GM, UAW Agree on 3-Year Master Contract

Dem Challenge: 'Put Nation Back on Right Track'

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Senator Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa) encouraged Democrats here to engineer a special "train" full of party candidates to steam into Washington next year to put the country back on the right track to "good old times."

Helping to stoke up the burner on this imaginary campaign choo-choo were 542 Democrats who pulled into Pontiac last night for the fourth annual "Eighteenth Congressional Dinner" at the Elks Temple.

★ ★ ★

They came from near and far to pay into the Oakland County Democratic campaign kitty $5,420 in hopes these funds will push their locomotive into the nation's capital.

"We need a lot more Democrats in Congress," Sen. Clark told the large gathering.

"We need them to fill the vacuum of leadership in this Republican administration. This is an administration which began with obsolete ideas and now has become, besides, a tired, weary and worn out administration."

Helping to steer the country "on the wrong track," the senator said, are John Foster Dulles and former presidential assistant Sherman Adams.

"We need a lot more Democrats, first of all, to provide a checkrein on the brinkmanship of Dulles," he said.

Touching only slightly on the current Quemoy and Matsu crisis, Clark lambasted Dulles' stand here as "just plain foolishness."

With obvious reference to Adams, he said he hoped Adams was headed back to "the New Hampshire hills to begin rewriting the little lectures he used to give about Democratic ethics and morality in government."

Clark Puts on Bow Tie for Speech

Pennsylvania and Michigan Democrats were tied together last night with the symbol of this state's party leader, Gov. Williams' green and white polka-dot bow tie.

The knot was tied when Pennsylvania Sen. Joseph S. Clark appeared in town for the Oakland County Congressional Dinner sporting a faded and slightly worn tie given him by "Soapy" six years ago.

"We can't have our speaker out of style," remarked Williams before he introduced Clark to 542 Democrats who paid $10 a head for a turkey dinner at the Elks Temple.

So out came a bright new green and white cravat wrapped in cellophane.

Clark made a hurried switch before he moved to the speaker's rostrum. The older tie was passed to Leslie H. Hudson, Oakland's Democratic candidate for Congress, who was wearing a bright red conventional neck piece.

"I want that right back when you're inducted in the House," Clark told Hudson, "Because in the early days of 1961 I'll go up to the White House and give it back to the fellow who gave it to me."

In an afternoon press conference in Huntington Woods, Sen. Clark said it was too early to forecast a 1960 Democratic presidential nominee, but added "Gov. Williams has to be given very careful consideration."

Democratic hopes of sending their candidates to Lansing and Washington were made obvious as soon as guests entered the huge Elks ballroom. A 50-foot colorful back-drop hung behind the speaker's table. It contained a painting of a train reading "Washington or Bust" and "Vote Straight in 58."

The governor in his remarks said "those who try to blame Michigan unemployment on state policies are guilty of a cruel deceit. By blaming unemployment on the wrong reasons, they hope to escape responsibility for the right reason, the Republican recession which has blighted the land from coast to coast."

Short talks were also given by Hudson, who said "we can and will break the Republican stranglehold on the courthouse in Pontiac." Sen. Patrick V. McNamara, who introduced state and county candidates and party leaders, Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart, candidate for the U. S. Senate, and Sen. John B. Swainson, toastmaster for the evening and candidate for Hart's present position.

GM Shut Tight in 126 Plants Despite Pact

Firm Hopes to Have Most Divisions Running by Middle of Week

From Our Wire Services

DETROIT (AP) — Strikes kept General Motors, world's biggest automobile producer tightly shut down today in spite of a national contract signed with the United Auto Workers Union last night.

The only effect so far of the agreement was to shift the strike from one over-all walkout of 50,000 production workers, to a series of local level strikes.

It did pave the way for the 126 individual plants in 71 cities throughout the nation to reopen as fast as local bargaining committees for both the company and the union could clear away local level disputes.

But up to 10 o'clock this morning, General Motors reported no agreements had been reached and all plants remained closed.

The GM-UAW agreement was signed last night after 36 hours of almost continuous bargaining and UAW President Walter P. Reuther called it "good for all of America," and "non-inflationary."

★ ★ ★

It was similar in basic economic framework to the Ford and Chrysler settlements reached earlier.

Both company and union admitted there would be no immediate general back-to-work movement. It was expected instead that there would be steady return of plants to operation as local union-management negotiators solved local issues.

GM Vice President Louis G. Seaton said the company hoped that most of the General Motors plants would be back in operation by the middle of next week.

General Motors still was faced with the problem of a contract agreement with the International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE) whose 25,000 members struck along with the UAW. Traditionally the IUE has settled with GM on terms similar to the UAW agreement.

Typical was the reaction of Roy Hartzell, president of Local 25 at St. Louis, Mo., who said 6,000 workers will stay out at the Fisher

Negotiators Reach an Agreement

THREE YEAR CONTRACT — Walter P. Reuther (left), president of the United Auto Workers, and Louis G. Seaton, vice president of General Motors, shake hands in Detroit last night after marathon-type bargaining produced a nationwide three-year contract between GM and UAW. Seaton called the settlement a "sound and fair" pact. Reuther said UAW workers were assured of three years of stability.

250,000 Strikers Given Authority to Stay Out

Reuther Hails Settlement as Good for Nation, Union and Auto Company

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors and the United Auto Workers Union reached agreement on a three-year master contract Thursday night, but GM's vast industrial empire remained shut today by a strike of its 250,000 UAW members.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther hailed the agreement as "good for the nation, good for the UAW and good for GM."

However, he cautioned that GM workers at 126 plants across the country were authorized to remain on strike to back up local demands.

A walkout against GM preceded the new pact by 12 hours. Before that, there had been a rash of wildcat strikes.

The old contract ran out four months ago, and tensions had mounted in recent weeks under no-contract operations.

Both Reuther and GM Vice President Louis G. Seaton expressed hope local grievances would be settled quickly so GM could get into full production of 1959 cars and trucks. It makes half those built in the United States.

The GM contract wrapped up the Big Three for Reuther. Ford and the UAW reached agreement Sept. 17; Chrysler and the union did likewise Wednesday. Reuther turns his attention to American Motors Corp. Tuesday.

The new agreements give auto workers wage increases of 24 to 30 cents an hour over the next three years.

Pensions are increased; severance pay provided for those whose jobs are moved or abolished, and layoff pay increased.

A major complaint at local levels has been so-called wage inequities in GM plants—different pay for similarly classified jobs.

The national agreement establishes a fund into which the company will pay half a cent hourly for each worker to narrow differences.

Reuther told GM locals to press for speedy settlement and to return to work.

Ford's agreement, like GM's, came after a short-lived general

Local Differences Keeping Three Pontiac Plants Shut

As General Motors Corp. workers across the nation tended to stay off the job today, strikes against Pontiac's three GM plants continued over local issues, despite the national settlement in Detroit last night.

Company and union officials alike hoped the strike would end as soon as possible and production would get under way again.

"We want our people back on the job. The bargaining table is preferable to the picket line," said Charles A. Beach, president of local 653 at Pontiac Motor, where an estimated 7,500 are idled.

An additional 5,000 are striking at GMC Truck & Coach and 1,600 at Fisher Body, pushing the total figure to around 14,100.

Although the national settlement came at 9:55 p.m. last night, workers reporting for midnight shifts at Pontiac Motor and GMC Truck & Coach plants were intercepted by pickets, who had remained on the line since the national walkout began at 10 a.m. yesterday.

First shifts this morning observed picket lines and stayed away from work, keeping the two big factories and the smaller Fisher Body plant idle. Administrative and salaried employes remained on the job.

The three locals indicated seniority agreements were a main factor in the strike. Local 653 and local 594 at GMC Truck & Coach said they had unsettled grievances also. Local 596 at Fisher Body said there were no grievances to settle, only the local working agreement.

Negotiations were being scheduled at the three plants this morning.

Reports that a truck struck a picket at one of the Pontiac Motor gates yesterday proved unfounded, said Pontiac Police Capt. Joseph Koren. The picket, Edward Hoffmaster, 39, of 49 Close St. was not hit nor was the truck driver held by police, Koren said.

Seaton Declares GM Is Pleased Over Settlement

DETROIT (UPI) — Following the settlement, GM Vice President Louis G. Seaton said "this agreement represents a meeting of minds. It should mean for employes in General Motors plants across the country three good years of stability.

★ ★ ★

"Our employes and their families will have an opportunity to plan ahead and to buy the things they need and want.

"We now have the job of getting our plants back to work as soon as possible."

UAW's Walter Reuther also was pleased at finally getting the last and toughest of the "Big Three" agreements signed.

With all three companies signed for three years, Reuther quipped: "In a few more days I'll be the most unemployed member of the UAW."

Gov. Williams today congratulated the United Auto Workers Union and General Motors Corp. officials for "industrial statesmanship."

Rush Versus Larsen in Series' 3rd Game

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bob Rush, a 32-year-old right-hander who never before has played in the World Series, today was named to start Saturday's third game of the classic for the Milwaukee Braves against Don Larsen of the New York Yankees.

Rush, who had a 10-6 record this season, came to the Braves last December from the Chicago Cubs in exchange for pitcher Taylor Phillips and catcher Sam Taylor.

Milwaukee manager Fred Haney was torn between Rush, rookie Carlton Willey and left-hander Juan Pizarro for his third-game starter, but finally settled on the bespectacled ex-Cub because of his "greater experience." This is Rush's 11th Major League season and, facing Larsen, he will be in a position to put the Braves three games up in the current series.

Arkansas Turns Against NAACP

Attorney General Bares Plan to Harass Group in 14 Southern States

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett has bared plans for an all-out campaign against operations of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People. He blamed the organization for the South's racial problems.

★ ★ ★

An NAACP official promptly charged the planned attack was a spectacular effort by Arkansas politicians to divert attention from their failure to solve the school integration dilemma here.

★ ★ ★

Bennett unveiled a six-point plan for hampering activities of the NAACP and said he has asked congressional delegations of 14 Southern states to join in what he termed a "Southern plan for peace."

Clarence A. Laws, Arkansas field secretary for the NAACP said the Bennett plan undoubtedly would "shock decent, freedom-living citizens everywhere."

★ ★ ★

Laws contended the state's political leaders had selected the NAACP as a "whipping boy" because they were perturbed about recent desegregation rulings of the U.S. Supreme Court.

He declared they wanted to throw up a political smokescreen to cover themselves "for having so miserably misinformed and misled the people of Arkansas in the school controversy."

★ ★ ★

Bennett's strategy calls for the withdrawal of federal tax deduction privileges for the NAACP, state pressure on the organization's attorneys, economic pressure and criminal prosecution of individuals allied with the NAACP cause.

★ ★ ★

He labeled the organization a "tool of the Kremlin."

Laws denied the NAACP had any ties with the Communist party and said the organization had been praised by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

★ ★ ★

Dr. T. J. Raney, head of the Little Rock Private School Corp., said a recent appeal for financial aid to the organization had brought a flood of donations.

Although temperatures were much higher in the cool belt this morning than for the last couple of days, it still was fairly chilly, especially in Northeast areas.

★ ★ ★

Lowest readings, in the 30s, were in scattered sections from Pennsylvania to Maine. Temperatures in other parts of the huge cool air mass from east of the Rockies were mostly in the 40s and 50s, with the 60s prevailing near the Gulf Coast and the 70s in most of Florida.

★ ★ ★

Generally dry weather prevailed. Only wet spots were in the southeast from Alabama and Florida through the Carolinas, in the Dakotas and northern Great Lakes region and in Texas. No heavy rainfall was reported.

Local Disputes Keep GM Closed Despite Accord

Body and Chevrolet plants in St. Louis and the Chevrolet supply depot in Hazelwood, Mo., until such local issues as health and safety standards are settled.

Local issues kept about 50,000 workers off their jobs in Flint today.

Picket lines continued at individual plants despite the international UAW agreement with GM.

Local officers, however, were meeting with company representatives or have scheduled meetings in an effort to resolve their disputes.

Chevrolet Local 659 with about 16,000 members in five units was the largest single group to ignore the international settlement.

UNION PLEASED

Otis (Jim) Bishop, president of Buick Local 599 with 13,500 members, said the union was pleased to have the settlement and hoped local differences with the company soon could be ironed out. The local is meeting with company officials today.

★ ★ ★

AC Sparkplug Local 651's executives also said "We are nowhere near settlement."

Guy Fullwood, local vice president, said the local and AC "are pretty close on seniority and wage inequity problems but we have others." Local 651 has 9,000 members.

John O'Dell, president of Local 326 at Termdstedt Division said "Perhaps the company now will agree to take up serious attempts at local settlements."

★ ★ ★

Also remaining on the picket line were some 8,400 members of three locals and three Fisher Body plants, one located in nearby Grand Blanc.

★ ★ ★

Union members appeared set for a long weekend. Individual contracts produced a variety of reaction.

One way to put it was the sign on a cafeteria near a Chevrolet plant. It read: "Closed for the duration of the strike." There and at other plant sites, however, neighboring bars were open.

Chevrolet, with five units in Flint, is the city's largest single employer.

Some 12,000 United Auto Workers at Lansing were still on strike today.

The 7,600 workers at the Oldsmobile division and 4,400 at the Fisher Body division were negotiating local demands.

Unionists at Fisher Body said settlement appeared near there.

Urges Local Dems: 'Get Back on Track'

and state win their way in the Nov. 4 election, two berths on the "Democratic special" to Washington will be for Philip A. Hart, candidate for the U.S. Senate, and Pontiac's Leslie H. Hudson, hoping to gain the county's seat in the U.S. House of Representatives.

★ ★ ★

Democrats too are needed "to get us out of this recession which Republican propagandists try and tell us every day is over."

"From all reports," Clark said, "we're still going to have to take next year the decisive action we should have taken this year, which we could have done if we had had enough Democrats."

Clark, touring the country as a member of the Senatorial Campaign Committee to stir up Democratic victories in next month's election, criticized the Eisenhower administration for not living up to its promises of "peace, progress and prosperity."

NEW SLOGAN

"We don't hear much of that happy little slogan today. I've got a new one for them—Quemoy, corruption and complacency," the speaker said.

He spoke of proposed bills on housing, urban renewal, community public works and area redevelopment which, he said, the "Republicans lined up solidly against and licked.

"And so it goes. All up and down the line, legislation in the interest of the people — that responded to the needs of men and women and children—was supported by the Democrats but beaten by a big majority of Republican votes in one house or the other," the crowd was told.

Sen. Clark, who was Philadelphia's first Democratic mayor in 67 years before his election to the Senate in 1956, said to get such measures through in the 86th Congress "we must be able to beat this bi-partisan coalition of reactionary Republicans of the Midwest and the Dixiecrats of the South."

Credit for directing the country back to Democratic leadership was laid in the lap of Gov. Williams.

"You made the first breakthrough in what was considered normal Republican territory here in Michigan when you first elected your extraordinary young governor.

"That triumph gave inspiration to the struggling Democrats in every other stronghold of the Republican Party in these northern states, including Pennsylvania," Sen. Clark remarked.

Expect Arrival of Safety Director Early Next Week

Pontiac's new public safety director, George D. Eastman, should arrive in Pontiac Monday or early next week to take over the $12,000-a-year job of running the police and fire departments.

★ ★ ★

The 46-year-old former chief of the Seattle, Wash., police department has been completing a police study in Pocatello, Idaho, before tackling his new post here, said City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Known as a police administration expert with a wide background in actual police work, Eastman's big task will be to bring about a reorganization of the police department.

Changes in the department were urged in last spring's report by the Public Administration Service, of Chicago, a consulting service which enlisted Eastman's talents in its study here.

Judge Requests Special Session

Moore Asks Williams for 'Little Legislature' to Consider Mental Aid

A request for a special session of Michigan's "Little Legislature" was made by Oakland Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore of Gov. G. Mennen Williams yesterday.

Today, the governor said he wants more information on the proposal Moore, acting for a group of state probate judges, has made to ease the shortage of beds for mental patients.

Moore told The Pontiac Press yesterday he plans to ask the Little Legislature to appropriate $100,000 in surplus state funds and transfer $200,000 more from Mental Health Commission budget to staff vacant wards in state tuberculosis hospitals for use by the mentally ill.

The Little Legislature consists of the governor, lieutenant governor, speaker of the House of Representatives and members of the House Ways and Means Committee and Senate Finance and Appropriations Committee.

Judge Moore said the judges want the $300,000 to cut down on the list of 1,500 mentally ill persons now loose in Michigan because there is no room for them at state mental hospitals.

There are 900 vacant beds in state TB sanatoriums alone, Moore said, and these could take persons on the waiting list who may harm themselves or others due to their illnesses.

Moore yesterday was informed that the Mental Health Commission had agreed to the proposal after turning it down last Friday at a meeting with the judges.

strike. Ford workers waited seven hours for a new contract.

Chrysler had no strike. It was the first time since 1941 that Chrysler and the UAW had come to terms without the union striking or fixing a strike deadline.

Dissidents, however, still kept some Chrysler plants shut with picket lines, and still to be settled was the contract coverage for some 19,000 salaried and skilled tradesmen at Chrysler.

All three pacts continue to gear wages to the cost of living, pay moving up or down proportionately. But all three wrapped 15 of the 25 cents included in old cost-of-living allowances into the base wage.

GM's average hourly wage is the highest in the industry—$2.62 as compared with $2.52 at Ford and $2.33 at Chrysler.

After the GM settlement, which came at 9:49 p.m. in Detroit, GM locals sent messages praising the contract but emphasizing that they would stay on the picket line until local problems are settled.

Seaton told newsmen GM hopes the settlement "will mark another plus sign" in the nation's recovery from the recent recession.

GM Story Anticlimax

Newsmen Are Weary

DETROIT (AP) — The announcement of a settlement between General Motors and the United Auto Workers last night was greeted by mild cheers, handshakes and expressions of relief. But to weary newsmen, TV camera-men and radio broadcasters, it was an anticlimax.

Most newsmen were sweating out their third contract settlement in a little over two weeks and most had been at the General Motors Building bargaining center throughout the 36 hours of intense negotiation.

As union and company negotiators went into their final session yesterday most observers felt a long wait was ahead.

But excitement picked up in the pressroom when sandwiches and coffee were sent into the bargaining table shortly after 5 p.m. Usually negotiators break for a dinner recess if a settlement isn't in sight.

Later newsmen cornered UAW President Walter Reuther when he stepped out of the conference room for a brief break. Reuther smiled when asked how things were going and told newsmen to get ready for something big.

And shortly before Louis G. Seaton, GM's top negotiator, stepped out of the bargaining session to announce a settlement, employes of various GM departments began drifting into the large corridor in front of the bargaining room exit.

Newsmen and newscasters quickly rounded up their equipment. Calls were made for additional staffers and new desks were alerted for the expected settlement.

When Seaton came out, newsmen and cameramen were ready.

A small cheer went up when the settlement was announced. Newsmen quickly asked questions, many of which had been asked before at Chrysler and Ford, scribbled notes and made their dash for the telephone.

Reuther, admittedly glad the long negotiations with the big three were at an end, quipped "I'm just an unemployed negotiator. I think I'll put out a card 'UAW negotiator — will travel."

Then UAW and GM bargaining teams broke up and drifted out of the building. Newsmen collected their hats and coats and filed out of the building. Auto industry negotiations appeared settled for the three-year durations of the new contracts at Ford, Chrysler and General Motors.

Planned Business Center Has Old Kingsley as Hub

BIRMINGHAM—The old Kingsley Inn will be the hub of a new $3 million business center at Woodward avenue and Long Lake road, according to John R. Davis and Alan Gornick, former Ford Motor Co. executives who have undertaken the project.

They have purchased a 21-acre site, including the old inn, and have incorporated as the Bloomfield Hills Center.

★ ★ ★

Extensive remodeling of the inn, which will be known as the Barbour Building in honor of William T. Barbour, pioneer land developer in the Hills, already is under way.

When completed in December, it will house the branch office of Manley, Bennett and Co., a Detroit brokerage firm.

Other businesses will be located on the first floor, with offices on the second floor.

★ ★ ★

The first new construction will start in about two months, Davis said today. The building will have about a 120-foot frontage on Woodward.

Scheduled for completion in the spring, it will house a drug store, grocery, meat market and bakery.

A beauty parlor and professional offices will occupy the second floor. The site also includes a gasoline station and garage. Fronting on Woodward avenue for 800 feet, south from Long Lake road, the triangular tract extends west to Barden road.

Davis said plans now are being drawn for the complete center, completion of which is expected in three years.

Bloomfield Township and five of its officials were named as defendants in court action started yesterday by a West Bloomfield Township realtor who said the township's zoning ordinance is prohibiting him from building commercial shops in an area on Telegraph road just south of Maple road.

★ ★ ★

Charles J. Van Horn and his wife, Elizabeth G., of 6000 Middlebelt Rd., asked the Oakland County Circuit Court for a restraining order stopping Bloomfield Township from preventing him from using the 240 by 295-foot parcel for business shops. The township has restricted the site to single family dwellings.

A story hour for pre-school children will begin at 10 a.m. Tuesday at Baldwin Public Library. Mrs. Norman Burns, children's librarian, has asked mothers of children between the ages of 3 and 5 to register them in advance. She and Mrs. Charles Burch will conduct the half-hour sessions through Nov. 25.

