A Winter That's Unfit for a Dog Officially Arrives---Under Fog

In highly unpleasant fashion, Winter formally arrives today, cloaked under a mantle of fog, and sulking through spring-like showers.

The fog, which is covering the eastern half of the nation, will help conceal the fact that this is the shortest day of the year, daylight-wise.

Shoppers with long lists picked a short day, if they figure on finishing their gift selection. Only nine hours and five minutes of daylight, such as it is, astronomers said.

Officially winter begins at 4 p.m. with nary a single snowflake or frosty breath in sight.

Highway and air travel slowed and stopped yesterday in many sections, as the dense gray blanket reduced visibility to a minimum.

Local law enforcement agencies said there were no serious accidents attributed to the fog, however.

The Detroit weather bureau said the fog may lift briefly this afternoon, allowing a few flights to leave local airports.

But experts added that the break will be brief, and the fog will settle again over the area.

To add a further dismal note, weather experts say that right now, it looks like the only white Christmas this year will be the vocal ones, as authored by Irving Berlin.

Continued drizzle and unwintery fog are forecast for tonight, with a mild low of 36.

Saturday will be mostly cloudy with occasional rain or drizzle, with a high of 42, and an expected low of 36.

Preceding 8 a.m. the lowest temperature recorded in downtown Pontiac was 34 degrees.

At 2 p.m. the mercury registered 39.

Eyes Proposals From Detroit, 2-County Group

Officials Say Increase in Population Causing Supply to Dwindle

The city of Pontiac is in the market for more water for its ever-increasing population and industrial consumption, City Manager Walter K. Willman said today.

Potential sellers are the city of Detroit and its proposed $79 million project, and the Oakland-Macomb Authority and its proposed merger with private capital to supply water to this area.

Willman said the city is awaiting a recommendation from the six-county Supervisors Inter-County committee as to what proposal would best serve Pontiac and surrounding areas with a supply of water suitable until 1990.

He would not disclose which proposal he felt would be best for Pontiac, and emphasized that the "city has been studying them all."

The committee's report is expected within 30 days, he said. Besides Pontiac, it will show how the water needs for Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, Washtenaw, and St. Clair Counties can be fulfilled.

Another alternative mentioned by the city official was the joining with Port Huron to supply water for both communities.

CITES SCARCITY

The need for more water is stressed by the fact, Willman pointed out, that the "water table" has dropped five feet yearly for several years. Due to the heavy rains this past year, the potential scarcity eased somewhat, Willman said.

"The trend has been that the water table is lowering," he said, "and this excites us as far as ground water is concerned."

The city is presently developing rate studies concerning possible purchase of Detroit water. It is also waiting a proposed contract from the Oakland-Macomb Authority on its proposal.

REPAIRS TO COST $4 MILLION

Regardless of where the next source of water comes from, the city can look forward to spending $4,000,000 to renovate its present system. The main capacity must be increased in certain areas, and elevated storage tanks constructed to supply water during peak hours of consumption, Willman outlined.

"Our water is getting progressively worse each year because of its increased iron content which costs all of us plenty to soften," Willman explained.

The city manager added that the city's distribution system for water is outdated in size, made small by rapid community growth.

The Detroit offer (taking water from Lakes St. Clair and Huron) would cost the city around $1.50 per thousand cubic feet. The Oakland-Macomb Authority's would cost from 88 to 93 cents for the same amount. Under the author-

Graves in England Opened in Mass-Murder Probe

EASTBOURNE, England (AP)—By the ghostly light of flickering storm lanterns, gravediggers early today exhumed the body of an aged, wealthy widow from a cemetery in this seaside resort torn apart by gossip of mass murder.

As the first pale light sifted through the mist, the gravediggers lifted out the coffin of Mrs. Julia Bradnum, 85-year-old widow who died May 27, 1952.

At almost the same moment across Eastbourne, in another cemetery plot, gravediggers were exhuming the body of Miss Clara Neil Miller, who died at the age of 86 in February 1955.

The exhumations were ordered in connection with an investigation of Dr. John Bodkin Adams. The natty, 57-year-old bachelor physician is charged with murdering an 81-year-old widow, Mrs. Edith Morrell, six years ago. Her body was cremated and the ashes scattered over the English Channel.

Dr. Adams was brought to court yesterday to hear the formal charge of murder. He entered no plea, and the magistrate set Jan. 14 for his trial.

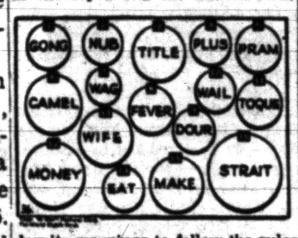
Scotland Yard detectives admitted the exhumations were connected with their investigation of Dr. Adams, who was arrested after a months-long inquiry into the deaths over the past 20 years of some 300 rich old residents of Eastbourne, most of them women. There has been suspicions that someone profited from the old folks' wills.

Both of the women whose bodies were dug up today were reported to have been Dr. Adams' patients.

Feast Your Eyes on Latest Prize: $200 in Pot-O-Gold

Because no winner was found for last week's puzzle, Pot-O-Gold No. 29 which runs this week, is now worth $200. You still have until midnight tomorrow to have your entry postmarked. Be sure to check the correction below before you send it in.

Besides the 5,604 qualified entries, we also received 18 puzzles in envelopes and 183 arrived late, despite warnings to follow the rules carefully in mailing.



To see where you missed out last week and help you find the right answer for this week's puzzle, turn to page 34 for the correct solution and explanations. Puzzle No. 29 appears on page 26.

Correction: The word list on Monday contained the word "warm." It should have been "WARN." You still have time to correct your entry if you feel that is one of the correct answers.

City Area UF Aids Hungary

County Chapter Gets $5,820 From Pontiac for Relief Project

Pontiac Area United Fund has appropriated $5,820 to the Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross for a major Red Cross project, Hungarian Relief.

This brings the total amount collected in Oakland County to $14,613 including contributions of $8,115 from Detroit United Foundation and $678 in individual contributions, said Mrs. Mildred E. Bennett, executive director of the county chapter.

Quota for Oakland County in the nationwide drive for funds was $14,902. The UF appropriations and voluntary gifts eliminated necessity of a drive here.

According to Mrs. Bennett, St. Louis Headquarters for the Midwestern Area has been notified of the pending arrival of the Oakland County contribution.

International Red Cross divided its civilian feeding program in Hungary into three distribution areas: Milk to children under school age; hot meals for school children and food parcels to persons in need.

Some 173,000 children under six years of age are receiving daily ration of 100 grams of powdered or condensed milk and one capsule of cod liver oil daily. Milk and cod liver oil will be delivered to the children's homes once each week.

From 50,000 to 150,000 school children up to 10 years of age are being given a hot meal daily consisting of meat, cereal, milk, bread and sugar. The program is being expanded gradually until all school children have been reached, a report from Washington headquarters stated.

Some 100,000 individuals in distress (those whose dwellings have been partially or entirely destroyed, families deprived of their breadwinners, disabled and aged persons and families with more than four children) will receive one standard food parcel per week.

These food parcels will be sufficient for feeding four persons for a week and meat or fish, butter, margarine or oil, powdered milk and dehydrated soup are included as well as eggs, canned vegetables or fruit, chocolate and coffee and tea.

Other commodities will be included in the Red Cross drive for five million dollars to aid Hungarian Relief, said E. Roland Harriman, chairman of the national drive.

Soprano Denies Year's Earnings Were $3 Million

NEW YORK (INS) — Tempestuous opera diva Maria Meneghini Callas claims she made only a measly $300,000 during the last nine years and not $3,000,000 as her one-time agent has charged.

The Brooklyn-born soprano, who reportedly gets $2,000 an engagement, made a surprise appearance yesterday for pre-trial testimony in a $300,000 suit brought against her by agent E. Richard Bagarozy.

Bagarozy contends that under a contract drawn up with the much-publicized singer in 1947 he is entitled to 10 per cent of her earnings since then and estimates them at $3,000,000.

Mme. Callas, wearing a mink hat on her head and carrying a miniature poodle on her arm, said that Bararozy didn't "use his best efforts to promote my career" and thus breached the contract himself.

Besides that, the beautiful, dark-haired Prima Donna said her husband, Italian industrialist Giovanni Batista Meneghini handles all her personal and business affairs.

Mme. Callas confessed Meneghini "owns me as a husband, that's all I can say."

Claim Steelers Seeking Parker

Pittsburgh Owner Says Lions Coach No. 1 on His 'Hit Parade'

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit News said today that the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League want to hire Detroit Lions Coach Raymond (Buddy) Parker.

Steeler Coach Walt Kiesling has been ill during the past year.

The newspaper quoted what it called "a source close to Steeler owner, Art Rooney" as saying:

"If Parker is available he is certainly the No. 1 guy on our hit parade. It's hard to get a coach. All you do is hire one and hope he develops. Parker's already there."

Only yesterday, Parker refused a one-year renewal of his contract with the Lions.

The story, carrying sportswriter Edgar C. Green's byline, said Parker also turned down a salary increase of $3,000 that would have made his salary about $30,000.

Greene further quoted the unidentified Pittsburgh source:

"We didn't think Parker would have any trouble with his record. It comes as a surprise to us. Everyone knows that Rooney, Parker and Kiesling are tremendously close friends and it might solve a problem for all of us, including 'Kies' and his health situation.

Candidates for Office Must File by Dec. 31

Deadline for nominating petitions of candidates for township offices in the Feb. 18 primary election is 4 p.m., Dec. 31, County Clerk Lynn D. Allen said today.

Allen said petitions must be turned in to township clerks, not to his office.

"And I suggest that all candidates make sure the township offices will be open Dec. 31, Allen said.

Yule Gift Advice Assures 'He' Wont Be Neglected

By JANET ODELL

He isn't going to be neglected. We think he would like a handsome pair of leather moccasin-type lounging slippers that come complete with a zippered case for traveling. He also would like new luggage for Christmas.

You can get him a tiny plastic suitcase with a gift certificate enclosed; he can then pick out the style and color he likes.

If he does a lot of walking, get him a rain cover for his hat. If he has trouble touching his toes, a long-handled shoe horn may be just the answer.

Sport shirts are good-looking enough these days to go almost anywhere and be in style. We saw some cotton ones in deep tone colors that looked like silk.

Small, he'd adore cowboy outfits. You can get brown or black pants, shirts, spurs, ties, scarves, hats, lassos, gloves, guns and jackets —all in western designs.

Another gift for a small masculine person is a junior shaving set. It contains bubble bath, talc, and shampoo. In addition, there is a comb and soap that looks just like Daddy's electric shaver.

Father and son will get a kick out of a lazy baseball set. It's a two-man game with a ball fastened on a long cord. No one has to chase balls. Perhaps these "boys" will also like skate guards for their new skates.

Four Days Off for GM Workers

Local Plants to Shut at End of Friday Shift; County Offices to Close

Thousands of factory workers and county employes will begin a four-day Christmas holiday when they leave work tonight.

Pontiac Motor, Fisher Body, and Truck and Coach Divisions of General Motors all announced today that their local plants would shut down at the end of the Friday shifts and would not resume until Wednesday, Dec. 26.

A Fisher Body Division spokesman added that workers of the metal fabricating plant would work Monday on their first and second shifts.

Baldwin Rubber Co. workers will get from Saturday morning until Wednesday morning off. American Forge and Socket Co. will cease operations for four days beginning at 12:30 tonight.

The county offices and courthouse will be closed as usual tomorrow, and by a vote of the Board of Supervisors, will be closed Monday.

City offices will be closed at noon Monday.

Both local banks and Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Assn. offices will retain their regular Saturday and Monday hours. All will be open Saturday from 9 until noon and Monday from 10 until 3.

The Secretary of State's office will close at 1 p.m. Monday after being opened until noon tomorrow. The State Internal Revenue office will be open all day Monday as will the Michigan Employment Security Commission office.

Cardinal Takes Off

DETROIT (AP) — Two-year-old Johnnie Higgins died in a Detroit hospital Thursday night after drinking cleaning fluid.

Straight Jail Sentences on Tap for Drunk Drivers

Pontiac's Municipal Judges will cooperate this holiday season in clearing the streets of drunk drivers.

The remedy is straight jail terms for convicted offenders and that's what the judges will hand out.

Judges Maurice E. Finnegan and Cecil McCallum hope the prospect of 30 days in jail will persuade many a tippler not to take that extra drink.

If it doesn't and the driver is nabbed, he will find himself in jail until well after New Year's Eve, plenty of time to sober up.

"The drunk driver is the worst danger on the road today," McCallum said. "With his brain befogged by alcohol and his reactions slowed almost to physical helplessness, he speeds a lethal weapon through the streets endangering the lives of anyone in his path.

"In Pontiac, we're going to lock him up so he can't kill himself or someone else."

Both judges have recommended moderate drinking at office and private Christmas parties. Take a cab home or ride home with someone sober, they suggest.

It's an idea that was well received by many at parties last year, McCallum said, and one which perhaps saved money, limbs or even lives.

Police Chief Herbert W. Straley added that his officers will be especially alerted to halt erratic drivers during the holidays.

"It usually is our worst accident period," he said.

London Fog Lifts

LONDON (AP)—A belt of thick fog lifted throughout southern England today but dense patches lingered in the North and Midlands. Londoners traveled to work in clear weather for the first time in three days.

'...Unto Us a Child Is Born'

Mary--"Thou Art Highly Favored"

Editor's Note: This is another in a series of eight studies of the birth and times of Christ. It portrays Mary, blessed among women, on the night of the Nativity.

By GEORGE CORNELL
Associated Press Writer

A beetle crept upward on the stone wall. In the pale lantern light, the young woman watched it. She lay on a straw pallet. The beetle moved slowly. It seemed to take a long time to move a finger's breadth.

Mary smiled dreamily. Poor little beetle. You have to climb so far and so hard. But it will not be long now. You will make it. All is well, blessedly well.

Never had she known a stable was so wondrously comforting.

Just outside the entrance, Joseph stood outlined against the night, a dark, steadfast sentry. From beyond came the faint singing of crickets. Mary breathed evenly. A blissful warmth pervaded her whole being.

Mary let her eyes rove about the stall. The lantern flame, sheathed in hareskin, cast a mellow glow. She would always cherish this quiet, secure place, its sturdy, soiled walls.

None of this night would ever leave her.

She had been relieved beyond words when Joseph found this refuge, at last, after his unavailing entreaties at the inn.

Good Joseph. He had not known how spent the journey left her.

MARY

And all the marveling days before . . . Ever since the divine message had come that she would bear a Son, not by man, but of God, her soul had magnified the Lord. He chose her—a lowly village girl—as his handmaiden!

OF HUMBLE RANK

"Thou are highly favored . . ." How mystifying those words had been. That it would be she, poor, of no rank, of humble habit.

Hold tight, little one. Indomitable beetle, straining upward, hugging the stone.

Every passing moment, every thing around, seemed highly precious. Lying there, wrapped in a woolen shawl, with the soft, fragrant bed of straw, Mary could feel at moments the very core of her life hurtling toward some poignant fulfillment, then dissolving into pure serenity.

Nothing, nothing at all, remained of the agitation in which she had hastened to her cousin's house, after first learning she would bear a holy Son. Elizabeth had understood at once. "Blessed art thou among women . . ."

In time, Joseph also understood. Though older, his joy had become as boundless as hers as the time neared.

She had spent the days plainly —weaving, grinding grain, dry-

Approve County Law Enforcement Group

Thirty-three police chiefs and judicial representatives of Oakland County assembled at the Sheriff's Office last night to unanimously vote for the establishment of a county law enforcement association.

Oakland County Prosecutor Fred Ziem, who presided as temporary chairman of the meeting, outlined four major purposes of the Oakland County Law Enforcement Association.

1. For the separate police agencies to know one another better.

2. To work out common problems.

3. To encourage cooperation among all law enforcement agencies.

4. In order to have a representative body to Lansing to present suggested legislation as a unit when the occasion demands it.

Discussion began at last night's meeting on three "projects of immediate consideration."

The police association plans to work in conjunction with the Oakland County Judicial Association to set up a traffic school for violators. Pat McKenna, chief probation officer of Oakland County, assisted in formulating a program whereby the violator would be put on probation, in many cases, instead of receiving a ticket, fine or jail sentence.

"The violator would then satisfy his probation obligation by the compulsory attendance of a traffic school," according to Justice Court Coordinator Gerald Terrien. "We have to educate the violator," said Terrien. "In many cases that should prove to be more effective 'safety wise' than punishing him with a fine or jail sentence."

It was emphasized, however, that the school would not replace traffic tickets, fines or sentences.

"The ultimate goal is to establish a traffic school for each police department in the county," continued Terrien. "Many departments have wanted to start them before this but could not allocate sufficient funds from their communities. With the formulation of this association it will be easier for them to requisite funds for such necessary projects from Lansing as a group."

Brought up at the meeting also were plans to establish a central file system for the county to be located in the Sheriff's Office.

Judge Allen Ingle, president of the Oakland County Judicial Association, explained that police departments and judges must wait many hours to receive a report on a violator by teletype from Lansing.

"A judge or justice will be able to obtain a report on a violator appearing before him in a few minutes by phone with the county's own central file system," said Ingle. "The judges and justices will be able to use the system first and then we hope to have it available for police.

"Squad cars will be able to call in right on the spot when they have a suspect and not detain him long if he is clear."

Oakland County Sheriff Frank Irons said that the association will be devoted wholly to law enforcement. He cited the effectiveness of the Oakland County Judicial Association, comprised of justices and municipal judges, and said that both associations would work close together.

TO ARRANGE MEETINGS

Meetings of traffic officers before the judicial association will be arranged for clarification and instruction on the legalities of arrest procedure and the issuance of traffic tickets.

Clark Green, Bloomfield Township chief of police, was appointed chairman of a by-laws and constitution committee at last night's meeting.

On his committee are Clarence Braidwood, Lake Orion chief of police; Sgt. Charles Mulick, of the Michigan State Police; R. Levine, Southfield Township chief of police; Frank Van Atta, Waterford Township chief of police; Robert Richardson, Madison Heights chief of police; and Capt. Oliver Lemaux of the Pontiac police department.

Walled Lake Chief of Police James Decker was appointed chairman of the nominating committee to select candidates for office in the association.

On his committee are Det. Sgt. Robert Schaule, of the Birmingham police department, Lee Begole, Novi Township chief of police; James Parker, Holly Township chief of police; David Grattop, Troy Township chief of police; Peter Sykes, Berkley chief of police; and Stephen Navarre, Sheriff's Dept. safety director.

The committees will present their findings before the association at the next meeting on Jan. 23 at the Sheriff's Office.

To Be Completed in Fall of 1957

Board to Act Jan. 9 on Plans for Two Waterford Schools

Final plans and specifications for two new elementary schools in Waterford Township School District will be checked by the Board of Education at a special meeting Jan. 9, members decided last night.

Preliminary plans call for 12 rooms in each of the buildings, which will be constructed on the same general plan as four recently finished elementary schools in the township.

In last night's regular board meeting, Superintendent of Schools William Shunck said the buildings will be ready for use sometime next fall.

Shunck said they will be similar to Monteith, Leggett, McVittie and Burt Schools.

ON LARGE SITES

One of the new schools will be constructed on a nine-acre tract on Maceday Lake road near Williams Lake road, with the other on 10 acres on Elizabeth Lake road at Lochaven.

Board members decided last night to offer for sale $2,500,000 in school bonds at a 4.5 per cent interest rate. The bonds will be part of a $3,500,000 bond issue approved by voters Feb. 21. No sale date was set.

In other action, the board unanimously approved a new clerical pay scale recommended for the current school year by the Education Personnel Committee. The new scale takes effect immediately.

Expenditure of more than $50,000 was approved for current monthly bills, including building addition payments and insurance.

The board okayed $11,250 to pay for new lights installed in Waterford Village and Drayton Plains schools as part of an overall township five-year lighting improvement plan.

Members also approved continuing negotiations for a proposed elementary school to be built near the west end of Elizabeth Lake.

Pick Dr. Marra for Staff Post

Named Vice Chief of General Hospital for 1957

Dr. John J. Marra was elected by the medical staff of Pontiac General Hospital as the vice chief of staff for 1957, the city hospital's Board of Trustees learned last night.

Dr. Arnold Brown will become chief of staff for 1957. He served as vice chief of staff this past year under Chief of Staff Harold A. Furlong.

Dr. Marra will replace Dr. Brown as head of the medical staff effective Jan. 1, 1958.

Dr. George N. Petroff was elected secretary-treasurer for 1957, while Dr. Z. F. Endress was elected member at large of the executive committee.

Board members last evening praised Dr. Furlong and commended him for his "excellent leadership and representation of the medical staff" during 1956.

The board also approved the appointment of Drs. Glenn Sanford, Raymond Ashare, John Ormond, Donald Hunter to the staff of the Hospital.

Pontiac Deaths

Mrs. Elisha J. Sammons

Service for Mrs. Elisha J. (Virginia) Sammons, 77, of 1172 Meadowlawn St. will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday from the Huntoon Funeral Home. Dr. H. H. Savage of the First Baptist Church will officiate with burial in Perry Mount Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Sammons died Wednesday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after an illness of two months.

Mrs. Charles P. Staley

Mrs. Charles P. (Mary Ann) Staley, 75, a former resident of Pontiac, died suddenly yesterday at her home, 26335 West 12 Mile Rd.

She was born on Nov. 21, 1881, in Lafayette, Ind. to Frank and Mary Hahn.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Margaret Floyd of Chicago, Ill.; two brothers, George Hahn of Indianapolis, Ind. and Frank Hahn of Lafayette.

Service will be at 11 a.m. Saturday from the William Sullivan and Son Funeral Home, 705 West 11 Mile Rd., Royal Oak. Burial will be in Grand Lawn Cemetery, Detroit.

Mrs. Arthur J. Wilsdon

Mrs. Arthur J. (Lusile F.) Wilson, 49, of 4531 Cass-Elizabeth Rd. died this morning at her home. She had been ill several years.

Born in Cricago, Ill. on Feb. 26, 1907, she was the daughter of Joseph H. and Florence Taylor of Pontiac.

Mrs. Wilsdon attended the University of Illinois and was a member of the Methodist Church. She came to the community from Dallas, Tex. two years ago.

Besires her husband, she is survived by her parents; a son, Richard T. Wilsdon who is attending Stanford University and a sister, Clarice Louise Cottington of Pontiac.

Arrangements will be announced later by the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.

To operate the vast army of mechanized equipment used each year in the pulpwood industry, it it estimated from 60 to 80 million gallons of gasoline and other liquid fuels are consumed.

Recovers Stolen Loot in Neighbor's Drive

An Independence Township woman recovered more than $10,000 in bonds and contracts this morning after one of her neighbors discovered a small strong box containing the valuables in his driveway last night.

Detective Harry Maur of the Oakland County Sheriffs Office, said that Edward Brisson, of 5926 Clarkston Rd., found the box at 10 p.m. The title on the securities showed that they belonged to Mrs. Helen Zeunen of 4550 Clarkston Rd.

The Zeunens had been attending a birthday party, said Maur, when their home was broken into and ransacked. The thieves used a club to break in a rear door of the house to gain entry. Mrs. Zeunen reported nothing else missing.

Woman Slightly Hurt in Two-Car Collision

Mrs. Margaret LeFeure, 60, of Honor, a passenger with her husband, Charles, 69, suffered minor bruises in a two-car collision last night on West Huron street and Chippewa road.

She was treated at Pontiac General Hospital.

City Seeking Source of Water Supply

RATES TO GO UP

In either case, residents would be faced with a rate increase from the present 11.6 cents average per thousand gallons, to approximately 20 cents, Willman said.

Reasons for the increase are the added purchase costs compared to providing water from city wells, and the cost of remodeling the present distribution system.

Despite the expected hike, Willman stressed that the "Pontiac water rate is one of the lowest existing water rates in the Middle West."

"And we must get industry's support regardless where we go, for it consumes 60 per cent of our water," he said.

TALKS TO BEGIN

Talks with top industry officials will begin soon, seeking their "guarantee" that they will buy whatever system is approved.

Once a decision has been reached, a two-year wait would result before Pontiac residents would get the water flowing into their homes.

Today 23 wells in the city, some recently drilled, are providing industry and home users with their water.

The county group, working in conjunction with the National Sanitation Committee, is preparing its study to avoid any overlapping or conflicting construction of the different communities seeking additional water sources, Willman said.

BELLEVILLE, Ill. (AP)—An Illinois Central passenger train plunged 20 feet down a muddy embankment early today when its rain-weakened roadbed gave way. Two passengers were injured fatally and 18 others were hospitalized.

One of the dead was Mrs. Orson Covell, North Platte, Neb., on her way with her husband to Jackson, Miss., to spend the Christmas holidays with their son, Richard, and his family. The other was Henry Hudson, 67, a farmer from Groverdale, Miss.

The train, bound from St. Louis to New Orleans, was crawling through a foggy, misty night toward Belleville, just across the Mississippi River from St. Louis.

A shifting roadbed, weakened by recent rains, was blamed by authorities for the derailment which occurred just after midnight.

Two coaches and a pullman were among the eight cars which toppled down the 20-foot embankment into the mud.

The 18 injured were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital and another 16 were treated and released.

Mrs. Covell died three hours after she was taken to the hospital. Hudson's death followed hers by a few hours.

Vandals Steal $275 at Avondale High

Thieves ransacked the Avondale High School, at 1435 Auburn Rd., Avon Township, early this morning and escaped with more than $275 according to the Oakland County Sheriffs Department.

School Superintendent Raymond Baker reported the theft after a janitor discovered the shambles at 6:30 a.m.

Baker told Sheriffs Detective Leo Hazen that the cash was the proceeds from a basketball game at the school last night. Hazen said the vandals entered by breaking a door window.

Detroit Youth Dies Following Auto Crash

Kenneth Miller, 18, of Detroit, died in William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak today of injuries received last Wednesday.

Miller was riding in a car that hit a tree in Southfield Township.

Purse Snatcher Hits Woman on Saginaw

A homeward-bound woman was robbed of her bag and $7.50 last night by a purse-snatcher on North Saginaw street, Pontiac police said.

Mrs. William E. Lewis, 48 Charlotte St. said the thug ran up behind her, toppled her packages to the sidewalk, grabbed the purse and escaped on foot.

He bumped into her, she said, but she was not thrown to the ground.

News Flashes

DETROIT (INS) — Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo and his wife, Ethel, were expected to arrive in Detroit by private plane late today from Tucson, Ariz. The special plane was ordered because of difficulty in moving Mrs. Cobo, who suffered fractures of the ankle and arm in two separate falls during the couple's month-long vacation.

PORT SAID, Egypt (AP)—The last two items of unfinished business before departure of British-French forces apparently were cleaned up today.

These were an exchange of prisoners and an announcement that the British salvage fleet will stay at Port Said to help clear the way for traffic through the Suez Canal.

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Six persons—a mother and five of her six small daughters—died early today in a residence fire which started when a space heater exploded, spreading flaming oil throughout the dining room.

The mother died in a futile attempt to rescue her daughters. The father and the couple's oldest daughter, Gloria, 15, escaped along with the children's paternal grandmother, who was seriously burned.

