MORSE GIVES ADDRESS AT FALL CONFERENCE

Donald D. Morse, English, gave the banquet address at the 1974 fall conference on the Undergraduate Curriculum held at Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs, N. Y. The conference was sponsored by the College English Association of Upper New York State.

Morse also participated in a symposium on modern literature at the fall meeting of the Mid-West Modern Language Association (MMLA). His paper, "'Sing Three Songs of Araby': Theme and Allusion in James Joyce's 'Araby'," was discussed as part of a program "From Dream to Nightmare: the Growth of the Grotesque in Modern Literature." During the meeting, Morse was elected to the Advising and Nominating Committee of the MMLA Modern Literature section for 1974-76.

RESEARCH LEAVE PROPOSALS MUST BE SUBMITTED FEB. 21

Applications for research leaves will be accepted from faculty members until 5 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 21. The proposals should be submitted to Lewis N. Pino, director of research and instructional services, at Room 288, Hannah Hall of Science. Additional information may be obtained by calling Pino at 377-3222 or by calling Michael Riley, chairman of the University Research Committee, at 377-2394.

OBEAR CALLS ATTENTION TO OFFICIAL CLASS TIMES

Frederick W. Obear, vice president for academic affairs and provost, reminds the university community that the official starting times for classes differ from those listed in the winter class schedule.

The schedule indicates that classes begin and end on the hour, Obear said.

Actually, one-hour classes begin at 10 minutes past the hour and run for 50 minutes, and two-hour classes also start at 10 minutes past the hour, run for 100 minutes possibly with a break, and end no later than the scheduled ending hour, Obear said.

He noted that classes listed for three and one-half hours are intended to meet for 200 minutes and that 10 minute break should be taken during that class period.

AWARD WINNER GIVES PIANO RECITAL

Joseph Palazzolo, 1974 winner of the $500 Sally Borus Piano Award at Oakland University, will perform a "Winner's Recital" Saturday, Jan. 25, at 8 p.m. in Varner Recital Hall. The public is invited at no charge.

Featured will be works by Bartok, Chopin, Field, Hayden, and Weber. Palazzolo is a sophomore music major from Mt. Clemens. He is studying at OU under the internationally known concert pianist Flavio Varani.

Palazzolo resides at 21154 Hale in Mt. Clemens. His recital follows a day of competition in which pianists will compete for the 1975 Sally Borus Piano Award.

The Sally Borus Award is made possible through private contributions from friends of the university.

MITTRA WILL HOST INDIAN T.V. SPECIAL

Sid Mittra, economics, will host a Saturday, Jan. 25 television special on the music and dances of India. The program will be carried from 10:30 to 11:30 p.m. over station WTVS (Channel 56).

BRACE WILL EVALUATE HISTORY MANUSCRIPT

Richard Brace, history, has been asked by magazine editors to evaluate a manuscript entitled "Eugene Etienne, the Imperialists, and the Coming of the First Moroccan Crisis." The manuscript is being considered for publication in The Historian, the Journal of Phi Alpha Theta.

OU NEWS ADDS STUDENT NEWS PAGES

Due to the current absence of student publications, the OU News is now reporting student news weekly. Donald Fuller, former OU student intern, and Carole Knopp, currently in that position, will coordinate the student pages. Story suggestions concerning students should be made to Knopp at 377-3677 or to Fuller at 377-4296.

NEW ORGANIZATION FILLS PROGRAMMING GAP

The University Events Board (UEB), a new student programming organization designed to substantially increase the numbers and varieties of programs and activities planned for the campus, is now being formed.

Interests in outdoor recreation, travel, arts and crafts, contemporary entertainment, circus, roller derby, creative writing, and mini-courses will be reflected by the UEB. Virtually any other idea not presently being programmed by other groups on campus will be within the realm of this new group.

A steering committee composed of student and Office of Student Organizations and Activities (OSOA) staff have adopted a constitution to enable board member selection to begin.

Applications for officers, committee chairpersons and committee members are available at the OSOA office in Room 48, Oakland Center. For additional information call 377-3580.

STUDENTS PICK LEADERS IN JAN. 27 - 28 ELECTIONS

Students with a valid identification card will have the opportunity to select their candidates for University Congress and Commuter Council and to decide two referendum issues on the Jan. 27 - 28 ballot. The Facilities Use Tax and the Congress Constitution referenda are included on that ballot.

The balloting will take place Monday and Tuesday, January 27 and 28, from 8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Polling areas will be the Oakland Center from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Vandenberg Hall, 4:30 to 6:15 p.m.; and South Foundation Hall, 6:30 to 10 p.m. both days.

Any registered student may cast his/her ballot at the polling area of his/her choice. Any interested students should contact Bob Kollar, Student Allocations Board chairperson at 377-3098 or 377-3739.

The Facilities Use Concept was discussed in open hearings last semester. It basically states that "all employees, students and cultural/athletic programs would be charged, directly or indirectly using an equitable formula based on use, a transportation facilities fee which is defined as: A fee to support institutional costs associated with non-state supported roadway projects or improvements, parking facilities, maintenance and upkeep of parking facilities, and other non-state transportation projects or improvements such as sidewalks, bike trails, subsidy to bus-line facilities, etc."

Passage of the referendum would insure the continuation of undesignated parking. The Facilities Use Concept has already been approved by the University Parking Commission.

