Clinton Pollution Worst in Michigan

Turn First Spadeful

GROUND BREAKING CEREMONY—Harold K. Schone (left), director of the Oakland County Department of Public Works yesterday got a lift from Delos Hamlin, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, in turning the first shovel of dirt for the long-awaited Farmington and Evergreen sanitary sewers, which in less than a year are expected to serve some 120 square miles of Oakland County.

Sewer Ground Breaking Happy Event for Schone

The sun couldn't have shone brighter yesterday for Harold K. Schone as he turned over the first spadeful of earth for the $12,667,000 Farmington and Evergreen sanitary sewer systems.

Under a bright sun, Schone was all smiles as he put his foot onto a chrome, green-ribboned spade to break ground for the two sewers which eventually will serve 120 square miles of Oakland County.

Yesterday's brief ceremony, on a spot on Eight Mile road west of Evergreen road, ended years of frustration for Schone and his unproven Department of Public Works.

Since the department, the first of its kind for a county, was created by legislative act June 24, 1957, Schone had unhappily seen major department projects stalled on the drawing boards because of legal entanglements.

"This is the biggest day as far as I'm concerned in many, many a moon," Schone, former city manager of Birmingham and Oak Park, told a gathering of county officials and contractors.

Some county supervisors, DPW officials, the Board of Public Works, the governing body of the DPW, and contractors turned out at noon Thursday for the event.

SHOVELS BEGIN

Before most had departed for a luncheon afterwards, workers moved huge steam shovels into position. Work was under way at last.

Schone said he expected the sewers, which will dump into a Detroit treatment plant, to be completed in about 10 months. This, Schone emphasized, only includes the larger trunk intercepter sewers.

However, he said many of the areas to be served by the long-awaited sewers will be building lateral lines (those that homes and businesses will connect to) simultaneously with the trunks, meaning some homes could be attached to the sewers as early as April of 1960.

Already under contract with the DPW for the Evergreen sewer are the cities of Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Lathrup Village, part

Adenauer Pulls Turn-About

Reverses Plan to Take Presidency, Says He'll Keep Chancellor's Post

BONN, Germany (AP) — Konrad Adenauer Thursday night reversed his decision to step upstairs to West Germany's largely honorary presidency and decided to keep his iron grip on the country's policy by carrying on as chancellor.

Adenauer called an emergency meeting today of members of Parliament from his Christian Democrat Party to tell them of his surprise decision. A stormy session was indicated.

The 83-year-old government chief apparently changed his plans because he could not dictate his successor as chancellor.

He favored quiet, unassuming Finance Minister Franz Etzel but a majority of the party supported the more aggressive Ludwig Erhard, who as vice chancellor and economic minister guided West Germany's amazing postwar recovery.

Erhard, now visiting the United States, was "most surprised" by Adenauer's change of plans and declined comment, a spokesman at the German embassy in Washington said.

The Christian Democrats' chief parliamentary whip, Will Rasner, said that Adenauer decided to stay as chancellor because he felt he could not be replaced as the government leader during the present international situation.

Herter Charges Reds Reaching for West Berlin

Tells Big 4 That West Won't Reduce Troops to Allow Annexation

GENEVA (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter charged today that the Soviet Union's real purpose in the Big Four conference here is to strip West Berlin of the protecting presence of the Western powers and clear the way for its eventual annexation by Communist East Germany.

In a strongly worded speech to a conference session at the palace of Nations, Herter told Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko the western powers will not abandon two million West Berliners or impose any new status upon them against their will.

The Big Four went into semi-public session after spending most of their fourth week here in secret talks at villas of the various ministers.

Information on Herter's speech became available while today's meeting was still in progress.

He said Gromyko stated some days ago that the preferred Soviet solution for the Berlin problem is annexation of the city to East Germany.

The ministers met two hours and 25 minutes in today's formal session at the Palace of Nations. They adjourned at 5:55 p.m. (11:55 a.m. est).

Herter's speech constituted a new rejection of the proposal to scrap the occupation rights and adopt Russia's free city plan for West Berlin. He also told Gromyko the West will not try to purchase a Berlin settlement by paying the price of recognition of Communist East Germany.

Pontiac Is Still King in Middle Price Class

Pontiac retained its throne in May as king of the medium price field, with retail sales totaling 35,318, S. E. Knudsen, General Motors vice president and Pontiac Motor Division general manager, announced today.

Booming Pontiac sales were 78.3 per cent above May of last year when 19,808 new cars were delivered, Knudsen said.

Daily retail sales rate of the popular new wide track Pontiac is continuing at the highest level since 1955, he added.

Domestic retail deliveries of GMC trucks in the first five months of 1959 were 41.2 per cent higher than the comparable period last year, it was announced today by P. J. Monaghan, vice president of General Motors and general manager of GMC Truck & Coach Division.

He said 30,785 GMC trucks were delivered through this May compared to 21,801 in the corresponding five month period last year.

Deliveries this May total 6,317 units, a 39.4 per cent increase over May of 1958.

Meanwhile, glowing sales reports were being written throughout the automotive industry.

The industry achieved its best 10-day sales period in 23 months in the period May 21-31 and total sales last month were the industry's best monthly showing of the year.

Ward's Automotive Reports said yesterday the May selling rate jumped 9.4 per cent over April following a three per cent sales increase by April over March.

FIRST SINCE 1955

Sales last March were 11.5 per cent above February sales.

The continuation of sales increases on a monthly basis this year marks the first time since 1955 the automobile industry's new car retailing has resulted in monthly increases in the first five months of the year.

Ward's said daily sales of 23,182 new U.S. built cars May 21-31 represented a 12.1 per cent gain over midmonth, resulting in a 21,192 daily rate for last month.

May new car sales of 529,800 units were 34.3 per cent above May 1958 and brought the January-May total to 2,356,480 units or 29.2 per cent ahead of the corresponding 1958 period.

Pontiac Facing Possible Force Action by State

Critical Need Is Cited for Enlarging Sewage Treatment Facilities

By PETE LOCHBILER

Pontiac's pollution problem is "the most critical in Michigan" and state action to halt it is not far off.

The new Civic Improvement Advisory Committee was warned to this effect last night by the State Health Department engineer assigned to protect the Clinton River basin from pollution.

"You can temporize over public health problems just so long and Pontiac's time has all but run out," said Maury Richmond, one of four speakers who addressed the committee on the need here for more sewage treatment facilities.

The State Water Resources Commission, of which the Health Department is an important member, is "on the brink" of ordering Pontiac to increase its treatment capacity to end pollution, Richmond said.

Results of a year's testing of the river are in the hands of the commission, Richmond said.

"If Pontiac can't get its treatment plant expanded soon, the committee will go into action and back up its order with court authority, if necessary."

Richmond said Pontiac no longer has time to wait a few years in hopes that the county can eventually step in and help it out.

"The need for better sewage treatment here has been critical now for several years. Pontiac has got to decide now whether to build more facilities voluntarily, or on order of the state."

STATE HOLDS OFF

He said the state has held off stepping into the picture while Pontiac tried unsuccessfully in 1957, 1958 and again in April to get voter approval to finance $3,300,000 in improvements through a general obligation bond issue.

The 70 member citizens' committee was meeting for the first time, summoned together by the City Commission as a last hope following the third defeat this spring.

It's the committee's job to help sell Pontiac voters on the city's plans to curb pollution of the Clinton.

Last night, the sewage treatment problem was spelled out in detail by Richmond, City Manager Walter K. Willman, Harold A. Kelley and Thomas Henry, consulting engineers; and John Hennessey, superintendent of the Department of Sewage Treatment.

The experts pictured the once lovely Clinton, now devastated by Pontiac pollution, as the worst health menace in the state.

Raw sewage, they said, has slipped totally untreated through Pontiac's antiquated treatment plant, to line the bottom of the river half way to Rochester.

Lack of oxygen has stifled all

Dems, GOP Air State Tax Views on TV Tonight

LANSING (AP) — Top Republicans and Democrats will discuss the Michigan tax situation over an eight-station television network tonight.

Gov. Williams and Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson will present the Democratic view. The GOP position will be outlined by Sen. Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo) and Rep. Wilfred G. Bassett (R-Jackson).

The program will originate in WWJ-TV Detroit from 7 to 7:30 p.m. It will be carried by stations in Lansing, Jackson, Grand Rapids, Bay City, Flint, Traverse City and Cheboygan.

Republicans have been pushing for a penny boost in the state use (sales) tax to meet new revenue needs. Democrats have called for a tax package including a personal income levy.

Network time for the bipartisan discussion was requested by the state chairmen of the two parties.

Progressive Light Setup on Saginaw Step Closer

Pontiac may finally get the Saginaw street progressive light system finished this summer and it will be a more ambitious project than originally planned.

City Traffic Engineer Theodore M. Vanderstempel said today the State Highway Department had forwarded long-awaited plans that provide timing movements for the entire U.S. 10 route in Pontiac, from South boulevard on the southeast to West boulevard on the northwest.

Originally, only Saginaw street from South boulevard to Oakland avenue north of downtown was figured for the system. Now Oakland avenue from Saginaw to the northwest city limits is included, said Vanderstempel.

The aim of the system will be to allow smooth flow of traffic without stops at traffic lights from one end of the city to another, he said.

Saginaw-Oakland traffic theoretically will be able to pass through 17 traffic lights with a green signal all the way.

Timing will be adjustable during rush hours to handle greater loads of traffic, Vanderstempel said.

Detailed planning of this maneuver was one reason behind the length of time it took the Highway Department to prepare plans, the traffic engineer indicated.

Another time-consuming aspect was synchronizing other Pontiac traffic lights so that east-west traffic would be coordinated with the north-south U.S. 10 traffic flow, he said.

EVERY ONE TO FIT

Every traffic light in Pontiac eventually will be adjusted to fit into the pattern, he said.

The Highway Department included timing recommendations for all of Pontiac's traffic lights in its plans, he said.

The city asked the state for a progressive light system more than two years ago. Pontiac's traffic department provided traffic counts and other local data.

Since the state trunkline is controlled by the state, it was up to the State Department to draw the voluminous plans.

The bulky document was de-

85 Degrees Magic Figure

Men, Arise! Off With Your Ties!

Despite threatening telephone calls from the Amalgamated Society of Tie Manufacturers, Pontiac's chief heat-beater is sticking his neck out again.

Off comes the tie.

Whew!

Mother Nature is agin' it. She plays dastardly tricks, like keeping the temperature cool in the morning, until all the suffering males have committed themselves costume-wise, for the day.

Then socko, a midday heat wave that leaves everyone panting.

So this year, the limit is 85. If the early morning prediction is 85 that day, reach for that cool sport shirt, put the tie back on the rack.

Puts Reuther in Hoffa Class

Goldwater Hits Union Politics

Says UAW Head Is 'No White Knight' but Meany Above Reproach

From Our News Wires

DETROIT — Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz) yesterday paired United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther and Teamsters Union Chief James Hoffa in a class by themselves concerning infiltration of rackets in labor movements.

"Many people consider Reuther the 'great statesman of labor.'" Goldwater told newsmen at a press conference before the annual meeting of the Michigan Manufacturers' Association, "but I don't consider him any white knight."

The Arizona Republican ranked the chiefs of the nation's three major union groups in terms of the amount of "questionable activities" he considered to be involved in their operations.

But the senator was not as easy on the other two labor union heads.

"They both know there are men they're not too proud of, and they know full well who they should get rid of," he said.

Goldwater described Hoffa as the "worst offender" but said there were several operations within the UAW which the McClellan (Senate rackets) Committee should look into further.

Goldwater said the committee, of which he is a member, had proved very effective in informing the public as to the racketeering activities in union movements, but was not effective in providing legislation to curb these activities.

The GOP senator said new legislation perhaps would not be necessary to clean up the "questionable activities" but suggested the nation review the power which has been given to unions.

He cited two questions which he said were unanswered in his mind about this power. They were: "Why can't unions be enjoined the same as a person or corporation? Why are unions considered outside anti-trust laws?"

'INSIDIOUS OCTOPUS'

He said the compulsory unionism is being transformed into compulsory political power resting in the hands of labor leaders. He said this was an "insidious octopus" which the union leaders are trying to spread over the entire country.

Goldwater told the newsmen that Michigan's business climate is not good and said that new factories are not being built here.

For the first time in history, the Arizona Republican said, Ohio and Indiana have passed Michigan in industrial output. Asked from what source his figures came, Goldwater said: "They were furnished me by my office." He didn't know whether they came from a federal agency.

Goldwater said he did not think businessmen "can dismiss responsibility in some part" for Michigans current financial crisis.

Keego Man Ponders Reckless Boat Action

The Oakland County Sheriff's partment today awaited the decision of a Keego Harbor man as to whether he will sign a complaint against a Detroit boat owner for reckless operation on Cass Lake Thursday evening.

Otto Mehrkamper, of 2168 Willow Beach Ave., was fishing in a 14-foot rowboat with a friend when a boat driven by its owner, Donald D. Strane, 26, of 15660 Glastonbury, nearly hit him, he told deputies.

Deputies and officials at Dodge State Park No. 4 had already had trouble with Strane moments earlier. At about 7:30 p.m. Strane and his companion, Jack Richardson, 26, 12629 Riverview, Detroit, had driven their 17½-foot inboard motorboat into a restricted area at the park.

Park Ranger John F. Weiler told them to leave and they did. Minutes later Weiler reported seeing them return to the area.

ISSUES TICKET

This time he issued Strane a ticket for operating his craft in an area closed to motor boats. He said the two men were abusive but left peacefully.

Then Kenneth B. Davis, special water patrol deputy on Cass Lake, informed the department of a reckless operation complaint from Mehrkamper.

The fisherman said the craft, identified by its registration number as belonging to Strane, came so close to him at a high rate of speed that it sprayed water into his boat.

"I was so mad that I threw a hammer at the boat," Mehrkamper was quoted as telling deputies. The hammer struck the rear of the passing inboard.

"He stopped and hollered 'Don't you know you could hurt someone?'" Mehrkamper said. "I hollered to him that he could have drowned us and told him to stay away from our boat," he explained.

The fisherman then said that the inboard made a second pass close enough to splash water into the rowboat again. Mehrkamper said he began rowing for shore as fast as he could.

MAKES ANOTHER PASS

"Then he started for me at a high speed again and suddenly swerved to one side when about 20 feet in front of us causing heavy waves," he reported.

Sheriff Frank W. Irons today said that further action will depend entirely upon the complainant.

"This is the kind of boat operator we want off our lakes, but we can't issue a warrant ourselves unless we see the unlawful act being committed. If Mehrkamper signs a complaint, then we'll prefer charges."

plant and fish life and the cloudy, evil-smelling waters are germ-infested all the way to Mt. Clemens.

Utica, which draws its supply of drinking water from the Clinton, is threatened.

Living viruses travel down stream from Pontiac and there's little doubt they are entering the Utica water system.

"Conditions on the river for the first three or four miles east of Pontiac are terrible," Richmond told shocked committee members. Hennessey had figures that added to the shameful picture.

The existing plant removes only an average 85 per cent of the impurities from the sewage system before it is turned loose into the Clinton.

At peak hours, this figure drops to around 60 per cent, meaning that almost half of Pontiac's sewage flow goes untreated then.

On the average day, Pontiac dumps into the river two tons of what Hennessey described as "solids."

The treatment plant receives an average of ten tons of solids a day, but can only treat eight, he explained.

Kelley and Henry are partners in the engineering firm of Jones, Henry and Williams, which has been concerned with Pontiac's sewage treatment problem 23 years.

Henry said the history of sewage treatment in Pontiac is a story of expediency — "if you use expediency as a dirty word."

He said that 1952 innovations to the existing plant were stopgap measures, which the state leniently was willing to go along with "for two or three years."

"That was seven years ago and there hasn't been any improvement since," Henry reminded.

'BITS AND SNATCHES'

He said that Pontiac had improved its plant only by "bits and snatches" since it was built 30 years ago, with a capacity of three million gallons a day.

Henry said his firm recommended as early as 1936 that a new plant should be built on the Auburn road site, which the city now wants to put to use for added facilities, but the recommendation has never been carried out.

"The city authorized only limited expenditures. We had to patch up. Willman said a state order against Pontiac would have a "drastic" impact on Pontiac, resulting, perhaps, in construction of more facilities on a revenue bond basis with an added increase on the average taxpayer.

"Perhaps we still have time to finance the plant on a general obligation bond issue, if voters approve,' he said.

Leading Jurist Dies at Home

Astronomer H. Hulbert Was Cofounder of Local Observatory

Judge Henry S. Hulbert, prominent jurist, banker, balloonist and astronomer, died yesterday in his home, 100 Webb St., Detroit. He was 89.

He served as Wayne County's first juvenile judge and retired as the county's presiding probate judge in 1934 after 44 years on the bench.

Following his retirement, the judge served as a vice president of the National Bank of Detroit until 1946. He was also a director of the Automobile Club of Michigan until 1958.

Along with Francis C. McMath and his son, Dr. Robert R. McMath, the judge was a cofounder of McMath-Hulbert Observatory at Lake Angelus in 1930.

He was an honorary curator of astronomy at the University of Michigan and received the Wetherill Medal in 1933 for his work in photographing the sky.

Judge Hulbert who made his summer home at Lake Angelus had served as chairman of the McGregor Fund, trustee of the Cranbrook Foundation, Cranbrook Institute of Science, the Edwin S. George Foundation, St. Luke's Hospital and other organizations.

He was a member of the Detroit Athletic Club, Detroit Golf Club and Detroit Boat Club.

A member of St. Joseph's Episcopal Church, he was archdeacon of the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio.

The judge leaves his wife, Frieda R.; two sisters, Mrs. David Thornberry of Birmingham and Mrs. F. F. Kraft of Glendale, Ohio; and two brothers.

The family requests memorial tributes be made to St. Peter's Home for Boys, 1950 Trumbull, Detroit.

Judge Hulbert's body will lie in state at the William R. Hamilton Co. chapel, 3975 Cass Ave., Detroit from noon to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Service will be at 11 a.m. Monday at St. Joseph Episcopal Church, Woodward at Holbrook, Detroit with burial following in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Smathers Tells of Fake Wires Favoring Strauss

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. George A. Smathers (D-Fla) said last night he has evidence of misuse of names in telegrams urging Senate approval of President Eisenhower's disputed nomination of Lewis L. Strauss to be commerce secretary.

Smathers told the Senate that persons whose names were signed to two telegrams endorsing Strauss have sent him written denials that they were the authors of the messages. He added that they told him they actually opposed the nomination.

He said the two telegrams were among "some 300" he received in one afternoon from apparent supporters of the appointment.

NO EXACT DATE

He said the target date for completion would be sometime this summer, with a more exact date expected to be set within a week or so.

Work to change the signals will be done by the city's Electrical Department, mostly involving installation of new control boxes, change of signal heads and laying of new electrical cables.

Chevy Spectacle Exhibit in City Through Tuesday

Consisting of a group of intricate, hand-built, animated and mechanized displays, the exhibit dramatizes the latest progress in automotive design.

The safety of the latest brakes, tires and other automotive parts will be displayed.

Exposed moving parts in the cutaway car are kept in continuous motion by concealed electric motors. Sound stations located around the railing of the display offer a complete running commentary with music.

TO SERVE KEEGO

The city of Keego Harbor, the major portion of West Bloomfield Township, all of Farmington Township, and a small section of the city of Southfield will be served by the Farmington intercepter.

Not only will the construction of the sewers mean that homes that employ septic tanks can abandon them, but it also satisfies court orders that Oakland County stop sewage overflow into the Rouge River.

Schone and his engineers were moving in this direction in March of last year when a West Bloomfield attorney, Irwin I. Cohn, filed a lawsuit contending the county was proceding to build the sewers under an unconstitutional act.

Simply, Cohn argued certain townships, like his own, would have to exceed a constitutional tax limitation in meeting its obligations to the county to pay for their share of the sewers.

ATTENDS CEREMONY

Cohn, who has his law offices in Detroit, came out yesterday to see the start of the project he held up so long. He explained he filed suit "to clarify an issue," and that he is convinced now that the county is legally correct in its plans.

So said the late Oakland Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick last year when he refused Cohn an injunction blocking the sewers. This didn't mean work could begin, however, as Cohn immediately appealed the decision to the State Supreme Court.

The county was a willing participant in the suit, which served as a test case for the infant DPW.

The case sat in Lansing until October of last year when the eight justices split 4 to 4 on the question of whether the tax limitation would be violated if the sewers were built.

Feeling this split decision might hamper sale of general obligation bonds to finance the huge project, county legal officials successfully steered an amendment through the Legislature last month.

It spelled out that townships to be served by the sewers would "be subject to any constitutional tax limitation or any lawful increase thereof."

Twelve million dollars in bonds were sold to a syndicate of Halsey Stuart & Company Inc. at interest rates of 4.3 per cent.

The 12 areas to be served by the Evergreens and Farmington sewers have agreed in contracts with the DPW to pay shares of the overall costs. This money in turn will be used to help retire the 30-year bond issues for both.

Schone said what families will pay to hook up to the sewers will depend on the area they live in. He cited a possible $200 connecting charge in Southfield and Troy, for example, and a $300 charge in Bloomfield Township.

Deputy DPW Director R. J. Alexander said home owners will have 10 years in which to pay this connecting charge and what it costs to attach to the laterals.

The Day in Birmingham

YM Canoeists to Explore Georgian Bay Wilderness

BIRMINGHAM—"A real adventure is in store for the first seven boys who enroll for the Birmingham YMCA's Wilderness Canoe Trip, scheduled Aug. 27 through Sept. 6," announced "Y" Secretary Olin Manchester today.

The boys will spend a week exploring the bush country north of Georgian Bay in Canada, he said.

Candidates will be screened in a one-day orientation program at Camp Ohiyesa to check their swimming and canoeing ability before taking the 450-mile trip into Canada.

An experienced college-age guide and a YMCA secretary will accompany the group on the expedition, said Manchester.

Boys 15 years of age or older are eligible for the trip. Those interested should contact Owen Manchester, YMCA executive secretary at the Birmingham "Y" building.

A Bloomfield Hills youth, Richard Lundy, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Lundy, 1509 Sodon Lake Dr., will compete tomorrow with nearly 100 other Michigan teenage drivers in the State Junior Chamber of Commerce Safe Driving Road-E-O.

Lundy won in local competition about two weeks ago. The state winner at Midland will receive the Pure Oil Co. scholarship and an all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D. C., where he will compete in the national finals.

Other cooperating sponsors are Michigan Trucking Assn., Chrysler Corp. and the Liberty Mutual Insurance Co.

A new club called "Pep Teens" has been formed at the Birmingham YMCA, a spokesman for the planning committee announced today.

Its purpose will be to provide social and recreational activities during the summer months for junior high school youngsters in Birmingham - Bloomfield Hills School District.

Plans call for a special program every Tuesday evening, beginning June 16, from 8 until 11 p.m. Activities will include dancing, games and movies.

Summer outings, such as picnics, camping excursions and bus trips, are also planned.

Mrs. Clyde Snyder

Service for Mrs. Clyde Snyder, 59, of 852 Henley Dr. will be held Monday from the Thompson-McDowell Funeral Home in Youngstown, Ohio. Burial will follow there in Lake Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Snyder died last night at her home after a long illness.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Albert Freed of Birmingham; her mother, Mrs. Charles Birchfield of Youngstown; two sisters and two grandchildren.

The body will be taken from the Manley Bailey Funeral Home tonight.

See Soviet Submarine Miles South of Iceland

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Russian submarine recently was sighted in the North Atlantic about 150 to 200 miles south of Iceland, the Navy said today.

It said the craft, which was on the surface at the time, was sighted by the submarine U.S.S. Grenadier and a Navy patrol plane, both of which were engaged in exercises.

The Navy, which issued the statment in response to queries, was unable to say what kind of submarine was involved or whether it appeared to be a missile-firing type.

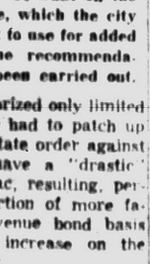
National Conference Held at San Francisco

County Scouting Praised at Meeting

By JOE HAAS
(Member of National Scouting Council)

SAN FRANCISCO — The Old Scouters are here; about 2,000 of them. They are the grownups who represent the five million boys and other grownups actively engaged in scouting, at the forty-ninth annual meeting of the Boy Scouts of America.

On account of its unique position, our own Clinton Valley Council, which comprises most of the area of Oakland and Macomb Counties, gets considerable attention. Other Scouters from all parts of our nation wonder how we do it.



JOE

In our council we have practically every aspect and method of living under which the future manhood of America is being reared to its individual positions as grownups.

"How do you get such good scoutmasters?" is the question asked us on every hand. In the 252 chartered units in Clinton Valley Council we have been able to secure good leaders by enlisting the attention of busy people.

In most other councils they endeavor to get leaders who "have time" for the work. We have found that the busiest executive in his chosen line of endeavor is generally the one who will find time for Scouting — and lead the boys to its top ranks.

Our membership gain during the past year in Clinton Valley, when most councils are only holding their own or are slightly slipping, also gets some attention. Locally this gain is about seven per cent.

According to Scout Executive Edward H. Leland of Clinton Valley Council, we now have 12,895 registered members. These are divided into 9,614 boys and 3,281 commissioner adults.

The three divisions locally are divided as follows: Cubs, 5,770; Scouts, 3,463 and Explorers, 391. Our great progress in cubbing excites interest, as they are the boys who become Scouts.

In Clinton Valley we have as many cub packs as we do scout troops, 109 of each. These are augmented by 34 explorer units. This proportion indicates as healthy a situation in the work as can be found anywhere in the nation.

The opening day of the national meeting included the session of the National Council this forenoon, and the regional luncheons this noon. Michigan is in Region Seven, other states in it being Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin. In many former national meetings we have carried off the attendance honors, but this time are being pushed by the local region, comprised of California and other Pacific coast states.

GOLDEN JUB

Sessions of study groups make up this afternoon's work. In all of them the theme of "Onward for God and My Country" is being carried out. Also a matter of primary consideration is the celebration of Scouting's golden jubilee next year. The National Council banquet is this evening.

So far, I haven't met the delegate from Nashville, Tenn., with whom I have a rendezvous on what should be an interesting conference, stemming from my visit to Fayetteville, Tenn., last winter. But he'll be here. He'll keep that appointment — he's a Scout.

The Boy Scout Troop at Fayetteville, which is in the Nashville Council, had just inducted a class of nine Eagles, which is regarded as somewhat of a world record for a community of that size. It somewhat resembles my own Holly.

It was locally regarded as somewhat of a milestone in civic history — which it was. And it gave me an inspiration for a challenge — can any troop in our own Clinton Valley Council prepare such a class? If they can, it will be made the subject of nationwide publicity. Any takers?

BIGGEST TESTIMONIAL

Delving into the Oakland County court records reveals one of the biggest testimonials for Scouting that can be found. It receives attention at every national meeting.

In his work on the bench, around a half century in extent, most of which has been as Circuit Judge, and in which he has handled thousands of criminal cases, retiring Judge Frank L. Doty tells me that never in his entire career has he encountered a former Boy Scout in his court.

Personally, I know of mighty few boys who have made good in business, professional or industrial world who were not Scouts in their youth.

20 Teachers to Train as Science Vanguard

EAST LANSING (UPI)—Twenty high school science teachers from Michigan and neighboring states will take a year's leave of absence and begin training this month as traveling teachers for Michigan State University.

The teachers will study for three months at MSU before takng latest information on biology, physics, chemistry and mathematics to high schools.

The program, which includes visits to schools in 10 states, is sponsored by MSU and the National Science Foundation.

The Michigan teachers:

Robert L. Amundsen, Holt High School; Julian Brandau, Rogers City High School; Walter Gibbs, Detroit's Denby High School; Vance Hamilton, Grand Ledge High School; Delmer D. Munro, Twining High School; and Daniel O. Smith, Jackson's Northwest High School.

Prison Break of Two Foiled at San Quentin

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—Two convicts were foiled in their plot to escape from San Quentin Prison in the tank of a Napa State Hospital fire truck which was repaired here.

Associate Warden Lous Nelson said the plot was discovered Wednesday, just as the truck was to return to Napa. Tank cover bolts had been filed smooth, then replaced but held only by tape.

Inside the tank, 6 feet long, 4 wide and 2 deep, were clothing, a knife and two oranges. Nelson said Robert Logan, 26, Los Angeles robber, and Stan Kearney, 22, Riverside forger, admitted the plot.

CBS Signs Sid Caesar

NEW YORK (AP) — Comedian Sid Caesar has been signed to a long-term, exclusive contract with the CBS television network, to star in a series of one-hour comedy shows with Audrey Meadows, starting Oct. 21.