NEW YORK (AP) — An eight-pound, four-ounce daughter was born last night in Mt. Sinai Hospital to Carroll Baker, star of the controversial motion picture "Baby Doll."

ADD PG II NEWS FLASHES

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government today reported another slight rise in living costs—one-tenth of one per cent—during November.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said that net spendable earnings of factory workers and their buying power moved to an all-time high, more than offsetting the rise in retail prices.

Because of better health measures, Mexico's rate of population growth is up by almost one-third in the last eight years.

Masked Bandits Strike Twice

Same Pair Believed in Holdup Last Week; One Victim Slugged

Pontiac police link together two armed robberies last night netting $450 for a pair of masked bandits who escaped after slugging one victim and locking another in a rear room.

The same pair, wearing silk stockings over their heads and faces, staged a $90 grocery store believe.

holdup last Friday night, police

Last night they took $300 from the F. & W. Market, 62 Jackson St. and $150 from the Progressive Oil gas station, 477 S. Saginaw St.

The store employe, William Robare, 97 Peach St. was struck on the back of his head with the butt of one of the thugs' revolvers but was not seriously injured, Det. Insp. Clark M. Wheaton said.

Robare said one of the men, about six feet two and wearing a green mask over the lower portion of his face, ran into the store through a side door about 8:30 p.m., jumped over the counter and shoved the gun in Robare's face.

Robare said he turned around as ordered, was struck in the side of the face by the thug's fist, grabbed around the neck and dragged behind the meat counter, where he was struck with the gun.

He lay there semi-conscious, Robare said, as the bandit reached under the counter for a cigar box with the money. The masked man then left on foot without bothering to search the cash register, Robare said.

Police believe the other bandit was waiting in a get-away car outside. The partner, who is about five feet six, joined the taller man in the gas station holdup.

Attendant Arthur Sofian, 4887 Rose Dr. said the bandits entered through the front door at about 12:30 a.m., both wearing silk stocking masks and brandishing revolvers.

They ordered him into the rear room, which they locked, then took the money from the cash register and left.

Sofian was not injured, police said.

Wheaton said the same men held up the woman owner of the Center Street Market, 10 Center St. just before closing time a week ago.

A fourth stick-up this month occurred Monday night at Ridick's Pharmacy, 373 Franklin Rd. by a pair of youths with faces covered by rags. Wheaton said there is apparently no connection between the two teams of thugs.

$125 Stolen From Home

More than $125 in cash was taken from the home of Mrs. Archie Reid at 3315 Indianwood, Lake Orion, last night, according to Oakland County Sheriffs Department detectives. Thieves had ransacked both floors of the home they said.

The Day in Birmingham

Rain and Fog Mire Plans for Winter Sports Fans

BIRMINGHAM —Today's weather of fog and rain and 40 degree temperature routed holiday dreams for hundreds of Birmingham youngsters.

This is the day tentatively set by the Recreation Board for icing the outdoor rinks at Poppleton, Pembroke and St. James Parks and Quarton School.

Robert Kenning, assistant city manager said this morning, "Everything is ready as far as the city is concerned. All we need is a little cooperation from the weather man."

Skating continues at Eton artificial ice rink, but the other skating areas will await freezing weather.

Christmas skis and toboggans will be useless unless there is a decided change in the weather. The sled and ski slope at Cranbrook and 14 Mile roads remains green and grassy.

The Community House, Baldwin Public Library, and the Municipal Building have announced schedules for the holiday week.

Mrs. Effie Shaffer, director of Community House, said today it would be closed all day Monday as well as Christmas Day.

Her staff met this noon for a buffet luncheon, gift exchange and carolling.

City Hall will be closed Monday when all but vitally important employes such as police and fire department personnel will have the day off.

Jean Lloyd, head librarian of Baldwin Public Library, says that her organization would close at noon Monday, both Dec. 24 and Dec. 31.

About 20 City Hall staff women will be guests of Mrs. Grace Hughes, receptionist, at her home, 637 Wallace St., in her annual open house this afternoon after work.

Det. Lt. Merlin Holmquist said that Mable Nelson, 41, of 360 Englewood Ave., Detroit, entered a plea of guilty Wednesday before Municipal Judge John J. Gafill on charges of shoplifting.

She paid a fine of $50 and $15 court costs and was ordered to return the fur stole taken from the Himelhoch store sometime ago.

Lt. Holmquist said entrance was gained into the Colonial Barbershop at 965 East Maple Ave., last night through a rear door window. He said the shop was ransacked and $65 taken.

Past Chiefs of Pythian Sisters Temple No. 94 will meet next Friday at the home of Mrs. Florence Wilson, 892 Stanley St., at 8 p.m. Officers will be elected and the names of "Sunshine sisters" will be told.

Mrs. Grace A. Dickinson

Service for Mrs. Grace A. Dickinson, 72, of 19300 Appoline St., Detroit, who died Wednesday at her home, will be Saturday at 11 a.m. at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Burial will be in White Chapel cemetery.

A former Southfield resident, she was employed at the Birmingham Eccentric for many years.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Don Davis, with whom she lived, and Mrs. George P. Forbes of New York, and three sons, Arnold inson of Port Huron, and Dwight W. Smith of Detroit; James Dick- L. Dickinson Jr., of Birmingham.

County's Civil Defense Role Explained

Oakland County's role in the evacuation of Detroit was graphically portrayed last night by Peter McGillivray, member of Detroit Civil Defense Commission at a meeting of county CD officials in Birmingham.

The overall plan shows that Oakland County itself will have 253,800 persons in the evacuation area, and McGillivray goes on the assumption that city hall area of Detroit would be the target point, in an enemy attack.

Vital zones are set up in areas extending five, 10 and fifteen miles beyond that point, bringing in the northern extremity to 14 Mile road. The immediate territory, a so called buffer zone of over 192,000 population, is 10 miles beyond 14 Mile road.

The reception area would lie beyond this point. The plan as presented by McGillivray would have persons leaving Detroit pass through the buffer zone into other prearranged areas in the north.

The buffer zone would be a central moving point for cars headed to safety, in that to speed traffic, slow moving vehicles would be pulled off into side roads and streets to permit traffic from Detroit to continue.

The buffer zone would also serve as a gathering point for those persons who would be expected to return to the danger area for relief work.

D. S. Leonard spoke for Oak Park. Outlining the program they have inaugurated for relief in both enemy attack and tornados, he said that although newly organized, much progress has been made in Oak Park. They are making do with what equipment they have. "We even have converted the dog catchers' wagon into an emergency relief truck," he commented.

Others from the area reported on what their communities are doing. Vernon Horn of Royal Oak, CD director, said that he felt their group was among the best to be found in the state. He called their expensive working and training programs a constant activity among all groups, especially auxiliary police and firemen.

Chairman of the evening and of the county committee, Charles E. Cardon, asked Mrs. Virginia Warren of West Bloomfield Township to speak on the work of the welfare group. She said their own territory has 4,000 registered workers. They are being trained in such things as registration and information, mass feeding, emergency housing, and other forms of relief.

All are working closely with the American Red Cross to provide this service.

Dr. John Lambie of Birmingham backed Cardon in his suggestion that a county council be formed slating frequent meetings of this type.

Lewis C. Jarrendt, county director of Civil Defense described this as the best meeting he had ever attended and said that in his opinion it should become a county-wide feature.

He said that currently there are too many small units each working on its own plans and none of them are correlated.

"I believe," he said, "that for the sake of ourselves and our neighbors, we must get together and have a closely knit program where men from one community can in an emergency know exactly what to do in any other community. You must remember that at the beginning of this meeting we were told Civil Defense is something we will live with the rest of our lives."

Quick Peek at St. Nick Boy's Christmas Gift

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—David Stephens, 6, has been wearing bandages on his eyes for six weeks but the doctors granted a Christmas wish—he got a quick peek at Santa Claus.

The doctors permitted removal of the bandages the other day when Santa Claus came to visit, bringing a guitar for David. Next day the boy underwent a second operation for correction of detached retinas.

The doctors said it is possible, if all goes well, that the bandages can be removed by Christmas.

Tourist trains in Germany have multi-lingual attendants wearing black armbands with the language they speak in gold letters.

Internment Threat Faces Hungarians

By ENDRE MARTON

BUDAPEST (AP) — The Russian-backed Hungarian government has re-established the dreaded internment system under which thousands of people were jailed without trial during the Stalin era.

A decree issued by the Presidential Council said that "Persons whose activity or behavior endangers public order, especially production, can be placed under detention of public security." The maximum detention period was set at six months.

The decree did not mention internment but used instead the expression "detention for public security." It was not published in the government press, which is on sale to the population, but only in the official gazette, which has a very limited circulation.

The practice of detaining persons without trial was abolished in 1953 when Imre Nagy became prime minister for the first time. The abolition was a popular action.

Christen Models of Early Ships in Honor Rites

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — Full-scale duplicates of the three little ships that brought the first settlers to Jamestown were christened today in ceremonies marked by 17th century trappings and trumpetry.

And the vessels—the Susan Constant, the Godspeed, and the Discovery—were hailed as symbols of "our faith in the God who guides our destiny . . . (and) of our immortal American heritage."

The ships are also symbols of "our fathers' indomitable courage," said the principal speaker of the occasion, Samuel M. Bemiss of Richmond, president of the Virginia Historical Society.

It was 350 years ago today that the original three ships sailed from Blackwall, England, with the 104 rugged individuals who founded Jamestown, May 13, 1607. The three replicas will be anchored at Jamestown during next year's 350th anniversary observance.

Farm Population Drops

OMAHA—Between 1910 and 1956 the American farm population declined from 32,100,000 to 22,300,000. During the same period the country's total population swelled from 91,900,000 to 167,400,000.

Sallade to Challenge Democrat Dynasty?

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The leader of the "Young Turks" in the State Legislature hints he may be available for the Republican gubernatorial nomination in 1958.

Rep. George W. Sallade (R-Ann Arbor) told a news conference yesterday "the prospect of challenging the Democratic dynasty is becoming more attractive every day."

Asked: "Is your hat in the ring?" the 34-year-old book store owner replied: "Not yet."

"First," he said, "I want to be associated with a winning team and to see my party working on lines that will make it such."

Sallade headed a group of Republicans in the last legislative session who voted with the Democrats on some key issues. He won re-election to a second House term last November.

Sallade met recently with Republican legislators-elect and outlined a 10-point program he described as essential to rebuilding Republican fortunes in Michigan.

Breaks Finger Nail in Careening Auto

LOS ANGELES (AP) — When a woman driver lost control of her car on the Harbor Freeway, police reported, the vehicle crashed through a guard rail, plunged over a 30-foot ramp and landed upside down.

Mrs. Carrie Washington, 27, was angry as she climbed out.

"Darn," she said, "I broke a fingernail."

Police booked her on suspicion of drunk driving.

Cards Are a Problem for Mary Christmas

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Mary Christmas, a schoolteacher, says she has just about exhausted ways of making her Christmas greetings different, so she's mailing plain Christmas cards this year. In 1953 Miss Christmas mailed autographed photos as greetings. With her name that was all that was necessary.

"I'm playing it straight this year," she said. "Old-fashioned Christmas cards are the best after all."

Harriman Declines Bid to Inaugural

WASHINGTON (INS) — The 1957 inaugural committee said that Democratic Gov. Averell Harriman of New York declined an invitation to be an official guest at President Eisenhower's inauguration.

The committee said that Harriman, who unsuccessfully sought the Democratic nomination to run against Mr. Eisenhower, will be notified that he can send a representative.

Invitations were extended to 56 governors of the states and territories to attend the 1957 inaugural program. Of these, 19 already have accepted.

No Tax Reduction in Sight for Fiscal '58

Perhaps the most important issue facing the 85th Congress is the President's budget for fiscal 1958 to be revealed in mid-January.

The fiscal facts are against any cut in taxes in 1957. Last January President Eisenhower forecast spending $65.9 billion for the year beginning last July 1, and a surplus of $400,000,000. In August these figures were revised upwards to $69.1 billion and $700,000,000 respectively.

Now it appears that January's budget will show spending over $70 billion for the current year and higher for 1958. Whether the surplus forecast for either year exceeds $700,000,000 is questionable. Rep. Wilbur Mills, ranking Democrat on the House Ways and Means Committee, last week said that "numerous indications suggest that at best the surplus will be too small to permit tax reduction."

However, Congress can be expected to consider action on tax relief for small business, hit hard by tight credit. One proposal is to cut from 30 per cent to 20 the corporate tax rate on the first $25,000 of net income. Hearings now are being held in a House Ways and Means subcommittee into the technical and administrative problems of excise taxes. This year they will yield an estimated $10.8 billion in Federal revenue.

The Administration is expected to ask Congress to continue for another year the increase in the corporate income tax scale from 25 per cent to 30. Failure to extend this rate, as well as those on alcoholic beverages, cigarettes, gasoline and autos would cost the Treasury $3.2 billion.

The most controversial tax topic, of course, will be individual income revision. Democrats, says Congressional Quarterly, are certain to introduce a bill to shift the burden of taxation while attempting to maintain the same general level of Federal revenues. They may even force it to a vote. But that will be for the record only as there is no sign that either the President or GOP Congressmen will go along.

Finally, the rated increase in defense spending will militate against any reductions. Certainly the nation favors a top level defense program with Russia now brandishing a stick and talking big.

Exodus From Cities Our Opportunity

Effective next month, Wayne County Civil Service Commission will relax a 13-year rule which required county employes to live in Detroit or Wayne County. They will be permitted to live in counties adjacent to Wayne, including Oakland County.

It is not hard to understand why many may want to live in Oakland County. Yearly new thousands discover that our gently rolling terrain and lakes offer ideal sites for modern homes.

The exodus from big cities to smaller ones, and to the open country is not peculiar to this area. It is taking place all over the nation, coupled with the industrial trend to locate away from crowded areas. The Wayne decision is but another indication of the trend.

Employers realize that availability of desirable homes has a direct bearing on finding and keeping capable and contented workers. With the mobility offered by the automobile, wage earners will take their services to the areas which offer the best living opportunities for their families.

For this reason towns and rural areas which can offer the best in things Americans cherish — comfortable homes at fair prices, schools, roads, land for lawns and gardens — these areas can expect both rapid and stable growth in the years just ahead.

Cities, towns and townships in Oakland County can profit from this great change in American living habits. We have the land and other natural advantages. We must continue to supply good planning and wise government, at an acceptable price.

The Man About Town

Feel Differently

Being Born on Christmas Seen by Those Who Were

Mad: What a man gets when his wife tells him he's wrong when he already knew he was wrong.

"Never again will I be born on Christmas," says the childish handwriting in a letter from

Cynthia Arthur,

with a Rochester postmark. She continues, "They give me only one present for both occasions." But a more mature opinion comes from

of Waterford, born on Dec. 25, 1877, who says, "I always have felt highly honored that I was born on the most sacred day in the calendar."

Quite unique in a Christmas greeting is the collection of original poems which

George A. Cram

of 15 Miami Road is sending out. Another doing the same thing is

Robert C. Beattie

of 3557 West Walton Boulevard.

Seldom have we heard more commendation for a feature than that of the "Birth and Times of Christ," now running in these columns.

"My only peeve on Christmas shopping in Pontiac," phones

Mrs. Genevieve Hascall

of Rochester, "is that many people in the crowds do not observe the rule of walking to the right on the streets or in the stores."

The Santa Claus letter that tops them all in the pure Christmas spirit, and also pays Man About Town his greatest compliment, comes from

"Bonnie Louise,"

with no further name or address. It says, "My daddy tells me you're Santa Claus. Please give all the good children on Iroquois Road and everywhere else all that they want for Christmas. As for me, my parents give me everything."

One of our happiest pre-Christmas experiences is receiving the news that our longtime friend,

Mark Foote,

Washington correspondent for the Booth newspapers, for the fourth time has won the Newsweek political poll. Mark predicted that Ike would get 460 electoral votes in last month's election. He received 457. He estimated Stevenson at 71. He received 74.

If you don't want to change your mind, don't talk to

of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce. He's almost convinced me that the proposed super highway through our city, along the Grand Trunk tracks, would be a good thing for us. It looked crazy to me when first suggested.

Dismantling a private zoo near Cleveland, the uncle of of Auburn Heights asks him if he'll accept a small boa constrictor for a Christmas present. But Garry declines. He's afraid it might grow into a neighborhood problem.

Long Time No See

David Lawrence Says:

'Equal Time' on Air Rule a Threat

WASHINGTON — Few people realize that, although the Constitution plainly says that Congress shall make no law abridging the freedom of the press, there is a statute on the books which dictates to the editors of television and radio programs that they must provide facilities for certain persons to make speeches under certain conditions.

The National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters has just asked Congress to repeal this law, which requires radio and television stations to grant "equal time" to political candidates. It is surprising that the radio companies have operated so long under this statute without challenging its constitutionality.

For the danger in that law has been pointed out again and again. In fact, this writer as far back as 1934, when the present law was passed, noted that the way had been opened for government control of newspapers and periodicals, too, through the precedent then established.

The theory back of the law is that, whenever the government grants a license, it has the right to specify how the license shall be operated and to impose other conditions.

If such a line of reasoning were correct, then the government could order newspapers and magazines to give "equal space" to political candidates and parties on the ground that the second-class mail privileges which such publications enjoy are also a form of license and that, before privileges are granted, certain conditions and terms may be imposed.

The amazing thing is that the country has not reacted in protest against the manner in which the editors of television and broadcasting programs have been ordered from time to time by the government in Washington to allocate program space — all on the basis that the government has derived such a right because it issues the licenses.

When licensing of radio stations was first begun, Congress inserted in the law a clause that made "public interest, convenience and necessity" the standard for the granting of licenses. But this was construed in 1933 by Chief Justice Hughes, in an opinion of the Supreme Court, to relate solely to mechanical considerations.

He said: "This criterion is not to be interpreted as setting up a standard so indefinite as to confer an unlimited power."

In 1943, however, in a 5-to-3 decision written by Justice Frankfurter, the Supreme court took the position that Congress had complete power to regulate every phase of the industry. This unfortunate decision negates the bill of rights insofar as radio and television are concerned.

There has been, of course, always a rightful need to prevent conflicts in wave lengths and to allocate facilities so there will be efficient service in specific areas. But from this doctrine has since come a whole system of control. While pretending not to influence program content, actually all this does indirectly affect such programming.

Likewise, instead of auctioning off facilities to the highest bidder as is the custom with the sale or leasing of other federal property, the government goes through a rather devious and doubtful procedure in which it attempt to evaluate the quality of "leadership" a prospective recipient of the license may give in the community.

Some day the whole basis under which the government privileges are extended to those who operate such facilities commercially will come under scrutiny by Congress to determine if the Federal Government is deriving the revenue it is entitled to get from the issuance of such licenses. Second-class mail rates are periodically reviewed by Congress but there is no fee paid for television and radio licenses.

It is precisely because these licenses are "free" that Congress feels it can demand "free" time for political candidates.

The broadcasting industry would be far better off in its fight for constitutional protection if it offered to pay a regular fee for its licenses. It could then argue persuasively for a complete abandonment of all controls except for the necessary regulation of mechanical factors to avoid conflict in the air waves. Any law or rule dictating program content violates the Constitution.

LI'L ONES

"—and I always did my homework and studied hard and—"

Dr. William Brady Says:

Ear Specialist Backs Up Formula for Boric Drops

Last week I tossed into the chucker all the letters received to date from people who declare that the ear drops I recommended (in pamphlet on Chronic Running Ear, for which send stamped envelope bearing your address) have stopped the trouble.

Heretofore many readers who tried to get the ingredients for the drops have encountered the usual difficulty in purchasing them in the drugstore. It seems that the clerk's suspicion is aroused immediately if a customer has the temerity to ask for ten grains of boric acid—such a quaint request is almost certainly inspired by the egregious Doctor Brady.

From now on it will be comparatively easy to prepare the drops for chronic running ear. I don't know why I never thought of this before, but I didn't and I'm sorry.

I learned about it from the aurist (ear specialist) who recently treated me, successfully, for an alarming six weeks' deafness in my good ear—it was alarming because I've worried along since I was a boy in Canandiagua with one good ear, and if the good ear goes bad, I'm stuck.

I told the aurist about the extraordinary efficacy of the drops, with which, of course, he is familiar.

SAYS NOTHING BETTER

He said his experience indicates that there is probably nothing better, not even any of the wonder drugs. I mentioned the difficulty readers have in getting the ingredients. Of course, under the law druggists can't dispense or sell even an ounce or half an ounce or a spoonful of alcohol (grain alcohol, dilute alcohol, ethyl alcohol) without a prescription.

Why bother with that? The aurist suggested the use of ordinary rubbing alcohol (denatured alcohol) without prescription, and dissolve as much boric acid powder or crystals as one can take up on a dime in two tablespoonfuls of rubbing alcohol. That's just as good as anything the doctor may order.

I do hope this announcement will stave off further communications like this one, turned over to me by another department:

Dear Editor:

"I am inquiring whether Doctor Brady is truly a medical doctor or just another quack.

Through your newspaper, in which his column appears, I received a per (sic) scription for a certain type of ear infection."

"I have tried several pharmacists and they all refuse to fill this per (sic) scription. They claim he is a phony and to save their business they must refuse.

"Tell me, then, what is the purpose of this phony column?"

Respectfully,

The truth is, I suppose, that this column has no purpose, for knuckleheads. For people who can read and understand simple English, it is worth at least a glance in passing.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

Pleased With Statement Ziegler Won't Run Again

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

The people of the state of Michigan received the best news they've had in a long time when they got the statement that Highway Commissioner Charles Ziegler would not seek re-election. He should see the handwriting on the wall by this time, as much as he has been criticized for doing nothing in his 13 years in Lansing.

Voters, we must put an engineer in this time who will build roads instead of just talking about them. You know the autos are increasing by the thousands each year, but no road improvements are made to meet the car population.

I personally feel we should put the pressure on Pat VanWagoner to run for this office, as he proved to be the best highway commissioner this state has ever had. VanWagoner got more roads built in his one term than Ziegler has in 13 years. Republicans, you have done such a rotten job in your selection of state highway candidates, it's time you got behind a good Democrat. Don't you think so?

'Parker May Get Cry Baby Label'

I think Buddy Parker is the best pro football coach in the business. I hope he signs with the Lions for another year. But if he isn't careful, he's going to be labeled the Cry Baby of Pro Football.

Many years ago, the Cleveland Indians won the same "title" and they didn't live it down for several years. I remember the first time they played in Detroit after the label had been plastered on them. There were baby shoes, baby carriages and nursing bottles hung around the park from the facing of the first deck and when the Cleveland team ran on the field for the first inning, everybody in the park began to cry out loud and weep and wail.

You have to be a good sport in defeat. The movies show Layne was not slugged. He was cleanly tackled. It is time Coach Parker acted his age and began figuring on how to beat the Bears next year instead of pouting and playing the big cry baby scene.

Discord Cracks Armor of the Communist Empire

By JOHN H. MARTIN
(INS Foreign Director)

Valorous little Hungary fights on against Bolshevist rule — despite military drumhead death courts standing patriots before firing squads.

Hungary fights with no hope of outside aid—except the U.N. moral pressure which the Soviets and their Moscow-trained puppets scorn.

But other cracks are showing in the Red empire besides the big holes revealed in suffering Hungary.

WRATHFUL STUDENTS

In Poland the Reds, who are trying to steer a nationalistic road not completely subservient to Moscow, have called out their army to guard Soviet installations against wrathful students and other anti-Communists demonstrating in sympathy with Hungary

* * *

In East Germany the Reds have put armed guards in various universities throughout the Soviet occupation zone. Repeated warnings to the students reflect Communist fear of another explosion.

Baltic states: Considerable unrest is admitted by Moscow in the three states of Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania. These are the small countries Moscow seized before World War II. Russia is deporting what it calls "undesirable elements," including Jews.

Czechoslovakia: People in this country bordering Hungary have shown more docility during the turmoil and tragedy next door. But some student unrest is appearing, reflected in expulsions from schools in Prague. A pro-Hungarian demonstration in Bratislava has been suppressed.

Albania: In this smallest but most Bolshevized satellite there have been clashes between peasants and Red police.

Romania: Hundreds of students have been deported after demonstrations in the capital of Bucharest and in the Transylvania district heavily populated by Hungarians.

Bulgaria: Students have been expelled from Sofia University because of expressions of sympathy with Hungarian freedom fighters.

Dr. Crane Doubts Comics Harmful

Should comic books and newspaper comic strips be censored? Have you readers ever seen children go wrong because of so-called crime comics? Remember, 40 million kids read them steadily, so don't cite an occasional delinquent as an evidence that comics promote crime. Taverns do far more harm to youth than even the worst comics!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case T-353: Nicholas Bohling is the very popular Alderman from my ward.

Earlier this year I gave the dedication address when the new South Shore YMCA was opened in our part of Chicago.

Alderman Bohling was present and at the end of the program, he asked:

"Dr. Crane, would it be possible for you to attend our City Council Meeting some day soon?

"The mayor is interested in the comic book situation and we should like to have your comments on the subject."

WHAT ABOUT COMICS

A great many parents and teachers have become alarmed at the contents of many comic books nowadays.

Some of these books depict crime and vulgarity so they are not the ideal type of reading material for modern youth.

Yet comics are the most widely read literature nowadays by our youth. I read them myself and enjoy them.

And our five children have read them all throughout childhood. We have had to make a book rack on the bathroom door to hold the constant influx of comic books.

It is interesting to note that for several past generations parents have been protesting against the type of reading material favored by their youth.

At the beginning of this 20th Century, educators and teachers railed against the dime novels then in vogue.

"Dead-Eye Dick" and "Nick Carter" and the like had to be read furtively, when parents weren't looking, because fastidious mothers and fathers vetoed such literature as vulgar and low-brow.

"HORSE SENSE"

Even though we psychologists admit that some comic books as well as some comic strips in newspapers are not as good as others, we are slow to advocate censorship of printed matter.

For it is a dangerous thing to let freedom of speech and freedom of the printed page be hamstrung.

Like the story of the Arab and his camel, which gradually got its nose and then its neck and forefoot and finally all of its body into the tent, so the insidious onset of press censorship can be hard to stop.

Who is to do the censoring? And what standards are to be set up as "good" vs. "bad?"

Those are difficult questions. Personally, I haven't seen any evidence that my five children have been hurt by reading any kind of comics, good or bad, and they must have read plenty of the so-called bad comics.

If children are reared in a normal type of home where attendance at church or Sunday School is the rule, and if the parents lend their emphasis to sound youth groups like the Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, etc., then I don't believe even the worst comics exert any significant effect for badness.

It isn't so much the reading matter that makes children delinquent as it is the poor example set by adults in their own homes and communities.

Remember, some of the worst influences on modern youth are the so-called better class citizens who belong to ritzy country clubs and churches and servicemen's clubs, but who drink and gamble and two-time their wives.

Much of the furore about bad comics is a tempest in a teapot.

It is a red herring that diverts attention from the far more critical issues of taverns, gambling, a 16-year continual military drafting of American teenage boys, and other items that are far worse than even the bad comics.

Kids have more "horse sense" than a lot of adults give them credit for. They can sift pretty well when they read comics.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Bank of Detroit Plans Building

12-Story Headquarters to Occupy City Block in Downtown Area

DETROIT (INS) — The National Bank of Detroit has announced that construction of its new 12-story headquarters in the downtown area will start early in 1957.

