'Copter Hoists Steel

UP AND AWAY — A helicopter was pressed into service this morning in steeple work at Kirk-in-the-Hills Church. After gassing up (top) the 'copter lifts the steel (center) and tried to fit it in place.

First Attempt By Industry

'Copter Hoists Steel in Area Construction

What may prove a historic chapter in the construction industry is being attempted today at Kirk-in-the-Hills Presbyterian Church, 1340 Long Lake Rd., West Bloomfield Township.

A helicopter is installing the framework for the church spire in a novel departure from the conventional method of raising structural steel by crane.

First attempts to jockey the frame onto its moorings, 150 feet above grade, ran afoul of the prevailing winds.

At 9:30 a.m. the helicopter tried to place the first of three steel sections for the spire. This base section, the heaviest of the three, proved impossible to position, apparently due to strong winds.

The copter made several passes but lost altitude each time before it could get over the tower.

The craft was completely stripped and the gasoline load was kept down to two gallons in an effort to give it more lifting power.

As far as is known, the attempt was the first time a helicopter has

Valuation Figure of County Board Sets New High

Equalization Amounts on Taxable Property Hits $1,673,313,271

The Board of Supervisors yesterday set Oakland County's 1957 equalized valuation of taxable property at a record $1,673,313,271.

This is about $88,511,000 more than the state equalized valuation on which county taxes were spread last year.

Valuation figures for the county's 45 cities and townships were accepted with seven dissenting votes, after being presented by the board's equalization committee, headed by Alger Zapf, of Royal Oak.

None of the dissenting voters announced intention to appeal equalizations to the Michigan State Tax Commission.

MORE SAMPLING

One of them, Hiland M. Thatcher, of West Bloomfield Township, contended more sampling is needed in several areas where locally assessed valuations were adjusted.

Pontiac's equalization was set at $333,288,958, or $13,877,718 less than last year.

The decrease, City Assessor W. R. Ransom said, reflects a new formula that reduces the valuation of personal property, including the vast inventory of machinery and stock in the city's industrial plants.

Personal property was evaluated this year at 70 per cent of market price, or 10 per cent less than last year, said Ransom, a member of the equalization committee.

BERKLEY SUM DROPS

The Berkley equalization also dropped this year, by $711,905.

Cut Wires Stall San Francisco

Appliance Motors Fail as Plane Breaks Lines and Halts Power

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Hundreds of washing machine, dryer and refrigerator motors lay dead in San Francisco peninsula homes today, burned out in yesterday's freak power fadeout.

A Navy attack bomber, hedge-hopping through a canyon in the East Bay near Niles, cut two 220,000 volt power lines, strung 500 feet above the canyon floor. Immediately power sagged or failed in San Francisco and south 50 miles to San Jose through an area of 1,100,000 people. The dimout lasted from 20 minutes to more than an hour.

Navy Lt. (j.g.) Harry M. Nyberg, 26, of Berkley, Calif., on a routine low-level practice mission, said there was an explosion when his plane cut the lines. It affected the trim of his plane but he flew it to nearby Alameda Naval Air Station. Nyberg was not injured.

Across the bay the effects were confusion compounded. Motors stopped or slowed. Radio stations broadcast slow-motion gibberish as turntables slowed. TV stations went off the air after picture transmissions faded.

★ ★ ★

Traffic signals blinked off and police rushed to strategic intersections to handle jams. Street cars and trolley buses were immobilized. Teletypes stopped clacking. At International Airport the radio tower was out and planes were landed by hand-operated light signals. Telephone circuits were jammed with calls.

Hospitals switched on emergency power.

A Pacific Gas & Electric Co. spokesman explained why so many motors burned out: "When voltage drops, amperage kicks higher than normal. This produces the heat that burns out an appliance."

Prisoner Forced Down From Perch After 16 Hours

BALTIMORE (INS)—Cold spray from fire hoses brought life-term prisoner Robert Smith down from his 16-hour perch on a 100-foot scaffolding at Maryland Penitentiary early today.

Smith, 42, broke loose from a trash-burning detail and climbed the scaffolding, built for repairs on the smoke stack of the prison incinerator.

Warden Vernon Peppersack at first said he would not attempt to talk Smith into climbing down and added: "Just let him stay there until he gets hungry."

Hoses were brought out, however, when Smith was still perched on the scaffolding at 2:15 a.m. this morning and had attracted a crowd of spectators.

A prison doctor found him unharmed by the experience. He was given dry clothes and sent back to his cell.

Smith was sentenced in 1946 for rape.

Beer Tax Bill Goes to Senate

Democrats Hit Plan for Raising School Funds Via Liquor Levy

LANSING (AP) — Lambasted by Democrats as "totally inadequate," a Republican school aid plan carrying higher beer and whisky taxes moved to the Senate today after a narrow victory in the House.

The measure was approved 58-47 by the Lower Chamber yesterday, two more votes than it needed.

Democrats complained the bill made no provision for supplementing this year's state aid to schools, which one member said might fall as much as $24 under the $190 per pupil payout formula.

They also asserted the estimated 16 million dollars the bill would provide annually falls far short of actual needs.

In another close vote, Republicans turned aside a bid by one of their own number, Rep. George W. Sallade of Ann Arbor, to replace the beer and whisky levy with a 2 per cent tax on corporation profits.

They also rejected a substitute tax provision which would have added another two cents to the three cent state tax on each package of cigarettes. Rep. James Goulette (R-Iron Mountain), its sponsor, said the tax would amount to 18 million dollars annually.

The House-approved plan would add a 5 per cent excise tax on whisky (about 25 cents a fifth) and double the $1.25 tax on a barrel of beer (three-tenths of a cent per bottle).

Clarkston Woman Bears Triplets at City Hospital

Mrs. Richard Gravelle, of 6697 Cloverton St., Clarkston, scored a "triple" this morning when she gave birth to triplets at Pontiac General Hospital.

The three girls, affectionately referred to by hospital personnel as A, B, and C, were born at 8:11, 8:13, and 8:18 a.m. respectively.

The triplets weighed in at four pounds six and a half ounces, three pounds nine and a half ounces, and two pounds five and a half ounces in the order of their birth.

The Gravelles have no other children. According to a hospital spokesman, both mother and girls were doing fine this morning. All three babies are resting comfortably in incubators.

Son Born to Fords

DETROIT (AP)—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Clay Ford of the automotive family yesterday. The baby was named after his father, the Ford Motor Co. vice president. The Fords have two daughters.

NATO Statement on Arms Expected to Arouse Foes

BONN, Germany (AP)—The Atlantic allies declaration that they will meet any aggression with nuclear-backed might was expected today to bring new onslaughts from Russia and from political enemies in their own countries.

Their stand was reaffirmed last night in a communique which served notice that NATO members stood ready to use "all available means"—including nuclear weapons — against any aggressor.

The statement came at the end of a two-day session of foreign ministers of the 15-nation alliance.

★ ★ ★

In a clearcut answer to the Kremlin's recent threats against atomic guided missile bases in Scandinavia, West Germany, Greece and Turkey, the communique said:

★ ★ ★

"Pending an acceptable agreement on disarmament, no power can claim the right to deny to the alliance the possession of the modern arms needed for its defense."

★ ★ ★

If Russia really fears Western defense preparations, the communique said it need only "accept a general disarmament agreement embodying effective measures of control and inspection within the framework of the proposals made on numerous occasions by the Western powers."

★ ★ ★

Touching on the explosive German question, the declaration called for early reunification of the former Reich.

★ ★ ★

The NATO council delayed a decision on the future balance of NATO armament between conventional and nuclear weapons pending a report from its military authorities.

Thousands to March in Safety Patrol Parade

WASHINGTON (INS) — Some 34,000 youngsters will march down historic Constitution Avenue today in the 21st annual school safety patrol parade.

Twenty states will be represented by 60 bands and marching units, floats, drill teams and pretty majorettes in what is expected to be a five-hour line of march.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—With the withdrawal of Gen. Duke, the Calumet Farm's Kentucky Derby entry, nine top 3-year-olds were left to battle for cash and glory this afternoon.

Announcement of the withdrawal of the Duke was made while some 25,000 early race fans had already filed into the Downs under crisp, clear skies.

With nine starting, minus the $1,250 starting fee for Gen. Duke, the gross purse is now $152,650, with the winner getting $107,950. News that The Duke had been scratched dropped odds from 8-5 down to 7-5, on Bold Ruler.

Willie Hartack, assigned to ride Gen. Duke, was disappointed, but was immediately named to ride Iron Liege.

Calumet had hoped until the last to keep Gen. Duke in the race, but it now seems that his next brush with the favorite, Bold Ruler must come in the preakness May 18, at Pimlico.

Today's race is set for 4:30 p.m. (EST), TV, 4:15-4:45 p.m. (WJBK-TV, Detroit).

Warnings of Frost Issued for Vicinity

The U. S. Weather Bureau has issued frost warnings for this vicinity over the weekend.

Tonight the weather will be clear and cold, low near 32. Tomorrow will be slightly warmer with a high of 50 to 54.

Despite low temperatures throughout the state for the past two mornings, frost damage has been averted so far except in several minor instances. The weather bureau credited cloudy skies for the lack of frost.

Downtown Pontiac's lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. was 36. At 2 p.m. the temperature was 52.

Burial to Be Held in Wisconsin

500 Visit Funeral Home for Last Look at McCarthy

WASHINGTON (AP)—About 500 persons filed through a funeral home here last night to view the body of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy.

A folded American Flag lay on a pew at the foot of the casket, which was flanked by two Marines.

Some wept at they viewed the body of the controversial Wisconsin Republican who died Thursday of a liver ailment.

McCarthy's body will lie in state at the funeral home through Sunday. After a service in the Senate chamber Monday at 11 a.m. EDT the remains will be flown to Appleton, Wis., for services and burial Tuesday.

Preceding the Senate service, a High Mass will be celebrated at St. Matthew's Cathedral at 9 a.m. Monday by the Most Rev. Patrick O'Boyle, Catholic archbishop of Washington.

Mrs. McCarthy has asked that, in lieu of flowers, contributions be sent to the New York Foundling Home. It was from this home that the McCarthys adopted a little girl in January.

★ ★ ★

Most of those who visited the funeral home last night were elderly. The group included two senators, Thye (R-Minn) and Frear (D-Del).

One woman repeatedly told those approaching the casket:

"People were a little bit too late showing how they felt. Here we are — flags at half mast, even at the White House."

Charges Reuther Tries to Seize Trucking Union

Claim Called Baseless in Detroit Auto Workers Headquarters

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Vice President James R. Hoffa of the Teamsters Union says president Walter P. Reuther of the United Automobile Workers is trying to "take over" the Teamsters union.

"But he'll never see the day he does it," Hoffa told newsmen yesterday after a closed meeting of Teamster officials.

The UAW in Detroit denied the charge as without foundation or fact.

Hoffa, under federal indictment on a charge of conspiring to bribe an employe of the Senate Investigating Committee, said he told the closed meeting of what he described as Reuther's effort to take over the Teamsters.

★ ★ ★

Reuther was accused by Hoffa of "trying to discredit and disrupt the Teamsters by wild and false statements."

BECK SUSPENDED

Dave Beck, Teamsters president, recently was suspended by the AFL-CIO Executive Council as a council member after invoking the protection of the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer questions by the Senate Investigating Committee in its probe into Teamster affairs.

★ ★ ★

A UAW spokesman said Reuther has said that Beck by his own statements and admissions of violations of AFL-CIO policy has shown himself unfit to hold office in the labor movement, and that if the charges against Hoffa are proven to be true, the Teamsters vice president should be sent to jail.

HOUSECLEANING ASKED

But the spokesman pointed out that Reuther has expressed hope that the membership of the Teamsters union will be able to "clean their own house" and continue to exist as a part of the AFL-CIO.

★ ★ ★

Only if an Executive Council probe finds that the Teamsters cannot be cleaned of corruption and it becomes necessary to expell the organization should the AFL-CIO establish a union untouched by corruption to which the members of the Teamsters union can belong, the spokesman quoted Reuther as saying.

★ ★ ★

He added that the UAW president has made it clear that the latter situation would be an AFL-CIO affair and not a UAW matter.

Bikes to Get Thorough Safety Check

More than 5,700 bicycles are expected to be inspected beginning Monday during the annual bicycle check in 27 Pontiac schools.

The yearly check is sponsored through the cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce Traffic and Safety Committees, the Pontiac Police Department, and school officials.

According to Harold E. Brady, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce sub-committee handling the program, officers of the Pontiac Police Department will appear at schools early in the week to explain the safety measures involved in riding a bicycle.

The officers will then give the children check sheets to take home for their parents to use in checking the bikes. After a two-day period in which the 10 safety points are checked, the sheets are to be signed by the parents and returned to school.

ISSUE LICENSE

For each properly signed check sheet, the officers will issue a license. The licenses cost 25 cents and are effective until Dec. 31.

The 10 points on each check sheet which each bicycle must have in proper working order are: Brakes, spokes, peddles, chain, handlebars and grips, seat, front and rear axle, bolts, lights and horn or bell, and the tires must be properly inflated.

According to Lt. Clayton Randolph, of the traffic and safety bureau, Pontiac Police, a bicycle license is very helpful in indentifying an injured child, so as to notify his parents immediately.

The license is also of great aid in locating a stolen bicycle, he added.

Supervisors Set Election Date

Residents of 150 - Acre Parcel of Bloomfield Seek Incorporation

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors yesterday set June 24 as the date of a special election for the incorporation of a 150-acre Bloomfield Township parcel just west of Birmingham.

Petitioners for the incorporation want the area bordered by Cranbrook and Lahser roads between Maple road and the route of Lincoln road to be known as Westchester Village.

There are about 620 residents there, most of them in homes from one to five years old.

The board also set May 13 as the date of a special hearing on a petition for annexation of some adjoining parcels to the village of Holly.

Since the board had not been scheduled to meet again until June 24, the petitioners for the annexation were asked to pay for the special session.

Donald Brewer, village attorney, deposited a $1,000 check with the board to cover the expense.

The Board also approved the annual report of the Oakland County Road Commission to the State Highway Department.

It approved the commission's placing of 40-mile speed zone signs on Avon road between Rochester and John R. roads in Avon Township.

It also directed the Drain Commissioner to act to establish water levels for several county lakes.

Jones, president of MacManus, John & Adams, Bloomfield Hills advertising agency, holds the trophy presented the firm by the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. for outstanding advertising for Cadillac Motors over a 25 year period. By E. H. SIMS

What is Ballot's Law? Did the Dutch scientist discover a secret of the winds? Modern study indicates he did.

In 1860, Buys Ballot outlined his basic principle: "Stand with your back to the wind and pressure is lower on your left hand than on your right . . ."

Science has proved it is usually true. Low pressure (bad weather) systems circulate counter-clockwise. High pressure systems rotate clockwise. Therefore, with your back to the wind, in a low pressure system, your left hand would point to the center of the disturbance.

In a high pressure system, your left hand would point away from the center of the high pressure area, away from the best weather!

Valuation Figures Set Record High

Other communities with less industrial development were not as affected by the new formula, he said.

★ ★ ★

The new formula, followed by the state and a trend in several counties, is aimed at closing the gap between the percentage at which personal property is evaluated with that at which real property is evaluated.

The county has been following a ratio of 80 per cent on personal property and 45 per cent on real. The new formula calls for a 47 per cent rate on both.

"We're moving towards the 47 per cent rate," said Ransom, "but didn't want to make the jump all at once for fear the tax base would be reduced too much." Real property, he said, was evaluated at 47 per cent this year.

SOLIDIFY TAX BASE

Proponents of the plan say it will solidify the tax base without reducing it, or only slightly.

Prime question now in county financial minds is whether the increase in the county's valuation is large enough to enable it to meet its proposed $10,700,920 budget for next year without increasing the current tax rate of 4.68 mills.

Pontiac will be asked to pay about 19.9 per cent of the total county funds.

The Oakland County Tax Allocation Board is expected to meet soon to start setting tax rates, within the 15-mill limitation, for the county, townships and school districts county and township taxes will be based on the county equalization figures.

Barring an upset by the tax commission, county and township taxes will be based on the county equalization for the first time in two years.

An appeal won by Waterford Township in 1955 resulted in the use of state equalized figures that year and the next.

City taxes, however, do not come under the 15-mill limitation, although the school and county tax spread in the city cannot exceed 15 mills, except for special levies approved by the voters.

The county equalization this year is expected to come "very close" to state equalized valuations on which school taxes are based, said William B. Grabendike, director of the county's equalization department.

SAMPLE APPRAISALS

Grabendike's staff made sample appraisals in every community to reach a uniform valuation of property throughout the county.

County appraisals, Grabendike said, were compared with local assessments, and adjustments were made where local figures differed from the county average.

He said new homes and other expansion accounted for much of the valuation increase, as did the change in indexes to conform with state equalized values and the use for the first time of the tax commission's manual for assessing property.

Five townships and two cities enjoying building booms showed the biggest dollar increases.

Bloomfield Township led. It was equalized at $79,679,623, a spectacular hike of $18,168,499 over last year. Waterford's value was set at $72,030,471, a $9,710,148 increase.

Farmington was valued at $48,122,580, up $9,032,716; Novi $20,316,809, up $6,907,748; and Southfield $140,544,389, up $6,198,207.

Oak Park was set at $88,603,250, an increase of $11,769,877. Madison Heights value was $38,057,901, a gain of $5,316,711.

McCarthy Rites First in Senate in Past 17 Years

WASHINGTON (INS) — Funeral rites for Senator Joseph R. McCarthy in the Senate chamber Monday will mark the first time in 17 years and the 24th time in U. S. history that a lawmaker has been so honored.

He joins a list which includes such Senate greats as Justin Morrill of Vermont, Mark Hanna of Ohio, Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, and William E. Borah of Idaho.

Capitol library records show that the first such services were held for Senator Solomon Foot of Vermont in 1866, seven years after completion of the present Senate chamber.

The rites for Borah, on Jan. 22, 1940, were the last, although in 1941 the bodies of two senators—Morris Shappard of Texas and Pat Harrison of Mississippi—laid in state in the Senate chamber without funeral services.

Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio was given a state funeral in the capitol rotunda in 1953, a highly unusual honor for a legislator.

New Postal Rates Asked for Dailies

WASHINGTON (INS) — The American Newspaper Publishers Association urged Congress today to establish a new postal rate policy "which will result in a fair method of determining rates of daily newspapers as an element of second-class mail."

The recommendation was made by Frank Daniels, president and general manager of the Raleigh, N. C., News and Observer and Times, and chairman of the ANPA Postal Committee.

Daniels told the Senate Post Office Committee newspaper publishers are willing to pay "100 per cent of the cost of handling daily newspapers in second-class mail."

Exact Replica to Be Blessed

Portrait to Hang Above Main Altar in Chapel Permanently

An exact replica of the miraculous Madonna of Czestochowa, Poland's most famous Marian Shrine, will be blessed at St. Mary's College, Orchard Lake, Sunday, at 6:00 p.m.

The replica, a portrait painted by Dr. F. Rutkowski who worked on the restoration of the original picture in the monastery of Bright Mountain, is one of three authentic copies in the United States.

The Very Reverend Wallace Filipowicz, rector of St. Mary's announced that the blessing of the Madonna portrait will not only reenact a traditional Polish rite but also signalize American participation in the closing of the Marian Year currently celebrated in Poland.

