Ready Tentative $12 Million County Budget

Rebels in Cuba Seize Radio and TV Stations

HAVANA (AP) — Rebels seized Cuba's largest radio and TV stations today and broadcast an appeal for sympathizers to rise in arms and fight against the government of President Fulgencio Batista.

The rebels called for an immediate general strike. Soon afterward workers in the telephone company and other utilities began leaving their jobs and communications were crippled.

Shooting began at 11:30 a.m. in the waterfront district near the Banco Continental. This is the San Isidro district in the old part of Havana.

The firing rapidly spread to other sections of the city.

Rebel forces also seized an arms shop.

Most banks in Havana closed and in others employes suddenly quit work.

Most of the heart of the city appeared to be calm and there was no sign of rebel activity around the presidential palace or key government buildings.

In the American-owned First National City Bank about half the employes walked out.

Two heavy bomb explosions occurred at noon.

Rebels set fire to the headquarters of radio station CMQ, one of the largest in Latin America. The building also houses the CMQ TV station. The building is situated near the Hotel Nacional in the western part of the city.

Troops and police were rushed to the areas where fighting was under way.

The rebels had secretly passed the word just before dawn that the push in Havana would start at 9 a.m. But later the time was set for 11:30 a.m., and the shooting started then.

Telephone service within most of Havana was interrupted.

There was no communication with the rest of Cuba. Electric power failed in many sections of the capital.

The rebels announced they had 5,000 armed civilian militiamen ready to step into the streets and fight.

It appeared that the rebels had at last launched their long-threatened general strike. Whether it would be effective or partly effective only time could tell.

That was because the strike call came as most stores, shops and business establishments were closing for the noon hour. Normal reopening time is around 2 p.m.

No accurate report on casualties was immediately available but the bodies of three slain rebels were taken into a first-aid station.

No Urgent Need to Cut Taxes, Ike Tells Press

Predicts Business Rise, Says U.S. May Call Off Nuclear Tests Later

From OUR NEWS WIRES

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower said today he sees no present need for an emergency tax cut to fight the recession.

The President told his news conference that the question of reducing taxes as a means of fighting the business slump remains under continuing study by the administration.

But he added that he sees real ground for hope that one of these days—and he said he would not try and predict just when—there will be an upgrade in the economy.

The President also said today he would very seriously consider calling off further U.S. nuclear tests if this year's Pacific series produces all needed research information.

Eisenhower told the news conference that if such results are achieved or largely achieved it would be perfectly proper for him to declare this country's intentions—not by some international agreement, but by independent U.S. action.

But he said that as things now stand the scientists would first have to tell him exactly what it was necessary to find out about the further development of atomic explosives. Then, he said, they would have to tell him the degree to which the tests had succeeded in producing the necessary information.

The first question put to Eisenhower at the conference was a request for his views regarding a possible tax cut.

In reply, Eisenhower first noted that Secretary of the Treasury Anderson has promised to consult with Democratic as well as Republican congressional leaders before the administration takes any tax action.

Then the President went on to say he sees nothing in the unemployment figures that brings the situation to a critical point and requires a decision on taxes at the moment.

It was Eisenhower's third meeting with newsmen in as many weeks—and the first time he has held news conferences three weeks in a row since last August.

Greenville Wife State's Top 'Mrs.'

'MRS. MICHIGAN' — MRS. BARBARA DOLAN, OF GREENVILLE.

Mother of Two Wins Mrs. Michigan Title

DETROIT (AP)—Newly crowned "Mrs. Michigan" is a tall slim brunette from Greenville whose husband proudly proclaims: "She's terrific."

Judges thought so too in choosing Mrs. Barbara Dolan, 32-year-old mother of two, last night as the state's top homemaker.

She won over eight other finalists—including a fellow Greenville resident—in the competition that included tests of cooking, table setting, sewing and dishwashing, along with poise, personality and community activities.

Mrs. Dolan won a preliminary award, for her table setting, before being named winner. Afterward her husband, Thomas, chief engineer at Gibson Refrigerator Co., said:

"We were all packed to go home. I guess I'd better unpack."

The Michigan winner will go to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., in May for the national "Mrs. America" contest. She also wins $1,500 in home appliances and other prizes.

Other preliminary awards went to Mrs. Roberta Lawrence, 38, Ann Arbor, who was voted "Mrs. Congeniality" by fellow contestants; Mrs. Elizabeth Heitman, 34, of Allen Park, for cooking and Mrs. Nonie Hainline, 35, of Detroit, for good grooming.

Other finalists were Mrs. Janet Blanding, 33, of Greenville; Mrs. Betsy B. Hart, 36, of Rockford; Mrs. Nancy Crane, 26, of Muskegon, and Mrs. Muriel Jane Harper, 27, of Troy.

The contestants had to cook a casserole dish of their own choice and a specified dessert in the finals. Mrs. Dolan whipped up a "chicken divan Parisienne," chicken and asparagus in cheese sauce, and a pineapple torte.

"I love to cook," she said. "I'll try anything."

Her husband said his wife "keeps a perfect house." She also takes part in Red Cross, PTA and Girl Scout work and belongs to a hospital auxiliary and a literary club.

"I didn't even take home economics," she said. She and her husband are both University of Michigan graduates. They have been married 10 years.

Hike Reflects Soaring Costs of Welfare

Plans in Oakland Call for Jump of $2 Million Over Funds for '58

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

A tentative $12,762,280 budget for 1959 — inflated greatly by the county's soaring welfare costs—received its final touches today in readiness for submission to the Oakland County Board of Supervisors Tuesday.

The record budget represents a $2,030,266 hike over the 1958 budget approved by supervisors last September.

These welfare costs will result in a deficit of $1,161,304 by the end of 1958, Robert Y. Moore, chairman of the Board of Auditors said today.

He said only $497,174 out of a budgeted $1,050,000 remains to be spent for welfare the rest of this year.

For the first three months of the year disbursements in this direction have been $787,751, of which Oakland County's share has been $552,826 under a 70-30 payment agreement.

"I estimate that all of the $497,174 balance will be spent by June 20," said Moore. The deficit will result under the present spending rate, he added.

Major reason for next year's higher budget is the great number of welfare cases which are putting a drain on county funds.

Fred W. Smith, chairman of the Supervisors' Ways and Means Committee, singled this out as the big factor resulting in the increase.

"Other major ones are child care and hospitalization costs," the Royal Oak supervisor added.

His committee met this morning to review for the last time the proposed budget. It will go to the board April 15. Supervisors are to study it for a week with tentative approval for tax allocation purposes expected to follow a week later.

Of the 12 million dollar total budget, $10,672,280 is expected to be raised by taxation, according to Moore.

The present budget approved for this year amounted to $10,732,014.

Trimmed almost in half in the proposed 1959 plan was a $301,165 request by department heads for additional employes. "We knocked this down to $118,000," Moore said.

This cutback stemmed from an

Caro Judge to Rule on Sullenberger Trial

It will be up to a Circuit Judge from Caro, east of Bay City, to decide Friday whether Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger's suit against Pontiac General Hospital ends then and there or not.

Circuit Judge Timothy C. Quinn, who normally presides over the 40th judicial circuit of Tuscola and Lapeer Counties, will hear arguments by the hospital on three motions that yesterday caused the trial to be adjourned three days after it had barely got started.

The adjournment was to give Dr. Sullenberger's attorneys time to prepare their arguments for Friday. Attorney Glenn C. Gillespie made the motions for the hospital.

The major motion was for dismissal of the suit, by which the ousted staff surgeon is seeking reinstatement and $250,000 in damages following his temporary suspension last Nov. 13.

If Judge Quinn, assigned to the case Monday, grants this motion, then the case will be dropped and the trial called off.

"It was logical to make this motion before the trial proper got under way," Gillespie said. "It could end the suit and save the city time and money."

The motion could be denied, however, or Judge Quinn could take it under advisement. Either way, the trial would proceed.

SEEK END OF ORDER

The second motion was to lift a court order of last Dec. 2 which prohibits hospital trustees from taking final action to make the suspension permanent.

Trustees could do this at a final hearing or else simply pick up an undated letter of resignation Dr. Sullenberger had to sign in 1956 when he was readmitted to the hospital after two years' absence from the city.

The first method would not affect the present trial much, but the second might lead to new grounds for court action by the 42-year-old chest surgeon, Gillespie said.

The third motion was to strike the question of damages from the suit.

"It was important to get all these questions decided as soon as possible, if we could," Gillespie said. "This is not an attempt at delay but a legal step that must be taken now or we would be remiss in a duty to the hospital and city."

Crash on Bridge Claims 3 Lives

33 Traffic Violations Charged to Driver Who Died on Ambassador

DETROIT (INS) — Authorities said today the driver who was killed with two other persons in a car crash on the Ambassador Bridge had a record of 33 traffic violations, including 25 moving citations.

Police said the driver, Clarence Hart, 54, of Detroit, was a regular in traffic court from 1938 to last September. His offenses included speeding, reckless driving, driving in the wrong lane and going through red lights.

Also killed in the accident were Willie Johnson, 40, and Mrs. Arlene Buchner, 32, both of Detroit.

In Receiving Hospital being treated for internal and head injuries is Lola Henderson, 23, also of Detroit.

She told police they were returning from Windsor when the smash-up occurred on the curve 300 feet from the toll gate on the Detroit side of the bridge.

The truck driver, Thomas Boyce, 31, of Windsor was unhurt. He was absolved of the blame.

Police said the car bounced off the truck's trailer and rammed the railing on the opposite side of the bridge.

Bridge attendants said the crash was the worst in the 29-year history of the structure.

Sees Reuther Running for Vice President

ABERDEEN, Wash. (AP)—Rep. Mack (R-Wash) says he believes Walter Reuther, controversial head of the United Auto Workers Union, will be the Democratic vice presidential candidate in 1960.

In an interview, Mack said yesterday he expected the Democrats to nominate Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas for the presidential race with the 50-year-old Reuther as his running mate.

Mack said he expected Vice President Richard Nixon to be the Republican standard bearer. He did not name the GOP vice presidential nominee, but said it probably would be someone from the East to balance the ticket.

Michigan Dems Stage Rebellion

Quitting Williams, They Name Own Candidates for Governor, Senator

DETROIT (AP)—A group of rebellious Democrats, bolting what they called Gov. Williams' leadership "down the road to national socialism," have put up two candidates for state office.

They nominated William L. Johnson, a radio station manager, for governor and put up Homer Martin, a former president of the United Auto Workers Union, for U. S. Senator.

They will run in the Democratic primary Aug. 5.

The nominations were made at an organizational meeting of the Wayne County (Detroit) Chapter of their group, the State Democratic Club of Michigan, Inc., here last night. About 60 persons attended the meeting.

Johnson, manager of Radio station WJMS at Ironwood in Upper Michigan, said:

"The walls of the palace guard of the State Democratic organization must be stormed by the hosts of courage, morality and of vision."

Martin was once a Republican candidate for Congress and more recently head of the Fair Share Bargaining Assn. and organizational director of the Dairy Farmers Co-Operative Assn., both formed by dissident groups within the Michigan Milk Producers Assn. He now is connected with neither.

Martin said: "Marxian socialists now sit squarely astride the Democratic machine in the state."

The bitterest criticism of Williams, a five-term governor, considered a cinch to run again, came from former Rep. Frank E. Hook, of Ironwood. He said Williams won his first term by committing himself to a program of "national socialism."

Johnson was an unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination for state treasurer in 1952.

Potter to Talk in City, County

Pontiac Stop to Precede Royal Oak, Birmingham Receptions Tomorrow

Whistle-stopping through Pontiac and Oakland County tomorrow will be Sen. Charles E. Potter.

Potter, Michigan's Republican member in the U.S. Senate, will visit here in his third day of a whirlwind junket through the state this week in a drive for his second six-year term in Washington.

Arthur G. Elliott Jr., chairman of the Oakland County Republican Committee, said a dinner and a public reception are planned to honor Potter tomorrow night.

The dinner, to be held at Aunt Fanny's Restaurant, 2244 N. Woodward Ave., Royal Oak, will be for principal party workers in the county. It will commence at 6:30 p.m. A press conference will precede it.

Following the dinner, a reception will be called at 8:30 p.m. at the Birmingham Republican Headquarters, 351 N. Woodward Ave.

Upon Sen. Potter's scheduled 4:30 p.m. plane arrival, he will make a hand-shaking tour of the Tel-Huron and Miracle Mile Shopping Centers.

Before his tour of the state concludes Saturday, the Congressional incumbent will have stopped over in 19 Michigan cities in his "meet the people back home" campaign.

Warns of Time When Tiny Nations Will Have ICBM

Bataan Hero Sees Friendship as Best U.S. Defense

SEYMOUR, Ind. (INS) — A warning against a national preparedness program with all its guns pointing in one direction was sounded today on this 16th anniversary of Bataan Day.

Edgar D. Whitcomb, survivor by a unique escape of that bitter hour in American history born of unreadiness, was hesitant to make comparisons between today and 16 years ago.

But he did propose that the United States "alter its foreign policy to a direction which will cultivate and maintain wholesome and friendly relations with all nations of the world—large and small."

Whitcomb, whose feat was so remarkable it remained classified military information until long after World War II ended, doesn't think of himself as a hero.

Currently, he is a lieutenant colonel in the United States Air Force reserve. His daily concerns center about his family and his work as an attorney in Seymour, a small southern Indiana city of 11,683 population.

But Col. Whitcomb has not forgotten the sickening, disillusioning experience of being a starving, beaten prisoner.

An Air Force navigator who had taken part in a huge mass flight of B17s from the United States to the Philippines two months before Pearl Harbor, Whitcomb had been one of the some 35,000 American and Filipino troops taken prisoner in the Bataan surrender.

He escaped Corregidor by a night-long swim but eventually was recaptured when Filipinos turned him and two companions over to the Japanese.

He posed as a civilian mining engineer and after imprisonment at Santiago and Santo Tomas, was repatriated by way of Shanghai and New York.

TOP SECRET

Upon his return to the United States he was allowed to inform his family—who had feared he was dead—that he was alive, but the Pentagon placed his story in secret files until two years after the war was over.

When he first returned to military service he was limited to stateside duty for fear of repercussions should the Japanese learn his story, but Whitcomb's feelings about getting back into the Pacific war were so strong he finally was allowed to return to the Philippines.

He said that as long as the Soviet Union is free to develop its military power in secret, the United States must be prepared to meet any threat.

"The term 'national preparedness' has taken on an entirely different meaning in 1958 than it had in 1941. We cannot now measure military preparedness in terms of the size of our standing Army and reserve potential.

"We seem to be coming into an era which will see each of the smaller countries of the world armed with intercontinental ballistic missiles capable of being delivered to any point on the earth's surface.

"For these reasons and due to the phenomenal strides being made in science, it is becoming increasingly difficult to define intelligently what constitutes adequate national preparedness.

"If any generalizations can be made, present world conditions would seem to dictate that the United States continue to do all things possible to maintain our lead in scientific developments and to alter its foreign policy to a direction that cultivate and maintain wholesome and friendly relations with all nations of the world, large and small."

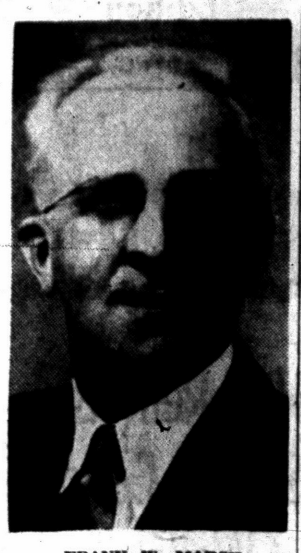
Whitcomb, remembering the fall of Bataan, said:

"A national preparedness program headed all in one direction could be as disastrous as the attempted defense of Corregidor which had all its big guns pointed toward the China Sea."

The tall, dark-haired Hoosier, who has since served as a state senator and assistant U. S. district attorney since his war years, commented:



FRANK W. MARSH

Pontiac Praises Retiring Plan Commissioner

The resignation last night of Frank W. Marsh from the City Planning Commission, of which he was chairman the past eight years, left city commissioners searching for a fitting tribute.

They would have liked to give the 65-year-old roofing and insulation contractor the honorary title of city planner emeritus. Charter limitations prevented this.

So they called on City Attorney William A. Ewart to draw up a resolution thanking Marsh for his long and faithful service to Pontiac.

In terms of service, Marsh was the oldest appointive member on the city's boards and commissions. He was first appointed to the planning commission in 1949 and had served without pay ever since.

He told the city he had to resign because of ill health.

Marsh lives at 18 Illinois Ave. and owns the Hugus-Marsh Roofing and Insulation Co., 353 N. Cass Ave.

Know the Weather

By E. H. SIMS

Are anticyclones dangerous? Do they occur often, and where are they most frequent?

Anticyclones are not dangerous. Actually, an anticyclone is highly desirable, and most people enjoy the accompanying weather. They are nothing but the opposites to cyclones, or low pressure systems, and are our high pressure systems.

High pressure system occur all year round in all area of the United States, but are more common in fall and early winter in most parts of the country. The anticyclone moves eastward at a faster rate of speed than does the cyclone, though the winds inside a cyclone are often of greater velocity.

Anticyclone winds circulate in a clockwise direction in this hemisphere while those in a cyclone rotate counter-clockwise.

House GOP Courts Dems

Plugs for Building Bonds

LANSING (AP)—House Republicans today courted Democratic support of a 100-million-dollar bond issue for a five-year state construction program.

House Speaker George M. Van Peursem (R-Zeeland) said GOP members of the lower chamber spurned a Senate - approved bonding plan last night to give almost unanimous backing to a building program of their own.

But to push the measure through, they will have to round up Democratic backing since it needs a two-thirds favorable vote in both the House and Senate. Republicans control two-thirds of the Senate seats but their numerical advantage in the House is only 61-48.

The House plan is a watered-down version of a 250-million-dollar bonding program drawn up by Rep. George M. Sallade (R-Ann Arbor). It calls for bonding for as much as 20 million dollars for construction purposes in each of the next five years, with not more than 60 million to be earmarked for higher education.

Community and junior colleges would collect 7½ million on a matching basis and the rest would be split up for prison and mental hospital construction and other projects.

UP TO THE VOTERS

"This would leave the issue up to the people to decide on, since it would go on the ballot as an amendment to the Constitution," Van Peursem said.

Democratic leaders have not sounded off on the proposal, but presumably it would run into some objections from Gov. Williams.

The governor, stressing the need for immediate construction as an anti - recession measure, has put forth a 114-million-dollar revenue bond - type program which could get rolling soon after passage.

Senate Republicans backed Sen. Robert E. Faulkner's plan to issue some 50 million dollars in bonds for college construction along similar lines. Faulkner, Coloma Republican, proposed to set up a building authority and exchange its bonds for U.S. government bonds now held by the Veterans Trust Fund.

"Republicans in the House, after sampling public opinion at home, are not in favor of this idea, apparently feeling that Veterans Trust Fund should not be tampered with," Van Peursem said.

House and Senate purse - string committees, meanwhile, met far into the night to hack up major appropriation bills approved by one chamber or the other last week.

Mental health officials and top brass from the University of Michigan and Michigan State University went before the House Ways and Means Committee in a final try at reinstating budget cuts approved by the Senate.

Six Ships to Hazard Huron Ice Passage

PORT HURON (INS) — The Coast Guard icebreaker Mackinaw today was to try to convoy six freighters through a 13-mile jam at the lower end of Lake Huron.

The jam was reported to be 12 to 15 feet thick in some places.

Capt. Evor Kerr of the Mackinaw was not optimistic about the attempt, pointing out that none of the six upbound ships waiting at Port Huron is high-powered. He said no upbound ship has passed beyond Port Huron so far this season.

The Mackinaw narrowly averted a disaster yesterday when the freighter John W. Boardman was forced close to the beach by the ice.

Capt. Kerr said the Boardman was nearly on the beach six miles north of Port Huron when the Mackinaw cut a path and got the vessel into deep water.

There are two ice jams in the St. Clair River, at Russell's Island opposite Algonac and at Woodtick Island near Marysville. The Coast Guard cutters Acacia and Tupelo rescued one ship stuck last night in the Russell's Island jam, and were trying to break the ice there today.

The ice has lowered water levels by three feet in Lake St. Clair and by two feet in the Detroit River.

Intakes for the water systems of shoreline communities are still well under the surface but hundreds of householders—particularly on Harsen's Island—found their individual intakes dry.

The lake bottom lies bare for a hundred feet offshore in many places and mariners at the mouth of the Clinton River have complained it is virtually impossible to launch any large cruisers or sailboats.

Jobless in Area: 14.7 Per Cent

12,000 Out of Work as Unemployment Hits New High in March

The unemployed make up 14.7 per cent of the total Pontiac area labor force, according to the local branch of the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

This compares with 12.2 per cent in mid-February, 7.9 per cen in mid-February, 7.9 per cent in year ago.

At the end of last month, the number of unemployed was estimated at 12,000, an increase of 2,000 from the month before.

A sharp increase in unemployment insurance volume brought the total paid out here to nearly $1 million last month.

The exact figure was $957,470, compared with $643,173 in February and $247,488 a year ago.

At the beginning of March, 9,702 persons were on the commission's rolls. At the end, 8,422. During the month, 444 claimants exhausted their claims.

The employment decline between mid-February and March 15 was 2,600. Production cutbacks accounted for a cutback of 2,000 workers in motor vehicle plants. The total industrial decline was 2,100.

Current non-farm employment of 66,700 is 8,500 less than a year ago. Non-manufacturing employment of 28,400 is only 500 less than a year ago.

These figures are also based on estimates by the commission.

Try Cancer Test Taking 3 Minutes

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A three-minute test for cancer, which flashes red for danger and green for safety, is being tried out here.

More than 4,000 persons have been tested so far. The test's originator estimates it is wrong in no more than 3 to 5 per cent of the cases.

Among 700 women suspected of having cancer of the cervix, or neck, of the womb, the test found 58 cases indicating cancer and 57 of these turned out to have malignancies, Dr. Bertalanffy said.

Among 1,100 other women picked at random, who showed no outward indication of cervic cancer, it identified four as having malignancies and eight others as being suspected of the disease.

Committee members issued this when informed that the county might end in the red by the end of this year because of the bulging number of direct relief cases.

An appropriation of two million dollars has been put into the 1959 budget for this purpose. It represents the largest allocation for the many different departments, institutions and funds.

The state put an increased burden on Oakland and other counties when it changed its previous 50-50 agreement for relief payments to 70-30 last July. The counties carry the heaviest share.

A move to have the state revert back to the 50 - 50 split failed in the House of Representatives last week.

School Budget Studied Closely

Waterford Board Gets Recommended Salary Schedule for Teachers

Further preliminary study of the annual Waterford Township school budget was the main topic of business at a special meeting of the board of education last night.

