Moore Failed Lie Test, State Trooper Says

Pontiac General to Give Answer on County Offer

Hint Trustees to OK Use of Contagious Hospital During Building Project

An answer is expected "within a week or 10 days" from Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees on an offer from Oakland County Board of Supervisors to lease the Contagious Hospital during the city hospital's building program.

All indications point to the acceptance of the offer, Board members pointed out at last night's monthly meeting.

Board Vice Chairman Willis M. Brewer said a study was being prepared by Miss Lauretta Paul, hospital director, and the Joint Conference Committee, as to what services would be transferred to the county hospital.

Board members met yesterday with a special committee of the supervisors to discuss the offer and to tour the Contagious Hospital.

"I believe it is the feeling of all of us that the county is genuinely interested in providing these facilities to us," Trustee Harold S. Goldberg summarized.

The offer, made Oct. 1, stipulates that the city hospital would pay an undetermined rent and operating expenses of the Contagious Hospital for 18 months, or until its new addition is completed.

The county in turn would pay a per diem rate for any county patients treated at the Contagious Hospital.

The question was raised last night as to how many beds would be appropriated to Pontiac General.

"Some of these problems that have to be ironed out," according to Goldberg, "will be discussed at a second meeting with the county officials.

"The facilities are ours if we want them," Goldberg emphasized.

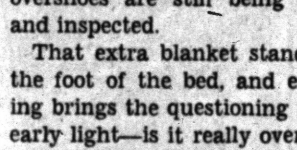
Have Things Ready

Indian Summer Here ---but for How Long?

When an area has been waiting, shivering, most of the summer for sunny days and warm temperatures, sometimes things get a little unusual when the decent weather arrives.

Like shopping for Halloween favors in Bermuda shorts . . .

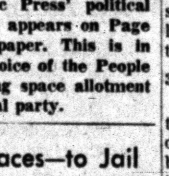
Or washing and waxing the car, when, by the calendar, you should be checking the anti-freeze.



As enticing as the current warm spell is, it brings a secret, furtive, smile and a hurry-up gait to many area residents.

"It's here, its wonderful, . . . but how long will it last?"

Dad pulls out the golf clubs he forgot to clean up before he put them away. After he loses three balls in the middle of leafy fairways, he puts them back.



Youngsters find out that perspiring skins and leaf piles combine to form all-over itches, which don't occur in cooler climes.

The first-time lawn sower is wreathed in smiles . . . The kibitzers said "It's too late now. You're wasting your seed and time," but it keeps coming up.

Football fans shade their eyes with programs, and talk of "the old days, when it was 20 degrees above, and the teams played in a snowstorm."

College grads reminisce of fall afternoons when classes were cut, and two-member expeditions sought bittersweet along the multi-colored paths.

Window-staring becomes an art again, as it did with the first warm days of spring.

But the household efficiency experts are not thrown off the track by these last lingering touches of enjoyable outdoortime. The overshoes are still being resurrected and inspected.

Potent Potion Produces Pickled Pigs

ATASCADERO, Calif. (UP) — Did you know that water and barley and pigs produces pickled pigs?

Neither did Jim Bentley, an Atascadero farmer, until yesterday.

Bentley thinks a lot of his three pigs. He gave them a special treat of barley soaked in water. Later he tried to herd them into their pen and found they couldn't move; just stared at him stupidly.

So Bentley rushed to the telephone and called a veterinarian.

Survivor Clings to Boat 9 Hours in Icy Waters Awaiting Help

DETROIT (UP)—Two men drowned and a third was rescued "more dead than alive" after clinging desperately for nine hours to an overturned boat in choppy, wind-blown Lake St. Clair yesterday.

Gilbert Metry, 26, the survivor, told of seeing his father-in-law and a friend tire of clinging to the bobbing boat and drown.

Victims of the fishing expedition were Charles Albert, 68, a fruit rancher from Reedley, Calif., and Martee Baro of Grosse Pointe.

Albert was Metry's father-in-law. He and his wife had been visiting the Metry house for two weeks.

Metry, an attorney, was rescued by a passing cruiser and taken to a nearby Mt. Clemens Hospital, where his condition was listed as "only fair."

When Thomas W. Cross of Mt. Clemens, and two fishing companions plucked Metry from the water, Cross said he "was more dead than alive" and "told us he couldn't have lasted another 10 minutes."

Metry said he, Albert and Baro went fishing in a 14-foot outboard motorboat. When the water became rough the other two panicked and stood up, causing the boat to overturn, he said.

"The three of us," he said, "clung to the boat but in about 30 minutes Albert slipped under the water. Baro held out until about three hours before I was picked up. It was awful watching his strength give out. I tried to hold him above water, but I was just too tired."

300 YARDS AWAY

Metry said he yelled at more than a dozen passing boats, some of which came within 300 yards, but his calls were drowned out by high winds.

Cross, Dorn Martell of Port Huron and Levi Yerks of Mt. Clemens finally passed close enough to hear him.

Metry's wife, Eva, 28-year-old mother of two, and Albert's wife were treated for shock at the hospital.

Lied 5 Times When Quizzed About Murder

Accused Killer Insists on Innocence, Explains Earlier 'Confession'

Howard Wayne Moore failed a lie detector test he voluntarily took to deny he killed Martha Little, 3, it was testified during the accused sex-slayer's first-degree murder trial this afternoon.

Operator of the test last Friday testified Moore lied when he answered "No" to five questions, including:

"Did you kill Martha Little? did you hit her? and did you sexually assault her?"

Results of the test had not previously been made public. Moore's attorney moved to introduce them after agreement by the prosecution and permission of Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick.

Stunned, Moore heard the results as the operator testified at the opening of the afternoon session. The morning session had ended after Moore, voluntarily on the stand, lashed out at his alleged confession by claiming a State Police detective lied under oath.

The brand of "false witness" was leveled against Det. Melvin Kaufman, who testified Wednesday Moore had agreed to show where the body was before he knew the little girl had been found.

Moore claimed Kaufman himself had revealed to him where the body was found after long questioning about what Moore had done with the girl. He claimed Kaufman told him:

"Never mind, you don't have to tell us now. We've found her."

SAYS HE'S INSANE

After Moore's cross-examination, a Pontiac psychiatrist began testimony that Moore is insane. He is Dr. L. Jerome Fink, who examined Moore for a sanity hearing last month and judged Moore a victim of "split personality for five to ten years."

Moore voluntarily took the stand earlier this morning to defend himself by saying, "I did not kill Martha Little."

After telling his story as a witness in his own behalf, Moore was pounced on by Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem, who led the accused sex-slayer question by

Fresh Attacks From Both Sides

Stevenson Lashes President's Aides, Especially Nixon

It came as his campaign manager was saying the presidential race has reached the point where "neither side is gaining" and victory could be achieved by winning over the "undecided" voters.

Stevenson fired a new broadside at Vice President Nixon, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and several other Cabinet members.

The Democratic presidential nominee said in an advance text of a talk here that as one example "a vote for Eisenhower is a vote for (Secretary of Agriculture) Benson, whose friendship for the farmer depends on the proximity of an election."

Stevenson's return to the assault of the men around Eisenhower appeared to be related to a decision of his strategists that while they believe they have halted any political gains by the President, Stevenson's prospects also have leveled off.

James E. Finnegan, Stevenson's campaign manager, said in his opinion the presidential contest has reached the point where voters who list themselves as undecided will tip the balance next month.

Coming from a two-day swing through Michigan and Ohio, Stevenson ripped into Eisenhower's statement that Nixon is the "best qualified man to serve" as vice president.

Asserting that the Republican congressional leaders value Eisenhower as a candidate but ignore him as a party leader, Stevenson said that if Eisenhower is re-elected, "the Republican party leadership team will take over."

2 Days of Action for Top Candidates

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

TODAY

Eisenhower—Speaks in Hollywood Bowl.

TOMORROW

Kefauver—Tours California.

Eisenhower Aims Big Guns at Foe in Talk Tonight

PORTLAND, Ore. (UP)—President Eisenhower, still banging away at Adlai Stevenson's military draft and H-bomb views, travels to California today "to continue to lay the facts on the line."

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty indicated Eisenhower will fire another salvo of criticism at Stevenson in a major address in Hollywood Bowl tonight.

In California, with 32 electoral votes, the President goes into the thick of a hot battle against the Democrats. Eisenhower carried the state in 1952, but Stevenson forces claim they have a good chance to win it this year.

Last night an overflow audience in the 4,700-seat public auditorium in Portland applauded as Eisenhower—without mentioning Stevenson by name—said:

"I have not promised you—nor do I ever intend to—that the way to defend peace or freedom is to abandon simultaneously our military draft and testing of our most advanced military weapons, under the circumstances of today's world.

"For I know—as I believe all Americans know — that, without strength in this world of today, the road to surrender is paved with good intentions."

This Vodka Story Packs Punch for Reds

Publicker Distillers Products said it had historical and scientific proof that the drink came from the American continent.

John L. Leban, Publicker executive vice president, declared vodka started as a distillate known as "Chakta" in Peru. It was carried to the North American Continent and then transmitted by the Norsemen to Europe in the 11th century, he added.

The company challenged the Soviets to rebut their claim.

Sen. Kefauver to Speak at Berkley Wednesday

Sen. Estes Kefauver, Democratic candidate for vice president, will speak at a luncheon in Berkley Wednesday as part of his second campaign appearance in the state.

He will speak at the Northwood Inn at the noon luncheon sponsored by Oakland and Wayne County Democratic Business and Professional Committees.

Start to Unsnarl Underpass Jam

State Road Department, to Straighten Curves, Put In Sidewalk

State Highway Department traffic engineers yesterday started work on improving the detour at Telegraph road and Orchard Lake avenue, Don R. MacDonald, chairman of the Roads Committee of the County Board of Supervisors, said today.

MacDonald announced yesterday George M. Foster, deputy highway commissioner, has agreed to improve the detour around the half-finished underpass just west of the intersection, intended to carry traffic on the relocated Telegraph road.

Improvements will include widened pavement, easing of two sharp curves in the road, installation of a sidewalk and surveys for a special three-way traffic light to allow left turns off Orchard Lake avenue, Foster promised.

He said a third lane will be installed for left turns.

Work on the underpass has been stalled for a month. Highway Department officials have blamed the recent strike, which they said has delayed steel delivery for the job.

Warm Day to Greet Small Game Hunters

The vicinity of Pontiac will be fair tonight, with a low of 48 to 52 degrees predicted by the U.S. Weather Bureau.

Tomorrow will be cloudy and warmer for the opening of Michigan's small game hunting season. A high of 70 to 74 is expected for downtown Pontiac.

Last night in downtown Pontiac, the low was 40. The mercury inched up to 64 degrees at 2 p.m. today.

Burning Leaves? Save $3, Keep Fires Off Streets

Pontiac police already have handed out several $3 tickets for that city ordinance violation, Chief Herbert W. Straley said today.

The ordinance applies to improved streets, such as concrete or asphalt. Fires are liable to cause costly cracks, Straley explained.

He thought many residents may have forgotten the ordinance or be unaware of it.

He'll Go Places—to Jail

NEW YORK (INS)—An unidentified man turned a New York bakery into a hock shop last night. Police reported he looted the cash register of $37 and left his ring and watch with the clerk, Joseph Tartaglia of Newark, N. J., as "collateral."

Nails on the Trail

KALAMAZOO (UP)—It took more than two hours to rake up 50 pounds of nails scattered along a heavily traveled highway in Kalamazoo. County Road Commission employes and sheriff's deputies did the work after blocking off the area to prevent an epidemic of punctured tires. Authoritjes said they believe the nails were dropped by pranksters.

Airport Runway Dedication Set

Open 4,000-Foot Strip Oct. 28, Making Field Safer for Larger Planes

Dedication of Pontiac Municipal Airport's new 4,000-foot runway will be Sunday, Oct. 28, at 3 p.m., Homer C. Hoskins, airport manager, anounced yesterday.

Tentative plans are for some 10 corporation-owned aircraft from the larger DC-3 to single-engine planes to line the east-west strip during the ceremony.

Mayor William W. Donaldson is expected to head a delegation of city commissioners and officials. The mayor will be invited to cut a ribbon officially opening the longest strip at the city field.

Commissioners and officials will then load into planes to be the first to take off and land on the runway.

The new strip has just recently been completed. With 2,000-foot clear approaches at both Airport and Williams Lake roads, the large 8,000-foot stretch will allow for larger planes to use the local field with safety.

Due to Civil Aeronautics administration and state regulations, airport officials have warned the public that they will be prohibited from entering the airstrip where the ceremony will take place.

They added that the public may park in the airport lot and witness the landing and take-offs of the participating planes.

6 Others Die in Illinois Gas Explosion

Norway Munitions Blast Kills 4, Hurts 12

OSLO, Norway (UP)—At least four persons perished and a dozen were hurt in an explosion today at an atom-bombproof government ammunition works dug into the mountain 65 miles north of Oslo.

A spokesman for the Raufoss works said four bodies had been recovered three hours after the blast occurred, in a hall where normally about 100 persons work. There was no immediate word as to the cause of the explosion.

The police commissioner at the nearby town of Gjoevik said the explosion occurred in the mountain cave division of the ammunition works early today.

"There are several dead, and hospitals here have received many wounded, but I do not know how many," he added.

The Raufoss works, owned by the Norwegian government, makes ammunition and high explosives, including ammunition for NATO forces.

Immediately after the explosion, the area around Raufoss was blocked to civilian traffic. Civilian defense units from Oslo were dispatched and police from the Raufoss and Gjoevik areas were called in for emergency service.

Hospitals as far away as 80 miles from Raufoss were commandeered.

HERRIN, Ill. (UP)—A bottled gas depot was raked by explosions and fires Thursday that caused six deaths and injuries to seven others.

A mother, her 3-year-old son, and two other children perished in the blasts and two of the injured died today.

The explosion yesterday spread flames over an area nearly a block from the depot. Five houses were destroyed. Witnesses reported four or five separate explosions.

Doctors at Herrin Hospital said "there are a lot of injured we won't be able to do anything for."

Moore Denies Killing on Witness Stand

The confession, which Moore has repudiated, had been read by Ziem during the first two days of the first-degree murder trial.

Answering in a tight voice, sometimes in whispers, Moore declared he had confessed because "anything is possible when I've been drinking."

The girl's body was found next day off a deserted lovers' lane 11 miles from home. Moore, arrested the night before (Friday), allegedly drove her there in his car. His confession came Saturday.

During examination by his counsel, Carl Ingraham of Birmingham, Moore earlier today testified he confessed after hours of questioning when he was "sick and felt rotten."

"They (the detectives) kept asking me, " 'Is it possible you hit Martha with a tire-iron,' and I answered, 'It's possible.' That's the way the confession went."

Moore began his testimony describing briefly events after he had left work in mid-afternoon. He said he had his car parking lights repaired and visited his mother in Oxford, where "nothing unusual" happened.

Moore said, "I'm not sure, but I think after that I went to the Buckhorn Barbecue (in Lake Orion). I played a couple games of bumper pool. Then I went home."

"Martha was there, I think. I don't remember if it was the first or second time I went home that she was there."

He continued without emotion, "Anyway, she asked me if I would take her for a ride in my car. I told her, 'No, maybe my wife and I will go for a ride tomorrow (Saturday) and we'll take you then.'

"Her older sister Peggy was there. We sang songs."

Ingraham then asked if Moore meant he sang to them.

Moore answered firmly, "We all sang."

"That I do not know. I've tried to remember, but I can't even remember what direction I took.

"The first thing I remember they were arresting me at the Pure Oil Station (in Lake Orion). That was about 10:45.

"They took me to jail and booked me on a drunk and disorderly charge. We went down to the basement and they took my clothes away (for tests) and gave me a different pair of pants to wear."

Ingraham then asked, "How were you dressed when arrested?"

Moore sighed and said, "In my bluejeans, shoes and socks, not mentioning his blood-spattered tee-shirt which detectives say they found on the road leading to the gas station.

"They kept questioning me about Martha Little," Moore continued, his voice rising. "We talked—oh, I don't know how long—maybe 14 or 15 hours."

He mentioned Sheriff Frank Irons, his detectives Jack Davis and Don Francis and State Police detectives Charles Leaf and Melvin Kaufman as his interrogators.

"I was physically sick; I felt rotten, and they kept questioning me," Moore said.

"What happened then?" Ingraham asked.

Moore shrugged his shoulders. "The confession," he said.

"You mean the statements read (by Ziem) to the Jury?" Ingraham asked. "Did you make those statements?"

"Well, it wasn't quite like that," Moore said.

Moore's older brother, Lewis, of Pontiac, earlier testified he had seen Moore leaving work about 3:30 Friday. He said Moore played "normally" with his (Lewis') children.

The brother was not cross-examined.

By DOROTHY JEAN ZACK

BIRMINGHAM—Marquis Childs predicted that if President Eisenhower is elected, John Foster Dulles will retain his cabinet post, but other cabinet members will want to be relieved, as the commentator talked to 1,200 women at Town Hall yesterday.

"I am told Mr. Wilson would like to resign," he said of Secretary of Defense C. E. Wilson.

"Eisenhower will be re-elected not because of issues debated but because of the extraordinary symbol value of the man himself and the power of the presidency," he said at the Town Hall talk at Birmingham Theater.

His guess of the cabinet future came at the Birmingham Country Club, where 150 attended the celebrity luncheon and plied him with questions in informal session afterward.

"Deepest issue before the American public isn't being talked about by either candidate," he said, referring to integration. "Nullification of the Supreme Court order would be as damaging as the withdrawing of prohibition," he said.

Of the Suez situation, Childs said "we probably won't know until after Nov. 6 and Nasser has gained time.

"But Soviet Russia has gained a foothold in Egypt, a goal of 200 years, dating back to the days of the Czar."

"Most of the nations we want to win to our side, in the struggle with Communism, are people with color," Childs pointed out. He quoted a Britisher's opinion "Another Autherine Lucy or Alabama mob episode in the newspapers will seriously undermine the world's opinion of the United States."

"Bloopers" happen in campaign talks, Childs said, bringing laughter with a few heard on campaign whistle stops, where he has followed both presidential candidates in recent weeks.

He mentioned Stevenson's use of such terms as "perpetrating a compound fracture of the truth," in quoting Woodrow Wilson repeatedly and questioned its understanding by whistle-stop audiences.

Nixon, he said, is soft-pedaling comments on possible Communist leanings of candidates, which may have damaged his former campaign in several states.

"It seems improbable that an incumbent president in a time of high prosperity could be defeated," Childs said, saying that it has happened in only four cases in the nation's history, one with Hoover in the depths of the depression.

Arthur's Notes 40th Year of Service to Customers

ARTHUR A. ROSENTHAL

Behind the current 40th anniversary of Arthur's Women Apparel shop in Pontiac is a gray-haired, bespectacled gentleman—Arthur A. Rosenthal—who wishes to stay in the background when it comes to business success.

"Mr. R" or "A. R." as his veteran staff calls him, has been in the retail business since he was 16 when he earned $6 a week at his uncle's store in Petoskey.

"I'm not too big and not too little," Rosenthal says modestly. "I just stay in the background where nobody has to put a sign on me."

Rosenthal and his nephew opened the present store in 1916 at the same location it is today—48 N. Saginaw St. He was still maintaining the Globe Department Store in Traverse City at the time, which he sold prior to his nephew's death.

At its opening, the Pontiac store was 20 by 80 feet in size. Since that time, it has blossomed to seven times this size.

A staff of 85 is on hand to "stress good old-fashioned hospitality where you treat all customers as invited guests," as store manager David H. Horowitz explained.

Rosenthal attributes success to style of merchandise, honesty, sincerity, charity, benevolence, and believing "there's only one price for a particular item."

He was born in Poland "on the other side of the fence." He wants to keep his age secret because "that's my business."

"He's the most wonderful man to know and to work for," a veteran saleswoman of more than 30 years at the store exclaimed.

Rosenthal said Pontiac "has a great future," and that its proximity to neighboring cities prompted him to establish business here.

He is married and lives with his wife at 210 Ottawa Dr. The Rosenthals have one daughter residing in California and a son, James, who is in charge of buying for the store.

Sunday morning at 10, a Solemn High Mass will be offered for parishioners. St. Frederick students and members of the parish will honor Father Marcero at a reception and program in the parish hall at 8 p.m. Sunday.

Detroit Group Wins School Designs Awards

H. E. Beyster and Associates of Detroit won the class C and D secondary school first place awards for their designs of the new Madison Junior High School of Pontiac and Holly High School.

The awards were announced at the eighth annual Michigan School Board Conference Wednesday at Michigan State University.

The top class A elementary school award went to Yamasaki Leinweber and Associates of Royal Oak for their Livonia Public School design.

Smith, Tarapata, MacMahon Associates of Birmingham received the Class B elementary school award for the Harlan Elementary School, Birmingham.

Honorable mention awards were won by O'Dell, Hewlett and Luckenbach Associates, Birmingham for the Kimball High School in Royal Oak and a special citation also went to Smith, Tarapata, MacMahon Associates for their design of the Farmington Junior High School.

This first contest was held to encourage better architectural solutions to educational problems, disseminate information on good school design and foster better relationships between architects and educators.

Dry Counties Slated for Extra Fire Gear

ALLEGAN (AP)—Conservation Department officials yesterday announced extra forest fire fighting equipment is being moved into Allegan and Barry Counties, driest of west Michigan's small game hunting areas.

Edward Clock of Plainwell, department supervisor for 11 southwest Michigan counties, said six pieces of equipment—mostly from the Upper Peninsula—are scheduled to be stationed in the Allegan State Forest and Yankee Springs areas.

The move is a precaution against fire accidentally started in the parched fields and woodlands by hunters and other outdoors enthusiasts.

"The area was filled with escaping gas," Cole said. "In some manner it was ignited. The flow kept increasing. Then one of the small tanks blew up and that set off the others."

Study Child Behavior for 15 Months in Flint

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A social research team from the University of Michigan has launched a 15-month study of childhood and adolescent behavior in Flint.

The study deals with children between 8 and 18 from different neighborhoods and family backgrounds. It includes those who are well adjusted and creative and those who are maladjusted and problem children.

The objective is to find new standards for identifying social situations that contribute to adjustment and maladjustment.

The program was adopted after the commission's Military Contracts Committee reported Michigan ranks 13th in military production.

Pontiac Deaths

Mrs. John Clarke

Mrs. John (Kate) Clarke, 69, died yesterday morning in her home, 1365 Baldwin Ave. of a heart condition. She had been ill for a year.

Born on May 4, 1887, she was the daughter of George and Nora Littlepage Crinshaw.

A member of the Methodist Church and the O.E.S. of Maysville, Mo. she had come to Pontiac from there 10 years ago.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Clarke is survived by two stepchildren, Mrs. Verna Mathis of Pontiac and Marjorie Clarke of Almont, a nephew, Dr. George Riggs of Hamilton, Ohio; two nieces, Mrs. Mary Ayers of Gallapin, Mo. and Mrs. Catherine Rock of Colorado.

Mrs. Clarke's body was sent from the Huntoon Funeral Home this afternoon to the Pilcher Funeral Home in Maysville for service and burial.

Williams Hits GOP on Industrial Safety as Cobo Champions A-Plant at Monroe

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gov. Williams swung his campaign for re-election into industrial Bay County today where he depicted Republicans as being "against industrial safety law."

His Republican opponent, Mayor Cobo of Detroit, wound up a two-day tour of northeastern Michigan with a blast at Williams' actions in the controversy over the private atomic power plant at Monroe.

"It's an attack on development of utilities," Cobo said of the governor's questioning the safety of the fast-breeder type reactor. Cobo called Williams' action "a pilot step in a Socialist idea."

Williams and Walter Reuther, United Auto Workers president, demanded assurances the power plant being built by a combine of utilities will be safe. A technical advisory committee to the Atomic Energy Commission reported some safety questions remain to be resolved.

PROMISE SAFETY

Authority has been granted only to build the plant not to operate it. The Detroit Edison Co. which heads the group building the plant, says the safety factor will be ironed out before the reactor is run.