Political conditions in that predominantly Catholic country, which had formally acclaimed the Blessed Virgin its Queen in 1656, had prevented the observance of the Marian Year at its original proclamation by the Pope.

The portrait will be carried by the clergy in procession to the College Grotto where the ceremony will be held. Rev. Michael Koltuniak will head the recitation of the rosary during the procession, while Rev. Sigismund Sacilowski will preach the sermon at the Grotto.

Measuring four by three feet, it is slightly larger than life-size. Its most distinctive feature, the dark face of the Madonna, is said to be of Near-Eastern origin. Legend has it that the original was painted by St. Luke, the evangelist.

★ ★ ★

The portrait will hang permanently above the main altar in the Chapel of St. Mary's College.

Parents Find Identical Twins Too Identical

MOUNT CLEMENS (m — Jane and Joan Furton celebrate their first birthday today but not even their parents know which is Joan and which is Jane.

The identical twin sisters slipped off their wooden identification tags.

"One is Jane and one is Joan but I can't tell which one is which, said their mother, Mrs. Athlone Furton, 33, of Clinton Township.

The twins' father, Clayton, 44, doesn't know either. Neither do the youngsters' nine brothers and sisters.

Mrs. Furton said her only hope is that the hospital where the twins were born "have fingerprints or some other records."

10 More Families Flee Texas Flood

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (m — Flood waters poured out of Holliday Creek and into Wichita Falls today driving at least 10 families from their homes. Other sections of Texas got ready for the 17th day of rains and flood in this state that went through seven years of scorching drought.

★ ★ ★

Lake Wichita poured additional water into Holliday Creek during the night and there were indications that Lake Wichita, already 17 inches above its spillway, would go higher. Officials prepared to evacuate more families.

North and central Texas yesterday was hit by cloudbursts which dropped more than six inches of rain in some sections and caused other flood threats.

Evacuation of families here started before 10:30 p.m. In 1950 about 500 families were evacuated when the creek flooded. This northwest Texas city has a population of 125,000.

Find Radiation in Four Homes

But No Ill Effects Noted After Mishap in Houston Nuclear Plant

HOUSTON, Tex. (INS) — Radiation contamination has been found in the homes of four Houston men following an accident in a nuclear plant.

★ ★ ★

The disclosure that the four homes were under surveillance by atomic experts was made yesterday.

H. E. Northway, manager of the M. W. Kellog Company's nuclear laboratory, said the plant was closed after the accident March 13.

He added that a substance, comprised of compressed iridium-192 and aluminum metal powder, spilled out of a can in which it was shipped to the laboratory and that he, Jackson McVey, Jack Hawkins and Marvin Yoder Jr., were exposed to the contamination.

WON'T COME NEAR

Northway also said that "it has gotten so no one will come and visit us and that other children won't play with our five-year-old son."

It was learned that the clothes of other members of the family of one of the workers, and even the hair on the family dog, had been found to be radioactive.

But no ill effects have yet been discovered.

The powder was used in a camera-like device to detect weakness in structural steel, cables and pipe lines for Kellog, a construction firm, which also had been marketing the device.

Investigating the mishap and the radiation are two representatives of the Atomic Energy Commission and a Texas health department official.

Under the direction of Mrs. Esther Middlewood, state director of mental health education, members of the classes have learned about the basic fundamentals for leading public discussions, gained self-confidence in public speaking ability, and have become acquainted with up-to-the-minute problems in the township.

★ ★ ★

The training course, which began Feb. 14, has been held at the Leggett school on Pontiac Lake road and people enrolled had a choice of attending either afternoon or evening sessions.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Ralph Bergemann, chairman of the Program Planning committee said, "This type of program has been one of the most successful projects recently attempted in the area, and was met with enthusiasm by every individual who participated."

In September, the Leader Training program will again resume activity. No books are used, and the 'students' participate in public discussions on many "high interest" subjects.

TAKE DECISION

The decision to use the unorthodox method was taken by Acorn Iron Works Inc., of Detroit, when they found there were only two cranes in the metropolitan area which could handle the job, and both were too heavy to be transported to the site without breaking up the roads.

The spire is 40 feet, three inches, and will rest on a 100 foot tower. Its total weight is 1,000 pounds.

The helicopter is a Bell Aircraft 47-H, furnished by Whirl-Air, Inc. The two pilots aboard were Jim Kennedy and Ron Littlefair who had made trial runs for today's attempt Wednesday.

The engineers figured the copter would save greatly in both time and money.

Kirk-in-the-Hills is a Gothic church costing more than $4 million. It is due for completion by Christmas after some nine years of construction.

It began with a gift from the late Col. Edwin S. George, noted philanthropist, industrialist and world traveler. It follows closely the lines of the historic Melrose Abbey in Scotland, built in 822 and now in ruins.

★ ★ ★

Area Girl Is Awarded U. S. Merit Scholarship

BIRMINGHAM—Marcella M. Michaels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Michaels of 5 Woodbury Dr., Bloomfield Hills, has won a national merit scholarship, awarded by the National Merit Scholarship Corp.

Miss Michaels, senior at Birmingham High, will major in psychology at Wellesley College.

She has been active in many school and church affairs and is vice president of the local National Honor Society Chapter.

The National Merit Scholarship Program was begun in 1955, based on grants of $20 million from the Ford Foundation and $500 thousand from the Carnegie Corp. of New York. The program's nationwide search for students of high potential makes it possible for companies to devote their scholarship funds entirely to able students and colleges and avoid the overhead cost of holding separate competitions. Last year 556 Merit Scholarships were made available.

Nike Base Contract Goes to City Firm

The award, made by the Detroit district office of the U. S. Corps of Engineers, specifies the contract to be for "construction of tactical and troop facilities, including all related work neecssary."

The announcement states further that work on the base is to be completed in January, 1958. The base is a former auxiliary field for the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station.

Robert A. Engelhardt, of 1492 Villa Ave., Birmingham, has been appointed purchasing agent of Michigan Limestone Division.

The announcement was made by C. G. Hogbert, vice president of the U. S. Steel Corp. raw materials subsidiary. Engelhardt succeeds F. G. Corregan, who retired after 35 years of service.

Search Resumes for Stanley Streeter

The search for Stanley Streeter, Drayton Plains man who disappeared on a hunting trip Nov. 15 in the Upper Peninsula has been resumed today.

Almost 100 searchers, including 20 trustees from the Marquette Prison Honor Camp are combing dense timberland in Ontonagon County where Streeter, 65, vanished.

The searchers are concentrating in the area around the old Nonsuch mine. Sheriff's officers, conservation officers and a number of Michigan Tech students are participating in the operation.

A $500 reward has been offered for discovery of the body, half by Ontonagon County and half by the widow, Mrs. May Streeter, 4746 Clinton Dr.

Adenauer Holds Ground

Ignores Threats From Foes

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS

"The old man knows only 300 words of German," a member of West Germany's bundestag once remarked, "but he applies each one of them exactly right."

To say exactly what he means without oratorical flourish is one of the outstanding characteristics of 81-year-old Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, the man who led his nation back to respectability.

Today, "der Alte" also is trying to lead West Germany more firmly into the western defense camp. Despite threats of retaliation from Russia and dire warnings from his political foes at home, Adenauer wants his country to become an atomic arsenal for the free world.

At the current NATO council meeting in Germany, the chancellor is in the forefront of the fight to convince the European allies that they must not be lulled by sweet talk or frightened by tough talk from the Kremlin.

AGREES WITH U. S.

This is what the United States has been saying too, and, as if to give physical evidence of his agreement with Washington, Adenaur will pay another visit to this country at the end of May, his second in less than a year.

Adenauer was born in the Rhineland wine country whose people, he has insisted, are the only ones "sober enough to rule Germany." The chancellor, a Roman Catholic, neither drinks nor smokes.

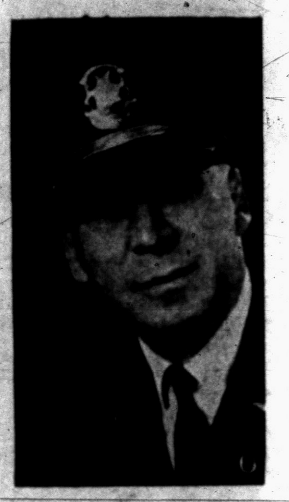
A lover of gardening and classical music, Adenauer served as mayor of Cologne for 16 years, until Adolf Hitler removed him from office for ordering police to tear down some Swastika flags.

★ ★ ★

He got his job back when the Allies retook Cologne in World War II, but the British later fired him for "inefficiency."

★ ★ ★

London has since offered to "confess its mistake," but Adenauer won't hear of it. It's not that he dislikes Englishmen. It's just that being fired by the British made him a popular man in Cologne and started him on the political ladder whose top rung was chancellor.



CHIEF STANLEY KEVERN

Honor Retiring Chief at Bloomfield Dinner

Police Chief Stanley Kevern was the guest of the City of Bloomfield Hills and city employes at a Kingsley Inn dinner last night, honoring his retirement from the police department.

Kevern, a member of the department since Sept. 20, 1929, will terminate his active cuties on May 15. His first step as "John Q. Citizen" will be to head south, where he and Mrs. Kevern will spend some time vacationing in Florida.

Knowing his activities in photography, city officials presented the retiring chief with a camera, while fellow employes in the Hills municipal government, added photo equipment, including telephoto lens, as their share of the tribute.

Kevern, who has seen the department grow with the times, and has seen the development of Woodward avenue, main north-and-south thoroughfare of the city, grow into one of the nation's busiest streets, says that while he looks forward to retirement, he still will miss the daily associations he has had as a member of the department.

New Addition to Be Dedicated

Membership Grows to 700 in 13 Years at Christ Lutheran

The new auditorium, of Christ Lutheran Church, Waterford Twp. designed to accomodate more than 600 people, will be dedicated Sunday.

Ceremonies will begin at 4 p.m. with Dr. O. V. Anderson, president of the Illinois Conference of the Augustana Lutheran Church guest speaker.

Eleven other pastors of the Eastern Michigan District of the Conference will also assist in the Dedication rite, according to Rev. Arvid Anderson, pastor of Christ Lutheran.

Forty-five members of the junior and senior choirs will present special music, under the direction of Mrs. Martin Wagner and Mrs. John Wiley.

★ ★ ★

The newly completed addition located on Williams Lake and Airport roads is 40 x 112 feet and conforms to the Norman style architecture of the first unit built in 1949.

Included in the new facilities in the upstairs of the building, is the pastor's office and the followship room.

The cost of the building and furnishings was $130,000 according to Robert Edwards, building committee chairman.

From a small group, organized thirteen years ago, has grown a congregation with more than 700 baptized members on the rolls. The Sunday school enrollment is nearly 500, pastor Anderson said.

★ ★ ★

Following the Dedication Service, a light supper will be served by the ladies of the church. The public has been invited to attend.

Jean McCarthy May Seek Joe's Seat in Senate

WASHINGTON (INS) — Mrs. George W. Malone, wife of the GOP senator from Nevada, said today there is already some talk of booming Mrs. Jean McCarthy to run for the Senate seat of her late husband.

★ ★ ★

Katie Malone, one of Mrs. McCarthy's dearest friends, said she would be "very surprised if Jean would" seek the office but the talk reflects the deep affection which McCarthy's friends have for his beauteous widow.

Under Wisconsin Law, a special election must be held to fill the vacancy caused by the GOP senator's death. Unlike some states, the governor cannot appoint a successor.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Malone was one of the first to reach Jean McCarthy's side after the senator's death, and she has spent most of the time since then at the McCarthy home trying to comfort her close friend.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Malone said the suggestion that Jean run for the Senate came from Wisconsin admirers and, the possibility was mentioned within hours of the senator's death.

★ ★ ★

In explaining why she would be surprised if Jean accepted the offer of political backing, Mrs. Malone said she believed the young widow feels bitterly that Senate turmoil cost McCarthy his life.

Constructors Bid on Music Building

ANN ARBOR (UP)—Bids for the construction of a new school of music building on the University of Michigan's north campus have been submitted to the State Department of Administration and the legislature.

W. K. Pierpont, U. of M. vice president in charge of business, said the low bids were about $600,000 below the estimated $4,500,000 cost. The university hopes to have the building completed by January 1959.

The legislature provided the university with planning money for the project last year, Pierpont said.

A new music building would replace, facilities on the main campus. Music education is presently taught in 13 different buildings and several local churches. One central building would permit the university to increase its music enrollment by 350 students to 850.

Post Office Maps Plan if War Comes

DETROIT (UP)—The post office has a plan to help families separated in enemy air attacks keep track of each other.

The plan was explained by Frank C. Freyer, a Chicago postal inspector at a Caravan Club luncheon recently.

In the event of attack evacuees of any city will be given cards to be mailed when they are assigned to a safe refuge. The card will list the evacuee's new address and next of kin.

The cards will bear the return address of postal location centers where "locator card files" will be maintained.

Here cards of families will be gathered together and each individual family member notified where the other is by the postal location center.

The airline will let you have a "flying kennel" free of charge and charge you only excess baggage on the combined weight of the kennel and the pet.

The kennels, which are carried in the air conditioned, pressurized baggage compartment, are made of a lightweight metal and are available in two sizes.

They are scientifically constructed to provide light and ventilation and are said to be the last work in comfort and luxury aloft for canine and feline travelers.

Remove Those Hazards!

J. L. VOORHEES

Dr. Garold Fabor told a group of men: "Your house is more dangerous than a dynamite factory."

"In the kitchen, lock up poisons: keep sharp instruments out of reach of children: turn pot-handles—IN—on the kitchen stove. Lock up medicines in your bathroom medicine chest, even aspirin and laxatives: keep toxic cosmetics out of reach: never leave small children in the bathtub, even for a few minutes. In other parts of the house lock up firearms and ammunition; anchor loose rugs: keep matches out of reach of children. In the yard lock your garage and workshop: fence your swimming pool: teach children not to play in the street or a driveway: always know where your children are before backing out of the driveway.

M. E. SIPLE

"Teach children not to play with strange animals and never tease pets, no matter how familiar they may be with the animal."

90% of all homes have these hazards. Not to remove them is to invite a serious or fatal accident.

Town Occupied by Nicaragua

Hondurans Driven Out of Disputed Settlement Situated on Border

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP)—President Luis Somoza told a cheering throng last night a tiny Nicaraguan force had wrested the border town of Mocoron from a Honduran garrison five times its size.

★ ★ ★

As the crowd exulted, the President's brother, Gen. Anastasio Somoza Jr., shouted that the Nicaraguan flag is flying over the Indian settlement on Central America's Caribbean coast. The two countries have disputed the border for years.

★ ★ ★

Nicaraguan and Honduran accounts of the border dispute varied. Each country insisted that Mocoron was traditionally theirs. A Nicaraguan national guard unit reportedly occupied the town two weeks ago and Honduran troops took it back Wednesday.

In Tegucigalpa, the Honduran capital, the ruling military junta ordered a blackout on any dispatches about military operations except official announcements.

Public Health Census Will Begin Monday

City Postmaster Offers Advice to Residents

Here's How to Speed Up Mail

If you are one of those who thinks mail delivery is too slow, Acting Postmaster Leslie Dean offers several tips to speed your letters on their way.

"If you are mailing a sizeable quantity of mail to local and non-local destinations, bundle it separately and label it 'Local' and 'Out-of-Town.' The Post Office will furnish free labels for this purpose," Dean said.

The postmaster also noted that the bulk of the day's mail arrives in late afternoon or early evening, so he advises mailers to avoid this rush by mailing at least once earlier in the day, before lunch for example.

Early mailing may save 24 hours or more in delivery time by making an early transportation connection, he added.

OTHER TIPS

Other tips by Dean are: Don't overstuff envelopes, they often burst in transit; print "air mail" on such envelopes and "first class mail" on large envelopes that could be confused with slower third class mail.

Be familiar with collection times on street or building boxes, advises Dean, and if your office building needs a lobby mail box suggest to the owner that he ask the Post Office about one.

Use the correct postage, or your mail will be returned marked "Postage Due," Dean continued. Overpayments are an unnecessary loss to the mailer.

Use air mail wisely, he cautioned. Important mail that would not get next-day delivery if sent otherwise should be sent air mail. The Post Office can tell you distances beyond which use of air mail will speed up delivery.

Don't hesitate to contact the Post Office when you have a question or problem, is the postmaster's final advice.

6. Cultivate Your Garden

If you want to have a successful garden, you must expect to put some effort and time into it. Otherwise, your plot will soon be full of weeds which would choke your plants completely.

You must watch out for weeds and hoe them up. It's best to do your weeding and cultivating in the morning. Water your garden in dry times only — and water it gently, so you don't wash your seeds and little plants away.

Here is Tommy working in his plot. Paste this picture down on cardboard and color it. Cut out the parts. Slip the top of the right arm behind Tommy's right shoulder. Then fasten the left arm to the left shoulder by a brass fastener through the indicated holes. That will enable Tommy to swing his hoe. Cut the slit in Tommy's hat and after putting it on his head, fold the tab down behind his head.

Fold the left panel back and Tommy will stand up. The tomato marker can be inserted in the ground or set up by folding the bottom tab. The tabs marked B are folded back.

2 Auto Plants Idled by Detroit Walkout

DETROIT (AP)—About 14,000 workers in Dodge and Plymouth plants of Chrysler Corp., were idled last night by the walkout of 124 inter-plant drivers after disagreement over job transfer rights.

Production was affected in seven plants.

Pat Caruso, president of United Auto Workers Local 212, said the company has not guaranteed salaried workers in Detroit plants the first shot at jobs in Chrysler's plant in Twinsburg, Ohio.

★ ★ ★

John E. Brannan, vice president of Chrysler's stamping and general manufacturing division, said the walkout was a "direct violation of the UAW contract with Chrysler."

★ ★ ★

He said the company had notified the union that Chrysler does not believe any salaried workers will be displaced by the shift of some stamping plant operations to Twinsburg.

Not Even Death Took McCarthy by Surprise

(This is the first of two articles on "The Real Joe McCarthy," describing the complex personality of the famed, ruggedly independent foe of communism whose death Thursday shocked millions of Americans.)

By JAMES LEE
INS Staff Correspondent

Nothing took Joe McCarthy by surprise. Not even death.

His passing Thursday night, in the sunset hush of a cool and gloriously golden spring evening, bore out a strange premonition.

When he was at his crest, slugging it out with enemies of high and low degree, looking and acting as strong as a fighting bull, the junior senator from Wisconsin sometimes slipped into a pensive mood.

"I'm not going to live very long," he would say. "So I'm going to have a good life and fight a good fight while I can."

TIME RAN OUT

There are those who believe today that the 47-year-old man of many parts was unastonished and unintimidated when time ran out in his death chamber, high in the tower of Bethesda Naval Hospital.

McCarthy, from the time he was a tousle-haired kid learning the facts of life and death on a farm in Outagamie County, had no illusions.

He was ready for anything. And he did not expect too much.

A few years ago, when McCarthy's spectacular crusade against Communists in government was attracting literally millions of followers, a reporter suggested that in the not too distant future he might win the Republican presidential nomination and go to the White House.

'DON'T KID ME'

"Don't kid me," Joe said. "A 'right-hander' (a reference to his Catholic religion) can't make the grade. I want to be known—and damned well known—as a senator who got reelected and reelected and did a lot of things."