Jonathan Ball of McClelland-Ball, a Birmingham garden supply store, will speak on fall planting at the luncheon meeting of the Congregational Church Women's Fellowship group at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Luncheon will be served in the church. Reservations may be made at the church office through Monday.

Mrs. Marion Patrick

Mrs. Marion Patrick, 45, of 1187 Webster Ave., Birmingham, died Wednesday night at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn. Her body is at Price Funeral Home, 2501 S. Rochester Rd., Troy.

Sydney R. Patterson

Service for Sydney R. Patterson, 67, of 878 Chester St., Birmingham, will be held at 3:30 p.m. Saturday at Virgo E. Kinsey Funeral Home, Royal Oak. Burial will be in Roseland Park Cemetery, Royal Oak.

Mr. Patterson died yesterday at his home.

He had been a salesman and treasurer with the former Detroit Casket Co. for 20 years.

Mr. Patterson operated his casket sales firm in Detroit for five years and spent 10 years in the business in San Francisco, returning to the Detroit area last year.

He was a life member of Ashlar Lodge, F&AM, the Detroit Consistory and Moslem Shrine. He also was a member of St. James Episcopal Church of Birmingham.

★ ★ ★

Surviving are his wife, Edith; a daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Nelson, and two grandchildren, all of Birmingham.

New Kierdorf Probe Hinted

State Solicitor Torina Meets Robert Kennedy on Arson Case

A state investigation of Teamster Union activities in Flint in an attempt to find new leads in the Frank Kierdorf arson case was hinted today by Attorney-General Paul L. Adams.

He said Michigan Solicitor General Samuel J. Torina met Monday in Washington with Robert Kennedy, chief counsel for the Senate Rackets Committee.

Adams said Kennedy had said on a Sept. 21 national television program that Michigan was lax in law enforcement and Torina was sent to find out just what he meant.

Adams said Kennedy's statement was based largely on testimony before the committee in September by Teamster attorney George S. Fitzgerald, of Detroit.

Torina discussed with Kennedy cases involving a Teamster organizing drive against the Skaff Rug Co., of Flint, which had a fire on Nov. 26, 1957.

Frank Kierdorf suffered fatal burns Aug. 3 in an arson attempt of a Flint dry cleaners.

Torina also discussed a million dollar Teamster welfare fund loan to a real estate company to develop the 1,200-acre Winchester Village near Flint.

A 12-year-old boy who threatened to jump from the Ferndale transmitter tower of radio station WEXL Wednesday has been committed to a mental hospital.

The boy was taken off the tower by firemen. He was placed in a private hospital Thursday at state expense until beds are available at Pontiac State Hospital.

Boy Who Died in Woods Will Be Buried Saturday

IRON MOUNTAIN (UPI)—Service will be held tomorrow for a small boy who wandered away from a hunting camp and died in an Upper Michigan wilderness.

Burial for Kenneth Scott, 4, will be in the Twin City Kingsford-Iron Mountain area after 2 p.m. service in Our Savior Lutheran Church here.

★ ★ ★

An Air Force helicopter spotted Kenneth's body yesterday by the edge of a swamp in thickly-wooded Dickinson County. Doctors said Kenneth apparently died in his sleep Tuesday night when temperatures dropped to 27 degrees and snow flurries and rain hit the area.

Kenneth's disappearance from his parents' hunting camp near here Sunday touched off the largest hunt in the history of the Upper Peninsula, with more than 1,500 police and volunteers joining the search.

The little boy's body, lying atop his thin jacket, was spotted by two conservation officers riding in the helicopter.

Dr. James Browning, stationed at search headquarters on a country road about six miles west of the swampy area where Kenneth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Scott, Kingsford, was found, said the boy died of exposure.

Browning said little Kenneth probably wandered out of the swamp exhausted and sweaty, took off his jacket and lay down to rest. The boy probably died while asleep, Browning said.

Natale Coppo and Reynold Solberg, the conservation officers, said their helicopter made several passes over the cedar swamp before locating a clearing in the trees.

U. of M. Cuts Tests, Lengthens Holidays

ANN ARBOR (UPI)—Shorter final examination periods and a full week's vacation before Christmas are in the offing for University of Michigan students next year.

The university's deans recently approved proposed changes in the academic calendar and if the recommendations are approved by the regents students may also get more late afternoon and Saturday classes.

A calendar study committee made the proposals to make better use of the U. of M.'s physical facilities.

Under the plan students would also be permitted to register in June for the following semester's classes.

Automobile production is one of France's fastest-growing industries. More than 920,000 units were manufactured in 1957. This compares with 215,000 in prewar 1938.

U.S. Commander Says Supplies Can Continue in Bad Weather

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The American commander for the Formosa area declared today Quemoy can be supplied through the worst of the winter despite the Communist bombardment.

★ ★ ★

Vice Adm. Roland N. Smoot said the Chinese Nationalists on the offshore islands can hold out indefinitely under present conditions. The United States "will attempt to provide them material to maintain the status quo," he added.

"I am very optimistic . . . they can meet their (supply) requirements through the worst of the winter," Smoot said.

★ ★ ★

Some military observers had expressed fear that bad winter weather and high seas in Formosa Strait would stop Nationalist supply convoys. However, the United States is now giving the Nationalists larger landing ships that can operate all winter and larger planes for aerial delivery of supplies.

★ ★ ★

Smoot was interviewed at the headquarters on the edge of Taipei of the U.S. Taiwan (Formosa) Defense Command, which he heads. He had just met Nationalist Chinese Defense Minister Yu Tawai.

Beth Won't Die in TV Version of 'Little Women'

CHICAGO (UPI) — Margaret O'Brien has bowed reluctantly to her producer and literary scholars in a dispute over her portrayal of Beth in the forthcoming television musical "Little Women."

As a result, Beth will live at the end of the play, although loyal Louisa May Alcott fans know the frail heroine died at the end of the book.

"It's a good script," Miss O'Brien said at a Chicago news conference yesterday, "and it wouldn't look right to stick Beth's death in the middle of a musical."

The "life or death" battle over Beth raged for more than a week in TV executive suites. Lined up on Miss O'Brien's side in favor of Beth's death were the show's sponsor, its ad agency and Margaret's press agents.

But producer Richard Adler refused to budge. To bolster his position Adler said scholars verified that "Little Women" originally was divided into two parts.

The first was "Little Women," in which Beth survived, and a sequel entitled "Good Wives," in which she dies. Publishers later combined the two works into a single volume.

Man Refuses to Pickle North Carolina Frogs

SANTA FE, N.J. (AP)—An express company truck pulled up to Santa Fe High School with a crate loaded with 650 live, croaking, kicking frogs.

"No! No!" said Principal Tom Walsh. "That wasn't what I ordered."

He sent the live frogs right back where they came from — North Carolina.

What he really wanted was a shipment of pickled frogs, for use in the school's biology classes.

The average American consumed 305 quarts of milk, 46 pounds of cream, eight and a half pounds of butter, eight pounds of cheese, 15 pounds of condensed milk, 20 quarts of ice cream and five pounds of cottage cheese in 1957.

Bob Considine Says:

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — We part the curtains on a touching little scene in which Bingo Bango, crack utility infielder of the New York Braves, is giving the lowdown to Bill Shrdlu, the baseball writer assigned to help Bingo with the experting articles he is doing during the World Series. It is a simple set: Bill's broom closet in a series-town hotel, a portable typewriter. Bingo paces. Bill sits poised over the typewriter.

Bingo—Put in a sheet of paper and start with my name.

Bill (doing so)—Okay, all set, Bingo. Now let's get to the heart of today's ball game, the crucial play, the move that made the difference between victory and disaster. What is foremost in your mind?

Bingo—When I get paid for writing this?

(Bill types: "Well, fans, we may be down but nobody can say we are out. We won't be out until that last man goes down on strikes, or something like that, in the final game. My hunch is that we won't be the vulnerable ones.)

WHAT'S THAT—REDS?

Bingo (reading over his shoulder)—What's that vulnerable (deleted)? You trying to say we're Communist? Cut that (censored) out and write it like I said. Go ahead.

(Bill types: "The one good thing you can say when your ball club is in a 'hole,' as I call it, in the blue ribbon classic of the national pastime, is that 'tomorrow' is another day. We've got Whitey Burdette coming back at 'em and if you think he had stuff in his first game, wait until you see him 'tomorrow'.")

Bingo—When you saying something about me getting to first pinch-hitting in the ninth, on that catcher's balk? That could've been the clincher if those crummy (edited) had hit behind me.

(Bill types: "I want to take this opportunity to congratulate my teammates on what they have done up to this stage in the blue ribbon classic. With all those injuries during the regular season, only red raw courage made it possible for them to snatch the old gonfalon, as I call the 'pennant.' Don't count them out.")

★ ★ ★

Bingo—Did I tell you them cheap (censored) gimme only a half-share in the split-up? You know who put 'em up to it? Nobody but the big-shot himself, Fred Stengel. Try to give a manager a little advice on how to turn me loose against those bums and what do I get—the knife.

Bill—You're really turning that stuff out today, Bingo. (He writes: "The best part about playing in a World Series is that it takes me and the other boys back to the days when we were just kids, playing on a corner lot. We never think of the money involved. It's playing for old Fred Stengel that counts. It's just the sport that counts. As Ford Frick once put it . . .")

Bingo—No you don't; blot that out, or whatever you creeps do when you make a mistake, which is plenty. That Frick don't get no plug in my articles. He clipped me 50 bucks once. How did I know I was going to hit that guy in the wheelchair when I throw my bat into the stands?

Bill—Okay, he's out. What about that close play at third today?

Bingo—I seen some blind empires in my day but that bum who pulled that rock today at third musta had a mother who was a mole. You want to hear what I called him from the bench, in my d i s g u i s e d voice? I called him a . . .

Bill—You're g o i n g too fast, Bingo. Let me catch up. (He types: "The play at third in today's game could have been called either way. But let me say this much: The man who had to call it was in the best position to see it.")

Bingo—That's e n o u g h for those . . . Wrap it up.

Bill—Okay. (He types: "That does it for today, fans. I'll be bringing you another 'inside' picture of the series tomorrow, and may the better team win."

Bingo (reading to end of his finished product)—You made one grammar mistake, fellow. The last line should be 'may the BEST team win.' Now, when do I get my dough?

Insane Killer Flees Hospital in Arizona

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — An insane slayer who vowed death to his victims' family escaped Thursday night from the maximum security ward of the Arizona State Hospital.

Police roadblocks were immediately set up in the Tucson area around homes of persons threatened by Paul Whalen, 30, after the 1957 slayings of Mr. and Mrs. Freelin Huff.

★ ★ ★

Hospital Supt. Samuel Wick said Whalen and another inmate, Harold Bill, cut a wire screen on the perch of the security ward and fled into the night. Bill, 48, of Phoenix, was described as not dangerous.

★ ★ ★

Whalen told police that he killed the Huffs, a wealthy southeast Arizona couple, on orders from heaven to stamp out evil.

At the time, Whalen threatened to kill relatives of the Huffs, the arresting officers and his wife, who later divorced him.

There are tax-supported public defenders in 71 cities and counties of the United States.

Prepare Mass Protest Against Gravel Firms

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP—Residents in the Round Lake area plan to launch a mass protest Tuesday night at the meeting of the Independence Township Board against what they call a delay in enforcement of the township ordinance prohibiting gravel pit operations in areas zoned residential.

Two companies are still operating gravel pits in the township in violation of the ordinance, according to George Rowen, chairman of the newly-formed Round Lake Improvements Assn., who will head the protest delegation.

The Salem Gravel Pit Co. at Oak Hill and Dartmouth roads, and the American Stone Co., on Sashabaw near Waldon rd. have been warned by the Township Board to cease operations, Supervisor Duane Hursfall said.

Three other gravel plants moved out of the township within the last year after being warned of possible court action, and two new applications for gravel pit operations have been turned down by the board, Hursfall said.

★ ★ ★

Residents in the Salem company's area have complained to the board that the plant has lowered the valuation of their property, defaced the contour of the land and is a nuisance because of the noise it creates.

★ ★ ★

At the last board meeting, Attorney Milton Cooney presented a complaint to be filed in Circuit Court, prohibiting the gravel pit operations of the two companies, providing the Township Board approves.

Some $1,800 has been set aside in the township budget for legal action against the firms, Hursfall said, and the board has been studying the complaint for possible action Tuesday night.

Tree Growth Outstrips Cutting for First Time

WASHINGTON (UPI) — For the first time in this century we are growing timber faster in the U. S. than we are removing it from forests, according to John B. Veach, president of American Forest Products Industries.

MSU Says Students Interested in Russia

EAST LANSING (AP)—Today's college students are taking a keen interest in Russia, Michigan State University officials reported today.

The MSU Russian language course has an enrollment of 67 this year, compared with 18 last year. There are nine second year Russian language students against three a year ago.

Other courses dealing with the Soviet Union showed a comparable increase, it was reported.

The course in geography of Russia increased its enrollment from 21 to 50 and the history course went from 47 to 58 students. A course in Russian intellectual history, not offered last year because of lack of interest, has 18 students compared with three in 1956.

Italian TV Fans Back Quiz Show 'Double or Quits'

ROME (UPI) — Italy's television fans are as devoted to their quiz shows as Americans are to pizza.

When TV officials announced in August that the quiz, "Lascia o Raddoppia?" ("Double or Quits") would end on Oct. 2, the show's fans rallied to the cause.

So many wrote in and said they would not renew their 1959 TV licenses if the program was dropped licenses if the program was dropped that Italy's setate-controlled radio and television corporation, RAIN, decided to keep it going another year.

The quiz has been running nearly four years and has turned 60 Italian citizens into millionaires. The 60 millionaires each won 5,120,000 lire, or $8,230. This amount has a much higher buying power in Italy than it would have in the United States.

★ ★ ★

When "Double or Quits" first went on in 1954, RAI officials figured it wouldn't last more than a month at the most. But it not only caught on, it brought in two-thirds of RAI's nearly one million licensed viewers as of July 1958.

A decline in popularity at the start of the year led to the decision to yank the show off the airwaves in October, but the flow of letters changed all that.

Honest Quiz Shows Should Take Action

The case against TV quiz shows grows worse.

Additional contestants bob up who concede that they were provided answers in advance and advised "when they were to lose."

★ ★ ★

The Press doubts whether this is actually a criminal procedure, but it certainly will strike the listening audience as highly unethical and as a straight double-cross. The element of "contest" never existed at all; and no one wants to waste a half hour in which a group of trained seals pop back answers they've been given in advance. And just to make it a bit worse, they were taught to "grimace, frown and express great doubts."

That's rubbing it in.

★ ★ ★

This newspaper has already expressed the firm conviction that there must be several honest, respectable quiz shows out of the dozens that were paraded last spring and summer.

They can't all be foul balls.

★ ★ ★

The fact the promoters seem so lax in springing to their own defense is a puzzle. Are they guilty? Or are they just going to "take it lying down"? If they're innocent, we'd like to see them spring into action and hail some of their accusers into court.

★ ★ ★

A rigged quiz show may not be a crime, but charging an honest entertainment with being crooked when it isn't—ah, that's really damaging to a reputation and is actionable. Audiences are currently tuning out the quizzers by the millions.

They're from Missouri.

They've had enough.

What are the facts?

Gettysburg Address Will Live Forever

When ABRAHAM LINCOLN penned his immortal Gettysburg Address, practically on the backs of envelopes, he could not possibly have dreamed of the importance that would be attached to his words in the years to come.

★ ★ ★

When it was delivered, this brief talk which became world famous later, attracted no attention. It was faithfully reproduced by the papers at the time, but it was carried perfunctorily and as a journalistic duty to "cover the remarks of the President."

★ ★ ★

As time passed, the underlying significance of the sentences became apparent. The philosophy that Lincoln traced so directly and so clearly began to appeal to men on all sides. Slowly, as the years rolled on, his words were picked up and embraced by free men everywhere. They have been enshrined in the hearts of people in all walks of life and in all climes.

★ ★ ★

The latest tribute to the departed emancipator comes from the Fifth French Republic which has included these words:

"Son principle est: government du peuple, par le peupule et pour le peuple."

Freely translated it simply means: "The principle is: government of the people, by the people and for the people."

★ ★ ★

Mr. Lincoln, your words will probably endure forever.

Can Soapy Be Beaten at His Own Game?

Old line Republicans looking for a candidate to match Governor SOAPY WILLIAMS in campaigning might be surprised if they looked over the statistics on PAUL D. BAGWELL.

Since the April 5 primary the East Lansing educator has given 976 addresses. In addition to his scheduled talks it is estimated that he has made 2,000 unscheduled appearances.

During this campaigning tour Bagwell has lost 15 pounds, which is quite understandable. His aides claim he has traveled 50,000 miles, which is 5,000 more than Adlai Stevenson did as the Presidential nominee in 1956.

★ ★ ★

If meeting people and shaking hands will help, BAGWELL should be well on his way. Since April he claims to have shaken hands or spoken to at least half a million people.

This is the pattern Governor WILLIAMS has followed so successfully for ten years. If physical effort will help win, then BAGWELL is certainly giving the "old college try."

The Man About Town

It All Depends—

Whether We Get a Hard Frost or Heavy Rainfall

Jack: Money, lifting device, man's name, including an undesirable autumn character whose surname is Frost.

The autumn colors on the foliage in the Pontiac area are approaching their best. They will not reach their peak over this weekend, but will be on the decline before another weekend if we should get a heavy frost and considerable rain.

While the frost has little to do with the coloring, it loosens the leaves and they begin to fall, this being hastened by a heavy rain.

So, it all depends on the quirks of the mercury and the precipitation. Better play safe, and make at least two drives into the country about a week apart.

Everywhere in this area are the trees and other foliage to make a colorful landscape, so no particular drive is suggested. If you cannot go outside of our city, you'll find plenty of rainbow tints right in your midst, perhaps in your own yard.

David Lawrence Asks:

Will British Give Up Hong Kong?

WASHINGTON — Will Great Britain now give up Hong Kong? This question is being asked here among diplomats and officials because the British Labor Party has been urging that Quemoy and Matsu be surrendered by the Chinese Nationalist government.

★ ★ ★

LAWRENCE

The crown colony of Hong Kong includes part of the mainland of China itself, as well as two islands a mile off the coast. The whole area is 391 square miles. Only about 15,000 British citizens live there. The rest of the population of around 2.6 million is Chinese. If the only guiding rule is that what "belongs to the mainland of China" shall be given to the Red China regime, then the case for the giving up of Hong Kong is much stronger than that claimed by the British Labor party leaders for taking away Quemoy and Matsu from the Nationalists.

The Conservative government in Britain is doubtless not at all interested in giving up Hong Kong. Great Britain has many millions of dollars of trade with Hong Kong each year, and lately this has been booming.

From the point of view of military title, repossession of Hong Kong was obtained after World War II by Great Britain at about the same time the Nationalist government recovered from Japanese rule the offshore islands of Matsu and Quemoy.

The Hong Kong colony is believed to be largely anti-Communist, and it would be tragic to deliver the freedom-loving Chinese of Hong Kong into the murderous hands of the Communists. But the British Labor Party leaders may not be taking such factors into account, any more than they have appeared to be concerned with the plight of the more than 50,000 free Chinese who are residents of Quemoy and Matsu.

These two offshore islands have never in themselves had strategic value and do not have now. They are important militarily only if the Reds intend to carry their war into Formosa.

Nor is there any weakening of the position of Secretary Dulles, despite the misinterpretations placed on his remarks at his Tuesday press conference. He favors a partial withdrawal of the garrisons on Quemoy and Matsu only if there is a "dependable cease-fire" in the entire area, including Formosa.

Since there is no sign that the Communists wish to agree to a cease-fire, the question of partial withdrawal of the garrisons on Quemoy and Matsu has been magnified out of all proportion to its real significance.

About all that Mr. Dulles' remarks were intended to do was to offset the erroneous impression that the United States is unwilling to negotiate for peace in the Far East. It is in fact now negotiating at Warsaw, and for three years before has been negotiating with the Red Chinese ambassador at Geneva.

The Nationalist government at Formosa naturally must protest against any weakening of the garrisons on Quemoy and Matsu, but it seems certain that, if a cease-fire could be guaranteed against Formosa as well as the offshore islands, there would be less need of so many Nationalist troops on those islands.

The American position is that it is required by treaty to consult with the Nationalist government with respect to the defense of Formosa. It is true the resolution passed by Congress in 1955 referred to the defense of Formosa and "related positions and territories." It is begging the real question for critics to say that Congress did not authorize the President to defend Quemoy and Matsu.

★ ★ ★

In reality, the state department spelled out before congressional committees at the time that the only reason for inserting in the resolution a reference to the offshore islands was to make sure that our own military forces would not be handicapped if the Communists started using the "related" islands as a base for an attack on Formosa.

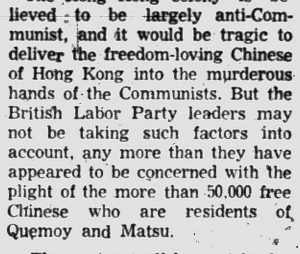
The Country Parson



"We all seem to want God to let us be just as naughty as we can and still get us into heaven."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Important to Find Cause of High Blood Pressure

"Several years ago my wife doctored for high blood pressure with absolutely no results. Has anything efficacious for HBP come up within the last three years?—(C. V. M.)"