Williams told a Democratic group at Pinconning the Bay County Republican Committee has been circulating a handbill on industrial safety legislation which the governor called "a thorough job of misrepresentation and falsehood."

Williams hedgehopped through Macomb County Thursday, telling Democratic audiences Republicans "are preparing the ground for a decrease in taxes on big business and an increase in taxes on the consumer and property owners of Michigan."

He ripped into Williams on the highway issue as "the one person who has been most detrimental to your getting highways."

Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart told a Democratic rally in Chesaning Cobo is trying to ride into office on the coattails of President Eisenhower—coattails, Hart predicted, that won't stretch "from the Potomac to Lansing."

In Grand Rapids, the presidential nominee of the Socialist Labor party said police stopped him from speaking in Kalamazoo Thursday, despite permission from the city. Police said Candidate Eric Hass didn't have a permit for the street-corner speech he attempted to make.

Hass said he will demand an apology from the city. In a Grand Rapids speech he said either the Democratic or Republican parties are liable to lead the country into "a suicidal war."

Hass also spoke at Muskegon.

Pleads Not Guilty to Blocking Walk With Debris

Stephen L. Secora of 319 Orchard Lake Ave., pleaded not guilty this morning before Municipal Court Judge Maurice E. Finnegan to a charge of violating a city ordinance prohibiting obstruction of city sidewalks.

A warrant for his arrest was issued when numerous complaints reached several city commissioners about tons of foundry sand, broken concrete and dirt filling a lot at the southwest corner of Orchard Lake and Chapman.

Examination by Pontiac Police showed 42 inches of earth pouring over onto the sidewalk because of the height of the dirt.

Maximum sentence for violation of Ordinance 578 is $100, or 90 days, or both.

Fast Police Nab Stolen Car Before Missed

Some alert police work by a pair of Oakland County Sheriff's deputies resulted in the recovery of a stolen car before it was known to be missing and the apprehension of the thief early this morning in Southfield Township.

John H. Thomas, 28, of 5205 25th St., Detroit, was taken into custody by officers James Rohm and Paul Carpenter. They said he admitted taking the car from a Detroit auto sales lot. He reportedly had said he borrowed the car prior to admitting his guilt.

The arrest was made on Northwestern Highway near Ten Mile Road. Deputies went to investigate the suspicious looking car parked on the side of the highway after noticing a woman in the vehicle waving her arms as if she were in trouble.

During the questioning, the woman could shed no light on where Thomas got the car but said he had parked against her wishes and had made improper advances.

Eden Appoints Defense Chief

Anthony Head Named as Premier Defends Handling of Reservists

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Eden named a new and younger defense minister today and at the same time brushed aside complaints about the handling of reservists called back into uniform because of the Suez Canal crisis.

Eden promoted 50-year-old War Secretary Antony Head to the post of minister of defense. Head, who succeeds Sir Walter Monckton, 65, has insisted right along that army reservists will have to stay in uniform until the Suez Canal dispute with Egypt is settled.

Monckton was named paymaster general and remains in the Cabinet. He asked to be released from "the constant and mounting strain" of the defense office.

The government announcement of the changes made no reference to the numerous complaints of the handling of the reservists. But Head's elevation was a clear sign of Eden's confidence in him and was expected to strengthen the minister's hand against Labor party criticism when Parliament resumes sessions next week.

Proving Women Lead Men to Early Grave?

BOSTON (AP)—Charles W. Thiery, who will be 106 years old on Oct. 26, says his good health could be attributed to his lack of interest in women.

The white whiskered bachelor said women are just as beautiful today as they were in the last century, but he added: "I never paid much attention to them. Marriage is not for me."

Diver Victorious on Unpaid Bet —Loses to Judge

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — Herman Comparoni never collected on his $5 bet and had to pay $50 fine for his bridge leap Oct. 6.

The 30-year-old man said a passer-by bet him $5 he wouldn't jump from the 25-foot-high Second River Bridge in Branch Brook Park. But he did, landing in six inches of water. He was hospitalized for head and ankle injuries.

Magistrate Robert A. McKinley fined him $50 yesterday as a disorderly person.

Comparoni said he never found the passer-by to collect the bet.

Lutherans Eye New Laws for Divorce, Birth Control

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Basic changes wese asked this week in the United Lutheran Church stand on divorce, scrapping precise obstacles to remarriage in favor of more psychological guidposts.

The proposal, one of the major issues before the church's biennial convention, was part of a many-pronged report, but delegates never got around to the key section.

It also recommends endorsement of birth control, a position taken in recent times by two other influential Protestant churches.

With action on the proposal deferred until later, the convention shifted its attention to zooming financial aspirations — a budget for 1958-59 two-thirds bigger than for 1956-57.

REASONS FOR IT

It would total 25 million dollars compared to 15 million for the current two years — in which an outlay of about 7½ million each year is contemplated.

Dr. Otto K. Jensen of Indianapolis, chairman of a Finance Committee, said the heavily increased budget proposals were made for these reasons:

"The urgent need of church boards and other causes, some of them of emergency proportions and rapidly, even spectacularly increasing opportunities for expansi and more effective service."

The proposed revision of the church's position on remarriage w contained in a report of the Board of Social Missions, headed by the Rev. Dr. Oscar Carlson of Baltimore.

It asked the church to abandon its 28-year-old rule that sanctions remarriage only of the "innocent party" in a divorce granted because of adultery or desertion.

Instead, the church would consider both parties as sharing in the guilt, of violating "God's order" and being involved in the "sin and suffering" that accompanies any marriage breakups.

The proposed statement condemns birth control for "selfish reasons" but approves it in order to plan the number of children in accordance with ability to provide fully for them. It says "irresponsible conception of children up to the limit of biological capacity and selfish limitations of the number of children are equally detrimental."

Egyptian Women Feel Sting of Suez Dispute

CAIRO (INS)—Egyptian women have been told they will have to do without French and British cosmetics.

The newspaper Al Goumhouria said women will have to get used to the idea of doing without such cosmetics as a result of the Suez dispute.

The newspaper said women should be boycotting British and French cosmetics anyway, because in 1955 more than $900,000 was spent for imported perfumes, powder, lipstick and face creams.

'Motorists Determine Car Insurance Rates'

Auto insurance rates are primarily the product of the number of traffic accidents multiplied by the cost-per-accident, members of the Pontiac Optimist Club were informed yesterday by John Imesch, of the Michigan Insurance Information Service.

Every motorist has a chance to control the first factor, in fact he is the only one who can, Imesch said.

Robin Hood Runs Afoul in Times Square

NEW YORK (AP)—A New Jersey youth wearing a Robin Hood outfit and carrying bow and arrows was picked up in Times Square last night while offering to shoot an apple off the head of any willing person.

David Hahn, 19, Hasbrouck Heights, N.J., was standing at the corner of Broadway and 43rd St. He was wearing a green Robin Hood costume, hunter's cap and deerskin jacket. He carried a large bow and two steel-tipped arrows.

Freed in $10 bail for a later hearing, Hahn refused to talk about the incident. Police said it might have been part of a fraternity initiation. Hahn was charged with disorderly conduct.

Nixon to Rest Over Weekend

Finishes 25,000-Mile Tour, Plans Another Starting Monday

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — Vice President Nixon completed today 25,000 miles of campaign travel. He then will take a weekend rest.

With speeches here today and in Baltimore tonight, he completes his second major cross-country swing. Monday he starts a third, more concentrated tour.

Nixon's theme for his talks today is the same he has been using in most of his addresses in 14 states during the past 10 days — his view that Adlai Stevenson "just isn't in the same league" as President Eisenhower when it comes to leadership in international or domestic affairs.

Nixon predicted the United States will come through the present crisis over racial desegregation in public schools as, he said, it has surmounted in the past such things as the Ku Klux Klan and the antiforeign Know Nothing movement.

"Most of us here will live to see the day when American boys and girls shall sit side by side at any school, public or private — with no regard paid to the color of their skin," Nixon said.

Nixon said the United States will work first to remove from the world the fear of war and the burden of armament, then seek by exchange of persons and other means to convince Communist governments that "even on their materialist assumptions, they must restore full freedom if their society is to work."

On his way to New York, Nixon traveled in a motorcade through industrial and usually heavily Democratic areas in southern New England. In general, crowds turned out for him, though there were boos at some places.

Fake Draft Cards Sold

CINCINNATI (AP)—Polise arrested Paul Curtis, 18, of Cincinnati, who, they said, had been selling "false draft cards" to juveniles. Investigators said Curtis made reproductions of his own draft card using a photostat machine where he worked. Police quoted Curtis saying his "customers" wanted the cards for proof of age for leaving school and getting jobs.

Polio Losing Another Round

As the fight against polio moves ever closer to complete victory, two interesting news dispatches appeared in newspapers recently. They informed readers that:

The Salk polio vaccine is becoming the powerful safeguard its backers claimed it would be; and,

A new vaccine, which can be taken by mouth and may give life-long immunity from polio has been developed.

The United States Public Health service reports that the nation now is experiencing its lightest polio year since 1947. From Jan. 1 to Sept. 29 there were 12,153 cases in the nation. For a comparable period in 1955 there were 23,010 cases reported.

Even more impressive is the record of the mass tests of the Salk vaccine.

Among the five to seven million persons given the properly spaced inoculations, not one case of paralytic polio has been authenticated, according to Dr. Hart Van Riper, medical director of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Confidence of Dr. Jonas E. Salk that his vaccine would be almost 100 per cent effective seems well on the way toward realization.

But the Salk vaccine has limitations.

Three innoculations at carefully controlled intervals are needed; length of immunity is not yet known.

Now comes a report that Dr. Albert B. Sabin, of the University of Cincinnati, has developed a new vaccine which can be taken by mouth. It utilizes a live virus, too weak to transmit the disease, but of sufficient strength to cause the human body to build up its own immunity. The new vaccine may possess two distinct advantages:

Obviously the swallowing of one capsule is to be preferred over three inoculations at controlled intervals;

The immunity by the new vaccine may be of long duration, even permanent.

Dr. Sabin reports to medical colleagues that early tests have shown encouraging results, but warns that many and extensive tests still must be made before these findings can be certified as conclusive.

He cautiously labels his work this far as merely another "step forward in the experimental studies on oral polio vaccine." Let no one assume that the new preventive will be available next week or the next. Much work remains to be done. Significant, however, are these facts:

We have available a highly effective safeguard in the Salk vaccine;

The search for an even better method of protection goes on, with good prospects for continuing success.

Illinois Wife's Nagging Spurs $50,000 Invention

It tells how a nagging wife there drove her husband into profitable invention guaranteeing him $50,000 and additional royalties. The lady in question, Mrs. Jane Tingley, admits that she griped every time she had to go down to add water conditioner during the rinse cycle to help get the detergent out of the family wash."

Tingley's solution for this problem was simplicity itself and was fashioned from two pie tins and a couple of tin cans. It has no moving parts and operates on centrifugal force. The device perches atop the machine's agitator and is filled with water conditioner when the clothes are put in.

During the spin cycle centrifugal force causes the liquid in the inner chamber to spill over into the outer chamber. When the agitator slows down for the rinse cycle, the liquid runs out into the water through holes in the bottom.

This homemade contraption operated so well and so delighted this modern Xanthippe (no disrespect intended) that Mr. Tingley decided to market it. Taking it to Chicago he showed it to Judson S. Sayre, president of Norge Division, Borg Warner Corporation, automatic washer manufacturers. Sayre asked his engineers to design a sleek production model of plastic and started a million dollar promotion.

There is need here for a word of caution. Think, gentlemen, what could happen to our domestic tranquility if the ladies, Heaven bless them, should decide to make Mrs. Tingley's technic their own.

Let's face it. Her sharp tongue, as Xanthippe's may well have done, got results. Perhaps it was the latter's nagging that made a great philosopher out of HER husband, Socrates!

It is no trouble for a person to reduce and remain unfat—if he doesn't mind being hungry all the time.

Boat Patronage Shows Our County Has What It Takes

Summer: What lingered in the lap of autumn.

An Oakland County lake is proving that we have right here in the Pontiac area what's necessary to get the public's money for water transportation—and give them full value and an enjoyable time. According to local director on the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, the passenger boat, "Island Queen," has almost paid for herself since last spring in carrying sightseers among the islands in Kent Lake. During the summer over 25,000 of them made the trip at 50 cents each, for a net revenue of $9,328. This rear-wheel boat was bought by the authority last spring and hauled here from Saugatuck where its operation had not been so profitable.

of 2300 Shimmons Road. The event took place recently near Gaylord, and 65 women participated. Mrs. Johnson was in the front ranks, but did not get a bear—which was about the batting average of most of the others. "But it was an enjoyable outdoor experience," she says.

Phone calls from

of Lake Orion, who has been watching the weather for over 50 years, and from

of Rochester, who has been doing the same thing almost as long, tell me that a warm autumn is almost invariably followed by an early and severe winter.

Several wild ducks who stopped over on Walled Lake for a few days on their southern migration, according to were so entranced by the warm weather that they flew back north.

Reds Back Adlai's H-Bomb Plan

WASHINGTON—The government of Communist Russia has backed up Adlai Stevenson's proposal to halt H-bomb tests. Moscow likes the idea because it would mean that no guarantees or system of inspection would be required to see that Soviet Russia kept her word.

In an unprecedented intrusion into an American political campaign Arkady A. Sobelov, Soviet delegate to the United Nations, said, according to an Associated Press dispatch from New York City, that Russia is willing to agree to halt the tests of all nuclear weapons "without conditions."

But since Adlai Stevenson has come up with the argument that H-bomb tests abroad can be detected and hence, as he sees it, there isn't any need for advance agreement on inspection, Moscow is quick to take advantage of the opening that the Democratic nominee has given the Kremlin.

Stevenson has no power today to negotiate with any foreign government in behalf of the United States. But the Communist government sees an advantage in publicly discussing his proposals because it helps the Kremlin in its negotiations and it assists Moscow's worldwide propaganda against America.

ALL OR NOTHING

The United States government, under the Eisenhower administration—and, indeed, under the Truman administration—has taken the position that disarmament is a package affair, and that to withhold the use or testing of certain weapons without limitation or regulation of the use of other weapons is impractical and unrealistic.

The Stevenson proposal, as he now explains it, is, therefore, what Soviet Russia really wants. And Sobelov says that, if the tests of the big bomb are stopped, Russia believes "this might be the first step toward a system of disarmament and eventual prohibition of the nuclear weapons."

There is, of course, no way of being assured that Soviet Russia would keep her agreement unless there was an inspection arrangement to make it foolproof. Scientists differ as to whether H-bomb explosions can be canceled. But Soviet Russia's position nevertheless has been given a big boost by Stevenson's latest proposals.

PLAY ON DIVISION

No matter what the outcome of the presidential election in the United States next month—even if Stevenson gets 27,000,000 votes as he did last time and Eisenhower gets 30,000,000—the Communist regime in Moscow will be able to point to a divided America.

This sort of division, which can be exploited abroad, is exactly what "bipartisanship" in foreign policy was supposed to prevent. But Stevenson today is not alone in making H-bomb tests an issue. He is backed by several Democratic senators, including Sen. Clinton Anderson of New Mexico, who is chairman of the House-Senate joint committee on atomic energy.

The Democrats on this committee made quite a fuss a few months ago claiming that they were not being given data by the Atomic Energy Commission. But nobody supposed then that the chairman of the committee, when possessed of important data on H-bomb tests, would appear on a nationwide television network to back up the nominee of a political party and divulge information obtained in this bipartisan committee—notably, some of the facts about America's system for detection of tests conducted by other countries. These facts had never before been so precisely expressed by anybody connected with the United States government.

Shields Warren, former chairman of the committee on the pathological effects of atomic radiation of the National Academy of Sciences, says that "to permit us to fall behind the Russians is disastrous; to wait for them to catch up to us is stupid."

But Adlai Stevenson has his own set of scientists, mostly from the 'left wing," who tell him what to say.

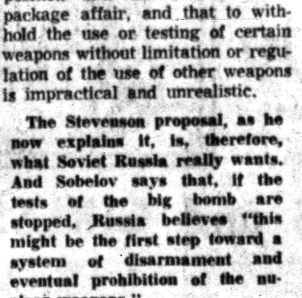
LI'L ONES



"Next time you ask directions 'as the crow flies,' find out which way it's flying!"

Dr. William Brady Says:

Capillary Blood Vessels Do Not Exist in Humans

No matter how thin you slice it, it's still baloney.

There are only two kinds of tubes or vessels that carry blood — arteries which convey blood from the heart to every part of the body, and veins which return blood from every part of the body to the heart, the right side of the heart, which pumps it to the lungs for oxygenation and decarbonation (removal of carbon dioxide, "carbonic acid gas") before it returns to the left side of the heart to be pumped again through general circulation.

Some oldtimers in medicine and related fields, observed that arteries carrying pure decarbonated and oxygenated blood to all parts of the body become smaller and smaller as they get farther and farther from the great trunk artery (aorta) and ultimately become so small that one can hardly see them at all except with magnifying glass or microscope. When the arteries become so small that they are invisible to the naked eye, they are called arterioles.

Yahbut, we still have the problem of unloading the oxygen from the blood and reloading it with carbon dioxide to be carried back to the lungs and blown off. How does the fresh, pure arterial blood get from the arteries or arterioles into the venules or veins?

This is/or would be an embarrassing question for an anatomist, a physiologist, or a pathologist to answer. But the oldtimers in the medical profession dispose of it as easily as they do other rude questions which only a stinker would ask, especially in the public prints, such as, "Why tell poor trusting souls they must take digitalis every day if they want to remain alive?" and, "How can you distinguish an illness or indisposition as a 'cold' before the nature of the illness becomes manifest?" The eminent medical authorities dispose of such impertinent questions in the way they have found satisfactory to their customers. They loftily ignore the challenge.

From years of research, I have concluded that "capillaries" were not invented by anyone. They got into medical literature as banshees, gremlins, and flying saucers got into popular literature.

No one has isolated a capillary vessel.

The truth is that where the ultimate, finest visible (under the microscope) arteriole terminates, the blood just oozes through the tissue where the cells pick up oxygen and give off carbon dioxide.

There are no capillary vessels, except in the imagination of doctors who still believe in "colds" and still ply their credulous clients with digitalis, as though the dropsy remedy introduced by the old woman of Shropshire were magic against heart failure.

Whether there are capillary vessels or not may be a question of no great significance. I harp on it here in the hope that intelligent laymen who realize I must be right about it may be led to wonder whether I may not be right about more important questions such as those asked above.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Allow Teenagers Responsibility

Bob's mother subconsciously regards him as a child though he is mentally an adult. Too many fathers and mothers try to carry the whole burden of parent-child relations. That's bad, for you should operate as a family team. Share your worries and let the kids help bear them with you.

BY DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, Bob has high ideals and teaches a Bible class in our Sunday school," his mother began.

"He is well liked by everybody and absolutely reliable. You can count on him in a crisis.

"But I was divorced when Bob was two years old and have remarried a wonderful man. Bob and his stepfather get along famously.

"Yet my first husband comes to see Bob occasionally. But he is an improvident boaster who brags about driving his car 90 miles per hour.

"He also tells about the times he has cheated the income tax collector and in general seems to have a very juvenile outlook on life.

"Bob is at ease with both his fathers and calls them Dad. But my present husband agrees with me that Bob's own father is not a stable influence on Bob.

"Furthermore, he never attempted to support Bob either before or after our divorce, so should I deprive Bob of the chance to visit with his own father during vacations?"

This is a question in which Bob's wishes should be consulted. He is old enough and sufficiently stable to understand the different types of manhood represented by his father and his stepfather.

Bob has far more things in common with his stepfather, since they are both sports enthusiasts.

When Bob comes home from a high school athletic contest, he and his stepfather go over the event together in great glee.

So they have far more interests in common than do Bob and his own father.

Bob may not relish spending much time with the latter, under the circumstances, but you divorced parents should help divide your worries by sharing them with your offspring.

Don't make it embarrassing for the children, however, by asking them to make a choice between one parent vs. the other.

But don't try to master-mind their behavior and coerce them unduly if they are as dependable and as experienced as Bob.

Bob's mother still shows that she regards Bob as if he were much younger than he really is.

At the age of 16, the brain and nervous system reach maturity. Bob's I. Q. or mental horsepower thus is at its peak.

He is able to do as complicated thinking as he ever will be able to demonstrate the entire remainder of his life.

So let him help solve his own problems. That will not only be good for him, but will lessen the load upon his distraught mother.

One of the common faults of modern parents is their tendency to carry too much of the load in parent-child relations.

They read psychology magazines and purchase books on child problems and attend PTA meetings and then become neurotic with the excessive responsibility.

Why not divide that load and let the teen-agers share it? Be partners in your family corporation. Let everybody have a voice and then permit each one to vote.

It's easier, as well as better strategy to cooperate as a family team.

Children will generally rise to responsibility when they need to do so, but most parents don't let them have a chance.

So send for my 200-point "Tests for Good Parents," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Ask your children to rate you thereon, as Mrs. Crane and I do, and argue about the results if you believe your youngsters have under-rated you.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane, in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Political News Coverage Questions Are Answered

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Your editorial, "Pontiac Press Spanked by Michigan Governor," contained a variety of expressions, mostly ridiculous.

For a while I felt I was being taken for an editorial ride on the "Ike-Nixon Highroad," but suddenly found myself in a ditch when you missed the first curve.

If the governor in your opinion is a lightweight, by no stretch of the imagination should you consider yourself a heavyweight in the editorial ring.

Your claim of 50-50 break on political news cannot be substantiated by simply accusing those who complain of being "poor losers and agitated partisans." The 50-50 break, if any, is too often found buried on the back pages of your paper and very often the worse side at that. Not only has the governor a legitimate complaint against you, but all Republican-controlled newspapers.

How the Democrats succeed as well as they do is amazing, in the face of Republican monopoly in newsprint, which can rightfully be called the "one-party press."

Locally, your reporting on political affairs of our city falls far short of what it should be. Several Commissioners have repeatedly complained to their friends about the lack of accurate reporting of Commission proceedings and the Commissioners opinions as well. The best side is suppressed, the worst becomes the news.

The editorial columns are yours and you can write all you please about the birds and the bees and the autumn leaves, but please, give to the people that which belongs to them . . . the news.

(Editor's note:
As Al Smith, a great Democrat, once said:
"LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORD."
Through the four weeks ending October 13th, the political campaigns of the two major parties were covered as follows in the Pontiac Press:

	Rep.	Dem.
Stories	81	92

Pict. Inches	171	272
Stories Pg. 1	29	27

Combined number of column inches of type and pictures for the four weeks:

DEMOCRATS 900
If Mr. Raymond wishes the statistics broken down week, by week, the record is here for him to see. If he wishes to verify the totals, the files are available to him at any time.
These statistics omit editorials and surveys, such as the Babson-poll and AP, trends which are campaign stories covering both parties equally.)

'Do Not Compare Children to Dogs'

Careful, Mr. Hillman. Just why classify children with dogs. That's like saying man and donkey in the same breath. According to law, both are protected to a point.

I know several children, teens, who are real nice. Their parents aren't so very. Some parents try their best and yet the youngsters are rotten to the core.

So please don't classify the two as one. Dogs are to be tied, or penned. Anyway, if women hadn't had children, how would you be here to gripe? I'll bet you'd gripe if someone gave you a million dollars because you had to pay taxes.

Tavern on Lakefront Destroyed by Blaze

ST. CLAIR SHORES (INS) — A popular lakefront drinking and dining spot was burned to the ground today by a fire that also damaged a warehouse and threatened nearby cottages and scores of expensive cruisers.

St. Clair Shores firemen were aided by firefighters from East Detroit, Roseville and Harrison Township.

Flames jumped an open area and set an adjacent warehouse on fire, but were extinguished before they could spread to the rest of the building.

Intense heat from the blaze melted plastic controls and cracked the windshield of a $40,000 cruiser tied up 30 feet from the bar.

About 50 cruisers were tied up near the scene at the time of the fire.

