Pontiac's Share in 'Mighty Mac' Evident to All

By JOE HAAS
Pontiac Press Staff Writer

ST. IGNACE — At the dedication of "Mighty Mac" it is difficult to find any feature of the bridge or its approaches in which the Pontiac area did not have an active part. The brains and brawn of that part of our state is evident on every hand. It starts in history and is here today.

It was when our Murray D. VanWagoner was Michigan State Highway commissioner that the idea of a bridge really took root.

It was when he was governor that it sprouted and began to look like a possibility. The scoffers quit.

His knowledge and foresight assured him a place on the Bridge Authority when it was formed, and he has held that position until what looked like his dream became a hundred-million-dollar fact. Murray's smile is even wider than usual today.

The Catsman Company, which has extensive gravel holdings in the Pontiac area furnished much of the concrete for the bridge's foundation. They know how to mix it for the ages.

The prize winning six-horse hitch from our Meadowbrook Farms is a feature at the agricultural fair in connection with the dedication, as also are the Northland 4-H Dixie Stompers. Our contributions cover a wide range.

PONTIAC BUGGIES DISPLAYED

Here also are exhibited vehicles made by the Pontiac Buggy Company, some of which bear an 1896 nameplate. One also, with a fringe on top, carries a faded and worn emblem with the name of Draper Fosdick as owner.

According to today's program, in plans for the meeting of the Indian warriors and traders under the bridge, one of the birch bark canoes is that of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hadley of Holly. It is made of regular birch bark, and the dedication management sent a truck to Holly Monday to bring it here. It is manned by an expert canoe racer.

The Hadleys had this canoe built by Indians who searched the forests for a birch tree large enough to furnish the bark for an authentic canoe. It was used by them in securing views on Northern Michigan streams for their illustrated lecture on "The Song of Hiawatha," which they have given in over 300 cities in United States and Canada. It will be returned to them at Holly later.

Thousands of Boy Scouts, from an area extending 100 miles each way from the Straits, are participating in the parades or doing their turn in keeping the big crowds in line. There are some Scouts from Oakland County.

Among the Scouts none are truer examples of what a Scout could be than the Uhrick triplets, born 11 years ago when their father, John Uhrick, was in business in Keego Harbor and the family lived on Pontiac Trail.

Mr. and Mrs. Uhrick now are living in Charlevoix where he has the Cadillac and Pontiac car agencies. The triplets are knee deep in Scouting in all its phases, and are Eagle bound. They are Jack, Jim and Jerry.

The Pontiac Motel at Mackinaw City was sold out for the dedication much in advance of other motels, "on account of our name," says the owner.

ROMEO TEACHER AIDS

Another Pontiac area man who looms large in the bridge dedication is Joe Sullivan, teacher in the Romeo schools. He had charge of the bridge ground-breaking ceremonies when he was teaching here four years ago. He was invited back to help in the preparations for the dedication, and has much to do with its success.

House Approves Bill on Car Price Tags

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House has passed and sent to President Eisenhower a bill to require automobile manufacturers and dealers to display the suggested retail price of new cars.

With only a few minutes of debate, the House yesterday completed congressional action on the measure intended to stop price packing and misleading advertising of new car costs.

The bill would also require posting the cost of optional equipment.

Price packing is the practice of padding the normal profit markup on cars for the purpose of later reducing the price to buyers through inflated trade-in allowance or discounts.

The House Commerce Committee reported that "unscrupulous marketing practices . . . have created chaos and confusion" in the automobile business and "confusion, doubt and suspicion" in the public mind.

Under terms of the bill new cars must bear on their windshield a label with the following information:

Make, model and serial number, final assembly point, name and location of the dealer, method by which the car was transported from assembly plant to dealer and the total retail price suggested by the manufacturer.

The price notice would specify the suggested price of the car itself, of each item of optional equipment attached to it and the transportation charged the dealer.

Manufacturers would attach the labels prior to delivery.

"This bill will restore the confidence of the automobile buyer," the commerce committee said.

"The disclosure of the manufacturer's suggested retail price will help to minimize the advertising extravagances indulged in by some automobile dealers."

Telephone Bills Due to Go Up

Detroit Bell Head Says Small Hike Not Enough to Support Expansion

LANSING (AP) — Bills for most Michigan telephone subscribers are due for a modest rise following approval of a $2,212,000 annual rate increase for Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

Although there was no official word, one source guessed the increase would amount to a maximum of 25 cents a month, and probably less for most classes of service.

The rate boost was authorized yesterday by a split decision of the State Public Service Commission. Dissenting, Commissioner James H. Lee called for a $3,000,000 a year reduction in rates.

In Detroit, William M. Day, Bell Telephone president, said the commission's order "put the company in an economic strait jacket that will result in the sacrifice of millions of dollars in new construction and many jobs at a time when they are most needed."

Day said that the rate hike would mean more drastic economies, in-

Once There Was a Plane---Now Scattered Specks

ALL THAT REMAINS — Only a few large pieces of wreckage dot this field at Chicopee Falls, Mass., after a KC135 jet tanker crashed shortly after takeoff. Six newsmen and the commander of the 57th Air Division at Westover Air Force Base, Brig. Gen. Donald W. Saunders, were among the 15 who died in the crash. The white patches in the photo are blankets covering victims' bodies.

AF Tanker Hits Wires Seconds After Takeoff

Six Newsmen Among Victims Aboard Plane Seeking Ocean Mark

WESTOVER AIR FORCE BASE, Mass. (AP)—A jet tanker plane attempting a transatlantic speed record crashed and exploded seconds after takeoff early today, killing all 15 aboard.

Observers said the giant KC135 jet tanker apparently hit high tension wires about a mile and a half from its takeoff runway.

The explosion disintegrated the plane into hundreds of pieces, the largest of which was described as no bigger than a chair.

Among the victims were six newsmen who were to cover the flight of four Air Force planes attempting to break records for aircraft speed in crossing the Atlantic in both directions.

Also on board was Brig. Gen. Donald W. Saunders, Athens, N.Y. airborne commander in charge of the operation.

The plane was the third of the four-plane flight to take off. The first two got off on schedule and headed directly for London.

The fourth plane was on the runway ready to take off at the time of the crash. That flight was canceled.

With the first light of dawn, rescue workers found 14 bodies scattered over a wide area. The 15th body was jammed in the wreckage.

Eyewitnesses said all the bodies were burned.

Warm Sun Smiles Down on 'Big Mac' Dedication

MACKINAC BRIDGE (UPI) — An estimated 100,000 persons elated by clear skies and rising temperatures, attended the Mackinac Bridge festival today.

State Police estimated 75,000 persons were on hand watching a three-hour parade at Mackinaw City when it started at noon.

Another 25,000 persons were expected to visit exhibits at St. Ignace and at the AG-rama show at Cheboygan.

The entire area, within a 50-mile radius of the $100,000,000 span, had a holiday atmosphere.

The brilliant sun, clear skies and gentle breezes cheered dedication officials and businessmen throughout the area.

It marked the first time in three days that the sun has been out for more than a few moments at a time. Temperatures were expected to hit nearly 70.

Favorable weather on the second and most crucial day of the three-day festival eased the threat that the dedication festival might flop.

Dedication officials were on the job early this morning, rescheduling events that had been canceled for two days because of high winds, rain and fog.

A water skiing demonstration was held shortly before noon and a Navy-Coast Guard air-sea rescue demonstration was on the agenda for 4:00 p.m. Both of the events have been postponed twice.

Sleek military jets opened today's program when they flew over the five-mile span shortly after 9:00 a.m.

Traffic on both sides of the bridge became "very heavy" by 10 a.m. Nearly everyone was heading for Mackinaw City.

Named After Bridge?

MACKINAC BRIDGE (UPI) — The village of Mackinaw City, a community of 1,200 located on the northern tip of the Lower Peninsula, may change its name to "Mackinac Bridge," Mayor Neil Downing said today. Downing said he will discuss the proposal with members of the village council at their next meeting July 3.

Hospital Employes to Fight Wage Cuts

Union employes at Pontiac General Hospital yesterday voted unanimously to fight wage cuts decided upon last Sunday by the Board of Trustees.

Officials of Local 100 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes, AFL-CIO, will confer with trustees at 4 p.m. today in an attempt to discuss the disagreement.

Trustees, faced with mounting operating deficits at the city hospital, say their pay reduction plan, aimed at all 647 employes, is a must. They say it will save $65,000 and will be only "temporary relief," with present wages to be restored Jan. 1, 1959.

Samuel A. Baker, president of the local, said the union voted "to hold the line against any wage cut" because hospital officials, in negotiating for the current contract earlier this year, knew of the impending financial situation, but still went ahead with the current plan.

2 Maidens from Nepal Enjoying Visit Here

YUMMMY — Nepalese 4-H girls Rojani Basnyat, 19, left, and Siddhi Sarchan, 20, take their first taste of American ice cream at the home of Carlos Long, Milford. The girls, here for two months, are finding American ways and such things as television, movies and automobiles a novel experience.

Two pretty young maidens who have left the remote kingdom of Nepal, high in the Himalayas near Tibet to come to the distant land of America, are finding it a delightful experience.

Siddhi Sarchan, 20, and Rojani Basnyat, 19, are sponsored by the International Farm Youth Exchange program underwritten in the U.S. by the National 4-H Foundation.

Both girls are with Oakland County families, Siddhi staying at the Carlos Long farm, 2875 Sleeth Rd., Milford, and Rojani with the Stanley Kipps, 1123 Doris Rd., Pontiac Township.

Such Americana as ice cream heaped with strawberries and television are novel experiences to them and they are enjoying them immensely, they say.

Both girls are working hard to master English which they learned to read in school but have never spoken.

The girls will spend one more week with their adopted families before leaving on a tour of Utah and Illinois.

At home, the girls are equivalent to our home demonstration agents, they said, aiding women in improving their efficiency as housewives and mothers.

Press Theater-Trippers on the Go in New York

By PETE LOCHBILER

NEW YORK — Pontiac Press theater-trippers today discovered that this is the most cosmopolitan city in the world.

Our wonderful scheduled tour was over last night with a hilarious show and a delicious after-the-theater supper, but fabulous New York City held even more pleasures for all of us today, before tomorrow's flight home.

We saw the laugh-a-minute "Who Was That Lady," and still giggling, went over to Leone's Restaurant for supper and the opportunity to meet several of the wonderful Broadway stars whose performances have given us so much pleasure during this five-day holiday.

Lovely Carol Lawrence dropped by during our stay at the celebrity-filled eating place, as well as Barbara Cook. Miss Lawrence was the star of one of our five shows, "West Side Story," while Miss Cook co-starred in another favorite musical that we enjoyed, "Music Man."

Beautiful Miss Lawrence told us that our Pontiac Audience was one of the most enthusiastic she has performed to recently.

Her chat with us capped a day

Holidays Over for Sea Lion—Nabbed in Ohio

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP) — A noose and a net today finally proved the undoing of a fugitive sea lion who had eluded capture since escaping last week from a London, Ont., Zoo.

The sea lion was captured in Billman's Boathouse in East Sandusky Bay off Lake Erie.

Apparently drowsy from two hits from a tranquilizer gun last night, the mammal was spotted in the boathouse this morning by fishermen.

The fishermen and other men kept it cornered in the boathouse until help arrived from the Toledo Zoo.

Then, zoo curator of mammals Dan Danford managed to slip a noose over its head and steer it to a raft.

Chief Carpenter Called to Probe

Seeking to Find Out if He Conspired With Hoffa to Fix Jury

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Maurice A. Hutcheson of the Carpenters Union was summoned for questioning today on whether he conspired with Teamsters President James R. Hoffa to fix an Indiana grand jury.

Hutcheson was called by the Senate Rackets Committee, which is probing into what Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) said might be a conspiracy to obstruct justice by blocking indictments in Indiana highway scandals. McClellan spoke of $20,000 in union funds which he said were used illegally.

Hutcheson and two other Carpenters Union officials are awaiting trial on charges they made an illegal profit of $78,000 on a $20,000 investment in lands sold to Indiana for highway rights of way. They also are charged with splitting the profit with three state officials.

Indicted along with Hutcheson were Frank Chapman, union secretary treasurer, and O. William Blaier, carpenters' second vice president.

Blaier appeared before the committee yesterday, but declined to answer questions on the ground it might help the prosecution pending against him. Several other witnesses also pleaded the Fifth Amendment in balking at answering committee questions about the alleged jury fixing conspiracy.

Committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy refused to make public evidence which he said prompted him to ask the witnesses whether they had discussed with Hoffa some plot for "fixing the case" before a Lake County, Ind., grand jury.

Kennedy said the evidence is available, however, if Indiana law enforcement officials want it. In Indianapolis, Gov. Harold W. Handley said he will study the hearing transcript before conferring with State Atty. Gen. Edwin K. Steers on whether to take any action.

House Set to Pass Freight Tax-Cut Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House was ready to send to President Eisenhower today a bill slashing half a billion dollars a year in tax surcharges from the nation's freight transportation costs.

Travelers, however, will continue to pay the 10 per cent federal tax on rail bus and airline tickets which the Senate had voted to eliminate along with the freight tax.

Compromising congressional tax cutting differences, Senate and House representatives yesterday agreed to repeal of the World War II freight excise tax effective Aug. 1 while holding the line on other forms of tax reduction for this year.

Rallying Fay Crocker Fires 35 at Forest Lake

Winds that hit speeds up to 25 miles per hour yesterday calmed down a little today in the 2nd round of the U.S.G.A. Women's Open Golf championship at Forest Lake Country Club.

There was a strong hint of possible thundershowers, however, as the field of 29 professionals and 25 amateurs conducted its 18-hole trek over Forest Lake's 6,240 yards.

Fay Crocker, the talented pro from Uruguay who won the Women's Open in 1956, fired the best nine-hole score among the early starters with a 2-under par 35 on the front side.

The South American native birdied four holes and bogied two to post the lowest score yet recorded on the outgoing nine. Miss Crocker began today's round in a 6th place tie with five others at 79.

Miss Louise Suggs, who shot 75 yesterday to share 2nd place with Mrs. Jackie Pung and Miss Betty Jameson, one-putted five greens for a 39 going out and stood even par after five holes coming home.

The blonde Miss Jameson, a seasoned campaigner, slipped to a 43 on the front nine. Women's par at Forest Lake is 37-36—73.

Mrs. Pung, the Hawaiian native who lost last year's National Open on a technicality, was a late starter today and so was lean Mickey Wright, the long-hitting California pro who shot 74 in Thursday's 1st round to take a one-stroke lead.

Warm Sun Shines at Bridge Dedication

Ignace yesterday because of high winds.

Members of Michigan's legislature began arriving in numbers. They will be honored at a banquet in Cheboygan tonight.

And bridge queens from each of Michigan's 83 counties assembled at Sault Ste. Marie to prepare for their role in the dedication. They'll also be seated at the Cheboygan banquet tonight.

Winds which gusted up to 80 miles an hour yesterday died down to a trifling breeze and temperatures climbed to the balmy 70s.

"Now maybe we'll see some business," said motel operator Bill Ellsworth.

"We couldn't have had weather much worse than yesterday's," said a St. Ignace businessman. "We haven't had weather like that in years."

Forty-two units canceled appearances in the parade because of windy weather, and dozens of floats hauled up from lower peninsula cities didn't even cross the bridge. Winds gusting up to 85 m.p.h. ripped and toppled several which tried to cross the five mile span.

Gov. Williams, marooned in his summer home on Mackinac Island until afternoon, made it to the mainland on the first ferry of the day just as the parade broke up.

★ ★ ★

The loan, which Fox said was repaid, was for his now defunct Boston Post. Fox said he had turned against the Republican senatorial candidate, Henry Cabot Lodge, now ambassador to the United Nations, because he had become convinced Lodge was soft against Communists.

For the second day, Fox was testifying before a House subcommittee investigating relations of Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine and Sherman Adams, President Eisenhower's top aide.

Yesterday, Fox asserted that Goldfine once had told him that Adams had interests in Goldfine textile mills and that Goldfine had said he didn't have to worry about federal regulatory agencies so long as Adams held his White House post. That brought angry denials from Adams and Goldfine.

The White House said in effect today that President Eisenhower is convinced Fox was not telling the truth.

At a news conference, White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty was asked whether Adams' status, so far as Eisenhower is concerned, had changed any as a result of the allegations by Fox.

"How can it change when it (Fox' testimony) is a fabric of falsehoods?" Hagerty shot back.

The press secretary referred newsmen to an Adams' statement last night denying categorically a series of allegations by Fox. Hagerty declined to say whether Adams may seek an opportunity to testify again before the House subcommittee. But he made it clear that Adams will hit out again if Fox makes any new allegations which Adams regards as untrue.

