Stevenson Trounces Kefauver in California

Adlai Surveys Victory

Adlai Takes All 68 Convention Votes in Victory

Senator Pledges Fight to Finish but Experts Say He's Through

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson swept to a thunderous California victory today that all but knocked Sen. Estes Kefauver out of the running for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Stevenson took California's 68 Democratic convention votes by what approached a landslide margin and forged so far ahead of his rivals that he looked like the man to beat for his party's nomination. He was getting 62 per cent of the Democratic vote in California.

Including yesterday's California, Montana and South Dakota primaries, Stevenson has 259½ delegates and Kefauver 166. Other candidates have 226 total and 370½ are uncommitted publicly.

MORE DEMS VOTE

But in their bitterly-fought primary yesterday the combined vote Democrats gave Stevenson and Kefauver topped substantially the ballots cast in the unexciting GOP contest. Registered Democrats outnumber Republicans by 782,000 in the state, which Eisenhower won from Stevenson by 700,000 in 1952.

With 15,366 of 24,160 precincts counted, the Democratic contest stood: Stevenson 592,409, Kefauver 359,535.

The Republican count from 13,637 precincts, fewer than tabulated in the Democratic contest—gave Eisenhower 585,986. On this basis Eisenhower was certain to top Stevenson

President Sees Tragedy in Cut of Foreign Aid

Ike Plugs Hard for the Passage of $4.9 Billion Overseas Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today it would be tragic if Congress doesn't support his foreign aid program.

But he said he believes there should be a restudy of aid for Yugoslavia in the light of Marshal Tito's new friendliness with Moscow.

His statement came at a news conference in which he:

1. Plugged hard for enactment of the administration's $4,900,000,000 foreign aid program. The House Foreign Affairs Committee has voted a $1,109,000,000 cut.

2. Drew away from taking sides in primary contests between Republicans. Eisenhower said he believes it is not the place of the President of the United States to intervene in primaries.

Also on the political front, Eisenhower declined to shed any light on whether he may campaign more vigorously this fall than he indicated in February.

As for whether he may make more than the half dozen television speeches, which the Republican National Committee has indicated are on the schedule, the President said that he had not discussed the matter with anyone.

The President said that unless this country continues the program on an earnest, sincere basis, then it will have to spend many more billions of dollars — compared to the foreign aid total — for what Eisenhower called this negative, static general defense program.

COSTS LESS THAN WAR

With emphasis, Eisenhower said that now, as long as we aren't shooting, we aren't spending a tenth as much money as if we were.

We must continue to wage the peace, he said.

We must support such programs as the Mutual Security Act and we must have a continuing study of the program to keep it on the right track.

In the course of the conference, Eisenhower also dealt with these other matters:

TWINING—The President said Gen. Nathan F. Twining's acceptance of an invitation to visit the Soviet Union air show in Moscow June 24 means the United States will reciprocate by inviting Twining's Russian opposite number to this country. Twining is Air Force chief of staff.

STALIN—Eisenhower expressed the opinion that the denunciation of Stalin by Nikita Khrushchev, Russia's Communist party boss, was primarily for home consumption.

FBI Hunts Brink's Loot; Three More Men Indicted

BOSTON (INS)—Three more men were indicted last night in the $1,219,000 Brink's robbery and the FBI raided several places in search for $25,000 of the loot, in addition to the estimated $86,000 recovered yesterday.

The Suffolk County grand jury returned 22 indictments, containing 66 counts, against Jordan Perry Jr. 31, of Boston; Edward "Wimpy" Bennett, 36, of East Weymouth, and John F. Buccelli, 41, of Brookline. They were charged with being accessories after the fact in the Brink's robbery on Jan. 17, 1950.

Bennett and Buccelli were held in $25,000 double surety each after they pleaded innocent at their arraignment in Suffolk Superior Court.

Perry was held in Baltimore, Md., on a federal parole violation warrant.

It was Perry's arrest in Baltimore Monday with $4,750 of the Brink's loot in his possession which led to the arrest of Bennett and Buccelli and the recovery of between $70,000 and $80,000 from a cache behind the walls of an office in Boston's south end section.

Perry allegedly told authorities he saw $25,000 additional Brink's loot in a south shore house last Friday. This touched off a new search for the "hot" money by the FBI.

Railroad Plans Expansion Here

More Yard and Tracks to Provide Industry With Better Service

"We are prepared to spend approximately three quarters of a million dollars in Pontiac, most of it to aid the shipping problems here," said Donald Gordon, president of the Grand Trunk Western to a group of Pontiac business men at a luncheon yesterday. Gordon is also president of the Canadian National Railways.

"This is a community problem," said Gordon, "and we are anxious to have the cooperation and support of city officials, Pontiac Motor Division and Fisher Body. We want to work this problem out to the best advantage of all concerned.

"Pontiac's two big industries in the north end, Pontiac Motor and Fisher Body, are badly handicapped now and so is the Grand Trunk by the current arrangements for switching and handling cars.

"They are subject to unfortunate delays which slow them down altogether too often. In view of the tremendous growth of industry in Pontiac in the past few years, what was sufficient once, is wholly inadequate now. These plants have developed enormously and have gone far beyond anything that any of us expected.

"We propose to spend about $600,000 on this one phase of our

Detroit's Water Pipeline Plan Surprises City, Area Officials

Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo's announcement yesterday that Detroit is "planning" a pipeline to Lake Huron to supply municipal water needs in Pontiac, and Oakland and Macomb counties, has added to the complications of the water issue in the area.

Comment from officials who have been directly concerned with the growing area water crisis would indicate Detroit officials have acted entirely on their own in forming the new proposal.

Royal Oak Mayor Howard K. Kelley, chairman of the newly-formed Southeastern Michigan Water Authority, said yesterday the Detroit officials had not contacted him or any member of the authority before announcing their proposal to the public.

Kelley's authority was formed at the suggestion of the Inter-County Committee. It now includes Oakland and Macomb counties, and has legal power to issue bonds, enter contracts and build a pipeline to a distant pure-water source.

"We see no reason, in the light of Mayor Cobo's statement, to suspend the work of our authority," Kelley said yesterday.

Referring to Cobo's claim that a Detroit-sponsored pipeline would be cheaper for area cities than any other adequate water supply Kelley said:

"I don't see how the City of Detroit could build a pipeline to any lasting pure-water source, and serve the area indicated, any cheaper than the Authority or anyone else could.

"Right of way and materials will cost the same no matter who builds it. I doubt Detroit can get a lower interest rate on bonds than anybody else."

When the Southeastern Michigan Water Authority was formed, Kelley said, Wayne County rejected membership in it.

Studies of feasibility of a pipeline to Lake Huron already have been made by Flint, Pontiac, and the eight communities now in the Southeastern Oakland County Water Authority.

George Schmid, engineer manager of this group, said its study indicated water obtained through a pipeline would cost up to $8 per thousand cubic feet.

When the eight communities found they could buy their 42 million gallons a day from Detroit for $1.50 per thousand cubic feet, he said, "the answer was obvious."

Schmid today termed Cobo's plan "competitive," and recommended a "careful study" of it by Kelley's Southeastern Michigan authority. He said he had not heard of a survey being made until yesterday's announcement, but would be interested in analyzing any report by Detroit's water board.

"As an engineer, I wouldn't be able to comment on the proposal until I've seen their report," Schmid said.

Pontiac City Manager Walter K. Willman said yesterday Detroit officials had not contacted him before announcing the plan.

Willman said Pontiac's study of a pipeline indicated it would cost $32 million to pipe 50 million gallons a day from Lake Huron to Pontiac.

Willman said, however, that Pontiac officials are "interested" in the proposal.

"We're interested in any way we can get sufficient water to the city quicker than we can supply it ourselves," he said.

Rochester village manager Robert Slone echoed Willman's statement, saying: "We're interested in such projects, but we

Tax Rate in City Remains Stable

$13.70 Per $1,000 Set by City Commissioners for 1956 Year

A tax rate of $13.70 per $1,000 of assessed value in Pontiac — the same as last year — was approved by the City Commission last night.

The rate will be levied on an assessed valuation of $239,486,275, and is expected to net the city treasury $3,280,961.97, according to City Manager Walter K. Willman.

The city was able to maintain the $13.70 rate, the same as 1954 also, because of increased assessed valuations, he said. The assessed valuation for 1956 shows an increase of $22,895,795 over last year.

The tax will be the major source for the city's revised budget of $5,136,276.56 which was approved by the commission. A revenue of $1,555,314.59 will be derived from sources other than taxes.

The $5 million plus total operating budget is an increase of $244,448.48 over an estimated budget approved in January.

The major portion of the new funds, $200,000, will be applied to the cost of the Public Safety Building. Public works and city construction crews are slated to receive $23,204.34 in new equipment.

The voter-approved pay hike for the city commissioners and the mayor resulted in $5,000 extra, while $6,500 is earmarked for hiring of a city planning technician.

Pontiac General Hospital will receive $9,743.14 toward retirement of hospital bonds.

Troy Adds One Area, Rejects 2nd Parcel

Voters in the new city of Troy and in Troy Township yesterday approved annexation of a 2¾-square mile parcel of township land to the city, but a second annexation proposal was turned down by township voters.

The first proposal passed by a total city and township vote of 453 to 38.

The second proposal, to annex 2¼ square miles of township land to the city, was approved by city voters, 409-31, but failed to pass when the township vote tied at two for and two against the proposal.

Another proposal to transfer the township's water system to city control passed by a 402-46 vote.

Birmingham and Troy Township voters approved annexing a square mile of township land to Birmingham by a 251-18 vote.

Stevenson Cops Harriman Votes

Empire State Primary Indicates at Least Four Delegates to Back Adlai

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—New York Democratic leaders' hopes of presenting complete support for Gov. Averell Harriman at the party's presidential convention sailed out the window today as at least four Adlai Stevenson supporters forced their way into the state's delegation.

* * *

While Harriman will have the overwhelming majority of New York's 98 convention votes in his pocket, four pro-Stevenson men won convention delegate seats in the New York primary. Two others claimed victory over Harriman backers as vote counting continued.

Two of the upset victors wired Stevenson they would be with him "on the first ballot and until you are nominated."

Elsewhere on the primary election front, virtually all incumbent candidates for renomination to seats in Congress and the State Legislature won.

The Republican slate of presidential convention delegates ran without opposition. The GOP is prepared to throw its 96 votes behind President Eisenhower's bid for renomination.

Harriman's presidential tub thumpers were prepared to surrender at least two delegate votes to the Stevenson camp. These were two delegate candidates, in Manhattan and nearby Westchester County, who were unopposed in the primary.

Tammany leader Carmine G. DeSapio, one of Harriman's chief political lieutenants, said he was "very, very satisfied" with the election results.

Pontiac Sales Show Upturn Past 10 Days

Pontiac dealers turned in their highest 10 day new car sales in two months this week, R. M. Critchfield, Pontiac Motor Division general manager announced.

Missing Cow Goes Home

Lynn W. Rowe, of 4180 Baldwin Rd., had to go 20 miles out to Brandon Township to recover a Holstein milker he noticed missing in the morning.

Rowe, with the assistance of Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies and mailmen in the rural areas, was searching the back roads when he found tracks which led him to the D. J. Rush farm on Dartmouth Road.

He bought the cow there Monday.

Tito Visits Red A-Plant; U.S. Eyes Yugoslavia Aid

MOSCOW (INS) — President Tito of Yugoslavia resumed his role of distinguished sightseer in Moscow today following a round of reconciliation meetings with Soviet leaders.

Tito visited an experimental atomic power station near Moscow this morning, will address students at Moscow University this afternoon and leave this evening for a two-day visit to Leningrad.

He will return to Moscow Saturday before beginning a ten-day tour of the Soviet Union.

The Yugoslav president spoke favorably of Russian aid to undeveloped countries and of the need for increased trade between nations.

And he indicated that Russian-Yugoslav relations will be better now that Stalin is dead, because of their mutual adherence to the principles of Marx, Engles and Lenin.

(In Washington today the Pentagon indicated that U. S. military aid to Yugoslavia is proceeding at an accelerated pace and may total about 75 million dollars in 1956 if deliveries are uninterrupted.

But officials said the shipments can be shut off if Yugoslav dictator Marshal Tito's current visit to Russia should lead to a determination by the U.S. government that he is rejoining the Communist bloc.)

Adlai, Truman Ticket Proposed by Californian

LOS ANGELES (AP) — California Atty. Gen. Edmund G. Brown, who now heads the state's delegation to the Democratic nominating convention, suggests this ticket for the party next fall:

President, Adlai Stevenson; vice president, Harry Truman.

"Why not?" he said. "Truman has been wanting to get back to Washington, and I think he might just go for the idea."

He made his comment to a group of reporters as Stevenson claimed victory in yesterday's California primary.

French Peasants Mark 12th Anniversary

D-Day Beachheads Still Assume U. S. Names

OMAHA BEACH, France (AP) — Even to the French peasants who live nearby, this beach where the Allies landed 12 years ago today is known as Omaha.

Their pronunciation may be different, but they have learned the name from serious-faced visitors who have come in search of graves and from old soldiers seeking spots burned into their memory of D-Day.

Signs now direct visitors to points of interest along the landing areas. The signs are in French but two invasion names have stuck—Omaha and Utah—the Normandy beaches where the might of the Allies struck to drive back the forces of Nazi Germany.

12TH ANNIVERSARY

Today's 12th anniversary of D-Day found residents and visitors again making the annual pilgrimage to the channel-washed strip of brown sand.

The sad gentle sound of taps played by military buglers was only the faintest echo of the fury of that day, when the West mustered a mighty air and sea armada to launch the invasion of Normandy.

* * *

Today's military observances were largely confined to the cemeteries—French, British and Canadian—scattered along the coast. The schedule called for the usual speeches, rifle salutes and sounding of taps before the visitors moved quietly through the ordered rows of graves or walked reflectively along the beaches.

TRACE OF INVASION GONE

Omaha shows almost no trace of the invasion. A rusted landing ship can be seen far down the beach. At low tide the broken skeletons of the harbor made of sunken ships poke through the channel waters. That's about all.

While the foreign visitors renew their memories along the coast, many French villages fill their churches and city halls to commemorate the days that freed them from Nazi occupation. This tradition has grown strong in the channel region and local observances will go on for several days.

* * *

The official British party at the D-Day ceremonies was headed by Housing Minister Duncan Sandys, a son-in-law of Sir Winston Churchill, Britain's wartime prime minister. Maj. Gen. Richard Partridge flew from U. S. Army headquarters in Germany to place an American wreath on the monument at Utah Beach.

Eye Ramp OK for Bank Move

Attorney Will Prepare Lease for Proposed $500,000 Expansion

Steps were taken last night by the City Commission towards possible approval of a ramp to connect the Community National Bank to a proposed addition at 15 E. Lawrence St.

* * *

Upon the recommendation of City Manager W. K. Willman, the commissioners instructed the city attorney prepare a proper lease for commission consideration to allow the bank to build over the city alley separating the two buildings.

"This might involve a question of clearance," Willman said. "It has been done before and I can't see why it couldn't be done in this case."

A. C. Girard, president of the bank, said cramped quarters has necessitated the new addition, estimated to cost approximately $500,000. This total includes the ramp which will connect to the bank's mezzanine floor.

54 Receive Diplomas at St. Fred's High

The Rev. Edmund A. Fornier, Prefect of Studies, Sacred Heart Seminary, Orchard Lake, in his address to the graduates, told them to first say words of gratitude to everyone who led them to this service.

"Tonight there is fanfare," the Rev. Mr. Fournier told graduates, "but in the next few days or weeks, the glamor dies and time comes for reflection."

He counseled seniors to face up to the responsibilities of life and to realize they are not finished products but just beginning.

"There are three bones necessary for a successful life," the Rev. Mr. Fournier said, "a wishbone to hold high your aims and hopes; a backbone to maintain courage of your convictions and a funnybone to face life with a smile when the going gets tough."

Detroit Water Plan Surprises Officials

want to know all the facts about them.

"It's all been quite a surprise," Slone said of Cobo's proposal. Cobo had included Rochester in his list of communities which might be included in the pipeline.

In Detroit, city councilman James H. Lincoln, a long-time political foe of Cobo's, today called the plan "strictly political."

Cobo retaliated in kind, attacking Lincoln's remarks as "just another political statement."

Cobo said the program has been under study for months.

Cobo added the pipeline would be financed by communities along its route which would buy water from it. He said it would mean no additional cost to Detroit taxpayers.

The Detroit pipeline would be finished by 1956, Cobo said. Kelley's Southeastern Michigan group decided in their organizational meeting May 16 a line should be finished in five years "to do any real good."

The Southeastern Michigan authority also decided to gather information from previous studies, the National Sanitation Foundation, Detroit Edison Co. and the Regional Plan Commission for immediate submission to interested engineering firms.

Marilyn Rents English Haven —and Servants

LONDON (AP)—Patrick Cotes-Preedy, a lawyer, is renting his country house to Marilyn Monroe this summer.

"Miss Monroe must have privacy and all that," said Mrs. Cotes-Preedy. "Police have looked the house and the grounds over and they say Miss Monroe will have the seclusion we understand she seeks."

The Cotes-Preedy estate at Ascot has nine bedrooms, four bathrooms and magnificent reception rooms. It is surrounded by 20 acres with trees and flowers.

"We are also leaving behind for Miss Monroe our wonderful cook from the Channel Isles, a French parlor maid, our very English gardener and so on," said Mrs. Cotes-Preedy.

She's a 'Brat' No Longer

Partial Removal of Brain Alters Girl's Personality

FAILED TO GROW

She became a "brat," mistreated others, shouted at her mother and destroyed toys. She suffered 10 to 12 convulsions each day. She was taken out of school because of her ugly behavior and taken to Wesley Hospital.

Medical investigators decided that half her brain was responsible for her behavior. Tests showed the right half of the brain and skull had failed to grow.

So, in a 4-hour, 35-minute operation May 14, the right half of the brain was removed. Generally, the right half of the brain controls the left side of the body.

Now, the doctors reported, the healthy side of the brain is taking over additional functions, and the child's senses are as acute as before the operation.

Partial paralysis still is apparent, they said, but improvement is expected with the passage of time. She has no more convulsions, they added, but does have a new personality.

The girl was described as pretty, cooperative and cheerful, and of normal intelligence.

Summerfield Opens 'Operation Canine'

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Postoffice Department today launched "Operation Canine" — designed to make the dog the postman's best friend.

* * *

Sixteen experts on the problem of dogs biting mail carriers met behind closed doors and heard Postmaster Arthur Summerfield call the problem a serious one.

Said Summerfield: "There is little room for levity or humor in dog bite injuries."

He said that in 1955 some 5,880 dog bites were reported—one for every 20 letter carriers. Other bites, he added, may have gone unreported.

To meet the problem of why man's best friend picks on the man who delivers the mail, the conference approved a nationwide program to "educate" dog owners and letter carriers.

* * *

The experts, including a dog psychologist, agreed to submit written recommendations for the campaign. A second meeting was tentatively set for June 20.

Foreman Crushed Beneath Bulldozer

A 34-year-old construction company foreman died yesterday in Pontiac General Hospital of injuries suffered when crushed by his bulldozer Monday morning.

A spokesman for Bundy Construction Company said that the accident took place as Kenneth D. Powell was driving the bulldozer onto the rear of the truck at the Davisburg farm of Palmer G. Bundy, who owns the company.

Evidently the truck sank to one side in soft ground, the spokesman said, tossing the bulldozer to the ground on top of the driver.

* * *

Chairman John G. Semann, Drain Commissioner Ralph A. Main and committee members will follow the Red Run drain, which serves southern Oakland County as a storm outlet, to its termination at the Clinton River spillway.

The committee already has toured Twelve Towns, Evergreen and Southfield drains, and the now-defunct proposed Farmington Interceptor.

County Clerk of Committees Norman Barnard said today the group is "studying the whole drain picture in the county."

Music Festival Attracts 5,000 at Waterford

More than 5,000 spectators overflowed Waterford Township High School stadium last night to view the elementary schools' spectacular music festival "Water Wonderland."

Two thousand students in grades four through six of the township's 12 elementary schools depicted Michigan's history in song and dance. The program pointed up "a review of the past, the glory of the present and a salute to the future."

Mrs. Lois Tiffany, elementary music supervisor, who wrote and directed the production, was assised by 10 elementary music teachers. High school seniors Caroline Campbell and Sheldon Smith narrated the story, which spanned the years from the time of the Indians to a decade in the future.

Grand Trunk Plans to Expand Services

Pontiac operations to assist the plants, the city and ourselves in giving better and faster service. We are currently discussing this matter with the corporation and with city officials and are seeking their aid and assistance in solving the problem.

"The Grand Trunk is spending four million dollars on our big, main yards at Battle Creek and we are doing an operation in Flint substantially like what we hope to do in Pontiac."

Grand Trunk officials are currently making a trip around the state to study conditions first hand. Gordon inspected the proposed Pontiac operation yesterday morning. The railroad group had dinner with some civic leaders Monday night in Detroit and following the luncheon here at noon, had dinner with a group of interested business men in Flint last night. Following that, the group swings around to other points in the state.

Gordon is an international figure in Canada and is the president and executive officer of the Canadian National which is the largest railroad in the world. He holds several honorary degrees and is one of Canada's top ranking figures.

Robert M. Critchfield, general manager of Pontiac Motor Division expressed satisfaction at Gordon's declaration. "We are handicapped frequently by the lack of sufficient tracks in the right place," said he. "I have reviewed the Grand Trunk plans and this proposal will make a big difference in our operations in the future."

Domestic Hospitalized After Drinking Iodine

A 16-year-old Drayton Plains girl is in good condition in Pontiac General Hospital, authorities said, after reportedly swallowing iodine this morning.

They said that Marjorie Barber, 2291 Newberry St. apparently took the poison about 10 a.m. while performing housework in a home at 181 Lorberta Lane, Waterford Township.

