New "SAGA" In O.U. Cooking Appears

Oakland University went through a transition of sorts this summer. Gone was Szabo Food and inserted was Saga Food Service.

The Saga Corporation had its eyes on O.U. for three years. When Szabo's contract ran out in June, it put in a bid and now is here to make a go of food service.

Saga arrives with some pretty interesting credentials. This is an anniversary year for Saga-25 years in the business. They now cater to over 285 college and educational outlets in 50 states and Puerto Rico

FOCUS talked to Jerry Gurss, who is the man in charge of Saga Food Service at O.U., and he said he has nothing but respect for the O.U. campus. Saga has had "good cooperation" from the local union and their devotion drew good remarks from Mr. Gurss.

In the not too distant future he said, we can look for suggestion boxes in the dining halls and the reformation of a student Food Committee.

THE LADY IS NOT FOR BURNING, Christopher Fry's delightful poetic comedy, will be the next offering at the Barn Theatre, Oakland University, Rochester, Michigan.

Set in England of the 1400's, this saucy comedy reveals the romantic story of Jennet Jourdemayne, falsely accused of being a witch, and Thomas Mendip, a soldier recently released from the seven year crusades of Flanders. This poetic fantasy of rare splendor and delight has charmed audiences with its works of magical humor and deep beauty since its first production in 1948.

THE LADY IS NOT FOR BURNING will run September 14, 15, and 16 with an 8:30 curtain. Ticket information and group sales may be arranged by calling 377-2245.

Summer Congress Summed Up

Congress initiated two courses of action for students during the past summer. One consisted of social activities for students on campus and the other consisted of gaining a ground floor for a viable Congress.

Wednesday afternoons became giveaway afternoons for students attending summer classes. Concert Lecture Series with student organizations offered students delectable treats including ice cream, shortcake and watermelon. Rock concerts were also given.

Summer Congress Summed Up

"CONGRESS THOUGHT THIS YEAR. IT IS PLANNING A SEMINAR FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS, A MAJOR CONCERT....."

Since past congresses have had little respect from the student body or anyone else, Congress spent time building itself up. (Unfortunately some of this building up included buying carpeting for their office to make it more respectable, and organizing the Congress further.

Congress thought this summer. It is planning a seminar for high school students, a major concert for students, and a growing closeness with the administration.

Congress is trying to grow into an organization that works for students, and not one that just swallows up student funds.

Perhaps it will be that organization it was intended to be...this fall will tell.

Oakland Hosts Consumer Advocates

Joe Tuchinsky and Doug Ross, two of Michigan's leading consumer advocates will speak at Oakland in September.

Ross, head of the Michigan Citizen's Lobby, will appear a week later at the same time and place.

Tuchinsky, executive director of the Public Interest Research Group in Michigan (PIRGIM), will speak in the Gold Room of the Oakland Center, September 19 at 2 p.m.

Both PIRGIM and Michigan Citizen's Lobby have been actively involved in almost all aspects of the consumer movement.

Peterson New Oso Assistant

W. Timothy Peterson, 29, has been named as a second assistant director of the Office of Student Organizations, Dudley Woodard, dean of Student Life, has announced. The appointment is effective immediately.

Peterson and Cindy Livingston, a member of the staff since March of 1973, share responsibilities as co-assistant directors and report to Ingo Dutzmann, coordinator of Student Organizations, Woodard explained.

Peterson since 1971 has been minister of 1st Church of Perth Amboy, N. J. He holds an A.A. degree in liberal arts from Gardner Webb College, a B.A. degree from Wake Forest University, and a M. Div. degree in community ministry from Crozer Theological Seminary.

Peterson resides in Rochester, Michigan.

New SAGA

from page one and because of the beef crisis, roast beef will be seen on fewer occasions.

On a recent survey taken by this reporter and a few others; 70% of the dorm and commuter people favor the new food service with 20% against and 10% undecided.

O.U. has gone through a number of food services in the past few years and time will tell if Saga will be added to the already growing list of by-gone food services.

Your Brand of Peace - Karma

TRANSCENDENTAL MEDITATION is practiced for a few minutes morning and evening as one sits comfortably with eyes closed. During this time the mind experiences subtler states of thought as physiological changes occur which correspond to this refined mental activity. Scientific investigation has found that during the period of Transcendental Meditation, oxygen consumption, carbon dioxide elimination, cardiac output, heart rate and respiratory rate significantly decrease.

S.I.M.S., Students' International Meditation Society is presenting a lecture on Transcendental Meditation and its benefits. The lecture will take place on Sept. 20th at 2:00 and at 7:30 p.m. in the Gold Room C. For further information call 642-4444.
