

Early Education and Intervention (EEI) Education Specialist Degree
Exit Survey

1. Please evaluate the extent to which the following student learning outcomes were achieved by completing the Early Education and Intervention program:

	Strongly disagree	Disagree	Agree	Strongly agree
Graduates of the EEI Education Specialist program will acquire and demonstrate methods of collaboration that are key to success in the early intervention field, which includes professionals with diverse methodologies, expertise and educational backgrounds.
Graduates of the EEI Education Specialist program will acquire and demonstrate sound methods of applied research and program evaluation in order to provide solution-based leadership in multiple settings with diverse populations.
Graduates of the EEI Education Specialist program will gain knowledge of current Early Intervention practices and policies, and apply this knowledge to diverse educational and human service settings.
Graduates of the EEI Education Specialist program will develop and expand personal leadership skills and competencies through coursework and relevant field experiences in order to assume leadership positions in a variety of educational and human service settings.

2. Reflecting on your experiences in the EEI program, give an example of knowledge and skills that you have gained since beginning the program:

Knowledge:

Skill(s):

3. What areas or experiences in the graduate program have you found to be especially strong and beneficial to you in the EEI program (e.g. experiences within required courses or elective courses, mentoring by faculty or other students, field trips, presentations, learning within a cohort group, online learning)? Please be specific.

4. From your experience, what areas of the EEI program need to be further developed (e.g. required courses or elective courses, field experiences, processes (applying to the program, registration, applying for graduation), advising)? Please explain and make suggestions.

5. After you receive your degree, what do you envision for yourself? What positions, roles, or accomplishments will you seek? How do you hope to see your knowledge and experience continue to develop? What particular contributions do you hope to make toward the advancement of the field of early education and intervention?

6. Would you recommend the EEI Education Specialist program to a friend or colleague? Explain why or why not.