

MACOMB COUNTY

Oakland University and Advancing Macomb to host Mount Clemens Community Summit

📅 September 20, 2018

SHARE THIS STORY

Oakland University and Advancing Macomb will hold a Mount Clemens Community Summit on Saturday, Oct. 6, 2018 at the Emerald Theatre in Mount Clemens. Mount Clemens residents, community organizations, business owners and their employees are encouraged to attend the Summit to provide input on what they see as crucial improvements needed for the future of Mount Clemens.

“We urge all those with ideas they see as essential for the growth and continued improvement of Mount Clemens to join us at our joint Summit. Their voices and input will be used to shape future projects for our community,” said Julie Dichtel, OU executive director of Macomb County Outreach.

“This is a wonderful opportunity for residents to come together, share their priorities for Mount Clemens and learn what is important to their neighbors. Attendees will participate in a live action survey and have a brainstorming discussion with fellow residents. Preliminary results will be shared at the end of the event,” said Melissa Roy, executive director of Advancing Macomb. She continued, “Our goal is a fun event that will yield valuable feedback from the city’s most important stakeholders – its residents.”

The Summit will take place from 9 a.m. to noon at the Emerald Theatre located at 31 North Walnut Street. Registration is required to attend. Register at www.advancingmacomb.com/summit or call Advancing Macomb at 586-651-0055. Parking is free. Light refreshments will be served.

About Advancing Macomb:

Advancing Macomb is a business and community leadership group led by over 20 top employers, three principal business organizations and the largest higher educational institution in Macomb County, an area encompassing approximately 900,000 residents and 18,000 businesses. Our organization is committed to enhancing local communities by leveraging a unified civic leadership voice throughout the Detroit region.

About Oakland University:

Oakland University is a nationally recognized doctoral research institution located on 1,000 acres in Rochester Hills, Mich. and Auburn Hills, Mich. The University offers 142 bachelor's degrees.

degree programs and 138 graduate degree and certificate programs in arts and science, business administration, education, engineering and computer science, health sciences, medicine and nursing. As one of Michigan's fastest-growing counties, Macomb County has been a significant part of OU's growth and expansion since its founding 60 years ago. In 1991, OU became a partner school at the newly established University Center on Macomb Community College's campus in Clinton Township, Mich. OU opened its Anton/Frankel Center in Mount Clemens, Mich. in 2011. For more information, visit www.oakland.edu/macomb/.

#