200-Bed Project May Not Need Any Tax Boost

Study Financing After City Debt Retirement Is Completed

A group of community leaders last night endorsed a tentative program for a 200-bed addition to Pontiac General Hospital.

They assured Mayor Arthur J. Law that they would back the City Commission in launching such a project.

The tentative approach toward expanding hospital facilities was outlined before the group by Louis H. Schimmel, director of the Michigan Municipal Advisory Council, and City Manager Walter K. Willman.

City officials, hospital trustees and staff members, religious and educational leaders, and civic leaders attended the meeting at the hospital.

Willman said the present proposal for financing the $3½ to $4 million project would require no additional city taxes.

It would be included in the city's capital improvement fund once the money earmarked for retiring the city's debt is no longer required. A public vote would be necessary before completing this financial arrangement, he added.

Willman pointed out that the final decision on the proposed financial method would rest with the City Commission, and that the method outlined last night could be revised or discarded completely.

The possibility of private donations and federal assistance in financing the project are still under study.

Leo J. Heenan, architect for the proposed addition, said blueprints and drawings have been completed and are ready for bids anytime final approval is given.

He said an "L" shaped, eight-story building is contemplated with the new wing on Seminole avenue identical to the present one fronting on South Johnson avenue.

The main entrance on West Huron street would be built at ground level, said the architect. The latest hospital service features, including a coffee shop and larger dining rooms, are planned.

Construction would take at least two years, and would be carried on while the hospital remained in operation, he added.

'Impossible' Cures Infant

RECOVERY COMPLETE—Jerrold Cole, six-month-old son of Mrs. Richard Cole of Seattle, has completely recovered from a usually-fatal heart condition after having an "impossible" operation to correct it. Dr. Robert A. Tidwell (shown with the baby and his mother) reporting the performance of the operation by another surgeon, said Jerrold could not have lived without surgery. The operation, previously believed impossible on infants, has been used successfully on adults.

Red Delegates End Boycott of Repatriation Committee

PANMUNJOM (AP) — The two Red satellite members of the Korean Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission ended a three-day walkout today but there was no indication they had won their point—that anti-Red Koreans be forced to hear Communists' efforts to wheedle them home.

The explanations have been stalled since Monday when the Polish and Czech delegates left the commission after being voted down by the Indians, Swedes and Swiss.

In today's meeting they apparently repeated the demand without success and the explanations remained at a standstill.

The Communist delegates are forcing the point by disregarding the 14,600 Chinese who apparently will choose existing instead of talking with the 7,800 Koreans who refused with a show of belligerence.

The Red reluctance to meet the Chinese may grow from the stinging propaganda beating they took in the first two days of interviews—only 19 of 921 Chinese chose the road to communism.

After unsuccessful efforts by Indian guards to get the Koreans peacefully to the interviews the Red efforts were called off in stalemate.

Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, Indian chairman of the repatriation commission, said after Thursday's session that Indian troops are unable to produce the Koreans "at this time."

However, the 2-hour, 25-minute meeting was not adjourned but was recessed until Friday, leading observers to speculate that some new line of argument may have been presented.

Before the meeting Thimayya said he would ask for an indefinite recess, but he declined comment on that point after the session.

The days without interviews are chopping time from the explanation period set by the armistice, which was Dec. 23 by Allied interpretation and Dec. 24 by the Indian view.

Gilleos Enter Guilty Pleas in Caruso Death

Sentencing Set Nov. 6 on 1st and 2nd Degree Murder Charges

Eugene and Roberta Gilleo dramatically interrupted their firs' degree murder trial in Oakland County Circuit Court Wednesday to enter guilty pleas to first and second degree murder.

Shortly after the 21st prosecution witness stepped from the stand attorneys for the pai ended the two-day trial before Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty, who set Nov. 6 as sentencing date.

Eugene, 27, pleaded guilty to first degree murder in the bludgeon-slaying of Detroit restaurateur John Caruso, 58, on a dead-end street in Oak Park Aug. 2.

Roberta, 22, who admitted accompanying her husband on the death ride, pleaded guilty to the lesser charge of second degree murder.

A life sentence with no possibility for parole is mandatory for Gilleo under the law while his wife may receive any amount of years in prison up to life — with possibility of parole.

Gilleo told authorities shortly after his capture in Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 18 that he slugged Caruso with a wrench for making improper advances toward his wife.

He claimed at the time that Roberta knew nothing of the crime.

On their return to Oakland County Jail Roberta confessed to Undersheriff Donald O. Menzies that she and her husband planned to slug and rob Caruso but didn't plan to kill him.

She told Menzies she drove to Caruso's restaurant at 10339 Woodward Ave., where she had worked as a waitress, and waited in the car for Caruso to join her.

Gilleo was concealed on the rear floor and slugged Caruso after she had driven into the country, Roberta said.

The Gilleos told authorities they took $35 from Caruso's pockets before dumping his body in Ohio.

They were arrested by Knoxville police after officials there recognized the Gilleo auto from an FBI description.

Bribe Testimony Gets Suspension for All Officers

Hoffa Is Named Trustee for Both Wayne and Oakland County Locals

DETROIT (AP)—The AFL Teamsters Union clamped a trusteeship over two of its locals today amid more testimony of bribe payoffs to local leaders.

On orders from the union's international, President James A. Hoffa of the Teamsters' Joint Council placed locals 614 of Pontiac and 247 of Detroit under a trusteeship. This automatically suspended all local officers.

Hoffa, president of the Teamsters' Joint Council, will serve as the trustee. He was a Recorder's Court spectator at yesterday's examination session.

Two construction contractors testified yesterday that two of the defendants had solicited and accepted nearly $18,000 in bribes.

Two other defendants were accused of participating in the bribery arrangements.

Some of the bribe money was paid, the witnesses, said, to cheat union members of possible back overtime pay and of two general pay raises. The rest was said to have been in the form of insurance "against possible labor trouble."

A Northville contractor, Gerald F. Taft, resumed the stand before Recorder's Judge Martha W. Griffiths today to continue his story of how, he testified, he was forced to pay tribute of five cents a yard for dirt he hauled, at the rate of 3,000 yards a day.

Taft testified that Daniel J. Marosso of Utica, a business agent of Local 47, asked that payment from him in April 1951, threatening him with labor trouble if it was not paid.

With Marosso, Taft testified, was another defendant Mike E. Nicoletti, 3900 Berkshire, president of the local, "but he didn't say anything."

Preceding Taft to the stand was a Farmington contractor, Edgar S. Mather Jr.

Mather testified to an involved history of bribery said to have been solicited by and paid to Daniel J. Keating of Pontiac, president of Local 614.

Nicoletti was present during some of the negotiations, Mather said, and a fourth defendant, Louis C. Linteau of Pontiac, 614 business agent, accompanied Keating to a meeting in a Pontiac hotel where they accused Mather of talking about the bribes.

Mather traced the alleged betrayal of the union rank and file back to October 1950, when negotiations for a new contract were under way.

The union wanted hourly instead of trip pay for its truckers but, Mather testified, mediators had recommended the trip pay as better.

Mather said he feared the hourly wage because, under the federal wage and hour law, the switch would have made the company liable for two years back overtime pay.

The negotiations included another Farmington contractor, Heck DeTavenier, Mather testified that DeTavernier told him: "Keating can fix this up but it will cost money."

The two contractors each contributed $5,000 for Keating, then, Mather testified, paying the money

Surprise Union Vote Ends 114-Day Kingsford Strike

IRON MOUNTAIN (AP) — The 114-day-old, violence fraught strike at the Kingsford Chemical Co. plant is ended.

CIO United Auto Workers voted 126 to 25 last night to accept a company offer and reopen the plant they closed July 1.

Terms of the offer were not disclosed immediately, but it was reported that all employes, including nine arrested in picket line disturbances, will be asked to return to work.

A company spokesman said most of the 200 who walked out could be back on the payroll today.

Local 952 of the CIO-UAW called the strike in an effort to enforce demands for a union shop, a dues checkoff, and six paid holidays.

The undisclosed offer was termed by management as "final," and Owen Pyle, president of Kingsford Chemical, threatened to shut down the plant if it were not accepted.

The union's vote, however, came as a surprise. Only a few hours earlier federal and state mediators expressed little hope for a settlement in the bitter dispute that erupted into violence several times.

State Police were rushed here last week and were reinforced only Monday as more trouble threatened.

A car full of non-strikers was upset by pickets and windows of several others smashed last Thursday. A day later a woman marching in the picket line was struck by a non-striker's car. Before that there had been minor scuffles and fights and threats.

Mines Wreck Train in Israel

Violence Near Border Labeled an Act of Arab Sabotage

JERUSALEM (UP)—An Israeli freight train was wrecked today by land mines near the border of Jordan and an Israeli spokesman said it was an act of Arab sabotage.

The mining of the train was the latest incident of violence in a series of acts which have inflamed relations between Israel and her hostile Arab neighbors and precipitated a menacing Mid-Eastern crisis.

Thirteen cars of a 52-car train went off the rails and smashed into a rocky hillside near Kalkilya, between Haifa and Tel Aviv near the Jordan border.

A spokesman said there were no casualties.

Only an hour earlier a passenger train had passed the mined area. Shortly before that, a spokesman said, Israli police had noticed suspicious movements on the tracks in the area but believed they had frightened the intruders away.

DURBAN, South Africa (AP)—More than 14 inches of rain have fallen at East London, seaport city 300 miles southwest of Durban, in the past 48 hours. Floods have caused extensive damage but no loss of life.

Charles McCuen, GM 'Lab' Head, Still in Hospital

Charles L. McCuen, vice president of General Motors Corp., who was injured when the test car he was driving crashed at the Milford Proving Ground Oct. 11, is "improving daily," according to Pontiac General Hospital.

McCuen is general manager of the GM Research Laboratories Division.

The test car he was driving reportedly went out of control on a banked turn, hit a guard rail, apparently rear wheels first, and catapulted over it.

McCuen, who was driving alone, had passed another car driven by Mauri Rose, winner of the 500-mile Indianapolis speedway race, shortly before the accident happened.

Bank Teller Defies Bandit

Woman Ducks From Window, Rings Alarm; Man Flees

DETROIT (AP) — A woman bank teller defied a bandit's demand for money and set off an alarm to foil the holdup attempt today.

The teller, Mrs. Roberta Rheaume, a widow employed at the Linwood-Joy branch of the Detroit Bank, ducked away from her teller window and pushed an alarm button.

The would-be bandit fled past a dozen customers.

Mrs. Rheaume told police the bandit pushed a brown paper bag and a note to her under the cage. The note read:

"There is a gun pointed at your heart — fill up this bag."

The holdup attempt was made at 10:20 a. m. Mrs. Rheaume has been employed by the bank since 1922.

Cloudbursts Hit Southern Italy

48 Are Believed Dead in Shattered Homes as Rivers Overflow

REGGIO CALABRIA, Italy (AP)—Tremendous cloudbursts swept across the toe of the Italian boot today wrecking homes and flooding rivers. First reports, all unofficial, said at least 48 persons were killed.

Witnesses said the death toll might go much higher. Many of the dead were said to have been buried under the debris of shattered homes.

People fleeing from the area of Saracinello, Olivetto and San Giuseppe said at least 40 persons were killed there in the collapse of homes and by drowning.

Eight others were reported dead in San Gregorio where a flooding river ripped down a railway bridge.

Eight rivers in Reggio Calabria Province swept over their banks flooding thousands of acres of farm land. Violent rains continued to pour down on the stricken area.

Landslides and the raging flood waters cut highways at many points. Telegraph, telephone and power lines were down.

In Rome, the interior ministry said all available rescue units, including troops have set out for the scene of the floods.

DR. F. A. LIPMANN

Nobel Science Prize Awarded

American Scientist and British Professor Get Honors for Cell Studies

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)— A Harvard University scientist and a German-born British professor jointly won the 1953 Nobel Prize for medicine and physiology today for their discovery of fundamental life mechanisms inside human cells.

The honor went to Dr. Fritz Albert Lipmann, 54, professor of biochemistry at Harvard Medical School, Cambridge, Mass., and Dr. Hans Adolph Krebs, 53, professor of biochemistry at Britain's Sheffield University.

They will share the 175,292 Swedish crowns ($33,840) prize money.

Dr. Lipmann gained the distinction through his discovery of co-enzyme "A", an organic substance that plays an important part in nearly every biological process. Dr. Krebs was cited for his "wheel of fortune" explanation of how food becomes energy in living tissue. The two developments are closely related.

Both achievements were described by Dr. Goran Liljestrand, secretary of the Medical Nobel Committee, as being "of the utmost theoretical significance and very likely to have great practical importance in understanding diseases and similar disturbances."

The award was the 4th made by Stockholm's Caroline Institute of Medicine under the will of the late Alfred Nobel, inventor of dynamite, who died in 1896.

Showers on Friday to End 'Heat Wave'

Scattered showers late tomorrow are expected to crack Pontiac area's mid-October "heat wave" and usher in cooler weather.

But the mild weather, which equaled a 32-year record high for that date yesterday, is expected to have a last fling before the showers arrive.

The U. S. Weather Bureau forecasts a low of from 52 to 56 degrees tonight and a high of from 78 to 82 degrees tomorrow. Yesterday's 81 degrees at 2:15 p.m. matched the record high for that date established in 1920. The low was 54.

Today at 8 a.m. the mercury registered 51, but by 2 p.m. the reading was 76 degrees in downtown Pontiac.

Government to Build First Atomic Plant to Produce Electrical Power

CHICAGO (AP)—The United States today announced the first full-scale attempt to tame atomic power for peace—a move billed as "America's answer" to Soviet claims of mastery over dread new nuclear weapons of war.

Thomas E. Murray, a member, said the Atomic Energy Commission will build an industrial power reactor producing at least 60,000 kilowatts of electrical energy — enough to run a city of 50,000.

He said the project will cost "many tens of millions of dollars" and that the AEC hopes to have an operating plant in three to four years.

The plant, Murray said, may be located "at or near" an AEC facility for separating uranium-235, the paydirt of atomic power, from natural uranium. The AEC has one such facility at Oak Ridge, Tenn., and is building others at Paducah, Ky., and Portsmouth, Ohio.

He said Westinghouse Corp. will be the principal contractor for the new plant which, he said, is of a design "inherited from a naval project." Rear Adm. H. G. Rickover, the Navy's reactor expert was given "immediate responsibility" for the new program.

Murray's historic announcement —a little more than eight years after the United States unleashed the world's first atomic bomb at Hiroshima—came in a speech prepared for the electric companies' public information program.

He said the AEC decided to beat Russia to the punch by pushing ahead first with an industrial power program instead of concentrating almost exclusively on reactors for military use.

"This is America's answer—its significant peacetime answer—to recent Soviet atomic weapons tests," Murray said. "It should show the world that, even in this gravest phase of arming for defense, America's eyes are still on the peaceful future."

Murray said the world was stunned when Russia announced recently it had the hydrogen bomb.

But he said world peace would have been more gravely endangered if Russia had announced successful operation of an industrial power plant—and had offered to swap atomic know-how for uranium produced by other countries.

"There is no secret that 'our atomic weapons program depends upon receipt of substantial quantities of uranium from foreign nations," he said.

". . . I believe that unless we embark on an all-out attack on our nuclear power program immediately, we may be deprived of foreign uranium ores with the result that our weapons potential will be smaller than need be the case."

* * *

Countries hungry for the new source of power, no matter how repelled they are by Soviet tyranny, would gravitate toward Russia, he said.

But Murray stressed that the AEC was not putting all its atomic reactor eggs in one basket.

"In the immediate future," he

Wabeek-Jacobson Report on Parking Lot Progress Reveals $337,252 Spent

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — The Wabeek-Jacobson progress report on off-street parking in the northwest quadrant of the city reveals that $337,252.20 has been spent to date, with about 40 per cent of the site as yet unacquired.

Speaking for the sponsoring group, William Yaw of the Wabeek Co., said, "We can't go any further until the city decides what it wants to do."

The report outlines four conditions under which the land might be sold, and also includes suggestions of possible means of financing the project.

Nathan Rosenfeld, president of Jacobson's, stated in the report, "We have not succeeded in securing all the properties that are essential for the complete development of the area."

He added that the sponsoring group would only be willing to sell its holdings for integration into a complete municipal project involving a city off-street parking ordinance, acquisition of two remaining parcels of land, capital improvements to include a lower level of parking for 360 cars and a guarantee of 60 per cent minimum facilities for short-term parking.

The report outlines immediate short-range and long-range objective. The City Commission has agreed previously that no formal action will be taken on a parking proposal until the Residential Protective Association has one month to study it.

Composed largely of Bonnie Briar-Tooting Lane residents, the group will study the desires of citizens regarding parking, the practicality of the parking plan and similar plans in other cities.

Springdale Park for Birmingham Use Only in '54

BIRMINGHAM — Golf clubs swung at city-owned Springdale Park will be in the hands of Birmingham residents next year, or they won't be swung.

City commissioners have made a broad policy change in the operation of the nine hole golf course, restricting it to city residents instead of all comers.

Annual membership cards will be issued to residents for $3, and admission will be by card only. City Manager Donald C. Egbert said the course was so crowded this year that many residents won't try to play there anymore.

Green fees will remain 75 cents, and $1.25 on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. The commission also authorized Egbert to secure quotations on a concrete block storage building for equipment at the park.

Scout Plan Told by Broomfield

Organization Will Give Programs at Meetings of Other Groups

Broomfield, who is community relations chairman for District One of the Detroit Area Boy Scout Council this week that Boy Scouts Council announced this week that Boy Scouts of south Oakland County have developed a plan to assist program chairman of civic organizations by providing [illegible] and demonstrations upon request.

"We are preparing an invitational letter which will soon be sent to every major civic and service organization to give them an opportunity to present a program on the subject of scouting to their membership," Broomfield explained.

Speakers will be members of District One which includes Birmingham executive committee, district commissioners and other leaders in south Oakland County scouting.

Broomfield said these men are prepared to present programs ranging from 10 minutes to one hour, according to the desires of the ogranization.

U. N. Expert Slated to Speak Tonight

BIRMINGHAM — Climaxing tonight's celebration of the United Nations' eighth birthday will be Clark M. Eichelberger's talk on "Facts and Fallacies of the United Nations."

Part of United Nations Week activities, tonight's meeting will be held at 8:30 in the Community House and is open to the public.

Many civic groups will take part in the affair, which is under the leadership of Mrs. Winston T. Kellogg.

The League of Women Voters, through Mrs. Charles J. Shain, secured Eichelberger for the talk. He is director of the American Association for the United Nations, Inc.

Russell Barnes, Detroit News correspondent to the U. N., will introduce Eichelberger at a dinner party scheduled to precede the lecture. The dinner was arranged by the mayor's committee for U. N Day.

Pontiac Deaths

Mrs. Nellie Brown

Mrs. Nellie Brown, 75, a former Pontiac resident whose address was 809 Woodland Ave., died at Pontiac General Hospital at 12:45 a.m. today.

Born in England Jan. 1, 1878, she was the daughter of William and Helen Badger and the widow of Issac Brown who died May 12. They were married in Ohio June 2, 1928.

Mrs. Brown resided in Pontiac 37 years coming here from Regina, Sask. For the last five months on account of failing health she has made her home with her son, Harold Brown of Greenville.

Besides the son, she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Muriel Murphy and Mrs. Grace Lowe of Pontiac; 11 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral will be Saturday at 3 p.m. from the Voorhees - Siple Chapel. Burial will be in Perry Mount Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Isabel Lawther

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Isabel Lawther, 78, of Dearborn, who died Wednesday morning at Oakwood Hospital. She had been ill four weeks.

Born at Honeoye, N. Y., she was the daughter of Charles and Helen Pennell and the widow of John Lawther. Mrs. Lawther resided in Clarkston many years ago. She moved to Dearborn after the death of her husband.

Surviving are three sons and a daughter, Charles of Sunfield, Mich., Dr. John of Coloma, Dr. Harry in California and Isabel at home.

Also surviving are two brothers and five sisters, Joe of Davisburg, Henry of Pontiac, Mrs. Carolyn Starkweather of Kalamazoo, Mrs. Jessie Andrews of Pontiac, Mrs. Alma Russell of Dearborn, Mrs. Mary Turner of Alba and Mrs. Cornie Smith of Davisburg. Fourteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren also survive.

Funeral will be at 1 p.m. Saturday from the Howe-Peterson Funeral Home, 22546 Michigan Ave., Dearborn. Burial will be in the Andersonville Cemetery.

Mrs. Anna Alena Johnson

Funeral for Mrs. Anna Alena Johnson, 62, former Pontiac resident, will be Saturday at 1 p.m. from the Voorhees-Siple Chapel. The Rev. Edward D. Auchard, associate minister at First Presbyterian Church, will officiate and burial will be in Oakland Hills Memorial Cemetery.

Mrs. Johnson died at Chassell, Mich., Tuesday. She moved there five months ago after having resided here 28 years.

Flint CIO Building Destroyed by Fire

FLINT (AP)—A $200,000 fire today destroyed the CIO Flint labor temple after an explosion attributed to the mistake delivery of 200 gallons of gasoline for fuel oil.

City Fire Marshal Harold C. Chrigwin estimated the damage to the CIO headquarters in the Flint area.

A labor official and an oil delivery man suffered minor burns in a flash fire shortly after the mistake was discovered. Only a policeman, guarding the building, was on duty when fire broke out again 10 hours later early today.

Condemnation Trial Date to Be Set Oct. 29

Setting of a trial date in the city's condemnation suit of property at 11-49 Parke St. will be Oct. 29 before Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland.

The City Commission announced some time ago it wanted to use the "Slater property" plus adjoining city-owned property for a 200-car metered parking lot.

The land in question is bounded on the east by Parke St., west by the Clinton River, and north by Slater Apartments. It borders city-owned land to the south.

Water Rates Hiked

SPRING LAKE (AP)—Water rates here have been boosted for the first time since 1908. Instead of $1.50 a quarter the rate effective Nov. 1 is $2 a quarter inside the village limits and $3 outside the village.

City Man Pleads Guilty to Breaking, Entering

Henry Clay, 27, of 503 Colorado Ave. pleaded guilty today before Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty to breaking and entering in the nighttime. Sentence was set for Nov. 6 and Clay was returned to Oakland County Jail.

He was arrested Aug. 15 by Pontiac Police after breaking into a gas station at Exchange St. and Orchard Lake Ave.

Bullitt Visits Taipeh

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — William C. Bullitt, former U. S. Ambassador to France and Russia, arrived today to visit this Chinese Nationalist island he has called a second home. Bullitt reportedly has bought a house near the South Formosan port of Kaohsiung.

U.S. to Build Atomic Electric Power Plant

said, "we expect to propose the construction of different types of reactors that will explore promising avenues of approach to practical nuclear power."

Murray said the tremendous cost of building, testing and perfecting an industrial atomic power plant rules out any such development by private enterprise without government help, but "the work should gradually be transferred from the federal government."

* * *

While Westinghouse was chosen as principal contractor, he said, the AEC welcomes offers from other firms "to invest risk capital in the building of the steam and turbine portions, as well as in the operation of the entire plant."

The AEC commissioner gave these details:

1. The design chosen was "inherited from a naval project"—presumably some modification of the type originally envisioned for powering an aircraft carrier.

2. Westinghouse was picked as principal contractor because of its "previous experience with the reactor system chosen."

3. General supervision of the new project will be in charge of AEC's Reactor Development Division, with immediate responsibility assigned to Rickover because of his "unique experience and accomplishments in building propulsion power reactors for the commission and for the Navy."

4. Costs of power from the projected plant "will be higher than costs from modern (non-nuclear) plants."

Birmingham Woman Injured as Horse Falls

A horseback riding accident Wednesday hospitalized a Birmingham woman when horse and rider fell at Fourteen Mile Road and Telegraph Road, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Mrs. Joan Thorpe, 27, of 1258 E. Lincoln Ave., while riding with a companion, suffered a possible fractured skull in the fall and was admitted to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. Her condition is fair today, according to the hospital.

The Oakland-San Francisco bridge contains 143,000 tons of steel including 80,000 miles of wire for cables.

Oxnam Barred by Auditorium

LA Philharmonic Tags Methodist Bishop 'Too Controversial'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—G. Bromley Oxnam, embattled Methodist bishop, has been termed too controversial a figure to speak in Philharmonic Auditorium, says the American Civil Liberties Union.

Dr. Eason Monroe, executive director for the Southern California Branch of the union announced yesterday that his organization has been denied use of the hall if Oxnam speaks, but he said the bishop has not yet accepted the invitation to appear here.

In a letter to the auditorium directors Monroe said:

"Your action in so judging and barring from your rostrum the national leader of the Methodist Church has too ominous and deep a meaning for us to let it pass.

"Your action is an obvious capitulation to McCarthyism and to those hysterical influences in our nation which seek the destruction of American intellectual and cultural life," Monroe continued. "We must vehemently protest it.

"Have the cultural leaders in Los Angeles really grown so confused that they regard Bishop Oxnam as a 'controversial' figure?" the letter asked. "Have they become so timid that they shun 'controversy'?"

The general manager of the auditorium company, C. H. Brainard, confirmed the board's action in proclaiming Oxnam "too controversial a figure."

He said that the matter, if it is reconsidered at all, will come before the November meeting of the directors, unless a special session is called.

Mao Professors Must Prove Hatred of U. S.

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—Reports smuggled from Red China show it's easier to be a college professor under Mao Tze-tung if you can prove you hate America.

A Harvard-educated political scientist, Tsui Shu-chin, head of Chiang Kai - shek's party planning board here, says professors in Red China are subjected to rigorous brain-washing and public "confessions."

The confessions are standard in style and substance. Teachers first denounce themselves as worthless for "false beliefs" in the superiority of Western ways, then follow up with effusive praise of Mao Tze-tung, Tsui explains.

As a group, he says, educators have suffered more than any other professional people in Red China.

The Communists call their brainwashing techniques "ideological reforms," Tsui says. "Confessions must be brought to group meetings for discussion and if necessary, rewritten until the Reds are satisfied."

One mistake considered virtually fatal by the Reds is a background of study in Great Britain or the United States.

Tsui cited the case of physicist Chou Pei-yuan, who confessed he "considered his visit to the United States in 1943 the most shameful act in his life."

Yu Te-yuan, vice president of Northeastern College of Geology, admitted he at one time possessed the "false belief" American mining methods were the most advanced in the world.

Physicist Ko Ting-sui denounced himself as a "cultural slave of American imperialism."

The professors not only must denounce themselves for having been pro-American, but must also express determination to hate America, Tsui says.

Farm Problem Confusion

There has been so much loose talk and wild politicking lately about falling farm prices that the whole question of agricultural policy couldn't help but get out of perspective.

This confusion has been particularly noticeable since the GOP defeat in a Wisconsin special election. Efforts have been redoubled by critics to link the farm price squeeze to the Eisenhower Administration's agricultural policy.

President Eisenhower's speech at Kansas City as well as the economic facts in the situation disprove this political palaver. It is true the President didn't blue print his farm policy for the Future Farmers of America. In honesty he couldn't. His 18 man commission, which includes 12 farmers, is to report to him and Secretary Benson this week.

As for the facts in the situation—so far there has been no basic change from the farm policy of the Truman Administration. Only world conditions have changed. That administration and Congress approved 90 per cent of parity against a background of World War II and the resulting need for bumper farm production. Because of the Korean war the principle was extended through 1954 with the approval of both parties.

★ ★ ★

Since then our farm export markets have shrunk because of European agriculture's revival and our crop surpluses have become unmanageable under high price support. In an April, 1950, memorandum to Congress, President Truman himself condemned this high parity device, saying:

> ". . . It is costly, and it piles up unmanageable surpluses at the same time that it maintains artificially high prices for agricultural products."

On the eve of the 1952 Democratic convention, however, Mr. Truman, obviously thinking of the coming election, declared that the 90 per cent formula was a "valuable addition to our agricultural legislation."

In other words, politicians who blame falling farm prices on the Eisenhower Administration aren't being honest with the public. It isn't common sense to expect that enormous crop surpluses can hang like a crushing weight over farm markets without depressing prices.

The President has promised a new and sound farm program. To draft it he has enlisted the country's best agricultural and business brains. Until that program is tested, blaming the Eisenhower Administration for falling farm prices is pure nonsense.

Ives to Get Taft's Post

When the Senate returns in January the chairmanship of its Labor subcommittee, a post held by the late Senator Taft, will go to Senator Irving Ives.

Succession of the 57-year-old New Yorker to this chairmanship is of special interest to organized workers because the subcommittee is in charge of Taft-Hartley law revision.

Although Ives voted for this law in 1947, not even its bitterest union critic could accuse him of being anti-labor. Actually he helped to keep it from being as restrictive on the unions as the original draft.

For example, he opposed outlawing the union shop as well as the closed shop and curbing industry wide bargaining. He also opposed outlawing union controlled, employer financed welfare funds, like that of the United Mine Workers, and sanctioning private injunctions in jurisdictional disputes.

Senator Ives has the great advantage of wide knowledge in the field of labor relations. He was chairman of the joint committee of the New York Legislature on industrial and labor conditions. In addition he sponsored the law creating the School of Industrial and Labor Relations at Cornell University and served as dean of that school for 18 months.

Student Insurance

Through arrangements made by Pontiac Board of Education, parents now have a chance to insure their children at low cost against accidents at or during their trips to and from school.

The plan announced by Superintendent DuFrain already is in operation in nearby Rochester. Premium cost for each student is $1.25 a year. The low price is possible because insurance officials expect many parents to purchase policies.

Protection afforded includes all medical expenses up to $2,000 and up to $7,500 for such losses as eyes, legs and arms. These benefits apply whether or not the student has other insurance.

★ ★ ★

We believe the School Board has acted in the parents' interest in approving this plan. When it is considered that accidents to students occur on school grounds on an average of once a day, the cost of this protection is very reasonable.

Your guess as to where Beria is, if he is, is no doubt as good as anybody else's.

It will largely be along the lines of the "get out the vote" project of the last year. Homes in the entire area will receive mimeograph bulletins along the same line as that of Donelson: "Do you have an abandoned death trap? These assassins must go. We love our playmates." Instructions also will be given on how to report any such menace to the proper authorities.

of La Crosse, Wis., formerly of Oakland County, says: "The recent election of a Democrat for a Congressional seat from a Wisconsin district long represented by a Republican doesn't mean a thing in a political way. The Republican candidate wasn't popular, bothered with excessive ego, thought he had a cinch, and did little to help his cause. But the Democratic nominee surely cashed in, both on sympathy because he had just lost his wife after a long illness from cancer, and on the popularlty of his handsome twin daughters, co-eds in the state university, and who called on most of the homes in the district, asking them to vote for dad."

Urges That We Make Most of Our Lives Since We Pass Through World but Once

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature).

We pass through this world but once. Any good, therefore, that we can do or any kindness that we can show to any human being, let us do now. Let us not defer it, or neglect it for we shall not pass this way again.

