HE CAN TALK NOW—Until a short time ago no sound came from the mouth of little Rudy Sterpka, 20 months old, even though he was crying for all he was worth. A growth blocked his larynx and at age 2 months a silver tube was inserted so he could breathe. A month ago he was hospitalized with a severe cold. On a recent visit to the hospital his parents were greeted by the lad pointing to his throat and crying "See!" The tube was gone. The growth had mysteriously disappeared. Above he is catching up on his talking with his mother.

President Raps GOP Criticism of Dem Loyalty

Believes It's Politically Foolish to Say All Are Treason-Tinged

WASHINGTON (U P)—President Eisenhower said today he thinks it is untrue, politically unwise and foolish to say that all Democrats are tinged with treason or amount to security risks.

As for Democratic pleas that he halt charges of treason by Republican leaders, Mr. Eisenhower told a news conference there is no way a President could stop this except among his own branch of government.

Thoughtfully and slowly, the President then said he doubts that any great display of partisanship by his executive staff is particularly appropriate at this particular time.

Mr. Eisenhower called no specific names. Nor would he entertain any discussion of specific individuals particularly Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.), who have been attacking the last two Democratic administrations.

After the President's brief discussion on his distaste for extreme partisanship, a reporter asked whether it was accurate to construe his remarks "as meaning that you could counsel the officials of the executive branch of government not to indulge in extreme partisanship?"

This, the President said, was correct.

In recent days McCarthy, and Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams, among other Republicans, have heaped new attacks on the Democrats, GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall also has been sharply critical of the opposition party.

Rep. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) and Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson Tuesday raised the possibility that bi-partisan sup-

Broomfield's Water Bill Holds Hope for Oakland

Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) today held out hope of state help for the Pontiac area's problems of shrinking water supplies and growing lake pollution.

Rep. Broomfield introduced a bill into Michigan's Legislature Tuesday asking for $77,500 for a Michigan Water Resources Commission survey of water supply and sewage disposal possibilities in "critical" areas.

And if the bill is passed, Broomfield says he'll suggest the commission offer help to Pontiac and nearby communities first.

"Some of the state's most critical water supply and sewage problems lie in and near Pontiac," he said. "People who depend on wells for water are watching them go down alarmingly fast. Lakes around Pontiac are getting more polluted every year."

Rep. Broomfield's bill—tagged House Bill 352—would authorize the Water Resources Commission to hire engineers to survey the areas it thinks are most serious, if the cities and townships involved pay half the costs.

"The commission won't be able to move," he said, "unless the local municipalities match whatever money it sets aside to use in a given area."

Broomfield said the chairmen of the Senate's Finance Committee and the Ways and Means Committee of the House have promised a public hearing on the bill within two weeks.

"Then we'll have the two com-

Odin H. Johnson Fills Vacancy on City Bench

Five Candidates File for Two Court Posts in Spring Election

Odin H. Johnson, 49, of 486 W. Iroquois Rd., was named by Pontiac City Commission last night to fill the vacant Pontiac Municipal Court judgeship.

A local attorney, Johnson will serve the unexpired term of the late Judge Charles P. Webster, running to July 4.

The court has been functioning with one judge since Webster's death more than two months ago.

Johnson, a candidate for election to the post, will compete with four other men in the March 1 primary for the two places on the city court bench.

Court candidates, in addition to Johnson, who filed before the Tuesday deadline, are:

G. Edson Hallock, 30 Cadillac Ave.

Cecil McCallum, 72 Dwight Ave.

Mitchell L. Bacow, 34 Cherokee Rd.

Maurice E. Finnegan, 173 N. Johnson Ave., incumbent judge.

As four candidates will appear on the general election ballot in April (for two posts) one of five will be eliminated in the primary. The candidates run on a nonpartisan ballot.

Commissioners last night made both nominations and appointment by secret ballot.

Commissioner J. H. Patrick Glynn did not vote, saying: "Because I have always been of the opinion we should defer the appointment until after the election on April 5. That is less than two months away and we have already delayed this matter for more than that period of time."

Glynn and Commissioner Harold W. Dudley said they didn't think appointment of a candidate for election to the post was fair to other candidates.

"We still have no degree of certainty that will lead us to believe the court cannot continue to function until the election without undue hardship to the public," Glynn stated. "This is nothing personal for or against any candidate," he added, "but is the position I've always maintained."

One vote was cast for David E. Utley who had offered his service as judge until the election, although not a candidate for the position. Commissioner Paul H. Kern has said he favored Utley's proposal.

Reds Propose All-Europe Pact

Non-Aggression Treaty Outlined at Big 4 Meet Would Torpedo EDC

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Russia proposed today a non-aggression pact among all the nations of Europe including both Communist East Germany and the Bonn republic. It would annul the North Atlantic Alliance.

Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov laid his plan for "European security" before the Big Four conference. It was his most detailed effort to torpedo the West European Defense Community.

The proposed 50-year general security treaty would bind all the nations of Europe to "peace." East and West Germany were specifically listed as eligible as individual powers until the nation eventually is unified.

Molotov spelled out a treaty that would be open to all states of Europe regardless of "their social systems." He stated the non-aggression terms would be carried out according to these principles of the United Nations charter:

Any attack against one nation in Europe would be regarded as an attack against the entire treaty bloc. All parties would be bound to come to the rescue of the nation attacked, including the use of armed forces.

The significant anti-European army clause in the Russian plan read:

"The parties undertake not to enter any coalition or alliance or conclude any agreement, the purpose of which would contradict the purposes of the treaty on collective security in Europe."

Moscow has consistently maintained that the West, in rearming West Germans through the European Defense Community, is aiming a warlike dagger at the Soviet Union.

March Primary Will Be Needed in Six Districts

Seven Posts Must Be Filled in April Election From 14 Candidates

Twenty-nine men have filed nominating petitions for Pontiac City Commission posts and qualified to run in the March 1 primary election.

City Clerk Ada R. Evans said the total was an all-time high for commission candidates. Yesterday was the deadline for submitting petitions.

All seven of the commission posts are to be filled in April for two year terms.

Two present commissioners, Paul A. Kern, in District 3, and Harold W. Dudley, in District 2, are not candidates for re-election. Other incumbents are seeking re-election.

Primary elections will be necessary March 1 in six of the seven districts. In District 1, where only two candidates filed, the candidates automatically qualify for the general ballot in April.

City commission candidates run without party affiliation, and the two are nominated from each district for the general election.

Commission candidates are:

District 1

Dr. Roy V. Cooley, 441 Bartlet, physician and incumbent.

Reuben LoPatin, 336 Dick St., photographer.

District 2

Harcourt S. Patterson, 88 Oriole Rd., attorney.

Youth Admits Taking Part in Beating of Aged Widow

DETROIT (AP) — A 16-year-old boy today admitted to police he acted as a lookout for two men who severely beat an elderly woman recluse in an unsuccessful attempt to get her fortune estimated at $500,000.

Police said the boy was able to give only a vague description of the two men involved in the beating last week of 86-year-old Mrs. Carrie Wherritt.

The boy, police said, was taken into custody Saturday, the day after Mrs. Wherritt was found lying in her bedroom.

The boy under arrest had been sought since December after William Goodwin of Detroit confessed the strong-arm murder of four persons and named the youth as a lookout.

Police said the boy readily confessed working with Goodwin. Under further questioning, the boy volunteered information on the Wherritt case.

Detectives said the boy identified one of the men sought in the beating as Willie John, 22.

Two other men were under police interrogation today in the attempted burglary of Mrs. Wherritt's modest residence.

Police identified the men as Eddie Beard, 24, and Anderson Shannon, 17, both of Detroit. The two were arrested as they fled from the scene of an attempted breaking and entering.

Mrs. Wherritt's fortune came as a complete surprise to her relatives.

Relatives and neighbors thought the woman to be without great financial resources.

The fortune, in cash and securities, was found in a safe in the woman's bedroom.

Mrs. Wherritt, discovered by a neighbor, was taken to Receiving Hospital. She was reported in critical condition.

A nephew of the elderly woman said he thought the fortune was built up through the efforts of a son now dead.

Elmer Schramm, of Dayton, Ohio, said the dead son, Russell, had been "an astute businessman" and had "made a lot of money."

The son drowned while duck hunting in Mitchell's Bay, Ont., in 1929.

Schramm said Mrs. Wherritt also possessed a good business sense.

The nephew denied his aunt was miserly or a recluse or ate only scraps of food.

Police have placed the 500,000 in a bank.

Votes to Control Coffee Trading

Senate OKs Measure in Wake of Protests Over High Prices

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate voted today to impose government controls over speculation and futures trading in coffee.

The legislation, which now goes to the House, resulted from nationwide protests against price increases that have pushed retail prices of coffee above a dollar a pound and to 15 cents a cup in some restaurants.

Senate passage was by a voice vote without debate.

The bill adds coffee to a list of 20 other food and farm commodities in which trading is monitored by the Commodity Exchange Authority, which operates under the Agriculture Department.

Sen. Beall (R-Md) promised meanwhile to focus full publicity on coffee speculators if his Senate Investigating subcommittee finds that they helped send coffee prices zooming.

The bill came up on Monday, but it was blocked on a technical objection by Sen. Gore (D-Tenn), who said he was acting for another senator not present.

When asked yesterday for the trading lists, Gustave Lobo Jr., Exchange president, and Leon Israel, its vice president, said they would poll all Exchange members promptly, possibly today.

One New York coffee broker, Alfred Boedtker, asked the senators to subpoena his list of customers.

But the investigators agreed to give coffee brokers a chance to furnish the names on a voluntary basis before resorting to subpoena.

Clardy's physician, Dr. L. G. Christian, was not immediately available for further details on Clardy's condition.

Willman Cites Parking Needs

Testifies in Land Suit, Is Asked About Future Condemnation Plans

City Manager Walter K. Willman testified yesterday in Pontiac's suit to condemn land at 11-49 Parke St. for construction of a 240-car municipal parking lot.

Willman said Pontiac's need for off-street parking development had concerned him since he came here in 1950. He stated it was about the only large city in Michigan without municipal parking.

The site, owned by Jack Habel Chevrolet Co., would lend itself to construction of a large multi-story car-port in the future, he stated.

William J. Beer, attorney for Habel, asked Willman if the city would need to condemn more land in the future. "That might be part of the picture," Willman replied.

Beer then asked Willman if the area in front of the new city hall would be used for parking. Willman said it would be landscaped.

Beer also asked Willman about the proposal to make a city park in the area where the present city hall and National Guard Armory are located.

Willman said Mayor Arthur J. Law had taken steps in that regard, but the City Commission had not acted on the plan.

Oscar Gunderson, Wayne County Road Commission traffic expert, also testified. He said the lot would be necessary to relieve congestion.

The area south of East Huron street, bounded by East Pike street and Parke street would be served by the lot, Gunderson stated, and added the section was the most congested downtown area. Hearings are continuing today.

All Aboard for Adventure

'Spur Line,' Railroad Comic Starts in Press on Monday

If you like railroads, plus adventure, you will want to be aboard when the railroad comic strip "Spur Line" makes the first of its daily runs in the Pontiac Press Monday.

Spur Line is a unique little railroad that operates between Skullberg and Boomerville Junction. On that line anything can happen, and usually does.

Take the twin Boot brothers, High and Lew, for instance. They can't stand that "smoke-eatin' tin monster" keeping their milk producing goats awake all night and are determined to wreck the train. They'll do it, too, with dynamite or goat grease on the rails, or some way.

You'll want to meet the hero, Engineer Casey Pike. He's kind of naive, except when driving his little engine, Hiball, down the rails. Casey can get into more trouble than his friends wish. The gal in Casey's life is cute Gandy Dancer, only Casey doesn't realize it as he's too concerned with his engine.

Aside from the story, Spur Line is a real treat to railroad enthusiasts. Hiball, the little engine, is an authentic 2-2-0 design that's packed for fun as she heads over the Bone Mountains.

Spur Line's creator, Bud Sagendorf, is an avid railroad enthusiast. His intimate knowledge of both subject and cartooning style assures a top-flight, well-drawn story.

Remember the date. Spur Line starts Monday, Feb. 15.

$20,000 Blaze Strikes Reo Plant at Lansing

LANSING (AP)—A small explosion and fire in the lawn mower division of Reo Motors Inc. today caused damage estimated at between $20,000 and $25,000.

Firemen said that the explosion apparently resulted from a short circuit in a high-votage power line near an automatic paint spray booth, through which the lawn mower production line passed.

Eager Enlistee Enjoying Five-Day Army Furlough

A 19-year-old Pontiac soldier, so determined to serve his country that he enlisted at 14, is home today after service in Korea.

Sgt. Robert G. Almas, of 28 S. Midland Dr., is spending a five day furlough with his wife, Ellen and infant daughter, Gwendolyn.

His first attempt to enter the service came when he was a student at Eastern Junior High School here. After six months in uniform, he was returned home when his mother, Mrs. Robert Almas, discovered his whereabouts and requested his release.

In September, 1951, Almas enlisted — this time legally — and took basic training at Camp Breckenridge, Ky.

A three-month tour in tank mechanics school in Japan preceded his service with an armored outfit in Korea. In all he spent 13 months in the Far East, returning to the U.S. last May.

Since his return, Sgt. Almas has been undergoing combat training as a member of a tank batallion in North Carolina.

He is scheduled to leave Thursday for California where he will undergo armored training and maneuvers. His family will remain here until he returns to his home unit, the 82nd Airborn Div. at Ft. Bragg, N. C.

Asked whether he would make a career of the service he tried so hard to enter, Almas said that he was undecided.

Superintendent Describes Needs to House Growing High School Population

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM—A 20-room addition to the present high school and a new junior high east of Woodward were outlined last night by Supt. of Schools Dr. Dwight B. Ireland as necessities to adequately house a growing secondary school population.

To parents and interested citizens attending the third special school board meeting to study growth predictions by school officials, he explained methods of fitting growing junior and senior high classes into present buildings next year.

Ireland has stated that due to increases in the assessed valuation of property, a state-required $225,000 reserve has been setup on the 1949 bond issue based on a 6.5 mill levy, and $430,000 is available to pay the last two years of the issue early.

This would save $98,000 in interest.

A probable reduction of three mills from the 11 being levied could be made or, by not reducing the levy a $2,000,000 bond issue for new buildings, without additional millage would be possible.

School officials favor housing the 470-student ninth grade class at the high school next fall, rather than split it up into junior high sections.

This will mean either an overlapping double session for the 1,600 high school students, with ninth and tenth graders attending from 12 to 4 p.m. and 11th and 12th graders from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., or changing the length of the class periods from 55 to 45 minutes.

The officials favored the staggered schedule and maintaining the longer instruction period.

Eisenhower Backs Plan for More U.S. Road Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower gave his personal backing today to a proposal for stepped up federal spending on highway construction.

He announced to a news conference that the administration wants federal aid to the states for road building increased from 575 million dollars to 800 million.

Since this money must be matched by local and state contributions, it would be a sizable boost to construction.

* * *

A bill along this line was introduced in Congress yesterday by Rep. McGregor (R-Ohio), chairman of the House Roads Committee. His measure also would authorize 64½ million a year for solely federal road construction.

The increased highway spending, Eisenhower said, will be possible if Congress approves his recommendation that a scheduled one-half cent a gallon cut in the federal gasoline tax is postponed.

* * *

The present two cent tax is scheduled to be reduced to 1½ cents April 1.

At another point, Eisenhower said he doubts that the country could be scared into a major depression but expressed the view that the people could be misled to such an extent that some sort of recession would occur.

* * *

In other remarks, the President:

1. Declared that every move this government makes with respect to aid to Indochina is carefully calculated to keep the United States from becoming involved in a hot war there. Involvement anywhere in an all out war would be the greatest possible tragedy for America, Eisenhower added.

2. Volunteered that there is no basis for rumors that the government is planning to increase the interest rate on rural electrification loans.

3. Announced that the two divisions which will be brought home from Korea are the 45th, to return to the U.S. about the middle of April, and the 40th, to return some time in June. The 45th is made up largely of units of the Oklahoma National Guard and the 40th of California National Guardsmen.

* * *

4. Declared he has no intention of going into individual states during the coming congressional election campaign, and repeated he has no intention of participating in local contests. The President's remarks did not appear to close the door, however, to trips around the country in behalf of the administration program generally.

* * *

5. Said in a prepared statement that "by joining with the federal government in the multiple purpose development of the McKenzie River, the city of Eugene, Ore., is pioneering in the new concept of power development in the Pacific Northwest." He was alluding to the 34½ million dollar Cougar Dam which it is proposed to construct in Oregon.

Local Man Hurt in Crash at Madison and Ivy

Delbert Newton, 34, of 2 S. Saginaw St., was admitted to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after suffering several fractured ribs in an auto accident at Madison Ave. and Ivy St., yesterday. He is in fair condition.

Pontiac Police quoted driver Eugene F. Dabrowski, 21, of 4005 Oak Knoll, Waterford Township, with whom Newton was riding, as saying his brakes failed at the intersection causing his car to strike one driven by Joseph C. Drinkwine, 38, of 3748 Dearborn, St., Avon Township.

mittees and anyone else who wants to attend come in to hear details of our plan," he said.

Broomfield commented that local officials, watching wells run dry before their eyes, appealed to the state for help some time ago.

He called the water resources body to a special meeting in Pontiac this fall, when officials from Detroit, Pontiac, Royal Oak and other Oakland County communities came in to discuss their areas' problems.

Out of the conference came appointment of a special advisory committee of local officials, including Pontiac City Manager Walter K. Willman, to work with Broomfield and the commission.

Broomfield commented that what his bill proposes is "entirely new" as the commission has never had the authority to make contacts with cities and townships, nor the money to help with such problems.

Admits Slaying Max Bodenheim

Dishwasher Found in New York; Not Quizzed on Woman's Stabbing

NEW YORK (AP)—Harold Weinberg, 25-year-old dishwasher, admitted today that he shot exotic writer Max Bodenheim, found slain last Sunday with his wife, police announced.

The announcement came a few minutes after Weinberg, a fugitive since the bodies were found in a squalid East Side room, had been hustled into a police station.

The prisoner had not yet been questioned concerning the fatal stabbing of Bodenheim's wife, 35-year-old Ruth Fagan, police said.

Police Lt. Edward J. Drum Jr. told reporters:

"Weinberg admits shooting Bodenheim but he has not been questioned yet about the stabbing of the woman."

Weinberg was found hiding, police said, in the basement of a tenement (311 East 21st St.), about a mile from the dingy scene of the killings. He was found by detectives Cy Goll and Harry Feigman.

No Surplus Farm Goods to Go to Reds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Weeks announced today the government will not allow the sale of government stocks or surplus farm products to Russia or her satellites.

But Weeks indicated that applications for permission to sell privately owned non-strategic farm products to the Soviet bloc might get favorable consideration.

Trade with Russia or her Communist allies must be approved by the licensing division of the Commerce Department's bureau of foreign trade.

Weeks' statement rejected an application by Dwayne Andreas, Minnesota soybean miller, to export 3,000 tons of government-owned surplus cotton seed oil to Czechoslovakia.

'Trials and Triumphs'

Brotherhood Group Hears Dodger Jackie Robinson

BY LULA OGDEN

Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn Dodger star, and the first Negro in the major leagues, spoke last night at the annual dinner of the Brotherhood of Christians and Jews Men's Club of Pontiac.

The listener felt Jackie won this place because he wanted to win for himself and other members of his race, that he forgot himself just to "play ball" during the first three years of his career.

Jackie said that it was after these three years of "turning the other cheek," on the day of his greatest humiliation his fellow players, the Dodgers, came to his support, and that from that day on, the team was cemented into a unit.

The dinner was served by women of St. George Greek Orthodox Church and the banquet was held in St. Hellenic Hall on Mariva avenue.

This meeting was sponsored by the Men's Clubs of the host church, Newman AME, Bethany Baptist and Temple Beth Jacob, of which Rabbi Sanford E. Saperstein, the Revs. Fred R. Tiffany, J. Allen Parker and Soterios Gouvellis are spiritual leaders.

Currently Robinson is national chairman of community organizations for Brotherhood Week under the auspices of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, known in Detroit as the Detroit Roundtable of the National Council.

Following the supper, attended by about 300, George Putnam, head of the music department of the Board of Education, led the group in community singing.

Maynard Johnson of Bethany Baptist Church acted as toastmaster, introducing James Rosenthal, who sang three prayers from the Jewish ritual. Mrs. Rosenthal was accompanist for the evening.

The Rev. Mr. Tiffany gave the invocation and Rabbi Saperstein the benediction.

Jackie's calm expression lighted with a smile from within, and his retiring personality bespeaks better than words of the man that he is.

Jackie has the welfare of little children and that of any race or people underprivileged in his heart and is trying to help in any way that he can.

He said, "It used to be Brotherhood Day, now it is Brotherhood Week. Soon it will be Brotherhood Month and then Brotherhood Year."

"We are coming to know that whatever degrades another, degrades me and whatever is said or done, returns at last to me," he quoted in closing.

Five Dog Clinics Will Be Set Up

Sunday Centers to Give Rabies Vaccinations on Non-Profit Basis

Oakland County Veterinarians Association and Board of Health will set up five more non-profit rabies vaccination clinics for dogs Sunday.

Dog owners may have their pets vaccinated for $1.50 each from 1 to 4 p.m. at clinics in Troy Township, Farmington, Holly, New Hudson and the County Animal Shelter.

Dr. Frank R. Bates, county animal welfare director, warned that the county will not issue a dog license to anyone unless his pet has been vaccinated against rabies within the last 12 months. License deadline is March 1.

Local veterinarians are donating their work to keep costs down, he said. The Veterinarians Association says any money left over after clinic costs are paid will be turned over to the American Veterinary Medical Association for rabies research.

Troy's clinic this Sunday will be at Troy Township Fire Hall, 2780 Rochester Rd., with Dr. J. P. McEvoy of Oak Park vaccinating dogs.

Other clinics are scheduled for Farmington Fire Hall, 21420 Wheeler St., with Dr. Herbert R. Houghton, Farmington, in charge; Holly Fire Hall, Dr. A. W. Emery of Waterford Township; and New Hudson Fire Hall, Dr. H. L. Cotton of Milford in charge.

Dr. Edwin Oja of Birmingham will vaccinate dogs at the county animal shelter, 1240 Walton Blvd., Pontiac, Sunday.

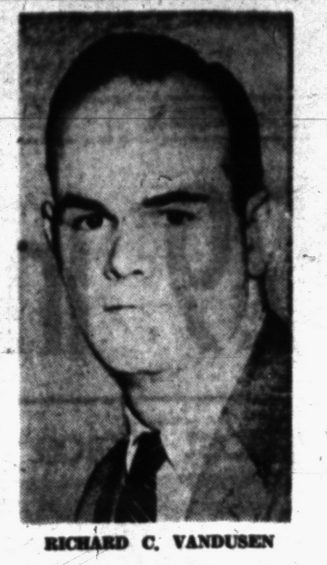
JOHN C. WESTERDALE



RICHARD C. VANDUSEN

Special Election Tomorrow to Pick Estes' Successor

Voters in Oakland County's Third District will go to the polls tomorrow to choose a representative to fill Howard R. Estes vacant seat in the Michigan House of Representatives.

Opponents in the special election race will be Republican Richard C. Van Dusen and Democrat John C. Westerdale.

VanDusen, 28, of Birmingham, a practicing attorney with a Detroit firm, polled 1318 votes in the Jan. 21 primary.

Westerdale, 40, of Commerce Township, owner of a Dearborn secretarial service, tallied 252 votes to easily defeat his two opponents.

A resident of Birmingham for 18 years, VanDusen, a World War II veteran, attended Central Michigan College and received his bachelor of science degree from the University of Minnesota in 1945. He was graduated from University of Michigan Law School in 1949.

Since 1952 he has been chairman of the third Republican district of Oakland County, and vice chairman of the Oakland County Republican Organization Committee.

Westerdale studied engineering at Chrysler Institute, and economics and engineering with the University of Michigan extension service.

He is chairman of the Walled Lake Citizens Advisory Group's Zoning Committee, and is an officer in the Save Our Schools Committee at Walled Lake.