Detroit Murder Hearing Opens

Mrs. Victoria Hermiz and Maurice Hamilton Face 1st Degree Count

DETROIT (AP) — Mrs. Victoria Hermiz, 23, and Maurice Hamilton, 20, go on trial today for the fatal stabbing of Mrs. Hermiz' grocer husband last Feb. 10. Both are charged with first degree murder.

Mrs. Hermiz' attorney, Edward A. Khoury, indicated yesterday his client will plead insanity.

* * *

Hamilton and Mrs. Hermiz, immigrants from Iraq, have been examined by a sanity commission and found mentally capable of standing trial.

Judge for the case has yet to be named.

In preliminary action, Recorder's Court Judge Paul E. Krause denied four motions by Hamilton's attorney, Michael Kranson. He had asked for separate trials for the accused pair, a change of venue because of publicity given the case, a bill of particulars on the charges and a description of how evidence was discovered.

Hamilton and Mrs. Hermiz are accused of slaying her husband, Aziz, 35, as he slept in the Hermiz home where Hamilton was an overnight guest. Each at one time accused the other of the actual stabbing.

* * *

Recently Hamilton placed the blame on a third person, known to him, and repeated the accusation under the influence of "truth serum."

* * *

Police, however, said they had previously cleared the man named by Hamilton. They also noted that testimony given under the serum's influence is not admissible as court evidence.

Adlai in Landslide as California Votes

Kefauver said he will continue campaigning for the Democratic nomination. He said he will not accept a vice presidential place on the ticket—an offer not likely to come to him if Stevenson wins the top spot.

* * *

Kefauver said in a congratulatory telegram to Stevenson he and his supporters will do "everything possible for the election of Democratic candidates in the general election and to bring California back into the Democratic fold in November." The Tennessee senator told reporters he had "no excuses, no regrets and no alibis" for his defeat.

'ONLY FIRST STEP'

Stevenson obviously was relieved that primary campaigning ended with California's the final contested election before the August party convention. He said he was "delighted by the results." He added, in what seemed to be a reference to the November election that "This is only the first step in a long campaign."

* * *

California's Atty. Gen. Edmund G. Brown, Stevenson's No. 1 backer here, said the primary outcome "means California will elect Adlai Stevenson in November."

* * *

Democrats held their lines more firmly than usual. They denied cross-filing Republicans two-party nomination in a U. S. Senate seat and congressional races. One Democratic congressman won reelection without opposition and two captured GOP as well as their own party's nominations.

Delay Examination on Narcotics Charge

Pre-trial examination of 14 persons charged with conspiracy to violate state narcotics laws was postponed today until June 13.

* * *

* * *

The 14, including three women, were arrested as a result of an eight-months investigation by the Pontiac Vice Squad.

Ferndale Youth Admits Breakins

Confesses 41 Crimes, Waives Examination in Court

The Monday night arrest by Ferndale police of 19-year-old Robert Romaine, of 87 W. Bernard, Hazel Park, brought a confession to 41 previously unsolved breakins throughout Oakland County, it was announced today by county detectives.

He waived examination when arraigned before Justice Earl N. Nash of Ferndale yesterday on breaking and entering in the night time and will appear for sentence June 11. He failed to furnish $2,000 bond and was lodged in the Oakland County Jail.

Romaine was nabbed Monday while attempting to loot a building. They said he admitted to having committed 41 breakins in the county and three in other states since April 2.

Churches, homes, and business places had been the chief buildings broken into, Romaine told police. He said about 30 of the breakins were in the Hazel Park area.

Brown Seeks Post in State Legislature

Former Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor Donald Brown, 31, today announced he will seek the Republican nomination for State Representative from the 5th District in the August 7 primary election.

Brown, a graduate of Detroit College of Law, left his position as head of the Royal Oak branch of the Prosecutor's office two weeks ago to return to private practice. He had held the position for 3½ years.

An Army veteran of World War II who spent 15 months in a German prison camp, Brown was nominated Republican candidate for State Representative in the 5th district in 1952.

Since then, the district has been reapportioned to include Clawson, Royal Oak, Huntington Woods and Pleasant Ridge.

Cave-in Buries Man in Cellar of Home

Rochester resident Melvin Blanchard, 44, spent an uncomfortable few minutes buried in the cellar of a home he was working on last night, Pontiac State Police said today.

He was rescued quickly by neighbors.

The man was working in the basement of a home being constructed at 8741 Ondanega St., Walters Lake, when the surrounding ground caved in on him, according to the troopers. They reported he was putting tar on the wall when he slipped, causing the dirt to give way. He was trapped until help arrived.

Blanchard suffered shock but no apparent injuries from his experience but was planning to visit his family doctor today.

Two Men Injured as Truck Crashes

A truck driver and his passenger suffered minor injuries when the vehicle in which they were riding went off the road and turned over after swerving to avoid a halted motor scooter Tuesday.

* * *

William K. Hadskin, 28, of Royal Oak, the driver, and Troy Butler, 19, of Ferndale, were both treated by their family doctors following the crash. Hadskin had a bruised right arm and strained neck, while Butler received a strained back.

Investigating State Police reported the accident happened yesterday on Sashabaw Rd., Waterford Township. They said the truck was following two scooters operated by young boys and had to swerve quickly to the right when the brakes on one of the scooters locked and the vehicle stopped right in front of the oncoming truck.

The scooter was attempting to turn right and the truck had slowed down following the boy's hand signal when the incident occurred, according to the Pontiac troopers.

Pontiac City Affairs

Commission Approves Amendment on Residency of Police, Firemen

A proposed charter amendment concerning the city residency of Pontiac police and firemen was approved by the City Commission last night.

The form of the ballot, to be voted on in the November election, was instructed to be forwarded to the Governor and Attorney General's office for formal approval.

The proposed amendment will require police and firemen to live within a 10 mile radius of the Saginaw and Huron intersection.

Other business included a relatively brief 22-point agenda, included the acceptance of a deed for lot 45 assessor's plat 112 on W. Lawrence St. to be used for municipal parking purposes.

Public hearings will be conducted next Tuesday night on the following sidewalk projects in the city on which engineer estimates were aired by the clerk:

For south side of E. Pike street from East boulevard to Astor (Assessed cost $1,388.48, city cost $1,887.02).

For both sides of Kenilworth avenue from Madison to Mt. Clemens (Assessed cost $11,672.48, city cost $7,617.23).

For both sides of Cameron avenue from Madison to Mt. Clemens (Assessed cost $10,008.94, city cost $5,429.89).

Cost for 50 foot lots for all three projects will be $100 as outlined in the estimates.

A communication of damage arising from a Feb. 17 explosion of a private home in the city and a suit against the city involving the controversial ice cream peddling ordinance, were both referred to City Attorney William A. Ewart.

Commissioner Floyd Miles offered a memorial resolution in remembrance of the late Dr. Rufus M. Traver of Sylvan Lake who died April 24. The resolution was in recognition of his contributions to the community. It received unanimous approval of the commission.

Commissioners granted that permission be requested from the Michigan Department of Conservation for use of several parcels of land be deeded to the city for right-of-ways needed for street widening.

No action was taken on amending a city ordinance to boost the pay of Municipal Court jurors to $4 per day.

The adoption of ordinances to amend two sections of the city's building zone law was deferred two weeks.

'Little Joe' Thanks U.S. for Education

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"My name is Jose Rodriguez Toscano. The friendliness of the American people has shortened it to 'Little Joe.' I like it better just plain Joe—because it sounds so American."

* * *

For Joe, a 19-year-old Mexican national, the diploma he'll be receiving represents the reward for six years of perseverance, the realization of an ambition which began in Mexico City in 1949.

"When I was 12 years old," Joe says, "I hitchhiked for over four months in order to reach our city. Finally authorities (the immigration service) found me. Then I found friends."

SHOWS WILLINGNESS

A Mexican-American family here had given the young foreigner shelter and he had become an honor student at St. Turibius School, where he amazed everyone by his aptitude and his willingness to work his way as a kitchen helper.

But only a month before he was to graduate to high school, immigration officials learned of his illegal entry into the country and he was taken into custody.

As Joe says, it was then that he found friends.

* * *

The Franciscan sisters of St. Turibius awarded him his eighth-grade diploma despite the fact he was a prisoner in Juvenile Hall. Newspapers came to his support with stories and editorials praising the little Mexican's ambition and spirit.

Joe was sent back across the border into Mexico, but three months later he was back in the United States legally—the holder of a visa.

Joe's graduation speech tonight is full of praise for the people who helped him and for the country itself:

"America to me is the greatness of the Americans themselves," he says. And at another point: "Never shall I forget that I owe my happiness to America and its Americans."

* * *

Next on Joe's schedule is a visit to his mother in Mexico City. Then, after six months of active duty in the Air Force Reserve, he plans to enroll in Los Angeles City College for a prelegal course.

"My chosen profession is law," Joe says. "God willing, I shall someday receive another diploma and I hope by then as an American citizen that I too can help build a greater America just by being one of its citizens."

$100 Is Yours If You Answer Puzzle No. 2

POT-O-GOLD, the Pontiac Press' exciting new summer word game, begins its second week with Puzzle No. 2, below. It's fun—read the directions carefully, fill out your entry and send it in. It can mean at least $100 to you every time you win.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then, would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conform to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

That's all there is to it. Good luck!

Assessment Change Delayed

A 3-3 vote last night by the City Commission delayed temporarily a proposed change in the assessment policy for sewers and water mains for side lots in the city.

The proposal is to assess 25 per cent of the first 150 feet of these lots while the city would bear a burden of the remaining 75 per cent. The old formula placed 60 per cent on the owner and 40 per cent to the city.

Voting against the proposal were Commissioners John Dugan, Floyd Miles, and Gilbert Long. Both Dugan and Miles have long been outspoken foes of added assessments because of side lots.

Favoring the move were Commissioners Dr. Roy Cooley, Philip Rowston, and John Carry. Mayor William W. Donaldson was on vacation.

Carry moved the matter be reconsidered and tabled until next week.

"The old formula, and not even this 25 per cent one, is justified," Miles said. "I still can't see why people should be assessed for these side lots for which I claim they derive no benefits."

"I, too, believe this is wrong and do not believe someone who owns a side lot should be assessed twice," Dugan said.

* * *

City Manager W. K. Willman reiterated his stand that this assessment was fair and carried on in many other cities. "It is considered that side lots have added value and therefore these people should be paying a part of the overall system," Willman explained.

Marshal Stands Mute Over Alaska Malemute

INDIANAPOLIS (INS) — Town Marshal Morris Settles of Lawrence raced after a car that had been driven in a drunken fashion along a highway, hitting a car and four mail boxes. It came to a halt but Settles didn't arrest the driver.

* * *

Aviatrix Cochran Nears GOP Solon Nomination

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—Aviatrix Jacqueline Cochran Odlum, in her first flier at politics, appeared headed today for the Republican nomination for representative of California's 29th Congressional District.

Mrs. Odlum had 5,545 votes to her nearest opponent's 4,376 on Republican ballots from 206 of 417 precincts in the desert district. Fred Eldridge was the runner-up in the field of eight candidates.

Judge Dalip S. Saund, a naturalized Hindu from India clinched the Democratic nomination, assuring a lively November election fight. Saund had 6,632 votes to Mrs. Odlum's 2,494 on the Democratic side.

There are 1,200,000 physicians in the world today the United Nations says.

Liquid Miracle! No washday powder ever made can give you the concentrated washing power of new blue instant liquid Wisk

The instant Wisk hits water, it bursts into millions of wet, live, liquid suds, liquid suds with concentrated washing power that get out dirt and stains dry, lazy, powder suds can't even budge.

You will pour Wisk into your washer. It will get your family wash so clean and white that you will never use a powder detergent again!

LIQUID MIRACLE! Wisk washes clothes whiter than any powder ever made!

LIQUID MIRACLE! Wisk removes more stains than any powder ever made!

LIQUID MIRACLE! Wisk is safer, much safer, than any powder ever made!

New, blue WISK is different from anything you ever tried. In the first place, it is a liquid you pour into your washer. It goes to work instantly. No waiting for powders to dissolve.

But, more important, new WISK is concentrated. It does three times as much wash as the same amount of powder. And does it better, too. For it gives you a concentrated washing power unequaled by any powder. Besides, new WISK is safe for hands, safe for fabrics — safe as only a liquid can be.

MAKES ANY WASHER TURN OUT A CLEANER AND A WHITER FAMILY WASH

Never again need you find a gravy spot left in a just-washed napkin, or a lipstick stain in a hand towel, or a grease spot in a suit of coveralls. For concentrated liquid WISK penetrates deep into cloth fibers in a way no powder can. Safely, but thoroughly, it pulls out stubborn stains, removes hidden dirt, gets everything clean.

And wait till you see what WISK does for shirt collars and cuffs! Without bluing or bleach, it gets white things up to three shades whiter with the first wash. In fact, WISK gets all your family wash so clean it even smells clean.

FIRST REALLY ALL-PURPOSE DETERGENT!

You will use WISK for just about every cleaning job in your home! It makes quick work of dishes: Soaks them clean. Concentrated WISK wipes grease off a stove or kitchen wall. It makes old, discolored linoleum look new. It gets yellowed kitchen cabinets white and shiny again.

WISK does the toughest jobs quicker, easier, more safely than products designed for these tasks. Now you can throw away those harsh and dangerous chemicals!

NO MORE MESSY, SNEEZY POWDERS!

And what a blessing WISK is! It does away with "washday hay fever"... with clumsy, soggy boxes . . . with messy powders that spill. And because WISK does so many jobs so well, you don't have to clutter your shelves with all those boxes and bottles you used to need.

WISK IS UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED!

We've promised a good deal for WISK and we mean it. In fact, we guarantee it! If you don't agree that WISK is the best detergent you've ever used — not just as good, but the BEST! — we at Lever Brothers will return the purchase price to you . . . plus postage!

U. S. Products Popular Among Paris Shoppers

A merchandising phenomenon worthy of note is the avidity with which French shoppers have been buying made in America clothing and household goods.

The situation is the result of the decisions of two leading Paris department stores to import articles long commonplace in this country. As a result French women have been enthusiastically buying such things as long handled dust pans, outdoor barbecue equipment, egg slicers and magazine racks.

Other merchandise in popular demand include washable rugs, furniture upholstery materials and maternity dresses. Readily salable also were suits, sweaters, print goods, flowered chintz aprons, pot holders, cocktail tables and pedal operated garbage cans.

It is unlikely, says U. S. News & World Report, that this experiment will be repeated. The two stores spent $300,000 buying these articles wholesale. On top of that they had to pay customs duties up to 30 per cent, freight, French taxes up to 25 per cent and certain other special rates. The result was that the articles had to sell at about twice U. S. retail prices.

However, it is hoped that the popular demand for this merchandise will persuade French manufacturers to produce similar goods and merchants to stock them. If that should happen, many conveniences taken for granted in American homes, would become available to the housewives of France.

Yugoslavia Expected to Keep Independence

It may be impossible for some time to judge the effect of Marshal Tito's Moscow visit on Yugoslav relations with the United States and the West.

In the opinion of Harold E. Stassen, assistant to President Eisenhower, continuation of U. S. aid to Yugoslavia will depend on a careful analysis of the visit. He believes, however, that Yugoslavia will maintain its independence.

Mr. Stassen added that the U. S. does not rule out aid to independent countries if they are not acting against our interests. However, belief that Tito's Moscow visit may bring forth an amendment cutting off U. S. aid is held by Ohio's Republican Congressman Vorys.

Nonetheless, it can't be denied that Tito has gone to Moscow under circumstances favorable to him. Soviet leaders have junked the one man rule personified by Stalin. They also have given evidence of seeing other things as Tito sees them. They even have paid him the compliment of adopting his idea about national communism.

The free world hasn't forgotten how it welcomed Tito's break with Russia in 1948. Although Titoism didn't prove catching and the Marshal didn't come all the way over to the West, the free world can find comfort in his stubborn stand on middle ground.

Expert observers have no fear that Tito will succumb to Soviet blandishments during his stay in Moscow. The undeniable fact is that Yugoslavia has gained the unique status of a Communist neutral and the Marshal apparently intends to keep it that way.

Longer Life for All

A vital fact of importance to everyone is that life expectancy in this country is continuing to increase.

This information highlights interesting data in the May bulletin of Progress in Health Services. It is an encouraging fact that chances of survival today are greater for everyone than they ever were.

In 1900, for example, 50 per cent of all white males were expected to live at least until the age of 57. In 1953 that expectation had been increased to 71 years.

The figures for women are even more startling. White females 60 years old gained three years of life expectancy between 1930 and 1953. Twenty-five per cent of white females born in 1900 could expect to live to the age of 75. That same percentage of females born in 1953 could look forward to 84 years of life.

This increased life expectancy, of course, reflects the scientific and medical advances of the last half century. Isolation and identification of bacteria, improvement of anaesthesia, wide use of X-ray and modern surgical techniques all have contributed to the decline in overall mortality rates.

It is reasonable to believe, as the bulletin's publishers do, that further gains are within reach. That, of course, implies successful effort to reduce our high accident death rate and more intelligent use of the medical services already at our command.

The Man About Town

Intricate Work

Book Tells of Precision Product of Pontiac Plant

Honeymoon: That period in a man's life when he discovers that he never before had a bad boss.

Pontiac Motor Division

during World War II is very graphically described by

in his book, "How American Industry Made Victory Possible," just off the press. Quoting from it: "The aircraft torpedo was designed for use against both surface and subsurface ships. To be effective it had to drop on the water at a fixed speed while maintaining forward flight, travel straight and true under water at a predetermined depth, and pack sufficient power to sink a battleship.

"This sleek and slippery package of gleaming metal, less than 20 feet long, contained 5,222 parts and 1,225 different assemblies, most of which required exact standards of production, intricate machining, and careful assembly, piece by piece. Some of the gyro parts had an allowable tolerance of only one 25 millionth of an inch."

I'm strong for the American Legion. I belong. I came in right after the Revolutionary War and have been a member ever since. But I am a little dublous about its three-day Tag Day.

Isn't that overdoing it a little? Tag Days should be confined to a single day, I always insist.

How about it Mr. City Manager?

Going to Ann Arbor this week for the annual reunion of his Class of 1901 of the University of Michigan Law School is of Oxford, oldest member of the Oakland County Bar Association. He will be 85 on July 15.

Robert M. Corbit

The 16-year-old lad who was the ring leader of a trio who stole a locomotive and ran it around Detroit railroad yards for 20 miles the other night tells police that he got his first insight into railroading by watching the men at a roundhouse in Pontiac.

Located in the northwest corner of Troy Township and only two miles from the Pontiac city limits, has sold his farm of 38 acres, for subdividing purposes. Now 84 years of age, he has lived on this farm most of his life.

Max R. Hodgdon

"Hope We're Not Looking Into the Future"

David Lawrence Says:

Communists in America Protected by Supreme Court's Latest Decision

WASHINGTON—The confusion inside the Supreme Court seems to grow with each week's decisions. This time the Communist party can boast of its greatest victory. Three out of the nine justices have accepted the persistently expressed alibi of the Communists in this country that they are "just another political party."

The Congress has repeatedly proclaimed by law that the Communist party is not a political party but a conspiracy which waits for the opportune moment to overthrow the government of the United States.

The opinion of the court in the case held that an employer in California was justified in discharging an employe because of membership in the Communist party and that it was covered by the contract between the union and the employer. Justices Harlan, Reed, Burton, Clark, Minton and Frankfurter concurred in the ruling of the Court.

VIOLATES 1ST AMENDMENT

But Justice Douglas, writing a dissenting opinion in behalf of Chief Justice Warren, Justice Black and himself, said it wasn't a matter of a local contract and that the doctrine expounded by the majority "violates First Amendment guarantees of citizens who are workers in our industrial plants." Then Justice Douglas writes:

"I can better illustrate my difficulty by a hypothetical case. A union enters into a collective-bargaining agreement with an employe who is a Republican to be discharged for 'just cause.' Employers can, of course, hire whom they choose, arranging for an all-Democratic labor force if they desire.

"A union has no such liberty if it operates with the sanction of the state or the federal government behind it. It is then the agency by which governmental policy is expressed and may not make discriminations that the government may not make.

* * *

"But the courts may not be implicated in such a discriminatory scheme. Once the courts put their imprimatur on such a contract, government, speaking through the judicial branch, act. And it is governmental action that the Constitution controls."

PROTECTED BY 14TH

"Certainly neither a state nor the federal government could adopt a political test for workers in defense plants or other fatories. It is elementary that freedom of political thought is protected by the 14th Amendment against interference by the states, and against federal regimentation by the 1st Amendment.

"Government may not favor one political group over another. Government may not disqualify one political group from employment. And if the courts lend their support to any such discriminatory program, Shelley V. Kraemer teaches that the government has thrown its weight behind an unconstitutional scheme to discriminate against citizens by reason of their political ideology. That cannot be done in America, unless we forsake our Bill of Rights. . . .

"The Court today allows belief, not conduct, to be regulated."

This means that Robert Hutchins of "the Fund for the Republic," who thinks the Communist party is "just another political party" and who is spending Ford's millions to advocate that doctrine in America, has found staunch support in thet views of three members of the Supreme Court.

It means also that these same justices reveal an inconsistency with their refusal last week to review a case in which two workers had appealed against a court decision compelling them to join a union though it was against their religious beliefs as protected under the 1st Amendment of the Constitution.

* * *

Justice Douglas says a defense plant may need to protect itself against sabotage but that the worker wasn't guilty of any acts of sabotage. This means that the doctrine of prevention is being discarded, and, if the argument is fully accepted, the Congress and the states must wait till bombs are thrown and complicity of an individual is actually proved before precautions can be taken against the hiring of agents of the Communist espionage and sabotage apparatus. It's all just a "political ideology" to Justices Warren, Douglas and Black.

Smoking Certainly Hurts Health of a Growing Child

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

It appears that many of the smokers who quit smoking since so much publicity was given to the claim that smoking is a cause of cancer, especially cancer of the larynx (voice box), bronchial passages or lungs, have resumed smoking.