'Don't Fret, Son, Prayer for Dog Is Answered'

LEXINGTON, Mass. (AP)—To the little boy who used to own "Spotty," the dog: Don't worry about him, he is in good hands.

He is living with Air Force Major and Mrs. Lorenzo J. Bonnano.

Mrs. Bonnano found the hungry-looking mongrel pup. Attached to the dog's collar was this note:

"Whoever finds this dog, please take care of him. He is a good watchdog. His name is Spotty.

"We can't keep him because my husband isn't working.

"He belonged to my little boy. Please be good to him.

"My son is praying for someone to take his dog in and be good to him. He loved him so much. So did we.

"Thank you, whoever you may be, and God bless you."

Mrs. Bonnano said she wants the youngster, whoever he is, to know that "Spotty" is in good hands.

Reds Moving Deep in Burma

Report Says Commies Trying to Build Up a Basis for Keeping Area

RANGOON, Burma (AP)—Chinese Communist troops from Tibet who entered Burma through the nation's northernmost mountain passes today were reported to have moved farther south.

The report to the English-language newspaper Nation said the troops had established one camp only nine days' march from the north Burma center of Putao (Fort Hertz).

The report indicated the Reds were trying to build up a basis for demanding the area — often in dispute — for China. The nation's correspondent at Nongmung, a local administrative center northeast of Putao and only a few miles from the Red troops' reported position, said the invading soldiers were busily taking a census of Tibetan inhabitants of the area.

Three Chinese invasions across the poorly defined northern and eastern borders of Burma have been reported — one north of Putao by 3,000 troops crossing the mountain passes into Tibet, one farther south into the Kachin state, and an entrance into the Wa states in which the Reds reportedly occupied about 1,000 square miles of territory.

Organ Piping Weather News, Experts 'Inchoir'

BLACKPOOL, England (AP) — A church organ which gives out weather reports in a strong British accent was placed under expert observation today.

Harry Wynne, organist at St. John Vianney church, called for technicians after trying in vain to keep the instrument from talking about flying conditions in the British Isles. He does not suspect angels.

Wynne told a reporter he clicks down a stop for strings and instead gets a crisp male voice saying, "A trough of low pressure is moving in from the North Sea."

A flick of the diapason stop is apt to produce the unsolicited information that there is fog in the English Channel, or winds of gale force around the Faroes.

"I can keep the voice down to a whisper by staying off the loud pedal," said Wynne. "Still, even that is hardly the thing for a church service, is it?"

A Royal Air Force spokesman said the organ seems to be picking up RAF weather advisories from a radio transmitter at Barton — 12 miles away.

"Rather uncanny," he called it.

The people who built the organ agreed. They sent a team of workmen to tinker around.

But Tabby Still Has Her Ardent Defenders

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — In the gentle world of pet lovers there dwell two basic types of mankind: The confident-unto-cockiness "dog people" and the abused and bemused "cat people."

Put one representative of each category on any street corner in the U.S. and tell them to fight out the dog-vs.-cat issue to the death, and the canine contender will always win.

Before the debate has even warmed up to the issues of cleanliness, upkeep or loyalty, a dozen snoopy pedestrians will overhear what's going on and rush to the defense of the dog.

The cat lover, decidedly in the minority and hampered by his habit of speaking in purrs rather than woofs, will be forced to slink home and commiserate with his maligned feline.

This is the golden age of Towser. It is Tabby who's leading the proverbial dog's life . . .

"You can blame a lot of this nonsense on witches," says Robert Kendell, president of the American Feline Society, "and on old wives tales. Cats got a bad reputation during the witch trials at Salem, Mass., and they've never quite come out of it."

Actually, Kendell assures, no cat has ever been observed (by a reliable source) either riding on a broom or consorting with a witch of established ill repute.

And furthermore, if the dog people want to be nasty about it, let them look to the skeletons in their own closets. What about the Hound of the Baskervilles, eh?

We are virtually on the eve of "National Cat Week," which begins Nov. 4, and Kendell wants to rid the world of aelourophobia—or cat-hating. Not only that, he would like to see that the American cat population of 21,000,000 mousers is properly appreciated and cared for.

To this purpose he points out these facts:

"A healthy, vigorous and cared-for cat is capable of destroying as many as 13 rodents nightly. This makes them America's most useful pet. It is a boon to public health.

CHILDREN'S FRIEND

"Psychologists say that the cat is the best friend a child can have. It is entirely safe and harmless with even the tiniest baby.

"As a companion and friend to an adult, a cat is cuddly, quiet and amiable, even in the presence of mailmen. It is also self-laundering."

Many who defame the cat and proclaim the dog are of the opinion that dogs are more "human" because they tend to be more loyal and dependent upon their masters than felines are.

Cats, they say, are too independent. They come to hand only when they feel like it or the hand is holding out catnip.

There are good reasons for this. Cats for centuries have had to scrape and fight for a good life, and were never permitted the luxury of being clinging vines to a human provider.

It is their nature to be independent. But does this make them less "human?"

As any psychiatrist will tell you, the more whole and neurosis-free persons in our society are independent—complete within themselves, capable of living with others but not leaning upon them for every need.

All in all, then, cats are deserving of far more respect than they're getting. And infinitely more love.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

THE STORY OF GLASS — 5

A Mosaic

Long before glass came into general use it was used in the palaces of kings and princes and in churches and cathedrals throughout Europe. Hundreds of pieces of colored glass, held together by narrow strips of lead, were used to make windows of great beauty, many of which are still preserved.

Another way glass was used was for mosaics, or pictures made by pressing tiny pieces of colored glass into a plaster base. The early Assyrians, Egyptians and Romans covered walls and floors with mosaics.

Here is a pattern you can use for a paper mosaic. You may color it with your crayons if you wish, before pasting it down on cardboard. Be sure you paste it smoothly so you can trace over it.

Take a piece of gray or tan cardboard as a foundation and trace the pattern on to it. Trace each small piece of mosaic on to colored crepe paper — the glazed sort used to line envelopes looks particularly like glass. Then paste them on to the base, so you have a brightly colored mosaic of a flower.

(The Junior Editors $10 award goes to Alan Henricks, Oklahoma City, Okla., for contributing this idea first. Perhaps you have an idea for Junior Editors. If so, send it in care of this newspaper. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

Truman Talks in Indiana

Hits Ike's Foreign Policy, Nixon's Voting Record

GARY, Ind. (AP)—Former President Truman says the Republicans are offering a vice - presidential candidate "who could never possibly be elected president in his own right."

"They are offering a man who has neither the qualifications nor the standing in the eyes of his fellow citizens to hold that exalted office," Truman said in a campaign speech here last night.

He said Vice President Nixon has a voting record "consistently against the interests of the worker, the farmer and small business. . . .

"If any man or woman in America will take the trouble to study Nixon's record, and then goes out and votes the Republican ticket this fall—well, someone ought to take him to see a psychiatrist."

Truman said Democrats are offering candidates for president and vice president either of whom "is well qualified to hold the office of president." He said Adlai Stevenson had "demonstrated he is a fighter when the country's welfare is at stake."

Truman said President Eisenhower allowed the Russians to get a foothold in the Eastern Mediterranean and could have prevented it.

"This is something the Russians have been trying to do for 300 years, since the time of Peter the Great," he said. "The Western nations have long tried to prevent this because they knew it would jeopardize the security not only of all Europe but of America as well. . . .

"This did not have to happen. It could have been prevented by the President of the United States. I prevented it when I was president—that's what the doctrine of aid to Greece and Turkey was all about. But you can't prevent things like that if the President leaves his foreign policy up to a secretary of state who flits about all over the world with his foot in his mouth."

Gas Blast Injures 15 at American Motors

KENOSHA, Wis. (INS) — The American Motors Co. plant at Kenosha, scene of a gas explosion yesterday which injured 15 workers, resumed full operations today.

Six persons still were hospitalized with second and third-degree burns suffered in the explosion and flash fire that followed. Nine others were treated.

The explosion occurred in the large motor testing room. Officials said natural gas piped into the room escaped unnoticed from a crack in the pipe and ignited when an engine was started.

A flash fire threatened all 129 workers in the room for a time, but it was quickly extinguished and actual property damage was slight.

Suggests Quiz for Executives

Menninger Cites Need for Bosses to Consider Emotional Stability

PORTLAND, Ore. (INS) — How well do you handle your hostile feelings toward others?

That's one of the most important questions any executive can ask himself, according to Dr. William C. Menninger, one of the nation's leading psychiatrists.

In an address before the Pacific Northwest Industrial Health Conference in Portland, Dr. Menninger urged that the annual physical examination taken by executives be widened to include a psychological quiz as well as emotional stock taking.

The speaker, co-founder with his brother, Karl, of the Menninger foundation in Topeka, Kans., trains some 10 per cent of all psychiatrists in the nation today.

He listed five questions he would ask executives when they check in for their annual physical exam. They are:

When the going gets rough, how do you behave?

Do you get more pleasure out of getting or giving?

How willing are you to accept temporary frustration for the sake of future gain?

Are you relatively free from tension and anxiety most of the time?"

How well do you handle your hostile feelings toward others?

Dr. Menninger said he considers mental health the most neglected problem in the nation today.

Bob Considine Says:

Plane Ditching, Rescue Sounds Like Novel

NEW YORK (INS) — What a great and warming story, the ditching of the Pan AM Stratocruiser 1,150 miles at sea and the Coast Guard's rescue of all 31 aboard!

The log alone, from the 4 a.m. item, "going to ditch," to the 9:05 message from the commander of the 14th Coast Guard District, Honolulu, "conducted like a bunch of champions; well done," reads like a taut, tense, wonderful novel.

Pilot Richard Ogg, the crew and the people aboard lived through an incomparable adventure, saved by skill, courage and the magic of modern communications.

The aviation industry owes a debt of gratitude to Ogg. More people will be attracted to ocean flying by this feat than will be discouraged.

It has been said that if the Andrea Doria had been atomic powered her sinking might have ruined the multi-million dollar fishing industry off that part of the Massachusetts coast.

Radiation from an American freighter which sank several weeks ago in the Arctic—if it had been propelled by an atomic reactor—might have crippled Norway's sardine industry for perhaps years to come.

SOBERING THOUGHT

This is a sobering thought at the dawn of atomic-powered ships. The Navy's pioneering Nautilus has been in operation for more than a year without refueling.

The Navy has many more such submarines planned as well as several atomic-powered aircraft carriers. The President's atomic powered goodwill freighter is at last in the works.

But nuclear physicists surely will find a way out of the dilemma. If they can put a damper on such a monstrously big and irresponsible thing as an atomic cloud, they can find ways and means of keeping the seas unpoisoned.

The frequent references of late to the 1888 Suez Canal agreement sent us scurrying to find a copy. It's a beaut, and a commentary of the erosion within royalty. Here's part of the preamble:

"In the Name of Almighty God, Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India; His Majesty the Emperor of Germany, King of Prussia; His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, King of Bohemia, etc., and Apostolic King of Hungary; His Majesty the King of Spain, and in his name the Queen Regent of the kingdom; His Majesty the King of The Netherlands, Grand Duke of Luxemborg, etc.; His Majesty the Emperor of All the Russias; and His Majesty the Emperor of the Ottomans . . . etc. etc. etc.

OPPOSING EX-BOSS

Thomas Coleman Andrews, the former head of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, is the States Rights candidate for the White House, now occupied by Andrews' wartime and peacetime boss, Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Andrews has taken on the job not with any hope of success but to draw attention to the new crusade of his life—his war against the system of taxation he once vigilantly enforced. The man who collected $70,000,000,000 in taxes annually as part of the Eisenhower team now says:

"The tax law was conceived in class hatred. It is an instrument of vengeance and plays into the hands of the Communists."

Andrews instituted door-to-door searches for tax evaders. His reversal of position is such that at his nomination at Richmond the other night he said, "The tax law is the worst thing ever happened to this country."

Wish he had said it earlier. Say about 1953.

Deer Has Red Horns

CASPER, WYo. (INS)—Bimbo, a 7-year-old 275-pound buck deer, has received his annual paint job. Bimbo is a pet who makes his home near Jack Cummings' lodge on Casper Mountain. And in hopes of protecting Bimbo when hunting season rolls around each fall, Cummings gives Bimbo's antlers a fresh coat of "fiery red" paint.

The Washington monument has 898 steps.

Drunk Still Shows Good Taste in Bars

SPARTANBURG, S.C. (INS)—When it comes to being arrested a 41-year-old Converse man proves he's bargain-conscious.

Fred Phillips said he was telephoned recently by the man who reported himself drunk and asked that he be arrested by county officers before city police picked him up.

The reason: The city fine for drunkenness usually is $12.75. The county charges only $10.

British-Owned Dam in Uganda Holds Control of Nile River Water Flow Heading Into Egypt

LONDON (INS)—If the British are sensitive about interferences with their Suez "lifeline," the Egyptians are even touchier about any interference with the Nile waters.

For this river, flowing from the mountains to the south, has converted large areas of Egypt from desert into acreage which can produce three crops of long fibre cotton every three years. The enriched land sells for $2,500 an acre or more.

Little wonder, then, that official reminders that Britain could interrupt the flow of Nile waters into Egypt caused some concern in Cairo.

The major source of Nile water to Egypt is from the White Nile which is caught at Lake Victoria in British Uganda and released through the $60 million Owen Falls Dam.

Egyptian authorities have been granted the right by British agreement to supervise the amount of water released to flow north to Egypt, 1,500 miles away. Three Egyptian engineers sit at the dam watching meters to assure that proper amounts are released.

The water flows through the Sudan on the way to Egypt, and the electricity generated by the dam also serves the main industries of Uganda. Thus, Egypt, the Sudan and Uganda are all dependent upon proper operation of the dam.

For four months of the year, during the July to October flood period, Egypt could get enough water from the Blue Nile, the second feeder of the main Nile River. But for the remainder of the year Egypt's cotton fields would wilt if the White Nile waters were turned off, or greatly diverted at the Owen Falls Dam.

It was this that Lord Killearn, former British high commissioner to Egypt, had in mind when he suggested after the Nasser canal nationalization that Britain could retaliate by releasing the White Nile waters "at the wrong time of the year."

"The mere threat of this," he added, "should terrify Egypt."

To do so, of course, would violate Britain's treaty agreement with Egypt, and this explains the pains taken at the foreign office to deny that threats were implied in anything said by Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden and Colonial Secretary Alan Lennox-Boyd in references they have made to the situation.

The purpose, Whitehall officials insisted, was to point out to Cairo that Egypt was herself exercising "user rights" of control at Owen Falls Dam on British protected territory without any infringement of British sovereignty.

The parallel was considered appropriate because of Egypt's insistence that for the users of the Suez Canal to control navigation in the canal would be an intolerable infringement of Egyptian sovereignty.

The first mention of the analogy was by Prime Minister Eden in the House of Commons. After pointing out that the water was released at Owen Falls Dam by the Uganda electricity board "on the instructions of the resident Egyptian engineer," he added:

"The dam is on British territory. It is owned by a British colonial government. Egypt is a user and she is not sovereign over the dam. And yet, by peaceful agreement, Britain submits to Egyptian user-control of a project vital to Egypt. There is no suggestion that it is in any way derogatory to British sovereignty that Egypt has this special position. It seems to me that the parallel with western requirements in respect to the canal is very, very close indeed."

The next reference came in somewhat more suggestive terms from Lennox-Boyd. The phrase in his speech that started people wondering was:

"What would happen to Egypt's vital interests if we were now to tear up this (Nile) agreement on the grounds that it infringed our sovereignty?"

A section of the British press seized upon this as an implied threat. But the foreign office denied any such implication.

Jordan Election Nears Climax

Party Opposing Nasser Given Good Chance to Win Sunday's Vote

AMMAN (INS) — Forces opposing the one-Arab-world dream of Egyptian strongman Gamal Abdel Nasser are said to have a good chance of winning Sunday's general election in Jordan.

But no matter who wins the most momentous election in the nation's brief history, the Hashemite kingdom of Jordan stands in danger of being absorbed by one of its richer and more powerful Arab neighbors.

Most of the candidates who look upon Nasser with mistrust favor union of Jordan with Iraq as the only way of ending the dangerous uncertainty along the Israel border and of improving the country's hopeless economic situation.

Of a total of 144 candidates seeking the 40 seats in Jordan's parliament, 61 belong to five parties dedicated to Nasser-style pan-Arabism which would break all bonds with the West including the rejection of British aid.

The 71 independent candidates all strongly favor the pro-western policy of King Hussein and closer union with Iraq, the only Arab member of the Baghdad Pact. They advocate consolidation of the Hashemite dynasty's rule over both countries.

Hussein is a cousin of King Feisal II, both young members of the Hashemite dynasty which is a traditional enemy of the Saud dynasty that rules Saudi Arabia.

The remaining 12 candidates belong to the Moslem Brotherhood Liberation party which is dedicated to an Islamic empire with the holy Koran as a constitution.

Fills Orders for Hobby

Retirement Means Work — but It's a Pleasure

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — At 72, white-haired Conrad Kothe jokes that he "doesn't smoke, frink or bother the women" but retirement finds him busy filling orders for his hobby.

People beat a path to Kothe's garage workshop to buy the sturdy inlaid wood tables he designs and builds at his St. Clair Shores home.

Kothe is a metal finisher by trade but got into wood working two years ago because his daughter needed some new furniture.

Using such ordinary tools as a power saw and electric sander, Kothe bought stock at a nearby lumber yard and supplied his daughter with desks, end tables, chairs and cabinets.

Workers at the lumber yard were intrigued with Kothe's table designs and careful workmanship. They asked if he would make some tables for them to buy.

"Time I have," said Kothe, "so we agreed that they would furnish the materials and I would do the work."

Working in his unheated garage — "I'll move to the basement when the weather gets cold" — Kothe turns out tables with intricately inset blocks of birch, maple, walnut and cherry in varied designs.

He glues the inlaid blocks, three inches square, together in sections and sets them on plywood five-eighths of an inch thick, cut in regulation card table size.

The tables are sturdy. Kothe, leaning his full weight on a finished product to demonstrate, said, "you break your knuckles if you get mad playing cards and slam your fist down."

Kothe has branched out in his design work, adding diamonds, checkerboards or plain wood insets "all according to the way I feel."

He also offers two sets of legs so that the same table can be used either for cards or as a coffee table.

Sample prices are $15 for a birch table with one set of legs and $28 for one in walnut with two sets of legs.

"I sell them for what the materials cost and money spent on gas," Kothe says. "I'd get nuts pretty fast if I just had to sit around. I just want something to do."

He added, "I don't go out much. I don't enjoy boozing it up and it seems like you're not one of the crowd unless you do."

Kothe doesn't think he'll ever run furniture companies out of business taking care of orders.

"I don't want to get rich," he said. "I wouldn't have time to spend a lot of money anyway. But I do have time to pass."

D&C Boat Made Into Resort Hotel

DETROIT (INS) — Plans to open one of the ships of the vanished Detroit and Cleveland Navigation Co. as a resort hotel in Tawas City about Nov. 1 were disclosed yesterday.

Robert Rosen, president of Lake Shore Steel, Inc., and co-owner of the ships, said the Western States will become a year-around resort. He said $150,000 has been spent to completely remodel the 350-foot paddle steamer.

Rosen and his partner, Abraham Siegel, president of the Siegel Iron and Metal Co., also disclosed plans to scrap the Greater Detroit, the world's largest sidewheel steamer, if buyers for the luxurious ship cannot be found.

Two smaller companion ships, the City of Detroit III and the Eastern States, are in the process of being scrapped.

State Policing Towns

HARTFORD, Conn. — The State police commissioner has contracts with 11 Connecticut towns for the services of State policemen, one of whom will be based in each of the towns. The plan was authorized by legislation providing that any town lacking its own organized police protection might enter into an agreement for the services of one State officer.

Give New Junior High Go-Ahead

Approve School at 2 Million

Waterford Is Studying New Junior High; Plan Keeping Cost Range

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—Preliminary plans for the John D. Pierce Junior High School, to be erected on the corner of Hatchery and Crescent Lake roads were approved by the board of education last night.

Estimated cost will be two million dollars for a 1,500 student capacity. The architect last night indicated cost might be above that estimate, but school officials said it would be held within the figure.

The building will handle grades seven, eight and nine, and will feature three divided areas for these grades. Students will have a cafeteria, music room, gym and library together.

Supt. William A. Shunck praised the plans which are the result of combined study of the architect, teaching personnel of Crary Junior High and the board of education.

Two delegations of parents attended last night's meeting, one group from the Leggatt school area asking bus transportation because of the hazardous traffic on Pontiac Lake road.

The Waterford Village group protested loss of 20 minutes class time each day because their youngsters have to be shuttled to the Drayton Plains school.

Both items were referred to William Bowden, transportation administrator.

Utica Altar Society Slates Ham Dinner

UTICA—A ham and sweet potato dinner will be sponsored by the Altar Society of St. Lawrence Catholic Church Sunday in the K. of C. hall on Utica road. Dinner will be served from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. and booths meanwhile will futaere fancy work, dolls, white elephants, aprons, candy and baked goods.

MOMS Seeking Funds for Yuletide Boxes

Plan Party Tonight

NEW HUDSON — The Maccabees of New Hudson are having a card party this evening at 8 at their hall, with members and friends invited to attend.

GOP Women Finish Plans for Potluck

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Final plans have been completed for a potluck dinner sponsored by the Waterford Women's Republican Club. The informal affair will be held at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 23 in the CAI Building, Williams Lake road.

All county candidates are expected to attend and the public is invited. There will be no charge for the dinner. Those attending are asked to bring their own place setting.

DRAFTING CONTEST WINNERS—These five Pontiac High School 11th and 12th graders were among 19 prize winners in the annual drafting contest sponsored by the American Society of Body Engineers. First prize of $125 went to Jerry Choler, (above right). Third prize went to Charles Bradshaw, (second from right). Checking one of the drawings are the three Pontiac honorable mention winners (from left to right), Harry Moore, Robert Warrington and John Massengale.

Take First, Third Prizes

PHS Boys Win Drafting Contest Awards

Five 11th and 12th grade Pontiac High School boys received prizes for their efforts in the annual drafting contest sponsored by the American Society of Body Engineers.

Among the five were the first and third place winners in the contest which is open to junior and senior boys in any high school in the metropolitan Detroit area.

First place among 19 prize winners went to Jerry Choler, 23 Portage St. The award was $125. Third place Pontiac High winner was Charles Bradshaw, 621 Second St., winning $50.

Winners of drafting sets included Robert Warrington, 2482 Winkleman Rd., Harry Moore, 431 Kuhn St. and John Massengale, 213 Clifford St.

The boys were among 10 who entered from the vocational drafting class taught at Pontiac High School by J. L. Atwell.

This is the second year that Pontiac High has placed five persons among the 19 prize winners. Eighty-eight schools send competing entries to the contest.

Problem for this year's contest was to make a drawing from a metal stamping used in actual engineering production.

Stratton Denies Ties to Scandal

Illinois Governor Says Hodge Wasn't Spirited to Jail to Cover Others

CHICAGO (AP)—Gov. William G. Stratton, appearing before a U.S. Senate committee, has denied "any implication" that onetime Auditor Orville E. Hodge was spirited off to prison to keep other names out of the 1½-million-dollar state check-cashing scandal.

Stratton, a Republican seeking re - election, testified before the Democrat-controlled Senate Banking and Currency Committee yesterday at his own request. The hearings, which have lasted two weeks, were scheduled to end today with questioning of State Terasurer Warren Wright and Charles J. Fleck, Cook County (Chicago) public administrator.

During nearly 3½ hours of testimony, Stratton said he was powerless, under the state constitution, to interfere with other elected officials. He testified that once the embezzlements were known, he took "firm, effective" action in getting rid of Hodge.

The committee, headed by Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark), has been probing the banking aspects of the Hodge swindle with the aim of improving federal banking laws. Hodge, a Republican, is in prison for admittedly embezzling 1½ million dollars from the state treasury through a bogus check - cashing scheme.

Primary education is compulsory for all children in Turkey who are between the ages of 7 and 16 years.