Bank President Charles T. Fisher, Jr., said the structure should be ready for occupancy by the spring of 1958.

The new building will cost $15 million instead of the $12 million estimate made in March, 1955, when the bank announced its original plans.

Fisher said the new building will be rectangular in shape and of contemporary design. It will become a part of the civic center, rising an entire city block and facing Woodward, Congress, Griswold and Fort.

Part of the site of the 67-year-old Hammond Building and the bankers-equitable building will be occupied by the structure. The entire site is expected to be cleared by March.

National has 56 offices in Metropolitan Detroit and is the 11th largest bank in the nation.

Escapees Swamp Warm-Hearted Austria

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Austria is a small, neutral country of seven million sympathetic people, less than the number of residents of New York City. And, as of this week, they have bedded, boarded and patched up more than 140,000 Hungarians.

Among those frantic, fleeing refugees are many of the best doctors, teachers and schooled technicians of their country. It stands to reason that, with the cream of their citizenry escaping from Soviet domination, unnumbered thousands more will follow.

"Hungary has a population of 9,600,000 people," said Sidney Shore, who has just returned from a survey of jam-packed Austria. "That means only an infinitesmal percentage of the potential refugees have escaped over the border.

"At the rate of more than 1,000 escapees a day still coming across the line, nobody knows what will become of Austria. Already every spare foot of sheltered space is used up, and they're talking about pitching tents.

"But do you know how cold it gets in the winter in Austria? It would be horrible!"

REFUGEE AGENCY

Shore is one of the young, gentle-faced workers in the hysterical New York office of ICEM (Inter-Governmental Committee for European Migration), which has taken over much of the job of moving the refugees to countries of asylum as quickly as possible.

To the left of his desk, on which the sad case histories of refugees are clumped into manila folders, is a blackboard. It lists the departure and arrival times of planes headed out of Austria for the United States — also specifies the number of "passengers," "orphans" and "specials." "Specials" are the infirm.

" You can see," said Shore, "we've moved them out as fast as possible, and have succeeded in getting about half the refugees so far out of Austria.

"But they come in faster than any agencies can get them out — in one 24-hour period, 8,500 refugees crossed the border. And nobody has any idea how long this'll go on."

It is assumed that the majority of the Hungarians would prefer to come to the United States rather than go to any of the 28 other countries which have offered asylum. How do they handle this situation in Austria?

EARLY BIRD WINS

"It's a raffle, all right, and generally it's first come-first served. Generally speaking, the people who have relatives over here are sure to be assigned to the U. S., because we know they'll be taken care of.

"In other cases, it's the people who are able to get in to the U. S. Consulate first, and state their preference.

"Usually," Shore went on, "the consulate will take them. There's been only about 1 per cent rejection among the people who've asked to come here.

"That 1 per cent 'turned down' are the Hungarians who previously had applied to the U.S. for entrance and been rejected — and Hungarians with known Communist affiliations."

To add to Austria's problems of over-population, they are saddled with more than 2,400 Communists and political prisoners from Hungary.

FIRST TO FLEE

"The first flock of people escaping over the border into Austria were Communists fleeing from the freedom fighters, and prisoners who were freed from jail by the freedom fighters.

"They were spotted by the Austrians, of course, and immediately interned. Now they can go back if they want to.

"In fact, the Austrians wish they would. But —" and Sidney Shore shrugged "— they prefer the safety of jail in a nice, neutral country.

"Only 80 of the 2,500 Communists have elected to go back to their hot little homes."

One Hitchhiker in Time for Yule

Santa Delivers the Goods

NEWAYGO (AP) — As far as Jack Millard's parents are concerned, Santa Claus is a Muskegon motorist who drove 70 miles out of his way to bring their soldier son on the last leg of a 4,500-mile Christmas trip.

But, they're sorry the excitement of the joyous reunion allowed the benefactor to slip away unidentified.

Army specialist 3-c Jack Millard 20, tells it this way:

He arrived at Muskegon Airport after a 36-hour air trip from his duty station in Germany, planning to surprise Mr. and Mrs. Ray Millard with his 30-day leave.

Millard had financed the trip by saving $450 from his Army pay since May, 1955. A telephone call from the airport to his home received no answer. With $10 in his pocket, he started hitchhiking.

He was picked up by a motorist who said he was driving only a few blocks. Casual conversation disclosed Millard's story and the motorist insisted on driving him to Newaygo — about 35 miles.

Millard said the driver, who stayed long enough to view the surprise meeting, departed with the comment:

"Well, I've had my Christmas present now."

Loses Wallet Between Summer and Winter

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Edwin Galas wasn't being lackadaisical when he advertised the loss of his wallet between summer and winter.

Galas, who lives on Spring St., advertised he lost the wallet — containing his driver's license and other papers — somewhere in a two-block stretch between Summer and Winter Avenues early this week.

The National Safety council estimates the annual financial loss to the nation from accidents on the farm averages about $275 per farm family, and the average is rising.

No Yule Leave at City Hospital

Public Welfare Takes Priority Over Desires of Individuals

The Board of Trustees of Pontiac General Hospital last night rejected a request that city hospital employes receive half-day vacations Dec. 24 and 31 as already approved for city employes.

The request was submitted by Local 100 of the Governmen tand Civic Employes Organizing Committee, AFL-CIO.

Board Chairman William P. Babcock said the request should be denied as "hospital employes are like and police and firemen in that they work for the public's welfare."

The City Commission has approved Christmas and New Years holidays beginning at noon the preceding days for most city employes. Those that must work will receive compensatory time.

Board members also turned down an individual vacation request for Dec. 24 as it was against hospital policy of no vacations or time off from Dec. 15 until Jan. 5.

With this rule in mind, Mrs. B. B. Roush asked that a reported vacation to one hospital employe, allegedly to have begun Dec. 16, be investigated.

Armless Little Girl Shot in Rifle Mishap

CLOVIS, N.M. (AP)—Nanette Baldridge, 5, who lost both arms after an accident last year, was in critical condition today for the second time in her short life.

Nanette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baldridge, who live on a farm near Portales, was wounded in the head yesterday when a .22 rifle discharged accidentally.

She was visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Baldridge, on their farm. The grandfather placed her in his pickup truck and was about to drive off when the rifle, on a rack behind the seat, discharged. The bullet ricocheted, striking Nanette.

PATIENTS GIVE PAGEANT — Christmas at Pontiac State Hospital is special to patients, employes and to the community. Here three patients bearing gifts prove their desire to give as well as to receive. Through the Recreational Therapy Department, the patients have planned a program which will be presented at various times during the holidays for patients remaining in the hospital, for employes and for members of the community participating in the Volunteers' Program.

Patients at State Hospital Decorating Halls for Yule

By JUDITH CLEMENCE

You wouldn't believe you're in a hospital. It's like a Christmas Fairyland. Every Hall at Pontiac State Hospital is decorated — decorated by the patients with the assistance of attendants and nurses.

When you go through these wards where everything seems cheery and rooms have the warmth of a real home, you think back to a time not too many years ago. Or at least you remember how people felt about those "asylums" and the people who were "put away" there.

But that no longer is reality, the real thing is here before you . . . in a hospital which not only provides necessities for their patients, but provides those other things so necessary to all . . . understanding and guidance.

All departments in the hospital work together to bring about this kind of relationship, just as they are doing this Christmas. There isn't a department that hasn't planned some activity for the patients during the holiday season, and every ward in the entire hospital is merry with the Christmas spirit.

Patients not only receive at Christmas time, but they are allowed to give — very important in their treatment. Hospital authorities handle mailing and checking of these packages and cards, knowing what it means to the patients.

There'll be lots of patients going home for Christmas, but for these who must remain, there's a turkey dinner to equal home cooking.

And all through the week, there's musical programs, dancing and parties given by the hospital and community groups and organizations interested in the hospital program. On Christmas day, awarding prizes for the best decorated halls will be carried out.

Among the parties already held was the buffet luncheon held by the Psychodrama group under the direction of the Social Service Department. Approximately 100 patients participated and "The Girls' Trio" from Mt. Clemens came to sing for them.

The children at Pontiac State Hospital are given many parties by volunteers who work throughout the year with them. They began the season's activities with the Pontiac Christmas parade, riding on one of the floats.

Dr. Ivan A. LaCore, medical superintendent, points to the progress made within the hospital and in the community response to the hospital. "It is remarkable how the number of volunteers keeps increasing. It is dissolving the wall between the hospital and the community. It is our desire to dissolve this wall entirely," Dr. LaCore stated.

The psychiatrist further pointed out that no patient would be left without a gift under the Christmas tree Tuesday morning. If there are no relatives, employes arrange for the patients' gifts, he said.

A heartening note is felt when Dr. LaCore relates that there are fewer patients in the hospital at this season then ever before. This he attributes to the work convalescent program which enables the patient to leave the hospital sooner and work under supervision, and to the fact that the hospital is working with relatives to help them in the understanding of the patient.

Whatever the answers are, it is encouraging to see a hospital administration which believes first in the patient and his well-being. And relatives of patients say that they know their loved ones are best cared for at Pontiac State Hospital.

Millard Back Home After an Operation

FLINT (AP) — Frank G. Millard, the Army's general counsel, returned home yesterday from Ann Arbor's University Hospital, where he underwent an operation Dec. 7 for removal of a lung tumor.

Millard, a Republican, was Michigan attorney general from 1951 to 1954 and once was Flint's city attorney. He lost a bid for re-election to state office and shortly thereafter joined the Eisenhower administration in Washington.

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield, also a Flint resident, recently underwent an operation at University Hospital for a throat ailment.

Papers Ignore Stalin Even on His Birthday

MOSCOW (AP)— Moscow newspapers today ignored the 77th anniversary of the birth of Joseph Stalin, discredited dictator of the Soviet Union. There were no photographs nor any mention of him.

A year ago, before "de-Stalinization," three and four column pictures of Stalin were splashed on the front pages of Moscow newspapers on his birthday.

One 200-pound hog yields about 15 pounds of sausage meat.

Bob Considine Says:

Japanese and Americans Fly Side by Side

TOKYO (INS) — Gen. Genda is coming up to 57 years of age under anybody's calendar. He was one of the bright young Japanese who planned the attack on Pearl Harbor 15 years ago, and then went through with the audacious thing.

Today he flies an American Sabrejet—F86—better than almost anybody else in the Japanese Air Force, of which he is operations chief. He says it is a great interim fighter.

He is looking forward to our delivery to his air force of the F100, the first operational supersonic fighter. After that, he and other Japanese airmen are sure that Japan's aeronautical engineering will produce the authentic Japanese jet which will take its place with anything anybody else can make, as the Zero once held its own against the best Allied fighters.

The Japanese Air Force is slowly but surely taking over the costly defense of Japan from the Americans. Eventually, it will be made up of 27 interceptor squadrons of 25 fighters each and 6 transport squadrons. That will be in 1961.

Gen. Larry Kuter's Far East Air Force Command will move out of here next summer, and elements of our 5th Air Force will stay a bit longer. But in the end, it will be Japanese who are defending Japan, and from the looks of things they'll be defending U.S. interests, too.

COMRADES TODAY

Japanese and American boys, whose older brothers or perhaps they themselves were mortal enemies so few years ago, now have learned to fly wingtip to wingtip in the perennial and endless alerts that abound in this land, so far as airmen are concerned.

Our F100s are on constant alert, 24 hours a day. We maintain in Japan perhaps the finest radar defense known in the world. It is manned jointly by the Japanese and our Air Force specialists. They have some interesting times.

It seldom makes the papers, or we forget, but our 4th Wing stationed at Chitose Air Force Base, to the north, is precisely four jet minutes flying time away from a crack Russian Air Force base in the Kuriles.

The Reds have their best stuff at their base, MIG17s, sub—and perhaps supersonic fighter-bombers, and the like. Chitose abounds in "hot scrambles." The "ready room" at the base is generally filled. The call can come at the least likely hours of day or night.

The restlessly sweeping radar screens have picked up Russian planes headed for Chitose. A minor period of waiting is observed, then the bell rings and—of late—Japanese boys, trained here and in the U.S., hotfoot it for their planes and take off.

WINGS WAGGLED

What happens aloft is something else. A Red Air Force plane or commercial job is spotted, and we waggle our wings to suggest that it is off course.

We say, in international air language, "Show that you've made an honest mistake by lowering your landing gear or turning away."

"So far, they've always turned away. So far, too, they've found that FEAF is always ready, and that recently there have been Japanese boys who are ready, also.

It's eyeball to eyeball, in this part of the world. And we have as our ally in this eyeballing the selfsame nation we fought at such pain and expense.

Many of the Japanese pilots are former navy boys. Some were Kamikaze kids who somehow lived and did not become Tokyo taxi drivers. All are hot.

Their aeronautical engineers now assemble the F86 from plans from the parent North American Company but with components largely forged or shaped in Japan by Japanese. Soon there will be a Japanese jet engine.

They have had only one death in all this jet training, and an American boy was at the controls of the T33.

These Shoes Cost Half a Month's Pay

By KATHARINE CLARK

BUDAPEST (INS)—This is not just revolt. It's revolt and evolution and the industrial, mechanical age and the plane and the atomic bomb all mixed up with man and his dignity—or lack of it. It's a capsule of history.

I hear sentences we read as children but said here as new and newly thought, daringly presented. Snickers and laughter at mouthings of Leninism—and all for the first time. For the first time at least for the boy who says them.

I tell Steve "for God's sake, stop helping the opposition" and he laughs and laughs. "Capitalism! that's what they told us about it but OK, OK, OK,—I get you. We work for our pay and that's what our pay guides us to do or not to do.

"But I like it anywhow. I like the pay to buy shoes that are good. The ones I wear cost a thousand forints—more than half a month's pay where I used to work."

For him, it's economic. "We're a proud and wonderful people. We are better than the Arabs but I saw Egyptian journalists who had cars all their own. An Arab with a car! And I am a high-ranking writer—one of the intellects — of Hungary!"

And then he quotes Marx and Lenin and long lines of nothings. And this time for him they are just that—just nothings. Before, when he lived in his shut-up-world he tried to make the words real and he used to get angry and hurt and frustrated if challenged.

Now, maybe he's hungry and maybe he's scared—and maybe he should be scared—but he's freer than when I first knew him. He is almost all the way free because his mind is at work and he doesn't lie to himself. He may hate or like but he won't lie anymore—not to himself or his wife or to me whom he thinks of as his mother.

And so we mustn't lie to him or to them. I don't anymore. They ask at the factories or in the streets or come to my room — "Will you help?" "What things the world?" "Will they ever go?"—and I tell them the truth — the truth as I see it. That I just don't know. But I promise to think of them.

"Think of us when you go away." They say it again and again.

No man wants to live without an audience, not such big parts of his life anyhow as being born and married and having a child—and becoming free.

"Don't forget us—don't forget us—we need to know that you think of us. That you remember—that you like us or hate us or trust us or fear us—but keep us within the world. Not again the gloomy vacuum, locked and the key withheld, the shut-in world—the world of all lies and mixed-ups and not being sure of who is your friend who is your foe."

So don't forget them, please. If you do, I have failed. I am the link between you out there and this new - born, struggling-to-be-free man. They ask me to tell you and you ask me to explain.

But I'm not very good because I'm here and not there. My body is here, my ears hear what they say and, I hope, my heart does know. But I have fears—my feet that are tired, my own twenty-four hours. Maybe I forgot to tell you of them or maybe the words are said but not the meaning.

What is "hunger" and "fear" or "shaking with rage?" What do they mean when you say them in words. Tired, old, used-so-much words.

But they do mean something. When the police pushed me, I shook. My legs and my arms and my head and my hands—they shook and shook with rage, with fury, with frustration because I couldn't shove back.

I am just as scared when the time comes as all the other bugs—running and running. Except I am running toward steaks and cream and butter and a drink when I want it—my Christmas, my Christmas! My own bed. My anything that's mine. Away from here.

It's hard to stand still and say "shake with rage" in a tone which will make you listen. To say it slowly and carefully and get your attention and make you see and feel and understand.

But that's what we owe to these people. I owe it to make you listen and you owe it to stop and really hear. To understand and to feel it, and to shake too. And to see that it could be the same with you. The twenty-four hours that you must get through somehow but are a nothing without an outline, the definition given by feeling and loving and sympathizing. It's the hand you don't see but can feel—the echo coming back of yourself from another—that a man must have.

Can we do it? Can we? Can you, all others at home in the world promise not to forget but to think and think of these people—of their fears and their hopes and their hates and their loves—of their twenty-four hours?

Defeathered Parakeet Won't Reveal Culprit

SEATTLE (AP) — An aprtment prowler's target baffled Jack Hansen. He took all the feathers from Hansen's pet parakeet.

"And the feathers were left on the floor behind my desk," Hansen added. "Nothing else was touched. Who would do a thing like that?"

As for the parakeet, it wasn't talking.

333 Foreign Ships

DETROIT (INS) — The J. W. Westcott Co. has reported that 333 foreign ships passed from Lake Erie into the Detroit River during the shipping season just ended. The figure is 19 passages greater than during the 1955 season.

Has Birthday Party for the Baby Jesus

TROY, N. Y. (AP)—Eleven-year-old Linda Coons wrote to the Troy Record that she had held a "birthday party" for the "baby Jesus" every year since she heard the Christmas story in first grade five year ago.

The Coons family has a birthday cake each Christmas and sings "happy birthday" instead of saying grace.

Linda wondered whether she was "too big" to continue the custom.

Today, the newspaper replied editorially that there's "nobody too old" for such an observance, and "too many of us forget what Christmas means."

Decorations Lend Gaiety

By JOAN RITTER

Ingenuity is the word for Christmas home decorations. If you aren't too busy in the rush of last minute Christmas shopping or clothes buying for the youngsters, take a breather and make your home look pretty on a budget.

A few sprays of green with red bows and several small decorative bulbs 'falling' from the bow, can brighten your home and put all visitors in the holiday mood.

Christmas cards can be used in a variety of ways to add a touch of Christmas and individuality to the home. Cards scotch-taped at an angle on long streamers are cheery looking. The streamers can be hung from the very top of the fireplace to the bottom.

Cards can also be taped along the archways in the living room or recreation room, or where you have the tree. French doors are pretty, too, with cards taped along them at an angle.

Styrofoam cut in the shape of a tree can be a pretty centerpiece. Tape cards here too for added color. And those small plastic tree frames, obtainable in the five-and-ten, can be trimmed with cards. Tape them by a corner to the branches of the tree.

DECORATE DOORS

For front doors, there are numerous decorative ideas. Stencils can be snow-blown on the front door glass or the windows. A ribbon taped vertically and one horizontally on the front door with a bow near the handle gives the appearance of a giant Christmas package.

Wreaths are the perennial favorites for front door decorations. They can be made from a double circle of strong wire, with greens wired to the frame and with a large red bow. Mistletoe in the center of the bow will draw comment (!!!) too.

One interesting treatment of a door wreath seen this year was the use of large bulbs hanging from the bow. The bulbs had an extra touch of decoration — the curls from a copper mesh pan cleaner were wound around them for added glitter.

Another note of festivity for the entranceway of your home is the spelling out of the words Merry Christmas in mystic tape on the porch at your door.

PLAN MANTEL SCENE

Mantel treatment also can be varied. Some homes use only a small creche for mantel decorations. If there's a mirror over the fireplace use a can of snow or white chalk to paint the "Star in the East" over the crib scene.

Or greens, just laid on the mantel with vari-colored and sized bulbs on the green flanked by small milk glass vases or candleholders, can be effective decorative treatment.

And don't be afraid of using a simple crystal fishbowl, left over from heaven knows where, for the mantel or table centerpiece. Fill it with bulbs or vari-colored candies, nestle the bowl in greens laid on the mantel, spread over with a bit of angel hair, that soft silky decorative stuff, for the 'snow look.'

IDEAS FROM ABROAD

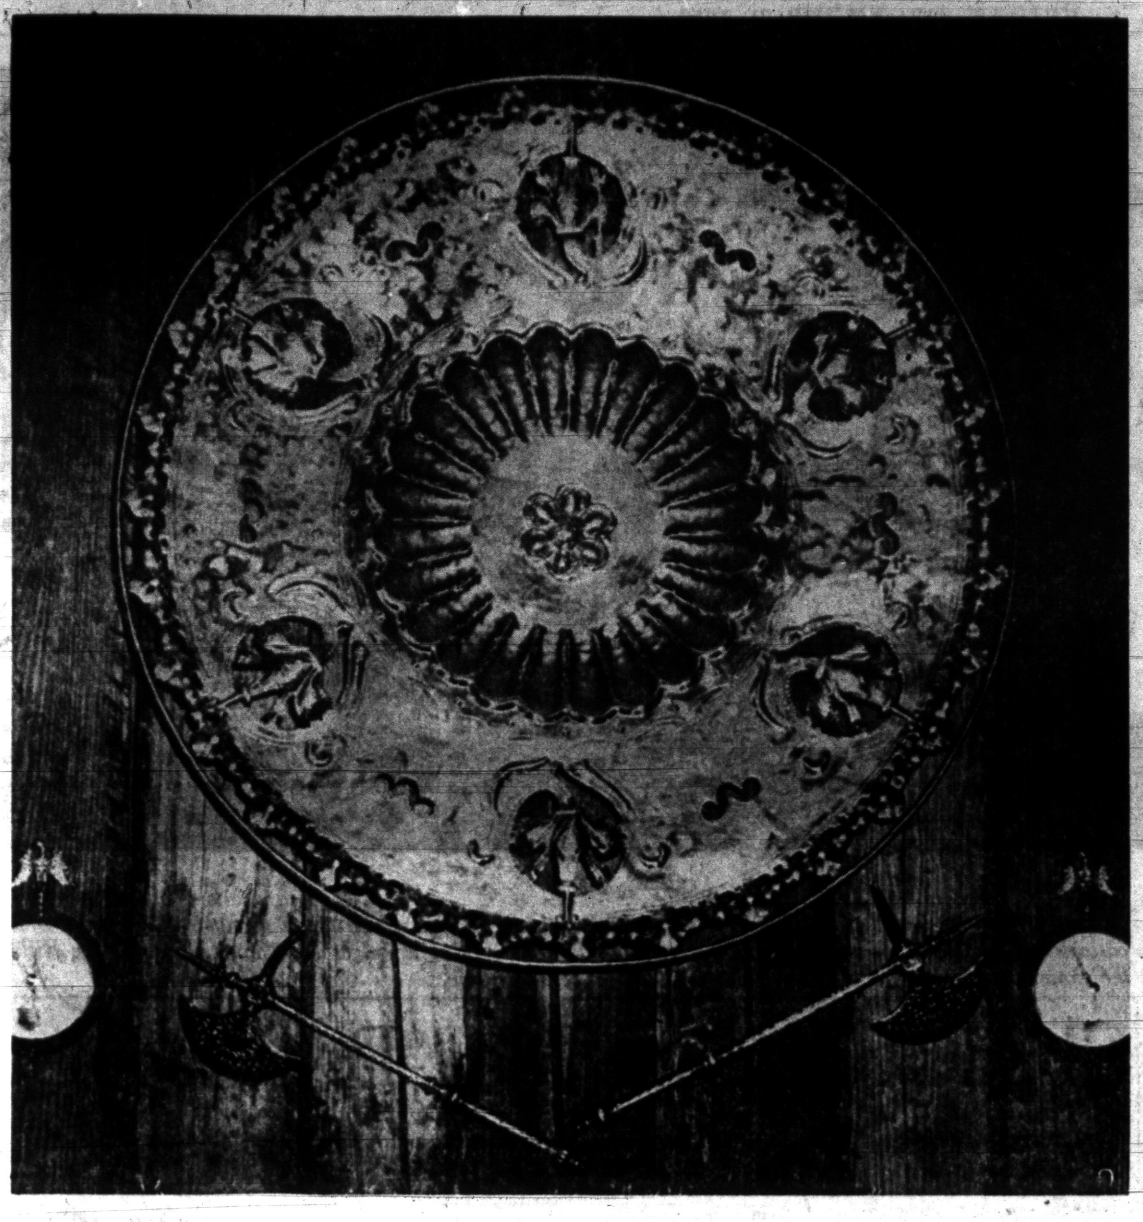
One store visited by this reporter featured many ideas for mantelpieces, both for holiday and year-round decoration. Their globetrotter had spotted several interesting items in various countries, and adopted them for the novel decorating of American homes.

A tea service to delight any woman is made of pewter by old Dutch masters in Holland. Venetian glass which has gold blown into the pieces can be used as the focal point for a centerpiece for mantel, table, dining room table, coffee table, or wherever the fancy strikes.

For more elaborate centerpieces, styrofoam can be used, cut into the shape of a church with bulbs making the windows and surrounded by snowy greens.

A serving tray covered with aluminum foil can be used as the base for a pretty centerpiece. Set three or four tapered candles and small candle or ceramic choristers near the candle. Here again your canned snow will add a wintry look to the scene.

And at our own house there is a gold sunburst on the drapes for extra brightness. A Santa Claus pasted on the door window says "Hi" to all visitors.



Pontiac Press Photos

Mantel decorations for any season are shown here. Perfect for year-round wall decoration or over the mantel is this solid brass plaque. An import from Italy, it is hand-chased, good for a dramatic decorative effect. Replicas of two medieval battle axes are also shown, and weather key instruments on either side of the plaque are done in colonial design brass. Below, on the mantel, add a festive touch with tinsel spread in and around greens and bulbs for the holidays.

Fireplaces and coffee tables have long been interesting conversation pieces, and homemakers everywhere want just the right item placed on them. Pewter, used in the tea set above, is ideal for modern or traditional homes, and is exciting on any coffee table. Its warmth lends itself to the holiday season, too. The china cigarette set has a fragile look and comes from France, while the sturdy brass king-size scales come from England. One of the Venetian glass pieces (with gold dust blown into the pieces) makes an interesting item for any piece of furniture. And it doesn't have to be removed for festive occasions.

A more elaborate example of decorating a buffet for the Christmas season is this one at the George Olsen home on Wycliff road. Mrs. Olsen has used a town scene with a wedding coming out of the church at left. Christmas tree and tinsel keep the holiday atmosphere.

Miss Wilder to Wed

The engagement and approaching marriage of Patricia Lynn Wilder is announced by her parents, Mrs. Martha Wilder of Drayton Plains and Ralph Wilder of West Huron street. Patricia is the bride-elect of Paul J. DeConinck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Omer DeConinck of Lowell street. The couple plans a Jan. 26 wedding.

New Year's Party Plans Are Made by Dance Club

Plans for a New Years Eve dance were made at the recent Christmas Dinner dance of the Square Set Dance Club held at Wever School.

Robert Bunce served as master of ceremonies at the affair. Sharing the calls during the evening were Jasper Price, Peter Messeman, Melvin Norberg, Arthur Yarger, Ralph Price and Sidney Olson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Reaves, and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Cheyne were cochairmen for the party. Decorations were arranged by Mrs. Robert Bunce and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hocevar.

Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. William Norberg, Mr. and Mrs. Al Tollefson, Mr. and Mrs. Worley Smith and Ronnie Zerba. Mr. and Mrs. Merle Malone and Mr. and Mrs. George Ogg attended as representatives of the Waterford Recreation Department.