Inasmuch as we are going through life just once we should make life a confident one, instead of a timid one.

We should choose to make a calm life rather than one of restlessness, we should choose to have poise rather than confusion and we should make the most of life for ourselves and others.

We have the power to choose. Let us do it to the best of our ability so that God will come to our aid and help us choose the best.

Says Time Proved Merits Metered Parking System

When Pontiac first installed parking meters for the convenience of the public certain groups screamed to the high heavens against this action.

Time has certainly proved the merits of this measure to provide inexpensive parking. The city has been attempting to establish some additional off-street lots simply to supply an ever growing need. However, again the opposition has raised its head and is trying to stop what is simply a progressive step.

Practically all cities are doing something about parking. Why? Simply because parking has become a municipal responsibility in the same sense as supplying water, collecting garbage, etc.

As a community we must make it more convenient for people to shop here. Otherwise people are going to go elsewhere. Modern transportation gives one this choice.

Let's keep business in Pontiac by providing more adequate short-term parking facilities. Remember, next to industry, the central business district supplies the biggest source of tax revenue for the operation of our city.

Sees Himself as President for All

Ike Strong in His Stand on Keeping Out of Lower Ranking Political Campaigns

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower is beginning to handle himself at his press conferences more and more like a veteran.

His offhand comments cover an amazing amount of information. When one considers the variety of subjects that are brought up by the correspondents, it is nothing short of remarkable that the man who spent so much of his life in the Army can now discuss so readily many of the fine points of purely civilian problems.

The President makes a slip now and then in names of places — as everyone does — but his responses to the questions asked by the reporters are always direct and without evasion.

Thus, the press conference this week showed that the President is not only well aware of the farm problem but that he is considerably more frank in his discussion of it than a political person might normally be.

* * *

When asked, for example, what impressions he gathered on his western trip as to the attitude of the farmers, Eisenhower might have resorted to the usual political jargon, but he confessed frankly that a President traveling around the country doesn't always hear the unfavorable side but that what he did hear gave him the feeling that the problems were not insoluble and that the conscientious approach of the administration was being appreciated.

* * *

The complexities of agriculture aren't going to be resolved overnight, and the President is hopeful that intensive study by his new commission of agricultural experts will bring out facts and reports which will show the farmer that, while the short-range picture may present a squeeze, it's a long-range policy of fundamentally sound economics that has to be sought.

Perhaps the most important manifestation of Eisenhower's evolution in the presidential job came in his forthright statement in answer to a question as to whether he would participate in the congressional election campaigns of next year. The President said he would not.

He declared that he did not intend to make the presidency an agency to be used in partisan elections. He added that anybody elected to the highest office in the land has the responsibility of developing an effective program and that, if this is successful, the candidates of his party have a real umbrella under which to operate.

He meant, of course, that a good record by a Republican administration will aid a Republican congressman or senator in getting elected.

But, the President remarked, he has no intention of getting into partisan struggles in any district or in any state because he feels sure the people of such a district or state would resent it.

How true Eisenhower's words are may be noted from looking back at what happened when the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt and his successor, Harry Truman, intervened unsuccessfully again and again not only in primary contests between Democrats but also when they issued a lot of letters for individual nominees of the Democratic Party asking that the people support them at the polls.

Some were elected and some defeated — the presidential support was rarely conclusive.

Perhaps the most conspicuous example of an ill-fated intervention by the White House occurred when the late President Wilson, in October 1918, publicly asked the country — just before World War I ended — to elect a Democratic Congress. Resentment was widespread and both houses went Republican.

The spectacle of a President of the United States becoming a political partisan is something that isn't liked by the people, and certainly a President who tries to elect certain representatives and senators of his party opens up an area of resentment that injures his own prestige.

Eisenhower is right — if he makes a bad record, no amount of letter-writing or campaigning will be of help to his party's nominees, whereas if he makes a good record the Republican Party will be helped all along the line.

So Eisenhower is going to concentrate on making as good a record as he can and leave partisan politics to his party managers and the candidates themselves.

Help Child Make Friends in a New Neighborhood

Patrick is an excellent father, for he understands the emotional shock to his children of jerking them out of one school and suddenly placing them in another. This must often be done, for a man usually has to follow his job. But by all means cushion this shock for your youngsters.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case J-322: Patrick O., aged 32, is a junior executive with an oil company.

"Dr. Crane, I'm in a real dilemma," he said. "For I have been offered a promotion which will be worth $50 more per month.

"But my wife and I have debated it for a week, since it would involve our moving to a different city.

"And we have two boys, aged 9 and 11, who are very well adjusted to their school here.

"They have a lot of good playmates in the neighborhood, too, and have excellent teachers in their school. They have never attended any other school, either, so I don't know how they'd react to changing to an entirely strange social environment.

"Is it worth $50 a month to the personality of our sons for us to stay put, or could they readjust to a new neighborhood?"

This dilemma faces many parents each year. The majority of them have no choice, for they must either move where their work takes them, or be out of a job entirely.

In such cases, be doubly considerate of the emotional shock to your youngsters and try to help them make friends very quickly in the new neighborhood.

If you have an "only" child or if your youngsters are rather shy, a move to a different neighborhood and a new school can seriously affect their school grades as well as their happiness.

So all parents should think more about the social environment of their youngsters, than about the quick arrangement of their furniture in the new abode.

If need be, leave your household goods in the packing crates, but go forth with your child to help him make friends in the neighborhood.

And concoct any flimsy excuse to have quick parties in your home so your boy or girl can make friends rapidly.

Call the first one a "house warming" party. Within a few days, throw another party as a "get acquainted" event.

Don't wait for birthdays or other formal occasions. Every hour that your child remains friendless in the new neighborhood will further terrify and intimidate him.

So work fast and diligently to see that he is soon on familiar terms with a few pals. Join the local P-T-A and get active therein at once. Attend church your FIRST Sunday, too, and get your youngsers into Sunday School, Boy Scouts, etc.

Mrs. Crane and I have remained residents of the same house here in Chicago for the past 18 years largely so our five youngsters could all attend the same grammar school and then South Shore High School.

As an educator, I have often been called into cases where children became neurotic and began dropping in their grades just because of being uprooted from a friendly home environment because their Daddy had to move.

In Patrick's case, I realize that a $50 per month salary increase is tempting. If his budget needs that addition, then he should explain the matter fully to the boys.

And when they reach the new city, their assimilation into the social life of their new pals should be the Number One Problem.

Such a transition can be made, without too much danger but parents must be fully aware of the seriousness of the situation. Moving children from one school to another is a major crisis. So cushion the shock by deliberate planning.

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

International News Service

Like all sidewalk superintendents Harry is wearing his three-dimensional alarm-viewers. He's afraid everything is going to be all right.

That kind of stuff is no fresher than smoked herring in the attic.

They started it when Washington was lead-off man at a time when the cotton was knee-high to a rustle in the weeds.

George was the total choice of the 13 primeval colonies. So his political enemies broached the rumor he wanted to be dictator. Whereupon he nixxed a third term and retired on the interest of his memories.

This off-key rapping is an old political expediency utilized by the outs to break up a happy home the long way. Harry doesn't forget the GOP had him in the deep fat for many a year.

Harry says the honeymoon is over. We have a strong solution of suspeicion that he wants to be the best man at the divorce proceedings.

The Democratic buzz-mongers did a corrosive job on Herbert Hoover. The GOP dirt-contractors worked Franklin Roosevelt over against the grain. When the outs do their worst it's politics at its best.

Best Prevention or Cure of Beriberi Is to Increase Daily Vitamin B Complex

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

I like to refer occiasionally to the function of the receptaculum chylae or the beauty of the panniculus adiposus.

It is indeed regrettable, but in order to make time in a medical practice one has to employ these aids to quiet some patients.

But now that we understand each other we can omit the imposing language and say that the following complaints characterize American beriberi:

Legs tired, weak heavy stiff.

Peculiar sensations in feet and legs — burning of soles, numbness of calf, sudden smarting or stinging sensations here and there.

Calf muscles are tender when squeezed in the hand. Sometimes areas of the skin over the shins are anesthetic—insensitive to pin pricks.

The legs, as patients complain, almost or quite "give out" before the day's work is over or when the patient walks a mile or more.

Along with leg weakness there is generally more or less weakness of the heart as manifest by panting or breathlessness on slight exertion, rapid pulse, palpitation.

Distention or unusual prominence of veins in neck and arms.

Because few physicians in America recognize beriberi when well-to-do persons have it, cases have been wrongly diagnosed as tabes dorsalis (locomotor ataxia), muscular "rheumatism" (whatever that may be), progressive muscular atrophy and hookworm infestation.

In any case of beriberi, oriental or American, severe or moderate, the main cause is long-continued or habitual vitamin B-1 deficiency, though deficiencies of other vitamins of the B group are contributing causes.

Therefore the best prevention and, if degeneration has not gone too far, the cure of beriberi is simple: Boop (that is, up, raise, increase) the daily intake of vitamin B complex.

Not for a few days or weeks, but for at least three or four months, as a test to determine whether marked improvement in the patient's condition follows.

If so, then the daily intake of B complex should be kept at optimal level for at least a year—optimal meaning two or three times as much as nutrition authorities deem essential to prevent manifestations of nutritional deficiency.

Constitutional Rights Didn't Help This Time

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP) — Hobert Foster, 40, lost a game of hide and seek with vice squad detectives here after he stood on his constitutional rights.

The detectives went to Foster's home to check a report that whiskey was being bootlegged. Foster who met them at the door, reminded the officers that he "knew his rights" and that they had to have a search warrant.

The detectives hid around the corner until Foster came out the back door with a bushel basket full of whiskey bottles. The detectives grabbed a bottle and arrested Foster.

'Long' Memory Fails at Important Time

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Jack Kogut, a wrestler who doubles in glass behind a bar here, is trying to forget about his memory.

And his sister only smiles at the oldie about a needle in a haystack. The sister, newlywed Mrs. Estelle Lake of Los Angeles, passed through Salt Lake on her honeymoon, hoping to find her brother whom she hadn't seen in 12 years. Arriving, her husband grew thirsty for a beer. So the pair stopped at —the bar Kogut was working in.

Mrs. Lake recognized her brother right away.

Hospital Group Advises Visitors on How to Behave

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UP)—Worried by the strain put on both patient and hospital staff by large numbers of visitors, the American Hospital Association has made this list of suggestions for those who go to the hospital to visit a friend or relative:

1. Look good. The patient likes to have other patients and the nurses admire his friends. Besides, he's tired of looking at white gowns.

2. Be prompt. It's depressing for a bedridden person to hear footsteps approach his door—and then go right past it, especially if he knows the visiting hour has arrived.

3. Use common sense in any gift you bring. Make sure the patient will like it, can use it, and that the doctors approve.

4. Don't tell the patient he looks awful. He knows that, and he wouldn't be flat on his back if he were in blooming health.

5. If there are more than one of you, sit on the same side of the bed—but not on the bed.

6. Don't smoke. There comes a time in the life of the heaviest tobbaco-addict when he doesn't want to smell the stuff, and this may be it.

7. Come in full of news. The patient feels isolated and tidbits of news, especially if they concern him, are most welcome.

8. Don't ask for a detailed report on the accident or sickness. Many persons are quite willing to talk and will do so endlessly. Others would rather say nothing.

9. Don't tell your worries to the patient. He's not in a position to walk away.

10. Skip the belly-shaking humor until the patient is able to enjoy it without straining his stitches.

The association added that the act of visiting is more appreciated than the length of stay, and a visit after returning home is even more welcome.

Prefers Dad to Honor

WICHITA, Kan. (UP)—Selection of his father from Kansas highway patrolmen to attend the National Police Academy didn't impress Michael Rush, 7. When Mrs. Allen C. Rush began packing her husband's clothes for his three-month stay in Washington, D. C., she could find no underwear. Finally young Mike admitted he had hidden the garments. He didn't want his dad to go away.

College Trains Plant Personnel

Wittenberg, Industries Develop Program for Mutual Benefit

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (UP) — Wittenberg College and local industry agree that a novel experiment started in 1951 of sending management men to school proves the adage: "You're never too old to learn."

The Management Development Program, entering its third year this autumn at Wittenberg, offers a 40-hour program to supervisory personnel from industral plants of all descriptions in this vicinity.

Clarence C. Stoughton, president of the 107-year-old Lutheran college, explained that the unique program grew out of conversations two years ago between him and industrial leaders.

Wittenberg, facing a deficit in its operating budget, sought the aid of Springfield industry which was beset with a shortage of management personnel.

Stoughton and the industrialists devised a $125,000 annual scheme to college-train men from industry for the mutual benefit of town-and-gown.

During the first two years, there were some 1,100 factory foremen and first-line supervisors who left their jobs for a week to go back to school.

The experimental program is expanding, with news from Wittenberg that it has just signed a contract with the Williams Manufacturing Co. of Portsmouth, Ohio, 115 miles from Springfield, at the request of that firm.

Wittenberg faculty members will travel to Portsmouth each week for 12 fall sessions to prove to 30 foremen that they are not too old to go to school.

Marksman Shown Up by Stone-Hurling Wife

HADDAM, Conn. (UP) — Gaston Schreiber, who has medals attesting his prowess as a rifle marksman, prefers not to talk about it in the presence of Mrs. Schreiber.

Schreiber operates a large chicken farm, with occasional losses to foraging foxes.

One evening Schreiber saw a gray fox slinking through the edge of a woods near one of his chicken houses. He shot his rifle and blazed away several times. The fox, unharmed, disappeared into the woods.

Next night, the fox came back. Mrs. Schreiber spotted it, picked up a stone and without even a warmup, delivered a fast pitch. It conked the fox between the eyes, knocking it cold. Then she finished off the animal with a club.

Bull in Sheep's Clothes to Keep Warm in Winter

ROCKY HILL, Conn. (AP)—Come winter, Pinky will be a bull in sheep's clothing. Pinky was born without hair, something that happens to one bull out of every 100,000. Experts say he will be hairless for good.

Said its owner, Harry Hayes: "We are planning to have a sheepskin coat made for him for the winter. He certainly can't go out in the cold like that."

Installed as worthy patron and worthy matron were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harris.

System to Link Stations, Trucks

State Must Authorize Plan; Cost Estimated at $2,399

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—The Township Board Tuesday gave its approval for installing a modern radio communications system for the Township Fire Department.

Fire stations and fire trucks in the township will be linked by radio, subject to state approval.

The fire station at Keego Harbor will be used as a sending station for communicating with both the Westacres and the Walnut Lake stations.

Estimated cost of the project is $2,399.70. A contract for the equipment was awarded, with the money to come from budget funds. The radios will be placed in operation when licensed by the state and call letters are selected.

Two regular firemen will be on duty at all times to handle the operation of the radio system.

The board also voted to authorize Police Chief William Van Meter to employ a third police officer in order to provide around-the-clock protection.

It was also voted to deposit the sum of $2,500 with the Oakland County Road Commission for small township road improvements as directed by Supervisor H. M. Thatcher.

Frank Price was denied a permit for a used car lot at the corner of Green Lake road and Pontiac trail.

YOUTHFUL CANDIDATES—Shown above inspecting one of the crowns that will adorn the heads of the king and queen of Auburn Heights School Fall Festival are candidates Norman Williams, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Williams of 2280 Woodale, Pontiac; and Karen Henderson, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Henderson of 3107 Lincoln, Auburn Heights. Shown with them are Edward Jadwin of Auburn Heights, athletic director of the school, and Mrs. H. L. Metcalf of Rochester, one of the teachers.

The fair, which will feature a midway, floor show, movies, spook house and fish pond, will open at 7 p. m. tomorrow. The king and queen will be crowned at 10 p. m. ceremonies. Proceeds from the event will be divided between the school PTA and the athletic department.

Firm May Build Plant in Milford

Village Council Votes to Provide Right-of-Way to Proposed Site

MILFORD — A Detroit dental supply firm may build a plant in Milford, it was disclosed at a village council meeting this week.

The lawmakers unanimously voted to provide a street right-of-way in the event the company buys the five-acre tract west of the railroad now owned by the village.

The firm's only objection to the land purchase was that the only route to the site was across the steep rail embankment on West Liberty street.

The proposed plant would employ some 125 persons.

Commissioners pointed out that the entire project was in the tentative stage and no definite action had been taken by the firm.

'Jane' Presented to Big Crowds by Avon Players

ROCHESTER—Large audiences attended performances of "Jane," a comedy presented by the Avon Players during the weekend.

The play, directed by Averyl Clute with Gertrude Everhard assisting, was the opening performance of the season by the group. Others are under production.

Leads were taken by Louise Akers, Gordon Miller, Dorothy Sieffert, Don Harness, Sally McClelland and Karl Seiffert. The supporting cast included Bill McClelland, Phyllis Mitzelfeld and George Germaine.

Stage settings were prepared by Clair Magoon, Charles Maitrott, Beverly Mallory and their committees.

County Deaths

Anne Ellen Ashby

AUBURN HEIGHTS — Rosary will be recited tomorrow at 8 p. m. for Anne Ellen Ashby, 41, of 212 S. Squirrel Rd., and Requiem Mass will be sung Saturday at 10 a. m. at Sacred Heart Church. Graveside service will be at 1 p. m. in Sacred Heart Cemetery at Yale

A nurse at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital for several years, she died Wednesday in a Detroit hospital.

Surviving are a daughter, Marilyn at home; two sons, Richard at Notre Dame University, and Robert at home; a sister, Mrs. Rita Ramsey of Oregon; and five brothers, Harold Cogley and James burn Heights, Charles of Ortonville and Phillip of Maryland.

Thomas Daniel

UTICA — Service for Thomas Daniel, 79, of 909 E. Maple, Clawson, former Utica resident, will be Saturday at 2 p.m. from Schwartzkoff Funeral Home, Utica. He died Wednesday after a lengthy illness.

Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. Clara McCullouch of Colo., Mrs. Ola Scott of Birmingham, Mrs. Jewell Fry of Washington, Mrs. Anita Scott of Rochester and Mrs. Winona Mulliken of Berkley; two sons, Harry of Rochester and Fred of Tennessee; 17 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Gertrude M. Wells

ORTONVILLE — Prayer service for Mrs. Jay (Gertrude M.) Wells, 65, of 167 South St., will be at 8 tonight from the C. F. Sherman Funeral Home. Funeral will be 2:30 p. m. Saturday at Sullivan and Son Funeral Home, Royal Oak, with burial in Royal Oak Cemetery.

Mrs. Wells died yesterday after a long illness. She is survived by her husband.

Arrest Four Youths in Disarming Case

HOWELL — Four Fowlerville youths accused of overpowering a policeman who stopped them for speeding were held in Livingston County jail today.

All four were taken into custody Wednesday. They are Lloyd Stearns, 25; Eugene Tefft, 18; Bill Springer, 21, and Eli Bradley Jr., 17.

Authorities did not say what charges they planned to file against the four, who were the object of a statewide search.

The youths were accused of disarming Fowlerville Patrolman Larry Detroiter early Wednesday. He stopped them after receiving word from Howell police that they had been involved in a minor traffic accident and eluded officers in a wild chase along country roads.

Toastmasters Present Program at Clarkston

CLARKSTON — Flying Toastmasters of Pontiac Y Toastmasters Club staged a model toastmaster's meeting before members of Clarkston Rotary Club here Monday night.

Arthur Canon acted as toastmaster for the evening. John Hirlinger spoke on "Toastmasters Unmasked." Sid Siegel spoke on "What Toastmasters Has Done for Me." And George Crabtree spoke on the topic "Should Business Men Be Responsible for All Civil Improvements."

Party Fund-Raising Drive Set for Rochester Monday

ROCHESTER—A fund drive, to sponsor a Halloween party for some 2,000 Rochester children, will get under way here Monday.

Under the sponsorship of Rochester Kiwanis, the drive will also provide funds for care of underprivileged children in the area, one of the Kiwanians' main projects.

Club members will make a house-to-house canvass in their sale of flares, according to Darrell Bordine, flare committee chairman.

Additional funds for the parties will be provided by the village and Avon Township.

Parties in all Rochester schools are scheduled to begin at 4:15 and continue through 10 p. m. when older groups will be treated to dancing in the high school gym.

Although some schools in surrounding areas will have their own parties, food will be provided by the Kiwanis, according to Jack Mitzelfield and George Ennis, party committee chairmen.

Democrats to Hear Williams' Tax Ideas

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP—Marvin Tableman, executive secretary to Gov. G. Mennen Williams, will present the governor's views on tax reform before Southwest Oakland County Democratic Club members Saturday.

For the quarterly meeting of the group, the speech has been scheduled at 8:30 p.m. in Union Lake School at the corner of Union Lake and Commerce Rds.

George Heliker of Farmington, chairman, has invited the public to hear Tableman, who is a former member of University of Michigan Economics Department.

An informal discussion period will follo wthe address and refreshments will be served.

Seek 300 Pints in Blood Drive

Red Cross Unit to Be in Rochester for 3 Days Next Month

ROCHESTER — Village residents will be asked to give 300 pints of their blood when the Red Cross Bloodmobile returns to Rochester next month.

Three appearances of the bloodmobile are scheduled. On Nov. 6 donations will be received at St. Andrews Church from 8 a. m. to 2 p. m.

The blood unit is slated for two days at the National Twist Drill and Tool Co. Donations can be made Nov. 12 from 2 to 8 p. m. and on Nov. 13 from 8 a. m. to 2 p. m.

Mrs. Russell W. Nowels, chairman of the blood bank program, said there is an urgent need for blood donations here because local banks, such as St. Andrew's Church, Auburn Heights Lions Club members' Club and the Lions Club, have drawn heavily from theirs.

An appeal is being made for 50 local women to help in telephoning prospective donors. Mrs. Nowels said anyone wishing to help should call OL 1-7581 or call Mrs. Lowell Fairchild, OL 2-0161.

Orchard Lake Church Marks 10th Birthday

ORCHARD LAKE — Community Presbyterian Church members here are planning an observance of the church's 10th anniversary this weekend.

Tomorrow, members will serve a Harvest Home dinner at 5:30 p. m. Color movies of church highlights during the past decade will also be shown.

Sunday, at 9:30 and 11 a. m. services, charter members will receive recognition. At 8 p. m., a program of sacred music has been scheduled.

Members of the congregation have announced that the two events are open to the public.

Electa OES Elects Officers at Holly

HOLLY — Mrs. Wilbur Anderson this week was elected worthy matron of Electa Chapter, OES, at Holly.

Also named was Clarence Stewart, worthy patron.

Others elected were Mrs. Wilma Bendle, associate matron; Winston DeMode, associate patron; Mrs. Melvin Bendle, conductress; Mrs. Robert Duckerling, associate conductress; Mrs. Pearle Gordon, secretary; and Mrs. Margaret Peterson, treasurer.

Holly Mother Hears of GI Son's Death

HOLLY — Mrs. Nora Bailey of Holly has received word from Army headquarters that her son, Sgt. Charles V. Bailey, "is reported to have died in a prisoner of war camp on Jan. 22, 1951."

Accompanying the report is a letter from Maj. William Bergin which states that the information is based on the statement of one man who says Bailey died of malnutrition on the above date. This comrade had known Bailey for six months or more, says that he saw him die and helped bury him.

Bailey was captured by the Red forces in Korea in July 1950, and has not since been heard from. After serving two years in the Army he had re-enlisted in August 1949.

Rochester Garden Club Holding Bridge Parties

ROCHESTER—Ways and means committee of the Rochester Garden Club are holding a series of bridge benefits at the homes of members to raise funds for the club scholarship fund.

First of three benefits was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Harry B. Littel, 155 Glendale. Mrs. James Arcure is chairman of the committee.

The U. S. geological survey estimates there are 14 billion tons of soft coal in Arizona, little of which has been developed for mining.

Rochester Relief Corps to Hold Fair, Bazaar

ROCHESTER —Women's Relief Corps will hold its annual fair and bazaar tomorrow and Saturday in the Webber store. Hours are from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. both days.

Mrs. George Lindsey is general chairman assisted by Mrs. Emma Price, aprons; Mrs. Carrie Lockwood, needlework; Mrs. Reuben Johnson, candy; and Wilma Thomson, baked goods.

Plan Group at Rochester Approves Subdivision Plat

ROCHESTER — The first plat of a subdivision inside the village since 1949 was approved by the Rochester Area Planning Commission this week.

A street scheme, submitted by Detroit developers, was approved for the area known as Brentwood Park south of First street.

The area is a continuation of Alice and Helen streets and will be zoned single family residential.

Also approved by the commission was a preliminary plat submitted for the area at Livernois and Pontiac roads known as Townsend Farms.

In its resolution, which will be sent to the Township Board, the commission approved the plat on the condition that lot sizes in the residential area be increased.

Also recommended was that the area should be continued to be considered for a possible school site.

The commission turned down a proposed plat in Oakland Township on Adams road. The developer asked that frontage on Adams road be zoned from agricultural to commercial.

Glacier national park comprises an area of 1,754 square miles.

Odor of Burning Leaves Recalls Severe Winters

NEW YORK (INS) — A cool breeze shot through the house the other day, bearing with it a vagrant whiff of burning leaves. It brought back a lot of memories, chiefly one about preparing for school and the old winters in Washington, D. C.

Something has happened to winters in my time. It probably sounds incredible to children now growing up in the Middle Atlantic section of the country, but we used to have things like snow, and sleet, and great lance-like icicles, and kids smothered in mufflers, and tremendous rides on icy hills—with a joker standing at the bottom of the hill beckoning us on, right in front of a street car.

In the Swampoodle neighborhood of Washington, where I lived, it was considered snobbish to go in much for heat. About the only investment the average family made in the fall, against the rigors of the coming winter, was when the old man put in a half ton of coal and brought home some fresh little squares of isinglass—a plastic-like substance made out of the bladders of sturgeon—to replace the little windows in the latrobe.

But, by gosh, we sure dressed against the cruel winter. And that was sometimes painful.

My mother would take me to a department store, usually a neighborhood place with the proprietor in back, and we'd stock up; usually a pair of long underwear with cavernous drop-seat, brown corduroy knickers, a stiff blue-serge suit for Sunday, long black stockings, and some kind of shoes built to survive flood, earthquak,e the aforementioned winters, and the rigors of recess time at St. Aloysius Grammar School.

The mortification of having a suit of long underwear held up against you, not to be sure it would fit but that it was big enough to allow for shrinking, was pretty fierce if there were beautiful neighborhood belles hanging around. But it was a part of growing up, and, all in all, I never had it better.

And speaking of growing up, the recent day that odor of burning leaves went through the house it was accompanied by a ripping sound, indicating (alas) that our kids were trying on their last year's school clothes. At the rate our moppets are growing, they will stand somewhat over 770 feet tall at the age of 21.

So off we went down Fifth Avenue, looking for a nice friendly store with the proprietor in back. One looked especially nice and in we trooped, four abreast.

"Mr. Rogers here?" I boomed, hearty as Howard Lindsay in "Life With Father."

"Dead, you know," a nice man said.

"Harummm. . . well, what about Mr. Peet?"

"Gone to his reward, too," the man said with a solemn sigh.

But a Mr. Rifenberg took over, and in a short time I knew that the day of the held-up long underwear and the corduroys and the stiff blue serge and other Spartan choices is as dead as, let's say, the saintly founders.

A boy today is shown suits in blue or gray wool flannel, tweeds in herringbones, diagonals and houndstooth checks — in grays, browns and blues. He has his choice of an infinite variety of sports jackets, and flannel slacks in blue, eight shades of gray, or covert in natural and tan, or corduroy in blue or gray. And neckties the old man will steal, reversing the hallowed practice.

And dress shirts with button down collars in white broadcloth or oxford, and sports shirts in wool or cotton come in every pattern and color combination imaginable.

For outdoor today a kid can latch on to a storm coat with mouton collar, made in blue or brown gabardine, or a reversible jacket of garardine on one side and wool on the other, coming in many color combinations. There are tartans and checks in this line, and our kids liked something in a startling orange that would bring near-sighted motorists to a screeching stop, and would have started a rock-throwing riot in old Swampoodle, I'm afraid.

As Walter Huston used to say, it's a long, long time. . .

Alarming Development

COLCHESTER, Conn. (UP) — Directors of a bank had a few anxious moments during a meeting when state police converged upon the building after a burglar alarm went off. But when it turned out to be a false alarm all were relieved — even the director who had accidentally touched it off.

Sea Plays Role in Fake Pearls

Like Real Gems, They Owe Their Beauty to Ocean Creatures

WASHINGTON — Pearls on a costume jewelry counter may be artificial, but like real ones, their gem qualities come from the sea.

True pearls are manufactured by oysters or mussels. Artificial pearls are glass or plastic beads coated with essence d'orient — pearl essence—made from the silvery scales of small fish.

Before World War II, the scales used came from the bleak, a slender little carp found in the rivers of Europe. Since the war, the industry has found a way to use herring scales as well.

Young herring from the Bay of Fundy have been diverted from the breakfast table to artificial pearl factories in nearby Maine and Canada. Similarly, part of the Norwegian herring catch goes to a Norwegian factory which can produce 12,000 necklaces, earrings and bracelets a week.

Artificial pearls can be good copies in color and shape, but they invariably lack ture pearl luster. Real luster comes from light relected and refracted by many layers of iridescent nacre, products of years of oyster labor.

When they are manufacturing pearls, oysters are intent upon comfort, not necklaces. Finding a foreign object within their shells, they cover it with smooth nacre to prevent irritation.

The first fine imitation pearl produced in Western Europe was made in the 17th Century by Jacquin, a rosary maker of Paris. Coating the inner surface of a thin, opalescent glass sphere first with parchment sizing, then with pearl essence, he filled the hollow middle with white wax.

His product and the imitation-pearl business it inspired did not disturb the natural pearl industry, but the world gem market almost went into a panic in the 1920's when Japan began to export cultured pearls in quantity. Fortunately experts found ways, including x-ray, to tell the difference between the wholly natural and the cultured products.

To stimulate the formation of a cultured pearl, the culturist merely puts a small object into the shell of an oyster or mussel and lets the bivalve do the rest. But so onerous and expensive is the process that the Japanese have no competitors outside their country today.

'Foolish Job' Lasts for Quarter Century

NEW YORK (UP)—Her friends thought she was just plain foolish to take a job in an industry that was sure to collapse, Gerry Lister recalled with a smile.

She took a chance, as secretary to an executive of an airway. Now she's one of the few women veterans in the industry.

"We only had two planes and two pilots on regular commercial runs then," Gerry explained. "They flew 90 miles from Key West to Havana." She just passed the 25-year mark with the company.

She learned to fly in 1930 and was the 250th woman to hold a U. S. pilot's license. "Now," she says with a shudder, "I look at those crates we used to fly and wonder how I had the nerve."

Names that have since become famous were frequent visitors to her office in those early days.

Charles Lindbergh, Frank Hawks and Rosecoe Turner were young pilots who used to stop by when Gerry was typing her first letters.