"There certainly is no intention of letting falsehoods stand unanswered," Hagerty said.

He added that "If there are more falsehoods today," they would be answered.

Fox spent some time today telling of his financial troubles with The Boston Post. He accused the Securities and Exchange Commission of deliberately committing "corporate murder" on the traditionally Democratic newspaper. Yet Goldfine, his former friend and now a business enemy, violated SEC laws, Fox said.

Won't Support Transfer Move

School Board Views Bid to Extend District as Disadvantage to City

The Pontiac Board of Education yesterday decided not to support a request of residents of Upper Long Lake Estates, Bloomfield Township, to transfer from the Pontiac to the Bloomfield Township School District.

The residents will appear before the Oakland County Board of Education next month to request the transfer of the 160-acre subdivision.

The Pontiac board decided that the change would make its southern boundary more irregular and would reduce the value of a 10-acre school site it had purchased near the subdivision.

The residents asked the transfer because they said it would put their children of junior high and high school age nearer their schools and would give them more college preparatory emphasis in their education.

The board also awarded insurance contracts. Fleet insurance was awarded to the Noyce Strait Jr. Agency for $1,431.10.

Workmen's compensation insurance was awarded to Michigan Mutual Liability Co., for a bid of $14,935.12, less a 15 per cent discount.

In other board action, the time and place for the annual organizational meeting when new board officers will be elected was set. The board will meet July 7 at the Rotunda Inn.

A member of the large gang of painters who have been giving the bridge its final touches before the dedication is Harvey Flewelling of Walled Lake. When he was home over last weekend he told me the high winds were making the work rather hazardous, and the job might not be entirely completed on time.

Cars bearing Oakland County license numbers are more numerous here than those from any other county except Wayne, even more numerous than those of the home counties.

that began with the men of our tour visiting the New York Stock Exchange and the women a fashion show at the B. Altman & Co. store on Fifth Avenue.

We saw the busy transactions on the floor of the most important financial center in the world and learned what the future holds for such controversial fashions as the chemise and the trapeze.

Today, everyone was on his own, and there seemed to be something in this colorful city to claim the attention of everyone.

A lot of us went back down to the Greenwich Village area (which we saw on our Pontiac Press guided tour earlier this week), while others went to attractions, such as the Museum of Modern Art, only a few minutes away by subway from our Hotel Manhattan, or the Metropolitan Museum of Art which is further uptown on Central Park.

Library Increases Fees for Non-Resident Users

BIRMINGHAM — With its expansion program launched, Baldwin Public Library on July 1 will take another step in equalizing costs for city and non-resident users.

The 1,055 families using the library's facilities but not living within the city will face a $2.93 increase a year over the $10 fee now charged.

Charles Kass, library board president, said this will bring non-resident costs to the same level that the average city taxpayer is assessed. The fee, whether paid through taxes or directly to the library, entitles all members in the family to full use of the facilities, he said.

Future years will see the non-resident fee adjusted annually to keep it equal to the taxpayers' library expense.

A Bloomfield Hills police car was completely wrecked in a four-car collision this morning. No one was reported seriously injured.

It struck an auto driven by Kenneth L. Manley, 17, of 840 Highwood Dr., Birmingham, went out of control and crashed into the parked police car, knocking it into another parked car, according to Bloomfield Hills police.

Brooks, his brother, Jerry, 20, of the same address, and Manley all suffered cuts and bruises.

Dr. Alfred D. Grey, of Stratford, Ontario, has been called as interim pastor of the Congregational Church of Birmingham. He will begin his duties Sept. 1.

Douglas V. Doane, chairman of the Board of Deacons and Deaconesses, said that during August substitute pastors will preach Sunday services.

The Rev. Robert D. Dewey is leaving the church to take a pastorate at Garden City, Long Island, N.Y. The Rev. Carl Baird has resigned to accept a position with Field Enterprises Educational Corp.

Dr. George E. Marin, Birmingham Planning Board chairman, yesterday announced the resignation of Eugene J. Barney, who will be moving out of the city. He will leave the board July 1.

Telephone Bills Due for Hike in Michigan

cluding further force shrinkage, and elimination of all construction projects except those absolutely necessary to provide service.

The Bell president concluded, "It is ironical that the order comes at a time when government is urged to spend vast sums of money on public works at the expense of the taxpayers to ease the recession. Yet the commission denies this company the opportunity to go ahead with needed construction to be financed not by taxpayers but by private investors. It just doesn't make sense."

The increase, the result of rehearing of an order entered last Aug. 6, was the second in less than a year for the telephone utility.

Last August, the commission granted a $2,835,000 annual hike. Michigan Bell had asked $12,500,000. Thus, in two chunks, the company got $5,047,000 of what it originally sought.

No conclusions have been reached on the spread of the gross increase among the various classes of service. This will be a subject of discussion with company officials next week.

Study Device to Halt Truck Jackknifing

WASHINGTON (UP) — Government agencies are studying a Michigan-developed device designed to stop jackknifing in semi-trailer trucks.

Representatives of all branches of the armed services and almost all federal agencies which use trucks viewed a demonstration of the device at the National Guard Armory here yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Zoo in New Orleans to Receive Rare Bird

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — New Orleans is swapping two of its pelicans for a great bustard, a nearly extinct member of the crane family found from Central Europe to China.

The big bird was due to arrive here today from Jerez de la Frontera, Spain, and take up residence in the Audubon Park Zoo.

Park Superintendent George Douglass said he planned to handle the bustard with considerable care, since it stands more than three feet high, weighs about 30 pounds and is so pugnacious that it has been known to attack humans.

'Twas the Horse's Fault

Joan Blondell Evicted

FRAMINGHAM, Mass. (AP) — Actress Joan Blondell has been evicted from a motel because of Bridey Murphy, her tiny English pug dog. Miss Blondell, here to star in a summer play, said the management asked her to leave because dogs were not allowed. She and the dog found quarters at a private estate.

Jobless Board Not Very Busy

Only 3 in Waterford Come to Arbitration Committee for Aid

Either Waterford Township residents are not hard-pressed for help, or they do not want it, is the concluded opinion of members of the newly-organized Unemployment Arbitration Committee.

Since the seven-member group was appointed by supervisor Elmer Johnson a month ago, only three people have taken advantage of the committee's donated time and efforts.

Purpose of the board is to assist people who are temporarily unemployed, by working out a plan with their creditors so that a person won't lose everything, according to chairman attorney Paul Mandel.

The committee does not act as a welfare agency,, and there is no means of giving financial assistance. However, each member was selected because of his "know-how" and experiences in various types of business and professional skills.

Each case is handled privately and individually and members stress that they get together to make a sincere effort to help people solve what seems to be insurmountable financial problems.

Residents may procure an application at the township hall, fill it out and return it to Johnson's office. The arbitration committee is then notified, and an appointment made for 9 a.m. Wednesday mornings.

Counterfeit Beeping Puts Trio in Hot Water

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The case of the counterfeit beeps is all over—except for the sentencing.

Three engineers will be sentenced July 16 for operating an unlicensed radio station and interfering with communications. Last December, as a joke, they set up a radio transmitter which sent beeps matching Soviet Sputnik signals.

Federal court found the trio guilty yesterday after the Federal Communications Commission described how much work it took to track down the transmitter, which was hidden in the mountains north of here.

The engineers, Rulon D. Jensen and Dean L. Hanson, Los Angeles, and Fred Field Jr., Torrance, have asked for probation.

Can Commissioners Be on Two Sides at Once

They are suing the City of Pontiac and Police Chief HERBERT W. STRALEY for promotions, which is a bit unusual and challenging just in itself. But of equal interest is the fact the organization has retained a City Commissioner to represent it.

★ ★ ★

How can Milton Henry act as an attorney in an action against the City and then rush around to the other side of the table, put on his City Commisioner's hat and represent the taxpayers he is suing?

★ ★ ★

Is it unconstitutional? Is it good judgment? Can HENRY throw his whole heart and soul into one side and then reverse his field and do the same for the other?

★ ★ ★

How can any attorney anywhere go through these contortions? How can the Police officers figure they can hire a representative on the City Commission to sue the City Commission?

★ ★ ★

Sylvan Lake Traffic Needs Some Explaining

Traffic problems in the City of Sylvan Lake seem to be open for debate. This is evidenced by the receipt of half a dozen letters to the Voice of the People column, plus a number of phone calls.

★ ★ ★

Currently motorists passing through the Sylvan Lake area feel that in some instances they are not receiving a fair deal. It would appear that some explanation is due.

1. Does a speed trap really exist?

2. Is the Justice of the Peace court acting unfairly?

3. Are their police officers acting disrespectfully to traffic violators?

It seems to The PRESS that these questions along with an airing of the entire traffic problem of the City of Sylvan Lake should be answered by the proper authorities.

Undoubtedly some of the charges are unfair. Probably they have not all happened as stated by the offenders. But on the other hand, with so many complaints, the taxpayers are entitled to some answer from the City.

★ ★ ★

Being ticketed is an unhappy experience. But to feel that you have been unjustly accused adds insult to injury.

Wildcat Strikes Harm All Labor Movement

United Auto Workers Local 1245 dealt its brethren a jolt below the belt with its three day wildcat strike at Chrysler missile plant.

A few hundred out of 8,500 pulled out and tried to force the balance. After three days, a court injunction, police and a driving rain, International officers finally got them back at work. Tactics like these hurt the whole labor movement. Throughout history, militant minorities have wreaked havoc on many occasions.

★ ★ ★

The main concern of the strikers now is whether they'll get their jobs back. If they don't, the reason won't be a deep seated mystery.

on acreage on the place known as the Jack Williams farm at 985 Baldwin Road. It is expected that this first crop will produce over 17,000 heads of lettuce.

While the season has not been very favorable for raising lettuce, it is expected that the first crop will be ready for harvest within a few days. Then another crop of lettuce will be raised this summer on the same ground.

This is low muck ground that had been broken up by Williams and on which he raised potatoes for a number of years. It is supplied by an irrigation system, getting the water from a nearby lake, and hence is not dependent on natural rainfall.

Mr. Hayashi came here from Imlay City a few months ago, where muck farming has been extended to several thousand acres. He feels that the Pontiac area, with its numerous lakes, many of which are surrounded by undeveloped muck land, offers exceptional opportunities for this new branch of agriculture in raising lettuce, celery, onions, cabbage and other crops that thrive on that kind of soil.

Explorer III Performance Pleases Military

Army 'Moon's' Life to End Today

By JACK STILLMAN

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — Explorer III is due to expire today. The Army said it has performed above and beyond expectations.

Some time late today the 31-pound, 80-inch tube will descend into the earth's atmosphere and disintegrate. It will burn in the intense heat caused by friction, for it was not designed to take such punishment.

The satellite, launched March 26 at Cape Canaveral, Fla., transmitted more complete information on cosmic rays than was thought possible, the Army said.

One reason was because of its highly elliptical orbit. Its farthest point from earth was 1,700 miles. Its closest point was 117 miles in its early stages.

As time wore on, it was drawn closer to the earth's atmosphere. Army scientists estimated the atmospheric drag would finally cause its destruction late today. It will have traveled more than 32 million miles.

When and where this destruction will come is not known. The Army's third satellite was launched into such a wobbly and off-center orbit that it nearly brushed the atmosphere at its perigee, or closest point to earth.

Explorer I went into an orbit of approximately 1,500 miles at its farthest point, and more than 200 miles at its closest point to earth. The Army says it is expected to circle the earth for seven years.

Explorer II ended in a blazing, premature end when it fell back into the upper atmosphere.

Four separate signals were transmitted from Explorer III. They told scientists about the temperature and the frequency of meteorites and cosmic rays.

The satellite's batteries died two months ago, but the information transmitted was much more complete than that received from Explorer I.

The third satellite's high-powered transmitter could be triggered to transmit its information to the Smithsonian Observatory at Cambridge, Mass., at a given time.

The satellite stored up its information on 55 inches of magnetic tape as it completed its orbit, and relayed it to earth only when called upon to do so.

The Army says scientists now know that cosmic radiation at higher altitude is considerably more intense than had been anticipated.

Scientists also learned from the two Explorers that man can control the temperature of space vehicles to that easily acceptable for human survival.

And they know now that atmospheric density encountered by satellites is several times greater than had been predicted in pre-satellite calculations.

The Country Parson

"Some folks regard prayer as an umbrella to use only when it's raining—and have the same trouble finding it when they need it."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Homemade Remedy Serves to Clear Up Ear Infection

"For more than two years," a Muncie reader reports, "I had running ear and spent several hundred dollars with specialists to no avail.

DR. BRADY

"Then I tried to get the ear drops you recommend—10 grains of boric acid dissolved in one fluid ounce of pure grain alcohol — but every druggist I asked said I'd have to have a prescription for the alcohol. Finally I gave it up.

"Then you said in your column that if pure grain alcohol is not available, ordinary rubbing alcohol will do.

"I purchased a 4-oz. container of boric acid for 17 cents and a pint of rubbing alcohol for 19 cents, 36 cents in all. Made up the solution and began using it. In 10 days my ear stopped running and no sign of returning. I have enough left over to cure all the running ears in Indiana!

"May God bless you, may you live long to spread happiness and enjoy happiness on the bowling green . . ." (Signed)

We are indebted to an aurist (specialist in ear diseases) for the suggestion that rubbing alcohol, available everywhere without prescription, serves as well as pure grain alcohol, available only on prescription, for preparing the ear drops. For instructions for preparing and using the drops for long standing ear discharge, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

QUESTION BOX

Answer—People who say wine makes blood are trying to sell wine or justify the use of alcoholic beverages. Send 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope for booklet Blood and Health.

★ ★ ★

Answer—Yes.

"For two years I have been taking paregoric, at first in small doses for stomach cramps, but now three ounces a day. Is this harmful?" (W.R.)

Answer — Paregoric is camphorated tincture of opium. Each dram or teaspoonful contains a small dose of morphine. So you have the opium (laudanum) or morphine habit just as though you took your dope straight. You had better go under medical or hospital treatment without delay.

"I suffer from excessive dryness of the skin, with cracking and soreness . . ." (K. L. C.)

Answer — Send 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope for booklet Save Your Skin.

"In the —— —— Doctors' Building there is a new doctor who has painted under his name on the office door (you guessed it!) — General Practitioner." (Mrs. S. M.)

Answer — Thank you. I imagine the trick specialists and "clinic" racketeers are burned up about it.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Explains Fast Pulse During Fever

Martha wonders why fever speeds up our heart rate. She also asks about the wisdom of giving a sick boy soda pop when he will not drink plain water. So add this case record to yesterday's and keep them in your scrapbook. Your family doctor hasn't time to tutor all you patients individually, so take advantage of this educational "clinic" which your newspaper offers.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Y-347: Martha G., aged 29, is the mother of a 6-year-old.

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, I was so happy to hear you explain why fever is an aid to us during disease.

"I like your 'horse sense' manner of giving us the specific reasons to back up your explanation.

"So can you also tell us why a person's heart beats so much faster during a fever?"

HORSE SENSE

Modern physicians use a lot of "horse sense." And they could all explain these things, but it takes time to do so, and they can't afford to give all you patients a private tutoring.

★ ★ ★

If they took 30 minutes to give you the facts I outline in a week of these clinical case records, they'd be forced to bill you for almost an hour of office time.

That's why so many physicians nowadays prescribe the non-profit booklets which we offer via this scientific column.

For those booklets can show 1,000 patients these modern medical facts, yet the doctor doesn't have to charge 1,000 fees for an hour of his time per patient.

So be grateful that your newspaper offers adult Americans these late facts from the fields of psychology and medicine.

For they relieve abnormal tension and also help you cooperate more efficiently with your family physicians.

So the heart must drive your red blood cells through the lungs that much faster in order for them to pick up more loads of oxygen per minute.

With every degree of fever, your pulse rate may jump 8 to 10 beats.

Furthermore, your breathing rate usually speeds up, too, for your lungs require more new breaths of oxygen.

SODA POP?

"Dr. Crane, what about letting my little boy drink soda pop when he has a fever?" Martha then inquired.

Soda pop is often more attractive to a sick child than plain water, for it occurs in many colors, as grape, orange, strawberry, lime, etc.

Besides, it has "fizz" from the carbonated contents, and this gives it a "bite" that plain water lacks. When a sick child has a coated tongue, water tastes flat.

★ ★ ★

Soda pop is thus more stimulating to the tongue and hence more tempting. Besides, it contains some sugar which helps furnish energy so the body can help maintain its higher temperature.