Well, now, is smoking a cause of cancer? I don't know. Physicians and surgeons best qualified to have an opinion seem evenly divided.

I never smoked as a youth, because I had taken a pledge not to use alcohol or tobacco before I was 21.

After 21, as a hospital intern and then a country doctor, I couldn't afford to smoke if I had wanted to. Somehow I never wanted to smoke until I moved to the city and became acquainted with a clergyman in the neighborhood. He would drop in for a chat, and apparently enjoying his pipe so much that, at the age of 26, I got my first pipe—which is still going strong—or not strong exactly, but it is one of my fifteen favorites.

For five years I smoked cigars because a patient who was a cigar-maker made payments on his bill that way. I never cared for cigarettes. Eventually I discovered how to enjoy a pipe: Smoke it once a week or better once a month. The other six or 29 days leave it out in sun and air but not in the rain.

Still later I learned how to derive the greatest enjoyment from smoking: Smoke after the job is done. Never try to smoke and work at the same time. So, when I'm pounding away at the job I do not smoke and do not want to, until after dinner in the evening. When I'm heading for the bowling green, toward one p.m., I have my pipe ready to light as I arrive, and I smoke three pipefuls during the game, and two or three more after dinner that evening. Formerly I smoked more or less all day and never enjoyed it as much as I do now.

The pledge we Brady boys gave mother that we would not use alcohol before we were 21 covered also our pledge not to use tobacco before we were 21.

I believe the standard pledge advocated by the WCTU covered the use of both alcohol and tobacco.

Although I doubt that moderate smoking injures the health of a grown man or woman, I still think it was wise of the WCTU to advocate a pledge against tobacco as well as alcohol, for smoking certainly injures the health of a growing child—and a child is growing until he or she is from 23 to 25 years old.

Athletic coaches are dead set against smoking.

A youth without physical, mental, moral or nutritional deficiency would not hanker for a smoke in any circumstance.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

'How Much Farm Help Will Go to Millionaires?'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

What I am curious to know is how much of that $1.9 billion proposed new federal spending to aid farmers will be to millionaires, manufacturers, executives, etc., who own farms and how much will go to the tillers of the soil.

Our economic system needs an operation. Let's show the world we can set our own house in order when need be, and then run around the world as ambassadors of intelligence to teach others how to conduct their business.

Certify the farmer and put him on social security and national crop insurance and then we will all eat regular for a change.

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

* * *

Criticism of Stalin at last February's Soviet party congress was sharp, but Molotov suffered then, too. Anastas I. Mikoyan, a first deputy premier, called Molotov's foreign policy "ossified."

Molotov through the years has been identified as an inflexible man, a stubborn one who executed only what Stalin directed.

* * *

Karl Radek, a former Pravda editor until his wit and brilliance cost him his life in the purges of the 1930s, once called Molotov "Stone Bottom," a tribute to his ability to sit tight.

THE NEW LOOK

The new Kremlin leaders now are emphasizing their "collective leadership." This is another name for a power struggle in a sense, but it also is part of the "new look" they are presenting to the Western world and the so-called neutral, or uncommitted, nations.

* * *

The Red nations have gone around the back of military alliances by switching their efforts from military aggression to advance by other means.

They rely on growing prestige and attraction because of reputed domestic successes. They have begun a skillful economic diplomacy aimed to snap Western economic links in Africa and Asia.

Party boss Nikita Khrushchev and those backing him have done some axing on other officials for internal reasons in addition to the switches in the international field.

* * *

Lavrenti P. Beria was executed just before Christmas in 1953. He was arrested only a few months after being an orator at Stalin's funeral. Georgi Malenkov, another orator, was demoted from the premiership last year; now Molotov is out of a key spot.

OTHER LOSERS

Others who have fallen from the hierarchy are:

Vice Adm. Nikolai G. Kuznetsov, navy head, who was a personal protege of Stalin. He lost his post on the party's Central Committee last February.

* * *

Nikolai N Shatalin, a close associate of Malenkov, has vanished. His post on the Central Committee has been taken by Gen. Terenty P. Shtikov, who was Soviet representative in North Korea when the Korean War broke out in 1950.

Gen. A. S. Poskrebyshev, former chief of Stalin's secretariat. No word of him has appeared since Stalin's death.

Panteleimon K. Ponomarkenko lost a candidacy post on the party Presidium, but is still on the Central Committee and is now Soviet ambassador to Warsaw.

* * *

Leonid G. Melnikov, former Ukraine party secretary. He was dropped from full to candidate membership on the Central Committee.

Mir D. A. Bagirov, former Communist Party "strong man" in Azerbaijan province. It was announced only a few days ago that he and some other old Bolshevik veterans were executed by firing squad.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

* * *

As you go through life let your good fellowship follow you as the ripples follow the wake of a ship. If you have any kindness to do, do it now. If you have any one you should encourage, do it now. Pass on the sunshine, and don't wait until it is too late.—Charles Raymond.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Crane Says Young Salesman's Death Possibly Hastened by Use of Tobacco

Andrew has probably cheated his family out of more than 20 years of his high salary, which was $25,000 annually. Society also lost a talented sales manager and sparkplug for many good things, like the YMCA and Boy Scouts, in which he was an active worker. So beware of the slow suicide that many men are undergoing.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, Andrew died suddenly of a heart attack," his attractive wife tearfully explained in my office.

"He was one of your students at Northwestern University in Applied Psychology and really put his college training to wonderful use.

"He was sales manager of the firm before he was 35 and earned a very high salary.

"But he smoked heavily and the doctors had warned him about tobacco. But Andrew was of a tense, high pressure type of temperament.

"He wouldn't listen. But if he had heeded their advice, don't you think he might still be living?"

DUTCH UNCLE ADVICE

Yes, Andrew quite likely could have lived to be 75 if he hadn't injured his arteries via cigaret toxins.

You readers have seen what happens when you peel an onion. Tears flow, don't they? Why?

* * *

Because the irritating volatile oils in the air affect the nerves in the upper nose and eyes. And irritation almost invariably produces secretion of extra liquid.

If you work hard at unaccustomed jobs, such as chopping down a tree or hoeing your garden, your palms become irritated. They look red.

Then "tears" form under the red skin, except we call them "water blisters." Ultimately, the skin thickens or becomes calloused, doesn't it?

Well, toxins in the blood, either from tobacco or infections in teeth, tonsils, prostate gland, etc., will likewise irritate the lining of the arteries.

They thicken and become harder, instead of remaining rubbery and elastic, as they should be when in a healthy state.

What do you suppose happens to the heart when the "pipes" or arteries get thicker? Well, the diameter becomes less.

* * *

It would be much like changing water pipes from one-inch to half inch size. If you then expect the same amount of water through those pipes in the same time, the pressure would need to be far greater.

WONDERFUL HEARTS

Our hearts are wonderfully made. They rise to the occasion and increase our blood pressure from 115 to maybe 175 or 215 or even 300.

That's why many people have strokes (apoplexy). A blood vessel simply pops in the brain, just as an auto tire would more likely have a blowout if the pressure were doubled.

But the two coronary arteries that nourish the heart muscle itself, also thicken. The walls develop calloused spots, like those on your palms.

These hang down, like stalactites in caves. And when they get large enough to plug a tiny terminal branch of a coronary artery, we have pain and may lose consciousness.

Tobacco is a major factor in causing the 24,000 deaths from lung cancer last year. But it is far worse in producing strokes and heart attacks.

Talented Andrew may have cut his life short by 30 years by the foolish modern habits of sucking on cigarettes.

* * *

Thousands of brilliant men are likewise cheating their families and society in general of their talents by such premature deaths.

Don't blame God for cancer or heart attacks and strokes if you deliberately go against modern medical advice and thus invite such disaster.

Send for my booklet "How to Break the Tobacco and Liquor habits," enclosing a stamped return enevelope, plus 20 cents (nonprofit).

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

GOOD LUCK, SERGEANT — M/Sgt. Carl Sullivan, 68, (right) receives a send-off from 1/Lt. Robert J. Andrews, commander of Headquarters Company, 502nd Engineer Group stationed at Fort Carson, Colo. Sullivan will receive his separation papers this week from the Army after serving 24 years of active duty beginning in 1909. He will return to Pontiac to his wife Nettie at 368 W. Huron. After a brief rest he plans to start a new occupation of selling Pontiacs.

After 24 Years in Army, City Sergeant Getting Out

After 24 active years in the Army, 68-year-old M/Sgt. Carl Sullivan is calling it quits. He will make his home in Pontiac and "just take things easy." And well he might.

For "Sully," as all his friends call him, began his military career in 1909 and has served in every branch of the military, including the band.

"I didn't blow a thing — I was supply sergeant," the sergeant said.

He will receive his separation papers this week from Fort Carson, Colo. where he was assigned last with the 502nd Engineer Group.

He plans to return to the city to his wife Nettie who lives at 368 W. Huron St. He'll rest for awhile and take up the new occupation of selling Pontiac automobiles.

Mrs. Sullivan was very much surprised when The Press informed her of her husband's discharge. "You just can't tell what these Army men are going to do," she said. "I knew he had applied for a discharge last summer but didn't know he was getting out this early."

The grey-haired master sergeant entered the Army at Columbus, Ohio in 1909 where he was given one of the shortest service numbers which he still holds: RA 51592.

Sullivan said he remembers how the barracks looked when kerosene lamps were used instead of electric lights.

He remembers "the old Army, a good cavalry," and what it was like to wake up and have friends tell him, "You've just slept through an attack on Pearl Harbor."

The veteran served in Troop D, 8th Cavalry from 1909 to 1919. He left the service then and returned in 1942 and still managed to complete 20 years of overseas service.

Among the foreign stations at which the sergeant has served and fought are the Hawaiian Islands, Germany and France during World War I, Mexico, the Philippines during the Insurrection of 1910, and Korea, both during and after the fighting.

Cardinals Build Nest in Bush Close to House

Construction of a bird nest in a climbing rose vine at the Karl Schultz home, 51 Clive avenue, has fascinated Mrs. Schultz. First because the builders are a pair of cardinals, who usually do not take up house-keeping so near human habitations. And second, because there are already three or four eggs in the nest.

"I've been intensely fascinated by these busy, pretty birds," Mrs. Schultz reported. "I first noticed them around the house several weeks ago. Then several days ago I found the nest had three or four eggs in it. The mother cardinal doesn't seem to be very wary, except that when there's too much movement about the porch. Nest is about six feet above the porch level, on the bush, at the front of the house. We hope they hatch some young birds."

In its first year of operation, the new plant in Ankara, jointly owned by Turkish and American interests, has turned out 800 tractors for Turkish farms.

Passing Three Bad Checks Brings 6 Months in Jail

Harry Bulson, 24, of no known address, was sentenced Monday to six months in Oakland County Jail for passing three bad checks within 10 days in 1954.

Russia, on One Hand, Possesses a Lot; on the Other, Almost Nothing

BY WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

The Soviet Union has H-bombs and a frightfully bad system of highways. It has superjet planes and lags 25 years behind the United States in automotive production.

Russia produced top-notch scientists for two centuries, but the U.S.S.R. has a shortage of educated people.

The Soviet Union has a vast population as the Soviet Union and the United States enter a long economic-political contest in which communism hopes to pave the way to world domination.

HALF THE PICTURE

Brilliant Soviet advances in modern techniques make up only half the picture. The other half keeps Soviet leaders on the edge of fear. The great basic contradication is that even with great strength, the Soviet Union is weak and global war is unthinkable.

* * *

Russia, for example, has modern jet transports in operation. It can produce such things because it can assign top priorities in peacetime by edict and concentrate manpower, materials and capital. But at the same time it is neglecting sectors in which the West goes steadily forward.

EN MASSE MOVE

The Soviet Union has awesome armed strength. It has no shortage of brains and materials for heavy industry, which produces for war. The Soviet bloc and China can present the lure of a vast market for free world nations hungry for trade. The Communist fifth column is in a position to capitalize on the postwar avalanche of nationalism and Western identification with colonialism. Moscow can order the export of whole factories and hordes of technicians to countries impatient to industrialize.

But the Soviet Union also is weak. Staggering problems stand in the way of the Soviet global program.

GLEARING WEAKNESS

The glaring weakness is the consumer economy. The Soviet consumer, cheated first by Stalin's hunger for industrial power and then by the war effort, is being put off again by the new long-term drive for economic supremacy.

It will take years for the Russians to begin coping with the extreme shortage of housing alone.

Technology and education, despite advertised Soviet advances, show sharp failures. Educated youth are little inclined to make homes in remote and uncomfortable areas. Only half the workers in Soviet industry have had more than four years' schooling. Specialists are trained under bureaucratic control of ministries, trusts and factories.

In a fraction of the institutes, standards are as high as any in the world. But in the overwhelming majority, quantity, not quality, is the goal. Many persons called engineers and technicians fall far short of Western standards.

BIG LOLLIPOP

On the political front, de-Stalinization is a certain weakness. It seems to be a lollipop for the Soviet people, once again ordered to wait for the consumer goods they long for. Stalin gets the blame for all that is wrong in the U.S.S.R.

While the needs of Red China and the attempt to compete for world favor through exports continue to be a drain on the Soviet economy, the consumer must wait. But revolutionary communism is not the force it once was in Russia.

* * *

The Soviet structure is changing. The people have demonstrated they can be impatient. Their pressure will be felt more and more in the Kremlin in the next 10 years.

Next: Americans take stock.

Hal Boyle Says:

Progress Outmodes Landings Like D-Day

NEW YORK (AP)—A dozen years after the Normandy landing, the mightiest amphibious operation in history, many military men feel sure of one thing—mankind will never see another one like it.

* * *

The spectacle of massed navies, bombarding a foreign shore as they unleash thousands of attacking troops, is probably a thing of the past. It is almost as outmoded as a clash between knights on horseback.

OLD FORM OF WAR

It is also one of the most imaginative and difficult of maneuvers to execute. It is always a titanic gamble, made perilous by hidden reefs and the whims of wind and weather.

When an amphibious operation succeeds, it often succeeds brilliantly. But when it fails, it is often an irretrievable disaster.

The best known example of an amphibious landing that failed is, of course, the dismal fate of "the Invincible Armada" of Spain.

In 1588 proud Philip II sent 130 ships to humble upstart Britain. They carried 7,000 sailors and 17,000 troops.

The British weren't quite the underdogs they have sometimes been made out to be. They engaged the Spanish Armada with 197 ships, although many were small vessels. But they had superior seamanship, fought at long range, and were better organized than the loosely-knit Spanish.

* * *

After a series of disastrous battles and storms, only 54 ships of the Armada were able to reach home, and Spain began going downhill as a naval power. The whole operation had been poorly planned.

The Normandy landing will perhaps go down in the textbooks as the classic example of a successful amphibious operation.

Just 12 years ago this morning, after being postponed 24 anxious hours because of bad weather, it happened. The English Channel was speckled with hundreds upon hundreds of converging ships carrying scores of thousands of battle-clad soldiers. The sky swarmed and thundered with planes that came and went . . . and came and went again . . . and fire flamed and blood flowed on beaches called Omaha and Utah.

CAN NEVER FORGET

No one who was 'part of that tremendous effort that day and is alive now can ever forget it, the feeling of unity combined from the joint strivings of hundreds of thousands of men over weary months, all forged into one supreme purpose—to land and seize a few strips of sandy soil and the pastures beyond. There was a terror and exultation in being part of it.

* * *

The Allied operation succeeded so well that 26 days later Gen. Eisenhower's command had put ashore a million men, 566,658 tons of supplies and 171,532 vehicles. It had suffered 60,770 casualties—the attacker usually pays higher initially—and taken 41,000 prisoners, and the German doom began.

* * *

Today could such an operation succeed? Hardly. Assuming an enemy had the H-bomb, the massing of fleets to support a major landing would be suicidal. A few well placed hell bombs would turn any massed navy into debris.

QUAINT OPERATION

Further development of guided missiles with H-bomb warheads—one bomb hits, one city disappears—makes even the thought of another Normandy-landing-type operation seem quaint and old-fashioned and unnecessary.

* * *

For better or for worse, the art of warfare has progressed so fast that today the whole earth is a potential beachhead.

* * *

Wherever you live is a target.

Will the Soviet Remove Stalin's Body in Kremlin?

WASHINGTON (AP)—An old question in the down-with-Stalin story arose again today: Will they remove Joseph Stalin's body from its place of highest honor in Moscow's Red Square?

Stalin lies in death alongside V. I. Lenin. Western speculation about how long this would last drew a double boost this week:

1. Publication Monday by the State Department of a version of Soviet party boss Nikita Khrushchev's secret speech last February denouncing Stalin as a psychopathic despot and monstrous murderer.

2. Yugoslav President Tito's pointed snub of the dead Stalin. On a Moscow visit, Tito laid flowers at Lenin's tomb but never even glanced at Stalin's.

Officials here believe that, if Khrushchev and his Kremlin colleagues continues tearing down Stalin, they will remove his body from Red Square.

Receptionist on Probation

Mrs. Beth Wix Given 3-Year Term, Ordered to Make Restitution

Mrs. Beth Wix, 36, of 2988 W. Huron St., Waterford Township doctor's receptionist who pleaded guilty to embezzling $1,792 from his account, was sentenced Monday in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Judge Frank L. Doty placed Mrs. Wix on probation for three years and ordered her to make restitution of the $1,792 charged in the warrant against her. She will also pay $200 in court costs.

Dr. Joseph J. Ruva, who hired Mrs. Wix as receptionist in 1950, claims she embezzled between $15,000 and $20,000 of his money between 1953 and 1955.

The warrant covered checks which Mrs. Wix cashed by forging the doctor's signature and using his office stamp, but Dr. Ruva says she took most of the money by concealing cash payments by patients.

He says he is unable to trace the defalcations accurately, since many records have been destroyed.

Surprise Waits Pigeon Lost on Army Mission

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—This guy may be the original yardbird: An Army carrier pigeon based here quit on a mission Saturday because of rain. And the same thing had happened the Saturday before.

* * *

Now he's lost.

The Army said yesterday if the bird is ever found it will fly — in an airplane — to Ft. Monmouth, N.J., for a refresher course.

I saw a guy try it—and get bounced on the grounds that monkeys are a menace to the drinkers' health. Mollet Receives Confidence Vote

Assembly Backs Using of Force in Africa, but 201 Deputies Abstain

PARIS (AP)—Premier Guy Mollet has a new mandate from the National Assembly to put down the nationalist rebellion in Algeria but less than half the deputies would stand up and be counted as supporters of the government.

* * *

Mollet won a vote of confidence 271-59 last night on his Cabinet's entire policy. Of the 595 Assembly members, 201 abstained. Only the center factions supported the Premier, and the vote was far short of the backing which voted him into office. The large number of abstentions resulted from the catch-all nature of the resolution.

* * *

It called for approval of the entire range of government actions in the financial, economic and foreign fields, plus its handling of the Algerian, Tunisian and Moroccan issues.

* * *

The Communists abstained because they oppose the recall of army reservists and the tough military campaign being waged to suppress the 19-month-old rebellion in Algeria.

Members of the right-wing Independent-Peasant party, who believe in fighting to the last ditch in North Africa, abstained because Mollet granted independence for Tunisia and Morocco.

* * *

Mollet posed the blanket resolution to avoid criticism for accepting the backing of a different group of Assembly members on separate questions. But he warned the Assembly:

* * *

"If you fail to overthrow the government, you are permitting it to continue work on all phases of the work it has undertaken."

Filipino Students Quit Red Dominated Parley

BANDUNG, Indonesia (AP)—The Asian-African students conference went on today without the Philippine delegation, which stalked out in protest against Communist domination.

Guillermo C. de Vega, 24, led out his group in the climax of a six-day battle over Red moves to turn the meeting into a political arena.

It had been set up as a "little Bandung" conference pledged to steer clear of political clashes. But an assortment of leftist groups showed up and took control.

Porgy and Bess Team Ends Tour of Europe

The tour included performances on both sides of the Iron Curtain.

Recreation Differs According to Individuals

This is third of five articles providing valuable advice from America's top experts on how to get the most out of your leisure time to to combat anxiety and tension.

By EDWIN DIAMOND
INS Science Writer

What's the best kind of recreation after a long day of work? A fast game of tennis? Making a coffee table at the basement workbench ? Watching television?

According to Dr. William C. Menninger of the world famous Menninger Clinic, Topeka, Kas., the kind of play-time activity best suited for you depends largely on your pay-time work.

Take the cases of Jones, an office worker, Smith, a carpenter, and Mrs. Brown, a housewife—all of them equally tired after a trying day.

Jones spends his evening with powersaw and sander making porch furniture. Carpenter Smith reads his favorite newspaper and then turns on TV. Mrs. Brown packs her bowling bag and joins the girls for their weekly game while husband baby-sits.

EACH IS RELAXING

Each finds his or her particular activity relaxing and refreshing. But what Jones calls "fun" is work for Smith. And Jones, who sits all day and pours over figures, doesn't like to watch TV.

Mrs. Brown, despite her long day of picking up clothes, doing dishes and cleaning house, finds recreation in a keenly-contested bowling game.

Comments Dr. Menninger:

"Since life exacts a different toll from each of us, different sorts of recreation appeal to us. Although we cannot yet explain scientifically the psychological value of all types of activity, there are at least three common psychological needs that are effectively met through participation in certain forms of recreation."

These three needs, and the kinds of activities that best meet them for particular types of persons are:

The need to get rid of aggressions—competitive games like golf, tennis, bowling and the bodily contact sports are best for those whose work prevents sufficient outlet for those aggressions. This means housewives like Mrs. Brown, alone most of the day at a routine, seemingly never finished task.

NEED TO CREATE

The need to create—weaving, baking, do-it-yourself construction of all sorts and other activities involving production meet this need for office workers like Jones whose daytime work provides no opportunities to create or make tangible things.

The need or desire to be entertained—a manual worker like carpenter Smith can satisfy this desire by watching a ballgame or movie or TV, listening to music, reading, looking at paintings.

Judged on psychological grounds, each form of recreation has its own values.

