DIRECTORIES: Copies of the Pontiac area telephone directory and yellow pages are available at the Switchboard Office, for anyone who needs them.

Mr. David Jones' new extension number is 2286.

TEXTS FOR SUMMER: Order blanks for summer-term textbooks are available at the Stenographic Department, North Foundation Hall. Faculty members who are planning to teach summer classes should order books no later than May 15.

CONTINUING EDUCATION: Mr. Eklund has just returned from New York where he represented the National Adult Education Conference. He and Mr. Rhode will be spending two days in Ann Arbor this week at the Adult Education Association of which Mr. Eklund is chairman of the committee on liberal arts programs.

On Monday, April 24, the Clergy Friends of MSUO will co-sponsor, with Continuing Education, an all-day institute, "How to Minister to Family Situations." They are bringing Dr. J. C. Wynn, formerly director of family research for the Presbyterian Church and now professor at Colgate Rochester Divinity School, to speak. Ministers' wives are also being invited and they will meet in the morning with Dr. Donald Schroeder, Director of the Family Life Center, Detroit Council of Churches. There will be a dinner at the University Presbyterian Church.

LECTURE: Free tickets for the May 5 talk by Wernher Von Braun must be picked up no later than 5 p.m. today (Friday, April 21) at the Student Center Desk. After students, faculty, and staff have obtained free tickets, the remainder of the supply will go on public sale at $1 each.