But cola beverages contain caffeine, which is mildly stimulating to the nervous system and thus tends to speed up the heart slightly.

During severe illness, with a child's pulse already 110 or higher, we medics feel an artificial prod via caffeine is usually not wise.

★ ★ ★

Coffee and tea also contain caffeine, which is normally not harmful in moderate degree, but too much coffee or tea can also zoom the pulse rate. So use "horse sense."

FEVER'S CHEMICAL AID

Fever also aids the body in another way, for with increased temperature, many of our drugs (chemicals) work better.

When old, refractory cases of syphilis of the central nervous system showed no significant reaction to our usual drugs, producing an artificial fever of 105.8 degrees via heating pads, would then help the drugs attack the syphilis germs.

So fever, at least under 105, is a boon to our bodies during disease.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

Says His Attacker Proven Wrong by Other Letters

Well, I've been attacked again in the Voice of the People and told about my "confused set of values" and how I show my "deplorable ignorance" and that I "expose my personal disinterest in Pontiac children."

★ ★ ★

My set of values is not any more confused than the writer and judging from all his mistakes about teachers, they are not as much so. All his arguments about wages and vacations were shown to be wrong in Tuesday's paper.

★ ★ ★

Then he tries to prove that the teachers are really next to Jesus and should be paid accordingly and I would like to remind him that Jesus was a pauper and got hardly any pay at all and does he want the teachers to have the same?

★ ★ ★

He says I have no interest in Pontiac children and what right has he to insult anyone when he does not know the facts? I will tell him I have three children and how many has he? He says the teachers can make pupils what they want them to be and if that is so, there must be a whole lot of very low grade teachers in the country, as there are so many juvenile delinquents and that would show the teachers are not even trying. At least that's what the man says. This is the last letter I'll write.

Very Small but Very Hardput Taxpayer

'What Difference Does It Make?'

What difference if beer sales in Pontiac are held up until 2 p. m. or banned completely on Sunday? Is anyone converted from beer guzzling to church attendance? But the owners of saloons located in the 300 yard fringe outside Pontiac are happy.

★ ★ ★

The City Commission didn't give the 55 licensed Pontiac bar owners, Christians in their own right, consideration they're entitled to as substantial taxpayers. Are the anti-saloon league, the prohibition party, the WCTU and fellow travelers satisfied? Absolutely not.

★ ★ ★

Are Pontiac citizens more upright and higher morally? Are they more law abiding? Are they safer or better drivers? Are they kinder to their children? I doubt it. Live and let live, practice Christian tenets in the broader sense and keep these fanatical minority groups out of the law-making chambers. Let my beer drinking brothers remember the vote of Miles, Henry and that other fellow. I'm going out for a beer right now.

'Honor for Killing Inconceivable'

It is indeed regrettable that a man can value money in his cash register more than he does a human life, whether it be that of a hardened criminal or some misfortunate individual who may need mental or spiritual guidance.

It's more regrettable that the press and law enforcement agencies find cause to praise and honor such a man. This, in a state where people will not permit the death penalty for crimes of much greater proportion, is indeed inconsistent, and honoring this man twice is inconceivable.

Concerned With Man's Regard for Man

'Let Me Join Everyone Else'

Since everyone knows how to run the Tigers, may I announce I do too? I would do three things quickly.

The Tigers haven't had a first baseman for two years and I'd put Hoeft there.

'Some Sprays Kill Birds and Fish'

For those interested in having aerial spraying done for mosquitoes, I'd like to pass along this information.

★ ★ ★

We had to shovel dead fish off our beach after it was done at our lake. Some of the sprays also kill birds, and it's especially bad at this time, for there are still baby birds in the nest that haven't a chance, even though the mother bird may escape.

★ ★ ★

We've decided to let Nature take its course. When mosquitoes get too bad, we just go inside. After the long winter it's so wonderful to hear birds again, and now they want to kill them or drive them away in the summer.

Agrees With Letter About Graduation

How true the article was about the graduation. It's true there was an honor assembly held. And there were people from 48 states and Canada there. But I had a son graduate and all they did was call off his name, and he certainly was active in his four years of high school. That's true of most of the class.

Justices Meetings Privately Today

Little Rock Segregation Up to Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court meets today and may decide whether to take up the question of segregation at Little Rock's Central High School.

The nine justices will meet privately in what was to be the term's last weekly conference to vote on argued cases and to accept or reject petitions for review. It had expected to adjourn Monday.

Now it has been asked by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) to either prolong it term or hold a special session soon to take up the segregation issue at Central High.

The NAACP wants the court to reverse an order issued by Federal District Judge Harry J. Lemley in Little Rock last Saturday granting the Little Rock School Board a 2½ year delay in integration. Under Lemley's ruling the seven Negro children who expected to return to Central next September would not be able to do so.

An appeal of the Lemley order has already been taken to the Eighth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis, which would normally rule on the case some time next fall. But the NAACP said the issue i so important the Supreme Court should bypass the Circuit Court and assume jurisdiction at once.

The petition said Lemley's reasoning only encourages "lawless elements" who oppose the high court's integration decree and frustrates those "seeking compliance in a lawful manner."

It was pointed out here the high court could not be expected to act without hearing both sides. If it is willing to tackle the issue, a first step could be instructions to the Little Rock School Board to file an answer to the NAACP by a certain date.

October 9 is the date annually designated in the Dominion of Canada to observe its Thanksgiving day.

In its 1959-1960 program UNESCO will concentrate on the fields of illiteracy, scientific research for the reclamation of desert land, and East-West cultural understanding.

Some pasture soils are generally poorer because they are too acid for the best growth of pasture legumes or the better pasture grasses. Their improvement usually requires lime.

Agency Tells Stage Aspirants the Facts

BY PHYLLIS BATELLE

NEW YORK—Sometimes, as one surveys the thousands of youthful, hopeful destitutes along Broadway, it seems that every kid from the outlands who could sing in a choir, or could hold his own in a high school play, has hitched his way to New York.

They had their reasons, you know.

His mother thought his singing was divine. Her sweetheart kept saying how she was a real gorgeous doll.

Their elocution teachers—bless their dear old prejudiced hearts—claimed they were the greatest things since Jackie Coogan and Baby Rose Marie.

So into the Great White Way melee they come. Dreamers, wishful thinkers all, open for bilking by the phony agents, milking by the unscrupulous "coaches."

It's not like it was back home. To get flattered and keep your hope up in New York, it costs money.

An experienced choreographer, director and writer named Ted Adair decided a long time ago that something should be done. As far back as 1947 he was making the rounds of his friends and putting it to them:

"Don't you think there should be a sure, scientific way of judging whether a person has a real aptitude for the arts?

"There are vocational tests for all the other fields and professions. Are singing, dancing, acting, writing and painting such nebulous talents that they can't be analyzed?"

Ten years later (last fall), backed by a staff of TV, Broadway and Hollywood executives, plus a number of psychological consultants, Adair opened up the first service of its kind anywhere: the "Bureau of Artistic Aptitude Testing."

Here, on West 46th Street in New York, anyone with $45 and a real desire to hear the truth about his potential in any field of the arts, can take a six-to eight-hour test and learn the brutal—or encouraging—facts.

Adair visited our office today. He showed page after page of a written test, which is the first step in determining one's artistic interests and aptitudes, in discovering the testee's intellectual and personality functionings.

The results are there-to four-page analyses which tell frankly whether the aspirant is capable of making a successful go at the art form he is pursuing—or hopes to pursue.

They appeared to us to be almost cruelly honest. Adair says they are only completely realistic:

"Most people who want to enter the performing fields do not care at all about money, but they want acclaim. And they want it in a hurry. Our test offers no shilly-shallying and no short-cuts.

"We think the test is good enough to predict what field a person is suited for. And how long it might reasonably take him to be good enough in that field to receive the success he wants right now.

"Since everyone who comes to us obviously has an intense interest in the arts, which is a big step toward fitness for any job, there are only about 27 per cent who must be told they have no talent for any form.

"But a surprising number who come in, hoping they are actors, go away knowing they are more suited to an executive or a stage manager's job."

Unlike the folks back home, Adair's test does not necessarily make a kid feel good.

"Your best friend isn't going to tell you you're a bust. Neither is your mother," says Adair. "Somebody's got to be the heavy."

Fourth of July Slaughter Not a Hopeless Situation

CHICAGO (UPI) — The National Safety Council, with its eye on the approaching long Fourth of July weekend, today revealed that 2,851 Americans died during the past five years in Independence Day accidents.

Highway accidents claimed 1,579 of the victims, and another 853 drowned.

But the council said the situation isn't hopeless. It pointed out that fireworks killed only seven—a far cry from the 1903 toll of 466 dead.

"The striking reduction in fireworks deaths proves accidents can be prevented once the nation understands and wants to do something about the problem," Ned H. Dearborn, council president, said.

"Spectacular reductions in the traffic toll could also be made if the people were equally aroused," he stated.

A council analysis showed that speed and drinking were the two major highway killers over the past five years.

Half the drivers in fatal accidents had been drinking, the council said, with the social drinker a greater menace than commonly believed.

SHOULD HAVE WAITED

The analysis showed that had the two-cocktail man waited three hours before driving, many deaths could have been prevented.

★ ★ ★

With 45 million vehicles jamming the nation's highways during the coming holiday, the council issued five driving tips to cut the feared traffic slaughter:

1. DON'T DRIVE AFTER DRINKING—EVEN TWO COCKTAILS.
2. CUT YOUR USUAL CRUISING SPEED 10 MILES AN HOUR, ESPECIALLY AT NIGHT.
3. DOUBLE CHECK BEFORE PASSING OR CHANGING LANES.
4. DON'T FOLLOW THE CAR AHEAD TOO CLOSELY.
5. DON'T COMPETE IN TRAFFIC. LET THE OTHER DRIVER GO FIRST.

French Star Wants Her American Son

PARIS (AP)—French film star Michele Morgan today filed suit in a Paris court for custody of her 13-year-old American son. The boy, Michael, is in California with his father, producer William Marshall.

Because of Marshall's absence and the fact he has not appointed an attorney to represent him, court sources said the hearing would probably be delayed.

Miss Morgan and Marshall were divorced in 1949. He received legal custody of the child but, by agreement between the two, Miss Morgan raised him.

Miss Morgan said she instituted her suit because she wanted legal sanction for the actual state of affairs.

The film actress is now married to French screen heart-throb Henri Vidal. Marshall has been married to movie star Micheline Presle and divorced from her.

2 Widows to Receive $45,000 Settlements

BAY CITY (AP) — U.S. District Judge Arthur F. Lederle has approved a $45,000 settlement for each of two women whose husbands were killed in a highway collision with a Dow Chemical Co. truck near Atlanta, Mich., last Jan. 7.

The widows are Mrs. Donna Edwards, 27, and Mrs. Virginia van Sickle, 27, both of Montmorency County. They had asked $226,000 each from Dow in their damage suits. Their husbands were Donald Edwards, 36, and Andrew van Sickle, 34.

Judges Balk at Signing Warrants for Holders of Overdue Tags

Police, Court Feud Over Parking Tickets

By HAROLD S. COHEN

A dispute between the Pontiac Municipal Court and the police department is holding up the signing of more than 400 warrants for persons who have overdue parking tickets.

The judges are refusing to sign the warrants sought by the police as a protest against what they term "arbitrary enforcement."

CHALLENGE AUTHORITY

The judges object on several grounds. They challenge the authority of the police department to levy penalties against parking violators who ignore tickets.

They also feel that the current business and employment situation is not the time to collect fixed $8 charges for overdue $1 parking tags.

Police Chief Herbert W. Straley comments that the fine and penalties are set by the City Commission and that his men have no choice but to enforce the law.

SET CHARGES

The commission, by resolution back in 1952, set the charge of $2 for mailing a warning letter to holders of overdue tickets and $5 additional if a warrant must be issued.

The judges question whether the commission intended to apply these penalties to parking tickets and other minor violations.

The judges have long challenged the right of the police to run a violations bureau, contending that this is a court function. They point out that the police ticket offenders, accept their pleas of guilty and collect the fines, all without judicial process.

Chief Straley said that he thinks the persons who pay at the violations bureau are merely posting bond which they later forfeit when they fail to show up in court.

The judges insist, however, that the money collected never reaches the court which is the only body under law which can set bonds.

The judges also maintain that under law persons arrested by warrant must be brought to court and cannot settle up at the violations bureau.

These legal questions have stalled the police drive to clean up delinquent tickets and the matter appears deadlocked.

However, the City Commission plans to discuss soon the transfer of the violations bureau to the court's jurisdiction as recommended by the study report of the police department recently conducted by the Public Administration Service, of Chicago.

Even If They Seem Out of Order

Obey Traffic Signals

A warning to motorists not to ignore traffic signal lights even when they seem out of order was issued today by Charles Zamek, member of the Fire Safety Committee of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce.

Zamek pointed out that when a fire engine is dispatched, the central fire department headquarters has a system whereby they can give the engine the green light all the way to the fire.

This system also blocks off by means of red lights all cross traffic along the route, he said. It is often necessary to block traffic a few blocks away from the actual route of the engine to avoid congestion on some streets, he added.

"Sometimes drivers seeing a red light showing on three sides of a signal, assume it is out of order and continue driving," Zamek said. "This could lead to an accident."

"A sure sign the fire system is controlling the traffic lights is when the neon pedestrian "walk" sign goes dead and the signal lights show red," he said.

"Technical, Logistic Triumph' Takes 4 Years to Develop

SAGE Air Warning Network Operation Under Way

MCGUIRE AIR FORCE BASE, N.J. (AP)—SAGE—the vast and complex electronic air warning network called Semi-Automatic Ground Environment — formally went into operation today.

Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, Air Force vice chief of staff, declared that for the United States to have designed, produced and installed such a mechanical marvel in four years was "a real technical and logistic triumph."

LeMay described the inauguration of SAGE as "the largest single step taken toward the improvement of air defense capabilities in the past 10 years."

Several hundred military dignitaries and representatives of many firms that helped build the huge system attended ceremonies dedicating this first operational SAGE center. The various centers to be built will be controlled from North American Air Defense Command headquarters at Colorado Springs, Colo.

At the dedication ceremony, the Air Force gave for the first time the details of the high powered radar system and associated computer equipment that helps screen North America from air attack. They include:

1. Heavy, long-range radar units, with radomes 50 feet in diameter and weighing 2,300 pounds mounted on steel platforms more than 100 miles at sea and on strategically located ground sites, capable of detecting aircraft hundreds of miles away.

2. Medium powered gap-filler radar to plug the holes between the coverage of the long-range units. These sets automatically transmit information by telephone lines to the prime stations, where a special television converter displays the combined data.

3. At the center itself, the largest electronic computers in the world—each occupying about two acres—to receive the information from the radar installations and to monitor the positions of airplanes and defense weapons.

LeMay said SAGE cannot track ballistic weapons, capable of flying many times the speed of sound, or control attacks against them. "As yet there is no defense against such weapons," he said.

But he said the greatest threat for the next few years comes from manned jet bombers and air breathing missiles — and SAGE provides improved defense capability against such weapons.

Model Bank Robbed

DETROIT (AP)— Bandits have broken into a model of Detroit's first financial institution housed in the basement of the Detroit Historical Museum and made off with $60 in rare coins. Museum authorities said the face value of the coins was $60, but that their market value would be more because of their age.

Sells City Block to City

MANISTIQUE (AP) — Mrs. Laura Martin is selling to the city one block of Iron street which she mistakenly purchased in a state tax sale in 1944. The price is $150—the amount for which the land is assessed.

Waterford Voters Must Be Registered by July 7

Many Waterford Township residents will be denied the right to vote in the August 5 primary unless they register before the July 7 deadline, according to clerk James Seeterlin.