Stripes in Style

Multi-color stripes accents men's casual wear this season. Both cotton and wool knits in socks, pullovers, shirts — and even thick-soled house slippers — feature these bright accents. Fast colors assure that these washables won't run in warm soap or detergent suds. And they are also safe in your gas clothes dryer.

Wesleyan Class Has Yule Party

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Blackett and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Mitchell were hosts Saturday evening to the Wesleyan Class of First Methodist Church for their annual Christmas party.

Thirty members and the Rev. and Mrs. Paul T. Hart attended the affair held in the Blackett's home on Dixie highway.

Christmas Excitement Fills Air

U. of M. Students Pack for Home After Rush of Parties

By MARCIA THOMAS

ANN ARBOR—Merriment reigns at the University of Michigan today. Tomorrow marks the beginning of Christmas vacation and students are anxiously packing their suitcases for their long awaited departure.

All week students have been enjoying many of the annual Christmas events sponsored by University groups.

Decorations for dances at South, East and West Quads, held last week, helped to stimulate the students' Christmas spirit.

East Quad's traditional dance featured a New England town square, in a winter setting, while South Quad had a modern theme. West Quad's formal emphasized the old fashioned Christmas in its theme.

Attending Christmas parties were Arlene Kehrl, daughter of Mrs. Arlene Kehrl of Oakland Ave. and Carl E. Nielsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Nielsen of Lakeland Ave.

MUSIC FILLS AIR

Christmas music filled the air last Wednesday night as the University Choir and Orchestra presented their annual holiday concert.

Marc Antoine Charpentier's "Midnight Mass" was given, along with "Born Today", by Jan Pieterszoon Sweelinck. "Ave Maria" by Anton Bruckner, "Exultate Deo" by Francis Poulenc, and Bach's "Magnificat" completed the program.

One of the many students attending this affair was William C. Bryant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Bryant of West Hopkins Street.

Michigan's basketball team started off the holiday season in the right way Wednesday night by defeating Kent State 100-60.

CROWD GOES WILD

Yost Field House rocked from the cheering that accompanied the last few seconds of the game.

Roger A. Asbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herchel Asbury of Woodbine Drive, and David Darling, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Darling of Lone Pine Court, were members of the excited crowd who watched Wolverine Bob Dunlap tap in the important two points which gave Michigan the grand total of 100 points.

Cars and buses will be used by Michigan students as they make their way home. Among the students spending the holiday season at home are Thomas W. Cross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milo J. Cross of North Hammond Lake Road; Barbara A. Blackwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Blackwood of Ottawa Drive; Jean Leland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Leland of Middlebelt Road, and Normalee Braid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Braid of Rosewood Avenue.

Plymouth Group Holds Meeting

Mrs. Stanley Kipp was hostess to the Plymouth Group of First Congregational Church Wednesday evening in her home on Doris road. Lula McCully and Beulah Phillips assisted the hostess. Devotions were given by Ethlynn Peterson.

"Christmas With Our Presidents" was the topic of the program presented by Mrs. Frank Allen; a poem, "True Christmas," concluded the program.

During the business meeting Ora Hallenbeck reported on the Delmo Project in Missouri, a missionary activity of the church. Members voted to send a monetary gift to an elderly minister in England who is in need.

Amvets Women Hold Yule Party

Mrs. Peter Metes, Mrs. Wesley Newman and Mrs. Frank Schmidt were cohostesses at the Christmas party held Wednesday evening by Jimmy Dey Post 12, Amvets Auxiliary. Members gathered at Adah Shelly Library for the annual event.

The program was presented by Mrs. Robert Boggs and Cynthia Sach. Linda Rollison and Barbara Wilson entertained the group with several dance numbers.

Each member brought items of food to be used in baskets for needly families for Christmas. The evening program concluded with a gift exchange.

Hills Residents Plan Festive Yule

Cotillion Club Slates Tea

By RUTH SAUNDERS

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The holiday meeting of the Cotillion Club will be a tea dance Friday afternoon at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, from 4 until 7 o'clock.

Virginia Annas, Kathy Kyes, Linda Stevenson and David DeWindt are among those who will form the receiving line with Mrs. Thomas E. Wilson, Mrs. Ernst F. Kern and Mrs. William Reid acting as chaperones. Karen Stevenson has invited a group for dinner following the dance.

Secretary of Defense C. E. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson will entertain at their customary open house on Christmas Day at their home "Long Meadow."

Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Briggs Jr. will come up from their new winter home in Florida to spend Christmas at their Martell drive residence. Mrs. Briggs' mother, Mrs. Basil Manly, will come from her home in Washington, D. C. for the festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Beresford will have a family gathering Christmas Eve at their home on Cottontail Lane. Mr. and Mrs. Beresford entertained at a neighborhood supper Sunday evening.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Jere B. Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. Ross S. Campbell Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. William Rodie were joint hosts at a cocktail and dinner party Saturday evening in the Gillette's new home in Hickory Heights.

In Franklin Sunday afternoon, Mrs. William N. Albee Jr. invited about 50 friends to come for cocktails to celebrate Mr. Albee's birthday.

Dr. and Mrs. John L. Wiant and their daughters Judy and Sally Ann will arrive Friday from their home in Portland, Ore., for a Christmas visit with Mrs. Wiant's mother, Mrs. Clarence Lehr of Old Salem court.

The Wiants also will spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne A. Andreae of Half Moon drive who will give a New Year's Eve dinner in their honor.

Dr. and Mrs. Wiant and their family expect to move back to Birmingham permanently in May.

Lindsay Vandeveer has invited about 50 guests for a buffet supper Saturday evening in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy G. Vandeveer of Sussex road. She is home from Abbott Academy for the holidays.

Her sister, Connie, will entertain at a similar affair next Friday.

Mrs. Benjamin Micou was hostess at luncheon Wednesday at her home on Lone Pine road.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Calvert of Foxcroft will be hosts at a cocktail party Dec. 28.

Coming Events

Pontiac Rebekah Lodge, 450, will hold a cooperative supper tonight at 6 with an exchange of gifts. A meeting will follow at 8 at 82 Perkins St.

Child's Opinion May Be Disputed

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Billy's mother had been thinking of sending him to the local nursery school, and one of its young lady workers came to visit.

She was a pretty, very enthusiastic young lady. Soon her interest in Billy intoxicated him. The close attention she gave to his new fire truck so stimulated him that he could not let her get away.

When she and his mother started discussing the school tuition, he protested by running around the sofa they sat on. As he'd pass his mother, he'd pause to give her an angry shove and yell, "Woo-ooo. You're a Woo Zoo! You're a stinky mean old stinky Woo Zoo. . . "

Remembering that the modern child is permitted free expression, Billy's mother tried to ignore his aggressiveness. But being denounced as a stinky Woo Zoo before her guest embarrassed her horribly.

All she could think of was that the nursery school's young lady would go back and tell it she was the disrespected parent of a spoiled child. So in no time at all she was saying she guessed she couldn't afford the experience for Billy, though this was not true—and he could have used it most profitably.

RIGHT TO DISAGREE

A child's right to express a bad opinion of us must always be balanced by our right to disagree with it. Unless we retain this right for ourselves, his freedom of expression is just chaos—and frightens instead of pleasing him.

This is because we are Billy's supreme trust. We establish all safety for him — food, shelter, warmth, the difference between good and evil, innocence and harm.

When anger betrays him into attacking us as foolish and unreliable, he doesn't want us to accept this judgment.

Deeper than his need to attack us is his need to believe us a trustworthy person capable of protecting him properly.

So, though we allow him to voice his bad opinion of us, we make it clear we don't share it by saying cheerfully, "If you want to call me a stinky Woo Zoo, just go outside and do it. I am not one—and don't intend to listen to such talk."

NEARLY AS BAD

The old view was that parents' judgments of children must never be questioned. The new one—that children must be allowed to criticize us indefinitely—was reaction to the old one. It has proved nearly as destructive.

Now parent education is trying frantically to repair the damage it did by insisting that "free expression" was a children's monopoly. But many of us still feel that we should be "seen and not heard" when Billy expresses his stern moral judgments of us.

Gift Ingathering Held at Meeting of Ladies Guild

Members of the Ladies Guild of St. Paul Lutheran Church held an ingathering of gifts for the residents of the Lutheran Home for the Aged at their Wednesday evening meeting and Christmas party held in the church parlors.

Paul McMichael showed a movie, "The Cheat," and led the group in singing Christmas carols. Mrs. Donn Bonney and Mrs. McMichael arranged the program.

In a brief business meeting Mrs. Charles Mutz was elected secretary and Mrs. James Cottrill was elected treasurer for the coming year.

Following a gift exchange, refreshments were served by Mrs. William Fisher, Mrs. Alma Linkswiler, Mrs. H. E. Earhart and Mrs. George Mahder.

Family Service Gives Expert Help

Friday Question Box

Q. "I am totally disgusted with myself. I am nervous, clumsy, self-conscious and tense when I am near anyone else. I have read a lot of books on the subject but they do not help. I do not know whether I should go to a charm school or a psychiatrist. I cannot afford either.

"It is like a wall I cannot get over. No one else knows about this unless they can tell by my actions. If I can't live normally with other people, I don't want to live with myself."

A. If there are some defects in appearance which are bothering you it would build your self-confidence to overcome them. However, I think you need expert help.

Go to the Family Service Association of America. There is a branch in your city, which will help you. This association does wonderful work helping folks!

Q. "I am 29 years old and my husband is 49. Should I change the way I dress? The girls think I dress well but in too old a fashion. Most girls my age wear their hair long and dress as they have since high school days. If I dress like this it looks as though my husband has a daughter on his arm. Will the girls grow up and dress more like I do later on?

"I am 10 pounds overweight according to most charts but if I lost that 10 pounds my hip bones would protrude as though they were going to puncture my clothes. I am very large boned."

A. I think you should dress smartly. Just because you are married to an older man should not cause you to take to black and a bun at the back of your neck. I judge that you are simply dressing in a more sophisticated way, which is attractive at your age.

Do not be fooled by the usual weight charts. Build makes a great difference. If you look best at your present weight, that is probably the ideal weight for you.

Q. "What about a good coverup for broken veins or freckles on the legs?"

A. If you will send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request, I will be glad to tell you. I do not use trade names in this column.

Q. "I think you have written this in your column but how much difference should there be between the calf and the ankle for a well-shaped leg?"

A. There should be close to 5 inches difference.

Q. "I am 13 years old, 5 feet 2 inches tall. How much should I weigh? Some people say I am too thin and some that I am too fat."

A. Since there is such a difference of opinion I would guess that you are just about right. You should weigh around 106 pounds.

Two Layer Cookies Use Filberts

Mrs. Troyer Cuts Unbaked Dough Into Finger Strips

By JANET ODELL

Busy women accomplish more in various fields tha women with just one outlet for their energies. Mrs. Lester H. Troyer of Ortonville is such a busy person.

She is president of the Ortonville Library Board, does PTA and American Cancer Society work and has a Cub Scout den. At this season of the year she makes lots of Christmas cookies.

FILBERT FINGERS
By Mrs. Lester H. Troyer

First Part:
1 egg white
1 cup confectioners sugar
1 cup filberts, ground fine

Second Part:
1 egg yolk
6 tablespoons confectioners sugar
¼ teaspoon vanilla

Beat egg whites, beat in 1 cup sugar and nuts. Pat out on lightly floured board into oblong ¼-inch thick.

Spread with egg yolk, beaten with rest of sugar and vanilla. Let stand 30 minutes to dry. Cut into finger-shaped strips, using a knife dipped in hot water.

Arrange on buttered and floured cookie sheet. Let stand 10 minutes. Bake at 300 degrees for 15 minutes or until golden brown.

Glow of Health Reflected in Well-Scrubbed Face

A clean, well-scrubbed complexion that reflects the glow of health can make all the difference in the effectiveness of even the most flattering cosmetics.

An attractive hairdo and skillful makeup are, of course, necessary to a good appearance. But it's nice to know that cleanliness, beauty's most essential factor, costs so little.

No matter how greatly we depend on cosmetics for beauty, liberal use of soap and water gives our beauty aids the chance to do their best for us.

We'd all like to emerge regularly from an exclusive beauty salon "a finished picture." But the busy housewife and the average career girl would have difficulty finding the time or the money that this would require.

The girl with the just-stepped-out-of-the-shower look is always the object of admiring comment, and, fortunately, a glowing complexion and healthy, clean hair are as easily within reach as the bathtub and wash basin at home.

No hair style is lovely unless the hair is clean. And a good place to wash it is in an invigorating, sudsy shower. It saves time and assures a complete rinsing.

If you have healthy skin, free from infection, here's a nightly routine that, followed diligently, helps wash away oiliness and blackheads as well as grime.

Fill the basin with hot water. Work your pure complexion soap into a lather and with an upward motion, apply it to your throat and face. Take special care to get at the chin and the lines around the nose and mouth. Rinse carefully with warm water, then splash with cold and pat dry.

Costs practically nothing and you've given your face the best beauty insurance available.

Freeze Turkey Until Wanted

If you don't want all the turkey leftovers right after the holidays, freeze the remaining turkey and store in your freezer unit until your family wants it again.

You may pick the meat off the bones, dividing it into white and dark meat packages, pour your gravy into a jar or carton, and then freeze.

If it is to be stored for a long time, experts advise leaving it in long pieces. If not, cut it into 1-inch pieces for salads, stews.

Appreciate What You Have in Life

By ANNE HEYWOOD

There are many definitions of success, but my favorite was told to me by an old Italian woman when I was little.

"Success," she said firmly, "is liking the life you lead!"

Sometimes, in order to like the life you lead, you have to change it—get a different job, take up a hobby or meet new people.

But more often, you have to change yourself, change your ap- proach to your life and learn to savor the goodies that are right under your nose.

If you are to like the life you lead, you have to concentrate on it and refuse to make comparisons with the lives other people live.

We're often so busy envying the woman next door, and coveting the life she leads, that we are oblivious to the good things in our own lives.

I thought of this last week, at a holiday party, where I met two friends. Afterward, each one con- fided in me at length.

One, whom I shall call Betty, is a housewife and a mother of three. The other, whom I'll call Sue, is a very successful career girl.

Betty came to see me for tea. You could see she was unhappy.

"I'm not going to another party as long as I live," she said mourn- fully. "I feel so out of things. I'm so untalented and I'm not accom- plishing anything.

"Look at Sue. She makes so much money, and has such a charming apartment. And she has the time to rest, relax and meet so many interesting people."

DISLIKED BUSINESS

I pointed out to Betty that she had never liked business, had nev- er wanted to be a career girl, had fallen in love with John and had wanted marriage and a home and children more than anything in the world.

Now that she had them, she was just torturing herself, refusing to enjoy what she had and envying the people who had what she had never wanted in the first place.

Several days later, Sue and I met for lunch. Sue, too, was mournful.

"These parties are killing me," she confessed. "I envy the girls who have husbands and children.

"I hate going back to my chic but empty apartment. I'm lonely and even my job is beginning to pall."

NOT DOMESTIC

I pointed out to Sue that she could get married if she wanted to—but she basically didn't want to.

None of the men were "quite right" for her; she hated domes- ticity and loved the competition of business. Lonely or no, she would be miserable in a house full of children.

I don't think they really lis- tened to me or took my advice.

But they do prove that in order to like our lives, we have to change our approach to life far more often than we need to change the life itself.

Hubby Lets Women Pay for Snacks

Disapproving Wife Is Afraid Her Mate Appears 'Cheap'

By EMILY POST

A wife writes: "The other eve- ning I went bowling with four other women. At about 11:30 my husband came to pick me up in the car as it had started to rain quite hard. As none of the other husbands could meet their wives, my husband volunteered to drive them home.

"On the way home one of the women suggested that we stop at a diner for a cup of coffee. All were in favor and so my husband stopped. We all sat together at one table. Everyone ordered coffee and a piece of cake or a sandwich to go with it.

"My husband paid the bill and later each of the women offered him her share. He took it. I don't think he should have and that it made him appear 'cheap.' What is your opinion?"

Answer: It was rather question- able on his part, but on the other hand, since he was not really their host, his taking the money should not be criticized.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to know if it would be proper for my sister to invite several of my husband's and my friends to her forthcoming wedding, or might it seem like a bid for wedding presents?

"These friends know my sister only slightly but they are close friends of my husband and me, who are, by the way, in the bridal party. I would appreciate hearing from you."

Answer: There is no reason why your sister may not properly invite these friends to her wedding, and no present could be required be- cause of such an invitation.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Where are the chairs correctly placed in the dining room between meals? If they are left at the table, are they pushed under the table?"

Answer: Four chairs are left at the table—at the head, at the foot and on either side. They are pushed part way under the table —about halfway across the seat.

Foolish Penny-Pinching Wastes Time and Energy

Women's Fund-Raising Projects Are More Costly Than Just Chipping In

By RUTH MILLETT

We women waste an awful lot of time and energy penny-pinching when it isn't necessary and when often we don't actually save money by our methods.

What we do as individuals is absurd enough but it really gets to be ridiculous when we are members of a group.

Do we ever raise money by simply chipping in two or three or even five dollars apiece?

Not if we can think of a hard way of getting the same amount.

How about a bake sale, or a bazaar, or a carnival? We'll work hours and hours or weeks and weeks in preparation for such a money-raising event.

And we'll think we haven't spent much money because we don't figure in all the hours we had to pay a babysitter so that we could go to meetings, decorate booths, sell, or clean up the mess after- ward, etc.

TIME HAS VALUE

Of course we don't count our time. We don't set any value on it at all. Even if we complain that we are so overworked we can never catch up on all the things that need to be done.

And we don't count gasoline or the wear and tear on the family car. Or having to serve the family a series of quick but expensive meals because we were so busy working on our project we just didn't have any time for cooking.

But if you don't believe women like to do things the hard way, try suggesting that each woman donate a certain amount of money instead of having a fund-raising event the next time your pet club decides the kitty is getting low.

Your fellow members will think you have lost your mind. What? Simply shell out cash when you could spend your money in drib- lets, put in hours of work and hours on the telephone, and call it earning instead of giving?

Women really like to pinch pen- nies and do things the hard way.

Teen Styles Aid Holiday Budget

NEW YORK (NEA)—Many mothers know that with the arrival of the holidays, their daughters are going to want to blossom out in new clothes for parties.

For the teen-age daughter, clothes will tend to be date clothes and more sophisticated, therefore, than those worn by her younger sister. And even if she's in her early 20's, older sis- ter may find her best bet in both fashion and cents lies in teen-age styles.

Clothes that are not just one- party fashions are the ones to pick if you want to be kind to your budget. They would serve several seasons, though a rap- idly growing sub-teen may be lucky to get through one.

New Compound for Wood Repair

Christmas is the season for good cheer and good times for most of us, but it is also the season of hard times for furniture.

With all the activities that go on in the average home, spilled li- quids, cigarette burns and scratch- es and scars from Christmas orna- ments and gifts with sharp edges are apt to appear on your most valuable table tops or chairs.

This year you don't have to rely on such old-fashioned remedies as cigar ashes, oils of various nuts and the like to eliminate such blemishes. A floor wax company has a new compound available for both light and dark wood, which will solve most damaged furniture problems.

With each tube come disposable application pads. Put the product on the pad and rub the spot, fol- lowing the grain of the wood, un- til the blemish is removed or fur- ther improvement is impossible. Then wax the table top or chair with a good no-rub furniture wax, and your worries are over.

Brighter Lights Seen This Year

CHICAGO (INS) — Decorative Christmas lights will be bigger and brighter than ever before this year.

Americans are spending 100 mil- lion dollars for yuletide lighting, according to Albert V. Sadacca, manufacturer of illuminated holi- day decorations.

That's an increase of 10 million dollars over last year, Sadacca said the increase stems for the growing number of homes and the rising trend toward outdoor holli- day decorations.

Every woman wishes she could wash dishes as easily as they do on TV commercials.

Each year the Tuxis Society, senior high school organization of First Presbyterian Church, is host to college students on the Sunday evening between Christmas and New Year. This year the tea will be held Dec. 30 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Working on arrangements are (left to right) Mel White of Avondale drive, Karen Bean of Avondale drive, Betsy Bradley of Spokane drive and Richard Mann of Washington street.

Tuxis Group Plans Tea for Students

College students of First Presbyterian Church are guests each year of the Tuxis Society, the senior high school organization of the church, at a tea. The tea this year is scheduled for Dec. 30 at the church from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Games, carol singing, short devotions and refreshments are planned for the evening with a social hour following.

Karen Bean is moderator for the affair. Members of the invitation committee are Betsy and Judy Bradley. On the welcoming committee are Ronald Newman and Judy Huntwork; and decorations are being handled by Susan VanTassel, Nancy Donaldson, Isabel Hawn, Paul Tremper and John Markley Jr.

Joanne Wood has charge of refreshments for the tea, and Gary Van Ryzin, Marilyn McLintock and the Rev. Edward Auchard are handling arrangements for the program assisted by the other members of the Tuxis Society.

Hold Christmas Party

Pontiac Mother Singers held their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. John Bills on Forrest drive. Following an exchange of gifts, Mr. Bills showed slides of his trip through the west. Mrs. Russel Jacobson and Mrs. Phoebe VanDeusen assisted Mrs. Bills.

Gals Dislike Long Skirts

NEW YORK (INS) — A recent survey revealed that American woman prefer continuation of the current skirt length 20-1.

The poll, which was conducted by a fashion editor of a metropolitan paper posed the question of "short vs. long skirts" to readers in the Southern California area. And more than 600 replies were received, most of them in favor of the so-called short length.

Many readers sent in their personal opinions along with their ballots, but there was no hedging on the subject.

One illuminating letter had this to say:

"I work for a large insurance company and have asked all our employes male and female and people on the bus to and from work, neighbors, relatives and my husband and the answer is definitely 'NO.'

"Also asked women at our church and attended a meeting consisting of about 30 well-dressed women and the reaction was the same."

However, according to the survey, one 30-year old woman was very much in favor of long skirts.

"What a wonderful idea to go back to ankle-length skirts," she wrote. "I'm not a 'prude, but I do feel that we need more old-fashions could pave the way. I'd fashions could pave the way.. I'd even go in for high-button shoes!"

Ideal for lounging now and vacationing come summer, is the one-piece shirt-and-shorts in the "teen-theme" print.

Rosy-hued Makeup Gives Elegant Look

Rosy-hued makeup is considered the best complement to the season's colors. Skin tone is supposed to be pearly-finished, veiling a rosy glow.

The Edwardian rose, considered just the right accent for the elegant look, is a lush, vibrant shade that looks as if it has gone straight to the mouth from an old-fashioned rambler.

Schools Dismiss to Shouts of 'Merry Christmas!'

By JACK HENDRICKSON

Members of the Pontiac High School yearbook staff, the Quiver, observed Christmas today with a party for contributors to the yearbook.

Jack Hendrickson, advertising manager, and Krista Kaasik, assistant, have finished mailing the letters to the Pontiac businessmen to introduce the plans of the 1957 Quiver staff.

One other name Jim Shaw, has been put on the list of the PHS students who took the Westinghouse Science Scholarship examinations recently, raising the number of students to 10.

George Putnam, supervisor of the vocal department, has been busy with his music classes this month besides the Christmas Concert last Sunday.

Junior Girls Ensemble, directed by Edward Banghart, sang for a teachers exchange meeting, recently. Mrs. Doreen Voltmans Senior Girls Ensemble sang at a Kiwanis luncheon Tuesday.

An all-school assembly was given Monday, similar to the Christmas Concert. Music sheets were given out at the entrances for audience participation.

Volunteer choir people were singing in the halls of the State Hospital this week. They sang traditional Christmas songs. The volunteer group was led by Nancy Ohanesian, Dick Kors, and Margaret Christenson. This climaxed the busy Christmas season for the vocal department.

Mrs. Agnes Buckley's Future Nurses Club has been preparing to send Care packages over to the Hungarian Relief program.

Arnold Wilson has taken up a collection in his World History classes. The classes of John Maturo also contributed to the idea. The money will be used for Care Packages.

Three students of PHS have been recently awarded first, second, and third places in the Voice of Democracy Contest.

Sponsored by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce Radio and Television Broadcasters, this contest awarded Calvin Mortenson, first place; Delores Gillespie, second; and Art Hussey, third.

The seventh annual meeting of the American Asson. for the Advancement of Science, held in New York this year, will see three of our PHS students attending with their Biology compatriot, John Youngpeter.

Constantine Sousanis, Jim Shaw, and Jim Livingston will leave Pontiac Christmas Day with Youngpeter.

Senior pictures were the excitement this week even above the last minute Christmas plans. Seniors were swapping, bargaining, and "stealing" pictures.

To Our Readers:

This weekly school page in true tradition of the source it covers will take a vacation over the Christmas holidays beginning today.

The page which is devoted to school news and pictures from the junior and senior high schools in the Pontiac area will resume again Jan. 11, 1957.

We at The Press wish you all a very Merry Christmas and here's to the finest New Year possible.

Janice Hayhow

Area Schools Observe Yuletide With Song

Christmas music has set the theme for this week's high Christmas spirit in the area schools.

AT ST. MARY'S

St. Mary's High School Glee Club, youngest of three choral groups at Orchard Lake is to be heard over WPON, Pontiac, at 7 p.m., Sunday. The program will be broadcasted on Christmas Day.

The Glee Club broadcast was taped this past week with Jerry Ostrowski, a senior, announcer.

The club will sing: "O Tannenbaum," "There Is a Balm in Gilead," "Sliczna Panienka," "Ole King Cole," "Gaudeamus Igitur" and "Good Night Ladies."

On Monday, the Glee Club journeyed to the Sarah Fisher Home and the Old Folks Home Where they presented Christmas songs to an enthusiastic listening audience—especially the kiddies.

AT LAKE ORION

Beginning Wednesday the Junior High program for the sixth, seventh and eighth grades was presented by the Junior High Band and vocal groups.

Trees have been placed in both the lower and second floors by the Student Council with a box under each for food donations for the baskets the school is preparing for the needy families of the area. Ernest May is in charge of the project.

In the hall the library's decorations include a manger scene in the hall case; a poster type decoration over the main entrance includes a three dimensional effect achieved by layers of cotton as snow and houses that extend from the background.

The art display features the "Green Door" with a life sized picture of a child in his winter longies with a door between and all the new toys on the other side. Cafe curtains of the same material correlate the two scenes.

Thursday night the senior high vocal groups, Forensic Club and the band presented their concert for their parents and the community.

The A Cappella Choir which has been practicing on Wednesday nights and is a volunteer group presented two numbers. The boys chorus with a dozen members which is a newly organized group this year also presented a number.

In addition to the baskets of food the home economics group were dressing over a dozen dolls to be given by the Lions' Club.

AT WEST BLOOMFIELD

The true spirit of Christmas has been felt throughout West Bloomfield High School this week.

The success of the annual Midwinter Concert Tuesday evening started this special Yuletide feeling.

The Student Council has placed its annual Christmas tree in the main lobby under which the students are placing food and new or used toys to be taken to the fire station where they will be pooled with donations from other sources and distributed to needy families in the community.

All of George Urich's classes in social studies and several of the homerooms are collecting money for food and toys.