DR. BRADY

I'm sorry you didn't ask me about it several years ago. I would have told you, and I now tell you it is a mistake to doctor for HBP, as you too glibly call it.

It is as foolish to "doctor for high blood pressure" as it would be to try to treat high gastric acidity or high blood sugar or high temperature without determining what ails the patient.

My advice is — never mind your blood pressure. Leave it to your physician's judgment, as you do your temperature.

FUNGUS INFECTION

"I have had a fungus infection on my left hand for about 10 years. It started under my wedding band, which I have been unable to wear for years, during which time I was treated by two skin specialists, the first of whom used X ray. In spite of all treatment the fungus spread until it about covered my hand.

"A friend sent me your pamphlet — I tried immersing hand in white gasoline for 30 seconds, then applying the ointment you recommend. Definite improvement in a week. Went through it three times. Now it appears cured. I am happy to tell you. (Mrs. R. H. E.)"

The pamphlet on Dermatophytosis (ringworm, foot itch, athlete's foot, fungus infection) is available free if you provide stamped, self-addressed envelope. By "white gasoline" Mrs. R. H. E. means ordinary gasoline, which should be used for this purpose. Not ethyl gasoline.

An engineer who had found no effective relief for his foot itch experimented with heat. He said he was able to endure soaking his feet in water at 120 degrees F. for a minute twice daily and that this apparently destroyed the fungus and brought about cure.

HUSBAND GETS RELIEF

"I know you must receive many letters of thanks for your advice, but none can be more sincere than mine — in fact I don't know why I didn't write to you long ago . . . My husband got complete relief from rheumatism and lumbago by following your advice to supplement his diet with calcium and vitamin D . . . (Mrs. H. S.)"

From your letter, Ma'am, I can't tell whether your husband followed my advice or not. For my advice about such cases consult the booklet Chronic Joint Disability and the pamphlet Calcium and Rheumatiz, for which send 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Too many readers mention casually that they have "tried taking calcium tablets" — which is as pertinent as it would be to try drinking three glasses of milk every day.

★ ★ ★

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Don't Glamorize Liquor to Child

Study Mary's case carefully! For I am criticized every time I write about liquor or tobacco, yet somebody must tell our young folks the truth about such things. Since 40 per cent (70,000,000) Americans belong to no church whatever, this is the only column in America that helps warn these little ones. And that is a vital service this newspaper renders.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE Z-335: Mary X., aged 5, is a very alert youngster.

"We take her out with us for dinner every Saturday night," her doting Uncle Bill informed me recently.

DR. CRANE

"Her parents, plus my wife and I, always order martinis or other highballs before the meal.

"So we had the waitress give Mary a glass of tomato juice. But Mary was dissatisfied.

"As a result, the waitress now serves her what is called a 'Girl Scout' highball. It consists of ginger ale, stained red with a little cherry juice.

"That now mollifies Mary and she feels like a 'big' girl, whereas the tomato juice left her irritated at being considered a child."

BAD PSYCHOLOGY

Later the family clergyman called at Mary's home. And Mary enthusiastically described these Saturday night dinner parties.

★ ★ ★

"We all start with a highball," Mary exulted.

The preacher looked surprised.

"Do you have a highball?" he inquired incredulously.

To which Mary pertly replied that she did, but added by way of explanation that hers was called a "Girl Scout."

The tragedy about this type of case is the fact Mary's parents have already taught her to look upon hard liquor as a mark of adulthood and sophistication!

★ ★ ★

Just as Mary grew angry at being treated as a "little" child when she was offered straight tomato juice, so she will soon begin to realize that she is still in the socially "demoted" class by drinking her "Girl Scout" beverage.

It will thus not be many years till Mary will secretly mix her own stronger drinks, even if her parents don't realize that fact till too late.

Furthermore, as soon as she starts dating and her boy friend takes her to a dinner party, Mary will regard a martini as a mark of the much desired adulthood, which is the dream of all youngsters.

So Mary's parents have simply placed a social "halo" around hard liquor.

FACE THE FACTS

Already we have far too many drinking drivers on the automobile highways.

At least 10,000 are killed each year as a result of liquor drivers, says our National Safety Council, and another 25 per cent are injured.

And please don't get the idea that all the injured quickly recover. True enough, most of them have minor bruises and scratches.

★ ★ ★

But tens of thousands of those injury cases lose eyes or have a jaw torn clear off or hands and legs scissored off.

Others are so badly maimed and mangled that even our best modern plastic surgeons have a tough job restoring them even to a reasonable facsimile of their former selves.

So don't dismiss the 1,600,000 auto injuries as trivial. Thousands of these injured are worse off than if they had been numbered among the 40,000 dead on the auto highways each year.

You parents, as well as you uncles and aunts, thus have a moral responsibility to set a strong POSITIVE example before your kids.

It isn't enough to preach ethics but you must likewise ACT the proper example before them.

Otherwise, you place stumbling blocks in front of toddlers. Jesus said it were better if we had a millstone tied around our neck and were cast into the sea, than that we place stumbling blocks in front of His little ones!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

Man Lists Ways He Feels 85th Congress Has Failed

Congress has failed the American people. They failed to deal with subversion directed and financed by Moscow, failed to amend Federal laws so all persons permitted by a Supreme Court decision to preach openly the forcible overthrow of our government be punished and prevented practice of treason.

★ ★ ★

Congress failed to pass a law which would give states as well as Federal Government the power to punish those who would overthrow the government by force. No legislation was passed to prevent sabotage of our foreign policy by so-called American citizens carrying passports. They failed to deal with racketeering carried on by irresponsible labor leaders, and failed to deal with monopoly powers of labor unions which, through industry-wide bargaining, virtually fixes prices and prevents free competition.

★ ★ ★

They failed to deal with use of money to influence legislation. Millions of dollars have been spent by labor unions to elect members of Congress who are controlled by and for the benefit of unions to the detriment of our nation.

The 85th Congress has failed. It has been faithless to the trust imposed upon it by the people. Congress has done well — squandering time serving their masters, their pet projects and political maneuvering for self-perpetuation. What can voters do? They can inform themselves which Republicans or Democrats participated in this debacle and then vote against them in the election.

★ ★ ★

The protest vote may be small at first, but there must be a start made eventually to remove from public office all those who failed the people in these days of international as well as national emergency.

'Sheltered Virtue Not Praiseworthy'

Some people that parade their virtue and their lofty lives simply have never faced temptation. I don't remember anything in the Bible that gives folks of this sort any special recognition.

They've just been shielded and kept away from danger and they make a great show of waving their innocence in the faces of others. I take my hat off to the ones that have been on the firing line and still hold up.

Canadians Hoping for New Deduction

Canadians are suggesting that people should be allowed tax deductions for the amount of money it costs them to get work. They claim this is a "necessary expense" of their business. If it stands up in Canada, why can't we work it out for the United States?

Another Praises Downtown Festival

The Pontiac Downtown Festival was really a lot of fun. We haven't been downtown shopping regularly for some time and I was very surprised at the amount of merchandise that was offered for sale, and at such low prices.

The whole downtown was decked out like I've never seen it before. I certainly think the merchants should be complimented for the wonderful way they put on this festival. I enjoyed the shopping a great deal and I enjoyed the entertainment, the music, and the funny clowns and the hats that some of the clerks wore were very interesting. Most of my neighbors had a good time, too.

I hope the downtown merchants do this again soon.

Praises Radar Speed Control

The radar miracle in Oxford is no bigger than a portable radio, but it was able to chart accurately several thousand feet of exact mileage of each car and record the license number, too. It ticks like an alarm clock, is usually put in a car of any model, so if the speed limit is 25 miles per hour, your license number and mileage are recorded. This will really help a lot of people keep the speed limit.

'North Is Unfair in Such Cases'

Why don't the newspapers and citizens of the North quit saying that old man "got life for a few dollars robbery?" That was the last of many, many offenses he committed. Northerners are inclined to treat Southerners unfairly in cases like this.

4 MIGs Attack Cargo Planes

One Transport Forced Down on Quemoy Beach With 2 Wounded

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Four Chinese Communist MIG17s attacked Nationalist cargo planes over Quemoy today. One transport was heavily damaged and forced to land on a Quemoy beach, the Nationalist Defense Ministry announced. The radio operator and the navigator were wounded.

★ ★ ★

The attack occurred during an air drop of food and medical supplies to the blockaded Nationalist garrison on the island.

The spokesman said the C46 transport managed to land. He did not disclose how many planes were in the air when the attack occurred.

It was the first Communist attack on a Nationalist air drop mission since they began in mid-September.

The Nationalists, with American help, have been trying to nullify the Communist artillery blockade.

The United States has reassured Nationalist China there is no change in its policy of refusing to give ground in the face of continued Communist attacks on Quemoy and of demanding a cease-fire.

U. S. Ambassador Everett F. Drumright relayed this information from Secretary of State Dulles to President Chiang Kai-shek Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

Chiang's reaction was not disclosed but the Foreign Ministry rejected again today Dulles's suggestion for reducing Nationalist military strength on the offshore islands if the Communists will stop shooting.

Thus the two governments held different policies on ending the Formosa Strait crisis, now in its 42nd day.

Full Overhaul Set at Trans-Continental

NEW YORK (AP)— Trans Continental Industries Inc., Detroit-based holding company headed by David B. Charney, New York public relations man, has announced a thorough-going overhaul of its corporate structure.

★ ★ ★

End result of the complicated reorganization will be to put Trans Continental Industries Inc. out of the truck trailer manufacturing business.

This operation will be controlled by a newly-formed company also headed by Charney and known as Highway Trailer Industries Inc.

Basically the plan called for TCI to obtain controlling interest in United Profit Sharing Co., a corporate shell whose name has been changed to Highway Trailer Industries Inc.

★ ★ ★

TCI's interest in highway trailer is to be "spun off" to TCI stockholders as dividends on the common stock.

Highway Trailer Industries Inc. will control Highway Trailer Co., the company which does the actual manufacturing. TCI will retain its Detroit Hardware Mfg. Co. division, which makes builders' and casement window hardware.

De Gaulle Gives Algeria Plans

5-Year Program Aimed at Ending Rebellion, Not Granting Independence

CONSTANTINE, Algeria (AP) — Premier de Gaulle announced today a five-year program for resolving the stubborn Algerian nationalist rebellion. The program calls for more and better jobs and housing for the local population, land distribution and better educational opportunities.

★ ★ ★

He told a cheering European and Moslem throng that last Sunday's constitutional referendum "engages Algeria and France forever."

He thus dashed hopes of Algerian rebels for independence.

"There are only two routes open today — war or fraternity," he said. "Algeria, like everywhere in France, has for its part chosen fraternity."

★ ★ ★

Sunday's vote was also taken as an expression of confidence in De Gaulle to settle France's outstanding problems, and the Algerian rebellion is the greatest of these.

De Gaulle's program to settle the nearly four-year-old rebellion includes:

Distribution of 625,000 acres of farm land to Moslem farmers.

★ ★ ★

At least 10 per cent of public jobs to go to Moslems.

Housing for a million persons.

Arraign Whiteside on FCC 'Influence'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Lawyer Thurman A. Whiteside pleaded innocent today to charges he conspired with former Federal Communications Commissioner Richard A. Mack to influence the FCC award of television Channel 10 at Miami, Fla.

Mack also was scheduled for arraignment today but won a delay of at least one week after his lawyer, Nicholas J. Chase, told the court, that Mack was too ill to appear.

Chase, appearing before Federal District Judge Burnita S. Matthews, said Mack was confined to a hospital in Miami. He said he had affidavits from two doctors indicating Mack would be unavailable for arraignment for at least 30 days.

Robert J. Rosthal, representing the Justice Department, said the department had no intention of "harrassing a man if he is ill." He suggested that the department be permitted to check on Mack's condition through the U.S. Attorney's office at Miami and report back to the court.

The judge continued Mack's case for one week pending such a report.

Burglary Forces Highland Store Out of Business

Oakland County Sheriff's Detectives are investigating a break-in that literally put a Highland Township store owner out of business Thursday.

Fletcher Bruno, owner of Bruno's Grocery, 5016 Hickory Ridge Rd., reported to deputies yesterday that someone had broken into his store and stolen most of its merchandise.

Entry was gained by forcing a restroom door open at the rear of the building and then breaking a 26-by-17-foot hole in the wall between the restroom and the store.

Detectives said the thieves took meat, canned goods, apples, kitchenutensils, baby bottles, cigars, cigarettes, coffee, and other miscellaneous items. No cash was stolen.

In listing the stolen goods, detectives said over 300 items were taken plus 64 pounds of meat, 42 pounds of butter and coffee, a bushel of apples and 42 packages of vegetables.

Sell 37,429 Buicks in First Ten Days

Buick dealers sold 37,429 1959 model cars the first 10 days they were on display, "the fastest any new model Buick ever got off the ground," Edward T. Ragsdale, general manager of Buick and vice president of General Motors, reported today.

"This is the actual number of retail orders our dealers have turned in to zone offices across the country," Ragsdale said. "Included in this figure are 7,635 new cars delivered through Sept. 27. But our dealers could have delivered five times that many if they had had them in stock. Our retail and wholesale orders together total more than 60,000 cars at the present time.

"Our new car orders are running about four to five weeks ahead of production," Ragsdale explained. "That is the fastest any new model Buick ever got off the ground."

Helpless Fireman Sees Own Family Perish in Fire

CHICAGO (AP)—The sound of his wife's voice, gasping over the direct line to the station, summoned fireman William Hughes to the most heartbreaking blaze of his life yesterday.

★ ★ ★

But when he reached his fire-swept home in suburban Skokie, Hughes was thwarted. Flames and smoke kept him from breaking through to the attack apartment where his wife and two of their children were trapped.

★ ★ ★

Overcome by smoke, and nearly prostrate with grief, he was led away to the home of his minister, the Rev. Norman Roberts. Later, the bodies of Marilyn Hughes, 28, and their two sons, Ronald, 3, and Robert, 6 months, were recovered.

"Oh, my God, oh, my God," Hughes sobbed. "The other children?"

David, 6, and Jacqueline, 8, were at school, a minister told him.

★ ★ ★

Fire officials said Mrs. Hughes apparently died while attempting to rescue the sleeping children. Ronald was found cradled in her arms, and Robert tucked in a nearby crib.

Bridge Traffic Now 1,169,632

52 Per Cent Increase Over Vehicles Crossing by Ferry Last Year

ST. IGNACE (UPI) — Mackinac Bridge officials reported today that 1,169,632 vehicles crossed the big span during the first nine months of this year.

★ ★ ★

The total traffic so far this year represents a 59.2 per cent increase over the 734,632 vehicles that crossed the Straits of Mackinac on state ferries during the first nine months of 1957.

★ ★ ★

Revenues since Jan. 1 have amounted to $4,261,245, a 48.1 per cent increase over the $2,876,765 paid by motorists to cross on the ferries during the same period last year.

It appeared unlikely that the bridge would reach its goal of 1,500,000 crossings for the first full year — Jan. 1 to Dec. 31 — of operation. The bridge opened to traffic Nov. 1, 1957.

Between 200,000 and 300,000 vehicles are expected to cross the $100 million bridge during the final three months of the year.

Traffic during September totaled 137,215 vehicles, a 38.7 per cent increase over the 98,957 vehicles that crossed on ferries in September 1957. September revenues amounted to $500,776 compared to $376,993 during the same month a year ago.

★ ★ ★

Chairman Prentiss M. Brown of the Mackinac Bridge Authority said cost of crossing the bridge still averages less per vehicle than on the ferry.

★ ★ ★

Brown said that although traffic during September increased nearly 39 per cent over the same month of last year, revenues were up only 33 per cent.

Carney Is Reappointed to Bridge Commission

LANSING (UPI)—Dr. Frank V. Carney, St. Clair, was reappointed as a member of the State Bridge Commission today by Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

The appointment was for a term ending March 31, 1960, and requires Senate confirmation.

More than 100 new State parks were opened in the United States last year.

Rid Aurora of Bingo, Says Mayor

Appoints Pretty Redhead Police Chief for Cleanup

AURORA, Ill. (AP) — Irate but ignored in his bingo war with Aurora police, Mayor Paul Egan has uncorked a real eyestopper in his bid for obedience and headlines—a lady police chief.

He announced that Lura Patricia (Patti) Counts, a red-haired night club press agent, is the new chief of police.

★ ★ ★

The 28-year-old green-eyed lass from Chicago has never dealt with the criminal element, but she says she's studied sociology. And she looked very well in a cheesecake pose for photographers.

"Press agentry," cried the opposition in this northern Illinois town of 55,000.

"It's just too ridiculous to comment upon," declared Donald Curran, whom Egan fired as police chief for not cracking down on bingo. Only he didn't go. And the City Council said he didn't have to.

★ ★ ★

Neither did the Police Department go when Egan suspended the entire 68-man force for listening to Curran.

But as far as the fiery little mayor is concerned Miss Counts is the chief.

"Her success at Aurora will accrue to the benefit of the entire world," he proclaimed.

And said she: "I will fight those who oppose my appointment."

When somebody asked if she's tried to supplant Curran yet, she replied, "I've never met the man, but he's too much of a gentleman to throw me in jail."

★ ★ ★

Miss Counts will do her fighting without a gun, she says. She added that she's against capital punishment and will bank her success heavily on the sociology and economic courses she said she learned at Radford Teacher College in Radford, W.Va.

Miss Counts hasn't even been sworn in yet. Egan says he's waiting until the bonding company says she's good for $5,000 coverage.

Like the 10 police chiefs Egan has fired and hired during his hectic 4½ years as mayor, Miss Counts will have to know who's in charge.

★ ★ ★

In his official message to her Egan said: "I want the department renovated, improved and streamlined. But before you make any major decision I want to be consulted."

He told her she was to listen to no phony commissioner-mayors or anybody else.

Miss Counts is supposed to do this for the next 60-days. It's a temporary job, Egan said.

★ ★

The tall (5 foot 8) Miss Counts says she's not worried about the possibility she may not get her paycheck.

"That'll be all right," she said. "I make twice as much as the chief's salary by free-lance writing." The chief gets $7,092 a year.

'Let Iraqi People Decide'

CAIRO (AP) — Iraq's Premier Abdel Karim Kassem believes the question of Iraqi union with the United Arab Republic should be left to the Iraqi people to decide, the morning newspaper Al Akhbar reported today. The paper also said 19 MIG 17 fighters arrived in Baghdad recently to reinforce the Iraqi air force and were piloted by Egyptians.

Tribune Will Appeal Columnist's Sentence

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Herald Tribune will appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court against the contempt of court conviction of the newspaper's TV-Radio columnist, Marie Torre.

★ ★ ★

The appeal was announced by Ogden R. Reid, president and editor of the Herald Tribune.

Miss Torre is under sentence to 10 days in jail for refusing to reveal in a court case the source of a story she wrote about entertainer Judy Garland. She has remained free without bail since she was sentenced by a Federal District Court judge last Nov. 12.

★ ★ ★

Reid, in the course of a statement announcing an appeal to the Supreme Court, said: "Safeguarding of confidential sources is basic to effective gathering of news."

Miss Torre's conviction was upheld last Tuesday by three judges of the U.S. Court of Appeals, one step below the Supreme Court. Miss Torre's defense invoked the First Amendment to the Constitution, which guarantees freedom of the press.

Japan Approves Changes in Atom Pact With U.S.

TOKYO (AP) — Japan today formally approved the signing of three amendments to the U.S.-Japan atomic energy pact.

★ ★ ★

A government official said the signing was expected to take place in Washington next week.

The United States agreed to the change so that the Japanese government would be able to remove political objections and gain the Diet's ratification of the pact.

★ ★ ★

The most important change provides that all plutonium bought back by the United States from Japanese reactors will be used for peaceful purposes only.

Declassifies Old Documents

Pentagon Cuts Secrecy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon swung a major blow at unneeded secrecy today.

It ordered declassification of almost all military documents stamped top secret, secret and confidential before Jan. 1, 1946. Some date back to World War I days or before. Many millions of outdated documents are affected.

The declassification order was signed by Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy last Saturday, it was learned, and is due for formal announcement today.

★ ★ ★

The order also takes a preliminary jab at the continuing accumulation of classified papers. It orders the automatic downgrading, after a period of years, of documents labeled top secret.

Left for future action is a time-phased schedule that will remove all grades of secrecy from documents after they have been stored for a given number of years.

Specifically exempted from the mass declassification order are papers detailing U.S. and Allied war plans and almost everything connected with intelligence and counterintelligence.

★ ★ ★

Personnel and medical records also were excluded because their confidential nature is covered by numerous regulations, laws and customs that normally prevent the invasion of personal privacy.

No one knows how many papers have been tied up in security red tape. The estimates run into many hundreds of millions.

But they include an estimated 1,376,633 cubic feet of papers stored in 127,466 steel cabinets in military records centers, holding areas and the national archives.

These are the identifiable documents that the Pentagon can put its hands on. There are a lot more. The universities and some 23,000 industrial plants hold many still-classified papers from World War II.

★ ★ ★

Behind the directive lies 18 months of work by retired Vice Adm. John M. Hoskins and his small staff, set up for the purpose by then Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson.

After sizing up the problem, Hoskins decided on a mass attack. He found that individual services and units had tried before to reduce the size and flow of classified material but that most of these efforts had ended in frustration because of the magnitude of the task.