He got his wish.

★ ★ ★

McCarthy loved a fight. He left the Wisconsin circuit bench, to which he had been elected at the age of 29, and joined the U. S. Marine Corps after Pearl Harbor because it was the "fightingest" branch of the service, in his view.

FOUGHT WITH ALL

He fought later with presidents and cabinet members, with his Senate colleagues, with men of great wealth and influence, with public idols.

"The bigger they are," he said, "the better I like it."

President Eisenhower was at the very zenith of his perhaps unparalleled nationwide popularity when McCarthy, smarting from the parliamentary lash with which 67 of his fellow senators flayed him in 1954, angrily "apologized" for supporting Ike in 1952.

And Harry Truman, enjoying the fruits of his upset 1948 reelection victory, was a strong and popular chief executive when McCarthy assailed him—as he was later to assail Eisenhower—for being what Joe called "soft" on communism.

★ ★ ★

To McCarthy, Truman's secretary of state, Dean Acheson, was the "Red Dean." To the senator from Wisconsin, the widely venerated Gen. George C. Marshall, wartime chief of staff, was the leader of a "conspiracy" to let America "fall victim to Soviet intrigue."

LIKED TO PLAY JOKES

Yet somehow, there was nothing really personal in these attacks. McCarthy liked to play jokes in which his feuds figured.

When the phone rang in his crowded office, he would pick it up and say, "Why, hello, Ike. What's that? You want me to go out to Burning Tree and shoot a little golf with you? Sure, Ike. I'd be delighted."

Or, when leaving for the day, he would turn to a news-hungry reporter and say, "Sorry I have to hurry. I'm meeting Harry Truman for a snort of bourbon and branch water."

★ ★ ★

McCarthy's doctrine in politics was the same as the late Knute Rockne's in football—"A good offense is the best defense."

Or, as he said he was once counseled by an Indian acquaintance of his Wisconsin boyhood, "When somebody gets ready to kick you below the belt—beat him to it."

One of the senators' best weapons — as the millions who watched and heard him in action in the televised Army-McCarthy hearings can attest — was his voice. It had a droning, cutting, buzz-saw quality, slicing ruthlessly through interruption—"Just a minute, Senator, let me finish."

TONE WITHERING

Often, his tone was withering, as when he rasped to Brig. Gen. (now Maj. Gen.) Ralph Zwicker, ". . . You are unfit to wear that uniform."

McCarthy believed Zwicker was "covering up" for others in the controversy over the promotion and honorable discharge of Maj. Irving Peress, the obscure Army Reserve Corps dentist to whom the senator referred as a "Fifth Amendment Communist."

That unswerving belief, which at times appeared to be an obsession, led to the 36-day televised drama in which McCarthy and his investigating committee counsel, Roy Cohn, did long, hard, and often dubious battle against the then Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens and his man, John Adams.

The Army-McCarthy row, and its sequel, the Senate proceedings in which by a vote of 67 to 22, McCarthy's conduct was "condemned" on two counts, marked the beginning of the end of his period of great investigative and headline-making prowess.

But he said he never regretted his actions. "I have never backed down from a fight," he told a newsman. "If I ever did, I'd be ashamed to represent the people of Wisconsin in the United States Senate."

FOES ANGERED

The Senator's foe, angered by his frankly ruthless tactics as an investigator of Communist infiltration, came up with the word "McCarthyism" to connote "witch-hunting" and "guilt by association."

Characteristically, Joe—a gifted and prolific man with words — dashed off a book to give the word an entirely different meaning. The title of the book, and rallying cry for his supporters, was "McCarthyism: The Fight for America."

The public knew McCarthy as a lion-hearted political battler — an alley-fighter, some said; a persecuted patriot, others maintained.

But there was a side to the Wisconsin warrior that few people knew — fond and admiring husband of a beautiful wife; inordinately proud foster father of an adopted baby daughter; grinning master of a fierce-looking watchdog that ran like a rabbit when strangers approached.

Also, there were the hidden motives and the deep-rooted convictions underlying the strong words and bold deeds of that irreverent, snarling, laughing, Red-hating, America-loving, complex man who at Bethesda Naval Hospital Thursday night faced and met death, unafraid.

(A concluding article will relate little-known facets of Joe McCarthy's personality, tell of his great love and romantic marriage, and describe his impact upon his friends and foes.)

2 Detroit Youths Face Murder Trial

DETROIT (AP) — Two Detroit area youths were ordered yesterday to stand trial on first degree murder charges in the April 1 purse-snatch death of Mrs. Cecelia Mathis.

The youths, Vito (Billy) Guaiana, 18, of suburban Harper Woods, and Martin Sears, 19, of Detroit, appeared before Recorder's (Criminal) Court Judge W. McKay Skillman.

Wayne Merritt, 16, also held in Mrs. Mathis' death, is awaiting a juvenile court ruling on whether he will be tried as an adult.

Robert J. Sillery, Wayne County medical examiner, testified yesterday that Mrs. Mathis' death resulted from a hemorrhage "possibly due to a fall."

★ ★ ★

Police quoted the youths as saying after they were picked up that they attempted to rob Mrs. Mathis to obtain gasoline money for their car.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Mathis, a 52-year-old downtown department store saleslady, was attacked on a street near her home on her way from work.

In the Nude, Girl Testifies

Forced to Dig Her 'Grave'

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—A pretty, 19-year-old drugstore clerk testified in Recorder's Court that her former husband forced her at gunpoint to dig her own "grave" in the nude and also made her fight his present wife.

★ ★ ★

Leon McIntyre, 24, accused of assault and battery against dark-haired Martine Tankersley, denied the charges. Miss Tankersley testified yesterday that she divorced the defendant recently to end a three-year marriage.

★ ★ ★

She said McIntyre got her at her trailer home last Friday, took her to a night club, and there coerced her into fighting the present Mrs. McIntyre.

"I don't have anything against that girl, and I don't suppose she has anything against me," Miss Tankersley testified. "I did not want to fight. But he hit me and kicked me, so she and I started fighting."

Miss Tankersley said McIntyre later struck his wife and knocked her unconscious. "Then he poured beer on her to revive her," she said.

★ ★ ★

She said McIntyre came into a night club where she was sitting the following night and forced her to go with him to a country road south of Mobile, pointed a shotgun at her and forced her to take off all her clothes.

"Then he gave me a shovel," she continued, "and told me to start digging."

"Dig your own grave?" Deputy Solicitor Donald E. Brutkiewicz asked.

"That's right," Miss Tankersley replied.

She said George Cody, 23, McIntyre's companion, helped her because she was unable to dig in the hard ground. After that, she added, she pleaded with McIntyre to let her dress and they returned to Mobile.

Testimony continues today.

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

SATURDAY, MAY 4, 1957

Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy

One of the most stormy and controversial figures in Senate history is lost in the death of JOSEPH R. MCCARTHY.

MCCARTHY

The voluble Wisconsin Senator won firm favor with an entire nation through his unremitting and ceaseless war against communism. It mattered not to the fiery Mid-westerner whether the objects of his wrath occupied sacred seats or whether they were in the center field bleachers. They were assailed with all the fury at his command and a nation applauded.

★ ★ ★

On occasions, Senator MCCARTHY misplaced his attacks and slowly his colleagues began to regard him with doubt and uncertainty. Misguided zeal, however lofty the motive, invites disaster.

★ ★ ★

Probably Senator McCarthy will be more accurately appraised in the light of a beneficent history, when prejudice and passion have been relegated to the side lines. In the meantime, this nation loses one of the greatest foes that communism had anywhere on this wide earth.

★ ★ ★

A fiery and picturesque figure bows out. A valiant warrior is gone.

Industrial Tax Rate Should Be Studied

Apparently Governor G. MENNEN WILLIAMS does not like to face the facts when it concerns industry and jobs leaving the state because of high taxes. All workers have a big stake in this.

After recent reports from top industry leaders that this was true, Governor WILLIAMS immediately cried that it "sounds politically motivated."

★ ★ ★

Facts alone should be used in judging why certain industry is leaving the state. We do not attempt to know the exact reason in many cases. But in some instances, the true facts have been very clearly stated.

★ ★ ★

EDWIN C. HETHERWICK, new president of the Michigan Manufacturers Association and president of Hayes Industries, Inc., and PETER HURST, president of Aeroquip Corp., said taxes are lower in Ohio than in Michigan. These two men operate companies in both states and should be in a position to know the tax rate.

★ ★ ★

HETHERWICK said Michigan's tax structure caused his company to build plants in 1950 at Bryant, Ohio, and in 1955 at West Unity, Ohio, instead of this state. "We found that our manufacturing costs are less in Ohio, and taxes are certainly a major factor," he said.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Hurst went on to say "taxes are taken into consideration when expansion moves are under advisement." Certainly these two Jackson industrialists with operating plants in both states have a very clear cut picture of the tax rate in both states.

★ ★ ★

It would seem advisable, before any increase in Michigan taxes for industry is considered, that the entire tax picture be re-examined. If Michigan taxes for industry are already larger than some of our neighboring states, the citizens should be apprised of this fact.

★ ★ ★

With taxes playing such an important role in future industrial jobs, Michigan should be looking to hold our present industries rather than forcing them to move because of the high tax rate.

None So Blind

This years' delegates to the British Communist conference, as a result of events in Hungary and the de-Stalinization campaign, protested strongly against:

1. Blind adulation of things Soviet.
2. Unquestioning subservience to British party leadership.
3. Party leaders' attempt to stifle policy discussions.

There are among the reasons for the 7,000 drop in British Communist party membership to the present 28,000.

★ ★ ★

A British mathematician and philosopher who had just returned from a visit to the Soviet Union, told the party that "I got a belly-full to last me the rest of my life. I saw things that shook me to my very foundations."

Another Communist member who also had visited Moscow told the conference that his party if "living in a smug little world of our own invention . . . There is an authoritarian tendency in the party to distrust the rank and file and keep down discussion in the party. We have been living in a world of illusions."

★ ★ ★

One wonders why a trip to Moscow was necessary to convince these intellectuals of the iniquity of the Soviet system. The facts have been available for years. Anyone who doesn't know them certainly must be living in an ivory tower.

Holding the Line

School Aid May Crack GOP Budget Policy

By ROGER LANE

LANSING—If there's a wedge in Lansing that will break the Republican budget line, it now appears even clearer than before that it will be the issue of school aid.

House Republicans, who have held firm in other areas, went to the firing line yesterday and cast their votes for new taxes for grade and high schools.

That leaves it up to the Republican majority in the Senate either to follow suit, to substitute taxing measures more to its liking or, by turning thumbs down, to hold the line.

Republicans in the House, a great many of them, for months have talked of making an exception of school aid in the general determination to resist new taxes.

Not so in the Senate. There's a hard core of opposition that all during this period has said "no new taxes for anything."

In the last two or three days, a test was made of this sentiment at behest of House Republicans who didn't want to commit themselves before knowing whether their colleagues in the upper chamber would go along.

VOTES CANVASSED

Sen. Frank D. Beadle (R-St. Clair), Senate caucus leader, reported his canvass at one point had turned up 14 of the 18 Senate votes required for Senate concurrence.

★ ★ ★

Later, Beadle said some waverers turned up among the 14.

However, this was a time when it still was uncertain what the outcome would be in the House.

He said he thought support would firm up some when the House bill actually was approved and immediately confronted senators.

★ ★ ★

For one thing, their position has been premised entirely on the simple proposition that they feel a mandate from the people back home—no new taxes.

GONE ON RECORD

Acting on this premise, they already have gone on record against more money for universities, for the mentally retarded, for prison system improvements and other causes that at least some acknowledge are worthy.

★ ★ ★

In any event, the pulling and hauling probably will reach a pitch the key actors long will remember.

Periscoping the Overcast

Days of All Faiths:

Urge Family, Home Rededication

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

For a dozen years now the National Council of Churches has used the first week in May to call American Protestants to a rededication of their homes and their families to God. This year the theme for the week is "God is our hope." And the approach to the week's emphasis is through the normal hopes, always found in family life everywhere: the hope of growth, of life, of love.

Local churches will ask their people to take this week to consider their best hopes depend on God, and to make—parents and children together—a self-evaluation of the family's relationship with the Father of all.

Primarily National Family Week is a home observance. Materials have been prepared for home use—such as an eight-day manual for family worship. This pamphlet, called Pages of Power, provides a service for each day of the observance. Each day's meditation is related to one of the great experiences of family life, such as birth, growth, marriage, illness, or death. It is also suggested the family make what might be considered a daring experiment in these times: the scheduling of an evening together at home during the week.

Church programs throughout the week will support the recommended home activities. Sunday services will be built around the family theme. During the week many congregations will hold a "Family Night," and in many places Family Life Training Schools will be offered.

BIRTH OF A NATION

In the Jewish calendar Monday is the fifth of Iyyar. In 1948 it was the 14th of May: that was the day on which the new nation of Israel was established. Israel Independence Day has since then been observed according to the Jewish rather than the more familiar Gregorian calendar.

Not all Jews celebrate the day; indeed many have little or no interest in it. But for those who are identified with or concerned about the Zionist movement (the re-establishment of the Jews in their homeland of Palestine), it commemorates the greatest event in the last 19 centuries of Jewish history.

On that day in 1948, at 4 p.m. in the city of Tel Aviv, David Ben-Gurion read the Declaration of Israel's Independence and then stated: "We hereby proclaim the establishment of the Jewish state in Palestine, to be called Israel." And a new little nation, with a vigorous, dedicated population of 700,000 souls, was born.

APPARITION OF ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel is known (through the references to him in Daniel, chapters 10 and 12, and Revelation, chapter 12) as the captain of the heavenly host. He led his armies to victory over the rebellious archangel Lucifer (Satan), which of course established him as champion and protector of Heaven and, by derivation, of the Church.

From there it was only a short step to the tradition that says he has power to rescue the souls of men from the devil, especially at the hour of death. Michael thus came to be associated with the Judgment. In art he is shown holding a pair of scales, on which presumably the merit and shortcomings of each man are weighed.

As this idea of his importance to the human race developed, it was only natural a cult of St. Michael should grow up and men should begin to find him more closely associated with the earth than had been supposed. Many appearances of the archangel have been recorded, the most famous of which took place near Naples on May 8, in a year late in the fifth century. A church in his honor was built there at once, as has been done in the case of every one of his subsequent appearances.

Mostly St. Michael has been seen on or near the tops of mountains. This is why he is the patron of mountains and why so many St. Michael's churches are on mountains or hilltops.

LI'L ONES

I'm sure getting tired of this tight money policy."

Dr. William Brady Says:

In This Case, Life Begins at 48

"What is the oldest age, to your knowledge, that a woman has borne a baby?" (Mrs. O. C. M.)

Answer—Forty-eight.

"I have inquired of all drugstores in Mobile, but none has the chamomile tea you suggest for varicose ulcer . . (Mrs. C. P.)

DR. BRADY

Answer — You should ask for dried Chamomile flowers, called German, Hungarian, Roman, English or alias, and make the tea yourself. Instruction for use of the remedy in the pamphlet on Varicose Veins and Varicose Ulcer, for which send stamped, self-addressed envelope.

"My dad believes in you greatly. He told me to ask your advice about polio shots for children and adults . . ." (S. H.)

★ ★ ★

Answer—By all means have the children immunized. The vaccine can do no serious harm in any case, and so I'd advise adults to have it if poliomelitis occurs in the neighborhood.

"As a layman I can see that you are right about tonsillectomy. It certainly is a major operation. I had one at 40 and although I believe it helped me, I nearly died." (B. B. F.)

★ ★ ★

Answer—Is there any good reason to think it helped you any more than the minor operation, tonsillotomy, would have done? If there is a rational reason for subjecting a patient to risk of life just because of enlarged or infected tonsils, I'd like to know about it.

"Had an attack of sinus trouble. Friend had similar trouble and said he sniffed salt water two or three times a day and cleared it all up. I have tried it and it seems to clear my head all right. Is it harmful?" (Mrs. W. R.)

★ ★ ★

Answer — Not if it does not cause immediate irritation. Better than sniffing would be gentle irrigation — allowing the lukewarm solution of not more than two teaspoonfuls of salt in the pint of water to flow in one nostril and out of the other, from a reservoir a few inches above level of nostrils. Study chapter on sinus trouble in booklet, Call it CRI—for copy send 35 cents and stamped envelope bearing your address.

"My eyes have been congested and bloodshot a long time. My oculist, Dr. —, wants to use a kind of electric needle to obliterate the broken vessels. Is it safe?" (C. S.)

Answer — Yes.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Thoughts for Today

And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith.—Eccl. 1:13.

Nothing is of more importance for the public welfare than to form and train up youth in wisdom and virtue. Wise and good men are, in my opinion, the strength of a state far more so than riches or arms.—Benjamin Franklin.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Livens His Sermon, Gets Results

Here's the follow-up on the case of Rev. Joseph, who wanted to quit the ministry because he felt he was a failure in the pulpit. As Jesus so aptly showed us in the case of the hapless fisherman, the difference between abject failure and glorious success is chiefly a matter of a new point of view. Every average person can learn the secret of being an interesting speaker in 10 minutes!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case U-372: Joseph J., aged 42, is the scholarly clergyman mentioned yesterday who felt he was a complete failure in the pulpit.

★ ★ ★

After I had outlined the formula for a very effective and interesting sermon, he said:

CRANE

"Oh, Dr. Crane you may be correct, but that outline is so alien to my personality that I am sure I couldn't follow it."

"Well, you have admitted you are a total failure and wish to quit your high calling," I reminded him.

"So go back to your parish. Take the attitude that you are working on a Ph.D. thesis in psychology under my direction.

"I don't care whether you believe my prescription will work or not, for in psychology we have definite rules that will produce success even in spite of a Doubting Thomas attitude.

"But throw out all of your past formulae, since they have made you a miserable failure after 20 years in the pulpit.

"And start developing sermons from visits with parishioners. Do more pastoral calling. Create your sermons out of the contacts that you make with people.

"Quit reading so many scholarly books and magazines. You are too erudite, which is one of your problems.

"Pore over the daily newspaper. And cultivate the habit of reading the comic strips, for they are the most familiar things to most of your parishioners.

"Try to illustrate your sermons by references to relevant episodes that have occurred in the comic strips and the news stories.

"All you lack to be a success is what the discouraged fishermen needed when Jesus came down to inquire about their success. You must quit fishing out of the former side of the boat!

"The fishermen probably thought Jesus was wasting their time when he urged them to cast their nets on the other side of the boat.

"But when they followed his advice, they had an avalanche of fishes. And you can likewise change from abject failure to striking success in a few weeks, just by taking this new point of view."

DOUBTING THOMAS

Well, Rev. Joseph shook his head dubiously, but I gave him a pep talk and told him he was being unfair to his calling unless he at least made a sincere try-out of the new public speaking method.

"But I never tell a joke or try to make my congregation laugh," he protested. "That will be the hardest task ahead."

Four weeks later he reported back to my office in person. He had really made a valiant effort to follow my public speaking formula to the letter.

"But I still feel awkward about mixing any humor in a sermon," he added with a wry smile, "though I have tried and the audience seems to like it.

"The attendance has increased about 10 per cent this month so I'll keep on for another four weeks."