But there are other needs that recreation can fill. Physical well-being and mental alertness is one important by-product of the right kind of receration.

Perhaps the nation's most articulate proponent of "health through exercise" is Dr. Thomas Cureton of the University of Illinois.

"HUMAN ENGINEER"

Dr. Cureton, head of the university's physical fitness laboratory at Urbana, calls himself a "human enegineer." He wants to overhaul the sedentary, middle-aged man who he pictrues as "sagging, bagging, and falling to pieces."

Don't think you have a few years to go before you're ready for Dr. Cureton's reconditoning regime: He has a battery of 128 different achievement tests to demonstrate his contention that "middle age" really begins at 26, physically speaking.

He offers these conclusions based on his 30 years of study:

As you grow older, you should exercise more not less. But short, sharp bursts of activity are no good—the best exercise is a vigorous, rhythmic one involving the whole body.

The old traditional ways of exercising and taking recreation are still the best: Swimming (the best of the best), Brisk walking, rowing, dancing, cycling, skating, skiing.

Rest and sleep are not sure-fire remedies for fatigue; sometimes a brisy hike or workout in the gym is better following a day of routine or frustration.

Dr. Crueton concludes:

"Men and Women who exercise daily develop less tension and appear to be better adjusted to their environment than those who don't."

A diet consisting of more green and yellow vegetables and less starches, sugars and fats is also part of the Cureton cure for "middle-age men of all ages."

In fact, one of the best exercises is pushing yourself away from the table at the right time.

Clare Luce Proves Her Worth as Diplomat

NEW YORK (INS) — Some people in the news . . .

When President Eisenhower appointed Clare Booth E. Luce ambassador to Italy it appeared to be a payoff for valued political services rendered by her husband and/or the decision of a chief executive who had forgotten that women have no particular estate in Italy.

Today Mrs. Luce is one of the more valued members of the State Department. She won the respect of Italians in the face of centuries of derision of women as being anything more than child-bearing servants of the home and field.

Communism, which might have engulfed Italy without the moral warnings of Pope Pius XII and the material aid of the U. S., was again successfully held at bay in the recent elections.

Some of that credit belongs at the door of Mrs. Luce. If her health permits it is hoped she can continue her work in Italy or some other sensitive sphere.

Patterson was the U. S. minister to Yugoslavia during that ominous postwar period when Tito's fliers were shooting down unarmed American planes with hardware we gave him in the first place.

The first shoot-down came not long after Patterson presented Tito with a gift from the U. S. A silver-plated tommy gun, aptly enough.

Tito made a few growling noises in Stalin's direction and we promptly began showering him with all manner of goods and services, though the murderous dictator had killed and imprisoned tens of thousands in the course of communizing the land.

* * *

Now he's sitting on laps in the Kremlin and promises never to depart from the villainous fold again. Among other things, he never got around to paying for the American planes he shot down or reparations for the lives of the five men killed in the second plane.

But some people haven't forgotten. Ray Brock, the foreign correspondent, is compiling a book of the experiences of a number of American airmen forced down over Yugoslavia during the German occupation who were rescued by the forces of Gen. Draja Mihailovich, the patriot Tito ordered shot after a phony trial.

* * *

There is movie and Broadway interest in Brock's book, which he will call "Gale of the World," a phrase used by Mihailovich in his forsaken farewell.

WILSON TO SEE TEST

Charles E. Wilson, secretary of defense, is off to see an H-bomb test or two at the Eniwetok Proving Ground. A good move, and a surprising one.

Top military and government people have been curiously indifferent or lazy about viewing the weapons which stand between the people and annihilation.

To the best of the writer's knowledge not one top military figure has ever seen the bomb in action. One of the few congressmen who ever witnessed an H-bomb test sold some articles about it after newsmen were barred.

The President's absence from these tests is well taken: He prefers to be associated with the peaceful atom rather than the war-like.

But there's no reason why the rest of the hierarchy shouldn't see and thus fully comprehend the awe-provoking weapon that is loose in the world.

A glimpse through an old Edgar Wallace murder mystery recalls the man's nimble evasion early in his writing life when he wrote his hero into a 400-foot snake pit, with greased sides.

Let's see him get Rollo out of that one'" cried an editor who disliked Wallace but was buying his serial.

The following day, Wallace's next chapter arrived. It started, with utter calm, "Once out of the snake pit, Rollo Tewksbury hastened to Scotland Yard."

'Finders' Recognize That Look in the Eyes

Travelers Aid Won't Allow You to Get Lost

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

* * *

Even if you're a small boy, run away from home with the sound of the sea in your ears, you can't get lost. Or if you're an 80-year-old man tired of living off your children, you can't get lost.

* * *

The "finders"—both professional and volunteer—are 1,800 members of the National Travelers Aid Society. They are the Sherlock Holmeses of smaritanism, with their eyes and arms open for the troubled people, and their pockets filled with money.

HONESTY SHOWS

"Our case workers are so sensitive to the truth that when they give money to lost persons, more than 90 per cent of that money is returned, which proves, I guess, that honesty shows, and goodness is well worthwhile."

* * *

The speaker is a beatific blonde, middle-aged woman named Mrs. George Hamlin Shaw, who was never lost or strayed or stolen in her life, but who has dedicated the last 28 years to helping Americans and tourists and soldiers and immigrants along their various ways.

A society woman who might be living on caviar at Cannes, she began with Travelers Aid in 1928, "to be doing something useful." She was put to work on the docks of New York City because she was a linguist.

"My first client (those who need help all are 'clients' to Mrs. Shaw) was a Greek lady who wore 15 petticoats and needed to get to Elyria, Ohio, where her husband had a shoeshine parlor. She had the $50 bus fare sewn into one of her petticoats, but she wouldn't give it up."

* * *

Wondering whether she was right or plumb crazy, Mrs. Shaw advanced the woman $50 and saw her—and the sewn-in safe—on a bus. Several weeks later, the money was mailed back; and Mrs. Shaw has never doubted her sanity—or the rightness of her job—since.

BOARD CHAIRMAN

Now she is chairman of the board of Travelers Aid and feels personally responsible for the million-and-a-half wayward persons who are helped annually with money and morale from her organization.

* * *

"In the '20s, we worried about the young women migrating to the big cities from small towns, and emigrating to the U.S. from abroad to marry mail-order Romeos. We had to protect them from being taken in—in little ways and big ways. Those were the white slavery days.

"Then there were the runaways, who are still a large part of our work . . . extremely young and extremely old people, running away from authority. They must be found and sent home. Or if home is really a good place to run away from, we must find a better home for them."

Mrs. Shaw remembers most forcefully, of course, the days of the last war when, sitting in New York's hectic Grand Central Terminal or Pennsylvania Station, she saw the literally lost and the emotionally lost together. Of all her experiences, one stands out:

"A boy in uniform, really just a child, came up to me in one of our lounges, and asked for stationery. A few minutes later he came back and said, 'Please, ma'am, do me one more favor? Can you tell me how to spell lonesome?'"

The way he looked, Mrs. Shaw wanted to give him an ice cream cone. But she told him a few jokes instead, and he left smiling.

About 45 of every 100 American men age 65 or more are gainfully employed.

Yes—they are hollow WAY down to the ankles at this age!

It's easy to give cauliflower company manners. Cook a whole cauliflower, head down in boiling water, with a little vinegar or lemon juice added to help keep the nice white color. Drain and place in a casserole. Stir a can of deviled ham into 2-cups of white sauce and pour over the cauliflower. Sprinkle with grated cheese, and bake in moderate oven until lightly browned.

Uniform Funds Out for Police

Commissioners Favor Putting Officers Request on 1957 Budget

A disappointed group of Pontiac police officers were told last night their request for uniform allowance for police was denied — at least for this year.

After a discussion between city commissioners and several of the officers, Commissioner Dr. Roy V. Cooley moved the request be considered in the 1957 budget.

The request, submitted Feb. 9, has been deferred many times. It was made through the Pontiac Police Officer's Assn. and involves a $100 allowance per man.

Sgt. William K. Hanger, spokesman for the liaison committee of the association, said: "This is about the fourth year we have asked for this allowance and the matter keeps being delayed year after year."

The commissioners agreed it would not be feasible to "interrup the 1956 budget to add this allocation. This prompted Dr. Cooley's motion. "They have a very legitimate case or plea here," he added.

Commissioner John E. Carry suggested a two per cent boost to officer's pay in lieu of the allowance. "But I would give a definite no to the request at this time."

Sgt. Hanger added: "It has taken us seven months to get to this level (before the commission) and we did have this last request in before the 1956 budget and we have just been waiting for action by you."

City Manager W. K. Willman said it was not considered in the present budget as it had never been a part of previous ones.

Building Permits Dip Below April Figure

Building permits issued in May in the city amounted to $123,003 less than those granted during April, Carl F. Alt, building inspector, reported.

Last month 189 permits totaling $710,492 were issued while 199 totaling $833,495 were recorded the previous month.

Applications for 50 new family dwelling permits amounting to $515,000, four new commercial buildings ($83,500), and one church addition ($12,000) were included in the monthly total.

Other permits issued were: 22 residential garages, $16,250; 88 residential alterations and repairs, $58,838; five commercial alterations and repairs, $15,515; seven wrecking permits, $1,000; four tanks, $2,525; two garage repairs, $425; three basement permits, $4,700; and three fences, $739.

Wife's Past Red Ties Loses Job for Husband

LONDON (AP)—A British executive who says he has been branded a security risk because his wife once was a Communist is fighting for his $14,000-a-year job with Imperial Chemical Industries.

* * *

J. H. A. Lang, 46, said the British government has demanded his resignation. A spokesman for the giant chemical combine —which works on many secret government projects — said only that Lang had refused to resign and his dismissal was in the works. He is an assistant solicitor.

As a British army staff officer in World War II, Lang worked on security matters. He says there has been no suggestion that he himself is politically unreliable.

Mrs. Lang, 46, said she joined the Communist party in 1931 "when many people of my age did so . . . I finally left in 1951."

Eisenhower Doctrine for World Peace May Disintegrate Soviet Iron Curtain

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harold E. Stassen spoke today of development of an Eisenhower doctrine for peace "in this H-bomb age" and envisioned peaceful reduction of the Soviet Iron Curtain "to a rusty screen."

* * *

Stassen, special assistant to President Eisenhower on disarmament problems, sounded optimistic about chances for improvement of East-West relations in prepared excerpts of a speech for Rotary International's 47th national convention.

MAY FIT TREND

He said the visit this month to Russia by Gen. Nathan F. Twining, Air Force chief of staff, "may fit in to the growing trend" toward better relations.

"It should neither be exaggerated nor underestimated but it is inherently an act of mutual openness which could not have occurred as recently as one year ago before the summit conference at Geneva," Stassen said.

* * *

Stassen's optimism regarding the chances for disarmament and an enduring peace has not always been shared by Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles. In his speech today, Stassen said:

SIGNIFICANT DOCTRINE?

"It is my view that there is gradually developing out of the President's initiative in this H-bomb age, an Eisenhower doctrine that may be as significant for peace and progress in the world in the next half century or more as the Monroe Doctrine has been to this Western Hemisphere in the past century."

Elaborating, Stassen said, "Universal realization that a modern war would be certain to result in a heavy net loss to all sides and to mankind as a whole is crucial in these thermonuclear times."

* * *

He said this gives rise to a mutuality of interests in preventing war and preserving peace "even among those who have very little other mutuality of interests."

'PROMISING REALITY'

Stassen spoke of Eisenhower's 1953 proposal for creation of an international atoms-for-peace pool and of progress made since that time.

"In less than three years after the President broke the chains of doubt and inertia," Stassen said, "the dream of atoms-for-peace has been transformed into a tangible, promising reality . . . ."

* * *

Stassen, who represented this country at a recent London disarmament conference where East and West deadlocked, said "for the first time notable progress was evident" at the London conference "in devising a practical system for ground inspection," even though Russia "was not yet fully prepared to explore aerial reconnaissance."

Blind Graduate to Have Own Commencement

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The Kentucky School for the Blind has only one high school graduate this year.

Full commencement exercises are to be held tonight, however, for Miss Caola Mae Warfield of Henderson. Dr. Whitney M. Young president of Lincoln Institute, will deliver the commencement address.

The number of graduates has been decreasing annually due to the school's policy of integrating its students into local public schools where possible.

Alabama Law Termed Invalid

Federal Court Decision Says Segregation Rules on Transportation Err

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (INS)—A Federal Court in Montgomery, center of a six-months-long bus boycott by Negroes, held yesterday that Alabama's segregation laws involving intrastate transportation are unconstitutional.

* * *

The decision was handed down by a three-judge court. Judges

* * *

Richard T. Ives and Frank M. Johnson ruled the state's segregation laws are unconstitutional. The third judge, Seaborn A. hymn, submitted a dissenting opinion.

A government attorney said the decision apparently means all state segregation laws applying to intrastate travel are unconstitutional.

He added, however, a thorough examination of today's decision would have to be made before it could definitely be established if the ruling applied to other states.

The decision came six months after the arrest of a Negro woman passenger on a Montgomery city bus for violating the state's segregation laws by sitting in a white section of the bus.

Her arrest launched a boycott against the bus line by Montgomery's Negro citizens. Attempts to settle the boycott have failed.

Big Boy Blues

By DAMON RUNYON

I'm sitting in Mindy's restaurant listening to West Side Willie tell me how he is associated with the big Army Show "Gee Eyes" and how Little Boy Blues is the big attraction.

Now, before West Side Willie is caught in the draft and put into khaki clothing he is an erstwhile ticket speculator on Broadway and known far and wide as a character which makes extra ice on scalped ducats. Now he is ticket taker at the theater and he tells me Little Boy Blues, who is the son of Big Boy Blues, is a ballet dancer who appears in the attire of a doll.

Willie says they cannot top bill the kid because of what Big Boy might do if he finds out his boy is a dancer in a review and not cleaning up on the enemy overseas as Big Boy has been brought to believe. Willie is scared on account of Big Boy is six feet three inches and weighs anyway 200 pounds and has a loud voice that causes parties four blocks away to tremble when he lets it out and he has a record at police headquarters that consists mainly of mayhem.

(PART THREE)

Now Miss Rosie Flynn who is married to Big Boy does not weigh ninety pounds with her girdle on and she has red hair and freckles and is by no means a spectacular singer but she is practically famous on Broadway because it is generally conceded that she is pure.

* * *

The chances are she can marry into much more genteel circles than those in which Big Boy Blues moves just on the strength of being pure and it is the popular belief that Big Boy frightens her into marrying him as no one can think of any other reason for this union.

Well, after they are married and before the stray truck comes along to provide the keystone for Big Boy's success they live in a small apartment as far over on West Forty-ninth Street as anyone can live unless they live in a canoe in the North River and it is by no means a fashionable neighborhood but it is the best they can do on their income in those days and it is there a son is born to them who is so small that Big Boy is greatly mortified and slightly perturbed.

In fact, he brings the child over on Broadway and goes around peering into the faces of various Broadway personalities who infest the Golden Slipper and then gazing closely at the child as if he is making comparisons.

ROSIE IS FATTING UP

I never see this child again and to tell the truth I seldom see Big Boy Blues afterwards and then only when I do not learn in advance that is coming my way but I read now and then in the blats about him slugging his truck drivers or somebody else's truck drivers or just somebody else, so I judge he is the same old Big Boy.

But as the years go on I occasionally run into Rosie Flynn who seems to be fatting up somewhat in spots and she tells me that Big Boy by no means admires the child that she now speaks of as Little Boy Blues because he remains puny and scary but I can see that Rosie thinks very well of him, indeed.

In fact, Little Boy Blues is all she talks about and as he gets older I learn from her that she has him away at school as much as possible as he is a great eyesore to Big Boy who keeps him frightened half to death by yelling at him and sometimes giving him a few clops.

PUT DOWN AS AWOL

From what Rosie tells me, I judge Little Boy Blues is quite a weakling and far from being a credit to a virile personality such as Big Boy but when the war comes on and Little Boy is drafted, Big Boy becomes very proud of him and wishes to be real fatherly toward him.

In fact, one day at Dix where Little Boy Blues is stationed for awhile, Big Boy approaches him with his hand extended to shake hands and Little Boy is so alarmed that he turns and runs away and keeps running until he is so far from camp that he is two days finding his way back and is put down as AWOL.

Well, I become so interested in what West Side Willie tells me about the show that I go to the Grand Central at noon myself the next day to see the soldier company arrive and it is quite an impressive scene as the members are in full marching gear with rifles and all this and that and march from the station through the streets to the theater in West Forty-eight where the show is going to open.

THEY'RE BOUND TO BOW

West Side Willie does not march with them but joins me in following them only we stick to the sidewalk and people stop and applaud the company and the members bow right and left and smile and when I say to Willie that I consider this somewhat unmilitary, he says:

"Well," he says, "you see most of these guys are professional actors even if they are soldiers and they are bound to take bows when they hear applause even if they are sitting in the electric chair waiting for the guy to pull the switch."

He points out Little Boy Blues to me and I can see that he is small and frail-looking and seems to be buckling slightly at the knees from the weight of his pack and rifle and that he has red hair like his mamma. I also see Rosie Flynn on the sidewalk ahead of me following the march so I quit West Side Willie and overtake her and say to her like this:

"Well, Rosie," I say, "I notice your offspring has your top piece but the way he does not resemble Big Boy in any manner, shape or form is really remarkable. By the way," I say, "how is Big Boy? Not that I care, Rosie, but I wish to be polite."

"Sh-h-h-h!" she says and looks around as if she is afraid Big Boy may be in earshot. "He is all right except his temper is shorter than ever. He chucks one of his own truck drivers into the river yesterday truck and all. I am so afraid of what will happen if he learns Little Boy is in this show. You see," she says, "I tell him the last time I hear from Little Boy he is with Coogan's Cobras in the Pacific."

"Well," I say, "you do not pick a soft spot for him, anyway. Coogan's Cobras are supposed to be the frightingest outfit in our Army."

* * *

"It is because I see the name in the newspapers so much," Rosie says. "It pleases Big Boy to think Little Boy is in such company. I pray he does not learn the truth before the show opens. Poor Big Boy has no appreciation of the fine and delicate and artistic. I often wake up at night in trembling at the thought of his anger if he learns of the large fees I pay for Little Boy's dancing instruction."

After Years of Suffering, O-Jib-Wa Gave Relief from Arthritis in Just 10 Days Says Retired Worker

"My trouble was diagnosed as arthritis. My left leg was affected and I was forced to walk stiff legged. I had it in my arms too, and couldn't raise them to my head without suffering extreme pain. My wrist was stiff and swollen so bad that I could hardly use my hand. Often when getting out of bed in the morning, I would have to grasp the table to walk. I took aspirin to ease the pain, but when it wore off, I was as bad as ever. I have always had great faith in herb medicines, so when I read about O-JIB-WA BITTERS in my newspaper, I thought it wouldn't hurt to try it. Well, about 8 or 10 days after I started on O-JIB-WA, I noticed the pain letting up and the swelling and stiffness going away. It wasn't long before I was all better and feeling healthy in every way. I'm a retired Detroit factory worker, and able to do all of my work around the house without any trouble. My brother and his wife saw what O-JIB-WA did for me, so now they are both taking it with good results too. I don't know what I would do without my O-JIB-WA BITTERS to keep me going. I know that I would have been down without it. With great pleasure, I highly recommend this wonderful herb medicine to all who suffer with rheumatism or arthritis."

Daily Worker Blasts Delayed Stalin Story

NEW YORK (AP) — The Daily Worker said in an editorial today that Soviet leaders "made a mistake" and should themselves have published at once "the shattering revelations made by Khrushchev."

The Communist newspaper voices "concern" that the speech by Nikita S. Khrushchev in which the Soviet Communist party chief denounced Stalin failed to mention "crimes" against Jews.

The Daily Worker said it does not consider the speech the last word on "Stalin's terror control" or "the role of the other Communist leaders."

Yesterday morning's edition carried a 4,000-word condensation of the U. S. State Department's version of Khrushchev's speech delivered at the February closed session of the Soviet Communist Party Congress.

Bowery Citizen Lists Cemetery as His 'Home'

NEW YORK (AP) — A bearded habitate of the Bowery, who says he lives in a cemetery because "it's cheaper," learned yesterday he needs a more permanent address to vote in an election.

The shabbily dressed man, about 55, was turned away from eight different polling places. Finally he marched into the state attorney general's elections fraud office and demanded his rights.

He was told that certain formalities must be complied with in order to vote. What was his residence, for instance?

"No special place," came the reply. "Mostly in a cemetery near Chatham Square."

* * *

HOME ON THE RANGE — 5
THE SILVER MOUNTED SADDLE

This is Red, who won his nickname because of the color of his hair. He lives on the "J-Bar-E" ranch, and rides the range when cattle is moved from one grazing spot to another. He is a skilled rider and cowboy.

Color the picture with crayons, giving the cowboy his red hair, and making Bonita bright green with a red head and blue tail feathers. Then paste the picture down on cardboard, and cut out the parts carefully.

Cut the slits indicated on the saddle and the hat so that Bonita can perch on either. Fold the picture on the dotted line in the center and it will stand up.

Adlai's Aide Sees Victory in Convention

CHICAGO (AP)—James A. Finnegan, campaign manager for Democratic presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson, today said Stevenson's victory in California's primary yesterday "shows again that he is the overwhelming popular choice of the Democratic voters in all sections of the country."

• • •

Finnegan said Stevenson's five consecutive victories in contested presidential primaries have "amply demonstrated he can fight and win." He said those who counted Stevenson out after his Minnesota defeat "just didn't know the courage of the man."

• • •

In addition to California, Stevenson has been victorious in contested primaries in Oregon, Alaska, the District of Columbia and Florida. His major opponent in the elections, Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn), defeated Stevenson in Minnesota.

Navy Blames Rocket Defect

Apparent Design Fault Named for Aerobee-hi Second Failure

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy today blamed an apparent "design defect in the motor" for the fizzling of its highly publicized Aerobee-hi research rocket, and announced it will build another.

