubert



Good Lord's Acres to Provide Harvests

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Twenty men swarmed into the Lord's Acre —a 30-acre cornfield—for the harvest.

The harvesting crew was from the Lockbourne Methodist Church, but the project on which they were working was only typical of a movement which has spread throughout the Midwest in recent summers.

The Lockbourne Methodists, working with donated seed corn and gasoline for their tractors, planted the 30 acres last spring. The harvest meant money to pay for church repairs and redecoration.

Next year it'll be 70 acres.

Part-Time Hobby Turns Into Full Time Business

DAWSON, Neb. (INS) — A frustrated fisherman who turned to hunting agates when the fish weren't biting has worked up a sideline jewelry business with customers in all parts of the nation.

C. A. Smith, a Dawson appliance dealer, says he became a "rock hound" a couple of years ago. He was fishing in the Nemaha River of Southeast Nebraska but the fish failed to take his bait so he started walking along the river bank. He found a beautiful agate which he cut and polished as a gem.

Since then, Smith has uncovered buckets full of agates from river banks, gravel pits and eroded hillsides. He cuts them into mountings for rings, pendants, bracelets, brooches, earrings, cuff links and tie clasps. Other rock hunters around the country have sent him prize specimens to make into jewelry.

Smith's "rock hunting fever" also has led him to quantities of arrowheads, scrapers, spearheads, tomahawk and ex heads and other Indian relics.

Australia's five shore-based whaling stations have caught their quota of 1,840 hump-back whales this season, Sydney reports.

Democrats Split Over Philosophy

Keynote of Moderation by Stevenson Opposed by Liberal Harriman

WASHINGTON (INS) — Democrats headed today toward sharp division over whether the party should adopt "moderation" as its keynote for the 1956 campaign.

* * *

Adlai E. Stevenson, the 1952 presidential nominee and only announced candidate thus far for 1956, Saturday night called for "moderation," but without "mediocrity and stagnation."

The same general philosophy was endorsed by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn), who is expected to throw his hat in the ring as a Stevenson rival for the nomination within a month.

But Gov. Averell Harriman of New York declared in a Sunday interview: "There is no such word as moderation or middle-of-the-road in the Democratic vocabulary."

HARRIMAN OPPOSES

The opposing viewpoints, although not yet sharply outlined, presaged a bitter pre-convention fight over whether the Democrats should adopt a middle-of-the-road philosophy, advocated by Stevenson and Southern leaders, or crusade vigorously as Liberal advocates in the tradition of Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman.

Harriman, often mentioned as a potential 1956 nominee, has thrown his support to the latter viewpoint. At the same time, he declared he was not an "active candidate" but he refused to close the door on a possible later bid.

Meanwhile, Democrats joined to level their big guns at what they termed "Big Business" domination of the Eisenhower administration, and launched new criticism of the government's foreign policy.

Gas Sold for Fuel Oil

Big Explosion Averted by Relentless Volunteers

ROCK FALLS, Ill. (AP) — Andy Chambers, 24, thought he had bought five gallons of fuel oil for home heating at a gas station.

Twenty minutes after he had left the station, the attendant discovered his mistake.

Instead of fuel oil he had sold Chambers high-test gasoline.

The attendant notified Fire Chief Russell Maynard and Police Chief Glenn Keime. They asked radio station WSDR in adjacent Sterling to broadcast emergency warnings every 10 minutes.

The station quoted Keime's warning that ignition of the gasoline in a furnace would "cause a terrific explosion."

Then the station appealed for volunteers to make a house-to-house search.

Within 20 minutes, between 60 and 100 turned out, several hundred others within an hour.

Throughout this town of 10,000, the volunteers trudged, knocking on doors.

Two of the volunteers, Fred Maynard, a volunteer fireman, and Wayne Farrington finally found the four-room house in which Chambers lives with his wife and three other adults.

Chambers told Maynard that he had poured the fuel into the furnace's tank and "was just going to light it when you knocked on the door."

Leave It to Ladies

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Mervin Seamster, a butcher by trade, smiled confidently as he took on the assignment of carving the turkey at a food dealers' banquet. But he had to yield the task to his wife. Before he had disjointed a drumstick Seamster cut his finger.

Farm Bureau Plan Presented Congress

WASHINGTON (INS) — The American Farm Bureau Federation, largest farm organization in the country, today proposed a 10-point program for relief of "rural underemployment" in "depressed rural areas."

* * *

A federation spokesman, Matt Triggs, told a congressional group that measures to alleviate the situation must fall into three major categories:

1) "Improving the productive capacity of low-income farmers, 2) Improving employment opportunities in rural areas, and 3) Improving the ability and opportunity of the individual to seek employment elsewhere."

* * *

Triggs, assistant legislative director of the AFBF, testified before the subcommittee on low income families of the joint congressional committee on the President's economic report.

State Man Held for Extorting Women, Doctors

CLEVELAND (AP) —Accused with attempting to extort money from six brides-to-be and nine doctors, a 27-year-old Muskegon, Mich., man was held today by federal authorities.

Louis F. Traviss was arrested by Post Office Department inspectors as he took what they said was a planted letter from a rented box at the main Cleveland post office.

Inspector William Goden said Traviss admitted he wrote threatening letters to girls and doctors.

Goden said Traviss took the names of the girls from newspapers and wrote each a letter saying he had obscene pictures of women who looked like them and would send copies to their prospective in-laws unless they sent him $10.

Traviss wrote the Doctors, Goden said, that he would damage their automobiles unless they paid him $50 a year "insurance."

One of the girls showed her letter to postal authorities. The arrest followed. Goden said Traviss would be charged with extortion.

DISMISSED — Alexander V. Vlasov, right, talks to newsmen as he leaves his New York hotel to return to Moscow. Vlasov was a member of the 10-member Soviet housing delegation which has been inspecting U. S. housing. Arab Defense Meeting Opens

5-Nation Baghdad Pact Plans Against Attacks From Reds, Israel

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP)—The first meeting of the five-nation Baghdad defense alliance — called to plan mutual defense against Communist aggression — opened today with an Iraqi pledge to aid any Arab state threatened by Israel.

Premier Nuri Said brought the Arab-Israeli feud into the meeting in his speech of welcome to British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan and the Premiers of Iran, Turkey and Pakistan.

Iraq, Nuri Said declared, "will not hesitate to use its resources for the assistance of any Arab state subjected to Israeli aggression in accordance with its obligation under the treaty of collective defense and economic cooperation between the states of the Arab League."

* * *

The Baghdad Pact was completed last month with the adherence of Iran, the only other Arab League member of the five-nation alliance. Egyptian opposition has kept other Arab nations out of the Western-backed lineup.

Referring to the Arab opposition to the alliance, the Iraqi Premier expressed hope that "the day will come when the brother Arab states will realize the great benefits which they have reaped from the existence of the Baghdad Pact."

* * *

The United States last week announced its "military and political liaison" with the pact. Seats were kept vacant at the conference table for U. S. Ambassador W. J. Gallman and Adm. John H. Cassady to take as observers following the voting of a formal invitation to them.

The meeting is expected to last two days.

Little Boy's Dog Makes Big Bite for John Law

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Two men whose car struck a little boy's dog thoughtfully rushed the dog to a veterinary hospital. They came back next day to check on the dog's condition and gave the vet a check for the bill.

Then they got nipped—by the law. The check bounced, cops picked up the pair, and charged them with a series of bad check operations.

A House Versus Train

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — The Texas & Pacific railroad brought suit for damages growing out of a train-house wreck. They said C. J. Ware was at fault when the house he was moving got in the way of one of the T&P freights at a crossing.

SUPREME COURT MICROPHONES—The chairs (from left) belong to Justices Harlan, Clark, Douglas, Reed, Chief Justice Warren and Justice Black.

Voice of the Supreme Court Goes Hi-Fi

By KENNETH O. GILMORE
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Hear ye! Hear ye! Eight Justices of the U.S. Supreme Court have ruled in favor of the public address system.

The opinion came from their quiet-voiced master of ceremonies, Chief Justice Earl Warren. He started the whole thing a year ago by deciding the court needed better acoustics.

Seems nobody but the Justices themselves could hear what went on. During court sessions visitors to the gallery had to strain to catch weighty sentences during historic debates.

Members of the press used to write different stories depending upon what side of the chamber they sat on. Finally they resorted to comparing notes.

Now each word is crystal clear. For both the Justices and the lawyers speak through microphones. The system was just officially adopted after being used experimentally last year.

A DISSENTER

One dissenting opinion against this mechanical tradition breaker has been cast by big-voiced Justice Felix Frankfurter. He has no need for the gimmick and refuses to use it. There's a mike ready to be plugged in if he changes his mind, however.

A year ago Chief Justice Warren persuaded Congress to let him have $5,000 to solve the acoustics problem caused by drapes and thick rugs in the high-ceilinged chamber.

Engineers of the Radio Corporation of America undertook the job. In addition to small mikes they put in a master control panel off to the side of the chamber. It is operated by an engineer who tunes in the Justices and lawyers when they speak.

A recording system also has been installed which puts on tape everything that is said during the sessions. This will come in handy for judicial review.

Although the Justices have gone modern with mikes, they still stick with the ancient custom of not allowing their pictures to be taken in court. That's why the pictures of the new amplifying gadgets are without people. It's against the rules.

Ex-Ball Player Held in Hatchet Slaying

TAVERNIER, Fla. (AP)—Conklyn Meriwether, 37-year-old carpenter and former baseball player, was held without bond today in the hatchet slaying of his paralyzed mother-in-law and the wounding of two other persons.

Meriwether, who was on the St. Louis Cardinals roster in 1946, was taken to the Monroe County Jail at Key West after the killing in his modest bungalow home at Tavernier yesterday afternoon. No charges have been filed.

Peace Justice Ralph Cunningham said Meriwether killed Mrs. Martin Ellen Mills, 49, a paralytic for nine years, and injured his father-in-law Charles N. Mills, 55, and his brother-in-law Paul Mills, 16. Both men suffered head wounds.

Meriwether's wife Ruth, 28, fled to a neighbor's home with their three small children.

Worst Nebraska Auto Accident Takes 10 Lives

WATERBURY, Neb. (AP)—A head-on collision, believed to have been the worst in Nebraska highway history, snuffed out 10 lives last night—those of six teen-agers and four musicians.

Col. C. J. Sanders, head of the Nebraska safety patrol, said he could recall no other accident taking so many lives.

The teen-agers were returning to their farm homes near Ponca. The state safety patrol said a front tire apparently blew out. Their car rammed head on into one carrying the musicians, bound for an engagement at Norfolk, Neb.

History-Making Suit

ASHLAND, Ky. (AP)—Prime Minister Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt is stepping aside to let a Kentuckian make Egyptian history. William Marsh, an employe of Armco Steel Corp. here, will receive the first suit from Egypt's new popular-priced clothing factory. After reading about the factory, Marsh wrote the Prime Minister, enclosing a check for $9 and his measurements. The Prime Minister had intended to wear the first suit, but he said that Marsh could have the very first one.

Ferret Nearly Extinct

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—One of the ratest mammals in the United States is the black-footed ferret. It has become nearly extinct because of ranchers' poisoning of the prairie dogs on which it preyed.

Ex-Con Hunted for Girl's Death

4-Year-Old Murdered, Found in Rhode Island Shed With Killer's Note

WEST GREENWICH, R. I. (AP)—Police today were seeking an ex-convict in the death of 4-year-old Deborah Conlon, whose bedsheet-wrapped body was found in a shed Saturday.

* * *

A murder warrant was sworn out for William H. Crough, 29, of Waltham, Mass. Police said he has a "long prison record," including a six-year Massachusetts prison term for armed robbery.

The child, one of three children of Mrs. Beatrice Conlon, 30-year-old divorcee, died of internal injuries, it was reported by Medical Examiner Arthur E. O'dea.

Mrs. Conlon said Crough, also divorced, had been staying with her and her children. She added that they planned to marry in January.

* * *

Police said a note was found near the child's body in the shed back of her home. They said it told that the child was hurt in an accident on a swing and that Crough had left since nobody would believe him because of his police record.

The note added, police said, that Crough tried to revive the child but gave up when he realized she was dead.

* * *

State police found the child's body during a search after Mrs. Conlon reported her missing on her return home Friday from her job as a waitress. She said Crough and Deborah were left behind at home when she went to work.

Gilbert and Ellice Islanders are more highly taxed than residents of any other British colony, according to W. H. Hughes, director of missionary training in New Zealand.

Roommate Killer Appeals Second Prison Sentence

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP)— James Ludwig Colvin is under conviction for a second time in the slaying of his University of Alabama roommate in 1951 but the defense has announced it again will appeal the verdict.

* * *

A Circuit Court jury yesterday found the Lincoln, Ala., man guilty of second degree murder in the Easter Sunday shooting of Luther Jerome Veazey of Greenville, Miss. Colvin was sentenced to 10 years in prison and was placed in the Tuscaloosa County jail.

Colvin was convicted of second degree murder at the first trial and sentenced to 15 years. The verdict was thrown out when his lawyers appealed the case.

* * *

Colvin testified at last week's trial that his roommate had threatened to kill him and was advancing on him with a knife when he fired in self-defense.

Testimony was that the shooting followed a drinking party and a fight between Colvin and Veazey at the apartment where they lived.

Men, Too, Go Thru "Change of Life"

DOCTORS CALL IT "MALE CLIMACTERIC"

New Safe Discovery Compounded For Counteracting Effect on Body and Blood Changes Due To Usual Deficiencies That Often Occur During Middle Age.

Doctors, employers and scientists all agree that after the first 40 years, the human body undergoes important normal changes. This change occurs in MEN as well as WOMEN! Men, if you are over 40, in good health . . . but feel nervous, physically weak in legs, back and arms, can't sleep, find it difficult to make decisions . . . are quick-tempered, always tired and suffer from that terrible "what's the use" feeling . . . chances are you are going through "change of life," or as doctors call it, MALE CLIMACTERIC. And at this time it's more important than ever that your system isn't deficient in the very vitamins and minerals nature created to counteract and offset the distressing symptoms of these "after 40" body and blood changes. Amazing new power-packed capsules called AFTER 40 CAPSULES, have been created especially for men and women over forty . . . each hospital recognized ingredient carefully chosen and carefully compounded for its benefit on every man and woman . . . Yes, one potent AFTER 40 CAPSULE daily feeds your system a special and particular combination of Vitamins and Minerals to supply your blood, body organs, glands and nerves, including blood-building red Vitamin B-12, the vitamin Germ of Wheat E, stimulating B-1, Iron, Calcium, Phosphorous, Iodine and other potent Vitamins and Minerals. Just recently a well-known scientist perfected AFTER 40 CAPSULES. He combined a group of TWO RECOGNIZED VITAMINS AND MINERALS most often needed by men after 40. Common sense, and your doctor . . . will tell you vital organs often require the supplement of different vitamins and minerals in different amounts at maturity than they do during younger years. Amazing AFTER 40 CAPSULES were created specifically to provide a rich source of these essentials, needed by mature men and women. ORDER TODAY!

Don't Surrender to Old Age Until You've Made This Test

WHAT IS CLIMACTERIC?
Medical dictionaries call it "Climacteric" at the time of life when the body undergoes a radical change. The first change, when ovaries become more and more inactive, usually between the ages of 12-17. The second change again occurs usually between 40 and 50.

WHO DOES IT AFFECT?
Both men and women. It is wrong to be called "menopause" or "Change of life" in men, doctors call it "male climacteric."

WHAT ARE THE COMMON SYMPTOMS?
Because the body and blood are undergoing important changes during climacteric, the entire system may become upset and symptoms are varied. Men and women are extremely nervous, tire easily, become irritable, feel weak in arms, legs and back and often are very crabby. Often there are "hot flashes" accompanied by that "what's the use" feeling. And very often a special supplementary source of certain vitamins and minerals is needed much as you find in this important discovery called AFTER 40 CAPSULES.

WHAT CAN BE DONE?
Medical science has discovered, made available that can help you over the difficult "change of life" period. Today try the new capsule called AFTER 40 that supplies the body with an important combination of vitamins and minerals so often needed during this period. Full month's supply only $3.00 . . . if absolutely not delighted with results or, cheerful, unquestioned refund.

Aramburu Acts to Control Army

Argentine Leader Puts Disgruntled Generals 'Out of Circulation'

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — The Argentine government of Provisional President Pedro Aramburu moved into its second week today with an apparent drive under way to nip any plots by disgruntled generals.

• • •

A tank and an armored car took up positions behind the government house after authoritative reports that the new regime had put "out of circulation" three of Argentina's best known generals. These reports said the government planned to ease a fourth officer out of the country with an ambassadorship.

HURDLE OBSTACLE

The tank and armored car, bristling machine guns and cannon, were the only extraordinary security measures evident, however.

The new government hurdled its first major obstacle last week in crushing a last-ditch general strike called by the old Peronista leadership of the General Confederation of Labor.

Aramburu and his associates apparently were moving just as forcefully to assure control of the army.

• • •

Authoritative sources said Gen. Leon Justo Bengoa and Gen. Juan Jose Uranga were arrested by soldiers yesterday. They said Lt. Gen. Julio A. Lagos, army commander in chief, had been "convinced" that he should ask for retirement.

It also was reported that Gen. Dalmiro Videla Balaguer, present federal administrator of Cordoba province, might be named ambassador to Italy.

• • •

All four men were leaders in the September revolt which ousted Juan D. Peron as president.

State Police Receive 60 Job Applications

Nearly 60 applications for Michigan State Troopers' positions have been received by the Pontic post since the recruiting drive started Nov. 1, a spokesman said today.

The drive began after the Legislature approved an increase of 200 men in the force, and candidates are being welcomed at all State Police posts.

Increased salaries, running as high as $192 every two weeks for troopers, are added incentive for candidates.

Applicants must be between 21 and 29 years old, not less than five feet, nine inches in height, and have high school educations. Both married and single men will be accepted.

Deadline for applications is Nov. 30. Civil Service examinations for candidates will be given Dec. 17.

Two City Bars Fined for Selling to Minors

Two Pontiac bars were fined for selling liquor to minors at a recent meeting of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, the Commission announced today.

Ward West and Lillian Archambeau, proprietors of "Art's and Lil's" at 924-26 Joslyn Ave., were fined $150 and their license was revoked for a week beginning Dec. 19.

The same penalty was set for Charles F. Manz, proprietor of "Chuck's Shack" at 28 Opdyke Rd.

Romanians Extract Alcohol From Chestnuts

BUCHAREST, Romania (AP)—The Romanians think they have found an industrial use for the horse chestnut, now scattered along the streets of this capital.

The newspaper Steagul Rosu reports experiments to extract industrial alcohol from wild chestnuts, substituting for important quantities of corn and potatoes as raw materials.

Korea hopes to boost its handicraft industry, on which 50,000 persons now depend.

Famous Street Names Difficult for Spellers

SALEM, Ore. (AP)—This capital city of Oregon has too many bad spellers to risk naming a street after the Finnish composer Jean Sibelius, the city planning commission has decided.

Oil Loins to Dress Up Lemon in Paper Pants

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—For years the snootier chefs have put paper pants on lamb chops—but it took the Waldorf to put skirts on lemons.

I became a wardrobe mistress for lemons to see how it works.

"You see," said Louis (Gigi) Molinari, the restaurant manager, as he wrapped a bit of cheesecloth around half a lemon, "this way, the juice doesn't spray into your eyes, and the seeds don't come down into your food."

"We have five men who do this lemon-wrapping for our five restaurants," Gigi said.

So Gigi led me around the kitchens and gave me a crack at the job. I was too clumsy and couldn't learn it.

OIL AND TEECH

"You put the cheesecloth over the lemon this way," he demonstrated, "put it down in the clean cold water, wrap the cheesecloth around it, twist it, and make a nice little knot . . ."

It was on the knot that I muffed. How would it look if I sent a lemon with an untidy knot up to the table?

★ ★ ★ ★

Gigi put the next one aside, too, and gave up on me. My mother wouldn't have been proud of me. The lemon-wrappers don't find the work monotonous, because there are three or four hours a day when they do something more exciting—they open oysters. The Waldorf wraps 2,000 half-lemons a day. The wrappers can put a dress on a lemon in 15 seconds.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Marilyn Monroe's date at the Blue Angel was somebody she really goes for—dancer Jack Cole . . . Joe Louis has a hefty offer to give boxing exhibitions . . . David Selznick's son Jeff, 23, will produce the Hume Cronyn-Jessica Tandy series for NBC-TV.

A reported wiretap on the "$64,000 Question" office is being investigated. Somebody trying to get the examination papers ahead?

IN FULL DRESS

Johnny Meyer says he'll marry golfer Diane Anderson . . . Producer Eddie Byron, whose hobby is the Civil War, sold NBC a big color TV show about it.