Here's the summary: In the next three months his salary was boosted 50 per cent, which was a phenomenal change in his eyes.

His congregation also asked his bishop to return him for the third year, which was something that never had happened previously in his 20 years in the pulpit.

And in two years time, his salary was double what it was when he first came to see me!

Attendance was up about 75 per cent in his church sanctuary. And he was being asked to deliver Commencement Addresses and talk to men's Service Clubs!

★ ★ ★

So send for my booklet "How to be a Successful Speaker," enclosing a stamped return envelope plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Use it yourself and mail a copy to monotonous clergymen for they can transform their ministry by thus using the proper psychology.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Patient's Daughter Praises Doctor, Hospital, Press

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I was shocked and disgusted with Blank, who objected to the article about the heart operation. It was to give faith and hope to others who have the same ailment. It has now been proven they can lead a normal, useful life if they have faith to have the surgery done. In a few months Reverend DuBois will return to his work in the ministry, capable of carrying out his full duties.

I am thankful Pontiac has a surgeon capable of performing this type of surgery and a hospital equipped for it. Reverend DuBois was given the finest care and attention available. The only thing the hospital needs is space. The new addition is desperately needed. There is no limit to the wonderful things Pontiac doctors can do if they have the space for patients and equipment. The new wing should be finished, no matter what the cost.

I'm grateful to the surgeon, the hospital and The Pontiac Press for telling others that they, too, might have a normal, useful life again.

'Sick of Advice to Wives Only'

Some woman think Dr. Crane's great because he told fat wives to reduce to get their husbands to appreciate them. What about some appreciation from husbands whose wives never get fat in the first place? I know plenty of women who are very attractive, have great personalities and are good homemakers and mothers to boot. Yet their husbands couldn't be any less appreciative if the wives were outsized elephants. I get sick of all this advice to wives. How about some for the men?

'Price of Houses Due to Labor'

A great deal is being written these days about the prohibitive cost of building due to light mortgage money, the appliance craze, the higher cost of land, etc.

These are important, but not half as important as the continually higher wage demands of the building trade. We have just built a modest new house and we found out the sad truth that 80 per cent of the cost of our home was for labor.

I would like to let you know how much we in Farmington appreciate your page of county news. I was disappointed, however, that you could not give more space to our local landmark, the castle on Middlebelt Road. Sometimes the old homes are more interesting than the new, of which there are so many.

Restates Position on Party Crasher

Following publication of my letter in The Press, a girl who refused to identify herself called and accused me of "slamming the Waterford kids." On the contrary, I meant only to ask protection of our decent, respectable youngsters from having their parties crashed by youths from other areas, as happened in this case. Such uninvited people are bringing disrepute upon our young folks who are trying to do the right thing. I'm sorry if my interest was misinterpreted because my husbands' and my opinion, by and large, is that Waterford kids are "the greatest."

I'm a student at Waterford High and was reading an article about student bus drivers in Charlotte, N.C. It told of the fine safety record of the student drivers and how successful it had been since they started in 1933.

I believe it should be tried in some of our public schools in the county. It would be to the advantage of both the county and students.

Bus Wage Hike Talks Held Up

Contract Negotiations for City Drivers Due to Resume This Month

Negotiations aren't expected to resume until the middle of May between city bus drivers and Pontiac City Lines, Inc. in efforts to settle on a new contract.

Attempts have been deadlocked since the union last month rejected a company contract calling for a 7-cent hourly wage increase. The 40 drivers are asking a 20-cent boost.

E. W. Dreasher, transportation superintendent of the company, said "previous commitments" of bargaining officials have hindred the scheduling of meetings.

Since the old contract expired March 31, service has continued normally under a day-by-day agreement between the company and the drivers, members of Local 1079 of the Amalgamated Assn. of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employes of America.

★ ★ ★

Appearing in the first entracte will be Jack Hutchings and the Junior Girls' Ensemble singing "Somewhere a Child Is Praying" (Elliott) and "Too Young" (Stickless).

In the second entracte, Eleanor Hassenzahl, organist, will play "Cantabile" (Franck). Also appearing at this time will be Ruth Ann Tower, Jane Austin and Robert Everett. The Senior Boys' Ensemble will conclude with a special arrangement of "After Dark."

The final entracte will feature Gwen Vernon and Bonnie Allen, and the Senior Girls' Ensemble singing "I Am Joy" and "Stardust."

★ ★ ★

The Pontiac High School A Cappella Choir will sing two Broadway hit tunes, "Stranger in Paradise" and "This Is My Beloved" from Kismet, melodies which are taken from the works of Borodin, the Russian composer.

The group will also offer selections from "My Fair Lady," with Dianne Beach doing the solo in "I Could Have Danced All Night."

The choir is also presenting "Ye Shall Have a Song" (Thompson), "Miserere Mei" (Lotti), "Hodie Christus Natus Est" (Willan) and "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands," a spiritual arranged by Forrest.

★ ★ ★

All seats are reserved for the concerts to be presented May 7, 9 and 10 at Pontiac High School.

Members of the Senior Boys' Ensemble will present a special arrangement of "After Dark" at the three evening performances of the annual spring concert of the Pontiac High School Vocal Department. Father's Fame Is Burden for Harold Lloyd Junior HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Harold Lloyd Jr., 25-year-old son of the bespectacled film comedian, says one of the best and worst things than can happen to a guy is to be a chip off of a famous old block.

"I'm a serious singer," he said, "but do you think anybody'll believe it? They all think I'm a comedian, or that if I'm not, I ought to be."

Young Lloyd, who bears no resemblance whatever to his famous dad, is a singer of folk songs, French ballads, New York show tunes and even turns operatic arias into appropriate nightclub fare.

"It's a handicap," he added, "to be thought of as anybody's carbon copy. But if you have talent you get there just the same. It just takes a little longer and you have to prove you're a completely different personality."

One evening when Lloyd was entertaining at a local nightery he overheard a conversation between a man and a woman who were considering coming in to hear him. The conversation went something like this:

Man: "That's Harold Lloyd's son. Let's go see him."

Woman: "Oh, honey, what do we want to see him for? He'll be doing the same kind of thing his father did and we've seen that!"

The upshot of the matter was the man won out and the couple went in to see what young Lloyd had to offer.

"I overheard this conversation," Harold said, "and when I saw them come in I asked the headwaiter to place them at a ringside table. I think I convinced them I was a singer — not a comedian."

★ ★ ★

What the couple saw was a medium-sized fellow with brown hair, friendly eyes, a marked resemblance to dancer Gene Kelly — and no eye glasses.

Harold not only sings. He composes, plays straight dramatic roles and just to prove he's versatile and unafraid of comparisons, he's donned eyeless specs to perform on NBC's Matinee Theater the type of comedy role that made his dad famous.

Zontas Hear U-M Artist

Emil Weddige, associate professor of design of the University of Michigan, and winner of many awards in the field of art, lectured on American paintings to members of the Zonta Club of Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Attitudes concerning art, how it affects the individual and its story content should be the measure of a good picture, the speaker said. It should not be measured by the name of the artist alone, as many famous artists have done poor pictures, he emphasized.

Three categories for determining a good painting discussed by Prof. Weddige were the artist's understanding and skillful use of tools, the why and wherefore of applying paint; the artist's form of painting which expresses his total personality.

Significance of the painting — whether or not it tells the whole story is the third measure of a painting, the speaker noted.

★ ★ ★

As slides were shown to the group gathering Thursday at Hotel Waldron, it was clearly seen the change from realism to the more abstract. This change in thinking and attitudes of painters was illustrated by pictures having obvious subject matter, and those which gave only a clue as to what the painter intended.

Take Advantage of 'La Manana' Mood

Summertime Means Easy Living

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

In preparing for pleasure and comfort during the approaching hot season we would be wise to take the physicial atmosphere of our homes into consideration. Certain colors, lack of clutter and simplification, all are cooling and re ful.

★ ★ ★

Pastel-tinted slipcovers over winter upholstery give us a change of scenery and look cool. These slipcovers also are economical since they protect against the perspiration which heat produces. If you have teenagers in your house, these are almost a necessity during vacation periods.

Inexpensive summer rugs look cool and also save the wear and tear of your winter rugs. Lightweight, gauzy draperies look and do the same.

For informal living you will find paper napkins and hand towels indispensable. I think, too, that you would find individual trays a great delight. Many families love to eat on the porch in the summertime. The trays can be filled ahead of time or you can serve buffet.

Think, too, of your hairdo and clothes for summer comfort. All of these small items count up to gracious and comfortable living even when the temperature soars.

Summer is the season when we should and do slow our pace, when we loaf about more, when we lives less formal lives. Why not even take full advantage of this mood of "La Manana" (do it tomorrow rather than today)?

Give Muscles Break

Your first outdoor exercise of the season will likely cause a muscular "morning after." After that first tennis match or bout with the garden, give your winter-tightened muscles a loosening up with an old-fashioned massage. Knead the muscles of the legs, arms and shoulders with a gentle but firm finger action.

BONNIE JEAN CLARK

The engagement of their daughter, Bonnie Jean, to Robert Eugene Watson, is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lemmons of East Sheffield avenue. Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Watson of Lake Orion. The couple plans a fall wedding.

Dinner Held by Amvets Auxiliary

Among the guests present were Mrs. Ralph Povlitz, state president; Mrs. James J. Houck, district director, Region Three; Mrs. Kenneth Hackett, state chaplain; Mrs. Edna Martin, junior vice president, and Jacolyn Smith, commander, Jimmy Dey Amvets Auxiliary.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Orrin P. Huntoon Jr. was in charge of arrangements for the evening. Serving on the committee were Mrs. Murial Sadler, Mrs. Daniel T. Murphy Jr. and Mrs. Stewart Houghton.

Husband Pays and Pays When Wife Is Dissatisfied

Man Hurts Himself When He's Stingy With Compliments and Attention

BY RUTH MILLETT

A dissatified wife is a luxury few men can afford.

Gentlemen, it costs you when you neglect to tell your wife what a fine job she is doing as a homemaker. If she doesn't get any appreciation from you, she'll try to get it from other women by competing with them in a never-ending struggle to fill her house wtih finer things than her friends have.

If she feels neglected and unloved she will consciously or unconsciously try to make you as miserable as she is and you will find little peace at home.

If you have stopped complimenting her on her looks, she will need more expensive clothes, more sessions at a beauty salon, more beauty aids of every kind to reassure herself that she is still an attractive woman.

If you shut her completely out of your world of work she will fill the emptiness with useless, time-consuming social activities instead of working at the job of being your partner.

★ ★ ★

If you are too difficult to please, she will grow weary of trying and your happiness and well-being will become less and less important to her.

If you refuse to talk things over with her, she will start confiding in outsiders and you will no longer present a united front to the world.

In the end a husband always pays for letting his wife become dissatisfied. And he pays in many, many ways — in money, in loss of self-esteem, in contentment.

Since this is so, it is stupid of any husband to be so stingy with his praise, his compliments, and his attention that his wife feels neglected and dissatisfied with her place in life.

Home Project Speeds Up Recovery

By ANNE HEYWOOD

More and more, doctors agree that the mental approach of the patient has a great deal to do with the speed and completeness of the recovery.

I have found this to be true.

While interviewing someone who has a successful home project, I have often discovered that it was something he had started while recovering from an operation or serious illness.

"I started doing this to take my mind off my troubles," Mrs. K. told me. She makes and sells aprons.

★ ★ ★

"I had to stay in bed three months while I was convalescing. After the first few weeks of boredom, I realized that you can read just so many hours and that I'd have to find something to do.

PARTY APRON

"I decided to make myself a gay festive party apron, to wear the very first time I could go to a party. I knew that it would be months before I could, but it cheered me up to plan for it.

"It was silly and bright and I finished the apron in no time. Then I decided to give it away and make myself another one—I certainly had enough time.

"My friend adored it, and, in exchange, she offered to buy up odd pieces of material for me.

"I told her the kind of fabrics and colors I wanted and she haunted the remnant counters and found some real bargains. It was fun, waiting to see what she would bring home.

"This went on for some time.

"Then another friend suggested that the aprons were so attractive that a local gift shop might want to stock them. She offered to call on the shop with samples—she was grateful for the one I'd given her and besides, friends are wonderfully kind when you're sick.

SHOPKEEPER PLEASED

"The shopkeeper was delighted with them and kept me busy making them.

"By this time, I had practically forgotten I was sick. I improved so much faster than the doctor had expected that I was up a month early. And by that time, I was in the apron business!"

You don't have to be convalescing to start a home business.

If you'd like to consider starting one, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, care of The Pontiac Press, and I'll send you my recommended list of books on Making Money at Home.

Diet and Surgery Don't Fascinate Many Listeners

A diet, as a topic of conversation, is about as interesting to your listeners as an account of your operation.

They're both topics that are endlessly fascinating to you and to no one else. When you are on a diet, stick to it but don't discuss it, not even with your best friend. And when you go out to a dinner party, don't refuse food or ask your hostess to prepare something special for you because you're dieting.

You can eat what appears to be a normal dinner by taking smaller portions and leaving a bit of each. The fact that you don't help yourself to a roll or finish all of your dessert won't cause comment.

The next day return to your diet schedule with a clear conscience. When your friends do notice your weight loss, don't retaliate with a complete description of your diet and its astounding success. Accept their comments and let the whole matter go at that.

Confident Living

Adult Trouble Calls Back Reassurance of Childhood

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

At a luncheon recently I was sitting next to a well-known businessman. This man is big, sort of pompous and loud spoken. You wouldn't think he had ever been afraid of anything. But people sometimes reveal their innermost souls.

As we sat there he told me an interesting story. It was about a young boy in bed in a farmhouse on a dark and stormy night long ago. The winds were sighing around the old house and suddenly a clap of thunder awakened the lad. There was more rolling thunder; then lightning tore the heavens and seemed to just miss the house. Rain hurled against the window panes and ran down in streaming rivulets.

DR. PEALE

And, all of a sudden, there welled up in this boy all those old primeval, deep fears of the dark and the forces of nature. He leaped from bed, ran into his mother's room and fell to his knees beside her bed, crying out in fear, "Mother, mother!"

A soft hand reached out to pat his head and a warm arm went around his neck, and a loving, reassuring voice said softly, "Don't be afraid, honey. Mommy's here. There's nothing to be afraid of. God is watching over us." Then she took him back to his bed, pulled the covers up around his neck and sat by his side stroking his cheek until he was asleep once more.

"I was that boy," the executive told me, "and I had forgotten that incident until just recently. I've been having some hard going and don't seem up to facing the decisions with which I've been troubled. They're tough ones, involving the futures of a lot of people, and I'm afraid I'm getting a little older. I'm in my fifties, you know.

OLD FEAR RETURNS

"Well," he continued, "a short time ago I awoke in the middle of the night at our country home. There was a violent storm, with thunder, lightning and heavy rain. All of a sudden, I felt just as I had on that same kind of night years ago. That old fear crept up inside me and I actually had a strong desire to rush to my mother, to feel her arms around me, and have her comfort me so that I would know everything's going to be all right. But, of course, she's long since gone from this earth. Isn't it strange," he added, "how every now and then you want your mother?"

"Then," he went on, "I remembered what my mother had said that night long ago: 'There's nothing to be afraid of. God is watching over us.' Dr. Peale," he said with an earnestness that touched me deeply, "I want you to know that, at that very moment, I actually felt God's presence and lost my fears."

I looked at his face and it was like a small boy's; it was pathetic, yet it was inspiring. Just then, some other people came up to talk to us. He changed instantly and was his bluff, rather rough self once more.

But, you see, I know him now and I always will. And it's all right. A man has to be a man. He can't remain a boy, even though something inside of him always wants to. The fundamental conflict of our human nature is how to master this weak, fearful, timorous child inside us and become the strong, mature adult God meant us to be.

It is this inner conflict that causes anxiety and which may remain with us from cradle to grave, unless we get the answer to it.

That mother's consoling reassurance to her son is a good prescription for anxiety: "There's nothing to be afraid of. God is watching over us."

Rev. Barney D. Roepcke to Conduct Rededication

REV. BARNEY D. ROEPCKE

The remodeled and refurnished sanctuary of the Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian, 5171 Commerce Rd., will be dedicated at 5 p.m. Sunday.

The Rev. Barney D. Roepcke, associate pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Kalamazoo and former pastor of the Orchard Lake Church, will conduct the rededication service.

The Rev. Harold F. Fredsell, D. D., stated clerk of the Presbytery of Detroit and director of the church extension for the Synod of Michigan, will preach.

Charles Forbes, an elder of the congregation and chairman of the building committee, will present the sanctuary for rededication with the pastor, the Rev. Edward D. Auchard, presiding.

A graduate of New York University, Dr. Fredsell holds a Master's degree from Columbia University and a theological degree from Union Theological Seminary, New York.

Author of several books, Dr. Fredsell has taught Biblical courses in the training schools of the Detroit Council of Churches and currently is guest lecturer in church history and New Testament at the Detroit Institute of Technology.

ROEPCKE FIRST PASTOR

The Rev. Mr. Roepcke was the first full time pastor of the Orchard Lake Church. A native of Michigan and a graduate of Alma College and McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago, we was called to Orchard Lake in 1943.

Beginning with 59 members, he built the congregation up to a total of around 550 members.

Under his leadership, the church launched its musical program which led to five complete choirs. The original church was enlarged and remodeled with a basement and first floor level of what will eventually be a three floor educational wing.

Services of the Orchard Lake Church were begun in the 1860s in the home of Colin and Caroline Campbell on Apple Island in Orchard Lake.

A pew recently removed from the church bore the inscription, "Orchard Lake Christian Church" and the date 1870. The original white chapel was formally dedicated in 1874.

At first, services were held only during the summer months when visitors swelled the local population. At one time, a little steamboat gathered up the worshipers around the lake to take them to church.

A community Sunday School organized in Westacres began the use of the church in 1930. In 1939, year round services were started and in 1943 the congregation organized as a Presbyterian Church calling the Rev. Roepcke as pastor.

The congregation recently authorized the purchase of a vacant lot in the Orchard Pointe subdivision for the erection of a manse at some future date.

Ralph D. Johnsons, Hosts for May Day Breakfast

'Free Schools' Subject of Day

United Church Women to Hold May Breakfast in Trinity Baptist

"Free Schools in a Free America," will be the theme of the annual May Breakfast of United Church Women to be held at 9 a.m. on May 13 in Trinity Baptist Church, Wessen at Maple St.

★ ★ ★

The national observance of May Fellowship Day sponsored locally by the Pontiac Council of United Church Women, will focus on a searching look at the public schools.

The purpose is to arouse people to the fact that American schools are the problem of all; that as Christians we must assume responsibility for seeing that our schools fulfill their heritage as free institutions of learning.

Current questions and problems will be paneled by Mrs. T. E. Wiersema and Mrs. Everett Spurlock with Mrs. Harry King, moderator.

Among questions to be posed are "Are there enough schools and enough well trained teachers? Does every child have equal opportunity for learning? Do conditions here attract teachers? How effective is the school board? and How can citizens influence the school program constructively?"

United Church Women began its sponsorship of May Fellowship Day in 1933 when a small band of church women met in New York to see what they could do through study, prayer, and direct action to help meet the needs of all who make up the community.

Mrs. Aldred Chapman of Washington's Crossing, Pa. is national chairman of May Fellowship Day and Mrs. Luther Strickland of 17 Lake St. is the local chairman.