Legislature Goes Silent on Tax Plan

LANSING (AP)—A strange stillness of the tax compromise question has settled over the Legislature once more.

It was as though Republicans and Democrats were trying to outwait each other, with each camp apparently feeling it was up to the other to make the next move and yet not expecting anything imminently.

The Bipartisan Tax Compromise Committee that raised hopes of a settlement a month ago completed a week today without as much as a meeting or a gesture.

Earlier in the week, Republican senators seemed to be biding their time for the House to act decisively on the 146 million dollar "piggy back" income tax package. They were ready, they said, to stifle it quickly when it reached them.

INDIFFERENCE ARISES

When Wednesday's vote was inconclusive, the hesitancy of anticipation froze—for the moment at least—into seeming indifference.

Basically, Republicans have stood steadfast for a one per cent increase in the state use (sales) tax, and Democrats for an income tax.

Republican senators yesterday flatly denied a widely circulated report by Frank Morris, their $15,000-a-year public relations man, that a new GOP compromise tax package was ready to be sprung.

Some key lawmakers—about a dozen—planned to absent themselves from Monday night's session in order to take a free boat trip up the St. Lawrence Seaway to Montreal upon invitation of the Detroit Board of Commerce.

Meanwhile, Gov. Williams continued his vigorous plugging for the "piggy back" tax on television and in a weekly column circulated to newspapers.

He urged listeners and readers to compute their own state tax liability under the plan to see how simply it could be done, and asked if the proposal didn't seem "fair and equitable."

For about half Michigan's citizens, he said, the cost would be less than that of the GOP use tax increase proposal.

Israeli Soldier Killed

JERUSALEM, Israel (AP)—One Israeli soldier was killed and five were wounded when a military vehicle hit a mine near Nitzana Thursday, an army spokesman announced. Nitzana is near the Egyptian border.

4 Other Frog Hollow Times Open

3 Camp Periods Filled

Three registration periods for Frog Hollow Day Camp are already filled, but there is still room for more registrants in four other periods.

Weekly periods still open are June 29-July 3, July 20-24, July 27-31 and Aug. 3-7.

The day camp, operated by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Dept. at Pontiac Lake Recreation Area, is open to boys and girls age 7 through 13, with registration fees of $3 a child covering lunch and bus transportation between the camp and downtown Pontiac.

May Sales of Rambler Up 66 Pct. Over 1958

DETROIT—(UPI) — Rambler retail sales in May were 66.1 per cent above the same month in 1958, Ray Abernethy, American Motors Corp. vice president, said.

Rembler dealers delivered 33,795 new cars in the month as compared with 20,349 last May. Deliveries in the current model year total 222,328,c ompared with 97,957 at the same time last year, or a 127 per cent gain.

Abernethy said orders already on hand from dealers indicate June will be the highest retail sales month in Rambler history.

Negro Coed Success in New York

The poised, vivacious Negro girl is one of 28 seniors graduating in afternoon ceremonies from the New Lincoln School. There are another Negro girl and two Negro boys in the graduating class.

Minnijean, 18, will be dressed in a white dress—like all the other girl graduates — when she walks onto the auditorium stage to receive her diploma from Dr. John J. Brooks, the white director of the private, interracial school.

Minnijean was one of nine Negroes who entered Little Rock Central High School in the autumn of 1957 after President Eisenhower sent in troops to prevent rioting over segregation.

Like the others, she faced the ordeal of integration because she said she felt she could get a better education at Central than in all-Negro Horace Mann High School in Little Rock.

But halfway through the school year, on Feb. 17, 1958, Minnijean was expelled after she engaged in a series of arguments with white students at Central.

It seemed then that her dream was over. She was barred from Little Rock's public schools for the rest of the 1958 school year.

However, the New Lincoln School offered Minnijean a $1,050 scholarship. A week after her expulsion in Little Rock she became one of its 431 students here.

Minnijean has been accepted as a potential student by Michigan State University and Upsala College in East Orange, N.J. But instead she plans to enter Mt. Sinai Hospital's school of nursing in Manhattan, for three years of training to become a registered nurse.

Of her days at the New Lincoln School, Minnijean said:

"It's the best school I've ever been to, or even imagined."

And, speaking for the school, Brooks says of Minnijean:

Involved Pastor Likely to Stay

Church Seems Behind Him Despite 'Improper' Link With Woman

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—A San Antonio minister, who asked his congregation to replace him because he became involved with a woman member of the church, looked like a good bet today to be retained by the church.

Clarence Boatright, chairman of a special committee appointed to study the request of the Rev. W. S. McBirnie, said Thursday 90 per cent of the Board of Deacons of Trinity Baptist church favor retaining McBirnie.

There was no immediate reaction from the congregation. The standing-room-only crowd which heard McBirnie beg for forgiveness and ask to be replaced discussed the situation quietly after the meeting Wednesday night, but there were no demonstrations.

The 39-year-old pastor of San Anontio's second largest Baptist church went before the congregation to confirm published reports on an "improper involvement" between himself and an unnamed member of the church.

McBirnie, married and the father of a teenage son, said the involvement—on which he did not elaborate—came after he took the side of the wife while trying to patch up a domestic quarrel between a husband and wife in his congregation.

When he failed to reconcile the couple, McBirnie said, he became involved with the wife.

McBirnie gave an exclusive interview to San Antonio News columnist Paul Thompson in which he admitted the situation. He told the church meeting he sought out Thompson because his action was a matter for public concern.

Debbie Claims Diamond Brooch Friendship Gift

"All this excitement is completely unnecessary," the actress told newsmen Thursday. "I'm not engaged or in love with anyone."

The actress returned Thursday from a 10-day trip to New York, where she plugged three movies and a new record album. She said Bob Neal, heir to a coffee fortune and a family friend for eight years, escorted her to plays while she was in New York.

In New York, Neal confirmed that the brooch was just a friendship token. He said he and Debbie never discussed an engagement or marriage.

Many Michigan Cities Hike Taxes

By A. F. MAHAN JR.
AP Staff Writer

The state of Michigan isn't the only governmental unit that is going to clip you for more taxes this year.

Cities throughout the state are going to fish more out of your pocketbook by one method or another—a higher tax rate or increased assessment, as a general rule.

The state's equalized valuation, upon which county tax rates are based, is up 271 million dollars. Only 18 counties got lower valuations. Eight of these are in the Upper Peninsula. Wayne was the only county with a large population to get a cut.

Some cities are doing what the state did en route to the brink of financial disaster. They're robbing other funds and surpluses to keep their operating funds in the black.

A few are cutting services or foregoing pay raises for employes.

An Associated Press sampling across Michigan shows most cities with record budgets, record tax rates or record assessments — or all three — for the 1959-60 fiscal year, which generally starts July 1.

A fall-off in assessments against industry is reported by several cities. In most of them either real estate assessments or tax rates have been increased to take up the slack.

Detroit is going to have a record tax rate of $25.27 per $1,000 of assessed valuation to meet a 322 million dollar budget. City council overrode Mayor Louis Miriana to give the city's 23,000 employes an eighth paid holiday at a cost of $143,000 and to give police and fire officers a pay boost totaling $122,000.

HIKE IN FLINT

Flint is among those cities rate from $39.73 to approximately $41 and is planning to tap water and sewer customers for $700,000 more to balance a $9,061,282 budget. Of Flint's combined tax rate, the city will get $12.61, compared with $12.22 this year. Schools have been getting $20.60 and Genesee County $6.91.

Flint is among those cities which used the higher state equalized valuation in levying its taxes.

Even so, to carry it over into the new year Flint has appealed to its largest taxpayers to pay first installments of 1959-60 taxes in advance so it can meet July payrolls on time.

A 5 per cent raise given employes last August isn't leaving the city any cash to carry over into the new year. Surpluses in years past have carried it until first taxes fell due at the end of July.

Grand Rapids expects to hold its $12.48 city rate, despite a $53,086 higher budget and a $3,355,441 decrease in assessments. City Manager Alfred H. Rypstra, appointed only May 4, ordered belt-tightening by all departments.

Battle Creek cut its city-only tax rate from $11 to $10.50 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, but its city commission ordered assessments switched to the state's higher equalized valuation and citizens actually will pay 93 cents per $1,000 more under the lower rate.

TYPICAL PROBLEMS

Some typical examples across the state follow:

Monroe, although it cut appropriations from $1,371,085 for the current fiscal year to $1,328,612 for the new year, boosted its tax rate from $11.75 to $12. Its surpluses have been cut into, largely by the costs of new streets and services. Welfare costs have run above anticipation. City employes will get a raise of 2 to 3 per cent.

St. Joseph has a record budget of $1,309,372 and is boosting its tax rate from $18.70 to $19.50 to meet it. A large portion of the increases is charged to reducing the hours of firemen from 68 to 63 weekly and the hours of policemen from 48 to 40, plus a 5 per cent pay raise to employes on a 40-hour week.

No major equipment items are included in the budget, but St. Joseph will start the new year with a $78,062 balance in its operating fund.

Grand Haven has adopted a record budget of $573,370 and a record tax rate of $13, up $1 from this year. On top of this it has a $3 storm stewer assessment. Valuation is up from $27,778,835 to $29,284,650. The budget gain is attributed primarily to rising wages of city employes, costs of welfare and costs in general.

Marquette's budget, edging up gradually over the last eight years, will hit $2,476,783 for 1959-60 and its combined tax rate will go up from $36.66 to $38.38, including $17.10 for school operations, $3.63 for school debts, $2 for libraries and $15.65 for city purposes.

Schools got $16.77 this year and the city $13.90. Included in the budget is a provision for establishment of an engineering department and purchase of new trucks for sanitary and public works departments. City valuations are up $607,300 from this year.

MIDLAND SAME

Midland has adopted the same $14.50 city tax rate that applied this year and is trimming expenditures $140,000 to get within its budget, but, ironically, its citizens will have to pay about 25 per cent more in county taxes.

While Midland city assessors dropped valuations from $126,900,000 to $115,500,000, the state tax commission increased the equalized valuation, on which county and school taxes are levied, from $17,400,000 to $193,900,000.

Ann Arbor has come up with a $17.95 tax rate, off five cents, but property assessments are up $6,821,400 to a record $103,069,150. The budget is up $470,363 to a record $4,017,966.

Sault Ste. Marie is dipping into its stock and equipment fund for about $21,000 to baalnce its new record budget of $1,143,662. Most of the city's increase, however, is chargable to interest requirements on $1,500,000 in sewage disposal plant bonds sold on court order to build the plant. The tax rate is $19.50, plus $1.76 for sewage bonds, compared with this year's rate of $18.99. City employes get a raise of about six cents hourly and city assessments are down.

Saginaw had a $300,000 surplus at the beginning of the current fiscal year, but plans to put whatever is left this June 30 into public improvements in progress or into a special fund for streets. The tax rate is going up from $17.19 to $19.70.

Included is the full $10 permitted by charter for operating purposes. The budget contains only $490,000 for wage adjustments and public improvements. Some councilmen are talking of cutting out tree-trimming services, new swimming pools, etc.

Escanaba is increasing its tax rate from $11 to $12, primarily to build up its capital improvement fund from which it has financed $270,000 in sewage system improvements. Escanaba realized $139,987 profit from its municipally owned electric generating plant this year. It also operates a propane gas plant and a central steam heating plant, plus customary water and sewage utilities.

Adrian (60c), Alpena (70c), Ionia (35c), Jackson ($1.16) and Owosso ($1.14) are among other cities increasing rates for 1959-60.

Kalamazoo is holding steady, but assessments are up there and it forewent any salary increases. Ironwood also reported no increase.

Remodel Blood Lab

LANSING (AP)—Production at the State Health Department's remodeled blood laboratory is underway on a trial basis, Dr. Albert Heustis, health commissioner reports. Heustis said the remodeling will enable the department to make larger amounts of blood products available for life-saving purposes.

Although the formal celebration of Mother's Day is only a little more than 50 years old, the origin of the event can be traced to ancient times. Each year, the Romans honored the mother-goddess Hilaria, while the early Greeks worshipped Cybele, mother of the gods.

Fr. Michael J. O'Reilly

St. Michael's Parish, along with all Pontiac, has lost a real, close friend in the untimely death of Father MICHAEL J. O'REILLY. For over a quarter of a century Father O'RIELLY has been the strong backbone of St. Michael's Catholic Church.

Father O'Reilly lived for his religion and church, but on top of all this, he was a down-to-earth, generous and kind man. No problem was ever too small for Father O'Reilly.

His council was not necessarily confined to his own flock. He was always available for those seeking guidance, regardless of faith.

One of Father O'REILLY's uncanny qualities was his ability to be a regular guy. He could immediately put anyone at ease and consequently lifted the barrier that sometimes exists between clergy and layman.

Aside from his personable character, Father O'Reilly possessed unusual ability as a music composer. He will long be remembered by his parishioners and others for his contribution to music.

In leaving this world Father O'REILLY's greatest contribution has been his willingness and ability to work closely with mankind. He leaves a host of friends and for a while at least will leave a void in the Rectory on Lewis Street.

The Japs Aren't Afraid of Big Bad Wolf

Once more those inscrutable Japs have told off the Russian bear.

The Kremlin told the Japanese to remain neutral as to the East and West. Even though the big bullies can almost leer at the hapless Japs over a back fence, the Nipponese suggested in diplomatic language that the Reds go take a great, big fat jump in the ocean.

Here is a first rate object lesson for a lot of other nations that aren't nearly as close to Russia as the Japs

The Russians would simply love to feel that they had guaranteed Japanese neutrality. This is about the fifth time in fifteen months that the Japs have treated the big swagger boys with the same prompt defiance.

It's very heartening

Is Weather Causing Airplane Crashes?

Our unsettled weather of late brings to mind two recent commercial air crashes which may have been caused by weather.

A Capital Viscount turbo jet broke up in mid-air near Baltimore, killing 31 persons. It has been established the weather was bad.

There apparently is no record of a commercial airliner ever having been pulled apart in the air during a storm, but military planes and small private craft have been severely damaged by winds aloft.

A tornado can uproot trees and throw buildings into the air, and winds surely are capable of playing with an airliner as if it were a toy plane.

The crash at Charleston, W. Virginia, in which two persons died, occurred after a Constellation had landed in a light rain and may have been caused by a wet runway on which the plane apparently skidded.

Perhaps additonal equipment may be needed on airliners for wet landings such as this. It does not seem that landing on a wet runway in itself should be responsible for an accident of this sort.

For some unexplainable reason all weather seems to be somewhat different than we experienced some years back. Perhaps it is just that we understand more about it now.

If investigation does indicate that the weather contributed to the Viscount accident, the new Federal Aviation Agency should make a study of our regulations governing flying in stormy weather.

The Man About Town

Coming Our Way

Wild Life Is Returning to Oakland County Area

June: The mouth of roses, weddings and other things that breed thorns.

There is plenty of evidence that deer and other wild life are returning to this section. Shortage of food further north, game protection, and a growing tendency to get more chummy with man are the reasons.

Several blessed events in the deer population are reported from various parts of Oakland County, the greatest number by

David Laidlaw,

of Lake Orion. During the last few days the bucks have been fighting and one has lost a few brackets from his horns.

The big woods just off Baldwin Road a few miles north of Pontiac, according to has a pair of deer who recently had twin fawns.

The Webber Woods near Holly, site of the Detroit Girl Scout Camp, has a trio, buck, doe and fawn, according to who lives near there, that promise to get chummy with the big city girls this summer.

Coming home the other night with a bleeding nose, the dog of

of Clarkston directed his master to a clump of bushes where he had come out second best in an argument with a porcupine.

Living on the edge of the Drahner wild life sanctuary near Oxford, tells me that he frequently sees grouse in their dancing courtship, and that partridge, quail, fox and deer are numerous there.

Harry Arnew

A flock of quail that lives on both sides of the Dixie Highway about ten miles northeast of Pontiac has been watched by by for a dozen years or more. It has increased from four to over 40 during that time.

There's a reason for most nicknames, but I'm stumped in finding the answer for a good reader as to why a is so called. Can you explain?

When you see a prolific bunch of grass growing in a field, it is not always because some extra fertilizer may have fallen there. According to maker of lakes in the Pontiac area, it means a running vein of water is near the surface at that point. And Jim has built a few hundred acres of Oakland County lakes by spotting such prolific patches of grass.

"You've No Idea How Easy This Is On the Feet"

David Lawrence Says:

Veto of Summit Ike's Trump Card

LONDON—President Eisenhower has a trump card in world affairs today, and on how he plays it depends the future success of international negotiations during the "cold war."

LAWRENCE

Will the President really go to a "summit" conference on the basis of vague generalities, or will he insist on tangible progress at the Geneva conference?

To say that the four foreign ministers are not themselves principals and can decide nothing themselves is to emphasize the form at the expense of the substance. For what Western foreign minister has not faithfully reproduced at Geneva the views of his head of state?

There is no give-and-take at a "summit" meeting of a few days such as there can be at a foreign ministers' conference. If the current conference at Geneva gets nowhere, a similar failure awaits a "summit" meeting. For, after all, governments — not just individuals — are negotiating at Geneva.

Mr. Eisenhower has tried to please those elements in the public opinion of the world which say, "Let's get together and talk." Certainly there is no objection to discussion, but it can bring despair and even alarm as one side dictates to the other and gets away with it.

ARROGANT DICTATOR

Public psychology is quick to recognize timidity and defeatism. It also perceives soon the arrogance of the dictator. When the climax comes, public opinion will not applaud any chief of state who travels to a "summit" meeting only to be pushed around in a welter of worlds and propaganda utterances that do not advance by one iota the peace of the world.

The Soviet game is plain to see. Why should they make any concessions if the West is in the mood to overlook Communist aggressions? The threat by the Kremlin to drive the Western Allies out of Berlin has been only temporarily abandoned.

The Geneva conference is still under the duress of that threat no matter how the Western governments may try to convince their own peoples that a change has taken place. Nikita Khrushchev now is endeavoring to set up a hostile situation with potential threats against the free countries in southern Europe.

That's the true meaning of his trip to Albania, defiantly undertaken even while the Geneva conference was in session.

Mr. Eisenhower told his press conference on Wednesday that results thus far at Geneva do not justify a "summit" meeting. This came like a breath of fresh air to the diplomatic precincts of Europe. It signified resoluteness and determination.

But it was qualified, and the value of the utterance was lost somewhat by the President's further comment about the limitations of a foreign ministers' conference. Possibly he had in mind not the Western envoys but the plight of the rubber-stamp Gromyko, who evidently cannot speak for his principal.

WORTH SUMMIT

But is it worth going to a "summit" conference to recognize a dictator's power? Isn't it better to urge that the power to negotiate be delegated so that governments may deal with each other through chosen representatives?

What is the real use of diplomatic relations if ambassadors can no longer transact business for their own governments? Mrs. Eisenhower has the opportunity to put the accent on free government and freedom of intercourse rather than to accept the whims and wiles of a dictator as the only course open today.

Nor is the cause of peace advanced by readiness to accept not merely weeks of useless negotiations such as have been taking place at Geneva but years of frequent "summit" meetings at which the heads of free governments are to be given the run-around.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer.—Luke 21:14.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Boosts Diathermy Method to Treat Infected Tonsils

A Fort Wayne reader writes:

"Some years ago, after a long bout of one illness after another, I suddenly developed feverish, painful swelling of my finger joints. Family physician told me I had arthritis. After extensive examination he found I had pus-filled tonsils. He said my tonsils would have to be removed, but that I was not a good risk because my heart was damaged too.

"The doctor belittled diathermy treatment when I asked about using that method, and right there he ceased to be my family physician. I followed your oft stated advice and located a very capable physician, Dr. ——— who used electrocoagulation to destroy the infected portion of my tonsils.

"The treatment was entirely painless and not at all unpleasant. In fact my appointments were mostly at my lunch hour. I never missed one minute from work during my 'tonsil operation.'

"I have been a constant booster for this method ever since. My 'tonsil operation' has been much more effective than the tonsillectomy two other members of my family have had.

"My brother nearly bled to death the night after his tonsillectomy and he still regrets he didn't know about electro-diathermy. "Thank you again for your 'nagging' at us, and may you continue for a long, long time. (Signed)

Note that the Fort Wayne reader found the doctor who have the diathermy treatment without my help. I shall not give the doctor's name to anybody. Nor shall I name a doctor anywhere who treats infected tonsils with diathermy.

The reader does not indicate what ground the family doctor gave, if any, for belitting diathermy treatment. I'm afraid a good many doctors have little or no knowledge of the method, much less how to use it.

Diathermy (electro-coagulation, electro-desiccation) does not remove tonsils. It merely disinfects, pasteurizes or sterilizes the small infected area to which it is applied, without disturbing or damaging the surrounding normal tonsil tissue.

Diathermy treatment is not applicable to young children, but young children seldom have infected tonsils anyway. It is especially applicable for children over 10 years of age and for adults who are poor risks for surgical anethesia because of damaged heart, for instance. The Fort Wayne reader's family physician betrayed a sad lack of resourcefulness, to say the least, when he failed to recommend this ideal alternative for surgery.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'If Not the Bombs, What's to Blame?'

Previous writers to the Voice of the People have blamed the world bombs for these violent storms. We never had a rain and wind storm in Oakland County as bad as the one last Friday. If the bombs aren't responsible, what is?

'This Is What We Ask in Labor Bill'

When I was in St. Louis I read an editorial in the Post Dispatch about the labor bill which I cut and brought home. Here is the most important paragraph:

"The public interest does not demand a union-busting bill, but it does demand a measure which effectively guarantees union democracy, makes union leaders more directly answerable to the rank-and-file, and corrects the abuses so impressively brought out by the McClellan investigation."

That's what we want. We want something that recognizes the weaknesses that exist now and corrects them and protects the men against the abuses at the top and yet which doesn't make the labor bill a joke.

'Now You See Him for What He Is'

The big laugh of the Yankee flop is Casey Stengel. When he had a squad of 25 rip-roaring ball players they made him the Sage of the Game. Now that they've all fallen apart at the same time, Ole Casey is becoming the third rate manager he has always been.

Buzzard

Seconds the Motion Made by Mildred

A while back Mildred wrote the Voice of the People and told Dykes to put Groth in Kuenn's place and Kuenn on first base. This would put Groth on the team with a batting average of more than .400 in place of Harris, who hits about .150.

Mildred said she could play first base better than Harris and if they gave her a week's batting practice she was sure she could hit .200 which is better than Harris.

Mildred, we'll put you on first base right now. No one can look as horrible at the plate as Harris. He is out of his season long slump now and is way up to .183 and what kills me is why Dykes has him bat fifth with all those men on bases. He should bat ninth and if they could skip him ever other time around, that would help, too. Like Mildred, this advice to Dykes is free, and Mister Dykes, when it comes to Harris, you really need advice.

'Let's Have Party for the Taxpayers'

Let's have a new political party. We now have one that bows before the National Chamber of Commerce and the other kow tows to the racketeer labor union leaders. Let's have a party that's for the people, the taxpayers, the regular guys. It might win its first election. McNamara and Hart don't dare vote until they get the word from Reuther and Broomfield waits for the Chamber. Let's have Senators, and Congressmen that vote for the taxpayers.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Freud Is Often Unfairly Criticized

Anita wonders about Dr. Freud's emphasis on the sex symbolism occurring in our dreams. Dr. Freud has often been unfairly criticized, but his basic principles are pretty sound, at least as regards the dreams of unwed men and women, like the coed mentioned below. Do you think married women or single women would be most likely to experience the South Sea Island dream described today?

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane," she began, "I am interested in psychology and philosophy.

"But I wonder about Dr. Freud's theories of dreams. Doesn't he think all dreams have some hidden sexual meaning?

DR. FREUD'S THEORY

Dr. Freud was a very astute physician who has often been unduly criticized by people who never read his writings completely.

"A little knowledge," runs an old adage, "is a dangerous thing."

And people who jump all over Dr. Freud are usually those who have only a little knowledge (often no first-hand reading at all) of his interesting theories.

"Dr. Freud," such people pontificate, "believes everything revolves around sex."

But that is not true. Dr. Freud freely admitted that the self-preservation instinct was the strongest of all. It includes demands for food, oxygen, water, etc.

But Dr. Freud said in our modern society, this basic instinct does not cause many divorces or nervous breakdowns or frustration of personality.

The basic drive or instinct that upsets most people, reasoned Dr. Freud, is the erotic (sexual).

But it is often taboo and so many prudish notions have evolved around it, that many people try to evade consciously facing the facts. So they gloss over the "unspeakable" with symbols.

Euphemisms are a similar form of sugar-coating bitter things. Thus, we find life insurance salesmen studiously avoiding the words, "die" or "death."

Instead, they talk about our "joining our forebears" or "Going west" or "Passing to our reward," etc.

DREAM SYMBOLISM

Dr. Freud argued that our thinking tends to focus on a basic hunger or strong unsatisfied craving. And this is true in our dreams.

If we have thus gone without food for 24 to 48 hours, then wouldn't we be inclined to dream of Thanksgiving banquets?

If lost on a desert and without water, don't the travelers dream of cool springs and see mirages of lakes?

But when we go to sleep starved in the erotic realm and craving affection, we are likely to dream of that which will satisfy our basic craving.

However, if we have been morally trained and even censor our waking vocabulary to avoid lustful ideas, then Dr. Freud thinks we tend to use camouflage in our dreams to keep from shocking our past moral habits.

A normal young woman will often dream about being on a beach somewhere in the South

Seas. Savages spring from the bushes and pursue her.

They hurl long spears at her. Even if one does strike her, she finds it doesn't kill her or even hurt.

Such symbolism, says Dr. Freud, is self-evident. She has camouflaged a basic dream which her moral training will not permit her to consider in its stark aspects.

Sealed objects thus are Freudian symbols of virginity or the female sex, while spears, daggers, umbrellas, etc., are male camouflage items.

Obviously, many dreams rise from cold feet or indigestion or a fly buzzing on one's nose. But Freud's theory is pretty sound for the recurring dreams of unwed persons.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 25c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Tea-Sick Granddad Flies Africa-California Nonstop

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The flying granddad, Max Conrad, says he learned on his record nonstop flight from Africa to California that:

"Mint tea makes me ill."

A tired but happy Conrad said it with a grin Thursday after the 56 hour 38 minute, 7,638-mile hop from Casablanca, Morocco.

But it was no joke, he admitted, when he took a swig of the tea and became nauseated over a lonely expanse of ocean near Cuba.

"I didn't take any food — only a thermos of coffee and tea," said Conrad, who makes his living delivering airplanes around the world. "The Arabs put mint in the tea and it became rancid. Boy, I was sick."

But Conrad, 56, recovered and piloted the single engine light plane into Los Angeles, via Corpus Christi and El Paso, Tex., and Phoenix, Ariz.

"I had 18 gallons of gas left and I could have made it to San Francisco,' he said. "But I heard everyone was waiting for me in L.A., so I came on in."

The first thing Conrad did after taxiing his little plane across the expanse of runway was ask for a drink of water. "Oh, boy, this is good," he said, taking a long gulp.

Then he ducked into a telephone booth and broke the news of his arrival to his daughter, Molly, 21, at the family home in San Francisco. He also has six other daughters, three sons and two grandchildren.

"Hello, Molly," he said quietly into the phone. "I'm fine. No, not tired. Just a little thirsty. No, I haven't a beard. I shaved this morning in the plane."

Conrad, who made the flight as a promotion stunt for the plane's manufacturer, said the most dangerous moment was takeoff.

"The plane was loaded with 500 gallons of gas," he said. "I got it off after 4,500 feet of runway, and still had about 1,000 feet to spare." A normally loaded plane of this type—the Piper Comanche—takes less than 1,000 feet to take off.)

To conserve gas, Conrad throttled back from a cruising 138 m.p.h. to 100 as the gas load lightened. He flew "right on the deck" — under 1,000 feet — and hit good weather all the way.

He had originally set El Paso for his goal. But he continued on, far exceeding the 6,979-mile old record that W. L. (Pat) Boling set from Manila to Oregon in 1957.

Conrad was a band leader before he learned to fly at Denver in 1927. He is also a song writer and frequently composes while ferrying planes about the world.

"But I didn't compose any song on this flight. I usually whistle out the tune, but this time that darn tea left me too thirsty to pucker."

Misguided Garden Calls

MAYWOOD, N.J. (AP) — Roses are red, violets are blue. But police here have had enough of flowers, thank you.

A week ago the local weekly newspaper advertised for persons with garden troubles to call the county agriculture extension service. But the ad carried the police phone number by mistake. About 150 persons called headquarters with horticultural complaints.