AT WALLED LAKE

The Walled Lake Teen club has scheduled a Snow Ball for Saturday evening, in the high school gym at 8:30.

This is the second dance sponsored by the board of directors of the newly founded organization which is trying to raise funds to secure a building for the teens in the area and to help them equip it. The directors are parents, teachers, and teens who have been meeting regularly for the past month or more.

People passing the Walled Lake Senior High School can not help but be impressed by the beautiful replicas of stained glass windows appearing in the large lobby window which faces Commerce road.

The display is the third annual one prepared by art students under the direction of Mrs. Jack Simonton.

AT AVONDALE

Avondale High School students, like students all over, today start their Christmas vacation. With the year nearly half over, students can already look back upon many happy times.

The Avondale pep club held its first meeting Tuesday according to President Doris Peel. The club is open to all who wish to join and is designed to promote interest in all school activities.

The music department presented an entertaining concert Wednesday in the gym. The concert band made its season's debut playing many of the seasonal songs as well as several marches.

The choral groups presented a pageant of the birth of Christ, which featured scenes accompanied by ppropriate songs.

WTHS Holiday Dance Lends Festivity

By SANDY WHITE

Tomorrow evening the Waterford Township High School gymnasium will become a "Crystal Fantasy" for the annual Christmas Dance, planned by the seniors.

Couples will dance to the music of Walley Earl's Blue Notes, of Pontiac. This annual occasion calls for semi-formal dress.

"Christmas Trimmings," a comedy, was part of the Christmas assembly featured yesterday. Those participating in the comedy were Forest Milzo, Dave Struble, Karl Kannack, Evelyn Morris, John Jolly, and Tom Wyatt.

Opening and closing the assembly was the A Capella Choir singing the selections "Sleighride," "Noel," "There Were Shepherds," and "Night Before Christmas." This program is a salute to the coming holiday.

Canisters were distributed to all the home rooms last week for any donations from students. These donations were sent to the Bonlarron family in France. This family was adopted by the French Club four years ago and since then, gifts have been sent to this tuberculosis - stricken family.

Juniors have chosen their theme for the annual Showboat, a talent show presented on March 1. The theme is 20th Century Showboat.

Lou Ellen Jones, a senior, was awarded a $1,200 scholarship recently from Kalamazoo College.

Yuletide Spirit High at St. Fred

Social Service, Glee Clubs Spend Active Pre-Holiday

By MARGARET DRAKE

Five Pontiac families will be made happier through the Social Service Club of St. Frederick High School. Members of the club are distributing baskets of food and toys to the families this weekend.

Under the directions of Dominic Kline, a "Merry Christmas" will be voiced by the St. Frederick Glee club as it gives its annual Christmas cantata tomorrow evening and Sunday evening in St. Frederick auditorium.

On Monday at 12:30 o'clock the group will sing at the Pontiac State Bank. Accompanists are Sharon Talbot and Ellen Schachern. Soloists are Marie Lewandowski, Pat Saghy and Ingrid Soderberg.

Students are lighting the third candle of their Advent Wreath as Christmas draws near. This is a religious custom which has been handed down through the centuries and is carried out on the four weeks preceding Christmas.

Classes end today with Confessions in the church and students will be on their way for vacations to all sections of the country, but many will remain at home.

The student body extends to one and all a holy and happy Christmas.

Programs Observe Coming Holy Day

Junior High Week Full of Christmas

The week was full of Christmas at the city's junior high schools this week. Mostly the spirit was "doing for others."

AT WASHINGTON

Students at Washington Junior High School presented their annual Christmas assembly this morning. This year's program was called "Christmas Bells." Groups which participated were the Girls' Glee Club and the two ninth grade choruses. Soloists were Ruby Lewis and Terry Wilkins.

Directors of the program were Faith Cook, Janice Rivard and Gordon Wilder.

Home room parties were held at the close of school. These featured short programs and refreshments. Several of the groups have adopted families to care for and feted the younger children. Baskets of food, clothing, toys, etc. were delivered to the families today.

The Girls' Service Club sponsored by Mrs. George Yansen, has kept the spirit of Christmas by giving to others. On Wednesday evening they brought cheer to the patients at Pontiac General Hospital with a program of caroling in the corridors. Each girl has contributed food for a basket given to a deserving family on Friday.

Another worthwhile project of the club is volunteering their time checking Junior Red Cross boxes at the American Red Cross headquarters. They have been praised by Red Cross personnel.

Friday a special Christmas edition of the Washington Tom-Tom was put on sale throughout the day. Trying something new this year, the paper was printed by a printing company instead of having it mimeographed by the school.

The Vocal Music Department has furnished singing groups for many organizations during the past weeks. The pupils have appreciated the opportunity to serve the community and spread Christian spirit at this time of the year.

AT EASTERN

Jingle bells! Jingle bells! At Eastern once again the carols ring out and it's Christmastime with all its gaiety and tradition.

The main hallway is resplendent with a large, beautifully lighted tree and the bulletin board is gay with greeting cards.

Homerooms are gala with decorations for the competition sponsored by "The Arrow." Prizes for first, second, and third place were boxes of candy, and honorable mention for fourth place.

Homerooms are also collecting baskets of groceries and canned goods for needy families. The collection of food is sponsored by the Student Assn. Council.

On Wednesday and Thursday both assemblies enjoyed a presentation of an operetta based on Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" directed by Leonard Griffin. The Boys' Glee Club, Treble Clef Club, and Seventh Grade Chorus also participated. The program was presented for the public on Thursday evening.

AT LINCOLN

Girls' Service Club, sponsored by Naomi McVean, entertained their seventh grade Little Sisters on Wednesday after school in the gym.

Arrangements were made by Pat Christian, as general chairman; Judy Gallaher, entertainment; Phyllis Burt, decorations; and Judy King, refreshments. The girls presented a talent show and played games.

The ninth grade chorus gave two concerts this week when it presented an assembly program for Wisner School and the concert at the Peoples State Bank at 7 p.m. on Friday evening. Following tonight's sing, the group plans on going caroling with director, Jerry Smith, and finishing the evening with a social hour at the home of Marla Jackson, English instructor.

Alice Allen's homemaking classes have completed their Christmas projects of gifts, clothes, and household wares. Many lovely blouses, skirts, aprons, and dresses have been finished for holiday wear.

The two assemblies this week were good old fashioned "Let's Sing Carols!" with the grand piano giving fine accompaniments for the 1,000 singing voices. Sue Eckley, Julius Middledorf, and Jerry Smith took turns directing and accompanying these popular assemblies.

Friday afternoon in a newly created seventh hour each home room celebrated with parties, the joyous Christmas season. All rooms have been gay with lighted trees, window decorations, Christmas murals, and even with the enticing odor of incense. Carol groups sang in the halls.

Classes Slow at St. Michael

By JUDY NIEDJELSKI

High school students of St. Michael were given half-day sessions all week in order to earn some extra money for Christmas.

School activities have slowed down in order to permit more time for the holiday activities. Volunteers will be going to Pontiac State Hospital next week to help with the extra duties that confront the hospital during this season.

Twelfth graders devoted an hour to filling candy boxes for the grade school Tuesday and Wednesday. Christmas baskets for the poor were assembled by the students and taken to the rectory for proper distribution.

Jim Barnowsky opened the doors of his home to the music of the senior choral group Tuesday evening in preparation for Christmas caroling.

The Catholic Youth Organization has slated a Christmas Dance for Dec. 28, from 8:30 to 11 p.m.

'Little Match Girl' Famous Christmas Story

By HANS CHRISTIAN ANDERSEN
(Distributed By INS)

The little match girl, bareheaded and barefoot and shivering with cold, paid no attention to the snowflakes that fell softly out of the night.

She had carried matches in her old apron, and had clutched a packet of them in her hand, all day in the bitterly cold, snowy streets. But nobody had bought any; nobody had even paid her a copper.

Finally her hunger and the night had driven her into a protected place where one house stuck out just a little beyond the next one.

Here she crouched, drawing her feet under her, but she was colder than ever. Her bare feet were blue with the cold. Even the shoes she had worn when she left home had not been much good. They had last been worn by her mother, and they were too big.

SHOES FELL OFF

They fell off when the little match girl ran across the street between two speeding carriages. One of the shoes could not be found. The other was snatched up by a boy. He had scampered away, saying the shoe would make a good-sized cradle when he had children of his own.

Now she did not dare go home. Her father would beat her because she had not earned a single penny. And her grandmother, the only person who had ever been kind to her, was dead.

Besides, it was almost as cold at home as it was here. The rags and straw stuffed into cracks of the house never stopped the whistling winter wind.

LIGHTS SHOWN

But the little girl ignored the last snowflakes that fell on her long yellow hair, which curled prettily around her face. For lights were shining out onto the street from every window.

There was a delicious odor of roast goose in the cold air. It was the holiday season—she could not forget that, even in her hunger and misery.

If she could only find some way to warm her tiny hands, already almost paralyzed with cold. At first she did not dare to pull one of the valuable matches from the bundle and strike it on the wall to warm her fingers.

Then she did it. "Ritsch!" How it spluttered, how it blazed! It burnt with a bright, clear flame, just like a little candle when she cupped her hand around it, but it was a very curious candle.

The little girl imagined she was sitting in front of a big stove with polished brass feet and handles. There the little match had become a splendid fire blazing in the stove, warming her so beautifully.

Just as she was stretching out her feet to warm them, the blaze went out, the stove disappeared, and she was sitting with the end of the burnt-out match in her hand.

She struck a new one. It blazed up, and where the light fell upon the wall—the wall became as transparent as gauze. She could see right through it into the room inside. There was a table spread with a white cloth and pretty china. A roast goose stuffed with apples and prunes steamed deliciously.

And even better, the goose jumped from the dish with the carving knife and fork sticking in its back and waddled across the floor. It came right up to her.

But the match went out, and the wall turned a dark, shadowed black.

The little match girl struck another match.

This time it was even more beautiful. She was suddenly sitting beneath a Christmas tree, much bigger and more beautifully decorated than the one she had seen through the glass doors of the rich merchant's house.

Thousands of bright candles gleamed on its branches, lighting the little colored pictures like the ones she had seen in the shop windows.

The little girl reached out both her hands towards them. But the match went out, and all the Christmas candles rose higher and higher, into the clearing sky until they were only twinkling stars. One of them fell and made a bright streak of light across the sky.

"Someone is dying," thought the girl. Her old grandmother used to say, "when a star falls a soul is going up to God."

This time when she struck a match against the wall, it was her grandmother who appeared in the circle of flame. The match girl saw her clearly and distinctly. She looked so gentle and kind.

"Grandmother!" she cried. "Oh, do take me with you! I know you will vanish when the match goes out. You will vanish like the warm stove, the delicious goose, and the beautiful Christmas tree!"

Quickly, the little match girl struck a whole bundle of matches to keep her grandmother with her. The light made the little corner as bright as day.

Grandmother had never before looked so big or so beautiful. She lifted the little girl up in her arms, and they soared in a halo of light and joy, far, far above the earth, where there was no more cold, no hunger, no pain, for they were with God.

Twin Instructors Confuse Students in Engineering College at Michigan

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Twins in the classroom are the perennial nemesis of teachers, but at the University of Michigan just the opposite is true.

A set of twin instructors causes confusion among the students in the college of engineering where Edward and Elmer Gilbert go their similar ways.

The 26-year-old brothers from Battle Creek, have had varied careers—together.

They studied engineering at Western Michigan College in Kalamazoo and then came as a tandem to Michigan where they earned bachelor degrees in electrical engineering in 1952.

As a pair, they went on in their academic pursuits and were awarded master's degrees in engineering. Now together, while also serving as instructors, they are working for their PH. D. degrees.

Their teaching finds them in the same aeronautical engineering department, sharing the same office and teaching similar courses.

Rumor has it the twins occasionally substitute for one another in a classroom filled with unsuspecting students.

"We didn't set out to follow identical careers," Elmer explains, or is it Edward? "It just happened."

"We like working together," echos another, "and we probably will continue to do so for some time."

There is only one flaw in the otherwise identical pattern. Two years ago Edward was married. So far Elmer has exerted his individuality.

House Burns Down: Third Unhappy Yule

DETROIT (AP)—The Harry Marley family faces its third bleak Christmas in the last six.

Marley, 42, spent Christmas in a hospital six years ago. Last year his daughter, Joy, was hit by a car two days before Christmas and was in a hospital when Santa came.

Marley sadly surveyed the smouldering ruins of his small frame home yesterday. Presents for his five children and all the family's clothing and household possessions had gone up in the flames. Nothing was insured.

"I guess," he said, "we just are not supposed to have a Merry Christmas."

Tree Can't Look Spruce in Warm Atmosphere

BAY CITY (AP)—A scraggly looking spruce without a needle on it stands outside city clerk Jim Gates' door and has a sign on it reading: "Happy New Year, Anyway."

The three-foot tree was put on a counter top in the clerk's office yesterday. Its green limbs were gaily decorated with ornaments and Christmas greetings.

But the office heat proved too much. By afternoon every needle had dropped off. It was then Gates took it down, added the sign and stuck it outside his door.

Stevedores Return

YOKOHAMA (AP)—Japanese stevedores returned to work in force at the U. S. Army port here today, freeing more than 1,000 soldiers who had unloaded ships during a three-week dock strike. The Army was not directly involved in the dispute between the workers and four labor firms who supply the stevedores under contract with the Army.

Reunite Parents With Stolen Girl

'Kidnaped,' Says Mom; Left Willingly With Husband, Says Wife

DENVER (AP)—A pretty teen-ager whose freckled face and arms are swathed in bandages was reunited in her hospital room last night with the parents she last saw held at gunpoint and trussed by her wild-eyed husband and a companion.

The tearful meeting was the first between Mr. and Mrs. John Mowatt and their 17-year-old daughter since they saw her taken from their Daly City, Calif., home last Monday night.

Across the hall from young Mrs. Clo Ann Wiegner in Denver General Hospital lay her husband, surly Mike Weigner, 16, a California mental hospital escapee.

Both in serious condition, they relayed vows of love to each other through detectives who sought to question them.

A wide search for Mrs. Weigner ended before dawn yesterday when she and her husband were pulled from the wreckage of a stolen car in which Weigner tried to elude a Denver police cordon.

Wiegner's companion Jesse Eastman, 34, was arrested late yesterday in another stolen car by state patrolmen in suburban Brighton.

Both escaped from the Napa, Calif., state hospital last Monday before taking the girl from her home 50 miles away and starting their stolen car jaunt over four states.

Questioned by detectives, Wiegner and Eastman, a Sioux Indian also known as Red Cloud, contended Mrs. Wiegner accompanied them voluntarily after they crept into her parents' home four days ago.

The girl's mother disputed this. "If someone put a gun at your head and said 'Come on,' You'd go."

Suffering from a possible skull fracture, broken ribs and a broken left arm, Mrs. Wiegner said flatly she accompanied her husband voluntarily "because I love him."

Gift Pretext for Theft

WEST HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Police said Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Johnson were eating supper when a man came to the door with a Christmas package. He told Johnson he had a present for Mrs. Johnson, so Johnson let him in, and led him to the kitchen. The man put down the package, whipped out an automatic and robbed the couple of $22.

Americans have tripled their eating of turkeys since 1930.

Bring Joy to Needy Tots

Navy Personnel Repair 500 Toys

More than 500 toys will be distributed to 35 needy families in Pontiac starting today "because it was decided that Christmas is for the kids."

The parents will be supplied with paper and string to wrap the gifts for presentation to the youngsters on Christmas day.

Up until last year the Pontiac Naval Reserve Station, at 469 South East Blvd., and the Naval Reserve Unit 9-104 were repairing old and used clothes for the needy families. Last year Lt. Cmdr. Bernard Woessner of the Naval Reserve Station initiated the "Toys For Tots" program.

Over a dozen "Toys For Tots" barrels were strategically placed in busy shopping areas throughout Pontiac at the beginning of November. For two months the more fortunate Pontiac families have been putting last year's toys into the barrels for the Navy men to repair and give to the needy children.

"The response has been great," said Woessner. "We doubled the number of toys we received last year when we first initiated the program.

"The toys range from little rattles for babies to large kiddie cars. We actually had more toys than we could handle. The kids' eyes light up like saucers when they get them. It sure makes you feel good."

Woessner said that the Naval Reserve Station got its list of the needy families from the Salvation Army.

"We also received a donation and aid from the Metropolitan Club," he said. "I think our efforts are well rewarded. We should be able to make a little better Christmas for more than 35 needy families in Pontiac."

Gobs May Be Guys but They're Not GIs

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)— The sailors at Redstone Arsenal are roughing it. They're having to live like GIs.

They are the 20 sailors attached to the Army ballistic missile agency. They came to Redstone directly from sea duty, and take it from them, this Army life is strickly for the soldiers, or somebody else. But not for gobs.

The Navy men are living with the GIs in barracks. They seem to have the most trouble in making their beds.

"It takes about two minutes to fold our blankets aboard ship," said one dejected sailor. "But it takes us about 15 minutes to make a GI bunk correctly."

And when it comes to policing the barracks and grounds — well, you just don't rake leaves aboard ship.

Dems Talk Program Behind Closed Door

LANSING (AP) — Democrats met behind closed doors yesterday to discuss Gov. Williams' legislative program, but they were closed-mouthed about what went on.

John Sweeney, one of Williams' aides, said he could not talk about the program because it is still subject to revision.

It was understood, however, that the Democrats turned thumbs down on a proposal to hike the state's sales tax from three to 3½ per cent.

The possibility of this has been discussed by some legislators as a way to help erase a 40-80 million dollar general fund deficit with the Staz will face next year.

Democrats also talked about school aid, housing for the aged.

Twenty-two of the 60 Democrats in the House and Senate showed up for the caucus, held the day after similar meeting by House Republicans.

Irish liquor dealers in Dublin say there is no popular demand for Sunday opening of bars in Eire.

Who Mans Missile Site? U.S., Brazil Bickering

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Negotiations are stalled between the United States and Brazil for a proposed guided missile observation station on Brazilian territory.

The two countries can't agree which will man the equipment.

The station is to be set up on Fernando de Noronha Island. The island, 225 miles off Brazil's northeast coast, lies in the 40-mile-wide, 5,000-mile-long U.S. guided missile range in the Atlantic.

Cocoanut Grove Blaze Survivor

Cheats Death by Fire Once, Cannot Do It Second Time

BOSTON (INS) — The "Human Laboratory" of the Cocoanut Grove nightclub fire in Boston in 1942—the man who made medical history by living although he was burned almost beyond recognition—is dead in Missouri—a victim of a truck fire.

From Jefferson City, Mo., came the news yesterday that Clifford Johnson, 34, former Coast Guardsman and recently a state employe, perished when his truck crashed into a ditch and burst into flames.

The medical world learned more about the treatment of burns while ministering to Johnson for the three years that he was in Boston City Hospital than from any other individual in history, according to Dr. Herbert C. Lund, one of the many experts who treated him.

Johnson was with the Coast Guard detail which rushed to the Cocoanut Grove with police, fire fighters and other service personnel in doing what they could to aid the victims of the disaster.

Killed in the holocaust were 493 women and men on the night of Nov. 2, 1942.

Johnson fought his way into the blazing nightclub in rescue work. He himself was so badly burned that doctors practically gave him up for dead.

He had been burned over 60 per cent of his body, and most of the burns were listed as "third degree." There was little hope of saving his life, but what little hope there was, doctors utilized.

Three years, seven months and 19 days later Johnson left the hospital in a wheel chair, weak, but alive and healthy.

It was estimated that Johnson's treatment actually cost $100,000 but as Dr. Lund pointed out, medical science got its money's worth.

Would You Like to Be a Winner of Pot-O-Gold?

Pot-O-Gold money is back down to the $200 mark, but don't forget that will come in mighty handy for your New Year's celebrations, and unless you're really a spender, you should have some left over. Just remember to check the rules and make sure you have your entry postmarked by the new deadline. You won't want to be disqualified because your puzzle is late.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.

2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answer words in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 29 must bear a Saturday, Dec. 22, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries becoming the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Average Traffic Seen at Yule

Most Holiday Travelers to Leave Cars at Home, Auto Club Says

DETROIT (INS) — The Automobile Club of Michigan said today no great increase in highway traffic is anticipated in the state over Christmas, although most area workers will have a four-day holiday.

Harry N. Rogan, Auto Club travel services director, said routing requests show most persons will travel by other means than private auto, or plan to spend the pre-holiday period preparing for festivities in their homes.

Rogan said trips from 40 to 100 miles will comprise most Christmas auto travel, and that the traffic peak will be from 6 p.m. to midnight Christmas night when employes having to report for work Wednesday morning will be returning home.

Space on public carriers, the Club declared, is almost impossible to obtain over the holiday, especially on Friday night and early Saturday.

For those who do plan to drive, Rogan warns of the dangers of darkness and bad weather. He advises frequent stops for coffee and leg-stretching, pointing out that drivers become drowsy faster in the winter because windows are closed and the fresh air supply limited.

Capricious Starlings to Receive Hotfoot

CHICAGO (INS)—Assassins are not the only things Washington circles have to watch out for when President Eisenhower takes his inaugural ride in Washington Jan. 21.

A Skokie, Ill., firm is to spray trees along the President's route to give a chemical hot foot to discourage feathery starlings who also are wont to perch on the hombergs of Columbia nofficials.

John W. Batsom, superintendant of trees and landscapes in D. C., experimented with balloons, firecrackers and electric shocks, but the impudent birds thought he was only playing games and gave him what for.

Matsom called upon Skokie's national bird control laboratories which successfully test-sprayed six Washington trees three weeks ago.

They will begin their warfare on the starlings beginning Dec. 26 and continue up to the time the President takes his ride.

Things Going to the Dogs for a Lot of Cat Owners

POMPTON LAKES, N. J. (AP)—Cats here will have to wear "dog-tags" by Feb. 1.

The Borough Council last night unanimously adopted a law requiring metal tags to be worn by male and female cats at all times after that date. Licenses with the tags will cost the owners $1 for males and $2 for females.

All unlicensed cats will be impounded, if caught, and killed in a humane manner if unclaimed after a week.

Hollywood Headlines

Bobo Rockefeller Backs 'The James Dean Story'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—The very rich Bobo Rockefeller, who received six million dollars in her divorce settlement from Winthrop Rockefeller, is spending some of that money in a motion picture.

She has invested, as one of the backers, in "The James Dean Story," a feature-length documentary now being written, produced and directed by George W. George and Robert Altman, based on the story of Jimmy, who left so many memories in his short life.

The whole project has been surrounded by great secrecy, but I happen to known that George and Altman have spent some time at Dean's home town, Fairmount, Ind., and have already acquired considerable footage.

They'll release their product through one of the major studios.

Pretty British actress Patricia Owen and her husband, Sy Bartlett, have spent most of their year's married life many miles apart, and it doesn't appear they'll get together soon.

Now in London finishing "Island in the Sun" for Darryl Zanuck, Pat leaves immediately for Japan where she joins producer Bill Goetz Josh Logan and Marlon Brando to play the American girl in "Sayonara."

Meanwhile, Sy will be half around the world in Madrid as co-producer with Gregory Peck in "Thieves Market." They still hope to get Ava Gardner for "Thieves." Greg and his director and partner are in New York for conferences on the pictures.

SAXON SCORES

Out Universal way they are very high on a handsome, dark-eyed young man named John Saxon, who hails from Brooklyn. I first saw young Saxon at the Modern Screen party where he was talking in Italian to Rossano Brazzi. It seems Saxon is of Italian parentage.

Now he has been signed by Ed Muhl, who has put him into a Ross Hunter picture, "Teach Me How to Cry," in a starring role, if you please.

At the moment young Saxon is in Detroit with Sam Mineo, beating the drums for "Rock Pretty Baby," John's first picture. It was the job he did in "Pretty Baby" that gave him the contract.

In the mass of Christmas cards I find one from Olivia de Havilland and Pierre Galante, with a cheery note from Livvy. She says:

"Giselle is already baptized. We decided to have it done in Paris instead of Nice, as her godmother lives here and her godfather was in Paris.

"Our daughter was baptized at the Saint Honore de-Eylan Place Victor Hugo. Her godmother is Comtesse Devague and her godfather Georges Massier.

"Our little girl looked adorable in her long white dress. She has two teeth and our doctor says she is the prettiest baby he is taking care of."

VERY FIRST PARTY

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: The very first Christmas party of the season was given by Dorris and Nunnally Johnson and the invitation said, "Hoping to gather the gayest, prettiest and brightest of people for a spirited Christmas party" and—believe me—their invitation was answered.

The first person I saw was Gloria Stewart, looking like a doll, but wearing a patch over her eye. "Don't blame me," laughed Jimmy. Gloria explained the doctor had taken pieces of gravel out of the eyeball that day. On her the patch was becoming.

Mrs. Ray Milland, in the brightest of bright red dresses, said that she was wearing her Christmas dress. I asked Edith Goetz if she is taking the gorgeous white dress she was wearing to Japan. "Of course," she said, "I want to look my best."

Claudette Colbert, who goes to very few parties, danced many dances. Johnny Green couldn't resist the piano and when his bride, Bunny, looked around, there he was playing with the orchestra.

The decor of the Johnson house was something to see—all done with Buddhas and huge candelabras. Said Nunnally when I complimented him—"Courtesy of 'The King and I.'"

The population of all the Latin American countries combined is now almost as large as the population of the continental United States.

In a single molecule of human blood there are an estimated 16,669 atoms.

Santa Gives Youngster Some Pertinent Advice

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—I can't vouch for these, but . . .

A nine-year-old boy romped boisterously around Santa Claus in the toy section of a store in Dunmore, Pa. (the home town of Umpire Vic Delmore). Finally Santa beckoned the boy over.

The boy's father beamed as Santa whispered something to Sonny.

The boy then rejoined his father—who proudly asked, "What did Santa tell you?"

"He told me," said Junior, "if I didn't quit playing with the toys, he'd break my arm."

While librarians shivered, the architect was summoned. He could find no heating connections. But the engineer then produced the blueprints and cocksurely gave the answer.

English Conservate Pressed Hard to Win

MELTON MOWBRAY, England (AP) — Prime Minister Eden's strained Conservative party Thursday hel dits parliamentary seat in a special election here but with a sharply reduced majority of only 2,362 votes.

The election was necessary because of the resignation of Eden's former protege, Anthony Nutting, in protest over Eden's policy in Egypt. Nutting gave up his parliamentary seat and his job as minister of state for foreign affairs. Last year Nutting won the seat by 10,780 votes.

The election aroused great national interest because Britons are still divided over the wisdom of Eden's military intervention in Egypt. It was regarded as a test of both Conservative strength and unity.

Wednesday Miss Mervin Pike, the Conservative, received 19,313 votes to 16,771 for her Labor opponent, Edward J. Masters, a school teacher.

Masters claimed a moral victory, saying what had once been a safe Conservative seat has been turned into a marginal one. Miss Pike said she was encouraged by the results.

Satellites Must Get Free by Evolution

Dulles Tones Down Talk; Takes 'R' Off Revolution

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles' idea of liberation for the Russian satellites — after talking for four years about their liberation—comes down to a do-it-yourself policy.

This is cold comfort, but hardly news, for the Iron Curtain countries which want to shake loose from Russia and may have hoped for military help from the United States once they started a revolt.

