ACCOLADES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Michael Reed To Start New Job at Awecomm Technologies in Troy

After more than two years of dedicated service as a student employee, Michael Reed will be leaving SEHS for Awecomm Technologies in Troy, where he will be working as a Level 1 computer technician. During his time with SEHS, Reed has worked as a receptionist for the SEHS Counseling Center and, most recently, as a technology assistant in the Dean's Office.

While we are sad to see Reed depart SEHS, we are beyond grateful for all of his hard work and are very proud of his accomplishments. We wish him all the best in his future endeavors!

Congratulations, Reed!

Chaunda Scott Honored with Monica E. Emerson Diversity Award

Dr. Chaunda Scott, associate professor in the Department of Organizational Leadership, was recently named the 2020 recipient of the Monica E. Emerson Diversity Award for her significant achievements in the areas of diversity, equity and inclusion at Oakland University. She will be honored at the OU Leaders of Change Luncheon on Tuesday, March 17.

For more information on the award, visit the OU website.

Congratulations, Chaunda!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Faircloth Evening of Medical Humanism — Monday, March 2

Join Oakland University William Beaumont School of Medicine and SEHS for an evening of medical humanism on Monday, March 2 from 6–8 p.m. in the Oakland Center Banquet Rooms.

Special guest Hedy Wald, Ph.D., clinical professor of family medicine at Alpert Medical School of Brown University and faculty member at Harvard Medical School Global Pediatrics Leadership Program, will present “Holocaust and Medicine Education for Humanistic Professional Identity Formation: A Holocaust Survivor’s Daughter Teaches German Medical Students at Auschwitz — My Story.”

Through the lens of a medical educator and a daughter of a Holocaust survivor, Dr. Wald will share the story of her collaboration with Witten/Herdecke University Faculty of Health in Germany and its course for medical and psychology students, which included a study excursion to Auschwitz-Birkenau. Dr. Wald will discuss her development of an integrative health humanities curriculum of guided reflective writing, meditation, poetry, literature, art and music for this course and positive feedback on its impact.

Following dinner and the guest presentation, OUWB medical students and Beaumont Health residents will be inducted into the Gold Humanism Honor Society. The society is a national association that recognizes students and medical professionals who are exemplars of compassionate patient care and leadership.

The Faircloth Evening of Medical Humanism is a collaboration between OUWB and the SEHS Department of Counseling. It represents our deeply held commitment to the humanistic aspects of patient care.

Leading Your Business: How to Turn Chaos into Value — Tuesday, March 10

Dr. Shannon Flumerfelt, associate professor in the Department of Organizational Leadership, will be co-facilitating a seminar for growth stage businesses with Stephanie Potter, small business counselor with Oakland County’s One Stop Shop Business Center. The event will be held in the L. Brooks Patterson Executive Office Building Conference Center in Waterford from 1–3 p.m. on Tuesday, March 10. The goal of the seminar is to identify, categorize, understand and eliminate chaos in a company, replacing it with value for both employees and customers.

This event is free to attend, but you must register online in advance. For questions, please contact Stephanie Potter at pottersa@oakgov.com or (248) 858-1028. Additional information is available in the event flyer.

Propping Up Children's Literature Experiences — Wednesday, March 11

The ERL is pleased to host an engaging Evening in the ERL on March 11, 2020 from 5:30–7:30 p.m. entitled Propping Up Children's Literature Experiences. Margaret Mudge, lead teacher at the Lowry Center for Early Childhood Education, will explore the benefits of using props while reading books with young children. She will discuss how to select developmentally appropriate books, create usable props and incorporate early childhood standards. There will be giveaways thanks to funding provided by the Jerry and Annette Johns Foundation.

If you are interested in attending the event, please register online.
