Popular pianist to speak at scholarship benefit

Bob Milne, best known as the top ragtime and "boogie-woogie" pianist, will speak at the upcoming Macomb Town Hall Lecture Series on Wednesday, Jan. 22, at 11 a.m. at the Ukrainian Cultural Center, 26601 Ryan Road, in Warren.

Milne's performance will benefit the Oakland University Scholarship Committee as part of Macomb County's Macomb Town Hall Lecture-Luncheon Series. The lecture-luncheon series helps support the committee's scholarship program at OU, which has awarded more than $300,000 to deserving Macomb County students. More than 25 percent of the university's population is from Macomb County.

Lecture series tickets are sold in sets of three for $79. This is the second performance of the series. Actress and comedian Vicki Lawrence appeared in October during the first lecture and Rick Bloom, Detroit News financial columnist, one of the top 250 financial advisers in the country and partner in Bloom, Bloom & Associates, will speak at the April lecture.