If this is what they thought, they got their disillusionment when the Hungarians did revolt and got nothing but moral support from the United States. In his news conference this week Dulles seemed even to dilute the moral support.

He said he would rather see the satellites get their independence through peaceful "evolutionary" means.

Asked if this country felt that what happened between Russia and the satellites was strictly a Russian affair, Dulles didn't answer directly.

He said the Russians have told the United States the satellites are their business alone. He added that if Russia wanted this country's opinion — although it hasn't so far—the United States would be glad to give them.

This isn't how Dulles talked in the 1952 presidential campaign when he sounded so fiery about liberating the satellites that President Eisenhower, then the Republican candidate, stepped in with an explanation that Dulles didn't mean liberation by force.

Ever since Eisenhower won the election that year, Dulles has harped on the liberation theme. Recently, though, he has been softening his talk with suggestions about the "evolutionary" processes.

This means independence achieved peacefully instead of by revolt. And that in turn means Dulles is telling the satellites they'll have to work out their own problems.

There's apparently a fairly valid reason for the very cautious note Dulles has been sounding since the Poles defied the Russians and got some independence and the Hungarians defied them with open, internal warfare.

This is it:

This government and its European allies are worried that the Russian rulers, fearing their empire is disintegrating, might in desperate panic decide on sudden war.

Dulles was not only assuring them that this country didn't want war but, as he said, didn't even want a resumption of the cold war and didn't want the satellites, even if they were free, as American military allies.

The newly elected officers were installed by The Past Most Illustrious Grand Master of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of the State of Michigan Clyde G. Townsend.

Wool Consumption Up in 11 Major Countries

WASHINGTON — The 11 major consuming countries used 8 per cent more wool in the first half of 1956 than in the comparable 1955 period. Japan, with a 30 per cent rise, had the largest proportionate increase, but on a weight basis the United States led with a 25,000,000-pound gain.

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

When coach Buddy Parker boarded the Detroit-bound plane Sunday night after the Lions-Bears game, he stopped in the aisle, counted the 6th seat from the front, and that's where he sat.

As he slumped wearily into the 6th seat of the plane, he commented, "This will be my last ride in this seat for the Lions."

Of course Parker could have meant anything by that. It could have meant that next year, in his 7th season with the Lions, he would be sitting in the 7th seat in every plane the Lions would take to a game.

Or he could have passed a hint that he was through as head coach of the Detroit pro outfit.

Last year the 5th seat was an unlucky one for Parker, but seats one, two, three and four were quite successful, and so was six, up to the Bears' game.

As he got ready to get off the plane, Parker patted the seat and said, "I think I'll get a job coaching Podunk U. or Texas Southern and Western next year."

Of course most everyone took it as a jest. It was just a downhearted coach after a losing game talking, was the way some accepted it.

NOW IT LOOKS MORE REAL

Well, yesterday Buddy made it clear he may have not been jesting on the plane. He turned down a one-year contract offer by the Lions, strongly indicating he wasn't interested in coaching in the pro ranks any more.

He did not say however that he was not interested in coaching altogether and a college possibility somewhere in Texas may not have been part of just an expression on the plane.

There's a wide open job waiting for some loyal Texan at Southern Methodist. SMU recently expressed its notion that it was interested in a good experienced coach, and even though Doak Walker was mentioned, he was ruled out.

But how about Parker? There could be a pretty good coaching team in the making with Parker as head coach and Walker, the greatest ever to come out of SMU and the Lions, as an assistant.

WHY WOULD PARKER LEAVE DETROIT?

After the Chicago game many sportswriters quoted Parker as saying he was quitting the pros because of the Layne incident and the growth of dirty football in the play-for-pay league.

They also said that Parker would be offered a new "long term" contract for $30,000 per year.

That "long term" offer made yesterday was 12 months, and there was no actual salary quoted, just speculation figures.

We doubt that even a three year contract at the amount quoted would do the trick to keep Parker. But we believe that one thing would possibly sway Parker to give it a second thought.

That thing would be a clause in the contract which would be worded "hands off" and directed at some of the members of the board of directors of the club.

It hasn't been exactly a preserved bit of knowledge that advice coming from some of the directors has been "given" rather than "offered."

Parker Rejects Renewal of One-Year Contract

DETROIT (AP) — Raymond K. (Buddy) Parker, 43, a likeable Texan who once made less money coaching the Detroit Lions than Bo McMillin did for not coaching them, has everyone guessing on whether he'll return as the football team's head coach in 1957.

After a whirlwind of activities yesterday, including a closed-door meeting of the Lions' board of directors, a huddle among the club's president, its general manager and Parker, and a confusing news conference—in that order—these questions remain unanswered:

1. How badly, if at all, does Parker want to stay on as head coach?

2. How much are the Lions willing to pay to keep the man who has guided them to three division titles in six years in the National Football League?

3. What prompted Parker to announce that he would not ask the board for a contract renewal?

Parker's one-year contract expires Dec. 31. After six seasons as head coach of the club, he said he did not ask the directors to renew his contract. He gave no reason.

It appeared unlikely, however, that Parker would let his Lions contract lapse unless he had something definite in mind. Several attractive college jobs, such as Southern Methodist, are open and several pro vacancies are in prospect, such as Baltimore and Pittsburgh.

Parker said Sunday after the Lions lost the Western Division title game to the Chicago Bears that he was "fed up with the trend toward dirty football" in the NFL and confessed he had been thinking of "getting out of pro football" for quite some time.

The injury to Detroit quarterback Bobby Layne after a bruising tackle by the Bears' Ed Meadows inspired the accusations that Meadows deliberately tried to put Layne out of the game and that Bear owner George Halas probably put Meadows up to it.

Whether Parker has made up his mind to get out of the game, or whether he is dissatisfied with the club and its terms is not clear. It is believed that his present contract nets him in the neighborhood of $30,000 a year, including bonus attachments for attendance.

Some say he wants a multiple-year contract. The Lions haven't extended such a pact to a coach since they hired McMillin on a five-year deal in 1948, and three seasons later paid off the final two years of the contract. Parker, who was McMillin's backfield coach in 1950, moved up to the head coaching job in 1951 and his teams won division titles in 1952-53-54.

President Edwin J. Anderson stated flatly that he offered Parker a contract, but that "we were not able to agree on terms."

The president made it obvious there probably would be an offer more attractive to Parker. While the coach said nothing about negotiations or talks, Anderson told reporters it "looks as if further negotiations will be held in the near future."

But Detroit has had other incidents paralleling this one. Just two years ago Fred Hutchinson resigned as manager of the Detroit Tigers because the club would offer him only a one-year contract. Bucky Harris took over for two seasons and now Jack Tighe will be running the club in 1957—with a one-year pact.

NO PEN IN HAND — This is the glum picture which was seen in the Detroit Lions' offices yesterday when head coach Buddy Parker (seated) turned down an offer to coach the Lions for the 7th straight season. Standing is Edwin J. Anderson, president of the Detroit club. Detroit was making an offer of a 1-year contract. Parker is reportedly seeking more security. He was quoted as saying he does not want his contract renewed with the Lions.

Redman Spills 290 Pins

Drayton Plains Bowler 'Champ' for One Game

Lyle Redman of Drayton Plains is just an average bowler. He participates in two Pontiac area leagues and carries a 160 average.

But Redman was definitely not an average bowler Wednesday night. For one game, at least, he was as good as they come.

The 41-year-old Redman, who lives at 2817 Barkman, turned in a sparkling single game effort of 290 — actual, that is, not handicap—during league night at Dixie Recreation.

Redman's 290 is reportedly the highest single game rolled in the Pontiac vicinity this season in competition sanctioned by the American Bowling Congress.

It is the best score recorded on the Dixie alleys since 1946 and Redman's top effort in nearly 10 years of bowling.

The first frame spoiled his chances for a perfect 300 game. He had to settle for a spare on the first frame, then rolled 11 consecutive strikes to post his dazzling total. He chalked up another strike to open the next game.

Redman was bowling for the Circle Four team in the Double Trouble League when he toppled his 290 pins. He hit the jackpot in the first game, then returned to normal with scores of 154-162 for a series total of 606.

He started out the evening playing with the Drayton Meat Market keglers in the Drayton Merchants League and, in his own words, "I was terrible." Apparently he was just warming up.

Redman will be rewarded with the ABC's "11 in a Row" award, a sterling silver plaque containing his name and score.

HITS 290 — Lyle Redman of 2817 Barkman came as close as he ever has in trying to hit the perfect 300 mark in bowling. Redman rolled a 290, getting a spare in the first frame and striking out the rest of the way.

Dalrymple Is Signed as Pro at Lakepointe

After eight years as a golf professional, Johnny Dalrymple, former Keego Harbor High School athlete, and consistent contender in Metropolitan District links events, has finally landed as a club professional.

Johnny has been signed as headman at the Lakepointe Country Club, succeeding Bobby Ross. Ross has taken a golf post in Los Angeles, his former home. Dalrymple said he signed for one year with the club owner, Louis Palmer, Detroit realtor.

Dalrymple was assistant at Pontiac Country Club, was with Tommy Shannon at Orchard Lake a year, with Lou Powers for a year at Tam O'Shanter and went with Powers to the Detroit Municipal Golf system. He lives with his wife Nancy and two small children, Kathy and David, in Royal Oak.

Wichita Signs Ex-SMU Coach

Woodward Gets 3-Year Contract as Head Grid Pilot in Home Town

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — The University of Wichita announced last night that Chalmer E. (Woody) Woodard, 39, had accepted a three-year contract as head football coach.

Woodard will receive $10,500 the first year, $11,000 the second year and $11,500 the third, Robert Kirkpatrick, director of athletics at the Missouri Valley Conference school, announced.

Woodard, a native of Wichita, recently resigned as head football coach at Southern Methodist University. He said he would fly here today from Dallas, Tex., to meet the Shocker team and to take care of the "particulars."

He replaces Pete Tillman, who resigned the Wichita coaching job last Saturday.

During Woodard's four years at SMU, the Mustangs won 19 games, lost 20 and tied 1. This year the team finished fifth in the Southwest Conference with a 4-6 record.

The new Shocker mentor played football at Southwestern College, Winfield, Kan., and was graduated in 1939. Woodard also coached at Kingman, Dodge City and Lawrence, Kan., high schools before entering college ranks.

More Top Cage Powers Fall

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's beginning to look as if a place of honor in the national college basketball rankings is more a kiss of death than a pat on the back.

Continuing the trend of a week that began with San Francisco's first loss in two years, 10th-rated Kansas State was spilled last night by Minnesota, two members of the Associated Press poll's "second ten" were beaten, and even North Carolina, No. 3, had the scare of its life before finally struggling to its sixth straight victory.

The North Carolina Tar Heels—primarily a bunch of New Yorkers who followed ex-St. John's coach Frank McGuire South — had a "homecoming" of sorts at Madison Square Garden. They wound up a 64-59 winner over so-so New York University, but only after Bob Cunningham and reserve Joe Quigg had rushed to the rescue of the Carolina ace, Len Rosenbluth, a 28-points-a-game performer who was held without a field goal for the first 30 minutes and wound up with nine points.

Minnesota also sprung a couple of unsung players to hand K-State its first loss after four wins, 80-72. Buck Lindsley, with a five-point average, scored 21 and George Hanson added 18 to overbalance a 33-point show by State's Jack Parr.

Alabama, rated 17th, was handed a 73-50 shellacking by unranked Wake Forest and LaSalle, also unsighted in the rankings, caused North Carolina State, No. 19 its third loss, 83-76.

In keeping with the crazy-quilt pattern, St. Bonavenutre, regularly among the best in the East, lost its first in four, 64-63 to Iona on an over-the-head shot by Joe Bernardi with 10 seconds to play; Indiana, an easy winner over LaSalle earlier in the week, was beaten by Villanova, 79-69; and Nebraska, which dumped strong Purdue from the unbeaten list a couple days ago, needed Don Smidt's one-hander from midcourt with three seconds left to nip much-beaten Texas Tech, 67-66.

South Carolina, which carried North Carolina into overtime before losing last Saturday, defeated Georgia Tech 90-83 behind a 37-point job by Grady Wallace. Bradley, trailing 18-6 at one point, overcame Wisconsin, 74-62, and Oklahoma City, tied for 15th in the AP ratings, got a school record of 43 points from Hubert Reed in a 91-74 decision over San Jose State.

* * *

Chicago Loyola made it six out of seven in an 89-72 romp over North Dakota, and two free throws by Junior Born with five seconds left enabled Tulsa to defeat Detroit, 75-74 in a Missouri Valley Conference game.

Georgia Tech Favored Over Sugar Bowl Rival

NEW ORLEANS (INS) — Rebel yells will shred the air in New Orleans come New Year's day when Baylor's Bears and Tennessee's Volunteers square off against each other in the 23rd renewal of the Sugar Bowl classic at New Orleans.

While the Volunteers, undefeated and untied in their 10-game regular season schedule, are rated seven-point favorites in their fourth appearance in the classic, the Bears have been busily sharpening their claws to uphold a Texas tradition.

It will be Baylor's initial appearance in the bowl, but all other Lone Star State participants in the classic have walked away winners.

The capacity crowd of 81,000 fans, who gobbled up the ducats soon after they went on sale, plus the multitudes who will watch the fray on television, will see not only Tennessee's split-T in operation against Baylor's single-wing, but the bone-crushing lunges of two bruising forward walls.

Both teams have permitted only two opponents two or more touchdowns. The Texans copped the southwest conference championship only seven points from an unbeaten season. They dropped a 7 to 6 heartbreaker to Texas Christian University and lost 13 to 19 to Texas A&M.

Coach Bowden Wyatt leads his Tennessee Southeastern Conference champions onto the gridiron with a 2 to 1 bowl record.

The Vols lost their inaugural appearance in 1941 to Boston College, 19 to 13. Then they defeated Tulsa, 14 to 7 two years later and went back in 1952 to be dumped by Maryland, 28 to 13.

MSU-Marquette Meet Saturday

EAST LANSING (AP)—A couple of kid brothers threaten to steal the show when Michigan State and Marquette meet in basketball here Saturday night.

Jim McCoy, younger brother of former MSU star Julius McCoy, will start at forward for Marquette. At graduation last year, Julius held the season, game and career scoring records at Michigan State.

MSU guard Tom Rand is a brother of Marquette's Terry Rand, the 6-9 center who was leading scorer for the Warriors as a senior last season.

Michigan State has been a hot and cold team so far this season. The Spartans lost 60-53 to Iowa State, won 79-61 from Brigham Young and lost 83-79 to Butler on Monday night in an overtime game.

Marquette has won four of seven, beating St. Norbert, Depaul, North Dakota State and Drake and losing to Kansas, Louisville and St. Francis.

'Rocket' Leads Montreal Win

Richard Clicks Twice as Canadiens Defeat Toronto, 4-2

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

When Maurice (The Rocket) Richard is on the beam, the Montreal Canadiens are a tough club to beat.

Last night, Richard clicked for two goals as the Canadiens moved closer to the top of the National Hockey League by beating the Toronto Maple Leafs, 4-2.

The victory enabled Montreal to gain ground on Boston and Detroit who played to a 1-1 standoff. The Canucks are now tied with the Red Wings for second place, three points behind the pacesetting Bruins.

* * *

Richard scored both his goals in the first period and Montreal never was headed. Doug Harvey and Claude Provost pitched in for the other Canuck counters while Brian Cullen and Dick Duff tallied for the fifth-place Maple Leafs.

Chiefs Favored to Extend Win Streak

By H. GUY MOATS

Bearing out early season predictions that it would be a basketball club to watch, Pontiac High School's Chief five has compiled a three-game winning mark, and tonight sets out to add a fourth straight victory to the string.

Art Van Ryzin's crew was cast opposite Edsel Ford of Dearborn on the Dearborn quintet's own floor. Chiefs are rated prohibitive favorites to extend their list of victories.

The PHS club has shown signs of going along the fine scoring path set by the 1955-56 team, spearheaded by All-Stater Willie DeWalt. The last season offered the highest scoring total of all time for the Chiefs. They racked up 951 points to 821 for opponents, with a game average of something like 63.4 points per game for the regular schedule of 15 contests. Opponents averaged 44 points per game. It was the 2nd straight year PHS had topped the 900 mark. Last year also held the all-time high point single game total for a Pontiac five, the 92-73 win over Saginaw.

Where much of the 1955-'56 average was maintained by DeWalt's consistently high totals, there was no one immediately available this year to take up the slack caused by Willie's graduation.

Led by little Dave Diehm, however, a quartet of bucket-dunkers has produced all but 17 points of the 167 Chiefs have registered in their three straight wins. Diehm has contributed 53, Hudson (Goose) Ray 37, Dick Whitmer 29 and Terry Zellhart 28. Opponents have registered 129.

A reserve game begins at 6:30 p.m. with the varsity tilt at 8 o'clock. Edsel Ford school is located at 20601 Rotunda, Dearborn.

Probable starters for tonight's setto at Dearborn include:

PONTIAC		EDSEL FORD
Zellhart, f	6-2-160	Joachim, f	6-1
Alexander, f	6-4-185	Brown, f	6-0
Ray, c	6-5-180	Knipp, c	6-1½

Gavilan Handed Surprising Loss

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Underdog Ramon Fuentes kept up a bristling attack to upset former world welterweight champion Kid Gavilan of Cuba in a split 10-round decision at Olympic Auditorium last night.

Odds on a Gavilan victory were 5-2 before the fight.

Referee Tommy Hart and Judge Frankie Van both turned in cards favoring Fuentes 96-95. Judge Mushy Callahan had it Gavilan 98-92.

Fuentes, 31, ex-gravedigger from Los Angeles, earned his margin in the seventh when he got over three jolting rights to the head of the ex-champ, followed by a wide, stinging left hook.

* * *

They were the heaviest blows of the fight. Gavilan's periodic bursts of speed kept him in contention throughout.

Fuentes weighed 153½, Gavilan 152.

COME TO TERMS — Catcher Yogi Berra (left) has a word for pitcher Whitey Ford after the two New York Yankee players came to terms yesterday on their 1957 contracts. Yogi reportedly signed for $58,000 and Ford for about $35,000.

$58,000 for Yogi

Berra, Ford First to Sign

NEW YORK (AP) — Yogi Berra expects to see several pitchers following the lead of Don Larsen and Bob Turley, his New York Yankee teammates, by trying to pitch without a windup next season.

Berra was at Yankee Stadium yesterday with Whitey Ford, leading American League pitcher, to sign their 1957 contracts. Although general manager George Weiss of the Yanks and both players held their ground and wouldn't admit a thing, it was reported Berra will be paid $58,000 and Ford about $35,000 next season.

Berra and Ford were the first two Yanks to sign, accepting what Weiss called "good raises." Berra usually is an early bird but Ford normally waits until time for spring training at St. Petersburg, Fla. before coming to terms.

With a World Series winner and a triple champion like Mickey Mantle, the Yanks may have their problems before they get the players on the dotted line. That is primarily the job of Lee MacPhail, new director of player personnel who took over the job formerly held by Bill DeWitt. It appeared, however, Berra and Ford were signed by Weiss.

Weiss said Yankee contracts had not been sent out but would go into the mail between Christmas and New Year's. He said Berra and Ford live nearby and "happened to drop in."

Although Weiss ducked the question, it is apparent Berra is the highest-priced Yankee since Joe DiMaggio's $100,000 days. Unless Mantle suddenly spurts into the upper regions.

Rival Rose Bowl 11's Cautious in Workouts

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Rival Rose Bowl coaches Tommy Prothro of Oregon State and Forest Evashevski of Iowa pleaded lack of reserve strength today and played cautious about heavy contact work.

The businesslike but affable Hawkeye headman from Iowa City said he has four or possibly five first string men who are key players. He cannot risk injury to any of them.

Prothro, the man from Dixie, said his problem is not so much regulars as "players to practice against."

Oregon State's 40-man squad is now, at least temporarily, reduced to 37. Out with injuries are third stringers Carl Maxwell and Chuck Reich, ends, and tackle Terry Salisbury.

Evashevski said it would be hard to replace center Don Suchy, end Frank Gilliam, quarterback Ken Ploen, tackle Alex Karras and Frank Bloomquist, guard.

Neither coach is exactly happy with the training outlook as matters stand. But as Prothro observed, no coach is satisfied a week or 10 days before a big game.

Oregon State, Prothro announced, is moving its practice sessions from Santa Monica City College to Spaulding Field at UCLA next Monday, primarily because the UCLA field provides more privacy. Prothro called it "indoors."

UCLA's field is also something of an alma mater for the one-time Duke University star, since he was an assistant coach at UCLA from 1949 until he went to Oregon State as head coach in 1955.

Evashevski summed up one sentiment handily with the comment: "We know what Oregon State probably will do, but not when they will do it."

The Hawkeye coach concluded with, "I'd be very happy right now to settle for another one point Iowa victory."

He referred to Iowa's 14-13 win over Oregon State Oct. 6, which now sets up the first Rose Bowl replay of a regular season game.

ST. FRED STALWARTS — These five players form a large part of coach Gene Wright's hopes for a winning basketball season at St. Frederick. They are, from left to right, forward Dick Nickerson, forward John Bradley, guard Mike Malloy, guard Wally Quarles and guard Marty Koenig. Nickerson is a promising sophomore for the southside cagers while all the others are seniors. The Rams, who have won two games and lost one thus far, tangle with Royal Oak St. Mary tonight in the St. Fred gymnasium.

Pair Fighters Get Texas Ban

Aragon Denies Charges Made by Goldstein in Alleged Fix

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Boxer Art Aragon's lawyer, Paul Caruso, said today Art will have nothing to say for a few days about the alleged fixed fight that wasn't held as scheduled in San Antonio, Tex., last Tuesday night.

Dick Goldstein, Los Angeles boxer who claims Aragon conspired with him by offering him $500 to "take a dive," told his story yesterday to Clayton Frye, assistant secretary of the state athletic commission.

Texas has banned both Aragon and Goldstein and the ban will apply in all states except New York, but California won't concur until it receives and studies the finding of the Texas Athletic Commission, and until both boxers have been questioned at length here.

Aragon's lawyer said his client was upset "over the untrue and irresponsible charges" and has been placed under sedation of his personal physician."

Goldstein is under 30 days suspension, while Aragon is indefinite.

The team, which won the Western Interprovincial Football Union title and captured the Grey Cup for the third successive year, was named winner today in the annual Canadian Press year end poll of sports editors and sportcasters.

Holidays Cut Prep Activity

By BILL CORNWELL

The onrushing holidays have put a huge crimp in tonight's high school basketball activity in Oakland County and surrounding area.

With most area schools calling it quits until vacation is over, a skimpy program of 16 games is all that's in the offing.

Aside from the Wayne-Oakland Conference, league activity is virtually at a standstill. A full three-game card is scheduled in the W-O circuit and two games are slated in the South Central Conference.

Clarenceville, surprisingly strong so far in Wayne-Oakland competition, moves into Clarkston to meet the Wolves, who hope to rebound from last week's loss to Brighton.

Holly, disappointing in early season performances, tackles winless Milford on the Redskin floor.

Tonight's No. 1 W-O engagement pits Brighton against Northville on the latter's court. Northville is unbeaten in league play while Brighton at this date looms as the Mustang's stiffest foe for the title

The top South Central game finds undefeated Imlay City invading Oxford, which has been unimpressive in dropping two decisions. Imlay is a heavy favorite. Ortonville is a definite underdog for its conference invasion of North Branch.

Tonight's best non-league action takes place at St. Frederick and Keego Harbor.

St. Fred's Rams square off against Royal Oak St. Mary. The Irish belong to the Suburban Catholic League, but tonight's outing is a non-league affair. The Rams will be gunning for their 3rd victory in four starts.

Rochester, boasting numerous scoring guns, will be favored to sink the Lakers. The Falcons' lone loss in three attempts came at the hands of Utica whereas West Bloomfield High has failed to find a winning combination.

Lapeer, along with high-scoring Tom Wilson, visits Davison. Southfield, winless in four games, journeys to Livonia Bentley and Dearborn Edsel Ford plays host to unbeaten Pontiac.

Other area games tonight are St. Patrick at Shrine, Millington at Lakeville, Bad Axe at Marlette and Monroe at Royal Oak.

Shaw's, Royals Post Wins

Shaw's Jewelers romped to their 4th straight victory and the Lakeside Royals were easy winners in a couple of adult City League basketball games last night at Pontiac High.

Hal Trott dumped in 22 points and Bob McManus contributed 18 as the unbeaten Jewelers walloped the Clarkston Merchants, 61-49. Gene Younger topped the Merchants with 17 points.

Four Lakeside players hit double figures, headed by Jim Pembroke's 20, as the Royals trounced Booth Homes, 62-42. Bill Dunstan scored 16 points for the losers.

Last night's action concluded City League activity until after the holidays. The adult leagues resume play Jan. 2 while Class D teams wait until Jan. 7.

Small College Bowl Saturday Is on TV

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Opposing quarterbacks Ralph Tite of Montana State and Dave Alt of St. Joseph typify the "small college" designation used to describe the first annual Aluminum Bowl game which will be played here Saturday.

Tite and Alt each stand about 5-7 and weigh around 160, but they are as proficient as most major college signal-callers.

The contest, sponsored by the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics, will bring together for the first time the two teams chosen as the "best in the nation" among small colleges. The game also will mark the first time two such teams have had a chance to perform before a national television audience—CBS at 2 p.m. CST.

Titans Again Lose in Final Seconds

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—The University of Detroit came within a point and five seconds of breaking a University of Tulsa basketball jinx last night. But as it turned out, the Titans still never have won in Tulsa.

The Golden Hurricane won the Missouri Valley Conference game, 75-74 on two free throws by Junion Born with five seconds left.

Mike Walsh had stolen the ball with only 31 seconds remaining. The points, his 25th and 26th, gave Walsh scoring honors for the game. Detroit's Bill Ebben was second with 20, lowest output of the year for him.

It was the second time in a week the Titans have lost a one point game in the final seconds. Bowling Green took a 67-66 decision a week ago.

Blue-Gray Stars Start Workouts

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — College all-stars from Maine to Colorado and Texas to North Carolina are expected here to start work for the Blue-Gray football game Dec. 29.

Twenty-four seniors from above the Mason-Dixon line and a like number from schools in Dixie will exhibit their gridiron talents before an expected crowd of 21,000 and a nationwide television audience, NBC.

The six coaches also are expected here today. They are Don Faurot of Missouri, Murray Warmath of Minnesota and Jack Mollenkopf of Purdue, representing the Yankees, and Jim Tatum of North Carolina, Paul Bryant of Texas A&M and Ralph Jordan of Auburn the Southern board of strategy.

* * *

Two-a-day workouts start Saturday and will continue through next week except for Christmas day when the players will relax with one practice session.

Australian Snub Finds American Stars Unruffled

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — American Davis Cup players, victims of the great Australian snub, said today they were not losing any sleep over the fact they were not invited to remain after next week's chilenge round for the Australian national tennis championships.

"I am not heartbroken," said Herbie Flam of Beverley Hills, Calif. "I have a lot of things which need to be done back home and besides, the three weeks wait between the chailenge round and the tournament are too much."

* * *

The Australian nationals, to be played this year in Melbourne, will be held the last 10 days in January.