Roseland's so chic lately: Tony De Marco, George Abbott and EW all mamboing there with Olga at the Augie & Margo party . . . They're calling "Picnic" with Bill Holden and Kim Novak, next year's Oscar-winner . . . Irving Fein, Jack Benny's p. a., was named CBS radio veep in charge of promotion, advt. and press.

The 35G pilot film of a Mickey Spillane TV series is gathering dust—too much punch and Judies . . . Candy Toxton and Hal Mareh may rush off and get hitched, now that she has the divorce.

★ ★ ★ ★

Singer Karen Chandler and manager Freddie Amsel may battle it out in court . . . Just in time for Thanksgiving there's a new singer named John Alden . . . The new UN directory of delegations has two blank pages for France, which walked out . . . Dore Schary's signing Rocky Graziano to a role in a Jimmy Stewart movie.

EARL'S PEARLS . . .

An American's a person who isn't afraid to criticize the President—but is always polite to the policeman.—Hoisington (Kans.) Dispatch.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "There are two things women like to push around and change over—furniture and husbands."—Myron Cohen.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Allan Drake tells us the number one song on the Russian hit parade: "Wake the Town and Kill the People." That's earl, brother.

Hollywood Headlines:

Jose Ferrer to Direct, Star in 'The Great Man'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Tomorrow, Jose Ferrer arrives from New York. He'll go straight to U-I for luncheon where he'll sign to direct and star in "The Great Man," based on a best seller by Al Morgan.

I'm sure many of you read the story of a radio and TV idol who is adored by his public who believes he is the sweetest guy in the world. After his death, when a producer (to be played by Ferrer) is assigned to prepare a memorial spectacular broadcast he finds the idol was really a throat-cutting, back-stabbing no good.

Aaron Rosenberg has been named as the producer of "The Great Man," which goes before the cameras the first of March.

DORIS DAY EYES DRAMA

Doris Day has her eye on "Anna Christie." She would like to do a musical version of it. A beautiful score already has been written by Bob Merrill (not the opera singer), and she believes the time has come for her to do some serious drama.

Before Doris thought of acting, a girl named Greta Garbo created a great success in this play by Eugene O'Neill. How well I remember both great and Marie Dressler, who was wonderful as Anna's father's lady friend.

"I doubt if Metro even knows Doris would like to do 'Anna Christie,'" Marty Melcher told me, "but I think she should grow up on the screen and have more dramatic roles."

And what Marty wants, Marty usually gets.

All day long Thursday, reporters were telephoning Gloria Vanderbilt for interviews, only to find it wasn't possible to contact her. Later she checked out of the Beverly Hills Hotel and was on her way to New York by the time the last reporter reached the hotel.

Goes without saying that Hollywood is vitally interested in the reaction of the Russian newspapermen who visited our studios ten days ago.

In view of this, Frank McCarthy at 20th says that he has requested the State Department in Washington to send him reports from Russia on all the stories the Communist journalists write for their papers when they return home.

It will be interesting to see if they color the stories of Hollywood or do straight reporting and tell about the receptions.

Snapshots of Hollywood: Rock Hudson and his bride have reserved the Beverly Hilton bridal suite for Nov. 20. They will be home for Thanksgiving.

Dana Wynter revealed the reason she went to the small dinner party at the Gary Coopers alone is because she's seriously interested in someone in England.

Liz Taylor's trip to Spanish Morocco with Mike Wilding was partially for Liz to have a view of nearby Africa with the idea of her playing the lead in Robert Ruark's book, "Something of Value."

* * *

Vic Damone put his 12 weeks old baby son on a plane with its nurse, headed for London where the baby's mother, Pier Angeli, is now. Vic will make the trip himself when his commitments permit.

That's all today. See you tomorrow.

Heads Health Group

DETROIT (AP)—Mrs. John B. Martin Jr. of Grand Rapids has been named acting chairman of a special advisory committee to the Michigan Society for Mental Health. Stephen S. Nisbet, society president, made the appointment Saturday.

For refusal to pay their annual tax of $11.20, 65 New Guinea villagers from the Reimber Village Council near Rabaul have been serving jail terms, and 25 more, 16 woman and nine men, have been sentenced.

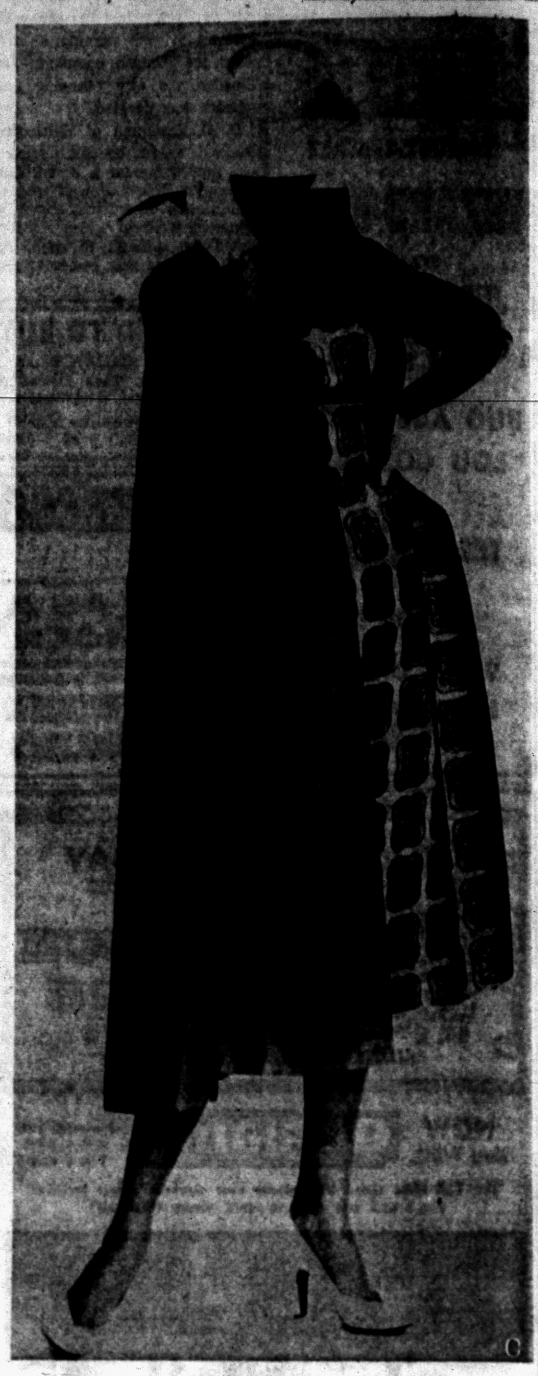
California Designers Reveal Holiday Collections

Don Loper, a favorite with Hollywood actresses, produces this dancing dress of imported Swiss wheat net, embroidered with brown flowers. The bodice has trim of brown silk satin.

"Finale" is the name of this exquisite white silk chiffon evening gown by Edith Small of California. The long torso has all-over embroidery and beaded trim and there is a full gathered knee flounce.



This summer ensemble of red silk-ribbed shantung and printed silk has a full backed coat with an over-sized regency collar. The lining matches the print sheath. This also is a Don Loper design.

Walter H. Kresge Heads Group to Aid Albion College

Walter H. Kresge of South Avery street and Douglas Harger of West Long Lake road are heading the Pontiac committee for a state-wide fund-raising campaign to build a chapel at Albion College.

The chapel will have a seating capacity of 1,350 and is to be named after the late Dr. Frederic S. Goodrich, a faculty member for 50 years.

As part of the state-wide movement Mr. Kresge and Mr. Harger will preside at a dinner meeting at the Hotel Waldron Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. Local alumni and friends of Albion College will attend. Too Much Detergent Harmful to Clothes

LINCOLN, Neb. (INS)—Here's a tip for housewives who may be failing to get satisfactory results from their laundry detergent:

You may be using too much.

Clara N. Leopold, home management specialist at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture, says overuse of a detergent in wash water requires additional rinsing and leaves clothes stiff and off-color.

She advises using only enough of the sudsing type detergent to build a two-inch suds that will stand firm for two minutes. Don't add any more as washing proceeds even though suds disappear, she cautions.

From Irene's holiday collection comes this all silk ensemble with its flashing colors of lime and blue. The hat is by Rex.

Neckline Designs Differ but All Should Appear Soft

A soft line at the neck is a great boon to most mature women. Many women have interpreted this to mean that ruffles are the one and only answer.

Nothing could be more inaccurate. Ruffles are nice, but when they run the danger of becoming a cliche, they age the wearer more than aiding her.

A collar that rolls out, rather than lying flat, is a good soft line. The kind that has the long points that would reach out to the shoulder if the collar lay flat can be made to stand up in this manner.

Starch, good dry-cleaning or an interlining, stitched in, can make the collar roll open and create a shielding line around the neck and under the chin.

A scarf line around the neck is another shadowing type of neckwear. Soft, light scarfs of chiffon or silk can be threaded through many kinds of necklines to cut down on harshness there.

To be avoided are any kind of starched men's collars that tend to cut into the flesh and make wrinkles more conspicuous. Also undesirable are too-tight, round necks that make the neck and head appear to burst from the garment.

To cover up or not cover up a neckline is certainly a matter of individual attributes rather than a question of age.

Some mature women have very handsome collarbones, some have had ugly ones since adolescence. But whether the line is cut low or high, it ought to have a softened look.

Avoid High Heels

If you don't want to wind up with foot trouble in the middle years, stay away from very high heels. Save them for gala occasions or parties where you simply sit.

For daily wear, tailored or dressy, there's the shaped midheel. It's both pretty and comfortable.

Gold Star Officers Installed

Oakland County Chapter No. 34, American Gold Star Mothers, met Friday at the Adah Shelly Library. Installation of officers by Past President, Mrs. Olive Burgess, was the feature of the meeting.

There are four pages in today's Women's Section

Other officers are Mrs. Cecil Briggs, treasurer; Mrs. Clarence Sutton, secretary and Mrs. Burgess, hospital chairman.

Four members will attend the State Board meeting in Lansing on Dec. 1. The family of a needy veteran will be presented with a Thanksgiving basket; and veterans in the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium will be given Christmas gifts.

A luncheon was served, commemorating the first anniversary of the chapter. Two visitors were present, Mrs. Edward Cornell and Mrs. David Bickerstaff.

The Christmas party is to be held Dec. 16, with exchange of gifts and revelation of secret pals planned.

Add Christmas gaiety to your home by saving candle stubs. They'll melt down to make a varicolored candle molded in an olive bottle or old rubber ball.

Carolyn Yoder Is Bride of G. N. Birtsas

Carolyn Ann Yoder became the bride of Gus Nicholas Birtsas Saturday evening in a candlelight ceremony. The Rev. Robert T. Atkins of the First Methodist Church of Clarkston performed the wedding ceremony followed by a Greek service read by the Rev. Soterious Gouvellis of St. George Greek Orthodox Church.

The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Leak of Clarkston, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Birtsas of Dowagiac.

For her wedding, Carolyn chose a gown of Italian silk accented with inserts of Alencon lace at the waistline and the scoop neckline. Her long sleeves ended in points at the wrists.

She wore a veil of antique, imported lace and tulle borrowed from Mrs. Richard Cheseborough, and carried a white Bible centered with a white orchid and stephanotis with velvet ribbon.

Mrs. Thomas Bulien of Ann Arbor was matron of honor. Judy O'Dell of Clarkston and Carolyn Woolfenden of Bloomfield Hills served as bridesmaids.

The bridal attendants were gowned in ballerina-length dresses of fantasy green silk. They wore ivy headbands and carried bouquets of bronze and white fugi chrysanthemums and red oak leaves.

Peter Caris of Bay City served as best man and attending as ushers were Donald Van Engan of Northville, Samuel Cosmos, Lee Perry and Lanny Leak of Clarkston.

For her niece's wedding Mrs. Leak wore a gown of green taffeta with light bronze accessories. Her corsage was of gold roses. Mrs. Birtsas wore a taupe and pink print taffeta dress with pink and black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

For the reception, held in the Methodist Church parlors, the bride's grandmother Mrs. George Perry and her aunt, Mrs. Reginald Bird, presided at the silver tea service.

Carolyn is a graduate of Henry Ford School of Nursing and Gus was graduated from Kalamazoo College.

The new Mrs. Birtsas changed to a charcoal velvet dress with white and black accessories for their motor trip to Chicago and through the western states. On their return the couple will make their home in Clarkston.

Out of town guests attended the wedding from Dowagiac, Bay City, Saginaw, Flint, Mt. Clemens, Detroit, Royal Oak, Fenton, Marshall, Elkhart, Ind. and Sacramento, Calif.

Youngsters Demand Loving Care

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"I am stuck at home all day with my children," women will frequently write me, "It is nerve-wracking and boring but there's nothing I can do about it. I've decided that, since I'm stuck here anyway, I might just as well take in some more kids and at least make money from it."

* * *

They don't even realize that, feeling as they do about children, they could never in a million years embark on a successful project involving children.

Approaching it as a distasteful, boring business, how in the world would they attract the children, let alone the mothers?

Children, particularly, are very sensitive to people. They can tell in a minute the adult who really loves them and the one who is just going through the gestures.

* * *

If you are bored with children, please, for your own sake, drop all thought of making money at home by child care.

It won't work, no matter how large a yard you have, nor how much you need the extra money. Search, instead, for an activity you like.

PUT SKILL TO WORK

If you are one of the many mothers who find children, all children, perfectly fascinating; if you speak their language, have infinite patience and love, then by all means think in terms of putting this skill to work.

* * *

You might begin with a small play group one day a week, at a low fee which any young mother can afford.

If you take enough children, you can charge a bare 50 cents for a whole afternoon and still make a profit. You might tell them stories, play piano and teach them songs, do painting or basket weaving or whatever.

Your love for children will shine through any activity you take up, and your business will grow and grow.

Many mothers I know are doing this with happiness and success. It is good for them, giving them creative outlets. It is good for their children because it gives them companionship and a chance to learn how to get along with others.

It's also a boon to overworked young mothers who can get respite from the children once a week, have some time to themselves.

* * *

If you really love children and would like to make pin money, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and I will send you my pamphlet, "Playing With Children for Profit."

Wall Paper Gets Shells

NEW YORK (INS)—The latest substitute for wallpaper is oyster shells.

Oyster shells, in the form of mother-of-pearl, have been pressed and processed so you can buy sheets of them in from one-fourth to three-fourths of an inch thickness to paste on walls or to cover table and counter tops.

The sheets can be mounted on plywood or can be applied directly to the wall. They are finished in a sealer that is supposed to make them impervious to heat, cold and spilled liquids.

The oyster-walls, called "kappa shell," sell for about $8 a square foot.

You can transform your plain plaster walls to resemble wood paneling with another new wall covering which consists of interwoven strips of hardwood veneers mounted on a heavy canvas backing. It is available in a diamond or parquet weave, and retails for $1.32 a square foot.

Wallpaper, if you insist, is being shown with a lot of wide open spaces. Dados—a very low pattern uncluttered — are popular in the traditional field, and James Seeman has produced an orange, yellow, black and white abstract on a cocoa background that will make modern design enthusiasts happy.

Nurse Told to Call Mate 'the Doctor'

Couple Should Not Use First Names in the Office

By EMILY POST

"My fiance is a doctor. I am a registered nurse. After our marriage I expect to assist him in the office. Do I address him as 'John' or as 'Dr. Smith' before patients? And how should he address me?"

—Answer: In office hours, you would call him "Doctor" and speak of him to patients as "the doctor." During office hours he would call you and speak of you to patients as "Mrs. Smith."

To your friends and social acquaintances you would of course speak of him as "John" and he would speak of you as "Mary."

It is always in bad taste to hear first names used between the head of any office and his assistant, and this lack of dignity would be particularly flagrant in a doctor's office—no matter who the assistant might be.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Recently, while I was at the house of a friend along with several other good friends of the hostess, a relative of the family who did not know the others present dropped in. Before the hostess could introduce her, she walked up to one of the women and introduced herself in this way: 'I am Mrs. John Smith.'

"First off, wasn't she wrong to introduce herself? Secondly, I think she was wrong in having introduced herself as Mrs. and that she should have used her given name and surname.

"Later this person alleged that no matter what or where, a married woman introduces herself as Mrs. in order to let people know her status. I will appreciate your opinion on this matter."

Answer: Calling herself "Mrs. John Smith" was proper. The hostess should have introduced her but as she didn't, it was perfectly proper for her to say, "I'm Mrs. John Smith."

School Crowd Runs Boy's Dating Routine

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I went steady with her for about three months, then we decided to quit the steady part but still go together. That was okay until I went out with another girl.

"Now my old girl is mad at me and so are all the kids in school! They all dislike the particular girl I took out. So to please everybody I go out with both of them.

"But ever time I take out my new girl they're all mad at me until I make a date with my old one. It's a pretty pickle. What shall I do?"

Answer: Why, you can dance to the tune that your ex-steady girl friend and the rest of the crowd pipe for you—or you can make your own rules for yourself.

It's normal that you should care what the kids in school think, and that you should react to their friendliness or their chill. But they're really asking too much in insisting that your dating should suit them. Buck them completely and you'll wind up in the permanent doghouse.

So, why not confuse them? Date so many different girls that they can't keep score! Were there a third girl in the picture, for instance, your old girl couldn't expect a date to match each one you have with your two other girls.

Were there a fourth, how much more complicated it would get for everybody. But maybe they'd give up—and leave you to it. Then you could date whomever whenso-ever it suits you.

"Dear Miss Woodward: I'm 14 and Mother and I don't agree on things. When I go downtown on Saturday I think I should come home when I want to, just so long as it isn't 1 or 2 o'clock.

"But Mother thinks she should set the time for me to come home. I'd be glad if you'd help us iron this out."

Answer: You know mothers have the house pretty much all to themselves during the week. They get their husbands off to work and their children off to school, and for many mothers the days are lonely.

They look forward to having their families around over the weekends. They make plans for things to do, places to go, things to talk over.

Your mother can appreciate your wanting to see what's going on downtown. But she also wants to see you. Lunch is ready at a certain time and she wants you there.

She doesn't like wondering where you are and what you're getting into. She doesn't care for your wandering on the loose, with no definite plan. Can't you see her point of view?

And can't you cooperate willingly—for her sake as well as your own?

Child Feels Ire Meant for Mother

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Mrs. W. and her son Jack spent last Thanksgiving — the second since her divorce — at a family gathering.

* * *

After dinner, Jack noted that a thin wedge of his Grandma's pumpkin pie still remained on its plate. A younger cousin saw it almost at the same instant.

Grabbing the pie plate, Jack rushed to his Grandma to claim the slice. But instead of listening to him, she snatched it. Accusing him of "squabbling again," she said sharply, "You were given enough pie at dinner"—and gave the slice to his cousin.

This prejudiced treatment of Jack is nothing new. His mother's family often expresses impatience toward him. It's a source of pain to her—and as she cried when she got home last Thanksgiving, she fears that her parents' irritation at Jack may make her cry again this time.

* * *

Could we look harder at this belief that Jack irritates her parents?

SHE'S THE ONE

He doesn't. She's the person who annoys them.

Since her divorce, she's become a cause of anxiety and embarrassment to them. Her marital failure makes them uncomfortable in exactly the same way that a failing mark on her school report used to.

* * *

The trouble is, they daren't know they feel like this. Conscience says to them, "Now is the time to give this daughter of yours kindness and understanding." But they just can't manage these generous emotions.

Their anxiety and discomfort accumulate pressure and demand release every little while—and since they can't use her as a victim of their attack, burst out to snatch a piece of pie from her little boy.

Why is it good to know this?

* * *

Because it turns Mrs. W.'s parents from gods back into human beings. It deprives them of the halos they still wear for her—and shows them to her as they are—ordinary people, struggling, understandable, interested in their own comfort but pretending that they are not.

It is good to know because it is such truth that lifts us from our knees before our human idols and puts us back on our feet.

REAL QUESTION

Now for the real question.

Why hasn't Mrs. W. herself seen the faultiness in her parents' affection?

Why, instead of allowing her mother to hurt her last Thanksgiving, didn't she say amiably, "Ma, stop baiting my child because I've disgraced you. It's not fair to him. I don't want it. So please stop it—or I shan't be able to bring him to see you any more."

Our problem has nothing to do with the way Jack was treated last Thanksgiving. Our problem is finding our own strength.

Sour Cream Dressing Delightful

Mrs. McClanathan Likes to Use This on Tomato Salad

By JANET ODELL

Pontiac Press Home Editor

In modern diets salad days come 365 times a year. If you wish, you need never repeat yourself with a salad in all that time. You can vary the salad dressings just about as often. Start with Mrs. Joseph McClanathan's recipe for Sour Cream Dressing.