* * *

The statement came from Rear Adm. Rawson Bennett, chief of naval research, in testimony before a Senate Appropriations subcommittee. He refused, for security reasons, to disclose at the public hearing the figures on what Chairman Chavez (D-NM) described as "what it cost the taxpayers to develop a rocket that failed."

ONE MORE TIME

Bennett said he would supply the figures on a classified basis, but insisted:

"This has not finally failed . . . We will have to build another one."

* * *

Scientists at the White Sands, N.M., Proving Grounds, had hinted yesterday at abandonment of the Aerobee-hi research project, after the rocket fell far short of its goal of an altitude mark of 138 miles. They had been banking on it for extensive upper atmospheric study in the International Geophysical Year starting July 1, 1957.

'WE WISH WE KNEW'

Sen. Ellender (D-La) asked bennet what caused the failure.

"We wish we knew," the admiral replied.

"There is apparently a design defect in the rocket motor . . . something is wrong with the rocket motor."

* * *

Bennett said the motor was built by the Aero Jet General Corp. and that scientists for the Navy and the company "were mutually satisfied it would operate, but something went wrong as it might in any operation."

* * *

HST Deposition Lauds Connelly

Statement Read Before Tax Conspiracy Trial of Ex-President's Pals

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Former President Truman described Matthew J. Connelly, once his appointments secretary at the White house, as a public servant with a reputation "above reproach" in a deposition read at Connelly's tax-fixing trial.

The deposition of the former President, now on a tour of Europe, was taken May 4 in a Kansas City law office and read yesterday at Connelly's trial.

Connelly and T. Lamar Caudle, former head of the Justice Department's Tax Division, are accused of conspiring to defraud the government by trying to sidetrack criminal prosecution of Irving Sachs for income tax evasion.

Sachs, a St. Louis shoe manufacturer, was fined $40,000 in 1951 on a guilty plea but escaped a prison term on health grounds.

* * *

Oscar Chapman, former secretary of the interior, and Harry A. McDonald, former head of the SEC and RFC, also testified for Connelly.

* * *

Chapman said persons referred to his office by Connelly "got the same treatment as if they had walked in off the street."

Khrushchev Major Complaint on Stalin: He Didn't Know Way to Halt Horror Use

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)— Communist party boss Khrushchev threw the memory of Stalin into the garbage pail of history with his speech which is one of the world's most amazing and ironic.

* * *

Khrushchev painted Stalin as a maniacal, murdering torturer, one of the greatest monsters in history. He made the speech to the party Congress in February. The State Department finally got a copy of one version and released it this week.

Khrushchev's purpose was to destroy the image of Stalin as a guiding genius and, in exposing his crimes, to try to build faith in the new "collective" leadership.

HORROR ON HORROR

In this Speech horror was piled on horror. Khrushchev haid Stalin's arrogant stupidity was to blame for the slaughter of hundreds of thousands of Russian troops by the Germans in World War II.

He said Stalin deported whole peoples during the war and murdered and tortured innocent people. But Khrushchev's greatest concern was for what he called Stalin's murder of Old Bolsheviks and faithful Communist party members.

But anyone who thinks this revelation of a nightmare will turn people in other countries against Communism and the new Russian leadership may be making a mistake.

SPEECH HAS IRONY

The frankness of it — Khrushchev's effort to show that the new leaders are patient men different from Stalin—may be convincing to a lot of people who feared and loathed Stalin and didn't know what to think of his successors.

* * *

This speech has irony for anyone who reads it carefully.

Khrushchev was not complaining about Stalin's use of terror, as such. He said, in effect, that terror is all right anywhere the Communists try to take over, that in fact it's necessary. His objection was that Stalin kept on using terror long after he needed it.

FREAK OF HISTORY

Khrushchev called Stalin a betrayer of party principles, meaning that by his one-man rule he ignored the Democratic way of doing things. But the only democracy Khrushchev was concerned about was democracy for the hierarchy of the Communist party, not for others and certainly not for the masses of Russia.

* * *

Khrushchev returned again and again to the charge that Stalin had made himself a dictator and expressed hope this wouldn't and couldn't happen again. He seemed to regard Stalin as a freak of history, and a traitor to the Communist principle of collective rule.

* * *

But Stalin's dictatorship was made possible by the very structure of the Communist party, the system of "democratic centralism," as Lenin called it. This is rule from the top—supposedly by a group of leaders chosen by the party.

Peronista Purge Seen Growing in Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — President Pedro Aramburu's removal of the Argentine army's two top commanders was seen today as the opening move in a sweeping reorganization of government posts.

Informed sources said Aramburu wants to deflate the military influence, restore democracy and streamline the top-heavy bureaucracy inherited from former dictator Juan Peron.

Two generals who played key roles in the revolution that overthrew Peron lost their posts. They were Lt. Gen. Julio A. Lagos and Brig. Gen. Roberto Tomas Dalton.

Maj. Gen. Francisco Jose Zerda succeeded Lagos as army commander in chief. Dalton, Army chief of staff, was tapped to become ambassador to Peru.

The changes were seen as a concession to younger officers who insist that many of the older commanders support totalitarian rule and only turned against Peron at the last minute.

Breakin Loss $100, Detectives Report

Detectives of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department said an estimated total of $100 in cash and miscellaneous articles was taken in the Tuesday morning breakin of a White Lake Township service station today following further investigation.

The money stolen included $2 worth of pennies and an undetermined number of quarters taken from a demolished cigarette machine. Various automobile parts, oil, candy, and peanuts are also missing from the station at Jackson Boulevard and Ormond Road.

The investigators said entry had been gained by smashing and prying open a rear window at the garage.

Queen's Arrival Excites Swedes

Half Million Predicted to Welcome Elizabeth in Stockholm for Visit

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Stockholm police estimate a half million Swedes will turn out Friday to welcome Britain's Queen Elizabeth II and the Duke of Edinburgh when they arrive for a three-day state visit.

It will be one of the most colorful shows in the Swedish capital's history.

Security officers, concerned that Greek Cypriot rebels might attack the British royal family, found one lone Cypriot in Stockholm, and he turned out to be a bicycle repairman who says he hasn't any feeling one way or the other about the Cyprus issue. He told the police with a grin he would "go underground" for the visit if it would make them happier.

Elizabeth's yacht Britannia is due to dock Friday morning. Her party will be rowed in King Gustav VI Adolf's royal barge to the quay at his castle. The biggest policing job, the Royal Commission conceded, will be to keep the waterways clear in an area where everyone seems to own a boat.

All hotels and lodging houses already are engaged for both the royal visit and the week of Olympic equestrian games which start June 10, with the Queen and the duke in attendance. Princess Margaret is reported to be flying from London to join them the next day on an unofficial visit.

Truth Vaccine Aids Air Force Pilot Training

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — A test pilot has virtually relived in a drug-induced trance his dramatic escape from a supersonic jet fighter, the Los Angeles Times said today.

* * *

Herman (Fish) Salmon, chief test pilot for Lockheed, underwent a two-hour experiment in an effort to develop all facts in connection with the tense crowded moments prior to his bailout last year from an F104 Starfighter.

TRUTH SERUM

The pilot, given sodium pentothal, the so-called "truth serum," lay on a couch in a darkened room and recounted his experience. Tape recorders were used by his questioners.

So vivid was one of his recollections that he said sharply:

"Ouch! I hurt my arm."

His only injury was a badly bruised elbow.

* * *

Doctor-Wife Team Experiment

Own Cancer May Cure Victim

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

DETROIT (AP)—Some 30 cancer-stricken humans have been given vaccines made from their own cancers, a Boston physician disclosed today.

* * *

It is too early to tell whether they benefited. But there are signs they did, and good experimental reasons to think the vaccines can help.

Each vaccine was prepared from bits of each person's own cancer, and then injected under the skin of that same person. The aim was to increase natural resistance to far-advanced cancer.

BUILD ANTIBODIES

It could work by forming antibodies against the cancer, and by increasing the number of healthy defensive cells that resist the spread of cancer.

* * *

The new experimental work was described to the third National Cancer Conference by Dr. John B. Graham, a physician, and his wife Ruth, a cytologist or expert on cells. Both are from the Vincent Memorial Hospital in Boston.

Mrs. Graham has found an apparent reason for the tragic difference often noted in how well women respond to X-ray treatments of cancer of the cervix, the neck of the womb.

BEST IN WOMEN

She finds the results best if the women, before treatment, already have high amounts of one or both of two types of healthy useful cells, found near the cancerous cells.

If they have high amounts of both, 85 per cent of women are still living five years after X-ray treatment. If they have low amounts, only 19 per cent survive.

* * *

There is evidence so far that one patient developed specific antibodies against her own cancer, the Grahams said. It is too early to say whether they had an improvement in the response of healthy cells, and a bigger killing effect upon the cancer cells from X-rays.

Lift Operator 'Lifts' Materials for New House

ST. LOUIS (AP)—It was Kenneth Dobler's job to lift things at the warehouse.

* * *

Detective Sgt. Emmett Hahn said Dobler, a fork-lift operator at Sears, Roebuck & Co., has admitted "lifting" about $6,000 worth of things there since 1949.

Sgt. Hahn said the stolen goods included a furnace, a 30-gallon water heater, a 300-gallon septic tank, an electric range, copper tubing, soil pipe, fire brick, wall cabinets and 42 bundles of asphalt shingles.

* * *

Sgt. Hahn said Dobler recently finished a new house and he took a power mower home Monday.

Dance Coiffures of France Invade American Salons

It seems as though American and French hairdressers are neck and neck, stylewise, that is.

The French used to be the hair trend setters, but their lead was narrowed during the war, and afterwards they lagged behind.

* * *

But now both American and French hairdressers are giving up their big push for longer hair, and coiffures are short on both sides of the Atlantic.

Guillaume of hairdressing fame here and abroad is back in America from Paris with a new group of hairstyles he calls dance coiffures.

The hairdos are based, he says, on three principles—the ballerina cut, featuring a tapered trim to give shape to the hair; the invisible permanent wave that leaves outside hair natural, but molds the inside hair to form the coiffure; a color that blends three shades with no violent contrasts, such as the streaks popular until recently.

His new dance line is in two movements — the first pulls the hair back from the forehead in rhythmic waves, the second pulls it forward over the ears to form waves and petals.

At the back hair is either rounded, stressing its bulk, or divided, sweeping to each side over the ears.

That means new hairdos will stress fullness at the sides as American hairdressers have been emphasizing, not always a becoming style to older women or moon-faced types. The hair is not always flat on top with this hairdo however, and that may be a redeeming aspect of it, helping to elongate the face.

* * *

The trend away from head-hugging hairdos should not be snapped up by older women unless the style is becoming any way.

The first thing you know it will become fashionable and you won't be able to escape it—like the Italian cut of the last few years. Younger girls will adore these new coifs, however.

The average French woman spends more time on her coifing and beautifying than American women allow themselves, so she is not averse to a hairdo that requires overtime at the vanity table.

* * *

American women, who are busier, are likely to want a becoming hairdo that may be combed into place in a jiffy.

Lila Jean Dunlop Wed in California

Mr. and Mrs. David James Dunlop of Cherokee road are announcing the May 26 wedding of their daughter, Lila Jean, to Robert Lyle Cummins in the Chapel of the Wilshire Presbyterian Church, Los Angeles. He is the son of Mrs. Violet M. Carr of Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. Mihalek Assumes Presidency

Mass Installation Is Also Conducted

Pontiac Council of PTA held its annual School of Instruction and mass installation of officers on Tuesday at Central Methodist Church.

* * *

Greetings to the group of 275 PTA members were extended by Mrs. William Wright, outgoing president of the council.

Mrs. Charles Neldrett, first vice president of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, brought best wishes from the State Board of Managers to this assembly, saying that the ever-changing membership in PTA is one of its strengths, for new members bring with them new enthusiasm and new ideas, which add to the experience of older members and create the effective working capacity of PTA.

* * *

Mrs. Mark Goddard, director of District Seven, greeted the group, emphasizing the growth of PTA in this district. A jump of 8,300 in membership was made in the last year, bringing the total membership in this one district to 50,050.

A new unit was very recently organized in Auburn Heights, and a group in Oak Park and three units in Waterford are in the process of organization. New councils are being created in Walled Lake and Farmington.

WHITMER SPEAKS

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of Pontiac schools, also extended his greetings, stating that two of the schools' greatest assets are the cooperative understanding of the PTAs and the high level of leadership on the Board of Education. Through these mediums the schools can get more informed public participation, he noted.

* * *

Mrs. William Mihalek, incoming president of the council, also spoke briefly.

The remainder of the morning was spent in individual conferences for officers and committee chairmen.

Mrs. Cyril Davis conducted a workshop for recording and corresponding secretaries. Treasurers and auditors met with Mrs. William Anderson, and historians with Mrs. Francis Oak.

* * *

Mrs. Wayne Weaver conducted the conference for membership chairmen, and program chairmen met with Mrs. Goddard.

Mrs. Donald North had a workshop on finance, and Mrs. Lyle Dusenbury and Mrs. Russel Bell met with publicity chairmen.

Mrs. Richard Stark had a conference for hospitality chairmen, and room representatives met with Mrs. George Gray and Mrs. Leonard Saari.

Mrs. Cleatus Garner represented the PTA magazine, and Mrs. George Wyman and Josephine Seeley conducted a conference on health.

* * *

A safety workshop was led by Marietta Spring, principal of McCarroll School, and Mrs. Roland Stephison conducted the conference on juvenile protection.

Mrs. Neldrett met with school principals, and council delegates met with Mrs. Paul Gorman.

Following the luncheon served at the church, the officers of the council were introduced along with the special guests, Mrs. Neldrett, Mrs. Goddard and the Rev. John Mulder, assistant pastor of Central Methodist Church, who gave the invocation at this luncheon.

* * *

Marie Meyer, recipient of this year's PTA Scholarship, was also introduced, as was Charlene Deeg, the winner of the first scholarship.

Mrs. Neldrett conducted the installation of council officers and officers of the 27 local units.

Voters Elect Chairmen and Officers

League Gathers at Habel Home for the Annual Picnic

Officers and committee chairmen for the year were introduced at the annual picnic held Monday by the League of Women Voters.

Mrs. William Wright will serve as president; Mrs. Harry Killian, first vice president; Mrs. Barney Habel, second vice president; Mrs. Roy MacAfee, secretary, and Laura Belz, treasurer.

Mrs. Harry Aten will be the county representative and Mrs. Glenn Griffin, chairman of national conservation.

Other committee chairmen are Amy Kreugar, individual liberties; Mrs. Clare Hinckley, publications; Mrs. Grace Wyman, public relations; Mrs. Frank Hillebrand, unit coordination, and Betty Halsey, nominations.

* * *

Mrs. Aten reported on the County Council meeting and the league decided to make a study of the problems of water resources and water pollution in Oakland County, with a view to action.

Conservation and individual liberties were also decided upon as topics of study.

As part of a public education program, the league will demonstrate the use of voting machines in September.

Mrs. Habel was hostess at her home on Cherokee road.

Installed as council officers for the coming year were: Mrs. Mihalek, president; Mrs. Garner, first vice president; Mrs. Weaver, second vice president; Mrs. Dusenbury, recording secretary; Mrs. Anderson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert Lake, treasurer; Mrs. Stephison, historian, and Warren Abbott, auditor.

* * *

The Distinguished Service Award was presented to Mrs. Wright by Mrs. Mihalek. The past president's bar was also presented to Mrs. Wright.

GLEE CLUB SINGS

Music was furnished by the Boys' Glee Club of Eastern Junior High School, conducted by Henry Elling.

* * *

The Boys' Glee Club, representing a chorus of country boys who had come to sing at the State Fair, presented several selections of "country music." Taking comedy roles were Tom Schrodi, Garland Shearer and Donald Beltz. Solos were sung by Bob Marks and Donald Beltz.

The programs were made by Hawthorne School.

Mrs. Clare Hartzman and Mrs. George Wyman also assisted with the decorations.

Work, Compromise Aren't Dreary

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Most of us would have happier and more successful lives if it weren't for the fact that virtues are presented to us in an unappealing light.

* * *

Hard work for example, which all parents and teachers urge, is presented as our "duty" — and a grim thing indeed. Actually, hard work is easier than loafing.

It gives us the lightheartedness and gaiety at the end of the day which is more attractive to beaux than all the beauty tricks in the world.

Next to hard work, I think compromise is a virtue which we are most apt to dislike. It seems so pale gray and second-best, so dreary and unimpassioned.

But compromise is actually a way of having your cake and eating it, too.

GLAMOROUS PHASE

Take, for example, Lillian Pierson, who illustrates both these virtues in their most glamorous phase.

* * *

Lillian is a very attractive woman in her 30s who is a full-fledged account executive and vice-president of a public relations firm.

In her youth, Lillian wanted to be in the theater. She loved it, but her parents would have no such nonsense.

As Lillian says, "The longing for a theatrical career was a very real one but I learned early the value of compromise.

* * *

"If I wasn't destined to be the world's next Katharine Cornell, I at least could teach the art of theater. So that brought me to Hunter College as a physiology and hygiene major, with a speech and dramatics minor."

'FUN' CHOICE

The major was the "sensible" choice, for teaching, while the minor was a "fun" choice.

* * *

Lillian picked up shorthand and typing, a thing which most ambitious and gifted girls look upon as just too much work.

But it enabled her to work her way through to a master's degree, and to embark on a career in business which led to her present job.

And here is what she says:

"I am very happy in my job. It challenges every creative cell I possess. There's room for pageantry, psychology, business acumen, acting (when I appear on TV shows or before a convention audience), writing of all kinds, inventiveness, imagination, decision and action.

"In a way, my theatrical ambitions have been completely fulfilled."

Charlotte A. Hall Repeats Her Vows in Birmingham

In a candlelight service at the First Methodist Church of Birmingham Saturday evening, Charlotte Ann Hall became the bride of James Belisle. Charlotte is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Hall of Birmingham, and James is the son of Mrs. John Belisle of Blind River, Ont., and the late Mr. Belisle.

* * *

* * *

Darlene Ann Duffy of Birmingham wore a short white dotted Swiss dress over shell pink and a pink headband. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Richard W. Hall of Southfield served as best man. Ushers were Fred Hall of Clawson and Gilbert J. Hall of Birmingham.

Following a reception held in the church parlors, the bride changed to a brown print dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage. The newlyweds are honeymooning in Canada. They will make their home in Blind River, Ont.

Breakfast Held at St. Benedict

The invocation and welcome were given by Mrs. Ralph Cotcher. Mrs. Allen Neville served as program chairman.

Mrs. Thomas Clifton and Mrs. Herman Charboneau were chosen "Women of the Year" in the parish and presented with corsages in appreciation for their outstanding work in the parish.

These Features Add to Dress Longevity

Durability is more likely if the garment has short machine stitches, straight seams, re-stitched pockets and adequate seam allowance.

Hems and facings should be even, flat and a suitable width for the dress fabric and design.

Have Fun on Vacation--Not After

BY JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

George Bernard Shaw wrote: "A perpetual holiday is a good working definition of hell."

* * *

I feel sure that you will get a laugh out of this when you look back at some of the vacations you have taken. If you had to keep up the routine you adhered to during those short two or three weeks you probably would knock yourself on the head.

* * *

Maybe you've had to put up with some of the following things: Overstimulated, tired and fretful children, dashing through the prescribed quota of weary miles each day like a test pilot, mosquito and ant-bitten, blistered heels from unaccustomed long walks, peeling skin, uncomfortable beds, sprained muscles, abscessed ears, cooking three meals a day for a family which is hungrier than usual because of the outdoor life, and without the convenience of home, or sleep which is interrupted by crowing roosters or the sun in your eyes.

Or—dressing for dinner each night, becoming a part of a small group of strangers all of whom are trying to have fun but aren't, some of whom appeal to you and some who don't, carrying on the usual routine of the resort, staying up later than you want to and spending more money than you can afford.

There is real danger in overdoing on your vacation . . . if you have led a sedentary life take it easy.

It's all fun for a while but suppose you had to do it all of your life. Let us not bemoan the short vacation! Let's make the best of it one way or another, every man to his own choice.

* * *

Try to make your vacation this year one you can enjoy while you are taking it, not many weeks afterward. Think it over and choose carefully.

There is real danger of overdoing on your vacation. Every year many people actually injure their health by strenuous physical exertion to which they are unaccustomed. Some actually die each year because of this.

If you have led a sedentary life, take it easy. You cannot become an athlete in two weeks time.

* * *

The sunshine is healthful but do not overdo that either, for the sake of beauty as well as health. Many women come back looking like zebras because their skin has blistered and is peeling. This is not healthful and it certainly defeats your hope for good looks into older years. Hope you have a grand time!

Two Layers of Gelatine Make Salad

Mrs. Muehl Likes Raspberry, Lime With Mixed Fruit

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

What in the world would we cooks do without gelatine? How did Grandma ever make salads without the variety of fruit flavors we now can buy? Mrs. Donald G. Muehl suggests a two-layer gelatine salad that is pretty as well as delicious.

A German shepherd pup complicates life in the Muehl household. The smallest Muehl bites her! Another complication is a new house on a large lot that needs lots of gardening.

Evenings, Mrs. Muehl enjoys cards. When she has a free moment, she likes to do handcrafts also.

TWO-LAYER SALAD
By Mrs. Donald G. Muehl

2 packages gelatine—any two flavors that go well together and contrast in color
1 package cream cheese
1 can fruit cocktail, drained

Make up one flavor of gelatine, using the juice from the fruit cocktail as part of the liquid called for. When slightly thickened, fold in fruit and pour into a ring mold. Let set until firm.

Make up second package of gelatine and beat in the cream cheese while it is hot. Pour carefully over first layer and return to refrigerator. Serve with mayonnaise in the center.

'Anniversary Waltz' Opens Season at Will-O-Way

Fast-Paced Play Wins Approval

Comedy Is Greeted With Enthusiasm by First Nighters

An appreciative first night audience greeted Will-O-Way's opening performance of the 1956 season with enthusiasm. "The Anniversary Waltz" by Chocorov and Fields, a fast-moving, adult comedy, was a happy choice with which to begin the summer.

