

OAKLAND NEWS

Official publication of Oakland University, Rochester, Michigan 48063, is published weekly during the school year and distributed free within the university community by the Office of News Services and Publications, 269 South Foundation Hall, 313 - 377-3180. Its content is under the editorial control of the Office of University Relations.

April 24, 1973

MRS. RUTH ADAMS APPOINTED OU TRUSTEE

Mrs. Charles F. (Ruth H.) Adams of Birmingham was named by Gov. William Milliken to the Oakland University Board of Trustees last Tuesday. She succeeds Mrs. Roger M. (Helen G.) Kyes who resigned. Mrs. Adam's appointment, which is subject to Senate confirmation, is for the remainder of Mrs. Kyes' term which expires August 11, 1974.

"I couldn't be more pleased with Gov. Milliken's appointment," OU Pres. Donald D. O'Dowd stated. "Ruth Adams is a long-time friend of Oakland University and knowledgeable in the fields of business and higher education. I know she will bring important insights with her in her role as the newest member of the Board of Trustees."

Mrs. Adams is the wife of Charles F. Adams, president of the MacManus Division of D'Arcy-MacManus & Masius, Inc. She is the mother of four children, three of them attending various universities.

A member of the Board of Women of the United Foundation, she is current chairman of the "Heart of Gold" awards, a member of the Parents Council of Northwestern University and a past member of the P.T.O. Board of Bloomfield Hills Schools.

The Adams were founder-chairmen of the Meadow Brook Theatre in 1967. They are promotions chairmen of the Meadow Brook Music Festival and members of the President's Club of Oakland University.

Active in hospital work as a member of St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital Auxiliary, Mrs. Adams is also an astute businesswoman. She is a member of the Board of the Wajim Corporation, a large, national, locally-based real estate firm.

A lifelong resident of Michigan, Mrs. Adams attended Duke University in North Carolina where she was an honor student.

SENATE APPROVES PROPOSALS

The OU Senate has approved proposals to establish a Center for Community and Human Development, to grant four credits for armed forces service and to grant credits for selected institute and course work completed in service. The actions came at the Senate's Thursday, April 12 meeting.

In addition, first readings were given proposals to establish Master of Arts in Teaching in Early Childhood Education and Master of Arts in History degrees. The programs were eligible for final vote at the Thursday, April 19 meeting. A recommendation for a new system of internal governance for OU was scheduled to receive its first reading at the Senate's April 19 meeting.

Three student representatives were seated at the session. They were Rick Lind, James Sherry and Jerome Solomon.

UNIVERSITY RECEIVES $8,500 FROM MACOMB COUNTY GROUP

Pres. Donald D. O'Dowd has announced receipt of an $8,500 check from the OU Scholarship Committee for Macomb County. The volunteers have now contributed $81,742 to the institution over a ten year period, Pres. O'Dowd said.

The committee organizes the yearly Macomb Town Hall programs and presented Lou Gordon, Ray Bolger and Celeste Holm during the current series. Records show that 455 OU students from Macomb County have benefited from the fund. Current president of the committee is Mrs. Robert (Betty) Kimber of St. Clair Shores.

BOARD MEETING RESCHEDULED

The OU Board of Trustees meeting originally scheduled for Wednesday, April 25, has been rescheduled for Wednesday, May 2 at 8 p.m. in the Gold Room, Oakland Center.

MEADOW BROOK ANNOUNCES JAZZ-POPULAR SERIES

Eight of the world's most celebrated jazz and swing music attractions are scheduled for the Friday night Jazz-Popular Series at Meadow Brook Music Festival this summer, according to W. W. Kent, managing director of the Festival.

*Duke Ellington will open the Jazz-Popular Series on June 29.

*Ella Fitzgerald will headline the Friday concert on July 6.

*"The King of Swing," Benny Goodman, will appear with his sextet for the first time at the Festival on July 13.

*Stalwart favorites of jazz buffs, the Preservation Hall Jazz Band, will be featured at the Festival on July 20.