★ ★ ★

One military department told Hoskins that it would take at least 8,000 officers and men to conduct an annual downgrading and classification review of its backlog of active files.

Birds on Plane Are Worth Four Lost in Arctic

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — The Scanadinavian Airlines System announced the arrival in Rome today of Mr. and Mrs. Swallow and their two little swallows who had been hatched somewhere between the Arctic Circle and Stockholm.

★ ★ ★

The company said it was asked by animal lovers to give the swallow family a free ride after the insect supply ran out above the Arctic circle because of snowfall.

★ ★ ★

The parents, SAS explained, apparently were on a delayed honeymoon in Northern parts "when this thing happened to them."

"Because of her two eggs Mrs. Swallow could not make the flight on her own," a spokesman added.

Depending upon the amount of milk produced, an average dairy cow needs 10 to 20 gallons of water a day.

Even Wooden Nickels Cost More These Days

MONTCLAIR, N.J. (AP) — The cost of wooden nickels has gone up to 7 cents.

The local Chamber of Commerce has been selling 5-cent pieces made of pine wood to merchants. They will be handed out free to customers after Oct. 16 as part of a promotion scheme.

The nickels are worth a nickel each to the customers. But what with the cost of pine wood and handling, merchants have been paying $7 for a hundred of the tokens.

Shipments of Iron Ore Total 8,705,886 Tons

CLEVELAND (AP)—Iron ore shipments on the Great Lakes last month totaled 8,705,886 tons compared with 11,828,076 tons in September of last year, the American Iron Ore Assn. reported today.

Shipments for the season to Oct. 1 totaled 39,783,517 tons, a drop of 29,740,283 from the 69,523,900 tons shipped during the comparable period of 1957.

Engineers' Open House Wednesday at MSUO

Michigan State University Oakland will hold an Engineers' Open House at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Continuing Education Center, 3070 Butler Rd., in respons to the interest in engineering education demonstrated in the Oakland County area.

★ ★ ★

A representative of the College of Engineering dean and heads of the departments of mechanical and electrical engineering will be present for the meeting to discuss possible programs which could be sponsored by their departments.

In announcing the event, Dr. Lowell Eklund, director of continuing education at MSU, expressed the hope that all persons interested in studying engineering courses for credit or non-credit will take advantage of this opportunity to meet with those responsible for such programs.

For the foreseeable future, however, such courses if desired for credit will be at the senior and graduate level, Dr. Edklund stated. Lower level courses for credit will not be available until MSU has a resident faculty of its own, he said.

★ ★ ★

"In the meantime," says Dr. Eklund, "we will do our utmost to meet the needs of the professional engineers of the area for refresher or continuing education by means of credit programs where appropriate. These will include informal, or non-credit, conferences or seminars where the subject matter content is the principal interest of the student."

After many years of nickel shortages for civilian uses, supplies came into close balance with demand in 1957 in nearly all parts of the free world. In fact, in the largest market, the United States, supply exceeded demand.

NLRB Will Get Smaller Cases

Amount of Business Specifications Are Cut for Arbitration

WASHINGTON (AP) — From now on, the National Labor Relations Board will handle cases involving many smaller businesses formerly outside it jurisdiction.

The NLRB announced new standards specifying reduced amounts of annual business a firm must do to be subject to supervision by the board in labor dispute cases.

★ ★ ★

The agency said the new rules, effective immediately, were expected to boost the NLRB's work load by about 2,500 to 3,000 cases a year. This would be an increase of about 20 per cent over current record levels.

The Taft-Hartley Act gives the NLRB discretionary authority to limit its jurisdiction. Both employers and employes in a number of smaller firms which were denied NLRB services found themselves in a no man's land when a Supreme Court ruling put them outside the jurisdiction of state labor disputes agencies.

The new standards vary from industry to industry. For example, for manufacturing, wholesale or nonretail type business the new standard is a $50,000 annual volume of business. The old standard ranged up to a million dollars.

For newspapers, the board will take jurisdiction where the paper has an annual gross volume of $200,000 instead of $500,000 as previously.

Nixon and Adlai Debate Formosa, Other Issues

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Vice President Nixon and Adlai Stevenson debated Formosa and other issues Thursday night—not face to face, but back to back.

The old foes and potential future rivals for president spoke in adjoining halls of the massive Oakland Civic Auditorium. A thick fire wall separated Republicans from Democrats.

Nixon told the Republicans the Eisenhower administration opposes turning the islands of Quemoy and Matsu over to the Chinese Communists. He said to do so would be a reward for aggression.

The vice president spoke of the administration's policy as being flexible toward negotiation if the Chinese Communists agree to a cease-fire. But he said it is firm against yielding to the use of force.

Stevenson told the Democrats that the United States should make clear it will fight to defend Formosa, but that the tiny islands off the coast of China are another matter.

He said Quemoy and Matsu historically always have belonged to China. He also said the present fight between Nationalists and Communists is a continuation of the Chinese civil war in which he believes the United States should not intervene.

Nixon, winding up a campaign swing of his home state, spoke before 850 persons who paid $100 a plate for dinner, and 1,000 more who chipped in $5 each just to listen. He was flanked by Sen. William F. Knowland and Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, Republican nominees for each other's present jobs.

Oldest Congressman
Is Spry and Witty at 91

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Spry and witty, Sen. Theodore Francis Green (D-RI), oldest man ever to serve in Congress, today entered his 92nd year whimsically considering wearing his toga to the century mark.

★ ★ ★

Green's 91st birthday was a bustling one. It included his usual daily two-mile walk, a family birthday party, the opening of countless congratulatory telegrams and a radio interview.

In the interview, the venerable chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said he didn't think the United States had the "slightest obligation" to defend Quemoy and Matsu, and that to do would not be wise, adding: "We got in deeper than we should have."

★ ★ ★

Regarding U.S. recognition of Red China, he said: "I haven't said whether we should or should not recognize Red China. It depends on the circumstances under which it is proposed. There are many arguments on both sides. It appears to me that the arguments in favor are stronger, but I am not committing myself now. It is rather ridiculous make-believe on the part of the State Department to keep on recognizing that island of Formosa as China."

★ ★ ★

Referring to his own political career, Green said: "If I run again in 1960, a six-year term will take me to the age of 99 and I expect to serve until I'm 100. Would it be right for me to run for a six-year term when I only want to serve one year?"

Then he chuckled: "Of course, I'm not to be taken literally."

The bachelor senator's longevity prescription—exercise and relaxation.

Asking Recognition in Brazilian Election

RIO DE JANEIRO, (AP) — Brazilians elect a new Congress and pass judgment on a comeback bid of the outlawed Communist party today. The Reds seek recognition as a major political force through support of various candidates, chiefly Laborites.

★ ★ ★

Roman Catholics of this predominantly Catholic nation were called upon by Jaime Cardinal de Barros Camara to vote against Communist-backed candidates.

Nearly 14 million of Brazil's 60 million people are expected to cast ballots. At stake are all 326 seats in the Chamber of Deputies, 21 of the 63 Senate seats and 9 of the 21 state governorships.

★ ★ ★

The Labor party is among the Big Three of Brazilian politics. The others are the Social Democratic party and the National Democratic Union. There are eight smaller parties in addition to the Communists.

Pope Confers Blessing on American Pilgrimage

CASTEL GANDOLFO (AP) — Pope Pius XII expressed pleasure today at receiving an American pilgrimage led by Francis Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York.

★ ★ ★

The 82-year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church appeared to be fully recovered from his slight weakness of voice of last Wednesday.

He spoke to 700 American men and women, who have been visiting European shrines, and concluded by giving them his apostolic blessing.

★ ★ ★

The Pope received Cardinal Spellman in private audience.

More than seven million pleasure boats were in use in the U. S. in 1957.

Romano Mussolini Recalls Father as Kind and Gentle

NEW YORK — Few Americans could ever think of Benito Mussolini as having been "kind" and "gentle." That the role of father and family man be played by the Italian dictator is difficult to believe. But Mussolini's son, Romano, in a recent issue of a national magazine, remembers his father as having been kind and gentle and a good father to his children.

★ ★ ★

Writes Romano: "However he was known to the world, Benito Mussolini was to his children a kindly, gentle, almost too indulgent father who tried to compensate for his absences from his family by being as close as possible to us while he was home."

Most of us think of Mussolini as having set himself above church and state. In contradiction, his son tells the following story.

★ ★ ★

"I could never understand the fanatical demonstrations of affection for my father by people we didn't know, and one day I asked the cook, 'How come everyone runs and screams when Papa arrives?'

★ ★ ★

"'Well, the King is the most important man in Italy,' she explained, 'and, just imagine, your father comes directly after him!'

TOO MANY COMMAND

"That night I asked my father if this were really true. He seemed amused, and years later he used to repeat the story to me and say sadly, 'I come last, after the Pope and the King, and it is very difficult to make things run when too many are in command.'"

★ ★ ★

Though Romano has developed from a casual and occasional piano player into one of Italy's finest and best known jazz pianists since the war, he has no particular ambitions to pursue such as a career. He has been approached to go into politics. But he prefers that his life be as "quiet and tranquil as possible now," according to his article.

The dictator's son plans to settle down to farming in the Romagna section of Italy. As for his hopes, he says, "I wish that with the passing of time all the political anger will disappear forever, and that the political actions taken by my father will win their right recognition in the true history of Italy."

Angry Communists Jail German Horse Traders

BERLIN (AP) — Three East German horse traders have been sent to jail because their deals helped farmers to resist the collectivized farm program.

★ ★ ★

The Information Bureau-West, an agency that collects reports on East Germany, said the three men were charged with being illegal livestock dealers and were sentenced to a total of 23 years in jail by a Magdeburg court.

★ ★ ★

Their horse trading strengthened the economic position of individual farmers, Communist authorities alleged.

Moriarty Set for Big Pitch—High in Stands

NEW YORK (AP) — When the opening lineup is announced at 11 o'clock Saturday in the cavernous offices beneath Yankee Stadium, poised, confident John Moriarty will be dressing out for another World Series start.

Wicker basket on white-jacketed arm, mustard stick in the alert position, he will coolly step before the assembled 65,000, rear back and fire the big one:

"Here yar, getcha red hot franks here!"

* * *

Moriarty, a port-sided coin flipper born almost in the shadow of the House that Ruth Built, got his start in the big leagues as a second-string soda seller, gradually worked his way up to candy butcher, and peanut vendor, and after several impressive appearances in relief drew a starting assignment as hot dog hustler, the cash clean-up spot to which all rookies aspire.

* * *

Three full seasons and two World Series behind him, Moriarty, now just turned 18, is at the top of his form. His delivery is shrill and commanding; his diction a gravel-based blend of Bronx and Brooklynese that assaults the ear drum with terrifying urgency. He can go deep to make change in the upper deck and make the turn at the mezzanine for a double sale in the box seats.

On a clear day, before a packed house, he can flip a coin 30 rows back into the stands and hit the strike zone with awesome regularity.

* * *

"For women," he confided, "we use an underarm motion, something like the submarine ball Carl Mays used to throw. Men like to have it burned over with a full thumb snap so they can show off on the catch. Control is everything. A wild throw can cost you several big sales while you're burrowing under the seats for a passed quarter."

Like all major leaguers, Moriarty has to contend with a certain amount of irksome horseplay from the sidelines.

"When you're passing a frank down the aisle, for instance," he cited past indignities, "some wise guy will always make like he's going to take a bite out it. Once or twice a character actually did. The same bit with the change: There's always one comedian who tries to put it in his pocket. That's why we prefer the direct flip."

* * *

Moriarty's idea of a good day: "Anything but the World Series. It's too crowded to move around and people paid too much money to take their eyes off the game long enough to down a couple of franks. Give me a good cold day, a long dull game and a bunch of kids who got in for free on passes. The kids give you a hard time but they aren't always shouting for you to get out of the way.

"To a series fan, you have to be available and invisible at the same time. But don't get me wrong. I love baseball.

"Here yar, getcha red hot franks right here!"

Ten Pound Island near Gloucester, Mass., was so named because it was purchased for that amount of money from the Indians in Colonial times.

Face Stopped a Clock?

NEW YORK (UPI)—A plastic surgeon is expected to testify in a divorce suit here whether Mrs. Bernard Simon has a face that stopped a clock. The surgeon is to be called to settle a difference of opinion between Mrs. Simon, who says she got a scar on her face when Simon threw an alarm clock at her, and Simon who says he didn't throw any such thing, she had the scar before he married her.

Arab Leaders Silent in U.N.

Gromyko's Call for Full Debate on Middle East Gets No Response

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Arab leaders sat tight today despite Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's call for a full-scale General Assembly debate on the Middle East.

In a bitter speech Thursday, Gromyko urged a debate on the "removal of the consequences of British-American aggression" in the Middle East.

★ ★ ★

He accused Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold of presenting a onesided report on the Middle East and charged that Jordan was trying to obstruct implementation of an Assembly resolution aimed at withdrawal of British troops from the Hashemite kingdom.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge described Gromyko's speech as "unadulterated villification."

★ ★ ★

Gromyko, who has been prodding the Arabs to demand that the Middle East situation be made a separate Assembly item, refused to make any formal proposal of his own.

Arab diplomats declined to comment on the Soviet minister's speech. They are reported awaiting the arrival Saturday of Mahmoud Fawzi, foreign minister of the United Arab Republic, before taking any action.

★ ★ ★

Gromyko accused the United States and Britain of stalling on withdrawal of their forces from Lebanon and Jordan. He charged the United States was holding Lebanon's new government "at pistol point."

Use Tractors, Wagon to Flee Eastern Zone

(AP)—Two farmers' families from East Germany — five adults and three children—rolled across the Iron Curtain with all their movable possessions Thursday night.

A horse-drawn wagon, two tractors and two manure carts made up the convoy. On the wagon the two families, not named by police, had heaped all their mobile belongings, including the childrens' toys and a cat.

The refugees said they fled because the Communists planned to nationalize their farms in East Germany.

Once a Baseball 'Star,' He's Now a Cowboy

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—With the World Series madness upon us, filling Our Town with large men trying to get into small taxicabs, Chuck Connors decided to speak out and tell what baseball did for him.

★ ★ ★

He more or less flopped at it and so he became a cowboy star on TV and in the movies, which was only to be expected, since he comes from Brooklyn.

Other people have success stories but he has a failure story. Six-feet-5⅝ inches tall, he played with the Brooklyn Dodgers for . . . oh . . . several minutes. Now that he stars in "The Rifleman" and is a very vicious villain in Gregory Peck's new movie, "Big Country," he doesn't mind unfolding his failure story.

"I got my chance with the Dodgers 10 years ago when I was playing with Montreal," Chuck confessed. He was wearing sideburns, necessary for his TV role, but not the mean-looking mustache that he wore in the movie.

★ ★ ★

"Branch Rickey told me one day, 'Gil Hodges isn't doing very good, and if he doesn't do good today, you're first baseman.'

"I was on the bench rooting for Hodges to break his leg.

"Instead, he hit a home run. The next day, in the ninth, with one out, Hodges walked. They called me in to pinch hit. It was my big chance and I made the most of it.

"I hit the first pitch so hard—right back at the pitcher, on the bounce—that he made a double play and the ball game was over.

★ ★ ★

"I hit the ball so hard, as I was saying, that the next day they let me bat in cleanup position—back in Montreal."

Chuck clowned on the field. Playing later with the Chicago Cubs and then the Hollywood Stars, Chuck attracted the eye of MGM casting director Billy Grady who was not only a baseball fan but also Irish.

One day Grady phoned Chuck about making a movie test.

He let his hair grow long and he learned to ride a horse, and bang, bang, he became a western star.

Mackie Calls Bagwell Road Plans Juvenile

LANSING (AP)—Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie, a Democrat, scorns Republican Paul D. Bagwell's road building prescription.

Of the GOP governor candidate's bluebook on beeline highways, Mackie said yesterday:

"It is hard for me to believe that an adult mind seeking the governorship would sign his name to such an incredible document.

"I sincerely hope this bluebook is widely circulated during the campaign by the Republicans so the voters can see for themselves what I mean."

He called it "juvenile."

In the campaign booklet, Bagwell said Mackie's road building plans ignored "economic facts" and would tend to leave Michigan an "isolated island" with inadequate links to the Chicago-New York throughway.

Mackie said the Detroit-Toledo expressway would hook up with the transcontinental turnpike as soon as Ohio finished its share of the project, and that a second major connection (U.S. 23) now is under contract to the Ohio line a few miles north of the turnpike.

Physically Handicapped Week Is Proclaimed

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams today proclaimed Oct. 5-11 as Employ the Physically Handicapped Week in Michigan, saying it is only good business to hire qualified physically handicapped workers.

He also asked citizens to help Goodwill Industries, an agency that trains the physically handicapped through units in Detroit, Flint, Port Huron, Muskegon, Kalamazoo, Adrian, Jackson and Battle Creek.

He Claims Envy Lowers Doctors in Public's Eye

DETROIT (AP)—A psychiatrist says the public thinks less of doctors now than it once did because the doctors make the mistake of wearing good clothes and driving the best cars.

★ ★ ★

"People don't like that," Dr. Lewis L. Robbins of Hillside Hospital, Glen Oaks, N.Y., told the Michigan State Medical Society."

He said doctors arouse envy by appearing so successful.

"People had reverence and respect for the old time doctor who sat up all night with the child, even though the child usually died," he continued.

★ ★ ★

"Now doctors do too well. They give the child medicine and cure him and go their way, appearing like highly paid and competent technicians to laymen's eyes, lacking the human touch."

Valuable Papers Reported Stolen

Transcripts of Hearing Missing From Safe in Independence Home

Valuable legal papers were reported stolen from the home of an area industrialist yesterday, according to Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies.

John H. Parsons, of 9165 Evee St., Independence Township, told deputies that the documents were taken from a floor safe in the den of his home.

Parsons, owner of the John H. Parsons Co., 2569 Dixie Highway, Drayton Plains, said the papers consisted of a transcript of a hearing before the National Labor Relations Board in 1954 and bills of sale.

The sale slips were made out to his previous company, Parsons Punch Corporation.

Parsons also told deputies that the papers were to be used in a hearing next week. The nature of the hearing was not disclosed.

★ ★ ★

Parsons, however, did say that the papers were connected with a labor dispute between his company and the UAW-CIO.

Deputies said there was no evidence of forced entry into the Parsons home and the safe had not been forced open.

Authorities believe the thieves knew exactly what to look for since they left a $1,000 endorsed check plus more than $300 cash untouched.

Parsons said that several other attempts had been made in the past to steal the legal documents. He said he had opened the safe last weekend and nothing was missing at that time.

New Glue Knits Broken Bones for Use in 48 Hours

CHICAGO (UPI)—A Philadelphia physician has revealed development of a glue which unites broken bones so tightly that the affected limb can be used in 48 hours.

Dr. Michael Manderino, assistant professor at Hahnemann Medical College in Philadelphia, discussed the material yesterday at a meeting in advance of the American College of Surgeons convention which opens Monday. Manderino said the substance, called polyurethane, had been tested clinically for the past two years on both animals and humans.

The material is plastic which foams when mixed with a catalyst. The foam is poured into the fracture and solidifies, Manderino said.

He said the glue knits the bones so effectively that in most cases the patient can resume use of the affected area without splints in two days.

Husband Survives Ride in Brakeless Vehicle

Pushes Wife Out of Truck, Crashes

HENNEPIN, Ill. (UPI)—A young husband shoved his protesting wife out of his moving truck yesterday, then drove the brakeless vehicle on a wild ride that ended in a tangled mass of wreckage at the foot of a hill on U.S. 29 near here.

For more than an hour, William Rouse, 21, was pinned in the wreckage of his truck. A wrecking truck finally freed him from the gasoline-soaked cab and a waiting ambulance rushed Rouse to a hospital at Princeton. He was reported in good condition early today.

Rouse's wife Marlene, 22, a hospital laboratory technician, said her husband had picked her up after she completed her day's work and offered to take her on his last run of the day.

They had reached the top of a hill on U.S. 29 and were going about 15 miles per hour, Mrs. Rouse said, when "something went wrong."

"Bill said something about the transmission going out, then shouted at me to 'jump out!' " she said.

"I wasn't going to, but he just pushed me out."

FAILS ON TURN

By the time Mrs. Rouse had gotten her bearings, her husband already had crashed while trying to maneuver a turn at the foot of the hill.

"They told me his brakes were 'hot' and that the big load of beans in the back of the truck swung it into the field," Mrs. Rouse said later.

"I was one of the first people to arrive at the wreck. The truck was upside down. When I got there, Bill was pinned in the wreckage. He still had his cigarette in his mouth, but he took it out and crushed it against the ground."

★ ★ ★

It was feared that the fumes or gasoline spilled over the area would burst into flame at any moment during the agonizing hour Rouse was in the truck.

Rouse apparently had miraculously escaped serious injury as well as death. First reports at the Princeton Hospital indicated there were no broken bones, Mrs. Rouse said.

Major crimes in the U. S. have increased 80 per cent since 1950.

Wife of Late Sen. Taft Dies at 68 in Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — Mrs. Martha Bowers Taft who shared the campaign battles of her late husband, U.S. Sen. Robert A. Taft, is dead. She will be buried beside her husband Saturday in the Indian Hill Church Cemetary.