Marvin Cooleys Attend Assembly of God Sessions

Assemblies of God Sunday Schools must increase their teacher-training program to take care of the increase in population, members of the denomination's churches were told last week at a convention in Rochester, N. Y.

Attending the convention from Pontiac were the Sunday School superintendent of the First Assembly of God church, Marvin Cooley and his wife.

The three-day convention in Rochester drew delegates from 16 states and Canada and from 12 different denominations. The gathering was the last in a series of six held to promote development of Assemblies of God Sunday Schools throughout the United States.

Members of the local church were told that enrollment of the denomination's church schools has hit 878,000. Officers and teachers number 88,296.

The Assemblies of God will hold an international Sunday School Convention in 1960 in Minneapolis, Minn.

Billy Graham Picture Scheduled for Sunday

"Oiltown U. S. A." a Billy Graham film, will be shown at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Salvation Army citadel, 29 W. Lawrence St.

Many Adventist Homes Use 'Self-Denial' Banks

WASHINGTON (AP) — A little red "self-denial" bank reposes today on the dining tables of thousands of Seventh-Day Adventist homes in America — a reminder to contribute toward overseas relief funds.

The bank, with a picture of a homeless refugee child and the words, "Remember me!" will stay on the church members' tables until May 25, by which time a goal of $260,000 is expected to be raised.

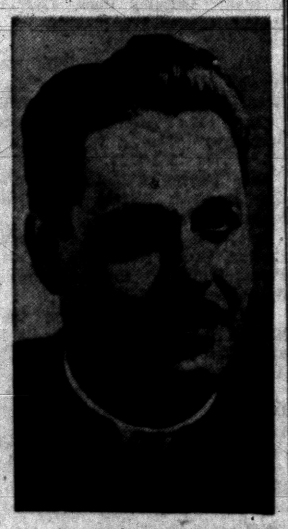
Grace Lutheran Church Celebrates Anniversary



REV. OTTO G. SCHULTZ

The Rev. Otto G. Schultz of Wauwatosa, Wis., a former pastor, will be guest speaker Sunday at the 9 and 11 a.m. services in Grace Lutheran Church when the congregation celebrates the fifth anniversary of the dedication of the present building located at Glendale and South Genesee streets

★ ★ ★

Special music will be provided by the Senior Choir under the direction of John Quitmeyer.

Preceding Holy Communion, a new flagon will be dedicated in memory of Maxine Faber, former secretary of Grace Lutheran.

On Nov. 7, 1943, the Rev. Schultz was installed as pastor of the congregation. During his pastorate the present church was built and dedecated.

Grace Lutheran congregation was established on Dec. 2, 1928 as a small mission with services held in the Webster School auditorium. The congregation was incorporated, organized and admitted into the Synodical Conference in 1929.

The former church building on the corner of West Huron and Genesee streets was dedicated April 12, 1931.

The Rev. Theo Brohm Jr. served as first pastor from 1928 to 1942 when he left to serve as chaplain in the U. S. Army.

Dr. O. C. Kreinheder, a former president of Valparaiso University, followed as second pastor until the arrival of the Rev. Otto G. Schultz.

Pastor Schultz was called to Wauwatosa in April, 1956 and the present pastor, the Rev. Richard C. Stuckmeyer, was installed on Sept. 9, 1956.

At 7 p.m. Sunday a special program is being planned. The Rev. Ihno A. Janssen Jr. assistant pastor, will be master of ceremonies. The original choir which sang on dedication day and the Children's Choir will sing.

★ ★ ★

The young people of the Walther League will present skits directed by John Hufton. Following a short vesper service, light refreshments will be served in Fellowship Hall at which time friends may greet Pastor Schultz and his family.

License Ruling on Motorboats Hanging Fire

The Oakland County Sheriff's Department has been swamped with calls for the past few weeks asking about the "new" motorboat licenses and where they can be obtained.

The answer is simply that they can't be obtained!

According to a Lansing spokesman, the House and Senate have both given birth to separate bills, but only the Senate bill holds the power to require boat licenses. Neither bill has been passed by both the House and Senate.

Therefore, there definitely is no law requiring motorboat licenses yet, and there will not be until one is officially approved by both legislative bodies in Lansing.

Woman Escapee Gains Time to Seek Parole

CHICAGO (AP) — A Detroit woman accused of breaking out of jail, fleeing the state, and starting life anew, now has until July 11 to obtain a parole.

Extradition papers have been signed for the woman, Miss Catherine J. Dodson, 33.

She is seeking permission from Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams to remain in Illinois on parole.

At the time of her escape in 1952 from the Detroit House of Correction, she was serving a term of 5 to 30 years for robbery.

How's This Technique for Getting His Way?

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Miss Julie Wilson, sewer-worker (night club entertainer) and Broadway stage beauty, has suddenly become a TV personality and movie star—simply because a guy named Sam Spiegel knows how to be charming to women.

★ ★ ★

One night some months ago this man Spiegel, who got the Oscar for "Waterfront" a few seasons back, invited Julie to have supper with him after she finished playing the lead in "Pajama Game."

"Julie, darling, are you hungry?" he asked her.

★ ★ ★

"Of course! I'm always hungry!" she said, ordering the whole menu.

"Julie, what else can I get you, baby?" inquired Sam. "Would you like some wine? Can I get you some flowers? Are you comfortable? Is it too hot in here for you? You never looked better, you know."

JULIE

"What are you working on, Sam?" Julie got around to asking.

"I may be nuts, probably am," shrugged Sam. "I'm making a movie entirely with unknowns. The director never made a picture before."

★ ★ ★

Julie went for the bait. "Well, why not a part for me?" she exclaimed. "I'm unknown!"

"Oh, everybody knows you, darling!" Sam lifted his glass to her. "The only part left is so little you wouldn't like it."

So, of course, when he said that, Julie determined to get that part. Spiegel casually said he didn't know whether the director, Jack Garfein, husband of Carroll ("Baby Doll") Baker, would want her in it.

"Garfein came to see me and I read for the part," Julie remembers. "He said to me. 'You'd be wonderful — I'm amazed at the perception of Mr. Spiegel.'"

But for three months after that, Julie never heard from Sam Spiegel.

Her agent was so anxious on her behalf that he arranged for Julie to get out of "Pajama Game" to make the picture. The agent then called Spiegel.

"I don't know whether I want her or not," Spiegel said, "but is she available?"

New Cadillac Fully Equipped

Eldorado Model Boasts All Current Innovations, Sells for $13,000

DETROIT (AP) — An automobile for which no extras need be bought is in production on the assembly lines of one of the car industry's leading producers.

It's Cadillac's new El Dorado Brougham, on which even air conditioning is "standard" equipment. It also has an air suspension system — the first American-made passenger car to replace steel springs with air bellows. With a price tag of more than $13,000 it is the highest price production car made by an American auto company.

General Motors and Cadillac engineers demonstrated the newest "prestige" car at the GM technical center northeast of Detroit to representatives of the press, radio and television yesterday, with special emphasis on the air suspension system.

James M. Roche, Cadillac general manager, predicted widespread acceptance of air suspension systems. In the air suspension system used on the new Cadillac El Dorado Brougham, air bellows at each wheel replace the conventional steel springs.

What part of the over-all price of the car the new suspension system represented was not disclosed. It was indicated by company engineers, however, that with its leveling valves that maintain a constant car height regardless of load or road conditions, it would be somewhat more costly than the conventional steel springs.

Roche predicted the air suspension system will become "one of the most significant engineering developments in automotive history."

The Cadillac general manager said the El Dorado Brougham was designed as a "limited" production model. Current production, he said, is at the rate of "fewer than 100 a month."

Register of Deeds Files 12,430 Papers

A total 12,430 papers bringing revenues of $18,019.50 were handled last month by the office of Daniel T. Murphy Jr., Oakland County Register of Deeds.

This compares with 12,951 papers totalling $19,165.05 handled during the same period last year, Murphy said.

A break-down of April's figures includes: 2,756 deeds for $4,442.25; 1,199 mortgages, $4,256.25; 1,845 miscellaneous transactions, $3,067.25 and 5,176 chattle mortgages, $5,176.

Nation's Dems Meet in Capital

Start 3-Day Conclave to Map Party's Strategy for 1958 Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats, feeling rather chipper over recent state election victories but still beset with factional troubles, start a three-day meeting today to plan for the 1958 campaign.

Nine state governors will take part along with other state and national party leaders.

★ ★ ★

They plan a $100-a-plate fund-raising banquet tomorrow night in hopes of erasing nearly half of the national organization's $400,000 deficit. Former President Truman and Adlai Stevenson will address the dinner, at which more than 1,500 paying guests are expected. Truman arrived by train early today from New York. Stevenson, the party's 1952 and 1956 presidential nominee, is due tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

First on the schedule today was a meeting of the national committee's executive committee to be followed by an open meeting of the full national committee.

One item on the national committee agenda is a left-over from its February meeting in San Francisco. It has to do with adoption of a proposed set of committee rules which some Southerners are reportedly opposing in part.

★ ★ ★

One controversial rule, approved at the 1956 national convention, calls for ousting those members of the committee who fail affirmatively to endorse the convention nominees in the presidential election. They would be accorded a hearing first.

Truman Gives Tips to Columbia Students

NEW YORK (INS) — Former President Harry S. Truman yesterday gave Columbia University journalism students an earful of how to deal with the press.

A glass curtain was lowered in Truman's informal half-hour session with some 60 students.

Reporters and photographers were ushered out when they tried to enter a room in the journalism building where the ex-President was speaking.

What was said was strictly hush-hush — even Columbia student newspaper reporters were barred.

Tobin's Widow to Wed

BOSTON (AP) — Mrs. Maurice J. Tobin, widow of the secretary of labor in the Truman administration, will be married tomorrow to John F. Regan of New York, international representative of the Plumbers Union.

E.P. TAYLOR: The largest piece of the largest piece.

Millionaire Aim: Derby Winner

Richest Man in Canada Craves to Own Horse in Winner's Circle

TORONTO—(NEA)—So far, the richest man in Canada has been unable to buy the one thing which his friends claim he craves most.

That's to have one of his horses win the Kentucky Derby.

Edward Plunket Taylor—56-year-old fabulously-wealthy, fabulously-powerful financier with interests around the world — is the man most Canadians regard as their wealthiest citizen.

Of course, few persons really know what he's worth. Financial experts claim there may be a half-dozen Canadians with greater assets than Taylor.

But almost everyone agrees that he's the most colorful, probably the most powerful and certainly the most typically Canadian of the fast-growing club of Canadian multi-millionaires. He was born in Ottawa, the son of an army lieutenant colonel who was a moderately successful business man.

Taylor is huge and square, erect, bald and pink-faced, and has astonishing energy and enthusiasm for his work. He's a genius with a balance sheet, has a fantastic memory for figures, names and isolated facts and an uncanny ability to collect assistants with similar talents.

The slightest weakness of an assistant irritates him. He once fired an employe because the man wanted to discuss a transfer to another town with his wife before accepting it.

Beer—Carlings—is the cornerstone of his empire. He started during the depression by consolidating shaky Canadian breweries and making them profitable.

★ ★ ★

During World War II he served as a Canadian representative on production boards in Washington. Before the war ended he quit the post and got first in line for new brewery equipment to be delivered as soon as peace arrived. Thus he got a head start in the post-war beer boom and was on his way to big time dollar gathering.

He's in the restaurant, food-processing, soft-drink, pulp, oil, insurance, real estate and sugar businesses, to name a few.

Even his No. 1 hobby, race horses, is making him millions. It is said that one out of every seven Canadian races is won by a Taylor horse. He has won plenty of U.S. races, but never the Kentucky Derby. He still has hopes, although he failed to enter the 1957 race.

Citizens' Queries About SS Answered

By RAY HENRY
Associated Press Writer

From M. M. J. of Fall River, Mass.: "My husband and I have saved a considerable sum during our lifetime. Now that my husband has retired, we're wondering if this life savings will interfere with our entitlement to Social Security."

No. Earnings from work are limited for persons who are under 72 and who are eligible for Social Security payments. However, savings, annuities, pensions, dividends from stocks, interest of any kind, rentals from most real estate are not counted as earnings under the limit.

From Mrs. C. P. C. of Harriman, Tenn.: "I've worked and paid into Social Security ever since 1937. Now, I'm drawing Social Security payments. If I should remarry, will this marriage have any effect on my payments?"

No. As long as you're drawing the payments based on your own Social Security record, remarriage will not affect your payments. However, for widows who are receiving payments based on their deceased husbands' record, remarriage causes the payments to stop.

★ ★ ★

From Mrs. A. M. of Washington, D. C.: "I'm drawing Social Security as a widow and because I'm taking care of my 17 year old daughter. Because I will not reach 62 until 1967, I understand I'll lose my Social Security payments when my daughter reaches 18. Now, my daughter has gone to work and is making $200 a month. So, she's ineligible to draw monthly payments. Does this affect my payments?"

No.

From R. B. of Fredericksburg, Va.: "My father, a World war I veteran, has been drawing a veteran's pension of $78.75 a month for nearly two years now. A month ago he had a stroke which has made him bedfast. Is there any possibility that his pension can be raised? It's costing us a lot of money to take care of my father."

The Veterans Administration will pay your father a pension of $135.45 if he needs the regular aid and attendance of another person. From your letter, it appears your father is eligible. I would suggest that an application for the increase be made immediately.

★ ★ ★

From Mrs. H. L. G. of Parsons, Kans.: "My husband has been working for the railroad for nearly 30 years and will start drawing his railroad retirement payment in two years when he reaches 65. I'll be 65 just a few months before he retires. How much will my payments be?"

Your payments will be equal to half of your husband's annuity—up to a maximum of $54.30 a month.

From S. T. of Albany, N. Y.: "When will the Social Security tax be raised again and how much will it be?"

Oscar May Assist Cupid in Dorothy Malone's Life

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—This may be the first time that Oscar has given Cupid a boost. In Dorothy Malone's case, it could happen.

★ ★ ★

The pitch is this: In the past two years, Dorothy has made 10 pictures, with scarcely a breathing spell in between. This naturally forestalled any chance for romance.

"I could go out on the weekend while I was working," she remarked, "but it was impossible to date during the week. I had to study my lines and get up early in the morning."

But now she's the winner of an Academy Award and can afford to slow down her film-making pace. She has four big films finished and unreleased, so she doesn't have to worry about being absent from the nation's screens.

Having predicted the Oscar for her, I peered further in my crystal ball and told her there would be a man in her future.

"I don't know," she sighed, "it seems like a hopeless case."

Hopeless! There's something wrong with the American male if that is true. Dorothy's physical assets are obvious: a lovely face, wavy blonde hair, nifty figure. What's more, she's bright and breezy, a regular gal.

Only once has she come close to marriage. That was after her early film career had begun auspiciously and then fizzled. She went back home to Dallas and fell in love with a local boy.

"We were very fond of each other," she said, "and so were our families. But we decided it just wouldn't work out for us to get married."

★ ★ ★

She came back to Hollywood and resumed her career, starting out slowly and proving herself in roles that grew in importance. Her latest assignment is opposite Robert Taylor in "Tip on a Dead Jockey."

Syrians Get Opportunity to Vote Against Leftists

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Some Syian citizens got a chance today to vote for or against their government's drift to the left.

Elections were being held in four cities for four vacant seats in the 142-member parliament. Although no one was saying the by-elections would change the balance in parliament, they were regarded as the first good test of the way Syrians feel about recent government trends. About 100,000 persons were expected to vote.

Wanderlust Hits Most Americans

Autos Figure Largely in Vacation Jaunts; Motels, Parks Boom

CHICAGO — Wanderlust hit half the population of the United States last year, according to the new Britannica Book of the Year.

Edited under the direction of Walter Yust, editor-in-chief of Encyclopedia Britannica, the yearbook has been distributed to set owners and other readers as an aid to keeping up with the world.

Tourist travel is only one of more than 1,000 subjects covered in the roundup of important events and developments during the past year.

Vacation travel has doubled since 1941 and increased more than 20 times since the early 1920s, the yearbook reports. In 1956 more than 80 million Americans took vacation trips.

The automobile has a lot to do with it. Autos were used in 85 per cent of last year's vacation jaunts and more than 95 per cent of the estimated 54 million national park visitors arrived by car.

The ever-growing network of expressways and turnpikes last year gave spare-time gypsies more roads to hit. The tourist also was very much the guest of honor in motels, whose construction boom continued, boosting the total to 53,000 in 1956, as compared to 15,000 in 1946.

When it came to other forms of transportation, tourists turned thrifty, favoring air and rail coach trips and "go now pay later" plans, even on trips to Europe.

Under a trade pact, Finland will sell "prefab" houses to Czechoslovakia and buy cars.

Dr. Tossy to Head State Health Group

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Dr. Joseph Tossy, Michigan Department of Health dentistry official, is now the new president of the Michigan Public Health Assn.

He was elected Wednesday, succeeding Mrs. Josephine Brown of Battle Creek, a registered nurse.

Officer elections were held in connection with the 36th annual Michigan Public Health Assn. Convention, continuing through today in Grand Rapids with more than 400 delegates registered.

Others named to association posts were Dr. Robert Willson, DVM, with the Detroit City Health Department, vice president; Dr. G. Fred Moench, Midland, secretary; and Lyman B. Chamberlain, Eaton County Health Department, re-elected treasurer.

JOANNE'S ROOM — Walt Disney figurines on the wedgwood blue walls, horses on her bookcase headboards and dolls tucked into the corner; these are the interests of a seven-year-old. Furniture is blonde and bedspreads are coral. Windows around the corner let in stray breezes during warm days. All bedrooms have sliding double door closets. Floors are natural finished oak.

FIREPLACE NUMBER ONE — The living room fireplace is set into one end of the wall. The raised hearth is capped with slate. On the wall to the right of the chimney is the clock that Mr. Lucyson made. The hall beyond leads to the bedrooms. White woodwork contrasts nicely with the hunters' green walls.

Your Neighbor's House

Lucysons Live at Cedar Island Lake

At the present moment Joanne's passion is for horses. Plastic replicas of them crowd her bookcase headboards. She and her mother take weekly riding lessons. This is all part of the joy of country living.

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Mrs. Joseph Lucyson of Cedar Island Lake doesn't see why people who live at a lake would ever want to move. She's going to stay where she is for the rest of her life. Even though he has the drive into Detroit every day, Mr. Lucyson seems to echo her statement.

For a number of years the Lucysons had a summer cottage on Dixie Lake. When they decided they wanted year-round country living, they bought a 100x350 foot lot on Washington street on the west side of Cedar Island Lake.

After they found a stock plan that they liked, they adapted it to their needs, and Mr. Lucyson, a commercial artist, made a model of the house. Ernie Hull of Commerce built the house.

The exterior is red brick with limestone trim around the doors and windows. House and garage doors are painted green. On the lake side of the house there is a stone porch outside the living room. Terraced steps lead down to the lake level. One gnarled apple tree flaunts its blossoms at the foot of the terrace.

Inside the rear entrance is a minute tiled vestibule with a narrow ledge rock shelf behind the door. This shelf extends into the dining room to form a small planter box. Three metal poles go through this planter from floor to ceiling.

Since the dining room is an extension of the living room, the same beige carpeting covers both areas. Curtains are also the same—brown figured draperies. Woodwork is white.