The police hope a correction in the paper will get them off the hook.

5th Amendment No Cloak for Strip-Teasers

CHICAGO (AP) — Three striptease dancers have been told they can't cloak themselves with the fifth amendment.

They were among a group of nearly 100 men and women rounded up last week in mass raids on Calumet City, a suburb noted for its night life.

Thursday when they were taken before a U.S. grand jury investigating vice, narcotics and other violations, they pleaded the fifth amendment.

Judge William J. Campbell of U.S. District Court told them to go back to the jury chamber and answer all questions because the fifth amendment does not protect them from responding.

The questions asked by the jury, the judge declared, would not in any way subject them to prosecution and they could not incriminate themselves.

May Never Find Out Why Satellite Fell

VANDERBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Scientists may never learn what caused Discoverer III's failure to orbit.

But the rocket-satellite apparently was burned up when it reentered the atmosphere and the four mice aboard were cremated, the Air Force said Thursday.

The mice, carried in a capsule, were to have been the first creatures retrieved alive from orbit. The 78-foot projectile was launched Wednesday.

The Air Force said the missile, because of an unknown malfunction, re-entered the atmosphere several thousand miles from this West Coast missile base.

MRS. EARL K. REID

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Earl K. Reid, 67, a former Pontiac resident. She died Monday in Grand Haven where she made her home.

Surviving besides her husband are seven daughters, Mrs. Hazel Smith of Milwaukee, Wis., Mrs. Ada Barnes of Charlevoix, Mrs. Nina Cook of Bay City, Mrs. Alice Blain of Port Huron, Mrs. Florence Dashner of Grand Haven, Mrs. Jessie Hallett of Lake Orion, and Miss Effie Kane of Port Huron; five sons, Howard Kane of Traverse City, Robert Kane Jr., of Seattle, Wash., Alvin Kane of Charlevoix, and Millard and Willard Kane, both of Lake Orion.

Also surviving are 30 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and eight brothers.

Service and burial were yesterday at the Kammeraad Chapel in Grand Haven.

MRS. CLARENCE T. STARKER

Mrs. Clarence T. (Helen B.) Starker, a former nurse at Pontiac General Hospital, died at her home, 80 E. Iroquois Rd. yesterday morning after an illness of several years. She was 75.

Mrs. Stugker had served as a nurse at Harper Hospital in Detroit where she received her training and was one of the first nurses at the old City Hospital serving under the first superintendent, Margaret Meigs.

During World War II, she was a Gray Lady at Pontiac General Hospital.

Mrs. Starker was a member of All Saints Episcopal Church and church guild No. 7.

Surviving is her husband, Dr. Clarence T. Starker who retired a few years ago as an active eye, ear, nose and throat specialist.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Monday at Sparks-Griffin Chapel with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

MRS. FRANK BETZLER

AUBURN HEIGHTS — Service for Mrs. Frank (Annie C.) Betzler, 84, a longtime resident of Auburn Heights, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Moore Chapel of the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Mrs. Betzler died Wednesday in a local convalescent home after several months' illness.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. C. A. Waters and Mrs. Emil Parent, both of Auburn Heights, and Mrs. Kurt Kretzing of Hazel Park; a son, Frank of Buburn Heights; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

MRS. CLARE WOLFE

ORTONVILLE — Service for Mrs. Clare (Leah V.) Wolfe, 69, of 586 Mill St., will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at the Ortonville Methodist Church under the direction of the C. F. Sherman Funeral Home. Burial will follow in the Ortonville Cemetery.

Mrs. Wolfe died yesterday in Ford Hospital, Detroit, after an illness of several months. She was village librarian for 17 years and a member of the Women's Club.

Surviving are a son, the Rev. Millard Wolfe of Lancaster, Calif.; a brother, Irving Thom of Columbiaville, and two grandchildren.

Noted Band Leader, Composer Grier Dies

Grier, in collaboration with Pinky Tomlin, wrote "Object of My Affection" and "What's the Reason I'm Not Pleasin' You."

During the peak of his career he led orchestras in hotels across the nation, after a start at the Cocoanut Grove in Los Angeles.

During World War II he led the 11th Naval Dist. Coast Guard band. He also scored music for films, and was active as an arranger and composer. His instruments were the clarinet, violin and saxophone.

During the last two years he had been selling real estate here. He became ill two months ago and was taken to a hospital a week ago.

Grier is survived by his widow, Marjorie, his second wife; a daughter, Marjorie Viers of Riverside, Calif.; his stepmother, Margaret Keehart of Huntington Park, Calif.; and a brother, Arthur W., of Van Nuys, Calif.

Grier was born in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Deaths Elsewhere

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Charles Vidor, 59, one of Hollywood's leading film directors for 30 years, died Thursday of a heart attack. Vidor was in Vienna to direct a film based on the life of Franz Liszt. He was born in Budapest, Hungary.

State Man Approved as Assistant to Strauss

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Frederick Henry Mueller of Michigan as undersecretary of commerce.

Mueller's appointment was confirmed yesterday. He will serve as an aide to Lewis L. Strauss, whose nomination as secretary of commerce is the subject of bitter controversy in the Senate.

Treasurer Chooses 27-Year-Old Aide

LANSING (AP)—A 27-year old insurance company employe will enter Michigan's cash crisis picture June 15 as deputy state treasurer.

Treasurer Sanford A. Brown yesterday announced appointment of Thomas J. Cleary of Escanaba as his top assistant. He replaces Charles N. Lentz who resigned to become vice president of an Albion bank.

Cleary, active on the Delta County Democratic committee, was assistant manager of the Upper Peninsula State Fair from 1954 to 1958. Since the first of the year he has been employed in Escanaba by the Prudential Life Insurance Co.

Cleary is a graduate of Marquette University and an Air Force veteran. He is married and the father of two sons.

MSU Will Graduate 2,200 on Sunday

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State University will hold its 99th commencement Sunday afternoon in Spartan Stadium with Canadian Prime Minister John Diefenbaker as featured speaker.

MSU President John A. Hannah will confer degrees on an estimated 2,200 graduates including 1,800 seniors and 400 candidates for advanced degrees.

Honorary doctor of laws degrees will be awarded to Diefenbaker, Maj. Gen. James E. Briggs and Frederick H. Mueller.

Briggs is superintendent of the U.S. Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo. Mueller is U.S. undersecretary of commerce and a Grand Rapids industrialist who served 12 years on the MSU governing board.

Female Hormone Credited as Aid to Heart Victims

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI)—Experiments indicate men with heart attacks live longer if they are given tiny doses of the female hormone estrogen, it was reported today.

Dr. Oliver Kuzma, of the University of Southern California at Los Angeles, told the annual meeting of the American Thereapeutic Society about the tests.

He said 339 men were given small daily doses of the female chemical and 220 men were not given the hormone.

The experiments showed 4.4 per cent of those given estrogen died within three years after their heart attacks and 12.3 per cent of those not given the chemical died within a similar period.

Estrogen is made primarily by the female sex glands but is also produced in very tiny amounts by the adrenal glands of both sexes.

Since the arteries of women are better preserved than men and women are much less subject to heart attacks, medical science has long suspected that estrogen was responsible for the greater longevity of the female.

Crystal Ball Goofed

WARWICK, R.I. (AP)—Fortune teller Madam Tina told police it was one thing she didn't foresee. Someone stole her crystal ball from an amusement park Wednesday night.

Solon Asks Debt Drop

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass) offered today a bill to require a year-by-year reduction of the national debt. The measure would lower the debt ceiling by 2 per cent of the previous year's federal revenues the first year, 3 per cent the second year, and 5 per cent in fiscal 1963.

Boil That Water

LANSING (AP)—The State Health Department has warned vacationers that lake, stream and spring water shouldn't be used without being boiled or treated. The department says contaminated water can spread typhoid fever, tularemia and infectious hepatitis.

New Civic Unit to Step Up Role

Improvement Committee Will Actively Support Pontiac's Needs

The new Civic Improvement Advisory Committee promises to become an active force in Pontiac.

John A. Riley, appointed chairman of the 70-member citizens' group, outlined the group's purpose at the initial committee meeting in City Hall last night.

"I believe it is this committee's duty to become conversant with the civic needs in Pontiac, district by district, and call them to the attention of the City Commission," said Riley, assistant advertising manager of The Pontiac Press and a former president of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce.

"It should be our purpose to undertake to steer the Commission, if we feel the demands of the people aren't being met.

"We should be aware of the improvements which the Commission is contemplating and stand ready to offer our opinions of the plans.

"We should not be a one-project committee, but should tackle all the civic needs in Pontiac."

Called together by the City Commission after the defeat of the sewage treatment plant bond issue this spring, the Committee should become involved in this and other issues, Commissioners have agreed.

The committee's first job is to help sell Pontiac on the city's plans for more sewage treatment plant facilities.

"If you can help us win community support and cooperation to help us pass the bond issue, the whole city will be everlastingly grateful to you," City Manager Walter K. Willman told committee members.

"A committee of this size will have a big influence on a city at large," said Commissioner John A. Dugan, who originated the committee plan.

"I for one plan to call on you whenever important issues arise."

The Commission formed the committee as a way to form closer relations between the voting public and city government. The seven Commissioners appointed 10 members to the committee from each of the seven voting districts.

Blabber Battle Erupts in Meeting of Detroit Council

DETROIT (AP)— The war between the sexes broke out in Detroit's Common Council last night, in a dispute over sound trucks.

Councilman William (Billy) Rogell, former Detroit Tiger, questioned whether the trucks should be permitted. Councilwoman Mrs. Blanche Parent Wise questioned his question.

Rogell retorted: "If you'd keep your mouth shut, we could get something done around here."

Mrs. Wise indignantly said his remarks were ungentlemanly and out of order.

"Well, your a pretty good blabber," said Rogell.

"So are you!" said Mrs. Wise.

Somoza Claims Rebels Beaten

Says Army Controlling Situation; Praises OAS Decision to Act

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — President Luis Somoza claimed Thursday night that the threat to his regime from invading rebels and a general strike is "about over."

The 37-year-old dictator said again that his 2,000-man army has the situation under control.

He told a news conference for foreign correspondents that the decision of the Organization of American States (OAS) to investigate the situation in Nicaragua guarantees peace.

Somoza had appealed to the OAS for hemispheric aid, but the organization's council voted 17-2 in Washington yesterday to empower a committee only to collect information. Council members stressed that they did not want to intervene if the rebellion is a purely internal affair, as Cuba's representative claimed.

"Crazy adventurers" was Somoza's term for the two planeloads of Nicaraguan exiles and others who landed from Costa Rica last weekend in an attempt to launch an uprising against his regime. He said the rebels "are running so fast we cannot catch them."

He placed the strength of the invading force at 80 men and said three had been killed and three captured. Casualties among the National Guard—the country's defense force—were put at three dead. He said 125 persons were under arrest for plotting against the government.

(In a telephone interview with The Associated Press in New York, Somoza said four invaders had been killed and four captured. He predicted the last remnants of the rebels would be wiped out "within a week." Last Sunday night he said they would be annihilated in two days.)

Lansing Voters Reject School Millage Increase

LANSING (AP)—A proposal for a five mill tax in rcaeoesfr ..... five mill tax increase for school construciton and operations was rejected here yesterday by a 3-1 margin.

The special school election was called by the Lansing Board of Education which asked that the proposed tax increase continue for five years.

It was the first time in 15 years that the Board's request for a special millage hike was turned down.

Look At These Big, Built-In G-E "Bonus Values"

NO LINT-FUZZ WASHING. This famous time-proven G-E Filter-Flo system cleans and recleans water constantly. Lint is caught in the filter—not on your clothes. Filter is right in view—easy to remove, easy to clean . . . no jamming or clogging. A handy detergent dispenser, too.

TWO WASH SPEEDS, TWO SPIN SPEEDS to suit every type of fabric! Normal wash action and Normal spin speed for regular family wash—particularly soiled play clothes. Slow wash action and Slow spin speeds for gentle "hand-washing" care that delicate fabrics need—sheer slips, fine-knit baby blankets, dainty party dresses.

PLUS . . . Big Family-Size Capacity—over 50% more clothes capacity than most other washers. • Water-Saver Control—for small loads. Saves over 20 gallons of water during complete washing cycle—at a touch of water-saver selector! • Suds-Return System (optional, at slightly extra cost) lets you re-use sudsy water for a second load of clothes. • Porcelainized cover, lid, washbasket and tub for long-life, extra protection against rust and acids. • Famous G-E Mix-or-Match Colors—as fresh as Spring—in petal pink, turquoise green, canary yellow, or woodtone brown. Or White. • Illuminated Controls light up handsome control panel—make every control so easy to see—even in a dark room.

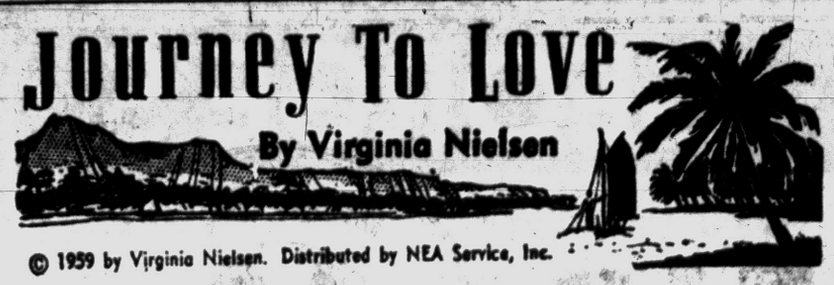
Journey To Love



By Virginia Nielsen

© 1959 by Virginia Nielsen. Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Kathie has already met a number of people before the sailing of a ship which she is taking to Hawaii. When she mentions the deed to Hawaiian land, left to her by an uncle, a silence settles over the group.

CHAPTER VIII

The boat whistle sounded, a chilling sound, and it was a signal for the resumption of shrill chatter.

'And all around fluttered cries of "Aloha, darling! — Aloha! — Come back soon! Happy sailing!" as kisses were generously, happily, given out.

Kathie was momentarily forgotten, until Alex Norris said to her, "Come on, let's go up on deck."

As they edged out the door, Sam caught sight of them. "Kathie"! he shouted, above the clatter. "Don't go away in such bad company! Don't forget she's my discovery, Alex."

"The early bird, you know, Sam," Alex said, laughing. It was all very friendly Alex winked at Leilani Powers across the room Kathie noticed it and filed the information away for future reference. But in spite of the friendly banter, Kathie had an odd idea that Sam and Alex really didn't like each other very well.

Alex guided her to the rail, and they stood there side by side.

"Nobody to see you off?" Alex inquired casually.

"No tears now?" he observed, looking at her quizzically.

'ALL ASHORE'

The boat whistle sounded again, and the cry echoed along the deck. "All visitors ashore!" The people steamed down the gangplank.

Finally the last visitor was ashore, and the gangplank was cast off. Leilani and her mother joined them at the rail. Infected with their excitement, Kathie waved and laughed and shouted with them at the little group of people standing on shore as the Lurline backed out of the dock and the faces gradually dimmed.

Bea turned to Kathie. "So nice meeting you, my dear. We'll come in for a nice chat after a bit, shall we?"

"Please do," Kathie said, taken aback.

Already they were out in the bay, and the pier had become just one of a gray line of piers. Behind them the Oakland Bay Bridge etched its massive tracery against the sky, and ahead of them the Golden Gate Bridge was a red-gold arch.

The hills of San Francisco shrank, and the windows turned toward the late sun became a myriad of golden pinpoints of fire.

"Wonderful, isn't it?" Sam said beside her, his voice thrillingly deep, his appreciative eyes on Kathie's enrapt face rather than on the skyline of the city.

"It's the most wonderful thing I've ever seen!" Kathie cried.

'ONE THING BETTER'

Sam laughed. "You're like a greedy child," he chided her.

"Let's enjoy this now. And there are five wonderful days between us and Diamond Head. We're going to have a lot of fun, Kathie, you and I."

"There's Alex!" Kathie cried suddenly.

Sam frowned a little, and she knew he was trying to hide displeasure. "What of it?" he asked lightly.

"But I thought he got off the ship. Wasn't he a visitor?"

"Oh, no. He lives in Honolulu." The frown was still marring his handsome face. "I think I ought to warn you, Kathie."

She looked at him. "About Alex?" she asked incredulously.

"Oh, don't get me wrong! He's a good egg. But I wouldn't talk to him too much—about your business affairs or anything you wouldn't want spread around."

NO SECRETS

"But I don't have any secrets," Kathie protested. She felt on the defensive. She had liked Alex so much.

"I'm sure your life's an open book," Sam told her. He lifted his hand and gently touched her cheek. She drew back, stirred and a little frightened.

"But Alex is a newspaperman. He has a perfect talent for getting everything you know out of you in the most painless way, hasn't he? But please forget it! I didn't mean to disturb you, Kathie. Where are you sitting for dinner? Do you know?"

She shook her head, a little unhappy still.

"Don't look so serious!" he chided, laughing. "I'm probably talking out of turn, but I couldn't help overhear a few words downstairs when Alex was questioning you."

NOTHING BEHIND IT

"I can't believe there was anything behind the questioning," she said. A cold wind had blown over her heart.

He did not comment on her remark.

"Would you mind if I arranged for us to sit together? I think I can."

Kathie said, "Shall we talk about that later?"

"Of course." But he stood in her way. "Kathie, I haven't made you angry, have I? Just tell me to mind my own business, why don't you?"

Kathie looked up at him. She thought his eyes were exciting—not a solid dull brown like Buck's, but alive and sparkling with a thousand little golden lights. They were warm with admiration and an urgent personal message that made her catch her breath.

"I—don't think I want to," she said.

Latin American Youths Play Big Role in Politics

By The Associated Press

Current upheavals in Latin America emphasize the dynamic role of students in Latin political life. University students traditionally have been in the forefront of the struggle for freedom.

Students have rioted in Ecuador during the past few days. Last week student riots in Paraguay forced the country's dictator-president, Gen. Alfredo Storessner, to put his country back under a state of seige. University classes at the National University in Paraguay have been suspended until June 11.

Student agitation for Castro was so strong at Havana University that President Fulgencio Batista's government closed it for more than a year. When Castro's government reopened it, student committees were assigned the task of weeding out Batista sympathizers, although some critics say they may be overzealous.

Students were the first to combat Venezuela's Marcos Perez Jimenez openly, three months before his dictatorship collapsed in 1958.

Students are quick to protest what they feel are their countries' grievances, and they often resort to demonstrations that have a way of erupting into violence.

Latin - American Communists have made a strong bid for student support. In some countries students are the Communists' greatest source of numerical strength.

The Communist influence has been blamed for many student disorders. That may be part of the explanation, but not all of it.

Many Latin students seem to feel duty-bound to fight tyranny and oppressions as they see it. They will be in the vanguard of Latin America's future political development.

Most students seem convinced that they will thrive best in freedom and democracy. They reject dictatorships of both the left and right. But the Communists are in there pitching hard.

Mosquitoes Add to Woes of Harried 59ers

TALKEETNA, Alaska (AP)—Mosquitoes, the lack of equipment and the cost of living are adding to the woes of Michigan's 59ers.

Edward Kuznicki, one of the group homesteading in the Susitna Valley across the river from this community, said when the mosquitoes go, there'll be flies to take their place.

"But these things are minor problems," he said. "The big grief is lack of proper equipment."

"Hand-powered saws and axes will not do the job, and a bulldozer is a prime necessity to get out stumps," he said.

Kuznicki warned other groups contemplating a move to Alaska against poor equipment and little money. He said finding work is very difficult and the cost of living in Alaska is more than anyone expected.

"It can be extremely expensive to run out of things like flour," he said. "A loaf of bread here costs 50 cents. And the homesteaders have to pay $5 for a roundtrip, 10-minute ride in a profiteering flat boat with outboard motor to get across the Susitna River to buy that loaf of bread."

Most of the 59ers have been doing without bread and potatoes, he said, "but it is beautiful up here, fascinating and beautiful."

Close Vote Expected

Senate Ready for Fight on Nomination of Strauss

The committee previously had divided 9-8 in recommending confirmation of Strauss, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission. He has been serving since last November under a recess appointment.

Strauss' nomination, submitted to the Senate Jan. 17, has stirred up the hottest fight of any appointment made by President Eisenhower. The Senate is not expected to reach a vote on it before the week after next.

Senators generally have been predicting a close vote, with many agreeing a margin of one or two votes either way will decide the issue.

If all the 98 senators vote, Strauss would need 49 or 50 to win. Vice President Richard M. Nixon could break a deadlock in Strauss' favor if a 49-49 tie should develop.

Sen. William Langer (R-ND) has said he will not vote for Strauss. Langer is the only Senate Republican to announce such a stand. If all the other 33 Republican senators vote for Strauss, he still would have to get at least nine Democratic votes in addition to the seven already announced in his favor.

Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma Thursday became the seventh Democrat to announce support of the nominee. The other six are Sens. John O. Pastore (RI), Frank J. Lausche (Ohio), Dennis Chavez (NM), Strom Thurmond (SC), and Harry F. Byrd and A. Willis Robertson, both of Virginia.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas told newsmen he probably will announce his stand at about the time the Senate reaches a vote. Asked if he thought Strauss will win, Johnson said "I'll let the Senate decide on that."

Unmanned Landing of Bomber Probed

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—U.S. Air Force experts drove through the heat of the Libyan desert today on their way to an American Liberator bomber that 16 years ago made an amazing unmanned landing.

The big World War II plane lies in the desert about 380 miles south of Bengasi. A team of exploring geologists found it recently. There was no trace of the crew.

An Air Force spokesman said today it seemed likely the crew had bailed out after a bombing raid on Napleslin 1943, and that the plane landed on its own after its fuel ran out.

"The water jugs were still full," he said. "If they had tried to make it across the desert, they certainly would have taken all the water they could."

The spokesman said efforts are being made in Washington to identify the crew.

Jet Age Robin Delays Flight for 33 Minutes

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A robin which built its nest inside the engine cowling of an American Airlines Convair almost got a free ride to Houston, Tex., and delayed the flight 33 minutes.

Capt. N. E. Lundeen, the pilot, spotted the robin flying from the heat door of an engine cowling while preparing to take off from Greater Pittsburgh Airport Thursday.

Guard Fight Promoter After Vicious Beating

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A police guard remained at fight promoter Jackie Leonard's door today as federal, state and local officials sought the men who viciously beat him.

Chief of Police William H. Parker said the attack on Leonard Wednesday night in his garage was a case of mob vengeance. Parker said he believed the slugging was ordered for Leonard even before he testified that underworld attempts had been made to muscle in on the boxing game in Los Angeles.

Leonard was a key witness at a State Athletic Commission hearing in which he told how underworld characters demanded they be cut in on one half of the managerial contract of Don Jordan, welterweight boxing champion. He told of receiving threats against his life when the demand was spurned.

He said the U.S. attorney would consider all possible violations of federal statutes and disclosed the FBI already was at work. He also said the matter would be given a county grand jury next Tuesday.

2 Income Tax Provisions Give Parents a Break

WASHINGTON (AP) — The income tax men had a pleasant reminder today for parents of students who will be working on summer jobs.

The Internal Revenue Service said parents may claim a working child as an exemption on their federal income tax returns next year although the child earns more than $600. The only requirement is that the parents provide more than half of the child's support.

The special rule applies to children who still will be under 19 at the end of the year and to children who are full-time students —regardless of age.

The working children are entitled to $600 personal exemptions and may be entitled to a refund or part or all of the federal income tax withheld from their wages.

The U.S. Public Health Service reports that about 47 million Americans suffered injuries that required medical attention or caused them to restrict their usual activities for at least a day in 1958.

Lady Godiva's famous ride in the 11th Century was to persuade her husband, the Earl of Mercia, to rescind a tax he had imposed on the people under his rule. He rescinded the tax.

Father of Murdered Tot Makes Plea for Killer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A father, sick with grief over the senseless slaying of his 3-year-old daughter, today wrote an open letter to the people of Philadelphia offering to help the 15-year-old honor student who confessed the slaying.

Anatol Holt, 31, mathematics instructor at the University of Pennsylvania, expressed thoughts of his tortured mind in a copyrighted article in the Philadelphia Bulletin.

"Dear people of Philadelphia," Holt wrote, "I write to you this morning at the rise of dawn, still in the midst of a tormented wake, the most terrible grief which has ever seared my soul.

"Yesterday afternoon I lost the most precious thing that life ever gave to me—a 3½ year old girl child. She was murdered at three in the afternoon, in the basement of a house only a few doors away from ours.

"Had I caught the boy in the act, I would have wished to kill him. Now that there is no undoing of what is done, I only wish to help him. Let no feeling of cave-man vengeance influence us. Let us rather help him who did so inhuman a thing."

Holt, in his 1,300 word letter, said his letter was motivated by "an irrepressible wish to contribute my share of understanding to what has taken place in the hope of thus slightly increasing our understanding of one another."

The letter was written but a matter of hours after the girl, Becky Holt, was found stuffed in a toy closet in the basement of the home of her teenaged slayer. The boy, Edward Cooney Jr., admitted the crime after confessing to his priest. He led authorities to the closet.

"I don't know why I did it. I don't know, why," Cooney cried.

"You will understand," the professor wrote, "that I am not lecturing to you for the pure joy of sounding wise. I am hurt to the depths of my being and I cry out to you to take better care of your children."

He wrote further: "The point I am arguing goes, of course, well beyond the question of children's education."

The first most important facts to which to draw attention are the facts about the boy who did the deed, and his family.

So far as one could tell, the father was exemplary. In public appearance they have always been considerate and kind; their house has always seemed very well-managed. People and property, both, always gave the appearance of great tidiness.

The daughter of the house—who is now studying nursing in Washington, D.C.—used to baby sit for us last year, and always conformed to the highest standards of courtesy and efficiency.

The boy himself has always given an excellent formal account of himself—honor student, gentle in manner, handsome, and all the rest.

How, then, you will exclaim in horror, can all this good come to such an ill result?

I would plead that it comes from a profound lack of comprehension and admission of the full range of feeling and emotion which is our common human heritage, and which, for convenience's sake, we are so fond of denying.

It is very hard to admit, but there simply are no villains on whom to blame it all. There are simply lots of human beings, all with a similar set of fundamental drives, all needing control and love in order to function in society.

Beware, citizens. The human animal cannot be cheated forever. It will have love, or kill.

You will understand that I am not lecturing to you for the pure joy of sounding wise. I am hurt to the depths of my being and I cry out to you to take better care of your children.

Let not feelings of cave-man vengeance influence us. Let us rather help him who did so human a thing.

Signed; A Sick Father.

Ike Names Wakelin for Navy Aide Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today nominated James Henry Wakelin Jr., Lawrenceville, N. J., scientist and research expert, to become an assistant secretary of the Navy.

Wakelin, 48, a Republican, would succeed Fred A. Bantz whose elevation to the post of under secretary of the Navy was confirmed by the Senate yesterday.

Since 1954, Wakelin has headed his own research consultants firm at Princeton, N. J. He previously was director of the Textile Research Institute at Princeton.

A native of Holyoke, Mass., Wakelin served as a lieutenant commander in the Navy in World War II. Prior to the war, he had been director of a research group on synthetic rubber for the B. F. Goodrich Co., Akron, Ohio.

After the war, he joined the staff of Engineering Research Associates, Arlington, Va., and became its director of research.

Radar May Trap Mayor

KNOXVILLE, Tenn (UPI)—Mayor John Duncan is risking "an early political death" by being tough on speeders, said former Mayor Cas Walker. Duncan has ordered full use of radar to catch speeders. Walker said he had restricted use of radar because "it is catching some of our best citizens."

Recreation Department to Offer Classes

Swimming at PNH This Summer

For the first time, the Department of Parks and Recreation will offer swimming sessions to the public, children and adults, this summer.

Utilizing the beautiful Pontiac Northern High School swimming pool, through the cooperation of the Pontiac Board of Education, eight-week swimming sessions, including instruction, will begin June 22.

Leonard T. Buzz, city recreation supervisor, said that classes will be able to accommodate about 35 persons and open sessions up to 75 or 100.

The Department of Parks and Recreation will use the Pontiac Northern staff to guide the swimming program, Buzz said, with Eldon Johnson, athletic director, in charge.

Classes will be under the supervision of Richard March and Madeline McConnell, Pontiac Northern swimming instructors.

There will be beginning and advanced swimming courses for boys and girls in two age brackets, 12 years and younger and 13-18.

DIVING CLASSES

Marsh will teach a special course in competitive diving and swimming that may lead to a Pontiac team competing in Michigan Recreation Assn. tourneys, Buzz said.