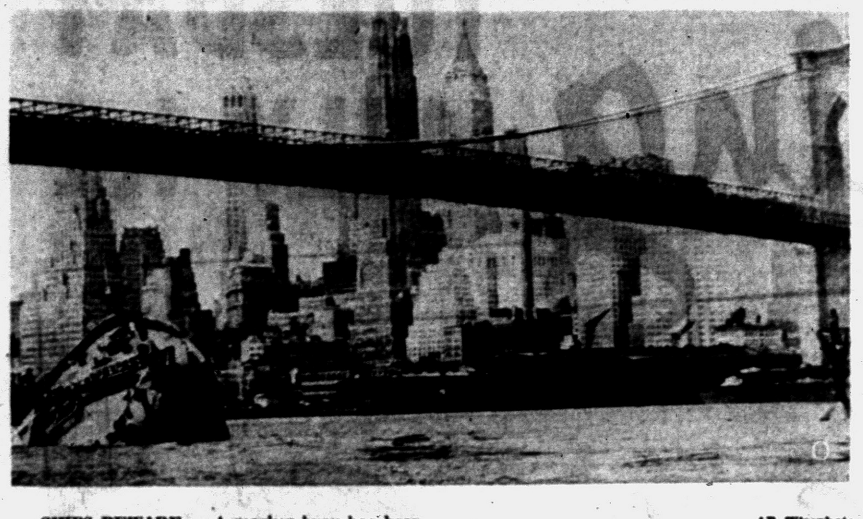
Leaving Show World

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Entertainer Joan Kayne is leaving show business in favor of marriage. The 29-year-old dancer-actress said she will wed Sidney Fields, 43, personal manager of night club owner Ben Blue, Sunday afternoon. She was Miss New York of 1953.



SHIPS BEWARE — A marker buoy has been placed near the sunken tanker Empress Bay in New York's East River to warn other vessels of the wreck's location. Traffic in the river has been restored to normal operation. The tanker was rammed shortly after midnight Wednesday by the freighter Nebraska. NEW TRUE CONFESSIONS

By Orchard Furniture Co.

Believe It or Not . . . We've Made Plenty of Mistakes

in the time we have been in the furniture business but our biggest mistake was last April in thinking that business would start to pick up. We were way off! Now you can take advantage of our mistakes and buy furniture at wholesale, some below wholesale and some slightly above. If you're hard to please and think that all "SALES" are phoney (some are) then our low prices will convince you that this is the real thing. Check 'em yourself.

WE TOLD YOU ABOUT SOME LAST WEEK—HERE ARE SOME WE DIDN'T HAVE ROOM FOR:

For the Bedroom

If Dillinger Were Living

This would make him happy, because it's a steal. Double dresser, chest and bookcase bed. Reg. 179.95—Now 89.95.

Elbow Grease Special

Charcoal Broiled Bedroom Suites

They're really not broiled, but they are charcoal. Double dresser, chest and bookcase bed. Were 379.95 Now 159.95.

We Can't Give You SOMETHING for NOTHING

But we can give you some terrific buys. Beautiful bedroom sets with large double dresser, chest and book-case bed. Made to sell from 459.95 to 595.00. Now 188.88 to 228.88.

For the Bedroom

For the All American Boy

THIS IS NO BUNK

Did You Ever See a Box Spring?

We Don't Have a WALL STRETCHER

So all bedroom sets reduced to new low, low prices. If we don't sell some of these we'll have to rent another warehouse.

Bob Considing Says:

It Finally Happened--a Fight in Switzerland

GENEVA — In one of his motion pictures, Orson Welles once said of the Swiss, "Five hundred years of peace, and what have they produced but the yodel and the cuckoo clock?"

Well, now they've produced a fight. I saw it with my own eyes at the Geneva Yacht Club last Sunday. It was a howl.

There was this distinguished-looking Swiss, hatless and dressed in a light Italian silk sports jacket, a rubber-tipped steel rod protruding from the cuff of one empty trouser leg. He walked with great dignity on two metal hand crutches. He was drunk, but drunk in a faintly aloof way in which one would imagine that Hathaway, the cyclopic shirt salesman, might become.

We watched him idly as he nimbly made his way to a princely speedboat and lowered himself into the seat. Very casually he turned the ignition key and stepped on the gas. The motor let out a deep-voiced roar and the beautiful craft shot forward like a great clean porpoise.

It was the last, short voyage of the costly craft. The speedboat traveled about two yards and cracked in its entire front in a startling collision with the stone pier to which it was tied. Our man, not the least ruffled, put her in reverse and shot backyard at a blurring speed; pulled the anchoring rope out by its bleeding roots and barely avoiding a floating gasoline service station.

MOTOR STOPS

Then the motor in the terribly wounded craft stopped and all was still at the yacht club. The people just stared aghast. Our man sat calmly at his wheel, like a fine statue.

Then all over that part of Switzerland sounded a scream something akin to that which a stabbed horse might emit. It came from the throat of a man who had been having lunch on the quay and had been among those rendered speechless by the odd events.

"That's MY boat!" the guy yelled. He is an American who has a reputation for playfully swamping the placid sailboats on Lake Geneva. "My boat!" he repeated. "Who is that crazy man? I never saw him before.: "Police!" He grabbed hysterically at a waitress. "Police. Call the Police — toot sweet!"

TOWED IN

Hathaway, if that was his name, was being towed in to shore, a remarkably unperturbed figure seated in the midst of considerable mahogany kindling. The American was there to meet him, with an oar. He swung like a frantic pinch hitter, missed Hathaway's coolly disdainful head, and fell in the water on the follow through.

Two Swiss bystanders got in a fight, by spontaneous combustion, and they, too, fell in. The waters of a place that might one day hold the summit conference — the conference that will end not only all wars but also all summits — churned with angry men.

Our man walked ashore on his metal sticks, came into the dining room which had commanded a clear view of the strange brawl, and inquired the way to the gentleman's room. Naturally, hostilities were broken off. He walked and crutched steadily toward the room in question, but then picked up speed, went out a side door, hopped in his car and was gone.

LAW ARRIVES

Five minutes later the Swiss cops arrived and questioned everybody in triplicate. They and the speedboat owner set off in a chase. When they were out of sight, Hathaway appeared again, took a seat on a bench and said, with a wave of the hand, that he was prepared to pay for the speedboat. He looked like he could do it, too. Then, after waiting half an hour, he grew impatient, got up and started out of the club.

Somebody had locked the gate in the four-foot wall leading to the street, apparently to keep him in. He easily vaulted it on his one leg, stepped in his car and was gone. Five minutes later the cops and the fuming owner roared back on the scene. More questioning in triplicate, and away they went again.

We had to leave for Paris, so will never know how it turned out. But it was a wonderfully confusing Sunday, componded later—while in the air—when the pilot of our plane cheerfully sang out, "We will arrive at Orly Field, Paris, in thirty minutes. The weather in Paris is fine, except that there is an overcast and it is raining."

Two Blindmen and Dogs Hitchhiking 750 Miles

ATLANTA (AP) — Two blind men and their Seeing-Eye dogs are hitchhiking their way north toward Boston today to demonstrate that blind persons can do most things as well as those with sight.

★ ★ ★

That's the intention of Bob Lambert, 25, a University of Chicago student, and Bill Scrimgeour, 50, a worker in a factory for the blind at Miami, Fla.

★ ★ ★

They expect to reach Boston in time to attend the convention of the National Federation of the Blind starting July 4.

The two left Miami Saturday and hitched 10 rides while traveling the 750 miles to Atlanta.

Disappearing Bride to Wed Man She Left

NEW YORK (AP) — Irene Arzedi, who disappeared on her wedding day last February, took a new marriage license yesterday with the same fellow she left waiting at the church. Wedding plans were not disclosed.

Miss Arzedi, 29, disappeared Feb. 22 just five hours before her wedding to Joseph Pinto, 31, was to take place. She showed up eight days later, declaring she had become frightened and had taken a transcontinental bus trip to Los Angeles.

Hal Boyle Says:

Funny Man Believes Our Humor Improving

NEW YORK (AP) — "When times are tough in this country, people learn to laugh at themselves," said Johnny Carson.

An improvement in the national sense of humor, he feels, may be one of the few welcome by-products of the current recession—or is it already past

Like most professional comedians, and historians, Carson believes individuals and nations tend to become stuffy and a bit pompous during prosperity.

"When people take themselves too seriously, it's hard to kid them," he said. "You run into taboos.

"If you put a Will Rogers on television today, it would be hard for him to get by. He joked about too many things that were political and controversial. He'd find restrictions put on him."

Johnny is in the front rank of a new crop of young comics springboarded to national attention by TV. His trigger-fast mastery of light patter made him something of a comedian's comedian before he caught on with the public.

As breezy as his native Midwest, Carson was born in Corning, Iowa, brought up in Norfolk, Neb. As did most Midwest kids of his day, he answered correspondence ads on how to learn to be a magician and ventriloquist by mail.

★ ★ ★

The difference is that Johnny actually did become a magician and ventriloquist—but wound up a career funny man.

Here is his theory of why anyone ever became a comedian:

"Somewhere along the way he did something different, and somebody laughed. Then he learned that he could defend himself in a situation by being funny—instead of having to fight his way out. Once he discovered this, he knew what his life work had to be."

★ ★ ★

After a number of years in radio, Johnny went to the West Coast and wrote comedy material for Red Skelton. He got his first big network break when he substituted for Skelton after the latter injured himself during a rehearsal scene.

Since then Carson has had a couple of network shows of his own, starred in night clubs and a Broadway production. His next goal: Movies.

"This business is so tough," he remarked, "you have to admire anybody who can survive in it."

His own favorites are Jack Benny, W. C. Fields, Laurel and Hardy, and Sid Caesar.

"It seems t o me we're in a new generation of humor. Jack Benny, George Burns, Jimmy Durante—they all had tough backgrounds. They had to fight their way up.

"But now a newer generation is coming along that didn't have to fight so hard. Their humor, by an d l arge, is gentler. They have an intimacy that fits television.

"It does no good to tell your personal problems to your audience. They have their own worries. A guy making $90 a week isn't going to flood his living room with tears over the comedian's problems. He knows the comedian gets well paid for his sorrows."

Study What Draws State Park Users

LANSING (AP)—State and Detroit area agencies will cooperate this summer in a project to learn more about park users and what attracts them.

Three state parks and five in the Detroit metropolitan area have been selected for the survey, which will take the form of a questionnaire sampling of patrons on four predetermined dates in July and August.

About 13,000 persons will be questioned during visits to Sterling-Monroe, Dodge 4 and Ortonville state parks and recreation areas; Belle Isle, Rouge Park, Middle Rouge Parkway, Kensington Metropolitan Park and St. Clair Metropolitan Beach.

Cooperating in the venture are the State Conservation Department, Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, Wayne County Road Commission and the Detroit Department of Parks and Recreation.

Gabbing at 2 Usually Means Top Intelligence

EAST LANSING (AP) — Talkativeness in a two-year-old generally is a sign of superior intelligence, says a Michigan State University psychologist.

Elizabeth M. Drews, who has studied the exceptional child, said there is no sure scientific way to measure these things, but there are several broad indicators.

"The child who likes to talk or sing, speaks in sentences at the age of two, is adept at physical and motor activities at an early age, is intensely curious, can carry out directions to do a series of things—any or all of these may indicate superior ability," she said.

The I. Q. test as a measuring stick ordinarily has much value before the age of six, she said.

Find Beautiful Specimen

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — Mr. and Mrs. Porter D. Stewart called in a neighbor when a dark-green plant in their garden refused to bloom. The neighbor surprisingly suggested they call the police. Detectives said the six-foot plant was one of the largest marijuana specimens they had ever run across.

Business Must Be Done!

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: The office in which I work happens to be a small one. Visitors to the office are received quite close to my desk. I usually am typewriting when such visitors and salesmen come in.

"Can you tell me, please, if it is rude for me to continue typewriting while people are trying to talk above the noise of my machine or would the proper thing be for me to stop my work and wait until the person or persons leave?"

Answer: If everyone were to stop typewriting each time a stranger entered a busy office, the business might as well close! If your work at the moment is light, you might stop for a few moments for a probable customer. But if you are pressed with work, you should not let anything interrupt it.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I was engaged for a year and then broke that engagement. Now, eight months later, I am marrying another girl. I should like to know whether my ex-fiancee and members of her family should receive announcements of my marriage?"

Answer: Ordinarily the answer is "no." But if you have remained on friendly terms — both with her and her family— then there is no reason why you should not send them announcements. You, far better than I, can be judge of this.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When coffee is served in a small pot, should the man pour the coffee for his guest or should the woman pour it, or do they each pour their own? If she pours it, does she fill his cup first or her own?"

Answer: When the man is the host he pours, filling her cup first; if she is the hostess, she fills his cup before her own.

Why Grow Old

Shape of Hair Most Important

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Q. "My face is round and I wear my hair long. I have one feature problem. My nose is too large. Some people say that I would look better with short hair, but you have written that short hair is not becoming if one has a nose too large. What shall I do?"

A. It is not so much a question of length of hair as it is of shape. Very short hair is unflattering to a woman with either a round face or a large nose. The important thing is to have some fullness above the ears. Wear your hair high on top, fairly close at the temples and let it cover the ears softly and extend only a little below them.

Q. "I am 14 years old, 5 feet, 3½ inches tall. I weigh 105 pounds. Am I underweight?"

A. Yes. You should weigh about 114 pounds.

DEPENDS ON FRAME

Q. "I am 20 years old, 5 feet 6 inches tall and weigh 146 pounds. My bust measures 37, waist 27 and hips 37½ inches. I am often teased about being fat. What do you think and what sort of a diet should I use?"

A. Unless you have a large frame, you are a lot overweight. If you have a medium frame, only about six pounds overweight and if your bony structure is large and heavy, you are not overweight. My guess is that you would look better with a small loss.

If you or any of my readers would like to have my short reducing diet, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for my 9-Day Diet booklet. Address me in care of this newspaper.

Q. "I am 14 years old, 5 feet 1½ inches tall and weigh 99 pounds. My bust measures 33½, waist 24 and hips 38 inches. My friends make fun of me. Am I overweight?"

A. You are not overweight but, if anything, on the low side. However, your hips are out of proportion. I prescribe hip-slimming exercises.

Q. "I am very youthful looking except for lines under my eyes. I have very dry skin and use an oily cream daily. What can I do to keep these from increasing?"

A. Pat an eye cream under the eyes every night before going to sleep. You might use one of the hormone creams.

It's Frayed Because It's Loved—Abby

Ragged Doll Is Precious

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We plan to take our 11-year-old daughter on a trip this summer. She still sleeps with a very ragged, ugly and faded doll she's had since she was in the cradle. I've tried to break her of this habit, but she has rescued it from the trash can a hundred times.

ABBY

"She insists on taking this ragged doll on the trip and I am afraid she will be laughed at by our relatives whom we are visiting. In the first place, she's too old for a doll and in the second place, this one is in disgraceful condition. What is your opinion?"

EMBARRASSED

DEAR EMBARRASSED: If your daughter loves the ragged doll, let her take it no matter how faded and tattered it is. As long as she WANTS it—she NEEDS it, and you have no reason to be embarrassed. Older girls (and some boys) sleep with dolls.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: I used to like a boy and he likes me. I don't like him any more, I like my girl friend's boy friend better, and he likes me better than he likes his girl friend. My girl friend still likes her boy friend. I don't want to hurt my old boy friend and I don't want to lose my girl friend, but how can I get my girl friend's boy friend without hurting anybody's feelings?" JULIE

DEAR JULIE: A girl can't help it if her girl friend's boy friend likes her better than he does his girl friend. Be sure to let HIM do all the chasing and you'll have no apologies to make.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: Tell the lady whose husband didn't like her pies, I'd be happy to change places with her. My husband LOVES my pies, but he doesn't care for ME. After 24 years of being a devoted wife and mother he tells me he doesn't care for the refined lady-like type. He likes the well-built cheap kind better. Is it my fault that my mother brought me up to be a lady? What have they got that I haven't got?" TOO LADY-LIKE

DEAR LADY: They haven't got anything you haven't got. Only it's distributed differently. YOUR kind is for marrying—the other kind is for looking.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: I feel so sorry for my husband that I could just die. He is wonderful in every way but his folks have never forgiven him for marrying me (he gave up his religion) and they treat us like dogs. He cries to me and it kills me to see a man cry. We have been married for two years and his folks have never come to see us. He wants to make up because he heard his mother is very sick. Can you advise me?"

TREATED LIKE DOGS

DEAR T. L. D.: Encourage your husband to go to see his parents. If they still refuse to accept him—well, at least he tried.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: A lady wrote your column saying an elderly gentleman who plays cards at the Elks Club takes her to a movie and buys HIMSELF a ticket and tries to slip her through without paying. Well, I am that man and I want to set the facts straight. I buy HER a ticket and walk in without buying a ticket for myself because the manager of the theater is a friend of mine. Thank you."

NO CHEAPSKATE

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: Sure roared over that sappy lady who got mad because her husband called her "Babe" and "Doll." She should hear what MY husband calls me sometimes."

State of Alaska Opposition Less

Threat of Filibuster Dissipating as Senate Debate Slows Down

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Southern opposition to the Alaska Statehood Bill appeared to be diminishing somewhat today.

As the Senate went into its fourth day of debate on the vigorously contested measure, several senators still were expected to speak at length but any threat of a "filibuster" paparently had dissipated.

