50 Year Mark Nearing for County's Courthouse

By JOE HAAS

Next Wednesday is a big anniversary in the history of Oakland County. The present courthouse was dedicated 50 years ago that day.

The cornerstone had been laid on Aug. 30, 1904, and the dedication was on Nov. 2, 1905. It was a big day, both for Pontiac and the entire county.

By a vote of 4,757 to 3,987 the voters of the county had endorsed a bond issue of $100,000 for the building. After construction had commenced it was feared that this would not cover the cost, so another $20,000 was authorized.

However, all of this was not needed. The total cost of the building, including furnishings and decorations, was $113,323.18, so $6,675.82 was returned to the county by the building committee.

The old two-story brick courthouse which had been erected in 1857 was torn down, and the present building erected on the same site. The architect was Joseph E. Mills, the contractor was John G. Schmidt, and William A. Dewey was superintendent of construction.

In an article about the new building, the Pontiac Daily Press said, "It should provide the ample facilities for all branches of the Oakland County government for almost an indefinite period of time."

A county history of the period calls it "a gem of taste and an ideal of convenience and comfort among the public buildings of southern Michigan."

The dedication program on Nov. 2, 1905, included a military parade made up of men from the armed services brought here for that purpose, Governor Fred M. Warner and his staff, veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, Orchard Lake Military Academy

Troy Treasurer Offers His Stock

Hildebrandt Would Quit Controversial Firm if Commission Desires It

One of two Troy Township officials involved in the controversial option of a proposed race track site said today he is willing to withdraw from the corporation which owns the land.

"I am willing to dispose of the stock if the racing commission so desires," said Fred W. Hildebrandt, township treasurer.

Meanwhile, in Lansing the state attorney-general's office announced it will launch an investigation into the deal involving Hildebrandt, Township Attorney Malcolm M. Heber, and Heber's law partner, Harry N. Dell.

"No one is accused of any wrongdoing and no one wil be accused until a full inquiry is made," said Deputy Atty.-Gen. Horace W. Gilmore.

TO INVESTIGATE

However, he added the investigation would be made with a view to possible criminal action and removal from office of the two officials.

It was charged Monday that the three men, as a corporation, stood to make $130,000 on a $1,000 investment in options for a 200-acre site at 14-Mile Rd. and John R.

Wilbur DeYoung, assistant attorney general, said Monday the corporation — ESROH — had a commitment from the Thoroughbred Turf Club, a syndicate seeking a race track franchise, to pay

Baptists Demand Ban

HOUSTON (AP)—The Texas Baptist Brotherhood yesterday asked Christians everywhere to join in protesting the serving of intoxicants on commercial airliners. It resolved that "this is an evil and offensive practice which endangers the lives of those who travel by air and makes barmaids out of airline stewardesses."

Trans-Ocean TV Soon

TOKYO (AP)—The president of the U. S. National Broadcasting Co. today predicted live television programs will be beamed from America to Europe within five years, and to Asia within 10. "A chain of Microwave stations spanning the oceans should make this possible," said Sylvester L. Weaver Jr.

British Ponder Ways to Control Spending Spree

Conservatives Present Supplementary Budget, Hint New Austerity

LONDON (INS) — With spies and royal romance temporarily shelved, the House of Commons turned today to the harsh facts of Britain's economic position.

Chancellor of the Exchequer Richard A. Butler will present to the House the nation's first supplementary budget since the crisis in the fall of 1947.

He was expected to introduce measures cutting back government expenditures, imposing new taxes and further tightening consumer credit.

The Laborite opposition was primed for the attack.

Butler and the Conservative government were vulnerable particularly because they announced some tax cuts last April just before the national elections.

The Tories won a 60-seat majority in Parliament in that election and now are strong enough to introduce some tough but necessary austerity which would be dangerous on the eve of an election.

With production and trade booming and with full employment, the government claims there is no crisis. But sterner action is needed to curb inflation and improve the balance of payments.

Butler's measures were aimed at curbing home consumption and increasing exports.

Although the average Briton would be hit directly and immediately by expected purchase tax increases on such items as automobiles and TV sets, the major emphasis of the government's statement was expected to be on cutting back the enormous volume of government spending.

Collision Fatal to Milford Man

Father of Five Crashes Into Oncoming Truck in Accident on M 59

A head-on collision yesterday killed 35-year-old Harold D. Latimer, of Milford. Latimer was the father of five small children.

Waterford Township police said the accident happened on M 59 near Cass Lake road at 4 p.m. yesterday. Latimer's car, witnesses stated, was traveling west and then pulled over into the eastbound lane into the path of a 1½ ton truck driven by Laurence G. Klemz of Berkley. Klemz was unhurt.

Latimer was pronounced dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital at 4:11 p.m.

A World War II veteran, Latimer is survived by his wife, Virginia; five children, Carolyn, Donna, Dorothy, Harold and David; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gurson Latimer of Mason, and three brothers and two sisters. He was employed by Pontiac Motor Co.

Beware of Substitutes

Authentic Flying Saucers on Way, Air Force Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force, busy for seven years trying to scotch legends about flying saucers, wants the public to know those weird looking aircraft which folks will see soon won't really be saucers.

They just look and act something like 'em.

The Air Force last night issued what has become a sort of annual report on the flying saucer situation, saying again it has found no evidence of flying saucers.

But this time it attached to the new and voluminous (316 page) report a statement by Secretary Donald A. Quarles. It said some aircraft of novel form are coming along but there will be nothing "supranatural or mysterious" about them.

One will be the vertical-rising, jet-powered experimental plane now at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., test center for jet aircraft. The Navy already has flown a similar aircraft, the Convair VTO, but this is powered with a conventional propeller.

Another strange plane, still in designer stage, is being developed by the Canadian firm at Avro, Ltd., which has a contract with the U.S. Air Force. This design, Quarles said, "could result in a disc-shaped aircraft somewhat similar to the popular concept of a flying saucer."

Avro officials have insisted their product isn't a flying saucer. Gas exhausted through a system of ducts would spin an outer rim of the disc to propel the aircraft vertically into the air; the gas blast then would be diverted from the disk and to the rear to provide forward thrust, like any jet plane.

* * *

The air secretary also said, presumably with allusion to reports of Soviet saucers, that "we must recognize other countries also have the capability of developing vertical-rising aircraft, perhaps of unconventional shapes." But, he insisted, "we are satisfied at this time that none of the sightings of so-called 'flying saucers' reported in this country were in fact aircraft of foreign origin."

The Air Force told of investigations of 4,834 reports of sightings of "unidentified flying objects" (UFO) since 1947.

Part of the new report contains a summary for the January-May period of this year, when the Air Force received 131 UFO reports.

It said evaluation of the 131 reports showed that balloons accounted for 26 per cent; planes 21 per cent; stars, meteors and other astronomical objects 23 per cent; "other" (mirages, kites, fireworks, contrails of high-flying planes) 20 per cent. Insufficient information on which to make evaluation 7; unknown 3 per cent.

Quarles said he felt "certain that even the 3 per cent could have been explained as conventional phenomena or illusions if more complete observational data had been available."

Yeah, John Barleycorn —but He's Blind, Mac!

DALLAS, Tex. (INS)—A tipsy Texas motorist lost control of his Cadillac, smashed into three unoccupied cars.

A fuel tank of one of the cars exploded, and sprayed flaming gasoline over two of the cars which were destroyed.

While the tipsy driver was being treated for a head cut he explained to Dallas police:

"I thought I had a friend along who was driving."

Flying Senators Churn Up Furor

Recent Rhubarb Plants Thoughts About Limiting Army Air Privileges

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Russell (D-Ga) said today the Senate will be asked to consider limiting the use of military planes by Pentagon officials as an outgrowth of the furor over transporting three senators home from Europe.

* * *

Russell, who heads the Senate Armed Services Committee and is a senior member of the Appropriations Committee, criticized in an interview what he said "looks like a deliberate effort to shoot at the Senate."

He said he found "no excuse" for the Defense Department's original statement that it was sending two passenger planes to Europe, at an estimated $20,000 round-trip cost, to bring home Senators McClellan (D-Ark), Stennis (D-Miss) and Chavez (D-NM).

MUST SEND PLANES

The Defense Department said last Thursday, in response to questions, that it was specially dispatching the planes because it had no regularly scheduled flights which could fetch the senators on the dates they wanted to return. It said the department must by law provide transport in this case where the three Appropriations subcommittee members were traveling on committee business.

All three senators denied requesting a special flight, however, and an indignant McClellan and Stennis returned Monday on a regular Military Air Transport Service (MATS) flight Monday instead of the plane sent for them.

You Like Kittens, He Prefers Dogs, She—Oh, Well

PROVO, Utah (AP)—At Brigham Young University here, they've got a coed who keeps snakes in her room.

She's Donna Taylor of McGill, Nev., who keeps a drymarchon corais couper—that's an indogo-colored snake from Florida—as a pet, along with an ordinary garter snake as its companion.

Donna says the D. C. C. "is ju about the cleanest pet anyone could ask for. It will keep mice out of the house, is quiet, and does not eat much.

"Cows trample, dogs bite, cats bite and scratch, and mice carry germs. But a nonpoisonous snake of this kind cannot possibly hurt a person."

Smiling Molotov Lands in Geneva for Big-4 Parley

Soviet Minister Vows Effort Toward 'Positive Results' at Conference

GENEVA (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov flew in today for the Big Four conference, a smile on his broad face. He was the first of the four foreign ministers to arrive.

Molotov landed in a silver Soviet Ily-Ushin transport plane with an American Air Force navigator at the controls. He was met by Wang Ping-nan, Communist China's ambassador to Poland; Andre Dominice, Swiss government chief of protocol, and other Swiss officials.

This is Molotov's third Geneva conference in 18 months.

Speaking into a loudspeaker system after he strode from his special plane, Molotov said:

"The Soviet delegation on its part will do all in its power to see that the conference achieves positive results corresponding to the aspirations of the peoples."

Meanwhile in Paris, U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan held a series of brief conferences today on the troubled Middle East.

Dulles started the day with a meeting with Henry Byroade, U.S. ambassador to Egypt, and Edward Lawson, American envoy to Israel. He then went to the British Embassy to discuss the situation with the British foreign secretary.

Israel's Premier Moshe Sharett moved into the spotlight at the parley of ministers with the disturbing problem of Red arms shipments to the Middle East.

Sharett was to confer with Dulles and Macmillan in separate meetings before their departure for Geneva and their conference with the Soviets.

German reunification was set out as the No. 1 objective for the Geneva talks, beginning tomorrow.

Dulles announced that he will go to Communist Yugoslavia Nov. 6 for a meeting with President Tito. The Soviet Union has been openly wooing Tito snce Stalin's death. Dulles will be the highest ranking American ever to visit the Marshal.

Peron Is Accused of Torturing Foes

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Juan D. Peron, Argentina's ousted dictator, stood accused today of ordering the torture of political prisoners during his regime.

A former prisoner, Dr. Alfonso Nunez Malnero, has told an Argentine court both Peron and Miguel Vignola, main Peronista judge for investigations, were responsible for Nunez Malnero's arrest and torture.

He said he had heard persons tortured on the third floor of the Central Police Station. He said the victims declared that Peron personally ordered the tortures.

Nunez Malnero demanded that Peron be extradited from Paraguay.

Diem Becomes First President of New Republic

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Premier Ngo Dinh Diem today solemnly proclaimed South Viet Nam a republic and became its first president.

* * *

Diem, who came to power in the midst of chaos and despair last year, won 98.2 per cent of the vote in a referendum Sunday. The action deposed ex-Emperor Bao Dai and made Diem the new chief of state.

A constitution is scheduled to be adopted next month, and soon after a general election will name the nation's first legislature.

Campaign Fund Growing Higher

Report Slow Progress Toward $562,175 Goal; $184,301 Short Now

Slow but steady returns have raised the United Fund total to $377,874, an increase of $19,838 over the figure announced last Wednesday, Campaign Manager Robert M. Critchfield said today.

But the pledged total is still $184,301 short of the $562,175 goal.

A heavier influx of returns is expected by Friday which is designated as a special report day, said Critchfield.

First unit in the Commercial Division to complete all calls was Hardware and Sporting Goods, Division Chairman H. Wayne Gabert announced. Larry Payne, unit captain, turned in 93 per cent of quota, or $322.50.

Other Commercial Division pledges include $500 from Thomas Economy Furniture Co., and $120 from its employes. Ward's Home Outfitting reported $150; Detroit Creamery Co., $275 and Maple Leaf Dairy, $200.

In the Finance Unit, the Oakland Loan Co. contributed $200 and its employes $79. The Pontiac Community Finance Co. gave $125; Household Finance Co., $65 and State Finance $60.

Office workers at the Board of Education gave $300.

Additional Stalls to Be Provided Under Plan

Entire New Proposal Slated for Disclosure at Next Meeting

Paving the way for a revised parking program that will provide 633 new municipal parking spaces downtown, the City Commission last night erased action on an earlier plan and moved ahead with the enlarged program.

By unanimous vote, the Commission authorized an agreement to purchase a lot bounded by Pine, Lafayette and Wayne streets as the first section of a 225-auto north-end lot.

City Manager Walter K. Willman said the entire plan will be unveiled at next week's Commission meeting.

Under the agreement, the owner, Mrs. Frances N. Swisher, of Winchester, Mass., will sell the lot for $60,000 within three years.

Meanwhile, the city will lease it for $300 a month. The land is now used as a privately operated parking lot and nets the owner $400 a month, according to City Attorney William A. Ewart.

Because it was also a part of the first program, the property has been the focal point of a condemnation suit filed by the city early this month. Ewart said the suit will be withdrawn.

Rescinded by unanimous action were initial steps taken Oct. 5 approving a $550,000 bond issue for four new lots in the downtown district. They would have added 560 spaces to the 332 stalls provided in the two present city lots.

Willman said the new plan, which will also call for four lots, will require a $600,000 revenue bond issue. He noted that the additional spaces will increase the revenue.

The lots will be paved, lighted and metered, as are the present

Hen Hits Storm Window — Pheasant Under Glass

A pheasant yesterday died after failing to learn its role in life was to end up under glass, not flying through it.

The bird, a two-pound hen, presumably became harassed and confused by hunters crashing through its natural habitat in some nearby field.

It flew smack into the storm sash on the large picture window at the Ivan Bisogni home, 301 First Ave., near the Pontiac Motor Division plant.

Bisogni's mother, Elvira, 72, in the kitchen at the time, thought the wind was to blame for the broken window.

But later, Bisogni, a 45-year-old GMC Truck & Coach Division worker, began picking up the pieces. He found the brown and black-speckled hen crumpled against the house, its neck broken.

The glass will cost about $60 to replace, Bisogni said. And he couldn't even gain any satisfaction from the prospect of eating the bird.

Last week, he bagged two pheasants while hunting in Tuscola County. And, he indicated, you can even get tired of such a gourmet's delight as pheasant —under glass or otherwise.

President Reported to Be 'Relaxed, Spry and Chipper'

By GARNETT D. HORNER
Washington Star Staff Writer

DENVER (AP)—You never would guess from just the way President Eisenhower looks now that he has had a heart attack.

His cheeks are ruddy, their flesh firm. His eyes sparkle. His voice is strong. His shoulders do not sag. His manner is relaxed, but spry and chipper.

These are the things that impressed me when I saw the President and heard him chat with his doctors and news photographers as he sat in a wheel chair on the eighth floor sun deck at Fitzsimons Army Hospital yesterday.

HANDS THINNER

Looking closely for any sign of weakness, I thought his hands appeared a little thinner than when they were swinging golf clubs or casting a trout rod nearly every day. That is the only difference that four and a half weeks in the hospital have made in his appearance, so far as I could detect.

This was the first time that anyone outside a small circle of medical personnel, family members, government officials and close personal friends had seen the President and heard him talk since he suffered a "moderate" coronary thrombosis four weeks ago last Saturday.

For more than two weeks, reporters at the Denver White House press room have been hearing from one medical visitor after another how well Eisenhower looked.

To prove to the world that such remarks were not mere wishful thinking, White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty arranged for a limited number of news photographers to make pictures of the President for all to see.

Actually, he looks better than I expected, despite all I had heard.

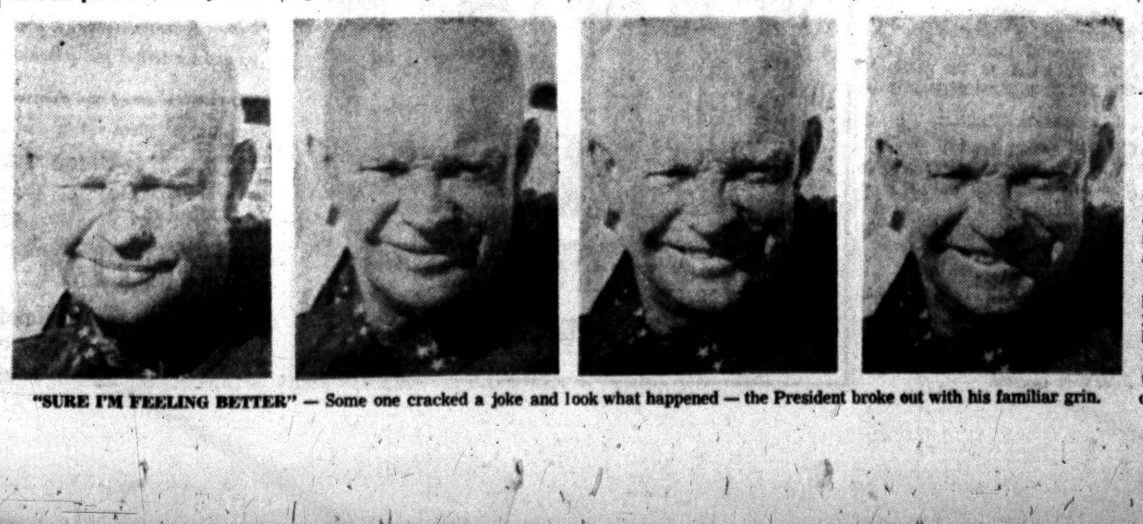
His many recent wheelchair outings on the sun deck have taken care of any sickroom pallor there might once have been, so that his face appeared to have lost little of the tan acquired golfing and fishing during the first six weeks of his Colorado vacation.

NO FLABBINESS

There was no flabbiness nor "peaked look," such as you might expect to see in a man hospitalized for more than four weeks, apparent in his face.

Although his doctors have reported that he has lost four pounds, you wouldn't notice it, except perhaps in his hands.

The President never said anything about how he felt, and no one asked him.



"SURE I'M FEELING BETTER" — Some one cracked a joke and look what happened — the President broke out with his familiar grin.

Three Selected to Survey Land

City Attorney, Realtor, Mayor to Be Sworn In to Evaluate Farm Area

Three commissioners have been named by Oakland County Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore to set values on land sought by the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. for pipeline right-of-way.

They are A. Floyd Blakeslee, a Pontiac attorney, Ernest Skinner, a Royal Oak realtor and Pleasant Ridge Mayor Arthur Kuhn.

The Michigan Public Service Commission July 19 this year gave Consolidated the go-ahead to build a 30-inch pipeline over 25.5 miles from a receiving station near Willow Run, Washtenaw County, to a point in Milford Township where it will connect with existing transmission lines.

The commission will attempt to set fair values on land the owners of which have refused to sell at the price offered them by Consolidated.

The three will appear before Moore next Monday to be sworn in and set a date for their first hearing. The commission's findings will be turned back to Judge Moore for final approval.

The judge yesterday also granted Consolidated the right to survey the land in question to determine exactly what sections are needed.

Troy Official Offers to Quit Corporation

$600,000 for the land which ESROH optioned for $470,000.

DeYoung said Hildebrandt and Heber had concealed their connection with the corporation during discussions of the race track proposal by the township board.

Answering the allegation today, Hildebrandt said:

"It was never asked of us and the records were public. If anybody would have asked me, I would have answered in the affirmative. But nobody asked me and I had no occasion to bring it out."

He added that he was prepared to answer the question at an informal meeting with DeYoung and other state officials Friday, but no one asked him.

"As far as whether or not there is a dollar profit or not," he continued, "I didn't know, I don't care and I'm not interested.

"As a public spirited citizen of the township, I felt it was a good thing for the township (to have a track). I've seen what they have done for Hazel Park and Livonia.

"If we had gone solely on the profit end of it, we could have sold our holdings for industrial purposes about three weeks ago.

"But we weren't interested in the dollars that might come out. We were solely interested in a race track for the township."

Hildebrandt said the corporation will present all its books and records at a meeting called by DeYoung tomorrow.

Heber, who shares law offices with Dell in Royal Oak, declined to make any statements to the Press over the telephone.

Man Apprehended After Police Chase

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—An Oak Park man eluded police for eight miles in a chase during which time police said the driver was going at speeds up to 95 miles per hour this morning.

Police said they started after Robert Boyajian, 26, at Woodward and Lone Pine Road, following him north to Square Lake Road, west to Telegraph and over to Orchard Lake Road before they abandoned pursuit.

Boyajian was stopped at Sylvan Lake after police here had radioed ahead. He was charged with driving under the influence of liquor and is at Oakland County jail pending his court appearance.

Westinghouse Plant Workers on Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The independent United Electrical Workers went on strike against Westinghouse Electric Corp. early today, bringing to about 70,000 the total of the firm's employes idled by contract disputes.

* * *

Pickets promptly appeared at Westinghouse plants in Pittsburgh and Derby, Pa.

The midnight walkout was the second by Westinghouse production and maintenance workers within 10 days. On Oct. 16, the CIO International Union of Electrical workers — 44,000 strong — closed down 30 Westinghouse plants. That walkout idled an additional 10,000 supervisory and engineering personnel.

* * *

Further negotiations sessions were scheduled today between the company and the CIO-IUE. Friday was given as the tentative date for resumption of talks with the UE.

Expect End of Arguments Today in Sewer Lawsuit

Arguments were expected to wind up today in a court dispute over whether a planned shopping center at the northwest corner of Elizabeth Lake and Telegraph Rds. in Waterford Township will be allowed to hook into the Pontiac sewage system.

Waterford Township Attorney John W. Bell said the last three witnesses were scheduled to testify before visiting Circuit Judge Eugene Black, of Port Huron, in a special courtroom on the fifth floor of the Oakland County Office Building.

Pontiac contends Waterford illegally seeks to connect an eight-inch sewer line from the Pontiac Shopping Center Inc. site to the city's Elizabeth Lake Road sewage line. The city claims the attempt violates a 1939 agreement between the two units.

The dispute revolves around interpretation of the agreement which allows connections to be made without City Commission approval but not enlargements. Whether the project at issue constitutes a connection or enlargement must be decided.

Yesterday, Pontiac City Engineer Lewis M. Wrenn said the present capacity of the city's sewage treatment plant is 15,000,000 gallons daily. At times, he stated, up to 25,000,000 gallons are run through in a day.

The city contends the shopping center might create a serious overloading.

Pontiac has already been cited by the Michigan Water Resources Commission for pollution of the Clinton River, Wrenn added.

The engineer said the 80 acres being purchased by the shopping center was included in the area to be serviced by Pontiac in the agreement. But he stated it was not expected it would ever be sewered because it was then state owned.

Wrenn asserted the Elizabeth Lake sewer was not designed to service land to its north where the shopping center is located and could not handle such sewage.

Pontiac City Manager Walter K. Willman, who first testified Tuesday, took the stand yesterday for cross examination.

He stated he once said providing sewer and water service to a proposed shopping center in Bloomfield Township would be possible if the site were annexed, but the general economic effect on the city should be considered.

In its bill of complaint the city alleged Waterford might be guilty of fraud in misrepresenting the line at issue as a connection rather than an enlargement.

Donald M. Pierce, of the State Department of Health, said the line was not of a type which required inspection by his department.

Judge Black said no evidence had been presented to substantiate the city's charge of fraud by the township.

Wrenn said that to his knowledge at no time has the flow in the eight-inch Elizabeth Lake sewer exceded two inches.

Bell said witnesses slated to testify today include George Hubbell, a Birmingham consulting engineer; Clair Johnson, a Pontiac engineer and Louis Barry, Waterford Township clerk.

Judge Black yesterday added the shopping center as a defendant in the case and attorney Donald E. Barriss said he would act in the center's behalf. Besides Barriss and Bell, attorney Clark J. Adams is appearing for Waterford.

Lilly Lauded for Work, Named to Third Term by Unanimous Vote

Nine men were reappointed to Oakland County governmental positions yesterday by the Board of Supervisors.

Robert E. Lilly was unanimously named to his third three-year term on the Board of Auditors.

Ferndale Supervisor Orph C. Holmes commended Lilly for his work over the past six years and cited recent work of the auditors, as having "been of great benefit to the county."

Lilly is auditors' secretary. Other members are Robert Y. Moore, chairman, and John C. Austin, vice chairman.

Others reappointed included Dr. Ethan B. Cudney, five years on the Board of Health; Lewis C. Jarrendt, one year as civil defense director; Harold K. Schone, three years on the Veterans Affairs Board; Dr. Frank R. Bates, one year as dog warden; Leon V. Belknap, Roy F. Goodspeed and Roger Oberg, three years on the Planning Commission and Joe Haas, three years as a tuberculosis anatorium trustee.

All were renamed by a unanimous vote.

Courthouse Plan Gets Postponed

Revenue Bond Authority for New Building Halted Until November 10

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors yesterday postponed until their Nov. 10 meeting action on incorporating an authority to issue revenue bonds for construction of a new courthouse.

Chairman of the Special Building Committee Harold K. Schone, of Oak Park, said the articles of incorporation have been drawn up, but "some matters must be ironed out before we submit them for board approval."

The authority would be empowered to issue revenue bonds to construct the building. It would lease the structure to the county and pay off the bonds from the county-paid rentals. When the bonds were retired the courthouse would revert to county ownership.

Schone also made a Legislative Committee report requested by Avon Township Supervisor Cyril E. Miller on two Circuit Court cases involving church construction in Avon Township.