Canadian Island Getting Bridge

Historic Cape Breton Will Have Causeway to Mainland

WASHINGTON — The Canso Causeway, projected first land link between Cape Breton Island and the rest of Nova Scotia, may be ready for road and rail traffic next year.

Hitherto all traffic has crossed the narrow Strait of Canso by ferry, reports the National Geographic Society. The first of these was established in 1883. But from January to April each year, boat schedules were sometimes interrupted by ice in the Strait.

The ever-increasing importance of Cape Breton Island both as vacationland and seat of industry dictated construction of the $22,800,000 causeway.

Highlands National Park, covering 390 square miles on the northern end of the island, may receive as many as 35,000 visitors a year. Mines in the Sydney area, some of them extending four miles out under the Atlantic Ocean, annually produce 5,000,000 tons of coal. Part is used in huge nearby iron and steel mills.

As from the very beginning, fishing is a major Cape Breton industry. Fish may have attracted Norse sea rovers who knew about the island as early as the 10th Century. Basque fishermen may have given it its name 100 years before Columbus discovered America. John Cabot claimed it in 1497 for England.

After the American Revolution, settlers poured in from the highlands of Scotland. Their descendants still speak Gaelic and keep alive the tradition of the Highland Games. A few islanders descend from the Acadians, whose expulsion from the Nova Scotian mainland in 1755 gave Henry Wadsworth Longfellow the theme for his poem "Evangeline."

Ancient Cape Breton has played its part in modern scientific discovery. At his Beinn Breagh estate, Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, experimented with airplanes, fast boats and agriculture.

The first successful Atlantic cable was landed at Cape North in 1867. The first airplane flight in the British Empire was made in 1909 over the lakes by J. A. D. McCurdy, who had worked with Dr. Bell. In 1902, a radio station on Cape Breton Island received the first wireless message transmitted from Europe.

Kill Devil Hill in North Carolina, where the golden anniversary of the first airplane flight is being celebrated in 1953, got its name according to legend, from a brand of rum so potent that it could "kill the devil."

BURNED—Leroy Branham, 13, was bandaged in this fashion by physicians after he was burned on the face and right arm when a neighbor's coal stove exploded when he was visiting them in Indianapolis.

Bread Makers Report Slump Due to Dieting

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UP) — Dieting is hurting the bread market, a bakery official says.

Fred H. Laufenburg, executive secretary of the Wisconsin Bakers' Association, says that in five years the drop in bread consumption of persons counting calories has caused 162 flour mills with aggregate output of 3,000,000 pounds daily to quit grinding.

Per capita flour consumption, he says, has fallen from 225 pounds a year 50 years ago to 130 pounds now. And store bread sales throughout the United States have slumped to 40,000,000 loaves a day. This is about five slices a person, compared with at least 10 in other days.

Laufenburg attributes the decrease to the fact that men as well as women are heeding medical statements that a fifth of the population is overweight. They are paying attention to the warnings of life insurance companies that death takes three times as many fat people as thin ones.

Proper eaters, bakers and millers report, count the calories but do not avoid any one source, the plump can buy special reducing breads.

It Only Rained Cats When Awning Fell

SALINA, Kan. (UP)—It didn't rain cats and dogs here—just cats.

During a shower, Barbara Crook, a restaurant employe, went outside and let the awning down. Six kittens promptly fell on her.

The mother cat apparently had tucked her family in the awning for shelter.

Pigeon Goes to Meeting . . . As Dove of Peace?

FORT PIERCE, Fla. (UP)—A pigeon made a recent county commission meeting one for the birds.

The careless pigeon attempted to alight on the roof and fell down the chimney, emerging in the county commission's meeting room.

The session was recessed while Chairman Harry Kiclite: chased it down and took it outside to freedom.

"I hope it was a dove of peace," commented the chairman.

Goats in Glacier Park Come Out for Movies

GLACIER, Mont. (UP)—Hundreds of Glacier National Park visitors strain their eyes without spotting many shy mountain goats. But the goats have been coming out this summer, although staying at a safe distance — to see movies being made.

An RKO camera crew has been shooting local background around Logan Pass for the "Glacier Story." The goats seem to watch every move on the picture-making below their rocks.

FAMILY SAVED BY PET — The sharp barking of a tiny family pet at 2 a.m. in the morning saved the lives of a Salt Lake City, Utah, family this week. All escaped the fire without injury. Here, five-year-old Kathy Anderson holds her salvaged doll and her little hero, "Taffy."

"YOU LIKE IT?"—Michael (Goody) Goodsell, 11, of 114 Moreland Ave. asks George Balch, Pontiac YMCA worker, for his opinion of a new project. Eager youngsters find useful projects can be fun through Pontiac Boys' Club, Pontiac YMCA and YWCA, Camp Fire Girls, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, and Oakland County's Town and Country YMCA. All the agencies, which help youngsters to learn that good accomplishments are more fun than lawless destruction, benefit from dollars donated to the 1953 Pontiac Area United Fund campaign.

Money to Help Varied Causes

Aids Local, State and National Social Service Organizations

Some 2,500 volunteers have started their drive to "knock at every door" — in factories, businesses and residential neighborhoods—in Pontiac Area United Fund's 1953 campaign.

Canvassers wi'l seek to raise $487,200 by Nov. 6 under leadership of Mayor Arthur J. Law, campaign chairman.

"Where does the money go?"

A dollar donated to the United Fund is split between 53 social agencies—local, state and nationwide. Some are the "rescue" type: The agencies which provide emergency food, clothing or shelter; sponsor medical aid for the needy, or conduct research and furnish care for persons stricken with certain diseases.

Others are the preventive kind, which sponsor programs to guide children into healthy, constructive habits.

The biggest share of the goal—some $289,200—will go to Community Chest agencies.

These include Clinton Valley Council Boy Scouts; Northern Oakland Council, Girl Scouts; Pontiac Boys' Club; Pontiac Council, Camp Fire Girls; Catholic Family Center, Family Service of Oakland County, and Michigan Children's Aid Society.

Others are Pontiac Day Nursery, Salvation Army, Urban League, Visiting Nurse Association, Pontiac YMCA and YWCA, and Pontiac Child Guidance Clinic.

Another $47,000 is earmarked for Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross, which has canceled its spring drive to join completely in the united appeal.

Other local benefit agencies are North Oakland Chapter, American Cancer Society, in for $7,000; St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Clinic, $4,300; Oakland County YMCA, $1,700, and West Bloomfield Township Community Chest, $2,500.

Another $25,000 of campaign funds is set aside for United Health and Welfare Fund of Michigan.

This state organization includes Leader Dogs for the Blind, Michigan Association for Better Hearing, Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation, and Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Other state organizations are Michigan Epilepsy Center, Heart Association, Society for Mental Health, Welfare League, United Cerebral Palsy Association and two special funds to help the state United Fund carry on its work.

National services include the United Defense Fund, with its USO services, Camp Shows, Inc., Relief for Korea, Recreation Association, Social Hygiene Association, United Community Defense Services and United Seamen's Service.

Other national services include the Association for Mental Health, Child Labor Committee, Federation of Settlements and Neighborhood Centers, League for Nursing, Legal Aid Association, Probation and Parole Association, Social Welfare Assembly, Travelers Aid Association and National Urban League.

American Hearing Society, Big Brothers of America, Child Welfare League, Family Service Association International Social Service and Roscoe B. Jackson Memorial Laboratory are other agencies.

Then there are special funds of $26,500 to provide for Pontiac area emergency needs and $46,000 to guard against pledge losses. A $27,000 fund will pay local United Fund staff salaries and $11,000 will pay for campaign costs and supplies.

Holohan Suspect Called 'Playboy'

Witness Says Accused GIs Lived Well After Death of Commander

NOVARA, Italy (AP)—Far behind the enemy lines in wartime, former Lt. Aldo Icardi of Pittsburgh, Pa., turned into a playboy, wining and dining Italian signorinas after the mysterious murder of his commander, a witness testified today.

Maria Simonetta, middle-aged custodian of the villa hideout of Icardi and former Sgt. Carl Lo Dolce of Rochester, N. Y., testified that after the 1944 death of Maj. William Holohan of New York City, Icardi and Lo Dolce "started entertaining on a large scale."

"They offered big dinners and there were young women coming and going all the time," she told the Italian court which is trying the two Americans in absentia for complicity in the death of Holohan. Holohan was murdered while leading an office of strategic services mission in North Italy.

Another witness, Angela Rizzoli, 35, identified in previous testimony as an intimate friend of Icardi's, told the court the two soldiers "like a good time."

Holohan's anti-communism was brought into testimony again today. The prosecution is trying to prove that this was a reason for his murder.

The Rev. Giovanni Bandoni, a Roman Catholic priest who worked closely with the partisans, said Holohan was a "fervent Catholic and strongly anti-Communist."

The priest testified that frequently Holohan expressed concern over the fact that the majority of the partisans were Communists.

He seemed "to be mostly preoccupied with the possibility of a Red revolution after the war to gain power (in Italy). In my opinion, that preoccupation was the reason why he did not want to send arms to the (Communist) partisans," Father Bandoni said.

Negro Gets Parole Board Appointment---1st in State

JACKSON (AP)—The first Negro in Michigan's history today held an appointment to the State Parole Board.

Leonard R. McConnell, 36, case work supervisor at the Boys' Vocational School at Lansing for more than seven years, was named to the $9,000 a year post by the State Corrections Commission.

Holding its second meeting since it took over direction of the state penal system Oct. 2 at Southern Michigan Prison, the commission filled three other vacancies.

William Eardley, parole supervisor at Grand Rapids, was named acting assistant director in charge of pardons and paroles; E. H. Haight, manager of the Michigan State Industries, was made assistant director in charge of prison industries, and Fred C. Bates, state probation supervisor, was appointed assistant direct for probation.

The post of assistant in charge of the youth program was left vacant pending a commission study of the new youth program.

McConnell holds degrees from Lincoln University and Indiana University. He is the father of four children.

He holds the parole board position provisionally until confirmed by state civil service or "bumped" if another contender scores higher than he on coming competitive examinations.

Balanced Budget Can't Be Predicted

WASHINGTON (AP)—W. Randolph Burgess, deputy to Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey, says he can't say whether the budget will be balanced next year because "this goes back to what is done in the defense department and to the broad world situation."

Burgess, in a talk here yesterday, said there has been no change in the Eisenhower Administration's goal of a balanced budget and "hard money" policy.

He said the danger of deflation is now greater than that of inflation, but added that there has been a "completely misleading . . . wave of publicity in the past two weeks on the general theme that the policies of this administration have been completely reversed."

Ready Essays on Democracy

High School Students in Pontiac, Waterford Enter Jaycee Contest

Tenth through 12th grade students at Pontiac High School and Waterford High School are busy this week preparing entries for the seventh annual "Voice of Democracy" contest sponsored by the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Students will submit five-minute radio scripts on the topic "What Democracy Means to Me," according to Robert C. Miller, Jaycee chairman for the affair.

Three winners will be picked at each school, Miller said, and their speeches will be recorded for area judging on Oct. 27.

Prizes will be awarded at the Nov. 9 Jaycee meeting, and the top-ranking contestant will have his speech transcribed for rebroadcast at the state contest in Lansing.

State winner will receive a college scholarship and his speech will be entered in nation-wide Jaycee-sponsored competition.

Adenauer Lacks Hope for Parley

If Reds Refuse Nov. 9 Big 4 Talk Offer, Plan to Be Dropped

BONN, Germany (UP)—German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said today the West has almost exhausted its efforts to woo Russia into Big Four peace talks.

He warned that the Kremlin will end the cold war only when it realizes it cannot grab control of Western Europe.

In an interview, Adenauer said he doubted whether British Prime Minister Winston Churchill could produce worthwhile results by making a personal trip to Moscow.

"I am convinced that one should not attempt to use means that are hopeless in advance," Adenauer said. "That only strengthens the position of the other side and makes them think we are crawling after them."

Adenauer said he most certainly would not go to Moscow himself to try to reach a direct agreement with the Russians.

The 77-year-old chancellor expressed belief that if the Russians reject the latest Western invitation to a Big Four conference at Lugano on Nov. 9, the West would drop further attempts to bring them into cold war talks.

"I believe the latest note will be the last one if the reply is negative," Adenauer said.

"There is no point in continuing to chase after them. We merely hurt our own objective of reaching an understanding with the Russians."

Throughout the intervicew, the veteran German statesman stressed constantly his firm conviction that a cold war agreement with the Russians will be possible only when they realize the West, particularly the United States, is too strong for them.

Adenauer was optimistic, however, that there would not be a shooting war.

6 Michiganders to Be Tried

Alleged Commie Leaders Face U.S. Court Tuesday

(This is the first of a two-part series on the trial, next Tuesday, of six Michigan persons accused of teaching and advocating the violent overthrow of the United States government.)

By ROGER GOELZ

DETROIT (AP) — The Justice Department's crackdown on Communists moves to Detroit next Tuesday for the trial of six alleged Michigan Communist party leaders accused of violating the Smith Act.

The six Michigan persons, all Detroiters, are charged with violating the Smith Act by teaching and advocating the violent overthrow of the United States government.

The defendants, Mrs. Helen Winter, wife of former Michigan Communist Party leader Carl Winter; Saul Wellman, top Michigan party leader; Nathan Kaplan (Nat Ganley), 48, former editor of the Michigan edition of the Daily Worker; William Allan, 46, present Michigan correspondent of the Daily Worker; Philip Schatz, 39, former head of the Ford Motor Co. section of the Michigan Communist Party; and Thomas Dewitt Dennis Jr., rated by the FBI as a top Michigan party organizer, were indicted by a federal grand jury Sept. 22, 1952.

Federal Judge Frank A. Picard will hear the case before a jury to be selected on Tuesday.

Specifically the government will try to prove that the six defendants violated the Smith Act by unlawfully, wilfully and knowingly helping to organize the Communist Party as an instrument of advocating the violent overthrow of the government.

Wellman, Mrs. Winter, Allan and the other defendants have been cited for the following overt acts: Distributing Communist Party literature, helping to recruit members for the party, and attending Communist meetings.

They are named as co-conspirators with the top Communist leaders convicted in the New York trial.

The six defendants have been free on $7,500 bonds since their indictment. Mrs. Winter was reported to be in an Ann Arbor hospital for a physical checkup. Her attorney may later seek a separate trial for Mrs. Winter.

The six defendants have been termed "second-string" Communists by the government because their activities, as a whole, have been confined to Michigan.

But their trial has a top priority in Justice Department plans.

No Thanks for Kind Act; Death Takes Precedence

GRAND HAVEN (AP)— Friends and neighbors rushed to donate time and money repairing and redecorating the home of Peter De Vires, while he was in a Grand Rapids hospital with a broken leg.

The 76-year-old De Vries will never be able to thank them for their kindness. He died during the night. De Vries is survived by his sister who shared the home.

Fire Destroys Boston Bridge

Part of Dover Street Span Collapses; None Hurt in 4-Alarm Blaze

BOSTON (AP)—The Dover Street Bridge, a principal span connecting the South Shore with downtown Boston over Fort Point Channel and New Haven Railroad tracks, was destroyed by fire early today.

A 50-foot section of the 965-foot-long bridge collapsed onto the railroad tracks in a blazing rubble of cement, steel and timbers.

The falling span tore away a fire alarm cable and telephone and electric wires.

A large section of South Boston was without the use of fire alarm boxes for a number of hours. Extra police cars were pressed into service to patrol the area as fire watchers, alerted to radio fire headquarters in case of a fire.

In addition, fire officials asked all Boston radio stations to warn South Boston householders to telephone fire headquarters in the event of a blaze.

The direct line between police headquarters and the South Boston district station also was knocked out.

A number of doctors were sent to the scene when a fourth alarm was sounded but no one was reported injured.

Scout Groups Leave Friday on Motorcade

Clinton Valley Council Explorer Scouts leave tomorrow on a motorcade tour to Bay City, Grayling and Hale.

John E. Ostrander, chairman of the council's explorer committee, said the tour is the first of its kind ever to be sponsored by the council. Pontiac units already signed up include Explorer Posts 4, 13, and 56 and Ship No. 5.

The motorcade will stop at Bay City State Park Friday night and camp on the shore of Saginaw Bay.

Saturday, Explorers will visit the Michigan National Guard at Grayling and spend the night at Hartwick Pines State Park. A lumberjack campfire program is scheduled.

Dates Back to 1872

Highland---True to Name---Is One of County's Highest Locations

The business district is to the right of center and the schools at the uper left center. The white tracts are open fields or parking spaces. The Milford road parallels the railroad.

Located in the township of the same name, Highland, as its name implies, is on the highest tract of land in Oakland County, and is located within three miles of its west border.

It was first started as a community in 1871, when the Holly, Wayne & Monroe Railroad, now a part of the Chesapeake and Ohio system, was built through there.

Platted in 1872 the first store was opened in that year. The postoffice was moved there in 1874 fro Spring Mills, a short distance to the northeast. N. B. Babcock was the first postmaster.

Highland now has a substantial business section. It never has been incorporated as a village or city, and comes under the jurisdiction of the Highland Township Board.

Surrounded by a very fertile farming section that has little waste land, and is a big shipper of agricultural products.

With little local industry, most of its residents find employment at the General Motors Proving Grounds, with the county road commission, or in Pontiac, Milford and Holly factories.

Ike Thinks Press Treatment Fair

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower thinks he is getting fair and impartial treatment from the nation's reporters, White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said yesterday.

"By and large, the press of this country gives us very fair treatment," Hagerty told an MBS radio audience. "That's their job, and they usually do a good one."

Hagerty said Eisenhower regards as "part of the business" of being President critical barbs from some columnists and commentators.

New Church Forms

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — A new Reformed Church will be organized here under the guidance of Muskegon classes of the Reformed Church in America. The first service is scheduled Nov. 1.

Portland Miss One Up on Blushing Grandma

PORTLAND, Me. (UP) — Mrs. Charles W. Berry was in the habit of admonishing her four-year-old granddaughter, Andrea Beem, for putting her shoes on the wrond feet.

Andrea had her revenge in a crowded super-market when she exclaimed, "Nana, you're wearing a green shoe and a brown one!"

Mrs. Berry looked down and blushed as clerks and other shoppers slipped on mis-matched shoes in haste to get to the store.

Competitive Spirit Worst Foe of Fish

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (UP)— A Rutgers University scientist is out to prove that a spirit of competition is a fish's worst enemy.

Dr. James Ross Westman, in attempting to learn why fish sometimes bite and sometimes don't, used two large tanks, several mirrors, some hungry and not-so-hungry bass and a fishing pole in conducting daily "classes" in fish psychology.

Westman said he found that some fish always "bit" whether or not he stuffed the tanks with food. But almost all of them went for the pols, he nooted, when more fish were added and mirrors wre used to simulate still more fish.

He concluded that most of the fish tested were motivated by a spirit of competition which developed when the bass sensed the presence of competition.

Clean Up King Does Exactly That for GI

SCARBOROUGH, Me. (UP) — Jules Schwartz worried when an ex-GI bought a four-year-old baby racing horse from him named Clean Up King. The horse hadn't won the price of oats in the two seasons Schwartz, a New Yorker owned him.

Schwartz got to thinking it was a rough deal on the former soldier who was breaking into the horse business in a small way. So he offered to buy the horse back. But the former GI entered the bay at Scarborough Downs and clean Up King cleaned up in his first outing, paying $20.

Priest Works With Allergies

May Have Discovered New Way of Treating Sinus Irritations

SPOKANE, Wash. (UP) — A patient, thorough Jesuit priest who has worked the past three years in his basement laboratory, may have established a basis for revolutionizing the treatment of sinus irritations.

He is the Rev. Arthur L. McNeil, S. J., head of the chemistry department at Gonzaga University.

Regardless of your allergy— whether it's animal hairs, strawberries or hay fever — Father McNeil's work may be the beginning of new hope. Briefly, he has devised a new method for separating and identifying "allergens" which formerly have been inseparable.

Father McNeil makes no promises, but he hopes his classification of nitrogen protein molecules is the beginning of something.

Scientists long have know that such "allergens" are the cause of hay fever, but they have been forced to treat patients for several different proteins.

In other words, one of the big problems has been to isolate and classify the "allergens."

French Capture Red Stronghold

News Agency Reports Column Has Control of Indochina Town

PARIS (AP)—The French News Agency said today a French column has captured Phu Nho Quan, a stronghold of the Communist-led Vietminh 55 miles southwest of Hanoi.

The town was the last reported headquarters of the enemy's division No. 320.

The French launched one of their biggest land, sea and air offensives of the seven-year Indochina War a week ago in an effort to uproot and wipe out two key Vietminh divisions south of the vital Red River delta. Division 320 was reported at Phunho Quan, and Division 304 at Thanh Hoa, 30 miles further south.

The capture of Phy Nho Quan came as a surprise. Gen. Rene Cogny, French commander in northern Indochina, said only yesterday his prime objective was to engage the enemy forces.

"I hold no interest in the city of Thanh Hoa or the Vietminh base of Phu Nho Quan," he declared.

Chester Morris Is Star for Hemmingway Classic

By EVE STARR

HOLLYWOOD — CRITIC'S CORNER: "Omnibus" scored big in our book recently with Hemingway's classic "The Battlers."

The great story was challenged only by the Academy Award-caliber performance of Chester Morris as the prize-fighter, who, if we were granting Oscars for TV would get our nomination at least.

EVE STARR

Jack Palance, inked for this role, dropped out suddenly and this lucky casting brought back to prominence a fine actor who has been typed as a detective for too long.

NOSEY DEBUT: Jimmy Durante's opening TV appearance this season showed the lovable Schnozzola up to the same old tricks and songs.

Four gals weighing a thousand pounds collectively pranced into the living room and some corny routine dance steps, with Jimmy clowning in and out of the act.

John Wayne and Durante capered through some situations that couldn't have made the grade way back in the old Buster Keaton pie-throwing days.

Eddie Jackson and Jimmy put all their zip into a couple of songs, but what Jim needed was "a million of 'em" to put this effort on anyone's preferred list.

* * *

GHOSTLY DEBUT: The debut of "Topper," one of the better priced shows, presented some fine performers and performances in a by-now corny ectoplasmic production.

Ann Jeffreys and Robert Sterling play the slightly risque "blithe spirits," and excellently done, I might add.

The charming ghosts (the (Kirbys) fade into your living room (frightened by the annoying and distracting laugh track, no doubt) but, methinks, will fade out again before beautiful Ann Jeffreys (Kiss Me Kate) has a chance to sing.

STARR NEWS: Frankie Sinatra is tuning his pipes for a guest appearance on the Comedy Hour.

The Texas version of "People Are Funny," says emcee Art Linkletter, is "Millionaires Are Funny."

Detroit Radio Staff Man Dies After Car Crash

DETROIT (UP)—Donald Hendricks, 38-year-old staff announcer for radio station WXYZ, died early today of injuries he suffered in a traffic accident last Monday night, doctors at Deaconess Hospital reported.

Police said Hendricks was driving home from work when his car crashed into a concrete safety island. Officers said his injuries before death were too serious to permit questioning.

Motorists Not Jekyll-Hydes, Doctor Reports

CHICAGO (AP)—Does a man's personality undergo a change when he gets behind the wheel of a car?

Dr. Alan Canty, psychiatrist at Detroit's traffic clinic, gave his answer to that question yesterday.

It was a definite "no."

Dr. Canty set forth in a speech at the National Safety Congress:

"The chronic traffic violator is a social problem child. His traffic misbehavior is but a symptom of his personality maladjustment.

"The same factors which cause marital unhappiness, divorce and separations, frequent job changes, economic distress and unhealthy recreational activities contribute to his contempt for conventions and chronic defiance of traffic laws."

Dr. Candy said there are many mental and emotional misfits driving along the nation's streets and highways.

Weed Experiment Fails

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP)—Kansas State College experts had to give up on their experiments to find which chemicals kill crabgrass the quickest. The prolonged draught killed the crabgrass and there was none left for testing the chemicals.

Members of Carol Brooks Section, Needlework Guild, to Open Homes

Precedes Ingathering

Fall Party to Be Friday

Beginning at 1:30 Friday afternoon, members of the Carol Brooks Section of the Needlework Guild of America will open their homes for the annual fall party which the group sponsors preceding the Nov. 12 Ingathering.

Mrs. Robert Eldred, general chairman, has announced several members who will serve as hostesses for the party.

The North Rochester road home of Mrs. Glenn Brooks will be opened along with the West Iroquois road home of Mrs. James Corwin, and the Garland avenue home of Mrs. Carl Dahlgren.

Other gatherings will be held at the homes of Mrs. D. B. Eames of Cherokee road, Mrs. Ferdinand Gaensbauer of Illinois avenue, Mrs. Verne Hampton of Cherokee road, Mrs. William B. Hartman of Pitt road, and Mrs. H. L. VanHaltern of Erie drive.

Has Yule Workshop

West Side Home Demonstration Group met Wednesday for a Christmas workshop. Hostess for the occasion was Mrs. Guy Hackett of Nelson street. Mrs. Ward S. Newman of Liberty street will be hostess for the next meeting.

PTA Activities

Eastern Junior High

Executive board members and homeroom mothers of Eastern Junior High School PTA will meet Thursday at 1:30 in the school cafeteria.

Whitney WCTU Holds Meeting

Mrs. Joseph E. Green of Royal Oak, 18th District vice president of WCTU, was guest speaker at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the Dora B. Whitney WCTU held in the home of Mrs. John Little on Franklin road.

The topic of her speech was the convention held recently in Alpena and the convention theme, "Building for the Future." She reported that the highlight of the convention was the speech by the national president of WCTU, Mrs. Glenn G. Hays, entitled "J. Barleycorn's Boot in Uncle Sam's Door."

The speaker announced that films on WCTU work can be obtained for church showings by contacting Mrs. Ruth Losie of Port Huron.

Mrs. John Webb chose the topic "Why Not Use Trust, a Good Substitute for Worry" as her theme for devotions. The federation president, Mrs. Fred Stimer, announced the next federation meeting will be held Nov. 3.

Mrs. David Gee led the closing prayer and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Jaycees Give PTA Program

Discussion centered around school problems.

Committee reports were heard, and teachers and board members were introduced at the business meeting. Members of the 9A chorus entertained with musical selections and a Halloween party was announced for Oct. 31

Refreshments were served by Mrs. David Sherman, Mrs. James Card, Mrs. Thomas Reeling and Mrs. Val Murrish. Mrs. Loy Bennett and Mrs. Wesley Crowder poured.

Sophie's friends don't drop by to call on her as often as they used to. The living room is never Sophie's—even though Sophie is "the lady of the house." The living room is monopolized by Sophie's children, who either have the TV set turned on, or get between Sophie and her just to play a noisy game, or just spend their time heckling Sophie to let them do this or that.

Even though a living room belongs to a family—its adult members should be able to use it occasionally for their own entertaining.

Heart Disease, Ulcers Decline in War Years

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A Swedish doctor says heart disease declined sharply in his country during the anxious years of World War II.

A similar decrease in frequency of heart trouble and peptic ulcer was reported in England for the same period, Dr. Harold Eliasch told the 23rd annual Symposium on Heart Disease yesterday.

"We don't know the answer unless during war we are too busy scrambling to save our lives and our freedom to indulge in the luxury of failing health," Eliasch told 700 specialists.

Absorption Will Reduce Home Noise

Utilize Furnishings and Materials That Muffle Sound

By HUBBARD COBB

For the next several months most people are going to spend most of their time indoors and a lot of this is going to be right in their own home.

Now this many people doing a lot of different things is almost sure to create a lot of noise, so our subject today is how to make your home a little more quiet.

There are two ways to deal with sound. One is to tell the individual creating the sound to be quiet and the other is to absorb some of this sound before it reaches your ears.

We know that certain materials absorb more soupd than others so the way to make your home quiet is to use as many of these as possible.

Heavy draperies, carpets and stuffed upholstery are good sound absorbers for living and bedrooms. Fibrous insulating board or tile applied to walls and ceilings is also good.

If you want something even more sound absorbent, use an acoustical board or tile. Filling the wall cavity in partitions with insulation will prevent a lot of sound being transferred from one room to another.

Weatherstripping doors and surfacing doors with building board will prevent a lot of sound passing from room to room.

Wall-to-wall carpets will absorb footsteps so they cannot be heard in the room below. If the carpet is equipped with a heavy carpet pad it's even more efficient.

Remember that when it comes to reducing the amount of sound in a home, you want to abosrb it in the room where it occurs.

Metal Frame Designed for Easy Bed Restyling

By ELIZABETH HILLYER

To restyle a bed, call on a quick-change artist. A new metal bed frame makes the structural changes with ease—eliminates side rails and footboard, floats the head board, puts the whole thing on wheels.

The gain in good looks isn't a bit more important than the practical gain. Without the side rails and the footboard, the bed requires less space, enough square inches less to make a noticeable difference.

The weight of the boxspring is evenly and reliably supported. The bed moves at a touch for easy bed-making and cleaning of the floor.

There are several styles of frames to solve various problems, but the one to use with a headboard not only adjusts to the exact width of the spring, but also takes care of the extra width of the headboard after rails are removed.

Plates which attach to the headboard to float it above the floor extend as needed to fit any headboard width.

The headboard for the restyled bed might be the footboard of the bed as it used to be, if its height is in better proportion.

Camouflage Chubbiness of Sub-Teen

Look for Dresses That Will Conceal Chunky Figure

Do you have a sub-teen daughter who's unhappy about a square figure? She's not yet slimmed into her teenage figure, and yet she doesn't have the rounded baby-body she once had.

1. Slight extra fullness through sleeves, shoulders and waistline.
2. Elasticized waist at the back.
3. Smooth, non-bulky fabrics.
4. Soft tailoring.
5. Width-cutting tricks like panel fronts and top interest.
6. Small, quiet plaids, checks and prints; narrow stripes; flat pleats.

All these desirable slimming features are to be found in soap-loving fall and winter cottons and blends of cotton with synthetic fibers.

Poor Elbow Is Neglected Shamefully

Careful Grooming May Be Ruined by Ignoring This Area

The poor elbow, what a neglected thing it is! It is so responsive to the least attention that it hardly deserves to be ignored. Yet often the only thing it gets is work as a leaning post.

What some girls forget is that the neglected elbow gains unflattering prominence in the eyes of others.

It is very unpleasant to see a beautifully groomed woman, her arms soft and white, turn away, revealing discolored, roughened elbows,

Getting after neglected elbows is encouraging, since results are immediate. You can remove the discoloration simply by rubbing half a lemon around the joint. This routine should be followed every couple of weeks, depending on the use you give your elbows.

Get into the habit of applying cream to the elbows every time you use any cream, which we assume is at least once a day.

Among the latest additions to the creams and lotions is one that reconditions coarsened, discolored elbows and heels. Its special ingredient is also supposed to soften cuticles, smoothing away the ragged skin that causes hangnails.

This lotion can be used on any part of the body to neutralize the drying effect of soaps and detergents and to heal skin chapped by autumn winds. The maker also claims that the cream removes the redness that occurs in chapping and that it leaves no film on the skin.