The second referendum question concerns a newly written congress constitution. The document has not yet been released for public inspection.

Candidates for the office of University Congress President are Donald Fuller, Thomas Hawn, John Lawton, and John Shacklett.

Eighteen congressional positions must be filled from 32 candidates. Candidates are Jim Bier, Theresa Chiaverotti, Stephen Doyle, Dan Fox, Mark Brown, Richard Clanton, Gary Foster, Donald Fuller, Dale Carpenter, Gerard Donnelly, Gregory Foster, and Thomas Hawn.

Other congressional candidates are Tom Herbertson, Fred Jensen, Christopher McBride, Emanuel Odom, Michael P. Rubino, Raymond Torongeau, Mary Williams, Timothy Ivory, Warren Klope, Savannah McCollum, Marilyn Palliaer, J. Michael Schluchebier, Joseph Van Baal, Mike Jay, John Lawton, Keith Myles, Lori Philo, Joe Thomas, Eric Joseph Williams, and Laurel Wisniewski.

This tentative list of candidates is subject to review by the Election Validation Committee.

A complete list of candidates for positions on Commuter Council was not available as of Thursday, Jan. 16.

VILLAGE PROJECT SETS FUND RAISING GOALS

Raymond Torongeau, Students for the Village president, believes that the Village Project can reach its $10,000 goal by late March if the entire university body will enthusiastically support its fund raising activities this semester.

"We are already two-thirds of the way to our goal. If we can raise the remainder this semester, the pub could begin operating next fall. Visual progress is important to the village so that people will start seeing it as a reality and no longer as simply a concept," Torongeau said.

He said that student directories will be available soon in the Oakland Center at a cost of $1 each. The directories will contain commuter and resident addresses and phone numbers.

The village will also present five showings of the movie "Last Tango in Paris" Thursday, February 6. Student tickets will cost $1.50, non-students $2.50. The profits from this project will be split equally between the Oakland Student Film Society and the Village Project. The film will be shown at noon and 2:30 p.m. in Rooms 125 - 130 of the Oakland Center, at 7 and 9:30 p.m. in Room 201 Dodge Hall, and at midnight in Vandenberg Hall cafeteria.

The Village Project may also be supported by purchasing concession items at Barn Theatre productions.

Interested persons should contact Raymond Torongeau at 377-3888 or Mary Sellner at 377-2245.

WYATT ANNOUNCES ALL-CAMPUS MEETING

Emsley Wyatt, University Congress president, has announced an all-campus meeting to be held Thursday, January 23. Student organization and student government representatives will be present at the 2 p.m. meeting in the South Cafeteria, Oakland Center.

A discussion session with political candidates for congressional positions will be included in the meeting. All students are invited to attend.

CAST SELECTED FOR "HOT L BALTIMORE"

The cast list for the Barn Theatre's next production, "The Hot L Baltimore," has been announced by Tom Aston, director of Student Enterprises.

The play will run March 21, 22, 23, 28, 29, and 30 at the Barn Theatre with curtain time at 8:30 p.m. Tickets will be $1 for students and $2 for non-students.

UYA VOLUNTEER GETS DRUG ABUSE GRANT

A student University Year for ACTION (UYA) volunteer, has been awarded an $80,000 grant from the Michigan Department of Social Services. The grant will be used to establish and maintain a substance abuse, treatment and prevention program at the North Oakland County YMCA in Pontiac. The grant recipient is Joseph Therrien, 29, who entered the UYA program last May doing outreach work at the Pontiac YMCA.

The grant will be used for the YMCA program Therrien designed for the purpose of dealing with alcohol and drug abuse among Pontiac's low-income youngsters.

Therrien's program will begin Monday, Feb. 3. It is unlike others because there is no minimum age requirement for treatment, and it does not require parental signatures before minors may be treated.

Therrien describes the program as "non directive" in that counselors will not preach or lecture clients, but rather will encourage them to participate in planning activities so that they will be making their own decisions in dealing with their problems.

Therrien also hopes that the project can be extended to the community through projects such as field trips and city clean-ups.

Twelve other UYA volunteers will work with Therrien in the program. Therrien, a Southfield resident, will graduate from Oakland this May with an M.A. in guidance and counseling.

DOW WRITES REVIEW FOR ANTHROPOLOGY JOURNAL

James Dow, anthropology, has published a review of Frank Cancian's book, Change and Uncertainty in a Peasant Economy: The Mayan Corn Farmers of Zinacantan, in the Dec., 1974 issue of the American Anthropologist.

WHITE WILL EDIT WALT WHITMAN EDITION

William White, speech communication, has been invited to edit a special Walt Whitman number of the Poetry Review Quarterly, printed in Ambala City, Haryana State, India.

In addition to editing the Walt Whitman Review, his recent articles include: "Chandler | Marguand | Fitzgerald | West," "Not Just Murder: Books, Sex, and Nathanael West," and "Bramah Anthologies Once More," all in Presenting Moonshine; "Advice to Students (from Murat Halstead)," The Quill; and "Louis Ginsberg: A Bookseller on Bookselling" and "Hemingway on a Cuban Postage Stamp," both in American Book Collector. White reports that Kent State University Press has just published Frank Dell Isola's Thomas Merton: A Bibliography in The Serif Series, of which White is the general editor.

His recent activities include a speech on "The News Media and the Public" given at Cranbrook School, Bloomfield Hills.
