

STAFF BULLETIN

ARCHIVES

March 24-30, 1969

Published weekly by University news service, 114 North Foundation
(ext. 2219). Deadline for submitting material is 5 p.m. Thursday.

PIANIST CLOSING SERIES The 1969-70 concert series will close Thursday with a recital by pianist Anthony di Bonaventura at 8:30 p.m. in Dodge Hall Auditorium. The program will include Dallapiccola's "Sonatina Canonica," Beethoven's Sonata in A major Opus 11, and Ginaster's Sonata (1952). Di Bonaventura has made six major European tours and has appeared as soloist with many North American orchestras, including the New York Philharmonic and the Philadelphia Orchestra. Tickets should be bought in advance from the Festival Office in North Foundation.

STUDENT CLUB CITED The Society of Automotive Engineers' national office has notified Dean John E. Gibson that the OU SAE Student Club has been judged an outstanding student branch of the society for 1968. A recognition plaque and $100 check are to be presented to faculty adviser Gilbert T. Wedekind and club chairman Bill Garrity. The OU club and the student chapter at the University of Michigan were selected among the eight student groups in southeastern Michigan to receive the awards, which are sponsored by Bendix Corp.

COMPUTERS AND PEOPLE Benjamin Cheydleur, professor of engineering and director of the Computing Center, will address an interdisciplinary colloquium at 4 p.m. Wednesday in 200 Dodge Hall. His topic will be "Interaction Between Computers and People." The colloquium was set up by the School of Education for persons who teach or study in the fields of education, engineering, mathematics, philosophy, and psychology. Others who are interested may attend.

AEC SUPPORT RESEARCH The MSU Board last week accepted a $23,040 grant from the Atomic Energy Commission to support cataract research under the direction of V. Everett Kinsey (biology), director of the OU Institute of Biological Sciences. Kinsey is studying the ocular lens in relation to cataractogenesis.

CAFONE GIVES PAPER Hal Cafone (education) read a paper before the 13th annual meeting of the Michigan Reading Association, held recently at Grand Rapids. The title was "Teaching Reading in the Secondary Schools: Research and Implications."

WRITES JOURNAL ARTICLE Virginia Morrison (education) has co-authored the lead article in Audiovisual Instruction for March. It is entitled "Strategies for the Application of Videotape in Teacher Education."

BOARD APPROVES 14 NEW OU FACULTY APPOINTMENTS

Fourteen new faculty appointments were approved last week by the MSU Board of Trustees. They included two professors, one associate professor, two assistant professors, and nine instructors. The appointments, by department:

Mathematics--William C. Hoffman of Corvallis, Ore., professor; B.A. Berkeley, M.A. and Ph.D. UCLA; professor at Oregon State 1966-69; mathematician with Boeing Scientific Research Laboratories, Seattle, 1961-66; also taught at UCLA and University of Queensland, Australia.

Sociology and Anthropology--Philip Singer of New York, N. Y., professor; B.A. and Ph.D., Syracuse; assistant professor at Albany Medical College 1961-66. Harry Gold of Carbondale, Ill., associate professor; B.A. Wayne State, M.A. and Ph.D. University of Michigan; on faculty at Southern Illinois University since 1965; previously taught at Rutgers and Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

English--Robert T. Eberwein of Detroit, assistant professor; M.A. and Ph.D. Wayne State, B.A. U-M; on faculty of Wayne State for last two years. Charles M. Broh of Shaker Heights, Ohio, instructor; B.A. Marshall University, M.A. Western Reserve; instructor at Western Reserve 1966-68. Nigel Hampton of South Willington, Conn., instructor; B.A. Livingston State College, M.A. University of Connecticut; graduate assistant University of Connecticut 1965-69. Helen Joyce Schwartz of Seattle, Wash., instructor; B.A. Cornell, M.A. University of Washington; pre-doctoral instructor at University of Washington, 1968-69; lecturer at Westfalische-Wilhelms Universtat, Germany.

History--DeWitt S. Dykes, Jr., of Lansing, assistant professor; B.A. Fisk, M.A. U-M; instructor at MSU 1965-69. Joseph A. Klaitz of Eatontown, N. J., instructor; B.A. Columbia, M.A. Minnesota; teaching assistant at Minnesota 1965-67. Colin A. Palmer of Madison, Wis., instructor; B.A. University of West Indies, M.A. Wisconsin.

Modern Languages--Cordell W. Black of Detroit, instructor; B.A. St. Augustine College, M.A. Wayne State; instructor in French at Hartwick College 1967-68. David Saint-Amour of Ann Arbor, instructor; B.A. Wisconsin, M.A. U-M; teaching fellow in French at U-M 1965-69; lecturer at Faculte Catholique, Lille, France, 1964-65.

Economics and Management--David P. Doane of West Lafayette, Ind., instructor; B.A. University of Kansas, M.S. Purdue; teaching assistant and instructor at Purdue 1966-69. Kenneth C. Young of Lafayette, Ind., instructor; B.A. Carson-Newman College, M.B.A. Harvard, M.S. Purdue; instructor at Purdue 1966-67; instructor at Western Carolina College 1962-64.

MUSIC OF OLD SPAIN Staffers interested in the music of old Spain are invited to a free concert at 8 p.m. Monday, March 31, at the International Institute in Detroit, 111 East Kirby. The Tuna de la Facultad de Derecho de Barcelona (student troubadours of the University of Barcelona's Law Faculty) will perform in lobas, manteos, and scarlet becas tracing back to 12th century costumes. The group has appeared throughout the Continent and has cut records in Spanish and Catalan for Discophones-CBS, RCA and Concentric. "Afterglow" refreshments will follow the program.

BOOK ORDERS DUE NOW Dave Bixby (Book Center) advises spring and summer session faculty members that their textbook orders are needed immediately to assure arrival in time for the start of classes. Call ext. 2125/2126 if you need order forms.

CALENDAR

| | | |
|-----------------------|-----------|--|
| Monday March 24 | 3:00 p.m. | Film, "The Building of the Bomb," Gold Room |
| Wednesday March 26 | 8:00 p.m. | Oakland Center Board presents a strip tease, Gold Room |
| | 8:00 p.m. | Concert Series, Anthony Bonaventura, pianist; Dodge Hall auditorium |
| Thursday March 27 | | Swimming--NCAA championships, Bloomington, Indiana (runs through Saturday) |
| Friday March 28 | 8:00 p.m. | Film, "Alfie," 156 North Foundation (reshown at 10) |
| | 8:15 p.m. | University Chorus concert |
| Saturday March 29 | 7:30 p.m. | Chancellor's Ball dinner, Kingsley Inn |
| | 8:00 p.m. | Film, "Alfie," 156 North Foundation |
| | 9:30 p.m. | Chancellor's Ball dance, Kingsley Inn |
| Sunday March 30 | 8:00 p.m. | Film, "Alfie," 156 North Foundation |

At Meadow Brook Theatre through April 13, Jean Giradoux's "Amphitryon '38." Performances Tuesday through Saturday at 8:15 p.m.; Sunday at 6:30 p.m.; matinees Wednesday and Thursday at 2 p.m.