* * *

The 12 members of the cast include such Will-O-Way standbys as Gerald M. Harrington, Robert Bryson, Frederick L. Morris, Lillian Hicks and Jim Wright.

A newcomer to patrons of Michigan's oldest straw-hat theater is Adeline Hirschfeld who plays the leading feminine role. She has appeared previously in Detroit and Ann Arbor.

Rosemary Janigan who portrays Mille, the maid; Eve Ann Schneider who "has just shed her fourth husband" in the play, and young Brenda Blanchard are all new, talented additions to the Will-O-Way roster of players. Brenda is graduating this year from the Apprentice Theater.

* * *

The play deals with the trouble caused one family after they had been presented with a television set, much against the wishes of the father. This seemingly innocent anniversary gift sets off a chain of disasters that make for hilarious comedy.

Four couples in the first-night audience were honored for celebrating their wedding anniversaries at the performance of "The Anniversary Waltz."

This play will run for two weeks, except Mondays. On June 19 "The Solid Gold Cadillac" will open. Tickets are available at the playhouse on West Long Lake road.

WHAT IS A PERMANENT?

What does a permanent wave mean to you? Is it an aid to a better hair dress, or do you think of it as being a hairdress and the end of your trouble. Perhaps we can help you to more pleasure and satisfaction from your permanent waves.

A permanent is a process which changes naturally straight hair into artificially curly hair. Though this artificial curl increases the beauty and lasting quality of a finger wave it still has limitations.

Hair that is limp and fine before a permanent is still limp and fine after the permanent wave is given. The curl is an aid in managing this kind of hair but the original texture must be considered when styling, dressing and caring for it.

The same is true of other textures. The solution of your hairdressing problem is a blend of the best style for you and the right kind of permanent wave, plus the proper care between hairdressing appointments. This isn't as complicated as it sounds. May we help you with your hair problems?

Teachers Must Hunt for Answers

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Most of the people sitting around the table were teachers. The rest were social a worker and two psychologists, one of whom was chairman of their "workshop" group.

All were attending an annual Institute for Workers in Parent Education sponsored by the Child Study Association of America—and one was speaking as I slipped in the door.

"Of course a parent who thinks you have all her answers makes you feel very efficient and pleased with yourself," she admitted.

"But isn't this the very time when you are least helpful? I mean, I think you have to watch your need to try to solve her problem for her. Otherwise you may find yourself depending on the admiration of the very parent you think is depending on you."

"So that if you're honest with yourself, you don't know who is helping whom?" asked the young chairman quietly.

Nobody answered, so he asked unhurriedly: "What are some of the imperfections that make a good counselor?"

* * *

Her neighbor laughed. "That's no imperfection; it's a virtue," she said.

"What about the ability to express our own imperfect feelings?" asked the chairman. "Does the courage to voice our own uncertainties and discouragements to a parent make us a more acceptable counselor than if we treated the same feeling in her as strange to us?"

* * *

"It certainly would in a therapy situation," said the person in front of me.

"What is a 'therapy situation?" asked the young chairman.

ANOTHER SILENCE

There was another silence. "What kinds of problems can we be most helful with?" he asked.

"Ones we can identify with?" said Fashionable Hat.

"Aren't they apt to be problems that we have either worked out ourselves or are struggling with?" he asked. And glancing at his watch added "We're due for our break."

As the meeting broke up, the chairman turned to me. "Did you hear anything of special value to parents?" he asked.

"Yes, thank you," I said. "It is very valuable to us parents to see how you have to struggle for your answers just as we do."

Small Son of Guests Ruins Lamp

Parents of the Boy Should Have Made Replacement Offer

BY EMILY POST

A letter tells me: "The other evening we invited some friends of ours to dinner. They brought their small son along with them. After dinner while we were sitting around chatting, he went into the living room and broke one of my good lamps.

"I'm sure it was an accident, but just the same I felt that his parents should have offered to replace it, which they didn't do. What is your opinion?"

Answer: If it had been possible for them to replace it, they should have done so.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I have just received my wedding invitations from the engravers. They read: 'Mr. and Mrs. John Jones request the pleasure of your company at the marriage of . . .' etc.

"An aunt of mine, upon seeing them, said that they were incorrectly worded and that they should read 'request the honour of your presence.' This has rather upset me and I would like to know if she is right."

Answer: I'm sorry to say she is right. If the invitations had been to the reception only, then "request the pleasure of your company" would be right, but not for the church ceremony.

However, since the invitations are ready to send out, I would suggest that you send them. I am sure that very few will notice that there is any error.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter is going to be married soon at a morning wedding. I had intended to wear a lace dress but my daughter tells me that lace is limited to late afternoon and evening wear and would not be correct at a morning hour. Will you please tell me if she is right about this?"

Answer: Ordinarily, a lace dress is not worn in the morning, but at a wedding and on the mother of the bride, it is entirely proper.

In a ceremony performed Saturday Sara N. Mullins became the bride of Lee Roy Lerchenfeld. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Mullins of Saline drive, and he is the son of the Franz Lerchenfelds of Ortonville.

Sara N. Mullins Wears Taffeta and Lace for Rite

Honeymooning in the Smoky Mountains and Kentucky are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy H. Lerchenfeld who were married Saturday evening. Bishop Ralph Johnson performed the 7 o'clock ceremony at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in the presence of 75 guests.

* * *

The bride is the former Sara N. Mullins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Mullins of Saline drive. Lee Roy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Franz Lerchenfeld of Ortonville.

A floor-length gown of taffeta and lace was worn by the bride. Her chapel-length veil of illusion was secured by a tiara of sequins and pearls, and she carried an arrangement of red and white roses.

Cleo Mullins served her sister as maid of honor wearing a yellow ballerina-length gown with a matchng picture hat. She caried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.

* * *

A gown fashioned like the honor attendant's in pastel blue was worn by Kay Courthouse, the brde's other attendant. Her pcture hat and accessores were of a matchng color, and she carried a bouquet of roses.

Area Schools Take Part

Soda Pop Set Food Habits Subject of Statewide Study

Four Oakland County area schools are among 16 throughout Michigan taking part in a nutrition study conducted by the Michigan Health Department.

Asked to keep a record of all food eaten during the week are seventh graders of the North Oxford School in Oxford, Thomas School near Oxford, Hickory Grove School in Bloomfield Township, and the Troy junior high school.

The youngsters also are being checked by physicians to determine the general pattern of their health and growth.

"Nutrition authorities fear that many youngsters may be starving themselves by eating improper foods, particularly sweets," said Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner.

"The survey, covering several hundred seventh graders, should indicate how the soda pop set in Michigan is faring at the table. It may set up a new guide for nutrition education programs."

Other schools taking part in the survey include Macomb School, Mt. Clemens; Our Lady of Good Counsel, Plymouth; Ludington Junior High, Ludington; Jefferson and Lincoln Elementary Schools, St. Joseph.

Lincoln School, Cadillac; St. Thomas Aquinas, East Lansing; Sanford School, Midland County; All Saints School, Flint; Kolb School, Bay City; White Pine School, Ontonagon County; and Lincoln Elementary School, Sault Ste. Marie.

Army Asks for 13,000 Draftees in August

WASHINGTON (AP)— The Army today issued a draft call for 13,000 men in August. This is the same number asked for July.

The call brings to 2,070,430 the total number drafted or earmarked for induction since the resumption of Selective Service in February 1950.

Quotas were 6,000 for each of the first four months of this year, then 12,000 for May and June and 13,000 for July.

Tornado-Whipped Woman Makes Great Comeback

LAPEER — A driver's license is taken as a matter of course by most people. They study the rules, take the test, and that ends it — if they pass.

With Mrs. Basil Burgess, victim of Flint's 1953 tornado, it is a thrill. Mrs. Burgess lost her daughter, both legs, her home and her automobile in that tragic storm.

She is now a Lapeer resident and earning her driver's license is just one of the latest marks of progress she has made since the tragedy. Three months after the disaster, she enrolled in a work simplification course at Wayne University, then took up her duties as a housewife.

Her courage carried her through weary months in the hospital before she could get her artificial legs and rejoin her family. Now, a set of hand controls installed in the Burgess car has made it possible for her to drive again.

There are three other children in the Burgess family. They had lived in Lapeer before moving to Flint in '53 and are now back, living in a specially built home here.

SANDRA SIBLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Williams Sibley of Indianwood road, Lake Orion, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sandra, to Dale Bailey. Dale is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bailey of Pine Knob road, Clarkston. A fall wedding is planned.

Noted Educator Will Study Michigan's School Setup

LANSING (AP)—Dr. John Dale Russell, a former assistant U. S. Commissioner of Education, will direct a two-year study of higher education in Michigan costing up to $161,000.

* * *

His selection was announced Tuesday after a closed meeting of a 10-member interim Legislative Committee on the subject. Ten lay members have been designated to work with the legislative group.

* * *

After his appointment, Russell told newsmen the study will have the broadest possible compass.

He said among areas to be surveyed are teacher salaries, adequacy of physical facilities, their distribution and the efficiency of their utilization, curriculum, rising enrollment trends and educational finance.

Russell now is chancellor and executive secretary of the board of educational finance of the state of New Mexico.

BEGIN IMMEDIATELY

In the Michigan undertaking, he will spend only part time, receiving a per diem rate of $125 a day and expenses. Active supervision of the project will fall to an assistant director yet to be named by Russell.

Russell said he planned to start work at once and to have a staff organized and busy by early July.

Of the financing for the study, $75,000 has been provided by legislative appropriation. The committee is applying for $86,000 from the Kellogg Foundation to supplement this amount.

Russell said he hoped the study would progress fast enough to permit recommendations to the 1957 Legislature. More of the results of his job will be ready for consideration by the 1958 session, he said.

'LITTLE MONSTER' WIRE PLANTER — George Shoebridge lays electrical wire for the National Girl Scout Encampment at Haven Hill at the rate of one hundred feet in 90 seconds. He does it with a contraption of his own invention called a "wire planter." The planter is pulled by a specially-built tractor which he has dubbed "Little Monster."

Gets Contract for International Encampment

Milford Man Molds Invention From Scrap

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
Milford Correspondent

MILFORD — Although the idea is not new, George Shoebridge has rigged up a contraption that can lay electrical wiring in the ground and cover it up at the rate of a hundred feet in a minute and a half. Attaching another shoe—he can reverse the process in the same amount of time.

He calls his brain-child a "Wire Planter" and seeing it in action, state officials at the Highland Recreation Area agreed that they have never come across anything like it

Shoebridge was awarded the contract to lay more than 20,000 feet of underground wiring at the International Girl Scout Encampment at Haven Hill. His two-man operating machine has saved the state both time and money.

In order to operate the wire planter, Shoebridge had to design and hand-build a small tractor to pull the invention. This he called the "Little Monster," and although it looks new, the tractor is built entirely from combinations of scrap iron.

The "Little Monster" is a miniature scale model of an Allison-Chalmers tractor and is made up of parts or a Crosley, a Model-T, and Harley-Davidson motorcycle. Two rubber - tired wheelbarrow wheels support the front end and a door-bell button serves as the starter button.

CRUISES AT 60

The tractor has a cruising speed of 60-miles an hour on a straight-of-way, and can idle down to less than three miles per hour, according to Shoebridge.

One of the biggest features of the wire planter is that it does not damage a lawn as it plants the underground wire, and will work to within two feet of poles or other obstructions.

A Colter blade slices a three-inch swath in the sod, then a reel feeds the wire down to the desired depth. A roller immediately pushes the sod back into position—all in one operation. The next day, if there has been a rain or it has been watered, the line is almost invisible.

The contract for the wiring job at the Highland Recreation Area specified that all of the underground wiring be removed after the encampment was concluded. This did not bother Shoebridge. He designed a shoe to fit his invention that simply re-winds the wire on the reel, in reverse of the planting operation.

Some years ago, the telephone companies used an invention similar to the wire planter, according to Phil Reed, manager of the Milford telephone system. The machine was abandoned as useless, due to inadequate wire covering.

Since that time, Reed said, new plastic coatings have made it possible to install wiring underground which will last for years.

Finding the line where the wire has been laid has been one of Shoebridge's biggest problems. His wife Phyllis bought flower wire from a local greenhouse, glued small business cards to the wire and dipped them in red paint. Hundreds of those tiny markers now dot the 400 acres at Highland Recreation Area.

Extra working tools were needed by the Shoebridge family, so George took three old lawn mower reels, hooked them together and can now cut an 86-inch swath with his tractor. He also made a cultivator and a bulldozer blade.

* * *

Shoebridge said, "I need a set of plows for the Monster and if I can find some more boiler plates and scrap iron, I'll make those too."

Dems May Capture 1st California Senate

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— Democrats may capture control of the California State Senate for the first time in history.

* * *

Democrats won 15 and Republicans 14 of 40 seats in yesterday's primary. Under California law, it's possible to win election in a primary by capturing both major party nominations.

* * *

Democrats had a good chance of running the margin up to 17-14 in the primary. This would mean they could gain control by capturing only four of nine contests in November.

The Republican margin now is 22-18.

Nominating Petitions Due Friday at Orion

LAKE ORION—Friday is the deadline for filing nominating petitions for school board candidates to be placed on the ballot of the July 11 school board election.

Petitions signed by at least 50 registered voters are required before a candidate can run for one of the two school board positions which will be filled this year.

Piggins Leaves Hospital —Not Coronary Victim

Dr. Ralph Piper, hospital superintendent, said tests have ruled out fears that Piggins might have suffered a heart attack Monday when he complained of numbness in his left shoulder and arm.

Dr. Piper said physicians are not sure what caused the seizure. Piggins was taken to the hospital for a checkup.

Post Lake Orion Recreation Plan

Program Lists Baseball, Softball Games; Also Swim Instructions

LAKE ORION—Plans for the summer recreation program for Lake Orion Township's children of school age are almost completed.

* * *

Harold Carlin, high school coach, will direct the baseball and softball games which begin June 25. Registration will be at 9 a.m. at Atwater Park and boys from the age of 10 up will be eligible. A series of exchange games are being set up.

Mrs. Lyle Bartlett, a former swimming instructor at Lake Odessa, and vocal music teacher at Lake Orion High School, has been selected as swimming instructor. Swimming lessons, for which there is a fee of $5 are for all children of school age. The children will be grouped by age and ability in classes of about 15.

Three two-week periods June 18-29, July 2-13, and July 16-27 are scheduled.

Dearborn Lad Saves Boy in Storm Sewer

DEARBORN (AP)—A 15-year-old local youth leaped into a storm sewer through a two-foot manhole yesterday to rescue a 6-year-old boy who had fallen in.

* * *

Johnny Ambrose was at recess at Woodworth School when he heard some girls scream that someone was "going down for the third time."

He ran to the storm sewer, jumped in and pulled out David Vought. The water was over David's head, but he had clung to a pipe until rescue came. He escaped with a gash under one eye.

Water Glass on Window Sets Fire in Battle Creek

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — A glass of water touched off a fire in the W. C. Carroll home yesterday. The sun was to blame.

The glass had been placed on a windowsill in an upstairs bedroom. It caught the rays of the sun and, like a magnifying glass, focused them on the mattress of a bed until the heat started the fire.

Eight-year-old Johnathan Adams was passing the house and spotted the fire. He ran home and told his mother, who called firemen.

Mrs. Carroll did not learn of the blaze until firemen burst into the house. Damage was confined to the bedroom.

Fritz to Speak Thursday Night

Will Ask Local Support on Proposal to MMPA, Court Fight Issues

ROMEO — A new milk marketing program will be presented to Michigan Milk Producers Assn. members at a meeting scheduled for 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in Romeo High School auditorium.

The proposed plan is based on views voiced by dairymen at meetings in the Thumb area during the past month, according to Harold H. Fritz, president of the Romeo Local of MMPA.

Designed to provide "higher prices to farmers, lower prices to consumers," the new program is termed "sound" by its originators, Fritz and fellow members of the Romeo Local. They point our that MMPA is needed to carry it out.

Fritz, plaintiff in a suit asking a declaratory judgment setting forth the rights of members, will ask members at tomorrow night's meeting if they want to continue supporting him in his court battle.

He said he will ask them if they wish "to regain control of MMPA, to be able to vote on important issues, and to have tangible evidence of their financial interest in MMPA."

Rights of MMPA members and clarification of association bylaws are main issues in the court case, scheduled to come up in Wayne County Circuit Court in Detroit, at 10 a.m. June 13.

The case, which has been hanging fire for over a year, was started by MMPA dairymen meeting in Romeo who wanted a greater voice in their own association. Named as defendants were MMPA directors and Howard Simmons, secretary-manager of the association.

* * *

Members of the Romeo local also will continue their appearances this week in southeastern Michigan communities soliciting additional support for Fritz in his court fight.

They will conduct a meeting in Avoca Friday night and in Bad Axe Saturday night. Both sessions will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Restriction Lifted on Royal Oak Homes

ROYAL OAK—A two-year non-occupancy restriction on 15 new homes in the north end of the city has been ordered lifted by the City Commission.

City Manager Edward M. Shafter assured the Commission that the water shortage in that section would end by June 15 when the Southeastern Oakland County Water Authority will be in operation.

Owners of new homes in the area, barred from occupancy because of the critical water shortage, may move in by June 15, commissioners said.

Pleasant Ridge OKs Tentative Budget

PLEASANT RIDGE — A record high tentative budget of $319,657 for 1956-57 has been approved by the City Commission here.

The tax rate will remain the same as last year, $25.86 for each $1,000 of local assessed valuation, officials said.

The largest item in the budget is $51,596 earmarked for public safety, $8,000 over last year's figure.

A public hearing on the proposed budget will be held next Tuesday in the city offices.

The cost will be aout $100,000, with the Lapeer County Road Commission contributing its 25 per cent of the cost from Federal Aid Funds. The State Highway department agreed to pay the rest after a 1952 letter from State Highway Commissioner Charles Ziegler was found, promising the paving.

Hendrie was unable to drive a car but had ridden a bicycle for many years.

SOUTH LYON — The annual school board election of the School District of Lyon Township for the election of two three-year trustees will be held in the community room of the South Lyon Elementary School on Monday, June 11. Polls will be open from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

On the ballot will be a request for permission to sell the Washburn, McDonald and Worden School buildings and sites, and a proposal to transfer approximately $1,700 from the debt retirement account for the bonds on the New Hudson School to the building and site fund, so that the money could be used for needed furnishings.

The annual school meeting has been dispensed with. According to a new Michigan school code, matters that heretofore have come before the electors at the annual meeting held on the evening of election will now be decided by members of the Board of Education.

Hollywood Headlines

Robert Mitchum to Play Lead in 'Wayward Bus'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—No more than walked in my front door from a weekend trip than Buddy Adler, who is a busy man these days, told me that he had signed Robert Mitchum on a multiple picture deal for 20th Century-Fox.

But the really interesting part is that Bob's first assignment under the new contract is the top male role in "The Wayward Bus," based on the widely read John Steinbeck novel.

"Wayward Bus" goes before the cameras in early July, with Charles Brackett as the producer. Weeks ago, Jayne Mansfield was mentioned for the femme lead, but she couldn't get out of her Broadway commitment. Who will get that role has not yet been decided.

The wing-ding party and the big splurge of activity for the premiere of "Trapeze" has inspired MGM to do the same for the first night of "High Society." There literally will be dancing in the street, with the theater where the premiere is held being roped off for the whole block.

Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong is being paged to furnish the music, Bing Crosby has said he will be present, and Frank Sinatra probably will be back in time. The only one missing will be Princess Grace.

BUDGET THRILLER

I ran "The Killing" in my projection room and I must say it held my complete attention. Made for less than $400,000, it proves that a little budget picture can be big in interest.

Two young men, Stanley Kubrick, who wrote and directed it, and James Harris, who produced it, will be worth watching in the future. And Sterling Hayden, who I think is one of the best actors on the screen, is excellent as a man who robs a racetrack of two million dollars and almost gets away with it.

Aldo Ray, who is now in his hometown of Crockett, Calif., fishing, vacationing and trying to forget his divorce from Jeff Donnell, has been told to come home to make a picture.

On a loanout from Columbia, Aldo has been signed by United Artists to co-star with Robert Ryan in "Men in War" starting July 2. The story has a background of the Korean War, with Aldo playing a mixed-up young soldier and Bob a tough lieutenant.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Very sorry to hear that Mrs. David Niven is in St. John Hospital. She hasn't recovered from surgery performed in London six weeks ago. As soon as she is well enough, she'll recuperate at San Simeon with Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph Hearst Jr.

PACKING THEM IN

In Las Vegas I heard my neighbor Danny Thomas, who is packing them in at the Sands Hotel. Roberta Linn's medley of Al Dubin songs is a pleasant addition to Danny's really delightful show.

Joe E. Lewis is without doubt one of the funniest men in the world. Dorothy Manners, John Haskell and I were in stitches at the El Rancho Vegas.

Joe E. joined us later and told me that he is meeting Frank Sinatra in August to dicuss "The Joker Is Wild." The Lewis story which will star Frankie. Frank is going to watch Joe E. so he can get his style.

Joan Davis, who ringsided at the Sahara to hear Ray Bolger, who is better than ever, rushed to the airport to meet Jerry Nathanson of Palm Springs. Don't sell that romance short. It's hot!

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

The 24-year-old golfer from Lansing who turned pro just three years ago, was in his glory when he walked off the 18th green at Orchard Lake Country Club after his morning round.

He had just fired a state record-breaking 66 and bettered the 29-year mark of 68 which stood since 1927. It was the late Charley Hilgendorf's round at Lochmoor.

The 68 was matched several times during the 29 year span but it was never bettered in succeeding qualifying years.

The smile on Marcussen's face reached from ear to ear when he turned in his card. "Everything went my way this morning," he remarked to one of the nearby pros who had just given him a pat on the back.

Soon the news got around and even when Wally Burkemo's 66 was posted, the interested spectators at Pine Lake were eagerly waiting for Marcussen to make an appearance for his afternoon round.