Mrs. Taft died unexpectedly at her Indian Hill home Thursday at the age of 68.

A son said heart failure caused her death. She had been confined to a wheelchair after a stroke in 1950.

★ ★ ★

After the senator's death on July 31, 1953, she sold their victorian home in Washington but maintained an apartment there for a year before returning to their home here.

The two complemented each other well—she friendly and vivacious, he sober [illegible]ious.

Taft was 31 years old when he plunged into politics in 1920 as a precinct worker and won election to the Ohio House the same year. His first and only defeat was in the 1932 Democratic landslide when he lost for state senator.

★ ★ ★

During this period, Martha Taft was a constant source of support. She made speeches and her speeches made friends.

In 1938, when Taft tried for the U.S. Senate for the first time, she startled old-line politicians by stumping Ohio for him, making speeches and arrangements in 85 of the 88 counties. One Cleveland newspaper headlined his victory "Bob and Martha win."

★ ★ ★

She worked just as hard again in 1944 and in his unsuccessful tries for the presidential nomination. Her illness curtailed her activities, but in his last attempt —in 1952—she conducted a one-woman letter writing campaign for him.

The team of Bob and Martha didn't quite reach the White House, but that's where they met. She was the daughter of the U.S. solicitor general, he was the son of President William Howard Taft.

Four years later, after he was graduated from Harvard Law School, they were married and came to Cincinnati to live.

★ ★ ★

They raised four sons—William Howard, a State Department adviser; Robert Jr., a Cincinnati lawyer; Lloyd, former executive vice president of the Cincinnati Times-Star—a family enterprise—before it was sold this summer, and Horace, an assistant professor of physics at Yale. There are 14 grandchildren.

Ike in Hospital for His Annual Physical Check

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower enters Walter Reed Army Hospital today for a general health checkup before embarking on a stepped-up political effort in behalf of Republican congressional candidates.

★ ★ ★

Apparently hale and high-spirited, Eisenhower expects to get a good report from the doctors on his release sometime Saturday. Then he'll probably head for the golf course.

★ ★ ★

The President faces a fairly vigorous travel and speechmaking schedule starting next week. It includes a two-night stop in Denver, Colo., Oct. 18 and 19 — his first since he suffered a heart attack there three years ago.

Today's visit to the big military medical center is for the regular, all-over physical examination he undergoes each year.

After last year's checkup the doctors said he was in excellent health. Fourteen days later, on Nov. 25, he suffered a slight stroke.

Since then he has had one formal checkup. Three specialists at Walter Reed gave him another clean bill of health last March 1, saying he had receovered completely from the stroke.

$83,000 Payroll Met at Hospital

Increased Occupancy Brightens Cash Picture at Pontiac General

Higher revenues based to an increased occupancy rate have brightened Pontiac General Hospital's financial picture, enabling the administration to meet $83,000 in payrolls today.

Harold B. Euler, hospital administrator, said that as a result of additional layoffs last month, today's payroll was $4,000 less than the one two weeks ago.

The occupancy rate for September soared to 87 per cent, compared with August's low of 76 per cent, and the increase continued during the first three days of this month, he said.

Because of the high occupancy rate, no additional layoffs are contemplated at present, he said.

Another cheering factor was developing in the expansion program. Euler said that the hospital cafeteria would be moved from the old building to the new one tomorrow and the kitchen transferred next week, all but ending use of the old building and clearing the way for remodeling operations.

No final figure has yet been reached on the cost of replacing worn out electrical, plumbing and heating installations in the old building, Euler said.

Prime contractors have still to report how much financial credit the hospital can gain on work already contracted under the remodeling program, he said.

Tin has been found in all nine of the Malaya states.

Warsaw is one of Europe's newer cities, though it has a recorded history going back to the 13th century. About 85 per cent of the Polish capital was destroyed in World War II and has been rebuilt on the ruins. The new city houses more than 1,000,000 people.

Youth Convicted of Slaying Girl

Sixty-Year Sentence Is Recommended by Jury in Missouri

WARRENSBURG, Mo. (AP) — Salvatore Falbo, big for his 16 years and in trouble most of his teens, was convicted of second-degree murder early today. He killed a 10-year-old girl.

The male jury recommended that he be imprisoned for 60 years.

★ ★ ★

Salvatore's guilt in the strangling of Shirley Alice Kyle in June 1957 was admitted. His attorneys wanted him confined to a mental institution for life. The prosecution asked the death sentence.

The boy and his father Sam, sitting side by side when the verdict was announced at 12:09 a.m. showed no emotion.

It took the jury 5½ hours and five ballots to convict the 6-foot, 230-pound youth.

★ ★ ★

Shirley lived a few blocks from the Falbo home in Gladstone, Mo. a Kansas City suburb.

Salvatore said he enticed Shirley into nearby woods with a promise to show her some birds. A search started when she did not return home for dinner, and her body was found hidden in underbrush.

The boy was arrested in Kansas City the next day. He was cowering in an excavation near the home of his grandfather.

★ ★ ★

Salvatore first was arrested in 1954 when he was 12, accused of breaking into a Kansas City house. Subsequent arrests include charges of threatening a 17-year-old girl with a bayonet, house breaking, burglary and carrying a revolver. He had been confined to homes for delinquent boys on three different occasions.

Beer Bottles Tossed Over Iron Curtain Lure Communist Guards (for a While)

By HANNS NEUERBOURG

ESCHWEGE, Germany (AP) — It started with a pack of cigarettes thrown over the Iron Curtain. Then followed eight bottles of beer.

Three happy-go-lucky guards of the East German people's police were at the receiving end. Their officers were away at a big sports meet, and there was nobody to see them violating nonfraternization orders.

★ ★ ★

It took them 15 minutes to empty the eight bottles of beer while sitting atop their watch tower. Puffing at the Western cigarettes, they tossed back the bottles with thanks.

But the salesman had brought new supplies from a nearby inn, meanwhile. A second shipment crossed the 30-foot-wide "dead strip" in which any illegal border crosser risks being shot without warning.

After a while, the empty bottles came back again—this time with the sentries carrying them over to the West.

They crept through the barbed wire with their guns and began unbosoming themselves to their host.

People's police food was terrible, they said. Then they had some more beer.

West Germany was not so bad, they added. More beer.

Matter of fact they would like to stay, the guards declared, after another round of beer.

Night had come—and they stood up and sang Deutschland Ueber Alles, the German national anthem.

Three relieving guards fired star shells into the dark sky and finally traced their comrades.

It took only a few words after contact and the East-West beer party was swollen to seven. But the noise and star shells had alarmed a West German border patrol, which came rushing to the scene. The six people's policemen stood up and declared in union that they were determined to stay.

After a long persuasive talk from the Western side, the six agreed to return to duty in the East. Nobody, it was agreed, would tell anything about the beer party.

The West German patrol feared that if one of the six changed his mind after he sobered up, he would claim he had been kidnaped while drunk and that there would be a new East-West incident.

Alas, there was a leak on the Eastern side despite the vows of secrecy. The Red bosses got word of the party. Two defectors from the same people's police unit said all six merry-makers were arrested by the Communist state security service. A large-scale probe into the incident is going on while the six are awaiting trial, the defectors said.

★ ★ ★

West German border authorities released the story after a three-day delay.

New Method for Polio Shots in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Health officials said a new "jet stream" device will be brought into action today in the battle against Detroit's polio epidemic, which has hit more than 700 in the area.

The health commissioner, Dr. Joseph G. Molner, said the jet stream machine will be employed at one of nine emergency vaccination centers in Detroit. It uses a stream of high pressure air to force the Salk vaccine through the skin, eliminating the use of expensive needles.

Dr. Molner said 62,000 persons were inoculated in the first four days of the emergency vaccination program. But he warned that the program might collapse because what he described as chiselers who refuse to pay the $1-a-shot fee and are using up the supply of vaccine.

Detroit has had 517 cases of polio, with 16 deaths so far this year, compared with 157 cases and 2 deaths in 1957.

Double-Talk Want Ad Stirs Public Interest

MADISON, Wis. (UPI) — A want ad offering a forbiseder with a built in hemisway" was recently run by the want ad manager of a Madison newspaper. He wanted to show that the ads are read.

No one offered his price of $200, but he got some interesting double-talk replies. One reader wanted to know if the "forbiseder" was a new model, or if it was a used one with the old style "framisan."

Another said the "forbiseder" was just what he needed for his "slotsching" work, but it would need a "gasporator attachment."

A third answer was to the effect that the "forbiseder" would come in handy for building his "three way gasometer power paranucleator."

Gunshots Injure Woman Aboard Fishing Junk

HONG KONG (AP) — The government said today a woman crew member of a Hong Kong fishing junk was injured when assailants aboard an unknown vessel pursued the junk inside Hong Kong Harbor and fired 12 rifle shots.

Local fisherman described the assailant as a Communist gunboat. They said the Reds are trying to frighten Hong Kong's 2,000 fisherman into joining mainland cooperatives.

Sobers Up in Cell

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — When the case of Arlin Esper Horsley was called in traffic court yesterday he happily sang out to the judge: "I'm here, Bub." Judge W. Marion Hendry promptly ordered Horsley held in jail until he sobered up.

Walkout in Third Day

Strike May Halt 310 Ships

NEW YORK (AP) — The strike of union deck officers against 20 American steamship firms entered its third day today, with more than 40 passenger liners and freighters tied up in ports from Boston to New Orleans.

Federal mediators had no luck in talks Thursday with representatives of the striking, 1,300-member Masters, Mates and Pilots Union and the employer group, the American Merchant Marine Institute.

★ ★ ★

The companies affected operate about 310 vessels. All the ships face a tieup when they come into East and Gulf Coast ports. Tankers and foreign flag ships are not affected. Neither are the ships of several American companies which already signed contracts with the union.

The United States Line laid off 1,734 crewmen of its 53,000-ton liner United States and the smaller America.

The dispute involves vacation, pension, welfare and fringe benefits. Wages are not an issue.

★ ★ ★

John M. Franklin, president of the U.S. Lines, contended the union's demands were prohibitive, adding: "We're determined to fight it through."

Franklin estimated the walkout eventually could idle 100,000 crewmen. If the strike is protracted, he said, "It will have repercussions on all types of industry which is dependent to a major extent on foreign trade."

It takes 200 pounds of grass to make one pound of beefsteak, according to the "Wisconsin Agriculturalist."

Symphony to Open Oct. 14 With Di Blasi on Podium

By LYDIA ROTHMAN

For the sixth year, Francesco Di Blasi will conduct the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra.

Conducting almost completely from memory, his brilliance and spontaneity have given audiences tremendous listening pleasure. Critics have said that at times he reaches real points of eloquence.

Because of his personal popularity, success and ability to lead his orchestra with such a knowing and sure hand, the Pontiac Symphony has become increasingly popular in this area.

MADE DEBUT AT 19

Di Blasi made his first debut at the age of 19. While studying with Pierre Monteux, he was guest conductor with the New York Little Symphony.

He attended Juilliard School of Music in New York City, where he studied with such eminent musicians as Vittorio Giannini and Fritz Mahler.

★ ★ ★

Currently, Di Blasi is conductor of the Detroit Little Symphony. He is a former member of the Detroit Symphony.

As musical director and conductor of the Michigan Opera Company, he was the first conductor to present grand opera in the new Henry and Edsel Ford Auditorium in Detroit.

He has made numerous guest appearances including the Philadelphia Orchestra and the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo.

In May 1956, he made several appearances with the famed St. Cecilia Orchestra of Rome, Italy.

★ ★ ★

He was appointed musical director of a new series of symphony concerts at Metropolitan Beach on Lake St. Clair in the summer of 1957.

TO OPEN OCT. 14

The Pontiac Symphony Orchestra will open its 1958-1959 season Oct. 14 with Mischa Mischakoff as guest violinist. On Dec. 2, Maria Roumell, soprano will be the featured artist.

Ruth Meckler, pianist, will appear at the Feb. 3 concert and the March 17 concert will be orchestral.

Cellist Thaddeus Markiewicz will close the season at the final concert April 21.

★ ★ ★

All concerts will be held at Pontiac Northern High School except the first one which will be held at Lincoln Junior High School.

Honor Volunteers Dr., Mrs. McGeen

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel McGeen of Lake Angelus road have been selected as September Volunteers of the Month by the Central Volunteer Bureau of the Pontiac Area United Fund. They were selected for their volunteer work and interest in the Camp Fire Girls.

Their children — they have five ranging in age from 4 to 15 — accounted for their initial interest in the Camp Fire and Boy Scout program.

BECAME A LEADER

Mrs. McGeen is a group leader and serves on the Camp program committee. She said she became interested in the Camp Fire program when her daughter, Sue's leader resigned in October 1956 and she offered to be the new leader. Her group now includes 14 girls who meet each week at the McGeen home.

★ ★ ★

Through his family's activities and his membership in the Civitan Club, sponsors of local Camp Fire Girls activities, Dr. McGeen became interested in the group.

He currently serves as financial chairman on the Camp Fire board of directors and is chairman of the Post Committee for the Clinton Valley Council Boy Scouts.

The McGeens have been Pontiac area residents for the past 10 years. Dr. McGeen was elected Pontiac Father of the Year in 1957 by the Downtown Merchants Association.

Their family hobbies include camping and bird watching. Both are members of the Audubon Society.

Can't Bar the Door to Infant

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My fiance has a cousin who has a one-year-old child. She and her husband have been invited to our wedding and reception. I understand that they are planning to take their child with them as they cannot get a baby sitter. I do not think an infant has any place at a wedding reception, and if they cannot get someone to look after the child they should stay home.

"My fiance thinks I'm being very unreasonable and that if they are willing to put up with the child, they should be allowed to take her. I would very much like your opinion on this."

Answer: I agree with you that a one-year-old child should not be taken to a wedding, but if your fiance's cousin really cannot find anyone with whom they can leave their child, you cannot bar them at the door, and it will be up to them to keep the child quiet and not annoy any of the other guests.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Please settle an argument! A friend of mine (whose family always do it) says that it is quite proper to give money to a bereaved family instead of flowers. The bereaved are not kin or very close friends but acquaintances of long standing or neighbors. I contend that this is in very bad taste and insulting to the family. I would like your opinion."

Answer: I absolutely agree with you. In fact it is difficult to imagine anything in worse taste.

"Dear Mrs. Post: A lawyer friend recently handled the estate of my father. His fee was considerably less than he would normally receive. I would like to express my appreciation in some way. Would it be proper for me to send him a gift, and if so, what would you suggest?"

Answer: No, don't send him a gift. You must, however, express real appreciation for what he did for you and thank him sincerely.

He showed slides and emphasized that the Mayas surpassed, so far as is known, all American tribes in architecture and stone carving.

Square Set Club to Start Dance Season Saturday

The Square Set Club will begin its 11th season of square dancing Saturday at the new Herrington School. The group is under auspices of the Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation.

Officers of the club are Russell Williams, president; Max Wilson, vice president; Mrs. Thomas Callahan, secretary and Mrs. Fred Fredrickson, treasurer.

On the board of governors are Arthur Yarger, Roy Church, Dennis Cheyne, Mrs. Russell Lasho and Mrs. James Thompson.

Committee chairmen are Peter Messeman, membership; Mr. Yarger, program; Mrs. Sam Helander, refreshment; Mrs. Yarger, telephone; Mrs. Lester Bryson, greeter; Mrs. Wayne Reaves and Mrs. Willard Fulkerson, decorations, and Mrs. Sidney Olson, publicity.

Windblown Kisses Intrigue Mother of 5

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: Maybe you won't think this is much of a problem, but it has kind of got me down and I want some advice to find out whether I am doing right or not. First, I want you to know I am a happily married woman and the mother of five children. We live near the railroad tracks, and when I am out in the yard hanging clothes this train goes by and the engineer always waves to me and blows me kisses.

ABBY

"I have gotten to look for him at a certain time and I go out there to wave back and blow kisses to him. It tickles me but I sometimes feel guilty. Do you think it is dangerous and he might take it wrong and should I stop it?

BLOWING KISSES

"DEAR BLOWING: He is probably just a friendly engineer who is only having a little fun. Just to set the record straight, however—get the five kids out in the yard (never mind the husband) and all of you wave to the engineer and blow him kisses.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My girl friend has four kids and she still takes off her wedding ring when she goes into a bar and tries to pass herself off as a single girl. Things are tough enough for us single girls without having to put up with competition from the married ones. Please print this for all the married barflies who use the same trick. Thanks a lot."

SINGLE

DEAR SINGLE: If a married woman has no respect for her marriage, a little thing like a wedding ring won't stop her circulation.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: My problem is different from most that I see in your column. How do you get rid of a guy? This one fellow has been following me around since last December and I can't shake him. He is shorter than me and is very ugly. He keeps asking me what he said to make me mad. If he really did say something, I wouldn't mind, but he hasn't. He's making a pest of himself, calling me up and asking all the kids what he did to make me mad. How can I get the message to him that I can't stand him without hurting his feelings?"

DOUBLE DISGUSTED

DEAR DOUBLE: There is NO way a girl can tell a boy she "can't stand him" without hurting his feelings. Be kind to him, and always pleasant, but at the opportune time tell him, privately, that you "like him as a friend" but nothing more.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: You kill me! The sweetest three words in the English language are not "I love you" . . . but "Enclosed find check." I traded the "I love you" years ago because I found out talk was cheap and the words were phony. The alimony check is good and brings me more comfort."

HAPPIER NOW

"DEAR ABBY: I keep getting articles delivered through the mail that I do not want and did not order. It is a nuisance to have to pack them up and take them to the post office to be mailed back. If I didn't order them, how come they are addressed to me and sent to my house and what can I do about it?

PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: If you didn't order the articles you are under NO obligation to acknowledge them, pay for them or return them. Notify the sender by postcard that you will charge them "storage" if they don't arrange to have the articles picked up. You'll soon be unmolested.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "HEAD OF THE HOUSE": What you say GOES, all right—into one ear and out the other. Try a little tenderness.

Place Hemlines Where They Look Best, Designer Says

Maxwell Fashions Hark to Medieval Days

By JUDITH L. CLEMENCE
Women's Editor, Pontiac Press

One designer who can always be depended upon to come up with a practical yet beautiful classic collection is Vera Maxwell, winner of a special Coty award and a favorite of fashion critics everywhere.

Vera Maxwell

She brought her modern-medieval collection of fall fashions to Kingsley Inn Wednesday. From out of the pages of Chaucer comes an elegant collection of dresses, coats and suits inspired by that colorful and chivalrous era.

SECRET WEAPON

Modern, yet medieval in its origin, was a double-breasted bulky tweed coat in dark brown with a long self-fabric stole which has its own built-in secret weapon (a rock weighted end). This was a device used by the wary medieval traveler against would-be assassins. Miss Maxwell adds that it could be used as protection today!

★ ★ ★

Enthusiastic about fabrics, the designer favors tweeds combined with silks, wool jersey or brocades. They range from handspun, handwoven tweed from Ireland and Scotland, to soft, supple dress weights.

★ ★ ★

Predominating colors are heathery tones of brown ranging from honey to deep chocolate. Strong blues, purples, laurel and forest greens are seen throughout the collection. Clear reds were shown with printed woolens and silks as well as silk brocades.

★ ★ ★

District plaids were used for the greatcoats as well as in dresses and suits. Gun club checks are her favorites, too.

NO RULE ON HEMLINE

Miss Maxwell does not conform to a set rule for skirt lengths. Some of the dresses shown were just below the model's knees and others, particularly the walking skirts, were mid-calf. "Hemlines are simply placed where they look best," the designer said.

★ ★ ★

"Sophisticated clothes should be a natural, normal length," claims Miss Maxwell, but she cautioned fashion-conscious women saying.

"The well dressed woman uses fashion, she does not let it use her." Some of her bulky tweeds shown with sturdy walking boots, barely covered the knee, proving the flexibility of the hemline.

★ ★ ★

Out of "Sherwood Forest" came the pellison, a simple sleeveless coat with deep armholes in dyed black lapin. This coat, called "Prince John," is worn over simply cut wool dresses.

Among the traditional clothes is the chesterfield coat shown in tweeds as well as broadcloth. Old as yesterday, new as tomorrow, the coat has a high waist, double breasted closing and slim shoulders, falling gently over the hips into a beautifully restrained flare.

Coachman coats are slim, fitted and flare out gently at the bottom.

One coat has a monk's collar in raccoon with a gently flaring hem, matching skirt and a jersey wrap blouse. (Miss Maxwell designs several wrap blouses which she teams with skirts for daytime and evening wear.)

This is one of Vera Maxwell's traditional tweed suits. Of heathery brown cheviot tweed, the semi-fitted jacket has notched collar and is fastened with Tyrolean buttons.

Here is Miss Maxwell's version of the walking suit of green and black Scotch tweed. The seven-eighths length coat tops a slim skirt. The neckline is framed with a small turn-back velvet collar. For the Empire look, patch pockets are placed high at the bustline.

Most families spend 25 to 30 cents of each food dollar for meat, point out food specialists.

53 Attend Study Club Luncheon

The annual fall luncheon of the Parliamentary Study Club was held Wednesday at Grace Lutheran Church with 53 members and guests present.

