

SUMMER SCHOOL ON NEWS

July 11, 1970

SECOND ANNUAL STATE-WIDE COLLOQUIUM ON YOUTH

"Drugs; The Medical, Legal and Social Implications for Youth," is the topic of the second annual state-wide colloquium on youth to be held Saturday, July 18, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the Gold Room of Oakland Center. William Lucas, Sheriff of Wayne County, will serve as keynote speaker at the conference sponsored by the Special Projects Dept., Division of Student Affairs. The drug problem will be discussed in panel and workshop sessions. Also speaking are Thomas Plunkett, Oakland County Prosecutor, Detroit City Councilman Ernest Brown and Dr. William Burton, former Wayne County Coroner and now Medical Examiner for Oakland County.

CALENDAR

- | | | |
|--------------------|------------|---|
| Monday
July 13 | 1:30 p.m. | The Summer School Happening - Periwinkel Pie," South Cafe. |
| Tuesday
July 14 | 11:00 a.m. | Salad Buffet at Trumbull Terrace, $1.25 |
| | 3:00 p.m. | Reception for Dean Dutton, Trumbull Terrace |
| | 8:00 p.m. | Film - "Nothing But a Man" - Free in Vandenberg Lounge |
| Wed.
July 15 | 12:00 p.m. | Folksinger, Dominic Dresden - Free in Abstention |
| | 3:00 p.m. | Mathematics Film: "Predicting at Random" - Professor |
| | 7:30 p.m. | David Blackwell from the University of California at Berkley. Room 190 Hannah. |
| Thurs.
July 16 | 8:00 p.m. | Thomas Reeves, director of the National Council to Repeal the Draft, will speak on the subject at the Birmingham Unitarian Church, Lone Pine at Woodward. |
| | 8:30 p.m. | Meadow Brook Festival concert, Detroit Symphony with soprano Christa Ludwig (Wagner's Overture to Der fliegende Hollander, Siegfried Idyll, Mahler's Lieder eines fahrenden Gesellen; Honegger's Symphony No. 3 "Liturgique") |
| | 8:30 p.m. | The Happening, "Periwinkel Pie," Free in the South Cafeteria Oakland Center. |
| Friday
July 17 | 8:30 p.m. | Meadow Brook Festival jazz-folk concert, Herbie Mann Quartet and the Modern Jazz Quartet. |

ON NEWS

July 11, 1970

Saturday 8:30 p.m. Meadow Brook Festival concert, Detroit Symphony with Christa Ludwig (Handel's Water Music Suite; Wagner's Wesendoncklieder; Sibelius's Symphony No. 2)

Sunday 6:30 p.m. Meadow Brook Festival concert, Detroit Symphony with soprano Mattawilda Dobbs and baritone William Justus (Rossini's Overture to La Gazza ladra, selections from Il barbiere di Siviglia; Mozart's selections from Don Giovanni; Verdi's ballet music from Otello; Ker's selections from Show Boat; Gershwin's An American in Paris, selections from Porgy and Bess)

CALENDAR

Monday July 13 1:30 p.m. The Summer School Happening - Potomac Hotel, South Cafeteria

Tuesday July 14 11:00 a.m. Salad Buffet at Tumbull Terrace, $1.25

3:00 p.m. Reception for Dean Dutton, Tumbull Terrace

8:00 p.m. Film - "Nothing But a Man" - Free in Vandenberg Lounge

Web. July 15 12:00 p.m. Festsinger, Gennep Dresden - Free in Auditorium

5:00 p.m. Mathematics Film: "Predicting at Random" - Professor David Blackwell from the University of California at Berkeley. Room 190 Hannan.

7:30 p.m. Thomas Reeves, director of the National Council to Repeal the Draft, will speak on the subject at the Birmingham Unitarian Church, Lane Fine at Woodward.

Thurs. July 16 8:00 p.m. Meadow Brook Festival concert, Detroit Symphony with soprano Christa Ludwig (Wagner's Overture to Der fliegende Holländer, Siegfried Idyll, Mahler's Liedern eines Jünglings Gedenken Homberger's Symphony No. 3 "Lichtspiele")

8:30 p.m. The Happening, "Potomac Hotel, Free in the South Cafeteria Oakland Center.

Friday July 17 8:30 p.m. Meadow Brook Festival jazz-folk concert, Herbie Mann Quartet and the Modern Jazz Quartet.