The teachers' Professional Problems Committee presented their recommended salary schedule for next year as did representatives from custodial, engineering, maintenance and bus driving personnel.

These groups will meet Wednesday with the board of education personnel committee. Their requests will be a vital factor in the final budget to be presented at the next regular board meeting April 17, according to Superintendent William Shunck.

In other business, several appointments to various new administrative positions were approved by the board.

Mrs. Carrie Hubbell, who is the principal at the John Monteith School, was named elementary coordinator replacing the late Mrs. Dorothy Selles.

Replacing Mrs. Hubbell will be Mrs. Pearl Turo who is a teacher at the Donelson School. Both appointments will become effective April 28.

Mrs. Gladys Rohrer, principal at the William Burt School, was named principal of the Waterford Center School replacing William Aebersold who will be assistant principal of the new John D. Pierce Junior High School which opens in the fall. These appointments will be effective August 25.

With Paul O'Neil appointed principal at the Pierce School and George Madden, assistant principal at Isaac Crary Junior High School, all administrative positions have now been filled, Schunck said.

The board approved a resolution regarding the recent condemnation proceedings against May Chapman and Janet Bathum for an additional school site on the south side of Cass-Elizabeth Lake road.

A circuit court jury handed down a decision of $26,000 for the 10-acre site and the treasurer of the school district was authorized by the board to set aside a sum of $26,440 to cover the site and tax payments.

Continue Probe of Plane Crash

Capital Reports Last of Viscount Victims Identified

MIDLAND (AP) — The cause of an Easter night plane crash in which 47 persons died remained a mystery today as government experts continued a painstaking probe of the wreckage.

Capital Airlines said the last of the victims were identified today.

Meanwhile, investigators continued to probe the wreckage of the big Capital Viscount near the runway of Tri-City Airport.

Four charred engines of the British-built Viscount were dug out yesterday from the muddy cornfield into which the craft plunged and burned while coming in for a landing while enroute from Newark, N.J., to Chicago.

The plane came down during a snowstorm just 20 seconds short of a landing. Witnesses said it seemed to pancake into the earth before exploding. Visibility was about three miles and the ceiling 900 feet.

City councilmen at nearby Saginaw renewed a request to the CAA yesterday for a control tower at the field. Tri-City has no facilities for instrument landings.

GM, UAW Meeting on Minor Details

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors and the United Auto Workers Union set another bargaining session today as negotiators apparently attempted to agree on secondary phases of a new contract before they tackle main issues.

Absence of top negotiators at a 1½-hour session yesterday indicated the talks centered on what are known as non-economic provisions of the labor contract.

These would include seniority, job classifications and working conditions in the shops.

The talks were resumed yesterday after a 12-day recess. At the start of negotiations March 25, UAW President Walter P. Reuther presented the union's controversial profit sharing proposal.

The present three-year contract expires May 29. The present hourly wage in auto plants is about $2.40.

Precinct 1 has been reduced by eliminating the area north of Oak street between the River Rouge and both sides of Lake Park drive. This area has been added to Precinct 2.

In Precinct 3, the area east of Adams road will be deleted. Precinct 7 will have the section west of Eton road taken out, and Precinct 12 will be composed of voters in these two areas.

Precinct 5 also is slated for change, with the south side of Frank street being eliminated, along with the north side of Lincoln avenue from Southfield road to the Rouge. This will include Gordon court. Precinct 4 will take over voters in these areas.

Precinct 9 will be reduced by shifting the west side of Pierce and both sides of Henrietta street south of Lincoln avenue to Precinct 10.

Persons living in the affected areas may determine their correct voting place on the precinct map at the City Hall, the clerk said.

City Manager L. R. Gare has commended the Greenfield Construction Co. of Detroit for its work in installing the Quarton Lake Estates sewer lines.

"The way the work was done is so outstanding I think public mention should be made," Gare said.

"They left the area cleaner than I have ever seen a contractor do before. Drives were replaced to their original condition, or better, and the cleanup part of the job was maintained on a day-to-day basis."

There are too many tag days in Birmingham, Commissioner Carl Ingraham charged.

He suggests that a study be made to see what can be done to curb the street sales and solicitations.

The public, as well as some of the organizations involved, is getting tired of the constant stream of sales which have been held lately, Ingraham said.

"We used to limit it," he commented, "but it has gotten out of bounds. It's the same old problem; not wanting to refuse one and permit another.

"I believe, though, that we'll have to take some sort of action soon. It's getting to be a regular weekend affair."

At the organizational meeting of the Bloomfield Hills City Commission, Commissioner Dominick Vettraino was elected mayor. He succeeds John Bugas.

Lyman Craig was named mayor pro tem.

Mrs. Clarence Wickersham Wacker, of 580 Suffield Ave., Birmingham, is one of 10 candidates for vice president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. Wacker, a member of Piety Hill Chapter, DAV, is finishing a three - year term as state regent.

Seven of the posts will be filled at the DAR's 67th Congress in Washington, April 14-18.

Leslie Grabendike

Leslie Grabendike of Yale, a retired Burroughs Corp. official and a pioneer in opening the oil fields of the West in the 1890's, died Monday at the age of 89.

Mr. Grabendike, who had lived in the Detroit and Oakland County area since 1915, was the father of William B. Grabendike of Birmingham, director of Office and Field Operations for the Oakland County Board of Supervisors Equalization Committee.

In addition to his son, he leaves his wife, Nina; another son, Harry of Fremont, Calif.; one brother, Frank of Wichita, Kan.; and a sister, Mrs. Ada Hand of Tennessee.

But Visit to Be Shortlived

Wintry Weather Returns

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wintry temperatures returned to Michigan during the night but the U.S. Weather Bureau said they were due to be shortlived.

The chilly readings, sub-freezing in all sections of the state, ranged down to 14 degrees at Pellston in northern lower Michigan.

The weather bureau said the cold snap came into Michigan because of a low pressure area off Newfoundland. This low pressure area caused northerly winds in Michigan which brought down cold air from the Hudson Bay area.

Skies were clear in all sections of the state.

Warmer weather was expected tonight, the Weather Bureau said.

Stormy weather, with rain, snow and strong winds, hit wide areas of the Rockies and Plains today.

The clashing of cold air flowing across the Rockies with warm moist air moving northward from the Gulf, triggered the wet and windy weather.

Snow fell across broad sections of the Rockies, with rain and snow in sections of the central and southern Plains. Snowfall was more general in Colorado and extended eastward into parts of western Nebraska and western Kansas.

Snow measured over 7 inches at Sidney, in extreme southwestern Nebraska, while in central Colorado, Leadville's fall was to a depth of 2 feet.

Gusty winds raked the southern Rockies and southern Plains.

Michigan Man Dies in Navy Plane Crash

PASO ROBLES, Calif. (AP) —A Navy AD5Q Skyraider attack bomber crashed in Cottonwood Pass 30 miles east of here yesterday, killing all three aboard, including a Michigan man.

Killed—was AEM 3.C. William Eugene McCully, 22, whose mother, Mrs. Via Mae McCully lives in Munith, Mich.

Travelers Gaily Keep Grim Date

Laugh on Death Flight

SAGINAW (AP)—Many of the passengers aboard the ill-fated Capital Airlines plane which crashed near Midland Easter night were laughing and joking minutes before their deaths, a Cleveland man said today.

Howard M. Thompson, 53, an official of the Eaton Manufacturing Co. at Cleveland, said, "It was Easter night and many were returning from holiday trips. They had no way of knowing they were so near death."

Thompson, en route to the Eaton plant at Vassar, got off the plane at Flint. "I was getting off when many of the new passengers boarding at Flint got on," he said. "They were laughing and joking. I watched the plane take off. Its engines sounded perfect, normal and strong."

PLUNGES INTO FIELD

Twenty minutes later at the Tri-City Airport near Midland, the big Viscount turbo-prop plane plummeted into a muddy field. All 47 persons aboard were killed.

Thompson boarded the plane at Detroit's Willow Run Airport.

"While we were still on the ground at Detroit," he said, "Capt. W. J. Hull (the pilot) told us about the unusual weather conditions across the nation.

"He said he would try to make landings at both Flint and at Tri-City, but he said he would not go into either airport if weather conditions were not right."

Thompson said the plane made a perfect instrument landing at Flint. He said the captain told passengers that weather conditions at the Tri-City Airport were reported better, and that he'd be able to land there.

News of the crash was startling, Thompson said, adding: "You think how lucky you are."

Liz May Meet Ike at Seaway

Queen and President Seen Clasping Hands at 1959 Opening

MONTREAL (AP) — Canadians are talking about the possibility that President Eisenhower and Queen Elizabeth II will meet at the St. Lawrence Seaway when it opens next April.

The Queen already has promised to come to the opening, and it is believed that the President also will be on hand.

A likely meeting place is Cornwall Island, in the river's International Rapids section. The four-mile island lies in Canadian waters but a new high-level bridge is to link it with the United States just 1,200 feet away.

The two heads of state may clasp hands at the midway point.

The seaway is a joint effort of Canada and the United States.

Since the seaway is a maritime endeavor that will turn the Great Lakes into the world's eighth sea, the Queen may sail to Canada aboard the royal yacht Britannia and travel to the heart of North America.

Canada is building five locks. The two other locks are in the U.S. half of the river between Cornwall, Ont., and Massena, N.Y.

Together as one navigation system, the locks and canals open a new era in water transportation. The seaway's governing depth is 27 feet. The present canal route is limited to vessels with 14-foot draft.

The Cornwall area is the hub of the seaway. On one side of the river is the old Cornwall Canal, built by Canada more than 100 years ago. Across the river is the U.S. portion of the seaway, skirting a joint Ontario-New York power dam.

Court Gives Judy Her Jewelry Back

NEW YORK (AP) — Judy Garland has her jewelry and costumes again and New York state has $8,673 the singer owed in back income taxes.

Two certified checks, one covering $262 in court fees and interest and the other the back taxes, were handed over by the singer's attorney Maurice Greenbaum.

He refused to reveal who put up the money. He said it was given to her by "someone who had trust in Judy."

Miss Garland did not appear in court. Greenbaum gave the checks to an attorney for the State Tax Commission in the chambers of Acting Justice William B. Groat of New York State Supreme Court.

Groat released a suitcase full of jewelry and six stage costumes Miss Garland had put up to guarantee payment.

Any NEW Jokes?

Ancient Greek Humor Similar to Our's Today

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — When things were bleak in ancient Greece, and laughter was the best medicine, the Greeks had the words for it. With variations, we are laughing at the same words today.

There are no records to indicate whether ancient Greek after-dinner speakers began their talks, "A funny thing happened to me on the way to the Parthenon . . ."

But there are records of ancient Greek jokes, and these are collected in a new book written by Dr. Albert Rapp, professor of classical languages at the University of Tennessee.

"The Ancient Greeks and Joe Miller" was printed in a special limited edition for the Roxburghe Club of San Francisco.

"If you were to read the stories of this joke book, your immediate surprise would probably be to meet that very familiar and nowadays threadbare character, the absent-minded professor," Rapp observed.

Aristotel may have asked Socrates if he'd heard the one about the "professor who was invited to a wedding banquet. When it came time to leave, he said to the groom: "Good luck, and may you have many more.'"

A stock character of Greek jokesters was the braggart. For instance: "A braggart, walking in the market place, saw his servant, who had just come in from the country. The braggart called out: 'Hello! How goes it on my sheep ranch?' The servant replied: 'One sheep is lying down, asleep. The other is standing up.'"

And this one about gabby barbers.

Quoth the bard: "A wit was asked once by a chattery barber: 'How shall I cut your hair?' The wit replied: 'In silence.'"

Dies in Freak Accident

LA PORTE, Tex. (AP)—Ed Clark, 51, was helping unload a small tractor from a truck. Frank Boyle of the La Porte Police Department said the tractor slipped as it was moving down a ramp. Apparently afraid it would fall, Boyle said, Clark ran down the ramp, tripped, fell and died of a broken neck. The tractor did not fall.

Texan Seeking Seat in Senate

States' Righter Blakley Tries for Post Held by Liberal Yaraborough

DALLAS (AP) — Former Sen. William A. Blakley, a millionaire Democrat who has attacked the Supreme Court's antisegregation rulings, announced for the Senate yesterday.

The states' rights defender, a Dallas attorney, entered the July Democratic primary.

Conservative Democrats have long urged Blakley to run for the seat now held by Sen. Ralph Yarborough (D), who has the support of liberals.

Blakley also has attacked the Eisenhower administration's money policies and what he called labor political managers.

Former Gov. Allan Shivers appointed Blakley to the Senate Jan. 15, 1957. He served as an interim senator for four months, filling the post when Price Daniel left the Senate to become governor.

Yarborough was elected to fill the unexpired term April 2, 1957. Blakley was not a candidate.

Yarborough has not announced his intentions.

Yarborough said of Blakley's action: "I have no reaction whatsoever."

Officially, Blakley is a lawyer. But he has widespread business interests.

Blakley has supported Eisenhower in the past and has often crossed the tangled Texas political lines.

Offers Reducing Course

LOGAN, Utah (AP) — Utah State University, which teaches its agricultural students how to add pounds to farm livestock, has added a new course for overstuffed collegians. The reducing class is reserved for students who are grossly overweight and have had trouble doing anything about it on their own.

Drive-in service stations for automobiles began in 1905. They also had an annex to shoe horses.

Cultural Center Drive Launched

Waterford Committee Promotes 17-Acre Gift as Desirable Site

A long-range "educate-the-public" campaign regarding the proposed Waterford Cultural Center is now underway, sponsored by the Waterford Township Library Committee.

In September, the township board tentatively accepted an offer of 17 acres of choice land on Highland and Williams Lake roads, from philanthropist Frank Steere, providing a Library and Cultural Center be constructed on the property.

Since that time, a group of leading citizens have been appointed by supervisor Elmer Johnson to make a survey and present recommendations concerning the project.

Chairman of the group, Rev. Walter Teeuwissen Jr., presented one of the first informative talks at the Waterford-Drayton Rotary club yesterday, and said that several sub-committees are now gathering important data to present publically.

More than a hundred formal announcements have been sent to organizations throughout the area, offering speakers to explain the project.

The Waterford Township high school debating teams and speech classes are now preparing to help the library committee inform the public of the importance of such a center.

Rev. Teeuwissen said that a comprehensive study of financing, maintenance and actual construction must be made before presenting to the voting public.

He added, "This project will definitely not appear on the August 5th Primary ballot for approval this year."

Suspect in Larceny Waives Examination

A larceny uspect caught by a fleet-footed store manager, waived examination in municipal court yesterday and was bound to circuit court.

Roosevelt Mathews, 28, of 290 8½ St. John St., Flint, will be arraigned Monady in circuit court on a charge of larceny from a building.

Mathews and a companion allegedly snatched a diamond ring worth $300 from the counter at Shaw's Jewelry Store, 24 N. Saginaw St., Saturday.

They were chased by the manager, Tom Brown, who with the aid of a police officer caught Mathews. The other man got away, but the ring was found on Mathews, police said.

Wife, Husband Ready to Switch Jobs Again

GALENA, Ill. (AP)—It looks like the same switch between Lawrence Grebner and his wife for the job of sheriff of Jo Daviess county.

Returns in yesterday's primary show Grebner won the Republican nomination for sheriff, which is normally tantamount to election, and will succeed his wife, Emma.

Grebner and his wife have been switching jobs for sheriff and chief deputy for the past 18 years. Illinois law prevents a sheriff from succeeding hiself.

Lana's Letters of Love Printed

Counter Her Contention She Didn't Welcome Slain Man's Attentions

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — More chapters in screen star Lana Turner's sizzling romance with slain underworld figure Johnny Stompanato were to be opened to public view today with the disclosure of a second batch of her love letters.

The ardent messages from the original "sweater girl" of the movies to the wavy-haired "Adonis" whom her 14-year-old daughter, Cheryl, confessed stabbing to death were obtained by the Los Angeles Herald-Express and published in the second of a copyrighted series of articles.

One of the torrid missives from the 38-year-old Miss Turner to the 32-year-old former bodyguard of ex-rackets Boss Mickey Cohen was sent from London where Lana was filming "Another Time, Another Place," last year. It said:

" . . . beloved, I do love you terribly, the very same 'mutual' love that you feel. I'm your woman, and I need you, my man! to love and be loved by. Don't ever, ever doubt or forget that! Phones are great, yes, but I need to touch you—to feel your tenderness and your strength, to hold you in my arms so, so close—to cuddle you sweetly, and then to be completely smothered in your arms and kisses. Oh, so many, many kisses."

The letter continued, "Quando, Quando, Quando, Quando?" or when, when, when?

The letters sharply countered the film queen's contention immediately after Stompanato's death that she did not welcome his attentions, and came amid these other developments in the case:

—Miss Turner's attorneys, Jerry Giesler and Louis C. Blau, issued a statement saying they expect the actress to be subpoenaed to testify at a coroner's inquest into the stabbing Friday.

—Stompanato's elder brother, Carmine, 42, said in Chicago he would insist that Lana be given a lie detector test to "find out what really happened" in her all-pink bedroom last Friday night, when Cheryl admittedly thrust a 10-inch butcher knife into the mysterious man-about-Hollywood "to protect my mother."

Publication of the letters brought an order from District Attorney William B. McKesson for an investigation to determine who removed them from Stompanato's $12-a-day Hollywood apartment and whether anything of significance to the probe was taken.

Beverly Hills Police Chief Clinton H. Anderson, who originally investigated the case, said he understood that Cohen, who originally introduced Stompanato around town, and Carmine entered the apartment after the public administrators' seal had been removed.

The ardent letters, a dozen in all, came to light as Cheryl awaited the inquest and an April 24 hearing on her case in her private room in Juvenile Hall.

Williams Signs 2 Bills Governing Bond Sales

LANSING (AP) — Companion bills making technical changes in blighted areas planning and improvement laws have been signed by Gov. Williams.

One bill sets the limit of bonds for such projects at the estimated rather than the actual cost. The other allows bonds to be sold within three years after the year in which they were authorized. This permits money to be raised only as needed and enables the borrower to get loans when interest rates are most favorable.

Snow Halts Production

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — When a sudden January storm dumped four inches of snow on Richmond, many local employers let their workers off early so they could get home safely. One of the first firms to close for the day was the Eskimo Pie Corp., manufacturers of ice cream bars.

Khrushchev May Not Want Job

There's something quite intriguing about NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV'S accession to the top spot in Russia's political set-up.

He stands alone.

As far as an outsider can tell, Comrade KHRUSHCHEV is really the head man. He shares his authority with no one. At first glance, this looks like a promotion and a signal honor. But there are two schools of thought in this connection.

As a matter of fact, this step was accurately forecast January 31st by WILLIAM L. RYAN, of the Associated Press, who is a specialist in Russian activities. He predicted the actual happening to a "T," eight weeks in advance.

Some people believe that KHRUSHCHEV himself had been angling to step out and certainly BULGANIN'S resignation came as no surprise. The Commies had been casting about for some time to find a fellow-burglar to take NIKOLAI'S job. He has pleaded ill-health and a desire to drop from the picture, but apparently, there was no crush of eager applicants and so KHRUSHCHEV took on the added chore.

Word persistently creeps from behind the Iron Curtain indicating all isn't well in Russia. The great mass of the boys and girls are unhappy over affairs in general. Russia has concentrated so much effort on weapons, bombs, missiles, etc., that living conditions have more or less gone to that well known place in a hand basket.

There's deep discontent with poverty.

There's dissatisfaction with hovels.

Hence, in spite of the fact that NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV wears the crown of a modern czar, he may be sitting on a straw throne that totters and weaves in a freshening wind. He may be holding a job, willy-nilly, that no one else wants, and a cyclone may strike without warning.

"Uneasy lies the head, etc."

Hazard to Shipping Leveled by Blast

What has been called the worst menace to navigation on the West Coast of North America was blasted out of existence the past weekend.

Submerged twin mountain peaks, known as Ripple Rock, in Seymour Strait on the Inside Passage from Vancouver to Alaska, have been reduced by 38 feet. At its base the rock is 3,000 feet long and 1,500 feet wide with heretofore dangerous currents and whirlpools.

Only twice a day at high tide and for only about 30 minutes could ships move safely through the narrows. The cost involved in waiting at either end of the passage has been substantial but the blast now has cleared a safe 40 foot channel at low tide.

This menace to navigation has taken scores of lives and wrecked more than 100 vessels. Records show that since 1875 two American warships and one British rammed the rock and sank. As recently as 1946 a Canadian hydrographic survey ship with expensive equipment on board sank after hitting the rock and $250,000 was spent to raise her.

Over the years many ideas for removing Ripple Rock have been advanced, even atomic bombing. The success of this engineering feat costing the Canadian Government $3.1 million, was made possible after nearly three years of planning and work. Shafts were sunk and tunnels blasted out of solid rock were planted with explosives. Seismic measurements of the blast will be part of Canada's contribution to the International Geophysical Year.

Each year steamers using the rugged Inside Passage carry over 175,000 passengers, many of them tourists, and more than 2,000 large freighters transport $100 million in goods. Many smaller vessels also are engaged in coastal trade.

This unique engineering feat will save lives and money and remove a major hazard on the always rough and sometimes dangerous coastal route from Puget Sound to Alaska.

The Man About Town

Military Academy

Old Advertisement Tells of Facilities at Orchard Lake

Modern girl: One who'll try to make any man a good husband.

A hark back of over a half century is found in an advertisement from the April, 1907, McClure's Magazine, sent me by

Mrs. G. W. Stark

of 220 East Iroquois Road. It is for the Michigan Military Academy,

then located at Orchard Lake on the present site of the St. Cyril and Methodius Seminary.

It was one of the top military schools in the United States, and its drill teams won many national honors. Its President and Superintendent was and the adv. says: "Ideal site. Fine equipment. Prepares for all colleges. Strong teaching. Genuine military training. Symmetrical culture. Clean atmosphere. Not a reform school."

My Florida roving correspondent sends word that

who moved from Pontiac to Miami 11 years ago, died there last week, aged 65. He was a retired phone line tester.

Rescued from a snowdrift last December, a Baltimore oriole has since been living in the kitchen of

of 576 Hospital Road. It thrives on a diet of bananas, honey and a little dog food.

This is a good day to send in your entry in our baseball contest, and not let that $250 get away from you. Procrastination might cost you that much.

Word comes to me from Lansing that my good friend,

Robert J. Furlong,

has been named as chairman of the annual

Michigan Week Program

to be put on in a few weeks. This is the annual occasion that we combine with an

Oakland County Week

since we have so much to contribute to what makes Michigan great.

The manufacture of cigars was quite an industry in Pontiac during the closing years of the last century. According to a letter from now living in Detroit, he rolled the weed here 60 years ago, and that over a half million cigars were then made in our city every year.