In addition, if the opponents had any plot to quickly kill the bill there were no visible signs of it.

Sen. Strom Thurmond (D-SC), one of the Senate's most durable orators, took to the floor last night and started what had been expected to be a marathon speech aginst the statehood issue.

But after only two hours and 10 minutes, Thurmond quit talking. He was persuaded to do so by Sen. Mike Mansfield (Mont.), the acting Senate Democratic leader.

All three denied there was any "deal" involved in Thurmond's decision to stop early. Thurmond said he still planned to speak further on the bill and Sen. George Malone (R-Nev) was reported standing by with a 12-hour opposition speech.

Both Thurmond and Eastland, although insisting they had "no intention" of staging a filibuster, said they would continue to resist efforts to limit debate.

Mansfield said he hoped the Senate would finally get around to voting today on three legal objections Eastland raised against the bill.

Davison Crash Kills 2; Slices Auto in Half

DAVISON (UPI) — A careening car was sliced in two and carried two men to their deaths last night on M15 three miles north of this Genesee County community.

Victims in the crash were Donald Badour, 22 Orlando, Fla., believed to have been the driver, and Lauren Monroe, 25, of Flint. Police said their car skidded, hit a tree sideways and was split in two. The front part — with both men inside — slid an additional 89 feet and smacked into a second tree.

'See You Tomorrow,' Newsmen Shouted. Now They're Dead

Last-Minute Plane Switch Saved Him

Sam Kuczun, manager of the United Press International Bureau at Springfield, Mass., dashed off a U. S. Air Force KC 135 strato-tanker today at Brize Norton Air Base in England and grabbed a phone to London. Only then did he learn that a sister ship had crashed on takeoff in Massachusetts, killing all aboard including old friends. It was the plane he originally was supposed to take. "My God," Kuczun said, and paused in silent shock. "How can a guy write a story when things fall in on you like that?" Kuczun caught his breath, regained his composure and then dictated the following dispatch.)

By SAM KUCZUN
United Press International

BRIZE NORTON, England (UPI) — There's little you can say when you come as close to death as I did this morning. I was supposed to be on the plane that crashed.

A last minute switch saved me. I was listed on strato-tanker "Cocoa" but instead I went on "Bravo," and was the only newsman on the plane.

"See you back here tomorrow," the other guys shouted when I climbed off the air base bus, alone. Now they're dead.

On the bus I had a seat next to Bob Sibley of the Boston Traveler.

"I'm getting too old for this sort of thing," I remember him saying.

Dan Coughlin of the Associated Press was telling how his wife had worried about the trip. "I had quite a time pacifying her," he said.

Now they're dead.

I think it was a peaceful death. Undoubtedly they never knew what was coming. This strato-tanker isn't like an airliner. There are no windows to look out, so you never know where you are. One instant they were alive and the next they were dead, and there was no way they could see it coming.

It's hard for me to recall how these giants take off, it was so uneventful. You climb into a compartment lined with padding like a quilt, with no windows except for two tiny ones at the rear.

The engines rev up — like a hurricane they rev up. You don't even know you're up in the air until a crewman comes down from the cockpit and says "okay to smoke now."

Golly, that shook me. We were sitting on top of thousands of gallons of aviation fuel, I assumed, but it didn't bother anybody. I looked at the fireproof lining on the walls, crossed my fingers and lit up.

For a while I had earphones tuned in on the intercom system, and I whiled away the time listening to the crew talking back and forth and communicating with the base back in Massachusetts.

Suddenly somebody turned off my earphones. I know now why — they had just heard about the crash. They didn't want to scare me.

And from then on everybody was awfully polite when they came back into the cabin.

Had I worried about flying around in one of those "flying gas stations?"

Yes, sir — right up until I met the crew. The pilot, Maj. Quenton Raaz, of San Antonio, Tex., has been flying for 14 years and everybody told me what a perfectionist he is.

★ ★ ★

They said he once chewed out an officer for four hours because of one mistake. That made me feel secure.

Then came the takeoff. You sit down, fasten a seat belt, and wonder what it will be like, taking off in one of these giants.

Without a window to see the runway, the engines, or the ground, it's like nothing. There is a lot of noise and then you are in the air.

Or, like Bill Cochran of the National Aeronautics Adminsitration, you're dead.

Bill would not have died except for a last minute hunch. He was supposed to go on one of the other planes but had a feeling that Cocoa was going to make the best time.

So Bill traded with another CAA observer, Kenneth Douglas, and died with the others on Cocoa, including Norman Montellier of United Press International. Ken rode with me and lived.

PATRICIA CHECK

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Check of Hales street, Madison Heights, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Patricia, to Francis Bettendorf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bettendorf, of Lloyd street, Royal Oak, formerly of Pontiac. An October wedding is being planned.

Four-in-One Shot Called Success

DETROIT (UP) — A four-in-one shot to protect children against polio, whooping cough, diphtheria and tetanus has been tested successfully in Detroit.

★ ★ ★

The vaccine, called quadrigen, was developed by Parke, Davis & Co. In a two-year research program reported today by the Journal of the American Medical Assn.

Tests on 224 Detroit children, 2½ months to 5 years old, showed better results than in the nationwide mass test of Salk vaccine, said Dr. I. W. McLean, assistant director of biological research for Parke, Davis.

The vaccine must be tested further and must be approved by the national institutes of health before it can be marketed.

★ ★ ★

An additional 400 children have been vaccinated in Detroit and clinical work has been started in several areas over the country, Parke, Davis said.

Sharp Battles Rage in Beirut

Moslem Holiday Sees Short Respite After Rebels Test Defenses

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Battles raged into the morning hours in Beirut and Tripoli today. With the sun there came a brief spell of Moslem holiday calm, then sporadic shooting broke out in the capital.

★ ★ ★

Noisy battles between government forces and rebels in the capital had shattered the darkness. For a time it appeared the expected all-out rebel offensive had begun, but more likely both sides were testing the other's night defenses.

The rebel leaders claim they have not gone all-out yet and say they will not give pro-Western President Camille Chamoun any warning when they do.

★ ★ ★

The nation remained tense and the U.S. Embassy warned Americans in Beirut to stay indoors today. This is the Moslem sabbath and a holiday celebrating the Mecca pilgrimage feast of Aid el Adha. The occasion might lead to emotional outbursts and Moslem-Christian clashes, the embassy said.

Avon to Launch Summer Program on Monday

AVON TOWNSHIP — The Avon Youth Service and Recreation Assn. summer program will get under way Monday, according to Douglas Stringer, director.

Most of the activities will take place in the Avon Township Park on Ludlow avenue.

The program will include swimming lessons for beginners at the Pontiac YMCA each Wednesday morning and a trip to Sunshine Beach each Tuesday morning for all swimmers. There will be Little League Baseball for boys 9 to 12 and a Babe Ruth League for those 13 to 16. Girls' softball will be played Friday mornings.

Other games will include baton twirling lessons, tennis, golf, arts and crafts, badminton, woodworking, ping pong, archery, horseshoes, and croquet.

Stringer suggested that parents accompany their children for registration which will begin at 10 a.m. Monday at Avon Park Pavilion. A $2 fee will be charged.

City Men Sentenced on Gambling Charges

Robert W. Walters, 38, of 484 Franklin Rd., pleaded guilty yesterday to operating and maintaining an illegal gambling place at his home.

He and five others were arrested in a vice squad raid Saturday. Walters was fined $25 or five days in jail by Judge Cecil B. McCallum.

Two of the five men charged with loitering pleaded guilty at their arraignment. The other three, Herman Simpson, 34, of 188 Crystal Lake Dr.; Robert F. Smith, 28, of 37 Orchard Lake Ave.; and Johnnie Shepard, 40, of 350 Branch St., changed their pleas to guilty this week.

All the loiterers were fined $10 or two days in jail.

Tourist Council OKs $261,500 Drive

TOPINABEE (AP)—A $261,500 advertising campaign for fiscal 1958-59 was approved by the Michigan Tourist Council.

Of the amount, $141,500 was allocated for direct advertising through newpapers, magazines and radio stations.

Another $120,000 was allotted on a matching basis to the state's four regional tourist associations.

Robert L. Wooley, council chairman, said special emphasis will be placed in the coming year on fall and winter travel promotion.

He said vacation information inquiries were on the upgrade.

"This mounting interest in Michigan's recreational travel offerings, coupled with a 19 per cent rise in state park visitors plus a fantastic jump of 77 per cent in campers, portends a good travel year—weather cooperating," he said.

At Auburn Homecoming Affair

Gov. Williams to Appear

AUBURN HEIGHTS —Governor Williams has announced that he will make a personal appearance at Auburn Heights first Homecoming Celebration, July 4, sponsored by the Auburn Heights Civic Organization.

★ ★ ★

LeRoy Davis, Pontiac Township supervisor, will meet the governor and present him to the people at 2:40 p.m. at the Auburn Heights Elementary School on Squirrel road.

Paul Elwell, general chairman, has announced other activities will include a noon and 9 p.m. display of fireworks at the field on Squirrel road across from the school.

There will be a keel boat race on the Clinton River, a tug-of-war between the Auburn Heights and Pontiac Township firemen; a skeet shoot at the Auburn Heights Sportsmen Club, ballgames, pony and hay rides.

Refreshments will be available.

State Winning Fight Over Cattle Disease

LANSING (AP)—Michigan will pass a milestone Monday in a campaign to eradicate undulant fever in humans, and its cause—brucellosis in cattle.

On that day, the state formally will be recognized by the U.S. Agriculture Dept. as a modified certified brucellosis-free state.

Brucellosis is a widespread and contagious disease of livestock which has no known cure.

The federal certification will mean that, along with 12 other states, Michigan's stock herds have reached the point where only five per cent react to brucellosis tests, and less than one per cent of cattle react.

Recognition culminates a 21-year battle against the disease in the state. Director George S. McIntyre of the State Agriculture Dept. said complete eradication by 1960 will be the new goal.

★ ★ ★

In the last three years of the campaign, nearly five million head of cattle have been tested.

"Undulant fever incidence in the state has dropped steadily for four years, with only 16 cases reported last year.

Only 11 years ago, in 1947, 302 cases of the infection were reported to state health authorities.

Farm residents are most vulnerable to the disease.

About 30 persons, including several county officials, were on hand for the initial meeting Tuesday.

Too Much Fuss Over Bridge, Says Widow

MACKINAC BRIDGE (UPI)—A 93-year-old widow who used to sail a raft across the Mackinac Straits thinks everybody is making too much fuss about the dedication of the Mackinac Bridge.

"All this excitement is a lot of bosh," said Mrs. Louis Goudreau. "It's only a bridge. But maybe I shouldn't say I never liked the idea of the bridge.

"My husband sailed the straits for 55 years. We didn't need a bridge then.

"When you have a bridge you don't need ferries. I didn't like to see the ferries go.

"I watched them sink my husband's last ship (the steamer Elva) out in the Straits a few years ago. It was a sad thing and this (the bridge) is a sad thing, too."

★ ★ ★

The pipe-smoking straits pioneer, known in St. Ignace as "Aunt Jane," was born on the Lake Michigan shore near the straits. She said she used to sail across the five-mile span in her father's raft.

"It's a long way to the water from the bridge," she said. "It's better to be close to the water."

Mrs. Goudreau lives alone in a house her husband built on a hill overlooking the Straits. "I could watch him sailing out to Mackinac Island from my dining room window," she said.

Her husband died in 1934.

★ ★ ★

"I miss him," she said. "But I felt close to him when I could watch the ferries. Now the ferries are gone."

Official Asks Halt of Dredging Project

LANSING (AP)— The State Conservation Department has moved to halt a dredging project and construction of a 700-foot dike in the west arm of Grand Traverse Bay.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Eddy wrote Adams that the dike is about 20 feet wide and extends about two feet above water off shore from property owned by Alfred D. Wright of Traverse City.

"The project," he said, "no doubt will interfere with the public and adjacent riparian owners desiring to bathe, boat and fish the waters of Lake Michigan at this location."

★ ★ ★

Great Lakes bottomlands are public property, and are administered by the department in Michi-

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

Pianist Van Cliburn's first recording for Victor, which he completed in an all night recording session May 29 has been approved for release, is now in production, and due on the shelves of record shops in a few days.

The album—Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto No. 1 in B Flat Minor—is also highlighted by the presence of the Russian conductor, Kiril P. Kondrashin.

Maestro Kondrashin, who came to the United States by special arrangement with the State Department at the request of Van Cliburn, left for Russia 24 hours after completion of the recording.

Capitol has two good LP's on the market this month for lovers of mood music. One, by Bobby Hackett with full orchestra, is "Don't Take Your Love From Me" (T-1002). The other is "Dream Dust" (T-1023) by Gordon Jenkins and his chorus.

FIVE ACES: Bobby Darin's Splish Splash," which jumped to the number two spot last week in Pontiac on the best selling record list is in first place this week. "Yackty Yack" by the Coasters rolled up from third to second spot this week.

Sheb Wooly's "Purple People Eater," which took top honors last week is apparently climbing down the ladder since it is in third spot. Duane Eddy's "Rebel Rousers," a newcomer, and John Otis' "Willie and The Hand Jive" are in fourth and fifth place respectively.

Here Are Suggestions for Planting and Care of Roses

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This, the eighth in a series of articles by a member of one of the 27 branches of the Women's National Farm and Garden Assn., Inc., throughout the area printed on the farm and garden pages this year, is the Birmingham Branch contribution. It was written by a rose authority, Mrs. J. C. Roberts, a member of the group who died in May. She was president of the Detroit Garden Center, and past president of the Michigan division of the WNFGA.)

In selecting a site for a rose bed, choose one where the roses will receive at least six hours of sunshine. Most varieties do best in full sun with some afternoon shade. Morning shade is undesirable because it encourages blackspot and mildew.

Good drainage is most important as roses will not thrive where the soil is waterlogged. The spot should be protected from strong winds and a safe distance from large trees and shrubs.

PREPARE BEDS

Rose beds should be two-feet deep and no more than four feet wide for easy cultivation. If the soil is good garden loam, the addition of well rotted manure may be all that is needed. However, if the drainage is poor and the subsoil hard pan, the following methods will insure success:

1. Lift off and save the sod. Then remove and save the top soil.
2. Dig out and discard hard-pan to a depth of 24 inches.
3. Throw a layer of rocks in bottom and place sod on this, grass side down.
4. Mix the top soil with eight bushels of well-rotted manure for each 100 square feet of ground area and add additional loam to replace discarded sub-soil.
5. Apply bone meal, five pounds per 100 square feet.

PLANTING ROSES

Make sure you select Grade I roses. They have at least three canes which are branched no higher than three inches above the bud union.

Place the roots on a cone of earth and tamp soil around them. Pour a bucket of water in the hole and let settle. Then fill the hole to ground level with soil, keeping the bud one inch below the surface.

Mound the earth around the stems to keep plant from drying out. Remove only after roots are established and normal growth begins.

WHAT ABOUT FEEDING?

Do not feed roses the first year. When the plants are in their second year, supplement their organic food with commercial fertilizer. As a general rule, four pounds per 100 square feet of 5-10-5 or 4-12-4 is sufficient and should be applied as follows:

1. When the growth in the spring is four inches long.
2. When the roses come into their first bloom in June.
3. Six weeks later. Do not feed after the first of September.

Some gardeners prefer to feed a commercial rose food at the rate of one tablespoon per plant, per month until September.

A mulch of peat or buckwheat hulls prevents growth of weeds, keeps the soil cool and conserves moisture.

Sprays are more effective and economical than dusts. Triogen applied once a week during the fast growing season is recommended. It acts as an insecticide, fungicide and contains plant food. If blackspot is present, add Captan to the spray.

BEWARE OF BLACKSPOT

Blackspot is by far the most widespread and devastating of the rose diseases, and the timeliness with which the spray or dust is applied is most important. The fungicide must be on the foliage to kill the fungus before it penetrates the leaf.

Since blackspot spores can germinate when the foliage is wet for a period of six hours, both the upper and undersides of the leaves must be kept covered. Pick all the leaves that show signs of the disease and pick up any that fall to the ground. In the spring and fall, use a lime-sulphur spray.

WHEN, HOW TO PRUNE

Cut the blooms back to the first five leaf. Since mulch food is stored in the stems, prune as little as possible. Keep the interior of the bush open for circulation of air. Cut off all twiggy branches and dead wood.

Do not prune after the first of September as pruning forces new growth and the rose bush should have a chance to harden for winter. After the bushes are dormant, they may be pruned high to give the bed a neat appearance and to keep the canes from whipping about in the wind.