After a brief residence in Kansas City, Mrs. McClanathan is back in home territory. She is a former Birmingham resident. She concentrates most of her time and attention on her family. She enjoys reading whenever she has any leisure time. In season she's a gardener.

SOUR CREAM DRESSING

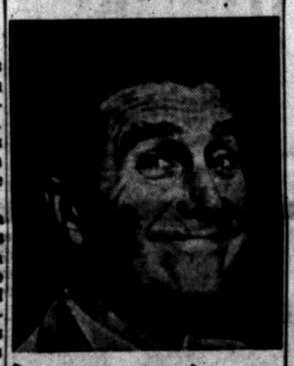
By Mrs. Joseph McClanathan

½ pint cultured sour cream
1 heaping teaspoon mayonnaise
Salt and pepper
1 clove garlic, cut fine
Sweet cream to thin

Mix all ingredients together. Keep chilled until ready to use. This is exceptionally good on lettuce and tomatoes or cucumbers.

A bargain sale is a place where a girl ruins one dress to buy another one.

"Clever gal, my Carol!"



I'm tickled pink with the smart way my Carol handles her housework. Take wood floors for instance. Most gals complain about all that scrubbing and waxing. But not my Carol! She cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. It takes her half the time and a lot less elbow grease. And we've yet to have a guest who hasn't commented on our beautiful wood floors. My Carol and her Bruce Cleaning Wax really make easy work of a hard job. I'm mighty pleased with both of them.

P.S. For lighter waxing on linoleum and wood, Carol uses Bruce Floor Cleaner.

Romance Blooms in the Strangest Places

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—As any soap opera fan can tell you, there is no place too grisly or uncomfortable to be the scene of a love affair. In fact it seems the cruder the setting, the deeper the love.

* * *

Wet, kindred souls are constantly meeting under leaky umbrellas in the rain.

If a man locks skis with a woman while descending a Catskill, it's a fateful promise of love.

And when a fellow in shorts on a bicycle runs down a strange lady crossing the road, everyone knows something's got to give. Should he only bruise and ruffle her, the affair will start almost immediately. If her breaks her back, there will be some agony before she sees wat a crazy, wonderful cyclist he really is.

But inevitably, romance rears its sensitive head.

I was set to thinking about these lovely chaotic things while reading of the latest romance—the case of two cultured young ones who met and married after a blustery courtship in the standee life outside the Metropolitan Opera House.

HE WAS FIRST

The young man, named Edward, was first in line some 90 hours before the opening night performance last year.

The girl, Alice, was a laggard and was 98th in line.

But they leaned against the same grimy bricks, of the same illustrious edifice, humming the same ditties from "Faust" and waiting for the same $2 standing room tickets. So of course love conquered all and by the time the box office opened, it was as if the 96 people between them simply did not exist.

They got married and, this year, Ed got Alice moving earlier and they were first in line for "The Tales of Hoffman"—together.

Possibly it's because we never hear the outcome of these love-in-rain, love-through-traffic-congestion, love-in-standee-line romances that they take on a certain glow of "rightness." Of "fate" and "Kismet."

If a guy meets a doll in a river, into which both have leaped in attempts to find a better world, there is an aura of "inevitability" about the thing. They have found each other and found themselves and, as they gasp their way up to a new life, you can just smell it in the air. This will last.

On the other hand, how many people do you know who have met at parties, at school, at YMCA YWCA socials, in the comfortable refined atmosphere of theater parties at a movie? I don't care how much in love they seem to be, nobody's going to give them credit for a great amour.

* * *

Perhaps that is what has been wrong with me, and with other females thus far unwed. We have been meeting men the routine way, because mother taught us never to speak to strangers, even when they run us down in automobiles.

Since reading of Ed and Alice, I am ready to give up convention and cultivate fate.

See you in the subway, stranger? I'll be caught in the turnstile, waiting.

Cobo Appoints Walker

DETROIT (AP) — William M. Walker Jr., a General Motors Corp. vice president, was reappointed by Mayor Albert Cobo Saturday to the city's streets and traffic commission. Walker currently is commission president. His new term expires Nov. 30, 1959.

A Friend Indeed

FLINT (AP) — Vacationing on a deer hunting trip, Norman Keller remembered there was a blood bank drive on at the Flint Dairy where he works. Keeler drove 100 miles back from Lake George, donated a pint of blood, then returned to resume hunting. It was his 17th blood bank contribution.

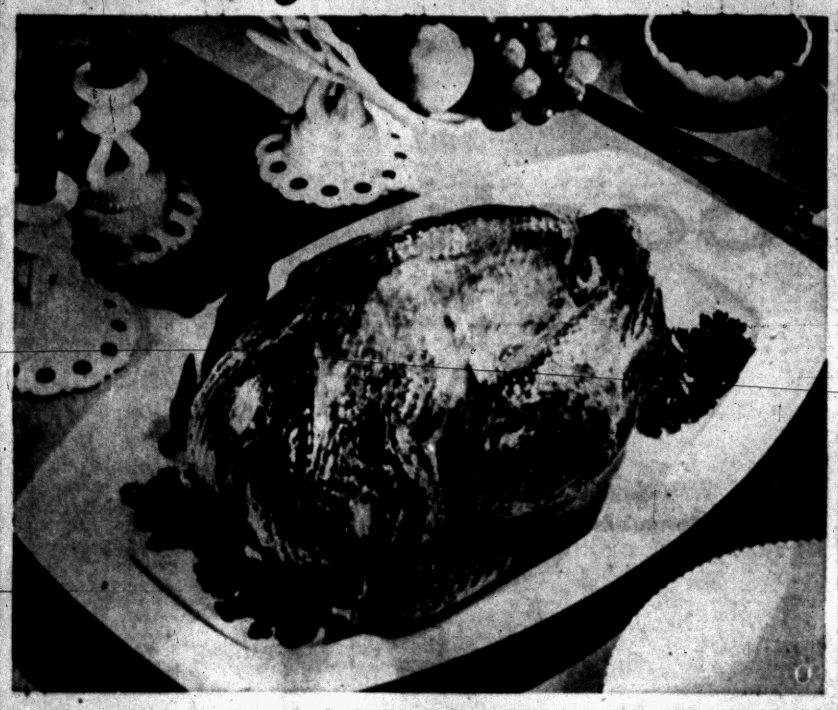
Turkey Season Comes Around



BUTTER BALL TURKEY — This year's Thanksgiving bird has a new look. It has that plump "butter ball" appearance. You buy it frozen, thaw it, stuff it and roast it. What could be simpler? Be sure to buy a large enough bird so that you'll have some of the delicious meat for leftover dishes.

The center of attention on your Thanksgiving dinner table will be the handsome, plump turkey, so you want to be sure you select a fine quality bird, and prepare it correctly.

The frozen tucked turkey is an elegant bird that has a shapely "butter ball" appearance. And it's easy to prepare for roasting, too. This turkey has the ends of the drumsticks tucked in a band of skin at the tip end of the breast bone.

So, after thawing, you simply remove the legs from their tucked position, remove the giblets, stuff the bird, and re-tuck the legs. This easy stuffing method makes your holiday meal preparation much less time-consuming.

You'll probably want to buy a large enough turkey so that you can plan on having some of the delicious meat for fine leftover meals.

* * *

After the holiday dinner, remove all the stuffing from the bird, place it in a bowl, and put in the refrigerator. When it is completely cooled, cover the bowl loosely, and reheat just enough stuffing for each service, as you use it.

Cut the leftover turkey into convenient sized slices, and put it into the refrigerator. When it has cooled, cover loosely. You may wrap and freeze the turkey, if you prefer, and you should plan to use it within two months.

Here is the tested schedule for roasting the tucked turkey. Serve a colorful, tart cranberry sauce with it, and win praise from Thanksgiving Day guests.

ROASTING SCHEDULE FOR BUTTER BALL TURKEY

Ready-to-Cook Weight	Approximate Roasting Time for Stuffed Turkey—325 degrees
8 to 10 pounds	3½ to 4½ hours
11 to 13 pounds	4 to 4½ hours
14 to 16 pounds	4¾ to 5½ hours
17 to 19 pounds	6 to 7 hours
20 to 24 pounds	7½ to 8½ hours

Thanksgiving Feast Should Include Rolls

be complete without hot yeast rolls on the table. You may want to bake them ahead of time yourself.

* * *

But if other preparations for the big feast take all your time, you can get a good selection of enriched rolls from your baker. Or, brown 'n' serve rolls may be your dish. They, too, come in a wide vareity of shapes and forms.

* * *

Whatever type you choose, remember that yeast rolls give a dinner a really festive touch. If you like hard rolls, select crusty, sesame seed-topped rolls. Poppy-seeded Vienna rolls are also crisp and crunchy.

For a softer, flakier roll, choose cloverleaf, bowknot, Parker House, fantan or crescent rolls.

Treats Reflect Holiday Warmth

Round this time of the year, rich desserts such as this Spicy Fig Pudding have a special attraction. They suggest the warmth of a house on a cold day and the happiness of a family gathering.

This pudding is made with plenty of good seasonings, dried figs, chopped nutmeats and whole bran cereal. It is excellent served with lemon sauce and is a recipe to consider for a holiday dinner.

Spicy Fig Pudding

¼ cup shortening
½ cup brown sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon cloves
1 egg, beaten
½ cup milk
½ teaspoon vanilla
¾ cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup whole bran cereal
½ cup chopped nutmeats
1 cup dried figs, finely cut

Blend shortening with sugar and spices until light and fluffy. Add egg, milk and vanilla; stir in flour which has been sifted with baking powder and salt. Add bran, nutmeats and figs; mix well.

Spread in greased pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) about 35 minutes. Cut into squares and serve with lemon sauce or other pudding sauce. Yield: Nine servings.

Brighten Baked Treats With Candied Fruits

It's a wise homemaker who's baking fruitcakes now and sealing them up in airtight containers for Christmas feasting. And it's also wise to use those extra candied fruits and peels to make your holiday baking more colorful.

* * *

Press flecks of candied cherries or pineapple into rolled cookies. Chop mixed candied fruits finely and stir them into the between-the-layers filling for your next cake.

Use raisins, currants or dates in drop cookies. Bright toppings for quick coffee cakes or biscuit rings are another possibility.

Pineapple Varies Sandwich Fillings

Sandwich tips: Wondering how to vary those lunchbox sandwiches? Here are some suggestions:

* * *

Mix two-thirds cup chopped chicken, one-fourth cup chopped pecans, one 9-ounce can (three-fourths cup) crushed, drained pineapple, 2 tablespoons chopped celery and 3 tablespoons mayonnaise or salad dressing. This will make enough filling for nine sandwiches (1¾ cups).

* * *

Combine one 3-ounce package cream cheese with 2 tablespoons mayonnaise or salad dressing, one-half cup drained crushed pineapple and one-half cup finely shredded carrots.

* * *

Corned Beef Hash Fills Potato Shells

Twice-baked potatoes are often a dinner vegetable but after the addition of canned corned beef hash and some well-chosen seasonings, they become a main course dish for luncheon or light supper.

* * *

Prepare the potatoes in the morning and heat with the cheese at mealtime, if you like.

"Hash" Browned Potatoes

1 can corned beef hash
3 large hot baked potatoes
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
½ cup milk
1 tablespoon minced onion
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Dash nutmeg
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 cup grated cheese (Parmesan or American)
Paprika

Crumble hash. Cut potatoes in half, lengthwise, and scoop insides out into mixing bowl, taking care not to break shells; mash well.

Add remaining ingredients except cheese and paprika and mix well.

Heap mixture into potato shells; sprinkle with cheese, then paprika. Bake in a shallow pan in a 400 degree oven 25 minutes. Six servings.

Fix Whole Cauliflower and Top With Sauce

Pretty vegetable for a company meal: Boil a whole small head of cauliflower, leaving on some of the small green leaves around the base of the vegetable, until tender-crisp.

* * *

Put the cauliflower in the center of a round serving plate and surround with cooked carrots (sliced crosswise diagonally); pour a thick cheese sauce over the top of the cauliflower and sprinkle with minced parsley.

Try Oyster Stuffing

Stuff your Thanksgiving turkey with a traditional oyster stuffing. Wash 1 pint of oysters thoroughly. Beat 1 egg slightly. Add oysters, 8 cups enriched bread cubes, 1 teaspoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon pepper and one-half teaspoon celery salt to beaten egg. Mix together lightly.

ORANGE DATE FROSTING — This luscious-looking cake is frosted with Orange Date Frosting that requires no cooking at all. Its main ingredient is sweetened condensed milk. The cornucopias are made of orange slices with a date tucked into the center of each one.

* * * * * *

Orange Date Icing Gives Inspired Flavor to Cake

Nowadays it would seem that in order to cook you need only know how to read, the better to follow directions on a box of mix. Although this state of affairs might tend towards uninspired cooking it actually doesn't because each homemaker has her own individual way of creating a masterpiece from a mix.

Take a cake, for example. The thing that lifts it above mere standardization is the frosting and decoration thereon.

And the frosting need not be complicated to add the inspired touch. Here is a delicious uncooked frosting made with sweetened condensed milk, featuring a tart orange taste and the exotic flavor of dates.

It is made simply by creaming butter, adding sweetened condensed milk, blending in orange juice and rind and then beating in enough confectioners' sugar to make it of creamy rich spreading consistency.

* * *

For a festive touch, decorate the top of the cake with orange cornucopias with whole dates. Cut four thin slices of orange. Then cut a line from the center of the orange slice to the edge and fold the slice into a cornucopia shape.

Place the four of these around the cake and tuck a whole date in the center of each one. It makes for a lovely decoration.

Since it is the sweetened condensed milk which gives this frosting its creamy texture, make sure you use only this type of milk. No other canned milk will work with this recipe.

Sweetened condensed milk, which comes in a 15-ounce can, is a mixture of whole milk and sugar already cooked down to a creamy richness. That is why it makes such good frostings as well as candies and pie fillings.

Orange Date Frosting

4 tablespoons butter
⅔ cup (⅓ 15-ounce can) sweetened condensed milk
2 tablespoons frozen orange juice concentrate
1 teaspoon grated orange rind, optional
2 cups confectioners' sugar (approx.)
½ cup pitted and finely chopped dates

Cream butter and gradually add sweetened condensed milk. Blend in orange juice and orange rind. Beat in enough confectioners' sugar until of spreading consistency. Fold in dates.

Note: Enough frosting for top and sides of two 8-inch layers or 18 cupcakes.

Newest Cereal Prepared With Milk and Yeast

If you've been wondering about that striking package with the big red 'K' making its premiere appearance in your local food markets, here's the story. It's a ready-to-eat cereal plus.

The world's largest maker of ready-to-eat cereals has succeeded in combining a nourishing grain (rice) with other natural foods—including milk and yeast—to produce an entirely new high-protein food.

Called Special K, the product is unique in texture—a puffy flake—hard to define, but mighty easy to eat. In addition, it has the particularly satisfying flavor of good food rich in protein, so it tastes right not only at breakfast time, but any time you want wholesome food in a hurry.

"High-protein," a descriptive term, means this, specifically: 'Special K' contains more protein than any other leading cereal, hot or cold, and twice as much as their average.

* * *

This is good food news for the mothers of those growing youngsters who need such tremendous quantities of protein to build sturdy bodies; for adults who require generous amounts of protein to maintain bodies in peak condition and to help assure a longer span of active life, and for weight watchers, who find foods high in protein particularly nourishing, calorie for calorie.

* * *

Special 'K' is special in its remarkable vitamin and mineral values as well. Controlled amounts of vitamins and minerals judged by leading nutritionists to be short in many American diets are added in processing—in substantial percentages of daily requirements.

PINEAPPLE-PUMPKIN PIE — Tropical goodness plays an important part in this Pineapple Pumpkin Pie. Made with canned Hawaiian pineapple pie filling, pumpkin and spices, it is a delightful change from the traditional pumpkin pie. Make tiny pineapples from leftover pastry to decorate the top.

Add Pineapple to Pumpkin Pie

Holiday entertaining time is drawing near and no doubt you'll be planning extra festivities throughout the season.

* * *

Have you ever thought of varying the traditional winter favorite, pumpkin pie? Here is a new idea that preserves the pumpkin flavor but adds the juiciness and lightness of a fruit pie:

Pineapple-Pumpkin Pie

1 can (No. 2) Hawaiian pineapple pie filling
½ cup pumpkin
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
⅛ teaspoon cloves
Pastry for an 8-inch pie

Mix pineapple pie filling, pumpkin and spices together and turn into an 8-inch unbaked pie shell. Cut out six pineapple-shaped pieces of pastry and arrange over top of filling.

Bake at 425 degrees for 25 minutes or until pastry is browned and filling is bubbly hot. Cool. Makes an 8-inch pie.

Maple Syrup Sweetens Your Gala Holiday Fare

With the festive holidays just around the corner, here are a few tasty suggestions from the 100 Per Cent Pure Maple Syrup Institute to insure your guests coming back for seconds—even thirds of your favorite maple-flavored fare.

To enhance the flavor and appearance of your holiday turkey, try a:

Maple Roast Turkey Glaze

1 pint 100 per cent pure maple syrup
½ cup gravy base

Blend maple syrup and gravy base. Dress, season, stuff and truss turkey. Place on rack in roasting pan. Brush with melted unsalted fat, being sure breast, wings and legs are well covered.

Roast uncovered in slow oven (300 degrees), basting several times with melted fat. Thirty minutes before turkey is done brush with maple glaze, and finish basting with glaze.

Roasting time: Birds under 12 pounds, 25 minutes per pound. Larger birds, 20 minutes per pound.

Whole Cranberry Sauce a la Maple

1 cup sugar
1 cup 100 per cent pure maple syrup
½ cup water
4 cups fresh cranberries

Combine sugar, syrup and water. Cook five minutes. Add cranberries, cover, heat to boiling, do not stir.

Simmer until skins pop open. Chill and serve in scooped-out grapefruit shells. Serves four.

* * *

As side dishes for the happy gobbler, try pure mapled sweet potatoes or your favorite fruit salad with 100 per cent pure Maple Fruit Salad Dressing:

Mapled Sweet Potatoes

4 sweet potatoes
½ cup 100 per cent pure maple syrup
1 tablespoon lemon juice
½ tablespoon lemon rind

Place potatoes in pan, add syrup and cook uncovered for 15 minutes. Spoon syrup over potatoes frequently during cooking. Serves four.

Maple Fruit Salad Dressing

½ cup 100 per cent pure maple syrup
1 tablespoon flour
1 cup vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons paprika
1 tablespoon grated onion
2 teaspoons celery seed
¾ cup salad oil

Blend syrup and flour, gradually add vinegar. Cook over low heat until smooth and thick, stirring constantly. Pour oil into mixture very slowly, beating constantly with rotary beater. Makes 1½ cups.

Peach Melba Honors Singer

Peach Melba has a glamorous history. Originally, it was created by the famous chef, Escoffier, in honor of the equally famous opera singer, Dame Nellie Melba.

This version is much like Escoffier's: Golden peaches nestling under snowy ice cream topped with a colorful raspberry sauce. But the peaches are canned ones and the raspberries are frozen for quick and easy preparation.

* * *

So fill the cups with your best coffee. Make the brew flavorful, steaming hot, and bring on Peach Melba.

Hot Peach Melba

1 package frozen raspberries, thawed
½ cup currant jelly
2 teaspoons cornstarch
1 tablespoon cold water
½ cup peach syrup
8 canned Freestone peach halves
1 quart vanilla ice cream

In a saucepan mash the raspberries. Add jelly and bring to boil. Blend cornstarch and water and add raspberry mixture. Cook, stirring, until mixture is clear. Put through sieve or food mill.

Add peach syrup from canned peach halves. (This can be done well ahead of serving time.) When ready to serve, place peach halves and syrup in chafing dish and heat.

Place hot peach half, hollow side up, in each serving dish. Top with vanilla ice cream and spoon sauce over each helping. Makes eight delicious servings.

Upside-Down Cupcakes Are Easy to Prepare

Pineapple Upside-Down Cupcakes: These attractive Pineapple Upside-Down Cupcakes can be made easily, and they are highly acceptable for desserts at afternoon luncheons:

Put 1 tablespoon of margarine in bottom of each 2½-inch cupcake cup. Top with two halved pineapple chunks or two tidbits. Place a cherry in center, if desired. Half fill cup with white or yellow batter from cake mix.

Hot Cabbage Slaw Is Tangy, Colorful

You and your family are in for a new flavor thrill when you try hot cole slaw. This unusual cabbage slaw is a wonderful accompaniment to any meal.

For attractive appearance, the red pimiento stripe and chopped green pickles provide a striking contrast to the white shredded cabbage. And, for appetite appeal, there's the hot vinegar solution to give it a delightfully tart flavor.