I like the name adopted by the Michigan Conservation Department

for the man who goes hunting or fishing without a full knowledge of guns, tackle and laws. He is and we still have a few of him in the Pontiac area.

"Mister Meenzwell,"

The Ghoul

David Lawrence Says:

Eisenhower Calls Russia's Bluff

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower has dramatically exposed the Soviet game, which is to seek ostensibly an end to nuclear tests but really to plan to continue testing. The theory that the United States would fall for the bait, and suspend nuclear tests just after the Soviets have finished an important series of tests, has collapsed. Instead, the President calls on the Moscow government to agree now to a cheat-proof inspection system.

"It seems peculiar," writes the President to Khrushchev, "that the Soviet Union, having just concluded a series of tests of unprecedented intensity, should now, in bold headlines, say that it will not test again, but add, in small type, that it may test again if the United States carries out its already long announced and now imminent series of tests."

If the Soviets were sincere, they would announce that they never intended to resume testing. As it is, they are not yet ready for another series and will use the next few months to prepare for a resumption of testing.

Meanwhile, they will blame America, and certain groups will keep up a constant propaganda inside the Western countries with parades and demonstrations and lawsuits, all designed to frustrate the Western governments and, if possible, force them to stop testing.

The Communist apparatus is clever. It works insidiously and without detection. It uses stooges —many of them unwittingly. In England, for example, the London "Times" had an article the other day describing the demonstrators in the protest march there as largely foreigners. Many of them were known Communists. "They certainly don't look English," said one bystander.

USE SCARE METHOD

Little by little Americans, too, will get wise to the Soviet propaganda. Just now efforts are being made to scare the American people by exaggerations about "fall-out."

Unquestionably, when there are tests, the amount of radioactivity increases. It may double the previous figures but, even if the tests were continued at their present rate for 20 years, the total amount of radioactivity would still be an infinitesimal fraction of what would be considered dangerous to health.

That's the word from the top scientists of our government.

But even such authoritative statements are brushed aside by persistent critics as simply a matter of "degree," which is only another way of alarming people. It is difficult to understand the motive of the dissenters who seem to think they must continue to scare the public about the dangers of "fall-out." If they are loyal Americans, they ought not to be playing the Communist game.

If they are just humanitarians who honestly believe they are right and that the top scientists of the government are wrong, they should present their evidence to the proper committee in Congress — which, incidentally, investigated all the reports recently and also came to the conclusion that the "fall out" thus far has not endangered the nation's health and is a very small fraction of what would be dangerous.

'Bugs' Baer Says:

(Distributed by INS)

The career diplomats are careering across Europe. Thirty prime viziers are headed for the last round-up.

A career diplomat is a politician who pulls the same line abroad that got him nowhere at home.

He gets himself measured for a portfolio and he's in business.

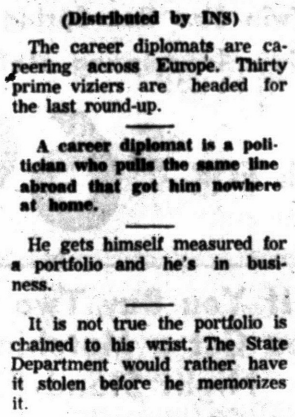
It is not true the portfolio is chained to his wrist. The State Department would rather have it stolen before he memorizes it.

This is the summit-upping we asked for and Russia shied off like a witch at a clear running stream.

Then Russia accepted it and we backed up like a mule in a starting gate.

The first diplomat had his head shaved, the message tattooed on his scalp and set on the windowsill to cool off.

The Country Parson



"It's easier to tie a child's shoe than to teach him to do it—except that you only need teach him once."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Those Deficient in Iodine Often Complain of Chill

Familiar complaint of adults with iodine deficiency — there are millions of 'em — is that they feel chilly even where healthy persons are comfortable. Indeed, their body temperature is generally below normal (normal being between 98 and 99 degrees F.) and much of the time their hands and feet are cold.

These cold-blooded ones are not much refreshed by a good night's rest or even by a vacation. They are weak-kneed. They tend to daydream or maybe doze anywhere.

They have dry, sallow skin and lustreless, dry, falling hair. They begin to turn gray before they have reached the pinnacle of life.

Many discover they feel pretty good for a while after a hearty meal, and so they overeat and accumulate a girdle of fat.

In the past 30 years some physicians and health officers have half-heartedly approved of (1) administration of minute quantities of iodine or an iodine compound to school children to prevent goiter, and (2) mass administration of KI —potassium iodide—to the public in the form of iodized salt (used in place of ordinary salt).

I do not believe school children or adults get the amount of iodine they need from these sources.

In the Great Lakes basin and other regions in the goiter belt, a good many women in their 40s become low in spirit, gloomy, pensive, moody. The credulous creatures delve into quack literature and decide it's "the change."

If you have been inoculated with any such morbid notion of "female weakness," send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope for pamphlet on "The Menopause."

The common cause of the condition described, though not the only cause, is malnutrition, specifically iodine deficiency.

I do not advise anyone to take medicinal doses of iodine or iodide without the advice of his or her physician. But a suitable daily ration of iodine is essential for every man, woman or child in the goiter belt, not for a few weeks, but every day the year around. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for pamphlet "The Iodin Ration."

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

No Evidence of Depression in Easter Parade by Home

Easter morning on my street I watched for one solid hour and my eyes saw a good 100 beautiful cars, men and women drivers, dressed beautifully, and most of the cars carried from two to six children, also beautifully dressed. I could not see one sign of depression. So you worriers stop worrying and continue your Easter parade. It was a beautiful sight.

Report Castro Carrying Biggest Torch in Cuba

HAVANA (INS)—Is Fidel Castro carrying the biggest torch in Cuba?

DEEPLY IN LOVE

They declare that the bearded, 31-year-old symbol of the fight against the government of Fulgencio Batista is still deeply in love with his former wife.

Her name is Mirta. She is a green-eyed blonde noted for her beauty in a country of beautiful women.

She divorced Castro more than two years ago, sometime after she had pulled strings to get him pardoned following the abortive attack on the Moncada Army Barracks in Santiago on July 26, 1954.

What brought about the divorce? The Cuban male's eye for other women? Or a revolutionary's preference for lengthy jaunts away from home to purchase arms, seek money and rally followers rather than a family life?

Whatever the real cause, the rebels, clothing Castro in white say the divorce wounded him deeply. Others claim the separation was friendly.

At any rate when Castro was in Mexico training for his invasion, he asked Mirta to send their only child — Fidel Jr., now 9—to Mexico for what he thought might be a final meeting.

TAKEN AWAY

Subsequently, two of Castro's sisters took charge of the boy and it was only with the aid of Mexican police that Mirta finally recovered him.

Mirta now is married to a Havana attorney who prefers to practice his profession instead of politics. They have one child.

Fidel Castro is in the mountains of Oriente Province and, in the tradition of any long Latin revolution, his camp counts in its entourage six or more women who have come to cook, nurse and sew.

The chief nurse, cook and friend to Fidel is a doctor's daughter named Celia Sanchez.

Rebels say the relationship stops there.

But Castro has his eyes on history as well as fighting. And liberator Simon Bolivar had a wife and he had "Manuelita."

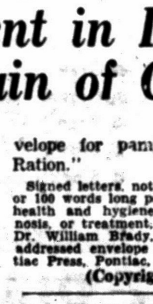
Case Records of a Psychologist:

Says Wearing Girdle Aids Health

Marjory's husband objects to her wearing a girdle. He is a health faddist and thinks it is unwise to add anything to what God gave us at birth. But that is a wrong notion, as outlined below, for God expects us to team up with him to make this a healthier, happier world. Corsets are like eyeglasses, false teeth and clothing.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case X-375: Marjory L., aged 29, is an attractive young mother.



DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, I have a very critical husband," she confessed, "but the chief reason for his complaint is the fact I wear a girdle.

"He is an athletic man and a great health enthusiast. So he condemns corsets and girdles as wholly unnecessary and unwise.

"But when I had our first baby, the doctor prescribed a maternity corset to help take some of the load off my back.

"I was certainly grateful, for my back almost killed me when I tried to do without the corset at my husband's insistence.

"So am I a panty-waist and a sissy to wear a girdle?"

"HORSE SENSE"

No, it is entirely normal to wear a corset or girdle, if you are a woman.

And every man who wears a belt is doing much the same thing. Moreover, many men actually wear corsets nowadays.

Motorcyclists also find that a wide leather belt is a great boon to protect them and promote comfort.

So let's face the medical facts squarely. God Almighty placed a backbone with the ribs thereon to give us a straight back.

But if He had extended our breastbone clear down to the pubic bone, then we couldn't have stooped at the waist.

Instead, we'd have been as stiff as a stove pipe. So God stopped the breastbone about half way down.

That left a soft "hinge" in front which permits us to bend over to tie our shoes.

But at the same time, it predisposes our internal organs to bulge outward.

And that is especially true when we get fat or when a wife becomes pregnant.

HUMAN "HINGE"

"But don't we have muscles to help keep us from bulging?" Marjory parroted her husband's health arguments.

Yes, we have several sets of abdominal muscles that go up and down in front (Rectus) and around us (Transversus) and even diagonally (Oblique).

Despite all these sets of muscles, we must realize that long standing on our feet will unduly fatigue them.

And a fatigued muscle begins to stretch. Soon it forms the habit of stretching.

Alas, the more it stretches, the weaker a muscle becomes. So a wife with a pendulous abdomen during the last few months of pregnancy, is going to stretch her abdominal muscles unduly.

And her back will also suffer from the continuous pull unless she wears a maternity corset to help reduce the tension on her muscles and ligaments.

Actually a corset is simply an extra artificial muscle that mankind's fertile brain has added to the natural equipment God gave us.

"But why should we need that extra girdle or corset?" Marjory's husband has argued.

Well, why should we need clothes? Because God didn't finish our anatomical make-up but gave us a brain to help the Almighty adapt us to reality!

God also gave us only two sets of teeth, so our fertile brain, via dental surgeons, now can give us three or four or even a dozen sets of extra teeth.

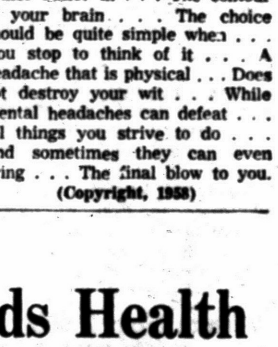
God also expects us to modify our deficient vision with eyeglass-



es. And to give the hard of hearing a beneficial "assist" via hearing aids.

If a woman is slender and has the time and energy to become a gymnast after bearing her children, she may keep a fairly slender waistline even without corset or girdle.

But most wives have so many duties and are working till late at night running their household, that they find it more healthful and more efficient to resort to a corset or girdle. The latter keeps the organs in place and are actually healthful.

Geared to Issue Quick Warning

Michigan Weathermen Watch for Tornadoes

DETROIT (AP)—Spring is a happy time of birth for animal life, trees, flowers and other vegetation. It's also spawning time for the smallest but most dangerous storms in this area — the dread tornado.

W. W. Oak, chief of the U.S. Weather Bureau at Detroit, says Michigan's weathermen already are geared to go into instant action to warn residents if a tornado is born in the state.

VIGIL CONSTANT

First word of a tornado forecast comes from the U.S. Weather Bureau's Severe Storm Warning Center at Kansas City. This center keeps a constant vigil on potential storm conditions throughout the country.

If conditions in Michigan warrant a tornado forecast, all nine U.S. Weather Bureau stations in the state are notified by the warning center. These stations are at Detroit, Muskegon, Grand Rapids, Sault Ste. Marie, Escanaba, Alpena, Muskegon, Lansing and Flint.

"The weather bureau now operates radar stations at Detroit's Wayne-Major Airport, Flint, Muskegon, Chicago and Cleveland which track suspicious weather fronts moving into Michigan," Oak said. The Flint station was established last fall, he added.

PROVIDE DATA

In addition, the military radar station at Selfridge Air Force Base, near Mount Clemens, and another station at Willow Run Airport, operated by the University of Michigan, also provide valuable information, Oak said.

The weather chief said tornado forecasts are issued to alert volunteer storm reporters, police, Civil Defense officials and the public to watch for twisters if the sky becomes threatening.

"Unfortunately, radar cannot actually identify a tornado, but it locates and tracks a thunderstorm which can give birth to one," Oak said.

Oak said a tornado warning is issued when a twister actually has been sighted. These warnings include the location of the storm and its direction.

The military CONELRAD radio network is alerted if a tornado is spotted in Michigan, Oak said. When the CONELRAD warning signal is given all commercial radio stations in the state are in turn alerted to the presence of a twister, its location and the direction of movement.

CONELRAD, the control of electromagnetic radiation, was engineered primarily to meet military requirements of denying navigational aid to enemy plans attempting to home on standard broadcast stations. At the same time it is designed to provide some measure of communication with the public in the event of such an attack.

CONELRAD stations are tuned to a key station in the area. When a tornado or air attack is imminent the central station sends out attention signals. These are two timed breaks in the broadcasting signal followed by a sharp tone. This signal automatically turns on CONELRAD alert receivers at other stations for reception of further information.

Oak said many law enforcement, Red Cross and Civil Defense offices, and even some schools, have radios tuned in to a CONELRAD station in the area.

Police and Civil Defense officials also help check the accuracy of a reported tornado sighting in Michigan, Oak said. Amateur radio stations have been a great help in this area, he added.

Despite improvements in forecasting tornado weather and alerting the public of the situaiton, Oak said the weather bureau still needs more trained, competent volunteers to man Michigan's tornado watch.

"The accurate reporting of a tornado by a single volunteer can save many lives," he declared.

Junior Editors Quiz on ANIMALS

QUESTION: Why do the lemmings run into the sea?

ANSWER: People have always wondered at the strange behavior of these little northern animals, which swarm over the high Scandinavian plateau, escaping enemies by tunneling, multiplying with great rapidity. When, every few years, the lemming population overbalances food supply, the rodents start to migrate. By hundreds and thousands they head down from the plateau, those on one side going west, the others east. As they crowd down the narrow valleys they nibble the farmer's crops, swim across ponds and rivers, go around obstacles. Hawks and foxes kill many. Finally the surviving lemmings reach the sea, plunge in, swim out, drown. Do they deliberately sacrifice themselves to restore the balance of nature? Naturalists think not. The lemmings are undoubtedly seeking new feeding grounds, and as the sea happens to lie on both sides of the Scandinavian peninsula, they enter it, thinking it to be just one more obstacle to cross. Poor lemmings —it's a whole lot wider than they realize!

FOR YOU TO DO: This would be an interesting picture to cut out and paste on cardboard and then color. Try a rich deep brown for the nearby lemming, and make the others fainter and prayer so they will look farther away.

Army Wants Law Changed to Get Medal Winners

New Wars Could Make Heroes Obsolete

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Push-button and ballistic missile warfare could make the Congressional Medal of Honor type of hero obsolete on a future battlefield.

At the same time the U.S. Army reveals that it will ask Congress to change the law in order to get a higher percentage of courageous types—needed for atomic warfare—into combat units.

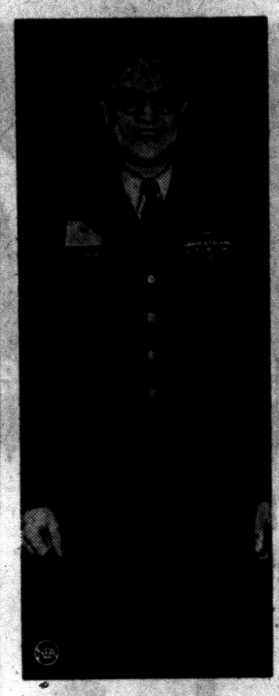
The possibility of the future obsolescence of MOH winners is raised by MOH winner Sgt. Donald E. Rudolph who won his award wiping out seven enemy machine gun emplacements in the Philippines during World War II.

He is stationed in Germany but was here at the recent Third Annual Meeting of the Association of the United States Army, a semi-official organization similar to the Navy League. The AUSA meeting featured reports on the array of complex machinery, guided missiles and electronic devices which are now the weapons of combat soldiers.

FEWER WINNERS

"It would eem that our new weapons tend to reduce the kind of close engagement of the enemy that existed in Warld War II, Korea and traditionally in all foot oldier fighting," he explains. He adds:

"If this is true there will naturally be a decreasing proportion of Medal of Honor winners in future wars. This will result because it's the character of combat which exists when you are engaging the enemy face-to-face which usually inspires a man to the action that would win him a Medal of Honor."



MOH WINNER: Sgt. Rudolph wants less heroism, more courage.

He says this is why there are fewer MOHs won in the Air Force and Navy.

Although there might be less need for th special caliber of MOH heroism, future battlefield conditions demand a generally higher level of courage, all of the experts at the AUSA meeting reported. Lt. Gen. Donald P. Booth, the Army's personnel boss, explains it this way:

LEADERSHIP SOUGHT

"The future battlefield with the use or threat of nuclear weapons will separate the men from the boys very quickly. The highest order of courage will be required of every man if units are to be able to fight effectively. And small, isolated forces operating independently on this dispersed battlefield will need the finest type of leadership, down to the smallest units."

An Army research agency, the Human Resources Research Office, has made elaborate studies, including serveral under combat conditions in Korea, to try to isolate the specific courage ingredient in the personality of a soldier. The most significant finding is that courage is generally related to a higher IQ. Lt. Col. John Finan, a HumRRO officer explains:

"Up to a certain point at least we have found a high correlation between intelligence and corage. We don't know about the highest levels of intelligence because we haven't tested in that area. But we do conclude that if you are going to raise the so-called bravery level of troops you'll have to have a higher IQ level."

INTELLIGENCE SCREENED

The present military manpower legislation forces all three services to have a specific percentage of men from the various intelligence levels, from high to low. This is partly the result of criticism that the services were taking only the smart boys and permitting men with lower IQs to avoid the draft.

"The first of our legislative needs, which we will ask from Congress," Gen. Booth explains, "is the authority to permit more selective induction screening of inductees." This would permit weeding out the low IQ men before a lot of time is wasted on fruitless training of them.

In addition to seeking braver type soldiers by this means the Army also needs more intelligent men to handle the complex weapons of the modern army.

She's Tiny but Oh, My! Quads on First Try

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A 5-foot-1, 102-pound mother gave birth to quadruplets yesterday. One was stillborn.

The surviving babies—all boys—were reported doing fine. They were placed in an incubator. They weighed 2 pounds 3½ ounces; 2 pounds 4 ounces; and 2 pounds.

The births were the first for 19-year-old Gladys McGraw, wife of Ian McGraw, 22, an employe of a janitorial service.

"I'm really surprised," said McGraw, a native of Scotland. "You might say I'm in a state of shock."

PARK, Colo. (AP) — Robert C. Hughes of Westminster, Colo., will be mighty careful when he passes another car doing 55 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone hereafter.

Hughes was arrested for doing just that. The car he passed was that of Wayne H. Hackett, national park commissioner who judges traffic violation cases in the park. Riding with Hackett were Chief Judge John Biggs Jr. of the U. S. Third Circuit Court of Appeals from Wilmington, Del., and U. S. District Judge J. Skelly Wright of New Orleans.

Boys Vocational School to Get 25 Unwanted Lads

LANSING (AP) — Twenty five unwanted boys were in for a saddening and frustrating round trip bus ride today.

Probate Judge Nathan J. Kaufman of Detroit, head of the Wayne County Juvenile Court system, planned to ship the 25 boys by bus from Detroit to the Lansing Boys Vocational School.

School authorities said they would send the youths, all minors convicted of various offenses, right back to Detroit.

Kaufman has protested that the Detroit Detention Home is badly overcrowded. He declared the home was forced to hold 25 boys committed to the vocational school, 11 girls committed to the Girls Training School at Adrian, seven minors that should be in mental hospital or training schools and 17 other minors that should be in special schools.

"We have about seven boys a week for the vocational school and they will only take three," Kaufman said.

Kaufman wired W. J. Maxey, director of the State Department of Social Welfare, that he would send up the 25 boys, due to arrive at noon, by bus today.

Maxey replied that the school was badly overcrowded and that the boys would be registered but sent back to Detroit.

Robert W. Wisner, superintendent of the school, said the Lansing institution now has 420 inmates, about 55 beyond its ideal capacity of 365.

Wisner said the boys would be sent back in the same bus if the driver would wait or in a school bus if they were dumped at the school and left. He said State Police had been asked to send down a detail to assure the transfer was orderly.

Backers have been attempting to obtain an appropriation for construction of a new 600-inmate capacity school at Whitmore Lake, near Ann Arbor, but so far have not succeeded.

Residents in the area also have objected to location of the school at the resort lake.

Mackie to Ask Big Bond Issue

Will Seek $100 Million This Year to Speed Up State Road Building

DETROIT (AP) — Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie says he plans a 100-million-dollar bond issue this year to help speed up Michigan's highway building schedule.

Mackie told the Michigan Road Builders Assn. last night he will ask the state administrative board for permission to sell the bonds, enabling the state to obligate federal funds for highway building before they become available.

The move is Mackie's first major step in bond financing of a planned five-year highway building program costing some 1¼ billion dollars. The plan calls for 415 million dollars in bond financing, with the rest to come from federal aid and state revenue from gas and weight taxes.

Mackie said he had counted on 395 million dollars in five years from federal funds on a 90-10 matching basis. Under new legislation, however, the figure has gone up to 432 million he said.

This year, he said, the department also will collect about 13 million dollars more than last year in primary, urban and secondary road funds.

He told the group some 70 million dollars in contracts will be let in the next three months — twice as much as in any like period in highway department history.

Romeo Couple Marks 55 Years of Marriage

ROMEO — Friends will gather at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kempf, 15655 33-Mile Rd., between 2 and 5 p.m. Sunday to congratulate the couple on their 55th wedding anniversary.

Hosts at the open house will be the Kempfs' five sons and three daughters-in-law. They are John and Louis at home, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kempf and Mr. and Mrs. William Kempf, all of Romeo, and the George Kempfs of Birmingham.

The senior Kempfs were married in the home of Mrs. Kempf's parents near Utica. The Rev. Otto Keller of the Warren Lutheran Church officiated.

Kempf, a retired farmer, and his wife have lived in the Romeo-Utica area all their married life.

City Proclaims May 1 as Law Day in Pontiac

At the request of the American Bar Association, City Commissioners last night authorized proclamation of May 1 as Law Day in Pontiac, in honor of the United States Constitution and its judicial system.

City Commissioner Philip E. Rowston, a lawyer, proposed the authorization. President Eisenhower has made a nationwide proclamation to the same effect.

City OKs Telegraph Road Repaving

During an evening devoted largely to highway and street improvements, City Commissioners last night agreed to enter into another State Highway Department project designed to relieve unemployment here.

