Group honors OU director of diversity

The Birmingham-Bloomfield Task Force on Race Relations and Ethnic Diversity has recognized Oakland University's Director of Diversity Sharon Abraham for her support of ethnic diversity.

The group enrolled Abraham, a Lathrup Village resident, in its Year 2000 Diversity Champion Honor Roll for her active support of ethnic diversity and the ideals of inclusion within an organization. She and other honor roll members will be honored during a breakfast at the Community House in Birmingham at 8 a.m. on Monday, April 17.

"I'm honored to have our diversity efforts at Oakland University recognized in this way," Abraham said. "It's truly a team effort, as we continue our commitment to providing a richly diverse student body and fostering the growth of a campus climate receptive to diversity and multiculturalism."

Oakland University is a comprehensive state-supported institution of higher education located in suburban Oakland County, Michigan. OU offers undergraduate programs in 74 areas and graduate programs in 54 areas. Dedicated to preparing learners for the 21st-century workplace and society, the university is organized in the College of Arts and Sciences and the schools of Business Administration, Education and Human Services, Engineering and Computer Science, Health Science, and Nursing.