A special feature will be a class in synchronized swimming and water ballet, taught by Miss McConnell, Buzz said.

There will be open swimming periods during the day and night time for adults, families, teenagers and a special Friday night session for blind persons.

Most of the swimming periods will be two hour sessions from 9 a.m. Monday through Friday, with family swimming scheduled from 1-5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

There will be fees to help cover the high costs of operating such a program, said Buzz. Fees for the classes will be $3, while open swimming will be 10 cents for children under 16 daytimes during the week and 25 cents for adults. Evenings and weekends the rate will climb to 15 cents and 35 cents.

Classes will be limited to registrants, with registrations being accepted at City Hall.

BEGINERS CLASSES

The weekday class schedule calls for beginning swimming for boys and girls 12 years old or younger at 9 a.m. Monday and Thursday.

Beginning classes for boys and girls 13-18 will be at 10:30 a.m. Monday and Thursday.

Advance classes for boys and girls 12 years old or younger will be at 9 a.m. Tuesday and Friday.

Junior life saving classes will begin at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday and Friday.

Instruction for women will begin at 9 a.m. Wednesday and for the men at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday. There will be open swimming for adults during each period.

The synchronized swimming-water ballet is scheduled for 1 p.m. Tuesday and the competitive swimming-diving class 1 p.m. Thursday.

Otherwise, afternoon sessions from 1-5 p.m. will be open to everyone, with the exception of Tuesday afternoons from 3 p.m., which is to be devoted to staff meetings.

Nights, swimming is scheduled from 7:30-9:30 p.m. Monday will be for adults only, Tuesday for families, Wednesday for those 15 to 21, Thursday for families and Friday for blind swimmers.

Cheboygan Link Seems Unlikely

Finishing Inland Route Thought Too Costly but Harbor Project Possible

LANSING (UPI) — Hopes are dim that federal funds will be provided for the final link of the Cheboygan inland route, State Waterways Commission Director Keith Wilson said today.

But Wilson said prospects were good for getting funds for a harbor to provide refuge for boaters who "go around the horn" at the Mackinac Straits.

The Army Corps of Engineers said it would hold a hearing sometime in July on the Commission's request for funds to finish the last three-quarters of a mile of the 42-mile inland route. The date and place have not been set.

Boaters would be able to cut across the northern tip of the Lower Peninsula if a means could be devised for getting past two highway bridges and a railroad bridge near Conway, which is just north of Petoskey.

"The Corps of Engineers will determine if the cost of improvement is exceeded by the benefits to navigation," Wilson said.

Although there are "enormous" safety benefits, Wilson said he was "afraid there will not be sufficient justification at this time" to build locks or other devices to get past the structures and compensate for a drop in water level.

The Commission's primary interest now is to get a harbor or refuge at Cross Village, north of Harbor Springs, Wilson said.

"Right now there's a 60-mile gap without harbors on Lake Michigan from the Straits," Wilson said. "Wind and current conditions make the Straits area dangerous at times for small craft. It's a long haul from the Straits to harbors at Harbor Springs, Petoskey and Charlevoix."

Soviet Graduates Dislike Provinces

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet colleges and universities are sending 340,000 graduates out into the world this year and some of them don't want to go too far from the old alma mater.

Pravda, the Communist party newspaper, protested today that some of the graduates are grumbling about taking jobs in the provinces, where life is tougher.

Students get salaries while attending Soviet institutions of higher learning, and are expected to work for several years wherever the government assigns them after graduation.

The Rangers Write a Story of Courage on Normandy

(Ranger units hit the beach in Normandy at H-Hour on D-Day, 15 years ago tomorrow. G. K. Hodenfield, now the AP's education writer, recalls the incredible feats of four Ranger companies in this last of four articles on D-Day.)

By G. K. HODENFIELD

The story of four companies of the U. S. 2nd Ranger Battalion, and their assault on a heavily fortified position in Normandy on June 6, 7 and 8, 1944, is not the big picture of D-Day. That's for generals and historians.

It's not even the little picture of an isolated action.

Maybe it's not even a story at all—just the things that one man who was with them remembers best from the greatest experience of his life.

The story of D-Day has to be a story of courage. Maybe that's why, whenever I think of D-Day, I remember Sgt. Bob Youso and Pvt. Alvin White.

The Ranger assignment on D Day was to land precisely at H-Hour (6:30 a. m.) on a rocky shelf of beach barely 15 feet wide, scramble up sheer cliffs more than 100 feet high, and destroy six 155mm guns protected by crack German troops and tons of concrete.

But somebody goofed. The guide boat sent along by the Royal Navy headed for the wrong beach. By the time we reached our landing area: (1) we were 38 minutes late, (2) the naval barrage that was supposed to drive the enemy to cover had long since lifted, and (3) German soldiers lined the cliff tops, peppering us with rifle fire and hand grenades.

As the assault craft crunched to a stop, the Rangers fired a series of rockets that went up and over the cliffs with a loud "whoosh." Attached to the rockets were six-pronged grapnel hooks. Attached to the hooks were long rope ladders. The Rangers pulled on the ropes until the grapnel hooks bit into the dirt, then scrambled up the ladders.

The rockets drove the Germans back, but only momentarily. They had returned by the time Youso and White were clambering to the cliff top. How those two men made it, I'll never know. But they did, and when they got there they chased the Germans back and made it possible for other Rangers to follow them.

The big guns were spiked with thermite grenades, then the Rangers dug in for the fight of their lives. There were Germans in front of them, the cliffs and the English channel behind them, no supplies or reinforcements available. We were going to hang on, or get killed trying. It appeared pretty obvious we were all going to get killed.

Which brings me back to Youso and White. They were out on the left flank, anchoring one end of a very thin line. About 200 yards away was a German machinegun nest which was cutting our men down every time they showed their heads.

Youso and White, armed only with rifles and grenades, went after the machinegunner. To get him they had to snake along in the weeds through a German minefield. One false move and they'd be shot dead or blown to kingdom come.

Maybe 30 minutes later they were back. Youso had been shot through the elbow, White through the knee. But the machinegun nest had been wiped out.

Going up the cliffs, Youso and White had shown one kind of courage—the kind born of desperation and excitement. Here they had shown another kind—the cool, calculated courage that overcomes fear of overwhelming odds.

But there's still another kind of courage. I remember Capt. Walter Block, our medic.

Doc set up a sort of base hospital in a concrete dugout. There was room for about 15 or 16 patients, and that wasn't nearly enough. At times there were so many wounded men that most had to be left outside until somebody inside died or was patched up enough to return to battle.

In the afternoon on the first day, Doc was called outside to look at a badly wounded officer. The officer was unconscious, barely breathing.

Doc took a quick look, "You'll have to leave him out here. There's nothing I can do for him." He walked back into the dugout. The man he left to die untended and alone was a man who for years had been Doc's closest and dearest friend.

I think it took courage, too, for Ranger Robin to do what he did.

Ranger Robin was a platoon leader, and the last I heard he was still in the Army. I hope so; he's a good guy to have on our side. Anyway, on the second day of the invasion Ranger Robin led a patrol behind the German lines to get prisoners for questioning. He was on his way back with about a dozen of them when the Germans counterattacked and threatened to chase the Rangers right off the cliffs.

Ranger Robin and five or six of his men, plus the prisoners, were crouched in a huge shell hole, with German troops all around them. Ranger Robin told his men to take off, one at a time, and get back to our lines as best they could. His sergeant, the last to leave, asked Robin what he was going to do about the prisoners.

"Don't you worry about that. I'll handle it," he replied.

When he was alone with the prisoners, Ranger Robin turned his tommy gun on them and killed them all. Then he made his way back to our command post.

You could say his act was that of a coward, more than of a hero. But I'll argue with you on that. Ranger Robin was tough, but he was no murderer. He shot down 12 defenseless men in cold blood because he was a Ranger, and the Rangers were fighting for their lives. I got to know him well enough to know that those 12 German prisoners will haunt him as long as he lives.

If you were there on D-Day you know a dozen stories like this. If you weren't, you've heard about them.

D-Day was a terribly personal thing to the men who were there. You fought with a group, but the excitement that was like intoxication, and the fear that was like a clammy chill—those were yours alone. You couldn't share them, you couldn't talk about them, you couldn't even acknowledge them.

And what you remember best are not people, and places, and things.

You remember how you felt:

The amazement, on D-Day, when you suddenly realized that, although you had always considered yourself a coward, at this particular time and place you weren't a coward. Scared stiff, yes, but not a coward.

The resignation on D plus one, to death at any moment; and pride that you could accept it without panic.

The anger, outraged and insane, on D plus two, at the men of the U.S. 29th Division who broke through on the left flank and fired first and looked later. They killed two Rangers, wounded 13.

Most of all, when it was all over, the terrible, unshakable lonesomeness—the sense of deep and personal loss. Of the landing force of 230 Rangers, only 52 were able to walk away.

Frozen Foods Tycoon Battles Family Effort to Hospitalize Him

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—Charles F. Seabrook, founder of Seabrook Farms Co., has filed a one million dollar suit against his three sons. The father says the sons illegally committed him to a mental institution.

The suit was filed in Superior Court as Judge W. Orvyl Schalick denied a motion to dismiss an incompetency suit against the 78-year-old millionaire, who pioneered in the frozen foods industry. The judge ordered a non-jury trial for June 15 on the incompetency suit, which was filed April 11, shortly after a judge ordered Seabrook released from Fairmount Farms, a private mental institution in Montgomery County, Pa. Seabrook said he was held there for 22 days.

The suit was brought by his wife, sons and a daughter.

Seabrook's counsel sought to have the incompetency complaint dismissed on the grounds that the doctors whose affidavits were attached to the complaint were not qualified.

He maintained the doctors must be residents of New Jersey but were from Pennsylvania.

Counsel for the plaintiffs said that "unusual circumstances existed because Seabrook was hidden in New York and later in Miami and protected by paid armed guards to prevent an examination."

Seabrook Farms, near Bridgeton, N.J., was sold to Seeman Brothers, Inc., a New York food brokerage firm, for three million dollars on May 25.

ROMEO CONTEST WINNERS — "Miss Romeo" and her two attendants were picked last night by a panel of out-of-town judges in the annual contest held at the Romeo Community Youth and Civic Center. Title-holder is Sheila Dahn, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dahn, of 11540 34 Mile Rd. First maid of honor is Mary Martell, 18, left, and second maid is Margaret Devine, also 18.

'Miss Romeo' Crown Goes to Community High Senior

ROMEO — Petite, curly-haired Sheila Dahn won the title of "Miss Romeo" in annual competition held last night in the Romeo Community Youth and Civic Center.

Sheila, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dahn of 11540 34-Mile Rd. She will receive her graduation diploma next week from Romeo Community High School.

Named as first maid of honor was Mary Martell, 18, daughter of Mrs. Janet Martell of 167 W. Washington St. She is valedictorian of the June graduating class here.

Second maid of honor is Margaret Devine, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan P. Devine Sr., of 71041 Lassier Rd. She will be graduated next week from the Academy of the Sacred Heart, Detroit.

The three were chosen from a field of 10 contestants vying for the crown.

The girls were escorted to the stage where they were interviewed by Master of Ceremonies Harry W. Magahay of Utica before an audience of about 100.

Then they were graded on attractiveness, poise, appearance, personality, public speaking ability and knowledge of Romeo.

The three winners were announced by Herbert A. Miller, president of the Romeo Peach Festival Assn. He presented "Miss Romeo" with a bouquet of red roses and crowned her with a floral tiara.

"Miss Romeo" and her two attendants will ride on the Peach Festival publicity float in area parades this summer. She also will be the village's candidate for Romeo Peach Queen in the annual competition early in August.

The winner of the queen's crown will reign over the 27th annual Peach Festival celebration to be held in Romeo over Labor Day weekend.

The seven other entrants in the "Miss Romeo" contest were Suzy Dallwitz, 18; Connie Lindeau, 19; Nancy Rainier, 18; Pat Russell, 17; Linda Fetter, 17; Janet McIntyre, 17 and Teddy Schanck, 17.

WED 50 YEARS — An open house in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gravlin who recently marked their 50th wedding anniversary will be held at the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gravlin, 28900 13 Mile Rd., Farmington, by the family. Longtime residents of Oakland County, the elder Mr. and Mrs. Gravlin now reside at Round Lake near Brighton. They have three grandsons.

Dr. Brustat to Speak at Oxford on Inroads of Communism

OXFORD — Dr. August W. Brustat will speak on Communist infiltration in American churches at 8 p.m. Monday at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 136 S. Washington St.

Dr. Brustat is at present pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Scarsdale, N. Y. He was active in the Scarsdale Citizens Committee which combated the Communist infiltration into the public school system of that community.

He is a member of the American Schools of Oriental Research, the American Institute of Archaeology and the Lutheran Academy for Scholarship. He was guest professor at the Lutheran Bible Institute and Concordia Collegiate Institute, Bronxville, N. Y., and has authored numerous articles on these and other subjects, including the book, "Partnership With God."

The public is invited to attend. A freewill offering will be taken to help defray expenses.

8 A.M. Summer Services Set for Oxford Church

OXFORD — Immanuel Congregational Church here has announced that beginning Sunday there will be regular 30-minute chapel services at 8 a.m. every Sunday during the summer.

Recorded pipe organ music will form the background for responses, prayers, scripture readings and a brief meditation.

The first series of meditations will be on "Faith in Personal Crisis," with the first one Sunday entitled "Anxiety."

The church is located on the corner of Dennison and Hovey streets.

Admits Taking Part in Robbery-Beating

FOWLERVILLE — The robbery-beating of an elderly Fowlerville farm couple six months ago has been solved with a confession, according to State Police detectives at Lansing.

They said a 33-year-old father of four, Elwood W. Hayes of 393 E. Cambourne St., Ferndale, admitted yesterday that he and an accomplice beat Mr. and Mrs. Wasyl Gwozdzik and robbed them of $11,200 at their farm near here last December.

The accomplice named by Hayes is Maurice Thibodeau, 32 of 3801 Rochester St., Royal Oak. He is in Wayne County Jail at Detroit awaiting trial for carrying concealed weapons and possessing burglar tools.

Troopers said Thibodeau also will face an armed robbery charge.

REVOLVER CRACKS CASE

A revolver found on Thibodeau when he was arrested in Detroit May 10 on a suspicion charge led to the undoing of the pair, according to police.

They said the gun proved to be the one used by the robbers to shoot holes into the tires of Gwozdzik's car. They arrested Hayes, who they knew was a friend of Thibodeau.

Hayes signed a written statement admitting the crime and implicating Thibodeau, according to Det. Lt. Patrick Detzler of State Police headquarters at Lansing.

HUNTING IN AREA

Hayes said they were in the Fowlerville area hunting. Thibodeau pointed out Gwozdzik's farmhouse, telling Hayes that the old man had a large amount of money stashed away in a safe there.

Plan Turkey Dinner

AUBURN HEIGHTS — Mrs. August Suding and Mrs. Leo Barcome are cochairman of a turkey dinner to be served from 5:30 to 7 p.m. tomorrow in the parish hall of Sacred Heart Church on Adams road here. The event is open to the public.

Utica Official Asks Examination

Arraign Mayor in Assault

UTICA—Mayor Edward Church yesterday demanded examination when arraigned on a warrant charging him with assaulting his 21-year-old former son-in-law, Church's father-in-law, Harry Kollmorgen, pleaded guilty to a similar charge and paid a $25 fine.

Justice of the Peace Francis A. Castellucci set Church's trial date for June 24 and released the 46-year-old mayor on $100 bond.

The assault and battery charge against Church and his father-in-law was brought by Church's former son-in-law Fred Riebel, 21, of 454 Gateway St., Pontiac. He accused the two older men of beating him up at Kollmorgen's gas station in Utica Sunday.

Church denied hitting Riebel, but said Sundays incident stemmed from an "accumulation of a lot of things" since Riebel was divorced from his daughter, Barbara, in March.

7th Hospital Struck by New York Union

Local 1199 of the Retail Drug Employes Union posted pickets outside the hospital in upper Manhattan.

The union said that Flower & Fifth Avenue Hospitals went back on a contract agreement. It said the agreement had provided for union recognition, arbitration and grievances, wage increases and a no-strike pledge.

Dr. Ralph E. Snyder, director of Flower & Fifth Avenue, said that the "recognition of any union as an employe bargaining unit will be detrimental to patient care" and to the hospital's educational facilities.

The strike against the first six hospitals started four weeks ago in a move to win union recognition, which the hospitals refused.

Approve Space Money

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has approved a $485,300,000 authorization for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration during the next fiscal year, the exact amount asked by President Eisenhower.

First Use of New Road Signs in County Postponed by State

The State Highway Department has postponed the Michigan debut of an interstate expressway numbering system—which was to be introduced first in Oakland County—under which motorists can eventually travel coast-to-coast without changing routes.

Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie was to place the first signs of the new system this spring on the Brighton-Farmington Expressway section of U.S. 16.

Markers designating the section as Interstate 96 were to be installed alongside U.S. 16 signs, Mackie said.

However, Mackie reports the plan will not go into operation until some time this fall.

NEED AGREEMENT

This will allow the department's Traffic Division to concentrate on getting specifications for the numbering system approved by the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads.

The Bureau must concur in the sign specifications since the federal government bears 90 per cent of the cost of the new signs along with general construction expenses in the interstate system.

The delay also allows the Highway Department to include sign specifications in each prime construction contract awarded.

Some 200 miles of the interstate system are now open to traffic.

The department has submitted eight sets of sign specifications for various expressways to the federal bureau. Five of these involve projects already under contract and the other three are expected to be placed soon.

When the new numbering system is installed, interstate shield-shape signs will be placed beside existing route markers.

Present plans call for a continuation of such dual designations until an expressway route is completed from border to border across the state. Then, the old signs will be removed.

Ultimately, this will mean new designations for 1,066 miles of the state's busiest highways.

TWO SIZES

Two sizes of interstate signs—24 inches across and 48 inches—are being prepared. The larger ones are for erection on overhead road structures.

The edging, the legend "interstate" and the route numbers will be white. The entire sign will be reflectorized.

New route designations will include:

Interstate 94—U.S. 12 and U.S. 25 between a point on the Indiana line near New Buffalo and Port Huron, with a western terminus at San Francisco.

Interstate 96—U.S. 16 from Detroit to Muskegon, will make up part of this. At Grand Rapids, it will branch off with a southern leg leading down past Benton Harbor to connect with Interstate 94. The northern leg from Grand Rapids to Muskegon will be called Interstate 196.

Interstate 75—This will eventually run from the Soo to Tampa, Fla. In Michigan it will follow U.S. 24 north from the Ohio line to join the Chrysler Expressway in Detroit; then northwest and north skirting Pontiac, Flint, Saginaw and Bay City; then north to Standish and from there along M76 to join U.S. 27 near Grayling.

Late, Snoozing Man Puts Ballerina Aflight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Soviet ballerina, Marina Kondratieva, 22, tripped lightly to her hotel room, took one startled glance at the bed and sped back to the lobby.

Puzzled Farmer Forced to Rescue Sunken Geese

But while the flock was doing its stuff, a pilot hired by Oliver passed over, spraying the field and the geese with insecticide.

Urges NATO Keep Full European Force

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Until a foolproof mutual inspection pact is reached with the Soviet Union, any thinning of NATO forces in Europe would be highly dangerous, says Gen. C. V. R. Schuyler.

The chief of staff of Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers Europe, told the Los Angeles World Affairs Council Thursday that to agree to a new defensive arrangement of NATO forces before "We have assured means of checking the arrangement of Soviet forces, could pave the way to disaster."

He said the West must be better trained and better equipped with rockets, missiles and nuclear weapons to withstand the overwhelming numerical superiority of the Soviets.

In a recent sampling of persons 65 years or older, 85 per cent had some illness or other health complaint during a four-week period, but only one out of three of those ailing saw a doctor about it, according to the Health Information Foundation.

Need Both Ears to Keep Track of Soviet Yakking

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has to listen with both ears, Nikita Khrushchev, the bouncy Soviet premier, is forcing this country to have two conversations with him at the same time and on the same subject.

The United States is negotiating with Moscow at Geneva, but at the same time must pay attention to every word Khrushchev says, miles away for a clue to what may happen in the talks.

At Geneva when Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko says something, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter says something back. And when Khrushchev somewhere else says something, the State Department says something back to him.

This has been going on for weeks. Since Gromyko says only what his boss tells him, it isn't what Gromyko says, but what Khrushchev says, that counts.

Khrushchev made that clear months ago when he said foreign ministers can settle nothing and only the "heavyweights" — like himself and President Eisenhower at a summit conference — can come up with answers.

Eisenhower has acknowledged the truth of this and did it again Wednesday when he told a news conference:

"It would be unrealistic to believe that the foreign ministers could make a number of agreements that would be significant to the world. This is because these foreign ministers are, after all, acting for someone else."

The foreign ministers' meeting at Geneva started almost a month ago and has arrived nowhere. The Khrushchev : State Department back-and-forth has gotten nowhere, either. The Geneva conversation is polite. The other one isn't —at least not very.

On May 22, while the foreign ministers were talking solemnly in Geneva and agreeing on nothing, Khrushchev in Moscow warned he would sign a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany if there's no meeting of minds at Geneva.

The State Department mulled this over three days and on May 25 let go at Khrushchev with a statement which, if put in plain language, would have said: "Why don't you keep your big mouth shut?"

What the department actually did was to tell Khrushchev he should stop making threats if he wanted the Geneva meeting to succeed.

On May 26 Khrushchev, never a man easily persuaded, came right back with a warning that if the United States helped to set up missile bases in Greece and Turkey, he'd set up missile bases in their next-door neighbor, Albania.

It took the State Department another three days to digest this and on May 29 it fired a second shot at Khrushchev. This time it accused him of aggravating East-West tensions by threatening Greece and Turkey.

The next day—it doesn't seem to take Khrushchev three days to think up something to irritate the State Department—he was talking again. This time he said the Soviets had no reason to make concessions to the West on Germany.

All this irritated Eisenhower, too, for Wednesday he did a kind of wrapup on his administration's annoyance with Khrushchev by telling his news conference:

"Some of the statements made by Mr. Khrushchev were certainly not calculated to ease tensions and to promote, you might say, a relaxed atmosphere for the conduct of negotiations in Geneva."

Two states adopted the Constitution by only two vote margins. New York's vote was 30 to 28 and Rhode Island's was only 34 to 32.

In writing "History of Japan" in 1657, Japanese lord Tokugawa imported Chinese scholars to assist him.

Reds to Up Aid to East Germany

Move to Offset Appeal of West German Living Standard to Satellite

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet Union is reported planning to step up economic aid to East Germany in an effort to raise the satellite's standard of living beyond that of West Germany.

Both Communist and Western diplomats here in Geneva say they believe this is the main purpose of the visit to Moscow next week of East German Premier Otto Grotewohl and Walter Ulbright, Communist Party chief.

Another important purpose of the visit, informants said, is for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to consult with East Germany's Communist leaders about the course of the Big Four foreign ministers' conference and the Red strategy to be followed if an East-West summit meeting is held.

Communist diplomats stressed, however, that Khrushchev and the East Germans are unlikely to take decisions or actions that would keep the Western leaders from attending a summit conference. In other words, they won't risk infuriating the West by concluding the peace treaty Khrushchev has threatened to sign with East Germany.

Any Soviet plans to inject a massive new economic and financial booster into East Germany would have far-reaching significance.

The satellite has staged an impressive industrial comeback from the destruction of the war, but it still lags far behind West Germany.

The assumption is that the Soviets will ship new plants and machinery to the Communist half of the country, will provide large credits and will do everything else possible to raise East Germany's standard of living and production over the next few years.

It is believed that the Soviets have concluded that Germany will remain divided for a long time, and therefore they must offset the attractions of the West.

Half State Revenue Goes to Local Units

DETROIT — (UPI — Few Michigan citizens have any idea of what it costs to operate governmental services or realize how the money is distributed among state and local agencies, Secretary of State James M. Hare stated.

Hare said the combined operating fund expenditures and revenue distribution in Michigan exceeds one billion dollars annually.

"Even less known," Hare said, "is the fact that more than half, or $567,000,000 of the $1,055,000,000 total expenditure is distributed to or for the benefit of counties, cities, schools and similar local uses."

It cost more than 230 million dollars to operate state institutions and departments during the past fiscal year, Hare said. Operating expenses at the University of Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne State ran to more than 76 million dollars.

Sukarno Prays That Man Can Be Saved From Self

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — "In the deepest corner of my heart I pray to God that all mankind be saved from the danger that threatens the whole world. Science is at a peak. We have split the atom. We are going into space. We can control agriculture. We can control weather. We can control all except the evil hearts of men."

Those words, spoken with great emotion, climaxed an otherwise nearly silent visit to Southern California by Dr. Achmed Sukarno, president of Indonesia.

Burdened with political troubles at home, the Indonesian president addressed some of the faculty of the University of California at Los Angeles, their wives and a few students Wednesday before boarding a plane for Honolulu.

"I pray there will be in the near future better understanding among nations, peace and that the brotherhood of man will be realized in this generation," he said.

"I have always felt there is no difference between people of white skin, black skin, yellow skin—any color skin."

Isaac Newton, famous for formulating the law of gravity, also invented the reflecting telescope.

REPORTS ON DONATIONS

Philanthropic chairmen Mrs. Joseph Chummings, Mrs. Wilson, and Mrs. Donald Steele told of donation of two wheel chairs and film strips to the Oakland County Crippled Children's Society and Christmas baskets to the needy. The group also sent an epileptic child to Camp Crile for a month and made a donation toward furnishing a new dormitory at the camp, as well as making party favors for the youngsters.

Serving on the banquet committee were Mrs. Dunham, chairman; assisted by Mrs. Maier, Mrs. Gaylord, Mrs. Skelley and Mrs. Haines.

Plans were made to attend the Northland Theater Aug. 8 with Mrs. Hutchinson in charge of arrangements.

Sorority Picnics at Meeting

Make Final Plans for Convention in Miami Beach

Eighteen members attended a picnic supper and final meeting of the season of Rho chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa Sorority held at the Otter drive home of Mrs. Cleo Wiley Thursday evening.

Wilma Webb, president, was in charge of the business meeting.

Final plans for International Alpha Delta Kappa Sorority Convention to be held in August in Miami Beach, Fla., were made.

Attending from Rho chapter will be Mrs. Wiley, state president; Miss Webb, delegate and Mrs. Joseph Fouts, alternate.

Rho chapter is taking part in a gifted children project. Mrs. Wiley also presented the chapter's charter to the group. The charter has been received from International headquarters.

Mrs. Theodore Fauble will be hostess to the next meeting of the sorority to be held in September.

Mrs. Taylor Harris assisted the hostess.

Tread Softly—Abby:

Girl of 12 Needs Love and Tact to Change Friend's Manners

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a 12-year-old girl and I have a very good friend. I just love her, but when we go to a show on Saturday and her mother takes us home I always say, "Thank you," but when my mother takes us home she just says, "See you." When I call her and she isn't home, I always say, "Thank you and goodbye." My mother says when she calls me and I am not home she just hangs up. How can I help her with her manners? Thank you.

ABBY

BETSY

DEAR BETSY: If you love her — teach her, but do it in a friendly way, so that she will know you want to help her — not merely find fault with her.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I have the nicest husband in the whole world. He tells me every day he loves me. He even tells me I am beautiful although I know I am not. But my trouble is that he won't call my mother "Mom." If he wants her attention he says, "Hey!" Abby, it embarrasses me so much when all my sisters and brothers are around and their mates call my mother "Mom." I've called his mother "Mom" since the day we were married. How can I get my stubborn husband to do the same for me? It would mean so much.

HURT

DEAR HURT: No one should be called "Hey" but there are some people who simply cannot bring themselves to call anyone but their own mothers "Mom." Overlook it.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My husband's boss and his wife invited us over for an evening. My niece is being married and since her father works for the same company, the boss and his wife received an invitation to the wedding. The boss' wife said, "What do you think Harriet wants for a wedding present?" I said, "I don't know, but if you give her the money she can buy what she wants." My husband told me later that he wanted to sink through the floor. Don't you think my answer was all right? What would you have answered?

PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: I would have simply replied, "I will be glad to find out for you.

To get Abby's booklet, "What Every Teenager Wants to Know," send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby in care of this newspaper.

What'll It Be—Marriage-on-the-Rocks?

Hide Your Girdle, Baby, and Drink Deep

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—It is the month of weddings—the mating season of the dewy-eyed satin-back—and I have only seen one piece of newsy advice in the bridal magazines. It was this:

Never, but never, wash out your girdle and hang it to dry in the bathroom. This is no way to start a life of romantic domesticity.