In the spring, prune the canes to a height from 10 to 18 inches. Cut just above an outside bud. Trim out all crossing canes and dead wood.

For winter care, mound soil around the stems from eight to ten inches. When the ground is frozen, add a covering of marsh hay or evergreen branches. Do not use leaves. Do not uncover until all danger of freezing weather is past.

JUNE POSIE — These beautiful roses are an example of the ones you can have during the month. Keep them disease free like these and you'll enjoy them 100 per cent more. Caring for roses is fun and worthwhile.

Gives Christmas Tree Pruning Skills

Beware of Onion Maggots, Pine Moths, Siefert Warns

By WAYNE B. SIEFERT
County Horticultural Agent

Christmas tree pruning is an easy skill. Christmas tree farming is rapidly changing from the harvesting of wild trees in the north woods to an intensive business. Special varieties are being developed especially for Christmas trees and improving the quality by pruning is becoming a common practice.

During a farm pond tour at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Russell Haddon farm, 14439 Eddy Lake Rd., Fenton, the problems and strategy of pruning pines and spruce will be discussed at the open meeting.

One of the interesting points to be brought out is the necessity of beginning the pruning program when the trees are about two feet tall, and alternate years until the trees are suitable size. Cutting off the lowest whorl of limbs proved practical as the trees developed to aid moving and harvesting.

* * *

I will be on hand to assist with this discussion and invite you to be on hand to see some of the pruning problems.

ONION MAGGOTS

A dry spring followed by a series of showers proved an ideal situation for the fly which causes wormy onions. Normally these insects begin to appear in early spring before many onions are planted. But the dry spring prevented normal fly emergency until early June, when onions were planted and growing vigorously.

These flies lay eggs on the soil near fast growing onion plants. Upon hatching, these maggots burrow down through the soil and feed on the bulb. When they mature they become dormant in the soil until late summer when they emerge and will attack late summer "dry" onions.

Control of this pest must be before they reach the bulb. At planting time, Chlordane or Dieldrin can be sprayed or dusted in the row or worked into the soil. After planting, these same chemicals are also effective if sprayed or dusted on the row before the flies have laid their eggs. Usually the surface application must be repeated three times at 10 day intervals beginning when the onions are one inch high.

PINE SHOOT MOTH

If you have had a scotch, mugho or red pine attacked by pine shoot moth, you know what a disaster this pest can be. Christmas tree farmers are finding the June spray most effective when the moths are emerging.

Eggs of the worm are deposited on the trees in late June and early July by a mottled orange moth. Though many have effectively prevented injury by killing the hatching larva in late April, many fields are too wet and soft during the spring for heavy spraying equipment.

Laboratory tests show the moths have begun to emerge and lay eggs during the last week in June. Two sprays, using four pounds of 50 per cent DDT or one gallon of 25 per cent DDT emulsion should offer excellent control. In plantings, pressure equipment is most satisfactory. The first of these sprays should be during this week with the second seven days later.

* * *

For those who might miss this summer control program, reasonable control is possible with a spring application using DDT at the rate of two pounds or two quarts. This early spring treatment must be applied before the eggs hatch. The 1958 spring date was April 25.

Farm and Garden News

Plant Flowers From Seed Soon

During the next 30 days you will have the ideal period for starting perennial and biennial flowers from seed. The weather is warm, to encourage quick germination, and the time is right from Nature's standpoint, too, for it is in June and July that seed matures and falls to the ground from the wild perennial plants.

There are relatively few biennials in the flower garden, but those we do have are very well liked. They include Canterbury Bells, Foxglove (Digitalis), Hollyhock, and the fragrant Sweet William. Seed you sow now will make husky plants by the end of the growing season.

These plants will winter over, ready at the first sign of good weather to begin rapid growth to flower next spring and early summer. With flowering the plants of the biennials die, but any one who has ever had the thrill of a giant spike of Foxglove in his garden will agree that it is certainly worth waiting an extra season to attain it.

Both biennials and perennials bloom well ahead of most annuals, since they have ready-made factories in established root systems that annuals must make for themselves before they can flower. So the first flowers in your garden will be these hardy varieties. They form a part of any good garden scheme, producing the early blooms while the annuals are getting ready for their mid-summer and fall display.

The list of popular perennials is a long one, but here is an abbreviated summary of the top favorites. Two or three of these can perform the function of basic design in your flower border.

Alyssum saxatile (Gold Dust)—delightful golden yellow flowers on plants that grow a little taller than the annual alyssum.

Delphinium — stately spikes everybody knows and admires—particularly for their clear blues.

Gaillardia grandiflora—be careful when you are buying seed, for these are both annual and perennial gaillardias.

* * *

While it is possible to start the seeds in the location you intend for them in your garden it is generally better to prepare a small nursery bed in a spot where you can give them special care as seedlings.

Transplant the started plants to their permanent location in the fall early enough to give them a chance to get established before cold weather begins.

In the years to come, after the plants have grown to such a size as to be choked with their own growth, it is good practice to divide the clumps and transplant to keep them growing and blooming actively.

See Certificate Before Buying

State Ag Department Helps Nursery Stock Buyers by Inspection

This is the time of year when homeowners are landscaping their property and fruit farmers are buying and setting out nursery stock. For his own protection, a buyer should demand to see a valid certificate of inspection by the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

The certificate, which is issued by the department's plant industry division, attests that the nursery stock has been inspected and is apparently free from dangerous insects and plant diseases.

All nursery stock is sold by means of grades and standards, according to the division's chief, C. A. Boyer, and prospective purchasers should determine that the stock is of the grade specified.

Boyer says that nursery stock is no different from any other merchandise in that high quality merchandise cannot be bought at ridiculously low prices. By examining the accompanying certificate the purchaser may determine if the grade specified is what he thinks he is getting for his money.

Michigan law requires nursery stock to be inspected on the premises where it is growing, and a certificate issued before it can be legally dug and transported. Growers apply to the Michigan Department of Agriculture's plant industry division for this service. In the case of raspberry and strawberry plants, two inspections are made during the growing season. Applications already are coming in for this summer's inspection from nursery stock growers.

Michigan nursery stock laws are more strict than in some states, but purchasers are generally assured of getting a good product by reading the certificates, and nursery stock raisers have gained wide acceptance for the fruits of their labors, Boyer said.

SHASTA DAISY — The familiar and easily grown Shasta Daisy is a long-lived, very hardy perennial. Now is the time to start seed.

Miss Wright's 74 Leads Field in USGA Open

3 Veteran Pros Trail by 1 Stroke Entering 2nd Day of Tourney

By BILL CORNWELL

Neither fickle winds nor 53 other talented shot-makers could keep lanky Mickey Wright from her appointed round Thursday.

The long-hitting professional from Chula Vista, Calif., carved out a one-over-par 74 yesterday to grab a one-stroke lead in the 6th annual U.S.G.A. Women's golf championship at Forest Lake Country Club.

Three other top-ranking pros were making it might uncomfortable for Mickey, however, as the 72-hole medal play tournament swung into its second 18-hole round this morning.

Lauise Suggs and Betty Jameson, time-tested performers on the tournament trail, and San Francisco's Jackie Pung all fired 75's to stay on Miss Wright's heels.

Two strokes behind at 76 were Miss Alice Bauer and Mrs. Marlene Bauer Hagge, golf's famous sisters who put together identical scorecards of 39-37.

Alice set the pace for the first two rounds of last year's National Open at Winged Foot in Mamaroneck, N.Y., then soared to an 87 and shot herself completely out of contention.

Gusty breezes ranging up to nearly 25 miles per hour hampered play and sent scores zooming skyward in Thursday's opening 18-hole session.

Hitting her customary long drives, Miss Wright ran into a little streak of putting luck which helped her to seize the first round edge.

After shooting eight pars and a double-bogey five to stand 39 at the turn, Mickey came home with three birdies and two bogies for a 35. Women's par over Forest Lake's 6,240 yards is 37-36—73.

★ ★ ★

Mickey won the LPGA crown earlier this month, but she has never fared too well in the U.S. Open. She took 30 putts yesterday to gain the advantage in this tourney for the first time in her career.

Miss Suggs, the picture-swinging veteran from Sea Island, Ga., and the blonde Miss Jameson of San Antonio had contrasting rounds, but their scores wound up the same.

Louise shot four bogies and a birdie for an outgoing 40, then birdied the par three 10th hole and carded pars the rest of the way for a 35. Betty's scorecard read just the opposite—35-40. She needed only 10 putts while posting two "birds" going out and had 28 putts overall.

Miss Pung, the 3rd member of the runnerup trio, matched Mickey on the front nine, but rifled nine straight pars on the back side for a 36 to fall one stroke shy. The Hawaiian-born star forfeited last year's Open title on a scoring technicality.

Wiffi Smith, the freckle-faced pro from St. Clair, fired an 81 after suffering a two-stroke penalty for unnecessary delay in starting. The chunky redhead scrambled to a 45 on the front side, then came in with 36.

Yesterday's low amateur among the 25 entered in the tourney was Miss Berridge Long of Huntington, W. Va., who matched Wiffi's 81. Sally Sharp of the host club skied to 44-50—94.

At the end of today's competition, the 54-player field will be cut to the 40 lowest scorers plus ties for Saturday's 36-hole windup. If a 1st place tie develops, an 18-hole playoff will be held Sunday.

Women's Open golf tournament at Forest Lake Country Club. Betty required only 28 putts yesterday, 10 on the front nine, while shooting 35-40—75 for a 2nd place tie with Miss Louise Suggs and Mrs. Jackie Pung. Miss Mickey Wright toured the Forest Lake course in 74 strokes, one over women's par, to take the first round lead.

Mixed Two-Ball Event Saturday

The annual Mixed Two-Ball Foursome golf tournament, sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department, will be held Saturday at City Municipal course. Starting time is 12 o'clock noon.

Seventeen mixed teams are currently registered for the 18-hole medal play tourney, with several post entries expected.

Tomorrow's event is an alternate shot affair, with the male partner teeing off on odd-numbered holes and the woman hitting from the tee on even-numbered holes. Trophies will be awarded to the top two teams, with merchandise prizes going to the 3rd and 4th place teams.

Palmer Sets Record to Lead East Meet

EAST NORWICH, N.Y. (AP)—For a brief spell Thursday an unsung young fellow named Davis Love was leading in the first round of the Long Island Open golf tournament.

He had shot a two under par 69. It didn't hold up, of course. Later he was tied by four others, two more shot 68s, and one, Arnold Palmer, scored a course record breaking 66 to wind up on top for the day.

Right behind him were the only occasionally touring George Bernardin of Miami Springs, Fla., and big, drawling E. J. "Dutch" Harrison of St. Louis, each with a 68, a score achieved by Harrison by virtue of a remarkable 31 on the back nine.

Homers Plentiful in Church League

Home runs were plentiful in Pontiac Church League softball games last night. Jerry Schedlbower slammed a three-run homer as Bethany Baptist downed St. Luke Methodist, 5-2, and Chuck Irke hit a two-run round-tripper to help Church of the Brethren dump Christian Missionary Alliance, 8-2.

Liberty Baptist defeated Columbia Ave. Baptist, 8-5, behind Jesse Lawrence's two- run circuit clout and Dick Ernest blasted a two-run homer as the Oakland Ave. United Presbyterian whipped the Salvation Army. Floyd Hicks hurled no-hit ball until the 7th to lead First Baptist's 8-2 victory over Central Christian.

Tiger Hurlers Can't Do Everything

Hoeft 2-0 Loser to Baltimore and Harshman

Lary Tries to Extend His Scoreless String Tonight Against Boston

DETROIT (AP) — The currently hot Detroit Tigers are winning on tight pitching alone. Their run production has been negligible in the past week.

The club's output has been nine runs in the five games since Jim Bunning struck out 11 New York Yankees a week ago tonight. Still they won three times. The pitching held the opposition to a total of one run in the three games.

Entering tonight's game with the Boston Red Sox, the Tigers have posted an 11-4 record since Bill Norman took over the managerial reins June 10. Under Norman, they climbed from last place to third place, pitching providing most of the impetus.

Again yesterday the hitting was futile while the hurling was good. So Jack Harshman gained his first victory since May 10. The Orioles won 2-0.

The predominently right-handed Detroit batting order collected just five hits off the Oriole southpaw. Three were doubles. But the Tigers never got a baserunner beyond second.

The Orioles handed Billy Hoeft his seventh defeat. They scored a run in the first and had him on the ropes in the third. Baltimore loaded the bases with none out. But Hoeft escaped with the aid of a short fly and a double play.

Norman will send Frank Lary to the mound tonight in a bid for his fourth straight shutout. The Tigers' ace has amassed a string of 28 2/3 scoreless innings. Tom Brewer will face Lary.

Dodgers Trip Braves Again; AL Leaders Win

By United Press International

The Dodgers have a date for the world series—to watch it on television—and just so no one can call 'em bum sports, they're trying to get the Braves to join them.

They have now beaten the world champion Braves six straight times this year and for those figure filberts who like to dig way back, the Dodgers boast eight victories in a row over Milwaukee since last Sept. 12.

Don Drysdale did the honors last night with a 4-1 triumph over the Braves that sliced their National League lead to one-and-a-half games.

Southpaw Johnny Antonelli limited Cincinnati to seven hits in pitching San Francisco to a 5-1 decision. Antonelli was locked in a 1-1 pitching duel with Harvey Haddix until the eighth when the Giants rallied for four runs, including Orlando Cepeda's 15th homer with two men on base.

Three errors contributed to the downfall of the Pirates, who lost their sixth straight. Left fielder Bob Skinner dropped Stan Musial's fly ball for a two-base error in the seventh and the Cards went on to score three runs on four hits off Vern Law.

Hector Lopez of the Kansas City Athletics supplied the big noise in the American League with three home runs that sank the Washington Senators, 8-6, in 12 innings.

Ted Williams' ninth homer of the year in the eighth inning powered the Boston Red Sox to a 2-1 victory over the Cleveland Indians. Williams hit his tie-breaking homer off Cal McLish, who also was tagged for a seventh inning homer by Dick Gernert.

Hitless relief pitching over the last 2 2-3 innings by Bobby Shantz and Art Ditmar helped the Yankees to a 4-3 triumph over the White Sox.

Dick Donovan held the Yanks scoreless until the sixth when they rallied for three runs with the aid of four singles. Norm Siebern's homer in the seventh proved to be the winning run.

Mackay Leads 4 Unbeaten Yanks at Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI)—Young Barry Mackay, hopeful that a day of rest has improved a painful blister on his racket hand, led the last four American survivors in men's singles into dangerous third-round matches today.

Only four American entries still are "alive" in women's singles, too. Two of these—top-seeded Althea Gibson of New York and Mimi Arnold of Redwood City, Calif.—have gained the fourth round.

Mountain Breeze 'Big Jump' Winner

By H. GUY MOATS

The metropolitan area, particularly Northville, made quite a splash in yesterday's 3rd day of competition for the Detroit Horse Show. And the day's biggest feature, the Bloomfield Open Hunt's "big jumping event" for FEI jumpers, was grabbed by the veteran "pro", Johnny Wallace of Northville, to cap the first really good day of the show, from a weather standpoint.

Sunshine brought out big galleries for both afternoon and evening performances, taxing the parking facilities at the East Long Lake hunt club's location. The show continues today, with a full program, all day Saturday and winds up Sunday night.

Today's features included the ASPCA horsemanship test for juniors; the Shueli Memorial for Michigan bred hunters; the W.D. McCullough memorial for ladies' hunters; fault and out for FEI jumpers; and two events for open jumpers.

Max Bonham, another favorite "pro" at this show, was 3rd with Mrs. William Wright's Blaney Castle, a veteran campaigner. Charles Dennehy of Chicago, 1957 jumper champion, returned with his fine mount Pill Box for 2nd place with seven faults. Blaney Castle had 12, in a very closely contested event.

In earlier events Jane Bugas of Bloomfield Hills won the Michigan Hunt's perpetual trophy test; Patty Cassady of Toledo took the Joan Coulson Memorial on Connemara; Sue Wallace won the FEI junior jumping; and Modoc took the Blackthorn Memorial for ladies' hunters. Modoc is a G. W. Jayne (Chicago) entry.

The gallery didn't see the Detroit mounted police yesterday. They will not be at the show because a switch in plans sent them to take partin the Machinac bridge dedication this weekend. However, it did witness a colorful parade of fine motorcars, all made in the metropolitan area.