Involved is the repaving of Telegraph road from Huron street south to James K. boulevard at the northern end of the Orchard Lake road underpass.

The total estimated cost, $45,000, would mean nearly $200,000 in highway funds have been earmarked for this area in the last two weeks, in addition to the one million widening of Perry street.

Commissioners last night voted to spend from city gas and weight tax collections about $11,500 on the Telegraph project, or one-fourth the total cost. The state would pay the rest.

The city asked Lansing to release its matching funds and set a construction date.

Last week, Commissioners approved a $160,000 job of widening and repaving Opdyke road from Square Lake road to Walton boulevard. The city's share is $20,000, or one-eighth the total.

Commissioners also passed a formal resolution approving the Perry street job last night. The city's share is expected to amount to about $250,000, which already has been set aside out of gas and weight tax funds. This project has been planned for many months, but the other two had not previously been scheduled by the highway department.

Preliminary hearings were concluded on two other improvements to major thoroughfares, and construction seemed certain this summer.

Included are the repaving of Elizabeth Lake avenue from Telegraph to State street and the widening of the south side of West Huron street from Williams street to the Grand Trunk Railroad.

Hearings on assessment rolls for both projects were held last night.

War Bride Fails to Win Election in California

OXNARD, Calif. (AP)—A British war bride is a full-time housewife again today after her unsuccessful bid to be the first woman member of the City Council.

Mrs. Elsa Hubbard, 39, finished fifth in a field of 10. Three of the 10 were elected—druggist Harold Mason, executive C. E. Davidson and rancher Robert Howlett.

Mrs. Hubbard told reporters: "This was my first and last try at running for public office."

She had said during the campaign that, as a new citizen, she felt it her duty to take an active part in civic affairs. . . .

From now on, she said, she'll stick close to the hearth and her husband Ray, a carpenter, and their two children.

Clubs Strive to Make Girls' Ranch a Reality

A much needed home for girls similar to the Camp Oakland project for boys can become a reality very soon. That is if members of women's clubs throughout Oakland County have their way.

These clubs have carried on fund-raising projects for the building of the ranch on the site near Oxford.

$48,396 SECURED

Already they have secured $48,396 through pledges, gifts and money-raising projects. Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore, sponsor of the proposed ranch, states that the Kresge Foundation has pledged $20,000, the Mendelssohn Foundation $10,000, and there is $5,000 from anonymous donors and another $5,000 in individual pledges.

To raise the $7,000 now needed to complete the project, several Oakland County women's clubs are sponsoring tag days. Chairman of the Pontiac Girls' Ranch Tag Day, Mrs. Leslie Langford, is being assisted by Mrs. John Napley. Sponsoring the project is the Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary.

Girls Ranch will provide a year-round home for 15 girls from the ages of 6 to 14 who are wards of the Probate Court. "There is a dire need for this project," Judge Moore added as he explained that there are several places for boys who are wards of the court but no place as yet for girls.

The supervisory staff of the ranch will be supplied by the Oakland County Juvenile Court, through the appropriation provided by the County Board of Supervisors. The county also will assume living expenses of the wards.

WITHOUT HOMES

Many of the girls are without homes while others who can be helped are youngsters from unhealthy home situations. At present the court cares for some 2,500 youngsters.

You can help make Girls' Ranch a reality by supporting tag days either Friday or Saturday, when members of Keloa Klub, Trabajamas and Amies will be asking you to give to this worthy cause.

Assisting with this project are Zonta Club, Soroptimist International, Child Study Group III, Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob, Junior Pontiac Women's Club, Junior Child Study Club, Auxiliary to St. George Greek Orthodox Church, Parent Guidance Club, Sisterhood of Congregation B'nai Israel and Daughters of Penelope.

Preparing for the big days ahead are members of Keloa, Amies and Trabajamas clubs who will participate in Girls' Ranch Tag Days Friday and Saturday. Three of the girls who will be wearing tags and carrying canisters are (left to right) Julie Blank of Keloa Klub, Diane Pickford, Amies Club, and Pat Donelson, junior sponsor of Amies.

Photographed as they looked over the many antiques on sale at All Saints Episcopal Church are Mrs. Goodloe H. Rogers (left) and her daughter, Mrs. Edward P. Barrett, both of Ottawa drive. The show and sale will continue through Thursday.

Bureau Selects Officers

Mrs. Raymond Meggitt was named chairman of Central Volunteer Bureau, a member agency of Pontiac Area United Fund. She has been a member of the bureau's board since March 1957.

Variety Keynotes Concert

By MARY LOUISE LINDQUIST

Those who attended the final concert of the season of Waterford Civic Music Association were given an artistic and entertaining evening by James Pease, renowned bass-baritone.

The opening number Tuesday evening was Handel's great aria from "The Messiah," "Thus Saith the Lord." Mr. Pease sang with a fine dexterity in the runs and a profound declaration in the dramatic sections. His fine dramatic ability was evident in the variance of color and tempos that this aria demands.

The lovely, smooth vocalization of Handel's "Lascia ch'io pianga" from "Rinaldo" was a direct contrast to the extremely declamatory presentation of "Hear Ye, Ye Winds and Waves" from "Scipio," also by the great English composer.

For the second section of his concert, Mr. Pease chose an interesting song cycle by Robert Schumann. This group of nine German "lieder" presented sharp contrasts of emotion with an interesting variety of tempos and moods.

Mr. Pease sang these lovely little songs with a sensitive feeling.

Though they were sung in German, the different moods were most clearly portrayed to his audience. The closing number of this cycle was the popular "Die alten, bosen Lieder," which seemed to lend itself to the deep, rich tone of the bass range of his voice.

After an intermission, a well-chosen group of operatic arias was sung with a fine dramatic ability which is so necessary to good characterization.

A group of authentic American folk songs arranged by John Jacob Niles was both interesting and entertaining. Mr. Pease's articulate diction made it possible for his audience to follow the story of each song with rapt attention.

Throughout the evening fine vocalization was evident in spirituals and folk songs as well as in the art songs and arias.

Mr. Pease was accompanied by Frank Murch of Detroit.

Wives Dye and Diet to Protect Male Ego

By RUTH MILLETT

"My husband likes me to be a blonde, or I wouldn't go through this ordeal every three weeks," said the youngish matron, sitting in the beauty shop with all the ugly goop covering her head—the goop that keeps her naturally dark, but graying, tresses a gleaming gold.

So in an attempt to create the illusion that she is still the glamor girl her husband married, this 33-year-old mother of three diets and dyes, while her husband, five years older, eats what he likes and doesn't worry over his receding hairline.

It's not an unusual situation. More and more American men see to feel that it is the duty of the wife to stay young - looking, no matter what the years do to the husband.

So long as the wife maintains the illusion of youth, the husband apparently doesn't feel his own age. He can't let her grow plump or gray, because if she does it makes HIM feel old.

Well, it's an easy way for a man to kid himself, that he has drunk from the fountain of youth. All the effort and self - denial fall on the wife.

It's she who spends long sessions in a beauty salon, goes hungry to stay slim, puts up with the tiresome chore of keeping her hair dyed the color her husband likes it, instead of letting it gradually turn gray.

It's she who hopefully puts creams and lotion on her face and tries to keep her chinline from sagging and crow's feet from developing around her eyes.

So you can't blame her if she occasionally wishes that the illusion of youth weren't so important to her husband. If it weren't, you can bet that a lot of women would grow comfortably and plumply middle - aged, instead of trying to look like girls long after they have graduated from that class.

DAYTIME MAKEUP

Daylight is very harsh and unkind to the use of heavy makeup.

It is well to become skilled in applying mascara and eye shadow for a dramatic effect but we caution you NOT TO USE IT during the day.

It will accentuate and sharpen the features instead of softening them. So apply your foundation with a light touch, let rouge appear as a shadow of color and powder lightly over all. Brush eyebrows and fill in with a soft stroke. Apply your lipstick with care and blot it well.

Save your dramatic effects for special after - five occasions.

Growth of Junior Clubs Discussed

Musicale Conducts State Federation Day

By CHRIS GAENSBAUER

Each year Pontiac Tuesday Musicale designates one meeting as State Federation Day, to which a member of the state board brings information concerning the activities of the state organization.

Tuesday at Grace Lutheran Church Fellowship Hall, Mrs. Donald Hogue, member of the Pontiac club as well as the state board, was the speaker. Mrs. Hogue is state chairman for the junior music clubs.

She was introduced by Mrs. James Forman, who was program chairman for the day. Mrs. Hogue spoke of the contributions for good made by stimulating musical interest in our youth and appraised the work of the counselors of these youth groups.

She stressed the growth in both size and achievement of the junior clubs and told of the conference to be held in connection with the State Federation of Music Clubs convention in Lansing in May, the many local spring festivals and the numerous scholarship opportunities available.

Members and other interested persons were urged to attend the recital to be given by chosen members of the Pontiac junior clubs at 4 p.m. Sunday in Grace Lutheran Church Fellowship Hall.

DISCUSSES CHORUS

Following Mrs. Hogue's talk, George Putnam told the group of his experiences as director of the All-State High School Chorus at Interlochen last summer. Pontiac should be proud that the wonderful choral work of Mr. Putnam has been recognized beyond the local area. That the honor was deserved is obvious because he has been asked to return this year.

The interesting growth of National Music Camp at Interlochen was outlined by Mr. Putnam. Since its beginning in 1928 the camp has grown from 50 to 700 acres, from 115 to 1,266 campers with a present day staff of 430. Instruction is available in every field of music, solo or ensemble, with as many as 13 concerts given each Sunday.

The all-state groups are sponsored by the University of Michigan Extension Bureau and provide two weeks of concentrated work in band, orchestra, chorus or drama. The chorus of 150 which Mr. Putnam directed gave two concerts and, in addition to rehearsals, had opportunities for some elective courses and private lessons.

The musical portion of Tuesday's program was presented by Jean Hohymer, violinist; Christine Harnsberger, pianist; Alice Engram, mezzo - soprano, all of Birmingham, and cellist Flora Wager of the Pontiac Tuesday Musicale.

The work performed was a cantata by Roy Harris based on Vachel Lindsay's poem "Abraham Lincoln Walks at Midnight". Mr. Harris himself was born in a log cabin and shares Lincoln's birth date.

The composition was premiered in Pittsburgh in 1954. It is definitely "contemporary" music and during the introduction and interludes used the voice singing vowel sounds as one of the instruments.

OFTEN DIFFICULT

Because of the dissonant harmonies and unconventional rhythms contemporary music is often extremely difficult, but each of the four performers possesses the fine musicianship required and gave a polished and moving reading of the work. Through their playing they conveyed to the audience a tone picture of the ghost of the gaunt and lonely Lincoln, haunting the living with his yearning for peace.

Mrs. Engram's mezzo voice has warmth, pleasing quality and a wide range. She sang the difficult vocal line with ease and assurance in addition to imparting the dramatic qualities contained in the text.

Mrs. Harnsberger demonstrated skill and understanding at the piano, and the string players, Mrs. Hohmeyer and Mrs. Wager, played with beautiful tone and fine technique. The composition itself needs more than one hearing to be fully grasped but there was no question that it received an excellent performance.

Mrs. Webster Francis and Mrs. Austin D. Esler arranged a floral centerpiece for the tea table at which Mrs. L. S. Salathiel and Mrs. Cecil Newstead presided.

Mrs. C. G. Uligian was chairman of the social committee assisted by Mrs. G. A. Harkless, Mrs. James Youngblood, Mrs. Neil Gray, Mrs. Owen Kline, Mrs. L. J. Enos, Mrs. R. E. Gegoux and Mrs. M. A. Alward. Mrs. Perc Carr and Mrs. Frank Syron received members as they arrived.

Go Along With Her Decision

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter has been invited with a young man a number of times to dinner at the beautiful home of his friends, Mr. and Mrs. A, who are very prominent elderly people. The young man has also invited them (and my daughter) to dine in a restaurant several times.

"I think my daughter should now make some attempt to return their many kindnesses. I have suggested inviting them here. She thinks not, and I believe she is reluctant because our house is not furnished in the latest style.

"It is, however, a perfectly nice house and her father and I would be glad to entertain them. But she insists it is not necessary, nor even suitable, for her to try to make any return. Will you discuss this?"

Answer: The fact that you have offered is all that is necessary and I think you would do better to let your daughter use her own judgment as to her obligation. You might remember that very few older people either expect, or actually want, any return from those who are very young.

"Dear Mrs. Post: In my job I am often offered tips by people for doing small favors for them. I do not expect payment for them and it embarrasses me when they offer me money. Some of them even insist that I take it. Will you please tell me how I can tactfully refuse without seeming unappreciative of their kind gesture?"

Answer: You can say with an appreciative smile, "Oh, no, thank you so much. It has been a pleasure to have been of service to you."

"Dear Mrs. Post: When wedding cake is served for dessert at a wedding reception, is it proper for a guest to wrap her piece up in a napkin and take it home if she would like to, or must it be eaten at the reception?"

Answer: It should be eaten at the reception. At many wedding receptions a small white box tied with a white ribbon and containing a piece of wedding cake is given to each departing guest to take home.

Day in Bed Can Do Wonders

Try Vegetating for Real Relaxation

Have you ever done this? Take to your bed for a day. Take some good books along with you, have your meals in bed, be luxurious!

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

People have varying ideas about how to relax. What is restful to one man or woman may be exhausting to another.

Some rush out to the golf course to play hard all weekend after a busy week in the office. Others hurry home, grab a bite to eat and rush to the theater. Still more find an evening of dancing into the small hours a great relaxation, while a leisurely dinner at a good restaurant untenses some most efficiently.

Actually, activities are relaxing when they are interesting to us and get us out of our daily routine by giving us a change of pace. However, there is another type of relaxation we all need periodically. This is the kind which requires no energy and no planning and no rush.

It is the simple art of vegetating. You will find it in your hammock in the backyard or front porch, at a nearby beach or riverbank.

I have known several busy housewives and mothers who lead very complex lives who go to bed for a day or so every few months. They tell me that this is absolutely the only way they can ever slow the pace at which they live.

MUST GET ALONG

Their families have learned to respect this. When it is mother's day in bed the children and father have to get along without her for that day and cope with all of the small crises which constantly are arising by themselves.

After hearing their glowing account of the rest they got, I tried it once or twice myself. If you lead a very busy life you certainly will not be bored by a day of this sort once in a while.

Take some good books along with you, have your meals in bed, be luxurious! You will find yourself napping off and on and will be wonderfully refreshed by the experience.

It's fun to go on a picnic to the beach or to go on some other jaunt but if you have to get up very early and fight traffic for miles, it is not especially restful.

Many experiences are relaxing because we find them fun — but once in a while try the old vegetating kind.

Special Announcement

To The Public

In an effort to be more considerate and better serve our families, and in response for some such procedure, starting Monday, April 14th, there will be specified visiting hours in all Pontiac Area Funeral Homes. These hours will be: Afternoons 3 to 5 p. m. Evenings 7 to 9 p. m.

Thousands of families, in the many communities where such a program has been successfully tried, are most appreciative of such a program.

This does not mean the funeral homes will be limited to only these hours for calling. It does mean, however, friends may expect to find the families of the deceased in attendance at these hours to receive frinds.

Dear Abby....

Better Go to Camp Willingly to Avoid Perching on Porch

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: It is only April and already my folks are starting up with me about going to summer camp. I am 12 years old and hate camp. I went last year and had a terrible time.

ABBY

They say I am lucky they are willing to spend the money on me but I think they are glad to pay it to get rid of me for two months.

Mother says if I don't go to the camp I am going to sit on the porch all summer. And she can make me do it, too. Please help me.

CAMP HATER

DEAR CAMP HATER: Better go, willingly . . . but first, get over the notion that you "hate it." It's a wonderful opportunity to learn to live with others. Appreciate it!

DEAR ABBY: Now what would you think of a grandmother who would send her grandchild a can of salted nuts, a crossword puzzle book and a comic book for Easter?

I ask you because this child is only 13 months old. We don't feed her nuts yet. She can't work the crossword puzzle and doesn't read. Should I just skip it or do you think this woman needs a keeper?

INQUIRING

DEAR INQUIRING: Perhaps she got the presents mixed? If she is mentally incompetent, she doesn't need a keeper—she needs a doctor?

DEAR ABBY: I am 14 years old and every night when I come home from school I call my girl friend on the telephone. We are on a party line with three other parties.

They have all day to talk to each other but the minute I get on the phone one of them always picks up the phone and tells me to get off. I tell THEM to get off and then they start banging the receiver up and down so I can't hear anything. Could you tell me what to do?

SANDRA

DEAR SANDRA: If you call your girl friend and talk for a few minutes that is perfectly all right, but if you hang on the phone for hours as a means of entertaining yourself, they have a right to complain — but NEVER to bang the receiver. Have your mother call the telephone company.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow with three children. Twin girls age 5 and a son age 8. A wonderful widower asked me to marry him and I have accepted. He has two daughters, 11 and 9.

My question is: Should we take our children along on our honeymoon? We think it would give our children a good start in learning tc live together as a family.

Our friends have offered to keep them and think we shoud go on our honeymoon without our children. What do you think, Abby.

NATALIE

DEAR NATALIE: A honeymoon should be a twosome. Leave the children home.

CONFIDENTIAL TO ANDY: Thanks for the tip, but if I ever need dentures I will let a dentist make them. I'm afraid I might "gum up the works"!

Couple Exchanges Vows

In a candlelight ceremony Marion Esther McCarl and Donald Goodwin exchanged wedding vows in Bethel Taberacle. The Rev. Mary Crouch performed the ceremony before 200 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCarl of Waldon road are the bride's parents, and the bridegroom is the son of the Leonard Goodwins of Moreland avenue.

For her March 15 wedding the bride chose a floor - length gown of Chantilly - type lace over taffeta featuring a lace - filled Sabrina neckline and long, hand - tapered sleeves. The gown was fashioned with a bouffant skirt enhanced with bands of lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a tiny cap.

Honor attendant Donna Paulis of Lake Orion was gowned in a pink ballerina - length gown and carried a cascade arrangement of blue carnations.

Bridesmaid Pat Starr wore a blue ballerina - length dress and carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations.

Clifton Goodwin acted as best man, with Donald Lloyd of Rochester, Jerry Masters and Michael Coffey seating the guests.

To receive guests at a reception in the bride's home, Mrs. McCarl chose a navy dress with pink accessories and Mrs. Goodwin's choice was a beige dress with brown accessories.

For traveling to Canada the new Mrs. Goodwin wore a light blue dress with red accessories. The newlyweds are residing on Auburn avenue.

Be Appreciative of Dance Corsage

A girl should never act nonchalant about the flowers a young man sends her.

Even though she expects him to send her a corsage for a formal dance, she shouldn't appear to take it for granted.

'Shoe Break' Helps Banish Office Fatigue

NEW YORK — A panel of experts has recommended a "shoe break" be added to a "coffee break" to help beat fatigue among office workers.

The panel, an advisory group to the National Shoe Institute, said that changing shoes at least once a day at the office acts as an effective pick-me-up with a distinctly refreshing effect.

The panel noted that many women especially school teachers and others who are on their feet a lot, make a point of changing into a different heel height at some time during the day.

Changing heel heights is a proved way of helping prevent leg muscle cramps.

But the panel said that men, too, could improve their efficiency through a "shoe break."

Slipping into another pair of shoes some time during the working day is to leave for home at the end of the day feeling more refreshed.

Shorter Hems Call for Attractive Legs

The gown gets the glory in the spring parade but where would it be without those two hard-working legs? And this year, especially, with the shortened hemline, legs are going to attract atention.

Be sure yours are hair and stubble free. After dehairing and before pulling on sheer hose, treat your legs to a cooling, soothing witch hazel rub.

Bob Considine Says:

Twenty-five Years Since Exploding Beer

NEW YORK (INS) — Saw an advertisement in the New York Journal-American the other day that noted it has been 25 years since we began drinking (once again) beer that didn't explode in the cellar at night with the sharp indignation of Chinese firecrackers.

Doesn't seem possible. Mustn't seem like a very important anniversary to the new generation, either. Yet, let them hear this: The President of the United States, Herbert Hoover, was mostly booed at a World Series game because he (who likes a martini on state occasions) became identified as spearhead of his party's dependence on Prohibition as desirable and as a knout to hold over the Repeal-minded Democrats.

"We . . . want . . . beer," the mob at Shibe Park in Philadelphia chanted, when all the man sincerely wanted was to see a ballgame. The terrible scene had never appeared before or since.

Anyway, wounds heal. There are no longer any shell-pits at Anzio or Iwo Jima. The Germans and the Japanese are firm allies. And legal beer has been with us a full quarter of a momentous century. In that time, the brew of some unsavory and yet some lovable merchants has become the nation's fifth largest taxpayer.

The industry which Dutch Schultz, Al Capone and other gorillas once owned now employs 82,000 God-fearing, law-abiding people, has contributed $38,000,000,000 to the economy since going square.

We make wonderful beer in this country, infinitely better than the British—who drink more of it, per capita—and much more than infinitely better than the Russians, who seem to lace each bottle with a pound of sugar.

We would hesitate to challenge the Australians, Germans, Czechs, Dutch, Japanese and Filipinos, except to say that in less than 100 years of serious beer culture we need make no apologies for our beer. And, besides, our brew has a livelier history.

I'll never forget the night it became constitutional for the first time since the passing of the Age of Reason for me to take a swig of beer. I was working on the Washington Post and some of us raffish blades from Shirley Povich's sports department—including our leader—repaired down the street to O'Donnell's.

A guy behind the bar looked at a clock on the wall, hand on his tap, and at a precise moment pulled the handle and the stuff began to flow.

It was three-point-two voltage and tame as a mother-in-law's kiss. But there was something exotic about the whole business. There was astonishingly no sediment in the bottom of the glass. As in home brew, and no need to look over one's shoulder.

Suddenly, something changed on the map of the land. The illicit beer barons went into other professions, like dope and the management of wrestlers, leaving behind them a slab of folklore that has bemused historians and sociologists ever since.

During the long drought which the hoodlums found so profitable, the legal brewers whose ancient and honorable business had been crippled sought to fend off financial ruin by offering a concoction named near-beer. It was beer with the alcohol removed.

The result inspired one of Bugs Baer's greatest lines: "The guy who named it near-beer was just a bad judge of distance."

There were no honest casualty lists of the people who died or became debilitated after drinking near-beer into which had been needled wood alcohol. And no figures on the number of heads cracked among speakeasy owners, as the "salesmen" of the various breweries which were furtively simmering via corruption of the police and their superiors moved among reluctant customer.

Suffice it to say that one night during a wrestling match at Madison Square Garden, a voice cried out from the darkness as one guy—sitting on the other's belly—grabbed his opponent by the throat and began thumping his head against the flooring with the steady beat of a bull drum. The voice said: "Now will you take Dutch's beer."