Not Bothered by 'Dirty' Football

Pro Grid Choices Unswayed by Stories

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — There's talk of dirty football in professional football, but it's not scaring the East-West collegians, the play-for-pay stars of tomorrow.

To a man, those who intend to join the National Football League or Canadian pro ranks next fall pooh-poohed the ruckus currently going on over charges of dirty play and player pools for "getting" key men.

"You got out there at your own risk," commented Paul Hatcher, a 6 foot 2, 215-pound Arizona end, who already has had two games against the pro Los Angeles Rams while a member of a service team.

Who was rougher? Some of the college teams, Hatcher, a Chicago Bear draft choice, said.

Stanford's John Brodie, San Francisco 49er No. 1 draft pick, and the West quarterback, said he anticipated "quite a few cracks in the nose next year." Southern California's quick stepping Jon Arnett, headed for the Rams, and Abe Woodson of Illinois, a prospective 49er, all had the same thought: All football is rough and the pro game is just another step up the ladder—but no rougher than the jump from high school to college.

Don Owens, 6-6, 250 pounds of ex-Marine and Mississippi Southern tackle, shrugged off all the hulaballoo. Owens, who intends to play at Pittsburgh next season, likes his football so much he flies out of here right after the Dec. 29 Shrine affair for Orlando, Fla. to join his teammates for a bowl game. The Mississippians play West Texas State in the Tangerine Bowl Jan. 1.

Several players including Michigan's Tom Maentz, a Chicago Cardinal end choice, and quarterback Milt Plum of Penn State, bound for Cleveland, said they hadn't done much thinking about being clobbered in the big leagues of football. And didn't intend to do any.

"If you're going to get hurt," Plum said, "well, you're just going to get hurt."

Jim Parker, Ohio State tackle, part-time deputy sheriff and philosopher, figured a pro player can't be too dirty, "that you'll always meet a guy a little tougher—a little bigger than you are."

For Parker, a Giant draft choice, that may be quite some time, even in the NFL. He's 6-3, at least 268 and wide enough in a football suit to stand in front of and block from view two ordinary size players standing side-by-side.

Cotton Bowl Last Chance

Swink Eyes Blazing Finish

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Jim Swink was a football sensation last year, making the All-America in a walk.

But the Texas Christian halfback never came close this year although again leading the Southwest Conference in ball-carrying.

His runs were too much of the three-and four-yard variety and that won't get you on the All-America.

Jim though has one more game to play before calling it a college career and going on into professional football. This last appearance will be the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1 against Syracuse.

Swink is determined to close out in the blaze of glory that marked his efforts in 1955.

"I feel good about the Syracuse game," said Swink today as the TCU team worked for its battle with the Orangemen. "Sure, we're going to win. I don't believe any of us have ever thought we will get beat in any game. Sure, Syracuse will be tough but it won't be any tougher than any of the other games we've had to play."

Weekend Skiing Doubtful

DETROIT (AP) — Skiers face a "doubtful" to "fair" weekend on Michigan slopes.

The Western Michigan Tourist and Resort Assn. reports there are only two inches of snow, but no bare spots at Boyne Mountain and Boyne Falls.

Upper and Lower Hemlock areas report 10 to 40 inches of artificial snow, but only fair skiing was in prospect at Missaukee Mountain at Lake City, where there was three inches of corn snow.

The East Michigan tourist council said skiing was doubtful throughout the eastern region over the weekend. Rain and rising temperatures were blamed.

The Michigan Tech ski area at Houghton had a 14-inch base of packed snow, but no top covering and skiing was only fair.

First Hungarian Reaches Canada

VANCOUVER (AP)—A Hungarian swimmer arrived last night by plane from Sydney, Australia, the first refugee athlete from Hungary to reach Canada.

Valerie Gynge, 23, was to continue on today by air to Toronto where she will marry Yelos Garay, 25, who came to Canada a month ago from Bucharest. No date has been set for the wedding.

Valerie won the women's 400-meter freestyle swimming in the 1952 Olympic Games at Helsinki and placed eighth this year at the Melbourne Games.

Wolverine Quintet Has Panthers Next

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Pittsburgh, a basketball power in the East, hopes to use its game with Michigan here tomorrow night as a stepping stone to a post-season tournament berth.

And the word brought back by Wolverine Scout Dave Strack is that the Panthers have a wealth of veteran talent.

"It'll be the toughest team we've faced so far," Strack said. "They've got four veterans and a fine sophomore in their starting lineup."

After dropping its first two games, Pitt has four straight and the Steel Bowl tournament at Pittsburgh last week.

Strack reserves most of his praise for a 6-3 forward, Julius Pegues, who scored 308 points last year.

Villanova Runner Runs Mile at 4:10

NEW YORK (AP)—Fred Dwyer, former Villanova star, ran a 4:10 mile in a Metropolitan AAU handicap race at the 102d Engineers Armory last night. It was the fastest mile ever run on a flat floor track in New York.

Dwyer did not finish first, however. Starting from scratch, he came in third behind Allen Friedman of Yale and Alfred Jacobsen of St. Johns, Bkn. Friedman, with a 120-yard allowance, won by four yards in 4:09.3. Jacobsen, with a 100-yard allowance, finished just ahead of Dwyer.

Elias Gilbert, of Winston-Salem College, won the only non-handicap event—the 60-yard high hurdles, in :07.5.

Before Mickey Mantle hit his 52 American League homers in 1956, the last in the circuit to lead with more than 50 was Hank Greenberg. He hit 58 for the Detroit Tigers in 1938.

Rocco Pirro, Syracuse University line coach, played pro football with the Pittsburgh Steelers and Buffalo Bills.

Wings Gain 1-1 Tie at Boston

BOSTON (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings came to town with a chance to tie the Boston Bruins for the National Hockey League lead, but they left today in a tie for second place, instead.

The Red Wings managed a 1-1 tie on Metro Prystai's third-period goal against the Bruins last night.

Each side got a point in the standing and thus Boston preserved its three-point edge at the top — 40 to 37.

While the Red Wings, who haven't won a road game since Nov. 11, were tying, the Montreal Canadiens whipped the Toronto Maple Leafs, 4-2, and thus went into a tie for second place with Detroit. A victory is worth two points and Montreal had 35 to Detroit's 36 prior to last night's encounters.

Taking off from Boston, the Red Wings headed for Montreal and a Saturday encounter with the surging Canadiens. Incidentally, Detroit hasn't won a game in either Boston or Montreal this season.

Rookie Larry Regan gave the Bruins a 1-0 advantage at 16:15 of the first period last night and until Prystai cracked in his unassisted goal at 3:46 of the final period it appeared Boston would cushion its first-place edge.

Regan's goal came with both Billy Dea and Red Kelly of the Red Wings in the penalty box.

It was a slow first period, with Red Wing goalie Glen Hall having the puck shot at him only six times and Boston's rookie Norm Deflice stopping the four shots Detroit mustered.

In all, Hall and Deflice had 25 saves each — 12 apiece in the scoreless second period. Deflice had nine and Hall eight in the finale.

Prystai got his goal when he grabbed a loose puck with his stick in the Boston zone and outran the pack, then beat Deflice from close range.

Trippi Sides With Detroit

'Dirty' Football Talk Continues

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Is it cricket to wham into a star quarterback, just like he was any other Joe on a professional football team?

Did the Chicago Bears play dirty football in walloping the Detroit Lions, 38-21, for the Western Division championship of the National Football League?

Do some pro clubs have a kitty for rewarding players who "get" a quarterback?

Does Ed Meadows, a Bear end, deliberately try to remove opposing players? Did he do that to Detroit quarterback Bobby Layne?

Kibitizers still are having their two cents worth of say on these and other questions from coast to coast.

Charlie Trippi, backfield coach for the Chicago Cardinals, said at Atlanta, Ga., that he agrees "100 per cent" with the Detroit Lions charge that Meadows deliberately tried to knock Layne out of the game.

"After playing them (the Bears) the week before, I know that what Detroit coach Buddy Parker says must be true. That Meadows tried to do the same thing to our quarterback when we played them," Trippi told a reporter.

"I played under Buddy Parker for three years," he added, "and he's a very quiet, mild-mannered man. He doesn't pop off unless he has something to say. I agree with Buddy 100 per cent on this thing."

Trippi wouldn't commit himself on Parker's charge that George Halas, owner of the Bears, and George Preston Marshall, owner of the Washington Red Skins, "run" the NFL. But he did say that "the Bears seem to get the benefit of the doubt from the officials all the time."

"We (the Cardinals) had two touchdown runs called back and another time we were at their five and had a 15-yard holding penalty called against us," Trippe said of the Cardinal's 10-3 loss to the Bears Dec. 9.

"Later," Trippi continued, "we checked the film and saw that the penalty was called on a perfectly legal block. We sent a coach up to commissioner Bert Bell with the film but he did nothing."

Ron Gibbs, who refereed the Lions-Bears game last Sunday, said at Springfield, Ill., that Meadows was not guilty of any rule violation in his tackle of Layne.

Gibbs said it was "a stiff, hard tackle, but this was professional football and Layne probably has been hit that hard many times before."

Jackets Lose to Madison

Madison High School stormed into an early lead and held on to defeat Avondale, 48-44, in an Oakland B League basketball game last night at Avondale.

It was Madison's 2nd league victory in three games and gave the Jackets a 1-2 conference record.

The Eagles led all the way, although Avon finally tied the count at 42-42 with one minute to go. Avon's Jim Thompson missed two free throws that would have gained the lead, then a field goal by Long put Madison ahead to stay.

Madison held a 13-6 advantage going into the 2nd quarter and at halftime the margin was increased to 25-17. The Yellow Jackets trailed entering the 4th period, 34-30.

Avondale made only 12 out of 37 foul shots and missed a possible 50 points from the charity stripe as three Madison cagers—Perkins, Harris and Garner—fouled out. The Eagles converted 12 free tosses in 26 attempts.

Harris sparked Madison's attack with 18 points. Steve Saunders tallied 11 points for the Jackets.

Jefferson, Lincoln Win Junior Games

Jefferson raced to an easy 37-17 victory over Eastern and Lincoln handed Madison a 39-23 trouncing in Pontiac Junior High League basketball games Thursday afternoon on the Eastern and Lincoln courts.

Chuck Brown, Allen Howze and Bill Lee each scored nine points to pace Jeff's quintet to its 2nd straight league win. Eastern was limited to four field goals.

In Junior Varsity action yesterday, Alfred Ray netted 16 points to lead Jefferson's 36-17 conquest of Eastern and Madison nosed out Lincoln, 32-31.

Every team in the National Hockey League has three alternate captains. Each wear the letter A on his sweater.

Area Matmen at Lansing

Three Oakland County schools will represent this sector in the annual Lansing Invitational Wrestling meet to be held today and Saturday.

The twice-beaten Cranbrook Cranes, topnotch state contender Berkley High, and untested Hazel Park will be among the Southern Michigan schools taking part in the big two-day event. The same trio are scheduled to be in a similar meet at Ypsilanti Dec. 28-29.

Berkley must be ranked a strong candidate for top honors in the tourney with a veteran team built around eight lettermen from last year's unit which ranked seventh in the state.

The Bears already have two matches under their belts, including an impressive victory over Pontiac in its first season playing the mat game.

Cranbrook has bowed to defending champion Ypsilanti High and a strong Ann Arbor contingent thus far but is continuing to improve and could make things interesting for all opponents over the weekend.

Ortega Seeks Upset Repeat of DeMarco

NEW YORK (AP)—If Gaspar Ortega repeats his upset victory over Tony DeMarco in tonight's rematch at Madison Square Garden, it will be time to take seriously the challenger of the lanky Mexican welterweight.

Ortega's split decision over the former champion in their Nov. 23 bout, resulted in a revision of the 147-pound ratings. Both Ring and the National Boxing Assn. promptly awarded Ortega the No. 4 post among Carmen Basilio's challengers. DeMarco remained No. 1 with the NBA but slipped to second in the Ring.

Lovellette Moves Lakers Up in NBA

By The Associated Press

Thanks to big Clyde Lovellette and a last minute rally, the Minneapolis Lakers were within one-half game of the leading Rochester Royals in the Western Division of the National Basketball Assn. today.

Lovellette poured in 33 points last night as the Lakers edged Rochester 105-103 at Albany, N.Y. The triumph gave Minneapolis a 13-13 record. The Royals are 14-13.

The league's only action was nip-and-tuck. Rochester tied the score 101-101 with 1:23 remaining. Then Lovellette sank two free throws and Charley Mencel hit on a field goal to make it 105-101.

Ebben Rated 7th Among Scorers

NEW YORK (AP)—The University of Detroit's Bill Ebben is seventh among the nation's top 10 basketball scorers, with an average of 26.8 points in four games.

Ebben, according to statistics of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. (NCAA) service bureau, has accumulated 107 points on 41 field goals and 25 free throws.

Wilt Chamberlain of Kansas is the top scorer, with a 39.5 average for four games. Ebben was the only Michigan representative among the top 10.

Ice Skating Schedule Fixed for Birmingham

Churches Tell Plans for 32 Christmas Services

Many Oakland county churches have planned midnight vigils and special Christmas Day services to celebrate the coming Christmas festivities.

Waterford Township

The two Christmas Eve Services at Christ Lutheran Church, Airport and Williams Lake roads, will include special music by the three choirs of the church, according to Arvid E. Anderson, pastor.

The Girls Choir and the Acolyte Choir, under the direction of Mrs. John Wiley, will sing at the first service beginning at 8 p.m. The worshipers will participate in the traditional candlelighting part of the service.

At the 11 p.m. service, Mrs. Martin Wager will direct the Senior Choir in Christmas sections of Handel's "Messiah."

Parts to be sung by the choir include, "For Unto Us a Child is Born," "And the Glory of the Lord," and "Glory to God." Soloists are Emma Olson, Donald Nelson, Geraldine Snapp and Mrs. John Wiley.

The New Hope Bible Church will hold its annual Christmas program at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

Carols, instrumental numbers, with candy for all of the children are planned.

Lake Orion

A half hour of music will open the candlelight service at 8 p.m. Christmas Eve at the Methodist Church here. The choir will render special Christmas music, and the Rev. Mont C. Oliver will deliver the Holy Night message.

Sunday services include one at 9:45 a.m. presented by the junior children and at 11 a.m. a service for the entire family.

Two services Monday evening have been planned by St. Mary in the Hills Church — the first at 4 p.m. composed of carol singing and prayer. A visit from St. Nick will follow this service. The candlelight midnight service begins at 11 p.m.

The midnight service at St. Alfred's Episcopal Church will begin at 10:30 p.m. with caroling by the junior choir. Candlelight service takes place at 11 p.m. and communion will be distributed at midnight. A communion service will be held at 10 a.m. Christmas morning.

Carols and Christmas hymns will precede the midnight mass at St. Joseph Catholic Church beginning at 11:30 p.m.

Christmas Day masses includes 7 a.m., 8:30 p.m. (which will have the children's choir participating), and 11 a.m. mass.

Confessions will be heard Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 p.m. and 7:30 to 9 p.m. and also on Monday from 3 to 5:30 and 7:30 to 9 p.m.

The midnight mass of the St. Anne's Mission Church will begin at 11:30 p.m. with hymns sung by the choir. The Rev. Fr. Kenneth MacKinnon of the Sacred Heart Seminary, Detroit, will conduct the ceremony. Christmas morning mass begins at 9:30 a.m.

Orion Township

The Community Bible Church plans its Christmas program for the morning service. Choir songs, readings, and carols will be included on the program.

The 7 p.m. service will be a children's program when the children will wear for the first time white satin robes especially made for them.

Imlay City

The First Baptist Church Sunday School party and program takes place at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

"The Christmas Story" will be presented by St. Paul's Lutheran Church 8 p.m. Sunday. A candlelight service will be held at 8 p.m. Christmas eve and the morning service is set for 10 a.m.

Church school program for the Congregational Church will be Sunday at 5 p.m. Songs and stories will make up the program.

Gingellville

The Sunday morning service of the Baptist Church will feature music by the choirs. At 7:30 p.m. recitations and music will be offered, and a play will be presented at the 8 o'clock service.

Oakwood

The Community Church here presents its annual program in the form of a special film, "The Nativity" and "The Night Before Christmas." It will take place at 8 p.m. Saturday at the church on Baldwin road.

Walled Lake

St. Matthew's Lutheran Church has scheduled for Christmas week a Christmas choral worship at 7 p.m. Sunday, a children's Christmas worship at 7:30 p.m. on Christmas Eve and an 11:30 p.m. service later that night.

* * *

Holy Communion will be administered at the 10 a.m. service Christmas Day and at the New Year's Eve service at 8 p.m.

Keego Harbor

The Sunday School classes of the Trinity Methodist Church will present a two part Christmas program at the Church Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

Church Blazes Baffle Trenton

One Arsonist Jailed, Another Takes Over to Menace the City

TRENTON, N. J. (AP) — Another hunt was under way today for a church firebug in this state capital.

Two more blazes broke out in churches yesterday less than three hours after a man was jailed on arson and murder charges in five earlier church fires.

Police reinforcements have been called in and plainclothesmen posted at as many churches as possible in an effort to trap the firebug at work or prevent another in the bizarre series of fires.

The Rt. Rev. Michael Zaparyniuk, priest at the Holy Trinity Ukrainian Orthodox Church, grappled with a man he saw running from his burning church last night and noted part of the license number of the car in which the man escaped.

Within 40 minutes, a fire broke out in the altar boys' sacristy of Saints Peter and Paul Roman Catholic Church with damage estimated unofficially by police at $750.

Police said both fires were started by an arsonist. They were brought under control within minutes.

Police noted that the work of last night's firebug was similar to that of Elber Cooper Lucas, 40-year-old parttime bakery truck helper now in Mercer County Jail without bail on charges of arson and murder.

They say he has admitted setting four church fires early last Sunday and the blaze last March 14 at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Cathedral which took the lives of Msgr. Richard T. Crean and two housekeepers.

Lucas was arraigned Wednesday on one charge of murder and four of arson. His guilty plea on the arson counts was accepted and the magistrate entered an automatic innocent plea.

Kiddie Parties to Be Saturday in Gingellville

GINGELLVILLE — Two parties planned for the younger members of the community will be given on Saturday.

From 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. the Gingellville Baptist Church will present a movie. Santa Claus will then give the children of the junior department and younger greats from the church.

The Community Center's party for youngsters under 12 begins at 7 p.m. with Santa Claus's appearance.

The party is being planned by Mrs. Michael Flood, Mrs. Daniel Blanzy and Mrs. Harold VanCamp.

Nixon Discusses Refugee Plight

Seeks Facts, Figures to Help U.S. Dealings in Hungary Aftermath

VIENNA (AP) — Vice President Nixon met with Chancellor Julius Raab and most of the Austrian Cabinet for an hour and a half today, discussing hard facts and figures of the problem created by 140,000 Hungarian refugees.

Nixon is seeking first-hand information to guide President Eisenhower and Congress in dealing with the aftermath of the Hungarian revolution.

Although Nixon and members of his small party declined to discuss the meeting with the Austrian leaders, authoritative sources have disclosed that the Austrian government will have spent more than seven million dollars caring for refugees by Jan. 1. This does not include spending by provincial and local governments or private donations.

The Austrians hope the United States will help pay the bill, as well as take more of the refugees off their hands.

As Nixon started the second day of his study, newly arrived refugees reported they had experienced "great difficulties" in reaching the border area.

Only 688 Hungarians crossed into Austria during the night, compared with 1,000 or more nightly earlier this week. The refugees said that strict checks were being made on Hungarian trains and that most of those who sought to quit the country had to hitchhike or walk to the border.

Nixon was to leave for Salzburg tonight for a look at refugee camps in that area and then proceed to Munich tomorrow. There he will visit the "Safe Haven" operations base from which the U.S. Air Force is flying refugees to the United States.

The vice president is expected to start his own flight back to the United States Sunday morning.

Judge Talks at Party for Pioneers

Sixty-five members of the Clarkston Pioneer club met at noon yesterday in the Community Center Building to celebrate their third annual Christmas together.

Steaming platters of roast turkey with all the trimmings were served the 'oldsters' whose average age is 75. The oldest member is Bob Dawson who is 92.

Judge George B. Hartrick, guest speaker for the affair, complimented the group on their activities and fine contributions to the community.

Each member brought a gift to be given to bedridden patients at the Infirmary.

The Christmas tree that was the center of attraction at the dinner will be given to an old member, Frank Howland, 93, who now is at the Infirmary.

Council to Post Traffic Counter

Keego Also to Meet With Highway Dept., Record 1st Trial

KEEGO HARBOR — At the recent meeting of the City Council here it was decided to set up a traffic counter at the corner of Cass Lake and Orchard Lake roads to determine the advisability for a flashing arrow signal there. No date has been set for installation.

Council also decided to request a meeting with the State Highway Department, seeking a more thorough explanation of the widening of Orchard Lake road through Keego Harbor. The villages of Orchard Lake and Sylvan Lake also are planning to request a joint meeting with the department.

A new parking system has been on the east side of Fordham street to facilitate turning onto Orchard Lake road. Parking in Fordham is now parallel.

In the fire report it was noted that the fire department has been checking trash burners and presenting homeowners with articles of the fire code. The department asks that people check their smoke pipes and chimneys in order to avoid fires.

Hearst Distribution Approved by Court

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Final distribution of William Randolph Hearst's $59,505,638 estate has been approved by Superior Court.

The publisher's widow, Mrs. Millicent V. Hearst, receives 1½ million dollars plus a $4,800,000 trust fund. Trusts of $2,450,000 were set up for Hearst's five sons, George, 52; William Randolph Jr., 48; John, 45, and the twins, Randolph and David, 40.

The final accounting before the court yesterday showed that the William Randolph Hearst Foundation received $43,732,407. It was established for charitable purposes during the publisher's lifetime. Hearst died Aug. 14, 1951, at the age of 88.

The accounting showed that executors paid $3,110,763 in federal estate taxes and $618,930 in state inheritance taxes.

Pranksters Pull Trick but It's Not Too Funny

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A deliveryman brought automobile dealer Emmett A. Darby 74 cooked steaks yesterday.

Darby was overwhelmed by the kindness he didn't expect. Then another 74 orders of fried chicken were delivered.

A third truck brought a load of flowers to the agency.

The deliverymen presented their bills. Police are still seeking the prankster.

Bus Integration Initiated Quietly

No Violence Reported, Drivers 'Courteous' as Old Tradition Dies

MONTGOMERY, Ala (AP)—Racial segregation ended on city buses in Montgomery today, bringing to a dramatic close a pattern in public transportation dating back for many years.

The first reported incident of actual race mixing on the buses came shortly before 7 a.m., nearly two hours after the buses started their early morning runs.

Two Negroes were seated in front seats on a Highland Avenue bus when it pulled into the Court Square stop downtown. A middle-aged white man in working clothes boarded the bus and took a seat by himself behind the Negroes. Previously, Negroes sat to the rear.

The white man made no comment as he boarded the bus.

Later in the morning, a well-dressed Negro boarded a bus at the Court Square stop and sat in front of a white man. There was no visible reaction.

The Rev. M. L. King Jr., a Negro minister who led the bus boycott, alighted from a bus along with the Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, another boycott leader. They said the bus they rode was "pretty thoroughly integrated."

The Negro clergymen said the bus driver, whose name was not available was "courteous" to them.

There were no reports of violence as the integration began but four carloads of white men and others in a pickup truck kept close watch on the downtown bus stop.

Fire Hits Tool Firm

DETROIT (AP)—A spectacular fire at the Kendrick Manufacturing Co. was brought under control quickly Thursday night, but flames which leaped as much as 100 feet into the air at times did an estimated $10,000 to $15,000 damage to the two-story brick building. The company makes screw machine parts.

Oxford Pythians Elect New Staff

OXFORD—June Feldmann was elected most excellent chief by the Pythian Sisters Temple No. 60 at a recent meeting. She and her staff will be installed Jan. 10.

Her staff includes Kate Tunstead, excellent senior; Blanche Roost, excellent junior; Olive McTavish, manager, Edythe Pagel, secretary; Evelyn Unger, treasurer; Margaret Smith, protector; Dorothy Dill, guard; Joan Miller, trustee; and June Feldmann, delegate to Grand Temple.

Also, Olive McTavish is alternate delegate, Barbara Kessler, district delegate, and Kate Tunstead, her alternate.

Nutting to New York for Christmas Visit

LONDON (INS)—Handsome Anthony Nutting is going to New York for Christmas to "see all my friends."

The British diplomat's best friend in New York right now, according to society gossips, is beautiful Jeanne Murray Vanderbilt, who obtained a divorce last Monday from millionaire turfman Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt.

George Curran 'Santa' to Hundreds for 33 Years

Area Man Ready for Traditional Role

By WILDA MAY
Sylvan Manor Correspondent

" 'Twas the night before Christmas and all through the house not a creature was stirring" — only George Curran, starring in his traditional role of Santa Cluas.

To Curran this is the most important day of the year and well may it be as he is a perfect life image of the "jolly old elf."

It has been a family custom since George was a little boy when his father played the same role on Christmas Eve.

George F. Curran, a prominent Detroit attorney, thoroughly enjoys the role he plays each year for friends and neighbors and especially his large family of eight children (five of whom are married) and 13 grandchildren.

For 33 years George has donned his own Santa Claus suit, complete with bells and pack, to make his appearance before various groups on Christmas.

For the past ten years he has been Santa for the Detroit Yacht Club and last Sunday the Sylvan Manor children anxiously awaited the third appearance of his merry face at their annual Christmas party, which was held at the township hall. His biggest role, however, is played in his home at 2950 Middlebelt Rd. before his grandchildren ranging in age from two months to eight years.

For the first time, this Christmas, one member of the Curran family will be absent. Private First Class Richard Curran, U.S. Marine Corps, is in Fuji, Japan at the present time. To make his Christmas closer to home, Mrs. Curran and the family have sent him a miniature Christmas tree complete in every detail to the angel on top. Included with the tree are thirty-two miniature gifts, elaborately wrapped for Richard to distribute among his friends in the barracks.

Election Costs Reach $25,000

S'field So Far Spends Amount in Attempt to Attain City Status

SOUTHFIELD — The cost of Southfield's two attempts to attain city status has been $25,000 so far, with attorney's fees of $5,000 yet to be added to the total, said Township Clerk Fannie Adams this morning.

This covers five votes held on incorporation, election of two charter commissions and on two city charters.

This amount will be charged to Oakland County at large until a charter is adopted. Should Southfield adopt a charter by June 7, the city will then have to pay the bill.

Next Thursday is the day set for the old charter commission, meeting as the election commission to certify the recount of the Dec. 3 city charter election, which lost by 43 votes.

Waterford Township Men Get Commissions

Warren A. Hagyard, of 331 Hospital Rd., and William R. Kester, of 127 N. Genesee, Waterford Township, were among 40 ROTC cadets recently commissioned second lieutenants at Michigan State University ceremonies.

The new officers, members of the fall term graduating class, were addressed by Dr. Thomas H. Hamilton, vice president for academic affairs at M.S.U.

Curfew to Toll at 11 for Keego City Minors

KEEGO HARBOR — The problem of loitering by minors prompted the City Council here to pass a curfew ordinance this week to take place Dec. 28, 10 days after its passage.