Girl Asks Visiting Advice

By EMILY POST

A girl writes me: "I have been seeing quite a lot of a young man I met several months ago. I like him very much and I think he likes me. Whether or not we will every marry remains to be seen.

"On several occasions he has asked me to visit relatives of his, saying that he would like them to meet me. Up to now, I have found some excuse for not going because I did not think it was the right thing to do.

"I am sure he will ask me again and so I would like you to tell me whether or not it would be proper for me to go with him. If not, what can I tell him without seeming prudish?"

Answer: If it is merely calling on them in the afternoon or evening, it would be quite all right to go. But if it is to stay in their house or even go to a meal, you would certainly have to receive an invitation form the hostess.

Dear Mrs. Post: At an informal dinner, is it proper to put celery and olives on the bread and butter plate, which is cold, or should they be put on the dinner plate, which is hot? And what about jellies and other accompanying relishes?

Answer: Pickles, jellies or condiments intended to be eaten on or with the meat are always put on the meat plate. Olives, radishes or celery are put on the bread and butter plate.

Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter is giving a tea for a friend who soon will become a bride. Should if so, should they be given any if so, should they be given and special recognition, such as being asked to sit at the tea table and pour?

Or perhaps, if not this, would you suggest that they be asked to receive with my daughter and the guest of honor?

Answer: They are invited but not given any more recognition than any of your other guests.

Skin Blemished?

If your skin is blemished and you feel you must wear make-up, at least protect your skin from further infection by applying a medicated lotion first.

Tea Fetes Teachers and Mothers

LeBaron School was the setting Wednesday afternoon for the annual ACE tea honoring new teachers and homeroom mothers. J. Cecil Cox and Allen Copely were special guests.

Mrs. Melvin Johnson, president of the organization, gave the welcoming speech and Mrs. W. G. Sherman, principal of LeBaron School, presented a musical program.

Others taking part in the program were Mrs. John Kernert, who sang a solo, the Girl's Octet from Pontiac High School and Mrs. Rufus Campbell, who played a piano solo.

Past presidents of the organization presided at the tea table. They included Mrs. George Fraser, Mrs. Elsie Welch, Mrs. Clare Hinchley, Elizabeth Halsey, Bennetta Trelow, Eva Watling and Margaret Luther.

Mrs. Jane Overstreet was program chairman and Mrs. Margaret Hall was general chairman of the tea.

Typographical Unit Names Chairman

Mrs. Chris Greve was announced as chairman of the sunshine committee of the Women's Auxiliary to Pontiac Typographical Union, when the group met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Paul McMichael on East Tennyson avenue.

Other committee chairmen are Mrs. Maud Ashwin, education; Mrs. James Wilson, laws; Mrs. Philip Dworin, ways and means; Mrs. Blaine Kinney, labels, and Mrs. Stanley Hatfield and Mrs. Marvin Neilsen, membership.

Mrs. Ralph Babbington and Mrs. Kinney assisted the hostess.

Parliamentary Club Conducts Meeting

Mrs. Lloyd Thornton explained the lesson for the day when members of the Parliamentary Study Club met Wednesday afternoon in the Masonic Temple. Mrs. James Hampton presided at the meeting.

The lesson, "duties of officers, reports of officers and order of exercise," was put into practice by the demonstration group sponsored by Mrs. Russell French.

Mrs. Joseph Panter, parliamentarian emeritus, conducted the question box.

Corinne Sisterhood Plans Dec. 2 Dinner

Plans for a dinner to be held at Malta Temple Dec. 2 were discussed when Corinne Sisterhood 184, Dames of Malta, met Wednesday at the temple.

Plans were also discussed for initiation of candidates Nov. 4.

Perfume That Clings

Q.— Dear Penny: I adore perfume, but for some reason or other its fragrance just does not last on me. I have told several of my friends that I want a new perfume, but first I must find out about a lasting one.—Mrs. A. W.

A.— A particularly good idea for women who claim that perfume does not "stay with them" is a Liquid Skin Sachet. It smooths on the skin very easily, and lingers longer because of its sachet base. It has a slower rate of diffusion and evaporation than any other type of fragrance. Try this Houbigant Chantilly Liquid Skin Sachet. Only $1.85 plus tax at better stores.

Open House Observed at Wisner

Open house was observed at Wisner School Wednesday evening, with a PTA meeting following. Loy Bennett, father vice president, was in charge of the meeting assisted by Morris Cucksey, Fred Froede and Howard Morgan.

A panel discussion on taxes and school problems was the highlight of the evening. J. Cecil Cox, assistant superintendent of schools; William Ewart, attorney; William Emerson, superintendent of Oakland County schools, and Mrs. Lola B. King, president of Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, served on the panel, with Mr. Cox acting as moderator.

The Senior Boys' Ensemble of Pontiac High School entertained with a group of selections.

Refreshments were served, with Mrs. Lester Lyons' and Mrs. Grant R. Carlson's homeroom mothers in charge. Serving on this committee were Mrs. James Fox, Mrs. Irving Cocking, Mrs. Walter Messer, Mrs. Alvin Witt, Mrs. Kenneth Carman and Mrs. Ralph Main.

PHYLLIS ELAINE PHIPPS

Sisterhood Has Meeting

Reports and announcements were heard at Temple Beth Jacob Tuesday when the Sisterhood met for luncheon.

James Rosenthal, guest soloist, based his program on the United Nations, and a report of the state convention in Grand Rapids was given by Mrs. Marvin Talan, Mrs. Irving Gordon and Mrs. George Wyman.

The first Friday "Fireside" was announced for Oct. 30 at the Temple. "How to secure our children against prejudice" will be the topic with Dr. Samuel Chafets moderating the discussion conducted by Mrs. Rosenthal and Mrs. Melvin Eller.

Mrs. George Agree announced a program scheduled for Saturday at the home of Mrs. Charles Golde on James K boulevard. It will include dramatic readings of Negro folklore.

Other announcements included a parent dinner by the Temple Youth Group, scheduled for Sunday evening; a money-making project next week, a supper dance set for Nov. 14 and a musical evening planned by Pontiac Chapter of Hadassah for the Honor Roll meeting Nov. 19.

Mrs. Joe Nosanchuck closed the meeting with a prayer.

U. N. Work Illustrated With Drama

Program Given at PHS Wednesday by Pontiac Council

By MAUDE H. DONAHUE

With film strips and dramatic illustrations performed by local actors, tied together with a running narration by David E. Utley, the United Nations Council of Pontiac presented the story of the United Nations Wednesday evening at Pontiac High School.

The presentation called "The Story of Interdependence," was directed by Alfred E. Hinckley, assisted by Mrs. Ray Allen.

The aims of the U. N. and its methods of attaining them were brought out, as well as specific examples of where and how it has helped the different peoples of the world.

The purpose of the program was to observe U. N. Day which is Oct. 24 this year. With the help of those who contributed their time and efforts, an effective program evolved.

Dramatic episodes were presented with simple props, effective lighting and a suggestion of costume to set the scene, thus depending on the actors to put an idea across.

Performing in these episodes were Howard Sherwood, Alonzo McCracken, Mrs. Cullen McCracken, Garth Johnson, Don and Jim North, Darold Luettke, Pat Mann, James Jolly and Vern Lockhart.

Others were Don Bumgardner, Elaine New, Alfred Jones, Nick and Gus Furkiotl, Laura Sinkler, Mrs. Sanford Saperstein, Burton Belant, Edward Keehan, Bob Crandall, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Dumbrique and Richard Han.

Depicting townspeople from an Asian village were Margaret and Pat Ronquillo, Mrs. John Han with Sheng, Mary, David and Robert Han, Mariano Basco and Phil Rabaja.

Mrs. Fred Haushalter, Pontiac U. N. Council chairman, welcomed the group, and the Rev. George L. Garver gave a U. N. prayer.

After community singing led by Dr. Edith Roach Snyder, accompanied by Mrs. Richard Esser, James Rosenthal sang "United Nations on the March," accompanied by Mrs. Rosenthal.

Sorority Gathers at Halloween Party

Gamma Psi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority held a Halloween party Tuesday evening at the home of Betty Giddings in Holly.

Awards were given to Mrs. Robert Graham, Miss Giddings and Mrs. P. C. Miller for having the most unusual costumes.

Pledge night also was held and guests were Mrs. Graham and Betty McMiller. The program on "Poise and Charm" was conducted by Mrs. Arthur Ellis. Games and entertainment were under the chairmanship of Mrs. Willard Sovey.

SOPHIE WILLIAMS

Anouncing the engagement of their daughter Sophie to Charles Nick are Mr. and Mrs. James Williams of South Shirley street. Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nick of Cooley Lake road. No date has been set for the wedding.

Shower Honors Shirley Gesch

Shirley Gesch, bride-elect of William Withner of Omaha, Neb., was honored at a miscellaneous bridal shower given Tuesday evening by Dona Wall in her home on Farner Street.

Miss Gesch and Mr. Withner will speak their vows Nov. 14 in Our Lady of the Lakes Church, Waterford. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hillman of Waterford, and the E. H. Withners of Franklin Park, Ill., are his parents.

Those attending were Mrs. Hillman, Mrs. Ron Dawley, Mrs. Anna Gesch, Mrs. Lancy Jones, Mrs. Clare Hillman, Mrs. Robert Materna, Mrs. Alfred Beebe and Mrs. Robert Barnes.

Others were Mrs. Walter Aderholdt, Mrs. Michael Wall, Mrs. Joseph Helman, Mrs. Elsie Carter, Mrs. Robert Amos, Jeannine McCaffery and Mrs. Clyde Lehman.

Sara Lou Goliva, Mrs. Wallace Brown, Mrs. Lyman Girst, Mrs. William Thomas, Mrs. James Sutton, Mrs. Bill Ryan Jr. and Mrs. Lawrence Giddings complete the list.

U.S. Aid to Europe Would Go to EDC

WASHINGTON (AP) — Plans are about complete for funneling U.S. military aid to Western European countries through the projected European Defense Community as

This was reported today by government officials who pictured Secretary of State Dulles and other top officials as confident that the long-stalled EDC treaty will be finally approved in the next three or four months.

That action would clear the way for rearming of West German the only nation which has ratified it so far. Other signers are France, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

State Department informants said a special agreement covering the delivery of American aid to EDC, being worked out with a defense community preparatory commission at Paris, is substantially completed.

Policemen Poor Risks as Automobile Drivers

CHICAGO (AP)—Supt. Henry R. Hayes of the Boston police told the National Safety Congress policemen had better improve their driving.

He cited an insurance survey rating drivers according to occupations. Among 64 occupations, law enforcement officers rated 31st, he said.

HUGGING HER HERO—Linda Gilfeather, 22-month-old daughter of S/Sgt. and Mrs. Phillip Gilfeather, hugs Curt, a big German shepherd, just after he pulled her from a bayou, a short distance from the Gilfeather home at Fort Walton Beach, Fla. Linda had wandered from home and into the water where she had gone under before the dog could pull her out. Curt, a neighbor's pet, sleeps under Linda's window nightly.

Detective Plays Indian, 'Scalps' Miami Woman

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Detective C. C. Papy thought for a minute yesterday he had scalped a prisoner.

He and Detective R. J. Myers were taking two women to jail when they began to fight. Papy grabbed one of the women by the hair.

He was surprised to find himself clutching a wig.

Queen's Car Stalls in Busy London Street

LONDON (AP)—A royal limousine conked out in busy Leicester Square last night with Queen Elizabeth II and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, inside.

They were about to return to Buckingham Palace after attending the premiere of a film of last summer's successfull Mt. Everest expedition.

The chauffeur looked harassed.

Finally the Duke opened the door, helped the Queen out and the laughing couple entered the car of an aide for the drive to the palace.

Two strong-armed bobbies pushed the big royal car a few yards down the street and it started readily.

Court Hires Nursemaid in Order to Keep Juror

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mrs. Violet Leduc, a juror in a civil suit, phoned the judge yesterday that she would have to care for her 2-year-old grandson the next two weeks because her daughter-in-law was about to have another baby.

Judge George A. Dockweiler recessed the trial and went into a huddle with the lawyers.

Then he phoned Mrs. Leduc and told her, "We hired a nurse. Trial will resume Monday."

Inmates Rebel at Reformatory

Near Riot Breaks Out at Indiana Institution, All Is Quiet Now

PENDLETON, Ind. (AP)—A shouting window-smashing demonstration by inmates of the Indiana Reformatory appeared to have quieted today and officials planned to move them out of a dormitory where the disturbances centered.

Acting Superintendent Ralph (Cap) Howard said late last night the lights had been smashed in the 120-man dormitory and he decided to wait for daylight to have guards move the demonstrators into cells.

Officials said about 10 ringleaders were removed from the dormitory by a combined force of day and night shift guards last night and the remainder of the dormitory inmates quieted.

Later, inmates locked in their cells in two nearby cell blocks staged a shouting demonstration and threw articles from their cells. But Howard said everything was "pretty well under control" shortly before midnight.

No injuries were reported in disturbance, which assumed near-riot proportions late yesterday afternoon when cots and bedding, including some burning mattresses, were thrown from smashed windows of the dormitory.

State Trooper to Speak at Township Meeting

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — State Trooper Avery Goodrich will speak on safety at a meeting of Hudson Covert School PTA tonight.

There will be an "open house" with teachers in their rooms between 7:30 and 8.

U of D Prof to Address Waterford PTA Meeting

WATERFORD — Dr. Francis Padalis, professor of economics at the University of Detroit, will be speaker before the PTA members when they meet tonight at the village school.

Dr. Padalis, from Lithuania, will give facts on conditions behind the Iron Curtain and conduct a question and answer period. A business meeting will begin at 7:45 p. m.

Three Persons Injured in Crash on Joslyn

A Washington, Mich., driver and his wife were admitted to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital yesterday and a Pontiac man was treated after a two-car accident at Joslyn Rd. and Mansfield Ave.

Reported in fair condition are Homer C. Lefever, 44, and his wife Dorothea G., 37, of 11130 Twenty-Nine Mile Rd. Both suffered internal injuries. William Gandert, 19, of 229 E. Walton Blvd. was treated for cuts.

Godfrey Lauds McGuire Trio

Would Wind Up Gossip About His Firing of La Rosa and Bleyer

NEW YORK (AP)—Arthur Godfrey says performers on his radio-TV shows must be nice house guests, and "because I love to have them in my home I love to think you like to have them in your homes too."

With that comment during his television show last night, the freckle-faced star apparently wound up the furore caused by disclosures that he had suddenly fired singer Julius La Rosa and sharply cut the part bandleader Archie Bleyer has on Godfrey shows.

There was no immediate comment from CBS network officials whether a special check had been made to find out how many listeners tuned in to hear just what red-haired Godfrey might say.

The comment was made obliquely, as he introduced a number by the McGuire Sisters trio. Members of the Godfrey troupe were picked, he said, "because of that wonderful quality you see here."

Then he added:

"Those who are the great ones are the ones who stay with me."

Earlier yesterday at a press conference, Godfrey, still on crutches from a hip operation, said La Rosa had been fired Monday while the show was on the air because the singer had lost his "humility."

Godfrey explained further that matters had been brought to a head by the singer's reluctance to attend dance rehearsals and because he had engaged a management firm to direct his personal affairs.

Bleyer's difficulties arose, said Godfrey, because he made recordings of Don McNeill, a Godfrey air competitor, for a newly formed disc company in which the bandsman has a business interest.

Concerning La Rosa, Godfrey said that a purported romance between the singer and Dorothy McGuire, member of the vocal trio, had nothing to do with his release.

Officer Traces Threat, Hauls Boy to Court

MARBLEHEAD, Mass. (AP)—Police Lt. Maurice Lee picked up the phone last night.

"At 7:15 the police station will be blown to bits," a boy's voice said.

Lee traced the call through the telephone exchange. He called the house and the same boyish voice answered.

"At 7:15," said the police officer, "I'm coming over and kick telephone exchange. He called the house and the same boyish voice answered.

"At 7:15," said the police officer, "I'm coming over and kick you right in the seat of the pants."

U. N. to Hear Mid-East Report

Truce Team Director to Give 1st-Hand Review of Facts in Dispute

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. Security Council prepared today to hear a first-hand report on the growing strife in Palestine which has sparked a Big Three call for a full inquiry and counterdemands for council action from Syria and Israel.

Maj. Gen. Vagn Bennike of Denmark, chief of the U. N. truce supervision group at the Israeli-Arab frontier, was due to arrive in New York today to make the spot report. U. N. informants said he might appear before the 11-nation council tomorrow.

* * *

Bennike's report follows:

1. A U. S. request—backed by Britain and France—for a full-dress probe into border incidents between Israel and her neighbors, including the recent Kibya attack in which Jordan claims Israeli troops killed 66 persons and flattened the village. Israel says the attack was in retaliation for a series of killings by Arabs.

2. A Syrian complaint that Israel is endangering Middle East peace by diverting the waters of the historic River Jordan.

3. An Israeli counterdemand that the council take up a charge that the Arab states violated the 1949 armistice agreements, engaged in illegal blockade measures and refused to negotiate a peace.

* * *

The Syrian complaint had been expected to come up before the council today but it was sidetracked by the overshadowing Big Three call for a probe into the border incidents.

A Syrian spokesman emphasized however, that his country wants to keep its demand separate from the Big Three request. He said he hoped the council would take up the Jordan River issue Monday.

Gets Butted by Ram, Sues for $122,000

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Automobile dealer H. B. Sparks seeks $122,000 damages from oilman Bayard G. Gaylor, whose ram, he alleges, "butted his horns into the rear portion of your plaintiff" Aug. 17 while "racing at a high and unusual speed."

In a petition filed yesterday in Civil District Court, Sparks said he was thrown 20 feet.

Gaylor, informed of the suit, said he'd warned Sparks about the ram. He added: "I've gotten rid of it."

Sentence Mother, 27, to 10 Years Prison

TAMPA, Fla. (UP)—A woman who said she didn't want her children "to go to school with patched britches" has been sent to prison for 10 years for a $1,600 grocery store holdup.

That is the minimum sentence for the robbery charge to which Mrs. Loretta Manning, 27, pleaded guilty.

Criminal Court Judge L. A. Grayson gave a 12-year sentence yesterday to her husband George, 28. Manning also pleaded guilty. He said his part was hiding the money after Mrs. Manning made her getaway.

Relatives are caring for the children, boys 7 and 11.

TUCSON, Ariz. (UP)—Carlos Delahanty found a bag containing $7,385 in cash which had fallen from an armored car. He returned it and was told he would receive $350 in rewards.

Delahanty, a truck driver, has to work at three other part-time jobs to support his 15 children.

Claim Investigation Is Unconstitutional

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—The Teachers Union of Philadelphia has branded as unconstitutional an investigation by the House Un-American Activities Committee into alleged infiltration of Communists in city schoolteacher ranks.

"Congress is forbidden to legislate regarding schools under the 10th Amendment," said a statement by the independent union's Executive Board. "It may not investigate where it cannot legislate."

The 10th Amendment reserves for the states the powers not delegated to the federal government by the Constitution.

An official of the House committee said last night that indications are that 25 to 30 of Philadelphia's 8,000 teachers are Communists, possibly card-carrying party members.

Impellitteri Off Mayoral Ballot

Court Rules Petitions Contain Only Fraction of Valid Signatures

NEW YORK (UP)—Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri has been ruled off the ballot for the Nov. 3 mayoral election because he failed to file enough valid signatures to his nominating petitions as an independent candidate.

Impellitteri has declined so far to say whether he will conduct a write-in campaign, the only course left to him if he continues efforts to win re-election.

State Supreme Court Justice William H. Munson ruled yesterday that the mayor's Experience Party petitions contained no more than 5,276 valid signatures among the 24,187 filed. The law requires a minimum of 7,500.

* * *

Munson's decision denied any right of appeal to a higher court, because he said he considered the petitions so defective that an appea would be "academic."

A spokesman for the Republican mayoral candidate, former Acting Postmaster Harold Reigelman, claimed that the barring of Impellitteri would help Riegelman.

City Council President Rudolph Halley, mayoral candidate of the Liberal and Independent parties and onetime chief counsel to the Kefauver Committee, contended the development would aid him.

* * *

There was no immediate comment—except that the ruling had been expected—from the camp of Manhattan Borough President Robert F. Wagner Jr., who beat Impellitteri for the Democratic nomination by almost 2 to 1 at the Sept. 15 primary. Wagner's supporters had estimated before yesterday's ruling that Wagner would get at least 40 per cent of the Impellitteri vote if the mayor were ruled off the ballot.

The Impellitteri petitions had been challenged by Democratic organization counsel for Wagner.

The biggest factor in Impellitteri's loss of a ballot place was the failure of 13,800 of his petition signers to register for the 1953 general election. Various irregularities caused invalidation of other signatures, by Munson, by the Board of Elections or by agreement.

Producer Resting in New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A physician attending Joshua Logan said the Broadway play producer and director, under treatment for physical exhaustion, is here "pausing for a rest."

The physician said last night that Logan was "just dog-tired" in the wake of producing his latest play, "Kind Sir," and had been ordered to take things easy for a while.

Logan broke under the strain of stage work last week in Cleveland. He arrived in his native Louisiana after spending a few days in a hospital near Philadelphia.

He was stopped in a rented car Monday night by authorities for failure to have a driver's license and agreed to enter the DePaul Sanitarium here, said Dr. Willis P. Butler, coroner of Caddo Parish.

New Mayor Elected to Succeed Reuter

BERLIN (AP)—Dr. Walter Schreiber, leader of the conservative majority on West Berlin's City Council, was elected mayor of this Soviet-encircled city today. He succeeds the late Ernest Reuter, a Socialist.

Schreiber, 69 - year - old former deputy and a doughty fighter against communism, has been in charge of the municipal administration since Reuter's death Sept. 29.

Schreiber's conservative coalition of Christian Democrats and Free Democrats held a majority on the Council for the past three years but Reuter's personal prestige kept him in office.

The Council chose Schreiber mayor on a close party-line ballot. He received 62 votes from his conservative coalition. His opponent, Dr. Otto Suhr, Socialist president of the Council, gained 57 from his own party. One Socialist abstained.

The department of the interior was the seventh division of the executive departments of the United States. It was established by an act of Congress in 1849.

German-Portuguese Trade Is Booming

LISBON, Portugal (UP)—Trade between Portugal and West Germany has been climbing so fast since 1945 that it has more than doubled prewar volume, a survey here showed.

The average of Portuguese imports from Germany for 1934-38 totaled 244,113 tons annually. Portuguese exports to Germany in the same period totaled 86,782 tons annually.

The revival was slow until 1950, when it took a spurt. In 1952, trade between Portugal and West Germany totaled 532,167 tons, valued at 1,150,579,000 escudos ($39,670,000).

In the first five months of 1953, trade between West Germany and Portugal had already totaled the equivalent of 511,107,000 escudos ($17,627,000.)

Women Flee Fire

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Fire swept through the main building of the Presbyterian Home for Widows and Single Women yesterday, forcing 200 elderly women—some of them bedridden—to flee to safety. None was injured.

Cheese Jar Covers Must Be Vacuum Type

The home economics director of a famous cheese company asked the food editors of this country to pass on some essential information about cheese in jars.

Many women have asked why cheese spreads cannot be packed in screw top jars. Vacuum-type jars must be used to pack certain kinds of cheese. In the interests of good keeping qualities, we have to sacrifice the small convenience of an easily replaceable top.

Bewitchin' Hats for Halloween

Chocolate Dip

4 ounces cooking chocolate
4 ounces sweet dipping chocolate
1½ inch square of paraffin
2 teaspoons butter
1 teaspoon salad oil
6-8 ice cream cones

Combine all ingredients except cones and place in pan over hot (not boiling) water. Stir to blend as mixture melts.

When melted, cool mixture to 90 degrees on candy thermometer. Dip the cones so as to coat only the outside.

Place on waxed paper and put in freezer to harden. Package carefully and store until ready to use.

For serving, place a chocolate cookie (about 3 inches in diameter) on each serving plate. Top with a round dip of ice cream and place the chocolate cone "hat" on top, at an angle for best effect. They're bewitchin'.

Popcorn Tricks Make Happy Children's Party

Having a Halloween party for the children? You can treat them royally—but inexpensively — by making it a "popcorn party," too.

Popcorn balls, and bowls of hot buttered popcorn always make a hit. Yet they are easy to prepare, easy to serve, and cost only pennies.

Prizes in Popcorn Balls

There are so many things you can do with popcorn to amuse the children. One good idea is to put small prizes inside a few of the popcorn balls as you make them.

You can use small pieces of inexpensive jewelry for the girls . . . wax wrapped pieces of bubble gum. . . just almost any little trinket gives the children a thrill as they discover the prize inside the popcorn ball.

Hanging popcorn balls on a string, like you used to do with apples, making it a game to eat the popcorn ball while the contestant holds his hands behind his back, is another way to give the kiddies a treat.

"Jack O' Lantern" Popcorn Balls

You can line jack-o-lanterns with wax paper, fill them with hot buttered popcorn to make unique and decorative popcorn bowls. To give the hot buttered popcorn a different flavor you can sprinkle the popped corn with grated cheese.

Popcorn Cakes and Popcorn Pies

By pressing the mixture you use to make popcorn balls into a lightly buttered pie pan or cake pan, you can make a popcorn cake or pie. The tops of these can be decorated into Halloween faces by using colored gum drops for eyes, nose, mouth. It's simple and it's fun.

Breakfasts Special With Fruit Trinidad

Fruit Trinidad

1 pound can grapefruit sections
1 pound can or 1 package frozen pineapple chunks
1 red apple
½ cup stemmed seedless grapes
½ cup halved and seeded blue or red California grapes
½ teaspoon aromatic bitters

Combine grapefruit, pineapple and juices. Quarter and core apple without paring, cut into pieces, and add. Add seedless grapes, half of seeded grapes and bitters, and chill. Place in sherbet glasses and garnish with remaining halved grapes. Yields 6 to 8 servings.

Family Will Love Short Ribs, Rice

RICE AND SHORT RIBS—The meat is so tender it fairly falls off the bone, and the rice is white and fluffy. Your family will not be able to resist eating the very last bite of this simply wonderful-tasting main dish.

Dinner Hearty, Yet Low in Cost

Nourishing Dish Sure to Satisfy Those Peppy Fall Appetites

Here is a sure-fire appetite satisfier because hefty and hearty servings of the rice and short ribs are allowed each hungry eater.

You will be glad to see that you can satisfy your family so inexpensively because this beef and rice dish is low in cost but really fills up those starving youngsters.

Rice and Short Ribs

¼ cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
2 pounds beef short ribs
¼ cup fat
¼ cup chopped onion
1 cup diced carrots
1 cup diced celery
1 cup water
1 tablespoon flour
¼ cup water
4½ cups hot cooked rice

Mix together the flour, salt and pepper. Cut the short ribs into six equal portions aid dip into the flour, covering all sides well. Melt the fat in a large skillet. Brown the short ribs in the fat.

Add the onion, carrots, celery and water. Cover and cook over a medium low heat for about 1¼ hours or until the meat is tender.

Add ¼ cup of water to the 1 tablespoon of flour and mix to make a paste. Slowly add, stirring constantly, to the liquid around the short ribs. Cook, stirring, for about five minutes.

Serve over the hot cooked rice. Some of the gravy may be served in a separate dish. Makes six generous servings.

Beef Heads U.S. Month's Listing of Plentiful Foods

Each month the U.S. Department of agriculture offers the plentiful food lists. Besides beef which tops the list, the following foods are included:

Count on lots of potatoes. This year's crop of spuds promises to be considerably larger than last year's.

Plan to use cheese and dairy products liberally, as these, too, will continue in abundant supply. And for the weather when hot biscuits have special appeal, there will be lots of honey to use as a spread.

You'll also find large numbers of turkeys at market. Onions will be available in quantity. Raisins will be in generous supply at just about the time you want them for baked foods and eating out of hand.

And for use in everything from the side dish to the pie pan, your grocer will continue to offer large quantities of salad oils and shortening.

Sweet Potatoes Go Into Pralines

Most people have at some time eaten the rich candy from Louisiana called pralines. Below is a new version of that famous sweet, this one made with sweet potatoes. It's an unusual candy.

Louisiana Yam Pralines

3 cups granulated sugar
1 cup light cream
1 No. 2 can yams, drained and mashed*
Dash salt
1 cup firmly-packed brown sugar
2 cups broken pecans

*Or 1¼ cups mashed cooked fresh yams.

In a heavy saucepan, combine granulated sugar, light cream, mashed yams and salt; mix well. Cook over medium heat until mixture reaches soft ball stage (224-225), stirring occasionally.

In a small heavy skillet, melt brown sugar over medium heat. When yam mixture has reached 227, add melted brown sugar and broken pecans; mix well.

Remove from heat and drop from a spoon onto well greased cooky sheets. Allow pralines to cool until crystallized. Makes 20-22 3-inch pralines.

As early as 1754 the province of South Carolina was exporting 104,682 barrels of rice a year in addition to supplying the needs of its own people.

WHY SPEND SO MUCH MONEY ON FOOD?

Save with STARLAC makes dairy-sweet nonfat milk for only 9¢ a quart!

Drink it! Wonderful, fresh flavor. Gives you same amount of B vitamins, proteins, calcium, and other milk minerals as top-quality milk. Starlac is milk minus the fat and water.

Cook with it! Enjoy smooth, rich-tasting puddings and custards with Starlac. Use it to cream vegetables. Serve your family tempting, nourishing soups and chowders made with Starlac.

Bake with it! Use Starlac for your favorite cake. Bake tender muffins, light biscuits, crisp cookies. Use it in "made with milk" recipes. Keep a quart in the refrigerator at all times.

WHY STARLAC IS 3 ways better!

Quick Glamour Sauce Makes Lush Shortcake

A jar of fruit preserves can be a life-saver when unexpected company comes. Apricot or peach preserves heated with orange juice, and given quick-glamour treatment by the addition of a little brandy flavoring, will sauce plain vanilla ice cream to perfection.

The same preserves may be spread between layers of ready-bought sponge cake and served with nutmeg-flavored whipped cream for a shortcake de luxe.

Right Time for Omelet Could Be on Saturday

Saturday noon, when the children and Dad are home from school and office, is a good time to serve an omelet.

But make it something special by adding about three-quarters cup finely diced ham and a teaspoon of grated onion to a regular six-egg mixture. Heat a can of savory stewed tomatoes — such a worksaver! — to go with the omelet.

Baby Foods Go Into Grown-up Lunch Recipe

Babies may start on strained foods, but grownups have a way of finishing them. Mother reaches for those extra tablespoons of strained peaches, blends them with peanut butter or cream cheese, a dash of salt, and lo a sandwich filling is born for her own snack or the school lunchbox.

Strained vegetables, for instance, go into gravies, sauce, stews, soups, even meat loaf for the family.

Although most busy mothers make up their own recipes as they go along, they have an eager eye for quickies and a taste for something different. They'll go for a luncheon soup recipe, high in nutritive value, suitable for any midday meal and made in minutes. Choice of three junior meats for this one.