Miller had said injunctions had been sought to stop construction of two churches both alleged to violate zoning restrictions. One had been granted and the other denied, he stated, and asked the committee to explain the apparent conflict.

Schone said zoning ordinances were not involved in the cases and presented a committee recommendation that Avon's zoning ordinance might be reworked to allow better control of church construction.

Buildings and Grounds Comittee Chairman Harry W. Horton, of Royal Oak, reported that a sign to be put up at the County Service Center off North Telegraph Road would cost about $1,200, instead of the $2,000 originally estimated.

A petition was referred to the Drain Committee from residents on Lakeville Lake asking steps be taken to maintain the lake's level.

A resolution was presented by the Miscellaneous Committee that the Supervisors go on record as opposing removal of driver's licensing functions from local units and placing them under a special state office, as is recommended by Gov. Williams.

It included a clause endorsing legislative steps requiring a person applying for a license to prove he has non-cancellable public liability insurance before the license is issued.

The whole resolution was tabled for further study.

Two resolutions were passed as recommended by the State Assn. of Supervisors.

One would require State Tax Commission field workers to report property valuation findings to local supervisors so differences might be ironed out before the report is made final.

The other opposed the taking over of county governmental functions by the state and said county supervisors must prepare themselves to handle added duties caused by growth in their areas.

The board approved a federal social security program for employes of the Oakland County Road Commission.

Some $1,300 was appropriated to close a breezeway at the County Children's home and $25,000 to construct a new animal shelter at the service center.

School Board Awarded Lot for New Building

BIRMINGHAM — An Oakland County Circuit Court condemnation suit brought by the Board of Education for one of 10 parcels of property needed for an elementary school site, was decided in the board's favor this morning.

After more than three hours of jury deliberation which started yesterday, William Vlmr, 31357 Greenfield Rd., was awarded $500 damages for depreciation to his home, and will receive $4,000 for the lot in question which is adjacent to his residence. Oakland County Circuit Judge George Hartrick presided over the hearing.

Until last week five properties on the ten-acre site, north of 13 Mile near Greenfield Road, Southfield Township, had been included in the condemnation.

The Board then authorized its attorney, John Martz, to pay $3750 a piece for three back lots. Later an agreement was reached over one of the two remaining parcels which front of Greenfield. Purchase price was $4,000.

The area surrounding the site is considered "critical" by the school board in terms of immediate need for an elementary school there.

The city has been granted a rehearing in a suit before Oakland County Circuit Judge Doty last week, in which the judge ruled that Birmingham must issue a building permit to Mrs. Alma B. Grimes for alterations which will permit the use of her home as a duplex residence.

The city had contended that while the property was zoned for that purpose, the lot did not meet area requirements of the zoning ordinance. However, City Attorney Forbes Hascall said yesterday the new trial was granted Monday, with the hearing date not yet scheduled. Over 1,000 homes here are similarly affected by the zoning.

Renewing their efforts to have a complete list of names of those boys who fought either in World War II or the Korean conflict, members of the MOMS Club, Unit Three, are asking that names not already listed in their memorial book, be mailed to Mrs. J. S. Bawden on Purdy street.

The book is a permanent record and is kept on display on a table at Baldwin Library.

MOMS Club delegates elected to attend the state convention in Grand Rapids tomorrow through Saturday are Mrs. Clyde Coons and Mrs. J. L. Barribeau, with Mrs. William Johnstone and Mrs. M. C. Kordenbrock as alternates.

Local Rebekahs were hostesses at a District Six meeting and luncheon today, with over 200 women attending from all over the state. Mrs. Chris Bailey, president, was in charge of the event. The local group will also meet at 8 tonight at the Community House.

Meg Is Warned by London Times

Influential Paper Says Marriage Can Damage Loyalty of Britons

LONDON (AP) — The influential London Times thundered a warning today that a marriage between Princess Margaret and Peter Townsend "would cause acute division among loyal subjects everywhere."

The Times counseled the princess to remember that "happiness in a full sense is a spiritual state and its most precious element may be the sense of duty done."

The powerful publication thus entered for the first time the stormy public debate over the romance between Princess Margaret and the divorced Royal Air Force hero.

CHURCH-RUN PAPER

The editorial policy of the Times is kept under close scrutiny by a board of trustees which includes the Archbishop of Canterbury, ranking prelate of the Church of England. The church hierarchy strongly opposes remarriage of divorced persons.

Another ex-officio times trustee is the lord chancellor—at present Viscount Kilmuir—the highest law officer of the British government.

* * *

Editorial pronouncements of the Times on matters of importance to the government and church have accordingly come to be accepted through the years as especially significant.

Flanary Appointed to City Trial Board

James F. Flanary, a 46-year-old industrial engineer, has been appointed to the city police and fire trial board.

Flanary, who previously served as a Pontiac representative on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, was appointed by the City Commission last night.

He fills the unexpired term of John B. Wilson, who resigned two weeks ago. The term ends next May.

Flanery, commander of the Michigan State Troops unit stationed here during World War II, lives at 37 S. Anderson St.

Set Dedication of New School

Name to Be Revealed at Sunday Ceremonies at Elementary Site

Pontiac's new elementary school, opened at 154 Lake St., this fall, will be dedicated Sunday at 3 p.m. Several possible names for the school were submitted by its pupils to the Board of Education. The one selected will be revealed during the ceremony.

The program includes a blessing by the Rev. Carl W. Nelson, of St. Johns Lutheran Church; a welcome by Mrs. John R. Turner, president of the PTA; naming and presentation of the building by Superintendent of Schools Dr. Dana P. Whitmer and acceptance by Board President Louis H. Schimmel.

Dr. Otto C. Hufziger, building program coordinator, will describe how the building was planned to meet educational needs. C. H. Haberkorn III, general manager of H. E. Beyster and Associates, who designed the building, will present a flag to school principal, Mary Killian.

Israeli Plant Trees in Battle With Desert

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP) — Twenty-five million trees will be planted in the barren hills of the Holy Land as part of Israel's "war against the desert."

* * *

Keren Kayemeth, the Jewish national land fund which announced the new five-year plan, estimated Israels desert areas total 287,500 acres.

The over-all program, of which the five-year plan is only a part, envisages 56,250 acres turned to forest, 106,250 acres into grazing land and 125,000 acres into agricultural settlement areas. A separate 75,000 acres of ulcultivated land are planned for new settlements.

* * *

Tree planting, an initial step in soil conservation and agricultural settlement, is not new in Israel. Keren Kayemeth has planted 24 million trees since it was founded 50 years ago, five million of them before establishment of Israel.

Berber Leader Puzzles French

Chieftain's Turn-About on Returning of Sultan May Excite Morocco

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—Thami el Glaoui, the Berber chieftain from Marrakech, has thrown another loop into Morocco's political tangle by proposing to put back on the throne the Sultan he helped depose.

* * *

El Glaoui, long recognized as the leader of the mountain-dwelling Berbers, announced in a statement yesterday that Sultan Mohammed Ben Youssef, should be returned from his exile in Madagascar and set back on his throne.

Frenchmen and Moroccans who heard the proclamation, read by El Glaoui's son from the steps of the palace of the French resident general, could not have been more astonished.

El Glaoul, now in his 80s, listened to the reading with a smile. There was no explanation of his abrupt about-face.

Briefly, this is the knot-by-knot confusion into which El Glaoui cast yet another twist:

1. Two years ago El Glaoui joined with the French in rallying Berber country chiefs to a parley and engineering the ousting of Sultan Ben Youssef on the grounds he was too intimate with extreme nationalists, mostly city - born Arabs.

* * *

2. Ben Youssef was replaced by the aging and politically inexperienced Mohammed Ben Moulay Arafa.

* * *

3. Extreme Nationalists began a campaign of terrorism and twice tried to assassinate Ben Moulay.

* * *

4. Last month the French government decided to remove Ben Moulay and set up a regency council as a substitute for him. El Glaoui bitterly opposed this, and so did most of the 300,000 Frenchmen in Morocco.

* * *

5. Nevertheless Ben-Moulay was exiled to Tangier, the regency council was finally created, and the nationalists were promised that Ben Youssef would be returned to France — but not to his throne — from his exile in Madagascar.

Merged Unionists May Back Candidate

NEW YORK (AP)—The AFL and CIO, due to merge in December, will in all probabiity enter the political scene by endorsing a presidential candidate next year.

* * *

This was indicated yesterday by George Meany, president of the AFL. He is slated to head the combined organization when the AFL and CIO join forces.

Meany emphasized to newsmen he considered it would be perfectly appropriate for the merged group to place its original weight behind the candidate it considers superior.

He said the decision on backing a candidate was likely to be made by the presidents of 145 unions in the combined group.

They are scheduled to meet next year for the first time to weigh any problems referred to them by the organization's officers and executive council.

* * *

Meany declined to indicate his personal preference for president. He said he would wait until the majority parties designated their candidates.

Thieves Snatch Foreign Checks

Must Sail to England to Redeem $10,000 of $31,400 Stolen

WASHINGTON (AP)—Thieves who stole $31,400 in travelers' checks from the World Bank office over the weekend may have to visit several foreign nations if they hope to spend about half their loot.

That is the opinion of George R. Young, assistant director of information for the 57-nation institution. He said after the theft was discovered yesterday the thieves would have to go to England or Australia to cash some $10,000 in British travelers' checks.

By the time they got there, Young said, the check numbers would have been circulated among the banks and like institutions, making redemption hazardous for the thieves.

Young said the safe crackers probably would have trouble passing in this country some $6,400 in pounds, francs, marks, pesos and guilders taken from the safe in a downtown office building.

Also taken was some $3,000 in American currency, $12,000 in U.S. travelers' checks and a diamond ring of unknown value, Young said.

Hannibal's Army Seen to Recruit Gigantic Soldiers

TURIN, Italy (AP) — One of the reasons for Hannibal's early success against Roman legions 2,100 years ago may have been soldiers seven feet tall.

Evacation made of Pecetto Hill, three miles from here, have uncovered an ancient Roman town, skeletons of men and horses and what apparently was part of a temple.

Seven of the skeletons indicated that the men were seven feet tall of an African race.

If they were Carthaginian followers of Hannibal, as some antiquities experts believe, it would partially explain Carthage's conquests in the second Punic War, 218-102 B.C.

Hannibal's forces wiped out a Roman force at Piacenza—battle of Trebia — before slaughtering another Roman army at Lake Trasimeno and then routing Rome's Fabius at Cannae.

Radford Urges Better Teaching

Admiral Says Meaning of Liberty Is Essential for American Youth

WASHINGTON (AP)—Adm. Arthur Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has called for a "bill of responsibilities" to go along with the bill of rights in America's fight on communsm.

* * *

In a speech prepared for the National Conference on Spiritual Foundations, Radford set up freedom, faith and responsibility as "the three elements of the American way of life," then asked:

"How do we go about perpetuating this American way of life for us today and for our children tomorrow?"

REDS MAKE GAINS

"It is obvious," he said, "the Communists have made amazing gains, largely because they know what they believe, why they believe it, and can explain it . . . Too many times we who are free have seemingly lacked the understanding conviction with which to defend our way of life."

"Teaching a person to recite the Declaration of Independence and the Bill of Rights by memory . . . is not enough," Radford said.

"Teaching him to understand the meaning of liberty is much better. It is all important. We should always give him a bill of responsibilities to go along with his Bill of Rights and at the same time instill in him a spirit of service."

Quick Switch Foils Cops in Gaming Raid

NEWPORT, Ky. (AP) — Beverly Hills Country Club is a swank night club with music, dancing, food, cocktails—and billiards.

Police, looking for illegal games of dice, poker and blackjack, found the legal billiard exhibition in progress during a raid yesterday.

Skeptical officers said it would take less than 30 seconds to disassemble gaming equipment found in the night spot and to set up the billiards as a front. About 100 persons watched the men with their cues. No arrests were made.

Firefighters Too Busy to Put Out Own Fire

ATLANTA (AP) — A fire station caught fire yesterday and firemen from another station put out the blaze.

The firemen at station 12 in the northeast section were too busy saving equipment and personal property to do any fire fighting.

So men from station 6 extinguished the fire.

The blaze started when a gasoline tank on a stalled truck exploded and sprayed burning gasoline over the two-story building.

8-Month-Old Baby Girl Drives Family Limousine

NOWATA, Okla. (AP)—Mrs. Jennie Ellen Brians' 8½-month-old daughter started driving a little young.

The result—a cut nose for Mrs. Brians, a badly damaged family car, one battered power line pole and no electricity for 1¼ hours in part of Nowata County.

Mrs. Brains, of Bartlesville, told patrolmen her daughter stood up on the car seat and lunged forward, grabbing the steering wheel.

The car swerved off the road, bounced over two deep culverts and rammed into the pole. No one was seriously hurt.

Warren Harding was the first U.S. President to speak over the radio.

Chief U.S. Forester Fears Lumber Famine

Although reforestation is in virtual balance with lumbering operations, there is no room for smugness about our national timber resources.

This is the clear implication of an estimate made by Chief U. S. Forester Richard E. McArdle in a report on the first national survey of timber resources made since 1945. McArdle believes that as the population grows, there must be a proportionate increase in tree plantings if a lumber famine by the year 2000 is to be averted.

A surprising feature of the report is the statement that fire no longer is the main enemy of forest conservation. Instead, diseases and insects now are more destructive.

At first glance there appears to be nothing alarming in the report. The year 2000 seems distant indeed. Yet it is to be hoped that the proper committees of Congress will give the report the attention so vital a multi-billion dollar resource deserves.

★ ★ ★

McArdle, a University of Michigan graduate, presides over 149 national forests in 39 states, Alaska and Puerto Rico, a grand total of 181,000,000 acres. Only within recent years has planting approached the amount of timber cut.

Failure to keep planting abreast of consumption indeed would be a national calamity.

Antibiotics on the Farm

An important recent conference in Washington drew world attention because of its discussion of the use of antibiotics in agriculture.

Drawn to the conference were observers from our own and 13 other countries, including Russia. Their interest was a natural result of the growth during the past 10 years in the use of antibiotics for the enrichment of livestock and poultry feeds.

★ ★ ★

On this foundation has been built a 30 to 50 million dollar a year business heralding a new era in scientific agriculture. In practice, one pound of antibiotic concentrate costing $45 will enrich a million pounds of feed.

The results in poultry raising is that broilers can be brought to marketing size in nine weeks instead of ten. Similarly the growth of cattle and hogs to marketing weights can be speeded.

What the antibiotics seem to do is increase the capacity of the animals to absorb more value from their feed, for reasons still unknown to scientists. This has the effect not only of reducing the amount of feed consumed but consequently production costs.

In the last year or two the treatment of livestock diseases with antibiotics has been developed. There also have been experiments in using these products of various molds to combat plant diseases. Scientists say a long range possibility is the similar treatment of corn to make it grow faster so it could be raised in colder climates.

Any of these developments interest scientists who are constantly endeavoring to increase the world's food supply for an ever expanding population.

Attention, oldsters: An inscription found in an ancient Egyptian tomb reads, in part, "Youth is corrupt, lacking in respect for elders, impatient of restraint." It seems human nature has been about the same for many long and weary centuries, alas!

POW Tales Hurt Russia

Stories told by German war prisoners just repatriated by Russia are beginning to backfire against the Kremlin.

As a result it appears that Chancellor Adenauer will reap valuable psychological benefit from his Moscow agreement to establish diplomatic relations with Russia.

These developments were obscured in first dispatches about the prisoners' return home. Much of the early attention was given to tales of Americans still held by Russia. Even more space was given to former Nazis able to tell about the last days of Hitler.

★ ★ ★

Both the prisoners' physical condition and their stories seem likely to strengthen West Germany's ties to the free world rather than promote Russo-German friendship.

Almost all the repatriates expressed bitter hatred of Russia. Some natives of East Germany with families there, insisted on being taken to West Germany. Many survivors of the notorious Vorkuta camp told how 60 per cent of their comrades perished there.

★ ★ ★

One woman related how only 63 of her own sex survived a forced march from Torgu in East Prussia to Inta in Soviet Siberia. Along that tragic route 1,937 of them died.

Already the bad propaganda effect of all this is beginning to dawn on the Russians. There even are hints in Communist journals that release of the 10,000 prisoners was an extremely bad propaganda blunder.

David Lawrence Says:

Now Alger Hiss Claims Soviet Russia Made All Concessions at Yalta Parley

WASHINGTON—Now Alger Hiss enters the controversy about the Yalta Conference in an effort to get the Democrats off the hook they have been on since 1945 because of the sellout of Poland and Nationalist China.

* * *

Hiss, who was a member of the U. S. delegation at Yalta, seems to have lost none of his brazenness during his long absence from public life. He declares that it was Soviet Russia that made the "concessions" at Yalta and that almost everybody sang the praises of the Yalta agreement at the time it was made.

Writing in the current issue of "The Pocket Book Magazine," Hiss says in part:

"Cleaned of the smudge of epithets, the Yalta story is that unwarranted and large-scale concessions were made to the Russians which resulted in Soviet leadership in Eastern Europe and the accession of the Communists to power in China. The facts are quite otherwise. . .

"It was the British and the Americans who made all the requests for military and political decisions. These requests had received careful study. Our delegation and the British had a preconference rendezvous at Malta for the express purpose of ensuring unity in our positions—hardly a mark of open-handed largesse toward the Russians.

RED 'CONCESSIONS'

"In the very nature of things, therefore, the Russians, recipients of numerous Anglo-American proposals, made what 'concessions' there were."

Hiss writes that "a nearly unanimous hymn of praise was the original response to the agreements reached at Yalta." He concedes, to be sure, that there were dissents such as those by the leaders of the Polish-American Association.

* * *

But he minimizes them, despite the worldwide sympathy expressed when the Polish government in exile in London poured out its indignation. He forgets that the chief criticism of what was to happen at Yalta came before the conference and he overlooks the fact that the New York Times on Dec. 19, 1944—nearly two months before Yalta—denounced the proposals to sell out Poland even before they became official.

Also, the late William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, publicly protested on Dec. 16, 1944, against the proposed partition of Poland.

This writer, who recently reviewed the dispatches after Yalta, finds, however, that the dissent was rather widespread, including a vehement denunciation by the Vatican because of the sellout of Poland. Likewise, in "U. S. News & World Report" appeared several articles reporting dissatisfaction from various parts of the world about the results of the Yalta conference and two editorials by this writer immediately after the Yalta conference criticizing the decision in unequivocal terms. Yet Hiss goes on to say:

"Gen. Marshall beamed as he waited for the car that took him from Yalta, saying with evident satisfaction that, though as chief of staff he was much too busy to be attending conferences, for what we had obtained he would have been willing to remain for months.

NO GIVEAWAY

"The myth has it that Poland was 'given away.' The Red Army had driven the Nazis from Poland and had occupied it as thoroughly as we were to complete our occupation of the Philippines a few weeks later. We could no more 'give' Poland to the Russians than they could 'give' the Philippines to us."

But Hiss forgets that the Atlantic Charter, signed by Russia, pledged all the signatories to "a desire to see no territorial changes that do not accord with the freely expressed wishes of the people concerned."

There were observers and writers then, of course, who ignored the potential strength of moral force in the world and looked at the situation solely from the viewpoint that "might makes right." But the lack of moral stamina exhibited by the western leaders at Yalta has plagued their records ever since, and that is the real reason why the Yalta controversy goes on and will go on as a tragic lesson in the history of our times.

Dr. Brady Says:

Stress of Football Game Is Rough on Fans Past 30

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

As a game for youngsters, youths and young adults baseball is unrivaled.

As a sport or spectacle professional baseball is o.k. for people who do honest work or get enough general exercise every day, but, in my opinion, it is not good or healthful recreation for people who live by their wits—students, white collar workers, professional people, business people.

These "brain" workers need recreation which will enable them to "let off steam." The conventions of business, professional and social life make it necessary for one to restrain or repress natural impulses. The emotional excitement or tension one gets at critical moments in the ball game cannot be appeased or relieved by just sitting on one's fanny and screaming or even rising and shaking a fist at the umpire.

Football, both professional and "big game," is not just good for most spectators, but the emotional excitement and tension the battle builds up in the grandstand, stadium or bowl, raises hob with the cardiovascular (heart-artery) of fans past thirty and frazzle the "nerves" (emotional stability) of younger persons. Highschool football exhibitions, complete with cheering sections, sweater girl stars, etc., is the physical evil that bears out everything I have said about degeneration in Yankeeland.

NOT LAUGHABLE

It would be laughable if it were not so tragic to hear or read the impassioned, not to say angry, defense of professional and quasi-professional (college) football and the highschool burlesque of the varsity show, by coaches and their sporting friends, as training in courage, manhood, endurance, self-reliance, sportsmanship, etc.

Unfortunately for many growing boys, fathers who are susceptible to the influence of the local sporting gentry are likely to permit and even urge boys in the early 'teens to try to make the team. I have described in earlier squawks, how repeated slight injuries of joints, muscles, tendons, spine, etc., gradually impair or handicap the growing boy's physical well-being so that in too many instances crippling brings him under orthopedic surgery.

Whether highschool football is beneficial or harmful to the players is a matter of minor importance. The question is whether it is fair to growing children to permit the town's sporting people to take over the highschool for a month or two each autumn and call the tune for principal, teachers and every last "chicken" or "sissy" or mama's boy" whether the luckless kid is possible football material or just a contributor to the fund to provide the trappings for the team.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

I would like to see more communities follow the example of the Ortonville Women's Club, which is urging children to collect pennies this year, instead of the usual 'trick or treat' items.

The pennies are sent to the U. N. I. C. E. F. (United Nations Children's Fund) to help children in the world's under-developed areas.

It is better to teach our children to become good ambassadors than to knock on door for 'treats' which they do not need.

GOP Will Probably Reap Reward of Good Times

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

The bipartisan controversy centering around control of the White House and the Congress after the election in November 1956 links prosperity with politics.

* * *

Objectively, a nonpartisan reading of the annals of American business between the Civil War and the beginning of the New Deal in 1933 discloses, on the contrary, that neither of the two major parties had any monopoly on prosperity.

As a matter of fact, ups and downs in the national economy in that long stretch of years occurred during the incumbency of both parties, indicating that the fluctuations were ascribable to economic, rather than political, cycles.

But the $14 billion slump in stock prices which occurred on Sept. 26, the first day the stock market was open after the surprise news of President Eisenhower's heart attack, indicates that possibly a new ingredient has been injected.

* * *

It could be that the partisan opponents of the chief executive have unwittingly handed him and his group an issue on a silver platter. Left-wing Democrats and some labor economists have undertaken to associate the Eisenhower administration with business, especially big business.

While during a time of great depression and breadlines, big business may constitute smear words, the same phrase may have different emotional connotation in an interlude of full employment at high wages.

OBSOLETE TACTICS?

Thus it could be that the political critics who have been needling President Eisenhower for favoring business and for alleged "giveaway" procedures have been using obsolete tactics—successful during a depression but unpopular during a boom.

* * *

It will be recalled that during the inventory-correction which resulted in a mild recession from the midsummer of 1953 to the midsummer of 1954, leftist critics of the President undertook to capitalize on emotional fears that the country might be on the verge of economic collapse.

The interpretation of the nature of the readjustment by Gabriel Hauge, economic adviser to the President, and of Arthur Burns, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, turned out to be accurate, and the subsequent upturn added to administration prestige for ability to call the shots accurately.

* * *

That the Republicans intend to take full advantage of the kicking around of the prosperity issue was demonstrated when Vice President Nixon said to the New York Group of the Investment Bankers Association:

"American wage earners today have more jobs at higher wages, with greater purchasing power and less strikes than at any time in history, and they have peace to boot."

As an economic analyst, I think parties are gambling with short-term fluctuations when they identify their fate with passing changes rather than with a philosophy of government and of living.

* * *

Be that as it may, it is an axiom of politics that peace and prosperity, when they exist at election time, are beneficial to the political "ins."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Deafness Alone Won't Deter Romance; Love Depends Upon Entire Personality

Lois is heartbroken, so I cheered her morale with facts. Girls, don't feel shy or embarrassed because you wear eye glasses or a hearing aid, or have some other minor defect. For men fall in love with total personalities, which involve hundreds of traits. So offset your minor flaws by cultivating some new assets.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-375: Lois P., aged 19, is a very attractive coed.

"But you will note that I wear a hearing aid," she said, as she turned her head and showed the barely evident earphone.

"Dr. Crane, I have a double problem. At first I was shy about wearing this earphone lest boys consider me unattractive.

"But I have largely overcome that. Now my greater problem is the fact that ear specialists inform me my hearing is growing less and I shall ultimately be unable to use even a hearing aid.

"What shall I do then? It scares me! I feel so upset and don't know where to turn," and she began to cry.

LEAD CONVERSATION

Everybody who isn't blind, depends to a large degree on lipreading. And many talented deaf folks are so expert they can fool you.

I worked with the deaf for five years and met several lipreaders who were remarkable.

One of them went with a girl for two years and she didn't even know he was stone deaf until one evening she telephoned him. His landlady then had to inform her of the truth, since he could not use the phone.

And his sweetheart couldn't believe it. He was so good he could sit beside you on a bus and lipread from your profile, which is really tops.

* * *

But all the brilliant lipreaders I have ever met, had once possessed good hearing. They could speak and sing till maybe they were 8 or 10 years old, after which they lost their hearing, as from scarlet fever.

The secret of being a good lipreader is to lead the conversation! Casually ask your friend a question. Give him two choices, if you wish.

* * *

"Do you think President Eisenhower will run for a second term," you may inquire, "or if not, will Nixon then get the nomination?"

Thus, you have limited the expected response from your companion to a very narrow field, so it will be much easier to read his lips, even though you are stone deaf.

POPULAR STRATEGY

If you wish to be popular, pay your companions honest compliments. This works as well for deaf as for normally hearing people.