Included in the Third District are Milford, Commerce, West Bloomfield, Bloomfield, Troy, Lyon, Novi and Farmington Townships. Only registered voters in these townships are eligible to cast ballots.

Polling places in the district's 37 precincts will be open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m.

The winner will hold office until Dec. 31 when Estes' term would have expired. Estes resigned last November to become manager of the Oakland County infirmary.

Man With Mike Irks Assembly Hearing Senator

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Four thousand persons, after hearing Senator Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) castigate Communist conspiracy in high places, came out of the First Congregational Church last night to be greeted as "McCarthyites" over a mobile loud speaker system.

Jibes and taunts were too much for some in the crowd and they converged on their critic, whom police identified as Wilbur Joseph Jerger. He had set up his speaker on private property adjoining the church. Several clods of dirt were thrown at him and one man brandished a tire wrench.

About 20 police in 10 cars answered a riot call. Officers induced Jerger to stop his remarks and leave under protective escort. They said Jerger has filed for both the Democratic and Socialists party nominations for Congress in the 26th California District.

In a question and answer period after his speech, sponsored by the Freedom Club of the church, McCarthy said he had been wrong in stating at Madison, Wis., that John J. McCloy, former U.S. High Commissioner in Germany, had ordered the destruction of Army intelligence documents on communism.

But, said McCarthy, McCloy signed orders to commission and promote Communists in the Army.

Ike Disapproves of Partisan Attacks

port of the GOP program might suffer if the Chief Executive did not halt what the Democrats regard as "smear" tactics against them.

The news conference discussion was prompted by increasing Democratic anger over charges being hurled at their party by Republican Lincoln Day orators.

McCarthy, for example, has said all Democrats are "stained" by what he called a "great betrayal" on the part of Democratic administrations. Adams last Saturday denounced "political sadists" who, he said, are trying to foist a "fear deal" in the country with talk of a depression.

Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla) had called on the President to say at today's news conference whether he repudiates the GOP's "rat alley attack" on Democrats.

Asked for his general reaction the President said that, first of all he is not much of a partisan himself and that the times are too serious to indulge in partisanship to the extreme.

He admitted readily that there must be Democratic support for certain parts of his program if it is to be enacted into law.

He said he did not want to seem pontifical or sound like a stuffed shirt, but that he and members of his administration had tried desperately to draw up a program that was best for America. He said he expects Democratic support for that reason, not because any Democrats are particular friends of his.

Detectives Thomas Mitchell and James Carr said entry was gained by climbing a wall and breaking a second story window.

Thieves broke into the shop last December and made an unsuccessful attempt to crack the safe, police said.

TRAVIS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Two giant B36 bombers landed at Limestone Air Base, in northern Maine, early today after a 28-hour nonstop flight from Japan, the 14th Air Division announced.

The planes, attached to the Strategic Air Command, were engaged in studies of the "jet streams" in the upper atmosphere. These are west-to-east wind currents moving at highspeed.

The bombers, from the 5th Heavy Strategic Reconnaissance Wing, stationed at Travis Field, crossed the Pacific Ocean and the North American continent, a distance of more than 8,700 miles, without air refueling.

They left Yokota Air Base, near Tokyo, Monday evening, (United States time) and arrived at Limestone shortly before 3 a.m. EST, today.

The club completed purchase of the 10-acre lot this week for $10,000. Felice said the group will begin selling stocks to finance the new building.

Louis Spadafore, president, said the purchase was made possible through the efforts and activities of the women's auxiliary.

Pontiac City Affairs

Vote to Oppose State Bill Asking Dog Innoculations

Pontiac City Commission last night went on record as opposing House Bill 227 in the Michigan Legislature, a bill which Mayor Arthur J. Law said is aimed at making the city require rabies vaccinations for dogs.

Currently Pontiac dog licenses are issued without proof of vaccination as required elsewhere in the state.

Commissioner Harold W. Dudley said he had read reports of rabid dogs in the county and didn't understand why Pontiac shouldn't require vaccination. The resolution passed with only Dudley opposed.

In other action the commission okayed accepting bids March 1 for construction of the new branch library at Glendale Ave. and Rundell St. Bids were taken last November, but rejected as too high. Estimated cost of the building is $60,000.

Commissioners accepted engineer's estimates and directed that special assessment rolls be prepared for proposed construction of curb, gutter, drainage and related work on:

Harrison from Franklin to Bagley.
Going from Osmun to Whittemore.

The city attorney was directed to prepare an ordinance rezoning lots 503 to 512 both inclusive to Du Pont Heights Subdivision to C-1.

Commissioners concurred with a City Planning Commission recommendation that the north 395 feet of lot 1, assessor's plat 37 be rezoned to C-1 provided an agreement is made for the right-of-way for Mimai road extension and a 20 foot alley.

An agreement was approved with Tel-Huron Shopping Center, Inc. for improvement of an alley and an easement for public utilities in right-of-way in connection of the shopping center.

An ordinance was approved rezoning to C-1 the west half of lot 21, al lof lot 22 and part of lots 23 and 25 of assessor's plat 73.

Lots 60 to 106, inclusive, of Linda Vista Subdivision were rezoned to R-3.

Special assessment rolls were received for the following proposed projects:

Two inch blacktop on Center, from Osmun to Cottage.
Curb, gutter, drainage and related work on Hovey from Cottage to Osmun.
Curb, gutter and miscellaneous drainage on Strathmore from Baldwin to University.
Curb, gutter, drainage and related work on East Rutgers from Baldwin to University.
Sanitary sewer on westerly side of Oakland from Cass to opposite Kinney.
Curb, gutter, drainage and related work on California from Franklin to Bagley.
Trunk storm drain on Bagley from Nevada to California.

A public hearing was held on intention to construct curb, gutter, drainage and related work on Bondale from Earlmoor, to east line of the subdivision.

A petition was deferred until Feb. 16 from residents of Colorado between Franklin and Motor protesting planned public improvements.

A resolution was okayed declaring public necessity for curb, gutter, drainage, two-inch blacktop and related work on:

Wilson from Going to East Boulevard.
East Beverly from Laurel to Highwood.
Westbrook from Joslyn to east end of the street.
Barbell from Haskob to Columbia.

Commissioner Paul A. Kern and Mayor Arthur J. Law exchanged sharp words over city policies at Tuesday night's commission meeting.

Kern said he noticed Law was advocating establishment of a city park on the present city hall-national guard armory site and construction of a new armory, and noted a bill authorizing sale of the armory to the city had been introduced in the state legislature and sale price would be based on appraisal by the State Tax Commission.

"What's going on here," he said, adding he thought the moves had been made without consulting the commission. "I thought I was a member of a policy-forming body," he stated.

"I won't be a member long, but I'd like to help decide policy until I leave." (Kern is not a candidate for re-election this April.)

Law told Kern that he (Kern) had "betrayed the city for $3,000 . . . you ought to remember to keep a civil tongue in your mouth . . ." Law continued, saying, "I never heard such concentrated hypocrisy." He did not explain what he meant when he said that Kern had "betrayed the city for $3,000."

The armory plan was not new, Law stated, but has been discussed and planned for years.

3 Hazel Park Players Attacked After Game in Port Huron

PORT HURON (INS) — Three Hazel Park High School basketball players were badly bruised last night when three Port Huron boys jumped them after a game at Port Huron High School.

The Hazel Park team won 66-52. None of the spectators or participants in the brawl would give any reason for the attack.

Port Huron Police identified the attackers as Gordon Toles, 18; Richard Mertz, 19, and Roy Hayes, 19. Police said none is a high school student.

They pleaded guilty to disorderliness today and Toles and Mertz were sentenced to five days in jail. Hayes, a Marine on furlough, received a 10-day suspended sentence to be served when he is discharged from service.

The injured players were Richard Terry, 16, of Hazel Park; Bill Byrd, 18, of Ferndale, and Allan Staley, 15, of Hazel Park. They were given first aid and allowed to return home with the team.

Non-Shooting Sheriff

MAYSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Sheriff Hobart Collins soon will step down after 12 years as a Mason County law enforcement officer without ever having fired his pistol. Collins still has the same cartridges in the gun that he put there when he went into office.

"I guess it's just as well I never had to shoot. I never was a good shot," he laughed.

Collins never has been shot at, either.

"This is a pretty law-abiding county," he observed.

Bob Considine Says:

Military Board's Decision Could Affect Generations

By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK (INS) — Three Marine Generals and an Admiral next week will have the trying duty of determining, in effect, whether Col. Frank Schwalbe must undergo formal military court martial.

Col. Schwable wrote and signed a "confession" accusing the U.S. of waging germ warfare in Korea.

He was knocked down behind enemy lines in 1952, was captured, and underwent months of unspeakable cruelty before the Reds could get his signature on their phony document. Col. Schwable, at the time he went down, was the Marine Corps' second highest ranking flier in Korea.

Whatever the board's verdict, the conduct of fighting men for generations to come will be affected, subtly or bluntly.

Lt. Col. Guy Richards, USMC (Res.), a fine reporter for the N.Y. Journal American, has made a most comprehensive study of the Schwable case and the colossal significance involved. He writes what must be in the hearts of many when he pens:

"The reaction to the Schwable case in the armed services appears to be this—'Thank God it was not I who was put in that spot. I don't know what I would have done.'"

Returned prisoners have revealed that an undetermined number of fellow POWs died rather than cooperate in the least detail with sadistic captors. Would acquittal of Col. Schwable and others—via courts—suggest to the families of those heroes that these brave men foolishly laid down their lives?

Col. Schwable was a flier. More than 30 other fliers signed similar statements. The Reds put more pressure on airmen than captured infantrymen because the satellite people would be more inclined to believe that germ warfare, if it did exist, was waged from above.

Col. Schwable has a fine, large family. He's sure he would never have looked upon their beloved faces again if he had not signed a document which, he felt sure, nobody who knew him would ever believe.

Col. Richards suggests that this case and inferentially all other cases now pending in the services may be dismissed when Col. Schwable's lawyer brings up Article 31 of the new Uniform Code of Military Justice. The article provides that military folk have as much right to immunity from prosecution for acts committed under coercion as civilians have.

But in the minds of the 4-man board will be the memory of those gone and of Maj. Gen. Dean and the others who would not capitulate, Dean and others tried to kill themselves when they felt they no longer could be responsible for the terrible dictates of their assaulted bodies and minds.

A colossal issue is involved in the Schwable case. It involves a way of life, a national stance.

Earliest record of a postoffice in North America appears in a court order in Massachusetts in 1639. About 20 years later a postoffice was established in Virginia.

Cheer for Winter Weary

So you're tired of Winter and the snow that makes roads slippery and the salt that melts it and rusts your car!

Cheer up, things aren't half as bad as they seem. What if it has snowed almost every day for the past two weeks! LINCOLN'S birthday and Valentine's Day are just around the corner. In less than two weeks we will be celebrating WASHINGTON'S birthday and then Winter will be two-thirds gone.

Also, and this is a real harbinger of Spring, Tiger pitchers and catchers will be starting their training on that date. In less than three weeks all Major Leaguers will be hard at the annual grind.

Sure, there'll be more nasty weather and dangerous driving conditions. But, and this is balm for the soul, each day will bring us 24 hours nearer to that magic moment — the arrival of Spring.

America's Accident Bill

If you don't realize that accidents cost the Nation far too much in human lives and suffering and property loss, here are the cold facts gathered by the National Safety Council.

During 1953 accidents of all kinds killed 95,000, caused injuries to 9,600,000 and resulted in economic losses totaling $9,100,000,000.

Highway deaths were the most numerous and totaled 38,300, an increase of 300 over 1952. In second place were accidents in the home. These killed 28,000, down 1,000 from 1952. Accidental deaths at work were unchanged at 15,000.

All this should be more than enough to persuade everybody to pay more attention to safety first on the highway, in the home and on the job.

Have We Another RFC?

In areas where opposition to Government in business is strong, questions are beginning to be asked about the rapid growth of the Small Business Administration.

It was only last Summer that the much criticized Government lending agency, the Reconstruction Finance Corp. was liquidated. But the end didn't come until there was widespread agreement that the Government had remained in the loan business far too long.

★ ★ ★

At the same time the Small Business Administration came into being as a new lending agency. Its purpose not only was to provide loans for small businesses, but help small defense contractors to get a fair share of the Government's business.

Under the law creating it, SBA was given a life of only two years and a revolving fund of $50,000,000. The maximum it could loan to any one applicant was set at $150,000.

★ ★ ★

At first SBA business was confined largely to defense contractors, many of its loans being made jointly with banks. Now, however, wholesalers and retailers who recently became eligible, are applying for loans in increasing numbers and the agency's staff is approaching the 500 mark.

President EISENHOWER is known to be against any larger role for SBA. There is talk that Secretary WEEKS would like to bring it under sole control of his Commerce Department, presumably to discourage its growth.

★ ★ ★

But this is an election year and there has been Democratic talk of making the agency permanent, boosting its loan ceiling and freeing it from Treasury-Commerce control. There also is some opinion that despite GOP silence on the subject, there are Republican Congressmen who would like to see that very thing happen.

In any case SBA is worth watching.

Victory for Common Sense

Our State Senate has acted wisely on a bill to provide aid and restore order in communities stricken by disasters.

News from Lansing is that the bill was drafted with last Summer's Port Huron and Flint tornadoes in mind. Its aim is to make Michigan's Civil Defense organization responsible for this emergency duty.

When the voting stage was reached the count was 25 to 1 in favor of the bill. The one dissenting vote, however, was in protest against an amendment and not the bill itself.

This is a victory for common sense. Certainly it would be wasteful and ridiculous to create another organization for this purpose while Civil Defense personnel had nothing to do but wait for enemy attack.

★ ★ ★

In the interest of both efficiency and economy it is to be hoped the House also will pass the bill.

Stresses Urgent Need for More Schools to Take Care of Our Growing Population

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

We have been informed by J. Edgar Hoover, head of the FBI, and Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, secretary of the Department of Welfare, Health and Social Security, that, with the present trend, we can expect no less than a million arrests of teen-agers this year.

Many people do not believe this. If they did they would take definite steps to prevent it. Unless we make every effort, these children may become hardened criminals, alcoholics or communists.

We need at least $35 billion worth of new schoolrooms for our rapidly growing population. This should be undertaken by towns, cities, counties and states rather than the federal government, because so much money would be wasted through red tape and over-lapping bureaus if the federal government undertook the project.

It will be necessary to approve bond issues to pay for these classrooms. I believe that the people would approve them if they knew the facts.

The construction of school classrooms, along with recreational centers will provide opportunities for our children to develop into well-rounded, healthy, right-thinking citizens.

David Lawrence Says:

There's Plenty of Necessary Dirty Work for Congressional Probe Committees

WASHINGTON — Again and again in recent months people have asked this question: "Of what good are congressional investigations—why can't the executive agencies turn up law violations?"

Perhaps the most conclusive answer had just come in the form of a cause-and-effect relationship between what the Senate committee on government operations discovered in 1952 and the announcement in the last two days that the Department of Justice had obtained indictments by a federal grand jury against former Rep. Joseph Casey and several others in connection with alleged fraud in the transfer of government ships to private owners.

A subcommittee, headed by Sen. Hoey of North Carolina, Democrat, and including in its membership Sen. McCarthy, now the chairman of the same group, conducted a sweeping investigation with public hearings which wound up with this report in May 1952:

"The subcommittee is of the opinion that there appears to be sufficient evidence of violations of the civil provisions of the merchant ship sales act in these tanker transactions to warrant prompt action by the Department of Justice.

"In addition, the concealment and misrepresentation of pertinent facts by various officers and representatives of the firms involved in this inquiry in their dealings with the Maritime Commission leads the subcommittee to believe that various criminal statutes may have been violated by these individuals.

"In view of the long delay which has already occurred in making final determinations in these cases, it is the recommendation of the subcommittee that the Department of Justice take prompt and vigorous action to bring these cases to a logical conclusion. This is a unanimous report of the subcommittee."

Now Messrs. Casey and his associates have merely been indicated and they are presumed innocent under the law until proved guilty, but the significant fact is that an official Senate inquiry into their transactions has revealed a lengthy record.

As a consequence of the use of the power of subpoena by Congress, the Department of Justice has a clearer and more comprehensive view of the whole series of transactions than might have been developed at the actual trial itself which is, of course, governed by rules of evidence that are far more restrictive than the scope of testimony taken by congressional committees.

The main point to note, however, is that the "methods" used by the Senate subcommittee in 1952 are not essentially different from those being pursued by the same committee today under the chairmanship of Sen. McCarthy except for the occasional outbursts that occur when witnesses refuse to testify.

Outbursts by committee members, however, are as privileged as speeches on the floor of the Senate itself and there is no rule that can be adopted by which any senator or representative can be restrained from speaking his mind about any witness at a hearing.

The fact remains that, due to the interrogation and persistent investigation by the subcommittee of the Senate committee on government operations, it was possible for that committee to say in its report:

"This entire investigation has demonstrated to the subcommittee how various groups of shrewd and calculating businessmen and attorneys, through an intricate series of corporate and financial transactions, were able to realize substantial profits by taking advantage of the confusion and mismanagement which marked the administration of the surplus ship disposal program by the old Maritime Commission.

"Had the commission administered that program in a business-like manner and in accordance with the clear intent of the law, it would have been impossible for the individuals and firms involved in this inquiry to have engaged in activities which violated the spirit and, in many instances, the actual letter of the law."

None of the so-called "liberals" will be found objecting when the end result is an attack on unscrupulous individuals in the business category but only when the attack is on individuals who are related to the Communist controversy.

Incidentally, Sen. Lehman of New York, Democrat, has just felt obliged to issue a statement of explanation justifying his vote for a $214,000 appropriation for the McCarthy committee. The New York senator says:

"I believe in that power (congressional power to investigate) and its legitimate exercise. I do not believe the proper cure for the disease, in this case or any other case, is the paralysis of all the functions of the committee by cutting off appropriations."

Lehman said he would continue to press for a reform in the rules of investigating committees. One wonders whether easing up on those "methods" of congressional committees which the Communists and fellow travelers, among others, criticize so much isn't going to require an easing up also on a host of other persons whose malpractices are regularly uncovered by congressional committees investigating transactions between businessmen and the government.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Social Poise Must Be Learned by Individuals

Daniel and David are typical of most of you high schoolers when you first start dating. So read about their problem today and take heart. Everybody is like this at the beginning, for social poise must be learned. You never inherit it.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case K-321: Danny, aged 16 and David, aged 15, are the two youngest of our children.

"Go on and call your girl now," David exclaimed at the dinner table one night.

"It was your idea for us to get dates. Well, I got mine, so what are you stalling around about?"

"Give me time. Give me time," Daniel muttered.

But you had all day at school," David protested. "Why didn't you ask her then? Oh, I know. You're just chicken!"

"No I'm not," Daniel defended himself, but it was evident that his stalling was due to his shyness.

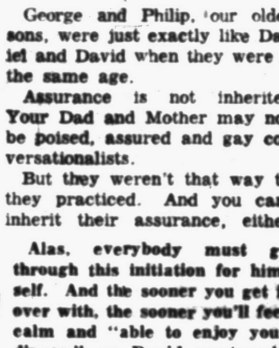
"O. K., then let's call her. Come on, I'll get her on the phone and then turn her over to you," David added.

Actually, David had been under similar tension and fear for hours before he had finally developed the nerve to ask his girl.

But he conveniently forget all of that and now was putting the pressure on his older brother.

"Come on," he urged again. "It's 7 o'clock already. If you don't call her, she may go out with somebody else.

"Besides, I don't want to be stuck with a date by myself. It was your idea in the first place, you know, so you got to get a date and go with me."



Finally, David coaxed and coerced Daniel into going upstairs in my study so they could telephone without the rest of the family's hearing what was said.

A moment later David came downstairs and out to the table.

"He can't back out now," he gloated. "I called and got her on the phone and then I turned her over to Daniel. He's up there talking to her now.

"Boy, oh boy, am I glad I got my date at school this afternoon. Daniel hasn't enjoyed his dinner at all because he has been trying to get up nerve to make the date."

Well, David's keen understanding of Daniel's psychology is due to the fact he had been on the same spot himself till mid-afternoon.

And I am revealing this typical behavior of teen-age boys to show you other high schoolers that it is normal and natural to feel shy making a date, even over the telephone.

George and Philip, our oldest sons, were just exactly like Daniel and David when they were at the same age.

Assurance is not inherited. Your Dad and Mother may now be poised, assured and gay conversationalists.

But they weren't that way till they practiced. And you can't inherit their assurance, either.

Alas, everybody must go through this initiation for himself. And the sooner you get it over with, the sooner you'll feel calm and "able to enjoy your dinner," as David so tersely phrased it.

Our boys have grown up in a normal home. They are good looking kids. They have above-average vocabulary. They have had more travel than the average high schooler.

Yet they are just as shy as the rest of you high schoolers, for travel and good looks and high grades and athletic prowess are not conversational skill.

Habits are specific, so you must learn how to converse by actually carrying on dialogue.

Send for my bulletin "How to Carry on Interesting Conversation," enclosing a stamped, envelope and a dime.

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

International News Service

Nice to report that our united notions have finally reduced belligerence to stoning embassies.

By next week we hope to have it down to hissing news reels.

From there it's a mere itinerary of steps to picketing legations, placarding conferences and marking on walls. It's the law of diminishing returns. A Roland for an Oliver or whichever typewriter you prefer.

I was over in Budapest around 1927 when the entente cordiale ran out the small end of the horn. Although no nations were at war the inhabitutes paid no more attention than the devil to a hot-foot.

They were busily engaged stoning an embassy representing a government opposed to drinking, square polka dots and pie for breakfast. Three major problems had come up at the last meeting of the aunts of heroes, second class.

Budapest mobs of that time consisted of students rioting on a subsidy as a protest against Englishmen climbing the Matterhorn in sedan chairs. National honor seemed to be revenged by heaving a dornick through a fan-light over a Georgian doorway.

The clientele of the free-stoned embassy had barricaded itself behind heavy duty lace curtains. The ambassador seemed to be keeping score. For future references when replacing windows. And for possible mention for the Victoria cross.

After all the windows were busted the mob got on its two-seater bicycle and rode away. The leader of course doing the steering from the back seat. Both governments apologized for the incident. Budapest for the stoning. And London for not having more windows.

The French and the Latins are both volatile demonstrators who think buildings are responsible for who's in 'em.

I thought I loved you yesterday . . . And all the days before . . . But now it seems, my dearest one . . . I love you even more . . . It really could not be that way . . . Together or apart . . . Because I always give you all . . . The love within my heart . . . But if my heart has grown in size . . . So has my love for you . . . And that may be the reason why . . . I feel the way I do . . . And if that does explain it, dear . . . Then I can only say . . . You were responsible for it . . . In every happy way . . . It merely means that you are now . . . More charming than before . . . And you have helped my grateful heart . . . To love you even more.

Children of Today Getting Better Break in Nutrition, Right Clothing and Sunshine

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

How far back can one actually remember his own childhood? It seems to me that I remember getting lost when I was three or four years old; and wetting the bed when I was at least six years old.

I feel pretty sure I actually remember many more things, but maybe I remember only hearing my parents or others tell about them.

There is a certain period of childhood so fabulous that by the time you qualify for social security and discover there is no security you can't believe your own recollection.

Frankly I don't know whether I remember the twins next door succumbing to diphtheria or whether I just heard about it.

But I remember clearly a winter day long ago when I watched the intrepid Dr. McClellan come forth from a house down the street where there was a case of diphtheria — a dreadful thing, for antitoxin had not yet been introduced in Canadaigua.

For a long time Dr. McClellan stood out in the middle of the street flapping his arms and shaking out his coat before he got into his cutter and drove away.

The cause of diphtheria, bacillus diphtheriae, was discovered by Klebs in 1883 and Loffler in 1884 and is called the Klebs-Loffler bacillus. Diphtheria anti-toxin was discovered by Emil von Behring about 1895.

The public dreaded diphtheria then as many of you dread leprosy now. The difference is there is no excuse for your ignorance but in the nineteenth century people were ignorant because the doctors themselves knew no better.

In recent years queries about the croup have become so rare that I shall discontinue distributing the pamphlet on Croup (available on request if you provide stamped, self-addressed envelope).