It seems many were taking the fine round of the old pro, Burkemo, for granted. Just as if it was something that was expected from the Franklin Hills pro.

★ ★ ★

But who was this guy? Where was he from? Even some of the entries were asking these questions.

Anyway, what started out as a great day for the blond Marcussen, ended after the third hole at Pine Lake.

He started off with a couple birdies and then started fading with a run of bogeys.

Everyone wanted to see Marcussen come through among the top eight, but when word got back to the board that he was 3 over after nine there seemed to be little doubt among onlookers that he was going to fade.

It was a dejected Marcussen that walked toward the Pine Lake clubhouse, unlike the same lighted face at Orchard Lake that morning.

But he still managed a grin and shrug of the shoulder. "That's the way it goes," he said. His 66-82—148 was two strokes out of qualifying range.

For Wally Burkemo it was a great day.

DITTOS FROM THE PRESS BOX

"I was out here before 6 o'clock," he said, "and I've been on the move since." It was 3 p. m. at that point.

Sally Sharp, the 18-year-old amateur from Birmingham who is a freshman at Michigan State, had to withdraw from the Women's National Inter-Collegiate Golf Tourney at Purdue June 11th because of some conflict with final examinations.

However she was still hoping to find a way to get into the tourney, and she could very well be one of the top contenders if she does work it out.

Tigers Rap Out 17 Hits, Win 7th Straight, 14-11

BOSTON (AP)—The Detroit Tigers, never ones to look a gift horse in the mouth, basked in the glories of the Major League's longest 1956 winning streak today and preferred to forget many of the details of their 7th straight triumph.

The Tigers rolled to a 14-11 decision over the Boston Red Sox last night in gaining sole possession of 4th place in the American League, a mere 5½ games behind the leading New York Yankees.

* * *

But a 9th inning nightmare took a lot of the gloss off the victory. The Red Sox ganged up on veteran Walt Masterson for six runs before Al Aber finally came in to get pinch hitter Norm Zauchin, a Royal Oak, Mich., native for the final out.

The last ditch uprising included a three-run homer by rookie Don Buddin. One run was forced in on a walk and two others scored on a single by Sammy White.

* * *

Until the 9th things had been pretty much in favor of the Tigers.

* * *

Boston opened with a 2-0 lead on a two-run homer by Billy Klaus but Detroit came back with five in the third and three in the 4th to set the tone for the evening. As it turned out the three runs that made the difference came in the Detroit half of the 9th against Leo Kiely, last of four Boston pitchers.

* * *

With one out Harvey Kuenn singled off Klaus' right ankle for his third hit. Earl Torgeson singled past second and Al Kaline singled Kuenn home. Bill Tuttle struck out but Ray Boone, the Tigers' big hitter of the night drove in Torgy with a single. Buddin erred for the second time on an easy grounder and Kaline scored.

* * *

Boone drove in a total of five runs with his 8th home run. A double and two singles. In all, the Tigers collected 17 hits. Frank House had two for four including a three-run homer.

* * *

Virgil Trucks lasted the first five innings and picked up his second victory although he wobbled constantly. He allowed 7 of Boston's 13 hits and walked 3 men.

Masterson took over in the 6th with the score 9-5 and had no trouble until the ninth. Bob Porterfield was charged with the loss his fourth against two victories.

* * *

Frank Bolling started his first game at second base since returning from the Army. For a while it looked like a serious mistake. He fanned in the second inning with two on, took a third strike to end the Tiger uprising in the 3rd and popped out with the bases loaded in the 4th. But in the 6th he tripled off the fence in left center and drove in House who had walked. In the field he handled four chances without a flaw.

* * *

For today's second game Paul Foytack drew the Detroit pitching assignment against Tom Brewer. The Red Sox have lost 10 of their last 14 games. The Tigers have won 9 of their last 10.

Saddle Club to Hold First Show June 10th

First annual horse show under auspices of the Michigan Pioneers Saddle club will take place this weekend at intersection of M-24 and Drahner roads, Oxford. Oxford Knights of Pythias will be co-sponsors for what is expected to be a very colorful affair.

* * *

A variety of events is offered on the program, starting at 10 a.m. Fine horses and fine riders will take part.

* * *

List includes events in which owners may display their talented English three-gaited horses, under saddle; Tennessee walking horses, under saddle; Palominos, westerns, pleasure riding, for men and women participants; parade horses, working and stock horses, juniors for horsemanship from one to 15 years of age. All are judged events.

* * *

A five-club relay race will be featured. Rounding out what promises to be an excellent program for the afternoon, there will be the musical stalls, for juniors, musical barrels for adult riders. A figure-eight bending race, the old standby, will be another feature, in addition to speed and action events for both juniors and adults.

Trophies and ribbons go to winners. All were donated by Oxford merchants. Show is open to the public.

Olympic Torch on Equestrians

U. S. and Russia Have Biggest Entries Set at Stockholm

STOCKHOLM (AP)—Swedish riders have taken over the Olympic torch and today were speeding through the deep woods of southern Sweden to reach Stockholm in time for the opening ceremony of the Olympic Equestrian Games Sunday.

* * *

At the same time, Queen Elizabeth of England and the Duke of Edinburgh were fighting choppy seas in the North Sea aboard the Britannia to get to Stockholm for a state visit and the games.

Eleven of the competing nations already have sent teams to the Swedish capital to get their early training for the riding championships.

* * *

Among the biggest entries are the United States and the Soviet Union, neither of which did very well in the 1952 equestrian events at Helsinki.

The Russians contend they will improve their eighth-place position directly behind the Americans this time.

* * *

The Stockholm games are a prelude to main events at Melbourne in November. Foreign horses are not permitted to enter Australia, so the equestrian events were switched here.

Wolves Capture Valley's Crown

Ebright Hands PHS 9 Its 2nd Shutout in Two Days, 3-0

Pontiac's high school baseball club ran into a hot foe, Tuesday afternoon, for the 2nd time in two days and absorbed its 2nd shutout loss.

* * *

Waterford turned the trick Monday. Yesterday, at Bay City, the Wolfpack nailed down the Saginaw Valley Conference diamond championship with a 3-0 victory over Ed Heikkinen's nine.

Victory gave Bay City an 8-2 mark for the season, with Flint Northern in 2nd place with 7-3. Central was 3rd with 6-4; Pontiac and Saginaw Eastern next with 4-6 and Arthur Hill last, with 1-9.

Terry Ebright, all-round Wolf sports star, hurled a one-hitter. Backstop Charley Johnson got PHS' only hit, a scratch single in the 3rd frame. Chiefs had runners on in the 6th by walks, but couldn't help them.

* * *

Bay City's runs were made in the 2nd and 5th. A hit batsman scored on a triple in the 2nd, two went home on two singles, a sacrifice, in the 5th. Johnson's single scored both runners in the 5th.

* * *

Ebright fanned 5, walked 5, while Arnold Larson for Pontiac struck out 4, hit one batter. Chiefs made two errors afield. Wolves played errorless ball.

* * *

Baptist, Drayton 9's Win

Emmanuel Baptist scored one run in the 7th inning to nose out Thrifty Drug, 3-2, and Drayton Drug rallied to nip Gidley Electric, 7-6, in Waterford League softball games Tuesday night at Drayton Plains.

Pitcher Harlan (Fat) Keith struck out 13 batters, allowed only five hits and tallied the winning run for the Baptist team. Keith singled, moved to 2nd on Hodges' hit, took 3rd on a fielder's choice and romped home on Daniel's blow over Thrifty's drawn-in outfield.

Two runs in the 4th inning erased a 6-5 deficit and brought Drayton Drug its hard-earned decision over Gidley. Jerry Hesse doubled to drive in one run, then scored the eventual winning tally on a sacrifice fly by Paul Atkins.

Boyd Goes After 9th Straight Win

CHICAGO (AP) — Bobby Boyd, second-ranking middleweight contender in Ring Magazines latest ratings, goes after his ninth straight victory tonight against the fighter who last defeated him, Milo Savage.

* * *

The lanky Chicago Negro, who lost to the 30-year-old Savage in New York on April 18, 1955, is an 8-5 favorite in the nationally televised (9 p.m. EST, ABC) 10-round return match at Chicago Stadium.

Boyd, 22, is unbeaten since Savage gave him a lesson as a devastating workman on the inside. Since then Boyd has stacked up eight victims in a row, including such seasoned punchers as Gene Fullmer, ranked No. 1 by Ring Magazine, Georgie Johnson, Italo Scortichini, Eduardo Lausse and Holly Mims.

Sinatra Buys Share

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Singer Frank Sinatra, who has always had a yen to be a boxer, has purchased half interest in Cisco Andrade, one of the top lightweight title contenders.

Sinatra's manager, Henry Sanicola, announced the deal yesterday. Andrade's manager, Ralph Gambina, owns the other half of the fighter.

Bombers Lose 4th Straight

Yank's AL Lead Dwindles

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York's first place lead in the American League has dwindled to 3½ games. Kansas City handed the Yankees—who made five errors—their 4th straight defeat 7-4 despite homers by Yogi Berra, Joe Collins and Mickey Mantle, who hit his 21st. Cleveland, with Bob Lemon winning his 7th, took over second by belting Baltimore 8-3 as Chicago's White Sox slipped to third with a 3-1 loss at Washington.

Things are getting much cozier in the National. Pittsburgh, despite a 7-3 defeat at Chicago, has a four-percentage-point hold on the lead over Cincinnati, which trounced Philadelphia 9-4. It's a virtual three-way tie for first, with St. Louis three points back of the Redlegs after beating New York 3-1 while the Brooklyn Dodgers tripped Milwaukee to fourth 6-1 on Roger Craig's two-hitter.

The A's turned the Yank errors, three by second baseman Billy Martin, into four runs, icing it with three in the 7th before Lou Kretlow started to weaken. The veteran righthander, now 2-7 lifetime vs New York, gave just two hits until the 8th when Mantle, hitting against a defensive shift for the first time, belted a two-run homer—his only hit.

* * *

Collins homered to lead off the 9th and little Bobby Shantz came on to fan Gil McDougald and Irv Noren and get Andy Carey on a tap to the mound.

* * *

Lemon, beaten only once in 10 decisions with Baltimore, scattered nine hits while the Indians smacked six doubles along with Earl Averill's two-run homer.

* * *

Chuck Stobbs snapped the White Sox streak at three with a four-hitter. Carlos Paula's sacrifice fly and an error gave Washington two in the first off loser Jack Harshman. Paula scored the other following his triple in the third.

The only Milwaukee hits off Craig, now 5-2, were a first-inning homer by Ed Mathews and a single by Billy Bruton in the eighth. In between the young righthander retired 13 in a row while the fifth-place Brooklyns, only two games out of first, chased southpaw Warren Spahn with two in the second.

* * *

Wally Post drove in four runs while belting two homers and rookie Frank Robinson hit a solo homer as the Redlegs kept the pace. Joe Nuxhall went all the way for his second victory. Curt Simmons was the loser.

* * *

The Cubs walloped Bob Friend, who sought his 10th victory, for five runs with two out in the third as Warren Hacker, winning his first, shut out the pirates until the 9th, when Frank Thomas homered with two on.

French Colt Is Favored in British Epsom Derby

EPSOM, England (AP)—The French colt Lavandin was a strong favorite to win the Epsom Derby, premier British horse racing classic, in which 30 horses were expected to run today.

But his odds lengthened slightly to 15-2 at last night's final callover after trainers speculated that the going might be a bit too firm for him.

Some 15 hours of steady rain fell on the mile and a half horseshoe shaped course on Epsom Downs Sunday and yesterday but there had been a drought lasting five weeks and the course was green and firm today.

Lavandin's owner, Pierre Wetheimer, said:

He cantered round the course and when he got back to the straightaway he sprinted away as if he were itching for the race to begin.

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — The National Baseball Congress Tuesday announced the franchising of the Huron Shore Baseball League of Michigan into its 1956 national association.

BULLETIN

Royal Bar Gains Second 2-1 Win in Two Nights

Royal Bar chalked up a 2-1 decision over Sam Benson in Tuesday's City Softball League activity at North Side Park for its 2nd verdict in as many nights by an identical score.

Cal Atwood hurled the Royal team to a 2-1 victory over Stadium Inn Monday. Last night Roger Reynolds pitched a nifty 3-hitter, which also matched Atwood, as Royal edged Benson by the same count.

Shaw's tallied four runs early in the game to pin a 4-2 setback on Stadium Inn at North Side. Clell (Mutt) Morse pitched 3-hit ball for the Jewelers.

Eugene McLeod's single and a lusty triple by Grant Hefferman handed Louie's Tavern a 6-5 victory over Lunsford Market in eight innings at Beaudette. Clyde Skinner blasted a 3-run homer for the losers in the 4th inning.

Pounds Pompey

Moore Gains TKO in 10th

LONDON (AP) — Archie Moore today brushed aside all questions about another defense of his light-heavyweight title and said:

"I'm the best heavyweight in world—and that's the title I am after."

The cagey old fellow from San Diego, Calif., cleared another hurdle on the way to the crown vacated by Rocky Marciano with a 10th-round TKO of Yolande Pompey of Trinidad in a light-heavyweight title fight in London's Harringay Arena last night.

* * *

"We had signed contracts for this fight in London so we had to go ahead with it," Moore said. "Now I want that heavyweight title. I'm entitled to it. Marciano nominated me as his logical successor. Floyd Patterson and Tommy Jackson are fighting Friday. There's talk of a fight against the winner in September. I can't get home soon enough to sort it all out."

* * *

* * *

He sent Pompey down for counts of eight, nine and eight before Referee Jack Hart stopped the slaughter.

Wright Pitches Griff's to Win

Lynn Wright struck out 10 batters and yielded only three hits as Griff's Grill scored an 8-2 victory over Elks No. 723 in a Class A City Baseball League game Tuesday night at Wisner Field.

Two of the three safeties were 6th-inning singles by Chet Woodmore and Herb Huston when the Elks scored one run. The other hit was a wasted double by R. D. Winfield in the 2nd frame. The lone base on balls issued by Wright led to the Elks' 1st tally in the opening stanza.

Jerry Christopherson and Ted Wharry each garnered two safe blows to pace Griff's 6-hit attack. Wright chipped in with a run-scoring double in the 2nd and Wharry contributed a 2-run triple in the 1st inning. Bill Ghramm's single in the 6th completed Griff's offensive punch against pitcher Bill Hurd.

Snead Minimizes Chances, Picks Thomson for Open

NEW YORK (AP) — Sam Snead, who has blown half a dozen chances to win the National Open Golf Championsip, has a single word to describe his prospect in the annual tournament next week.

* * *

* * *

"If I could get my touch on the greens the way I've done the times (three) I've won the Masters and some other tournaments, I'd figure my odds pretty good," the rhythm man from Virginia said. "But I'm stinking."

* * *

Sam checked into town today for defense of his Round Robin championship at Wykagyl in nearby Westchester County, starting Thursday. After Sunday's final rounds, he sets off for Rochester, N.Y., and the 56th annual Open June 14-16.

* * *

* * *

"Pete has everything it takes to win the Open," he added. "He hits a long, straight ball. He's a beck of a putter. And he's a solid boy, a good competitor.

* * *

"The trouble is until he won at Dallas this week he's never been able to win one of our tournaments. I think he was getting a sort of complex. But now that he has finally won this may be just the boost he needs."

* * *

Goldham Decides Against Coaching

DETROIT (AP)—Bob Goldham, former star defenseman on the Detroit Red Wings hockey club, says he has decided not to coach the Wings' No. 1 amateur farm club at Hamilton, Ont.

Goldham said yesterday the pressure of business makes it impossible for him to coach the Hamilton Cubs of the Ontario Hockey Assn. junior A group.

The 34-year-old defenseman, who retired this year after 11 seasons of big league hockey, sells construction machinery for a Toronto firm and makes his home there.

FISHERMAN'S LUCK — A 30-fish string of blue gills is held by Ralph Behrens, 20485 Indian, Detroit, as he and his companion, Bob Norton, 18951 Irving, Livonia, beach their craft on Square Lake's shore after two and a half hours of fishing. Blue gills are biting fine, Behrens reports, and he and an uncle caught a similar catch of 30 fish, limit for two fishermen the previous day.

Trout 'On the Feed'

By JACK PATTERSON
Pontiac Press Outdoor Writer

Something, and it certainly isn't any radical change in the weather, has put trout into a heavy feeding mood. Took number one boy Joe (the one that ate the worm) up for a day or so last week on what was supposed to be a business trip but turned out to be mainly a fishing exercise.

PATTERSON

The brook trout in our own stream have been most indifferent to food in past weeks but they've suddenly made a 180 degree change in course and willingly smack anything within range. In fact their gluttony is appalling, as the following example will illustrate.

We were working downstream with a pink garden streamer and presently joined battle with a fat little mamma brookie. Upon removing the hook we discovered that this pocket tiger was literally gorged to the teeth with two-inch baby trout, though she was a scant nine inches long.

Normally a fish this size is returned to the stream. But size is a relative thing and within the limits of her tiny pool she was a large, ferocious marauder. We creeled her because we disliked the idea of her finishing off the rest of her last year's children, and anyway, those nine inchers make good eating.

* * *

As always, when bait fishing, we were disturbed by the hook damage suffered by under-sized fish. It is a necessary evil in this type of fishing.

* * *

As trout grow scarcer and fishing pressure heavier, we hope to see the day when bait fishing for trout, except for rainbows during special seasons, is outlawed.

Can't see that it would be any rougher than outlawing live decoys for duck hunting, a restriction which has been accepted for many years.

* * *

That's for the future. For the present, northern trout stream conditions are good. Big hatches due any time now. Season's best trout fishing from now until 4th of July, with, as we've pointed out before, expectations for better than average mid-summer fishing.

Incidentally, after school is out and many people go north for the summer, popular streams such as the Au Sable's main stream take a beating all week long. Big browns, particularly, become very wary and tend to feed mostly at night. But, and here's the tip to tuck in your hat: let the fair weather fishermen dominate the streams on the sunny days.

Wait for one of those cold, windy ones we seem to be having plenty of this year. Then fare forth with a three inch white Marabou streamer. You'll not only have the water to yourself but the big brownies will be on the muscle.

Fishing around the state for species other than trout is improving. Burt and Mullett lakes are hot for walleyes. Perch fishing on the east coast is improving daily. Lake Leelenau is still producing big brown trout.

Locally the fishing is only fair, when it's that good. Since any change will be for the better, the outlook is improving.

OCSC Marksmen Place for Big Grayling Matches

Oakland County Sportsmen's Club will be heavily represented at the forthcoming .30 caliber championship matches at Camp Grayling, as a result of recent participation in preliminary tests.

OCSC had 26 riflemen in the tests. They will get additional practice in the June 10 big bore matches at Bay City. Several other OCSC marksmen will also shoot in the Bay City event.

In the preliminary shoot high aggregate received gold medals, silver for 1st place in each stage and bronze for 2nd and 3rd places.

* * *

Gerald Ouellette, an OCSC member, and member of the Canadian team to compete at the Bisley Matches in England and in the Olympics, won the aggregate with 236x250, 1st place in the standing stage with 92x100, and 1st place in the 200 yard sitting rapidfire with 50 x 50.

* * *

Art Grundy, another Canadian OCSC member won 2nd in the aggregate with 231 x 250. He also was 2nd in the 200 yard sitting 49 x 50, and 1st in 300 yard sitting slowfire 50 x 50. George Forstrum won 3rd in the aggregate with 230 x 250.

He was 2nd in the 300-yard prone rapidfire.

Ed Busby, another Candian Bisley Team member of OCSC, was 2nd in 300-yard sitting slowfire stage, 49 x 50. Bert Bean collected a 2nd place medal for his 91 x 100 in the 200-yard standing stage, and 3rd place award for shooting 48x50 in the 200-yard sitting rapidfire stage.

Kjell Danielson's 49 x 50 on the 300-yard sitting slowfire stage gave him a 3rd. His 49 x 50 on the 300-yard rapidfire stage was good for first. Emmett Teefey shot a 89 x 100 to place 3rd in the 200-yard standing event, and 48 x 50 for a 3rd place medal in the 300-yard rapidfire stage.

Arizona is getting an equal number of nods because of an excellent one-two pitching pair in Carl Thomas and Don Lee. The series is a double elimination affair.

Army Hurdler Rated Prospect for Olympics

COMPTON, Calif. (AP) — The United States, whose 1952 Olympic Games 400-meter hurdle champion, Charley Moore, retired, may have another bright hope in Robert Rittenburg of the U.S. Army.

Rittenburg, ex-Harvard star now with the First Army, won the All-Army 400-meter hurdles in the brilliant time of 51.6 yesterday, believed to be the fastest time for the event in the nation this year.

71 Violators Pay $1,187 in Fines

Bill Approved for Joint Fight on Sea Lamprey

President Signs Paper Authorizing U. S. and Canada Setup

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has signed a bill allowing the United States to join Canada in a program aimed at ridding the Great Lakes of fish-killing sea lampreys.

Since they first invaded the lakes in 1934, the parasitic, eel-like lampreys have devoured virtually all the trout in lakes Huron and Michigan and now are ravaging lake Superior.

The new law signed allows the United States to carry out its responsibilities under a Great Lakes fisheries convention signed by this country and Canada Sept. 10, 1954.

A commission of three U.S. and three Canadian members will have the job of finding ways to eliminate the lampreys, and of coordinating research to build up stocks of food fish in the lakes.

The commission's U. S. section is empowered to buy land and operate devices to prevent lampreys from entering the lakes from streams where they spawn. The U.S. Fish and Wild Life Service now operates such devices and is expected to continue to do so under contract from the commission.

State Fishermen Promised Many Muskies in Future

About 400,000 muskellunge eggs are being processed at Wolf Lake hatchery near Kalamazoo, eggs that someday will provide big fighting fish for Michigan anglers.

Last year, 5000-6000 young muskies were reared and planted in Michigan waters. This year, the third year of the musky program, Conservation Department fisheries workers hope to raise a larger number of these young fish.