* * *

A compliment is an ideal way of starting conversation, too, and it focuses the response to a narrow field of talk.

Even an average lipreader can then comprehend the response. But if you deaf folks let your companion break in with just anything out of the blue, you may be caught unprepared. An average lipreader may then not catch on for several sentences.

So learn to be the starter of conversation! Then maintain the lead thereof by tactful questions or compliments.

That method will permit Lois to retain her conversational charm, even if she does finally lose all of her hearing.

* * *

We psychologists also wish to warn you young people against letting your foolish pride serve as an obstacle to your happiness and popularity.

If you need eye glasses or a hearing aid, then use them. For few people are 100 per cent perfect in their physical bodies.

So don't worship unduly at the shrine of perfect anatomy. Get wise to the facts.

A popular person may have a dozen fillings in his teeth. He may wear eye glasses and a hearing aid or a wooden leg. But so what!

* * *

If you learn to smile gayly and pay your companions compliments and steer conversation gracefully, you will be popular and loved despite those minor defects.

Men rarely fall in love with legs or bodies. They do fall in love with total personalities. So if you have a few minor defects, just offset them by cultivating an equal number of new assets!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane, in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

What to do for "TV Stomach"

(Acid indigestion caused by late-hour "snacks")

If you like to "nibble" and drink while watching TV, look out! Don't overdo it! Too often it may lead to acid stomach and hours of night-time tossing. But not if you take 2 Tums as a "nightcap" whenever distress occurs. Tums neutralize excess acid fast! You sleep better—feel fresher. Always keep Tums handy to counteract gas, heartburn. Bob Considine Says:

Phil Silvers Creates Best New TV Show

NEW YORK (INS)—If the Phil Silvers show isn't the best new show on television, I'll eat its kinescopes without catsup. It's so good that it practically overcomes the canned laughter on its soundtrack.

* * *

This long-neglected master of situation comedy has found his perfect vehicle in "You'll Never Get tRich," which CBS is illuminating each Tuesday at the tough hour of 7:30 p.m.

Phil plays the part of Sgt. Bilko, a would-be scoundrel cursed with the heart of a mushmelon. But for that unlucky soft spot, and a vigilant chaplain, Bilko would be the richest man in the Army.

If anybody had told you that Phil would finally get his TV break in a situation piece about the peacetime army you'd have laughed, but only in derision. Yet the man is so good, the writing so excellent, the direction so swift and true, the show became an immediate click.

* * *

It has all the warmth and cleanliness of an animated "Beetle Bailey," one of the best comic strips in years . . . so good, in fact, that it was barred by the brass which commands the "Pacific Stars and Stripes."

SHARES SPOTLIGHT

Phil is the kind of comedian who recognizes the right of other human beings to live. The other day, he gave a little party for Walter Cartier, the welterweight fighter who has turned actor, and had some sportswriters as guests at Shor's. He made Cartier the star of the occasion.

* * *

Cartier played the part of a a flower-fancier with the wallop of a Marciano on Phil's show Tuesday night. He looks a little like Billy Conn looked as a kid but acts as if he had been at the business for years.

The fighter played Pvt. Claude Dillingham, a member of Bilko's platoon. There's a camp boxing show afoot and Bilko's only fighter is a hilarious powder puncher who took boxing lessons from a mail school and got trombone lessons by mistake.

Dillingham appears on the scene, numb with grief because the Pentagon had turned down his appeal to build window flower boxes for the barracks at Ft. Baxter, but by accident flattens Bilko's fighter with one punch.

Bilko's venal dreams of using Dillingham instead of the awful one, and cleaning up on bets, are in time frustrated in a howling manner. Good stuff.

Rocky Graziano, the reformed hood, was on hand at the Silvers' party to explain how his quiet-spoken friend, Cartier, got into the acting business. Seems that after Nat Hiken coaxed Rocky to try his hand as Martha Raye's TV sparring partner, and Rocky made good, the former middleweight champion still frequently patronized Stillman's Gym between rehearsals to bat the breeze with old friends.

He'd pick up Cartier and take him back to the studio to watch the rehearsals. And after Cartier lost to Kid Gaviland and seemed to be headed for the long decline, Rocky urged him to get into the other business with both feet.

Rocky paid tribute to Hiken for his own redemption. "I can't tell you how nice it is to be," he said.

Hiken put Cartier next to Silvers when the show was being put together and they work like a charm.

"I don't say every fighter can act, because they can't," Phil says of the species. "But they've got part of it made. They've taken instructions their whole lives . . . jab like this, stand like that, move like this. Acting is a lot like that andt hey take it like ducks to water."

Cartier said a few words. For all his 60 fights, he looks like an applicant for the priesthood. And speaks like one, in contrast to the robust language of his friend Rocky, who, when told by Hiken that his job with Martha Raye involved learning a script bawled, "Are you nuts?" I can't needer read or write!"

At the Silvers' luncheon Cartier blushed when called on and said only this:

"It's a small day for you gentlemen, but a great day for me."

SENOR ELASTICO
He Shrinks at a Touch

This man calls himself "Senor Elastico, the Gentleman with the India Rubber Face."

He is not very handsome, as you can see, with his wide face and eyes too close together. But when he starts to fold and twist his features he must almost scare himself.

If you fold this picture as directed, you can see two of the changes Senor Elastico can make. Maybe you can try some others of your own.

Paste him on strong wrapping paper that will stand a lot of folding. Then color him with crayons.

He has orange-colored hair. The tips of his ears are red and so is the end of his nose. His mouth is red too. The whites of his eyes are green.

Study the folding plan carefully before you cut out the face. Then save the margin of the picture to show you where to fold up Senor Elastico's face.

Fold forward at A on both sides, and back on B on both sides. Bring fold A over until it rests on line C. Fold line D forward and line E back. Bring fold D over until it rests on line F.

Now, how does Senor Elastico look?

Japan Housewife Wants to Change Splendid Custom

NIIGATA CITY, Japan (AP) — A housewife complained today about condolence gifts presented her family after a fire had destroyed much of this city early this month.

Condolence gifts are a Japanese social fixture for those who suffer misfortune. "But, why do they always bring sake (rice wine)," the housewife wrote in a letter to the newspaper Niigata Nippo.

She said the family had received nearly 20 large bottles of sake.

"At such a time," she wrote, "one hopes that the men . . . will work cleaning up debris and helping other fire victims. But all they do is sit together, drink sake, talk much, get drunk, and end up snoring loudly.

Far Reaching Chips

NEW YORK — The National Potato Chip Council has figured that if all the chips manufactured in the United States in 1954 were packaged in 10-cent bags and placed end to end they would encircle the globe at the equator 27½ times. It would take a bag with almost the exact proportions of the Empire State Building to hold all the potato chips produced last year.

The U. S. government buys about 10 million tons of coal a year.

No Water Waste Here

WASHINGTON — More than 1,300,000 pounds of steam rush through the propulsion turbines of the new aircraft carrier Forrestal every hour when she is at sea. In the boiler, water is converted into the steam that spins the turbines. After the turbines use the energy of the steam, it is condensed into water, passed back to the boilers, and used again and again in this closed system.

The St. Joe river in Idaho is the highest navigable river in the world, it is claimed.

Insulating Lava Fiber

ROME — Italians are now producing a new insulation fiber out of lava from volcanic Mount Etna. Made under a German patent, the soft gray wool produced from hardened rock is said to withstand higher temperatures than glass fiber. It is being used in Italian ships, refrigerators, and autos and is being tested for possibe use in jet airplanes.

About two-thirds of all the coffee exported by the world's coffee producing nations is imported by the U. S.

Roundabout Turkeys

DES MOINES — The domestic turkey of the United States came from Mexico, but by a very roundabout way. Some of these turkeys were taken to Europe by Spaniards in the early 16th century. From Spain they continued their travels to England. English settlers brought them to the United States.

Ohio and Pennsylvania lead the U. S. in the production of lime. Idaho are leaders among the area in farm land than any other state.

Hike in Meat Output

WASHINGTON — The Foreign Agricultural Service reports that 1954 meat production in the 42 countries of the world reporting climbed 3 per cent over the year before and was about 20 per cent above the pre-war level.

Snuff Sniffers Supply Steadily Stays Stable

WASHINGTON (AP) — Everything else may fluctuate in a rapidly changing world, but this fact at least seems stable:

U. S. snuff lovers will keep on sniffing snuff, come war, depression, peace or prosperity.

* * *

A check today on a new Agriculture Department report shows that 39,000,000 pounds of snuff will go up the nostrils, or into the mouths, of the faithful this year.

Here's what makes the statistic unusual: With scarcely any variation, around 39,000,000 pounds of the stuff have been used annually for 35 years, and maybe longer.

By contrast, chewing tobacco, once considered an American art, has hit the skids.

SNUFF HOLDS ON

This year's consumption of chewing tobacco will be 79,500,000 pounds, or twice that of snuff. But whereas snuff is holding its own, chewing tobacco is going down. The forecast: The poorest chewing year of this century.

The connoisseur of plug, twist, finecut and scrap is vanishing so fast that the once indispensable cuspidor now is showing up in museums, not as an essental receptable, but as a reminder of a former way of American life.

* * *

Well, why has snuff held on?

Agriculture experts aren't sure, but they do know there is a popular misconception about snuffers. Many people still conceive of snuff with an aristocratic tinge. . . . The silver snuff box, the lace sleeve, the monocle, the delicate pinch of snuff before the witty remark.

HELP TOOTHACHE

So far as this country is concerned, that's nonsense. Those on the lower end of the economic scale are the most faithful. Usually they don't snuffle it. They put a small bit between the lower lip and the gum, and suck it. In some areas it's considered dandy for toothache.

The South accounts for much of the snuff consumption, and Scandinavians in the northwestern lumber business and fishermen in New England also use it.

* * *

Snuff had its finest hour during World War II. Many defense plants had stern "no smoking" rules, and workers tried snuff as a substitute. In 1943, snuff consumption went up to 43,667,000 pounds. But it was a temporary thing, and in no time at all, snuff was back at its old level.

* * *

As probably everyone knows by now, the tradition loving Senate continues to have filled snuffboxes on each senator's desk. No one dips—at least not regularly—but the page boys keep the boxes filled. The demand may be small, but it's steady. Of those 39,000,000 pounds produced each year, one pound goes to the U.S. Senate.

Milan Eases Traffic Jam

MILAN, Italy (INS) — City authorities in Milan claim to have taken a big step toward easing traffic problems. A three-story underground parking garage, capable of holding 500 cars has been opened just off busy Cathedral Square in Milan. It's one of the most efficient in Europe.

Polish Kulak Defies Reds' Attempt to Control Farms

By TO MREEDY

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—After 10 years of Communist rule, the independent farmer is still king in Poland. Only a tenth of the farmland is collectivized.

* * *

The kulaks seem to have won at least a truce with the Red regime. The battle never ends, of course. In the open market the farmers can get five times as much for their grain as the government will pay. Naturally, they withhold grain from government bins. They get together in their farming communities and openly defy government orders to deliver grain.

Sometimes these tense situations go on for weeks at harvest time. Then one night two men—always a pair—call on the leading kulak and tell him his taxes will be increased five fold. From these two extreme positions, they then start to bargain and usually come to some compromise.

MUSEUM PIECE

A collective farm is almost a museum piece in old Poland. Most of the collectives are set up in Silesia, West Pomerania and East Prussia, former German territories.

The Poles in this area are from the East. They are glad enough to have a piece of land they can call their own and so they do not have the deep resistance of the old kulaks who are sitting on soil their great - grandfathers once tilled.

The brown-eyed Poles from the East have whipped the former German farmlands into what seems to be good shape. In a thousand-mile automobile tour of these areas, this correspondent saw virtully no fallow fields. Tractors and farm machinery were in abundance. The collectives have priority on machinery, of course. The kulak gets along with his horses.

LOADED WITH FOOD

Certainly the farmers are producing. The cities are loaded with food, especially dairy products. The cattle are Holsteins imported mostly from Denmark where. Beef and veal are only so-so in quality and flavor.

There is a surplusof milk and government officials would like to export it. They dare not propose that, however, because they tell the public every child has to have his liter of milk a day. And public opinion, where food is concerned, is something to be reckoned with in Poland.

Polish ham is again the main dish of any meal, including breakfast. Most of the pig crop is in old Poland. Few pigs are seen in the western territories.

The menu in any restaurant or hotel is written in Polish except for one item:

"Ham and eggs."

Poles eat "ham and eggs" American style at least once a day.

Wilson Approves Rental Hike to Nike Specialists

WASHINGTON (INS) — Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson has authorized the Army to pay up to $150 a month each for 750 housing units near Nike anti-aircraft batteries defending American cities.

The authority is for use in areas where rents are so high that officers and men assigned to the batteries, and required to live near them, cannot pay the rentals out of their quarters allowance, which is usually about $100 a month.

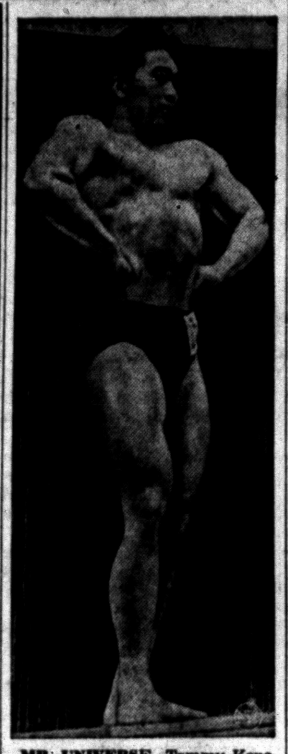
LOST 32 POUNDS
Brooklyn Club Lady Praises Rennel, Members Like It Too

Losing weight is a common problem for so many men and women. Some solve it privately, some make it a family project, others find a stimulant in club member competition of national scope. Mrs. Robert Gregg, R. No. 1, Brooklyn, Mich., adds her endorsement to Rennel Concentrate. She writes, "I belong to a Club that is primarily interested in proper weight and good health. Many of our members are using Rennel Concentrate, and it is gratifying to see that so many of us are getting results. It has relieved me of a painful condition in my joints and 32 pounds of my weight. When I started using Rennel I weighed 212 and now weigh 180 lbs. I feel so much better and can wear smaller dresses. I can truthfully give Rennel credit for my well being. It's the best remedy I have found."

Make Rennel work for you. If not pleased with the very first bottle return it to the manufacturer for your money back. Priced at $1.60. Insist on genuine Rennel.



MR. UNIVERSE—Tommy Kono, above, of Sacramento, Calif., won the Mr. Universe title in addition to the light heavyweight lifting crown at the recently concluded weight-lifting championships at Munich, Germany. Kono's five points for the Mr. Universe title gave the United States team a 30-29 victory over the Russian team. Earlier reports from Munich gave Russia the world title by a score of 29-25, omitting the Mr. Universe scoring, which is now an official part of the championships.

Japan Leads World in Plywood Exports

TOKYO — Japan is one of the world's leading producers of plywood. Last year Japan's plywood exports were valued at $25,000,000. Production has been increasing fast, largely because of the resumption of imports of an important raw material, lauan, from the Philippines.

Some 200 plywood plants are in operation. Production last year amounted to 1,400,000,000 square feet, of which about 32 per cent was exported. Nearly 80 per cent is made of lauan; the rest is made of beech, ash, basswood, and birch. More than 50 per cent of the factories are in or near ports where the lauan is received.

Snatch Crumby Loot

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Bank teller Leonard S. Pirri was held up by two gunmen as he was returning from lunch. They apparently thought a small sack he carried contained funds for the bank. They grabbed it and ran. It contained only crumbs from Pirri's luncheon sandwiches.

Santa Leaving for Pacific Early

Mail Christmas packages to Japan, Korea and islands in the Pacific before Nov. 1 if you want to be sure Santa will arrive on time, C. A. Ebey, Pontiac, superintendent of mails, cautioned today.

Deadline to insure Christmas delivery for most other overseas areas is Nov. 15.

Airmail parcel post items can be sent a little later, but mailers were reminded that final delivery overseas would involve delays for surface transportation in most cases. Also medical and military supplies are given top air priority.

In pointing out that the Christmas rush has started, Ebey listed a few timely tips to mailers.

If you're planning on sending a bottle of "Christmas spirits," don't do it. No alcoholic beverages are allowed in the U.S. mails. Neither are inflammable or explosive materials, which include such items as lighter fluid.

Tobacco is not permitted to servicemen in certain APO countries, and matches are also forbidden. Spoilable foodstuffs are discouraged.

Regular parcel post to servicemen abroad is generally restricted to 70 pounds in weight, and a combined length and girth of not more than 100 inches. However, some APO countries have additional restrictions, and mailers are advised to check with their post office before mailing.

Airmail packages are generally restricted to 30 inches combined length and girth, and 2 pounds maximum weight.

Restrictions on civilian mail vary according to the different countries, and mailers are advised to check with their post office to insure mailability.

Parcels for overseas delivery should be packed in boxes of metal, wood, solid fiberboard or double-faced corrugated fiberboard testing at least 275 pounds.

Each box should be securely tied with strong cord, preferably by four separate pieces, two lengthwise and two crosswise, knotted at crossing. If ends are sealed with gummed tape, the parcel should carry the inscription "May be opened for postal inspection."

Contents should contain sufficient cushioning material to prevent rattling or loosening of articles.

All fiberboard boxes should be securely wrapped in heavy paper, and tied both before and after applying outside wrapper. In most cases, customs declarations must accompany parcels.

Addresses should be legibly written, preferably hand-printed directly on the wrapper. A printed list of contents and the name and address of sender and addressee is also recommended to be placed inside the package, in case of damage to outside wrappings.

Parcels addressed to servicemen should include name and address of the addressee, rank or grade, service number, organization or unit, APO number and post office through which mail is to be routed.

Simple Christmas greeting inscriptions are permitted on the outside of the parcel, providing they do not interfere with the address.

In 1953 there were three brands of nylon passenger car tires available to the public, but a year later there were 27 brands, and the number today has increased to 86.

Needlework Guild Busily Prepares for Ingathering

Pontiac Press Photos

Section presidents gathering at the Ottawa drive home of Mrs. Harold A. Fitzgerald for the morning coffee and to make final plans for the Nov. 10 Ingathering included (left to right) Mrs. Edward Barrett of Ottawa drive, vice president; Mrs. Harold A. Furlong of Navajo drive, second vice president, and Mrs. S. V. Sekles of Ottawa drive, director of Needlework Guild.

Tea Given for Press Chairmen

The Pontiac Press entertained approximately 150 press chairmen of women's clubs and church guilds Tuesday at Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

* * *

The tea affords staff members of the Women's Department an opportunity to meet with the women who report the news of the various groups.

Stressed at an informal discussion were the importance of accuracy in names, the timeliness of news and the scheduling of pictures.

Judith L. Clemence, women's editor; Margaret Cole, Joan Ritter, Janet Odell, Mary Anglemier and Ruth Saunders were present from the Press staff.

* * *

Promenaders Hold Halloween Masquerade

Skeletons, pumpkins, cornstalks and witches surrounded members of the Promenaders Square Dance Club at their Halloween masquerade party held Tuesday evening at Daniel Whitfield School.

* * *

New members welcomed at this party were Mr. and Mrs. Warner Wasmuth, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koenig, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Longe, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fifield, Mr. and Mrs. William Gorsline and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cunningham.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Earl led the grand march, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Wasmuth were chosen prize winners for their unusual costumes.

Calling the quadrilles during the evening were Ralph Ireland, Harry Anderson, Engle Groenberg, Mr. Earl, Mr. Longe and Warren Allen.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Riley were guests for the evening.

Decorations were arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Koenig assisted by the Groenbergs, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Forslund, Dr. and Mrs. Aben Hoekman and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hoisington.

To lessen the scorched taste in burned food, plunge the cooking pan into cold water for a few minutes, then transfer the food to a fresh pan.

Club Treats Youngsters to Hayride

A hayride was the highlight of the evening's festivities Tuesday when members of the Michigan Bell Telephone Girls' Club entertained 30 boys and girls of the Oakland County Children's Home.

Following the hayride, the youngsters were entertained at a Halloween party held in the Michigan Bell Building.

Serving as hostesses were Bonnie English, Charlotte McManus, Marlene Hicks, Betty Frantz, Helen Wesch, Rosemary Sova and Shirley Nelson.

Frances Phillips, Martha Hagerman, Amanda Joyce, Leora Fritz, Thelma Plympton, Vesta Engle, Jeanette Ashton, Janice Moriarty, Jean Bender, Maxine Orr and Mary Eddy also served.

At the regular meeting of the club, Janice Moriarty was nominated as the club's candidate for queen of the "High Fever Follies."

Mrs. Harold Howlett (left) of East Iroquois road, president of Pontiac Needlework Guild, and Mrs. Howard B. Barker of Bloomfield Hills, a director, were photographed at the recent coffee held at the home of Mrs. Harold A. Fitzgerald on Ottawa drive.

Among the section presidents who have contributed many hours to Needlework Guild are (left to right) Mrs. Milo J. Cross of Hammond Lake road, Mrs. Basil E. Brown of Mary Day avenue and Mrs. Walter K. Willman of Ogemaw road. Mrs. Brown is Junior Needlework Guild director and Mrs. Willman is treasurer of Carol Brooks Section of Needlework Guild.

Final Plans Are Made for Nov. 10

Queen Mary Unit Will Serve Coffee and Pastries

"The Charity That Helps Other Charities."

Section presidents of the Needlework Guild have been busily engaged in preparation for the annual Ingathering.

* * *

Final plans were made at the morning coffee held recently at the home of Mrs. Harold A. Fitzgerald on Ottawa drive.

The guild's Ingathering will take place Thursday morning, Nov. 10, in the First Presbyterian Church.

Coffee and British pastries will be served by members of the Queen Mary Section as directors come to bring the garments collected and members arrive to view the display.

* * *

Mrs. Henry Milligan will serve as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Andrew McKerrow and Mrs. Walter Galbraith.

Needlework Guild is "The Charity That Helps Other Charities." The organization is quite simple. Each branch has its president, several vice presidents, who are chairmen of committees; secretary, treasurer, section presidents and directors.

TO BECOME DIRECTOR

Each section president has five directors. A member becomes a director by obtaining 10 new members or being responsible for the collection of 22 or more new garments a year and one money member.

* * *

There are no dues or fees. A member gives two new articles of clothing or household linen, "one to wash" and "one to wear," once a year.

Especially needed are men's, women's and children's outing flannel pajamas, underwear, socks, wool mittens and caps, boys' shirts and trousers, girls' dresses, skirts and blouses, and sweaters for all ages.

Outing flannel sheets and bed socks are always wanted by the Visiting Nurse Association for the sick and elderly.

* * *

Section presidents of the guild include Mrs. Henry Leonard, Mrs. Austin Esler, Mrs. Vaughn Garrison, Mrs. Arnold Jerome, Mrs. Clifton Tibbals and Mrs. Harold A. Furlong.

OTHER PRESIDENTS

Others are Mrs. Harold Goldberg, Mrs. William F. Maybury, Mrs. Harold Howlett, Mrs. Edward Barrett, Mrs. H. L. Lowes, Mrs. Carroll Braid, Mrs. Henry Gaukler and Mrs. Milo Cross.

* * *

Also serving as presidents are Mrs. O. Leo Beaudette, Mrs. A. H. Harrington, Mrs. Elizabeth Hunt, Mrs. Charles Clarke, Mrs. John W. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Geneva Bradley and Mrs. Robert Dunlap.

Anyone who wishes to become a member may call the president, Mrs. Harold Howlett, at her home on East Iroquois road.

Red Cross records show that at least 100 lives a year are saved because of its training of people in first aid and water safety.

Teachers Can Play Other Roles

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"I trained to be a teacher, but now I find I don't like it."

* * *

That is a comment I hear very frequently. Another variation is, "I like teaching, but I have a mother to support and cannot manage on a teacher's salary."

But all too often, the people concerned are convinced that, since they trained for teaching, there is very little else they can do. And that is just not true.

Industry nowadays has many, many jobs which require the teaching point of view.

* * *

Industry is complex. It has a huge audience, including customers, distributors, employes, who can profit by having the company's policies and methods explained to them. And that is a teaching job, if ever there was one!

DOING GOOD JOB

Throughout industry, you find ex-teachers doing a good job.

* * *

How to use certain home appliances, for example, must be explained to the consumer.

Booklets must be written, teaching the customer not only how to use the product but how to care for it; information desks must be manned with people who can answer all kinds of questions and teach the customer what the company's policy is.

Many office managers and administrative executives are ex-teachers. Their work includes, in addition to interpretation of policy, the hiring, training and teaching of office personnel.

Mrs. Lillian Sloan, for example, an executive of a large radio corporation, is an ex-teacher. Her job is concerned with all matters stenographic, as well as filing, bookkeeping, credit work, shipping and personnel.

* * *

In addition, Mrs. Sloan heads the company's home institute, which gives information on the care and use of their phonographs, radios, television sets and other electronic equipment.

SHE'S SUCCESSFUL

She has made a very successful career for herself as a major executive, yet she spent the first four years of her professional life as a teacher.

* * *

If you feel that you are "stuck" with your teacher training, get to your library and look up the biographies of successful business people.

You'll find that a great many of them began as teachers and were certainly not "stuck!"

Married Saturday at St. Michael Church were Joan Colebrooke and Ernest D. Pruente. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Colebrooke of Opdyke road. Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Pruente of Gingell court are his parents.

MR. and MRS. ERNEST D. PRUENTE

Joan Colebrooke Speaks Her Vows at St. Michael

The Rev. Michael J. O'Reilly celebrated the Nuptial Mass uniting Joan Colebrooke and Ernest D. Pruente in marriage Saturday morning at St. Michael Church. The ceremony was performed in the presence of 150 guests.

* * *

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Colebrooke of Opdyke road. Ernest's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Pruente of Gingell court.

A floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over satin was chosen by the bride. Iridescent sequins encircled the scalloped batteau neckline. Her long sleeves ended in points at the wrists.