Exercises Help Reduce Abdomen

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Q. "About a year ago I acquired a protruding abdomen. I have taken lots of exercises in order to reduce it. I have lost 1½ inches from my waistline but the lower half of my abdomen is just as rounded as before. Do you have any exercises that would do the job? I have to be careful of my back because a year ago I tore the muscle that is along my spine while playing tennis."

A. Do not take the exercises below without first getting your doctor's opinion. However, since many women have the same figure difficulty, I will print two exercises today.

1. Lie on the floor on your back, legs straight and arms resting on the floor. Raise the left leg up (heel only six inches from the floor and knees stiff). As you lower the left leg, raise the right. Continue. In other words, one leg moves up as the other moves down.

After beginning this exercise, do not touch the heels to the floor or raise them more than six inches from the floor. This is splendid for the lower abdomen.

2. Stand iwth your back toward the wall, arms stretched overhead, elbows straight and the backs of the hands touching the wall. Raise your right leg and lower your right arm. Touch fingertips to leg. Return leg and arm to place. This is important—at this point, stretch. Do the same thing with the left arm and leg and continue alternating right and left.

Q. "I am 5 feet 5 inches tall. How much should I weight? I am 30 years old, My hips and legs are far too large."

A. If you have a medium frame, you should weigh about 136 pounds. If you are very much overweight, you will have to count calories. If you are not overweight, you can decrease your measurements by special exercise.

Q. "Please tell me what is wrong with my measurements. I am 48 years old, weigh 148 pounds, and am 5 feet 7½ inches tall. My bust measures 38 inches, waist 32, hips 41."

* * *

A. You are just about the right weight if you have a medium frame. If you have very small bones, you are around 15 pounds overweight. You should concentrate on waist-slimming exercises since this is the measurement most out of line. Also, add a couple of hip-slimming exercises.

Q. "I am 20 years old and my bustline is disgusting. Please tell me if bust creams are corrective or if they are harmful."

A. I do not think you should use anything of the sort without first checking with your doctor.

MOLASSES CRINKLES
By Carmen Sue Miller

¾ cup sof. shortening
1 cup brown sugar
1 egg
¼ cup molasses
2¼ cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons soda
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon allspice
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon ginger

Mix shortening, sugar, egg and molasses together thoroughly. Sift and stir in dry ingredients. Chill well.

Make into balls the size of walnuts and dip tops in granulated sugar. Place sugar side up three inches apart on greased baking sheet.

Sprinkle with 2-3 drops of water. This will produce a crackled surface when the cookies are set, but not hard. It takes 8-10 minutes in a 375-degree oven. Makes 4 dozen cookies.

Pontiac Northern to Honor Most Outstanding Students

By BARBARA SHAVER

This week the "Northern Star" shined upon many Northern seniors. All of them, whether they knew it or not, were being watched. You see, "The Polaris" eye was on the lookout for a senior of the month. The first month of school a senior will be chosen, then a junior the next month, and finally a sophomore. This same procedure will be used throughout the rest of the year.

The lucky Huskie is selected by homeroom teacher and students of each homeroom and recommended to the journalism room for an interview. Next, each student chosen, must write a small essay on the importance of a well-rounded education.

★ ★ ★

Both the scholastic and extra-curricular activities of the student are considered. Each student running is given a number so his identity will remain unknown to the judges who read each essay, and choose by number the best from those submitted.

The judges consist of both students and faculty representatives. Since there were many students deserving of an honor such as senior of the month, it was difficult to give the title to only one.

The seniors chosen this month were Jim Lyons, Dick Eley, Dave Strong, Judy Ross, Joan Lamson, and Pat Christian. Named as winner was Pat Christian from homeroom B-11.

★ ★ ★

Choosing a senior of the month wasn't the only exciting thing this week because students heard other good news at the first senior meeting. Northern has gotten a company to make class rings. This company also agreed to change the rings of students who have already gotten theirs from Central, for a Northern ring free of charge. A design hasn't been accepted yet.

"The Polaris" received many letters of congratulations after publishing the first school paper. Those letters seemed to encourage the staff to strive for a better and more complete newspaper.

William Kath and Jim Lyons are receiving many congratulations from their classmates who are very proud of them. They were notified that in nationwide competition of scholarship tests, they ranked above 479,000 other students who also took the same test. This means they will be taking another examination December 6 for the semi-finals.

★ ★ ★

Sherri Everett, Cynthia Sach, and Sharon Nichols, varsity squad cheerleaders assisted in choosing new cheerleaders. Joan Humphrey, is the newest member of Northern's varsity squad. The girls who made Junior Varsity are Lorraine De Berger, Carol Campbell, Lynn Thompson, Carol Milhay, and Ruth Benner.

The Student Union chose officers this week. Thy are: Bill Kath, business manager; Judy Thiese, assistant; Priscilla Jones, treasurer. Careen McClements is the typist. The staff collectors are La-Donna Coe, Joyce DeWeese, Cora Duke, Phyllis Harvey, Mary Mac Dermett, Karen McKinney, Carolyn Mills, Sharron Monroe, Shirley Parent, Jane Rathbun, Dave Strong and Nicky Trietsch.

Editors of the yearbook are Judy Thiese and Joan Humphrey. This week they are working on a name for the yearbook.

Waterford High Slates Homecoming Activities

Waterford's fourth annual homecoming will be October 10 and 11. Next Friday marks the first night of festivities which will feature a pep assembly, a bonfire, the game against Farmington, and an after-game dance.

★ ★ ★

The senior court will consist of the four remaining people while Kathy Kantarian and Bill Bryce will represent the junior class. Sophomore members of the court will be Nancy Hiller and Bob Newman.

Larry Ettinger from Waterford has been named a semifinalist in the Merit Scholarship competition. Larry, a senior, will receive another examination on December 6, which will determine whether he competes in the finals of the contest.

Members of the debate squad of Waterford High will attend an invitational debate tournament at Wayne University tomorrow to officially begin the 1958-59 debating season.

★ ★ ★

After listening to an inter-collegiate debate on the topic, "Resolved: That the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of education," the four squads will participate in two rounds of inter-high school debates.

Planning on attending are John Teeuwissen, Bob Cooper, Jean Rexford, Carol Saul, Dave Wilson, Joni Whittimore, Peggy Ballard, and Aarlene Butler.

★ ★ ★

Senior girls are eligible to take the Betty Crocker Scholarship test which will be given at the school on December 2. Applications must be received befor October 31, 1958.

Disc Data and Chatter

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

Ragtime is one type of music which has been kicked around and largely degraded to the point where most people today don't even know what "true" ragtime really is.

A recent release, "Old Rags" (Audiophile AP-49) by John W. "Knocky" Parker is a real rarity, and well worth buying, since it is one of the best LPs of ragtime in its finest form ever to be recorded.

★ ★ ★

The album is not only well recorded technically, but features none of the usual gimmicks such as thumb tacks on the hammers for a "tinny" effect which is so often advertised as an "authentic" sound.

Parker doesn't rip into his material like a 20-fingered wild man. His material is about as authentic as you can get.

★ ★ ★

On the other side of the ledger is "Show Me The Way To Go Home" (Columbia CL-1149) by Chauncey Rittenhouse and his Saloon Salon Four. A ghastly display of what commercial moguls call ragtime, with many gimmicks and little ragtime.

Columbia has two other timely LPs out this month which are selling well. Try "Touchdown" (CL-1182) by Percy Faith's Chorus and Orchestra (college songs), or "Break It Up" (CL-1206) a wild little foray by Louis Prima and wife, Keely Smith.

FIVE ACRES: For only the second time this year we've got a grand slam. "It's All In The Game" by Tommy Edwards has taken all first place votes from area record shops.

Almost as spectacular is the phenomenal rise of "Topsy" by famed jazz drummer Cozy Cole to second spot. It looks like a probable top seller by next week.

In third is one that's been around for a long time, "Bird Dog" by The Everly Brothers. Fourth place goes to "You Cheated" by The Shields, and very appropriately in fifth and last place is Earl Grant's disc — "The End."

500 Fight Brush Fire Periling Community

MONROVIA, Calif. (AP) — Five hundred fire fighters battled today to control a fire that has raced through 320 acres of tinder-dry brushland on the outskirts of this suburban foothill community.

Firemen said at least seven homes have been destroyed by the blaze blamed on three children playing with matches.

★ ★ ★

Firemen massed most of their pumper trucks and bulldozers in an attempt to turn back the flames from several estates in the exclusive Bradbury area.

A receptionist at a sanitarium told firemen she saw three children start the fire Thursday afternoon.

★ ★ ★

"They were playing with matches," said Mrs. Emma Seely. "One of them dropped a burning twig."

Two sanitariums were evacuated as the flames crept down the scrubby foothills toward Monrovia, 10 miles northeast of Los Angeles.

Three Navy torpedo planes and a PBY patrol plane of World War II vintage bombed the flames with a borate solution.

'NO Hunting' in Waterford

New Law Prohibits Using Firearms Within Township Limits

The Waterford Township Police Department has been flooded with calls regarding enforcement of a new law prohibiting hunting with firearms in the township, according to Lieutenant William Stokes.

The inquiries stem from a law passed by the Legislature, after the 1958-59 Michigan State Hunting Manual had gone to press, and regulations of Waterford Township's restrictions missed being printed.

Approved by voters in the August primary election, the new law states that there shall be no hunting in the township with any type of firearm at any time, except on state-owned land.

Even then, a hunter must have a written form from the Conservation Department to hunt on state property, in season.

★ ★ ★

A land owner may not hunt on his own property with any type of firearm, and he is subject to a fine if he gives his permission to anyone else to hunt on private property.

Because of a law passed by the State Legislature last year, introduced by Waterford Township's state representative, Lloyd Anderson, it was possible for the proposition to be placed on an election ballot for resident's approval. The law passed by a majority of three to one in favor of "no township hunting."

★ ★ ★

With the opening of the duck season this week, one of the biggest questions asked policemen is whether hunting on the township's lakes and rivers is prohibited, as well as field hunting.

Stokes explained that "no hunting, means no hunting anywhere within the township boundaries—with any type of gun."

Ike Jolts Hometown by Planning to Visit

ABILENE, Kan. (AP) — President Eisenhower's announcement that he planned to visit Abilene Oct. 17 caught his home town with its welcome mat down — but not for long.

There had been no advance word of the visit. The Chamber of Commerce called a meeting for today to see what arrangements can be made in order to properly entertain the President.

Several floors of the Sunflower Hotel will be reserved for Mr. and Mrs. Eisenhower, their staff and newspapermen.

EAGER LINEUP — An overflow crowd of several hundred women jammed the first of a series of breakfast meetings held at Tel-Huron Shopping Center on Thursday. The program entitled "Wear and Care of Clothing" was transferred to Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan to accommodate the large turnout. This meeting was sponsored by the Tel-Huron Merchants Association, assisted by Louella Nault of the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service and representatives of the dry cleaning industry.

Revolutionaries Ride

New Jersey Reliving Historic Tea Rebellion

GREENWICH, N. J. (UPI) — A group of shouting young men dressed as Indians will thunder on horseback tomorrow night to the market place of this peaceful little community and burn crates of British tea.

Their cries will be "No taxation without representation," but their mood will be more historical than rebellious. The men will be re-enacting New Jersey's own historic version of the Boston Tea Party.

The site of New Jersey's rebellious action was the village of Greenwich in Cumberland County, on the banks of the Delaware River.

The population is now 500, and the elm-shaded streets look much the same as in colonial days. Village historians are still fond of referring to the night of the tea burning in Market Lane here on Dec. 22, 1774.

★ ★ ★

The Cumberland County Historical Society, the County Board of Freeholders and the Township of Greenwich are holding a two-day celebration — starting today — to reenact and remember.

The original New Jersey patriots swooped down on tea that had been intended for the city of Philadelphia. The skipper of the English brig Greyhound, sailing up Delaware Bay in December, 1774 learned of resentful patriotic feelings in Philadelphia and dreaded what might happen.

★ ★ ★

The year before, not only had tea been unceremoniously dumped in Boston, but a ship and its cargo were burned at Annapolis, Md.

The captain decided to play it safe. He docked secretly at Greenwich, 40 miles from Philadelphia, and later sailed away leaving the tea behind in a Loyalist resident's cellar.

A group of rebellious young men learned of the storage, however, and quietly drew up plans for sabotage at Pottor's Tavern in Bridgeton.

★ ★ ★

On Dec. 22, they met by moonlight between Shiloh and Roadstown, feathers in their hair and warpaint on their faces, and invaded the Greenwich storage house.

★ ★ ★

Triumphantly, with townsfolk gaping, they carried the cargo to the market square and set fire to the boxes.

The aftermath was a mixture of dismay and jubilation. Conservative Bridgeton merchants denounced the recklessness and demanded prosecution, but an anti-British sheriff was elected just in time, and the threat of reprisals faded.

Honors went to many of the men who burned the tea. Dr. Jonothan Elmer became the first U. S. senator from New Jersey. Joseph Bloomfield and Richard Howell were early governors of the state.

The bold action itself earned tribute 50 years ago, when New Jersey appropriated funds for a granite monument commemorating the uprising. It stands in a neat Greenwich park, and bears the names of 23 raiders. The celebration today and tomorrow technically commemorates the 50th anniversary of that monument's unveiling in 1908.

Why 'Keystone State'?

Since it was the center of the 13 original colonies, early inhabitants of Pennsylvania proclaimed that their state held together the great arch of the United States, extending from Georgia to Maine, hence that states' nickname of "Keystone State."

Senior Students Strike High School in Scranton

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — The senior class struck nearby Dixon City High School Thursday, chiefly over some photographs—some photographs of Lenn's Restaurant, the student hangout.

They want the photographs printed in their annual yearbook. The faculty adviser says no. They also want to vote on whom the yearbook should be dedicated to. That's against school policy. The faculty adviser decides.

★ ★ ★

That yearbook took up most of the petition handed to Principal Edward Munley after 65 of the 72 seniors refused to attend afternoon classes.

The petition listed other demands—a new class adviser, a new yearbook adviser, an activity night once a week in the school gym, a little less harassment from the School Board.

It quoted a trustee as calling the seniors a "bunch of spoiled brats" and threatening to cancel the class play and the annual trip to Washington.

The seniors told Munley they won't return to school until all the demands are met. But the yearbook pictures, Munley said, started the unrest.

The pictures show students gathered at Lenn's, and the faculty adviser, Miss Edith Oakey, decided they don't belong in the yearbook. The restaurant, she said, isn't connected with school activities.

The seniors refer to Lenn's as "the only recreation center Dixon has to offer."

★ ★ ★

"Why can't we have the privilege of putting in the Dixonian the things we ourselves want," their petition said. "We want our yearbook run the way it should be run."

The parents haven't commented. They'll have their say, with their offspring present, at a hastily called Parent-Teachers Assn., meeting tonight.

State's Building Program Lags

Lack of Planning Called Reason for Delay of New Construction

LANSING (AP) — A backlog of necessary new state building construction is developing similar to those caused by the depression and World War II, the State Department of Administration said.

James W. Miller, state controller, made the statement in his semi-annual report to the governor and the legislature on the status of major state capital outlay projects.

★ ★ ★

The backlog, Miller said, is caused by a virtual moratorium on new projects imposed by the legislature durin gthe past two years.

"There is no continuing program of planning," Miller said. "Much, if not most of the preliminary thinking applied to the state's capital needs will have to be revised or modified, if for no other reason to keep up with technological advances in the construction field."

★ ★ ★

The lack of a continued planning program, he said, will mean that the backlog in building will be extended for at least another two years.

Presently on the planning boards, Miller said, are 274 major capital outlay projects—those costing more than $20,000—that would cost around 226 million dollars when completed.

★ ★ ★

But he said that total appropriations have been supplied for only 195 of these projects, whose estimated total cost is 101 million dollars.

There is a wide variance, he said, in how much money has been appropriated for the remainder of the projects.

Alaska Expands Electoral Vote

Statehood Status Will Add Three Positions to Panel of Selectors

WASHINGTON (AP) — With Alaska becoming the 49th state, it's going to take more electoral votes to pick the next president.

★ ★ ★

When Alaska holds its first election Nov. 25 to choose two senators and one representative it will increase total Senate membership to 98 and House membership to 436 in the 86th Congress convening next January.

The Electoral College for the 1960 presidential election will be raised by three votes to 534—one for each senator and House member. This compares with the 531 total in effect since the 1912 election.

The winning presidential candidate in 1960 will have to poll at least 268 electoral votes, a majority of 534, instead of 266 as before.

Unless Hawaii meanwhile is made the 50th state, the Electoral College vote would be reduced by one—to 533—for the 1964 election. This is because the addition of a House member for Alaska only temporarily raises the total House membership to 436. After the 1960 reapportionment, the over-all total is due to drop back to the present legal 435. The Senate total will not drop back.

Bodies of 27 Miners Found After Blast

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UPI) —The bodies of 27 coal miners were recovered yesterday and 21 other men were missing and feared dead in a Yugoslav coal mine disaster in Serbia.

The Serbian executive council said 140 of the 188 miners who were underground when an explosion set fire to the Podvis mine near Zajecar Wednesday had been rescued. They suffered only slight injuries.

A spokesman for the mine said the fate of the 21 men still trapped in poisonous subterranean gases behind or under tons of fallen rock was uncertain.

Lew's 'Ritual' Forces Writers to 'Cool Heels'

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — The Braves' Lew Burdette kept a corps of sports writers, radio and television personnel waiting for five minutes Thursday while he went through "the ritual."

"The ritual" consists of obtaining cans of cold beer from one end of the Braves' clubhouse, carting them down to a table in the middle, opening them and passing them out to his fellow pitchers.

And not a question would be answered until "the ritual" was completed.

"I got something to do before I can say anything," he told the newsmen swarming about him like bees around a jar of maple syrup.

Up and down the clubhouse he went with the beer while the corps trooped in his wake.

"This is the law," he said. "I've got to finish this before I talk." And he did.

Defeat Stampeders in Calgary Before 7,139 Fans to End Road Trip

CALGARY, Alta. (UPI) — The Detroit Red Wings defeated the Calgary Stampeders of the Western Hockey League, 7-1, last night in an exhibition game played before a standing-room turnout of 7,139.

The Wings, ending their road trip through the Dakotas and Western Canada, were scheduled to fly back to Detroit for practice at Olympia Saturday morning.

Detroit players who will compete in the all-star hockey game in Montreal Saturday night did not make the return trip to the Motor City.

Detroit's scoring was split among seven players. The Wings, held scoreless in the first period, counted one goal in the second and six in the third period. Calgary's lone marker came in the third period.

THE BIG "M" — The man Michigan State must stop tomorrow in University of Michigan's attack is fullback John Herrnstein, big 215 pounder who is the Wolverines' top ground gainer.

Saturday's TV Game

Television viewers get a bit of variety tomorrow when Washington State's ace passer Bob Newman goes against California's Joe Kapp a split-T quarterback who is rated as a better runner than passer. The game is scheduled for 3:45 p. m. EST over NBC-TV, or as soon as the World Series is finished, if the baseball game extends beyond 4 p. m. EST.

'Not Desperate,' Claims Stengel After 13-5 Rout

Braves Chase Turley With Big Seven-Run First Inning

NEW YORK (UPI) — The once proud and mighty New York Yankees came back today, wondering what had hit them in the World Series.

They were two games down to the Milwaukee Braves in the darkest hours they have known in their tenure as baseball's greatest dynasty. They have been down that far before — but never under such humiliating circumstances.

Manager Casey Stengel, who has become synonomous with success since he took over the helm of the Yankees — winning nine pennants in 10 years and six world series in eight tries — had an off day to ponder about things today.

"We ain't hitting, we ain't pitching, we ain't playing ball," he mused.

"But let me tell you something else, we ain't desperate."

He recalled that his club lost the first two games to the then Brooklyn Dodgers in 1956 but went on to win the series.

"We still got some pitchers who ought to get them out," he added, declaring that Don Larsen, the big right-hander who pitched the first perfect game in series history against those Dodgers in 1956, would try to untrack his Yankees when the series resumes in Yankee Stadium on Saturday — today being set aside for travel.

For tomorrow's third game, the Yankees are 7-5 favorites with Larsen pitching. However, the Braves are 11-5 favorites now for the series and 4½ to 1 picks to sweep the first four games.

★ ★ ★

Manager Fred Haney, feeling chipper with his 2-0 lead, wouldn't say who he was going to start in the third game.

"We play 'em one at a time," he added, something he has been saying ever since he started managing in the Major Leagues.

Haney wouldn't even admit he had the Yankees on the run, but Stengel knew it. The 13-5 shellacking the Yankees took in the second game before a cheering crowd of 46,367 in Milwaukee County Stadium yesterday was the Yankees' worst defeat in 37 years.

★ ★ ★

The Yankees had gone after their ace-tormenter, Lew Burdette, with a run in the first inning, thanks to an error by third baseman Eddie Mathews, and they ended a string of 24 1/3 scoreless innings which the right-handed sinker ball expert of the Braves had fired at them.

But that's as far as the Yankees got. Billy Bruton, who had beaten them in the first game Wednesday with a 10th inning single, greeted bullet Bob Turley, the Yankees' 21-game winner, with a home run — and with that the Braves were off and running.

They went on to pound Turley and four other Yankee pitchers for 15 hits — with Burdette himself clipping him for a three-run homer which climaxed a seven-run first inning — the most runs any team ever has scored in a World Series first inning.