Foe's Eye Black, Elvis Blue

Swings From Hips, Rocks Mechanic

The fisticuffs flared yeaterday when Station Manager Ed Hopper became irate because a crowd drawn by Presley and his $10,000 car was blocking business at the gas pumps.

Presley, 21, Hopper, 42, and a late comer to the fight, station attendant Aubrey Brown, 21, wer free on $52 bonds, all charged with assault and battery and disorderly conduct.

Asst. Police Chief Bruns McCarroll said officers already on the scene broke up the fight and reported that Hopper was trying to unlimber a small pocket knife at the time.

TANK LEAKING

Presley, home for a few days from his rock 'n' roll tours, said the trouble started after he drove his glossy, white Continental Mark II into the downtown station and asked Hopper to check the gas tank for leaks.

A crowd began to assemble, blocking traffic. Hopper finally asked Presley to move on so the station could get back to normal business.

A witness, Harvey Huff, told police Presley, seated in his car signing autographs, agreed to move on but delayed to oblige eager fans. Huff said Hopper slapped Presley on the back of the head and snapped:

"I said to move on."

Huff said a policeman and an other man broke up the fight and then Brown, 6-4 and 220 pounds, moved in and also drew a Presley right.

"I SHOVED"

"I asked him three times to move, in a nice way," said Hopper. "He'd say, 'I'm fixing to move,' but he didn't. The last time I tol him he started to get out and I shoved him back in the car. He started out after me."

Presley said Hopper "reached into the car and hit me. He pulled a knife on me when I got out. I hit him. The redhead Brown swung at me and missed and then I hit him."

"I'll regret it as long as I live," he added. "I'm sorry I went in the place. I can take slurring remarks, but when somebody hits you it's a different story."

Lawbreaking Is Legal in Santa Ana—for Fee

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP) — Feel like lawbreaking?

To clear streets of automobiles at night for city street sweepers, Santa Ana made it illegal to park on the street overnight.

But for citizens who really have to park there, the ordinance provides that the law can be broken by anyone who pays a $4 monthly fee. The fee is for a permit to park on the street in violation of the ordinance.

When the U. S. government moved from New York to Washington in 1800, it had only about 123 clerks.

Swift Justice Slated for Prison Escapee

LANSING (AP)— Nealy Buchanon, recaptured prison escapee charged with the slaying of an elderly Stockridge farm couple, was scheduled for swift justice today.

Buchanon waived examination in justice court at Mason in an unusual 7:30 o'clock appearance last night.

"He said he wanted to get it over with," said Ingham County Sheriff Willard P. Barnes. "He gave us a full confession and said he wanted to plead guilty and get a sentence."

Buchanon is charged with the slaying of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Herrick of rural Stockbridge in the barn of their farm home.

Buchanon, a trusty, escaped from Southern Michigan Prison and allegedly killed the couple when he was surprised while hiding in their barn. He was recaptured in Baltimore, Md., Tuesday after a crime magazine fan recognized his picture.

Farm neighbors at Stockbridge patrolled the area with shotguns for weeks after the slaying and raised a reward of $3,000 for Buchanon's recapture.

Australia has invited General Douglas MacArthur to participate in its Coral Sea Week celebration in May, 1957, in Brisbane.

Christ Church Auxiliary Stresses Serving Others

Marking curtains, girls' and women's dresses, boys' and men's clothing, shoes, books, toys, Christmas decorations, cooking utensils, furniture, lamps, coats and other clothing were members of the Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church Cranbrook. Shown (left to right) are Mrs. E. T. Bennett, Mrs. Gilbert Amherst, Mrs. C. J. Nepper, Mrs. David W. Lee and Mrs. Russell B. Robins as they prepared for the Oct. 25th sale.

Members Have Many Activities

Women of Parish Gather Weekly to Promote Projects

Women of Christ Church Cranbrook meet not just once a month but every Tuesday for work in the Women's Auxiliary.

Meetings are held in the Parish House for the various activities from September through June. The schedule begins at 10 a.m. with Holy Communion in St. Dunstan Chapel.

Work activities, reading and discussion groups start at 10:30 and continue through the morning and afternoon.

A devotional service is held at 12:15 in St. Dunstan Chapel for those who wish to lay aside their work for a few quiet moments before lunch at 12:30.

According to Mrs. Arie BeGole, auxiliary president, national speakers on Christian faith and education are heard following the luncheons.

Four pages in today's Women's Section

SOCIAL RELATIONS

Included in the many activities of the Women's Auxiliary are Christian social relations. Members do family visiting, hospital and institutional work, and perform other volunteer services.

There are opportunities to serve for those with special skills in music, weaving, ceramics, horticulture and other crafts.

The clothes closet committee maintains and dispenses a complete inventory of clothing, which is distributed by social workers to needy church families. It also supplies emergency needs of Oakland County welfare agencies.

The diocesan committee seeks ways to know and communicate what the Episcopal Church is doing beyond parish limits.

Its members serve on the boards of Oakland Convocation Women's Auxiliary, Holiday House, Williams House and St. Peter Home for Boys.

OTHER PROJECTS

Other members maintain regular contacts with Detroit Episcopal City Mission, Camp Chicagami and Parishfield, and promote the growth of the church.

The house committee assists in the preparation and serving of breakfasts, luncheons and dinners. Women sign up for any time they can give.

The committee group on parish supply assists the rector and vestry in parish projects and gives clerical assistance.

Another group of women does sewing and knitting for parish, community and institutional needs. They also make articles for the gift table. Gifts are made to order and sold throughout the year.

Another important function is the preparation of cancer pads for the American Cancer Society and Sewing for the Children's Hospital.

The Senior Workers includes a group of the older women of the auxiliary, organized two years ago.

The membership committee helps guide new members into the type of activity in which they have interests.

The rummage sale group holds sales twice a year, on the fourth Thursday of October and April.

THANK OFFERING

Every woman is a part of the United Thank Offering. Each woman of the parish is given a little blue box in which she may place a token offering of thanks as each of her blessings is received.

The offering is collected twice a year and added to that of the Episcopal women all over the country.

The women of the auxiliary are striving to grow, and to help others to grow, in Christian faith and in a life of worship and prayer.

Painting puppet faces made of plastic wood at the weekly Tuesday workshop at Christ Church Cranbrook is Mrs. James Weeks of Waddington road. She is one of a group that molds the puppet heads, paints and dresses them for the Pontiac Guidance Clinic. The children use the hand puppets to represent a family consisting of mother, father, son, daughter and baby. The workshop is a part of the Women's Auxiliary program.

Music Has the Spotlight at U. of M.

Football Occupies the Backseat This Weekend

By CECILLE DUMBRIGUE

ANN ARBOR—This week football has taken a backseat to concerts and campus music in general. Acting as an intermission between the previous games with UCLA, MSU and Army, and the forthcoming game with Minnesota, is tomorrow's game with Northwestern.

Half-time entertainment will be the featured drawing card of the game.

Over 100 high school bands will take over the field and perform for the fans in the annual "Band Day." The university marching band will make its appearance as host for the event.

Participating in the university band will be Charles Billings, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Billings of Lull street. Charles is a second-semester freshman.

A junior and ex-marching band member is Fred Smith, son of the L. C. Smiths of Rapid street. Fred did not march this year because of the heavy academic schedule he is following.

MUSICAL GUESTS

The scheduled program in the regular Choral Union concert series included the Overture to "Euryanthe" by Weber and Symphony No. 6 "Pathetique" by Tschaikovsky.

Returning on Wednesday evening to give an extra concert program, the orchestra played Debussy's "Iberia," Beethoven's Symphony No. 3 "Eroica" and Bach's Suite No. 2 in B Minor.

Thursday evening, the School of Music sponsored a carillon recital by Percival Price. Mr. Price is the university's carillioneur.

Among the social meetings of the week was a mass gathering of all students wishing to participate in a new Men's Union-coed show called "Muskets," formally known as the Union Opera.

The purpose of the meeting was to get started casting parts for the production of the Broadway musical, "Brigadoon."

Working on the programs committee is Phylliss Law, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Law of Lehigh avenue. Phyliss is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority and is at the present time living in the sorority house.

Queen Mary Guild Unit Has Election

Presidency Taken by Mrs. Clarke at Bickley Home

Mrs. Charles Clarke was elected president of Queen Mary Section of Needlework Guild when the group met Thursday afternoon. Mrs. George Bickley opened her home on Mechanic street for the meeting.

Committee chairmen are Mrs. Andrew McKerrow, flowers; Mrs. Harvey Little and Mrs. David Bickerstaff, welfare, and Mrs. Alec Joss, knitting chairman.

Plans were discussed for the annual Needlework Guild Ingathering to be held Nov. 8, with members of Queen Mary Section serving as hostesses at the coffee hour.

Mrs. Richard Gaddes and Mrs. Gray Hedden were guests at the meeting.

PHS Program Slated Nov. 5

Vocal Concert Arranged

MRS. DOREEN VOLTMANN

The annual fall vocal concert of Pontiac High School will be held Nov. 5 at 8:15 p.m. in the Pontiac High School boys' gymnasium.

In addition to the nine massed numbers that the combined groups will sing under the direction of Don Craig, New York conductor, the program will feature selections by individual organizations.

The combined Girls' Glee Clubs conducted by Mrs. Doreen Voltmann will sing "Sanctus" by Gounod and "Wonderful Copenhagen" by Loesser.

The four Boys' Glee Clubs will join their voices in "Pale in the Amber West" by Parks and "It's a Whale of a Tale," with Ed Banghart directing.

The high school A Cappella Choir has selected "O, Sing Your Songs" by Cain; "In Silent Night" by Brahms and "Send Forth Thy Spirit" by Schuetky.

The popular song, "Autumn Leaves," and Cole Porter's "In the Still of the Night" will be offered by the Senior Girls Ensemble.

Other groups appearing will be the Junior Girls' Ensemble and the Senior Boys' Ensemble.

The concert is the first in a series of concerts to be dedicated to the golden anniversary celebration of the Music Educators' National Conference. It will continue to keep the informal character as in past years.

Program notes and vocal techniques will be offered by the guest conductor to the audience as well as the vocalists.

Golden Age Group Meets

Sixty members of the Golden Age group of the YWCA held their monthly dessert luncheon at the YWCA this week. Tables were decorated with United Nations placemats and tiny U.N. flags, in observance of U.N. Day this month.

Mrs. John Doig gave a brief memorial for two members of the group, Mrs. George Kimball Jr. and Mrs. Bert Porritt.

Birthdays celebrated included those of Mrs. Edith Dawson, Mrs. Mary Foster, Mrs. Selma Jacob, Mrs. Josephine Jenks, Mrs. F. L. Lehner, Mrs. Lena McCulley, Mrs. Nora Vanderwort, Mrs. Agnes Perry, Mrs. Jessie Reed and Mrs. Lillian Walls.

New members welcomed included Mrs. Viola Chapel, Mrs. Margaret Covert and Mrs. Eva Walker.

The refreshment committee was composed of Mrs. Joseph L. Bennett, Mrs. Myron L. Buck, Mrs. O. R. Briney Jr., Mrs. J. Allen Parker and Amy Krueger, with Mrs William Knudsen in charge of the serving.

Transportation was provided by Mrs. Robert A. Armstrong, Mrs. H. T. Baker, Mrs. Dwayne Arnell, Mrs. Fred Bohlmann, Mrs. Paul Gorman, Mrs. Thomas Gillotte, Mrs. C. Wales Goodwin, Ora Hallenbeck, Mrs. William Hurlburt, Mrs. Marcus Scott, Mrs. George Wasserberger and Mrs. D. R. Wilson.

Fashion Hint

Top coats should never hang straight on the short figure but should bell outward to fulness at the hem or narrow-in at the hem as some of the newest coats do. Also longer skirts will give leglength to the short figure.

Bible School Staff Listens to Reports

The staff of the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church Bible School met Tuesday evening. Delegates who attended the 11th National Sunday School Convention in Chicago during the past week presented reports.

Lydia Circle Meets With Mrs. Morgan

Mrs. Joe Morgan opened her home on Riviera terrace for the Tuesday evening meeting of Lydia Circle of First Christian Church. The business meeting was conducted by Lorna MacKellar.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Lulu Buckler and the program, "Frontiers of Challenge and Change," was presented by Mrs. William Tompkins, assisted by members of the circle.

Naomi Circle Meets at Home in Drayton

Mrs. Richard Thompson of Drayton Plains entertained members of the Naomi Circle of the Christian Women's Fellowship of first Christian Church.

Mrs. Ray Patton used as her program theme, "Frontiers of Flexibility," which showed how home missions have changed their pattern in order to meet needs more effectively.

The devotions were given by Mrs. Arthur Smith

Plymouth Group Holds Meeting

Mrs. Kent Webb of Rosewood drive opened her home to the Plymouth Group of First Congregational Church Wednesday evening.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Joseph Atwell. Laura Cobb, a member of the Pontiac Story Tellers, told two stories.

Plans were made to continue serving refreshments to the School of Religion for the remaining sessions.

The next meeting will be a cooperative supper Nov. 14 at the home of Mrs. Gerald Hunt on West Iroquois road.

Chapter of ESA Sorority Conducts Model Meeting

The annual model meeting of Alpha Alpha Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority was held Thursday evening at the YWCA. Mrs. Ben Sweeney conducted the meeting.

Officers and committee chairmen explained their duties and Mrs. Fred Baumgartner gave a resume of the chapter's project, assisting the emotionally disturbed children at the Pontiac State Hospital.

Mrs. Elmer Johnson announced the formal tea will be held Sunday at the Adah Shelly Library and that plans are being completed for the informal initiation to be held at Westacres Clubhouse.

A toy demonstration to be held Nov. 1 at the YWCA was announced by Mrs. Anthony Grand, ways and means chairman.

The group is contributing to the Goodwill Industries and Mrs. Rudy Mazza was appointed chairman of the Thanksgiving basket the chapter will provide.

Mrs. Ruth Rule of Pontiac Toastmistress Club talked to members on "Public Speaking."

Pledges of Alpha Alpha Chapter present for the meeting were Mrs. Jack Andress, Mrs. Harry Rhodes, Mrs. Donald Stone and Mrs. Jack Holler.

Mrs. Frank Jalosky, Mrs. Lacy Schieffler and Betty Lou DeGroot were the state officers present.

Bill Graves Hosts Pre-Game Dinner

Mrs. Irl Williams Entertains Circle

Members of the Mary-Martha Circle of Oakland Park Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Irl Williams on Dover road Wednesday. Following a dessert luncheon, the business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Leo Mineweaser.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Ralph Clara, and Mrs. John Lamont presented the educational program.

Insurance Women Slate Card Party

A benefit card party will be held Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building.

Fashion Hint

Softening the slim skirt is good news for the figure which has put on weight through the abdomen. Well-balanced front fullness will work wonders for the heavy body lines. Draping to the side or back narrows the silhouette.

Pianist Stanley Lock to Be Soloist With Symphony

First Concert of Season Will Be Staged Tuesday

Stanley Lock, pianist, will be soloist with the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra at its first concert of the 1956-1957 season to be held Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. in Lincoln Junior High School.

The coming of Mr. Lock is of particular interest as he was born in Ferndale and attended school there until he went to the University of Michigan, studying piano with Edward Bredshall of Detroit.

With the aid of a McGregor Fund scholarship, he was graduated from the university, then went to Juilliard Graduate School, New York City, on a scholarship. There he studied with Olga Samaroff Stokowski.

A Fullbright grant sent him to Paris in 1954 for a year's advanced study with Artur Schnabel and Israel Citkowitz.

Recognized in Europe and in this country as a young pianist of sensitive musical intelligence and interesting program material, he has played many concerts there and in the U.S. with marked success.

He has introduced many new compositions, but is thoroughly grounded in the music of the older tradition. He has given three recitals in Town Hall, New York, and will give another there later in the month.

Mr. Lock has been soloist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra several times. With the Pontiac orchestra he will play the piano and orchestra concerto composed by the great romantic period writer Robert Schumann, a composition that is one of the enduring treasures of musical literature.

The orchestra under the direction of Francesco DiBlasi will open the program with the Overture to the "Barber of Seville" by Rossini. Then the piano concerto will be played by Mr. Lock.

Following intermission, "La Oracion del Torero" (the prayer of the bullfighter before he enters the ring), written by Joaquin Turina, a Spaniard, for strings and especially arranged by Mr. DiBlasi, will be performed.

Two numbers from Berlioz' "Damnation of Faust," Danse of the Sylphs and Hungarian March, will complete the concert.

STANLEY LOCK

Need for Volunteers Explained to Club

Mrs. Arthur Kinney of the Central Volunteer Bureau told of the urgent need for volunteer workers when she spoke at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Mothers' Club held at the Boys' Club.

At the meeting plans were completed for the organization's Christmas party. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Floyd Halpin, Mrs. Harold Wesley, Mrs. Cameron Clark and Mrs. L. Johnson.

Friendship Club Holds Meeting

The Academy of Friendship Club met at the home of Mrs. George Breadow on Third street Thursday evening. Mrs. John Baxter was cohostess for the meeting.

Mrs. Ferman Huston, president, announced that all members will be asked to assist with the benefit dance scheduled for Nov. 10.

Zonta Club Hears Talk by Candidate

L. Harvey Lodge spoke on "Conspiracy Against Truth" at the Thursday luncheon meeting of Zonta of Pontiac. The speaker discussed the propaganda of the Russian government as an example of his topic. Mrs. Florence Doty introduced Mr. Lodge.

Mary Kelly is serving as general chairman of the card party to be held Nov. 16 at the Federal Savings and Loan Building beginning at 8 p.m.

Other committee chairmen include Mrs. Gordon Wyrick, tickets and Laura Hunter, publicity. Serving on various committees are Mrs. John Kinzler, Marian Emery, Mrs. Ashton Emery, Mrs. Phyllis Nelson and Mrs. Frank Sovereign.

The group completed plans for another money-making project to be held during the first week of November.

GOP Club to Serve 'Eisenhower Stew'

It will be "Eisenhower Stew" at the Pontiac Republican Women's Club luncheon Monday noon.

Mrs. Robert Sutton, chairman of the Pontiac Republican Campaign Headquarters, announces that this is the President's own recipe and it promises to be an adventure in eating for everyone.

The public is invited to attend the luncheon being held in the campaign headquarters

Guild Tells Plans for Square Dance

Mrs. Ronald Allcorn is serving as general chairman of the square dance being held in Stevens Hall tonight. Members of Guild Five of All Saints Episcopal Church are sponsoring the affair.

Others serving on committees are Mrs. Raymond Davies and Mrs. Fred Honeycutt, refreshments; Mrs. Ariel Davies, decorations, and Mrs. James Hampton, publicity.

Bob Long will call the lively quadrilles and novelty numbers for dancing beginning at 9 o'clock. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Parliamentary Club Conducts Meeting

Mrs. Theron Taylor presided at the Wednesday meeting of the Parliamentary Study Club. Mrs. G. Allan Briggs, Mrs. Howard McConnell and Mrs. Robert Klinger were elected to membership.

Duties of officers and members, and the formalities of making motions were discussed under the leadership of Mrs. R. Earl Springer and Mrs. George Watters.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Robert Nienstedt and Mrs. Pierre Shaver. The group will meet Nov. 7 at the Masonic Temple.

PTA Activities

Pontiac High

Pontiac High School PTA executive board will meet in Room 117 at 3:15 p.m. Monday.

Girl Should Slenderize Her Hips

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

(Friday Question Box)

Q. "I am 16 years old, 5 feet 3 and weigh 115 pounds. My measurements are bust 34½, waist 24½, hips 37. Please give me some hip reducing exercises. Do you think I am too big for my height?"

A. No. You do need to lose an inch from your hips. If you or any of my readers would like to have my hip-reducing exercises send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 3 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press. I have recently given some in this column.

Q. "Will you please tell me what is wrong with my figure? I am 26 years old and have three children living and four dead. I am medium-boned, 5 feet 2½, and weigh 115 pounds. My measurements are bust 34, waist 25½ and hips 36 inches. My husband tells me that I am too fat but I think I am just about right. Who is wrong?"

A. Your husband is wrong and must be hard to please. Actually you are somewhat underweight, at least five pounds. Your measurements are good and you are to be congratulated on having such a nice figure, especially after having had so many children.

Q. "Will you please tell me if I am underweight? Some say I am but I am small boned. I am 5 feet 4, and weigh 117 pounds."

A. If you have a very small frame you are not much underweight, only a few pounds.

Q. "Will you please tell me how many calories an average housewife should have a day in order to lose from 10 to 15 pounds in a month?"

A. A calorie intake of from 1,200 to 1,500 a day should give you a loss of about 10 pounds in a month. Of course individuals vary some in the amount they lose on the same calorie count.

Q. "I am 21 years old, 5 feet and 1 inch tall and weigh 116 pounds. My bust measures 32, waist 25, and hips 35 inches. Please tell me how my measurements can be improved and if I should lose weight."

The "Bicycle Ride" is designed to take inches off the hips.

A. Take bust-developing and waist and hip-slimming exercises in order to bring your measurements nearer perfection. You might also lose 4 or 5 pounds.

If you would like to have my leaflet No. 7 on bust-developing exercises send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Guild Chooses New Leader

Mrs. Paul McMichael was elected president of the Ladies Guild of St. Paul Lutheran Church when the group met Wednesday evening in the church parlors. The Rev. George Mahder opened the meeting with prayer.

Others elected to serve are Mrs. William Fisher, vice president; Barbara Kasten, secretary; Mrs. M. L. Lorenzen, treasurer, and Mrs. Lester Kasten, historian.

Mrs. John Askey and Mrs. Fisher were appointed cochairmen of the dinner and bazaar to be held at the church on Nov. 30.

An ingathering of staple food products and clothing will be held at the Nov. 21 meeting. These items will be distributed to worthy families for Thanksgiving.

Grace Mack Wed in Hills

BIRMINGHAM—In a ceremony this afternoon at Kirk in the Hills, Grace Mack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ross Mack of Old Salem court, became the bride of Robert Graham Campbell, the son of Mrs. Wilfred W. Campbell of Redding road and the late Mr. Campbell.

The bride wore white Italian peau de soie fashioned with a deep V neckline and cap sleeves on the long bodice. The bouffant skirt fell in a court train with motifs of peau d'ange lace embroidered with seed pearls appliqued on both bodice and skirt.

A fitted cap of peau de soie with heirloom Rose Pointe lace appliques held a fingertip veil of illusion, and she carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley, white camellias and white ivy.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. M. Keith Edwards of Wichita, Kan., Mrs. James C. Hook of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Hugh R. Mack Jr. and Helen Hutchinson of Birmingham.

GOWNED IN IVORY

All the attendants wore frocks of ivory corded faille with matching boleros which were trimmed with ivory satin. They wore ivory-colored feather hats and carried fuji chrysanthemums with sweetheart roses.

Ushers included John Thomas McCarty of Scarsborough, N. Y., Charles W. Neilson of Detroit, Hugh Loud of Grosse Pointe, J. Paul Smith, Hugh R. Mack Jr., James C. Allen and Alan H. Harris, all of Birmingham.

Mrs. Mack wore a dress of cameo pink satin and re-embroidered lace and Mrs. Campbell's gown was of turquoise lace over flesh-colored satin. Both wore corsages of cymbidium orchids.

The couple will live in Birmingham.

Child Resents Mental Pressures

BY MURIEL LAWRENCE

"Though my two younger children make little trouble, my oldest one makes more than I can handle," writes a reader.

"No matter what you ask her to do, she's got to give you an argument. Recently a neighbor overheard her arguing with me about bringing in some laundry. Later the neighbor said I didn't seem to love the girl. Now this has become a great worry to me..."

Instead of worrying over our dislike of an arguing child, it is more realistic to ask ourselves, "Do I myself argue with him?"

If it's our first-born youngster, we probably do.

In our early inexperience with parental authority, it's very easy to develop arguing treatment of a child. As a new mother, we're not sure that what we want from our toddler is right. So, if we want him to leave his blocks to come and eat lunch, we'll give him arguments to win his agreement that we're right.