A tiara with tiny seed pearls and iridescent sequins secured the French illusion fingertip veil. The bridal bouquet was of shattered white carnations and white roses.

* * *

A medium blue floor-length gown of crystallette was worn by Nancy Davis, maid of honor. The dress came to a V in the back accented by a large bow at the waist.

Bridesmaids Mary Catherine Pruente and Ruth Coleman wore identical gowns of pale blue. Their headpieces were scalloped blue velvet trimmed with pearls. They carried bouquets of pink shattered carnations.

WEARS DUSTY ROSE

Sharon O'Grady, niece of the bride, wore a frock of dusty rose taffeta with a white scalloped hat and carried blue carnations for her duties as flower girl.

* * *

Daniel Pruente served as his brother's best man. The bridegroom's other brothers, Francis C. Pruente Jr. and Thomas Pruente, served as ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to members of the bridal party at Kingsley Inn. An afternoon reception was held at the home of the bride.

The new Mrs. Pruente changed to an ocean blue princess-style crystallette dress with a round neckline and white accessories for their honeymoon trip through the Southern states. On their return they will reside on East Madison avenue.

Prepare vegetables as near cooking time as possible. They lose important food elements when soaked or allowed to stand after they have been peeled or cut up.

Child Study Group Has Gathering

Mrs. Earl Bartlett of Lakeland avenue was hostess to Child Study Club Group Three Tuesday afternoon.

* * *

Mrs. Paul Gorman conducted the business meeting. It was announced that Mrs. Gorman and Mrs. Roy Jones will attend a program convention for the Child Study Clubs of Michigan Nov. 9 and 10 at Kellogg Center in East Lansing.

Welcomed as members of the club were Mrs. Roy Corwin and Mrs. Donald Rosie.

Members were divided into groups according to the ages of their children for a "buzz" session. Problems that arise in these different age groups were discussed.

Moderator for the under-5 age group was Mrs. L. Jerome Fink; for the 6 to 10 age group, Mrs. Bruce Hubbard; 11 to 14 group, Mrs. Charles Rogers, and 15 to 19 group, Mrs. Gorman. The recorder from each group reported a brief summary to the club.

Questions derived from these group meetings will be discussed by Dr. Fink at the next meeting, to be held at the home of Mrs. John Q. Waddell on Cherokee Road.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Floyd Smith, Mrs. Donald Rath, Mrs. Carl Dahlgren and Mrs. Bartlett.

Mrs. Sink Hostess to PEO Chapter

Chapter CL, PEO Sisterhood, met Monday at the home of Mrs. W. Henry Sink on Avondale avenue. Mrs. George Putnam, program chairman, introduced the speaker of the day, Mrs. J. H. Underwood of Pleasant Ridge.

Mrs. Underwood reported on the Supreme Convention held recently in Indianapolis. Mrs. Thomas Gallant of Huron, Ohio, a non-resident member, was a guest.

Coming Events

Emerson School PTA will hold a roast beef dinner Thursday from 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. The dinner will be open to the public.

Ladies Aid of St. John's Lutheran Church will meet in the church parlors Thursday at 1 p.m.

The Friends Prayer Meeting will meet with Mrs. Mattie Jackson, 27 Miller street, Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Loyal Philathea class of first Baptist Church will hold a Halloween party at 8 p.m. Thursday.

The First Baptist Church Missionary meeting will be held Thursday with a dessert luncheon at noon. Mrs. Helen W. Gould will be guest speaker.

Delores Card Club of Ladies National League will meet with Mrs. Phil Orencia, 11 Center St., Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

"Bright girl, my Betsy!"

▶ I just can't get over the marvelous way my Betsy outsmarts her housework. Take wood floors for instance. I hear other wives complain about all the scrubbing and waxing they have to do. But not my Betsy! She cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. Why, she's through in half the time and fresh as a daisy! And our beautiful wood floors are always getting compliments. My Betsy and her Bruce Cleaning Wax sure make small work of a big job. I'm mighty proud of both of them.

▶ P.S. For lighter waxing on linoleum and wood, Betsy uses Bruce Floor Cleaner.

Girl Wants to Shed Steady Beau Painlessly

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I'm 15 and have been going steady over three months. I'd like to know how to break up with him. He tell everybody he likes me, but he doesn't act it.

"Some of my friends, my mother and I, too, think it's silly to go steady at my age.

"When I'm with my girl friends, they always talk and have fun with other boys, and I have to just sit and watch. He hasn't been over to my house in ages, and I feel left out of everything.

"The trouble is I can't make the same mistake I did last year. I went steady with a different boy then, and when I broke up with him everyone said I hurt him terribly.

"I just can't do that to anyone again. I still have a guilty conscience. So please help me. What should I do?"

Answer: You still like the boy. And you'd like to go steady with him, too—if he'd only put his heart into it.

What has you down at the moment is the feeling that you're left out of everything. You're just not having any fun of any kind. And all because you promised to go only with a boy who doesn't come around any more.

One thing you can do is revise your thinking on the subject of going steady. It doesn't lock you up in a cage, you know. You can speak to other boys; you can dance with other boys; you can tease and have fun with other boys when you're with your girl friends or at parties or around school.

You don't have to surround yourself with the bars of a cage just because there's one boy you happen to like best.

Get that point over to yourself, and you won't go on sitting and watching where there's casual, light-hearted fun to be had with boys.

Another thing you can do is throw out a few hooks to drag in your absent boy friend. Maybe he hasn't been around lately because you haven't invited him over. He's busy now with school and his many activities, and needs to be encouraged to find the time to come over.

Call him up and remind him that it's seemed like ages, and toss him a specific invitation. Nothing elaborate, just something easy and simple so you can have a chance to talk.

He might confess that he's sorry but he hasn't time for a steady girl any more. Don't try to convince him differently.

Let him get away with it. Let him break up with you! Then you won't have anything on your conscience.

Husband's Manners Criticized

Woman Considers Other Men Rude in New Home Town

By EMILY POST

"I cannot become accustomed to the rudeness of the men in this town to which we have moved lately. I like the women very much indeed but their husbands seem to be utterly lacking in good manners.

"My husband, on the other hand, has very nice manners. I have heard indirectly that people here are criticizing my husband and saying he's effeminate because he rises when a lady enters the room and because he holds a chair for a lady.

"In this instance, must he lose his natural courtesy and become unkempt and uncouth in order that he will not be misunderstood?"

Answer: Not unless his manners are in some degree mincing or exaggerated. In other words, I do not think that any man of simple dignity and courtesy could ever be misunderstood.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My employer's father has just died and I am wondering what I may do about sending flowers. I didn't know the father, but I've been in my employer's office for many years and would like to show some feeling."

Answer: There should be no impropriety in your sending flowers to the funeral. If this is beyond your means, then express your sympathy to your employer and ask if there is anything you can do.

Since quite likely he will not be in the office for several days, you may have to write this expression of condolence in a note addressed to his house.

"Dear Mrs. Post: What is the best shape for a table used at a family anniversary dinner consisting of perhaps 30? The family thinks it will be more intimate if everyone is seated at one table rather than to sit a individual smaller tables."

Answer: I agree with the family, and one long table that is especially narrow, permitting those opposite to talk, would be best.

Cakes and pies go on picnics and parties with ease, if they're baked in pans that have sliding or snap-on tops. One pie tin on the market has another to snap on the top. Use it either way.

Mary Louise Oakley became the bride of Engel A. Groenberg Saturday evening in the First Presbyterian Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bowen Oakley of West Walton boulevard, and Mr. and Mrs. Engel Groenberg of Ward road are the parents of the bridegroom.

MRS. ENGEL A. GROENBERG

Mary Louise Oakley Wed in Presbyterian Service

Before an altar banked with arrangements of white chrysanthemums and palms Mary Louise Oakley became the bride of Engel A. Groenberg Saturday evening in First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. William Marbach read the 7 o'clock double-ring ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bowen Oakley of West Walton boulevard. Mr. and Mrs. Engel Groenberg of Ward road are parents of the bridegroom.

A gown of French imported Chantilly lace fashioned with a fitted bodice and featuring a bateau neckline was worn by the bride. A full pleated flounce of nylon net on the bottom of the gown blended into a chapel-length train.

* * *

A band of Chantilly lace trimmed with seed pearls secured her fingertip veil of illusion. She carried an arrangement of Phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

GOWNED IN VELVET

Sherrill Lyon was maid of honor. Carol Lee Munrow, Pat Parker and Barbara Sue Oakley were the bride's other attendants. Their floor-length gowns of red velvet were accented by flares of red net at the bottom.

They wore matching velvet headpieces with circular veils, and roses and chrysanthemums on white fan-shaped plumes.

A gown of white velvet accented by a red velvet sash and matching headpiece was worn by Heather Sue Lockhart for her duties as flower girl. Danny Pemell served as ringbearer.

Richard C. Kistner performed the duties of best man. Seating the guests were Tom Gunther, Irwin Scherbing, Roy Linn, Robert Groenberg, brother of the bridegroom, and John Oakley, brother of the bride.

When Mrs. Oakley received her guests at the reception held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony, she was wearing a peacock blue sheath dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids.

CHOOSES ICE BLUE

Mrs. Groenberg chose an ice blue brocade dress with matching accessories. She also wore a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids.

For their honeymoon trip to Canada, the bride wore a white sheath dress with black accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended Michigan State University and Michigan State Normal College. The bridegroom attended Michigan State Normal College and is presently serving in the U. S. Army, stationed at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.

Children Sense, Resent Indecision

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

The letter from Mrs. Reed's sister-in-law came a week ago.

It rejoiced that Mama's broken leg was mending nicely. Then it suggested that its rejoicing writer badly needed a rest. Mrs. Reed's sister-in-law said that nursing Mama had worn her out and "so, as soon as she can travel, we'll send her on to you. I know that as Jim's wife you'll want to help in this family problem . . ."

* * *

Today in the supermarket Mrs. Reed's 4-year-old daughter put on a performance of attention-demanding behavior that embarrassed her terribly.

Karen seemed absolutely determined not to let her talk meat with the butcher. Instead of waiting until she'd reached the cracker shelves, Karen kept rushing up to her mother with boxes of them to demand their immediate purchase.

She pushed at her mother with one of them so stubbornly that another irritated meat customer said, "Little girl, did anyone ever tell you that you have very bad manners?"

* * *

KAREN LEFT OUT

Ever since that letter came. Ever since what to feel about its news has pinned down most of Mrs. Reed's attention in indecision. Ever since hesitation between accepting and resenting her mother-in-law's prospective visit has absorbed so much of her attention that only little loose bits of it have been left for Karen.

* * *

A child's attention-demanding behavior usually asks for decision from us. Nearly always, it represents his awareness that we have temporarily lost our integrity and poise to worry and confusion over some problem.

It asks us to stop dithering on it. It demands that we decide what we feel and think about the problem, so that we can put conflict over it aside—and become a whole, undivided person again.

We do not satisfy Karen by giving her more "love," more "interesting" activities — but by restoring the wholeness of our attention to her. We satisfy Karen, for example by deciding to accept or to object to her grandma's coming visit.

She is satisfied by our putting an end to battle within ourselves. Our young attention-demander has been fighting for the release of energies that our worry has kept frozen and immobilized for days.

GIVES A WARNING

All children have a fatal intuition for moral weakness in us. They are too dependent upon us to be at peace with the weakness of prolonged indecision.

MR. and MRS. RALPH GREEN

Ralph Green claimed Shelby Jean Cobb as his bride Saturday morning at St. Vincent de Paul Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cobb of Flint, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green of Raeburn street. The couple will reside in Flint.

Shelby Jean Cobb Wears Lace Gown for Wedding

In an 11 o'clock Nuptial Mass Saturday morning at St. Vincent de Paul Church, Shelby Jean Cobb became the bride of Ralph Green.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cobb of Flint, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green of Raeburn street are parents of the bridegroom.

A floor-length gown of lace trimmed with rhinestones was worn by the bride. The very full skirt was accented by tiers of lace and netting.

A crown of seed pearls and rhinestones secured her fingertip veil of illusion, and she carried a trellis bouquet of roses.

* * *

OTHER ATTENDANTS

Marlene Green, Ardith Green, Mary Gillow and Mrs. Betty Lou Wilson were the bride's other attendants. Their gowns were fashioned like the honor attendant's in green, yellow, blue and peach, respectively. Each carried an arrangement of carnations in a shade matching her gown.

* * *

Glendel Hull performed the duties as best man and Martin Keller, J. C. Holman, Bill Deatrick and Wayne Wilson seated the guests.

A reception was held following the service at the League of Catholic Women.

For their honeymoon trip to Canada, the new Mrs. Green changed to a navy blue suit with white accessories.

* * *

Pontiac Cook Has Recipe in Magazine

Mrs. Ray Decker Scores Culinary Hit With Macaroni Dish

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Mrs. Raymond Decker was a pleased and surprised woman when a recipe of hers appeared in the November issue of a national magazine. We are printing the recipe here so that all our readers can use it. It is an old family recipe from Mr. Decker's mother.

Mrs. Decker has one child of her own, but takes care of a number of others. She enjoys planting and tending a big garden. Embroidery is one of her hobbies, while cooking is a favorite occupation.

MACARONI RAREBIT
By Mrs. Raymond Decker

3 quarts water
1 tablespoon salt
1 cup elbow macaroni
2 tablespoons melted butter
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
½ cup milk
½ teaspoon dry mustard
½ teaspoon salt
2 cups grated process cheese

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water for 10 minutes, or until tender. Drain well. Mix rest of ingredients together and pour over macaroni. Bake in a greased one-quart casserole in a 350-degree oven for 20 minutes. The top should be lightly browned. Serves 4.

Fall Jewelry Shows Gold, Topaz Colors

Two definite "looks" prevail in this season's jewelry fashions, the Jewelry Industry Council tells us: the golden look and the look of the very fine type of jewelry.

With autumn fashions taking on the tawny look of bronze, browns and rusts, jewelry goes right along with them and comes up with golden chains, especially in the bracelet department, and lots of topaz, amber and tortoise colors.

Guidance Clinic Work Is Explained

Child Psychologist Speaks to PTA at Lincoln Junior

Robert Wallaegher, child psychologist of the Oakland County Child Guidance Clinic, spoke on "Clinic Function and Teenage Behavior", when he addressed members of Lincoln Junior High PTA Tuesday evening.

Mr. Wallaegher told how the Child Guidance Clinics help individual children and their parents with their various problems without charge, and he said that Michigan is a leader in Child Guidance Clinics, having 17 in the state, with Oakland County among the first.

He assured his audience that what our boys and girls do has a reason and purpose in their different growing stages. While often times difficult to understand and cope with, it is essential that we be a "listening post" through this period.

He also stressed the importance of being understanding and on hand when needed.

Tom O'Brien, president of the 9B Chorus, announced the numbers the group sang. Robert L. Slusser directed the chorus.

Mrs. Myrven Kline served as program chairman for the evening and Mrs. Chester Myben was in charge of the social hour.

Convertible Gems

Much of the new platinum, diamond and colored gem jewelry follows an assymetric line and in most cases is notable for its convertibility. Twin diamond bracelets can be combined to make a necklace, a lovely clip can become a pendant for a necklace and other ideas which make your diamonds twice as wearable.

GOP Club Hears Mayor

County and state affairs of yesterday and today was the topic chosen by Howard Kelly, mayor of Royal Oak, when he spoke to the Pontiac Republican Women's Club Monday at the Adah Shelly Library.

He stressed the need for a new courthouse in a location where there will be ample free parking. He also discussed the problem of the declining water supply.

Harold Jacobs of the United Fund gave a short talk. He pointed out that kick-off berakfasts are sponsored by large local organizations and that no UF money is used for publicity purposes.

The group gave Mr. Jacobs a donation for the United Fund. Both speakers were introduced by Mrs. George Brown.

Mrs. Janette Bathum and Mary Chapman spoke on citizenship and taxation, followed by a round table discussion.

Mrs. John Boardman, Mrs. H. J. Powell, Mrs. George Shillaire and Daiseybelle Bendict were introduced as new members.

Mrs. Lynn Allen, president of Waterford Women's Republican Club, presided at the silver service arranged by Miss Chapman, Mrs. Margaret Daugherty and Mrs. Clarence Senger.

Psychiatric Aides Plan 4th Banquet

State Hospital Unit to Gather Friday in Church Hall

The Psychiatric Aide Association of Pontiac State Hospital will hold its fourth annual banquet Friday evening in the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church hall.

* * *

The association was founded in 1951 by a few interested attendants at Pontiac State Hospital. It's purpose is to promote better care for the mentally ill and to attempt to make the patient's life a little happier by procuring those extras which otherwise would not be available.

Key speaker at the dinner will be Doris Haid, director of aide research at Wayne University College of Nursing. Others will be Donald Royal, president of the Psychiatric Attendant Nurse Association of Michigan, and Lloyd Parr, legal adviser to the PANAM.

Other guests will include Mrs. Ruby Eargle, director of nursing at Pontiac State Hospital; Elizabeth Tiley, assistant director of nursing at PSH; Patricia Kiefer and Ruth Mathwig, instructors of the affiliate nurse training program at the hospital, and Mr. and Mrs. Bartlet Wager.

C. of C. Movie Seen at Meeting of Soroptimists

"People, Products and Progress-1975," a film sponsored by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, was shown to members of the Soroptimist International of Pontiac Monday evening. Ralph Norvell conducted a question and answer period following the movie.

* * *

Mrs. Arnold Hillerman presided at the meeting attended by 14 members. Mrs. Ruth Weber Parshall was a guest of the group.

A report on the coming money-making project was given by Mrs. Richard Paschke. She also announced her committees for the activity.

Shower Fetes Recent Bride

Mrs. Richard Guy, an Oct. 14 bride, was the honoree at a post-nuptial shower Saturday afternoon. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Lawrence Webber, Mrs. Raymond Elmy, Mrs. John Smith and Mrs. Robert Harrington.

Guests attending the shower were Mrs. Ernest Guy, Mrs. Frank Salerno, Mrs. Ronald Weber, Mrs. Edward Weber, Mrs. Ralph Shiel and Mrs. Arthur Kelley.

Others attending were Mrs. Charles Weber, Mrs. Lawrence Kestely, Mrs. James Cowley, Mary Lou Austin, Mrs. Luella McMahon and Mrs. Forrest Webb.

Pontiac Cook Has Recipe in Magazine

Mrs. Ray Decker Scores Culinary Hit With Macaroni Dish

Pontiac Press Home Editor

Mrs. Raymond Decker was a pleased and surprised woman when a recipe of hers appeared in the November issue of a national magazine. We are printing the recipe here so that all our readers can use it. It is an old family recipe from Mr. Decker's mother.

Mrs. Decker has one child of her own, but takes care of a number of others. She enjoys planting and tending a big garden. Embroidery is one of her hobbies, while cooking is a favorite occupation.

MACARONI RAREBIT
By Mrs. Raymond Decker

3 quarts water
1 tablespoon salt
1 cup elbow macaroni
2 tablespoons melted butter
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
½ cup milk
½ teaspoon dry mustard
½ teaspoon salt
2 cups grated process cheese

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water for 10 minutes, or until tender. Drain well. Mix rest of ingredients together and pour over macaroni. Bake in a greased one-quart casserole in a 350-degree oven for 20 minutes. The top should be lightly browned. Serves 4.

Fall Jewelry Shows Gold, Topaz Colors

Two definite "looks" prevail in this season's jewelry fashions, the Jewelry Industry Council tells us: the golden look and the look of the very fine type of jewelry.

With autumn fashions taking on the tawny look of bronze, browns and rusts, jewelry goes right along with them and comes up with golden chains, especially in the bracelet department, and lots of topaz, amber and tortoise colors.

CASUAL ELEGANCE

. . . describes the new line in coifs for winter.

Fluid waves in a variety of patterns are gracefully feminine, hair is short and off the neck but not tailored.

Lacy wisps blend in a pattern which is distinctly feminine.

You see it is difficult to describe this truly casual but elegant hair trend.

There is some modification of this new line for you . . . you will enjoy it at holiday time . . . with all its variations.

MR. and MRS. RALPH GREEN

Ralph Green claimed Shelby Jean Cobb as his bride Saturday morning at St. Vincent de Paul Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cobb of Flint, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green of Raeburn street. The couple will reside in Flint.

Shelby Jean Cobb Wears Lace Gown for Wedding

In an 11 o'clock Nuptial Mass Saturday morning at St. Vincent de Paul Church, Shelby Jean Cobb became the bride of Ralph Green.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cobb of Flint, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green of Raeburn street are parents of the bridegroom.

A floor-length gown of lace trimmed with rhinestones was worn by the bride. The very full skirt was accented by tiers of lace and netting.

A crown of seed pearls and rhinestones secured her fingertip veil of illusion, and she carried a trellis bouquet of roses.

* * *

OTHER ATTENDANTS

Marlene Green, Ardith Green, Mary Gillow and Mrs. Betty Lou Wilson were the bride's other attendants. Their gowns were fashioned like the honor attendant's in green, yellow, blue and peach, respectively. Each carried an arrangement of carnations in a shade matching her gown.

* * *

Glendel Hull performed the duties as best man and Martin Keller, J. C. Holman, Bill Deatrick and Wayne Wilson seated the guests.

A reception was held following the service at the League of Catholic Women.

For their honeymoon trip to Canada, the new Mrs. Green changed to a navy blue suit with white accessories.

* * *

Child Psychologist Speaks to PTA at Lincoln Junior

Robert Wallaegher, child psychologist of the Oakland County Child Guidance Clinic, spoke on "Clinic Function and Teenage Behavior", when he addressed members of Lincoln Junior High PTA Tuesday evening.

Mr. Wallaegher told how the Child Guidance Clinics help individual children and their parents with their various problems without charge, and he said that Michigan is a leader in Child Guidance Clinics, having 17 in the state, with Oakland County among the first.

He assured his audience that what our boys and girls do has a reason and purpose in their different growing stages. While often times difficult to understand and cope with, it is essential that we be a "listening post" through this period.

He also stressed the importance of being understanding and on hand when needed.

Tom O'Brien, president of the 9B Chorus, announced the numbers the group sang. Robert L. Slusser directed the chorus.

Mrs. Myrven Kline served as program chairman for the evening and Mrs. Chester Myben was in charge of the social hour.

Convertible Gems

Much of the new platinum, diamond and colored gem jewelry follows an assymetric line and in most cases is notable for its convertibility. Twin diamond bracelets can be combined to make a necklace, a lovely clip can become a pendant for a necklace and other ideas which make your diamonds twice as wearable.

GOP Club Hears Mayor

County and state affairs of yesterday and today was the topic chosen by Howard Kelly, mayor of Royal Oak, when he spoke to the Pontiac Republican Women's Club Monday at the Adah Shelly Library.

He stressed the need for a new courthouse in a location where there will be ample free parking. He also discussed the problem of the declining water supply.

Harold Jacobs of the United Fund gave a short talk. He pointed out that kick-off berakfasts are sponsored by large local organizations and that no UF money is used for publicity purposes.

The group gave Mr. Jacobs a donation for the United Fund. Both speakers were introduced by Mrs. George Brown.

Mrs. Janette Bathum and Mary Chapman spoke on citizenship and taxation, followed by a round table discussion.

Mrs. John Boardman, Mrs. H. J. Powell, Mrs. George Shillaire and Daiseybelle Bendict were introduced as new members.

Mrs. Lynn Allen, president of Waterford Women's Republican Club, presided at the silver service arranged by Miss Chapman, Mrs. Margaret Daugherty and Mrs. Clarence Senger.

Psychiatric Aides Plan 4th Banquet

State Hospital Unit to Gather Friday in Church Hall

The Psychiatric Aide Association of Pontiac State Hospital will hold its fourth annual banquet Friday evening in the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church hall.

* * *

The association was founded in 1951 by a few interested attendants at Pontiac State Hospital. It's purpose is to promote better care for the mentally ill and to attempt to make the patient's life a little happier by procuring those extras which otherwise would not be available.

Key speaker at the dinner will be Doris Haid, director of aide research at Wayne University College of Nursing. Others will be Donald Royal, president of the Psychiatric Attendant Nurse Association of Michigan, and Lloyd Parr, legal adviser to the PANAM.

Other guests will include Mrs. Ruby Eargle, director of nursing at Pontiac State Hospital; Elizabeth Tiley, assistant director of nursing at PSH; Patricia Kiefer and Ruth Mathwig, instructors of the affiliate nurse training program at the hospital, and Mr. and Mrs. Bartlet Wager.

C. of C. Movie Seen at Meeting of Soroptimists

"People, Products and Progress-1975," a film sponsored by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, was shown to members of the Soroptimist International of Pontiac Monday evening. Ralph Norvell conducted a question and answer period following the movie.

* * *

Mrs. Arnold Hillerman presided at the meeting attended by 14 members. Mrs. Ruth Weber Parshall was a guest of the group.

A report on the coming money-making project was given by Mrs. Richard Paschke. She also announced her committees for the activity.

Shower Fetes Recent Bride

Mrs. Richard Guy, an Oct. 14 bride, was the honoree at a post-nuptial shower Saturday afternoon. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Lawrence Webber, Mrs. Raymond Elmy, Mrs. John Smith and Mrs. Robert Harrington.

Guests attending the shower were Mrs. Ernest Guy, Mrs. Frank Salerno, Mrs. Ronald Weber, Mrs. Edward Weber, Mrs. Ralph Shiel and Mrs. Arthur Kelley.

Others attending were Mrs. Charles Weber, Mrs. Lawrence Kestely, Mrs. James Cowley, Mary Lou Austin, Mrs. Luella McMahon and Mrs. Forrest Webb.

AFL Newsprint Chief Blasts Upped Prices

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—The President of the International Brotherhood of Paper Makers AFL declared today the only reason for the increases in the price of newsprint is that newsprint manufacturers "know they can get more for it.

"This, after all the nonsense about costs, is the only reason why any price is raised," Paul L. Phillips said in a statement.