*Sarah Vaughan will be the guest artist on July 27.

*Patti Page makes her Meadow Brook Festival debut on August 3. Rocky Cole will conduct the orchestra for her Meadow Brook appearance.

*Another first at Meadow Brook will be the program of Music Made Famous by Glenn Miller. This attraction re-creates the memorable sounds of the big band era on August 10. The evening will feature in person former Glenn Miller singers "Tex" Beneke, Ray Eberle, and The Modernaires with Paula Kelly.

*Pete Fountain, whose triumphant concert at last year's Festival resulted in a completely sold-out house, returns on popular demand on August 17. Pete's exciting evening of jazz will conclude the Friday night series.

*Victor Borge will make his Meadow Brook debut on Sunday, August 19. The affable, gifted Dane will blend his talents into an evening of comedy and music for a gala conclusion to the 1973 Meadow Brook Music Festival on the final Sunday.

INSTITUTES IN EDUCATION TO BE IN GREAT BRITAIN Two graduate study institutes in education will be held in Great Britain June 16 -July 13 under auspices of the OU School of Education.

The institutes, which will offer eight credits, will run concurrently. "Psychological and Philosophical Implications of Learning Theories and Practices" will be taught by Edward Bantel, professor of education and psychology. The second Institute, "Informal Education-A Second Look" will be taught by Harry Hahn, professor of education. For information on costs and program details, contact Professor Hahn at 377-3060.

RENAISSANCE ENSEMBLE
PRESENTS TOURING CONCERTFresh from performances on college campuses in Ohio, the OU Renaissance Ensemble will perform its touring concert on Monday, April 30 at 8 pm in Varner Recital Hall.
The program will feature Renaissance music from France, Germany, Italy and England.The concert is free and sponsored by the Department of Music.

EKLUND ELECTED
NUEA PRESIDENT-ELECTDr. Lowell R. Eklund, dean of Continuing Education at OU, was honored by his professional colleagues by being elected president-elect of the National University Extension Association (NUEA) at the annual convention in Omaha, April 15-18. Eklund loined the staff of Oakland University when it was organized in 1958 as Michigan State University, Oakland.

ACADEMY AUDITIONSApplications now are being accepted from aspiring young actors seeking entrance toBEGIN THIS WEEKOU's Academy of Dramatic Art to train for careers in the professional theatre.

Annual competitive auditions will be held Saturday, April 28 and Sunday, April 29 in the Academy's Studio Theatre, Varner Hall, and in the weeks to follow in New York, San Francisco and Chicago.

The sole requirement for acceptance into the Academy is a natural talent for acting. While the minimum educational requirement for entry is a high school diploma or its equivalent, the more mature student derives the most benefit from the two-year training course.

To obtain an audition application, write to the Administrative Director, Academy of Dramatic Art, Oakland University, Rochester, Mi 48063.

DUMAS CHOSEN FOR
NSF SUMMER INSTITUTEJoseph Dumas, assistant professor of psychology at OU, is one of 30 professors chosen nationwide to attend a National Science Foundation summer institute in "Computer Science in Social and Behavioral Science Education."

The five-week institute will be held starting June 25 at the University of Colorado in Boulder. More than 400 faculty members applied for the prestigious institute.

SINGER, NAIDU APPEAR ON LOU GORDON SHOW Philip Singer, acting chairman of Allport College, and Jamesie Naidu, indigenous heater of Guyana, appeared on Channel 50's Lou Gordon Show, Saturday, April 21. Naidu had visited the OU campus to address Allport's Introduction to Behavioral Sciences (AC 102) and Ethnopsychiatry courses.

THEATRE SEASON ENDS WITH "COUNT DRACULA"

A chilling adaptation of an enduring Gothic tale called Dracula will open at Meadow Brook Theatre on Thursday, April 26 at 8:30 p.m. Based on the ancient and universal myth that vampires, creatures neither truly alive nor really dead, subsist on human blood, the Count Dracula legend has been the subject of drama and superstitution since the 15th century.