I have a distinct and encouraging impression that children get a better break in the way of nutrition, open air play, light clothing and exposure to sunshine today than ever before and these factors prevent croup.

Incidentally I suggest to parents of young children that an optimal intake of calcium (sweet milk, skim or separator milk, buttermilk and milk products) and vitamin D, which is essential for assimilation and utilization of calcium (sunshine vitamin) prevents croup or makes it but a mild illness if it does occur.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Solons Oppose Indochina Aides

Rap Ike Policy Sending 200 AF Mechanics to Wartorn Land

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Stennis (D-Miss) contended today the Eisenhower administration violated a pledge by sending 200 Air Force mechanics into Indochina before consulting key congressmen.

Stennis, a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said in an interview he favors immediate recall of the U. S. mechanics as a move to avoid possible direct involvement in the long anti-Communist war there.

Declaring that "I'm no isolationist," he said he believes a majority of the Senate Armed Services Committee opposed sending the mechanics into Indochina. He added he favors increased American aid in money and equipment.

* * *

Sen. Byrd (D-Va), in a separate interview, called it a "risky step" to send the mechanics. He, too, said members of the Armed Services Committee were not informed in advance, and that they were told of the plan by Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, at a secret session last Friday.

That followed publication of newspaper accounts saying 125 or more technicians had been sent.

Byrd said the next steps would be requests by the French for U.S. pilots and ground forces in Indochina, adding he would oppose that. Secretary of Defense Wilson told a news conference yesterday the fighting is going satisfactorily, and that he sees no need to step up American aid.

* * *

Sen. George (D-Ga) of the Foreign Relations Committee said he "doubts it was a wise move" to send in the mechanics. He agreed with Stennis that if the United States should send fighting forces into Indochina, Red China probably would send in forces as it did in Korea.

Wilson said yesterday that unless the Red Chinese intervene on a mass scale, or some similar new factor enters the picture, he thinks chances are good for a military victory in the eight-year war.

Republican Leader Knowland of California told the Senate Monday night the Eisenhower administration had no desire or intention of sending combat forces into Indochina.

The U. S. infant mortality rate of 28 per 1,000 live births in 1953 was 30 per cent less than the rate 10 years previous and half that of 20 years previous.

OFFICERS' SWORDS RESTORED—The Navy will once again be full of gay blades, now that orders have restored the sword as an accessory to officers' uniforms. Strictly ornamental, the swords were laid aside when World War II started. Carmen Borges inspects a large shipment of hand-made swords at a New York factory, which has been flooded with orders as a result of the new regulation.

Hope to Outlaw Commie Party

Lawmakers Send Pile of Red-Control Bills to House Committee

WASHINGTON (INS) — Six proposals to outlaw the Communist Party and a flood of other bills to curb subversive activities have been introduced in the House.

A survey of legislation referred to the House Judiciary Committee also showed today that three measures have been offered to carry out President Eisenhower's proposal to revoke the U. S. citizenship of Reds.

No immediate action is expected on the measures, but there is a good chance the committee will act on the President's "citizenship" suggestion, made in his State of the Union message.

The question of outlawing the Communist Party has legal complications. The Subversive Activities Control Board has ruled the party is a subversive organization but this finding is subject to court review.

Chairman Harold H. Velde (R-Ill) said recently that the House UnAmerican Activities Committee's recommendation on legislation to outlaw the party will await a final decision by the Supreme Court.

The latest in the series of proposals to outlaw the Communist Party was offered by Rep. Martin Dies (D-Tex), first chairman of the UnAmerican Activities Committee.

Dies demanded that Congress end the Communist issue in this country "once and for all" by making it unlawful for any person to belong to a group teaching communism.

Mitchell Says Dems Can Take House, Senate

SEATTLE (AP)—With hard work by party leaders the Democrats should take over the Senate and House in the 1954 elections, Stephen A. Mitchell, Democratic national chairman, said last night.

Speaking informally to a group of 60 party leaders here, Mitchell said the prospects are good "if the party organizes and works."

He said the House race looks best for the Democrats, with the present minority group likely to command a "good majority" after the election. The Senate, he conceded, may be "close," but the leadership is "confident and optimistic."

He criticized Republicans who say the Democrats are being prophets of doom and gloom about an imminent recession.

"We simply are talking of facts as they exist," he said. "The Republicans merely are attempting to hide their own weaknesses; they are attempting to conceal the facts."

North Carolina estimates that cotton farmers lost 25 million dollars to the boll weevil in that state in 1953.

Mexico Keeps Coffee for Home Users First

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Economy Minister Gilberto Loyo says it would pay Mexican coffee growers to export their entire crop under present world conditions, but the government won't permit it.

All domestic needs, requiring about a third of Mexico's production, must be satisfied at reasonable prices before coffee is shipped abroad, Loyo told reporters in an interview last night.

Northern Lights Helping Science

Spectacle Once Thought to Be Battling Gods but Now Aid Air Study

WASHINGTON—One of nature's most spectacular displays — the gorgeous night show of the polar aurora or "northern lights" — is helping science to explore the world of the upper air.

An unexplained phenomenon until modern times, the aurora has enabled man to measure how far the atmosphere extends above the surface of the earth.

Analysis of its light has revealed the composition of gases in the ionosphere, the electrified region between 50 and 250 miles above the earth.

The aurora's new role as a contributor to science seems strange, says the National Geographic Society, remembering that through most of recorded history the sky spectacle was an enigma.

For centuries the lights were believed to be the battles and maneuvers of spirits or gods, or portents of evil tidings.

Actually, the rippling arcs and streamers of lights are caused by gigantic currents of electrified particles spouting forth from the sun and speeding millions of miles out into space like streams from a huge hose.

If an observer could see the aurora borealis from out in space, it would seem to be a luminous cloud near the North Pole on the dark side of the earth, hundreds or even thousands of miles in length and breadth. At times it extends 600 miles up into the thinning atmosphere.

Oxygen atoms produce the bright red and yellow-green colors of the aurora. Nitrogen molecules give the orange-red, blue-green, blue-violet and deep violet-grey shades.

To the naked eye, auroras usually appear to be greenish white. Green is the aurora's predominant color, and the eye is much more sensitive to green than to red.

A bright aurora lights up the landscape at night about half as much as does the full moon.

Contrary to common belief, the aurora is not most brilliant or frequent at the north and south geographic poles.

The region of greatest brilliance and frequency is along a line running through northern Norway, across central Hudson Bay, around to Point Barrow, Alaska, and through northern Siberia.

Residents of northern Maine, Minnesota, North Dakota and Montana see some 25 aurora displays annually — more than are witnessed by any other U. S. citizens.

They are most frequently observed during the months of the spring and autumn equinoxes, around March 21 and September 21.

Hungry 'Coons Spur Oldtime Movement

INDIANAPOLIS (UP) — Doxie Moore, Indiana's conservation department director, would like to see raccoon coats return to the wardrobes of college men. Twenty-five years ago, when the shaggy coats were the rage, Indiana stocked its fields and woodlands with hundreds of the animals. Hunters kept the population in check.

Now, Moore says, farmers are complaining of big crop losses to packs of the hungry 'coons, virtually safe from harm since there's no market for their skins. To help solve the problem this year, Moore says the 'coon season will be lengthened so hunters can reduce the population.

Hits Jackpot During Digging Operations

SEALY, Tex. (UP) — A workman digging the foundation holes for Frank W. Koy's new garage punched his post hole digger down in exactly the right spot.

He broke a half-gallon glass jar containing $322 in silver and gold coins dated from 1844 to 1902.

Koy, who bought the place about three years ago, awarded some of the money to the lucky digger, Joe W. Brandt, and other workmen. He said the rest probably would pay for the new garage.

YOU MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS AND NOT KNOW IT!

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often tell-tale signs of Pin-Worms ... ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do ... and here's how they do it.

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge... the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Climbers of Mt. Everest Now to Explore the Barun

WASHINGTON — Sir Edmund Hillary's plan to explore the Barun Valley in the Himalayas turns the world's attention this year to one of earth's least known areas, a desolate region of rocks, ice and cold.

Last year under the leadership of Sir John Hunt of the British Mt. Everest Expedition, Hillary and Tenzing Norkey, the Sherpa guide, scaled the world's loftiest mountain.

Immediately climbers wondered: After a man climbs Everest, what next does he tackle?

Recently, while preparing to fly to Washington where the Everest expedition will receive the National Geographic Society's prized Hubbard Medal, Sir Edmund gave the answer.

He wanted first to try an assault on Makalu, the 27,790-foot peak 12 miles southeast of Everest. No man has yet set foot on its pinnacle.

But a California team had won prior permission to attempt this giant of the Nepal-Tibet border.

Hillary then decided to lead his New Zealand expedition into the Barun Valley, hitherto explored by only four Europeans — one of them himself.

A spectacular region of roaring avalanches and icy spires, the valley begins on the southern slopes of Pethangtse, a beautiful 22,080-foot peak six miles east of Mt. Everest. Here the Barun Glacier scours a path southeast past the south ramparts of Makalu and feeds water into the precipitous gorge of the Barun River.

Thirty-five miles from Mt. Everest the Barun flows into the Arun, a stream which cuts through the very backbone of the Himalayas.

Most of what is known about the Barun comes from Eric Shipton, a Briton who has scouted the Everest massif for years.

In 1951 he and Hillary set their hearts on probing the jagged formations of the basin. The next year they entered the region, accompanied by Dr. Charles Evans, a Liverpool (England) surgeon, and George Lowe, a New Zealand school teacher, both members of the successful Everest expedition of last year.

They climbed two peaks of 22,500 feet and 21,800 feet. There they surveyed an awesome panorama. In mighty aray the towering Himalayas pierced the clouds. Below, the jumbled floor of the Barun basin dropped from 17,000 to 4,000 feet.

Then Hillary and Evans mounted another unnamed summit, 21,400 feet. Finally the party set out down the lower Barun Valley.

From a gloomy defile the men emerged into fertile, green pastureland strangely contrasting with the crystal configurations of Makalu's overhanging glaciers to the north. Alpine flowers dotted the ground.

Jogging on, the party met friendly Buddhist shepherds and soon found itself among thick growths of rhododendron, firs and birches. Waterfalls tumbled from heights resembling Norwegian fjords.

At the 9,000-foot level the Barun turned into a chasm lined with tropical forests where heavy rains alternated with sunny skies. Days later the group followed a circuitous route to the Arun, and thence to India.

Peep Into Cop's Home Lands Man in Jail

William Seaman, 30, of 568 E. Columbia St., was sentenced today to five days in Oakland County Jail by Pontiac Judge Maurice E. Finnegan for window peeping into a Pontiac policeman's home Saturday.

Patrolman William Young was alerted by his wife that she saw a man peering into the livingroom window.

Young dashed outside, and captured Seaman before he could flee and booked him at police headquarters for disorderly conduct.

Baby Sitting Job Leaves Its Mark

EAST HARTFORD, Conn. (UP) — High School Football Coach Henry Giardi showed up for an Exchange Club dinner with what looked like a bruise about the size of a silver dollar in the middle of his forehead.

Babysitting with his 17-months-old daughter and watching a football game on TV at the same time was responsible, he said.

"My daughter has one of those suction-cup toys. She thinks it's fun when I press it against my forehead. Now the mark won't rub off or wash off."

Well, No Wonder!

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (UP) — Wayne Jaeger had a persisting pain in his left foot and finally prepared to enter a hospital for observation. A friend asked to inspect his new shoes, discovered Jawger was wearing a size 9½ on his right foot, size 8½ on the left. The hospital trip was cancelled.

Total Employed Drops 2 Million

Bureau Says Decline in Nonfarm Employment Partly Seasonal

WASHINGTON (AP) — There were 47,700,000 Americans at work last month in industry, trade, transportation and government—a drop of two million from December.

Reporting this yesterday, the Bureau of Labor Statistics attributed the decrease in nonfarm employment in part to seasonal factors.

However, BLS said a 380,000 drop in factory payrolls was "appreciably larger than usual" and the most severe for the season since the 1949 recession year.

While noting the effect of seasonal trends on employment in the lumber, food and miscellaneous manufacturing industries, BLS also said there were reductions in primary metals, machinery, leather, transportation equipment and ordnance payrolls "not attributable to seasonal influences."

* * *

In the textile and apparel fields, where personnel reductions are customary at this time of the year, BLS said the drops recorded last month were bigger than usual.

Over-all, nonfarm employment last month was the largest of any January except last year, BLS said. It was 646,000 below a year ago because of factory layoffs. January employment in nonmanufacturing industries, on the other hand, was the highest ever.

The men waited quietly for an elevator. Then they rode up to the office of the FBI.

'Cow-fee' Is Hot Milk Over Instant Coffee

WASHINGTON (AP)—An advertising agency has come up with something it calls "cow-fee" as one answer to high coffee prices and milk surpluses.

It's a beverage using both coffee and milk. The agency, apparently working for milk producers, put on a press preview yesterday. "Cow-fee" uses hot milk poured over instant coffee powder.

Pickets Factory of Husband; Then Sues for Divorce

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Mrs. Marie Harrison, who picketed her husband's venetian blind factory in a family labor dispute last month, now has filed for divorce.

Mrs. Harrison said, however, the labor trouble had nothing to do with her domestic troubles.

The 37-year-old mother of six charged in her petition yesterday that Harrison failed to support her and the children.

Mrs. Harrison, with her 19-year-old son George V. Jr., picketed her husband's factory demanding a wage increase for George Jr. and wages for herself.

George Jr. was receiving 75 cents an hour. Mrs. Harrison worked eight years in the factory without pay. The AFL Carpenters Union arranged a settlement. It boosted George Jr.'s wages and sent Mrs. Harrison back to the kitchen.

Stresses Need for Security

R. W. McLeod Claims Now Is Time for Keen Emphasis on It

MITCHELL, S. D. (AP)—The question of security today "is red hot," and should be, says R. W. Scott McLeod, security and personnel administrator for the State Department.

"Many people think that security is being overplayed at the present time," McLeod told a Republican Lincoln Day banquet audience here last night.

• • •

"I think it should be. For security is like a pendulum. It swings one way for a time and then the other. It has been so underplayed in the last few years that it must be emphasized now."

McLeod is scheduled to speak at other, similar Republican rallies tonight at Worland, Wyo., Thursday and Lander, Wyo., and Friday at Watertown, S. D.

He said here that the Democrats were "playing their old numbers game" in demanding a breakdown of the 2,200 security risks the Eisenhower administration announced it has fired.

"So far as these firings go," McLeod said, "I don't think the people are concerned with any breakdown—they don't care if they were drunks, perverts or Communists—they just want us to get rid of them."

• • •

When he took office, McLeod said he thought there was a central filing system in the administrative section of the State Department.

"But when we made a check," he went on, "118 filing cabinets were in the central filing room and 199 cabinets were out in other offices.

• • •

"Now we have the files together and are trying to do something about all this information that has been collected over the years and about which nothing was done."

He added that 20,000 files also were missing from the Justice Department and said that the Truman administration had had the opportunity to prosecute those responsible under the espionage act.

"But they didn't do it," he said. "I don't know why they didn't, because the proper agencies knew all about those cases. I wish those people (the Democrats) would stop hollering 'smear' and tell us the truth about things."

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Eight times within nine months Mrs. Myrtle Smith became a grandmother.

Four of her daughters and four of her daughters-in-law gave birth to the eight grandchildren. Mrs. Smith's first great-grandchild also was born in that period.

Mrs. Smith is grandma to 25 children.

GI Likes the Service

GASTONIA, N. C. (UP) —M Sgt. C. E. Strickland, Army and Air Force recruiting officer here, thinks he made some sort of record when he enlisted Benjamin F. Green of Lowell, N. C., in the Army. It was the third time Strickland had enlisted Green whose previous enlistments were in the Air Force and Army.

A-Locomotive Would Operate With Little Fuel

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—An atomic locomotive that would run for a year on only 13 pounds of uranium will be described today to railroad and manufacturing representatives by a University of Utah nuclear scientist.

The scientist, Dr. Lyle B. Borst, yesterday made public plans for what could be the world's first atomic-driven locomotive. He said the plans were developed during his advance physics course at the university.

Today he will outline the plans to representatives of the five railroads and nine industrial concerns which cooperated with the project.

At a press conference yesterday, he said the locomotive would be driven with steam-produced electricity and would cost an estimated $1,200,000. It would look much the same as the diesel locomotives now in use and would develop 7,000 horsepower.

The scientist said the engine could run for a year on approximately 13 pounds of uranium. He said that even if the uranium cost $11,000 a pound the fuel expenditure per year for the locomotive would be about $150,000, compared with the present $240,000 that is spent annually on a diesel developing the same horsepower.

He said he did not know the cost of uranium but said a recent published report estimated it at around $9,000 a pound.

• • •

He emphasized that the project was still in the classroom stage but predicted that "we will have atomic locomotives before we have atomically produced electric energy on an industrial scale."

House Bill Would Give States More Road Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration is backing a bill to boost federal aid for road construction and to give the states greater leeway in spending the money they get from the government for this purpose.

Rep. McGregor (R-Ohio) introduced the bill yesterday.

Set Up Program to Get Jobs for Unemployed

KENNETT, Mo. (AP) Dunklin County businessmen are setting up a program to give work to the county's needy in the hope that, after 30 days, outside cash and food help will be unnecessary. About 700 families of out-of-work farm laborers were found virtually destitute last week.

General, Envoy to Report Home

Will Tell Pentagon of the Growing Distrust in Anti-Red Asia

TOKYO (INS) — Gen. John E. Hull and Ambassador John M. Allison left Tokyo for Washington today, carrying a report of growing distrust among the anti-Communist nations of the vast Pacific region.

The United Nations commander and the envoy to Japan — America's top military and diplomatic representatives in the Orient — took off from Haneda Airport at 3 p.m. (1 a. m. EST).

In a planeside interview, Hull denied reports he would discuss with the Pentagon a proposal to transfer American troops from Korea to Indo-China where Red forces are advancing in a new offensive.

Shortly before his departure, Hull's Tokyo headquareters announced that Gen. O. P. Weyland, commander of the U.S. Far East Air Forces, has flown to Indo-China.

This followed the Washington announcement that 200 American technicians would be sent to that embattled country to support the French Air Force in its war against the Vietminh rebels.

To reporters at Tokyo's airport, Hull predicted there would be no resumption of the Korean fighting, despite serious U. N. charges that the Reds are violating the armistice by smuggling planes and other combat material into North Korea.

Hal Boyle Says:

Husbands Are a Problem Storming Around House

NEW YORK (AP)—Some husbands get restless in the home after dinner.

They stomp and storm around the place, finding fault with everything and making a general nuisance of themselves to their wives, all because they don't have anything to do.

* * *

No, they don't want to go to a movie. No, they don't feel like looking at television. There isn't a decent murder being shown. No, they don't feel like going down in the basement and working with their new carpentry tools.

* * *

"I've made so many bookends I can't even give them away to the neighbors," they brood.

A husband on a restless evening can be as trying as an ailing child on a rainy day. What can a wife do to keep her big bored lummox happy?

Some wives pacify their husband by buying him a goldfish to watch. Whenever he starts ranting and roaring after being fed his evening meal, the wife tells him soothingly, "now you're just working yourself into an uproar over nothing. There, there. Why don't you run over like a good little husband and watch your pretty goldfish for a while? That'll keep you quiet."

* * *

The trouble with goldfish watching as a pastime is that it either takes too much of a hold on a man—or else he quickly loses interest in it.

* * *

If goldfish watching gets a real grip on a husband, it can be worse than drinking or gambling. The relaxation becomes a vice. The victim loses interest in his wife, his children, and his job as he becomes more and more absorbed in watching his goldfish.

Don't we all know husbands who began goldfish watching innocently enough, then began demanding fish food to eat, just like their finny pet, and later began secretly coming down to the goldfish bowl in the dead of night, carrying a candle so they could watch it some more? The only sure way for a wife to break up a situation like this is to swallow the goldfish herself and blame it on the cat.

* * *

Other husbands, on the other hand, are simply made more nervous and exasperated than ever by watching a goldfish. They often get the idea the goldfish is beginning to watch them.

* * *

My theory is that a wife had better forget all about goldfish watching, buy her husband a bowling ball, and get him to join the nearest bowling league.

Bowling has a number of advantages over goldfish watching as a way of calming down husbands. It is also cheaper and safer than either hunting or fishing. Few men ever drown on a bowling alley or are shot to death accidentally by someone who mistook them for a deer.

* * *

The best thing about bowling is that it gets a husband out of the house one night a week, and enables him to satisfy a man's normal desire to destroy things. They show him a shining alley with ten bright wooden pins in perfect pattern at the end. They hand him his bowling ball and say, "see if you can smash 'em all down, big fellow."

* * *

For the rest of the evening he wears himself out crashing the ball into the pins, destroying the too-perfect pattern, sending them flying. He is as happy as a small boy who is given a fistful of rocks in a greenhouse and told to break as many windows as he wants to. He comes home tired, but cheerful and relaxed. It has been just the kind of evening he needed.

But what about the wife? What should she do while her husband is out renewing his youth in a bowling alley? After all, you can't expect her just to sit at home and do nothing, can you?

Some goldfish find it makes them nervous to be watched by wives, but that is just too bad, and nothing can be done about it. Once you buy a goldfish you can't just let it go to waste, can you? Somebody has to watch it.

Russian TV Menu Weak Compared With America's

(Editor's note: Tom Whitney, who wrote the following story, was formerly an AP correspondent in Moscow. He returned to this country last year.)

By TOM WHITNEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Russian television has no soap operas, no thrillers for children, no mystery plays, no disc jockeys, no comedians—and no commercials.

For an average American the Soviet telecasts would be pretty dull fare. But Muscovites love them. So far as Russians with TV sets are concerned, television is the biggest thing that's happened since the war.

Even so, Russian television still is a very small-scale operation. The entire U.S.S.R. has only three stations—in Moscow, Leningrad and Kiev. Altogether there may be somewhere around 250,000 TV receivers in use, most of them in and around Moscow.

* * *

(For comparison: The United States has 360 TV stations in operation and many more under construction and at the end of 1953 there were 27 million TV sets in use.)

The principal Soviet television station—in Moscow—is on the air only 20 to 23 hours a week. Programs start at 8 each evening except Thursday (Thursday is the station's day off) and run to about 11 p.m.

On Sunday afternoons there is always a special childrens' program which runs about three hours. Sometimes on weekdays and Sundays there are special sports broadcasts, usually soccer games.

Soviet television sets selling in Moscow have only four or five-inch screens. The Russians hope to get a set with an 8 or 10-inch screen in mass production in the next year, but have not yet solved this problem.

The small sets are in great demand. They cost 1,275 rubles for the smallest screen and 2,500 for the next larger (a little over five inches). This is the equivalent at the official exchange rate of $318.75 and $625.00 respectively, or what an average Russian worker would earn in two or four months. The cheaper and smaller set is out of stock and can be purchased only by getting on a waiting list.

* * *

When one can find a large screen set, such as one imported from the United States, the Moscow telecasts [illegible] an image of good quality. But Soviet television studios have much to learn about proper lighting, makeup for the actors and television techniques.

They also have much to learn about programming. Russian stations present full-length motion pictures and plays from the studio or direct from the theater; opera and ballet direct from the Bolshoi Opera Theater, and what they call "concerts." These are variety programs presenting singers, elecutionists, acrobats, dancers and the like.

According to the plans of the Malenkov government, Soviet television is scheduled to undergo a tremendous boom in the next few years. New stations will be built, with coaxial cables to link them in a network.

Soldier's Marriage Annullment Denied

ATLANTA (AP)—Efforts of a Valdosta couple to have their dead son's marriage annulled has been rejected by the Georgia Supreme Court.

At stake was the $10,000 government insurance policy and $1,800 gratuity pay of Willie Ezekial Johnson, a serviceman killed in a plane crash in Idaho Jan. 7, 1953.

The parents, Ezekial and Bessie Johnson, filed suit against Verta Lee Mitchell Johnson, who they charged fraudulently married their son in Valdosta Aug. 20, 1951.

But the Supreme Court said that fraud is a valid ground for divorce in this state and for that reason could not be used as a ground for seeking an annulment.

