Grizz Store now offers online catalog

Golden Grizzlies fans near and far now can order merchandise boasting their favorite team through The Grizz Store order form available online.

OU merchandise including sweatshirts, water bottles and baseball caps are available through the online catalog.

The order form can be printed from the Web site, then mailed or faxed to The Grizz Store, where orders will be shipped within one or two days. Delivery time depends on the location, but purchases should arrive within a week.

"We're making it easy for our alumni who live too far away to stop by, but we also want to make it easy for students who may not have time in their busy schedule. They can shop at night, or whenever they get a minute," said Denise McGee, Grizz Store manager and assistant athletic director for operations

If the site is well received, McGee plans to expand the online selection.