★ ★ ★

Stengel ordered his Yankees — who flew in from Milwaukee last night as did the Braves — to work out at 11:30 a.m. at spacious Yankee Stadium. The Braves were scheduled to follow at 1 p.m.

The third, fourth and fifth games — should a fifth be necessary — are scheduled for the stadium.

QUICK FINISH — Manager Casey Stengel (37), catcher Yogi Berra and pitcher Bob Turley have their own version of the summit conference on the mound in Milwaukee's County Stadium yesterday. Turley was knocked out of the box in the first inning as the Braves won a 13-5 decision in the second game of the World Series.

Spartans Made Favorites for Annual Clash

Michigan's Upset Hope Rests With Herrnstein and Defensive Line

EAST LANSING (UPI) — You can throw away the form sheets. It's time for Michigan's No. 1 sports event, the annual "anything goes" battle between Michigan and Michigan State and while the Broadway bettors are favoring MSU, a reverse wouldn't be too surprising.

Michigan showed a sharp offensive last week built around John Herrnstein — and it's not too difficult to build around a healthy Herrnstein, but a spotty defense. Michigan State still showed signs of "fumbleitis" — a disease that's hit MSU at particularly inopportune moments the past few years.

This traditional battle, in its 51st renewal before a 76,000 sell-out in Spartan Stadium and an expected 50,000 watching from five Michigan cities and Toledo, Ohio, via closed circuit TV, holds equal importance for Bennie Oosterbaan's Wolverines and Duffy Daugherty's Spartans.

★ ★ ★

MSU has dreams of winning its first outright Big Ten title and returning to the Rose Bowl. But since the Spartans play only six Conference games and Ohio State and Wisconsin are both strong contenders, the Spartans must win them all to take the Conference title. And even then, OSU could take it since the Buckeyes play seven Big Ten games.

A crushing defeat could knock the pins from under Michigan for the rest of the season in the Wolverines' "rebuilding" year. A victory might supply the impetus to challenge for the Conference crown.

Michigan State has the edge in experience and depth. The Spartans have four linemen back who were starters last year and only center Jim Chastain, a 214-pound junior, didn't see much action in 1957.

The key to stopping the Wolverines, Spartans believe and Southern California coach Don Slark would be quick to second, is halting Herrnstein.

"If you don't stop him, you don't stop Michigan," scout Burt Smith warned the Spartans all week after watching Herrnstein ramble for 144 yards against the Trojans.

But the Wolverines also have a capable passing attack with Bob Ptacek, Brad Myers and Stan Noskin the leading passers and talented receivers in halfback Darrel Harper and ends Gary Prahst, Walt Johnson and John Halstead. And, the Wolverines may try to exploit the sector Spartan quarterback Mike Panitch, 5-feet, 7-inches, will be working.

Offensively, talent-wealthy MSU hasn't had much to worry about in the past decade with only one losing year. Oosterbaan had the Wolverines concentrate most of the week on defense to try and slow down the Spartan attack.

He said the secret defense pattern is flexible enough to make last-minute corrections.

MSU's gridders held a light practice yesterday and planned another brief session for today.

The Wolverines also were to hold light drills today, after going through the last heavy drill yesterday.

Grid Coverage Complete

A big football weekend is on tap for high school, college and pro grid fans, and the complete roundup and results will be found in THE PRESS.

Tonight's prep activities will be staffed by sports editor Bruno L. Kearns, and staff writers Bill Cornwell and Chuck Abair.

Saturday, Cornwell and Abair will be in East Lansing and will present their feature highlights Monday of the Michigan-Michigan State battle.

Sunday, Kearns will be in Green Bay with the Detroit Lions and Guy Moats will be handling Sunday's local parochial contests.

PITCHES AND HITS — Lew Burdette, Braves pitcher, not only won the game with his hurling but he also hit his first homer in County Stadium in Milwaukee and it couldn't have been at a better time. He is greeted by Johnny Logan (23) and Billy Bruton (38).

He Laughs Off Secret Weapon Idea

'I Pitched Same Way as Last Year' — Lew

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — "I pitched the same way against them as last year. Why should I change?"

The speaker was the Milwaukee Braves' Lew Burdette and he was referring, of course, to his continued World Series mastery over the New York Yankees.

In the parlance of the West Virginia mining country where Burdette comes from, he whupped 'em for fair yesterday for the fourth consecutive time as Milwaukee won 13-5.

Only Lefty Gomes ever beat the same team four straight in World Series competition. He did it for the Yankees against the Giants in 1936-37, and needed help from Johnny Murphy the fourth time.

Burdette laughs off suggestions that perhaps he has been using a secret weapon on the Yankees.

"I honestly don't know why I can beat them, or how for that matter," he said. "There's no reason that I know of."

He might have embellished his statement by pointing out that the Yankees just don't seem to be able to cope with his assortment of breaking pitches—screwballs, sinkers and sliders — especially when he keeps them low.

The 31-year-old right-hander, who makes more moves on the rubber than a mouse in a maze, also might have mentioned his stiletto-sharp control. He issued only one base on balls, an intentional one to Mickey Mantle in the first inning.

But, instead of these things he preferred to dwell on the three-run homer he hit in the Braves' seven-run first inning, the Yankees' ninth-inning uprising and "the room."

Asked what kind of a pitch he hit the homer off, the ever-playful Burdette replied, "It was a long ball."

"Shucks," he added, "anybody can hit a ball out of the park. I proved that."

Hanes, Fender Take Golf Crown

Jim Hanes and Red Fender, representing the Klingler League, joined forces to win this year's annual Tournament of Champions of the Pontiac Motor Division at Morey's Golf and Country Club.

Hanes and Fender won top honors for the Klingler League in the 18-hole medal play tourney with a team net score of 155. Hanes substituted for Ed Wasik, who was unable to compete.

Viking Harriers Win by 'Perfect' Score

Second "perfect" cross-country score of the season for Walled Lake High yesterday afternoon produced the 4th straight dual victory for Don Smith's club. Walled Lake defeated Farmington High 15-50 over the tough Farmington course.

Ray Taulbee's 11:27 led the seven top WL runners, who were, in order, Jack Hobbs, George Beeman, Chet Valentine, John Paget, Mel Stokus and Mike Cosgrove. Farmington's first runner in was Mazur, with Bob Smith (WL) and Staudt (F) 9th and 10th. Only 26 seconds separated the 1st seven Walled Lake runners.

Walled Lake entertains Hamtramck next Tuesday.

PCH, Ferndale Collide Tonight

Chiefs Protect Their 2-0 Mark in Dales' Camp

Veteran Ferndale Coach Hopes to Make Pontiac His 99th Grid Victim

By BILL CORNWELL

A Ferndale High football squad which lacked consistency in its only setback this season tries to put the pieces together this evening for a united effort against invading Pontiac Central.

Making a blot on Pontiac's 2-0 record will be the target of coach Ted Meister's Railsplitters when the two schools square off at 8 p. m. on the Ferndale gridiron.

After breezing to a 27-6 victory over Berkley in their 1958 season opener, the Dales sputtered like a worn-out jalopy against Southfield last Friday and dropped a 22-7 decision.

Inconsistency keynoted their performance in the struggle with the Bluejays. They had flashes of brilliance, but couldn't get together often enough to be effective.

★ ★ ★

"We tried to do everything the hard way," said Meister, "and it just didn't work against a team of Southfield's caliber."

"With a good break or two here and there, we might have done better," Meister claimed, "but we weren't steady enough to get the breaks and beat a solid outfit like the Jays."

If the Dales can concentrate all the good pieces of their play into one consistently sound effort, the Chiefs are due for trouble.

Meister is the dean of Oakland County prep grid coaches and he needs two more victories to hit the century mark. He would dearly love to make PCH his 99th victim.

★ ★ ★

The Chiefs were thoroughly scouted by Meister and his staff during their 26-0 conquest of Waterford and 40-13 rout of Wyandotte and the veteran Ferndale mentor has nothing but respect for Jesse MacLeay's warriors.

"Pontiac has the strongest Class A club I've seen this year to date," Meister said, "and we've got to play our best ball game to win."

Leading the Ferndale gridders tonight will be quarterback Tom Morey, a dash artist on the track team who directs their wing-T offense and runs and passes with equal skill.

Other talented performers for the Dales are halfback Luther Graham, a 160-pound speedster and constant breakaway threat, and fullback Jim Mitchell, another speed merchant who gives them power up the middle.

Returning regulars in the line are ends Bill Legault and Mike Crane, guards Pete Facione and Stuart King, tackle Dave Willans, center Dennis Gouine and Gerson Fox, who replaces Legault at end on defense.

Wins 19th by KO

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mauro Vazquez, a handsome, hammer-fisted featherweight from Mexico, scored his 15th knockout and 19th straight victory when he put Jimmy Moser away in the sixth round at Olympia Auditorium last night. Vazquez weighed 130½, Moser 131½.

Prep Front

By BILL CORNWELL

Have you ever heard of Sioux Falls College? A couple of Waterford Township boys did and as a result, they're reaping some football glory they might not have gained otherwise.

Where is Sioux Falls College? It's a small out-of-the-way school in Sioux Malls, South Dakota, and until Norman Probert and Al Nestor put in an appearance, winning on the gridiron was something of a novelty.

It may be purely coincidental, of course, but when Nestor showed up on the campus last fall and Probert followed him there this year, the tiny institution's football fortunes began to improve.

Both lads are Waterford High School graduates in the class of 1956 and both gained All-Oakland County grid recognition at the close of the 1955 prep season.

Nestor played tackle for the Skippers and Probert lugged the leather at fullback. Each youth is still operating at his old position and each one is playing a whale of a lot of football for Sioux Falls.

The two ex-Skippers have worked their way into the starting lineup at Sioux Falls. Probert made the grade as a freshman while Nestor is now in his sophomore year.

Although they were graduates of the same class at Waterford, Al got a year's jump on Probert in college by going directly to school while Norm was taking time out getting married and earning a living.

Probert now is the father of two children and his wife and family will join him at Sioux Falls next week. Nestor has managed to stay single.

How have the Sioux Falls gridders fared this fall since Probert and Nestor became teammates? They tied their first game and won their second. Last season the little school didn't win a single contest.

Did you ever hear of Sioux Falls College? If you hadn't, you have now.

ODDS AND ENDS

Dedication ceremonies for Rochester High School's new athletic field will be held Friday, Oct. 10, with the host Falcons and Utica playing the first game on the lighted gridiron.

Two of the eight lighting poles are already installed. Each pole is equipped with 108 lights. The new bleachers are also completed and the dedication will take place just before the 8 p.m. kickoff.

Charles Schack, a 1955 Waterford High graduate, is in his 4th year as a regular guard for Michigan Tech at Houghton. Schack is a senior majoring in metallurgical engineering at the Upper Peninsula college.

★ ★ ★

This season's Bath High football team has a beefy line that's hard to push around. For example—center Larry Cable weighs 240 pounds, tackle Sam Sherman 255, guard Rodney Valo 210, guard Herb Gibbs an anemic 195, and reserve center Paul Brown, who tips the scales at a hulking 325.

MPGA Best-Ball Starts Saturday

The Michigan Publinx Golf Association will inaugurate a new event this weekend at Jack Fleck's Rochester Golf and Country Club.

The first annual MPGA Invitational Best-Ball golf tournament will be held Saturday and Sunday over a 36-hole route.

Several two-man teams from private clubs in the Oakland County area are expected to compete with the public links players. Eighteen holes are slated tomorrow and another 18 on Sunday.

The MPGA has also announced two additional events this fall. A best-ball tourney is scheduled Sunday, Oct. 12 at the Highlands layout, followed by a special handicap event at Glenhurst on Sunday, Oct 19.

Entries for the Highlands tournament should be sent to Frank Dursek at the Highlands course. Glenhurst tourney entries should be mailed to Don Nelson, 1910 Ardmore, Royal Oak, Mich.

Suggest Title Elimination

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The National Boxing Assn. today suggested a bout between Ingemar Johansson of Sweden and Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., to pick a "rightful and undisputed challenger" for the world heavyweight title.

Detroit Soccer Title Decided Saturday Night

DETROIT — The Detroit Soccer League championship will be decided Saturday night when Carpathia Kickers battle Bavarians at 6:30 p.m. in the opener of a two game program at MCabe field.

The Kickers are in second place, only a game behind the St. Andrew Scots who have completed their regular season schedule. A victory by the Kickers would give them a tie in the point standings.

Goal averages over the season would then decide the championship. Should the Kickers win 2-0, it would leave them tied even in the goal averages and this, of course would necessitate a game between the Kickers and the Scots.

Injury Cancels Bout

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — A 10-round middleweight boxing bout between Joey Giambra and Rory Calhoun scheduled for next Wednesday in Louisville, Ky., was cancelled last night because of bone chips discovered in Giambra's left elbow.

Defense-Offense Debate

By The AP Sports Writer

The defense phase of college football gets to rebutt this weekend in the sudden debate as to whether it is catching or has surpassed the offense.

The protagonists — Oklahoma and Army—will have to back up their accomplishments of a week ago when they unveiled new, wide open offenses that staggered opponents. This week's tests will not be easy.

Before all this comes about, though, Jim Tatum's winless (0-2) North Carolina Tarheels meet Southern California tonight in Los Angeles. USC is 1-1 and a six point favorite.

Oklahoma, the No. 1 team, plays defense-minded Oregon tomorrow. The Webfeet had a week to work on Coach Bud Wilkinson's new offensive concepts, and enter the game ranked No. 7 in defense.

Movies of the "bazooka formation" at West Point have been distributed to all of Army's opponents, except Navy. Penn State is the first to see if it can make Coach Red Blaik sorry for his generosity. The fifth ranked Cadets have that "lonesome end" who plays 18 yards from his tackle that was greatly responsible for a 45-8 drubbing of South Carolina a week ago.

There will be all sorts of variations in the Cotton Bowl when Notre Dame (No. 7) meshes its running and passing attacks against Southern Methodist (No. 18) and quarterback Don Meredith's great passing arm. The Irish have fullback Nick Pietrosante back for fulltime service before an expected crowd of 60,000.

Third-ranked Ohio State's Buckeyes meet upset-minded Washington, a 24-21 victor over Minnesota last week. Second ranked Auburn has more to lose than to gain with its game against tiny Chattanooga, as does sixth-ranked Mississippi against Trinity of Texas.

Iowa (No. 8) ushers the Air Force Academy into competition with the Big 10, Wisconsin (No. 9) tests Marquette's one-game winning streak after it lost 19 in a row, and tenth-ranked Clemson plays Maryland in an Atlantic Coast Conference game.

The second ten teams shape up like this:

Mississippi State (No. 11) against Tennessee in the Southeast Conference, 12th ranked Pitt looking for its first victory over Minnesota; Louisiana State (No. 13) against Hardin-Simmons; Purdue (No. 14) against the Southwest Conference's Rice; and Navy (No. 15) minus All America tackle Bob Reifsnyder, at Boston University.

Rams, Eaglets at Home, Shamrocks Away

Rash of Injuries Hits Parochial Clubs

By H. GUY MOATS

With an important round of action ahead for the weekend, most Suburban Catholic League grid squads today were beset by injuries that could seriously hurt chances for victories. This situation obtains particularly with favored clubs, including the three Pontiac area elevens.

For the 2nd straight Sunday Pontiac fans will see St. Frederick in action at Wisner field. Rams' opponents will be a strong St. James squad that forced St. Michael to stage a last minute "spectacular" in order to win, 20-13, last weekend. Rams crushed St. Clement, 44-6, and rated slight favorites over the Ferndale crew.

Probably the weekend's toughest job for a SCL club faces Orchard Lake St. Mary. Rampaging St. Benedict, that blasted last year's loop champs, St. Rita, 32-0 last week, invades Eaglets' aerie, and it's just about a tossup, with Eaglets given a slight margin on the basis of being the home team.

Shamrocks are on the road, again, facing St. Rita in Detroit. This could be another difficult assignment for Jim Niebauer's club. It's rated almost even, with a slight edge for Shamrocks.

Here's how the injury bugaboo stacks up:

Tom Fitzgerald at Ferndale hopes (but adds it's a slight chance) that Larry Yezak, an all-county selection last fall, may be able to go against St. Frederick. Larry, 190-pounder, scored both St. James TDs last week. He is benched with a slipped disc. St. James also has lost "Muggsy" McGowan, figured as the first string center who had been inactive for a week. McGowan reinjured a knee in Wednesday's practice, and may be out for the season. Offensive end Tom Griffin is lost for the season following an injury last week.

Mike Haskins (starting tackle) and Mike Smith (starting end) will miss Sunday's tilt for the Rams, says coach Gene Wright. Both suffered hurts in the St. Clement game, but Wright figures 195-pound Louis Valenti and husky Don Landry will take up the slack satisfactorily.

Niebauer will be hard hit if quarterback Bill Flanigan, and tackle Fred Lauinger are unable to play. Bill pulled a back muscle and Lauinger has a banged-up knee. "If these boys can't play I don't know how we'll make out," says the Shamrock coach.

Despite the probable loss of halfback Frank Prelewicz for this week, at least, Eaglets' coach, Rev. John Rakoczy, believes his chances against Art Massucci's Bens are very good, "if our defense holds up." Prelewicz has a twisted knee. "If we can stop 195-pound Art Massucci's passing, we'll be okeh," Rev. Rakoczy added.

Royal Oak Shrine, victor over Lake Shore last weekend, for its first win in two years, tangles with Holy Redeemer in a Sunday afternoon, tilt. Ron Horvath's club is the most cosmopolitan of any in the area, having players from eight different communities, including one from Pontiac.

Neither St. Benedict, nor St. Rita have lost any key players. Both will start the same lineups that opened their last week's contests.

All this weekend SCL games start at 2:30 p.m.

Here's What Floyd Gilson, 1985 Auburndale, Says About His New 1959 Buick:

"Believe me there is a genuine thrill in driving this new 1959 Buick. It would seem the engineers find it hard every year to come up with improvements, but this new Buick has many besides the new styling and looks. Being a mechanic perhaps I'm more aware of mechanical changes than most, but the improvements in this 1959 model are for more economical operation, ease of handling and comfort in ride . . . Buick engineers came up with pluses all along this time.

"A word about the deal Oliver's made too is in order. To my thinking it was exceptional. That's one of the reasons I bought from them. The other reason is that service is important to me. Even the slight tune-up or adjustment a new car needs after break-in. Oliver's service department is just around the corner. To me it's worth quite a lot to have this convenience and get the prompt, thorough service Oliver gives."

Two More Prep Loops Start Play

By CHUCK ABAIR

The Inter-Lakes League got off the mark this afternoon and the Mt. Clemens at Birmingham contest was slated to launch Eastern Michigan play tonight as two more area loops got down to serious business highlighting the 3rd weekend of the new grid season.

Southfield, the defending champion, invaded Farmington in a battle of unbeatens in the I-L opener with Berkley at Walled Lake and Waterford at home for the 3rd successive Friday against Van Dyke rounding out the opening day schedule.

The game at Birmingham is the only EML tilt scheduled. East Detroit travels to Jackson and Port Huron is host to Lansing Eastern tonight and Hazel Park is at Royal Oak Kimball Saturday in non-loop affairs.

The Maples are rated the league darkhorse after defeating Cranbrook and bowing to Royal Oak Dondero in early contests.

Full schedules are on tap in the Wayne - Oakland and Southern Thumb today while the Oakland B has two games and the South Central one.

Northville and Bloomfield Hills got things started in the W-O this afternoon. Night games will have West Bloomfield at home to meet Milford, Clarenceville trying to spoil Clarkston's Homecoming and Brighton at Holly.

Avondale travels to Madison and Lake Orion returns to its own gridiron to face Fitzgerald in the Oakland B. Imlay City travels to Millington in the lone South Central tilt.

Oxford, fresh from the school's most impressive triumph in recent years, visits Romeo in one of tonight's outstanding non-league contests.

Both teams will be minus a starting back for the interesting affair. Oxford fullback Jack Magee is out with a groin injury. Charley Peterson, Romeo's speed merchant, is sidelined for three weeks with a broken rib.

Troy at Roseville, Oak Park at Clawson, Madison Lamphere at Capac, Ortonville at Webberville, Owosso at Lapeer, North Branch at Frankenmuth, Grosse Pointe at Royal Oak Dondero, Marmee, Ohio at Country Day, Hartland at South Lyon and L'Anse Creuse at Grosse Pointe University School are among the others.

Center Line goes to Utica in the Bi-County League while a full Southern Thumb calendar will send Dryden to Brown City, New Haven to Almont and Memphis to Armada.

★ ★ ★

Walled Lake and Northville were the only strong favorites among the loop foes going by early season prognostications. Several of the others are rated tossups.

The beginning of play in the Inter-Lakes and Eastern Michigan leaves only two area leagues not under way.

Both the Saginaw Valley and Tri-County conferences will get going Oct. 10.

Marines Loaded With Former Stars

Titans Underdogs Tonight

DETROIT (UPI) — The favored Marines invade Titan Stadium tonight, loaded with former college stars, with the University of Detroit hardly recovered from the effects of the air force academy "bombardment" of last week.

Quantico blasted Xavier of Ohio, 31-20 Sunday and is unbeaten in three starts.