That was Prohibition. And you can have it.

Khrushchev Warns Hungary on Revolts

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Accusing Western newsmen of twisting his words, Soviet Premier Khrushchev declared the U.S.S.R. will help stamp out any revolt that might hit Hungary or its Communist neighbors.

The Soviet boss, whose tank legions crushed Hungary's 1956 uprising, spelled out the Kremlin's position yesterday before 40,000 Hungarians at the coal-mining center of Tatabanya, one of the last rebel strongholds to fall 18 months ago.

Khrushchev charged Western journalists with distorting his statement at Stalinvaros Saturday that if revolt came to Hungary again, the Hungarian Communists should not count on the Soviets for help.

Khrushchev insisted he meant that the Hungarian Reds should run their show in such a way that there would be no new uprising.

Khrushchev warned the West against trying to start uprisings in Communist lands on the assumption that the Soviet Union would not step in.

"If the enemies of the working class or provocateurs try to make a putsch or a counterrevolution in any Socialist country," he said, "I tell them from here that all the Socialist countries and the forces of the U.S.S.R. are ready at any moment to unite and give their help and a well-deserved answer to provocations. . . .

"Capitalists can sleep quietly as long as the workers in their own countries will let them. We choose the way of Marx, Engels and Lenin and we advise them not to poke their noses — or as we Russians say, their pigs' snouts — into our Socialist garden."

Gorilla Loose in Washington Park Is Gone

WASHINGTON (AP) — The search apparently is over for the gorilla of Washington's Rock Creek Park.

Police said they are convinced the monster that terrified several couples by rapping on and peering into parked cars was the product of two teen-age pranksters.

Lt. Albert Kreuger said a woman called police and reported that her son and a companion obtained some theatrical gorilla costumes last week. And they have been testing audience reaction in the park ever since, she said.

The woman didn't identify herself or the youths.

Use New Microscope to Seek Cancer Cause

DALLAS (AP)—Dr. Joseph Beard of Duke University says the study of ultrathin sections of human tumors under a powerful electron microscope may show whether viruses cause cancer in man.

He said in a speech at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School, "fortunately, electron micrography has provided a means for prospecting likely growths for the presence of virus. This is feasible by cutting ultra-thin sections of tumors."

Destroys Friendly Bear Who No One Wanted

LOGAN, Ohio (AP) — A big 250-pound black bear, which no one seemed to want, was killed yesterday by an official of the Ohio Division of Wildlife. It was feared the animal might injure someone.

The bear, believed to have been a pet, was discovered last Thursday roaming in wooded hill country near Ask Cave Park 15 miles southwest of here. He ate from people's hands and did tricks for news photographers.

Several zoos turned down offers to take the animal, so wildlife officials ordered him destroyed.

Firm to Mine Zircon

DURBAN, South Africa—Large-scale production of three heavy minerals — ilmenite, uitile, and zircon — for export will start at a major new South African mining enterprise by mid-1958. A $4,200,000 plant is being built on the south coast of Natal Province by Umgababa Minerals, Ltd., which plans to produce 100,000 tons of ilmenite a year together with 10,000 tons of zircon and 7,000 tons of rutile.

Solar Energy Heats and Cools House

By JOE LEWIS

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Some day this may be the scene in your home:

The solar alarm clock buzzes in your bedroom. You get up, check the thermostat to make sure the solar heating system is pumping warm air to offset the winter cold outside. Then you shave with your solar-powered razor.

Meanwhile, your wife makes breakfast on her solar-powered stove, listening to the solar radio. Then you drive off to work in a solar-powered car.

Sounds improbable? Not to the merchants, builders and industrialists who have contributed time and material to the construction of the first solar-heated and solar-cooled house. The Association for Applied Solar Energy explains that while there are other solar houses, they don't have integrated cooling systems.

TO DISPLAY HOUSE

The house is scheduled to go on public display here Sunday. It was built — without charge — by the Phoenix Assn. of Homebuilders for the solar group, which has its headquarters in nearby Phoenix.

The solar association is a private organization dedicated to studying and promoting ways of harnessing the sun's power efficiently and economically. Solar energy, it believes, will help answer the future problem of dwindling conventional fuels to poor industries and heat homes.

The house was designed by Peter R. Lee, a University of Minnesota student, who won $2,500 in an international architectural contest which drew entries from a score of countries.

At first glance, the house resembles other ranch-style homes in the fashionable Scottsdale desert area. Basically, it consists of two rectangular sections connected by a glass-enclosed walkway dividing an outdoor patio. The house is shaded by concrete masonry screen walls along the sides and insulation in the inner walls and ceilings and built-up wooden roofs provide additional protection from excess heat.

LUXURY VERSION

The house utilizes 16,000 square feet of glass. Price tag: $50,000-and-up. But the association is quick to note that this is merely an experimental luxury version and that cheaper solar houses can be and have been built for much less.

In the rear lawn is buried a 2,000-gallon water tank, one of the key components of the $5,000 solar heating system. The other main essentials are a series of louvers, containing water pipes, located at the front and rear of the house and over the central outdoor court.

Here's how the solar heating system works:

In winter, the louvers are adjusted so their blackened copper sides face upward to catch the sun's rays, which warm the water piped through the louvers. The heated water is pumped back to the storage tank by a conventional pumping system, which also circulates hot air given off by the pipes through a series of underground copper domes. The hot air enters the house through grill-like openings in the floor.

In summer, the louver's aluminum backs are turned toward the sun to throw off heat and the louvers themselves are used as shade. Air flowing from the pumping system is circulated through a refrigerant and the cooled air is sent through the underground domes back into the house. If the water in the tank gets too hot, it is pumped out to an adjacent pool, which acts as a reserve storage tank, for cooling.

Because of the amount of Arizona sunshine, says John I. Yellot, executive vice president of the association, the solar house can supply year round heating and cooling needs. Elsewhere in the northern hemisphere, the solar house would supply less of the heating needs the farther it is from the Equator.

BIGGEST DRAWBACK

And therein lies its biggest drawback at present.

In Denver, a similar house would supply about 75 per cent of heating needs. In Seattle, only 50 per cent. And in Alaska — where fuel is especially costly — winter brings long nights and little sunshine, so not enough solar energy could be stored to do the job.

There are solar batteries today but their use in homes would be prohibitively expensive. Yellot predicts, however, that someday a cheap and sufficient method of storing solar heat will be discovered.

Britain Best Customer

CINDAD, Trujillo — The Dominican Republic's best customer during the first half of 1957 was Great Britain, which bought goods worth $27,856,000. Next in order were the United States, with purchases amounting to $27,856,000; West Germany, $10,288,000, and Japan, $3,372,000.

Science Develops New Tablet:

Relieves Painful Monthly Cramps For 3 out of 4 Women Tested! Gives Greater Relief Than Aspirin!

Boston, Mass.—New promise of relief for women who suffer tortures of monthly cramps and nervous tension is found in an amazing new tablet...developed especially to relieve this female discomfort. It offers greater relief than aspirin during that distressing period each month!

For 3 out of 4 women tested by doctors, pain and cramps were stopped or strikingly relieved. Even on the first day, many had no nagging headaches, no backaches or other functional distress...were also less jittery the trying week before their period!

The new tablet contains a unique combination of medicines. That's why it offers more relief than plain aspirin! Unlike such "general-purpose" remedies, it acts on the cause of distress. Has amazing power to calm uterine contractions, also works through a woman's sympathetic nervous system.

Called "Lydia Pinkham's Tablets," the formula was developed by the world's largest manufacturer devoted exclusively to relief of women's ailments! Easy-to-take new Pinkham's Tablets are now available at all drug stores without a prescription.

So don't suffer needlessly. Take Pinkham's Tablets yourself. See if you don't feel worlds better, this very month. See if you don't escape much irritability and discomfort—before and during those "difficult days."

Hitchhikers Note: Buy Scottish Kilt

BELFAST, Ireland—A kilt will get a hitchhiker more rides than anything else, two Queen's University students said in Belfast after returning from tours of Canada and elsewhere.

Harmon Dowling and Roger Lowry own a kilt jointly and it has toured Europe extensively. In general the two students' advice to hitchhikers is:

"Dress respectably. Don't wear old shoes or dirty clothes. The essence is to look polite and well-groomed. Wear a white shirt and tie. Don't thumb impersonally. Try to catch the eye of the motorist and hold it.

Keep smiling—and step off the road graciously when the car approaches. Don't put the driver to the inconvenience of knocking you down, if he doesn't stop."

U.S. to Speed Up Replies to Soviet Notes

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's taken the Eisenhower administration four months, eight letters and three notes to wake up to the idea it might be smarter to answer the Soviets a little faster.

The Soviets have been giving th administration a propaganda clubbing and yesterday Secretary of State Dulles said the administration was trying to "speed up its oprations" so the Soviets will not have the play all to themselves so long.

Last fall the Soviets scored an overwhelming propaganda victory by launching their Sputniks. It took this country months to get its own satellites aloft.

Last December the Soviets started making more propaganda for themselves. On Dec. 10 Premier Bulganin, in a letter to President Eisenhower, represented the Soviet Union as a big peace-lover that wanted negotiations and a summit talk to straighten things out.

It took Eisenhower more than a month to answer. In that time the Soviet Union stood before the world as the one proposing peaceful negotiations while this country tried to think up an answer.

Eisenhower finally wrote Bulganin Jan. 12. But by that time Bulganin had sent him another letter. This was Jan. 8. On Jan. 20 Eisenhower answered Bulganin's second letter with a 40-word note.

Bulganin sent another letter Feb. 1. It took Eisenhower 14 days to answer that one.

On Feb. 28 the Soviets sent a note—not a letter from Bulganin—on a summit get-together. The United States answered this March 6. But the next day, March 7, Bulganin sent Eisenhower another letter. And on March 24 the Soviets answered the American note with a second note of their own.

Meanwhile Bulganin was fading from the picture. Nikita Khrushchev became premier. Very quickly the Soviets made another propaganda score.

With the whole world worried about nuclear tests, the Soviets announced they would stop their nuclear tests. This time the State Department was ready and fired off an answer immediately.

Then on Friday Khrushchev sent Eisenhoier a note on stopping nuclear tests. Eisenhower answered him Monday. Dulles — when he appeared before his news proud Eisenhower had answered so fast: within four days, which

Dulles has publicly acknowledged the Soviets have been knocking our propaganda pants off. Evn Eisenhower at his news conference last week admitted maybe we could have handlel ourselves better.

He tossed out the idea of putting a psychological war expert into the State Department. But Dulles is boss there. He runs it pretty much as a one-man show. And at his news conference yesterday he brushed aside the Eisenhower idea.

He said this country can't indulge in the kind of propaganda the Soviets use, and went on to explain the State Department's attitude now on the Soviet notes. He said: "I think on the whole that it is important to deal with these things quickly. I think that what we did over the Easter weekend is a demonstration that at least in one respect we are trying to speed up our operations so as not to give the Soviet propaganda line a free run for so long a time as has often been th case in the past . . .

"I do believe that as a result of experience that we are improving our techniques somewhat . . . in terms of trying to get our viewpoint more quickly and more effectively."

One question comes to mind: Why has it taken the State Department so long — and how much experience does it need — to realize it's not smart to let the Soviets make propaganda while we hem and haw on what to do?

Dart Penetrates Skull of 8-Year-Old Youth

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Gary Fisher, 8, and a playmate were throwing a steel-pointed dart at a target when a toss went wide. The dart stabbed a quarter-inch deep into Gary's skull just below the hairline.

"There wasn't any pain," Gary said. His mother couldn't pull the dart out. She took him to a hospital, where the dart was removed.

There was no brain damage, a physician said.

Buddhist Shrines in Japan Hold Rite for Animals

TOKYO (AP) — A memorial service was held today for 15 Japanese dogs left at the South Pole and for 116 animals that died in Japanese zoos it year.

The service was held on the occasion of Hana-Matsuri, the the birth of Gautama Buddha. The festival was observed at Buddhist temples throughout Japan.

At the service at Tokyo's Ueno Zoo, Dr. Takeshi Nagata, leader of Japan's antarctic expedition, sobbingly told some 3,000 animal lovers it had been an "extremely difficult decision" to leave the dogs behind when Japanese scientists abandoned the antarctic base at Ongul Island last February. Ice packs prevented a Japanese and an American icebreaker reaching the base and the personnel had to be taken out by helicort.

Dr. Nagata said the dogs always would be remembered and he would attend memorial services for them annually.

U.S. Scowls at Jakarta for Buying Reds' Arms

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — U.S. relations with the Jakarta government have been improving in recent weeks. But the State Department's criticism of Indonesia's decision to buy arms from the Communists may have cut into the gains.

State Department spokesman Lincoln White said Monday in Washington the United States regretted "that Indonesia turns to the Communist bloc to buy arms for possible use in killing Indonesians who openly oppose the growing influence of communism in Indonesia."

It wasn't the U.S. regret that upset the Indonesians, but rather White's virtual endorsement of the Sumatran rebels and the State Department's persistence in seeing Indonesia's civil war solely as a struggle between Communists and anti-Communists.

Leaders in Jakarta insist the biggest issues are the Outer Islands' demands for less control from Jakarta and dissatisfaction of the young colonels leading the revolt with the army high command. Objections to Communist influence in President Sukarno's government are seen in Jakarta as largely a side issue which the rebels are playing up to win sympathy in the West.

Government and military leaders were quick to point out that they turned to Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Poland for modern weapons only after Washington put an Indonesian request for American arms into the deep freezer. Foreign Minister Subandrio said the request to America still stands and that the arms are needed to combat the fanatic Darul Islam terrorists on Java and widespread smuggling, not rebels in Sumatra and the North Celebes.

Some highly placed Americans here think White's statement came at a poor psychological moment. Bitterness toward the United States, fanned by charges that Washington was sending arms to the Sumatran rebels via Formosa, was subsiding.

The army has halted anti-intervention demonstrations at the U.S. Embassy. An army order prohibited parades on May Day (when Communists traditionally march), banned the showing of any but the national flag and decreed that all speeches must first be approved by the military. These measures strike directly at the Communist PKA party.

Forced Off Roads by Cars

Rome Horse Cabs Vanish

ROME (INS) — Good-bye to Rome's horse-cabs!

Step-by-step, they are disappearing from the squares and stalls around the city. In 1925, more than 3,000 horse-cabs graced the grand concourses of the Eternal City. Today, their number is 121.

FORCED OFF ROAD

Rising auto traffic is edging the horse-cab off the roads just as motorboats are swamping the gondolas of Venice. A cabbie said:

"The automobile is swallowing all that is left of the romance of Rome. They screech their brakes and sound their horns — is that any kind of sentiment?

"We are old-fashioned. Fenders and a lot of fanatics are forcing us off the roads."

DAYS GONE

Gone are the days when regal-like horse-drawn carriages would trot through the beautiful parks, across the Tiber and into the beautiful countryside.

Romans today actually stare at a beautiful coach that crosses the Piazza di Spagna (The Spanish Square) almost every afternoon. An old Roman princess uses it for her afternoon sightseeing. But even she owns a new automobile.

A British noblewoman rides around Rome now and then in a deluxe horse-coach. She confesses owning a Rolls Royce.

The horse-cabbies left survive on tourist trade—those who still want to see Rome at leisure, passing under the ancient arches, pulled along the Via Appia Antica which Caesar coursed with his chariots and up the Sacred Hill to the Palatine Hill.

How long will the legion of 121 survive?

Already, the carriages are forbidden in parts of the city. Some owners are desperate, others disappointed . . . and sometimes a horse dies and his owner has only a carriage left with no money to purchase a new horse.

A group of American and other tourists, lodging in a hotel here, recently called a private meeting to discuss the situation.

They signed a petition and sent it to Mayor Umberto Tupini asking that he "save the horse-drawn carriages for the sake of future millions of tourists who dream of an old-fashioned ride in thehe an old-fashioned ride in the Eternal City

The mayor's office said he gave "sympathetic consideration" to the petition and "of course, approved the idea."

However, Tupini offered no concrete plan to save the dying trade.

Dumps Boiling Water on Chiding Grandmother

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An unemployed bellhop poured boiling water on his 76-year-old grandother when she chided him about not working, police report.

Robert Adams, 30, was booked on suspicion of assault to commit murder.

"I was just trying to get him straightened out," said Mrs. Edna Smith, who was treated for burns on her legs, hands and shoulders and cuts and bruises on her face and left hand. Officers said Adams also cut and beat her.

Civilian Suit Still Fits Veteran 17 Years Later

DURANT, Okla. (AP) — When Dee Houser went off to war in 1941 he left behind a two pants suit and vest. When he came home on furlough recently he tried on the suit — and it fitted perfectly.

Houser weighs 252 pounds, the same as he did when he enlisted.

He hopes it fits when he retires from the armed services in 1961.

Spray Melts Ice Away

WILMINGTON, Del. — A Wilmington concern has developed a de-icer product for use in aerosol containers that it says can spray away ice on automobile windshields and windows. The company claims its product will melt a one-sixteenth-inch-thick coating of ice in about 3 minutes.

Helicopter Rescues Five Marooned Men

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — Five men marooned in the High Sierra since Saturday were rescued yesterday by helicopter.

The copter also brought out the body of Peter Gring, Santa Barbara helicopter pilot who crashed March 26 while trying to salvage two choppers which had crashed.

The five rescued men—all in good condition—are James Flynn, 26, pilot of a helicopter that crashed Saturday at the 10,500-foot level, and four hydrographers who were running a snow survey for Southern California Edison Co.

They are William Matthews, Paul Wiley, Howard Spano and Donald Rose.

Arrest Youth in City for Stealing Clothes

A juvenile boy who stole clothing from the Robert Hall Store, 200 N. Saginaw St., was apprehended by police shortly after the theft.

The boy was spotted running west on Milbourne Place by Officer A. Foster Jr. He was wearing a pair of stolen trousers under his own trousers.

Incidental information: in Saba, Netherlands West Indies, men are outnumbered about two to one by the women, who are predominantly blue-eyed blondes.

Rebel in GOP Wins in Illinois

Takes Primary Despite Being Shunned by Party Organization

CHICAGO (AP) — Warren E. Wright, shunned by the Republican organization in his bid for a third term as state treasurer, won the GOP nomination in the major contest in yesterday's Illinois primary.

The 65-year-old veteran Republican took the lead at midnight after trailing in the early tabulations with main support from downstate and suburban Cook County.

Wright appeared headed for a victory margin of more than 70,000 votes over Louis E. Beckman, 44-year-old state representative who was supported by the Republican organization headed by Gov. William G. Stratton. Both Stratton and Beckman conceded Wright's victory early today.

Wright's nomination highlighted an otherwise comparatively dull primary, the nation's first this year. The turnout, despite generally clear, mild weather, was reported one of the lightest in 20 years. A total vote of about 1½ million, or 30 per cent of the state's some five million registered voters, was indicated.

Wright, of suburban Park Ridge, served two terms as state treasurer, 1941-43 and 1955-57. He was more widely known throughout the state than Beckman, of Kankakee, who made his first bid for a state office.

In returns from 8,060 of the state's 9,859 precincts, including 3,782 downstate, Wright had 280,557 and Beckman 224,915.

"I expected to win all the time," Wright told reporters. He said his victory could not be regarded as a rebuke for the party or Stratton.

In the second statewide race, the GOP contest for superintendent of public instruction, the Republican organization candidate smothered his opponent.

May Build Addition to House

Hats Collected by Couple Threatening to Crowd Them Out of Their Home

BRIMFIELD, Mass. (INS) — Friendship is both the means and the result of the hat collecting hobby of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deland.

They have a collection that goes "to the top" in their home, where hats contributed by friends in all corners of the globe threaten to crowd the couple out of the house.

MAD HATTER

Deland, a former Boston newsman and artist, now employed in the engineering department of a pump company, jokingly refers to himself as "The Mad Hatter."

He said the collection he and Mrs. Deland started in 1933 while on a three - month round-the-world cruised originally was housed in their "hat room." The collection's growth, however, has resulted in displays of hats in all parts of the house, with some of them being kept in storage. They are debating an addition to their home to make more room for the collection.

The Delands do not buy the hats for the collection. All are obtained as a result of friendship and friends get them from friends to send them along. Deland remarked:

FRIENDSHIP BASIS

"It's an interesting thing. I don't ake any hats away from children. Jut because I want a hat I don't hit omeone over the head for it.

"It's on a friendship basis. For instance Nehru's (the prime minister of India) hat. It's priceless. You couldn't buy it for a million dollars.

"I might do something in the course of a friendship, and get a hat to return the favor, or get one from some other collector for help with his hobby."

The entire collection is catalogued and Mrs. Deland is the custodian. Regardless of what the files say, however, the number one hat of the collection was one they acquired in Panama while on the world cruise.

As they were leaving the ship for a shore visit at Panama, the captain teased them about getting a genuine Panama hat. Then he remined them that "panama" hats are made in Ecuador and Colombia —not Panama.

When they returned to the ship, the Delands had a real Panama hat, acquired from a native. It is made of coconut fibre in four tiers, with the top tier rising into a pointed spike.

In addition to the prime minister's hat and the panama number, the collection includes one that belonged to His Highness, Sir Ibrahim, Sultan of Johore. This is a really regal job, cut on the lines of a soldier's overseas cap, but made of dark blue silk velvet.

Another is the hat worn by Sir Edmund Hilary when he climbed Mt. Everest. Cowboy hats of Gene Autry, motion picture, television and rodeo star, and Sheriff Jess Sweetens of Henderson county, Texas, also are among the items in the collection.

Deland recalls that Sweetens is a huge man, six feet, six inches tall, and "he can shoot the ashes off a cigarette at 30 feet. It's easy to see why there's no crime in his county."

Largest item is the world's longest hat, a 33-foot long Sikh policeman's turban, the gift of th epolice chief of Singapore.

Their mailing list, he says, has increased with the size of the collection. He and Mrs. Deland have a mailing list for about 400 Christmas cards annually — "all over the world."

Expect Sputnik to Burst Apart

U.S. Scientists Predict Explosion of Air Tanks as Satellite Falls

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Scientists say the Soviet Sputnik II with its dead dog is expected to burst apart when it plunges from outer space Saturday.

The scientists at Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory said last night the burst, if it occurs, will be caused by the air tanks that kept the dog passenger alive for some time after the satellite was launched last Nov. 3.

If the final plunge is at night, they said, the satellite will look like a flaming meteor. In the daytime it might leave a plume of smoke like a high-flying jet.

Dr. John White said that even if only a part of the original air pressure remains in the tanks, it still would be much greater than the surrounding atmosphere when the rocket starts to heat up about 50 miles above the earth.