The paper makers union claims to represent 75,000 workers in 33 states and six Canadian provinces.

Phillips said "it has become a popular notion that, when workers in any industry secure improvements in their wages, there must be a corresponding increase in the price of the goods they make."

"This is utter nonsense, particularly in the newsprint industry, and the manufacturers and publishers know it," Phillips declared.

"What he — Bowater — should have said, and what he undoubtedly was thinking, is that the companies are going to charge more for newsprint because they know they can get more."

Phillips expressed concern that small publications might be driven out of business.

When the Mayflower brought the Pilgrims to America, there were 20 ships of that name under British registry.

Unpronounceable Stuff Causes Briton Trouble

LONDON (AP)— Unless a certain British government official can pronounce hydrazinocarbonylmethyltrimethylammonium chloride — which seems unlikely—he's in for trouble.

* * *

The official is Peter Thorneycroft, president of the Board of Trade, who recently jumped the duty on hydra, etc. from 10 to 33 per cent. Capt. Richard A. Pilkington, a conservative member of Parliament, wants to know why.

Pilkington, going through the usual channels, has filed a question on the matter for Thorneycroft to answer on the floor of the House of Commons. The question comes up a week from Thursday.

FUGITIVE CHARM

Pilkington told newsmen he wasn't especially curious about hydra, etc. himself. Some of his constituents use the stuff and asked him to ask Thorneycroft about it.

"I can't pronounce it," said Pilkington. "I don't even know what it is. There's a fugitive sort of charm about it, whatever it may be, and it will be an interesting experience hearing the president say it out loud."

A London industrial chemist didn't have much luck clearing up the mystery. He commented:

"What's all the fuss about? Hydra-what-do-you-call-it is simply an analytical reagent used for the separation of ketonic compounds and in A. G. steroids."

* * *

The ketonic compounds are an elusive group of highly volatile liquid hydrocarbons. It was beginning to sound as if the whole thing might have to do with plastics and other such important products of organic chemistry. But come Thursday week Thorneycroft may have dug up a different set of answers.

More than one-half of all tobacco products manufactured in the U. S. come from North Carolina.

'Tis Soone Thee Time for Ye Fowl Reckoning

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — This is the season when vicious things are happening to the turkey.

He is being coddled and gorged with granular delicacies, flattered unmercifully with unexpected attentions and treated, in all ways, solicitously. Also temporarily. Tomorrow comes the fowl reckoning.

This used to trouble me, as a child. "Poor little turkely-wurkely," or something of the sort, I used to say when our particular bird — laden with chestnuts, and oysters propping up his back — would reach the table.

It took some persuasion, I'm told, to get me to eat. I always succumbed, sooner or later, for a simple callous reason . . . my taste for turkey slimly surpassed my distaste for murder.

That was in my youth. As I grew older, I put away my childish ethics, and pin feathers no longer pricked my concience. The Pilgrims were good folk and true, I rationalized, and if they started this business of thanking God by eating his smaller creations, why should a not-so-good-and-true child of the city declare independence?

Now, having consumed turkey for at least Thirty Thursdays, I discover that there is a big dispute going as to whether or not the turkey was served to the grateful crew at that first Thanksgiving feast. Some source books claim yea, but others maintain "that strange long-legged fowle, the turkey" was present — but not consumed—at the party.

The "official menu," as historians list it, included only roast duck, venison pie and a suckling pig in the usual pig pose, with apple betwixt teeth.

It is definite, say the history books, that on the original Thanksgiving Day in the harvest season of 1621, there was no pumpkin pie or cranberry sauce, because the only sweetening agent the Pilgrims had was their own gentle dispositions (if such was the case) and the pure maple syrup tapped from neighborhood trees.

WEE DRAPPE OF WINE

There was no butter, cheese or biscuits either — and of course, no milk for the kids. The handy substitute was brandy and schnapps and, some experts report, a right smart supply of white wine imported on the Mayflower.

This is believed to have had some bearing on the fact that the celebration lasted for three days.

Well, to give you an example — a friendly Indian named Massadeit was invited to attend the first Thanksgiving feast and he arrived with reportedly 90 of his friends. That's the kind of party it was, open and free and easy to crash.

The Pilgrim ladies didn't have to work so hard as mother. Sure, they had to turn out hasty puddings made from cranberries, flour and molasses; and they had to serve limitless Indians. But at the end of the tri-day feast, there were few utensils to dry. They didn't have forks in those days, and everyone more or less ate off his gray muslin lap with his dexterous fingers.

* * *

It is probably just as well that, in my youth, I didn't know all this about the first Thanksgiving dinner. For not only would I have declined to dry dishes . . . I likely would have brought a turkely-workely to the table, and sneaked him a spot of brandy so we could both get a little tippily-dippily together.

Gotham Dust Diminishes

NEW YORK (INS)—The New York Cty Department of Air Pollution Control says the big town is bothered by less soot each year. The department said that in 1944 an average of 162 tons of soot a month fell in each square mile of the city compared to nearly 62 tons in 1954.

37 Rockets Zoom Into Ionisphere Next October

FORT CHURCHILL, Man. (INS) — Thirty-seven rockets will be launched starting next October near this military base, jointly operated by the United States and Canada.

The location is in the barren wastes of northern Manitoba about 670 miles north of the Minnesota border. The rockets, with warheads packed with scientific instruments, are designed to go up 200 miles in efforts to learn secrets of the cosmos. This area is in the center of maximum intenity for the Aurora Borealis.

Similar rocket firings will take place at White Sands, N. M., as part of studies undertaken for the International Geophysical year.

At the moment a rocket is fired in Manitoba, other rockets will be fired in such countries as France, Austria and Russia. Information eventually will be correlated and studied by scientific groups.

The Churchill project will be carried out by the U. S. Air Force and Navy. The launching site is 12 miles east of Ft. Churchill. Instruments contained in the warheads will transmit information during the flight to ground receivers. The projectiles will fall to earth 20 to 30 miles away.

Four test rockets will be fired next fall. The first recording rocket will be launched July 4, 1957.

Cop Caught as Robber

BALDWIN, N. Y. (INS)—Nassau County Highway Patrolman David L. Carpenter was arrested Monday for allegedly committing an $11.30 burglary. Police said he had confessed to four other burglaries which netted him $141.30.

The Mouse Who Attacked the Cat—

Turn about is always appealing. When something small wins out over something great—David over Goliath, the mouse that turned on the cat, the little man who beats the big man; in short, triumph over seemingly impossible circumstances.

So it is with insurance. The premium routs the big bad ogre of financial loss.

The blow of a large liability verdict—a home demolished by wind or levelled by fire, valuable property stolen—all events of giant importance to the individuals concerned—can be deflected from causing financial loss by that small, but all powerful insurance premium!

Hal Boyle Says:

Man Dedicates Life to Plink-Free Pianos

CLEARFIELD, Pa. (AP)—Al Rockwell lets others worry about international discord. But he can work himself up to a real pitch over the fact most of America's pianos are out of tune.

He is afriad we are rearing a generation of young piano players who won't know middle "C" from the sound of chipmunks scampering across a tin roof.

Rockwell, a professional musician for 35 years, has tuned more than 8,000 pianos himself. Fearing piano tuning was becoming a dying craft, he started a school to teach this skill 10 years ago. It is one of fewer than a dozen piano tuning schools in the country.

* * *

"A piano is the most expensive piece of furniture in most homes," he pointed out. "If something goes wrong with the television set, a repair man is called immediately. But if the piano is a little out of tune—oh, well, it's not worth bothering about."

This chronic apathy keeps Rockwell in a perpetual lather. He is launched on a one-man crusade to create a world in which all pianos are not only tuned properly—but kept tuned. He even writes letters to the editor on the subject.

* * *

Rockwell first became interested in piano tuning—or, rather, the lack of it—while playing reed instruments with a traveling band at the age of 17. On theater circuits he ran into every type piano imaginable, most of them out of tune.

"When the band complained," he said, "the story was always the same: There was only one tuner in town, and he couldn't be found. The pianos went untuned year after year. They are probably still out of tune."

* * *

Rockwell said the situation is even worse in the average home. Parents start a child on piano lessons and the child gets all steamed up after a few sessions on his teacher's piano. But when he goes home to practice on his own old out-of-tune instrument he can't get the same results and loses interest. He quits taking lessons.

"This happens over and over," insisted Rockwell. "Parents think any old piano is good enough for a child to start on. They say that after they're sure the child is really interested in playing, they'll get a better piano or have the old one brought up to pitch. By then it may be too late. The child's musical ear may be completely ruined."

* * *

But Rockwell doesn't go along at all with many music store merchants who say half the nation's pianos are outworn and should be junked and replaced by new ones. He loves pianos as other people love children and has put hundreds of aged and neglected instruments back into playing condition.

"If the frame and plate are in good shape and the piano is all right mechanically, there's no piano that can't be tuned," he said. "For $25 or $30 an old piano can be turned into an instrument quite satisfactory for a child just starting to play. The families that own such pianos can afford to have them tuned, but they can't afford to buy new ones."

* * *

Students come from all over the country to attend Rockwell's school in this small mountain town. The course, based on a technical system developed by Oliver Faust, a German musician, takes six months. Rockwell has turned out some 300 graduates, but sees no end to the present shortage of competent trained piano tuners.

He isn't happy about the situation, and won't be so long as he thinks even one child is learning to pay on an out-of-tune piano.

"Only tone-deaf musicians can play tone-dead instruments," he said gloomily.

Teacher Gets Chance to Do Her Lessons

AMHERST, Mass. (AP)—For some time Mrs. Miriam Mitchell, the Amherst town nurse, has been conducting classes for expectant mothers.

* * *

At 2 a.m. yesterday she had an opportunity to put her suggestions to practice.

She was summoned at that hour to the home of Board of Health Agent Fred Sino to deliver a seven-pound son to Mrs. Sino. The infant, named Michael Francis, was born before the arrival of a doctor.

* * *

Mother and son were taken later to Cooley Dickinson hospital, Northampton. Their condition was described as good.

Conservation Department Plans Park Costs Poll

LANSING (AP)—The State Conservation Department plans to poll state park visitors on how they think the parks shoud be financed.

The department said that next year it will continue and extend a poll taken among park visitors last summer at Dodge Number Four, Bay City and Higgins Lake state parks.

About 85 per cent of the 525 persons who participated in last summer's poll favored financing the parks by charging users, the department said.

At 63,000 feet above sea level, blood will boil at body temperatures.

Pet Food Business Up

NEW YORK (INS) — Persians, poodles and parakeets are among the nation's pets whose owners are responsible for a 14 per cent rise in the production of cans for pet food. According to the American Can Company, the popularity of canned pet food has risen to the point where more than 621 million cans for this field were manufactured in the first six months of 1955.

Church Has Roof Corn Sown by Local Pigeons

CHICAGO (AP) — Pigeons atop the Gresham Methodist Church have a corn crop this year — they grew it themselves.

Rev. E. Lester said he discovered a corn stalk growing in a rain gutter near a pigeon's nest. He had only one explanation:

Kernels of corn carried to the nest by the pigeons were dropped into dirt in the gutter and grew.

New—Food in Tubes

NEW YORK (INS) — Americans may borrow another Old World custom — food in tubes — if a recent market test is any barometer of consumer acceptance. That is the opinion of Lester B. Platt, executive secretary of the Collapsible Tube Manufacturers Council, who says that spread-type foods in metal tubes, long popular in Europe, are gaining in popularity in this country.

Could the Girls Be Nice?

LONDON (INS)—American servicemen's wives in Britain think the main reason U. S. military men are taking English brides at an increasing rate is because they are at "the marrying age." The women voiced this opinion in response to a statement by an Air Force general that American servicemen are now marrying British girls at the rate of 250 a month.

First Annual Homecoming at Waterford This Weekend

Light Campaign Goes Over Top

Student Body Handles $25,000 Football Field Drive

By JANE WINDELER
Press Correspondent

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — The pledge drive for financing the $25,000.00 high school football field floodlights and fencing project has gone over the top and blueprints are now in the hands of the engineering firm of Johnson and Anderson, awaiting specifications.

The project was handled entirely by the student body. A student council committee inaugurated the pledge drive Aug. 25 although much planning had gone on before that and $1,361.47 in cash had been accumulated through various activities in past years. To date nearly $3,000 has been donated.

The drive gained impetus when home rooms began competing to see which could bring in the most pledges. Jean Rizer's group of sophomores averaged $104 and they will be honored at Saturday's homecoming festivities. Students of bus 24 took up daily collections but the riders on bus 31 held theirs back until they had more than $50 to contribute.

The bonds will be ready for issuance in about three weeks, according to Howard Bennetts, student council faculty advisor, but the manner in which they will be issued has not been decided.

With paying for the floodlights and fencing in mind, a first annual homecoming for the high school has been planned for this weekend. Friday's football game with Southfield at 3:30 p.m. will be the kick-off for the event.

SHOW TO CLIMAX

A bonfire program with pyrotechnician David Klinke's fireworks display and a snake dance, has been arranged for 7 p.m. by the Cheerleaders, Y-teens, Hi-Y, and the band.

A varsity show, at 8:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium, will climax the days' events. The faculty, seniors, juniors, sophomores, and alumni will take part, and a queen will be crowned.

Nominees who came out highest in the preliminary voting for the throne are Vicky Foley, Korrene Frizzle, Patty O'Brien, Nancy Winslow, Nancy Johnson, Carol Soules, Sandra White, and Genevieve Dovre.

Closing the program will be the homecoming dance Saturday, from 9 to 12 p.m. A nine-piece University of Michigan band will furnish the music.

Waterford

The Gospel Fellowship Class of the Waterford Community Church will hold its regular meeting at 7:30 p.m. today at the home of Klein Powell.

The Pontiac Camp of Gideons and Auxiliary will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Husen at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

The Waterford Goodwill Club will meet for a 1 p.m. luncheon at the home of Mrs. Henri Buck Thursday, with Mrs. Percy King as co-hostess.

Your PTA Is Planning:

Previews of Progress Thursday at Waterford

WATERFORD — The Waterford PTA is presenting "Previews of Progress," dramatic, non-technical science show sponsored by General Motors Corp., at 8 p.m. Thursday, at Waterford Village School.

Purpose of the presentation is to portray the story of progress through engineering and science.

Jet propulsion, according to Donald Gordon, who will narrate, is more than 2,000 years old. To prove this statement, he will present a replica of Hero's aeolipile, from about 200 B.C., which was the world's first known jet engine.

Four Towns

The PTA executive board of Four Towns School is meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Garretson of Bayview at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 2.

Four Towns School will hold its annual Halloween costume party this year as usual on Monday, Oct. 31. Refreshments will be served and movies will be taken of the children.

Waterford Township

Dr. L. Jerome Fink spoke on "Modern Concepts of Psychiatry" at the Thursday meeting of the Donelson School PTA.

Other business at the meeting included the signing of letters to State Senator William S. Broomfield and State Representive Fred R. Beardslee, urging them to work for the adoption of new traffic safety points being introduced in the next state session.

Mrs. William Thomas Jr., and Mrs. M. M. Jacober were elected to the nominating committee for next year's officers.

Rochester

The annual membership drive of the Harrison-Central School PTA has been announced by Chairman Mrs. Laird B. Spencer. Pupils from kindergarten through the 12th grades have been given blank membership cards to take home to parents.

Winifred Wilson is chairman of the distribution and collection. Mrs. Spencer stressed that not only parents but any persons interested in the PTA and welfare of children are eligible to join.

* * *

Ninety new members were signed up on the first fall meeting. Mrs. Norman Deunk is the co-chairman of the drive.

Lakeville

The Lakeville PTA plans two Halloween parties Monday at the school. A masquerade party for kindergarten through second grade will be held in the afternoon. The mothers and pre-school children are invited to attend.

For the upper grades the masquerade will be held from 7 to 9:30 p.m., with parents and all children of the community invited. Games will be played and refreshments served at both parties by mothers.

* * *

Prizes will be given for the best costumes.

Milford Seeks Parking Space

Still Planning to Buy Off-Street Property to Ease Situation

MILFORD — After Monday night's council meeting, definite plans are now under way to acquire property for off-street parking in Milford.

* * *

Up until now, only proposed suggestions have been considered by the council, and submitted by a group representing the Chamber of Commerce.

Within the next couple of weeks, the plans will enter into the final stages for action, subject to approval of the Michigan Finance committee, according to president Bartlett Smith.

The proposed plan is for the Chamber of Commerce to purchase the Chet Arms property, remove the buildings then the village would buy the land, and install parking meters to cover cost of the project.

* * *

The Chamber of Commerce would blacktop and light the area and the Oakland County Bank has indicated that they would finance the village on a ten-year basis.

PLAN TO BUILD

Elaborate plans were presented to the council regarding the proposed Compass Realty development on General Motors and S. Milford road.

* * *

The company wants the village to re-zone ten acres of its land so that they may develop a large shopping center in that area. The company recently acquired 316 acres of land from the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, and plan to build several hundred new homes on the site.

* * *

Joe Gerrard, local ice cream maker, would like the village to re-zone part of his property on E. Huron street, and Perry Orvis has asked that his land on Atlantic be zoned commercial, so that they may guild garages to house their oversize equipment.

A committee headed by Dick Arms is working on an overall study of re-zoning the entire village and a report is expected by the next regular council meeting. Ralph Hewitt and Vern Rounds are assisting Arms.

* * *

Council members decided to publish legal notice to amend the zoning ordinance for the Compass Realty land, and Nov. 14 is the date set for protesters meeting. Several residents in that area were present at Monday night's meeting to object to the change.

Ike Invites Reds to Match Efforts

Conciliatory Moves May Bring Peace to World, Suggests Eisenhower

DENVER (AP) — President Eisenhower today invited Soviet Russia to match American conciliatory efforts at Geneva and lay the groundwork for the peace and progress "for which the whole world longs."

* * *

If the "new spirit" evidenced at the summit conference at Geneva three months ago is real, Eisenhower said, the foreign ministers will seek solutions for the reunification of Germany and clear away other barriers to peace at the four-power conference opening tomorrow.

"The world hopes," the President said, that the conference he attended at Geneva did, in fact, create a "new spirit" which will make possible future solutions of world problems.

The President also conferred yesterday with Secretary of the Interior McKay and Sherman Adams, the President's chief deputy.

In the Adams conference, the President accepted the resignation of J. Hayden Alldredge, veteran member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, effective Oct. 31.

* * *

And, he received a recommendation from Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey for the appointment of Russell C. Harrington of Providence, R. I., as commissioner of internal revenue. Harrington's appointment, succeeding T. Coleman Andrews, resigned, is expected shortly.

Slate Dessert Luncheon

KEEGO HARBOR—The Keego-Cass Women's Club will have a dessert luncheon and card party at 1 p.m. Thursday at the Club House, 2012 Cass Lake Rd. Mrs. Fred Laffery and Mrs. John Bechill will be hostesses.

The U.S. shrimp industry employs about 15,000 fishermen and another 15,000 people in shore establishments.

Ask Governor's Approval for Social Security Vote

Sanction of a vote by Pontiac municipal employes on whether they want to come under federal social security will be sought from Governor Williams.

At last night's meeting, the City Commission agreed to request the governor to authorize the city pension board to hold an election among employes.

Should the governor grant the authority, which is expected, the employes will cast ballots on whether they want the city pension system tied in with the social security program.

City Manager Walter K. Willman pointed out that if the employes vote in favor of the change, it will still be up to Pontiac citizens to approve the move.

The charter provides that any change in the pension plan must be approved by the electorate. The matter could come up at the April election if the employes vote on it soon, Willman said.

Report 'Poor' Condition

Leela Johnston Myers, 56, of 2810 Shimmons RD. was reported in "poor" cnndition today at Pontiac General Hospital. Mrs. Myers suffered a frastured elbow and extensive injuries to wrist and jaw after driving her car off Giddings Road near Walton Boulevard, Sheriff's deputies said today.

MR. AND MRS. W ILLIAM MURPHY

Crittenden-Murphy Rites Performed in Walled Lake

WALLED LAKE — Carol Gay Crittenden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. McKibben, 3115 Massena, became the bride of William R. Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Greenthal, 1525 Canton, Pontiac, Saturday, in the Walled Lake Methodist Church.

* * *

For her wedding, Carol chose a gown of beige crystalette with rust inserts. Of ballerina length, the princess styled gown featured a hoop skirt. A matching head band held a face veil in place. The bouquet was a cascade arrangement of broom cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. William Lands served her cousin as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. David Demey and Mrs. John Widger.

Harry Alee was best man and seating the guests were Morley Leach and Arthur Hebda.

A reception was held in the church parlors. After a honeymoon to northern Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will reside in their new home at 4789 Chipman, Cass Lake.

City Now Preparing New Parking Plan

ones, with a three-hour time limit at five cents an hour.

Commissioner Floyd P. Miles (District 4), who helped negotiate the agreement with Mrs. Swisher, commented:

"It is important in that we acquire the land without a lawsuit. It will save the city from $10,000 to $15,000."

Willman said the suit might have tied up the program for two years.

Ewart added:

"The city will be able to sell all the bonds, but it won't necessarily have to. What difference is it if you pay rent or interest? The main thing is that we are in business."

Mayor William W. Donaldson (District 3) said the Swisher lot would be improved to municipal lot standards as soon as it was turned over to the city.

The first program had lots planned for the following locations:

Lafayette from Wayne west past Pine (160 spaces).

Mid-block between West Lawrence and West Pike south from the foot of Wayne (120).

West Lawrence west from the Grand Trunk Western Railroad and opening on West Pike (200).

Auburn just east of South Saginaw (80).

Willman indicated the general locations would be the same under the new plan.

5 Men Quizzed in Triple Killing

Still in Custody Despite Negative Results in Lie Detector Tests

CHICAGO (AP) — Five men were held for further questioning today in connection with the slaying of three schoolboys although lie detector tests have failed to link any of them to the triple killing.

None has been charged in the mystery to which police have been unable to find leads in more than a week of widespread investigation.

Detective Charles Fitzgerald said Charles Dahlquist, a 33-year-old golf caddy, was seized after a couple reported having seen him and the youngest of the slain boys, Anton Schuessler, 11, together last July.

Dahlquist had been given a lie test and released last week. A second lie test last night was inconclusive.

The bodies of Anton Schuessler; his 13-year-old brother John, and Robert Peterson, 14, were found in a forest preserve ditch northwest of the city limits Oct. 18. They had been beaten and strangled.

Ferndale to Vote on $6,500,000 School

FERNDALE — The Ferndale Board of Education has set Nov. 21 for a special election to raise $6,500,000 for a new high school.

* * *

The new high school, which would be the largest in South Oakland, and be situated at Pinecrest and Marshall would house approximately 2,800 students.

FALL FESTIVAL AT GALLOWAY LAKE—Women of Galloway Lake Methodist Church are sponsoring a festival and bazaar at the church Friday, in the first of what promises to be an annual event. Program includes the bazaar, to begin at 1 p. m. and dinner and music at 6:15 p. m. The speaker will be the Rev. Paul Havens of the First Methodist Church, Pontiac. Mrs. John Nunly, general chairman, is being assisted by the WSCS, while the Methodist Youth Fellowship is providing centerpieces and room decorations for the festival. Above, (left to right) Mrs. John Nunly, Mrs. Beecher Rossman and Mrs. James Clunk make preparations.

$750,000 Armory Needed, City Commission Told

Pontiac needs a $750,000 armory, not a $350,000 structure, the City Commission was told last night.

Capt. Carl G. Yarling, commander of the National Guard's 107th Ordnance Co. headquartered here, said the city needs a two-unit armory, which costs $750,000.

Two officers who appeared before the Commission last week, said a $350,000 armory was contemplated for the city.

Yarling added that he has been told by higher officials that the state is "ready and waiting for Pontiac to act" to help provide a new armory.

Asked by Mayor William W. Donaldson (District 3) if the city's purchase of the old armory on Water street would be sufficient as Pontiac's part in sharing the cost, Yarling replied:

"If the city can come up with some plan, then we can find out what the state will do."

He said cities usually pay one-quarter to one-third of the price of the land and building. The state and federal governments foot the rest of the bill.

City Manager Walter K. Willman said he was awaiting word from National Guard headquarters in Lansing about the armory.

He requested information after the two other Guard officers appeared las week. He had not yet received a reply, he told Yarling.

Road Employe Struck by Car

ROMEO — A Macomb County Road Commission employe is in "critical" condition in St. Joseph Hospital, Mt. Clemens after being struck by a car yesterday morning.

Harry Schocke, 60, of 211 W. St. Clair, Almont, is suffering from multiple fractures of both legs and possible internal injuries.

He was working on patches of pavement on VanDyke near 31 Mile Road when the accident happened. As he was pouring loose gravel into tarred tracks, he was struck by a car driven by Joseph Bertroche, 37, of Detroit. The impact carried Schocke 45 feet, pinning him between the fender of the auto and the tar trailer parked on the pavement.

Bertroche was arrested for drunk driving. His passenger, Wilhemina Kranaskas, 42, of the same address in Detroit is also in Macomb County jail, Mt. Clemens charged with being drunk and disorderly.

* * *

Corp. Bernard Grace and trooper Robert Hutchins of the Romeo State Police post were the arresting officers.

Seven-Year-Old Hurt

Seven-year-old Dennis Lee Smith, of 695 Second St., struck by a car yesterday while playing in the street, was reported in "good" condition today in Pontiac General Hospital.

Witnesses said Dennis, playing on Third Street near Joslyn Avenue, ran into the path of a car driven by Bernadine Laturneau, 26, of 600 Third St. Hospital authorities said he suffered possible head injuries.

Thieves Enter Home

Thieves who broke into the home of Kenneth M. Denman at 194 N. Perry St. Monday night got away with articles valued at $57, Pontiac police said today. Taken were an electric shaver, a wrist watch, clothing and jewelry.