NEW DERBY LEADER — On his first fishing jaunt of the year, 17-year-old Bill Green, 1244 Mt. Clemens street, hooked his first black bass — and what a fish! Bill's 5-pound, 2-ounce largemouth wiped out the previous leader, a 4-pound, 9½-ounce lunker taken by Maurice Robinson. Green had never before caught a bass, he says, and the 19½ inch specimen he's showing off, was taken at Galloway Lake, near the city limits, on spin gear. It was also Bill's first fish of the season. Maynard Raymond was his fishing companion.

Baseball, Softball in Full Swing

Zubalik's Homer Beats Jets

Two 1-0 mound duels, with Ernie Zubalik's solo home run deciding one of them, featured Thursday's City League baseball and softball action as the weatherman permitted everyone to get back in the swing.

Zubalik led off the 4th inning with a homer and the big blow stood up to give Shaw's Jewelers a 1-0 decision over Our Jets in Class A baseball activity at Wisner Field.

The timely round-tripper spelled the difference in a tight pitching battle between Shaw's Don Picmair and John Bonser of the Jets. Picman hurled a dazzling one-hitter, a 2nd-inning single by Fletcher Davis, and Bonser allowed just three safeties.

On the softball front, Jerry Thomas bested Ken Spears as the Pontiac Merchants nosed out the American Legion, 1-0, at North Side Park. Thomas gave up only two blows while Spears twirled a three-hitter. The game's lone run in the 1st inning was unearned.

Jones rapped a two-run homer as the Lakeside Royals thrashed Borden's, 10-3, in the nightcap at Beaudette Park. Deni's Corner made a dozen hits for a 7-3 conquest of the Pontiac Post Office in the other North Side attraction.

In Women's League play at Beaudette, Commerce Drive-In collected 16 safeties while drubbing Pursley Ambulance, 18-3. The game was halted after 4½ innings.

Talbott Lumber scored four runs in the top of the 7th stanza for a 10-9 comeback win over Pontiac Business Institute in Class B baseball action at Jaycee Park.

Pharmacy Wins Overtime Game at Waterford

A lead-off triple by Earl Lamberton and Chuck Cooper's follow-up single handed Lakeland Pharmacy a 7-6 victory over Sno-Bol last night in a 13-inning Waterford League softball thriller at Drayton Plains.

Norm Jennings was the winning pitcher while Harlan (Fat) Keith suffered one of his rare losses. Merlin Jones had five hits and Lamberton four in victory.

Harry Diehl picked up four safties and Merlin Welch and Glenn Sheffield each made three as Hubert Wall's Service rallied for a 10-7 triumph over the Pontiac Lake Merchants. Gary Petty rapped three hits in a losing cause.

No Tigers on All-Star Team

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stan Musial was a near-unanimous choice today for the 1958 Major League All-Star game, but many perennial favorites including Ted Williams, Yogi Berra, Ed Mathews and Harvey Kuenn were passed up in the voting by the men who know the game bet.

Major league players, managers and coaches, picking the eight starters on each All-Star team for the first time, in nearly every case honored 1958 performances over the time-honored reputations of some of baseball's greatest stars. Detroit, Cleveland, Washington, L. A., Philadelphia and Cincinnati all failed to land a starting berth.

In the American League, they chose left fielder Bob Cerv of the Athletics over Williams, and catcher Gus Triandos of the Orioles over Berra. In the National, they converted third baseman Frank Thomas, outfielder Bob Skinner and second baseman Bill Mazeroski of the Pirates.

So drastic was the shakeup of All-Star choices that five of the 16 starters never have been picked even as a reserve before this. They are Cerv, Triandos, Mazeroski, Skinner and shortstop Luis Aparicio of the White Sox.

The pitchers and the reserve players for each squad will be chosen by the respective managers, Casey Stengel of the Yankees and Fred Haney of the Braves, and announced in Sunday's newspapers. Stengel already has assured Berra of a place on the squad. It is expected that both managers will round out their squads with many of the "old pros" who did not win berths on the starting teams.

Musial, who will be participating in his 15th All-Star game, received 201 votes of the total 231 cast in the National League. In view of the fact that the major leaguers were not permitted to vote for members of their own teams, Musial was favored by nearly every one of those eligible to vote for him.

"Well, I didn't expect to make it," said Williams when questioned. "I haven't been going too well." Williams is a veteran of 13 previous All Star games. Odds are he'll still be picked for the squad.

3rd Place Won by Sports Editor in State Contest

She is Roberta Mackey of the Detroit Free Press, who won with a 20-part series on "Know Your Neighbors." It was judged best of 20 feature sequence entries and best of almost 100 entries in the overall contest.

Bruno Kearns, sports editor of The Pontiac Press and president of the Michigan AP Sports Writers' Assn., won third place in the sports writing classification.

India has about 40 births a year for every 1,000 of her people. The current figures show 16 births per 1,000 in Great Britain and 15 in Sweden.

Out of every dollar spent at retail stores in the United States in a given year, about 25 cents goes for the cost and upkeep of an automobile.

Claims Propaganda Advertising, Not Lies

NEW YORK (AP) — George V. Allen, director of the U.S. Information Agency, says the word "propaganda" denotes advertising and should not be associated with lies.

Allen, speaking last night before the Zonta international convention, a service organization of women business executives, said:

"There is nothing really evil in the term. In Spanish, propaganda means advertising; in religion, it means spreading the faith; in government it means trying to make ourselves understood abroad."

★ ★ ★

The word came into disrepute, Allen said, when abused by Hitler's propaganda chief Joseph Goebbels "and came to mean the big lie."

Rotarians Laud Hoover

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover esterday received the New York Rotary Club's highest honor, the Distinguished Service Award. A bronze scroll was presented to the 83-year-old Hoover, lauding him as an "engineer, humanitarian, businessman, statesman, friend and counselor of youth."

DANGEROUS PHOTOGRAPHY—Cameramen worked on swaying catwalks high above the Mackinac Straits to film "The Five Mile Dream," story of the world's longest suspension bridge, now showing at the Strand Theater, along with "This Happy Feeling," starring Debbie Reynolds.

The Department of State publishes foreign policy information for the American public and answers some 200,000 requests a year for facts on specific issues.

5 Died So 'Big Mac' Could Rise

To Honor Workers Who Built Bridge

MACKINAC BRIDGE (UPI) — The planners, engineers and public officials responsible for construction of the world's costliest bridge have had their glory.

Tomorrow, the unsung—the 2,500 who risked their lives to build it—will be remembered in a five-minute speech at the bridge's dedication ceremonies.

And a bronze plaque will be bolted to the bridge so the five who did give their lives will be remembered as long as the 100 million dollar Mackinac Bridge spans Michigan's two peninsulas.

It will say: "In memory of the courageous members of organized labor who lost their lives in the hazardous fight against the elements during construction of the Mackinac Bridge."

Robert Koppen, 26, Plymouth, and Jack Barker, 28, Pagosa Springs, Colo., were killed when they fell 525 feet into the Straits after moorings snapped on a wind-whipped catwalk June 7, 1956. Three fellow riggers survived by clutching the catwalk's steel mesh.

Barker and Koppen, both experienced bridge workers, were on their first day on the Mackinac job when they were killed.

Prentiss M. Brown, chairman of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, said at the time of the accident there was a bridgemen's tradition that one workman will be killed for every 10 million dollars of a bridge's cost.

She Sues to Set Aside Dead Man's Divorce

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The second wife of the late Bernarr Macfadden is suing to have set aside their divorce granted 15 years. The noted physical culturist died nearly three years ago at the age of 87.

Mrs. Mary Macfadden, 65, alleged that Macfadden got the divorce fraudulently by claiming to be a Florida resident when he actually lived in New York.

Hollywood Headlines

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The second generation of Crosbys has been much in the news lately, and Bob Crosby thinks he knows why.

"It's the natural urge that all kids have to compete with their fathers," said Bing's younger brother. "It's nothing new, nor is it peculiar to show business. There's many a butcher's son who is frustrated because he can't cut as thin a slice of bacon as his father.

"But when the father is famous, the urge to compete comes in the form of publicity. It's easy to get into the papers when you have a famous name. But it can be quite embarrassing to the family.

"I tell my own children and I tell Bing's that they shouldn't let the fact that their fathers are in the limelight affect them. They should be neither extroverts or introverts because of it, but just try to create their own individuality."

Of course, that is easier said than done. The young Crosbys have made the headlines and gossip columns already, and will be making them more times in the future. Bob's own 15-year-old Chris made the papers last week.

"It was a stupid thing and Chris himself admits it," Bob said. "He doesn't know why he did it, except that he had just broken up with his girl and wanted to teach her a lesson or something.

"He had just gotten his own new car as a reward for getting a B average in school. He was seven days away from getting his own license, so he had to have an older boy drive for him.

"Well, he and the other boy drove by a new car and they decided to see how fast it could go. They were starting to push it away when they were caught.

"It was a senseless thing to do, but think of the senseless things that you did when you were a kid—the things you could have been arrested for.

"It's just too bad that there had to be so much publicity. I think there should be a rule here, as there is in New York City, that names of minors who are involved in misdemeanors should not be publicized."

Bob added that it's difficult to rear children, famous or no, in this era and in Hollywood.

"It's hard to give them values in this period of uncertainty," he commented. "The boys know that they can look forward to two or three years in the Army; their future is unsettled."

U.S. Turns Down Bid to Halt N-Tests

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A Russian-backed resolution aimed at ending U.S. nuclear tests in the Pacific was turned down yesterday by the Trusteeship Council, which oversees American administration of the island testing grounds.

★ ★ ★

The Soviet Union joined with three neutralist nations — Burma, India and the United Arab Republic — in supporting an Indian resolution to end nuclear tests in, or around, any trust territory. It lost 7-4.

India claimed the United States was staging tests in the Marshalls because it preferred to risk Asian lives rather than those of Americans.

Charging India with unintentionally raising a racial issue, U.S. Delegate Mason Sears replied the islands were not part of Asia and the test area presented the least danger of any area under U.S. control.

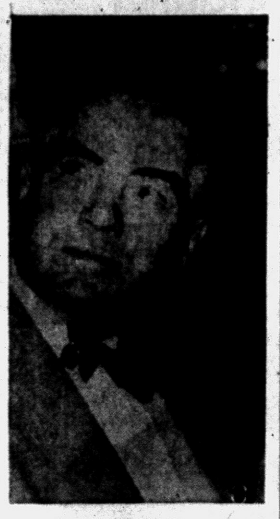
Ex-Publisher Started With Nothing



JOHN FOX

BOSTON (AP)—John Fox, who testified yesterday in a Congressional committee inquiry revolving around Sherman Adams, is a chunky, 51-year-old individualist who started with nothing and ran it into a reputed 18 million dollars.

★ ★ ★

Of medium height, and heavier than he used to be, this broad-faced man with graying hair is a project of South Boston's Irish tenements of half a century ago. He helped put himself through Harvard by pounding a jazz piano in hotels.

SOLD SECURITIES

He started selling securities just before the 1929 market crash.

"I caught the tial of the toboggan just as it started over the top of the hill and I hung on through the next very rough years," he said later.

Brushing aside the conservative economics of bankers, he decided nobody got rich saving money. Money, he said, was something to use. As a salesman and later in business for himself, he put on a front, driving a big automobile he couldn't afford, flying a plane he also couldn't afford.

HELPED INVESTORS

But he succeeded in helping some investors to make money. And he borrowed from them and friends to launch a chance-taking career.

While he sold stocks and bonds, he managed to finish a Harvard Law School course and was admitted to the Massachusetts Bar in 1937. During World War II he enlisted in the Marines and came out a first lieutenant.

He is divorced from the woman he married when he was a hotel piano player, and in 1945 he married Olga de Polakova of Polish-Russian birth. They have a son, Michael, 12.

Pyramiding investments and borrowings, he was reported several years ago to have important, or controlling, roles in corporations with assets of 500 million dollars.

Driven by ambition that carried him further and further from his impecunious boyhood, he once owned a home in the exclusive Chestnut Hill suburb, not far from where Bernard Goldfine, friend of Sherman Adams, lives. He moved to a 60-acre baronial-type estate in Fairfield, Conn., and spent a fortune on a 15-square-mile estate at Phillips, Maine.

Associates described him as hot-spoken and self-assured, capable of retaliation when he felt he was being pushed around.

He has been a principal stockholder, owner, or head, of several New York and Boston real estate corporations, the New England Gas and Electric Corp., Western Union, a bank in New Jersey, and Pennsylvania gas companies.

His biggest failure was the Boston Post. Although long the possessor of one of New England's biggest newspaper circulations, the Post had become shaky when he took it over in September 1952. He made many changes, fired old hands. He wrote editorials. Under an assumed name he wrote a financial column.

The Post pulled Fox into politics.

He met Sherman Adams, then an Eisenhower strategist. Their meeting was reported more than animated. But Fox later startled Boston by throwing the support of the traditionally-Democratic Post to Eisenhower.

★ ★ ★

The magic which won prosperity for so many Fox enterprises failed with the Post. By the summer of 1956, publication ceased. Revival attempts failed. Some 800 employes lost their jobs. Bankruptcy followed, and Fox found himself in extended litigation.

Predicts 8.6 Increase in Recent Car Sales

DETROIT (AP)— Ward's Automotive Reports predicts an 8.6 per cent increase in the sale of new cars in the second quarter of 1958.

The automotive trade publication predicted sales of 1,158,000 for the April-June quarter. Sales during the January-March quarter totaled 1,066,000.

June new car sales opened at a rate of 13,725 per day,, nearly parallel to the 13,777 daily average the first third of May, the publication said.

This rate through the end of June would assure sales of 400,000 units this month,, lifting total sales for the quarter 8.6 per cent above the first quarter.

Ward's pointed out that if its prediction of 2,224,000 retail sales of new cars the first six months this year is accurate, it will mark the lowest January-June performance since 1952. The January-June sales total in 1952 was 2,193,000.

Big 3, UAW Appear Further Apart Today

DETROIT (AP)—The Big Three car makers and the United Auto Workers appeared today to be further apart in their efforts to reach a new agreement on wages than they were at the start of negotiations three months ago.

The 1955 contracts expired Memorial Day weekend and for the past month members of the union have been working without contracts at General Motors, Ford and Chrysler plants.

The union held bargaining sessions with all three companies yesterday but no progress was reported. Company negotiators gave no indication they were ready to make a new offer.

Proposes Scrapping 2-House Legislature

ESCANABA (AP) — State Supreme Court Justice Eugene Black says Michigan should scrap its 123-year-old two-house legislative system in favor of a unicameral system with a reduced membership.

★ ★ ★

Black, in a spech to the Michigan Assn. of Justices of the Peace yesterday, suggested constitutional amendments to limit the number of lawmakers to 60 in a single house with members serving full time during a four-year term. Black also suggested that lawmakers, under the new system, be paid $20,000 a year.

Stocks Advance in Busy Trade

Among key stocks gains were mainly fractional. Rails improved slightly, but steels showed barely any change. Small gains appeared among selected motors, oils chemicals and nonferrous metals. There was a scattering of small losers.

Raytheon, which touched a new high yesterday, fell 2¾ on an opening block of 3,000 shares, selling again at the same price on 12,000 shares. In a succession of later trades it erased all but a small fraction of the loss.

Word of merger negotiations boosted Northrop ½ to 25⅛ on 1,500 shares and dropped American Bosch ½ to 26 on 3,500 shares.

Chrysler rose ⅜ on an opener of 1,000 shares then was up ⅝ at 48⅝ on a block of 4,500 shares.

Douglas Aircraft was up about a point. Small gains were made by General Electric, Anaconda, International Nickel, Du Pont, Sinclair, New York Central and Chesapeake & Ohio. U. S. Steel, Goodrich, and Phelps Dodge were among small losers.

CHERRY QUEEN — Dark-haired, blue-eyed Marcia Wamsley, 17, is the new National Cherry Queen. Marcia, of Traverse City, was chosen from a field of 21 northwestern Michigan contestants. Selection was made in the queen's home town Thursday night. Traverse City's 33rd annual National Cherry Festival will be held July 9-11. More than 100,000 visitors are expected. Queen Marcia's coronation will open festivities on the 9th.

Air Force Jet Tanker Cracks Speed Record

BRIZE NORTON AIR BASE, England (AP)—A U. S. Air Force jet tanker set down at this Oxfordshire air base today after making the fastest-ever New York to London transatlantic flight.

Its time for the 3,459-mile glight: 5 hours 22 minutes 29.68 seconds.

It was followed by a second huge KC135 Stratotanker which also flashed over London in faster time than any previous mark for the route.

★ ★ ★

The tankers had planned to take off on a London to New York record attempt after a brief stopover here. This plan was abandoned because a third tanker in the flight crashed early today as it was taking off from Westover Air Force Base in Massachusetts, killing 15 persons.