A special midnight performance is planned for Friday, May II if enough reservations are received. Call 377-3300 for more information.

SIX STUDENTS RECEIVE ART SHOW AWARDS

Recipients of awards in the student art exhibition held in Meadow Brook Art Gallery recently are Arthur Y. Moy (painting), sophomore; Steven A. Morris (painting), junior; Mrs. Robert Will Pieri (painting), June 1973 graduate; Ronald Frederick Weinstein (painting), April 1973 graduate; Sandra Ayrault (sculpture), independent study; and Thomas A. Chapman (sculpture), April 1973 graduate. The students were chosen by a panel of guest jurors including Douglas James of Lawrence Institute of Technology; Ellen Phelan of Wayne State University; and Martin Puryear of Fisk University in Nashville, Tenn.

UNIVERSITY HOSTS YOUTH ORCHESTRA CAMP

The Detroit Symphony Youth Orchestra Camp will be held at OU July 3-16, Raynold Allvin, director of OU's summer music programs, has announced. The camp provides young musicians with orchestral and chamber music experience and with a foundation in music theory.

The camp is open to all musicians whether or not they are members of the Detroit Symphony Youth Orchestra during the regular season. The program will be held at the same time as the Meadow Brook Music Festival. Students will have ready access to rehearsals of the Detroit Symphony and private lessons may be arranged. Campus residence and commuter options are available. Inquiries should be directed to Allvin at 377-2030.

LIBRARY RECEIVES BOOKS FROM DONOR

Through the concerted efforts of William C. Bryant, associate professor of Spanish, the University Library is the recipient of some 600 books and journals primarily in the area of philology with an emphasis on romance languages and linguistics. The donor is Ms. Frances (Georges) Owens of St. Louis, Mo. The collection was valued at $600.00 by Joseph Schraibman, Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.

LAW FOR TEACHERS OFFERED Teachers attending OU are getting an indepth look at issues ranging from tort responsibility and liability, tenure, board-teacher relations, bargaining and negotiations to bussing and parochiaid, malpractice and dress codes in an innovative course which is one of only a handful being offered in universities across the country. The course is a departure from the traditional school law course which has for some time been offered by many universities to school administrators.

Law and the Public School Teacher (ED 585), is team taught by Roderic E. Righter, OU associate professor of education, and Robert Weinbaum, attorney for General Motors Corporation and a recently appointed adjunct associate professor of education at OU.

ADDITIONAL COURSES OFFERED Five courses have been added to the Spring-Summer sessions. Spring courses include: Urban Sociology (SOC 260), 7-10 p.m., T, Th, Medalia and Gold; Intro to Latin America (AS 068), 1-2:15 p.m. M-F, McArdle; Modern Physics (PHY 371), 9:30-10:45 a.m., M-F, Liboff. Summer courses include: Intro to Social Psychology (UC 054), 1-2:15 p.m., M-F; and Sociology of Crime and Punishment (SOC 221), 1-2:15 p.m., M-F. For further information call 377-4010.

SOCIAL STUDIES PRACTICUM FEATURES UTILIZATION OF
GREENFIELD VILLAGE, MUSEUMThe OU School of Education in joint cooperation with the adult education department of the Edison Institute will offer a Practicum in the Social Studies: The Utilization of Greenfield Village and other Resources for Creative Teaching (ED 588) in September for the first time. Roderic Righter, associate professor of education, and education for Greenfield Village, are course coordinators.

Information meetings outlining the full particulars will be held Thursday, May 10 at 4:30 p.m. in Lovett Hall adjacent to the Village and Thursday, May 17 at 4:30 p.m. in 205 Varner Hall.