Now what kind of advice is that to offer a girl who is about to launch what romantic young America likes to call "the greatest career a woman can have?"

For one thing, it is unrealistic. What's a bride to do—hide a soggy two-way stretch in an airless closet so's not to shock the blushing groom?

For another, it is too insignificant a part of marriage to be mentioned. In these days when the average bride is an apprentice wife before she has learned to bake a pie, add a grocery bill or distinguish between adolescent yearning and mature respect—her advice should be considerably firmer than a foundation garment.

She should be warned that, because of Tin Pan Alley and Hollywood and slick romantic fiction, young Americans have a distorted view of marriage. Boy meets girl. Love, or is it sunspots, ensues. Together, they walk into the sunset of everlasting love.

Brides should be told that roses every Wednesday are not the symbol of eternal love, and that men get too busy to be eternal boy friends.

The American concept of a wedding features the be-all, end-all woman in the middle of her court. It is a woman's world, and the woman is to be adored and worshiped in marriage, even as she was pampered and petted in courtship.

The bride should be advised that strong and emotionally mature husbands do not heel forever. They have other loves—baseball, money, work and most of all freedom.

The city halls and churches of this country are overloaded with immature young girls who believe that marriage is an achievement. Once their third finger is clad in platinum, they have accomplished their female goal in life, and they can relax in security and safety.

Brides should be told that marriage is not the end. It is only the beginning of the hard, patient, absorbing work. The attitude of young wives that the game has been snared, and is safely in the lair, is magnetic: it brings out the native polygamous instincts in husbands.

In America, brides often make excellent housekeepers, swell cooks, fine bridge players and jazzy clotheshorses. They are efficient and smart and ambitious, and intent upon making their husbands ideal mates and fathers.

They should be told that psychologists agree: The wife who tries to convert 200 pounds of hamburger into a giant sirloin will make her own future. As a divorcee or a widow.

These are some of the things which are obvious to mature married women — though sometimes it takes them more than one wedding to see their way—but which young June brides are rarely told.

Americans are so romantic. They don't want to chill the bloom off those maidenly cheeks. So they say hide your girdle, baby, and drink deep of life's nectar.

What'll it be—marriage-on-the-rocks?

Armenian Unit Elects Officers in Area Meeting

Officers elected were Mrs. Berj Gerjekian, president; Mrs. Louis Haroutunian, vice president; Mrs. George Arakelian, recording secretary; Mrs. Carl Demerjian, corresponding secretary and Mrs. John Haroutunian, treasurer.

Plans were made to send a delegate to the convention in Detroit which will be held the first week in July at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

Sorority Maps Coming Projects

Planned were the annual dinner party, the June rummage sale and a new charity project.

County Historical Unit Tells of Indian Lore

By MARY ANGLEMIER

"Before the white man arrived, Pontiac was the crossing point of two Indian trails," said Richard C. Poole at the 85th annual luncheon meeting of the Oakland County Pioneer and Historical Society at All Saints Episcopal Church Wednesday. His theme was "Early Pontiac."

"Indians in the Detroit area followed a trail to Saginaw hunting grounds and from St. Clair Indians traveled to Apple Island in Orchard Lake to visit Chief Pontiac," he said.

Mr. Poole, a local merchant, told of a group of 15 Detroit businessmen forming the Pontiac Company. They came here in 1818 and during the first winter lived in a log cabin where the Oakland Theater now stands.

Pontiac was then bounded by Lafayette street on the north, Williams street on the west, Wessen street on the south, and Hill street was the eastern boundary.

Mrs. Arthur W. Selden read the poem, "Sashabaw," written by W. K. Van Sickle and printed in the Billposter, a monthly paper in 1868.

It concerned the lives and customs of residents of the Drayton Plains-Waterford area.

R. Clare Cummings spoke of his early years in Franklin.

Mr. Cummings introduced Bert D. Wood, author of "Franklin's Yesteryear."

"My great-grandfather, my grandfather and my father have lived a lifetime in Franklin, and now, here I am a resident at 80 years of age," said Mr. Wood.

During the business session the following officers were elected for another year. Arthur W. Selden, president; Mrs. L. L. Dunlap, first vice president; William Ewart, second vice president; Carl Bird, treasurer; Miss Emma Howard, secretary and Miss Alice Serrell and Miss Laura Hunter, historians. Mrs. E. V. Howlett was named historian emeritus.

Named to the board of directors were Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Adams, R. C. Cummings, Mrs. Harry Going, Harcourt Patterson, John E. Linabury, Miss Louise Paddock, Joe Haas, Marshall Smith, Mrs. Allan Monroe, Lee Truax, W. D. Flint, and Mrs. John E. Windiate.

Others were Maurice Cole, Mrs. Selden, Mrs. Harry Place, Mrs. Earl Mastick, Miss Jessie M. Brewer, Mrs. Ross Stockwell, Mrs. Ida Stewart and Ernest Huthwaite.

50 Turn Out for County Salon 224 Candlelight Rite

Fifty partners of Oakland County Salon 224 Eight et Forty held candlelight initiation Thursday evening for five new partners at American Legion Home.

New partners are Mrs. Henry Masuch of Berkley, Mrs. Homer Hight of Oxford, Mrs. Alice Bowers of Hazel Park, Mrs. Lee Pearsall of Royal Oak and Mrs. William Plummer of Oak Park.

Taking part in the ceremony were Mrs. Eldon Showen, Mrs. Joseph Stout, Mrs. Asa Cooley and Mrs. Hugh McHugh.

Addresses were given by Mrs. Charles Larson, who spoke on the golden rule and honor society of American Legion; Mrs. Carl Shindorf, on child welfare and juvenile tuberculosis; Mrs. George Danuk, ritual and regalia of the salon; and Mrs. George Ault, who discussed fellowship.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. John Sacks, Mrs. Fordon Niles and Mrs. James Nourjean.

Rude to Call Attention to Blemishes

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: I have a skin rash which is neither contagious nor deadly which recurs on my forearms and hands. This looks ugly and produces a lot of attention and comment. Even so, aren't people rude to emphasize the condition and ask all sorts of questions about it? I find this very embarrassing."

Answer: Those who draw needless attention to your rash by asking questions about it are unkind and rude.

"Dear Mrs. Post: To settle a long standing argument, will you please tell me if it is proper for a man, when announcing himself on the telephone to say, "This is Mr. Jones speaking"? In other words, should the "Mr." be used?"

Answer: A man calling a woman whom he knows socially would never, under any circumstances, announce himself as Mr. He would say, "This is John Jones." But a man calling a woman on business says, "This is Mr. Jones of Blank & Company." If he were calling a business man, he would be likely to say, "This is Jones of Blank & Company."

"Dear Mrs. Post: My next door neighbors are very kind and have been friends of our family for years. My niece is going to be married this summer. My brother, the bride's father, also knows these neighbors well. My sister-in-law has never met them although I have often spoken about them to her and of the many kindnesses they have shown me.

"Would it be out of order for me to ask my sister-in-law to send them an invitation to the wedding? It's going to be a fairly large wedding and I'd like them to be present."

Answer: As the wedding is to be a fairly large one and not limited to nearest relatives, it will be quite all right for you to ask for an invitation for your neighbors.

Several Y-Teeners to Attend Confab

Several members of the Pontiac YWCA Y-Teen Club will be attending the Y-Teen state summer conference June 13-19.

Among them are Jean Cunningham of Clarkston, Sue Sommerville and Judy Fink of Pontiac, Beverly O'Tyson, Mary Jo Parker and Cindy Greenless of Lake Orion and Cathy Labb and Carleen Cook of Waterford.

The conference will be held at Camp Cavell near Lexington.

Use Soap, Water to Wash Wood

Mr. Esherick says, "Wash wood with soap and water." Here's a hint which any housewife can follow—because that's just what the experts do, before polishing wood pieces to a high-luster gleam.

Have You Tried This?

Try Meringue Topping, Glamorize Rhubarb Pie

By JANET ODELL,
Pontiac Press Home Editor

"This is the one way that I can get everyone to eat rhubarb." Mrs. Norman Cheal of Drayton Plains sent us her pet recipe for rhubarb pie this week. Maybe your family will like it too.

Mrs. Cheal is the mother of six lively youngsters. In addition to caring for them and a large home, she is active in church work and belongs to the Union Lake branch of AAUW.

RHUBARB MERINGUE PIE
By Mrs. Norman Cheal

2½ cups rhubarb, cut into small pieces
¾ cup granulated sugar
2 eggs
2 tablespoons flour
¼ cup confectioners sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla
Plain pastry

Beat egg yolks with granulated sugar, mixed and sifted with the flour. Add rhubarb and stir until well mixed.

Turn into 8-inch pie pan lined with plain pastry. Bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees. Cool.

Old Fashioned Ideas Still Make Sense

By RUTH MILLETT

If you have a teenage daughter these old-fashioned reminders still make sense:

One. Know her friends and, if possible, the parents of her friends.

Two. Know where she is going and let her know when you expect her home when she goes out at night.

Three. Let her know that you trust her but make it clear that trusting a young person means that parental supervision is still necessary.

Four. Don't be afraid to ask her not to date a boy you know she shouldn't,

Five. Don't nag at her about little things. She'll get the idea that she can't please you or that you don't have a very high opinion of her.

Six. Respect her right to privacy. Don't rummage through her mail, read her letters, ask prying questions about her friends or insist on helping her entertain the boys and girls who come to see her.

Seven. Encourage her to bring her friends home. Insist that you meet any boy she's dating.

Eight. Make her understand that it is just as unkind to hurt a boy's feelings as to hurt a girl's, so that she won't break a date when a better opportunity comes along or be rude in refusing a date with a boy she considers impossible.

Nine. Insist she be considerate enough to telephone and let you know if her plans are changed or if she is going to be later than she thought.

Ten. Help her build up her self-esteem to the point where she isn't afraid to stand up for what she thinks is right or to refuse to go along with the crowd when her better judgment tells her not to.

Leather for Bride

NEW YORK—The bride who wants to get the most for her money from her wedding shoes can wear leather instead of satin. Leather has the traditional altar-bound look, yet can be worn during the summer, either "as is" or with a small, removable clip.

Children who do not go for tomatoes may accept stewed ones in a mildly flavored chili con carne.

Pontiac area women attended the luncheon of Republican women leaders held in Lansing Wednesday. Seated are, left to right, Mrs. L. R. Sampson, vice chairman of Republican Committee of Oakland County; Mrs. Clare B. Williams, speaker, and Mrs. Harry Henderson, president of Republican Women's Federation of Oakland County. Standing, left to right, are Mrs. Dan O'Madigan Jr., Mrs. George Stout and Mrs. Guy Tubbs both of Republican Women's Club of Waterford township, Mrs. Allen Simmons, president Huron Valley Republican Women's Club; Mrs. Charles Campbell, president of Republican Women's Club of Waterford Township, and Mrs. Byron Cole, member of the Republican Women's Federation of Oakland County.

Keep Exercising

Slap Off That Thigh Fat

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Question Box)

Q. "I am not overweight but I have a figure problem which bothers me a great deal. It's the front of my thighs. They stick out like ballons when I wear anything except full skirts. I get along fine with the boys but as soon as summer comes I hibernate. This is a constant worry to me. I would do practically anything to get rid of this by July."

A. In the first place do not hibernate. Don't let a little defect in your figure spoil your fun. With the personality you seem to have, probably no one will even notice it. However, you are wise to rid yourself of any defects you have. I believe the following exercise will help.

Lie on the floor on your abdomen. Bend both elbows and lean on your lower arms. Bend both knees. Keep the knees bent as you lift the right thigh from the floor. Slap left thigh down as you again lift your right thigh. In other words you rock from side to side, slapping each thigh at the end of the rock. Knees are bent throughout the exercise.

Q. "I am 35 years old, five feet, one inch tall, and weigh 123 pounds. My bust measures 34 inches, waist 26 and hips 37. Am I out of proportion? Please answer in your column. This is terribly important to me for special reasons."

A. With medium frame you are just the right weight. Your measurements are in good ratio. However, you might lose an inch or two from your hipline for perfection. You have to do this with exercise since you should not lose weight.

Q. "I have been told that sleeping on one's tummy tends to flatten the busts. Is this true?"

A. It seems logical to me that sleeping on the abdomen would tend to break down the tissues or flatten the busts just as wearing the wrong kind of brassiere would.

Q. "My husband always bothers me about my nose. He always tells me that I have a big nose. What can I do to make it look smaller?"

A. Use powder which is a slightly darker shade on your nose, especially on the bridge. There should be no great difference in the powder you use on your nose and the rest of your face but just a little difference can create a flattering result. Plastic surgery is the only other way to change the shape of the nose.

Q. "I am the mother of a 14-year-old girl. Her bust measures only 31 inches. Should she wear a bra? Does the age of a girl make any difference in the time a girl should start wearing a bra?"

A. When a girl should wear a brassiere depends on the size of her bust rather than on her age. With a 31 inch bust I imagine that your daughter would be more comfortable and look better with a bra, especially when she is wearing lightweight blouses or sweaters. A bra certainly cannot be harmful if it is fit properly and is a style which supports rather than binds

Summer Art Classes Planned by MSUO

An eight-week summer course in Still Life Drawing and Oil Painting will begin on the campus of Michigna State University Oakland at 7 p.m., Tuesday.

"This is a course for the creative individual who has a desire to express himself through the medium of drawing and painting," said Dr. Lowell Eklund, director of continuing education at the university.

"The mastery of this interesting and fascinating vocabulary of art will enable the student to give form and meaning to his creative ideas, and through them communicate with other practitioners and friends of art.

While acquiring the technical facility to meet particular interests the student will explore the "nature of beauty and its variations which will result in a richer understanding and appreciation of the great masterpieces of art from primitive through Rennaisance, and including modern art forms, according to Eklund.

No previous art experience is required as the course is designed to accommodate both the beginning and advanced drawing and painting students.

Instructor for the course will be Lloyd Radell. Known throughout southeastern Michigan as an accomplished professional paniter, he has also been active in adult art education.

He has an M.A. degree in fine arts from Wayne University and has studied at the Detroit Institute of Arts and Crafts.

Enrollment will be limited to 25 students. Interested persons may obtain additional information and mack reservations in the class by calling the MSUO Continuing Education Center.

Reuther Lists Survival Musts

End Discrimination of Races; Up Foreign Aid; Improve Schools

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Walter Reuther says America, for its own survival, must:

End racial discrimination, improve the quality of education, expand foreign aid, utilize its economic potential and revitalize its intellectual climate.

Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers union, told the national convention of the General Federal of Women's Clubs Thursday night: "Most of the people of the world are dark skinned, and they include 90 per cent of the uncommitted people who in the ultimate struggle between the forces of freedom and tyranny will hold the balance."

"They will either tip in our way, in favor of freedom; or they will tip the other way, in favor of the forces of tyranny which destroy these basic values," he said.

"As we face these people in the world, we need to get our credentials in order. You ought to sit down with peasants get our credentials in order. You ought to sit down with peasants in India and try to explain Little Rock."

Half an hour earlier, the 3,000 delegates heard Charles R. Sligh Jr., executive vice president of the National Assn. of Manufacturers. Sligh said labor leaders are invoking the power of unions—which he described as the strongest political force in the country—to promote personal political aims.

Reuther did not refer to Sligh's assertion in his speech.

Reuther said he is "fearful about collective bargaining in 1959 if we have a continued hardening of attitudes, and an unwillingness to face and work out our problems."

Outside the auditorium where Reuther and Sligh spoke, pickets appeared with placards saying: "Sovietize America, said Reuther", and "Reuther's Michigan is bankrupt."

Miss Chloe Gifford, federation president, said "It is most unfortunate. I ignored them, did not even look, don't know what it's all about."

Reuther said: "It is sad that people in this day and age would do the things that Communists do. However, they are free to do as they please but I think it shows intolerance."

The federation's five-day convention ends today.

Old Man Time Winning Race With the Clock

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The 24-hour day is getting a little longer every year, according to two University of California geophyicists, Walter H. Munk and Gordon J. F. MacDonald said that by their computations the day actually is two hundredths of a second longer today than it was 2,000 years ago.

A clock set at the time of Christ's birth would now be about two hours fast, they said.

The cause of the time change, the scientists said, "is still very much of a mystery."

St. Augustine, Fla., will be 400 years old in 1965.

Daughter Fools Parents, Nearly Buys Out Store

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)— Richard O. Haynes viewed his daughter's new possessions with mixed emotions today.

Daughter Charlotte, 12, was ecstatically happy. That was good.

The $215.37 drubbing Haynes' bank balance took was another thing.

Good idea decided Haynes, an insurance company executive, and his wife, figuring the tab would come to $50 at theoutside.

They had their little girl, the youngest of two daughters, misjudged.

When the appointed hour came around Wednesday, Charlotte ran into the store with the charge-a-plate and started buying. The store clerks had been alerted.

A busy hour later Charlotte had $215.37 worth of new toys, clothes and stuffed animals. Mrs. Haynes had fun watching the proceedings. Haynes was figuring out his new bank balance, with mixed emotions.

CRANFORD, N.J. (AP) — Mrs. Robert Olson couldn't make graduation at Union Junior College Thursday night. Too busy with the baby.

Justice of the Peace Good as His Word

COLDWATER (UPI) — Justice of the peace Irving L. Stansell is a man of his word.

Raymond Ringle, Plymouth, Ind., and Carmen Hoke, South Bend, Ind., were wed Wednesday by Stansell.

After the ceremony, the justice told Ringle to "look me up" if he was ever in trouble.

Pontiac Press Photo

SIX CHEERS — Pontiac Central High School cheerleaders and bandsmen display the flag presented to the band. They are, from left, Sheila Kinder, Nancy Donaldson, Garry Dalley, Ray Lanham, Sandra Eovin and Sue Clark. The flag was given in appreciation of the service of the band in school pep assemblies, on the field marching at games and other activities. The cheerleading squad bought the flag with money earned by selling gold seals and a dance which it sponsored.

Banner Given With Hoorahs

Bandsmen Are Praised for Contribution to 'Great' School Spirit

By BARBARA GRIFFIN

At a special assembly Tuesday morning, the PCHS Cheerleading squad presented the PCH Band with a flag as a token of their apprecation of the service of the band in school pep assemblies, on the field marching at games and in many other ways which helped school spirit at Central to be outstanding.

Expressing thanks to the band was Sandra Erwin, cheerleading captain, as Sue Clark and Ray Lanham unfurled and revealed the flag to the entire student body. Band members receiving the flag were Sheila Kinder and Gary Dalley.

A previous flag was given to the band in 1952 by the Band Alumni, and it had "Pontiac Senior High School." With the name change a new flag was needed.

Among many compositions the band played in the program was the "Thunderbird Overture" which was written especially for the PCH Band on their 25th anniversary in 1952 by Philip J. Lang.

This overture is appropriately based on authentic Indian themes, and contains portions of the Pontiac Fight Song.

The Senior Prom, "Exotica," will be held tomorrow night from 9 to 12 in the girls' gym. Seniors will dance to the music of Dave Martin and his band. Tickets are $2.50 and may be purchased during lunch hour or before and after school. Kathie Hunter and Jerry Powers are co-chairman of the dance.

Sunday night Baccalaureate will be held for all graduating seniors at Central Methodist Church at 8:00.

Class day will be held next Tuesday. That afternoon the seniors will go to Walled Lake where rides and a lunch prepared by the cafeteria will be waiting for them. After lunch there will be a small program titled "Who's Who." Tickets cost $1.25 and will be on sale Tuesday.

Commencement exercises will be held June 11 at Wisner Memorial Stadium. Guest speaker will be Mr. Lowell Eklund, representative from MSUO.

It has been announced by the American Field Service that Sherry Fink will spend the summer and the fall semester in Ornskoldvik, Sweden. She will live with Mr. and Mrs. Stig Joanson and have three Swedish brothers and one Swedish sister. She will sail June 18 and S.S. Zuiderkuise with the AFS summer students, among them Sue Koprince, PCH student who will spend the summer in Hanover, Germany.

Scholarships to summer workshops at Michigan State University have been awarded to dramatic students Peggy Warren, Clark Davis, Doug Spurlock and Judy Kennedy by the Dramatics Department. Priscilla Dawe was also awarded a scholarship by the Radio Workshop to attend M.S.U. for radio and television work.

"Fifteen years of Printer's Ink" was the theme of the annual spring Publications Banquet held in the cafeteria Tuesday night at 7 p.m. This banquet climaxed a successful year of publications with the 1959 Quiver being unveiled.

WTHS Elects Officers

Patterson to Lead Class of '60

By JEAN REXFORD

Tim Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Patterson, of 1530 Lockhaven Rd., has been elected president of the Waterford Township High School Class of 1960.

Elected as vice president is Sue Ott, Janet Thomas will be secretary and Carleen Cook will be treasurer.

At the annual senior cap and gown party were the graduating members of the class of 1959. Among the events of the evening were films of the recent senior trip, dancing, entertainment and refreshments.

LETTERS AWARDED

The letters were awarded as follows: golf team, 10; track, 30; junior varsity baseball, 17; and varsity baseball, 19.

Officers of Girls Athletic Assn. for next year will be Ruth Newman, president; Barbara Cole, secretary; Glenda Roberts, treasurer; and Julia Baba, letter club director. Clark Lefurgy, sophomore, has been elected president of the French club.

Orion Preps for Graduation Slate

By DIANE DOLECEK

Activities for graduation will begin Sunday with a Baccalaureate Service at 8 p.m. in the Lake Orion High School Auditorium.

The main speakers are The Rev. Albert B. Johns, of the Lake Orion Methodist Church, and Elder Blake Lennon, of the Lake Orion Latter Day Saints Church.

The Girls' Glee Club with Miss Evelyn Michelitti, director, will add to the service. Ushers are the Class of 1961.

Next on the list is Class Night on Monday. At this time, the Class Will, Prophesy and History will be read. Following this, the Senior Class will give a party for the Juniors.

The grand ending is Commencement at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the school auditorium. The Rev. Plummer Whipple, of St. Alfred's Episcopal Church, will give the invocation.

SPEECH ON 'TRUTH'

Dr. William Whitcomb Whitehouse, President of Albion College, will speak on "Truth and Consequences." Mrs. Gladys Van Wagoner, president of the board of education, will present the diplomas.

Walled Lake High School Swings Out

By SALLY COLLINS

Swing out exercises held today officially began with a welcoming speech by class president, Bob Smith. Following the speech was the honor march in which seniors escorted juniors to their new senior seats before taking their places.

The class history was then read. Following the reading was a presentation of talent and the passing of the gavel from Bob Smith to junior class president, Kathy Lundquist.

DIXIELAND BAND

Featured at the Walled Lake High Senior Prom will be Pee Wee Hunt and his Dixieland Band. The prom will begin tonight at 8:30. The dance will be held at the Walled Lake Casino through the courtesy of the Toluttene family.

Tickets sold in advance benefit the senior class and the public is invited.

Girl Is Salutatorian

Two Share Valedictorian Honors at Avondale High

By CAROL MAZUREK

For the second time in six years, two boys, Gary Acker and Donald E. Barnhart, shared the honors as co-valedictorians of the Avondale High School 1959 graduating class.

Both students have been active in sports, are members of the National Honor Society, have been student council officers and have held a class presidency. They each have a 3.6 average for their four years of high school.

Donald, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Meek of 2466 Auburn Rr., Avon Township, is president of the Student American Field Service Committee and treasurer of the National Honor Society. He was president of the sophomore class and vice-president of the student council.

The varsity football player plans to attend Michigan State University and study science.

Gary, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Acker, 2260 Oaknoll St., Avon Township, has been active in all sports. He was honored as an "All League" and honorable mention "All County" player in football and was co-captain and All League player in basketball. He has played baseball for three years and was the representative to Wolverine Boys' State at MSU when he was a junior.

CLASS PRESIDENT

The athlete is also president of the senior class, and secretary-treasurer of the Varsity Club and serves on the American Field Service Committee. He was also king at the Spring Festival as a freshman.

Liberal Arts will be the major of Gary when he attends Michigan State University Oakland in the fall.

Maryann has a 3.4 average, is a member of the Future Teachers Club and also plans to enter MSUO and study teacher education.

Janet Mather will attend the First Leadership Training Workshop of the Michigan Association of Future Homemakers of America June 15-18 at Eastern Michigan University.

"Enchanted Island" is the theme for the senior prom to be held Saturday evening from 9 until 12. Heading the different committees are: general chairman, Jon Fruytier; decorating, Dolly Stonehouse; advertising, Carol Mazurek; band, Judy Myhrs; refreshments, Linda Hall; and clean-up, William Cassell.

Music for dancing will be furnished by the Modern Sound Quartet from Michigan State University.

Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday evening at 8:15 in the high school. Participating in the program will be the Reverends F. William Palmer and D. A. Hoenshell of the Auburn Heights Presbyterian and Free Methodist, respectively.

The largest class in the school's history will be receiving diplomas on the evening of June 10, at 8:15 in the high school. One hundred twenty-three seniors will be attending their last school function.

PNH Holds First Senior Prom Tomorrow Night

By COLLEEN ADAMS

Soft music will float across Pontiac Northern High School's cafeteria and out onto the patio tomorrow night. The music will be coming from Bob Durnate and his orchestra playing for the senior prom which is called "Moment of Enchantment." The dance will be held from 9 to 12.

Many plans and ideas have gone into this first senior prom by members of the senior class. Committee chairmen are: Sharon Green and Bill Kath, co-chairmen of the dance; Bob Franks and Beverly Donato, decorations; Jerilyn Gallaher, publicity; Pat Levicki, refreshments; Pauline Herron and Nicky Trietsch, program and patrons.

Bill Dexter and Kathy Fitzpatrick are in charge of tickets. Jim Lyons heads the clean-up committee. Rita Stanley is in charge of the check-room.

Tuesday turned out to be an exceptionally exciting day for Northern seniors. At last, after many months of waiting, caps and gowns arrived. They were distributed Tuesday morning. Later in the day, the halls became a mass of bright red spots, as the jubilant seniors proudly wore their caps and gowns for the first time in Northern's brief history.

LAST ISSUE

A six-page Polaris was distributed to Northern students today for their last issue. The front page of the paper came as a surprise. A picture of the flag was put on it in full color! Another Northern first.

Wednesday, a great surprise came to all students as the first yearbook "Avalanche," came to Northern. It is an off white with the word "Avalanche" written across the bottom, and has diamond shaped design with PN and 1959.

This first yearbook is quite an exciting event and has been waited for with great anticipation. Pictures are taken of all activities, classes, and sports.

Class to Graduate in New St. Michael's

Disc Data and Chatter

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

FIVE ACES: Tops on the sales charts as far as Pontiac area record shops are concerned is "The Battle of New Orleans" (Johnny Horton) a record that proves snare drums are coming back in style.

Close behind is "Dream Lover" (Bobby Darin) in second place. These two completely lead the rest of the field, with third place seller "Personality" (Lloyd Price) being far back.

Fourth spot goes to "Bongo Rock" (Preston Epps) and the last of this week's fortunate five is "Kansas City" (Wilbert Harrison).

Pop albums: The soundtrack LP of "Porgy and Bess" (OL-5410) has finally been released by Columbia. Everyone has jumped into the P&B bandwagon in the past few months with easily over a dozen LPs of the show music on the market.

Now you can buy the same stuff you see, if you catch the Samuel Goldwyn flick, featuring Sidney Poitier, Dorothy Dandridge, Pearl Bailey, and Cab Calloway.

The new Broadway show, "Gypsy," built around the lives and times of Gypsy Rose Lee and starring Ethel Merman, is soon to be released on a Columbia album.

The jazz nest: Scraps of nutritive value from the jazz vocal world include a swingin' LP on Capitol by Mark Murphy with the Bill Holman outfit called "This Could Be the Start of Something" (T-1177).

Also on Capitol is "Crazy He Calls Me" (T-1170) by Dakota Staton with some nice arrangements by Sid Feller, Howard Biggs, and Nelson Riddle.

A promotional 12-incher on the Columbia label is "Columbia Jazz Festival" (JJ-1). It's a wild mixture of jazz by many outfits and sells for 98 cents (monaural) or $1.49 (stereo) when you buy another Columbia LP. Others at regular price are "Ellington Jazz Party" (CL-1323) and "Mr. Wilson and Mr. Gershwin" (CL-1318) by the Teddy Wilson Trio.

At the end of the list is "Songs For Swingers" (CL-1320) by Buck Clayton and his All-Stars; and "In The Still of The Night" (CL-1309) by Marge Dodson.