Luncheon Soup

½ cup baby's strained peas
2-3 cup rich milk, cream or undiluted evaporated milk
1 can condensed tomato soup
1 can baby junior veal, beef or pork

Combine peas, milk and tomato soup in a saucepan, blending thoroughly. Add meat and warm over low heat, stirring constantly, until hot.

Chef's Meat Secrets

Here's a chef's secret for seasoning meat stock: Use parsley, bay leaf, cloves, thyme, marjoram, salt and pepper. The vegetables to use with the meat bones are carrots, celery, turnip and, of course, onion.

Fancy Snacks Easy to Make

Next time you're called upon to make fancy sandwiches for a party, try these fleur-de-lis. They're a lot easier to make than you'd think.

With some cookie or sandwich cutters you can cut the fancy shapes, spread them with chicken spread and decorate with bits of pimiento, chopped parsley, olive or any other colorful touch.

The ribbon sandwiches are just as easy to make. Spread alternate slices of white and whole wheat bread from which the crusts have been trimmed with chicken spread, stack five slices, wrap tightly in waxed paper or aluminum foil, then in a damp cloth and chill in the refrigerator for a few hours.

Before serving, cut into one-half inch slices, then cut each slice into thirds or into three triangles.

Chicken Spread

1 bar (⅛ cup) margarine or butter
1 cup ground cooked chicken
⅛ cup finely chopped celery
½ teaspoon salt
Dash of white pepper

Let margarine soften in mixing bowl, then cream thoroughly with mixing spoon. Add remaining ingredients and mix well. Yield: About 1½ cups.

FLEUR-DE-LIS — These fancy little tea sandwiches are a lot easier to make than you'd think. Cut the fancy shapes with small cookie cutters, spread with delicious chicken spread and decorate with colorful touches. The ribbon sandwiches are just as easy to make.

Meat Follows Seasons as Do Fruits, Vegetables

By JANET ODELL

Let's talk about meat.

As homemakers we are vitally interested in the meat situation. I'm happy to say I can bring you optimistic reports from an authoritative source, the meat packers themselves.

Last week in Chicago the food editors were reassured by representatives of three of the country's largest packing houses that the current meat situation is an excellent one.

Perhaps, like me, you have been confused by conflicting stories, one predicting shortages and high prices, another acclaiming abundance and low prices. Surprisingly enough, both are partly right.

In order to buy meat intelligently, we have to recognize that the supply is regulated by the calendar. Meat has its seasons just as surely as fruits and vegetables do.

From July to December grass-fed cattle comes to market; from December through June the corn-fed cattle is the kind we find in the meat case.

All the meat is nutritious and good flavored and packed full of proteins. But the present grass-fed beef is lean beef and consists largely of cuts that have to be cooked by moist heat, rather than the quick-cooking steaks and the delicious rib roasts.

If we go to the butcher's and demand steaks now, we are apt to pay a fancy price. But if we are budget-minded and like to take advantage of food in season (one way to keep the food budget within reason), we will concentrate on the lean beef that is reaching the market now.

Americans are eating more meat than ever before. We have to look forward to a larger supply as the population increases. The meat men assured us last week that there is a good supply for the next four or five years. At present, beef cattle has reached a stupendous total of 94 million head.

Information concerning other kinds of meat was also given. Veal and lamb are in greater supply now than in recent years. A rather new cut of lamb is being featured now, a rib roast of lamb, an interesting variation of broiled lamb rib chops.

Pork is in greater supply than it has been over a five-year period. Chunkier hams are in the offing, eliminating the shank ends.

Let's talk about meat. Let's talk about it with our meat man, with our neighbors, and with our families if they complain about the scarcity of steak.

Let's explore all the ways of cooking this delicious meat that we can buy inexpensively now. Let's serve it attractively and enjoy its good flavor, satisfied to know that our families are being well fed at low prices.

Team Zippy Salad With Roast or Fowl

Last-minute salads often put a kink in the cook. Prepared ahead of time, tempting Apple-Gingerale Salad agrees with any dinner schedule, teams especially with roast pork or fowl.

Apple-Gingerale Salad

1 tablespoon (1 envelope) plain gelatine
¼ cup cold water
¼ cup boiling water
3 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons strained orange juice
½ cup strained applesauce or apricot applesauce
¾ cup gingerale

Soften gelatine in cold water. Dissolve in boiling water. Add sugar, fruit juices, applesauce and gingerale. Pour into lightly oiled molds and chill until firm. Serve on crisp lettuce. Yield: 4-6 servings.

Dark Dress Useful

Fashion experts advise about the wisdom of the simple, basic dark dress and rightly so, since there are so many ways to dress it up. How about a little rounded collar in pastel velvet or gay plaid? You can make it yourself out of a smidgin of material—and if you're using a solid color, place a tiny scatter pin at one corner.

Tip for weight-watchers: Clear soups and bouillon cubes have little food value.

Tomatoes, Cheese Fixed Western Way

Here's a good dinner to come home to. The whole family will enjoy it. Cheese, an item on the plentiful supply list, joins up with fresh tomatoes.

Usually the Western Tomato-Cheese Bake will yield six servings, but don't be surprised if your family of four devours all of it at one sitting.

Western Tomato-Cheese Bake

12 slices white bread, crusts removed ½ pound sliced processed American cheese
3 fresh tomatoes, sliced
3 eggs
2½ cups milk
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Put six slices of bread in bottom of buttered oblong baking dish (12x7x2 inches). Cover with slices of cheese and sliced tomatoes, then cover with remaining bread.

Beat eggs slightly, stir in milk and seasonings. Pour over bread-tomato-cheese combination. Bake one hour in slow oven (325). Makes six servings.

Secret of Making Good Coffee Lies in Measuring

Is your family blissful one morning, somber the next — after the first sip of their breakfast coffee? Then maybe your problems are about to be solved.

One of the well-known coffee roasters is packing a handy "coffee-guide" inside each one-pound, two-pound and half-pound can of their famous coffee—in all grinds.

The coffee-guide is a convenient device for accurately measuring the correct amount of coffee to be used with each two cups of water—takes the guesswork out of coffee-making.

Keep your eyes open for these specially-labeled cans of coffee containing the device.

Your coffee-making will stop seesawing — good one time — bad the next — when measured correctly.

Ripe Olives Spark Swiss Cheese Dip

Swiss Cheese-Ripe Olive Dip

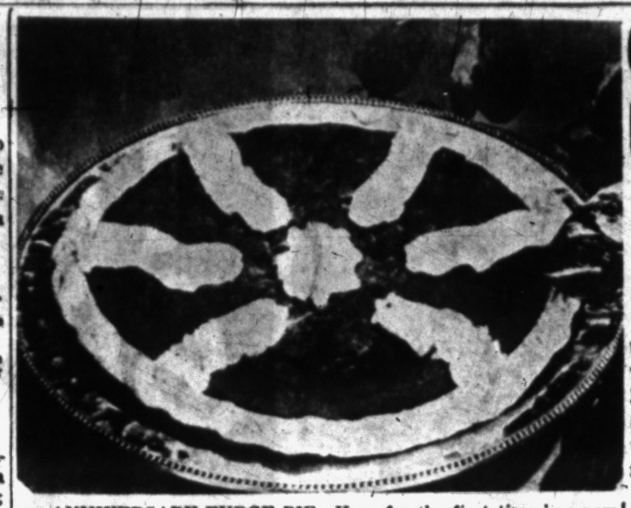
1 pound process Swiss cheese, shredded
6 tablespoons sauterene or other white table wine
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 (4½ ounce) cans chopped ripe olives, drained well between paper towels
¼ cup chopped chives or parsley
2 teaspoons grated onion
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
Salt and paprika to taste

Have cheese at room temperature; place in a bowl. With a fork, gradually beat in wine; blend in mayonnaise. Add remaining ingredients, mixing well.

Chill several hours to blend flavors. Bring to room temperature before serving. Heap in a bowl and dust with paprika. Serve with potato chips or corn chips, crisp crackers or melba toast. Makes about three cups.



ANNIVERSARY FUDGE PIE—Here for the first time is a new pie made with quick fudge mix. Light, moist and rich, the pure chocolate flavor is complemented by toasted pecans—a truly wonderful combination. Doesn't it look yummy?

Corn pone and Johnny cake are good breads to serve often when a member of the family is allergic to wheat flour.

Cookie Recipe Uses Cake Mix

New Method Makes for Speedy, Easy Baking of Old Favorites

By JANET ODELL

There may be nothing new under the sun; but there are always new ways of using familiar products. I should like to tell you about several of these additional ways that we heard about at the recent food editors' conference.

With children in the family it is impossible to be without cookies for long. If you face an empty cookie jar, try making up a batch using cake mix.

You'll be delighted with the speed and ease of making, as well as with their delicious flavor.

Easy Mix Cookies

¼ teaspoon baking soda
¼ cup water
1 egg, well beaten
6 tablespoon soft butter or margarine
1 package yellow, white or devil's food cake mix (the kind that calls for fresh eggs)
¾ cup sifted all-purpose flour.

In mixing bowl, dissolve soda in water. Stir in egg and butter. Add cake mix. Stir until all the mix is moistened. Add flour. Work in well with hands or spoon.

Shape dough into 1-inch balls. Place on ungreased cookie sheet, 2 inches apart.

Bake in moderate oven (350) on rack slightly above center for 12 to 15 minutes, or until light brown. Makes about 50 2-inch cookies.

Variations: After working in the flour, mix in two-thirds cup chopped nuts, raisins, dates, coconut or semi-sweet chocolate pieces.

* * *

Another truly exciting discovery is that quick fudge mix makes perfectly wonderful pies. These pies were developed by a famous rennet dessert manufacturer in honor of the company's 75th anniversary and are called Anniversary Pies.

They can be put together in a matter of minutes (the filling, that is) and are foolproof for even inexperienced cooks.

The chocolate fudge pie has an entirely new texture like a delicate souffle; the penuche fudge pie resembles a Southern pecan pie, and the coconut fudge pie uses orange juice and rind to make a magnificently rich pie.

I know you'll like them all, but can find room in this article for only one recipe. I'll print the others separately.

Chocolate Anniversary Fudge Pie

1 unbaked 9-inch pastry crust
1 package chocolate quick fudge mix
2 large eggs
⅓ cup water
¼ cup melted butter or margarine
¾ cup pecans, coarsely chopped

Put quick fudge mix into bowl. Add eggs, water and melted butter. Beat with rotary beater until thoroughly blended. Stir in chopped pecans.

Pour into unbaked crust. Bake at 375 degrees for 40 minutes until filling is set. Cool. Serve with whipped cream. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Other uses for the quick fudge mixes are as frosting, sauces, or a dipping medium for marshmallows or nuts.

Jellied Pudding Fine for Old and Young

Jellied Pudding, with its extra dividend of smooth cereal and egg, is a dessert to be shared by baby and his grandparents. Here is added nourishment for the geriatric patient, for the convalescent and for the energetic toddler who wants something "grownup."

Jellied Pudding

½ package flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
1 egg, separated
1½ teaspoons sugar
½ cup baby cereal food, oatmeal, barley or rice cereal
1½ teaspoons lemon juice

Dissolve gelatin in hot water; chill until thick and syrupy. Beat egg yolk until thick and lemon colored; reserve.

Beat egg white until stiff. Gradually fold in sugar. Beat syrupy gelatin until light and frothy. Fold cereal and beaten egg yolk to gelatin mixture. Add lemon juice. Fold in beaten egg white. Pour into lightly oiled loaf pan or individual molds. Chill until firm. 3-4 servings.

Tremors Rock Islands Off Greek West Coast

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—A series of strong earth tremors rocked the already quake-stricken islands in the Ionian Sea, in the Peloponnesus area and along Greece's west coast last night.

Strongest hit apparently was the Ionian island of Keffallinia, where scores lost their lives and hundreds were made homeless in a series of violent quakes last August. Some damage was reported but no loss of life.

Japan, Portugal Resume Diplomatic Relations

TOKYO (AP)—Diplomatic relations between Japan and Portugal, suspended since the end of World War II, returned to normal today with an exchange of notes between Foreign Minister Katsuo Okazaki and Virgilio Armando Martins, Portuguese representative in Japan.

Bulldozer Plows Under Everything, Even Steers

DU QOIN, Ill. (INS) — It began when farmer Ray Malinski decided to clear his apple orchard.

But when the bulldozer's dust cleared the Du Quoin farmer was missing a cow and three young steers.

America's Top Authors to Begin Articles Monday

Top-flight writers such as James Michener, Budd Schulberg, Cleveland Amory, Maurice Zolotow, Eugene Lyons, William L. White, Gene Fowler, William Hillman, Robert J. Casey and Upton Sinclair will contribute to a new column which will appear regularly in this newspaper. The column, "For the Record," will be published by the Press exclusively in this area.

The aim of the writers is to provide newspaper readers with the type of sparkling copy which has distinguished their best-selling books. But in "For the Record" they will be commenting almost entirely on topical affairs.

Other contributors will include John Daly of TV's "What's My Line?"; Lawrence Spivak, co-producer of TV's "Meet the Press"; and actors Charles Coburn and Adolphe Menjou, both of whom can turn a neat phrase besides emoting before the cameras.

SHORT-CUT MINESTRONE — There's no short changing on a lunch that features hearty soup. A tempting combination of vegetables, cheese and bacon, this one can be made in a quarter of an hour. Try it soon with your own school gang.

Property Deal Cools Wayne Divorce Trial

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Only John Wayne's angry desire to have his own day in court stood today as a possible threat to a peaceful end to his divorce trial, already one of the nastiest in movie history.

A surprise property settlement brought big smiles to the face of his Mexican wife, the former Esperanza Baur. Its size was not disclosed, by court request, but apparently it was enough to make her change her mind about a separate maintenance plea.

Both she and her attorney said they were "very happy" with the abrupt settlement. It came late yesterday after a series of lengthy conferences between both camps, with Superior Judge Allan Ashburn acting as peacemaker.

The case will be resumed next Wednesday, allowing both parties time to iron out settlement details. Legal observers, including one of the key figures in the conferences, expect the case to follow a familiar pattern in divorce actions of this type.

That means that the 31-year-old actress will change her plea of separate maintenance to divorce and that she will get it without contest.

Hearty School-Day Lunch Built Around Minestrane

Lunch at home for the children who live near the school often poses a problem. This menu should make an instant hit in your family.

The soup is delicious, the salad (a bologna slice laced together at the corners with gherkins and filled with cottage cheese) intriguing, and the cookies and milk a welcome addition. Serve plenty of crisp crackers with the minestrone.

Short - Cut Minestone

4 slices bacon
1 package dehydrated tomato vegetable soup
4 cups boiling water
1 large can red kidney beans
1 large can mixed vegetables
Grated cheese

Fry bacon until crisp in a 2-quart saucepan; crumble. Blend in a dehydrated tomato vegetable soup, water, kidney beans and mixed vegetables.

Safety Official Assails Drivers' 'Me-First' View

CHICAGO (AP)—A "me first" attitude by a large segment of the nation's motoring public was blamed today by a National Safety Council official as the big problem in traffic accidents.

Paul Jones, the council's director of public information, told the National Safety Congress:

"Our modern traffic brawl is the greatest mass demonstration of gutter manners ever seen in this country. The marvel is not that so many people are killed and maimed in traffic, but that so many manage to survive."

The nation's death toll on the highway in 1952 was 38,000.

GOP May Coax Ike to Campaign

Some Party Members Want Active Support in Congressional Races

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower is likely to face mounting pressure from Republican office holders to abandon his political umbrella approach in favor of direct activity in next year's campaign for control of Congress.

In a sharp departure from the policies of his immediate predecessors, Eisenhower told a news conference yesterday he does not intend to make the presidency an agency for use in partisan elections.

* * *

Instead, he said he hopes to develop an enlightened and progressive program which will serve as a real umbrella under which his party's candidates can operate.

Sen. Mundt (R-SD), who is running next year, applauded the President's decision to attempt to "make a record we can brag about," as Mundt put it.

"I don't think that a president coming into your district to help you is any more effective than one who comes in to purge you," he said.

Mundt was alluding to the late Franklin D. Roosevelt's unsuccessful efforts in 1938 to purge some Democratic Congress members.

* * *

While none of the handful of lawmakers here would comment publicly, there apparently are many Republicans who don't share Mundt's view that presidential tub-thumping is no help to individual candidates.

Michigan GOP leaders have sought and thus far failed to get Eisenhower's promise to do some campaigning in their state next year in behalf of Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich), chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee.

Ferguson may have a tough re-election battle on his hands if Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams decides to run for the Senate. Outnumbered by the Democrats 48-47, the Republicans can ill afford the loss of any Senate seats.

* * *

Eisenhower also has turned down appeals for intervention in behalf of Republican Paul J. Troast in the latter's current race for governor in New Jersey.

Eisenhower said specifically he won't lend a helping hand to Virginia Republicans who are trying to elect State Sen. Ted Dalton as governor.

GOP candidates who want to cash in on what they regard as Eisenhower's popularity are likely to keep on trying to get him actively into next year's campaign.

2nd Snow Storm Hits

DENVER (AP)—The second snow-laden storm in a week hit Colorado and Wyoming yesterday, leaving drifts along the Continental Divide and closing at least two highways.

Hot, but Not Boiling

When you melt semi-sweet chocolate put it over hot, not boiling water. The reason for not boiling the water below the chocolate is to prevent steam from getting into it; steam "tightens" the chocolate and makes it more difficult to blend into the other ingredients in the recipe.

OCEAN PERCH-SALMON PILLOWS—Here's a new seafood combination from the National Fisheries Institute, inexpensive ocean perch fillets with more expensive salmon steaks. The servings look like fluffy little pillows.

Fluffy 'Pillows' Made With Fish

Recipes that extend expensive foods are always welcome. Most of us are familiar with recipes for rice or noodles combined with more expensive foods and for hashes which add potatoes and onions to protein foods.

This recipe—which results in a delicious blending of flavors in a tempting platter of creamy white fish coiled around cubes of pink salmon—is called ocean perch-salmon pillows because the servings look like fluffy little pillows.

Ocean Perch-Salmon Pillows

1 package frozen ocean perch fillets
1 salmon steak
Butter
½ can tomato sauce
¼ cup lemon juice
¼ cup water
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
Chopped parsley

Let frozen fillets thaw completely. If any have skins, cut skins off. Cube salmon steak into as many pieces as there are fillets. Wrap each fillet around a salmon cube, fasten with a toothpick, and top with a small square of butter. Place in a greased baking dish.

Mix together tomato sauce, lemon juice, water, salt and pepper. Pour over pillows. Sprinkle chopped parsley over all. Bake in a moderately hot oven, 400, 15 minutes. Serve hot. Makes four servings.

Is Base for Odds, Ends

Gelatin is fine to use in family desserts because it is so easily digested. It also recommends itself because it makes a perfect base for the odds and ends of fruits that may be on your refrigerator shelves.

Housewife Plays Part in Agriculture

In a speech given recently by Dr. Byron T. Shaw, of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, he spoke of the important role played by the American housewife:

"The housewife has a large stake in the progress of agricultural research. In her role as vice president and general manager of the family, she is responsible for keeping the family well-fed. It is just as important to her as to farmers to have our scientists do a good job in the years ahead. We have heeded her desires in the past.

"The lady with the shopping bag who buys America's groceries has influenced our improvement of fruits and vegetables as well as animals. If she likes potatoes with shallow eyes, we develop them for her. If she wants strawberres with a tart flavor, she may have them, too.

"Improving farm products and finding ways of producing and m keting them more efficiently is our business. We shall continue to meet the needs of the housewife to the best of our ability and resources."

Big Beef Supply Said to Benefit U. S. Youngsters

America's school children are receiving extra benefits from the tremendous supply of beef cattle currently coming to market.

Additional supplies of beef in the nation's school lunch program are providing many boys and girls with a real opportunity to eat more nutritious meals in sufficient quantity for health and vigor.

This year beef is in long supply and millions of extra pounds are going on the school menus as hamburgers, meat loaf, stew, roasts and sandwiches.

Dieticians have reported that the extra beef allows menu planners to better fill requirements of health and nutrition than they have in the past.

Exclusive double-wrapped Aluminum Package

keeps GOOD LUCK better tasting than any other margarine!

Read the proof! In flavor tests, new Reynolds Wrap kept GOOD LUCK sweet as the day it was made—even after 8 weeks! Only GOOD LUCK has it!

NOW YOU CAN serve perfect table spread every time—sweet and delicious as the day it was packed! Just look for GOOD LUCK margarine in this revolutionary new package made of shiny Reynolds aluminum foil.

GOOD LUCK is the only margarine—the only table spread—so completely protected.

Have you ever noticed an "off" taste in your margarine? Then you'll be interested in the tests we made to prove that this new package really protects the pure, delicate flavor of GOOD LUCK.

To test this package, we put GOOD LUCK in a refrigerator along with other table spreads wrapped in ordinary waxed cartons. Next to them we placed sliced onions—and the strongest cheese we could find.

Sweet and Delicious After Eight Weeks

After eight weeks, GOOD LUCK was still as sweet and good as the day it was made! The new aluminum package had protected GOOD LUCK completely against outside odors. But the other margarines in the usual waxed cartons had lost flavor and picked up odors very quickly, some after only six days.

Here's the reason for the difference: We wrap each quarter-pound print in pure Reynolds Wrap aluminum foil, then we put the quarter pounds in a waxed carton for extra protection, and finally, we seal the whole carton in shiny aluminum foil.

As a result, GOOD LUCK not only tastes delicious when we wrap it, but actually keeps its glorious flavor better—and longer—than any other margarine.

Remember: GOOD LUCK in its new package is unconditionally guaranteed by Lever Brothers Company, 390 Park Avenue, New York 22, New York.

We stored GOOD LUCK in the refrigerator next to strong cheese and onions for 8 weeks. When the new aluminum package was opened, GOOD LUCK's flavor was sweet and delicious as ever!

Keep GOOD LUCK in Your Refrigerator It Always Spreads Easily!

The delicate flavor of this fine quality margarine is perishable. That's why we carefully refrigerate GOOD LUCK during processing—also while awaiting shipment, and in transit.

If you want to enjoy GOOD LUCK at its delicious best, always keep it in your refrigerator. You'll find GOOD LUCK spreads smoothly even when cold.

You can't tell the difference between GOOD LUCK margarine and "you-know-what."

Air-Tight Corn Insures Popping at Right Time

When you pop the corn for your party you'll have lots more fun — and success — if you get a nationally advertised brand of popcorn that comes sealed air-tight in a metal can to protect its freshness. This way you are sure to get popcorn that is guaranteed to pop.

Popcorn Balls

1 cup of sugar
1-3 cup of white corn syrup
1-3 cup water
¼ cup butter
¾ teaspoon salt
¾ teaspoon vanilla
3 quarts popped popcorn

Pop corn. Keep hot and crisp in slow oven (300). Stir and cook sugar, corn syrup, water, butter and salt until sugar is dissolved. Continue cooking without stirring (270), until syrup forms a brittle ball in cold water. Add vanilla and stir only enough to mix it through the hot sytup.

Place the popped corn in a large bowl and pour syrup slowly over popcorn, mix well to coat every kernel. Wet hands slightly and shape the corn into balls, using only enough pressure to make the balls stick together.

Nuts, candied cherries, or raisins may be added before combining with syrup. Makes 12 medium-sized balls.

Splurge a Little on Chicken Loaf

Delicious is a much too bland word to describe this extra special chicken loaf. Make it for that special occasion when you really want to make an impression and don't mind splurging a bit.

Mushrooms cooked gently in butter, and nutmeg, onion and celery salt enhance the good chicken flavor. Parsley and pimiento add color. Double-rich evaporated milk makes this dish nutritious as well as ultra-delicious.

Chicken Loaf

¼ cup butter
2 4-ounce cans sliced mushrooms (1¼ cups) drained
½ cup dry bread crumbs
1 tall can evaporated milk (1⅔ cups)
4 eggs, separated
2 cups chopped cooked chicken
2 tablespoons finely cut parsley
3 tablespoons chopped pimiento
2 teaspoons finely chopped onion
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon celery salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg

Melt butter in saucepan over low heat. Drain mushrooms, saving liquid for some other use. Add mushrooms to butter and cook gently for five minutes.

Add bread crumbs, then the milk, and cook until thickened, about two minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat.

Beat egg yolks. Add a little of the hot sauce slowly to the egg yolks, then add this egg mixture slowly to remaining sauce in saucepan, stirring all the while. Stir in remaining ingredients, blending well.

Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry. Fold into chicken mixture lightly but thoroughly.

Place a piece of waxpaper in bottom of greased loaf pan 8½x-4¾x2¼ inches. Pour in chicken mixture. Place in a pan containing hot water to the depth of about 1½ inches. Bake in moderate oven (350) until set, about one hour. Makes six servings.

BAKED HALIBUT — A light-as-a-feather sauce seasoned with sweet pickle relish is spread over halibut steaks to treat you and your family to a delicious dinner. When next you need to plan a meatless meal, try this tasty fish recipe.

Do You Know How to Get Fluffy Rice?

Put 1½ cups of uncooked rice, 3 cups of cold water and 1½ teaspoons of salt into a 2-quart saucepan and bring to a vigorous boil.

Leave saucepan over this low heat for 14 minutes. Remove from the heat. The rice is now ready to use.

Leave the cover on the saucepan to keep the rice hot if you are not ready to use it immediately.

Fluffy Pickle Sauce Peps Friday's Halibut Steaks

It doesn't matter whether pickles are served as a relish or in combination with foods, they add the zip which accents other flavors.

This is especially true with foods which are traditionally served on Fridays such as fish, eggs, cheese and other protein-rich foods used in place of meat. Remember that all kinds of pickles can add variety and flavor interest to meatless menus.

Baked Halibut With Fluffy Pickle Sauce

2 pounds halibut steaks (½-inch thick)
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup sweet pickle relish
½ cup mayonnaise
2 tablespoons chopped onion
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
2 drops Tabasco
¼ teaspoon salt
2 egg whites

Sprinkle halibut steaks with one-half teaspoon salt and place in a greased shallow baking dish. In a bowl, combine pickle relish, mayonnaise, onion, parsley and seasonings; mix well.

Beat egg whites until stiff; fold into pickle mixture. Spread sauce over top of fish. Bake in hot oven (400) 15 minutes. Serve immediately. Serves four to six.

Open Chicken Pie!

Mix leftover chicken or turkey with carrots, peas, and a white sauce that's been flavored with a little grated onion; serve between small circles of baked pastry. To prepare the pastry make your favorte pie crust recipe, roll and cut into circles, and bake 15 minutes in a hot oven.

Wheat Germ Peps Macaroni-Beef Dish

Dried Beef Casserole

1 6-ounce package macaroni
2½ ounce jar dried beef, chopped
1-3 cup chopped green pepper
1 cup sliced mushrooms
4 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
1½ cups milk
1 cup cooked tomatoes
1 cup grated American cheese
2-3 cup wheat germ

Cook and drain macaroni. Saute meat, green pepper and mushrooms lightly in butter; blend in flour. Add milk gradually stirring constantly until thick.

Stir in three-fourths cup cheese until melted; add tomatoes. Combine sauce, macaroni and wheat germ.

Here's Friend's Recipe for Elegant Pot Roast

Isn't it nice when people spontaneously give you their pet recipe? Our friend, Betty Eagleton, offered this suggestion for an elegant pot roast.

Cut pockets in the pot roast, fill with bits of salt pork and chopped olives. Sear on both sides, cover with tomatoes and bake in a 350 degree oven three to four hours, or until tender. Cover the roast to insure moist cooking.

Quick, Easy Dessert!

Empty a can of sliced cling peaches into a shallow baking dish, sprinkle with finely chopped preserved ginger, and bake in a moderate oven just until heated through. Serve warm with sweetened whipped cream.

Taffy Pull Makes Chilly Afternoon Fun

Here's something for a chilly afternoon—a smooth and chewy taffy, a rich treat chock-full of coffee flavor. Everyone enjoys the fun of "pullin' taffy." And if the recipe is as delicious as this one, everyone will enjoy the result.

Coffee Taffy

2 cups sugar
½ cup light corn syrup
1 cup coffee, brewed regular strength
2 tablespoons margarine or butter
1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine sugar, corn syrup and coffee in a 3 quart saucepan. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture begins to boil. Continue cooking, without stirring to 264 F. (A small amount of syrup dropped into cold water will form a hard ball.) Remove from heat. Stir in margarine or butter and vanilla. Pour into a greased shallow pan. Let stand until cool enough to handle comfortably. Pull candy until it is light in color. Pull into ropes of desired thickness and cut with scissors into suitable lengths. Wrap each piece in waxed paper or cellophane. Makes about 1¼ pounds.

Buy Pineapple in Spears Again

Pineapple spears are once more gracing the shelves of grocery stores after too long an absence. Many years have passed since these imposing vertical sections of canned pineapple have been available.

Before the war, considerable distribution of this unusual form of pineapple was enjoyed, and it is just now getting back into production in quantity.

Pineapple spears are packed in the No. 2 size can, and each vertical section is about the height of the can.

They are extremely popular as edible stirring "sticks" for tall drinks and will also bring an unusual tropical touch to the punch bowl.

In planning your fall and winter menus, do remember it's the extra little touches that make for remembered meals, and canned pineapple in its many varied cuts is a delicacy that is equally at home in fruit cups, salads, desserts, appetizers, garnishes and with the main course meats and fowl.

As every experienced cook knows, canned pineapple—spears, chunks, tidbits and slices — can be used more or less interchangeably in recipes.

And for all around salad making, you can't beat pineapple. It is called the "good companion" fruit for it adds form and fragrance and refreshing flavor to so many salad combinations.

Juice, Ginger Ale Make Tasty Punch

Fruit Ginger Medley

1 cup pineapple juice
1 cup grape juice
½ cup lemon juice
1 cup apple juice
½ cup sugar syrup
Pale dry ginger ale

Combine fruit juices and sugar syrup, blending well. Divide among eight tall glasses, pouring over ice cubes. Fill glasses with pale dry ginger ale.

Try adding a large onion to the water in which you cook dried beans.

Mom Scores Touchdown With Mugs of Spiced Milk

Mom scores a touchdown every time with steaming mugs of hot spiced milk and stacks of plain and frosted doughnuts. On crisp autumn days when the hungry gang storms in after the football game, what could be more appropriate than miniature goal posts and mugs of milk flaunting your favorite school colors?

Hungry fans are sure to be filled up when they tackle this milk and doughnut team.

The steaming mugs of milk are quickly prepared, and the spicy flavor is wonderful for cool weather appetite appeal. Cinnamon, nutmeg, and sugar are heated with the milk so that the spicy flavor is completely absorbed by the milk. A little salt brings out the flavor, and vanilla is added to complete the beverage.