Also, 500,000 northern pike eggs were hatched at Drayton Plains hatchery this spring and of this total 200,000 will be raised to fingerling size at Hastings. Wolfe Lake and Drayton Plains hatcheries. The others were planted as fry earlier.

Earlier, about 2,325,000 walleyed pike were hatched at Drayton Plains hatchery. About 1,325,000 have already been planted; the remainder will be reared to fingerling size at Wolfe Lake and Drayton Plains and planted later this year. Last year, 1,430,000 young walleyes were planted.

Suckers, carp and brine shrimp are used as live food to feed the young predator fish. To date, about 35,000,000 sucker eggs and a undetermined number of carp and shrimp have been gathered and are being processed for food.

Up For Approval

Study Wildlife Projects

LANSING (AP) — Three wildlife flooding projects will be considered for approval at the state conservation commission meeting June 7-8 at Higgins Lake.

Proposed projects would flood 520 acres at Dog Lake, Cheboygan County; 520 acres at Little Mud Lake, Roscommon County; and 90 acres at Pickerel Lake Creek, Mecosta County.

The proposed Dog Lake flooding project, located in Hardwood State Forest ,would stabilize water levels through construction of a dam 427 feet in length at the outlet of the lake, near its junction with McMasters Creek.

Most of the area has been flooded by beaver dams in the past and has supported good waterfowl populations during periods of high water.

* * *

The Little Mud Lake dam would provide a 3rd in a series of dams on Backus Creek. It is aimed at improving duck habitat near Houghton Lake.

The Pickerel Lake Creek flooding project is located in the Haymarsh State Game Area about nine miles northeast of Big Rapids. It is expected to better hunting and trapping opportunities in the game area.

16 Top Stars in Round Robin

Suggs Sees Miss Berg, Jameson, Rawls, Wright Biggest Threats

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. (AP)—Defending champion Louise Suggs wasn't optimistic but quickly added she wasn't pessimistic today as play began in the 4th annual $12,000 (Triangle) round robin golf tournament.

The 32-year-old professional star from Sea Island, Ga., said any one of the field of 16 can win this "plus and minus" competition and "I'm playing golf to make a living—just like all the other girls in this business."

Miss Suggs played the 6,065-yard, par 36-35—71 Cavalier Yacht and Country Club course for the 1st time in her long career yesterday.

Miss Suggs, victor so far this year in the Havana Open and the Titleholders at Augusta, Ga., singled out Patty Berg, Betty Jameson, Betsy Rawls, 21-year-old Micky Wright and Marlene Bauer Hagge as the ones likely to cause the most trouble in this series of five four-ball matches.

STORMS Over Michigan
The policy of Comprehensive Fire and Theft issued by this Exchange for members of the Auto Club, covers far more than mere fire and theft, and it has been vitally important to thousands of Club members this spring.
It covers loss by (1) tornado, (2) hail, (3) flood, (4) windstorm, (5) falling trees or poles, (6) cyclones, (7) lightning, (8) glass breakage.
And even with all these added coverages to fire and theft, and with the tremendous storm losses on cars the last few weeks in Michigan, it is costing less now than it has for years.

Winners will be named for each of six classes based on the player's age. Classes range from players 50 to 54 to those over 74.

Golfer Qualifies Then Plays Off

DALLAS (AP)—Ivan Gantz, Indianapolis golfer, made a mistake against himself and it almost cost him a place in the National Open.

Gantz, posting his qualifying score here yesterday, signed his score card as 148 for 36 holes when it should have been only 147.

But there was a tie at 148 among nine players and there had to be a swatfest to decide which five of them got into the National Open. Gantz won one to make a happy ending for his mistake.

Bronco Signs Pirate Pact

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday announced the signing of Lowell K. Johnson, 21-year-old outfielder who completed his college athletic eligibility only last Saturday at Western Michigan College.

Johnson graduates June 9. The Pirates said he probably will report to one of their Minor League clubs on option from the parent organization on June 15.

Big 10 Says "No" to Women

Birmingham Girl on 'M' Rifle Team Is Banned

ANN ARBOR (AP)—For Roberta Gubbins, a 20-year-old University of Michigan coed with a long rifle and a keen eye, victory seems like defeat—for the time being anyway.

Roberta placed 7th in the Western Conference Rifle Assn. meet this year and her team, Michigan, won the championship.

But almost before the shooting died down, the coaches of the association got together and voted that women would be banned from competition.

Roberta, once a member of both the men's and women's international rifle teams, says she's "not exactly hurt—but I do think it's too bad as I think it's a sport that women can enjoy just as much as men can."

The association voted 5-3 against women, giving as their reason the fact that the rules refer to team members as "he" —the masculine gender.

Michigan, Wisconsin and Purdue voted for women, Michigan State, Ohio State, Iowa and Illinois voted against them. Northwestern and Minnesota do not compete.

* * *

One of the things that hurt Roberta is that "no one ever came up to me and explained, because I do shoot better than most of the fellows there; I imagine that had something to do with it."

Roberta, whose father trained her to shoot at the age of 12, hopes the coaches will reconsider this summer.

She toted her long-barreled Winchester with the Michigan team when it placed 2nd behind Michigan Tech at the University of Illinois Invitational.

Tom Athanas, 23, a sophomore from Rochester, N. Y., said, "Personally I think the way the rest of the team does, and that is that Roberta should be allowed to shoot. I don't think it's fair."

Bill Woodruff, a sophomore from Kalamazoo stated, "I don't think it's right to ban women from rifle shooting. There is no body contact and the only reason I can see is, they don't like being beaten by a woman."

Miss Gubbins lives in Birmingham and her father, Robert Gubbins, is the 1st vice president of the Oakland County Sportsman's Club.

OUTLAWED BY BIG TEN—Roberta Gubbins, 20, from Birmingham, was ruled out of Big Ten rifle competition because she is a girl. Big Ten rifle coaches voted against female competitors after Roberta placed 7th as a member of the University of Michigan squad in the Big 10 meet. The vote was 5 to 3 against women. Wolverine riflemen declared, "They just don't like being beaten by a girl." AP Wirephoto

Wally Post Hits Homers in Pairs

The hard - hitting outfielder hit two home runs in one game for the third time this season last night as the Redlegs thumped the Phillies 9-4.

He also had a pair in each game of a doubleheader against the Chicago Cubs April 29. In 1955, Wally turned the trick three times.

Pope's Castle Damage Claim OK'd by House

WASHINGTON (INS) — The House has voted to pay $964,199.35 to the Vatical for damages caused by U. S. bombers during World War II.

The measure, which now goes to the Senate for final action, was sponsored by majority leader John McCormack (D-Mass), and minority leader Joseph W. Martin (R-Mass.)

During fighting between American and German forces in Italy in 1944, the Papal summer palace at Castel Gondolfo accidentally was hit by U. S. planes. The U. S. Army Claims Service surveyed the damage and concluded America should pay the Vatican the sum included in the bill.

A newly designed French car is guaranteed to attain 100 miles an hour speed in 30 seconds and 125 miles per hour in less than a minute.

Niles Mystery Case Termed Homicide

NILES (AP) — A coroner's jury today returned a verdict of homicide in the fatal shooting of a Chicago secretary Sunday on the steps of a Niles night club.

After deliberating about a half hour, the jury found Mrs. Marion Davenjay, 27, was shot to death at "relatively close range."

Among the witnesses was Gene McClane, 40, of New York City, a magazine salesman, who was Mrs. Davenjay's escort at the night club.

McClane told the jury virtually the same story he had given Niles police. He said Mrs. Davenjay had left the club to go across the street to a restaurant to get some beer to take with them after the club closed. Seconds before she was shot she beckoned to him as she walked past a front window of the night club on her way back. He said he heard no shot.

Mrs. Davenjay was employed as secretary to the Canadian Consul at Chicago.

The coroner terminated the inquest without calling all the 13 witnesses who had been subpoenaed.

Giant Truck Collide; Drivers Escape Injury

Two truck drivers escaped injury when their heavy vehicles collided at Orion and Rochester Roads in Avon Township yesterday afternoon.

They were Eugene J. Umerlik, 33, and Alfred D. Lint Jr., 33, both of Detroit.

Umerlik told deputies of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department he had to drive his truck into the ditch to avoid a head-on collision with the oncoming tractor-trailer and was struck on the side. Lint said his tractor skidded across the highway when his airline broke and the brakes locked.

Walled Lake Youngster Struck Down by Auto

Seven-year-old Dennis C. VanSickle, of Walled Lake, was in fairly good condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today after suffering two fractured legs and various minor injuries when struck down by a car driven in Wolverine Village this morning.

Pontiac State Police reported the boy was struck by a car driven by Daniel J. Ruese, 16, of 654 Wolverine Dr., Walled Lake, when he darted out into the road to pick up a stone. They said the accident happened on McCoy Road east of Bernstein Road.

Ruese told State Police he swerved to avoid the VanSickle child but hit him with the right side of the car.

Stock Prices Fall Narrowly

* * *

Price changes either way in the early afternoon didn't go past a point very often, and then the change usually was due to individual corporate situations.

Trading was slow at a pace around 1,500,000 shares for the day. That compares wth 1,650,000 shares traded yesterday.

* * *

The steels and motors were among the more active groups, and they were slightly lower all around. Also going down were the farm implements, nonferrous metals, chemicals, railroads, oil, airlines, movie issues, and the mail order houses. Otherwise the market was mixed.

Hoffa Denies Owing Income Tax Money

The former Oakland County labor leader has appealed the case in a petition to the United States Tax Court. The case reportedly grew from his partnership in a Detroit finance firm.

Under question is whether a $20,000 loss in the firm can be taken as a partnership loss, or a short-term capital loss deductible over three years.

Pleading guilty to a simple larceny charge, Donald A. Masters, 35, of Goodrich, paid $15 in costs in Justice Court yesterday.

'Give Me My Office!'

Legislator Takes Time to Help Things at Home

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressmen grind out such splendid pronouncements for solving the woes of the world that it's easy to forget that they're only human, with the same personal problems the rest of us face.

* * *

Only more so, in the case of Rep. Walter E. Rogers (D-Tex). He has six children.

On Memorial Day Rogers decided, as did many another husband and father, to spend the day at home, doing "a few chores that Mrs. Rogers has been calling to my attention for the past several months."

He tells about it today in a doleful report to his constituents back home.

SURPRISE FAMILY

Rogers thought it would be nice to surprise the family with a breakfast he had cooked with his own legislative hands. So he bounded out of bed at 7 a.m.

He found eggs but no bread for toast, pancake flour but no syrup.

Went shopping. Barely escaped a zealous policeman who wasn't taking any holiday from passing out tickets for parking violations. What with one thing and another didn't get to chores until 10:30.

Decided to begin by painting screen. Found new spray can didn't work as easily as he had hoped. Was giving it careful inspection when suddenly it worked perfectly, all over him.

TOUGH SITUATION

Told son to run get turpentine bought several days previously just for this operation. Informed that another son had dropped the bottle and broken it.

Trying to get off paint without turpentine when 10-year-old came in crying, pointing to ugly gash caused by falling off bicycle. Toted 10-year-old doctor's home, where five stitches closed the wound.

Learned doctor had been about to depart for call to country. Thought it might be helpful, and restful, to take him. Ran out of gas on way out of town.

CAUGHT IN RAIN

Terrific downpour on way back. Got home to find water pouring in basement door. Finally found outside drain had become stopped. Unstopped. Mopped.

* * *

Which reminded him that last December he asked Mrs. R., that long suffering mother of six and wife of one, what she wanted for Christmas.

Trans-Straits Cable Work Begins Today

MACKINAW CITY (AP)—The Consumers Power Co. today began laying in the Straits of Mackinac the first electric power link between Michigan's Lower and Upper Peninsulas.

* * *

Clear, calm and warming weather prevailed for the operation which will require at least one day to complete.

* * *

Four miles of underwater cable are being unreeled between McGulpin Point, west of Mackinaw City, across the Straits to Point LaBarbe, west of St. Ignace.

With a capacity of 44,000 volts, the four cables will tap the electric energy system of the Consumers Power Co. in Lower Michigan and provide power for the expanding economy of the eastern half of the Upper Peninsula.

* * *

"We'll have power into the Upper Peninsula by July 1," Dan E. Karn, president of Consumers, said.

Labor Union Drive Begins in Textiles

WASHINGTON (INS)—The AFL-CIO singled out the textile industry today as its first major target in the long-heralded drive to organize the nation's millions of unorganized workers.

* * *

The merged labor federation's 29-man executive council voted unanimously to undertake an organizing campaign aimed at the 700,000 non-union members in the far-flung textile industry. Only about 300,000 workers in the industry are now organized.

* * *

The effort will concentrate particularly on the South, where 575,000 textile workers are said to be unorganized. This is in spite of the fact that organizing efforts are encountering increasing difficulty in that section because of the fight over the school segregation issue.

Safety Program Short of Funds

Road Problems Face Special June Session of State Legisature

LANSING (AP) — Highway safety may be added to the growing list of problems slated for consideration by the Legislature at its June 13 special session.

Following a meeting of the State Safety Commission, Gov. Williams said he may ask the Legislature to appropriate more money for the commission and for the driver improvement section of the Department of State.

An increase in unemployment benefits, correction of a highway bonding law and more money for on the agenda for the session. on the agenda for the sessioon.

Sec. of State James M. Hare told the commission the state's new safety drive is being bogged down because of finances.

The drive, launched a month ago, revolves around the use of special forms by state and local police.

Law officers were instructed to fill out the forms for drivers who are mentally or physically unfit for the highways.

Hare said the program is being delayed because the 21 examiners can't handle the flood of forms.

Since May 14, he said, the state has revoked 650 licenses, with re-examinations proceeding at the rate of 16,000 a year.

He said the program should be stepped up by adding 48 license examiners and $239,000 to the budget of the driver improvement office.

Williams said he would consider Hare's request for possible submission to the Legislature.

He added that he may also ask the Legislature to boost safety commission appropriations from $24,000 to $79,000.

AEC Chieftain Reiterates U.S. Lead in Nuclear World

PITTSBURGH (INS) — Atomic Energy Commission Chairman Lewis L. Strauss declared yesterday "there is no foundation in known fact" for any fear the U. S. lags behind Russia in nuclear power development.

Strauss made the statement in his address to the graduating class of the Carnegie Institute of Technology. The AEC chief stressed U. S. strides in the peaceful uses of atomic energy.

He said: "The United States leads the world today in the state of its development of the peaceful uses of atomic energy, including the development of atomic power."

The government official predicted the nation's first full-scale atomic power plant for peaceful uses, being built at Shippingport, Pa., will be furnishing up to 100,000 kilowatts of electricity to homes and industries in the Pitsburgh area a year hence.

'WE CAN DO THAT'

Strauss explained the U. S. policy in development of the power of the atom for every-day purposes in these words:

* * *

"We are not interested in building merely the most reactors to produce the largest number of kilowatts regardless of how much money they lose annually in operation. We know we can do that.

"We are in the business of developing economically competitive nuclear power, both at home and abroad. We are not engaged in making kilowatts for propaganda.

He told the graduates that atomic power will "ease mankind's burdens, combat the plague of disease, the scourge of starvation, and raise the standards of living generally."

Montana Votes Go to Kefauver

Stevenson Given Few Write-in Ballots; Ike Unopposed in Primary

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—Tennessee Sen: Estes Kefauver, jolted by his primary defeat in California, could take some solace today in being assured of Montana's 16 votes at the Democratic National Convention.

* * *

At the same time President Eisenhower claimed the state's 14 Republican convention votes in yesterday's presidential primary, the first in Montana since 1924.

Kefauver's was the only name on the Democratic ballot, but a scattering of write-in votes also went to former Illinois Gov. Adlai Stevenson, New York Gov. Averell Harriman, Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas and Ohio Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

* * *

On the Republican side, Eisenhower gained his delegates in a lopsided victory by Secretary of State S. C. Arnold, a favorite son stand-in for the President, over Lar Daly of Chicago, entered as the America First Republican party candidate. Arnold has pledged his convention votes to Eisenhower.

* * *

In 334 of 1,081 precincts the Democratic totals were Kefauver 21,648, Stevenson 227, Harriman 34, Johnson 2 and Lausche 2.

1 In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY son Jack L. Robinson who passed away June 8th, 1955.
From this world of pain and sorrow
To the land of peace and rest,
God has taken you dear loved one,
Where you have found eternal rest.
Sadly missed by Mom, Dad, Kathy and Floyd.

He is gone but not forgotten,
And, as dawns another year,
In our lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of him are always near.
Days of sadness will come o'er us,
Friends may think the wound is healed.
But they little know the sorrow,
That lies within the heart concealed.
Sadly missed by his Wife and Children.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF JOHN Farkas, my dear husband who passed away 1 year ago today, June 6th, 1955.
There's a face that is always with us,
There's a smile we shall always remember,
Of one we loved so dear.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF BERtha Ward, who passed away 3 years ago today, June 6th, 1953.
From this world of pain and sorrow,
To the land of peace and rest.
God has taken you, dear Mother,
Where you have found eternal rest.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF RUTH May Jeffrey, who passedaway June 4, 1953.
The depths of sorrow we cannot tell,
Of the loss of one we loved so well,
And while she sleeps a peaceful sleep,
Sadly missed by Mother, Brother and sisters.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF THEOdore Eggert, who passed away June 5, 1955.
He had a kindly word for each, and died beloved by all.
Sadly missed by his Wife.

Army Enlistments Deadline Extended

Area men interested in enlisting in the Regular Army for specific assignment in Germany now have until July 12 to sign up, MSGT. Raymond Barriault, local Army recruiter, announced this week. The enlistment deadline was recently extended from May 12.

* * *

Men joining under this plan are assigned as replacements to the 10th Infantry Division now serving in Germany. The program enables those men physically fit and mentally qualified with no previous military experience an opportunity to join their friends in Germany.

* * *

Seventy men from the Fifth Army area, which covers the Midwest from Indiana to Colorado and North Dakota to Missouri, have been selected for this program since its inception last April 13, according to the local recruiting office. A total of 142 have enlisted into the Division from the entire United States.

* * *

The 10th Division was the first U.S. Army unit to rotate overseas under the "Operation Gyroscope" program. The division left in the summer of 1955 and is scheduled to return to this country in late spring, 1958.

Artist Guild Demand May Shut Met Opera

NEW YORK (INS)—The Metropolitan Opera is scheduled to announce today whether to cancel its 1956-57 season because of a lack of agreement with the American Guild of Musical Artists.

* * *

The president of the opera association, Anthony A. Bliss, announced yesterday that talks with the Guild had collapsed and that there "is no basis at the present time for the continuation of negotiations or for proceeding with plans" for an opera season this fall.

* * *

He later said that although he is "depressed" he has hopes that "some development will arise to alter the situation."

The principal differences between the Guild and opera deal with rehearsal pay and job security.

'The John Ford Story' Slated July 8 to Fight Ed's Newest Rival

BY JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — Ed Sullivan's secret weapon for any new noise Steve Allen's first Sunday Comedy Hour June 24 might generate will be an "Eighth Anniversary of TV" show. Sullivan will trot out 15 or 20 "names" to coax back defecting TV viewers thinking of fleeing to NBC. Peggy Lee turned down the offer to be Allen's premiere guest star . . .

Allen's second Sunday show (July 2) will star Imogene Coca, Andy Griffith, Elvis Presley . . .

Nor will the battle dispense with Allen's third show (July 8) which will star Buddy Hackett — Sullivan July 8 will present "The John Ford Story," and expects to have John Wayne, Gregory Peck and the hordes of big names attached to John Ford's fine films through the years. Meaning, the fight won't be easy.

Julie London (Jack Webb's ex) is said to all but steal "The Great Man," Jose Ferrer's film based on the conniptions of a famous TV star . . . Julie plays a girl singer who in real radio-TV life causes most fans to wonder how she rates stardom and all that cash . . .

PLEASED GOODBYE

We won't miss the departing "Miss Brooks." . . . Not only has it been a sad misuse of Eve Arden's comic capabilities, but it fielded a great deal of stupidity, such as school principal "Mr. Conklin" in this grammatical groaner: "Who can't help who?" . . .

Metro will pay Perry Como plenty to sing — on the soundtrack — the title song of the film "Somebody Up There Likes Me," which he'll also naturally record for RCA-Victor . . .

Jan Murray's shifting from "Dollar a Second" to a new quiz he alone will own. Starts late in August . . .

NBC pays Red Buttons $75,000 this month for not using him this TV season . . .

BORGE PLAYS COY

Victor Borge has driven CBS-TV brass approximately batty . . . Won't tell them what his TV spectacular June 14 will consist of . . .

Sees Senators Okaying Social Security Change

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Smathers (D-Fla) said today he believes the Senate will vote to allow all eligible women to draw Social Security retirement benefits at age 62.

* * *

Smathers said in an interview he thinks the vote on a proposal to set up a new Social Security disability program will be "real close."

A Social Security bill passed by the House a year ago would have established a program of benefits for persons permanently and totally disabled at age 50 or above. It also would have allowed women to draw Social Security benefits at age 62. The present minimum is 65 for men and women.

ONLY WIDOWS

The Senate Finance Committee, following the urging of the Eisenhower administration, stripped from the bill the disability provisions and voted to permit benefits at 62 only for widows—not single working women or wives of retired men. Smathers, who serves on the committee, opposed these moves.

* * *

A number of Democrats have said they will seek to restore the House provisions.

Senate debate on the bill, one of the few remaining major measures due for consideration this year, is scheduled to start tomorrow. But no votes are expected before next week, and final action may come even later.

PARTISAN BILL

Sen. Byrd (D-Va), chairman of the committee, told a reporter such mail has come to his office in substantial volume. He said he has replied by stressing the cost of a reduction in the minimum age for all women.

* * *

Smathers said he is convinced there are enough Senate votes to reverse the committee and put in the age 62 provision for all groups of women.

* * *

But he said he feels some senators do not want to vote now for a second major benefit, such as the disability system, because that would necessitate an immediate increase in taxes.
