DSO offering discount tickets to three outstanding performances

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra is offering the Oakland University campus community a discount ticket offer for three of its upcoming performances.

At 8 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 30, and Saturday, Oct. 31, the DSO will celebrate Halloween with spine-tingling film scores by Danny Elfman. Fans are invited to hear pieces from "Batman," "Beetlejuice," "Edward Scissorhands," "The Nightmare Before Christmas" and more.

The concert will feature Conductor Ted Sperling, the Adrian College Concert Choir and boy soprano Bryce Yung. Through this offer, tickets are just $25.

At 8 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 6, and Saturday, Nov. 7, the DSO will turn to "Romantic Schumann," featuring sensational teen violinist Simone Porter, who has quickly become one of classical music's most prominent emerging artists.

Simone will mark her debut appearance with the DSO by performing German romantic composer Max Bruch's beloved Violin Concerto, followed by Schumann's Second Symphony. Andrew Grams will conduct. Tickets through this offer are just $20.

At 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 12, and at 8 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 14, concertmaster Yoonshin Song will join the DSO in performing the exotic melodies of Armenian composer Aram Khachaturian's violin concerto — a masterpiece of 20th century violin repertoire.

For this event Maestro Fabien Gabel will make his Detroit debut with two favorites: Dukas' The Sorcerer's Apprentice and Debussy's stunning La Mer. Through this offer, tickets are just $20

The offer is available online only and it does not apply to previously purchased tickets. This offer may be discontinued at any time due to availability.

To order tickets, visit dso.org, click on the concert date in the performance calendar and click on "Buy Tickets." Enter the promo code "CORP+" and click on "Apply." Then select seats, ensure the applied ticket price is correct and check out. Service fees will be added at check out.