Red Atomic Cannon Stories Questioned

LONDON (INS) — The London Daily Telegraph's specialist on Communist affairs warned today that Russia may have "planted" stories about Soviet atomic cannon as a propaganda move.

Reports from Moscow told of Soviet army tests of atomic artillery in recent maneuvers.

But the Telegraph's special correspondent said the story may have been "deliberately planned as part of a propaganda campaign around the Berlin conference."

He added:

"It may have been calculated to intimidate Europan countries and further hinder the conclusion of the European defense community."

No Income Tax to Pay, So Sends Check for 'None'

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—A taxpayer who apparently hired the services of an auditor in filing his income tax yesterday had employes of the Internal Revenue Service scratching their heads.

They received a signed personal check for "none" dollars.

Employes theorized the man was advised by an auditing firm:

(1) Sign your name, (2) make out check for $ (here the auditor inserted the word "none") and (3) mail and return to Internal Revenue Service.

"He did exactly as told," a tax official said, "but I don't know what we'll do with the check."

Coffee Probe Contradictory

Committee May Place Witnesses Under Oath to Tell All

WASHINGTON (INS)—A Senate subcommittee probing high coffee prices considered today the possibility of placing future witnesses under oath because of contradictory testimony received in earlier hearings.

Subcommittee Chairman J. Glenn Beall (R-Md.) and Sen. J. Allen Frear (D-Del.) indicated they favor the action on the basis of two days of coffee hearings which they said left most members "confused."

Beall said the subcommittee will meet next week to study the transcript taken since the probe opened Monday. It will then decide whether the group should require witnesses to swear to tell "the whole truth."

Frear said he thought it was "unusual" for an investigating subcommittee not to swear in its witnesses. Beall explained that he originally felt those appearing before the group would act "in good faith," making oath-taking unnecessary.

But Beall asserted that there have been "very definite contradictions" in the testimony which now require the subcommittee to reconsider the matter.

Only five witnesses — all New York coffee brokers or merchants —have appeared before the subcommittee to explain rising coffee prices and at least three members of the five-man group have said they were confused by the testimony.

U. S. A-Bomb Stockpile Over 1,000 Says Swede

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — The Swedish army chief of staff reported today that the United States is believed to have a stock of "considerably more than 1,000 atomic bombs" and the Soviet Union "might have some 100 atomic weapons of both light and heavy types."

The statement by Gen. Richard Akerman, made in a survey of East-West resources in the event of war, was published on the front pages of several Swedish papers.

Local Man Charged With Stealing Dog

Alfred T. Harden, 46, of 374 Howard McNeil St., was charged with simple larceny yesterday by Pontiac Police who said Harden attempted to steal a Walker hound dog, valued at $250, from Major J. Watkins of 12 Beaudette St.

Harden told Detective John DePauw that he wanted the dog to sell to a friend for $5.

Patrolmen Marvin Blum and Fred A. Stormer arrested Harden who was being held by Watkins for police. Watkins said he saw Harden leading the dog awa from his backyard kennel.

Harden, who is a Jackson Prison parolee, was to be arraigned today in Pontiac Municipal Court.

Bird Spotted Atop Everest

Others Seen Flying at 29,000 Feet; One Once Hit Plane at 20,000

WASHINGTON — When Sir Edmund Hillary and Tensing Norkey were nearing the top of Mt. Everest earlier this year, they were astonished to see a bird flying at the 27,000 foot level.

But that particluar avian high flyer failed by some 2,000 feet of beating what is generally regarded as the world altitude record for birds, says the National Geographic Society.

Scientists photographing the a flock of geese at 29,000 feet, the approximate height of Mt. Everest. In migration across the lofty Himalayas, these geese set the record.

Ornithologists for several reasons do not stress altitude records of birds. They point out that the birds themselves do not strive for marks, flying high only to clear obstacles or storms, or to find tastier insects. The record- holding geese probably could have gone higher had they wished.

Again, a robin summering in Denver has a good start skywards over a robin nesting in Washington, even though neither bird may ever venture more than a few hundred feet above the ground.

The lammergeier habitually lives in high places and had previously been identified in the Mt. Everest area at 24-25,000 feet. But two types of lowlands birds, godwits and curlews, have been seen migrating past the flanks of the same great mountain at 20,000 feet.

Another dweller on heights is the world's largest flying bird, the Andean condor. One collided with a plane at about 20,000 feet above sea level. Another was sighted 6,700 feet in the thin air above a 12,958-foot peak.

As for speed, only one bird has ever been clocked at as much as 200 miles an hour. It was a swift, which set the record in a brief sprint not at a great height, but in the normally dense air of a moderate altitude.

Wigs were worn by both men and women in ancient Egypt.

Waitress Can Remember Orders for 25 Customers

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UP) — Twenty-five members of a social group arrived at the Reservoir Club and took seats at tables.

A waitress came over and stood silently for nearly a minute while the 25 rattled off their orders for assorted drinks.

When they had finished, the waitress nodded and headed for the service bar.

"Hey, where you going?" demanded one of the guests, incredulously. "You didn't write anything down."

The waitress turned and smiled. "You'll get what you ordered," she reassured him.

"If you bring those 25 drinks and serve us all just what we ordered," said the man, "I'll give you $5."

The waitress returned with the drinks, swiftly distributed them—and pocketed the $5.

Nobody who knows Miss Eleanor Candi, 25, a pert brunette of Arlington, will be surprised at her performance. Since she started as a waitress seven years ago she has astonished her guests with her almost miraculous memory.

"It just comes naturally," she explains, "I don't use any system for memorizing things."

One day a young woman ordered a drink.

"You don't take ice," Miss Candis said.

"Why do you say that?"

"A couple of years ago I waited on you in a Boston hotel and I remember," said Miss Candis.

The young woman smiled. "Yes," she said, "you did. But the reason I didn't want ice that night was that I had a cold."

On another occasion a man came in and sat at a table. To the waitress about to take his order Miss Candis said: "He'll order rock-and-rye, with ginger ale on the side. And when it's half gone he'll order another."

He did just that. It developed that Miss Candis had waited on him some three years previously at the Boston hotel.

Some of her friends think Miss Candis is a misfit at the Reservoir Club. They figure it would be more appropriate if she worked in nearby Somerville — at the Memory Lane.

Woodpecker Wins

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — An irate Missoula homeowner asked authorities if he could legally shoot a woodpecker who was driving him crazy with its incessant drilling. He was told the woodpecker was a songbird and could not be killed. The woodpecker started another hole.

AFL Proposes Inter-union Plan

Teamsters' Vote May Sway Effort to Dissolve Jurisdictional Feuds

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—AFL leaders have come forward with a compromise plan for settling job-right fights among rival AFL unions but there remained considerable doubt today how well it will work out.

The AFL Executive Council gave tentative approval to the plan before winding up a winter meeting yesterday. It was obvious that several AFL unions were reluctant about going along.

George Meany, when installed as AFL president little more than a year ago, embarked on a campaign to establish machinery for settling feuds between the AFL and CIO as a preliminary to a merger. Then he was instructed by the AFL to try for a similar peace plan within the AFL itself.

* * *

Neither plan has matured, although Meany still is pushing both and is hopeful they can be accomplished.

The rub comes mainly within the AFL, among unions jealous of their often-conflicting jurisdictional claims that a particular union's members should perform a certain type of work.

The Teamsters Union, for example, headed by Dave Beck, has announced plans for doubling a present membership of nearly 1,500,000 within five years. The Teamsters are reportedly reluctant to abandon the possibility of expanding work opportunities in fields now occupied by members of CIO or other AFL unions.

The Teamsters will decide on both plans at a meeting of that union's international executive board here next week. On their decision will largely depend whether Meany's hopes for orderly settlement of interunion rivalries can be accomplished.

* * *

It was with this underlying conflict that the AFL council yesterday approved a plan to let whatever unions desire to go along agree in advance to submit their job-right disputes with other AFL unions to a binding decision by an outside judge, or arbitrator.

The whole plan must be reconsidered, however, at another AFL council meeting in Chicago next May when all AFL union presidents also will debate the plan. It then can be put into effect for unions subscribing to it, or the whole matter can be put over to the next AFL convention.

Papers Praised by Menninger

Press Is Credited With Improvement in Mental Health Conditions

DETROIT (AP)—"The press has been responsible, directly or indirectly, for every wave of improvement in mental health conditions known in the United States," newsmen were told today by Dr. Karl Menninger, director of the world famous Menninger Foundation for emotionally disturbed children.

Dr. Menninger made his statement in a summary of progress made by the two-day governors' conference on mental health, concluded today.

He said throughout the nation, as in his own state of Kansas, people are prone to ignore the complex and weighty problems of preventing and curing mental illness until newspaper campaigns and similar educational measures lead them to take interest.

The noted mental hygiene authority said the conference high-point lies in the fact that the governors have accepted the problem's importance and have made recommendations for possible solution.

The meeting, attended by governors, legislators and authorities in the field of mental health, emphasized the need for expanded programs of research and training to wage a preventive battle against mental illness.

Dr. M. A. Tarumianz, superintendent of the Delaware State Hospital, declared a practical application of the science of psychiatry would assist in the battle.

He said the science of psychiatry had made great strides but said its practical application, until comparatively recent times, had been at a virtual standstill.

In 1755, Maryland's assembly voted a tax on all bachelors more than 25 years old.

'Gilda' Damage Suit Dismissed by Court

DENVER (AP)—A million - dollar damage suit by former shimmy dancer Gilda Gray, in which she charged Columbia Pictures Corp. embarrassed her by using her career as basis for the Rita Hayworth film "Gilda," was dismissed in U. S. District Court yesterday.

The dismissal, "with prejudice," climaxed a five-year legal fight started in April 1949 by Miss Gray, then living at Larkspur, Colo. Her suit followed by three years Columbia's release of "Gilda," in which Miss Hayworth appeared frequently on the dance floor doing what Miss Gray charged was an imitation of the shimmy she originated.

Miss Gray now is staying with friends in Colorado Springs.

Attorneys did not state the reason for the dismissal, agreed to by both sides. The "with prejudice" part means Miss Gray can never sue Columbia again on the same basis.

Such a dismissal almost always means the parties have settled out of court, a court attache said.

Truman to Meet Officials of Missouri University

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman planned to meet with University of Missouri officials today to discuss the possibility of housing his private papers at the university.

He said at Kansas City last night the university arranged the meeting and he was coming here "simply to see what they have to say."

Truman said his visit here had no connection with reports that he might become president of the school.

Takes 3 Accidents to Injure Motorist

BETHESDA, Md. (AP)—William S. Powick, 26, of Chevy Chase was uninjured when his car skidded into an embankment here yesterday.

He still wasn't hurt when his car was struck by one driven by Curtis C. Dangler, 24, of Potomac.

Powick was returning to his stranded car to get his belongings when a car driven by Mrs. Gusti Greger, 52, of Rockville, slid into his car and sprayed him with glass. Both Powick and Mrs. Greger were taken to a hospital.

As an aftermath, a car driven by Ellerby Heering, 50, of Bethesda overturned when he swerved to avoid the stalled cars.

Ralph Edwards Likes Weepers

Warmhearted Host Is Master of Psychology, Successful on Job

HOLLYWOOD — More than 20 million viewers each week weep copiously over a TV show called "This Is Your Life," created by a man named Ralph Edwards.

The show "kills" its audiences, just as "Truth or Consequences," another Edwards creation has been killing its public for nearly 15 years.

Edwards, reports an article in a national magazine, is "your warmhearted host" on "Life" and "your warmhearted prankster" on "Truth."

He is, indeed, warmhearted. But he is also a master practitioner of mass psychology and one of the world's most successful publicity-stunt men.

Ralph Edwards was born in Merino, Colo., on June 13, 1913. He describes the town as having a population of 169 people and three dogs.

His road to fame and fortune has been full of the disappointments and heartbreaks common to so many show people. He finally made the grade, though, and his take from his years of activity, according to one estimate, is around five million dollars.

In running "This is Your Life," Edwards has discovered the best programs come out of subjects who are not actors or actresses. Pros tend to overplay when they're in the spotlight.

Amateurs give better performances and lapse into better crying spells because they don't know any better.

With one exception, nobody who has ever been the subject of "Life" has known, until the moment he was summoned to the stage by Edwards, that the program was built around him.

Edwards sometimes thinks it would be nice to retire, but he never thinks that for long. For one thing, his contract still has three years to run.

And there are no signs that Edwards' frenetic activity is slackening. If anything it is on the upsurge, evidenced by his recent request for a phone call to the King of Denmark. Seems Ralph ardently wished the King to be a guest on "This Is Your Life."

BOUNDING BETTY — Pert, young Betty White who has zoomed to national popularity via the TV screens has every right to beam happily. After scoring a smash hit with the domestic comedy "Life with Elizabeth," she made her debut Monday on her own "Betty White Show from Hollywood." The TV program will feature interviews, music and human interest features.

West Berlin industrial production has reached about 70 per cent of the 1936 level.

So Many Things Can Affect Your TV Picture

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UP) — The harmless-looking butter conditioner in your refrigerator is just one of the many things that can make your television reception bad, according to Thomas Bailey, supervisor of radio communications and interference investigations for the Wisconsin Electric Power Co.

Other causes of interference listed by Bailey include old tungsten filament lamp bulbs still in use in out-of-the-way places around the house, new-type chime transformers on doors, electric fly exterminators, motorized sewing machines, old antenna installations, and built-in antennas unless within a stone's throw of a station's transmitters.

"Virtually all of these odd causes of television interference are not realized by television viewers," Bailey said.

"They do, however, disrupt television for a block around a neighborhood. Old antenna installations and lead-in wires that have been buffeted by the weather are hardly ever suspected by the public. Neither are built-in antennas."

Oddly enough, the two worst sources of radio interference—the heating pad and neon signs—don't seem to cause TV trouble, Bailey said.

Godfrey's Plea Being Awaited

Board Demands Pilot License Be Suspended for 30 Days

WASHINGTON (INS) — The case of alleged reckless flying against Arthur Godfrey was shelve today for at lesst 10 days to give the radio-television star time to answer a demand that his pilot's license be suspended for 30 days.

The recommendation was made yesterday in a report filed by S. W. Bobskill, regional attorney of the Civil Aeronautics Administration in New York.

The report was turned over to the Civil Aeronautics Board which will make the final decision in the case. CAB safety examiner Albert H. Ruppar will study the report and give Godfrey 10 days in which to make a reply.

Bobskill contended that public interest requires "no less action" than a 30-day suspension of Godfrey's pilot's license as a result of Godfrey's takeoff Jan. 7 from Teterboro, N. J. Airport.

Teterboro officials charged that Godfrey failed to follow proper procedure in his takeoff and also buzzed the field control tower.

Godfrey, however, denied that he buzzed the tower and contended that he maneuvered his two-engine DC3 to avoid a collision with the control tower.

The CAA said that Godfrey's license should be lifted for a least 30 days and until he obtains a proper CAA medical certificate.

Over 100 Attend Scout Troop 66 Annual Dinner

Over 100 parents and Boy Scouts of the Joslyn Avenue Presbyterian Church attended the 11th annual dinner sponsored by Troop 66 Monday night.

Scoutmaster Nelson Kirby led a candlelight ceremony during which the following boys became tenderfoot Scouts:

Jim Miller, James O'Dea, Charles and Richard Bradshaw, Eugene and John Cascadden, Arnold Haynes, Larry Markell, Lawrence Watkins, Billy Mihalek, John Taylor and Jack Baley.

Receiving second class Scout awards were Dick Mallory and Harry Colwell.

Elevated to first class were Gary McCollum, Bob Birchmeier, Bob Mineweaser, Bill Kath, Tom Hoisington and Dale Corbin. Lloyd Hughes was made a star Scout during the ceremonies.

Following a talk by John Baxter, neighborhood Scout commissioner, on the history of the troop and how Scouting is gaining, King Stetler, assistant Explorer adviser, told the group of a tour of the West now being planned for next summer.

He said that members are trying to raise $1,000 through several projects to finance the trip, which would take in the Order of the Arrow conclave in Denver, Colo., Aug. 20.

The Scouts are planning a pancake supper March 23 at Lincoln High School and other projects are being set up to finance the trip.

Slide films, showing events of the past year's camping trips also were viewed by the group at the Meeting. The Rev. E. L. Watkins closed the meeting with a prayer.

States Tax Net at All-Time High During '53 Year

CHICAGO (UP) — Total state tax collections in 1953 hit an all-time peak of $10,500,000,000, according to Commerce Clearing House, a private organization that reports tax and business law.

The average per capita state tax burden reached a high of $68, the report added.

Legislative sessions in 45 states made more tax changes in 1953 than in any previous year.

Oregon and Wisconsin completely rewrote their income tax laws. Delaware increased personal income tax rates and Massachusetts extended a surtax on income taxes for two years.

Personal income taxes were cut in Idaho, Iowa and North Dakota, CCH reported. Temporary tax rate cuts were extended in Colorado, Maryland and New York.

Business generally was taxed at higher rates, CCH said. Michigan, threatened with bankruptcy, levied a new type of tax — four mills on the dollar of all adjusted gross receipts over $10,000 annually on any activity for gain. It does not apply to income from wages and salaries.

Connecticut increased corporation income taxes for a two-year period, and Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and Washington extended their emergency corporate income tax rates.

Reduced rates for corporation taxes were extended in Colorado and made permanent in Idaho.

Pennsylvania, with a one per cent levy, became the 33rd state to adopt a sales tax. Such taxes constituted the major revenue source in 23 states, CCH reported.

About 85 per cent of Delaware's total area is improved farm land.

Ferguson Votes to Give CCC Borrowing Right

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich) voted with the majority yesterday as the Senate passed 49-10 a compromise House-passed bill giving the Commodity Credit Corp. $681,769,703 in new borrowing authority.

Sen. Charles E. Potter (R-Mich) did not vote on the bill.

Seeks Card Indexes

LANSING (UP)—Rep. Walter H. Nill (D-Muskegon Heights) today offered a bill to permit county registers of deeds to streamline filing methods by using a card index system. Law now requires them to use a book for recording all entries.

Michigan was the first state to permit women to serve as jurors. The legislation was enacted in 1915. The legislatures of Maine and Utah followed shortly thereafter.

Seeks Control of N. Y. Central

Robert R. Young Makes Bid Today to Become Board Chairman

NEW YORK (AP)—The chips are down today in Rober R. Young's bid for control of the huge New York Central Railroad.

The Central's 15-man Board of Directors meets in the railroad's massive building astride Park avenue.

Overshadowing all other business will be Young's demand that he and Allan P. Kirby, his old-time financial ally, be seated as directors and that Young be made board chairman.

If these demands are refused, according to a reliable source who asked not to be named publicly, Young will come to New York tomorrow and unleash a proxy fight for control of the Central. Young would spurn the directorships unless he is made chairman as well, the source said.

A refusal by the Central could lead to one of the epic railroad wars of the nation's history.

The Young interests are reported to hold 300,000 shares of the Central's 6,447,410 shares of outstanding common stock.

For years Young has freely stated that he wanted to control the Central. The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Co. accumulated 800,000 shares of Central stock under Young's regime as board chairman. But Young was barred in 1948 from becoming a director of the Central by the Interstate Commerce Commission, which objected to interlocking directorates on competing roads.

The C&O's 800,000 shares, the largest single block of Central stock, are being held, under an ICC order, by the Chase National Bank as an independent voting trustee.

The next largest block is reportedly 160,000 shares owned by the Union Pacific Railroad.

Harold S. Vanderbilt, great-grandson of the Central's founder, "Commodore" Cornelius Vanderbilt, holds only 10,000 shares. He is a director.

The rest of the Central's stock is presumed to be widely held among the Central's 44,461 shareholders. They can all vote at the Central's next annual meeting May 26 at Albany, N.Y.

A person who watches an average movie sees about 250,000 separate pictures.

North Carolina: Driving license is suspended for 30 days for any one driving over 70 miles an hour, for 60 days in a second conviction within a year.

South Dakota: A financial responsibility law was enacted.

Oregon: Minimum amount of compulsory insurance was doubled.

Indiana: A statewide speed limit was established and stiff penalties are required for drunken driving.

Nevada: Conviction of drunken driving ranges from 30 days' to a year's suspension of driving license for the first offense; additional convictions draw two year suspension.

New York: Drunk driver suspects must take blood test or lose their licenses.

Tennessee: Blood tests are admitted as evidence for drunk driving. Penalties for drunken driver were increased.

Communistic Country Has No Communists

BEIRUT (AP)—Full employment and cradle-to-the-grave social security laws add up to complete absence of communism in the tiny sheikhdom of Kuwait, according to an official of that country.

Deputy director of Kuwait security forces, Sheikh Abdullah el Ahmed recently told the Beirut daily, Al Yom, there were no communists in his oil-rich little country.

Moscow's Kremlin, seat of the Soviet government, is a tract of 100 acres, surrounded by a wall with 19 towers and pierced by five main gates.

Committee Prepares for Mobile Chest X-Ray Units

A steering committee organized itself Tuesday to help pave the way for two mobile chest X-ray units scheduled to visit Oakland County this spring.

The two Michigan Health Department X-ray "clinics" will tour the country for 18 weeks, taking free chest X-rays to check for tuberculosis.

A. R. Musson, executive secretary of Oakland County Tuberculosis Association, presided at Tuesday's meeting of health officials and delegates from a dozen county organizations or the county office building, 1 Lafayette St.

Dr. John D. Monroe, director of Oakland County Health Department, warned that "we in an industrial area never seem to get ahead of the game" in finding cases of tuberculosis.

"We're hoping that at least 180,000 of this county's people will get chest X-rays while these two units are here," he said.

The steering committee agreed that local committees should be named to contact each community's people through posters, pamphlets, newspapers, announcements at meetings and even door-to-door canvassing.

The county-wide committee asked Musson and Dr. Monroe to suggest a few more members, including one from industry's management, so as many fields as possible will be represented. Dr. Monroe and Musson were also asked to suggest a chairman before the steering committee's next meeting Feb. 23 at 10 a.m.

Steering committeemen now include Musson, Dr. Monroe, Mrs. Ira O'Dell of Oakland County PTA Council; Mrs. Ruby Stover, county farm bureau; Donald M. Oakes, Berkley city manager; Miss Frances M. Priest, Family Service of Oakland County.

Others are Miss Mary Pauli of Pontiac Visiting Nurse Association; Mrs. Walter A. Brown and Mrs. Josephine H. Lawyer, Oakland County Home Demonstration groups; Roy Manty, Michigan Health Department; and Miss Elaine Abbott, Michigan Tuberculosis Association.

Still other members are Kenneth Brown, representing Oakland County Board of Education; Samuel Logan, Urban League of Pontiac; Fred Haggard, Pontiac-Oakland County Industrial Union Council, CIO.

Mrs. Mary Burrell represented Pontiac City Health Department and Mrs. Margaret Newhouse, Ferndale Health Department; Dr. Charles A. Neafie, Dr. Frank J. Condon, Miss Evelyn Kidneigh, Miss Janet Campbell, Miss Ann Boardman, Miss Martha Johnson, Russell Coltson and Dr. Monroe represented Oakland County Health Department.

Want to Lose Weight . . . Easy-Like?

Keep Down for 3 Months and Adjust to New Size

By ELMER WHEELER
Chapter 13

I have often heard my fat friends say, "Yeah, I lost 20 pounds last summer, but I gained it back."

"How come?" I asked my doc.

He told me that you must remain your reduced size and weight for at least three months, to get your body adjusted to the new weight and size.

After that, chances of going back up are at a minimum.

This merely means that after three months your system says, "I guess old Fatty is sincere this time. Okay, Fatso, you win. Maybe we better adjust our metabolism to the New Look."

So if you go on a 1,500-calorie diet for two months and go down 20 or so pounds, I found that soon you can be eating almost as much as before and still remain at the new lowered weight.

Dieting isn't something that must be too permanent.

Your metabolism is now adjusted to your new weight. It goes up slightly when you overeat, and so protects you from overweight. It goes down slightly when you don't eat as much as you should.

If you go back to overeating, it does this for a time — but like a rubber band, if you overdo the idea, it will soon fail to bounce back. It gets tired burning up the extra foods.