In one wall there's a four-shelf china cabinet with storage drawers below. The table is blonde plastic with wrought iron legs. Wrought iron chairs have brass spindles in the back with yellow-green plastic seats and backs.

One wall of the living room is all windows. The north wall and one short one in the dining ell is chartreuse; other walls are hunters green. The drop ceiling is white.

The five abstract pictures were painted by Mr. Lucysons. At first glance they looked like most modern pictures do to this editor. When properly directed, we made out an animal in each picture. Mr. Lucyson also made the sunburst clock.

There's a ledgerock fireplace with a raised hearth capped in slate. Tables are blonde wood and modern. The sectional sofa is red. One of the two armchairs is gray tweed, another is plain green.

One of the bedrooms doubles as a den. Here Mrs. Lucyson does some writing. All bedroom floors are oak. In this room the walls are a raspberry color. Furniture is maple. Blue plaid draperies and spread make a contrasting note.

In the bathroom, walls above the gray tile are sand. Fixtures and the vanity top are also sand. There's a built-in linen closet. Curtains are light green.

Joanne Lucyson is seven. Her spacious room has twin beds so that she always has room for overnight guests. Her walls are wedgewood blue. The ceiling is jonquil yellow.

The little girl's furniture is blonde. Bedspreads are coral. Decorating the walls are Walt Disney figures that Mr. Lucyson cut out for his daughter's room when she was a baby. Curtains have clown figures.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucyson have a bedroom with chocolate brown walls. Their furniture is limed oak. Spreads are pale green. Draperies are bright colored prints.

The kitchen is on the west side of the house. The floor is covered with linoleum in a jackstraw pattern combining red, blue and yellow. Storage cabinets are natural finish birch with ribbed glass doors on the upper ones.

The ceiling is red and the walls are gray. Behind the stove there is a dado of yellow Formica to match the counter tops. The breakfast set is gray with wrought iron legs.

This house has a complete basement. One room is already partitioned off and has a small fireplace near the window. Big windows give an excellent view of the lake. Curtains are brown with an aqua, coral and white design. There is a grade door.

LUCYSONS LIVE HERE — Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lucyson and their daughter, Joanne, live on Washington street at Cedar Island Lake. This is the lakeside view of their house. Built of red brick, it has limestone trim under the picture window. Next to the steps from the front porch the ground has been terraced with rock ledges. There are two grade doors in the basement area. A common chimney serves fireplaces in both living room and basement. Ernie Hull of Commerce built the Lucyson house from modified stock plans.

CHEERFUL DINING SPACE — With all the light from the big front windows and more light from a smaller one in this section, the dining space is bright and cheerful. The dining room table is beige plastic. Wrought iron chairs have brass spindles for chair backs. On the right, storage is built into the wall. In the rear there is a narrow ledgerock planter that supports three metal poles extending to the ceiling. Mr. Lucyson made the cornice boards.

CLEAN LINES — Walls in two shades of green, modern lamp tables with simple lines and bright colored upholstery add up to an attractive room. Mr. Lucyson painted the abstract pictures on the walls. The door in the background opens out on a stone porch with steps leading down to the front lawn. In this picture Mrs. Lucyson enjoys a book in a comfortable chair. With but a twist of her head she can see a lovely expanse of lake.

Well, if it isn't Krushchev, nuclear explosions, taxes, storms, Middle East problems or espionage . . . there's always something to keep us on the razor's edge, if seems. Maybe this top British surgeon has the answer . . .

He says, if you want to live longer, avoid ulcers and high blood pressure, and be happy . . . don't think too much. So, if you take the British medico's advice, just relax . . . stop thinking. (You can do it . . . if you just put your mind to it.)

Pairs of Sinks Advocated Now

LOS ANGELES (INS)—A sink is the center of the kitchen activities, so why not center it?

Working on this perfectly logical idea, a Los Angeles architect, Daniel Dworsky, has designed a sink arrangement that is not only in the center of the kitchen but has pairs of sinks placed back to back with the hot and cold faucets in the center. The paired sinks are flanked with counter space and make it possible for two persons to work simultaneously without getting in each other's way.

For one person, this multiple island sink allows different operations to be carried on at one time—dishwashing and rinsing on one side and vegetable cleaning or crisping on the other. And for large parties, it is ideal.

It's accessible to all the major work centers of the kitchen and is easily reached from the eating area—saving steps in carrying out dishes for washing.

Doworsky's design was for a model home in the Los Angeles area and was custom built and installed.

The cost of manufacture was approximately $135 and he figures the cost of installation would be anywhere from $70 to $150, depending on the location and the existing plumbing facilities in the house.

Wash Dust Cloths Often

Soiled dust cloths in the home are a potential infection. Authorities say that such cloths are not washed nearly as often as they should be in the average home. They harbor bacteria, and never should be put aside when they are soiled, to be used possibly at a later time.

Pine a Versatile Wood

Ponderosa pine is the most versatile wood found in abundance in North America. Because of its lightness, strength, easy workability, and clear grain, it is used extensively for fine windows, doors and wood cabinets.

Fiberglas Shades Turns Wall Into Window

DALLAS, Tex. (INS)—A brick wall can be turned into a window with a few lights, some opaque shades and filmy curtains.

In a showroom at the Dallas Decorative Center, it was done this way.

Fluorescent lights were installed along the top and bottom of the wall and long sheets of fiberglas shades, similar to that used on lamp shades, were hung from ceiling to floor, concealing the lights.

On the inside of it all was hung three-fold gauzy curtains, also from ceiling to floor.

The light shining through gives a startling impression of daylight coming through a glass wall.

Window Painting Fussy but Not Difficult Job

Present weather notwithstanding, bright and balmy days are close at hand and with them comes Spring's annual cleanup. That means ridding the home of winter's grime — both indoors and out.

Whether apartment dwellers or homeowners, there's a job to be done that goes deeper than appearances alone. It means shoring up actual damage winter has wrought around the house. Peeling paint and bare wood are warning signs that first aid is needed. Windows and outside doors are particularly vulnerable.

Weathered areas are not only uninviting eyesores but they are functional hazards as well. Badly weathered mullions and cracked window sashes can no longer hold window glass safely and keep out rain and cold.

Painting tips prepared by David Linzer & Sons, Inc., 65-year-old N.Y. paint brush manufacturer, show how painting windows can be performed properly and easily by any homemaker-handyman. The Linzer painting experts stress the importance of both a quality paint and a quality brush. One, they state, is as important as the other, for no matter how fine the paint only a good brush will do a workman-like job.

To begin, if glass is cracked or wood sash is severely weathered and no longer keeps out rain remove individual glass panels scraping off old, cracked putty with putty knife. Scrape rabbet (groove) smooth and paint with boiled linseed oil, then let dry.

Work fresh putty until fully pliable, placing thin ribbon of putty in rabbet. Press glass firmly against putty and secure with triangular glazier's points hammered into mullion.

Follow with a ribbon of putty applied to glass. Smooth against rabbet with putty knife and let set for a week or two before painting.

If glass panels do not require replacement, painting can be done as soon as wood surface is prepared. Clean mullions (inner panel cross bars), sash bars and sills inside and out, removing dirt and peeling paint. Scrape if necessary.

Using thin brush or angled sash brush paint mullions first. A paint guard, flat square piece of metal or plastic, held against glass speeds work by keeping paint off glass. Nylon or bristle brushes stroke smoothly during painting leaving areas fully covered without streaking. After mullions, paint wider crossbars, the frame, then casing and sill.

When painting windows, trick to remember is to start inside on narrowest crossbars working out to wider members. Remember to raise lower sash and lower upper sash to cover all areas. Wet paint is removed from glass with cloth and dry paint is scraped off with a knife or protected paint scraper.

A CHURCH BIRD HOUSE which is a replica of a New England meeting house makes a perfect home for martins. It is 18 inches high and has 10 nest compartments. Pattern 340, which gives actual-size cutting guides, will be mailed for 25c. A Bird-House-and-Feeder Packet of 7 designs including the above is $1.

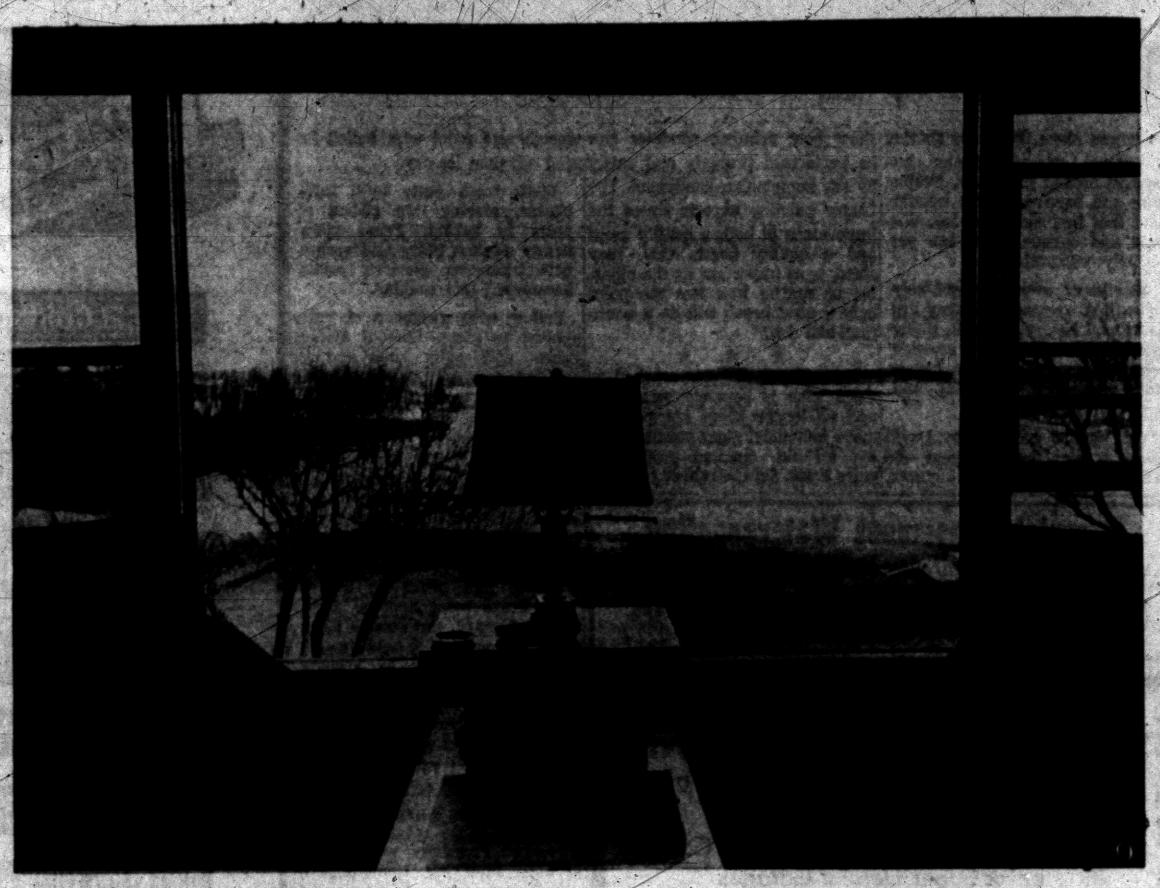
Put Heat Under Window

In planning the arrangement of fixtures in a bathroom, try to avoid placing the bathtub under the window. Instead place the heating unit —radiator, convector, or baseboard — under the window. This will make a much more comfortable bathroom, the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau advises.

Dirt Acts Like Termites

Accumulated dirt at the base of a carpet or rug eats at the fibers much as termites eat their way through wood. Only thorough, methodical vacuum cleaning can keep a floor covering in good condition.



LAKE VIEW — This view was taken from the Lucysons' front windows. Draperies are kept pulled to each side so that the scene is unspoiled. The Lucyson house sets high above the water, giving them an excellent view of the lake and their neighbors' homes. This view is an ever-changing one with the seasons.

They have been subjected to 350 steam at 100% humidity under 125 p.s.i. This produces a superior lightweight block which is stronger permanently. It stabilizes the strength of the block, and reduces shrinkage and expansion . . . eliminating cracked walls. (Continued from Page 15)

Here Joanne keeps games and can have her Brownie Scout friends in for meetings.

The big room which also has a door to the outside has shuffleboard in the tile floor. There is a ping pong table here which is taken down when the Lucysons have square dancing groups in.

Under the stairs Mr. Lucyson has his workshop. Some day this will be enclosed. Some day too there will be a bar between the recreation area and the smaller play room.

An attractive house — a nice view—good neighbors — they all add up to contentment for the Joseph Lucysons of Cedar Island Lake.

Clean the Fireplace to Brighten Den

Cleaning a sooty, grimy fireplace in the den or recreation room is easier than it sounds. If the fireplace is made of smooth bricks, use a sponge. Rough brick will require a scrub brush to get into crevices. An absorbent cloth may be used to remove excess water.

Fill a pail with a solution of one cup-full of liquid detergent and two tablespoonsful of washing soda (sal soda) for each gallon of water. Spread plenty of newspapers or a tarpaulin around the base of the fireplace to prevent dirty water from staining the carpet.

Scrub the fireplace thoroughly, working the cleaning solution into each crevice, crack and cranny. The solution should cut through any greasy soot but some caked areas may require more elbow-grease than others. Allow the solution to soak in and dissolve the soot for several minutes before rinsing.

If Floors Will Be Fully Covered, Skip Hardwood

Cutting out non-essentials reduces costs in home building.

For instance, if you're planning wall-to-wall carpeting or a similar floor covering, why go to the expense of having hardwood floors laid? There is a simple alternative — Masonite underlayment — and its use assures longer wear for the floor surfacing you select.

The underlayment, especially designed for use under flexible floor coverings, such as linoleum, asphalt or vinyl tile, may be installed directly over wood or plywood sub-floors in new construction or over old existing wood finish floors.

Just under ¼" thick and evenly calipered, the 3'x4' and 4'x4' panels when nailed in place will bridge the small irregularities and cracks and provide a smooth, flat surface for the finish flooring.

Greater life for the surface flooring is assured by the even, smooth underlayment, and flooring cracks cannot reflect through.

Sawdust Is a Hazard

The longer sawdust is left on the workshop floor, the more of a fire hazard it becomes. The wise craftsman sweeps up the sawdust before he leaves the shop.

We'll Stay Cool Despite Summer Heat
In the coming year 200,000, and possibly more, central air conditioning units will be installed in U. S. residences, George S. Jones, Jr., managing director of the Air-Conditioning and Refrigeration Institute, said in a end-of-the-year statement. Jones said that FHA and VA have indicated that some thought may be given to liberalizing the financing of new air conditioned homes and air conditioning equipment for existing homes.

ARCHITECT'S DRAWING — This is an architect's drawing of the Calvary Baptist Church, now in the process of construction on the corner of Merry and Pontiac Lake roads. In 1955 the congregation purchased four acres of land at this location. Ground was broken in June of last year. Present plans call for completion of the building this fall. One hundred and one feet long and sixty-two feet wide, the structure will have a seating capacity of 400 and a choir loft for forty-five. All work on the building has been done by the men of the congregation. The educational building will be completed later. The architect is Lee Butler of Detroit.

Tap Water Tanks to Prevent Rust

Home water heating tanks should be drained of two or three gallons of water about once a month to prevent the accumulation of rust. This rust will often show up in laundry water or even bath water unless removed first.

Glass or enamel-lined water tanks are not immune to the rust deposits since much of the rust is carried in through pipes.

Keep a pail handy to the heating tank. About once a month, or oftener if the deposits seem unusually heavy, drain off a pail full of rust water from the petcock located at the bottom of the heater.

Rental Housing to Be Conference Subject

Construction and operation of rental housing units will be explored in a "Rental Housing Conference" to be held April 25 and 26 at the National Housing Center, it was announced today by R. G. Hughes, Chairman of the Center's Board of Directors.

Sponsored by the National Housing Center, the meeting will be under the direction of the National Association of Home Builders' Rental Housing Committee. In addition to a number of leading builders, participation in the meeting will include outstanding economists, private housing consultants, lenders, architects and government officials.

"This conference represents an effort by the National Association of Home Builders to analyse the major problems in the rental housing field," said Hughes. "Several factors—the very low level of rental housing construction in the past several years, the low vacancy ratio in many areas, and steadily rising rents—all indicate that there is an untapped market for moderate-priced rental housing.

"In addition, a major portion of the housing to be built under the nation - wide urban renewal program, which in many localities is in the development stage, will be rental housing."

The two-day meeting will cover practically every aspect of rental housing.

CHURCH'S INCORPORATED

F. L. Wright Enters Pre-Fab Designing

Frank Lloyd Wright, the greatest name in contemporary architecture, has lent his prestige to the growing house prefabrication business by designing a prefab which was built in Madison, Wis., by Erdman Homes.

"This is both big news and amazing news," says House & Home, a leading magazine of the housing industry.

As the world's foremost advocate of standardization and modular planning, Wright had to wait 60 years before he got his chance to put his original theories into practice, the magazine said, pointing out that he had been designing panel construction systems since 1910 using materials like wood, steel and concrete.

In the Erdman house, which is the culmination of his interest in modular planning, Wright chose for exterior siding a recent addition to Masonite Corporation's siding line, a textured hardboard called Masonite Ridgeline.

A condition set for the great architect by Marshall Erdman, the prefabricator, was: "We must use stock materials to save me from bankruptcy; anyone can make a shake roof look good, but it takes a master to make something of asphalt shingles."

Wright then detailed for the roof some shadowline battens which gave the installation character and style. Meeting another prerequisite, the architect chose as siding the linear-textured hardboard because of its economy, appearance and good record of excellence in prefabrication, durability and paintability.

House & Home says:

"One of the great qualities of Wright's genius is his ability to satisfy rigid conditions. This prefabricated house is a case in point: It has every basic design idea in Wright's vocabulary, yet it can be produced with the prefabricator's budget."

In connection with the textured siding, Wright made use of an architectural device—wood battens—which were nailed in place at 16-inch intervals to seat joints and provide strong horizontal lines.

The Wright design and prestige in the design for the Madison prefab are expected to give further impetus to the trend of preconstructing houses either in factories or lumber yards. Experts in the building field point out that the Wright-Erdman model proves conclusively that first-class design and production line economies can go hand in hand to the advantage of the ultimate purchaser.

TRAVELING TEACART — Serving carts are step savers, but often add clutter to the kitchen. This little gem combines the handiness of a tea wagon and the space saving of a built-in. Can be used to trundle china and hot dishes between kitchen and dining area, but when not in use, is pushed into its place under the counter, becoming part of the kitchen cabinets. Made of lovely west coast hemlock, it matches the other cabinets in the kitchen.

Washing Home Can Be Easier Than Painting

Scrub brush, soap and water can save the annual cost of painting wood siding on frame homes and wood trim on brick homes. Naturally, washing the home won't do away with painting entirely, but it will reduce the frequency of necessary painting.

Usually, the weather of just one winter soils the siding or trim of a home enough that painting appears necessary. Washing off the surface dirt, however, can stave off costly painting for another year or even two.

Washing the exterior walls of a home is an easy job, provided the right metthod is used. A scrub brush, two galvanized steel pails filled with hot, soapy water, a garden hose and an extension ladder are all the equipment needed. Pick a section of wall and wash it from the bottom up.