The flying tankers landed at this heavily guarded base of the Strategic Air Command in the heart of Oxfordshire under lowering clouds and in a drizzling rain.

★ ★ ★

A U. S. Air Force spokesman said the flight was being made to demonstrate the Air Force's capability to send high-performance jet tanker aircraft to strategic points anywhere in the world.

OK Parking Lot on Caribou Site

Residents in Clarkston Take Nearly 2 Hours to Reach Decision

It took a jury of Clarkston residents nearly two hours yesterday to decide that their village is in need of an off-street parking lot where the Caribou Inn stands today.

The seven men and five women returned to say there was a necessity for the lot, and that $20,000 should be paid inn owner Ernest A. Felice, of 2195 Scott Lake Rd., Waterford Township.

Attorney for Felice, Milton R. Henry, immediately asked Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick to have the verdict set aside. The judge told him and Village Attorney Milton F. Cooney to file briefs on this motion.

The decision of the jury ended briefly what has been an on-again, off-again condemnation suit by the Clarkston Village Council to acquire the 132 by 186-foot lot in the heart of the village.

Last month the council agreed to postpone its suit because Felice claimed he had been offered $40,000 by a Detroit company for the site of the ancient village landmark. The offer later fell through, Henry said yesterday.

Several other matters pertaining to the inn, which was damaged by fire in March, are still pending.

Pontiac Man Shot, Local Resident Held

Police are holding Izer Hawkins, 41, of 272 Elm St., for investigation of felonious assault in the shooting of Nathaniel Watson, 28, of 37 Orchard Lake Ave., yesterday.

Hawkins told Mitchell that he was asleep in his bedroom when five men woke him up at about 5 p.m. and said they were going to beat him up. He had been drinking with the men earlier in the day but knew no reason for their actions, he said.

Hawkins said the men dragged him from his bedroom but he had time to grab his single-shot shotgun and a shell from a drawer.

The group threw him to the ground behind his house, he continued, and the shotgun went off striking Watson who is in fair condition today.

Buick Motor Closing for '59 Changeover

FLINT — Buick Motor Division will shut down tomorrow for its annual inventory and new model changeover, Edward T. Ragsdale, general manager of Buick and vice president of General Motors, announced today.

About 7,000 hourly workers will be affected by the shutdown of the entire plant which will last for two weeks, Ragsdale said.

Production of components for the 1959 model will begin July 7, and most manufacturing plants will be back in operation by the end of July, Ragsdale added.

SEC Claims It Acts to Prevent Fraud in Transcontinental

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Securities and Exchange Commission has ordered a 10-day suspension of trading in the stock of Transcontinental Industries, Inc., on the American and Detroit stock exchanges. The commission said it acted to prevent "fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices."

★ ★ ★

The major asset of Transcontinental, a Detroit firm, is a highway trailer manufacturing company. It acquired control of the trailer company last October from one of the enterprises in the industrial empire of financier Louis E. Wolfson.

SEC officials said that in a registration statement which became effective last January, David B. Charnay, New York public relations man, and others proposed to sell a large block of Transcontinental securities.

The officials said, however, they were making no charge that Charnay or the others involved in this registration statement were involved in the current alleged manipulation which led to the suspension order.

The SEC officials said they were not ready to name those involved in the alleged practices. For one thing, they said, there had been some undercover dealings through a bank in Geneva, Switzerland.

Transcontinental denied the company or any of its officers engaged in the alleged manipulation.

In Memoriam 2

You bade us not a last farewell,
You said goodbye to none;
Your loving heart had ceased to beat,
Before we knew that you were gone.
God saw that you were suffering,
And the hills were hard to climb;
And so He closed your weary eyes,
And whispered, Peace be Thine.
Sadly missed by Mommy, Daddy & Sister.

Estimate Higher Federal Deficit

New Prediction Fixes Government Figure at $2.75 Billion in Red

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Top federal sources have revised their deficit estimates for fiscal 1958 ending Monday with a new forecast that the government will finish about $2,750,000,000 in the red.

★ ★ ★

Estimates of the deficit for fiscal 1959 beginning July 1 were higher than administration predictions of as recently as a month ago, according to a highly authoritative compilation made available to United Press International.

The Eisenhower administration now anticipates a 1959 federal deficit of between 10 and 12 billion dollars and in all probability much nearer the higher figure.

Last-minute corporation tax payments between now and Monday night change the deficit total for 1958. But presidential advisers expect the red-ink figure to be between $2,600,000,000 and $2,800,000,000.

The 1959 outlook has darkened in recent weeks as far as the deficit is concerned. The government's top fiscal planners now believe revenues will sink well below this year. At the same time, spending will increase.

Actor Explains Why His Boat Tardy on Trip

FUKUOKA, Japan (AP)—Hollywood actor John Calvert said today his yacht Thespian was a slow boat from Nationalist China because of engine trouble and no wind.

★ ★ ★

A Japanese coast guard cutter towed the two-masted sailing vessel into port today from South Korean waters, where it was found yesterday. Calvert had expected to complete the 800-mile voyage from Formosa about a week ago.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Aboard the yacht with Calvert were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Iverson, Chatsworth, Calif.; Mrs. Constance Conrad Lowe, Calvert's mother-in-law; and Army Specialist Thomas E. Jones, Black River Falls, Wis.

City, School Taxes in Mails Monday

Some 30,000 bills for 1958 Pontiac city and school taxes will be in the mails Monday, according to Walter A. Giddings, city treasurer.

They will be payable without penalty July 1 through Aug. 1. Beginning Aug. 2 a penalty of one per cent will be added each month until delinquent taxes are paid, Giddings said.

This year the city and school taxes are based on a rate of $36.64 for every $1,000 of assessed valuation of taxpayers' property. "This is a decrease of $3.33 over the 1957 city and school taxes which came to $39.97," the city official said.

Payment of the 1958 taxes may be made at the treasurer's office in the City Hall, 35 S. Parke St., or by mail. To escape penalty, payments must be postmarked no later than Aug. 1.

Movie Studio Suing for Holden's Services

Paramount filed suit yesterday. It asked that Holden be required to resume work for Paramount according to an oral agreement it said the actor made in November 1956. No damages were asked.

Holden told Paramount earlier this year that he didn't consider that the studio held a contract for his services, and said he wouldn't work on films planned for him at Paramount.

U.S.-Mexico Relations Deemed Never Better

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The United States may be under fire elsewhere in Latin America, but the head of Mexico's consular service says relations between this nation and her big northern neighbor were never better.

The director general of the consular service, Dr. Rafael Nieto, spoke yesterday at a meeting which U. S. consuls in Mexico are holding here with State Department officials from Washington.

Nieto said Mexico and the United States are working together closer than ever before and collaboration is at an all-time peak.

Baldfaced Hipsters Now

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — San Francisco's famed "beatsters" are shaving off their beards which have long been a trademark of the free-thinking habitues of San Francisco's North Beach area. Jazz musician Shorth Pederstein explains: "The beard has lost its effect and is now respectable. To wear a beard is no distinction. Not to wear a beard, therefore, is the strongest pattern of nonconformity."

HIT PARADE WANTS HER — Singing star Dorothy Collins, one of the regular performers who was dropped from the Hit Parade last year, is now being asked to return to the program next fall. However, she's not sure she wants to return, after having enjoyed other phases of show business.

Ava's Face Unscarred From Recent Injury

By EARL WILSON

ROME—It was a pretty dramatic moment. I sat with Ava Gardner who was watching herself on the screen for the first time since the hoof of a horse or a bull hit her face last October.

WILSON

She was terrified of the result, nervous that she would not look good, that the injury to her right cheek would show.

We sat side by side in a little projection room looking at the first day's rushes from her new film, "The Naked Maja." Suddenly as I was gushing to Ava that she look prettier than I ever saw her, she exclaimed, "Oh, he's wonderful! That man is magnificent."

"The photographer, Pepe Rotturno," she said. It was his work, she maintained, that made her look good.

★ ★ ★

Actually, though, when looked at close-up, Ava appears only to have acquired a somewhat deeper dimple. She told me that despite all the reports, she did not have facial surgery—only massage and heat treatments. I will tell more of this inside story in a little later column.

AVA GARDNER

"Anyway," said Ava, as the compliments poured in from people, "I've made a liar out of some of those columnists who wrote that I was ruined for life!"

It turned out later that BB doesn't always make new friends this way. It was a joke planned by her friends who hoped to impress Boyd. They succeeded.

$½ Million in Contracts to Greet Elvis in 1960

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Pvt. Elvis Presley, the rock 'n' roll singer, will step out of the Army in 1960 and into half a million dollars in contracts.

Col. Tom Parker, his manager, said two motion picture and one television contract are waiting.

The Ed Sullivan television program has picked up an option — at $100,000 — which calls for Elvis to appear on the show immediately upon discharge, Parker said. Presley will collect another $400,000 on a two-movie contract.

Policemen Stand Mute on Robbery Charges

Washed Off Sailboat, Boy Believed Drowned

ALPENA (AP)—Jerry Hill, 15, of Dearborn, was washed off a sailboat in Lake Huron yesterday. He was presumed drowned.

The boy was sitting on the bow of the 35-foot sailboat when a wave knocked him into the water near Thunder Bay Island.

Water Creature Bites Swimmer in Florida

The boy, Frank Mahala of Salem, N.J., was bitten Tuesday while swimming at a beach on Florida's west coast. Authorities said the animal may have been a barracuda.

Doctors performed a long operation to repair damage to the leg, which was bitten twice. Some of the flesh was torn away.

3 Pounds of Dynamite Made in U.S. in 1867

SAN FRANCISCO — The first recorded instance of the manufacture of dynamite in the United States was in 1867 when 3 pounds of it was made in San Francisco for use in the gold fields.

Shortly afterward a number of establishments made the explosive. All were situated within cart-hauling distance of the place of use, because the railroads would not haul it.

Singer Asked to Come Back

Ex-Star Has Enjoyed Work in Other Phases of Show Business

By HOWARD BENEDICT

NEW YORK (AP) — Dorothy Collins has a warm spot in her heart for the Hit Parade program, but she's not so sure she wants to return to it.

★ ★ ★

"After seven years I naturally grew very fond of the Hit Parade," she said, "but since leaving it last year, I've found so much professional satisfaction in other phases of show business that I don't know whether I could be tied down to a regular show again."

The Hit Parade management dropped Dorothy, her husband Raymond Scott, Gisele MacKenzie, Snooky Lanson and other program regulars last year in favor of an untried team of newcomers.

Now the management would like to have Dorothy back when the program shifts from NBC to CBS in the fall.

Dorothy, who progressed from singing commercials to a starring role on the program, doesn't shut the door completely.

"Actually, I'm leaving the decision up to my manager Hillard Elkins," she said.

"If he thinks I should, and will have the time, then there's a chance I will return to the show. But it's an outside chance."

Elkins says pretty much the same thing: "Dorothy has blossomed forth as an actress in the past year, and there are so many good things awaiting her in movies and theater that we're not quite sure she'll be available for the series."

In the meantime, Canadian-born Dorothy is ready to swing back into the professional whirl after a long maternity layoff. Earlier this month she gave birth to her second daughter.

"I'll sing a couple songs, including a new one written by my husband Raymond called 'Never Love a Stranger.' It will be wonderful to get back to work again."

Then she goes to Pittsburgh for rehearsal and a week's appearance in July as Laurey in a stage production of the musical "Oklahoma."

Later in the month she will do a night club act in Atlantic City, and in August will repeat the "Oklahoma" role during a two week stint in St. Louis.

Fighting to Save Life of Singer Roberta Linn

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Three more diagnosticians have been called in by physicians fighting to save the life of singer Roberta Linn.

She is in critical condition at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital. Six doctors already are working on her case.

Her illness began as bronchial pneumonia, then spread as a general infection. Doctors said antibiotics have not seemed to halt the infection, which is seriously affecting her respiratory tract. She is in an oxygen tent.

Travelers Must Know Who's Where

Rebels Bossing Much of Lebanon

Many areas of the country's 4,000 square miles are held by rebel bands who have fought against the government for nearly seven weeks. When you enter those sections, you had better have the name of the local leader on the tip of your tongue. Otherwise you run a good risk of being shot.

Lebanese army units recently evacuated Halba, in the extreme north. This left all north Lebanon, from Tripoli on, in rebel hands.

Most of north Lebanon is wild, mountainous country ideal for guerrillas. The mountains overlap into Syria, and the rebel guerrillas easily move back and forth across the frontier to elude pursuers or to get supplies and reinforcements.

In the areas nearest the port of Tripoli, the insurgent bands are loyal to Rashid Karami, former prime minister who now is a leader of the rebellion against President Camille Chamoun. To the East, in the Hermel region, rebels follow Druze chieftain Shibli Aryan.

In the fertile Bekaa Valley of eastern Lebanon, the northern region is held mainly by bands under former Speaker of Parliament Sabri Hamadeh.

Farther south, in the mountains, is the region held by one of the most powerful rebel leaders, Socialist Kamal Jumblatt, a Druze and former minister of finance. He manages to keep a corridor open to Rachaya, on the Syrian frontier, and Syrian Druzes send him men and materiel.

South of Jumblatt and inland from the coast, the dominant leader is rebel Ahmed Assaad, another former speaker of Parliament. There has been little fightin in this region, and the line between government and rebel territory is indistinct. The government maintains gendarmerie posts in most towns and villages and has kept most of the roads open.

Government forces hold the main coastal road and the Beirut-Damascus highway as far as the Syrian frontier. The government also has hung onto the chief cities — Beirut, Sidon and Tripoli. But inside each of these cities, rebel gangs are holed up in certain sectors where they are supreme.

In Beirut, the gangs are loyal to former Prime Minister Saeb Salam. In Tripoli, they are Karami's men. In Sidon they are followers of Maarouf Saad, a member of Parliament.

The rebels' plan appears to be to consolidate their position in the north, then drive southward in the Bekaa to link up the northern bands with Jumblatt's forces. Jumblatt's men then would try to cut the Beirut-Sidon road and pin government forces into a box comprising Beirut, Kesrouan and Metn.

To thwart this strategy, the Lebanese army has nearly 9,000 men, reinforced by shipments of light tanks from America and a few Vampire jet fighters.

Rebel armed strength is estimated at 5,000-6,000, skilled chiefly in mountain warfare. They lack aircraft and heavy armament but are being reinforced steadily with mortars and field guns from Syria.

Smokers Won't Receive a Cent, Woman Wills

RUTHERFORDTON, N. C. (AP) — "I hate smoking," says the will of the late Mrs. Effie Lynch McCall, recorded by Rutherford County's clerk of court.

The executor of her will is instructed to "please see that no one has the part I've said if they smoke."

Her estate, in addition to personal effects, includes three tracts of land, more than $3,000 in .S. government bonds, and 25 shares of land, more than $3,000 in U. S. Stock.

Modern Queen Repeats 'Let Them Eat Cake'

LOCKWOOD, Mo. (AP) — In Lockwood, too, the queen's decree will be: "Let them eat cake."

This town of 900 will choose its Queen of Wheat Saturday night and cake probably will be the deciding point.

What happens to the cakes?

They will be disposed in a cakewalk. Anyone who buys a ticket for the cakewalk, price 10 cents, can cast 10 votes.

Fire Engine Chasers Ready for Big Blaze

They're here for the sixth annual convention of the International Fire Buff Assn. The organization of fire engine chasers claims about 3,050 members in the United States, England and Canada.

Most of the clubs operate mobile canteens which follow fire trucks to keep fire fighters supplied with hot coffee and cigarettes. Many of the buffs are volunteer firemen or Civil Defense auxiliary firemen.

"If they need dry clothes or a change of boots, we get them," said Bob Wren, international president of the organization who has been a member of Cincinnati's Box 13 Assn. since 1935.

Union Agent Gives All the Answers

TULSA, Okla. (UPI) — Terry H. Beam, a Tulsa labor leader who was named business agent for Cement Finishers Local 690 last week, passed out business cards yesterday.

"My business with you is not a violation of the Taft-Hartley Law.

"I am not being investigated by the McClellan Committee.

"I am opposed to labor racketeering and violently opposed to communism.

"I am allergic to both mink and vicuna.

"I favor a right-to-work law similar to those governing legal and medical professions.

One woman told another, "Say, you're wearing your wedding ring on the wrong finger," and the other answered, "Yeah—I married the wrong guy" . . . Most children don't want to set the world on fire, notes Tony Pettito. They'd be satisfied just to burn the schoolhouse down. —Earl Wilson.
