

October 21, 1975

OAKLAND UNIVERSITY

UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH GRANT PROGRAM

The Oakland University Alumni Association has allocated $2,000 this year for the undergraduate research grant competition. All Oakland University undergraduates who currently have standing as sophomores, juniors, or seniors are eligible to apply. Application forms and guidelines are available in the Office of Research and Instructional Services, 212 Hannah Hall.

Those wishing to apply should file completed applications with the Office of Research and Instructional Services before 5 p.m. on Monday, December 1, 1975. Awards are expected to range up to $200.

OU NEWS

ROCHESTER, MICHIGAN

$5 CHARGE FOR NO-SHOW APPOINTMENTS

Starting November 3, 1975, the Graham Medical Center will charge $5 for uncancelled-unkept (no show) appointments and for appointments not cancelled at least 24 hours in advance to see the gynecologist.

This policy is necessary because, on recent occasions, appointments were made and a high percentage of the people did not show. The impact of this problem is that other people on the waiting list could have been seen if the Center would have had advance notice of cancellations. If there are questions, please call the Graham Medical Center at 377-2341. The center will appreciate your cooperation.

ALUMNI TO HOLD BENEFIT ART AUCTION

The Oakland University Alumni Association will hold a benefit art auction on Sunday, October 26. The program is open to the public. All proceeds go for student loan, scholarship, and research funds.

The 7 p.m. reception and 8 p.m. art auction will be held in the Oakland Center on campus. The donation is $1 per person.

Auction items range from $5 to $500 in price, and a certificate of authenticity will be provided upon request. Included are original oils, water colors, etchings, limited edition lithographs, sculpture, and prints.

Tickets can be obtained by calling the OU Alumni Office at 377-2158.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES TO MEET

The Oakland University Board of Trustees will hold a public meeting on Wednesday, October 22 at 8 p.m. in Lounge II of the Oakland Center.

ROUND-UP: SPORTS IN BRIEF

On Saturday, October 11, the women's tennis team lost to Ferris, but came back on Sunday to defeat Lake Superior State College, 9-0. This brings their record to 1-5.

Four soccer games in seven days were on the OU schedule. On Saturday, October 11, Central Michigan University tied with the Pioneers, 1-1. On Wednesday, October 15, they took on the fifth-rated team in the nation, Michigan State University, and were defeated, 1-0. On October 16, Albion College journeyed here, and to round out the week, the Pioneers travelled to Huntington College on October 18.

Coming events: Cross-Country GLIAC Championships will be held at Hillsdale, Saturday, October 25; Soccer, October 25 at the University of Toledo; Women's Tennis, October 25 at Grand Valley State College and October 27 at Eastern Michigan University.

BUDGET TALK FIRST OF AP SEMINAR SERIES

Fred Whims, chief of the education division of the state of Michigan Bureau of the Budget, will be the speaker Friday, October 24, at the first of a seminar series sponsored by the Administrative-Professional Assembly. Whims' talk, scheduled for 3:30 to 5 p.m. in the Clubhouse, will cover the state budgeting process, the short-term budget situation, and long-range budget outlook.

The series is designed to increase the flow of information to the administrative-professional staff on campus. All APs are invited to the seminars. A social hour will follow.

The second speaker in the series will be President O'Dowd. His talk on the university's goals and the Management by Objectives Program is scheduled for Friday, November 21.

FIRST UNIVERSITY ORCHESTRA CONCERT FRIDAY

The Oakland University Orchestra will present its first concert of the season Friday, October 24 at 8 p.m. in Varner Recital Hall on the OU campus. The public is invited at no charge.

Piano soloist Flavio Varani will play the Mozart Concerto in C Major, K.467. This popular concerto was used as background music in the movie "Elvira Madigan."

Varani is a member of the music faculty at Oakland University. He holds the artists diploma from the "Ecole de Piano Magda Tagliaferro" in Paris and the bachelors and masters degrees from the Manhattan School of Music.