MANY ARGUMENTS

We assemble as many arguments as we can to support our wish that he stop playing to eat his lunch, saying, "All children come when their mommies call them. Otherwise they make extra work for their poor mommies and their nice baked potato gets cold. You don't want that to happen do you? So come along now like Mommy's good child..."

This mental manipulation—the secret desire to control the child by substituting our views for his.

Youngsters always sense it. Though they secretly like to put control on their undesirable or dangerous actions, they fiercely resent arguments' pressure to change their minds.

In our effort to force them to agree with what we think, they can feel our own doubt of the goodness of what we think.

And theybegin to resist our control of their actions out of distrust of our wordless demand for their moral support.

To solve it, we need a powerfully sincere wish to be viewed more truthfully by the child. Then when he starts arguing, we don't get sidetracked into counterargument but can keep our eyes on the real issue—the demonstration of our moral independence.

We can say, "If you think it's silly to bring in the laundry now, I don't want to change your mind. I just want some help bringing it in. If you don't want to give it to me, I can bring it in without your help."

The less demand we make upon children's moral support, the more interested they are in what we have to say.

Catholic Women Hear Talks at Conference

By JOAN RITTER

Dr. James M. McHugh and the Rev. John Trese were speakers at the all-day meeting of the Detroit Archidiocesan League of Catholic Women. They spoke at the 12:30 luncheon. The Pontiac unit was hostess to the affair held at Devon Gables.

Dr. McHugh, in charge of the children's program at Pontiac State Hospital, told how the field of psychiatry is vital to society since half of the nation's hospital beds are occupied by the mentally disturbed.

He told of the progress in the attitude of people in relation to psychiatry beginning with the illustration of early European times when people recognized a mental illness but attributed it to a spirit rather than an individual mental sickness.

Then came the realization of the need for segregating and securing these mentally ill people though there was no immediate provision for their routine care or treatment.

He showed that this same idea of an evil spirit was true among the mentally disturbed of the American Indians. They were considered carriers of spirits.

He attributes in part the high rate of recovery of the mentally ill at the State Hospital to a responsive community, and said that mental illness is "a certain loss of contact with life and society as we know it."

He stressed the responsibility of the public to recognize and accept the mentally ill.

In speaking of his work in the children's program at Pontiac State Hospital, he said that children generally have a speedier recovery than adults following treatment.

Child patients at the hospital range from seven to 17 years of age. Dr. McHugh stated that contrary to general belief, the mentally disturbed are not mentally defective.

Father Trese, director of the Catholic Family Service and assistant director of Catholic Charities in the archidioceses spoke briefly of the fear of the mentally ill and quoted the statistic that one of every 12 youngsters born now will receive help for mental illness in their lifetime.

He told of his work with the Catholic Charities in the Archdiocese and told of the directors of Catholic Service agencies, the type of work they do, how they are set up to facilitate the servicing of those needing help, and how they discharge their duties.

He spoke of the Kundig Center in Detroit and how it has received national recognition because of its work with the aged.

Carmel Hall, open only a year, with a waiting list of 3,000 at the present, was given as an example of the number of people serviced and aided by Catholic charities.

Because of the vast amount of work in the service agencies and the vast amount of people seeking help coupled with the demands on the time of the trained clergy, Father Trese exemplified the need for the active participation of the layman in church and civic affairs, in unison with the church.

Among his many duties Father Trese is the Cardinal's representative for Catholic Hospitals, serves as chaplain for the National Council of Catholic Nurses and is a member of the Governor's commission for public health.

The Rev. Thompson Marcero, pastor of St. Vincent dePaul Church gave the Blessing and the closing prayer. A welcome was given by Mrs Arthur Crawford, president of the Pontiac unit and Mrs. Thomas Carry, immediate past president of the Pontiac unit, served as toastmistress.

Mrs. Howard Schreiner of Wyandotte, called the morning meeting to order and heard reports from attending units.

Group Entertained by Mrs. John Main

The January-March Group of First Presbyterian Church gathered for luncheon and meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John Main of South Pemberton road, Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. W. H. Baumgardner presented devotions taken from the Book of Ephesians. "Christian Living—Family Style" was discussed by Mrs. E. D. Auchard.

Plans were completed for a money-making project to be held Nov. 2-3 in the church parlors.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. E. H. Vogel, Mrs. Albin Anderson and Mrs. C. F. Tompkins.

The decorated sweater takes an entirely new look this season. It can be sophisticated or youthful. Rose-covered cardigan (left) combines pink embroidered open-petal roses with streamers of narrow velvet on white orlon. Sophisticated black orlon cardigan (center) is combined with white faille and black velvet trim. It's studded with tiny black velvet buttons. Youthful motif of autumn leaves in soft leather is used (right) for bulky orlon cardigan in gold. Most decorated sweaters are now designed to be worn for day or evening.

Philosophy Study Inspires Library

BY ANNE HEYWOOD

For example, here's a letter from a retired schoolteacher in a town in the Midwest.

"A year or so ago," she writes, "I was at a kind of dead end—63, small pension, nothing much to do with myself.

"I sent for your list of recommended books on philosophy and read them all.

"Then I suddenly realized that almost all philosophers in almost all languages had some variation of the same proverb: 'It is better to light one small candle than to complain about the darkness.'

"The Spanish said, 'Poco a poco se va lejos—'Little by little, you go a long way.' Someone else said 'The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step.'

"I began collecting sayings on that general theme and decided to practice this new philosophy.

"The first thing that occurred to me," she went on, "was our town's lack of a library. In fact, we've never had one.

"Well, I decided to make a small beginning.

"First, I turned my dining room, which I don't use very much, into a library room. I dug up all the old books I had and put them into categories and got a volunteer, a retired carpenter, to build lots and lots of bookshelves.

NEWSPAPER ARTICLE

"Then I spoke to the editor of our paper about my plan. He ran a piece, asking townspeople to contribute books and announcing that the 'library' was open to the public.

"The response was pretty good. "I took 20 dollars of my own money, went to the city and bought up all kinds of second-hand books which I knew a library should have. I also wrote to all the publishing houses for their catalogs.

"I thought that if somebody requested a book on a particular subject, and I didn't have it, I could at least tell them where to send for it and how much it cost."

By this time, of course, others had joined in to help.

Volunteer workers staffed the "library" when she was busy. The woman's club gave a big bridge party and the proceeds went to buy books. The village began to be pretty proud of its library and to use it a good deal.

STILL SMALL

"It's still not very big nor very adequate," she concludes, "but we're getting there. Besides, it's much better than no library at all.

"Really, I can hardly believe it myself. We may end up yet with a decent library!"

In-Law Irked About Being Left Out

By EMILY POST

"I live with my parents-in-law. We have a bedroom and a small sitting room. When we have guests, we usually receive them in the living room on the first floor since our sitting room upstairs is very small.

"The other evening, friends of ours whom we hadn't seen in a long time stopped in to see us. We sat talking with them in the living room. My mother-in-law was upstairs at the time and I did not call her down.

"She seemed put out because I did not ask her to come down and meet our guests. She would have been perfectly welcome had she come down but I did not think it was necessary to extend a special invitation. I would very much like to know if I was wrong not to ask her to come down?"

Answer: I do not think you can be considered wrong, since they were friends of yours. If they had been as much friends of hers as yours, that would have been another story.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My 17-year-old daughter has been dating a young man twice a week for the past four months. His family lives in this same town but I have never met them.

"My daughter would like me to invite them to dinner some Sunday. Would such an invitation be proper, or might they get the impression that I am trying to rush things between the young people?"

Answer: It depends upon their manner toward your daughter. If they are punctilious, it would be better not to — if they are very friendly, it would be all right.

Metropolitan Club Tells Future Plans

Mrs. Lawrence Lyons was welcomed as a new member of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Metropolitan Club, Spirit Six, Tuesday evening. Mrs. R. M. Baker and Mrs. John Morris were hostesses for the meeting held at the American Legion Home.

Plans were discussed for a money-making project to be held in October and a banquet to be served during the month of November. Proceeds from these two events will be used for baskets to be distributed to worthy families during the holidays.

The next meeting will be held at the American Legion Home on Nov. 6.

Coming Events

Mrs. Fred Hamilton of Paddock street will be hostess to the Ani chapter of the Armenian Relief Society Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Diplomacy Has Big Role in Successful Marriages

Wife With Tact Can Be of Great Help to Husband and Children

By RUTH MILLETT

On any list of qualities that make a woman a successful wife, diplomacy ought to be right up near the top.

A wife with diplomacy can sell her husband an idea. Not only that, she can manage to do it in such a way that in no time at all, if it is successful, he is taking the bows for it.

A wife with enough diplomacy gets along with her in-laws without ever letting them actually interfere with the marriage.

A diplomatic wife gets along with all her neighbors, even though she may not be on a "best friend" basis with any of them.

A wife who has diplomacy can, with a gentle word or two or a laugh at the right instant, soothe an irritable husband. She can focus the attention of a discouraged husband on the bright side of a gloomy picture.

She will find a better way than nagging for getting a husband to do a task he would rather put off indefinitely.

IMPROVE HUSBAND

A wife with enough diplomacy can even improve the man she has married. Of course, being diplomatic, she doesn't let him suspect he needs any improvement and she is willing to go at it in easy stages.

Other things being equal, a man with a diplomatic wife finds it easier to get ahead than a man with a wife who hasn't as much tact.

In fact, there is no job in life that requires as much diplomacy as being a wife and mother.

And the most successful women keep growing in diplomacy through the years.

Butter should be placed in the refrigerator immediately when received in the home and kept at a temperature of 40 degrees F. or lower.

Meeting Conducted by Rebecca Circle

Mrs. James Deeg and Mrs. Al Barker were guests of Rebecca Circle of Oakland Park Methodist Church Wednesday evening. Mrs. Marie George opened her home on Lowell street for the occasion.

Mrs. Clayton Gillis, president, opened the meeting with the reading of the poem, "I Shall Pass This Way but Once."

The group made plans for the Nov. 1 turkey dinner at which they will sponsor a candy booth. A cooperative dinner with the Esther Circle is planned for Nov. 14 at the church.

Chapter Watches Toy Demonstration

Zeta Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. William Doyan on Shaw drive for a toy demonstration. At the meeting plans were made for a progressive dinner to be held the latter part of November.

Dinner Set Tuesday

Waterford Republican Club will hold a cooperative dinner Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. in the CAI Building. County candidates and a state representative will be among the guests. Interested persons are invited.

Beware, Hubby's Letter May Be Product of Robot

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor

Next time you get a nice, long chatty letter from your husband while he's away on a business trip, look twice. It may have been written by a robot.

This is the latest bit of automation invented to simplify the life of the tired businessman, who has just as many push-button appliances as the more highly publicized ones operated by his wife. When he wants to write a letter — even a highly personal one — all he has to do is turn things over to a frightening new gadget called the robotyper. Within seconds the letter is electrically typed, stamped and in the mail. All he has to do is sign his name.

Wives of men attending the National Business Show in New York this week probably are amazed at the number of cheery letters they are receiving, when usually the most they can hope for is a postcard when Pop is on the road. What they don't know is that it's all due to this highly educated machine, which can turn out apparently bona fide letters of any kind in the bat of an eyelash.

The service is being offered free, including stamps, to men attending the business show, who select the sentiments they wish to express from some 30 prewritten paragraphs in any combination desired. A live secretary (blonde) then punches the designated paragraph buttons and the letter is on its way.

Pattern No. 2524 contains pattern pieces for doll and costume; hot-iron transfer for face; material requirements; sewing and finishing directions.

Send 25c in coins, your name, address and the pattern number to Ann Cabot, The Pontiac Press, 372 W. Quincy Street, Chicago 6, Illinois.

Now available—the colorful 1956 Needlework Album containing dozens of lovely designs from which to choose more patterns in crochet, embroidery and knit — plus three gift patterns, directions printed in book. Only 25c a copy!

Sorority Gathers With Mrs. Cross

Mrs. L. H. Cross was hostess to members of Alpha Chapter of Beta Theta Phi sorority in her Lexington drive home Tuesday evening.

Plans were made for the Needlework Guild Ingathering and Mrs. Lester Arie showed movies of a recent trip to Hawaii.

Guests present for the meeting were Mrs. Elmer Webb, Mrs. Leon Reene, Mrs. John Swanson, Mrs. Everett Lyon and Mrs. Jack Greathouse. Mrs. Frank Coad invited the group to her home on Neome drive for the November meeting.

Hal Boyle Says:

Pocket Gophers Can Run Like Politicians

NEW YORK (AP) — Odd items a columnist might never pick up if he didn't read his mail, or peak over a few transoms:

That although Indians in Cuba were blowing cigar and pipe smoke in each other's faces centuries before Christopher Columbus arrived, the first cigarettes were made in Turkey in the 18th Century.

* * * *

That the pocket gopher is one of the few animals — aside from politicians — that can run backward as rapidly and easily as they can go forward.

That the odds are 5-1 you aren't keeping a single New Year's resolution you made on last Jan. 1.

That the three most crowded lands on the globe are the Netherlands, Belgium and Japan. The Japanese population, now 90 million, has increased a spectacular 18 million since the end of the World War II.

That those who bewail the rock 'n' roll fad may or may not be consoled by a new trend — calypso music is becoming popular again.

That if every oil well suddenly went dry there is enough coal in America to heat its homes for 1,000 years — but who wants to carry out all those ashes?

That one of every 10,000 persons suffers from hemophilia, a disease marked by profuse bleeding from even slight injuries.

That although hemophilia often is called "the curse of the Hapsburgs," it actually was spread through Europe's royal families by descendants of Queen Victoria, who inherited it from her father.

That, however, since the disease skipped Queen Victoria's eldest son, Edward VII — and once the chain is broken it stays broken — none of Britain's present royal family is a "bleeder."

That if, as its critics say, radio is "deader than vaudeville," why are more home radios still being sold than television sets?

That the average child at the age of one year can say dada, mama and three other words. This is five words more than his father usually utters during breakfast.

That, according to the American Optometric Assn., eye accidents in industry occur at the rate of two a minute every working day. And 98 per cent are avoidable.

That one reason for America's traffic jams is that half of the nation's workers now drive to work in private cars, owned by themselves or fellow workers. In Russia there is no such problem.

That the silk spun by spiders is finer and stronger than that produced by silkworms. Then why is not it used in textiles? Because spiders won't cooperate and learn an honest trade. They'll spin for prey but not for pay.

That a Harvard sociologist has found the human race engaged in 976 important wars and 1,622 revolutions and major disturbances between 500 B. C. and 1925. Since 1925 we all know how "peaceful" things have been.

* * *

That if the current crop of political polls confuses you, you might remember it was O. Henry who observed, "A straw vote only shows which way the hot air blows."

Ad Sales to Aid Growing Pontiac High Yearbook

QUIVER AD SALE — The Pontiac High School yearbook, The Quiver, will sell ads for the first time in 26 years this year. Here kicking off the sales to Pontiac merchants which will begin next week to Pontiac merchants is Larry Beamer (center), ad manager for the Quiver. Basil B. Kimball, right of Pontiac Motor buys the ad. Looking on are the yearbook's co-editors, Lynda McCurdy and Jane Austin. Pontiac Press Photo

By JACK HENDRICKSON

The Quiver, Pontiac High School yearbook, will sell ads this year to supplement the funds they receive from Student Union. This is the first time ads have been sold by the Quiver in 26 years.

Larry Beamer is the advertising manager working with thirty committee members. The committee will start selling ads next week.

Jane Austin and Lynda McCurdy are this year's co-editors, under the advisorship of Mrs. Betty Fournier.

Mrs. Fournier plans to add 80 additional pages to the book, with the selling of the ads. These additional pages will handle the enlarged enrollment this year. Fifty pages will be for the regular content of school activities, and pupils. The remaining 30 will handle the ads.

This week the Quiver also finished distributing class pictures taken earlier this semester. In charge of the underclassmen is Dick Elshose. Carol Duford is working on arrangements with the photographer for the senior pictures. The photographer will be at Pontiac High for four weeks starting Monday.

The Radio Workshop has started its regular season's broadcasting of their three series, staged mainly for the elementary school children.

The "More Wonderful Than Magic" series in their first dramatization had Frank Taylor as Peter, Judy Lacy as Penny, and Donna Chilvers as Miss Polly, with Ron Cochrane announcing.

"The Little Red Lighthouse" was the first story of the "It's Story Time" series. With Chuck Williams as announcer, the cast included Judy Levine as the Story Princess; Elizabeth Gregory, the Little Red Lighthouse; Carl Code, the great grey bridge; Violet Hewitt, the canoe; Jack Schatzley, the steamer; and Bob Skinner, the tugboat.

The musical scores will be controlled by Kay Hamilton. Sound engineer will be Harold Hanson.

Bob Skinner was the announcer in the "Within Our Land" series. In this series Janet Eilender was in charge of the music. The cast in this skit included: narrator one, Judy Lauckner; narrator two, Chuck Williams; voice one, Carl Code; voice two, Alycemae Stephens. Voice three was portrayed by Jack Schatzley; the wind, Ron Cochrane; Earth, Sharon Mow; the piolet, Frank Taylor.

The Library announced a few figures this week. There were 608 more books in circulation this past September than there were the September of '55. In circulation now are 2,444 of which 1,347 are fiction.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, adviser to the Future Homemakers of America, met with her club last week. Officers were elected.

President is Mary Inman, with Barbara Mitchell, vice president; Daren Burnwarth, secretary; Pat Graham, treasurer; Edith Borow, reporter; Pat Bergman, historian.

A fall fashion show is slated for November. The models for this event will be chosen at the next meeting. Each girl may enter a garment made by herself under an instructor. Honor certificates will be awarded on the basis of suitable construction.

Club members who like cooking will prepare refreshments to be served buffet style to the parents and friends who will view the program.

By JUDY NIEDJELSKI

Where are the sophomores these days? Behind closed doors working on their annual dance. The name? The time? That's a deep, dark secret that the upper class students would like to know.

During their activity period last Monday, the seniors chose Saint Joseph as their class patron. This day being the feast of Saint Teresa, it was somewhat of a coincidence that they chose Saint Joseph, of whom this saintly Carmelite said: "I have never asked Saint Joseph for any favor that he has not obtained for me."

At this meeting, Mother Mary Gilbert presented each senior with a small statue of St. Joseph which touched the relic presevered in the famous shrine, Montreal, Canada.

Father O'Reilly's new hymn to Saint Joseph which has been recorded recently, was chosen by the seniors as their class hymn.

Madison Dedication Week Ends

Football Causes Junior High Excitement

Jefferson's taking the junior high football crown from Washington Wednesday topped junior high news in the city this week along with Madison's dedication week activities.

AT JEFFERSON

Jefferson is still shouting over winning the city football championship Wednesday by defeating Washington Junior High by a score of 7-6. Practically the whole school swarmed into Wisner Stadium to see Dick Craig's Warriors climb to victory.

A huge pep meeting preceded the game. Fred Smith, PTA representative gave a rousing talk to both players and students. Spirits soared high as the Jefferson Band played and the cheer leaders added spice to the rally.

Over 300 students attended the Teenage Dance given on Saturday by the PTA. Mrs. Paul Brown, president of the PTA, reports that it was a highly successful evening with a good profit and good times for both students and chaperones.

AT MADISON

Dedication of the school Sunday was a big success. An estimated crowd of 400 attended the ceremony and about 200 viewed the school during the open house.

The first regular meeting of the PTSA was last night with an open house for parents featured. "Know Your School" was the theme of the meeting with discussion groups composing the program.

AT LINCOLN

The highlight of the week for the Lincoln social studies classes was the mock meeting of the U. N. held in celebration of United Nations Day. The chief consideration of the assembly was the disposition of the Suez Canal problems.

An exciting poster contest is being opened for Library Club members as they make plans for a full length movie, "Drums Along the Mohawk" to be presented as a school-wide project. This event raises money to purchase books on special topics for the library.

Parents of the 7B's are being invited to attend an assembly on Oct. 25 and 26 at 8:45 a.m. Over 50 children will take part in this special thank you to the 9A's for their cordial welcome

AT EASTERN

Seventh graders have been in the limelight at Eastern the past few weeks. Now they can sit back and breathe a sigh of relief for once again they have completed the California Reading and Mental Maturity tests administered this year by guidance personnel.

A new addition to Eastern's front hallway is a bulletin directory presented to the school by the 1956 9A graduating class.

AT WASHINGTON

The Girls' Service Club of Washington Junior High has selected its officers for the coming year. They are: president Barbara Strang; vice president Kay Jerome; secretary Elaine Garrett; treasurer Karen Buchmann.

Little sisters from the 7th grade have been given to each club member and after school get-togethers are planned to help in getting to know each other. The club is selling Washington Emblems and ice cream bars at the football games as its money-making project.

The purpose of this club is to serve the school and community.

After the football season is over the class, directed by Kay Justin will be selling cookies. The money will be used to buy draperies for the clothing room.

WTHS Drama Club Comedy Opens

By SANDY WHITE

Two evening performances of "The Divine Flora" highlight events of the week. The hilarious comedy will be presented this evening and tomorrow evening, by the Waterford Township High Schools Dramatics Club in the gym. Curtain time is 8 o'clock.

The plot of the story revolves around a plain, young woman, played by Diana Craig, who isn't as popular with men as her rich advertising father, Dunstan Smith, thinks she should be.

Two eager teenagers, Ted Column and Chuck Bolten, who wish to get into the advertising business, are bribed by her father to make her popular. The fun comes during her summer vacation, when she no longer is drab and unpopular but a new vivacious Flora.

Futures may be determined or at least influenced next Wednesday, when Career Day makes a second appearance. Last year the first experiment of this vocational program proved very successful besides being interesting and beneficial to students.

Four individual sessions will then be attended by students throughout the day. Personnel from various fields of music, medicine, business administration, armed forces, industry, etc. will discuss their fields and answer any questions the students might have as, expenses, schooling, various positions and opportunities. To conclude the day a talent assembly will be presented.

Also Oct. 24 eligible students in schools all over the country will take the two and a half-hour merit Scholarship Examination. Forty-three from Watrford will be taking it.

The Pontiac Chamber of Commerce has asked Waterford to participate in the annual Christmas parade. For the float entry a committee from Student Council was selected to choose the theme and build the float.

Football, Pep Rallies, Dances Keep Area High School Students Hopping!

Football and all the excitement that comes with it have filled area schools this week.

AT WALLED LAKE

Band members are giving extra attention to the appearance of their instruments and uniforms this week in preparation for band day.

Tomorrow they will join thousands of other musicians from high schools all over the state in participating in the annual spectacle at Ann Arbor during the Michigan-Northwestern game. Director is Helmut Holland-Moritz.

In honor of the founding of the United Nations 11 years ago this week the senior high will enjoy a special assembly next Wednesday.

The three seniors who spent the summer as exchange students in Germany will relate some of their experiences for the student body.

AT LAKE ORION

The Bronze Boot trophy which was donated for the annual Orion-Oxford clash was presented to the Orion captain at the end of the game by Al Wagner of the Al Hanoute Agency who donated the trophy.

The Dragons won 32-0, and most of them returned to the Youth Center to celebrate the victory after the game. The trophy is now on display at the case in the hall of the school.

The senior tryouts are over and the school play, "Finders Creepers," is in the rehearsal stage. Dates for the play are Nov. 15-16. Walter Jenvey is director.

The Student Council launched the cleanup campaign for the school this week, with every student helping to keep the school and grounds in apple pie order.

The Pep Club is planning a dance after the game on Nov. 2. Pauline Kroneck, adviser, is helping with the plans which will be announced soon.

* * *

The football game Friday at Avondale will be attended by most of the student body. This has been the best year for sports attendance that Lake Orion has had.

AT ST. MARY'S

Each division of the institution presented Father with a Spiritual Bouquet. The Rev. Matthew Wieczorek, seminary, the Rev. Ken Lerezak, college, and Casey Krasowski and Larry Iminski, high school, represented the Orchard Lake Schools.

A huge pep rally with bonfire planned Saturday before the St. Mary-St. Michael game came to no good end. Rain soaked the wood making the plans impossible. A movie was substituted.