NCAA Lists Three as Athletic Code Culprits

CHICAGO (AP)—The NCAA's enforcement program encompassed the universities of St. Louis, Baylor and Wichita today, each being named violators of the organization's athletic code.

A one-year probation was handed to St. Louis by the 18-man council, the NCAA's policy-directing body. The lesser punitive measure of a reprimand was given to Wichita and Baylor.

The action was taken yesterday at the close of a three-day session.

The probation, placing St. Louis under surveillance, was for a violation in offering a prospective athlete financial aid in excess of that permitted by the rules of the Missouri Valley Conference and NCAA.

* * *

The reprimand, more or less a public slap on the wrist, was given Baylor for providing transportation to two prospective athletes on a campus visit.

* * *

At Waco, Tex., Dean Abner McCall of Baylor said that the athletes were Jerry Tubbs, now at Oklahoma, and Bobby Jack Keith, now at Texas A&M.

* * *

McCall said that the incidents occurred in 1953 and that the two visited Baylor and other colleges in Keith's auto.

* * *

"When they left, Baylor paid them 6 cents a mile transportation expenses one way," he said. "This money was provided from the Ex-Student's Assn. fund. According to the rules, 6 cents a mile was allowed for the transportation of athletes if the ex-students paid the money. . . but it was handed to the boys by a Baylor coach. That is the reason for the trouble."

Wichita's reprimand came on a violation of paying transportation costs of one prospective athlete to the campus.

In Wichita, the university statement said an "investigation disclosed the violation did occur two summers ago and the matter has been properly dealt with by the president and athletic director."

* * *

At St. Louis, Athletic Director Ed Hickey said the penalty resulted from the activities of an alumnus without knowledge of the university.

* * *

The athletes involved at St. Louis and Whichita were unidentified. The council said the athlete at St. Louis, a basketball player, no longer is a student there.

A probationary status leveled against the University of Miami effective Oct. 20, 1954, plus ineligibility for certain post-season and invitational events, was continued by the council until the group meets at the NCAA national convention in Los Angeles in January.

The NCAA "directed the committee on infractions to explore further with University of Miami authorities the cases of two individual athletes and the operation of a loan fund."

NCAA President Clarence P. (Pop) Houston of Tufts said that he is "confident that the university is determined to comply with NCAA requirements in all respects."

* * *

City College of New York, on probation for a year as the result of athletic "malpractices" growing out of the 1950 basketball scandals, was given a clean bill of health by the council.

* * *

Currently on probation are Oklahoma for two years and Cincinnati for one, effective last April 26. The council reported that 16 cases of violations still are pending for disposal, but the schools were not identified.

Worries About Depth

Brennan Calls Navy Squad 'Toughest Football Team' His Irish Will Face

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Notre Dame Coach Terry Brennan says Navy will be the "toughest football team" his Irish will face all year and his biggest worry is over Middie depth.

* * *

"I can't understand how we've been pegged a one-touchdown favorite over an undefeated team," said Brennan. "Personally, I think Navy should be the favorite and if nothing else the game should be even."

Navy has a 5-0 record and is ranked 4th in the AP poll. The Irish have won 4 of 5 games, losing to Michigan State, and is 9th in the poll.

* * *

"Our scouts tell us Navy hasn't changed its offense from last year but this team executes its plays better," Brennan said. "I'm sure this will be the toughest football team we'll face all year.

"There's no doubt about Navy's superior depth. They've been able to condition their reserves while piling up big scores in their games. We've had tough games and not much chance to test our reserves."

Brennan praised Navy's great quarterback, George Welsh, but could find no consolation in the fact that Notre Dame beat Purdue, a team spearheaded by another excellent passer, Len Dawson.

* * *

"You can't compare the two men because each works off a different attack," said Brennan. "Navy uses its flankers and throws from the split T while Purdue's passing is much like that used by the pros with a man up the middle."

Saturday's game will be dedicated to Knute Rockne, Notre Dame's famed coach who died in a plane crash in 1931. Asked if he would use the situation to fire up his team, Brennan said he "didn't have to."

"Navy's a good team," the Irish coach said. "It's an undefeated team. And our boys know it. They are in good spirits and will be up for the game without our having to create anything special."

* * *

Although the Irish coach is aware of the exploits of Welsh who has completed 40 passes in 61 attempts for 635 yards and 5 touchdowns, he didn't seem as worried about the Middle navigator as he was over Navy's all-around strength.

"They have a good team, with good balance, good throwing, good running and a lot of depth. That's a tough combination to beat," added Brennan.

West Virginia, Oklahoma Race for Offense Honors

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Using opposite means of transportation but getting maximum mileage out of both, air-minded West Virginia and ground-rushing Oklahoma apparently are on their way to one of college football's hottest races for total offense honors.

* * *

NCAA Service Bureau figures showed today that West Virginia, ranked seventh in this week's Associated Press poll, lead in total offense with 2,134 yards for an average of 426.8. In passing, the undefeated Mountaineers (5-0) head the list with a .607 percentage and 178.4 yards per game.

Oklahoma, moving up to the No. 2 spot in this weeks rankings, has a total offense mark of 1,980 yards for a 396.0 per-game average. The unbeaten Sooners (5-0) held a big margin in the rushing department with 1,582 yards for a 316.4 average. West Virginia ranks 10th in the ground - gaining department while Oklahoma failed to enter the top ten in passing.

Wisconsin and Illinois, the Big 10 offense leaders, remained immediately back of West Virginia and Oklahoma in total offense. Southern California and Navy moved up to fifth and sixth respectively (from tenth and ninth) while Boston College, Miami (Fla.) Michigan State and Iowa followed.

* * *

Wisconsin held down second spot in the passing department with a .591 mark while Army climbed to second in rushing with 394 yards last Saturday against Columbia for a seasons total of 1,460 and a 292.0 average.

The Mountaineers have outscored everyone else by a wide margin, 37.2 points a game to 32.6 by Army and 31.8 by Oklahoma.

Griffith Under Oxygen Tent; Still Critical

Messages Pour Into Hospital as Far Away as South Korea

WASHINGTON (AP) — Clark Griffith remained in critical condition today as "get well" messages poured in from as far away as South Korea.

* * *

The 85-year-old president of the Washington Senators baseball club was placed in an oxygen tent yesterday because of a lung congestion, Dr. George A. Resta, Griffith's physician, said this treatment will continue for several days.

* * *

Resta said Griffith still is in critical condition.

Among the messages from hundreds of well wishers was a cable from Syngman Rhee, President of the Republic of Korea. Tom Yawkey, owner of the Boston Red Sox, and Will Harridge, president of the American League. Rhee was once a neighbor of Griffith in Washington.

The Senators' president entered the hospital a week ago because of a neuritis condition. He suffered a stomach hemorrhage last Saturday.

Eastern Edges Lincoln Squad

Indians Tally in Third for 6-0 Junior High Victory at Wisner

Eastern Junior High School's football team mustered a 3rd-quarter scoring drive to defeat Lincoln, 6-0, in a hotly-contested Pontiac Junior High League game Tuesday afternoon at Wisner Stadium.

John Andrew's Indians marched 30 yards for a touchdown in the 3rd period following a pass interception to hand Lincoln its 1st loss of the season. It was Eastern's concluding contest, giving the Indians three wins and a single setback.

Billy Green inaugurated the drive with his interception on the Lincoln 30. Bill Hayward sprinted to the nine and passed to Dave Pointer on the three. Two plays later Hayward smashed over for the tally. Mike McClusky's plunge for the extra point was stopped.

Washington's Braves seek to increase their undefeated streak to 18 games today when they meet Wever on the Wisner turf at 4 p.m.

Hawks' 2-0 Victory Brings Tie for 2nd

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Chicago Black Hawks, who have held down the cellar in the National Hockey League for the last few years, were in a deadlock for second place today by virtue of a brilliant goal-tending job by Al Rollins.

Rollins, 29-year-old Toronto Maple Leaf castoff, scored his first shutout in two NHL seasons sparking a 2-0 victory for the Black Hawks over the Boston Bruins in the only league game last night in St. Louis. Rollins turned back 33 Boston shots while Terry Sawchuk, Boston goalie who was acquired from the Detroit Red Wings last year, received credit for 30 saves.

Bag Husky Red Fox

Two 15-year-old Walled Lake youths are proudly displaying a red fox tail as the result of a hunting adventure last weekend. The boys, Linwood Fine of 3159 Mandrake St. and Eli Cooper of 9265 Commerce Road, bagged a red fox last Saturday morning.

The husky animal, 3½ feet long, was shot off Wise Road in Wise Woods near Union Lake Road by both the youths.

Horsemen Make Garden Stakes Rich Paradise

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP) — "The approximately $300,000 Garden State Stakes for the class of the 2-year-old field Saturday is a horseman's race."

So says Eugen Mori, president of Garden State Park. He cites the way the purse money is collected, and the amount, to prove his point.

Garden State puts up $100,000, about one-third of the purse. The horsemen contribute the rest. All these figures are round since the exact value is difficult to determine until after the race.

Choice in Golf Match

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP)—A retired Air Force colonel, C. D. McAllister of Orlando, Fla., was the favorite today as second-round play began here in the 4th annual North and South Seniors golf championships.

Col. McAllister, 5-feet-5, and 60 years old, downed L. G. Beatty, the local favorite, 4 and 3 in yesterday's first round. McAllister shot 68 Monday to win the medal.

THE OTHER END — Ron Beagle grabs headlines at end for Navy, but the Midshipmen aren't exactly hurting on the other wing, where Earle Smith, above, also catches passes and turns in an excellent all-round job. Smith matriculated from Mobile, Ala.

Glory for Whitlock

Auburn 'Scrub' Sees Action 1st Time in Four Years, Scores Against Furman

AUBURN, Ala. (AP)—The college football career of Ronnie Whitlock of Lanett, Ala., was a brief one. It lasted two minutes.

But Ronnie got every ounce of glory there was in it. He spent four years of practice getting ready. But a man could go twice four years for the memories that the fifth-string senior center of Auburn took with him from Cliff Hare Stadium last Saturday, when Auburn beat Furman 52-0.

Ronnie had never had an Auburn game uniform on before. But Saturday was another day. For the Furman game, No. 57 in the orange of Auburn was Whitlock. If that meant only he'd watch the game from the bench, it was reward in part for the years of sticking with it.

So, Ronnie sat, and looked, and as futile Furman faded away in the closing minutes. Finally there came the call down the line: "Whitlock! Get in there."

* * *

Whitlock went. He'd waited four years for this. There was a touchdown, a kickoff, and here Furman was with the ball near its own goal.

The Furman Hurricanes were th kind of fighting folk who had to go down swinging. Jim Boyle, their quarterback, faded for one last pass. He threw into the left flat. Who should be waiting there but Whitlock!

* * *

That pass was his, at the 22-yard line, and goalward he went. Once he stumbled. The crowd gasped, but he got his feet back under him, and he raced into the end zone.

He snapped the ball, perfectly, for the extra point attempt; went back upfield for a final kickoff with the wonderful cheers ringing in his ears. A second later, it was all over—the scoring, the game, and the collegiate career of Ronnie Whitlock.

His place is on the practice field. He's a "scrub" who helps the rest of them get ready. He's part of Auburn's winning picture. But Saturday's game was his. He played. He scored. His touchdown was for Auburn.

Mountaineer Tackle 'Lineman of Week'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bruce Bosley, West Virginia tackle once described by his coach, Art Lewis, as "the man I'd most hate to meet in a dark alley," was selected today as the Associated Press lineman of the week.

Bosley, a 225-pound senior from Greenbank, W. Va., earned the award for his superlative play last Saturday that helped the 7th-ranked Mountaineers overpower an inspired Penn State aggregation 21-7.

Holman Faces Billy Smith in Tonight's TV Slugfest

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Big John Holman of Chicago will outweigh Boardwalk Billy Smith of Atlantic City, N. J., by about 25 pounds when the two ring veterans clash tonight in a nationally televised (ABC) fight over the 10-round route.

* * *

Holman, who has knocked out Cesar Brion and Ezzard Charles, will enter the ring at about 202 pounds and is an 8-5 favorite.

Smith, who built up a series of knockouts before he was stopped by Paul Andrews in Miami last December, hasn't fought since then but was the No. 1 challenger for the light-heavy crown at that time.

Boardwalk Billy has scored 33 knockouts and 58 victories in 88 fights.

Holman has been fighting nine years. He has won 27 of 39 fights with 16 knockouts.

The fight gets under way at 9 p.m. (EST). It will be judged on a point system: 10 points automatically go to the winner of each round and 9 or less to the loser.

Rocky Offered Lucrative Gate

Half Million Dollars Promised to Marciano for Bout in Italy

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)— Rocky Marciano has been offered a half a million dollars to defend his world heavyweight championship again Franco Cavicchi, the Italian titlist, at Bologna, Italy, next June.

The offer was made by Bologna Promoter Renato Torri through Tony Petronella, Rhode Island boxing commissioner and director of foreign affairs for the National Boxing Assn.

Petronella informed Marciano's manager, Al Weill, of the offer in Providence Monday night. Torri wrote Petronella the fight would be held in Bologna's Sports Stadium seating 120,000.

"I'd like to have them wire me back more specific details," Weill said. "It sounds interesting and we sure will give it consideration. But I'd like to have them make me a direct offer."

Tradition Never Arrived

Homecoming at U. of M. Sans Customary Queen

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Television viewers who happen to tune in the Iowa-Michigan football game Saturday may have a feeling that something's missing—particularly if they stick through the halftime entertainment.

The game, which will be shown in both color and black and white, is the highlight of Michigan's homecoming celebration. And there will be almost all the hoop-la usually associated with this gala college day—brilliant displays, ingenious decorations, colorful flowers and costumes.

Everything, that is, but a homecoming queen.

The lack of a queen won't be any surprise to the old grads in the expected crowd of 80,000. There never has been a queen at Michigan—at homecoming or any other time.

Somehow this standard college custom of picking the beauties just never reached Ann Arbor. By now most of the old grads would tell you there's an official ban. But they wouldn't be quite accurate.

"This is one thing that is even stronger than a written regulation," says Deborah Bacon, dean of women "it is an unwritten custom."

No girl represents the university in the "Miss Big Ten" competitions. The college yearbook's pages display not a single face of student royalty.

The main current objection seems to be that any queen contest would be followed by commercialism. In recent years any attempt by private groups to organize queen contests has been turned down on commercialism grounds by the council on student activities.

Are the Michigan girls worthy of being uncrowned queens?

Home viewers probably will get a chance to decide for themselves as the cameras swing through the football crowds. Of the 21,000 students at Michigan, almost half of them are women.

Crystal Gazers Guessed Right on UCLA Squad

Sanders' Bruins Remain Rose Bowl Favorite as Predicted Earlier

LOS ANGELES (AP) — This has been an unusually dizzy autumn for the football experts but thus far the crystal gazers have not had to revise their pre-season appraisal of the UCLA squad.

The Bruins have been a good, hard whacking exponent of the single wing attack as fashioned by their coach, Henry R. (Red) Sanders.

* * *

They are still the solid choice to go on to the Rose Bowl as the representative of the Pacific Coast Conference.

They might also go on to become a great football team, provided Sanders can further close a gap that exists between the first team front line and the reserves, a condition well-known from the outset and one that certainly contributed to the Bruins' lone setback by Maryland.

This isn't to say UCLA will remain unbeaten in conference play. California, Washington and then Southern California remain to be played.

* * *

UCLA will be favored over the first two. As for USC, the prospects now make this one a 50-50 battle and take your choice. A lot of folks like USC.

Southern Cal, however, isn't eligible for the Rose Bowl, having visited there last New Year's Day.

Sanders has a fine set of backs, including a most elusive tailback named Sam Brown, who this year has come along to make his nickname of "First Down" Brown make sense.

Also prominent is the fullback, Bob Davenport, who has gained his share of yards and points, but who is a tremendous blocker.

* * *

The UCLA ground game has been dominant but the alternate tailback for Brown, the well-publicized rookie Ronnie Knox, who is quite a passer, can hardly be overlooked—and certainly should not be forgotten from here on in.

As one observer expressed it, "UCLA can play just about as good as they want to, and win the same way." The Bruins will have further opportunities to prove this, especially on Nov. 19 against the Trojans of USC.

U.S. Team Needs Sweep to Capture Pentathlon

MACOLIN, Switzerland (AP)—The United States needed a sweep in the cross country run—final event on the five-day event—today to clinch the team title in the modern pentathlon world championships.

After moving up from seventh to fifth in the standings among the 17 competing nations yesterday by finishing a close second in the swimming event, the United States still is 1,060 points behind first-place Hungary. The Hungarians collected the swimming title with a total of 2,756 points—4 more than the U. S. team mustered.

Snead Admits Slowing Down After 20 Years

Sam to Limit Future Tourney Play as He Preps for Ryder Cup

PALM SPRINGS, Calif (AP)—"Ol' Folks" Sammy Snead, after two decades in the golfing limelight, admits he is slowing down and will limit his tournament appearances in the future.

The Slammer is getting ready to perform for the seventh time as a member of the United States Ryder Cup team against the British at the Thunderbird Country Club here Nov. 5-6.

Talking to his old friend, golf tutor Alec Morrison, who is on the arrangements committee for the cup matches, Snead said:

"Twenty years is a mighty long time to be buckin' the breaks and the competition in golf.

"It's like butting your head against a wall. Sooner or later something has to give."

This might be Snead's last competitive appearance in California. He has not played in the Los Angeles Open or other California events since he defeated Ben Hogan in a playoff for the L. A. crown in 1950.

"I can't say right now about the L. A. Open but I'm going to limit myself to a certain number of tournaments each year," Sam continued. "All through this year I played fairly good without setting the world on fire. Like always, I putted spasmodically but the rest of my shots were better. I shot a 69 during the Greenbrier Open, and putted real good."

Snead is presently eighth in the PGA money winning department this year and is the low scorer with an average of 70.09 strokes per round.

"The Thunderbird Course is new to me so I can't tell how I'll play there," he said of the layout which has been stretched out to 6,843 yards for the Ryder matches.

Snead said he expected the "siege guns," Harry Weetman of the Britishers, and Chick Harbert and Cary Middlecoff will be the long hitters. He didn't mention himself.

Slugging Ernie Banks Signs 1956 Cub Pact

CHICAGO (AP)—Ernie Banks, the Chicago Cubs' spectacular shortstop who set two home run records last season, signed his 1956 contract yesterday.

Banks hit 44 home runs, a new record for major league shortstops, and also set a new record with five home runs with the bases loaded in one season.

Terms were not announced but it was believed Banks signed for about $20,000.

Tatum Compares 1953 Terps With 1955 Edition, Says Current Undefeated Team Has More Depth

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—"This team has more depth," said Coach Jim Tatum today when asked to compare his currently No. 1 Maryland team with his 1953 national champions.

He might have added it's a lucky thing for him. For he has been plagued by an unusual number of injuries.

* * *

But Maryland has rolled along with victories over Missouri, UCLA, Baylor, Wake Forest, North Carolina and Syracuse. Remaining in the path of Maryland's third undefeated season in the past five are South Carolina, Louisiana State, Clemson and George Washington.

Tatum said the unbeaten 1953 squad can't be compared with this group because it played two platoon with "22 excellent football players, 11 on offense and 11 on defense."

* * *

But he inclines to favor the 1955 outfit.

"It doesn't have any breakaway runner like Chet Hanulak or Dick Nolan, but we had nothing in back of them either," he said. "This year, behind Ed Vereb and (sophomore) Jack Healy we have Dave Nusz and Howard Dare who are almost as good at least on offense.

* * *

"This year's second team also is better than two years ago."

While this year's backfield is not flashy except for quarterback Frank Tamburello, it moves steadily behind a line that is the fastest and as good as any Maryland has enjoyed.

* * *

One of the surprising features of Maryland's success is that it has been achieved without a real fullback. Tom Selep, a 195-pound letterman, was supposed to be it. But he turned up with a knee injury on the first day of practice that put him out for good.

Coach Tatum reached among a gang of halfbacks to pull out Fred Hamilton and Phil Perlo, both sophomores, and make them fullbacks. Hamilton weighs 169, Perlo 175.

Adversity Hits Chief Team Hard Blow

By H. GUY MOATS

"Trouble, trouble—boil and bubble."

The old classic line from Willie Shakespeare certainly fits the Pontiac High School football situation today.

It wasn't enough that at least a half dozen regular and "semi-regular" players were made wholly, or partially inoperative as result of injuries suffered in the Arthur Hill game here last Friday night.

Now illness has struck down the headman himself.

Suffering last week with a bad cold, Coach Ed Graybiel today was a patient in Pontiac General Hospital. He was described as being under treatment for a virus pneumonia attack. Graybiel tried to stick it out first of the week, but yesterday was consigned to the hospital for care.

Whether he gets out in time for Friday's game at Royal Oak was a matter of very questionable nature. But, in case the boss man can't make the date, aide Dean Wilson will handle the reins against the Acorns.

Wilson, discussing the situation last night, pointed out that not only has injury and illness taken their tolls, but the latest blow was the bugaboo of failure in studies.

Among those tripped up by the period report cards, yesterday, are four players, one of whom has been a big key figure all season.

Topping the list of those thrown for a loss by books is halfback Jimmy (Red) Taylor. Taylor is the speedy, hard running right half who has engineered some of the team's most spectacular gallops during the season.

Along with Taylor in the study trip-up are tackle Gary Thomas, who played most of the Arthur Hill game; guard Willie Amerson, a frequently-used alternate, and Bruce Waterfield, another guard.

Final word has also been given regarding Don Hardy, regular center, hurt in the last two games. He will not be available for Friday's tilt.

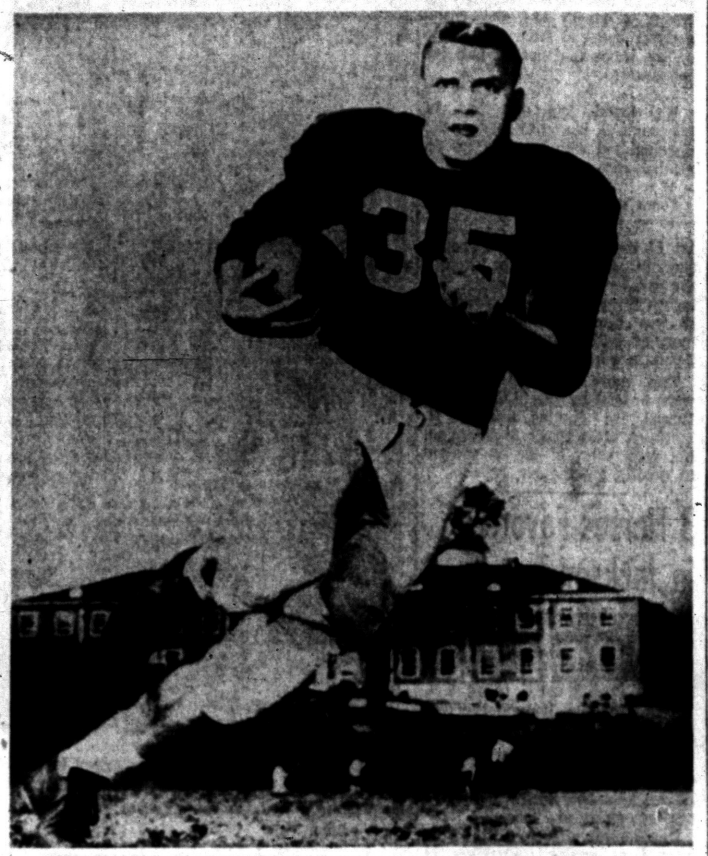
Karl Walker, big linebacker, is also out for the week. A leg injury has not healed.

Wilson said today he will shift Charley Robinson and Bob McDonald into Taylor's spot, and probably use Arnold Larson at fullback to spell limping Charley Spann.

On the bright side—if any—of the situation, is the return of Dick Kors, big lineman, to action. Also, the club will have the services of flashy Jim Shorter at safety and on punt runbacks.

Bob McCurry may get the pivot job, although Joe Hill, brought up from the Jayvees, will see plenty of action, too, Wilson says.

"I'm just hoping that nothing else happens," sighed Wilson today



ALL-AMERICA CANDIDATE — Joe Childress, six-foot, 190-pound Auburn fullback, was pinpointed today as the leading all-America candidate in the Southeastern Conference. He was named for top honors by a seven-man selection board for the SEC area.

Chemical May Be Means to Kill Lampreys

Federal Body Is Now Testing Efficacy of New Weapon

LANSING (AP) — An air of cautious optimism prevailed in the conservation department following the announcement of government scientists that they have almost perfected a chemical to destroy the sea lamprey, scourge of Great Lakes fishing.

Development of the chemical generated new hope for reviving commercial lake trout fishing along lakes Huron and Michigan and destroying the lamprey in Lake Superior before it wipes out commercial fishing there.

Until now, federal and state researchers have confined their hopes for lamprey control to costly electrical weirs built at the mouths of spawning streams.

The chemical experiments are being conducted at the U.S. Fish and Wildlife laboratory at Hammonds Bay North of Rogers City.

At this point, the scientists are testing one of seven chemicals found to kill spawning lamprey larvae without harming fish.

This sounds like an ideal solution, but there are several questions which must be answered before commercial fishermen can start unravelling their nets again.

The cost problem appears to be the most important facing researchers, at the moment. Only one company is producing the chemical now, a small New York laboratory which finds it costs $1,000 a pound.

Despite these difficulties, conservation department officials who have had a close look at the experiments are glowing with cheer.

"I think on the basis of what they've done there is a good chance of having the lamprey under control within two years," said M. J. DeBoer, fish hatchery supervisor.

Robinson's Injury Delays Title Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—The International Boxing Club figures it will take Sugar Ray Robinson, who suffered an ankle injury, a month to get back in shape for his title fight against middleweight champion Bobo Olson.

* * *

The IBC yesterday postponed the Chicago Stadium fight scheduled for Nov. 4 to Dec. 9 because of Sugar Ray's injury.