The Smithsonian said northern United States and parts of Canada might get a last look tonight at the dog-satellite. It listed these visible passages, all Eastern Standard Time: 7:50 p.m., northeast Canada, visible from Maine; 9:17 p.m., near Hudson Bay, visible from the Great Lakes region and New England; 10:48 p.m., northwest and central Canada, visible from western Great Lakes to Idaho; 12:18 p.m., passage from Alaska to British Columbia, visible to residents of the Northwest.

Parakeet Census Taken

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—A bird census conducted by a Rochester seed concern indicates that more than 8,000,000 American families own pet parakeets. The company's first bird census, in 1951, revealed that 1,300,000 families owned parakeets.

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Tax protest delegations from Bloomfield and White Lake Townships said they were informed by state officials in Lansing yesterday that no state agency has any jurisdiction over the amount of tax levied for township, city, school, county or village taxes.

The group, 20 strong, received this information from Edward W. Kane, secretary to Louis M. Nims of the State Tax Commission, according to Mrs. Ralph A. Jamieson, of 2228 Kingston, English Villa subdivision, White Lake Township.

Members of both delegations said they got the impression from township and county officials that control over the amount of property taxation was at a state level.

Mrs. Jamieson, a spokesman for the White Lake delegation, felt that the trip to Lansing was very worthwhile. "We now know where to go with tax problems," she said.

Information concerning the state's position in regard to levying property taxes is contained in a letter from the State Tax Commission office. Both Mrs. Jamieson and Mrs. Margaret Begovich, a Bloomfield Township delegate, have copies of the letter.

Each English Villa subdivision property owner will receive a copy of the letter, Mrs. Jamieson said.

Consensus of the delegation members was that they had been given a "false impression" by township and county officials at recent protest meetings held in both townships.

The delegations arrived in Lansing about 9:30 a.m. yesterday and joined forces in the Press Room of the State Capitol. They were in consultation with Kane for about an hour and a half in the morning, they said.

The group appealed to two Oakland County members of the State House of Representatives, Lloyd L. Anderson and Pharrell E. Roberts, in the afternoon. Both representatives advised the group to take its tax problems to the township officials, delegates said.

The delegations took petitions to Lansing protesting high property taxes and increased assessments.

Mrs. Jamieson said she now will take the petitions to the White Lake Township offices in person.

Mrs. Begovich said the Bloomfield Township Taxpayers Committee will send their petitions to the Bloomfield Township hall by registered mail with instructions that the petitions stand as an official protest against any further property tax hikes.

The fight for lower property taxes in White Lake Township will continue until the objective is accomplished, Mrs. Jamieson said.

Madison Heights Bond Issue OK'd

The State Municipal Finance Commission in Lansing yesterday gave Madison Heights the go-ahead on the $1,500,000 general obligation bond issue for storm sewer and sewage disposal construction.

Approval was held up last week when the commission questioned the legality of including in the bond issue $10,000 in legal fees in the city court fight to withdraw from the Twelve Town Drain System. The city later withdrew the fees.

Other bond issues approved included the borrowing of $50,000 by the Avondale School District.

Judge Wood Dies in Munising Hospital

MUNISING (AP) — Former Alger County Probate Judge Arthur D. Wood, one-time chairman of the Federal Pardon and Parole Commission, died today at Munising Hospital following a lengthy illness. He was in his 80's.

Judge Wood was first chairman of the State Pardon and Parole Commission under Republican Gov. Fred Green. He became chairman of the Federal Commission when it was first organized in 1933 under President Roosevelt.

After stepping down from the Federal post several years ago, he became probate judge for this northern Michigan area. He retired from the bench a little over a year ago.

Pontiac City Affairs

Earmark $150,000 for Streets

More than $150,000 in contracts to complete the city's 1958 neighborhood street improvement program were earmarked last night for a Birmingham firm.

Low bids for two-inch blacktopping and concrete resurfacing were accepted by the City Commission from the A & A Asphalt Paving company.

The company bid $46,364 to complete blacktopping and $106,955 on repaving. A total of six bids were submitted by area firms for each type job.

A & A's bids were "slightly lower" than original estimates of the costs, it was noted.

In other action, the city also decided to enter into a property trade with the State Conservation Department to acquire a 2,000-foot clear runway approach west of Pontiac Municipal Airport.

Commissioners voted to pay $15,435 for a privately owned parcel which the state wants in White Lake Township and trade it for property now owned by the state west of Williams Lake road.

Commissioners set May 13 for a hearing on a new ordinance setting up zoning for trailer parks. The ordinance would create districts for existing parks and require amendment to set up districts for future parks. The measure was recommended by the City Planning Commission.

Several other zoning proposals came up for action.

A portion of the Crystal Beach Housing project was rezoned from Residential 1 (private dwelling) to Residential 3 (multiple dwelling) to conform with existing usage.

Seven lots on the northeast side of Oakland avenue between Inglewood and Sarasota avenues were rezoned from residential to Commercial 1 to make way for a proposed gas station and professional office building.

A request that a lumber yard at 226 N. East boulevard be rezoned from residential to Manufacturing 1 to conform with present usage was referred to the plan commission.

A hearing was scheduled for next Tuesday night on intention to install an eight-inch sanitary sewer on the southeast side of Montcalm avenue from Corwin northeast 740 feet towards Summitt. The assessed cost was estimated at $1,860; city cost, $5,081, and cost for a 20-foot lot, $60.

On the same evening, other hearings will be held on assessment rolls for curbs and gutters on Gladstone place, Cooper to Edison; LeGrande avenue, Baldwin to Euclid, and Harriett street, Cadillac to Adelaide.

City Manager Walter K. Willman was asked to study two other street improvements recommended by the City Planning Commission. They call for removal of the traffic island on South boulevard between Franklin road and Motor street to improve traffic flow and a change in curb location at the southwest corner of South boulevard and Golf drive to ease turning.

Commissioners also asked the city administration to study a request by property owners on West Brooklyn avenue to lay oil mix on their street at no cost to them. They claimed that the Department of Public Works laid down a faulty mix last summer, which cost them 50 cents a front foot.

Hal Boyle Reports:

Survival Ranks as No. 1 Theme for People

NEW YORK (AP)—Movie producer Jerry Wald, who likes to feel the public pulse, claims he knows what is the third most interesting thing in the world—to most people.

The answer may surprise you. It is sex.

"I polled 8,000 librarians all around the world," he said, "and asked them what was the theme of the books people asked for most often.

"The No. 1 theme turned out to be survival. The second favorite theme was security. Sex was third."

"Pictures that show sex for sex's sake,. or violence for violence's sake—they are no good anymore. They have no future," is Wald's conclusion.

The portly producer, who looks like a modern Buddha—that is, if Buddha lived in Hollywood—says the film business has undergone a big change in the last year.

"You have to lift a picture now to the level of your audience," said Wald.

"They are more hep. They are better educated, entertainment-wise, than any other generation in our history.

"It is no longer enough merely to find a vehicle for a star to amble through. You no longer make a Gable picture, an Errol Flynn picture, a Tyrone Power picture. People today are interested in the subject matter first—then the star.

"Two years ago they asked, 'Who's in it?' Now they ask, 'What's it about.'"

MORE OBSERVATIONS

Here are some more observations by Wald, an ex-newspaper gossip columnist who, at 45, is ranked as one of the smartest film executives:

"The greater danger in the entertainment field is to become a hitchhiker, who tries to copy yesterday's hit.

"I keep a schedule of other producers' films on my desk. When I see a trend developing, I head in the other direction. I like to get off the main highway.

"Television has a monopoly on mediocrity today. It is being wrecked by the guys in the empty gray flannel suits. They are poll parrots. We used to have guys like that in the movie business. We lost them. Perhaps they all went into TV.

"But TV has my sympathy. We turn out 500 hours of entertainment a year. They have to turn out 30,000 hours. How can it be good?"

Clean Up Debris of Derailed Train

PORT HURON (AP) — Crews worked today to complete removal of debris strewn on the tracks when 21 cars of a Grand Trunk & Western freight train were derailed 15 miles west of here yesterday.

The cars, the last of 80, piled up for 500 feet after a journal box (wheel housing) apparently burned out. The derailed cars were loaded mainly with grain and cotton. No one was injured.

The train was bound from Battle Creek to Port Huron.

Railroad officials said they expected the main track to be clear today but added it will take several days to clean up all the wreckage.

JERUSALEM (AP) — The United Arab Republic has agreed to Israel's completing a drainage ditch in the Lake Huleh area over which the Israelis and Arabs dueled with tanks and artillery last week.

The U.N. truce organization said last night both the U.A.R. and Israel had accepted its report holding that Israel may complete the ditch after relocating it to avoid Arab-owned land.

The U.N. made a new survey of the disputed area along the Syrian border after the clashes.

Work began again under armed guard and U.N. supervision. The ditch was moved about five yards west.

Bruins Rock 'Em, but Canadiens Win

Montreal Takes First Game, 2-1 in Rough Battle

Dickie Moore Scores Winning Goal Despite Wrist in Cast

MONTREAL (AP)—The big first-game getaway in the Stanley Cup final went to the Montreal Canadiens, a 2-1 win over the Boston Bruins last night in a rock 'em-sock 'em affair that could well signal one of the most viciously fought post-season hockey classics. They play the 2nd game here Thursday.

Dickie Moore, his left wrist in a cast, scored the tie-breaking goal at 13:52 of the second period.

The goal was set up by big Jean Beliveau, the villain of the piece for goalie Don Simmons of the Bruins. Simmons was tempted and baited into a gamble. He lost. Moore took Beliveau's pass and lifted the puck into the open side of the net as Simmons tried to scramble back.

For rough, reckless, battering play, the first period was one of the most bruising seen in a long time. Referee Red Storey clamped down with 13 penalties, including two majors for fighting, before there was any semblance of a cooling off of hot tempers.

Bernie "Boom Boom" Geoffrion gave Montreal a lead at 12:24 of the opening period on a screened shot and defenseman Allan Stanley of Boston evened things up on a similar play at 5:54 of the second period before a roaring crowd of 14,316.

The work of the goalies was brilliant. Simmons may or may not be tagged as the goat, but he was spectacular in turning back 42 of the 44 shots that were pelted at him.

Jacques Plante in the Montreal nets was equally sensational, although he had only 29 shots to handle.

Claude Provost of Montreal came out of the fray with his upper dental plate broken and his nose swollen to three times its normal size. He was checked by Leo Labine late in the game. Montreal defenseman Doug Harvey, who played 44 of the 60 minutes, had his lip cut when checked by Fleming Mackell.

The play that brought the winning goal started with Maurice "Rocket" Richard's pass to Beliveau deep in the Boston end. Sensing a likely pass from Beliveau to Moore, at the far corner of the Boston net, Simmons moved out to intercept it.

Beliveau pulled the puck back. Simmons moved for it again. Once more Beliveau tempted him and pulled it back. Simmons appeared ready to dive for the puck in a gamble to smother it, when Beliveau slid it across to Moore, who was unguarded. He calmly flipped the puck in.

HOCKEY FRACAS — Goalie Don Simmons of the Boston Bruins kicks Don Marshall's shot away from the net in the first period of the first game of Stanley Cup final series. The game was a rough contest marred by 13 penalties and Montreal came out the winner, 2-1. Left to right are Don Marshall of Montreal, Larry Hillman of Boston, Jean Beliveau of Montreal and Simmons. Dickie Moore scored the winning goal for Montreal in the second period.

Sanford Tames Yanks; Vernon Paces Indians

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Fire-balling Jack Sanford, who showed the New York Yankees what a difference just one day can make, is confident that the passing of a year won't change his success story.

On Monday, the Yankees belted six homers to slaughter Philadelphia and Curt Simmons, 20 to 1. But yesterday the proud bombers faced Sanford, the Phils' 1957 rookie of the year in the National League.

The 28-year-old righthander stood the Yanks on their collective ears to hurl the Phils to a 3-to-2 victory at Charlotte, N.C.

Sanford, who led the N.L. in strikeouts with 188 while winning 19 and losing eight in 1957, allowed the Yanks just six singles in eight innings and struck out six.

Whitey Ford, the Yankee ace, went the distance for New York.

With the score tied, 2-all, in the eighth, Ford walked Chico Fernandez, who moved to third on a single by Willie Jones. Harry Anderson's sacrifice fly brought Fernandez home with the deciding run. Jim Hearn pitched the ninth for the Phils.

Cleveland, which has been wondering where its left-handed power would come from since Vic Wertz broke his ankle ten days ago, was given part of the answer yesterday by Mickey Vernon.

The 39-year-old first baseman belted a grand-slam homer in the first inning to lead the Indians to an 11-to-7 win over San Francisco at Corpus Christi, Tex.

Roger Maris also homered for the Indians and catcher Russ Nixon slammed a three-run triple and a pair of singles. Al Worthington went four innings and gave up all three runs. Mike Garcia won.

The world champion Milwaukee Braves, who are having trouble finding enough outfielders to go around, got a bad break yesterday.

With Wes Covington on third in the 13th inning Phil Paine laid down a squeeze bunt that brought the left fielder sliding safely across the plate with the winning run in a 5-to-4 win over Los Angeles.

But Covington jammed his knee in a collision with catcher Al Walker and may be sidelined for a week.

Clint Courtney smashed four hits, including a three-run homer, to carry Washington to a 10-to-3 victory against Cincinnati at Richmond, Ind.

The Chicago White Sox scored a pair of unearned runs in the seventh inning when first baseman Irv Noren dropped a double-play ball. The error permitted the trying and winning runs to score as the White Sox nipped St. Louis, 5-to-4, at Wichita.

Baltimore's Bob Nieman hit a two-run homer in the ninth to send the game into overtime, but the Chicago Cubs scored off Jack Harshman in the tenth for a 6-to-5 triumph at Scottsdale, Ariz.

Doctoring Your Golf

By Dr. CARY MIDDLECOFF

Patient's Complaint: All Tied Up At the Start

Diagnosis: Wrong Stance

Treatment: Before we go any further, check your stance position for these points:

1. Feet solidly planted with weight a little more on the heels than the toes. Feet as far apart as the width of the shoulders for the drive, narrowing for the shorter club.

2. Knees slightly bent—"flexed" is the word we usually use here.

3. Posterior slightly protruding. (Think of sitting down lightly on a high stool.)

4. Back generally straight. The head bends forward from the neck.

5. Arms comfortably extended. You shouldn't have to strain to reach the ball. Neither should you be right over the top of the ball.

6. The elbows should be as close together as you can bring them without strain.

Play Birmingham Before Series With Braves

Tigers Play in 'Minors' Today

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — The Detroit Tigers had little to gain and nothing to lose in the prestige department today as they faced the Birmingham Barons of the Class AA Southern Assn.

Tribe Cuts 2 Hurlers

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—The Cleveland Indians released two pitchers today, cutting the squad to 30 members.

Pete Wojey, acquired from Detroit 10 days ago, was sent to the Tribe's San Diego farm club on option and Carl Thomas, who was on the San Diego roster, was returned to that club.

The exhibition contest was the first stop in a barnstorming junket that ends April 15 when the Bengals open their American League campaign at Chicago.

In between lie four exhibition games in as many days with the world champion Milwaukee Braves.

Despite a dismal 6-17 Grapefruit League record, Detroit's worst in years, the club is far from daunted as it moves into position for the 1958 baseball wars.

Manager Jack Tighe remarked prior to breaking camp at Lakeland, Fla., Tuesday that he believes his players have enough to "go all the way" this year.

Relief pitcher Tom Morgan, a onetime Yankee, is so impressed by the club that he remarked yesterday: "This club plays like the Yankees. Like they know they can win every ball game."

Morgan added that the team was "stronger than it was a year ago."

The 27-year-old righthander should know. His lifetime 14-3 mark against the Tigers before joining the club in a trade with Kansas City in November is among the best ever chalked up by an opposing pitcher.

Although optimistic about Detroit's chances, Tighe has indicated he is going to crack down with fines this year if he finds his players loafing.

The manager is particularly pleased with his hitters who did a good job of banging them out in training camp games but showed a lamentable lack of ability to bring runners home.

Tighe says his No. 1 job will be to build up his mound relief staff to back up starters such as Billy Hoeft, Jim Bunning, Paul Foytack and Frank Lary. Key figures in the bullpen crew will include Morgan, Joe Presko, Bob Shaw and Lou Sleater.

The Tigers will meet the Braves at Tulsa tomorrow and at Denver Friday before going north to finish off the series with games at Milwaukee Saturday and Sunday.

Era of Dominant Golfer Is Past

By BILL CORNWELL

The day is past when one or two players will dominate the professional golfing world in the fashion of a Hogan or a Snead.

There was a time when Bantam Ben and Slammin' Sam were the dominant figures in the world of golf. Even today, with their tournament activity cut down, Hogan and Snead are big favorites in any event they enter.

During another era, Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen and Bobby Jones were the rulers of the links. In his heyday, Byron Nelson was the master of all he surveyed.

Times and conditions have changed. It is almost impossible for one golfer to dominate the tournament circuit today for the simple reason that there are so many outstanding players entered in every event on the tour.

Some authorities have expressed the belief that youthful Ken Venturi will be the dominant figure in American golf for the next few years. With all due respect to the talents of Venturi, I strongly doubt that this will be the case.

There are more standout young golfers on the pro tourney whirl now than at any previous time in American history. The caliber is probably no better than the greats of yesteryear, but the competition is much tougher because there are more of them.

Last Sunday Arnold Palmer won the Masters tourney. Venturi may win the next event on the circuit. Or it could be Dow Finsterwald.

If the bettors and odds - makers can't find their winner among those three, they might consider these bright and shining lights — Don Fairfield, Mike Souchak, Paul Harney, Billy Maxwell, Gene Littler, Billy Casper and Jay and Lionel Hebert.

That should give you some indication of why it's a superhuman task for one man to be a steady winner. Let's face it — it's rough.

SHORT PUTTS

Eldon Briggs, former Saginaw and Lansing pro and a long-time tourney performer in state circles, is Horton Smith's new assistant at Detroit Golf Club.

Randall Ahern, veteran amateur from Red Run, will compete in the Western Amateur tourney, which runs tomorrow through next Wednesday at the Country Club of Florida in Delray Beach, Fla.

The Eastern Open at Baltimore, Md., and the Chicago Open at Glen Eagles in Lemont, Ill., are now on the PGA summer calendar as substitutes for the two Tam O'Shanter tournaments canceled by George May.

Pontiac 9 Drops Opener; Meets Skippers Thursday

It was a rough baseball opener for Pontiac Central High yesterday. Southpaw Andy Billesdon and Ron Demrick combined for a two-hit shutout as Cranbrook handed the Chiefs a 9-0 seven-inning licking on a chilly afternoon at Wisner Field.

Billesdon pitched the first four innings for the Cranes and received credit for the victory. The Chiefs loaded the sacks in the 4th and 7th innings, but all were stranded.

Cranbrook clinched the verdict with a six-run uprising in the 7th inning against Fred Staley, the last of three Pontiac hurlers. Staley aided the Cranbrook cause with four walks, a hit batsman and three wild pitches.

The Cranes made only one hit in the big stanza, a run-scoring single, and the Chiefs committed two errors, one by Staley. Cranbrook made four hits in all.

Bob Garrett, the losing hurler, twirled the first three frames and gave up one run in the 2nd and another in the 3rd. Chuck Honchell came to the mound in the 5th and yielded Cranbrook's 3rd run, then Staley took over in the 7th.

A 2nd-inning single by Larry Douglas and Chuck Johnson's one-bagger in the 7th were Pontiac's only safeties. Cranbrook's John Studebaker tripled in the 3rd stanza for the only extra base knock of the game.

The Chiefs swing back into action Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock when they meet Waterford High on the Wisner diamond. Honchell or Dave Jones will go to the hill for Pontiac against Chuck Kirken, who had a 3-3 pitching record last spring.

Returning starters Ernie Savas, catcher; John Herrington, Tony Hiller and John Studt in the infield and outfielders Wendy Meyer and Jim Preston will help complete the Skipper lineup. Gary Mellema or Dick Vore will handle 2nd base.

SVC Rivalry on Again, Friday

PCH, Vikings in CMC Test

By H. GUY MOATS

One of the hottest track and field rivalries among state prep schools erupts again this weekend in the Central Michigan College indoor invitational meet at Mt. Pleasant.

Flint Northern, 1957 champion, will be back and trying to duplicate last year's feat of stopping Pontiac Central's state champs. Chiefs lost to the Vikings 54.9 points to 40 points, with Lansing Eastern 3rd with 27.7.

Friday's collision between Dean Wilson and Ray Lowry's Chiefs and their Valley opponents will be the 2nd of the season. Chief thinclads showed some speedy heels to Norb Bader's crew in the Huron (East. Mich. College) Relays, winning the unofficial title (no team championship was involved) by a count of 47⅓ points to 29½ for Flint Northern. These schools are traditional, and often bitter, rivals on the track. PCH took five firsts, Vikings one.

Chiefs got only three firsts at Mt. Pleasant last winter, with Rog Coats' mile (4:45), Larry Beamer's half-mile (2:06) and Hud Ray's record 6-5¾ high jump. Coats and Beamer are back. Runnerup to Ray, Fred Brooks (6-3½), is back. PCH won the 1st three places in this event.

Where Chiefs were shut out in 1957 in four events, including the 60-yard dash, low hurdles, vault and medley relay, they'll be strong this time, with Bob Manning and Dan Sowell ready to repeat Huron Relay wins, and several improved vaulters in line.

Friday's meet is a 12-team affair, with teams other than the three mentioned, as follows: Bay City Central, Flint Central, Traverse City, Arthur Hill, Muskegon, Midland, Saginaw High, Alpena and Bay City Handy.

Final PWBA Meeting Sunday

The delegates to attend the 1959 WIBC convention and the site of the 1960 Women's City Tournament will be determined at the final meeting of the Pontiac Women's Bowling Association to be held Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at the Elks Temple.

All members of the organization are urged to attend the important session. Elected delegates will attend the national gathering at Buffalo, N. Y.

Another feature of the Sunday meeting will be the presentation of award to the 1958 city champions. They include the Twin Pines team, Shirley Pointer (all events), Viola Cargal (singles) and the doubles duo of Doris Young and Wilma Myers.

YOU'RE THE MANAGER

(Twenty-third of a series)

By BEN OLAN

Not all important strategical moves are made in the late innings. Sometimes a manager makes a pivotal move in a comparatively early inning that turns out to have been the deciding factor in winning the game.

In the following instance, the Philadelphia Phillies wrapped up the game in the sixth inning, but not before Manager Mayo Smith had to do some tall thinking. Here's an opportunity to see how you rate as a grandstand manager.

The Phillies and Dodgers are tied 2-2 in the top of the sixth at Brooklyn. Reliever Clem Labine (R) is pitching for the Dodgers. Rip Repulski starts off the inning by beating out a bunt down the third base line. Repulski steals second. Willie Jones, the next batter, strikes out. Ed Bouchee is walked intentionally. Labine is unable to find the plate and also walks Joe Lonnett, filling the bases. Chico Fernandez (R) is the next batter with Pitcher Jim Hearn (R) and Richie Ashburn (L) to follow.

