

Friday, May 17, 2002

Student organization receives award

The Oakland University Chapter of the Society for Human Resource Management recently received a Superior Merit Award for its activities during the 2001-2002 school year. This is the 10th consecutive year the group has been recognized by its national organization with either a Merit or Superior Merit Award.

The professionally oriented group exposes students to a variety of human resource-related issues. During fall and winter semesters, industry speakers visit campus and discuss a wide range of topics. There also are opportunities to attend state and national conferences.

The organization's local sponsoring group is the Human Resource Association of Greater Detroit. Professor Lizabeth Barclay is the group's faculty adviser.

SUMMARY

The Oakland University Chapter of the Society for Human Resource Management recently received a Superior Merit Award for its activities during the 2001-2002 school year. This is the 10th consecutive year the group has been recognized by its national organization with either a Merit or Superior Merit Award.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Friday, May 17, 2002
Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Friday, May 17, 2002
Article Start Date: Friday, September 12, 2003