Another thing I learned was that it takes about 20 calories every time you eat a meal. That is, 20 calories of energy to eat and digest that meal.

The movements of your arms shoving in food, your munching molars, your digestive organs, burn up some 20 calories.

Eating a 300-calorie piece of apple pie may use up 20 calories, but you're still 280 on the fatty side.

Celery is 5 calories. Eat a good, tough, stringy stalk of celery, burn up 20 calories doing it—and you've spent 15 calories digesting it!

It's startling the things you learn about any subject when you really take it up seriously.

Your double chin, for example, has enough stored-up energy in the form of fat to keep you walking two days without food.

And that "spare tire" around your tummy might help you get from Albany to New York.

Moving around fast burns up more calories than moving slowly — which is the trouble with us fatties. The fatter we get, the slower we move — except when the dinner bell rings.

Skinny is jumping around all the time. No wonder he's thin. He moves fast, is always on the alert, thinks all the time, sleeps little, burns up energy minute after minute.

Hot breads, I learned, fatten you no faster than cold bread. It's the quantity and the content that fatten you.

Rye, whole wheat and other such breads are often more fattening than white bread, which may lack something rye and whole wheat have and, therefore, be less fattening.

Vitamins vary in the same vegetables. Those grown in summer sunshine have more vitamins than those grown in winter. Some soils give more minerals to foods than others.

You'll lose weight in a massage parlor if you have the massage on your lunch hour and pass up eating! Soda used in highballs won't fatten you, unless it is "sweet soda."

Water won't make you fat unless you are "salt-logged." The doctors call this puffiness in fat people "edema."

Mixing foods doesn't matter much. You can eat starches with proteins; you can mix milk and pickles; strawberries with kraut. The stomach doesn't know the difference. It doesn't know "words," it just knows how to add.

It's all in the mind!

P. S.—I'm crowding 190 now!

Next—The "proof" of the story alcoholic calories.

Ask Blood Donations Feb. 15 in Pontiac

The American Red Cross bloodmobile's next "community" visit to Pontiac will be Monday, Feb. 15, from 2 until 8 p. m., Oakland County Red Cross chapter said today.

Mrs. N. E. Durocher, Red cross blood donor recruitment chairman for Pontiac, said the community call is scheduled for Pontiac Elks' Temple. Anyone who can give blood Monday is urged to call Red Cross office, FEderal 4-3575, for an appointment.

Tuesday's bloodmobile visit at First Presbyterian Church collected 69 pints of blood as the Pontiac Press set up its new blood credit bank.

"We hope chairmen of all organized blood banks will send as many donors as possible to the bloodmobile Monday," Mrs. Durocher said. "We need 250 blood donors that day."

World War I Vets Willingly Help U.S. Survey Smoking-Cancer Relationship

WASHINGTON (UP) — More than 80,000 World War I veterans have replied so far to a questionnaire on tobacco habits which was sent out by government scientists seeking to establish the relationship if any between smoking and lung cancer.

Dr. Harold Dorn, chief of the biology office at the National Institutes of Health, said today that replies are coming in at the rate of about 7,000 every 24 hours.

World War I vets were picked for the survey because they are reaching the ages at which cancer is most likely to appear if it is going to.

They were picked also for the statistical fact that their death certificates will be available for checking against the survey results sooner than those of veterans of more recent wars.

Since Jan. 20 the National Cancer Institute, a division of the National Institutes of Health, and the Veterans Administration have been polling 300,000 veterans in an attempt to determine how many heavy smokers develop lung cancer.

The VA has sent questionnaires to 200,000 World War I veterans with government life insurance policies and will send another 100,000 this week.

Dorn said he is very encouraged with the response and expects most veterans polled to answer the questions. So far, he said, only a "negligible number" of veterans replying have refused to fill out the questionnaires.

Some veterans without government insurance policies have volunteered to tell their smoking habits, he said.

The questionnaires carry an appeal by VA Administrator Harvey V. Higley to "cooperate in a scientific study which will almost certainly yield results of great importance to medicine and public health."

Though the survey is aimed primarily at determining whether heavy smoking may lead to lung cancer, government scientists also will study any relationship between tobacco and other diseases, such as cancer of the mouth, other lung ailments, heart diseases, and ulcers, Dorn said. No results are expected for at least a couple of years.

The questionnaires ask for a detailed tobacco history, starting with a question on whether those polled have ever smoked cigarettes, cigars or pipes, or used chewing tobacco or snuff.

They are asked when they started to use tobacco, whether they smoke regularly or occasionally and — if they have stopped — why they quit. Regular smokers are asked how many cigarettes, cigars or pipefuls they smoke a day and how long they have smoked at this rate.

The smoking histories will be checked against the veterans' death certificates in the future to determine how many of those polled developed lung cancer or other diseases and what percentage were heavy smokers.

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

Hospitals Treat All People as If They Were Sick

I know that hospitals are wonderful institutions and the sick couldn't get along without them. But I do believe well people stay out of them. Probably one hospital at least thinks the same after a small bout with husky me not so long ago.

It all began with a few arthritic-seeming twinges in my left knee. The twinges cleared up but I'd read all those warnings about consulting your doctor before the disease gets a strangle hold, so I did.

The doctor thought it would be a good idea for me to have X-rays and suggest that it might be simpler if I'd go to the hospital one night and have the matter attended to next day in comfort. So I docilely packed my little bag and advanced upon my fate without a qualm.

The reception desk signed me in and escorted me to my room. There I was put in bed, my temperature was taken and men and women in white began poking their heads in and out of the door which rules prohibited me from closing.

I began to be uncomfortable—not in the knee, in my mind. Supper came, a dreary-looking assortment of viands marked "low-fat diet."

Good heavens, I thought, surely I wouldn't have been put on a diet just for one day. Had my doctor found something terribly wrong with me? Maybe he had lured me into the hospital to perform a serious operation.

"I'm not sick—I'm just here for an X ray of my knee," I argued weakly when the next nurse brought a little pill in a paper cup "to make sure you get a good night's sleep," she explained brightly, but looking at me oddly, I thought—or was it pityingly?.

Cheerful voices and swishing noises in the corridor awoke me at 7 or thereabouts and a house physician and nurse arrived to extract blood samples. They also took my temperature, then my blood pressure, which I'm sure was up.

An attendant asked for my breakfast order. I chose peaches, toast, hot cereal with cream, tea My breakfast came—orange juice, rolls,dry cereal with skim milk, coffee.

Next in line was a nurse to wash me.

"I have washed myself," I assured her, by that time wondering if I had. I added, not really believing it anymore, I'm not sick. I'm just here for X rays.

Around 11 a pretty girl brought in a wheelchair. I crept into it. She wheeled me off, feeling mighty sick. In the cold X-ray room I waited my turn for an hour. Then they X-rayed my chest.

I waited again. That was all, they said. "But I came here to have my leg X-rayed," I murmured meekly. And if my doctor hadn't strolled in at this crucial moment, I guess my knee would never have had its picture taken.

Definitely, hospitals should be kept for sick people.

Beauty Clinic

FOR '54
THAT NEW TOP LOOK

So predicts the Michigan Nat'l Hairdressers' Association at the Sheraton Cadillac this week. The fitted neckline is still in favor with large, soft curls at the forehead.

A large variety of short but very feminine styles make it possible for almost everyone to enjoy this new trend. And ladies, the smooth crown is out. In its place are graceful fluid waves and even curls and puffs. The part is either prominent or conspicuous by its absence, but at all times it lends itself to the style.

Outlines History of Federation

State Musical Leader Addresses Club

Mrs. Frank Coolidge of Detroit, president of the State Federation of Musical Clubs, was a special guest at the Tuesday meeting of Tuesday Musicale held in Grace Lutheran Fellowship Hall.

Appearing as guest speaker for State Federation Day, Mrs. Coolidge summed up the work of the state and national federation in a history that was entertaining as well as instructive.

She said that the Michigan federation began in 1916 and now has 200 clubs. Now there is a federation of musical clubs in every state. They are a part of the national organization which is recognized as the largest amateur force for music in the world, she continued.

This organization has as its aims the development of American music and composition, the advancing of young artists and conductors, and the awarding of scholarships to musicians in senior, student and junior divisions, the speaker explained.

Mrs. Coolidge announced that Michigan raised the largest amount of money in the United States last year for the purpose of bringing music into veterans' hospitals.

Another project in which Mrs. Coolidge has deep interest is the Scholarship Cabin at Interlochen. The rentals from the cabin go into a fund for scholarships for worthy musicians.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Donald Hogue, president of the local club.

Mrs. H. G. Woolcock, chairman of the workshop of the club, presented money for the new piano fund and for the Scholarship Cabin. She told of the appreciation expressed by the Pontiac State Hospital staff for concerts given by workshop members.

It was announced that Mrs. Paul Kern, Mrs. L. R. Sampson and Mrs. Hogue will be on the club's committee to work for the success of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra.

A program of music was given by Mrs. Virgil Campbell, violinist, and Mrs. Martin Wager, pianist, who were heard in two movements of a Cesar Franck sonata and a group of shorter numbers requiring skillfull technique and musicianship.

Mrs. Victor Lindquist, soprano, accompanied by Mrs. Addison Oakley, sang two collections of songs which included lyrical and dramatic numbers that revealed the rich tone quality and compass of her voice.

A Valentine tea closed the afternoon. A large lace heart centered with red carnations and bells of Ireland, with accompanying red candles and appointments, decorated the table. Mrs. C. D. Wright and Mrs. W. S. Furlong presided at the coffee urns.

Mrs. S. G. Warwick and Mrs. W. H. Gray were cochairmen of social arrangements with Mrs. R. E. Gegoux, Mrs. F. H. Kane, Mrs. F. G. Schlichter, Mrs. E. T. Todd and Mrs. C. W. Houghton assisting.

Moose Group Holds Ritual Chapter Night

The Ritual Chapter Night program of Women of the Moose was held Monday evening in Moose Temple under the direction of Mrs. Richard Rohrer, ritual chairman.

Mrs. C. J. Cavalier reported on her visit to the Lincoln Park chapter for which she was guest speaker recently. Mrs. Gus Dale was initiated into the order in honor of Mrs. Robert Godfrey.

VFW Unit Meets

Mrs. Frank Meuth, Fifth District president, and Alma Gottschalk, junior vice president, were distinguished guests Monday evening when VFW Auxiliary 1008 met at the American Legion Home.

SANDRA MARIE MORROW

Ruth Flynn Hostess to Beta Theta Phi

Mrs. John Hatherhill was appointed house chairman for the coming year by Gamma Chapter of Beta Theta Phi sorority Tuesday evening.

The group met with Ruth Flynn of Lorraine court, and members worked on decorations for the progressive dinner to be held March 6. Mrs. Robert Boyer and Mrs. Robert Mehoke presided at the refreshment table, which was decorated with a Valentine motif.

Panel Program Entertains Club

A television type panel entitled "What's My Name" carried out the friendship theme for the year Monday evening when Junior Pontiac Women's Club met at the YWCA.

Red Cross Volunteers Staff Blood-Collecting Project

By MAUDE H. DONAHUE

Volunteers, the key to a successful Red Cross program in any community, are busy at work in Pontiac.

Pontiac volunteers are in every phase of Red Cross work, and those participating in the blood-collecting program are just a sample of the many citizens who have devoted hours to volunteer services.

What do the volunteers do? Where, when and how do they work? These are the problems of the local Red Cross chapter and of Mrs. Norman E. Durocher, chairman of Pontiac Red Cross blood program, and Mrs. Sheldon Noble, chairman of service groups.

MAUDE

Someone must be responsible for securing donors for the blood banks and mobile units. The units are in town every two or three weeks. If appointments are made ahead, a single bloodmobile may handle from 200 to 250 appointments in the five hours it is open. Actually 150 to 200 appointments is the average.

Since some of the donors are found unable to give, the mobile units can always accommodate those who drop in without appointments. However, scheduling ahead enables the Red Cross to know how many donors to expect during a given period.

Mrs. Durocher is responsible for scheduling and recruiting donors. Her staff members consist of individuals in business, clubs or industry, who recruit groups of donors, or who set up a blood bank in their organization.

Volunteers of this type include Robert Absit, John Allen, Otis Allen, John Brady, John Fitzgerald, Mrs. Daniel Foxman, James Hoopingarner, Harvey Johns, Kenneth Jones, Malcolm Kahn and Mrs. Maude Kempf.

Others are Mrs. P. G. Lattimer, Arthur Lake, Wilbert Lankin, Mrs. Henry Madigan, Earl Maxwell, Dudley Moore, Mark Newman, Curtis E. Patton, Mrs. E. E. Proffitt, Mrs. R. W. Pflug, Hugh Ritter, Glenn Schults, Earl Smith, Henry Stack, James Stelt, Mrs. F. G. Torrence, Mrs. Edna Walker, Lloyd E. Wallace, Roy Emery and Chester Reynolds.

There are also individual recruiters, who solicit by telephone. They spend hours calling numbers out of the telephone book, taking sometimes as many as 40 calls to recruit one donor.

Mrs. Sheldon Noble, as chairman of service groups directs the volunteer groups who staff the mobile units and Red Cross blood banks.

Twenty-seven volunteers are necessary to staff each unit. This includes the motor corps, or drivers, registrars, Gray Ladies, nurse's aides and canteen workers.

Ohio Woman's Dolls Portray Famous People

CLEVELAND (UP) — Famous people are the hobby of Mrs. H. I. Smith of suburban Brecksville.

She makes dolls, although she doesn't like to call them that. They are miniature reproductions of famous persons clothed in authentic models of their garments.

Mrs. Smith is interested especially in the nation's first ladies.

"If I can find a good full-length picture of a First Lady I copy her gown," she said. "Otherwise I dress her in a costume of the presidential period that looks appropriate."

Rapidly changing styles and long tenures of office cause some difficulty in selecting the proper clothing for the women.

Bess Truman was one example. In the time she lived in the White House the nation came out of World War II and into a flurry of changing skirt-lengths. Mrs. Smith finally dressed her Bess Truman doll in a 1948 style.

Mrs. Smith also has in her collection dolls looking like Queen Elizabeth, Philip, the queen's husband, their two children and Princess Margaret.

Outlines History of Federation

State Musical Leader Addresses Club

Mrs. Frank Coolidge of Detroit, president of the State Federation of Musical Clubs, was a special guest at the Tuesday meeting of Tuesday Musicale held in Grace Lutheran Fellowship Hall.

Appearing as guest speaker for State Federation Day, Mrs. Coolidge summed up the work of the state and national federation in a history that was entertaining as well as instructive.

She said that the Michigan federation began in 1916 and now has 200 clubs. Now there is a federation of musical clubs in every state. They are a part of the national organization which is recognized as the largest amateur force for music in the world, she continued.

This organization has as its aims the development of American music and composition, the advancing of young artists and conductors, and the awarding of scholarships to musicians in senior, student and junior divisions, the speaker explained.

Mrs. Coolidge announced that Michigan raised the largest amount of money in the United States last year for the purpose of bringing music into veterans' hospitals.

Another project in which Mrs. Coolidge has deep interest is the Scholarship Cabin at Interlochen. The rentals from the cabin go into a fund for scholarships for worthy musicians.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Donald Hogue, president of the local club.

Mrs. H. G. Woolcock, chairman of the workshop of the club, presented money for the new piano fund and for the Scholarship Cabin. She told of the appreciation expressed by the Pontiac State Hospital staff for concerts given by workshop members.

It was announced that Mrs. Paul Kern, Mrs. L. R. Sampson and Mrs. Hogue will be on the club's committee to work for the success of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra.

A program of music was given by Mrs. Virgil Campbell, violinist, and Mrs. Martin Wager, pianist, who were heard in two movements of a Cesar Franck sonata and a group of shorter numbers requiring skillfull technique and musicianship.

Mrs. Victor Lindquist, soprano, accompanied by Mrs. Addison Oakley, sang two collections of songs which included lyrical and dramatic numbers that revealed the rich tone quality and compass of her voice.

A Valentine tea closed the afternoon. A large lace heart centered with red carnations and bells of Ireland, with accompanying red candles and appointments, decorated the table. Mrs. C. D. Wright and Mrs. W. S. Furlong presided at the coffee urns.

Mrs. S. G. Warwick and Mrs. W. H. Gray were cochairmen of social arrangements with Mrs. R. E. Gegoux, Mrs. F. H. Kane, Mrs. F. G. Schlichter, Mrs. E. T. Todd and Mrs. C. W. Houghton assisting.

Moose Group Holds Ritual Chapter Night

Mrs. C. J. Cavalier reported on her visit to the Lincoln Park chapter for which she was guest speaker recently. Mrs. Gus Dale was initiated into the order in honor of Mrs. Robert Godfrey.

VFW Unit Meets

Mrs. Frank Meuth, Fifth District president, and Alma Gottschalk, junior vice president, were distinguished guests Monday evening when VFW Auxiliary 1008 met at the American Legion Home.

The group met with Ruth Flynn of Lorraine court, and members worked on decorations for the progressive dinner to be held March 6. Mrs. Robert Boyer and Mrs. Robert Mehoke presided at the refreshment table, which was decorated with a Valentine motif.

Panel Program Entertains Club

A television type panel entitled "What's My Name" carried out the friendship theme for the year Monday evening when Junior Pontiac Women's Club met at the YWCA.

Chairmen for the evening were Mrs. Ericson Lewis, program, and Mrs. Everett Garrison, social. Assisting Mrs. Garrison were Mrs. George Brinkman, Marguerite Buttolph, Mrs. Basil Charles, Mrs. Ralph Derragon, Mrs. Leland Martin, Mrs. Everett Reese, Mrs. Everett Stewart and Mrs. Lloyd B. Smith.

The tea table was decorated in a Valentine motif and was centered with a tiny white tree blossoming with red hearts. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Ross Porritt and Mrs. Ronald Mountain.

Red Cross Volunteers Staff Blood-Collecting Project

By MAUDE H. DONAHUE

Volunteers, the key to a successful Red Cross program in any community, are busy at work in Pontiac.

Pontiac volunteers are in every phase of Red Cross work, and those participating in the blood-collecting program are just a sample of the many citizens who have devoted hours to volunteer services.

What do the volunteers do? Where, when and how do they work? These are the problems of the local Red Cross chapter and of Mrs. Norman E. Durocher, chairman of Pontiac Red Cross blood program, and Mrs. Sheldon Noble, chairman of service groups.

MAUDE

Someone must be responsible for securing donors for the blood banks and mobile units. The units are in town every two or three weeks. If appointments are made ahead, a single bloodmobile may handle from 200 to 250 appointments in the five hours it is open. Actually 150 to 200 appointments is the average.

Since some of the donors are found unable to give, the mobile units can always accommodate those who drop in without appointments. However, scheduling ahead enables the Red Cross to know how many donors to expect during a given period.

Mrs. Durocher is responsible for scheduling and recruiting donors. Her staff members consist of individuals in business, clubs or industry, who recruit groups of donors, or who set up a blood bank in their organization.

Volunteers of this type include Robert Absit, John Allen, Otis Allen, John Brady, John Fitzgerald, Mrs. Daniel Foxman, James Hoopingarner, Harvey Johns, Kenneth Jones, Malcolm Kahn and Mrs. Maude Kempf.

Others are Mrs. P. G. Lattimer, Arthur Lake, Wilbert Lankin, Mrs. Henry Madigan, Earl Maxwell, Dudley Moore, Mark Newman, Curtis E. Patton, Mrs. E. E. Proffitt, Mrs. R. W. Pflug, Hugh Ritter, Glenn Schults, Earl Smith, Henry Stack, James Stelt, Mrs. F. G. Torrence, Mrs. Edna Walker, Lloyd E. Wallace, Roy Emery and Chester Reynolds.

There are also individual recruiters, who solicit by telephone. They spend hours calling numbers out of the telephone book, taking sometimes as many as 40 calls to recruit one donor.

Mrs. Sheldon Noble, as chairman of service groups directs the volunteer groups who staff the mobile units and Red Cross blood banks.

Twenty-seven volunteers are necessary to staff each unit. This includes the motor corps, or drivers, registrars, Gray Ladies, nurse's aides and canteen workers.

Ohio Woman's Dolls Portray Famous People

CLEVELAND (UP) — Famous people are the hobby of Mrs. H. I. Smith of suburban Brecksville.

She makes dolls, although she doesn't like to call them that. They are miniature reproductions of famous persons clothed in authentic models of their garments.

Mrs. Smith is interested especially in the nation's first ladies.

"If I can find a good full-length picture of a First Lady I copy her gown," she said. "Otherwise I dress her in a costume of the presidential period that looks appropriate."

Rapidly changing styles and long tenures of office cause some difficulty in selecting the proper clothing for the women.

Bess Truman was one example. In the time she lived in the White House the nation came out of World War II and into a flurry of changing skirt-lengths. Mrs. Smith finally dressed her Bess Truman doll in a 1948 style.

Mrs. Smith also has in her collection dolls looking like Queen Elizabeth, Philip, the queen's husband, their two children and Princess Margaret.

Unhappiness, If Handled Correctly, Can Furnish Its Own Reward

Don't Just Whine About Tragedies

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"The most important thing in the world," a wise woman told me once, "is to know how to make your unhappiness pay off."

I think of that remark frequently, when I see how some women do just that, while others let a past tragedy ruin their lives forever.

The R. sisters are examples of what I mean.

Mr. and Mrs. R. were unhappily married, and they let their two daughters know it, with a vengeance. They fought all the time.

The father was a hot-tempered, high-handed tyrant who ordered the mother around like a slavey.

The mother surrounded herself with an atmosphere of martyrdom, under which she used sly tactics to get back at her husband. The two R. girls were upset most of the time, and the household was miserable.

When Joan R. was twenty, she married, fast, to get out of the house.

She had always been on her mother's side, and thought all women were persecuted angels and all men were fiends. She made her poor husband's life miserable.

When the going was rough financially, she refused to help out.

"Men get all the breaks," she said, "and he can just take the burden himself."

When her husband finally deserted her — for good cause — she went, whining, into a job, where all she has done ever since is to complain that men's wages for the same work are higher than women's, and so forth.

Elizabeth R., on the other hand, saw why her father behaved as he did.

She saw that he felt victimized by a woman who had married him just for financial security.

So she decided, at twenty, to get a job and be self-supporting. Then, she thought, she could marry for love, and not for her mother's reason.

She did get a good job, and even though she was paid less than her masculine colleagues, she realized that it was not because men are nasty horrible critters, but because society is not yet used to women workers; that they really haven't been on the scene too long, and that certain inequalities are a natural part of the growth process.

Now, at twenty-seven, she's happily married to a man she chose for love, not for support.

The moral is that, while we cannot choose the things that happen to us, we can invariably choose our reaction to them, and what we permit them to do to our lives.

Basements Ornery Sometimes

If and When They Leak, Try Pump or Venturi Tube

By HUBBARD COBB

We once heard of a man who neatly solved the problem of a leaky basement by trying to convert it into a swimming pool.

The minute he started welcoming a good steady flow of water through the walls and floor, the flow of water ceased and the basement has been dry ever since. This goes to show just how cussed water can be at times.

If your basement has a tendency to flood after heavy rains one excellent remedy is to install a sump pump in a pit set into the floor.

When the pit fills with water it will start the pump which removes the water from the basement.

Very often the grading around the house is such that a drain line can be run from the basement to allow water to flow outside.

Drains of this type should be run to a dry well or storm sewer and should be screened at the opening to prevent rodents using it as an entry way into the house.

A rather unique method of draining a basement is to use something called a venturi tube which is connected to a length of hose attached to one of the house faucets.

Running off this fitting is a second length of hose that is run to the basement and another line runs out of the house.

Turn on the faucet and the flow of water from the house through the venturi pulls out the water in the basement. Plumbers and plumbing supply houses sell venturi tubes for this purpose.

As a last resort of flooded basements, build a masonry block wall around the fixtures you wish to protect such as the furnace.

See that the masonry work is good and tight and coat it with a masonry water-proofing paint.

You'll be a "model" traveler with this new hatbox in bright red patent. They call it the "Fifth Avenue" and it boasts a tiny, but tamper-proof lock and brass studs that prevent it from tipping over when the case is resting beside you.