The 45-member orchestra will also play a work by a native Michigan composer. "Etude for Orchestra" is by Fred Teuber, who grew up in Flint. Teuber is currently a member of the music faculty at the University of South Carolina, Columbia, S.C.

The orchestra is conducted by David Daniels of the Oakland University Music Department. Daniels is also conductor of the Warren Symphony and author of the reference book "Orchestral Music."

DR. BOZARDT ON RESOURCE TEAM IN NEPAL

Dr. Anita Bozardt, education, was invited by the National Education Association (NEA) to serve as the biological sciences resource person on its summer Teach Corps Team in Nepal. The team of seven was selected from six different states to work with the United States agency for international development, and represented seven different areas of the curriculum.

Continued, page 3

HOST ECONOMICS CONFERENCE

The Department of Economics will host the "Sixth Conference on Public Utility Economics," October 24-25 at Meadow Brook Hall. Participants to the program will come from Harvard University, University of Michigan, University of Detroit, Western Michigan University, Hofstra University, University of Illinois, University of Pennsylvania, Amherst College, The New York Times, and the Federal Power Commission.

SWARTZ PUBLISHES ARTICLE

Ronald Swartz, education, has recently published an article called "Schooling and Responsibility" in Science Education, Vol. 59, No. 3, pp. 409-412. This article discusses problems concerned with granting students more responsibility in an educational program. Swartz discusses his views in relationship to some objections that have been raised about an earlier paper he had written.

OKTOBERFEST NEXT WEEK

WOUX radio station and numerous other student organizations will be sponsoring an Oktoberfest on October 30, 31, and November 1. It will be the largest cooperative programming adventure ever attempted in the history of Oakland University. It will include three beer bashes with bands, a halloween party, games of skill, sales of goods sponsored by different student organizations, and many other activities that are relevant to an old time Oktoberfest.

Bozardt spent eight weeks working at Tribhuvan University in Katmandu. The summer was devoted to curriculum development and evaluation. Specifically, she worked for five weeks with professors of botany, zoology, and science education to develop courses for the Institute of Science and Mathematics and for the Institute of Education.

During the last three weeks, the Teach Corps Team and approximately twenty Nepali professors and administrators developed a framework for evaluating the total university curriculum. This evaluation is to be conducted by all institutes and campuses of Tribhuvan University throughout the entire country during the next few years.

WILLIAM WHITE PUBLISHES EXTENSIVELY

William White, speech communication, served as one of the contributing editors of the Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature for 1972 (Vol. 47), just published in England by the Modern Humanities Research Association, containing 13,044 entries. He also wrote "The Barber in Peoria": Nathanael West Views Hollywood" for The Detroit News, July 17; "How to Sell Samuel Pepys," Literary Sketches, May; "American Studies at Wayne State University," The Examiner: A Forum of Ideas, Fall-Winter; and reviewed Sanford J. Smoller's Adrift Among Geniuses: Robert McAlmon, Writer and Publisher of the Twenties for Choice, June. He also reviewed Martha Mulroy Curry's The "Writer's Book" by Sherwood Anderson for Library Journal, June 15; two books for the March-April American Book Collector, The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature and John R. Robert's John Donne: An Annotated Bibliography of Modern Criticism 1912-1967; and Oliver Jensen's Stories of Great Crimes & Trials for Journalism Quarterly, Summer.

In addition, Professor White covered auto races at the Michigan International Speedway this summer for The Pontiac-Waterford Times and wrote several book reviews for The Oakland Press. He also spent three weeks in Mexico City doing, among other things, research on Ernest Hemingway (translations and editions) at the university there.

AP SALARY TOTALS CORRECTED

The cost of a 1975-76 salary and fringe benefit package for administrative-professional employees is $194,873 and not $340,026 as was reported incorrectly in the September 30 issue of the OU News.

MASSAGE LECTURE

"The Art of Massage" is the subject of a demonstration and lecture by world-renowned Gordon Inkeles on Thursday, October 23 at 8 p.m. in the Abstention Coffee House of Oakland University.

