SIX EIGHTY-FIVE

A few members from the Student Committee for 685 have been invited to witness the voting of Bill 685 in Lansing this Thursday at 10:30 A.M. According to Marty Reisig, it is doubtful that the bill will pass.

ASHES TO ASHES

The dedication for the Fitz fireplace is set tentatively for this Sunday, Dec. 12.

INQUIRING REPORTER

What do you suggest be done to improve the food served to residents?

Jim Batchelor: They could start by putting more seasoning in the food.

Bruce Chadwick: Have more parents' days.

DORM COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS

Men's Conduct Committee has started to draw up a constitution.

Food Service Committee members will be working with Mr. Goodwin in planning the menu. If you have any suggestions feel free to give them to Jim Conboy (112, Dorm Phyve) or Dave Ward (210 Pryale).

The Dormitory Council will be sponsoring rides to Willow Run and Metropolitan Airports for out of state
(cont'd p. 1, col. 2)

EDITORIAL

I would like to apologize for my foolish Nov. 8th Vietnam editorial. I said nothing worth writing, much less reading. It had the appearance and content of a filler.

FITZ MEN ORGANIZE PROTEST

A group of Fitzites were watching a fabulously weird game of football between the Chicago Bears and the Baltimore Colts when, out of the clear grey sky, WJBK decided to switch to a less interesting game between the Detroit Lions and the San Francisco 49ers. And, of course, no Fitzite in his right mind would stand for this. Thus, they organized and made a collect phone call to WJBK. Fortunately for WJBK, the line was busy...for some 25 minutes. WJBK was finally reached by us and a complaint was duly registered by our spokesman, Hal Shanafield.

Girls

by Nezzie Kicapoux

Strange that I have never seen a tree

That's like a submarine.

But what a pity that there shan't be

A girl that is like a tree.

What a jinx that they have been too much like a submarine.

Editor's note: This is one of Nezzie's deeper ones.
