New event: OU hosts inaugural Spooktacular Halloween series

Oakland University inaugurates a new tradition of Halloween-related activities and carillon recitals on the Elliott Tower Carillon coming up the next two Fridays.

It is the inaugural OU Spooktacular Halloween series

Fridays, Oct. 23 and Oct. 30, 6:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

There will be:

- Trick-or-Treating
- Face painting
- Halloween arts and craft tables
- Costume contest for children and college students with prizes
- Giveaways
- Refreshments of hot and cold cider, donuts, donut holes and caramel apples

All of this will be topped off with a LIVE carillon concert by OU carillonneur Dennis Curry from 7 p.m.-8 p.m.

Everyone is invited to these free events.

PS: Want to show your Oakland University pride this Halloween with a jack-o-lantern of The Grizz?

Download the stencil and carve out the numbers in order from 1-7. This will keep your pumpkin strong while carving out the details in his face.

Social media note:

Share your Halloween and SpOUktacular photos using #ThisIsOU and tag Oakland's handles.