* * *

Robinson, the IBC said, sprained his ankle while training Sunday and tried to work out yesterday but couldn't because of the pain.

Connolly Wins Damage Suit

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A superior court jury has awarded Mrs. Maureen Connolly Brinker $95,000 in damages for leg injuries she claimed halted her amateur tennis career and ended her hopes for professional profits.

* * *

The 21-year-old former tennis queen, who won the U. S. women's crown when she was 16 and the Wimbledon championship the following year, had asked $265,000 for injuries she suffered when she was brushed from her horse by a concrete company truck July 20, 1954.

The attorney for the Pre-Mixed Concrete Co., owner of the truck, gave notice he would ask for a new trial and would appeal the judgment if the motion for a new trial was denied.

Rocky Marciano, ring champion, was born Sept. 1, 1924.

MRA Owners Vote to Sell Race Track

DETROIT (AP) — Stockholders of the Michigan Racing Assn. have voted to sell the Detroit Race Course in suburban Livonia for a reported 2¾ million dollars.

Under the agreement, the track would be bought by the Oxford Realt. Co. of Detroit and leased back to the racing association for $330,000 a year.

The deal involves a tax situation. It still must get the approval of the state racing commission.

MCC May Meet to Settle Feud

Group in 4-3 Standoff Advised to End Battle on Gabrielson Issue

LANSING (AP)—State conservation commission may hold a special meeting in the next two weeks in an attempt to settle the "Gabrielson issue," which has split it into two feuding factions for months.

A high-placed conservation department source said it was "highly likely" that the commission would meet to end the battle before its regularly scheduled meeting Nov. 9 and 10.

The commission has been split four-three on the issue of inviting Dr. Ira N. Gabrielson, former head of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, to make an evaluation of the department.

Gov. Williams stepped into the feud a week ago by advising the commission to authorize the study but hinting that it should hire someone besides Gabrielson.

Current speculation in the department is that the commission, unable to break the four - three deadlock, will compromise by inviting a board or group to make the evaluation. The group would probably include Gabrielson.

'Rescue' Party Livens Duck Hunting

By JACK PATTERSON

One of the most charming and persistent legends about ex-servicemen is that while they may have found their time is a bore and/or pain in the neck, they learned, to their permanent benefit, a fine sense of forehandedness. They learned to be prepared — to look smartly to small details, where the seeds of trouble live. Ah, so?

PATTERSON

We're sitting out in the bay the other day with a couple other heroes in one of Pop Hines' offshore bungalows. She's blowing up pretty good from the north and between coffee we take time out to splash a redhead now and then, and generally are living it up big.

A few hundred yards to leeward there's another blind containing three ex-navies and a former air force, all presumably real forehanded. When they're not sky-shooting they're blowing some kind of a New Year's Eve horn and scaring every duck out of the bay.

Well, our downwind lookout keeps us posted on their antics, for laughs, and by-and-by he notes that their boat seems to be out for a solo cruise. We take a look through the glasses and sure enough, there she goes.

* * *

There's a lot of arm and hat waving in the blind, now, and after a suitable interval of pretending not to see it, we call away a rescue party.

* * *

With Chuck Wood on the falls, Ross Thompson as engineer and the writer at the com (and also as standby on the oars) we set off through heavy seas and after considerable hardship effect a recovery.

Returning the boat to its roost we found attorneys Clarence Patterson (Navy), Edward Barrett (Navy), industrialist Robert Nelson (Navy) and automotive engineer Jack Pflug (Air Force). It seems they forgot to tie up the boat.

If we can find a good attorney we're going to put in a claim for salvage. These characters didn't even offer to buy us a glass of water after our stirring rescue.

The foregoing ought to prove our point. In case it doesn't we note that earlier the same day Barrett (forehandedly) let go the crank on the boatfall while it was taking a strain and the crank spun around and fetched him one on the chops that decked him for the count!

* * *

We found lots and lots of pheasants in Huron County on the opening and what looked like an all-time record number of hunters.

* * *

Spent the weekend in Alcona County with the rescue party trying to find some decent pat shooting for guests Don Welling and "Skeeter" Johnson from Grand Haven. Birds still very scarce around the place and even poaching on the neighbors didn't pay off.

* * *

In other areas, though, pat shooting is picking up. Duck shooting on the bay for the next week will be good to perfect, depending on how much the wind will stay out of the south. Pheasant shooting should continue to be good but from now on, of course, it's going to take a lot more work to get them. They wise up fast.

Highland Youth New Leader in Pheasant Derby

Bags 3-Pound, 6-Ounce Bird to Take Over by a Single Ounce

The 1955 "Big Pheasant Derby" sponsored by the Pontiac Press, has a new leader today. Top prize for the heaviest bird is a $50 United States Savings Bond.

A bird weighing 3-pounds, 6-ounces was brought in by Earl L. Donaldson, 18, of 147 Center Street, Highland, yesterday afternoon. Earl captured the lead by a one ounce margin over Tom Coomer, 17, of Ortonville who held 1st place for four days with a 3-pound, 5-ounce ringneck.

The new leader shot his bird off Grubb Road in Highland Township 1st of the week with a 12-gauge shotgun. It took one shot to down the rooster which measured 33½ inches from beak to tail feathers. It was Earl's 2nd bird of the morning, with the other going only 2-pounds, 9-ounces.

Two more 3-pound pheasants were bagged by Olson Jordan, 153 Russel St., Pontiac and L. H. McNabb, of 58 Parke St., Pontiac, but were short of the top weight to qualify for the big prize.

3 Horses Favored in Jackson Trot

JACKSON (AP)—Earl's Perpetual, Sonlie and Billy Davis will be likely favorites in a six-horse field entered in the BB-B Class trot, 7th race on the Jackson raceway program tonight.

Earl's Perpetual holds a victory in higher company this season, and Billy Davis and Sonlie both have won two starts at Jackson.

David Merry and Little Volo figured as strong contenders in the feature pace, the 8th race.

The meeting will end Saturday night, closing out the horse racing season in Michigan.

Travelers Return

Wild Geese Migration Near Peak at Miner's

One of the most interesting of late fall automobile trips, over a weekend, is a jaunt to the famed Jack Miner bird refuge at Kingston, Ont.

Reports today from a Pontiac man, who took his family on such a trip last weekend, indicate the arrival of the great flocks of aerial wanderers is near its peak. Each fall thousands of these great birds fly in from the far northern summer nesting areas, bound for southern wintering quarters.

The sight, Lloyd Whitlock, 671 First street, reported, "was something wonderful. Hundreds of the big birds came in while we were there. They'd wheel in against the wind, land just like big planes coming in to an airport."

Best time to see the geese, Witlock says, is from 4 p.m. on, to dusk. He said also that Mrs. Miner, widow of the great Canadian naturalist, told him the geese began to move in last of September, when a flock of 30 arrived on Sept. 30.

Kingston is about 125 miles, round trip, from Pontiac, Whitlock said.

Chisox Obtain Larry Doby in Deal for Busby

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP) — Slugger-hunting Frank Lane is gone, but the Chicago White Sox finally may have nabbed the cleanup batter they have long sought in outfielder Jim Busby for Doby in a straight player deal.

Doby, a long-ball swatter with a .291 average last season, was coveted by Lane long before the trade-minded general manager took his administrative talents to the St. Louis Cardinals.

* * *

Now the acquisiton of 30-year-old Doby must be credted to Sox Vice President Chuck Comiskey, whose feuding with Lane was supposed to have sent the general manager flying to the Cards.

* * *

This was the first White Sox-Indian deal since 1951 when Lane wheedled Minnie Minoso from the Tribe in a three-cornered deal involving the A's.

The Sox finished third in the American League race for the past four seasons. Conceding such problems as pitching and infield weaknesses, the big drag for the Sox was lack of a fence-buster.

* * *

Doby should be the cleanup man the Chi-Sox have missed since big Gus Zernial was traded away—in the same deal, incidentally, which obtained Minoso for Chicago.

Doby, with a lifetime major league battng mark of .286 in eight driving acro 75 run depite an ailing writ.

In New Orleans, Doby learned of the trade, and said: "I have enjoyed every year playing for Cleveland. It is a wonderful organization. I hope I can fill the bill for Chicago and I think I can."

The departure of Carrasquel, who batted .256 and drove across 52 runs last season, was no surprise. Once regarded as "another (Phil) Rizzuto," the man from Caracas, Venezuela, was a hot-and-cold player. Chico, 27, probably will be replaced by rookie Luis Aparacio from Memphis, although Jim Brideweser and hustling Carl Peterson wll push him.

* * *

Busby, who batted .239 last season, was twice employed by the White Sox. Lane traded him to Washington in what he termed ormtwedr yneWNM ne. ashr cm "one of the worst deals I ever made." He re-acquired him early last season to give the Sox defensive strength.

Youthful Ambition

16-Year-Old Clarkston High Senior Bags Moose on Alaskan Hunting Trip

A 16-year-old Clarkston High School senior has fulfilled a five year ambition, to bag a moose.

Ronald Roy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Roy of 10081 M15, Clarkston, arrived home early this month after a combined work-and-hunt three month summer vacation in Alaska. His trophies include the horns of an 1800-pound moose and two caribou.

Ronnie bagged the moose 137 miles north of Anchorage where he saw the huge creature near a river bed about 50 yards from where he stood. "In that same area I counted close to 35 moose. About five miles distant I pumped eight shots at a grizzly but missed him," Roy said.

For five years Ronald read every available outdoors magazine and dreamed about the day he could shoot a moose. This summer he decided the time had arrived. He packed up on July 3 along with a 10th grade Clarkston schoolmate, Jan Forton, and "put up the thumb." Destination was Alaska.

Various rides took Ronnie and Jan into Sweetgrass, Montana, and luck was with them when they were picked up by an Air Force man driving up the Alaskan Highway into Fairbanks. It took the pair only nine days to go from Clarkston to Fairbanks.

To earn spending money, both got jobs at a hunting and fishing resort on the Glenn Highway. Ronnie was accompanied by two residents of Anchorage on the hunting trips while Jan had to return home earlier than expected.

When asked how he felt hunting big game for the 1st time, the proud hunter said that he was "Pretty worried when he first heard the moose coming through the brush. I also learned that Alaska is one country where you can't go into the woods without taking a gun along."

Michigan Leads in Free Hunting

Magazine Survey Cites Forest Service as One Reason for Top Spot

Michigan so far ahead of most Midwestern states in maintaining free public hunting grounds, according to a survey in Field and Stream, which is celebrating its 60th anniversary with a special November issue.

Under the title "Is Public Hunting Doomed?" the magazine survey notes that one reason for Michigan's lead is that the U.S. Forest Service holds title to large acreages of old timberland that is being rehabilitated.

The state has nearly 7,000,000 acres of free hunting range, more than any other Midwestern state. There are 60 farmer-hunter cooperatives on 170,000 acres, but the plan has not progressed much in the last five years, the magazine says. It adds that maybe the pressure is off because the most thickly settled farming counties contain public game areas totaling 340,000 acres.

"If so, the $3,700,000 spent to buy those game areas has been well spent," the article says.

OL St. Mary	5	0	St. Michael	3	2
St. James	4	1	St. Rita	1	4
St. Clement	4	1	*St. Frederick	0	4
St. Benedict	3	2	*RO St. Mary	0	4

*Played tie game.

Last Week's Results—St. James 12, St. Michael 7; St. Clement 31, St. Frederick 7; OL St. Mary 39, RO St. Mary 6; St. Benedict 27, St. Rita 0.

If any Suburban Catholic League football team is capable of stopping Orchard Lake St. Mary's headlong rush to the 1955 championship, St. Benedict of Highland Park comes the nearest to fitting the role.

St. Benedict is the last major hurdle for the title-bound Eaglets. Although the high-scoring Orchard Lake machine will be favored in Sunday's encounter at Highland Park, the host squad could definitely be troublesome.

Parkers have been a hot-and-cold team this season. The Bens, curently in 3rd place, show a 4-2 overall record. They hold league victories over Royal Oak St. Mary, St. Frederick, and St. Rita, plus a non-league decision over Detroit St. Gregory.

On the other side of the ledger, they were soundly trounced by St. Clement of Center Line, 26-7, and edged by Ferndale St. James, 21-18.

Undefeated Eaglets have gone unchallenged thus far in their efforts to win the 1st SCL crown in St. Mary's history. Even against the Clements, their top competitor, they hung up an impressive 27-13 triumph.

Rev. John Rakoczy's gridders have amassed 147 points in five games for an average of four touchdowns per contest. They have yielded only 32 points. A victory over the Bens Sunday would assure the Eaglets of a tie and virtually hand them the title, since their other league foe is hapless St. Frederick.

St. Michael's up-and-down fortunes, which went down last Sunday when the Mikes bowed to St. James, have hopes of soaring again this Sunday. The Shamrocks will try to get back on the winning trail in their annual Dad's Day observance when they meet Hazel Park St. Rita at Wisner Stadium.

Last year's co-champs, the Ritas have suffered a letdown in 1955. They have won only one game in five attempts for a disappointing season. St. Mike, which also has not lived up to pre-season expectations, lists a 3-3 mark.

With their losing streak now extended to 22 games, St. Frederick's Rams journey to Ferndale Sunday to face St. James. The south siders will once again be underdogs against the able Dales who are making a surprising showing this fall.

Star halfback Dick Doyon continues to give standout performances in the Rams' losing causes. The converted end scored his 9th touchdown of the season last Sunday in the battle with St. Clement.

Royal Oak St. Mary's Irish will be hosts to the Clements in Sunday's remaining Suburban loop contest.

Elusive Victory

Hawks Try Third Time, This Week, to Trip 'M'

IOWA CITY (AP) — An injury-plagued Iowa football team will make an another attempt Saturday to do what it hasn't done since 1924—beat Michigan.

This will be the 3rd straight trip for Iowa to Ann Arbor and the Hawks still have bitter memories of what happened on the last two excursions. It was Michigan 14, Iowa 13 both times in games which the Iowans felt they should have won.

An Iowa victory Saturday, of course, would be a major upset. Michigan is riding high with five straight triumphs while Iowa has a mediocre 2-2-1 record.

The Hawks went West last week and took a 33-13 lacing from UCLA. Iowa outdowned the Bruins, 21-14, but costly errors and defensive lapses helped bring its downfall.

It isn't any secret that coach Forest Evashevski didn't do a great amount of pointing for UCLA. The game he really wants is the one with his alma mater Saturday.

"We've got to look good in that one," he joked recently, "because we'll be on national TV."

It isn't, of course, the TV which concerns Evy. He just wants to beat Michigan.

But whether the Hawks will be physically equipped to spring the upset is yet undetermined. In no other season has Iowa suffered such a rash of injuries.

Capt. Clavin Jones, one of the country's outstanding guards, didn't play against UCLA because of a knee injury. He could have gone part time but Evy wanted him ready for Michigan.

New injuries, however, cropped up against UCLA. End Jim Freeman got a back injury; halfback Eddie Vincent had more trouble with his knee and centers Don Suchy and Bill Van Buren were hurt.

Old Pass Master Graham Tops NFL Aerial Artists

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Otto Graham, the old pass master, continues to show the way in the National Football League's most important art—passing.

Graham has attempted 69 passes, completed 42 for 718 yards—an average of 10.41 yards per completion—and tossed three touchdown aerials. His percentage of completions is 60.9.

Latest NFL statistics disclose that Graham holds a comfortable edge on his closest competitor, Bobby Thomason of the Philadelphia Eagles. Thomason has an .31 yard average per pass 47 for 87 good for 723 yards and five touchdowns. His percentage of completion is 54.0. Y. A. Tittle of San Francisco ranks 3rd with 56 completed of 115 for 907 yards, a 7.89 average and six TDs.

Baltimore's Alan Ameche gained only 36 yards Sunday against Washington but the former Wisconsin ace still tops all of the league's ground gainers with 518 yards on 94 attempts for a 5.5 average. Green Bay's Howard Ferguson is 2nd with 367 yards on 75 attempts for a 4.9 average.

Other departmental leaders:

Billy Wilson, San Francisco, in pass receiving with 24 caught for 431 yards; Vic Janowicz in scoring, 43 points on four touchdowns, 12 conversions and two field goals; Norman Van Brocklin of Los Angeles in punting with a 46.3 average; Leon Riley of Detroit in returning punts on a 12.6 yard average; Bufford Long, New York, who now is in the army, in kickoff returns with a 38.7 norm, and Willard Sherman of Los Angeles, pass interceptors with eight.

Heavy Field in Newmarket Test

NEWMARKET, England (AP) — Forty horses, a near record field, were expected to start today in the 113th running of the historic Cambridgeshire Handicap Stakes on which the last Irish sweepstakes of the year is based.

Manati, owned by Englishman Robert Sharples, has been installed as the 8-1 favorite. The 3-year-old chestnut gelding by Nimbus out of Hot Spell will be carrying 118 pounds. His speed and stamina has carried him to three victories in four starts this year.

* * *

Turk's Blood and Novento, both 4-year-olds are second and third choices.

The only American-owned horse entered is Robert Sterling Clark's Ticonderoga from Upperville, Va. The 3-year-old bay colt is a long-shot and Trainer Joe Lawson decided to run him only after rain had taken its toll on the Newmarket turf.

There are about five million horseshoe players in the U. S.

Marion Wants 2 Hurlers, Outfielder Who Can Hit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"I'd like two pitchers and an outfielder who can hit."

That could be a quote from any of the 16 managers in major league baseball. But at the moment, it's Marty Marion of the Chicago White Sox talking.

With the majors' winter meetlings little more than a month away (Dec. 5 at Chicago), Marion not only has cast feelers for some pitching and hitting help, but also for some bench support.

Specifically, someone to spell veteran George Kell at third base and a backstop for backstop Sherm Lollar.

Marty didn't catalogue the players who are and who are not available for trades, except to make it plain outfielder Jim Rivera and second baseman Nellie Fox are in the untouchable Class.

Chico Carrasquel, the Sox veteran shortstop, is rumored on the block if needed for an attractive offer. The fact Marty has a fat book on a youngster named Luis Aparacio, who played short at Memphis last season, would seem to accredit the rumor.

Pitcher Billy Pierce, who topped the majors with a 1.97 ERA last season, also appears in the "not for sale" group. "I found out," says Marion, "Billy is strong enough to pitch every fourth day. And he will next season. He will be pitching more than anyone on our staff. He wants to pitch more. He's not as weak as everybody thinks he is."

Marty could be emphasizing he intends to keep Pierce. Or he could be giving the little lefthander a fresh coat of paint for the trade market.

Kramer Tries Again to Sign Aussie Pair

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Jack Kramer arrived here today to dangle his bag of gold personally under the noses of Lew Hoad and Ken Rosewall amid increasing hints that the two young Aussies may join his professional tour.

"If Kramer has a new offer, I'll give him a good hearing," said Hoad while waiting for the American money-man to put in an appearance. "I almost accepted his first offer."

Rose Bowl Path Isn't So Clear for MSU Squad

Need to Beat Badgers While 'M' Has to Drop 2 Conference Tilts

EAST LANSING (AP) — Suddenly, Michigan State finds itself within a long, long shot of Big Ten football and Rose Bowl honors.

"We thought last week was a crucial game," commented MSU coach Duffy Daugherty. "now we've got another one coming up."

Michigan State and Wisconsin are tied for 3rd in the conference with two Big Ten wins and one defeat behind undefeated Michigan and Ohio State.

The loser in Saturday's clash at Madison can just cash in the chips as far as any title dreams are concerned.

But the winner will have the uneasy right to sweat out the remainder of the season, hoping someone obliges by upsetting the leaders.

Michigan would have to lose two to put the Spartans in the Rose Bowl since the Wolves have a seven-game conference schedule. Ohio State couldn't go again even if conference champ since Buckeyes made the Pasa- the Buckeyes made the Pasadena trip last year.

Wisconsin now has lost two in a row—to Southern California and Ohio State. Ivy Williamson has never lost three running to make the odds tougher for the Spartans.

As an oddity, Wisconsin was ahead of both Southern Cal, and Ohio State in total yardage, while losing. And Michigan State was on the short end of the total yardage against Notre Dame and Illinois, while beating both by identical 21-7 scores.

"But I don't think we can let Wisconsin out-yard us and win," said Daugherty.

Knows Winning Ways

AUSTIN, Tex.—Ed Price of Texas has the best winning percentage of any Southwest conference coach.

Jack Dempsey won 18 of his professional fights by knockouts as he came along the title trail in the 1918 season.

Eastern Rider Gives U.S. 1st Horseshow Win

HARRISBURG, Pa. — Billy Steinkraus, a Fairfield County, Conn., rider gave the United States team its first victory of the 1955 Pennsylvania Horse Show last night with a faultless ride on his final mount in the second leg of the international low score competition.

* * *

Steinkraus had completed his first run around the 10-jump course with four faults on Night Owl. He remounted for a perfect spin on Saxon Wood to give him an elapsed time of 73.4 seconds, beating out Canadian team captain W. R. Ballard who took his two horses over the jump course with 4 faults but required 88.6 seconds.

The jump was the second of a three-part competition that left the team standings this way:

* * *

United States 4¼ faults; Canada 8 faults; Ireland 16 faults; Mexico 26 faults.

In the first four international competitions at the show, the Mexicans have won 4 events and the United States and Irish 1 each.

Bragan Tabbed Top Choice as Pirate Mentor

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Perhaps it was just a slip of the lip but Joe L. Brown, the Pittsburgh Pirates' new general manager, may have let the cat out of the bag on his choice of a field manager.

Brown told a news conference following his appointment yesterday that "my big chalenge is to find a player-manager." Notice, he said player-manager.

He corrected himself a few minutes later explaining: "What I meant to say was a field manager. I wanted to differentiate between one on the field and one in the office."

Now any young man—Brown is 37—might under similar circumstances say the same thing and perhaps mean something else. It could be that Brown just let it slip.

But Bobby Bragan, field pilot at Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League, is a playing-manager. Bragan is considered a top choice for the job.

Forest Peters of Montana State drop-kicked 17 field goals in a single game during the season of 1924.

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

RUSHING TO RUIN — I asked Ned Day, peer of stylists and former world match champion, what single factor stood out in his march to fame, and his answer serves as a top tip to all pinsters, particularly beginners.

"I had to overcome rushing my footwork," he said. "I got too anxious. Lost my stride and timing. Dropped the ball too soon."

By hurrying into stride—the first step—the push-away action is reduced, the swinging arc is shortened, and the body is too far ahead of the ball at the foul line. Jimmy Smith used to tell me: "The ball isn't hot. Don't be in so much of a hurry to get rid of it. Take it easy. Make the first step a shuffle, timed with the push-away."

RUSHED FOOTWORK CAUSE OF DROPPING BALL, BODY AHEAD OF SWINGING ARM.

It's the sure cure for dropping the ball. Don't rush. The increasing momentum of the swing will get you to the foul line smoothly, with the left leg braced as it slides, and with the ball passing the leg to a reaching follow-through with control. That fast first step can rush you to ruin.

Centre Leads Small College Total Offense

Gains 399.2 Yards Per Game; Hillsdale 3rd on List

EMPORIA, Kan. (AP)—Centre College's Prayin' Colonels have bounced into the total offense lead among small colleges with a 399.2-yard average, reported today.

* * *

Centre, a football power in the mid-1920s, has won four straight games this season. Coe College of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, moved into the No. 2 spot with a 388.5 average in 6 games. Hillsdale (Mich.) College was third with 383.1 in 6 games. The College of Emporia is fourth with a 6-game average of 376.7.

* * *

Centre, primarily a ground gainer, also leads the nation in rushing with a 364.5 yard average. Carroll (Mont.) ranks second with 292.4 in 5 games.

* * *

The passing leader is Bethany (W.Va.) with a 163-yard average in three games. Coe is runner-up with 152 in 6 games.

* * *

North Carolina A&T holds the top defensive spot, limiting 3 opponents to 69.7 yards per game.

A relief pitcher must stay in long enough to dispose of at least one batter.

Title Race Shapes Up

Only barriers stopping Clarenceville from getting its 1st Wayne-Oakland League title this year are the Brighton Bulldogs and the West Bloomfield Lakers. And if Clarkston has any aspirations of retaining the crown from last year, it better pin its hopes on either the Bulldogs or the Lakers—or both.

If Wolves are to successfully defend the title, the Trojans must be upset in their remaining two games with the 5th and 6th place loop teams.

To grab a share of the championship, head coach Ed Hintz needs to get by its remaining conference contest with Holly next week, and hope but for one upset win by either the Bulldogs or the Lakers. Then the Trojans and the Wolves would split the treasure with identical 5-1 marks.

Time holds the answer to the question and on Friday, Clarenceville will go to Brighton and attempt to answer the 1st part of it, against the Bulldogs. Brighton was upset by Milford last week for the Redskins' 1st conference success this season.

Clarkston looks ahead a week to its meeting with Holly Broncos, as they clash this Friday in an intersectional tussle with Oxford. Wildcats own a 1-4-1 mark, and seek to get back into scoring column again after being blanked (32-0) by Romeo.

Battle at Holly between Broncos and Northville might be a clash of two elevens suffering letdowns from their games of last week. Both squads came within one and two points, respectively, of upsetting top-ranked Clarenceville and Clarkston.

Trojan left end Dale Devitt's block of Holly's extra point attempt in the 2nd period proved the decisive margin as Trojans won 14-13. Clarkston ruined Northville's hopes of an upset in the last minute of play. George Lang climaxed an 80-yard drive by going the final 15 to enable Wolves to pull out a 14-12 victory.

In the final W-O encounter, Milford hopes to stay on the winning path as it hosts West Bloomfield Lakers. Lakers have two remaining games with Clarenceville and Northville. This week's game with the Lakers will be the Redskins' final league match. They wind up the season against I-L member Waterford.

Heart Attack Fatal to Young Gridder

MIDWEST CITY, Okla. (AP) — A heart attack was believed to have caused the death of a 14-year-old junior high school football player during a game here last night.