The annual retreat for St. Mary's High School and College was held all last week. The Rev. James Fitzpatrick, Dominican father from St. Dominic's Rectory, Detroit, was Retreat Master.

AT BLOOMFIELD HILLS

Nick Kerbawy, general manager of the Detroit Lions and sportswriter Lyall Smith spoke to Bloomfield Hills High School students in an assembly today preceding the football game with Country Day School.

AT AVONDALE

Seniors are feverishly working to complete arrangements for their play which will take place Nov. 7. Jackie Pyle is cast in the lead role of the comedy, "Books and Crooks."

Avondale's Marching Band will travel to Ann Arbor tomorrow to take part in University of Michigan's annual "Band Day." The activities will take place during the halftime of the Michigan-Northwestern football game. This is the first time the Avondale band has participated in the event.

Sharon Wiles was named queen of Avondale's first homecoming last Friday. The senior class won top honors in the float parade with a creation in flowers.

Plans for Halloween festivities are steadily taking shape with the traditional parade through Auburn Heights, a party at the American Legion Hall, and many other activities being planned.

Avondale's journalism class has formed a staff for the school paper. Wilbert Janoschka has been named managing editor with Joyce Nemec, business manager. Nov. 7 has been set as the first edition date.

The football team will play host to Lake Orion tonight. This shapes up to be a tough contest; Lake Orion undefeated in league play, Avondale having at 2-1 record. Game time is 8 p.m. at the Avondale field.

St. Fred Makes Plans

By MARGARET DRAKE

This weekend St. Frederick pastor, the Rev. Thompson Marcero, is celebrating the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

It is unique, too, because Father Marcero is a St. Fred's boy who lived and was raised within the shadows of the church of which he is now pastor. Yesterday the grade school honored his Silver Jubilee and today the high school presented its tribute.

Tomorrow, Saturday, a solemn High Mass will be sung at 11 o'clock and on Sunday another Solemn High Mass will be sung at 10 o'clock.

Junior class will present "Spooks Spree" on Friday evening in the auditorium. The masquerade party committee is headed by Bairn Dirker, Maureen Drake, James Devereaux and Mary Duerr.

A year book meeting was held on Monday evening at the home of Sally Heidebrand. Several important decisions were made regarding the book and the pictures.

The students are looking forward to the Moms' and Dads' club square dance on Saturday evening, Oct. 27. Already several sets have been reserved for the fun which begins at nine o'clock.

YMCA Dance Tonight

High School students are welcome to attend the Friday night Swing and Swim Club meeting at the YMCA. There's swimming and dancing, the YMCA officials report.

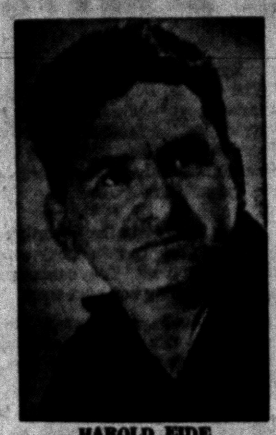
STUDY TO BE VETS — James V. Hruska, right, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hruska of 700 N. Cass Lake Rd., Pontiac, and Paul Snyder, left, of Owosso, are observing as Dr. G. H. Connor, associate professor of surgery and medicine at Michigan State University, examines this cow prior to an operation. Six years of study are required to become a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine. After two years of "pre-veterinary" study, students spend the next four in technical training in the College of Veterinary Medicine.

Alaskan Adventurer to Talk at Ortonville

BRANDON TOWNSHIP—Harold Eide of Jacksonville, Fla., will speak on his Alaskan adventures, Tuesday, at 6:30 p. m. in Brandon School auditorium.

The dinner event, open to the public, is sponsored by the Ortonville Rotarians.

Rotary members are planning for at least 200 guests for the occasion. Other Rotary organizations to be present include Oxford, Waterford, Drayton Plains, Clarkston, Grand Blanc and Davison.



HAROLD EIDE

Eide, rated as one of the best informed speakers on Alaska today, speaks before large service clubs throughout the U. S.

The adventurer lived alone in Alaska, built his own cabin and is said to be the only man to drive a team of wolves instead of dogs.

Howard Burt and Gordon McGinnis are chairmen for the event. Tickets may be bought from any Ortonville Rotarian.

BEVERLY LEE RUBEL

Arnold Rubel, 8260 River Rd. Utica, announces the engagement of his daughter, Beverly Lee, to James H. Barriault, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Barriault Sr., of 45041 Merrill Rd., Utica. Wedding details have not been announced.

Commerce Homecoming Oct. 24

Highlight Eras From 1906

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — A complete history of the Commerce Methodist Church will be unfolded when members, former members and all persons interested in the church get together at a Homecoming Banquet slated for 6:30 p.m., Oct. 24 Wednesday, in Masonic Hall.

Under the title of "Commerce Church—This Is Your Life," the banquet program will cover church activity from its beginning up to the present time. Highlights of the different eras will be dramatized.

David Mansfield will act as master of ceremonies during the program; Edward Cook will represent the church; Mrs. Milton Hogg will represent the women of the church while Susan Griffis, Margaret Skarritt and Jim Thompson will perform as "pioneer parishioners."

Others who will play an active part in the presentation include Mrs. Marge Kinport, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Young and Mrs. Roland McKenzie. Honor guests for the occasion include Louise Paddock, Mrs. Eva Roselle, Joe Long and Mrs. Elizabeth Dickie.

Banquet decorations, under the direction of Mrs. James Gardner, will carry a harvest theme and lists dating back to 1906.

Frozen Foods Gain

CHICAGO—The retail value of frozen foods produced in the United States in 1955 totaled 1.7 billion dollars compared with 1.45 billion in 1954 and $68,000,000 in 1938.

Oakland Farmers Back Anti-Erosion Program

Farmers in Oakland County have increased their support of conservation programs here, and loss of soil and water through erosion was reduced on 316 acres due to strip cropping in the last year and a half, says a federal official here.

Merrill Ray, work unit conservationist of the U.S. Soil Conservation Service in Pontiac says the acres will be better protected in years to come, as the water saved begins to bring about increased yields with more organic matter being put back in the land.

"Our program was taken up by 45 farmers in the same period," says another official, Harold Mitchell of the Oakland County Soil Conservation District.

The SCS is working to give complete soil and water conservation plans, with a soil inventory to tell the capability of the land to produce food and fiber, he says.

Cropland has been turned to trees on 174 acres since January, 1955, he reports, predicting that more farmers will do so through the Soil Bank plan.

Wildlife has been given new food and shelter by two miles of hedgerow planting done by district farmers last year. Using multiflora rose to produce dense shelter for birds and rabbits, the plantings will result in fences for livestock and emergency food for birds in winter.

Car Rams Train, 5 Youths Killed

Lone Survivor Listed in Critical Condition After Alabama Crash

LINDEN, Ala. (AP)—Five youths were killed when their speeding car slammed into a moving freight train and then was hurled against a small trackside building last night.

"It looked worse than a slaughter pen," said Sheriff T. Wilmer Shields.

Killed, according to investigating officers, were M. C. Robertson, 16, believed to have been the driver; John Lee Robertson, 14, his brother; Lorenza Scott, 17; Sylvester Alston, 16; and Levin Besteder Jr., 16.

Shields said the boys were returning from a football game at Linden when their car skidded into a southbound Frisco Railroad freight train.

Their automobile struck with such force that a heavily loaded flat car about midway of the train was jarred from the rails. The partly derailed car bumped down the tracks about a mile, damaging cross ties and a switch.

Patrol Sgt. D. M. Bryant said the automobile skidded 258 feet before crashing into the train.

Grand Jury Indicts Another Ecorse Aide

DETROIT (AP)—A former Ecorse councilman who is city assessor was indicted yesterday by a grand jury investigating the city's government.

Rudy Hickey, 34, was identified as "John Doe No. 3" in the indictment of 31 Ecorse City officials and citizens Sept. 29.

He was identified yesterday when his arrest was ordered by Grand Juror Theodore H. Bohn, a Wayne County Circuit Court judge.

He is accused of gambling conspiracy. Hickey denied the charge.

His identification as one of the "John Does" in the original indictment left only four "John Does" and five "Mary Roes" to be identified.

Twelve indictments originally were handled in that manner.

Kefauver Slaps GOP on Bomb

Hits Republican Refusal to Talk End of Nuclear Experiments

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver today denounced as "monstrous nonsense" what he called Republican reasons for refusing to discuss an end to hydrogen bomb testing.

Hitting once more at President Eisenhower's "last word" on the bomb issue, the Democratic vice-presidential candidate said Eisenhower cannot be permitted to snuff out discussion of "the nightmare of a nuclear weapons race" between this nation and Russia.

In unusually strong words prepared for a Democratic luncheon rally here not far from the birthplace of the A-bomb, Kefauver made it clear the Democrats intend to keep on pressing an international H-bomb curb as a campaign issue.

He accused Republicans of giving a "political twist" to the proposal of Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic standard bearer, for a moratorium on "unlimited and uncontrolled testing of super bombs."

"No matter what age they live in, Republicans never seem to change," he said.

"In the name of security they have tried, through distortion and hiding behind secrecy, to mislead the American people on what is right for us and the world, and what is feasible from a military standpoint."

In connection with his speech, Kefauver released a statement on nuclear testing by David L. Hill, atomic physicist at Los Alamos, N.M., and former head of the Federation of American Scientists.

Hill's statement accused the Atomic Energy Commission of responsibility "for the sorry state of affairs" in which he said the United States had fallen behind the world in industrial development of the atom.

Kefauver flew here last night from the drought-parched areas of Western Missouri and Kansas, where he lambasted the Eisenhower administration for "incredible incompetence and mismanagement" of farm problems.

Last night in the heart of the drought area, several thousand persons turned out to fill the stands at the Garden City, Kan., football stadium and cheer Kefauver's jabs at Eisenhower and Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

Name Church to Council

Utica Man to Replace Albrecht, Harold Kemp Given Water Job

UTICA—Edward Church, 45845 Cass Ave., has been appointed by the City Council to fill the unexpired term of George Albrecht, who left his council post to succeed Donald Havet as mayor.

Church, who has served as councilman two times previously will serve until the election in April, 1957.

Before becoming mayor, Albrecht was also water commissioner. He has appointed Harold Kemp Jr., 7878 Ruby St., also a councilman and mayor pro-tem to the water commissioner post.

Husband Held in Attack With a Meat Grinder

Mrs. Donna Aker, 32, of Pontiac Township, is in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today with head injuries suffered last night when her husband reportedly struck her with a meat grinder. Her condition is satisfactory.

Her husband, Leroy L., 38, is being held in the County Jail for investigation of felonious assault.

Mrs. Aker told investigators her husband seemed depressed just before he assaulted her. She said she wrestled with him after being struck and managed to get the grinder away from him before calling police.

School Building Forum Scheduled at U. of M.

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The University of Michigan will hold a one-day conference Nov. 1. on planning for improved school buildings.

A series of addresses by architects and clinics on school planning is scheduled. The conference will be under the joint auspices of U-M's college of architecture and design and school of education.

Savoy Motel Open on Telegraph Road

The Savoy Motel on Telegraph road at Menominee opened recently. The 40-unit motel is owned by Richard Scribner and Hubert H. Curson of Pontiac, and Morris Dresner of Detroit. Dresner was the builder.

Located just north of Scrib's Restaurant, the 178x70x104 cement-block building has two stories. A separate building houses the office, TV lounge and manager's apartment of Mr. and Mrs. William Bright.

Besides the usual single and double rooms there are two-room suites. The roof over the entrance will be a sundeck in the summertime. The courtyard has been black topped for parking.

Mother Delivers Baby —Unassisted in Auto

JACKSON (AP) — A report that "help is needed by a woman" on Jackson's U.S. 12 bypass proved to be unfounded yesterday when State Police found Mrs. Mary Kestleoot, 27, of Richmond, tending her new born daughter.

En route to a hospital, the father-to-be's car stalled. He went for help. Both troopers and the baby arrived before he got back to the car.

Mrs. Kestleoot, who had delivered her daughter in the rear seat, and the infant, were taken to Mercy Hospital and later released to go home.

Gun Mishaps to Kill 25

LANSING (AP)—Based on figures from previous years, the State Health Department estimates 25 persons will die from gun accidents in Michigan in the next 12 months. The opening of the small game season in southern Michigan Oct. 20 usually brings several deaths.

Maple Beach Planning Family Halloween Fete

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP—The Maple Pointe Beach and Annex Improvement Assn. will hold its second event of the year—a Halloween party—on Wednesday eve-ning, Oct. 31, at the park at Lower Straits Lake.

The Association launched its new program of family get-togethers Labor Day when a large crowd turned out for a special program.

Children of all ages and their parents are invited to attend the Halloween party.

A lengthy program is now being arranged by a committee which is headed by Clayton Stokes, general chairman. Contests will be held for all age groups and refreshments will be served. A lighting system will be installed at the park for the event.

Says Contract Needed Hall OK

Firm Official Claims Job Awarding Hinged on Being GOP Backer

WASHINGTON (INS)—Congressional investigators were told today a firm had to prove it was an administration supported before it was awarded a 43 million dollar government construction contract.

Randall Cremer, former vice president of the rFederick Snare Corp., gave the testimony to a House Government Operations subcommittee at a public hearing presided over by Rep. Jack Brooks (D-Tex).

Cremer said he and friendly administration people had to prove to Republican national chairman Leonard W. Hall the inaccuracy of rumors that officials of his New York engineering firm had contributed to the Democratic party and had New Deal connections.

He was the first witness as th subcommittee reopened hearings on the $43,000,000 contract. The contract was awarded in 1954 the Snare Corp., and a New York firm for expansion of a nickel plant at Nicaro, Cuba. The two companies split equally a one million dollar fee.

At one point, Cremer testified: "Mr. Hall told me he was interested simply in whether we had contributed to the Democratic party as was told to him by contractors."

Cremer noted that his company had performed two large jobs previously at the Nicaro plant under previous Democratic administrations. Regarding the earlier contracts, he said:

"No one ever asked whether we were Republicans or Democrats. They had a job to do and picked the best people to do it."

On Sept. 14, Hall denied the charges by Cremer, saying that any suggestion that he had ever cleared a contractor for work for the government "is pure bunk."

The loss from worthless checks offered for payment in the U. S. in one year runs as high as $300 million, according to banking estimates.

Strikes in East Germany Gripping Key Factories

By REINHOLD ENSZ

BERLIN (AP) — Communist East Germany's secret police have been ordered to quell slowdown strikes that are gripping key factories, western sources reported today.

The League of Free Jurists — a West Berlin anti-Communist organization with numerous contacts in the East — said the secret police have been sent into factories in Magdeburg, a tense center of labor unrest. Der Tag, an independent West Berlin newspaper, said 2,000 police have been rushed into Magdeburg from East Berlin.

The newspaper said the strikes have spread to factories in Erfurt and Karl Marx City (formerly Chemnitz). The newspaper and the Free Jurists said the strikes resulted from long standing grievances about low pay and high work quotas. These were the same issues which sparked the East German workers rebellion of June 17, 1953.

The Communists themselves have acknowledged that Magdeburg is being tripped by labor unrest, but have denied strikes are taking place.

The acknowledgement was made Tuesday, in the official labor newspaper Tribuene. It said workers at four Magdeburg factories were angry about low pay and excessive work quotas. A Communist party spokesman in Magdeburg — reached by telephone today — denied the strike reports. He termed them a "dirty lie."

The East German radio also denied the strike reports.

"They were invented from A to Z," a broadcast said, insisting that production is normal.

The Free Jurists said five big Magdeburg factories have been affected by the strikes. Two were formerly owned by the giant Krupp firm. One of the ex-Krupp plants — now called the Thaelmann Works (after an East German Communist leader) — has been solidly ringed by police, the Free Jurists reported.

"The Thaelmann Works has been completely cut off from the outside world," the Free Jurists said. "Production is at a virtual standstill. In the other big factories the picture is not uniform. In (Magdeburg's) Karl Marx Factory, for example, there are still individual divisions that are working."

However, the Free Jurists said, secret police have been sent into all the factories, and Communist functionaries are trying to negotiate agreements with the workers.

"It is generally expected," the Free Jurists said, "that the crisis will come to a head during the weekend."

The Free Jurists organization said its report was based on information supplied by residents of Magdeburg. So far, it said, there have been no reports of arrests or violence.

Navy Plane Crashes —Crewmen Saved

MANILA, (INS)—The Navy revealed today that a big P5M Marlin plane broke up and sank last night as it crash-landed in the Pacific off the Sangley Point U. S. Naval Air Station, but all 10 crewmen escaped with minor cuts and bruises.

All crew members were pulled out of the water by a Navy crash boat within one minute after the ditching.

Cause of the accident was not immediately determined.

The Marlin, piloted by Lt. Comdr. Ray Madson of Coronado, Calif., was returning to Sangley Field, after completing a routine patrol mission, when the crackup occured.

The plane and its crew belong to Patrol Squadron 48 stationed at Iwakuni, Japan, but the aircraft had been detached for operations in the Philippines.

Already at $200, Pot-O-Gold Is Filling Up Again

Even though Pot-O-Gold was relieved of quite a bit of its burden, this week's puzzle is worth $200 again. So don't give up on your old friend yet . . . just try matching wits with the two previous winners. Two people have solved it so far, and there are bound to be more. You might as well be one of them. Puzzle No. 20 is worth at least $100, even if there's a winner for last week's puzzle.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.

2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answer words in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 20 must bear a Tuesday, Oct. 23, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time, whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner, no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries become the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Pot-O-Gold Answers Explained

Below are the correct answers and explanations for Pot-O-Gold puzzle No. 19 which appeared in last week's Pontiac Press.

1. A cheerful GRIN will always win friends. A Girl, even though cheerful, might be stodgy and dull, iwth all the charm and animation of a cow. It takes more than good cheer, girls!

2. AGE fits the limitation of "an old" man who's been held up. The old heart and the arteries can't always stand up under all that fright and excitement. A Gag could choke him, but it isn't usually that tight. A Gat or pistol could cause the death of anyone, young or old.

3. A HARPY is nobody's dream girl. She's a repulsively greedy and unfeeling woman, and not even a husband really wants her around. A Sharp wife might be fun; she can be witty, and have a keen mind. Sharp doesn't have to mean harsh or severe.

4. Some people FLEE responsibility for any of their relatives. They don't like any of them, and are just not around when need arises. Though there are people who Feel responsibility for some of their relatives, they are rare souls indeed who are willing to take care of "any" of them.

5. A LOUD suitor would not do at all for a self-sufficient woman. If she's successful as a career woman, she doesn't want to take a back seat while the Loud man holds forth. If she's self-sufficient in that she does not need people around. A Bold suitor has a certain dash that appeals to many girls, and so does a Cold one, who is usually the hard-to-get type.

6. BEARD is right. If Grandpa was the fussy type the clue suggests, he would always insist that his BEARD be cut to look neat. He'd certainly be fussier about his BEARD than about the Bread.

7. If a LOT were missing, a coded message wouldn't be much good. A Dot, or a Jot, missing would only throw one word or passage off key.

8. A girl who seemed especially ALIVE would be animated and gay; everyone would like her. The Naive girl is unsophisticated and simple. This has charm for some people, but others sometimes think she's a little slow to catch on.

9. TILT is better. If a house develops a List, it leans slightly. By the time it shows a TILT, it's in danger of falling over, and everybody who lives there had better get right out.

10. If Joe is a CLAM, he is very secretive and all his friends will run to him with their troubles because he'll never say a word to anyone about them. Just because a man is Calm, it does not follow that he won't talk too much.

11. A DIARY is frequently a background for a book; "Anna and the King of Siam" ("The King and I") is one. Besides the personal DIARY, there are all those men who leap out of public life and into their memoirs. The books with a Dairy background can't touch this crop.

12. The SECRET of a nation-wide criminal's hide-out involves tireless search by the F.B.I. Those men aren't satisfied just to uncover Traces: they want to know where their fugitive is! Sector, or a section of the country, is not good; it would only be the start of the search.

13. An OLDER man is likely to attract a serious-minded young woman. She is not the fun-loving type, ahd his pace has slowed down to match hers. A Droll man is facetious, comical; he's likely to see the funny side of everything, which wouldn't fit in with her mood at all.

14. HEAT often affects a man's disposition; it's hard not to be cross when you're hot and sticky. Hate is very special, directed at one person, or a group, and often concealed. Some of our most vicious tyrants are all sweetness and light at home with the wife and kiddies.

15. STAKE is more likely to be "on the lawn," suggesting a post for the croquet game. A Skate, when out of use, is usually kept in the house so that it won't get rusty.

16. A MIRAGE is really hard to explain — "an optical illusion arising from an unequal refraction from the lower strata," etc. Anyway, in the desert, if you see water and break a leg to get to it, only to find it isn't there at all—that's a MIRAGE. An Enigma isn't hard to explain at all; somebody always knows the answer, and if you can't guess, he'll be glad to tell you. Images don't usually require much explanation; they're supposed to look like somebody, or something, or to reflect a thing already known.

THE POWERHOUSE

By JIMMY POWERS

Let's apply a football situation to a horse race. Suppose a brilliant run is made around right end and clipping or holding occurred on the other side of the line? Would you want to see the run nullified?

Well, the late Tom Thorpe, one of sports' all-time officials, refereed football entirely on the movement of the ball. In such a situation as the above, Tom held his whistle. We'd appreciate it if whistle-happy officials would follow Tom's principles in football and basketball.

Now the same sort of absurd situations are happening in horse racing. Do you feel a horse should be penalized for a minor bit of interference with another horse in the backstretch, if the interference doesn't directly affect the final result of the race?

Chances are you don't, particularly when the penalized horse happens to have set a world record.

This happens to be the crux of 1956's hottest racing controversy. It concerns the disqualification of Prince Khaled in the recent Del Mar Futurity for "coming over" on a horse in the early part of the race—a type of interference which didn't influence the outcome of the test in the opinion of most West Coast horsemen and racing writers.

TRAINER RAPS DECISION AS UNFAIR

"The ruling was both unfair and inconsistent," says trainer Tommy Taylor, now at Garden State Park, on with Prince Khaled for the world's richest race. The Garden State, on October 27th.

Taylor points out that the giant colt (who, though only two years old, is bigger than most four-year-olds) finished 11½ lengths in front of the fouled horse after running the fastest six furlongs in history—1:08 4/5—for a young horse around a turn.

The foul was claimed on behalf of Mr. Sam S. by jockey Johnny Longden, and it was only after prolonged study of the movies that the Del Mar stewards finally took down Prince Khaled's number.

Swirling Abbey, beaten by three lengths, was moved to first and Mr. Sam S. placed second, with Prince Khaled third.

The decision was vigorously protested by Gen. A. A. Kratz, Prince Khaled's owner, and he has now taken the matter to the California Horse Racing Board. The general is a man distinguished by courageous and vigorous actions.

NOW A LION — Tom Tracy who was released three weeks ago by Ottawa of the Cadian League, has finally become a member of the Detroit Lions. The Lions attempted to get Tracy before the season but Ottawa refused to give him a release.

Lions Sign Tracy in Time for 49ers

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

DETROIT — A boyhood dream has finally come true for Tom Tracy.

The former Birmingham High School gridder who later starred at the University of Tennessee and in Canadian pro ball, signed a contract and today was added to the Detroit Lions roster in time for the big game wth San Francisco Sunday.

To make room for Tracy, the Lions placed Bill Bowman on the 30-day injured reserve list.

This means that Bowman will be out of action for four games, during which time Tracy will have to prove his worth to stay on the roster.

After Bowman's return to the active list, the Lions will be one player over the 33-man limit.

Tracy will get his chance behind Gene Gedman at fullback, who has been a driving power in Detroit's offensive attack, which in three games is the best in the NFL.

Gedman suffered a slight leg injury after a spectacular performance against the Los Angeles Rams last week, but the former Indiana University star will be in the starting lineup Sunday.

Only two months ago Tracy was the center of controversy between the Lions and Ottawa of the Canadian League.

