Members, appointed for overlapping terms of four years, review and make recommendations on research grants in all areas of nursing education and practice, including studies of extended professional roles, model curricula, clinical investigation, historical research and institutional research development.

GUEST ARTIST TO TEACH MODERN DANCE

Denise Szykula, director and founder of the Nonce Dance Ensemble, will be guest artist-in-residence at Oakland University Sept. 8 through Sept. 21. She will teach classes in modern dance for Oakland students and the surrounding community. Community classes will be held Sept. 8 and Sept. 15 at 6 p.m. in the Dance Studio of Varner Hall. These classes are offered free of charge and are open to students and adults.

Denise has studied with Jose Limon, Martha Graham, Peter Salk, Lucas Hoving and Ruth Currier. She is assistant dance co-ordinator at the Jewish Community Center and has been on the staff at Marygrove College. Her residency at Oakland is sponsored through a grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts and the Oakland University Physical Education - Dance Department. For further information, contact Carol Halsted at 377-3190.

HOW TO LIST YOUR CAMPUS PROGRAM

During the 1975-76 academic year, the following methods for publicizing campus programs will exist: 1. The Campus Calendar published in the first issue of the OU News each month. 2. A weekly listing of programs in each issue of the OU News. 3. A bi-weekly listing of programs in the Oakland Sail, the student newspaper. 4. A weekly and daily listing of events on WOUX, the campus broadcast station. 5. A listing of programs on the year-long Campus Program Calendar located adjacent to the Department for Student Organizations and Activities, 48 OC.

All listings for the monthly OU News Campus Calendar must be submitted to the Department for Student Organizations and Activities by the third Friday of each month. Any program submitted after the third Friday will be listed in one of the other campus media. All departments and student groups are strongly encouraged to utilize these media for publicizing their programs and should call 7-3580 to have their programs listed.

The year-long Campus Program Calendar is a newly constructed means not only for publicizing programs, but more importantly, for assisting in the coordination of