St. Frederick Honors Outstanding Graduates

By MARY SUE RITTER

Valedictorian and Salutatorian of this year's senior class at St. Frederick High School are Michael Metty and Myra Levering.

Receiving silver diplomas were Geraldine Dobski, Mary Ellen Kremer and Susan Johnson.

The Womanhood Award was received by Mary K. Morse. The Manhood Award was received by John Lyon.

Rochester Girl Wins Scholarship to Alma

Paula Simon, a Rochester High School senior, has been awarded a scholarship to Alma College.

The scholarship was awarded for scholastic achievement and will be for $1,000 pro-rated for four years. Paula of 141 Bowdoinhill Dr., intends to major in education.

Catto's 'Lions at the Kill' Will Star Joan Collins

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD — I would have sworn that Joan Collins was "in" as "Cleopatra" because all signs pointed to her to play the siren of the Nile. But come July, Joan is taking off for the south of France to star in "Lions at the Kill," which has been retitled "Seven Thieves."

The story is based on Max Catto's novel and is being produced by Sydney Boehm for 20th Century-Fox from Boehm's own screen play. He's made an offer to Fredric March and Richard Widmark for the two top male roles. The story is a mystery melodrama and will be shot in its entirety in southern France.

Although Lisa Kirk is very well known as a nightclub entertainer and a popular singer of records, she has never been seen on the stage on the West Coast.

So her friends will be happy to hear that she makes her debut in Los Angeles at the Biltmore Theater Aug. 10 in "Say Darling." James Doolittle, who took over the Biltmore as well as the Greek Theater, is producing the show.

Usually Bob Wells, Lisa's talented husband who does the Dinah Shore TV show, produces all of her plays, but I suppose he'll have a hand in it, although he's been very busy on TV.

One sure way to get publicity has always been to have everyone guessing who would play the top role in any motion picture.

I am not accusing Panama and Frank, two smart lads, of milking the role of Daisy Mae in "Li'l Abner," but we've certainly had everyone rumored.

I am reliably informed that final selection has been made at Paramount, and the girl is Marjorie Helen, a beautiful redhead who has been under contract to 20th Century-Fox for two years. She's just made her second test for the role and between you and me and all my readers, I have been told that Marjorie Helen definitely is in.

We hear too much about the sensational side of Hollywood and not enough about stories like this: Arthur Beck, husband of many years of former silent screen star Leah Baird, writes that she is desperately ill at the Motion Picture Country Hospital suffering from neurasthenia, and undergoing blood transfusions.

"A thousand thanks of gratitude to all coworkers at Warner Bros. studio who called to serve as blood donors—actors, electricians, grips and the studio police." He signed it, "Leah's grateful husband."

Space Monkey Able Will Be Mounted

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)— The body of Able, the space-flying Rhesus monkey, will be mounted by a Rochester taxidermy company for use in armed forces exhibits.

The Ward's Natural Science Establishment, Inc., said Thursday the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology in Washington had asked it to stuff and mount the seven-pound astronaut.

Able soared into space in the nose cone of a Jupiter missile last month with another monkey, Baker.

Death was not due to any effects of the flight, but rather a cardiac arrest, doctors said. Baker is still alive.

International Fund Mone OK'd for This Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate conferees have agreed to allow a $1,375,000,000 increase in the U.S. contribution to the International Monetary Fund to go into this year's budget instead of next year's.

Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala), said he thought it was one of the conferees who agreed "petty politics to try to balance the budget in 1960 by cutting corners in this war, but if they want to do it, we decided to let them go ahead."

About 77 million acres of forest need to be replanted over a period of years if production is to be maintained along with forest cover.

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

The 8th annual and the best Pontiac Press Invitational Prep Golf Tournament at Pontiac Country Club last week drew many fine praises from coaches, players and parents this week.

All 17 schools entered have been re-invited to join the 9th annual tournament next May 23rd, plus another team to be asked to complete a field of 18 teams.

Our only regret is that teams in a certain area prep league chose to "boycott" the tournament due to criticism which was directed at the league during the school year because of its athletic policies.

Two schools of the league entered and did very well.

"Your tournament is better than any of the state tournaments," one of area golf coaches offered as comment.

SPORTS SURVEY WILL TELL

How does the Pontiac area compare in interest and participation sport-wise to the national scene?

The sports department of The Press is presently taking a survey locally and after completion and compilation it will be interesting to see where the main sports interests of area people stand.

Locally comparison will be made with a survey which was taken nationally by the Managing Editors Association.

HE'S HERE — That Senator from Washington is in town. He's none other than Harmon Killebrew, the Nat slugger who has been thriving on Tiger pitching all season long. The Senators meet the Bengals in the series opener tonight at Briggs Stadium.

Tiger Hurlers Happy Yanks Are Gone

But Killebrew, Samford Pose Similar Menace

Davie Faces Senators Tonight; Bunning 14-3 Victim of New York

DETROIT (UPI)—The Tiger pitching staff, happy to see the thumping Yankees leave town, face another menace tonight in hammerin' Harmon Killebrew and rappin' Ron Samford.

Those who recall Samford from his Detroit days might be amazed but little Ron has been the big man in Washington's attack at Cleveland that netted a pair of victories. He won an overtime game with a home run—his third—and banged another to lead the Nats to another win over the fading Indians.

The Yankees, starting to act like the world champions, cracked out 11 extra base hits — three homers and seven doubles—to sink Jim Bunning (5-4) and the Tigers, 14-3 yesterday.

The loss dropped Detroit to sixth, one percentage point behind Washington and one percentage point ahead of New York. All three are four and a half games behind Chicago. Jerry Davie (2-1) was scheduled to go against Camilo Pascual (4-5).

Washington's contingent viewed the game from the stands and manager Cookie Lavagetto watched from the press box. "Just wanted to see how Detroit beat the Yankees," Lavagetto said, "but I guess we got here too late."

Indicative of the tremendous change in the Senators, Lavagetto was talking of the game the Nats should have won instead of the ones that they did win.

"We were robbed of two games in a doubleheader at New York by bad calls," Lavagetto said. "In one, Jim Lemon slid across the plate and Yogi Berra tagged him on the chest and (plate umpire Bill) Summers called him out—yet, Berra went back and tagged Lemon twice.

And, you know that Lemon is a big boy—if Berra tagged his chest, you know Lemon's feet were well across the plate. It was obvious to everyone but Summers."

The way Lavagetto talked, it was obvious he wasn't thinking of a second division finish for Washington this year. And, on the strength of the record, the Tigers have to agree, at least for the present.

Detroit has managed to win only one game from the Nats out of five. In that time, the Senators have wrecked Tiger pitching and knocked 10 balls out of the park—six by Killebrew.

It seemed that Killebrew was at work yesterday. New York rapped Bunning for four runs in the first and three more in the third and Whitey Ford coasted the rest of the way. Ford chipped in with a home run—his first in four years—and a two-run double to ease the way to his sixth victory against three defeats. He scattered seven hits.

Hector Lopez, hitting at a sizzling .375 clip since joining New York a week ago after being traded by Kansas City, doubled in two and homered for two more. Elston Howard also smashed a two-run homer. Frank Bolling's sole blast in the fourth was only a drop compared to the Yanks' bucket full of runs.

Yankee Upswing Pleases Stengel

No Predictions by Casey

From Our Wire Services

Casey Stengel is pleased at the way things have been going lately for his New York Yankees, but he isn't making any rash predictions.

"We've won a few and we've looked better, but how long it's gonna last I don't know," Stengel observed cautiously as the Yankees arrived in Cleveland from Detroit, where they bombed the Tigers 14-3 yesterday.

"Four of our pitchers have gone nine innings in the last week, and it's nice to look out there and see that (Mickey) Mantle on base so often," Casey remarked. "I think somebody said today that Mantle has been on 20 out of his last 24 times up. And don't let me forget that Lopez. He's been getting me some base hits."

Hector Lopez, who came from Kansas City along with pitcher Ralph Terry, will be at third base tonight when the Yankees open a four-game series with the Indians.

The Yankees manager noted also that "those White Sox helped us out. You fellows (meaning the Cleveland Indians) had a chance to move way out, but they kept beating you. It would have been 'run, sheep, run' except for that Chicago team."

Admitting that he has not completely recovered from the dark days when the 1958 world champions were 9½ games out of first place, Casey recalled that he "didn't look at the papers for a couple of days. I didn't want to see how far down we were. I knew it was mighty low, though."

The Yankees now are 4½ games back and are in a three-way tie for fifth.

The Yankee series may not have been an artistic success for the Tigers—two losses and one victory—but it was a smash at the box office.

A total of 100,681 fans paid their way into Briggs Stadium for what should be the biggest series of the season. New York will be in again for a weekend set, July 24-26, however, and the Tigers will have a chance to break the mark.

Manager Jimmie Dykes said he'll use Paul Foytack (3-6) tomorrow and Don Mossi (4-2) Sunday against the Senators while Cookie Lavagetto said he'd counter with Russ Kemerer tomorrow and Pedro Ramos Sunday.

Southpaw Pete Burnside worked for the first time in a month and gave up five runs in five innings. Burnside, busiest Tiger pitcher in spring training, has been the forgotten man of the staff since the season started.

PRIZE CATCH — Andy Kosco (left) gets acquainted with Tiger outfielder Harvey Kuenn after the Detroit Tigers paid in excess of $60,000 to sign the 17-year-old hitting sensation of Struthers, Ohio, a suburb of Youngstown. Kosco was sought by all 16 Major League teams. He batted .700 in high school as an outfielder.

White Sox Take Lead on Triumph in 17th

By The Associated Press

"What we need," said manager Al Lopez the other day in appraising his Chicago White Sox, "is a spurt. And we could get it with some big hits at the right time."

Al should have spoken up sooner. The White Sox have taken him at his word. They jumped past idle Cleveland into the American League lead by winning their second in a row yesterday, defeating Baltimore 6-5 in the majors' longest game of the season with the big hit at the right time—Earl Torgeson's two-out homer in the 17th inning.

It was their sixth victory in seven extra-inning games this season, and their 10th success in 13 one-run decisions. Both marks are tops in the AL.

While taking a half-game (.007 percentage points) lead over the Indians, the White Sox also shoved third place Baltimore 1½ games back. Fourth place Kansas City fell 2½ games behind when Boston ended the A's winning streak at five, 5-2.

Washington, which moved up to fifth although idle, is in a virtual tie with Detroit and New York. All 4½ games behind. The Senators have a .469 percentage, the Tigers .468 and seventh place New York .467.

The White Sox did things the hard way, blowing a 2-0 lead, battling back for a 4-all tie on Larry Doby's single in the eighth, and then matching a 13th-inning Oriole run with Torgy's single and one of five Oriole errors.

Bob Shaw (5-2) finally won it, giving up four hits and a run in his five innings. Jerry Walker (4-2) was the loser, also in relief.

Gary Geiger drove in three runs for the Red Sox, two with a single in a decisive, four-run fifth, and the other with his third homer. Jerry Casale (3-4) went all the way for Boston, giving up seevn hits, one a solo homer by Joe DeMaestri. Rip Coleman (1-4) lost it.

Casa Mia 2-1 Winner in 7th

'Fat' Keith Gets Loss; Harrison's, Langdon's and Police Romp

Casa Mia put together three of four hits in the 7th inning to pull out a 2-1 triumph over Sno-Bol in the feature of a four-game city softball slate last night.

Loser "Fat" Keith had a one-hit shutout going until Charley Nichols and Don Moorhead slapped singles and Charles Reynolds belted a big double to clinch it — the last two safeties coming with two out. Bill Ruelle had homered for the only run before the 7th. Winner Roger Reynolds allowed just one other hit.

Roger Voorheis of Harrison's Grill blanked Blue Star 6-0 on two hits, Langdon's Boat Livery walloped Rogers Electric 12-2 in five innings and Pontiac Police whipped Drive-In Cleaners 8-4 in other games.

Voorheis had only four baserunners in his easy victory which was decided early. Bill Ligon, Don Gibbs and Bob Langdon combined for seven of Langdon's 10 hits. An 8-run 3rd put that game out of reach.

Al Foster slammed two singles and a home run scoring four times to lead the Police, Eldon Mudge pitched shutout ball the last five frames for the victory after trailing 4-1.

Beat the Champ Saturday

Golfers Have 'Their Day'

National Golf Day will be officially observed tomorrow when 1958 U.S. Open champion Tommy Bolt and defending PGA champ Dow Finsterwald stage their "Round of the Champion" match, an 18-hole head-to-head combat at Happy Hollow Country Club in Omaha, Neb.

The Bolt-Finsterwald winner will put his medal score against men and women amateurs from coast to coast who since last Sunday have been turning in their handicap rounds to the pro at their local public course or country club.

If your score is lower than the winner's total, you have officially "beat the champion" and you will receive a newly-designed National Golf Day medal from the PGA of America for your accomplishment.

Amateur players in Oakland County can still enter the competition through Saturday. All players will be entitled to use their established handicaps or any other authorized handicap system. Men will play their normal handicaps while women are allowed to use the regular handicap plus an extra seven strokes.

Results of the Bolt-Finsterwald meeting will be carried coast to coast over the NBC radio network on the "Monitor" program tomorrow afternoon.

This is the 8th annual observance of National Golf Day and the event is sponsored by the PGA. The entry fee is $1 with the proceeds going to golfing charities and other deserving causes.

Randolph Risks 2-Point Margin

SUMMIT, N.J. (AP) — Bonnie Randolph, Ohio blonde who promises to become a pro women's golfing threat after curing a "miserable" hook, risked a two-point lead against two of her closest pursuers today in the Triangle Round Robin Tournament at Canoe Brook Country Club.

The comely 31-year-old shotmaker, seeking her second tournament victory in five years of pro competition, teed off in the second round against Fay Crocker, who trails by only six points; Betty Jameson, seven points in arrears, and Marlene Bauer Hagge, who had a shaky start and is minus-10.

Miss Randolph gained a plus-16 point score in yesterday's opening round by shooting a par 72, one of the three par-matching scores of the day. She disposed of Louise Suggs, last year's Triangle winner; Ruth Jessen and Marilynn Smith. Miss Suggs was four over par and failed to pick up any points.

Chicagoan Sets Singles Pace for Blind Bowlers

CHICAGO (AP)—Robert Deane of Chicago took the lead last night in the singles competition of the 12th annual Tournament of the American Blind Bowling Assn. William Jones of Greensburg, Pa., turned in the evening's outstanding series in doubles competition.

Deane rolled games of 129, 192 and 160 for a total of 481. Jones turned in games of 194, 193 and 161 for a 548 count in the doubles. But his partner added only 200 pins for a composite total of 748 which left them second in that field. Harry Miller and Wortha Russell, both of Chicago, totaled 764 pins for doubles leadership.

Detroit Bonus Baby Kosco Had .700 Average

DETROIT (UPI)—A .700 hitter was sitting on the bench yesterday while the Detroit Tigers took a 14-3 pasting from the New York Yanees.

He was Andy Kosco, a 17-year-old outfielder paid upwards of $60,000 to sign a Tiger contract.

The husky kid from Struthers, Ohio — he's 6-feet-3 and 205 pounds —signed yesterday with scout Cy Williams. The Tigers have not decided where to send the young slugger, but he will remain with the parent club probably through the current home stand ending Sunday.

Kosco batted .700, with eight home runs in 11 games in high school the past season.

Golf Pros Help in Celebration

LANSING (UPI) — Four professional golfers will be in Lansing tomorrow for a golf clinic and exhibition match in connection with the city's centennial celebration.

Spectators will receive instruction in basic principles of the game before the nine-hole match. Door prizes will be awarded to spectators, Centennial officials said.

Mat Card Tonight

DETROIT—A tag team bout, a champion and a giant will be featured on the State Fair Agricultural Building wrestling card tonight.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: "It's either pulled shots or weak ones!"

DIAGNOSIS: Weight stays on right foot.

TREATMENT: Let me say quickly that the player in the drawing has just made himself a lousy golf swing.

I want to point this out lest a reader mistake it for something he should imitate—and also because I want it known that, although I was the model, I don't swing that way!

Here we see a player who has failed miserably to shift his weight back over to the left leg at the start of the downswing. Thus he's getting nothing much behind the ball to give it distance.

Robinson Supported

Ring 'Bible' Backs Ray

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Ring Magazine announced today it will continue to recognize Sugar Ray Robinson as world middleweight champion, even if there's a split in the title.

Still listing Sugar Ray as champion in its latest ratings today, the magazine points out that Robinson has been stripped of his title by the National Boxing Association—of which New York is not a member.

The publication acknowledges that when ex-champions Carmen Basilio and Gene Fullmer fight for the vacant NBA throne, the title will be split for the first time in many years—with Robinson champion in New York State and the Basilio-Fullmer winner champion in NBA territory.

Stephens Back at Work

BOSTON (AP)—Gene Stephens, Boston outfielder who has been on the disabled list since he broke his wrist a month ago, has begun workouts at Fenway Park. He did some running at the park yesterday and tested his wrist by throwing a ball against the wall.

'Fighter of Month' Title for Joe Brown

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Brown of New Orleans was named "fighter of the month" today after successfully defending his world lightweight title against Paolo Rosi of New York.

Rosi, meanwhile, failed to lose his position as the No. 3 challenger after being stopped on cuts in the ninth round Wednesday night at Washington, D. C.

In the lightweight division, Dave Charnley of England, the new British Empire champion, advanced from 10th to sixth place. Willie Toweel, who lost to Charnely, fell from fourth to seventh.

In the Ring Magazine ratings, announced today, Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., continued as Brown's No. 1 challenger.

SOX TAKE TOP — Earl Torgeson (left) hit a solo home run in the 15th inning against the Baltime Orioles to put the Chicago White Sox in first place in the American League. Manager Al Lopez was happy over the blast and the Sox standing ahead of the Cleveland Indians. It was the longest game of the current season in favor of Chicago, 6-5.

Teeing Off

By BILL CORNWELL

The Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department has announced its 1959 golf tournament schedule and seven events are on the list at Municipal course, beginning late this month and ending in mid-September.

Opening the summer calendar will be the men's 18-hole Best-Ball tourney on Saturday, June 20. The all-city team of Paul Bada and Ed Wasik won last year's Best-Ball crown.

Saturday, July 11 is the date for the Mixed Two-Ball Foursome event followed by the Region 1-B UAW-CIO outing on Saturday, July 18. Mrs. Zadah DeBolt, six-time city champion, will defend her Women's Medal Play title over an 18-hole route on Saturday, July 25.

The men take charge of the Municipal links during the month of August. Eighteen-hole qualifying rounds for the City Medal Play championship are slated Saturday, Aug. 1, with the battle for the city title set to go 36 holes on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 8-9.

Completing the season card at the Municipal layout will be the women's Michigan Recreation Association state tourney on Saturday, Sept. 19. Pontiac won the MRA crown a year ago.

The five city tournaments are open to any golfer residing in Oakland County. Entry in the union tourney is restricted to UAW-CIO members while the women's MRA competition is designed for organized five-player teams from various Michigan cities.

SHORT PUTTS

Joe Leslie, new assistant pro at Pontiac Country Club, will conduct a pair of clinics on golfing fundamentals next week for a charge of $1 per person.

A clinic for women players will be held next Tuesday afternoon from 1:30 to 2:30 while Leslie plans to meet with men and junior golfers on Friday, June 12, from 7 to 8 p.m. The public is invited to enter these clinics at PCC.

The Dearborn Country Club Invitational golf tournament runs today through Sunday and Pine Lake's 10th annual Invitational affair takes place next weekend, June 12-14. The 4th PGA-sponsored Pro-Am tourney of the season is scheduled Monday at Farmington CC.

Twenty-two holes-in-one at Oakland County courses have been reported here so far this year. Bald Mountain and Silver Lake are currently leadnig the "ace parade" with four apiece.

Chuck Koesis is expected to enter the qualifying rounds of this years' State Amateur tourney, but he probably won't go into match play. It will be a token appearance for Chuck who is one of the past champs being honored at the 1959 session. Kocsis, a six-time champ, has cut his tournament activity to a minimum because of business pressures.

Cepeda Leads Giants With 2, Gets 7 RBI's

Homers Beat Braves, 11-5

By The Associated Press

The job of leading the Giants in homers and runs batted in has been Mays' responsibility since he played his first full season in 1954, except for last season. That's when Cepeda tied Willie for the San Francisco team RBI lead (36) while winning the National League rookie award.

Now the big first baseman has left Mays behind in home runs and RBI — and it all began after he was benched with a .267 average.

Since getting back into the starting line-up May 16, Cepeda has been hitless in only three of 18 games, smacking six homers, six doubles and two triples and driving in 25 runs. He's hit at a 427 clip in that span.

The 21-year-old Puerto Rican really went all out yesterday, driving in seven runs, five with his 11th and 12th homers, and powering the second place Giants from behind for an 11-5 victory over Milwaukee that cut the Braves' lead to 2½ games once again.

Third place Pittsburgh moved within 3½ games of the top by rapping St. Louis 9-3. In night games, Cincinnati defeated Los Angeles 5-3 and the Chicago Cubs beat Philadelphia 3-2 in 10 innings.

Cepeda's big homer came with two on in a four-run fifth that gave the Giants a split in the four-game set.

The Giants pounded Lew Burdette (8-4), who had beaten them 13 times in a row since Sept. 16, 1954, and two relievers for 15 hits, ending the scoring on Cepeda's two-run double in the eighth. Gordon Jones (3-2) worked one inning of relief for the victory, although Stu Miller blanked the Braves on three hits over the last five frames.

A two-run triple by Bill Mazeroski clinched a three-game sweep for the Pirates as they scored four in the third inning against Ernie Broglio (0-4). Ron Kline (4-3) was the winner. He gave up 13 hits, but shut out the Cards, who have lost eight of ten, after the third inning. Stan Musial of the Cards tied Honus Wagner's National League record with his 651st double.

The Reds scored three runs in the first against southpaw Danny McDevitt (3-5), then put it away with a 4-0 lead on doubles by Johnny Temple and Vada Pinson in the second. Joe Nuxhall (3-3) finished with an eight-hitter after blanking the Dodgers on three hits until the seventh inning, when doubles by Gil Hodges, Rip Repulski and Ron Fairly and a single by Don Zimmer scored the Dodger's three.

A one-out triple by George Altman and Sammy Taylor's sacrifice fly won it for the Cubs against Gene Conley (2-3), who allowed only five hits. The Cubs were shut out on one hit until Taylor homered in the sixth.

LL Week Will Start Monday Across Nation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Thursday proclaimed next week "National Little League Baseball Week" and directed that it be observed at the same time annually.

He set the time as the week starting the second Monday in June for this year and "each succeeding year."

He said he was acting in observance of the 20th anniversary of Little League baseball.

The youngsters' leagues across the country have contributed much to a wider interest in the game and encouraged young people to "direct their energies in healthful competitive team sports," the President said.

Eisenhower invited citizens to observe the week in schools, parks and athletic fields with "appropriate ceremonies and activities designed to further the objectives of our National Youth Fitness Program."

Ex-Yanks Spark KC

A's Happy With Trade

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Countus a definitely stronger club," Manager Harry Craft of the Kansas City Athletics as among those "very pleased" with the latest trade involving the A's and the New York Yankees.

"Thus far the trade has made

The Athletics and Yankees appear to have gotten new spark from the deal of little more than a week ago. Kansas City gained infielder Jerry Lumpe, pitchers Johnny Kucks and Tom Sturdivant, plus another player to be named later for Hector Lopez, long ball hitting infielder, and pitcher Ralph Terry.

The Athletics are only 2½ games out of first place. The Yankees, in last place at the time of the trade, are just 4½ from the top, in seventh.

"Lumpe is fitting in real well at second base," Craft said. "The infield is beginning to jell for the first time as a defensive unit."

Craft said he's liked Lumpe since 1954 when the Warsaw, Mo., boy played shortstop for the old Kansas City Blues of the American Assn.

"Lumpe was hitting better than .350 when we let him go after the first month and he was fielding real good at shortstop," Craft explained. Lumpe was let loose because of the cut down date and he was headed for Army duty.

Kucks and Sturdivant, Craft allowed, are proving their worth. Kucks has won one and lost one since joining the A's. Sturdivant has won one here after two losses with the Yankees.

"Our bullpen doesn't have much depth and the addition of Kucks and Sturdivant have to help in that phase," Craft said.

The cautious skipper has all sorts of "high hopes" for the A's future but he prefers to hold off comment on the pennant race until the "dog days" of mid-August.

"If we are still within reach and still playing good in August then we'll be looking in only one direction—up," Craft said.

Midget Races Slated Sunday

Leading Drivers Run in 8-Event Program at Metro Track

A star-studded field of drivers will invade the Detroit Metropolitan Speedway in Mt. Clemens on Sunday afternoon to compete in an eight-event midget auto racing program with national championship honors at stake.

Many of the nation's most well-known midget racers, including the 1959 winner of the "Little 500" at Anderson, Ind., will run for the money around Metropolitan's half-mile dirt track.

Ronnie Duman, winner of the "Little 500," and Johnny White, who won the event in 1957 and ran at Anderson again this year, will be among the drivers in Sunday's field on the Metro oval.

Others include Shorty Templeton, present National Midget champion; Rex Easton, current Midwest Midget Circuit titleholder; Leroy Warriner, Art Hartsfield, Russ Congdon, Buddy Cagle, Larry McCloskey and Bob Reemsnyder.

Sunday marks the first time in more than 20 years that Indianapolis racers have competed on a half-mile dirt track in the Detroit area. Qualifying trials begin at 1 p.m. with the first race at 2:30.

Talbot Nine Bombs Nicholie 19-3 in 5

Everybody got into the act as Talbot Lumber piled up a 19-2 trouncing of Don Nicholie in a five-inning Class B baseball game yesterday.

Jim Brown paced a 17-hit barrage with three straight singles and winning hurler Dick Deschaine homered in the short contest. The victors also had a double and two triples.

Victory-less Nicholie garnered its runs in its last plate appearance despite making only one hit.

John Shadford, Bob Kenny, Bob Watts, Herb Quade and Joe Bechard will be among several area coaches conspicuous by their absence when another high school sports season gets under way next September.

Higher jobs in the administration will keep Watts at Southfield, Kenny at Cranbrook and Bechard at Troy.

Shadford drops out as head basketball man at Walled Lake but actually stays there as an assistant in other sports. Quade leaves a combination athletic director-golf position at Holly to work in physical education at Phoenix, Ariz.

Tom Purdy of Hazel Park and Phil Martin of South Lyon, both basketball coaches, will also be among the missing along with veteran Utica cage-track boss Art Harper and Clarenceville football skipper Bill Waters.

The Shadford change is among three moves being made at Walled Lake. He will be replaced by Jim Horein of Ball State. Bernie Stafford will take over track from John Koczman and former Michigan star Dick Schneider will handle wrestling giving Dave Smith a breather after football.

Bert McMahon switches from wrestling to basketball with system members Bert Young taking the mat team and John Hunting heading soccer at Cranbrook. Will Steinke moves up from assistant to fill Watts' big shoes.

John Mazera will move from Dundee to handle Hazel Park basketball. South Lyon's hoop job is wide open as Martin follows Dan Halling of Country Day into industry.

Carlo Muzi will transfer from L'Anse Creuse for the Utica cage job. Doug Stringer moves up in the ranks to boss track there. Harper will become a junior high principal. Waters resigned as head man to let someone else try to turn out a winner for Clarenceville. Lynn Nutter, his former aide, will give it a try.

Pontiac Central, Northern, St. Michael, St. Fred and OL St. Mary will have the same head coaches. Changes are expected among assistants. PNH athletic director Eldon Johnson, who was very pleased with the school's 1st year of sports, is still trying to line up two grid assistants. Tony Pizza, former St. Fred aide, may get one of the assignments. Gene Wright had been rumored leaving the Rams but he says it is just a rumor "as far as I know."

Jerry Laycock has resigned after a successful tenure at Alamont and is weighing a few offers. Lyle Powers will quit football but keep basketball at Imlay City. John Laskarides, his ex-aide, will be boss man on the gridiron.

SHADFORD

will do the same at Imlay. Bill Seltz will take over football at Millington leaving basketball to Harry Kern.

The Ortonville baseball job will be open with Harvey Fletcher concentrating on basketball. New head football man at Holly will be Ray Figg, brother of Oxford's Dick.

The departures of such other familiar names as football coach Ed Hintz of Clarkston, Holly one-year hoop wonder LeRoy Decker and many others have been mentioned on these pages during the past several weeks.