The Ottawans refused to release "The Bomb" from his option clause and NFL Commissioner Bert Bell stood by the Canadians refusing to approve Tracy's contract with the Lions.

"I've been waiting for this opportunity for a long time," said Tracy, who lives here in Pontiac, "and now it's all up to me."

During the exhibition season in Canada, Tom suffered torn ligaments in his leg and was out of action until his release.

"I've been working out on my own and the leg feels real good," he said.

Tracy is down to his playing weight of 198 pounds, losing about 10 pounds since leaving Canada.

Coach Buddy Parker said Tracy would get into Sunday's game against the 49ers. "The loss of Bowman is serious for us, because we had really counted on him to be our starting fullback," said Parker.

"And even though Gedman is doing great, he still needs some help," Parker added.

Big Leon Hart may move into the slotback position in place of the injured Jim Doran.

San Francisco boasts some of the best running backs in the game with Hugh McElhenny, considered the classiest breakaway back in the NFL, along with John Henry Johnson and Joe Arenas.

Detroit, getting its best start in the league in three years, will counter with another McIlhenny. Rookie Don McIlhenny of Southern Methodist is currently 10th among the ball carriers in the pro circuit. He picked up 77 yards against the Rams last week.

Another capacity crowd of 56,000 is expected for the 1:30 kickoff at Briggs Stadium. A victory for the Lions is important inasmuch as they will have to face the Rams and 49ers again on the Coast in the two games following.

St. Fred Plays Saturday; Mikes, Eaglets in Action

St. Rita of Hazel Park moves into Wisner Stadium Saturday night to tangle with St. Frederick for this weekend's curtain-raiser on a full slate of Suburban Catholic League football games.

The three remaining league encounters are scheduled Sunday afternoon. St. Michael hopes to keep possession of the Roamin' Jug when it invades Royal Oak to meet St. Mary. Center Line St. Clement is host to powerful St. Mary of Orchard Lake, and Ferndale St. James faces St. Benedict at Highland Park.

St. Fred, desperately trying to snap its winless streak which has now reached 30 games, hopes to have a few surprises for the Vikings. The Hazel Park squad is deadlocked with St. Mike and St. Benedict for 2nd place with a 3-1 record.

Coach Gene Wright has been overhauling his offensive unit in drills this week in an effort to get the attack rolling. The Ram offense has sputtered badly so far this season.

St. Mike will be heavily favored to whip the Irish and maintain its grip on the quaint Roamin' Jug. The jug, a symbol of gridiron supremacy between the two schools, was brought here from Rome, Italy.

St. Mary has never had its hands on the prize since its inception in 1950. The Irish do not appear well enough equipped to take it away from the Shamrocks this year. Their offense has lacked authority and they are without victory in five starts.

St. Clement seems incapable of springing an upset on the defending champion Eaglets. One of Oakland County's eight remaining undefeated and untied teams, St. Mary will be overwhelmingly favored to win its 5th decision of the season and 18th in a row.

In a Saturday afternoon parochial attraction, Shrine winds up its 1956 season against St. Patrick at Royal Oak.

'Big One' for MSU

EAST LANSING (AP)—The Michigan State football team will be out to massacre an old friend Saturday.

There's a very real and strong friendship between the Spartans of Michigan State and the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame.

But on the football field, all friendships are forgotten.

The rivalry with Notre Dame dates back to 1897. But after 1921 it was dropped for a while when the then agricultural college was mopped up 48-0.

The relationship was resumed in 1948 — an agreement that helped bring in the cash when MSU needed cash for its expanding athletic program.

The Irish won in 1948 and 1949. But Michigan State has won four out of five since then.

In 1954, when State had its sad 3-6 season, the loss was still only by a one point, 20-19 margin. Last year State won 21-7.

Michigan State, number two team in the country, is rated the favorite after three wins and because the Irish have lost two out of three.

"But you can throw all yardsticks out the window when you play Notre Dame," MSU coach Duffy Daugherty warned.

Michigan State proved it has a running game in its first two against Stanford and Michigan. Against Indiana last week, the Spartans showed they also have a passing attack.

Clarence Peaks, the all-around backfield great, has been starring for MSU from left half. But State's great depth also has been wearing down opponents.

Notre Dame has been bothered by injuries this week. Paul Hornung, Notre Dame's great halfback still is healthy, however, and is rated by MSU scouts as one of the great backs in the country.

Vikings Tangle With Bay City

FLINT (AP)—With the seating capacity boosted to more than 17,000 with bleacher seats, Atwood Stadium will be the scene of Michigan's "prep game of the year" Friday night when undefeated Flint Northern High entertains unbeaten Bay City Central High.

Northern, ranked No. 1 in the weekly Associated Press poll, has whipped No. 3-ranked Grand Rapids Catholic Central (21-19), Grand Rapids Union (27-0), No. 4-ranked Ann Arbor (33-0), Saginaw (40-0) and Muskegon (26-0).

Bay City Central, No. 2 in the AP poll a mere two points behind Northern, has defeated Owosso (38-0), Muskegon Heights (26-0), Bay City Handy (58-6), Pontiac (32-0) and Saginaw (71-13).

The state and Saginaw Valley Conference championships may well hinge on the outcome of the game, which has attracted more interest than any other football game in Flint history outside of the traditional Thanksgiving Day classic between Northern and Flint Central.

'Jacks Capture SVC Harrier Title

By H. GUY MOATS

With five runners in the leading 10 out of the field of 40, Saginaw Arthur Hill's cross-country team yesterday made an easy title victory of the annual fall Saginaw Valley Conference harrier championship.

Event was run over the newly laid out two-mile course on Pontiac Municipal Golf layout. Course was over the north portion of the links and provided an interesting test, Valley coaches reported.

Lumberjacks' Dick Fisher was first home at 10:39, rated excellent time. Pontiac's Roger Coats was second, seven seconds back at 10:46.

On the Chief's heels was Rickey Darby (AH) at 10:48. Chasing Darby were Henry Wismer (AH) 10:48, Pontiac's soph Rufus Anderson at 10:50, Dave Walkowiack (Bay City) at 10:51, Bob Graves (AH) at 10:52.

As a matter of fact the finish was one of the closest, and most tightly bunched in year. Only 19 seconds separated the winner from the 10th place finisher, George Bentley of Flint Central at 10:58.

In order of finish the teams included Arthur Hill with 23 points; Flint Northern with 68; Pontiac (defending champion) with 86; Bay City with 100; Saginaw, 102 and Flint Central 112.

The pack stayed together for most of the first mile. After that the leaders' pace began to tell and the field gradually stretched out. Fisher, Coats, Bob Dwyer, and Walkowiak of Bay City, Northern's Jim Moore, maintained near-front positions practically all the way. Coats came up from the middle of the pack during the final half, along with Fisher and three others.

Points were figured down to the 34th place, held by Bay City's Gary Rich (11:49). Only Flint Central failed to have a full seven-man team, running with five.

Flint Central's Jayvees won the reserve title with 35 points, Other places—Arthur Hill 63, Saginaw 70, Pontiac 79, Bay City 115, Flint Northern, 177.

Central's winner was Buck Miley (11:21), and George Fredericksen of Central was 2nd. Pontiac's Russ Renfrow and John Jefferson were 3rd and 4th.

Titans in Homecoming Tilt

DETROIT—It will be the University of Detroit's aerial potential against Tulsa's power when the two Missouri Valley Conference elevens meet here Saturday for the 16th time. The game will climax a weekend of Homecoming activities on the Detroit campus with the kickoff set for 2 p. m.

The Motor City club holds a 10-4 edge in the series with Tulsa, and there has been one tie. However, after beating the Hurricane three years in a row Detroit is likely to enter Saturday's contest as the underdog off comparable records to date.

They have had one mutual foe, Marquette. Tulsa romped over the Warriors, 54-0, compared to the 20-7 edge by which the Titans defeated the Milwaukee team. For the season Tulsa now stands at 2-1-1, and Detroit has a 1-2 mark.

Detroit coach Wally Fromhart plans another switch at quarterback this week, turning the starting assignment over to Lou Faoro, a sophomore from Joliet, Ill., who earned the call off his work in a losing cause against Wichita last week. Faoro hit on eight of 11 passes in that game, including one touchdown toss, although he played only 18 minutes.

Detroit has gained more yardage by air than on the ground in its three games, and five of its six touchdowns have been scored through the airlanes.

In contrast, Tulsa, paced by two strong runners in Ron Morris and Dick Hughes, has churned to 1186 yards on the ground in four starts against only 205 yards by passing.

Little Chiefs Win 5th in Row

Harrison Munson again was the pacesetter for the Pontiac High School Junior Varsity grid squad as it won its 5th straight victory, Thursday, at Wisner field. Little Chiefs dumped Arthur Hills' Jayvees 18-6, with Munson getting two of the three touchdowns on short quarterback sneaks. Larry Douglas scored the 3rd counter on a 3-yard dive. All were racked up in the 2nd period.

Many fumbles marred the play of both teams, Pontiac making 8 and Hills 5. About half were recovered by each club.

Long Drives Give Madison 12-0 Victory Over Eastern

Madison sustained two long scoring drives Thursday afternoon at Wisner Stadium to defeat Eastern, 12-0, in a Pontiac Junior High League football game.

Right halfback Dick Perez accounted for both touchdowns as Madison chalked up its 2nd league win in three starts. It was the 3rd straight loss for Eastern.

The 1st touchdown, which climaxed a push of 50 yards, came in the 2nd quarter. Perez swept 20 yards on a reverse for the tally.

Spearheaded by middle guard Bob Carroll, Madison's defense checked Eastern for negative yardage. Offensively, center Richard Ayott and tackle Dave Fox were blocking standouts. Quarterback Henry West, who completed four passes in six attempts to end Ronald Franks, also starred on the attack.

League standings:

Costello to Begin Olympic Work in LA

Edged out four years ago in the semi-finals at Helsinki, Pat Costello is making an all-out bid to avenge his defeat this year in the double sculling event in the Olympics games in Australia.

In the past year the Birmingham athlete has run and rowed some 1,700 miles, the distance from here to Miami, to tune himself up for the races.

That much practice, in itself, is noteworthy. For Pat holds a full-time job with the truck office management group at GMC Truck & Coach Division in Pontiac and must do all his training during odd hours.

"I'm 27 now," explained the blond, soft-spoken athlete. "By the next Olympics, in 1960, I'll be 31 and 'over the hill' as a competitor. You might say this is my last chance."

Their two-man racing shell will fly the Detroit Boat Club's colors in the International classic at Melbourne.

The shell Pat and Jim will race will be 35 feet long and weigh only 60 pounds. It is being built especially for Olympics competition.

Jim, a powerfully built all-round athlete, will set the pace by being "stroke", while Pat, a lithe 6 foot 2, 180 pounder, will guide the boat from the bow. Each has unbounded faith in the other's prowess.

As the Nov. 23-27 dates for the sculling races draw nearer, Pat will intensify his training. He, his team-mate and other Boat Club scullers will leave for Los Angeles Sunday for final workouts before flying to Australia about Nov. 7th.

READY FOR OLYMPICS — Holding a pair of "sculls" which he uses to drive his racing shell through the water at 12 miles an hour, Pat Costello of Birmingham, got ready for his trip to the 1956 Olympics at Melbourne, Australia. He had been working out at a local lake before entraining for California for Olympic workouts.

New Career for Nashua

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Famed Nashua rested today, awaiting a trip to the farm and his new career — trying to produce swift horses to follow in his footsteps.

The 4-year-old winner of $1,288,565, tops in racing history, will be taken to Spendthrift Farm Saturday to enter stud.

Ute's Jack Hill Leading Gridder

The weekly release of the NCAA Statistical Bureau shows the 185-pound, senior halfback leading his major college rivals in scoring with 60 points, first in rushing with 465 yards on 73 carries and first in pass interceptions with 5.

Hey Sports Fans, Win Free Trip to Russia

WASHINGTON (INS) — Would you like to win a ten-day, all expenses paid trip to Russia?

Adopting the western radio gimmick, the quiz program, Moscow radio is offering its listeners — wherever they may live — the free trip as first prize in an "Olympic quiz."

Contestants are asked to name the winners in the following Olympic events: soccer, hammer throwing, 100-meter weight lifting, 10,000-meter race for men, water polo and 80-meter hurdles for women.

All answers must be sent to Moscow by Nov. 22, Moscow radio said in a broadcast recorded here.

Writer Defends Archers' Use of Camouflage

Says Richard Hirnelsen of Drayton Plains:

"Seems I had just discovered another avid gun hunter and archer-hater. Every sport has its tenderfoots as the 'stillhunters' and 'roadhunters'.

"The woman hunter, however, didn't show lack of hunting sense. I have seen deer in shooting range while walking across fields in bow-season."

Hirneisen wrote that while wearing camouflage, "deer came within 20 feet of us. Over several years we have found it to be invaluable.

"I hunt with both gun and bow, and enjoy one as much as the other."

Hillsdale Has Best Defensive Record

NEW YORK (AP)—Hillsdale of Michigan, with five consecutive 1956 victories and a string of 21 ina row, thus bar has exhibited the best football defense of any of the nation's smaller colleges.

The Dales of the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Assn. (MIAA) have allowed 1956 opponents a meager average of only 87.6 yards per game.

Wings Still Unbeaten, Tied 3-3

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings still are the only unbeaten team in the National Hockey League. But the Toronto Maple Leafs hung a 3-3 tie on the league-leaders at Olympia Stadium last night.

The Red Wings managed a tie only in the last 40 seconds when Gordie Howe rammed home his first goal of the 1956 season.

Detroit, thanks to triumphs in its three previous games, now leads Toronto and New York by three points. The Maple Leafs pulled into a second-place tie with idle New York on the point it got for the tie.

The Maple Leafs came from behind twice to tie the score last night and moved ahead 3-2 midway in the final period on Ron Stewart's breakaway goal while shorthanded.

Capt. Red Kelly and Howe surged down the ice together as time was running out. Kelly fed Howe a short pass and Gordie rammed it home past goalie Ed Chadwick at 19:20.

Larry Hillman got Detroit off ahead in the first period with a screened 55-footer. But Gerry James offset this early in the second period when he slipped through the Detroit defense, took Jim Thomson's deflected shot and rammed the puck home from five feet out.

Dick Duff, however, evened it again early in the final period as he scored with George Armstrong's rebound.

Then Toronto went ahead, 3-2, as Stewart soloed 120 feet and beat Detroit goalie Glenn Hall from 20 feet out. Maple Leaf Gary Aldcorn was in the penalty box at the time.

The Howe-Kelly combination then came up with the tie-clincher.

U. of D. Cagers Start Practice

DETROIT—All-America candidate Bill Ebben led a varsity squad of 15 candidates in the opening of basketball practice at the University of Detroit this week and appeared to have lost none of the scoring touch that gave him an average of 23.6 points per game last winter.

Coach Bob Calihan has two other lettermen on hand besides Ebben. They are center Don Haase, who was second to the lean Chicago forward both in scoring and rebounding last season, and guard Mike Walsh.

Elevator Kills Woman as 8 Watch Helpless

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A 24-year-old woman medical student was crushed to death by an elevator in General Hospital as eight persons on the elevator watched, unable to help.

One witness said he grabbed for Mary Ann Logan in an attempt to save her but "she just went out of reach."

* * *

About 2,100,000 persons visited Minnesota state parks in 1955.

Maples Win 4th Crown

For the 4th consevutive year, Birmingham High School cross-country team has been returned as Eastern Michigan League champs. Maples grabbed their 4th title yesterday over the home course with a low 29-point total, outdistancing the rest of the four-team field.

Mt. Clemens was 2nd with 64, Hazel Park 3rd with 67, Port Huron 4th with 74. East Detroit and Ferndale did not enter teams.

Port Huron's King Thomas was 1st home at 10:43, followed by Tom Davis of the Big Reds at 10:46.

Tom Fontaine (10:47), Lynn Benn (11:02) and Bob Benson (11:02) all of Birmingham held the next three places. Frank Crowe of Hazel Park was 6th; Tom Thorson of Birmingham 7th (11:05); Ralph Small of Mt. Clemens 8th, Roy Simms of Mt. Clemens 9th and Steve Hunter of Birmingham was 10th (11:14).

Maples' reserves won the junior varsity title with 20 points, getting seven of the 1st 10 runners in the 3-team field. Bill McFarlean of Maples was 2nd behind Crawford of Mt. Clemens.

Spartan in Finals

Maekawa in Olympic Test

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Classy Vince Ferguson of New York, winner of 52 straight fights, goes after two more tonight as he leads the U.S.'s finest amateur boxers into the final phase of their Olympic Trials.

Ferguson, 18-year-old NCAA light-middleweight champ from Wisconsin, was one of five collegiate titlists to advance to the semifinals of the 3-day Olympics slugfest. A sixth NCAA representative, Choken Maekawa, Michigan State bantamweight from Hawaii, goes into the final against Dave Abeyta of Idaho State, a western regional winner.

Vince uncorked a dazzling array of crosses and counter-punches to stop Air Force champion Dave Smith of Seattle in the third round. Ferguson floored the rangy Smith with a right cross on the jaw and hit him twice more in the stomach. Then the bout was halted.

The original field of 105 was trimmed to select the U.S. boxers for the Olympic Games at Melbourne, Australia, next month.

Middleweight Paul Wright of Flint, Mich., interservice and AAU winner, punched out a three-round victory over Ed Hawkins, a fellow Air Force boxer. Wright's stiff punches to the jaw dropped Hawkins for an eight-count in the third period.

Another Wisconsin entrant, NCAA lightweight champ Orville Pitts, had the most impressive victory in the marathon 42-bout card. With one punch, a searing left hook, he knocked out Donnie Hall of Louisville in the opening round. The blow caught Hall on the side of the head and sent him sprawling.

Montreal Held by Hawks, 1-1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National Hockey League season is still young but already the experts are wondering about the Montreal Canadiens.

After easily winning the league title and the Stanley Cup playoffs last season, the well - balanced Montreal club with two high-scoring lines was expected to break away in front of the field.

But look at the standings today. The Canadiens are no better than tied for fourth after playing a 1-1 tie with the winless Chicago Black Hawks on their home ice last night. In their two other starts, the champs split a home-and-home series with the Boston Bruins.

The Canadiens jumped out in front of the Hawks at 13:13 of the second period last night on Dickie Moore's goal. But the Chicago sextet, a mixture of veteran and sters who have yet to win a game, tied it up at 13:45 of the final period with Glen Skov coming through with a fine save.

Northwestern Is Spirited Team

Wolverines Expect Scramble

ANN ARBOR, (AP)—A Northwestern squad low on manpower but high on spirit rides into Ann Arbor a three-touchdown underdog against a Michigan team that must regard each Big Ten football game as a do-or-die struggle.

Michigan coach Bennie Oosterbaan, whose Woverines are eyeing a Rose Bowl trip despite a poor start in the conference scramble, said the Northwestern game "will provide our boys with a real test."

"A lot of people are underrating this Northwestern bunch," said Oosterbaan. "But they lost to a good Tulane club and held Minnesota to a tie. We're looking for a spirited game."

Advance word on the Wildcats is that rookie coach Ara Parseghian has convinced the Wildcats—who have won only one Big Ten contest since 1952—that they can make up in hustle at least part of what they lack in manpower.

"We don't have any depth at all," said Northwestern's advance man. "We don't have much speed and we don't have much power. But there isn't a team in the country that will hustle any more than this one. Right now we think We're capable of giving Michigan a real battle."

The youthful Northwestern coach says his club must improve its passing, and the statistics show just how correct he is. The wildcats have had as many passes interceptted as they've completed—four of 23.

This will be Michigan's second Western Conference game. Michigan State whipped the Wolverines 9-0 between decisive Wolverine victories over UCLA and Army.

"We've gathered a little momentum," said Oosterbaan. "We'll know better after Saturday whether we have a team of championship caliber."

The Wildcats will field a line that outweighs Michigan's forward wall by about six pounds to the man. The Northwestern backs will be 20 pounds lighter per man than the husky Wolverine starters.

WILDCAT RINGER — Big boy in the Northwestern line is Captain Ted Ringer who will be at center when the Wildcats meet Michigan at Ann Arbor tomorrow. The Wolverines 2-1 in regular season are looking for their first Big 10 victory.

11 Games on Small College Grid Card

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Eleven contests await Michigan's small college football squads this weekend.

All four of the state's unbeaten teams will risk their unsullied records, but all four are definite favorites to keep the records just that way.

Central Michigan, with five wins, is down for an IIAC battle at Mt. Pleasant against Illinois Normal. The Chips have won five of six previous meetings with Normal, winning last year 35-7.

Hillsdale, also with five victories, stays at home for a contest against weak Hope, an MIAA foe. Hope has won just one of four starts.

Wayne State, victorious in two outings, meets a familiar opponent when PAC opponent Case Tech of Cleveland comes to Detroit. Wayne whipped Tech 6-0 earlier in the year and can assure itself of at least a .500 record in the Presidents' loop by winning this one.

Northern Michigan, with just a tie against three triumphs, is home for a contest with Ferris Institute, which has won three of four. Ferris won last year's battle 27-6.

Only one night game is on the scedule, with the rest of the games down for Saturday afternoon. In the one contest under the lights, Eastern Michigan travels to Southern Illinois for an IIAC encounter. Fans look for a personel duel between Eastern's halfback Kerry Keating (former Waterford High star) and SIU's flashy Carver Shannan.

Keating is one of the state's top scorers while Shannon has 51 points in four games. He picked up 165 yards and scored four touchdowns on runs of 75, 67, 45 and 9 yards last Saturday.

Alma at Olivet and Kalamazoo at Adrian complete the MIAA schedule. Alma triumphed last season 31-6 and has won 24 of 33 previous meetings between the two clubs. Adrian and Kalamazoo, each with 2-2 marks, trace their series back to 1909. Since then Adrian has won only three times in the 17 meetings.

Terps Oppose Ex-Mentor in Chapel Hill Contest

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—It's Tommy Mont's turn tomorrow to make Jim Tatum feel like a father being shown up by his sons.

Mont is the third former assistant coarh of Tatum's to send a football team against him this season. In the bargain, Mont is bringing to Chapel Hill, N.C., the Maryland squad which Tatum left to coach North Carolina.

The first two of his former aides to meet the master this season have helped make life miserable for Tatum. Warren Giese, his right hand at Maryland, went to South Carolina and coached it to a 14-0 victory over North Carolina. Bud Wilkinson at Oklahoma did it to the tune of 36-0.

Asked what the feelings was over the prospect of opposing Tatum, Mont said:

"The Maryland players this week are anxious to beat him. They're not being disrespectful or anything like that. It's just a natural reaction. I feel the same."

About 3,000 Maryland fans have the same feeling. They have bought tickets for the game, the biggest sale for an away game at Maryland except for post-season bowls.

* * *

Maryland needs a football victory as badly as North Carolina. It has nosed out only Wake Forest in four games while North Carolina has lost them all.

Accused Player Still in Lineup

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP)—University of Wyoming officials say Sam Carter, charged by a fellow student with assault and battery, will be in the starting lineup for tomorrow's homecoming football game with Utah.

Carter, a 5-11, 200-pound tackle, and Clarence (Bugs) Carter, 25, of Nashville, Tenn., an assistant freshman football coach, were accused in a complaint signed yesterday by Leith William Pike, 25.

Justice of the Peace Vernon C. Bentley released the Carters, who are not related, under personal recognizance bond. He set a hearing for next Monday. Both pleaded innocent.

Viking Harriers Top Inter-Lakes

Walled Lake Wins 4th Straight League Meet at Hickory Hills

Walled Lake High School's cross-country team won its 4th consecutive Inter-Lakes Conference championship Thursday afternoon in the 9th annual league meet at Hickory Hills Golf Course.

The Viking harriers took the title with 42 points, Farmington came in 2nd with 54 points, followed by Van Dyke 99, Berkley 100, Southfield 103 and Waterford 116.