The reason for the bottom-to-top procedure is to prevent dirty washing water from running down onto still-dirty walls causing hard-to-remove streaks.

When the section is completely washed, from bottom to top, rinse it down with the garden hose and move on to the next section.

New Tiger GM Goes Scouting at 'M' Game

McHale Gets Good Look at Prospects at Ann Arbor

ANN ARBOR (AP)—John McHale, the new Detroit Tiger general manager, apparently will take an active part in the club's scouting program.

The young Bengal GM, who was appointed just last Tuesday, took something of a "busman's holiday" here yesterday as he watched Michigan drop an 8-4 Big Ten baseball decision to Wisconsin.

"I'm just looking over the scene," McHale said. "I like to keep in touch with things."

One wondered if McHale were particularly interested in Wisconsin, the school which sent shortstop Harvey Kuenn to the Tigers.

"We're always looking for another Kuenn," McHale said.

Actually, the Tigers were well represented at the game. Seated with McHale behind the Michigan dugout were scouts Rick Ferrell, Pat Mullin and George Moriarty.

McHale showed interest in the Michigan keystone combination, second baseman Ken Tippery of Dearborn and shortstop Steve Boros of Flint.

Tippery collected a double and two singles and Boros singled and belted a 360 foot homer for the benefit of the Detroit contingent.

Centerfielder John Herrnstein was another who attracted McHale. The general manager described Herrnstein as "a big strong kid who still gets fooled, but is young yet."

Herrnstein, who went into the game as the Big Ten's top hitter, certainly did get fooled by Wisconsin lefthander John Aehl. He went hitless in four at bats and twice was called out on strikes.

"That Wisconsin pitcher has all the pitches, hasn't he?" McHale asked.

Bad Thumb Bowler

BRILLION, Wis. (AP) — Francis Walldecker, a 189 average bowler, caught his thumb in a lathe and figured he'd have to lay off the sport for a while.

That night, however, his team needed him so he racked up a 727 count on lines of 257, 256 and 214 — bad thumb and all.

'I Might as Well Be Paid'

Wilt Rumored Going With Globetrotters

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — People who should know say that Wilt Chamberlain, the 7-foot basketball whiz from Philadelphia will leave the University of Kansas to play with the Harlem Globetrtters next season for $15,000 or more.

★ ★ ★

Wilt (The Stilt) denies it — but not too emphatically. He conceded to The Kansas City Star yesterday that "nobody knows what may happen between now and September."

Sources close to the Kansas athletic department report that Wilt told key alumni at a meeting here last week:

"It's a job, and as long as it's a job, I might as well be paid. I've got about 10 years of basketball in me. It will cost me about $15,000 a year if I don't take it. Here (at Kansas) the pressure is on me—we have to win."

★ ★ ★

In London, Abe Saperstein owner of the Globetrotters, declared "I have made no offer to Chamberlain."

Eddie Gottlieb, owner of the Philadelphia Warriors of the NBA who is touring with Saperstein, asserted "I am surprised that anyone should even ask. We have made no offer to him, either direct or indirect."

The Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball Ass'n. drafted Chamberlain, under their territorial rights, while he was still a senior at Overbrook High School in Philadelphia.

Under NBA rules he can't play with a team in the league until his college class graduates. He's a sophomore, so that mean's he won't be available to the Warriors until the 1960 season. But the Globetrotters are outside the NBA, and he could play with them in the meantime.

Gutowski Off Record Form

Pole Vault Ace Fails to Increase Height but Wins Event

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bob Gutowski of Occidental College, who last weekend bettered the world pole vault record with a mark of 15 feet, 8¼ inches, won his event at 15-5¾ in the Southern California Conference track championships here last night.

He then missed in three tries at 15-9.

Teammate Larry Wray raced to the second fastest collegiate outdoor mile in the nation this year, with a 4:05.7 four-lapper. Only Bob Seaman of UCLA, with 4:05.6, has done better. Oxy won the meet with 142¾ points. Its nearest rival, Redlands, had 33.

Foytack's Hurling, Big Bats Beat Boston

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

It was the coolest day of the early season yesterday but the Tigers came up with one of their hottest all around performances thus far in handing the Boston Red Sox a 6-0 beating at Briggs Stadium.

Paul Foytack's sparkling four-hit shutout, his 1st victory, gave the Detroiters a sweep of the short series over the Bosox and was their 3rd win in the last four starts.

The Tigers only managed seven hits off their usual nemesis, Frank Sullivan, and reliever Bob Chakales, but made them count in the game witnessed by 2,810 fans in 40-degree temperature.

Al Kaline, Harvey Kuenn and Frank House were the big guns for the home side offensively, with Kaline also great in the field.

Al had his 2nd big day of the season smashing three hits and turning in three remarkable defensive plays. He made leaping catches of certain extra base wallops by Jackie Jensen and Jim Piersall in the early innings and capped the day with a brilliant grab against the rightfield screen in the 7th on a smash off the bat of Mickey Vernon. Kaline turned the latter gem into a double play with baserunner Sammy White unable to beat his throw to 1st.

★ ★ ★

Kuenn, who has been battling his worst slump, smacked his 2nd triple in as many days to bat in two runs and scored on a fly ball to give Foytack all the runs he needed in the 8th.

House contributed the others in the 8th with a three-run homer off Chakales into the rightfield seats. It was his 1st circuit blow this year.

★ ★ ★

Boston, with slugger Ted Williams still sidelined by a heavy cold, could do very little with the slants of Foytack and the fielding of Kaline. Young Frank Malzone doubled twice and was the only runner to reach 3rd.

Foytack fanned four and walked three and faced the minimum 12 batters over the last four frames. He had two runners on base at the same time only twice.

★ ★ ★

The triumph moved the Tigers into a 5th place deadlock with Kansas City, 1½ games out of 1st division. More such success this weekend could move the Bengals up among the leaders.

★ ★ ★

Detroit is scheduled to meet Baltimore tonight for the 1st time this year in only the 2nd Saturday night game for Briggs Stadium. Duke Maas, fresh from outstanding showings against Cleveland and New York, will oppose Mike Fornieles. A single tilt is set for Sunday.

Machen Whips Maxim Again

Unbeaten Heavyweight Seeks New Opposition After Derby Win

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Eddie Machen, a classy athletic specimen, went shopping today for a new opponent in the heavyweight class after scoring his second victory over former light-heavyweight champion Joey Maxim with a unanimous 10-round decision.

"It's awfully hard to get matches," said the unbeaten 24-year-old former lumberjack whose lashing lefts and rights had Maxim in trouble during most of their 10-round televised bout last night.

Manager Sid Flaherty agreed.

Machen concentrated his fire on the mid-section in the early rounds then switched his attack to the head.

He had Maxim's nose bleeding in the fifth and opened a cut under the former champion's eye in the eighth.

It was the 21st consecutive victory for Machen.

State Will 'Poison' Out Fish in 4 Lakes

LANSING (AP) — Fish poisonings have been scheduled for four lakes by the State Conservation Department to allow restocking with new fish.

Lakeville Lake in Oakland County and Murphy Lake in Tuscola County will be treated with chemical in mid-May. Bass Lake in Kent County and Townline Lake in Montcalm County are scheduled for treatment in mid-June.

The conservation department said the poisoning will kill off stunted and junk fish and allow restocking with fish lively to make better sport for anglers.

Ray Is Double Winner

Vikings Grab SVC Title at Saginaw

By H. GUY MOATS

SAGINAW—Pontiac's high school Chiefs dropped another track title, last night, on the cold, windswept Arthur Hill field.

But the eventual victor, Flint Northern's powerhouse, had a tough time yanking the honors away from Dean Wilson and Ray Lowry's crew. Final count was Northen 73 1-3 and Pontiac 52 points. Norb Baber's team balance and fine strength in the hurdles and relays turned the trick.

Vikings' fine efforts marked the 4th time this spring that the Flint school turned back the Chief thinclads, to take away one of their 1956 crowns.

Bay City Central was 3rd with 31 5-6, Saginaw 4th with 16 5-6 and Flint Central (16) and Arthur Hill (11) completed the scoring.

Vikings took seven firsts to five for Pontiac They also collected enough 2nds and 3rds, plus scattered 4th and 5th places to compile their winning count.

Chief high jumpers Hudson Ray (who took two firsts, high and broad jumps), Fred Brooks, Alex Barge and Arzie Carson (in his 1st big meet) became the first members of one team to take all four top places in this meet. Ray won at 6 feet, jumping against the wind. The "Goose" also leaped 21 feet 6 inches to win the broad jump, with Archie Brooks 3rd. Brooks also won one section of the 440.

Top performances by PHS athletes, outside the jumps, were the fine mile victory for Rog Coates, who turned a 4:42 against a fast field, but with plenty to spare, and Larry Beamer's front-running half mile at 2:04.6. Arch Brooks also showed very good in his 440 win (1st race) at 53.6. John Sharp of Northern took the other in 52.6, and Wiley of Central was just two-tenth back of Beamer's time in the 2nd 880 race, both thrillers.

Flashy little Namon Smith, Bay City, was the only other double winner, beside Ray. He won the century in 10 flat, and the low hurdles (20.3).

Pontiac now prepares to defend still another 1956 track crown, the regionals at Ypsilanti, May 11.

Pontiac Sports Car Club Growing Fast

By CHUCK ABAIR

Many wild and careless drivers who daily endanger the lives of others on Oakland County highways could learn a good lesson from members of the Pontiac Sports Car Club who stress safety at all times.

A unit which has grown to more than 50 members in the four months since its formation, the club is making rapid progress as an active local group.

Monthly meetings and numerous rallies have kept members busy this spring with many more events planned throughout the summer.

Some of the outstanding drivers in this sector are members of the club. They are not only experts at driving but also in the care of automobiles for safety purposes.

Volkswagens, Jaguars, MG's and many other types of cars can be seen in club rallies which emphasize perfection in driving rather than speed.

The program calls for drivers to follow assigned routes starting at different intervals with the same takeoff and finish line. Those finishing closest to their estimated times win the rally trophies.

Driving either too fast or slow will cause contestants to lose points. Keeping a steady pace and following all the rules is the main aim.

Entries can be disqualified by being ticketed by police for any kind of traffic violation, or for failure to follow the designated route completely. Answers to such questions as the color of a certain house or the name on a fireplug are required at the finish line before winners are announced. There are also check points along the routes.

Drivers cover approximately 100 miles during an average rally with the majority of it in rural areas. They average 30 to 32 miles per hour.

Club president Gordon Harrison and the other officers are hoping to increase the membership in order to build bigger and better programs. Anyone who own a sports car may join.

LA Gymnasts Lead Tourney

CHICAGO (AP)—The Los Angeles Turners, defending National AAU gymnastic champions, took an early lead last night in quest of their second straight title.

Two final events were held yesterday in the championships at the University of Chicago fieldhouse and the Turners took first place in the rope climbing and placed second and third in the long horse.

Robert Manning of the Turners won the rope climb in :03.3 with Dave Chaver of City College of Los Angeles second. Norm Anton of Arizona was third.

The meet, which has attracted 100 men and 30 women and features 13 Olympic champions, will end today.

Aaron on Hitting Rampage

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Manager Fred Haney of the first-place Milwaukee Braves said today the sensational hitting of outfielder Hank Aaron in the past week "is just another indication of what I've said all along."

★ ★ ★

"Aaron has the potential to become one of the greatest right-hand hitters baseball has ever known," Haney declared after Aaron and the Braves edged Pittsburgh 8-7 in 11 innings last night.

Aaron drove in four runs on a double and homer, then tripled in the 11th with one out. He scored the winning run shortly thereafter on a single by Bobby Thomson.

Aaron's three hits in six official times at bat boosted his batting average to .391, only five points behind the league-leading Don Hoak. Aaron won the National League batting championship last season with an .328 average.

Cranbrook, Milford Nines Among Area Loop Leaders

Cranbrook, Milford, Ortonville, Madison, Berkley, Clarenceville, Mt. Clemens, Almont, New Haven and three Parochial schools pace the baseball leagues in and around Oakland County following the opening weeks of play.

Schedules have been revamped in most of the loops due to the recent inclement weather conditions, while two other leagues just opened their schedules Thursday.

These factors will bring about a busy slate throughout the rest of this month and 1st week of June in order that all scheduled contests, can be staged.

Cranbrook in the Interstate, Ortonville in the South Central Conference and the Parochials in the Suburban Catholic are all leaders after only one game. The later trio includes Orchard Lake and Royal Oak St. Mary and Hazel Park St. Rita. The Cranes go after No. 2 today against Western Reserve.

Milford and Clarenceville are division leaders in the Wayne-Oakland with 3-1 and 4-0 records respectively, while Berkley's four straight tops the Inter-Lakes.

Madison heads the Oakland B pack with 4-0 with its pitchers boasting two no-hitters and two-2-hitters. Mt. Clemens has been the Eastern Michigan powerhouse with three wins without a loss. Almont and New Haven have identical 2-0 slates in the Southern Thumb race.

Leads the Tigers

Bertoi Solves Problem

DETROIT (AP)—The spring training season was over and three days of the regular American League campaign had elapsed before the Detroit Tigers turned to ex-bonus player Reno Bertoia for a solution to their third base problem.

★ ★ ★

The 22-year-old infielder, shuttled between the Detroit bench and the minor leagues since his bonus designation was removed in 1955, has responded with a .333 batting average — best on the club and third in the league.

Bertoia, stationed at third base in Manager Jack Tighe's last-ditch move before switching Ray Boone back to his old position, had a pair of hits yesterday as the Tigers whipped the Boston Red Sox 6-0.

The Tigers acquired Jim Finigan from Kansas City in a winter deal and figured that gave them enough strength at third to switch Boone to first. Boone's play at first has been more than adequate and he's batting .275.

★ ★ ★

Despite the successful conversion of the 33-year-old Boone, the Tiger manager was almost ready to put Boone back at his old position after Finigan failed to hit safely in eight trips in the first three contests.

Bertoia has been the regular third baseman since, and only in one game has he failed to connect safely.

"I don't want to put the kid, or myself on the spot by saying that our infield problems are over," said Tighe, "because he could start going sour tomorrow. But in the past week, especially, he's looked great both in the field and at the plate.

"He goes up there now with the feeling that he can hit anyone in the league—and that's just what he's been doing. And he's struck out only four times."

Best Fishing's at Home

ALL OUTDOORS (INS) — Stay close to home for the best fishing in Michigan this weekend.

The southeast corner of the state, mainly the Detroit-Pontiac area, is providing fishermen with more fish and excitement than they ever prayed for. Heading the news is a walleye run in the lower Detroit River. Fishing's good at foot of Alter road, out to Peche Island.

★ ★ ★

"Everybody is catching them" says Slim Coe at the foot of Southfield, "anglers just can't seem to do anything wrong!"

Bob Gregg of Union Lake near Pontiac has a similar report. He says:

"Daily limits of rainbow trout are becoming commonplace around here now. Early morning — just as the sun comes up — is about the best time, but the boys are catching them all day and into the evening hours.

"Nightcrawlers are the best baits. Fish right off the bottom in comparatively shallow water — from three to seven feet of water. They are catching bass too, but of course have to throw them back. (Bass season begins June 15)."

Encouraging weekend fishing reports have also come in from Oxbow, and Sudgen Lakes. Union Lake which was stocked with 8,000 trout this spring and a similar amount last year has been yielding fish up to four pounds and some 18 to 20 inches long.

Around the Prep Front

By CHUCK ABAIR

Cranbrook and Orchard Lake St. Mary added another notch to already impressive track records with easy triangular victories yesterday afternoon.

The Cranes posted their 8th straight win by compiling 73 5-6 points to 32 1-3 for Rochester and Farmington's 30 5-6. Bob Waddell paced the triumph by taking the 100 and 220 and running a leg on the 880 relay victors. Falcon Dave Peters was the top individual with 15 points.

Chet Wajda totaled 10 points and Joe Waluk set a new school shot put record with a heave of 49 feet, 3¾ inches as St. Mary won six events and scored 69 points. Servite finished with 46½ and Mt. Clements St. Mary had 21½.

In baseball, Walled Lake missed a golden opportunity to move into a 1st place tie in the Inter-Lakes league bowing to unbeaten Berkley at home 12-10. Waterford dropped deeper in the loop cellar losing 6-0 to Southfield. The Skippers had only two hits.

WEWOKA, Okla. (AP) — Football players using the Wewoka high school field next fall are going to have to slow up quickly after getting across the goal. To beautify the new field, rose bushes are being planted on the north end.

Trout Hit Despite Cold

By JACK PATTERSON
Pontiac Press Outdoor Writer

LOVELLS TOWNSHIP — A below freezing night and a mighty chilly morning stifled whatever fading ambitions we might have had to fish west side waters. Not that it was particularly hot over here in the center of the state but the fish are more predictable.

We had promised to drop back and wet a line with Lynn Allen of the North Branch and when we got there we found the Bob Zimmerman's knee deep in trout so to speak, not from the North Branch which is a fly fishing proposition, but from nearby Big Creek where the use of garden streamers isn't frowned upon. Bob figured it was a bit chilly for decent results on flies.

We thought it might be too, but despite forty-degree weather and a wind with a bite like a rusty knife, there were sporadic hatches of Mayflies and the fish were taking them with apparent relish. Our timing was off and we missed a couple of nice fish through exaggerated striking.

A short black ghost streamer tied on a standard ten hook seemed to interest the brookies. We picked up three very nice fish in a hurry and got in out of the weather.

A good many people who passed up the opening because "the weather will be better next weekend" looked into a badly clouded crystal ball. Streams continue to be in good shape though and barring heavy rains patience and immunity to frost bite will produce some very fine catches. Although waters are still rather cold, fish are feeding and that's about all the angler has to worry about.

Some of the season's best fishing lies immediately ahead before people start flocking in for the summer season. Weekday anglers will find little competition on even the most heavily fished streams. Weekends the pressure is, of course, heavier but fish are not particularly wary and are really begging to be taken.

Warm nights will start the big browns coming but there's enough activity right now to keep any fisherman happy. So, if it's to be trout fishing, we suggest—do it now.

SALEM, Va. (AP) — After playing a 20-game basketball schedule, Andrew Lewis High School wound up just where it started —'all even. The team won 10 games, lost 10, scored 1,043 points and gave up 1,043 points to its opponents.

Nearby Jefferson Senior High of Roanoke was almost as consistent. It broke even on a 20-game schedule but scored 1,071 points to its opponents' 1,070

Bold Ruler Top Choice in Rich Roses Feature

Crowd of 100,000 to Witness Nation's Most Colorful Race Today

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Gen. Duke of the Calumet Farm was withdrawn from the 83rd running of the Kentucky Derby today, leaving Bold Ruler and eight other 3-year-old colts to contest the $125,000-added classic.

It was a tough blow for the stable of Mrs. Gene Markey as it left only Iron Liege — less half of what had loomed as a powerful Calumet entry — to battle it out in the big race before an expected crowd of some 100,000 at Churchill Downs.

A bruise was noticed in Gen. Duke's left front foot after he beat Bold Ruler in the Florida Derby March 30, but it came around after treatment. There was another setback last month when the Duke ran in a betless exhibition at Keeneland, Ky. The bruise became more serious Tuesday after he raced in the Derby trial.