Frosted and plain or sugared doughnuts are perfect partners for the milk drink. Doughnuts are made with dry milk solids so they contribute to a good, flavorful snack. They are easily digested because they are cooked at the temperature at which there is no absorption of fat.

Buy the doughnuts already frosted or mix your own butter frosting and tint it gay colors to harmonize with your table setting. There are enough varieties of doughnuts available to please everyone!

Hot Spiced Milk

1 quart milk
2 tablespoons sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon vanilla
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg
⅛ teaspoon cinnamon

Heat the milk just to the scalding point with the sugar, cinnamon, and nutmeg. Remove from the heat and add vanilla. Serve hot with more cinnamon and nutmeg sprinkled on each serving or top with whipped cream. Four to six servings.

Orange Doughnuts Are Easy to Make

Doughnut making time may find the youngsters gathered round the range watching as each doughnut is carefully dropped in the fat and waiting for it to rise to the top.

And a flavor that's long remembered is that of the still warm doughnut well coated with confectioners' sugar.

Doughnuts are easy to make. Make sure, however, that you keep the temperature at 360 degrees F.

Here is a recipe for a delicate orange doughnut.

Orange Drop Doughnuts

3 cups sifted enriched flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1¼ teaspoons salt
2 tablespoons lard, melted
⅔ cup sugar
4 egg yolks
½ teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1 cup milk
Lard for deep-fat frying

Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Beat together thoroughly lard, sugar, egg yolks, vanilla and orange rind. Add milk. Stir in dry ingredients until thoroughly mixed. Drop batter by small teaspoonfuls into deep hot lard (360 degrees F.). Fry until golden brown on both sides. Roll in sugar if desired. Yield: 3 dozen doughnuts.

Foods rich in protein get leathery when they are cooked at high temperatures, so keep the heat low when you are preparing dishes with eggs and cheese in them.

Lemon Helps Flavor

Dried fruits have lost much of their moisture and so they are very sweet, but when they are cooked they reabsorb just about the same amount of water as they lost in drying. Prunes and raisins may be cooked without additional sugar, but a few slices of lemon enhance their flavor.

'Rancher Salad' Comes Out of West

Out of the west by way of the southwest comes this new Rancher Salad to serve with barbeque meals and outdoor suppers. It's just right to have with hamburgers or franks and makes them more fully satisfying and better balanced as mealtime standbys. Rancher Salad is almost as easy to make as to say "Howdy Partner" and it is just as friendly a gesture.

All you'll need for each four servings is one head of crisp iceberg lettuce. You want crisp textured lettuce to contrast with the other main ingredient, which is one can of beans.

The familiar canned red kidney beans are fine, just drained and mixed with one half cup of chili sauce, catsup, or French dressing.

The less familiar Pinto beans or Pink beans of the southwest are canned now with a chili dressing already on them. These may be used just as they come from the can. However for variety, one may also add a half cup chopped pickle, sweet relish or celery.

Fixing a Rancher Salad for a barbeque supper is easy. Cut the crisp chilled lettuce head into quarters, allowing one quarter per serving. Mix the beans with dressing and any additions mentioned above. Then taste, and if not spicy enough in flavor, stir in a bit of dry mustard, a clove of garlic chopped fine, or a half teaspoon chili powder.

Hal Boyle Says:

Wilbur's Sunday at Home Is Quiet---Deadly Quiet

HOMETOWN, U. S. A. (AP)—Wilbur Peeble, America's most average husband, had a favorite speech of complaint, which ran as follows:

"The trouble with civilization is a man can't ever have a quiet Sunday. People always beating on your door, or calling you up wanting to go somewhere.

"No wonder everybody's a nervous wreck. After working hard all week, why can't a man just stay home and rest and relax on Sundays, like they did in the old days?"

After 15 years of listening to this little speech, his wife, Trellis Mae, got pretty tired of it. She decided to give Wilbur the kind of old-fashioned Sabbath he yearned for.

So on this particular Sunday she let him sleep late, then brought him breakfast in bed.

"Honey, I just want you to take it easy today," she said. "Don't even bother to dress or shave. And you don't have to take me to church. I'll go myself."

Wilbur looked up, surprised and grateful. He was happy to skip church this morning because he knew the dynamic new pastor was going to call for funds to build a roller skating rink to attract more teen-agers to his sermons.

Later, yawning luxuriously, Wilbur put on his robe, went into the living room and picked up the Sunday newspaper. He glanced at the front page headlines, shuddered, and turned to the sports section and the comics.

He was glad when Trellis Mae returned. He was beginning to be a bit bored.

"Guess I'll call up Horace McWhinney, and see what's doing," he said. "Bet he'll try to talk me into a golf game."

"Dear, I had the phone turned off over the weekend so it wouldn't annoy you," said Trellis Mae.

"That's nice," said Wilbur dubiously. "Wondered why it didn't ring."

Later, when he tried to tune in the radio-television set, Trellis Mae said it had broken down and couldn't be fixed until the next day.

"You won't have to bother about that nuisance ruining your Sunday," she said gaily. "Why don't you curl up with a good book. They say only 3 out of 10 adult Americans read books anymore."

Wilbur pulled down a book called, "One Corpse to Go," read the last two pages and put it back, satisfied.

After a big mid-day meal, Wilbur tried to take a nap but couldn't sleep.

"An atom bomb could go off and we wouldn't know it," he mumbled moodily.

"Oh, we'd hear the warning sirens," said Trellis Mae.

Just then a siren screamed and Wilbur leaped two feet into the air.

Several times, Wilbur, getting more restless by the minute, seemed to hear footsteps at the apartment door, but nobody rang the bell. Finally he went to the door, opened it, and saw a sign in his wife's handwriting hanging from the knob: "Gone for the weekend."

After two hours of nervous pacing back and forth Wilbur suddenly shaved, dressed, and told Trellis Mae:

"Let's go for a walk—just a short one."

He artfully steered their course past the McWhinney apartment, then said, "Let's run in see Horace and Hortense—just for a moment. But you know how they are? Let's don't get stuck there all night."

"Come in," gratefully said Horace, who was in pajamas. "We were just spending a quiet Sunday at home."

After half an hour, Trellis Mae began saying, "We really must be going," and Wilbur kept replying, "Yes, yes, we really ought to." But he made no attempt to get up.

Well, then Hortense fixed a snack of fish canapes that always made Wilbur sick. Then they got out the cards.

Then it was time to listen to the 11 p.m. news. Then someone said, "Oh, let's look at the late TV movie, 'Love Beats Lockjaw.'"

Then Wilbur and Horace got into an hour-long argument over the Eisenhower administration, and the clock struck 2 a.m. when the Peebles finally returned home.

Wilbur stopped off in the kitchen for some sodium bicarb to soothe his upset stomach, and then, as he sagged into bed, began to moan:

"The trouble with this civilization is a man can never spend a quiet—."

"Shut up!" said Trellis Mae. "Wilbur, you'll never spend a quiet Sunday unless I sell you to the zoo. They got a rule there the animals have to go to bed when it gets dark."

Gem-Quality Titanite Is Found in Australia

BROKEN HILL, Australia (UP) — Two good specimens of gem-quality titanite, or "sphene," have been found here, center of Australia's lead mining industry.

The titanite in this form has a high dispersion faculty, according to R. O. Chambers, curator of minerals at the Australian Museum at Sydney, and is capable of having more sparkle than the diamond.

Although common as a mineral in many parts of the world, up to this time most gem-quality titanite has been found in the Swiss-Austrian Alps.

BUSY GETTING DIZZY—Hardy stomachs are needed to ride this loop-the-loop in Munich, Germany. The high-speed circular amusement is a highlight of the city's "October-wiesn" beer drinking festival. About 3,000,000 liters of strong beer and 90,000 fried chickens were on hand for the customers.

Second Election Will Test GOP

District in California to Choose Representative November 10

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Another important early test of voter reaction to the Eisenhower administration will be forthcoming Nov. 10 when a special California congressional election is held in a Los Angeles district.

The 24th Congressional District election is attracting a nationwide attention in view of the setback the Republicans got in a similar election in Wisconsin last week.

* * *

GOP Gov. Goodwin J. Knight warned in Sacramento Tuesday that there is danger the Republicans may lose as they did in Wisconsin Oct. 14 when Lester R. Johnson won in a district that had never before elected a Democrat.

That election, Knight said, was "a defeat and not an incident."

The special election in the California district was called to fill a vacancy created when Paul Poulson, a Republican, resigned from Congress to become mayor of Los Angeles. He defeated former Mayor Fletcher Brown in an election.

The 24th District is a typical big-city area. It comprises a north-central area of Los Angeles city and the city of South Pasadena. Most of the residents are average white-collar and working-class people. Campaign workers say only a small percentage of the district is considered "silk stocking."

The balloting in this election should provide a poll of a fairly typical group of city voters while the Wisconsin vote was a test of a predominantly rural district.

In California virtually all Republican organizations are throwing their support to Glenard P. Lipscomb, a state assemblyman and secretary of Vice President Richard Nixon's national campaign last year. Lipscomb is a Los Angeles accountant. The other Republican in the race is state legislator John L. E. Collier, Los Angeles businessman.

* * *

Virtually all Democratic organizations are pulling for George L. Arnold, a young Los Angeles attorney. He is the son of Thurman Arnold, assistant attorney general under President Franklin D. Roosevelt and son-in-law of columnist Drew Pearson. The other Democrat is Irving Markheim, a veterans' service officer.

Party-backed candidates Lipscomb and Arnold are campaigning mainly on party issues. Arnold opposes any new taxes and favors the maintenance of strong military forces. Lipscomb's campaign manager says the Republican candidate "is supporting the Eisenhower program right down the line."

The Democrats have an edge in registration in the district, 81,691 to 75,289 Republicans.

A La Pocket

HARRISBURG, Ark. (UP) — Leonard Cox observed the height of something or other here. He said two boys came into a cafe and asked for two glasses of hot water and two spoons. They took a jar of instant coffee from their pockets, made some coffee, drank it and left. They did thank the waitress for use of the glasses.

Justice Finally Arrived but Ten Days Too Late

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Justice, slowly but surely, arrived for a county jail prisoner recently.

His release on a minor charge was issued 10 days before. Somehow it ended up in a county strong box. Then, it was found and they remembered.

The prisoner?

"He was kinda mad," Deputy Giles Ratliff confided.

'Howl' Warns Pilot of Strain

Jet Engine Reaches Its Top Performance; Big Noise Under Study

MADISON, Wis. (INS)—An ear-splitting "howl" — warning a jet pilot his engine is at the "strain" level where it may fall apart — is under intense study by University of Wisconsin scientists.

The mysterious "howl" is heard only by the pilot. It warns him that his engine has reached its peak performance and may fail.

Two engineering professors and a graduate assistant are producing jet engine temperatures in excess of 3,500 degrees Fahrenheit and a jet howl that can deafen a man in minutes — just to find out what causes the big noise.

They are Profs. Phillip S. Myers and Otto A. Uyehara and Graduate assistant Carmon Auble. Specifically they are studying the flow of fuel and air into the engine's combustion chamber and its explosion when ignited.

Engineers have already established that the "howl" condition is dependent on the combustion process, but its exact nature is unknown.

It has also been learned that a flame temperature oscillation exists in jet engines at all times. The characteristics of the oscillation depend on the ratio of fuel to air.

If the scientists can come up with a more effective fuel-air ratio, they may be able to get more powerful performance without the howl and without the danger to the engine.

Notice of Intention to Construct Sidewalk on the West Side of Joslyn Road from Columbia Avenue to Walton Boulevard.

You are hereby notified that at a regular meeting of the Commission of the City of Pontiac, Michigan held on the 20th day of October 1953 by resolution, it was declared to be the intention of the City Commission to construct sidewalk on the west side of Joslyn road from Columbia avenue to Walton boulevard at an estimated cost of $7,040.00 and that the plan, profile and estimate of said improvement is on file in the office of the City Clerk and may be found there for inspection.

It is further intended to construct said improvement in accordance with the plan, profile and estimate, and that the cost thereof shall be defrayed by special assessment according to frontage and that all of the lots and parcels of land fronting upon the west side of Joslyn road from Columbia avenue to Walton boulevard shall constitute the special assessment district to defray $2,633.34 of the estimated cost and expenses thereof and that $4,406.66 of the estimated cost and expenses thereof shall be paid from the Capital Improvement Fund.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

That the Commission of the City of Pontiac, Michigan will meet in the Municipal Court on the 27th day of October 1953 at 8 o'clock p.m. to hear suggestions and objections that may be made by parties interested.

ORDINANCE NO. 5
AMENDMENTS TO ORDINANCE NO. 3
(Interim Zoning Ordinance)

The Township of Pontiac Ordains:

Section 27. Building Permits and Certification of Occupancy.

It shall be unlawful to build or use or permit the building or the use of any structure or land or part thereof hereafter created, erected, altered or moved or to change or enlarge the use of any building or land or part thereof until a building permit in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance properly endorsed as to occupancy in a manner herein provided shall have been issued by the Building Inspector hereinafter authorized. A charge to be set by the Pontiac Township Board shall be made for the issuance of such permits. An application for a building permit shall be made to the Building Inspector prior to the time when a new or enlarged use of a structure or land or part thereof is intended to begin. No structure shall be started and no building or structure shall be moved onto any parcel of land in this Township prior to the issuance of a permit. Such application shall be accompanied by a plot plan in duplicate, drawn to scale, showing the exact dimensions of the land and structures to which the permit is to apply, the lines of the lots or parcels under separate ownership contained therein, the width of and alignment of all abutting streets, alleys, easements of access and public open spaces; the area, size, position and height of all buildings or structures erected or to be erected or altered thereon, plans in duplicate drawn to scale of the proposed structure or alteration, and such other information as may be deemed necessary for the proper enforcement. In the case of an application for other than a residence, the applicant shall also furnish a sworn statement stating all uses to which he proposes to put property or proposed building on the property. Accessory buildings, when erected at the same time as the principal building on a lot and shown on the application thereof shall not require a separate building permit. A record of all such application shall be kept on file by the Building Inspector. Whenever the buildings, land and uses thereof as set forth on the application are in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance it shall be the duty of the Building Inspector to issue a building permit within ten (10) days after the receipt of such application. All building permits shall be conspicuously posted upon the premises. In all cases when the Building Inspector shall refuse to issue a building permit he shall state such refusal in writing with the cause and reasons for said refusal.

Within five (5) days after notification that the building or premises or part thereof is ready for occupancy, the Building Inspector shall make final inspection thereof and, if it is found to be in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance, shall endorse such fact on the building permit in a statement properly signed and dated and such statement shall have the force of a certificate of occupancy.

The Building Inspector may issue a temporary certificate of occupancy for a part of a building prior to the occupation of the entire building but such temporary certificate shall not remain in force for a period in excess of six (6) months nor more than five (5) days after the completion of the building ready for occupancy.

Section 28. Fees.

Applicants for permits required by this Ordinance shall pay to the Township, at the time application for such permit is made the following fees:

Building permits—Five dollars ($5.00) for a permit for any structure estimated to cost not more than $5,000; plus $1.00 per thousand or fraction thereof for estimated costs in excess of $5,000.

Yeas—Frank Shimmons, Greta V. Block, Goldie B. Mallahn, Monte Bodman, Howard Decker, Wade Harris, Wilton TerMarsch

GRETA V. BLOCK,

Sales Taxes Collected in Thirty-two States

CHICAGO (UP) — Thirty-two states now have sales taxes, according to the Federation of Tax Administrators.

Pennsylvania was the latest state to adopt such a tax, passing a 1 per cent sales and use tax effective this fall. The Pennsylvania tax is expected to raise $125,000,000 in new revenue during the 1953-55 biennium by collecting a full cent on sales over 10 cents.

Since the end of World War II nine states have adopted the general sales tax to provide a new major source of revenue. Pennsylvania is the only one with a 1 per cent tax. Most of the others have a 2 per cent rate.

With a population of 42,600,000, France is smaller in area than New Mexico and Colorado combined.

Wildcat Walkout Staged by Buffalo's Peacocks

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP) — Nine peacocks, unhappy over their living conditions in the enclosure formerly used by anteaters, pulled a wildcat walkout at the Buffalo zoo recently.

Curator Joseph A. Abgott said the dispute was settled by keepers who lured the birds by spreading corn to their cages.

Some trees are estimated to consume 200 gallons of water a day.

SWITCH TO WITCH—It takes lots of time and makeup to turn blonde Claramae Turner into a witch for her role in the New York City Opera Company's production of "Hansel and Gretel," a transformation which has to be made for every performance. Time required for Miss Turner to makeup is an hour and she must be ready a half hour before curtain goes up.

Gene Autry Has 'Horse Sense'

Works Very Hard and Invests His Money in Varied Enterprises

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — "Business sense is just a combination of common sense and dollars-and-cents."

That's the philosophy of Gene Autry. Gene, whose first interest was the guitar and whose first talent was a way with western song, has developed a business head that is one of the seven wonders of show business.

Some wag once quipped that Gene doesn't have his cattle branded, he has them engraved. That's an exaggeration, but not too much of a one.

"It's just plain common sense that if you are going to have a successful career in the entertainment world, you should do everything you can to keep yourself before the public," said the cowpoke from Tioga, Texas.

"This business was founded on the star system, and I think stars should promote themselves as much as possible in every available medium. They should tour the country every year and help build themselves into top attractions.

"Besides, that's where the really big money is in show business today. The one-night stands.

Notwithstanding movies and television, people still like to see their favorites in person. Just look at the phenomenal grosses Jack Benny, Judy Garland, Bob Hope, Danny Kaye and Betty Hutton, just to name a few, have rolled up in personal appearances during the past year. And that's dollars-and-cents."

He's producer and star of his own motion and television pictures and star of his own weekly half-hour radio show which he broadcasts 52 weeks a year.

His recordings have sold over 25,000,000 copies in the past 20 years, and he headlines a dozen different rodeos and his own variety show which he takes to some 60 cities each year.

Gene has invested the money earned from his activities in a wide variety of businesses.

He owns radio stations in Hollywood, Phoenix, Tucson, Yuma nnd Nogales, Arizona, is a partner in a large cattle company in the same state, and partner in Everett E. Colburn's World Championship Rodeo, which stages bronc-busting affairs in New York's Madison Square Garden as well as in several western cities.

"Being a cowboy, maybe I should call it 'horse sense,'" Autrey explained, "but whatever you call it, it amounts to hard work and long hours — but it does pay off."

Fans Hold On to Amos 'n' Andy Show

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—People just won't let Amos 'n' Andy quit.

The veteran blackface comics, who have stayed in the big time longer than any radio stars, were thinking of retiring last season. But they're back on the air every Sunday as lusty as ever. I asked the two boys how come.

First of all, we'd better get them straight. Amos (he also plays Kingfish) is Freeman Gosden, 54, genial father of three children, the spokesman for the comedy team. Andy is Charles Correll, 63, wry, friendly, father of five.

"Everybody was talking about the new medium and overlooking radio. We never had any notions about dying with our boots on; we wanted to quit while we were still ahead. So we let it out that we were thinking of retiring."

The reaction was immediate. Amos 'n' Andy fans poured forth calls. While in the East, Amos visited a friend in Asheville, N. C. Local residents heard about it and took a quarter-page ad in the Citizen urging: "Please don't quit radio, Amos."

"Things like that helped change our minds," said Amos.

"There was one other thing, too. The show was our baby. We didn't feel like handing the baby over to someone else."

I asked the boys why they didn't play in the TV version of Amos 'n' Andy.

"We don't look the parts," volunteered Andy. "We found that out when we did pictures years ago. I'm supposed to be the big fat one. So they had to pad me up, front and back, and they made me wear lifts on my shoes. They could never show a long-shot of us walking together. Since Freeman is taller than I am, I had to walk on some boards beside him."

"Doing TV wouldn't have worked out," Amos added. "I couldn't very well play Amos and Kingfish. Also, we would have to be in blackface. What about the rest of the cast? It wouldn't have looked well for them to be in blackface or to be colored."

So the pair, who haven't blacked up in 12 years or so, hired an all-Negro cast to take their places on TV.

Although the show remains Amos 'n' Andy, the former has taken a smaller part in late years. I asked why.

"When we were doing a nightly show, Amos could supply the pathos," Gosden explained. "He was always on the side of right. But when we went to a weekly half-hour, the accent was more on comedy. Amos isn't a funny character. The Kingfish began to take a more prominent part."

Correll and Gosden seem to get along fine after a third of a century as a team. I asked if they followed the Olsen and Johnson system of keeping apart socially lest friction enters their relationship.

"No," replied Amos, "we enjoy being together. As a matter of fact, Charlie was just up to dinner the other night. That makes two dinners he owes me."

Man, 80, Can Match Strength With the Best

MERIDEN, Conn. (UP)—It took two men to push a wheelbarrow filled with 300 pounds of coal up a steep grade for dumping into the cellar of a home.

Charles Saunders, 80, watched them struggle.

One of the men jokingly challenged, "I'll bet you can't get the wheelbarrow up that plank?"

"I don't bet," said Saunders as he grasped the handles, pushed the load up the incline, and another 30 feet to the window.

"Well, I'll be darned," said the challenger, "That was quite a big load you moved."

"Depends on who's moving it," replied Saunders, a retired foundry worker.

More than 9.5 million Americans are employed in highway industries, ranging from road construction to supply and service units.

Quiz Lieutenant About Ransom

St. Louis Police Seek Information on Arrest in Greenlease Case

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Police Lt. Louis Shoulders returned to seclusion today after a seven-hour question-answer session with his superiors as the key witness in the investigation of possible irregularities in police handling of the Greenlease kidnap-slaying.

It was Shoulders who arrested Carl Austin Hall, the confessed kidnap-killer of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease, on Oct. 6 and recovered about $293,000 in ransom cash.

It is the particulars of Hall's arrest and the handling of the ransom money that is under investigation. Half of the $600,000 ransom is unaccounted for.

* * *

Police Chief Jeremiah O'Connell told newsmen the investigators may recall Shoulders for further questioning but not today.

Shoulders ducked past newsmen after testifying yesterday and rode a private elevator to the ground floor of police headquarters. His appearance came as a surprise. He had been excused through the first two days of testimony because of a nervous condition.

O'Connell declined to comment one way or another on the results of Shoulders' testimony. "I am sure we will have a statement to make when the entire investigation is completed," he said.

Cabbies Assist Detroit's Police

Act as Extra Eyes in Trailing and Reporting Suspected Criminals

DETROIT (UP)—When Detroit police are tracking down a criminal, they have an additional 2,000 pairs of eyes helping them each day.

The "eyes" are those of Detroit's 2,000 taxicab drivers, who have been mobilized as an unofficial branch of the police force. Their cabs, equipped with two-way radios, bolster the police department's fleet of cruisers.

"We contact them when we have positive identification of an automobile or a suspect in crimes like murder, rape and robbery," said Chief of Detectives Jack Harvill.

However, Harvill said the cabbies have clearly defined limits on their duties. He said their job was to "tail" wanted automobiles or suspects and radio information to their dispatchers, who in turn keep police posted.

"Their aid to police is carefully limited to prevent cabbies from yielding to any temptation to take the law into their own hands," Harvill explained.

"They follow a broadcasting but have been warned never to attempt to make an arrest themselves."

Police records showed that at least five persons have been arrested and convicted through the aid of cabbies.

"So far as thugs are concerned," Harvill said, "it doubles the effectiveness of police when any major crime in or near the downtown area is reported."

Soldiers May Get Tastier Soup, Stew

GENEVA, N. Y. (AP) — Army menus may include more tasty soups and stews, if the promise shown by vegetable juice concentrates holds up under field conditions.

Tests conducted at the Cornell Experiment Station here showed that concentrates prepared by freezing concentration of juices made from celery, onions, and white turnips retained their flavor and quality for 10 months when stored in ordinary glass bottles at room temperature.

Soups and stews made from dehydrated meats and vegetables to which these concentrates were added were considered much better than mixtures made from the dehydrated meats and vegetables alone.

Gifted Persons Grow Smarter With the Years

BERKELEY, Calif. (UP) — As "smart" people grow older, the smarter they get, according to Dr. Nancy Bayley of the University of California's Institute of Child Welfare.

"We were a little surprised to find that gifted adults increase in intellectual ability as they grow older," the psychologist said.

"Although other studies show a tendency for adults to exhibit decreasing mental capabilities (as measured in test scores) with age, our research was concerned with the stability or change in scores of tests taken by the same individual over a period of about 12 years."

Almost 800 "gifted" and more than 425 spouses took two equated forms of the Concept Mastery Test designed to measure superior intelligence.

Form A was used in 1939-40 when the testees averaged 29.5 years, and form B in 1951-52 when the average age was 42 years, Dr. Bayley said.

The tests consisted of synonym-antonym and analogy forms and changes in scores between the two testings were compared on the basis of scores on the final test, sex, age groups, educational level, occupational rating, and estimates of general "success."

"Individuals in each of these classifications improved their scores over the first testing," Dr. Bayley said.

ORDINANCE NO. 1227

An Ordinance Prohibiting the Abandonment of Unattended Ice Boxes and Refrigerators Outside of Any Building or Dwelling in the City of Pontiac.

Adopted: October 20, 1953
Effective: October 30, 1953.

An Ordinance Prohibiting the Abandonment of Unattended Ice Boxes and Refrigerators Outside of Any Building or Dwelling in the City of Pontiac.

The City of Pontiac Ordains:

Whereas, an emergency exists in that instances have been reported in other cities of death due to suffocation of children in abandoned, unattended ice boxes, refrigerators and other containers having air-tight doors which when closed cannot be opened from the inside; and

Whereas, these abandoned, unattended or discarded ice boxes, refrigerators and other containers are a constant menace to the health, welfare and safety of children in the City of Pontiac:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to leave outside of any building or dwelling in a place accessible to children any abandoned, unattended or discarded ice box, refrigerator or any other container of any kind which has an air-tight door, or lock which may not be released for opening from the inside of said ice box, refrigerator or container.

Section 2. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to leave outside of any building or dwelling in a place accessible to children any abandoned, unattended or discarded ice box, refrigerator or any other container of any kind which has an air-tight snap-lock or other device thereon without first removing the said snap-lock or doors from said ice box, refrigerator or container.

Section 3. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00) or by imprisonment for not in eexcess of 90 days, or by both such fine or imprisonment in the discretion of the court. Each day such violation is committed or permitted to continue, shall constitute a separate offense and shall be punishable as such hereunder.

Section 4. This ordinance shall take effect ten (10) days from and after the date of its passage by the City Commission of the City of Pontiac.

Made and passed by the City Commission of the City of Pontiac, this 20th day of October, A.D. 1953.

MICHIGAN STATE TAX COMMISSION
OFFICIAL ORDER

Whereas, the assessment roll for the City of Birmingham, in the County of Oakland, State of Michigan, for the year 1953 has heretofore been made by the Assessor of said City and reviewed by the regularly constituted Board of Review of said City; and

Whereas, the said assessment roll is now subject to inspection by the Commissioners of the State Tax Commission of the State of Michigan; or by any Commissioner of said Commission; and

Whereas, claim has been made to the Commissioners of the State Tax Commission by Harry W. Stevens that his real property located in the City of Birmingham had not been assessed in compliance with law, and that such compliance cannot be secured except by a review of said assessment roll;

Therefore, said Commissioners of the State Tax Commission have determined to review the assessment upon their own initiative as well as upon the complaint filed in the matter; it is

Therefore ordered, that in accordance with the provisions of Section 211.152 C.L. 1948, said assessment roll containing the assessed valuation of the real property in the City of Birmingham shall be subject to review, and the Assessor of the City of Birmingham be and he is hereby required to appear in the City Hall in the City of Birmingham at 1:30 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, on Wednesday, October 28, 1953 and have with him at the aforesaid place the assessment roll of said City for the year 1953; and it is

Further ordered, that a public hearing be held in the City Hall in the City of Birmingham, Michigan, beginning at 1:30 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, on Wednesday, October 28, 1953, and that the taxpayer mentioned above, or his representative, enter appearance at that time; and it is

Further ordered, that the Commissioners of said State Tax Commission, or any Commissioner thereof, shall hear and determine as to the proper assessment of the real property of the above named taxpayer, located in said City, subject to ad valorem taxation, and will take such action as will correct any irregularities that may be found in the assessment of said property; and it is

Further ordered, that due notice be given of said hearing in accordance with the provisions of law;

Witness my hand and the Seal of the State Tax Commission, this 19th day of October A.D. 1953.

Olson Beats Randy Turpin for World's Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Bobo Olson may not be the greatest middleweight boxing champion the world has seen, but the tattooed man from Hawaii will do until a better one comes along.

* * *

He did a competent job on Randy Turpin of England in their 15-round showdown at Madison Square Garden last night before a capacity crowd of 18,869. He did not score a knockout, but only because the man from Leamington Spa had a tremendous lot of heart when he was being badly punished in the closing rounds.

Turpin did show up, despite every doubt that he would, and he made a fight of it for a national television audience. He made no complaint of the unanimous verdict against him by two judges and the referee. He said only between battered lips that he believed he could have done better if he had been free mentally, or words to that effect.

Exactly what he meant by that is not clear here. It is a matter of record, however, that he has been having some sort of feminine trouble back home.

Turpin is separated from his wife and has been named co-respondent in a divorce suit.

Both Turpin and Olson will receive around $55,624 for the fight. Each received 30 per cent of the net gate, $128,415 (gross $167,651) and the $60,000 radio-television money.

This particular observer saw the bout more or less as the officials did. We thought that Olson walloped the pixilated Briton by 10 rounds to 4, with 1 even—in other words, that he won the title going away.

Turpin won the first three rounds and then he took a wacking. His only other round was the eighth.

The closest thing to a knockout probably came at the tag end of the ninth round. Olson had caught Turpin good in his own corner and had sent the Briton down with a flurry of solid blows to the head. The bell clanged, however, as Referee Al Berl reached the count of five.

In the following round Turpin went down again almost at the outset, but got up and was ready to go as Berl reached the nine count. He took a severe beating the remainder of the round.

From there on it was strictly a matter of whether Turpin would go the route.

50th 'Jug' Birthday

By BOB HOOBING

NEW YORK (AP)—Fate of a couple of national powers rides with two tradition-laden rivalries Saturday when all-victorious Michigan meets Minnesota and unbeaten Southern California tangles with the University of California.

Wolverines, 5th-ranked team in the country, must win this 4th encounter with the Gophers to stay in the Big Ten race with Michigan State and Illinois. Minnesota, angered by a failure to beat the Wolverines in its last 10 tries, has other ideas.

USC has stepped into the leading Coast Conference title contender's position following Stanford's upset of UCLA last week. But California, only PCC member which has been able to hold the Trojans even in past competition (19-19-4), is strong enough to derail the Troy Express.

They're expecting a record crowd in Minneapolis for the golden anniversary of the famed Little Brown Jug competition in a series which actually dates back to 1892 and stands 27-13-3 in Michigan's favor.