Jerry Young of Berkley was the individual champion. Young crossed the finish line in the time of 10:56 for a new conference record, eclipsing by 10 seconds the previous mark set by Southfield's Holliday last year.

Walled Lake concentrated its strength as all seven runners finished in the middle and lower half of the pack. Bob Schoenberger took 5th, Bill Hosley 6th, captain Charles Wilson 7th, Jim Wilson 10th, Steve Johnson 14th and Dennis McClure 16th. The Vikings' Mike Kerrigan placed 20th.

Berkley's Chappell finished 2nd, Chalres O'Conner of Farmington came in 3rd and Waterford's John Oakley was 4th.

For the 6th year in a row, Walled Lake's runners won the reserve league meet which follows the varsity competition. The Vikings got 15 points while runner-up Farmington was far in arrears with 74.

Prep 11's Face 'Now or Never' Tasks

It's now or never for several title-hungry high school football teams in games scheduled today throughout the Oakland County area.

Birmingham's gridiron fortunes, which have gone up and down thus far this fall, seem destined to go down tonight when the Maples collide with unbeaten East Detroit in a crucial Eastern Michigan League game at Birmingham.

Ferndale, tied with East Detroit for 1st place on a 2-0 record, is expected to absorb its 1st league setback at Port Huron.

Four games of championship significance are on tap in the Inter-Lakes and Oakland B conferences.

Waterford and Walled Lake, both boasting 3-0 marks to share leadership in the Inter-Lakes, risk their spotless slates against league foes. The Skippers face rugged Southfield in an afternoon tilt on the Bluejay field while tough Van Dyke confronts Walled Lake under the lights at Van Dyke.

Troy and Clawson, intense neighboring rivals, will settle their dispute over top spot in the Oakland B in an afternoon battle at Troy. Lake Orion and Avondale, also nursing title hopes, clash tonight at Avondale. Each school has suffered one league reversal and the loser will virtually bow out of the race.

Milford seeks to bounce back into the Wayne-Oakland title picture by beating Brighton tonight on the latter's field while league-leading Northville moves into Clarkston and Holly welcomes Clarenceville.

Two of the eight remaining unbeaten and untied squads in the county area put their flawless records on the line tonight. Rochester journeys to Lapeer and Romeo is host to Oxford. Both independents are rated among the state's top 10 in Class B.

New Haven, 1955 titlist in the Southern Thumb League, is at home against Dryden for the No. 1 game in that circuit. Ortonville invades North Branch for a South Central loop contest and Royal Oak faces Fordson in Border Cities play at Royal Oak.

Bloomfield Hills, idle last week, resumes its Southeast Suburban campaign against visiting Country Day while Imlay City, with high-scoring Orlil Frantz, goes to Memphis for a game of non-league interest.

Cranbrook, with only one victory to its credit in four attempts, meets Nichols School of Buffalo Saturday at Cranbrook in an Inter-State tilt. The kickoff is scheduled for 11 a.m.

Pontiac seeks its 1st Saginaw Valley win in three tries Saturday night when the Chiefs tangle with Arthur Hill at Saginaw.

53 State Preps Still Unbeaten

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fifty-three teams will put unbeaten streaks on the line tonight in high school football action around the state.

The statistician of the Michigan Associated Press, Dick Kishpaugh of Kalamazoo, has compiled complete figures of high school acitvity in 1956.

About 17 teams dropped out of the undefeated ranks a week ago. Of the games scheduled tonight, only two match unbeaten and untied teams. The big one, of course, is the Bay City Central-Flint Northern game.

In the Lenawee County League, Blissfield and Hudson, both undefeated and untied, meet at Blissfield.

Vote Up Today on Nats' Shift

WASHINGTON (AP)—Calvin Griffith's effort to move the Washington Senators from the nation's capital comes up for a directors' vote today, with four cities bidding for the American League team.

The baseball club's five-man board of directors meets late today to consider offers the club president says he has received from Los Angeles, San Francisco, Minneapolis and Louisville.

The Senators, finishing deep in the second division, drew smaller crowds than any other big league team in each of the last two years, and Griffith yearns for greener pastures. He leans toward Los Angeles, and he and other heirs of the late Clark Griffith hold a controlling interest in the club's stock.

Reports are that a majority of the board will swing along with Griffith and ballot to go west. But H. Gabriel Murphy, the largest single stockholder with 40 per cent, vigorously opposes any shift. Murphy, one of the directors, has threatened court action to prevent a transfer.

A vote by the directors to move doesn't necessarily mean the Senators will leave Washington. Six of the eight American League clubowners must approve. And that may well be a stumbling block.

Griffith must also obtain a satisfactory contract with Los Angeles, if that city is chosen, and come to an agreement with the Pacific Coast League and with Phil K. Wrigley to purchase his Los Angeles Coast League franchise.

Wrigley has said his Los Angeles franchise is not for sale. But one source quoted him as saying he wouldn't stand in the way of major league ball coming to Los Angeles.

Another factor hampering Griffith is time. He has only 12 days to get everyone's agreement before the Oct. 31 deadline for transfers effective for the 1957 season.

Griffith has not made public details of the proposals from Los Angeles, San Francisco, Minneapolis and Louisville. However, he said Los Angeles had offered to build a new ball park and provide money to buy the Coast League franchise. Reports are that if a move is made, the decision lies between the two West Coast cities.

Without expressing any enthusiasm for the move, American League club owners have said they would want to take long looks at any transfer agreement and at all cost estimates.

There have been only three major league franchise moves this century. The Braves transferred from Boston to Milwaukee and th St. Louis Browns to Baltimore in 1953 and in 1954 the Philadelphia A's moved to Kansas City.

NFL Outlaws Radio Gimmick

Electronic Devices Used by Three Teams Ruled Illegal

DETROIT (INS) — The Detroit Lions disclosed that electronic devices used for communications between coaches and players have been ruled illegal by the National Football League.

W. Nicholas Kerbawy, Lion general manager, said NFL commissioner Bert Bell had informed him of the league action against such devices, currently being employed by the Lions, Chicago Cardinals and Cleveland Browns.

The gimmick used by the Lions and Cardinals to send plays into games without having to substitute a player works on a principle of magnetic induction.

Radio communications have been used by the Browns. The Cleveland set-up reportedly hit a snag last week end when the New York Giants set up a powerful receiver to intercept Brown plays.

Kerbawy said the Lions had hoped to forestall action on the electronic devices until the league meeting next January. However, he said the team would abide by the NFL decision.

Wing Surprise May Be Sprung on Spartan 11

SOUTH BEND, Ind., (AP)—Coach Terry Brennan is herding his Notre Dame football players through practices behind closed doors and he may spring some single wing surprises against Michigan State tomorrow.

The Irish find themselves underdogs for the first time in four years as they prepare for the No. 2 Spartans with the hopes they can sidetrack their third loss in four starts this season.

Several weeks ago Brennan indicated that he would like to use the single wing attack along with his T variations "to utilize fully the potential of quarterback Paul Hornung."

Hollywood Headlines

June Allyson's New Film to Be Made in Philippines

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — A trip to the Philippines is in the cards for June Allyson, whom UI head man Ed Muhl has signed to star in "No Power on Earth," which will be shot in its entirety in faraway Manila.

The story, an original by Jay Anthony, is about a woman and her husband who become prisoners of the Chinese Reds. She believes her husband dead and enters a convent. When he is found alive, she struggles with her conscience as to what is right to do.

Our no-hit hero, Don Larsen, will get his motion picture schooling in a very worthwhile way. Bob Hope, on whose program he appears Sunday, is seeing to it that Don starts off right.

Bob introduced Larsen to John Wayne and he'll make his debut with Batjac Productions for Duke. After seeing the way the Yankee favorite photographs, Bob thinks He'll really be something in pictures.

Well, we'll all be looking at Bob's show Sunday, which has not only Larsen, but a big line-up including my favorite Jimmy Cagney.

OFF FOR LONDON

Within a few days Dana Andrews takes off for London to star in "Bewitched" for Hal E. Chester. The picture gets going by Oct. 29, so Dana just has a chance to pack his clothes for the trip.

The last picture Dana made was "Beyond a Reasonable Doubt" in which he starred for Bert Friedlob. And like all people who knew Bert, Dana feels his death very keenly.

I have news for President Eisenhower. Tonight after his appearance at the Hollywood Bowl, one of his wishes will come true. It's been arranged that he will meet a whole mass of Hollywood celebrities.

It seems that during this present trip of his, our beloved President confided to a friend, "I wish I could see the shows George Murphy puts on for these rallies, but I never do. They keep me back stage in a little room.

"They come to get me when it's time for my speech, then the lights blaze up at me so I can't see the folks around me, and when I get through talking, I'm rushed off somewhere else. I wish just once I could get in on the fun." Well, tonight, he really will.

Diana Dors' husband, Dennis Hamilton, still in town, leaves for England today. Diana says he waited over to consult with attorney Gerald Lipsky in Greg Bautzer's office.

Heller Martin Refuses TV Acting for School

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Funny about these teen-agers . . . take Mary Martin's daughter, Heller, 14, who just cold-shouldered a Broadway TV acting Job—in favor of silly old school.

Driving Heller back to George School in Bucks County, Pa., Mary recalled how good Heller'd been in "Peter Pan" on Broadway . . . and mentioned that a TV role'd been offered.

Bundesrat OKs Year of Military Service

BONN, Germany (AP)—The West German Parliament's upper house (Bundesrat) voted overwhelmingly today in favor of 12 months' compulsory military service, the shortest draft term in the North Atlantic Alliance.

The draft bill still must be presented to the lower house (Bundestag), where the government majority is certain to prevail.

Woman Asks Pardon on Syria Spy Charge

JERUSALEM (AP)—An American woman sentenced to a year in prison on charges she spied for Syria has appealed for a pardon to Israeli President Izhak Ben-zvi, her attorney said today.

Max Kritzman, attorney for 29-year-old Mary Frances Hagan, said previously announced he would not appeal her conviction last week by a Jerusalem District Court but would ask instead for executive clemency.

Miss Hagan, whose family lives in Huntington, W. Va., pleaded innocent to the charges she had violated Israel's official secrets act. Officials in Washington have indicated the United States would also appeal to the Israeli government for mercy.

Grains Record Minor Losses

CHICAGO (AP)—Minor losses were recorded in most grains in routine dealings on the Board of Trade today.

There was some resistance to the mild selling, particularly in old crop wheat futures. They recovered their early losses and at one time pushed ahead of the previous close.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ¾ lower to ⅛ higher, Dec. $2.30⅝, corn unchanged to ¼ lower, Dec. $1.34¼, oats ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, Dec. 78⅝, rye ¼ lower to ¼ higher, Dec. $1.54, soybeans lower to ⅛ higher, Nov. $2.41, and lard 5-15 cents a hundred pounds lower, Nov. $12.20.

Police Holding Suspect in Gas Station Robbery

Det. James LaPonsie said the suspect is unable to account for his whereabouts at 4 a.m., when two thugs entered the station at 440 N. Paddock St. and took the money from attendant Harold Werth of Orchard Lake.

Werth, who was locked in a rest room, said one thug was armed with a rifle and threatened "to blow my head off."

Market Shows Higher Trends

NEW YORK (AP)—A slightly higher trend prevailed on the stock market in quiet early trading today.

Key issues moved ahead from fractions to around a point. A few lost a bit of ground.

Steels continued their progress yesterday and coppers were steady. Some pivotal rails added fractions and aircrafts were up a little.

Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton enjoyed a brief spate of trading and was up around a point. Youngstown Sheet & Tube made a similar gain as news came of an extra dividend despite lower earnings in the September quarter because of the strike.

Bethlehem Steel was up slightly and Republic Steel was steady.

Business Notes

James Osani has been named the new manager of the Wrigley Supermarket at Tel-Huron shopping center. With Wrigley's for 10 years, he was previously manager of the Saginaw Street store. He lives at 2851 Colonial Trail.

County Deaths

Albert B. Woods

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP—Service for Albert Bud Woods, 34, of 5131 Pine Knob Rd., will be at 2 p.m. Saturday from the Coats Funeral Home, Drayton Plains, with burial in White Chapel Cemetery. Mr. Woods died yesterday in the U.S. Veterans Hospital, Dearborn after two years of illness.

He is survived by a daughter, Sandra; five sisters, Mrs. Olive Buella, Mrs. Amie Hood, Clarkston, Mrs. Irene Wensley and Mrs. Minnie Noell, both of Detroit, and Mrs. Alice Furney of Lake Orion, also three brothers, Leo Woods, and Ernest and Frank, all of Pontiac.

Alfred P. Davis

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—Service for Alfred Perry Davis, 81, of 3895 Cresthaven, will be at Pursley Funeral Home, Pontiac, with arrangements to be announced later. Mr. Davis, a lifetime farmer and resident of this country for five years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Grace Brown, yesterday at 7:30 p.m.

Surviving besides Mrs. Brown, are two sons, Neil and John Davis; one brother and three sisters.

Grover H. Holser

SPRINGFIELD TOWNSHIP — Service is set for tomorrow at 2 p.m. for Grover H. Holser, 62, 9551 Bridge Lake Rd., at the Sharpe Funeral Home, Clarkston. Burial will be in Waterford Center Cemetery.

He leaves his wife, E. Margaret; a daughter, Margaret Ann and a son, Louis John, all at home; and four sisters, Mrs. Carleton C. McWilliams of Royal Oak, Mrs. Fred Waterson of Pontiac, Mrs. James Westlake of Wayne and Mrs. William Mulkins of Mio.

Walter Christy

UNION LAKE—Service for Walter Christy, 63, Oakland County resident since 1927, will be Saturday in Wisconsin, with burial in Wood Cemetery there. Mr. Christy, whose home was at 1536 Bautree, died at a veterans hospital in Wisconsin on Wednesday.

He is survived by his wife, Helen Schrier Christy, two sisters, Mrs. Corda Hubbard of Lansing and Mrs. Mable Schrie of Champaign, Ill., and one brother, Earl, of Illinois.

Canada has the third largest telephone system in the world.

Trip to Detroit Is History Lesson for Crofoot Class

Twenty-two Crofoot third-graders, as part of a class project, took a train trip to Detroit yesterday to see where the first white man came into Michigan.

The junket which included a trip through the Windsor tunnel, tours of the City-County Building, the new Civic Auditorium and the Veteran's Memorial Building, was highlighted by a study of the waterfront where the history of Michigan began.

Mrs. Frederick Holmes, the group's teacher, said the class is studying the history and beginning of Pontiac and the trip opened the lessons.

Earnings

Parke, Davis & Co., reports a hot sales and earnings increase for the first nine months of this year. The pharmaceutical company said net earnings for the first nine months totaled $12,209,845, equal to $2.48 per share. This compared with the first nine months of 1955 when sales amounted to $9,838,480, and earnings equalled $1.94 per share. Parke-Davis will pay its 276th consecutive dividend on Oct. 31 to approximately 25,400 shareholders. The company said the dividend will amount to 40 cents a share, raising the total payment this year to $1.70 per share.

Earnings of the Marquette Cement Manufacturing Co. reached $6,820,000 or $2.30 a share, for the nine months ended Sept. 30, company officials announced yesterday. Net income for the same period last year was $5,174,463, or $1.92 a share.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MOTHer, Louise Strickland, who passed away Oct. 19, 1955.

No one knows the silent Heartaches,
Only those who lose can tell.
The grief we bear in silence,
For the one we loved so well.
Someday, sometime our eyes shall see,
The face we keep in memory;
And God will link the broken chain, still closer when we meet again.
Saldy missed by her ddughter,
Thelma and Family.

Cement Firm, Sailors End Month-Old Strike

ALPENA (AP) — The Licensed Tugmen's Protective Assn. today ended a month-long strike against the Huron Portland Cement Co. which for a time idled more than 1,200 workers.

The company and union agreed last night on a contract running to Jan. 31, 1959. Neither side would give contract details.

The union, which represents officers on the company's four Great Lakes ships, called a strike Sept. 21 which tied up the boats. For three weeks the tugmen picketed the company's big cement-making plant here.

ACCUSED — Stenographer Vera Osso, 21, accused by Czechoslovakia of espionage while employed at the U. S. Embassy in Prague, alights from a plane in New York. She was accompanied home from Czechoslovakia by a State Department official. The U. S. Embassy has denied that she was engaged in espionage, and State Department officials refused to permit newsmen to question her on her arrival.

Jordan to Ask Israel Penalty

Urging U.N. to Sever Diplomatic, Economic Ties for Raids

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Jordan plans to ask the U.N. Security Council today for economic and diplomatic punishment of Israel for two recent raids fatal to a reported 105 persons.

Jordan has charged that Israel committed "acts of aggression" violating the 1949 Palestine armistice in attacks Sept. 25-26 around Husan and Oct. 11 on Kalkilyeh, Soufin, Hable and Nabi Ilias—all Jordanian villages. U.N. observers reported 39 Jordanians killed in the first raid. They counted 48 Jordanian dead and Israel reported 18 Israelis dead on the second.

Israel countered by accusing Jordan of "persistent violations" of the armistice agreement and of the cease-fire that U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold arranged on his trip to the Middle East last April. Israel said her attacks were justified as retaliation for the killing of 37 Israelis along the Jordan border since the cease-fire April 26.

* * *

Pontiac Teacher at MEA Conference

Participating in a Michigan Education Assn. conference in Grand Rapids today is Robert Beauchamp chairman of the English Department of Pontiac High School and U. of M. journalism workshop instructor.

Comedienne Rests Up on Farm While Hunting for New Show

By JOAN HANAUER

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Eve Arden is more at home among the mooing cows on her 38-acre farm than amid the whistling wolves of Hollywood hot spots.

The beautifully dressed comedienne with the immaculate comedy timing surveyed the dim interior of a Sunset Strip cocktail lounge and said:

"If my husband ever leaves me, I know where to come. I've really been getting the once-over."

She explained that she rarely came into town, except when business called, preferring to remain at her farm with Jane Russell, Elizabeth Taylor and company.

Raised eyebrows brought forth Miss Arden's explanation:

"Jane Russell and Elizabeth Taylor are two of my cows. They just had calves—Lola for Gina Lollobrigida and Tallulah, named after nobody in particular.

POOR MARILYN

"We had to shoot Marilyn Monroe after she ate a little barbed wire. We have some roosters — Tommy Manville, Aly Khan, Rubirosa and Elvis Presley. Elvis crows the bump, of course.

"Then we have some sheep—the Gabor sisters and Mama.

"I ran into Jane (Russell) at a party the other night and I finally told her, after much pulling on my pearls. She laughed."

Miss Arden has finally buried "Our Miss Brooks," the radio and TV school teacher she characterized for so long.

"I feel bad in a way," she said, explaining that when this season's run of filmed shows ends she will make no more. "But I'm also relieved and happy. It's like leaving high school or something.

"It can make you very lazy, doing the same thing for eight years on radio and four years on television. There's no challenge.

"I don't know why I keep so busy anyway.

NEW TV FORMAT

"I'm working on a new television format now. I'm in the midst of some muddy ideas, talking to writers and trying to crystalize my own ideas. But so far I don't want to do anything.

"It's a temptation to sit on your . . .er . . veranda and do nothing. I've been sitting on mine a little too often."

Miss Arden explained she had to get home to her four children, stepped out into the smoggy day, breathed deeply, coughed twice, and said with her famed, twisty grin:

"I can't wait to get back to the farm."

As early as in 1940 a vote of two-to-one for statehood was registered in a territory-wide plebiscite on the question by the people

TV Set Survives Crash of Auto Into Living Room

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Carol Eastwood's televiewing was interrupted last night when an automobile crashed through the house and came to a stop in the living room.

She suffered a minor leg injury as she fled.

The driver of the car, Emil Reed, 17, was unhurt. Police charged him with reckless driving, operating with defective brakes, assault and battery, destroying public property, destroying private property and delinquency.

The youth said his car went out of control on a curve when he swerved to miss a car that ran a stop sign.

The vehicle hit a stop sign, went through a 3-foot-thick hedge and up a 4-foot embankment, continued across 11 feet of land, and rammed through the frame house.

Scouts Set Dedication

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP)—The birthplace of Juliette Gordon Low, founder of the Girl Scouts, will be dedicated today. Mrs. Low established the Girl Scout organization in 1912 when she was 52. The Girl Scouts bought the 132-year-old building in 1953.

A 24-hour general strike of 270,000 workers paralyzed industry and transport in the State of Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, Porto Alegre reports.

Teachers to Study Atom Science at UM

LANSING (AP) — Thirty-two Michigan science teachers will meet at the University of Michigan next week to seek improved instructional material and teaching aids dealing with nuclear science.

The workshop is the first project financed under a $20,800 grant just received from the U.S. Office of Education. The conference is part of the Michigan Civil Defense education pilot project.

The science teachers, representing some 30 school districts, will be told of the latest developments in the nuclear field. The use of instruments to detect atomic radiation also will be outlined.

The conference is designed to assist schools in meeting their share of responsibility in the Civil Defense effort and to teach youngsters and adults how to act intelligently in the face of atomic hazards.

Reds Report Shortages of Winter Clothing

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda today reported shortages in winter clothing in many regions of the Soviet Union with cold weather approaching.

The article, broadcast by Moscow radio, reprimanded government ministers in charge of the factories for turning out summery outfits when winter clothes were needed.

Three-fourths of the active volcanoes are within the Pacific half of the globe.

Undeveloped Antibiotic Drug May Solve the 'Big Three' Plagues of Childhood

WASHINGTON (INS) — The next breakthrough in man's fight to conquer diseases may come against the "big three" plagues of childhood—measles, mumps and chicken pox.

And the weapon used to tame these non-fatal, but misery-making diseases will be an as-yet undeveloped antibiotic drug.

Dr. Henry Welch, director of the Food and Drug Administration's division of antibiotics, and other scientists attending the FDA's antibiotics symposium in Washington, today gave INS this forecast.

They made these points:

1. Antibiotics — the so-called wonder drugs — have been able to control a host of bacteria-caused infections in their 13 years of use. Some antibiotics have been found effective against infections caused by "large" viruses, particularly virus pneumonia.

Although there are many technically involved differences between bacteria and viruses, and between viruses, one easy distinction is by size: bacteria are larger.

2. The next aim of research is to find an antibiotic that can seek out and control or destroy smaller-sized viruses, like measles, mumps and chicken pox viruses.

Dr. Welch emphasized that such a drug would not prevent any of the "big three" from occurring but could be used as soon as the infection was spotted.

This means that measles, for example, could be stopped in its tracks and rolled back before it ran its usual four to five-day course. At present, antibiotic drugs are given to victims of the "big three" to prevent secondary infections.

The number of measles, mumps and chicken pox cases current in any one week throughout the nation give some idea of what a boon this breakthrough would be for harried parents and sick children.

The national office of vital statistics reports some 10,000 to 20,000 cases of measles a week during the peak spring months. Chicken pox figures run even higher.

In a typical autumn week, some 1,000 measles cases are reported in the communicable disease summary of the U.S. Public Health Service.

In another paper presented at the antibiotics symposium, an antibiotic showing some action against certain tumors in mice was reported. It was emphasized, however that at least a dozen drugs have been uncovered in the past five years that showed similar anti-cancer activity.

Hospital Insurance Protects 6,200,000

NEW YORK (INS) — The Health Insurance Council reports that the number of people in Michigan, who are covered by voluntary health insurance, reached a new high by Sept. 30.

As of that date, the council estimates 6,200,000 persons were protected by some form of insurance designed to help pay hospital and doctor bills.

The council added there were 5,869,000 persons covered by hospital expense insurance in Michigan as of Dec. 31, 1955. This represents a gain of 495,000 over the 1954 total.

That's a Corker

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Clifford V. Bonham, 34, filed a $40,000 damage suit against the Almaden-Santa Clara Vineyards here yesterday. He said a champagne cork popped him in the eye, causing partial blindness.

1,315 Foreigners at UM

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Foreign students enrolled at the University of Michigan number 1,315 this semester and come from 82 countries. Canada sent the largest amount to the university, 201, followed by Nationalist China, which has 106 representatives. Third is India with 105; fourth is Turkey with 77 and fifth is Japan with 54.