Participants will study and utilize the extensive collections and resources in the Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum. In addition they will have an opportunity to study one area in depth and also become actively involved in crafts. The course which is applicable to the MAT-elementary degree will have one instructor for every ten students. The eight credit course will run through the end of May and is limited to an enrollment of 50.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Tuesday April 24

Wednesday April 25	12 noon 4PM	Cartoon Series, Abstention JSA, 69 OC
Thursday April 26	8:30PM	Opening Night, Meadow Brook Theatre, COUNT DRACULA
Friday April 27		Golf, Alma College Tournament, Alma Meadow Brook Theatre, COUNT DRACULA
Saturday April 28	9:30AM 1PM 1:30PM 6PM 9:30PM	Golf, Ferris State, Lake Superior, and Wayne, Big Rapids Baseball, Shaw College, home Tennis, Saginaw Valley, away Meadow Brook Theatre, COUNT DRACULA Meadow Brook Theatre, COUNT DRACULA
Sunday April 29	1-4PM 6:30PM	Meadow Brook Hall & Knole Cottage tours Meadow Brook Theatre, COUNT DRACUL A
Monday April 30	12 noon 3PM 7:30-11:30PM 8PM	Golf, Saginaw Valley College, Bay City Tennis, Ferris State College, away Israeli Coffee House, Abstention Renaissance Ensemble, Varner Recital Hall

CAMPUS TICKET OFFICE

Metro Passbooks	Hilberry and Bonstelle Theatre tickets
Entertainment '73	Meadow Brook Tickets
Masonic Temple events	SET tickets

BOOKSTORE PURCHASES

Effective May I, purchases made at the University Bookstore must be paid for in cash or by use of the BankAmericard or Master Charge credit cards. Personal charge privileges will no longer be extended.

GUEST LOT OPENED tered parking. The lot will not be open to faculty, staff or students. The OU parking commission has approved the opening of a guest only lot. The lot

HALL SCHEDULES
MIGHIGAN WEEK DINNERA Stately Dinner at Meadow Brook Hall on Friday, May 18 will carry out a Michigan
Week theme with Michigan food and wines plus entertainment by the Northern Hi-Lites, Michigan's number one barbershop quartet. Reservations for the evening are being taken at 377-3120.

INTRAMURAL SOFTBALL, TENNIS
GROUPS BEING ORGANIZEDMen's and coed slow pitch softball leagues are now being organized. All spring students, students returning in the fall, faculty and staff are eligible. Team rosters may be picked up at the sports and recreation building. They must be returned byTuesday, May I at 5 p.m.A captains meeting will be held Wednesday, May 2 at 3 p.m. in the multi-purpose room.

Intramural tennis for spring students, students returning in the fall, faculty and staff is also being organized. Events will include men's singles and doubles, women's singles and doubles, and mixed doubles. Forms are available in the sports and recreation building and are due by Wednesday, May 2 at 5 p.m. A meeting will be held Thursday, May 3 at 3 p.m. in the multi-purpose room.

COMMUTER COUNCIL ELECTION

The following students have been elected to the Commuter Council: Rick Lind, Marc Abel, Harry Cleaver, Bruce D. Campbell, Don Carr, Rick Bernstein, Timothy J. Garback, Tim Dawson, David Allwardt, Ed Michalski, Bev Stutzman, Charles Buckerfield, Don

Johnson, Joette Kunse, Bruce Stone, and Jack Warren. Bruce Campbell has been elected as the president of Commuter Council.

LIBRARY HOURS ANNOUNCED

Library hours for the winter term week and term break will be as follows: April 24-26, 8 a.m. midnight; April 27, 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.; April 28-29, closed; April 30, 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.; and May I, Spring hours commence (Mon-Thurs, 8 a.m. - 10 p.m.; Fri., 8 a.m.-5 p.m.; Sat., 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; and Sun., I - 10 p.m.)

CHANGE OF PACE

Jack Wilson, director of residence halls, suggests that campus people as well as visitors will enjoy a splendid view of campus and meeting OU students when dining in the Vandenburg Hall dining room. Hot breakfast priced at $1.00 is served from 7-8:30 a.m. Lunch at $1.35 is from II:15 a.m. to I:45 p.m. Dinner at $1.65 is from 4:30-7 p.m. The menu includes several entrees, a variety of beverages, desserts and a large salad bar.