In 1903, the first time the teams faced each other for the added incentive of the Little Brown Jug, Gophers held Michigan to a 6-6 tie—the first game the Wolverines had failed to win in 30 outings.

Fifty years later Minnesota is trying to end a modest four-game Michigan win string.

It's been an odd series in one way. Just prior to Michigan's 10 victories from 1943 to the present, Minnesota won nine in a row, 1934-42. During the four year period 1938 through 1941 the rugged Michiganders lost just five games—four times to Minnesota.

Seldom, if ever, has more football talent been assembled on one field than in the rain-soaked 1940 game at Minneapolis. All-America Tom Harmon drew first blood with a clever scoring pass to Forrest Evashevski but failed to hit on his conversion attempt.

A few minutes later Minnesota's Bruce Smith broke off left tackle, picked up a key block from All-America teammate George Franck and swung down the sideline on an 80-yard touchdown run. Joe Mernik added the point to make it 7-6 for the Gophers.

Late in the game Michigan knocked on the door but giant Urban Odson, tackle terror of a crushing line, recovering a fumble on his four to halt the bid.

In 1947 Michigan's outstanding quartet of Bob Chappuis, Bump Elliott, Jack Weisenberger and Howie Yerges backed by Gene Derricott had trouble getting by an aroused Minnesota eleven 13-6 when it was rolling over most opponents.

Pappy Waldorf's California Bears have a score to settle with Southern Cal. USC was the last team to beat them before their 38-game regular season undefeated streak starting in 1947 and the Trojans ended it in 1951 with a 21-14 upset.

Star Becomes Man

Irish Meet Engineers on Lattner's Birthday

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Not that he hasn't been a man in the past, but All America Johnny Lattner of Notre Dame will become one officially Saturday, his 21st birthday.

* * *

Now, everyone knows how the Fighting Irish, steeped in tradition, have gone out in the past and won games for Rockne, Gipp, even Coach Frank Leahy and others.

Can't you just hear the lads say Saturday: "Let's win this one for Johnny."

* * *

The Irish will square off against Georgia Tech, unbeaten in 31 games.

And when Notre Dame decides to win a game for someone, it usually does. Even when it doesn't decide to dedicate the game to anyone in particular, it usually wins anyhow.

Notre Dame is favored from 7 to 10 points by the odds-makers Saturday, but there are some experts who think this spread is too much. Despite No. 1 ranking and three triumphs, over Oklahoma, Purdue and Pittsburgh, the Irish cannot be classified as great.

* * *

They've fought, like only they can do in their usual pent-up mood, and they have played with cunning alertness. They have recovered 11 of 17 fumbles by the oppositioin.

* * *

They've blocked punts and filched six enemy passes. In all, 10 of their 12 touchdowns have grown from being opportunists.

Fisherman Wins Jamaica Stakes

Whitney Horse Eyeing 2-Year-Old Crown for 1953 Season

NEW YORK (AP)—The 2-year-old championship for 1953 seemed to be dangling on the hook today for C. V. Whitney's Fisherman, and apparently all he has to do is win the world's richest horse race Oct. 31 and it would be in the bag.

Fisherman won his fourth and richest stakes yesterday at Jamaica when he scampered off with the $82,075 East View Stakes, while the favored Mister Gus proved he was just another colt named Gus.

* * *

The next start for Fisherman will be the $250,000 Garden State Stakes at Camden, N. J., one week from Saturday.

* * *

The 2-year-old situation seemed to be settling down when Porterhouse won the $117,000 Belmont Futurity Oct. 3. However, that Llangowollen Farm ace finished fifth and last in the $70,000 Pimlico Futurity last Saturday.

Joe Gavegnano's Errand King, who galloped to an easy triumph in the mile and one sixteen Pimlico Futurity, and Fisherman, appear to be the top American colts in the lavish Garden State Stakes, which also is over the mile and one sixteenth route.

Spartan Runners Go After 2nd Victory

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State, defending national cross country champion, will go after its second win of the 1953 season in a dual meet with Wisconsin at Madison Saturday.

MSC won its first meet 23-33 from Notre Dame two weeks ago. Wisconsin was the only team to hand the Spartans a dual meet loss last season.

Lyle Garbe, team captain, who took first place in the opening meet with a time of 20:46.8 over the four-mile course, will head the seven-man team.

U. S. in RAF Sports

LONDON (AP) — The U. S. Air Force plans to enter a team in the Britannia Shield Competition, an annual RAF-sponsored sports show, to be held in London, Oct. 5-7. The American team will be drawn mainly from USAF units in the United Kingdom, but will include a number of athletes from bases in Germany. Also competing will be Air Force teams from Norway, Belgium and Canada.

In the recent World Series the Yankees turned 11 walks and one hit batsmen into runs. Brooklyn benefited by three walks and one hit batter.

Facts, Figures on Title Fight

NEW YORK (AP)—Carl (Bobo) Olson, newly crowned world middleweight champion, and loser Randy Turpin of England, each will collect about $55,624 for their title fight last night.

Each received 30 per cent of the net gate and the net radio-television money.

Almost Didn't Make It

DETROIT (AP) — Two Detroit Lion stalwarts — end Pat Summerall and guard Dick Stanfel — almost had their pro football careers ended before they started. Summerall suffered a broken arm in his second pro game and it was doubted he would play again. Stanfel required two operations on a knee he damaged in the 1951 All-Star camp.

Lion 'Cripples' to Make Trip

Doak, Hoernschemeyer, Four Other Top-Notch Players Ailing

DETROIT (AP) — Coach Buddy Parker of the Detroit Lions moaned today that six of his top-notch performers may not be able to play against the Los Angeles Rams on Sunday. But he's taking "the cripples" to the West Coast, just the same.

* * *

The 49ers gave the Lions, National Football League champions, a 31-19 going over here last Sunday.

Parker listed as doubtful players because of injuries:

Halfbacks Doak Walker, Bobby Hoernschemeyer and Gene Gedman, end Cloyce Box and linemen Les Bingaman and Thurman McGraw.

* * *

Parker conceded, however, all six would make the trip and get into uniform.

A possible replacement for a back showed up yesterday. He is Bob Smith, former Texas A. & M. fullback, drafted by the club in 1952 and only recently discharged from the army.

Smith appeared in excellent physical condition, but han't played football since his last college game in 1951.

ANOTHER ONE — Florence Chadwick smiled brightly casually drying herself after emerging from the chilly Bosphorus. The San Diego stenographer swam to and from Istanbul, Turkey, in an hour, 10 minutes, five seconds.

'Evvy' Afraid His Puzzling Offense May Be Solved

By ED SAINSBURY

CHICAGO (UP) — Forest Evashevski's Iowa football team has a .500 record so far, with one of the nation's best rushing games, but the former Michigan blocking back feared today somebody might lower the boom one of these days.

"They haven't got us defensed yet," he said. "We're the only team in the country running the split T with an unbalanced line and nobody's figured out how to stop it.

"We haven't had the same defense used on us twice, and I'm afraid that one of these days somebody will figure it out, and we'll have to pass.

"Our passing hasn't been too good," he said, "but we haven't had to throw because we could run. What'll happen when we have to pass I don't know. It might not be too pleasant."

Statistics show how potent the Hawkeye rushing has been. In four games Iowa has averaged 271 yards to rank 6th in the nation in ground gaining while racking Washington State, 54-12, and Wyoming, 21-7, and losing to Michigan State, 21-7, and to Michigan, 14-13. Hawks were 10th in total offense with a 357.3-yard per game average.

This week Iowa will be favored to collect its first Big Ten victory, facing Indiana, a team which hasn't won a conference contest since it beat the Hawkeyes, 20-13, in the 2nd game last season.

Contest will be one of four league matches with Michigan at Minnesota, Michigan State at Purdue and Ohio State at Wisconsin in other conference matches. Non-conference battles will be Pittsburgh at Northwestern, Syracuse at Illionis and Georgia Tech at Notre Dame.

Gus Cifelli, tackle for the Detroit Lions, graduated magna cum laude from Notre Dame. He also competed as a heavyweight boxer

Montana Opens Buffalo Season

For the first time in 69 years, buffalo will be hunted this fall on Montana's open range, according to the Wildlife Management Institute. The last kill of free-roaming buffalo in the Treasure State took place in 1884, when four were shot by Piegan Indians in the Sweet Grass Hills.

Three lucky sportsmen will be permitted to seek trophies from a herd of short-tempered old bison that have collected in the Absaroka Wilderness area adjacent to Yellowstone National Park. Biologists of the Montana department of fish and game who have studied these intractable patriarchs believe they either have been "whipped" from the Yellowstone herd by younger animals, or that they just want to be alone.

The main Yellowstone herd is kept within limits of its natural supply of feed by the National Park Service. Because these aged animals do not constitute breeding stock, the Montana Department of fish and game believes that by careful management, each year they can give a limited number of sportsmen one of the greatest hunting thrills in North America. Popularity of this plan has been borne out by the more than 250 sportsmen from several states who applied for the three permits authorized for this year.

Wolverines' Eleven Has 'Pony' Backfield Talent

By JOHN F. MAYHEW

ANN ARBOR (AP)—A pony backfield, patterned after the unit that has earned renown at Michigan State college was the subject of discussion in the Michigan football camp this week.

It all stemmed from the great success of sub quarterback Duncan McDonald, who passed for four of the five touchdownsn Michigan used to defeat Iowa and Northwestern.

Coach Bennie Oosterbaan has some able second stringers to fill out the quartet. Ed Hickey, stubby 160-pound right halfback from Anaconda, Mont., fullback Bob Hurley and Detroit sophomore Tom Hendricks have shown promise of fine ability on the field.

All have been used this season. But never have they played as a unit. Hickey has carried 22 times for 110 yards and caught one pass for 31 yards.

Hurley, Michigan's number two ground gainer, has carried 21 times for 174 yards and completed both the passes he has thrown.

Hendricks has carried the ball only three times, but he gained 32 yards. Offensively, the ider is probably sound. Defensively, the group might be weaker than need be.

Saturday Clash of Engineers, Notre Dame May Be Year's Best; Irish Are Loaded, Tech Hitting Stride

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—The most decisive football game of many years will be played Saturday at South Bend. It will be the meeting of Notre Dame and Georgia Tech. Notre Dame is having one of her finest seasons. Georgia Tech has gone unbeaten in 31 consecutive games against many of the strongest teams on the country's map.

* * *

Frank Leahy's fast, powerful squad is now keyed up for its major test to date—for what is possibly the major test for the year.

* * *

Bobby Dodd is bringing to South Bend one of the finest squads that ever left Dixie. With an attack headed by stumpy Leon Hardeman, Tech is equipped with a high-grade attack. The team started slowly.

* * *

It was better equipped for the two-platoon system than any team in the country, back and line. Bobby Dodd, as others have done, had to work out a new system. He caught a hurricane against Florida, rain and gale.

He ran into the country's most powerful line in the SMU game and barely emerged on top.

But last Saturday, after many trials and tribulations, the squad found itself and crushed Auburn.

Tech now has a power line, strong ends and a versatile backfield. Bobby Dodd's eyes have been focused on Notre Dame all fall and he is ready for the toughest test his team will face this waning autumn.

* * *

I know Frank Leahy has looked on this clash with the Yellow Jackets as the roughest collision he will know during an extremely tough schedule. After this meeting, he still has Tiger-killing Navy, Southern Cal and SMU to handle.

But this is a very strong Notre Dame squad he has ready and waiting. Frank Leahy and Bobby Dodd are two of the top coaches in football. Both have had a long parade of winning teams and both have faced high-grade opposition.

Navy's Offense Potent, Defense Rates High Too

SMU, Yale, Iowa Are Leading Defensive 11's in Nation

NEW YORK (AP)—Navy's rising Middies are fast gaining a reputation as a team that can not only run up a score but can put the defensive brakes on their opponents.

While the Sailors drew nationwide attention to an offense that swamped Princeton 65-7 Saturday, the official NCAA service bureau statistics show they also rank fourth in both total defense and rushing defense among major college teams.

Middies have yielded only 165.5 yards a game overall and a mere 93.8 yards rushing.

Southern Methodist is the No. 1 club in both total and rushing defense by virtue of holding each opponent to 135.3 yards per contest overall and 77 yards on the ground.

Yale, which leads the field in defending its end zone by allowing only 1.8 points per game, stands second in total defense with a 152.8 yards per game average.

Iowa is second in rushing defense with 77.8 yards.

In the pass defense department Wake Forest is the most effective—allowing only 27 yards a game. ting the most mileage out of its punts—43.7 yards.

Illinois Sets Ground-Gaining Pace in Big 10

Soph Ace, Caroline, Is Individual Tops; MSC Rates Best Defense

CHICAGO (AP) — With sophomore J. C. Caroline setting the individual record pace, Illinois is well on its way to new Big Ten team ground-gaining marks.

In two league games, Caroline has netted 397 yards — averaging 8.8 per play—and an average of 198.5 per game. With this impetus, the Illini have zipped to the top in team attack with an average of 421 yards, 368 of them on the ground.

This total offense exceeds the record average of 415 set by Wisconsin in 1952. Illinois also is well ahead of the record rushing mark of 320 per contest set by Michigan in 1943.

Wisconsin, although playing only one Big Ten game thus far, ranks second to Illinois in total offense with 351 yards against Purdue, 313 of them by rushing. Billy Bratt, an end turned halfback, sprinted 113 yards in four trips—a play average of 28.2—for the Badgers in the Purdue engagement.

Michigan State tops the defense department holding opponents to an average gain per game of 174 yards and only 2.85 per play. Unbeaten Spartans also rank third in offense after three league games, with a balance of 195 rushing and 148 passing.

Illinois is second on defense, a rating based mainly on ball control. Illini have had 64.5 plays per game to 56 for their opponents. They have held foes to an average total gain of 233.

Fewer passes are being thrown this season. Only Indiana, Michigan and Northwestern have gained more yards through the air than on the ground. Northwestern has a completion average of .565 and 156 yards per game, and Michigan has .552 and 165.

National Forest Counties to Get Federal Checks

LANSING (AP) — Checks totaling $150,212 were mailed today to reasurers of Michigan counties containing national forests.

The money is distributed by Aud. Gen. John B. Martin on the basis of national forest land in each county. The money represents 25 per cent of the proceeds of the sale of timer from the forests by the federal government.

Federal law requires the counties to use 75 per cent of the money for schools and 25 per cent for roads.

Stengel Named Pilot of Year for 4th Time

Yankee Manager Draws 107 of 179 Ballots in Writers' Poll

By BOB MYERS

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP) — Casey Stengel is duly grateful, for the fourth time in five years, to be named baseball's Manager of the Year.

* * *

He made this point as clear as Mr. Stengel can make anything clear when advised at his home that he had won the 1953 award, hands down.

The New York Yankee skipper received 107 of the 179 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers Association of America in the annual Associated Press poll.

The vote was quite a tribute to the 64-year-old master, the only man ever to manage a team to five straight world championships.

Never a man without a word, Casey none the less had to scratch around a bit for new ones to express his pleasure. After all, he won this same distinction in 1949, 1950 and 1952.

* * *

As Stengel put it, this award was purely a case of the Yankee team, the front office and the coaches all combining in an astonishing movement "to build me up and win for me this great honor."

"They showed fine cooperation in not holding me back," he said.

Casey seemed intrigued that his vote was far greater than the combined ballot for the other 15 managers in the big leagues.

Milwaukee's hero, Charlie Grimm, was second, with 30 votes, six more than Casey's beaten rival in the World Series, Chuck Dressen, then of Brooklyn, now of Oakland, Calif.

Other votes: Paul Richards, Chicago White Sox, 10; Lou Boudreau, Boston Red Sox, 4; Al Lopez, Eddie Stanky and Rogers Hornsby, 1 apiece.

MONTAUK POINT, N. Y. — Male anglers had better brush up on their fishing skills now that the gals are taking to the sport in earnest.

This was brought to the fore recently when Ann Bowditch, 19-year-old music student from Manhasset, landed a 52-pound, five ounce mako shark with spinning tackle.

Blonde-haired Anne used a salt-water spinning reel, 11 pound test braided nylon line and a tubular glass trolling rod. She boated the big fish in 33 minutes. The mako measured 54½ inches in length and 27¼ inches in girth.

Bowlers in Utah Travel 120 Miles to Find Lanes

RICHFIELD, Utah (AP) — When the bowling alleys in this town of some 4,000 occupants were dismantled and removed from the community, the bowlers came up with a plan for the new season.

They organized a mixed league of six teams and now travel 120 miles to Springville, Utah every second Sunday to bowl a double-header session of six games.

Stadium Growing

GRAND HAVEN (AP)— The high school has purchased an additional 3,600 bleacher seats for the high school football field and will install them prior to the Muskegon Heights-Grand Haven game Friday night. The addition will give the field a seating capacity of 7,100.

It's Time Out!

Midget Elevens Play Saturday

Program to End Junior Football Season in City

Wisner Stadium Games Will Involve More Than 300 Youngsters

More than 300 eager youngsters will don junior-sized gridiron gear Saturday night to participate in the annual Midget Football Night at Wisner Memorial Stadium.

The program, climax to the city's junior football league season, is being sponsored jointly by Pontiac's Department of Parks & Recreation, Board of Education and Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Schedules lists four games between 5th-grade teams and two 7th-grade contests. Spectators may expect to witness a wide-open and highly interesting, if not scientific, brand of football. These youthful gridders usually more than compensate for lack of polish and finesse with all-out enthusiasm.

Two 5th-grade games will be played simultaneously, using 45-yard fields. At the end of the last 8-minute halves, the next two games will start. Junior High teams, using a full field and playing 16-minute halves, will follow the 5th-graders.

Players from Bagley, Crofoot, Webster, McCarroll, Longfellow, Malkin, Wisner, Emerson, Hawthorne, Owen, Roosevelt, Whittier, Willis, McConnell, Whitefield and Wilson schools will compete in the 5th-grade games.

Seventh-grade tilts will match Jefferson and Washington and Lincoln and Eastern-Wever.

Midget program is under the supervision of George Gary. Officials for Saturday night's games will be Chuck Deschaine and Ralph Allen. Kickoff time for the 1st game is 7 p. m.

Kid Only Able Challenger

Defense Against Gavilan Looms Ahead for New Boss of Middleweight Division

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Carl (Bobo) Olson may not be another Ray Robinson but don't knock the newly crowned middleweight champion of the world. He's good, so good, that he's just about cleaned up his own 160-pound division and probably will defend his title next against the ambitious welterweight king, Kid Gavilan.

Promoter Jim Norris aptly summed it up after the 25-year old Hawaiian from San Francisco deftly chooped up England's Randy Turpin in their 15-round title clash last night to succeed to the throne Robinson abdicated nine months ago.

Retirement probably looms for the crestfallen Turpin although he indicated he wanted to keep on fighting. His nearly blind mother, Mrs. Beatrice Naley, said in England "Randy is sure to retire now."

Olson's job on Turpin was smooth, decisive and unanimous. The balding, hairy-chested Bobo cut the husky British Negro under the left eye in the fourth round, dropped him for five in the ninth, decked him again for nine in the tenth and had him bleeding from the nose and mouth.

"It will have to be Gavilan next," said Norris after talking to Bobo and his manager, Sid Flaherty, the quietest fighter-manager team to hit Broadway in years.

That was all fine and dandy with Bobo, who wants to keep the big paydays rolling in to feed his brood of three boys and one girl.

Flaherty said he wanted the fight for San Francisco, his home town, and Norris suggested New York.

The two agreed that the details could wait until after the Gavilan-Bratton affair.

FOOTBALL SPECIALIST—Duncan McDonald, 175-pound junior from Flint, is Michigan's passing specialist. McDonald has appeared as a spot passer for a total of only nine minutes and 30 seconds in the two recent games against Iowa and Northwestern. In that time, he threw 14 passes, completed eight for 155 yards and four touchdowns, then retired to the bench.

Staying Power Gophers' Need

But Fesler's 11 Hasn't Been Able to Maintain Sustained Effort

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — If Minnesota's Gophers ever muster enough staying power to mesh four quarters of solid football into one game, the experts here insist the team can go down to the wire with any outfit in the Big Ten.

But so far this year, the Minnesotans haven't been able to mount that kind of sustained effort. Coach Wes Fesler has no illusions about the impending golden anniversary Little Brown Jug battle against Michigan. Any renewed lapses against the fifth-ranking Wolverines will plunge the Gophers to their fourth loss in five tries.

Fesler is at a loss to explain Minnesota's costly letdowns, especially in the second half. The team is not endowed with any overwhelming talent, but it's been good enough to scare for a time every one of its three victorious opponents.

1,000 Special Permits Given to Deer Hunters

LANSING (UP) — One-thousand sportsmen who will be allowed to hunt deer in Allgan County during a special season Dec. 1-7 have been chosen from among 1,700 persons who applied for permits, the conservation department said today.

Eighty of the 1,000 permits were issued automatically to land-owners who applied but the other 920 were drawn in a lottery. First name drawn was Charles Fetterley, Delton.

'M' Chances Bad Against State, Gloomy Vic Says

LANSING (AP)—Hockey coach Vic Heyliger of the University of Michigan was as gloomy as any football coach when discussing the University of Michigan football team at a Lions club meeting here.

"Michigan State will be the best team we meet this season," said Heyliger.

He said Michigan would be in "tough shape" when it meets Michigan State.

"The ends are weak, tackles scourged with injuries, guards too light, centers very weak defensively, fullbacks have little experience, halfbacks not too good and quarterbacks leave much to be desired," he said in appraising Michigan, unbeaten so far this season.

"How about Duncan McDonald?" he was asked.

Pontiac High's football team returns to its home field Friday night after two disastrous road trips. Chiefs play host to once-beaten Saginaw Arthur Hill in one of two Saginaw Valley Conference games scheduled that night.

Other league game sends Flint Northern to Saginaw for the opening SVC contest for both teams. Flint Central entertains Alpena in a non-conference game. Powerful Bay City Central travels to Owosso for another "outside" game Saturday night.

PHS eleven, which had a 3-game undefeated string wrecked in successive losses to Flint Central and Bay City, will go into the game a slight underdog.

Arthur Hill boasts consecutive triumphs over Midland, Alpena and Grand Rapids Catholic Central after losing its opener to Lansing Eastern. Sparking Lumberjack attack are a pair of identical twins, halfback Bob Plater and fullback Bill Plater. Captain Dale Hanson, quarterback, and Bill McMahon or Harvey Wolfe at the other half round out Coach Kurt Kampe's backfield.

Chiefs will be without the valuable services of 1952 All-Valley guard Ed Shaw, who broke his collarbone against Bay City last week and will be out rest of the season. Gene Vaughn takes over Shaw's slot on offense, and Colle Hunt will go in on defense.

Another change in Coach Ed Graybiel's lineup will have tackle George Thrasher, defensive standout all season, making his 1st start on offense. He replaces injured Tom Metzdorf.

National Horse Show Has Big Prize List

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Horse Show to be held here Nov. 3-10 has over $30,000 in prizes for 125 events spread over its traditional eight days and nights of national and international competition. As the climax of the U. S. horse show season, it draws entries of top-flight horses from America as well as the best from abroad.

The 32-man troop of Royal Canadian Mounted Police that recently presented its intricate equine maneuvers for Queen Elizabeth at the Coronation will perform at the National this year.

Middies' Junior Varsity Has Four-Game Schedule

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—The Naval Academy's junior varsity football squad has a four-game schedule this season. Coached by Frank Foster, the Jayvees open their season on Oct. 17 against the Princeton juniors.

The other three games on the card are Pensacola Naval Air Station on Oct. 24, Pennsylvania JV on Nov. 6 and Bainbridge (Md.) Naval Training Station on Nov. 13.

Traditional Games Mark Upper Peninsula Schedule

MARQUETTE (AP)—With conference championships safely tucked away in three of the four leagues in the region, Upper Peninsula high school football fans turned their attention today to the traditional battles that mark final week of the season.

The three unbeaten, untied teams in the peninsula — Ironwood, Iron River and Ontonagon—have won their league titles. And only Iron River was pressed to do it. Redskins had to call on place-kicking specialist Gary Drake for a 22-yard field goal against Iron Mountain in the final period for a 16-14 victory.

The "grandaddy" of all traditional battles—resumption of the Marinette-Menominee series—won't take place until Nov. 7, but scheduled for this week are old-timers like Kingsford-Iron Mountain, Gladstone-Escanaba and Houghton-Hancock. The latter affair will be the first "Copper Bowl" game.

Marquette, Ishpeming and Negaunee also will attempt, between now and Nov. 7, to make up games postponed early in the season because of a polio epidemic.

ATTRACTIVE ATTRACTION—The demand for Marion Ladewig's exhibitions and clinics is greater than that of any man bowler. The Grand Rapids star has won four consecutive National Women's Match Game Championships.

Kline Says Chuck Will Be Ready for Nov. 4 Scrap

DETROIT (AP) — Chuck Davey "will be ready this time" for Al Andrews. At least that is the news trainer Issy Kline brings from Davey's training camp.

Davey, thoroughly whipped by Andrews at Saginaw recently, is scheduled to meet his conqueror at Detroit's Olympia Stadium Nov. 4.

"Chuck has that fierce will to win," Kline said. "He's training hard. He's getting edgy and irritable, and that's a good sign."

Davey, NCAA welterweight champion while fighting for Michigan State College, rocketed into a world championship fight with Kid Gavilan, only to lose by a technical knockout.

Eastern Edges Jefferson, 13-6

Bredo, Mountain Score for Indians in Junior High Contest

Eastern edged Jefferson, 13-6, Wednesday afternoon to push the Jeffs deeper into the Suburban Junior High Football League cellar. Undefeated Washington goes to Waterford this afternoon for another conference game.

Indians scored single touchdowns in each of the 1st two quarters to hold a 13-0 halftime edge. Gordon Bredo plunged two yards for the 1st in the opening period and end Bill Mountain returned an intercepted pass 35 yards for the 2nd in the following period. Arnold Larson ran for one extra point.

Halfback Roosevelt "Buddy" Walker accounted for Jefferson's only score when he returned the opening kickoff in the 3rd quarter 75 yards for a TD. Jeffs lost another marker later in the period when officials ruled he stepped out of bounds on a 40-yard scoring run.

Drastic Punishment for Eastern Drivers

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP) — Four drivers at Yonkers Raceway have received suspensions by the judges and starter in the most drastic mass punishment in the history of the harness race track.

Will Hylan was given 10 days on the ground for careless driving and cutting in during the seventh race on Tuesday. Judges said Hylan's driving resulted in a six-horse spill.

Judges also set down George Phalen and Cecil Champion for five days each for careless driving.

Grid Career Finished for Heisman Youth

Kansas Boy Had Hoped to Win Trophy Named for Great-Uncle

The boy is Tommy Heisman, who suffered a kidney injury in football practice last month. He was scheduled to undergo an operation. Physicians say he should recover from the operation, but he should not play football again.

"He's always talked about winning the Heisman trophy," his mother, Mrs. Daniel E. Heisman, said.

The trophy is given annually to the outstanding college football player in the country by the New York Downtown Athletic Club. It is a memorial to John Heisman, Tommy's great-uncle, who formerly coached at the University of Pennsylvania and seven other colleges. He died in 1936.

Coach's Son Proves Versatile Performer

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (AP)—Mike Lee is fullback on offense and end on defense for Grand Island High School. In the first game this season Mike had this chart:

Scored his team's first touchdown on a seven yard run. Scored his team's second touchdown on a 33 yard run after recovering an opposition fumble. Set up his team's third touchdown by recovering another fumble. The final score was Grand Island 20, Omaha North 0.

MSC Man Says It's Safer to Hunt Than Ride in Car

By JAMES A. O. CROWE
Associated Press Outdoor Writer

LANSING (AP)—A Michigan State college man has come up with some interesting figures that hunters can throw at worrying wives and relatives.

He says he has figured out that it is two and a half times safer to go hunting than to go riding in a car anywhere in Michigan.

Charles Shick, wildlife management specialist, said that he came up with the figure by comparing the number of gun accidents per man-hour of hunting with the number of auto injury accidents per man-hour of driving.

And there were two and a half times as many auto injuries per hour.

It has long been known that statistically, your chances of being injured or killed during Michigan's big hunting seasons are very low indeed.

Even though this is true, it's no excuse for relaxing the rules of gun safety, now that hunting has begun.

Your chances of being hit by a car when you walk across the street are low, but no one in his right mind would start across a busy street without looking to see if a car was coming.

So everyone who plans to take a gun out into Michigan's woods and fields would do well to check over his habits of gun handling to be sure he is not endangering himself and others.

All Seven Teams Remain in Contention for Crown

By JACK SAYLOR

With the prep football season past the halfway mark, title races in most Oakland County area leagues have been narrowed down primarily to two teams. Not so in the wild Wayne-Oakland, however.

None of the teams in this seven-team circuit have yet been eliminated from championship contention. Every club has won at least one game and none have lost more than two.

Northville is the leader with a 2-0 record, while Keego Harbor has a 2-1 mark. Clarenceville and Brighton each have a win, a loss and a tie, while Clarkston and Milford have 1-2 records.

Defending champion Holly stands 1-2.

Standings are not likely to be cleared greatly this week either. Keego is idle. Milford and Holly rule as favorites over Brighton and Clarenceville and Northville is the choice over Clarkston.

But upsets are becoming commonplace in the loop and none of the favorites is close to being a sure thing. Race probably will go to the final Friday, with a tie for the title a distinct possiblity. The Northville-Keego game, Nov. 13, may be the big one.

INTER - LAKES — Co-leaders Berkley and Van Dyke (2-0) are working toward a showdown Nov. 6. Van Dyke entertains Southfield (2-1-1) Frday, while Berkley could hit a stumbling block as it tangles with Walt Ashley's Waterford eleven in a Friday afternoon game at WHS.

OAKLAND B — Fitzgerald (3-0) and Roseville (2-1) meet in the crucial game Nov. 6, but both play non-league games Friday. Avondale will try to keep its hopes alive, meeting Clawson in an afternoon tussle at Auburn Heights.

EASTERN MICHIGAN — Port Huron is already conceded the crown in most quarters, but Hazel Park hasn't given up yet. The two are ideally scheduled in the season finale, Nov. 13. Port Huron is at Fernadle Friday, with the Parkers at Mt. Clemens.

BI-COUNTY — Big game is this week as undefeated Warren comes to grips with Center Line. Warren has averaged 33 points in running up five victories. CL has won four, but has played a 7-7 tie with Lake Shore, a team Warren routed, 33-6.

SOUTH CENTRAL—Defending champion North Branch can take a step ahead of idle Imlay City by defeating Mayville. Top teams here also collide in the final league game, Nov. 6.

SOUTHER THUMB—Capac can become the area's first champ of the year by beating Brown City this week. A triumph would end the Chiefs' league card with five wins and a tie. Every other team has been beaten.

Elsewhere, Royal Oak, still a Border Cities contender, plays at Fordson, while three games involve former Tri-County schools. Lapeer and Rochester told their annual battle at Rochester; Romeo is at Oxford; and Lake Orion hosts South Lake of the Bi-C.