HOT COLE SLAW

1 medium-sized head cabbage
4 canned pimientos
½ cup chopped sweet pickles
½ cup vinegar
¼ cup water
½ teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons granulated sugar
¼ teaspoon paprika
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
¼ cup salad or olive oil
2 eggs beaten
4 tablespoons whipping cream

Shred cabbage finely. Cut pimientos into strips and combine with cabbage and chopped pickles. Combine vinegar, water, salt, sugar, paprika, mustard and oil and heat to a boil. Combine eggs and cream. Stir hot vinegar mixture slowly into beaten eggs and cream.

* * *

Return to low heat and cook four or five minutes, stirring continuously. Pour over cabbage mixture and serve immediately. Yield: four to six servings.

SOUTHERN TURKEY-HAM BAKE — What to do with the leftover turkey? Why put it in this unusual casserole dish. Spoonfuls of Caraway Muffin batter are dropped onto the meat mixture before baking. The rest of the muffin batter is baked in regular muffin form and served separately.

Caraway Muffin Topping Makes Casserole Hearty

Muffins get around. They take on blueberries, nuts or marmalade at breakfast. With soup or a salad they round out a luncheon menu ideally. And here they are — baked right on top of a meaty dinner casserole, Southern Turkey-Ham Bake.

* * *

For this oven dish, drop spoonfuls of Caraway Muffin batter onto the meat mixture before baking. This meat sauce is planned for small amounts of cooked ham and turkey. Next time you have either, freeze a cup of the cooked meat to use later in Southern Turkey-Ham Bake.

It's no chore to put the meat mixture together. Just use a can of condensed cream of celery soup as a base. Into the soup go milk, ham, turkey, onion, green pepper and mustard.

Use only half of the Caraway Muffin batter for topping the meat. Bake the rest of the muffins separately as an accompaniment. Caraway Muffins are so good that you may want to include them in your menu-making as companions to pork or beef roasts, as well as for other casserole toppings.

* * *

However you serve Caraway Muffins, they're nutritious as well as tasty when you bake them with enriched flour. Food iron and three B vitamins are added to enriched flour at no extra cost.

Southern Turkey-Ham Bake

1½ cups condensed cream of celery soup (10½-ounce can)
½ cup milk
1 cup cubed cooked ham
1 cup chopped cooked turkey
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
Caraway Muffins

Combine cream of celery soup and milk, mixing until well blended. Add ham, turkey, onion, green pepper and mustard. Mix until well blended. Pour into 8-inch square baking dish. Drop Caraway Muffin batter by spoonfuls on top of turkey mixture.

Caraway Muffins

1½ cups sifted enriched flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons caraway seeds
1 egg
¾ cup milk (about)
1 tablespoon melted shortening

Sift together flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Add caraway seeds. Combine egg, milk and shortening. Add liquid to flour mixture, stirring only until flour is moistened. Drop about half the batter by spoonfuls on top of turkey mixture.

Bake remaining batter in greased 2-inch muffin cups. Bake casserole in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 25 minutes. Bake Caraway Muffins 20 eight extra Caraway Muffins.

Make Your Own Asparagus Soup

Featuring a homemade soup!

Cream of Asparagus Soup

1 can (14½ ounces) asparagus
Milk
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
Pepper

Drain asparagus liquid into measure; add enough milk to make 3 cups. Melt butter in 2-quart saucepan over low heat; stir in flour.

Add asparagus liquid-milk mixture; stir constantly over moderately low heat until thickened and bubbly; add salt and pepper to taste.

Cut drained asparagus stalks into about 1-inch pieces and add; reheat. Makes four servings.

'Food Crusade' Helps 3 Ways

For the best food gift of the holiday season, CARE asks you to remember that you can send a big package of America's farm surplus to a hungry family overseas for only $1.

* * *

Every dollar donated to CARE's "Food Crusade," the agency points out, will do three things: Help feed a family of four at least a month; move United States surplus out of useless storage; make friends overseas.

Your name and address go on each package you send, so that the needy recipients CARE chooses in Europe or Asia will know that you personally have helped them.

The foods are milk powder, cheese, butter and butter oil, which the U. S. government released from the $7 billion worth of farm products crammed into warehouses.

* * *

CARE has packed them into slightly varied combinations, according to dietary needs in the delivery areas. A typical 22-pound package contains 9 pounds milk powder—enough for 39 quarts plus 6 pounds butter, 7 pounds cheese.

To assure timely delivery of these goodwill gifts, mail your "Food Crusade" contributions immediately to CARE, 660 First Ave., New York 16, N. Y., or your nearest CARE office.

Though CARE must choose the families most in need of food relief, you may specify any of these areas: Berlin, West Germany, Greece, Italy, Yugoslavia, Hong Kong, India, Pakistan, Haiti.

Basic Seven Food Program Guards Health

It's a safe bet that your Thanksgiving dinner will contain all the elements of a well-balanced meal. But what about your planning for other fall meals?

The easiest way to insure your family getting all the nutrients they need is to follow the Basic Seven outline.

Every day plan for each member of the family to have one or more servings of leafy, green or yellow vegetables, one or more servings of citrus fruits, tomatoes or raw cabbage and two or more servings of potatoes and other vegetables and fruits.

Plan, too, for 1 pint to 1 quart of milk daily, plus cheese or milk products and one or more servings of meat, poultry, fish or eggs. Schedule three or more eggs a week for each person in the family.

Serve table fats daily. Three or more servings a day of enriched, restored or whole grain bread, flour and cereals round out the important Basic Seven.

Diced Chicken Sparks Plain Tomato Aspic

Add diced cooked chicken to a plain tomato aspic. Serve with salad greens and well-seasoned mayonnaise for lunch.

If you want to make the tomato aspic yourself, instead of using the canned variety, use unflavored gelatin, tomato juice and such a seasoning as celery salt or onion salt. If the tomatoes are not sweet, a dash of sugar may also be added to the tomato juice and gelatin mixture before it is chilled.

Cream Extra Turkey and Use as Puff Filling

Leftover Thanksgiving turkey can also be used to make airy Turkey Puffs.

* * *

Sift together 1 cup sifted enriche flour and one-half teaspoon salt. Combine 2 beaten eggs and 1 cup milk. Add to flour mixture and beat to a smooth batter. Add 1 tablespoon melted shortening.

* * *

Beat three minutes with a rotary beater. Pour into well-greased iron muffin cups or glass custard cups, filling one-half full. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees) 20 minutes, reduce heat to moderate (350 degrees) and bake 25 to 30 minutes longer, until firm and brown.

While hot, make a cut in side of each puff and fill with creamed turkey. Makes six puffs.

Yam Puffs Hide Pineapple Bits

Sweet potatoes, rich with vitamin A, are a good provider of food energy, even better than white potatoes. So in these cold months when "sweets" or yams are in plentiful supply, serve them often.

* * *

Many are the ways to serve sweet potatoes and one of the finest recipes follows. It combines pineapple with yams and is a natural recipe to serve with baked ham.

* * *

The yams are cooked, mashed, seasoned and shaped around chunks of pineapple, then rolled in cornflakes crumbs and baked 20 minutes.

* * *

Yam Surprise Puffs are excellent with ham but will find favor with many another meat as well.

Yam Surprise Puffs

2½ cups cornflakes
2 cups warm, mashed yams
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
6 canned pineapple chunks

Crush cornflakes into fine crumbs. Combine yams, seasonings and butter; mix well. Shape yams into balls around pineapple chunks; roll in crumbs.

* * *

Place on well-greased baking or in shallow pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) about 20 minutes. Serve at once. Yield: Six servings.

Dish Combines Pork, Apples, Sweet Potatoes

Some food flavors just naturally seem to accent each other—such as these of pork, sweet potatoes and apples.

Pork Sausage-Sweet Potato Casserole

Cook three large sweet potatoes until tender; remove skins. (The skins slip off easily after cooking.)

While the potatoes are cooking, brown a pound and a half of sausage links, and core, but don't peel three large apples.

Cut potatoes in half, lengthwise, and place in a greased 2½ or 3-quart casserole. Slice apples into one-fourth inch thick rings; place with links on top of potatoes.

Combine one-third cup brown sugar, one-fourth cup sausage drippings, and one-fourth cup boiling water and pour over other ingredients. Cover and bake in a 350 degree oven one hour.

* * *

Spoon sauce over each serving of meat, potatoes and apples. This makes about six servings.

Save Plastic Bags

Save the transparent plastic bags that carrots and other vegetables come in. The bags are fine to use as a covering for a rolling pin (one over each handle) and in many other ways in your kitchen.

YAM SURPRISE PUFFS — Bite into these smooth yam puffs and discover a nugget of pineapple in the center. Crushed cornflakes give a crispy coating to the outside. It's easy to make these puffs early in the day and heat them up when serving time comes. They're delicious with ham, excellent with other meats.

Soup Provides Sauce

The way to serve creamed vegetables on short notice is to use condensed cream of chicken soup for a ready-made sauce. In saucepan, blend 1 can (1¼ cups) condensed cream of chicken soup with ¼ cup milk, add 1 cup cooked green peas. Simmer, stirring occasionally. Pour steaming creamed peas over hot potatoes (12 cooked small new potatoes). Six servings.

Make like a French cook—stir a pat of butter into hot canned applesauce. Salt lightly and serve as a relish with chicken or veal.

Nutrition Benefits Abound in Economical Beef Liver

Beef liver is packed with high grade nutrition and is not expensive. Cooked well, it makes a flavorsome and tender dish. So let's try these two good liver recipes.

Creole Liver

2 slices bacon
1 pound liver (¼-inch thick)
2 tablespoons flour
1 can (1¼ cups) condensed tomato soup
½ cup chopped green pepper
¼ teaspoon chili powder

Cook bacoon until crisp; remove from pan and break into 1-inch pieces. Dust liver with flour; brown in bacon drippings. Add bacon pieces and remaining ingredients; cover and simmer 30 minutes. Makes four servings.

Liver in Spaghetti Sauce

1 pound beef liver, thinly sliced
2 large cloves garlic, minced
2 medium onions, chopped
⅓ cup oil
2 cans (2½ cups) condensed tomato soup
2 soup cans water
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon minced parsley
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon sweet basil
½ teaspoon sage
¼ teaspoon thyme
¼ teaspoon cayenne pepper
1 pound thin spaghetti, cooked

Cut liver into 1-inch pieces; brown liver, garlic and onion in oil. Blend in soup, water, lemon juice, parsley and seasonings; simmer one hour, stirring frequently.

* * *

Serve over spaghetti. Sprinkle with Parmesan cheese, if desired. Makes six servings.

Use Your Originality When Serving Soup

Be original! Serve oyster stew in a heat-proof pitcher, green pea soup in a copper coffee pot, vegetable beef in a pyrex pan, tomato soup in a chemistry flask, chilled vichyssoise in a glass pitcher, bouillon in a carafe, and a chicken soup in an enameled cast-iron pan.

* * *

Use electric cooking equipment for heating and serving soup. The electric fryer holds a large quantity at "just right" temperature. Frozen green pea with ham soup pours easily from a coffee warmer. Meatballs with onion soup were "made" for an electric skillet.

Savory Cauliflower Offers New Flavor

Here's a spanking new way to serve cauliflower.

Phyl's Savory Cauliflower

1 small head cauliflower
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 medium-size onions (cut in thin strips)
¼ pound mushrooms (sliced thinly through caps and stems)
Salt, pepper

Separate cauliflower into flowerets and cook in a small amount of boiling salted water just until tender-crisp; drain and keep warm.

Meanwhile melt butter in 8 or 10-inch skillet over low heat; add onion strips and sliced mushrooms. Cook onions and mushrooms slowly, stirring often, until onion is limp and tender.

Add salt and pepper to taste. Add cooked drained cauliflowerets and serve at once. Makes four servings.

Remove Wilted Leaves

If you prefer cooked cabbage, remove the wilted outside leaves or blemished portions. Wash it carefully and cut it in wedges or shred it. Cabbage creamed or seasoned with butter or margarine is easy to prepare and is easy on the budget.

Start Husband Cooking Steak

Now that "do-it-yourself" has become an established American tradition, more and more men are taking an interest in preparing the family meals. If yours is slow to fall in step, or if he only likes to cook simple fare, start him out with down-to-earth, he-man foods.

To our way of thinking, nothing fits this description better than charcoal-broiled steak, garnished with onion rings and ruby slices of raw tomato.

If your man prefers the freedom of the great outdoors, no matter —the steak should taste even better. But indoors or out, even the thickest steak is more delicious between slices of enriched yeast-raised bread.

Individual Steak Sandwiches

Count on at least ½ pound steak per person. Let the steaks stand at room temperature for at least ½ hour. Rub both sides with salt and pepper; spread with a thin layer of prepared mustard. Grill or broil until brown on one side. Turn and brown on second side until desired doneness. Remove from heat; top with a dollop of butter. Butter a split loaf of French bread, split hamburger buns or slices of enriched yeast-raised white bread. Place steaks on half the buttered bread or buns. Top the other half with onion and tomato slices. Put together to form sandwiches. Slice the French bread diagonally to make individual servings.

Mamie's Luscious Fudge Helped to Win Ike's Heart

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here is the recipe for "Mamie's Million Dollar Fudge"—that date-bait that helped lure the second lieutenant who was later to become President of the United States.

* * *

Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower makes no bones that it is not she, but her husband, who is the cook in the family. She relates that when they married, fudge was one of only two things (the other was mayonnaise) she could fix.

* * *

Rumor has it that Eisenhower give it its name—"Million Dollar Fudge" — when he was courting the pretty Denver girl visiting in San Antonio, Tex., about 40 years ago.

He still calls it that and it is popular at the White House. It goes like this:

4½ cups sugar
Pinch of salt
2 tablespoons butter
1 tall can evaporated milk
12 ounces semi-sweet chocolate (chocolate bits)
12 ounces German sweet chocolate
1 pint marshmallow cream (2 jars)
2 cups nutmeats

Boil first four ingredients for six minutes. Place remainder of ingredients in a large bowl.

Pour boiling syrup over ingredients in bowl; beat until chocolate is all melted, and pour in pan. Let stand a few hours before cutting. Store in tin box.

Mrs. Eisenhower contributed the recipe—and the President two of his—to the Women's National Press Club which, in the belief that the way to getting a clubhouse is through the stomach, has gotten out a cookbook.

* * *

The feminine newswriters hope, through sale of the book, to raise funds for a clubhouse. And with an eye on their career status, they have defiantly titled the volume: "Who Says We Can't Cook!"

The members recently scheduled a late afternoon "coming out" party for the book at the Mayflower Hotel. To give the debut the proper official touch, Atty. Gen. Brownell and secretary of the Navy Thomas agreed to be on hand to assist in the distribution of prizes.

The prizes consisted of dishes prepared from the recipes by club members.

Others, in addition to the President and Mrs. Eisenhower, who have contributed recipes include Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt (huckleberry pudding), artist Grandma Moses of Eagle Bridge, N. Y. (chicken pie) and from FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, one of the capital's most eligible bachelors and an amateur chef of note, popovers.

Eisenhower, apparently in belief the clubhouse (complete with kitchen and dining room) is a near reality (which it isn't), contributed a stew recipe for 60 people.

The Press Club's food editors reduced it on paper to a recipe for an average family of six persons.

* * *

The book contains not only recipes from men and women prominent on the Washington scene but from club members themselves.

FROZEN BERRIES IN MERINGUES — Call this dessert "June in January" or "Violets in December" when your guests ask its name. They will exclaim over its eye-appeal and delicious flavor because it is made with fresh-tasting plump red frozen raspberries and the meringues have nuts in them.

Berries in Nut Meringues Will Appeal to Company

Autumn is the time to try new dessert ideas. Family appetites are keener and occasions for serving desserts to guests are on the increase.

* * *

Frozen Raspberries in Nut Meringues is the ideal choice when you invite guests to "come for dessert"—and is just right to serve after the serious business of a committee meeting has been completed. Of course, a dessert as delicious as this is also the perfect final course for a special dinner party.

Serving raspberries in nut meringues rates you an "A" for good planning as well as for pleasing family and guests. Make the meringues the day before, be sure they are thoroughly dry, and place in a covered container.

Just an hour before serving, remove the raspberries from their packages and thaw them at room temperature. Arrange the meringues on dessert plates at that time, too.

* * *

Then you have to leave your guests or family only a few minutes to spoon the plump berries into the meringues and top with a bit of whipped or ice cream.

Frozen Raspberries In Nut Meringues

3 egg whites
½ teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon cream of tartar
1 cup chopped English walnuts
2 packages frozen raspberries
Whipped cream or ice cream

Prepare a well-greased cookie sheet and heat oven to 275 degrees (very slow). Combine egg whites, vanilla, cream of tartar and salt and beat until foamy. Continue beating while adding sugar 2 tablespoons at a time. Beat until very stiff and meringue holds its shape.

Fold in chopped nuts. Spoon meringue onto cookie sheet in shape of 3-inch circles (six or eight meringues.) Bake at temperature given above for one hour. Remove meringues to cake rack to cool.

Serve when cool or store in tightly covered container. An hour before serving remove raspberries from packages and allow to thaw at room temperature.

To serve, pile raspberries on meringues and top with a dot of whipped cream or a small mound of ice cream. Serves six to eight.

Avoid Double Boiler

Don't use a double boiler as a steamer when you are making steamed puddings, unless a particular recipe specifies that the double boiler may be used. In general, the boiler does not allow the steam to circulate completely around the pudding mold.

New Water Cooler Provides Hot, Too

A water "cooler" recently introduced not only provides thirst-quenching cold water, but also hot water at the right temperature for making instant coffee, chocolate, tea or even soup.

* * *

The hot water faucet is located at one side of the top of the "cooler" and the cold water outlet on the other.

This machine is designed to solve the problem of the coffee-break in small offices. Since the war the coffee break has become a national institution in American business.

The new device makes it possible for small firms with 5 to 75 employes to furnish facilities for employes' coffee-break at minimum cost. Using instant coffee and paper hot drink cups there is little clean-up problem.

In this "hot and cold" water unit, water for instant coffee may be heated to a temperature as high as 185 degrees by a 500 watt element, which is controlled by an adjustable thermostat.

A secondary thermostat is included in the circuit as a safety factor. The copper tank, containing the heated water, can deliver 20 6-ounce cups for immediate use. An additional 40 cups of heated water may be drawn per hour.

* * *

The cold water section of the machine is not affected by the hot water heater due to fiberglass insulation.

Steep Tender Chicken in Fruit-Wine Sauce

Tender chicken steeped in a fruit sauce of apricots and raisins is just the kind of fine eating to suit this gala season.

Thaw 2 packages (1-pound size) frozen chicken breasts, thighs, drumsticks or wings as directed on package. Brown chicken in 2 tablespoons butter or margarine. Add one-fourth cup sliced, dried apricots, one-fourth cup seedless raisins and three-fourths cup sauterne. Season with one-half teaspoon salt and a dash of black pepper.

Cover and simmer about 45 minutes or until chicken is tender. Turn chicken occasionally during cooking. Before serving, pour an additional tablespoon of wine over chicken. Six to eight servings.

'Soup's On!'— Means Lunch to Americans

Isn't it wonderful how adaptable we Americans have become?

Thrown to the winds is the old-fashioned custom of calling only the noon meal "lunch." Today it can be a mid-morning "break," the evening meal, or a before-bed snack. Whatever the time, when you come right down to it, it's lunch.

* * *

One thing has remained unchanged . . . soup's still the universal favorite for that indefinable meal tucked in between the crowing of the cock and bedtime. Whether in breakfast nook or schoolroom, at a drugstore counter or aboard ship, the call "Soup's on!" is the American way of saying "Lunch is served."

Today's trend toward functionalism has given us new ideas for ways of serving soup. We've dusted off Grandma's copper coffee pot, so decorative on the mantelpiece, and heated soup in it. Caused a mild sensation!

When Junior made the meal, he filled a brand new chemistry flask with tomato soup. What a cheerful splash of color it added to the lunch table!

* * *

Sis chose a carafe for keeping bouillon hot at the table. And when it was Dad's turn to man the kitchen, he did the soup honors in a heat-proof glass pan that doubled as a tureen. Looked pretty, too, well-filled with vegetable beef soup.

Common table salt and its components, sodium and chlorine, have more than 14,000 uses in diet, industry and agriculture.

Ham Filling Makes Tasty Turnovers

A ham filling makes these turnovers tasty.

Cornmeal Ham Turnovers

½ cup enriched cornmeal
1 cup sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup shortening
⅔ cup milk
Ham filling

Sift together the cornmeal, flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in shortening thoroughly. Add milk all at once, stirring only until dry ingredients are dampened. (Add a little more milk if necessary to make a soft dough.)

Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth; knead gently several times. Roll out one-fourth-inch thick; cut 10 4-inch circles.