Refuse Bids to Meals, if on Diet

But When Hostess Insists, Take Food and Pretend

By EMILY POST

A reader tells me: "My diet is of such a nature that very often when I am invited out to lunch, or dinner, I am unable to eat anything the hostess serves.

"When this happens, shall I refuse every dish that is proffered to me and sit with an empty plate, or should I take a little food on my plate and leave it untouched?"

I think it is best when you are invited out to lunch or dinner to refuse and say that you would like to come in later as your diet makes going out to meals impossible.

Of course, if the hostess wants you to come anyway, then you would put a little food on your plate and make believe to eat it.

* * *

Dear Mrs. Post: We have a problem confronting us regarding the forthcoming marriage of our daughter and would appreciate your help. A definite date has been set for the wedding and preparations have been made for a reception at home immediately following the ceremony.

The bride's paternal grandmother who has been ailing for some time has suddenly taken a bad turn and is not expected to live very long.

If the inevitable should happen after the invitations have been mailed, what would be the proper procedure to follow in this situation?

Answer: Your wedding ceremony would take place as planned, but the general reception invitations should be recalled and a very small gathering of families and a few most intimate friends invited to the house.

Tossing Hearts at Target Is Fun at Valentine Time

I hope that you will be having some friends in for a get-together during the days before valentines.

Here is a game which is fun to make, which will keep guests busy for a while, and it is decorative, too.

This is a toss game and hearts are tossed at a paper heart target. You will need to have some wide paper or if this is impossible to find, use several narrow sections taped together.

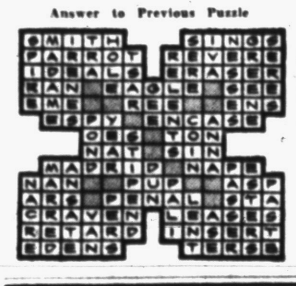
You might be lucky enough to have part of an old sheet on hand. Draw four heart targets in the center, having one heart inside the other. Alternate the colors, starting with a red one on the outside.

Show card colors will be fine for coloring these. You can also number the hearts, 3, 5, 7, 10. I would suggest that the hearts have at least a three inch border.

The bean bags will be fun to make, too. They should be of red or white felt scraps. Cut two hearts and blanket stitch them around the edges, leaving a little hole at the top.

Pour the beans into this little hole, then finish the sewing. Let each player throw two bean bags and keep score. The one to reach 20 first is the winner. Give a chocolate heart to him or her!

Answer to Previous Puzzle



Don't Let Details Becloud Actual Issue

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

We had an eclipse of the moon recently—won't have another for years—and lots of people were cheated out of seeing the big view.

They folded up their telescopes and went home when some nasty old clouds hid the goings on. They didn't wait to see the clouds blow away.

Lots of you cheat yourselves out of seeing and understanding the big point in a problem by looking only at the details that cloud the issue.. The big view is all fogged up.

You have to sweep the smog away before you can see it.

Here's a girl who's putting all the emphasis on a detail. She writes:

"Dear Miss Woodward: Bart and I have been dating for over a year and we want to get married—but our parents object. You see, Bart is six feet tall and I'm only five feet.

"Our parents suggested that we break up and go with other people, and we've tried it twice, only to come back together again. Now we know we're really in love.

"Is this difference in our sizes too big a problem to keep us from being happily married?"

If Bart were a foot taller and you were a foot shorter I'd still not consider the difference in your sizes a detail.

Why, even if Bart were four inches shorter than you I'd consider it relatively unimportant. Your dispositions and attitudes are what really count. Not your altitudes!

Brush that cloud off the landscape and find out why your parents object to your talk of getting married. Too young? No job? Haven't finished education yet?

Haven't gone with enough people to be really sure of your mind and your heart? Not really congenial? Your attraction is only physical?

Any of these objections alone or in combinations carry more water than the detail you've been harping on!

* * *

And here's a girl who's suffering out of all proportion to the cause of the hurt. And all because she read a chart! She writes:

"Dear Miss Woodward: I'm 16 and I weigh 130 pounds—I should weigh 123 since I'm only five feet, three inches. My doctor says I should stop worrying until I'm 21—but I can't stop eating and I'm gaining.

"I don't have much trouble getting and keeping boy friends. But my inferiority complex makes me feel ashamed when I go out with them.

"I feel that everybody's laughing at me. How can I overcome this?"

For seven pounds you should suffer so much! The 123 pounds is average, according to the chart maybe. But you've more than average luck with the boys!

They like to look at you exactly the way you are—they don't consider you a freak. So why would anyone else laugh at you? Why should you feel ashamed?

Curb your appetite when it tempts you to be greedy. Then forget those seven pounds and concentrate on neatness, attractive grooming, good humor and friendliness. That's what the boys like!

Manners

MAKE FRIENDS

Look for slights and insults and you'll be sure to find them. Overlook them and they can't affect your happiness or your disposition. So don't make other people's manners your business. Your business is to mind your manners and let others mind theirs.

And if they don't that's no reason for you to feel hurt.

March 15 Is Nearer Than You Think

Are You Still Muddled on Some Points? These Queries and Answers May Help

By RICHARD A. MULLENS

Article 14

We will finish this series with a few questions and answers which may clear up some confusion in your minds.

Q. I own stock in a corporation that declared a dividend on Dec. 15, 1953. I got the dividend check in January, 1954. Do I report the dividend in 1953?

A. No, since you received the check in 1954, the dividend is income for 1954.

Q. I do a lot of entertaining which is partly business and partly social. Can I deduct the expense from my business income?

A. You can deduct the business portion. This might take some estimating on your part. Keep in mind that your expense must be reasonable in relation to the type of business you are in.

Q. I do a lot of entertaining which is received $90. How much is taxable?

A. Only the interest. Since you paid $75 for it and got $90, the interest is $15.

Q. While swimming I lost my diamond ring worth $400. Can I deduct this as a casualty loss?

A. No. Losses due to mislaying or losing an article are not deductible.

Q. Under a divorce decree, I have been ordered to pay my ex-wife $100 a month, $75 of which is for the support of our child living with her. How much can I deduct as alimony?

A. Assuming you pay the $100 per month, you can only deduct $25 of it since the remainder is specifically designated for the support of your child.

Q. My wife, who died Aug. 15, 1953, would have been 65 on Sept. 1, 1953. Do I get an "over 65" exemption for her?

A. No. You would, though, if she had reached 65 before she died.

Q. I am single and claim my mother, aged 90, as a dependent. May I claim an additional "over 65" exception for her?

A. No. You get only one exemption for a dependent other than husband or wife regarless of how old he is.

Q. I earned $550 in 1953 and also received $240 from the Veterans Administration as a disability payment. Must I file a return?

A. No, your taxable income was less than $600 so you are not required to file. However, if any tax was withheld from the $550, file a return and the tax will be refunded to you.

Q. Does the district director of the Internal Revenue office charge for giving tax advice?

A. There is no charge. As is pointed out in the Primer, there are some special tax problems that can best be handled by a tax expert. If you have one of these problems and want free advice, go to your district director's office as soon as possible to avoid last minute crowds.

Q. I gave $100 to a needy friend during 1953. Can I deduct this as a contribution?

A. No. Contributions to individuals, no matter how needy, are not deductible.

Q. Part of my job, for which I am not reimbursed, is to entertain buyers when my boss is away. One dinner party cost $60 including $10 for entertainment tax. Can I deduct the $10 as a tax?

A. Federal entertainment tax is not deductible as a tax. However, if the party was necessary and ordinary in your business, you could deduct the entire $60 as an entertainment deduction in the miscellaneous schedule on page 3 of the return.

Q. My wife and I are living apart. May we file a joint return?

A. Yes, so long as you were not separated in 1953 by court order. Remember, both of you must sign the return and each is liable for the whole tax.

Police Association Rips 'Shoo-fly' Procedure

NEW YORK (AP) — The Patrolmen's Benevolent Assn. says Police Commissioner Francis W. H. Adams has re-established the "infamous" shoo-fly system.

The association, in a resolution adopted yesterday, criticized Adams and called for abolition of the alleged shoo-fly procedure, which sets policemen spying on one another and reporting minor infractions.

100 Wells Below 15,000 Feet

Only 6 U.S. Oil Diggings Go Lower Than That, According to Survey

DALLAS, Tex. (UP)—Only about 100 oil wells have ever been drilled below 15,000 feet, yet those wells cost a total of $60,000,000, according to a survey published by the Petroleum Engineer.

Six fields in the U. S. have production below 15,000 feet. Three time in 1953 the production depth record was broken.

Twenty-five wells more than 15,000 feet deep were drilled in 1953 and they cost an average of more than $500,000 each. About half of all such super-deep wells are completed as producers, but most at levels above 15,000 feet.

California holds the world's record for deep drilling and deep production. Richfield's North Coles Levee "A," with oil sand at 17,895 feet, is the deepest producer.

The deep drilling record is held by Ohio Oil Company's Palermo well, now fishing at 21,482 feet.

Louisiana leads the 10 states having wells below 15,000 feet with 38 super-deep tests, 21 of which are producing. It has two deep producing fields. Cote Blanche and Weeks Island. Weeks Island field is the most important deep field in the world; it has nine wells producing from below 15,000 feet.

Texas is second in number of wells below 15,000 feet. Of its 29 deep wells, 11 were drilled last year, more than double any other state.

Wyoming has four wells below 15,000 feet and one deep well in the West Poison Spider field in Natrona county. Production was started by Pure Oil at 16,000 feet.

Six other states have wells below 15,000 feet, some producing from shallower sands. Oklahoma has six wells with two producers, Mississippi three with no producers, and Alabama, Colorado and Florida each has one well deeper than 15,000 feet. Only Colorado's is a producer.

Foreign operators have drilled only four wells below 15,000 feet, all in Venezuela. Shell Oil drilled to 17,537 feet in 1953 to set the record for foreign drilling depths.

In 1953 infant mortality in the United States reached a new low of 28 per 1,000 live births.

Weather, Age Don't Daunt Grannies in Their Sculling

OAKLAND, Calif. (UP) — Shoppers hurrying to escape the rain glanced at the wharf jutting out from the Oakland boathouse and then stopped to gape — a dozen elderly women climbed into a 26-foot whaleboat and began rowing toward the center of choppy Lake Merritt.

A gray-haired coxswain barked authoritatively as the rowers, wearing white middies, blue scarfs and jaunty white hats, pulled heavy, 12-foot oars in perfect unison, sending the cumbersome craft swiftly over the water.

Although the shoppers didn't know it, they were watching members of the Oakland Women's Rowing Club — all in their 60's and 70's, and most of them grandmothers — carrying out an emergency mission in order to keep a member's 35-year-old rowing record intact.

"If we hadn't gone out in the rain," explained Lulu Nethaway, club president, "Julia Viereck would have lost out on her red star for 27 outings during the year."

In other words, these women take their rowing seriously.

The organization was founded in 1917 and the charter members haven't given up yet. Mrs. Viereck has seven gold stars on her scarf to show for her years of seamanship on Lake Merritt. Five red stars merit one gold one.

At present, 80 members pull their oars weekly in two or more boats. Seven are great-grandmothers. The two oldest — Mrs. Alice Crum and Mrs. Jessie Pedrick, both 83, still "stroke" with the coxswain's beat.

Most grandmothers are more adept at pulling a stitch than a 12-foot oar. But these Oakland women can make their whaleboats perform like something out of Moby Dick.

Mrs. Lillian Weirnben and Mrs. Emily Mennell, head coxswains, who wear braided caps of authority, stand in the rear of the 2,000-pound boats, directing the cadence of the strokes with rhythmic body motions as well as vocal commands.

"Lift your oar, Middie.

"Slow down, Bessie.

"Trail oars! Boat oars! Wing oars; Rest!" The calls ring out over Lake Merritt, in the heart of the city, after the rowers have completed a circuit of the two-mile lake.

"Some grandmothers would rather spend their time drinking tea and knitting, or bending over a stove," said President Nethaway. "But we'd much rather bend over an oar. I see no reason why the club won't be going strong for another 30 years."

Although George Washington usually is called the first president of the United States, John Hanson was elected president under the Continental Congress and signed documents as "President of the United States."

Farm Produce Vital to Auto Industry

The farmer is an important supplier of the automotive industry.

For example, in 1952 the industry consumed the following:

460,480 bales of cotton, or the yield from about 763,000 acres, worth $80 millions to the growers.

21,000,000 pounds of wool, valued at $11.5 millions, taken from 2,600,000 sheep.

203,000 pounds of mohair, worth $195,000 to the goat owners.

2,200,000 bushels, worth $3.6 millions, or the yield from about 545,000 acres.

553,000 cattle hides, or 25 million square feet of leather.

Other agricultural products used by motor vehicle manufacturers in substantial but unestimated quantities include: hogs, soy beans, flaxseed, beswax, tung oil, wheat straw, sugar cane, and turpentine.

Turnpike Authority Planning 2 Roads

LANSING (INS)—The Michigan Turnpike Authority went ahead today planning two state toll roads, one from Bay City to the Ohio state line, the other Detroit to New Buffalo.

At authority request, the Senate returned to committee—and killed for this session—a bill freeing it from the two routes and granting it power to plan its routes on its own.

Commissioners sent word they wanted to go ahead on both earlier routes and would not consider others until both projects are under way.

Drugs Control Croup

NEW YORK (AP) — Croup in children is usually quickly controlled by penicillin, terramycin and the antihistamine, benadryl, Dr. R. J. Mehr writes in the New York State Journal of Medicine. The antibiotics combat infection, while the antihistamine induces calmness and sleep.

Reds Teach Spying With School Books

By BILL BOSS

MOSCOW (AP)—The English, textbook studied by Russia's 12 and 13-year-olds runs the gamut from fairy tales and school-day morality to international politics.

A state publication for the sixth grade, the book is called "Stories About School." It is in English except for Russian footnotes and a dictionary appendix.

* * *

It tells about pupils reporting to their class, about vacations and on activities of Pioneer groups (the soviet version of Boy and Girl Scouts). It reveals how Russian children are encouraged to check one another's conduct.

* * *

Nelly, for instance, criticizes Masha, tells her to mind her business. Nelly tells the other girls and they discuss Masha's conduct at the next Pioneer meeting.

It is learned that the previous year Nelly refused to help Irene crib in an arithmetic exam. Irene failed but Nelly later helped her study and pass the next one.

* * *

The meeting passes two resolutions:

"1. We think Nelly acted right when she told the class about Masha Stepanovna's bad action. It is the duty of a Soviet Pioneer to unmask all un-pioneerlike actions. She was also right when she refused to let Irene copy her sum.

"2. We think that to spoil works of art and other kinds of property is a very uncultured action, and we promise to keep our desks and books in good order, and to stop any boy or girl who spoils any kind of school property, or trees and flowers in parks and gardens."

* * *

In a story about a school's English reading club the pupils act out sketches based on "Robinson Crusoe," "Tom Sawyer," Gulliver's Travels" and Grimm's "Snowdrop."

One boy tells the club: "I advise you to read Dickens' books. Karl Marx says that he gives a better picture of society than many scientists."

A boy called Youra tells about international politics:

"Capitalist countries spend most of their money on the future war. The Soviet Union stands for peace, and the movement for peace shall win."

Trail of Blood Leads Police to Injured Man

A trail of blood from the scene of a bar fight over back roads and fields in White Lake Township led two Oakland County sheriff's deputies to a man who severely cut his wrist during the brawl.

Deputies Everett Fredericks and Dale Reagan were called to the Oxbow Dance Hall to halt a fight. When they arrived they found a trail of blood and followed it to find Otto Hubbell of 36 Bennett St. lying in a snow bank and surrounded by five of his children.

Deputies learned that Hubbell had rammed his hand through a car window when striking at another man, and it was then that he gashed his wrist. The injured man was treated at Pontiac General Hospital.

CONTINO STEPS OUT WITH PIPER LAURIE—Accordionist Dick Contino, recently returned from service in Korea, stepped out to a Hollywood night club Saturday night with Actress Piper Laurie. Both said the date meant nothing more than friendship and there were no serious plans for the future. It was Contino's first date since his release after 20 months in the Army.

Mathias Says Acting Out Life Won't Be Hard

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Now look who's becoming a movie star—decathalon star Bob Mathias.

The great Tulare, Calif., athlete is the latest sports figure to submit to the film biography treatment. Or maybe it should be called an autobiography, since he'll play a boy named Bob Mathias.

"Me act?" he laughs. "Not on your life. I'll just be playing myself. The script will be true to life, so I won't have to do any heavy dramatics or anything like that. I think I ought to be able to handle it."

• • •

Bob has done most of his performing on playing fields from here to Helsinki. He says he never even appeared in school plays. That's understandable when you consider the amount of time he spent practicing the many sports he is skilled in.

"But I did take some courses in radio announcing and television at Stanford," he remarked. "That gave me something of a break-in, and I've done a lot of interviews on radio and TV. Aside from that and newsreels, I've never faced a camera."

Bob is a handsome giant who talks in assured tones but has remained modest despite his fame. He looks forward to the acting experience as "something new and exciting."

• • •

"My agent, Jim Fallon, and I have been discussing some kind of picture for some time," he revealed. "At first we thought it might be some kind of adventure series in TV. You know, something like Tom Swift or the Rover Boys or a Space Man idea, with me playing myself. But the series was out because that would take 52 weeks. I don't have that much time before entering the Marine Corps.

"So we decided on the story of my life. William E. Selwyn is producing it, and Dick English is writing the script from material I have given him. We'll have a few weeks of rehearsals. Then we'll shoot it, probably in May. Part of it will be made here and part on location in Tulare and at Stanford."

• • •

Bob, who is 23 now, said his days as an athlete are just about over. He may do some football, basketball and track while in the Marine Corps, but he has no professional ambitions. Pro football doesn't interest him.

For two years after the eruption of the volcano Krakatau in 1883, there were abnormally long twilights and remarkably colored sunsets all over the world.

4 Area Men Injured in Head-on Smashup

Four persons were injured last night when two cars crashed head-on at Walnut Lake and Orchard Lake roads, according to West Bloomfield Township polie.

Glenn Simpson, 26, of 97 Osceola Dr., driver of one of the cars, said he saw a car driven by Wallace H. Gordhamer of 3245 Walma Dr., West Bloomfield Township approaching on the wrong side of the road, according to Polie Chief William Van Meter and Patrolman Joseph Nephew.

Simpson told police he swerved right to avoid Gordhamer's car but as the two autos were about to pass each other Gordhamer pulled back into Simpson's path.

Gordhamer, who told police he did not know what happened, was admitted to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with mouth injury and face cuts. His condition is fair today, hospital attendants said.

Simpson was treated at Pontiac general Hospital for bruises and a fractured arm.

Eugene Snell, 24, of 3450 Livernois, Birmingham, was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital with a dislocated hip, and Frank Strebe, 26, of 1735 Petrolia, Commerce Township, was admitted with a fractured knee andm ultiple face cuts. Both men are in good condition. Police could not say in which car they were riding.

Anne Baxter Gets Final Divorce From Actor

HOLLYWOOD (INS) —Actress Anne Baxter obtained her final divorce decree from actor John Hodiak today. When she was granted her interlocutory divorce last year she testified that Hodiak mocked and berated her before others in "an insulting tone." A property settlement gave her $350 a month support for a daughter, Katrina, 2.

Sponsors Mental Aid Bill

LANSING (UP) Sen. Charles S. Blondy (D-Detroit) sponsored a Senate bill Tuesday to provide that all receipts from pari-mutuel wagering during three days at the start of each horse racing season be allocated for support of state mental institutions.

Two Measures Get on Calendar

2 First-Termers Push for Bills on Child Care, 2nd Bay Judge

LANSING (UP)—Two first-termers had bills on the House calendar for final votes today after leading a successful "Young Turk" revolution to keep them there.

One measure would require parents to pay for state care of mentally defective children only if they consented; the other would give Bay County a second circuit judge.

Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron), majority floor leader, had led moves to send the bills to the powerful ways and means committee, of which he is a member, for further study.

With the aid of other younger members, Reps. William A. Austin (R-Muskegon) and Richard G. Smith (R-Bay City) defeated the moves.

The House passed bills to invalidate "quickie" divorces obtained by Michigan residents in other states and make it a misdemeanor to turn in a false fire alarm by telephone or in person.

Rep. Earl Hebert (D-Ecorse) introduced a resolution calling for a legislative study of the possibility of covering state employes with unemployment compensation.

The Senate Republican caucus agreed to turn aside any attempts to amend the massive election law recodification, except for recombining the state and presidential ballots. This same decision has been made by the House majority in caucus.

These decisions spelled the death of pending Democratic amendments to require bipartisan local and county election boards, as well as a host of other proposed election law changes.

Coconino county in Arizona is the second largest county in area in the U. S. It is larger in domain than Massachusetts, Vermont and Rhode Island combined.

Pope Able to Say Mass but Delay Is Advised

VATICAN CITY (INS) — Pope Pius XII, his health steadily improving, was able to take solid food today and was told he could now say Mass although urged by his physician to postpone it for several days.

Dr. Riccardo Galeazzi Lisi advised the 77-year-old pontiff to exercise by walking around his room in preparation for saying Mass.

The Pope has been ailing with a stomach disorder and hiccups which kept him from partaking of a full diet.

Johnson spoke at a banquet commemorating PTA "Founders' Day" and the birthday of Milford PTA.

Speaking of preventing juvenile delinquency, Johnson said, "Cooperation of civic groups in the small towns can produce greater results than in cities."

Dr. Book recently purchased the old American Legion Hall in Milford for use as a youth and community center.

Bums Winning Contract 'Duel'

By RIP WATSON

NEW YORK (AP)—If the Brooklyn Dodgers could beat the New York Yankees in October the way they do in February, they could fly a world champions' flag over Ebbets Field.

• • •

The Dodgers, as you may remember, have lost to the Yankees five times in five tries in the World Series, but they're running way ahead of the Yanks in the pen-and-ink department. With the signing of pitcher Carl Erskine yesterday, the Brooks completed contract negotiations with the top five pitchers within 12 days.

They now have 29 presumably contented players and first baseman Gil Hodges is the only unsigned regular.

The Yankees? Well, catcher Yogi Berra's signed document is in the Stadium safe, but the world champions have signed only 19 players in all. And most of the regulars have yet to come to terms.

Erskine, who set a World Series record when he struck out 14 Yankees in the third game of the '53 classic, reportedly received a substantial boost over his supposed pay last year of $18,000. The Indiana right-hander probably got around $25,000 for winning 20 and losing six last year.

• • •

The Milwaukee Braves, winter book favorites as the strongest challengers to the Dodgers in '54, also took a long step toward solving their battery problems as right-hander Bob Buhl and Del Crandall, their No. 1 catcher, signed contracts.

• • •

It was a remunerative day for the batterymen all around both leagues yesterday.

Other pitchers who signed up were Bob Turley, the Baltimore Orioles' promising young right-hander; Hector (Skinny) Brown, who had an 11-6 mark for the Boston Red Sox; Dave Koslo and Al Corwin of the New York Giants; rookie right-hander Tom Hurd of the Chicago White Sox, up with a 17-11 record from Memphis; and Al Aber and Bob Cruze of the Detroit Tigers.

'We'll Be on Top'—Robbie

Dodgers' Ace, Robinson, Sees Brooks Setting Pace Again This Year in NL

By H. GUY MOATS

Those ebullient Flatbush boys, the always flag-conscious Brooklyn Dodgers, are going to be right up there at the top of the National League heap come late fall. And that is from one who should know something about it.

Brooklyn's star left fielder, slugger, play-maker and one of the majors' top players, said so, Tuesday night, in a talk during his appearance at the Hellenic hall here, where he was guest speaker in a brotherhood gathering of several hundred persons, Jackie Robinson pointed out:

"We'll be up there, all right. With Don Newcombe (top hurler) getting out of the army soon, our pitching will be as good as any in the league, maybe better. That is going to help us greatly. We're set otherwise, too."

Robinson, quiet, diffident speaker, made a deep impression on his hearers. He related his difficulties during the 1st three years of his "breaking-in" with the Dodgers, as the majors first Negro player.