Wings, Toronto Tie Wednesday

Both Goals Result of Penalties; Bill Dineen Scores for Detroit

TORONTO (AP) — League-leading Detroit Red Wings staved off all but one of a series of third period rushes last night to earn a 1-1 tie with the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Rookie Bill Dineen gave the Red Wings the lead early in the second period. Toronto goalie Harry Lumley was penalized just as the period began for slashing Detroit's Earl (Dutch) Reibel in a pileup before the leaf nets.

Bobby Hassard served Lumley's sentence in the penalty box. And he was just getting set to return to the ice when Dineen took a pass from Reibel and fired a waist-high shot. Lumley was evidently caught unaware and made a feeble stab for the puck as it whizzed into the goal. Gordie Howe also got an assit on the tally.

In the final period, Leafs began a sustained drive toward the Detroit goal capped by a goal fired by Eric Nesterenko. Wing Marcel Pronovost was in the penalty box for elbowing at the 10-minute mark when Nesterenko drove his shot past Terry Shawchuck. Big Ted Kennedy was in on the scoring play.

Spartans to Win

Irish Are Picked to End Tech's Streak; Writer Gives Gophers Nod Over UM

NEW YORK (AP) — Last week's special whammy cure didn't work in 12 of 47 cases and so this list of selections is made with the old hat-pin method—just stab and the team you hit is the winner.

The numerous setbacks of last Saturday resulted in a .745 average. That pulled the season's figures down to 158 correct, 48 wrong for an average of .767.

Michigan State over Purdue: Michigan State wants to climax its first season in the Big Ten by going to the Rose Bowl.

* * *

Southern California over California: The many, many Trojans to keep Cal's Paul Larson bottled up.

* * *

Minnesota over Michigan: It doesn't seem possible that Duncan McDonald can pull the Wolverines out of the hole three Saturdays in a row.

Baylor over Texas A&M: Baylor has four backs who must be stopped if the Aggies are to win.

East: Army over Columbia, Holy Cross over Brown, Harvard over Dartmouth, Texas Christian over Penn State, Rutgers over Fordham, Yale over Colgate, Cornell over Princeton.

South: Georgia over North Carolina, Auburn over Tulane, Duke over North Carolina State, Louisiana State over Florida.

Midwest: Oklahoma A&M over Detroit, Iowa State over Drake, Illinois over Syracuse, Iowa over Indiana, Kansas State over Wichita, Missouri over Nebraska, Northwestern over Pittsburgh, Oklahoma over Colorado, Ohio State over Wisconsin.

State Bountied Nine Wolves in September

LANSING (AP) — State conservation department bountied nine wolves—all from the Upper Peninsula—last month, it was announced Tuesday.

This was the largest total since August, 1952, when 10 wolves were bountied.

September wolf and coyote bounties total $12,345.

Montgomery's Progress Good News for Cards

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals are mighty happy over the progress of lefthander Walt Montgomery who led the Class A Western League in the earned run averages with a 2.43 mark.

Playing for the Omaha Cards, Montgomery worked 196 innings during which he permitted 53 earned runs. He fanned 135 batters. The 23-year old lad from Leavenworth, Kan., is co-holder of the Class C Western Association strikeout record of 230 which he set in 1951.

Jackson 'Double' $109

JACKSON (AP) — There was a $109.20 daily double payoff at Jackson Raceway last night.

Calvert Hanover, winner of the first race, returned $22.60 to straight betters and The Corporal, winner of the second, paid $12.60 for $2. Together they paid $109.20 in the daily double pool.

Fesler to Stick With Talent From Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Wes Fesler told a group of football fans Monday that Minnesota will never go outside its natural area to find players as long as he coached the team.

"As long as I am coach," Fesler told a luncheon gathering, "we're going to win or lose with Minnesota boys."

Prep School Feeds Irish

NOTRE DAME, Ind. (AP)—There is a little of Mount Carmel (Chicago) High School connected with the Notre Dame football squad. Assistant coaches Bob McBride and Terry Brennan are former Mount Carmel coaches. Squad members Dan Shannon, Tom Carey Paul Matz, Deick Fraser and Ben Zajeski are graduates of the school.

Ohio's Racing Body Bars Four Trainers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State racing commission has suspended four trainers until April 10, for allowing medicine to be given to horses before they raced at Beulah Park.

The trainers were automatically suspended after saliva tests showed their horses had been gi procaine, a medicine which deadens feeling, before races Oct. 7 and 8.

Trainers are Gale Osborne, Olney, Ill.; Jack Christopherson, Collinsville, Ill.; Charles Wolfe, Columbus, and Elmer Albright, Grove City, Ohio.

Quarterbacks Lead UM Against Gophers

By JOHN F. MAYHEW

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Michigan will throw its one-two football punch at Minnesota Saturday in an attempt to get over the hump in the Wolverines' Big 10 grid schedule.

A near sellout crowd of 52,000 was expected to jam into Minnesota's Memorial Stadium at Minneapolis to see if the Gophers can halt unbeaten Michigan.

Coach Bennie Oosterbaan will put the chief burden on his quarterback twins, Lou Baldacci and Duncan McDonald.

A victory in the rugged traditional battle would be Michigan's 3rd in the conference and bring the Wolverines home to face non-conference Pennsylvania in a "breather" the following Saturday.

The Michigan coach will rely on the same combination that has defeated Washington, Tulane, Iowa and Northwestern. The deadly McDonald will be ready for spot passing efforts which defeated Iowa and Northwestern.

Some of the pressure has been taken off Giel this season by the fast developing halfback Bob McNamara. The two were primed for a major effort designed to give Minnesota its first victory over Michigan in 11 years.

Minnesota, in losses to Southern Cal., Michigan State and Illinois, showed flashes of powerful football. Two weeks ago the Gophers jelled long enough to hand Northwestern a 30-13 pasting.

On the injury list were tackle Art Walker and Dick O'Shaugnessy. Ankle injuries, that hampered both during the week, were not expected to keep them out of the game, however.

Oosterbaan planned to name a traveling squad after practice today. The Michigan party will leave Willow Run airport at 9:30 a.m. Friday and hold an afternoon practice in Minnesota's stadium.

TIES FOR 'DERBY' LEAD—Mrs. Fred Allie displays the three-pound, nine-ounce pheasant taken by her son, Russell Allie, at the Highland Recreation area shortly after 10 a. m. Tuesday. The bird ties for the lead in the Pontiac Press Pheasant "Derby." Paul Emerson, 17-year-old PHS student, previously entered a three-pound, nine-ounce specimen. The Allies live at 432 King street, Highland.

Grimm Named NL's Top Pilot

Braves' Manager Was Runnerup to Stengel in Major Balloting

NEW YORK (AP) — Milwaukee's Charlie Grimm, who boosted the Braves from seventh to a surprising second-place finish in one year, was voted today National League Manager of the Year.

* * *

Grimm, who was runner-up to Casey Stengel yesterday for major league managerial honors, had no trouble outscoring Charlie Dressen, Brooklyn's deposed manager, for the National League's top spot.

The 55-year-old Grimm drew 110 of the 179 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers Association of America in the annual Associated Press poll. Dressen was second with 66 votes.

Grimm, who succeeded Tommy Holmes as Braves' manager in midseason of 1952, is no novice by any means. He served two separate terms as pilot of the Chicago Cubs, putting in a total of 10 full seasons and parts of three others in the Windy City. He led the Cubs to pennants in 1932, 1935 and 1945.

Lower Temperatures Forecast

By United Press

The state's central U. S. weather bureau station at East Lansing said a cold front is expected to reach Michigan by Friday and send temperatures down. It said Friday's high probably would be about 60 and that temperatures should go considerably lower during the weekend.

If the forecast holds true, Michigan outdoorsmen may enjoy better hunting during the weekend than at any time since the small game season opened Oct. 1.

Temperatures were in the high 70's and low 80's on Oct. 1 when the duck season opened and again Tuesday when it became legal to shoot pheasants.

As a result, hunting generally was slow on both opening days although Michigan this year has a record pheasant crop.

Conservation department officials said upwards of 300,000 sportsmen probably will be out this weekend if the weather becomes cooler.

Duck hunting has been poor this month because high temperatures have forced ducks far out in large bodies of water during the day. They come in to shore at night to feed, but too late for hunters to fire at them.

Meanwhile, Michigan counted three dead, two seriously wounded and 29 others with minor wounds during the first two days of the pheasant season.

Most seriously wounded Wednesday was Curtice Booker, 18, Ypsilanti. Police said Booker wounded a pheasant, then ran to the bird and began beating it with the stock of his rifle. He was wounded in the stomach when the gun discharged.

State police said the number of hunters wounded the first two days of the season probably was much higher than the 30 reports they received.

Number of wounded the first day alone may have been as high as 50, they said, because many reports of gun accidents are handled by county and city police departments and are not reported to state police.

Press' Pheasant Contest Lead in 2-Way Deadlock

Russell Allie, of 432 King street, Highland, brought in a 3-pound 9-ounce bird Wednesday afternoon to take a tie for 1st place with Pontiac High School student Paul Emerson.

Allie bagged his entry shortly after the season opened Tuesday, while hunting with Bob Hollingdale, Highland, in the Highland Recreation area. Pheasant measured 25 inches in length.

Birds weighing three pounds or better also were reported by Varese Bisogni, 2141 Greer in Sylvan Village; Robert Woolcox of 23 Moyer in Oxford; and Walter Gulda, 2377 Bloomfield Drive. Other hunters downing pheasant included Harold D. Joseph of 1043 Myrtle; Dewain Allen of 1431 Cambria Road, Rochester; William Greene of 370 E. Columbia street; and Dennis Hart, 656 E. Madison, and Norman Strong, 2640 North Adams.

Hart and Strong reported seeing a hen pheasant running down Saginaw street in downtown Pontiac. The hen, a protected non-game bird, apparently decided city traffic was less dangerous than stray shots from hunters.

Morrall's Cold Real Concern to Spartan Team

Muskegon Quarterback to Make Trip, but Action May Be Limited

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING (AP)—A common cold was a cause of real concern today as Michigan State prepared to leave for Saturday's Big Ten football game with Purdue.

Earl Morrall of Muskegon, MSC second string quarterback, was downed by the cold.

"I could call it a lot of fancy names," said team physician Dr. James Feurig, "but the best description is just a good old-fashion common cold."

Morrall was kept in the college hospita yesterday and last night and was under orders to take it easy today.

Dr. Feurig said he could make the trip to Purdue with the rest of the travelling squad but, depending on his condition, might not be able to work full time.

Tommy Yewcic is the senior quarterback for Michigan State. Behind Morrall is Johnny Matsock of Detroit, who has shown himself especially good as a running quarterback on option plays.

After a final light workout this afternoon, the 38-man travelling squad was scheduled to fly by chartered plane to Indianapolis to spend the night.

Michigan State went into the game in its accustomed role of the favorite. If the Spartans can get by Purdue it will be their 29th decision of the season.

Bowling Clinic

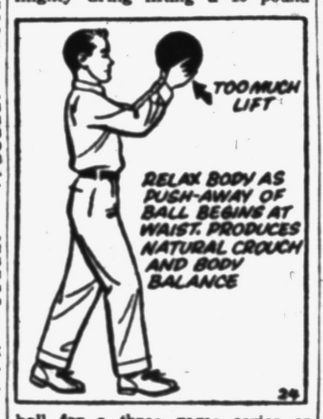
By BILLY SIXTY

CASE — Push — Don't lift.

Keep Body Relaxed — In first trying the push-away, pupils almost invariably lift the ball upward, as illustrated, and that makes bowling quite a chore. Gets mighty tiring lifting a 16 pound ball for a three game series or more.



Worse still, the exaggerated lift is likely to pull the body down and out of balance when the ball drops into the backswing.

Develop a direct pushaway from approximately waist-high position, with body relaxed, so weight of swinging ball will drop body into comfortable, normal crouch.

One Turpin Wins

NEW YORK (UP) — Today's news wasn't all bad for the Turpin family.

State Amateur Test at Jackson in 1954

DETROIT (AP)—The 1954 Michigan Amateur Golf tournament will be played over the Jackson Country Club course July 7-11.

Tokyo Greets States Ball Players Warmly

TOKYO (AP) — A 15-man all-star baseball squad from the U. S. major leagues flew into baseball-mad Tokyo today and was escorted in a jubilant motorcade through the downtown streets.

The squad is led by Ed Lopat, ace pitcher for the World Champion New York Yankees.

It was the second group of U. S. major league ball players to arrive in Tokyo this month.

Ibn Saud, Friend to U.S. Is Ill; and Trouble Brews

By PHIL NEWSOM
UP Foreign Press Editor

The man rated as the greatest Arab since Mohammed is ill and more trouble is brewing in the always-troublous Middle East.

Trouble in addition to the dispute between Israel and Jordan, the dispute between Iran and Britain over oil and the dispute between Egypt and Britain over Suez. This one involves Americans.

* * *

The man is 73-year-old, six-feet-four King Ibn Saud who conquered Nejd and the Hejaz, with the holy cities of Mecca and Medina, to form the kingdom of Saudi Arabia and to take possession of a land mass extending from the Persian Gulf to the Red Sea.

* * *

And, perhaps as result of his weakness, the first serious strikes are plaguing the American-Arabian Oil Company which pours into the Saudi Arabian terasury (meaning Ibn Saud's own pockets) more than $200,000,000 a year.

The fact that the workers would dare to strike is in itself indicative because strikes are outlawed in Saudi Arabia where justice is swift and often harsh under the dictates of the Koran.

Already controlling the greatest land mass of any Arab kingdom, Ibn Saud might have been the man to unite all the world's 50,000,000 Arabs.

However, internationally he has been content usually to side with Egypt and to carry on a running feud with the Hashemite kingdoms of Jordan and Iraq.

For years now, Ibn Saud has been confined to a wheelchair, but he lives in the best tradition of an Oriental potentate.

In accordance with Islamic dictates he never has more than four wives. But around the premises he also has about 120 divorced wives.

He takes good care of all of them, providing among other things a fleet of 20 Cadillacs, desert proof and peek proof, to carry them between the twin capitals of Riyadh and Mecca.

* * *

He has between 60 and 65 children and recently named the eldest of these, Crown Prince Saud, as premier. It was his first relaxation of absolute authority but he carefully retained full veto power.

* * *

However, he has been a staunch friend of the West in its tug-of-war with world communism and he has liked the American oil companies because they never have interfered with his government.

The 50-50 split of oil revenues has been profitable to both sides. But it has depended in Ibn Saud's strength. It remains to be seen whether the crown prince will be as strong.

Record Earns Leniency

BRIDGEPOST, Conn. (UP)—A traffic court judge let George S. Strople, 75, go with a warning after the elderly motorist, who was charged with ignoring a stop sign, said he had driven 53 years without being arrested.

Ex-War Planes Get New Lease on Life

Two new reconnaissance versions of the Stratojet bombers are being delivered to the Air Force. One of these, the RB-47B, is converted here, and is usable either for photo-reconnaissance or in its usual role as a front-line, high-altitude medium bomber.

The converted job has more windows than the standard B-47, and will fly 600 miles an hour at altitudes above 40,000 feet, a considerable improvement over the original aircraft.

Can Women Cure Male Heart Trouble?

LONDON (INS) — The British Medical profession is making a special study of women to find out why so many men suffer from heart attacks.

Dr. Evan Bedford, London heart specialist, says that the average woman's heart wears much better than a man's, so the medicos generally believe that the female body may contain some special substance which protects the heart and its arteries from the strain of modern life.

The first female substance now undergoing thorough tests is a gland extract called oestrogen. Dr. Bedford says it is being tried on men suffering from coronary thrombosis at several British hospitals.

If it is successful it may be used in tablet form as a routine protective drug for elderly men whose arteries are "hardening."

The doctors have discovered that professional men are much more prone to heart trouble than manual workers. This, they stressed, is due to worry over heavy responsibilities and over-rich diet.

Sugar's Outlook Bleak Due to Overproduction

MANILA (AP)—An official of the National Federation of Sugarcane Planters says the world sugar market faces a bleak future due to over-production. Dr. Jose Mirasol, executive secretary and technical adviser of the federation, declared world sugar production this year is far ahead of consumption.

Mirasol, who attended the Eighth World Congress of the International Society of Sugar Technologists in the British West Indies, declared it was too early to determine the effect of this trend on the Philippine sugar industry.

Liked American Art

BERLIN (INS)—The first exhibition of American works of art held in Berlin since the war, including works of 50 contemporary artists, attracted favorable attention among German art lovers.

Grains Sell Off, Pick Up Again

CHICAGO (AP)—Fairly heavy selling knocked wheat prices down around a cent on the Board of Trade today. The rest of the market followed the direction of wheat.

Much of the liquidation in wheat was based on disappointment that, as far as could be determined, no wheat was sold over night to either West Germany or Brazil. Both had asked for offers on American grain. Some more rain in the Southwest also created selling.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was unchanged to ⅝ cent lower, December $1.94; corn was unchanged to ⅛ lower, December $1.48½. And oats were unchanged to ¼ lower, December 77½. Soybeans were ¾-1¼ cents lower, November $2.70¾, and lard was 10 to 20 cents a hundred pounds lower, November $14.50.

Stocks Steady, but Poke Along

NEW YORK (AP)—The Stock Market was quietly steady today in early dealings.

Prices moved only small fractions and many held unchanged. Quite a few large blocks were on the tape at the start, but these soon cleared and the tape barely moved.

Today's steadiness was somewhat similar to yesterday's market in its narrow movement, although there was a barely noticeable downward trend then.

Aircrafts and utilities were a trifle higher today, and all other major divisions were steady to narrowly mixed.

U. S. Lines was up ⅛ at 14½ on an opening block of 2,000 shares. It was yesterday's most active issue with a loss of 4¼ after directors took no dividend action due at this time.

BEAMING BONI—Pretty Boni Buehler, the plucky airline hostess who lost her left arm and left leg in a motorboating accident, was all smiles as she was met at the International Airport in Los Angeles, Calif., by actor Geary Steffan. The actor, who was driving the boat at the time of the accident, has been named as a defendant in Miss Buehler's $500,000 suit against the boat's owner, Hotelman Conrad Hilton.

Prowler Rifles Home; Report Nothing Missing

Oakland County sheriff's deputies are investigating a report that a prowler broke into a Southfield Township home, damaged the contents but left without taking anything.

Mrs. Chester Sayles of 32420 W. Lady St. reported the breakin Wednesday to Detectives Delos Anderson and Leo Hazen.

Willys Reports No Change in Equities

TOLEDO (AP) — Ward M. Canaday, chairman of the board of Willys-Overland Motors Inc. yesterday said transactions completed so far by the company have caused no material change in the original estimates of shareholders equities since Willys-Overland's plants and assets were purchased by Kaiser Motors Corp. last April 28.

In a letter to stockholders, Canaday said all assets of the old company which have been liquidated now are in cash or short-term securities.

"They are providing income in excess of current operating expenses," he said.

Vandals Take $45, Ransack Schools

Vandals broke into two Waterford Township schools this week and took about $45 after ransacking office buildigs, according to Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

Waterford Township High School at 1345 Crescent Lake Rd. was ransacked and $32.75 taken from a metal cabinet, according to Detectives Loyal Wertz and Elmer McQuern, who are investigating the breakins.

2 Speakers Scheduled for Waterford Meeting

1st Youth Event Set by NAACP

Pontiac Branch Will Be Host to State-Wide Ball Tomorrow Night

The Pontiac branch of the NAACP will be host to the group's state-wide first annual youth conference coronation ball Friday night.

Milton R. Henry, chairman of Oakland County branch, said that the highlight of the affair will be the crowning of a "Miss Michigan NAACP" by Gov. G. Mennen Williams in the State Theater.

Williams and State Sen. Charles C. Diggs Jr. will address the group at 7 p. m. in the theater where the Detroit Negro Civic Opera Co. also will present several arias. Carlotta Franzee of Pontiac will be featured soloist.

Following the assembly at the theater, the group will move to Hotel Roosevelt Crystal Ball Room where Miss NAACP will be honored during another program.

Pontiac's candidate for the NAACP title is Clara Ramsey, 19, of 370 South Blvd.

Trustees Named for Teamsters Local

Next, Mather testified, Keating came to him the following April when another contract was being negotiated and when the men wanted a 10-cent an hour pay raise.

Keating said, he testified that "this could be forgotten" if he were paid $2,500. Mather said he made the payment in two installments.

Then, in April 1952, he testified, Keating approached him during that year's negotiations when an 18-cent pay raise was the issue.

But then, Mather said, Keating began saying that he "did not know if he could buffalo the men any longer" and Mather refused to make the second $1,250 payment.

After that, Keating called Mather to the Pontiac meeting with Linteau and accused him of telling his employes "about the payoffs." When he denied it, he said, "they shrugged it off."

Mather said the money to Keating was paid in cash "because he didn't want checks — he liked the green stuff." He testified the money was always placed on the front seat of Keating's parked car.

It was Mather who brought Hoffa's name into the case. He testified that he told Hoffa of the bribery in December 1952, and March 17 of this year. Hoffa's reaction, he said, was: "You agreed to this contract and you're stuck with it."

Hoffa also said he would "strike any company" paying a bribe, he testified. He denied, under cross examination, that Hoffa also said he would suspend any union man involved.

Present at the first Hoffa meeting, Mather said, was both Keating and Nicoletti and both denied any bribery. They remained with Hoffa when he left, he said.

Mather said that Keating approached him in 1952 and asked for a $200 contribution to the campaign fund for State Rep. Leaun Harrelson (D-Pontiac).

He further testified that Keating asked him to make out the check payable to the union which he did. Harrelson said this morning that he is a vice president of the Pontiac teamsters local.

Rashid said today's testimony by Taft would be brief and that three more witnesses might be called today.

"The future witnesses will "have even more light to throw on the charges than the opening ones," Rashid said.

Rashid also cleared up a puzzling bit of testimony in Mather's story. Mather said that he had been led to believe that part of the bribe money was being paid "to a district attorney."

After adjournment, Rashid said that Mather meant "a district man" who was said to be "in a position to quash any pay suits brought by employes."

Mather never met such a man and was only given the impression that he existed, Rashid said.

lowe, business agent of Local Anthony J. Liuzzo, 18491 Mar-

FPC Check Delays Gas Heating Order

LANSING (UP) —Further legal complications threatened today to delay addition of 9,000 natural gas space-heating customers by Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.

The Public Service Commission ordered the utility to add the additional space-heating customers Wednesday but company attorneys indicated they feared the move may conflict with a federal power commission order.

Michigan Consolidated spokesmen pointed out that a FPC order now prohibits adding any more than 294,460 space-heating customers without a penalty of $200 per month for each additional customer.

The penalty provisions affect Michigan Consolidated and 13 other utilities obtaining natural gas from the Michigan-Wisconsin Pipeline Company and are designed to preserve existing natural gas supplies.

Michigan Consolidated attorneys began a study to determine if the state Public Service Commission order could be followed without violating the FPC order.

Wholesale Food Prices Hit Half-Year Low

NEW YORK (AP) — Wholesale food prices as measured by the Dun & Bradstreet index declined this week to the lowest point since June 16.

The index registered $6.54, compared with $6.57 a week ago and $6.34 a year ago. Commodities rising in price included flour, wheat, rye, oats, hams, bellies, lard, butter and cocoa. Lower were corn, beef, sugar, coffee, eggs, steers, hogs and lambs.

State Gas Tax Receipts Running 7 Pct. Over '52

DETROIT (UP)—The Michigan Auto Club said today its records showed that state gasoline tax collections are running about 7 per cent ahead of last year's record receipts.

The club said states collected $984,382,000 during the first half of 1953 from their gasoline taxes, while the federal tax of two cents a gallon brought more than $416,000,000.

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Loyal McMillin, field service director for Boy Scouts, will give an explanation of scouting activities for Jayno Adams School PTA members tonight at 7:30 p.m.

9 Million Trucks in U. S. Today

In '04, Only 700 Were Registered; Post Office Issues Stamp

NEW YORK — In 1904, there were only 700 trucks registered in the United States, while today there are more than nine million, Fleet Owner magazine notes.

Today, the magazine says, trucks haul 90 per cent of household goods, 50 per cent of the nation's steel production, 65 per cent of new cars, 69 per cent of all sand and gravel and 75 per cent of all freight tonnage.

Some 25,000 communities are totally dependent on truck transportation.

The military began using trucks about 1913 when one was built to U. S. Army specifications. In 1941, when war came, the U. S. had nearly five million trucks ready to serve transport needs. In 1945, Gen. George S. Patton paid tribute to the motor truck as the "Army's most valuable weapon."

It was in 1903 that the Automobile Club of America sponsored the first "American commercial vehicle contest' in New York City demonstrating that trucks "can be successfully used in commerce at less cost and to greater advantage than present horse-drawn vehicles."

For instance, the first motor moving-van service was started in Brooklyn in 1907, and trucks got into snow removal work in 1911 in New York City.

Business Briefs

Canadian National Railways reports that 31 vessels cleared Churchill during the shipping season this year with a total grain cargo of 10,784,445 bushels, a new all-time record.

The railway is shipping an additional 600 carloads of grain to Churchill within the next few weeks to fill the town's 2½ million-bushel elevator.

IS THE "BIRD" TO SEE
TALK TO THE RIGHT MAN WHEN YOU WANT TO BUY A BUSINESS

RING, RING, RING

Ring, ring ring, is the music you'll be playing on your register in this busy little grill. Yes, it will average over $100 per day. It's a neat, well equipped spot with counter, tables and booths. Lease only $65 per month. Priced at only $4,200 on easy terms. See it today.

BOTTOMS UP

Own the distributorship of a nationally advertised beverage. 4 good trucks and other operating equipment. All for only $3,500. Get details in person at this office.

STRAIT "C" BAR

This is one of the best liquor bars in the county. No food, dancing or entertainment of any kind. Just a tremendous business and the overhead is very low. It's a top location, and the owner wants it kept confidential. So don't ask for the location to go see it yourself—just make an appointment and we'll be happy to show you. $25,000 down required and you can NET $25,000 a year, too. It's big enough for partners.

TO BUY, TO SELL, REALTOR Partridge IS THE BIRD to see.

A STRIKE

You'll make a STRIKE every day in this well equipped bowling alley. If you like action, here's plenty of it and a live wire will stay alive and have plenty of fun and profit doing it. Owner will accept trade of property or contracts for down payment and balance out of profits that you will hardly miss. No. 1449.

CLASS WITH A CAPITAL C

A new Class C with real class. Owner will sacrifice dollars to get ACTION. Here's a lot more of the extra things you probably thought you couldn't afford and it's so darn nice your wife will probably want to stay at the bar too because it's so comfortable. Incidentally, you will have to pack your lunch because there's no food sold here. Close to Pontiac in the state's fastest growing community. Don't be a slow poke, this will move like a Rocket. # Athlete-Scholar Still Young at 79

'Russian Lion' Believes He Has Found Key to Long, Happy Life

LONDON (UP) — After 35 years of study, George Hackenschmidt, the almost legendary "Russian Lion," believes he has found the key to a long and happy life for practically everyone — a secret that might be summed up as "life begins at 80."

His round face is unlined, he moves his 215 pounds like a lightweight, the neck that sprouts from his mighty shoulders still takes a size 21 collar.

"A lot of people seem to think I am dead," said the world wrestling champion of grandfather's day.

"This shows the comparative value the world places on brains and brawn. When I was wrestling my name was in the headlines every day. But now that I am a philosopher, people say, "Hackenschmidt? Oh, he died years ago."

You can't blame the public. Hack made one of the most extraordinary switches of all time when he abandoned wrestling 40 years ago to write about philosophy. His career as an athlete was fantastic.

A prodigy, he ran 1,500 meters at the age of 5, carried four schoolmates around at 13, and cleaned up 12 of the world's finest wrestlers in his first international competition in a total time of 43 minutes. And in those days wrestling was really wrestling!

Born to a poor family in Riga, Latvia, Hack thrived on what would be considered a deficiency diet these days — mostly potatoes. He developed a 52-inch chest, 19-inch biceps and 24-inch neck.

He was so strong he set world's lifting records at will and crushed the Indian giant, Madrali, unconscious with a bear-hug in 50 seconds in one of the most thrilling bouts in wrestling history.

Then he damaged a knee and had to quit wrestling.

"So," said Hack, "I decided I had used my muscles long enough. Now I would use my head. I wrote books on man and the cosmos and other subjects along that line, lectured at various universities and got quite a name for myself among scholars.

"But always I concentrated on learning how to husband the vital force of all of us so that chronological time will become less and less important.

"What does it matter if a man is 79 or 89, provided he looks and feels far younger. I am writing a book embodying my beliefs on this subject. I have been using myself as a guinea pig for 35 years.

"Here I am approaching 79. I can still wrestle. My appetite is excellent. I have no aches or pains. This is no accident.

"I am setting down exactly the mental and physical regime I have followed. It is a sort of testament to humanity for the wondgrful life I have had."

Couriers Rely on Air, Different From 1903

WASHINGTON (INS) — Back in 1903, when Secretary of State John Hay dispatched top-secret messages by courier to the other side of the world, months passed before delivery and receipt of the replies.

Today, in a tense world and an air age, one of the State Department's 89 couriers can deliver an important document to Bangkok in less than three days — one-thirtieth the time it took his predecessor 50 years ago. And he can travel on regularly-scheduled airlines all the way.

Planes, official organ of Aircraft Industries Association, said these couriers constitute one of the world's most vital and secret "special delivery" agencies. Each year, they carry pouches of the world's most momentous documents a distance of almost ten million miles by air.

Nothing Like a Car for Riding Railroad

BATESVILLE, Miss. (UP) — T. K. Williams, superintendent of the Memphis division of the Illinois Central Railroad, has solved the problem of touring the company's tracks.

Williams has equipped a 1939 automobile with steel flange wheels, and, with a locked steering gear, cruises up and down the 958 miles of track he is responsible for. The vehicle averages 12 miles per gallon on regular gasoline and cruises between 35 and 45 miles per hour.

Prisoner Falls Asleep During Police Grilling

DALLAS (UP) — "We've got him worried," a detective said to his partner outside a room where their 17-year-old prisoner sat.

"If we keep with him he's going to clear up a lot of stolen automobile cases," the partner agreed.

Operations WHO Include New Areas in Pacific

MANILA (UP)—Operations of the World Health Organization are being extended to include most of the islands of the Western Pacific.

Dr. I. C. Fang, WHO regional director, said the new areas include Guam, the trust territories of the Pacific, American Samoa and all of the British, French, Australian and New Zeland territories in the Pacific.

Restrictions Itemized for Trading With Reds

SYDNEY (UP)—Australian customs autborities have issued a list of goods which exporters can send to Communist China and all other Far Eastern countries.

Filipinos Afraid

MANILA (INS)—Filipino government officials fear the Korean truce has exposed the Philippines to greater Communist peril than ever before because the Reds may now feel free to open other fronts in Asia.