Put 1 to 2 tablespoons ham filling on half of each circle. Fold other half of dough over filling and press edges together.

Bake on ungreased cookie sheet in very hot (450 degree) oven 12 to 15 minutes or until browned.

Ham Filling

Mix together well 1 cup diced cooked ham, 2 tablespoons chili sauce, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, one-half teaspoon horseradish, one-fourth teaspoon salt.

Lack of Protein Reduces Energy and Endurance

WASHINGTON, D. C. — A diet which is low in protein may lead to a tired body and a slowing down of the mind.

* * *

This was reported recently by Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, president of the Chicago Board of Health.

Dr. Bundesen said that a shortage of protein reduces energy and endurance. A continued shortage of protein, which provides the body's "building blocks," would permit the body to destroy itself.

Proteins come from many foods including meat, milk, eggs, fish, cheese and soybeans, which are eaten in the form of soy flour, reports the Soya Food Research Council of Washington.

* * *

Various forms of these protein-rich items are used in popular foods. For instance, many white and special breads use soy flour, liquid or dry milk, and whole or powdered eggs as ingredients to increase the protein content of the bread.

Although bread is the most common food which is improved this way, other bakery products using soy flour as an ingredient include rolls, cakes, pie crusts, cookies, tarts and specialty products.

Cheese Flavoring Enhances Burgers

Give special flavor to hamburgers this way!

Double Cheese Burgers

Ingredients:

1 pound ground beef
¾ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon onion salt
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 jar (5 ounces) pimiento cheese spread
4 hamburger rolls
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

Mix together the beef, salt, pepper, onion salt and Worcestershire sauce thoroughly but lightly with a fork.

Cut hamburger rolls in half; spread each half with cheese spread. Heat butter in a medium-sized skillet; add hamburgers and cook to desired degree of doneness.

Meanwhile place cheese-spread rolls in broiler, 3 inches from heat; broil until cheese is bubbly. Place a hamburger on the bottom half of each roll.

Place tops on rolls and serve at once. Makes four servings.

Sandwich Designed Especially for Teeners

Schrafft's, the famous restaurant, recently dreamed up a special sandwich for a teenage magazine to offer its readers. It is hearty enough to satisfy hunger and pretty enough to serve at a party. It is a bubbly hot, broiled ham and cheese sandwich seasoned with pimientos, Worcestershire sauce and mayonnaise.

To go over it is this delicious Barbecue Topping: Saute one small sliced onion in butter or margarine until golden brown; add 1 cup canned applesauce, two-thirds cup catsup, 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, one-fourth teaspoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon oregano.

Heat, stirring occasionally. Spoon over sandwiches and sprinkle each with grated Swiss cheese. (Takes one-fourth cup grated Swiss.) This makes enough sauce for six sandwiches.

Buttered Tenderoni Can Take Variations

Buttered tenderoni — Cook one package of tenderoni as directed on box. Add one-fourth cup melted butter or margarine; turn over and over until butter or margarine is absorbed. Serve immediately. Four to six servings.

Good variations: Sprinkle each serving with grated cheese. Or, after turning in melted butter, add 2 teaspoons poppy seeds.

Ham Lets Homemaker Enjoy Holiday Fun

Holidays are eating times, and the smart homemaker who hopes to enjoy all of the festivities during the gala Thanksgiving - through-Christmas time plans ahead to insure every minute of freedom from food preparation that she can.

* * *

Fruitcakes and cookies can be prepared months ahead of the holidays then stored in freezers and in some instances, airtight containers, to await festive service.

But the entrees, the mainstay of the luncheons, family dinners, buffet suppers and midnight snacks, are not as easily provided weeks in advance, unless, of course, the freezer is well stocked with meats.

But without a freezer, what will you choose? Ham, of course!.

A canned ham, tucked into the recesses of a modern refrigerator will be ready for eating at almost a minute's notice. (The unopened can will keep in the home refrigerator several months, and about a week after it has been opened.)

A fully cooked ham won't hold in the refrigerator as long as the canned variety, but it too is ready at a moments notice for slicing thin and frizzling for breakfast, or grilling for hot luncheon sandwiches, or slicing thick and broiling for hearty dinner service.

RIGHT TO THE TABLE

Fully cooked and canned hams may go directly to the table once they're shed their wrappings but many people like to give the meat a short heating in the oven before serving.

Ten minutes per pound at 325 degreen will warm the full-flavored meat to eating goodness. Cook-before-eating hams need 18 minutes per pound at 325 degrees, if whole; 22 minutes per pound, if half.

For best results, follow the directions on the ham wrapper.

Glaze the holiday ham colorfully and garnish it simply for festive meals. About half an hour before the end of cooking time, remove the meat from the oven. Score the fat into diamonds and stick a clove into the center of each diamond, if you wish.

Rub with brown sugar or cover with one of the following glazes and finish baking at 325 degrees, until well glazed, basting frequently:

1. Cranberry sauce, the jellied or whole berry kind.
2. Juice from pickled peaches or crabapples.
3. Apricot or citrus marmalade.
4. Pineapple - orange juice or apple cider.
5. Currant, crabapple, or red wine jelly blended with a little hot water.

Save enough of the cooked ham to grind and use in preparing ham patties with sweet-sour sauce.

If you like, shape the patties and assemble the sauce ingredients early in the morning, then cook croquettes and reheat sauce just before serving.

HAM PATTIES WITH SWEET-SOUR SAUCE

Patties

4 cups ground cooked ham
1 cup fresh bread crumbs
2 tablespoons milk
2 eggs, beaten
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon dry mustard

Sauce

½ cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon dry mustard
½ cup water
2 tablespoons vinegar
½ cup dark corn syrup
6 whole cloves

Combine all ingredients for patties. Shape into rounds one-half inch thick; chill. Fry patties in 1 inch deep hot fat until browned and crispy.

Drain and serve with hot sauce. To prepare sauce, combine all ingredients and cook until mixture is smooth and thickened.

HAWAHAN TUNA-BURGERS — It's something new for the younger set; it's tasty eating for any age. This delicious hot sandwich has both tuna-fish and pineapple slices on it. Both halves of the sandwich are broiled just before serving.

Tuna-Burgers Hint of Hawaii

Now that chilly fall weather is here to stay, it's time to think of quick, hot menus to fix for the home-for-lunch crowd.

Here's a variation of the ever-popular tuna sandwich that's sure to provide a pleasant surprise for all. It's a hot version served on a burger bun, and the slice of pineapple makes it Hawaiian style!

Quick and easy to prepare, this recipe will be a favorite once you've served it to your hungry youngsters. Here's the recipe for:

Hawaiian Tuna-Burgers

1 can (7-ounce) tuna, drained
½ cup mayonnaise
½ cup chopped celery
1 tablespoon minced onion (or chives)
Salt
Pepper
6 buttered burger buns or English muffins
6 pineapple slices, drained

Mix first six ingredients together and spread on top halves of buttered buns. Place a drained pineapple slice on the bottom halves of buns and brush with melted butter.

Arrange all on broiler rack and broil slowly for five-six minutes, until heated through and pineapple is lightly browned.

Serve open-faced with crisp fresh vegetables and milk or hot chocolate for the children, or with tea or coffee for the adults. Makes six sandwiches.

Try Fruit Frost for Thanksgiving

Colorful dessert for the Thanksgiving season:

Apple Cranberry Frost

1 cup canned applesauce.
¼ cup honey.
1 cup jellied cranberry sauce.
1 tablespoon lemon juice.
1 cup whipping cream.
1 tablespoon honey.
½ teaspoon cinnamon.
¼ teaspoon nutmeg.

Blend applesauce, ¼ cup honey, cranberry sauce, and lemon juice. Whip cream until mixture starts to hold its shape. Add the tablespoon honey and spices. Continue whipping until well blended but not too stiff.

* * *

Gently marble the apple-cranberry mixture into whipped cream, so color is streaked through cream. Pour into freezing tray, insert ice cube divider. Freeze quickly. Serve cubes of dessert in sherbet glasses. Yields six servings.

Shrimp Combination Appeals to Menfolks

Men go for shrimp combined with ingredients that give a man-sized main dish. Next time you have a request for shrimp make a special dish of it! First blend 1 can (1¾ cups) condensed cream of celery soup with ¼ cup milk in saucepan. Clean one-half pound shrimp, cooked (or one 7-ounce can). Cut in half lengthwise.

Add shrimp, 2-hardcooked eggs, sliced, and one-fourth cup chopped green pepper to soup. Stir and heat. Serve over 3 cups hot, cooked rice (1 cup uncooked or one 5-ounce package pre-cooked). Four servings.

Add to Whipped Cream

Plain whipped cream, as if it needed any garnish, can get 1 tablespoon of sugar and 1 tablespoon of instant coffee added to one-half pint before whipping.

Can Fruit Without Sugar, Using Liquid Sweetener

Here's good news for diabetics and people on low-calorie diets.

* * *

Contrary to popular opinion, most fruits may be canned without sugar. Sugar will help keep the shape, natural flavor and color of fruits used for canning, but it is not necessray for the preservation of the fruit.

So—for low cost sugar-free fare for those who need it or want it—home canning can be the answer. But now it's possible to have the sweet taste that sugar provides by using a new, concentrated liquid sweetener, called Sugarine.

A calorie-free sweetener, Sugarine can be used in preparing syrups for home canning—or in any recipe where sugar is not required for bulk.

* * *

When preparing a syrup for canning, use the following measure: For a light syrup, use 1 tablespoonful of Sugarine, mixed with 3 cups of water. For a medium-light syrup, use 1 tablespoonful of Sugarine, plus only 2 cups of water. For a medium syrup, use 1 tablespoonful of Sugarine, plus 1 cup of water.

This time of year, apples are probably the most popular fruit, both for pies and for applesauce. Following is a tried and true recipe for sugar-free applesauce:

Wash and drain fresh, sound apples. Remove stems and blossom ends and slice. Cook until soft, using a little water to prevent sticking.

Press apples through a sieve or food mill to remove skin and seed, then sweeten the applesauce with Sugarine to suit your taste. Reheat to boiling and pour, boiling hot into fruit jars.

* * *

Stir to remove air bubbles, then process 20 minutes in boiling water.

Vegetable Medley Is Treat for Winter

This vegetable medley may be served as is or with a cream sauce.

Winter Vegetable Medley

1½ cups coarsely shredded cabbage.
1 cup diced carrots.
½ cup diced celery.
½ cup diced onion.
½ cup boiling water.
¾ teaspoon salt.
2 tablespoons butter or margarine.

Mix cabbage, carrot, celery and onion together in a saucepan. Add boiling water, salt and butter.

* * *

Cover and bring quickly to a boil; lift cover and stir several times as vegetables boil gently until just tender-crisp.

Serve at once. Makes four servings. (Save any vegetable cooking liquid for use in soup or sauce.)

Crumble Rolled Oats

Measure the rolled oats—if you are using a meat loaf recipe that calls for it—then rub the cereal between the palms of your hands to crumble it before adding it to the meat.

SQUARED CIRCLES — Large size polka dots on square cookies make an interesting combination. The cookies are plain vanilla ones with the dots made from rum or mint-flavored chocolate wafers. Easy enough to do and wonderfully effective.

Candy Wafers Crown Cookies

When is a cookie more than a cookie? When it's a Squared Circle, of course. These cookies, plus coffee, are anytime, anywhere treats!

Squared Circles

4 cups sifted enriched flour
½ teaspoon baking soda
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup butter or margarine
2 cups sugar
3 eggs, unbeaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 package rum or mint-flavored chocolate wafers

Measure flour, baking soda and salt into sifter. Sift twice and return to sifter. Cream butter or margarine in bowl. Add sugar gradually, creaming thoroughly after each addition.

Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Blend in vanilla. Sift in dry ingredients and blend well. Cover bowl. Chill dough firm enough to roll.

Roll out half of chilled dough into one-fourth inch thick square. Cut into 2½-inch squares. Center each square with chocolate wafer. Repeat with remaining dough.

* * *

Bake on greased cookie sheets in moderate oven, 350 degrees, about 10 minutes or until edges of cookies are golden brown. Cool on wire racks. Yield: 4½ dozen.

Seafood Casserole Fine for Company

Seafood Crunch Casserole

1 can (10 ounces) frozen condensed cream of shrimp soup
¼ cup mayonnaise
1 cup crushed potato chips
1 can (6½ ounces) crab meat (drained and flaked)
1 cup diced celery
½ cup diced onion
½ cup diced green pepper
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Thaw shrimp soup; mix well with mayonnaise. Add three-fourths cup crushed potato chips and remaining ingredients; stir well.

Turn into greased 1½-quart casserole; top with remaining one-fourth cup crushed chips. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven about 45 minutes. Makes four servings.

Yankees Visiting Canada Won't Miss Holiday Feast

No American need go without the traditional roast turkey dinner if he or she happens to be in Canada on U. S. Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24.

* * *

Special Thanksgiving turkey dinners will be served on Canadian National dining cars and at Canadian National hotels, coast to coast, and the turkey will be cooked "just right."

"Most people overcook their Thanksgiving turkey," stated Joseph F. Nellis, chef instructor of the Canadian National Railways sleeping and dining car department. "They get up early in the morning to put the bird in the oven and roast it for several hours. No wonder it is considered dry by the time it reaches the dining table."

The veteran chef, who has spent more than 35 years in kitchens on diners, steamships, hotels and restaurants of the CNR, says 3 to 3½ hours is all the time required to cook a 20-pound bird. "That's the formula used on our diners. At Christmas, we cook more than 10 tons of turkey."

* * *

To cook a turkey so that it retains all its natural flavor and juices, Nellis says, it should be put in an oven of 400 degrees for the first half hour. "This seals in the juices, and the oven can then be reduced to about 350 degrees for the rest of the roasting period.

Another idea advanced by Nellis is that of spreading butter over the bird, should it be lean. If it is a fat bird, there is no need for this, the expert chef says, nor is there a need to put the turkey in a brown paper bag as many housewives do.

However, the brown paper bag is an advantage if the bird is being reheated for another meal, he admits.

* * *

On the CNR diners, vegetables are usually added to the roasting pan. Carrots, onions and celery are put in with the turkey and allowed to cook for the duration of the roast. Nellis says this provides added juices and makes ideal gravy.

APPLE MERINGUE BASKETS — This dessert is as good as it looks. Use some of the current crop of good eating and cooking apples in such easy desserts as this one called Apple Meringue Baskets. The base is made from slices of baker's pound cake. The cinnamon-flavored apples nestle in delicate, browned meringue.

Meringue Tops Apple Baskets

Here's a brand new apple dessert which is as gay as a spring painting, and designed to taste scrumptious. Easy to make, too. Just right for luncheon dessert, or to end a guest dinner, or a family party.

Use up the current good crop of cooking and eating apples in making such delicious desserts.

Apple Meringue Baskets

2 cups water
½ cup sugar
3-inch stick cinnamon
Red food coloring
2 cups sliced apples
1 loaf baker's pound cake
2 egg whites
¼ cup sugar

Combine water, 1 cup sugar, cinnamon, and enough coloring to tint deep pink. Add apples; simmer about 10 minutes, or until apples are rosy and tender; drain.

Cut cake in four thick slices. Overlap rows of apple slices on each cake slice. Make a meringue of egg whites and one-fourth cup sugar; spread around sides of cake.

Bake in hot oven, 450 degrees, about five minutes, or until meringue is lightly browned. Makes four servings.

Baked Potato Puff Delicious, Hearty

Such a good potato dish!

Baked Potato Puff

¼ cup butter
¼ cup sifted flour
1 cup milk
1½ cups hot riced potatoes (firmly packed)
1½ teaspoons salt
Dash of pepper
2 teaspoons grated onion
4 eggs (separated)

Melt butter in heavy saucepan over low heat; stir in flour well. Add milk all at once. Cook and stir constantly over low heat until thickened.

Remove from heat. Beat in mashed potatoes, salt, pepper and onion.

Beat egg yolks well; add a little of the hot mixture to the beaten yolks, stirring constantly as you do so. Add to remaining hot mixture; mix well.

Beat egg whites stiff. Fold lightly into potato mixture. Turn into greased 5-cup shallow casserole.

Bake in pan of hot water in slow (325 degrees) oven about 50 minutes or until a knife inserted in center comes out clean. Makes six servings.

Cabbage-Lined Basket Holds Shrimp, Sauce

Breaded shrimp, to be dipped into sauce, are good eating any way you serve them, but especially nice in a basket lined with crisp cabbage leaves. Delicious!

* * *

Enhance them with a very little bit of this bit-the-tongue horseradish sauce, served in the basket right along with the shrimp.

Shrimp 'n' Sauce Basket

1 package frozen breaded shrimp
2 pints shortening
½ cup catsup
¼ cup bottled prepared horseradish
Crisp cabbage leaves, cup-shaped

Heat shortening in deep fryer to 350 degrees, or use a deep pot with a frying thermometer for correct temperature. Place shrimp direct from package into frying basket and lower into hot shortening. Fry until golden brown, two to three minutes. Drain on paper.

Blend catsup and horseradish. Line serving basket with cabbage leaves, fill large leaves with shrimp and spoon sauce into smaller leaf cups. Serve with cabbage salad, cole slaw or molded Perfection Salad.

* * *

(To remove crisp leaves whole from chilled cabbage head, cut each at base near core. Hold cabbage under faucet and let cold water run inside each leaf to loosen.)

To scramble eggs, crumble cheese or crush berries, use your pastry blender. The many blades make the work easier.

Little Folks Love to Help Mommy Fill Cookie Jar

All children love cookies. They love the crunchy, crisp ones and the soft, puffy ones. They love the raisins or gum drops that are often baked into the fragrant dough.

* * *

Spices play an important part in cooky making. Ginger, for example, is one of the favorite flavors among the back-to-school set. The aroma of ginger cookees abaking in the kitchen attracts children as honey attracts bees.

Almost before the cookies are out of the oven, small hands will be grabbing for them. Now, incidentally, is a good time to make sure your ginger and other spices are fresh for the fall baking season ahead.

Whether in a lunchbox, or as a treat to bridge the gap between lunch and dinner, cookies can actually be important in a child's diet. The sugar and eggs and milk and flour which they contain are all important body-builders.

A glass of milk is the usual accompaniment to a cookie or two. Thus the cookie-break also helps to insure that the youngsters get their minimum daily ration of milk.

* * *

Children love to help in the baking of cookies. Even the very little pre-schooler likes helping Mommie in her mixing and rolling. The joy that the little ones derive from a baking project is wonderful to watch.

If they have been allowed to cut the cookies, or to drop them onto the greased cookie sheet their pride in the lopsided results well pays Mother for the added mess and inconvenience that her young helpers invariably produce.

Oatmeal Ginger Cookies

1½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
2 teaspoons ground ginger
¾ teaspoon ground nutmeg
2 cups quick-cooking oatmeal
½ cup shortening
1½ cups sugar
2 eggs
½ cup milk
½ cup seedless raisins
½ cup chopped nuts
Seeded raisins (optional)

Sift first five ingredients together and mix with the oatmeal. (Set aside for later use.) Cream shortening with sugar. Beat in eggs. Add flour mixture alternately with milk. Stir in raisins and nuts.

Drop from a teaspoon onto lightly greased cookie sheets. Top each with a seeded raisin, if desired. Bake 15 minutes or until lightly brown in a preheated moderate oven (375 degrees). Yield: Three dozen cookies.

Gum Drop Ginger Cookies

½ cup shortening
1½ cups light brown sugar
¾ teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons ground ginger
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
2½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
½ cup sour milk
1 cup chopped gum drops

Cream first six ingredients together. Beat in egg. Stir in flour alternately with milk. Add gum drops.

Drop dough onto lightly greased cookie sheets. Top each with a slice of gum drop. Bake 17 minutes or until edges have browned in a preheated moderate oven (375 degrees). Yield: Three dozen cookies.

Have you ever wondered why many foods are coated with crumbs before they are fried? The reason is simply this:

The coating improves their appearance, flavor, texture and digestibility. During frying, the coating forms a crunchy brown covering that keeps fat out of the food and in the skillet or fryer where it belongs.

* * *

There are many kinds of crumb coatings, and you may have fried them all. But here is one—made of bite-size shredded rice biscuits—that you'll like better than any of the others.

In addition to having good cereal flavor, the biscuits are convenient and easy to use. And because they're crisp toasted as they come from the package, crushing them into crumbs is a snap. Just use your rolling pin, or—and this is a real labor-saver—put them through the finest blade of your food grinder.

* * *

It's a good idea to make extra crumbs to keep on hand because you'll be using them often for fried foods like the Ham Croquettes shown here.

Bite-size shredded wheat biscuits are fine for crumbs, too. No matter which of the cereals you choose, you'll find that they'll make the crispest, tastiest coating ever.

