- Student Members: Amanda Vanderford, Matt Thomas, Joshua Miller

Sub-committees

Sub-committees were formed to prepare the third annual Authors at Oakland event.

Meetings

The Senate Library Committee met three times during the 2007-2008 academic year. Sub-committees had additional meetings to prepare the Authors at OU Event during the winter semester of 2008. The committee corresponded via email occasionally to discuss and complete its business in addition to face-to-face meetings.

Major Business and Accomplishments

The major focus of the Senate Library Committee work during the 2007-2008 academic year was on organizing the Third Annual Authors at OU: Celebration of the Book. In the previous two years, the committee celebrated book publications (2006) and journal articles (2007). The committee voted for making a tradition of celebrating books and journal articles in alternating years.

The third Annual Authors at OU event focused on book publications. The event was held on Wednesday, March 19, 2008 from 2:00-4:00pm., on the 4th floor of the Kresge Library. Books authored or co-authored by OU faculty members that were published in the last two years were invited. This year, 53 books by 40 faculty members were honored at the event.

 - b. Selection committee report: Committee (Karen, Tricia, Ann, Kris, Barbara) met in the early February. Ann reported on committee's recommendation. Preference was given to single-authored books (instead of edited books) and the topics that would be appropriate for general audience:
 - i. 1st choice: Janice G. Schimmelman "Books on Art in Early America: Books on Art, Aesthetics and Instruction Available in American Libraries and Bookstores through 1815"
 - ii. 2nd choice: Thomas C. Pedroni "Market Movements: African American Involvement in School Voucher Reform"
 - iii. 3rd choice: Annette Gilson "New Light"

- iv. 4th choice: Weldon C. Matthews “Confronting an Empire, Constructing a Nation: Arab Nationalists and Popular Politics in Mandate Palestine”

The committee unanimously approved the selection committee’s recommendation. The first two faculty authors will be invited as speakers. In case he/she is not available, the next faculty author will be invited. (Ji-Eun and Julie will contact potential speakers.)

- c. The committee unanimously approved event schedule. (Provost Moudgil agreed to attend the event and give a short congratulatory speech.)
- d. Invitation/Advertisement
 - i. Julie shared a template of invitation. As soon as the two speakers agree to speak at the event, invitations and posters will be prepared.
 - ii. Committee members will be contacted when posters are ready so that they can advertise the event in their buildings. (Try to get ready the poster 2 weeks before the event.)
 - iii. A PDF format of invitation will be emailed to each committee member for the advertisement purpose.
 - iv. Julie will submit the event announcement to the OU calendar.
 - v. Ji-Eun will submit the event announcement to be included in Friday Announcements.
- e. Refreshments: Dean’s office will prepare refreshments. Julie shared the list of food and beverages (see attached). Lemonade was added to the list for non-coffee drinkers.

V. With no other business to discuss, the meeting was adjourned.

The Third Annual Authors at OU Event

The Senate Library Committee and Kresge Library are pleased to announce the third annual Authors at OU event to honor the authors among our faculty who have recently published. We celebrated book publications in 2006 and journal articles in 2007. This year, the Authors at OU event will focus on book publications, making a tradition of celebrating books and journal articles in alternating years. The event will be held on Wednesday, March 19, 2008 from 2:00-4:00 pm., on the 4th floor of the Kresge Library. Refreshments will be served.

In order to honor our faculty authors, we invite all faculty who have authored or co-authored books, written book chapters, or edited volumes in 2006 and 2007 to share their publications for display and be recognized at the event. In addition, the Senate Library Committee will select two authors and invite them to make brief presentations.

Please note the following guidelines for submitting book publications:

- ◆ Any form of book publication is eligible (e.g., books, book chapters, edited volumes).
- ◆ There is no limit on the number of submissions per faculty member.
- ◆ The publication date must be between January, 2006 and December, 2007.
- ◆ The deadline for submission for inclusion in the event is January 31, 2008.
- ◆ Faculty authors should provide copies of their publications to Kath Borg, Executive Secretary to the Dean of the Kresge Library, before the submission due date of Jan. 31, 2008. Please inform Kath if you would like to donate your copy to the Library, or if you wish to have it returned after the event.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact Ji-Eun Lee (lee2345@oakland.edu), Chair of the Senate Library Committee, or Julie Voelck (voelck@oakland.edu), Dean of the Library.

We hope that you will submit your book publications and join us for this celebration. We look forward to showcasing the outstanding scholarly work of OU's faculty.