Champ Resents Inference of No Competition

Floyd Believes Past Challengers Have Been Worthy Foes

"I'm always learning," the heavyweight champion said at a press conference following a luncheon Thursday at which he was presented a golden crown. The crown was the gift of his manager, Cus D'Amato, and friends.

"I didn't feel good after the fight with Brian London," Patterson said. "This was a man who wasn't rated. A bum, they said. I haven't heard anyone calling Ingemar Johansson a bum, though."

There was an undercurrent of resentment in the champion's remarks; resentment against inferences that all the men he fought were unworthy challengers.

Someone asked if he was sharp, and a camp follower present interrupted: "He knocked down two sparring partners yesterday, so he must be sharp."

"They were bums also," Patterson said with a touch of sarcasm.

"They weren't bums," the informant said. "They were good men."

All my sparring partners are good men," Patterson said. "If any one wasn't, we'd get rid of him. I disagree with the idea there aren't any good sparring partners any more."

The champion, who will meet Johansson at Yankee Stadium in a title defense June 25, made a confusing statement concerning his bout with London. He knocked out the lantern-jawed Briton May 1 in the 11th round.

"I felt personally I was sharp," he said, "but I had to say I wasn't."

Patterson said he set his own training program.

Weekend Angling Outlook Is Good

Higher temperatures have brought increased activity from bluegills and crappies, calicos (black crappie) and other panfish. Big bluegills have been hitting on flies at a number of area lakes, including Union, Pontiac, Lake Orion, and Oxbow. Bass are also active at Pontiac Lake where they are legal prizes. Regular season on black bass, however, does not open until June 20 on other waters.

Good trout catches have been reported at the Bald Mountain and Fenton trout ponds, on flies. A 2nd plant of rainbows has been placed in the Bald Mountain pond this week, some 500 fish of legal (8 inches) size or better, improving the anglers' chances of good sport.

Bow-fishermen are beginning to get some big carp from area waters, as the rough fish are moving into the shallows to spawn. Many big ones are reported in Lakeville Lake, where a small boy was credited with landing a 40-pounder, a few days ago.

Claim Ring Gang Beat Promoter

LA Police Say They're Up Against a National Underworld Group

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Police said today they were up against a national syndicate in their search for the attackers of a fight promoter who claimed he had been threatened by "underworld boxing commissioner" Frankie Carbo.

The promoter, Jackie Leonard, 39, brutally beaten by two men outside his home Wednesday night, was reported in serious condition at a hospital.

Only two weeks ago, Leonard, a promoter for Hollywood Stadium, told the California Athletic Commission that underworld elements, including Carbo and Frank (Blinky) Palermo, had tried to intimidate him in their efforts to gain control of welterweight champion Don Jordan.

Meanwhile, in Oakland, another fight promoter, Don Chargin, told police today he received a telephone call, warning him to "stay out of Los Angeles — you saw what happened to your buddy."

75 Total Will Give Dawson Senior Title

The 56-year-old Palm Desert, Calif., real estate man, runner-up for the U.S. Amateur title in 1947, needs nothing better than a 75 today for his second straight United States Seniors' Golf Assn. championship.

Dawson shot a par 72 at the Apawamis Club yesterday for a 6-stroke lead over his three closest rivals competing in the second section of the nearly 400 entries. It would take a complete collapse by Dawson for any of them to whip the defending champion.

Sunnehanna Tourney Under Way Today

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP) —The sixth annual Sunnehanna Golf Tournament of amateur champions gets under way today with 34 golfers from 26 states and Canada entered.

A new champion will be crowned this year in the 72-hole medal play tourney at the 6,807-yard Sunnehanna Country Club course here.

Last year's winner Bill Hyndman of Abington, Pa., said he couldn't participate in the three-day event because of business commitments.

Calhoun, Tiger on TV

NEW YORK (AP)—Television fans will see a brand new face tonight. It will be that of Dick Tiger, the British Empire middleweight champion.

Tiger will meet Rory Calhoun of White Plains, N.Y., in a nationally televised 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden. Despite the newcomer's credentials, the 24-year-old Calhoun has been established as a 7-5 favorite.

Notebook, Stopwatch Top Aides

Scout Newhouser Likes to See Boys Practice

Hal has driven more than 1,000 miles in the last several days as a supervisor scout of the Baltimore Orioles, looking over high school talent in state tournaments in Akron, Nashville, Lexington, Ky., and the Illinois meet at Bradley University.

"I think the best time to watch a boy is in pre-game practices," said Newhouser, who combs a 10-state midwest area. "During a game you might never get a chance to see an outfielder throw, or maybe not even do much running. If he hasn't got much in these departments, then he has to be awfully powerful at the plate to get consideration.

"As for a pitcher, I rate his poise No. 1. If he has no awkwardness out on the mound and if he keeps his head under pressure, I'll keep looking. The next thing he has to show me is speed, and if he has any stuff on his fast ball.

"The curve is the last thing I consider. You can teach a boy to throw a curve or a slider, but you can't teach him speed."

Newhouser watches a game with notebook and stop watch in hand. He classifies boys as to position, age, height, weight, batting, throwing, running, fielding, and class in school. He times each batter when he runs from the plate to first base.

"If a boy can reach first in 4 seconds or less he has got legs," said Newhouser, who has been talent hunting for the Orioles five years. "A :04.2 clocking is good. Anything over that isn't much."

"As for bonuses, the Orioles leave that up to my judgment. After I study a boy and rate him in my book I establish the amount of a bonus I think he is worth. With me there is no haggling. I approach a boy and tell him honestly what the Orioles can and cannot do with him.

"I tell him how much I think he is worth. That's the price and I don't change it."

Broncos vs. State in NCAA Warmup

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Western Michigan's baseball team, winner of 24 of 30 games, will meet Michigan State this weekend before competing in the NCAA championships at Omaha starting next week.

The Broncos, come-from-behind winner of the district four NCAA playoffs and conqueror of such standout teams as Detroit, Minnesota and Notre Dame, have high hopes for the college world series.

They have three regulars hitting over .300, and an overall team average of .271.

Possibly the strong point of the team, though, is its pitching staff. Headed by Bill Topp, who has won nine in a row since an opening loss in the Florida tournament, the staff has an earned run average of only 2.16.

WHAT, NO FIDDLERS? — While firemen battle a blaze at Alcoma Country Club near Pittsburgh, an unidentified golfer ignores the proceedings and putts away on the green. The fire took four hours to get under control but it failed to daunt some golfers who continued their game, playing in dense clouds of smoke. So, as their Country Club burned, the members played, without Nero's fiddlers.

Littler Early East Leader

BALTIMORE (AP) — Gene Littler is building up the belief that 1959 may be the year for him to reach the golf pinnacle freely predicted for him.

The way he methodically stroked out a 65, seven under par, in the opening round yesterday of the Eastern Open demonstrated his game was at its peak with the United States Golf Assn. Open championship a week away.

The 28-year-old from Singing Hills, Calif., came up to the Eastern with one of the best performance charts of the year. He had three Professional Golfers Assn. tourney titles on it, more than any other tourist, and $15,936 for his best showing in six years of dollar competition.

It's the kind of performance which experts have been saying could carry him to the top since 1955 and 1956 when he won a total of seven tourneys.

But he failed to win between April 1957 until February of this year. He credits a tip by the veteran star Paul Runyan to change his grip with putting him in the forefront again.

Littler had absolutely no trouble solving the new Pine Ridge course being used for the $20,000 Eastern Open. He never went over par and was under five times on the second nine holes.

Because the two-month-old course had so many rough spots, the tournament running through Sunday is being played under winter rules. This allows golfers to move their balls six inches and tee up in the fairways or rough. Littler estimated it was worth two or three strokes.

Despite his fast start, Littler was barely able to make it alone at the head of the pack of the 130 contestants. Ed (Porky) Oliver of Denver, a 20-year veteran of the pro circuit, and Tony Lema of San Leandro, Calif., a sophomore without a victory, were breathing down his neck with 66 strokes.

Detroit Booters Eye Semifinals

DETROIT — The St. Andrew Scots begin a mission this weekend they hope will move them into the Eastern semi-finals of the National Amateur Cup and give them a victory over the Dundee Scots as well.

The Saints go to Rochester, N.Y., this Sunday to oppose the Ukrainians in the first game of a home-and-home total goals series to determine the Eastern Cup finalist.

They play the second game of the series at McCabe Field in Detroit on Sunday, June 14, which is also Flag Day.

New Boston U. Coach

BOSTON (AP)—John H. Burke Jr. Thursday night was named head basketball coach at Boston University in a joint announcement by President Harold Case and Athletic Director Vic Stout.

Burke, former MIT head coach, was picked from a field of 50 applicants from high school and college ranks. He succeeds Matt Zunic who resigned after last season to move to a similar post at the University of Massachusetts.

Tie Basketball Series

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP)—The North Junior College All-Stars defeated the South All-Stars 80-66 last night to even the series in the third annual summer basketball carnival.

The championships will be decided in tonight's games.

Pity Poor Golf Ball, It Gets Whacked

It not only takes a constant whacking. It is shot out of cannons. It is measured like Marilyn Monroe. And now it becomes the helpless butt of controversies on both sides of the Atlantic Ocean.

In New York, the U.S. Golf Assn. issues a 3-page directive to member clubs asking that they disregard claims of some manufacturers that their brand balls travel 15 to 20 yards further.

All the balls are tested indoors and outdoors by special driving machines, the USGA says, and they all go the same distance, no matter what the make.

If they go any farther than a specified distance they're against the law—golf law, that is.

The USGA adds a warning footnote that member clubs should prohibit balls which do not meet USGA specifications, particularly smaller balls. This is called "unsportsmanlike and a threat to the integrity of the game."

Cotton says the British should adopt the American ball—which is 1.68 inches in diameter compared with Britian's 1.62 pellet—because it demands "greater accuracy in hitting."

This stunned Lord Brabazon of Tara, outspoken World War I hero who is the expert on golf balls for the famed Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, ruling body of British golf.

"I cannot follow how a ball which demands greater accuracy in hitting is going to be an advantage," his lordship said. "If there is anything in the Cotton theory I will with pleasure have even bigger balls made than the 1.68 American ball."

The Americans and British have agreed on most uniform golf rules, but not the ball. The British play the smaller ball because it is supposed to cut better through blustery British weather. The American ball sits higher on the lush fairways of U.S. courses and putts better. Both weigh the same —1.62 ounces.

Cotton insists that Americans have pulled away from the British in golf since they introduced the larger ball in the 1920s. He pointed to the American's recent Walker Cup victory and young Deane Beman's conquest in the British Amateur Tournament.

But U. S. players, who had their choice, used the smaller British ball in the recent Walker Cup competition. The small ball, optional in international team play, is compulsory in individual events, such as the British amateur.

Firecracker Gets Blame!

DETROIT (AP)—Recorder's Judge Frank G. Schemanske figures a firecracker tossed at Yankee center fielder Mickey Mantle may have cost the Tigers a close ball game Wednesday night.

Mantle, unhurt, gave the Yankees a 6-5 victory with a home run in the last inning.

Commenting on the firecracker incident Thursday, Schemanske said "it probably made Mantle so mad he hit that home run in the ninth inning and won the ball game."

He was hearing the case against James W. Goodlet, 26, of Allen Park, accused of illegal possession of fireworks.

Goodlet was arrested by police at Briggs Stadium after the firecracker incident. He denied tossing the firecracker at Mantle saying he had taken five firecrackers away from several teenagers near him.

Judge Schemanske adjourned the case until next Tuesday when one of the teenagers, Goodlet's 16-year-old nephew will testify. If convicted Goodlet could receive 90 days in jail and a $100 fine.

49ers Sign Halfback

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Eddie Dove, speedy University of Colorado halfback, signed Thursday to play football for the San Francisco 49ers.

Dove was the 49ers third draft choice. He has run 100 yards in 9.8 and 220 in 21.3.

The 49ers plan to use him on defense.

Planning Is Key Skill in Gardening

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

The month that orings the roses is also the month most likely to reveal the gardener's planning skills—or lack of same.

The grass is darkening and losing that fresh, tender and healthy look that so easily deludes the proprietor of a weed patch into believing that somehow he has achieved something like the corner of a private park in Kentucky.

It's too late for the bulbs and too early for the tender annuals. And if the gardener finds himself with a neat, weedless border full of green leaves, a blooming rose garden, a fiery show of Oriental poppies and the last of the peonies, it's time for a little thought about a succession of bloom—next year.

The glory of the late spring-early summer garden is largely achieved by the helpful perennials, the undemanding plants which faithfully produce color year after year in exchange for merely adequate living room, regular feedings and a little loving care.

They are gloriously supplemented by the biennials, which are considerably more demanding of forethought, time and attention because of their habit of flowering, seeding and disappearing the second year of life.

LOOK AHEAD

Actually, by looking ahead, it is possible to achieve an early summer garden with all delicacy and color that makes the spring garden a particular delight.

Among the many plants which do the trick are perennial columbine—which are now available in special, big and very colorful variety, biennial foxglove and Canterbury bells, lupine, veronica, corola bells, balloon flower, geum. Then, of course, there are the irises—splendid, colorful and so easy to cultivate, day lilies, the pinks and delphinium hybrids.

This season, of course, it is possible to fill in the empty spots with well-established annual seedlings which can go into the ground without much setback if they are purchased in plant bands.

A more satisfactory procedure, from the standpoint of most gardeners, is to work out the problem this fall with home-grown perennial and biennial material, some of which may be started in seed beds early this July and transplanted later.

This is a time too when more than perennial flowers pop out. Watch the roses, spirea and the lupine closely for first evidences of aphids, the nasty little pests that drink the plant juices. They are easily controlled, however, with a spray of nicotine sulphate, with a bit of soap added to help it stick to the leaves and stems.

If you spot aphids on their favorite foods, start looking for them elsewhere—and almost any contact insecticide will knock them out—but make spraying or dusting a semi-monthly chore.

Also be ready with a fungicide for first signs of brown rot and spots of mildew showing on the leaves of susceptible phlox and hollyhock—particularly when there has been a wet spring.

Statuary Returning to Yards

Not real ones, of course—although the former might be pleasant to have around. We're thinking of the kind of stone or bronze.

There is a reviving interest in statuary such as graced the gardens of old. Phoenixes, saints, griffins and discus hurlers are once more emerging to add a touch of beauty and interest to lawn and terrace.

What one chooses — and how much of it — will depend upon the size and design of the grounds. A massive stone charger might fit in well on a large estate, but it would be a little out of place in the middle of a small lawn.

Generally choose a piece that (1) doesn't dominate but blends in with the surroundings; (2) is of sufficient interest so that one won't quickly tire of it; (3) creates a feeling of restfulness. Good taste and common sense is the best guide.

PRACTICAL TOO

For beauty as well as practicality, provide a level and attractive resting place for your garden ornaments. Ceramic tile makes an ideal base. It is colorful, comes in a wide variety of shades and designs to harmonize with whatever ornament you choose, and is weatherproof, come rain or shine.

Landscape architects can show statuary in a variety of materials —copper and bronze, terra cotta, parched cement, wood, ceramic tile, marble and others.

A statue can be a real conversation piece, too. When the garden party begins to bog down, a comely Greek goddess or antique bronze unicorn can do wonders in getting the talk started again.

Remember Next Spring

Last fall you took care to protect plants you were wintering over (like pansies) with a mulch of leaves. Don't let the first balmy day lure you into uncovering them prematurely. A mulch prevents alternate freezing and thawing which injures plants, and until hard freezes are surely over for the season the protection should remain. Remember this next spring.

CITY DWELLERS GARDEN — If you live in an apartment, two-flat, town house or other residence with little or no yard space, you and your family can still enjoy the fun of gardening. Attractive window boxes which will beautify your building's exterior may be inexpensively purchased or built in the home workshop. Space (and your landlord, if you have one) permitting, you can extend your gardening to the foundation area, also.

All-Purpose Spray Most Effective

EAST LANSING — Many people enjoy eating apples and peaches they have raised in their own backyards, says Alfred C. Dowdy, extension entomologist at Michigan State University. Growing fruit trees is fun, and it can help the family food budget.

But insects and diseases often discourage those who can't afford to put lots of time and money into a few fruit trees. Commercial growers invest thousands of dollars in spraying equipment alone.

So in the early 1950s, M. S. U. researchers started testing spray mixtures to control a wide variety of pests. Many commercial firms also began testing. Today, about 90 per cent of the state's backyard fruit growers use an all-purpose spray.

Several mixtures look good, says Dowdy. Three chemicals work together very well when applied once each week after the first sign of growth appears in April.

1. Malathion kills sucking pests like aphids and leafhoppers. It also controls some chewing insects. It remains effective for about three days after application.

2. Methoychlor kills caterpillars and other insects that cause worms in fruit. This chemical lasts for about seven days after application.

3. Captan protects against many common plant diseases like apple scab and cherry leaf spot.

THREE CHEMICALS

Dowdy says commercial sprays with these three chemicals can be applied safely until seven days before harvest. Several commercial mixtures with these chemicals worked very well in M.S.U. tests.

Growers with more than ten to fifteen trees may save money by buying the three chemicals and mixing them at home, says Dowdy. Mix thoroughly with water by stirring.

When you mix up one gallon of spray, use two tablespoons of 25 per cent wettable powder of Malathion, three tablespoons of 50 per cent wettable powder of Methoxychlor, and two tablespoons of 50 per cent wettable powder of Captan.

If you need ten gallons, mix in one and one-fourth cup of Malathion, two cups of Methoxychlor, and one and one-fourth cup of Captan.

As a rule-of-thumb, use four gallons of spray on a tree in full foliage that is 15 feet high and has an 18-foot spread.

Some chemicals other than Malathion, Methoxychlor, and Captan cause off-flavors says Dowdy. Growers must stop applying some sprays at least one month before harvest.

Compressed air sprayers with three-to-five gallon tanks work well on a few trees, Dowdy reports. A trombone or slide-type sprayer can easily handle three or four trees, while wheelbarrow sprayers have enough capacity for about a dozen trees. Larger orchards require a motor-operated sprayer.

HOOK ONTO HOSE

Some newer sprayers hook onto a garden hose. But Dowdy says such sprayers often work slowly. Also, hose sprayers may mix the chemicals poorly and distribute them unevenly.

Researchers are trying to find chemicals that will be effective longer than one week, Dowdy says. They are also experimenting with substance called "extenders" that may make a single application last at least two weeks.

Michigan's climate and soil make it one of the top states in fruit production. Home gardeners throughout most of the state have good luck with fruit trees.

Plastic Film Aid for New Lawns

AMHERST, Mass. (UPI)—Want to protect and speed the growth of seeded lawns?

Harold E. Mosher, Extension Horticulturist at the University of Massachusetts, says a clear polyethelyne film placed over a new seedbed acts as a temporary greenhouse, helping to retain moisture and trap the heat.

The simplest way to fix the plastic to the soil is to nail it down around the edges with four-inch-long, large-headed nails. Mosher also advises folding the material double along the margins to maks sure it holds.

New Chemical Kills Pests Without Special Equipment

More than flowers, grass, shrubs and vines are coming alive in the garden these spring days. The warm sun is incubating all the crawling, wiggling, flying things that soon will be dining off the fruits of the gardener's labor—if the gardener lets them.

Popping out of the thousands of eggs that were planted around the average home last year are cutworms, wireworms, white grubs, ants, and a little-known creature called a nematode. Once free of their shells, the worms, bugs, grubs and nematodes (rhymes with them-a-toads) wiggle over to an appetizing plant root and start feeding.

The worms and grubs take a good healthy bite, while the nematodes feed more subtly. Microscopic in size, they sink a hollow needle-like tongue into a plant root and suck out its juices. Some nematodes dislike the plant's concoction of juice, so they inject a chemical to change it to their taste. The chemical causes the root to erupt in knots, which is one of the few clues man has to a nematode's presence.

Deprived of the nourishment it gets from its roots, the plant withers and dies. The results of all this feeding are decimated gardens and brown, spotty lawns.

The home gardener can prevent this underground damage by applying chemicals that will trickle down into the root areas of the plants. For nematodes, which spend their entire lives in the soil, NEMAGON can be applied in spring, summer or fall.

This chemical, which comes in a dry, granular form, can be put on with fertilizer, or separately. No special equipment is needed. It can be used on all types of lawns. Most shrubs, vegetables and ornamentals except carnations, chrysanthemums and dwarf palms, can be treated while growing.

CONTROLS PESTS

To control grubs, wireworms, cutworms and other soil insects—except nematodes—Shell Chemical Corporation has developed an insecticide, called dieldrin, which controls many of these pests for three years or longer. It is made in both dry and liquid forms. As a granule, it can be mixed with fertilizer and spread on a lawn or flower bed. Either dry or wet it gets beneath the soil, where it kills the insects on contact.

Dieldrin also kills ants. These pests, besides being a nuisance around a home, cause indirect damage in a garden. This damage is done by the ants' herds of aphids, which are among the most destructive garden insects.

Ants raise aphids as humans raise cows—for food. Aphids produce "honeydew," a delicacy in the ants' diet. To get a good supply of "honeydew" ants move their aphid herds to the best grazing flowers and plants and protect them from their natural enemies.

If the home gardener fails to destroy the root-eating grubs, the grubs mature into beetles, and the attack will spread to above the ground parts of the plant. Comes summer and the grubs begin emerging from the ground, now grown into Japanese, June and Green beetles.

Dieldrin also will kill beetles. It can be sprayed on plants with an inexpensive hose attachment or a regular bucket sprayer. Or it can be applied in powder form. When applying it to vegetables the gardener should accurately follow the time intervals specified on the label.

Dieldrin is not sold in stores under its own name. Shell Chemical supplies it to national formulators who package it under various trade names.

SHAGGY BUT BEAUTIFUL — This big, shaggy giant-sized zinnia would be the pride of any gardener who had several of them growing in his yard. The zinnia species were first discovered in Mexico in the 1700's.

Good Summer Care Keeps Lawn Beautiful All Year

You'll have a beautiful lawn all year if you treat it right this summer, say the gardening experts. Just use your own common sense, add the tools and supplies that do the gardening for you, and you'll have a healthy green lawn—with plenty of time left over for the golf course, the beach or your favorite fishing spot.

Lawns look best when they are cut frequently and in different directions. If you mow your lawn clock-wise one time, mow it counter clock-wise the next. When you've found the best cutting height for your particular grass (1½ to 2 inches is suggested for most upright varieties), set the mower and keep it at that height. Try to cut often enough so that the shock to the grass is kept to a minimum.

For watering your lawn, most experts recommend thorough soakings. They say this forces roots down in a search for water. Light sprinklings will bring the grass roots to the surface where they'll be exposed to burning sunshine and temperature variations.

Crabgrass is one of the most wide-spread and destructive lawn weeds. Its matted patches choke out turf plants. So far, disodium methyl arsonate has been the most satisfactory chemical for killing crabgrass.

It controls the weed without injury to bluegrasses, creeping and bent grasses and other turf varieties. The chemical can be applied easily with a handy Hose-Spray attachment, such as the Antrol Hose-Spray Crabgrass Killer.

PRE-MIXED BOTTLE

This solution comes in a pre-mixed bottle and with a built-in sprayer head that attaches to any ordinary garden hose.

Broad-leaved weeds such as dandelion and plantain also can riddle a beautiful lawn in a single season if not controlled. But you can wipe out the pests with a lethal 2,4-D spray treatment.

The Antrol Hose-Spray Weed and Brush Killer combines this herbicide with 2,4,5-T for powerful control of the broad-leaved weeds as well as poison ivy, poison oak and other woody plants.

Several plant food treatments during the summer months are good boosters for most lawns, especially if a water soluble fertilizer was used during the spring.

Nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium are the main fertilizer ingredients needed for green color and growth of the grass plant.

Most fertilizers combine these elements in different proportions, so ask your neighborhood seedsman which is best for your grasses.

Trouble-Free Spraying

Three steps can assure trouble-free garden and lawn spraying. First, mix the spray solution in a clean bucket or watering can. Second, rinse the inside of the spray tank before filling. Third, strain the solution through a discarded nylon hose, stretched over the mouth of the spray tank.

Sawfly Rips Way Into Top Ranks as Birch Menace

The mark of sorrow for decorative birch may be a blanched, kidney-shaped area, usually apparent on newly unfolded leaves. This is the sign of one of treedom's most pernickety insect invaders, the leaf-mining sawfly.

That's the time to spray lindane or malathion on this leaf borer from within. The sawfly, so named because it saws slits in tender young leaves to insert an egg in each slit, sneaked into this country from Europe and was first discovered in Connecticut 26 years ago. Now it is well distributed not only in Michigan but in most of New England, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Feeding larvae spend one to two weeks eating their fill of the green tissue between the upper and lower leaf surfaces. Then the adult larvae fall to the ground and form a pupal shell an inch or so below the ground surface. Timely spraying to get at the feeding larvae is a must because there will be other generations of the pest this growing season, if neglected.

Nut Trees Appeal to Eyes as Well as the Stomach

Landscape "conversation pieces" for the home grounds that have taste appeal as well as eye appeal are certain nut trees.

These are the "Big Three" of moderate-sized trees for the smaller property which will thrive over a large geographical area. The ornamental nut producers are the Chinese chestnut, Persian or English walnut and the heartnut, according to Homer L. Jacobs, research director of The Davey Tree Expert Co. and a nut tree fancier himself.

If planning to plant at least one such tree this spring, the week-end gardener is advised to check specialized nurseries now for varieties that won't mushroom into horticultural giants. At the same time, the home owner should inquire as to proper transplanting techniques.

There are some difficulties in establishing such trees on new sites, but precise planting and care should overcome these.

The Chinese chestnut is a good back yard orchard tree, with many varieties as hardy as the peach. It will thrive in the same areas. It also is resistant to the blight that destroyed the native chestnut and grows to some 30 to 40 feet in height.

FAVORED FRUIT

A fine ornamental, the heartnut grows to the size of the apple tree and also has a wide climatic range—from Georgia into Nova Scotia. It has luxuriant, almost tropical foliage.

Wants to Lose His Pay Raise

Nebraska Governor in Skirmish Over Salaries Rejects Own Hike

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Gov. Ralph Brooks of Nebraska wants the Legislature to take back a pay raise it gave him.

It's for $3,000.

Brooks says he doesn't want it because he is opposed to any increase for himself until a systematic and orderly wage scale is adopted for all employes of the state of Nebraska.

The Democratic governor and the non-partisan Legislature, most of whose members are Republicans, have been skirmishing over salaries for several weeks.

The argument began when the Legislature passed a salary increase bill for some state employes serving under various elective boards and offices.

The governor vetoed that bill and said he was doing it because he thought the people of Nebraska had taken a stand on state pay increases when they defeated in the 1958 election a constitutional amendment providing for legislative pay increases.

But the Legislature passed the bill over the veto.

Shortly afterwards Brooks notified the Legislature he had taken a new view on some salary increases and would sign a bill increasing judicial pay, but hoped the Legislature would strike out a provision raising his pay.

The Legislature left the section in and passed the bill sending the governor's salary from $11,000 to $14,000, and raising supreme court judges from $12,000 to $13,000 and district court judges from $10,000 to $11,000.

Late Thursday he sent the Legislature a new bill.

Big Integration Suit Opens in Georgia

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—The first major court suit seeking to knock out segregation in the Atlanta public schools, Georgia's largest school system, opens today in U.S. District Court.

The case will be heard without a jury by Judges Frank A. Hooper and Boyd Sloan. Both have ruled against segregation in recent cases.

The suit originally was filed Jan. 11, 1958, by 10 Negro parents on behalf of their 27 children, but legal action and counteraction delayed the case.

The 10 parents are asking an injunction to prevent the Atlanta board of education from operating schools on a racially segregated basis. They do not seek entrance for any child in any particular white school.

If the injunction is granted it then will be up to the Negroes to ask admission to specific schools, indicating the possibility of further legislation.

Gains Wife, Loses Home All Within Two Hours

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—O. Lee Drake Jr. gained a wife and lost a home within two hours Thursday night.

Shortly after Drake, a bank cashier, and Mrs. Ilene G. Hale were married, his 6-room frame house was destroyed by fire.

Muskegon Mother Sees Sixth Son Join Navy

The pattern formed 17 years ago when her sons Howard and Donald enlisted together for Navy service in World War II. They trained as recruits at Great Lakes, Ill., and for a time served aboard the same sub chaser.

A new assignment sent Howard to armed guard duty aboard the merchant vessel SS Walter Gretchen in the North Atlantic. He was one of 17 crewmen who survived the ship's sinking by a U-boat torpedo.

Meanwhile, their brother Lionell had joined the Navy at the age of 17 in May 1944. He lost his life aboard the USS Hoel, a destroyer, in the battle for the Philippine Islands.