Ham Croquettes

⅓ cup butter or margarine
⅓ cup all-purpose flour
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 cup milk
2 cups ground cooked ham
1 teaspoon finely chopped onion
4 cups bite-size shredded rice biscuits
1 egg
2 tablespoons water
Fat for frying

Melt butter in 6-cup saucepan. Stir in flour, salt and pepper. Add milk and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture is smooth and thick. Turn heat low and cook five more minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat.

Add ham and onion. Mix well. Pour into shallow pan. Cover and chill two to three hours or overnight. About an hour before serving time, roll bite-size shredded rice biscuits into fine crumbs or put through food grinder, using finest blade.

Divide chilled mixture into eight equal portions. Shape each portion into a cone 3 inches high. Beat egg and water together slightly in a shallow dish. Roll each croquette in cereal crumbs, then in beaten egg, then in crumbs again.

Make sure that each coating completely covers croquettes. Let dry at room temperature 30 minutes. Heat 3 inches of fat to 375 degrees in heavy pan or deep-fat fryer.

Place croquettes, a few at a time, in frying basket. Fry two to three minutes or until golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper. Makes eight croquettes.

Many people believe that there are as many as 600 calories in a teaspoonful of sugar. Actually there are only 18 calories.

Glasses in 3 Sizes

New hostess sets of drinking glasses come in three sizes: 11-ounce Pilsners, 14 and 10-ounce beverage tumblers. One set features stylized golden flakes in a delicate geometric pattern and is rimmed with gold. Another has turquoise and silver fish, and still another is gay with swirls of pink and charcoal black accented with gold.

Glorify Extra Turkey

Plan to use post-Thanksgiving turkey with a flair. Top a casserole of turkey, gravy, peas and pimiento with turkey-shaped biscuits. Cut them from your favorite rolled biscuit dough with a turkey-shaped cutter. Arrange them atop the turkey mixture before sliding the casserole into the oven.

Enliven canned baked beans with catsup and Worcestershire sauce.

Seven Year Old Plans Birthday Feast

Pontiac Press Home Editor

Recently we had a birthday at our house. The Six-year-old is now the Seven-year-old. He was allowed to choose what he wanted for his birthday dinner; that's a family tradition.

Here's our menu: Hamburgers (with lots of catsup), plain buttered macaroni, canned mixed vegetables, fruit salad, cake and ice cream clowns.

A friend of ours said we were lucky he didn't want all desserts. We weren't too worried. The only thing that bothered us was that can of mixed vegetables.

Over the years we have learned to eat plain buttered macaroni and find it not too unpalatable. We did slip a box of grated cheese on the table for any who liked more highly seasoned food. But those vegetables!

While the Seven-year-old will eat them happily out of the can—unheated—he's the only one in the family that fond of them. If we dressed them up with a cream sauce, he wouldn't touch them. We just gave up, served him what he wanted and cooked cauliflower for the others.

Home canned peaches and pears make a good salad. We passed a bowl of cranberry sauce at the table for adding to the original fruit. No one cares much for mayonnaise, but the bright cranberries made a good addition.

Just the day before we had made three dozen cupcakes to send to school for the combination birthday-Halloween party. We were a little fed up with cake making. It seemed like a good time to try that package of sponge cake mix we had tucked away. It's the kind to which you add eggs and is made by a national company famous for angel food mixes.

* * *

The cake rose beautifully and came out of the pan without any trouble. It was a handsome dessert. We left it plain, putting only the birthday candles on it. Everyone enjoyed it.

We think it is good, but not quite so tasty as the sunshine cake we make from scratch. However, no hostess need ever make any apologies for serving it. It can also be used for jelly-rolls and for icebox desserts.

* * *

There's nothing to making an ice cream clown. They do please the youngsters. Put a scoop of ice cream in a sauce dish. Invert an ice cream cone on top for the hat. Make features of red cinnamon candies or chocolate bits. If you want to be real fancy, pipe a frill of whipped cream around the bottom of the ice cream.

Make Giblet Spread

Chicken giblets need from 1 to 1½ hours when they are being simmered in water. Turkey giblets take from two to three hours. Put the giblets through a food chopper, then mix them with crisply cooked crumbled bacon, mayonnaise and salt and pepper for a fine sandwich spread.

Pour Orange Sauce on Sweet Potatoes

A sweet potato dish for your family or company.

Orange Sweet Potatoes

1 can (1 pound and 2 ounces) sweet potatoes
2¼ teaspoons cornstarch
¼ cup granulated sugar
¼ cup firmly-packed dark brown sugar
½ teaspoon orange rind
⅓ cup orange juice
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

Cut potatoes in half lengthwise; arrange in a heat-resistant glass pie plate (9½ inches across the top inside and 1½ inches deep).

Stir cornstarch and sugars together thoroughly in 1-quart saucepan; add orange rind and orange juice gradually, stirring until there are no lumps.

Stir constantly over moderate heat until thickened; cook a few minutes longer. Remove from heat and stir in butter until melted.

Pour over sweet potatoes. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 20 minutes. Makes six servings.

Add Nutrition to Eggs

Here's how to add nutrients to the family's scrambled eggs. For each serving, put an egg in a bowl. Add 2 tablespoons of milk, a tablespoon of nonfat dry milk solids and a dash of salt and pepper. Beat until smooth and scramble as usual.

Company coming? Dress up cooked cauliflowerets with browned butter and toasted chopped blanched almonds to make a delicious vegetable to serve with roast meat or fowl.

Spread Features Olives, Bacon, Eggs

Soup and sandwiches fill the bill for a light meal.

Bacon And Egg Sandwiches

⅓ cup ripe olives
3 hard-cooked eggs
4 crisply-cooked bacon strips
¼ teaspoon salt
1-3 cup mayonnaise

Cut olives from pits; chop. Dice eggs. Mix olives, eggs and crumbled bacon lightly.

* * *

Sprinkle with salt and mix in lightly. (Makes about 1¾ cups). Use as sandwich filling.

For an inviting breakfast treat serve a bowl of cornflakes topped with slices of fresh red Delicious apple.

Baby Food Canners Are Kept Busy in U.S.

Some 11,000 new U. S. babies arrive each day. That is the market which is keeping the baby food canners humming. The industry estimates about 90 per cent of all babies are fed some form of canned baby food. Before World War II less than half of them were.

* * *

Canned baby foods, introduced about 30 years ago, now account for about 10 per cent of all canned foods produced in the United States. Strained and chopped meats for infants are a fast-rising newcomer to the canned baby food field.

Don't Stuff Holiday Turkey Until Time for Roasting!

If you are perhaps toying with the idea of stuffing and freezing your Thanksgiving bird several weeks in advance, give up the idea right away.

* * *

According to an article in the November issue of a home magazine, this is definitely not recommended. In fact, the article does not even recommend stuffing a turkey the day before it is to be roasted and storing it in the refrigerator. Here are the reasons:

First, the freezing time, required to lower the temperature of the stuffed bird to a safe level throughout is too long to insure that bacterial growth will be stopped soon enough to prevent formation of toxins—and these toxins will not be destroyed by cooking.

Second, if the bird is placed in the oven frozen, the temperature in its center will never become high enough to kill bacteria unless the roasting is prolonged to a point where the meat is ruined.

* * *

Letting the bird thaw at room temperature before roasting is equally dangerous, because of long time involved.

Stuffing and freezing the bird a day, or only several hours, before roasting is also unsafe.

To be safe, not sorry, the best procedure is to combine ingredients and stuff the bird just before roasting.

Is it possible to prepare stuffing in advance and freeze it and the bird separately? The American Institute of Baking advises against this. They found that poultry stuffing changed definitely when held for a week at zero; it became soggy and developed off-flavors.

Television Nibblers

Television dessert tray: Core but do not peel crisp red Delicious apples. Cut into thick slices and brush with pineapple or lemon juice to prevent discoloration. Fill the centers with sharp cheddar cheese.

Get every bit of batter out of that mixing bowl! You can if you use a rubber spatula. These spatulas come in two sizes—narrow and wide.

Cheese Has No Waste

Cheese is a food that has no waste: Every little bit can be used. Even if cheese molds, the moldy portion may be cut off and the rest used. End pieces of hard cheese can be grated. Keep grated cheese in a covered glass container in the refrigerator to have handy to add extra good flavor to many dishes.

Slightly beaten egg yolk thinned with water will give pastry or cookies a shiny gaze.

Easily Digested Cheese Appeals to Young, Old

Do you know that . . .

Cheese is readily and completely digested by folks of all ages; calorie counters find that a small amount of cheese has a lot of "staying power."

* * *

When using cottage cheese in main dishes, you can use parsley, herbs, chives, onion, green pepper, pimiento, and a variety of other seasonings to advantage for flavor variation. When cottage cheese is used in a cooked dish, use low heat and do not overcook.

The teenage girl must eat well every day for her own future and that of her children. She needs the nourishment of milk for its protein content as well as its calcium.

Young people who are inclined toward skipping breakfast should be set an example by older members of the family. If established practices are set up with ample time to eat, new habits can be formed.

Use Whole Tomatoes Straight From the Can

For garden-fresh tomato flavor all year 'round, use canned whole tomatoes. These plump whole tomatoes work well as individual salads.

* * *

Drain tomatoes, and place on lettuce leaves. Cut each tomato until it separates slightly into four wedges. Fill center with cottage cheese, egg, tuna or chicken salad.

Hearty Chowder Fills Bill for Lunch

Fill the luncheon bill with a hearty soup!

Beef and Vegetable Chowder

¼ pound ground beef chuck
1 small onion (minced)
1 teaspoon chili powder
¼ teaspoon salt
Pepper
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 can (10½ ounces) condensed tomato soup
1 can (11 ounces) condensed vegetable soup
Water

Mix beef, onion, one-half teaspoon chili powder, salt and dash of pepper together. Form meat mixture into 12 tiny balls.

* * *

Cook meat balls in butter until they are browned and done through. Add condensed undiluted tomato soup and condensed undiluted vegetable soup.

Fill one of the soup cans with water and add with remaining one-half teaspoon chili powder; simmer about five minutes or until flavors are blended. Makes four servings.

Crystalized Honey Should Be Warmed

To bring honey which may have crystalized back to the liquid form, Michigan State University food specialists suggest placing the container in a pan of warm water until the crystals disappear.

* * *

If further heating is necessary, set the container of honey on a rack off the bottom of the pan and set the pan over a low heat. Too much heat may cause flavor and color change in honey.

Bowl Bound MSU Whoops It Up; 'M' Saddened

EAST LANSING (AP) — "Dear Hoppy we love you . . ." a group of Michigan State university co-eds wired Howard (Hop-Along) Cassady after he led Ohio State to a 17-0 victory over Michigan in the brawling Big Ten football windup at Ann Arbor.

* * *

The mash note from the sorority sisters at Gama Phi Beta reflects the gratitude Michigan State feels toward the great Buckeye halfback for helping the Western Conference champs whitewash Michigan.

Ohio State is barred from repeating its Rose Bowl trip of last New Year's despite a perfect 6-0 conference record. So, Big Ten runner-up Michigan State (5-1) got the nod over the 3rd-place Michigan (5-2) for the Pasadena trip — and Cassady could have the Spartan statue on the MSU campus as his private paperweight if he wanted it.

Hop-Along's heroics made State's 33-0 2nd-half runaway over Marquette in Macklin Stadium a weird affair to watch.

* * *

The crowd sound effects were as inappropriate to what was actually happening on the field as a laugh at a funeral.

* * *

The partisan throng of 41,814 lugged hundreds of portable radios into the chilly stadium to listen to the goings-on between Michigan and Ohio State at nearby Ann Arbor. Play was stopped several times as Spartan rooters roared their enthusiasm for Hoppy. At one point, Marquette looked around in blank astonishment over a particularly wild outburst, thinking perhaps some MSU player had stolen the ball for a touchdown.

* * *

Instead of tending to the business at hand, the State team was eavesdropping on the Michigan game and collected only six points during the 1st half.

"I really chewed them out during the half," said coach Duffy Daugherty. "I told them they had a football game to play—not one to listen to."

* * *

Led by All-America quarterback candidate Earl Morrall, the Spartans settled down and rolled for four touchdowns in the 2nd half to finish with an 8-1 overall record for the season.

* * *

Steel goal posts were ripped out of their solid concrete foundations before the game was over. And Daugherty—a good candidate now for "coach of the year"—was carried on the shoulders of a howling mob back to the dressing room in triumph.

* * *

Michigan State didn't forget the part Illinois played in the Rose Bowl plot with its own upset of Michigan.

* * *

Athletic director Biggie Munn, who coached the Spartans to a comeback win over UCLA in State's 1st Rose Bowl appearance two years ago, sent out a batch of telegrams as soon as he received official notification of the return Pasadena visit.

* * *

Addressed to coaches and athletic officials at Ohio State and Illinois, they read: "Many thanks for your assistance."

* * *

"We did it before," said Munn of State's chances of beating UCLA in the bowl, "and we can do it again."

The official word that Michigan State was the Big Ten Rose Bowl selection was received with noisy enthusiasm on the MSU campus Sunday, but without the rioting that accompanied a similar announcement two years ago.

No formal demonstration had been planned, but the students started a spontaneous celebration, football coaches and players were hastily called to attend a pep rally in the band shell to keep the show in order.

* * *

The students went quietly back to their dormitories when the rally ended. So the demonstration was tame, compared to the wild riot that followed the 1953 announcement that State had been selected over Illinois. That year the undergrads invaded downtown East Lansing to snake dance through stores, set bonfires in the streets, tip cars and stop traffic.

* * *

"A great honor," said a beaming Duffy Daugherty of the bowl bid. "We'll work hard to try and represent the conference in the finest manner possible."

* * *

Daugherty said he was able to sneak a few quick looks at UCLA on television between congratulatory telephone calls Saturday night and was "greatly impressed" by his bowl opponents.

* * *

"A very fine football team," he said. "Their defense looked especially good."

Daugherty said he had not yet mapped all of his practice plans but probably would stage a few workouts on the home campus before leaving for the West Coast around Dec. 16.

"I want to get the team out there and accustomed to the climate," Daugherty said. "I remember that the smog bothered some of our players the last time."

* * *

The bowl-bound Spartans were to celebrate their lightning luck with a team banquet tonight. Quarterback Morrall is expected to be voted the "most valuable" award and halfback Clarence Peaks and center John Matsock are among the leading candidates for 1956 team captains.

CHEER STATE'S BID — 2,000 students clapped their hands and stamped their feet for Coach Duffy Daugherty — and to keep warm — at a student pep rally in the university bandshell following announcement of State's Rose Bowl bid. Spartans walloped Marquette, 33-0 Saturday, and won a trip to the Rose Bowl.

Lions Lose, Middleton Shines

DETROIT (AP)—While the Detroit Lions continue their colossal collapse, Dave Middleton is stamping himself as one of the outstanding rookies in the National Football League this season.

Middleton, who was the Lions' No. 1 draft choice last January, played brilliantly again yesterday in his comparatively new role as end.

He caught eight of Bobby Layne's passes for 168 yards, one going for a spectacular 77-yard touchdown.

But Middleton's efforts couldn't save the Lions from taking a 24-14 licking from the Chicago Bears, who rolled to their sixth straight victory to take command of first place in the western division.

The loss was Detroit's 7th against only two victories.

* * *

Quarterback Ed Brown heaped new humiliation on the Lions by completing 15 of 18 passes in a dazzling aerial show before a sell-out crowd of 53,610 in Briggs Stadium.

Brown gained 221 yards with his passes. Three of them went for touchdowns—two to Harlon Hill and one to Bill McColl.

Hill, perhaps the finest end in pro ball, twice fooled the Detroit defense with his baffling fakes to catch a pair of 3rd-quarter touchdowns.

His two catches erased a 14-10 lead Detroit had built at halftime and gave the Bears a 6-3 record for the season.

Hill spun away from Carl Karilivacz to take Brown's 20-yard shot in the end zone, putting Chicago into a 17-14 lead. Then he nailed down the victory by breaking clear on Bill Stits with a tricky stop-and-go motion and taking Brown's 40-yard strike for another score.

While Middleton tallied only once, he wasn't very far behind Hill in individual brilliance.

The Auburn rookie put Detroit into its halftime lead by collaborating with Layne on one of the finest plays seen in Briggs Stadium in a long time.

Middleton, who had started the season as a halfback, took Layne's 16-yard toss on Detroit 39, outfaked John Helwig at midfield and sprinted down the sidelines for the touchdown. Jug Girard provided a crushing block inside the 20, knocking out the last Chicago defender.

Detroit coach Buddy Parker, who hasn't had much to talk about this season, says Middleton should develop into one of the circuit's really fine ends. Off yesterday's showing, he hasn't far to go.

Layne tried mightily to keep the Lions' winning streak going to three straight. He tried 32 passes, completing 20 for 319 yards. In addition to his long play to Middleton, he started a 70-yard touchdown pass play to Doak Walker.

But the Bears, mixing Brown's passing with a solid ground attack, proved to be too much for the Lions in the 2nd half.

Musial, Now 35, Hopes to Quit at 3,000 Hits

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Stan (The Man) Musial, celebrating his 35th birthday today, is still confident he'll be able to reach the 3,000-hit milestone before calling it a day with the St. Louis Cardinals.

* * *

The $80,000-a-year veteran performer, whose name is commonplace in the game's record books, puts his ambition this way:

* * *

"When I get those hits I'll quit. Baseball is a wonderful profession, but I've had enough."

* * *

Musial, who finished the 1955 season with a total of 2,597 hits, figures it will take him nearly three more seasons to collect the remaining 403 safeties.

* * *

No other active player is close to him in the quest to become the eighth player in the game's history to equal the mark.

Already in the select group are Ty Cobb, Honus Wagner, Tris Speaker, Cap Anson, Nap Lajoie, Eddie Collins and Paul Waner.

* * *

The Man let it be known he was happy to hear General Manager Frank Lane's recent remark that he would play in the outfield from here on in. Musial has played first base for the Birds at various times, including part of last season.

"I'll tell you one thing," Musial said. "Playing at first base where there's more work and tension bothered me at the plate last year.

* * *

"Last year, I noticed, it became tougher to concentrate while batting. And you have to concentrate up there. I'd go for a pitch, pop up, and wonder why I ever went for it. In other years—my good ones—I would have let 'em go. It's getting harder, but I still think I can get a hit every three times up."

* * *

Getting ready for his 14th season with the Cardinals, Musial also is closing in on Mel Ott's 1,071 extra-base record with his total of 1,020. Seven more homers will put him ahead of Hank Greenberg as No. 9 on the all-time list. He's No. 10 in doubles and holds the National League mark of 100 runs scored 11 times just to mention a few of his accomplishments.

Fidler, Horner Win Closed Skate Test

Judy Fidler and Jack Horner of the Rolladium won the Highland Schottische, the 2nd in a series of "closed" dance contests, at the Rolladium Sunday night.

* * *

Two other Rolladium skaters, Penny Money and Ron Michaels, won the 1st in a series of "open" dance contests last Thursday at the Pontiac roller rink. They performed the Fascination Fox Trot.

Winners of the 3rd elimination race of the 1st period were: Class A—Danny Weber and Diana Rigotti; Class B—Gary Hudson and Janie Metzner, and Class C—Jerry Charter and Pam Reid.

Brown Wins by 6 at Pinehurst

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—J. Walker Brown of Sea Girt, N.J., is the new Southern Seniors golf champion.

He won by six strokes over runner-up John L. McCann of Charlotte as the 25th anniversary tournament ended yesterday. Defending champion John W. Roberts of Columbus, Ohio, finished in a four-way tie for third place, 10 strokes behind the winner in the 36-hole test.

Wings Doing What Comes Naturally — Play 1-1 Tie

CHICAGO (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings still are in 5th place in the National Hockey League today, because they did last night what has come naturally for them this season. They played a tie game.

It was a 1-1 tie with the Chicago Black Hawks. Had the Red Wings won they would have vaulted into a 3rd place tie with Boston with 18 points and would have shoved Chicago into 5th place with 17 points.

As things ended up, Boston tied tailend Toronto, 1-1, and remained in a tie with Chicago for 3rd. Each has 18 points, one more than Detroit.

* * *

The Detroit-Chicago tie, incidentally, was the 9th in the last 15 games for the Red Wings, who have registered only two victories in that stretch. One of the wins was a 4-1 decision over Chicago at Detroit Saturday.

* * *

Rookie Hec LaLande got Chicago off in the lead midway in the first period last night.

* * *

Real Chevrefils evened it for Detroit six minutes later, tipping in a long pass from defenseman Bob Goldham.

Wildcats Deny Holcomb Offer

Hope to Name Sports Chief Within Next 3 Weeks

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Northwestern University hopes to name an athletic director within the next three weeks, a university official said yesterday after denying reports that Purdue Football Coach Stu Holcomb had been offered the job.

