

Thursday, January 16, 2003

In the Company of Writers Published

In the Company of Writers, an anthology of selected writings by fellows of the 2001 summer institute, has been published by Teacher's Choice Press. Dianne Bogdan spearheaded this commercial publication on behalf of her institute colleagues.

Clark Iverson and David Calonne of the 2002 institute are editing the next edition of what we hope will be a long series of volumes showcasing the writing that teachers do as an essential part of the summer institute experience. This multi-genre collection includes personal narratives, poems, sketches, position papers, and other types of writing.

In the Company of Writers sells for $10.95 and is available from the publisher as well as from most on-line booksellers such as amazon.com and bn.com. Teacher's Choice Press is an imprint of iUniverse (New York, Lincoln, and Shanghai). In addition to ordering from booksellers on line, you may order copies from them by mail (2021 Pine Lake Road, Suite 100, Lincoln, NE 68512), by phone (1-877-8239235), or by email (custservice@iuniverse.com). The ISBN number is: 0-595-25398-9.

SUMMARY

In the Company of Writers, an anthology of selected writings by fellows of the 2001 summer institute, has been published by Teacher's Choice Press.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Thursday, January 16, 2003

Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Thursday, January 16, 2003

Article Start Date: Monday, July 9, 2007