TRIO CONCERT: A chamber music concert at 8 p.m. Sunday, November 20, in the Student Center, will be the fourth event of the MSUO lecture-concert series. Appearing with Karl Haas, president of the Detroit Chamber Music Society, will be Gordon Staples, violinist, and Paul Olefsky, cellist. They will play works of Beethoven, Grieg and Dvorak. (Doors open at 7:30 p.m.)

MOVIES: "A Song to Remember," color biography of Chopin, starring Cornel Wilde, Merle Oberon and Paul Muni, will be shown at 8:15 p.m. November 18, and Sunday, November 20, room 156, North Foundation Hall. "Tammy and the Bachelor," color musical comedy of a barefoot country girl who meets a sophisticated city boy, will be shown December 2 and 4. Tickets, 50 cents, are at the Student Center Desk.

WESTERN INSTITUTIONS MEETING: The regular weekly meeting of the Western Institutions staff will be held at noon Monday in the Faculty Dining Room.

S O S CLUB MEETING: All members of the club should try to attend a meeting at 12:30 p.m. Monday in room 141, North Foundation Hall. A decision will be made concerning the club's scholarship award(s).

ADMINISTRATIVE GROUP MEETING: The regular weekly meeting of the administrative group will be at 4 p.m. Monday, room 141, North Foundation Hall, instead of 3.

HOLIDAY VACATION: The University will be closed Thursday, November 24, for Thanksgiving and the following day, Friday, November 25, providing departmental operating requirements are met, Mr. Swanson announces. MSUO will also be closed on Monday, Dec. 26, and Monday, Jan. 2, following Christmas and New Year's Day -- the usual practice when these holidays fall on Sunday.

CALENDAR DETAILS

ADVANCED STUDENT BENEFIT: "Festive Fashions", a style show being sponsored by the S O S Club will be held Tuesday, November 29, in the Student Center. Proceeds will be used to help deserving advanced students who are having financial problems with tuitions.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SHAPIRO WRITES AGAIN: A biography of Richard Henry Dana, Jr. by Mr. Samuel Shapiro will be published soon by the MSU Press, East Lansing. The book is a revision of Mr. Shapiro's dissertation at Columbia and emphasizes Dana's political career. One chapter was published last month by American Heritage which will publish a second chapter next year. Mr. Shapiro gave two talks at MSU during the week, has another scheduled for November 29 in Cleveland. March 11-12 he will be chairman of a session for the study of Inter-American Affairs at Grinnell College, Iowa.

HELPING CHILDREN: A planning meeting this week preparing for a conference here Saturday, Feb. 4, was held in collaboration with the state P-TA on: "The Role Parents Can Play in Helping Their Children in School." Chairman is Oakland County School District Director of Instruction Harry Hahn. Parents will be invited to hear teachers and administrators explain good and bad methods of helping with studies.

NEW BROCHURE: The Office of Continuing Education has just published its Winter Term brochure listing 47 courses, 12 more than are currently offered. The office will appreciate any recommendations regarding groups or individuals who should receive this brochure.

EKLUND SPEAKS: "Pursuit of Excellence" will be Mr. Eklund's topic when he addresses the Pontiac Zonta Club December 1. He will speak to the Lake Orion Teachers' Institute on "Education's Fourth Dimension" December 8.

NEW CAFETERIA HOURS: Beginning Monday, November 21, the Student Center Cafeteria is extending its hours to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday and to 6 p.m. on Friday. Resident students will be issued meal tickets for breakfast and dinner. Non-resident students who desire may purchase them also. Mr. Goodwin, room 110, Student Center, can furnish details.

SCHOLARSHIPS: The Foundation Scholarship Committee of MSUO is giving away a Tempest automobile January 16. to provide financial aid for students next year. The committee, headed by Mrs. Ralph T. Norvell, 46 Wenonah Drive, Pontiac, hopes to make $20,000 to $25,000 with the campaign and hopes to have a Student Day during which students will solicit donations in their home towns.

THEATER PARTY: The Faculty-Staff Women's Club is arranging a theater party for the Friday, Jan. 6, 1961, performance of "Sleeping Beauty" by the Royal Ballet (Sadler Wells). For ticket prices and other information, call Ginny McKay, OL 1-0332, preferably before Nov. 23.

BRIDGE CLUB: The monthly bridge club will meet at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 30, at the home of Jean Simmons. Please call her at OL 1-1298 if you plan to attend. The date of the meeting was changed to avoid interfering with Thanksgiving plans.

REMINDER: Square Dance, 8:30 p.m., Friday, Nov. 18 (75 cents per couple) in the Student Center. Beginners are solicited.

EXTRA! EXTRA! So many faculty wives have requested that the Staff Bulletin be brought home to them that the "press run" has been increased to provide these extra copies. Please take a copy to keep in your office and another to take home.