Entrance will be free to Oakland University students. A $1 fee will be charged to all nonstudents at the door. This program is sponsored by the Oakland University Congress Concert Lecture Board, UniCon Productions.

TO PUBLISH SCENIC DESIGNS

Scenic designs by Thomas A. Aston, utilizing projected scenery as a medium, have been selected for publication by Brigham Young University Theatre Arts Chairman Lael J. Woodbury. The designs in this text are scheduled for publication in January, 1976.

The designs to be published in this text utilize the multiple image projection, specifically using polarizing fabrics for spectrum color alterations. These photos were in part the results of a production mounted in cooperation with Thomas Fitzsimmons, professor of English poetry.

DORIS SPONSELLER ON TV

Doris Sponseller, early childhood education, appeared on WWJ-TV's "Family Living" program on September 7. The subject of the half-hour panel discussion was "Alternative Approaches to Child Care."

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

OCTOBER 21-28

THE ARTS

- 21-28 "A Midsummer Night's Dream," MBT, Tickets and Times 377-3300
 21 "Cries & Whispers," SEFS, 201 DH, 7pm
 24 Oakland University Orchestra, VAR Recital Hall, 8pm
 24-26 "Lawrence of Arabia," SEFS, 201 DH, 7pm
 28 "The Thing," SEFS, 201 DH, 7pm

CONFERENCES, WORKSHOPS, DISCUSSION GROUPS

- 21 Creative Divorce, Clubhouse, CC, 7:30-9:30pm
 22 Careers in Transition, Clubhouse, CC, 7:30-10:30pm
 22 Rap Group for Divorced People, Campus Ministers, 19E OC, 12noon-1pm
 23 Ecumenical Worship, Campus Ministers, St. John Fisher Chapel, 7:30pm
 23 "Science is a Verb," Association for Childhood Education, 318 HH, 7pm
 24 Marriage Enrichment, Clubhouse, CC, 7:30-10:30pm
 24 Rap Group for Christian Students, Campus Ministers, 19E OC, 12noon-1pm
 27 Christian Faculty-Staff Group, Campus Ministers, 19E OC, 12noon-1pm
 27 Religious Sense and Nonsense, Campus Ministers, 19E OC, 2:15pm
 28 Transactional Analysis Program, Women's Potential, 126 OC, 1-3pm

EXHIBITS & TOURS

- 26 Meadow Brook Hall Tours, MBH, 1-5pm
 26 Art Auction, Alumni Relations, $1 donation, Crockery, Champagne at 7pm, auction 8pm
 21-28 Australian Aborigine Art Exhibit, Meadow Brook Art Gallery, Tues.-Fri. 1-5pm and Sat. and Sun. 2-6:30pm

SPORTS

- Soccer
 25 University of Toledo, away, 2pm
 29 Eastern Michigan, here, 3:30pm
 Women's Tennis
 25 Grand Valley State, away, 2pm
 27 Eastern Michigan, away, 3pm
 Intramural
 22 Racquetball Tournament entries due
 23 Wrestling meeting, Multipurpose Room, Sports and Recreation Bldg., 7pm
 23 Three-Man Basketball
 27 Racquetball Tournament begins
 27 Floor Hockey entries due at captains meeting
 28 Floor Hockey officials meeting, Multipurpose Room, Sports and Recreation Bldg., 4:45pm
 Cross-Country
 25 G.L.I.A.C. meet, here, 11am

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

- 21-29 Raffle tickets, Students for the Village, Charlie Browns, OC
 25 "The Art of Massage," Concert Lecture Board, Gold Room, OC, 3pm
 28 Poetry Readings, Concert Lecture Board, OC, 12-3pm

CAMPUS TICKET OFFICE 48 OC, 377-3580

Detroit Lions Tickets, home games
 International Student I.D. cards
 Senta Bus Tickets MBH Tours
 SEFS SET

OU, an official publication of Oakland University, Rochester, Michigan is published weekly during the school year and distributed free within the university community. Its content is under the editorial control of the Office of Public Relations.