Since his entrance into the big leagues, many other Negro stars have arisen in big time baseball. Jackie gives great credit for this situation to Pee Wee Reese, the fiery little Dodger leader. "When Pee Wee took my side of the matter, that was the turning point," Jackie explained.

"That is the thing that real democracy means. It's the sort of thing that is part and parcel of our American way of life. We all have to work together."

Robinson returns to New York soon for a brief series of appearances and then heads south for the annual spring training.

Incidentally today was his 8th wedding anniversary and he said he hated to miss being with his family.

Wamerdam Thinks Fresno Star Will Smash Records

NEW YORK (AP) — Cornelius (Dutch) Warmerdam, the gangling Californian who drew the "oohs" and "aahs" with his astronomical pole vaulting in the pre-war era, predicted today that the 16-foot vault is not far off.

Currently the assistant track coach at Fresno State College, Warmerdam put the finger squarely on his protege, Fred Barnes, a Fresno State senior.

"He's the boy who should break my records," said the 38-year-old Dutch. "He has all the natural equipment."

Coach and pupil are in the East for three of the indoor meets at Madison Square Garden. Last Saturday at the Millrose games Barnes soared 14 feet 4 inches, but his best effort to date is 14-8.

Warmerdam's own world records are 15-7¾ outdoors and 15-8½ indoors.

Still a 14-4 jumper when he works out, Warmerdam said he was not discounting the efforts of Rev. Bob Richards, who has come closer to his record than anyone.

"Richards has done better than I thought he ever could," Warmerdam admitted, "so he still might surprise me. But Barnes can hold the pole four inches higher than Richards with the same effort, so there's no reason why he shouldn't do better."

Before he entered Fresno State, Barnes, best effort was 12-6.

Red Hot Loyola 5 Beats Broncs Badly

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Hitting on 71 per cent of its shots in the first half, Loyola of Chicago went on to give Western Michigan a 79-56 basketball lesson last night.

The accurate shooting was good for a halftime lead of 46-23. The Chicago team then went on to avenge an earlier 80-68 defeat.

It was the Broncos 1st defeat in seven home games this year and narrowed their edge down to a slim 18-17 margin in the long series between the two schools.

Drops Overtime Tilt

EAST LANSING (AP)—After an hour of regular play, Colorado College took only 42 seconds of a sudden death overtime period to snap in a goal for a 3-2 victory over Michigan State in a Western Intercollegiate Hockey game last night.

Doug Silverberg scored from about five feet out on a rush after a overtime faceoff.

Michigan Pucksters Again Defeat Denver

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Wolverines of Michigan were in firm possession of 3rd place in the Western Intercollegiate Hockey League today thanks to last night's 5-3 triumph over Denver University.

It was the 2nd straight victory for the defending NCAA champions over the Denver team in as many days.

Michigan trounced the Westerners by a whopping 11-4 score Monday.

PHS Discovers Why Bears Are State's Top 5

Bows to Highland Park, 63-30, in Runaway Tilt on Tuesday Night

By BILL MARTIN

Pontiac High's cagers last night found why Highland Park is ranked the No. 1 Class A prep basketball power in Michigan. Chiefs traveled to the Detroit suburb to become the 10th straight victim of the peerless Parkers, 63-30.

It was largely a 2-man show for the Polar Bears as center George Lee and forward George Duncan together piled up 48 points.

Lee, a husky 6-foot 3-inch ace playing his 4th year of varsity ball, collected 11 field goals and four free throws for 26 points before leaving the game midway through the final period. Duncan had 22 points.

Pontiac was limited to eight field goals, but sank 14 of 21 charity tosses to pad its total. Forward Bob Johnston accounted for six of the goals and added three gift throws to post half the Chiefs' total points.

• • •

PHS drew 1st blood on two foul shots by Walt Poe, but the Parkers moved out in front 6-2 on a field goal by Duncan and two free throws and a bucket by Lee. Johnston and forward John James whipped in another pair of baskets to knot the count and Dick Blacklaw made good on a gift toss to give Pontiac another short-lived lead, 7-6.

Duncan and Lee then ran up 10 straight points and Don Anderson added another pair before Johnston came through with his 2nd basket to check the spree. From that point, it was strictly no contest.

• • •

Highland Park raced to a 32-15 halftime lead and outscored Pontiac, 31-15, in the final half to win going away.

Bears connected on 40 per cent of their shots from the floor (26 baskets in 65 shots), while the Chiefs had a lowly .145 mark in 55 shots.

Pontiac is idle Friday night, but takes on another unbeaten Class A squad next Tuesday when Ferndale comes here.

PHS' junior varisty bowed to the Highland Park reserves, 58-36, in the preliminary game.

N. Y. Dog Show Honors Won by Carolina Spaniel

Two-Year-Old Male Is First of Breed to Win in 13 Years

NEW YORK (INS)—Mrs. Carl E. Morgan of High Point, N. C., claimed the distinction of owning the best dog of 2,572 entries in the 78th annual Westminster Kennel Club show—world series of dog shows in the U. S.

Her two-year-old, buff-colored cocker spaniel, "Carmor's Rise and Shine," bested that many entries of 106 breeds to win the "best in show" award last night in Madison Square Garden over five other finalists.

The male champion, in competition only six months, also won the silver for the best American bred dog and became the first cocker spaniel to win the Westminster since "My Own Brucie" 13 years ago.

Best in show finalists included "Kippax Fearnaught," an English bulldog and non-sporting group winner owned by Dr. J. A. Saylor of Long Beach, Calif.; "Spark Plug," a powerful boxer who took the ribbon in the sporting group; "Miss Showoff," a Kerry Blue shown by Mrs. M. Eileen McEachren of Todmorden, Ont.

District MUCC Favors Bills

Plan Attendance Upon Lansing Conference on Fishing Licenses

Approval for the passage of two bills proposed for the Michigan legislature, affecting issuance of fishing licenses, was offered during the Tuesday night session of District 7, Michigan United Conservation Clubs. Session was held at Oakland County Sportsmen's Club, Waterford.

Representatives of sportsmen's organizations in Oakland, Lapeer and Livingstone counties went on record as favoring the measures that would license fishing in the Great Lakes and provide that women angelers in the state also be licensed.

Speaker was Pete Petoskey of the Pte. Mouille Marsh game refuge, who discussed conservation generally. He pointed out the freedom to hunt and fish here, as compared with the tight restrictions in force in European countries.

Next session for the district has been set for April 6 at the Genessee Sportsmen's club.

Wanted to Be Singer

Ex-Shine Boy Giambra Didn't Plan Ring Career

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—The shoe shine boy fraternity has another former member to root for in boxing—Joey Giambra.

Like many another boxer and champion, the handsome, 22-year-old Buffalo, N. Y., middleweight contender earned his first money with the brush and polish. And he learned to protect his meager earnings with his fists.

"I was one of 14 kids—eight of us are living now—and I started shining shoes to help my mother," said Joey. "The bigger kids would grab the money when they caught me and I had to do something.

• • •

"I figured if I learned to box and got myself a little reputation in something like the Golden Gloves they'd let me alone. I never intended to be a fighter. I wanted to be a singer. But I made out pretty good as an amateur and pretty soon a couple of people wanted to handle me.

• • •

Giambra, who had an 11-fight win streak broken by Bobby Dykes in Miami last month, hopes to start another string going against Italo Scortichini at the Garden Friday Night. Giambra is a 2-1 favorite to win the 10-rounder over the Italian, who held Carmen Basillo to a draw Jan. 16.

Joey's record is 37-3 for 5½ years of pro fighting.

Pierce Expects Chisox to Make Real Flag Bid

Billy Confident He Will Win 20 Games, Thinks Trades Will Help

By LLOYD NORTHARD

DETROIT (UP)—Southpaw Billy Pierce, confident he'll be a 20-game winner this season, said today his Chicago White Sox are capable of spoiling New York's bid for a 6th straight American League pennant.

The 26-year-old left-hander explained that "the Yankees are gambling a lot on Harry Byrd to make a comeback and they're going to miss Johnny Sain.

But he painted a rosy picture of the White Sox.

"We've picked up some players who will help us," Pierce said, pointing to Johnny Groth and Cass Michaels. "And Ferris Fain isn't going to hit in tough luck two years in a row. He'll bat 30 to 40 points higher than he did last season."

Pierce, who winters in suburban Highland Park and works out daily at the YMCA to keep in shape, defended the Chicago pitching staff.

"Some people say we don't have the pitching to stay up there," he said. "That's not so. We just lost too many close games last year because we couldn't get a hit when we needed it.

Sandy Consuegra lost a pair of 1-0 games tothe Yankees. There were a lot of other close ones like that."

Pierce and Virgil Trucks were the mainstays of the Chicago pitching staff last season. Billy won 18 games, Trucks became the team's first 20-game winner since 1941.

"I think Virgil will be as good or maybe even better than he was last year," Pierce said. "Remember, he was only 5-and-4 when he came to us from St. Louis last summer."

Of himself, Pierce said "last season was my best so far and I don't see any reason why I should not be a little better this year. I'll be shooting for 20 victories."

While he termed the Yankees "the team to beat" he said nobody can overlook the Boston Red Sox.

Each program is to include an eight-round main event, two six-rounders and three four-rounders.

Adams Defends Official Scorer of Wings' Tilts

Dick Irvin Charges Ross Jewel Gave Howe 'Paper Assists'

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP) — The simmering feud between the Detroit Red Wings and Montreal Canadiens flared anew today—this time over the quality of scoring at Detroit's Olympia Stadium.

Dick Irvin, coach of the Canadiens, charged that paper assists are given to Gordie Howe of the Red Wings when he plays in Olympia Stadium, and that's why he's leading the National Hockey League in scoring.

Jack Adams, general manager of the Red Wings, snapped back at Irvin, saying the Detroit scorer is "twice as good as the one in Montreal."

And what does the official scorer, Ross Jewell, have to say about all this?

"I don't favor anybody," he says calmly. "And that includes Howe. I just call them as I see them."

Irvin started the rhubarb by saying there was no comparison between Howe and his own high-scoring right winger, Maurice Richard.

NCAA Draws Up 4-Point TV Plan

Hopes to Cut Adverse Effects on Attendance at College Games

CHICAGO (INS)—A 4-point objective has been drawn up by the National Collegiate Athletic Association television committee.

The group ended a two-day meeting in Chicago yesterday by listing its TV objectives as:

1— To reduce so far as possible the adverse effects of live television of college football games on attendance and on the athletic and physical education program dependent on money received from that attendance.

2—To spread television of games among as many member colleges as possible.

3—To provide football television to the public to the extent compatible with the two objectives listed above.

4—To develop ways of utilizing television for the promotion of college football.

Open hearings on the program will be held in New York Feb. 22, 23 and 24. The committee plans to meet in mid-March to formulate a recommended plan which will be mailed to all member schools.

It was the Ravens' 14th consecutive victory of the season, and their 11th win in SCL play.

Russia May Enter Track Team in American Tests

MOSCOW (AP)—Russia may enter a track team in the big meets winding up the U. S. winter indoor season next month.

Dmitry Posnikov, deputy minister of health and chief of the central board of physical culture, announced yesterday that Russia is interested in sending a team to the United States as part of an expanded program of international competition for Soviet teams this year.

Posnikov announced no specific plans, but in New York, Dan Ferris, secretary of the U. S. Amateur Athletic Union, said the Soviet athletes might come for meets in Milwaukee March 13, Cleveland March 19, New York March 20 and Chicago March 27.

Ferris said he had received a "favorable reaction" from the Russian embassy in Washington over the prospects of a Soviet visit.

Posnikov also announced yesterday that Russia would send its champion chess team of world titleholder Mikhail Botvinnik and challenger Vasily Smyslov to New York in June for a match with two American players. The 1st match might well be between Botvinnik and Samuel Reshevsky of New York.

Posnikov said the chess team would try to arrange for a rematch in Moscow and that Russia also was interested in having an American track team come to Moscow.

Writer Sees Very Little Chance for Either Ezzard Charles or Archie Moore With Rocky Marciano

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—It doesn't make much difference when Ezzard Charles, Archie Moore, or some other challenger is named for Rocky Marciano, he won't have much chance to win.

• • •

You can't wipe out a good boxer's chances completely, and Charles and Moore are certainly good boxers, but you can't see much chance of their chins or bodies standing up under the relentless hammering of Rocky's two fists.

• • •

Marciano hits too hard for any opposing heavyweight to face in this happy or unhappy year of 1954. It would be different if he were facing a man like Dempsey who was faster and more cunning than Marciano is and who can hit back every bit as hard.

• • •

Gene Tunney, a fine boxer who could punish one severely, would be another tough opponent for Rocky. So would be Joe Louis in his prime. But Joe couldn't afford to be tagged, since he never responded too blithely to an early assault.

And he was never hit by anyone who could punch with Marciano. But today there is no Dempsey, Tunney or Joe Louis in the offing.

It might be observed also that Dempsey, Tunney and Louis probably never threw a punch at anyone as hard to hurt as Marciano is.

There happened to be a below-par run of heavyweights around at present, barring Marciano. He is a real fighter. He isn't a boxer, since his entire concentration is the destruction of the other fellow in the ring.

• • •

A meeting between Charles and Moore might give us a better line on the better of the two. Or it might wreck both of them as challengers, winding up in a holding matter.

• • •

I can't see much difference between them, except that Charles is the bigger man. He is also the less daring competitor, with a disinclination to take many punches when he can avoid them.

• • •

It's a shame that Marciano hasn't a better field to aim at. For he is a first-class fighting man who likes to mix it, is dead game, and what at the same time is a very decent fellow. He won his title the hard way, but through no fault of his own he is defending it over the softer route.

Falcons Win Again; Wolves Top Keego

By JACK SAYLOR

Rochester and Ferndale continued to ride the victory trail Tuesday night, while Clarkston and Milford won important Wayne-Oakland League games in the feature action on the mid-week basketball card.

Rochester firmly established itself as one of the state's foremost Class B teams by nipping a strong Davison team, 75-72, in overtime on the Davison court. Triumph was the 7th in a row for the Falcons and their 12th in 13 games.

Davison has been beaten only twice. Other loss came in double overtime to Flint Tech, which still is undefeated. Rochester's only loss was to Mt. Clemens St. Mary, also an overtime decision.

Gene Konley's quintet did it the hard way Tuesday. After letting a 8-point lead slip away in the 2nd half, the Falcons knotted the count at 66-all on Earl' Kitchen's set shot in the last eight seconds of regulation.

In the overtime, Davison fouled repeatedly in a vain attempt to gain control of the ball. Roger Forbush potted five free throws and Don Richardson added two, while Arlan Stone chipped in a basket.

Stone piled up 30 points to outscore Davison's Ron Dipalnski by two. The Davison ace is rated as probably the Flint area's best. Max Powell added 17, Robertson 14 and Forbush 10 for Rochester.

Ferndale won its 10th straight game by beating East Detroit, 69-55. Tom Turner sparked the undefeated 'Dales with 27 points.

In the hot Wayne-Oakland race, Clarkston kept its hopes alive by eliminating Keego Harbor, 56-47, with some fine scoring balance. Ron Schebor, Dick Johnston and Pete Thompson each threw in 13 points.

It was four straight baskets by Thompson, who didn't enter the game until the 2nd half, that pulled the Wolves away. Johnny Wassel had 12 for Keego and John Craig tallied 10 after replacing starter Bob Hobson who fouled out.

Northville retained 1st place by routing Clarenceville, 69-40, and Milford stayed a half-game back by drubbing Brighton, 61-34. Jerry Winterhalter and Jim Davidson hit 15 and 13 points respectively, for the Redskins.

Ortoville dropped a tough one to Lake Orion, 43-39, on foul shots in the last minutes after taking a 10-0 lead and holding it most of the way. Berkley avenged an earlier loss by beating Clawson 63-42, and Warren and Utica stayed tied for the Bi-County lead. Warren downed South Lake, 55-22, and Utica whipped Center Line, 76-40.

Irish Topple Spartan Five in Late Surge

Notre Dame Rally in Last Two Minutes to Beat MSC, 74-71

EAST LANSING (AP)—A seven-point margin of free throws and a last minute scoring surge gave Notre Dame a 74-71 basketball edge over Michigan State last night.

The Irish had to battle down to the last two minutes to win their 13th game against two defeats. Michigan State, with a 3-5 Big Ten record, now has an 8-8 overall record.

The score was knotted at 67-all when the game went into the last two minutes. The Irish went three points and stalled the last 35 seconds to coast in.

MSC forward Julius McCoy was high with 29 points on 10 field goals and 9 free throws. Center Dick Rosenthal made 24 and forward Joe Bertrand collected 21 points for Notre Dame.

McCoy and forward Al Ferrari with 19 points accounted for 48 points of the Spartan total. Eight other MSC players collected a total of only 23.

After sagging in the 1st quarter and trailing 24-15, Michigan State tied the game at 33-all at the half and led 54-50 at the three-quarter mark.

Michigan State outscored Notre Dame from the floor, 25 baskets to 23. From the free throw line, the Irish had a 28-21 advantage.

It was the 51st Notre Dame win over Michikan State in a 71-game series dating back to 1908.

Clarkston won, 56-47, to stay in contention for the Wayne-Oakland League title.

Vejar, Ex-MSC Scrapper, Black, Tangle on TV

CHICAGO (AP) — Welterweights Chicago Vejar and Jed Black, a pair of former university students, tear into each other tonight in a nationally televised 10-rounder at Chicago Stadium.

Vejar, Stamford, Conn., battler who attended New York University, now is an Army corporal stationed at Ft. Benning, Ga.

He is expected to be a 2-1 favorite by fight time at 10 p.m., EST.

Black, 22, and who is making his first main event TV start, gained top recognition in collegiate boxing ranks while at Michigan State. He once was NCAA welterweight king. He is a stablemate of Chuck Davey, who twice in 1952 beat Vejar.

Southpaw pitcher Fred Baczewski of the Cincinnati Redlegs started four games against the New York Giants in 1953 and won all four.

Davey's Training Spot Is Nothing Like Year Ago

CHICAGO (AP) — Fame, someone said, is fleeting. If you doubt it, look at the case of welterweight Chuck Davey.

At this time last year, the Lansing, Mich., southpaw was training in a swank Chicago country club in preparation for his title fight against champion Kid Gavilan.

You know the story. Floored three times, Davey was a victim of a technical knockout in the 9th round.

The slide from fame had started.

In a comeback effort, he won a few fights then lost two straight to Al Andrews, a "small club" fighter from Superior, Wis.

Now, a year after training for Gavilan, Davey is in training again—but not in a swank country club.

Davey will fight Art Aragon in Los Angeles Feb. 18 and is working in Chicago's Midwest gym. He's flying to California to train in another small gym — the name of which he doesn't even know.

Raise for McElhenny

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Hugh McElhenny's contract with the San Francisco 49ers was renewed yesterday and the former Washington fullback got a "sizable raise" over his estimated 1953 salary of $12,000.

The 49ers said McElhenny turned down "lucrative offers" from Vancouver of the Canadian league. Terms of McElhenny's new contract weren't disclosed.

Eliot Is Considered for Nebraska Post

OMAHA (INS) — Omaha World-Herald sports writer Gregg McBride reported in a copyrighted story today that Ray Eliot, head football coach at the University of Illinois, is being considered for the post of athletic director at Nebraska University.

He would succeed George (Potsy) Clark, whose resignation became effective at the end of January. The post is being filled on an interim basis by Cornhusker business manager A. J. Lewandowski.

Michigan State's harriers have won three Big Ten league titles in a row.

BULLETIN

Here is the One Beer that Gives You All Natural Carbonation All the Time!

Those thousands of tiny bubbles fizzing and soaring in your glass of Budweiser are put there by Mother Nature in the costliest brewing and ageing process on Earth.

Budweiser is the only beer in America with all natural carbonation all the time.

You see, there is something that we could do, but don't. We could artificially carbonate our beer after fermentation and package it. It would be beer, but certainly not Budweiser.

Instead, our beer goes through a second fermentation. During this much, much longer ageing, Nature carbonates it as she does the finest champagne. There is no other way to produce Budweiser . . . the beer that has pleased more people than any other beer in history.

Yes, when you know your beer, it's bound to be BUD.

Blue-Blooded Yapping

Writer Finds Kennel Show Interesting; Discovers Beagle Is Most Popular Dog

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—A maiden visit to a first-class dog show such as that of the Westminster Kennel Club, which annually takes over Madison Square Garden for two days of blue-blooded yapping, can be both interesting and rewarding if one keeps his ears and eyes open and doesn't get into any arguments about dogs.

In the first place, it is quite a sight just to see the floor of the Garden around the judging rings packed with persons from many states, with the overflow extending high into the balconies, and to realize that every last one of them is there because he thinks that dog is man's best friend. It is a more sober, tense gathering than one sees at the horse show.

• • •

Tightly clutched in most fists is a copy of the official program, which retails at $1.50, without pictures. Most of those sitting or standing six deep around th rings have their copies opened at the right page and spend their time studying the small type with the same rapt absorption seen on a race track special out of Penn Station.

• • •

Except for the murmur of voices, it is a quiet gathering. The dogs, one assumes, have been taught to keep their yaps shut while they are being picked over by the judges. Now and then a brief splatter of applause is heard when a blue ribbon is awarded. This comes entirely from the spectators, as the defeated dogs and their handlers only stare straight ahead, coldly.

In between studying the finer points of judging and handling, we managed to learn a thing or two about dogs in general that might be news to some. Probably the biggest piece of dog news is that the beagle now is the most popular dog in this country, having passed the cocker spaniel, the previous titleholder, during the past year.

It's Time Out!

"Oh for heaven's sake, Tom, just our name and address—the blood types and next of kin aren't necessary!"

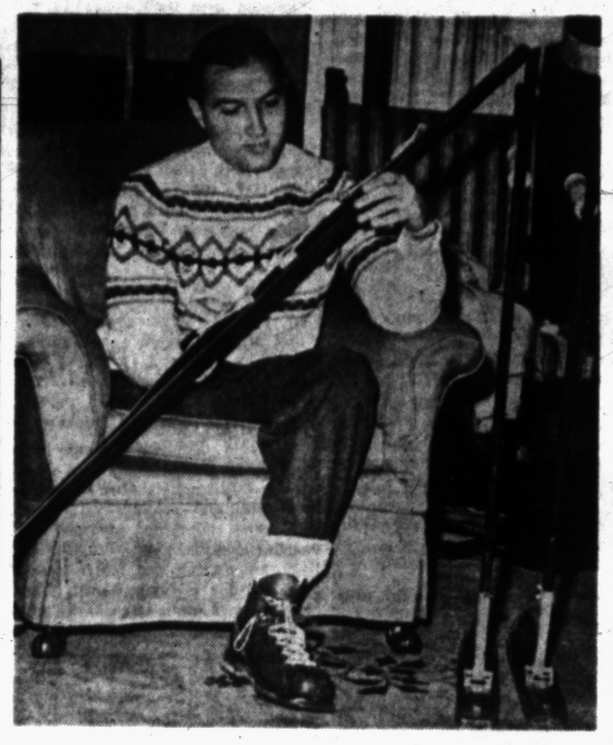
No 'Typical' Game Law Violator Found



Pontiac Press Photos

NO HANDICAP HERE!—William J. Daeschner, 412 Berwyn road, Birmingham, isn't disturbed one whit by the obvious handicap he's up against essaying Michigan's fast-growing winter sport, skiing. As a matter of fact, with the new equipment Daeschner is showing in the large picture above, he doesn't find it too difficult to really enjoy the swift sport. The other picture shows him all ready to set off down a long slope.

Uses Special Equipment

Birmingham Skiing Enthusiast Doesn't Let Loss of Leg Keep Him From Sport

Determination and courage have enabled 27-year-old Bill Daeschner of Birmingham to pursue his favorite winter sport — skiing — despite the loss of his right leg in a railroad accident six years ago.

Bill, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Daeschner of 412 Berwyn Road, skied last week at Caberfae near Cadillac and plans to leave Friday for a week of skiing in the East.

Daeschner's "secret," if it can be so termed, is a pair of specially-constructed German ski crutches. He uses the sticks, which are equipped with miniature skis, in the place of regulation ski poles.