CHICO FERNANDEZ

Would you:

a. Let Fernandez swing away?

b. Order Fernandez to try a squeeze bunt?

c. Put in a lefthanded pinch-hitter for Fernandez?

(Other data: Fernandez has no hits in two tries in the game and is batting .246 (60-for-244) for the year; Marv Blaylock, Solly Hemus and Harry Anderson are the left-handed pinch-hitters available.)

Result: A — Fernandez swings away and hits a double to right center, clearing the bases. Phillies win 5-3 (any 1).

'Heavies' Seek Title Shot

Machen, Folley in TV Bout

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Ambitious heavyweights Eddie Machen and Zora Folley, the No. 1 and No. 2 title contenders, battle tonight at the Cow Palace with their expected big prize still a phantom in the future.

Both hoped when they signed for the 12-rounder, a nationally televised match starting at 10 p.m., EST, that the winner would get a shot at champion Floyd Patterson.

The National Boxing Assn. says it hopes so too, but the champ's manager, Cus D'Amato, generally throws cold water on the proposition. He says the undefeated Machen forfeited his chance to fight for the title by refusing a previous offer and says "no comment" when asked about Folley.

So they fight for their guarantees of $15,000 or 25 per cent of the gate plus the television money, but without that big extra incentive of meeting Patterson.

In Milwaukee, Fred Saddy, secretary of the NBA who originally suggested a Machen-Folley match to determine a title challenger, said only:

"We are making an all-out effort to get Patterson to meet the winner. We would like to see that fight. However, we understand Patterson is scheduled to meet Roy Harris (of Cut and Shoot, Tex.) next."

Casper Signs Up for Greensboro

2nd Top Money Winner Among Pros Deals Self Into Classy Field

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP)—Top-flight golf pro Billy Casper has dealt himself into the 1958 Greater Greensboro Open Tournament, which gets going tomorrow, with a classy field.

Casper telephoned officials of the $15,000, 72-hole event yesterday he was leaving from Miami, Fla., and would arrive today to get in practice rounds along with Sam Snead, Doug Ford, and Ken Venturi.

Casper, of Apple Valley, Calif., ranks second to Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., as the season's top money winner and just above Venturi. Palmer replaced Casper at the head of the season's list by winning the Masters Tournament last weekend at Augusta, Ga., and pocketing $11,250. Casper finished down the list and took $956.

But Palmer won't be here, owing to other commitments.

Trotters Take Overtime Tilt

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The College All-Stars pressed the Harlem Globetrotters to the limit last night before dropping a 109-107 double overtime decision in an exhibition basketball thriller.

There was no clowning by the Trotters who trailed nearly all the way. The two teams resume their 18-game road series in Albuquerque, N.M., tonight with the Trotters leading, 8-2.

Paced by Guy Rodgers of Temple, Vern Hatton of Kentucky and Connie Dierking of Cincinnati, the All-Stars raced to a 48-41 halftime edge.

The older, more experienced Trotters kept nibbling away at the lead in the second half and finally tied the score at 86-86 to put the game into overtime.

Boston's Sullivan to Undergo Surgery

BOSTON (INS) — Red Sox catcher Haywood Sullivan today was reported suffering from a ruptured disc that requires surgery and may keep him out of the lineup for some time.

The diagnosis was made by Dr. James M. Poppen, famous surgeon. The operation will be performed at New England Baptist hospital tomorrow.

Sullivan left the team in the South to come to Boston for the examination.

Until he suffered a split finger in Florida and then developed back trouble, Sullivan was considered the probably No. 1 catcher for the Sox over Sam White.

The previous national high this season was 741 by Charlotte Kardas of Grand Rapids, Mich.

The state record of 742 was held by Gladys Light of Milwaukee and Eunice Kuep of Fond du Lac.

Sets Off Fishing Activity

Anglers Pinpoint April 26

By H. GUY MOATS

Michigan's huge piscatorial army has pinpointed a date coming up last of this month, and is impatient with the weather, hoping some more-like-spring conditions than those of the present will soon arrive.

The big date is April 26, two weeks from Saturday. That's when the state's general fishing season gets under way for all fish, except black bass. The bronzebacks are not legal game until June 21.

April 26 is the start of the "big season" for trouters, who will be out in force on the many fine trout waters of the state. It's a sure bet that every Oakland area stream and lake, where the conservation department has planted or will plant thousands of trout, will be well populated by rod-wielding enthusiasts, come opening day.

More than 50,000 trout have been planted, or will be planted in county waters before the season's start. Most of this work has already been accomplished, but additional plantings will come along during the coming weeks, Drayton Plains state hatchery men say.

Twenty county lakes, and eight streams in the area have received trout, ready for the angling hordes. They include mostly rainbows, thousands of browns and many fighting brooks of "taking" size. In addition to these species, many lake trout have been planted in several lakes including Cass, where some nice fish were taken last summer, from plants of other years.

One Sylvan Lake angler who prefers to remain anonymous for reasons of his own, reported to hatchery workers that he, and a neighbor took 24 lakers, averaging 18 to 22 inches and about three pounds, from Cass Lake.

The fish were taken by still fishing and trolling in deep, cold holes. "I know of about 60 that were taken from Cass, last summer," this angler said. "When they were hitting, it wasn't too difficult to get four or five in a day's fishing."

Oakland lakes and streams receiving trout plants include Alderman, Cedar Island, Cemetery, Crotched, Deer, Elizabeth, Maceday, Lotus, Orchard, Oxbow, Reed, Square, Sugden, Union, Bridge, Little Silver and Aljoe, Davie, Twin, Clear and Davison lakes in Lapeer County; trout ponds at Bald Mountain, Davisburg and Fenton; streams, Clinton, Duck Creek, Huron, Keasley Creek, Paint, Spring and Trout Creeks and Wildwood Lake outlet.

Time of the Sucker and Carp

April 'Rough' Fish Month

By JACK PATTERSON

Perhaps because they lived outdoors and were intimately acquainted with the comings and goings of wildlife, American Indians normally named the months of the year after seasonal oddities in the behavior of that wildlife. Thus we fall heir to names such as "Crazy Moon" for October, when grouse families split up, stake out new territory in obedience to nature's rule against in-breeding, and behave in a most irrational manner inthe process.

PATTERSON

If it were still the custom to label months after the goings on of woodsy and watery customers, April might well be tagged the "Month of the Rough Fish." For April starts the ball rolling in the domestic cycle of our large scaled species, both native, like the several breeds of suckers, and imported, like carp.

Now suckers have a certain utilitarian value to the sport fisherman, indirect though it may be, in that they "vacuum clean" our trout streams, assimilating a lot of material that the streams are better off for having had assimilated.

If you're still with us we might point out that in this orderly business of slurping up glup of one kind or another, suckers, as trout fishermen have long suspected, probably inhale some trout eggs too. This is an unfortunate business, but even here the sucker plays it fair. A good many of the immense quantities of sucker eggs laid in the shallows end in the jaws of trout waiting in the pools below.

Suckers have never been considered much of a sporting proposition, but they're netted in the spring in enormous numbers as a food fish. In case anyone is interested, the Rifle river is enjoying its spring sucker run, with main activity at Omer.

We've tried to be as nice as possible to the native suckers but for that indestructible import, the carp, we are hard pressed to find a kind word.

Carp, aside from being singularly unattractive are a nuisance. They churn up the muddy bottoms, tear up duck food, create undesirable conditions for nobler species and generally behave like underwater pigs. In most of our lakes archers' targets aplenty are beginning to splash the shallows.

Field Trial, Show Arranged for April 12

Annual spring field trial and bench show will be held by the Michigan State Fox Hunters Assn. Inc., headed by Cliff Hicks Sr., as president, at Oakwood, Saturday April 12.

This group believes in early starts, hence the numbering of hounds will take place at 4 a.m. and the cast will be made at 5:30 a.m. All-age and derbies will ge run together, but will be scored separately. Howard Fish is master of hounds.

Midwest's Top Riflemen in U.S. Team Trials Here

Some of the best riflemen of the Midwest are expected to compete here in one of five preliminary shoots to determine makeup of the 1958 United States Rifle Team for the international matches in Russia this year.

Entries will come from as far west as Wyoming and Midwest sections, as well as from Michigan, says co-chairman Robert Gubbins of Birmingham, who with Cash Bond, will handle details of the matches at OCSC's big-gun range, on May 17-18. "We expect about 25 shooters", Gubbins said. This is one of five similar matches to be held on the West Coast, Puerto Rico, Ft. Benning and in Maryland.

Three positions will be fired, all of 40 record shots and 10 sighting shots from prone, kneeling and standing. Range will be 300 meters. Trial is open to any one, and rules of the International Shooting Union will be used.

The Michigan section will be represented, probably by Alex Smith, of Detroit's Ford Gun Club, a top rifleman; by Jerry Crowe, an ace Marine Corps marksman, just out of service; by OCSC's fine shooter, Kjell (Red) Danielson from Pontiac; Bertram Beam of Flint; Don Braddock of Birmingham, president of the Michigan Rifle and Pistol Assn.

In order to properly prepare for the matches, Gubbins says that entries should be filed as early as possible with him (entry fee $10). His address, R. M. Gubbins, 16249 Buckingham, Birmingham.

Little Stories About Outdoors

At least one pair of sleek Canadian honkers knew a good thing when it came along, take the word of Mrs. Mary Gregory, wife of Pontiac Press printer, Syd Gregory.

The big geese, apparently just back from a winter in the south, landed on Loon lake, near the Gregory home (3144 Dixie Highway). They responded to Mary's invitation for lunch and went back daily, for the free food. They were so tame, says Mary, that they took food from her hands.

Gun experts, the Williams, say that recoil pads for shotguns and rifles are installed for many reasons. These include desire for more gun length, replacing the original butt plate; for better appearance and to help prevent a nice weapon (maybe scope-fitted) from damage due to butt sliding on the floor. Oddly enough, only about 25 per cent of these pads are fitted to help reduce recoil.

Dry, pelleted fish foods are being used extensively in the Michigan hatcheries, including that at Drayton Plains, and have been responsible for savings from $50,000 to $90,000 annual over the former methods of feeding fry. Trout, particularly, say conservation men, like the pelleted diet — keeps them satisfied so they don't have to eat each other.

Pointer Trials Run Two Days

Season's first AKC licensed pointer field trial for the Highland Recreation Area is set for Saturday and Sunday of this week, according to plans announced by the German Shorthaired Pointer club of Michigan.

This is the annual spring trial for the club. Suitable awards go to winners. Trials get under way each day at 8 a.m., continue throughout the day.

Puppy and derby stakes are restricted to German shorthairs, but the gun-dog, open all-age and limited all-age stakes are open to any pointing breed. Gun-dog stake will be handler-owner, in which handler must shoot over his entry. Dogs in advanced stakes will work over live pheasants.

Spectators are welcome.

Deer Get Tranquilizers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State veterinarians, studying diseases among wild animals, are using tranquilizers to calm down a herd of deer. Dr. James R. Hay, state director of agriculture, says, "The wild deer in captivity calmed down to the tameness of a domestic animal."

Public May Attend Conservation Meets

April session of the Michigan Conservation Department is set for April 17-18 at the department's Lansing offices. Informal session takes place at 3 p.m. Thursday and the regular session 9 a.m. Friday.

All meetings of the department are open to the public.

Water Skiing Can Be Safe

Oakland County is blessed with many more lakes than most any other area in Michigan. Because of the opportunity for the sport, along with boating and fishing, there is increasing participation in water skiing in this area, which pushes the matter of water safety to the forefront.

The skiers themselves are deeply interested in the question of safety, and through the American Water Ski association have adopted rules and regulations covering the sport.

A set of guideposts to safe skiing is provided, as follows:

Things to DO—Be a good swimmer or wear a life jacket; check your equipment, wing nuts, loose runners, binders, slivers, sharp metal; stay away from solid objects such as docks and boats.

Be courteous to others (fishermen, swimmers, boaters); watch water ahead at all times; run parallel to shore, come in slowly when landing; avoid falling forward; learn stunts progressively.

Have extra person in boat to watch skier; signal driver all is well, on falling (hold up ski or hand); stop motor when aiding skier into boat; driver return immediately to pick up skier; recover skis quickly to help stay afloat.

Things NOT to do—Don't yell "hit it" until rope is taut, ski tips up; don't wrap rope around any part of body; don't put any part of body through bridle.

Don't ski in shallow water; don't ski at night.

Don't drive boat through swimming area; don't ski ahead, or to side of another boat; don't ski doubles with different rope lengths.

Don't attempt fast landing directly toward shore (DO sit down if coming in too fast); don't ski in unfamiliar waters.

Don't operate boat sitting on side, stay in seat.

Obedience Classes Given Certificates

Three groups were graduated. These exercises concluded the spring work of the Southern Michigan Obedience Training Class which will resume in September.

Sports Show Aids Children

With one of the biggest arrays of boats, boating and sporting equipment ever assembled here for one of these spring shows, Pontiac Area Boat & Sports Goods Dealers' Assn. today hoped for a big attendance during the four-day event starting at noon, Thursday, at Miracle Mile.

A large attendance would do a great deal for sight conservation among unfortunate children of this area. Profits from the show, the association says, will go towards the program sponsored by the Pontiac Lions Club. Lions clubbers will assist at the show, manning the ticket windows while wearing nautical outfits. OCSC members have also been invited to assist in the events. Price of admission is a 25 cent donation to the Lions' Club program.

Site is a large building in the center of the big Telegraph road shopping center. All exhibit space has been filled, show coordinator Ray Harrington reports.

An array of boats, boating equipment, motors, trailers, and all kinds of sports goods and equipment has been provided. There will be live-model parades at 3 and 7 p.m. daily, showing off the latest swim togs and sports apparel.

At the Thursday afternoon show, starting at 4 o'clock, world fly and bait-casting champion, Ben Hardesty, will be seen in an exhibition. He will also show fishing films.

The dealers' group is headed by Mrs. Elmer Harrington as president; S. B. (Mike) Owens, vice president; Charles Stark, secretary, and Frank Slaybaugh, treasurer.

Water Skiers Get Safety Aid From 'Ski Eye'

New Device Made in Pontiac Warns Boat Driver of Mishap.

A new safety device for water-skiers is now manufactured in Pontiac. It is called the Automatic Ski-Eye. It is essentially a means of warning the driver of a ski-towing craft when a skier falls and loses his "boards."

Maker of the device, which is in kit form and can be attached easily to the transom and front panel of any outboard (also comes in style for inboards) is the Thompson Die & Stamping Co., East Walton Blvd.

A signal on the instrument panel is linked with the heart of the device, an automatic switch that is attached to the tow bar. The tow line is fastened to the switch. As long as there is pressure on the line the signal is off, but when the pull drops, the signal goes into action.

Hugh and Warren Miller, twins from Sayville, N. Y. played on the 1957 plebe football team for Army. Hugh played guard and Warren was an end.

Birmingham Plans 2nd Carp Carnival

Birmingham's juvenile anglers will have their "big day," again, come April 19 at Quarton lake.

Occasion is the second annual Carp Carnival, where youngsters from any age up to 14 years, may compete for many interesting prizes, in a fishing contest that starts at 1 p.m., runs through 4 o'clock.

Prizes will go to youngest fisherman and fisher-woman; for the one catching the largest fish, in both divisions; the most fish landed by each (boy and girl), and most unusual fishing equipment.

Surface Formations Shown on State Map

A color map of the surface formations of Michigan's upper peninsula is now available from the Conservation Department.

Helen M. Martin, department research geologist, recently compiled the map which is a revision of a 1911 map and study. Moraines, till plains, deltas, water beds and areas of rock at or near the surface are indicated on the new 40 x 40 inch map.

Solunar Table

With the Michigan general (except black bass) fishing season opening coincidentally with the start of the trout season, Saturday, April 26, area anglers will find the John Alden Knight solunar tables (below) a big help in picking the best times for their sport. For the next week these times are as follows:

Ladies All-Star League Champ Decided Friday

The race for the championship of the Ladies All Star bowling league goes right down to the wire Friday night at Motor Inn Recreation with the "house" team and R & R Motors battling for the title.

Each has totaled 83 points for the season with the Motors five carrying a one-pin average edge of 772 to 771.

Members of all the league teams will be feted at a post-season banquet to be held April 18 at the Old Mill Tavern.

Olympic Funds Asked by IAAC

Lack of Money Might Cut Out Track and Field

IOC Told Cash Needed to Keep Events in 1960 Games at Rome

LONDON (INS) — The International Amateur Athletic Federation, making a veiled threat to remove track and field events from the Olympics, says it wants the International Olympic Committee to give it a share of the receipts from the games.

The IAAF, which controls track and field, said yesterday that in order to fulfill its functions it was a "necessity" to receive "sufficient funds" from the IOC.

The IAAF statement hastened to add that the relationship between the two organizations was "excellent."

The IAAF said there was a proposal under consideration with the IOC which would supply the needed funds by placing a small tax on tickets sold at track and field events at the Olympics, which will be held in Rome in 1960.

The IAAF statement consluded:

"It is hoped these discussions will reach a mutually satisfactory conclusion and that athletic (track and field) events at the Olympic games will continue to be the world championships as in the past."

This was taken to mean that if the IAAF did not receive the funds it wanted, track and field events would not be held at the 1960 games.

NBA Playoff Even at 2 Wins Apiece

Celtics, Hawks Clash

BOSTON (AP)—The injury-plagued Boston Celtics and the healthy St. Louis Hawks, all even at two games apiece, meet in the vital fifth contest tonight in their best-of-seven series for the National Basketball Assn. championship.

The Celtics, crippled by the loss of big Bill Russell and minor injuries to other key players, are hopeful determination and hustle will pay off as in the fourth game at St. Louis last Saturday.

The Hawks, stung by their home court loss, mapped a more relaxed style of play and hoped to regain their form to halt the Celtics' drive for their second straight title.

"We were pressing too much so as not to make mistakes and the Celtics couldn't do anything wrong in the last game," St. Louis Coach Alex Hannum said. "We'll be a different team tonight."

Russell, the 6-10 former All-America from San Francisco who set a record for grabbing rebounds in his first full year in the NBA this season, has been declared through for the playoffs because of an ankle injury suffered in the third game at St. Louis.

His top replacement, veteran Arnie Risen, is ailing with a sinus attack. Risen missed a 90-minute practice yesterday, but is counted upon to carry a heavy load.

Incomparable Bob Cousy still is shaking off the effects of a collision in Saturday's game, while backcourt mate Bill Sharman is limping from an ankle injury.

With Cousy or Sharman at half speed, Boston figured to have little chance against the Hawks, who carried the Celtics to seven games before losing in double overtime in last year's playoffs. Sharman has scored 89 points in the four games, two more than Cousy.

Cousy, who played nearly the full 48 minutes in the last game, shocked St. Louis by moving into the pivot often in the 109-98 triumph. Boston Coach Red Auerbach declined to say whether the Celtics again will try the maneuver, aimed primarily to offset the Hawks' height advantage in the absence of Russell.

After the game, the teams will move to St. Louis for the sixth meeting Saturday, A seventh game, if necessary, will be played in Boston either April 14 or 17.

DELRAY BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The entry list swelled to 121 today and the practice shots flew faster as contenders for the Western Amateur golf championship made ready to play an unfamiliar course—the Country Club of Florida.

Qualifying play starts tomorrow among two Walker Cup linksmen, three previous Western Amateur winners and a host of national, regional and state golf champions.

After 18-hole medal rounds tomorrow and Friday the low 50 and ties will go into a final 36-hole qualifying stint Saturday. The 16 best cards will make up the championship flight for 36 hole match play Sunday through Wednesday.

Rudolph clipped a stroke off par. Hopkins carded 73 and Holland shot 76.

Spring Track Activities Gain Impetus This Week

Pontiac area prep thinclads' 1958 season this week gathers momentum with a half dozen dual events scheduled, starting this afternoon at Thurston, with Oak Park the opponent. None is league action.

Thursday, Southfield (I-L) is at Hazel Park (EML) for the schools' opener. Monte Charles' crew, hampered by lack of a field, is given an even chance against the Parkers. Jays won last year's meet by three points.

Clarkston at Ortonville, Keego Harbor at Thurston (latter's 2nd meet of the week), and Walled Lake at Milford, all on Friday round out a busy schedule.

Clarkston (W-O) has much the same squad that outdistanced Ortonville (So. C) last spring, and is favored again. Vaulter and dash man Chuck Siler is Clarkston's ace, with Chuck Graves, jumper, and vaulter leading the host team.

Art Paddy's Keego (W-O) team is well rated against Thurston, with a number of veterans, including Rolf Gordhamer, Steve Rogers, Dennis Alix and others.

Walled Lake (I-L), led by ace vaulter, Frank Fink, and a number of other veterans, faces a tough foe in Milford (W-O), which has been hit by graduation, but has a good 440-man in Jerry Hackett and a promising miler in Danish exchange student Peder Jensen, besides some other promising performers.

Babe Ruth Tryouts Scheduled Saturday

Birmingham Babe Ruth League baseball tryouts are scheduled this Saturday, loop officials have announced.

Tryouts will be conducted at St. James field, located behind the Birmingham YMCA. Boys of 14 and 15 years of age will meet at 10 a.m. and 13-year-olds will assemble at 1 p.m.

League officials hope to expand the Birmingham Babe Ruth program from one six-team circuit to two six-team loops this season. This goal would enable 180 youngsters to compete this summer instead of 90 as in the past.

Day Off for Cubs

MESA, Ariz. (AP) — The Chicago Cubs observed their first day off of the current training season today while manager Bob Scheffing made plans for a four-game series with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Scheffing announced that Glen Hobbie, a $50,000 rookie, will open the Dodgers series.

Around the World in 5 Months

David Niven to Take Trip

By JOAN HANAUER

NEW YORK (INS) — The star of "Around the World in 80 Days" is finally going to go around the world — in five months.

"I've never had the guts to do it before, although I've always wanted to," the charmingly British David Niven said.

"Of course, what I was afraid of did happen. As soon as I decided to go the scripts started coming. There was one it made me weak in the knees to turn down."

While filming the movie Niven didn't get around very much.

"All I saw was Spain, France and England, where I certainly had been before.

"The only India I saw was built up in a back lot. This time I'm going to see the real thing."

Niven has high hopes his real-live 'round-the-world trip will be less dangerous than the filmed excursion.

He had to be filled to the brim with champagne before he would go up in the balloon, then had a few narrow escapes when it brushed a building and when he "almost got toppled out 60 feet above ground. Charming, that."

But the most harrowing experience took place at a Hollywood back lot.

"Everytime I think of those elephants tramping through the studio jungle I shiver," Niven admitted.