* * *

Dean F. G. Seulberger, chairman of the Northwestern faculty athletic committee, said "Holcomb is one of many candidates being considered for the position but has not been offered the job."

* * *

Seulberger commented on the situation after the Indianapolis Star reported that it had heard from a confidential source that Holcomb had been offered the job.

* * *

Seulberger said Holcomb had been recommended for the job by an alumnus and is one of the many candidates being considered for the post.

* * *

The job was left open when Ted Payseur, Northwestern athletic director, was named assistant business manager two weeks ago.

Maryland Dropping Race Bar in Guard

BALTIMORE, Md. (INS)—Maryland is the first state below the Mason-Dixon line to end racial segregation in its National Guard.

The order was issued last night by Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin and was sent to National guard Commander Milton A. Reckord.

McKeldin said steps should be taken without delay to bring a prompt end to segregation in the state's military service.

Reckord said the order would be complied with immediately.

At present, the Maryland National Guard has two all-Negro transportation units.

Gets Bowl Feeler

'3-D' Formula Is Key to Juniata's Success

HUNTINGDON, Pa. (AP)—The 3-D formula — Determination, Desire and Durability — is what Coach Bobby Hicks says is the key to the success of little Juniata College's football squad which just completed its third successive all-winning season.

* * *

"It's a great thrill to be associated with these boys who love to play the game," Hicks said. "They played the best they knew in every ball game and gave it everything they had all during the season."

* * *

And Hicks revealed that Juniata had received a "feeler" from the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla., which is being considered by the college's administrative board.

* * *

Juniata's string of 23 consecutive victories is the longest in the small college ranks and the second longest in college football. Mighty Oklahoma now has 29 straight wins.

* * *

"They were outweighed in practically every game this season but nobody outplayed them," Hicks said of his starting line which averaged only 184 pounds per man.

And for the backfield he had more praise. "They don't know the meaning of defeat."

* * *

That statement could be taken literally by the 10 squad seniors who completed their college football careers last Saturday. In their four years of varsity play, the team won 29 of 31 games.

Juniata's last defeat was in its final game of 1952 against Lebanon Valley, of Annville, Pa., 13-6.

All-East Team Dominated by Navy-Penn State

Two Players From Each Team Are Picked by INS

NEW YORK (INS)—Navy an Penn State grabbed top honors today by placing two men each on the 1955 International News Service All-Eastern football team.

Four of last year's honor team repeated but notable was the failure of any Army player to make the grade.

Quarterback George Welsh and end Ron Beagle, Navy's two All-America candidates, are standouts on the 1st eleven, which represents a consensus of eastern coaches, scouts and INS grid experts.

Penn State placed Frank Reich at center and fleet Lenny Moore at halfback.

At fullback is Charley Sticka of Trinity, the small college star whose coach, Dan Jessee, says could make any college or professional team in the country.

Jim Brown, Syracuse's one-man gang, rounds out the 1st team backfield with Welsh, Moore and Sticka. One of the finest backs in the east, Princeton's Royce Flippin, had to be bypassed because injuries kept him inactive most of the season.

Anchored by Beagle and Pitt's rugged Joe Walton at end, the big, tough line includes Phil Tarasovic of Yale and Bill Doremus of Lehigh at tackle, Bill Meigs of Harvard and Jim Bunopane of Holy Cross at guard and Reich at center.

Beagle, Tarasovic, Reich and Moore all are repeaters from the 1954 All-East team.

Army fullback Pat Uebel, a first-team choice last year, slipped to the 2nd eleven this time behind Sticka. Another cadet casualty was Don Holleder, who forfeited his chances to repeat at end when coach Earl Blaik shifted him to quarterback.

Idaho State, Not Colorado, Guilty of Flag Theft

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP)—There are some Idaho State college students here who say they have an 8-foot Nebraska flag taken at the Nebraska-Colorado football game several weeks ago.

* * *

* * *

According to Dureden, he and several other students attended the football game. Just for a stunt they decided to lower the Nebraska flag, in full view of the spectators. They did, first to half-mast. Nobody said anything, so they took it all the way down. Nobody said anything.

So they carefully folded it and walked off the field. Dureden says it's in storage here.

Broncs Get Lassoed

KALAMAZOO (AP)—A 2nd half rally by Western Michigan fell short Saturday and the Bronchos bowed to Kent State, 25-14, in a Mid-America Conference football finale.

The victory gave Kent State a share of 2nd place with Bowling Green in the final conference standings.

Western Michigan, trailing 19-0 at halftime, came to life and dominated the last two periods, but didn't have enough to win.

Snow-Blanketed Gridirons in East and West Result in Interesting Situations Saturday

NEW YORK (AP)—Monday's football wash, and hang it in the basement—too much snow outside:

* * *

Snow-blanketed gridirons throughout the East and much of the Midwest. . . : A snowball fight between spectators followed the Purdue-Indiana game at Bloomington, won by Purdue 6-4, and a water pipe near the stands broke, sending a geyser-like spray over hundreds of customers. . . . It was so cold at Moscow, Idaho, where Idaho beat Montana, 31-0, that the players sat in heated buses instead of on the sidelines and some of the Idaho players changed to road uniforms, putting half of them in white and the other half in black jerseys. . . . At Princeton, N.J., Dartmouth players changed from white to green shirts at the half because they couldn't see each other in the blizzard. . . . At New York, Rutgers' winning touchdown over Columbia, 12-6, was scored by a player named Bob (Polar) Bear.

In the intriguing name department, Washington turned up with a whiz named "Incredible Credell" Green, who scored two TD's in the 27-7 win over Washington State. . . . A Pittsburgher, explaining the handle placed on "Mean John" Paluck, Pitt end, says: "In football, real tough guys will step on your face with their cleats when you're down; Mean John also pivots". . . . A Paris, Ky., fan swapped a 1956 convertible for two tickets to the Tennessee-Kentucky game and must have got his money's worth. . . . Kentucky won 23-0.

The power of a parlor seat before a TV screen is emphasized in the fact that 5,000 persons bought tickets to the UCLA-Southern Cal game and never showed up although the weather was fine. . . . The game was telecast in the Los Angeles area.

An unusual incident cost Southern Cal a quick jump on its hated rival, UCLA, which won 17-7. . . . Jon Arnett of Southern Cal took the opening kickoff and ran it back 97 yards only to have the play called back because the Trojans had lined up improperly. . . . "I thought officials were supposed to see that the teams were lined up right before the kick," wailed Southern Cal's Coach Jess Hill. "It was the turning point of the game." . . . At South Bend, Notre Dame, held to 14-14 by Iowa, prepared for a field goal from the 3-yard line in the final minutes. . . . A kicking tee was tossed out on the field, against the rules. . . . The officials penalized the Irish 15 yards to the 18 but Paul Hornung kicked the goal anyhow for a 17-14 Irish victory. . . . "I didn't do it," said Notre Dame Coach Terry Brennan, of the tee-tossing episode.

Touchdowns—Cassady, Vici. Field goal—Kriss. Safety—Michael (tackled Barr in end zone).

By H. GUY MOATS

ANN ARBOR — University of Michigan lost considerably more than a football game, Saturday afternoon in the jammed Wolverine stadium.

They lost a tough game to Ohio State's powerful eleven, 17-0. There were more than 97,000 in the chilly stands.

They lost their chance at a bid for the Pasadena Rose Bowl, New Year's day.

But the biggest loss, and a most significant one, was the shedding of prestige that normally surrounds a Michigan eleven, even in defeat.

Led by magnificent Hop-Along Cassady, the Buckeyes dominated the game from the very start. They rolled along on the ground, something that pre-game experts somehow didn't believe could happen. And in the rolling they crashed Michigan's defense, at times like paper.

Cassady was not alone in the Bucks' driving machine. A sophomore halfback, Donald Sutherin, and big fullback Don Vicic did their share of the damage. An unsung player, end Fred Kriss, booted the first points (from placement) in the 2nd period that started the Ohioans to their victory.

A see-saw ground battle left the 3rd period without additional tallies, but in the finale, Cassady broke in and Vicic got two counters, the final of which set off a real "donny book," three minutes from the game's end.

Michigan never got past Ohio's 49½ yard mark all afternoon. Ohio threatened several times.

At least five minutes before end of the game fans swarmed onto the north end of the field. They attacked the goal posts while game officials did nothing. They rocked the big steel supports out of the ground, carted them to one side. Then additional fans poured from the stands, invaded the field of play while the game was trying to continue. West sidelines were crowded with fans who threw snowballs at players, howled, and in general comported themselves like a crowd of rioters—as they were.

It was the 1st time this writer, in many years of covering Michigan games, has witnessed such a disgraceful exhibition.

The fighting continued around the south goal posts, while a disputed touchdown by Vicic was being settled, and in which two Wolverines were ejected.

And, incidentally, if Don Kramer had any chances of All-America recognition prior to Saturday's game, it looked as if he had lost that too. He was one of the U. of M. players tossed out by officials.

Four Mountaineers on All-Star Team

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Two of the finest backs in West Virginia University football history and a couple of the Mountaineers' bruising linemen form the backbone of the 1955 All-Southern Conference team.

West Virginians earning berths on the team and grabbing the lion's share of places on the honor club are quarterback Freddy Wyant, halfback Bobby Moss, tackle Bruce Bosley and guard Gene Lathey.

Three other schools each landed two players. Virginia Tech placed center Jack Prater and guard Jim Locke. William and Mary came up with end Walt Brodie and tackle Bob Lusk. George Washington's representatives are end Paul Thompson and halfback Mike Sommer. Fullback Frank Pajaczkowski of Richmond rounds out the team.

* * *

The backfield undoubtedly has one of the finest quarters in the league's history. Wyant, a 195-pound senior from Weston, W.Va., is the darling of Coach Art Lewis, conference champion team. He leads the circuit for the third straight season in total offense.

Wyant, an artist at operating the T-formation's option play, has been described as "cool and poised and slick as a bandit. . . a bull." When Lewis first saw Wyant as a high school star, the Mountaineer mentor labeled him as "a boy who will make me a great coach someday." Wyant, a southpaw, is regarded as a top-ranking professional prospect.

* * *

Wyant's teammate, Moss, has averaged better than 7.5 yards every time he has carried the ball during his four years of college football.

Sommer, only sophomore to make the honor team, has been the big surprise of George Washington's Colonials.

Pajaczkowski, a 185-pound senior from South River, N.J., is a linesmasher deluxe. In addition, he has sufficient speed and elusiveness to make him a dangerous broken field runner.

* * *

The pride of the 205-pound forward wall is Bosley, a coach's dream of a tackle, who weighs 225 and hails from Greenbank, W.Va.

Lusk, the other tackle, is a 210-pound senior from Williamson, W.Va., who has participated in some 45 per cent of the tackles made by William and Mary players. He's a linebacker on defense and a fine blocker on offense.

Lathey, West Virgini's 205-pound guard from Dunbar, W.Va., is known as "Mr. Dependable." He has an abundance of speed and specializes at blocking the middle of the line on defense. The other guard, Locke of Virginia Tech, is a 225-pound senior from Gainesboro, Tenn., and has sparked on both offense and defense throughout the season.

* * *

Opposing backs have found it mighty tough trying to run around the ends, William and Mary's Brodie and George Washington's Thompson. Brodie, a 6-foot, 180-pound junior from Hopewell, Va., has had amazing success at trapping passers for huge losses behind the scrimmage line. Thompson, a 6-foot, 2-inch, 200-pound junior from Midland, Md., is the Colonials leading pass receiver.

Prater, a 195-pound senior from Miami Beach, Fla. is regarded by Virginia Tech Coach Frank Moseley as one of the finest football players he has ever coached. It's a rare occasion when Prater makes a poor pass from center, and Jack is tops as defensive ace.

The team was selected by vote of the head coaches of Southern Conference football squads and conference area sports writers and radio sportscasters.

HOP-ALONG HALTED — Tom Maentz, big Michigan end nailed Hop-Along Cassady, OSU's great halfback, in Saturday's game at Ann Arbor. Cassady had just run back an interception of a Wolverine pass. Ellwood, OSU quarterback, effectively blocked out Michigan's Ron Kramer. Ohio won, 17-0, plus the Big 10 title.

Hill Is Rated NFL's Replica of Don Hutson

Bear End Compared by Virtue of His Pass Reception

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Twenty years ago, Alabama sent Don Hutson up to the National Football League and he proceeded to make life miserable for opposing pass defenders for the next decade.

* * *

Now the Cotton State has contributed Harlon Hill to the NFL, and the Chicago Bears' star promises to be just as much of a problem for the defense as his illustrious predecessor. Hill looked like Hutson at his best yesterday as he twice faked Detroit defenders out of the way for the touchdowns that brought the Bears a 24-14 victory, their sixth in a row, and first place in the NFL's Western Conference.

* * *

With three games to go, the Bears (6-3) have a half-game lead over the Los Angeles Rams (5-3-1), who were held to a 17-17 tie by Baltimore. Hutson's old team, the Green Bay Packers (5-4), trail by a game after Tobin Rote passed for two touchdowns and ran 49 yards to set up a third in a 27-21 victory over San Francisco.

* * *

In the Eastern Conference, Cleveland bounced back from its upset defeat by Philadelphia a week ago to trounce Pittsburgh, 41-14, and remain a game in front of Washington's surprising Redskins, 31-0 winners over the Chicago Cardinals. New York vaulted from last place to a tie for third with Pittsburgh by clipping the Philadelphia Eagles, 31-7.

* * *

Unless the second-place teams get some unexpected help, it looks very much like the Bears vs. Browns in the pro championship playoff, scheduled for Monday, Dec. 26, or Sunday, Jan. 1, in the park of the Western Conference champion. Cleveland, incidentally, walloped the Bears in the club's only previous encounters, 41-21 in 1951 and 39-10 last year.

* * *

Hill didn't go to the University of Alabama, as Hutson did, and he had no chance for a spectacular college finale to match Hutson's feats in Alabama's 29-13 victory over Stanford in the 1935 Rose Bowl game. Hill prepped for the NFL at little Florence Teachers College, but he learned his lessons well.

* * *

As a rookie last year, he led the league in touchdown catches with an even dozen, five short of the league record of 17 set by Hutson (who else?) in 1942.

Cellar-Picked Texas A&M Now Bids for Title

Meets Rival Texas in Big Thanksgiving Day Battle

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Aggies, who were supposed to be in the cellar at this stage of the football campaign, will be playing for the championship Thursday when they meet bitter rival Texas in the season's finale.

* * *

The Aggies have been regarded with awe for two months as they rolled inexorably toward the title that had eluded them by a long way for 14 years.

* * *

It's no surprise to some of the closest A&M followers, however. Last summer, when the Aggies were placed on probation for violating the recruiting rules and told they couldn't play in a bowl game, it made them mad and determined to win the title, said such A&M backers as Joe Utay, former Aggie Football player and athletic council head.

* * *

Utay made his statement in September as the season dawned. He predicted the Aggies would take the championship.

And so, Thursday, as 41,500 fans look on, Texas A&M will seek to break the stranglehold arch-foe Texas has held for so many years and at the same time notch the title. A loss probably would knock the Agies out of the championship.

Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant, who came from Kentucky last season to pick up the flagging Aggie football fortunes and already has accomplished what is considered to be a miracle in the Southwest Conference, said he was afraid of just that—afraid Texas would beat his team because Texas will be inspired and his team won't.

This will be the sixty-second meeting of the two state schools since they played the first intercollegiate game in Texas in 1894. It is one of the oldest rivalries in the country.

With the sellout crowd here Thursday, A&M will have played before 400,000 fans for he season of 10 games—the largest attendance in Aggieland history. The contest will be televised nationally (NBC).

Titans Clinch Tie for Title

Hope for Wichita Loss to Give Possession of Crown Alone

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The University of Detroit has nailed down at least a tie for the Missouri Valley Conference championship.

The Titans cashed a Tulsa mistake in the last three minutes Saturday to gain a 19-13 decision and a 3-1 league record. Wichita, now 2-1, could tie Detroit with a triumph over Tulsa Thanksgiving Day.

Incidentally, Wichita's league loss was hung on it by Detroit.

* * *

Detroit tackle Steve Gomola recovered a Tulsa fumble on the Golden Hurricane's 21 and the Titans moved from there in four plays for the game winning touchdown.

Wes Santee Back in Good Standing With AAU After Suspension Appeal

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Wes Santee, America's fastest miler, is back in good standing with the AAU.

The Missouri Valley AAU Board of Managers decided yesterday to lift a suspension against the runner. The suspension would have barred him from the 1956 Olympics as well as other AAU-sponsored events.

Another Valley AAU body—the registration committee—imposed the penalty Oct. 30, on grounds Santee had accepted excessive expense allowances for three California track meets last May.

* * *

Santee, maintaining he had never violated amateur athletic standards, appealed to the higher board. The board of managers voted 21-7 to reject the registration committee's decision.

"Now at least I'll have a running chance in the Olympic Games," Santee commented.

The former University of Kansas athlete, who has traveled the mile in 4:00.5, is now a Marine lieutenant stationed at Quantico, Va. He is considered the nation's best prospect for the Olympics' 1,500-meter event.

There's a 10-day waiting period before the suspension is automatically lifted. That period is left open in the event any one wants to appeal the board's decision.

Bill Easton, Santee's coach during his college days at Kansas, represented the runner at yesterday's board hearing. He was quoted by AAU officias as saying other athletes had received money in excess of amounts authorized by AAU regulations and had not been penalized.

Santee was unable to attend.

The meets involved in the action were at Fresno, Calif., May 14, Los Angeles, May 20, and Modesto, Calif., May 21.

SHOULDER DIP—Everyone who has seen Junie McMahon in action will agree that this is the smooth form we would all like to have. And maybe we can help you perfect it. McMahon finishes very low at the foul line, which makes it easy for him to apply his tremendous arm-lift to put finger-spinning hook on the ball.

To get that finish, you must go to the source of his form, of course. As sketch shows, he holds the ball low, between waist line and knees, approximately, which brings him into a natural shoulder dip or crouch to begin with.

Now here's the action: As he pushes the ball away from the body, with the 1st (right foot) step, the body is "pulled down" still farther, but comfortably, so that he's virtually "doubled up" after the 1st step is completed. That's how he continues in stride—low all the way.

One more point: With the body at extreme low point in stride to produce a reaching arm lift at release, the tremendous finger-spin applied will also produce a wide hook with normal speed. So do as McMahon does: Start your run from the center of the alley and swing out to the right, toward the No. 3 pin, to allow for the proper angle into the 1-3 strike pocket.

Weekend Contests Determine Big Bowl Berths

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's Michigan State-UCLA in the Rose Bowl and Oklahoma-Maryland in the Orange Bowl Jan. 2. And if you think you've heard that song before, you're right.

Those same four powers met in the same two New Year's Day extravaganzas in 1954.

* * *

If history is to repeat all the way, it'll be Michigan State 28, UCLA 20, and Oklahoma 7, Maryland 0. That's what it was in '54.

* * *

Once again, Michigan State and UCLA are once-beaten. The Spartans lost only to Michigan (14-7) this season, while only Maryland upended UCLA, (7-0). Maryland, the 1953 national champ, again has a 10-0 record, while Oklahoma, 9-0 with one game left and apparently heading for the national title, was once-beaten and once-tied going into the '54 Orange Bowl.

* * *

UCLA was expected to receive the official blessing of the Pacific Coast Conference today after a token poll of members. The UCLANs won their third straight PCC championship by thrashing Southern Cal, 17-7, Saturday.

* * *

Michigan State received its Rose Bowl credentials from the Big 10 yesterday, although getting the bid as a runner-up.

* * *

The only other "also-ran" to represent the Big 10 in the Rose Bowl was Northwestern, and the second-place Wildcats beat California, 20-14, in 1949.

* * *

Oklahoma and Maryland, the only major unbeaten-untied clubs remaining, got their bowl tickets before last weekend's games in which the Sooners won their 10th straight Big 7 title by whipping Nebraska 41-0 and Maryland clipped George Washington 19-0.

Half of the bowl berths now are filled, with Texas Christian gaining the Southwest Conference host spot in the Cotton Bowl by humiliating Rice 35-0. That leaves the Dallas bowl selectors still looking for another team.

* * *

The Sugar and Gator Bowl committees also are still on the prowl and they'll have their teams by week's end with Mississippi, Georgia Tech, Auburn, Navy and Pitt waiting to say yes.

* * *

To give the selectors a good show, Mississippi plays Mississippi State, Georgia Tech meets Georgia, Auburn takes on Alabama and Navy tangles with Army as college football takes on last fling this Saturday.

* * *

Pitt's record already is bound up for inspection, with Saturday's 20-0 decision over Penn State capping a season that listed impressive victories over Duke and West Virginia. The West Virginians were erased from the bowl list last weekend by Syracuse 20-13.