The equipment arrived from Germany last Friday. Daeschner had been trying to develop similar gear, working from pictures.

The young Birmingham engineer lost the leg in 1948 while working as a railroad switchman during a summer vacation from Purdue University. He returned to Purdue, graduating with a degree in mechanical engineering and is now employed at an industrial firm in Detroit.

Bill was a baseball and football player at Vaughan High School in Bloomfield Hills, graduating in 1944.

He entered the Army after high school and was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant at the age of 18. He was discharged a 1st Lieutenant after spending 28 months in the Far East.

He also is an ardent golfer, shooting in the high 80's. A member of Pine Lake Country Club, he competed in the club's tournament last summer.

Records of 1953 Arrests Prove Wide Range Exists in Ages and Occupations

By JACK PATTERSON

Who violates the hunting laws? Is there a certain business activity or age that typifies the violator? Well, apparently not. A report on some hundred-odd convicted 1953 violators, giving ages and occupations shows the following breakdown, from which the reader may draw his own conclusions, if any. More than half the listed violators, 54 were classed as industrial workers or laborers, a not surprising figure since such a heavy percentage of the population is so employed.

PATTERSON

Next biggest group, some thirty-two, were described as businessmen, and included manufacturing executives, store owners, a couple of car dealers and a rather surprising number of contractors, along with a number the nature of whose business was not listed.

• • •

Among law-enforcement officers we find eleven violators, a rather higher number we should think, than the percentage of such officers to the total populace would suggest.

• • •

In the ranks of the recognized professions, we discover one teacher, one physican and an optometrist. No lawyers were listed which may be either a testimonial to their clean living or their adroitness in getting out of a jam.

Five farmers, a minister, an editor (ha!), a state employe, a railroad conductor and one lonely student round out the list.

So it begins to look as though we can't recognize our violator on the strength of his business connections.

Can we recognize him by his age? It would seem not. These recorded characters ranged from downy-cheeked youths to graybeards striking for Methuselah's record. And of coure, computing an average age is most misleading. Particularly in this case for the average comes out very close to 36 which is an age known everywhere for its sober, law-abiding nature and exemplary behavior. And we ought to know.

• • •

Hadn't thought much about snakes lately, until we had lunch with Dr. Peter Hoogerhyde the other day. Pete recalled a boa constrictor captured behind the nurses' quarters at the Navy hospital in Coco Solo, C. Z.

• • •

The hospital pathologist opened up a bulge in the reptile and found 37 young snakes. Always thought pathologists had kind of a revolting job, anyway.

Cold Pheasant Refuses to Fly Until Warmed

Too much cold weather bogged down a pheasant in Island Lake recreation area recently.

A rabbit hunter, getting in last licks before the season closed the end of January, saw the pheasant parked in deep snow next to a fence post.

"Shoo, bird," urged the hunter.

The bird refused to shoo. It sat. The hunter, fascinated, picked the bird up and tramped through deep snow to the nearby residence of area manager Roy Russell.

After being thoroughly warmed in the Russell kitchen, the pheasant agreed to leave. He sailed off across Kent Lake road toward a favored swampy area.

National Wildlife Week Scheduled March 21-27

LANSING — National Wildlife Week is slated March 21-27, the National Wildlife Federation notes.

The week when the attention of the nation is annually turned toward problems of conservation is this year devoted to water pollution control.

The Boy Scouts of America have pledged the President to undertake as a major project for the year "a national conservation good turn." Many sportsmen and outdoor clubs are making plans to unite conservation efforts with the Scouts during the coming year.

Crowd Record for Florida

GAINESVILLE — Florida's 1953 football team set a season's record by playing before a total paid attendance of 334,879 fans for 10 regular season games.

Game License Sales in State Steady in 1953

Deer Hunting Permits Show Eight Per Cent Decrease

LANSING (AP)— Sales of Michigan hunting and fishing licenses held about steady in 1953, the conservation department reported today.

Compiling dealer's reports, the department said about 1,113,700 hunting licenses were sold in the year and 1,146,000 fishing licenses.

This report followed a report of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service that Michigan led the nation in hunting license sales for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1952, with 1,166,000 and was second to California in the same period in fishing license sales with 1,146,000. California sold 1,158,000 fishing licenses in the period.

Michigan sales of deer hunting licenses in the calendar year fell off eight per cent to 415,000. Sale of non-resident deer licenses, however, held up at about 11,000 for the second year.

Resident small game license sales totaled 667,000, compared to 665,000 in 1952. Non-resident small game licenses rose eight per cent to 6,700.

The expected increase in archery deer licenses failed to develop. Sales totaled 27,000, about the same as the previous year. Non-resident archery licenses showed a 30 per cent jump to 2,300.

For the first time since 1948, when they were initiated, the sale of trout stamps climbed over 200,000 in 1953. Total was 205,000, compared to 194,000 in 1952.

Resident fishing licenses totaled 848,000, about the same as in 1952. Temporary non-resident fishing license held at about the same level, totaling 141,000. Non-resident annual fishing license sales inched up to 164,000, compared to 57,000 in 1952.

Baldwin Area Dogs Chasing Deer in Snow

Conservation Officers Authorized to Shoot Animals

LANSING—Dogs have been harrassing deer in new deep snow in the Baldwin district, conservation department field sources report.

Each year, reports are received of deer being chased. Conservation officers are authorized to shoot dogs found following deer and suggest that valuable animals are best kept tied to avoid their loss.

Elsewhere, deer last week were reported relatively secure from the ravages of winter, at least for the moment.

Heavy snow weighed tree tops down to within reach of deer in the Mio district, providing a valuable additional source of food.

The animals were less restricted in parts of the upper peninsula than the previous week, although still more or less held to protective swamps.

In the lower peninsula, however, deer are concentrated in the vicinity of yards and timber top-food.

Well Drilling Permit Issued to Detroiter

Michigan Conservation Department last week issued an oil well drilling permit to William J. Morriss, of Detroit. The Morriss well, a shallow-gas type expected to run 800 feet deep, will be drilled in Lyon Township.

Thirteen other permits were issued. Two wells each will be driven in Ogemaw and Van Buren Counties. One well each will be drilled in Oceana, Tuscola, Clare, Washtenaw, Lenawee, Ottawa, St. Clair, Wayne and Montcalm Counties.

Bevo, Selvy Continue to Smash Cage Records

By BEN PHLEGAR

NEW YORK (AP)—Bevo Francis and Frank Selvy, the hottest shots in college basketball, today appeared certain to break almost every available individual scoring record for the sport before the winter ends.

Francis, the hook shot artist from tiny Rio Grande College in Ohio, is methodically demolishing the small college marks, while Selvy, a master of every shot except the hook, is climaxing three years at Furman with a devastating assault on the major college records.

Bevo stuck his name on top of the record list for single-season totals last night by grabbing 59 points against Anderson, Ind. His performance gave him 988 in 20 games this season, 18 more than the old mark set by Johnny O'Brien of Seattle in 35 games in 1951-52.

• • •

The 6-9 Ohio sophomore with five games left is a cinch to wind up with the best single-season average, single-season total, two-year average and single-game high. He set the one game mark of 113 points last week.

Selvy, a 6-3 wizard, shines just as brightly against much tougher competition. He added 35 points last nightt against George Washington to his already record-breaking total for a three-year career which now stands at 2,046 points.

• • •

With a minimum of nine games to play — more if Furman gets lucky in the tournaments — Selvy also will establish a record average per game for a three-year career, for a single season and for any two seasons in addition to the best single-season total and best two-season total.

The only mark that apparently will elude the Southerner is the individual game high. His best so far is 63 last season against Mercer. The record is 73 by Temple's Bill Mlkvy in 1951.

Bevo's spree last night paced Rio Grande to a 101-85 victory over Anderson' but Selvy's scoring was in a losing cause as Furman dropped its first Southern Conference game 102-97 to the 10th ranking Colonials from Washington.

Holy Cross, No. 9, smothered Springfield, Mass., 92 - 68, and eighth-ranking Seattle ran its winning streak to 24 after an opening game loss with an 85-72 conquest of Puget Sound.

• • •

Wake Forest mopped up on Clemson 98-57 and Duke nipped North Carolina State 90-89 on two free throws by Rudy Lacy and a goal by Don Tobin in the closing seconds in Atlantic Coast Conference games.

In other action Wichita won its 20th against three losses, 89-60 over Drake; Niagara routed Siena 74-50; Villanova edged Seton Hall 61-59; and Bradley beat De Paul 80-69.

Numerical Progression!

Three bowlers in the Women's Oakland County league recently had a run of numerical oddities, in their night's scores:

D. France hit 88-89-90. E. Gibson boosted her score by nines, turning in 74-83-92 while P. Hoadley gained a point each line, 130-131-132.

Spartans' Junior Coaches Due to Get 'Chief' Posts

EAST LANSING (AP) — Junior football coaches at Michigan State are expected to move up to chief assistants when Hugh (Duffy) Daugherty names his slate of helpers.

Daugherty, appointed to succeed Biggie Munn as head football coach, will submit his nominations to the state board of agriculture Feb. 19.

Although Daugherty isn't talking for publication, it is expected that the younger assistants will fill in the vacant positions.

Don Mason, from Detroit's Wayne High and a guard on the 1948 and 1949 Spartan teams, is reported to be Daugherty's choice to succeed him as line coach.

Assistant coach Bob Devaney and freshman coach Danny Devine are expected to move in as backfield and end coach — although it isn't certain yet which assistant will fill which job.

Devaney, graduate of Saginaw Arthur Hill and Alma College, came in as an assistant last year after seven years at Alpena High. Devine, four-letter man at the Duluth Branch of the University of Minnesota, coached at East Jordan High before moving to MSC in 1951.

Everett (Sonny) Grandelius of Muskegon Heights, an All-America back at Michigan State and a former pro player, is scheduled to be hired as an assistant, probably as a freshman coach.

There have been persistent reports that Burt Smith, Flint Northern coach, also will be hired as an assistant.

Case—The V Is Forward.

All Experts Have It—Topflighters have form variations in stance and footwork. Some start erect. Others break at the waist. Some start from left of alley-center.

Others at center, or even a bit to the right of center. Footwork comes in three or more steps.

But all have one thing that is precisely the same: The position of the hand in releasing the ball.

The "V" formed by the thumb and index finger points straight ahead for direction, leaving the fingers to apply what little lifting hook-spin is needed to send the ball into the 1-3 pins strike pocket.

After all, the ball must travel 60 feet, which produces either a large hook or a sharp-breaking one, depending on ball speed. The experts guard against over-turning of the ball by reaching straight out after ball delivery, as match champion Don Carter is doing in the action sketch.

In fact, he sort of pushes the ball on its way. If you are hitting the head pin on the nose consistently, add to your reach. Keep the thumb forward, as Carter does.

Sparrow Fourth in Loop Scoring

Former PHS Star Has 19.3-Point Average in Seven MVC Games

Former Pontiac High star Guy Sparrow ranked 4th in the Missouri Valley Conference's individual basketball scoring statistics released today.

The 6-foot 5-inch University of Detroit junior has scored 135 points in seven games for a 19.3 average.

Ahead of Sparrow are Cleo Littleton of Wichita with 20.3, Bob Mattick of Oklahoma A & M with 19.8 and Dick Boushka of St Louis with 19.5.

BREAKS OWN RECORD—Neil Johnston of Philadelphia Warriors tossed in 41 points at Spencer, Ia., Monday night to equal his own seasonal scoring record in the National Baksetball Association. His 14 field goals and 13 free throws were not enough, however, as the Warriors lost to the Minneapolis Lakers, 106-91.

Browns' Collier Snubs Kentucky Grid Offer

CLEVELAND, O. (UP)—Backfield coach Blanton Collier said today he would remain with the Cleveland Browns instead of accepting an offer of the head football coaching job at the University of Kentucky.

Collier met with coach Paul Brown in Ft. Myers, Fla., Tuesday in a conference that lasted about an hour. He flew to Florida from his home in Paris, Ky., to talk over the offer with Brown.

Collier was offered the job at Kentucky following the resignation of Paul (Bear) Bryant.

Coach Refuses to Make Game Trips by Plane

WAKE FOREST, N. C. (AP)—Bones McKinney, assistant basketball coach at Wake Forest College, refuses to travel by airplane if he can get to his destination any other way.

During his career as a pro basketball player, McKinney traveled thousands of miles but never on a plane. After the Wake Forest squad competed in the 1953 Steel Bowl tournament at Pittsburgh they had to catch a plane to make a fast trip to Lexington, Ky., for a game with the University of Kentucky.

At Charleston, W. Va, the plane landed to refuel, and in the descent the craft was bounced around. After McKinney had alighted, one player asked him:

"Were you scared, coach?"

"Let's not put it that way," he replied. "Let's just say life seemed to be a little uncertain."

Former Owosso Coach Gets Indian Grid Job

FLINT (UP)—William Doolittle, head football coach at Owosso the past two seasons, was named today as head grid coach at Flint Central High School.

Doolittle, former Ohio State player, succeeds the veteran mentor, Howard Auer, who retired after the 1953 season.

Minors Ask Cardinals to Cut Down TV, Radio

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Representatives of each minor league classification will end a three-day study committee meeting here today with their final closed session.

The committee, studying ways to help the minors, sent a request yesterday to the St. Louis Cardinals to cut television and radio broadcasts in their territory.

Leslie O'Connor, chairman of the seven-man committee, described broadcasts as "the most serious and pressing problem" facing the minors.

MILWAUKEE — Ed Matthews home run swatter, is known as one of the best left-handed hitters of left-handed pitchers in the major leagues today.

'Chairoteers' Beat Coast 5 for 1st Time

RICHMOND, Va. (INS) — The Richmond "Chairoteers" last night defeated the Long Beach, Calif., "Flying Wheels" for the 1st time in seven years, 29-28, before a capacity crowd at McGuire VA Hospital Gymnasium.

Loss gave the California basketball team a 4-4 record on their coast-to-coast tour of veterans hospitals, sponsored by the Los Angeles Herald-Express. All teams are composed of paralyzed veterans.

Ray Preston was Richmond's high scorer, with 10 points. Jack Chase and Al Halverson topped the losers, with 5 points each.

"Flying Wheels" fly to Memphis, Tenn., tomorrow for a game with the Kennedy VA Hospital "Dead Enders" on Friday night.

Jim Piersall of the Boston Red Sox led the American League in sacrifice hits during the 1953 season with 19.

Vatican 'Foreign Minister' Very Busy as Popes' Aid

By ALDO FORTE
United Press Staff Correspondent

ROME (UP) — A tall, suave priest who guides Vatican affairs in times of crisis is known to Roman Catholic churchmen as "the shadow of the Pope."

He is Msgr. Giovanni Battista Montini, one of the Vatican's two pro-secretaries of state.

During the current illness of Pope Pius XII, the slim, bald monsignor has been the busiest man in the Vatican as the link between the pontiff's sickbed and the outside world.

The priest often is seen rushing down the drafty corridors from the secretariat of state to the papal bedroom with a leather portfolio containing urgent church documents.

Montini, too, has kept the Pope informed on Vatican affairs during this fateful time of confinement.

Even though Montini is "outranked" by many other Vatican officials, he actually is "foreign minister" of this tiny independent state within a nation.

When the Pope become stricken with bronchitis 13 months ago, Montini and the other pro-secretary of state—Msgr. Dominico Tardini—took full charge of the Vatican's operations.

Montini, who comes from a family of politicians, lives in a small room near the Pope's apartment. He works about 15 hours a day, beginning with a recitation of mass shortly after dawn.

The Pope's right hand man never smokes, touches coffee or drinks wine, not even at official Vatican banquets. But he is a skillful diplomat.

After the beginning of World War II, diplomats of belligerent countries who had been forced to remain inside Vatican City gave a party for Montini.

When Montini entered the dining room, he noticed that the British minister unfortunately had been placed almost elbow to elbow with the German ambassador.

Montini calmly walked over and sat between the two.

The monsignor, who was born 57 years ago in the northern Italian city of Brescia, was the son of a deputy of the Italian Popular party which Benito Mussolini dissolved in the early days of fascism.

The party was revived after World War II as the Christian Democratic party, for which Montini's brother, Ludovico, is a deputy.

Montini was only 40 years old when Eugenio Cardinal Pacelli, then secretary of state, recognized his ability and made him an aide.

In 1944 Pacelli, who is now Pope Pius XII, named Montini as assistant secretary of state for ordinary affairs following the death of Luigi Cardinal Maglione, the Pope's secretary of state.

The Pope elevated Montini to the rank of pro-secretary of state on the very day in which he called his second consistory in 1953.

It was reported that at the time the Pope had offered Montini one of the 24 red hats of a cardinal. Montini thanked the pontiff but begged him for relief from any responsibility that would interfere with his job as "the shadow of the Pope."

Cereal Grains Today's Demand

CHICAGO (AP)—An agriculture department report showing very heavy impoundings of grains under the government loan stimulated demand for cereals on the board of trade today.

Wheat was particularly responsive to the figures on impoundings, the old crop month jumping around a cent before enough selling was uncovered to shave a part of the advance. Corn also was quite firm. Soybeans moved ahead early in sympathy with soybean meal but then lost most of their gains.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅜ to ⅝ cent higher, March $2.15, corn unchanged to ⅝ higher, March $1.53, oats ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, March 78½, rye unchanged to ¼ higher, March $1.23¾, soybeans ½ lower to ¼ higher, March $3.20 and lard unchanged to 2 cents a hundred pounds lower, March $16.75.

Wants to Up Pay for Unemployed

Ferguson Also Favors Longer Time Period; Talks to Wilson

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich) went on record yesterday as favoring liberalization of Michigan unemployment benefits.

Ferguson told reporters that he thought the Michigan State Legislature should liberalize unemployment benefits. The period of time during which a person obtains unemployment compensation, as well as the amount, should be raised, he said.

Ferguson declared that a jobless man should receive adequate compensation to help him and his family through the unemployment period.

Ferguson also revealed that he had conferred with Defense Secretary Wilson over the Detroit-area unemployment situation.

The Michigan lawmaker said he had urged Wilson either to use standby military plants for war materials or make them available to private industry for production of civilian items.

Ferguson said it was his hope that by opening up these plants to either military or civilian production, the unemployment problem might be licked. He reported that Wilson had seemed "very sympathetic."

Market Narrow, 2 Divisions Up

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market moved along a narrow path today with the aircrafts and railroads higher.

Neither of these divisions extended their gains very much, and with few exceptions gains and losses throughout the list were confined to minor fractions.

However, Texas Pacific Land Trust was up between 1 and 2 points at times. It was up 5¼ yesterday at 123¼. Other oils were quietly steady.

Steels and motors were lower along with the chemicals. The rubbers were higher, but that section didn't get the attention accorded the rising rails and aircrafts.

Among higher stocks were New York Central, which started on a block of 2,600 shares up ¼. Santa Fe, Goodyear, Boeing, and Douglas Aircraft.

Lower were U. S. Steel, General Motors, National Distillers, American Telephone, Kennott Copper, and American Cyanamid.

RKO remained unchanged and was traded quietly, in sharp contrast to the excitement surrounding the stock in its spectacular rise on Howard Hughes offer to buy outstanding shares at $6.

Rep. Bramblett to Fight Verdict

Lawyers Promise Battle to Overturn Conviction in Payroll 'Kickbacks'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lawyers for Rep. Bramblett (R-Calif) promised a legal fight today all the way to the Supreme Court, if necessary, to try to overturn his conviction on charges of falsifying his congressional office payroll in a salary "kickback" scheme.

Bramblett had nothing to say after a federal court jury brought in its verdict against him yesterday, but his attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, told newsmen: "This conviction won't stand."

The jury deliberated about an hour and 40 minutes before convicting Bramblett on several payroll charges.

Bramblett, 52, is serving his fourth term in the House. His home is in Pacific Grove, Calif.

After each juror verified the verdict at Williams' request, the defense lawyer asked U. S. District Judge Walter M. Bastian to allow Bramblett to remain free under $2,500 bail. The judge agreed.

Next Williams asked the judge to set aside the verdict, but the judge told him to put this in writing along with his other motions, including one for a new trial.

Bramblett will not be sentenced until all motions have been disposed of. Each of the seven counts on which he was convicted carries a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a fine of $10,000 but the maximum is rarely imposed.

Conviction carries with it no requirement that Bramblett give up his House seat. Only the House can decide the qualifications of its members and separate ouster proceedings would have to be conducted there.

Vietminh Rebels Line Up Forces

1,500 Approach Closer to Capital of Laos With Assault Due Soon

SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—Fifteen hundred Vietminh rebels were reported 6 to 12 miles from Luang Prabang today but the French said they were only lining up supplies for the bulk of the Communist-led forces threatening the royal capital of Laos.

The French maintained most of the 12,000 rebels who invaded the Indochinese kingdom of Lao last week still were 50 miles north of Luang Prabang, resting up in the valley around Nam Bac.

Military observers believed the invaders, after covering 120 miles through mountainous jungle, had stopped to recuperate and replenish their supplies. There was speculation any assault on Luang Prabang might not come before early next week.

Both in Saigon and Hanoi, the two major French command centers, the belief flourished that the Vietminh might not even attack the hometown of Laos' aged King Sisavang Vong. The rebels last spring marched up almost to the royal doorstep, then withdrew without trying an assault.

But the French conceded that even if the Vietminh did not follow through on their current threat, they already had forced the French-Laotian forces to withdraw from the northern part of the kingdom and had immobilized several battalions in Luang Prabang.

All Boy Scout and Cub units of Clinton Valley Council will have an active part in the service.

An offering will also be given to the Scouts to be used to defray mailing expenses on clothing which they are sending to Dick Brown, a former Waterford Township Scout who is now stationed in Seoul, Korea.

Brown and several of his Army buddies are aiding in the support of 200 Korean War orphans.

Expected to be present for the service are William Wells, Ottawa District executive, Edward Leland, Scout executive, and Loyal McMillin, director of field service. The public is also invited to attend.

Hotel Service Hit by Layoff Dispute

About 85 Hotel Pontiac patrons are without elevator or room service today after a strike was called yesterday by AFL Local 794 members, according to Frank G. Riley, president of the local. Dining rooms also were closed.

Riley said the strike followed discharge of four maids after Leslie C. Crane took over the hotel Feb. 1.

Crane said he first learned about the strike this morning, despite a five-day warning clause in the union's contract.

Crane said he found the hotel's wage scale below the legal minimum wage law for which the union contracted. "I raised hourly wages to meet the minimum standards and laid off four maids for economy reasons," he said. "They were not fired," he added.

1 Tax Proposal Will Be Scuttled

House Group Favors the Other 24 Points in Ike's Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—House tax writers said today they will reject only one major point in President Eisenhower's 25-point program for streamlining tax laws and giving individuals and business more than two billion dollars in annual reductions.

Action by the House Ways and Means Committee yesterday, approving a new tax cut for farmers, brought to 19 the number of White House proposals already approved in less than a month's work on the big overhaul job.

But both Republicans and Democrats on the committee agreed there isn't a chance that the committee will accept one remaining point.

• • •

This request—complex but significant—called for shifting corporation income taxes so that corporations would make four equal quarterly payments. Two of the payments in effect would be an advance on the next year's bills.

Under present law, most corporations will pay all of their 1953 tax bill in two equal payments this year, due on March 15 and June 15.

The result is that funds pour into the Treasury the first half of the calendar year, but returns are skimpy the last half. This is one of the big factors that led the administration to seek an increase in the national debt limit.

• • •

Eisenhower, outlining this point in his budget message, said, "The irregularity of tax receipts increases the problems in managing the public debt and is an unsettling influence in the money markets.

"It also may make it harder for corporations to manage their own financing."

But committee members who asked not to be quoted by name said many corporations are strongly opposed to the change. They added the proposal looks "dead as a doornail" so far as their committee is concerned.

• • •

One other big remaining point is a proposal to change the deadline for filing individual tax returns from March 15 to April 15. Committee members said this seems certain to be approved.

The tax change for farmers would permit deductions for expenses for soil and water conservation practices—an estimated 10 million dollar annual saving.

Deductions in any one year would be limited to 25 per cent of a farmer's gross income. But expenses not deductible in one year, because of that limit, could be carried over and deducted in later years.