In June 1948, Charles E. Smith became the fourth of the sons to join the Navy. He served aboard a landing ship during the construction of a United States military base at Thule, Greenland.

The fifth brother, Alfred, joined the Navy in February 1955. After service aboard the battleship Iowa and heavy cruiser Salem, he was called home by his father's fatal illness in 1957 and completed part of his hitch at Muskegon Naval Reserve Training Center before being returned to destroyer duty. Alfred re-enlisted last week.

Starkweather Appeal Denied

Nebraska Court to Set New Execution Date for Killer of 11

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — The setting of a new execution date for Charles Starkweather, admitted slayer of 11 persons, rests today with the Nebraska State Supreme Court.

The court was to be in session and Attorney General C. S. Beck planned to ask the seven judges to act swiftly in setting the new death date.

The doors of the federal courts slammed shut on Starkweather Thursday when three judges of the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals turned down his appeal for a hearing on his request for a writ of habeas corpus.

The federal judges also refused to extend a stay of execution granted Starkweather May 22 so that he might bring his application before the appeals court.

3 New Avon Homes Messed by Vandals

Three newly-constructed homes in Avon Township were reported broken into by vandals yesterday, by Round Lilley, of the Lilley Construction Co., Rochester.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies said the culprits caused damages which will probably reach $500.

The first home, at 431 Red Oak Lane, was entered and more than $300 worth of birch plywood paneling sheets were glued together, deputies discovered.

Lilley showed deputies that paint had been poured into the disposal and also smeared over the walls and floor of the bedroom.

At 633 Red Oak Lane, similar damage from paint smeared on walls and floors was found.

Chicago Couple Claims Sno-Bol Cleaner Blast Injured Wife

A Pontiac manufacturer of toilet cleaner has been named in a $1,220,000 damage suit filed in Chicago yesterday by an Illinois couple who claim they were injured when a bottle of the cleaner exploded two years ago.

Mrs. Betty Jo Andrews of Route 2, Minooka, Ill., and her husband, Ardell, filed suit yesterday against the Sno-Bol Corp., 23 Chamberlain St., and the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.

Thomas O. Render, president of the Pontiac firm said upon hearing of the suit, "Sno-Bol has been on the market for 17 years and there is absolutely nothing in Sno-Bol that would explode."

"We have not been notified officially of any suit and do not know the charges involved. Therefore it's impossible to make any further statement until we find out what the charges are," Render said.

The Andrews said they bought the cleaner in an A&P store in Joliet on June 7, 1957. In their suit, they contend the cleaning preparation exploded the next day and temporarily blinded Mrs. Andrews.

The suit also claims Mrs. Andrews was permanently scarred by the explosion and that her husband was overcome by fumes when he tried to aid her.

Thompson to Receive Sentence Monday

Flint Teamster business agent Jack D. Thompson — the second man in the Frank Kierdorf human torch arson last summer — is scheduled to be sentenced Monday by Genesee Circuit Judge Stephen J. Roth.

Judge Roth yesterday denied a motion for a new trial for Thompson. He said, "The case was fairly tried and the determination of the jury will not be disturbed."

Thompson, 42, could receive a maximum prison term of 10 years on the arson conviction of April 3.

Thompson's two attorneys had based their motion for a new trial on eight major points, including refusal by Judge Roth to admit certain testimony.

The chubby, ex-convict of Flint Teamsters Local 332 was found guilty of participating in the Aug. 3 burning of the Latreille Dry Cleaners on the outskirts of Flint along with fellow business agent Kierdorf. Kierdorf died as a result four days later.

More high-speed railway trains are operated in the U. S. than in any other country in the world.

SOS Heart Society Under Investigation

DETROIT (AP) — The State Securities and Exchange Commission has ordered an investigation of a Detroit organization formed last year to appeal to heart disease patients.

Commissioner Lawrence Gubow ordered an investigation of books and records of the Society of Survival International (SOS) yesterday when the firm, organized as a profit-making company, sought to be rechartered as a non-profit organization.

State officials were informed SOS had been calling itself a "non-profit organization" in pamphlets available at Detroit headquarters.

The society offers to sell memberships with a pin or locket to carry medicine, and a card identifying the holder as a heart patient with a warning to call the fire department or police if the owner collapses.

Membership, limited to persons who have suffered a heart ailment, cost $12.50.

SOS was organized by Roger E. Lee, president of Rice-Lee Co., a Detroit tool concern.

Italy's Cash Crop Is American Tourists

ROME (UPI)—Americans traveling to Italy this year may be happy to know that, statistically speaking, they are: six times more important than all the fruit exported by Italy annually; three times more important than the annual export of automobiles, and four times more important than all the foreign currency sent back to Italy by all the country's immigrants.

The figures come from the new Ministry of Tourism which says that the annual invasion of tourists has become Italy's No. 1 money-producer.

New Dodge Car Called 'Dart'

Will Be Four Inches Shorter; Wheelbase 118 —6 Economy Engine

DETROIT (AP) — Industry sources reported today that auto dealers who sell both Dodge and Plymouth cars will drop the Plymouth after this model year. Instead they will offer a new small Dodge to be called the Dart.

Plymouth will continue to be offered by Chrysler-Plymouth and DeSoto-Plymouth dealers and by the less than 200 exclusive Plymouth dealers.

Details of the Dart have not been disclosed. However, it is known that it will have a 118-inch wheelbase, the same as the present Plymouth and some four inches shorter than the 1959 Dodge models.

The Dart will offer a new six-cylinder engine devoloped for Chrysler's new economy car, the Valiant, but the Dart version will be slightly larger. The engine is an overhead valve design, similar in style to the present Ford and Chevrolet six-cylinder engines.

Speculation is that the Dart prices will be in the range of the Chevrolet - Ford - Plymouth lines. Dodge will continue to offer at least two of its larger models in the so-called medium price field.

The Dart and the Valiant both will be built in Chrysler's Dodge main plant in Hamtramck.

The marketing plan ties in with the recently announced decision to combine the Plymouth and DeSoto divisions for sales purposes. Dodge and Chrysler-Imperial were kept as separate divisions.

The Dart will be the fourth new, smaller car to be offered this fall. Besides Chrysler's Valiant the others are the Corvair from the Chevrolet division of General Motors and the Falcon from Ford.

Business Notes

Gerhard Treffehn has joined the staff of Watling, Lerchen & Co., an investment and security firm with offices in the Pontiac State Bank Building.

TREFFEHN

Treffehn, 34, of 1180 Granger Rd., Ortonville, will serve as a registered representative of the New York Stock Exchange with Watling, Lerchen & Co.

Born in Germany, Treffehn holds a bachelor of philology degree from Heidelberg University, a bachelor of law degree from Frankfurt University, a master's degree in economics from Giessen University and also attended the graduate school in economics at Michigan State University.

Arrows Fell 2,600 Deer

LANSING (AP)—Archers took a record 2,600 deer last year, 170 more than the previous high set in 1956, the State Conservation Department reports. Nearly seven per cent of the nearly 39,000 archers afield came back with a deer, the department said. The bow and arrow kill boosted the total deer harvest to about 101,400, highest since 1952.

Rye Futures Lead Decline

CHICAGO (AP)—Rye futures with losses running to well over a cent a bushel, led another general price decline today on the Board of Trade.

Wheat and soybeans were down major fractions of a cent in spots during the first several minutes of trading while the feed grain eased slightly.

Brokers said the pressure appeared to be moderate but with general short selling rather than any concentrated liquidation and appeared to stem from slow acceptance of initial officers.

Yugoslavia bought a million bushels of wheat but there were reports that India had balked on outstanding offers and is calling for re-offers.

After about an hour wheat was unchanged to ⅜ cent a bushel lower, July $1.83½; corn unchanged to ¼ lower, July $1.25⅞; oats unchanged to ⅜ lower, July 63½; rye ¾ to 1⅛ lower, July $1.20½; soybeans unchanged to ⅝ lower, July $2.25¼.

Edison Customers Benefit by Rate Drop

The public service commission said some 12,000 customers who use more than 750 kilowatt hours a month would get an 11 per cent reduction in the cost of electricity in excess of 750 kwh after June 1.

Detroit Edison said it hoped increased use of electricity for home heating would make up the $115,000 annual loss from the rate drop.

The company said the 48 million kilowatt hours now sold annually is more than double the service provided in 1946.

2 Area Men Awarded Auto Masters Degrees

Two area residents were awarded Master of Automotive Engineering degrees by the Chrysler Institute of Engineering at ceremonies held in Detroit last night.

Pity the Poor Governors

Their Houses Are Drafty

WASHINGTON (UPI) Unhappy with your house?

Consider the plight of four governors as described today to a meeting of housing and redevelopment officials by Federal Housing Administrator Norman P. Mason:

The governor's mansion in Missouri is so drafty and outmoded the governor wads newspapers in the windows.

The governor of Kentucky, until recently, was suffering from so many "hot" wires in his mansion he was replacing fuses by the dozen.

In the Wyoming governor's mansion a section of the roof fell in, narrowly missing the cook.

In the Texas governor's mansion a chunk of roof fell in just as the governor was welcoming a delegation of women.

Food Submanagers Charged in Warrants

Two assistant managers of National Food Stores in the Pontiac area have been named in warrants granted to James McCollum, inspector for the Michigan Dept. of Agriculture.

McCollum said the first warrant charges Lyle Cole, assistant manager of the National Food Store, 8040 Cooley Lake Rd., with failure to refrigerate canned meats.

Royal Oak Twp. Jail Ordered Shut as Hazard

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP —The State Corrections Commission has ordered the closing of the Royal Oak Township Jail as a fire hazard.

The building also is used to house both the Police and Fire Departments.

Also ordered closed was the Eaton County Jail, built in 1837, the third oldest in Michigan, because of a too-small adequacy, lack of provisions for sergregating prisoners and poor security.

Little Change in Key Stocks

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved unevenly in moderately active trading early today.

Movements of key stocks were narrow, most of them within a 1-point range either way.

The market dipped slightly at the start with the ticker tape late briefly. Then the list steadied somewhat, showing a mixture of gains and losses.

Those who hoped for a strong rally after yesterday's sharp decline, the second this week, were disappointed. Concern was expressed over the strong indication given by President Eisenhower late yesterday that he may ask Congress to increase or abolish the 4¼ per cent interest rate ceiling on government bonds.

Lorillard continued strong on talk about a new cigarette it is expected to produce. It rose about a point then cut the gain.

Card of Thanks 1

WE WISH TO EXTEND OUR heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy, Masses, and beautiful floral offerings received from our kind friends and relatives during our recent bereavement in the loss of my beloved husband. We especially thank the Pontiac Fire Department, the Voorhees-Siple Funeral Home and the Metropolitan Club (Ladies Aux.). Mrs. Jesse Albert Bradburn and Family.

In Memoriam 2

You have left a beautiful memory,
And a sorrow too great to be told;
But to us who have loved you and lost you,
Your memory will never grow old.
Sadly missed by wife Margaret and Relatives.

Unique
Private Lake Estate

Good fishing. Sand bathing beach suitable for folks of all ages. A wooded hill hides the residence area from highway giving real privacy to the neat one story and full basement home built in 1951. Oak and tiled floors throughout. 3 bedrooms. Full bath —Den, living room with dining ell, modern kitchen, all on main floor. Outside door of large recreation room below leads onto sidewalk with lake's edge 30 feet away down a gentle shaded grassy slope.

Adjoining recreation room is another kitchen and semi-bath. Laundry room, fruit and vegetable room. Two tank oil furnace room. Sidewalk on all four sides of home. In back yard on the hillside is a roofed and cement floored arbor ideal for picnics. Many shade and fruit trees. 2 car garage on circled driveway by residence. Newly built drive branches off circle becoming hillside drive along shore of lake rising to center of estate flanked by 15 to 20 acres of hardwood hills. Near highway on lower land a hemlock grove on shore of second smaller lake partially on property. Two highways give northern and southern boundary lines with west line a railroad across lake from residence. Ideal for any family, also ideal for club or church group, with many sightly building spots between hillside drive and lake. Immediate possession if desired. Land originally taken up from Government in 1836 by late Senator Daniel Webster. Offered at $800 per acre with $30,000 down payment.

Summer Brings Same TV Fare

Picture Tube to Show Little That's New as Hot Season Arrives

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — The summer season is coming to television. There's more of what's old than what's new on the network channels. In the coming week you'll find:

Perry Como offers his last show of the season on NBC Saturday. His guests will be Tony Bennett, Teresa Brewer and the Four Lads, the stars of the summer replacement musical variety show "Perry Presents," which begins in this time spot a week later.

The Sunday interview panel shows are continuing. Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) is questioned about his labor bill on "College News Conference" over ABC. Sen. J. W. Fulbright (D-Ark) is interviewed on "Meet the Press" over NBC.

Steve Allen's guests on NBC will be Ginger Rogers, Steve Lawrence and Ingemar Johansson. Ed Sullivan's guests on CBS will include comedian Jack Carter, singer Al Martino, violinist Maria Neglia.

Monday on ABC "Shirley Temple's Storybook" will present "Dick Whittington and his Cat." This is the story of the orphan boy who went to London to seek his fortune and became Lord Mayor.

A sure sign of summer television is the fact that the perennial Mike Stokey's "Pantomime Quiz" goes night-time again on ABC.

"Goodyear Theater" presents "Christable," a comedy about the wonderful world of James Thurber on NBC.

On the Red Skelton Show Tuesday over CBS Anna Sten is Skelton's guest.

"Armstrong Circle Theater" offers "The Monkey Ride" on CBS Wednesday.

"Project Immortality" is the offering of "Playhouse 90" on CBS Thursday.

Gov. Long to Get Sanity Hearing

Expect Judge to Set Date Today Under Law of Texas

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — A Texas judge is expected to set a date today for Louisiana Gov. Earl K. Long's sanity hearing.

Probate Judge Hugh Gibson, who committed the 63-year-old governor to the protective custody of hospital here, hasindicated he would hear arguments on June 16.

That would be two weeks to the day that a National Guard plane spirited the fiery Long in an unannounced flight from the state capital. Texas law requires a sanity hearingwithin 14 days of a commitment.

The governor's wife, Blanche, and a cousin, Dr. Arthur Long, requested a custody order for his own protection "and that of others."

Just what the governor's course of action will be at the hearing and whether the session will be open is still not known.

Meanwhile, indications are that Governor Long has accepted his confinement and continues to improved.

Sen. Russell Long (D-La) told newsmen in Baton Rouge, La., that his uncle "might be back (at the capital) within a month." Long had just returned from Galveston, where he conferred with attending physicians.

A day before doctors at John Sealy Hospital, where Long is being treated here, said it was possible the governor would recover in two or three months.

Long has announced he'll resign as governor and try for a fourth term. To do it, he would have to quit before his term ends, qualify by the Sept. 15 deadline, and run in the December primary.

Olivet to Hold Classes as Usual Despite Fire

OLIVET (AP)—Olivet College will hold classes as usual this fall despite a fire which destroyed the 115-year-old school's main classroom and administration building May 29.

Gorton Riethmiller, Olivet president, said campus fraternities and sororities and Olivet residents have offered space or classroom activity during the coming semester.

Riethmiller said some classes formerly held in the 100-year-old Shipherd Hall which was destroyed by the fire, will be held in the Olivet Community Public School.

He said the college's Board of Trustees will decide Saturday whether to tear down or rebuild the razed building.

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI)—"The Killers of Mussolini," last night's CBS-TV Playhouse 90 drama, can be summed up in a single unhappy sentence: It didn't play well.

Writer Ed Hotchner had some chunky material on his hands in his study of the Italian dictator's final days, but he never really managed to pull it together into a tight dramatic package.

It was an exercise that proceeded in a halting manner — jerking ahead at a swift clip for a few minutes, coughing to a halt, staggering forward again, only to sputter to a slowdown.

To compound the difficulty, Hotchner's script contained several touches that bordered embarrassingly upon soap opera: a partisan couple (good guys) planning their marriage and future just before Communist partisans (bad guys) gun them down; a doomed partisan boy offering the doomed Mussolini some bread baked by his dear old mother; Mussolini writing a touching letter to his wife just before his mistress walks in.

These were cheap emotional contrivances, the shoddy ironies of a writer reaching out for the easy way of juicing a faltering story.

As for the acting, for a Playhouse 90 it was curiously disappointing. Nicky Persoff as Mussolini seemed strangely off-center all evening.

The character of Mussolini was obviously a complex one and Persoff never succeeded in quite delineating him: his Mussolini struck me as a crazy, mixed-up kid.

SHORT SHOTS: "I Take Thee," last night's NBC-TV study of marriage, was a creditable hour which seemed to run out of gas a little during its closing section — Mundell Lowe's background music had both point and push.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: CBS-TV has signed Sid Caesar to an exclusive long-term contract. Caesar's organization, in turn, has signed Audrey Meadows for all the TV specials he'll do for CBS-TV next season.

ABC-TV's Dick Clark will be the subject for the June 24 NBC-TV This Is Your Life show — the half hour is already on tape . . . Red Schoendienst, the Milwaukee Braves' second baseman who was hit by tuberculosis last year, will play an important role in a CBS TV Conquest show about the disease next season.

CBS-TV will offer a two-hour telecast of the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway June 26.

Senate Confirms Ike Nominations

Reid, Johnson, Gates OK'd for Posts With Little Opposition

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's nomination of Ogden R. Reid as ambassador to Israel and George M. Johnson as a member of the Civil Rights Commission have been confirmed by the Senate.

Both won approval Thursday on voice votes, with little of the opposition that had been forecast.

The nomination of Thomas S. Gates Jr. to be deputy secretary of defense also was approved. There had been no controversy over the naming of Gates, former secretary of the Navy, to succeed the late Donald A. Quarles.

Reid, 33, formerly was president and editor of the New York Herald Tribune. He had been recommended for confirmation by a 10-4 vote of the Foreign Relations Committee over the opposition of the committee chairman, Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark).

Fulbright told the Senate Thursday the nomination was "improvident and irresponsible" and said he didn't know "why the President should have selected Mr. Reid for this extremely challenging, highly sensitive job."

Among those supporting Reid was Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore), who fought the nomination of Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce to be ambassador to Brazil. Morse said Reid "meets the test and is entitled to confirmation."

Johnson, 58, is a Negro lawyer and educator. He succeeds the late J. Ernest Wilkins, also a Negro. Johnson, whose home is at Berkeley, Calif., was dean of the Howard University Law School here until last year.

A few Southerners voted against him but none of them asked for a roll call.

Versatile Bickel Heir to Chaney

New Man of Thousand Faces Can Be Anything but Midget

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Hollywood's new "man of a thousand faces" is a large, affable, Vienna-born actor from Israel named Theodore Bikel, who won an Oscar nomination for his portrayal of a Southern sheriff in "The Defiant Ones."

Producers here have tabbed him as the logical successor to Lon Chaney, the original "man of a thousand faces," because—as one executive put it—"Bikel can do anything, any accent, any age."

"The only thing I cannot be," said the brown-haired, 35-year-old actor, "is a midget."

He stands 6-feet-plus and weighs 205 pounds.

In an interview at Samuel Goldwyn studios, where he was playing a heavy in a TV western, Bikel said: "I pride myself on the fact that most people don't recognize me off-screen. It shows that I've succeeded in submerging myself in my parts."

His roles have included the gunboat officer in "The African Queen;" the Dutch doctor in "The Little Kidnappers;" the psychologist in "I Want to Live;" the Russian colonel in "Fraulein;" the French general in "The Pride and the Passion" and the German submarine officer in "The Enemy Below."

MANY TALENTS

Bikel has almost as many talents as he has faces.

Item: He is an internationally-known folk singer with a repertoire in 17 languages, six of which he speaks fluently.

His concerts are sellouts all over the country, and he has recorded six albums. Bikel, whose family moved to Israel when he was 14, said:

"It was an ideal hunting ground for studying languages. The people came from everywhere and carried their languages with them."

Item: He has a weekly, hour-long FM radio program, "At Home With Theodore Bikel." Originally heard in New York, Chicago and San Francisco, it now also has outlets in Detroit and at three schools—Antioch and Oberlin Colleges in Ohio and the University of Illinois.

"I do anything I want on the show," he said. "I sing a little, interview a little and give all sorts of opinions. I'm not a neutral, because if you're a neutral you're nobody, a nothing.

"The other day, the Democratic Club asked me to make a couple of remarks at a luncheon in Ciro's. When some of my friends saw the invitation, they told me I should remember my audience is made up of Democrats and Republicans. But I believe if you try to please everybody, you'll wind up pleasing nobody."

Item: Bikel owns two "beat"-type houses in Hollywood, the Unicorn and the Cosmo Alley. But he refuses to be classified as a beatnik.

'INDIVIDUALNIK'

"I'm an individualnik," he said. "I started these places so people here of all income brackets could have a place to come and talk.

"I don't bother with the details—my partner does. I just make sure no one puts in neon signs or soft chairs."

Bikel, whose father is a director of the Israeli Public Health Service, was co-founder of the Israel Chamber Theater in 1944. But in 1946, "Theo" went to London to study at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art.

If Eddie's Folks Visit, It Will Be Separately

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Debbie Reynolds invited Eddie Fisher's split-up parents up from Philadelphia to see their grandchild, Carrie Frances, and spend the day. They'll probably accept—separately.

WILSON

Debbie, who rushed off the other night with Bob Neal to cheer Count Basie and Ella Fitzgerald, later admitted that some producer character's sending her a single but different-colored rose each day. "I don't know what to do with just one rose," she said, baffled. "I just put it with my other roses."

Jackie Gleason announces "I feel like working!" — unusual for him — then says that besides playing the drunken uncle, Sid Davis, in the Broadway musical version of "Ah, Wilderness," he's going to film a new TV series about a B'way press agent titled "Jack O'Hara Associates." They're rewriting the "Wilderness" script, making him the star over Walter Pidgeon and giving him the top songs. (Confidentially, we hear he can sing better even than Ed Sullivan.)

Marilyn Monroe became a big girl recently — she turned 33. Incidentally, a friend of ours who saw a couple necking in front of him at "Room at the Top" discovered it was — Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller — Al Schacht claims Casey Stengel phoned him at his restaurant and said, "What do we do now? We're not only behind, but the opposition's got three men on." Schacht barked: "Why ask me?" Stengel snapped: "Because when you were pitching, you were always behind and had three men on."

You get a strange tribe of fans when you get as popular as Jack Paar. A woman who calls herself merely Lillian — "or Lillian Lillian for short," as she puts it — was angry the other night because he didn't mention her being in the audience. "He's jealous because he knows I'm going to follow Steve Allen to Hollywood," she said, "and so now I'm personal au gratin with him."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Rock Hudson's sore at his film bosses; they won't give him a long-term leave to do "Saratoga Trunk" on Broadway . . . The Steve Allen-Jack Kerouac album, recalled by Dot Records as "risque," will be released by Hanover Records . . . Jerry Lewis' pay for a Texas tour will include an oil well . . .

Mama Gabor says she'll open a health and beauty salon in Las Vegas . . . Stripper Sherry Britton turned down $9,000 job in the Virgin Islands because "it's too hot there." . . . One of Batista's sons wants to be a crooner, is taking vocal lessons.

EARL'S PEARLS: To keep your teeth in excellent condition, see your dentist twice a year—and mind your own business.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A Broadwayite claims he has a very fine waterproof watch. Any water that leaks in can't possibly get out.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: The moon has a powerful effect on certain things. for instance, it causes tides, and makes cars stop on dark roads. . . . That's earl brother.

Good Weather in Store for Most of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pleasant spring weather appeared in store for the major part fo the country today, with the usual threat of showers in some areas.

Precipitation during the morning was confined mostly to rain in the Pacific northwest and a belt of showers and thunderstorms from the central plains northeastward to the upper Mississippi Valley.

The thunderstorm zone was connected with a weak cold front which extended from western Kansas to western Lake Superior. Strong winds and hail hit areas in western Kansas during the night and gusty winds up to 45 m.p.h. were reported in a thunderstorm at Huron, S.D.

Showers and thunderstorms also hit areas in Arkansas and northern Louisiana during the night and thunderstorms rumbled along the Florida east coast.

It was warm and a little humid in sections east of the Continental Divide as southerly winds fanned warm moist air from the Gulf northward.

2 More Babies Killed by Plastic Sheeting

NEW YORK (AP)—Two babies —one in the Bronx and one in Staten Island — were suffocated Thursday by plastic sheeting.

They were Nancy Lynn Walton, 2 months; and Migdalia Perez, 4 months old.

A warning has been issued by the plastic industry that plastic bags should be kept away from children.

The Walton child's mother had left the baby asleep on a blanket. Beneath the blanket was a plastic garment bag, placed there to keep the mattress dry. Authorities believe the child tugged the blanket off the plastic and then buried her face against the plastic, shutting off oxygen.

The Perez baby's mother had hung a plastic sheet, also used as a mattress cover, at the end of the crib. The baby pulled the plastic over her face, causing asphyxiation.

The National Safety Council recorded 20 child deaths in the first three months of this year from plastic bags.

Bob Considine Says:

King Tells How West Sacrificed Yugoslavia

NEW YORK — Two pieces we wrote recently about pitiless discrimination in the usually sympathetic West against people who risk their necks by fleeing Tito's Yugoslavia have evoked thanks and a remote control response from that nation's exiled King, Peter.

The intelligent young King told his friend Kensinger Jones of Huntington Woods, Mich., during a recent U.S. visit, that Tito's hold on the West is so firm that he, Peter, finds it next to impossible even to visit countries bordering Yugoslavia. He asked that his thoughts be forwarded to me.

"Even in Greece, the home of my wife, the Queen, our arrival would cause celebrations that would be embarrassing to the government, so we can no longer go there," Peter told his American friend.

Kensinger, an advertising executive, has written a poignant account of an evening's talk with Peter, a copy of which he sends us. In a foreword he writes:

"It was primarily an informal occasion. But when a man talks as he did suddenly there's a sense of history in the room, and you realize that there's a kind of leadership that can't be legislated out of existence."

DRAMATIC ACCOUNT

Peter recounted his years of training to be King, the assassination of his father, his dramatic oath of allegiance to the Allies after his regent tried to swing Yugoslavia into the Axis, the Nazi attack, his escape to North Africa and later to England, where he set up a government-in-exile, and the stirring rise of the great guerrilla leader, Col. Draza Mihailovich.

And then the terrible days of batting his head against Yugoslavia's descent into Communism.

"The events are quite simple," he told his American friend. "The Russians made it quite clear that all Allied help should go to Tito, then secretary general of the Communist Party in Yugoslavia. Suddenly, Mihailovich, the hero, was a detriment to the cause of Allied harmony.

"Winston Churchill said, 'Mihailovich is a millstone tied around the neck of the little King and he has no chance until he gets rid of him.' I was still not of sufficient age to vote, had I been a citizen of the United States. My opinions didn't seem too important. 'President Roosevelt said of me, 'He's just a boy. Any ideas he has somebody has thought up for him.'

TITO GLORIFIED

"The British prime minister glorified Tito in a speech in Commons. In desperation I turned to King George VI, a distant kinsman and my godfather, a man who could understand my plight . . . King George could do nothing to change Churchill's mind.

"In a last attempt to state the case clearly, I wrote to President Roosevelt asking him to intervene and make Yugoslavia a subject of discussion involving my government in exile, the United States, Great Britain and Russia. I hoped to demonstrate that Tito was not representative of the Yugoslavian people but was an out-and-out apostle of Communism. The President replied 'Please accept Mr. Churchill's advice as if it was my own.'"

With Anglo-American support, Tito became boss of Yugoslavia. He ignored pledges to hold free elections, murdered Mihailovich after a mock trial, shot down two unarmed U.S. planes, scoffed at paying full indemnities, persecuted religion, killed the free press and has played both sides of the ideological war with great success.

Peter, who tried to stem the tide and keep millions of people on the side of freedom, lives in semi-threadbare obscurity in France today.

He is deluged with pleas from countrymen who have courageously made their way to the West only to be denied aid under the U.S. Escapee Fund and returned to their questionable fate back home.

"These people who risk so much to get away from Yugoslav Communism see no difference between their kind of Communism and Russian Communism," Peter told Kensinger Jones, "yet because the Western nations desire Tito's friendship, Yugoslavian refugees are called "Economic Migrants" and cannot get asylum. In a little more than two years, 40,000 have escaped. . . . " Many who have been forcibly returned have been shot.

It seems so damned unfair.

A new branch of physics which has come into being with the study of hydrogen fusion is "magnetohydrodynamics."