Monroe Garland, a 190-pound tackle on the Putnam City team, collapsed and died in a huddle after four minutes of play.

An examination disclosed no injuries.

"To the best of our knowledge he was in the best of health," said Joe Garrison, Putnam City coach.

Chauvinism Hits Irish Jockeys

Scot Rider Is Forced Out of Laurel Event by People of Erin

LAUREL, Md. (AP)—Chauvinism of the Irish has affected the lineup of Laurel's International horse race Nov. 11.

Tommy Gosling had been listed as jockey for Panaslipper, the Irish Derby winner and one of nine entered in the International. Panaslipper is owned by the Irish government and will run in the colors of its president, Sean T. O'Kelly.

* * *

Gosling was born in Scotland.

The people of Ireland complained to President O'Kelly they wanted their horse ridden by a son of the "Old Sod." The word was passed to trainer Paddy Prendergast.

He replaced Gosling with T.M. Burns, 20-year-old native of Belfast.

Red Sox first baseman Norm Zauchin hit .289 for Louisville in the American Association in the 1954 playing season.

Label Pike for Study

Wisconsin and Illinois fish biologists plan to tag 1,000 or more northern pike to obtain information to be used in a successful management and preservation of the species.

Pitcher Joe Nuxhall of Cincinnati batted only .198 but his 17 hits during the season drove in 14 runs. He hit three homers.

Strikeout Champions

Top season strikeout marks in the majors are 348 by Bob Feller in 1946 and 343 by Rube Waddell, whose record goes back to the season of 1904.

The Right Oil for Right Now is Right Here

Compared to Old Fashioned Oils, this new All-Weather Oil can actually double the life of an engine!

Be [illegible]er-Wise about yo[illegible] Change to TROP-ARTIC

EASIER STARTING. TROP-ARTIC Motor Oil won't get too thick even when the thermometer drops below zero. Because it's an all-weather oil, it flows easily at all temperatures. This saves gasoline, too.

UP TO 45% LESS OIL CONSUMPTION. Ordinary "winter" oil that gets too thin when it heats up may burn away. Modern TROP-ARTIC Motor Oil resists thinning.

40% LESS ENGINE WEAR. Because TROP-ARTIC stays on the job at all temperatures, even at extremely high engine heat, it extends engine life remarkably.

PHILLIPS PETROLEUM COMPANY

IT'S GUARANTEED! Change to TROP-ARTIC All-Weather Motor Oil and use it for ten days or up to 1,000 miles. If you aren't completely satisfied that TROP-ARTIC lives up to all the claims made for it, go to any Phillips 66 Dealer and he will replace it with any other available oil you prefer. That's how sure we are that you'll be delighted with the performance you get from TROP-ARTIC All-Weather Motor Oil. We guarantee it!

Gotham Housewife Opposes TV Contract

NEW YORK (INS)—A taxpayer's suit has been started to bar any "give away" through the free use of New York City departmental files.

* * *

The suit was filed on behalf of Mrs. Jennie Pollak to prevent free access to the files in connection with Mayor Robert F. Wagner's directive opening the records of all city departments to the firm of New York Television Products, Inc.

The full complaint to be filed in Supreme Court Friday will charge that the city would be deprived of $2,500,000 in revenue which could accrue if fees for the rights were paid.

Meanwhile, the video company said it expected to pay for script material obtained.

Hollywood Headlines

Montgomery Clift Accepts 'Sons and Lovers' Lead

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Put this right down in your book quickly! Montgomery Clift has at long last signed a contract.

He will star in "Sons and Lovers," the D. H. Lawrence novel which Columbia will make in England. This is not maybe, if, or perhaps, but a real deal.

Monty hasn't made a picture since he was nominated for an Academy Award for "From Here to Eternity."

The Lawrence epic will be filmed in the grimy coal mine towns and the green countrysides of England, with Peter Glenville as director and William Fadiman as producer.

While Harry Cohn was about it he signed Irving Ravetsh, one of Great Britain's leading writers, to do the scripting job on "Sons and Lovers."

BARRYMORE AUCTION

All of Lionel Barrymore's belongings, his etchings, his musical compositions, his violin, his paintings, his bound scripts, his costumes, his wigs, will be auctioned by Arthur Goode starting Sunday.

Goode was preparing to retire, Mary Pickford having sold the building Goode occupied for half a million dollars, with a business block planned to go up on the site.

But Arthur handled John Barrymore's possessions and he did not want to refuse, so he remains to sell Lionel's possessions.

Seems sad that Lionel had no children to whom to leave his priceless, personal treasures. The money from the auction will go to the government to pay income tax.

Alec Guinness is very excited about being made a Commander of the British Empire, the highest honor next to knighthood, but he's a little disappointed.

He has been summoned to appear at Buckingham Palace on Nov. 8 for the presentation by Queen Elizabeth. Unfortunately, his first American film, "The Swan," will keep him here.

I understand that he is so popular in England, however, that it's expected that a special ceremony will be arranged by the Queen on his return to London so that she can bestow the honor in person.

PRESENT FOR JOAN

On the set of Mario Lanza's picture, "Serenade," Joan Fontaine said that before Collier Young took off for Honolulu he gave her her birthday present and furnished the playroom in avocado green and yellow.

"My favorite color is champagne," said Joan, "but this was next best."

Mario is up in every scene and has to do very few retakes. He is the surprise of the studio since all the nervousness seems to have deserted him.

You can be sure they'll find another picture for him as soon as possible while he has the right weight and is going so well.

Snaps: Eleanor Parker having dinner at Chasen's with her artist-husband, Paul Clemens, denied the stork reports. Clemens has painted many pictures of his beautiful wife.

When Liberace lands in Chicago today, he'll be met by his fan club, each member bearing a lighted candle.

Another Mary Martin-Noel Coward TV show would be welcome. Ninety minutes of wonderful entertainment. Only thing I didn't like was the "Madame Butterfly" number. Maybe I lost my sense of humor.

Ann Rutherford Dozier postcards me from Paris that she and Bill are enjoying their delayed honeymoon and that Paris is simply heaven. Ann said at the George V she saw Cy Howard without Gloria, Bonita Granville with Jack Wrather, Roz Russell with Freddie Brisson.

$2 Haircut Favored

BOSTON (AP) — The Associated Master Barbers and Beauticians of America are on record today as favoring a nationwide standard haircut price of $2. The group also recommended at its annual convention last night that beauticians adopt a minimum $3 fee for work involving a haircut, shampoo and hair set.

Kansas Court Wipes Out Ban on 'Moon Is Blue'

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a two-word decision the Supreme Court has wiped out a Kansas ban on "The Moon Is Blue"—the movie found by three women censors to be "obscene, indecent and immoral."

The high tribunal Monday passed by a request that it give an immediate broad ruling on whether a state may ever censor pictures "under a clearly drawn statute designed and applied to prevent the showing of obscene films."

The ruling was asked by United Artists Corp., distributor of the "Moon Is Blue," and Holmby Productions Inc., the producer. They appealed from a Kansas Supreme Court decision upholding that state's ban on their film.

The Supreme Court in an unanimous decision said merely "judgment reversed." That meant the state tribunal's holding was overturned.

Grains Inch Up in Quiet Trade

CHICAGO (AP)—In a quiet market grains inched higher until they had modest gains on the Board of Trade today.

There wasn't any additional bullish stimulus in the overnight news and the market had to work upon the news available in the previous session.

There still was enough optimism generated by the government's pork buying program, purchases of wheat flour and potential exports of fats and oils to Spain to encourage buying.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅜ to 1 cent higher, December $2.01⅛; corn 1½ to 2 cents higher, December $1.28; oats ⅛ to ¼ higher, December 63⅛; rye ¼ to ¾ higher, December $1.09¾; soybeans ¼ to 1 cent higher, November $2.34¾, and lard unchanged to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, November $10.95.

Buick Hikes Prices; Station Wagon Down

FLINT (AP) — Buick Motors has announced price increases of $33 to $103.83 on 16 models in its 1956 line.

Prices on its station wagons will be cut from $169 to $226.

The new Buicks will go on display Nov. 4.

Ivan L. Wiles, Buick general manager, said, "Our 1956 prices will be up an average of only 2.5 per cent, a very modest reflection of increased labor and material costs."

Air conditioning on the new models was slashed by $150.

Wiles said the reduction in station wagon prices is in line with the company's attempt to boost its share of the growing market for its model. Buick announced several weeks ago it would triple production of station wagons in 1956.

Mart Declines for Second Day

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market declined today with losses running to around 2 points at the outside.

It was the second straight decline for the market after seven consecutive advances.

* * *

Aircrafts were lower as were leading motors, chemicals, and radio-televisions. There was a mixture of gains and losses in the steels, motors, railroads, coppers, and airlines.

Douglas Aircraft, which got an order for 175 million dollars worth of jets from United Air Lines, opened up ⅞ at 78¼ and then lost all its gain in later trading. Boeing also was 1¼ at 64.

General Motors was off ⅞ at 135¼ on an opening block of 1,700 shares, and then its loss grew to between 1 and 2 points. Also lower were Sharon Steel, Chrysler, North American Aviation, Lockheed, RCA, Zenith Radio, American Telephone, Du Pont, Westinghouse Electric, Santa Fe Railroad, and Standard Oil (NJ).

Detroit Edison Sets Industrial Record

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Edison Co. reported today its electric power system set all-time records last week in industrial power supply and in total power output.

Electric power supplied to industrial customers for the week ended Oct. 22 totaled 117,758,000 kilowatt hours. This was an increase of 1.8 per cent over the previous week and 29 per cent over the same week a year ago.

The company's total output for the week of 258,828,000 kilowatt hours showed an increase of 3.8 per cent over the previous week and 21.4 per cent over the same week a year ago.

'No Time for Sergeants' Lands Dogface on Top

"A mother who arranges a match for her daughter usually intends to referee it, too."—Elsie Rhodes.

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—The wife got so twittery about nice-lookin', Dixie-talkin' Andy Griffith's performance in "No Time For Sergeants" that I suppose I better write about how he became a star overnight or she'll say I only care about girls—which I do.

Andy—a 28-year-old ex-North Carolina school teacher married to a teacher—is to get star billing within a week in the new B'way show . . . and Warner Bros. are being asked $100,000 for his services in a movie based on the play.

ARLENE DAHL

"Look at this Mickey Mouse watch the crew give me, I wouldn't take nuthin' for it," Andy, a U. of N. Carolina graduate who manages to be sort of a Southern Herb Shriner, said the other night after the whole cast had bowed toward him at the curtain call —a gesture very rarely seen on B'way.

Andy had some folks from the Baptist choir he used to sing in down at Chapel Hill, here for the opening. He played the kind of a Southern mountaineer soldier who could say one of his officers "had ROTC and I think he's still got a touch of it."

Taffy Tuttle claims that Arlene Dahl (here plugging "Slightly Scarlet") sure knows how to get a lot out of a bathing suit . . . Reminds me of when Billy Sunday said an evening gown is a dress that has a neckline where its bellyband ought to be.

"There are two kinds of gals," claims Joey Adams is "Strictly for Laughs," the new humor book, "those who carry on . . . and bridesmaids."

Says Fred Allen: "The Townsend Plan was a failure in this country—do you think it will have more success in London?"

Beatrice Lillie's got NBC and CBS hot after her to do TV spectaculars and Eddie Dowling, her mgr., has been cabling Europe for a reply. I snatched a postcard from Eddie's hand that told how business-like Bea is. It showed Bea in slacks holding three kittens, and, in answer to the cables, said, "Will call you from London in a week's time. Love to Boots (Eddie's mother) and yourself."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Perry Como's sorry the papers've built up a "rating battle" between him and Jackie Gleason; he says they're friends and he misses Jackie's show . . . John Hodiak had planned to visit New York in a couple of weeks. Ironically, he hesitated about leaving his parents in California, fearing for their health! . . . French star Fernanda Montel returned to the St. Regis for a 5th engagement.

Frank Sinatra gropes around as though half blind on the set of "The Man With The Golden Arm." Drops are put into his eyes to make him have the glazed-glance look of an addict . . . Little Joel Gray's around with big Barbara Nichols (at Gilmore's).

BEA LILLIE

Ima Washout, the Kansas editor, claims she'll never wear those new tapered slacks, explaining, "I don't taper where the slacks do."

Pontiac City Affairs

Commissioners Approve Change in Liquor License

By a 6 to 1 vote, the City Commission last night approved transfer of classification and location of a liquor license for Nick Palaian.

With only Commissioner Floyd P. Miles (District 4) dissenting, the Commission sanctioned changing Palaian's license designation from "tavern" to "Class C."

The location was shifted from 733 Glenwood Ave. to 1650 N. Perry St.

In other action, the Commission set a hearing for next Tuesday on a revised cost estimate for storm drain in the block bounded by Menominee, Glendale, Genesee and Telegraph.

A communication from a building company asking installation of sewers in Clinton Heights Subdivision was referred to City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Approval was given a carnival permit for the Nicholas-Conklin Detachment, Marine Corps League, and Amvets Post No. 16. The carnival is scheduled for next May.

The Commission agreed to delay one week resolution regarding subleasing a hangar at Pontiac Municipal Airport by Gordon Air Service, Inc.

A sewer contract with Elwyn E. Tripp was approved.

Public hearings were held and the city assessor authorized to prepare special assessment rolls for the following projects:

Storm drain in Dellwood avenue, from trunk drain west of Earlmoor to Howland.

Storm drains in portionst of Pildew, Bagley, Pearsall, Alton and Motor.

Curb, gutter and drainage on Alton street from Franklin to Motor.

Other hearings were held and confirmation deferred on the following assessment rolls:

Water main in Pearsall avenue from Bagley to Wrenn.

Water main in Highland avenue from Dilmar to Fern, and in Fern avenue from Harvey to Highland.

Rolls were confirmed for the following:

Combined sewer on Hollywood avenue from Kennett to St. Louis, and on St. Louis avenue from Hollywood to Baldwin.

Curb, gutter and drainage on Sylvan court from Orchard Lake to 50 feet west of Myra.

Sanitary sewer on north side of Columbia avenue from Baldwin to Hollywood.

Olds Plans Hike to 750,000 Cars

'56 Models to Increase Production by 125,000 Units Over '55

LANSING (AP) — Oldsmobile expects to sell 750,000 passenger cars next year—125,000 above its estimated 1955 mark.

* * *

J. F. Wolfram, Oldsmobile general manager, told a news conference at a preview of the 1956 models yesterday that he had raised his earlier estimate of 700,000 retails deliveries in the 1956 model year following a nationwide tour just completed.

Wolfram said his company's production capacity will be boosted by 50 per cent under an expansion program now under way.

Oldsmobile is withholding details of its new cars until their formal introduction Nov. 3. It is known, however, that they will have a higher horsepower engine and a redesigned Hydra-Matic transmission.

Price tags of the new line also have been kept under wraps. Wolfram said, however, that the 1956 Holiday coupe in the "88" line will carry a factory list price of $2,330. This would be an increase of $75 over the comparable 1955 model.

3rd Newsprint Firm Joins Price Boost

MONTREAL (AP) — The Canadian International Paper Co. has joined two other firms in increasing the price of newsprint.

The $4-a-ton boost announced last night by CIP through its subsidiary, International Paper Sales Co., Inc., is $1 a ton below the increase announced earlier by St. Lawrence Corp. and Abitibi Power and Paper Co.

The CIP increase brings the delivered price in New York to $130 a ton, $1 below the other two firms. All increases go into effect Nov. 1.

Vernon E. Johnson, president of CIP, said the boost is aimed at absorbing "only a portion" of the increased cost of labor, power and materials since the last increase in 1952.

Earnings

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (AP)—Merck & Co. Inc. reported today that for nine months ended Sept. 30 its net income was $12,320,000, or $1.11 a share, compared with $9,444,000, or 81 cents a share for the like period last year.

YOU MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS AND NOT KNOW IT!

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Best 9 Months in History Chalked Up by U. S. Steel

NEW YORK (AP)—United States Steel Corp. has wound up its best nine months in history and looks ahead to a continued boom in the industry for at least another half year, Roger M. Blough, chairman, reports.

Blough announced a flock of earnings, sales and production records for the world's biggest steel company yesterday after the company declared a higher dividend of 65 cents a common share. This was the second time the dividend had been raised since the start of the year.

Looking ahead, Blough said, "I would be very surprised if there was any letup in demand for steel in the next six months. If anything, the supply situation is worse than it was three months ago. Some car building and home construction will have to be delayed."

"We're now operating at 97.4 per cent of rated capacity, and I feel we haven't reached the end of the line," Blough declared.

U.S. Steel racked up records, as follows:

Highest earnings for any nine-month period: $267,506,943 equal to $4.65 per common share. Previous record: $180,800,000 for nine months of 1916 when Europe was embroiled in World War I. Last year's nine-month net income was $138,174,974, equal to $2.28 per share.

Gobel Defeats Coward Show

Big Surprise Giveaway Takes Second Place to 'Beat the Clock'

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — Perry Como's NBC hour nudged ahead of Gleason's CBS holdings 23.2 to 20.2 in the Trendex ratings . . .

First half-hour Perry won by a survey mile, 24.8 to 16.5 for "Stage Show," while the Honeymooners slipped a little again to lead Como's second 30 minutes only 23.8 to 21.5, too close for CBS' comfort . . .

Noel Coward and Mary Martin clobbered Jimmy Durante by five Trendex points but got skunked by George Gobel 23.7 to 17, and by Your Hit Parade, 21.1 to 18.7 . . .

Ed Sullivan Show scared off the Colgate Variety Hour 34.4 to 15.6.

Though "The Big Surprise" gave away $50,000 to Police Sgt. Barney Arluck, its flood of high finance submerged NBC to an embarrassingly low Trendex — 7.9 vs. CBS-TV's Beat the Clock's 22.4 . . .

Meaning Como won his first half hour victory with no help from his prior neighbor, and "Stage Show" inherited little of the neat bulge gained by the novelty nonsense of "Beat the Cock."

"Lucy" slipped in the latest ratings.

Phil Silvers last rating sneaked up too close to Uncle Miltie for NBC's comfort . . .

"Stage Show" hopes to bolster its subterranean rating with "name" emcees—George Raft and Jack Haley for starters . . .

CARSON'S SECRET

Johnnie Carson's secret could be the brevity of his capers, none long enough to bore, most of them funny enough to seem even shorter . . .

Columbia Pix is going right ahead with its suit against Sid Ceasar, NBC, Max Liebman, etc., because of the burlesque two seasons ago of "From Here to Eternity," despite the movie's fantastic success.

CBS is after Imogene Coca . . .

Desi Arnaz and RKO are talking a big production deal . . .

No more TV for Judy Garland until '56, when CBS may get three filmed hours . . .

Noel Coward's final CBS spectacular next spring will be his newest play, "Peace in Our Time." His fee will be bigger than his royalties if the play were to run two seasons on Broadway . . .

For country-music fans, ABC-TV's "Grand Ole Opry" is just the best in its barnyard line, bright, bouncy, and even corn-haters can't help but admire the toe-tapping square dancing, and the unpatronizing enthusiasm of its performers.

STANG RETURNING

Arnold Stang, idle on TV since he left the Berlecasts, returns with a bang all over the dials—on next Saturday's Perry Comocast and an upcoming "The Goldbergs" . . .

The new $64,000 panel starting in December with Gino Prato, Mrs. Kreitzer, Redmond O'Hanlon, etc., will have two sponsors, a cigarette and its original lipstick patron . . .

Two teams of hosts have been signed for NBC-Radio's new mid-week mishmash, imitating its weekend "Monitor," to be called "Weekday." Margaret Truman teams up with Mike Wallace, Martha Scott with Walter Kiernan.

Milton Berle signed an Ann Sothern protegee, an ex-Las Vegas showgal named Gigi Saturday; she'll be on his Nov. 8 colorcast.

CBS isn't satisfied to call its big new shows "spectaculars," and shortly will start using the modest term "giants" . . . watch out for giant-killers in that nice big beanstalk . . .

The NBC press department fought off the insistent urge but NBC President Pat Weaver had no such inhibitions—he called the child-care show featuring Dr. Benjamin Spock a "Spocktacular."

A. Godfrey pursues the common touch tonight by televising his blooded equines at the Harrisburg Horse Show, with all the gang but the McGuires.

Margaret Truman stars Nov. 1 on Martha Raye's opus.

Godfrey Firing Spree Re-erupts

'It's My Show,' Screams Arthur When Reasons Are Sought

NEW YORK (AP)—A coproducer, an orchestra leader and an announcer have been fired from Arthur Godfrey's radio-television staff without forewarning or any reason given by their boss.

* * *

They were the latest of 12 firings by Godfrey in a little over six months.

The dismissals were announced by CBS yesterday while Godfrey was at Harrisburg, Pa., for the Pennsylvania National Horse Show. CBS simply said Godfrey gave no reasons for the firings. When questioned about this at Harrisburg, Godfrey replied:

IT'S MY SHOW

"Do I have to give reasons? I'm running this job and if I can't fire and hire people to suit myself, I'm going to quit myself.

"It is my show and when I see it is time to make changes, I make them."

* * *

The three dismissed were Larry Puck, a Godfrey coproducer for five years; Jerry Bresler, musical conductor on the "Arthur Godfrey Talent Scouts program for two years; and George Bryan, announcer on the same program since it started 10 years ago.

All three said they had last seen their boss face-to-face a week before when the Talent Scouts program was broadcast. He seemed happy then, they said, and gave no indication of wanting to fire anyone.

* * *

Miss Marlowe, 26, and Puck, 58, were married last June 5, nearly two months after she, five other singers and three writers were fired from the Godfrey team April 15.

Jazz Minister Opening Door to the 'Big One'

NEW YORK (AP)—The Rev. Alvin L. Kershaw, has won $32,000 on the CBS television and radio show The $64,000 Question with his knowledge of jazz.

* * *

He can try for the grand prize next Tuesday night, or quit with his winnings.

The Rev. Mr. Kershaw, 36, rector of the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church at Oxford, Ohio, got over the $32,000 hurdle last night by answering a complicated question about a 1925 recording of Louis Armstrong.

* * *

The Rev. Mr. Kershaw's $32,000 question was about one of the earliest recordings made by Armstrong, the cornetist, as leader of his own group. It contained a vocal by Armstrong of a popular song of the day, with Armstrong singing what is regarded as the first example of "scat singing" ever recorded.

Betty Breathless About Return to TV Last Night

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Betty Hutton says of her first television performance since her short-lived retirement from show business: "I feel wonderful about it."

Bouncy, boisterous and breathless, she returned to the TV medium in an hourlong NBC variety show last night in the tried-and-true Hutton format—songs, dances, vaudeville clowning with guests Bob Hope and Jimmy Durante, mostly loud but occasionally softly sentimental.

* * *

Betty quit show business, she said, a year ago after a colorcast which she felt was less than uccesful, but she soon was back in night clubs and now she i bubbling about TV.

"I won't say much about that color show a year ago but I think there was a day-and-night difference between it and the show tonight," she said, after watching a local rebroadcast at home. "This was wonderful."

She has a guest spot upcoming on Hope's TV show Nov. 15, then a Chez Paree engagement in Chicago and, after that, guesting with Durante.

Tennessee has 3,464 miles of railroad.

Movie Extras Resemble Real Life Legislators

By ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Hollywood movie-making outfit took over the House chamber yesterday, and the result was such happy confusion that you'd have thought Congress was back in session.

* * *

Huge spotlights glared down from the galleries. Hammers hammered. Great rolls of paper unrolled on the floor. Worried-looking men scurried about with exposure meters.

"Hotter, Robbie," someone would sing out from time to time. And a spotlight, evidently manned by someone named Robbie, would change its beam by a couple of inches.

In many of the brown leather seats, looking as least as much like congressmen as congressmen do, sat $19.43-a-day extras, mostly recruited from the ranks of local government workers.

There was one ringer. Rep. Earl Wilson (R-Ind) wandered past, killing time while he waited for a dental appointment, and the next thing he knew he was sitting in the front row, playing the role of himself, while the cameras ground.

Wilson said he was going to frame his $19.43 check to prove he was once a movie actor.

* * *

Judy Holliday, playing her usual not-so-dumb blonde role, and Paul Douglas (not to be confused with the senator of the same name from Illinois) were the stars. They got a lot more attention from Capitol employes and tourists than House members usually get.

The two stars seemed to do nothing but stand around until the lights all were adjusted to the last fraction of an inch. Then:

* * *

"Are there any questions?" asked an actor playing the role of a congressman.

"Ye, I have a question," piped Miss Holliday, in the front row of the gallery. Douglas shushed her and escorted her outside—just as a Capitol cop would have done in real life.

That was all for the time being for the Columbia Pictures unit shooting "The Solid Gold Cadillac."

* * *

But more of Washington is yet to go Hollywood. Today the scene shifted to the Pentagon.

Man Dies, Boy Hurt in Freak Accident

SAGINAW (AP)—Duane Cook, 26, of Saginaw, was killed last night and a 14-year-old boy was injured in a freak accident involving a freight train, a car and a bicycle.

Cook was killed when his car and a New York Central freight train collided at a Saginaw intersection.

The car was dragged about three blocks to another crossing where it struck the boy, Albert Lewis, also of Saginaw. He was waiting on his bike for the train to pass.

Cook died in St. Mary's Hospital two hours after the smashup. The boy was hospitalized with a severe leg injury.

Biggest UF Gift

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co. contributed $550,000 Tuesday to metropolitan Detroit's annual Torch Fund United Charities campaign—the largest sum ever donated to the fund. Funds from the drive support more than 150 charity organizations. Goal this year is a record $14,450,000.

Given 20 Years

DETROIT (AP) — William D. Simms, 59, was sentenced to 10 to 20 years in Southern Michigan Prison Tuesday after pleading guilty to second degree murder in the shooting of Lette Michalecki, 59. Both were Detroiters.