★ ★ ★

Harry Jefferson, one of a number of fleet-footed halfbacks at Illinois in recent seasons, scored three of the Leatherneck touchdowns, one on a 78-yard punt return and the others on runs of 25 and 21 yards. The Titans have no one to match his speed.

Tackle Harvey Keudela, a 280-poinder standing 6-feet, 3-inchs, played for the Cleveland Browns before entering the Marines and fullback Gene Austin played for the Washington Redskins until injured in 1957.

★ ★ ★

Nearly every man on the 55-man Quantico roster has played three years of varsity college football including seven men back from last year.

Picked Wrong Arena for Fight

Pucksters Land in Jail

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (AP)— Two hockey players found out last night that if they want to square off for a fight it had better be on the ice.

★ ★ ★

Rookie Eddie Shack of the New York Rangers and Larry Zeidel of the Hershey Bears were arrested when they continued an argument started on the rink with a fist fight in the stands during an exhibition game.

★ ★ ★

Shack and Zeidel were ejected from the game after a stick swinging episode. Before the scrap was stopped, Zeidel was cut across the head. It took 10 stitches to close the wound.

They both were in street clothes in the stands when they started fighting again. The scrap turned into a wild free-for-all as players, police and spectators joined in.

★ ★ ★

Police finally separated the batlers and hustled them off to the station house. They didn't say what charges, if any, would be made against the players.

New York won the game 7-3.

Anthony vs. McBride

BALTIMORE (AP) — Tony Anthony tries for the second time in a month tonight to chop his way into the heavyweight boxing picture against Archie McBride.

The televised fight over NBC 9 p.m. EST will be staged in the Coliseum and is scheduled for 10 rounds.

7 Out of 10 Victims Are Men

Older People Lead in Pedestrian Mishaps

WASHINGTON (NEA) — A few years ago, just after traffic was rerouted over and under busy DuPont Circle here, an elderly man started to cross Connecticut avenue at this point.

As he stepped off the curb a new traffic light flashed "Don't Walk."

He glowered, hobbled across the street in defiance of the warning and began bashing at the light with his cane.

"No fool sign is going to tell me when I can't walk," he screamed, "I know my rights as an American citizen."

He broke the light and hobbled off.

★ ★ ★

That episode is symbolic of the biggest single cause of pedestrian deaths in the United States.

Persons over 65 account for 38 per cent of the 7,800 pedestrians killed each year in the U. S. An elaborate new study of pedestrian deaths finds that many aged persons have the attitude that the automobile is an obnoxious newfangled gadget which they hope is not here to stay.

★ ★ ★

These aged walkers tend to believe that their rights are being violated by pedestrian ordinances. One out of 10 elderly pedestrians killed has never driven a car. As a group they have little insight into the limitations on brakes, cars or drivers. On top of that, their hearing, sight, and ability to move quickly often are impaired by their advanced age.

REPORT FINDINGS

"Planned Pedestrian Program" is the report that reveals these facts. It has been prepared by the American Automobile Association, whose president, Harry J. Kirk, claims that the study, "represents the greatest concentration of research, experiment, analysis and expertise yet brought to bear on the problem.

★ ★ ★

"If officials will promptly and thoroughly check their present procedures against this program and fill in any gaps we can have a major break-through in this traffic problem," Kirk claims.

In addition to deaths, pedestrian accidents injure 125,000 persons each year and create a total cost of 200 million dollars in medical bills, auto repairs, salary loss and insurance payments.

Next to oldsters, five to nine-year-old children account for the biggest bloc of pedestrian victims." Very young pedestrians are careless in traffic from ignorance and exuberance," the report finds.

A surprise finding is that drinking is the cause of a greater percentage of pedestrian accidents than it is for driving accidents.

MORE MEN VICTIMS

An unexplained finding is that seven out of 10 pedestrian victims are men. The guess of the experts is that women generally walk more carefully in traffic.

The report also reveals:

"Over a third of pedestrian deaths in cities occur when the victim is crossing the street between intersections.

"The average pedestrian crosses the street at a rate of four feet per second and is often a poor judge of how soon an automobile traveling at 30 miles an hour will reach him."

The AAA concludes that if cities adopt a recommended eight-point program at least 50 per cent of all pedestrian fatalities can be eliminated within a few years.

Studies must be made to discover where most pedestrian accidents occur. Public adult education programs on pedestrian safety must be started. Street lighting should be improved. A study of the special age extremes of victims must be made and an education program geared to this finding.

★ ★ ★

A review of what new ordinances are needed should be made. Then they should be passed and enforced. A public relations program should be conducted by the city in behalf of pedestrian safety. And the schools should be encouraged to introduce courses on the subject.

Orphans See Opener

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—Two orphans from St. Joseph's orphanage had grandstand seats for the World Series opener Wednesday to prove once again that crime doesn't pay — for the criminal. The kids got the tickets when a judge gave Harold Torke the choice of paying a $50 fine or donating to the orphanage the tickets he was accused of trying to scalp.

Japs Ask U.S. for New Pact

Want to Scrap Present Security Treaty Instead of Revising It

TOKYO (AP) — Premier Nobusuke Kishi told Parliament today Japan will seek a completely new security treaty with the United States rather than revision of the seven-year-old existing pact.

Japan wants a written agreement for U.S. forces to defend this nation against aggression and a voice in the disposition of American forces stationed here.

★ ★ ★

Secretary of State Dulles agreed last month to talks on the present treaty. Washington is believed willing to go along with the Japanese request for an entire new treaty because it might be simpler than making extensive changes in the old one.

The present pact, signed in 1951 when Japan regained independence, grants the United States the right to use bases here.

★ ★ ★

Many Japanese have complained that the pact was one-sided and had been imposed on a weak nation still almost completely dependent on the United States.

Foreign Minister Aiichiro Fujiyama is to confer with U.S. Ambassador Douglas MacArthur II Saturday to iron out details of the negotiations, including a starting date.

It costs about $200,000 more to operate a 7,500-ton freighter for one year under the United States Flag than under the British and Norwegian flags.

Washington Papers Publishing Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — The end of a brief work stoppage by pressmen assured publication today of Washington's two evening newspapers.

★ ★ ★

The Evening Star and the Daily News were unable to put out editions Thursday because union pressmen stayed away from work after their contract expired.

However, the 175 pressmen voted Thursday night to return to work and publication of the city's only morning newspaper, the Post, was not interrupted.

★ ★ ★

At the urging of union officials, the pressmen agreed to continue working during negotiations on a new contract. Leaders of the International Printing Pressmen's Union had said the work stoppage was unauthorized.

Muni Added to Cast of 'Last Angry Man'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD—Come hot or cold weather, "The Last Angry Man" starts rolling at Columbia the latter part of this month with Paul Muni playing Dr. Abelson. Glenn Ford, who was put on suspension and sued by Columbia for refusing to play Thrasher, the advertising man in Gerald Green's best seller, is still among the missing.

The reason it was suddenly decided to put the long delayed movie before the cameras is because Freddie Kohlman whose company is making it for Columbia, and Danny Mann, the director, met Muni at Trancas Beach and he said he could make it if Freddie could start this month.

Paul asked for a few revisions which author Green, who is also writing the adaptation, agreed to make. The first scenes will be filmed in New York.

Jack Wrather leaves for Europe any day now on business connected with the first major international TV production to be launched by Independent Television Corporation.

He plans a series of 39 Edgar Wallace thrillers titled, "Four Just Men." They will be filmed all around the world just as Mike Todd filmed "Around the World in 80 Days." The cast will be headed by Jack Hawkins, an Englishman, Vittorio de Sica, an Italian, Dan Dailey, an American, and a fourth American star to be selected to play the title roles.

There's a smile again on Danny Kaye's face. He was pretty blue when he thought he wasn't going to be able to get away from "The Five Pennies," the Red Nichols picture, to go to London for the premiere of his picture, "Me and the Colonel."

Now Paramount has told him that they will shut down the set long enough for him to fly with Sylvia (Mrs. K.) for the big preem Oct. 24.

A bright newsy letter from Mrs. Tyrone Power from Zaragoza, Spain, where Ty is making "Solomon and Sheba." Debbie writes that there is an army base close by and many soldiers and their wives have been there for so long without any entertainment that Ty, George Sanders and King Vidor have arranged for a show. George at the piano, King at the guitar, and Tyrone will read from Thomas Wolfe.

With hair still wet from visiting the beauty parlor, Rita Hayworth rushed to the airport to meet Jim Hill who was arriving from London. She waited and waited only to be told he had arrived two hours earlier.

Rita leaves for St. George, Utah, on location for "They Came to Cordura," on Sunday. Jim will go with her and remain a few days. Both of them have been greatly upset over these rumors of a breakup.

She had to come home for her movie and he had to remain in London until "Devil's Disciple" was completed.

Webster on Display

Greatest U. S. Speller Born 200 Years Ago

By JAMES BAAR

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Library of Congress is celebrating the 200th anniversary of the birth of the nation's most famous speller —Noah Webster.

Webster was born Oct. 16, 1758. By the time he died in 1843 the phrase "Webster says" ended any argument over how to spell a word in these United States.

He wrote the first edition of his spelling book in 1783. By 1890 Americans had bought 60 million copies of the book in its various editions. (The U.S. population in 1890 was 62,900,000.)

The Library of Congress is making its bow to the great speller with a prominent display of first editions of his spelling book, dictionaries and related works. Even a casual perusal shows Webster offered Americans their money's worth.

★ ★ ★

The first edition of his speller includes not only word lists but samples of such snappy repartee as:

"Will you drink a dish of tea?"

"Sir, I am much obliged to you; I chuse (Webster says) not to drink any."

"What, you do not chuse to drink any?"

"No, sir, I am not fond of it." (They end up drinking hot chocolate.)

The library's first edition copy —one of four known to be in existence—is bound in an old hand-made sampler. Nancy and Fanny Granger wrote their names inside the cover several times and some drew scholar pictures of a woman in a bustle and another in a hoop skirt.

A 1790 second edition of the speller added a long list of maxims including:

"Hot love is soon cold."

"Give an inch and take an ell." (About 45 inches.)

"When wine is in, wit is out."

★ ★ ★

Then came Webster's "Compendious Dictionary" in 1806 offering more than 400 pages of words and definitions including:

"Silk—the produce of worms; luxury—excess in eating, dress or pleasure; sex—the distinction between male and female (no details); rum—ardent spirit." (Gin, a popular beverage in certain quarters of London, didn't get a mention.)

Finally Webster, in an apparently more devil-may-care mood, published his huge two-volume "American Dictionary" in 1828. Along with the greatly expanded definitions and many new words, it included:

"Silk—fine soft threat produced by the insect called the silkworm."

"Luxury—anything delightful to the senses."

"Sex — the distinction between male and female. The male sex is usually characterized by muscular strength, boldness and firmness. The female is characterized by softness, sensibility and modesty."

"Rum—(he gave a recipe for making it.)"

Gin still didn't get a line.

Bevan Wants Britain to End Atom Tests

SCARBOROUGH, England (AP) —Aneurin Bevan said today Britain will quit testing nuclear weapons, "whatever the consequences," if the Labor party returns to power.

★ ★ ★

Bevan, the party's spokesman on foreign affairs, sidestepped committing any future Labor government to give up the making of nuclear weapons.

He spoke at the annual conference of the party here.

★ ★ ★

Bevan criticized both U.S. Secretary of State Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Lloyd for the way they have conducted Western relationships with the Communist world.

The 1,200 delegates gave Bevan a tremendous ovation.

Daughter Born to New Widow of Top Jet Ace

CASSOPOLIS (UPI) — Mrs. Dorothy Kincheloe, widow of one of America's top jet aces, gave birth to a daughter in a Navy hospital at Oakland, Calif., yesterday, the child's grandparents said today.

Mrs. Kincheloe is the widow of Capt. Iven Kincheloe Jr., who was killed July 26 when his jet crashed at Edward Air Force Base, Calif. Kincheloe had been chosen by the Air Force to make the first flight into outer space.

Kincheloe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Iven Kincheloe Sr. of Cassopolis, said their daughter-in-law plans to change the name of her two-year-old son from Robert to Iven III in honor of her husband.

Mrs. Kincheloe planned to name the new baby after her late husband if it had been a boy. The girl was named Jeannine Frances.

36 Dead, 20 Missing in Mine Explosion

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—The explosion at Podvis coal mine Thursday took at least 36 lives and the fate of 20 more miners is still unknown, Belgrade radio said today.

★ ★ ★

An official announcement said the blast trapped 188 miners in the 2,000-foot deep pit near the Bulgarian border and that 141 were brought out alive. The earlier announcement said 30 bodies were recovered and 17 were still missing. The radio said today only 132 were rescued.

★ ★ ★

Some of those rescued apparently died in the hospital. Rescue operations were continuing.

Demand Slow, Grains Lower

CHICAGO (AP) — Fairly heavy offerings coupled with a lack of demand pushed soybean futures prices lower on the board of trade today.

Activity in other grain pits, especially wheat and corn, were very dull and confined to scattered orders at the opening.

Transactions in soybeans were mainly on the nearby November delivery, with a large processor the biggest seller. Offerings were being taken slowly.

There was no news to stimulate trading. The Formosa situation has lost its punch as a trading factor for the time being, although the grain trade is keeping a sharp watch for sudden developments.

Wheat prices were about steady around the opening with the distant July and September, 1959, contracts showing greatest strength. Basis for the upturn in the July and September deliveries was a private crop report which came out yesterday indicating fewer acres are going into winter wheat this year than last year.

Rye and oats were mostly lower.

Near the end of the first hour, wheat was unchanged to ⅜ higher, December $1.94⅛; corn ⅛ to ⅜ lower, December $1.13⅝; oats ¼ higher to ¼ lower, December 64; rye ¼ to ½ lower, December $1.30½; and soybeans ½ to 1 cent a bushel lower, November $2.16¾.

Employment Up 4,800 in Month

Mid-September Totals Indicate Upsurge Due to Rise in Car Output

With production of 1959 models under way, the employment picture in the Pontiac area brightened last month.

Led by the motor vehicle industry, manufacturing employment increased by 4,800 between mid-August and mid-September, the Michigan Employment Security Commission estimated.

Auto plant employment went up 4,500 and an increase of 100 each was noted in fabricating, machinery and other plants. The upsurge was offset slightly by minor drops of 100 each in the service, government and construction fields, the MESC said.

The back-to-work movement continued in the auto plants during the latter half of last month and the MESC expected employment to increase still further if working conditions remain normal during the next two months.

Unemployment at mid-September was estimated at 15,000, or 18.3 per cent of the total working force. In August, the percentage was 23.3 per cent, and a year ago 8.8 per cent.

The unemployment insurance claims volume has dropped in line with the unemployment reduction, the MESC said, with the Pontiac branch office paying out $1,744,090 in insurance payments during September.

PEACE OFFERING — In a scene from "Hiawatha," in the Shirley Temple Storybook to be shown on NBC-TV channel 2 Sunday evening, Hiawatha (John Ericson) offers maize to Chief Mu-Ah-Genta (Robert Warwick, left) of the starving Dakota tribe, while Princess Minnehaha (Nyra Monsour) looks on. The play is adapted from the immortal Longfellow poem of the same title.

Nyra Monsour as Minnehaha

Video Play Will Retain Mood of Classic Poem by Longfellow

By HAZEL K. JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—The people who are beating the tom-toms for this Sunday's Shirley Temple storybook — "Hiawatha" — had a field day when it came to the girl who plays Princess Minnehaha.

The actress is Nyra Monsour, a native Californian whose dark good looks and Syrian descent has prompted directors to cast her in Italian, Russian, Mexican, French, Arabic and Spanish roles in movies and TV.

And her background verily shouts publicity possibilities.

Take her name, Nyra. It's spelled "Nira" on her birth certificate. But exotic as it sounds, its origin was quite removed from Baghdad.

"Her father named her after the National Industrial Recovery Act," the press agent confided. "He was on WPA when she was born and was so grateful to Roosevelt that he named his daughter after the NIRA Legislation."

Then there's the matter of her Arabic translations. Mr. Monsour and his daughter have been working on a collection of 30 fairy tales he remembers from his youth.

★ ★ ★

Nyra, who neither reads nor writes Arabic but understands the spoken language, is translating these tales which she described as being on the order of "The Arabian Nights."

"These are stories which have been handed down through the years," the actress explained. "My father has put them in his own thoughts and tells them to me in Arabic. I translate them into English."

★ ★ ★

Nyra's work with the tales was brought to the attention of the television show's producer during the course of filming "Hiawatha."

Before you could say "open sesame" Nyra and the producer had come to terms on one of the stories, "Ali the Woodcutter," as a storybook possibility.

Nyra's acting career began at Pasadena City College where she won several dramatic awards before her 1952 graduation. The next year she had a small role in the film, "The Saracen Blade," and another in "The Americano," starring Glenn Ford.

Nyra has had lead roles in such TV programs as GE Theater, Crossroads, I Led Three Lives, and Matinee Theater before she was signed to star in "Hiawatha."

The Storybook effort this Sunday on NBC-TV is based on Longfellow's narrative poem and retains many of the original's lines in trochaic tetrameter. It was written in blank verse by Frank Gabrielson.

To retain the mood of the original poem, Jon Gregory has created dances based on traditional Ojibway and Dakota practice. For dramatic effect, an Indian war is done in this half-ballet, half-realistic way. Background drums have been used to build suspense.

★ ★ ★

John Ericson plays Hiawatha, co-starring with Pernell Roberts. J. Carroll Naish also is in the cast.

'Poor Man's Polo' Gains in Popularity

ATLANTA (UPI) — A modified version of polo, which once was only for the very rich, is gaining popularity at Piedmont Park.

Called "Palmetto," the game is played with a big inflated ball instead of a small wooden one and the players use paddles rather than mallets.

The rubber ball moves more slowly than the wooden ones did and the players are restricted to zones so one horse can last the entire match. Regular polo requires four ponies per man.

Salesman Low on Career List

MacManus Chief Says Youth Must Change Its Negative Attitude

LOS ANGELES — The younger generation has turned thumbs down on all forms of salesmanship as a career and this negative attitude must be changed if America's economic potential is to be realized, Ernest A. Jones, president of MacManus, John & Adams, Inc. Wednesday told the Los Angeles Sales Executives Club.

"Surveys based on the expressed career preferences of college men show that salesmanship is at the bottom of most lists when it appears at all," Jones said.

"Certainly this strange attitude toward a basic American art may be traced in part to the introverted security worship which has been growing stronger over the past twenty-five years. Youngsters seem to prefer the plush-lined rut — forgetting that a rut grown deep enough becomes a grave.

"I say that this is due in good part to our failure to sell the responsibility and reward of salesmanship in all its forms: advertising, retail, in bellringing or pavement-pounding. Every man, whether he sells goods, ideas or services, is wise to so conduct himself that the dignity and importance of salesmanship never is in doubt. Let's sell ourselves with just a small part of the energy we devote to the products of others."

★ ★ ★

Jones feels salesmanship is hampered by the growth of three philosophic fallacies:

One, he said, is the average man fallacy. The belief that an average man exists and that he can be moved by 'cookie-cutter' sales appeals.

Second, he said, is the fallacy that the buying public can be through the magic button of motivational research or psychological mumbo-jumbo.

★ ★ ★

Third he termed the cloudy mirror fallacy . . . the failure of some businesses to provide their salesmen with an 'umbrella' of institutional or corporate image advertising and public relations.

Michigan Births Show Drop From Last Year

LANSING (UPI) — For the first eight months of the year, births in Michigan were 2,436 below a comparative period for 1957, the state health department said today.

For the first five months of this year, the number of births was running ahead of 1957 figures but a late 1957 increase which resulted in al all-time record for the year, moved the birth count ahead of 1958.

Leader of Druggists Is a 'Solid Citizen'

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — John William Dargavel is often called a perfect example of that solid American citizen, the corner druggist, a living symbol of an institution transformed in a generation.

Call him what you will, Dargavel speaks and labors for many thousands of druggists.

This is his 25th anniversary year as helmsman of the National Assn. of Retail Druggists, holding its 60th annual convention here this week.

Dargavel is built like the late Fiorello LaGuardia, the New York mayor with the metabolism of a machine gun. Only more so.

He weighs about 300, is no more than 5 feet 6.

At 64, his bulk, energy and resourcefulness are still exhaustively at the service of the association he revitalized a quarter century ago.

Some once looked at the hefty Dargavel and mistook him for a softie. They found out soon enough that his fiber is tough, as his talk can be too.

The association was mature in years when Dargavel took over, using the title of executive secretary, but it was short of money, short of members, not far from dissolution.

Today, it has a reported 36,000 members and a million dollars in the treasury. It is rated the most influential organization in the retail drug field.

Retailers, generally, know Dargavel as the father of fair trade. Court action has weakened fair trade laws in many states, but Dargavel keeps fighting for them. He sponsored a federal fair trade bill in Congress last session. It died in committee. He is getting another one ready for the next session.

Dargavel says he is alarmed by what he sees as a trend toward retail bigness in the United States.

"This country may one day find its retail operations all bound up in one gigantic discount house. Then this will cease to be a land of opportunity," he says.

Born in Morristown, Minn., July 24, 1894, Dargavel was schooled at the University of Minnesota and the Rhode Island College of Pharmacy and Allied Sciences. He married in 1917, fathered a daughter, Jean. The family home is in Chicago.