"The tree branches are attached to the trees with huge nails. On one side of you there's an elephant, on the other great nails sticking out. And the branches don't give."

Niven started his career life in another hazardous profession—He was trained at Sandhurst, England's equivalent of West Point, and spent five years in a Highland regiment. He came to the U.S. by way of Canada, and in New York sold "booze" to bars.

"Then I went to Hollywood where I became an actor," Niven said. "According to central casting I was 'Anglo-Saxon type No. 2,008.' I played Mexicans in Western movies until I was 'discovered' and signed a contract.

"I marched over and bought a new car and proudly drove it up to the studio, where I was politely but firmly informed I was on three months layoff. I drove the car back to the salesman, and it was back to streetcars for me."

Niven has been a star for years —how many years he recently discovered with a shock. He explained:

"They recently played a 22-year-old movie I made on TV and a well-meaning lady gushed up to me and said, 'I saw your son on television last night.' You know, to me that's what I look like—my son."

Hollywood Headlines

Broadway's 'Blue Denim' Now Bound for Filmland

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — It's just a coincidence but it is oddly timely (with the headline tragedy about Lana Turner's teenage daughter) that Buddy Adler has bought Josh Logan's Broadway drama about misunderstood youth, "Blue Denim." Over $100,000 was paid by 20th for the Lou Herlihy-William Noble play which features Carol Lynley and veteran screen star Chester Morris.

This is an unusual undertaking for Logan who usually does musicals or hit comedies like "Mister Roberts." And while it isn't definite, my money says that Logan will also bring "Blue Denim" to the screen. He did "South Pacific" for Buddy, one of the big current hits.

When I asked which 20th teenager would fall heir to the part of the tragic young heroine they told me it could be any one of their three teenagers under contract, Diane Varsi, Hope Lange or Lee Remick.

Never was a part so perfect for a star and vice versa than Gregory Peck is for the top-selling novel "Anatomy of Murder," about a small town lawyer who becomes involved in a murder investigation. Ray Stark and Elliot Hymans, who own the screen rights, won't admit Greg is set—but I can tell you it's all but inked.

Stark and Hymans are buying story after story for their Seven Arts Company. They've also acquired the Joseph Henry Jackson Literary Award book, "The Sergeant," by Dennis Murphy. And, of course, there's always "The Story of Fanny Brice" which Ray controls since the late, incomparable Fanny was his mother-in-law.

I asked him if Judy Holliday is set for Fanny. He admitted, "Judy would be good, but we haven't a script yet and we won't go on this until the story is right."

Just bursting with news, actress Gloria Grant, wife of publicist Norman Greer, telephoned me from New York that she is reading for Kermit Bloomgarten for the Laura James role in "Look Homeward, Angel" opposite Tony Perkins.

"Laura's going to have a baby," Gloria told me, "and I am just as excited as I can be over this chance. I came to New York for Buddy Rogers to do 'Hot Rod,' a movie quickie."

Gloria, who is vice president of the WAIFS, Jane Russell's famous charity for the adoption of homeless children, tells me that tomorrow the WAIFS are having a cocktail party for Helen Hayes in New York. Helen has consented to take over the New York branch of the WAIFS.

Although the Army has ordered a blackout on publicity for Elvis Presley, Hal Wallis is trying to get the camp where Elvis is stationed to relax the order so "King Creole" can be shown there.

Did Shelley Bop Franciosa With Perfume Bottle?

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Did Shelley Winters sock her husband Anthony Franciosa with a perfume bottle?

The actress yesterday told police she did and then, a few hours later, she said Franciosa backed into the bottle.

Franciosa, nursing a sore ear, agreed with his wife's version; while letting the dog out Sunday evening he backed into a shelf and the perfumed bottle toppled and bopped him on the ear.

Miss Winters originally told officers she threw the bottle at Franciosa when he yelled at her daughter Vittoria, 5.

Vittoria's governess Mrs. Kathryn McCaskill said that from another room she heard a violent argument and then the tinkling of glass.

Esther Gets Divorce From Ben Gage

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UP) — The 12-year-marriage of Esther Williams and Ben Gage has ended in divorce.

The actress, 34, obtained her decree yesterday on testimony that Gage, 42, kept late hours and made her nervous.

Under a court-approved settlement, Miss Williams was given custody of their children, Benjamin, 8, Kimball, 7, and Susan, 4, and all community property except Gage's interest in a jointly owned manufacturing firm.

Jobless Barred by Legislature

Only Few Who Have Invitations Can Enter State Chambers

LANSING (UP) — A crowd of 4,000 jobless unionists lobbying for emergency help from the state legislature ran into closed doors yesterday. A union leader called it a lockout.

State Rep. George M. Van Peursem, Republican House speaker, replied that denial of House floor privileges was only normal procedure under the circumstances.

The sergeants - at - arms who closed the heavy wooden doors on the swarming unionists were enforcing normal House rules, he said, and without special direction. The few with a specific invitation from a legislator were admitted.

August Scholle, state AFL-CIO president, looked at it differently.

"At no time have there ever been locked doors on the legislature to prevent the people from talking to their elected representatives," he said.

He also criticized the Senate and House for taking a recess most of the day, leaving many legislators nowhere to be found when the union crowds showed up. He laid the blame on Republican majorities in both chambers.

A controversial bill concerning emergency unemployment compensation benefits for persons who have exhausted regular eligibility is pending.

Navy Jet Costs $9.9 Million

Fighter Aircraft Priced Higher Than AF's Most Expensive Bomber

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Navy is buying single-engine jet fighter planes costing $9,900,000 each — more than the most expensive Air Force bomber built, the B52.

The high cost of the F8U3 supersonic all-weather fighter was given in recently released testimony before a House Appropriations subcommittee.

Rear Adm. R. E. Dixon, chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics, said the cost is that high partly because only a few are involved in the initial order. It should drop by about two thirds later, he said.

The Air Force estimate its B52 heavy bomber costs eight million dollars; an F106 jet fighter, $2,870,000; an F102 jet fighter, $1,285,000.

Dixon's testimony shows that the Navy program calls for 18 F8U3s, with five to be procured iwth fiscal 1958 funds.

The first F8U3 is scheduled to make its first flight within the next two months and to be delivered for figet use by 1960. It is designed to fly at about 1,500 miles per hour.

Junk Collector Takes Crack at City Ordinance

A Pontiac scrap collector, convicted last week of plying his trade without a license, last night took a crack at a 1933 Pontiac ordinance and prompted formation of a special study committee.

The collector, John Warner of 42 W. Wilson, said he hadn't known the old ordinance required scrap collectors to post a $200 bond and pay a $2-a-day fee for a license. Warner pleaded guilty to violating the provisions since September and received a suspended sentence.

But last night he told City Commissioners that the $2-a-day fee was unfair and ate up too much of an independent junk collector's profits.

Commissioners evidently didn't know much about the ordinance, either. Several of them expressed surprise that the fee was so high.

City Attorney William A. Ewart ventured the opinion that the fee system discriminated against independent dealers. Junk yards, he noted, did not have to pay a fee to collect junk under the ordinance, only post a $1,000 bond.

Mayor William W. Donaldson appointed Ewart, Commissioner Roy V. Cooley Jr. and Police Chief Herbert W. Straley to meet as a committee with Warner.

He asked them to come up with a recommendation to ease the fees, if possible.

Sorry, Wrong Number

CLEVELAND (UP)—"Sorry, wrong number" was the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.'s explanation for a $15,754 telepone bill sent to the city dog pound. Dog Warden A. Rhoden said the dogs couldn't use the phone that much. Ohio Bell rechecked, found the bill, about normal, should have gone to the police department.

WRONG SIDE OF CLOCK — Tears well up in the eyes of actress Esther Williams as she leaves Superior Court in Santa Monica, Calif., with a divorce decree from Ben Gage, who said she insisted on "living on the other side of the clock." She said Gage's late hours made her nervous and kept her from her three children.

Gas 'Ignition' Kills 2 in Virginia Mine

CARBO, Va. (AP)—An "ignition" at a Clinchfield Coal Corp. mine last night killed two men and injured four others.

Ralph Huffman, production manager, said the "ignition," which differs technically from a gas explosion, was caused when a pillar fell and forced gas from one section of the working face to another.

The accident occurred at the company's Moss No. 2 mine, some 30 miles east of the West Virginia line.

Clyde Large, 26, and Jeff Steffey, were killed.

The newsprint used by U.S. newspapers in a single day would reach to the moon — 238,800 miles away.

Leading Stocks Pushing Ahead

NEW YORK (AP)—The Stock Market resumed its recovery in fairly active trading early today.

Most leading stocks pushed ahead fractionally. There were a few losses.

The advance was regarded by market analysts as a resumption of the technical rebound of yesterday which halted a string of nine sessions when prices were generally lower.

The economic news brought no drastic change in market background.

Lukens Steel was an early feature, opening on 3,000 shares, off 1¼ at 66. It widened its loss to more than 2 points in later dealings. The stock was reacting from yesterday's late news of a 50-cent dividend compared with the previous payment of 75 cents.

Lorillard recovered partially from yesterday's setback of 1% on news that first quarter earnings were lower than in the previous quarter.

Nonferrous metals were generally firm despite news of price reductions. Magma Copper rose a good fraction. Anaconda and Kennecott were steady.

The major steel shares were steady to slightly higher. Motors and oils showed little change. Rubbers, chemicals and mail orders were mixed.

Auto Showrooms to Display New Models During October

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Editor

DETROIT (AP) — The 1959 model automobiles probably will reach the market at approximately the same dates they did last year—mainly during October.

This is indicated in the planning of most of the car makers. It takes into consideration the fact the industry's retailers may have some outgoing model cleanup problems again this year. Last year the retailers had nearly 100,000 outgoing models left over when the 1958 units were introduced.

That situation did not help dealers trying to get the newer models off to a good start. There is nothing right now in the sales picture to indicate the 1958 model cleanup will be much different from that last fall.

Gossip that the industry may introduce its newest models somewhat earlier develops whenever the sale of current models runs into rough going. It was heard several weeks ago before the 1958 model year was four months old.

But the industry cannot just junk thousands of unsold outgoing models. The effort to hold down inventories through production cutbacks brought approximately 1,227,000 car assemblies. That was the lowest for the January-March quarter since 1952.

The industry is not likely to advance the introduction dates for 1959 models if there is any substantial volume of new cars in dealer stocks on Aug. 1. Neither is it likely to disclose any styling or engineering details of the new models until the scheduled announcement dates.

General Motors reportedly is considering a mass presentation of its new models at its Motorama in New York, staging the affair in October instead of in December as in the past. Under this plan the new models would be shown approximately two weeks before they are put on sale.

That is about the usual period between announcement of details and the display in the dealer showrooms.

Grains Weaken All Along Line

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices were weak all along the line in early dealings on the Board of Trade today.

Corn, which had been consistently firm to strong for several recent days, was under moderate profit - taking in early dealings and prices were around a half-cent lower than the previous closes. Traders said, however, that cash receipts of the grain still were running light and that producer offerings to elevators were reported continuing small.

Near the end of the first hour wheat was ¼ cent a bushel higher to ⅜ lower, May $2.18¾; corn ¾ to 1⅛ lower, May $1.23; oats ½ higher to ⅝ lower, May 65⅞; rye ¼ to ¾ lower, May $1.32; soybeans ⅛ higher to ⅛ lower, May $2.27½; lard unchanged to 5 cents a hundred lbs. lower, May $12.85.

The boost, effective immediately at the wholesale level, applies to both regular and premium grades of gasoline. Standard dealers are expected to pass the increase along to consumers shortly.

A. V. Fraser, Standard's regional manager, said the boost "is in keeping with Standard's announced policy of recognizing local competitive conditions."

Waterford to Have New Postal Service

A new postal service for some Waterford area residents will be put into operation April 19, with the employment of five carrier postmen, according to postmaster Mrs. Robert Amos.

Mail will be delivered either by two men "on foot" or two driving cars, within a three-mile radius of Waterford. One mailman will work as an auxiliary employe, Mrs. Amos said.

"This new service will help alleviate the heavy load now being carried by the Drayton Plains and Clarkston postal units," she added.

Those residents receiving mail through the "mounted" service, have been asked to install their mail box three and one-half feet from the street level to the bottom of the box, leaving ample room for the carrier to be off the pavement for delivery.

Mrs. Amos said that the new Waterford post office, which opened in October, now services some 1,500 families in Waterford Township.

CBS Strikers Lose Support

Teamsters Halt Help to Television and Radio Technicians

NEW YORK (AP) — Union truck drivers in New York City have withdrawn their support of technicians on strike against the Columbia Broadcasting System.

The walkout of television and radio engineers, cameramen and other technicians went into its third day today.

The technicians got the Teamsters' backing long enough to keep some scenery and props from some television shows.

John J. O'Rourke, president of Joint Council 16 of the Teamsters Union, said during the day that the Teamsters would respect picket lines thrown up by striking CBS employes.

Last night, at a meeting of the local unions affiliated with the Joint Council, a temporary decision was made to drop this support and to take the matter up again if the striking technicians formally request Teamster support.

Some programs went on without a full complement of scenery and props. CBS said, however, that its programing improved "vastly" over Monday. Makeshift crews of supervisory and executive personnel are handling cameras, microphones and other technical equipment.

The strike also involves the CBS radio network, but its operations have not been hampered.

A live Red Skeleton program set for last night from Hollywood was canceled and a kinescope of an earlier Skelton show was substituted—the only program not to go on as scheduled. CBS promised "a normal program schedule" on TV today.

News Gathering in Washington Wide World Topic

NEW YORK — The exciting, behind-the-scenes story of how news is gathered in the news-making capital of the world — Washington, D. C. — will be explored next Sunday on General Motors' award-winning Wide Wide World television series.

Highlights of the telecast will be appearances by Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty and Mikhail A. Menshikov, Soviet ambassador to the United States.

Ben McKelway, president of The Associated Press; Lyle Wilson, Washington manager and vice president of the United Press; James R. Wiggins, executive editor of the Washington Post and Times Herald; Ernest Lindley of Newsweek; and John O'Donnell of the New York Daily News.

"We are planning to show our viewers how the Washington press corps gets its stories and how they are transmitted to millions of people all over the globe," a General Motors spokesman said.

(The program is on Channel 4 in the Pontiac area.)

Drama Critics Pick Best on Broadway

NEW YORK (AP)—"Look Homeward, Angel," Ketti Frings' adaptation of the late Thomas Wolfe's autobiographical novel, has won the Drama Critics Circle Award as the best American play of this season.

The Circle members had to ballot twice yesterday to select "The Music Man" as the best musical. On the first ballot, Meredith Willson's cartoon of life in Iowa in 1912 was tied by "West Side Story."

"Look Back in Anger," John Osborne's drama about Britain's Angry Young Men, was chosen the best foreign play.

Newborn Baby Greets World From 'Copter

FT. CHURCHILL, Man. (AP) — Michael Ronald Fidler, an 8½-pounder, was born aboard a Canadian air force helicopter yesterday, 1,500 feet above northern Manitoba. The plane's vibration and altitude speeded up his arrival.

The baby and his mother Mrs. Gerald Fidler, 20, are doing fine in the military hospital at Ft. Churchill.

The helicopter was bringing Mrs. Fidler from Gilliam, 165 miles south of Ft. Churchill, to a Mid-Canada Line radar station.

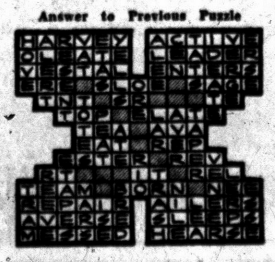
The baby's father is a lineman on the Canadian National Railway.

Robs Vending Machines; Inside Job Suspected

MOLINE, Ill. (AP) — Police suspect that the robbery of a firm managed by Edward Walther was committed by someone familiar with the premises.

The thief forced open a rear door, looted candy and soft drink vending machines and found a money sack containing $343.91 hidden in the basement of the building.

Answer to Previous Puzzle



KULDIP'S COMEBACK — After making a big hit on the Groucho Marx show in 1956, handsome Indian singer Kuldip Singh fell victim to a series of Hollywood ups and downs. But now he thinks his troubles are over as he stars on Shirley Temple's Storybook television series. Here, he draws his sword to protect Sue England in "Land of Green Ginger."

Save Your Pennies and Buy Rolls Royce

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Fashion thought: "Girls who wear sack dresses must be sackopathic"—according to Lee Segall of Dallas.

WILSON

The promoters of the Foreign Car show sent me to the opening of "Say, Darling" in a five-passenger Jaguar driven by the famous chauffeur, Roosevelt Zanders—whereupon I learned how people like Billy Rose can afford these big Rolls-Royces.

You see when you have a car and a chauffeur, you leave your coat and hat in the car, instead of checking them with the coatroom girls. You save a quarter or half a dollar every time.

Well, a quarter here and a half dollar there, and you soon have $25,000 in your piggy-bank and have paid for the car. (What's so hard about it? Anybody can do it!)

Vivian Blaine, the 96-pound gal star of "Say, Darling," insisted on kissing me when I went backstage, and I let her—then I noticed a strange thing.

She kissed everybody. Nervousness, I guess.

David Wayne, colossal as always, had help from Johnny Desmond who proved a great young actor. Desmond had a particularly obnoxious swagger that I had to admire. "That obnoxious strut," I said, "is wonderful acting." He just stared and then said, coolly, "That's not acting. That was me!"

Wilson Girl Dorothy Dollivar just won the "Miss Cinermiracle" title which was open to Wilson Girls. An Erie, Pa., beauty who recently came to N.Y. and was adjudged Miss Press Photographer, she also won in this competition over 7 others and will help open the picture "Windjammer" next week at the Roxy. She'll receive around $500 in cash and expenses, and about $1,000 worth of merchandise.

DOROTHY

Did you realize that William Cullen Bryant, who wrote "Thanatopsis," which we all learned as school kids, and Eugene Field, author of the touching poem, "Little Boy Blue," were a couple of newspaper guys?

Yes, Bryant (b. in Cummington, Mass. in 1794) was editor of the New York Evening Post for 50 years—from 1828 to 1878. And Eugene Field worked on papers in St. Louis, St. Joe (the Gazette), Chicago (the Daily News), Denver and Kansas City after getting an education at the University of Missouri. He spent all his life in newspaper work, too.

Eugene Field has now made good. Out in St. Joe, Gladys Hazen Ridenour and Esther Morgan have written an hour-long TV play about this fascinating man who died in 1895. So who said newspaper men generally don't amount to much?

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Rob't Q. Lewis tells of the Texan who's going to Europe—just as soon as he has his passport picture painted. That's earl, brother.

Career in Hollywood Has Been Marked by Ups and Downs

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Kuldip Singh is back — and Shirley Temple has him.

Not that the handsome 22-year-old lad from Kashmir with the soda fountainish name (cool-dip does it) has been away. But he has been on a year-and-a-half Hollywood roller coaster ride with more ups and downs than Cape Canaveral.

Now that Shirley has him maybe he'll be on his way to solid success. He's playing a romantic, singing fairytale prince in "The Land of Green Ginger" on her NBC-TV "Storybook" show April 18 — maybe he'll be on his way to stardom.

The TV-appearance comes under the "do or die" heading. After failing to hit all the bases following his first home run on Groucho Marx's "You Bet Your Life" show back in September of 1956, young Kuldip realizes this is his boom-or-bust career point. He told me: "I'm a nervous wreck just waiting for it."

That big 1956 date in Kuldip's life was the night 50 million TV fans watched him as a contestant on Groucho's show. The lad's handsome, Valentino-like looks, warm personality and romantic-voiced singing of "A Woman in Love" stopped the show—and started a mad series of events climaxed by the headline:

"Kuldip Faces Deportation."

THE WRONG IDEA

The headline didn't really mean what it said, but there still are people, Kuldip is afraid, who may have the wrong idea about his troubles with the immigration boys.

As a pre-med student here on a student visa, Kuldip, raised in San Juan, Puerto Rico, but India-born, couldn't earn money as a singer, Uncle Sam decided.

He would have to re-enter the country with a performer's visa or, as the tough Immigration Department put it, "face deportation."

Things were moving so fast for Kuldip, however, that this little matter got sidetracked by lawyers and agents, until the tough "deportation" word crashed headlines.

By the time everything got straightened out all the publicity hadn't helped and some people even though he had been deported. Kuldip, his parents and five brothers and sisters are now in Hollywood and planning U.S. citizenship.

Agent trouble cost him more career advances but in recent months he has been appearing on TV shows like "Matinee Theater" and with Tennessee Ernie Ford.

He'll warble three songs on the Storybook show including one, "Beautiful, Beautiful," that could be a hit.

Good Demonstration!

REGINA, Sask. (AP) — The Federal Agriculture Department in 1946 purchased some southern Saskatchewan land to develop as a demonstration plot. They got it cheap because of quack-grass infestation. Now the farm has four producing oil wells.

Follicle Fall-Out Harasses New Yorkers

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — New York City was troubled last week to learn that it is tops among towns in the U.S. for radioactive fall-out pollution. A discouraging piece of news, but not, as the Atomic Energy Commission said, yet dangerous.

What New York City didn't know is that it also is among the top two U.S. cities in a different kind of fall-out, called follicle fluff-out or dandruff.

"There are more executives and junior executives in the fields of advertising, public relations, radio and TV in New York than anywhere else in the country—that's why," reported a spokesman for a dandruff research organization (the Curtis Dandruff Treatment Council).

"These fields, and these people, work under the most rigorous pressures. And pressure, along with emotional stress, is closely related to that old bugaboo."

The dandruff research organization polled barber shops, beauty salons and drug stores in 50 cities, and interviewed hundreds of men on the street (those whose coats looked like salt and pepper tweed—but weren't), and discovered that city folk, in northern climes, are most susceptible to scalp snow.

On the other hand, farmers, in temperate climate, are least likely to suffer.

New York and Chicago lead the nation in dandruff disease, with as many as 84 per cent of their populations, male and female, affected. Hollywood, Detroit, Boston and Philadelphia are in the 80 per cent class. Milwaukee, Washington, St. Louis and Cleveland round out the "top 10" with 77 per cent.

No one at the research organization could explain why dandruff is most prevalent in northern climes. "Just take our word, it is," said the spokesman, "and it's worse in the winter."

The breakdown on dandruff-suffering by profession is also undefined, except that "experts have always recognized there was a correlation between stress and this problem."

It seems that of the above-mentioned advertising, public relations, radio and television people, 95 per cent have dandruff.

(Which explains, perhaps, the gray flannel suit?)

Next most distressed and dandruffed are people who work in movies and journalism. They are 87 per cent afflicted.

In third place, with an 83 per cent incidence, are men in management; and the increasing difficulties of the teaching profession are reflected in the finding that 81 per cent of all teachers have it.