The ordinance, known as Curfew Ordinance Number 17, makes it unlawful for minors under the age of 17 to loiter, idle, stroll or play on public streets, parks and playgrounds, public buildings and places of amusement, vacant lots or other unsupervised places between 11 p.m. and 6 a.m.

Acting city manager, Mrs. Elsie Van Horn, says it is the responsibility of parents, guardians or other adults having care and custody of the minor to see that the ordinance is observed. "Violation," she said, "will constitute a misdemeanor by the parent or guardian. Upon conviction, he may be punished by a fine not exceeding $25 or imprisonment in the Oakland County Jail for a period not exceeding 10 days or both. The minor will be dealt with by the juvenile court."

The only time the minor may be on the streets according to the ordinance is when he is accompanied by his parent or guardian, when on an emergency errand or on legitimate business directed by his parent.

Holly Home Burns— All Possessions Lost

A Holly Township family lost their possessions yesterday when their home was gutted by fire.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bush, of 6580 Larhing Rd., reported that everything they owned, including their automobile, was consumed by the blaze. Mrs. Bush said that $800 she had saved for the down payment on a new home was also lost. Nothing was insured.

Janitor Clean Up-to His Neck in Plight

SAN MARCOS, Tex., (AP)—Robin Remington, a Southwest Texas State College student thought she heard a mournful call for help as she walked by the Fine Arts building on the way to an early class.

She spied a man peering out the second floor window.

He bashfully explained that he was a new janitor, on his first day of work, and had gotten locked in the night before.

Buying Shoves Stocks Upward

NEW YORK (AP)—A flurry of buying pushed a sluggish stock market to the upside early this afternoon.

Leading stock in various groups made gains of fractions to more than a point.

Gains were wider among some steel issues.

The upward spurt brought a dash of Christmas shopping to Wall street which has been lack-luster in recent sessions because of the impending four-day holiday and the establishment of year-end positions for tax purposes.

Lukens Steel bounced up 7 points after losing 5 yesterday while Youngstown rose well over 2.

Today, because of the exchange's four-day delivery rule, is the last day on which profits can be taken in the regular way for recording in 1956 income taxes. After tomorrow a profit may be recorded only if a security is sold for cash.

U.S. Steel and Bethlehem each rose around a point and Detroit Steel resumed its gain with a fraction.

Gains of well over a point were scored by Douglas Aircraft, Kennecott Copper, Aluminum Ltd. and Westinghouse.

Put Off Examination of Rochester Man

Justice Court examination of a Rochester man on a first degree murder charge, scheduled for today, has been postponed to Jan. 8, Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem said today.

L. J. Rash, 52, of 313 Woodward Ave., confessed slayer of his wife, Nina, 48, will be examined by Avon Township Justice Luther C. Green.

Mrs. Rash was killed in front of her home Nov. 26, when she returned home with friends early in the morning and demanded her husband let her in.

Rash told police he killed her with his shotgun because "I couldn't take it any more."

Ziem said today the postponement was granted at the request of Rochester police.

Grains Follow Narrow Pattern

CHICAGO (AP)—In a quiet trade grains hed within narrow price imits on the Board of Trade today.

Many traders were not inclined to take much of a position in the market in view of the approaching holiday. The market will be open for a half day session Monday prior to closing over Christmas Day.

In early dealings most futures tilted lower. However, this was followed by a mild rally which got the market back to around the previous close.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛ lower to ⅝ higher, March $2.40⅞; corn ⅛ to ⅜ lower, March $1.34⅜; oats ¼ lower to ⅛ higher, March 77½; rye lower to ¾ higher, March $1.48¼; soybeans ¼ to ¾ higher, January $2.47¼, and lard unchanged to 3 cents a hundred pounds lower, January $14.12.

News in Brief

If your friend's in jail and needs bail, Ph. FE 5-9424 or MA 5-4031. —Adv.

Pleading guilty to driving under the influence of liquor, Joseph A. Deloria, of 114 Hudson St. today was jailed five days and fined $100 by Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

Emory Confer, 48, of 3016 W. Bristol Rd., Flint, was found guilty of drunk driving by Springfield Justice Emmet Leib yesterday and sentenced to 60 days in the Oakland County Jail in lieu of $125 fine and court costs.

Suffers Head Cuts as Car Rams Pole

Paul C. Lesler, 30, of 1380 Tull Dr., was listed in fair condition today at Pontiac General Hospital where he was admitted for injuries suffered when his car rammed a utility pole at the corner of Telegraph and Orchard Lake roads last night.

Authorities said he suffered severe head cuts and a broken right collarbone.

Pontiac police said they were unable to take a statement from Lesler. However, they said a witness, Virginia Hamilton of 23 Illinois Ave., reported Lesler lost control when he attempted to stop suddenly for a red light while headed north on Telegraph.

His car went into a spin, she said, striking the pole on the northwest corner.

Dividend Increased

NEW YORK (AP) — Directors of Consumers Power Co. today raised the quarterly dividend to 60 cents a share from 55 cents previously paid. The higher dividend is payable Feb. 20 to stock of record Jan. 18.

British Lords Debate Ekberg Movie Posters

LONDON (INS)—Britain's august House of Lords is very much in favor of a generous display of Anita Ekberg's abundant physical charms.

The subject of Anita and her advanced state of undress in advertising posters for a new movie came up last night during a debate on British film production in the upper house of parliament.

Lord Lucas protested that posters plastered about London showing a scantily-clad and reclining Anta bordered on the obscene and were vulgar.

Several peers quickly jumped to the Swedish film star's defense. One of them, agreeing that the poster certainly shows a lot of Anita, declared he was all in favor of it.

Seven Lords were neutral. They banded together to ask:

"Who is Miss Ekberg?"

Release Teacher From Hospital

Psychiatrists Examine Razor-Wielding Boy Who Slashed Principal

YPSILANTI (AP)—A junior high school principal who was slashed across the cheek with a razor carried by a 15-year-old pupil was released last night from Beyer Memorial Hospital.

George Canfield, 42, was taken to the hospital Wednesday with a six-inch cut across his face. It took 27 stitches to close the wound.

He also was treated for shock.

The youth police say slashed the teacher, Billy Woods, is undergoing examination by psychiatrists at the University of Michigan's neuropsychiatric institute in nearby Ann Arbor.

Washtenaw County Probate Judge John W. Conlin ordered the boy admitted after a conference with Harold A. Nielsen, juvenile court director.

"We decided to have the boy examined before we made any decision in the case," Nielsen said. "Usually such an examination takes from three to five days. As a result, there will be no action taken in the case until some time next week."

The slashing, witnessed by 30 school children, followed a scuffle between Woods and the principal after the teen-ager had ignored an order. The Negro youth said in a preliminary hearing before Judge Conlin that he lost his temper.

Exchanges to Close on Monday, Tuesday

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock exchanges throughout the United States will be closed Monday Dec. 24, and Christmas Day Dec. 25. Banks and foreign exchange markets will remain open as usual on Monday.

The Chicago board of trade, New York produce exchange and cotton-seed oil and soybean markets will open for a half day. Other New York commodity markets will be closed.

Mary's Son Is Born in Bethlehem Stable

Now, in this soothing haven, with light swaying on the rafters, and her good husband at call, she drifted at intervals in vivid heights and delicious reverie.

Waves of happiness flowed over her like music, ebbing and swelling. She found herself gazing mistily at the beetle again. It had traversed two more stones and still struggled heroically. Do not give up little beetle. There is not far to go.

* * *

The stable, the night, the world itself seemed to be expanding around her, and the lantern light was more alive. She felt as if she were floating, rising, until she almost touched the very heavens. Almost . . .

The rapture came back over her again, like warm surf.

Excitement was gathering in her, gathering slowly, increasing, gathering steadily and more swiftly.

She could not hear the crickets any more, but a stronger, greater rhapsody was ringing out. Her eyes were closed. Her lips moved rapidly in prayer. Her heart filled until it seemed almost bursting. She felt lifted up, up, up in an infinite design, a part of the miracle of all creation, sharing a secret with God. And the stars raced by.

Then, all was still. The night was silent.

"Joseph!"

A new-born Baby Boy puckered up his face and let out His first cry.

Joseph already was beside her, and she was looking up at him, and crying a little bit herself, but smiling, too, and she saw he also was crying, and it seemed so very foolish, because she could not be happier, and she doubted if he could be, either, but she looked at the Baby, and burst out crying all over again.

"Blessed Mary," Joseph kept saying. "Praise God!" He was saying first one and then the other.

She took some swaddling cloth they had brought, and wrapped the Baby, and laid him in a manger.

Mary smiled at Him, shaking her head, but the tears kept coming, and she could not help it.

It must have been a long time before she looked up and saw that the beetle had made it to the high ledge.

"And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping watch over their flocks. And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

"And the angel said unto them, be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people: for there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.

"And this is the sign unto: Ye shall find a Babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger. And suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace, good will to men."

Bail Is Granted in South African Treason Probe

JOHANNESBURG (AP)—Bail has been granted for the 153 defendants in South Africa's mass treason inquiry after disclosure that they are accused of trying to establish a Communist-type regime.

Most of the defendants are known opponents of the government's white supremacy policy. Bail ranges from $140 for Africans to $670 for whites in the group.

Arguing for bail, defense attorneys quoted part of the crown counsel's opening address, which hasn't been made public. The statement accused the defendants of incitement and preparation for the overthrow of the existing order and establishment of a "people's democracy" on the lines of Russian satellites.

Police Slayer Dies in Hospital

Retired Postal Clerk Harry Richards Was in Psychiatric Ward

FLINT (AP) — A violent emotional outburst which claimed the lives of two state troopers has also taken the life of Harry Richards, a 66-year-old retired postal clerk who shot down the policemen in a gun battle Nov. 17.

Richards, long wracked by ill health, died last night in Hurley Hospital's psychiatric ward.

A few hours earlier a probate court sanity hearing for Richards had been postponed because he was unable to leave his hospital bed. At the time, attendants reported he was hemorrhaging from the mouth.

Richards faced first degree murder charges in the slayings of state policemen Bert A. Pozza and George E. Pappi, both, 27, but Prosecutor Jerome F. O'Rourke had announced he would recommend Richards be committed to a mental institution instead of tried.

In recent days Richards, a police prisoner at the hospital, had been fed intravenously.

Richards climaxed a family argument Nov. 17 by chasing his 63-year-old wife, Eulalia, with a shovel at their outlying home. Neighbors summoned authorities. When police arrived Richards opened fire on them.

Pozzi and Lappi died in rifle fire from the shabby home in which Richards had barricaded himself. A third trooper was wounded in the leg.

More than 50 troopers and sheriff's deputies converged on the battle scene, where originally one had gone to answer what appeared to be a routine "family trouble" call.

Richards escaped unhurt from the home in a cloud of tear gas, but was quickly recognized as he crouched outside and was overpowered. Dazed and ill, he was taken to the hospital.

Richards retired after suffering a stroke in 1948.

Higbie Plans Dividend

The Higbie Manufacturing Company Board of Directors today declared a regular quarterly dividend of 15 cents a share on the $1 par value common stock, payable Feb. 1, 1957, to stockholders of record Jan. 15, 1957.

* * *

Winners will be judged on artistic merit, originality, lighting techniques, and ingenuity.

Auto Dealer Killed as Plane Crashes

OWOSSO (AP)—An Ohio automobile dealer who debated whether to fly or drive home was killed late yesterday in the crash of his plane, which nose-dived into the ground shortly after taking off from Owosso's airport.

The victim was Thomas Warren, 40, of Columbus, who had purchased seven vehicles at a used car auction on the airport.

Shortly before deciding to take off, Warren had debated with two of his employes whether to drive or fly in low-hanging, rainy weather which was closing in along the route.

The employes, Charles Rhodes and Ralph McNeely, watched Warren take off, circle the airport and then go into a banking turn which the plane never finished.

Both McNeely and Rhodes, who came and went via car, expressed belief that Warren suffered a heart attack or that the plane lost flying speed in the banking turn and fell.

4 Injured in Car Crash, One Driver Arrested

Four persons in two cars were treated at Pontiac General Hospital yesterday for bruises suffered in an accident at Elizabeth Lake and Telegraph roads.

Injured were the drivers, Sam Zuruk, 64, of 1130 Mt. Clemens St. and Walter S. Sneed, 58, of 546 Arthur St. and Sneed's passengers, Barbara S. Thomas, 25, 412 Howard McNeil St. and Esther Morganfield, 20, of 414 Howard McNeil.

Sneed was arrested, police said, on a drunk and disorderly charge. Zuruk said Sneed ran a red light.

Nehru Departs; Is Unconvinced

Still Maintains Pacts Unable to Preserve World Peace

NEW YORK (AP) — India's Prime Minister Nehru ends his six-day American visit today as he began it — still convinced that collective security pacts will not preserve world peace.

Tonight a Royal Canadian Air Force plane will fly Nehru to Ottawa for weekend conferences with Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent.

Nehru made the most of his brief New York visit yesterday with a triple-barreled round of speeches. All of them were woven around the theme that a positive but peaceful approach could solve the problems of Hungary and the Middle East hostilities "without too great difficulties."

In a speech last night at an informal gathering of United Nations General Assembly delegates and in a speech before the private, nonpartisan American Assn. for the United Nations, Nehru lashed out at the concept of military pacts and alliances.

It was an indication that any effort President Eisenhower or Secretary of State Dulles may have made to convince Nehru of the need for such pacts had failed.

Nehru told a distinguished audience at the Carnegie Endowment Center, near the U. N., that the prestige of the United States had shot up all over the world because of "certain attitudes" it had taken in regard to the military intervention of Britain and France in Egypt.

The following are the correct answers and explanations for Pot-O-Gold Puzzle No. 28 which appeared in last week's Press.

1. GONG is the choice. As long as there is no further qualifying information in the clue, you cannot choose song or long. What kind of long sound? As for song, it is the tune that lingers, not the mere sound. A GONG has such a harsh or resonant clangor, and is so often a means of signaling for attention or warning, that it is remembered with significance.

2. NUB is best. A hub is more a center of activity than of a problem or debatable matter. A rub is actual friction, so you must choose NUB, the heart of the matter.

3. TITLE is all right. To measure up means to approach or equal a good standard of some subjective sort. A liter, being a liquid measure, must merely measure to an exact standard: a specific amount. A TITLE, such as lord, duke, etc., must approach the good standard one expects of it.

4. PLUS is better. A definite plum can be enjoyed by a person or a corporation, not by an entire party. Besides, a definite PLUS (an added extra quantity or thing) would cover all the plums involved.

5. PRAM, by all means. A ramp makes movement easier only when going down, as when you move heavy objects downward. A PRAM, a baby carriage, has wheels to make all movement easier, no matter in which direction.

6. CAMEL is more reasonable. An Arab's CAMEL may be the means of his livelihood in the desert if he uses it in the transportation or guide business. His claim (right to a piece of land) would definitely be so.

7. WAG, of course. A gag may be funny to some and fall flat with others, so it could not be generally contagious. A WAG, or gifted humorist, is generally amusing, and causes laughter generally.

8. FEVER is correct. Gold-rush FEVER is a contagious trend that persuades people that they have a chance to get rich quick. A lever is a means of forcing movement, and nobody forces people into a gold rush. The exciting news creates the FEVER that persuades them to get going.

9. DOUR is better. A man inclined to turn sour is hardly likely to be good company at any time. It is his nature to be unfriendly, dissatisfied and uncheerful. One inclined to turn DOUR is merely stern or obstinate and may unbend very pleasantly on occasion, like the DOUR Scotchman.

10. WAIL is more logical. You cannot fail even a severe test by merely facing it; you have to submit to it to fail or pass. So it is WAIL that is better. A person without confidence may certainly WAIL or complain when facing a severe test.

11. TOQUE is better. A quoit's chief function is to have enough weight to be tossed properly, a large enough hole to fit over a peg, and a design to enable it to sail properly through the air at the target. While it is most often round, it need not be so if it satisfies the functional properties mentioned above. Thus horseshoes, a game similar to quoits, uses a different shaped missile. A TOQUE is a functionally round cap made to fit snugly and roundly on the head.

12. MONEY is preferred. Far fewer people gather HONEY than gather MONEY as a means of livelihood. Honey gatherers are beekeepers. MONEY gatherers include tax workers, money lenders, the betting fraternity, bankers, rent collectors, and so forth, outnumbering beekeepers.

13. WIFE is better. Most men feel that where there's life there's hope. Some few may not, but the clue states "many a man." This would mean married men, of course. As long as the WIFE remains with him, many a man has a source of help and comfort, and hope for the future.

14. EAT is more inclusive. To EAT daintily covers to tea (partake of a light meal) daintily. You couldn't be sure that the guests are there just for tea.

15. MAKE will do. How can you know that people are conscious of being late for work while they are still asleep? It has to be MAKE up. This applies to "some people" women in general, and actors in particular.

16. STRAIT, without a doubt. What a desperate artist needs is highly subjective. If desperate for money, he needs financial help; if desperate for recognition, he needs help plus talent. A vigorous program may not help him at all. It is without question that such a program, some strong plan of action, is needed in a desperate STRAIT, or a particularly trying situation.

Steel Executive, 2 Pilots Die

West Coast Resident Flying to New York on Way to California

TYRONE, Pa. (AP)—A twin-engine Lockheed Lodestar ferrying a West Coast steel executive to New York so he could fly home to be with his family for Christmas crashed in flames on a desolate mountainside near here last night and he perished, along with two crewmen.

The executive was Alden Roach, 55-year-old president of the Columbia-Geneva Division of U.S. Steel Corp. He lived in San Francisco.

The crewmen aboard the U. S. Steel Corp. plane were Roy Rollo, the pilot, of Los Angeles, and L. T. Williams, the copilot, of Sunland, Calif.

The crash occurred about 30 minutes after the plane took off at 6:50 p.m. from Greater Pittsburgh Airport for Idlewild Airport at New York. Witnesses said the plane either exploded or was on fire before it hit the ground about 90 miles northeast of Pittsburgh.

"The debris hardly resembled a plane," said a fireman.

Roach had been in Pittsburgh for two days attending a meeting of U. S. Steel Corp. executives. Because all westbound flights were canceled from Pittsburgh last night on account of weather conditions, Roach ordered his plane flown to New York so he could make a midnight connection with a United Air Lines plane for San Francisco.

The bodies of all three occupants were thrown from the plane. Roach's body was the only one which could be positively identified immediately.

The Weather Bureau reported fog, rain, a low ceiling and generally poor flying conditions in the area when the crash occurred.

Roach, a native of St. Louis, has been president of Columbia-Geneva since 1951. It is the core of the West's steel industry, a sprawling division which includes the World War II Geneva steel plant near Provo, Utah.

Police Officers Provide Baskets for Five Widows

For their annual Christmas help to the needy, the Pontiac Police Officers Assn. today will give baskets to five lonely widows.

Association President Herbert W. Cooley said the baskets will contain $20 worth of food stuffs and an extra gift this year.

That's a shawl, included in the basket, Cooley said, because the women do not have proper warm clothing.

The association picks five needy cases each year, Cooley said, to help out at Christmas time.

Funds for the baskets are donated from the association treasury, he said.

Halt Sale of Liquor at 9 Christmas Eve

Pontiac police will riegidly enforce state liquor laws over the Christmas holiday, Vice Squad Lt. William F. Nesbitt said.

The law forbids sale of any alcoholic beverage from 9 p.m. Monday, Christmas Eve., to 7 a.m. Wednesday, the day after Christmas.

Nexbitt said the law applies both to alcohol sold in taverns and in stores and covers sale of beer and wine as well as any other alcoholic beverage, he said.

Device to Calculate Orbit for Satellite

NEW YORK (AP)—The Navy Department announced yesterday selection of a high-speed electronic device designed to calculate and predict the orbit of the first man-made satellite.

The department said the computator, to be provided by the International Business Machine Corp., will be used to keep track of the satellite as it whirls through space in an orbit 200 to 300 miles above the earth.

Postmaster Goofed on Christmas Card

ONEONTA, N.Y. (AP)—A Christmas card received by Mr. and Mrs. James D. Van Woert bore this notice:

"Three cents due."

The card was from Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Bertuzzi.

Bertuzzi is the postmaster here.

Stubby Kaye Climbs Slowly

Disney Film 'Fantasia' Too Profitable to Allow Video Showing

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — Did you know Westerns generally rate higher on TV than any other form of half-hour diversion? . . . Suspense drama rates next, then situation comedy, general drama, quiz shows, half-hour varieties . . .

Here's why quiz shows are on the increase—the average quizcast cost is $25,000, half-hour varieties average $46,000.

Stubby Kaye seems to be gaining stature as a performer in TV in much the same patient, deliberate, slow style that he has made his mark on Broadway . . .

He'll last longer that way. The more you see of quick TV successes the more sage and cautioning, becomes Cole Porter's line about being "too hot not to cool down" . . .

We wondered why Walt Disney hadn't released "Fantasia" to TV until we saw that its latest U. S. release earned $1,500,000 with more coming from abroad . . . while a comparable success, "The Wizard of Oz," returned only $225,000 for its one TV unreeling . . .

MILLIE UNEQUALED

CBS-TV heaved "Meet Millie" off the air but none of its successors (Guy Lombardo, Joe and Mabel, Herb Shriner) could equal its popularity or ratings . . .

Seems odd, but "I Love Lucy" was first sold to the absolutely final prospect CBS had in view . . . and even then, there was considerable doubt that a "Cuban bandleader" could capture the public as co-star and "fictional husband" of Lucille Ball . . . though it happened that the Cuban bandleader had been the husband of Lucille for 10 years before the prospective sponsor considered him "fictional."

We've had letters suggesting that if TV does "The Sal Magle Story" it should be played by MacDonald Carey, Jack LaRue, George Raft and even by Sal Maglie. Oh, Sal's done it once . . .

The best thing we've heard about Wally Cox, a nice man, is that he has saved his money . . . and the worst we've heard abbout Ernie Kovacs, equally nice, is that he owes so many back taxes even Joe Louis may get out of the financial stew before he does. The reason we know of this sad tale is because Kovacs told it to us . . . sadly.

There aren't many stars wearing vests on TV but Alistair Cooke is keeping his chest warm no matter what . . .

EXPENSIVE BUSINESS

TV is getting so expensive, more advertisers are splitting up their sponsorship . . . For instance, Sponsor magazine cites NBC-TV's evening hours—this year 65 sponsors hoist the tab for the same time 45 sponsors paid for last season.

The TV series "The Brothers" is about a pair of photographers but they almost never take a picture . . . or a look at the script; it also would appear.

"Father Knows Best" is a warm homey ho-hokum but that canned laughter's gotta go. It wastes howls of hysteria on straight lines.

Columbia Pictures will buy TV stations.

Decorative Hat Brings Glances of Wonder, Awe

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — If you see something that looks like a small yule float moving majestically down the street, it could be Mrs. Inez Shackelton and her hat.

For Mrs. Shackelton probably 48 states—the gift of three friends who made it.

has the fanciest Christmas hat in

Her chapeau has a sleigh on it, with Santa Claus sitting inside, and five reindeer out front. It has a house, complete with a tree or two, and bells and baubles and all sorts of things.

Another Santa sits on the edge of the brim, holding a pole with a lantern on the end of it. Then there are four small packages on the hat, Christmas presents from the three friends. Mrs. Shackelton is enchanted with this elaborate creation which she's wearing during the Christmas season.

Ike Going High Hat? To Inaugural, That Is

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower hasn't let out the word yet as to what kind of hat he's going to wear for his inauguration.

"That hasn't been discussed," Robert V. Fleming, chairman of the inaugural committee, told reporters.

"But I'm quite sure it's going to be a Homburg—I hope it is."

Fleming recalled that Eisenhower's decision four years ago to wear a Homburg—instead of the usual tophat—set off a frantic buying spree among the men.

"You couldn't find a Homburg on the eastern seaboard," Fleming said.

Find Bauxite, Flint Clay in Negev Desert Area

BEERSHEBA, Israel—Quantities of bauxite and flint clay, used in the production of aluminum, were recently found in the Ramon area of the central Negev Desert.

The clay is of a high quality and some of it contains 70 per cent aluminum compounds.

CHRISTMAS ORNAMENTS—5

A Trapeze Elf

Long ago, people thought that elves, gnomes and trolls were especially active at Christmas time. If they had been well-treated by a family, with an occasional saucer of porridge set outside the door for them or a bit of bread left handy, they were fond of the family and brought it luck.

Here is a Christmas elf to hang on your tree. He is very active, like a trapeze performer. He can hang by his hands or feet or sit astride a branch.

You can use this picture as it is, or you can use it as a pattern and make several elves by tracing it on stiff construction paper.

If you use it directly, color it then paste it on cardboard. Paint the back a bright red. Give the elf a red cap and shoes and leave his beard white, but tint his face pink. Make his costume any cheerful color you like.

The little sketches show you just how to place him on the tree.

(Junior Editors' $10 award goes to Betty Branum, Salem, Va., for sending in this suggestion first. If you have an idea send it in care of this newspaper. Violet Moore Higgins, AP Newsfeatures.)

President Gives Yule Greetings

Offers Special Wishes to White House Staff Today in East Room

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, who wished a "truly merry Christmas to everyone . . . throughout the world" last night, arranged to extend more personal greetings today to White House staff members.

In keeping with an annual custom, he and Mrs. Eisenhower planned to greet some 600 employes and staff members in the East Room of the White House.

In previous years, they have presented each one with a reproduction of a painting done by Eisenhower.

The President's merry Christmas wish, in which he said Mrs. Eisenhower shared, was extended at the annual tree-lighting ceremony "to everyone here, in the nation, and throughout the world."

His brief talk was carried to the nation by radio and television and beamed around the world by the Voice of America.

About 7,500 persons, some of them notables and many of them children, were on hand as the President said that "we see the vision of a better world." In the light of Christmas, he said, the "dark curtains of the world are drawn aside."

He said the American people are rallying in true Christmas spirit to meet the needs of the people in revolt-torn Hungary, and he continued:

"Even more important, there are particularly manifested during this season those spiritual qualities of freedom and honor and neighborliness and good will — great virtues that make all peoples one.

"Through them, and the faith in them we see how men can live together in peace; for one glorious moment we sense progress toward that aspiration of every religious faith — 'peace on earth, good will to men.'"

Daring East Germans Crash Iron Curtain

HELMSTEDT, Germany (AP) — Five East Germans made a daring dash to Western freedom last night crashing their truck through barbed wire and a wooden border gate near here in a hail of Communist submachinegun bullets.

West German police said no one was wounded. The heavy truck ran into a ditch immediately after crossing the border. West Germans helped the refugees to get it running again as the Soviet zone border guards continued firing.

Rain in Australia Puts Out Bush Fires

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — The first rainfall in 11 days has ended the bush fire peril in the outer suburbs of Sydney.

The rain fell on fires ranging in three centers, possibly saving the lives of persons apparently trapped in a ring of bush blazes as well as dozens of homes.

The flames earlier destroyed 14 houses and a church in Sydney's outer bushland suburbs.

Falls From Scaffold

DETROIT (AP)—Eugene Neely, 53, of Detroit, was killed yesterday when he fell from a 17-foot scaffold in suburban Grosse Pointe. He was working on an addition to a store building.