* * *

The Southeastern Conference champ generally fills one of the Sugar Bowl berths and Mississippi (8-1), Georgia Tech (7-1-1) and Auburn (7-1-1) are the contenders. Vanderbilt (7-2) also has a chance. Vandy plays Tennessee, knocked for a loop by Kentucky, 230, over the weekend.

* * *

Navy, which returned to the post-season business last January in the Sugar Bowl, likely will have a Cotton Bowl invitation in hand if it can beat Army. If the Middies fail, Pitt or one of the SEC teams may get it.

Pitt also qualifies for the Sugar Bowl, although the New Orleans promotors could do worse than match a SEC pair.

The Gator Bowl, set for Dec. 31, probably will have to wait until after the Cotton and Sugar Bowls make their moves before getting replies to its bids.

* * *

Before the bowl business comes to a climax Saturday, traditional Thanksgiving Day games come up. Texas A&M plays Texas with a chance to cop the Southwest title. The Aggies are on probation, however, and thus forfeit the Cotton Bowl spot to TCU.

Penn and Cornell have at it in an Ivy League game with Cornell bidding for third place.

Big 10 Sends 2nd Non-Title Team to Bowl

Spartans Called Best in Conference; Meet UCLA at Pasadena

CHICAGO (AP)—The Big 10 is sending its second non-championship team to the Rose Bowl this season but Michigan State's second-place Spartans are regarded as the strongest team in the conference.

Michigan State, finishing the season with an excellent 8-1 record, actually backed into the Rose Bowl with a final-day assist by Ohio State's champion Buckeyes.

Ohio State, paced by Howard Cassady, blasted Michigan, 17-0, dropping the Wolves into third place and squashed Michigan hopes for the title and Rose Bowl trip. It was OSU's second straight Big 10 championship.

* * *

The only other second-place Big 10 team to go to the Rose Bowl was Northwestern which whipped California, 20-14, Jan. 1, 1949.

Ohio State was not eligible for the trip to Pasadena because of the rule against repeaters. The Bucks beat Southern California, 20-7, last January.

Michigan State's foe Jan. 2 will be UCLA. The Spartans sped through a heavy schedule which saw them lose to Michigan, 14-7, after beating Indiana, 20-13.

Coach Duffy Daugherty's crew then picked up momentum and beat Stanford (38-14), Notre Dame (21-7), Illinois (21-7), Wisconsin (27-0), Purdue (27-0), Minnesota (42-14) and Marquette (33-0) in succession.

* * *

Michigan State Athletic Director Clarence (Biggie) Munn coached the Spartans to a 28-0 Rose Bowl triumph over UCLA two years ago. After yesterday's formal announcement that Michigan State was chosen for the game, Munn commented:

Pontiac Press Photo

CASSADY ON DEFENSE — Outstanding ball player in the big Michigan stadium Saturday was Ohio's Cassady, shown above moving in for a tackle. Cassady was as good on defense as he was lugging the ball — and that's GOOD. He stopped Michigan's Terry Barr on the above play, after a short gain early in the game. Buckeyes won 17-0.

Selvy Lost to NBA Leaders

Cage Star Enters Army Today; to Hurt St. Louis Bid

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The St. Louis Hawks, leading the Western Division of the National Basketball Assn., will need to find a replacement for Frank Selvy if they intend to hold down the top spot.

* * *

Selvy, who enters the Army today, led the Hawks to their second victory over the New York Knickerbockers Saturday night but Selvy didn't play last night and the Hawks lost to the Syracuse Nationals 84-80.

* * *

New York rebounded to down the lowly Fort Wayne Pistons 119-115 in overtime. In the only other game played last night, the Rochester Royals topped the Minneapolis Lakers 104-96.

* * *

The Hawks, who were paced by Selvy with 21 points and Bob Pettit's 33 against the Knicks, were held to under 100 points for the first time this season against the Nats. Chuck Share tallied 20 points for the Hawks while Pettit was held to 16 as Syracuse had five men in double figures. Paul Seymen

Army Clears Detroit Soldier

Loyalty Probe Revises GI's Discharge; Wayne Professor Exonerated

DETROIT (AP) — Sanford Waxer was a happy young man today, laying plans to attend law school under the GI Bill of Rights. The honorable discharge he fought for finally came through from the Army.

A "loyalty" investigation of the 27-year-old Waxer involving Dr. Alfred Kelly, head of the Wayne University history department, led to a review and revision of the Army's charges against both men.

Secretary of the Army Brucker apologized to Dr. Kelly for the Army's "mistake" in linking him with American Youth for Democracy. It turned out Dr. Kelly had been instrumental in an investigation that led to barring AYD from the Detroit school's campus.

Waxer, a Wayne graduate, was asked to accept an undesirable discharge after service from June 1, 1953, to May 31, 1955. The Army accused him of associating with Communists or Communist sympathizers. One of the associates named was Dr. Kelly, who protested he always had been anti-Communist.

Waxer demanded a hearing. He got it Sept. 13.

Yesterday the adjutant general of the Army advised Waxer that "character of separation" was being changed from "to be determined" to "honorable", on his record. Waxer also was advised he would be retained in the Army reserve.

Without an honorable discharge Waxer couldn't qualify for educational aid under the GI Bill of Rights.

"The Army decision came too late for me to stay in school this year, but I hope to return next fall," he said. "I just couldn't make it financially without the GI benefits."

Waxer, who is married, said the decision also qualified him for $200 in mustering out pay and $70 in leave pay and also made him eligible for a Michigan state bonus for Korean war veterans worth about $70.

"It will give me a chance to get caught up on some old bills," he said. "Fighting this thing has been pretty rough, financially as well as otherwise."

Arabs Spring Raids in Israel Territory

JERUSALEM (AP)—Armed raiders based in Jordan ambushed traffic on an Israeli highway and dynamited houses in a border village early today, an Israeli army spokesman charged.

* * *

In the first raid, he said, an armed unit fired on two trucks traveling the highway south of Megiddo toward the Jezrez Valley.

The spokesman said a "sabotage unit operating from Jordan" subsequently laid three explosive charges in the village of Avuka, blowing up one building and damaging the water pump.

The Israeli source charged Arab countries bordering Israel were allowing Egypt to maintain bases on their territory for commando squads.

Turtle 'Killer' Frantically Uses Press' Influence

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — A Richmond man motoring with his family ran over a terrapin. A 12-year-old boy ran up and said bitterly: "Think you're pretty brave, don't you, killing a little turtle." A woman walked over and said it was a terrible thing to do "making two little children cry."

The man said the glares of the boy and his mother had turned a pleasant Sunday into a wretched memory. He took his plight to the Richmond News Leader and asked the editor if there wasn't some way he could make the children — whose names and addresses he didn't know — understand he didn't run over their pet on purpose.

An editorial detailed the man's plight and the importance he attached to his standing in the opinion of a 12-year-old boy. And the editorial ended with this:

Corn Rise Slight in Grain Market

CHICAGO (AP)—In a ragged and relatively quiet market, corn made a little upward progress on the Board of Trade today.

Some buying in corn apparently was based on smaller receipts of cash corn than a week ago, when the figure was at a 7-year peak.

Among other cereals soybeans had a definitely easier trend despite the firm manner in which the November contract was closed out last Friday. Failure of the soybean meal market to rally continued as a weight over soybeans.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅜ to ⅞ lower, Dec. $2.04¼, corn ⅛-½ higher, Dec. $1.24⅞, oats unchanged to ¼ lower, Dec. 65, rye ⅜ lower to ¼ higher, Dec. $1.12⅛, soybeans 1 to 1¾ lower, Jan. $2.36½ and lard 5 to 20 cents a hundred pounds lower, Dec. $11.30.

Ross W. Eaton Dies on Sunday

Saddle Club Leader Had Part in Building Early Roads of County

MILFORD — Ross W. Eaton, well known in saddle circles and called a "friend of the children" died yesterday in Pontiac General Hospital after an illness of six months.

Mr. Eaton, past president of the Huron Valley Saddle Club and with the Fisher Body Division of GMC for the past 15 years, was born in Pontiac, Sept. 23, 1897. He had lived in Oakland County all his life. His wife Fern died last year.

As a teamster, Mr. Eaton helped form some of the early area roads with his mule team and at one time ran the horse drawn starting gate at the fair-grounds race track.

He had searched for a special horse during his lifetime, finding it last year, a limeback buckskin which he named "Butterball." Mr. Eaton always participated, with the Saddle Club, in area parades.

Stocks Mixed in Early Trade

NEW YORK (AP) — The Stock Market turned mixed today in early dealings after a slightly higher opening.

* * *

Most changes were small with many leading issues unchanged. The outside range of change was around a point.

The market for the past four sessions has been going through a period of irregularity. Last week it was higher on the week, but it declined the final two days, especially Friday on news that the Federal Reserve Board had authorized an increase in the discount rate.

The Central Bank boosted to 2½ from 2¼ per cent its charges on money loaned to commercial banks. These banks in turn usually pass the additional charges on to borrowers. The Reserve Board said the higher rate was an anti-inflationary move.

Here is how major divisions acted today:

* * *

Steels mixed, motors unchanged to lower, rubbers mixed, mail orders down, aircrafts mixed, radio-TVs unchanged to higher, utilities mixed, coppers higher, chemicals mixed, electrical equipments lower, rails higher, oils lower, airlines lower, and motion pictures steady.

Marooned Men Pray for Calm Seas

Hurricane Winds Batter Radar Island in Atlantic

Editor's Note: Associated Press staffer Don Guy has been marooned by bad weather since Thursday on the Texas tower with a group of Air Force and civilian technicians. He transmitted the following story by marine telephone.

By DON GUY

TEXAS TOWER, 110 Miles Off Cape Cod, Mass. (AP)—The 37 visitors marooned on this man-made island since Thursday hoped fervently today that the weather will subside long enough to permit their transfer onto a homeward-bound boat.

The Georges Banks radar station was pounded over the weekend by hurricane-force winds of up to 82 miles per hour and by heavy seas that included one giant wave 61 feet in height.

The 50 workers and 37 visitors aboard the sturdy tower were in no danger, however, and there were enough bunks for sleeping and sufficient food in the pantry and ice chests.

TOWER SHAKES

Two 80-ton fenders broke loose from the legs of the tower during the storm yesterday after winds rose to 82 miles an hour. By late last night the wind dropped to 35 m.p.h.

The tower shook as the huge fenders pounded the 200-foot legs. First one fender was torn loose by the raging water and wind and then the other, amid a shower of sparks from the friction of torn cables.

The third leg of the tower—the first of a chain to be built as a radar-warning net—had not yet been equipped with the doughnut-shaped fender. The fenders were for protection against vessels that sidle up to the tower.

Because of yesterday's storm, George Bauer, construction superintendent of the tower, issued an order prohibiting any person on the open deck, or even outside the water-tight doors of the platform.

As a result, vantage points inside the tower were filled all day by workers and visitors gazing at the churning water. The water is 50 feet deep at the tower site.

WAVES LASH HARD

Although only one big wave struck the platform, 45-foot waves repeatedly lashed at the tower's three legs during most of yesterday and Saturday.

To ease the tension at the tower, Joe Lee of Middleton, Mass., an Air Force inspector, ran off a sports film to a big audience in the mess hall.

* * *

Others, including navy brass, visitors and workmen, either caught up on lost sleep, played poker or talked over the big storm.

A marine telephone is the only communication with Boston and that was out of commission for hours yesterday after the hurricane wind tore down the antenna. Repairs were made as soon as the storm subsided.

Officials permitted this story to be sent out so families of those aboard the tower could be assured that all hands are safe.

Card of Thanks 1

WE WISH TO THANK ALL FOR their kindness and express our sincere thanks to our relatives, friends and neighbors for their many expressions of sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved husband and father, John A. Orbeck. We especially wish to thank Rev. W. E. Wrobbel for his company, those who made donations, those who sent floral pieces and cards the pall bearers, those who offered the use of their cars and all others who helped us in many ways. Mrs. John A. Orbeck and family.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF CLIFford E. Haas who passed away six years ago today:
Deep in our hearts you are fondly remembered.
Sweet, happy memories cling round your name;
True hearts that loved you with deepest affection
Always will love you in death the same.
Sadly missed by wife, children and mother-in-law.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR Mother and Grandmother, Mrs. Josephine Todoroff, who passed away November 21, 1952.
What is a home without a mother,
All things this world may send.
But when I lost my darling mother,
I lost my dearest friend.
By daughters, Nancy Todoroff and Catherine Jenkins and family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF JAMES R. Tedder, who passed away Nov. 19, 1954. Sadly missed by his mother, Mina Whitehead, his wife, Verna, and Family.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for our thoughts to reach.

Godfrey There All This Week

Garroway and Fisher Also Join Movement to Sunshine State

NEW YORK (INS) — Gloria de Haven starts a big local show in Miami Tuesday, from which she'll earn as much as most big network bookings . . .

She'll sing, dance, interview and play hostess to a local-type "spectacular" and stay warm all winter, too . . .

Miami Beach is originating more and more TV shows starting with a brace of Eddie Fisher shows last week, Garroway's "Today" splashing merrily in local salt waters, Godfrey's shows—mornings and evenings—originating there all this week, and lots more to come . . .

The Kefauver investigation into black market baby adoptions, on both television and radio, was big news in Miami. Almost as fascinating as the Kefauver investigation into the racket syndicates a couple of TV seasons ago . . .

BARRY WOOD AILING

Barry Wood, who master-minded the last successful "Wide, Wide World" TV show for NBC, collapsed from a virus and is doing a stretch in the hospital . . .

Wood is the ex-crooner (Hit Parade, etc.) who graduated to NBC's brasshat department and now is in charge of all colorcast programming . . .

NBC will have a fancy Woodproduced color program next June 25 of U.S. Navy maneuvers off San Diego, using 25 color cameras in a 90-minute floating "spectacular."

Pioneer TV producer Worthington Miner, who helped early to master its technical and artistic problems, insists "sensational gimmicks" such as "The $64,000 Question" aren't long for this TV world . . .

He says the long-run champs will be "the quality anthology show." . . . by that he means the best dramatic programs . . .

The veteran stage-screen-TV producer advises that because of the big talent pools in New York and Hollywood, newcomers are better off starting in TV careers in smaller communities, then moving on to the TV major leagues.

Good advice indeed.

HOPE CRITICIZED

Bob Hope's impact on the public is and has been considerable but Bob is sorely testing his public's patience, we suspect, in confining his shows this season to hour-long filmed productions . . .

Perhaps it's the convenient way, but it's not the absolute best for a comedian of Hope's style, which depends often as not on a dimension of intimacy and immediacy beyond the call of his fairly fabricated material.

Bob not only is filming his current TV shows, but is saving time, money and energy by using kinescopes of old sketches from earlier seasons . . .

The $64,000 opus has given away $231,584; four Cadillacs and other prizes in precisely 21 TV weeks. It's still an inexpensive production.

Hal March Planning to Wed Mrs. Torme

NEW YORK (AP) — Hal March, master of ceremonies for The $64,000 Question on CBS television and radio, says he will marry Candy Toxton as soon as she wins a final divorce from singer Mel Torme.

Miss Toxton, who is now in Hollywood, received an interlocutory decree from Torme several weeks ago, but it does not become final for a year.

So they can marry sooner, March said she will go to Las Vegas about Dec. 27 to seek a Nevada divorce, which requires but six weeks residence.

Iron Mountain Motorist Killed; 2 Others Hurt

NIAGARA, Wis. (AP) — James Salina, 16, of Iron Mountain, Mich., was killed Saturday night when the car in which he was riding went off a curve and overturned on U.S. 141 five miles south of Niagara.

Frank Palluconi and Robert Martin, both 16 and also of Iron Mountain, were seriously hurt. Palluconi was driving. The three were en route home from Pembine, Wis.

Musical Leopard Pet of English Zoo

LONDON — "Peggy Kitgum," a 2½-year-old leopard with a musical background and several "firsts" to her credit, is thriving at the Belle Vue Zoo. Caught during a tribal hunt near Kitgum, Uganda, when only 10 days old, she was ill-nourished, 12 inches long and weighed only a pound.

However, fed on powdered milk, she was nursed back to sterling health. In 1953 she was featured as "Peggy, the friendly cub" at the Bulwayo Exposition, where the Queen Mother and Princess Margaret admired and fondled her.

Peggy was adopted by the Halle Orchestra, playing at the Exposition, and brought to England. Flying by Comet she became the first leopard in history to fly in the stratosphere.

Rookie Policewoman Chases Her Quarry

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A 58-year-old Oklahoma City man may find it hard to face his friends after pleading guilty to a charge of being drink.

* * *

His embarrassment came when he lost a four-block chase to one of the city's newest police officers, one of six women hired primarily for issuing parking tickets in the downtown business district. First the woman officer, Mildred Jones, pushed him down and after he got up, chased him four blocks until a scout car with two policemen caught them and made the arrest.

"I was just making sure he didn't get away," she said.

He was given a $12 fine by Police judge Mike Foster.

Gunman Takes $100

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — A lone gunman brandishing a nickel-plated pistol held up the Williamson drug store in downtown Battle Creek last night and escaped with $75 to $100.

Two Railroad Hands Queried in Man's Death

DURAND (AP) — Police today questioned two railroad section workers in the fatal beating of a fellow crewman during a fight that followed a weekend drinking bout.

Killed with a heavy shovel and railroad car iron was Ahita John Rukkila, 44, of no known address. His body was found yesterday in a work train car of the Grand Trunk Western Railroad near Durand.

Held for questioning were Hubert Mullis and Avery Gorman. Three other members of the work crew were questioned and released.

Evidence Is Destroyed

MANILA (AP) — Police took a dim view when Cornelio Turlay Guinto, 21, in jail for impersonating a policeman, slipped into the jail store room and consumed a can of meat and a bottle of gin. Their testimony brought a stiff addition to his sentence. He had consumed all the evidence in another case.

A recent strike closed the bars of Dublin, Erie, for four weeks.

Michigan Man Saves Iowa Tot

Resident of Marcellus Snatches 3-Month-Old From Sioux City Blaze

SIOUX CITY, Iowa (AP)—Firemen told today of a heroic Michigan airman who groped his way through a smoke-filled apartment to snatch a baby from a flaming bedroom.

* * *

"It was an almost unbelievable feat," said Assistant Fire Chief Edward Higman of Airman Marcus Papke's action Saturday. "The bedroom was in flames. I don't see how Papke did it."

Papke, 21, of Marcellus, Mich., plunged into the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly of Soux City to save Raymond Lee Squibb, their 3-month-old nephew. A 3-year-old daughter of the Kelly's, Susan Ann, suffered fatal burns in the blaze.

She, the baby, and two other Squibb children, Russell 3, and Norma Jean, 5, were playing in the bedroom when Mrs. Kelly left the house momentarily.

When she returned, she found the bedroom ablaze. She clutched her burned daughter in her arms and fled the building, screaming for help.

* * *

Papke, stationed at the Sioux City Air Force Base, was working on his car nearby. He ran into the apartment. Susan Kelly was the only one burned. The other children had followed their aunt from the apartment.

Papke said "One wall of the bedroom was on fire but the flames had not reached the baby and bed when I got into the room.

"The smoke was so thick in the apartment I had to stoop low to be able to see or breathe. I found the bedroom and took the baby off the bed and took him outside, he said.

Higman said the fire apparently was started by the children playing with matches. Firemen were able to confine the blaze to the one apartment.

Habitual Drunks Can Secure New AA Aid Books

CHICAGO (INS) — Habitual alcoholics now can turn for help instead of a "sleep it off" place in a jail cell under a new program instituted by the Chicago police department.

* * *

Booklets, prepared with the help of Alcoholics Anonymous, were distributed to the city's 8,000 policemen and the 871 Park District officers outlining steps to be taken by an alcoholic.

The pamphlet contains a test questionnaire used by Johns Hopkins university of Baltimore in determining whether a patient actually is an alcoholic.

Mayor Richard J. Daley said Chicago has "the first police department in the country to take action against alcoholism in such a wide scale attack."

A forward to the 16-page booklet said the instructions are a source of information for a person who honestly wants to quit drinking, and is not "to be construed as a reform or religious movement."

The police department's chief surgeon, Dr. Pat S. Vitullo, said there are more than 33,000 chronic alcoholics in Chicago, and 100,000 problem drinkers. Alcoholics, he said, are increasing at the rate of 2,300 per year.

Shakespearian Fans

STRATFORD - ON - AVON, Eng. (INS)—Some 300,000 persons visit the Shakespeare Memorial Theater at Stratford-on-Avon every year, says the National Geographic Society. The theater was completed in 1932. In 1769 David Garrick organized the first Shakespearean festival in Stratford.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery
Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.