★ ★ ★

Clear skies with a decided nip in the air and a lightning fast track were in prospect for America's No. 1 turf spectacle.

Fourteen world and track records either have been broken or equalled this year by seven of the 10 entries in races enroute to the Derby.

★ ★ ★

If the starting fee of $1,250 is paid on all 9, the race will have a value of $153,300. The only richer Derby was last year, when it was worth $165,950 with Needles winning $123,450. This year's winner will get a net purse of $109,200 and a $5,000 gold cup.

Bold Ruler, owned by Mrs. H.C. Phipps' Wheatley stable, trained by 82-year-old Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons and ridden by Eddie Arcaro, remained the firm choice at 8-5.

Willie Shoemaker will be astride Ralph Lowe's Texas-owned Gallant Man, and Dave Erb will ride Iron Liege.

★ ★ ★

Gallant Man, youngest and smallest horse in the race, is considered a serious threat. The other outstanding candidates include Federal Hill, Round Table, Bold Ruler and the Calumet pair.

Celtics Win Opener of Hawaiian Series

HONOLULU (AP) — The Boston Celtics last night beat the National Basketball Assn. All-Stars 115-109 before 3,000 fans in the opener of a four-game exhibition tour of Hawaii.

All-Star Bob Houbregs led all scorers with 24, while Jim Loscutoff topped the Celtics with 20.

Only 17 fouls were called during the contest, which the Celtics won with a second half spurt after being tied 55-all at half time.

Garden State, first track built in New Jersey, inaugurates its 16th season with 35,000 fans expected to attend this first of a 25-day meeting running through June 1. Post time is 2:30 p.m. daily.

Calumet Farm's Fabius, second to Needles in the 1956 Kentucky Derby and winner over the 2-year-old champion two weeks later in the Preakness, has been named a starter in today's Valley Forge and is the favorite with top weight of 124 pounds. The son of Citation won the $50,000-added Jersey here last year.

Included among the chief challengers to Fabius is Gray Phantom, sent to the Camden track by trainer Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons for the Wheatley Stables.

Wolves Drop Out of Lead

Michigan dropped out of the battle for 1st place and Michigan State went down to its 3rd setback in four starts in Big Ten baseball action Friday.

The Wolverines had a three-game-win streak halted by previously winless Wisconsin, 8-4, enabling Minnesota to take over the Conference lead. The Gophers nipped Purdue, 1-0.

An 11-hit barrage and 6-hit pitching by John Aehl produced the Michigan downfall. Steve Boros belted a two-run homer in the losing cause.

Two errors proved costly in State's 4-2 defeat administered by Northwestern. Both teams had hits with Ron Perranowski, the loser. Iowa edged Illinois, 3-2, and Indiana whipped Ohio State by a 6-3 in other games.

'Oldtimers' Test State Team Today

By BRUNO KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

EAST LANSING — The three-day football extravaganza came to an end today as the "Oldtimers" of Michigan State University assembled to meet the 1957 Spartan varsity in a game which many figure may turn out to be a battle between age and youth.

The squad, made up of former Spartan grid stars as far back as 1943, included such prominent names as Al Dorow, Earl Morrall, Buck Nystrom, Norm Masters, Lynn Chandnois, Dick Tanburo, Lary Crane and many others.

Coach Muddy Waters, former MSU fullback now head coach at Hillsdale College, said he might go along with Dorow as the starting quarterback for the Oldtimers, while Coach Duffy Daugherty planned on using former Pershing High ace Jim Ninowski in the starting slot to call the signals.

"We have some great talent and I could hardly call them old men," said Waters, "but I don't think we could get too well organized with only three days of practice.

"Actually some of the Oldtimers did not arrive on the scene from their respective homes around the country until last night. But when the full squad took the field at noon today for the 1:30 kickoff there were 50 ex-MSU gridders hoping to give the varsity some kind of a test."

Actually, even with many of the present pros in the lineup, the Spartan varsity was expected to be at least 18 points better than the Oldtimers.

Daugherty had 63 prospects in uniform, including 28 lettermen. In the starting backfield with Ninowski were Blanche Martin, Walt Kowalczyk at the halfbacks and Don Arend at fullback.

Spartan coaches are high on Martin, 190-pound junior from River Rouge, who is being touted as a better find than Clarence Peaks, whose shoes he will have to fill.

The other leading lettermen in the varsity lineup are such stalwarts as Dan Currie, senior center who has shifted from guard; Pat Burke, senior tackle and captain of the team; Dave Kaiser, senior end who was the star of the 1956 Rose Bowl game, and Tony Kolodziej, senior end who is considered as one of the better two-way players on the team.

A crowd of 15,000 was expected at kickoff time, including some 600 coaches from Michigan and the Midwest who were two-day guests of the spring clinic.

Chisox, Yanks Open Series

CHICAGO (AP)—The new look go-go Chicago White Sox, speeding to their greatest start in history, get the acid test this weekend when they tangle with the world champion New York Yankees.

★ ★ ★

The Yankees, 2½ games behind the league-leading Sox, open a three game series in Chicago today with a doubleheader scheduled tomorrow.

The Sox have combined speed, excellent pitching and timely hitting to win 11 of their first 13 games and are riding a five-game winning streak.

Six years ago, the original go-go Sox set the baseball world afire with their daredevil speed and found themselves perched in first place early in June. Then came the Yankees and the Sox finished fourth that year.

The 1951 Sox, piloted by Paul Richards, stole 12 bases in their first 18 attempts. The speed merchants in that era were Minnie Minoso, Jim Busby, Nellie Fox and Chico Carrasquel.

Minoso and Fox still are around. In fact they are the team's leading hitters. Fox is batting .392 and Minoso is clipping along with .359.

Aside from pitching, there's a new face at every other position. Larry Doby is in center in place of Busby. Luis Aparicio, one of the fastest men in the league, is at short in place of Carrasquel.

Former outfielders Jim Rivera and Bubba Phillips are at first and third, respectively, to give Manager Al Lopez "more speed." Sherman Lollar, the only slow man on the field, is behind the plate but he leads the team in home runs and runs batted in.

And in right field is rookie Jim Landis, key man in Lopez' plan to literally run the Sox to a pennant. Landis, probably the fastest man on the team, must make good. Otherwise Lopez would be forced to move Rivera to the outfield and put the limbering Walt Dropo back on first.

Landis already has stolen five bases and has turned a couple of singles into doubles and a double into a triple.

Lopez, working his pitchers in rotation, has Jim Wilson, Billy Pierce and Jack Harshman ready for the Yankees. Casey Stengel will counter with Whitey Ford, Johnny Kucks and Bobby Shantz.

Speiser Ranks 5th, Lane Top Contender in Ratings

MILWAUKEE (AP) — New York City's Tony Anthony, knock out winner over Chuck Speiser, today was named the No. 1 light-heavyweight challenger and selected as boxer of the month in the National Boxing Assn. May ratings.

★ ★ ★

Anthony knocked out Speiser in three rounds April 5 in Detroit, Speiser's hometown.

Anthony is now in line for a crack at the crown worn by light-heavyweight champion Archie Moore.

The new ratings found former middleweight champion Gene Fullmer listed as No. 1 contender for the title Sugar Ray Robinson won for the fourth time May 1 when he knocked out the West Jordan, Utah battler in the fifth round of their return match at Chicago Stadium.

Set for Tam O'Shanter

PGA's 1st Pro-Am Monday

By H. GUY MOATS

Michigan's PGA activities get under way for the spring and summer season next Monday. First Pro-Amateur tourney of the year for professionals is set for Tam O'Shanter Country Club, with a field of 53 teams already listed.

"If we get any more" said assistant professional Gene Bone, of the host club, "we'll have to extend our starting times."

Top pros of the area are included. There's one exception. Veteran Al Watrous of Oakland Hills will not be playing, as of the present. "Looks like Al will not make it," Bone commented.

Among the pros, who will play with three club members in the "metro" style 18-hole medal test, are Max Evans, Jack Fleck (if he returns in time from the Colonial); Jimmy Johnston, the 1956 state PGA king; Bob Inman and Bob Keller (of Detroit), Bob Gadja, Lou Powers, Wally Burkemo, Elmer Prieskorn of Pine Lake, Tommy Shannon of Orchard Lake, Joe Thatcher, Bill Uzelac and Roy Beattie of Plum Hollow.

Burkemo and Keller teams tied for last year's honor with 62s.

Next pro-amateur event for the PGA, Michigan section will be May 13 at Detroit Golf Club.

Pick CD Hospital Site

Plan Facility at Rochester

Training Programs to Man 200-Bed Structure Beginning

ROCHESTER — Rochester has been selected as one of the sites in the Oakland County area for a 200-bed emergency hospital in the Federal Civil Defense program, if the personnel can be trained to man it, said Robert A. Slone, director of the Rochester Area Civil Defense program, to-day.

Training programs are well under way and more than 100 persons attended the second nurses training course at the junior high school Thursday. More people are signing up for training everyday, he added.

Ransford Bromley, assistant director of the Oakland CD program and Marie Rodrigquez of the Oakland County Board of Health spoke after a film showing the emergency hospital and its use during disasters.

Dr. Edgar J. Geist Jr., medical director for this area, briefed the group in the preliminaries of the Disaster Training Course for an hour.

Afterward the groups went to the gym for the practice of transporting of the injured following disasters, under the direction of Mrs. Rodrigquez and Dr. Geist.

Next Thursday's class, from 8 to 10 p.m., will be instruction in artificial respiration. Mrs. Jane Mack of the Oakland Co. Board of Health will give instruction.

Roommate Claims Guilt

Acquit MSU Grid Man

EAST LANSING (AP) — A Michigan State University football player was acquitted of assault and battery charges yesterday after a roommate told of committing the offense for which the athlete was charged.

George Perles testified in justice court that he, not Joseph Carruthers, took part in the fight that led to the assault charges against the 21 - year - old second string tackle.

Carruthers, of Royal Oak, was accused of assaulting Frederick Johnson, 22, a Royal Oak school teacher, on Feb. 9 following a traffic argument.

Johnson and his wife both identified Carruthers as the assailant.

Perles, 22, testified he had borrowed Carruthers' automobile and had a near-collision with Johnson in a grocery store parking lot.

"We exchanged words and then we both got out of our cars and started fighting," Perles said.

Donald R. Barrett of Ecorse, another roommate, corroborated Perles testimony.

Prosecution questioning why Perles didn't speak up sooner was not allowed by the court. The case had gone to a jury trial.

Almost Fired, Says McLeod

Tells Senators Dulles Thought He Disclosed Data in Security Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Scott McLeod says he almost was fired as State Department security officer four years ago because Secretary Dulles thought he had "leaked" information to a newspaper.

He said Dulles told him he had authority to fire the security chief as a "security risk because of this leak" to the old Washington Times Herald. The newspaper had reported McLeod had reservations about the then - pending nomination of Charles E. Bohlen to be ambassador to Russia.

Under the administration's security program, a government employe deemed to have talked too much is subject to dismissal as unreliable.

McLeod told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee he had nothing to do with any leak and that Dulles changed his mind about firing him after the secretary had "satisfied himself . . . that I had nothing to do with this leak."

McLeod's testimony was given to the committee in secret this week while the group was considering his controversial nomination to be U. S. ambassador to Ireland. The transcript was made public yesterday.

★ ★ ★

The committee approved the nomination Thursday, 9-6. A group of Democrats who question McLeod's qualifications for the Dublin post say they will carry their fight against his nomination to the Senate floor next week.

Church Gains 108 Members

Methodist Congregation Entertains New Group in Clarkston

CLARKSTON — One hundred and eight new members of First Methodist Church here were entertained this week by the official board of the church and intergrated into the church program.

The meeting closed when the new members were guests of the Board at a Fellowship Dinner. The occasion was one of the highlights of the church year during which time the church has enjoyed a remarkable increase in growth.

This growth was traced in the Quarterly Conference meeting held last Wednesday evening in the church sanctuary when the pastor, Rev. William J. Richards, reported that attendance at a single Sunday morning worship service one year ago averaged 175 people, and at present the Sunday morning duplicate worship services now average nearly 500.

Before the meeting closed the congregation voted to purchase a new site for the church in the vicinity of the school, which would provide adequate parking and facilities for an expanded youth and children's program. The need of such a site was presented by Board of Trustees president, Harold Bauer. Plans are being formulated to bring in the Methodist Church architect from the National Methodist Board to discuss the possibilities of building. Present membership of the church numbers some 634 persons.

This Sunday, Pontiac Commandry No. 2 of the Knights Templar led by Commander Robert Snyder, a member of First Church, will be special guests at the 11 a.m. service.

The Commandry will meet at the Community House at 9:30 a.m. where the church will entertain them at coffee, and at 10:30 they will march south on Main street to the church. Pastor William J. Richards will preach on the subject, "The Mind of Christ."

BUILD TWO CHURCHES — As a new Commerce Methodist church nears completion on a site just west of Commerce village, plans are being made to build a second new church — in India. Shown looking at a small scale model of the new Commerce church under construction are (l-r) Rev. Perry A. Thomas, minister; Mrs. Wilbert Horton, chairman of the Mission Commission; and Leslie Thomas, chairman of the Building Committee. The official church board decided to use the balance in the Benevolence fund and contributions in the self-denial Lenten offers, a total of $840, to build a church in the United Province in the area of Maradabad (India). Village natives will donate the labor for the first church in that district. Rev. Ross and Ara Bunce, formerly of Commerce, are now missionaries in India. Reverend Bunce will send periodic reports to Commerce covering progress on the new project.

Chrysler Auto Plants Idled by Walkout

DETROIT (AP) — Wildcat strikes stemming from a dispute over job transfer rights idled 40,500 hourly rated workers at Chrysler Corp. plants in the Detroit area yesterday.

The walkouts shut down production of Plymouth, Dodge, Chrysler and Imperial cars. Only DeSoto output continued. Overtime operations for today were canceled. None of the auto-makers normally operates on Saturdays.

The workers were sent home by the company when the walkout of interplant truck drivers cut off supplies to assembly lines.

The truck drivers stayed off their jobs in protest over the firing of a driver and a United Auto Workers union committeeman. The company and UAW officials said the work stoppage was unauthorized.

The strike stemmed from a long-standing dispute between Chrysler and UAW Local 212 over the movement of some stamping division operations to a new plant at Twinsburg, Ohio.

DAWN'S EARLY LIGHT — Helen O'Connell, who is featured on NBC-TV's "Today," must be to bed with the birds in order to rise and shine at 3:30 or 4 a. m. Despite this damper on her social life, Helen has found time for romance and will be married next week to author Tom Chamales. "Today" is telecast weekdays at 7:10 a. m.

Romance Comes to Helen Despite Video's Demands

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—Hardy souls who labor on television's early morning shows will tell you earnestly that the only thing wrong with their jobs is their social life.

In order to arise at 3:30 or 4 a.m., they must be to bed with the birds. They are among the missing when others are having fun.

Despite this handicap, Helen O'Connell, featured on "Today" (7:10 a.m., EST) has found time for romance. Her boss Dave Garroway married some months back; Miss O'Connell will be married next week—to an author she met a month or so back. Things have been arranged so she can miss a Friday and a Monday show to have a four-day honeymoon.

Helen, a pretty green-eyed blonde with dimples, was a singing success before World War II when the big name bands were the fancy of the young crowd. As a featured singer with Jimmy Dorsey's band, she turned out such hit records as "Tangerine," "All of Me," "Green Eyes" and "Six Lessons from Madame La-Zonga."

In 1943, returning a $50,000 motion picture contract unsigned, she married a Boston socialite and turned California hausfrau. They had three daughters — Jacqueline, now 12; Joanne, 9, and Jennifer, 8—when they were divorced seven years later. Helen went back to show business. She did the night stars as Vic Damone, Martin & Lewis and Johnny Ray. Last December she went on the "Today" circuit, toured with such show.

★ ★ ★

Upon marriage to Tom Chamales, author of "Never So Few," she's planning to continue her work.

"It's fine with Tom," she says. "He likes to get up and start writing at 5 in the morning, so my hours won't be a problem."

Two to Testify on Drainage

County Officials to Tell House Group Ideas for Area Flood Control

Two Oakland County officials are to appear before a congressional committee in Washington, D. C. in behalf of a drainage project to help relieve flooding in the southern part of the county.

Delos Hamlin, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, and Daniel T. Murphy Jr., Drain Commissioner, expect to testify soon before the House Public Works Committee in support of legislation that would increase the drainage capacity of the Clinton River.

The river would be widened and deepened in Macomb County beyond the point at which it is joined by Red Run, the waterway into which most southeast Oakland County flood waters drain.

The Red Run's capacity has been increased recently and it figures importantly in the proposed 12-Town Drain Relief project. Officials of Madison Heights, in which the river runs, want its capacity increased more.

MAKES APPEARANCE

The city's mayor, Lloyd Ferguson, appeared before the Board of Supervisors yesterday in support of the federal legislation.

★ ★ ★

Increasing the capacity of the Clinton between Red Run and Lake St. Clair would favorably affect the rate of the Red Run's flow and capacity, it is believed.

The Board passed a resolution endorsing the legislation and recommending its adoption.

12-Year-Old Wins Trophies, Medals, Ribbons

Junior Bowman Racks 'Em Up

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
Of Our Waterford Bureau

When 12-year-old Jack Hirneisen of Waterford Township joined the archery division of the Oakland County Sportsman's club two years ago, he won a big, fat turkey in his very first meet.

Since that time, he has walked off with 16 trophies, medals and ribbons, including nine first-place awards. The day after his birthday on Aug. 18, he cinched the title of Junior Champion of Oakland County. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hirneisen, of 3427 Seebalt St.

This straight-as-an-arrow seventh grader takes his archery prowess seriously and says, "There's a lot more to it than most people think."

For instance, in the Field Shoot scheduled for Sunday at the O. C. Sportsman's club on Waterford Rd., there will be hazards of every description lined up for the contestants.

UPHILL, DOWN

Juniors, Intermediates and Senior Archers, will be required to go uphill, and down. They will have to shoot over swamps and through trees from 10 a.m. until 4 in the afternoon.

"If an arrow falls in a swamp," Jack said, "it's usually a goner."

Jackie explained that a contestant gets four shots at 56 different targets. These are set at various ranges from 15 to 80 yards, and the target gets bigger as the distance from the archer increases.

OVER 400

With a membership of more than 400, in the archery division of the Oakland County Sportsman's club, it is one of the biggest outdoor clubs in the country, according to Edward Kuder, Range Captain.

★ ★ ★

Beginning Sunday, there will be weekly shoots at 6 p.m. at the club grounds, according to Kuder. Trophies for the 12-week shoots will be awarded at the end of the season.

★ ★ ★

"This sport is building up by leaps and bounds," Kuder said. "Some 45,000 sportsmen hunted with the bow and arrows in Northern Michigan last year, and oftentimes, the little fellows outshoot their fathers," he added.

Jackie's father said, "And that's the truth."

Papua-New Guinea, hard hit by World War II, got back some $600,000 last year from scrap metal salvaged from war wreckage, Port Moresby reports.

SHARP SHOOTER — 12-year-old Jack Hirneisen, of Waterford Township is loaded down with his archery trophies, won during his two years membership with the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club. He is junior champion for the area, and getting set for the meet to be held Sunday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the club on Waterford Road, in the township.
