Professionalism, Leadership and Advocacy Class Participates in “Be a Light of Hope” Event

The EC 3330 (Professionalism, Leadership and Advocacy) class participated in the “Be a Light of Hope” event in the Oakland Center on Monday, November 18. Oakland University students, faculty and staff were invited to write a hope, wish or dream for 2020 and hang it on a light wall. They were there just as President Ora Hirsch Pescovitz was arriving and were able to get a photo with her.

A common theme in the EC 3330 course is to articulate hopes, wishes and dreams for children, families and educators. They discuss how professionalism, leadership and advocacy can move hopes, wishes and dreams to reality through strategic planning, collaboration and actions.
